Job

Introduction to Job

Part 1: General Introduction

Outline of Job

Job is introduced (1:1–2:13)

- Job is blameless and wealthy (1:1–5)
- Yahweh allows Satan to test Job (1:6–2:10)

Three friends speak to Job (3:1–14:22)

- Eliphaz, Bildad, and ZopharJob replies to each

They speak to him again (15:1–21:34)

- Eliphaz, Bildad, and ZopharJob replies to each

They speak a third time (22:1–31:40)

- Eliphaz and BildadJob replies to each

Elihu speaks to Job (32:1–37:24)

Yahweh answers Job out of the whirlwind (38:1–41:34)

Job is humbled before Yahweh (42:1–6)

Yahweh rebukes Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar (42:7–9)

Yahweh prospers Job again (42:10–17)

What is the Book of Job about?

The Book of Job is about a man named Job who experienced disaster even though he was faithful to Yahweh. Job speaks with three friends and asks why Yahweh lets him experience trials and losses. The book teaches that we cannot understand all of Yahweh's ways, and when we suffer, it is more important to trust Yahweh than it is to understand the reason for the suffering.

How should the title of this book be translated?

The Book of Job is named for Job, the main character in the book. His name is not related to the English word "job." Translators might use the traditional title of "The Book of Job" or just "Job." Or they may choose a clearer title, such as "The Book About Job" or "The Book About a Man Named Job."

Who wrote the Book of Job?

We do not know who wrote the Book of Job. Many people suggest that Moses composed or compiled the book, but it may have been written after the time of Moses.

Part 2: Important Religious and Cultural Concepts

Does sin cause suffering?

When a person sins against Yahweh, it can cause the person to experience suffering. People in the ancient Near East generally believed that a person suffered because they or their ancestors sinned against God. This is what many religions teach. However, the Book of Job shows that a person may suffer even if he or she has not sinned. (See: sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

Were Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar really Job's friends?

Job 2:11 refers to Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar as the friends of Job. But they did not comfort Job. Instead, they tried to persuade Job to say something about God that Job believed was not true. So we might wonder if it is right to translate the word as "friends." They did care about Job and they wanted to help him. However, what they said did not help Job because they did not understand the truth about God.

When did the events in the Book of Job take place?

We do not know when the events in the Book of Job took place. It seems to be set around the time of Abraham and Isaac in the Book of Genesis. However, some verses are similar to ones in the Books of Proverbs and Isaiah, which are set much later.

Part 3: Important Translation Issues

What style of writing is in the Book of Job?

The writer starts and ends the Book of Job by telling what happened to Job in narrative form. He wrote the other parts in poetry form. In the ancient Near East, writers often used poetry to discuss matters of wisdom.

Is the Book of Job difficult to translate?

The Book of Job has many uncommon words and phrases, making parts of it hard to understand translate. For this reason, translators may decide to translate this book after they have translated other books of the Bible. However, since the writer did not connect Job with a specific time or place in history, the translator may decide to translate this book before other Old Testament books.

Job 1

Job 1 General Notes

Structure and formatting

This chapter introduces a story about a man named Job who lives during a time long before the author.

Special concepts in this chapter

Wealth

Job is very rich. During his time, a man's wealth is measured by the number of animals he owns. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Feasts

Job is a very godly man and celebrates Yahweh's provision by having feasts. It must be remembered that Job lives prior to the law of Moses, so his religious practices are different than the Hebrew people after Moses. The events of this book occur about the same time as the life of Abraham. Therefore, this book corresponds more with Genesis 12-50 than the rest of the Old Testament. (See: godly, godliness, ungodly, godless, ungodliness, godlessness and law, law of Moses, law of Yahweh, law of God)

Job's faith

Satan believes that Job's faith is based on Yahweh's blessings. He challenges Yahweh to remove these blessings from Job's life because he thinks that Job will no longer trust in Yahweh if this happens. (See: faith, bless, blessed, blessing and trust, trusted, trustworthy, trustworthiness)

Job 1:1

land of Uz

Possible locations are: (1) a place in ancient Edom east of the Jordan River in modern western Jordan or (2) a place east of the Euphrates River in modern Iran. (See: How to Translate Names)

blameless and upright

The words “blameless” and “upright” share similar meanings and emphasize that Job was a righteous man. Alternate translation: “one who did what was right before God” (See: Doublet)

one who feared God

Alternate translation: “one who honored God” turned from evil

Here evil is spoken of as if it were a place that a person could avoid going to, instead of the doing of evil actions. Alternate translation: “refused to do evil” (See: Metaphor)

Job 1:4

On each son's assigned day, he would give

The word "day" perhaps refers to the day when they celebrated the son's birth. But it at least refers to the idea that the sons each took a turn in holding a feast. Alternate translation: "On each son's birthday, the son would give" or "Each son in turn would give"

he would give ... They would send and call for

"he habitually gave ... They habitually sent and called for "

with them

The word "them" refers to the seven sons and the three daughters but does not include Job.

Translation Words - ULT

- son's
- he would give a feast
- in his house
- and call for

Translation Words - UST

- Job's sons
- in their houses
- a feast
- he would invite

ULT

⁴ On each son's assigned day, he would give a feast in his house. They would send and call for their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

UST

⁴ Job's sons often held feasts in their houses. Whenever each one made a feast, he would invite all his brothers and sisters to come and eat together.

Job 1:5

Job would send ... he would consecrate ... He would rise early in the morning and offer ... he would say

Alternate translation: "he habitually gave ... They habitually sent and called for ... Job habitually sent ... he habitually consecrated ... He habitually rose early in the morning and offered ... he habitually said"

When the days of the feast were over Alternate translation: "When the feast was over" or "After the feast"

Job would send for them

Alternate translation: "Job habitually sent someone to call them to come to him"

he would consecrate them

Here "consecrate" means to ask God to take away any ritual impurities that Job's children might have brought upon themselves as they happily feasted together. Job did this by making sacrifices to God for them.

cursed God in their hearts

Their "hearts" represent their thoughts. Often such thoughts could come unintentionally, without the person wanting to think them. Alternate translation: "cursed God in their thoughts" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- of the feast

- sinned
- He would ask Yahweh

ULT

⁵ When the days of the feast were over, Job would send for them and he would consecrate them. He would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings for each of his children, for he would say, "It may be that my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Job always did this.

UST

⁵ After each celebration, Job would summon them. He would ask Yahweh to purify them from any action they might have committed during their feasting that would make them unacceptable to him. He would get up early in the morning, kill animals, and burn them on the altar {as sacrifices}, one for each {of his children}. {For} Job {always said}, "Perhaps my children have sinned and said something evil about God in their hearts."

- to purify them
- him
- on the altar
- my children

Job 1:6

Then it was the day when

“At the time when” or “One day when.” This is not a specific day but apparently the gathering happened often.

sons of God

This refers to angels, heavenly beings.

to present themselves before Yahweh

Alternate translation: “to stand together before Yahweh as he commanded them to do.”

Yahweh

This is the name of God that he revealed to his people in the Old Testament. See the translationWord page about Yahweh concerning how to translate this.

Translation Words - ULT

- the sons
- of God

ULT

⁶ Then it was the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh. Satan also came with them.

UST

⁶ {One} day, the angels came and gathered together in front of Yahweh, and Satan came, too.

Job 1:7From wandering on the earth, from going back and forth on it

The phrases “wandering” and “going back and forth” refer to the activity of traveling all over the earth in order to emphasize its completeness. Alternate translation: “From going everywhere on the earth” (See: Parallelism and Merism)

Translation Words - ULT

- Yahweh
- Yahweh

Translation Words - UST

- Yahweh
- I

ULT

⁷ Yahweh said to Satan, “From where have you come?” Then Satan answered Yahweh and said, “From wandering on the earth, from going back and forth on it.”

UST

⁷ Yahweh asked Satan, “Where have you just come from?” Satan replied, “I have come from the earth, where I been traveling back and forth {to see what is happening}.”

Job 1:8

Have you considered my servant Job?

“Have you thought about my servant Job?” Here God is beginning to talk with Satan about Job. Alternate translation: “Consider my servant Job” (See: Rhetorical Question)

a blameless and upright man

The words “blameless” and “upright” share similar meanings and emphasize that Job was a righteous man. See how you translated this in Job 1:1. Alternate translation: “one who did what was right before God” (See: Doublet)

one who fears God

“one who honors God.” See how you translated this in Job 1:1.

Translation Words - ULT

- Yahweh
- Have you considered
- my servant
- Job
- God

Translation Words - UST

- Yahweh
- you noticed
- Job
- who
- worships me

ULT

⁸ Yahweh said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and turns from evil.”

UST

⁸ Yahweh said to Satan, “Have you noticed Job, {who worships me}? No one else on earth honors me and lives in such a right way as he does. He always refuses to do anything evil.”

Job 1:9

Does Job fear God without reason?

“Does Job respect God for no reason?” Satan responds to God by presenting and answering his own question. He says that Job obeys God only because God blesses him. Alternate translation: “Job has a reason for obeying God.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- Yahweh
- Job
- Does...fear
- God

Translation Words - UST

- Yahweh
- but Job
- honors you only
- him

ULT

⁹ Then Satan answered Yahweh and said, “Does Job fear God without reason?”

UST

⁹ Satan replied to Yahweh, “What you say is true, but Job honors you only because of what you have done for him.”

Job 1:10Have you not put a barrier around him, around his house, and around all that is his from every side

Satan states the facts to support his argument. Alternate translation: "You have protected him, his family and everything he owns" (See: Rhetorical Question) put a barrier around him, around his house, and around all that is his from every side

Just as a barrier such as a wall or a hedge surrounds and protects one's land, God has surrounded Job with his protection. Alternate translation: "protected him and his house and all that is his" (See: Metaphor)

the deeds of his hands

Alternate translation: "everything that he does" his cattle have burst forth in the land

Alternate translation: "he has more and more livestock in the land"

Translation Words - ULT

- his house
- You have blessed
- of his hands

Translation Words - UST

- his family
- make him succeed
- and he has very much

ULT

¹⁰ Have you not put a barrier around him, around his house, and around all that is his from every side? You have blessed the deeds of his hands, and his cattle have burst forth in the land.

UST

¹⁰ You have always protected him, his family, and everything he owns. You make him succeed in whatever work he tries to do, and he has very much livestock all over his land.

Job 1:11But now stretch out your hand and touch all that he has, and see if he does not curse you to your face

Satan means that if God attacks Job, he will see how Job responds.
Alternate translation: "But now, if you stretch out your hand and touch all that he has, you will see that he will curse you to your face"

But now stretch out your hand

Here "hand" refers to God's power to act. "But now use your power" (See: Metonymy)

touch all that he has

Here "touch" represents the action of harming or destroying. Alternate translation: "attack all that he has" or "destroy all that he has" (See: Metonymy)

Job 2:3

General Information:

This verse is the same as Job 1:8, except for the addition of “He still holds fast to his integrity, although you misled me against him, to destroy him without cause.”

Have you considered my servant Job?

This rhetorical question actually makes a statement. See how you translated this in Job 1:8. Alternate translation: “Consider my servant Job.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

a blameless and upright man

The words “blameless” and “upright” share similar meanings and emphasize that Job was a righteous man. See how you translated a similar phrase in Job 1:1. Alternate translation: “one who did what was right before God” (See: Doublet)

one who fears God and turns away from evil

⁷ So Satan left, and he caused Job to suffer with very painful boils, from the top of his head to the bottom of his feet.

Job 2:8

a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself

The scraping scratches the skin to lessen the itch.

sat down in the middle of ashes

This probably refers to a place where trash and garbage were dumped and perhaps burned. Sitting in such a place was a sign of deep mourning. Alternate translation: "sat on the trash heap" (See: Euphemism and Symbolic Action)

ULT

⁸ Job took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself with, and he sat down in the middle of ashes.

UST

⁸ Job took a piece of broken pottery and scraped the boils on his skin, and he sat in ashes to mourn and wail.

Job 2:9

Do you still hold fast to your integrity?

This rhetorical question represents a statement. Alternate translation: "You should not still be holding fast to your integrity." (See: Rhetorical Question)

UST

⁹ His wife said to him, "Are you still trying to be loyal to God? You should curse God, and then go ahead and die."

Job 2:10

You talk as a foolish woman

Alternate translation: "You talk the way a stupid woman talks"

Should we receive the good from God and not receive the bad?

This rhetorical question represents a statement. Alternate translation: "We should certainly receive the bad from God as well as the good." (See: Rhetorical Question) receive the good

Alternate translation: "benefit from all the good things" the good

This represents all the good things that God gives us. (See: Generic Noun Phrases) receive the bad

Alternate translation: "suffer all the bad things without complaining"

the bad

This represents all the bad things that God makes or allows us to experience. (See: Generic Noun Phrases) sin with his lips

Here "lips" represents the act of speaking. Alternate translation: "sin by speaking against God" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- Job
- sin

Translation Words - UST

- But Job
- God
- offend God

ULT

10 But he said to her, "You talk as a foolish woman talks. Should we receive the good from God and not receive the bad?" In all this matter, Job did not sin with his lips.

UST

10 But Job replied, "You talk like people talk who do not know God. We should not only accept the good things that God does for us. We should also accept the bad things." So in spite of all these things that happened to Job, he did not offend God by saying anything against him.

Job 2:11

Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite

Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar are men's names. Teman was a city in Edom. Shuhites are the decedents of Abraham and Keturah. Naamah was a city in Canaan. (See: How to Translate Names) set a time

Alternate translation: "agreed on a time" to mourn with him and to comfort him

Here the words "mourn with" and "comfort" share similar meanings. The friends try to comfort Job by mourning with him. Alternate translation: "to grieve with Job in order to help ease his suffering" (See: Doublet)

UST

¹¹ Among Job's friends were Eliphaz from the town of Teman, Bildad from the land of Shuah, and Zophar from the land of Naamah. When they heard about all the terrible things that had happened to Job, they left their homes and went together to Job to mourn with him and to comfort him.

Job 2:12they lifted up their eyes

This is an idiom that means “they looked intently” or “they looked carefully.” (See: Idiom)

they did not recognize him

This probably means that Job’s visitors did not recognize him at first, when they saw him at a distance. Job looked very different than usual because of his grief and because of the sores covering his body. Alternate translation: “they barely recognized him”

They raised their voices and wept

Here “raised their voices” is an idiom that means they became loud. Alternate translation: “They wept out loud” or “They wept loudly” (See: Idiom)

tore his robe

This was a sign of mourning. (See: Symbolic Action) threw dust into the air and upon his own head

These were signs of mourning. (See: Symbolic Action)

Job 3:3

May the day on which I was born perish, the night

Job speaks of that day and night as if they were people. Alternate translation: "I wish that I had never been born" (See: Personification) the night that said, 'A boy has been conceived.'

This expression intensifies the statement of Job's grief by going even further back in time from his birth to his conception. Alternate translation: "the night that said, 'A boy has been conceived' perish." (See: Ellipsis)

the night that said

Here the night is spoken of as if it were a person who could speak. The translator may choose, however, to translate it in a less metaphorical way. Alternate translation: "the night about which people said" (See: Personification)

A boy has been conceived

This may be put into active form. Alternate translation: "his mother has conceived a male child"

Translation Words - ULT

- perish

Translation Words - UST

- could be eradicated

ULT

³ "May the day on which I was born perish, the night that said, 'A boy has been conceived.'

UST

³ "I wish that the day when I was born could be eradicated, the night when I was born.

Job 3:4

General Information:

The expressions in these verses are all wishes that the day of Job's birth would no longer exist. This may imply that the day, although in the past, still existed somehow. The UST translates them as expressions of sadness about what that day was like.

May that day be dark ... neither may the sun shine on it

These two clauses describe the darkness of the day of Job's birth, thus repeating Job's regret that he had been born. (See: Parallelism)

May that day be dark

This is a wish for that day to not exist any longer. Alternate translation: "may that day disappear" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- dark
- God
- call it to mind

Translation Words - UST

- dark
- I wish that God
- would forget about

ULT

⁴ May that day be dark; may not God from above call it to mind, neither may the sun shine on it.

UST

⁴ I wish that the day when I was born could have been dark. I wish that God who is in heaven would forget about that day, and that the sun would not have shone on it.

Job 3:5May darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own

Here darkness and the shadow of death are spoken of as if they were people who could claim something as their own possession. The word “it” refers to the day of Job’s birth. (See: Personification)

the shadow of death

Here a shadow represents death itself. Alternate translation: “death like a shadow” (See: Metaphor)

May a cloud live over it

Here a cloud is spoken of as if it were a person who could live over the day of Job’s birth. Alternate translation: “May a cloud cover it so no one can see it” (See: Metaphor) everything that makes the day black

This refers to things that block out the sun’s light and create darkness. Here “black” represents darkness. (See: Metaphor)

terrify it

“terrify that day.” The day is spoken of as if it were a person who could be terrified by the darkness. (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

- May darkness
- claim it for their own

Translation Words - UST

- I wish that thick darkness

ULT

⁵ May darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own. May a cloud live over it; may everything that makes the day black truly terrify it.

UST

⁵ I wish that thick darkness would have filled that day, and that death would have come over it like a shadow and blotted out all light, and caused the people then to be terrified.

Job 3:6

may thick darkness seize it

This darkness is again spoken of as if it were a person who could grasp and hold the night. Alternate translation: “may thick darkness make it disappear” (See: Personification) thick darkness

Alternate translation: “deep darkness” or “complete darkness”

May it not rejoice

The word “it” refers to the night of Job’s birth or conception. The night of Job’s conception is spoken of as if it were a person who should not rejoice. Alternate translation: “May that night vanish from the calendar” (See: Personification) may it not come into the number

That night is spoken of as if it were a person who could walk. Alternate translation: “may no one count it in the number” (See: Personification)

ULT

⁶ As for that night, may thick darkness seize it. May it not rejoice among the days of the year; may it not come into the number of the months.

UST

⁶ I wish that the night when I was born would be erased from the calendar, that it would never again appear as one night in any month, and that it would not be included in any calendar.

Job 3:7may that night be barren

The night of Job's birth is spoken of as if it were a woman. Alternate translation: "may no child be born on that night" (See: Personification) may no joyful voice come into it

Here that the night of Job's birth is spoken of as if it were a time when it was still possible for someone to be happy. Alternate translation: "may no one hear the happy cry at the birth of a son" (See: Metaphor) joyful voice come

Here the voice stands for a person who is happy. Alternate translation: "may no one be happy in it ever again" (See: Synecdoche)

ULT

⁷ See, may that night be barren; may no joyful voice come into it.

UST

⁷ I wish that no child would again be born on that date, and that no one would again be happy then.

Job 3:8

those who know how to wake up Leviathan

Job is probably referring here to sorcerers and magicians, who he believes might be able to even provoke Leviathan in spreading chaos. Leviathan was an animal well known in Ancient Near Eastern mythology, which was thought to be responsible for all kinds of destruction, disorder, and chaos.

Translation Words - ULT

- curse
- to wake up
- Leviathan

Translation Words - UST

- the great sea monster
- I want them
- to curse

ULT

⁸ May they curse that day, those who know how to wake up Leviathan.

UST

⁸ The magicians who are able to awaken the great sea monster—I want them to curse the day I was born.

Job 3:9

May the stars of that day's dawn be dark

This refers to the planets that are often visible just before dawn. Alternate translation: "May the stars that appear before that day's first light be dark"

May that day look for light, but find none

The day of Job's birth is spoken of as if it were a person looking for something. Alternate translation: "May that day hope for light, but have none" (See: Personification)

neither may it see the eyelids of the dawn

The dawn is spoken of as if it had eyelids as a person has. Alternate translation: "nor see the first light of the dawn" (See: Personification)

ULT

⁹ May the stars of that day's dawn be dark. May that day look for light, but find none; neither may it see the eyelids of the dawn,

UST

⁹ I wish that the stars that shone early in the morning on that day after I was born may not shine again. If only those stars had wished in vain for light to shine, and that they had not shone on that day.

Job 3:10because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb

A woman's womb is spoken of as if it were a container with doors. Alternate translation: "because that day did not close my mother's womb" (See: Metaphor) because it did not hide trouble from my eyes

The day of Job's birth is spoken of here as if it were a person who could hide something. (See: Personification)

from my eyes

Here "eyes" represents the person who sees with them. Alternate translation: "from me" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- the doors

Translation Words - UST

- instead, I was born

ULT

¹⁰ because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb, and because it did not hide trouble from my eyes.

UST

¹⁰ That was an evil day because my mother's womb was not closed; instead, I was born, and I have now experienced all these terrible things.

Job 3:11

General Information:

This passage contains four rhetorical questions, which Job asks in order to really make a series of statements.

Why did I not die when I came out from the womb?

“Why did I not die at birth?” Job poses this question in order to curse the day of his birth and to express his anguish. Alternate translation: “I wish I had died the day I was born” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Why did I not give up my spirit when my mother bore me?

Job means to say that he should not have been born alive. Alternate translation: “I wish I had died when I came out of the womb.” (See: Rhetorical Question) give up my spirit

This refers to dying. (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- when I came out

Translation Words - UST

- out from

ULT

¹¹ Why did I not die when I came out from the womb? Why did I not give up my spirit when my mother bore me?

UST

¹¹ I wish that I had died when I was born; I wish I had perished when I came out from my mother's womb.

Job 3:12

Why did her knees welcome me?

This perhaps refers to the lap of Job's mother. His mother's knees are spoken of as if they were people who could welcome a newborn baby. Alternate translation: "I wish there had been no lap to receive me." (See: Rhetorical Question and Personification)

Why did her breasts receive me so that I should suck?

Job's mother's breasts are spoken of as if they also were people who could welcome a newborn baby. Alternate translation: "I wish there had been no breasts for me to nurse." (See: Rhetorical Question and Personification)

ULT

¹² Why did her knees welcome me? Why did her breasts receive me so that I should suck?

UST

¹² I wish that my mother had never welcomed me. I wish that she had not nursed me at her breasts.

Job 3:13

Job begins talking about what would have been true if he had never been born. (See: Hypothetical Situations)

For now I would have been lying down quietly. I would have slept and been at rest

Job uses two sentences to think about what it would be like if he had never been born or had died at birth. (See: Parallelism and Euphemism)

I would have been lying down quietly

Job imagines something that could have happened in the past but which did not happen, as noted above. Alternate translation: "I should have been lying down quietly" (See: Hypothetical Situations) lying down quietly

Alternate translation: "asleep, resting peacefully"

been at rest

Here the word "rest" means to sleep peacefully, but also that Job would not be experiencing the pain that he does. (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- been at rest

Translation Words - UST

- resting peacefully

ULT

¹³ For now I would have been lying down quietly. I would have slept and been at rest

UST

¹³ If I had died at the time when I was born, I would now be asleep, resting peacefully.

Job 3:14

with kings and counselors of the earth

Alternate translation: "with kings and their advisers"

Translation Words - ULT

- kings
- and counselors
- of the earth

Translation Words - UST

- I would be resting
- kings who
- which are now in

ULT

¹⁴ with kings and counselors of the earth, who built up tombs for themselves that are now in ruins.

UST

¹⁴ I would be resting with kings who built beautiful tombs which are now in ruins, and I would be resting with their officials who have also died.

Job 3:15

Or I would have been lying

This describes something that might have happened but did not happen. (See: Hypothetical Situations)

I would have been lying with princes

“I would be resting with princes.” In this phrase, the words “lying” and “resting” are a polite way of saying “no longer alive.” (See: Euphemism) who once had gold, who had filled their houses with silver

Job uses parallelism to emphasize what he is saying. (See: Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- princes who once had
- gold
- their houses
- with silver

Translation Words - UST

- princes
- whose palaces were
- gold
- and silver

ULT

¹⁵ Or I would have been lying with princes who once had gold, who had filled their houses with silver.

UST

¹⁵ I would be resting with princes who were wealthy, whose palaces were filled with gold and silver.

Job 3:16

I would have been stillborn

Alternate translation: "I would have died in my mother's womb" like infants that never see the light

Alternate translation: "like babies who have never been born" infants

Alternate translation: "babies" or "very small children"

ULT

16 Or perhaps I would have been stillborn, like infants that never see the light.

UST

16 I wish that I had been buried like a child who had died in its mother's womb and never lived to see the light.

Job 3:17General Information:

Job changes his talk from dying to life after death.

There the wicked cease from trouble; there the weary are at rest

Job uses parallelism to emphasize that the lowly will find rest from those causing them hardship. (See: Parallelism)

There the wicked cease from trouble

Job is talking about the place where people go after they stop living. Alternate translation: "In that place, evil people stop causing trouble" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- the weary
- are at rest

Translation Words - UST

- very
- rest

ULT

¹⁷ There the wicked cease from trouble; there the weary are at rest.

UST

¹⁷ After wicked people die, they do not cause any more troubles; those who are very tired now will rest.

Job 3:18

the voice of the slave driver

Here “voice” is a metonym for the power that the slave drivers have over the slaves. Alternate translation: “They are no longer under the control of the slave drivers” (See: Metonymy)

ULT

18 There the prisoners are at ease together; they do not hear the voice of the slave driver.

UST

18 Those who were in prison rest peacefully after they die; they no longer have slave drivers who curse them.

Job 3:19

small and great people

This is a figure of speech which means “all people, both poor people and rich people.” (See: Merism)

the servant is free from his master

A servant is no longer obligated to serve his master.

Translation Words - ULT

- the servant

Translation Words - UST

- were slaves

ULT

19 Both small and great people are there; the servant is free from his master there.

UST

19 Rich people and poor people are alike after they die, and those who were slaves no longer have to obey their masters.

Job 3:20Why is light given to him who is in misery?
Why is life given to the one who is bitter in soul

Job's two questions mean basically the same thing. He is wondering why those who face hardship continue to live. (See: Parallelism)

Why is light given to him who is in misery?

Here Job is wondering why people must stay alive and suffer. Alternate translation: "I do not understand why God gives life to a person who is suffering" (See: Rhetorical Question)

light

Here light represents life. (See: Metaphor)

Why is life given to the one who is bitter in soul

"why does God give life to a miserable person?" Alternate translation: "I do not understand why God gives life to a person who is very unhappy" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- in soul

Translation Words - UST

- very

ULT

²⁰ Why is light given to him who is in misery? Why is life given to the one who is bitter in soul,

UST

²⁰ Why does God allow those who are suffering greatly like me to continue to remain alive? Why does he allow them to live, those who are very miserable?

Job 3:21

to one who longs ... for hidden treasure

This is the end of the question that Job begins asking with the words "Why is life given ... bitter in soul" (verse 20).

to one who longs for death without it coming

Here death is spoken of as if it were an object coming toward someone. Alternate translation: "to a person who no longer wants to be alive, but is still alive" (See: Metaphor) to one who digs for death more than for hidden treasure

A person hoping to die is spoken of as if he were digging for buried treasure. Alternate translation: "to a person who wants to stop living more than he wants to look for hidden riches" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

²¹ to one who longs for death without it coming; to one who digs for death more than for hidden treasure?

UST

²¹ They long to die, but they do not die. They desire to die more than people desire to find hidden treasure.

Job 3:22Why is light given to one who rejoices very much and is glad when he finds the grave

Here Job uses a question to make a statement. Alternate translation: "I do not understand why God allows a person to keep living when the person would be very happy to be buried in the ground" (See: Rhetorical Question) one who rejoices very much and is glad

The phrase "rejoices very much" means basically the same thing as "is glad." Together, the two phrases emphasize the intensity of gladness. Alternate translation: "one who is extremely happy" (See: Doublet)

when he finds the grave

This is a polite way of referring to dying. Alternate translation: "when he is dead and can be buried" (See: Euphemism)

the grave

Here the grave represents death. (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- when he finds the grave

Translation Words - UST

- are buried

ULT

²² Why is light given to one who rejoices very much and is glad when he finds the grave?

UST

²² When they finally die and are buried, they are very happy.

Job 3:23Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, a man whom God has hedged in?

Job asks this question in order to make a statement. Alternate translation: "God should not give life to a man and then take away his future and confine him." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Why is light given to a man

Here light represents life. Alternate translation: "Why does God keep a man alive" (See: Metaphor) whose way is hidden

Here Job speaks of his future, which he does not know in advance, as if God had hidden it from him. (See: Metaphor)

a man whom God has hedged in Here being in difficulties and dangers is spoken of as if it were being confined within narrow limits. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- a man
- God

Translation Words - UST

- why God keeps alive
- anyone

ULT

²³ Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, a man whom God has hedged in?

UST

²³ I do not understand why God keeps alive anyone whom he keeps from being happy, anyone whom he forces to live in misery.

Job 3:24For my sighing happens instead of eating; my groaning is poured out like water

Job expresses his anguish in two ways. (See: Parallelism) my sighing happens instead of eating

Alternate translation: "Instead of eating, I mourn" my groaning is poured out like water

Moral qualities and emotions such as grief are often spoken of as if they were water. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- eating

Translation Words - UST

- I cannot eat

ULT

²⁴ For my sighing happens instead of eating; my groaning is poured out like water.

UST

²⁴ I cry very much; as a result, I cannot eat; I groan as easily as a river flows with water.

Job 3:25

the thing that I feared has come on me; what I was afraid of has come to me

These two phrases mean the same thing. Alternate translation: “what I feared most has happened to me” or “my worst fear has come true” (See: Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- the thing that I feared

Translation Words - UST

- I always worried might happen to me

ULT

²⁵ For the thing that I feared has come on me; what I was afraid of has come to me.

UST

²⁵ Things that I always worried might happen to me—these things have happened to me; things that I always dreaded have come upon me.

Job 3:26

I am not at ease, I am not quiet, and I have no rest

Job expresses his anguish in three separate phrases. Alternate translation: "I am very anxious" or "I am emotionally and physically tormented" (See: Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- and I have...rest

Translation Words - UST

- rest

ULT

²⁶ I am not at ease, I am not quiet, and I have no rest; trouble comes instead."

UST

²⁶ Now I have no peace in my heart; I have no quietness; I cannot rest; instead, I have only troubles."

Job 4

Job 4 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is the advice of Job's friend, Eliphaz.

Special concepts in this chapter

Eliphaz's advice

Eliphaz tells Job to curse Yahweh. The advice Eliphaz gives to Job is bad advice. (See: curse, cursed, cursing)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Eliphaz uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Job that he is wrong. These questions help to form Eliphaz's argument. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 4:1

Eliphaz

Eliphaz is a man's name. (See: How to Translate Names)

Temanite

A Temanite belongs to the tribe of Teman. (See: How to Translate Names)

ULT

¹ Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Eliphaz replied to Job. He said,

Job 4:2

will you be impatient?

Eliphaz asks this question in order to make a statement. Alternate translation: "you will surely be impatient." (See: Rhetorical Question) will you be impatient?

Alternate translation: "will that annoy you?"

But who can stop himself from speaking?

Eliphaz asks this question to say that no one who sees a friend suffering can remain silent. Alternate translation: "No one can restrain himself from speaking (to a friend in such a state as you find yourself)" or "I must speak to you, (seeing that you are in a state of grief)." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

² If anyone tries to speak with you, will you be impatient? But who can stop himself from speaking?

UST

² "Will you please allow me to say something to you? I am not able to remain silent any longer."

Job 4:3See, you have instructed many; you have strengthened weak hands

This verse states a single idea in two different ways. (See: Parallelism) you have strengthened weak hands

Here “weak hands” represents people who need help. Alternate translation: “you have helped others when they needed help” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- you have strengthened
- hands

Translation Words - UST

- and you have encouraged
- it

ULT

³ See, you have instructed many; you have strengthened weak hands.

UST

³ In the past, you have instructed many people, and you have encouraged those for whom it was difficult to trust in God.

Job 4:4

General Information:

The writer uses parallelism in each of these verses to make one idea using two different statements to emphasize: (1) the support that Job has given others in the past, (2) the effect on him of his present troubles, and (3) his piety before God. (See: Parallelism) supported

Someone who has been encouraged is spoken of as if he were kept from falling down. (See: Metaphor) falling

Here becoming discouraged is spoken of as if it were falling down. (See: Metaphor)

you have made feeble knees firm

Here discouragement is spoken of as if it were a person whose weak knees could not keep him upright. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- feeble

Translation Words - UST

- In the past, when you spoke to others who were suffering

ULT

⁴ Your words have supported him who was falling; you have made feeble knees firm.

UST

⁴ In the past, when you spoke to others who were suffering, you helped them; they were able to rejoice again because of God.

Job 4:5

But now trouble has come to you

Here trouble is spoken of as if it were an object that could come to a person. Alternate translation: "But now you suffer from disasters" (See: Metaphor)

you are weary

Alternate translation: "you are discouraged"

ULT

⁵ But now trouble has come to you, and you are weary; it touches you, and you are troubled.

UST

⁵ But now, when you yourself suffer from disasters, you become discouraged. The disasters hit you, and you are stunned.

Job 4:6your fear

Alternate translation: “the fact that you honor God”

Is not your fear your confidence, and the integrity of your ways your hope?

Eliphaz asks these questions in order to tell Job that it is because of his sin that he is suffering. Alternate translation: “Everyone thinks that you honor God; everyone thinks that you are an honest man. But these things must not be true, because you do not trust God any longer.” (See: Rhetorical Question) your fear

Eliphaz means Job’s fear of God. Alternate translation: “your fear of God” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) your ways

Here “your ways” represents “your conduct,” “how you behave.” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- Is...your fear
- your hope

Translation Words - UST

- for him not to let you suffer
- If you really had not sinned, you would have been confident that God would

ULT

⁶ Is not your fear your confidence, and the integrity of your ways your hope?

UST

⁶ You say that you honor God; so you should be trusting in him, for him not to let you suffer. If you really had not sinned, you would have been confident that God would not let these disasters happen to you!

Job 4:7

Who has ever perished when innocent?

Eliphaz uses this question to prompt Job to search his life for sin (and God's righteous judgment) as the cause of his loss. Alternate translation: "No one has ever perished when innocent." (See: Rhetorical Question) when were the upright people ever cut off

This question also means to make a statement, and may be put into active form. Alternate translation: "No one has ever cut off an upright person" (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive) cut off

Here being cut off represents being destroyed. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- has ever perished
- when innocent
- the upright people

Translation Words - UST

- No innocent people
- die
- still young

ULT

⁷ Think about this, please: Who has ever perished when innocent? Or when were the upright people ever cut off?

UST

⁷ Think about this: No innocent people ever die when they are still young! God never kills innocent people!

Job 4:8

plow iniquity ... sow trouble ... reap

Here the actions of plowing and sowing represent causing trouble for other people. The action of reaping represents suffering the trouble that one has himself caused. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- reap it

Translation Words - UST

- starts trouble for others later brings trouble on himself

ULT

⁸ According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow trouble reap it.

UST

⁸ I have seen this happen: if farmers plant bad seeds, they do not harvest good crops; anyone who starts trouble for others later brings trouble on himself.

Job 4:9By the breath of God they perish; by the blast of his anger they are consumed

The writer explains a single idea using two different statements. This is a form of Hebrew poetry used for emphasis, clarity, teaching, or all three. (See: Parallelism)

the breath of God

This may represent the action of God giving a command. (See: Metaphor)

the blast of his anger

This expression suggests the heavy breathing that a person sometimes does through his nose when he is very angry. (See: Metaphor) breath ... blast

The second builds on the first. They make the same point by using meanings that increase the result. "By the puff of God's mouth they die; the rushing wind of his anger devastates them." (See: Metaphor) perish ... are consumed

The second phrase builds on the first. They make the same point. "By the puff of God's breath they die, the rushing wind of his anger devastates them." (See: Active or Passive)

they are consumed

Here being consumed or eaten represents being killed. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- of God
- they perish
- they are consumed

Translation Words - UST

- These people die
- when God
- them to

ULT

⁹ By the breath of God they perish; by the blast of his anger they are consumed.

UST

⁹ These people die when God commands them to, because he is very angry with them.

Job 4:10General Information:

The writer uses parallelism in these verses, conveying a single idea using different statements to emphasize God's destruction of wicked people. (See: Parallelism)

The roaring of the lion, the voice of the fierce lion, the teeth of the young lions—they are broken.

Here a lion's roar, his voice, and his teeth being broken are used as pictures of the wicked being destroyed. (See: Metaphor)

they are broken

This may be put into active form. Alternate translation: "something breaks them" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- of the lion

Translation Words - UST

- Even though wicked people may be very powerful

ULT

¹⁰ The roaring of the lion, the voice of the fierce lion, the teeth of the young lions—they are broken.

UST

¹⁰ Even though wicked people may be very powerful like young lions, God destroys them.

Job 4:11

The old lion perishes for lack of victims; the cubs of the lioness are scattered everywhere

Eliphaz uses the picture of an old lion dying of hunger and of a lion's family being scattered as metaphors for the wicked being destroyed.

the cubs of the lioness are scattered

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "something scatters the cubs of the lioness" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- old
- perishes
- the cubs of the lioness

Translation Words - UST

- Their children will scatter
- from each other like
- young lions

ULT

¹¹ The old lion perishes for lack of victims; the cubs of the lioness are scattered everywhere.

UST

¹¹ They will die like older lions that starve to death when there are no animals left to eat. Their children will scatter from each other like young lions that separate from each other to find food.

Job 4:12

Now a certain matter was secretly brought to me ... my ear received a whisper about it

These phrases express the same idea in a different way. They convey the idea that Eliphaz heard a message whispered to him. This repetition is a form of Hebrew poetry used frequently for emphasis, teaching, or clarity. (See: Parallelism)

ULT

¹² Now a certain matter was secretly brought to me, and my ear received a whisper about it.

UST

¹² I heard a message that someone came and whispered to me.

Job 4:13

visions in the night

Alternate translation: "dreams"

when deep sleep falls on people

Alternate translation: "when people sleep very deeply"

ULT

¹³ Then came thoughts from visions in the night, when deep sleep falls on people.

UST

¹³ He spoke to me at night when I was having a bad dream that disturbed me.

Job 4:14

General Information:

The writer uses parallelism in these verses, conveying a single idea using different statements to emphasize Eliphaz's fear. (See: Parallelism)

fear and trembling came upon me

Here fear and trembling are spoken of as if they were objects that could come to a person. Alternate translation: "I began to be afraid and to tremble" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- It was at night when fear

Translation Words - UST

- be afraid

ULT

¹⁴ It was at night when fear and trembling came upon me, and all my bones shook.

UST

¹⁴ It caused me to be afraid and tremble; it caused all my bones to shake.

Job 4:15

the hair of my flesh stood up

This indicates great fear.

the hair of my flesh

Alternate translation: "the hair on my body"

Translation Words - ULT

- Then a spirit
- my face
- of my flesh

Translation Words - UST

- A ghost
- face
- the back of my neck

ULT

¹⁵ Then a spirit passed before my face, and the hair of my flesh stood up.

UST

¹⁵ A ghost glided past my face and caused the hair on the back of my neck to stand straight up.

Job 4:16

General Information:

The writer uses parallelism in verse 17, conveying a single idea using two different statements to emphasize a question about the purity of man before God. (See: Parallelism)

A form was before my eyes

Alternate translation: "Something was before my eyes," "I saw something" and I heard

Alternate translation: "then I heard"

Translation Words - ULT

- The spirit stood still

Translation Words - UST

- like

ULT

16 The spirit stood still, but I could not discern its appearance. A form was before my eyes; there was silence, and I heard a voice that said,

UST

16 It stopped, but I could not see what it really looked like. But I knew that there was some being in front of me, and it said in a quiet voice, Job 4:17Can a mortal man be more righteous than God?

Eliphaz poses this question so that Job will consider, "Do I regard myself as more righteous than God?" or "Am I justified before God?" Alternate translation: "A mortal man cannot be more righteous than God." or "A mortal man cannot be righteous before God." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

This question has the same purpose as the previous question. Alternate translation: "A man cannot be more pure than his Maker." or "A man cannot be pure before his Maker." (See: Rhetorical Question) his Maker

Alternate translation: "his Creator"

Translation Words - ULT

- be more pure

Translation Words - UST

- can be better than God

ULT

¹⁷ "Can a mortal man be more righteous than God? Can a man be more pure than his Maker?"

UST

¹⁷ 'No human being can be more righteous than God. No man can be better than God, who made him.

Job 4:18

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- if God puts...trust

Translation Words - UST

- is right

ULT

¹⁸ See, if God puts no trust in his servants; if he accuses his angels of folly,

UST

¹⁸ God cannot be sure that his own angels will always do what is right; he declares that some of them have done wrong.

Job 4:19those who live in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust

This is a figurative way of describing human beings, who were created out of the dust of the earth and whose bodies are like houses, which are made of clay and have dirt foundations. (See: Metaphor) who are crushed sooner than a moth

Possible meanings for this metaphor are: (1) "who God destroys as easily as he crushes a moth" or (2) "whose lives are as short as the life of a moth." (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- in the

Translation Words - UST

ULT

¹⁹ how much more is this true of those who live in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed sooner than a moth?

UST

¹⁹ So he certainly cannot trust human beings whom he has made from dust and clay, human beings, whom disaster crushes as easily as you can crush a moth!

Job 4:20

General Information:

These verses continue the earlier use of parallelism, here emphasizing in different ways the idea that people die suddenly without having achieved wisdom and without concern from others. (See: Parallelism)

Between morning and evening they are destroyed

This refers to the idea of something happening quickly. (See: Metaphor)

they are destroyed

This may also be put into active form. Alternate translation: “they die” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- they perish

Translation Words - UST

- even pays attention

ULT

²⁰ Between morning and evening they are destroyed; they perish forever without anyone noticing them.

UST

²⁰ People are sometimes in good health in the morning, but by the evening they are dead. They are gone forever and no one even pays attention.

Job 4:21

Are not their tent cords plucked up among them?

This may be put into active form. Alternate translation: "Have not their enemies plucked up their tent cords from among them?" (See: Rhetorical Question) their tent cords

Here tent cords represent a tent. Sometimes a person's home and family are pictured as his tent, which can also represent all his possessions. (See: Synecdoche and Metaphor)

ULT

²¹ Are not their tent cords plucked up among them? They die; they die without wisdom.

UST

²¹ Their families and possessions are like tents that collapse suddenly when you pull up their stakes; they perish suddenly without anyone ever knowing why."

Job 5

Job 5 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of the advice of Job's friend, Eliphaz.

Special concepts in this chapter

Eliphaz's advice

Eliphaz tells Job to curse Yahweh. The advice Eliphaz gives to Job is bad advice. (See: curse, cursed, cursing)

Sickness and sin

In the ancient Near East, it was common to believe that a person's illness was caused by sin. It was seen as the punishment of a god. While Yahweh may punish people because of their sin, not all sicknesses are caused by sin. (See: believe, believer, belief, unbeliever, unbelief and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Eliphaz uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Job that he is wrong. These questions help to build Eliphaz's argument. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 5:1

To which of the holy ones will you turn?

Eliphaz poses this question to make the point that there is no one Job can turn to for help. Alternate translation: "Is there a holy one to whom you may turn?" or "There is no holy one to whom you can turn for help." (See: Rhetorical Question)

holy ones

This refers to supernatural beings of some kind, whether angels or other spirits.

Translation Words - ULT

- now
- will answer you

Translation Words - UST

- will stop you
- to you

ULT

¹ Call out now; is there anyone who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn?

UST

¹ "Job, no one will stop you from calling out for someone to help you, but I am certain that no angel will come to you!"

Job 5:2

jealousy kills the silly one

Alternate translation: "jealousy kills anyone who acts ignorantly and impulsively"

the silly one any silly person (See: Generic Noun Phrases)

Translation Words - ULT

- kills

Translation Words - UST

- die

ULT

² For anger kills the foolish man; jealousy kills the silly one.

UST

² Foolish people die because they are resentful; people whom others easily deceive—these people die because they envy others.

Job 5:3

a foolish person any foolish person (See: Generic Noun Phrases)

a foolish person taking root

Here a person is spoken of as if he were a plant, perhaps becoming more foolish over time. Alternate translation: "a foolish person becoming grounded in foolishness" (See: Metaphor) his home

This refers to the person's family and all his property.

ULT

³ I have seen a foolish person taking root, but suddenly I cursed his home.

UST

³ I have seen foolish people who seemed to be successful, but suddenly they experienced disaster because I cursed their home.

Job 5:4

General Information:

These verses continue the earlier use of parallelism, here emphasizing in different ways the idea that the children of foolish people are never safe. (See: Parallelism)

His children are far from safety

Here, His refers to the foolish person or the foolish people in Job 5:2. Alternate translation: "Their children are never safe" are crushed

Here being crushed represents being oppressed, taken advantage of, at court. This idea may be put into active form. Alternate translation: "someone crushes them" (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive) city gate

The city gate, functioning as a court, was the place where disputes were resolved and where judgments were given.

There is no one to rescue them

Alternate translation: "There is no one to help the foolish people's children out of their hardship"

Translation Words - ULT

- His children
- in the city gate

Translation Words - UST

- Their sons
- in court, because

ULT

⁴ His children are far from safety; they are crushed in the city gate. There is no one to rescue them.

UST

⁴ Their sons are never safe; they always lose to their opponents in court, because there is no one to defend them.

Job 5:5

they even take it from among the thorns

This perhaps refers to parts of a field where the worst crops grow, because of thorn plants present.

The thirsty pant for their wealth

Here greedy people are spoken of as if they were thirsty, and the wealth of the foolish person is spoken of as if it were something that they could drink. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- eat up
- their harvest
- their wealth

Translation Words - UST

- steal the crops
- that foolish people harvest
- the wealth of those foolish people

ULT

⁵ The hungry eat up their harvest; they even take it from among the thorns. The thirsty pant for their wealth.

UST

⁵ Hungry people steal the crops that foolish people harvest; they even steal the crops that grow among thorns, and greedy people take away the wealth of those foolish people.

Job 5:6

For difficulties do not come out from the soil; neither does trouble sprout from the ground

Here difficulties and trouble are spoken of as if they were plants.
(See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- come out

Translation Words - UST

- like plants

ULT

⁶ For difficulties do not come out from the soil; neither does trouble sprout from the ground.

UST

⁶ But it is not the farmland that makes bad things happen; troubles do not grow up from the ground like plants.

Job 5:7

mankind is born for trouble, just as sparks fly upward

It is as natural for people, once they are born, to have trouble as it is for sparks to fly up from a fire. (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- mankind
- mankind

Translation Words - UST

- People
- that they

ULT

⁷ Instead, mankind is born for trouble, just as sparks fly upward.

UST

⁷ People make trouble for themselves from the time that they are born; this is as certain as the fact that sparks shoot up from a fire.

Job 5:8

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- would turn
- God himself

Translation Words - UST

- ask
- God

ULT

⁸ But as for me, I would turn to God himself; to him I would commit my cause—

UST

⁸ If I were suffering like you are, I would ask God for help and tell him what I am complaining about.

Job 5:9great and unsearchable things, marvelous things without number

Alternate translation: “great things that cannot be understood, wonders that cannot be counted”

unsearchable things

This refers to things that mankind cannot understand. (See: Metaphor) great and unsearchable things

Here the writer uses two independent words connected by “and” to emphasize the greatness of God’s actions. Alternate translation: “greatly profound things” (See: Hendiadys)

marvelous things

Alternate translation: “wonderful things” or “wonders”

Translation Words - ULT

- marvelous things

Translation Words - UST

- the marvelous things that he does

ULT

⁹ he who does great and unsearchable things, marvelous things without number.

UST

⁹ He does great things, things that we cannot understand; we cannot even count the marvelous things that he does.

Job 5:10

Translation Words - UST

- the ground
- he
- makes it

ULT

¹⁰ He gives rain on the earth, and sends water on the fields.

UST

¹⁰ He sends rain on the ground; he makes it rain on our fields.

Job 5:11

He does this in order to set up on high those who are low

Humble people in distress are spoken of as if they were in a low position. When God rescues them, they receive honor. When this happens, they are spoken of as being raised up and put into a high position. Alternate translation: "God does this in order to rescue and honor the humble who have been suffering" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹¹ He does this in order to set up on high those who are low; to raise to safety those who mourn.

UST

¹¹ He defends those who are humble, and puts those who mourn into places where they are safe.

Job 5:12

He breaks the plans

Here stopping the plans of crafty people is spoken of as if they were things that could be physically broken. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- so that their hands

Translation Words - UST

- with the result that they achieve nothing

ULT

¹² He breaks the plans of the crafty people, so that their hands cannot achieve success.

UST

¹² He causes crafty people to not be able to do what they plan to do, with the result that they achieve nothing.

Job 5:13He traps wise people in their own crafty actions

Here making wise people suffer for their own evil actions is spoken of as if it were catching them in traps. Their own actions are spoken of as if they were those traps. (See: Metaphor)

twisted people

Here being evil in a clever way is spoken of as if it were being twisted. Alternate translation: “those who are cunning” or “those who are devious” or “those who are shrewd” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- wise people

Translation Words - UST

- The people who think they are wise

ULT

¹³ He traps wise people in their own crafty actions; the plans of twisted people are hurried to their end.

UST

¹³ The people who think they are wise— he makes their own traps catch them; the result is that they do not succeed.

Job 5:14They encounter darkness in the daytime

Here the cunning, wicked people whom God confuses are spoken of as if they unexpectedly are in the dark at noon, when the sun is at its highest position in the sky. They cannot do anything they wish to do, because they cannot see. Alternate translation: "Those who are cunning are in the dark, even at noontime" (See: Metaphor)

grope

feel around like a blind person noontime

the middle of the day, when the sun is highest and brightest

Translation Words - ULT

- darkness

Translation Words - UST

- darkness

ULT

14 They encounter darkness in the daytime, and grope at noontime as if it were night.

UST

14 It is as though even in the daytime they were living in darkness and were groping around trying to find the road at noontime like people do at night.

Job 5:15

But he saves the poor person from the sword in their mouths

Here the insulting and threatening things that people say are spoken of as if they were a sword in their mouths. Alternate translation: "But he saves the poor person from the threats of the mighty" or "But he saves the poor person when the mighty threaten or insult them" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- But he saves
- from the hand of mighty people

Translation Words - UST

- he saves
- from powerful people harming them

ULT

¹⁵ But he saves the poor person from the sword in their mouths and the needy person from the hand of mighty people.

UST

¹⁵ But God saves helpless people from the wicked who say evil things about them; he saves poor people from powerful people harming them.

Job 5:16

injustice shuts her own mouth

People who say unjust things are spoken of as if they were the injustice itself, who must stop speaking. Alternate translation: "It is as though injustice shut her own mouth" (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

- has hope

Translation Words - UST

- expect that

ULT

¹⁶ So the poor person has hope, and injustice shuts her own mouth.

UST

¹⁶ So poor people confidently expect that good things will happen to them; but God stops wicked people from saying evil things.

Job 5:17

God corrects ... chastening of the Almighty

God is pictured as a parent correcting or instructing a child.

blessed is the man whom God corrects

Alternate translation: "God really favors the man whom he corrects" do not despise

Alternate translation: "do not reject" or "do not consider worthless" chastening

Alternate translation: "instruction" or "correction" or "discipline"

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- the Almighty

Translation Words - UST

- when God
- who can do anything

ULT

¹⁷ See, blessed is the man whom God corrects; therefore, do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.

UST

¹⁷ But those whom God corrects are fortunate; so do not despise it when God, who can do anything, disciplines you.

Job 5:18

For he wounds and then binds up; he wounds and then his hands heal

Alternate translation: "For he wounds but binds up; he crushes but his hands heal" his hands heal

Here "his hands" represents God. (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- and then his hands

Translation Words - UST

- hand

ULT

¹⁸ For he wounds and then binds up; he wounds and then his hands heal.

UST

¹⁸ He wounds people, but then he puts bandages on those wounds; he hurts people, but he also heals them.

Job 5:19

He will rescue you out of six troubles; indeed, in seven troubles, no evil will touch you

The use of increasing numbers such as “six” and “seven” represents the idea of many, many times. Alternate translation: “He will rescue you out of trouble over and over again; indeed, time after time, no evil will touch you” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- troubles
- evil

Translation Words - UST

- from your troubles
- evil

ULT

¹⁹ He will rescue you out of six troubles; indeed, in seven troubles, no evil will touch you.

UST

¹⁹ He will rescue you many times from your troubles, with the result that nothing evil will happen to you.

Job 5:20

In famine he will ransom you

Here rescuing is spoken of as if it were ransoming, buying back.
Alternate translation: "In famine God will rescue you from danger"
(See: Metaphor)

the hands of the sword

Here "hands" probably represents the people who attack with weapons, including swords. Alternate translation: "violent people" or "people who attack you" (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- In famine
- he will ransom you
- from the hands
- of the sword

Translation Words - UST

- When there is little food to eat
- he
- will not allow you
- your enemies will not kill you

ULT

²⁰ In famine he will ransom you from death, and in war from the hands of the sword.

UST

²⁰ When there is little food to eat, he will not allow you to die, and when there is a war, your enemies will not kill you.

Job 5:21

of destruction

Here “destruction” refers to the danger of being destroyed by enemies. Alternate translation: “that any enemy will destroy you” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- and you will...be afraid

Translation Words - UST

- be afraid

ULT

²¹ You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue; and you will not be afraid of destruction when it comes.

UST

²¹ God will protect you when people say false, evil things about you; you will not be afraid when many things around you perish.

Job 5:22

You will laugh at destruction and famine

Here “laugh” represents that the person is not afraid. Alternate translation: “You will not be afraid of any danger of destruction or famine” (See: Symbolic Language)

beasts of the earth

This refers to wild animals. Alternate translation: “wild animals” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- and you will...be afraid
- of the earth

Translation Words - UST

- and when there is nothing
- will not be afraid

ULT

²² You will laugh at destruction and famine, and you will not be afraid of beasts of the earth.

UST

²² You will be able to laugh when that happens and when there is nothing to eat, and you will not be afraid of wild animals.

Job 5:23

you will have a covenant with the stones in your field

Here the stones in farmers' fields are spoken of as if they were people that someone could have a covenant with. Alternate translation: "the stones in your fields will be like people who promise that they will not make any trouble for you" (See: Metaphor)

the beasts of the field

This refers to dangerous wild animals. (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- you will have a covenant

Translation Words - UST

- make plowing difficult

ULT

²³ For you will have a covenant with the stones in your field, and the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.

UST

²³ You will not worry about having big rocks in your fields that will make plowing difficult, and you will not worry that wild animals might attack you.

Job 5:24

You will know that your tent is in safety

Here “tent” represents a person’s family, household, and all his possessions. Alternate translation: “You will know that your family, servants, and everything you own are safe” (See: Metaphor) you will visit your sheepfold and you will not miss anything

Alternate translation: “when you visit where your flock stays at night, you will find all your sheep there”

Translation Words - ULT

- You will know
- is in safety
- you will visit
- and you will...miss anything

Translation Words - UST

- You will know that
- things will go well
- you look at your livestock
- you will see that they

ULT

²⁴ You will know that your tent is in safety; you will visit your sheepfold and you will not miss anything.

UST

²⁴ You will know that things will go well for you in your home; when you look at your livestock, you will see that they are all there.

Job 5:25

your seed will be great

Here “seed” represents a person’s descendants. Alternate translation: “your descendants will be many” (See: Metaphor) your offspring will be like the grass on the ground

Here “offspring” are spoken of as if they were as many as blades of grass, and probably as thriving, too. Alternate translation: “your descendants will be as many and as alive as the grass that grows” (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- You will also know
- your seed
- on the ground

Translation Words - UST

- You will be certain
- descendants
- of

ULT

²⁵ You will also know that your seed will be great, that your offspring will be like the grass on the ground.

UST

²⁵ You will be certain that you will have many descendants, who will be as numerous as blades of grass.

Job 5:26

You will come to your grave at a full age

Alternate translation: "You will die at a very old age" like a stack of grain bundles that goes up at its time

You may need to make explicit that the grain in this simile is fully ripe but not overly ripe. He would neither die young nor become weak in his old age. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- your grave

Translation Words - UST

- die

ULT

26 You will come to your grave at a full age, like a stack of grain bundles that goes up at its time.

UST

26 You will become very old before you die, like sheaves of grain continue to grow until it is time to harvest and thresh them.

Job 5:27

See, we have examined this matter; it is like this; listen to it, and know it for yourself

The words “we” refers to Job’s friends but not to Job. Alternate translation: “Look, we have thought about this matter. Listen to what I am saying and know that it is true” (See: Exclusive and Inclusive ‘We’)

Translation Words - ULT

- and know it

Translation Words - UST

- know that

ULT

²⁷ See, we have examined this matter; it is like this; listen to it, and know it for yourself.”

UST

²⁷ My friends and I have thought carefully about these things, and we know that they are true, so pay attention to what I have said!”

Job 6

Job 6 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is Job's response to Eliphaz.

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's righteousness

Despite being upset about his circumstances, and desiring his own death, Job does not curse God. He would rather have God end his life than to curse him. (See: curse, cursed, cursing)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphors

Job uses many different metaphors in this chapter to express his pain or despair. He also is upset with the advice of his friends, who are supposed to help him during difficult times. (See: Metaphor)

Rhetorical questions

Job uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Eliphaz that he is wrong. These questions help to build Job's response. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 6:1

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- Then Job

Translation Words - UST

- Then Job

ULT

¹ Then Job answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Job spoke again to Eliphaz:

Job 6:2

if only my anguish were weighed; if only all my calamity were laid in the balance

Here the writer uses two different statements to convey a single idea, the burden of Job's suffering. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "if only I could weigh my anguish and all my calamities in the balance" (See: Parallelism and Active or Passive) in the balance

Alternate translation: "on a scale"

ULT

² "Oh, if only my anguish were weighed; if only all my calamity were laid in the balance!"

UST

² "If all my troubles and misery could be put on a scale and weighed,

Job 6:3For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas

Job compares the burden of his suffering to the weight of wet sand; both can crush a person. Alternate translation: "For my anguish and calamities would be heavier than the sand on the seashore" (See: Simile)

my words were reckless

Alternate translation: "I spoke recklessly" or "I spoke rashly"

Translation Words - ULT

- it would be heavier

Translation Words - UST

- be heavier

ULT

³ For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas. That is why my words were reckless.

UST

³ they would be heavier than all the sand along the ocean shores. That is why I spoke very rashly about the day that I was born.

Job 6:4

For the arrows of the Almighty are in me

This is a metaphor for Job's suffering. He compares his many troubles to arrows that God has shot his body with. Alternate translation: "It is as though the Almighty has shot arrows into my body" (See: Metaphor) my spirit drinks up the poison

"my spirit drinks up the arrows' poison." This continues the metaphor of the arrows, by implying that they had tips of poison and that Job feels the pain in his spirit. He speaks of feeling this pain as if his spirit drank the poison. Alternate translation: "I feel the pain of their poison in my inner being" (See: Metaphor)

the terrors of God have arranged themselves in array against me

Job speaks of the terrible things that have happened to him as if they were soldiers that God had lined up to attack him all at once. Alternate translation: "God has caused all the terrible things that could happen to happen to me all at once" (See: Personification)

the terrors of God have arranged themselves in array against me

God causing many things to terrify Job is spoken of as if God's terrors were soldiers lined up to attack Job. Alternate translation: "the terrors of God have arranged themselves like soldiers in an army" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- of the Almighty
- my spirit
- the poison
- of God

Translation Words - UST

- Almighty God
- It is as though those arrows have poison on their tips, and that
- poison has gone into my spirit
- are like soldiers lined up to attack me

ULT

⁴ For the arrows of the Almighty are in me, my spirit drinks up the poison; the terrors of God have arranged themselves in array against me.

UST

⁴ It is as though Almighty God has shot me with arrows. It is as though those arrows have poison on their tips, and that poison has gone into my spirit. The things that God has done to me are like soldiers lined up to attack me.

Job 6:5Does the wild donkey bray in despair when he has grass? Or does the ox low in hunger when it has fodder?

Job poses these rhetorical questions to emphasize that he has a reason to complain. These question can be written as statements. Alternate translation: "Just as the wild donkey does not bray in despair when he has grass and as the ox does not low in hunger when he has fodder, I would not complain if I did not have a reason" (See: Rhetorical Question)

bray

the sound a donkey makes low

the sound an ox makes

ULT

⁵ Does the wild donkey bray in despair when he has grass? Or does the ox low in hunger when it has fodder?

UST

⁵ Just like a wild donkey does not complain by braying when it has plenty of grass to eat, and an ox does not complain by bellowing when it has food to eat, I would not complain if you were really helping me.

Job 6:6Can that which has no taste be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

This could mean: (1) Job is comparing his displeasure for his circumstances to people's dislike for bland food or (2) Job is comparing his displeasure for his friend's advice to people's dislike for bland food. (See: Metaphor)

Can that which has no taste be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

Job uses these rhetorical questions to emphasize his own displeasure. These questions can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "Tasteless food cannot be eaten without salt, just as there is no taste in the white of an egg." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Can that which has no taste be eaten

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "Can you eat that which has no taste" (See: Active or Passive)

ULT

⁶ Can that which has no taste be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

UST

⁶ People complain when they must eat food that has no salt or food that is slimy and tasteless; that is what your words are like, Eliphaz.

Job 6:7

- and I do not like what

ULT

⁷ I refuse to touch them; they are like disgusting food to me.

UST

⁷ I do not want to eat food like that, because it disgusts me, and I do not like what you have said to me.

Job 6:8

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- oh, that God

Translation Words - UST

- him

ULT

⁸ Oh, that I might have my request; oh, that God would grant me the thing I long for:

UST

⁸ I wish that God would do for me what I have asked of him:

Job 6:9to crush me once

This means for God to cause him to die. Alternate translation: “to crush me and let me die” (See: Euphemism) that he would let loose his hand and cut me off from this life

The phrases “let loose his hand” is an idiom that means to act quickly. Also, the phrase “cut me off from this life” is a euphemism for killing him. Alternate translation: “that he would act quickly and cut short my life” or “that he would act quickly and end my life” (See: Idiom and Euphemism)

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- his hand

Translation Words - UST

- he
- out his hand

ULT

⁹ that it would please God to crush me once, that he would let loose his hand and cut me off from this life!

UST

⁹ I wish that he would crush me and let me die. I wish that he would reach out his hand and take away my life.

Job 6:10

even if I exult in pain that does not lessen

Alternate translation: "I would leap for joy in unending pain" or "I would endure pain that does not diminish" exult

Alternate translation: "rejoice"

does not lessen

Alternate translation: "does not diminish" that I have not denied the words of the Holy One

This can be written in positive form. Alternate translation: "that I have always obeyed the Holy One"

Translation Words - ULT

- the Holy One

Translation Words - UST

- the Holy One

ULT

¹⁰ May this still be my consolation— even if I exult in pain that does not lessen: that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

UST

¹⁰ If he would do that, I would be comforted because I would know that in spite of the great pain that I have suffered, I have always obeyed what God, the Holy One, has commanded.

Job 6:11What is my strength, that I should try to wait?
What is my end, that I should prolong my life?

Job poses these questions to emphasize that he has no reason to continue living. These questions have the same meaning. They may be written as statements. Alternate translation: "I do not have enough strength to go on living; I have no reason to prolong my life" (See: Rhetorical Question and Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- my strength
- my life

Translation Words - UST

- have enough strength to endure all these things
- is difficult for me

ULT

¹¹ What is my strength, that I should try to wait? What is my end, that I should prolong my life?

UST

¹¹ But now I do not have enough strength to endure all these things. And since I have nothing to hope for in the future, it is difficult for me to be patient now.

Job 6:12

General Information:

The writer uses parallel rhetorical questions in each of these verses to emphasize Job's lack of strength to endure suffering. (See: Parallelism)

Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh made of bronze?

Job describes the weakness of his body by saying that he is not as strong as rocks and bronze to emphasize his lack of strength. These rhetorical questions may be written as statements. Alternate translation: "I am not as strong as the rocks. My flesh is not as strong as metal." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- my strength
- the strength
- is my flesh

Translation Words - UST

- strong
- strong
- and my body

ULT

¹² Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh made of bronze?

UST

¹² I am not strong like rocks are, and my body is not made of bronze.

Job 6:13

Is it not true that I have no help in myself ... me?

Job uses this rhetorical question to emphasize his lack of wisdom and his weakness. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Also, the phrase “no help in myself” is an idiom. Alternate translation: “It is true that I have no strength left ... me.” (See: Rhetorical Question and Idiom) wisdom has been driven out of me

“my success has been taken from me.” If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “my wisdom is gone” (See: Active or Passive)

ULT

¹³ Is it not true that I have no help in myself, and that wisdom has been driven out of me?

UST

¹³ So I am not able to help myself; I am not wise enough for that.

Job 6:14

To the person who is about to faint, faithfulness should be shown by his friend

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "A friend should be faithful to the person who feels he is about to faint" (See: Active or Passive)

who is about to faint

This speaks of a person who feels hopeless and is overwhelmed by his troubles as if he were about to physically faint. Alternate translation: "who feels hopeless" (See: Metaphor)

even to him who forsakes the fear of the Almighty

"even if he stops fearing Almighty God." This could mean: (1) the faint person does not fear God or (2) his friend does not fear God.

Translation Words - ULT

- faithfulness should be shown
- even to him who forsakes the
- of the Almighty

Translation Words - UST

- should be kind to him
- stops
- Almighty God

ULT

¹⁴ To the person who is about to faint, faithfulness should be shown by his friend; even to him who forsakes the fear of the Almighty.

UST

¹⁴ When a man has many troubles, his friends should be kind to him, even if he stops honoring Almighty God.

Job 6:15But my brothers have been as faithful to me as a desert streambed

Job speaks of his friends being unfaithful to him as being like a “wadi” which is a stream that can suddenly dry up. Also, Job refers to his friends ironically here as his “brothers.” Alternate translation: “But my friends are unfaithful to me. They are like a desert streambed” (See: Simile and Irony) as channels of water that pass away to nothing “like streams of water that dry up.” Job continues speaking of his friends being unfaithful as if they were streams that dry up. (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- But my brothers

Translation Words - UST

- They

ULT

¹⁵ But my brothers have been as faithful to me as a desert streambed, as channels of water that pass away to nothing,

UST

¹⁵ But you, my friends, are not dependable. You are like streams in the wilderness: They spill over their banks in the spring

Job 6:16which are darkened because of ice over them
... and because of the snow that hides itself in them

These two phrases have the same meaning. They describe how the streambed is full of ice and snow in the winter. Alternate translation: “which look dark in the winter because they are covered with ice and are full of melted snow” (See: Parallelism and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) because of the snow that hides itself in them

This speaks of the snow melting and the water going into the streambed as if the snow were hiding in the streambed. Alternate translation: “because the snow melts and goes into them” (See: Personification)

ULT

¹⁶ which are darkened because of ice over them, and because of the snow that hides itself in them.

UST

¹⁶ when the melting ice and snow make them overflow,

Job 6:17

When they thaw out, they vanish ... when it is hot, they melt out of their place

These two phrases have the same meaning. They describe how the streambed dries up in the hot season. Alternate translation: "When it is hot, the ice melts and the streambeds dry up" (See: Parallelism and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT

¹⁷ When they thaw out, they vanish; when it is hot, they melt out of their place.

UST

¹⁷ but when the dry season comes, there is no water flowing in those streams, and the channels dry up.

Job 6:18

Job is continuing his description of his friends being as unreliable as streams that dry up. (See: Metaphor)

The caravans that travel by their way turn aside for water

Alternate translation: "The caravans turn aside from the routes to find water" or "The caravans change course looking for water"

The caravans

A caravan is a large group of travelers riding camels across the desert.

barren land

Alternate translation: "wasteland" or "empty land"

Translation Words - ULT

- and then perish

Translation Words - UST

- so the merchants die in the desert

ULT

¹⁸ The caravans that travel by their way turn aside for water; they wander into barren land and then perish.

UST

¹⁸ The caravans of merchants turn off their road to search for water, but there is no water in those streambeds, so the merchants die in the desert.

Job 6:19

Tema ... Sheba

These are the names of places. The people of these places used caravans to trade things with people from other lands. (See: How to Translate Names)

while companies of Sheba

Alternate translation: "while caravans from Sheba" hoped in them

Alternate translation: "hoped for them" or "put their hope in them"

ULT

¹⁹ Caravans from Tema looked there, while companies of Sheba hoped in them.

UST

¹⁹ The men in those caravans searched for some water because they were sure that they would find some.

Job 6:20

but they were deceived

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “but they were disappointed” or “but they were not satisfied” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- They were disappointed

Translation Words - UST

- very disappointed

ULT

²⁰ They were disappointed because they had been confident of finding water. They went there, but they were deceived.

UST

²⁰ But they did not find any, so they were very disappointed.

Job 6:21

General Information:

In these verses, Job poses four questions to rebuke his friends and to emphasize that he did not ask for help from any of them. (See: Rhetorical Question)

For now

Job uses this phrase to introduce the main part of what he is saying.

you friends are nothing to me

Alternate translation: "you friends have not helped me at all"

are afraid

This means that they see the trouble Job has and are afraid of being in the same situation. Alternate translation: "you are afraid that God might do similar things to you" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- and are afraid

Translation Words - UST

- and you are

ULT

²¹ For now you friends are nothing to me; you see my dreadful situation and are afraid.

UST

²¹ Similarly, you friends have not helped me at all! You have seen that terrible things have happened to me, and you are afraid that God might do similar things to you.

Job 6:22

(There are no notes for this verse.)

ULT

²² Did I say to you, 'Give something to me' or, 'Offer me a gift from your wealth'

UST

²² After I lost all my wealth, I did not ask any of you for money. I did not plead with any of you to spend some of your money to help me.

Job 6:23or, 'Save me from my adversary's hand' or, 'Ransom me from the hand of my oppressors'?

These words are the last of a series of rhetorical questions that begins in verse 22. Job uses these questions to emphasize that he has not asked his friends to give him anything or to help him. "I never said to you, 'Give ... me' or, 'Offer ... wealth' or, 'Save ... hand' or, 'Ransom ... oppressors'." (See: Rhetorical Question)

my adversary's hand ... the hand of my oppressors

The word "hand" represents power or control. Alternate translation: "having my adversary control me ... having my oppressors control me" or "my adversary's power ... my oppressors' power" (See: Metonymy)

Ransom me

Alternate translation: "Rescue me"

Translation Words - ULT

- my adversary's
- hand
- or, 'Ransom me

Translation Words - UST

- I never asked any of you to rescue me
- from my enemies
- from those

ULT

²³ or, 'Save me from my adversary's hand' or, 'Ransom me from the hand of my oppressors'?

UST

²³ I never asked any of you to rescue me from my enemies, and I did not ask you to save me from those who oppressed me.

Job 6:24

Teach me ... make me

These verbs “teach” and “make” are second person plural and are spoken to his friends. (See: Forms of You)

I will hold my peace

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: “I will be silent” (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- will hold my peace
- make me understand

Translation Words - UST

- Answer me now, and then I
- have done

ULT

²⁴ Teach me, and I will hold my peace; make me understand where I have been wrong.

UST

²⁴ Answer me now, and then I will be quiet; tell me what wrong things I have done!

Job 6:25How painful are truthful words! But your arguments, how do they actually rebuke me?

The exact meaning of the original language is uncertain. Some Bibles translate "How painful" as "How pleasant." Alternate translation: "When a person speaks the truth, it harms no one. But your arguments are not true, so how do they actually rebuke me?"

But your arguments, how do they actually rebuke me?

Job is using this question to rebuke his friends and to emphasize that what they are saying does not apply to him. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "Your reasons for rebuking me do not apply to me even though you sternly correct me." or "But your arguments against me are not true, so they do not actually rebuke me!" (See: Rhetorical Question) your arguments

Alternate translation: "your reasons" or "your claims"

ULT

²⁵ How painful are truthful words! But your arguments, how do they actually rebuke me?

UST

²⁵ When people speak what is true, it can be painful for the listener to hear honest words. But what have all your arguments proven about me?

Job 6:26

Do you plan to ignore my words, treating the words of a desperate man like the wind?

Job uses this rhetorical question to scold his friends. He compares his words to the wind to explain that his friends act like his words are empty and useless. Alternate translation: "You ignore my words! I am a desperate man, and you treat my words as if they are as useless as the wind." (See: Rhetorical Question and Simile)

Do you

"You" is in second person plural form. (See: Forms of You)

ULT

²⁶ Do you plan to ignore my words, treating the words of a desperate man like the wind?

UST

²⁶ I am a man who has nothing to hope for, but you try to correct me, and you think what I say is as useless as the wind!

Job 6:27

you cast lots for a fatherless child

Alternate translation: "you would even gamble to win an orphan"

you cast lots ... haggle over your friend

Here "you" and "your" are in second person plural form. (See: Forms of You) haggle over your friend like merchandise

This compares how the man would sell his friend to how a person sells merchandise or wares. Alternate translation: "bargain to sell your friend for money" (See: Simile)

ULT

27 Indeed, you cast lots for a fatherless child, and haggle over your friend like merchandise.

UST

27 You do not sympathize with me at all for the things that I am suffering. You will do anything to get something for yourselves! You would even play a game to see who gets an orphan as a prize!

Job 6:28

Now

This word is used by Job to introduce new information.

please look

The verb “to look” is in second person plural form. (See: Forms of You)

I would not lie to your face

The word “your” refers to Job’s friends. Here his friends are represented by their faces to emphasize that they are looking at him. Alternate translation: “I would not lie to you while I am looking at you” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- your face

Translation Words - UST

- to you

ULT

²⁸ Now, therefore, please look at me, for surely I would not lie to your face.

UST

²⁸ Please look at me! I will not lie while I am talking straight to you.

Job 6:29Relent, I beg you

Alternate translation: "Please be merciful to me" or "Stop speaking like this, I beg you" let there be no injustice with you

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "treat me fairly" (See: Double Negatives)

Indeed, relent

Alternate translation: "Please relent."

Translation Words - ULT

- Relent
- relent

Translation Words - UST

- and stop criticizing me unjustly
- not done things that

ULT

29 Relent, I beg you; let there be no injustice with you; Indeed, relent, for my cause is just.

UST

29 Stop saying that I have sinned, and stop criticizing me unjustly! You should realize that I have not done things that are wrong.

Job 6:30

Is there evil on my tongue?

“Do I say wicked things?” Job uses this question to rebuke his friends and to emphasize that he is not wicked. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “I do not say wicked things.” (See: Rhetorical Question) on my tongue

Here Job’s speech is represented by his “tongue.” Alternate translation: “in my speech” (See: Metonymy)

Cannot my mouth detect malicious things?

Job uses this question to rebuke his friends and to emphasize that he can tell the difference between right and wrong. Here Job refers to himself by his “mouth” to emphasize his speech. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “I know what is right to say and what is wrong to say.” (See: Rhetorical Question and Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- detect

Translation Words - UST

- because I know what is right

ULT

³⁰ Is there evil on my tongue? Cannot my mouth detect malicious things?

UST

³⁰ Do you think that I am lying? No, I am not lying, because I know what is right to say, and what is wrong.”

Job 7

Job 7 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's response to Eliphaz.

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's righteousness

Despite being upset about his circumstances, and desiring his own death, Job does not curse God. He would rather have God end his life than to curse him. (See: curse, cursed, cursing)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphors

Job uses many different metaphors in this chapter to express his pain or despair. He also is upset with the advice of his friends, who are supposed to help him during difficult times. (See: Metaphor)

Rhetorical questions

Job uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Eliphaz that he is wrong. These questions help to build Job's response. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 7:1

Does not man have hard labor on earth?

Job poses this negative question to emphasize his awareness that all people experience hard work. It can be translated as a positive statement. Alternate translation: "There is hard labor for every person on earth." (See: Rhetorical Question) on earth

This is a generalization that means for the time people are living on the earth. Alternate translation: "while he lives on the earth" (See: Hyperbole)

Are not his days like the days of a hired man?

Job poses this negative question to emphasize his awareness that all people struggle in life. Alternate translation: "And their days are like the days of a hired man." (See: Rhetorical Question and Simile)

a hired man

"a day laborer." This is a man who worked jobs one day at a time and was paid at the end of every day.

Translation Words - ULT

- earth

Translation Words - UST

- this earth

ULT

¹ Does not man have hard labor on earth? Are not his days like the days of a hired man?

UST

¹ "People need to work hard on this earth like soldiers do; all during the time that we are alive, we need to work as hard as any hired worker.

Job 7:2

Like a slave ... like a hired man

Job compares his misery and trouble to that of the slave and hired man. (See: Simile)

the shadows of evening

“cool shade.” The implied information is that the shadows of evening provide coolness and shade from the sun (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) looks for his wages

Alternate translation: “waits for his pay”

Translation Words - ULT

- his wages

Translation Words - UST

- and we are like

ULT

² Like a slave earnestly desires the shadows of evening, like a hired man looks for his wages—

UST

² We are like slaves who keep wanting to be in the cool of evening, and we are like workers who keep waiting to be paid.

Job 7:3I have been made to endure months of misery; I have been given trouble-filled nights

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: “so I endure months of misery; I get trouble-filled nights” (See: Active or Passive) months of misery

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word misery, you could express the same idea with the adjective “miserable.” Alternate translation: “months when I am miserable” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- have been made to endure

Translation Words - UST

- in which I think

ULT

³ so I have been made to endure months of misery; I have been given trouble-filled nights.

UST

³ God has given to me many months in which I think that it is useless to remain alive; he has assigned to me many nights during which I feel miserable.

Job 7:4

When I lie down

The implied information is that this is when Job would lie down to sleep at night. Alternate translation: “When I lie down to sleep” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

I say to myself

Job poses a question to no one else in particular. Alternate translation: “I ask” or “I wonder” (See: Reflexive Pronouns)

When will I get up and when will the night be gone?

Job poses this question to emphasize his intense suffering during the hours he should be sleeping. Alternate translation: “I wish I could get up, but night continues.” (See: Rhetorical Question) tossing to and fro

“turning back and forth.” This indicates that Job has moved on his bed all night without any rest.

ULT

⁴ When I lie down, I say to myself, ‘When will I get up and when will the night be gone?’ I am full of tossing to and fro until the day’s dawning.

UST

⁴ When I lie down at night I say, ‘How long will it be until I get up?’ But the nights are long, and I toss on my bed until the dawn.

Job 7:5

My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust

The worms and clods of dust are pictured as covering Job as if they were clothing. Alternate translation: "My flesh is covered with worms and clods of dust" (See: Metaphor)

My flesh

This represents his whole body. Alternate translation: "My body" (See: Synecdoche)

clods of dust

This could mean: (1) lumps or crusts of dirt or (2) scabs on the skin.

dissolve and run afresh

Alternate translation: "break out again"

Translation Words - ULT

- My flesh

Translation Words - UST

- My body

ULT

⁵ My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; the sores in my skin harden up and then dissolve and run afresh.

UST

⁵ My body is covered with maggots and scabs; pus oozes out of my open sores.

Job 7:6My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle

Job compares his lifetime to the quickness of a weaver's shuttle.
Alternate translation: "My life goes by very quickly" (See: Simile) weaver

a person who makes cloth by crossing threads or yarn

a weaver's shuttle

a moving part that carries thread or yarn back and forth quickly in a loom when making cloth

Translation Words - ULT

- without hope

Translation Words - UST

- I never expect that things

ULT

⁶ My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; they pass without hope.

UST

⁶ My days pass as quickly as a weaver's shuttle; when one day ends, I never expect that things will be better the next day.

Job 7:7

call to mind

“remember.” The phrase “call to mind” does not mean God forgot. Job is asking God to consider or think about the shortness of Job’s life.

my life is only a breath

Job compares the shortness of his life to the shortness of a breath. Alternate translation: “my life is very short, like taking one breath” (See: Metaphor) my eye will no more see good

Here “my eye” represents Job’s whole person and his ability to see or experience things. Alternate translation: “I will never again experience good things” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- that
- is only...breath
- good

Translation Words - UST

- short as a single breath
- again
- being happy

ULT

⁷ God, call to mind that my life is only a breath; my eye will no more see good.

UST

⁷ God, do not forget that my life is as short as a single breath; I think that I will never again experience being happy.

Job 7:8

The eye of God, who sees me, will see me no more

Many versions of the Bible translate this as “The eye which sees me will see me no more.” The words “of God” were added to this phrase because they are implied by the context. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

The eye of God, who sees me ... God’s eyes will be on me

Here God is represented by his “eye” to emphasize what he looks at. Alternate translation: “God who watches me ... God will look for me” (See: Synecdoche)

ULT

⁸ The eye of God, who sees me, will see me no more; God’s eyes will be on me, but I will not exist.

UST

⁸ God, you see me now, but some day you will not see me anymore. You will search for me, but I will be gone because I will be dead.

Job 7:9

As a cloud is consumed and vanishes away, so he who goes down to Sheol will come up no more

Job is describing death as being like the clouds that disappear. (See: Simile)

As a cloud is consumed

This can be expressed in active form. Alternate translation: "As a cloud fades" (See: Active or Passive) he who goes down to Sheol will come up no more

Alternate translation: "he who dies will not return"

Translation Words - ULT

- is consumed

Translation Words - UST

- and disappears

ULT

⁹ As a cloud is consumed and vanishes away, so he who goes down to Sheol will come up no more.

UST

⁹ Like a cloud passes and disappears, people die and descend to the place where dead people are, and they do not return;

Job 7:10

his place

The words “his place” represent those who live in his place. Alternate translation: “the people who live in his place” or “his family” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- He will return
- to his house

Translation Words - UST

- return to
- their houses

ULT

¹⁰ He will return no more to his house; neither will his place know him again.

UST

¹⁰ they never return to their houses, and the people who are still alive do not remember them anymore.

Job 7:11

I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul

Job conveys a single idea using two different statements to emphasize the reason he will not remain silent. (See: Parallelism)

I will not restrain my mouth

Here the mouth represents speech. Alternate translation: "I will not restrain my speech" (See: Metonymy) in the anguish of my spirit

"in the distress of my spirit" or "in the torment of my suffering." If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word anguish, you could express the same idea with the adverb "distress." Alternate translation: "while my spirit is distressed" (See: Abstract Nouns)

in the bitterness of my soul

Here sorrow is spoken of as if it tasted bitter, and "soul" refers to the whole man. Alternate translation: "with anger and resentment" (See: Metaphor and Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- restrain
- of my spirit
- of my soul

Translation Words - UST

- be silent
- I will complain to God about what has happened
- I am very

ULT

¹¹ Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

UST

¹¹ So I will not be silent; while I am suffering, I will speak; I will complain to God about what has happened to me because I am very angry.

Job 7:12

Am I the sea or a sea monster that you place a guard over me?

Job poses this question to express his anger at God. In comparing himself to the sea or a sea monster, Job suggests that God regards him as a hideous creature. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "I am not the sea or a sea monster that needs a guard to watch it." (See: Rhetorical Question and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- a guard

Translation Words - UST

- a dangerous

ULT

¹² Am I the sea or a sea monster that you place a guard over me?

UST

¹² God, why do you watch closely what I am doing? Do you think that I am a dangerous sea monster?

Job 7:13My bed will comfort me, and my couch will ease my complaint

Here “bed” and “couch” are metonyms for “sleep.” In lying down to sleep, Job would hope to be comforted. The metonyms also have human attributes; they have the ability to comfort and ease a person. Alternate translation: “My bed, my couch, will be like someone who can comfort me” (See: Metonymy and Personification)

My bed ... my couch

These phrases refer to the same thing. Alternate translation: “My bed ... my bed”

Translation Words - ULT

- will comfort me

Translation Words - UST

- go to sleep and stop suffering

ULT

¹³ When I say, ‘My bed will comfort me, and my couch will ease my complaint,’

UST

¹³ When I lie down at night, I say to myself, ‘I will go to sleep and stop suffering; my pain will be less while I am sleeping.’

Job 7:14

you scare me

“you” here refers to God

ULT

¹⁴ then you scare me with dreams and terrify me through visions,

UST

¹⁴ But then you give me dreams that cause me to be afraid; you give me visions that terrify me;

Job 7:15strangling killing a person by squeezing the throat and stopping the breathing

these bones of mine

Here Job uses the word “bones” to refer to his body. Alternate translation: “This body of mine” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- rather than preserving these

Translation Words - UST

- I

ULT

15 so that I would choose strangling and death rather than preserving these bones of mine.

UST

15 these things make me wish that someone would strangle me to death, rather than for me to continue to be alive when I am only a bunch of bones.

Job 7:16

The writer continues to use parallelism in these verses, conveying a single idea using two different statements to emphasize the impact of Job's misery on his sense of self worth. (See: Parallelism)

I loathe my life

Alternate translation: "I despise my life" to always be alive

Alternate translation: "to live forever"

my days are useless

Alternate translation: "my days are pointless" or "the days of my life are empty"

Translation Words - ULT

- alive

Translation Words - UST

- to live

ULT

16 I loathe my life; I would not wish to always be alive; let me alone for my days are useless.

UST

16 I detest continuing to be alive; I do not want to live for many more years. Allow me to be alone, because I will be alive for only a very short time.

Job 7:17

Job asks a rhetorical question to say that he does not understand why God should pay attention to people. (See: Rhetorical Question)

set your mind on him

Here the mind represents thoughts and attention. To “set your mind on” means to give attention to. Alternate translation: “direct your attention to him” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- you should
- set your mind on him

Translation Words - UST

- We human beings are not very
- pay so much attention

ULT

¹⁷ What is man that you should pay attention to him, that you should set your mind on him,

UST

¹⁷ We human beings are not very important; so why do you pay so much attention to us?

Job 7:18

that you should observe ... every moment?

This is the end of the rhetorical question that Job begins asking with the words "What is man that" in verse 17. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. "Tell me what man is that ... mind on him, that you should observe ... every moment." or "I do not understand what man is that ... mind on him, that you should observe ... every moment." (See: Rhetorical Question) observe him

Alternate translation: "carefully examine him"

Translation Words - ULT

- that you should observe him

Translation Words - UST

- You look at us every

ULT

18 that you should observe him every morning and test him every moment?

UST

18 You look at us every morning to see what we are doing, and you examine us every moment to see if we are doing what is right.

Job 7:19

How long will it be ... swallow down my own saliva?

Here Job conveys a single idea using two different rhetorical questions to emphasize his wish that God would stop watching him. Alternate translation: "Look away from me! Leave me alone long enough for me to swallow my own saliva!" (See: Parallelism and Rhetorical Question) saliva

liquid produced in people's mouths that keeps the mouth moist and helps to swallow food

ULT

¹⁹ How long will it be before you look away from me, before you let me alone long enough for me to swallow down my own saliva?

UST

¹⁹ When will you stop looking at me and leave me alone for a little time, long enough to swallow my own spit?

Job 7:20

Even if I have sinned ... burden for you?

Job poses these questions to argue against God treating him unfairly. Alternate translation: "Even if I have sinned, that would do nothing to you, as you watch over people. Tell me why you have made me your target, so that I am a burden for you." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- Even if I have sinned
- men

Translation Words - UST

- If I
- sin, that certainly does not harm you

ULT

²⁰ Even if I have sinned, what would that do to you, you who watch men? Why have you made a target of me, so that I am a burden for you?

UST

²⁰ Why do you watch me constantly? If I sin, that certainly does not harm you! Why have you set me up like a target to shoot at? Do you consider me to be a heavy load that you are forced to carry?

Job 7:21

Why do you not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity?

Here Job uses two similar clauses within a rhetorical question to emphasize his point. Possible meanings are: (1) Job is asking why God does not forgive him. Alternate translation: "Tell me why you do not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity." or (2) Job is asking God why he cannot just overlook his supposed wrongdoings. Alternate translation: "Tell me why you do not just bear with my transgression and iniquity." (See: Parallelism and Rhetorical Question) take away

Alternate translation: "remove"

now will I lie down in the dust

The phrase "lie down in the dust" is a metonym that represents dying. Alternate translation: "now I will die" (See: Metonymy)

I will not exist

Alternate translation: "I will not be here" or "I will be gone"

Translation Words - ULT

- pardon
- my iniquity

Translation Words - UST

- gone
- able to forgive me for the wrong things

ULT

²¹ Why do you not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity? For now will I lie down in the dust; you will seek me carefully, but I will not exist."

UST

²¹ If I have sinned, are you not able to forgive me for the wrong things that I have done? Soon I will lie in my grave; you will search for me, but you will not find me because I will be dead and gone."

Job 8

Job 8 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is the advice of Job's friend, Bildad.

Special concepts in this chapter

Bildad's advice

Bildad tells Job to curse Yahweh. The advice Bildad gives to Job is bad advice. (See: curse, cursed, cursing)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Bildad uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Job that he is wrong. These questions help to build Bildad's argument. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 8:1

General Information:

Verses 2 and 3 each consist of two different questions that have the same meaning. Bildad uses these questions to rebuke Job. (See: Rhetorical Question and Parallelism)

Connecting Statement:

In this chapter, Bildad begins to speak about Job's complaints.

Then Bildad the Shuhite answered

"Bildad" is the name of a man who is a member of the tribe of Shuah. (See: How to Translate Names)

ULT

¹ Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Bildad, from the Shuah area, spoke to Job. He said,

Job 8:2How long will the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?

Bildad speaks of Job's words as if they are as empty and insubstantial as the wind. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "The words of your mouth are as insignificant as a mighty wind." (See: Metaphor and Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- wind

Translation Words - UST

- wind

ULT

² "How long will you say these things? How long will the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?"

UST

² "Job, how much longer will you talk like this? What you say is as useless as a big wind."

Job 8:3Does God pervert justice? Does the Almighty pervert righteousness?

Here "God" and "the Almighty" both refer to Yahweh. If your readers would misunderstand these questions, you can express them as statements. Alternate translation: "God does not pervert justice; the Almighty does not pervert righteousness." (See: Rhetorical Question) pervert justice?...pervert righteousness?

Alternate translation: "approve of and do what is not just?...approve of and do what is not righteous?"

Translation Words - ULT

- justice
- Does the Almighty

Translation Words - UST

- God
- certainly never does anything

ULT

³ Does God pervert justice? Does the Almighty pervert righteousness?

UST

³ Almighty God certainly never does anything unfairly. He always does what is right.

Job 8:4for he gave them into the hand of their sins

Here “hand” represents the power or results of sin. Bildad implies that God killed Job’s children because of their sin. Alternate translation: “for God caused the consequences of your children’s sins to kill them” (See: Metonymy and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- children
- have sinned
- into the hand

Translation Words - UST

- Your children
- have sinned against
- him

ULT

⁴ Your children have sinned against him; we know this, for he gave them into the hand of their sins.

UST

⁴ Your children have sinned against him; this is evident because he has punished them for those evil things.

Job 8:5

But suppose you diligently sought God and presented your request to the Almighty

Bildad is saying what would have happened if Job had correctly spoken to God, but Bildad does not believe that Job really did this. (See: Hypothetical Situations) diligently sought God ... presented your request to the Almighty

These two phrases both refer to Job asking God for help or pleading with God for mercy. (See: Doublet) diligently sought God

Alternate translation: "earnestly asked God for help"

Translation Words - ULT

- the Almighty

Translation Words - UST

- God

ULT

⁵ But suppose you diligently sought God and presented your request to the Almighty.

UST

⁵ But now, if only you will earnestly request Almighty God to help you!

Job 8:6

General Information:

Bildad says that God would treat Job well if he was pure, but Bildad does not believe that Job is pure. (See: Hypothetical Situations)

If you are pure and upright

Alternate translation: "If only you were pure and righteous" or "If only you would obey God and do what is right" stir himself on your behalf

Here Yahweh is spoken of as if he woke from sleep to help Job. Alternate translation: "help you" or "do good things for you" (See: Metaphor) restore you to your rightful place

This refers to giving back to Job the things he lost, including his family, wealth, and honor.

Translation Words - ULT

- surely stir himself

Translation Words - UST

- he will surely do something good

ULT

⁶ If you are pure and upright, then he would surely stir himself on your behalf and restore you to your rightful place.

UST

⁶ If only you were pure and honest! Then he will surely do something good for you and reward you by giving your family back to you and making you prosper.

Job 8:7

Even though your beginning was small, still your final condition would be much greater

Here lack of wealth is spoken of as being a “small beginning.”
Alternate translation: “Even if you were poor early in your life, God would make you very wealthy later in your life” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- your beginning

Translation Words - UST

- not very prosperous before

ULT

⁷ Even though your beginning was small, still your final condition would be much greater.

UST

⁷ Even though you were not very prosperous before, during the last stage of your life you would become very wealthy.

Job 8:8

give your attention to what our ancestors learned

Alternate translation: “study carefully what our ancestors discovered” or “consider the things our forefathers learned”

Translation Words - ULT

- generations
- our ancestors

Translation Words - UST

- think about what happened
- our ancestors

ULT

⁸ Please ask the former generations, and give your attention to what our ancestors learned.

UST

⁸ I request you to think about what happened long ago and to consider what our ancestors found out.

Job 8:9

our days on earth are a shadow

The shortness of life is spoken of as if it were a shadow which quickly disappears. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- know
- earth

Translation Words - UST

- know very little
- the earth

ULT

⁹ (We were only born yesterday and know nothing because our days on earth are a shadow.)

UST

⁹ It seems as though we were born only yesterday and we know very little; our time here on the earth disappears quickly, like a shadow that is here and then gone.

Job 8:10Will they not teach you and tell you? Will they not speak words from their hearts?

Bildad uses these rhetorical questions to rebuke Job for not agreeing with Bildad and the ancestors. They can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "They will teach you and tell you and speak what they sincerely believe." (See: Rhetorical Question) from their hearts

Here the word "hearts" represents their inner beliefs. Alternate translation: "that they sincerely believe" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- Will they not speak

Translation Words - UST

- to

ULT

¹⁰ Will they not teach you and tell you? Will they not speak words from their hearts?

UST

¹⁰ So why not allow your ancestors to teach you anything? Let them tell you what they learned!

Job 8:11

General Information:

It is unclear if this verse is the teaching of Bildad, or if Bildad is quoting the sayings of the ancestors of Job 8:8-10.

Can papyrus grow without a marsh? Can reeds grow without water?

Bildad uses these two parallel questions to emphasize the single point that people cannot live without God. Here the plants represent people and the water represents God. The questions can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "Papyrus plants cannot grow away from the marshes. Reeds cannot grow without water." (See: Rhetorical Question and Parallelism and Metaphor) papyrus a tall reed-like plant that grows in shallow water

ULT

¹¹ Can papyrus grow without a marsh?
Can reeds grow without water?

UST

¹¹ Papyrus certainly does not grow away from marshland; reeds certainly cannot grow where there is no water.

Job 8:12

General Information:

It is unclear if this verse is the teaching of Bildad, or if Bildad is quoting the sayings of the ancestors of Job 8:8-10.

While they are still green and not cut down, they wither before any other plant

It is implied that they wither when there is no water. This can be stated explicitly. Alternate translation: "Without water, they stop growing and wither faster than any other plant, even if no one cuts them down" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) wither

Alternate translation: "dry up"

ULT

¹² While they are still green and not cut down, they wither before any other plant.

UST

¹² If the water dries up while they are blossoming, they wither more quickly than any other plant.

Job 8:13General Information:

It is unclear if this verse is the teaching of Bildad, or if Bildad is quoting the sayings of the ancestors of Job 8:8-10.

So also are the paths of all who forget God

Here “the paths” represents a person’s future and the events that will happen to them. Alternate translation: “The same thing will happen to everyone who forgets God” (See: Metonymy)

the hope of the godless will perish

Alternate translation: “the things the godless person desires will not happen”

Translation Words - ULT

- will perish

Translation Words - UST

- those reeds

ULT

13 So also are the paths of all who forget God; the hope of the godless will perish.

UST

13 Those who do not pay attention to what God says are like those reeds; godless people stop confidently expecting that good things will happen to them.

Job 8:14

General Information:

It is unclear if this verse is the teaching of Bildad, or if Bildad is quoting the sayings of the ancestors of Job 8:8-10. In this verse the pronoun "his" refers to the godless person, who represents godless people in general. It may be helpful to readers to use the plural pronouns "they" and "their." (See: Generic Noun Phrases)

His confidence will break apart ... his trust is as weak as a spider's web

These two phrases mean the same thing and emphasize that the godless person is trusting in something that cannot save him. (See: Parallelism) his trust is as weak as a spider's web

Here Bildad compares the trust of the godless person to a spider's web; the slightest force will break both. (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- web

Translation Words - UST

- them

ULT

14 His confidence will break apart, and his trust is as weak as a spider's web.

UST

14 The things they confidently expect to happen do not happen; things they trust will help them are as weak as a spider's web.

Job 8:15

General Information:

In this verse the pronouns “he” and “him” refer to the godless person, who represents godless people in general. It may be helpful to readers to use the plural pronouns “they” and “their.” (See: Generic Noun Phrases)

He leans on his house, but it will not support him; he takes hold of it, but it does not stand

This statement probably refers to a man relying on his property and wealth for security. If so, then “house” here represents the owner’s property and wealth. Alternate translation: “He thinks he will be safe because he is wealthy, but he will not be safe” (See: Metaphor)

it will not support him

This negative statement emphasizes the opposite. It can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: “he will fall down” (See: Litotes)

it does not stand

This negative statement emphasizes the opposite. It can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: “it will fall down” (See: Litotes)

Translation Words - ULT

- his house
- he takes hold
- stand

Translation Words - UST

- will be safe
- wealthy
- those things will disappear

ULT

¹⁵ He leans on his house, but it will not support him; he takes hold of it, but it does not stand.

UST

¹⁵ If they think they will be safe because they are wealthy, they will not be safe; the things they think will keep them safe—those things will disappear.

Job 8:16

General Information:

Here pronouns “he” and “his” refer to the godless person, who represents godless people in general. It may be helpful to readers to use the plural pronouns “they” and “their.” (See: Generic Noun Phrases)

Under the sun he is green, and his shoots go out over his entire garden

Here Bildad compares the godless person to a plant that is healthy. (See: Metaphor)

Under the sun he is green

The meaning of the Hebrew text is unclear. This could mean: (1) he is healthy during the day or (2) he is watered before the sun rises.

Translation Words - ULT

- go out

Translation Words - UST

- Godless people are like plants

ULT

¹⁶ Under the sun he is green, and his shoots go out over his entire garden.

UST

¹⁶ Godless people are like plants that are watered before the sun rises: their shoots spread all over the gardens.

Job 8:17

General Information:

In this verse the pronoun "his" refers to the godless person, who represents godless people in general. It may be helpful to readers to use the plural pronouns "they" and "their." (See: Generic Noun Phrases)

His roots are wrapped about the heaps of stone ... they look for good places among the rocks

These two phrases have similar meaning, but the meaning is unclear. This could mean: (1) he appears to be well-rooted in the rocks, taking advantage of every opening or (2) his roots cannot find fertile ground and must try to find nutrients among the rocks. (See: Parallelism and Metaphor)

ULT

17 His roots are wrapped about the heaps of stone; they look for good places among the rocks.

UST

17 The roots of those plants twist around the piles of stones and cling tightly to the rocks.

Job 8:18

General Information:

In this verse the pronouns “his” and “him” refer to the godless person, who represents godless people in general. It may be helpful to readers to use the plural pronouns “they” and “their.” (See: Generic Noun Phrases)

if this person is destroyed out of his place

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “if someone pulls him out of his place” or “if a gardener tears him out of the garden” (See: Active or Passive)

his place

Alternate translation: “the rocky ground” or “the garden” that place will deny him and say, ‘I never saw you.’

The garden is spoken of as if it had human ability to speak. The garden immediately forgets that he existed. (See: Personification and Metaphor)

ULT

18 But if this person is destroyed out of his place, then that place will deny him and say, ‘I never saw you.’

UST

18 But if a gardener pulls those plants out, it is as though the place where they were planted says, ‘They were never here!’ That is what happens to wicked people who do not pay attention to what God says.

Job 8:19

this is the “joy” of such a person’s behavior

Bildad is speaking with irony to express that there is not any real joy for the godless person. Alternate translation: “this is all the joy they will receive from their godless actions” (See: Irony) other plants will sprout out of the same soil in his place

Bildad continues the metaphor from Job 8:16-18. Other godless people are spoken of as plants who take the place of the first godless man when he dies. Alternate translation: “when one wicked man dies, another will take his place” (See: Metaphor) sprout

Alternate translation: “grow”

the same soil

Alternate translation: “the rocky ground” or “the garden”

in his place

Alternate translation: “in the place of the godless man”

ULT

¹⁹ See, this is the “joy” of such a person’s behavior; other plants will sprout out of the same soil in his place.

UST

¹⁹ Truly, this is all the joy that evil people have: other people just come and take their places.

Job 8:20God will not cast away an innocent man

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: “God will accept an innocent man” neither will he take the hand of evildoers

Here “take the hand” refers to help or support. Alternate translation: “God will not support people who do evil things” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- will he take
- the hand
- of evildoers

Translation Words - UST

- him
- help
- evil people

ULT

²⁰ See, God will not cast away an innocent man; neither will he take the hand of evildoers.

UST

²⁰ So, I tell you, Job, God will not reject you if you honor him, but he does not help evil people.

Job 8:21He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, your lips with shouting

These two phrases mean the same thing and emphasize how happy Job would be if he were innocent. The word “he” refers to God and “your” refers to Job. Alternate translation: “God will make you very happy again if you are innocent” (See: Parallelism and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) fill your mouth with laughter

God causing Job to laugh is spoken of as if God had poured laughter into Job’s mouth. Alternate translation: “cause you to continually laugh” (See: Metaphor) your lips with shouting

The verb “fill” is understood from the previous clause. God causing him to shout for joy is spoken of as if God had poured joy into Job’s mouth. Alternate translation: “God will cause you to shout for joy” (See: Ellipsis and Metaphor)

ULT

²¹ He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, your lips with shouting.

UST

²¹ He will always enable you to laugh and to shout joyfully.

Job 8:22

Those who hate you will be clothed with shame

Here “shame” is spoken of as if it were clothing that God will cause Job’s enemies to wear. This means they will be very ashamed.
Alternate translation: “God will cause those who hate you to be very ashamed” (See: Metaphor) the tent of the wicked will be no more

Here “tent” refers to the homes of the wicked. Alternate translation: “the houses of the wicked will be destroyed” will be no more

Alternate translation: “will not last” or “will be destroyed”

ULT

²² Those who hate you will be clothed with shame; the tent of the wicked will be no more.”

UST

²² But those who hate you will be very ashamed, and the homes of wicked people will disappear.”

Job 9

Job 9 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is Job's response to Bildad.

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's righteousness and Yahweh's power

Despite being upset about his circumstances, Job does not curse God. Job does not think that he can make a claim against Yahweh because only God is perfectly wise and just. Yahweh is truly powerful and Job understands this. (See: curse, cursed, cursing and wise, wisdom and just, justice, unjust, injustice, justify, justification)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphors

Job uses many different metaphors in this chapter to express himself or to describe Yahweh's power. He is also upset with the advice of his friends, who are supposed to help him during difficult times. (See: Metaphor)

Rhetorical questions

Job uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Bildad that he is wrong. These questions help to build Job's response. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 9:1

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- Then Job

Translation Words - UST

- Job

ULT

¹ Then Job answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Job replied,

Job 9:2

I truly know that this is so

Alternate translation: "I know that what you say is true"

this is so

Here the word "this" refers to what Bildad said.

how can a person be in the right with God?

Alternate translation: "how can anyone be innocent before God?"

Translation Words - ULT

- I truly
- know

Translation Words - UST

- I know
- I know

ULT

² "I truly know that this is so. But how can a person be in the right with God?"

UST

² "Yes, yes, I know. But how can anyone say to God, 'I am innocent'?"

Job 9:3argue dispute

he cannot answer him once in a thousand times

“Once in a thousand times” here is an idiom that means “at all.” This could mean: (1) “he cannot give any answer to God” or (2) “God will not answer him at all” (See: Idiom)

a thousand times

Alternate translation: “1,000 times”

Translation Words - ULT

- he wants
- answer him

Translation Words - UST

- someone wanted to argue
- to answer

ULT

³ If he wants to argue with God, he cannot answer him once in a thousand times.

UST

³ If someone wanted to argue with God about that, God could ask him a thousand questions and that person would not be able to answer any of them!

Job 9:4

wise in heart

Here the heart represents the inner being or thoughts. Alternate translation: “wise in what he decides” (See: Metonymy) mighty in strength

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word strength, you could express the same idea with the adjective “strong.” Alternate translation: “mighty in how strong he is” (See: Abstract Nouns) hardened himself against him

To harden oneself means to be stubborn. Alternate translation: “resisted him” or “defied him” (See: Reflexive Pronouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- God is wise
- in heart
- in strength

Translation Words - UST

ULT

⁴ God is wise in heart and mighty in strength; who has ever hardened himself against him and succeeded?—

UST

⁴ God is very wise and powerful; no one who has tried to argue against him has ever been able to win.

Job 9:5

he who removes the mountains

Alternate translation: "God removes the mountains"

Translation Words - ULT

- warning anyone

Translation Words - UST

- telling anyone in advance

ULT

⁵ he who removes the mountains without warning anyone when he overturns them in his anger—

UST

⁵ He even moves mountains in earthquakes without telling anyone in advance. When he is angry, he turns the mountains upside down.

Job 9:6

he who shakes the earth

Alternate translation: "God shakes the earth" sets its supports trembling

Alternate translation: "makes its foundations tremble"

Translation Words - ULT

- the earth
- its supports

Translation Words - UST

- he causes the
- columns that support the earth

ULT

⁶ he who shakes the earth out of its place and sets its supports trembling.

UST

⁶ He sends earthquakes that shake the ground; he causes the columns that support the earth to shake.

Job 9:7

who covers up the stars

Alternate translation: "who blocks the stars from view"

ULT

⁷ It is the same God who tells the sun not to rise, and it does not, and who covers up the stars,

UST

⁷ Some days he speaks to the sun, and it does not rise, and some nights he prevents the stars from shining.

Job 9:8who by himself stretches out the heavens

God is spoken of as creating the heavens without any help, as if the heavens were fabric that he stretches out. (See: Reflexive Pronouns and Metaphor)

tramples down the waves of the sea

God is spoken of as calming the sea as if with his feet. Alternate translation: "puts his feet down on the waves of the sea" or "calms the waves of the sea" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- the heavens

Translation Words - UST

- the sky

ULT

⁸ who by himself stretches out the heavens and tramples down the waves of the sea,

UST

⁸ He alone stretched [stretches] out the sky; he alone puts his feet on the waves and stops their violence.

Job 9:9

the Bear, Orion, the Pleiades

These are the names of constellations, which are groups of stars that seem like they form a particular shape in the sky. (See: Translate Unknowns)

Orion

a famous hunter in Greek mythology

Pleiades

several bright stars that look like they are close together in the sky constellations groups of stars that seem like they form a particular shape in the sky

ULT

⁹ who makes the Bear, Orion, the Pleiades, and the constellations of the south.

UST

⁹ He set in their places the groups of stars— the Bear, Orion, the Pleiades, and the groups of stars in the southern sky.

Job 9:10

General Information:

The writer uses parallelism in each of these verses, conveying a single idea using double statements to emphasize that God is great, unseen, and sovereign. (See: Parallelism)

unsearchable things

Alternate translation: "things that cannot be understood"

ULT

¹⁰ He does great and unsearchable things, and wonderful things that cannot be counted.

UST

¹⁰ He does great things that we cannot understand; he does more marvelous things than we are able to count.

Job 9:11

See

Alternate translation: "Look" or "Listen" or "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you."

he passes on

Alternate translation: "he passes by" or "he moves on"

Translation Words - ULT

- perceive

Translation Words - UST

- he moves further

ULT

11 See, he goes by me, and I do not see him; he passes on also, but I do not perceive him.

UST

11 He passes by where I am, but I cannot see him; he moves further on, but I do not see him go.

Job 9:12If he takes something away, who can stop him? Who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'

These are rhetorical questions that expect an answer of "No one." They can be reworded as statements. Alternate translation: "If he takes something away, no one can stop him. No one can ask him, 'What are you doing?'" (See: Rhetorical Question)

If he takes something away

Alternate translation: "If he takes someone away" or "If he wants to snatch something away"

Translation Words - ULT

- can stop him

Translation Words - UST

- could stop him

ULT

¹² If he takes something away, who can stop him? Who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'

UST

¹² If he wants to snatch someone away, no one could stop him; no one dares ask him, 'Why are you doing that?'

Job 9:13the helpers of Rahab bow beneath him

Here “bow beneath him” symbolizes submission or defeat. Alternate translation: “he crushes the helpers of Rahab” (See: Symbolic Action)

Rahab

The word “Rahab” here refers to a monster of the sea. (See: How to Translate Names)

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- will...withdraw

Translation Words - UST

- very easily stop being angry
- he

ULT

¹³ God will not withdraw his anger; the helpers of Rahab bow beneath him.

UST

¹³ God will not very easily stop being angry; he defeated the servants of Rahab, the great sea monster.

Job 9:14

How much less could I answer him, could I choose words to reason with him?

Job poses two similar questions to emphasize his reluctance to confront God. They can be reworded as a statement. Alternate translation: "So I certainly could not answer him or choose words to reason with him." (See: Parallelism and Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- I
- answer him

Translation Words - UST

- what could I
- to answer him

ULT

¹⁴ How much less could I answer him, could I choose words to reason with him?

UST

¹⁴ If God took me to court, what could I say to answer him?

Job 9:15

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- I could...answer him
- with my judge

Translation Words - UST

- to answer him
- God, my judge

ULT

¹⁵ Even if I were righteous, I could not answer him; I could only plead for mercy with my judge.

UST

¹⁵ Even though I would be innocent, I would not be able to answer him. All I could do would be to request God, my judge, to act mercifully toward me.

Job 9:16

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- I called
- I would...believe

Translation Words - UST

- I summoned him to
- believe

ULT

¹⁶ Even if I called and he answered me, I would not believe that he was listening to my voice.

UST

¹⁶ If I summoned him to come to the courtroom and he said that he would come, I would not believe that he would pay attention to what I would say.

Job 9:17

For he breaks me with a tempest

Job compares his troubles from God to the effects of a tempest.
Alternate translation: "He injures me as if with a tempest" (See: Metaphor) tempest

a powerful or violent storm

multiplies my wounds

Alternate translation: "gives me many wounds" or "wounds me again and again" without cause

Alternate translation: "even though I have not given him cause to do so" or "even though I am innocent"

ULT

17 For he breaks me with a tempest and multiplies my wounds without cause.

UST

17 He sends storms to batter me, and he bruises me many times without any reason.

Job 9:18

to regain my breath

This is an idiom that means “to be able to breathe again” or (See: Idiom)

he fills me with bitterness

This verse pictures God as filling up Job’s life with things that make him bitter. If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word bitterness, you could express the same idea with the adjective “bitter.” Alternate translation: “he fills me up with bitter things” (See: Metaphor and Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- does...allow me to regain
- my breath

Translation Words - UST

- my breath
- me to

ULT

¹⁸ He does not allow me to regain my breath; but he fills me with bitterness.

UST

¹⁸ It is as though he will not let me get my breath because he causes me to suffer all the time.

Job 9:19

If it is a matter of strength

Alternate translation: "If there is a contest of strength" behold, he is mighty

Alternate translation: "look and you will see that he is mighty" or "pay attention to what I am about to tell you: he is mighty"

he is mighty

Alternate translation: "he is the strong one" who can summon him?

This question expects an answer of "No one" to make the point that no one is able to bring God to court. This can be reworded as a statement. Alternate translation: "no one can summon him." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

19 If it is a matter of strength, behold, he is mighty! If it is a matter of justice, who can summon him?

UST

19 If I tried to wrestle with him, there would be no way to defeat him, because he is stronger than I am. If I called him to appear in court, there is no one who could force him to go there.

Job 9:20

Though I am in the right, my own mouth would condemn me; and though I am blameless, my words would prove me to be guilty

This verse expresses the same idea twice for emphasis. (See: Parallelism)

Though I am in the right

Here “I am in the right” means I am the one who has done right things. Alternate translation: “Although I have done right things” or “Even though I am innocent” (See: Idiom and Nominal Adjectives)

my own mouth would condemn me

Here “mouth” represents Job’s words. Alternate translation: “my own words would accuse me” or “what I say would condemn me” (See: Metonymy) blameless

Alternate translation: “faultless”

my words would prove me to be guilty

Here “my words” are spoken of as if they could take action. Alternate translation: “God would use what I say to prove me guilty” (See: Metaphor) guilty

The word here has the meaning of “twisted” or “crooked.”

Translation Words - ULT

- would condemn me

Translation Words - UST

- anything I said would cause

ULT

²⁰ Though I am in the right, my own mouth would condemn me; and though I am blameless, my words would prove me to be guilty.

UST

²⁰ Even though I was innocent, anything I said would cause him to punish me; even though I had not done anything wrong, he would still prove that I was guilty.

Job 9:21

I am blameless

Alternate translation: "I am faultless"

about myself

Alternate translation: "what happens to me"

Translation Words - ULT

- care any more
- about myself

Translation Words - UST

- do not care
- what happens to me

ULT

²¹ I am blameless, but I do not care any more about myself; I despise my own life.

UST

²¹ I have not done anything wrong, but that is not important anymore because I do not care what happens to me. I despise living.

Job 9:22It makes no difference

Alternate translation: "It is all the same" or "It does not matter"

he destroys blameless people and wicked people together

Here "blameless" and "wicked" are two extremes for a merism that include everything in between. Alternate translation: "he brings everyone to an end, whether they are blameless or wicked" (See: Merism)

Translation Words - ULT

- destroys

Translation Words - UST

- get rid

ULT

²² It makes no difference, which is why I say that he destroys blameless people and wicked people together.

UST

²² Nothing is important to me because God will get rid of all of us, both those who are innocent and those who are wicked.

Job 9:23

When a whip suddenly kills

The word “whip” here is a metaphor for any kind of disaster. Alternate translation: “When a disaster suddenly happens and people die” (See: Metaphor)

the despair of the innocent

The word “despair” is an abstract noun that can be translated by the verb “despair.” Here it is a metonym for the innocent who are despairing. Alternate translation: “the innocent who are despairing” or “the innocent who have lost all hope” (See: Metonymy)

innocent

This is a nominalized adjective. Alternate translation: “innocent people”. (See: Nominal Adjectives)

Translation Words - ULT

- of the innocent

Translation Words - UST

- they are innocent

ULT

²³ When a whip suddenly kills, he mocks the despair of the innocent.

UST

²³ When people experience disaster and it causes them to suddenly die, God laughs at it, even if they are innocent.

Job 9:24

The earth is given

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God gives the earth" (See: Active or Passive)

The earth is Here "the earth" is used to represent the people on the earth. Alternate translation: "The people of the world are" (See: Metonymy) into the hand of Here "hand" is a metonym for "control." Alternate translation: "into the control of" (See: Metonymy)

God covers the faces of its judges

This idiom means God keeps the judges of the earth from being able to judge the difference between right and wrong. Alternate translation: "God makes its judges blind" or "God keeps its judges from judging rightly" (See: Idiom)

If it is not he who does it, then who is it?

Alternate translation: "If it is not God who does these things, then who does them?"

Translation Words - ULT

- The earth
- into the hand
- of

Translation Words - UST

- to control what happens
- in the world
- to be blind, no longer able to judge fairly

ULT

²⁴ The earth is given into the hand of wicked people; God covers the faces of its judges. If it is not he who does it, then who is it?

UST

²⁴ God has allowed wicked people to control what happens in the world. It is as though he had caused judges to be blind, no longer able to judge fairly. If it is not God who has done that, who, then, has done it?

Job 9:25My days are swifter than a running messenger

Job compares how quickly his days are passing by to a fast runner.
Alternate translation: "My days pass swiftly" (See: Simile) running messenger

Alternate translation: "runner" or "running man"

my days flee away

This pictures the days of Job's life as being able to run away like a person. (See: Personification)

they see no good anywhere

This pictures the days of Job's life as being able to see like a person. (See: Personification)

no good

Alternate translation: "no good thing"

Translation Words - ULT

- good anywhere

Translation Words - UST

- good ever happens to me

ULT

²⁵ My days are swifter than a running messenger; my days flee away; they see no good anywhere.

UST

²⁵ My days pass very quickly, like a fast runner who passes one by; it is as though the days run away, and nothing good ever happens to me.

Job 9:26They are as fast as papyrus reed boats

Job compares how quickly his days are passing by to the speed of fast boats. Alternate translation: "They pass quickly by like papyrus reed boats" (See: Simile) papyrus reed boats

"boats made out of reeds." Papyrus reed is a hollow grass that grows along the banks of rivers.

as fast as the eagle that swoops down on its victim

Job compares how quickly his days are passing by to a large bird diving toward its prey. Alternate translation: "as fast as the eagle that flies down quickly to catch its food" (See: Simile)

swoops down

Alternate translation: "rushes down"

ULT

26 They are as fast as papyrus reed boats, and as fast as the eagle that swoops down on its victim.

UST

26 My life goes by very rapidly, like a swiftly sailing boat made from reeds or like an eagle that swoops down to seize an animal.

Job 9:27

I would forget about my complaints

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word complaint, you could express the same idea with a verbal form such as "complain." Alternate translation: "I would stop complaining" or "I would stop complaining against God" (See: Abstract Nouns)

my complaints

It can be stated clearly whom Job was complaining against. Alternate translation: "my complaints against God" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

I would take off my sad face and be happy

Job's sad face is spoken of here as if it was something that could be removed. Alternate translation: "I would stop looking unhappy and smile" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- I would
- face and be happy

Translation Words - UST

- what I am complaining about
- to be cheerful

ULT

²⁷ If I said that I would forget about my complaints, that I would take off my sad face and be happy,

UST

²⁷ If I smile and say to God, 'I will forget what I am complaining about; I will stop looking sad and try to be cheerful.'

Job 9:28

I would be afraid of all my sorrows

Verses 28 and 29 express the consequences if Job does what he says in verse 27. This can be expressed by adding the word “then.”

Alternate translation: “Then I would be afraid of all my sorrows” (See: Connecting Words and Phrases) of all my sorrows

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word sorrows, you could express the same idea with a verb.

Alternate translation: “of everything that hurts me” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- I know that

Translation Words - UST

- I know that God does

ULT

28 I would be afraid of all my sorrows because I know that you will not consider me innocent.

UST

28 then I become afraid because of all that I am suffering because I know that God does not consider that I am innocent.

Job 9:29

I will be condemned

"I will be accused and punished." If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God will condemn me" (See: Active or Passive) why, then, should I try in vain?

Job uses this question to emphasize that he does not think it is of any use trying to get God's attention. The implied information about what Job is trying can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "It is of no use to try to get God's attention." (See: Rhetorical Question and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- I will
- be condemned

Translation Words - UST

- He will condemn me anyway
- keep trying

ULT

²⁹ I will be condemned; why, then, should I try in vain?

UST

²⁹ He will condemn me anyway, so why should I keep trying in vain to defend myself?

Job 9:30If I washed myself with snow water

Alternate translation: "If I bathed my body in pure, clean water" snow water

the water that comes from melted snow snow

white flakes of frozen water that fall from clouds in places where the air temperature is cold made my hands ever so clean

Some other versions of the Bible translate this with the meaning of "cleaned my hands with very strong soap."
Alternate translation: "made my hands exceedingly clean"

Translation Words - ULT

- my hands

Translation Words - UST

- my guilt

ULT

³⁰ If I washed myself with snow water and made my hands ever so clean,

UST

³⁰ If I washed myself with snow or cleansed my hands with lye to get rid of my guilt,

Job 9:31

plunge me in a ditch

Alternate translation: "throw me into a pit"

my own clothes would be disgusted with me

Job's clothing is spoken of as if it would have a negative response to Job after God plunged him into a ditch. Alternate translation: "I would be too filthy for my own clothing" (See: Personification)

ULT

³¹ God would plunge me in a ditch, and my own clothes would be disgusted with me.

UST

³¹ he would still throw me into a filthy pit; as a result it would be as though even my clothes would detest me.

Job 9:32answer him

Job implies that God has charged him of doing wrong, and he wants to respond to those charges. Alternate translation: “answer his charges against me” or “defend myself” or “argue my innocence with him” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) come together in court

“come together to trial.” Here “court” is a place where people can come and a judge will settle disputes. “Coming together in court” is a metonym for going against each other in a court of law. Alternate translation: “confront each other before a judge” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- that I could answer him

Translation Words - UST

- I could answer him to prove that I am innocent

ULT

³² For God is not a man, as I am, that I could answer him, that we could come together in court.

UST

³² God is not a human, as I am, so there is no way that I could answer him to prove that I am innocent if we went together to have a trial in a courtroom.

Job 9:33

There is no judge between us

This means there is no judge who is greater than God who could decide what is right between him and Job.

lay his hand upon us both

Here “lay his hand upon” means having power or authority over. Alternate translation: “take hold of both of us” or “have authority over both of us” (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- his hand

Translation Words - UST

- has

ULT

³³ There is no judge between us who might lay his hand upon us both.

UST

³³ There is no one to mediate, no one who has authority over both of us.

Job 9:34Connecting Statement:

These verses continue the previous argument that no one is greater than God who could act as a judge between God and Job.

take God's rod off me

Here "God's rod" is a metonym for God punishing or correcting Job. Alternate translation: "stop God from punishing me" (See: Metonymy) keep his terror from frightening me

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word terror, you could express the same idea with a verbal form such as "terrify." Alternate translation: "keep him from terrifying and frightening me" (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- who could take God's rod

Translation Words - UST

- making me suffer, and that he

ULT

34 There is no other judge who could take God's rod off me, who could keep his terror from frightening me.

UST

34 I wish someone else could stop God from making me suffer, and that he would not continue to terrify me.

Job 9:35

Then would I speak up

Alternate translation: "Then I would speak"

as things are now

Alternate translation: "because this is how things are now"

Translation Words - ULT

- Then would I
- fear him

Translation Words - UST

- being afraid of him
- I have

ULT

³⁵ Then would I speak up and not fear him. But as things are now, I cannot do that.

UST

³⁵ If he did that, I would declare that I am innocent without being afraid of him because I know within myself that I really have not done what is wrong like God thinks that I have.

Job 10

Job 10 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's response to Bildad.

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's righteousness

Despite being upset about his circumstances, Job does not curse Yahweh. Instead, he defends himself to Yahweh, while trusting in his decision. (See: curse, cursed, cursing and trust, trusted, trustworthy, trustworthiness)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Job uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to defend himself. He does not believe that he committed a sin deserving severe punishment. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 10:1

I am weary of my life

Alternate translation: "I am tired of living"

I will give free expression to my complaint

The abstract nouns "expression" and "complaint" can be translated as the verbs "express" and "complain." Alternate translation: "I will freely express what I have to complain about" or "I will argue freely" (See: Abstract Nouns)

I will speak in the bitterness of my soul

How Job feels is compared to a bitter taste. If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word bitterness, you could express the same idea with the adverb "bitterly." Alternate translation: "My inner being will speak bitterly" or "I will bitterly speak out" (See: Metaphor and Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- of my life
- of my soul
- I will give free expression

Translation Words - UST

- I will
- Since I am very
- not stop saying why

ULT

¹ I am weary of my life; I will give free expression to my complaint; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

UST

¹ I detest living any longer. I will not stop saying why I am complaining. Since I am very unhappy, I will speak.

Job 10:2

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- merely condemn me
- show me

Translation Words - UST

- God
- wrong you saw
- that I have done

ULT

² I will say to God, 'Do not merely condemn me; show me why you accuse me.'

UST

² I will say to God, 'Do not just say that you must punish me; in addition, tell me what wrong you saw that I have done.'

Job 10:3

Is it good to you that you should oppress me, to despise the work of your hands while you smile on the plans of the wicked?

This question expects a “no” answer and can be changed into a statement. Alternate translation: “It is not good that you should oppress me, that you should despise the work of your hands, while you smile on the plans of the wicked.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

the work of your hands

Here God is represented by his “hands.” Alternate translation: “what you have created” (See: Synecdoche) smile on the plans of the wicked

Here the idiom “smiling on” represents God’s approval. Alternate translation: “approve the plans of the wicked” (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- of your hands

Translation Words - UST

- to do

ULT

³ Is it good to you that you should oppress me, to despise the work of your hands while you smile on the plans of the wicked?

UST

³ Does it please you to oppress me, to abandon me, whom you created, and, at the same time, to help wicked people to do the things that they plan to do?

Job 10:4

Do you have eyes of flesh? Do you see like a man sees?

These two questions have nearly the same meaning. These questions expect a negative answer to emphasize that God does not see or understand things the same way a man does. They can be expressed as statements. Alternate translation: "You do not have eyes of flesh, and you do not see like a man sees." (See: Parallelism and Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- of flesh

Translation Words - UST

- we humans

ULT

⁴ Do you have eyes of flesh? Do you see like a man sees?

UST

⁴ Do you understand things the way that we humans do?

Job 10:5

Job begins to ask a rhetorical question. He is saying that God lives forever but people live only for a short time, so God should not worry about Job's sins. (See: Rhetorical Question) your days like the days of mankind ... your years like the years of people

These two phrases have nearly the same meaning. (See: Parallelism) your days

Alternate translation: "the number of your days"

your years

Alternate translation: "the number of your years"

ULT

⁵ Are your days like the days of mankind or your years like the years of people,

UST

⁵ Do you live for only a few years, like [as] we do?

Job 10:6Connecting Statement:

Job continues the rhetorical question he began in verse 5. (See: Rhetorical Question)

inquire after my iniquity

Alternate translation: "look to see if I have committed iniquity"

Translation Words - ULT

- you inquire after
- and search after
- my sin

Translation Words - UST

- continue to search for
- and to hunt
- my faults

ULT

⁶ that you inquire after my iniquity and search after my sin,

UST

⁶ So why do you continue to search for my faults and to hunt for my sins?

Job 10:7

Connecting Statement:

This is the end of the rhetorical question that begins with the words "Are your days" in verse 5.

although you know ... from your hand?

This is the end of the rhetorical question that begins with the words "Are your days" in verse 5. The whole question can be translated as a statement. "Your days are not like the days of mankind, and your years are not like the years of people, so you should not inquire after my iniquity and search after my sin, because you know I am not guilty and there is no one who can rescue me from your hand." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

⁷ although you know I am not guilty and there is no one who can rescue me from your hand?

UST

⁷ You know that I am not guilty, and that no one can rescue me from your power.

from your hand

Here "your hand" represents God's power. Alternate translation: "from your power" (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- I am...guilty
- your hand

Translation Words - UST

- from
- your power

Job 10:8

Your hands

Here “hands” represent God and his creative action. Alternate translation: “You” (See: Synecdoche)

Your hands have framed and fashioned me together round about

Job is using a metaphor of a potter forming clay to describe how God carefully created him. (See: Metaphor) framed and fashioned me

“shaped and formed me.” The words “framed” and “fashioned” are similar in meaning. (See: Doublet)

Translation Words - ULT

- Your hands

Translation Words - UST

- With your hands

ULT

⁸ Your hands have framed and fashioned me together round about, yet you are destroying me.

UST

⁸ With your hands you created me and shaped my body, but now you are deciding that you should not have done that, and you are destroying me instead.

Job 10:9

Call to mind

Alternate translation: "Remember"

bring me into dust again

Alternate translation: "turn me back into dust again"

Translation Words - ULT

- again

Translation Words - UST

- again

ULT

⁹ Call to mind, I beg you, that you have fashioned me like clay; will you bring me into dust again?

UST

⁹ Do not forget that you made me from a piece of clay; are you going to cause me to become soil again?

Job 10:10

General Information:

In these verses, Job uses the language of poetry to describe how God formed him in the womb. (See: Poetry)

Have you not poured me out like milk and curdled me like cheese?

This is a question that expects a positive answer. Alternate translation: “You poured me out like milk and curdled me like cheese.” or “You formed me in the womb like poured milk becomes cheese.” (See: Rhetorical Question and Simile)

you

Here “you” refers to God.

me

Here “me” refers to Job.

ULT

¹⁰ Have you not poured me out like milk and curdled me like cheese?

UST

¹⁰ You certainly formed me when I was conceived, and you put me together inside my mother’s womb.

Job 10:11

You have clothed me with skin and flesh

God putting skin and flesh on Job's body is spoken of as if God was putting clothing on him. Alternate translation: "You have put skin and flesh on my body" (See: Metaphor)

knit me together

"wove me together." God putting Job's body together in the womb is spoken of as if God was knitting or weaving a piece of cloth. Alternate translation: "put me together" (See: Metaphor) sinews

the parts of the body that connect muscles to bones or other body parts and are like tough, white bands or cords

ULT

11 You have clothed me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews.

UST

11 You fastened my bones together with sinews, and then you covered them with flesh inside my skin.

Job 10:12

You have granted me life and covenant faithfulness

The abstract nouns “life” and “faithfulness” can be stated as “live” and “faithful.” Alternate translation: “You have been faithful to your covenant and allowed me to live” (See: Abstract Nouns) your help

Alternate translation: “your care” guarded my spirit

Here Job is represented by his “spirit.” Alternate translation: “guarded me” or “watched carefully over me” or “kept me safe” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- and covenant faithfulness
- your help has guarded
- my spirit

Translation Words - UST

- you have faithfully loved
- preserved
- me

ULT

¹² You have granted me life and covenant faithfulness; your help has guarded my spirit.

UST

¹² You have caused me to be alive; you have faithfully loved me, and you have carefully preserved me.

Job 10:13

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- I know

Translation Words - UST

- were planning

ULT

¹³ Yet these things you hid in your heart — I know that this is what you were thinking:

UST

¹³ But you kept secret what you were planning to do to me; I am certain that you were planning to do these things to me.

Job 10:14

you would notice it

Alternate translation: "you would watch me"

Translation Words - ULT

- I sinned

Translation Words - UST

- sin

ULT

¹⁴ that if I sinned, you would notice it; you would not acquit me of my iniquity.

UST

¹⁴ You were watching to see if I would sin, so that, if I did sin, you would refuse to forgive me.

Job 10:15

If I have acted wickedly

Alternate translation: "If I do evil things"

woe to me

Alternate translation: "how terrible will it be for me"

lift up my head

This idiom means to be sure or confident. Alternate translation: "hold my head up" or "be confident" or "be sure about myself" (See: Idiom)

I am filled with disgrace—see my affliction

Another possible meaning, followed by some versions, is, "I am full of disgrace and am completely full of my own suffering," where the disgrace is bad but the suffering is even worse.

I am filled with disgrace

Alternate translation: "I am totally ashamed" or "No one respects me anymore" disgrace shame

see my affliction

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word affliction, you could express the same idea with a verbal form such as "afflict." Alternate translation: "see how God is afflicting me" (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- I have acted wickedly
- my head
- my affliction

Translation Words - UST

- I am a wicked man
- I still must bow my head
- I am very disgraced

ULT

¹⁵ If I have acted wickedly, woe to me; and even if I acted righteously, I could not lift up my head, since I am filled with disgrace— see my affliction!

UST

¹⁵ If I am a wicked man, I hope that terrible things will happen to me. But even if I am righteous, I still must bow my head and feel ashamed because I am very disgraced and feel miserable.

Job 10:16

If my head were lifted up, you would stalk me like a lion

This could mean: (1) this is a hypothetical situation that has not happened or (2) this is a description of a situation that happens repeatedly. Alternate translation: "When my head is lifted up, you stalk me like a lion" (See: Hypothetical Situations)

If my head were lifted up

This idiom means to become self-confident or proud. Alternate translation: "If I become proud" (See: Idiom and Reflexive Pronouns)

you would stalk me like a lion

Possible meanings of this simile are: (1) God hunts Job like a lion hunts its prey or (2) Job is like a lion being hunted by God. (See: Simile) again you would show yourself with marvellous acts of power against me

This phrase expresses irony in how God displays his marvelous power by acting to harm Job. (See: Irony and Reflexive Pronouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- and again
- you would show yourself with marvellous acts of power

Translation Words - UST

- to
- kill, and you act powerfully to injure

ULT

¹⁶ If my head were lifted up, you would stalk me like a lion; and again you would show yourself with marvellous acts of power against me.

UST

¹⁶ And if I am proud, you hunt me like a lion hunts for some animal to kill, and you act powerfully to injure me.

Job 10:17You bring new witnesses against me

Job's troubles from God are spoken of as if they were people who were witnesses against him. (See: Metaphor) increase your anger against me

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word anger, you could express the same idea with the adjective "angry." Alternate translation: "are more and more angry with me" (See: Abstract Nouns)

you attack me with fresh armies

God sending troubles against Job is spoken of as if God was constantly sending new armies against him. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- witnesses

Translation Words - UST

- You constantly find more witnesses

ULT

17 You bring new witnesses against me and increase your anger against me; you attack me with fresh armies.

UST

17 You constantly find more witnesses to testify that I have done what is wrong, and you continually become more angry with me. It is as though you are [were] always bringing new troops to attack me.

Job 10:18

brought me out of the womb

Here being brought out of the womb represents being born into this world. Alternate translation: “brought me out of my mother’s womb” or “brought me into this world” (See: Metaphor) given up my spirit

Giving up one’s spirit represents dying. Alternate translation: “died” (See: Metaphor) and that no eye had ever seen me

Job uses “eye” here to refer to the whole person. He wishes he could have died at birth, before anyone saw him. Alternate translation: “before any person had ever seen me” or “before I was born” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- have you brought me out

Translation Words - UST

- when I was born

ULT

18 Why, then, have you brought me out of the womb? I wish I had given up my spirit and that no eye had ever seen me.

UST

18 God, why did you allow me to be born? I wish had died when I was born, and that no one had ever seen me.

Job 10:19

I had never existed

Alternate translation: "I had never lived"

I would have been carried

Alternate translation: "My body would have been carried"

ULT

¹⁹ I would have been as though I had never existed; I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.

UST

¹⁹ I think it would have been better if I had been carried directly from my mother's womb to the grave than for me to live.

Job 10:20

Are not my days only a few?

Here “my days” represent the length of Job’s life. This question expects a positive answer, to emphasize that Job only expects to live a few more days. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “I only have a few days left to live.” or “My life will soon end.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

20 Are not my days only a few? Stop then, let me alone, so that I may have a little rest

UST

20 I think that there are only a few days for me to remain alive; so allow me to be alone, in order that I may have a little peace

Job 10:21

the land

Here the place where the spirits of dead people go is spoken of as if it was a land. Alternate translation: “the place” (See: Metaphor) of darkness and of the shadow of death

The phrase “shadow of death” intensifies the idea of “darkness.” Both phrases describe where the spirits of dead people go. (See: Doublet)

the shadow of death

See how you translated this in Job 3:5.

Translation Words - ULT

- I go from where
- return
- the land
- of darkness

Translation Words - UST

- I go
- return
- [a place\] where](#)
- it is always gloomy and very dark

ULT

²¹ before I go from where I will not return, to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death,

UST

²¹ before I go to the place from which I will never return, [[a place\] where it is always gloomy and very dark,](#)

Job 10:22as dark as midnight

The darkness of the place where the spirits of dead people go is compared to the darkness of midnight. (See: Simile)

without any order

This negative phrase can be expressed in positive form. Alternate translation: "full of confusion" or "where all is confused" (See: Litotes) where the light is like midnight

The light of the place where the spirits of dead people go is compared to midnight. Alternate translation: "where there is no light" (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- the land

Translation Words - UST

- a place of darkness

ULT

22 the land that is as dark as midnight, the land of the shadow of death, without any order, where the light is like midnight."

UST

22 a place of darkness and dark shadows where everything is confused [and] where even the small light there is like darkness."

Job 11

Job 11 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is the advice of Job's friend, Zophar.

Special concepts in this chapter

Zophar's advice

Zophar tells Job to curse Yahweh. The advice Zophar gives to Job is bad advice. He even questions the character of God. (See: curse, cursed, cursing)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Zophar uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Job that he is wrong. These questions help to build Zophar's argument. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 11:1

Zophar the Naamathite

See how you translated this man's name in Job 2:11. Alternate translation: "Zophar from the region of Naamah" (See: How to Translate Names)

ULT

¹ Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Zophar, the friend from the region of Naamah, said this to Job:

Job 11:2Should not such a multitude of words be answered?

Zophar is asking a question in the negative to emphasize that Job's words must be challenged. Alternate translation: "We must answer all of these words!" or "Someone should respond to all these words!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Should this man, so full of talk, be believed?

Zophar uses this question to emphasize that they should not believe what Job was saying. Alternate translation: "This man is so full of talk, but the people should not believe him!" or "Your many words alone do not mean you are innocent!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- be answered

Translation Words - UST

- answer

ULT

² "Should not such a multitude of words be answered? Should this man, so full of talk, be believed?"

UST

² "Should no one answer all that you have said? Just because you talk a lot, that fact should not persuade us to declare that you are innocent."

Job 11:3

Should your boasting make others remain silent?

Zophar uses this question to rebuke Job. Alternate translation: "Just because you have spoken many words, this does not mean that others must keep silent." (See: Rhetorical Question)

When you mock, will no one make you feel ashamed?

Zophar uses this question to rebuke Job. You may need to make explicit what it is that Job is mocking. Alternate translation: "You have mocked us for what we have said. Now we will make you feel ashamed!" (See: Rhetorical Question and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT

³ Should your boasting make others remain silent? When you mock, will no one make you feel ashamed?

UST

³ Job, should your babbling really cause us to be silent? When you make fun of what we think, certainly there should be someone to rebuke you and cause you to be ashamed!

Translation Words - ULT

- remain silent
- When you mock
- will...make you feel ashamed

Translation Words - UST

- Job, should your babbling really cause us to be silent
- to rebuke you
- and cause you to be ashamed

Job 11:4

My beliefs are pure

Alternate translation: "My understanding is correct"

I am blameless in your eyes

The eyes represent sight, which is a metaphor for God's evaluation of Job. This could mean: (1) that Job is saying that God judges him as blameless. Alternate translation: "You say that I am blameless" or (2) that Job believes he has been blameless and that God should judge him as blameless. Alternate translation: "You should recognize that I am blameless" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

⁴ For you say to God, 'My beliefs are pure, I am blameless in your eyes.'

UST

⁴ You say, 'What I say is true; God knows that I am innocent.'

Job 11:5

that God would speak ... open his lips against you

The words “open his lips” are a metonym that means speak. These two phrases mean the same thing and are used together to emphasize Zophar’s desire that God would speak harshly against Job. (See: Metonymy and Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- God

Translation Words - UST

- God

ULT

⁵ But, oh, that God would speak and open his lips against you;

UST

⁵ But I wish that God would talk and say something to answer you!

Job 11:6that he would show ... secrets of wisdom

What the “secrets of wisdom” are can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: “that he would show you that you are suffering because of your sin” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

God demands from you less than your iniquity deserves

Demanding from Job represents punishing Job. Alternate translation: “God is punishing you less than you deserve” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- Know then
- that God
- iniquity deserves

Translation Words - UST

- he knows
- God
- less than you deserve

ULT

⁶ that he would show you the secrets of wisdom! For he is great in understanding. Know then that God demands from you less than your iniquity deserves.

UST

⁶ God knows everything about everything, so I wish that he would tell you the secrets that he knows because he is wise. It would be good if you realized that God is punishing you less than you deserve!

Job 11:7Can you understand God by searching for him? Can you comprehend the Almighty perfectly?

These two parallel questions are asking the same thing. The writer uses the form of a question to add emphasis. Alternate translation: "You cannot understand God by searching for him, and you will never completely understand the Almighty!" (See: Parallelism and Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- the Almighty

Translation Words - UST

- out the things about God
- Almighty God

ULT

⁷ Can you understand God by searching for him? Can you comprehend the Almighty perfectly?

UST

⁷ Tell me, will you ever be able to find out the things about God that are very difficult to understand? Will you be able to find out everything that there is to know about Almighty God?

Job 11:8

The matter

This refers to understanding God. Alternate translation: "To understand God" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) is as high as heaven ... deeper than Sheol

The impossibility of understanding God is spoken of as if it were impossible to go to these extremely far away places. Alternate translation: "is as inaccessible as the highest places in heaven ... is more inaccessible than the deepest places in Sheol" (See: Parallelism and Simile) what can you do?

Zophar uses this question to show that a person cannot do anything to understand God fully. Alternate translation: "you cannot do anything." or "you cannot understand him fully." (See: Rhetorical Question) what can you know?

Zophar uses this question to show that a person cannot do anything to know God fully. Alternate translation: "you cannot know God fully." or "you cannot know all there is to know." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- heaven
- can you know

Translation Words - UST

- to heaven
- to know it all

ULT

⁸ The matter is as high as heaven; what can you do? It is deeper than Sheol; what can you know?

UST

⁸ What there is to know about God is greater than the distance from earth to heaven; so there is no way that you can understand it all. It is greater than the distance from here to the place of the dead; so it is impossible for you to know it all.

Job 11:9

Its measure

This could mean: (1) God's greatness or (2) the greatness of God's wisdom.

is longer than the earth ... wider than the sea

God's greatness or wisdom is spoken of as if it could be measured in distance. (See: Metaphor)

ULT

⁹ Its measure is longer than the earth, and wider than the sea.

UST

⁹ What there is to know about God is wider than the earth and wider than the ocean.

Job 11:10If he ... shuts anyone up

Alternate translation: "If God ... shuts anyone up in prison"

if he calls anyone to judgment

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word judgment, you could express the same idea with a verbal form such as "judge." Alternate translation: "if God calls anyone to go to him so that God might judge him" (See: Abstract Nouns) who can stop him?

This question emphasizes that no one can stop God. Alternate translation: "no one can stop him!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- can stop him

Translation Words - UST

- stop him

ULT

10 If he passes through and shuts anyone up, if he calls anyone to judgment, then who can stop him?

UST

10 If God comes to you and puts you in prison and then brings you to a trial, who can stop him?

Job 11:11

does he not notice it?

This emphasizes that God does notice sin. Alternate translation: "he surely notices it!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- knows
- does he...notice it

Translation Words - UST

- He knows
- ignore them

ULT

¹¹ For he knows false people; when he sees iniquity, does he not notice it?

UST

¹¹ He knows which people are worthless; and when he sees people doing wicked things, he certainly does not ignore them.

Job 11:12

But foolish people have no understanding

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word understanding, you could express the same idea with the verb "understand." Alternate translation: "But foolish people do not understand" (See: Abstract Nouns)

they will get it when a wild donkey gives birth to a man

Since a wild donkey can never give birth to a man, this means that foolish people will never get understanding. Alternate translation: "only if a wild donkey could give birth to a man could foolish people get understanding" or "it is as impossible for a foolish person to get understanding as it is for a donkey to give birth to a man" (See: Irony)

Translation Words - ULT

- to a man

Translation Words - UST

- to people

ULT

¹² But foolish people have no understanding; they will get it when a wild donkey gives birth to a man.

UST

¹² Stupid people like you will start to become wise when wild donkeys start giving birth to people.

Job 11:13suppose that you had set your heart right

The heart represents thoughts and attitudes. Setting it right represents correcting it. Alternate translation: "even if you had corrected your attitude" (See: Metaphor) had reached out with your hands toward God

This is a symbolic action representing asking God for help. Alternate translation: "had made an appeal and prayed to God" (See: Symbolic Action)

Translation Words - ULT

- your heart right
- with your hands

Translation Words - UST

- heart humble
- your hands

ULT

¹³ But suppose that you had set your heart right and had reached out with your hands toward God;

UST

¹³ Job, repent and make your heart humble; reach out your hands toward God and plead with him.

Job 11:14suppose that iniquity were in your hand

The hand represents what a person does. Alternate translation: “even if you had done some evil things in the past” (See: Metonymy) but that then you put it far away from you

Putting sin behind represents stopping sinning. Alternate translation: “but that then you stopped doing evil things” (See: Metaphor) did not let unrighteousness live in your tents

Unrighteousness living represents people doing unrighteous things. Alternate translation: “and you did not allow the members of your household to do unrighteous things” (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

- were in your hand

Translation Words - UST

- them

ULT

14 suppose that iniquity were in your hand, but that then you put it far away from you, and did not let unrighteousness live in your tents.

UST

14 If you have done evil things, stop doing them; and do not allow any people in your house to do wicked deeds.

Job 11:15

lift up your face without a sign of shame

“Lifting up your face” represents the attitude of a person who is confident and brave. (See: Metonymy and Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- your face
- and would...fear

Translation Words - UST

- your head high
- afraid of anything

ULT

¹⁵ Then you would certainly lift up your face without a sign of shame; indeed, you would be steadfast and would not fear.

UST

¹⁵ If you do that, surely you will be able to carry your head high, because you will not be ashamed; you will be strong and not afraid of anything.

Job 11:16

you would remember it only like waters that have flowed away

Zophar is comparing misery with water that flows downstream and it is gone. Alternate translation: “You would remember it, but the misery will be gone, like waters that have flowed away” (See: Simile)

ULT

16 You would forget your misery; you would remember it only like waters that have flowed away.

UST

16 You will forget all your troubles; they will be like the water that has all flowed away and dried up.

Job 11:17

Your life would ... like the morning.

Zophar repeats the same idea for emphasis. (See: Parallelism)

Your life would be brighter than the noonday

Brightness represents being prosperous and happy. Alternate translation: "Your life would be prosperous and happy like the noonday" (See: Metaphor)

though there were darkness

Darkness represents troubles and sadness. Alternate translation: "Though there were dark troubles and sadness" (See: Hypothetical Situations)

it would become like the morning

The morning represents light, which represents prosperity and happiness. Alternate translation: "it would be prosperous and happy like the morning" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

17 Your life would be brighter than the noonday; though there were darkness, it would become like the morning.

UST

17 Your troubles will be ended, like the darkness ends at the dawn; it will be as though the sun were shining brightly on you, like it shines at noon.

Job 11:18

You would be secure ... take your rest in safety

Zophar repeats the same idea for emphasis and describes the possibility. (See: Parallelism and Hypothetical Situations)

would take your rest in safety

“Take your rest” here is an idiom for “rest.” The phrase “in safety” can be expressed with the word “safely.” Alternate translation: “would rest safely” (See: Idiom and Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- hope

Translation Words - UST

- that good things will happen to you

ULT

18 You would be secure because there is hope; indeed, you would find safety about you and would take your rest in safety.

UST

18 You will feel safe, because you will be confident that good things will happen to you; God will protect you and allow you to rest safely each night.

Job 11:19Also you would lie down in rest ... your favor.

Zophar repeats the same idea for emphasis and describes the possibility. (See: Parallelism and Hypothetical Situations)

you would lie down in rest

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word rest, you could express the same idea with the verb "rest." Alternate translation: "you would lie down and rest" (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- Also you

Translation Words - UST

- you to be kind to them

ULT

19 Also you would lie down in rest, and none would make you afraid; indeed, many would seek your favor.

UST

19 You will lie down to sleep, and no one will make you afraid. And many people will come and request you to be kind to them.

Job 11:20

the eyes of wicked people will fail

Their eyes represent their understanding. Alternate translation: “the understanding of the wicked people will fail” or “the wicked people will not be able to understand” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- will fail
- will be a last
- life

Translation Words - UST

- will not be able to understand
- to escape
- is to die

ULT

²⁰ But the eyes of wicked people will fail; they will have no way to flee; their only hope will be a last gasp of life.”

UST

²⁰ But wicked people will not be able to understand why bad things are happening to them; they will not have any way to escape from their troubles. The only thing that they will want to do is to die. “

Job 12 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is Job's response to Zophar.

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's righteousness

Despite being upset about his circumstances, Job does not curse God. His friends, on the other hand, judge Job's case, which Job recognizes to be Yahweh's authority. These three friends therefore try to take God's place. (See: curse, cursed, cursing and judge, judgment)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphors

Job uses many different metaphors in this chapter to express his pain or despair. He is also upset with the advice of his friends, who are supposed to help him during difficult times. (See: Metaphor)

Rhetorical questions

Job uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Zophar that he is wrong. These questions help to build Job's response. (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

³ But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Indeed, who does not know such things as these?

UST

³ But I have as much good sense as you do; I am no less wise than you are. Certainly everyone knows all that you have said.

Job 12:4

I am something for my neighbor to laugh at— I, one who called on God and who was answered by him!

The relationship between these phrases can be made clear with the words “even though.” Alternate translation: “I am something for my neighbor to laugh at—even though I am one who called on God and he answered me!” (See: Connecting Words and Phrases)

I, a just and blameless man—I am now something to laugh at

The relationship between these phrases can be made clear with the words “even though.” Alternate translation: “Even though I am a just and blameless man, people now laugh at me” (See: Connecting Words and Phrases)

Translation Words - ULT

- I, one who called on
- I, a just

Translation Words - UST

- Previously I habitually requested God to help me
- righteous

ULT

⁴ I am something for my neighbor to laugh at— I, one who called on God and who was answered by him! I, a just and blameless man—I am now something to laugh at.

UST

⁴ My friends all laugh at me now. Previously I habitually requested God to help me, and he always answered me. I am righteous, and I honor God, but now everyone laughs at me.

Job 12:5

In the thought of someone who is at ease, there is contempt for misfortune

The abstract nouns “thought,” “ease,” “contempt,” and “misfortune” can be expressed with other phrases. Alternate translation: “A person who lives an easy life despises a person who suffers” (See: Abstract Nouns) brings more misfortune

Bringing misfortune represents causing it to happen. Alternate translation: “causes more bad things to happen” (See: Metaphor) to those whose foot is slipping

The foot slipping represents being in danger or trouble. Alternate translation: “to those who are already in trouble” (See: Metaphor)

ULT

⁵ In the thought of someone who is at ease, there is contempt for misfortune; he thinks in a way that brings more misfortune to those whose foot is slipping.

UST

⁵ It is easy for people like you, who have no troubles, to laugh at people like me; you make us who are already suffering to have even more troubles.

Job 12:6

The tents of robbers prosper

Their tents prospering represents the robbers prospering in their tents. Alternate translation: “Robbers live in prosperity in their own tents” (See: Metonymy) their own hands are their gods

Here “their own hands” is a metonym for strength, and “their gods” is a metaphor for their pride. Alternate translation: “they are extremely proud of their own abilities” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- their own hands
- are their gods

Translation Words - UST

- the
- god they worship

ULT

⁶ The tents of robbers prosper, and those who provoke God feel secure; their own hands are their gods.

UST

⁶ Meanwhile, bandits live peacefully, and no one threatens those who cause God to become angry; the god they worship is their own strength.

Job 12:7But now ask the beasts ... the birds ... they will tell you

Job is saying that the beasts and the birds understand God better than Job's friends do. (See: Irony)

you

All occurrences of "you" are plural. (See: Forms of You)

But now ask the beasts, and they will teach you

The command in the first part of the sentence functions as a hypothetical condition. Alternate translation: "But if you were to ask the beasts, they would teach you" (See: Imperatives — Other Uses and Hypothetical Situations)

ask the birds of the heavens, and they will tell you

The command in the first part of the sentence functions as a hypothetical condition. Alternate translation: "if you were to ask the birds of the heavens, they would tell you" (See: Imperatives — Other Uses and Hypothetical Situations)

Translation Words - ULT

- the beasts
- of the heavens

Translation Words - UST

- the wild animals
- what they know about God

ULT

⁷ But now ask the beasts, and they will teach you; ask the birds of the heavens, and they will tell you.

UST

⁷ But ask the wild animals what they know about God; if they could speak they would teach you. If you could ask the birds, they would tell you.

Job 12:8

Speak to the earth ... will declare to you

Job is saying that the beasts, the birds, the earth, and the fish understand God better than Job's friends do. (See: Irony)

Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you

The command in the first part of the sentence functions as a hypothetical condition. Alternate translation: "Or if you were to speak to the earth, it would teach you" (See: Imperatives — Other Uses and Hypothetical Situations)

the fish of the sea will declare to you

The command "Ask the fish of the sea" is understood from the previous sentences. It functions as a hypothetical condition. Alternate translation: "and if you were to ask the fish of the sea, they would declare to you" (See: Ellipsis and Imperatives — Other Uses and Hypothetical Situations)

ULT

⁸ Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you; the fish of the sea will declare to you.

UST

⁸ If you could ask the creatures that crawl on the ground, or the fish in the sea, they would tell you about God.

Job 12:9Which animal among all these does not know ... this?

This question emphasizes the point that all the animals know that Yahweh has done this. This question can be worded as a statement. Alternate translation: "Every animal among all these knows ... this." (See: Rhetorical Question) the hand of Yahweh has done this Yahweh's hand represents his power. Alternate translation: "Yahweh has done this by his power" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- the hand
- Yahweh
- does...know that

Translation Words - UST

- know
- is Yahweh
- has

ULT

⁹ Which animal among all these does not know that the hand of Yahweh has done this?

UST

⁹ All of them certainly know that it is Yahweh who has done this.

Job 12:10In his hand is the life ... and the breath of all mankind

Yahweh's hand represents his control or power. Alternate translation: "God controls the life of every living thing and gives breath to all mankind" (See: Metonymy)

the breath of all mankind

Here "breath" represents life or the ability to live. (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- his hand
- is the life of
- living
- thing
- and the breath

Translation Words - UST

- He directs
- to enable us to live
- lives
- living creatures
- gives breath

ULT

¹⁰ In his hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of all mankind.

UST

¹⁰ He directs the lives of all living creatures; he gives breath to all us humans to enable us to live.

Job 12:11

Does not the ear test words just as the palate tastes its food?

Job uses this question to emphasize that people listen to what others say and judge whether it is good or not. The ear and palate are metonyms for hearing and tasting. Alternate translation: "We hear what people say and test it just as we taste food and test it." (See: Rhetorical Question and Metonymy and Simile)

ULT

¹¹ Does not the ear test words just as the palate tastes its food?

UST

¹¹ When we hear what people like you say, we think carefully about what they say to determine what is good and what is bad, like we taste food to know what is good and what is bad.

Job 12:12

With aged men is wisdom

“Aged men have wisdom.” If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word wisdom, you could express the same idea with “wise.” The word “men” refers to people in general. Alternate translation: “Old people are wise” (See: Abstract Nouns and When Masculine Words Include Women) in length of days is understanding

This represents people gaining understanding when they live a long time. If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word understanding, you could express the same idea with the phrase “understand much.” Alternate translation: “people gain understanding when they live a long time” or “people who live a long time understand much” (See: Abstract Nouns)

ULT

¹² With aged men is wisdom; in length of days is understanding.

UST

¹² Old people are usually very wise; because they have lived a long time, they understand much.

Job 12:13

General Information:

Verse 13 says that God is wise and mighty. The rest of this chapter shows that this is true by telling about the wise and mighty things that God does.

With God are wisdom and might

The abstract nouns “wisdom” and “might” can be expressed with the adjectives “wise” and “mighty.” Alternate translation: “God is wise and mighty” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Job 12:16

With him are strength and wisdom

The abstract nouns “strength” and “wisdom” can be expressed with the words “strong” and “wise.” Alternate translation: “God is strong and wise” (See: Abstract Nouns) people who are deceived and the deceiver are both in his power

Being in God’s power represents God ruling over them. Alternate translation: “people who believe a lie and people who lie to others are both in his power” or “God rules over both people who believe lies and people who lie to others” 16 With him are strength and wisdom; people who are deceived and the deceiver are both in his power.

ULT

UST

16 He is the one who is truly strong and wise; he rules over those who deceive others and those whom they deceive.

Job 12:17

He leads counselors away barefoot

Leading counselors away barefoot represents taking away their wisdom and authority. (See: Metaphor) in sorrow

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word sorrow, you could express the same idea with the words “sad” or “grieve” Alternate translation: “and they feel very sad” or “and they grieve” (See: Abstract Nouns)

he turns judges into fools

Alternate translation: “he makes judges become foolish”

Translation Words - ULT

- He leads
- counselors
- he turns judges

Translation Words - UST

- He sometimes causes the king's officials
- and he causes judges
- to become

ULT

¹⁷ He leads counselors away barefoot in sorrow; he turns judges into fools.

UST

¹⁷ He sometimes causes the king's officials to lose their wisdom and grieve because of it' and he causes judges to become foolish.

Job 12:18

He takes off the chain of authority from kings

Possible meanings are that: (1) this is a metonym for causing kings to no longer have authority. Alternate translation: “He takes away the authority of kings” or (2) this is a metonym for setting people free from the chains that kings have put on them. Alternate translation: “He takes off the bonds that kings have put on people” (See: Metonymy)

he wraps a cloth about their waists

This cloth is probably what a slave wears. To put these cloths on kings represents making the kings slaves. Alternate translation: “he makes kings wear the clothing of slaves” or “he makes them slaves” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- kings

Translation Words - UST

- He takes from kings

ULT

Alternate translation: “defeats powerful people”

Translation Words - ULT

- He leads
- priests

Translation Words - UST

- He
- also makes priests

ULT

¹⁹ He leads priests away barefoot in sorrow and overthrows mighty people.

UST

¹⁹ He also makes priests grieve, and he takes power away from those who rule others.

Job 12:20

He removes the speech of those who had been trusted

Removing their speech represents making them unable to speak. Alternate translation: “He makes those who were trusted unable to speak” or “He silences people whom others trusted” (See: Metonymy) takes away the understanding of the elders

Taking away their understanding represents making them unable to understand or make good decisions. Alternate translation: “makes the elders unable to understand” or “makes the elders unable to make good decisions” (See: Metonymy)

the elders

This could mean: (1) the older people or (2) the leaders.

Translation Words - ULT

- of the elders

Translation Words - UST

- and he causes old men

ULT

²⁰ He removes the speech of those who had been trusted and takes away the understanding of the elders.

UST

²⁰ He sometimes causes those whom others trust to be unable to speak, and he causes old men to no longer have good sense.

Job 12:21

He pours contempt upon princes

Pouring contempt on princes is a metaphor for causing people to feel contempt for them. Alternate translation: "He causes people to greatly disrespect those who rule" (See: Metaphor) unfastens the belt of strong people

The belt is a symbol of strength. Unfastening a strong person's belt represents taking away his strength and making him weak. Alternate translation: "makes the strong people weak" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

²¹ He pours contempt upon princes and unfastens the belt of strong people.

UST

²¹ He causes people to despise those who rule, and he causes those who are powerful to become weak.

Job 12:22

He reveals the deep things of darkness

Revealing things represents making them known. “Deep things from darkness” represent secrets that people do not know. Alternate translation: “He makes known secrets that people do not know” (See: Metaphor) brings deep shadows into the light

Bringing things out into the light represents making them known, and here “shadows” is a metonym for the things that are hidden in the shadows, which in turn are a metaphor for truths that God has hidden from people. Alternate translation: “makes known things that no one can see” (See: Metaphor and Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- He reveals
- darkness
- and brings

Translation Words - UST

- shows
- even things that were
- dead

ULT

²² He reveals the deep things of darkness and brings deep shadows into the light.

UST

²² He shows to us things that were secret, even things that were in the world of the dead.

Job 12:23

He enlarges nations

Alternate translation: "He makes nations larger" or "He makes nations have more land" he also leads them along as prisoners

God leading nations represents God causing enemy nations to lead them. The word "them" represents nations, which here represents the people of those nations. Alternate translation: "he also causes their enemies to lead them along as prisoners" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- nations
- nations
- and he also destroys them

Translation Words - UST

- He causes some nations
- nations
- and later he destroys them

ULT

²³ He makes nations strong, and he also destroys them; He enlarges nations, and he also leads them along as prisoners.

UST

²³ He causes some nations to become very great, and later he destroys them; he causes the territory of some nations to become much larger, and later he brings others to defeat them and take them prisoner.

Job 12:24

He takes away understanding from the leaders of the people of the earth

Taking away their understanding represents causing them to be unable to understand. Alternate translation: "He causes the leaders of the people of the earth to be unable to understand" (See: Metaphor) to wander in a wilderness where there is no path

Wandering in a wilderness where there is no path represents being in a difficult situation and not knowing what to do. Alternate translation: "to be unsure of what to do like a person wandering in a wasteland with no path" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

²⁴ He takes away understanding from the leaders of the people of the earth; he causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no path.

UST

²⁴ He causes some rulers to become foolish, and then he causes them to wander around, lost, as if they were in the wilderness with no way out.

Translation Words - ULT

- understanding

- in the

Job 12:25

They grope in the dark without light

Being in the dark without light represents lacking knowledge. Alternate translation: "They struggle to make decisions without knowledge as people struggle to walk in the dark without light" (See: Metaphor)

he makes them stagger like a drunk man

Staggering or wandering like a drunk man represents living without purpose. Alternate translation: "he makes them live without purpose like a drunk person who staggers as he walks" or "they wander aimlessly like a drunk person who staggers back and forth" (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- in the dark

Translation Words - UST

- It is as if...in the darkness

ULT

²⁵ They grope in the dark without light; he makes them stagger like a drunk man.

UST

²⁵ It is as if they were feeling around in the darkness, without any light; as if they were drunk, not knowing what they should do."

Job 13

Job 13 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's response to Zophar. It also contains Job's claim of righteousness to Yahweh. (See: righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness)

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's righteousness

Despite being upset about his circumstances, Job does not curse God. His friends, on the other hand, judge Job's case, which Job recognizes to be Yahweh's authority. These three friends therefore try to take God's place. (See: curse, cursed, cursing and judge, judgment)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Job uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Zophar that he is wrong. These questions help to build Job's response. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 13:1

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to speak to his friends.

See

Alternate translation: "Look" or "Listen" or "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you" my eye has seen all this Job referred to himself as his eye since it is with his eyes that he saw these things. Alternate translation: "I have seen all this" (See: Synecdoche) my ear has heard and understood it

Job referred to himself as his ear since it is with his ears that he heard these things. Alternate translation: "I have heard and understood it" (See: Synecdoche)

ULT

¹ See, my eye has seen all this; my ear has heard and understood it.

UST

¹ "I have seen everything that you have seen, and I have heard and understood all that you have said.

Job 13:2

What you know, the same I also know

Alternate translation: "What you know, I also know" or "I know as much as you"

Translation Words - ULT

- What you know
- I am

Translation Words - UST

- What you know, I
- I do

ULT

² What you know, the same I also know;
I am not inferior to you.

UST

² What you know, I also know; I do not know less than you.

Job 13:3

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to speak to his friends.

I wish to reason with God

Job's friends are judging him, but they not speaking the truth. Job would rather argue with God alone about his complaint.

Translation Words - ULT

- the Almighty
- I wish

Translation Words - UST

- Almighty God, not with you
- I would like

ULT

³ However, I would rather speak with the Almighty; I wish to reason with God.

UST

³ But I would like to speak with Almighty God, not with you; I would like to argue with him and show him that I am innocent.

Job 13:4

you whitewash the truth with lies

Putting whitewash or plaster on the truth represents ignoring the truth. Alternate translation: “you hide the truth with lies” or “you lie and ignore the truth” (See: Metaphor)

you are all physicians of no value

Being a physician represents being a person who comforts others. Being of no value means that they do not know how to do what they should. Alternate translation: “you are all like physicians who do not know how to heal people” or “you all come to comfort me, but you do not know how, like unskilled physicians” (See: Metaphor)

ULT

⁴ But you whitewash the truth with lies; you are all physicians of no value.

UST

⁴ As for you, you tell lies and do not allow people to know unpleasant truth, like someone who covers up the bad surface of a wall with whitewash. You are all like doctors who sell people useless medicine.

Job 13:5

hold your peace

This expression means “be quiet” or “stop talking.” (See: Idiom)

That would be your wisdom

They thought that they were saying wise things, but Job was saying that they would be wiser if they would stop talking. If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word wisdom, you could express the same idea with another word such as “wise.” Alternate translation: “If you were to do that, you would be wise” or “If you were to stop talking, you would appear wise” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- altogether hold your peace
- altogether hold your peace

Translation Words - UST

- silent
- would be

ULT

⁵ Oh, that you would altogether hold your peace! That would be your wisdom.

UST

⁵ I wish that you would be silent; that would be wiser than anything you have said to me.

Job 13:6

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to speak to his friends.

listen to the pleading of my own lips

Here “lips” represent the person who is speaking. Alternate translation: “listen to what I myself plead for” (See: Synecdoche)

ULT

⁶ Hear now my own reasoning; listen to the pleading of my own lips.

UST

⁶ Listen to what I will say to you now; listen while I am saying what is true about myself.

Job 13:7Will you speak unrighteously ... deceitfully for him?

Job uses these two questions to rebuke his friends for speaking unrighteously. Alternate translation: "You think that you are speaking for God, but you are speaking unrighteously. You are speaking deceitfully." (See: Rhetorical Question and Parallelism and Irony) talk deceitfully

Alternate translation: "lie" or "tell lies"

ULT

⁷ Will you speak unrighteously for God, and will you talk deceitfully for him?

UST

⁷ You are telling lies to help God; you are saying what is false in order to help him!

Job 13:8

Will you show him partiality? Will you argue the case for God?

Showing kindness to God represents helping God or defending God against Job's complaints. Job uses these questions to rebuke his friends for thinking that they can defend God. Alternate translation: "You think that God need you to defend him? You think that you can argue for God like attorneys in court." (See: Rhetorical Question and Parallelism and Irony)

ULT

⁸ Will you show him partiality? Will you argue the case for God?

UST

⁸ You would really like to be kind to him by defending what he does, would you not? It is as if you were trying to prove in a court that he is innocent!

Job 13:9

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to speak to his friends.

Will it be good for you when he searches you out?

Here “searches you out” is a metaphor meaning “examines you.” Job uses this question to warn his friends that if God were to examine them, he would say that what they are doing is wrong. Alternate translation: “When God examines you, it will not be good for you.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Could you deceive him as you might deceive men?

Job uses this question to warn his friends that God knows the truth about them. Alternate translation: “You might be able to deceive men, but you cannot deceive God.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

⁹ Will it be good for you when he searches you out? Could you deceive him as you might deceive men?

UST

⁹ But if he, sitting as the judge, looked closely at you, he would find that what you are doing for him is bad! You have deceived other people, but do not think that you can lie about him in court and say that you are defending him!

Job 13:10

reprove you

Alternate translation: "rebuke you"

if in secret you showed partiality

"if you secretly show favor to another." Showing partiality refers to saying only good things about someone so that the judge will say that the person is good. Doing this in secret means pretending to speak fairly, but really favoring one person over another.

Translation Words - ULT

- you

Translation Words - UST

- he will

ULT

¹⁰ He would surely reprove you if in secret you showed partiality.

UST

¹⁰ If you say clever things to persuade God to take your side, he will surely rebuke you.

Job 13:11

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to speak to his friends.

Will not his majesty terrify you, and the dread of him fall upon you?

Job uses these questions to rebuke his friends. This could mean: (1) Job is saying that they should fear God. Alternate translation: "His majesty should make you afraid, and his dread should fall on you." or (2) Job is saying that they will fear God. Alternate translation: "His majesty will make you afraid, and his dread will fall on you!" (See: Rhetorical Question) and the dread of him fall upon you

Dread falling on people represents them becoming terribly afraid. Alternate translation: "and you not be terribly afraid" or "and you not be terrified" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹¹ Will not his majesty terrify you, and the dread of him fall upon you?

UST

¹¹ He will certainly bring the full force of his power against you; you will become very afraid of him.

Job 13:12

Your memorable sayings are proverbs made of ashes

Ashes represent things that are worthless and do not last. Alternate translation: “Your memorable sayings are worthless like ashes” or “Your memorable sayings will be forgotten like ashes that are blown away” (See: Metaphor) your defenses are defenses made of clay

Job speaks of what they say as if it were a wall made of clay around a city; it cannot defend the people because clay breaks easily. Alternate translation: “What you say in defense is as useless as a wall of clay” (See: Metaphor) your defenses

Possible meanings are that this refers to: (1) what they say to defend themselves or (2) what they say to defend God.

ULT

¹² Your memorable sayings are proverbs made of ashes; your defenses are defenses made of clay.

UST

¹² What you have said—the things that you think are so wise—are as useless as ashes; what you say to defend how you think is no better than clay that quickly crumbles.

Job 13:13

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to speak to his friends.

Hold your peace

This is an idiom meaning “Be quiet” or “Stop talking” (See: Idiom)

let me alone

This is an idiom that means “stop bothering me” or “stop hindering me” (See: Idiom)

let come what may on me

Things coming on a person represents things happening to a person. This expression starting with “let” means that he does not care what might happen to him. Alternate translation: “let whatever may happen to me happen” or “I do not care what may happen to me” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- Hold...peace, let me alone
- let come

Translation Words - UST

- allow me
- it will not matter...happens

ULT

¹³ Hold your peace, let me alone, so that I may speak, let come what may on me.

UST

¹³ So be quiet and allow me to speak; after that, it will not matter what happens to me.

Job 13:14

I will take my own flesh ... in my hands

“Flesh” here is a metonym for life. “Teeth” and “hands” are metonyms for his own control. These two phrases together emphasize that Job is willing to risk his life by arguing his case with God. Alternate translation: “I am ready to risk my life” (See: Metonymy and Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- my own flesh

Translation Words - UST

- me

ULT

¹⁴ I will take my own flesh in my teeth; I will take my life in my hands.

UST

¹⁴ I am ready to risk my life; I am even willing to risk that God will execute me for what I say.

Job 13:15

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- before him

Translation Words - UST

- in his presence anyway

ULT

¹⁵ See, if he kills me, I will have no hope left; nevertheless, I will defend my ways before him.

UST

¹⁵ If he kills me, then I will not have anyone else whom I can confidently expect to help me, but I am going to defend my behavior in his presence anyway.

Job 13:16

Connecting Statement:

Job finishes speaking to his friends and begins to address God directly.

This will be the reason for my deliverance

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word deliverance, you could express the same idea with the verb “deliver.” Alternate translation: “This is the reason that God will deliver me” or “This is why God will save me from my troubles” (See: Abstract Nouns)

ULT

16 This will be the reason for my deliverance, for no godless person would come before him.

UST

16 No wicked person would dare to stand in the presence of God, but because I say that I have not done things that are wrong, perhaps, if I can prove that to God, he will declare me innocent.”

Job 13:17

God, listen carefully

Job begins directing his speech directly to God.

listen carefully to my speech; let my declaration come to your ears

These two lines mean basically the same thing and intensify Job's request for God to listen to him. (See: Parallelism)

let my declaration come to your ears

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word declaration, you could express the same idea with the verb "declare." The ears represent listening. Alternate translation: "listen to my declaration" or "listen to what I declare" (See: Abstract Nouns and Metonymy)

ULT

¹⁷ God, listen carefully to my speech; let my declaration come to your ears.

UST

¹⁷ "God, listen very carefully to what I say; pay attention to me.

Job 13:18

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to God.

See now

This emphasizes what follows. "Listen now" or "Please pay special attention"

I have set my defense in order

Setting his defense in order represents deciding what he will say to defend himself. Alternate translation: "I have thought through how I will defend myself" or "I have decided how I will explain myself" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- my defense in order
- I know

Translation Words - UST

- and I know
- not guilty

ULT

¹⁸ See now, I have set my defense in order; I know that I am innocent.

UST

¹⁸ I am ready to argue that I am innocent, and I know that you also will declare that I am not guilty.

Job 13:19

Who is the one who would argue against me in court?

Job uses this question to express his belief that since he is right, no one would argue against him. Alternate translation: "I do not believe that anyone would argue against me in court." (See: Rhetorical Question)

If you came to do so

Alternate translation: "If you came to argue against me"

If you

"You" here means God himself.

if I were proved wrong

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "if you were to prove me wrong" (See: Active or Passive)

give up my life

Giving up one's life is a metaphor for dying. Alternate translation: "die" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- I were proved wrong, then I would be silent

Translation Words - UST

- I would speak no more

ULT

¹⁹ Who is the one who would argue against me in court? If you came to do so, and if I were proved wrong, then I would be silent and give up my life.

UST

¹⁹ I certainly do not think that you or anyone else will say that what I say is false; if you did so, then I would speak no more, and I would die.

Job 13:20

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to God.

from your face

“Face” represents the person. Alternate translation: “from you” (See: Synecdoche)

ULT

²⁰ God, do only two things for me, and then I will not hide myself from your face:

UST

²⁰ I am requesting you to do two things for me; if you do them, I will not try to hide from you.

Job 13:21

withdraw your oppressive hand

An oppressive hand is a metonym for doing things that oppress someone. Withdrawing the hand is a metaphor for stopping doing those things. Alternate translation: “stop oppressing me” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor) do not let your terrors make me afraid

The phrase “your terrors” refers to what causes people to be terrified of God. Alternate translation: “do not terrify me” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- hand

Translation Words - UST

- you...punishing me

ULT

²¹ withdraw your oppressive hand from me, and do not let your terrors make me afraid.

UST

²¹ The first thing that I request is that you stop punishing me, and the second thing that I request is that you stop terrifying me.

Job 13:22

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- Then call me
- will answer
- and you answer me

Translation Words - UST

- Speak first, and then
- and then you
- reply

ULT

²² Then call me, and I will answer; or let me speak to you, and you answer me.

UST

²² Speak first, and then I will reply; or allow me to speak first, and then you reply.

Job 13:23

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to God.

Translation Words - ULT

- iniquities
- and sins
- my transgression
- Let me know

Translation Words - UST

- that
- have I committed
- is wrong
- What sins

ULT

²³ How many are my iniquities and sins?
Let me know my transgression and my sin.

UST

²³ What have I done that is wrong?
What sins have I committed? Show me how I have disobeyed you.

Job 13:24

Why do you hide ... like your enemy?

Job asks this question to complain about how God is treating him. He probably hopes for an answer. (See: Rhetorical Question)

you hide your face from me

Hiding one's face from someone represents refusing to look at him or ignoring him. Alternate translation: "you refuse to look at me" or "you ignore me" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- your face

Translation Words - UST

- Why do you

ULT

²⁴ Why do you hide your face from me and treat me like your enemy?

UST

²⁴ Why do you refuse to be friendly to me? Why do you act toward me as though I were your enemy?

Job 13:25

Will you persecute ... pursue dry stubble?

Job uses these questions to tell God that since Job is so insignificant and weak, it is useless to persecute him. "Leaf" and "stubble" are metaphors describing Job's weakness, insignificance and frailty. Alternate translation: "You persecute me, but I am weak like a leaf blown by the wind and insignificant like dry stubble." (See: Rhetorical Question and Parallelism and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- persecute
- Will you pursue

Translation Words - UST

- Why are you trying to
- make me afraid

ULT

²⁵ Will you persecute a driven leaf? Will you pursue dry stubble?

UST

²⁵ I am as insignificant as a leaf that the wind blows. Why are you trying to make me afraid? Why are you making me suffer? After all, I am as useless as a bit of dry chaff!

Job 13:26

Connecting Statement:

Job finishes presenting his case to God.

For you write down bitter things against me

“Bitter things” represents accusations. Alternate translation: “For you write down accusations against me” (See: Metaphor)

you make me inherit the iniquities of my youth

Inheriting the iniquities of his youth is a metaphor. This could mean: (1) being guilty for the sins of his youth. Alternate translation: “you say that I am still guilty for the sins of my youth” or (2) being punished for the sins of his youth. Alternate translation: “you punish me for the sins of my youth” (See: Metaphor)

the iniquities of my youth

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word youth, you could express the same idea with the word “young.” Alternate translation: “the sins I committed when I was young” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- you make me inherit
- the iniquities

Translation Words - UST

- to
- even the bad things I did

ULT

²⁶ For you write down bitter things against me; you make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.

UST

²⁶ It seems that you are writing things to accuse me of having sinned, and that you are writing down even the bad things I did when I was young.

Job 13:27

You also put my feet in the stocks

Doing this represents punishing Job and keeping him from living freely as if Job had committed a crime and was a prisoner. Alternate translation: "It is as though you put my feet in the stocks" (See: Metaphor)

the stocks

This could mean: (1) a frame that holds a prisoner's feet in place so that he cannot move at all or (2) chains around a prisoner's feet that make it hard for him to walk. These are used as a form of punishment.

all my paths

"Paths" represent the things Job does. Alternate translation: "everything I do" (See: Metaphor)

you examine the ground where the soles of my feet have walked

The soles of his feet represent the person who walks. Alternate translation: "you examine the ground where I have walked" (See: Synecdoche)

you examine the ground where the soles of my feet have walked

Examining this ground represents examining all that Job has done. Alternate translation: "it is as though you examine the ground where I have walked" or "you examine everything I do like a person examining someone's footprints on the ground" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- You also put my

Translation Words - UST

- It is as though you have put

ULT

²⁷ You also put my feet in the stocks; you closely watch all my paths; you examine the ground where the soles of my feet have walked

UST

²⁷ It is as though you have put my feet in stocks and that you were watching me wherever I walk; it is as though you were following my footprints to see where I have gone.

Job 13:28

like a rotten thing that wastes away

Job compares his life to something that is decaying. He is slowly dying. (See: Simile) like a garment that moths have eaten

Job compares himself to clothes that are full of holes because the moths have eaten parts of it. (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- have eaten

Translation Words - UST

- are eating

ULT

²⁸ although I am like a rotten thing that wastes away, like a garment that moths have eaten.

UST

²⁸ Because of this, my body is falling apart like rotten wood, like a piece of cloth that the larvae of moths are eating.

Job 14

Job 14 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's claim of righteousness being presented to Yahweh. It also has an abrupt shift in tone. Rather than being hopeful, Job laments. (See: righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness and lament, lamentation)

Special concepts in this chapter

Resurrection

The events of Job occurred long before the Old Testament was written. Therefore, he likely had very little direct revelation about Yahweh. The resurrection of the dead was apparently not well-known during Job's day. (See: reveal, revealed, revelation)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Job uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in his appeal to Yahweh. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 14:1

Man, who is born of woman

This refers to all people, both men and women; all are born into this world. (See: When Masculine Words Include Women) lives only a few days

This is an exaggeration to emphasize that people live only a short time. Alternate translation: "lives only a very short time" (See: Hyperbole) is full of trouble

Being "full of trouble" represents experiencing much trouble. Alternate translation: "has many troubles" or "suffers much" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- Man, who

Translation Words - UST

- We humans

ULT

¹ Man, who is born of woman, lives only a few days and is full of trouble.

UST

¹ We humans are very frail. We are born, and we live only a short time; we experience much trouble.

Job 14:2He sprouts from the ground like a flower and is cut down

Like the life of a flower, a person's life is short and is easily killed. (See: Simile)

he flees like a shadow and does not last

A person's short life is compared to a shadow that disappears quickly. (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- He sprouts from the ground
- and does...last

Translation Words - UST

- We disappear quickly...that grow from the ground quickly
- and then wither and die

ULT

² He sprouts from the ground like a flower and is cut down; he flees like a shadow and does not last.

UST

² We disappear quickly, like flowers that grow from the ground quickly and then wither and die. We are like shadows that disappear when the sun stops shining.

Job 14:3

Do you look at any of these?

Job implies that he does not want God to pay so much attention to him. Alternate translation: "You do not look at any of these." or "You do not pay so much attention to these. Please do not pay so much attention to me." (See: Rhetorical Question) look at

Here looking at some one represents paying attention to him in order to judge him. Alternate translation: "pay attention to" or "look for faults in"

Do you bring me into judgment with you?

Job uses this question to show his surprise that God judges him even though Job is so insignificant like the flowers. Alternate translation: "But you judge me." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

³ Do you look at any of these? Do you bring me into judgment with you?

UST

³ Yahweh, why do you keep watching me to see if I am doing something that is wrong? Do you want to take me to court to judge me?

Job 14:4

Who can bring something clean out of something unclean? No one Job uses this question to persuade God to apply what he knows about unclean things to Job. Alternate translation: "No one can bring something clean out of something unclean" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- something clean

Translation Words - UST

- can bring something acceptable to God

ULT

⁴ Who can bring something clean out of something unclean? No one.

UST

⁴ No one can bring something acceptable to God out of something that is not acceptable to him.

Job 14:5

Man's days are determined

This can be expressed in active form. Alternate translation: "You determine a man's days" or "You decide how long a man lives" (See: Active or Passive)

The number of his months is with you

The number of man's months being with God represents God deciding the number of months that the man will live. "You decide how many months he will live" (See: Metonymy)

you have appointed his limits that he cannot pass

Passing a limit represents living past a time that God has set for a person to die. Alternate translation: "you have appointed the time that he will die, and he cannot live longer than that" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- have appointed his limits

Translation Words - UST

- decided

ULT

⁵ Man's days are determined. The number of his months is with you; you have appointed his limits that he cannot pass.

UST

⁵ You have decided how long our lives will be. You have decided how many months we will live, and we cannot live longer than the time that you have decided.

Job 14:6

hired man

a man who is hired to do a job and goes home afterwards

ULT

⁶ Look away from him that he may rest, so that he may enjoy his day like a hired man if he can do so.

UST

⁶ So please stop examining us, and allow us to be alone so that we might enjoy our life of hard labor, if a hired worker can possibly do so.

Job 14:7There can be hope for a tree

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word hope, you could express the same idea with the verb “hope.” The hope is explained in verses 7-9. Alternate translation: “We can hope that a tree will live again” (See: Abstract Nouns and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

it might sprout again

Alternate translation: “it might start growing again”

so that its tender stalk does not disappear

Disappearing represents dying. Alternate translation: “so that its young shoot will not die” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- There can be hope
- cut down

Translation Words - UST

- we cut
- sometimes we hope

ULT

⁷ There can be hope for a tree; if it is cut down, it might sprout again, so that its tender stalk does not disappear.

UST

⁷ If we cut a tree down, sometimes we hope that it will sprout again and grow new branches.

Job 14:8

Though

Alternate translation: "Even if" stump

the part of the tree that remains sticking out of the ground after someone has cut down most of the tree

ULT

⁸ Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stump dies in the ground,

UST

⁸ Its roots in the ground may be very old, and its stump may decay,

Job 14:9

even if it only smells water

This describes the dead stump as if it could smell water to represent water being near it. Alternate translation: “even if only a little water is near it” (See: Personification)

it will bud

Alternate translation: “it will start growing”

send out branches like a plant

The tree sending out branches represents branches growing on the tree. Alternate translation: “branches will start growing on it like a plant” (See: Personification)

ULT

⁹ yet even if it only smells water, it will bud and send out branches like a plant.

UST

⁹ but if some water falls on it, it may bud and send up shoots like a young plant.

Job 14:10

then where is he?

Job uses this question to emphasize that when a person dies, he is not present. Alternate translation: “no one knows where he is.” or “he is gone.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- he

Translation Words - UST

- But when we people

ULT

¹⁰ But man dies; he becomes weak; indeed, man stops breathing, and then where is he?

UST

¹⁰ But when we people lose all our strength and die, we stop breathing, and then we are gone forever.

Job 14:11

Connecting Statement:

Job begins to use word pictures to describe how it is that “man dies; he becomes weak” (verse 10).

As water disappears from a lake ... dries up

Water that has dried up from a lake or a river cannot return, and once a person dies or grows old, he cannot become young again. (See: Simile)

ULT

¹¹ As water disappears from a lake, and as a river loses water and dries up,

UST

¹¹ Just as water evaporates from a lake, or as a riverbed dries up,

Job 14:12

Connecting Statement:

Job finishes comparing growing old and dying with water drying up (verse 11).

so people lie down

Lying down represents dying. Alternate translation: “so people die” (See: Metaphor) do not rise again

Rising again represents living again. Alternate translation: “do not live again” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- the heavens are
- be roused out of

Translation Words - UST

- the heavens
- can wake them up

ULT

¹² so people lie down and do not rise again. Until the heavens are no more, they will not awake nor be roused out of their sleep.

UST

¹² people lie down and die and do not get up again. Until the heavens do not exist any longer; people who die do not wake up, and no one can wake them up.

Job 14:13

Oh, that you would hide me

This is an exclamation showing what Job wants very much but does not really expect to happen. Alternate translation: "I wish that you would hide me" (See: Exclamations) keep me in private

Alternate translation: "keep me locked up" or "keep me hidden"

call me to mind

Call someone to mind is an idiom meaning to think about him. Alternate translation: "think about me" or "remember me" (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- that
- you would set...a fixed time

Translation Words - UST

- the place of
- no longer

ULT

¹³ Oh, that you would hide me away in Sheol away from troubles, and that you would keep me in private until your wrath is over, that you would set me a fixed time to stay there and then call me to mind!

UST

¹³ Yahweh, I wish that you would put me safely in the place of the dead and forget about me, so that I do not suffer any more until you are no longer angry with me. I wish that you would decide how much time I would spend there, and then remember that I am there.

Job 14:14

If a man dies, will he live again?

The implicit answer is “no.” Alternate translation: “If a man dies, he will not live again.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

If so

What “so” refers to is understood from the previous phrase. Alternate translation: “If he would live again” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) to wait all my weary time there

Alternate translation: “to wait all my time there even though I would be weary” until my release should come

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word release, you could express the same idea with the verb “release.” Alternate translation: “until I should be released” or “until you release me” (See: Abstract Nouns)

ULT

14 If a man dies, will he live again? If so, I would wish to wait all my weary time there until my release should come.

UST

14 When we humans die, we will certainly not live again. If I knew that we would live again, I would wait patiently for you to release me from my sufferings.

Job 14:15

I would answer

Alternate translation: "I would do what you wanted me to do"

You would have a desire for

The noun "desire" can be expressed with the verbs "desire" or "want."
Alternate translation: "You would desire" or "You would want" (See: Abstract Nouns) for the work of your hands

Here God's hands represent him making things. Job refers to himself as the work of God's hands. Alternate translation: "for me, whom you have made" (See: Metonymy and First, Second or Third Person)

Translation Words - ULT

- You would call
- would answer you
- of your hands

Translation Words - UST

- You would call me
- answer
- the creatures

ULT

15 You would call, and I would answer you. You would have a desire for the work of your hands.

UST

15 You would call me, and I would answer. You would be eager to see me, one of the creatures that you had made.

Job 14:16

number and care for These two verbs together express a single action. Alternate translation: “attentively care for” (See: Hendiadys)

my footsteps

Footsteps represent his life or what he does. Alternate translation: “my life” or “the things I do” (See: Metonymy)

you would not keep track of my sin

Keeping track of Job's sin represents thinking about his sin. Alternate translation: “you would not look at my sin” or “you would not think about my sin” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- you would...keep track
- my sin

Translation Words - UST

- you would not
- whether I sinned or not

ULT

16 You would number and care for my footsteps; you would not keep track of my sin.

UST

16 You would carefully see where I went, and you would not be interested in seeing whether I sinned or not.

Job 14:17My transgression would be ... you would cover up

These three lines express the same thought and are used together to emphasize his confidence that God would forgive him. (See: Parallelism)

My transgression would be sealed up in a bag

Sealing transgression in a bag represents hiding it and refusing to think about it. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "You would refuse to think about my transgression like someone who hides something in a bag" (See: Metaphor)

you would cover up my iniquity

Covering up someone's iniquity so that it cannot be seen represents refusing to think about it. Alternate translation: "you would hide my iniquity" or "you would ignore my iniquity" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- my iniquity

Translation Words - UST

- them

ULT

¹⁷ My transgression would be sealed up in a bag; you would cover up my iniquity.

UST

¹⁷ The record of my sins would be sealed in a small bag, and you would cover them.

Job 14:18

mountains fall and come to nothing

“Come to nothing” here is an idiom meaning be completely destroyed. This phrase expands on the word “fall” and emphasizes complete destruction. Alternate translation: “mountains completely fall apart” (See: Doublet) rocks are moved out of their place

This can be expressed in active form. Alternate translation: “rocks tumble down from their place” (See: Active or Passive)

ULT

18 But even mountains fall and come to nothing; even rocks are moved out of their place;

UST

18 But, just as mountains crumble and rocks fall down from a cliff,

Job 14:19

Like this, you destroy the hope of man

If it is easier in your language, you can put this phrase at the beginning of verse 18 and adjust the text accordingly. Alternate translation: "You destroy the hope of man, just like ... dust of the earth" (See: Simile)

you destroy the hope of man

Destroying hope represents causing the things people hope for not to happen. Alternate translation: "You prevent the hope of man from happening" (See: Metaphor)

the hope of man

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word hopes, you could express the same idea with the verb "hope." Alternate translation: "the things that man hopes for" (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- of the earth
- Like this, you destroy

Translation Words - UST

- soil
- you eventually destroy us

ULT

¹⁹ the waters wear down the stones; their flooding washes away the dust of the earth. Like this, you destroy the hope of man.

UST

¹⁹ and just as water slowly wears away the stones, and just as floods wash away soil, you eventually destroy us; you do not allow us to continue to hope that we will keep on living.

Job 14:20You always defeat him

The word "him" refers to any person. Alternate translation: "You always defeat man" or "You always defeat people" he passes away

Passing away represents dying. Alternate translation: "he dies" (See: Euphemism)

you change his face

This could mean: (1) the pain just before dying makes his face contract or (2) when a person dies, God makes the person's face look different.

send him away to die

This represents causing him to die. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- his face

Translation Words - UST

- and you

ULT

20 You always defeat him, and he passes away; you change his face and send him away to die.

UST

20 You always defeat us, and then we die. You cause our faces to look ugly after we die, and you send us away.

Job 14:21

if they are brought low

Being brought low represents being shamed. Alternate translation: “if they are disgraced” or “if people shame them” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- If his sons
- are honored
- he does...know
- he does...see it

Translation Words - UST

- our sons will grow up and do things that will cause other people to
- honor
- them
- know that either

ULT

²¹ If his sons are honored, he does not know it; and if they are brought low, he does not see it.

UST

²¹ When we die, we do not know if our sons will grow up and do things that will cause other people to honor them. Or if they become disgraced, we do not know that either.

Job 14:22

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- of his own body
- and he mourns

Translation Words - UST

- we
- we will be sorry for ourselves

ULT

²² He feels only the pain of his own body, and he mourns for himself.

UST

²² We will feel our own pain; we will not feel anything else; we will be sorry for ourselves, not for anyone else."

Job 15

Job 15 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of the advice of Job's friend, Eliphaz. His words in this chapter are much stronger than when he previously spoke.

Special concepts in this chapter

Eliphaz's advice

Eliphaz tells Job to curse Yahweh. The advice Eliphaz gives to Job is bad advice. He tries to convince Job that he is sinning and has been punished by Yahweh. (See: curse, cursed, cursing and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Eliphaz uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Job that he is wrong. These questions help to build Eliphaz's argument. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 15:1

Eliphaz the Temanite

This is the name of a man. People from Teman are known as Temanites. See how you translated this in Job 2:11. (See: How to Translate Names)

ULT

¹ Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Eliphaz replied to Job:

Job 15:2

Should a wise man answer with useless knowledge and fill himself with the east wind?

Eliphaz uses this rhetorical question to rebuke Job. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "A wise man should not answer with useless knowledge nor fill himself with the east wind." (See: Rhetorical Question) fill himself with the east wind

The wind represents emptiness. This phrase speaks of a person speaking empty and meaningless words as if that person were full of the wind. Alternate translation: "fill himself with empty words" or "only have meaningless words" (See: Metaphor)

the east wind

Alternate translation: "hot air" or "the desert wind"

Translation Words - ULT

- answer
- with the...wind

Translation Words - UST

- you would not have replied to
- us by claiming that

ULT

² "Should a wise man answer with useless knowledge and fill himself with the east wind?"

UST

² "If you were truly wise, you would not have replied to us by claiming that you know a lot; what you are saying is just a lot of hot air."

Job 15:3

Should he reason with unprofitable talk or with speeches with which he can do no good?

Eliphaz uses this rhetorical question to rebuke Job. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “He should not reason with unprofitable talk nor with speeches with which he can do no good.” or “He should not argue using unprofitable talk or make speeches that accomplish nothing good.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

³ Should he reason with unprofitable talk or with speeches with which he can do no good?

UST

³ You should not be saying things that do not benefit anyone; you should not say things that do no one any good.

Job 15:4you diminish respect for God

This could mean: (1) "because of what you say and do, other people no longer respect God" or (2) "you are no longer respecting God."

diminish make smaller

you obstruct devotion to him

This could mean: (1) "you make it difficult for others to devote themselves to God" or (2) "you are no longer devoting yourself to God."

obstruct block someone's path devotion to

Alternate translation: "meditation on" or "concern for"

Translation Words - ULT

- devotion

Translation Words - UST

- honoring him

ULT

⁴ Indeed, you diminish respect for God; you obstruct devotion to him,

UST

⁴ You are teaching others not to respect God, and you are keeping them from honoring him.

Job 15:5

your iniquity teaches your mouth

This describes “iniquity” as if it were a teacher and Job’s mouth is described as if it is learning. This means that his speech is greatly influenced by his iniquity. Alternate translation: “your iniquity is like a teacher and your mouth is like its student” or “it is because of your sin that you speak the way you do” (See: Personification and Metaphor) your mouth

This speaks of Job, but refers to his “mouth” to place emphasis on what he says. Alternate translation: “you to speak” or “you to say what you say” (See: Synecdoche) to have the tongue of a crafty man

This refers to the way a crafty man speaks as his “tongue.” Alternate translation: “to speak in the way of a crafty man” (See: Metonymy) crafty man man who harms others by lying to them

Translation Words - ULT

- your iniquity

Translation Words - UST

- like deceptive people

ULT

⁵ for your iniquity teaches your mouth; you choose to have the tongue of a crafty man.

UST

⁵ You are wicked, and that is why you say what you do; you talk like deceptive people talk.

Job 15:6

Your own mouth condemns you, not mine

This refers to Job and Eliphaz by their “mouths” to place emphasis on what they say. Alternate translation: “You are condemned by what you say, not by what I say” or “You condemn yourself by what you say, it is not I who condemns you” (See: Synecdoche) your own lips testify

This speaks of Job, but refers to his “lips” to place emphasis on what he says. Alternate translation: “your own words” or “you testify” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- condemns you
- testify

Translation Words - UST

- shows that God should
- to prove that

ULT

⁶ Your own mouth condemns you, not mine; indeed, your own lips testify against you.

UST

⁶ Everything that you say shows that God should punish you; it is not necessary for me to prove that.

Job 15:7

General Information:

Each verse is a parallelism that contains two rhetorical questions. (See: Parallelism and Rhetorical Question)

Are you the first man that was born?

The implicit answer here is “no.” This rhetorical question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: “You are not the first man that was born.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Were you brought into existence before the hills?

The implicit answer here is “no.” This rhetorical question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: “You were not brought into existence before the hills.” or “God did not bring you into existence before he brought the hills into existence.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Were you brought

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “Did God bring you” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- man that

Translation Words - UST

- person who was ever born, do you

ULT

⁷ Are you the first man that was born?
Were you brought into existence before the hills?

UST

⁷ Tell me, why do you think you know so much? You do not think that you were the first person who was ever born, do you? You do not think that you were born before God created the mountains, do you?

Job 15:8

Have you heard the secret knowledge of God?

The implicit answer here is “no.” This rhetorical question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: “You have not heard the secret knowledge of God.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

This rhetorical question emphasizes that he cannot limit wisdom to himself. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “You cannot limit wisdom to yourself.” or “You are not the only wise person.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- of God

Translation Words - UST

- Were you listening when God

ULT

⁸ Have you heard the secret knowledge of God? Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

UST

⁸ Were you listening when God made all his plans? Do you think that you are the only person who is wise?

Job 15:9

What do you know that we do not know?

The implicit answer here is “nothing.” If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “There is nothing that you know that we do not know.” or “Everything you know, we also know.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

What do you understand that is not also in us?

This speaks of the men having understanding as if it were something “inside” them. Alternate translation: “Everything you understand, we also understand.” or “We understand everything that you understand.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

⁹ What do you know that we do not know? What do you understand that is not also in us?

UST

⁹ What do you know that we others do not know? You do not understand anything that is not also clear to us.

Translation Words - ULT

- know
- know
- What do you understand

Translation Words - UST

- you know that we others
- know
- understand anything

Job 15:10

With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men

Eliphaz speaks of him and the other men having learned wisdom from older men and wisdom that had been passed down from men of previous generations as if these older men were physically present with them. Alternate translation: “We acquired wisdom from old gray-haired people, from people who were born before your father was” (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹⁰ With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men who are much older than your father.

UST

¹⁰ My friends and I are also wise; we acquired wisdom from old gray-haired people, from people who were born before your father was.

Job 15:11

Are the consolations of God ... gentle toward you?

This rhetorical question is an accusation, with the implicit answer to the question being "yes." If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You must think that the consolations of God are too small for you, the words that are gentle toward you"

consolations

Alternate translation: "comforts" or "sympathies"

ULT

11 Are the consolations of God too small for you, the words that are gentle toward you?

UST

11 God wants to comfort you and to speak gently to you; that should be enough for you, but it is not enough, is it?

Job 15:12

Why does your heart carry you away?

Here the "heart" represents a person's emotions. Alternate translation: "Why do your emotions take you away?" or "Why do you allow your emotions to guide your decisions?" (See: Metonymy and Idiom)

Why do your eyes flash

This probably refers to Job appearing angry, specifically the appearance of his eyes. Alternate translation: "Why do your eyes look angry" or "Why are you angry" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- your heart

Translation Words - UST

- you allow yourself

ULT

¹² Why does your heart carry you away?
Why do your eyes flash,

UST

¹² Why do you allow yourself to be excited by your emotions? Why do your eyes flash with anger?

Job 15:13

turn your spirit

Here the "spirit" refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: "turn yourself" (See: Synecdoche) bring out such words from your mouth

This describes him speaking. Alternate translation: "so you say harsh things against him" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- turn your spirit against
- and bring
- out

Translation Words - UST

- angry
- God
- against him

ULT

¹³ so that you turn your spirit against God and bring out such words from your mouth?

UST

¹³ You are angry with God, and so you say harsh things against him.

Job 15:14

What is man ... What is he who is born

These two questions are basically the same and are used together to emphasize that a man cannot be perfect. (See: Parallelism)

What is man that he should be clean?

This rhetorical question is asked to emphasize that a man cannot be completely "clean." If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "A man, he cannot be completely clean." (See: Rhetorical Question) clean

A person who God considers spiritually acceptable is spoken of as if the person were physically clean. (See: Metaphor)

What is he who is born of a woman that he should be righteous?

This rhetorical question is asked to emphasize that a man cannot be completely "righteous." If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "A man who is born from a woman cannot be completely righteous." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

14 What is man that he should be clean?
What is he who is born of a woman that he should be righteous?

UST

14 How can any person, including you, be sinless? How can anyone on the earth be completely righteous?

Job 15:15See

This word is used here to draw Job's attention to what is said next.
Alternate translation: "Listen"

his holy ones

Alternate translation: "his angels"

clean

Something that God considers spiritually acceptable is spoken of as if it were physically clean. (See: Metaphor) in his sight

Here sight represents judgment or evaluation. Alternate translation: "in his judgment" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- God puts...trust

Translation Words - UST

- trust his angels

ULT

15 See, God puts no trust even in his holy ones; indeed, the heavens are not clean in his sight;

UST

15 God does not even trust his angels; he does not consider the heavens to be completely pure.

Job 15:16

abominable and corrupt

These two words basically mean the same thing and emphasize how wicked humans are. (See: Doublet) who drinks iniquity like water

This describes iniquity as if it were water you can drink. It compares how the evil man desires to commit sin to how readily he desires to drink cool water. Alternate translation: “who love iniquity as much as they love a cup of fresh water” or “who commit evil deeds as often as they drink water” (See: Metaphor)

ULT

16 how much less clean is one who is abominable and corrupt, a man who drinks iniquity like water!

UST

16 So he certainly does not trust disgusting people, those who commit evil deeds as often as they drink water.

Job 15:17

I will show you

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "I will explain to you" or "I will make it clear to you" (See: Idiom)

I will announce

Alternate translation: "I will declare"

ULT

¹⁷ I will show you; listen to me; I will announce to you the things I have seen,

UST

¹⁷ Job, listen to what I tell you. I will declare to you what I know,

Job 15:18

their ancestors did not hide

Eliphaz emphasizes that their ancestors purposefully taught them these things. Alternate translation: "their ancestors taught openly" (See: Litotes)

Translation Words - ULT

- wise men

Translation Words - UST

- wise men have

ULT

18 the things that wise men have passed down from their fathers, the things that their ancestors did not hide.

UST

18 things that wise men have told me, truths that their ancestors did not keep hidden.

Job 15:19

to whom alone the land was given

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "to whom alone God gave the land" (See: Active or Passive)

among whom no stranger ever passed

This means that no foreigner lived among them, specifically so that they would not be influenced by pagan religions. Alternate translation: "no one from another country came and caused them to think wrongly about God" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- the land

Translation Words - UST

- country

ULT

¹⁹ These were their ancestors, to whom alone the land was given, and among whom no stranger ever passed.

UST

¹⁹ (God gave this land to those ancestors who were truly wise; no one from another country came and caused them to think wrongly about God.)

Job 15:20

twists in pain

“suffers a lot of pain.” This is either physical or emotional pain.

the number of years that are laid up

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “all the years that God has laid up” (See: Active or Passive) that are laid up

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: “that are prepared” or “that are set aside” (See: Idiom)

ULT

20 The wicked man twists in pain all his days, the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor to suffer.

UST

20 Wicked people suffer with great pain all the time that they are alive; that is what happens to those who oppress others.

Job 15:21

A sound of terrors is in his ears

Alternate translation: "He constantly hears sounds that terrify him"

Translation Words - ULT

- A sound of terrors
- the destroyer

Translation Words - UST

- that terrify them
- while they are prospering

ULT

²¹ A sound of terrors is in his ears; while he is in prosperity, the destroyer will come upon him.

UST

²¹ They constantly hear sounds that terrify them; while they are prospering, robbers attack them.

Job 15:22

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues describing the wicked man he began to describe in Job 15:20.

return out of darkness

Here “darkness” is a metaphor for trouble or misfortune. Alternate translation: “escape misfortune” (See: Idiom)

the sword waits for him

Here “the sword” is a metonym that represents an enemy who is waiting to kill the evil man. This could mean: (1) he is worried that someone will murder him. Alternate translation: “he worries that someone is about to murder him” or (2) it is certain that he is going to be murdered. Alternate translation: “someone is waiting to murder him” (See: Metonymy and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- He does...think that
- will return
- darkness
- the sword

Translation Words - UST

- really think
- that they will escape
- darkness
- with a sword

ULT

²² He does not think that he will return out of darkness; the sword waits for him.

UST

²² Wicked people do not really think that they will escape from darkness; they are sure that someone is waiting to kill them with a sword.

Job 15:23

for bread

Here “bread” refers to food in general. Alternate translation: “for food” (See: Synecdoche)

the day of darkness

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: “the day of disaster” or “the moment of his death” (See: Idiom)

is at hand

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: “is coming soon” (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- He knows that
- of darkness
- is at hand

Translation Words - UST

- find some
- They know that
- experience disasters

ULT

²³ He goes to various places for bread, saying, ‘Where is it?’ He knows that the day of darkness is at hand.

UST

²³ They wander around, searching for food, saying ‘Where can I find some?’ They know that they will soon experience disasters.

Job 15:24

Distress and anguish make him afraid; they prevail against him

The words “distress” and “anguish” mean basically the same thing and emphasize the intensity of the emotion. Here these feelings are spoken of as if they were an enemy who is attacking the wicked man. (See: Doublet and Personification) prevail against

Alternate translation: “overpower” or “defeat”

as a king ready for battle

This compares how his distress and anguish overpower him to how a king, who is ready for battle, would prevail against him. Alternate translation: “just like a king, who is ready for a battle, would prevail against him” (See: Simile)

ULT

²⁴ Distress and anguish make him afraid; they prevail against him, as a king ready for battle.

UST

²⁴ Because they are afraid of those things happening to them, they worry that these things will attack them as a king's army waits to attack its enemies and causes them to suffer.

Job 15:25

he has reached out with his hand against God

“he has shook his fist against God.” This is a sign of aggression. (See: Symbolic Action)

Translation Words - ULT

- with his hand
- the Almighty

Translation Words - UST

- Almighty God
- defeat him

ULT

²⁵ Because he has reached out with his hand against God and has behaved proudly against the Almighty,

UST

²⁵ These things happen to them because they shook their fists against Almighty God and thought that they were strong enough to defeat him.

Job 15:26

runs at God

This speaks of the wicked man acting aggressively against God as if he were running towards him to attack him. Alternate translation: "attacks God" or "acts violently against God" (See: Metaphor) with a thick shield

Alternate translation: "with his strong shield"

ULT

²⁶ this wicked man runs at God with a stiff neck, with a thick shield.

UST

²⁶ They stubbornly rush to attack God thinking that a strong shield will protect them.

Job 15:27

This is true

“This” refers to the wicked man running at God from the previous verse.

he has covered his face with his fat and gathered fat on his loins

This wicked man is described as fat and weak, while believing himself to be strong enough to defeat God. Alternate translation: “he is weak with a fat face and fat loins” (See: Irony)

Translation Words - ULT

- his face

Translation Words - UST

- that

ULT

²⁷ This is true, even though he has covered his face with his fat and gathered fat on his loins,

UST

²⁷ But they are so fat that they are unable to fight.

Job 15:28

which no man inhabits

Alternate translation: "which are abandoned" heaps piles of useless things

Translation Words - ULT

- in houses which

Translation Words - UST

- of ruins

ULT

²⁸ and has lived in desolate cities; in houses which no man inhabits now and which were ready to become heaps.

UST

²⁸ They have lived in cities that have been abandoned, cities which God declared would become a heap of ruins.

Job 15:29

He will not be rich; his wealth will not last

These two litotes express that he will be the opposite of rich, that he will be poor. Alternate translation: "he will be poor; all his money will disappear" (See: Litotes)

Translation Words - ULT

- his wealth

Translation Words - UST

- remain rich very long

ULT

²⁹ He will not be rich; his wealth will not last and his possessions will not spread over the land.

UST

²⁹ But they will not remain rich very long; Others will take everything that they own, and even their shadows will disappear from the earth.

Job 15:30

out of darkness

Darkness here represents death. Alternate translation: “out of the darkness of death” (See: Metonymy)

a flame will dry up his stalks

Here the flame represents God’s judgment and the drying up of his stalks represents either the fact that his possessions disappear, or that he will die. Alternate translation: “God will take everything he owns away, like a fire dries out the moist branches of a tree” (See: Metaphor)

the breath of God’s mouth

Here God’s “breath” represents his judgement. Alternate translation: “God’s breath” or “God’s judgment” (See: Metonymy)

he will go away

This refers to him dying. Alternate translation: “he will die” (See: Euphemism)

Translation Words - ULT

- darkness
- at the breath

Translation Words - UST

- the darkness
- When God gives the command, they will die

ULT

30 He will not depart out of darkness; ^[1] a flame will dry up his stalks; at the breath of God’s mouth he will go away.
^[2]

UST

30 They will not escape from the darkness of death; they will be like trees whose branches burn up. When God gives the command, they will die.

Job 15:31

for uselessness will be his reward

This is implied that this is what will happen if he trusts in useless things. Alternate translation: "for if he trusts in them, uselessness will be his reward" (See: Ellipsis)

Translation Words - ULT

- Let him...trust in

Translation Words - UST

- with the result that they trust

ULT

³¹ Let him not trust in useless things, deceiving himself; for uselessness will be his reward.

UST

³¹ If they are very foolish, with the result that they trust in things that are really worthless, then things that are worthless will be all that they get.

Job 15:32

his branch will not be green

This speaks of the man looking pale and dead as if he were a dried out stalk or tree branch. Alternate translation: "he will look dead, just like the branch of a dead tree does not look green" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

³² It will happen before his time should come to die; his branch will not be green.

UST

³² While they are still young, they will disappear; they will be like branches that wither and never become green again.

Job 15:33

He will drop his ... he will cast off his

These two lines give a similar image, which is repeated to emphasize that this will surely happen. (See: Parallelism)

He will drop his unripe grapes like a grapevine

This speaks of the wicked man growing weak and dying as if he were a grapevine dropping unripe grapes. Alternate translation: "Just like a grapevine drops its unripe grapes, so the wicked man will drop his strength" (See: Metaphor)

he will cast off his flowers like the olive tree

This speaks of the wicked man growing weak and dying as if he were an olive tree dropping its flowers. Alternate translation: "just like an olive tree loses its flowers, so the wicked man will lose his strength" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

³³ He will drop his unripe grapes like a grapevine; he will cast off his flowers like the olive tree.

UST

³³ They will be like vines whose grapes fall off before they are ripe, like olive trees whose blossoms fall off before they produce any fruit.

Job 15:34

the company of godless people

Alternate translation: "the group of godless people"

fire will consume their tents of bribery

The phrase "tents of bribery" means that the wicked people bought these tents with the money they made by bribery. Alternate translation: "the tents they bought with their bribes will be burned by fire" (See: Possession)

Translation Words - ULT

- fire
- will consume

Translation Words - UST

- and fires will completely
- burn up

ULT

³⁴ For the company of godless people will be barren; fire will consume their tents of bribery.

UST

³⁴ Groups of wicked people will not have any descendants, and fires will completely burn up the homes of those who took money from bribes.

Job 15:35

They conceive mischief and give birth to iniquity; their womb conceives deceit

The same thought is repeated three times to emphasize how much evil these people produce. This speaks of a person planning to do evil things and doing them as if the person were conceiving and giving birth to these things as a woman conceives and gives birth to a child. Alternate translation: "They plan to cause mischief and do evil things; they are always planning to deceive others" (See: Parallelism and Metaphor) their womb conceives

Here the "womb" is used to refer to the person to emphasize conception, as it is in the womb that conception takes place. Alternate translation: "they conceive" (See: Synecdoche)

ULT

³⁵ They conceive mischief and give birth to iniquity; their womb conceives deceit."

UST

³⁵ They plan to cause trouble and to do evil things, and in their hearts they are always preparing to deceive people."

Job 16

Job 16 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is Job's response to Eliphaz.

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's response

Job expresses shock and disgust at the advice Eliphaz gives to him. He even mocks Eliphaz. He describes the difficulties of his circumstances but never curses Yahweh. (See: curse, cursed, cursing)

Advocate

Job describes the need for someone to intercede for him in heaven. This person would be his advocate and provide a witness for him. Although this is probably not intended as a prophecy, it closely parallels the way Jesus intercedes for people in heaven. (See: intercede, intercession, heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly and testimony, testify, witness, eyewitness, evidence and prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess)

you are all miserable comforters

Alternate translation: "instead of comforting me, you all make me more miserable"

Translation Words - ULT

- comforters

Translation Words - UST

- before

ULT

² "I have heard many such things; you are all miserable comforters."

UST

² "I have heard things like that before; all of you, instead of helping me, are only causing me to feel more miserable."

Job 16:3

Will useless words ever have an end?

Job uses this rhetorical question to express that he wishes that they would stop speaking useless words. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "How I wish your useless words would end!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

What is wrong with you that you answer like this?

Job uses this rhetorical question to rebuke Eliphaz. Here the word "you" is singular and refers to Eliphaz, who just finished speaking to Job. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "Eliphaz, you should stop answering me like this!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

³ Will your speeches, which are only wind, never end? Eliphaz, what bothers you that makes you continue replying like this to me?

Job 16:4

I could collect and join words together

Job speaks of thinking of useless things to say as if his words were random items that he collected and joined together. Alternate translation: "I could think of things to say" (See: Metaphor) shake my head

This is an action that shows disapproval. (See: Symbolic Action) in mockery

The word "mockery" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "to mock you" (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- I
- as
- I could collect
- my head

Translation Words - UST

- not I who were suffering
- that you
- the things
- my head

ULT

⁴ I also could speak as you do, if you were in my place; I could collect and join words together against you and shake my head at you in mockery.

UST

⁴ If it were you three and not I who were suffering, I could, in your place, say the things that you are saying. I could make great speeches to criticize you, and I could shake my head at you to ridicule you.

Job 16:5

I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the quivering of my lips will bring you relief!

The words “mouth” and “lips” are metonyms for the words or messages that a person speaks using his mouth and lips. Here Job is speaking sarcastically and means the opposite of what he says. Alternate translation: “My words would surely not be encouraging to you! They would surely not lighten your grief” or “By speaking to you as you spoke to me earlier, I would not encourage you or lighten your grief!” (See: Metonymy and Irony) with my mouth

Here Job’s “mouth” represents what he says. Alternate translation: “with what I say” (See: Metonymy)

the quivering of my lips

This is a metonym for the words or message that he speaks. Alternate translation: “my comforting words” (See: Metonymy)

will bring you relief

This speaks of grief as if it were a heavy physical burden. Alternate translation: “will lessen your grief” or “will help you feel less grief” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- will bring you relief

Translation Words - UST

- whether they made you feel your pain less

ULT

⁵ I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the quivering of my lips will bring you relief!

UST

⁵ Then you would see whether my words encouraged you or not; you would see whether they made you feel your pain less.

Job 16:6

grief

Job has experienced great loss of family and health that is unexplained and therefore causes him “great sorrow and emotional pain.”

how am I helped?

Job uses this rhetorical question to express that keeping quiet does not lessen his grief. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “it does not help me at all.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- is...lessened
- speaking

Translation Words - UST

- decrease
- go away

ULT

⁶ If I speak, my grief is not lessened; if I keep from speaking, how am I helped?

UST

⁶ But now, if I talk, my pain does not decrease, and if I am silent, my pain still certainly does not go away.

Job 16:7

But now, God, you

Job now turns his complaining to God.

made all my family desolate

Alternate translation: "destroyed all my family"

Translation Words - ULT

- you have made...desolate

Translation Words - UST

- all my strength

ULT

⁷ But now, God, you have made me weary; you have made all my family desolate.

UST

⁷ God, you have now taken away all my strength; you have destroyed all my family.

Job 16:8You have made me dry up

This means that Job's body has shriveled and become wrinkled. Alternate translation: "You have made my body shrivel up" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) which itself is a witness against me

Job describes the shriveling of his body as if it were an accuser against him. Alternate translation: "and people think that shows me to be a sinner" (See: Personification) the leanness of my body rises up against me, and it testifies against Job describes the thinness of his body as if it were accuser against him. Alternate translation: "They see how thin my body is, and they think that proves that I am guilty" (See: Personification) against my face

Here Job is referred to by his "face." Alternate translation: "against me" (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- and

Translation Words - UST

- to be a sinner

ULT

⁸ You have made me dry up, which itself is a witness against me; the leanness of my body rises up against me, and it testifies against my face.

UST

⁸ You have shriveled me up, and people think that shows me to be a sinner. They see that I am only skin and bones, and they think that proves that I am guilty.

Job 16:9God has torn me in his wrath and persecuted me ... as he tears me apart

This speaks of God causing Job pain as if God were a wild animal and Job were his prey that he was killing. Alternate translation: "Because God is very angry with me, it is as though he were a wild animal that tore my body apart with his teeth because he was my enemy" (See: Metaphor)

my enemy

Job refers to God as his "enemy" as he describes how he has caused him great pain.

fastens his eyes on me

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "glares at me" (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- in rage

Translation Words - UST

- it is as though

ULT

⁹ God has torn me in his wrath and persecuted me; He grinds his teeth in rage; my enemy fastens his eyes on me as he tears me apart.

UST

⁹ Because God is very angry with me and hates me, it is as though he were a wild animal that tore me apart with his teeth because he was my enemy.

Job 16:10

People have gaped with open mouth

To “gape” means to stare in amazement with open mouth.

ULT

¹⁰ People have gaped with open mouth at me; they have hit me reproachfully on the cheek; they have gathered together against me.

UST

¹⁰ People gape at me with their mouths open to sneer at me; they have struck me on the face to ridicule me, and they crowd around me to threaten me.

Job 16:11

hands me over to ungodly people, and throws me into the hands of wicked people

These two lines mean basically the same thing. Together they emphasize Job's feeling of having been betrayed by God. (See: Parallelism) hands me over to

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "puts me under the control of" (See: Idiom) throws me into the hands

Here a person's "hands" refer to his "control." Alternate translation: "delivers me to the control" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- hands

Translation Words - UST

- into the power

ULT

dashed me to pieces

Job speaks of God causing him pain and despair as if he were something that God had taken and smashed into pieces. Alternate translation: "it is as though he has taken me by the neck and smashed me to pieces" (See: Metaphor)

he has also set me up as his target

Job speaks of himself being the focus of God's attacks as if God has set him up as a target to shoot arrows at. Alternate translation: "it is as though he set me up like a target" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹² I was at ease, and he broke me apart. Indeed, he has taken me by the neck and dashed me to pieces; he has also set me up as his target.

UST

¹² Previously, I was living peacefully, but he crushed me; it is as though he grabbed my neck and smashed me to pieces; it is as though he set me up like a target.

Job 16:13

His archers surround me all around

Job speaks of himself being the focus of God's attacks as if God has set him up as a target and God had archers surrounding him to attack him. Alternate translation: "It is as though his archers have me surrounded" (See: Metaphor)

God pierces my kidneys and does not spare me; he pours out my bile on the ground

Job speaks of the pain he is feeling by comparing it to God piercing his body with arrows. Here "God" represents the arrows that he shoots. Alternate translation: "It feels like God's arrows have pierced my kidneys and my liver, spilling my bile on the ground. He does not spare me" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹³ His archers surround me all around; God pierces my kidneys and does not spare me; he pours out my bile on the ground.

UST

¹³ It is as though I were a target, and that people were surrounding me and shooting arrows at me. God's arrows pierce my kidneys and cause the bile from my liver to spill onto the ground; God does not pity me at all.

Job 16:14

He smashes through my wall

Job speaks of the pain that he feels by comparing himself to a wall that God smashes through. Alternate translation: "I feel like a wall that God smashes through" or "I feel like a wall that God breaks through" (See: Metaphor)

he runs upon me like a warrior

Job describes God as a soldier that attacks him. Alternate translation: "it is like he is a warrior who runs at me to attack me" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- again...again
- like a warrior

Translation Words - UST

- like a soldier who is attacking

ULT

14 He smashes through my wall again and again; he runs upon me like a warrior.

UST

14 It is as though I were a wall that he is breaking through time after time; he rushes at me like a soldier who is attacking his enemy.

Job 16:15

I have sewn sackcloth on my skin

Job speaks of wearing clothing made of sackcloth as if the cloth were attached to his body. People often wore sackcloth to express mourning or great grief. Alternate translation: "Because I am mourning, I have sewn together sackcloth to wear as my clothing" or "I wear clothing that I made from sackcloth, because I am mourning" (See: Metaphor)

I have thrust my horn into the ground

Job's "horn" represents the power and authority he had before but now is no more. Alternate translation: "I sit here in the dirt, very depressed" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- sackcloth

Translation Words - UST

- rough cloth

ULT

15 I have sewn sackcloth on my skin; I have thrust my horn into the ground.

UST

15 Because I am mourning, I wear pieces of rough cloth that I have sewed together, and I sit here in the dirt, very depressed.

Job 16:16

on my eyelids is the shadow of death

Here Job's eyes are represented by his "eyelids." Job speaks of his eyes' dark appearance as if his eyes looked like the eyes of a dead person. Alternate translation: "there are dark circles around my eyes" or "my eyes are dark, like the eyes of a dead person" (See: Synecdoche and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- My face

Translation Words - UST

- My face

ULT

¹⁶ My face is red with weeping; on my eyelids is the shadow of death

UST

¹⁶ My face is red because I have cried very much, and there are dark circles around my eyes.

Job 16:17

there is no violence in my hands

“Hands” refers to a person’s ability and activity. Alternate translation: “I have not acted violently” (See: Metonymy)

ULT

17 although there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure.

UST

17 All this has happened to me even though I have not acted violently toward anyone, and even though I always pray sincerely to God.

Job 16:18

Earth, do not cover up my blood

Jobs speaks to the “earth” directly even though it cannot hear him, to add strength to his statement. The earth is personified as purposefully covering up his blood after he dies. Alternate translation: “I wish my blood would not soak into the ground but that it would remain on top of the ground as proof of how I died” (See: Apostrophe and Personification)

Earth, do not cover up my blood

Job speaks of himself dying as if he would be murdered. Here his “blood” is a metonym referring to his death. Alternate translation: “Earth, when I die, do not hide how I died unfairly” or “Let it not be hidden how I died unfairly” (See: Metonymy)

let my cry have no resting place

Job speaks of wanting everyone to know what happened to him as if his “cry” were a person that never stopped testifying to what happened to him and never rested. Alternate translation: “let everyone hear about what has happened to me” (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

- Earth
- my blood

Translation Words - UST

- When I die, I want the ground to act as though
- murdered

ULT

18 Earth, do not cover up my blood; let my cry have no resting place.

UST

18 When I die, I want the ground to act as though I had been murdered; I want it to cry out against those who killed me, and I do not want anyone to stop me while I am demanding that God act justly toward me.

- I will...return

Translation Words - UST

- I will walk
- return

ULT

²² For when a few years have passed, I will go to a place from where I will not return.

UST

²² I say this because within a few years I will die; I will walk along the road to a place from which I will never return."

Job 17

Job 17 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's response to Eliphaz, but it is more directly addressed to Yahweh.

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's grief

Job expresses grief or great sadness in this chapter. He awaits the justice and intercession of Yahweh as he awaits his own death. (See: curse, cursed, cursing and intercede, intercession)

Advocate

Job describes the need for someone to intercede for him in heaven. This person would be his advocate and provide a witness for him. Although this is probably not intended as a prophecy, it closely parallels the way Jesus intercedes for people in heaven. (See: heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly and testimony, testify, witness, eyewitness, evidence and prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess)

Job 17:1

My spirit is consumed

Job refers to himself by his “spirit” to emphasize his inner emotions. He speaks of not having any strength left as if he were something that has been used up. Alternate translation: “I am consumed” or “I have lost all of my strength” (See: Synecdoche and Metaphor)

my days are over

Alternate translation: “my time is over” or “I am going to die soon”

the grave is ready for me

This phrase describes “the grave” as if it is a person who will receive Job as a guest. Alternate translation: “soon I will be dead and buried” (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

- My spirit
- the grave is ready

Translation Words - UST

- to live
- those who have dug my grave are waiting for

ULT

¹ My spirit is consumed, and my days are over; the grave is ready for me.

UST

¹ “My time to live is almost ended; I have no strength left; those who have dug my grave are waiting for me.”

Job 17:2

Surely there are mockers with me

Alternate translation: "Those who are around me are mocking me"

Surely

Alternate translation: "Certainly" or "There is no doubt that"

my eye must always see

Job refers to himself by his "eyes" to emphasize what he sees.

Alternate translation: "I must always see" or "I must always hear" (See: Synecdoche) their provocation

"their insults." The word "provocation" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "them provoking me" or "them, trying to make me angry" (See: Abstract Nouns)

ULT

² Surely there are mockers with me; my eye must always see their provocation.

UST

² Those who are around me are making fun of me; I must always see them mocking me."

Job 17:3

Give now a pledge, be a guarantee for me with yourself

Job begins to speak to God. Here he speaks of his situation as if he were in prison. He is asking God to provide a pledge so that he may be released. Alternate translation: “God, give now a pledge so that I may be released from this prison” or “pay for my release from prison” (See: Metaphor) who else is there who will help me?

Job uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that there is no one else to help him. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “there is no one else who will help me.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

³ Give now a pledge, be a guarantee for me with yourself; who else is there who will help me?

UST

³ “God, it is as though I were in prison; please pay the money in order that I may be released, because there is certainly no one else who will help me.

Job 17:4

have kept their hearts

The word “their” refers to his friends. They are referred to by their “hearts” to emphasize their emotions. Alternate translation: “have kept them” or “have kept my friends” (See: Synecdoche) you will not exalt them over me

Alternate translation: “you will not allow them to triumph over me”

Translation Words - ULT

- their hearts

Translation Words - UST

- I have done wrong things

ULT

⁴ For you, God, have kept their hearts from understanding; therefore, you will not exalt them over me.

UST

⁴ You have prevented my friends from understanding what is true about me, but you will not allow them to triumph over me, saying that I have done wrong things.

Job 17:5He who

Alternate translation: "Anyone who"

denounces his friends for a reward

Alternate translation: "falsely accuses his friends in order to get a profit" or "betrays his friends to receive a reward"

the eyes of his children will fail

The person's children are referred to here by their "eyes." This phrase describes the children suffering because of what their father or mother did. Alternate translation: "his children will suffer for it" (See: Synecdoche and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- of his children
- will fail

Translation Words - UST

- person's children who will be punished for it
- I desire that will be true of these friends of mine who are lying about me

ULT

⁵ He who denounces his friends for a reward, the eyes of his children will fail.

UST

⁵ Our ancestors said, 'It often happens that when someone betrays his friends in order to get some of their property, it is that person's children who will be punished for it;' so I desire that will be true of these friends of mine who are lying about me.

Job 17:6he has made me a byword of the people

This means that people speak of him in a mocking way and use his name as an insult. Alternate translation: “because of him, people use my name as an insult” or “because of them, people use my name as a byword” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) they spit in my face

“people spit in my face.” In this culture spitting on someone was a great insult. If spitting has a different meaning in your culture you can write this differently. Alternate translation: “people insult me greatly, by spitting in my face” (See: Symbolic Action)

Translation Words - ULT

- of the people

Translation Words - UST

- But now people

ULT

⁶ But he has made me a byword of the people; they spit in my face.

UST

⁶ But now people use that saying of our ancestors when they talk about me; they spit to insult me.

Job 17:7My eye is also dim because of sorrow

Job speaks of his vision as his “eyes.” Alternate translation: “My vision has become weak because I am so sad” or “I am almost blind because of my sorrow” (See: Metonymy)

all my body parts are as thin as shadows

Shadows have no thickness and are infinitely thin. That is an exaggeration of how thin Job’s body parts are. Alternate translation: “all my body parts are very thin” (See: Simile and Hyperbole)

all my body parts

This is a generalization used to emphasize that his whole body is thin, but refers specifically to his arms and legs. Alternate translation: “my arms and legs” (See: Hyperbole)

ULT

⁷ My eye is also dim because of sorrow; all my body parts are as thin as shadows.

UST

⁷ My eyes have become dim because I am very sad, and my arms and legs are as thin as shadows.

Job 17:8will be stunned

Alternate translation: “will be shocked” or “will be horrified”

by this

Alternate translation: “by what has happened to me” will stir himself up against

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: “will be distressed because of” or “will be very angry with” (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- Upright men
- will be stunned
- will stir himself up

Translation Words - UST

- are truly righteous
- will be shocked
- when they see what

ULT

⁸ Upright men will be stunned by this; the innocent man will stir himself up against godless men.

UST

⁸ People who are truly righteous will be shocked when they see what has happened to me; they will be angry at those who refuse to honor God.

Job 17:9will keep to his way

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: “will continue to live in a righteous way” (See: Idiom)

he who has clean hands

This speaks of a person being innocent as having clean hands. Alternate translation: “he who does what is right” or “he who is innocent” (See: Metaphor) will grow stronger and stronger

This does not refer only to physical strength but also to the strength of a person’s will and emotions.

- is right
- who live righteously

ULT

⁹ The righteous man will keep to his way; he who has clean hands will grow stronger and stronger.

UST

⁹ Those who are truly righteous will continue to do what is right, and those who live righteously will continue to become stronger.

Job 17:10

you all

Job is speaking to Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar.

come on now

Job invites his friends to debate what he has said. Alternate translation: "come on now, argue with me again" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- I will
- a wise man

Translation Words - UST

- friends of mine
- who is wise

ULT

¹⁰ But as for you all, come on now; I will not find a wise man among you.

UST

¹⁰ But all you friends of mine, I do not find even one among you who is wise.

Job 17:11

My days are past

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: “My time is past” or “My life is over” (See: Idiom) my plans are shattered, and so are the desires of my heart

Here Job’s “heart” represents his inner being. Alternate translation: “my plans will never happen, nor will the things that I have desired most” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- of my heart

Translation Words - UST

- As for the things I have most desired, there is no hope of them happening

ULT

11 My days are past; my plans are shattered, and so are the desires of my heart. ^[1]

UST

11 My time to live is almost ended; I have not been able to do the things that I planned to do. As for the things I have most desired, there is no hope of them happening.

Job 17:12

These people, these mockers

These two phrases refer to the same people, namely Job's friends, Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar. The second phrase emphasizes their unfriendly attitude. (See: Doublet) change the night into day

This speaks of the people claiming that night is day as if they actually changed night into day. Alternate translation: "claim it is daytime when it is night" or "say the opposite of what is true, just as night is the opposite of day" (See: Metaphor) light is near to darkness

It is implied that the mockers claim that it is light when it is close to dark. Alternate translation: "they claim that light is near to darkness" or "they claim that when it is becoming dark, that it is getting light" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- to darkness

Translation Words - UST

- when it is becoming dark

ULT

¹² These people, these mockers, change the night into day; light is near to darkness.

UST

¹² My friends do not know when it is night and when it is day; when it is night, they claim that it is daylight; when it is becoming dark, they claim that it is getting light.

Job 17:13

If the only home ... and if I have spread

The instances of “if” here have the meaning of “since”; Job is speaking as if all these things were true. “Since the only home ... and since I have spread” (See: Hypothetical Situations) have spread my couch in the darkness

Here Job speaks of being prepared to die as having laid his bed in the darkness. Alternate translation: “have prepared myself to go and sleep among the dead” (See: Metaphor) have spread my couch

Alternate translation: “have made my bed”

Translation Words - ULT

- the only home

Translation Words - UST

- the place

ULT

¹³ If the only home I hope for is Sheol; and if I have spread my couch in the darkness;

UST

¹³ I know that my home will be the place where dead people are, where I will sleep in the darkness.

Job 17:14

if I have said

The word “if” here has the meaning of “since”; Job is speaking as if this were true. “since I have said” (See: Hypothetical Situations)

I have said to the pit ... and to the worm

These two lines are a variation to each other and are used together to emphasize how desperate Job is. (See: Parallelism)

the pit

Alternate translation: “the grave”

You are my father

Job speaks of the closeness he will soon have with his grave by comparing it to the closeness a man has with his father. Alternate translation: “You are as close to me as my father” or “When I am buried, you will be as close to me as a father” (See: Metaphor)

the worm

“the maggot.” Worms are the small creatures that eat dead bodies.

You are my mother or my sister

Job speaks of the closeness he will soon have with the worms in his grave by comparing it to the closeness a man has with his mother and sisters. Alternate translation: “You are as close to me as my mother or my sister” or “You will be as close to me as a mother or sister” (See: Metaphor)

14 and if I have said to the pit, ‘You are my father,’ and to the worm, ‘You are my mother or my sister,’

UST

14 I can say to the grave, ‘Where I am buried, that place will be like a father to me.’ I can say to the maggots, ‘You will be like a mother or younger sisters to me because that is where I will always be.’

Job 17:15

where then is my hope?

The implicit answer is “nowhere,” because he has no hope. This rhetorical question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: “I have no hope.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

As for my hope, who can see any?

This rhetorical question is used to emphasize that no one expects him to have any hope. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “No one can see any hope for me.” or “No one expects me to have any more hope.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- is my hope

Translation Words - UST

- No one expects

ULT

¹⁵ where then is my hope? As for my hope, who can see any?

UST

¹⁵ There is certainly no more hope left for me. No one expects that I will have any more happiness.

Job 17:16

Will hope go down with me ... dust?

The implicit answer is “no.” If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “Hope will not go down with me ... dust.” or “I will no longer hope when I go down ... dust.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

gates of Sheol

Sheol does not really have gates, but it is a metaphor for Job entering Sheol. Alternate translation: “when I go into Sheol” (See: Metaphor)

when we

“when I and the things that I hope for” or “when I and my hopes.” The word “we” refers to Job and his hope.

descend to the dust

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: “die and are buried” or “go to the grave” (See: Idiom)

ULT

16 Will hope go down with me to the gates of Sheol when we descend to the dust?”

UST

16 After I descend to the place where the dead are, I will not be able to expect anything good there. I and the things I hope for will go down together into the soil.”

Job 18

Job 18 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is the advice of Job's friend, Bildad. His words in this chapter are much stronger than when he previously spoke, and he is even angry at Job.

Special concepts in this chapter

Bildad's advice

Bildad tells Job to curse Yahweh. The advice Bildad gives to Job is bad advice. He tries to convince Job that he is sinning and has been punished by Yahweh. (See: curse, cursed, cursing and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

Job 18:1

General Information:

Bildad the Shuhite is speaking to Job. (See: Poetry and Parallelism)

Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said

“Bildad” is the name of a man who is a member of the tribe of Shuah. See how you translated this in Job 8:1.

ULT

¹ Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Bildad replied again:

Job 18:2

When will you stop your talk?

This rhetorical question means that Job has been talking for too long. Alternate translation: "Stop talking!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Consider, and

Alternate translation: "Be reasonable, and" or "Think about these things, and"

Translation Words - ULT

- Consider

Translation Words - UST

- listen

ULT

² "When will you stop your talk?
Consider, and afterwards we will speak.

UST

² "Please stop talking! If you would stop talking and listen, we could tell you something.

Job 18:3

Why are we regarded as beasts, stupid in your sight?

Bildad uses this rhetorical questions to emphasize to Job that he should not consider his friends as animals who cannot think or speak. It can be written as a statement in active form. Alternate translation: "We should not be regarded as beasts, as stupid in your sight." or "You should not regard us as beasts or think of us as stupid." (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)

ULT

³ Why are we regarded as beasts, stupid in your sight?

UST

³ Why do you think that we are as stupid as cattle and as unrighteous?

Why are we

The word "we" probably refers to Bildad and Job's other friends and so is exclusive. (See: Exclusive and Inclusive 'We') regarded

Regarding, looking, is a metonym here for thinking well or badly of someone. (See: Metonymy)

in your sight

Here sight represents judgment or evaluation. Alternate translation: "in your judgment" or "in your thinking" (See: Metaphor) your sight

The word "your" here is plural. Bildad is using sarcasm to tell Job that Job should not think of himself as a great man. Alternate translation: "your sight, you who wrongly think you are great" (See: First, Second or Third Person and Irony)

Job 18:4

You who tear at yourself in your anger

Here Bildad is stating that it is because of Job's anger and disobedience that he has been injured, not because of God's anger as Job has previously claimed. The word "tear" here means to "injure." Alternate translation: "You who have caused your own injuries because of your anger" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) should the earth be forsaken for you or should the rocks be removed out of their places?

This rhetorical question suggests that letting Job, whom they consider a guilty man, go free would be like changing the whole world. Bildad uses these huge exaggerations here to emphasize how outrageous he thinks this is. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "asking God to let you, a guilty man, go free is as silly as asking for God to forsake the earth for your sake or for God to move the rocks out of their places to please you!" (See: Rhetorical Question and Hyperbole) should the earth be forsaken

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "should everyone leave the earth" (See: Active or Passive) should the rocks be removed out of their places

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. The word "rocks" here refers to large rocks, such as those in the mountains. Alternate translation: "should God remove the rocks from their places" or "should God move mountains around" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- at yourself
- should the earth
- be forsaken

Translation Words - UST

- on the earth
- must leave to prove
- that you are right

ULT

⁴ You who tear at yourself in your anger, should the earth be forsaken for you or should the rocks be removed out of their places?

UST

⁴ By being very angry, you are only hurting yourself. Do you think that everyone on the earth must leave to prove that you are right, or do you think that God must move the rocks in the mountains to please you?

Job 18:5Indeed, the light of the wicked person will be put out; the spark of his fire will not shine

Bildad speaks of a wicked person dying as if his lamp were being blown out. Alternate translation: "What will happen is that the lives of wicked people like you end as quickly as we can put out a light or extinguish the flame of a fire" (See: Metaphor) will be put out

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "will go out" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- his fire

Translation Words - UST

- a fire

ULT

⁵ Indeed, the light of the wicked person will be put out; the spark of his fire will not shine.

UST

⁵ What will happen is that the lives of wicked people like you end as quickly as we can put out a light or extinguish the flame of a fire.

Job 18:6

The light will be dark in his tent; his lamp above him will be put out

Bildad continues to speak of the wicked person dying. He speaks of the wicked man's life as if it were the light in his tent. Alternate translation: It will be like the light in his tent has turned to darkness, like the lamp above him has gone out" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

⁶ The light will be dark in his tent; his lamp above him will be put out.

UST

⁶ When the lamps above them in their tents are extinguished, there will be no light in those tents.

Job 18:7

The steps of his strength will be made short

This speaks of the wicked person suddenly experiencing disaster as if he no longer had strength to walk. Alternate translation: "It will be like he no longer has the strength to walk" (See: Metaphor) his own plans will cast him down

"his own advice makes him fall down." This speaks of the wicked person undergoing disaster as if he fell down. Alternate translation: "his own plans will lead him into disaster" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

⁷ The steps of his strength will be made short; his own plans will cast him down.

UST

⁷ While they are alive, they walk confidently, but later it will be as though they stumbled and fell, because they themselves do not pay attention to the advice that they give to others.

Job 18:8For he will be thrown into a net by his own feet; he will walk into a pitfall

“His own feet will lead him into a net.” Bildad uses this image to say that the way that a wicked person lives his life leads him to sudden disaster. Alternate translation: “It will be as though he led himself into a net, as if he walked right into a pitfall” (See: Metaphor)

a net

CORDS or ropes that people weave together to create a mesh. People used nets to catch animals.

a pitfall

a pit that has branches and leaves over it so that an animal will walk onto the branches and leaves and fall into the pit

Translation Words - ULT

- he will walk

Translation Words - UST

- walked into

ULT

⁸ For he will be thrown into a net by his own feet; he will walk into a pitfall.

UST

⁸ It will be as though they had walked into their own net or had fallen into a pit that they themselves dug.

Job 18:9A trap will take him ... a snare will

These four phrases speak of the wicked man experiencing disaster as if he were caught in a trap. Alternate translation: "It will be as though a trap will take him ... a snare will" (See: Metaphor)

A trap

People used this kind of trap to catch birds. The trap snapped shut and held on to the foot of the bird.

will take him by the heel

Here the "heel" refers to the whole foot. Alternate translation: "will take hold of his foot" (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- will lay hold

Translation Words - UST

- grabbed

ULT

⁹ A trap will take him by the heel; a snare will lay hold on him.

UST

⁹ It will be as though a trap had grabbed their heels and held them fast,

Job 18:10

A noose is ... and a trap for him in the way

These four phrases speak of the wicked man experiencing disaster as if he were caught in a trap. Alternate translation: "It will be as though a noose is ... and a trap for him in the way" (See: Metaphor)

A noose is hidden for him on the ground

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "Someone has hidden a noose on the ground in order to catch him" (See: Active or Passive)

A noose

a rope with a loop that grabs hold of an animal's leg when the animal steps in the middle of the loop

a trap for him

The understood verbal phrase "is hidden" may be supplied. Alternate translation: "a trap is hidden on the path to catch him" or "someone will hide a trap to catch him in the way" (See: Ellipsis)

ULT

¹⁰ A noose is hidden for him on the ground; and a trap for him in the way.

UST

¹⁰ as though the end of a rope that was hidden on the ground had sprung up and seized them when they walked on it.

Job 18:11

Terrors will make him afraid on every side

Alternate translation: "Terrors all around will make him afraid" they will chase him at his heels

This speaks of the things that terrify the wicked person as if they were enemies who chased him. Alternate translation: "it will be as if the terrors will chase him all around" (See: Personification)

ULT

11 Terrors will make him afraid on every side; they will chase him at his heels.

UST

11 Everywhere they go, there will be things that cause them to be terrified; it will be as though those things were pursuing them and biting at their heels.

Job 18:12

His wealth will turn into hunger

This speaks of the wicked man becoming poor and hungry as if his wealth were something that turned into something else. Alternate translation: "Instead of being wealthy, he will become poor and hungry" (See: Metaphor) calamity will be ready at his side

The phrase "ready at his side" is an idiom that means that something is continually present. Alternate translation: "he will continually experience disaster" or "he will not be able to avoid calamity" (See: Idiom)

ULT

¹² His wealth will turn into hunger, and calamity will be ready at his side.

UST

¹² They will become hungry, with the result that they will be strong no longer. They will continually experience disasters.

Job 18:13

The parts of his body will be devoured

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Also, this speaks of a disease destroying his body as if it were an animal that had attacked him and was eating him. Alternate translation: "Disease will eat away at his skin" or "Disease will destroy his skin" (See: Active or Passive and Metaphor)

the firstborn of death will devour his parts

Here a disease that kills many people is referred to as "the firstborn of death." This speaks of that disease destroying his body as if it were an animal that had attacked him and was eating him. Alternate translation: "a deadly disease will destroy the different parts of his body" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- will be devoured
- will devour
- indeed, the firstborn

Translation Words - UST

- their bodies
- to decay
- to decay

ULT

¹³ The parts of his body will be devoured; indeed, the firstborn of death will devour his parts.

UST

¹³ Diseases will spread all over their skin; diseases will cause their bodies to decay.

Job 18:14

He is torn from the safety of his tent

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "Disaster rips him out of his tent, where he is safe" (See: Active or Passive)

marched off

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "it marches him off" or "it forces him to go" (See: Active or Passive)

the king of terrors

This is a reference to "King Death," a pagan god who was believed to rule over death. Alternate translation: "the one who rules over the dead" or "the king of death" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- to the king

Translation Words - UST

- to the one

ULT

14 He is torn from the safety of his tent and marched off to the king of terrors.

UST

14 When they die, they will be snatched away from their tents and brought to the one who rules over the dead.

Job 18:15

People not his own

Alternate translation: "People who are not his family"

after they see that sulfur is scattered within his home

People used sulfur to get rid of any diseases from a dying person. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "after they spread sulfur all over his home" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- is scattered

Translation Words - UST

- sprinkle

ULT

15 People not his own will live in his tent after they see that sulfur is scattered within his home.

UST

15 Then other people will live in their tents, but only after they sprinkle sulfur on those tents to get rid of the disease!

Job 18:16

His roots will be dried up ... branch be cut off

This speaks of the wicked man dying and having no descendants as if he were a tree whose roots dried up and branches withered, producing no fruit. Alternate translation: "He will die and leave no descendants, he will be like a tree whose roots have dried up and whose branches have all withered" (See: Metaphor) will his branch be cut off

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "his branches will wither" (See: Active or Passive)

ULT

16 His roots will be dried up beneath; above will his branch be cut off.

UST

16 Because they will die and leave no descendants, they will be like trees whose roots have dried up and whose branches have all withered.

Job 18:17His memory will perish from the earth; he will have no name in the street

These phrases have the same meaning and are used together to emphasize the fact that nobody will remember him after he dies. (See: Parallelism)

His memory will perish from the earth

This speaks of the “memory” of the wicked man as if it were a person who died. Alternate translation: “No one on the earth will remember him” (See: Metaphor)

he will have no name in the street

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: “no one walking along the street will even remember his name” (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- will perish
- the earth
- name
- the street

Translation Words - UST

- the earth
- them
- anymore
- their names

ULT

¹⁷ His memory will perish from the earth; he will have no name in the street.

UST

¹⁷ No one on the earth will remember them anymore; no one on any street will even remember their names.

Job 18:18

He will be driven from light into darkness ... and be chased out of this world

These phrases together emphasize the fact that the wicked person will be sent to Sheol, the place of the dead. (See: Parallelism)

He will be driven from light into darkness

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God will drive the wicked person from light into darkness" (See: Active or Passive)

from light into darkness

The word "light" refers to life, and the word "darkness" refers to death. Alternate translation: "from the light of life to the darkness of death" (See: Metonymy) be chased out of this world

This speaks of God making him leave earth and go where dead people go as if he were chasing him. Alternate translation: "God will make him leave this world" or "God will send him to the place where dead people go" (See: Metaphor) be chased out

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God will chase him" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- darkness

Translation Words - UST

- dark

ULT

¹⁸ He will be driven from light into darkness and be chased out of this world.

UST

¹⁸ They will have to leave the earth, where there is light, and rush into the place where it is dark.

Job 18:19He will have no son ... nor any remaining kinfolk where he had stayed

Together these two phrases emphasize that he will have no family or descendants left. (See: Parallelism)

son's son

Alternate translation: "grandson" or "grandchild"

kinfolk

Alternate translation: "relatives"

Translation Words - ULT

- among his people

Translation Words - UST

- They...where

ULT

¹⁹ He will have no son or son's son among his people, nor any remaining kinfolk where he had stayed.

UST

¹⁹ They will have no children or grandchildren, no descendants where they will have previously lived.

Job 18:20

Those who live in the west ... those who live in the east will be frightened by it

The phrases “in the west” and “in the east” are together a merism that refers to all people living everywhere. This is an exaggeration as not everyone on the earth will hear about what happened to a specific wicked person. Alternate translation: “Everyone in the whole world will be horrified and frightened when they see what happens to the wicked person” or “Many people who live in the east and in the west will be horrified and frightened when they see what happens to the wicked person” (See: Merism and Hyperbole)

one day

Alternate translation: “someday”

Translation Words - ULT

- will be horrified

Translation Words - UST

- will be shocked

ULT

²⁰ Those who live in the west will be horrified at what happens to him one day; those who live in the east will be frightened by it.

UST

²⁰ People from the east to the west who hear about what happened to them, everyone, will be shocked and horrified.

Job 18:21

the homes of unrighteous people, the places of those who do not know God

These two phrases have the same meaning and refer to the same people. Here these people are referred to by the places where they live. Alternate translation: "unrighteous people, those who do not know God" (See: Parallelism and Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- are the homes
- do...know

Translation Words - UST

- know
- God

ULT

²¹ Surely such are the homes of unrighteous people, the places of those who do not know God."

UST

²¹ This is what happens to unrighteous people like you, people who do not know God."

Job 19

Job 19 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is Job's response to Bildad.

Verses 25-27 are very important to this book. They show the great depth of Job's faith in Yahweh after his most difficult time. (See: faith)

Job 19:1

General Information:

See: Poetry and Parallelism

Connecting Statement:

Job speaks to his three friends.

- Job

ULT

¹ Then Job answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Job replied:

Job 19:2How long will you make me suffer and break me into pieces with words?

Job uses this question to complain about how his friends are treating him. Alternate translation: "Stop making me suffer and breaking me into pieces with words." (See: Rhetorical Question) break me into pieces with words

Job uses this image to say that their words make him feel very sad and hopeless. Alternate translation: "torment me with your words" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- break me

Translation Words - UST

- you three

ULT

² "How long will you make me suffer and break me into pieces with words?"

UST

² "How long will you three torment me and discourage me by calling me wicked?"

Job 19:3These ten times you have reproached me

The phrase “These ten times” refers to the way that the friends have completely rebuked Job. Alternate translation: “You have completely reproached me” or “You have reproached me many times” (See: Idiom)

you are not ashamed that you have treated me harshly

Job is rebuking them for this. This can be written in positive form. Alternate translation: “You should be ashamed that you have treated me so harshly” have treated me harshly

Alternate translation: “have despised me” or “have publicly ridiculed me”

Translation Words - ULT

- you have reproached
- you are...ashamed

Translation Words - UST

- ashamed
- for saying these things

ULT

³ These ten times you have reproached me; you are not ashamed that you have treated me harshly.

UST

³ You have insulted me many times; are you not ashamed for saying these things to me?

Job 19:4have erred

Alternate translation: "have sinned by accident" or "mistakenly sinned"

my error remains my own concern

Job implies that his friends are not responsible for continuing to rebuke him since he is the one who made the error. Alternate translation: "my error is my own responsibility, so you should not continue to rebuke me" or "my error did not hurt you, so you should not continue to rebuke me" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

my error

Alternate translation: "my sin" or "my mistake"

Translation Words - ULT

- If it is...true

Translation Words - UST

- if it were true

ULT

⁴ If it is indeed true that I have erred, my error remains my own concern.

UST

⁴ Even if it were true that I had done wrong, I have not injured you!

Job 19:5

If indeed you will exalt yourselves above me

Alternate translation: "If you think you are better than I am" or "Since you act as though you are better than I am"

use my humiliation against me

How his friends would do this can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "claim that my humiliation is proof against me" or "use my humiliation as evidence that I am guilty" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

use my humiliation against me

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word humiliation, you could express the same idea with the verb "humiliate." Alternate translation: "claim that what has happened to humiliate me proves that I am guilty" (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- indeed
- you will
- and use my humiliation

Translation Words - UST

- you truly
- think that you are better
- I am suffering

ULT

⁵ If indeed you will exalt yourselves above me and use my humiliation against me,

UST

⁵ If you truly think that you are better than I am, and if you argue that I must be guilty because I am suffering,

Job 19:6

has caught me in his net

Job speaks as if God were a hunter that has trapped Job in his net. This metaphor represents God taking control of Job and Job's feeling of helplessness. Alternate translation: "has trapped me" or "has taken control of me" or "has control of what happens to me, so that I am helpless" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- you should know
- God

Translation Words - UST

- you should realize
- God

ULT

⁶ then you should know that God has done wrong to me and has caught me in his net.

UST

⁶ you should realize that it is God who has caused me to suffer. It is as though he has a net and that he has caught me in it.

Job 19:7

See, I cry out

Alternate translation: "Pay attention, because what I am about to say is both true and important: I cry out"

Violence!

This is a cry for help. This can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "Violence! Help!" or "Help! I am being attacked!" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

I call out for help

Alternate translation: "I shout for help" or "I cry for help"

but there is no justice

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word justice, you could express the same idea with a phrase that makes the meaning clear. Alternate translation: "but no one protects me from those who do me wrong" (See: Abstract Nouns and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- I cry out
- answer
- justice

Translation Words - UST

- answers me
- I call out
- who acts fairly

ULT

⁷ See, I cry out, "Violence!" but I get no answer. I call out for help, but there is no justice.

UST

⁷ I cry out, 'People are murdering me!', but no one answers me. I call out loudly, but there is no one, not even God, who acts fairly toward me.

Job 19:8

He has walled up ... darkness in my path

Job uses these images to describe how God has made him feel helpless and hopeless. (See: Metaphor)

He has walled up my way so that I cannot pass

Alternate translation: "God has put a wall on the road that I am walking on" or "He has blocked the way so I cannot keep going"

Translation Words - ULT

- and he has set darkness

Translation Words - UST

- in the darkness

ULT

⁸ He has walled up my way so that I cannot pass, and he has set darkness in my path.

UST

⁸ It is as though God has blocked my road, and I cannot go anywhere; it is as though he has forced me to try to find the road in the darkness.

Job 19:9He has stripped ... the crown from my head

Job uses these images to say that God has taken his good reputation, wealth, and dignity away from him. (See: Metaphor)

He has stripped me of my glory

Job speaks of his glory as if it were a robe that God has taken away. Alternate translation: "He has taken away my glory" (See: Metaphor)

he has taken the crown from my head

The crown refers to Job's dignity or honor. Alternate translation: "he has taken away my dignity and honor" or "it is as though he has taken my crown off my head" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- my glory
- from my head

Translation Words - UST

- He has taken away my good reputation
- my head

ULT

UST

⁹ He has taken away my good reputation; it is as though he has removed a crown from my head.

Job 19:10

He has broken me down on every side

Job speaks of God ruining him as if Job were building that God is smashing down. Alternate translation: “He has ruined me in every way” or “He has attacked me in every way” (See: Metaphor)

I am gone

The metaphor “being gone” represents being completely destroyed. Alternate translation: “I am completely destroyed” (See: Metaphor)

he has pulled up my hope like a tree

Job speaks of God causing Job not to have hope as if Job’s hope were a tree that God has pulled with its roots out of the ground. Alternate translation: “he has completely taken away all my hope” or “because of what he has done, I can no longer hope for anything good” (See: Simile) like a tree

This simile is also an ellipsis. You may need to supply the omitted words. Alternate translation: “the way a man pulls a tree up by its roots” (See: Simile and Ellipsis)

Translation Words - ULT

- my hope

Translation Words - UST

- I no longer expect

ULT

10 He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone; he has pulled up my hope like a tree.

UST

10 He batters me from every side, and I will soon die. I no longer expect him to do anything good for me.

Job 19:11

He has also kindled his wrath against me

Job speaks of God's wrath as if it were a fire. Alternate translation: "God has also lit a fire of anger against me" or "God has also become very angry with me" (See: Metaphor)

he regards me as one of his adversaries

Alternate translation: "he thinks of me as an enemy"

ULT

11 He has also kindled his wrath against me; he regards me as one of his adversaries.

UST

11 He attacks me because he is very angry at me; he considers me to be his enemy.

Job 19:12

His troops come on together

Job speaks of God attacking him as if Job was a city and God was sending an army to attack it. Alternate translation: "God sends his army to attack me" (See: Metaphor)

they cast up siege mounds against me

Job speaks of God attacking him as if Job was a city and God's army was piling up dirt against the city wall in order to climb over the wall and attack the city. Alternate translation: "the soldiers pile up dirt in order to climb over my wall" (See: Metaphor)

encamp around my tent

Job speaks of God attacking him as if Job was in his tent and God's army was camping around him and preparing to attack him. Alternate translation: "they camp around my tent and prepare to attack me" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹² His troops come on together; they cast up siege mounds against me and encamp around my tent.

UST

¹² It is as though he were sending his army to attack me; they surround my tent and get ready to attack me.

Job 19:13

He has put my brothers far from me

Being “far from” someone represents being unwilling to relate to him or help him. Alternate translation: “God has caused my brothers to stay away from me” or “God caused my brothers to refuse to help me” (See: Metaphor) my acquaintances are wholly alienated from me

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “my acquaintances have alienated themselves from me” or “my friends treat me like a stranger” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- my brothers
- my acquaintances

Translation Words - UST

- God has caused my brothers
- who know me

ULT

¹³ He has put my brothers far from me; my acquaintances are wholly alienated from me.

UST

¹³ God has caused my brothers to abandon me, and for all those who know me to act like strangers to me.

Job 19:14

My kinsfolk have failed me

Alternate translation: "My relatives have left me without help"

my close friends

Alternate translation: "my intimate friends" have forgotten me

"have abandoned me" or "have neglected me." This means that they refuse to treat him according to how he and they had related to each other in the past. It implies that they abandoned him.

Translation Words - ULT

- my close friends

Translation Words - UST

- and good friends

ULT

¹⁴ My kinsfolk have failed me; my close friends have forgotten me.

UST

¹⁴ All my relatives and good friends have left me.

Job 19:15

regard me

Alternate translation: "consider me"

I am an alien in their sight

Job describes how people now think of him as an outsider. Here sight represents judgement or evaluation. Alternate translation: "they think of me as a foreigner" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- in my house
- an alien

Translation Words - UST

- my house
- a foreigner whom they do not know

ULT

¹⁵ Those who once stayed as guests in my house and my female servants regard me as a stranger; I am an alien in their sight.

UST

¹⁵ The people who were guests in my house have forgotten me, and my female servants consider that I am a foreigner whom they do not know.

Job 19:16

but he gives me no answer

“but he does not respond to me” or “but he does not come to me.”
The answer is a response to Job’s call.

although I entreat him with my mouth

The phrase “my mouth” is a metonym which refers to Job speaking.
Alternate translation: “even though I speak to him and plead with him” (See: Metonymy)

entreat him

Alternate translation: “plead with him”

Translation Words - ULT

- I call
- to my servant
- but he gives me...answer

Translation Words - UST

- summon
- my servants, they
- come to help me

ULT

16 I call to my servant, but he gives me no answer although I entreat him with my mouth.

UST

16 When I summon my servants, they do not answer; When I plead with them to come to help me, they do not come.

Job 19:17

My breath is offensive to my wife

Here “breath” represents the smell of his breath. If something is offensive to someone, it means that he hates it. Alternate translation: “My wife hates the smell of my breath” (See: Metonymy) those who were born from my mother’s womb

Job refers to his brothers and sisters this way to imply that they are people who should love him. The full meaning of this can be made clear. Alternate translation: “my own brothers who should love me” or “my brothers and sisters who should love me” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- My breath
- to those who were born

Translation Words - UST

- My breath smells very bad
- to

ULT

¹⁷ My breath is offensive to my wife; I am even disgusting to those who were born from my mother’s womb.

UST

¹⁷ My breath smells very bad to my wife so she stays away from me, and my brothers detest me.

Job 19:18

despise me

Alternate translation: "hate me" or "detest me"

they speak against me

Alternate translation: "they ridicule me" or "they make fun of me"

ULT

18 Even young children despise me; if I rise to speak, they speak against me.

UST

18 Even young children despise me; when I stand up to talk to them, they laugh at me.

Job 19:19

All my familiar friends

“All my closest friends” or “All of my friends with whom I shared my secrets.” This refers to his closest friends.

abhor me

Alternate translation: “think I am disgusting” have turned against me

Alternate translation: “have betrayed me”

Translation Words - ULT

- love

Translation Words - UST

- whom I love

ULT

19 All my familiar friends abhor me; those whom I love have turned against me.

UST

19 My dearest friends detest me, and those whom I love very much have turned against me.

Job 19:20

My bones cling to my skin and to my flesh

“I am just skin and bones” or “My skin sticks to my bones.” Job speaks of his bones, skin, and flesh to describe his appearance. He was extremely thin, and people could easily see the shape of his bones. Some languages have idioms for this.

I survive only by the skin of my teeth

This idiom means that he is barely surviving, that he almost does not survive. Alternate translation: “I am barely alive” or “I hardly survive” (See: Idiom)

ULT

²⁰ My bones cling to my skin and to my flesh; I survive only by the skin of my teeth.

UST

²⁰ My body is only skin and bones; I am barely alive.

Job 19:21

Have pity upon me

Alternate translation: "Have compassion on me" for the hand of God has touched me

Here "touched me" is a metonym for "hit me." And, "hand" represents God's power. Causing Job to suffer is spoken of as if Yahweh were physically hitting him with his hand. Alternate translation: "because God has afflicted me" (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- the hand
- of God

Translation Words - UST

- God
- has

ULT

²¹ Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, my friends, for the hand of God has touched me.

UST

²¹ I plead with you, my three friends, pity me because God has struck me very hard.

Job 19:22

Why do you pursue me ... God does?

Job uses this question to complain about how his friends are treating him. Alternate translation: "Do not persecute me ... God does!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Will you ever be satisfied with my flesh?

Job uses this question to complain about how his friends are treating him. Alternate translation: "You have consumed my flesh enough!" or "Stop consuming my flesh!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Will you ever be satisfied with my flesh?

Job speaks of his friends speaking so cruelly to him as if they were wild beasts eating up another animal. Alternate translation: "Stop violently slandering me." or "Stop attacking me with your words." (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- pursue me

Translation Words - UST

- you cause me

ULT

²² Why do you pursue me like God does? Will you ever be satisfied with my flesh?

UST

²² Why do you cause me to suffer, also? Do you think you are God? Why do you never get enough of accusing me of doing wrong?

Job 19:23

Oh, that my words were now written down

This exclamation tells what Job wishes for. It can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I wish that someone would write down my words" (See: Exclamations and Active or Passive)

my words

Alternate translation: "what I am saying"

Oh, that they were inscribed in a book

This exclamation tells what Job wishes for. It can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I wish that someone would write them in a book" (See: Exclamations and Active or Passive)

ULT

²³ Oh, that my words were now written down! Oh, that they were inscribed in a book!

UST

²³ I wish that someone would take these words of mine and write them permanently in a book in order that people can read them.

Job 19:24

Oh, that with an iron pen and lead they were engraved in the rock forever

This exclamation tells what Job wishes for. It can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I wish that someone would use an iron pen and lead to carve them in the rock forever" (See: Exclamations and Active or Passive) an iron pen

"an iron chisel." This was a tool used for writing. It was made of iron so that people could carve words in rock.

lead

Lead is a soft metal. We do not know how people used lead when carving rock. They may have filled the letters of the inscription with lead in order to make the inscription last longer.

ULT

²⁴ Oh, that with an iron pen and lead they were engraved in the rock forever!

UST

²⁴ Or else, I wish that someone would carve my words on a rock with a chisel in order that they would last forever.

Job 19:25

my Redeemer

“My Defender.” Here “Redeemer” refers to a person who will rescue Job by proving Job’s innocence, restoring his honor, and giving him justice.

at last he will stand on the earth

This refers to standing to speak in court. This could mean: (1) the Redeemer will be the last one to speak in the court. Alternate translation: “he will judge whether or not I am guilty” or (2) the Redeemer will stand in this final court to defend Job. Alternate translation: “at last he will defend me in court” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- I know
- that my Redeemer
- lives

Translation Words - UST

- But I know
- that the one who vindicates
- is alive

ULT

²⁵ But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at last he will stand on the earth;

UST

²⁵ But I know that the one who vindicates me in court is alive, and that some day he will stand here on the earth and make the final decision about whether I deserve to be punished.

Job 19:26

after my skin ... is destroyed

Possible meanings are that this refers to: (1) his body being destroyed by disease or (2) his body decaying after he has died.

in my flesh I will see God

His flesh represents his body, and “in my flesh” represents being alive. Alternate translation: “while I live in my body, I will see God” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- God

Translation Words - UST

- God

ULT

²⁶ after my skin, that is, this body, is destroyed, then in my flesh I will see God.

UST

²⁶ And even after diseases have destroyed my body, still, in my body I will see God.

Job 19:27

my own eyes—I, and not someone else

The synecdoche “my own eyes” represents Job. The phrases “my eyes” and “and not someone else” emphasize that Job himself will actually see God. It is not that someone else will see God and tell Job about him. (See: Synecdoche)

My heart fails within me

People thought of the heart as being where the emotions are. So the heart failing represents him having very many emotions. Alternate translation: “I am very emotional about it” or “My emotions overwhelm me as I think about that” (See: Metaphor)

My heart fails within me

This could mean: (1) Job feels very hopeful, thankful, and happy or (2) Job feels exhausted waiting to see his Redeemer. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- fails

Translation Words - UST

- overwhelm

ULT

²⁷ I will see him with my own eyes—I, and not someone else. My heart fails within me.

UST

²⁷ I will see him myself; I will see him with my own eyes! My emotions overwhelm me as I think about that!

Job 19:28

How we will persecute him!

This is an exclamation. This could mean: (1) that they will certainly persecute Job or (2) that they will persecute him severely. (See: Exclamations)

The root of his troubles lies in him

The “root” represents the source. Alternate translation: “He is the source of all his troubles” or “He has all these troubles because of what he has done” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- we will persecute

Translation Words - UST

- we will cause him to suffer

ULT

²⁸ If you say, ‘How we will persecute him! The root of his troubles lies in him,’

UST

²⁸ If you three men say, ‘This is how we will cause him to suffer!’ and you say, ‘He is the one who has caused his own troubles,’

Job 19:29

then be afraid of the sword

Possible meanings are that the sword represents: (1) God judging them. Alternate translation: “then be afraid that God will judge you” or (2) God killing them. Alternate translation: “then be afraid that God will kill you” (See: Metonymy) because wrath brings the punishment of the sword

The abstract nouns “wrath” and “punishment” can be expressed with the adjective “angry” and the verb “punish.” This could mean: (1) God’s anger results in punishment. Alternate translation: “because God will be angry with you and punish you” or (2) the anger of Job’s friends results in punishment. Alternate translation: “because if you are so angry with me, God will punish you” (See: Abstract Nouns) brings

Alternate translation: “causes” or “results in”

there is a judgment

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word judgment, you could express the same idea with the verb “judge.” Alternate translation: “God judges people” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- of the sword
- of the sword
- wrath
- brings the punishment
- may know

Translation Words - UST

- punish
- he punishes those like you
- there is someone who
- whom he is angry
- you will know that

ULT

²⁹ then be afraid of the sword, because wrath brings the punishment of the sword, so that you may know there is a judgment.”

UST

²⁹ you should fear that God will punish you; he punishes those like you with whom he is angry; and when that happens, you will know that there is someone who judges people.”

Job 20

Job 20 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is the advice of Job's friend, Zophar. His words in this chapter are much stronger than when he previously spoke, and he is even angry at Job. He claims that Job took advantage of the poor and is being punished for it.

Special concepts in this chapter

Zophar's advice

Zophar tells Job to curse Yahweh. The advice Zophar gives to Job is bad advice. He tries to convince Job that he is sinning and has been punished by Yahweh. (See: curse, cursed, cursing and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphors

There are many metaphors used in this chapter. Zophar uses them to explain the temporary nature of life and riches. He also uses them to describe God's punishment of Job. (See: Metaphor)

Job 20:1

General Information:

Zophar replies to Job.

Zophar the Naamathite

See how you translated this man's name in Job 2:11. Since this is the second time that Zophar speaks, some translations omit "the Naamathite" here.

ULT

¹ Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Zophar replied again:

Job 20:2

My thoughts make me answer quickly

The idea of Zophar's thoughts making him do something represents his strong desire to do something. Alternate translation: "I want very much to answer you quickly" (See: Metaphor) because of the worry that is in me

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word worry, you could express the same idea with the adjective "worried." The reason for the worry can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "because I am very worried about you" or "because I am very worried because of what you said" (See: Abstract Nouns and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT

² "My thoughts make me answer quickly because of the worry that is in me.

UST

² "I am very troubled about what you have said, so I want to reply very quickly.

Translation Words - ULT

- because of the worry

Translation Words - UST

- I want to reply

Job 20:3

I hear a rebuke that dishonors me

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word rebuke, you could express the same idea with the verb “rebuke.” Alternate translation: “I hear you rebuke me, and what you say dishonors me” or “You insult me by how you rebuke me” (See: Abstract Nouns)

a spirit from my understanding answers me

Here “spirit” probably refers to a thought or idea. Alternate translation: “a thought from my understanding answers me”

a spirit from my understanding answers me

This “spirit” or thought is spoken of as if it were a person that could answer Zophar. Alternate translation: “I have a thought from my understanding, and now I know what I wanted to know” (See: Personification)

a spirit from my understanding answers me

The content of the answer can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: “a thought from my understanding answers me about how I can reply to you” or “I have a thought from my understanding, and now I know how I can reply to you” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

a spirit from my understanding answers me

The abstract nouns “spirit” and “understanding” can be expressed with the verbs “think” and “understand.” Alternate translation: “because I understand things, I have thought, and now I know how I can reply to you” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- a rebuke that
- but a spirit

Translation Words - UST

- suggests to me
- reply to you

ULT

³ I hear a rebuke that dishonors me, but a spirit from my understanding answers me.

UST

³ By saying these things you have insulted me, but something within my understanding suggests to me how I may reply to you.

Job 20:4

Do you not know this fact from ancient times ... man on earth

Zophar begins a rhetorical question to cause Job to think deeply about what he will now say.

Translation Words - ULT

- Do you not know
- man
- earth

Translation Words - UST

- know that
- people
- the earth

ULT

⁴ Do you not know this fact from ancient times, when God placed man on earth:

UST

⁴ Do you not know that from long ago, ever since God first put people on the earth,

Job 20:5

Connecting Statement:

Zophar finishes the rhetorical question he began in verse 4.

the triumph ... for a moment?

Zophar uses a rhetorical question to cause Job to think deeply about what he will now say. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. "Surely you know ... man on earth; the triumph ... for a moment." (See: Rhetorical Question) the triumph of a wicked man is short

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word triumph, you could express the same idea with the verbs "triumph" or "celebrate." Alternate translation: "the wicked man triumphs only a short time" or "the wicked person celebrates for only a little while" (See: Abstract Nouns)

the joy of a godless man lasts only for a moment

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word joy, you could express the same idea with the verb "rejoice" or the adjective "happy." The word "moment" is an exaggeration to emphasize that the time is very short. Alternate translation: "a godless man rejoices for only a moment" or "the godless man is happy for only a very short time" (See: Abstract Nouns and Hyperbole)

Translation Words - ULT

- the joy

Translation Words - UST

- are happy

ULT

⁵ the triumph of a wicked man is short, and the joy of a godless man lasts only for a moment?

UST

⁵ that wicked people like you do not continue to rejoice for a long time, and that people who refuse to honor God are happy only for a moment?

Job 20:6

Though his height reaches up to the heavens

“Though the wicked person’s height reaches up to the heavens.” If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word height, you could express the same idea with the adjective “tall.” Alternate translation: “Though he is as tall as the heavens” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Though his height reaches up to the heavens

The wicked man’s height represents either his reputation or his pride. Also, here “reaches up to the heavens” represents being very great. Alternate translation: “Though his reputation is great” or “Though his pride is great” (See: Metaphor) his head reaches to the clouds

“and though his head is as high as the clouds.” This also represents his reputation or pride being great. This means the same as the previous phrase. (See: Metaphor and Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- the heavens
- and his head

Translation Words - UST

- sky
- and their fame

ULT

⁶ Though his height reaches up to the heavens, and his head reaches to the clouds,

UST

⁶ Although their reputations reach up to the sky, and their fame goes up as high as the clouds,

Job 20:7will perish permanently like his own feces

Feces mixes in with the ground and disappears. The reference to feces may also imply that the wicked person is worthless. Alternate translation: "will perish permanently like his feces, which completely disappears in the ground" (See: Simile) will perish permanently like his own feces

If people are embarrassed about the word feces, translators may refer to something else that disappears completely. Alternate translation: "will disappear permanently like dust that the wind blows away" (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- yet such a person will perish

Translation Words - UST

- they will disappear

ULT

⁷ yet such a person will perish permanently like his own feces; those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'

UST

⁷ they will disappear forever, like their own excrement, and those who knew them will ask, 'Where did they go?'

Job 20:8He will

Alternate translation: "The wicked person will"

He will fly away like a dream ... he will be chased away like a vision of the night

Here "fly away" and "be chased away" represent disappearing. They may also imply being forgotten, since dreams and visions disappear when people forget them. Alternate translation: "He will disappear like a dream ... he will be forgotten like a vision of the night" (See: Parallelism and Simile) will not be found

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "no one will find him" (See: Active or Passive)

ULT

⁸ He will fly away like a dream and will not be found; indeed, he will be chased away like a vision of the night.

UST

⁸ They will disappear as a dream does, and they will exist no more. They will vanish like dreams that people have during the night.

Job 20:9

The eye that saw him

The eye represents a person. Alternate translation: “Anyone who saw him” or “The people who saw him” (See: Synecdoche)

his place

The phrase “his place” represents those who live in his place. Alternate translation: “the people who live in his place” or “his family” (See: Metonymy)

ULT

⁹ The eye that saw him will see him no more; his place will see him no longer.

UST

⁹ Those people who now see those wicked people will never see them again; even the people who lived with them will not see them anymore.

Job 20:10

His children

Alternate translation: "The wicked person's children" his hands will have to give back his wealth

Here the word "hands" refers to the wicked man's children. When he dies, his children will have to return everything that he took from others. (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- His children
- his hands
- will have to give back

Translation Words - UST

- Their children
- to return
- from

ULT

¹⁰ His children will apologize to poor people; his hands will have to give back his wealth.

UST

¹⁰ Their children will be forced to return the valuable things that they stole from poor people.

Job 20:11

His bones are full of youthful strength

The word “bones” represents his body. Being “full of youthful strength” represents being strong like a young person. Alternate translation: “His body is strong like a young person’s body” (See: Synecdoche and Metaphor) but it will lie down with him in the dust

The word “it” refers to his youthful strength. The metonym “lie down ... in the dust” represents dying. The strength dying is a metaphor for disappearing. Alternate translation: “but his youthful strength will die with him” or “but his youthful strength will disappear when he dies” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)

ULT

11 His bones are full of youthful strength, but it will lie down with him in the dust.

UST

11 The bodies of the wicked were once young and strong, but they will die and be buried in the ground.

Job 20:12

Although wickedness is sweet in his mouth

Here “wickedness is sweet” represents a person enjoying doing wicked things. Alternate translation: “Although doing wicked things is pleasurable like tasting sweet food in the mouth” (See: Metaphor)

although he hides it under his tongue

Zophar speaks of wickedness as if it were sweet food that a person puts under his tongue so it will stay in his mouth and he can taste it for a long time. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- Although wickedness

Translation Words - UST

- Although doing wicked things

ULT

¹² Although wickedness is sweet in his mouth, although he hides it under his tongue,

UST

¹² Although doing wicked things was like having sweet food in their mouths that they wanted to continue tasting,

Job 20:13

he holds it there and does not let it go but keeps it still in his mouth

Zophar speaks of wickedness as if it were sweet food that a person puts under his tongue so it will stay in his mouth and he can taste it for a long time. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- let it go

Translation Words - UST

¹³ and although they did not want to stop doing those things,

Job 20:14

the food in his intestines turns bitter

When food turns bitter in the stomach, it causes pain and a bitter taste. This is a metaphor for a person experiencing the painful consequences of doing wicked things. Alternate translation: “those wicked things become like food that has turned bitter in the stomach” or “the consequences of those wicked things are painful like food that becomes sour in the stomach” (See: Metaphor)

it becomes the poison of asps inside him

This image is even worse than sour food in the stomach. This is a metaphor for a person experiencing the terrible consequences of doing wicked things. Alternate translation: “the consequences of doing those wicked things are painful like the poison of asps inside him” (See: Metaphor)

Job 20:15

He swallows down riches ... cast them out of his stomach

Zophar speaks of gaining and losing wealth as if it were food that a person eats and vomits. Alternate translation: "The wicked person becomes very wealthy, but he loses his wealth like a person who vomits up his food. God causes him to lose it all" (See: Metaphor)

He swallows down riches

Here, swallows down riches could mean: (1) accumulating riches and storing them selfishly. Alternate translation: "The wicked man gains much wealth and keeps it all for himself" or (2) accumulating riches in wicked ways. Alternate translation: "The wicked man steals many riches" (See: Metaphor)

God will cast them out of his stomach

Here "cast them out of his stomach" is a metonym for causing the man to vomit them. This is a metaphor for causing the man to lose his riches. (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- riches

Translation Words - UST

- Wicked people pile up wealth for themselves, but they do not keep it forever

ULT

¹⁵ He swallows down riches, but he will vomit them up again; God will cast them out of his stomach.

UST

¹⁵ Wicked people pile up wealth for themselves, but they do not keep it forever, just like people do not keep down the food that they vomit. God takes their wealth from them.

Job 20:16

He will suck the poison of asps

Here “suck the poison of asps” represents doing evil things. Both are very dangerous. Alternate translation: “Doing evil things is like sucking the poison of asps” or “He will do evil things and endanger his life like a person who sucks the poison of asps” (See: Metaphor)

asps

poisonous snakes

the viper’s tongue will kill him

The viper is a poisonous snake. Its tongue represents its poisonous bite. Alternate translation: “the viper’s poisonous bite will kill him” or “the viper will bite him and he will die” (See: Metonymy)

the viper’s tongue will kill him

The viper represents the man’s wickedness. Alternate translation: “his wickedness will kill him like a viper’s bite” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- will kill him

Translation Words - UST

- will kill the wicked

ULT

¹⁶ He will suck the poison of asps; the viper’s tongue will kill him.

UST

¹⁶ Doing evil deeds is like swallowing snake poison; doing evil will kill the wicked as the bite of a poisonous snake will kill people.

Job 20:17

the streams, the torrents of honey and butter

“Streams” and “torrents” are metaphors that represent abundance. “Honey” and “butter” are metonyms that represent the good things that God gives people. Alternate translation: “the abundance of good things that God gives his people” (See: Metaphor and Metonymy)

ULT

¹⁷ He will not enjoy the streams, the torrents of honey and butter.

UST

¹⁷ The wicked will not remain alive to see the abundant blessings from God, which are like a stream that flows.

Job 20:18

the fruit of his labor

Normally “the fruit of his labor” simply refers to the results of his labor. In this case it refers to the things the wicked man had stolen. Alternate translation: “the things he had worked to get” or “the things he had stolen” (See: Metaphor and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) will not be able to eat it

Here “to eat” the fruit of his labor represents enjoying the things he had stolen. Alternate translation: “will not be able to enjoy them” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- He will give back

Translation Words - UST

- They will be forced to give back

ULT

18 He will give back the fruit of his labor and will not be able to eat it; he will not enjoy the wealth earned by his commerce.

UST

18 They will be forced to give back the things that they stole from the poor; they will not be able to continue to enjoy those things. They will not remain happy because of what they got from their business

Job 20:19

Job 21

Job 21 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is Job's response to Zophar. It is also a response to all three of his friends in general.

Special concepts in this chapter

Ancestor's sin

In the ancient Near East, it was common to believe that a person could be punished because of the sins of their fathers and ancestors. It was seen as the punishment of a god. While a father's sin may have consequences for their children, Yahweh does not punish people because of their father's sin. (See: believe, believer, belief, unbeliever, unbelief and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Job uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Zophar that he is wrong. These questions help to build Job's argument. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 21:1

Connecting Statement:

Job begins to answer Zophar's accusations.

Translation Words - ULT

- Then Job

Translation Words - UST

- Then Job

ULT

¹ Then Job answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Job replied in this way:

Job 21:2

(There are no notes for this verse.)

ULT

² "Listen carefully to my words, and let this be the comfort you offer to me.

UST

² "Listen to what I say, all of you; that is the only thing that you can do that will comfort me.

Job 21:3

Put up with me

Alternate translation: "Allow me" or "Be patient with me" mock on

"you can continue mocking me." Job is using sarcasm to imply that his friends would ignore what he would say and continue to mock him. (See: Irony)

ULT

³ Put up with me, and I also will speak; after I have spoken, mock on.

UST

³ Be patient with me, and allow me to speak. Then, after I am finished speaking, you can continue to make fun of me.

Job 21:4

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to his friends.

As for me, is my complaint to a person? Why should I not be impatient?

Job uses questions to emphasize that he thinks it is fair for him to complain to God. Alternate translation: "I am not complaining to a person. I have the right to be impatient" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- to a person
- be impatient

Translation Words - UST

- whom I
- me

ULT

⁴ As for me, is my complaint to a person? Why should I not be impatient?

UST

⁴ It is certainly not people against whom I am complaining, but God! And it is certainly right for me to be impatient!

Job 21:5

lay your hand upon your mouth

“cover your mouth with your hand.” Possible meanings are that: (1) this is a response to being astonished. Alternate translation: “cover your mouth with your hand” or (2) this is a symbol that the person will not speak. Alternate translation: “do not say anything” (See: Symbolic Action)

Translation Words - ULT

UST

¹⁵ Why do you, Almighty God, think that we should serve you? What advantage do we get if we pray to you?'

Job 21:16

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to his friends.

See, is not their prosperity in their own hands?

Here “hands” refers to their power or control. Job uses this question to challenge his friends. Alternate translation: “Look, these wicked people claim that they make themselves prosper!” (See: Metonymy and Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- their prosperity
- in their own hands

Translation Words - UST

- become prosperous
- done

ULT

¹⁶ See, is not their prosperity in their own hands? I have nothing to do with the advice of wicked people.

UST

¹⁶ Wicked people think that they have become prosperous because of what they have done, but I do not want to have anything to do with their thinking.

Job 21:17

How often is it ... their calamity comes upon them?

Job uses this question to emphasize that it seems to him that God does not punish the wicked very often. Alternate translation: "It is not often ... their calamity comes upon them." (See: Rhetorical Question) the lamp of wicked people is put out

Job compares extinguishing the lamp to a person dying. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "that God causes them to die suddenly" (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

the lamp of wicked people

Job compares the life of the wicked to a lamp that is burning. (See: Metaphor)

How often does it happen ... in his anger?

Job uses this second question to emphasize that it seems to him that God does not punish the wicked very often. Alternate translation: "It is not often ... in his anger." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

¹⁷ How often is it that the lamp of wicked people is put out, or that their calamity comes upon them? How often does it happen that God distributes sorrows to them in his anger?

UST

¹⁷ How often does it happen that wicked people die, without experiencing disasters? Does God ever punish them because he is angry with them?

Job 21:18

How often is it ... the storm carries away?

Job uses this third question to emphasize that it seems to him that God does not punish the wicked very often. Alternate translation: "It is not often ... the storm carries away." (See: Rhetorical Question) they become like stubble before the wind or like chaff that the storm carries away

The death of the wicked is spoken of as if they were worthless less chaff and stubble that blows away. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God takes them away like the wind blows away the chaff" (See: Simile and Active or Passive)

ULT

18 How often is it that they become like stubble before the wind or like chaff that the storm carries away?

UST

18 He does not blow them away as wind blows away straw; they are never carried off by a whirlwind.

Translation Words - ULT

- like stubble before the wind

Translation Words - UST

- as wind

Job 21:19

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to his friends.

You say

These words are added by most versions in order to make it clear that the Job is quoting his friends in the next statement.

God lays up one's guilt for his children to pay

Guilt is spoken of as something that can be stored for later use. Here "to pay" refers to punishment for sin. Alternate translation: "God keeps a record of a person's sins, then he punishes the person's children for his wicked deeds" (See: Metaphor)

Let him pay it himself,...know his guilt

Job now begins to state his own opinion. It may be helpful to state this explicitly using an indirect quotation. "But I say that he should pay it himself,...know his guilt" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- You say, 'God
- his children
- Let him pay it himself, so that he might know his guilt

Translation Words - UST

- God
- not their children
- in order that the sinners may know that

ULT

¹⁹ You say, 'God lays up one's guilt for his children to pay.' Let him pay it himself, so that he might know his guilt.

UST

¹⁹ You say, 'When people have committed sins, God waits and punishes their children because of those sins;' I say that God should punish those who sin, not their children, in order that the sinners may know that it is because of their own sins that they are being punished.

Job 21:20

Let his eyes see

Here "eyes" refers to the person. Alternate translation: "Let him see" (See: Synecdoche)

let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty

Here the wrath of God is spoken of as if it were a drink that a person can taste, and tasting is a metonym for experiencing the drink. Job wants the wicked person to experience God's punishment. (See: Metaphor and Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- of the Almighty

Translation Words - UST

- Almighty God

ULT

20 Let his eyes see his own destruction, and let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

UST

20 I hope that wicked people will live to experience God destroying them, that they will experience Almighty God punishing them.

Job 21:21

For what does he care about his family after him when the number of his months is cut off?

Job uses this question to show that punishing the evil man's children is not effective. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "For the wicked man does not care what happens to his family after he has died!" (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive) the number of his months is cut off

This is a polite way of saying that he dies. (See: Euphemism)

the number of his months

This refers to the length of his life.

Translation Words - ULT

- about his family

Translation Words - UST

Job 21:22

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to his friends.

Can anyone teach God knowledge since he judges even those who are high?

Job asks this question to emphasize that God knows everything.
Alternate translation: "Obviously, no one can teach anything to God since he even judges those in heaven." (See: Rhetorical Question) those who are high

This could mean: (1) "those who are in heaven" or (2) "powerful people."

ULT

²² Can anyone teach God knowledge since he judges even those who are high?

UST

²² Since God judges everyone, even those who are in heaven, who can teach him anything?

Job 21:23

One man dies in his full strength

Job contrasts this man who dies in health and peace to the man who dies in sorrow and pain in Job 21:25. You can make this explicit. Alternate translation: "If there are two men, one may die in his full strength" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT

²³ One man dies in his full strength, being completely quiet and at ease.

UST

²³ Some people die while they are very healthy, while they are peaceful and not afraid of anything.

Job 21:24

His body is full of milk ... the marrow of his bones is moist

Both of these phrases mean that the person is very healthy. (See: Parallelism)

His body is full of milk

The word for "milk" may mean "fat." Either rendering means he is well-fed. Alternate translation: "His body if full of fat" (See: Idiom)

the marrow of his bones is moist

This idiom means his body is youthful and healthy. (See: Idiom)

ULT

²⁴ His body is full of milk, and the marrow of his bones is moist.

UST

²⁴ Their bodies are fat; their bones are strong.

- they
- experienced

ULT

²⁵ Another man dies in bitterness of soul, one who has never experienced anything good.

UST

²⁵ Other people die being very miserable; they have never experienced good things happening to them.

Job 21:26

They lie down alike in the dust

This is a polite way to say that they died. Alternate translation: "They both die and people bury them" (See: Euphemism)

the worms cover them both

Worms are associated with decay of dead bodies. Alternate translation: "the worms in the dirt eat their dead bodies" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT

²⁶ They lie down alike in the dust; the worms cover them both.

UST

²⁶ They die and are buried, and maggots cover their bodies. Everyone dies, so it is clear that dying is not always the punishment for being wicked.

Job 21:27

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to his friends.

See

Job uses this phrase to call attention to the statement that follows.
Alternate translation: "Listen"

Translation Words - ULT

- I know

Translation Words - UST

- and I know

ULT

²⁷ See, I know your thoughts, and the ways in which you wish to wrong me.

UST

²⁷ Listen, I know what you three are thinking, and I know the evil things that you plan to do to me.

Job 21:28

Where now is the house of the prince? Where is the tent in which the wicked man once lived?

Job believes his friends will ask these question to scold him. Both questions mean the same thing. Alternate translation: "See, the house of the evil ruler is gone. The tent of the wicked man has disappeared." (See: Rhetorical Question and Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- is the house
- once lived

Translation Words - UST

- were living
- The houses of

ULT

²⁸ For you say, 'Where now is the house of the prince? Where is the tent in which the wicked man once lived?'

UST

²⁸ You say, 'What happened to the tents in which wicked people were living? The houses of evil rulers have been destroyed!'

Job 21:29

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to his friends.

Have you never asked traveling people?

Job uses these questions to rebuke his friends for not learning from people who travel. Alternate translation: "You should listen to those who have traveled to distant places." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

²⁹ Have you never asked traveling people? Do you not know the evidence they can tell,

UST

²⁹ Have you never asked people who travel much? Do you not believe their reports about what they have seen,

Job 21:30

Connecting Statement:

Job finishes asking a rhetorical question that begins with the words "Do you not know" in verse 29.

the wicked man is kept ... from the day of wrath?

Job uses these questions to rebuke his friends for not learning from people who travel. "Those who have traveled to distant places will tell you ... from the day of wrath." (See: Rhetorical Question) the wicked man is kept from the day of calamity ... he is led away from the day of wrath

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God keeps the wicked man from the day of calamity ... God leads him away from the day of wrath" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- the wicked man
- is kept from

Translation Words - UST

- there are great
- someone rescues the wicked

ULT

³⁰ that the wicked man is kept from the day of calamity, and that he is led away from the day of wrath?

UST

³⁰ that wicked people usually do not suffer at the time when there are great disasters; that when God punishes people, someone rescues the wicked? that wicked people are the ones whom someone else rescues when God punishes people?

Job 21:31

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to his friends.

Who will condemn the wicked man's way to his face?

Job uses this question to contradict his friends' belief that the wicked are always judged. Alternate translation: "No one condemns the wicked man to his face." (See: Rhetorical Question) to his face

This means no one will go directly to the wicked person and condemn him personally. (See: Idiom)

Who will repay him for what he has done?

Job uses this question to contradict his friends' belief that the wicked are always judged. Alternate translation: "No one repays him for the bad things that he has done." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- his face

Translation Words - UST

- accuses wicked people

ULT

³¹ Who will condemn the wicked man's way to his face? Who will repay him for what he has done?

UST

³¹ There is no one who accuses wicked people, and there is no one who pays them back for all the evil things that they have done.

Job 21:32

he will be borne

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "people will carry him" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- men will keep watch

Translation Words - UST

- to guard those graves

ULT

³² Yet he will be borne to the grave;
men will keep watch over his tomb.

UST

³² When the corpses of wicked people are carried to their graves, people are put there to guard those graves.

Job 21:33

The clods of the valley will be sweet to him

Job imagines that the dead person will even enjoy the dirt that is put on him. This means the wicked person will even have a good death and a nice burial after a fulfilling life. "Clods" refer to the earth that covers the grave. Alternate translation: "He will enjoy being covered with the dirt of the valley" or "He will enjoy being buried in the dirt of the valley" (See: Synecdoche) all people will follow after him, as there were innumerable people before him

Job emphasizes that a large crowd of people will be in the funeral procession of this imaginary wicked man to honor him. Alternate translation: "a huge number of people go to the grave site; some go in front of the procession and some come behind" (See: Hypothetical Situations)

Translation Words - ULT

- people

Translation Words - UST

- people

ULT

³³ The clods of the valley will be sweet to him; all people will follow after him, as there were innumerable people before him.

UST

³³ A huge number of people go to the grave site; some go in front of the procession and some come behind, and the wicked ones who have died surely feel good when people throw clods of dirt on their graves.

Job 21:34

Connecting Statement:

This concludes Job's speech to his friends.

How then do you comfort me with nonsense, since in your answers there is nothing but falsehood?

Job uses a question to scold his friends. Alternate translation: "You cannot comfort me with nonsense. All of your answers are false."
(See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- do you comfort me
- falsehood

Translation Words - UST

- comfort me
- of lies

ULT

³⁴ How then do you comfort me with nonsense, since in your answers there is nothing but falsehood?"

UST

³⁴ So how can you comfort me by talking nonsense? Every reply that you give me is full of lies!"

Job 22 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of the advice of Job's friend, Eliphaz. His words in this chapter are much stronger than when he previously spoke.

Special concepts in this chapter

Repentance

Eliphaz tries to get Job to repent in this chapter. Eliphaz assumes that he is righteous, while assuming Job is not. (See: repent, repentance and righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Eliphaz uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Job that he is wrong. These questions help to build Eliphaz's argument. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 22:1

Eliphaz the Temanite

See how you translated this man's name in Job 2:11. (See: How to Translate Names)

ULT

¹ Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Eliphaz replied, saying this:

Job 22:2

Can a man be useful to God? Can a wise man be useful to him?

Both questions mean basically the same thing. Eliphaz uses questions to emphasize that a person's actions and wisdom do not benefit God. Alternate translation: "A man cannot be useful to God. A wise man cannot be useful to him." (See: Parallelism and Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- be

Translation Words - UST

- wise

ULT

² "Can a man be useful to God? Can a wise man be useful to him?"

UST

² "No one can be useful to God! People who are wise can be useful to themselves, but not to God."

Job 22:3

Is it any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous? Is it gain to him if you make your ways blameless?

Both of these statements mean the same thing. Eliphaz uses questions to emphasize that Job's actions do not help God. Alternate translation: "The Almighty does not receive any pleasure if you are righteous. He does not gain anything if you make your ways blameless." (See: Parallelism and Rhetorical Question)

ULT

³ Is it any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous? Is it gain to him if you make your ways blameless?

UST

³ If you were righteous, that would not please Almighty God, would it? If you lived a perfect life, that would not help him, would it?

Job 22:4

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

Is it because of your reverence for him that he rebukes you and takes you to judgment?

Eliphaz uses questions to scold Job and accuse him of committing terrible sins. Alternate translation: "It is certainly not because you have been devoted to him that God rebukes you and takes you to judgment!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

⁴ Is it because of your reverence for him that he rebukes you and takes you to judgment?

UST

⁴ Do you honor God, and is that why he punishes you? Is that the reason that he puts you on trial?

Job 22:5

Is not your wickedness great? Is there no end to your iniquities?

Eliphaz uses questions to scold Job and accuse him of committing terrible sins. Alternate translation: "As you know, he judges you because your wickedness is great and you keep on sinning!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- your wickedness

Translation Words - UST

- the evil things that

ULT

⁵ Is not your wickedness great? Is there no end to your iniquities?

UST

⁵ No, it certainly must be because you are extremely wicked. It must be that no one can count the evil things that you have done!

Job 22:6

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

you have demanded guarantee of a loan

This refers to a lender taking something from the borrower to ensure that the borrower pays him back.

you have stripped away clothing from the naked

Eliphaz is accusing Job of taking clothes as security from poor people who borrowed from him.

Translation Words - ULT

- your brother

Translation Words - UST

- they would pay that money back to you

ULT

⁶ For you have demanded guarantee of a loan from your brother for no reason, and you have stripped away clothing from the naked.

UST

⁶ You must have lent money to others and wrongly forced them to give you things to guarantee that they would pay that money back to you; you must have taken all their clothes and left them with nothing to wear.

Job 22:7

withheld bread

Here “bread” refers to food in general. Alternate translation: “withheld food” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- bread

Translation Words - UST

- food

ULT

⁷ You have not given water to weary people to drink; you have withheld bread from hungry people

UST

⁷ You must not have given water to those who were thirsty, and you must have refused to give food to those who were hungry.

Job 22:8

possessed the earth ... lived in it

Eliphaz is accusing Job of taking land from poor people and not allowing them to live on it. He is emphasizing this point by restating it twice. (See: Parallelism) possessed the earth

Eliphaz is exaggerating the amount of land that Job owned in order to portray Job as greedy. Alternate translation: “possessed a great amount of land” (See: Hyperbole)

Translation Words - ULT

- although you
- the earth

Translation Words - UST

- land
- that land

ULT

⁸ although you, a mighty man, possessed the earth, although you, an honored man, lived in it.

UST

⁸ Because you were very powerful, you must have taken over all the people's land, and then you began to live on that land, even though others honored you very much.

Job 22:9

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

You have sent widows away empty

Alternate translation: "You made widows go away with nothing" widows

women whose husbands have died

the arms of the fatherless have been broken

Here "arms" refer to power. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "you even oppressed orphans" (See: Metonymy and Active or Passive)

ULT

⁹ You have sent widows away empty; the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

UST

⁹ When widows came to you for help, you must have sent them away without giving them anything, and you must have oppressed orphans.

Job 22:10

snares are all around you ... sudden fear troubles you

These are metaphors for trouble and danger. Alternate translation: "you are always in danger ... you become afraid for no reason" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- troubles you

Translation Words - UST

- that terrify you

ULT

¹⁰ Therefore, snares are all around you, and sudden fear troubles you.

UST

¹⁰ Because you did all those things, now there are traps that will catch you; now things appear that terrify you and cause you to tremble.

Job 22:11

There is darkness ... an abundance of waters covers you

Each of these metaphors means troubles and dangers are all around Job because of his sin. (See: Metaphor)

an abundance of waters

Alternate translation: "a flood"

Translation Words - ULT

- There is darkness

Translation Words - UST

- It is as though it had become very dark

ULT

¹¹ There is darkness, so that you cannot see; an abundance of waters covers you.

UST

¹¹ It is as though it had become very dark, with the result that you cannot see anything, and it is as though a flood covered you.

Job 22:12

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

Is not God in the heights of heaven?

Eliphaz uses this question to say that God sees Job's sin and will judge him. Alternate translation: "God is in the heights of heaven and sees everything that happens on earth." (See: Rhetorical Question and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Look at the height of the stars, how high they are!

Eliphaz implies that God is higher than the stars. This can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "Look at how high the stars are. God is even higher than the stars!" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- heaven
- at the height of the

Translation Words - UST

- God
- in the heavens
- From there

ULT

¹² Is not God in the heights of heaven?
Look at the height of the stars, how high they are!

UST

¹² But consider this, Job: God lives high up in the heavens. From there he looks down on the highest stars.

Job 22:13

What does God know? Can he judge through the thick darkness?

Eliphaz uses these questions to imply that Job has said these things against God. Alternate translation: "God does not know what happens on earth. He sits in dark clouds and cannot see to judge us." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- does...know

Translation Words - UST

- God knows nothing

ULT

¹³ You say, 'What does God know? Can he judge through the thick darkness?

UST

¹³ So why do you say, 'God knows nothing about what we are doing'? And why do you say, 'Dark clouds keep him from seeing us, so he cannot judge us'?

Job 22:14

he walks on the vault of heaven

Here “vault” refers to the barrier that ancient people believed separated the earth from heaven. Alternate translation: “he lives too far away in heaven to see what happens here” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- he walks
- on the vault of heaven

Translation Words - UST

- Do you think that while he walks on the dome that...the sky
- we do

ULT

14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he does not see us; he walks on the vault of heaven.'

UST

14 Do you think that while he walks on the dome that covers the sky, where there are thick clouds around him, he cannot see what we do?

Job 22:15

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

Translation Words - ULT

- keep

Translation Words - UST

- continue to conduct your life

ULT

¹⁵ Will you keep the old way that wicked men have walked—

UST

¹⁵ Will you, Job, continue to conduct your life in the old way that evil people have done for many years?

Job 22:16

those who were snatched away

Dying is compared to God snatching them away. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “those who died” or “those whom God took away” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive) those whose foundations have washed away like a river

The death of wicked people is compared to buildings that had their foundations washed away by a flood. (See: Simile)

ULT

16 those who were snatched away before their time, those whose foundations have washed away like a river,

UST

16 They suddenly died while they were still young; they disappeared like everything disappears when there is a flood.

Job 22:17

What can the Almighty do to us?

Eliphaz quotes a question wicked people use to mock God. Alternate translation: "The Almighty cannot do anything to us!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- the Almighty

Translation Words - UST

- Almighty God

ULT

17 those who said to God, 'Depart from us'; those who said, 'What can the Almighty do to us?'

UST

17 They kept saying to God, 'Leave us alone,' 'Allow us to be alone,' and they also said defiantly, 'Almighty God can do nothing to harm us!'

Job 22:18

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

Yet he filled

Alternate translation: "Yet God filled"

the plans of wicked people are far from me

The idiom "far from me" means Eliphaz rejects them. Alternate translation: "but I will not listen to their wicked plans" (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- their houses
- with good things

Translation Words - UST

- their houses
- with good things

ULT

18 Yet he filled their houses with good things; the plans of wicked people are far from me.

UST

18 Yet it was God who filled their houses with good things; so I cannot agree at all to follow what the wicked plan.

Job 22:19

see their fate

Alternate translation: "know what will happen to the wicked"

laugh them to scorn

Alternate translation: "mock the wicked people"

Translation Words - ULT

- Righteous people
- and are glad

Translation Words - UST

- When righteous people
- they are glad

ULT

¹⁹ Righteous people see their fate and are glad; innocent people laugh them to scorn.

UST

¹⁹ When righteous people see that God punishes wicked people, they are glad, and they laugh at those wicked people.

Job 22:20

They say

Alternate translation: "The righteous say"

Surely those who rose up against us are cut off

Here "those who rose up" refers to the wicked people. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "Surely God has destroyed the wicked people who harmed us" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- fire
- has consumed

Translation Words - UST

- and fire
- has burned up

ULT

²⁰ They say, 'Surely those who rose up against us are cut off; fire has consumed their possessions.'

UST

²⁰ They say, 'Now our enemies have been destroyed, and fire has burned up anything left of their wealth.'

Job 22:21

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

Now

Eliphaz uses this word to introduce something important he is about to say.

Translation Words - ULT

- good

Translation Words - UST

- good things

ULT

²¹ Now agree with God and be at peace with him; in that way, good will come to you.

UST

²¹ So, Job, be reconciled to God and make peace with him; if you do that, good things will happen to you.

Job 22:22

instruction from his mouth

Here “from his mouth” represents what God has spoken. Alternate translation: “the instruction that God has spoken” (See: Metonymy) store up his words

God’s words are compared to treasures that Job could keep in a storeroom. Alternate translation: “treasure his commands” (See: Idiom)

your heart

Here “heart” refers to Job’s thoughts. Alternate translation: “your mind” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- instruction
- store up

Translation Words - UST

- and put
- his words

ULT

²² Receive, I beg you, instruction from his mouth; store up his words in your heart.

UST

²² Allow him to teach you, and put his words into your mind.

Job 22:23

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

you will be built up

Eliphaz compares Job's restoration to the rebuilding of a house that has fallen. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "he will heal you and make you prosper again" (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

if you put unrighteousness far away from your tents

Unrighteousness is pictured as a person who is living in Job's tent who must be removed. Alternate translation: "if you and everyone in your house stops sinning" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- you return
- the Almighty

Translation Words - UST

- God
- he will restore you

ULT

²³ If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up, if you put unrighteousness far away from your tents.

UST

²³ If you humble yourself and return to God, he will restore you; if you stop doing all the evil things that you have been doing in your house,

Job 22:24

Lay your treasure down in the dust

To lay a treasure in the dust is to treat it as unimportant. Alternate translation: "Consider your riches as unimportant as dust" (See: Idiom)

the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks

To put gold in the stream is to treat it as no more valuable than stones. Alternate translation: "the gold of Ophir is as worthless as stones in a stream" (See: Idiom)

Ophir

This is the name of a region famous for its gold. (See: How to Translate Names)

ULT

²⁴ Lay your treasure down in the dust, the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks,

UST

²⁴ and if you throw away your gold, the fine gold from the dry stream beds in Ophir land,

Job 22:25

the Almighty will be your treasure, precious silver to you

This means God will be more valuable to Job than any treasure. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- and the Almighty
- silver

Translation Words - UST

- then Almighty God
- and your silver have been

ULT

²⁵ and the Almighty will be your treasure, precious silver to you.

UST

²⁵ then Almighty God will be to be as precious to you as your gold and your silver have been.

Job 22:26

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

you will lift up your face to God

This means Job will no longer be ashamed but will trust in God.
Alternate translation: "you will be able to approach God confidently"
(See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- the Almighty
- your face
- God

Translation Words - UST

- God
- God
- approach him confidently

ULT

²⁶ For then you will take pleasure in the Almighty; you will lift up your face to God.

UST

²⁶ Then you will be happy because of God, and you will be able to approach him confidently.

Job 22:27

(There are no notes for this verse.)

ULT

²⁷ You will make your prayer to him, and he will hear you; you will pay your vows to him.

UST

²⁷ You will pray to him, and he will do what you request him to do; you will do the things that you promised him that you would do.

Job 22:28

it will be confirmed for you

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God will cause you to succeed" (See: Active or Passive) light will shine on your paths

God's blessing is compared to a light on all of Job's paths. Alternate translation: "it will be like a light shining on the road in front of you" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

28 You will also decree anything, and it will be confirmed for you; light will shine on your paths.

UST

28 Everything that you decide to do will be successful; it will be as though a light were shining on the road in front of you.

Job 22:29

Connecting Statement:

This concludes Eliphaz's speech to Job.

the one with lowered eyes

Here "lowered eyes" refers to humility. Alternate translation: "the humble person" (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- he saves the one

Translation Words - UST

- but he saves

ULT

²⁹ God humbles a proud man, and he saves the one with lowered eyes.

UST

²⁹ God humbles those who are proud, but he saves those who are downcast.

Job 22:30He will rescue even the man who is not innocent; who will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands

Job being innocent is spoken of as if his hands were physically clean.

The phrase “who will be rescued” can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: “Yahweh will rescue even the person who is not innocent because you do what is right” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

He will rescue even the man who is not innocent; who will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands

Some versions of the Bible read, “He rescues the innocent person; so he will rescue you when your hands are clean”

Translation Words - ULT

- He will rescue
- innocent
- of your hands

Translation Words - UST

- God rescues
- innocent
- because you do

ULT

³⁰ He will rescue even the man who is not innocent; who will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands.”

UST

³⁰ God rescues those who are not innocent; they will be rescued because you do what is right.”

Job 23:2

Even today my complaint is bitter

Here “Even today” emphasizes that his friends arguments have not changed Job’s situation at all. Alternate translation: “In spite of what you have said, my complaint is still bitter”

my complaint is bitter

Job speaks of his unanswered complaint against God as if it was a bitter taste in his mouth. Alternate translation: “my unanswered complaint is as bad as bitter food in my mouth” (See: Idiom)

my hand ... heavy because of my groaning

This could mean: (1) “I can barely lift my hand because of my groaning” or (2) “God’s hand continues to make me suffer in spite of my groaning” where “hand” refers to God’s power to punish. (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

ULT

³ Oh, that I knew where I might find him! Oh, that I might come to his place!

UST

³ I wish that I knew where I could meet with him so that I could go to the place where he lives.

Job 23:4

lay my case ... fill my mouth

These two lines mean the same thing and emphasize Job's desire to explain his situation to God. (See: Parallelism) fill my mouth with arguments

Here "fill my mouth" refers to speaking. Alternate translation: "I would speak all of my arguments" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- I would lay my case

Translation Words - UST

- for

ULT

⁴ I would lay my case in order before him and fill my mouth with arguments.

UST

⁴ If I could do that, I would tell him why I know that I am innocent; I would tell him many reasons for that.

Job 23:5I would learn the words ... would understand

These two lines mean basically the same thing and emphasize Job's desire to hear God's answer. (See: Parallelism)

the words with which he would answer me

Alternate translation: "the answer that he would give me"

Translation Words - ULT

- I would learn
- with which he would answer me

Translation Words - UST

- Then I would find out and
- would

ULT

⁵ I would learn the words with which he would answer me and would understand what he would say to me.

UST

⁵ Then I would find out and understand what he would reply to me.

Job 23:6

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

Would he

Alternate translation: "Would God"

Translation Words - ULT

- power

Translation Words - UST

- power

ULT

⁶ Would he argue against me in the greatness of his power? No, he would pay attention to me.

UST

⁶ Would he use his great power to argue with me? No, he would listen to me carefully.

Job 23:7There

This refers to the place where God is.

I would be acquitted forever by my judge

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “my judge would acquit me forever” or “God, who is my judge, would say that I am innocent once and for all” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- the upright person

Translation Words - UST

- an honest man

ULT

⁷ There the upright person might argue with him. In this way I would be acquitted forever by my judge.

UST

⁷ I am an honest man, so I would be able to discuss things with him fairly, and then he would declare that I am innocent, and he would not trouble me again.

Job 23:8

Job continues speaking. He begins using a merism to say that he has looked everywhere. (See: Merism)

Translation Words - ULT

- I go
- but I cannot perceive

Translation Words - UST

- I have gone
- found

ULT

⁸ See, I go eastward, but he is not there, and westward, but I cannot perceive him.

UST

⁸ However, I have gone to the east, and he is not there; I have gone to the west, but I have not found him there.

Job 23:9

north ... south

This is the end of the merism that begins with the words “eastward ... westward” in verse 8. By mentioning these four directions, Job emphasizes that he has looked everywhere. (See: Merism)

where he hides himself

Job speaks of God as if he is a person who hides.

ULT

⁹ To the north, where he is at work, but I cannot see him, and to the south, where he hides himself so that I cannot see him.

UST

⁹ I have gone north and I have gone south, but I have not seen him anywhere for he keeps himself from me.

Job 23:10

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

he knows the way that I take

Job's actions are spoken of as if he is walking on a path. Alternate translation: "God knows what I do" (See: Metaphor)

I will come out like gold

Job believes that the test will prove that he is as pure as refined gold. Alternate translation: "he will see that I am as pure as gold when anything not pure has been burned away" (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- he knows
- I will come out
- like gold

Translation Words - UST

- He knows
- whose impurities have all been burned out
- he will see that I am as pure as gold

ULT

¹⁰ But he knows the way that I take; when he has tested me, I will come out like gold.

UST

¹⁰ He knows how I have conducted my life; when he has finished testing me, he will see that I am as pure as gold whose impurities have all been burned out.

Job 23:11

My foot has held fast to his steps

Here “My foot” refers to Job. Alternate translation: “I have followed the path he has shown me” (See: Synecdoche)

I have kept to his way

Job’s obedience is spoken of as if he is walking in a path that God showed him. Alternate translation: “I have done what he told me to do” (See: Metaphor) turned not aside

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: “followed it exactly”

Translation Words - ULT

- I have kept

Translation Words - UST

- turned away from obeying him

ULT

11 My foot has held fast to his steps; I have kept to his way and turned not aside.

UST

11 I have faithfully walked on the road that he showed me; I have not turned away from obeying him.

Job 23:12I have not gone back from

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I have always obeyed" of his lips

This phrase refers to the message that God spoke. Alternate translation: "that he spoke" (See: Metonymy)

the words of his mouth

Here God is represented by his "mouth." Alternate translation: "what he said" (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- the commandment

Translation Words - UST

- obeyed

ULT

¹² I have not gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my portion of food.

UST

¹² I have always obeyed what he commanded; I have hidden away in my inner being the words that he has spoken.

Job 23:13

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

But he is one of a kind, who can turn him back?

Job uses this question to emphasize that there is no one like God and no one can force him to change. Alternate translation: “But there is no one like him, and nobody can make him change his mind.” or “But he alone is God, and no one can influence him.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

What he desires, he does

Alternate translation: “He does whatever he wants to do”

Translation Words - ULT

- can turn him back

Translation Words - UST

- stop him

ULT

¹³ But he is one of a kind, who can turn him back? What he desires, he does.

UST

¹³ He never changes. There is no one who can stop him from doing what he desires. Whatever he wants to do, he does.

Job 23:14

he carries out his decree against me

Alternate translation: "he is doing to me what he said he would do"

there are many like them

Alternate translation: "he has many similar plans for me"

Translation Words - ULT

- his decree against me

Translation Words - UST

- that he has planned for me

ULT

14 For he carries out his decree against me; there are many like them.

UST

14 He will finish doing the things that he has planned for me, and I am sure that he has thought about doing many things for me.

Job 23:15

General Information:

Each of these verses has the form of a parallelism to emphasize the main point Job makes there. (See: Parallelism)

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

Translation Words - ULT

- when I think about him

Translation Words - UST

- I think about

ULT

15 Therefore, I am terrified in his presence; when I think about him, I am afraid of him.

UST

15 So I am terrified when I am in front of him; when I think about what he can do, I am very afraid.

Job 23:16

For God has made my heart weak; the Almighty has terrified me

These two lines mean basically the same thing and emphasize that Job is very afraid of God. (See: Parallelism) made my heart weak

A person whose heart is weak is a person who is timid or fearful.
Alternate translation: "made me afraid" (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- heart

Translation Words - UST

- very afraid

ULT

¹⁶ For God has made my heart weak; the Almighty has terrified me.

UST

¹⁶ Almighty God has made me very afraid.

Job 23:17I have not been brought to an end by darkness

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. This could mean: (1) "The thick darkness in front of me has not made me silent" or (2) "Darkness has not stopped me" or "God has stopped me, not the darkness." (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive)

the gloom of my face

Here Job refers to himself by his "face." Alternate translation: "my sadness" (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- by darkness

Translation Words - UST

- darkness

ULT

¹⁷ I have not been brought to an end by darkness, because of the thick darkness that covers the gloom of my face.

23:2 ^[1]

UST

¹⁷ The thick darkness in front of me has not make me silent, even that terrible darkness that covers my face has not kept me from speaking."

Job 24

Job 24 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is Job's response to Eliphaz. It is a continuation of the previous chapter.

Special concepts in this chapter

Court

This chapter uses an extended metaphor of a court case to describe Job's "case," which he seeks to bring to Yahweh, who is a judge. Cultures without a legal system will have difficulty translating this chapter. (See: Metaphor)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Job uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Eliphaz that he is wrong. These questions help to build Job's argument. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 24:1

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

Why are times for judging wicked people not set by the Almighty?

Job uses this question to express his frustration that God has not judged evil. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "I do not understand why God does not set a time when he will judge wicked people." or "The Almighty should set a time when he will judge wicked people." (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)

Why do not those who are faithful to God see his days of judgment come?

Job uses this question to express his frustration that the righteous have not seen God judge evil. Alternate translation: "It seems that those who obey him never get to see him judge the wicked." or "God should show the day he will judge the wicked to those who know him." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- for judging wicked people

Translation Words - UST

- seem to see

ULT

¹ Why are times for judging wicked people not set by the Almighty? Why do not those who are faithful to God see his days of judgment come?

UST

¹ "Why does Almighty God not set a time when he will judge evil people? The people who obey God never seem to see him judge the evil people.

Job 24:2

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

boundary markers

These are stones or other objects to mark the boundary between the lands owned by different people.

pastures

land with grass for animals to eat

Translation Words - ULT

- flocks

Translation Words - UST

- other people's sheep

ULT

² There are wicked people who remove boundary markers; there are wicked people who take away flocks by force and put them in their own pastures.

UST

² Some evil people remove the boundary markers of other people's land, in order to take their land; they seize other people's sheep and put them in their own pastures.

Job 24:3They drive away

Alternate translation: "They steal"

those without fathers

Alternate translation: "orphans" or "children whose parents have died"

they take the widow's ox as security

Alternate translation: "they take widows' oxen to guarantee that the widows will pay back the money that they loaned to those widows"

widow

a woman whose husband has died

as security

A lender would take something from a borrower to ensure that the borrower pays him back.

Translation Words - ULT

- the donkey

Translation Words - UST

- Some take away the donkeys

ULT

³ They drive away the donkey of those without fathers; they take the widow's ox as security.

UST

³ Some take away the donkeys that belong to orphans, and they take widows' oxen to guarantee that the widows will pay back the money that they loaned to those widows.

Job 24:4

out of their path

Alternate translation: "out of their way" or "off the road"

poor people of the earth all hide themselves

The word "all" is an exaggeration to show that many poor people are afraid of these wicked people. (See: Hyperbole)

Translation Words - ULT

- of the earth

Translation Words - UST

- to find places

ULT

⁴ They force needy people out of their path; poor people of the earth all hide themselves from them.

UST

⁴ Some shove poor people off the road, and they force poor people to find places to hide from them.

Job 24:5

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

these poor people go out to their work like wild donkeys in the wilderness, looking carefully for food

These poor people are spoken of as if they are wild donkeys who do not know where they will find food. Alternate translation: “these poor people go out to search for food as if they were wild donkeys in the wilderness” (See: Simile) wild donkeys

Alternate translation: “donkeys that no one owns or cares for”

Translation Words - ULT

- go out
- in the wilderness
- for food
- for their children

Translation Words - UST

- The result is that
- poor people have
- for food
- in the desert

ULT

⁵ See, these poor people go out to their work like wild donkeys in the wilderness, looking carefully for food; perhaps the Arabah will provide them food for their children.

UST

⁵ The result is that poor people have to search for food in the desert plain like wild donkeys do.

Job 24:6

Poor people reap in the night ... they glean grapes

These two lines describe the same thing and are used together to emphasize that these people are so hungry that they are forced to steal food at night. (See: Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- Poor people reap
- from the harvest

Translation Words - UST

- in other people's
- vineyards that belong to

ULT

⁶ Poor people reap in the night in other people's fields; they glean grapes from the harvest of those wicked people.

UST

⁶ The poor people harvest leftover grain in other people's fields, and gather leftover grapes from vineyards that belong to wicked men.

Job 24:7

They lie naked ... they have no covering

These two lines describe the same thing and are used together to emphasize that these people do not have enough clothing to keep warm. (See: Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- clothing

Translation Words - UST

- they have

ULT

⁷ They lie naked all night without clothing; they have no covering in the cold.

UST

⁷ During the night they have nothing to cover their bodies, nothing to keep them warm.

Job 24:8

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

They are wet with the showers of the mountains

Alternate translation: "They become wet when it rains in the mountains"

ULT

⁸ They are wet with the showers of the mountains; they lie next to large rocks because they have no shelter.

UST

⁸ When it rains in the mountains, they become very wet, so they huddle under the rock ledges to protect themselves from the rain.

Job 24:9

orphans from their mothers' breast

Here "breast" refers to the mother. This implies that these orphans are still very young. This can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "young orphans out of their mothers' arms" or "fatherless infants from their mothers" (See: Synecdoche and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) orphans

This generally refers to children without parents. Here, however, it is used for children who have mothers but do not have fathers.

take children as security from poor people

Alternate translation: "take poor people's children to guarantee that the poor people will pay back money that they borrowed from the wicked people"

as security

A lender would take something from a borrower to ensure that the borrower pays him back. See how you translated this in Job 24:3.

ULT

⁹ There are wicked people who pluck orphans from their mothers' breast, and wicked people who take children as security from poor people.

UST

⁹ Some evil men snatch poor, fatherless infants away from their mothers; they say 'I will return your babies to you when you repay the money that I lent to you.'

Job 24:10

go about

Alternate translation: "walk around"

naked without clothing

The words "without clothing" mean the same thing as "naked."
Alternate translation: "completely naked" or "naked because they have no clothing" (See: Doublet)

they carry bundles of grain belonging to other people

This means their work will provide food for others but not for themselves.

Translation Words - ULT

- But the poor people go about
- clothing

Translation Words - UST

- But the poor people walk around
- with no clothes on

ULT

¹⁰ But the poor people go about naked without clothing; although they go hungry, they carry bundles of grain belonging to other people.

UST

¹⁰ But the poor people walk around with no clothes on; they are hungry while they are working to carry other people's bundles of grain to the places where their grain will be threshed.

Job 24:11Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

The poor people make oil they squeezed olives in order to extract olive oil from them within the walls of those wicked men

Here “walls” refers to the whole house. Alternate translation: “in the houses of those evil men” (See: Synecdoche)

they tread the wicked men’s winepresses

It may be helpful to state that they do this to produce juice to make wine. Alternate translation: “they tread on grapes to make juice for wine” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) they themselves suffer thirst

Alternate translation: “they suffer from thirst” or “they are thirsty”

ULT

11 The poor people make oil within the walls of those wicked men; they tread the wicked men’s winepresses, but they themselves suffer thirst.

UST

11 Poor people are hired by these wicked people to make olive oil for them; they tread on grapes to make juice for wine, but they are not allowed to drink any of it when they are thirsty.

Job 24:12

(There are no notes for this verse.)

ULT

¹² From out of the city the dying groan, and the throat of the wounded cries out for help. But God does not ascribe blame

UST

¹² In the cities, people who are wounded and dying cry out to God for help, but God ignores their prayers.

Job 24:13

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

rebel against the light

Here, light could mean: (1) visible light or (2) spiritual light, which refers to God or living righteously. Alternate translation: “hate the daylight” or “do not want to do things openly” or “rebel against God” (See: Metaphor) they know not its ways, nor do they stay in its paths

These two lines describe the same thing, and are used together to emphasize that they do not want to follow the ways of the light. Alternate translation: “they do not know how to live a moral life; they stay far away from living a righteous life” (See: Metaphor and Parallelism)

ULT

¹³ Some of these wicked people rebel against the light; they know not its ways, nor do they stay in its paths.

UST

¹³ Some wicked people avoid the light because they do evil things in the dark; they do not walk on roads that are lit.

Job 24:14

poor and needy people

The words “poor” and “needy” refer to the same group of people and emphasize that these are people who are unable to help themselves. (See: Doublet)

he is like a thief

The murderer kills in secret just like a thief steals without anyone seeing what he does. Alternate translation: “he kills people secretly, just like a thief steals secretly” (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- he is like a thief

Translation Words - UST

- go out again

ULT

14 Before daylight the murderer rises and he kills poor and needy people; in the night he is like a thief.

UST

14 Murderers steal things during the night, and then they rise before dawn in order that they may go out again and kill poor and needy people.

Job 24:15

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

the eye of the adulterer

Here “eye” refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: “the adulterer” (See: Synecdoche) for the twilight

Alternate translation: “for the sunset”

No eye will see me

Here “eye” refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: “No one will see me” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- waits
- face

Translation Words - UST

- so they keep
- their faces

ULT

¹⁵ Also, the eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight; he says, ‘No eye will see me.’ He disguises his face.

UST

¹⁵ Those who want to commit adultery wait for evening to come; they say, ‘I do not want anyone to see me,’ so they keep their faces covered.

Job 24:16

wicked people dig into houses

They dig into the houses in order to steal from them. This can be stated explicitly. Alternate translation: “wicked people dig into houses to steal from them” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) they shut themselves up

Alternate translation: “they hide inside”

Translation Words - ULT

- wicked people
- they do...care for

Translation Words - UST

- It is...that robbers...houses
- want to avoid being seen

ULT

¹⁶ In the darkness wicked people dig into houses; but they shut themselves up in the daytime; they do not care for the light.

UST

¹⁶ It is during the night that robbers break into houses to steal things, but during the day they hide because they want to avoid being seen in the light.

Job 24:17

For all of them, thick darkness is like the morning

The thick darkness is as comfortable for the wicked as light of the morning is for normal people. (See: Simile)

the terrors of thick darkness

Alternate translation: "the scary things that happen at night"

ULT

¹⁷ For all of them, thick darkness is like the morning; for they are friends with the terrors of thick darkness.

UST

¹⁷ All of those people want to do their evil deeds at night, not in the morning when it is light, because they are not afraid of the things that happen during the night that terrify others.

Job 24:18

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

like foam on the surface of the waters

Foam lasts only a short time. This emphasizes how quickly God will cause the wicked to disappear. (See: Simile) their portion of the land is cursed

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God curses the part of the land that they own" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- the surface of
- in their vineyards

Translation Words - UST

- and
- their vineyards

ULT

¹⁸ Swiftly they pass away, however, like foam on the surface of the waters; their portion of the land is cursed; no one goes to work in their vineyards.

UST

¹⁸ However, those wicked people will disappear very quickly, and God will curse the land that they owned; no one will go any longer to work in their vineyards.

Job 24:19

As drought and heat melt away ... those who have sinned

Job says that sinners will disappear in Sheol in the same way as snow melts and disappears when it becomes warm. (See: Simile)

drought and heat

These two words describe essentially the same weather and are used together to describe it fully. (See: Hendiadys)

Translation Words - ULT

- As drought
- those who have sinned

Translation Words - UST

- those who have sinned
- will disappear into

ULT

¹⁹ As drought and heat melt away the snow into waters, so Sheol takes away those who have sinned.

UST

¹⁹ Just as the snow melts away when it is hot and there is no rain, those who have sinned will disappear into the place where the dead people are.

Job 24:20

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

The womb

This refers to the mother. Alternate translation: “The mother” (See: Synecdoche)

the worm will feed sweetly on him

This means that he will die and worms will eat his body. Alternate translation: “the worm will enjoy eating his dead body” or “he will die and then his body will be eaten by worms” (See: Idiom)

he will be remembered no more

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “no one will remember him anymore” (See: Active or Passive)

wickedness will be broken like a tree

God’s destruction of the wicked man is describes as if he were cutting down a tree. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “God will destroy the wicked as if he were a tree” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

ULT

²⁰ The womb that bore him will forget him; the worm will feed sweetly on him; he will be remembered no more; in this way, wickedness will be broken like a tree.

UST

²⁰ Not even their mothers will remember them; wicked people will be destroyed like trees that are cut down, and maggots will eat their corpses.

Job 24:21

The wicked one devours

This metaphor emphasizes how ruthless the wicked man is. Alternate translation: "Just like a wild animal kills its prey, so the wicked person harms" (See: Metaphor)

the barren women who have not borne children

The people of that day considered that a woman who was barren was cursed by God. Therefore, this represents the most unfortunate women.

widow

a woman whose husband has died

Translation Words - ULT

- good to

Translation Words - UST

- help

ULT

²¹ The wicked one devours the barren women who have not borne children; he does no good to the widow.

UST

²¹ The wicked mistreat women who have been unable to give birth to children who would have grown up to take care of them; the wicked they never help widows.

Job 24:22Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

by his power

Alternate translation: “by using his power” or “because he is powerful”

he rises up and does not strengthen them in life

Here “does not strengthen them in life” means God does not keep them alive. Alternate translation: “God rises up and does not give wicked people the strength to live” or “God rises up and causes them to die” (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- Yet God drags away
- by his power
- strengthen them

Translation Words - UST

- by his power
- gets rid of
- causes the wicked

ULT

22 Yet God drags away the mighty people by his power; he rises up and does not strengthen them in life.

UST

22 But God, by his power, gets rid of mighty people. He causes the wicked people to die.

Job 24:23

but his eyes are on their ways

Here "eyes" refers to God. Alternate translation: "but he is always watching what they do" (See: Synecdoche)

ULT

²³ God allows them to think they are secure, and they are happy about that, but his eyes are on their ways.

UST

²³ God allows them to think that they are secure and safe, but he is watching them all the time.

Job 24:24

Connecting Statement:

This concludes Job's speech.

they will be brought low

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God will bring them low" or "God will destroy them" (See: Active or Passive)

they will be gathered up like all the others

Some translations are based on a different early text, which says "they wither and fade like weeds." (See: Textual Variants)

they will be gathered up like all the others

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. What "the others" refers to can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "God will gather them up as he gathered up the other wicked people" (See: Active or Passive and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

they will be cut off like the tops of ears of grain

These wicked people will be cut off in the same way heads of grain are cut off during harvest. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God will cut them off like a farmer cuts off the top of a stalk of grain" (See: Simile and Active or Passive)

ULT

²⁴ These people are exalted; still, in only a little while, they will be gone; indeed, they will be brought low; they will be gathered up like all the others; they will be cut off like the tops of ears of grain.

UST

²⁴ They prosper for a little while, and then suddenly they are gone; God will make them die like all the other people; they will be like stalks of grain that the farmers have cut off.

Job 24:25

If it is not so, who can prove me to be a liar; who can make my speech worth nothing?

Job uses this question to express the certainty of his argument. The implicit answer is: “no one.” Alternate translation: “This is true, and no one can prove that I am a liar; no one can prove me wrong.” (See: Rhetorical Question) make my speech worth nothing

Alternate translation: “prove what I say is wrong”

Translation Words - ULT

- who can make

Translation Words - UST

- and prove me wrong

ULT

²⁵ If it is not so, who can prove me to be a liar; who can make my speech worth nothing?”

UST

²⁵ If this is not true, is there anyone who will show that I am a liar and prove me wrong?”

Job 25 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of the advice of Job's friend, Bildad. His words in this chapter are much stronger than when he previously spoke.

Special concepts in this chapter

God's holiness and man's sin

Bildad describes the holiness of Yahweh and the universal nature of man's sinfulness. While his points are accurate, they are not convincing for Job because he has been righteous. (See: holy, holiness, unholy, sacred and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning and righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Bildad uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Job that he is wrong. These questions help to build Bildad's argument. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 25:1

Bildad the Shuhite

See how you translated this man's name in Job 2:11.

ULT

¹ Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

UST

¹ Then Bildad also replied:

Job 25:2

Dominion and fear are with him

Here “him” refers to God. The abstract nouns “dominion” and “fear” can be stated as verbs. Alternate translation: “God rules over all and people should fear only him” (See: Abstract Nouns)

he makes order in his high places of heaven

Alternate translation: “he makes peace in the high heaven”

Translation Words - ULT

- Dominion
- order

Translation Words - UST

- he causes everything
- peaceful high up

ULT

² “Dominion and fear are with him; he makes order in his high places of heaven.

UST

² “God is very powerful; everyone should honor him very much; he causes everything to be peaceful high up in heaven, with no confusion at all.

Job 25:3

Is there any end to the number of his armies?

Bildad uses this question to emphasize how great God is. The implicit answer is “no.” This refers to the armies of God’s angels. Alternate translation: “There is no end to the number of angels in his army.” or “His armies are so big that no one can count them.” (See: Rhetorical Question and Metonymy)

Upon whom does his light not shine?

Bildad uses this question to emphasize that God gives light to every person. Alternate translation: “There is no one upon whom his light does not shine.” or “God makes his light shine over everyone.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

³ Is there any end to the number of his armies? Upon whom does his light not shine?

UST

³ Can anyone count the angels who are in his army in heaven? Is there any person on whom his light does not shine?

Job 25:4

Connecting Statement:

Bildad continues speaking.

How then can man ... God? How can he who is born ... him?

These two questions are used together to emphasize that it is impossible for a man to be good enough before God. (See: Parallelism and Rhetorical Question)

How then can man be righteous with God?

The implicit reaction is that he cannot. Alternate translation: "A man can never be righteous before God." (See: Rhetorical Question)

How can he who is born ... acceptable to him?

The implicit reaction is that he cannot. Alternate translation: "He who is born of a woman cannot be clean or acceptable to him." (See: Rhetorical Question)

he who is born of a woman

This idiom includes everyone. Alternate translation: "any person" (See: Idiom)

ULT

⁴ How then can man be righteous with God? How can he who is born of a woman be clean, acceptable to him?

UST

⁴ So how can God consider any person to be righteous? How can he accept any human being?

Job 25:5

See

The word “See” here adds emphasis to what follows. Alternate translation: “Indeed” the moon has no brightness to him

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word brightness, you could express the same idea with an adjective. Alternate translation: “the moon is not bright enough for God” (See: Abstract Nouns)

the stars are not pure in his sight

Here “pure” means “perfect.” Alternate translation: “he does not think even the stars are perfect”

ULT

⁵ See, even the moon has no brightness to him; the stars are not pure in his sight.

UST

⁵ Consider this: God does not even think that the full moon is bright, and he does not even accept the stars in the heavens as worthy of him.

Job 25:6

How much less man ... a son of man, who is a worm

These two lines say the same thing and are used together to emphasize that man is not perfect. (See: Parallelism) who is a worm

Bildad states that human beings are as worthless as worms. Alternate translation: “who is as worthless as a worm” (See: Metaphor)

a son of man

This is another way of referring to a person. Alternate translation: “a person” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- man, who is
- a son

Translation Words - UST

- what about humans
- of people

ULT

⁶ How much less man, who is a worm—
a son of man, who is a worm!”

UST

⁶ So what about humans? They are as insignificant as maggots. God does not think more highly of people than he thinks of worms.”

Job 26

Job 26 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is Job's response to Bildad.

This chapter begins a section continuing through chapter 31.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's power

While Bildad describes Yahweh's power as being so much greater than Job's, Job understands the true extent of Yahweh's power. It is not just over Job's life, but over all of creation.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Sarcasm

Job uses sarcasm in this chapter. This is the use of irony to insult Bildad. (See: Job 1-4 and Irony)

Job 26:1

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- Then Job

Translation Words - UST

- Job

ULT

¹ Then Job answered and said,

UST

¹ Job replied to Bildad:

Job 26:2

How you have helped one ... the arm that has no strength

In these statements, Job is accusing Bildad. The word “one” refers to Job. And, the word “arm” represents the whole person. Alternate translation: “I am powerless and have no strength, but you act like you have helped me; but really, you have not helped me at all” (See: Irony and Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- one who has...power
- How you have saved

Translation Words - UST

- a very weak
- that you have helped

ULT

² “How you have helped one who has no power! How you have saved the arm that has no strength!

UST

² “I am a very weak and helpless man; you do not really think that you have helped me at all, do you?”

Job 26:3How you have advised one who has no wisdom and announced to him sound knowledge

Job is saying that Bildad has not provided him with good advice and knowledge. Alternate translation: “You act like I have no wisdom and that you have advised me, that you have given me good advice” (See: Irony) announced to him sound knowledge

Alternate translation: “given him good advice”

Translation Words - ULT

- you have advised
- knowledge

Translation Words - UST

- that you
- do you

ULT

³ How you have advised one who has no wisdom and announced to him sound knowledge!

UST

³ You certainly do not think that you have given me good advice, do you?—me, who am not wise at all.

Job 26:4

With whose help have you spoken these words? Whose spirit was it ... you?

In these questions Job continues to mock Bildad. They are both rhetorical questions and have basically the same meaning. They are used together to strengthen each other. Alternate translation: "You must have had help speaking these words. Perhaps some spirit helped you speak them!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- came out

Translation Words - UST

- to

ULT

⁴ With whose help have you spoken these words? Whose spirit was it that came out from you?

UST

⁴ Who helped you to say all those great things? Who inspired you to speak like you did?

Job 26:5The dead

This refers to dead people. Alternate translation: "Those who are dead" or "The spirits of the dead" (See: Nominal Adjectives)

tremble

They tremble because they are afraid of God. This can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "tremble in fear" or "tremble in fear of God" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) those who are beneath the waters

This refers to the dead people who tremble.

all who dwell in them

This refers to the dead people who dwell in the waters.

ULT

⁵ The dead are made to tremble, those who are beneath the waters and all who dwell in them.

UST

⁵ The spirits of dead people tremble with fear, those who are under the waters and everyone who dwells with them.

Job 26:6

Sheol is naked before God; destruction itself has no covering

Sheol is spoken of as if it were a person. These two phrases have the same meaning. To be “naked” or have “no covering” is to be completely exposed and not able to hide anything. Alternate translation: “It is like sheol is naked before God, for nothing in sheol, the place of destruction, is hidden from God” (See: Metaphor and Parallelism) destruction

This is another name for sheol. Alternate translation: “the place of destruction”

ULT

⁶ Sheol is naked before God; destruction itself has no covering against him.

UST

⁶ God knows all about those who are in the place of the dead; there is nothing down there that prevents God from seeing what is there.

Job 26:7

He stretches out the northern skies over the empty space

The northern skies represent heaven, the place where God dwells with the beings he created to dwell there. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- and he hangs
- the earth

Translation Words - UST

- and he places
- the earth

ULT

⁷ He stretches out the northern skies over the empty space, and he hangs the earth over nothing.

UST

⁷ God stretches out heaven over the empty spaces, and he places the earth in that huge empty space, but it is not resting on anything.

Job 26:8

He binds up the waters in his thick clouds

The clouds are compared to a large blanket in which God wraps the rainwater. Alternate translation: "He wraps up the water in his thick clouds" but the clouds are not torn under them

This can be stated actively. The word "them" refers to the waters. Alternate translation: "but the weight of the waters does not tear the clouds" (See: Active or Passive)

ULT

⁸ He binds up the waters in his thick clouds, but the clouds are not torn under them.

UST

⁸ He fills the thick clouds with water and prevents that water from bursting the clouds.

Job 26:9

and spreads his clouds on it

This phrase tells how he covers the surface of the moon. Alternate translation: "by spreading his clouds in front of it"

Translation Words - ULT

- He covers
- the surface of

Translation Words - UST

- He
- to obscure

ULT

⁹ He covers the surface of the moon and spreads his clouds on it.

UST

⁹ He causes clouds to obscure the moon.

Job 26:10

He has engraved a circular boundary on the surface of the waters

This speaks of the horizon, where the earth appears to meet the sky, as if God has marked a boundary on the ocean.

Translation Words - ULT

- boundary
- the surface of
- darkness

Translation Words - UST

- from
- the darkness
- the place where

ULT

¹⁰ He has engraved a circular boundary on the surface of the waters as the line between light and darkness.

UST

¹⁰ He separates the light from the darkness and puts the horizon to mark the place where the night ends and the daytime begins.

Job 26:11The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his rebuke

People thought of heaven or the sky as resting on pillars. Job speaks as though the pillars are humans that shake in fear when God is angry. Alternate translation: “The pillars that hold up heaven shake in fear when God rebukes them” or “The pillars that hold up the sky shake like people who are afraid when God rebukes them” (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

- The pillars
- of heaven

Translation Words - UST

- it is as though he rebuked the pillars
- that hold up the sky

ULT

¹¹ The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his rebuke.

UST

¹¹ When he is angry, it is as though he rebuked the pillars that hold up the sky. They are shocked, and they tremble.

Job 26:12

he shattered Rahab

Alternate translation: "he destroyed Rahab"

Rahab

This is the name of a frightening monster that lived in the sea. See how you translated this in Job 9:13. (See: How to Translate Names)

Translation Words - ULT

- with his power

Translation Words - UST

- By his power

ULT

¹² He calmed the sea with his power; by his understanding he shattered Rahab.

UST

¹² By his power he calmed the sea; by his skill he destroyed Rahab, the huge sea monster.

Job 26:13

By his breath he made the skies clear

The noun “breath” can be translated with the verb “breathe” or “blow.” This image represents God causing the wind to blow away the clouds. Alternate translation: “God blew away the clouds so that the skies were clear” (See: Metaphor) his hand pierced the fleeing serpent

It is implied that God his holding a sword, and here “his hand” represents that sword. Also, “pierced” represents killing. Alternate translation: “With his sword he pierced the fleeing serpent” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Metonymy)

the fleeing serpent

“the serpent as it was trying to escape from him.” This refers to Rahab, the monster in the sea. See Job 26:12.

Translation Words - ULT

- By his breath
- he made the skies
- his hand

Translation Words - UST

- By his breath he caused
- the sky
- by his hand he killed

ULT

¹³ By his breath he made the skies clear; his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.

UST

¹³ By his breath he caused the sky to be bright; by his hand he killed the great dragon in the sea as it was fleeing from him.

Job 26:14

See, these are but the fringes of his ways

Here “fringes” represents a small part that we can see of something that is much bigger. Alternate translation: “See, these things that God has done show only a small part of his great power” (See: Metaphor) how small a whisper do we hear of him!

This is an exclamation that expresses Job’s amazement of all the great things that God does that we do not even know about. Seeing what God does is spoken of as hearing God’s voice. Alternate translation: “it is as if we heard only his quiet whisper!” (See: Exclamations and Metaphor)

Who can understand the thunder of his power?

The “thunder of his power” represents God’s greatness. Job uses this question to emphasize that God’s power is so great that no one can understand it. Alternate translation: “The thunder displays the greatness of his power which no one can understand!” (See: Rhetorical Question and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- understand

Translation Words - UST

- really understand

ULT

14 See, these are but the fringes of his ways; how small a whisper do we hear of him! Who can understand the thunder of his power?”

UST

14 But those events show only a small amount of his power; it is as though we were hearing only whispers of his powerful voice. When we hear thunder, we say, ‘Who can really understand how great his power is?’”

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's response to Bildad.

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's righteousness

Despite being upset about his circumstances, Job does not curse God. Instead, he recognizes Yahweh's authority. (See: curse, cursed, cursing)

Job 27:1

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- Job

Translation Words - UST

- Job

ULT

¹Job resumed speaking and he said,

UST

¹Job continued speaking to his three friends:

Job 27:2

As surely as God lives

This phrase shows that Job is taking an oath. Job compares the certainty that God is alive to the certainty of what he is saying. This is a way of making a solemn promise. Alternate translation: "I swear by God" has taken away my justice

Justice is spoken of as if it were an object that could be taken away or given. Taking it away represents refusing to treat Job with justice. Alternate translation: "has refused to treat me justly" (See: Metaphor) made my life bitter

Job's "life" being bitter represents Job feeling resentful toward God. Alternate translation: "has caused me to become resentful" or "has made me feel angry because of the unfair way he has treated me" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- As surely as God lives
- who made my life
- my justice

Translation Words - UST

- treat me justly
- But just as surely as he lives
- He has caused me

ULT

² "As surely as God lives, who has taken away my justice, the Almighty, who made my life bitter,

UST

² "Almighty God has refused to treat me justly. He has caused me to feel bitter. But just as surely as he lives,

Job 27:3

while my life is yet in me

This refers to the duration of the rest of his life. Alternate translation: “during the whole time that my life is yet in me” or “as long as my life is yet in me”

while my life is yet in me

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word life, you could express the same idea with the adjective “alive” or the verb “live.” Alternate translation: “as long as I am still alive” or “while I still live” (See: Abstract Nouns)

the breath from God is in my nostrils

“Breath ... in my nostrils” represents being able to breathe. “Breath from God” represents God making him able to breathe. Alternate translation: “God enables me to breathe” (See: Metonymy) nostrils

Alternate translation: “nose”

Translation Words - ULT

- and the breath
- God is in my nostrils

Translation Words - UST

- God's
- to breathe

ULT

³ while my life is yet in me, and the breath from God is in my nostrils, this is what I will do.

UST

³ I will say this as long as God's Spirit enables me to breathe!

Job 27:4

My lips will not speak wickedness, neither will my tongue speak deceit

These two phrases have basically the same meaning and are used together to emphasize that he will not speak in such ways. The phrases “My lips” and “my tongue” represent Job himself. Alternate translation: “I will not speak wickedness or deceit” (See: Parallelism and Synecdoche)

Speak wickedness ... speak deceit

The abstract nouns “wickedness” and “deceit” can be expressed with “wickedly” and “deceitfully.” Alternate translation: “speak wickedly ... speak deceitfully” (See: Abstract Nouns)

ULT

⁴ My lips will not speak wickedness, neither will my tongue speak deceit;

UST

⁴ I will not lie! I will not say anything to deceive anyone.

Job 27:5

I will never admit that you three are right

Alternate translation: "I will never agree with you and say that you three are right" that you three are right

The word "you" here is plural. It refers to Job's friends. (See: Forms of You)

I will never deny my integrity

Alternate translation: "I will never say that I am not innocent" or "I will always say that I am innocent"

ULT

⁵ I will never admit that you three are right; until I die I will never deny my integrity.

UST

⁵ I will never admit that what you three have said is true; until the day that I die, I will insist that I have not done things that are wrong.

Job 27:6

I hold fast to my righteousness

Here “hold fast” is a metaphor that represents being determined to continue to say something. If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word righteousness, you could express the same idea with “righteous.” Alternate translation: “I am determined to continue saying that I am righteous” (See: Metaphor and Abstract Nouns) will not let it go

Here “will not let it go” is a metaphor that represents not stopping saying something. Alternate translation: “will not stop saying that I am righteous” or “will not stop saying so” (See: Metaphor)

my thoughts will not reproach me

Here the phrase “my thoughts” represents Job. Alternate translation: “even in my thoughts, I will not reproach myself” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- I hold fast to
- reproach
- me

Translation Words - UST

- I will say that...and I will never
- my inner being
- reproach me

ULT

⁶ I hold fast to my righteousness and will not let it go; my thoughts will not reproach me so long as I live.

UST

⁶ I will say that I am innocent, and I will never say anything different; my inner being will never reproach me as long as I live.

Job 27:7Let my enemy be ... let him who rises up against me be

The two clauses that start with these words share the same meaning. They are used together to emphasize Job's strong desire that this should happen. (See: Parallelism)

Let my enemy be like a wicked man

How he wants his enemy to be like a wicked person can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "Let my enemy be punished like a wicked man" or "Let God punish my enemy as he punishes wicked people" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

let him who rises up against me be like an unrighteous man

How he wants this person to be like an unrighteous man can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "let him who rises up against me be punished like an unrighteous man" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) him who rises up against me

Here "rises up against me" is a metaphor meaning "opposes me." The whole phrase refers to Job's adversary. Alternate translation: "him who opposes me" or "my adversary" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- enemy

Translation Words - UST

- I want God to punish my enemies

ULT

⁷ Let my enemy be like a wicked man; let him who rises up against me be like an unrighteous man.

UST

⁷ I want God to punish my enemies like he will punish all wicked people; I want him to punish those who oppose me like he punishes all unrighteous people.

Job 27:8

For what is the hope of a godless man when ... when God takes away his life?

Job uses this question to say that such a man has no hope. This question can be translated as a simple statement. Alternate translation: "There is no hope for the godless when God ... takes away his soul." (See: Rhetorical Question) when God cuts him off, when God takes away his life

These two phrases have the same meaning. Alternate translation: "when God cuts him off and takes away his life" or "when God causes him to die" (See: Parallelism) cuts him off

This is a metaphor meaning "kills him" or "causes him to die" (See: Metaphor) takes away his life

This is a metaphor meaning "kills him" or "makes him stop living" (See: Metaphor)

- God
- his life

Translation Words - UST

- time for God
- they
- can confidently expect to happen to them

ULT

⁸ For what is the hope of a godless man when God cuts him off, when God takes away his life?

UST

⁸ When it is time for God to get rid of godless people and to cause them to die, there is absolutely nothing good that they can confidently expect to happen to them.

Job 27:9

Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him?

Job uses this question to say that God will not help that person. This question can be translated as a simple statement. Alternate translation: “God will not hear his cry when trouble comes upon him.” or “When trouble comes upon him and he cries out for help, God will not hear him.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Will God hear his cry

Here “hear his cry” represents responding to the godless man’s cry and helping him. Alternate translation: “Will God respond to his cry” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- trouble

Translation Words - UST

- they experience troubles

ULT

⁹ Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him?

UST

⁹ When they experience troubles, God will not hear them call out to him for help, will he?

Job 27:10Will he delight himself in the Almighty and call upon God at all times?

Job uses this question to say that the godless man will not do these things. This question can be translated as a simple statement. Alternate translation: “He will not delight himself in the Almighty and call upon God at all times.” or “He will not be happy about what the Almighty does and he will not pray to God often.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- the Almighty
- and call upon
- God

Translation Words - UST

- Almighty God does
- begin to pray to

ULT

¹⁰ Will he delight himself in the Almighty and call upon God at all times?

UST

¹⁰ Will they be happy about what Almighty God does? Will they begin to pray to him frequently? Certainly not!

Job 27:11

I will teach you

Each occurrence of “you” in these verses is plural and refers to Job’s three friends. (See: Forms of You)

the hand of God

God’s “hand” represents his power. Alternate translation: “the power of God” (See: Metonymy)

I will not conceal the thoughts of the Almighty

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word thoughts, you could express the same idea with the verb “think.” Alternate translation: “I will not hide from you what the Almighty thinks” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- hand
- of the Almighty

Translation Words - UST

- God’s
- power

ULT

11 I will teach you concerning the hand of God; I will not conceal the thoughts of the Almighty.

UST

11 I will teach you three something about God’s power; I will reveal to you what he is thinking.

Job 27:12

why then have you spoken all this nonsense?

Job uses this question to rebuke his friends for saying such foolish things. This question can be translated as a simple statement.
Alternate translation: "you should not have spoken so foolishly!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

¹² See, all of you have seen this yourselves; why then have you spoken all this nonsense?

UST

¹² You three have seen for yourselves powerful things that God has done; so I do not understand why you have been saying such nonsense to me.

Job 27:13

This is the portion of a wicked man with God

Alternate translation: "This is what God has planned for the wicked man" the heritage of the oppressor that he receives from the Almighty

Here "the heritage of the oppressor" is a metaphor representing what will happen to the oppressor. What God will do to him is spoken of as if it were an inheritance that God will give him. Alternate translation: "what the Almighty will do to the oppressor" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- the heritage
- that he

Translation Words - UST

- what he does to people
- who mistreat others

ULT

¹³ This is the portion of a wicked man with God, the heritage of the oppressor that he receives from the Almighty:

UST

¹³ I will tell you what Almighty God does to wicked people, what he does to people who mistreat others.

Job 27:14

it is for the sword

Here “the sword” represents dying in battle. Alternate translation: “they will die in battle” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- his children
- the sword
- food

Translation Words - UST

- those children will die
- in wars
- have enough food to

ULT

14 If his children multiply, it is for the sword; his offspring will never have enough food.

UST

14 Even if they have many children, those children will die in wars, or they will die because they do not have enough food to eat.

Job 27:15

Those who survive him

This refers to the wicked man's children. This can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "Those who continue to live after their wicked father dies" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) will be buried by plague

Here "be buried" represents dying. Alternate translation: "will die by plague" (See: Metonymy) their widows ... them

The words "their" and "them" refer to "Those who survive him," that is, the children of the wicked man.

Translation Words - ULT

Translation Words - ULT

- innocent people
- will divide up the silver among themselves

Translation Words - UST

- and honest people will get
- their silver

ULT

¹⁷ he may heap up clothing, but righteous people will put it on, and innocent people will divide up the silver among themselves.

UST

¹⁷ but those wicked people will die, and then righteous people will wear those clothes, and honest people will get their silver and divide it among themselves.

Job 27:18

He builds his house like a spider

After “spider,” the phrase “builds its web” is understood information. It can be made clear. Alternate translation: “He builds his house as a spider builds its web” (See: Ellipsis)

He builds his house like a spider

A spider web is fragile and easily destroyed. Alternate translation: “He builds his house as fragile as a spider builds its web” or “He builds his house as fragile as a spider’s web” (See: Simile) like a hut

A hut is a temporary house that is also not very strong. Alternate translation: “like a temporary hut” (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- his house

Translation Words - UST

- The houses

ULT

¹⁸ He builds his house like a spider, like a hut that a guard makes.

UST

¹⁸ The houses that they build are as weak as spider webs; they are like flimsy huts that watchmen live in while they guard people’s fields.

Job 27:19He lies down in bed rich

“He is wealthy when he lies down in bed.” This refers to his lying down in bed at night and sleeping.

but he will not keep doing so

Alternate translation: “but he will not keep lying down in bed rich” or “but he will not continue to be wealthy when he lies down in bed”

he opens his eyes

Opening his eyes represents waking up in the morning. Alternate translation: “he wakes up” (See: Metonymy) everything is gone

Job 27:20

Terrors overtake him

Here “overtake him” represents suddenly happening to him. Possible meanings are that terrors is a metonym for:: (1) things that cause people to be afraid. Alternate translation: “Terrifying things suddenly happen to him” or (2) fear. Alternate translation: “He suddenly becomes terrified” like waters

The word “waters” refers to a flood. Floods can happen very suddenly when people do not expect them, and they are dangerous and frightening. Alternate translation: “like a flood” or “like waters that rise up suddenly” (See: Simile)

a storm takes him away

Alternate translation: “a violent wind blows him away”

ULT

²⁰ Terrors overtake him like waters; a storm takes him away in the night.

UST

²⁰ Things that terrify them come to them like a flood that they do not expect; during the night a whirlwind carries them away.

Job 27:21

it sweeps him out of his place

Job speaks of the wind blowing the wicked man out of his house as if the wind were a person sweeping dust out of a house with a broom. Alternate translation: “the wind sweeps him out of his place like a woman who sweeps dirt out of a house” or “the wind easily blows him out of his place” (See: Personification)

his place

Alternate translation: “his home”

ULT

21 The east wind carries him away, and he leaves; it sweeps him out of his place.

UST

21 It is as though the wind from the east had picked them up and carried them away from their homes, and they disappear forever.

Job 27:22

General Information:

In verses 22-23 Job speaks of the wind as if it were a person attacking the wicked person. (See: Personification)

It throws itself at him

Here the phrase “throws itself at him” represents the wind blowing strong against him like an attacker. Alternate translation: “It blows strong against him like someone attacking him” (See: Personification)

he tries to flee out of its hand

Here “hand” represents the power or control that the wind has over the wicked man. Alternate translation: “he tries to flee out of its control” (See: Personification and Metonymy)

Job 28 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's response to Bildad.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's wisdom

Despite being upset about his circumstances, Job does not curse God. Instead, he recognizes Yahweh's wisdom and authority. This chapter especially focuses on Yahweh's wisdom as he controls the circumstances of Job's life. Men cannot understand because they do not have Yahweh's wisdom. (See: curse, cursed, cursing and wise, wisdom)

Job 28:1

mine

This is a place where people dig rocks out of the earth. These rocks have metal in them.

refine

This is the process of heating a metal to remove all of the impurities that are in it.

Translation Words - ULT

- gold

Translation Words - UST

- gold that they have dug

ULT

¹ Surely there is a mine for silver, a place where they refine gold.

UST

¹ "It is true that there are places where men dig to find silver, and there are places where people refine gold that they have dug.

Iron is taken out of the earth

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "People take iron out of the earth" (See: Active or Passive)

copper is smelted out of the stone

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "people smelt copper out of the stone" or "people heat stone to melt copper out of it" (See: Active or Passive)

copper an important red-brown colored metal smelted

This is a process of heating rocks to melt the metal in them in order to get the metal out of the rocks.

ULT

² Iron is taken out of the earth; copper is smelted out of the stone.

UST

² People dig iron ore out of the ground, and they also smelt copper.

Job 28:3A man sets an end to darkness

Here “sets an end to darkness” represents shining a light in the darkness. People used a lantern or a torch for light. Alternate translation: “A man carries light into dark places” (See: Metonymy) to the farthest limit

Alternate translation: “to the farthest parts of the mine” obscurity ... thick darkness

These two phrases are used together to emphasize that the mine is extremely dark. (See: Doublet)

Translation Words - ULT

- to darkness

Translation Words - UST

- very dark

ULT

³ A man sets an end to darkness and searches out, to the farthest limit, the stones in obscurity and thick darkness.

UST

³ Men use lamps while they work far down under the ground to search for the ore inside the mines where it is very dark.

Job 28:4

shaft

a deep narrow hole dug into the ground or rock. People go down into the hole to mine it.

places that are forgotten by anyone's foot

The foot is spoken of as if it is a person who can remember. Alternate translation: "places where people no longer walk" or "where no one ever walks" (See: Personification)

He hangs far away from people

How and where he hangs can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "Far away from people, he hangs from a rope in the shaft" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT

⁴ He breaks open a shaft away from where people live, places that are forgotten by anyone's foot. He hangs far away from people; he swings to and fro.

UST

⁴ They dig shafts in places that are far from where people live, where travelers do not go. They work far away from other people, swinging back and forth on ropes as they descend into the mine shafts.

Job 28:5

the earth, out of which comes bread

Here “bread” represents food in general. Food coming out of the ground is a metaphor for food growing out of the ground. Alternate translation: “the earth, where food grows” (See: Synecdoche and Metaphor)

it is turned up below as if by fire

This could mean: (1) people made fires under the ground to break apart the rock. Alternate translation: “it is broken up below by the fires that the miners make” or (2) “turned” is a metaphor for changed. Alternate translation: “it is broken up below so much that it appears that it was destroyed by fire”

it is turned

The word “it” refers to the earth.

Translation Words - ULT

- the earth
- comes bread
- it is turned
- as if by fire

Translation Words - UST

- the ground
- there is no food
- the miners make fires
- to

ULT

⁵ As for the earth, out of which comes bread, it is turned up below as if by fire.

UST

⁵ Food grows on the surface of the ground, but down under the ground, where there is no food, the miners make fires to break apart the rocks.

Job 28:6

Its stones ... its dust

The word “its” refers to the earth.

sapphires

a rare and valuable blue gemstone

Translation Words - ULT

- contains gold

Translation Words - UST

- contains bits of gold

ULT

⁶ Its stones are the place where sapphires are found, and its dust contains gold.

UST

⁶ The stones that are dug from under the ground contain sapphires, and the dirt contains bits of gold.

Job 28:7

No bird of prey knows the path to it ... nor has the falcon's eye seen it

These clauses express a similar meaning. Alternate translation: "No bird of prey or falcon knows or has ever seen the path that goes to the mine" (See: Parallelism)

bird of prey

a bird that eats other animals

falcon

This may also be translated "hawk." Both are birds that hunt and eat other animals. You may translate this with a similar bird from your culture.

Translation Words - ULT

- knows

Translation Words - UST

- do not know

ULT

⁷ No bird of prey knows the path to it, nor has the falcon's eye seen it.

UST

⁷ Some birds have very good eyes, but even hawks do not know where the mines are, and falcons have not seen those places.

Job 28:8

The proud animals have not walked such a path ... nor has the fierce lion passed there

These clauses also express similar meaning. (See: Parallelism)

The proud animals

This refers to very strong, wild animals.

Translation Words - ULT

- The proud animals

Translation Words - UST

- other

ULT

⁸ The proud animals have not walked such a path, nor has the fierce lion passed there.

UST

⁸ Lions or other proud wild animals have never gone to those places.

Job 28:9lays his hand on the flinty rock

This represents breaking up the rock. Alternate translation: “digs into the flinty rock” (See: Metonymy) flinty rock

Alternate translation: “hard rock”

he overturns mountains by their roots

Digging up the mountains and the ground underneath them is a metaphor from digging out weeds or trees, an exaggeration that represents digging minerals out of the ground. Alternate translation: “he turns the mountains upside down by pulling out their roots” (See: Hyperbole and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- his hand on

Translation Words - UST

- it is as though

ULT

⁹ A man lays his hand on the flinty rock; he overturns mountains by their roots.

UST

⁹ Miners dig very hard rock; it is as though they turned the mountains upside down to get the ore.

Job 28:10

his eye sees

Here "his eye" represents him. Alternate translation: "he sees" (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- valuable thing there

Translation Words - UST

- precious things

ULT

10 He cuts out channels among the rocks; his eye sees every valuable thing there.

UST

10 They cut tunnels through the rocks, and they find precious things.

Job 28:11

He ties up the streams so they do not run

Here “ties up the streams” means damming or blocking the streams. Alternate translation: “He blocks the streams so they do not flow” (See: Metaphor)

what is hidden there

This refers to things that people normally do not see because they are in the ground or underwater.

Translation Words - ULT

- he brings out

Translation Words - UST

- and they bring

ULT

11 He ties up the streams so they do not run; what is hidden there he brings out to the light.

UST

11 They dam up small streams to stop the water from flowing, and they bring up into the light things that are hidden in the ground and in the streams.

Job 28:12

General Information:

In 28:12-28, wisdom and understanding are spoken of as if they were precious objects that are in some place and people want to find them. Finding wisdom and understanding represents becoming wise and learning to understand things well. (See: Metaphor)

Where will wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding?

These questions mean the same thing and are used to show that it is very difficult to find wisdom and understanding. Alternate translation: "It is very difficult to find wisdom and understanding." (See: Parallelism and Rhetorical Question)

Where will wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding

Becoming wise and understanding is spoken of as finding wisdom and understanding. Alternate translation: "How do people become wise? How do people learn to understand things well" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹² Where will wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding?

UST

¹² But wisdom: Where can people find that? Where can we find out how to truly understand things?

Job 28:13

Man does not know its price

This could mean: (1) wisdom is spoken of as if it were something that people can buy. Alternate translation: "People do not know what it is worth" or (2) the word translated as "price" means "place." Alternate translation: "People do not know where it is" (See: Metaphor) neither is it found in the land of the living

"and it is not found in the land of the living." The "land of the living" refers to this world where people live. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "and no one can find wisdom in this world" (See: Active or Passive)

ULT

¹³ Man does not know its price; neither is it found in the land of the living.

UST

¹³ Humans do not know what wisdom is truly worth; no one can find it here on this earth where they are living.

Translation Words - ULT

- know
- of the living

Translation Words - UST

- know
- where they are living

Job 28:14

The deep waters ... say, 'It is not in me'; the sea says, 'It is not with me.'

The deep waters and the sea are presented as if they are people that can speak. Alternate translation: "Wisdom is not in the deep waters under the earth, nor is it in the sea" (See: Personification)

ULT

14 The deep waters under the earth say, 'It is not in me'; the sea says, 'It is not with me.'

UST

14 It is as though the water that is under the earth and water that is in the seas said, 'I do not have it!'

Job 28:15

It cannot be gotten for gold

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. This implies that wisdom is worth much more than gold. Alternate translation: "People cannot pay for wisdom with gold" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

neither can silver be weighed as its price

This implies that wisdom is worth much more than silver. It can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "and people cannot weigh out enough silver to pay for wisdom" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- silver

Translation Words - UST

- silver

ULT

¹⁵ It cannot be gotten for gold; neither can silver be weighed as its price.

UST

¹⁵ People cannot buy wisdom by paying for it with silver or gold.

Job 28:16

It cannot be valued with ... sapphire

This implies that wisdom is much more valuable than the gold of Ophir, precious onyx and sapphire. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Ophir

This is the name of a land where there was fine gold. (See: How to Translate Names)

onyx

a valuable black gemstone sapphire

a valuable blue gemstone

ULT

¹⁶ It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with precious onyx or sapphire.

UST

¹⁶ Wisdom is worth much more than fine gold from the land of Ophir, much more than very valuable stones.

Job 28:17Gold and crystal cannot equal it in worth

This implies that wisdom is much more valuable than gold and crystal.

crystal

a valuable gemstone that is clear or lightly colored neither can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold

“and it cannot be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.” This implies that wisdom is much more valuable than jewels of fine gold.

exchanged

Alternate translation: “traded”

Translation Words - ULT

- Gold

Translation Words - UST

- It is worth much more than gold

ULT

¹⁷ Gold and crystal cannot equal it in worth; neither can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.

UST

¹⁷ It is worth much more than gold or beautiful quartz; wisdom is more expensive than the finest jewels, and it is worth more than a vase made with pure gold.

Job 28:18

No mention is worth making of coral or jasper

“It is not worth making mention of coral and jasper.” This implies that wisdom is worth so much more than coral and jasper that there is no need for Job to say anything about them. Alternate translation: “I will not bother to mention coral or jasper” or “Coral and jasper are worthless compared to wisdom” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) coral

This is a beautiful, hard substance that grows on ocean reefs. (See: Translate Unknowns) jasper ... rubies

These are valuable gemstones.

ULT

18 No mention is worth making of coral or jasper; indeed, the price of wisdom is more than rubies.

UST

18 Wisdom is worth more than coral or crystal quartz; the price of wisdom is higher than the price of rubies.

Job 28:19The topaz of Cush does not equal it

This implies that wisdom is much more valuable than the finest topaz.

topaz

This is a valuable gemstone.

neither can it be valued in terms of pure gold

“and wisdom cannot be valued in terms of pure gold.” This implies that wisdom is much more valuable than pure gold.

Translation Words - ULT

- of Cush
- in terms of pure

Translation Words - UST

- from Ethiopia
- of pure

ULT

¹⁹ The topaz of Cush does not equal it; neither can it be valued in terms of pure gold.

UST

¹⁹ The prices of topaz from Ethiopia and of pure gold are lower than the value of wisdom.

Job 28:20

From where, then, comes wisdom? Where is the place of understanding?

Job uses these questions to introduce how people get wisdom and understanding. Alternate translation: "I will tell you where wisdom comes from and where understanding is." or "I will tell you how to become wise and how to learn to understand things." (See: Rhetorical Question)

From where, then, comes wisdom

Wisdom is spoken of as if it were in a place and comes to people. Its coming represents people becoming wise. (See: Metaphor)

Where is the place of understanding Understanding is spoken of as if it were in a place. (See: Metaphor)

ULT

²⁰ From where, then, comes wisdom?
Where is the place of understanding?

UST

²⁰ So from where does wisdom come?
Where can we find out how to truly understand things?

Job 28:21Wisdom is hidden from the eyes of all living things

This means that living things are unable to see wisdom. It can be expressed in active form. Alternate translation: “No living thing can see wisdom” (See: Synecdoche and Active or Passive) is kept hidden from the birds of the heavens

This means that the birds are unable to see wisdom. This can be expressed in active form. Alternate translation: “even the birds that fly in the skies cannot see wisdom” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- living things
- of the heavens

Translation Words - UST

- No living humans can see it
- the sky

ULT

²¹ Wisdom is hidden from the eyes of all living things and is kept hidden from the birds of the heavens.

UST

²¹ No living humans can see it; and birds cannot see it while they are up in the sky.

Job 28:22

Destruction and Death say

Here "Destruction" and "Death" are spoken of as if they are living things who can speak. (See: Personification)

ULT

²² Destruction and Death say, 'We have heard just a rumor about it with our ears.'

UST

²² It is as though the places where people go after they die said, 'We have only heard rumors about where to find wisdom.'

Job 28:23

God understands the way to it; he knows its place

Wisdom is spoken of as if it were in a certain place. Alternate translation: "God knows how to find wisdom. He knows where it is" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- understands
- he knows

Translation Words - UST

- God is

Alternate translation: "he decided how the thunder can be heard" or "he decided the path of the thunderstorm"

Translation Words - ULT

- a decree

Translation Words - UST

- He decided

ULT

²⁶ He made a decree for the rain and a path for the thunder.

UST

²⁶ He decided where rain should fall, and what path lightning should take from the clouds down to the ground.

Job 28:27

(There are no notes for this verse.)

ULT

²⁷ Then he saw wisdom and announced it; he established it, indeed, and he examined it.

UST

²⁷ At that time he saw wisdom and decided that it is very valuable. He examined it and approved it.

Job 28:28

See, the fear of the Lord—that is wisdom

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word fear, you could express the same idea with the verbs “fear” or “respect.” If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word wisdom, you could express the same idea with another word such as “wise.” Alternate translation: “Listen, if you fear the Lord, you will be wise” (See: Abstract Nouns) to depart from evil is understanding

Here “depart from evil” means refusing to do evil things. If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word understanding, you could express the same idea with the verb “understand.” Alternate translation: “if you refuse to do evil, then you will understand many things” (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹⁶ I was a father to needy people; I would examine the case even of one whom I did not know.

UST

¹⁶ I was like a father to the poor people, and in the courts I defended those who were strangers to me.

Job 29:17

General Information:

In verses 18-20 Job tells about the things he used to say before bad things happened to him.

I broke the jaws of ... I plucked the victim

Job speaks of unrighteous people who persecute others as if they were wild animals that attack their victims by picking them up between their teeth. Alternate translation: "I made unrighteous people stop persecuting people, like someone who breaks the jaw of a wild animal and rescues its victim from between its teeth" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

17 I broke the jaws of the unrighteous man; I plucked the victim out from between his teeth.

UST

17 I made wicked people stop oppressing others; it was like someone who breaks the teeth of wild animals and forces them to drop their victims from their teeth.

Job 29:18

I will die in my nest

Here “nest” represents Job’s home and family. Job used to speak as if he were a bird that lived in a nest with his baby birds. Alternate translation: “I will die at home with my family” or “I will die in the safety of my home” (See: Metaphor)

I will multiply my days like the grains of sand

There are more grains of sand on the shore than anyone can count. To say that he would live more days than anyone could count is an exaggeration to express that he would live a very long time. Alternate translation: “I will live a very long time” or “I will live many years” (See: Hyperbole and Simile)

ULT

18 Then I said, ‘I will die in my nest; I will multiply my days like the grains of sand.’

UST

18 At that time I thought, ‘Surely I will live in peace until I am very old, and I will die at home with my family.’

Job 29:19

My roots ... my branches

Job used to speak of his strength as if he were strong like a well-watered tree. (See: Metaphor)

ULT

19 My roots are spread out to the waters, and dew lies all night on my branches.

UST

19 I am like a tree whose roots reach down into the water and whose branches become wet with dew each night.

Job 29:20

The honor in me is always fresh

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word honor, you could express the same idea with the verb “honor.” Here “fresh” represents the honor being constantly given. Alternate translation: “People constantly give me honor” or “People always honor me” (See: Abstract Nouns)

the bow of my strength is always new in my hand

A new bow is very strong. Job’s bow of strength in his hand represents his physical strength. Alternate translation: “I am always strong like a new bow” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- The honor
- and the bow
- in my hand

Translation Words - UST

- People always honor
- I
- bow

ULT

²⁰ The honor in me is always fresh, and the bow of my strength is always new in my hand.’

UST

²⁰ People always honor me, and I am always strong like a new bow.’

Job 29:21

(There are no notes for this verse.)

ULT

21 To me men listened; they waited for me; they stayed silent to hear my advice.

UST

21 When I spoke, people waited to hear what I would say; they remained silent until I advised them what they should do.

Job 29:22

my speech dropped like water on them

Here “dropped like water on them” represents refreshing the people who heard him. If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word speech, you could express the same idea with a verbal form such as “speak” or “say.” Alternate translation: “my speech refreshed their hearts as drops of water refresh people’s bodies” or “what I said to them refreshed them like drops of water” (See: Simile and Abstract Nouns)

ULT

22 After my words were done, they did not speak again; my speech dropped like water on them.

UST

22 After I finished speaking, they did not say anymore; it was as though my words fell on their ears like drops of rain.

Job 29:23

They always waited for me as they waited for rain

People waited for Job patiently and expected to hear good things.
(See: Simile)

they opened their mouth wide to drink in my words

This represents waiting eagerly for Job to speak in order to benefit from what said. Alternate translation: "they eagerly waited for me to speak in order to benefit from what I said" (See: Metaphor) as they would do for the latter rain

Alternate translation: "as farmers wait eagerly for the latter rain"

the latter rain

This refers to the large amount of rain that falls just before the dry season.

ULT

²³ They always waited for me as they waited for rain; they opened their mouth wide to drink in my words, as they would do for the latter rain.

UST

²³ They waited for me to speak as they wait for rain; they liked what I said as farmers appreciate the final rain in the spring before the dry season.

Job 29:24

I smiled on them

It can be stated clearly that the purpose of smiling was to encourage them. Alternate translation: "I smiled on them to encourage them" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

the light of my face

This represents the kindness they saw in Job's face. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- when they did...expect it
- of my face

Translation Words - UST

- to encourage them
- face

ULT

²⁴ I smiled on them when they did not expect it; they did not reject the light of my face.

UST

²⁴ When they were sad, I smiled at them to encourage them; they became encouraged when they saw my cheerful face.

Job 29:25

I selected their way

Here “selected their way” represents deciding what they should do. (See: Metaphor)

sat as their chief

Here “sat” represents ruling or leading. Chiefs sat down when they made important decisions. Alternate translation: “led them as their chief” (See: Metonymy)

sat as their chief

Job was their chief. Alternate translation: “led them because I was their chief” (See: Metonymy)

I lived like a king in his army

Job speaks of how he led the people and how they obeyed him as if he were a king and they were his army. (See: Simile) like one who comforts mourners

This phrase means that Job actually was one who comforted people. Alternate translation: “I comforted them when they mourned” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- as their chief
- mourners

Translation Words - UST

- I was their leader
- comforts

ULT

25 I selected their way and sat as their chief; I lived like a king in his army, like one who comforts mourners.

UST

25 I was their leader, and I decided what things would be good for them to do; I was among them like a king who is among his troops; I was like someone who comforts others who are mourning.”

Job 30

Job 30 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's statement, but now it is directly addressed to Yahweh.

In this chapter, Job laments his current condition as others insult him. (See: lament, lamentation) whose fathers I would have refused to allow to work beside the dogs of my flock

Job 30:1

This shows how much he despised those fathers. They were not even good enough to be with his dogs. Alternate translation: “whose fathers I despised and would not have allowed to work beside the dogs of my flock” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

the dogs of my flock

The dogs’ relationship to the flock can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: “the dogs that guarded my flock” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- whose fathers
- of my flock

Translation Words - UST

- their fathers
- guard my sheep

ULT

¹ Now those who are younger than I have nothing but mockery for me— these young men whose fathers I would have refused to allow to work beside the dogs of my flock.

UST

¹ “But now, men who are younger than I am make fun of me— men whose fathers I greatly despised— their fathers, whom I would not even have allowed to help my dogs guard my sheep.”

Job 30:2Indeed, the strength of their fathers' hands, how could it have helped me ... perished?

Job uses this question to mock the weakness of those men. Alternate translation: "The strength of their fathers' hands could not have helped me ... perished." (See: Rhetorical Question) men in whom the strength of their mature age had perished

Their strength perishing is a metaphor that represents no longer being strong but weak. The phrase "mature age" refers to them being old. Alternate translation: "men who had become old and had no strength" or "men who had become old and weak" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- the strength of their fathers
- hands
- had perished

Translation Words - UST

- from having these men
- work
- when they thought they were strong

ULT

² Indeed, the strength of their fathers' hands, how could it have helped me—men in whom the strength of their mature age had perished?

UST

² They were men who were old and weak; what could I gain from having these men work for me, even when they thought they were strong?

Job 30:3They were thin from poverty and hunger

The word "They" refers to the fathers of the young mockers.

They were thin from poverty and hunger

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word poverty, you could express the same idea with another word such as "poor." If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word hunger, you could express the same idea with the words "hungry" or "starving." Alternate translation: "They were very thin because they were poor and starving" (See: Abstract Nouns)

they gnawed at the dry ground

This could mean: (1) "dry ground" is a metonym for the dry roots that grow in the ground. Alternate translation: "they chewed on the dry roots they found in the ground" or (2) "gnawed at the dried ground" is a metonym for eating whatever they could find in the dry ground. (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- at the dry ground

Translation Words - UST

- in dry

ULT

³ They were thin from poverty and hunger; they gnawed at the dry ground in the darkness of wilderness and desolation.

UST

³ They were very poor and hungry, so that they chewed on roots at night in dry and desolate places.

Job 30:4

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to talk about the fathers of the mockers.

saltwort ... bushes' leaves ... the roots of the broom tree

These are plants that people would eat only if they could find nothing better.

the roots of the broom tree were their food

This could mean: (1) the people ate the roots of the broom tree or (2) the people warmed themselves by burning the roots of broom trees.

ULT

⁴ They plucked saltwort and bushes' leaves; the roots of the broom tree were their food.

UST

⁴ They pulled up plants in the desert and ate them; they warmed themselves by burning the roots of broom trees.

Job 30:5They were driven out from among people who shouted after them as ... a thief

The phrase “were driven out” means “were forced to leave.” These phrases can be reordered and stated in active form. Alternate translation: “The people shouted after them as ... a thief and forced them to leave” (See: Active or Passive) shouted after them as one would shout after a thief

Alternate translation: “shouted at them as though they were thieves”

Translation Words - ULT

- a thief

Translation Words - UST

- thief

ULT

⁵ They were driven out from among people who shouted after them as one would shout after a thief.

UST

⁵ Everyone shouted at them, “Stop, thief!” and drove them from their area.

Job 30:6

(There are no notes for this verse.)

ULT

⁶ So they had to live in river valleys, in holes of the earth and of the rocks.

UST

⁶ They were forced to live in riverbeds, in holes in the ground, and in the sides of cliffs.

Job 30:7

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to talk about the fathers of the mockers.

brayed like donkeys

Job speaks of the men crying out in hunger as if they were wild donkeys making a loud noise. Alternate translation: “cried out like wild donkeys because they were hungry” (See: Simile)

they gathered together under the nettles

“Nettles” are bushes with sharp thorns. This implies that they did not have a home.

ULT

⁷ Among the bushes they brayed like donkeys and they gathered together under the nettles.

UST

⁷ In the bushes they howled like animals because they were hungry, and they huddled together under thornbushes.

Job 30:8

They were the sons of fools

Here “were the sons of fools” represents having the characteristics of fools. Alternate translation: “They were like fools” or “they were fools” (See: Metaphor) indeed, sons of nameless people

The word “indeed” shows that what follows strengthens the previous thought. Here “sons of nameless people” represents having the characteristics of nameless people. Alternate translation: “indeed, they were nameless people” or “indeed, they were worthless” (See: Metaphor)

nameless people

Here being “nameless” represents having no honor or respect. It means that they are worthless. Alternate translation: “worthless people” (See: Metaphor)

They were driven out of the land with whips

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. This could mean: (1) the idea of whips implies that they were being treated like criminals. Alternate translation: “People treated them like criminals and forced them to leave the land” or (2) people actually used whips to force them out. Alternate translation: “People whipped them and forced them to leave the land” (See: Metonymy)

They were driven out of the land

Here “the land” refers to the land where they lived before they were forced to go out to the wilderness.

Translation Words - ULT

- sons of
- They were the sons
- nameless people
- the land

Translation Words - UST

- whose names no one knows
- the land where they were born
- they
- the land where they were born

ULT

⁸ They were the sons of fools, indeed, sons of nameless people! They were driven out of the land with whips.

UST

⁸ They were people without good sense, whose names no one knows; they were driven out from the land where they were born.

Job 30:9Connecting Statement:

Job speaks again about the people who were mocking him.

But now I have become the subject of their taunting song

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word song, you could express the same idea with the verb “sing.” Alternate translation: “But now they sing songs about me to taunt me” (See: Abstract Nouns)

I have become a byword for them

Here “byword” is a metonym for the person about whom people make cruel jokes. Alternate translation: “I am now one whom they make cruel jokes about” or “They joke and say cruel things about me” (See: Metonymy)

ULT

⁹ But now I have become the subject of their taunting song; I have become a byword for them.

UST

⁹ Now their children sing songs to make fun of me. They tell jokes about me.

Job 30:10

they do not refrain from spitting in my face

This can be stated positively. Alternate translation: “they even spit in my face” (See: Litotes)

Translation Words - ULT

- they do...refrain from

Translation Words - UST

- happy to

ULT

¹⁰ They abhor me and stand far off from me; they do not refrain from spitting in my face.

UST

¹⁰ They are disgusted with me, and they stay away from me, but when they see me, they are happy to spit in my face.

Job 30:11

God has unstrung the string to my bow

A bow that is unstrung is not useful. The phrase “has unstrung the string of my bow” is a metaphor for making Job powerless. Alternate translation: “God has taken away my power to defend myself” (See: Metaphor) those who taunt me

Alternate translation: “those who mock me”

cast off restraint before my face

A restraint keeps a person from moving freely and doing what he wants. Here “restraint” represents refraining from doing something, and “cast off restraint” represents not refraining from doing something. In this case the mockers did not refrain from being cruel to Job. Alternate translation: “do not refrain from being cruel to me” or “do whatever cruel things they want to do to me” (See: Metaphor and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT

11 For God has unstrung the string to my bow and afflicted me, and those who taunt me cast off restraint before my face.

UST

11 It seems as though God had cut my bowstring and caused me to be unable to defend myself; he has humbled me, and my enemies have done to me whatever they wanted.

Job 30:12

General Information:

Job speaks about the mockers treating him cruelly as if they were a mob and an army attacking him. (See: Metaphor)

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to speak about the people who were mocking him.

Upon my right hand rise the rabble

“the rabble rise upon my right hand.” This could mean: (1) rising upon Job’s right hand represents attacking his strength. Alternate translation: “Gangs of young people attack my strength” or (2) rising upon Job’s right hand represents attacking his honor. Alternate translation: “Mobs attack my honor” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)

they drive me away

Alternate translation: “they force me to run away”

pile up against me their siege mounds

Armies would pile up mounds of dirt along a city’s wall in order to climb over the wall and attack the city. Job speaks of the mockers preparing to attack him as if they were doing that. Alternate translation: “prepare to attack me like an army that prepares to attack a city” (See: Metaphor)

ULT

12 Upon my right hand rise the rabble; they drive me away and pile up against me their siege mounds.

UST

12 Gangs of these people attack me and force me to run away; they prepare to destroy me.

Job 30:13

They destroy my path

This represents keeping Job from escaping their attack. Alternate translation: "They prevent me from escaping from them" (See: Metaphor) they push forward disaster for me

Here "push forward disaster" represents trying to make disaster happen. Alternate translation: "they try to make disaster happen to me" or "they try to destroy me" (See: Metaphor) men who have no one to hold them back

Here "hold them back" represents stopping them from doing something. Alternate translation: "men who have no one to stop them from attacking me" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹³ They destroy my path; they push forward disaster for me, men who have no one to hold them back.

UST

¹³ They prevent me from escaping, and there is no one to keep them from attacking me.

Job 30:14

General Information:

Job speaks about the mockers treating him cruelly as if they were an army attacking him. (See: Metaphor)

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to speak about the people who were mocking him.

They come against me like an army through a wide hole in a city wall

This represents attacking Job forcefully. (See: Simile)

they roll themselves in on me

This represents many coming to attack him at once, like giant ocean waves rolling in on him. (See: Metaphor)

ULT

14 They come against me like an army through a wide hole in a city wall; in the midst of the destruction they roll themselves in on me.

UST

14 It is as though I were a city wall and they had broken through it, as though they had come crashing down on me.

Job 30:15

Terrors are turned upon me

This could mean: (1) Job has become terrified or (2) things are happening to Job that make him afraid. (See: Metaphor)

my honor is driven away as if by the wind

Job speaks of suddenly having no honor as if the wind had blown it from him. Alternate translation: "Nobody honors me" or "I am now a person that people do not honor" (See: Simile)

my prosperity passes away as a cloud

Job speaks of his prosperity ending as if it were a cloud that was blown away. Here "prosperity" may refer to well-being or safety. Alternate translation: "I no longer prosper at all" or "I am no longer safe" (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- my honor is driven away

Translation Words - UST

- has been blown away

ULT

¹⁵ Terrors are turned upon me; my honor is driven away as if by the wind; my prosperity passes away as a cloud.

UST

¹⁵ I am very terrified; my dignity has been blown away by the wind, and my prosperity has disappeared as clouds disappear.

Job 30:16Now my life is pouring out from within me

Job speaks as if his life were a liquid and his body were a container. He feels he is about to die. Alternate translation: "Now I am dying" (See: Metaphor) many days of suffering have laid hold on me

Job speaks of his continuous suffering as if the days of suffering have grabbed hold of him. Alternate translation: "I suffer many days, and the suffering does not end" (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

- my life
- of suffering

Translation Words - UST

- I
- suffer

ULT

16 Now my life is pouring out from within me; many days of suffering have laid hold on me.

UST

16 Now I am about to die; I suffer every day.

Job 30:17

my bones in me are pierced

Job speaks of the pain in his bones as if his bones were being pierced. Alternate translation: “my bones ache terribly” or “I have sharp pain in my bones” (See: Metaphor)

the pains that gnaw at me take no rest

Job speaks of his constant pain as if it were alive and biting him and refuses to rest. Alternate translation: “the pains that cause me to suffer do not stop” or “I am in constant pain” (See: Personification)

ULT

17 In the night my bones in me are pierced; the pains that gnaw at me take no rest.

UST

17 My bones ache during the nights, and the pain that torments me never stops.

Job 30:18

God's great force has seized my clothing

Job speaks of God using his force as if God's force were actually doing something. Here "God's ... force" stands for "God." Alternate translation: "God has seized my clothing by his great force" (See: Metonymy)

God's great force has seized my clothing

The image of God's force seizing Job is a metaphor. This could mean: (1) it represents Job's pain. Alternate translation: "My pain feels like God has grabbed my clothing tightly" or (2) it represents God's causing Job's many problems. Alternate translation: "It is as though by his great force God has grabbed me by my clothes" (See: Metaphor)

it wraps around me like the collar of my tunic

The image of God's force wrapping around Job is a metaphor. This could mean: (1) it represents Job's pain. Alternate translation: "he wraps the collar of my tunic tightly around me" or (2) it represents God's causing Job's many problems. Job 30:19

He has thrown me into the mud

Job says that God has humiliated him. Alternate translation: “It is as though he has thrown me in the mud” or “He has humiliated me, like a person thrown in the mud” (See: Metaphor)

I have become like dust and ashes

This represents Job’s feeling of being worthless. Alternate translation: “I have become as worthless as dust and ashes” (See: Simile)

ULT

¹⁹ He has thrown me into the mud; I have become like dust and ashes.

UST

¹⁹ He has thrown me into the mud; I am not worth anything more than dust and ashes.

Job 30:24

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to God.

does no one reach out with his hand to beg for help when he falls? Does no one in trouble call out for help?

Job uses these questions to justify himself for crying out to God for help. Alternate translation: "Everyone reaches out with his hand to beg for help when he falls. Everyone who is in trouble calls out for help." or "I have fallen, and so God should not think I am doing wrong when I beg for his help. I am in trouble, so of course I call out for help!" (See: Rhetorical Question) does no one reach out with his hand to beg for help when he falls? Does no one in trouble call out for help?

Some versions interpret these questions as Job complaining that God has reached out with his hand to harm Job when Job was in trouble and crying out for help. Alternate translation: "Surely no one would reach out with his hand against someone who falls and calls out for help." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

Job 30:26

When I hoped for good, then evil came

Looking for good represents hoping for good things, and evil coming represents evil things happening. (See: Metaphor)

I waited for light ... darkness came Here “light” represents God’s blessing and favor and “darkness” represents trouble and suffering. Alternate translation: “I waited for the light of God’s blessing, but instead I experienced the darkness of suffering” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- good
- then evil

Translation Words - UST

- good things

Job 30:28

I have gone about

Here “have gone about” represents living. Alternate translation: “I have lived” or “I live” (See: Metaphor) like one who was living in the dark, but not because of the sun

Here “living in the dark” is a metaphor that represents being extremely sad. The phrase “but not because of the sun” clarifies that “living in the dark” is a metaphor, that is, the darkness is not caused by the sun being hidden. Alternate translation: “like one who is terribly sad” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

Job 30:30

my bones are burned with heat

Here “bones” refers to the whole body, which suffers from fever. (See: Synecdoche)

ULT

³⁰ My skin is black and falls away from me; my bones are burned with heat.

UST

³⁰ My skin has become dark and is peeling off, and I have a fever which causes my body to feel as though it were burning up with a fever.

Job 30:31

my harp is tuned for songs of mourning

Here “my harp” represents Job himself, and also represents his desire to sing only songs of mourning. Alternate translation: “I play only songs of mourning on my harp” (See: Metonymy)

my flute for the singing of those who wail

Here “my flute” represents Job himself, and also his desire to sing only songs of crying. Alternate translation: “I play only songs of wailing on my flute” (See: Metonymy)

wail

To wail is to cry very loudly because of terrible sadness or pain.

ULT

³¹ Therefore my harp is tuned for songs of mourning, my flute for the singing of those who wail.

UST

³¹ Previously, I played joyful music on my harp and with my flute, but now I play only the sad music of those who mourn.”

Job 31

Job 31 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's statement and it is directly addressed to Yahweh.

In this chapter, Job presents his case to Yahweh that he is upright and not guilty of the sins he is being accused of. (See: righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness and guilt, guilty and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

Job 31:1

I have made a covenant with my eyes

Job speaks of making a promise about what he would look at as though his eyes were a person and he made a covenant with them. Alternate translation: "I have made a firm promise about what I will look at" (See: Metaphor and Personification)

I have made a covenant with my eyes

What job promised can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "I made a promise that I will not look lustfully on a virgin" or "I promised that I will not look lustfully on a virgin" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) how then should I look with desire on a virgin?

Job uses this question to emphasize that he would never break his promise. Alternate translation: "So I certainly will not look with lust at a virgin." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- I have made
- a covenant
- should I look with desire
- a virgin

Translation Words - UST

- I made
- to myself a solemn
- promise
- a young woman

ULT

¹ I have made a covenant with my eyes; how then should I look with desire on a virgin?

UST

¹ "I made to myself a solemn promise that I would not look at a young woman and want to sleep with her.

Job 31:2

For what is the portion from God above, the inheritance from the Almighty on high?

Job speaks of God's response to people's behavior as if it were the portion of an inheritance that God gives. Alternate translation: "For how will God above respond to me? What will the Almighty on high do?" (See: Metaphor and Parallelism)

For what is the portion from God above, the inheritance from the Almighty on high?

Possible meanings are Job uses this question to emphasize: (1) that God will not bless bad behavior. Alternate translation: "For if I look lustfully on a woman, God Almighty on high will not bless me." or (2) that God will punish bad behavior. Alternate translation: "For if I look lustfully on a woman, God Almighty on high will certainly punish me." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- from God
- the inheritance
- from the Almighty

Translation Words - UST

- God
- give me
- Almighty God

ULT

² For what is the portion from God above, the inheritance from the Almighty on high?

UST

² If I did not do what I promised, what would God who is in heaven give me? Almighty God would certainly not give me any reward!

Job 31:3

(There are no notes for this verse.)

ULT

³ I used to think that calamity is for unrighteous people, and that disaster is for doers of wickedness.

UST

³ Previously I thought that surely it was unrighteous people who would experience calamities, and that it was those who do what is wrong who would experience disasters.

Job 31:4

Does not God see my ways and count all my steps?

Here “my ways” and “my steps” are metaphors for Job’s behavior. Here “see my ways” and “count all my steps” are metaphors for knowing everything Job does. Job uses this question to emphasize that God does know all he does. Alternate translation: “Certainly God watches me and knows everything that I do.” (See: Metaphor and Rhetorical Question)

Does not God see my ways and count all my steps?

Job may be implying that God should know that Job is righteous and does not deserve calamity and disaster. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT

⁴ Does not God see my ways and count all my steps?

UST

⁴ God certainly sees everything that I do, so why is he causing me to suffer? It is as though he were counting every step that I take.

Job 31:5

If I have

In 31:5-40 Job describes different situations in which he would deserve God's punishment. But, he knows that they are not true and he is innocent. (See: Hypothetical Situations) walked with falsehood, if my foot has hurried to deceit

Here "walked" and "hurried" are metaphors that represent how Job lived. Alternate translation: "done anything false or purposely deceived anyone" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- I have walked

Translation Words - UST

- I have never acted

ULT

⁵ If I have walked with falsehood, if my foot has hurried to deceit,

UST

⁵ I solemnly declare that I have never acted wickedly and have never tried to deceive people.

Job 31:6

let me be weighed in an even balance

People used balances to weigh items and to determine their value. This image represents judging honestly. It can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: “let me be judged honestly” or “let God judge me honestly” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- will know

Translation Words - UST

- I request only that God
- he will know that

ULT

⁶ let me be weighed in an even balance so that God will know my integrity.

UST

⁶ I request only that God judge me fairly; if he does that, he will know that I am innocent.

Job 31:7

If my step has turned aside from the way

Here “my step” is a metaphor for Job’s behavior, and “turned out of the right way” is a metaphor for changing from living right. Alternate translation: “If I have changed from living right” or “If I have stopped doing what is right” (See: Metaphor)

if my heart has gone after my eyes

Here “my heart” and “my eyes” are metonyms for what Job desires and sees. The heart going after the eyes is a metaphor for desiring to do what he sees. It is implied that this refers to sinful things that Job sees. Alternate translation: “if I have wanted to do any sinful things that I see” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)

if any spot has stuck to my hands

This is a metaphor for being guilty. Alternate translation: “if I am guilty of any sin at all” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- if my heart
- has gone

Translation Words - UST

- to do
- because I

ULT

⁷ If my step has turned aside from the way, if my heart has gone after my eyes, if any spot has stuck to my hands,

UST

⁷ If it were true that I had turned away from walking on the right paths, or that I had seen wrong things to do and then did them, or that my hands were stained because I had sinned,

Job 31:8then let me sow, and let another eat, and let my crops be uprooted

Job is saying that if he really has sinned, then this bad thing should happen to him. He would do the hard work of sowing his fields, but he would not be able to eat any of it.

let my crops be uprooted

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "let someone else come and take the harvest from my field" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- eat

Translation Words - UST

- and eat them

ULT

⁸ then let me sow, and let another eat, and let my crops be uprooted.

UST

⁸ then I hope that when I plant seeds, someone else will harvest the crops and eat them, and that others will uproot the crops that I have planted.

Job 31:9

If my heart has been deceived by a woman

Here “my heart” represents Job. Here the word “deceived” expresses the idea of “enticed.” The word “woman” expresses the idea of “another man’s wife.” If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “If another man’s wife has enticed me” or “If I have desired another man’s wife” (See: Synecdoche and Active or Passive)

if I have lain in wait at my neighbor’s door

It can be stated clearly why he was waiting at his neighbor’s door.

Alternate translation: “if I have waited at my neighbor’s door so I could sleep with his wife” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- my heart

Translation Words - UST

- I

ULT

⁹ If my heart has been deceived by a woman, if I have lain in wait at my neighbor’s door,

UST

⁹ If it is true that I have been attracted by some other man’s wife, or that I have hidden myself and waited outside the door to her house,

Job 31:10

then let my wife grind grain for another

This could mean: (1) this is an euphemism which means Job is saying may his wife sleep with another man or (2) it means she will become a slave and work for another man. (See: Euphemism)

Translation Words - ULT

- bow down

Translation Words - UST

- will sleep with my own

ULT

¹⁰ then let my wife grind grain for another, and let others bow down on her.

UST

¹⁰ I hope another man will sleep with my own wife and that she will sleep with him.

Job 31:11

For that would be a terrible crime

The word “that” refers to Job sleeping with another woman.

it would be a crime to be punished by judges

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “it would be a crime for which judges would be right to punish me” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- punished by

Translation Words - UST

- sin

ULT

11 For that would be a terrible crime; indeed, it would be a crime to be punished by judges.

UST

11 For me to do that would be a terrible sin, and the judges would decide that I should be punished.

Job 31:12

For that is a fire that consumes as far as Abaddon, and it would burn all my harvest to the root

Job speaks of the harm that sleeping with another woman causes as if it were a fire that destroys everything. The words “that” and “it” refer to sleeping with another man’s wife. Alternate translation: “For adultery is like a fire that burns up everything from here to Abaddon and that would burn up all my harvest” (See: Metaphor) consumes as far as Abaddon

These words are probably a metaphor for “destroys everything so I have nothing good for the rest of my life,” but you should probably translate this literally. (See: Metaphor)

it would burn all my harvest to the root

The word “it” here refers to the action sleeping with another man’s wife. This action is a metonym for the punishment that Job would suffer as a result of the action. A fire burning up his harvest is a synecdoche for losing everything he has worked for. Alternate translation: “those who punish me would take away everything I have worked for” (See: Metonymy and Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- a fire
- that consumes as far as Abaddon

Translation Words - UST

- a fire
- burns people in hell

ULT

¹² For that is a fire that consumes as far as Abaddon, and it would burn all my harvest to the root.

UST

¹² My adultery would produce in me a fire like the fire that burns people in hell, and it would burn up everything that I own.

Job 31:14

what then would I do when God rises up to accuse me? When he comes to judge me, how would I answer him?

Job uses these questions to emphasize that if God were to judge him, Job would not be able to make himself appear to be good. Alternate translation: “then there would be absolutely nothing I could say to defend myself when God comes to judge me.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- he comes to judge me
- would I answer him

Translation Words - UST

- and declare that he will punish me
- I answer

ULT

¹⁴ what then would I do when God rises up to accuse me? When he comes to judge me, how would I answer him?

UST

¹⁴ I hope that God would stand up and declare that he will punish me; when he does that, what could I do? If he asked me about what I have done, what would I answer?

Job 31:15

Did the one who made me in the womb not make them also? Did not the same one mold us all in the womb?

Job uses these questions to emphasize that he is no different from his servants. He implies that God would be angry if Job were to treat his servants as less valuable than himself. Alternate translation: "The one who made me in the womb also made them. He formed us all in the womb." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

¹⁵ Did the one who made me in the womb not make them also? Did not the same one mold us all in the womb?

UST

¹⁵ God, who created me, certainly also created my servants; surely he is the one who formed them and me in our mothers' wombs, so we all should behave toward each other in the same way.

Job 31:16

If I have withheld poor people from their desire

Alternate translation: "If I have kept poor people from getting what they desire"

if I have caused the eyes of the widow to grow dim from crying

Here "to grow dim" refers to the widow having bad eyesight from crying a lot. Alternate translation: "if I have caused a widow to cry in great sadness" (See: Idiom)

Job 31:18because from my youth the orphan grew up with me as with a father

Here “the orphan” represents orphans in general. Job is describing how he truly treated orphans. Alternate translation: “because even when I was young I took care of orphans like a father” (See: Generic Noun Phrases) because from my youth

The phrase “But I have done none of those things” is understood from the context. Alternate translation: “But I have done none of those things, because from my youth” (See: Ellipsis)

I have guided his mother, a widow, from my own mother’s womb

Job is describing how he truly treated widows. With the phrase “from my own mother’s womb” he uses exaggeration to emphasize that he did this all his life. Alternate translation: “all my life I have guided the orphan’s mother, a widow” or “all my life I have guided widows” (See: Hyperbole)

Translation Words - ULT

- the orphan grew up with me

Translation Words - UST

- proud, pride, prideful

Job 31:21

if I have lifted up my hand against fatherless people

Lifting up the hand against someone represents threatening to harm him. Alternate translation: "if I have threatened to harm fatherless people" (See: Metonymy)

I saw my support in the city gate

Here "saw" is a metaphor for "knew," "support" is a metaphor for "approval," and "the city gate" is a metonym for the leaders who sit at the city gate. Alternate translation: "I knew that the leaders at the city gate would approve of me" (See: Metaphor and Metonymy)

in the city gate

This is where the important men of the city would gather to make decisions.

then bring charges against me

This phrase is not in the original language or in other versions of the Bible. It was added here to help preserve the meaning of Job's statement in this long sentence.

Job 31:22

then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade, and let my arm be broken from its joint

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “then let someone tear off my shoulder from the shoulder blade and break my arm from its joint” (See: Active or Passive)

ULT

²² If I have done these things, then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade, and let my arm be broken from its joint.

UST

²² For if those things were true about me, I hope that my shoulder blade would be torn out and my arm be torn from my shoulder.

Job 31:23

For I dreaded ... his majesty

This is the reason that Job did not do any of the wicked things he spoke of in verses 7 through 21.

Translation Words - ULT

- I dreaded

Translation Words - UST

- I always feared

ULT

²³ For I dreaded destruction from God; because of his majesty, I was not able to do those things.

UST

²³ I always feared that God would cause me to experience a great disaster if I did any of those evil things, and I would not have been able to endure the powerful things that he would do to punish me.

Job 31:24

If I have made gold my hope

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word hope, you could express the same idea with the verbs “trust” or “hope.” Alternate translation: “If I trusted in gold” or “If I hoped that having a lot of gold would make me secure” (See: Abstract Nouns)

if I have said to fine gold, ‘You are what I am confident in’

This line means the same as the previous line. (See: Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- gold

Translation Words - UST

- gold

ULT

²⁴ If I have made gold my hope, and if I have said to fine gold, ‘You are what I am confident in’;

UST

²⁴ If it is true that I trusted in my gold,

Job 31:25

my hand had gotten many possessions

Here “my hand” represents Job’s ability to do things. Alternate translation: “I have gained many possessions by my own ability” (See: Metonymy)

then bring charges against me

This phrase is not in the original language or in other versions of the Bible. It was added here to help preserve the meaning of Job’s statement in this long sentence.

Translation Words - ULT

- I have rejoiced
- my wealth
- my hand

Translation Words - UST

- I rejoiced
- I had acquired
- very rich

ULT

²⁵ if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, because my hand had gotten many possessions, then bring charges against me!

UST

²⁵ or that I rejoiced because I had acquired many things and had become very rich,

Job 31:26

the moon walking

Here “walking” represents moving slowly. Alternate translation: “the moon moving across the sky” (See: Personification)

the moon walking in its brightness

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word brightness, you could express the same idea with the words “bright” or “brightly.” Alternate translation: “the bright moon moving across the sky” or “the moon moving brightly across the sky” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- walking

Translation Words - UST

- or that I looked

ULT

²⁶ If I have seen the sun when it shone, or the moon walking in its brightness,

UST

²⁶ or that I looked at the sun when it was shining, or that I looked at the beautiful moon,

Job 31:27

if my heart has been secretly attracted

Here “my heart” represents Job. This phrase can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: “if I have been secretly attracted to them” or “if I have secretly desired to worship them” (See: Synecdoche and Active or Passive) so that my mouth has kissed my hand

Here “my mouth” represents Job. This is a sign of love and devotion. Alternate translation: “so that I have kissed my hand” (See: Symbolic Action)

Translation Words - ULT

- and if my heart
- my hand in worship of them

Translation Words - UST

- and I
- my hand

ULT

²⁷ and if my heart has been secretly attracted, so that my mouth has kissed my hand in worship of them—

UST

²⁷ and I had been tempted to worship them by kissing my hand to honor them,

Job 31:28

to be punished by judges

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “for which judges would be right to punish me” (See: Active or Passive)

I would have denied the God who is above

Alternate translation: “I would have been unfaithful to the God who is above”

Translation Words - ULT

- crime to be punished by
- I would have denied the

Translation Words - UST

- would be sins
- would have been rejecting

ULT

²⁸ this also would be a crime to be punished by judges, for I would have denied the God who is above.

UST

²⁸ those things also would be sins for which the judges would say that I must be punished because I would have been rejecting God by doing those things.

Job 31:29

at the destruction of anyone who hated me

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word destruction, you could express the same idea with a verbal form such as “destroy.” Alternate translation: “when anyone who hated me was destroyed” or “when bad things happened to anyone who hated me” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Alternate translation: “when he experienced disasters”

then bring charges against me

This phrase is not in the original language or in other versions of the Bible. It was added here to help preserve the meaning of Job’s statement in this long sentence.

Translation Words - ULT

- I have rejoiced
- disaster overtook him

Translation Words - UST

- evil, wicked, unpleasant
- joy, joyful, rejoice, glad

ULT

29 If I have rejoiced at the destruction of anyone who hated me or congratulated myself when disaster overtook him, then bring charges against me!

UST

29-30 It is not true that I sinned by requesting God to curse people who hated me and to cause them to die because I was angry with them. It is not true that I was glad when they were ruined or that I rejoiced when they experienced disasters. No!

Job 31:30Indeed, I have not even allowed my mouth to sin

Here “my mouth” represents Job speaking. Alternate translation: “Truly I did not let myself sin” or “Truly, I did not sin” (See: Synecdoche) by asking for his life with a curse

Here “asking for his life with a curse” represents cursing someone’s life so that he will die. Alternate translation: “by cursing him so that he would die” or “by cursing his life” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- for his life
- with a curse

Translation Words - UST

- life, live, living, alive
- oath, swear, swearing, swear by

ULT

³⁰ Indeed, I have not even allowed my mouth to sin by asking for his life with a curse.

UST

³⁰

Job 31:31

the men of my tent

The tent represents Job's household. The men of his tent includes family members and servants. All of these knew Job well. Alternate translation: "the men of my household" or "my family members and servants" (See: Metonymy)

Who can find one who has not been filled with Job's food?

Job's men would have used this question to emphasize that Job was generous to everyone. Alternate translation: "Everyone has been filled with Job's food!" or "Everyone we know of has eaten as much of Job's food as he wanted!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

31 If the men of my tent have never said, 'Who can find one who has not been filled with Job's food?'

UST

31-32 No one can truthfully say that I did not welcome travelers to stay in my house, or that I did not open my doors to them, but that I forced them to sleep in the streets! All the men who work for me certainly know that I have given food to anyone who needed it!

Job 31:32even the foreigner has never had to stay in the city square

Job is explaining how he truly treated foreigners. Here “stay in the city square” represents sleeping overnight in the city square. Alternate translation: “foreigners have never had to sleep in the city square” or “foreigners have never had to sleep outside” (See: Metonymy)

I have always opened my doors to the traveler

Here “opened my doors to the traveler” represents welcoming the traveler into his home. Alternate translation: “I have always welcomed the traveler into my home” (See: Metonymy) and if that is not so, then bring charges against me

This phrase is not in the original language or in other versions of the Bible. It was added here to help preserve the meaning of Job’s statement in this long sentence.

Translation Words - ULT

- my doors

Translation Words - UST

- gate, gate bars, gatekeeper, gateposts, gateway

ULT

³² (even the foreigner has never had to stay in the city square, because I have always opened my doors to the traveler), and if that is not so, then bring charges against me!

UST

³²

Job 31:33

If ... I have hidden my sins

Here “have hidden my sins” represents trying to keep people from knowing that he had sinned. Alternate translation: “If ... I have tried to keep my sins a secret” (See: Metaphor) by hiding my guilt inside my tunic

This represents trying to keep people from knowing that he is guilty. Alternate translation: “by hiding the evidence of my guilt inside my tunic” or “like one who hides the evidence of his guilt inside his tunic” (See: Metaphor)

ULT

³³ If, like mankind, I have hidden my sins by hiding my guilt inside my tunic

UST

³³ Some people try to hide their sins, but I have never done that;

Translation Words - ULT

- my guilt

Translation Words - UST

- their sins

Job 31:34

because I feared the great multitude, because the contempt of families terrified me

This would be the reason for hiding his sins. These mean the same thing. They emphasize that a person may hide his sin because he fears what other people may think about him. (See: Parallelism)

then bring charges against me

This phrase is not in the original language or in other versions of the Bible. It was added here to help preserve the meaning of Job's statement in this long sentence.

Translation Words - ULT

- I feared
- families
- and would...go
- terrified me, so that

Translation Words - UST

- to go
- I was
- afraid of
- would say about

ULT

³⁴ (because I feared the great multitude, because the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silent and would not go outside), then bring charges against me!

UST

³⁴ and I never remained silent and refused to go outside because I was afraid of what people would say about me, and that they would hate me.

Job 31:35

Oh, if only I had someone to hear me!

This exclamation expresses Job's wish. Alternate translation: "I wish I had someone to hear me" or "I wish that someone would listen to me" (See: Exclamations)

here is my signature

Here "my signature" represents Job's promise that everything he is saying is true. He speaks of his complaint as if he had written a legal document. Alternate translation: "I solemnly promise that all I have said is true" (See: Metaphor) let the Almighty answer me!

Here an answer probably refers to telling Job what wrong he accuses Job of doing. Alternate translation: "let the Almighty tell me what I have done wrong" or "I wish the Almighty would say what I have done wrong" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

If only I had the indictment that my opponent has written!

This expresses Job's wish. Job speaks as though his troubles are evidence that someone has written something accusing him of terrible sin. Alternate translation: "I wish I had the accusation that my opponent has written" or "If only I could read my opponent's complaint against me" my opponent

This could mean: (1) this refers to God or (2) this refers to someone else.

Translation Words - ULT

- let the Almighty
- answer me

Translation Words - UST

- I solemnly declare that all that
- would

ULT

35 Oh, if only I had someone to hear me! See, here is my signature; let the Almighty answer me! If only I had the indictment that my opponent has written!

UST

35 I wish that there was someone who would hear what I am saying! I solemnly declare that all that I have said is true. I wish that those who oppose me would write down on a scroll the evil things that they say that I did.

Job 31:36

Surely I would carry it openly on my shoulder;
I would put it on like a crown

This represents putting it where everyone could read it. (See: Metaphor)

ULT

³⁶ Surely I would carry it openly on my shoulder; I would put it on like a crown.

UST

³⁶ If they did that, I would wear that scroll on my shoulder or on top of my head, in order that everyone could see it.

Job 31:37

I would declare to him an accounting for my steps

Here “my steps” represents Job’s actions. Alternate translation: “I would declare to him an accounting for all I have done” or “I would tell him everything I have done” (See: Metaphor) as a confident prince I would go up to him

This means Job would approach God without any fear. Job implies that he could do this because he was not guilty. Alternate translation: “I would approach him boldly” (See: Simile)

ULT

³⁷ I would declare to him an accounting for my steps; as a confident prince I would go up to him.

UST

³⁷ I would tell God everything that I have done, and I would approach him like a ruler would, without being afraid.

Job 31:38

General Information:

This concludes Job's description of situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he knows they are not true. (See: Hypothetical Situations)

If my land ever cries out against me, and its furrows weep together

Job speaks of being guilty as if his land were a person who cries out against Job because of the wrong Job has done to the land. Alternate translation: "If I have done wrong concerning my land" or "If I have stolen my land from someone" (See: Personification)

ULT

38 If my land ever cries out against me, and its furrows weep together,

UST

38 If it is true that I have stolen land, so that its furrows were like someone who shouted out to accuse me;

Job 31:39

to lose their lives

This represents dying. Alternate translation: “to die” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- I have eaten
- its harvest
- paying for it
- or have caused its owners

Translation Words - UST

- I have eaten
- the crops that grew in
- paying for those crops
- so that the farmers who grew those crops

ULT

³⁹ if I have eaten its harvest without paying for it or have caused its owners to lose their lives,

UST

³⁹ or that I have eaten the crops that grew in someone else's fields without paying for those crops, so that the farmers who grew those crops died from hunger;

Job 31:40

weeds instead of barley

The words “let” and “grow” are understood from the previous phrase.
Alternate translation: “let weeds grow instead of barley” (See: Ellipsis)

Translation Words - ULT

- then let...grow
- wheat
- barley
- of Job

Translation Words - UST

- wheat
- of barley
- Job said
- to his three friends

ULT

⁴⁰ then let thorns grow instead of wheat and weeds instead of barley.” The words of Job are finished.

UST

⁴⁰ then I wish that thorns would grow in my fields instead of wheat, and that bad weeds would grow instead of barley!” That is the end of what Job said to his three friends.

Job 32

Job 32 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Job's friends give up on trying to convince him that he is being punished for sinning. This chapter introduces Elihu who was a witness to these interactions between Job and his friends. According to Elihu, instead of being punished for his sins, Job is sinning in the midst of these difficulties. This is the first of Elihu's four statements. (See: sin, sinful, sinner, sinning and testimony, testify, witness, eyewitness, evidence)

Some translations prefer to set apart extended quotations, prayers, or songs. The ULT and many other English translations set the lines of 32:6-22, which is an extended quotation, farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text. This quotation continues through the next chapter.

Job 32:1

he was righteous in his own eyes

The eyes represent seeing, and seeing represents thoughts or judgment. Alternate translation: "he considered himself righteous" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- Job
- he was righteous

Translation Words - UST

- Job
- done anything wrong

ULT

¹ So these three men stopped answering Job because he was righteous in his own eyes.

UST

¹ Then those three men stopped replying to Job because they could not convince Job that he had done anything wrong.

Job 32:2

Then was kindled the anger of Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram; it was kindled against Job

This compares Elihu's anger to someone starting a fire. Also, If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "Then Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became very angry with Job" (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

Elihu ... Barakel ... Ram

These are names of men. (See: How to Translate Names)

Buzite

This is the name of a people-group. (See: How to Translate Names)

he justified himself rather than God

This means that he considered himself innocent and believed God had been wrong to punish him. Alternate translation: "he justified himself and claimed that God had been wrong to punish him" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- son
- of the family
- Job
- himself
- God

Translation Words - UST

- son
- from the clan
- because Job
- that God
- had been wrong to punish him

ULT

² Then was kindled the anger of Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram; it was kindled against Job because he justified himself rather than God.

UST

² Then Elihu son of Barakel, a descendant of Buz, from the clan of Ram, became very angry at Job. He was angry because Job continued to claim that he was innocent, and that God had been wrong to punish him.

Job 32:3

Elihu's anger was also kindled against his three friends

This compares Elihu's anger to someone starting a fire. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "Elihu also became very angry with his three friends" (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• Job

Translation Words - UST

• Job

ULT

³ Elihu's anger was also kindled against his three friends because they had found no answer to Job, and yet they had condemned Job.

UST

³ He was also angry with Job's three friends because they had declared that Job must have done many things that were wrong, but they could not convince him.

Job 32:4

Now

This word is used here to mark a break in the main story line. This tells background information about Elihu. (See: Background Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- Job
- older

Translation Words - UST

- finished speaking before he
- Job

ULT

⁴ Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because the other men were older than he.

UST

⁴ Now Elihu was younger than the others, so he waited until they had finished speaking before he replied to Job.

Job 32:5

that there was no answer in the mouths of these three men

This means that the men were done speaking to Job. This speaks of the men possibly having an answer as if the answer were an object that would be in their mouths. Alternate translation: “that these three men had nothing else to say” or “that these three men had no more answers to give Job” (See: Metaphor) his anger was kindled

This compares Elihu’s anger to someone starting a fire. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “he became very angry” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

ULT

⁵ However, when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouths of these three men, his anger was kindled.

UST

⁵ But when Elihu realized that the three men had no more to say to Job, he became angry.

Job 32:6

you are very old

Here “you” is plural and refers to Job and his three friends. (See: Forms of You)

Translation Words - ULT

- son
- and did not dare

Translation Words - UST

- young
- I was afraid

ULT

⁶ Then Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite spoke up and said, “I am young, and you are very old. That is why I held back and did not dare to tell you my own opinion.

UST

⁶ This is what he said: “I am young, and you all are much older than I am. So I was timid, and I was afraid to tell you what I was thinking.

Job 32:7

Length of days should speak; a multitude of years should teach wisdom

These two lines mean the same thing. Elihu emphasizes that since older people are wiser than younger people, they should be the first to speak of what they know. Alternate translation: "He who has lived many years should speak; He would is older should teach wisdom" (See: Metonymy and Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- should teach

Translation Words - UST

- say things that

ULT

⁷ I said, "Length of days should speak; a multitude of years should teach wisdom.

UST

⁷ I said to myself, 'Let those who are much older speak because older people should be able to say things that are wise.'

Job 32:8there is a spirit in a man; the breath of the Almighty

Both phrases mean the same thing. Elihu is emphasizing that a man's wisdom comes from God. Alternate translation: "there is a spirit in a man, that is, the breath of the Almighty that" (See: Parallelism)

the breath of the Almighty

Here the spirit is represented by "breath." Alternate translation: "the spirit of the Almighty" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- a spirit
- of the Almighty
- gives him understanding

Translation Words - UST

- the Spirit
- of Almighty God
- he who enables them to be wise

ULT

⁸ But there is a spirit in a man; the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding.

UST

⁸ However, the Spirit of Almighty God is within people, and it is he who enables them to be wise.

Job 32:9

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- alone who understand
- justice

Translation Words - UST

- understand
- what is right

ULT

⁹ It is not only the great people who are wise, nor the aged people alone who understand justice.

UST

⁹ Not all people become wise when they are old; not all old people understand what is right.

Job 32:10

(There are no notes for this verse.)

ULT

10 Therefore I say to you, 'Listen to me; I will also tell you my knowledge.'

UST

10 That is why I say to you now, 'Listen to me, and allow me to declare what I know.'

Job 32:11

See

Elihu uses this word here to draw the mens' attention to what he says next. Alternate translation: "Listen"

I waited for your words

"I waited to hear what you would say." The word "your" refers to Job's friends. (See: Forms of You)

ULT

11 See, I waited for your words; I listened to your arguments while you were thinking about what to say.

UST

11 I waited for you all to speak; I wanted to hear the wise things that you would say. I waited while you thought carefully about what you should say.

Job 32:12

who could respond to his words

Here the word “respond” does not just mean to answer, but to answer with a helpful response.

Translation Words - ULT

- Indeed, I paid attention
- who could convince Job
- to

Translation Words - UST

- to prove that
- Job said
- I paid attention carefully, but surprisingly

ULT

¹² Indeed, I paid attention to you, but, see, there was not one of you who could convince Job or who could respond to his words.

UST

¹² I paid attention carefully, but surprisingly, none of you was able to prove that what Job said was wrong.

Job 32:13

We have found wisdom

This means that they believe that they have figured out what is wise.
Alternate translation: "We have discovered what is wise" to defeat Job

This speaks of God responding to Job and correcting him as if he were defeating him in battle. Alternate translation: "to refute Job" or "to answer Job" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

13 Be careful not to say, 'We have found wisdom!' God will have to defeat Job; mere man cannot do it.

UST

13 So do not say to yourselves, 'We have discovered what is wise!' It is God who must refute Job because you three have not been able to do that.

Job 32:14

with your words

Alternate translation: "by saying what you have said"

Translation Words - ULT

- answer him with your words

Translation Words - UST

- to him by saying

ULT

¹⁴ For Job has not directed his words against me, so I will not answer him with your words.

UST

¹⁴ Job was replying to you, not to me, so I will not reply to him by saying what you three have said.

Job 32:15

dumbfounded

amazed, unable to speak

Translation Words - ULT

- These three men are dumbfounded
- they can answer Job

Translation Words - UST

- I tell myself this
- These three men are confused

ULT

¹⁵ These three men are dumbfounded; they can answer Job no longer; they have not a word more to say.

UST

¹⁵ I tell myself this: These three men are confused because they have nothing more to say to Job; they have nothing more to say to him.

Job 32:16Should I wait because they are not speaking, because they stand there silent and answer no more?

Elihu uses a question to emphasize that he will not wait any longer to speak. Elihu answers this question himself in the next verse.

Alternate translation: But because you do not speak, I certainly will not wait any longer; you merely stand there and do not reply anymore. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- because they stand
- answer

Translation Words - UST

- you merely stand there
- reply anymore

ULT

¹⁶ Should I wait because they are not speaking, because they stand there silent and answer no more?

UST

¹⁶ But because you do not speak, I certainly will not wait any longer; you merely stand there and do not reply anymore.

Job 32:17

I also will answer on my part

Alternate translation: "I will now take my turn to answer"

Translation Words - ULT

- will answer

Translation Words - UST

- reply to Job

ULT

¹⁷ No, I also will answer on my part; I will also tell them my knowledge.

UST

¹⁷ So now I also will reply to Job and tell him what I know.

Job 32:18

I am full of words

Elihu speaks of having a lot to say as being full of words. Alternate translation: "I have so much to say" (See: Metaphor)

the spirit in me compels me

Alternate translation: "my spirit forces me to say it"

Translation Words - ULT

- the spirit

Translation Words - UST

- and my spirit

ULT

¹⁸ For I am full of words; the spirit in me compels me.

UST

¹⁸ I have plenty to say, and my spirit forces me to say it.

Job 32:19

my breast is like fermenting wine that has no vent; like new wineskins, it is ready to burst

While wine is fermenting, gas collects in the container. If the gas is not let out the container will burst. Elihu means that he has so much to say that if he does not speak he feels like he will burst. Also, these two phrases are parallel and have the same meaning. Alternate translation: "I feel like my breast is about to burst, like a container of fermenting wine that has no vent" (See: Simile and Parallelism)

my breast is

This represents Elihu, specifically his spirit. Alternate translation: "my spirit is" or "I am" (See: Synecdoche)

ULT

¹⁹ See, my breast is like fermenting wine that has no vent; like new wineskins, it is ready to burst.

UST

¹⁹ My inner being is like a container of wine that is stretching more and more from the fermentation, and it will soon burst.

Job 32:20

I may be refreshed

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "I may feel better" (See: Active or Passive)

open my lips

Here the "lips" represent the mouth. Alternate translation: "open my mouth" (See: Synecdoche)

ULT

²⁰ I will speak so that I may be refreshed; I will open my lips and answer.

UST

²⁰ I must speak in order that I can rest from trying to hold in my words; I must say something to reply to you all.

Job 32:21

neither will I give honorific titles to any man

Alternate translation: "neither will I praise any man or give him titles of honor"

Translation Words - ULT

- I will
- any

Translation Words - UST

- any of you
- I

ULT

²¹ I will not show favoritism; neither will I give honorific titles to any man.

UST

²¹ I will speak fairly, not favoring any of you, and I will not try to flatter anyone.

Job 32:22

my Maker

This is a name referring to God. Alternate translation: "God who made me" take me away

This means that he would destroy him. Alternate translation: "destroy me" (See: Euphemism)

Translation Words - ULT

- I do...know

Translation Words - UST

- know

ULT

22 For I do not know how to give such titles; if I did so, my Maker would soon take me away.

UST

22 I really do not know how to flatter people; if I did that, God would soon destroy me."

Job 33

Job 33 General Notes

Structure and formatting

According to Elihu, instead of being punished for his sins, Job is sinning in the midst of these difficulties. This is a continuation of the first of Elihu's four statements and it is addressed to Job. (See: sin, sinful, sinner, sinning and testimony, testify, witness, eyewitness, evidence)

Special concepts in this chapter

God's mercy

While Job has been complaining about the lack of justice and response from Yahweh, Elihu shows Job that Yahweh has shown him great mercy along the way. He is still alive because of Yahweh's mercy. (See: mercy, merciful) hear my speech; listen to all my words

Job 33:1

These two phrases mean the same thing. Elihu is emphasizing that Job must listen carefully. (See: Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- Job

Translation Words - UST

- Job

ULT

¹ So now, Job, I beg you, hear my speech; listen to all my words.

UST

¹ "Now, Job, listen carefully to all that I am going to say.

Job 33:2

I have opened my mouth ... my tongue has spoken in my mouth

These mean the same thing. Elihu is emphasizing that he is now ready to speak. His "tongue" speaking represents himself speaking. Alternate translation: "I have opened my mouth and I have begun to speak" (See: Parallelism and Metonymy)

ULT

² See now, I have opened my mouth; my tongue has spoken in my mouth.

UST

² I am ready to tell you what I think.

Job 33:3My words come from the uprightness of my heart

Here Elihu refers to himself by his “heart” as he speaks of being upright. Alternate translation: “I will speak with uprightness” or “I will speak with complete honesty” (See: Synecdoche) my lips speak pure knowledge

Here Elihu refers to himself by his “lips” to emphasize his speech. Alternate translation: “I will speak sincerely to you the things I know” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- of my heart

Translation Words - UST

- I

ULT

³ My words come from the uprightness of my heart; my lips speak pure knowledge.

UST

³ In my inner being I know that I am speaking honestly and that I am speaking sincerely.

Job 33:4The Spirit of God ... has given me life

These two lines mean the same thing. Elihu is emphasizing that God has made him and so gives authority to what he is saying. (See: Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- The Spirit of God
- of the Almighty
- has given me life

Translation Words - UST

- Almighty God
- has created me
- he has caused me to live

ULT

⁴ The Spirit of God has made me; the breath of the Almighty has given me life.

UST

⁴ Almighty God has created me as well as you, and with his breath he has caused me to live.

Job 33:5

set your words in order before me and stand up

This speaks of Job preparing what he will say as if he were setting up and organizing physical objects. Alternate translation: “prepare what you will say, and stand up and answer me” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- answer me

Translation Words - UST

- So answer what I say

ULT

⁵ If you can, answer me; set your words in order before me and stand up.

UST

⁵ So answer what I say if you can; think carefully what you will reply to me.

Job 33:6

See

Elihu uses this word here to draw Job's attention to what he says next. Alternate translation: "Listen"

I am just as you are in God's sight

Here sight represents judgment or evaluation. Alternate translation: "I am just as you are in God's judgment" or "God judges me the same way that he judges you" (See: Metaphor)

I also have been formed out of the clay

Though people are not made out of clay, God has made everyone as a potter carefully makes things out of clay. Alternate translation: "God has made both of us just as a potter forms things from clay" (See: Metaphor)

I also have been formed

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God has also made me" or "God has formed both of us" (See: Active or Passive)

ULT

⁶ See, I am just as you are in God's sight; I also have been formed out of the clay.

UST

⁶ God considers that you and I are both the same; he formed both of us from clay.

Job 33:7terror of me will not make you afraid

Alternate translation: "you do not need to be afraid of me" neither will my pressure be heavy upon you

This means that he will not hinder Job or burden him. He speaks of emotional burden here as if it were a heavy physical burden.

Alternate translation: "neither will I burden you" or "I will not oppress you with what I say" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- terror of me
- be heavy

Translation Words - UST

- afraid of me
- speak

ULT

⁷ See, terror of me will not make you afraid; neither will my pressure be heavy upon you.

UST

⁷ So you do not need to be afraid of me; I will not speak against you harshly.

Job 33:8

in my hearing

Alternate translation: "where I could hear you"

I have heard the sound of your words saying

Alternate translation: "I have heard you say"

ULT

⁸ You have certainly spoken in my hearing; I have heard the sound of your words saying,

UST

⁸ I have heard you speak, and this is what you have said:

Job 33:9

clean

A person who God considers spiritually acceptable is spoken of as if the person were physically clean. (See: Metaphor)

there is no sin in me

Alternate translation: "I have not sinned"

Translation Words - ULT

- I am
- and there is...sin

Translation Words - UST

- I
- done things that are wrong

ULT

⁹ I am clean and without transgression; I am innocent, and there is no sin in me.

UST

⁹ I am innocent, and I have not committed any sins; I am pure, and I have not done things that are wrong.

Job 33:10

See

The speaker uses this word here to draw attention to what he says next. Alternate translation: "Listen"

ULT

¹⁰ See, God finds opportunities to attack me; he regards me as his enemy.

UST

¹⁰ But God finds reasons to accuse me, and he considers that I am his enemy.

Job 33:11

He puts my feet in stocks

“Stocks” are wooden blocks a jailer puts around a prisoner’s feet to restrict his movement. Job speaks of feeling like he is a prisoner by saying that he is in stocks. Alternate translation: “I feel he has made me a prisoner” (See: Metaphor)

my paths

These words refer to where he goes. Here where he goes represents what he does. Alternate translation: “everything that I do” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- he watches

Translation Words - UST

- and he watches

ULT

¹¹ He puts my feet in stocks; he watches all my paths.’

UST

¹¹ It is as though he had put my feet in stocks, and he watches everything that I do.’

Job 33:12

I will answer you

Elihu is speaking to Job.

Translation Words - ULT

- I will answer you
- for God

Translation Words - UST

- I will tell you
- God

ULT

¹² See, in this you are not right—I will answer you, for God is greater than man.

UST

¹² However, what you have said is wrong, and I will tell you what you have said that is wrong. God is much greater than any human.

Job 33:13

Why do you struggle against him?

Elihu uses this question to emphasize that Job should not struggle against God. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You should not struggle against God." or "You should not try to argue with God." (See: Rhetorical Question)

He does not account for any of his doings

Alternate translation: "He does not have to explain to us anything he does"

Translation Words - ULT

- of his doings

Translation Words - UST

- tell us

ULT

¹³ Why do you struggle against him? He does not account for any of his doings.

UST

¹³ So, why are you arguing against God? He does not have to tell us why he does anything.

Job 33:14

God speaks once—yes, twice

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: “God speaks again and again in different ways” (See: Idiom)

ULT

¹⁴ For God speaks once— yes, twice, though man does not notice it.

UST

¹⁴ God does, indeed, speak to us in various ways, but we do not pay any attention to what he says.

Job 33:15

a dream ... a vision of the night

These phrases have the same meaning. (See: Parallelism)

when deep sleep falls upon men, in slumber on the bed

This speaks of people being in a deep sleep as if the sleep fell upon them or overcame them. Alternate translation: “when people are fully asleep on their bed” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- in a vision

Translation Words - UST

- and visions

ULT

¹⁵ In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men, in slumber on the bed—

UST

¹⁵ Sometimes he speaks to us at night in dreams and visions when we are on our beds, heavily asleep.

Job 33:16

then God opens the ears of men

This speaks of God making people aware of things as if he were opening their ears so that they could hear. Alternate translation: "then God reveals things to people" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- God opens

Translation Words - UST

- reveals

ULT

¹⁶ then God opens the ears of men, and frightens them with threats,

UST

¹⁶ He reveals things to us in those times; he terrifies us by warning us about things.

Job 33:17

in order to pull man back from

This speaks of God keeping someone from doing something as if he were physically pulling him away from harm. Alternate translation: "in order to keep him from" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- man

Translation Words - UST

- He tells us those things

ULT

17 in order to pull man back from his sinful purposes, and keep pride from him.

UST

17 He tells us those things in order that we may stop doing evil deeds and to prevent us from becoming proud.

Job 33:18

God keeps man's life back from the pit ... his life from crossing over to death

Both of these statements mean the same thing. Alternate translation: "God saves people from the grave and from death" (See: Parallelism)

the pit

The place where people go when they die is referred to here as "the pit." Alternate translation: "the place where dead people are" (See: Metaphor) man's life back ... his life

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "man from dying and ... he keeps him" (See: Idiom) from crossing over to death

Here "death" represents the place where people go when they die, that is, sheol. Alternate translation: "from going to sheol" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- God keeps
- man's life back

Translation Words - UST

- he wants to prevent us
- we are

ULT

¹⁸ God keeps man's life back from the pit, his life from crossing over to death.

UST

¹⁸ He does not want us to be destroyed; he wants to prevent us from dying while we are still young.

Job 33:19

Man is punished also

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God also punishes a person" (See: Active or Passive)

with pain on his bed

This means that the person is experiencing such pain that he must lie in bed. Alternate translation: "with pain so that he must lie in bed" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT

¹⁹ Man is punished also with pain on his bed, with constant agony in his bones,

UST

¹⁹ God also corrects us by forcing us to lie on our beds, suffering much pain and fever in our bones.

Job 33:20so that his life abhors food, and his soul
abhors delicacies

These two phrases mean basically the same thing, that the person is in so much pain that he cannot even eat. The person is represented by his "life" and his "soul." Alternate translation: "the result is that he does not desire any food, not even very special food" (See: Parallelism and Synecdoche)

abhors delicacies

Alternate translation: "hates even very special food"

Translation Words - ULT

- food

Translation Words - UST

- any food

ULT

²⁰ so that his life abhors food, and his soul abhors delicacies.

UST

²⁰ The result is that we do not desire any food, not even very special food.

Job 33:21

His flesh is consumed away so that it cannot be seen; his bones, once not seen, now stick out

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. "His flesh" refers to his fat and muscles, not to his body's outer skin. Alternate translation: "Disease makes his body weak and thin so that a person can see his bones" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- His flesh
- is consumed away

Translation Words - UST

- Our bodies become very thin so that we
- others can count them

ULT

²¹ His flesh is consumed away so that it cannot be seen; his bones, once not seen, now stick out.

UST

²¹ Our bodies become very thin so that we look like a skeleton, and our bones stick out so others can count them.

Job 33:22

his soul draws close to the pit

Here a person is represented by his "soul." Alternate translation: "he is close to going into the grave" (See: Synecdoche)

the pit

The place where people go when they die is referred to here as "the pit." Alternate translation: "the place where dead people are" (See: Metaphor) his life to those who wish to destroy it

Here the person is represented by his "life." The phrase "those who wish to destroy it" refers to the place where people go after they die. Alternate translation: "and he is close to going to the place where dead people go" or "and he will soon go to the place of the dead" (See: Synecdoche and Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- his life
- to destroy it

Translation Words - UST

- dead people
- are

ULT

22 Indeed, his soul draws close to the pit, his life to those who wish to destroy it.

UST

22 We know that we will soon die and go to the place where dead people are.

Job 33:23

for him

This does not refer to a specific person. Elihu continues speaking about any person in general.

one out of a thousand

In some languages it may be more natural to refer to “a great number” instead of “a thousand.” Alternate translation: “one from the great number of angels” (See: Numbers)

Translation Words - ULT

- an angel
- a man

Translation Words - UST

- Yet sometimes an angel may come to one
- of angels

ULT

²³ But if there is an angel who can be a mediator for him, one out of a thousand, to tell a man what is right for him,

UST

²³ Yet sometimes an angel may come to one of us, one of the thousands of angels who come to intervene between us and God, to tell us what are the right things for us to do.

Job 33:24

the pit

The place where people go when they die is referred to here as “the pit.” Alternate translation: “the place where dead people are” (See: Metaphor)

I have found a ransom for him

This means that the angel has found a way to pay for the sins of the man so that he does not have to die. Alternate translation: “for I have found a way for you to keep him from dying” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT

24 to be gracious to him and say, ‘Save this person from going down to the pit; I have found a ransom for him.’

UST

24 The angel is kind to us and says to God, ‘Please release that person, so that he does not descend to the place where dead people are! Do that because I have found a way for you to keep him from dying!’

Job 33:25

Then

This word is used here to mark what will happen if God grants the angel's request. Alternate translation: "Then as a result" or "As a result of the angel's request to God" his flesh will become fresher than a child's

This speaks of the man being healed and his body growing strong again as if his body became new like a child's body. Alternate translation: "the sick man's body will become new again like a young person's body" (See: Simile) fresher than a child's

In this comparison, the word "fresher" is an exaggeration. Alternate translation: "fresh like a child's" (See: Hyperbole)

a child's

This refers to a child's flesh. Alternate translation: "a child's flesh" (See: Ellipsis) it is restored to the days of his youth

This speaks of the man's flesh again being as strong as it was when he was young. Alternate translation: "it will become strong again, as it was when he was young" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- Then his flesh
- it is restored

Translation Words - UST

- again
- when he was

ULT

²⁵ Then his flesh will become fresher than a child's; it is restored to the days of his youth.

UST

²⁵ Please let his body be strong again; please allow him to be strong like he was when he was young!

Job 33:26

he sees God's face with joy

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "he joyfully worships God" (See: Idiom)

God's face

Here God is represented by his "face." Alternate translation: "God" (See: Synecdoche)

God will give the person his triumph

Alternate translation: "God will save the person" or "God will make things right for the person again"

Translation Words - ULT

- and God
- so that
- God's face

Translation Words - UST

- and God
- presence
- and then he will tell

ULT

²⁶ He will pray to God, and God will be kind to him, so that he sees God's face with joy. God will give the person his triumph.

UST

²⁶ If that happens, that person will pray to God, and God will accept him; he will enter God's presence joyfully, and then he will tell others how God saved him from dying.

Job 33:27

but my sin was not punished

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “but God did not punish me for sinning” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- I sinned

Translation Words - UST

- I sinned

ULT

²⁷ Then that person will sing in front of other people and say, ‘I sinned and perverted that which was right, but my sin was not punished.

UST

²⁷ He will sing as he says to everyone, ‘I sinned, and I did things that were not right, but God did not punish me in the way that I deserved.

Job 33:28

rescued my soul from going down into the pit

Job 34

Job 34 General Notes

Structure and formatting

According to Elihu, instead of being punished for his sins, Job is sinning in the midst of these difficulties. This is the second of Elihu's four statements and it is addressed first to Job's friends and then to Job. (See: sin, sinful, sinner, sinning and testimony, testify, witness, eyewitness, evidence)

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. Elihu uses many of Job's statements against him. His attitude is not too different from Job's friends.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's justice

Elihu defends the justice of Yahweh after Job claimed that Yahweh was being unjust. (See: just, justice, unjust, injustice, justify, justification)

Job 34:1

Moreover, Elihu

Alternate translation: "Then, Elihu"

Elihu

See how you translated this man's name in Job 32:2. (See: How to Translate Names)

¹ Moreover, Elihu continued to speak:

¹ Then Elihu continued by saying this:

Job 34:2

Listen to my words

Alternate translation: "Listen to what I say" you wise men ... you who have knowledge

Elihu is criticizing Job and his friends. He does not think they are actually wise. (See: Irony)

Translation Words - ULT

- you wise men
- you who have knowledge

Translation Words - UST

- You men who think that you are very wise
- know so much

ULT

² "Listen to my words, you wise men; hear me, you who have knowledge.

UST

² "You men who think that you are very wise, listen to me; listen to what I am saying, you men who say that you know so much.

Job 34:3

For the ear tries words as the palate tastes food

Elihu means people listen carefully to determine what is right or wrong just like we taste food to determine if it is good or bad. Here people are referred to by their “ear” and their “palate” to emphasize that they are tasting and hearing. Alternate translation: “For we listen to words to know what is good and bad, just as we taste foods to know what is good to eat” (See: Simile and Synecdoche)

ULT

³ For the ear tries words as the palate tastes food.

UST

³ When we hear people talk, we think carefully about what they say to know what is good and what is bad, as we taste food to know what is good to eat.

Job 34:4

Let us

Here “us” refers to Elihu, Job, and his three friends. (See: Exclusive and Inclusive ‘We’)

Translation Words - ULT

- Let us
- let us discover
- what is good

Translation Words - UST

- who is saying what is right
- find out together for ourselves
- good

ULT

⁴ Let us choose for ourselves what is just: let us discover among ourselves what is good.

UST

⁴ We must decide who is saying what is right, and we must find out together for ourselves what is good.

Job 34:5

has taken away my rights

Alternate translation: "refused to give me justice"

Translation Words - ULT

- Job
- my rights

Translation Words - UST

- Job
- judge me fairly

ULT

⁵ For Job has said, 'I am righteous, but God has taken away my rights.'

UST

⁵ Job has said, 'I am innocent, but God has refused to judge me fairly.'

Job 34:6

I am considered to be a liar

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God considers me to be a liar" (See: Active or Passive)

My wound is incurable

Here Job's sickness and suffering is spoken of as if it were a "wound." Alternate translation: "I am sick and no one can heal me" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- my rights

Translation Words - UST

- Even though I have always done what is right

ULT

⁶ Regardless of my rights, I am considered to be a liar. My wound is incurable, although I am without sin.'

UST

⁶ Even though I have always done what is right, he is lying about me. Even though I have not done what is wrong, he has caused me to suffer, and I will certainly die because of this.'

Job 34:7

What man is like Job

Elihu uses this rhetorical question to scold Job. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “There is no one else like Job” (See: Rhetorical Question) who drinks up mockery like water

Elihu is accusing Job of mocking others as often as a person drinks water. Alternate translation: “who mocks other people as frequently as he drinks water” (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- Job

Translation Words - UST

- like Job

ULT

⁷ What man is like Job, who drinks up mockery like water;

UST

⁷ Is there any person like Job, who insults others as easily as people accept a drink of water?

Job 34:8

who walks with wicked men

Here “walk” is an idiom for how a person acts. Alternate translation: “who behaves like wicked men” (See: Metaphor)

ULT

⁸ who goes around in the company of those who do evil, and who walks with wicked men?

UST

⁸ He habitually associates with people who do what is evil and spends time with wicked people.

Job 34:9

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- God wants

Translation Words - UST

- God

ULT

⁹ For he has said, 'It is no use to a person to take pleasure in doing what God wants.'

UST

⁹ He certainly does these things, because he has said, 'It is useless for people to try to please God.'

Job 34:10

you men of understanding

Elihu is criticizing Job and his friends. He does not actually think they are wise. (See: Irony) far be it from God ... far be it from the Almighty that he should commit sin

These two phrases have the same meaning and are used together to emphasize that God would never do anything wrong. The phrase “far be it from” is an idiom. Alternate translation: “Almighty God would never consider doing anything that is wicked or wrong” (See: Parallelism and Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

ULT

¹⁰ So listen to me, you men of understanding: far be it from God that he should do wickedness; far be it from the Almighty that he should commit sin.

UST

¹⁰ So, you men who claim that you understand everything, listen to me! Almighty God would never consider doing anything that is wicked or wrong!

Job 34:11

For he pays back a person's work

This means that he gives to a person what he deserves for the work he has done. Here "work" is a metaphor for what a person does. Alternate translation: "For he gives to a person what he deserves in return for he does" (See: Metaphor)

he makes every man come upon the reward of his own ways

The phrase "his own ways" is an idiom for how a person lives his life. Elihu emphasizes that God gives to people what they deserve. Alternate translation: "he causes every man to receive the reward he deserves for how he lives" (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

Job 34:13

Who put him in charge over the earth? Who put the whole world under him?

Both of these rhetorical questions have the same meaning and emphasize that no one needed to grant God authority because it was already his. These questions can be written as statements. Alternate translation: "No one needed to give permission to God to take responsibility over all the earth. He is the rightful one to rule the world." (See: Parallelism and Rhetorical Question)

UST

¹⁶ So, Job, if you say that you understand everything, listen to what I am saying.

Job 34:17

Can one who hates justice govern? Will you condemn God, who is righteous and mighty?

Elihu uses this question to rebuke Job for implying that God hates justice. Alternate translation: "One who hates justice cannot be expected to rule over people. So you really cannot criticize God, who is righteous and powerful, and you cannot say that what he has done is wrong." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Can one who hates justice govern?

The implicit answer to this rhetorical question is "no." This question implies that God could not rule the world if he hated justice. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "One who hates justice cannot govern the world." or "God could certainly never hate what is right and still rule the world." (See: Rhetorical Question and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Will you condemn God, who is righteous and mighty?

This rhetorical question is used to emphasize that Job does not have the authority or a reason to condemn God. Alternate translation: "You cannot condemn God, who is righteous and mighty!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

Job 34:28

they made the cry of poor people come to him

The word “cry” can be expressed as a verb. This speaks of God hearing their cry as if the cry were a person that came to him. Alternate translation: “they made the poor people cry, and God heard them” (See: Abstract Nouns and Personification)

ULT

²⁸ In this way, they made the cry of poor people come to him; he heard the cry of afflicted people.

UST

²⁸ They mistreated poor people; those poor people cried out to God for help, and he heard them.

Job 34:29

When he stays silent, who can condemn him? If he hides his face, who can perceive him?

These two questions speak of God not punishing wicked people as if he were being silent and hiding his face. (See: Metaphor)

When he stays silent, who can condemn him?

Elihu uses this rhetorical question to teach Job. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can criticize God if he decides to remain silent" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 35

Job 35 General Notes

Structure and formatting

According to Elihu, instead of being punished for his sins, Job is sinning in the midst of these difficulties. This is the third of Elihu's four statements and it is addressed first to Job's friends and then to Job. (See: sin, sinful, sinner, sinning and testimony, testify, witness, eyewitness, evidence)

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. Elihu uses many of Job's statements against him.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Elihu uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Job. These questions help to build Elihu's argument. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Ironic situation

Elihu explains the irony of Job's claim. He claimed to be righteous and desired Yahweh to intervene. In this chapter, Elihu explains to Job that his claims of righteousness are prideful. This makes him unrighteous. (See: Irony and righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness)

Job 35:1

Job 35:2Do you think this is just...‘My right before God’?

Elihu uses questions to challenge Job. Alternate translation: “You must think you are right...‘My right before God.’” or “It is not just...‘My right before God.’” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Do you think this is just when you say

Alternate translation: “Do you think it is right for you to say”

Do you think

Here “you” is singular and refers to Job. (See: Forms of You)

My right before God

This could mean: (1) Job is claiming to be innocent before God or (2) Job is claiming that he, rather than God, is right.

ULT

² “Do you think this is just when you say, ‘My right before God?’

UST

² “Job, do you really think that you have done nothing wrong? You say, ‘God knows that I am innocent,’

Job 35:3

For you ask, 'What use is it to me?' and, 'Would I be better off if I had sinned?'

Elihu quotes Job as saying the these two rhetorical questions.
Alternate translation: "For you say, 'It does not benefit me' and, 'I am no better off than if I had sinned.'" (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

³ For you ask, 'What use is it to me?' and, 'Would I be better off if I had sinned?'

Job 35:6Connecting Statement:

Elihu continues speaking.

If you have sinned ... what do you do to him?

These two lines share similar meanings. The second line intensifies the meaning of the first line. (See: Parallelism)

If you have sinned, what harm do you do to God?

Elihu asks this question to emphasize that Job's sins cannot actually do anything to God. Alternate translation: "If you have sinned, you have not done any harm to God." (See: Rhetorical Question)

If your transgressions pile up high, what do you do to him?

Elihu speaks of "transgressions" as if they were objects, and of committing many transgressions as if it were piling those objects one on top of the other. He asks this question to emphasize that Job does nothing to God by his transgressions. Alternate translation: "If you committed a great many transgressions, you still do nothing to him." Job 35:7If you are righteous, what can you give to him? What will he receive from your hand?

The two rhetorical questions mean basically the same thing, that Job's righteousness adds nothing to God. Alternate translation: "If you are righteous, that does not enable you to give anything to him, and there is nothing that he will receive from your hand." (See: Rhetorical Question and Parallelism)

¹² There they cry out, but God gives no answer because of the pride of evil men.

UST

¹² People cry out for help, but God does not answer them because those who cry out are proud and evil people.

Job 35:13

(There are no notes for this verse.)

ULT

¹³ God will certainly not hear a foolish cry; the Almighty will pay no attention to it.

UST

¹³ It is useless for them to cry out because God, the Almighty One, does not pay any attention to what they say.

Job 35:14

How much less will he answer you ... that you are waiting for him!

Since God will not hear the prayers of prideful, evil men, it is even less likely that he will hear Job, who is complaining against him.
Alternate translation: "So he certainly will not answer you ... that you are waiting for him!" (See: Exclamations) that your case is before him

Alternate translation: "you have presented your case to him"

you are waiting for him

Alternate translation: "you are waiting for him to respond"

ULT

¹⁴ How much less will he answer you if you say that you do not see him, that your case is before him, and that you are waiting for him!

UST

¹⁴ So when you complain that you cannot see God, and you tell him that you are waiting for him to decide whether or not you have done wrong, he will not listen to you, either!

Job 35:15

Now you say that his anger does not punish, and he does not take even a litte notice of transgression

Because Job is saying these things about God that are untrue, it is even less likely that God will answer Job's prayers.

his anger does not punish

Here "his anger" is a metonym for "him." Alternate translation: "he never punishes anyone because he is angry" (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- does...punish
- and he does...take...a litte notice

Translation Words - UST

- pay attention
- and punish them

ULT

¹⁵ Now you say that his anger does not punish, and he does not take even a litte notice of transgression.

UST

¹⁵ Furthermore, you say that because he does not pay attention when people commit sins, he does not become angry and punish them.

Job 35:16

he piles up words without knowledge

Elihu speaks of “words” as if they were objects, and of speaking many words as if it were piling those objects one on top of the other. The word “knowledge” can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: “he speaks many words without knowing what he is talking about” (See: Metaphor and Abstract Nouns)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's justice

This chapter focuses on the justice of Yahweh. It is important to remember that justice won't always come in this life. (See: just, justice, unjust, injustice, justify, justification)

Job 36:1

(There are no notes for this verse.)

¹ Elihu continued on and said,

UST

¹ Elihu finished speaking by saying this:

Job 36:2

I will show you some things

Elihu speaks of explaining things to Job as if he were going to show those things to Job. Alternate translation: "I will explain some things to you" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

² "Permit me to speak a little longer, and I will show you some things because I have a little more to say in defense of God.

UST

² "Job, be patient with me a little longer because I have something else to teach you. I have something else to say in order to prove that God does no wrong.

Job 36:3

I will obtain my knowledge from far off

Elihu speaks of having knowledge of many different subjects as if it were getting his knowledge from far away places. Alternate translation: "I will show you my great knowledge" (See: Metaphor) that righteousness belongs to my Maker

Here the word "righteousness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "that my Maker is righteous" (See: Abstract Nouns)

ULT

³ I will obtain my knowledge from far off; I will acknowledge that righteousness belongs to my Maker.

UST

³ I will tell you what I have learned from many sources, in order to show that God, my creator, is just.

Job 36:4my words will not be false

Alternate translation: "what I say will not be false" someone who is mature in knowledge is with you

The word "someone" refers to Elihu himself. He speaks of being very knowledgeable as if it were being mature in knowledge. Alternate translation: "I, who am with you, am very knowledgeable" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- indeed

Translation Words - UST

- I, who am standing in front of you

ULT

⁴ For indeed, my words will not be false; someone who is mature in knowledge is with you.

UST

⁴ I will not say anything to you that is false; I, who am standing in front of you, am someone who understands things very well.

Job 36:5

See

Alternate translation: "Look" or "Listen" or "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you"

he is mighty in strength of understanding

The phrase "mighty in strength" forms a doublet that means "very strong." Elihu speaks of God understanding everything perfectly as if his understanding were very strong. Alternate translation: "he is very strong in understanding" or "he understands everything completely" (See: Doublet and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- in strength
- of understanding

Translation Words - UST

- powerful
- and he understands everything

ULT

⁵ See, God is mighty, and despises no one; he is mighty in strength of understanding.

UST

⁵ Really, God is very powerful, and he does not despise anyone, and he understands everything.

Job 36:6

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- preserve the life
- but instead does what is right

Translation Words - UST

- to remain alive
- contrary to what you have claimed

ULT

⁶ He does not preserve the life of wicked people but instead does what is right for those who suffer.

UST

⁶ He does not allow wicked people to remain alive—contrary to what you have claimed, and he always acts justly toward those who are suffering.

Job 36:7He does not withdraw his eyes from righteous people

Elihu speaks of God protecting righteous people as if God were watching them with his eyes, and of God ceasing to protect them as if he withdrew his eyes from them. Alternate translation: “He does not stop protecting the righteous people” (See: Metaphor) sets them on thrones like kings

Elihu speaks of God honoring the righteous people as if God were causing them to sit on thrones like kings do. (See: Metaphor)

they are lifted up

Elihu speaks of God honoring the righteous people as if he lifted them up to a high place. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “he lifts them up” or “he honors them” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- like kings

Translation Words - UST

- kings

ULT

⁷ He does not withdraw his eyes from righteous people but instead sets them on thrones like kings forever, and they are lifted up.

UST

⁷ He always watches over those who are righteous; he makes them prosper, as if they were kings, and he causes others to honor them forever.

Job 36:8

If they are bound in chains

Here the word “they” refers righteous people whom God will discipline if they sin. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: “If someone binds them in chains” or “If someone makes them a prisoner” (See: Active or Passive) trapped in cords of suffering

Elihu speaks of a person being made to suffer as if that person were trapped in ropes that cause suffering. Alternate translation: “someone causes them to suffer” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- they are bound
- of suffering

Translation Words - UST

- or if they suffer
- in prison

ULT

⁸ If they are bound in chains and trapped in cords of suffering,

UST

⁸ However, if people who commit crimes are caught, or if they suffer in prison for having done wrong,

Job 36:9

their transgressions and their pride

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase. Alternate translation: "he reveals to them their transgressions and their pride" (See: Ellipsis)

Translation Words - ULT

- what they have done

Translation Words - UST

- they have done

ULT

⁹ then he reveals to them what they have done, and their transgressions and their pride.

UST

⁹ then God shows them what they have done; he shows them the sins that they have committed, and he shows them that they have been arrogant.

Job 36:10

He also opens their ears

Elihu speaks of causing a person to listen as if it were opening that person's ear. Alternate translation: "He also causes them to listen" (See: Metaphor) to his instruction

The noun "instruction" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "to what he is instructing them" (See: Abstract Nouns) to turn back from iniquity

Elihu speaks of stopping an action as if it were turning back from it. Alternate translation: "to stop committing iniquity" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- back

Translation Words - UST

- turn away

ULT

10 He also opens their ears to his instruction, and commands them to turn back from iniquity.

UST

10 He causes them to listen to what he is warning them, and he commands them to turn away from doing what is evil.

Job 36:11

they will spend their days in prosperity, their years in contentment

The words “days” and “years” both refer to the person’s lifetime.
Alternate translation: “they will spend their lives in prosperity and contentment” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- they will spend

Translation Words - UST

- and serve him, they

ULT

¹¹ If they listen to him and worship him, they will spend their days in prosperity, their years in contentment.

UST

¹¹ If they listen to him and serve him, they will prosper and be happy for all the years that they continue to live.

Job 36:12

they will perish by the sword

Elihu speaks of a person dying violently as if someone had killed them with a sword. Alternate translation: “they will die a violent death” (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹² However, if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword; they will die because they have no knowledge.

UST

¹² But if they do not listen to him, they will die violently because they understand nothing about God and what he wants them to do.

Job 36:13

who are godless in heart

Here the word "heart" refers to the thoughts and emotions. The phrase may indicate that the person stubbornly refuses to trust God. Alternate translation: "who refuse to trust in God" (See: Metonymy) store up their anger

Elihu speaks of a person remaining angry as if that person stored up their anger like one would store up treasure. Alternate translation: "are always angry" (See: Metaphor)

even when God ties them up

Elihu speaks of God disciplining people as if God were tying them up with ropes. Alternate translation: "even when God punishes them" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- in heart
- even when God ties them up

Translation Words - UST

- People
- God is punishing them

ULT

¹³ Those who are godless in heart store up their anger; they do not cry out for help even when God ties them up.

UST

¹³ People who fail to honor God continue being angry, and they do not cry out for help even when God is punishing them.

Job 36:14

their lives end among the cultic prostitutes

Here “cultic prostitutes” refers to young men who served in pagan temples performing sexually immoral acts as part of their rituals. This phrase could mean: (1) the godless die because of their immoral behavior or (2) the godless die in shame and disgrace.

Translation Words - ULT

- their

Translation Words - UST

- they are

ULT

¹⁴ They die in their youth; their lives end among the cultic prostitutes.

UST

¹⁴ They die while they are still young, disgraced because of their immoral behavior.

Job 36:15

he opens their ears

Elihu speaks of God causing a person to listen as if God were opening their ears. See how you translated this in Job 36:10. Alternate translation: “he causes them to listen” (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹⁵ God rescues afflicted people by means of their afflictions; he opens their ears by means of their oppression.

UST

¹⁵ God actually rescues people by causing them to suffer; by afflicting them, he causes them to listen to what he is telling them.

Job 36:16into a broad place where there is no hardship

Elihu speaks of living without trouble as if it were being in a wide-open space where there were no hardships. (See: Metaphor) where your table would be set with food full of fatness

Elihu speaks of living prosperously as if it were having one's table filled with the best foods. (See: Metaphor) your table would be set

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "your servants would set your table" (See: Active or Passive)

food full of fatness

Meat that had plenty of fat on it was a sign of prosperity because the animals were healthy and well-fed. Alternate translation: "the very best food" (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- into

Translation Words - UST

- out of your troubles

ULT

16 Indeed, he would like to draw you out of distress into a broad place where there is no hardship and where your table would be set with food full of fatness.

UST

16 Job, I think that God wants to bring you out of your troubles and allow you to live without distress; he wants your table to be full of very nice food.

Job 36:17you are full of judgment on wicked people

This could mean: (1) "God is punishing you as he would punish the wicked" or (2) "you are obsessed with the judgment that the wicked deserve."

judgment and justice have laid hold of you

Elihu speaks of God judging Job and giving him justice as if judgment and justice were people that have laid hold of Job. Alternate translation: "God has brought you to judgment and given you justice" (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

- of judgment
- and justice

Translation Words - UST

- However, now he is punishing you as he would punish the wicked
- God has judged

ULT

¹⁷ But you are full of judgment on wicked people; judgment and justice have laid hold of you.

UST

¹⁷ However, now he is punishing you as he would punish the wicked; God has judged you very rightly.

Job 36:18

Do not let your anger entice you to mockery

Some versions of the Bible translate this as "Beware that you are not enticed by wealth."

Translation Words - ULT

- your anger

Translation Words - UST

- anger

ULT

¹⁸ Do not let your anger entice you to mockery, or the greatness of a ransom to turn you aside.

UST

¹⁸ Do not let your anger give you an excuse to mock other people, and do not let a large amount of money paid as a bribe compel you to ruin your life.

Job 36:19

Can your wealth benefit you, so that you will not be in distress, or can all the force of your strength help you?

Elihu asks these questions to state that money and power will not be able to help Job if he acts unjustly. Alternate translation: "Your wealth cannot cause you to no longer be in distress, and all the force of your strength cannot help you." (See: Rhetorical Question) all the force of your strength

Alternate translation: "all of your great strength" or "all of your mighty efforts"

Translation Words - ULT

- the force of your strength help you

Translation Words - UST

- none of your strength

ULT

¹⁹ Can your wealth benefit you, so that you will not be in distress, or can all the force of your strength help you?

UST

¹⁹ If that happens, it certainly will not help you to cry out when you are distressed; none of your strength will help you in that case.

Job 36:20

when peoples are cut off in their place

This could mean: (1) that “peoples” refers to people in general and “cut off in their place” is a metaphor for oppressing others by dragging them away from their homes. Alternate translation: “when people drag others away from their homes” or (2) that “peoples” represents nations and “cut off in their place” is a metaphor for nations being destroyed. Alternate translation: “when nations will perish” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

Translation Words - UST

- people groups are destroyed

ULT

20 Do not desire the night, to commit sin against others, when peoples are cut off in their place.

UST

20 Do not wish that it would be nighttime in order that you might mistreat others without anyone knowing it; night is the time when even entire people groups are destroyed!

Job 36:21

you are being tested by suffering

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God is testing you by making you suffer" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- Be careful

Translation Words - UST

- Be careful

ULT

²¹ Be careful that you do not turn to sin because you are being tested by suffering so that you will stay away from sinning.

UST

²¹ Be careful not to begin doing evil deeds, because God has caused you to suffer to prevent you from doing evil.

Job 36:22

See, God

Alternate translation: "You know this already: God"

God is exalted in his power

This could mean: (1) "God is extremely powerful" or (2) "people exalt God because he is powerful" who is a teacher like him?

⁶ For he says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth'; likewise to the rain shower, 'Become a great shower of rain.'

UST

⁶ He commands the snow to fall on the ground, and often he makes it rain very hard.

Job 37:7

He stops the hand of every man

Here the word "hand" represents the entire person. Alternate translation: "He stops every man" (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- He stops the hand
- man

Translation Words - UST

- When God does that, it
- people

ULT

⁷ He stops the hand of every man from working, so that all people whom he has made may see his deeds.

UST

⁷ When God does that, it prevents people from working, in order that all people may know that he is the one who does these things.

Job 37:8

(There are no notes for this verse.)

ULT

⁸ Then the beasts go into hiding and stay in their dens.

UST

⁸ When it rains, the animals go into their hiding places, and they stay there until the rain stops.

Job 37:9

The storm comes from its chamber in the south and the cold from the scattering winds in the north

In Israel, strong wind storms blow in from the south and cold weather approaches from the north. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

The storm comes from its chamber in the south

Elihu speaks of the storm blowing in from the south as if the storm has a place where it resides until it comes. (See: Metaphor)

ULT

⁹ The storm comes from its chamber in the south and the cold from the scattering winds in the north.

UST

⁹ The storms come from the place in the south where they start, and the cold winds come from the north.

Job 37:10

By the breath of God ice is given

Elihu speaks of the cold north wind as if it were God's breath. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "God's breath makes ice" (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive) frozen like metal

Elihu compares the hardness of ice to the hardness of metal. Alternate translation: "frozen, as hard as metal" (See: Simile)

ULT

¹⁰ By the breath of God ice is given; the expanse of the waters is frozen like metal.

UST

¹⁰ In the winter water freezes when he commands it, and the lakes become ice.

Job 37:11

he weighs down the thick cloud with moisture

Elihu speaks of God causing the storm clouds to be full of water as if the moisture weighed heavily on the clouds. Alternate translation: “he causes the thick clouds to be full of moisture” (See: Metaphor)

ULT

11 Indeed, he weighs down the thick cloud with moisture; he scatters his lightning through the clouds.

UST

11 God fills the clouds with moisture, and lightning flashes everywhere from the clouds.

Job 37:12

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- he commands them
- surface
- of the whole world

Translation Words - UST

- command, commandment
- earth, land
- face, facial

ULT

¹² He swirls the clouds around by his guidance, so that they may do whatever he commands them above the surface of the whole world.

UST

¹² He guides the clouds and causes them to move back and forth in order that they may accomplish all that he commands them to do all over the world.

Job 37:13

sometimes it happens for correction

The word “correction” can be translated with a verbal phrase. The object of his “correction” is people. Alternate translation: “sometimes it happens to correct his people” (See: Abstract Nouns and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

sometimes for his land

This means that the rain waters the ground and causes vegetation to grow. Alternate translation: “sometimes to water the land” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) sometimes as acts of covenant faithfulness

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word faithfulness, you could express the same idea with a verbal form such as “faithful” or “faithfully.” Alternate translation: “sometimes to act faithfully to his covenant” or “sometimes to be faithful to his people” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- sometimes it happens for correction

Translation Words - UST

- Sometimes God sends rain to punish us

ULT

¹³ He makes all of this happen; sometimes it happens for correction, sometimes for his land, and sometimes as acts of covenant faithfulness.

UST

¹³ Sometimes God sends rain to punish us, sometimes to water the land that he has made, and sometimes because he wants to be very kind to us.

Job 37:14

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- Job
- stop
- marvelous deeds

Translation Words - UST

- Job
- stop
- wonderful things that God does

ULT

¹⁴ Listen to this, Job; stop and think about God's marvelous deeds.

UST

¹⁴ Job, listen to this; stop and think about the wonderful things that God does.

Job 37:15

Do you know how God establishes the clouds and makes the lightning bolts to flash in them?

Elihu asks this question to emphasize that Job cannot know this. Alternate translation: "You cannot understand how God establishes the clouds and makes the lightning bolts to flash in them." (See: Rhetorical Question) establishes the clouds

Alternate translation: "controls the clouds" or "makes the clouds obey him"

Translation Words - ULT

- how God

Translation Words - UST

- how God commands

ULT

¹⁵ Do you know how God establishes the clouds and makes the lightning bolts to flash in them?

UST

¹⁵ Do you know how God commands the lightning to flash down from his clouds?

Job 37:16

Do you understand the floating of the clouds, the marvelous deeds of God, who is perfect in knowledge?

Elihu asks this question to emphasize that Job does not know these things. Alternate translation: “You do not understand the floating of the clouds, the marvelous deeds of God, who is perfect in knowledge.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

the floating of the clouds

Alternate translation: “how the clouds float”

the marvelous deeds of God

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase. Alternate translation: “or do you understand the marvelous deeds of God” or “and you do not understand the marvelous deeds of God” (See: Ellipsis)

ULT

¹⁶ Do you understand the floating of the clouds, the marvelous deeds of God, who is perfect in knowledge?

UST

¹⁶ Do you know how God decides where to place the clouds in the sky? Can you understand all the wonderful things that God does, and how he knows everything and he knows them completely?

Job 37:17Do you understand how your garments become hot ... from the south?

Elihu asks this question to emphasize that Job does not know these things. Alternate translation: "You do not understand how your garments become hot ... from the south." (See: Rhetorical Question) how your garments become hot

Alternate translation: "how you become hot in your clothes" or "how you sweat in your clothes"

because the wind comes from the south

In Israel, hot winds blow in across the desert from the south and cause hot temperatures. Alternate translation: "because of the hot, dry wind blowing in from the south" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- when the land

Translation Words - UST

- wind comes from the

ULT

¹⁷ Do you understand how your garments become hot when the land is still because the wind comes from the south?

UST

¹⁷ No, you just sweat there in your hot clothing because even the clothes you wear become very hot. Your clothing becomes hot because the heat builds up when the wind comes from the south.

Job 37:18Can you spread out the sky ... a mirror of cast metal?

Elihu asks this question to emphasize that Job cannot do this.
 Alternate translation: "You cannot spread out the sky ... a mirror of cast metal." (See: Rhetorical Question) as strong as a mirror of cast metal

In biblical days, mirrors were made of metal. Elihu speaks of the sky giving no rain as if it were as hard as solid metal. (See: Metaphor) cast metal

This refers to metal that is melted, poured into a mold, and then hardens as it cools.

Translation Words - ULT

- as he can— the sky, which is as strong

Translation Words - UST

- as hard as

ULT

¹⁸ Can you spread out the sky as he can — the sky, which is as strong as a mirror of cast metal?

UST

¹⁸ Can you stretch out the skies like God does and make them as hard as a metal mirror?

Job 37:19

Teach us what we should say to him

Here the words “us” and “we” refer to Elihu, Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar, but not to Job. Elihu uses this phrase sarcastically. (See: Exclusive and Inclusive ‘We’) because of the darkness of our minds

Elihu speaks of the inability to understand as if it were having darkness in one’s mind. Alternate translation: “because we do not understand” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- Teach us
- the darkness of our minds

Translation Words - UST

- Job...know so much
- know anything about how we should defend ourselves

ULT

¹⁹ Teach us what we should say to him, for we cannot lay out our arguments in order because of the darkness of our minds.

UST

¹⁹ Job, you know so much! So tell us what we should say to God; we do not know anything about how we should defend ourselves.

Job 37:20

Should he be told that I wish to speak with him?

Elihu asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one can do this. Alternate translation: "I cannot have someone tell him that I wish to speak with him." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Should he be told

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "Should I have someone tell him" (See: Active or Passive)

Would a person wish to be swallowed up?

Elihu asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one would want this to happen. Alternate translation: "No person would want to be swallowed up." (See: Rhetorical Question) to be swallowed up

Elihu speaks of a person being destroyed as if the person were swallowed up. If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "for God to destroy him" (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

ULT

²⁰ Should he be told that I wish to speak with him? Would a person wish to be swallowed up?

UST

²⁰ Should I ask someone to tell God that I want to speak to him? No, because if I did that, he might destroy me.

Job 37:21

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- after the wind
- and has cleared it of its clouds

Translation Words - UST

- after the wind
- likewise we certainly cannot look at...brightness of God

ULT

²¹ Now, people cannot look at the sun when it is bright in the sky after the wind has passed through and has cleared it of its clouds.

UST

²¹ You know that people cannot look directly at the sun when it shines brightly in the sky after the wind has blown the clouds away; likewise we certainly cannot look at the brightness of God.

Job 37:22over God is fearsome majesty

The word “fearsome” means that it causes fear. Elihu speaks of God's majesty as if it were something that rests upon God. Alternate translation: “God's majesty causes people to fear” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- golden splendor
- God
- is fearsome

Translation Words - UST

- God
- with a light that shines like gold
- be afraid

ULT

²² Out of the north comes golden splendor— over God is fearsome majesty.

UST

²² God comes out of the north with a light that shines like gold; his glory causes us to be afraid.

Job 37:23

we cannot find him

This could mean: (1) “we cannot approach him” or (2) this is a metaphor in which Elihu speaks of a person’s being unable to fully understand God as if he could not find God. Alternate translation: “we cannot comprehend him” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- As for the Almighty
- in power
- oppress justice

Translation Words - UST

- Almighty God
- power
- He always acts

ULT

²³ As for the Almighty, we cannot find him! He is great in power; he does not oppress justice and abundant righteousness.

UST

²³ Almighty God has very great power, and we do not know how to go near to him. He always acts righteously, and he will never mistreat us.

Job 37:24those who are wise in their own minds

Here “minds” represents the person’s thoughts. Alternate translation: “those who are wise in their own thinking” or “those who consider themselves to be wise” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- fear him
- to those who are wise
- in their own minds

Translation Words - UST

- That is the reason that we have an awesome respect
- to those who proudly, but wrongly, think
- are wise

ULT

²⁴ Therefore, people fear him. He does not pay any attention to those who are wise in their own minds.”

UST

²⁴ That is the reason that we have an awesome respect for him; he does not pay attention to those who proudly, but wrongly, think that they are wise.”

Job 38

Job 38 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. Yahweh finally speaks in this chapter.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's greatness

Yahweh is far greater than any man. He is the creator of the earth, and his ways will not always be understood by men because their knowledge is always limited.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Yahweh uses a series of rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to defend his character. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Job 38:1Then Yahweh called

Here, the word “then” marks the beginning of a new part of the book. See if your language has a similar way to introduce a new scene. Alternate translation: “After all that had happened, Yahweh called.”

called to Job

Alternate translation: “answered Job” or “responded to Job”

out of a fierce storm

Alternate translation: “from a powerful storm”

Translation Words - ULT

- Yahweh
- Job

Translation Words - UST

- Yahweh
- spoke to Job

ULT

¹ Then Yahweh called to Job out of a fierce storm and said,

UST

¹ Then Yahweh spoke to Job from inside a powerful storm. He said to him,

Job 38:2Who is this who brings darkness to plans by means of words without knowledge?

Yahweh uses this question to emphasize that Job spoke of things he did not know about. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You bring darkness to my plans by means of words without knowledge." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Who is this who brings

Alternate translation: "Who are you to bring"

brings darkness to plans

"obscures my plans" or "confuses my purposes." How Job confuses God's plans is spoken of as if he were making God's plans harder to see. If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word darkness, you could express the same idea with a verbal form such as "darkens." Alternate translation: "darkens plans" or "makes plans hard to see" (See: Metaphor and Abstract Nouns)

by means of words without knowledge

Alternate translation: "by speaking of things about which you do not know" words without knowledge

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word knowledge, you could express the same idea with an adjective. Alternate translation: "unknowing words" or "ignorant words" (See: Abstract Nouns)

ULT

² "Who is this who brings darkness to plans by means of words without knowledge?"

UST

² "Who are you to bring confusion to what I plan to do? You are speaking ignorantly!"

Job 38:3

gird up your loins like a man

“tie your robe up around your waist like a man.” Men tied up their robes around their waists so that their legs could move more freely as they did heavy work. The idiom “gird up your loins like a man” means to get ready to do something involving action such as work, a contest, or a battle. Job was to prepare for the hard work of answering God. Alternate translation: “get yourself ready for hard work” (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- you questions, and you must answer me

Translation Words - UST

- I want

ULT

³ Now gird up your loins like a man for I will ask you questions, and you must answer me.

UST

³ I want to ask you some questions, so act like a man and get ready to answer my questions.

Job 38:4

General Information:

Yahweh begins to challenge Job with a series of questions that emphasize he created the earth and Job did not. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Where were you when I laid the earth's foundations? Tell me, if you have so much understanding

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "Tell me where you were when I laid the foundations of the earth, if you have so much understanding" (See: Rhetorical Question)

I laid the earth's foundations

Yahweh describes creating the earth as though he was building a structure. (See: Metaphor)

if you have so much understanding

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word understanding, you could express the same idea with a verbal form such as "understand." Alternate translation: "if you understand so much" (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- you when I laid
- the earth's foundations
- you have so much

Translation Words - UST

- you when I started to create
- the earth
- know so much

ULT

⁴ Where were you when I laid the earth's foundations? Tell me, if you have so much understanding.

UST

⁴ Where were you when I started to create the earth? Since you know so much, tell me where you were at that time.

Job 38:5Who determined its dimensions? Tell me, if you know

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "Tell me who determined its dimensions, if you know" (See: Rhetorical Question)

dimensions

Alternate translation: "size"

Who stretched the measuring line over it?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "Tell me who stretched the measuring line over it." (See: Rhetorical Question)

measuring line

a rope or cord that people use to make something the right size and shape

Translation Words - ULT

- you know

Translation Words - UST

- you know so much

ULT

⁵ Who determined its dimensions? Tell me, if you know. Who stretched the measuring line over it?

UST

⁵ If it was not I who decided how large the earth would be, then who decided? Do you know who stretched a line around the earth to measure it? Since you think that you know so much, you should surely know that!

Job 38:6

General Information:

The word “its” refers to the earth. Yahweh uses more questions to emphasize that Job could never understand how great God is. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

On what were its foundations laid?

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “On what did I set its foundations?” or “Tell me on what its foundations were laid.” (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)

Who laid its cornerstone

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “Tell me who laid its cornerstone” (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

⁶ On what were its foundations laid?
Who laid its cornerstone

UST

⁶⁻⁷ What supports the pillars on which the earth rests? When the stars that shine early in the morning sang together, and someone put in place the stone that causes the earth to stay in its place, and all the angels shouted joyfully when they saw that happen, who laid that cornerstone?

Job 38:7

Job finishes the rhetorical question that begins with the words “Who laid its cornerstone” in verse 6. (See: Rhetorical Question) when the morning stars ... the sons of God shouted for joy?

Job finishes the rhetorical question that begins with the words “Who laid its cornerstone” in verse 6. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. “Tell me who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars ... the sons of God shouted for joy.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

⁷ when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

UST

⁷ when the morning stars sang together

The morning stars are spoken of as singing like people sing. Possible meanings are: (1) the “morning stars” are the same as the “sons of God” in the next line or (2) “the morning stars” refer to stars in the sky. (See: Personification)

the morning stars

Alternate translation: “the bright stars that shine in the morning”

sons of God

This refers to angels, heavenly beings. See how you translated this in Job 1:6.

shouted for joy

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word joy, you could express the same idea with the adverb “joyfully.” Alternate translation: “shouted joyfully” (See: Abstract Nouns)

for joy

Alternate translation: “because they were full of joy”

Job 38:8

General Information:

Yahweh uses another question to emphasize that he created the earth and Job did not. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Who shut up the sea ... of the womb

This can be translated as a command. Alternate translation: "Tell me who shut up the sea ... of the womb" (See: Rhetorical Question) shut up the sea with doors

Yahweh compares the way that he prevented the sea from covering all of the earth to holding it back with doors. Alternate translation: "prevented the water from flooding over the land" (See: Metaphor) as if it had come out of the womb

Yahweh compares his creation of the sea to childbirth. (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- out

Translation Words - UST

- poured out from

ULT

⁸ Who shut up the sea with doors when it burst out, as if it had come out of the womb—

UST

⁸ When the seas poured out from under the earth, who prevented the water from flooding over the land?

Job 38:9

This is the end of the rhetorical question that begins with the words “Who shut up” in verse 8. (See: Rhetorical Question) when I made clouds ... and thick darkness its swaddling bands?

This can be translated as a command. Alternate translation: “Tell me who shut up ... when I made clouds ... and thick darkness its swaddling bands.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

its clothing

Alternate translation: “as clothes for the sea” thick darkness its swaddling bands

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word darkness, you could express the same idea with the adjective “dark.” Alternate translation: “made dark clouds its swaddling bands” (See: Abstract Nouns)

swaddling bands

long pieces of cloth that people use to wrap a baby in after it is born

Translation Words - ULT

- its clothing
- and thick darkness

Translation Words - UST

- to come over the seas
- very dark under those clouds

ULT

⁹ when I made clouds its clothing, and thick darkness its swaddling bands?

UST

⁹ It was I, not you, who caused clouds to come over the seas and caused it to become very dark under those clouds.

Job 38:10I marked out for the sea my boundary

Alternate translation: "I made a boundary for the sea"

boundary

Yahweh set a limit beyond which the sea was not allowed to cross.

I placed its bars and doors

Yahweh compares the way that he made a boundary for the sea to containing the sea with bars and doors. Alternate translation: "I set up its barriers" (See: Metaphor) bars

long pieces of wood or metal that are used to keep a door shut

Translation Words - ULT

- my boundary
- and when I placed

Translation Words - UST

- and I put
- barriers so that the water

ULT

¹⁰ That was when I marked out for the sea my boundary, and when I placed its bars and doors,

UST

¹⁰ I set limits for the seas, and I put barriers so that the water would not come over the land.

Job 38:11

when I said to it

“when I said to the sea.” Yahweh speaks to the sea as though it were a person. (See: Personification)

You may come this far, but no farther

The words “this far” mean only as far as the boundary that Yahweh set up. Alternate translation: “You may come as far as this boundary, but no farther” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) to the pride of your waves

“to the power of your waves.” The waves are spoken of as if they could have pride. If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word pride, you could express the same idea with the adjective “proud.” Alternate translation: “to your proud waves” or “to your powerful waves” (See: Personification and Abstract Nouns)

ULT

11 and when I said to it, ‘You may come this far, but no farther; here is where I will put a boundary to the pride of your waves.’

UST

11 I pointed to the shore and said to the water, ‘I permit you to come up to here, but I do not permit you to come any farther. Your powerful waves must stop here!’

Job 38:12

General Information:

Yahweh uses a question to emphasize that he created the light of day and Job did not. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Yahweh continues to challenge Job. He begins to ask a rhetorical question. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Have you ... to know its place

This question expects a negative answer. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You have never ... shaken the wicked out of it." (See: Rhetorical Question) given orders to the morning

Yahweh describes the morning as being able to receive orders and know things like a person. (See: Personification) caused the dawn to know its place

Alternate translation: "caused the dawn to know where it belongs" dawn

the daylight that appears in the morning sky before the sun rises

Translation Words - ULT

- given orders
- to know

Translation Words - UST

- Job, have you ever commanded
- Have you ever told

ULT

¹² Have you given orders to the morning, or caused the dawn to know its place,

UST

¹² Job, have you ever commanded the morning to begin? Have you ever told the sun to start rising and begin a new day?

Job 38:13

Connecting Statement:

This is the end of the rhetorical question that begins with the words "Have you given" in verse 12.

so that it might take hold ... shake the wicked out of it?

This is the end of the rhetorical question that begins with the words "Have you given" in verse 12. This question expects a negative answer. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. "You have never given ... so that it might take hold ... shaken the wicked out of it." (See: Rhetorical Question) take hold of the edges of the earth

The light of dawn is spoken of as if it seizes the horizons of the earth. Alternate translation: "grasp the ends of the earth" (See: Metaphor and Personification) shake the wicked out of it

The daylight is pictured as causing wicked people to leave like shaking something to remove unwanted things. Alternate translation: "shake wicked people out of the earth" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- of the earth

Translation Words - UST

- the whole earth

ULT

¹³ so that it might take hold of the edges of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?

UST

¹³ Have you ever told the dawn to spread out over the whole earth with the result that wicked people run away from the light?

Job 38:14The earth is changed in appearance like clay changes under a seal

At nighttime, people cannot see clearly, but in the morning the light reveals the distinct shape of everything, just like a seal creates distinct images in clay. (See: Simile) all things on it stand out clearly like the folds of a piece of clothing

Here “it” refers to the earth. This phrase has a similar meaning to the first phrase in this verse. (See: Simile and Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- like the folds of a piece of clothing

Translation Words - UST

- in a cloth

ULT

¹⁴ The earth is changed in appearance like clay changes under a seal; all things on it stand out clearly like the folds of a piece of clothing.

UST

¹⁴ When it becomes light after the dawn, the hills and the valleys become clear like a seal gives an image to the clay under it, or like the folds in a cloth.

Job 38:15

From wicked people their 'light' is taken away

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: "The morning takes away the 'light' of wicked people" (See: Active or Passive) their 'light'

The wicked consider darkness to be their light, because they do their evil deeds in the darkness and they are familiar with the darkness. (See: Irony) their uplifted arm is broken

The raised arm of the wicked represents their power and intention to do evil things, but the wicked stop doing those evil things when the morning light comes. (See: Metaphor)

ULT

¹⁵ From wicked people their 'light' is taken away; their uplifted arm is broken.

UST

¹⁵ When it becomes daylight, the wicked do not have the darkness that they like; in the daylight they no longer are able to hurt anyone.

Job 38:16

General Information:

Yahweh uses five questions to emphasize that he understands the earth and seas and Job does not. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Have you gone to the sources of the waters of the sea?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You have not gone to the sources of the waters of the sea." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Have you walked in the lowest parts of the deep?

Job 38:19

General Information:

Yahweh uses three questions to emphasize that he understands light and darkness and Job does not. Each of these verses have two parallel phrases. (See: Rhetorical Question and Parallelism)

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Where is the way to the resting place of light —as for darkness, where is its place?

This question can be expressed as a statement. Alternate translation: “You do not know the way to the resting place of light or the place of darkness.” (See: Rhetorical Question) the resting place of light

“the dwelling of light.” Light is spoken of as having a resting place from which it comes forth each day. (See: Personification)

light

Alternate translation: “daylight” or “sunlight”

ULT

19 Where is the way to the resting place of light— as for darkness, where is its place?

UST

19 Where is the road to the place where light comes from? Can you tell me where darkness lives?

Job 38:20Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work? Can you find the way back to their houses for them?

These questions expect a negative answer. They can be expressed as statements. Alternate translation: "You cannot lead light and darkness to their places of work, or find the way back to their houses for them." (See: Rhetorical Question) to their places of work

"to their territory." Light and darkness are spoken of as being led out and back each day to accomplish Yahweh's purposes. (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

- Can you find
- their houses for them

Translation Words - UST

- Do you know
- to their homes

ULT

²⁰ Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work? Can you find the way back to their houses for them?

UST

²⁰ Can you take the light and the darkness to the places where they must do their work every day? Do you know where the road is that goes back to their homes?

Job 38:21

Undoubtedly ... so large

Yahweh uses mocking irony to emphasize that Job does not understand light and darkness. Alternate translation: "It is obvious that you do not know, because you were not born when I created them, and you are not very old" (See: Irony) for you were born then

The word "then" refers to the time when light was created and separated from darkness. Alternate translation: "for you were already born when I created them" the number of your days is so large

Alternate translation: "you have lived so many years"

Translation Words - ULT

- Undoubtedly you know

Translation Words - UST

- know these things

ULT

²¹ Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then; the number of your days is so large!

UST

²¹ I am sure that you know these things because you were born before the time when all things were created; you must be very old!

Job 38:22

General Information:

Yahweh uses a question to emphasize that he rules over the natural world and Job does not. (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

41 Who provides victims for the ravens when their young ones cry out to God and stagger about for lack of food?

UST

41 Who provides dead animals for the raven, when its young are calling out to me for food, when they are so weak because of their lack of food that they stagger around in their nests?

Job 39

Job 39 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULT sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. Yahweh continues to speak in this chapter.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's greatness

Yahweh is far greater than any man. He is the creator of the earth, and his ways will not always be understood by men because their knowledge is always limited. Since Job cannot understand creation, he cannot truly understand Yahweh.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Yahweh uses a series of rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to defend his character. Many of these questions focus on nature because Yahweh is the creator of the heavens and the earth. (See: Rhetorical Question and heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly)

Job 39:1

General Information:

Yahweh uses four questions to emphasize that he is greater than Job because Yahweh takes care of the wild mountain goats and deer and Job does not. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Do you know at what time ... bear their young?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "Surely you do not know when ... bear their young!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Can you watch when the deer are having their fawns?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You are not able to watch to make sure everything goes well when the deer give birth to their fawns!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

are having their fawns

Alternate translation: "give birth to their fawns"

Translation Words - ULT

- Can you watch

Translation Words - UST

- of the year

ULT

¹ Do you know at what time the wild goats in the rocks bear their young? Can you watch when the deer are having their fawns?

UST

¹ "Job, do you know at what time of the year the female mountain goats give birth? Have you watched the wild deer while their calves were being born?"

Job 39:2Can you count the months that they gestate?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You cannot count the months that they are pregnant." (See: Rhetorical Question) that they gestate

Alternate translation: "to complete their pregnancy"

they

The word "they" refers to the goats and the deer.

gestate

Alternate translation: "are pregnant"

Do you know the time when they bear their young?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "Of course you do not know when they give birth to their young." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- Do you know

Translation Words - UST

- Do you know

ULT

² Can you count the months that they gestate? Do you know the time when they bear their young?

UST

² Do you know how many months pass from the time they become pregnant until their calves are born?

Job 39:3

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

They crouch down

The word “They” refers to the wild mountain goats and the deer.

birth their young

Alternate translation: “give birth to their offspring”

then they finish their labor pains

This could mean: (1) their labor pains are over when the birth is finished or (2) “labor pains” is a metonym that refers to the offspring of the goats and deer because they are the result of the mother’s labor and pain. Alternate translation: “send out their offspring from their womb” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- They crouch down

Translation Words - UST

- crouch down

ULT

³ They crouch down and birth their young, and then they finish their labor pains.

UST

³ When they give birth, they crouch down, and then their labor pangs are done.

Job 39:4

the open fields

Alternate translation: "the countryside" or "the wild"

do not come back again

Alternate translation: "do not come back to them" or "do not come back to their mothers"

Translation Words - ULT

- Their young ones
- go out
- come back again

Translation Words - UST

- young
- leave their mothers
- return to them again

ULT

⁴ Their young ones become strong and grow up in the open fields; they go out and do not come back again.

UST

⁴ The young calves grow up in the open fields, and then they leave their mothers and do not return to them again.

⁸ He roams over the mountains as his pastures; there he looks for every green plant to eat.

UST

⁸ They go over the hills to find food; there they search for grass to eat.

Job 39:9

General Information:

Here Yahweh uses four questions to emphasize that Job is not like Yahweh because Job cannot control the wild ox. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Will the wild ox be happy to serve you?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "The wild ox will not be happy to serve you." (See: Rhetorical Question)

the wild ox

This could mean: (1) a type of ox that used to live in the wild or (2) some kind of buffalo that looked like oxen.

be happy

Alternate translation: "be willing"

Will he consent to stay by your manger?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "He will not consent to stay by your manger." (See: Rhetorical Question) consent to stay by your manger

Alternate translation: "stay by your manger through the night" manger something that holds food so that animals can eat it

Translation Words - ULT

- serve you

Translation Words - UST

- you? Will it

ULT

⁹ Will the wild ox be happy to serve you?
Will he consent to stay by your manger?

UST

⁹ Will a wild ox agree to work for you?
Will it allow you to keep it penned up at night in the place where you put feed for your animals?

Job 39:10

Can you use ropes to hold the wild ox in the furrows?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You cannot control the wild ox with a rope in order to plow furrows in your fields." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ropes

Farmers would tie ropes to animals' heads or necks in order to lead them.

furrows

These are long channels made in the dirt while plowing. See how you translated this in Job 31:38.

Will he harrow the valleys as he follows after you?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "He will never harrow the valleys as he follows after you." (See: Rhetorical Question)

harrow to smooth and break up the soil

ULT

¹⁰ Can you use ropes to hold the wild ox in the furrows? Will he harrow the valleys as he follows after you?

UST

¹⁰ Can you fasten a rope on it so that it will plow furrows in your fields, your fields in the valley?

Job 39:11

General Information:

Here Yahweh uses three questions to continue his argument that Job is not like Yahweh because Job cannot control the wild ox. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Will you trust him because his strength is great?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You cannot trust him because his strength is great." (See: Rhetorical Question)

trust him

The word "him" refers to the "wild ox."

Will you leave your work to him to do?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You will not be able to make him do your work for you." (See: Rhetorical Question) leave your work to him to do

Alternate translation: "have him do your hard work for you"

Translation Words - ULT

- strength

Translation Words - UST

- Can you go away after you tell it what work it should do

ULT

11 Will you trust him because his strength is great? Will you leave your work to him to do?

UST

11 Since it is very strong, can you for that reason trust it to work for you? Can you go away after you tell it what work it should do and assume that it will do that work?

Job 39:12

Will you depend on him ... grain for your threshing floor?

These two clauses basically mean the same thing. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You will not be able to depend on him ... grain for your threshing floor." (See: Rhetorical Question and Parallelism)

Translation Words - ULT

- to bring your grain home
- to gather
- the grain

Translation Words - UST

- come
- back from the field
- bringing your...to the place

ULT

¹² Will you depend on him to bring your grain home, to gather the grain for your threshing floor?

UST

¹² Can you rely on it to come back from the field bringing your grain to the place where you thresh it?

Job 39:13Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

The wings of the ostrich ... pinions and plumage of love?

Yahweh uses this question to emphasize that Job cannot explain why ostriches behave the way they do. Alternate translation: "You do not know whether the pinions and plumage of the ostrich represent love when they wave their wings proudly." (See: Rhetorical Question) ostrich

a very large bird that can run very fast but cannot fly wave proudly

Alternate translation: "move with joy"

pinions

the very long feathers on the wings of birds plumage

the smaller feathers that cover the body of a bird of love

The Hebrew word is uncertain. This could mean: (1) "of faithfulness" or (2) "of a stork." The name of the stork meant "the faithful one" or "the loving one" because people knew that storks take very good care of their chicks.

ULT

¹³ The wings of the ostrich wave proudly, but are they the pinions and plumage of love?

UST

¹³ Think also about the ostriches. They joyfully flap their wings, but they have no love for their own young.

Job 39:14

on the earth

Alternate translation: "on the ground"

Translation Words - ULT

- she leaves

Translation Words - UST

- and then walk away, leaving

ULT

¹⁴ For she leaves her eggs on the earth, and she lets them keep warm in the dust;

UST

¹⁴ Ostriches lay their eggs on top of the ground and then walk away, leaving the eggs to be warmed in the sand.

Job 39:15

crush them

The word “them” refers to the eggs.

trample them

Alternate translation: “step on them”

ULT

¹⁵ she forgets that a foot might crush them or that a wild beast might trample them.

UST

¹⁵ Ostriches never think about the possibility that some wild animal may step on the eggs and crush them.

Job 39:16Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

She deals roughly

The word “She” refers to the female ostrich.

her labor

the work that she does when she lays the eggs might have been in vain

If the chicks die, all of her work was useless. Alternate translation:

“might have been useless if the chicks die” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- young ones
- she does not fear that

Translation Words - UST

- the
- concerned if their chicks die

ULT

¹⁶ She deals roughly with her young ones as if they were not hers; she does not fear that her labor might have been in vain,

UST

¹⁶ Ostriches act cruelly toward their chicks; they act as though the chicks belonged to some other ostrich. They are not concerned if their chicks die, that they may have laid their eggs for nothing.

Job 39:17

deprived her of wisdom

Alternate translation: "made her forget wisdom" or "not given her wisdom"

understanding

See how you translated this in Job 11:6.

Translation Words - ULT

- God

Translation Words - UST

- I

ULT

17 because God has deprived her of wisdom and has not given her any understanding.

UST

17 That is because I did not allow ostriches to be wise. I did not enable them to be intelligent.

Job 39:18

When she runs

This verse is in contrast to her weakness in caring for her chicks.
Alternate translation: "However, when she runs"

she laughs ... its rider

It is implied that she laughs because she is faster than the horse.
Alternate translation: "she laughs ... its rider because she can run faster than the horse" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT

18 When she runs swiftly, she laughs in scorn at the horse and its rider.

UST

18 However, when they get up and begin to run, they scornfully laugh at horses with their riders because the horses cannot run as fast as the ostriches!

Job 39:19

General Information:

Yahweh uses three questions to emphasize that Job is not like Yahweh because Job cannot control the wild horse. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Have you given the horse his strength?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You have never given the horse his strength." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Did you clothe his neck with his flowing mane?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You cannot clothe his neck with his flowing mane." (See: Rhetorical Question) clothe his neck with his flowing mane

The horse's "mane" is spoken of as if it was clothing for the neck of the horse. Alternate translation: "made his flowing main to cover his neck like clothes" (See: Metonymy) flowing mane

the long hair on the top of the neck of a horse

ULT

¹⁹ Have you given the horse his strength? Did you clothe his neck with his flowing mane?

UST

¹⁹ Also, think about horses. Job, are you the one who made the horses to be strong? Are you the one who put flowing manes on their necks?

Job 39:20

Have you ever made him jump like a locust?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You are not able to make him jump like a locust." (See: Rhetorical Question)

a locust

a large kind of grasshopper that can jump very far and very quickly snorting

a very loud sound that horses make with their nose

Translation Words - ULT

- is fearsome

Translation Words - UST

- to be afraid

ULT

²⁰ Have you ever made him jump like a locust? The majesty of his snorting is fearsome.

UST

²⁰ Are you the one who enabled them to leap forward like locusts? When they snort, they cause people to be afraid.

Job 39:21

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

He paws

The word “He” refers to the horse. The horse paws the ground because he is very excited to begin the fight. Alternate translation: “He paws with excitement and” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

paws

Alternate translation: “digs at the ground with his hooves” to meet the weapons

Here “the weapons” represent the battle in which they are used. Alternate translation: “to join in the battle” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- in his strength
- he rushes out

Translation Words - UST

- because they are very strong
- to

ULT

²¹ He paws in might and rejoices in his strength; he rushes out to meet the weapons.

UST

²¹ They paw the ground, rejoicing because they are very strong, as they prepare to rush into battle.

Job 39:22

He mocks fear

Alternate translation: "He is not afraid at all"

mocks

Alternate translation: "laughs at" dismayed discouraged

does not turn back

Alternate translation: "does not run away"

Translation Words - ULT

- and is...dismayed
- turn back
- the sword

Translation Words - UST

- at the thought of being
- afraid
- with swords

ULT

²² He mocks fear and is not dismayed; he does not turn back from the sword.

UST

²² It is as if they were laughing at the thought of being afraid. They are not afraid of anything! They do not run away when the soldiers in the battle are fighting each other with swords.

Job 39:23

quiver

a container that holds arrows rattles

shakes and makes noise flank

the side of a horse

javelin

a long stick with a sharp end that people throw at their enemies

ULT

²³ The quiver rattles against his flank, along with the flashing spear and the javelin.

UST

²³ The quivers containing the riders' arrows rattle against the horses' sides, and the spears and javelins flash in the light of the sun.

Job 39:24

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

He

The word "He" refers to the horse.

swallows up ground

The horse runs over the ground so quickly that the ground passes by like water that a person drinks. Alternate translation: "runs very fast over the ground" (See: Metaphor) with fierceness and rage

The horse is very excited, so he moves quickly and strongly.

at the trumpet's sound

It can be stated that someone blows the trumpet. Alternate translation: "when someone blows a trumpet to announce that a battle has begun" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

he cannot stand in one place

Alternate translation: "he is too excited to stand still"

Translation Words - ULT

- ground
- trumpet's
- stand in one place

Translation Words - UST

- The horses run very quickly, and they
- speedily cover the ground
- the trumpet

ULT

²⁴ He swallows up ground with fierceness and rage; at the trumpet's sound, he cannot stand in one place.

UST

²⁴ The horses run very quickly, and they speedily cover the ground; they rush into battle as soon as the trumpet is blown.

Job 39:25

he says, 'Aha

The word "Aha" is a sound people make when they discover something. The horse makes a sound because he has discovered the battle. (See: Personification)

the thunderous shouts

It is implied that the horse hears these things. Alternate translation: "he hears the thunderous shouts" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

the outcries

"the battle cries." People have special shouts that they use in war to show their great strength and bravery and to scare the enemy.

Translation Words - ULT

- the trumpet sounds
- of the commanders

Translation Words - UST

- when they hear someone blowing the trumpet
- understand what it means when the commanders

ULT

²⁵ Whenever the trumpet sounds, he says, 'Aha!' He smells the battle from far away— the thunderous shouts of the commanders and the outcries.

UST

²⁵ They neigh joyfully when they hear someone blowing the trumpet. They can smell a battle even when they are far away, and they understand what it means when the commanders shout their commands to their soldiers.

Job 39:26

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Is it by your wisdom ... for the south?

Yahweh uses this question to prove that Job is not as great as Yahweh. The implicit answer to this question is “no.” Alternate translation: “It is not by your wisdom ... for the south.” (See: Rhetorical Question) stretches out his wings for the south

Here the stretching out of his wings refers to flying. Alternate translation: “flies to the south” (See: Metonymy) for the south

In the biblical geography, birds fly south during the winter in order to live in warmer climates.

ULT

26 Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, that he stretches out his wings for the south?

UST

26 Think about big birds. Are you the one who enabled hawks to spread their wings and fly to the south for the winter?

Job 39:27

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Is it at your orders ... nest in high places?

Yahweh uses this question to prove that Job is not powerful enough to command the eagles. The implicit answer to this question is "no." Alternate translation: "You are not able to command the eagle to mount up and build his nest in high places." (See: Rhetorical Question) at your orders

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word orders, you could express the same idea with a verbal form. Alternate translation: "because you tell it to do so" (See: Abstract Nouns)

mounts up

This means he flies upward. Alternate translation: "flies up into the sky" (See: Idiom)

ULT

²⁷ Is it at your orders that the eagle mounts up and makes his nest in high places?

UST

²⁷ Do eagles fly high up into the cliffs to make their nests because you commanded them to do that?

Job 39:28

a stronghold

The high cliffs are strongholds for eagles because the animals that would want to eat them cannot reach them.

ULT

²⁸ He lives on cliffs and makes his home on the peaks of cliffs, a stronghold.

UST

²⁸ They live in holes in those cliffs. They are safe in those high pointed rocks because no animals can reach them there.

Job 39:29

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

he searches for victims

Here the word "he" refers to the eagle.

for victims

Alternate translation: "for animals that he can kill and eat" his eyes see them

Here "his eyes" refer to the eagle. Alternate translation: "he sees them" (See: Synecdoche)

ULT

²⁹ From there he searches for victims;
his eyes see them from very far away.

UST

²⁹ As they watch carefully from there, they see animals far away that they can kill.

Job 39:30

His young

It may be helpful to state that this happens after the eagle kills and animal. Alternate translation: "After an eagle kills an animal, the baby eagles" drink up blood

Alternate translation: "drink the blood of the animal that he killed" where killed people are

"where there are dead people." This phrase refers to dead bodies that are lying out in the open, not to bodies that are buried in the ground.

there he is

It can be made explicit that he comes to eat the dead bodies. Alternate translation: "he is there to eat them" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- blood

Translation Words - UST

- the blood of

ULT

³⁰ His young also drink up blood; where killed people are, there he is."

UST

³⁰ After an eagle kills an animal, the baby eagles drink the blood of that animal; they gather wherever there are dead people lying on the ground."

Job 40

Job 40 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart extended quotations, prayers, or songs. The ULT and many other English translations set the lines of 40:1-2, 4-5, 7-24, which are extended quotations of Job and Yahweh, farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text.

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's righteousness

In seeking to defend his own righteousness, Job accuses Yahweh of being unjust. Yahweh asks a very important question: "Will you condemn me so you may claim you are right?" This is the essence of Job's error.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Irony

Yahweh states, "He who argues with God, let him answer." Job immediately answers him. This is irony. While Job is forced to acknowledge the power of Yahweh, he does not repent of his former statements. Because of this, Yahweh asks him more questions. (See: repent, repentance)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Animals

There are several animals mentioned in this chapter that do not exist and may never have existed. It may be necessary to leave these names untranslated or to translate their names as adjectives.

ULT

¹ Yahweh continued to speak to Job; he said,

UST

¹ Then Yahweh said to Job,

Job 40:2Should anyone who wishes to criticize try to correct the Almighty?

Yahweh is rebuking Job. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “No one who wants to criticize me should try to argue with me, for I am Almighty God.” or “You, a person, want to criticize me, Almighty God, but you should not try to correct me.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

He who argues with God, let him answer

Yahweh speaks of Job and himself as if they were two other people to remind Job that no person anywhere should argue with God. Alternate translation: “You want to argue with me, so answer me” (See: Pronouns)

Translation Words - ULT

UST

⁷ "I want to ask you some questions, so act like a man and get ready to answer my questions.

Job 40:8

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Will you actually say that I am unjust?

The word “actually” indicates that Yahweh is surprised that Job would say that Yahweh is unjust and that Job should make sure that he really wants to say that. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “I am surprised that you are saying I am unjust.” or “You should be sure that you want to say that I am unjust, because that is what you are saying.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

⁸ Will you actually say that I am unjust? Will you condemn me so you may claim you are right?

UST

⁸ Are you going to accuse me and say that I am unjust? Are you going to say that what I have done is wrong, in order that you can say that what you have done is right?

Will you condemn me so you may claim you are right?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: “You are condemning me so you can claim that you are innocent.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- Will you condemn me
- you may claim you

Translation Words - UST

- and say that I am unjust
- Are you going to say that...done is wrong

Job 40:9

an arm like God's

The arm is a metonym for the strength in the arm. Alternate translation: "strength like God's strength" (See: Simile)

Can you thunder with a voice like him?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You certainly cannot cause thunder with your voice the way God does with his." (See: Rhetorical Question and Metonymy)

a voice like him

Alternate translation: "a voice the way he does" or "a voice like his voice"

ULT

⁹ Do you have an arm like God's? Can you thunder with a voice like him?

UST

⁹ Do you have the same amount of power as I do? Can your voice sound as loud as thunder, as mine can?

Job 40:10

clothe yourself in glory and dignity; array yourself in honor and majesty

The abstract nouns “glory,” “dignity,” “honor,” and “majesty” are spoken of as if they were clothing that a person could put on. They can be translated as adjectives and verbs. Alternate translation: “make yourself glorious; do something great so people will respect you and honor you; make people think you are a great king” (See: Metaphor and Abstract Nouns)

ULT

¹⁰ Now clothe yourself in glory and dignity; array yourself in honor and majesty.

UST

¹⁰ If you can do that, then put on the robes that show that you are glorious and are greatly honored!

Job 40:11

Scatter around the excess of your anger

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word anger, you could express the same idea with a verbal form. Here, anger is spoken of as if it were something that usually could be held in a container, but in this situation there is so much of it that what does not fit needs to be spread around. It is also a metonym for the actions a person takes when he is angry. You may need to make explicit why the person is angry. Alternate translation: "Be angry because people are proud, and punish them" (See: Metaphor and Abstract Nouns and Metonymy)

bring him down

Alternate translation: "take away everything he is proud of"

ULT

11 Scatter around the excess of your anger; look at everyone who is proud and bring him down.

UST

11 Show that you are very angry; show that you have the right to humble people who are very proud!

Job 40:12

he eats

the behemoth eats

eats grass like an ox

Both the behemoth and the ox eat grass. (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- he eats

Translation Words - UST

- They eat

ULT

¹⁵ Look now at the behemoth, which I made when I made you; he eats grass like an ox.

UST

¹⁵ Think also about hippopotamuses. I made you, and I made them also. They eat grass, like oxen do.

Job 40:16

loins ... belly's muscles

These two phrases refer to the same part of the body.

Translation Words - ULT

- his strength

Translation Words - UST

- powerful

ULT

¹⁶ See now, his strength is in his loins; his power is in his belly's muscles.

UST

¹⁶ Their legs are very strong, and the muscles of their bellies are very powerful.

Cedar is a very hard wood, and his tail becomes very hard. (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- a cedar

Translation Words - UST

- a cedar tree

ULT

¹⁷ He makes his tail like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are joined together.

UST

¹⁷ Their tails are stiff like the branches of a cedar tree. The muscles of their thighs are close together.

Job 40:18

like tubes of bronze

Here, his bones are compared to tubes made of bronze to show how tough this animal is. (See: Simile) like bars of iron

This last comparison describes the strength of this great animal. (See: Simile)

ULT

18 His bones are like tubes of bronze;
his legs are like bars of iron.

UST

18 Their thigh bones are like tubes made of bronze, and the bones of their legs are like bars made of iron.

Job 40:19

chief of the creatures

Alternate translation: "most important of the creatures" or "strongest of the creatures"

the creatures of God. Only God

Yahweh speaks as if he were another person. Alternate translation: "of my creatures. Only I, God" (See: Pronouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- the chief
- can defeat him

Translation Words - UST

- Hippopotamuses are among the strongest of the animals
- who can kill them

ULT

19 He is the chief of the creatures of God. Only God, who made him, can defeat him.

UST

19 Hippopotamuses are among the strongest of the animals that I made, and I, who created them, am the only one who can kill them.

Job 40:20

the hills provide him with food

The hills are spoken of as if they were people capable of giving him food. Alternate translation: “food grows on the hills for him” (See: Personification)

ULT

²⁰ For the hills provide him with food; the beasts of the field play nearby.

UST

²⁰ On the hills grows food for them to eat while many other wild animals play nearby.

Job 40:21

lotus plants

flowering plants that float on the water in swampy areas reeds

tall grasses found in swamps or marshes

ULT

²¹ He lies under the lotus plants in the shelter of the reeds, in the marshes.

UST

²¹ They lie down in the water under the lotus plants; they hide in tall reeds in the swamps.

Job 40:22

lotus plants

flowering plants that float on the water in swampy areas. See how you translated this in Job 40:19.

willows of the brook

Willows are large trees that grow in damp ground. If they are unknown in your culture, you can use a general term for trees that grow near water.

ULT

22 The lotus plants cover him with their shade; the willows of the brook are all around him.

UST

22 The hippopotamuses find shade under the lotus plants, and they are surrounded by willow trees growing in the streams.

Job 40:23

though the Jordan should surge up to his mouth

Alternate translation: "even if the flood of the Jordan should come up to his mouth"

Translation Words - ULT

- though the Jordan

Translation Words - UST

- like the Jordan River

ULT

²³ See, if a river floods its banks, he does not tremble; he is confident, though the Jordan should surge up to his mouth.

UST

²³ They are not disturbed by raging, flooding rivers; they are not even disturbed when rivers like the Jordan River rush over them.

Job 40:24

Can anyone capture him with a hook ... snare?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can capture him with a hook or pierce his nose through with a snare." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

²⁴ Can anyone capture him with a hook, or pierce his nose through with a snare?

UST

²⁴ No one can catch them with hooks or by piercing their noses with the teeth of a trap!

Job 41

Job 41 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart extended quotations, prayers, or songs. The ULT and many other English translations set the lines of this chapter, which is an extended quotation of Yahweh, farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text. It is a continuation of the previous chapter.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Yahweh uses a series of rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to defend his character and to convince Job to repent. (See: Rhetorical Question and repent, repentance)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Animals

There are several animals mentioned in this chapter that do not exist and may never have existed. It may be necessary to leave these names untranslated or to translate their names as adjectives.

Job 41:1

Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook?

God uses this question to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that you cannot draw out Leviathan with a fishhook." (See: Rhetorical Question) draw out pull out of the water

Or tie up his jaws with a cord?

The words "can you" are understood from the previous question. They can be repeated here. God uses this question to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "Or can you tie up his jaws with a cord?" or "And you know that you cannot tie up his jaws with a cord." (See: Ellipsis and Rhetorical Question) his jaws

Leviathan's jaws

Translation Words - ULT

- Leviathan

Translation Words - UST

- crocodiles

ULT

¹ Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook? Or tie up his jaws with a cord?

UST

¹ "Think also about crocodiles. Can you catch them with a fishhook or fasten their jaws with a rope?"

Job 41:2

Can you put a rope into his nose ... with a hook?

God uses this question to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that you cannot put a rope into Leviathan's nose ... with a hook." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

² Can you put a rope into his nose, or pierce his jaw through with a hook?

UST

² Can you put ropes through their noses to control them or thrust hooks through their jaws?

Job 41:3

Will he make many pleas to you?

God uses this question to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that he will not make pleas to you." (See: Rhetorical Question)

he

Leviathan

Will he speak soft words to you?

God uses this question to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that he will not speak soft words to you." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

³ Will he make many pleas to you? Will he speak soft words to you?

UST

³ Will they plead with you to act mercifully toward them or use sweet talk in order that you will not harm them?

Job 41:4

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to rebuke Job. He uses rhetorical questions to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan.

Will he make a covenant with you, that you should take him for a servant forever?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that he will not make a covenant with you, that you should take him for a servant forever." (See: Rhetorical Question)

he ... him

The words "he" and "him" refer to Leviathan.

Translation Words - ULT

- covenant
- him for a servant

Translation Words - UST

- an agreement
- your slaves

ULT

⁴ Will he make a covenant with you, that you should take him for a servant forever?

UST

⁴ Will they make an agreement with you to work for you, to be your slaves as long as they live?

Job 41:5

Will you play with him as you would with a bird?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that you cannot play with him as you would play with a bird." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Will you tie him up for your servant girls?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that you cannot tie him up for your servant girls." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULT

⁵ Will you play with him as you would with a bird? Will you tie him up for your servant girls?

UST

⁵ Can you make them into pets like you do birds? Can you put a leash around their necks so that your servant girls can play with them?

Job 41:6

Will the groups of fishermen bargain for him?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that the groups of fishermen will not bargain for him." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Will they divide him up to trade among the merchants?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that they will not divide him up to trade among the merchants." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Will they divide

Alternate translation: "Will the groups of fishermen divide"

Translation Words - ULT

- the merchants

Translation Words - UST

- sell the meat

ULT

⁶ Will the groups of fishermen bargain for him? Will they divide him up to trade among the merchants?

UST

⁶ Will men who partner in selling fish try to sell them in the market? Will they cut a crocodile up into pieces and sell the meat?

Job 41:7Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to rebuke Job. He uses rhetorical questions to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan.

Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You cannot pierce his skin with your hunting weapons, nor can you pierce his head with fishing spears." (See: Rhetorical Question)

his

Leviathan's

large spears with barbed points that people use to hunt large sea creatures

Translation Words - ULT

- or his head

Translation Words - UST

- Can you pierce their heads

ULT

⁷ Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?

UST

⁷ Can you pierce crocodiles through their hides by throwing fishing spears at them? Can you pierce their heads with a harpoon?

Job 41:8

him

Leviathan

Translation Words - ULT

- your hand

Translation Words - UST

- with your hands

ULT

⁸ Put your hand on him just once, and you will remember the battle and do it no more.

UST

⁸ If you grab one of them with your hands, it will give you a battle that you will never forget, and you will never try to do it again!

Job 41:9

See

Alternate translation: "Look" or "Listen" or "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you."

will not anyone be thrown down to the ground just by the sight of him?

This generalization can be translated as a statement in active form. Alternate translation: "Anyone who looks at him will be so frightened that he will throw himself on the ground." (See: Active or Passive and Rhetorical Question)

the sight of him

Alternate translation: "by looking at him" or "by seeing him"

ULT

⁹ See, the hope of anyone who does that is a lie; will not anyone be thrown down to the ground just by the sight of him?

UST

⁹ It is useless to even hope to subdue them. Anyone who tries to subdue one of them will fall to the ground out of fear.

Job 41:10

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to rebuke Job by asking him rhetorical questions. He uses rhetorical questions to remind Job that Yahweh is much more powerful than both Leviathan and Job.

None is so fierce that he dare stir Leviathan up; who, then, is he who can stand before me?

It would be easier to stir up Leviathan than to stand before Yahweh. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "Since you know that no person is so fierce that he dare stir Leviathan up, you should certainly know that no one can stand before me." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- he dare stir Leviathan up

Translation Words - UST

- to make a crocodile angry

ULT

¹⁰ None is so fierce that he dare stir Leviathan up; who, then, is he who can stand before me?

UST

¹⁰ No one dares to make a crocodile angry. So, since I am much more powerful than they are, who would dare to cause me to be angry?

Job 41:11

Who has first given anything to me in order that I should repay him?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that no one has first given anything to me, so there is no one whom I need to repay." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- sky

Translation Words - UST

- is able to give anything

ULT

¹¹ Who has first given anything to me in order that I should repay him? Whatever is under the whole sky is mine.

UST

¹¹ Also, everything on the earth is mine. Therefore, no one is able to give anything to me and require me to pay money for it!

Job 41:12I will not keep silent concerning ... nor about ... nor about

This can be translated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I will certainly speak about ... and about ... and about" (See: Litotes) concerning Leviathan's legs, nor about the matter of his strength, nor about his graceful form

These are three things about which God will not keep silent.

his

The word "his" refers to Leviathan.

Translation Words - ULT

- keep silent

Translation Words - UST

- tell you about how strong crocodiles' legs

ULT

¹² I will not keep silent concerning Leviathan's legs, nor about the matter of his strength, nor about his graceful form.

UST

¹² I will tell you about how strong crocodiles' legs are and how strong their well formed bodies are.

Job 41:13

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to rebuke Job by asking him rhetorical questions.

Who can strip off his outer covering?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can strip off his outer clothing." (See: Rhetorical Question) his ... his

Leviathan's

Who can penetrate his double armor?

The word "armor" is a metaphor for the hard scales or hide on his back. If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can penetrate his very thick hide." (See: Metaphor and Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- can strip off
- his outer
- covering

Translation Words - UST

- strip off
- their
- hides

ULT

¹³ Who can strip off his outer covering?

Who can penetrate his double armor?

UST

¹³ Can anyone strip off their hides? Can anyone pierce through their double layer of armor?

Job 41:14

Who can open the doors of his face ... terror?

If your readers would misunderstand this question, you can express it as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can pry his jaws apart ... terror." (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- the doors
- of his face
- which are a terror

Translation Words - UST

- pry
- which have terrible
- in them

ULT

¹⁴ Who can open the doors of his face—ringed with his teeth, which are a terror?

UST

¹⁴ Can anyone pry open their jaws, which have terrible teeth in them?

Job 41:15

shields

The word “shields” is a metaphor for Leviathan’s hide. Both shields and Leviathan’s hide protect well and deflect arrows and other weapons. (See: Metaphor) tight together as with a close seal

This means the “shields” are very close to one another and nothing can get between them.

ULT

¹⁵ his back is made up of rows of shields, tight together as with a close seal.

UST

¹⁵ They have rows of scales on their back which are as hard as rock.

Job 41:16

One is so near to another

One row of shields is so near to another (Job 41:15).

between them between the rows of shields (Job 41:15)

Translation Words - ULT

- that...air can

Translation Words - UST

- very close together

ULT

¹⁶ One is so near to another that no air can come between them.

UST

¹⁶ The scales are very close together; not even air can get between them.

Job 41:17

They ... they ... they the rows of shields (Job 41:15).

they cannot be pulled apart

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "no one can pull them apart" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- They are joined

Translation Words - UST

- joined very closely

ULT

¹⁷ They are joined to each other; they stick together, so that they cannot be pulled apart.

UST

¹⁷ The scales are joined very closely to each other, and they cannot be separated.

Job 41:18

from his snorting

A snort is a sound like a short snore. Another possible meaning is “from his sneezing” or “when he sneezes.” Alternate translation: “when he snorts” his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning dawn

This means that his eyes are red as the morning dawn is red. (See: Simile)

his

The word “his” refers to Leviathan.

ULT

18 Light flashes out from his snorting; his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning dawn.

UST

18 When crocodiles sneeze, the tiny drops of water that come out of their noses sparkle in the sunlight. Their eyes are red like the rising sun.

Job 41:19

Out of his mouth go burning torches, sparks of fire leap out

God expresses the same idea in two different ways in order to emphasize the terrifying appearance of Leviathan. You can make this clear by adding the omitted words. Alternate translation: "Out of his mouth go burning torches, sparks of fire leap out of his mouth" (See: Parallelism and Ellipsis)

his

The word "his" refers to Leviathan.

Translation Words - ULT

- go
- of fire
- leap out

Translation Words - UST

- It is as
- of fire
- poured out of

ULT

¹⁹ Out of his mouth go burning torches, sparks of fire leap out.

UST

¹⁹ It is as though sparks of fire poured out of their mouths.

Job 41:20

the two openings of the nose

smoke like a boiling pot

Both the smoke and a boiling pot are very hot. (See: Simile)

Translation Words - ULT

- Out

Translation Words - UST

- out of

ULT

²⁰ Out of his nostrils goes smoke like a boiling pot on a fire that has been fanned to be very hot.

UST

²⁰ Smoke pours out of their nostrils as steam comes out of a pot that is put over a very, very hot fire.

Job 41:21

kindles coals into flame

Alternate translation: "causes coals to catch fire"

Translation Words - ULT

- His breath
- out

Translation Words - UST

- Their breath can cause
- to shoot out from

ULT

²¹ His breath kindles coals into flame; fires go out from his mouth.

UST

²¹ Their breath can cause coals to blaze and flames to shoot out from their mouths.

Job 41:22

his ... him

The words "his" and "him" refer to Leviathan.

terror dances in front of him

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea behind the word terror, you could express the same idea with a verbal form such as "be afraid." Alternate translation: "when people see him coming, they are very afraid" (See: Abstract Nouns)

ULT

²² In his neck is strength, and terror dances in front of him.

UST

²² Their necks are very strong; wherever they go, they make people very afraid.

Job 41:23

they cannot be moved

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "no one can move them" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- his flesh

Translation Words - UST

- their flesh

ULT

²³ The folds of his flesh are joined together; they are firm on him; they cannot be moved.

UST

²³ The folds in their flesh are very close together and are very hard.

Job 41:24

His heart is as hard as a stone

A rock or stone does not change and become soft. This could mean: (1) Leviathan's physical chest and the organs inside it are physically hard or (2) Leviathan is not afraid of anything or (3) Leviathan is spoken of as a person who kills without ever being sorry. (See: Simile and Personification)

a lower millstone

"the hardest of rocks." The lower millstone is the larger and harder of the two rocks used to grind grain. It would be the hardest rock people could find.

Translation Words - ULT

- His heart

Translation Words - UST

- people

ULT

²⁴ His heart is as hard as a stone—indeed, as hard as a lower millstone.

UST

²⁴ They are fearless because the inner parts of their bodies are as hard as a rock, as hard as the lower millstone on which people grind grain.

Job 41:25

he ... himself

Leviathan

the gods

This could mean: (1) "mighty people" or (2) "very strong people" .

Translation Words - ULT

- they draw back

Translation Words - UST

- As a result, people fall back

ULT

²⁵ When he raises himself up, even the gods become afraid; because of fear, they draw back.

UST

²⁵ When they rise up, they cause even very strong people to be terrified. As a result, people fall back.

Job 41:26

strikes him

strikes Leviathan

Translation Words - ULT

- If a sword

Translation Words - UST

- with swords

ULT

²⁶ If a sword strikes him, it does nothing — and neither does a spear, an arrow, or any other pointed weapon.

UST

²⁶ People cannot injure them with swords; spears, arrows, or other weapons with sharp points cannot injure them, either.

Job 41:27

He thinks of iron as if it were straw

“He thinks of weapons made of iron as if they were weapons made of straw.” Straw would not get through his hide, and iron weapons do not get through his hide. (See: Simile) of bronze as if it were rotten wood

You can make this clear by adding the omitted words. Alternate translation: “he thinks of weapons made of bronze as if they were weapons made of rotten wood” (See: Ellipsis and Simile)

ULT

²⁷ He thinks of iron as if it were straw, and of bronze as if it were rotten wood.

UST

²⁷ They certainly are not afraid of weapons made of straw or rotten wood, but they are not even afraid of weapons made of iron or bronze!

Job 41:28to him sling stones become chaff

Chaff cannot hurt Leviathan, and sling stones are just as ineffective as chaff. (See: Metaphor) him ... him

Leviathan

Translation Words - ULT

- make
- sling

Translation Words - UST

- them to
- at them from a sling

ULT

²⁸ An arrow cannot make him flee; to him sling stones become chaff.

UST

²⁸ Shooting arrows at them does not cause them to run away. Hurling stones at them from a sling is like hurling bits of chaff at them.

Job 41:29

Clubs are regarded as straw

A club made of straw would not hurt him, and a club made of wood would not hurt him. This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "He thinks of clubs as if they were straw" (See: Active or Passive)

he laughs at the whirring flight of a spear

The person throwing the spear hopes that the spear will kill Leviathan, but the writer speaks as if Leviathan knows the spear will not kill him and so laughs. (See: Personification)

he laughs

Leviathan laughs

ULT

²⁹ Clubs are regarded as straw; he laughs at the whirring flight of a spear.

UST

²⁹ They are not afraid of clubs anymore than they would be afraid of men throwing bits of straw at them, and they laugh when they hear a spear coming at them.

Job 41:30

His ... he ... he

These words refer to Leviathan.

he leaves a spreading trail in the mud as if he were a threshing sledge

Just as a threshing sledge goes over grain on a threshing floor and turns it to powder, so Leviathan's tail leaves a trail in the mud as he wags it when he walks. (See: Simile)

ULT

³⁰ His lower parts are like sharp pieces of broken pottery; he leaves a spreading trail in the mud as if he were a threshing sledge.

UST

³⁰ Their bellies are covered with scales that are as sharp as broken pieces of pottery. When they drag themselves through the mud, their bellies tear up the ground like a plow.

Job 41:31

He makes the deep to foam up like a pot of boiling water

Alternate translation: "As he passes through the water, he leaves a trail of bubbles behind him, like the bubbling of boiling water in a pot"

He

The word "he" refers to Leviathan.

he makes the sea like a pot of ointment

The ointment in a pot is cloudy if someone shakes it, and the sea is muddy when Leviathan swims in it. (See: Simile)

ULT

³¹ He makes the deep to foam up like a pot of boiling water; he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.

UST

³¹ They stir up the water and cause it to foam as they churn through it.

Job 41:32

one would think the deep had gray hair

This is because the bubbles in his wake are white.

ULT

³² He makes a shining wake behind him; one would think the deep had gray hair.

UST

³² As they go through the water, their wakes glisten. People who see it would think that the foam had become white hair.

Job 41:33

there is no equal to him

Alternate translation: "no other creature is like Leviathan"

him

Leviathan

ULT

³³ On earth there is no equal to him, who has been made to live without fear.

UST

³³ There are no creatures on earth that I have created as fearless as crocodiles.

Job 41:34He sees everything that is proud

Alternate translation: "He is very, very proud"

he is king over all the sons of pride

Leviathan is spoken of as if he were a person who is able to become king and be proud. Alternate translation: "Leviathan has more reason to be proud than anyone else on earth" (See: Personification)

He ... he

Leviathan

Translation Words - ULT

- is king
- the sons

Translation Words - UST

- kings
- the other wild animals

ULT

³⁴ He sees everything that is proud; he is king over all the sons of pride."

UST

³⁴ They are the proudest of all the creatures; they are like kings over all the other wild animals."

Job 42

Job 42 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart extended quotations, prayers, or songs. The ULT and many other English translations set the lines of 42:1-6, which is an extended quotation of Job, farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text.

Having faced the temptation to curse Yahweh, and after being rebuked by him, in the end Job shows his complete trust in Yahweh. (See: tempt, temptation and curse, cursed, cursing and trust, trusted, trustworthy, trustworthiness)

Special concepts in this chapter

Justice

Yahweh enacts justice at the end of this book. He punishes Job's friends and restores Job's blessings. Yahweh's blessing was not dependent upon Job's repentance, but upon Yahweh's grace. (See: just, justice, unjust, injustice, justify, justification, restore, restoration, bless, blessed, blessing and repent, repentance and grace, gracious)

Job 42:3

Who is this

The ULT and most modern versions agree that Job is loosely quoting God's own words from Job 38:2. You may decide, as does the UST, to make it clear that God asked this question of Job and that Job is now remembering it. Alternate translation: "You said to me, 'Who is this'" (See: Rhetorical Question)

conceals plans

That is, hides or misrepresents God's plans. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- I did...understand
- things too difficult for me
- which I did...know

Translation Words - UST

- true that I spoke about things that
- I know
- understand, things that are very amazing, things

ULT

³ 'Who is this who without knowledge conceals plans?' Indeed, I have spoken things that I did not understand, things too difficult for me to understand, which I did not know about.

UST

³ You asked me, 'Who are you to bring confusion to what I plan to do? You are speaking ignorantly!' It is true that I spoke about things that I did not understand, things that are very amazing, things about which I know nothing.

Job 42:4

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- and you will tell me

Translation Words - UST

- I want

ULT

⁴ You said to me, 'Listen, now, and I will speak; I will ask you things, and you will tell me.'

UST

⁴ You said to me, 'Listen while I talk to you. I want to ask you some questions, so prepare yourself to answer them.'

Job 42:5

but now my eye sees you

The eyes represent seeing, and seeing represents understanding.
Alternate translation: "but now I really understand you" (See: Metaphor)

ULT

⁵ I had heard about you by my ear's hearing, but now my eye sees you.

UST

⁵ I had heard about you previously by rumor, but now it is as though I have seen you with my own eyes.

Job 42:6

despise myself

Job's self is a metonym for what he said. Alternate translation: "I despise the things I said" (See: Metonymy) despise intensely dislike

I repent in dust and ashes

Sitting in dust and ashes is a symbolic act showing the person is sorry. (See: Symbolic Action)

ULT

⁶ So I despise myself; I repent in dust and ashes."

UST

⁶ Therefore I am ashamed of what I said, and I sit in dust and ashes to show that I am sorry for what I said."

Job 42:7

It came about that

This phrase is used here to mark an important event in the story. If your language has a way for doing this, you could consider using it here.

Eliphaz the Temanite

See how you translated this man's name in Job 2:11

My wrath is kindled against you

Fire is a metaphor for anger, and starting a fire is a metaphor for becoming angry. Alternate translation: "I have become very angry with you" (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- and I
- a sacrifice
- to do
- be punished

ULT

⁸ Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer, so that I may not deal with you after your folly. You have not said what is right about me, as my servant Job has done.”

UST

⁸ So now you must take to Job seven young bulls and seven rams and kill them and burn them on the altar as a sacrifice for yourselves. Then Job will pray for you, and I will do what he requests me to do. I will forgive you for speaking wrongly about me. I will not punish you, even though you deserve to be punished, because what you said about me was not right.”

Abstract Nouns

Description

Abstract nouns are nouns that refer to attitudes, qualities, events, or situations. These are things that cannot be seen or touched in a physical sense, such as happiness, weight, unity, friendship, health, and reason. This is a translation issue because some languages may express a certain idea with an abstract noun, while others would need a different way to express it.

This page answers the question: What are abstract nouns and how do I deal with them in my translation?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-partsofspeech]]
[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-sentences]]

Remember that nouns are words that refer to a person, place, thing, or idea. Abstract nouns are the nouns that refer to ideas. These can be attitudes, qualities, events, situations, or even relationships between those ideas. These are things that cannot be seen or touched in a physical sense, such as joy, peace, creation, goodness, contentment, justice, truth, freedom, vengeance, slowness, length, weight, and many, many more.

Some languages, such as Biblical Greek and English, use abstract nouns a lot. They provide a way of giving names to actions or qualities. With names, people who speak these languages can talk about the concepts as though they were things. For example, in languages that use abstract nouns, people can say, "I believe in the forgiveness of sin."

But some languages do not use abstract nouns very much. In these languages, speakers may not have the two abstract nouns "forgiveness" and "sin," but they would express the same meaning in other ways. For example, they would express, "I believe that God is willing to forgive people after they have sinned," by using verb phrases instead of nouns for those ideas.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

The Bible that you translate from may use abstract nouns to express certain ideas. Your language might not use abstract nouns for some of those ideas. Instead, it might use phrases to express those ideas. Those phrases will use other kinds of words such as adjectives, verbs, or adverbs to express the meaning of the abstract noun. For example, "What is its weight?" could be expressed as "How much does it weigh?" or "How heavy is it?"

Examples From the Bible

From childhood you have known the sacred writings ... (2 Timothy 3:15a ULT)

The abstract noun "childhood" refers to when someone was a child.

But godliness with contentment is great gain. (1 Timothy 6:6 ULT)

The abstract nouns "godliness" and "contentment" refer to being godly and content. The abstract noun "gain" refers to something that benefits or helps someone.

Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. (Luke 19:9 ULT)

The abstract noun "salvation" here refers to being saved.

The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider slowness to be (2 Peter 3:9a ULT)

The abstract noun "slowness" refers to the lack of speed with which something is done.

He will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart. (1 Corinthians 4:5b ULT)

The abstract noun “purposes” refers to the things that people want to do and the reasons they want to do them.

Translation Strategies

If an abstract noun would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

(1) Reword the sentence with a phrase that expresses the meaning of the abstract noun. Instead of a noun, the new phrase will use a verb, an adverb, or an adjective to express the idea of the abstract noun.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Reword the sentence with a phrase that expresses the meaning of the abstract noun. Instead of a noun, the new phrase will use a verb, an adverb, or an adjective to express the idea of the abstract noun. Alternative translations are indented below the Scripture example.

But being godly and content is very beneficial. But we benefit greatly when we are godly and content. But we benefit greatly when we honor and obey God and when we are happy with what we have.

Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. (Luke 19:9 ULT)

Today the people in this house have been saved ... Today God has saved the people in this house ...

The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider moving slowly to be.

He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the things that people want to do and the reasons that they want to do them.

Active or Passive

Some languages use both active and passive sentences. In active sentences, the subject does the action. In passive sentences, the subject is the one that receives the action. Here are some examples with their subjects bolded:

- Active: My father built the house in 2010.
- Passive: The house was built in 2010.

Translators whose languages do not use passive sentences will need to know how they can translate passive sentences that they find in the Bible. Other translators will need to decide when to use a passive sentence and when to use the active form.

This page answers the question: What do active and passive mean, and how do I translate passive sentences?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-sentences\]\]](#)

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-verbs\]\]](#)

Description

Some languages have both active and passive forms of sentences.

- In the active form, the subject does the action and is always mentioned.
- In the passive form, the action is done to the subject, and the one who does the action is not always mentioned.

In the examples of active and passive sentences below, we have bolded the subject.

- active: My father built the house in 2010.
- passive: The house was built by my father in 2010.
- passive: The house was built in 2010. (This does not tell who did the action.)

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

All languages use active forms. Some languages use passive forms, and some do not. Some languages use passive forms only for certain purposes, and the passive form is not used for the same purposes in all of the languages that use it.

Purposes for the Passive

- The speaker is talking about the person or thing the action was done to, not about the person who did the action.
- The speaker does not want to tell who did the action.
- The speaker does not know who did the action.

Translation Principles Regarding the Passive

- Translators whose language does not use passive forms will need to find another way to express the idea.
- Translators whose language has passive forms will need to understand why the passive is used in a particular sentence in the Bible and decide whether or not to use a passive form for that purpose in his translation of the sentence.

Examples From the Bible

Then their shooters shot at your soldiers from off the wall, and some of the king's servants were killed, and your servant Uriah the Hittite was killed too. (2 Samuel 11:24 ULT)

This means that the enemy's shooters shot and killed some of the king's servants, including Uriah. The point is what happened to the king's servants and Uriah, not who shot them. The purpose of the passive form here is to keep the focus on the king's servants and Uriah.

When the men of the city arose early in the morning, and see, the altar of Baal was torn down. (Judges 6:28a ULT)

The men of the town saw what had happened to the altar of Baal, but they did not know who broke it down. The purpose of the passive form here is to communicate this event from the perspective of the men of the town.

It would be better for him if a millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. (Luke 17:2a ULT)

This describes a situation in which a person ends up in the sea with a millstone around his neck. The purpose of the passive form here is to keep the focus on what happens to this person. Who does these things to the person is not important.

Translation Strategies

If your language would use a passive form for the same purpose as in the passage that you are translating, then use a passive form. If you decide that it is better to translate without a passive form, here are some strategies that you might consider.

- (1) Use the same verb in an active sentence and tell who or what did the action. If you do this, try to keep the focus on the person receiving the action.
- (2) Use the same verb in an active sentence, and do not tell who or what did the action. Instead, use a generic expression like "they" or "people" or "someone."
- (3) Use a different verb.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) Use the same verb in an active sentence and tell who did the action. If you do this, try to keep the focus on the person receiving the action.

A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers. (Jeremiah 37:21b ULT)

The king's servants gave Jeremiah a loaf of bread every day from the street of the bakers.

- (2) Use the same verb in an active sentence, and do not tell who did the action. Instead, use a generic expression like "they" or "people" or "someone."

It would be better for him if a millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. (Luke 17:2a ULT)

It would be better for him if they were to put a millstone around his neck and throw him into the sea.

It would be better for him if someone were to put a heavy stone around his neck and throw him into the sea.

- (3) Use a different verb in an active sentence.

A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers. (Jeremiah 37:21 ULT)

He received a loaf of bread every day from the street of the bakers.

Apostrophe

Description

An apostrophe is a figure of speech in which a speaker turns his attention away from his listeners and speaks to someone or something that he knows cannot hear him. He does this to tell his listeners his message or feelings about that person or thing in a very strong way.

This page answers the question: What is the figure of speech called an apostrophe?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro]]

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Many languages do not use apostrophe, and readers could be confused by it. They may wonder who the speaker is talking to, or think that the speaker is crazy to talk to things or people who cannot hear.

Examples from the Bible

Mountains of Gilboa, let there not be dew or rain on you. (2 Samuel 1:21a ULT)

King Saul was killed on Mount Gilboa, and David sang a sad song about it. By telling these mountains that he wanted them to have no dew or rain, he showed how sad he was.

Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those sent to you. (Luke 13:34a ULT)

Jesus was expressing his feelings for the people of Jerusalem in front of his disciples and a group of Pharisees. By speaking directly to Jerusalem as though its people could hear him, Jesus showed how deeply he cared about them.

He cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh: "Altar, altar! This is what Yahweh says, 'See, ... on you they will burn human bones.'" (1 Kings 13:2 ULT)

The man of God spoke as if the altar could hear him, but he really wanted the king, who was standing there, to hear him.

Translation Strategies

If apostrophe would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. But if this way of speaking would be confusing to your people, let the speaker continue speaking to the people that are listening to him as he tells them his message or feelings about the people or thing that cannot hear him. See the example below.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

He cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh: "Altar, altar! This is what Yahweh says, 'See, ... on you they will burn human bones.'" (1 Kings 13:2 ULT)

He said this about the altar: "This is what Yahweh says about this altar. 'See, ... they will burn people's bones on it.'"

Mountains of Gilboa, let there not be dew or rain on you. (2 Samuel 1:21a ULT)

As for these mountains of Gilboa, let there not be dew or rain on them.

Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

Assumed knowledge is whatever a speaker assumes his audience knows before he speaks and gives them some kind of information. The speaker does not give the audience this information because he believes that they already know it.

This page answers the question: How can I be sure that my translation communicates the assumed knowledge and implicit information along with the explicit information of the original message?

When the speaker does give the audience information, he can do so in two ways. The speaker gives explicit information in what he states directly. Implicit Information is what the speaker does not state directly because he expects his audience to be able to learn it from other things he says.

Description

When someone speaks or writes, he has something specific that he wants people to know or do or think about. He normally states this directly. This is explicit information.

The speaker assumes that his audience already knows certain things that they will need to think about in order to understand this information. Normally he does not tell people these things, because they already know them. This is called assumed knowledge.

The speaker does not always directly state everything that he expects his audience to learn from what he says. Implicit information is information that he expects people to learn from what he says even though he does not state it directly.

Often, the audience understands this implicit information by combining what they already know (assumed knowledge) with the explicit information that the speaker tells them directly.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

All three kinds of information are part of the speaker's message. If one of these kinds of information is missing, then the audience will not understand the message. Because the target translation is in a language that is very different from the biblical languages and is made for an audience that lives in a very different time and place than the people in the Bible, many times the assumed knowledge or the implicit information is missing from the message. In other words, modern readers do not know everything that the original speakers and hearers in the Bible knew. When these things are important for understanding the message, it is helpful if you include this information in the text or in a footnote.

Examples From the Bible

Then a scribe came to him and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." (Matthew 8:19-20 ULT)

Jesus did not say what foxes and birds use holes and nests for, because he assumed that the scribe would have known that foxes sleep in holes in the ground and birds sleep in their nests. This is assumed knowledge.

Jesus did not directly say here "I am the Son of Man" but, if the scribe did not already know it, then that fact would be implicit information that he could learn because Jesus referred to himself that way. Also, Jesus did not state explicitly that he travelled a lot and did not have a house that he slept in every night. That is implicit information that the scribe could learn when Jesus said that he had nowhere to lay his head.

Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But

I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you.
(Matthew 11:21-22 ULT)

Jesus assumed that the people he was speaking to knew that Tyre and Sidon were very wicked, and that the day of judgment is a time when God will judge every person. Jesus also knew that the people he was talking to believed that they were good and did not need to repent. Jesus did not need to tell them these things. This is all assumed knowledge.

An important piece of implicit information here is that the people he was speaking to would be judged more severely than the people of Tyre and Sidon would be judged because they did not repent.

Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread. (Matthew 15:2 ULT)

One of the traditions of the elders was a ceremony in which people would wash their hands in order to be ritually clean before eating. People thought that in order to be righteous, they had to follow all the traditions of the elders. This was assumed knowledge that the Pharisees who were speaking to Jesus expected him to know. By saying this, they were accusing his disciples of not following the traditions, and thus not being righteous. This is implicit information that they wanted him to understand from what they said.

Translation Strategies

If readers have enough assumed knowledge to be able to understand the message, along with any important implicit information that goes with the explicit information, then it is good to leave that knowledge unstated and leave the implicit information implicit. If the readers do not understand the message because one of these is missing for them, then follow these strategies:

(1) If readers cannot understand the message because they do not have certain assumed knowledge, then provide that knowledge as explicit information.

(2) If readers cannot understand the message because they do not know certain implicit information, then state that information clearly, but try to do it in a way that does not imply that the information was new to the original audience.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If readers cannot understand the message because they do not have certain assumed knowledge, then provide that knowledge as explicit information.

Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." (Matthew 8:20 ULT)

The assumed knowledge was that the foxes slept in their holes and birds slept in their nests.

Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes to live in, and the birds of the sky have nests to live in, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head and sleep."

It will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you (Matthew 11:22 ULT)

The assumed knowledge was that the people of Tyre and Sidon were very, very wicked. This can be stated explicitly.
>

At the day of judgment, it will be more tolerable for those cities of Tyre and Sidon, whose people were very wicked, than it will be for you. or At the day of judgment, It will be more tolerable for those wicked cities, Tyre and Sidon, than for you.

Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread. (Matthew 15:2 ULT)

The assumed knowledge was that one of the traditions of the elders was a ceremony in which people would wash their hands in order to be ritually clean before eating, which they must do to be righteous. It was not to remove germs from their hands to avoid sickness, as a modern reader might think.

Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not go through the ceremonial handwashing ritual of righteousness when they eat bread.

(2) If readers cannot understand the message because they do not know certain implicit information, then state that information clearly, but try to do it in a way that does not imply that the information was new to the original audience.

Then a scribe came to him and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." (Matthew 8:19-20 ULT)

The implicit information is that Jesus himself is the Son of Man. Other implicit information is that if the scribe wanted to follow Jesus, then, like Jesus, he would have to live without a house.

Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but I, the Son of Man, have no home to rest in. If you want to follow me, you will live as I live."

It will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you (Matthew 11:22 ULT)

The implicit information is that God would not only judge the people; he would punish them. This can be made explicit.

At the day of judgment, God will punish Tyre and Sidon, cities whose people were very wicked, less severely than he will punish you.

or:

At the day of judgment, God will punish you more severely than Tyre and Sidon, cities whose people were very wicked.

Modern readers may not know some of the things that the people in the Bible and the people who first read it knew. This can make it hard for them to understand what a speaker or writer says, and to learn things that the speaker left implicit. Translators may need to state some things explicitly in the translation that the original speaker or writer left unstated or implicit.

Background Information

Description

When people tell a story, they normally tell the events in the order that they happened. This sequence of events makes up the storyline. The storyline is full of action verbs that move the story along in time. But sometimes a writer may take a break from the storyline and give some information to help his listeners understand the story better. This type of information is called background information. The background information might be about things that happened before the events he has already told about, or it might explain something in the story, or it might be about something that would happen much later in the story.

This page answers the question: What is background information, and how can I show that some information is background information?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-events]]
[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/writing-intro]]

Example — The bolded phrases in the story below are all background information.

Peter and John went on a hunting trip because their village was going to have a feast the next day. Peter was the best hunter in the village. He once killed three wild pigs in one day! They walked for hours through low bushes until they heard a wild pig. The pig ran, but they managed to shoot the pig and kill it. Then they tied up its legs with some rope they had brought with them and carried it home on a pole. When they brought it to the village, Peter's cousin saw the pig and realized that it was his own pig. Peter had mistakenly killed his cousin's pig.

Background information often tells about something that had happened earlier or something that would happen much later. Examples of these are: "their village was going to have a feast the next day," "He once killed three wild pigs in one day," and "that they had brought with them."

Often background information uses "be" verbs like "was" and "were," rather than action verbs. Examples of these are "their village was going to have a feast the next day," and "Peter was the best hunter in the village."

Background information can also be marked with words that tell the reader that this information is not part of the event line of the story. In this story, some of these words are "because," "once," and "had."

A writer may use background information:

- to help their listeners be interested in the story
- to help their listeners understand something in the story
- to help the listeners understand why something is important in the story
- to tell the setting of a story
 - > * Setting includes:
 - > * where the story takes place
 - > * when the story takes place
 - > * who is present when the story begins
 - > * what is happening when the story begins

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Languages have different ways of marking background information and storyline information.
- You (the translator) need to know the order of the events in the Bible, which information is background information, and which is storyline information.
- You will need to translate the story in a way that marks the background information in a way that your own readers will understand the order of events, which information is background information, and which is storyline information.

Examples From the Bible

Hagar gave birth to Abram's son, and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. Abram was 86 years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Genesis 16:15-16 ULT)

The first sentence tells about two events. Hagar gave birth and Abraham named his son. The second sentence is background information about how old Abram was when those things happened.

And Jesus himself was beginning about 30 years old. He was the son (as it was assumed) of Joseph, of Heli, (Luke 3:23 ULT)

The verses before this tell about when Jesus was baptized. This sentence introduces background information about Jesus' age and ancestors. The story resumes in chapter 4 where it tells about Jesus going to the wilderness.

Then it happened on a Sabbath that he was going through the grain fields, and his disciples were picking and eating the heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands. But some of the Pharisees said ... (Luke 6:1-2a ULT)

These verses give the setting of the story. The events took place in a grain field on the Sabbath day. Jesus, his disciples, and some Pharisees were there, and Jesus' disciples were picking heads of grain and eating them. The main action in the story starts with the phrase, "But some of the Pharisees said"

Translation Strategies

To keep translations clear and natural you will need to study how people tell stories in your language. Observe how your language marks background information. You may need to write down some stories in order to study this. Observe what kinds of verbs your language uses for background information and what kinds of words or other markers signal that something is background information. Do these same things when you translate, so that your translation is clear and natural and people can understand it easily.

- (1) Use your language's way of showing that certain information is background information.
- (2) Reorder the information so that earlier events are mentioned first. (This is not always possible when the background information is very long.)

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use your language's way of showing that certain information is background information. The examples below explain how this was done in the ULT English translations.

And Jesus himself was beginning about 30 years old. He was the son (as it was assumed) of Joseph, of Heli. (Luke 3:23 ULT)

As here, English sometimes uses the word "and" to show that there is some kind of change in the story. The verb "was" shows that it is background information.

Therefore, also exhorting many other things, he preached the good news to the people. But Herod the tetrarch, having been rebuked by him concerning Herodias, the wife of his brother, and concerning all the evil things that Herod had done, added even this to them all: He locked John up in prison. (Luke 3:18-20 ULT)

The bolded phrase happened before John rebuked Herod. In English, the helping verb "had" in "had done" shows that Herod did those things before John rebuked him.

- (2) Reorder the information so that earlier events are mentioned first.

Hagar gave birth to Abram's son, and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.
Abram was 86 years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Genesis 16:16 ULT)

"When Abram was 86 years old, Hagar gave birth to his son, and Abram named his son Ishmael."

Therefore, also exhorting many other things, he preached the good news to the people. But Herod the tetrarch, having been rebuked by him concerning Herodias, the wife of his brother, and concerning all the evil things that Herod had done, added even this to them all: He locked John up in prison. (Luke 3:18-20 ULT)

The translation below reorders John's rebuke and Herod's actions.

"Now Herod the tetrarch married his brother's wife, Herodias, and he did many other evil things, so John rebuked him. But then Herod did another very evil thing. He had John locked up in prison."

Connecting Words and Phrases

Description

This page answers the question: How do connecting words work to join parts of the text in different ways?

As humans, we write our thoughts in phrases and sentences. We usually want to communicate a series of thoughts that are connected to each other in different ways. Connecting words and phrases show how these thoughts are related to each other. For example, we can show how the following thoughts are related by using the Connecting Words in bold type:

- It was raining, so I opened my umbrella.
- It was raining, but I did not have an umbrella. So I got very wet.

Connecting words or phrases can connect phrases or clauses within a sentence. They can connect sentences to each other. They can also connect entire chunks to one another in order to show how the chunk before relates to the chunk after the connecting word. Very often, the connecting words that connect entire chunks to one another are either conjunctions or adverbs.

It was raining, but I did not have an umbrella, so I got very wet.

Now I must change my clothes. Then I will drink a cup of hot tea and warm myself by the fire.

In the above example, the word now connects the two short chunks of text, showing the relationship between them. The speaker must change his clothes, drink hot tea, and warm himself because of something that happened earlier (that is, he got wet in the rain).

Sometimes people might not use a connecting word because they expect the context to help the readers understand the relationship between the thoughts. Some languages do not use connecting words as much as other languages do. They might say:

- It was raining. I did not have an umbrella. I got very wet.

You (the translator) will need to use the method that is most natural and clear in the target language. But in general, using connecting words whenever possible helps the reader to understand the ideas in the Bible most clearly.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- You need to understand the relationship between paragraphs, between sentences, and between parts of sentences in the Bible, and how connecting words and phrases can help you to understand the relationship between the thoughts that they are connecting.
- Each language has its own ways of showing how thoughts are related.
- You need to know how to help readers understand the relationship between the thoughts in a way that is natural in your language.

Translation Principles

- You need to translate in a way that readers can understand the same relationship between thoughts that the original readers would have understood.
- Whether or not a connecting word is used is not as important as readers being able to understand the relationship between the ideas.

The Different Types of Connections

Listed below are different types of connections between ideas or events. These different types of connections can be indicated by using different connecting words. When we write or translate something, it is important to use the right connecting word so that these connections are clear for the reader. If you would like additional information, simply click the colored, hyperlinked word to be directed to a page containing definitions and examples for each type of connection.

- Sequential Clause — a time relationship between two events in which one happens and then the other happens.
- Simultaneous Clause — a time relationship between two or more events that occur at the same time.
- Background Clause — a time relationship in which the first clause describes a long event that is happening at the time when the beginning of the second event happens, which is described in the second clause.
- Exceptional Relationship — one clause describes a group of people or items, and the other clause excludes one or more items or people from the group.
- Hypothetical Condition — the second event will only take place if the first one takes place. Sometimes what takes place is dependent on the actions of other people.
- Factual Condition — a connection that sounds hypothetical but is already certain or true, so that the condition is guaranteed to happen.
- Contrary-to-Fact Condition — a connection that sounds hypothetical but is already certain that it is not true. See also: Hypothetical Statements.
- Goal Relationship — a logical relationship in which the second event is the purpose or goal of the first.
- Reason and Result Relationship — a logical relationship in which one event is the reason for the other event, the result.
- Contrast Relationship — one item is being described as different or in opposition to another.

Examples from the Bible

I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood. I did not go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me. Instead, I went to Arabia and then returned to Damascus. Then after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and I stayed with him 15 days. (Galatians 1:16b-18 ULT)

The word “instead” introduces something that contrasts with what was said before. The contrast here is between what Paul did not do and what he did do. The word “then” introduces a sequence of events. It introduces something that Paul did after he returned to Damascus.

Therefore, whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps them and teaches them, that one will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:19 ULT)

The word “therefore” links this section with the section before it, signaling that the section that came before gave the reason for this section. “Therefore” usually links sections larger than one sentence. The word “and” links only two actions within the same sentence, that of breaking commandments and teaching others. In this verse the word “but” contrasts what one group of people will be called in God’s kingdom with what another group of people will be called.

We place nothing as a stumbling block in front of anyone, so that our ministry might not be discredited. Instead, we commend ourselves in everything as God’s servants. (2 Corinthians 6:3-4 ULT)

Here the words “so that” connect what follows as the reason for what came before; the reason that Paul does not place stumbling blocks is that he does not want his ministry brought into disrepute. “Instead” contrasts what Paul does (prove by his actions that he is God’s servant) with what he said he does not do (place stumbling blocks).

General Translation Strategies

See each type of Connecting Word above for specific strategies

If the way the relationship between thoughts is shown in the ULT would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, then consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

- (1) Use a connecting word (even if the ULT does not use one).
- (2) Do not use a connecting word if it would be strange to use one and people would understand the right relationship between the thoughts without it.
- (3) Use a different connecting word.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) Use a connecting word (even if the ULT does not use one).

Jesus said to them, “Come follow me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.” Then immediately they left the nets and followed him. (Mark 1:17-18 ULT)

They followed Jesus because he told them to. Some translators may want to mark this clause with the connecting word “so.”

Jesus said to them, “Come follow me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.” So, immediately they left the nets and followed him.

- (2) Do not use a connecting word if it would be odd to use one, and if people would understand the right relationship between the thoughts without it.

Therefore, whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps them and teaches them, that one will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:19 ULT)

Some languages would prefer not to use connecting words here because the meaning is clear without them and using them would be unnatural. They might translate like this:

Therefore, whoever breaks the least one of these commandments, teaching others to do so as well, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever keeps them and teaches them, that one will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood. I did not go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me. Instead, I went to Arabia and then returned to Damascus. Then after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and I stayed with him 15 days. (Galatians 1:16b-18 ULT) (Galatians 1:16-18 ULT)

Some languages might not need the words “instead” or “then” here. They might translate like this:

I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who had become apostles before me. I went to Arabia and then returned to Damascus. After three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and I stayed with him 15 days.

- (3) Use a different connecting word.

Therefore, whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps them and teaches them, that one will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:19 ULT)

Instead of a word like “therefore,” a language might need a phrase to indicate that there was a section before it that gave the reason for the section that follows. Also, the word “but” is used here because of the contrast between the two groups of people. But in some languages, the word “but” would show that what comes after it is surprising because of what came before it. So “and” might be clearer for those languages. They might translate like this:

Because of that, whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven.
And whoever keeps them and teaches them, that one will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Double Negatives

A double negative occurs when a clause has two words that each express the meaning of “not.” Double negatives mean very different things in different languages. To translate sentences that have double negatives accurately and clearly, you need to know what a double negative means in the Bible and how to express this idea in your language.

This page answers the question: What are double negatives?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-partsofspeech\]\]](#)

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-sentences\]\]](#)

Description

Negative words are words that have in them the meaning “not.” Examples in English are “no,” “not,” “none,” “no one,” “nothing,” “nowhere,” “never,” “nor,” “neither,” and “without.” Also, some words have prefixes or suffixes that mean “not,” such as the bolded parts of these words: “unhappy,” “impossible,” and “useless.” Some other kinds of words also have a negative meaning, such as “lack” or “reject,” or even “fight” or “evil.”

A double negative occurs when a clause has two words that each have a negative meaning.

We did this not because we have no authority ... (2 Thessalonians 3:9a ULT)

And this was not done without an oath! (Hebrews 7:20a ULT)

Be sure of this—the wicked person will not go unpunished. (Proverbs 11:21a ULT)

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Double negatives mean very different things in different languages.

- In some languages, such as English, a second negative in a clause cancels the first one, creating a positive sentence. So, “He is not unintelligent” means “He is intelligent.”
- In some languages, such as French and Spanish, two negative words in a clause do not cancel each other to become a positive. The Spanish sentence, “No vi a nadie,” literally says “I did not see no one.” It has both the word ‘no’ next to the verb and ‘nadie,’ which means “no one.” The two negatives are seen as in agreement with each other, and the sentence means, “I did not see anyone.”
- In some languages, a double negative creates a stronger negative statement.
- In some languages, a double negative creates a positive sentence, but it is a weak statement. So, “He is not unintelligent” means, “He is somewhat intelligent.”
- In some languages, including the languages of the Bible, a double negative can produce a stronger positive meaning than a simple positive statement. So, “He is not unintelligent” can mean “He is very intelligent.” In this case, the double negative is actually the figure of speech called litotes.

Biblical Greek can do all of the above. So to translate sentences with double negatives accurately and clearly in your language, you need to know what each double negative means in the Bible and how to express the same idea in your language.

Examples From the Bible

The Greek of John 15:5 says:

χωρὶς ἐμοῦ οὐ δύνασθε ποιεῖν οὐδέν

Without me not you can do nothing

We cannot reproduce this double negative in the English ULT because in English, a second negative in a clause cancels the first one. In English, and perhaps in your language, we need to choose only one of the negatives and say either:

Without me, you can do nothing.

or:

Without me, you cannot do anything.

... in order not to be unfruitful. (Titus 3:14b ULT)

This means "in order to be fruitful."

A prophet is not without honor (Mark 6:4 ULT)

This means "a prophet is honored."

I do not want you to be ignorant. (1 Corinthians 12:1)

This means "I want you to be knowledgeable."

Translation Strategies

If the way that the double negative is used in the Bible is natural and has the same meaning as in your language, consider using it in the same way. Otherwise, you could consider these strategies:

(1) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a positive statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove the two negatives so that it is positive.

(2) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a negative statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove one of the two negatives.

(3) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a stronger negative statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove one of the two negatives and add a strengthening word.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a positive statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove the two negatives so that it is positive.

For we do not have a high priest who cannot feel sympathy for our weaknesses. (Hebrews 4:15a ULT)

"For we have a high priest who can feel sympathy for our weaknesses."

... in order not to be unfruitful. (Titus 3:14b ULT)

"... so that they may be fruitful."

(2) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a negative statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove one of the two negatives.

χωρίς ἑμοῦ οὐ δύνασθε ποιεῖν οὐδέν

Without me not you can do nothing (John 15:5)

Without me, you can do nothing.

or:

Without me, you cannot do anything.

(3) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a stronger negative statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove one of the two negatives and add a strengthening word.

...ἰῶτα ἐν ἧ μία κεραία οὐ μὴ παρέλθῃ ἀπὸ τοῦ νόμου (Matthew 5:18)

...iota one or one serif not not may pass away from the law

...not even one iota or one serif may pass away from the law

Doublet

Description

We are using the word “doublet” to refer to two words or phrases that are used together and either mean the same thing or mean very close to the same thing. Often they are joined with the word “and.” Unlike Hendiadys, in which one of the words modifies the other, in a doublet the two words or phrases are equal and are used to emphasize or intensify the one idea that is expressed by the two words or phrases.

This page answers the question: What are doublets and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro\]\]](#)

A very similar issue is the repetition of the same word or phrase for emphasis, usually with no other words between them. Because these figures of speech are so similar and have the same effect, we will treat them here together.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

In some languages people do not use doublets. Or they may use doublets, but only in certain situations, so a doublet might not make sense in their language in some verses. People might think that the verse is describing two ideas or actions, when it is only describing one. In this case, translators may need to find some other way to express the meaning expressed by the doublet.

Examples From the Bible

He has one people scattered and dispersed among the peoples (Esther 3:8 ULT)

The bolded words mean the same thing. Together they mean the people were spread out.

He attacked two men more righteous and better than himself. (1 Kings 2:32b ULT)

This means that they were “much more righteous” than he was.

You have decided to prepare false and deceptive words. (Daniel 2:9b ULT)

This means that they had decided to lie, which is another way of saying that they intended to deceive people.

... like of a lamb without blemish and without spot. (1 Peter 1:19b ULT)

This means that he was like a lamb that did not have any defect—not even one.

Then they approached {and} woke him up, saying, “Master! Master! We are perishing!” (Luke 8:24 ULT)

The repetition of “Master” means that the disciples called to Jesus urgently and continually.

Translation Strategies

If a doublet would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, consider these strategies.

(1) Translate only one of the words or phrases.

(2) If the doublet is used to intensify the meaning, translate one of the words or phrases and add a word that intensifies it such as “very” or “great” or “many.”

(3) If the doublet is used to intensify or emphasize the meaning, use one of your language's ways of doing that.

Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Translate only one of the words.

You have decided to prepare false and deceptive words. (Daniel 2:9b ULT)

“You have decided to prepare false things to say.”

(2) If the doublet is used to intensify the meaning, translate one of the words and add a word that intensifies it such as “very” or “great” or “many.”

He has one people scattered and dispersed among the peoples (Esther 3:8 ULT)

“He has one people very spread out.”

(3) If the doublet is used to intensify or emphasize the meaning, use one of your language's ways of doing that.

... like a lamb without blemish and without spot. (1 Peter 1:19b ULT)

- English can emphasize this with “any” and “at all.”

“... like a lamb without any blemish at all.”

Then they approached {and} woke him up, saying, “Master! Master! We are perishing!” (Luke 8:24 ULT)

Then they approached {and} woke him up, urgently shouting, “Master!

Ellipsis

Description

An ellipsis¹ occurs when a speaker or writer leaves out one or more words that normally should be in the sentence. The speaker or writer does this because he knows that the hearer or reader will understand the meaning of the sentence and supply the words in his mind when he hears or reads the words that are there. For example:

So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
(Psalm 1:5 ULT)

There is ellipsis in the second part because “nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous” is not a complete sentence. The speaker assumes that the hearer will understand what it is that sinners will not do in the assembly of the righteous by filling in the action from the previous clause. With the action filled in, the complete sentence would read:

So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor will sinners stand in the assembly of the righteous.

[¹] English has a punctuation symbol which is also called an ellipsis. It is a series of three dots (...) used to indicate an intentional omission of a word, phrase, sentence or more from text without altering its original meaning. This translationAcademy article is not about the punctuation mark, but about the concept of omission of words that normally should be in the sentence.

Two Types of Ellipsis

A Relative Ellipsis happens when the reader has to supply the omitted word or words from the context. Usually the word is in the previous sentence, as in the example above.

An Absolute Ellipsis happens when the omitted word or words are not in the context, but the phrases are common enough in the language that the reader is expected to supply what is missing from this common usage or from the nature of the situation.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Readers who see incomplete sentences or phrases may not know that there is information missing that the writer expects them to fill in. Or readers may understand that there is information missing, but they may not know what information is missing because they do not know the original biblical language, culture, or situation as the original readers did. In this case, they may fill in the wrong information. Or readers may misunderstand the ellipsis if they do not use ellipsis in the same way in their language.

Examples From the Bible

Relative Ellipsis

He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox. (Psalm 29:6 ULT)

The writer wants his words to be few and to make good poetry. The full sentence with the information filled in would be:

This page answers the question: What is ellipsis ?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and he makes Sirion skip like a young ox.

Watch carefully, therefore, how you walk—not as unwise but as wise. (Ephesians 5:15b ULT)

The information that the reader must understand in the second parts of these sentences can be filled in from the first parts:

Watch carefully, therefore, how you walk—walk not as unwise but walk as wise,

Absolute Ellipsis

Then when he had come near, he asked him, “What do you want me to do for you?” And so he said, “Lord, that I might recover my sight.” (Luke 18:40b-41 ULT)

It seems that the man answered in an incomplete sentence because he wanted to be polite and not directly ask Jesus for healing. He knew that Jesus would understand that the only way he could receive his sight would be for Jesus to heal him. The complete sentence would be:

“Lord, I want you to heal me so that I might receive my sight.”

To Titus, a true son in our common faith. Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior. (Titus 1:4 ULT)

The writer assumes that the reader will recognize this common form of a blessing or wish, so he does not need to include the full sentence, which would be:

To Titus, a true son in our common faith. May you receive grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Translation Strategies

If ellipsis would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

(1) Add the missing words to the incomplete phrase or sentence.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Add the missing words to the incomplete phrase or sentence.

So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinner in the assembly of the righteous. (Psalm 1:5 ULT)

So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, and sinner will not stand in the assembly of the righteous.

Then when he had come near, he asked him, “What do you want me to do for you?” And so he said, “Lord, that I might recover my sight.” (Luke 18:40b-41 ULT)

Euphemism

Description

A euphemism is a mild or polite way of referring to something that is unpleasant, embarrassing, or socially unacceptable, such as death or activities usually done in private.

... they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.
(1 Chronicles 10:8b ULT)

This means that Saul and his sons “were dead.” It is a euphemism because the important thing was not that Saul and his sons had fallen but that they were dead. Sometimes people do not like to speak directly about death because it is unpleasant.

This page answers the question: What is a euphemism?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro]]

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Different languages use different euphemisms. If the target language does not use the same euphemism as in the source language, readers may not understand what it means and they may think that the writer means only what the words literally say.

Examples From the Bible

... where there was a cave. Saul went inside to cover his feet. (1 Samuel 24:3b ULT)

The original hearers would have understood that Saul went into the cave to use it as a toilet, but the writer wanted to avoid offending or distracting them, so he did not say specifically what Saul did or what he left in the cave.

But Mary said to the angel, “How will this be, since I have not known a man?” (Luke 1:34 ULT)

In order to be polite, Mary uses a euphemism to say that she has never had sexual intercourse with a man.

Translation Strategies

If euphemism would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

- (1) Use a euphemism from your own culture.
- (2) State the information plainly without a euphemism if it would not be offensive.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) Use a euphemism from your own culture.

... where there was a cave. Saul went inside to cover his feet. (1 Samuel 24:3b ULT) — Some languages might use euphemisms like these:

“... where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to dig a hole”

“... where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to have some time alone”

But Mary said to the angel, “How will this be, since I have not known a man?” (Luke 1:34 ULT)

But Mary said to the angel, “How will this be, since I have not slept with a man?”

Exclamations

Description

Exclamations are words or sentences that show strong feeling such as surprise, joy, fear, or anger. In the ULT and UST, they usually have an exclamation mark (!) at the end. The mark shows that it is an exclamation. The situation and the meaning of what the people said helps us understand what feelings they were expressing. In the example below from Matthew 8, the speakers were terribly afraid. In the example from Matthew 9, the speakers were amazed, because something happened that they had never seen before.

This page answers the question: What are ways of translating exclamations?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-sentencetypes]]

Save us, Lord; we are about to die! (Matthew 8:25b ULT)

When the demon had been driven out, the mute man spoke. The crowds were astonished and said, "This has never been seen before in Israel!" (Matthew 9:33 ULT)

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Languages have different ways of showing that a sentence communicates strong emotion.

Examples From the Bible

Some exclamations have a word that shows feeling. The sentences below have "Oh" and "Ah." The word "oh" here shows the speaker's amazement.

Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! (Romans 11:33 ULT)

The word "Alas" below shows that Gideon was very frightened.

When Gideon saw that he was the angel of Yahweh, Gideon lamented, "Alas, O my Lord Yahweh, for because of this I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!" (Judges 6:22 ULT)

Some exclamations start with a question word such as "how" or "why," even though they are not questions. The sentence below shows that the speaker is amazed at how unsearchable God's judgments are.

How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways beyond discovering! (Romans 11:33b ULT)

Some exclamations in the Bible do not have a main verb. The exclamation below shows that the speaker is disgusted with the person he is speaking to.

You worthless person! (Matthew 5:22b ULT)

Translation Strategies

- (1) If an exclamation in your language needs a verb, add one. Often a good verb is "is" or "are."
- (2) Use an exclamation word from your language that shows the strong feeling.
- (3) Translate the exclamation word with a sentence that shows the feeling.
- (4) Use a word that emphasizes the part of the sentence that brings about the strong feeling.

(5) If the strong feeling is not clear in the target language, then tell how the person felt.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If an exclamation in your language needs a verb, add one. Often a good verb is “is” or “are.”

You worthless person! (Matthew 5:22b ULT)

“You are such a worthless person!”

Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! (Romans 11:33b ULT)

“Oh, the riches of the wisdom and the knowledge of God are so deep!”

(2) Use an exclamation word from your language that shows the strong feeling. In the first suggested translation below, the word “wow” shows that they were astonished. In the second suggested translation, the expression “Oh no” shows that something terrible or frightening has happened.

They were extremely astonished, saying, “He has done everything well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak.” (Mark 7:37 ULT)

“They were extremely astonished, saying, “Wow! He has done everything well. He even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.””

Alas, oh my Lord Yahweh! For because of this I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face! (Judges 6:22b ULT)

“Oh no, Lord Yahweh! I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!”

(3) Translate the exclamation word with a sentence that shows the feeling.

“Alas, O my Lord Yahweh, for because of this I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!” (Judges 6:22 ULT)

“Lord Yahweh, what will happen to me? For I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!”

“Help, Lord Yahweh! For I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!”

(4) Use a word that emphasizes the part of the sentence that brings about the strong feeling.

How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways beyond discovering! (Romans 11:33b ULT)

“His judgments are so unsearchable and his ways are far beyond discovering!”

(5) If the strong feeling is not clear in the target language, then tell how the person felt.

When Gideon saw that he was the angel of Yahweh, Gideon lamented, “Alas, O my Lord Yahweh, for because of this I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!” (Judges 6:22 ULT)

Gideon understood that this was the angel of Yahweh. He was terrified and said, “Alas, Lord Yahweh! I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!”

Exclusive and Inclusive 'We'

Description

Some languages have more than one form of "we": an inclusive form that means "I and you" and an exclusive form that means "I and someone else but not you." The exclusive form excludes the person being spoken to. The inclusive form includes the person being spoken to and possibly others. This is also true for "us," "our," "ours," and "ourselves." Some languages have inclusive forms and exclusive forms for each of these. Translators whose language has separate exclusive and inclusive forms for these words will need to understand what the speaker meant so that they can decide which form to use.

This page answers the question: What are the exclusive and inclusive forms of "we"?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

Pronouns

See the pictures. The people on the right are the people that the speaker is talking to. The yellow highlight shows who the inclusive "we" and the exclusive "we" refer to.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

The Bible was first written in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek languages. Like English, these languages do not have separate exclusive and inclusive forms for "we." If your language has separate exclusive and inclusive forms of "we," then you will need to understand what the speaker meant so that you can decide which form of "we" to use.

Examples From the Bible

Exclusive

They said, "There are not more than five loaves of bread and two fish with us—unless we go and buy food for all these people." (Luke 9:13 ULT)

In the second clause, the disciples are talking about some of them going to buy food. They were speaking to Jesus, but Jesus was not going to buy food. So languages that have inclusive and exclusive forms of "we" would use the exclusive form there.

We have seen it, and we bear witness to it. We are announcing to you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and which has been made known to us. (1 John 1:2 ULT)

John is telling people who have not seen Jesus what he and the other apostles have seen. So languages that have inclusive and exclusive forms of "we" and "us" would use the exclusive forms in this verse.

Inclusive

The shepherds said one to each other, "Let us now go to Bethlehem, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." (Luke 2:15b ULT)

The shepherds were speaking to one another. When they said "us," they were including the people they were speaking to, so languages that have inclusive and exclusive forms of "we" and "us" would use the inclusive form in this verse.

Now it happened that on one of those days, he indeed got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So they set sail. (Luke 8:22 ULT)

When Jesus said "us," he was referring to himself and to the disciples he was speaking to, so languages that have inclusive and exclusive forms of "we" and "us" would use the inclusive form in this verse.

First, Second or Third Person

Normally a speaker refers to himself as “I” and the person he is speaking to as “you.” Sometimes in the Bible a speaker refers to himself or to the person he is speaking to with terms other than “I” or “you.”

Description

- First person — This is how a speaker normally refers to himself. English uses the pronouns “I” and “we.” (Also: me, my, mine; us, our, ours)
- Second person — This is how a speaker normally refers to the person or people he is speaking to. English uses the pronoun “you.” (Also: your, yours)
- Third person — This is how a speaker refers to someone else. English uses the pronouns “he,” “she,” “it,” and “they.” (Also: him, his, her, hers, its; them, their, theirs) Noun phrases like “the man” or “the woman” are also third person.

This page answers the question: What are first, second, and third person, and how do I translate when a third person form does not refer to the third person?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

Pronouns

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Sometimes in the Bible a speaker uses the third person to refer to himself or to the people he is speaking to. Readers might think that the speaker was referring to someone else. They might not understand that he meant “I” or “you.”

Examples From the Bible

Sometimes people used the third person instead of “I” or “me” to refer to themselves.

But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father’s sheep.” (1 Samuel 17:34 ULT)

David referred to himself in the third person as “your servant” and used “his.” He was calling himself Saul’s servant in order to show his humility before Saul.

Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said,
“... Do you have an arm like God’s? Can you thunder with a voice like his?” (Job 40:6, 9 ULT)

God referred to himself in the third person with the words “God’s” and “his.” He did this to emphasize that he is God, and he is powerful.

Sometimes people use the third person instead of “you” or “your” to refer to the person or people they are speaking to.

Abraham answered and said, “Look, I have undertaken to speak to my Lord, even though I am only dust and ashes!” (Genesis 18:27 ULT)

Abraham was speaking to the Lord, and referred to the Lord as “My Lord” rather than as “you.” He did this to show his humility before God.

So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart. (Matthew 18:35 ULT)

After saying “each of you,” Jesus used the third person “his” instead of “your.”

Translation Strategies

If using the third person to mean “I” or “you” would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

- (1) Use the third person phrase along with the pronoun “I” or “you.”
- (2) Simply use the first person (“I”) or second person (“you”) instead of the third person.

Forms of You

Singular, Dual, and Plural

Some languages have more than one word for “you” based on how many people the word “you” refers to. The singular form refers to one person, and the plural form refers to more than one person. Some languages also have a dual form which refers to two people, and some languages have other forms that refer to three or four people.

Sometimes in the Bible a speaker uses a singular form of “you” even though he is speaking to a crowd.

Formal and Informal

Some languages have more than one form of “you” based on the relationship between the speaker and the person he is talking to. People use the formal form of “you” when speaking to someone who is older, or has higher authority, or is someone they do not know very well. People use the informal form when speaking to someone who is not older, or does not have higher authority, or is a family member or close friend.

Generic Noun Phrases

Description

Generic noun phrases refer to people or things in general rather than to specific individuals or things. This happens frequently in proverbs, because proverbs tell about things that are true about people in general.

This page answers the question: What are generic noun phrases and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

Can a man walk on hot coals without scorching his feet?
So is the man who goes in to his neighbor's wife;
the one who touches her will not go unpunished. (Proverbs 6:28-29 ULT)

The phrases in bold above do not refer to a specific man. They refer to any man who does these things.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Different languages have different ways of showing that noun phrases refer to something in general. You (the translator) should refer to these general ideas in ways that are natural in your language.

Examples From the Bible

The righteous person is kept away from trouble and it comes upon the wicked instead. (Proverbs 11:8 ULT)

The bold phrases above do not refer to a specific person but to anyone who does what is right or anyone who is wicked.

People curse the man who refuses to sell grain. (Proverbs 11:26 ULT)

This does not refer to a particular man, but to any person who refuses to sell grain.

Yahweh gives favor to a good man, but he condemns a man who makes evil plans. (Proverbs 12:2 ULT)

The phrase "a good man" does not refer to a particular man, but to any person who is good. The phrase "a man who makes evil plans" does not refer to a particular man, but to any person who makes evil plans.

Translation Strategies

If your language can use the same wording as in the ULT to refer to people or things in general rather than to specific individuals or things, consider using the same wording. If not, here are some strategies you might use.

- (1) Use the word "the" in the noun phrase.
- (2) Use the word "a" in the noun phrase.
- (3) Use the word "any," as in "any person" or "anyone."
- (4) Use the plural form, as in "people."

(5) Use any other way that is natural in your language.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the word “the” in the noun phrase.

Yahweh gives favor to a good man, but he condemns a man who makes evil plans. (Proverbs 12:2 ULT)

“Yahweh gives favor to the good man, but he condemns the man who makes evil plans.” (Proverbs 12:2)

(2) Use the word “a” in the noun phrase.

People curse the man who refuses to sell grain. (Proverbs 11:26 ULT)

“People curse a man who refuses to sell grain.”

(3) Use the word “any,” as in “any person” or “anyone.”

People curse the man who refuses to sell grain. (Proverbs 11:26 ULT)

“People curse any man who refuses to sell grain.”

(4) Use the plural form, as in “people” (or in this sentence, “men”).

People curse the man who refuses to sell grain. (Proverbs 11:26 ULT)

“People curse men who refuse to sell grain”

(5) Use any other way that is natural in your language.

People curse the man who refuses to sell grain. (Proverbs 11:26 ULT)

“People curse whoever refuses to sell grain.”

Hendiadys

Description

When a speaker expresses a single idea by using two words that are connected with “and,” it is called a hendiadys. In a hendiadys, the two words work together. Usually one of the words is the primary idea and the other word further describes the primary one.

This page answers the question: What is hendiadys and how can I translate phrases that have it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro\]\]](#)

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-partsofspeech\]\]](#)

... his own kingdom and glory. (1 Thessalonians 2:12b ULT)

Though “kingdom” and “glory” are both nouns, “glory” actually tells what kind of kingdom it is: it is a kingdom of glory or a glorious kingdom.

Two phrases connected by “and” can also be a hendiadys when they refer to a single person, thing, or event.

while we look forward to receiving the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. (Titus 2:13b ULT)

Titus 2:13 contains two hendiadyses. “The blessed hope” and “appearing of the glory” refer to the same thing and serve to strengthen the idea that the return of Jesus Christ is greatly anticipated and wonderful. Also, “our great God” and “Savior Jesus Christ” refer to one person, not two.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Often a hendiadys contains an abstract noun. Some languages may not have a noun with the same meaning.
- Many languages do not use the hendiadys, so people may not understand that the second word is further describing the first one.
- Many languages do not use the hendiadys, so people may not understand that only one person or thing is meant, not two.

Examples From the Bible

For I will give you a mouth and wisdom ... (Luke 21:15a ULT)

“A mouth” and “wisdom” are nouns, but in this figure of speech “wisdom” describes what comes from the mouth.

If you are willing and obedient ... (Isaiah 1:19a ULT)

“Willing” and “obedient” are adjectives, but “willing” describes “obedient.”

Translation Strategies

If the hendiadys would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

- (1) Substitute the describing noun with an adjective that means the same thing.
- (2) Substitute the describing noun with a phrase that means the same thing.
- (3) Substitute the describing adjective with an adverb that means the same thing.

(4) Substitute other parts of speech that mean the same thing and show that one word or phrase describes the other.

(5) If it is unclear that only one thing is meant, change the phrase so that this is clear.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Substitute the describing noun with an adjective that means the same thing.

For I will give you a mouth and wisdom ... (Luke 21:15a ULT)

For I will give you wise words ...

Walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory. (1 Thessalonians 2:12b ULT)

You should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you to his own glorious kingdom.

(2) Substitute the describing noun with a phrase that means the same thing.

For I will give you a mouth and wisdom ... (Luke 21:15a ULT) for I will give you words of wisdom.

You should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory. (1 Thessalonians 2:12b ULT)

You should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you to his own kingdom of glory.

(3) Substitute the describing adjective with an adverb that means the same thing.

If you are willing and obedient ... (Isaiah 1:19a ULT)

If you are willingly obedient ...

(4) Substitute other parts of speech that mean the same thing and show that one word or phrase describes the other.

If you are willing and obedient ... (Isaiah 1:19a ULT)

The adjective “obedient” can be substituted with the verb “obey.”

if you obey willingly ...

(4) and (5) If it is unclear that only one thing is meant, change the phrase so that this is clear.

We look forward to receiving the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. (Titus 2:13b ULT)

The noun “glory” can be changed to the adjective “glorious” to make it clear that Jesus’ appearing is what we hope for. Also, “Jesus Christ” can be moved to the front of the phrase and “great God and Savior” put into a relative clause that describes the one person, Jesus Christ.

We look forward to receiving what we are longing for, the blessed and glorious appearing of Jesus Christ, who is our great God and Savior.

How to Translate Names

Description

The Bible contains the names of many people, groups of people, and places. Some of these names may sound strange and be hard to say. Sometimes readers may not know what a name refers to, and sometimes they may need to understand what a name means. This page will help you see how you can translate these names and how you can help people understand what they need to know about them.

This page answers the question: How can I translate names that are new to my culture?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

Translate Unknowns

Meaning of names

Most names in the Bible have meaning. Most of the time, names in the Bible are used simply to identify the people and places they refer to, but sometimes the meaning of a name is especially important.

For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, was the one who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him. (Hebrews 7:1 ULT)

Here the writer uses the name “Melchizedek” primarily to refer to a man who had that name, and the title “king of Salem” tells us that he ruled over a certain city.

His name first indeed means “king of righteousness,” and then also “king of Salem,” that is, “king of peace.” (Hebrews 7:2b ULT)

Here the writer explains the meanings of Melchizedek’s name and title because those things tell us more about the person. Other times, the writer does not explain the meaning of a name because he expects the reader to already know the meaning. If the meaning of the name is important to understand the passage, you can include the meaning in the text or in a footnote.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Readers may not know some of the names in the Bible. They may not know whether a name refers to a person or place or something else.
- Readers may need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand the passage.
- Some names may have different sounds or combinations of sounds that are not used in your language or are unpleasant to say in your language. For strategies to address this problem, see Borrow Words.
- Some people and places in the Bible have two names. Readers may not realize that two names refer to the same person or place.

Examples From the Bible

Then you crossed over the Jordan and came to Jericho, and the men of Jericho, and the Amorites ... fought against you, but I gave them into your hand. (Joshua 24:11 ULT)

Readers might not know that “Jordan” is the name of a river, “Jericho” is the name of a city, and “Amorites” is the name of a group of people.

She said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore, the well was called Beer Lahai Roi. (Genesis 16:13b-14a ULT)

Readers may not understand the second sentence if they do not know that “Beer Lahai Roi” means “Well of the Living One who sees me.”

And she called his name Moses and she said, “For out of the water I drew him.” (Exodus 2:10b ULT)

Readers may not understand why she said this if they do not know that the name Moses sounds like the Hebrew words “pull out.”

Saul was in agreement with his execution. (Acts 8:1a ULT)

But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothing. (Acts 14:14a ULT)

Readers may not know that the names Saul and Paul refer to the same person.

Translation Strategies

- (1) If readers cannot easily understand from the context what kind of a thing a name refers to, you can add a word to clarify it.
- (2) If readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, copy the name and tell about its meaning either in the text or in a footnote.
- (3) Or if readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, and that name is used only once, translate the meaning of the name instead of copying the name.
- (4) If a person or place has two different names, use one name most of the time and the other name only when the text tells about the person or place having more than one name or when it says something about why the person or place was given that name. Write a footnote when the source text uses the name that is used less frequently.
- (5) Or if a person or place has two different names, then use whatever name is given in the source text, and add a footnote that gives the other name.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) If readers cannot easily understand from the context what kind of a thing a name refers to, you can add a word to clarify it.

Then you crossed over the Jordan and came to Jericho, and the men of Jericho, and the Amorites ... fought against you, but I gave them into your hand. (Joshua 24:11 ULT)

You went over the Jordan River and came to the city of Jericho. The men of Jericho fought against you, along with the tribe of the Amorites.

At that hour, certain Pharisees approached, saying to him, “Leave and go away from here, because Herod wants to kill you.” (Luke 13:31 ULT)

At that hour, certain Pharisees approached, saying to him, “Go and leave here, because King Herod wants to kill you.”

- (2) If readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, copy the name and tell about its meaning either in the text or in a footnote.

And she called his name Moses and she said, "For out of the water I drew him." (Exodus 2:10b ULT)

She called his name Moses (which sounds like 'drawn out'), and she said, "For out of the water I drew him."

(3) Or if readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, and that name is used only once, translate the meaning of the name instead of copying the name.

She said, "Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?" Therefore, the well was called Beer Lahai Roi. (Genesis 16:13b-14a ULT)

(4) If a person or place has two different names, use one name most of the time and the other name only when the text tells about the person or place having more than one name or when it says something about why the person or place was given that name. Write a footnote when the source text uses the name that is used less frequently. For example, Paul is called "Saul" before Acts 13 and "Paul" after Acts 13. You could translate his name as "Paul" all of the time, except in Acts 13:9 where it talks about him having both names.

... a young man named Saul. (Acts 7:58b ULT)

... a young man named Paul 1

The footnote would look like:

[1] Most versions say "Saul" here, but most of the time in the Bible he is called "Paul."

Then later in the story, you could translate this way:

But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit; (Acts 13:9)

But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit;

(5) Or if a person or place has two names, use whatever name is given in the source text, and add a footnote that gives the other name. For example, you could write "Saul" where the source text has "Saul" and "Paul" where the source text has "Paul."

a young man named Saul (Acts 7:58 ULT)

a young man named Saul

The footnote would look like:

[1] This is the same man who is called Paul beginning in Acts 13.

Then later in the story, you could translate this way:

But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit; (Acts 13:9)

But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit;

Then after the story has explained the name change, you could translate this way.

It came about in Iconium that Paul and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue (Acts 14:1 ULT)

It came about in Iconium that Paul¹ and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue

The footnote would look like:

^[1] This is the same man who was called Saul before Acts 13.

Hyperbole

Description

A speaker or writer can use exactly the same words to say something that he means as completely true, or as generally true, or as a hyperbole. This is why it can be hard to decide how to understand a statement. For example, the sentence below could mean three different things.

It rains here every night.

The speaker means this as literally true if he means that it really does rain here every night.

The speaker means this as a generalization if he means that it rains here most nights.

The speaker means this as a hyperbole if he wants to say that it rains more than it actually does, usually in order to express a strong attitude toward the amount or frequency of rain, such as being annoyed or being happy about it.

This page answers the question: What are hyperboles? What are generalizations? How can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro]]

Hyperbole

In hyperbole, a figure of speech that uses exaggeration, a speaker deliberately describes something with an extreme or even unreal statement, usually to show his strong feeling or opinion about it. He expects people to understand that he is exaggerating.

They will not leave stone upon stone in you. (Luke 19:44b ULT)

This is an exaggeration. It means that the enemies will completely destroy Jerusalem.

Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. (Acts 7:22a ULT)

This hyperbole means that he had learned everything an Egyptian education could offer.

Generalization

This is a statement that is true most of the time or in most situations that it could apply to.

The one who ignores instruction will have poverty and shame, but honor will come to him who learns from correction. (Proverbs 13:18)

These generalizations tell about what normally happens to people who ignore instruction and what normally happens to people who learn from correction. There may be some exceptions to these statements, but they are generally true.

And when you pray, do not make useless repetitions as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard because of their many words. (Matthew 6:7)

This generalization tells about what Gentiles were known for doing. Many Gentiles did this. It does not matter if a few did not. The point was that the hearers should not join in this well-known practice.

Even though a hyperbole or a generalization may have a strong-sounding word like "all," "always," "none," or "never," it does not necessarily mean exactly "all," "always," "none," or "never." It simply means "most," "most of the time," "hardly any," or "rarely."

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Readers need to be able to understand whether or not a statement is literally true.

If readers realize that a statement is not literally true, they need to be able to understand whether it is a hyperbole, a generalization, or a lie. (Though the Bible is completely true, it tells about people who did not always tell the truth.)

Examples From the Bible

Examples of Hyperbole

If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed ... (Mark 9:43a ULT)

When Jesus said to cut off your hand, he meant that we should do whatever extreme things we need to do in order not to sin. He used this hyperbole to show how extremely important it is to try to stop sinning.

The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel with 3,000 chariots, 6,000 men to drive the chariots, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. (1 Samuel 13:5a ULT)

The bolded phrase is an exaggeration for the purpose of expressing the emotion that the Philistine army was overwhelming in number. It means that there were many, many soldiers in the Philistine army.

But as his anointing teaches you everything and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, remain in him. (1 John 2:27b ULT)

This is a hyperbole. It expresses the assurance that God's Spirit teaches us about all things that we need to know. God's Spirit does not teach us about everything that it is possible to know.

When they found him, they also said to him, "Everyone is looking for you." (Mark 1:37 ULT)

The disciples probably did not mean that everyone in the city was looking for Jesus, but that many people were looking for him, or that all of Jesus' closest friends there were looking for him. This is an exaggeration for the purpose of expressing the emotion that they and many others were worried about him.

Examples of Generalization

Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? (John 1:46b ULT)

This rhetorical question is meant to express the generalization that there is nothing good in Nazareth. The people there had a reputation for being uneducated and not strictly religious. Of course, there were exceptions.

One of them, of their own prophets, has said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies." (Titus 1:12 ULT)

This is a generalization that means that Cretans had a reputation to be like this because, in general, this is how Cretans behaved. It is possible that there were exceptions.

A lazy hand causes a person to be poor, but the hand of the diligent person gains riches. (Proverbs 10:4 ULT)

This is generally true, and it reflects the experience of most people. It is possible that there are exceptions in some circumstances.

Caution

- Do not assume that something is an exaggeration just because it seems to be impossible. God does miraculous things.

They saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat. (John 6:19b ULT)

This is not hyperbole. Jesus really walked on the water. It is a literal statement.

- Do not assume that the word “all” is always a generalization that means “most.”
 - > Yahweh is righteous in all his ways
 - > and gracious in all he does. (Psalms 145:17 ULT)

Yahweh is always righteous. This is a completely true statement.

Translation Strategies

If the hyperbole or generalization would be natural and people would understand it and not think that it is a lie, consider using it. If not, here are other options.

- (1) Express the meaning without the exaggeration.
- (2) For a generalization, show that it is a generalization by using a phrase like “in general” or “in most cases.”
- (3) For a hyperbole or a generalization, add a word like “many” or “almost” to show that the hyperbole or generalization is not meant to be exact.
- (4) For a hyperbole or a generalization that has a word like “all,” “always,” “none,” or “never,” consider deleting that word.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) Express the meaning without the exaggeration.

The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel: 3,000 chariots, 6,000 men to drive the chariots, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. (1 Samuel 13:5a ULT)

- (2) For a generalization, show that it is a generalization by using a phrase like “in general” or “in most cases.”

Almost all the country of Judea and almost all the people of Jerusalem went out to him.

or:

Many of the country of Judea and many of the people of Jerusalem went out to him.

Hypothetical Situations

Consider these phrases: “If the sun stopped shining ...” “What if the sun stopped shining ...” “Suppose the sun stopped shining ...” and “If only the sun had not stopped shining.” We use such expressions to set up hypothetical situations, imagining what might have happened or what could happen in the future but probably will not. We also use them to express regret or wishes. Hypothetical expressions occur often in the Bible. You (the translator) need to translate them in a way that people will know that the event did not actually happen and so that they will understand why the event was imagined.

This page answers the question: What is a hypothetical situation?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/writing-intro\]\]](#)

Description

Hypothetical situations are situations that are not real. They can be in the past, present, or future. Hypothetical situations in the past and present have not happened, are not happening now, and ones in the future are not expected to happen.

People sometimes tell about conditions and what would happen if those conditions were met, but they know that these things have not happened or probably will not happen. (The conditions comprise a phrase that starts with “if.”)

- If he had lived to be 100 years old, he would have seen his grandson’s grandson. (But he did not.)
- If he lived to be 100 years old, he would still be alive today. (But he is not.)
- If he lives to be 100 years old, he will see his grandson’s grandson. (But he probably will not.)

People sometimes express wishes about things that have not happened or that are not expected to happen.

- I wish he had come.
- I wish he were here.
- I wish he would come.

People sometimes express regrets about things that have not happened or that are not expected to happen.

- If only he had come.
- If only he were here.
- If only he would come.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- Translators need to recognize the different kinds of hypothetical situations in the Bible and understand that they are unreal.
- Translators need to know their own language’s ways of talking about different kinds of hypothetical situations.

Examples From the Bible

Hypothetical Situations in the Past

“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.” (Matthew 11:21 ULT)

Here in Matthew 11:21, Jesus said that if the people living in the ancient cities of Tyre and Sidon had been able to see the miracles that he performed, they would have repented long ago. The people of Tyre and Sidon did not actually see his miracles, and they did not repent. He said this to rebuke the people of Chorazin and Bethsaida who had seen his miracles and yet did not repent.

Martha then said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” (John 11:21 ULT)

Martha said this to express her wish that Jesus would have come sooner so that her brother would not have died. But Jesus did not come sooner and her brother did die.

Hypothetical Situations in the Present

And no man puts new wine into old wineskins. But if he did do that, the new wine would burst the wineskins, and it would be spilled out, and the wineskins would be destroyed. (Luke 5:37 ULT)

Jesus told about what would happen if a person were to put new wine into old wineskins. But no one would do that. He used this imaginary situation as an example to show that there are times when it is unwise to mix new things with old things. He did this so that people could understand why his disciples were not fasting as people traditionally did.

Jesus said to them, “What man would there be among you, who, if he had just one sheep, and if this sheep fell into a deep hole on the Sabbath, would not grasp hold of it and lift it out?” (Matthew 12:11 ULT)

Jesus asked the religious leaders what they would do on the Sabbath if one of their sheep fell into a hole. He was not saying that their sheep would fall into a hole. He used this imaginary situation to show them that they were wrong to judge him for healing people on the Sabbath.

Hypothetical Situation in the Future

Unless those days are shortened, no flesh would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened. (Matthew 24:22 ULT)

Jesus was talking about a future time when very bad things would happen. He told what would happen if those days of trouble were to last a long time. He did this to show how bad those days will be—so bad that if they lasted a long time, no one would be saved. But then he clarified that God will shorten those days of trouble so that the elect (those he has chosen) will be saved.

Expressing Emotion About a Hypothetical Situation

People sometimes talk about hypothetical situations in order to express regrets and wishes. Regrets are about the past and wishes are about the present and future.

The Israelites said to them, “If only we had died by Yahweh’s hand in the land of Egypt when we were sitting by the pots of meat and were eating bread to the full. For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill our whole community with hunger.” (Exodus 16:3 ULT)

Here the Israelites were afraid that they would have to suffer and die of hunger in the wilderness, and so they wished that they had stayed in Egypt and died there with full stomachs. They were complaining, expressing regret that this had not happened.

I know what you have done, and that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were either cold or hot! (Revelation 3:15 ULT)

Jesus wished that the people were either hot or cold, but they are neither. He was rebuking them, expressing anger at this.

Translation Strategies

Find out how people speaking your language show:

- that something could have happened, but did not.
- that something could be true now, but is not.
- that something could happen in the future, but will not unless something changes.
- that they wish for something, but it does not happen.
- that they regret that something did not happen.

Use your language's ways of showing these kinds of things.

Idiom

An idiom is a figure of speech made up of a group of words that, as a whole, has a meaning that is different from what one would understand from the meanings of the individual words. Someone from outside of the culture usually cannot understand an idiom without someone inside the culture explaining its true meaning. Every language uses idioms. Some English examples are:

- You are pulling my leg. (This means, “You are teasing me by telling me something that is not true.”)
- Do not push the envelope. (This means, “Do not take a matter to its extreme.”)
- This house is under water. (This means, “The debt owed for this house is greater than its actual value.”)
- We are painting the town red. (This means, “We are going around town tonight celebrating very intensely.”)

This page answers the question: What are idioms and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro]]

Description

An idiom is a phrase that has a special meaning to the people of the language or culture who use it. Its meaning is different than what a person would understand from the meanings of the individual words that form the phrase.

He set his face to go to Jerusalem. (Luke 9:51b ULT)

The words “set his face” is an idiom that means “decided.”

Sometimes people may be able to understand an idiom from another culture, but it might sound like a strange way to express the meaning.

I am not worthy that you would come under my roof. (Luke 7:6b ULT)

The phrase “come under my roof” is an idiom that means “enter my house.”

Put these words into your ears. (Luke 9:44a ULT)

This idiom means “Listen carefully and remember what I say.”

Purpose: An idiom is probably created in a culture somewhat by accident when someone describes something in an unusual way. But, when that unusual way communicates the message powerfully and people understand it clearly, other people start to use it. After a while, it becomes a normal way of talking in that language.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- People can easily misunderstand idioms in the original languages of the Bible if they do not know the cultures that produced the Bible.
- People can easily misunderstand idioms that are in the source language Bibles if they do not know the cultures that made those translations.
- It is useless to translate idioms literally (according to the meaning of each word) when the target language audience will not understand what they mean.

Examples From the Bible

Then all Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Look, we are your flesh and bone.” (1 Chronicles 11:1 ULT)

This means, “We and you belong to the same race, the same family.”

█ The children of Israel went out with a high hand. (Exodus 14:8b ASV)

This means, "The Israelites went out defiantly."

█ the one who lifts up my head (Psalm 3:3b ULT)

This means, "the one who helps me."

Translation Strategies

If the idiom would be clearly understood in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

- (1) Translate the meaning plainly without using an idiom.
- (2) Use a different idiom that people use in your own language that has the same meaning.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

Imperatives — Other Uses

Description

Imperative sentences are mainly used to express a desire or requirement that someone do something. In the Bible, sometimes imperative sentences have other uses.

This page answers the question: What other uses are there for imperative sentences in the Bible?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-sentencetypes\]\]](#)

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages would not use an imperative sentence for some of the functions that they are used for in the Bible.

Examples From the Bible

Speakers often use imperative sentences to tell or ask their listeners to do something. In Genesis 26, God spoke to Isaac and told him not to go to Egypt but to live where God would tell him to live.

Now Yahweh appeared to him and said, “Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land that I tell you to live in.” (Genesis 26:2 ULT)

Sometimes imperative sentences in the Bible have other uses.

Imperatives that make things happen

God can make things happen by commanding that they happen. Jesus healed a man by commanding that the man be healed. The man could not do anything to obey the command, but Jesus caused him to be healed by commanding it. (In this context, the command “Be clean” means to “be healed” so that others around would know that it was safe to touch the man again.)

“I am willing. Be clean.” Immediately he was cleansed of his leprosy. (Matthew 8:3b ULT)

In Genesis 1, God commanded that there should be light, and by commanding it, he caused it to exist. Some languages, such as the Hebrew of the Bible, have commands that are in the third person. English does not do that, and so it must turn the third-person command into a general, second-person command, as in the ULT:

God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULT)

Languages that have third-person commands can follow the original Hebrew, which translates into English as something like “light must be.”

Imperatives that function as blessings

In the Bible, God blesses people by using imperatives. This indicates what his will is for them.

God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful, and multiply. Fill the earth, and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.” (Genesis 1:28 ULT)

Imperatives that function as conditions

An imperative sentence can also be used to tell the condition under which something will happen. The proverbs mainly tell about life and things that often happen. The purpose of Proverbs 4:6 below is not primarily to give a command, but to teach what people can expect to happen if they love wisdom.

Do not abandon wisdom and she will watch over you; love her and she will keep you safe. (Proverbs 4:6 ULT)

The purpose of Proverbs 22:6, below, is to teach what people can expect to happen if they teach their children the way they should go.

Teach a child the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn away from that instruction. (Proverbs 22:6 ULT)

Translation Strategies

- (1) If people would not use an imperative sentence for one of the functions in the Bible, try using a statement instead.
- (2) If people would not understand that a sentence is used to cause something to happen, add a connecting word like “so” to show that what happened was a result of what was said.
- (3) If people would not use a command as a condition, translate it as a statement with the words “if” and “then.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) If people would not use an imperative sentence for one of the functions in the Bible, try using a statement instead.

Be clean. (Matthew 8:3b ULT)

“You are now clean.”
“I now cleanse you.”

God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULT)

God said, “There is now light” and there was light.

God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful, and multiply. Fill the earth, and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.” (Genesis 1:28 ULT)

God blessed them and said to them, “My will for you is that you be fruitful, and multiply. Fill the earth, and subdue it. I want you to have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.”

- (2) If people would not understand that a sentence is used to cause something to happen, add a connecting word like “so” to show that what happened was a result of what was said.

God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULT)

God said, ‘Let there be light,’ so there was light.
God said, “Light must be;” as a result, there was light.

(3) If people would not use a command as a condition, translate it as a statement with the words “if” and “then.”

Teach a child the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn away from that instruction. (Proverbs 22:6 ULT)

Irony

Description

Irony is a figure of speech in which the sense that the speaker intends to communicate is actually the opposite of the literal meaning of the words. Sometimes a person does this by using someone else's words, but in a way that communicates that he does not agree with them. People do this to emphasize how different something is from what it should be, or how someone else's belief about something is wrong or foolish. It is often humorous.

This page answers the question: What is irony and how can I translate it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro]]

Then Jesus answered and said to them, "People who are well do not have need of a physician, but those who have sickness. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."
(Luke 5:31-32 ULT)

When Jesus spoke of "righteous people," he was not referring to people who were truly righteous, but to people who wrongly believed that they were righteous. By using irony, Jesus communicated that they were wrong to think that they were better than others and did not need to repent.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

If someone does not realize that a speaker is using irony, he will think that the speaker actually believes what he is saying. He will understand the passage to mean the opposite of what it was intended to mean.

Examples From the Bible

How well you reject the commandment of God so that you may keep your tradition! (Mark 7:9b ULT)

Here Jesus praises the Pharisees for doing something that is obviously wrong. Through irony, he communicates the opposite of praise: He communicates that the Pharisees, who take great pride in keeping the commandments, are so far from God that they do not even recognize that their traditions are breaking God's commandments. The use of irony makes the Pharisee's sin more obvious and startling.

"Present your case," says Yahweh; "present your best arguments for your idols," says the King of Jacob. "Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well. Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled." (Isaiah 41:21-22 ULT)

People worshiped idols as if their idols had knowledge or power, and Yahweh was angry at them for doing that. So he used irony and challenged their idols to tell what would happen in the future. He knew that the idols could not do this, but by speaking as if they could, he mocked the idols, making their inability more obvious, and rebuked the people for worshipping them.

Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?
Can you find the way back to their houses for them?
Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then; "the number of your days is so large!" (Job 38:20-21 ULT)

Job thought that he was wise. Yahweh used irony to show Job that he was not so wise. The two phrases in bold above are irony. They emphasize the opposite of what they say, because they are so obviously false. They emphasize that Job could not possibly answer God's questions about the creation of light because Job was not born until many, many years later.

Already you are satisfied! Already you have become rich! You began to reign apart from us, and I wish you really did reign, so that we also might reign with you. (1 Corinthians 4:8 ULT)

The Corinthians considered themselves to be very wise, self-sufficient, and not in need of any instruction from the Apostle Paul. Paul used irony, speaking as if he agreed with them, to show how proudly they were acting and how far from being wise they really were.

Translation Strategies

If the irony would be understood correctly in your language, translate it as it is stated. If not, here are some other strategies.

(1) Translate it in a way that shows that the speaker is saying what someone else believes.

(2) The irony is not found in the literal words of the speaker, but instead the true meaning is found in the opposite of the literal meaning of the speaker's words.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Translate it in a way that shows that the speaker is saying what someone else believes.

How well you reject the commandment of God so that you may keep your tradition! (Mark 7:9a ULT)

You think that you are doing well when you reject God's commandment so you may keep your tradition!

You act like it is good to reject God's commandment so you may keep your tradition!

I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. (Luke 5:32 ULT)

I did not come to call people who think that they are righteous to repentance, but to call sinners to repentance.

(2) Translate the actual, intended meaning of the statement of irony.

How well you reject the commandment of God so that you may keep your tradition! (Mark 7:9a ULT)

You are doing a terrible thing when you reject the commandment of God so you may keep your tradition!

"Present your case," says Yahweh; "present your best arguments for your idols," says the King of Jacob. "Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well. Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled." (Isaiah 41:21-22 ULT)

'Present your case,' says Yahweh; 'present your best arguments for your idols,' says the King of Jacob. Your idols cannot bring us their own arguments or come forward to declare to us what will happen so we may know these things well. We cannot hear them because they cannot speak to tell us their earlier predictive declarations, so we cannot reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled.

Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?

Can you find the way back to their houses for them?

Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then;
the number of your days is so large! (Job 38:20-21 ULT)

Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work? Can you find the way back to their houses for them? You act like you know how light and darkness were created, as if you were there; as if you are as old as creation, but you are not!

Litotes

Description

Litotes is a figure of speech in which the speaker expresses a strong positive meaning by negating a word or phrase that means the opposite of the meaning that he intends. For example, someone could intend to communicate that something is extremely good by describing it as "not bad." The difference between a litotes and a double negative is that a litotes heightens the positive meaning beyond what a plain positive statement would do, and a double negative does not. In the example above, the literal meaning of "not bad," taken as a plain double negative, would be "acceptable" or even "good." But if the speaker intended it as a litotes, then the meaning is "very good" or "extremely good."

This page answers the question: What is litotes?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro]]

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages do not use litotes. People who speak those languages might not understand that a statement using litotes actually strengthens the positive meaning. Instead, they might think that it weakens or even cancels the positive meaning.

Examples From the Bible

For you yourselves know, brothers, that our coming to you was not useless, (1 Thessalonians 2:1 ULT)

By using litotes, Paul emphasized that his visit with them was very useful.

Now when it became day, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers over what therefore had happened to Peter. (Acts 12:18 ULT)

By using litotes, Luke emphasized that there was a lot of excitement or anxiety among the soldiers about what happened to Peter. (Peter had been in prison, and even though there were soldiers guarding him, he escaped when an angel let him out. So they were very agitated.)

But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are not the least among the leaders of Judah, for from you will come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel. (Matthew 2:6 ULT)

By using litotes, the prophet emphasized that Bethlehem would be a very important city.

Translation Strategies

If the litotes would be understood correctly, consider using it.

(1) If the meaning with the negative would not be clear, give the positive meaning in a strong way.

Merism

Definition

Merism is a figure of speech in which a person refers to something by speaking of two extreme parts of it. By referring to the extreme parts, the speaker intends to include also everything in between those parts.

“I am the alpha and the omega,” says the Lord God,
“the one who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.” (Revelation 1:8 ULT)

I am the alpha and the omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.
(Revelation 22:13, ULT)

This page answers the question: What does the word merism mean and how can I translate phrases that have it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro]]

Alpha and omega are the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. This is a merism that includes everything from the beginning to the end. It means eternal.

... I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth ..., (Matthew 11:25b ULT)

Heaven and earth is a merism that includes everything that exists.

Reason This is a Translation Issue

Some languages do not use merism. The readers of those languages may think that the phrase only applies to the items mentioned. They may not realize that it refers to those two things and everything in between.

Examples From the Bible

From the rising of the sun to its setting, Yahweh’s name should be praised. (Psalm 113:3 ULT)

This bolded phrase is a merism because it speaks of the east and the west and everywhere in between. It means “everywhere.”

He will bless those who honor him, both young and old. (Psalm 115:13)

The bolded phrase is merism because it speaks of old people and young people and everyone in between. It means “everyone.”

Translation Strategies

If the merism would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

- (1) Identify what the merism refers to without mentioning the parts.
- (2) Identify what the merism refers to and include the parts.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) Identify what the merism refers to without mentioning the parts.

I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth. (Matthew 11:25b ULT)

I praise you, Father, Lord of everything.

From the rising of the sun to its setting, Yahweh's name should be praised. (Psalm 113:3 ULT)

In all places, people should praise Yahweh's name.

(2) Identify what the merism refers to and include the parts.

I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth. (Matthew 11:25b ULT)

I praise you, Father, Lord of everything, including both what is in heaven and what is on earth.

He will bless those who honor him, both young and old. (Psalm 115:13 ULT)

He will bless all those who honor him, regardless of whether they are young or old.

Metaphor

Description

A metaphor is a figure of speech in which someone speaks of one thing as if it were a different thing because he wants people to think about how those two things are alike.

For example, someone might say, “The girl I love is a red rose.”

A girl and a rose are very different things, but the speaker considers that they are alike in some way. The hearer’s task is to understand in what way they are alike.

This page answers the question: What is a metaphor and how can I translate a Bible passage that has one?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro\]\]](#)

Simile

The Parts of a Metaphor

The example above shows us that a metaphor has three parts. In this metaphor, the speaker is talking about “the girl I love.” This is the Topic. The speaker wants the hearer to think about what is similar between her and “a red rose.” The red rose is the Image to which he compares the girl. Most probably, he wants the hearer to consider that they are both beautiful. This is the Idea that the girl and the rose both share, and so we may also call it the Point of Comparison.

Every metaphor has three parts:

- The Topic, the item being immediately discussed by the writer/speaker.
- The Image, the physical item (object, event, action, etc.) which the speaker uses to describe the topic.
- The Idea, the abstract concept or quality that the physical Image brings to the mind of the hearer when he thinks of how the Image and the Topic are similar. Often, the Idea of a metaphor is not explicitly stated in the Bible, but it is only implied from the context. The hearer or reader usually needs to think of the Idea himself.

Using these terms, we can say that a metaphor is a figure of speech that uses a physical Image to apply an abstract Idea to the speaker’s Topic.

Usually, a writer or speaker uses a metaphor in order to express something about a Topic, with at least one Point of Comparison (Idea) between the Topic and the Image. Often in metaphors, the Topic and the Image are explicitly stated, but the Idea is only implied. The writer/speaker often uses a metaphor in order to invite the readers/listeners to think about the similarity between the Topic and the Image and to figure out for themselves the Idea that is being communicated.

Speakers often use metaphors in order to strengthen their message, to make their language more vivid, to express their feelings better, to say something that is hard to say in any other way, or to help people remember their message.

Sometimes speakers use metaphors that are very common in their language. However, sometimes speakers use metaphors that are uncommon, and even some metaphors that are unique. When a metaphor has become very common in a language, often it becomes a “passive” metaphor, in contrast to uncommon metaphors, which we describe as being “active.” Passive metaphors and active metaphors each present a different kind of translation problem, which we will discuss below.

Passive Metaphors

A passive metaphor is a metaphor that has been used so much in the language that its speakers no longer regard it as one concept standing for another. Linguists often call these “dead metaphors.” Passive metaphors are extremely common. Examples in English include the terms “table leg,” “family tree,” “book leaf” (meaning a page in a book), or the word “crane” (meaning a large machine for lifting heavy loads). English speakers simply think of these words as having more than one meaning. Examples of passive metaphors in Biblical Hebrew include using the word “hand” to represent “power,” using the word “face” to represent “presence,” and speaking of emotions or moral qualities as if they were “clothing.”

Patterned Pairs of Concepts Acting as Metaphors

Many ways of metaphorical speaking depend on pairs of concepts, where one underlying concept frequently stands for a different underlying concept. For example, in English, the direction “up” (the Image) often represents the concepts of “more” or “better” (the Idea). Because of this pair of underlying concepts, we can make sentences such as “The price of gasoline is going up,” “A highly intelligent man,” and also the opposite kind of idea: “The temperature is going down,” and “I am feeling very low.”

Patterned pairs of concepts are constantly used for metaphorical purposes in the world’s languages because they serve as convenient ways to organize thought. In general, people like to speak of abstract qualities (such as power, presence, emotions, and moral qualities) as if they were body parts, or as if they were objects that could be seen or held, or as if they were events that could be watched as they happened.

When these metaphors are used in normal ways, it is rare that the speaker and audience regard them as figurative speech. Examples of metaphors in English that go unrecognized are:

- “Turn the heat up.” More is spoken of as up.
- “Let us go ahead with our debate.” Doing what was planned is spoken of as walking or advancing.
- “You defend your theory well.” Argument is spoken of as war.
- “A flow of words.” Words are spoken of as liquids.

English speakers do not view these as metaphorical expressions or figures of speech, so it would be wrong to translate them into other languages in a way that would lead people to pay special attention to them as figurative speech. For a description of important patterns of this kind of metaphor in biblical languages, please see Biblical Imagery — Common Patterns and the pages it will direct you to.

When translating something that is a passive metaphor into another language, do not treat it as a metaphor. Instead, just use the best expression for that thing or concept in the target language.

Active Metaphors

These are metaphors that people recognize as one concept standing for another concept, or one thing for another thing. Metaphors make people think about how the one thing is like the other thing, because in most ways the two things are very different. People also easily recognize these metaphors as giving strength and unusual qualities to the message. For this reason, people pay attention to these metaphors. For example,

But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings.
(Malachi 4:2a ULT)

Here, God speaks about his salvation as if it were the sun rising in order to shine its rays on the people whom he loves. He also speaks of the sun’s rays as if they were wings. Also, he speaks of these wings as if they were bringing medicine that would heal his people. Here is another example:

And he said to them, “Go and tell that fox ...” (Luke 13:32a ULT)

Here, “that fox” refers to King Herod. The people listening to Jesus certainly understood that Jesus was intending for them to apply certain characteristics of a fox to Herod. They probably understood that Jesus intended to communicate that Herod was evil, either in a cunning way or as someone who was destructive, murderous, or who took things that did not belong to him, or all of these.

Active metaphors require the translator's special care to make a correct translation. To do so, you need to understand the parts of a metaphor and how they work together to produce meaning.

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; he who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty." (John 6:35 ULT)

In this metaphor, Jesus called himself the bread of life. The Topic is "I" (meaning Jesus himself) and the Image is "bread." Bread was the primary food that people ate in that place and time. The similarity between bread and Jesus is that people need both to live. Just as people need to eat food in order to have physical life, people need to trust in Jesus in order to have eternal life. The Idea of the metaphor is "life." In this case, Jesus stated the central Idea of the metaphor, but often the Idea is only implied.

Purposes of Metaphor

- One purpose of metaphor is to teach people about something that they do not know (the Topic) by showing that it is like something that they already do know (the Image).
- Another purpose is to emphasize that something (the Topic) has a particular quality (the Idea) or to show that it has that quality in an extreme way.
- Another purpose is to lead people to feel the same way about the Topic as they would feel about the Image.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- People may not recognize that something is a metaphor. In other words, they may mistake a metaphor for a literal statement, and thus, misunderstand it.
- People may not be familiar with the thing that is used as an image, and so, not be able to understand the metaphor.
- If the topic is not stated, people may not know what the topic is.
- People may not know the points of comparison that the speaker wants them to understand. If they fail to think of these points of comparison, they will not understand the metaphor.
- People may think that they understand the metaphor, but they do not. This can happen when they apply points of comparison from their own culture, rather than from the biblical culture.

Translation Principles

- Make the meaning of a metaphor as clear to the target audience as it was to the original audience.
- Do not make the meaning of a metaphor more clear to the target audience than you think it was to the original audience.

Examples From the Bible

Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, (Amos 4:1q ULT)

In this metaphor Amos speaks to the upper-class women of Samaria ("you," the Topic) as if they were cows (the Image). Amos does not say what similarity(s) he intends between these women and cows. He wants the reader to think of them, and he fully expects that readers from his culture will easily do so. From the context, we can see that he means that the women are like cows in that they are fat and interested only in feeding themselves. If we were to apply similarities from a different culture, such as that cows are sacred and should be worshiped, we would get the wrong meaning from this verse.

NOTE: Amos does not actually mean that the women are cows. He speaks to them as human beings.

Yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULT)

The example above has two related metaphors. The Topic(s) are “we” and “you,” and the Image(s) are “clay” and “potter.” The similarity between a potter and God is the fact that both make what they wish out of their material. The potter makes what he wishes out of the clay, and God makes what he wishes out of his people. The Idea being expressed by the comparison between the potter’s clay and “us” is that neither the clay nor God’s people have a right to complain about what they are becoming.

Jesus said to them, “Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” The disciples reasoned among themselves and said, “It is because we did not take bread.” (Matthew 16:6-7 ULT)

Jesus used a metaphor here, but his disciples did not realize it. When he said “yeast,” they thought he was talking about bread, but “yeast” was the Image in his metaphor, and the Topic was the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. Since the disciples (the original audience) did not understand what Jesus meant, it would not be good to state clearly here what Jesus meant.

Translation Strategies

If people would understand the metaphor in the same way that the original readers would have understood it, go ahead and use it. Be sure to test the translation to make sure that people do understand it in the right way.

If people do not or would not understand it, here are some other strategies.

- (1) If the metaphor is a common expression in the source language or expresses a patterned pair of concepts in a biblical language (that is, it is a passive metaphor), then express the Idea in the simplest way preferred by your language.
- (2) If the metaphor seems to be an active metaphor, you can translate it literally if you think that the target language also uses this metaphor in the same way to mean the same thing as in the Bible. If you do this, be sure to test it to make sure that the language community understands it correctly.
- (3) If the target audience does not realize that it is a metaphor, then change the metaphor to a simile. Some languages do this by adding words such as “like” or “as.” See Simile.
- (4) If the target audience would not know the Image, see Translate Unknowns for ideas on how to translate that image.
- (5) If the target audience would not use that Image for that meaning, use an image from your own culture instead. Be sure that it is an image that could have been possible in Bible times.
- (6) If the target audience would not know what the Topic is, then state the topic clearly. (However, do not do this if the original audience did not know what the Topic was.)
- (7) If the target audience would not know the intended similarity (the Idea) between the topic and the image, then state it clearly.
- (8) If none of these strategies is satisfactory, then simply state the Idea plainly without using a metaphor.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the metaphor is a common expression in the source language or expresses a patterned pair of concepts in a biblical language (that is, a passive metaphor), then express the Idea in the simplest way preferred by your language.

Then, see, one of the leaders of the synagogue, named Jairus, came, and when he saw him, fell at his feet. (Mark 5:22 ULT)

Then one of the leaders of the synagogue, named Jairus, came, and when he saw him, immediately bowed down in front of him.

(2) If the metaphor seems to be an active metaphor, you can translate it literally if you think that the target language also uses this metaphor in the same way to mean the same thing as in the Bible. If you do this, be sure to test it to make sure that the language community understands it correctly.

But Jesus said to them, “He wrote this commandment to you because of your hardness of heart.” (Mark 10:5 ULT)

It was because of your hard hearts that he wrote you this law.

We made no change to this one, but it must be tested to make sure that the target audience correctly understands this metaphor.

(3) If the target audience does not realize that it is a metaphor, then change the metaphor to a simile. Some languages do this by adding words such as “like” or “as.”

Yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULT)

And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are like clay. You are like a potter; and we all are the work of your hand.

(4) If the target audience would not know the Image, see Translate Unknowns for ideas on how to translate that image.

Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against a goad. (Acts 26:14b ULT)

Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against a pointed stick.

(5) If the target audience would not use that Image for that meaning, use an image from your own culture instead. Be sure that it is an image that could have been possible in Bible times.

Yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULT)

“And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the wood. You are our carver; and we all are the work of your hand.”

“And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the string. You are the weaver; and we all are the work of your hand.”

(6) If the target audience would not know what the Topic is, then state the topic clearly. (However, do not do this if the original audience did not know what the topic was.)

Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted. (Psalm 18:46 ULT)

Yahweh lives; He is my rock. May he be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted.

(7) If the target audience would not know the intended similarity between the Topic and the Image, then state it clearly.

Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted. (Psalm 18:46 ULT)

Yahweh lives; may he be praised because he is the rock under which I can hide from my enemies. May the God of my salvation be exalted.

Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against a goad. (Acts 26:14 ULT)

Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? You fight against me and hurt yourself like an ox that kicks against its owner's pointed stick.

(8) If none of these strategies are satisfactory, then simply state the idea plainly without using a metaphor.

I will make you to become fishers of men. (Mark 1:17b ULT)

I will make you to become people who gather men.
Now you gather fish. I will make you gather people.

Metonymy

Description

Metonymy is a figure of speech in which an item (either physical or abstract) is called not by its own name, but by the name of something closely associated with it. A metonym is a word or phrase used as a substitute for something that it is associated with.

This page answers the question: What is a metonymy?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro\]\]](#)

... and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from every sin. (1 John 1:7b ULT)

The blood represents Christ's death.

And he took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you." (Luke 22:20 ULT)

The cup represents the wine that is in the cup.

Metonymy can be used

- as a shorter way of referring to something
- to make an abstract idea more meaningful by referring to it with the name of a physical object associated with it

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

The Bible uses metonymy very often. Speakers of some languages are not familiar with metonymy and they may not recognize it when they read it in the Bible. If they do not recognize the metonymy, they will not understand the passage or, worse yet, they will get a wrong understanding of the passage. Whenever a metonym is used, people need to be able to understand what it represents.

Examples From the Bible

The Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David. (Luke 1:32b ULT)

A throne represents the authority of a king. "Throne" is a metonym for "kingly authority," "kingship," or "reign." This means that God would make him become a king who would follow King David.

Then immediately his mouth was opened (Luke 1:64a ULT)

The mouth here represents the power to speak. This means that he was able to talk again.

Who warned you to flee from the wrath that is coming? (Luke 3:7b ULT)

The word "wrath" or "anger" is a metonym for "punishment." God was extremely angry with the people and, as a result, he would punish them.

Translation Strategies

If people would easily understand the metonym, consider using it. Otherwise, here are some options.

- (1) Use the metonym along with the name of the thing it represents.
- (2) Use only the name of the thing the metonym represents.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) Use the metonym along with the name of the thing it represents.

And he took the cup in the same way after the supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.” (Luke 22:20 ULT)

He took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, “The wine in this cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.”

This verse also contains a second metonym: The cup, (representing the wine it contains) also represents the new covenant made with the blood Christ shed for us.

- (2) Use the name of the thing the metonym represents.

The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David. (Luke 1:32b ULT)

“The Lord God will give him the kingly authority of his father, David.”

or:

“The Lord God will make him king like his ancestor, King David.”

Who warned you to flee from the wrath that is coming? (Luke 3:7b ULT)

“Who warned you to flee from God’s coming punishment?”

Nominal Adjectives

Description

In some languages an adjective can be used to refer to a class of things that the adjective describes. When it does, it acts like a noun. For example, the word “rich” is an adjective. Here are two sentences that show that “rich” is an adjective.

The rich man had huge numbers of flocks and herds. (2 Samuel 12:2 ULT)

The adjective “rich” comes before the word “man” and describes “man.”

He will not be rich; his wealth will not last. (Job 15:29a ULT)

The adjective “rich” comes after the verb “be” and describes “He.”

Here is a sentence that shows that “rich” can also function as a noun.

The rich must not give more than the half shekel, and the poor must not give less. (Exodus 30:15b ULT)

In Exodus 30:15, the word “rich” acts as a noun in the phrase “the rich,” and it refers to rich people. The word “poor” also acts as a noun and refers to poor people.

This page answers the question: How do I translate adjectives that act like nouns?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-partsofspeech]]

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- Many times in the Bible adjectives are used as nouns to describe a group of people.
- Some languages do not use adjectives in this way.
- Readers of these languages may think that the text is talking about one particular person when it is really talking about the group of people whom the adjective describes.

Examples From the Bible

The scepter of wickedness must not rule in the land of the righteous. (Psalms 125:3a ULT)

“The righteous” here are people who are righteous, not one particular righteous person.

Blessed are the meek. (Matthew 5:5a ULT)

“The meek” here are all people who are meek, not one particular meek person.

Translation Strategies

If your language uses adjectives as nouns to refer to a class of people, consider using the adjectives in this way. If it would sound strange, or if the meaning would be unclear or wrong, here is another option:

(1) Use the adjective with a plural form of the noun that the adjective describes.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

Numbers

Description

There are many numbers in the Bible. They can be written as words (“five”) or as numerals (“5”). Some numbers are very large, such as “two hundred” (200), “twenty-two thousand” (22,000), or “one hundred million” (100,000,000). Some languages do not have words for all of these numbers. Translators need to decide how to translate numbers and whether to write them as words or numerals.

This page answers the question: How do I translate numbers?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

Translate Unknowns

Some numbers are exact and others are rounded.

▮ Abram was 86 years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Genesis 16:16 ULT)

Eighty-six (86) is an exact number.

▮ That day about 3,000 of the people died. (Exodus 32:28b ULT)

Here the number three thousand (3,000) is a round number. It may have been a little more than that or a little less than that. The word “about” shows that it is not an exact number.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages do not have words for some of these numbers.

Translation Principles

- Exact numbers should be translated as closely and specifically as they can be.
- Rounded numbers can be translated more generally.

Examples From the Bible

▮ When Jared had lived 162 years, he became the father of Enoch. After he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived 800 years. He became the father of more sons and daughters. Jared lived 962 years, and then he died. (Genesis 5:18-20 ULT)

The numbers 162, 800, and 962 are exact numbers and should be translated with something as close to those numbers as possible.

▮ Our sister, may you be the mother of thousands of ten thousands. (Genesis 24:60b ULT)

This is a rounded number. It does not say exactly how many descendants she should have, but it was a huge number of them.

Translation Strategies

- (1) Write numbers using numerals.
- (2) Write numbers using your language’s words or the Gateway Language words for those numbers.
- (3) Write numbers using words, and put the numerals in parentheses after them.

(4) Combine words for large numbers.

(5) Use a very general expression for very large rounded numbers and write the numeral in parentheses afterward.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

We will use the following verse in our examples:

Now, see, at great effort I have prepared for Yahweh's house 100,000 talents of gold, 1,000,000 talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities. (1 Chronicles 22:14a ULT)

(1) Write numbers using numerals.

I have prepared for Yahweh's house 100,000 talents of gold, 1,000,000 talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(2) Write numbers using your language's words or the Gateway Language words for those numbers.

I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(3) Write numbers using words, and put the numerals in parenthesis after them.

I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand (100,000) talents of gold, one million (1,000,000) talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(4) Combine words for large numbers.

I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand talents of gold, a thousand thousand talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(5) Use a very general expression for very large rounded numbers and write the numeral in parentheses afterward.

I have prepared for Yahweh's house a great amount of gold (100,000 talents), ten times that amount of silver (1,000,000 talents), and bronze and iron in large quantities.

Consistency

Be consistent in your translations. Decide how the numbers will be translated, using numbers or numerals. There are different ways of being consistent.

- Use words to represent numbers all of the time. (You might have very long words.)
- Use numerals to represent numbers all of the time.
- Use words to represent the numbers that your language has words for and use numerals for the numbers that your language does not have words for.
- Use words for low numbers and numerals for high numbers.
- Use words for numbers that require few words and numerals for numbers that require more than a few words.
- Use words to represent numbers, and write the numerals in parentheses after them.

Consistency in the ULT and UST

The unfoldingWord® Literal Text (ULT) and the unfoldingWord® Simplified Text (UST) use words for the numbers one through ten and use numerals for all numbers above ten.

When Adam had lived 130 years, he became the father of a son in his own likeness, after his image, and he called his name Seth. After Adam became the father of Seth, he lived 800 years. He became the father of more sons and daughters. Adam lived 930 years, and then he died.

Parallelism

Description

Parallelism is a poetic device in which two phrases or clauses that are similar in structure or idea are used together. The following are some of the different kinds of parallelism.

- The second clause or phrase means the same as the first. This is called synonymous parallelism.
- The second clarifies or strengthens the meaning of the first.
- The second completes what is said in the first.
- The second says something that contrasts with the first, but adds to the same idea.

Parallelism is most commonly found in Old Testament poetry, such as in the books of Psalms and Proverbs. It also occurs in Greek in the New Testament, both in the four gospels and in the apostles' letters.

This article will only discuss synonymous parallelism, the kind in which the two parallel phrases mean the same thing, because that is the kind that presents a problem for translation. Note that we use the term "synonymous parallelism" for long phrases or clauses that have the same meaning. We use the term "doublet" for words or very short phrases that mean basically the same thing and are used together.

In the poetry of the original languages, synonymous parallelism has several effects:

- It shows that something is very important by saying it more than once and in more than one way.
- It helps the hearer to think more deeply about the idea by saying it in different ways.
- It makes the language more beautiful and raises it above the ordinary way of speaking.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages would not use synonymous parallelism. They would either think it odd that someone said the same thing twice, or, since it is in the Bible, they would think that the two phrases must have some difference in meaning. For them it would be confusing, rather than beautiful. They would not understand that the repetition of the idea in different words serves to emphasize the idea.

Examples From the Bible

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path. (Psalm 119:105 ULT)

Both parts of the sentence are metaphors saying that God's word teaches people how to live. That is the single idea. The words "lamp" and "light" are similar in meaning because they refer to light. The words "my feet" and "my path" are related because they refer to a person walking. Walking is a metaphor for living.

You make him to rule over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under his feet (Psalm 8:6 ULT)

Both lines say that God made man the ruler of everything. "To rule over" is the same idea as putting things "under his feet," and "the works of your [God's] hands" is the same idea as "all things."

This page answers the question: What is parallelism?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro]]

Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes. (Proverbs 5:21 ULT)

The first phrase and the second phrase mean the same thing. There are three ideas that are the same between these two phrases. "Sees" corresponds to "watches," "everything...does" corresponds to "all the paths...takes," and "a person" corresponds to "he."

Praise Yahweh, all you nations;
exalt him, all you peoples! (Psalm 117:1 ULT)

Both parts of this verse tell people everywhere to praise Yahweh. The words 'Praise' and 'exalt' mean the same thing. The words 'Yahweh' and 'him' refer to the same person. The terms 'all you nations' and 'all you peoples' refer to the same people.

For Yahweh has a lawsuit with his people, and he will fight in court against Israel. (Micah 6:2b ULT)

The two parts of this verse say that Yahweh has a serious disagreement with his people, Israel. These are not two different disagreements or two different groups of people.

Translation Strategies

For most kinds of parallelism, it is good to translate both of the clauses or phrases. For synonymous parallelism, it is good to translate both clauses if people in your language understand that the purpose of saying something twice is to strengthen a single idea. But if your language does not use parallelism in this way, then consider using one of the following translation strategies.

- (1) Combine the ideas of both clauses into one.
- (2) If it appears that the clauses are used together to show that what they say is really true, you could combine the ideas of both clauses into one and include words that emphasize the truth such as "truly" or "certainly."
- (3) If it appears that the clauses are used together to intensify an idea in them, you could combine the ideas of both clauses into one and use words like "very," "completely," or "all."

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) Combine the ideas of both clauses into one.

Until now you have dealt deceitfully with me and you have spoken lies to me. (Judges 16:13, ULT)

Delilah expressed this idea twice to emphasize that she was very upset.

Until now you have deceived me with your lies.
Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes. (Proverbs 5:21 ULT)

The phrase "all the paths he takes" is a metaphor for "all he does."

Yahweh pays attention to everything a person does.
For Yahweh has a lawsuit with his people, and he will fight in court against Israel. (Micah 6:2 ULT)

This parallelism describes one serious disagreement that Yahweh had with one group of people. If this is unclear, the phrases can be combined:

For Yahweh has a lawsuit with his people, Israel.

(2) If it appears that the clauses are used together to show that what they say is really true, you could combine the ideas of both clauses into one and include words that emphasize the truth such as “truly” or “certainly.”

Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes. (Proverbs 5:21 ULT)

Yahweh truly sees everything a person does.

You make him to rule over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet (Psalm 8:6 ULT)

You have certainly made him to rule over everything that you have created.

(3) If it appears that the clauses are used together to intensify an idea in them, you could combine the ideas of both clauses into one and use words like “very,” “completely” or “all.”

Until now you have dealt deceitfully with me and you have spoken lies to me. (Judges 16:13, ULT)

All you have done is lie to me.

Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes. (Proverbs 5:21 ULT)

Yahweh sees absolutely everything that a person does.

Personification

Description

Personification is a figure of speech in which someone speaks of something as if it could do things that animals or people can do. People often do this because it makes it easier to talk about things that we cannot see:

Such as wisdom:

Does not Wisdom call out? (Proverbs 8:1a ULT)

Or sin:

Sin crouches at the door. (Genesis 4:7b ULT)

People also use personification because it is sometimes easier to talk about people's relationships with non-human things such as wealth as if they were relationships between people.

You cannot serve God and wealth. (Matthew 6:24b ULT)

In each case, the purpose of the personification is to highlight a certain characteristic of the non-human thing. As in metaphor, the reader needs to think of the way that the thing is like a certain kind of person.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Some languages do not use personification.
- Some languages use personification only in certain situations.

Examples From the Bible

You cannot serve God and wealth. (Matthew 6:24b ULT)

Jesus speaks of wealth as if it were a master whom people might serve. Loving money and basing one's decisions on it is like serving it as a slave would serve his master.

Does not Wisdom call out? Does not Understanding raise her voice? (Proverbs 8:1 ULT)

The author speaks of wisdom and understanding as if they were woman who calls out to teach people. This means that they are not something hidden, but something obvious that people should pay attention to.

Translation Strategies

If the personification would be understood clearly, consider using it. If it would not be understood, here are some other ways for translating it.

- (1) Add words or phrases to make the human (or animal) characteristic clear.
- (2) In addition to Strategy (1), use words such as "like" or "as" to show that the sentence is not to be understood literally.
- (3) Find a way to translate it without the personification.

This page answers the question: What is personification?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro]]

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Add words or phrases to make the human (or animal) characteristic clear.

Sin crouches at the door. (Genesis 4:7b ULT) — God speaks of sin as if it were a wild animal that is waiting for the chance to attack. This shows how dangerous sin is. An additional phrase can be added to make this danger clear.

Sin is at your door, waiting to attack you.

(2) In addition to Strategy (1), use words such as “like” or “as” to show that the sentence is not to be understood literally.

Sin crouches at the door. (Genesis 4:7b ULT) — This can be translated with the word “as.”

Sin is crouching at the door, just as a wild animal does as it waits to attack a person..

(3) Find a way to translate it without the personification.

Even the winds and the sea obey him. (Matthew 8:27b ULT) — The men speak of the “wind and the sea” as if they are able to hear and obey Jesus, just as people can. This could also be translated without the idea of obedience by speaking of Jesus controlling them.

He even controls the winds and the sea.

NOTE: We have broadened our definition of “personification” to include “zoomorphism” (speaking of other things as if they had animal characteristics) and “anthropomorphism” (speaking of non-human things as if they had human characteristics) because the translation strategies for them are the same.

Poetry

Description

Poetry is one of the ways that people use the words and sounds of their language to make their speech and writing more beautiful and to express strong emotion. Through poetry, people can communicate deeper emotion than they can through simple non-poetic forms. Poetry gives more weight and elegance to statements of truth, such as proverbs, and is also easier to remember than ordinary speech.

This page answers the question: What is poetry and how do I translate it into my language?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro\]\]](#)

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/writing-intro\]\]](#)

In poetry we commonly find:

- many figures of speech such as Apostrophe
- arrangements of clauses into particular patterns such as:
 - parallel lines (See Parallelism)
 - acrostics (beginning lines with successive letters of the alphabet)
 - chiasms (in which the first line relates to the last line, the second to the next-to-last line, etc.):
 - > You should not give what is holy to the dogs,
 - >
 - >> and should not throw your pearls in front of the pigs.
 - >>
 - >> Otherwise they will trample them under their feet,
 - >
 - > and having turned, they might tear you to pieces. (Matt 7:6 ULT)

- repetition of some or all of a line:

Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his hosts. Praise him, sun and moon; praise him, all you shining stars. (Psalm 148:2-3 ULT)

- lines of similar length:

Listen to my call to you,
Yahweh; think about my groanings.
Listen to the sound of my call, my King and my God, for it is to you that I pray. (Psalm 5:1-2 ULT)

- the same sound used at the end or at the beginning of two or more lines:

“Twinkle, twinkle little star. How I wonder what you are.” (from an English rhyme)

- the same sound repeated many times:

“Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater” (from an English rhyme)

We also find:

- old words and expressions
- dramatic imagery
- different use of grammar — including:
 - incomplete sentences

- lack of connective words

Some places to look for poetry in your language

Songs, particularly old songs or songs used in children's games
 Religious ceremony or chants of priests or witch doctors
 Prayers, blessings, and curses
 Old legends

Elegant or fancy speech

Elegant or fancy speech is similar to poetry in that it uses beautiful language, but it does not use all of the language's features of poetry, and it does not use them as much as poetry does. Popular speakers in the language often use elegant speech, and this is probably the easiest source of text to study to find out what makes speech elegant in your language.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue:

- Different languages use poetry for different things. If a poetic form would not communicate the same meaning in your language, you may need to write it without the poetry.
- Different languages use different poetic devices. A poetic device that conveys elegance or emotion in a biblical language may be confusing or misunderstood in another language.
- In some languages, using poetry for a particular part of the Bible would make it much more powerful.

Examples From the Bible

The Bible uses poetry for songs, teaching, and prophecy. Almost all of the books of the Old Testament have poetry in them and many of the books are completely made up of poetry.

... for you saw my affliction; you knew the distress of my soul. (Psalm 31:7b ULT)

This example of Parallelism has two lines that mean the same thing.

Yahweh, judge the nations; vindicate me, Yahweh, because I am righteous and innocent, Most High. (Psalm 7:8 ULT)

This example of parallelism shows the contrast between what David wants God to do to him and what he wants God to do to the unrighteous nations. (See Parallelism.)

Keep your servant also from arrogant sins; let them not rule over me. (Psalm 19:13a ULT)

This example of personification speaks of sins as if they could rule over a person. (See Personification.)

Oh, give thanks to Yahweh; for he is good,
 for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
 Oh, give thanks to the God of gods,
 for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
 Oh, give thanks to the Lord of lords,
 for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

(Psalm 136:1-3 ULT)

This example repeats the phrases “give thanks” and “his covenant faithfulness endures forever.”

Translation Strategies

If the style of poetry that is used in the source text would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other ways of translating it.

- (1) Translate the poetry using one of your styles of poetry.
- (2) Translate the poetry using your style of elegant speech.
- (3) Translate the poetry using your style of ordinary speech.

If you use poetry it may be more beautiful.

If you use ordinary speech it may be more clear.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

Blessed is the man who does not walk in the advice of the wicked, or stand in the pathway with sinners, or sit in the assembly of mockers. But his delight is in the law of Yahweh, and on his law he meditates day and night. (Psalm 1:1-2 ULT)

The following are examples of how people might translate Psalm 1:1-2.

- (1) Translate the poetry using one of your styles of poetry. (The style in this example has words that sound similar at the end of each line.)

“Happy is the person not encouraged to sin, Disrespect for God he will not begin, To those who laugh at God he is no kin. God is his constant delight, He does what God says is right, He thinks of it all day and night.”

- (2) Translate the poetry using your style of elegant speech.

This is the kind of person who is truly blessed: the one who does not follow the advice of wicked people nor stop along the road to speak with sinners nor join the gathering of those who mock God. Rather, he takes great joy in Yahweh’s law, and he meditates on it day and night.

- (3) Translate the poetry using your style of ordinary speech.

The people who do not listen to the advice of bad people are really happy. They do not spend time with people who continually do evil things or join with those who do not respect God. Instead, they love to obey Yahweh’s law, and they think about it all the time.

Possession

Description

In English, the grammatical form that commonly indicates possession is also used to indicate a variety of relationships between people and objects or people and other people. In English, that grammatical relationship is shown by using the word “of,” by using an apostrophe and the letter “s”, or by using a possessive pronoun. The following examples are different ways to indicate that my grandfather owns a house.

- the house of my grandfather
- my grandfather 's house
- his house

Possession is used in Hebrew, Greek, and English for a variety of situations. Here are a few common situations that it is used for.

- Ownership — Someone owns something.
 - The clothes of me - my clothes — The clothes that I own
- Social Relationship — Someone has some kind of social relationship with another.
 - The mother of John — John's mother - the woman who gave birth to John, or the woman who cared for John
 - A teacher of Israel - Israel's teacher — a person who teaches Israel
- Association — A particular thing is associated with a particular person, place, or thing.
 - The sickness of David - David's sickness — the sickness that David is experiencing
 - the fear of the Lord — the fear that is appropriate for a human being to have when relating to the Lord
- Contents — Something has something in it.
 - a bag of clothes — a bag that has clothes in it, or a bag that is full of clothes
- Part and whole: One thing is part of another.
 - my head — the head that is part of my body
 - the roof of a house — the roof that is part of a house

In some languages there is a special form of possession, termed inalienable possession. This form of possession is used for things that cannot be removed from you, as opposed to things you could lose. In the examples above, my head and my mother are examples of inalienable possession (at least in some languages), while my clothes or my teacher would be alienably possessed. What may be considered alienable vs. inalienable may differ by language.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- You (the translator) need to understand the relationship between two ideas represented by the two nouns when one is in the grammatical relationship of possessing the other.
- Some languages do not use grammatical possession for all of the situations that your source text Bible might use it for.

Examples From the Bible

Ownership — In the example below, the son owned the money.

▮ The younger son ... wasted his wealth by living recklessly. (Luke 15:13b)

This page answers the question: What is possession and how can I translate phrases that show it?

Social Relationship — In the example below, the disciples were people who learned from John.

Then the disciples of John came to him. (Matthew 9:14a ULT)

Association — In the example below, the gospel is the message associated with Paul because he preaches it.

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, from the seed of David, according to my gospel, (2 Timothy 2:8 ULT)

Material — In the example below, the material used for making the crowns was gold.

On their heads were something like crowns of gold. (Revelation 9:7b)

Contents — In the example below, the cup has water in it.

For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink ... will not lose his reward. (Mark 9:41 ULT)

Part of a whole — In the example below, the door was a part of the palace.

But Uriah slept at the door of the king's palace. (2 Samuel 11:9a ULT)

Part of a group — In the example below, “us” refers to the whole group and “each one” refers to the individual members.

Now to each one of us grace has been given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. (Ephesians 4:7 ULT)

Events and Possession

Sometimes one or both of the nouns is an abstract noun that refers to an event or action. In the examples below, the abstract nouns are in bold print. These are just some of the relationships that are possible between two nouns when one of them refers to an event.

Subject — Sometimes the word after “of” tells who would do the action named by the first noun. In the example below, John baptized people.

The baptism of John, was it from heaven or from men? Answer me. (Mark 11:30)

In the example below, Christ loves us.

Who will separate us from the love of Christ? (Romans 8:35)

Object — Sometimes the word after “of” tells who or what something would happen to. In the example below, people love money.

For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. (1 Timothy 6:10a ULT)

Instrument — Sometimes the word after “of” tells how something would happen. In the example below, God would punish people by sending enemies to attack them with swords.

Then be afraid of the sword, because wrath brings the punishment of the sword. (Job 19:29a ULT)

Representation — In the example below, John was baptizing people who were repenting of their sins. They were being baptized to show that they were repenting. Their baptism represented their repentance.

John came, baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. (Mark 1:4 ULT)

Strategies for learning what the relationship is between the two nouns

- (1) Read the surrounding verses to see if they help you to understand the relationship between the two nouns.
- (2) Read the verse in the UST. Sometimes it shows the relationship clearly.
- (3) See what the notes say about it.

Translation Strategies

If possession would be a natural way to show a particular relationship between two nouns, consider using it. If it would be strange or hard to understand, consider these.

- (1) Use an adjective to show that one noun describes the other.
- (2) Use a verb to show how the two are related.
- (3) If one of the nouns refers to an event, translate it as a verb.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) Use an adjective to show that one noun describes the other.

On their heads were something like crowns of gold. (Revelation 9:7b)

“On their heads were gold crowns”

- (2) Use a verb to show how the two are related.

Whoever gives you a cup of water to drink ... will not lose his reward. (Mark 9:41 ULT)

Whoever gives you a cup that has water in it to drink ... will not lose his reward.

Wealth is worthless on the day of wrath. (Proverbs 11:4a ULT)

Wealth is worthless on the day when God shows his wrath.

or:

Wealth is worthless on the day when God punishes people because of his wrath.

- (3) If one of the nouns refers to an event, translate it as a verb. (In the example below, there are two possession relationships, “punishment of Yahweh” and “your God.”)

Notice that I am not speaking to your children, who have not known or seen the punishment of Yahweh your God. (Deuteronomy 11:2a ULT)

Notice that I am not speaking to your children who have not known or seen how Yahweh, the God whom you worship, punished the people of Egypt.

You will only observe and see the punishment of the wicked. (Psalms 91:8 ULT)

You will only observe and see how Yahweh punishes the wicked.

You will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2:38b ULT)

|| You will receive the Holy Spirit, whom God will give to you.

Pronouns

Description

Pronouns are words that people might use instead of using a noun when referring to someone or something. Some examples are "I," "you," "he," "it," "this," "that," "himself," "someone," and others. The personal pronoun is the most common type of pronoun.

This page answers the question: What are pronouns, and what kinds of pronouns are in some languages?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-partsofspeech]]

Personal Pronouns

Personal pronouns refer to people or things and show whether the speaker is referring to himself, the person he is speaking to, or someone or something else. The following are kinds of information that personal pronouns may provide. Other types of pronouns may give some of this information, as well.

Person

- First Person — The speaker and possibly others (I, me, we, us)
 - Exclusive and Inclusive "We"
- Second Person — The person or people that the speaker is talking to and possibly others (you)
 - Forms of You
- Third Person — Someone or something other than the speaker and those he is talking to (he, she, it, they)

Number

- Singular — one (I, you, he, she, it)
- Plural — more than one (we, you, they)
 - Singular Pronouns that Refer to Groups
- Dual — two (Some languages have pronouns specifically for two people or two things.)

Gender

- Masculine — he
- Feminine — she
- Neuter — it

Relationship to other words in the sentence

- Subject of the verb: I, you, he, she, it, we, they
- Object of the verb or preposition: me, you, him, her, it, us, them
- Possessor with a noun: my, your, his, her, its, our, their
- Possessor without a noun: mine, yours, his, hers, its, ours, theirs

Other Types of pronouns

Reflexive Pronouns refer to another noun or pronoun in the same sentence: myself, yourself, himself, herself, itself, ourselves, yourselves, themselves.

- John saw himself in the mirror. The word “himself” refers to John.

Interrogative Pronouns are used to make a question that needs more than just a yes or no for an answer: what, which, who, whom, whose.

- Who built the house?

Relative Pronouns mark a relative clause. The relative pronouns, who, whom, whose, which and that give more information about a noun in the main part of the sentence. Sometimes, the relative adverbs when and where can also be used as relative pronouns.

- I saw the house that John built. The clause “that John built” tells which house I saw.
- I saw the man who built the house. The clause “who built the house” tells which man I saw.

Demonstrative Pronouns are used to draw attention to someone or something and to show distance from the speaker or something else. The demonstrative pronouns are: this, these, that, and those.

- Have you seen this here?
- Who is that over there?

Indefinite pronouns are used when no particular noun is being referred to. The indefinite pronouns are: any, anyone, someone, anything, something, and some. Sometimes a personal pronoun is used in a generic way to do this: you, they, he or it.

- He does not want to talk to anyone.
- Someone fixed it, but I do not know who.
- They say that you should not wake a sleeping dog.

In the last example, “they” and “you” just refer to people in general.

(Go back to: Job 40:2; 40:19)

Reflexive Pronouns

Description

All languages have ways of showing that the same person fills two different roles in a sentence. English does this by using reflexive pronouns. These are pronouns that refer to someone or something that has already been mentioned in a sentence. In English the reflexive pronouns are: “myself,” “yourself,” “himself,” “herself,” “itself,” “ourselves,” “yourselves,” and “themselves.” Other languages may have other ways to show this.

This page answers the question: What are reflexive pronouns?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

Pronouns

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-sentences]]

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- Languages have different ways of showing that the same person fills two different roles in a sentence. For those languages, translators will need to know how to translate the English reflexive pronouns.
- The reflexive pronouns in English also have other functions.

Uses of Reflexive Pronouns

- To show that the same person or things fills two different roles in a sentence
- To emphasize a person or thing in the sentence
- To show that someone did something alone
- To show that someone or something was alone

Examples From the Bible

Reflexive pronouns are used to show the same person or thing fills two different roles in a sentence.

If I should testify about myself, my testimony would not be true. (John 5:31 ULT)

Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the country before the Passover in order to purify themselves. (John 11:55 ULT)

Reflexive pronouns are used to emphasize a person or thing in the sentence.

Jesus himself was not baptizing, but his disciples were. (John 4:2 ULT)

So they left the crowd, taking Jesus with them, just as he was, in the boat. There also were other boats with him. Then a violent windstorm arose and the waves were breaking into the boat so that the boat was already full of water. But Jesus himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. (Mark 4:36-38a ULT)

Reflexive pronouns are used to show that someone did something alone.

When Jesus realized that they were about to come and seize him by force to make him king, he withdrew again up the mountain by himself. (John 6:15 ULT)

Reflexive pronouns are used to show that someone or something was alone.

He saw the linen cloths lying there and the cloth that had been on his head. It was not lying with the linen cloths but was folded up in a place by itself. (John 20:6b-7 ULT)

Translation Strategies

If a reflexive pronoun would have the same function in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other strategies.

- (1) In some languages people put something on the verb to show that the object of the verb is the same as the subject.
- (2) In some languages people emphasize a certain person or thing by referring to it in a special place in the sentence.
- (3) In some languages people emphasize a certain person or thing by adding something to that word or putting another word with it.
- (4) In some languages people show that someone did something alone by using a word like “alone.”
- (5) In some languages people show that something was alone by using a phrase that tells about where it was.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) In some languages people modify the verb to show that the object of the verb is the same as the subject.

If I should testify about myself alone, my testimony would not be true. (John 5:31)

“If I should self-testify alone, my testimony would not be true.”

Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the country before the Passover in order to purify themselves. (John 11:55)

“Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem out from country before the Passover in order to self-purify.”

- (2) In some languages people emphasize a certain person or thing by referring to it in a special place in the sentence.

He himself took our sickness and bore our diseases. (Matthew 8:17 ULT)

“It was he who took our sickness and bore our diseases.”

Jesus himself was not baptizing, but his disciples were. (John 4:2)

“It was not Jesus who was baptizing, but his disciples were.”

- (3) In some languages people emphasize a certain person or thing by adding something to that word or putting another word with it. English adds the reflexive pronoun.

But Jesus said this to test Philip, for he himself knew what he was going to do. (John 6:6)

- (4) In some languages people show that someone did something alone by using a word like “alone.”

When Jesus realized that they were about to come and seize him by force to make him king, he withdrew again up the mountain by himself. (John 6:15)

“When Jesus realized that they were about to come and seize him by force to make him king, he withdrew again alone up the mountain.”

- (5) In some languages people show that something was alone by using a phrase that tells about where it was.

He saw the linen cloths lying there and the cloth that had been on his head. It was not lying with the linen cloths but was folded up in a place by itself. (John 20:6b-7 ULT)

“He saw the linen cloths lying there and the cloth that had been on his head. It was not lying with the linen cloths but was folded up and lying in its own place.”

Rhetorical Question

A rhetorical question is a question that a speaker asks when he is more interested in expressing his attitude about something than in getting information about it. Speakers use rhetorical questions to express deep emotion or to encourage hearers to think deeply about something. The Bible contains many rhetorical questions, often to express surprise, to rebuke or scold the hearer, or to teach. Speakers of some languages use rhetorical questions for other purposes as well.

This page answers the question: What are rhetorical questions and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro\]\]](#)

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-sentencetypes\]\]](#)

Description

A rhetorical question is a question that strongly expresses the speaker's attitude toward something. Often the speaker is not looking for information at all. Or, if he is asking for information, it is not usually the information that the question appears to ask for. The speaker is more interested in expressing his attitude than in getting information.

But those who stood by said, “Are you insulting the high priest of God?”(Acts 23:4 ULT)

The people who asked Paul this question were not asking if he was insulting God's high priest. Rather, they used this question to accuse Paul of insulting the high priest.

The Bible contains many rhetorical questions. These rhetorical questions might be used for the purposes: of expressing attitudes or feelings, rebuking people, teaching something by reminding people of something they know and encouraging them to apply it to something new, or introducing something they want to talk about.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Some languages do not use rhetorical questions; for them a question is always a request for information.
- Some languages use rhetorical questions, but for purposes that are different or more limited than in the Bible.
- Because of these differences between languages, some readers might misunderstand the purpose of a rhetorical question in the Bible.

Examples From the Bible

Do you not still rule the kingdom of Israel? (1 Kings 21:7b ULT)

Jezebel used the question above to remind King Ahab of something he already knew: he still ruled the kingdom of Israel. The rhetorical question made her point more strongly than if she had merely stated it, because it forced Ahab to admit the point himself. She did this in order to rebuke him for being unwilling to take over a poor man's property. She was implying that, since he was the king of Israel, he had the power to take the man's property.

Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULT)

God used the question above to remind his people of something they already knew: a young woman would never forget her jewelry or a bride forget her veils. He then rebuked his people for forgetting him who is so much greater than those things.

Why did I not die when I came out from the womb? (Job 3:11a ULT)

Job used the question above to show deep emotion. This rhetorical question expresses how sad he was that he did not die as soon as he was born. He wished that he had not lived.

And how has this happened to me that the mother of my Lord would come to me? (Luke 1:43 ULT)

Elizabeth used the question above to show how surprised and happy she was that the mother of her Lord came to her.

Or what man is there among you, of whom his son will ask for a loaf of bread, but he will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULT)

Jesus used the question above to remind the people of something they already knew: a good father would never give his son something bad to eat. By introducing this point, Jesus could go on to teach them about God with his next rhetorical question:

Therefore, if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him? (Matthew 7:11 ULT)

Jesus used this question to teach the people in an emphatic way that God gives good things to those who ask him.

What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to? It is like a mustard seed that a man took and threw into his garden ... (Luke 13:18b-19a ULT)

Jesus used the question above to introduce what he was going to talk about. He was about to compare the kingdom of God to something. In this case, he compared the kingdom of God to a mustard seed.

Translation Strategies

In order to translate a rhetorical question accurately, first be sure that the question you are translating truly is a rhetorical question and is not an information question. Ask yourself, "Does the person asking the question already know the answer to the question?" If so, it is a rhetorical question. Or, if no one answers the question, did the person who asked it expect to receive an answer? If not, it is a rhetorical question.

When you are sure that the question is rhetorical, then be sure that you understand the purpose for the rhetorical question. Is it to encourage or rebuke or shame the hearer? Is it to bring up a new topic? Is it to do something else?

When you know the purpose of the rhetorical question, then think of the most natural way to express that purpose in the target language. It might be as a question, or a statement, or an exclamation.

If using the rhetorical question would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider doing so. If not, here are other options:

- (1) Add the answer after the question.
- (2) Change the rhetorical question to a statement or exclamation.
- (3) Change the rhetorical question to a statement, and then follow it with a short question.
- (4) Change the form of the question so that it communicates in your language what the original speaker communicated in his.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) Add the answer after the question.

Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULT)

Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Of course not! Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number!

Or what man is there among you, of whom his son will ask for a loaf of bread, but he will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULT)

Or what man is there among you, of whom his son will ask for a loaf of bread, but he will give him a stone? None of you would do that!

(2) Change the rhetorical question to a statement or exclamation.

What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to? It is like a mustard seed. (Luke 13:18-19a ULT)

This is what the kingdom of God is like. It is like a mustard seed ...

Are you insulting the high priest of God? (Acts 23:4b ULT) (Acts 23:4 ULT)

You should not insult God's high priest!

Why did I not die when I came out from the womb? (Job 3:11a ULT)

I wish I had died when I came out from the womb!

And how has this happened to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? (Luke 1:43 ULT)

How wonderful it is that the mother of my Lord has come to me!

(3) Change the rhetorical question to a statement, and then follow it with a short question.

Do you not still rule the kingdom of Israel? (1 Kings 21:7b ULT)

You still rule the kingdom of Israel, do you not?

(4) Change the form of the question so that it communicates in your language what the original speaker communicated in his.

Or what man is there among you, of whom his son will ask for a loaf of bread, but he will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULT)

If your son asks you for a loaf of bread, would you give him a stone?

Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULT)

Simile

Description

A simile is a comparison of two things that are not normally thought to be similar. The simile focuses on a particular trait the two items have in common, and it includes the words “like,” “as,” or “than.”

This page answers the question: What is a simile?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-intro]]

When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were troubled and discouraged, like sheep not having a shepherd. (Matthew 9:36)

Jesus compared the crowds of people to sheep without a shepherd. Sheep grow frightened when they do not have a good shepherd to lead them in safe places. The crowds were like that because they did not have good religious leaders.

See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be as wise as the serpents and harmless as the doves. (Matthew 10:16 ULT)

Jesus compared his disciples to sheep and their enemies to wolves. Wolves attack sheep; Jesus’ enemies would attack his disciples.

For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword. (Hebrews 4:12a ULT)

God’s word is compared to a two-edged sword. A two-edged sword is a weapon that can easily cut through a person’s flesh. God’s word is very effective in showing what is in a person’s heart and thoughts.

Purposes of Simile

- A simile can teach about something that is unknown by showing how it is similar to something that is known.
- A simile can emphasize a particular trait, sometimes in a way that gets people’s attention.
- Similes help form a picture in the mind or help the reader experience what he is reading about more fully.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- People may not know how the two items are similar.
- People may not be familiar with both of the items being compared.

Examples From the Bible

Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. (2 Timothy 2:3 ULT)

In this simile, Paul compares suffering with what soldiers endure, and he encourages Timothy to follow their example.

Just as the lightning flashing from a place under the sky shines to another place under the sky, so will the Son of Man be. (Luke 17:24b ULT)

This verse does not tell how the Son of Man will be like the lightning. But in context we can understand from the verses before it that just as lighting flashes suddenly and everyone can see it, the Son of Man will come suddenly and everyone will be able to see him. No one will have to be told about it.

Translation Strategies

If people would understand the correct meaning of a simile, consider using it. If they would not, here are some strategies you can use:

- (1) If people do not know how the two items are alike, tell how they are alike. However, do not do this if the meaning was not clear to the original audience.
- (2) If people are not familiar with the item that something is compared to, use an item from your own culture. Be sure that it is one that could have been used in the cultures of the Bible. If you use this strategy, you may want to put the original item in a footnote.
- (3) Simply describe the item without comparing it to another.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) If people do not know how the two items are alike, tell how they are alike. However, do not do this if the meaning was not clear to the original audience.

See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. (Matthew 10:16a ULT) — This compares the danger that Jesus' disciples would be in with the danger that sheep are in when they are surrounded by wolves.

See, I send you out among wicked people and you will be in danger from them as sheep are in danger when they are among wolves.

For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword. (Hebrews 4:12a ULT)

For the word of God is living and active and more powerful than a very sharp two-edged sword.

- (2) If people are not familiar with the item that something is compared to, use an item from your own culture. Be sure that it is one that could have been used in the cultures of the Bible. If you use this strategy, you may want to put the original item in a footnote.

See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, (Matthew 10:16a ULT) — If people do not know what sheep and wolves are, or that wolves kill and eat sheep, you could use some other animal that kills another.

See, I send you out as chickens in the midst of wild dogs.

How often did I long to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you were not willing! (Matthew 23:37b ULT)

How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a mother closely watches over her infants, but you refused!

If you have faith as a grain of mustard ... (Matthew 17:20)

If you have faith even as small as a tiny seed,

- (3) Simply describe the item without comparing it to another.

See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. (Matthew 10:16a ULT)

See, I send you out among people who will want to harm you.

How often did I long to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you were not willing! (Matthew 23:37b ULT)

How often I wanted to protect you, but you refused!

Symbolic Action

Description

A symbolic action is something that someone does in order to express a certain idea. For example, in some cultures people nod their heads up and down to mean “yes” or turn their heads from side to side to mean “no.” Symbolic actions do not mean the same things in all cultures. In the Bible, sometimes people perform symbolic actions and sometimes they only refer to the symbolic action.

This page answers the question: What is a symbolic action and how do I translate it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

Translate Unknowns

Examples of symbolic actions

- In some cultures people shake hands when they meet to show that they are willing to be friendly.
- In some cultures people bow when they meet to show respect to each other.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

An action may have a meaning in one culture and a different meaning or no meaning at all in another culture. For example, in some cultures raising the eyebrows means “I am surprised” or “What did you say?” In other cultures it means “yes.”

In the Bible, people did things that had certain meanings in their culture. When we read the Bible, we might not understand what someone meant if we interpret the action based on what it means in our own culture today.

You (the translator) need to understand what people in the Bible meant when they used symbolic actions. If an action does not mean the same thing in your own culture, then you need to figure out how to translate what the action meant.

Examples From the Bible

And behold, a man came whose name was Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And falling at the feet of Jesus, he begged him to come to his house. (Luke 8:41 ULT)

Meaning of symbolic action: He did this to show great respect to Jesus.

Look, I am standing at the door and am knocking. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come into him and will eat with him, and he with me. (Revelation 3:20 ULT)

Meaning of symbolic action: When people wanted someone to welcome them into their home, they stood at the door and knocked on it.

Translation Strategies

If people would correctly understand what a symbolic action meant to the people in the Bible, consider using it. If not, here are some strategies for translating it.

- (1) Tell what the person did and why he did it.
- (2) Do not tell what the person did, but tell what he meant.

(3) Use an action from your own culture that has the same meaning. Do this only in poetry, parables, and sermons. Do not do this when there actually was a person who did a specific action.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Tell what the person did and why he did it.

And falling at the feet of Jesus (Luke 8:41 ULT)

Jairus fell down at Jesus' feet in order to show that he greatly respected him.

Look, I am standing at the door and am knocking. (Revelation 3:20 ULT)

Look, I stand at the door and knock on it, asking you to let me in.

(2) Do not tell what the person did, but tell what he meant.

And falling at the feet of Jesus (Luke 8:41 ULT)

Jairus showed Jesus great respect.

Look, I am standing at the door and am knocking. (Revelation 3:20 ULT)

Look, I stand at the door and ask you to let me in.

(3) Use an action from your own culture that has the same meaning.

And falling at the feet of Jesus (Luke 8:41 ULT) — Since Jairus actually did this, you should not substitute an action from your own culture.

Look, I am standing at the door and am knocking. (Revelation 3:20 ULT) — Jesus was not standing at a real door. Rather he was speaking about wanting to have a relationship with people. So in cultures where it is polite to clear one's throat when wanting to be let into a house, you could use that.

Look, I stand at the door and clear my throat.

Symbolic Language

Description

Symbolic language in speech and writing is the use of symbols to represent other things, other events, etc. In the Bible it occurs most in prophecy and poetry, especially in visions and dreams about things that will happen in the future. Though people may not immediately know the meaning of a symbol, it is important to keep the symbol in the translation.

This page answers the question: What is symbolic language and how do I translate it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/writing-intro\]\]](#)

█ Eat this scroll; then go speak to the house of Israel. (Ezekiel 3:1 ULT)

This was in a dream. Eating the scroll is a symbol of Ezekiel reading and understanding well what was written on the scroll, and accepting these words from God into himself.

Purposes of Symbolism

- One purpose of symbolism is to help people understand the importance or severity of an event by putting it in other, very dramatic terms.
- Another purpose of symbolism is to tell some people about something while hiding the true meaning from others who do not understand the symbolism.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

People who read the Bible today may find it hard to recognize that the language is symbolic, and they may not know what the symbol stands for.

Translation Principles

- When symbolic language is used, it is important to keep the symbol in the translation.
- It is also important not to explain the symbol more than the original speaker or writer did, since he may not have wanted everyone living then to be able to understand it easily.

Examples From the Bible

█ After this I saw in my visions of the night a fourth animal, terrifying, frightening, and very strong. It had large iron teeth; it devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled underfoot what was left. It was different from the other animals, and it had ten horns. (Daniel 7:7 ULT)

The meaning of the bolded symbols is explained in Daniel 7:23-24 as shown below. The animals represent kingdoms, iron teeth represent a powerful army, and the horns represent powerful leaders.

█ This is what that person said, 'As for the fourth animal, it will be a fourth kingdom on earth that will be different from all the other kingdoms. It will devour the whole earth, and it will trample it down and break it into pieces. As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings will arise, and another will arise after them. He will be different from the previous ones, and he will conquer the three kings.' (Daniel 7:23-24 ULT)

█ I turned around to see the voice that was speaking to me, and as I turned I saw seven golden lampstands. In the middle of the lampstands there was one like a son of man ... He had seven stars in his right hand and a sword with two sharp edges was coming out of his mouth. As for the hidden meaning about the seven stars that you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches. (Revelation 1:12-13a, 16a, 20 ULT)

This passage explains the meaning of the seven lampstands and the seven stars. The two-edged sword represents God's word and judgment.

Translation Strategies

- (1) Translate the text with the symbols. Often the speaker or author explains the meaning later in the passage.
- (2) Translate the text with the symbols. Then explain the symbols in footnotes.

[3] The horns are a symbol of powerful kings.

Synecdoche

Description

Synecdoche is a figure of speech in which a speaker uses a part of something to refer to the whole thing, or uses the whole to refer to a part.

■ My soul magnifies the Lord. (Luke 1:46b ULT)

Mary was very happy about what the Lord was doing, so she said “my soul,” which means the inner, emotional part of herself, to refer to her whole self.

■ So the Pharisees said to him, “Look, why are they doing that which is not lawful?” (Mark 2:24a ULT)

The Pharisees who were standing there did not all say the same words at the same time. Instead, it is more likely that one man representing the group said those words.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Some readers may not recognize the synecdoche and thus misunderstand the words as a literal statement.
- Some readers may realize that they are not to understand the words literally, but they may not know what the meaning is.

Example From the Bible

■ Then I looked on all the deeds that my hands had accomplished. (Ecclesiastes 2:11a ULT)

“My hands” is a synecdoche for the whole person because clearly the arms and the rest of the body and the mind were also involved in the person’s accomplishments. The hands are chosen to represent the person because they are the parts of the body most directly involved in the work.

Translation Strategies

If the synecdoche would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

(1) State specifically what the synecdoche refers to.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

■ “My soul magnifies the Lord.” (Luke 1:46b ULT)

So the Pharisees said to him ... (Mark 2:24a ULT)

■ A representative of the Pharisees said to him ...

Then I looked on all the deeds that my hands had accomplished. (Ecclesiastes 2:11a ULT)

Textual Variants

Description

Thousands of years ago, people wrote the books of the Bible. Other people then copied them by hand and translated them. They did this work very carefully, and over the years many people made thousands of copies. However, people who looked at them later saw that there were small differences between them. Some copiers accidentally left out some words, or some mistook one word for another that looked like it. Occasionally, they added words or even whole sentences, either by accident or because they wanted to explain something. Modern Bibles are translations of the old copies. Some modern Bibles include some of these sentences that were added. In the ULT, these added sentences are usually written in footnotes.

Bible scholars have read many old copies and compared them with each other. For each place in the Bible where there was a difference, they have figured out which wordings are most likely correct. The translators of the ULT based the ULT on wordings that scholars say are most likely correct. Because people who use the ULT may have access to Bibles that are based on other copies, the ULT translators have sometimes included information about some of the differences between them, either in the ULT footnotes or in the unfoldingWord® Translation Notes.

Translators are encouraged to translate the text in the ULT and to write about added sentences in footnotes, as is done in the ULT. However, if the local church really wants those sentences to be included in the main text, translators may put them in the text and include a footnote about them.

This page answers the question: Why does the ULT have missing or added verses, and should I translate them?

Examples From the Bible

Matthew 18:10-11 ULT has a footnote about verse 11.

¹⁰ See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I say to you that in heaven their angels always look on the face of my Father who is in heaven. ¹¹ ^[1]

[1] Many authorities, some ancient, insert v. 11: For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.

John 7:53-8:11 is not in the best earliest manuscripts. It has been included in the ULT, but it is marked off with square brackets ([]) at the beginning and end, and there is a footnote after verse 11.

53 [Then everyone went to his own house ... 11 She said, "No one, Lord." Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more."] ^[2]

[2] Some ancient manuscripts include John 7:53-8:11

Translation Strategies

When there is a textual variant, you may choose to follow the ULT or another version that you have access to.

- (1) Translate the verses as they are in the ULT and include the footnote that the ULT provides.
- (2) Translate the verses as another version has them, and change the footnote so that it fits this situation.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

The translation strategies are applied to Mark 7:14-16 ULT, which has a footnote about verse 16.

¹⁴ He called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand. ¹⁵ There is nothing from outside the man that can defile him when it enters into him. But the things that come out of the man are the things that defile the man.” ¹⁶ ^[1]

^[1] Some ancient manuscripts include verse 16: If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

(1) Translate the verses as they are in the ULT and include the footnote that the ULT provides.

¹⁴ He called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand. ¹⁵ There is nothing from outside the man that can defile him when it enters into him. But the things that come out of the man are the things that defile the man.” ¹⁶ ^[1]

^[1] Some ancient manuscripts include verse 16: If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

(2) Translate the verses as another version has them, and change the footnote so that it fits this situation.

¹⁴ He called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand. ¹⁵ There is nothing from outside the man that can defile him when it enters into him. But the things that come out of the man are the things that defile the man. ¹⁶ If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.” ^[1]

^[1] Some ancient manuscripts do not include verse 16.

Translate Unknowns

While working to translate the Bible, you (the translator) might find yourself asking: “How do I translate words like lion, fig tree, mountain, priest, or temple when people in my culture have never seen these things and we do not have a word for them?”

This page answers the question: How can I translate ideas that my readers are not familiar with?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

[\[\[rc://en/ta/man/translate/figs-sentences\]\]](#)

Description

Unknowns are things that occur in the source text that are not known to the people of your culture. The unfoldingWord® Translation Words pages and the unfoldingWord® Translation Notes will help you understand what they are. After you understand them, you will need to find ways to refer to those things so that people who read your translation will understand what they are.

They said to him, “We have nothing here except five loaves of bread and two fish.” (Matthew 14:17 ULT)

Bread is a particular food made by mixing finely crushed grains with oil, and then cooking the mixture so that it is dry. (Grains are the seeds of a kind of grass.) In some cultures people do not have bread and do not know what it is.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- Readers may not know some of the things that are in the Bible because those things are not part of their own culture.
- Readers may have difficulty understanding a text if they do not know some of the things that are mentioned in it.

Translation Principles

- Use words that are already part of your language if possible.
- Keep expressions short if possible.
- Represent God’s commands and historical facts accurately.

Examples From the Bible

So I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals. (Jeremiah 9:11a ULT)

Jackals are wild animals like dogs that live in only a few parts of the world. So they are not known in many places.

Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. (Matthew 7:15 ULT)

If wolves do not live where the translation will be read, the readers may not understand that they are fierce, wild animals like dogs that attack and eat sheep.

They offered him wine mixed with myrrh, but he did not drink it. (Mark 15:23 ULT)

People may not know what myrrh is and that it was used as a medicine.

... to him who made great lights ... (Psalm 136:7a ULT)

Some languages have terms for things that give light, like the sun and fire, but they have no general term for lights.

Your sins ... will be white like snow. (Isaiah 1:18b ULT)

People in many parts of the world have not seen snow, but they may have seen it in pictures.

Translation Strategies

Here are ways you might translate a term that is not known in your language:

- (1) Use a phrase that describes what the unknown item is, or what is important about the unknown item for the verse being translated.
- (2) Substitute something similar from your language if doing so does not falsely represent a historical fact.
- (3) Copy the word from another language, and add a general word or descriptive phrase to help people understand it.
- (4) Use a word that is more general in meaning.
- (5) Use a word or phrase that is more specific in meaning.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) Use a phrase that describes what the unknown item is, or what is important about the unknown item for the verse being translated.

Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are inwardly they are ravenous wolves. (Matthew 7:15 ULT)

Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are very hungry and dangerous animals.

"Ravenous wolves" is part of a metaphor here, so the reader needs to know that they are very dangerous to sheep in order to understand this metaphor. (If sheep are also unknown, then you will need to also use one of the translation strategies to translate sheep, or change the metaphor to something else, using a translation strategy for metaphors. See Translating Metaphors.)

"We have nothing here except five loaves of bread and two fish." (Matthew 14:17 ULT)

We have nothing here except five loaves of baked grain seeds and two fish.

- (2) Substitute something similar from your language if doing so does not falsely represent a historical fact.

Your sins ... will be white like snow. (Isaiah 1:18b ULT) This verse is not about snow. It uses snow in a figure of speech to help people understand how white something will be.

Your sins ... will be white like milk.

Your sins ... will be white like the moon.

- (3) Copy the word from another language, and add a general word or descriptive phrase to help people understand it.

Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with myrrh. But he refused to drink it. (Mark 15:23 ULT) — People may understand better what myrrh is if it is used with the general word “medicine.”

Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with a medicine called myrrh. But he refused to drink it.

“We have nothing here except five loaves of bread and two fish.” (Matthew 14:17 ULT) — People may understand better what bread is if it is used with a phrase that tells what it is made of (seeds) and how it is prepared (crushed and baked).

We have nothing here except five loaves of baked crushed seed bread and two fish.

(4) Use a word that is more general in meaning.

I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals (Jeremiah 9:11a ULT)

I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for wild dogs

“We have nothing here except five loaves of bread and two fish.” (Matthew 14:17 ULT)

We have nothing here except five loaves of baked food and two fish.

(5) Use a word or phrase that is more specific in meaning.

... to him who made great lights ... (Psalm 136:7a ULT)

to him who made the sun and the moon

When Masculine Words Include Women

In the Bible, sometimes the words “men,” “brothers,” and “sons” refer only to men. At other times, those words include both men and women. In those places where the writer meant both men and women, you (the translator) need to translate it in a way that does not limit the meaning to men.

This page answers the question: How do I translate “brother” or “he” when it could refer to anyone, male or female?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

Pronouns

Generic Noun Phrases

Description

In some languages a word that normally refers to men can also be used in a more general way to refer to both men and women. For example, the Bible sometimes says “brothers” when it refers to both brothers and sisters.

Also in some languages, the masculine pronouns “he” and “him” can be used in a more general way for any person if it is not important whether the person is a man or a woman. In the example below, the pronoun is “his,” but it is not limited to males.

A wise son makes his father rejoice but a foolish son brings grief to his mother. (Proverbs 10:1 ULT)

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- In some cultures words like “man,” “brother,” and “son” can only be used to refer to men. If those words are used in a translation in a more general way, people will think that what is being said does not apply to women.
- In some cultures, the masculine pronouns “he” and “him” can only refer to men. If a masculine pronoun is used, people will think that what is said does not apply to women.

Translation Principles

When a statement applies to both men and women, translate it in such a way that people will be able to understand that it applies to both.

Examples From the Bible

Now we want you to know, brothers, the grace of God that has been given to the churches of Macedonia. (2 Corinthians 8:1 ULT)

This verse is addressing the believers in Corinth, not only men, but men and women.

Then said Jesus to his disciples, “If anyone wants to follow me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” (Matthew 16:24 ULT)

Jesus was not speaking only of men, but of men and women.

Caution: Sometimes masculine words are used specifically to refer to men. Do not use words that would lead people to think that they include women. The words below are specifically about men.

Moses said, ‘If someone dies, not having children, his brother must marry his wife and have children for his brother.’ (Matthew 22:24 ULT)

Translation Strategies

If people would understand that that masculine words like “man,” “brother,” and “he” can include women, then consider using them. Otherwise, here are some ways for translating those words when they include women.

- (1) Use a noun that can be used for both men and women.
- (2) Use a word that refers to men and a word that refers to women.
- (3) Use pronouns that can be used for both men and women.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- (1) Use nouns that can be used for both men and women.

The wise man dies just like the fool dies. (Ecclesiastes 2:16b ULT)

“The wise person dies just like the fool dies.”

“Wise people die just like fools die.”

- (2) Use a word that refers to men and a word that refers to women.

For we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about the troubles that happened to us in Asia. (2 Corinthians 1:8) — Paul was writing this letter to both men and women.

“For we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about the troubles that happened to us in Asia.”

- (3) Use pronouns that can be used for both men and women.

“If anyone wants to follow me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.”
(Matthew 16:24 ULT)

English speakers can change the masculine singular pronouns, “he,” “himself,” and “his” to plural pronouns that do not mark gender, “they,” “themselves,” and “their” in order to show that it applies to all people, not just men.

>

“If people want to follow me, they must deny themselves, take up their cross, and follow me.”

Version 31

Adam

Facts:

Adam was the first person whom God created. He and his wife Eve were made in the image of God.

- God formed Adam from dirt and breathed life into him.
- Adam's name sounds similar to the Hebrew word for "red dirt" or "ground."
- The name "Adam" is the same as the Old Testament word for "mankind" or "human being."
- All people are descendants of Adam and Eve.
- Adam and Eve disobeyed God. This separated them from God and caused sin and death to come into the world.

- 1:9 Then God said, "Let us make human beings in our image to be like us."
- 1:10 This man's name was Adam. God planted a garden where Adam could live, and put him there to care for it.
- 1:12 Then God said, "It is not good for man to be alone." But none of the animals could be Adam's helper.
- 2:11 And God clothed Adam and Eve with animal skins.
- 2:12 So God sent Adam and Eve away from the beautiful garden.
- 49:8 When Adam and Eve sinned, it affected all of their descendants.
- 50:16 Because Adam and Eve disobeyed God and brought sin into this world, God cursed it and decided to destroy it.

adversary, enemy

Definition:

An “adversary” is a person (or group of people) who is opposed to someone else. The term “enemy” has a similar meaning.

- Your adversary can be a person who tries to oppose or harm another person.
- When two nations fight, each can be called an “adversary” of the other.
- In the Bible, the devil is referred to as an “adversary” and an “enemy.”
- The term “adversary” may be translated as “opponent” or “enemy,” but it suggests a stronger form of opposition.

advice, advise, advisor, counsel, counselor, counsels

Definition:

The terms “counsel” and “advice” have the same meaning and refer to helping someone decide wisely about what to do in a certain situation. A wise “counselor” or “advisor” is someone who gives advice or counsel that will help a person make right choices.

- Kings often have official advisors or counselors to help them decide important matters that affect the people they are ruling.
- Sometimes the advice or counsel that is given is not good. Evil advisors may urge a king to take action or make a decree that will harm him or his people.
- Depending on the context, “advice” or “counsel” could also be translated as “help in deciding” or “warnings” or “exhortations” or “guidance.”
- The action, to “counsel” could be translated as to “advise” or to “make suggestions” or to “exhort.”
- Note that “counsel” is a different word than “council,” which refers to a group of people.

afflict, affliction, distress

Definition:

The term "afflict" means to cause someone distress or suffering. An "affliction" is the disease, emotional grief, or other disaster that results from this.

- Sometimes God afflicted his people with sickness or other hardships with the intention for them to repent of their sins and turn back to him.
- God caused afflictions or plagues to come on the people of Egypt because their king refused to obey God.
- To "be afflicted with" means to suffer from some kind of distress, such as a disease, persecution, or emotional grief.
- In some Old Testament contexts, the idea of "afflicting oneself" or "afflicting one's soul" means to abstain from eating food.

Translation Suggestions:

- To "afflict" someone could be translated as "cause someone to experience troubles" or "cause someone to suffer" or "cause suffering to come."
- A phrase like "afflict someone with leprosy" could be translated as "cause someone to be sick with leprosy."
- When a disease or disaster is sent to "afflict" people or animals, this could be translated as "cause suffering to."
- Depending on the context, the term "affliction" could be translated as "calamity" or "sickness" or "suffering" or "great distress."
- The phrase "afflicted with" could also be translated as "suffering from" or "sick with."

alarm, alarmed

Facts:

An alarm is something that warns people about something that could harm them. To “be alarmed” is to be very worried and frightened about something dangerous or threatening.

- King Jehoshapat was alarmed when he heard that the Moabites were planning to attack the kingdom of Judah.
- Jesus told his disciples not to be alarmed when they hear about disasters happening in the last days.
- The expression “sound an alarm” means to give a warning. In ancient times, a person could sound an alarm by making a noise.

Translation Suggestions

- To “alarm someone” means to “cause someone to worry” or to “worry someone.”
- To “be alarmed” could be translated as “be worried” or “be frightened” or “be very concerned.”
- The expression “sound an alarm” could be translated by “publicly warn” or “announce that danger is coming” or “blow a trumpet to warn about danger.”

alien, foreigner, sojourn

Definition:

The term “foreigner” refers to a person living in a country that is not his own. Another name for a foreigner is an “alien.” To sojourn is to live temporarily as a foreigner.

- In the Old Testament, this term especially refers to anyone who came from a different people group than the people he was living among.
- A foreigner is also a person whose language and culture is different from those of a particular region.
- For example, when Naomi and her family moved to Moab, they were foreigners there. When Naomi and her daughter-in-law Ruth later moved to Israel, Ruth was called a “foreigner” there because she was not originally from Israel.
- A sojourner is another word for a temporary foreign resident.
- The apostle Paul told the Ephesians that before they knew Christ, they were “foreigners” to God’s covenant.
- Sometimes “foreigner” is translated as “stranger,” but it should not refer only to someone who is unfamiliar or unknown.

amazed, amazement, astonished, marvel, marveled, marvelous, wonder, dumbfounded

Definition:

All these terms refer to being very surprised because of something extraordinary that happened.

- Some of these words are translations of Greek expressions that mean “struck with amazement” or “standing outside of (oneself).” These expressions show how very surprised or shocked the person was feeling. Other languages might also have ways to express this.
- Usually the event that caused the wonder and amazement was a miracle, something only God could do.
- The meaning of these terms can also include feelings of confusion because what happened was totally unexpected.
- Other ways to translate these words could be “extremely surprised” or “very shocked.”
- Related words include “marvelous” (amazing, wonderful), “amazement,” and “astonishment.”
- In general, these terms are positive and express that the people were happy about what had happened.

beast

Facts:

In the Bible, the term “beast” is often just another way of saying “animal.”

- A wild beast is a type of animal that lives freely in the forest or fields and has not been trained by people.
- A domestic beast is an animal that lives with people and is kept for food or for performing work, such as plowing fields. Often the term “livestock” is used to refer to this kind of animal.
- The Old Testament book of Daniel and the New Testament book of Revelation describe visions which have beasts that represent evil powers and authorities that oppose God. (See: Metaphor)
- Some of these beasts are described as having strange features, such as several heads and many horns. They often have power and authority, indicating that they may represent countries, nations, or other political powers.
- Ways to translate this could include “creature” or “created thing” or “animal” or “wild animal,” depending on the context.

believe, believer, belief, unbeliever, unbelief

Definition:

The terms “believe” and “believe in” are closely related, but have slightly different meanings:

1. believe

- To believe something is to accept or trust that it is true.
- To believe someone is to acknowledge that what that person has said is true.

2. believe in

- To “believe in” someone means to “trust in” that person. It means to trust that the person is who he says he is, that he always speaks the truth, and that he will do what he has promised to do.
- When a person truly believes in something, he will act in such a way that shows that belief.
- The phrase “have faith in” usually has the same meaning as “believe in.”
- To “believe in Jesus” means to believe that he is the Son of God, that he is God himself who also became human and who died as a sacrifice to pay for our sins. It means to trust him as Savior and live in a way that honors him.

3. believer

In the Bible, the term “believer” refers to someone who believes in and relies on Jesus Christ as Savior.

- The term “believer” literally means “person who believes.”
- The term “Christian” eventually came to be the main title for believers because it indicates that they believe in Christ and obey his teachings.

4. unbelief

The term “unbelief” refers to not believing something or someone.

- In the Bible, “unbelief” refers to not believing in or not trusting in Jesus as one’s Savior.
- A person who does not believe in Jesus is called an “unbeliever.”

Translation Suggestions:

- To “believe” could be translated as to “know to be true” or “know to be right.”
- To “believe in” could be translated as “trust completely” or “trust and obey” or “completely rely on and follow.”
- Some translations may prefer to say “believer in Jesus” or “believer in Christ.”
- This term could also be translated by a word or phrase that means “person who trusts in Jesus” or “someone who knows Jesus and lives for him.”
- Other ways to translate “believer” could be “follower of Jesus” or “person who knows and obeys Jesus.”
- The term “believer” is a general term for any believer in Christ, while “disciple” and “apostle” were used more specifically for people who knew Jesus while he was alive. It is best to translate these terms in different ways, in order to keep them distinct.
- Other ways to translate “unbelief” could include “lack of faith” or “not believing.”

- The term “unbeliever” could be translated as “person who does not believe in Jesus” or “someone who does not trust in Jesus as Savior.”

bread

Definition:

Bread is a food made from flour mixed with water and oil to form a dough. The dough is then shaped into a loaf and baked.

- When the term “loaf” occurs by itself, it means “loaf of bread.”
- Bread dough is usually made with something that makes it rise, such as yeast. However, bread can also be made without yeast so that it does not rise. This is called “unleavened bread” in the Bible. The ancient Israelites ate “unleavened bread” during the passover meal.
- Since bread was the main food for many people in biblical times, this term is also used in the Bible to refer to food in general. (See: Synecdoche) Many times the term “bread” can be translated more generally as “food.”
- The phrase “bread of the presence” refers to twelve loaves of bread that were placed on a golden table in the tabernacle or temple building as a sacrifice to God. These loaves represented the twelve tribes of Israel and were only for the priests to eat. This could be translated as “bread showing that God lived among them.”
- The term “bread from heaven” refers to the special white food called “manna” that God provided for the Israelites when they were wandering through the desert. Jesus also called himself the “bread that came down from heaven” and the “bread of life.”

brother

Definition:

The term “brother” refers to a male sibling who shares at least one biological parent.

- In the Old Testament, the term “brothers” is also used as a general reference to relatives or associates, such as members of the same tribe, clan, occupation, or people group. When used in this way, the term can refer to both men and women.
- In the New Testament, the apostles often use the term “brothers” to refer to fellow Christians, including both men and women.
- A few times in the New Testament, the apostles used the term “sister” when referring specifically to a fellow Christian who was a woman, or to emphasize that both men and women are being included. For example, James emphasizes that he is talking about all believers when he refers to “a brother or sister who is in need of food or clothing.”

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term with the literal word that is used in the target language to refer to a natural or biological brother, unless this would give wrong meaning.
- In the Old Testament especially, when “brothers” is used very generally to refer to members of the same family, clan, or people group, possible translations could include “relatives” or “clan members” or “fellow Israelites.”
- In the context of referring to a fellow believer in Christ, this term could be translated as “brother in Christ” or “spiritual brother.”
- If both males and females are being referred to and “brother” would give a wrong meaning, then a more general kinship term could be used that would include both males and females.
- Other ways to translate this term so that it refers to both male and female believers could be “fellow believers” or “Christian brothers and sisters.”
- Make sure to check the context to determine whether only men are being referred to, or whether both men and women are included.

burden, load, heavy, hard work, hard labor, utterances

Definition:

A burden is a heavy load. It literally refers to a physical load such as a work animal would carry. The term “burden” also has several figurative meanings:

- A burden can refer to a difficult duty or important responsibility that a person has to do. He is said to be “bearing” or “carrying” a “heavy burden.”
- A cruel leader may put difficult burdens on the people he is ruling, for example by forcing them to pay large amounts of taxes.
- A person who does not want to be a burden to someone does not want to cause that other person any trouble.
- The guilt of a person’s sin is a burden to him.
- The “burden of the Lord” is a figurative way of referring to a “message from God” that a prophet must deliver to God’s people.
- The term “burden” can be translated by “responsibility” or “duty” or “heavy load” or “message,” depending on the context.

burnt offering, offering by fire

Definition:

A “burnt offering” was a type of sacrifice to God that was burnt up by fire on an altar. It was offered to make atonement for the sins of the people. This was also called an “offering by fire.”

- Animals used for this offering were usually sheep or goats, but oxen and birds were also used.
- Except for the skin, the entire animal was burned up in this offering. The skin or hide was given to the priest.
- God commanded the Jewish people to offer burnt offerings two times every day.

bury, buried, burial

Definition:

The term “bury” refers to putting an object (usually a dead body) into a hole or other burial place and then covering it with dirt or stones, etc. The term “burial” is the act of burying something, or it can be used to describe a place where something has been buried.

- Often people bury a dead body by placing it into a deep hole in the ground and then covering it with dirt.
- Sometimes the dead body is placed in a box-like structure, such as a coffin, before burying it.
- In Bible times, dead people were often buried in a cave or similar place. After Jesus died, his body was wrapped in cloths and placed in a stone tomb that was sealed with a large boulder.
- The terms “burial place” or “burial room” or “burial chamber” or “burial cave” always refer to a place where a dead body is buried.
- Other things can also be buried, such as when Achan buried silver and other things that he had stolen from Jericho.
- The phrase “buried his face” usually means “covered his face with his hands.”
- Sometimes the word “hide” can mean “bury” as when Achan hid things in the ground that he had stolen from Jericho. This meant he buried them in the ground.

call, call out

Definition:

The terms “call” and “call out” usually mean to speak loudly, but the term “call” can also mean to name or summon a person. There are also some other meanings.

- To “call out” to someone means to shout, to announce, or to proclaim. It can also mean to ask someone for help, especially God.
- Often in the Bible, “call” has a meaning of “summon” or “command to come” or “request to come.”
- God calls people to come to him and be his people. This is their “calling.”
- When God “calls” people, it means that God has appointed or chosen people to be his children, to be his servants and proclaimers of his message of salvation through Jesus.
- This term is also used in the context of naming someone. For example, “His name is called John,” means “He is named John” or “His name is John.”
- To be “called by the name of” means that someone is given the name of someone else. God says that he has called his people by his name.
- A different expression, “I have called you by name” means that God has specifically chosen that person.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “call” could be translated by a word that means “summon,” which includes the idea of being intentional or purposeful in calling.
- The expression “call out to you” could be translated as “ask you for help” or “pray to you urgently.”
- When the Bible says that God has “called” us to be his servants, this could be translated as “specially chose us” or “appointed us” to be his servants.
- “You must call his name” can also be translated as “you must name him.”
- “His name is called” could also be translated as “his name is” or “he is named.”
- To “call out” could be translated as “say loudly” or “shout” or “say with a loud voice.” Make sure the translation of this does not sound like the person is angry.
- The expression “your calling” could be translated as “your purpose” or “God’s purpose for you” or “God’s special work for you.”
- To “call on the name of the Lord” could be translated as “seek the Lord and depend on him” or “trust in the Lord and obey him.”
- To “call for” something could be translated by “demand” or “ask for” or “command.”
- The expression “you are called by my name” could be translated as “I have given you my name, showing that you belong to me.”
- When God says, “I have called you by name,” this could be translated as “I know you and have chosen you.”

captive, captivate, captivity, catch

Definition:

The terms “captive” and “captivity” refer to people who have been captured and forced to live somewhere they do not want to live, such as in a foreign country.

- The Israelites from the kingdom of Judah were held captive in the kingdom of Babylonia for 70 years.
- Captives are often required to work for the people or nation that captured them.
- Daniel and Nehemiah were Israelite captives who worked for the Babylonian king.
- The expression to “take captive” is another way of talking about capturing someone.
- The expression, “carry you away captive” could also be translated as “force you to live as captives” or “take you away to another country as prisoners.”
- In a figurative sense, the apostle Paul tells Christians to “take captive” every thought and make it obedient to Christ.
- He also talks about how a person can be “taken captive” by sin, which means he is “controlled by” sin.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, to be “held captive” could also be translated by, “not allowed to be free” or “kept in prison” or “forced to live in a foreign country.”
- The expression, “led captive” or “taken captive” could be translated as “captured” or “imprisoned” or “forced to go to a foreign land.”
- The term “captives” could also be translated as “people who were captured” or “enslaved people.”
- Depending on the context, “captivity” could also be translated as “imprisonment” or “exile” or “forced stay in a foreign country.”

clean, wash

Definition:

The term “clean” generally refers either to removing dirt or stains from someone/something or to not having any dirt or stain in the first place. The term “wash” refers specifically to action of removing dirt or stains from someone/something.

- “Cleanse” is the process of making something “clean.” It could also be translated as “wash” or “purify.”
- In the Old Testament, God told the Israelites which animals he had specified as ritually “clean” and which ones were “unclean.” Only the clean animals were permitted to be used for eating or for sacrifice. In this context, the term “clean” means that the animal was acceptable to God for use as a sacrifice.
- A person who had certain skin diseases would be unclean until the skin was healed enough to no longer be contagious. Instructions for cleansing the skin had to be obeyed in order for that person to be declared “clean” again.
- Sometimes “clean” is used figuratively to refer to moral purity, meaning to be “clean” from sin.

In the Bible, the term “unclean” is used figuratively to refer to things that God declared to be unfit for his people to touch, eat, or sacrifice.

- God gave the Israelites instructions about which animals were “clean” and which ones were “unclean.” The unclean animals were not permitted to be used for eating or for sacrifice.
- People with certain skin diseases were said to be “unclean” until they were healed.
- If the Israelites touched something “unclean,” they themselves would be considered unclean for a certain period of time.
- Obeying God’s commands about not touching or eating unclean things kept the Israelites set apart for God’s service.
- This physical and ritual uncleanness was also symbolic of moral uncleanness.
- In another figurative sense, an “unclean spirit” refers to an evil spirit.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated with the common word for “clean” or “pure” (in the sense of being not dirty).
- Other ways to translate this could include, “ritually clean” or “acceptable to God.”
- “Cleanse” could be translated by “wash” or “purify.”
- Make sure that the words used for “clean” and “cleanse” can also be understood in a figurative sense.
- The term “unclean” could also be translated as “not clean” or “unfit in God’s eyes” or “physically unclean” or “defiled.”
- When referring to a demon as an unclean spirit, “unclean” could be translated as “evil” or “defiled.”
- The translation of this term should allow for spiritual uncleanness. It should be able to refer to anything that God declared as unfit for touching, eating, or sacrifice.

column, pillar

Definition:

The term “pillar” usually refers to a large vertical structure that is used to hold up a roof or other part of a building. Another word for “pillar” is “column.”

- In Bible times, pillars used as support in buildings were normally carved from a single piece of stone.
- When Samson in the Old Testament was captured by the Philistines, he destroyed their pagan temple by pushing the supporting pillars and causing the temple to collapse.
- The word “pillar” sometimes refers to a large stone or boulder that is set up as a memorial to mark a grave or to mark the place where an important event happened.
- It can also refer to an idol that was made to worship a false god. It is another name for a “carved image” and could be translated as “statue.”
- The term “pillar” is used to refer to something that is shaped like a pillar, such as the “pillar of fire” that led the Israelites at night through the desert or the “pillar of salt” that Lot’s wife became after she looked back at the city.
- As a structure supporting a building, the term “pillar” or “column” could be translated as “upright stone support beam” or “supporting stone structure.”
- Other uses of “pillar” could be translated as “statue” or “pile” or “mound” or “monument” or “tall mass,” depending on the context.

comfort, comforts, comforter, uncomforted

Definition:

The terms “comfort” and “comforter” refer to helping someone who is suffering physical or emotional pain.

- A person who comforts someone is called a “comforter.”
- In the Old Testament, the term “comfort” is used to describe how God is kind and loving to his people and helps them when they are suffering.
- In the New Testament, it says that God will comfort his people through the Holy Spirit. Those who receive the comfort are then enabled to give the same comfort to others who are suffering.
- The expression “comforter of Israel” referred to the Messiah who would come to rescue his people.
- Jesus referred to the Holy Spirit as the “Comforter” who helps believers in Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “comfort” could also be translated as “ease the pain of” or “help (someone) overcome grief” or “encourage” or “console.”
- A phrase such as “our comfort” could be translated as “our encouragement” or “our consoling of (someone)” or “our help in times of grieving.”
- The term “comforter” could be translated as “person who comforts” or “someone who helps ease pain” or “person who encourages.”
- When the Holy Spirit is called “the Comforter” this could also be translated as “the Encourager” or “the Helper” or “the One who helps and guides.”
- The phrase “comforter of Israel” could be translated as “the Messiah, who comforts Israel.”
- An expression like, “they have no comforter” could also be translated as “No one has comforted them” or “There is no one to encourage or help them.”

command, commandment

Definition:

The term "command" means to order someone to do something. The term "commandment" refers to the thing that a person is commanded to do.

- The term "commandment" sometimes refers to certain commands of God which are more formal and permanent, such as the "Ten Commandments."
- A command can be positive ("Honor your parents") or negative ("Do not steal").
- To "take command" means to "take control" or "take charge" of something or someone.

Translation Suggestions

- It is best to translate this term differently from the term, "law." Also compare with the definitions of "decree" and "statute."
- Some translators may prefer to translate "command" and "commandment" with the same word in their language.
- Others may prefer to use a special word for commandment that refers to lasting, formal commands that God has made.

courage, courageous, encourage, encouragement, discourage, discouragement

Facts:

The term "courage" refers to boldly facing or doing something that is difficult, frightening, or dangerous.

- The term, "courageous" describes someone who shows courage, who does the right thing even when feeling afraid or pressured to give up.
- A person shows courage when he faces emotional or physical pain with strength and perseverance.
- The expression "take courage" means "don't be afraid" or "be assured that things will turn out well."
- When Joshua was preparing to go into the dangerous land of Canaan, Moses exhorted him to be "strong and courageous."
- The term "courageous" could also be translated as "brave" or "unafraid" or "bold."
- Depending on the context, to "have courage" could also be translated as "be emotionally strong" or "be confident" or "stand firm."
- To "speak with courage" could be translated as "speak boldly" or "speak without being afraid" or "speak confidently."

The terms "encourage" and "encouragement" refer to saying and doing things to cause someone to have comfort, hope, confidence, and courage.

- A similar term is "exhort," which means to urge someone to reject an activity that is wrong and to instead do things that are good and right.
- The apostle Paul and other New Testament writers taught Christians to encourage one another to love and serve others.

The term "discourage" refers to saying and doing things that cause people to lose hope, confidence, and courage and so to have less desire to keep working hard to do what they know they should do.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, ways to translate "encourage" could include "urge" or "comfort" or "say kind things" or "help and support."
- The phrase "give words of encouragement" means "say things that cause other people to feel loved, accepted, and empowered."

covenant

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “covenant” refers to a formal, binding agreement between two parties that one or both parties must fulfill.

- This agreement can be between individuals, between groups of people, or between God and people.
- When people make a covenant with each other, they promise that they will do something, and they must do it.
- Examples of human covenants include marriage covenants, business agreements, and treaties between countries.
- Throughout the Bible, God made several different covenants with his people.
- In some of the covenants, God promised to fulfill his part without conditions. For example, when God established his covenant with mankind promising to never destroy the earth again with a worldwide flood, this promise had no conditions for people to fulfill.
- In other covenants, God promised to fulfill his part only if the people obeyed him and fulfilled their part of the covenant.

The term “new covenant” refers to the commitment or agreement God made with his people through the sacrifice of his Son, Jesus.

- God’s “new covenant” was explained in the part of the Bible called the “New Testament.”
- This new covenant is in contrast to the “old” or “former” covenant that God had made with the Israelites in Old Testament times.
- The new covenant is better than the old one because it is based on the sacrifice of Jesus, which completely atoned for people’s sins forever. The sacrifices made under the old covenant did not do this.
- God writes the new covenant on the hearts those who become believers in Jesus. This causes them to want to obey God and to begin to live holy lives.
- The new covenant will be completely fulfilled in the end times when God establishes his reign on earth. Everything will once again be very good, as it was when God first created the world.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate this term could include, “binding agreement” or “formal commitment” or “pledge” or “contract.”
- Some languages may have different words for covenant depending on whether one party or both parties have made a promise they must keep. If the covenant is one-sided, it could be translated as “promise” or “pledge.”
- Make sure the translation of this term does not sound like people proposed the covenant. In all cases of covenants between God and people, it was God who initiated the covenant.
- The term “new covenant” could be translated as “new formal agreement” or “new pact” or “new contract.”
- The word “new” in these expressions has the meaning of “fresh” or “new kind of” or “another.”

covenant faithfulness, covenant loyalty, covenant love

Definition:

In biblical times, the term translated as “covenant faithfulness” was used to describe the kind of faithfulness, loyalty, kindness, and love that was both expected and demonstrated between people who were closely related to one another, either by marriage or by blood. This same term is used often in the Bible to describe the way God relates to his people, especially his commitment to fulfill the promises that he made to them.

- The way this term is translated can depend on how each of the individual terms “covenant” and “faithfulness” are translated.
- Other ways to translate this term might include: “faithful love;” “loyal, committed love;” or “loving dependability.”

cow, bull, calf, cattle, heifer, ox

Definition:

The terms “cow,” “bull,” “heifer,” “ox,” and “cattle” all refer to a kind of large, four-legged bovine animal that eats grass.

- The female of this kind of animal is called a “cow,” the male is a “bull,” and their offspring is a “calf.”
- In the Bible, cattle were among the “clean” animals that the people could eat and use for sacrifice. They were primarily raised for their meat and milk.

A “heifer” is an adult female cow that has not yet given birth to a calf.

An “ox” is a type of cattle that is specifically trained to do agricultural work. The plural of this term is “oxen.” Usually oxen are male and have been castrated.

- Throughout the Bible, oxen were depicted as animals tied together by a yoke to pull a cart or a plow.
- Having oxen work together under a yoke was such a common occurrence in the Bible that the phrase to “be under a yoke” became a metaphor for hard work and labor.
- A bull is also a male type of cattle, but it has not been castrated and has not been trained as a work animal.

curse, cursed, cursing

Definition:

The term "curse" means to cause negative things to happen to the person or thing that is being cursed.

- A curse can be a statement that harm will happen to someone or something.
- To curse someone can also be an expression of desire that bad things will happen to them.
- It can also refer to the punishment or other negative things that someone causes to happen to someone.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated as "cause bad things to happen to" or "declare that something bad will happen to" or "swear to cause evil things to happen to."
- In the context of God sending curses on his disobedient people, it could be translated as "punish by allowing bad things to happen."
- The term "cursed" when used to describe people could be translated as "(this person) will experience much trouble."
- The phrase "cursed be" could be translated as "May (this person) experience great difficulties."
- The phrase, "Cursed is the ground" could be translated as "The soil will not be very fertile."
- However, if the target language has the phrase "cursed be" and it has the same meaning, then it is good to keep the same phrase.

curtain

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “curtain” refers to a very thick, heavy piece of material used in the making of the tabernacle and the temple.

- The tabernacle was built using four layers of curtains for the top and sides. These curtain coverings were made of cloth or animal skins.
- Cloth curtains were also used to form a wall surrounding the tabernacle courtyard. These curtains were made out of “linen” which was a kind of cloth made out of the flax plant.
- In both the tabernacle and temple building, a thick cloth curtain hung between the holy place and the most holy place. It was this curtain that was miraculously torn into two parts when Jesus died.

Translation Suggestions:

- Since modern-day curtains are very different from the curtains used in the Bible, it may be more clear to use a different word or to add words that describe the curtains.
- Depending on the context, ways to translate this term could include, “curtain covering” or “covering” or “piece of thick cloth” or “animal skin covering” or “hanging piece of cloth.”

cut off, cut down

Definition:

The expression “be cut off” is an expression that means to be excluded, banished or isolated from the main group. It can also refer to being killed as an act of divine judgment for sin.

- In the Old Testament, disobeying God’s commands resulted in being cut off, or separated, from God’s people and from his presence.
- God also said he would “cut off” or destroy the non-Israelite nations, because they did not worship or obey him and were enemies of Israel.
- The expression “cut off” is also used to refer to God causing a river to stop flowing.

Translation Suggestions:

- The expression “be cut off” could be translated as “be banished” or “be sent away” or “be separated from” or “be killed” or “be destroyed.”
- Depending on the context, to “cut off” could be translated as to “destroy” or to “send away” or to “separate from” or to “destroy.”
- In the context of flowing waters being cut off, this could be translated as “were stopped” or “were caused to stop flowing” or “were divided.”
- The literal meaning of cutting something with a knife should be distinguished from the figurative uses of this term.

darkness

Definition:

The term "darkness" literally means an absence of light. There are also several figurative meanings of this term:

- As a metaphor, "darkness" means "impurity" or "evil" or "spiritual blindness."
- It also refers to anything related to sin and moral corruption.
- The expression "dominion of darkness" refers to all that is evil and ruled by Satan.
- The term "darkness" can also be used as a metaphor for death. (See: Metaphor)
- People who do not know God are said to be "living in darkness," which means they do not understand or practice righteousness.
- God is light (righteousness) and the darkness (evil) cannot overcome that light.
- The place of punishment for those who reject God is sometimes referred to as "outer darkness."

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term literally, with a word in the project language that refers to the absence of light. This could also be a term that refers to the darkness of a room with no light or to the time of day when there is no light.
- For the figurative uses, it is also important to keep the image of darkness in contrast to light, as a way to describe evil and deception in contrast to goodness and truth.
- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this could be, "darkness of night" (as opposed to "light of day") or "not seeing anything, like at night" or "evil, like a dark place".

deceive, lie, deception, illusions

Definition:

The term "deceive" means to cause someone to believe something that is not true, often by telling a "lie." The act of deceiving someone is called "lying," "deceit," or "deception."

- Someone who causes others to believe something false is a "deceiver." For example, Satan is called a "deceiver." The evil spirits that he controls are also deceivers.
- To "lie" is to say something that is not true.
- A person, action, or message that is not truthful can be described as "deceptive."
- The terms "deceit" and "deception" have the same meaning, but there are some small differences in how they are used.
- The descriptive terms "deceitful" and "deceptive" have the same meaning and are used in the same contexts.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate "deceive" could include "lie to" or "cause to have a false belief" or "cause someone to think something that is not true."
- The term "deceived" could also be translated as "caused to think something false" or "lied to" or "tricked" or "fooled" or "misled."
- "Deceiver" could be translated as "liar" or "one who misleads" or "someone who deceives."
- Depending on the context, the terms "deception" or "deceit" could be translated with a word or phrase that means "falsehood" or "lying" or "trickery" or "dishonesty."
- The terms "deceptive" or "deceitful" could be translated as "untruthful" or "misleading" or "lying" to describe a person who speaks or acts in a way that causes other people to believe things that are not true.

declare, proclaim, announce

Definition:

The terms “declare” and “declaration” refer to making a formal or public statement, often to emphasize something. Other terms with similar meaning include “proclaim,” “proclamation,” “announce,” and “announcement.”

- A “declaration” not only emphasizes the importance of what is being proclaimed, but it also calls attention to the one making the declaration.
- For example, in the Old Testament, a message from God is often preceded by “the declaration of Yahweh” or “this is what Yahweh declares.” This expression emphasizes that it is Yahweh himself who is saying this. The fact that the message comes from Yahweh shows how important that message is.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “declare” could also be translated as “proclaim” or “publicly state” or “strongly say” or “emphatically state.”
- The term “declaration” could also be translated as “statement” or “proclamation.”
- The phrase “this is Yahweh’s declaration” could be translated as “this is what Yahweh declares” or “this is what Yahweh says.”

deliver, hand over, turn over, release, rescue

Definition:

To “deliver” someone means to rescue that person. The term “deliverer” refers to someone who rescues or frees people from slavery, oppression, or other dangers. The term “deliverance” refers to what happens when someone rescues or frees people from slavery, oppression, or other dangers.

- In the Old Testament, God appointed deliverers to protect the Israelites by leading them in battle against other people groups who came to attack them.
- These deliverers were also called “judges” and the Old Testament book of Judges records the time in history when these judges were governing Israel.
- God is also called a “deliverer.” Throughout the history of Israel, he delivered or rescued his people from their enemies.
- The term “deliver over to” or “deliver up to” has a very different meaning of handing or turning someone over to an enemy, such as when Judas delivered Jesus over to the Jewish leaders.

Translation Suggestions:

- In the context of helping people escape from their enemies, the term “deliver” can be translated as “rescue” or “liberate” or “save.”
- When it means to deliver someone over to the enemy, “deliver over” can be translated as “betray to” or “hand over” or “give over.”
- The word “deliverer” can also be translated as “rescuer” or “liberator.”
- When the term “deliverer” refers to the judges who led Israel, it could also be translated as “governor” or “judge” or “leader.”

desert, wilderness

Definition:

A desert, or wilderness, is a dry, barren place where very few plants and trees can grow.

- A desert is a land area with a dry climate and few plants or animals.
- Because of the harsh conditions, very few people can live in the desert, so it is also referred to as "wilderness."
- "Wilderness" conveys the meaning of being remote, desolate and isolated from people.
- This word can also be translated as "deserted place" or "remote place" or "uninhabited place."

destroy, destruction, annihilate

Definition:

The term “destroy” means to completely make an end to something, so that it no longer exists.

- The term “destroyer” means “a person who destroys.”
- This term is often used in the Old Testament as a general reference to anyone who destroys other people, such as an invading army.
- When God sent the angel to kill all the firstborn males in Egypt, that angel was referred to as “the destroyer of the firstborn.” This could be translated as “the one (or angel) who killed the firstborn males.”
- In the book of Revelation about the end times, Satan or some other evil spirit is called “the Destroyer.” He is the “one who destroys” because his purpose is to destroy and ruin everything God created.

devour

Definition:

The term "devour" means to eat or consume in an aggressive manner.

- Using this word in a figurative sense, Paul warned believers to not devour one another, meaning to not attack or destroy each other with words or actions (Galatians 5:15).
- Also in a figurative sense, the term "devour" is often used with a meaning of "completely destroy" as when talking about nations devouring each other or a fire devouring buildings and people.
- This term could also be translated as "completely consume" or "totally destroy."

die, dead, deadly, death

Definition:

The term "death" refers to being physically dead instead of alive.

1. Physical death

- To "die" means to stop living. Death is the end of physical life.
- The expression "put to death" refers to killing or murdering someone, especially when a king or other ruler gives an order for someone to be killed.

2. Eternal death

- Eternal death is the separation of a person from God.
- This is the kind of death that happened to Adam when he sinned and disobeyed God. His relationship with God was broken. He became ashamed and tried to hide from God.
- This same kind of death happens to every person, because we sin. But God gives us eternal life when we have faith in Jesus Christ.

Translation Suggestions:

- To translate this term, it is best to use the everyday, natural word or expression in the target language that refers to death.
- In some languages, to "die" may be expressed as to "not live." The term "dead" may be translated as "not alive" or "not having any life" or "not living."
- Many languages use figurative expressions to describe death, such as to "pass away" in English. However, in the Bible it is best to use the most direct term for death that is used in everyday language.
- In the Bible, eternal life and eternal death are often compared to physical life and physical death. It is important in a translation to use the same word or phrase for both physical death and eternal death.
- In some languages it may be more clear to say "eternal death" when the context requires that meaning. Some translators may also feel it is best to say "physical death" in contexts where it is being contrasted to spiritual death.
- The expression "the dead" is a nominal adjective that refers to people who have died. Some languages will translate this as "dead people" or "people who have died." (See: nominal adjective)
- The expression "put to death" could also be translated as "kill" or "murder" or "execute."

donkey, mule

Definition:

A donkey is a four-legged work animal, similar to a horse, but smaller and with longer ears.

- A mule is the sterile offspring of a male donkey and a female horse.
- Mules are very strong animals and so they are valuable work animals.
- Both donkeys and mules are used for carrying burdens and people when traveling.
- In Bible times, kings would ride a donkey in times of peace, rather than a horse, which was used for times of war.
- Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a young donkey a week before he was crucified there.

earth, land

Definition:

The term "earth" refers to the world on which human beings and other living things live. In the Bible, this term is sometimes translated as "land" when used in a general way to refer to the ground or the soil, or when used in a specific way to refer to a particular geographical area, usually a country or nation.

- In the Bible, the term "earth" is often paired with the term "heaven" as a way of indicating the abode of humankind on the earth in contrast with the abode of God in heaven.
- This term is usually translated "land" when paired with the name of people group to denote the territory belonging to those people, such as "the land of Canaan."
- The term "earthly" is sometimes used to refer to things that are physical and/or visible in contrast to things that are non-physical and/or invisible.
- This term can be used figuratively to refer to the people who live on the earth or what the earth contains, such as in "let the earth be glad" and "he will judge the earth."

Translation Suggestions:

- This term can be translated by the word or phrase that the local language or nearby national languages use to refer to the planet earth on which we live.
- Depending on the context, "earth" could also be translated as "world" or "land" or "dirt" or "soil."
- When used figuratively, "earth" could be translated as "people on the earth" or "people living on earth" or "everything on earth."
- Ways to translate "earthly" could include "physical" or "things of this earth" or "visible."

elder, older, old

Definition:

The term “elder” or “older” refers to people (in the Bible, usually men) who have grown old enough to become mature adults and leaders within a community. For example, elders might have gray hair, have adult children, or perhaps even have grandchildren or great-grandchildren.

- The term “elder” came from the fact that elders were originally older men who, because of their age and experience, had greater wisdom.
- In the Old Testament, the elders helped lead the Israelites in matters of justice and the Law of Moses.
- In the New Testament, Jewish “elders” continued to be leaders in their communities and also were judges for the people.
- In the early Christian churches, Christian “elders” gave spiritual leadership to the local assemblies of believers. Elders in these churches sometimes included young men who were spiritually mature.
- This term could be translated as “older men” or “spiritually mature men leading the church.”

Ethiopia, Ethiopian

Facts:

Ethiopia is a country in Africa located just south of Egypt, bordered by the Nile River to the west and by the Red Sea to the east. A person from Ethiopia is an "Ethiopian."

- Ancient Ethiopia was located south of Egypt and included land that is now part of several modern-day African countries, such as Sudan, modern Ethiopia, Somalia, Kenya, Uganda, Central African Republic, and Chad.
- In the Bible, Ethiopia is sometimes called "Cush" or "Nubia."
- The countries of Ethiopia ("Cush") and Egypt are often mentioned together in the Bible, perhaps because they were located next to each other and their people may have had some of the same ancestors.
- God sent Philip the evangelist to a desert where he shared the good news about Jesus with an Ethiopian eunuch.

evil, wicked, unpleasant

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “evil” can refer either to the concept of moral wickedness or emotional unpleasantness. The context will usually make it clear which meaning is intended in the specific instance of the term.

- While “evil” may describe a person’s character, “wicked” may refer more to a person’s behavior. However, both terms are very similar in meaning.
- The term “wickedness” refers to the state of being that exists when people do wicked things.
- The results of evil are clearly shown in how people mistreat others by killing, stealing, slandering and being cruel and unkind.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the terms “evil” and “wicked” can be translated as “bad” or “sinful” or “immoral.”
- Other ways to translate these could include “not good” or “not righteous” or “not moral.”
- Make sure the words or phrases that are used to translate these terms fit the context that is natural in the target language.

ewe, ram, sheep, sheepfold, sheepshearers, sheepskins

Definition:

A “sheep” is a medium-sized animal with four legs that has wool all over its body. A male sheep is called a “ram.” A female sheep is called a “ewe.” The plural of “sheep” is also “sheep.”

- A baby sheep is called a “lamb.”
- The Israelites often used sheep for sacrifices, especially male sheep and young sheep.
- People eat meat from sheep and use their wool to make clothing and other things.
- Sheep are very trusting, weak, and timid. They are easily influenced to wander away. They need a shepherd to lead them, protect them, and provide them with food, water, and shelter.
- In the Bible, people are compared to sheep who have God as their shepherd.

face, facial

Definition:

The word “face” literally refers to the front part of a person’s head. This term also has several figurative meanings in the Bible.

- In the Bible, the term “face” is often used figuratively to mean a person’s presence, the front of an object, or the surface of something.
- When referring to a person, the term “face” is often used figuratively to mean the action of seeing, which can represent that person’s knowledge, perception, notice, attention, or judgment.
- In a physical sense, to “face” someone or something means to look in the direction of that person or thing.
- To “face each other” means to “look directly at each other.”
- Being “face to face” means that two people are seeing each other in person, at a close distance.
- When Jesus “steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem,” it means that he very firmly decided to go.
- To “set one’s face against” people or a city means to firmly decide to no longer support, or to reject that city or person.
- The expression “face of the land” refers to the surface of the earth and often is a general reference to the whole earth. For example, a “famine covering the face of the earth” refers to a widespread famine affecting many people living on earth.
- The figurative expression “do not hide your face from your people” means “do not reject your people” or “do not desert your people” or “do not stop taking care of your people.”

Translation Suggestions:

- If possible, it is best to keep the expression or use an expression in the project language that has a similar meaning.
- The term to “face” could be translated as to “turn toward” or to “look at directly” or to “look at the face of.”
- The expression “face to face” could be translated as “up close” or “right in front of” or “in the presence of.”
- Depending on the context, the expression “before his face” could be translated as “ahead of him” or “in front of him” or “before him” or “in his presence.”
- The expression “set his face toward” could be translated as “began traveling toward” or “firmly made up his mind to go to.”
- The expression “hide his face from” could be translated as “turn away from” or “stop helping or protecting” or “reject.”
- To “set his face against” a city or people could be translated as “look at with anger and condemn” or “refuse to accept” or “decide to reject” or “condemn and reject” or “pass judgment on.”
- The expression “say it to their face” could be translated as “say it to them directly” or “say it to them in their presence” or “say it to them in person.”
- The expression “on the face of the land” could also be translated as “throughout the land” or “over the whole land” or “living throughout the land.”

faith

Definition:

In general, the term “faith” refers to a belief, trust or confidence in someone or something.

- To “have faith” in someone is to believe that what he says and does is true and trustworthy.
- To “have faith in Jesus” means to believe all of God’s teachings about Jesus. It especially means that people trust in Jesus and his sacrifice to cleanse them from their sin and to rescue them from the punishment they deserve because of their sin.
- True faith or belief in Jesus will cause a person to produce good spiritual fruits or behaviors because the Holy Spirit is living in him.
- Sometimes “faith” refers generally to all the teachings about Jesus, as in the expression “the truths of the faith.”
- In contexts such as “keep the faith” or “abandon the faith,” the term “faith” refers to the state or condition of believing all the teachings about Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- In some contexts, “faith” can be translated as “belief” or “conviction” or “confidence” or “trust.”
- For some languages these terms will be translated using forms of the verb “believe.” (See: abstractnouns)
- The expression “keep the faith” could be translated by “keep believing in Jesus” or “continue to believe in Jesus.”
- The sentence “they must keep hold of the deep truths of the faith” could be translated by “they must keep believing all the true things about Jesus that they have been taught.”
- The expression “my true son in the faith” could be translated by something like “who is like a son to me because I taught him to believe in Jesus” or “my true spiritual son, who believes in Jesus.”

faithful, faithfulness, trustworthy

Definition:

To be “faithful” to God means to consistently live according to God’s teachings. It means to be loyal to him by obeying him. The state or condition of being faithful is “faithfulness.”

- A person who is faithful can be trusted to always keep his promises and to always fulfill his responsibilities to other people.
- A faithful person perseveres in doing a task, even when it is long and difficult.
- Faithfulness to God is the consistent practice of doing what God wants us to do.

Translation Suggestions:

- In many contexts, “faithful” can be translated as “loyal” or “dedicated” or “dependable.”
- In other contexts, “faithful” can be translated by a word or phrase that means “continuing to believe” or “persevering in believing and obeying God.”
- Ways that “faithfulness” could be translated could include “persevering in believing” or “loyalty” or “trustworthiness” or “believing and obeying God.”

family, household

Definition:

The term “family” refers to a group of people who are related by blood and usually includes a father, mother, and their children. In the Bible, this term sometimes includes other close relatives such as grandparents, grandchildren, uncles and aunts.

- In biblical times, usually the oldest man was the major authority of a family.
- Family could also include servants, concubines, and even foreigners.
- Some languages may have a broader word such as “clan” or “household” that would fit better in contexts where more than just parents and children are being referred to.
- The New Testament often uses terms related to the concept of “family” to refer to the Church, meaning people who believe in Jesus.

favor, favorable, favoritism

Definition:

The term “favor” generally means approval. Someone who favors another person regards that person positively and approves of them.

- Jesus grew up “in favor with” God and men. This means that both God and others approved of his character and behavior.
- The expression “find favor” with someone means that someone is approved of by that person.
- When a king shows favor to someone, it often means that he approves of that person’s request and grants it.
- A “favor” can also be a gesture or action towards or for another person for their benefit.
- The term “favoritism” means an attitude of acting favorably toward some people but not others. It means the inclination to pick one person over another or one thing over another because the person or item is preferred. Generally, favoritism is considered unfair.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate the term “favor” could include “approval” or “blessing” or “benefit.”
- The “favorable year of Yahweh” could be translated as “the year (or time) when Yahweh will bring great blessing.”
- The term “favoritism” could be translated as “partiality” or “being prejudiced” or “unjust treatment.” This word is related to the word “favorite,” which means to prefer above all others.

fear, afraid, frighten

Definition:

The terms "fear" refers to the unpleasant emotion a person feels when experiencing a potential threat to their safety or well-being. In the Bible, however, the term "fear" can also mean an attitude of worship, respect, awe, or obedience toward another person, usually someone powerful such as God or a king.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term "fear" can be translated in various ways. Some possibilities include: "be afraid;" "deeply respect," or "deep respect;" "revere," or "reverence;" or perhaps "be in awe of."
- The phrase "fear not" could also be translated as "do not be afraid" or "stop being afraid."
- The sentence "The fear of God fell on all of them" might be translated in various ways. Some possibilities include: "Suddenly they all felt a deep awe and respect for God;" or "Immediately, they all felt very amazed and revered God deeply;" or "Right then, they all felt very afraid of God (because of his great power)."

feast, feasting

Definition:

The term “feast” is a very general term that refers to an event where people gather to celebrate something by eating a large meal together. In biblical times, a feast sometimes lasted for several days or more.

- Often there are special kinds of food that are eaten at a certain feast.
- The religious festivals that God commanded the Jews to celebrate usually included having a feast together. For this reason the festivals are often called “feasts.”
- In biblical times, kings and other rich and powerful people often gave feasts to entertain their family or friends.
- In the story about the lost son, the father had a special feast prepared to celebrate the return of his son.
- The term to “feast” could also be translated as to “eat lavishly” or to “celebrate by eating lots of food” or to “eat a special, large meal.”
- Depending on the context, “feast” could be translated as “celebrating together with a large meal” or “a meal with a lot of food” or “a celebration meal.”

Definition:

Fire is the heat, light, and flames that are produced when something is burned.

- Burning wood by fire turns the wood into ashes.
- Fire could also refer to lightning in the context of a storm or it being from heaven.
- The term “fire” is also used figuratively, usually referring to judgment or purification.
- The final judgment of unbelievers is in the fire of hell.
- Fire is used to refine gold and other metals. In the Bible, this process is used to explain how God refines people through difficult things that happen in their lives.
- The phrase “baptize with fire” could also be translated as “cause to experience suffering in order to be purified.”

firstborn

Definition:

The term “firstborn” refers to an offspring of people or animals that is born first, before the other offspring are born.

- In the Bible, “firstborn” usually refers to the first male offspring that is born.
- In Bible times, the firstborn son was given a place of prominence and twice as much of his family inheritance as the other sons.
- Often it was the firstborn male of an animal that was sacrificed to God.
- This concept can also be used figuratively. For example, the nation of Israel is called God’s firstborn son because God gave it special privileges over other nations.
- Jesus, the Son of God is called God’s firstborn because of his importance and authority over everyone else.

Translation Suggestions:

- When “first-born” occurs in the text alone, it could also be translated as “firstborn male” or “firstborn son,” since that is what is implied. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- Other ways to translate this term could include “the son who was born first” or “the eldest son” or “the number one son.”
- When used figuratively to refer to Jesus, this could be translated with a word or phrase that means “the son who has authority over everything” or “the Son who is first in honor.”
- Caution: Make sure the translation of this term in reference to Jesus does not imply that he was created.

firstfruits

Definition:

The term “firstfruits” refers to a portion of the first crop of fruits and vegetables that was reaped during each harvest season.

- The Israelites offered these first fruits to God as a sacrificial offering.
- This term is also used figuratively in the Bible to refer to a firstborn son as being the first fruits of the family. That is, because he was the first son to be born into that family, he was the one who carried on the family name and honor.
- Because Jesus rose from the dead, he is called the “firstfruits” of all believers in him, believers who have died but who will some day come back to life.
- Believers in Jesus are also called the “firstfruits” of all creation, indicating the special privilege and position of those whom Jesus redeemed and called to be his people.

Translation Suggestions:

- The literal use of this term could be translated as “first portion (of crops)” or “first part of the harvest.”
- If possible, the figurative uses should be translated literally, to allow for different meanings in different contexts. This will also show the correlation between the literal meaning and the figurative uses.

flesh

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “flesh” literally refers to the soft tissue of the physical body of a human being or animal.

- The Bible also uses the term “flesh” in a figurative way to refer to all human beings or all living creatures.
- In the New Testament, the term “flesh” is used to refer to the sinful nature of human beings. This is often used in contrast to their spiritual nature.
- The expression “own flesh and blood” refers to someone who is biologically related to another person, such as a parent, sibling, child, or grandchild.
- The expression “flesh and blood” can also refer to a person’s ancestors or descendants.
- The expression “one flesh” refers to the physical uniting of a man and woman in marriage.

Translation Suggestions:

- In the context of an animal’s body, “flesh” could be translated as “body” or “skin” or “meat.”
- When it is used to refer generally to all living creatures, this term could be translated as “living beings” or “everything that is alive.”
- When referring in general to all people, this term could be translated as “people” or “human beings” or “everyone who lives.”
- The expression “flesh and blood” could also be translated as “relatives” or “family” or “kinfolk” or “family clan.” There may be contexts where it could be translated as “ancestors” or “descendants.”
- Some languages may have an expression that is similar in meaning to “flesh and blood.”
- The expression “become one flesh” could be translated as “unite sexually” or “become as one body” or “become like one person in body and spirit.” The translation of this expression should be checked to make sure it is acceptable in the project language and culture. (See: euphemism). It should also be understood that this is figurative, and does not mean that a man and a woman who “become one flesh” literally become one person.

flock, herd

Definition:

In the Bible, “flock” refers to a group of sheep or goats and “herd” refers to a group of cattle or pigs.

- Different languages may have different ways of naming groups of animals or birds.

Translation Suggestions

- Consider what terms are used in your language to refer to different groups of animals, and use the appropriate term for each kind of animal.
- If your language uses the same word to refer to both groups of sheep and cattle, then you may need to say “groups of sheep” where the Bible says only “flocks,” and “groups of cattle” where the Bible says only “herds.” Alternatively, if the Biblical context does not demand differentiation (if the text simply says “flocks and herds,” meaning all their domesticated animals) you may just use the one word once.

forsake, forsaken, leave

Definition:

The term “forsake” means to abandon someone or to give up something. Someone who has been “forsaken” has been deserted or abandoned by someone else.

- When people “forsake” God, they are being unfaithful to him by disobeying him.
- When God “forsakes” people, he has stopped helping them and allowed them to experience suffering in order to cause them to turn back to him.
- This term can also mean to forsake things, such as forsaking, or not following, God’s teachings.
- The term “forsaken” can be used in the past tense, as in “he has forsaken you” or as in referring to someone who has “been forsaken.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate this term could include “abandon” or “neglect” or “give up” or “go away from” or “leave behind,” depending on the context.
- To “forsake” God’s law could be translated “disobey God’s law.” This could also be translated as “abandon” or “give up on” or “stop obeying” his teachings or his laws.
- The phrase “be forsaken” can be translated as “be abandoned” or “be deserted.”
- It more clearer to use different words to translate this term, depending on whether the text describes forsaking a thing or a person.

found, founder, foundation

Definition:

The verb “found” means build, create, or lay a base for. The phrase “founded on” means supported by or based on. A “foundation” is the base of support on which something is built or created.

- The foundation of a house or building must be strong and dependable in order to support the entire structure.
- The term “foundation” can also refer to the beginning of something or to the time when something was first created.
- In a figurative sense, believers in Christ are compared to a building that is founded on the teachings of the apostles and prophets, with Christ himself being the cornerstone of the building.
- A “foundation stone” was a stone that was laid as part of the foundation. These stones were tested to make sure they were strong enough to support an entire building.

Translation Suggestions:

- The phrase “before the foundation of the world” could be translated as “before the creation of the world” or “before the time when the world first existed” or “before everything was first created.”
- The term “founded on” could be translated as “securely built on” or “firmly based on.”
- Depending on the context, “foundation” could be translated as “strong base” or “solid support” or “beginning” or “creation.”

gate, gate bars, gatekeeper, gateposts, gateway

Definition:

The term "gate" refers to an access point in a fence, wall, or other kind of barrier that surrounds a house, property, city, etc.

- A city gate could be opened to allow people, animals, and cargo to travel in and out of the city.
- To protect the city, its walls and gates were thick and strong. Gates were closed and locked with a metal or wooden bar to prevent enemy soldiers from entering the city.
- A "bar" for a gate refers to a wood or metal bar that can be moved into place so that the doors of the gate cannot be opened from the outside.
- In Bible times, a city gate was often the social center for that town or city. It was a place where news of current events was exchanged between people, where business transactions occurred, and where civil judgments were made.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate "gate" could be "door" or "wall opening" or "barrier" or "entranceway."
- The phrase "bars of the gate" could be translated as "gate bolts" or "wooden beams to lock the gate" or "metal locking rods of the gate."

generation

Definition:

The term “generation” generally refers to a group of people who are all alive at the same time. They are all born in the same general time period and are therefore about the same age.

- A generation can also refer to a span of time. In Bible times, a generation was usually considered to be about 40 years.
- Parents and their children are from two different generations.
- In the Bible, the term “generation” is also used figuratively to refer generally to people who share common characteristics.

Translation Suggestions

- The phrase “this generation” or “people of this generation” could be translated as “the people living now” or “you people.”
- “This wicked generation” could also be translated as “these wicked people living now.”
- The expression “from generation to generation” or “from one generation to the next” could be translated as “people living now, as well as their children and grandchildren” or “people in every time period” or “people in this time period and future time periods” or “all people and their descendants.”
- “A generation to come will serve him; they will tell the next generation about Yahweh” could also be translated as “Many people in the future will serve Yahweh and will tell their children and grandchildren about him.”

glory, glorious, glorify

Definition:

The term “glory” is a general term for a family of concepts including value, worth, importance, honor, splendor, or majesty. The term “glorify” means to ascribe glory to someone or something, or to show or tell how glorious something or someone is.

- In the Bible, the term “glory” is especially used to describe God, who is more valuable, more worthy, more important, more honorable, more splendid, and more majestic than anyone or anything in the universe. Everything about his character reveals his glory.
- People can glorify God by telling about the wonderful things he has done. They can also glorify God by living in accordance with God’s character, because doing so shows to others his value, worth, importance, honor, splendor, and majesty.
- The expression to “glory in” means to boast about or take pride in something.

Old Testament

- The specific phrase “the glory of Yahweh” in the Old Testament usually refers to some perceptible manifestation of Yahweh’s presence in a particular location.

New Testament

- God the Father will glorify God the Son by revealing to all people the full extent of how glorious Jesus is.
- Everyone who believes in Christ will be glorified with him. This use of the term “glorify” carries a unique meaning. It means that when people who believe in Christ are raised to life, they will be changed physically to be like Jesus as he appeared after his resurrection.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, different ways to translate “glory” could include “splendor” or “majesty” or “awesome greatness” or “extreme value.”
- The term “glorious” could be translated as “full of glory” or “extremely valuable” or “brightly shining” or “awesomely majestic.”
- The expression “give glory to God” could be translated as “honor God’s greatness” or “praise God because of his splendor” or “tell others how great God is.”
- The expression “glory in” could also be translated as “praise” or “take pride in” or “boast about” or “take pleasure in.”
- “Glorify” could also be translated as “give glory to” or “bring glory to” or “cause to appear great.”
- The phrase “glorify God” could also be translated as “praise God” or “talk about God’s greatness” or “show how great God is” or “honor God (by obeying him).”
- The term “be glorified” could also be translated as “be shown to be very great” or “be praised” or “be exalted.”

God

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “God” refers to the eternal being who created the universe out of nothing. God exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God’s personal name is “Yahweh.”

- God has always existed; he existed before anything else existed, and he will continue to exist forever.
- He is the only true God and has authority over everything in the universe.
- God is perfectly righteous, infinitely wise, holy, sinless, just, merciful, and loving.
- He is a covenant-keeping God, who always fulfills his promises.
- People were created to worship God and he is the only one they should worship.
- God revealed his name as “Yahweh,” which means “he is” or “I am” or “the One who (always) exists.”
- The Bible also teaches about false “gods,” which are nonliving idols that people wrongly worship.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “God” could include “Deity” or “Creator” or “Supreme Being” or “Supreme Creator” or “Infinite Sovereign Lord” or “Eternal Supreme Being.”
- Consider how God is referred to in a local or national language. There may also already be a word for “God” in the language being translated. If so, it is important to make sure that this word fits the characteristics of the one true God as described above.
- Many languages capitalize the first letter of the word for the one true God, to distinguish it from the word for a false god. Another way to make this distinction would be to use different terms for “God” and “god.”
NOTE: In the biblical text, when a person who does not worship Yahweh speaks about Yahweh and uses the word “god,” it is acceptable to render the term without a capital letter in reference to Yahweh (see Jonah 1:6, 3:9).
- The phrase “I will be their God and they will be my people” could also be translated as “I, God, will rule over these people and they will worship me.”

godly, godliness, ungodly, godless, ungodliness, godlessness

Definition:

The term “godly” is used to describe a person who acts in a way that honors God and shows what God is like. “Godliness” is the character quality of honoring God by doing his will.

- A person who has godly character will show the fruits of the Holy Spirit, such as love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, and self control.
- The quality of godliness shows that a person has the Holy Spirit and is obeying him.

The terms “ungodly” and “godless” describe people who are in rebellion against God. Living in an evil way, without thought of God, is called “ungodliness” or “godlessness.”

- The meanings of these words are very similar. However, “godless” and “godlessness” may describe a more extreme condition in which people or nations do not even acknowledge God or his right to rule them.
- God pronounces judgment and wrath on ungodly people, on everyone who rejects him and his ways.

Translation Suggestions:

- The phrase “the godly” could be translated as “godly people” or “people who obey God.” (See: nominaladj)
- The adjective “godly” could be translated as “obedient to God” or “righteous” or “pleasing to God.”
- The phrase “in a godly manner” could be translated as “in a way that obeys God” or “with actions and words that please God.”
- Ways to translate “godliness” could include “acting in a way that pleases God” or “obeying God” or “living in a righteous manner.”
- Depending on the context, the term “ungodly” could be translated as “displeasing to God” or “immoral” or “disobeying God.”
- The terms “godless” and “godlessness” literally mean that the people are “without God” or “having no thought of God” or “acting in a way that does not acknowledge God.”
- Other ways to translate “ungodliness” or “godlessness” could be “wickedness” or “evil” or “rebellion against God”.

gold, golden

Definition:

Gold is a yellow, high quality metal that was used for making jewelry and religious objects. It was the most valuable metal in ancient times.

- In Bible times, many different kinds of objects were made out of solid gold or were covered with a thin layer of gold.
- These objects included earrings and other jewelry, and idols, altars, and other objects used in the tabernacle or temple, such as the ark of the covenant.
- In Old Testament times, gold was used as a means of exchange in buying and selling. It was weighed on a scale to determine its value.
- Later on, gold and other metals such as silver were used to make coins to use in buying and selling
- When referring to something that is not solid gold, but only has a thin covering of gold, the term “golden” or “gold-covered” or “gold-overlaid” could also be used.
- Sometimes an object is described as “gold-colored,” which means it has the yellow color of gold, but may not actually be made of gold.

grave, gravediggers, tomb, burial place

Definition:

The terms “tomb” and “grave” refer to a place where people put the body of a person who has died. A “burial place” is a more general term that also refers to this.

- The Jews sometimes used natural caves as tombs, and sometimes they dug caves into rock in the side of a hill.
- In New Testament times, it was common to roll a large, heavy stone in front of the opening of a tomb in order to close it.
- If the target language the word for a tomb can only refer to a hole in which the body is placed below the ground, other ways to translate this could include “cave” or “hole in the side of a hill.”
- The phrase “the grave” is often used generally and figuratively to refer to the condition of being dead or a place where the souls of dead people are.

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 32:4 The man lived among the tombs in the area.
- 37:6 Jesus asked them, “Where have you put Lazarus?” They told him, “In the tomb. Come and see.”
- 37:7 The tomb was a cave with a stone rolled in front of its opening.
- 40:9 Then Joseph and Nicodemus, two Jewish leaders who believed Jesus was the Messiah, asked Pilate for Jesus’ body. They wrapped his body in cloth and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock. Then they rolled a large stone in front the tomb to block the opening.
- 41:4 He (the angel) rolled away the stone that was covering the entrance to the tomb and sat on it. The soldiers guarding the tomb were terrified and fell to the ground like dead men.
- 41:5 When the women arrived at the tomb, the angel told them, “Do not be afraid. Jesus is not here. He has risen from the dead, just like he said he would! Look in the tomb and see.” The women looked into the tomb and saw where Jesus’ body had been laid. His body was not there!

guilt, guilty

Definition:

The term "guilt" refers to the fact of having sinned or committed a crime.

- To "be guilty" means to have done something morally wrong, that is, to have disobeyed God.
- The opposite of "guilty" is "innocent."

Translation Suggestions:

- Some languages might translate "guilt" as "the weight of sin" or "the counting of sins."
- Ways to translate to "be guilty" could include a word or phrase that means, to "be at fault" or "having done something morally wrong" or "having committed a sin."

hand

Definition:

The word “hand” refers to the part of the body at the end of the arm. This term is often used figuratively to refer to a person’s power, control, or action, whether it be in reference to God or in reference to a human person.

Some of the various uses of the term “hand” include the following:

- The term “hand” can be used figuratively to refer to the position of being “beside” a person, an object, or a location.
- To “lay a hand on” means to “harm.” To “save from the hand of” means to prevent someone from being harmed by another person.
- The position of being “on the right hand” means “on the right side” or “to the right.”
- The expression “by the hand of” someone means “by” or “through” the action of that person. For example, the phrase “by the hand of the Lord” means that God caused something to happen.
- Expressions such as “hand over to” or “deliver into the hands of” refer to causing someone to be under the control or power of someone else.
- The term “laying on of hands” can refer to placing a hand on a person in order to dedicate that person to God’s service, to pray for healing, or to ask God to bless that person.
- When Paul says “written by my hand,” it means that he himself wrote that part of the letter rather than speaking it to someone else to write down.

Translation Suggestions

- These expressions and other figures of speech could be translated using other figurative expressions that have the same meaning. Or the meaning could be translated using direct, literal language (see examples above).
- The expression “handed him the scroll” could also be translated as “gave him the scroll” or “put the scroll in his hand.” It was not given to him permanently, but just for the purpose of using it at that time.
- An expression such as “delivered them into the hands of their enemies” or “handed them over to their enemies,” could be translated as “allowed their enemies to conquer them” or “caused them to be captured by their enemies” or “empowered their enemies to gain control over them.”
- To “die by the hand of” could be translated as “be killed by.”
- The expression “on the right hand of” could be translated as “on the right side of.”
- In regard to Jesus being “seated at the right hand of God,” if this does not communicate in the language that it refers to a position of high honor and equal authority, a different expression with that meaning could be used. Or a short explanation could be added: “on the right side of God, in the position of highest authority.”

hang, hung

Definition:

The term “hang” means to suspend something or someone above the ground.

- In modern times, death by hanging is usually done by tying a rope around a person’s neck and suspending him from an elevated object until he dies. This elevated object can be any number of things, such as a tree or a gallows, that is, a platform built specifically for the purpose of hanging a person in order to kill him.
- In biblical times, however, ancient cultures may not have killed people by hanging in precisely the same way. For example, Jesus died while hanging on a wooden cross (sometimes called a “tree”), but there was nothing around his neck. The soldiers suspended him by nailing his hands (or wrists) and his feet to the cross.
- Some ancient cultures “hung” a person by impaling him on a wooden pole in such a way that he was suspended above the ground so that he could not escape. The person would be left there until he died.
- For many references to death by “hanging” in the Bible, the specific means of death is unknown.

harvest, reap

Definition:

The term "harvest" refers to the gather the ripe fruits, vegetables, seeds, or grains from the plants on which they were growing. The term "reap" means to harvest crops.

- The harvest time normally happens at the end of a growing season.
- The Israelites held a "Festival of Harvest" or "Festival of Ingathering" to celebrate the reaping of the food crops. God commanded them to offer the first fruits of these crops as a sacrifice to him.
- In biblical times, reapers usually harvested crops by hand, either pulling up the plants or cutting them with a sharp cutting tool.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate the concept with the word that is commonly used in the language to refer to the harvesting of crops.
- The event of harvesting could be translated as "time of gathering in" or "crop gathering time" or "fruit picking time."
- The verb to "harvest" could be translated as to "gather in" or to "pick up" or to "collect."

head

Definition:

The word “head” refers to the uppermost body part of a human body, above the neck. This term is often used figuratively to mean many different things, including “top,” “first,” “beginning,” “source,” and other concepts.

Some examples of various uses of the term “head” include:

- The expression “no razor will ever touch his head” means that he should never cut or shave his hair.
- The expression “let their blood be on his own head” means that the man is responsible for their deaths and will receive the punishment for that.
- The expression “heads of grain” refers to the top part of wheat or barley plants that contains the seeds. Similarly, the expression “head of a mountain” refers to the top part of the mountain.
- The term “head” can also refer to the beginning or source of something, or the first in a series of things (can be objects or people).
- Often the term “head” refers to the most important person in a group or to a person who is in authority over others. For example, the phrase “You have made me the head over nations” means “You have made me the ruler...” or “You have given me authority over....”

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, the term “head” could be translated as “authority” or “ruler” or “the one who is responsible for.”
- The expression “will be on his own head” could be translated as “will be on him” or “he will be punished for” or “he will be held responsible for” or “he will be considered guilty for.”
- Depending on the context, some other ways to translate this term might include “top” or “beginning” or “source” or “leader.”

heart

Definition:

The term “heart” refers to the internal bodily organ that pumps blood throughout the body in people and animals. However, in the Bible the term “heart” is often used figuratively to refer to a person’s thoughts, emotions, desires, or will.

- To have a “hard heart” is a common expression that means a person stubbornly refuses to obey God.
- The expressions “with all my heart” or “with my whole heart” mean to do something with complete sincerity, commitment, or willingness, holding nothing back.
- The expression “take it to heart” means to treat something seriously and apply it to one’s life.
- The term “brokenhearted” describes a person who is very sad. That person has been deeply hurt emotionally.

Translation Suggestions

- Some languages use a different body part such as “stomach” or “liver” to refer to these ideas.
- Other languages may use one word to express some of these concepts and another word to express others.
- If “heart” or other body part does not have this meaning, some languages may need to express this literally with terms such as “thoughts” or “emotions” or “desires.”
- Depending on the context, “with all my heart” or “with my whole heart” could be translated as “with all my energy” or “with complete dedication” or “completely” or “with total commitment.”
- The expression “take it to heart” could be translated as “treat it seriously” or “carefully think about it.”
- The expression “hard-hearted” could also be translated as “stubbornly rebellious” or “refusing to obey” or “continually disobeying God.”
- Ways to translate “brokenhearted” could include “very sad” or “feeling deeply hurt.”

heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly

Definition:

The term that is translated as “heaven” usually refers to where God lives. The same word can also mean “sky,” depending on the context.

- The term “heavens” refers to everything we see above the earth, including the sun, moon, and stars. It also includes the heavenly bodies, such as far-off planets, that we can’t directly see from the earth.
- The term “sky” refers to the blue expanse above the earth that has clouds and the air we breathe. Often the sun and moon are also said to be “up in the sky.”
- In some contexts in the Bible, the word “heaven” could refer to either the sky or the place where God lives.

Translation Suggestions:

- For “kingdom of heaven” in the book of Matthew, it is best to keep the word “heaven” since this is distinctive to Matthew’s gospel.
- The terms “heavens” or “heavenly bodies” could also be translated as “sun, moon, and stars” or “all the stars in the universe.”
- The phrase, “stars of heaven” could be translated as “stars in the sky” or “stars in the galaxy” or “stars in the universe.”

holy, holiness, unholy, sacred

Definition:

The terms "holy" and "holiness" refer to the character of God that is totally set apart and separated from everything that is sinful and imperfect.

- Only God is absolutely holy. He makes people and things holy.
- A person who is holy belongs to God and has been set apart for the purpose of serving God and bringing him glory.
- An object that God has declared to be holy is one that he has set apart for his glory and use, such as an altar that is for the purpose of offering sacrifices to him.
- People cannot approach him unless he allows them to, because he is holy and they are merely human beings, sinful and imperfect.
- In the Old Testament, God set apart the priests as holy for special service to him. They had to be ceremonially cleansed from sin in order to approach God.
- God also set apart as holy certain places and things that belonged to him or in which he revealed himself, such as his temple.

Literally, the term "unholy" means "not holy." It describes someone or something that does not honor God.

- This word is used to describe someone who dishonors God by rebelling against him.
- A thing that is called "unholy" could be described as being common, profane or unclean. It does not belong to God.

The term "sacred" describes something that relates to worshiping God or to the pagan worship of false gods.

- In the Old Testament, the term "sacred" was oftentimes used to describe the stone pillars and other objects used in the worship of false gods. This could also be translated as "religious."
- "Sacred songs" and "sacred music" refer to music that was sung or played for God's glory. This could be translated as "music for worshiping Yahweh" or "songs that praise God."
- The phrase "sacred duties" referred to the "religious duties" or "rituals" that a priest performed to lead people in worshiping God. It could also refer to the rituals performed by a pagan priest to worship a false god.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate "holy" might include "set apart for God" or "belonging to God" or "completely pure" or "perfectly sinless" or "separated from sin."
- To "make holy" is often translated as "sanctify" in English. It could also be translated as "set apart (someone) for God's glory."
- Ways to translate "unholy" could include "not holy" or "not belonging to God" or "not honoring to God" or "not godly."
- In some contexts, "unholy" could be translated as "unclean."

hope, hoped

Definition:

Hope is strongly desiring something to happen. Hope can imply either certainty or uncertainty regarding a future event.

- In the Bible, the term “hope” also has the meaning of “trust,” as in “my hope is in the Lord.” It refers to a sure expectation of receiving what God has promised his people.
- Sometimes the ULT translates the term in the original language as “confidence.” This happens mostly in the New Testament in situations where people who believe in Jesus as their Savior have the assurance (or confidence or hope) of receiving what God has promised.
- To have “no hope” means to have no expectation of something good happening. It means that it is actually very certain that it will not happen.

Translation Suggestions:

- In some contexts, the term to “hope” could also be translated as to “wish” or to “desire” or to “expect.”
- The expression “nothing to hope for” could be translated as “nothing to trust in” or “no expectation of anything good”
- To “have no hope” could be translated as “have no expectation of anything good” or “have no security” or “be sure that nothing good will happen.”
- The expression “have set your hopes on” could also be translated as “have put your confidence in” or “have been trusting in.”
- The phrase “I find hope in your Word” could also be translated as “I am confident that your Word is true” or “Your Word helps me trust in you” or “When I obey your Word, I am certain to be blessed.”
- Phrases such as “hope in” God could also be translated as, “trust in God” or “know for sure that God will do what he has promised” or “be certain that God is faithful.”

house, household

Definition:

The term “house” refers to a small building, shelter, or tent, usually the place where a family sleeps. The term is often used figuratively in the Bible to mean various concepts such as “household” or “descendants,” etc.

- Sometimes the term “house” means “household,” referring to all the people who live together in one house or multi-structure home compound (whether buildings or tents), including family members and all their servants.
- Sometimes the term “house” means “family” or “descendants,” referring to all the people related to or descended from a particular person. For example, the phrase “house of David” refers to all the descendants of King David.
- The terms “house of God” and “house of Yahweh” refer to the tabernacle or temple. These expressions can also refer generally to a central place where Yahweh was worshipped.
- The phrase “house of Israel” can refer generally to the entire nation of Israel or more specifically to the tribes of the northern kingdom of Israel.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, “house” could be translated as “household” or “people” or “family” or “descendants” or “temple” or “dwelling place.”
- The phrase “house of David” could be translated as “clan of David” or “family of David” or “descendants of David.” Related expressions could be translated in a similar way.
- Different ways to translate “house of Israel” could include “people of Israel” or “Israel’s descendants” or “Israelites.”

Job

Facts:

Job was a man who is described in the Bible as blameless and righteous before God. He is best known for persevering in his faith in God through times of terrible suffering.

- Job lived in the land of Uz, which was located somewhere east of the land of Canaan, possibly near the region of the Edomites.
- It is thought that he lived during the time of Esau and Jacob because one of Job's friends was a "Temanite," which was a people group named after Esau's grandson.
- The Old Testament book of Job tells about how Job and others responded to his suffering. It also gives God's viewpoint as the sovereign creator and ruler of the universe.
- After all the disasters, God eventually healed Job and gave him more children and wealth.
- The book of Job says that he was very old when he died.

Jordan River, Jordan

Facts:

The Jordan River is a river that flows from north to south, and forms the eastern boundary of the land that was called Canaan.

- Today, the Jordan River separates Israel on its west from Jordan on its east.
- The Jordan River flows through the Sea of Galilee and then empties into the Dead Sea.
- When Joshua led the Israelites into Canaan, they had to cross the Jordan River. It was too deep to cross normally, but God miraculously stopped the river from flowing so they could walk across the river bed.
- Often in the Bible the Jordan River is referred to as "the Jordan."

just, justice, unjust, injustice, justify, justification

Definition:

“Just” and “justice” refer to treating people fairly according to God’s laws. Human laws that reflect God’s standard of right behavior toward others are also just.

- To be “just” is to act in a fair and right way toward others. It also implies honesty and integrity to do what is morally right in God’s eyes.
- To act “justly” means to treat people in a way that is right, good, and proper according to God’s laws.
- To receive “justice” means to be treated fairly under the law, either being protected by the law or being punished for breaking the law.
- Sometimes the term “just” has the broader meaning of “righteous” or “following God’s laws.”

The terms “unjust” and “unjustly” refer to treating people in an unfair and often harmful manner.

- An “injustice” is something bad that is done to someone that the person did not deserve. It refers to treating people unfairly.
- Injustice also means that some people are treated badly while others are treated well.
- Someone who is acting in an unjust way is being “partial” or “prejudiced” because he is not treating people equally.

The terms “justify” and “justification” refer to causing a guilty person to be righteous. Only God can truly justify people.

- When God justifies people, he forgives their sins and makes it as though they have no sin. He justifies sinners who repent and trust in Jesus to save them from their sins.
- “Justification” refers to what God does when he forgives a person’s sins and declares that person to be righteous in his sight.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate “just” could include “morally right” or “fair.”
- The term “justice” could be translated as “fair treatment” or “deserved consequences.”
- To “act justly” could be translated as “treat fairly” or “behave in a just way.”
- In some contexts, “just” could be translated as “righteous” or “upright.”
- Depending on the context, “unjust” could also be translated as “unfair” or “partial” or “unrighteous.”

king, kingship

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “king” refers to a man who is the supreme ruler of a particular group of people or a particular region of land (or both).

- In biblical times, a king was usually chosen to rule on the basis of family relation to the previous king(s). When a king died, usually his oldest son became the next king.
- The Bible often refers to God as a king who rules over the entire universe (in a general sense) and over his people (in a specific sense).
- The New Testament refers to Jesus as a king in various ways, including: “king of the Jews;” “king of Israel;” and “king of kings.”
- Depending on the context, the term “king” might also be translated as “supreme chief” or “sovereign ruler.”
- The phrase “king of kings” might be translated as “king who rules over all other kings” or “supreme ruler who has authority over all other rulers.”

- To know God’s will means to be aware of what he has commanded, or to understand what he wants a person to do.
- To “know the Law” means to be aware of what God has commanded or to understand what God has instructed in the laws he gave to Moses.
- Sometimes “knowledge” is used as a synonym for “wisdom,” which includes living in a way that is pleasing to God.
- The “knowledge of God” is sometimes used as a synonym for the “fear of Yahweh.”
- When used of a man and a woman to “know” is often an euphemism that refers to having sexual intercourse.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, ways to translate “know” could include “understand” or “be familiar with” or “be aware of” or “be acquainted with” or “be in relationship with.”
- In the context of understanding the difference between two things, the term is usually translated as “distinguish.” When used in this way, the term is often followed by the preposition “between.”
- Some languages have two different words for “know,” one for knowing facts and one for knowing a person and having a relationship with him.
- The term “make known” could be translated as “cause people to know” or “reveal” or “tell about” or “explain.”
- To “know about” something could be translated as “be aware of” or “be familiar with.”
- The expression “know how to” means to understand the process or method of getting something done. It could also be translated as “be able to” or “have the skill to.”
- The term “knowledge” could also be translated as “what is known” or “wisdom” or “understanding,” depending on the context.

lamb, Lamb of God

Definition:

The term “lamb” refers to a young sheep. Sheep are four-legged animals with thick, woolly hair, used for sacrifices to God. Jesus is called the “Lamb of God” because he was sacrificed to pay for people’s sins.

- These animals are easily led astray and need protecting. God compares human beings to sheep.
- God instructed his people to sacrifice physically perfect sheep and lambs to him.
- Jesus is called the “Lamb of God” who was sacrificed to pay for people’s sins. He was a perfect, unblemished sacrifice because he was completely without sin.

Translation Suggestions:

- If sheep are known in the language area, the name for their young should be used to translate the terms “lamb” and “Lamb of God.”
- “Lamb of God” could be translated as “God’s (sacrificial) Lamb,” or “Lamb sacrificed to God” or “(sacrificial) Lamb from God.”
- If sheep are not known, this term could be translated as “a young sheep” with a footnote that describes what sheep are like. The note could also compare sheep and lambs to an animal from that area that lives in herds, that is timid and defenseless, and that often wanders away.
- Also consider how this term is translated in a Bible translation of a nearby local or national language.

law, law of Moses, law of Yahweh, law of God

Definition:

Most simply, the term “law” refers to a rule or instruction that should be followed. In the Bible, the term “law” is often used generally to refer to anything and everything God wants his people to obey and do. The specific term “law of Moses” refers to the commandments and instructions that God gave Moses for the Israelites to obey.

- Depending on the context, the “law” can refer to:
 - the Ten Commandments that God wrote on stone tablets for the Israelites
 - all the laws given to Moses
 - the first five books of the Old Testament
 - the entire Old Testament (also referred to as “scriptures” in the New Testament).
 - all of God’s instructions and will
- The phrase “the Law and the Prophets” is used in the New Testament to refer to the Hebrew scriptures (or “Old Testament”)

Translation Suggestions:

- These terms could be translated using the plural, “laws,” since they refer to many instructions.
- The term “law of Moses” could be translated as “the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites.”
- Depending on the context, “the law of Moses” could also be translated as “the law that God told to Moses” or “God’s laws that Moses wrote down” or “the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites.”
- Ways to translate “the law” or “law of God” or “God’s laws” could include “laws from God” or “God’s commands” or “laws that God gave” or “everything that God commands” or “all of God’s instructions.”
- The phrase “law of Yahweh” could also be translated as “Yahweh’s laws” or “laws that Yahweh said to obey” or “laws from Yahweh” or “things Yahweh commanded.”

Leviathan

Facts:

The term “Leviathan” refers to a very large, extinct animal mentioned in the earliest writings of the Old Testament, the books of Job, Psalms, and Isaiah.

- Leviathan is described as a large, snake-like creature, strong and fierce and able to make the water around it “boil.” The descriptions of it were similar to that of a dinosaur.
- Isaiah the prophet referred to Leviathan as “the gliding serpent”.
- Job wrote from firsthand knowledge of Leviathan, so the animal was most likely alive during his lifetime.

life, live, living, alive

Definition:

The term “life” refers to being physically alive as opposed to being physically dead.

1. Physical life

- A “life” can also refer to an individual person as in “a life was saved”.
- Sometimes the word “life” refers to the experience of living as in, “his life was enjoyable.”
- It can also refer to a person’s lifespan, as in the expression, “the end of his life.”
- The term “living” may refer to being physically alive, as in “my mother is still living.” It may also refer to dwelling somewhere as in, “they were living in the city.”
- In the Bible, the concept of “life” is often contrasted with the concept of “death.”

2. Eternal life

- A person has eternal life when he believes in Jesus. God gives that person a transformed life with the Holy Spirit living in him.
- The opposite of eternal life is eternal death, which means being separated from God and experiencing eternal punishment.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “life” can be translated as “existence” or “person” or “soul” or “being” or “experience.”
- The term “live” could be translated by “dwell” or “reside” or “exist.”
- The expression “end of his life” could be translated as “when he stopped living.”
- The expression “spared their lives” could be translated as “allowed them to live” or “did not kill them.”
- The expression “they risked their lives” could be translated as “they put themselves in danger” or “they did something that could have killed them.”
- When the Bible text talks about eternal life, the term “life” could be translated in the following ways: “eternal life” or “God making us alive in our spirits” or “new life by God’s Spirit” or “being made alive in our inner self.”
- Depending on the context, the expression “give life” could also be translated as “cause to live” or “give eternal life” or “cause to live eternally.”

light, luminary, shine, brighten, enlighten

Definition:

The term “light” is used figuratively in various ways in the Bible. Light is often used as a metaphor for wisdom, life, righteousness, truth, or happiness.

- Jesus said, “I am the light of the world” to express that he brings God’s true message to the world and rescues people from the darkness of their sin.
- Christians are commanded to “walk in the light,” which means they should be living the way God wants them to and avoiding evil.
- The apostle John stated that “God is light” and in him there is no darkness at all.
- Jesus said that he was “the light of the world” and that his followers should shine like lights in the world by living in a way that clearly shows how great God is.
- “Walking in the light” represents living in a way that pleases God, doing what is good and right. Walking in darkness represents living in rebellion against God, doing evil things.

Translation Suggestions:

- When translating, it is important to keep the literal terms “light” and “darkness” even when they are used figuratively.
- It may be necessary to explain the comparison in the text. For example, “walk as children of light” could be translated as “live openly righteous lives, like someone who walks in bright sunlight.”
- Make sure that the translation of “light” does not refer to an object that gives light, such as a lamp. The translation of this term should refer to the light itself.

lord, Lord, master, sir

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “lord” generally refers to someone who has ownership or authority over other people. In the Bible, however, the term is used to address many different kinds of people, including God.

- This word is sometimes translated as “master” when addressing Jesus or when referring to someone who owns slaves.
- Some English versions translate this as “sir” in contexts where someone is politely addressing someone of higher status.

When “Lord” is capitalized, it is a title that refers to God. (Note, however, that when it is used as a form of addressing someone or it occurs at the beginning of a sentence it may be capitalized and have the meaning of “sir” or “master.”)

- In the Old Testament, this term is also used in expressions such as “Lord God Almighty” or “Lord Yahweh” or “Yahweh our Lord.”
- In the New Testament, the apostles used this term in expressions such as “Lord Jesus” and “Lord Jesus Christ,” which communicate that Jesus is God.
- The term “Lord” in the New Testament is also used alone as a direct reference to God, especially in quotations from the Old Testament. For example, the Old Testament text has “Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh” and the New Testament text has “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.”
- In the ULT and UST, the title “Lord” is only used to translate the actual Hebrew and Greek words that mean “Lord.” It is never used as a translation of God’s name (Yahweh), as is done in many translations.
- Some languages translate “Lord” as “Master” or “Ruler” or some other term that communicates ownership or supreme rule.
- In the appropriate contexts, many translations capitalize the first letter of this term to make it clear to the reader that this is a title referring to God.
- For places in the New Testament where there is a quote from the Old Testament, the term “Lord God” could be used to make it clear that this is a reference to God.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term can be translated with the equivalent of “master” when it refers to a person who owns slaves. It can also be used by a servant to address the person he works for.
- When it refers to Jesus, if the context shows that the speaker sees him as a religious teacher, it can be translated with a respectful address for a religious teacher, such as “master.”
- If the person addressing Jesus does not know him, “lord” could be translated with a respectful form of address such as “sir.” This translation would also be used for other contexts in which a polite form of address to a man is called for.
- When referring to God the Father or to Jesus, this term is considered a title, written as “Lord” (capitalized) in English.

love, beloved

Definition:

To love another person is to care for that person and do things that will benefit him. There are different meanings for "love" some languages may express using different words:

The kind of love that comes from God is focused on the good of others even when it doesn't benefit oneself. This kind of love cares for others, no matter what they do. God himself is love and is the source of true love.

- Jesus showed this kind of love by sacrificing his life in order to rescue us from sin and death. He also taught his followers to love others sacrificially.
- When people love others with this kind of love, they act in ways that show they are thinking of what will cause the others to thrive. This kind of love especially includes forgiving others.
- In the ULT, the word "love" refers to this kind of sacrificial love, unless a Translation Note indicates a different meaning.

Another word in the New Testament refers to brotherly love, or love for a friend or family member.

- This term refers to natural human love between friends or relatives.
- The term can also be used in such contexts as, "They love to sit in the most important seats at a banquet." This means that they "like very much" or "greatly desire" to do that.

The word "love" can also refer to romantic love between a man and a woman.

Translation Suggestions:

- Unless indicated otherwise in a Translation Note, the word "love" in the ULT refers to the kind of sacrificial love that comes from God.
- Some languages may have a special word for the kind of unselfish, sacrificial love that God has. Ways to translate this might include, "devoted, faithful caring" or "care for unselfishly" or "love from God." Make sure that the word used to translate God's love can include giving up one's own interests to benefit others and loving others no matter what they do.
- Sometimes the English word "love" describes the deep caring that people have for friends and family members. Some languages might translate this with a word or phrase that means "like very much" or "care for" or "have strong affection for."
- In contexts where the word "love" is used to express a strong preference for something, this could be translated by "strongly prefer" or "like very much" or "greatly desire."
- Some languages may also have a separate word that refers to romantic or sexual love between a husband and wife.
- Many languages must express "love" as an action. So for example, they might translate "love is patient, love is kind" as, "when a person loves someone, he is patient with him and kind to him."

mercy, merciful

Definition:

The terms “mercy” and “merciful” refer to helping people who are in need, especially when they are in a lowly or humbled condition.

- The term “mercy” can also include the meaning of not punishing people for something they have done wrong.
- A powerful person such as a king is described as “merciful” when he treats people kindly instead of harming them.
- Being merciful also means to forgive someone who has done something wrong against us.
- We show mercy when we help people who are in great need.
- God is merciful to us, and he wants us to be merciful to others.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “mercy” could be translated as “kindness” or “compassion” or “pity.”
- The term “merciful” could be translated as “showing pity” or “being kind to” or “forgiving.”
- To “show mercy to” or “have mercy on” could be translated as “treat kindly” or “be compassionate toward.”

messenger

Facts:

The term “messenger” refers to someone who is given a message to tell others.

- In ancient times, a messenger would be sent from the battlefield to tell people back in the city what was happening.
- An angel is a special kind of messenger whom God sends to give people messages. Some translations translate “angel” as “messenger.”
- John the Baptist was called a messenger who came before Jesus to announce the Messiah’s coming and to prepare people to receive him.
- Jesus’ apostles were his messengers to go share with other people the good news about the kingdom of God.

might, mighty, mighty works

Definition:

The terms “mighty” and “might” refer to having great strength or power.

- Often the word “might” is another word for “strength.” When talking about God, it can mean “power.”
- The phrase “mighty men” often refers to men who are courageous and victorious in battle. David’s band of faithful men who helped protect and defend him were often called “mighty men.”
- God is also referred to as the “mighty one.”
- The phrase “mighty works” usually refers to the amazing things God does, especially miracles.
- This term is related to the term “almighty,” which is a common description for God, meaning that he has complete power.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “mighty” could be translated as “powerful” or “amazing” or “very strong.”
- The phrase “his might” could be translated as “his strength” or “his power.”
- In Acts 7, Moses is described as a man who was “mighty in word and deed.” This could be translated as “Moses spoke powerful words from God and did miraculous things” or “Moses spoke God’s word powerfully and did many amazing things.”
- Depending on the context, “mighty works” could be translated as “amazing things that God does” or “miracles” or “God doing things with power.”
- The term “might” could also be translated as “power” or “great strength.”
- Do not confuse this term with the English word that is used to express a possibility, as in “It might rain.”

miracle, wonder, sign

Definition:

A “miracle” is something amazing that is not possible unless God causes it to happen.

- Examples of miracles that Jesus did include calming a storm and healing a blind man.
- Miracles are sometimes called “wonders” because they cause people to be filled with wonder or amazement.
- The term “wonder” can also refer more generally to amazing displays of God’s power, such as when he created the heavens and the earth.
- Miracles can also be called “signs” because they are used as indicators or evidence that God is the all-powerful one who has complete authority over the universe.
- Some miracles were God’s acts of redemption, such as when he rescued the Israelites from being slaves in Egypt and when he protected Daniel from being hurt by lions.
- Other wonders were God’s acts of judgment, such as when he sent a worldwide flood in Noah’s time and when he brought terrible plagues on the land of Egypt during the time of Moses.
- Many of God’s miracles were the physical healings of sick people or bringing dead people back to life.
- God’s power was shown in Jesus when he healed people, calmed storms, walked on water, and raised people from the dead. These were all miracles.
- God also enabled the prophets and the apostles to perform miracles of healing and other things that were only possible through God’s power.

Translation Suggestions:

- Possible translations of “miracles” or “wonders” could include “impossible things that God does” or “powerful works of God” or “amazing acts of God.”
- The frequent expression “signs and wonders” could be translated as “proofs and miracles” or “miraculous works that prove God’s power” or “amazing miracles that show how great God is.”
- Note that this meaning of a miraculous sign is different from a sign that gives proof or evidence for something. The two can be related.

mock, mocker, mockery, ridicule, scoff at, laughingstock

Definition:

The terms “mock,” “ridicule,” and “scoff at” all refer to making fun of someone, especially in a cruel way.

- Mocking often involves imitating people’s words or actions with the intent to embarrass them or show contempt for them.
- The Roman soldiers mocked or ridiculed Jesus when they put a robe on him and pretended to honor him as king.
- A group of young people ridiculed or scoffed at Elisha when they called him a name, making fun of his bald head.
- The term “scoff at” can also refer to ridiculing an idea that is not considered believable or important.
- A “mocker” is someone who mocks and ridicules consistently.

mourn, mourner, weeping

Facts:

The terms “mourn” and “mourning” refer to expressing deep grief, usually in response to the death of someone.

- In many cultures, mourning includes specific outward behaviors that show this sadness and grief.
- The Israelites and other people groups in ancient times expressed mourning through loud wailing and lamenting. They also wore rough clothing made of sackcloth and put ashes on themselves.
- Hired mourners, usually women, would loudly weep and wail from the time of death until well after the body was put in the tomb.
- The typical period of mourning was seven days, but could last as long as thirty days (as for Moses and Aaron) or seventy days (as for Jacob).
- The Bible also uses the term figuratively to talk about “mourning” because of sin. This refers to feeling deeply grieved because sin hurts God and people.

name

Definition:

The term “name” refers to the word by which a specific person or thing is called. In the Bible, however, the term “name” is used in several different ways to refer to several different concepts.

- In some contexts, “name” could refer to a person’s reputation, as in “let us make a name for ourselves.”
- The term “name” could also refer to the memory of something. For example, “cut off the names of the idols” means to destroy those idols so that they are no longer remembered or worshiped.
- Speaking “in the name of God” meant speaking with his power and authority, or as his representative.
- The “name” of someone could refer to the entire person, as in “there is no other name under heaven by which we must be saved.” (See: metonymy)

Translation Suggestions:

- An expression like “his good name” could be translated as “his good reputation.”
- Doing something “in the name of” could be translated as “with the authority of” or “with the permission of” or “as the representative of” that person.
- The expression “make a name for ourselves” could be translated “cause many people to know about us” or “make people think we are very important.”
- The expression “call his name” could be translated as “name him” or “give him the name.”
- The expression “those who love your name” could be translated as “those who love you.”
- The expression “cut off the names of idols” could be translated as “get rid of pagan idols so that they are not even remembered” or “cause people to stop worshiping false gods” or “completely destroy all idols so that people no longer even think about them.”

nation

Definition:

A nation is a large group of people ruled by some form of government. The people of a nation often have the same ancestors and share a common ethnicity.

- A “nation” usually has a well-defined culture and territorial boundaries.
- In the Bible, a “nation” could be a country (like Egypt or Ethiopia), but often it is more general and refers to a people group, especially when used in the plural. It is important to check the context.
- Nations in the Bible included the Israelites, the Philistines, the Assyrians, the Babylonians, the Canaanites, the Romans, and the Greeks, among many others.
- Sometimes the word “nation” was used figuratively to refer to the ancestor of a certain people group, as when Rebekah was told by God that her unborn sons were “nations” that would fight against each other. This could be translated as “the founders of two nations” or the “ancestors of two people groups.”
- The word translated as “nation” was also sometimes used to refer to “Gentiles” or to people who do not worship Yahweh. The context usually makes the meaning clear.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the word “nation” could also be translated as “people group” or “people” or “country.”
- If a language has a term for “nation” that is distinct from these other terms, then that term can be used wherever it occurs in the Bible text, as long as it is natural and accurate in each context.
- The plural term “nations” can often be translated as “people groups.”
- In certain contexts, this term could also be translated as “Gentiles” or “nonJews.”

oath, swear, swearing, swear by

Definition:

The term "oath" in the Bible refers to a formal promise, usually made in a legal or religious context, in which the person making the oath accepts some kind of accountability or punishment if he does not fulfill his promise. In the Bible, the term "swear" means to make an oath.

- In a court of law, a witness often gives an oath to promise that whatever he says will be true and factual.
- In modern times, one meaning of the word "swear" is to use foul or vulgar language. This is never its meaning in the Bible.
- The term "swear by" means to use the name of something or someone as the basis or power on which the oath is made.
- Abraham and Abimelech swore an oath when they made a covenant together concerning the use of a well.
- Abraham told his servant to swear (formally promise) that he would find Isaac a wife from among Abraham's relatives.
- God also made oaths in which he made promises to his people.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, "an oath" could also be translated as "a pledge" or "a solemn promise."
- To "swear" could be translated as to "formally promise" or to "pledge" or to "commit to do something."
- Other ways to translate "swear by my name" could include "make a promise using my name to confirm it."
- To "swear by heaven and earth" could be translated as to, "promise to do something, stating that heaven and earth will confirm it."
- Make sure the translation of "swear" or "oath" does not refer to cursing. In the Bible it does not have that meaning.

olive

Definition:

The olive is the small, oval fruit from an olive tree, which is mostly grown in the regions surrounding the Mediterranean Sea.

- Olive trees are a type of large evergreen shrub with tiny white flowers. They grow best in hot weather and can survive well with little water.
- The olive tree's fruit starts out green and changes to black as they ripen. Olives were useful for food and for the oil that could be extracted from them.
- Olive oil was used for cooking in lamps and for religious ceremonies.
- In the Bible, olive trees and branches are sometimes used figuratively to refer to people.

patient, patience, impatient

Definition:

The terms “patient” and “patience” refer to persevering through difficult circumstances. Often patience involves waiting.

- When people are patient with someone, it means they are loving that person and forgiving whatever faults that person has.
- The Bible teaches God’s people to be patient when facing difficulties and to be patient with each other.
- Because of his mercy, God is patient with people, even though they are sinners who deserve to be punished.

peace, peaceful, peacemakers

Definition:

The term “peace” refers to a state of being or a feeling of having no conflict, anxiety, or fearfulness. A person who is “peaceful” feels calm and assured of being safe and secure.

- In the Old Testament, the term “peace” often means a general sense of a person’s welfare, wellness, or wholeness.
- “Peace” can also refer to a time when people groups or countries are not at war with each other. These people are said to have “peaceful relations.”
- To “make peace” with a person or a group of people means to take actions to cause fighting to stop.
- A “peacemaker” is someone who does and says things to influence people to live at peace with each other.
- To be “at peace” with other people means being in a state of not fighting against those people.
- A good or right relationship between God and people happens when God saves people from their sin. This is called having “peace with God.”
- The greeting “grace and peace” was used by the apostles in their letters to their fellow believers as a blessing.
- The term “peace” can also refer to being in a good relationship with other people or with God.

people, people group

Definition:

The terms “people” and “people group” refer to some group of people that shares a common language and culture. The term “the people” often refers to a gathering of people in a certain place or at a specific event.

- In Bible times, the members of a people group usually had the same ancestors and lived together in a particular country or area of land.
- Depending on the context, the term “people” can refer to a “people group” or “family” or “relatives” or “army.”
- In plural form, the term “peoples” often refers to all people groups on the earth. Sometimes it refers more specifically to people who are not Israelites or who do not serve Yahweh. In some English Bible translations, the term “nations” is also used in this way.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “people group” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “large family group” or “clan” or “ethnic group.”
- A phrase such as “my people” could be translated as “my relatives” or “my fellow Israelites” or “my family” or “my people group,” depending on the context.
- The expression “scatter you among the peoples” could also be translated as “cause you to go live with many different people groups” or “cause you to separate from each other and go live in many different regions of the world.”
- The term “the peoples” or “the people” could also be translated as “the people in the world” or “people groups,” depending on the context.
- The phrase “the people of” could be translated as “the people living in” or “the people descended from” or “the family of,” depending on whether it is followed by the name of a place or a person.
- “All the peoples of the earth” could be translated as “everyone living on earth” or “every person in the world” or “all people.”
- The phrase “a people” could also be translated as “a group of people” or “certain people” or “a community of people” or “a family of people.”

perish

Definition:

The term “perish” means to die or be destroyed, usually as the result of violence or disaster. In the New Testament, it often has the spiritual meaning of being lost or separated from the people of God.

Spiritual Meaning of “Perish:”

- People who are “perishing” are those who have refused to trust in Jesus for their salvation.
- Those who “perish” will not live eternally with God in heaven. Instead, they will live eternally in hell under God’s punishment.
- Everyone will die physically, but only those who do not trust in Jesus for their salvation will perish eternally.
- When “perish” is used in a spiritual sense, make sure that your translation expresses this differently than dying physically.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate this term could include “be lost from God’s people,” “die eternally,” “be punished in hell,” or “be destroyed.”
- Try to use a term or expression that does not only mean “die physically” or “cease to exist.”

pray, prayer

Definition:

The terms “pray” and “prayer” refer to talking with God. These terms are also used to refer to people trying to talk to a false god.

- People can pray silently, talking to God with their thoughts, or they can pray aloud, speaking to God with their voice. Sometimes prayers are written down, such as when David wrote his prayers in the Book of Psalms.
- Prayer can include asking God for mercy, for help with a problem, and for wisdom in making decisions.
- Often people ask God to heal people who are sick or who need his help in other ways.
- People also thank and praise God when they are praying to him.
- Praying includes confessing our sins to God and asking him to forgive us.
- Talking to God is sometimes called “communing” with him as our spirit communicates with his spirit, sharing our emotions and enjoying his presence.
- This term could be translated as “talking to God” or “communicating with God.” The translation of this term should be able to include praying that is silent.

preach, preaching, preacher, proclaim, proclamation

Definition:

To “preach” means to speak to a group of people, teaching them about God and urging them to obey him. To “proclaim” means to announce or declare something publicly and boldly.

- Often preaching is done by one person to a large group of people. It is usually spoken, not written.
- “Preaching” and “teaching” are similar, but are not exactly the same.
- “Preaching” mainly refers to publicly proclaiming spiritual or moral truth, and urging the audience to respond. “Teaching” is a term that emphasizes instruction, that is, giving people information or teaching them how to do something.
- The term “preach” is usually used with the word “gospel.”
- What a person has preached to others can also be referred to in general as his “teachings.”
- Often in the Bible, “proclaim” means to announce publicly something that God has commanded, or to tell others about God and how great he is.
- In the New Testament, the apostles proclaimed the good news about Jesus to many people in many different cities and regions.
- The term “proclaim” can also be used for decrees made by kings or for denouncing evil in a public way.
- Other ways to translate “proclaim” could include “announce” or “openly preach” or “publicly declare.”
- The term “proclamation” could also be translated as “announcement” or “public preaching.”

priest, priesthood

Definition:

In the Bible, a priest was someone who was chosen to offer sacrifices to God on behalf of God's people. The "priesthood" was the name for the office or condition of being a priest.

- In the Old Testament, God chose Aaron and his descendants to be his priests for the people of Israel.
- The "priesthood" was a right and a responsibility that was passed down from father to son in the Levite clan.
- The Israelite priests had the responsibility of offering the people's sacrifices to God, along with other duties in the temple.
- Priests also offered regular prayers to God on behalf of his people and performed other religious rites.
- The priests pronounced formal blessings on people and taught them God's laws.
- In Jesus' time, there were different levels of priests, including the chief priests and the high priest.
- Jesus is our "great high priest" who intercedes for us in God's presence. He offered himself as the ultimate sacrifice for sin. This means that the sacrifices made by human priests are no longer needed.
- In the New Testament, every believer in Jesus is called a "priest" who can come directly to God in prayer to intercede for himself and other people.
- In ancient times, there were also pagan priests who presented offerings to false gods such as Baal.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term "priest" could be translated as "sacrifice person" or "God's intermediary" or "sacrificial mediator" or "person God appoints to represent him."
- The translation of "priest" should be different from the translation of "mediator."
- Some translations may prefer to always say something like "Israelite priest" or "Jewish priest" or "Yahweh's priest" or "priest of Baal" to make it clear that this does not refer to a modern-day type of priest.
- The term used to translate "priest" should be different from the terms for "chief priest" and "high priest" and "Levite" and "prophet."

punish, punished, punishment, unpunished

Definition:

The term “punish” means to cause someone to suffer a negative consequence for doing something wrong. The term “punishment” refers to the negative consequence that is given as a result of that wrong behavior.

- Often punishment is intended to motivate a person to stop sinning.
- God punished the Israelites when they disobeyed him, especially when they worshiped false gods. Because of their sin, God allowed their enemies to attack and capture them.
- God is righteous and just, so he has to punish sin. Every human being has sinned against God and deserves punishment.
- Jesus was punished for all the evil things that every person has ever done. He received each person’s punishment on himself even though he did nothing wrong and did not deserve that punishment.
- The expressions “go unpunished” and “leave unpunished” mean to decide not to punish people for their wrongdoing. God often allows sin to go unpunished as he waits for people to repent.

pure, purify, purification

Definition:

To be “pure” means to have no flaw or to have nothing mixed in that is not supposed to be there. To purify something is to cleanse it and remove anything that contaminates or pollutes it.

- In regard to Old Testament laws, “purify” and “purification” refer mainly to the cleansing from things that make an object or a person ritually unclean, such as disease, body fluids, or childbirth.
- The Old Testament also had laws telling people how to be purified from sin, usually by the sacrifice of an animal. This was only temporary and the sacrifices had to be repeated over and over again.
- In the New Testament, to be purified often refers to being cleansed from sin.
- The only way that people can be completely and permanently purified from sin is through repenting and receiving God’s forgiveness, through trusting in Jesus and his sacrifice.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “purify” could be translated as “make pure” or “cleanse” or “cleanse from all contamination” or “get rid of all sin.”
- A phrase such as “when the time for their purification was over” could be translated as “when they had purified themselves by waiting the required number of days.”
- The phrase “provided purification for sins” could be translated as “provided a way for people to be completely cleansed from their sin.”
- Other ways to translate “purification” could include “cleansing” or “spiritual washing” or “becoming ritually clean.”

redeem, redeemer, redemption

Definition:

The term “redeem” refers to buying back something or someone that has been previously owned or held captive. A “redeemer” is someone who redeems something or someone.

- God gave laws to the Israelites about how to redeem people or things. For example, someone could redeem a person who was in slavery by paying the price so that the slave could go free. The word “ransom” also refers to this practice.
- If someone’s land had been sold, a relative of that person could “redeem” or “buy back” that land so that it would stay in the family.
- These practices show how God redeems people who are in slavery to sin. When he died on the cross, Jesus paid the full price for people’s sins and redeemed all those who trust in him for salvation. People who have been redeemed by God are set free from sin and its punishment.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “redeem” could also be translated as “buy back” or “pay to free (someone)” or “ransom.”
- The term “redemption” could be translated as “ransom” or “freedom payment” or “buying back.”
- The words “ransom” and “redeem” have basically the same meaning, so some languages may have only one term to translate both these words. The word “ransom,” however, can also mean the payment necessary to “redeem” something or someone. The term “redeem” never refers to the actual payment itself.

righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness

Definition:

The term “righteousness” refers to God’s absolute goodness, justice, faithfulness, and love. Having these qualities makes God “righteous.” Because God is righteous, he must condemn sin.

- These terms are also often used to describe a person who obeys God and is morally good. However, because all people have sinned, no one except God is completely righteous.
- Examples of people the Bible who were called “righteous” include Noah, Job, Abraham, Zachariah, and Elisabeth.
- When people trust in Jesus to save them, God cleanses them from their sins and declares them to be righteous because of Jesus’ righteousness.

The term “unrighteous” means to be sinful and morally corrupt. “Unrighteousness” refers to sin or the condition of being sinful.

- These terms especially refer to living in a way that disobeys God’s teachings and commands.
- Unrighteous people are immoral in their thoughts and actions.
- Sometimes “the unrighteous” refers specifically to people who do not believe in Jesus.

The terms “upright” and “uprightness” refer to acting in a way that follows God’s laws.

- The meaning of these words includes the idea of standing up straight and looking directly ahead.
- A person who is “upright” is someone who obeys God’s rules and does not do things that are against his will.
- Terms such as “integrity” and “righteous” have similar meanings and are sometimes used in parallelism constructions, such as “integrity and uprightness.” (See: parallelism)

Translation Suggestions:

- When it describes God, the term “righteous” could be translated as “perfectly good and just” or “always acting rightly.”
- God’s “righteousness” could also be translated as “perfect faithfulness and goodness.”
- When it describes people who are obedient to God, the term “righteous” could also be translated as “morally good” or “just” or “living a God-pleasing life.”
- The phrase “the righteous” could also be translated as “righteous people” or “God-fearing people.”
- Depending on the context, “righteousness” could also be translated with a word or phrase that means “goodness” or “being perfect before God” or “acting in a right way by obeying God” or “doing perfectly good.”
- The term “unrighteous” could simply be translated as “not righteous.”
- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this could include “wicked” or “immoral” or “people who rebel against God” or “sinful.”
- The phrase “the unrighteous” could be translated as “unrighteous people.”
- The term “unrighteousness” could be translated as “sin” or “evil thoughts and actions” or “wickedness.”
- If possible, it is best to translate this in a way that shows its relationship to “righteous, righteousness.”
- Ways to translate “upright” could include “acting rightly” or “one who acts rightly” or “following God’s laws” or “obedient to God” or “behaving in a way that is right.”
- The term “uprightness” could be translated as “moral purity” or “good moral conduct” or “rightness.”
- The phrase “the upright” could be translated as “people who are upright” or “upright people.”

sackcloth

Definition:

Sackcloth was a coarse, scratchy type of cloth that was made from goat hair or camel hair.

- A person who wore clothing made from it would be uncomfortable. Sackcloth was worn to show mourning, grief, or humble repentance.
- The phrase “sackcloth and ashes” was a common term referring to a traditional expression of grief and repentance.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could also be translated as “coarse cloth from animal hair” or “clothes made of goat hair” or “rough, scratchy clothing.”
- Another way to translate this term could be “rough, scratchy mourning clothes.”
- The phrase “sit in sackcloth and ashes” could be translated as “show mourning and humility by wearing scratchy cloth and sitting in ashes.”

save, saved, safe, salvation

Definition:

The term “save” refers to keeping someone from experiencing something bad or harmful. To “be safe” means to be protected from harm or danger.

- In a physical sense, people can be saved or rescued from harm, danger, or death.
- In a spiritual sense, if a person has been “saved,” then God, through Jesus’ death on the cross, has forgiven him and rescued him from being punished in hell for his sin.
- People can save or rescue people from danger, but only God can save people from being punished eternally for their sins.

The term “salvation” refers to being saved or rescued from evil and danger.

- In the Bible, “salvation” usually refers to the spiritual and eternal deliverance granted by God to those who repent of their sins and believe in Jesus.
- The Bible also talks about God saving or delivering his people from their physical enemies.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “save” could include “deliver” or “keep from harm” or “take out of harm’s way” or “keep from dying.”
- In the expression “whoever would save his life,” the term “save” could also be translated as “preserve” or “protect.”
- The term “safe” could be translated as “protected from danger” or “in a place where nothing can harm.”
- The term “salvation” could also be translated using words related to “save” or “rescue,” as in “God’s saving people (from being punished for their sins)” or “God’s rescuing his people (from their enemies).”
- “God is my salvation” could be translated as “God is the one who saves me.”
- “You will draw water from the wells of salvation” could be translated as “You will be refreshed as with water because God is rescuing you.”

seed, semen

Definition:

A “seed” is the part of a plant that gets planted in the ground to reproduce more of the same kind of plant. However, in the Bible the term “seed” is used figuratively to mean several different things.

- The term “seed” is used figuratively and euphemistically to refer to the tiny cells inside a man that combine with cells of a woman to cause a baby to grow inside her. A collection of these cells is called “semen.”
- Related to this, “seed” is also used to refer to a person’s offspring or descendants.
- This word often has a plural meaning, referring to more than one seed grain or more than one descendant.
- In the parable of the farmer planting seeds, Jesus compared his seeds to the Word of God, which is planted in people’s hearts in order to produce good spiritual fruit.
- The apostle Paul also uses the term “seed” to refer to the Word of God.

Translation Suggestions:

- For a literal seed, it is best to use the literal term for “seed” that is used in the target language for what a farmer plants in his field.
- The literal term should also be used in contexts where it refers figuratively to God’s Word.
- For the figurative use that refers to people who are of the same family line, it may be more clear to use the word “descendant” or “descendants” instead of “seed.” Some languages may have a word that means “children and grandchildren.”
- For a man or woman’s “seed,” consider how the target expresses this in a way that will not offend or embarrass people. (See: euphemism) seek, search, look for

Definition:

The term “seek” means to look for something or someone. In the past tense, the verb is “sought.” This term is sometimes used figuratively, meaning to “attempt” or “make an effort” to do something or to ask for something.

- To “seek” or “look for” an opportunity to do something can mean to “try to find a time” to do it.
- To “seek Yahweh” means to “spend time and energy getting to know Yahweh and learning to obey him.”
- To “seek protection” means to “try to find a person or place that will protect you from danger.”
- To “seek justice” means to “make an effort to see that people are treated justly or fairly.”
- To “seek the truth” means to “make an effort to find out what the truth is.”
- To “seek favor” means to “urgently ask for favor” or to “do things to cause someone to help you.”

servant, serve, slave, young man, young women

Definition:

A “servant” or “slave” refers to a person who works for (or obeys) another person, either by choice or by force. A servant was under his master's control. In the Bible, “servant” and “slave” are mostly interchangeable terms. The term “serve” generally means to do work for someone, and the concept can be applied in a wide variety of contexts.

- A slave was a kind of servant who was the property of the person he worked for. The person who bought a slave was called his “owner” or “master.” Some masters treated their slaves cruelly. Other masters treated their slaves well, like a valued member of the household. The term “slavery” means the state of being a slave.
- A person could be a slave temporarily, for instance while working to repay a debt to his owner.
- The words “young man” or “young woman” often mean “servant” or “slave.” This meaning will be discerned from context. One indicator of this situation is if the possessive is used, eg. “her young women” could be translated as “her servants” or “her slaves.”
- The term “enslave” means “to cause to be a slave” (usually by force).
- The New Testament speaks of human beings as “slaves of sin” until Jesus frees them from its control and power. When a person receives new life in Christ, he stops being a slave to sin and becomes a slave to righteousness.

Translation Suggestions

- The term “serve” can also be translated as “minister to” or “work for” or “take care of” or “obey,” depending on the context.
- The term “enslave” could be translated as “cause to not be free” or “force to serve others” or “put under the control of others.”
- The phrase “enslaved to” or “in bondage to” could be translated as “forced to be a slave of” or “forced to serve” or “under the control of.”
- To “serve God” can be translated as to “worship and obey God” or to “do the work that God has commanded.”
- In the Old Testament, God’s prophets and other people who worshiped God were often called his “servants.”
- In the New Testament, people who obeyed God through faith in Christ were often called his “servants.”
- To “serve tables” means to bring food to people who are sitting at tables, or more generally, to “distribute food.”
- In the context of a person serving guests, this term means “care for” or “serve food to” or “provide food for.” When Jesus told the disciples to “serve” the fish to the people, this could be translated as, “distribute” or “hand out” or “give.”
- People who teach others about God are said to serve both God and the ones they are teaching.
- The apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthian Christians about how they used to “serve” the old covenant. This refers to obeying the laws of Moses. Now they “serve” the new covenant. That is, because of Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross, believers in Jesus are enabled by the Holy Spirit to please God and live holy lives.
- Paul talks about their actions in terms of their “service” to either the old or new covenant. This could be translated as “serving” or “obeying” or “devotion to.”
- Often, when a person referred to himself as “your servant” he was showing respect to the person addressed. That person may have had higher social status, or the speaker may be showing humility. It did not mean that the person speaking was an actual servant.

set apart

Definition:

The term “set apart” means separated from something to fulfill a certain purpose. Also, to “set apart” some person or thing means to make it “set apart.”

- The Israelites were set apart for service to God.
- The Holy Spirit commanded the Christians at Antioch to set apart Paul and Barnabas for the work God wanted them to do.
- A believer who is “set apart” for service to God is “dedicated to” fulfilling God’s will.
- One meaning of the term “holy” is to be set apart as belonging to God and being separated from the sinful ways of the world.
- To “sanctify” someone means to set apart that person for God’s service.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate to “set apart” could include to “specially select” or to “separate from among you” or to “take aside to do a special task.”

shame, ashamed, disgrace, humiliate, reproach

Definition:

The term “shame” refers to the painful feeling of being disgraced or humiliated that a person feels when they do something that others consider dishonorable or improper.

- Something that is “shameful” is “improper” or “dishonorable.”
- The term “ashamed” describes how a person feels when he has done something improper or dishonorable.
- The term “humiliate” means to cause someone to feel shamed or disgraced, usually publicly. The act of shaming someone is called “humiliation.”
- To “reproach” someone means to criticize or disapprove of that person’s character or behavior.
- The phrase “put to shame” means to defeat people or expose their actions so that they feel ashamed of themselves. The prophet Isaiah said that those who make and worship idols will be put to shame.
- The term “disgraceful” can be used to describe a sinful act or the person who did it. When a person does something sinful, it can cause him to be in a state of disgrace or dishonor.
- Sometimes a person who is doing good things is treated in a way that causes him disgrace or shame. For example, when Jesus was killed on a cross, this was a disgraceful way to die. Jesus had done nothing wrong to deserve this disgrace.
- When God humbles someone, it means that he is causing a prideful person to experience failure to help him overcome his pride. This is different from humiliating someone, which is often done in order to hurt that person.
- Saying that a person is “above reproach” or “beyond reproach” or “without reproach” means that this person behaves in a God-honoring way and there is little or nothing that could be said in criticism of him.

Translation Suggestions

- Ways to translate “disgrace” could include “shame” or “dishonor.”
- Ways to translate “disgraceful” could include “shameful” or “dishonoring.”

sin offering, purification offering

Definition:

The “sin offering” was one of several sacrifices that God required the Israelites to offer.

- This offering involved sacrificing a bull, burning its blood and fat on the altar, and taking the rest of the animal’s body and burning it on the ground outside the Israelite camp.
- The complete burning up of this animal sacrifice shows how holy God is and how terrible sin is.
- The Bible teaches that in order for there to be a cleansing from sin, blood must be shed to pay the cost for the sin that was committed.
- Animal sacrifices could not permanently bring about forgiveness of sin.
- Jesus’ death on the cross paid the penalty for sin, for all time. He was the perfect sin offering.

sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

Definition:

The term “sin” refers to actions, thoughts, and words that are against God’s will and laws. Sin can also refer to not doing something that God wants us to do.

- Sin includes anything we do that does not obey or please God, even things that other people don’t know about.
- Thoughts and actions that disobey God’s will are called “sinful.”
- Because Adam sinned, all human beings are born with a “sinful nature,” a nature that controls them and causes them to sin.
- A “sinner” is someone who sins, so every human being is a sinner.
- Sometimes the word “sinners” was used by religious people like the Pharisees to refer to people who didn’t keep the law as well as the Pharisees thought they should.
- The term “sinner” was also used for people who were considered to be worse sinners than other people. For example, this label was given to tax collectors and prostitutes.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “sin” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “disobedience to God” or “going against God’s will” or “evil behavior and thoughts” or “wrongdoing.”
- To “sin” could also be translated as to “disobey God” or to “do wrong.”
- Depending on the context “sinful” could be translated as “full of wrongdoing” or “wicked” or “immoral” or “evil” or “rebellious against God.”
- Depending on the context the term “sinner” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “person who sins” or “person who does wrong things” or “person who disobeys God” or “person who disobeys the law.”
- The term “sinners” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “very sinful people” or “people considered to be very sinful” or “immoral people.”
- Ways to translate “tax collectors and sinners” could include “people who collect money for the government, and other very sinful people” or “very sinful people, including (even) tax collectors.”
- Make sure the translation of this term can include sinful behavior and thoughts, even those that other people don’t see or know about.
- The term “sin” should be general, and different from the terms for “wickedness” and “evil.”

son

Definition:

The male offspring of a man and a woman is called their “son” for his entire life. He is also called a son of that man and a son of that woman. An “adopted son” is a male who has been legally placed into the position of being a son.

- The phrase “son of” can be used to identify a person’s father, mother, or an ancestor from some previous generation. This phrase is used in genealogies and many other places.
- The “sons of Israel” are usually the Israelite nation (after Genesis).
- Using “son of” to give the name of the father frequently helps distinguish people who have the same name. For example, “Azariah son of Zadok” and “Azariah son of Nathan” in 1 Kings 4, and “Azariah son of Amaziah” in 2 Kings 15 are three different men.
- The phrase “son of” can be used to associate the person with whatever person or concept comes next. The meaning is then greatly determined by context. It can be positive (eg. 2 Kings 2:16: “sons of ability”), negative (eg. 2 Samuel 7:10: “sons of wickedness”), denote membership in a group, express contempt by not naming the person (eg. “you sons of Zeruiah”), etc.

Translation Suggestions:

- In most occurrences of this term, it is best to translate “son” by the literal term in the language that is used to refer to a son.
- When translating the term “Son of God,” the project language’s common term for “son” should be used.
- Sometimes “sons” can be translated as “children,” when both males and females are being referred to. For example, “sons of God” could be translated as “children of God” since this expression also includes girls and women.

spirit, wind, breath

Definition:

The term "spirit" refers to the non-physical part of a person which cannot be seen. In biblical times, the concept of a person's spirit was closely related to the concept of a person's breath. The term can also refer to wind, that is, the movement of air in the natural world.

- The term "spirit" can refer to a being that does not have a physical body, such as an evil spirit.
- In general, the term "spiritual" describes things in the non-physical world.
- The term "spirit of" can also mean "having the characteristics of," such as in "spirit of wisdom" or "in the spirit of Elijah." Sometimes the Bible applies this term in the context of a person's attitude or emotional state, such as "spirit of fear" and "spirit of jealousy."
- Jesus said that God is a spirit.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, some ways to translate "spirit" might include "non-physical being" or "inside part" or "inner being."
- In some contexts, the term "spirit" could be translated as "evil spirit" or "evil spirit being."
- Sometimes the term "spirit" is used to express the feelings of a person, as in "my spirit was grieved in my inmost being." This could also be translated as "I felt grieved in my spirit" or "I felt deeply grieved."
- The phrase "spirit of" could be translated as "character of" or "influence of" or "attitude of" or "thinking (that is) characterized by."
- Depending on the context, "spiritual" could be translated as "non-physical" or "from the Holy Spirit" or "God's" or "part of the non-physical world."
- The phrase "spiritual maturity" could be translated as "godly behavior that shows obedience to the Holy Spirit."
- The term "spiritual gift" could be translated as "special ability that the Holy Spirit gives."
- Sometimes this term can be translated as "wind" when referring to the simple movement of air or "breath" when referring to air movement caused by living beings.

splendor

Definition:

The term “splendor” refers to the extreme beauty and elegance that is often associated with wealth and a magnificent appearance.

- Often splendor is used to describe the wealth that a king has, or how he looks in his expensive, beautiful finery.
- The word “splendor” can also be used to describe the beauty of trees, mountains, and other things that God has created.
- Certain cities are said to have splendor because of o their natural resources, elaborate buildings and roads, and the wealth of their people, which includes rich clothing, gold, and silver.
- Depending on the context, this word could be translated as “magnificent beauty” or “amazing majesty” or “kingly greatness.”

storehouse

Definition:

A “storehouse” is a large building that is used for keeping food or other things, often for a long time.

- In the Bible a “storehouse” was usually used to store extra grain and other food to be used later when there was a famine.
- This term was also used figuratively to refer to all the good things that God wants to give to his people.
- The storehouses of the temple contained valuable things that had been dedicated to Yahweh, such as gold and silver. Some of these things used to repair and maintain the temple were also kept there.
- Other ways to translate “storehouse” could include “a building for storing grain” or “place for keeping food” or “room for keeping valuable things safe.”

strength, strengthen, strong

Facts:

The term “strength” refers to physical, emotional, or spiritual power. To “strengthen” someone or something means to make that person or object stronger.

- “Strength” can also refer to the power to withstand some kind of opposing force.
- A person has “strength of will” if he is able to avoid sinning when tempted.
- One writer of the Psalms called Yahweh his “strength” because God helped him to be strong.
- If a physical structure like a wall or building is being “strengthened,” people are rebuilding the structure, reinforcing it with more stones or brick so that it can withstand an attack.

Translation Suggestions

- In general, the term “strengthen” can be translated as “cause to be strong” or “make more powerful.”
- In a spiritual sense, the phrase “strengthen your brothers” could also be translated as “encourage your brothers” or “help your brothers to persevere.”
- The following examples show the meaning of these terms, and therefore how they can be translated, when they are included in longer expressions.
 - “puts strength on me like a belt” means “causes me to be completely strong, like a belt that completely surrounds my waist.”
 - “in quietness and trust will be your strength” means “acting calmly and trusting in God will make you spiritually strong.”
 - “will renew their strength” means “will become stronger again.”
 - “by my strength and by my wisdom I acted” means “I have done all this because I am so strong and wise.”
 - “strengthen the wall” means “reinforce the wall” or “rebuild the wall.”
 - “I will strengthen you” means “I will cause you to be strong”
 - “in Yahweh alone are salvation and strength” means “Yahweh is the only one who saves us and strengthens us.”
 - “the rock of your strength” means “the faithful one who makes you strong”
 - “with the saving strength of his right hand” means “he strongly rescues you from trouble like someone who holds you safely with his strong hand.”
 - “of little strength” means “not very strong” or “weak.”
 - “with all my strength” means “using my best efforts” or “strongly and completely.”

sword, swordsmen

Definition:

A sword is a flat-bladed metal weapon used to cut or stab. It has a handle and a long, pointed blade with a very sharp cutting edge.

- In ancient times the length of a sword's blade was about 60 to 91 centimeters.
- Some swords have two sharp edges and are called "double-edged" or "two-edged" swords.
- Jesus' disciples had swords for self defense. With his sword, Peter cut off the ear of the high priest's servant.
- Both John the Baptist and the apostle James were beheaded with swords.

Translation Suggestions

- A sword is used as a metaphor for God's word. God's teachings in the Bible exposed people's innermost thoughts and convicted them of their sin. In a similar way, a sword cuts deeply, causing pain. (See: Metaphor)
- One way to translate this figurative use would be, "God's word is like a sword, which cuts deeply and exposes sin."
- Another figurative use of this term occurred in the book of Psalms, where the tongue or speech of a person was compared to a sword, which can injure people. This could be translated as "the tongue is like a sword that can badly injure someone."
- If swords are not known in your culture, this word could be translated with the name of another long-bladed weapon that is used to cut or stab.
- A sword could also be described as a "sharp weapon" or "long knife." Some translations could include a picture of a sword.

tabernacle

Definition:

The tabernacle was a special tent-like structure where the Israelites worshiped God during the 40 years they traveled around in the desert.

- God had given the Israelites detailed instructions for building this large tent, which had two rooms and was surrounded by an enclosed courtyard.
- Each time the Israelites moved to a different place in the desert to live, the priests would take the tabernacle apart and carry it to their next campsite. Then they would set it up again in the center of their new camp.
- The tabernacle was constructed of wood frames hung with curtains made of cloth, goat hair, and animal skins. The courtyard surrounding it was enclosed with more curtains.
- The two sections of the tabernacle were the Holy Place (where the altar for burning incense was located) and the Most Holy Place (where the ark of the covenant was kept).
- The courtyard of the tabernacle had an altar for burning animal sacrifices and a special washbasin for ritual cleansing.
- The Israelites stopped using the tabernacle when the temple was built in Jerusalem by Solomon.

Translation Suggestions:

- The word “tabernacle” means “dwelling place.” Other ways to translate it could include, “sacred tent” or “tent where God was” or “God’s tent.”
- Make sure that the translation of this term is different from the translation of “temple.”

temple, house, house of God

Facts:

The temple was a building surrounded by walled courtyards where the Israelites came to pray and to offer sacrifices to God. It was located on Mount Moriah in the city of Jerusalem.

- Often the term “temple” referred to the whole temple complex, including the courtyards that surrounded the main building. Sometimes it referred only to the building.
- The temple building had two rooms, the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place.
- God referred to the temple as his dwelling place.
- King Solomon built the Temple during his reign. It was supposed to be the permanent place of worship in Jerusalem.
- In the New Testament, the term “temple of the Holy Spirit” is used to refer to believers in Jesus as a group, because the Holy Spirit lives in them.

Translation Suggestions:

- Usually when the text says that people were “in the temple,” it is referring to the courtyards outside the building. This could be translated as “in the temple courtyards” or “in the temple complex.”
- Where it refers specifically to the building itself, some translations translate “temple” as “temple building,” to make it the reference clear.
- Ways to translate “temple” could include, “God’s holy house” or “sacred worship place.”
- Often in the Bible, the temple is referred to as “the house of Yahweh” or “the house of God.”

tempt, temptation

Definition:

To tempt someone is to try to get that person to do something wrong.

- A temptation is something that causes a person to want to do something wrong.
- People are tempted by their own sinful nature and by other people.
- Satan also tempts people to disobey God and to sin against God by doing wrong things.
- Satan tempted Jesus and tried to get him to do something wrong, but Jesus resisted all of Satan's temptations and never sinned.
- Someone who is "tempting God" is not trying to get him to do something wrong, but rather, is continuing in stubborn disobedience of him to the point that God must respond by punishing him. This is also called "testing God."

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "tempt" can be translated as "try to cause to sin" or "entice" or "cause a desire to sin."
- Ways to translate "temptations" could include, "things that tempt" or "things that entice someone to sin" or "things that cause desire to do something wrong."
- To "tempt God" could be translated as to "put God to the test" or to "test God" or to "try God's patience" or to "cause God to have to punish" or to "stubbornly keep disobeying God."

testimony, testify, witness, eyewitness, evidence

Definition:

When a person gives “testimony” he makes a statement about something he knows, claiming that the statement is true. To “testify” is to give “testimony.”

- In some places in the Old Testament, “Testimony” refers specifically to the tablets of stone on which Yahweh wrote his ten commandments. From that use it came to refer to God’s law more broadly.
- Often a person “testifies” about something he has experienced directly.
- A witness who gives “false testimony” does not tell the truth about what happened.
- Sometimes the term “testimony” refers to a prophecy that a prophet has stated.
- In the New Testament, this term was often used to refer to how Jesus’ followers testified about the events of Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection.

The term “witness” refers to a person who has personally experienced something that happened. Usually a witness is also someone who testifies about what they know is true. The term “eyewitness” emphasizes that the person was actually there and saw what happened.

- To “witness” something means to see it happen.
- At a trial, a witness “gives witness” or “bears witness.” This has the same meaning as “testify.”
- Witnesses are expected to tell the truth about what they have seen or heard.
- A witness who does not tell the truth about what happened is called a “false witness.” He is said to “give false witness” or to “bear false witness.”
- The expression “be a witness between” means that something or someone will be evidence that a contract has been made. The witness will make sure each person does what he has promised to do.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “testify” or “give testimony” could also be translated as “tell the facts” or “tell what was seen or heard” or “tell from personal experience” or “give evidence” or “tell what happened.”
- Ways to translate “testimony” could include, “report of what happened” or “statement of what is true” or “evidence” or “what has been said” or “prophecy.”
- Ways to translate “Testimony” could include, “the stone slabs on which I wrote my commands” or “God’s law” or “God’s commands” or “the record of the agreement between Yahweh and Israel.”

thief, rob, robber, robbery, bandits

Facts:

The term “thief” refers to a person who steals money or property from other people. The plural of “thief” is “thieves.” The term “robber” often refers to a thief who also physically harms or threatens the people he is stealing from.

- Jesus told a parable about a Samaritan man who took care of a Jewish man who had been attacked by robbers. The robbers had beaten the Jewish man and wounded him before stealing his money and clothing.
- Both thieves and robbers come suddenly to steal, when people are not expecting it. Often they use the cover of darkness to hide what they are doing.
- In a figurative sense, the New Testament describes Satan as a thief who comes to steal, kill, and destroy. This means that Satan’s plan is to try to get God’s people to stop obeying him. If he succeeded in doing this Satan would be stealing from them the good things that God has planned for them.
- Jesus compared the suddenness of his return to the suddenness of a thief coming to steal from people. Just as a thief comes at a time when people are not expecting it, so Jesus will return at a time when people do not expect it.

throne, enthroned

Definition:

A throne is a specially-designed chair where a ruler sits when he decides important matters and listens to requests from his people.

- A throne is also a symbol of the authority and power that a ruler has.
- The word “throne” can also be used to refer to the ruler, his reign, or his power.
- In the Bible, God was often portrayed as a king who sits on his throne. Jesus was described as sitting on a throne at the right hand of God the Father.
- Jesus said that heaven is God’s throne. One way to translate this could be, “where God reigns as king.”

tongue, language

Definition:

The term “tongue” refers to the organ inside a person’s mouth that is used to speak. The term is often used figuratively to mean “language” or “speaking.” There also several other figurative meanings as well.

- In the Bible, the most common figurative meaning for this term is “language” or “speech.”
- Sometimes “tongue” may refer to a human language spoken by a certain people group.
- Other times it refers to a supernatural language that the Holy Spirit gives believers in Christ as one of the “gifts of the Spirit.”
- In the book of Acts, the expression “tongues” of fire refers to “flames” of fire, presumably shaped like tongues.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, the term “tongue” can be translated as “language” or “supernatural language.” If it is not clear which one it is referring to, it is better to translate it as “language.”
- When referring to fire, this term could be translated as “flames.”
- The expression “my tongue rejoices” could be translated as “I rejoice and praise God” or “I am joyfully praising God.”
- The phrase, “tongue that lies” could be translated as “person who tell lies” or “people who lie.”
- Phrases such as “with their tongues” could be translated as “with what they say” or “by their words.”

transgress, transgression

Definition:

The term “transgress” means to cross a line or to violate a boundary. The term is often used figuratively, meaning to break a command, rule, or moral code.

- This term is very similar to the word “trespass,” but is generally used more often to describe violations against God than against other people.
- To “transgress” can also be described as to “cross a line,” that is, to go beyond a limit or boundary that has been set for the good of the person and others.

Translation Suggestions:

- To “transgress” could be translated as to “sin” or to “disobey” or to “rebel.”
- If a verse or passage uses two terms that mean “sin” or “transgress” or “trespass,” it is important, if possible, to use different ways to translate these terms. When the Bible uses two or more terms with similar meanings in the same context, usually its purpose is to emphasize what is being said or to show its importance.

trouble, disturb, stir up, distress, hardship, calamity

Definition:

A “trouble” is an experience in life that is very difficult and distressing. To “trouble” someone means to “bother” that person or to cause him distress. To be “troubled” means to feel upset or distressed about something.

- Troubles can be physical, emotional, or spiritual things that hurt a person.
- In the Bible, often troubles are times of testing that God uses to help believers mature and grow in their faith.
- The Old Testament use of “trouble” also referred to judgment that came on people groups who were immoral and rejected God.

Translation Suggestions

- The term “trouble” or “troubles” could also be translated as “danger” or “painful things that happen” or “persecution” or “difficult experiences” or “distress.”
- The term “troubled” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “undergoing distress” or “feeling terrible distress” or “worried” or “anxious” or “distressed” or “terrified” or “disturbed.”
- “Don’t trouble her” could also be translated as “don’t bother her” or “don’t criticize her.”
- The phrase “day of trouble” or “times of trouble” could also be translated as “when you experience distress” or “when difficult things happen to you” or “when God causes distressing things to happen.”
- Ways to translate “make trouble” or “bring trouble” could include “cause distressing things to happen” or “cause difficulties” or “make them experience very difficult things.”

true, truth

Definition:

The term "truth" refers to facts, events, and statements that correspond with reality. True facts describe the universe as it really exists. True events are events that actually happened. True statements are statements that are not false according to the real world.

- "True" things are real, genuine, actual, rightful, legitimate, and factual.
- "Truth" means understandings, beliefs, facts, or statements that are true.
- To say that a prophecy "came true" or "will come true" means that it actually happened as predicted or that it will happen that way.
- In the Bible the concept of "truth" includes the concept of acting in a way that is reliable and faithful.
- Jesus revealed God's truth in the words that he spoke.
- The Bible is truth. It teaches what is true about God and about everything he has made.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context and what is being described, the term "true" could also be translated by "real" or "factual" or "correct" or "right" or "certain" or "genuine."
- Ways to translate the term "truth" could include "what is true" or "fact" or "certainty" or "principle."
- The expression "come true" could also be translated as "actually happen" or "be fulfilled" or "happen as predicted."
- The expression "tell the truth" or "speak the truth" could also be translated as "say what is true" or "tell what really happened" or "say things that are reliable."
- To "accept the truth" could be translated as "believe what is true about God."
- In an expression such as "worship God in spirit and in truth," the expression "in truth" could also be translated by "faithfully obeying what God has taught us."

trust, trusted, trustworthy, trustworthiness

Definition:

To “trust” something or someone is to believe that the thing or person is true or dependable. That belief is also called “trust.” A “trustworthy” person is one you can trust to do and say what is right and true, and therefore one who has the quality of “trustworthiness.”

- Trust is closely related to faith. If we trust someone, we have faith in that person to do what they promised to do.
- Having trust in someone also means depending on that person.
- To “trust in” Jesus means to believe that he is God, to believe that he died on the cross to pay for our sins, and to rely on him to save us.
- A “trustworthy saying” refers to something that is said that can be counted on to be true.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “trust” could include “believe” or “have faith” or “have confidence” or “depend on.”
- The phrase “put your trust in” is very similar in meaning to “trust in.”
- The term “trustworthy” could be translated as “dependable” or “reliable” or “can always be trusted.”

vision, envision

Facts:

The term “vision” refers to something that a person sees. It especially refers to something unusual or supernatural that God shows people in order to give them a message.

- Usually, visions are seen while the person is awake. However, sometimes a vision is something a person sees in a dream while asleep.
- God sends visions to tell people something that is very important. For example, Peter was shown a vision to tell him that God wanted him to welcome Gentiles.

Translation Suggestion

- The phrase “saw a vision” could be translated as “saw something unusual from God” or “God showed him something special.”
- Some languages may not have separate words for “vision” and “dream.” So a sentence such as “Daniel had dreams and visions in his mind” could be translated as something like “Daniel was dreaming while asleep and God caused him to see unusual things.”

- The Bible describes God as “speaking” and having a “voice,” even though God doesn’t have a physical body in the same way a human being does.
- The term “voice” sometimes implies the presence of a person, as in this statement: “A voice is heard in the desert saying, ‘Prepare the way of the Lord.’” This could be translated as “A person is heard calling out in the desert....” (See: synecdoche)
- However, sometimes the word “voice” is used for objects that cannot literally speak, such as when David exclaims in the psalms that the heavens have a “voice” that reaches the whole earth. This means that the objects in the sky communicate something to human beings about God the Creator. (See: metaphor)

walk, walked

Definition:

The term “walk” is often used in a figurative sense to mean “live.”

- “Enoch walked with God” means that Enoch lived in a close relationship with God.
- To “walk by the Spirit” means to be guided by the Holy Spirit so that we do things that please and honor God.
- To “walk in” God’s commands or God’s ways means to “live in obedience to” his commands, that is, to “obey his commands” or “do his will.”
- When God says he will “walk among” his people, it means that he is living among them or closely interacting with them.
- To “walk contrary to” means to live or behave in a way that is against something or someone.
- To “walk after” means to seek or pursue someone or something. It can also mean to act in the same way as someone else.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate “walk” literally, as long as the correct meaning will be understood.
- Otherwise, figurative uses of “walk” could also be translated by “live” or “act” or “behave.”
- The phrase “walk by the Spirit” could be translated by, “live in obedience to the Holy Spirit” or “behave in a way that is pleasing to the Holy Spirit” or “do things that are pleasing to God as the Holy Spirit guides you.”
- To “walk in God’s commands” could be translated by “live by God’s commands” or “obey God’s commands.”
- The phrase “walked with God” could be translated as “lived in close relationship with God by obeying and honoring him.”

waste, wasted, wasteland, becomes weak

Definition:

To waste something means to carelessly throw it away or to use it unwisely. Something that is a “wasteland” or a “waste” refers to land or a city that has been destroyed so that nothing lives in it anymore.

- The term “waste away” is an expression that means to become more and more sick or ruined. A person who is wasting away usually becomes very thin due to illness or lack of food.
- To “lay waste” to a city or land means to destroy it.
- Another word for a “wasteland” could be “desert” or “wilderness.” But a wasteland also implies that people used to live there and the land used to have trees and plants that produced food.

watch, guard, keep, take heed, beware

Definition:

The term “watch” means to look at something very closely and carefully. It also has several figurative meanings. A “watchman” was someone whose job was to guard a city by looking carefully all around him for any danger or threat to the people in the city.

- The command to “watch your life and doctrine closely” means to be careful to live wisely and to not believe false teachings.
- To “watch out” is a warning to be careful to avoid a danger or harmful influence.
- To “watch” or “keep watch” means to always be alert and on guard against sin and evil. It can also mean to “be ready.”
- To “keep watch over” or “keep close watch” can mean to guard, protect or take care of someone or something.
- Other ways of translating “watch” could include “pay close attention to” or “be diligent” or “be very careful” or “be on guard.”
- Other words for “watchman” are “sentry” or “guard.”

wheat

Definition:

Wheat is a type of grain that people grow for food. When the Bible mentions “grain” or “seeds,” it is often talking about wheat grain or seeds.

- The wheat seeds or grains grow at the top of the wheat plant.
- After harvesting the wheat, the grain is separated from the stalk of the plant by threshing it. The stalk of the wheat plant is also called “straw” and is often placed on the ground for animals to sleep on.
- After threshing, the chaff surrounding the grain seed is separated from the grain by winnowing and is thrown away.
- People grind the wheat grain into flour, and use this for making bread.

wine, wineskin, new wine

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “wine” refers to a kind of fermented drink made from the juice of a fruit called grapes. Wine was stored in “wineskins,” which were containers made out of animal skin.

- The term “new wine” referred to grape juice that had just been taken from the grape and was not fermented yet. Sometimes the term “wine” also referred to unfermented grape juice.
- To make wine, grapes are crushed in a winepress so that the juice comes out. The juice eventually ferments and alcohol forms in it.
- In Bible times, wine was the normal drink with meals. It did not have as much alcohol as present-day wine has.
- Before wine was served for a meal, it was often mixed with water.
- A wineskin that was old and brittle would get cracks in it, which allowed the wine to leak out. New wineskins were soft and flexible, which meant they did not tear easily and could store the wine safely.
- If wine is unknown in your culture, it could be translated as “fermented grape juice” or “fermented drink made from a fruit called grapes” or “fermented fruit juice.” (See: How to Translate Unknowns)
- Ways to translate “wineskin” could include “bag for wine” or “animal skin wine bag” or “animal skin container for wine.”

winnow, sift

Definition:

The terms “winnow” and “sift” mean to separate grain from unwanted materials. In the Bible, both words can also be used to refer to separating or dividing people.

- To “winnow” means to separate grain from the unwanted parts of the plant by tossing both the grain and chaff into the air, allowing the wind to blow the chaff away.
- The word “sift” refers to shaking the winnowed grain in a sieve to get rid of any remaining unwanted materials, such as dirt or stones.
- In the Old Testament, “winnow” and “sift” are used figuratively to describe hardship that separates the righteous people from the unrighteous people.
- Jesus also used the term “sift” in this figurative way when he was telling Simon Peter about how he and the other disciples would be tested in their faith.
- To translate these terms, use the words or phrases in the project language that refer to these activities; possible translations might be “shaking” or “fanning.” If winnowing or sifting are not known, then these terms could be translated by a term that refers to a different method of separating grain from chaff or dirt, or by describing this process.

wise men, advisor

Definition:

The term “wise men” simply means people who are wise. In the Bible, however, the term “wise men” often refers to men with unusual knowledge and abilities who served in a king’s royal court as advisors to the king or other high officials.

Old Testament

- Sometimes the term “wise men” is explained in the text as “prudent men” or “men with understanding.” This refers to men who act wisely and righteously because they obey God.
- The “wise men” who served pharaohs or other kings were often scholars who studied the stars, especially looking for special meanings for the patterns that the stars made in their positions in the sky. Sometimes “wise men” also practiced divination of performed acts of magic, probably by the power of evil spirits.
- Often wise men were expected to explain the meanings of dreams. For example, King Nebuchadnezzar demanded that his wise men describe his dreams and tell him what they meant, but none of them was able to do this, except Daniel who had received this knowledge from God.

New Testament

- The group of men who came from eastern regions to worship Jesus were called “magi,” which is often translated as “wise men,” since this probably refers to scholars who served a ruler of an eastern country.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “wise men” could be translated using the term “wise” or with a phrase such as “gifted men” or “educated men” or some other term that refers to men who have an important job working for a ruler.
- When the term “wise men” simply means people who are wise, the word “wise” should be translated in the same or similar way to how it is translated elsewhere in the Bible.

wise, wisdom

Definition:

The term “wise” describes someone who understands what is the right and moral thing to do and then does that. “Wisdom” is the understanding and practice of what is true and morally right.

- Being wise includes the ability to make good decisions, especially choosing to do what pleases God.
- People become wise by listening to God and humbly obeying his will.
- A wise person will show the fruits of the Holy Spirit in his life, such as joy, kindness, love, and patience.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate “wise” could include “obedient to God” or “sensible and obedient” or “God-fearing.”
- “Wisdom” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “wise living” or “sensible and obedient living” or “good judgment.”
- It is best to translate “wise” and “wisdom” in such a way that they are different terms from other key terms like righteous or obedient.

work, works, deeds

Definition:

The term “work” refers generally either to the action of expending effort in order to accomplish something, or to the result of that action. The term “works” refers generally to actions as a whole (that is, things that have been done or that need to be done).

- In the Bible, these terms are commonly used both in reference to God and humans.
- When used in reference to God, the term “work” in the Bible often refers to God’s action of creating the universe or saving his people (either from enemies, from sin, or both).
- God’s works refer to all the things he does or has done, including creating the world, saving sinners, providing for the needs of all creation and keeping the entire universe in place.
- The works or deeds that a person does can be either good or evil.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “works” could be “deeds” or “actions” or “things that are done.”
- God’s “works” or “deeds” or the “work of his hands” could also be translated as “miracles” or “mighty acts” or “things that God does.”
- The expression “the work of God” could be translated as “the things that God is doing” or “the miracles God does” or “everything that God has accomplished.”
- The term “work” can just be the singular of “works” as in “every good work” or “every good deed.”
- When work is done for God or others, it can be translated as “service” or “ministry.”

wrath, fury

Definition:

Wrath is an intense anger that is sometimes long-lasting. The Bible describes both people and God as experiencing intense anger. When speaking about God's "wrath," make sure the word or phrase used to translate this term does not refer to a sinful fit of rage (which might be true of a human person).

- In the Bible, "wrath" often refers to God's righteous judgment of sin and punishment of people who rebel against him.
- The "wrath of God" can also refer to his judgment and punishment for sin.
- God's wrath is the righteous penalty for those who do not repent of their sin.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways this term could be translated include "intense anger" or "righteous judgment" or "anger."
- God's wrath is just and holy. When talking about God's wrath, make sure the word or phrase used to translate this term does not refer to a sinful human rage.

Yahweh

Facts:

The term “Yahweh” is God’s personal name in the Old Testament. The specific origin of this name is unknown, but it is probably derived from the Hebrew verb meaning, “to be.”

- Following tradition, many Bible versions use the term “LORD” or “the LORD” to represent “Yahweh.” This tradition resulted from the fact that historically, the Jewish people became afraid of mispronouncing Yahweh’s name and started saying “Lord” every time the term “Yahweh” appeared in the text. Modern Bibles write “LORD” with all capital letters to show respect for God’s personal name and to distinguish it from “Lord” which is a different Hebrew word.
- The ULT and UST texts always translate this term as, “Yahweh,” in agreement with the Hebrew text of the Old Testament.
- The term “Yahweh” never occurs in the original text of the New Testament; only the Greek term for “Lord” is used, even when quoting the Old Testament.
- In the Old Testament, when God spoke about himself, he would often use his name instead of a pronoun.

Translation Suggestions:

- “Yahweh” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “I am” or “living one” or “the one who is” or “he who is alive.”
- This term could also be written in a way that is similar to how “Yahweh” is spelled.
- Some church denominations prefer not to use the term “Yahweh” and instead use the traditional rendering, “LORD.” An important consideration is that this may be confusing when read aloud because it will sound the same as the title “Lord.” Some languages may have an affix or other grammatical marker that could be added to distinguish “LORD” as a name (Yahweh) from “Lord” as a title.
- It is best if possible to keep the name Yahweh where it literally occurs in the text, but some translations may decide to use only a pronoun in some places, to make the text more natural and clear.
- Introduce the quote with something like, “This is what Yahweh says.”
