temple	the temple area
chief priests	ruling priests
elders	leaders
authority	did someone authorize authority	authorized

Matthew 21:24

ULT	UST
But answering, Jesus said to them, "I also will ask you one word, which if you tell me, I also will tell you by what authority I do these things.	Jesus replied, "I too will ask you a question. When you answer it, I too will answer your question about the way in which someone authorized me to do what I have done.

ULT one word
UST a question
(λόγον ἕνα)

Jesus is using the term word to refer to what Jesus will ask. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [one thing]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT by what authority I do these things
UST about the way in which someone authorized me to do what I have done
(ἐν ποίᾳ ἐξουσίᾳ ταῦτα ποιῶ)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of authority, you could express the same idea in another way. See how you expressed the idea in 21:23. Alternate translation: [how I am empowered to do these things]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT I do these things
UST me to do what I have done
(ταῦτα ποιῶ)

The phrase these things refers to what Jesus has done since he arrived in Jerusalem, including driving people out of the temple, healing people, and teaching. See how you translated the similar phrase in 21:23. Alternate translation: [I teach, heal, and drive people out of the temple]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
authority	someone authorized

Matthew 21:25

ULT	UST
The baptism of John—from where was it? From heaven or from men?" But they were reasoning among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'For what {reason} then did you not believe him?'	Who authorized John the Baptizer to baptize people? Did God {authorize him} from heaven, or did people {authorize him}?" Then the ruling priests and the Jewish leaders told each other, "Suppose that we answer that {God authorized John} from heaven. Then, he will tell us that we should have listened to John.

ULT The baptism of John—from where was it
UST Who authorized John the Baptizer to baptize people
(τὸ βάπτισμα τὸ Ἰωάννου, πόθεν ἦν)

Jesus first introduces the baptism of John and then asks a question about it. If stating the topic and then referring back to it with the word it would be redundant in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [From where was the baptism of John]

Support Reference: Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

ULT The baptism of John
UST John the Baptizer to baptize people
(τὸ βάπτισμα τὸ Ἰωάννου)

Jesus is using the possessive form to describe a kind of baptism that was performed by John. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [The baptism that John performed]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT The baptism of John
UST John the Baptizer to baptize people
(τὸ βάπτισμα τὸ Ἰωάννου)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of baptism, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [When John baptized people]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT From heaven … From heaven
UST Did God {authorize him} from heaven … that {God authorized John} from heaven (ἐξ οὐρανοῦ)

Here, heaven represents God because it is where he dwells. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [From God … From God]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT from men
UST did people {authorize him}
(ἐξ ἀνθρώπων)

Although the term men is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [from humans]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

ULT But
UST Then
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT among themselves
UST each other
(παρ’ ἑαυτοῖς)

The phrase among themselves could mean: (1) that the chief priests and elders were reasoning with each other. Alternate translation: [with one another]; (2) that the chief priests and elders were thinking this without saying it. Alternate translation: [within themselves]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT saying
(λέγοντες)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'For what {reason} then did you not believe him
UST Suppose that we answer that {God authorized John} from heaven. Then, he will tell us that we should have listened to John
(ἐὰν εἴπωμεν, ἐξ οὐρανοῦ, ἐρεῖ ἡμῖν, διὰ τί οὖν οὐκ ἐπιστεύσατε αὐτῷ)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there are not quotations within a quotation. Alternate translation: [If we say that it was from heaven, then he will ask us for what reason we did not believe him.]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'For what {reason} then did you not believe him
UST Suppose that we answer that {God authorized John} from heaven. Then, he will tell us that we should have listened to John
(ἐὰν εἴπωμεν, ἐξ οὐρανοῦ, ἐρεῖ ἡμῖν, διὰ τί οὖν οὐκ ἐπιστεύσατε αὐτῷ)

The chief priests and elders use an imaginary situation to help them decide how to answer the question. Use a natural method in your language for introducing an imaginary situation. Alternate translation: [Imagine that we say, 'From heaven.' In that case, he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT For what {reason} then did you not believe him
UST that we should have listened to John
(διὰ τί οὖν οὐκ ἐπιστεύσατε αὐτῷ)

The chief priests and elders expect that Jesus would use the question form to rebuke them. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [Then you should have believed him.] or [You certainly should have believed him then!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
baptism	to baptize people
of John	John the Baptizer
heaven	Did God {authorize him} from heaven
heaven	that {God authorized John} from heaven
did you … believe	that we … listened

Matthew 21:26

ULT	UST
But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the crowd, for they all regard John as a prophet."	On the other hand, suppose that we answer that people {authorized John}. Then, since the large group of people believe that John spoke for God, we are afraid of how they would react."

ULT if we say, 'From men,' we fear the crowd
UST suppose that we answer that people {authorized John}. Then … we are afraid of how they would react (ἐὰν & εἴπωμεν, ἐξ ἀνθρώπων, φοβούμεθα τὸν ὄχλον)

The chief priests and elders use an imaginary situation to help them decide how to answer the question. Use a natural method in your language for introducing an imaginary situation. Alternate translation: [imagine that we say, 'From men.' In that case, we fear the crowd]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT if we say, 'From men
UST suppose that we answer that people {authorized John} (ἐὰν & εἴπωμεν, ἐξ ἀνθρώπων)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [if we say that it was from men]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT From men
UST that people {authorized John}
(ἐξ ἀνθρώπων)

Although the term men is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [From humans]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

ULT we fear the crowd, for they all regard John as a prophet
UST Then, since the large group of people believe that John spoke for God, we are afraid of how they would react
(φοβούμεθα τὸν ὄχλον, πάντες γὰρ ὡς προφήτην ἔχουσιν τὸν Ἰωάννην)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [the crowd regards John as a prophet, so we fear them all]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT the crowd
UST how they would react
(τὸν ὄχλον)

Matthew implies that the chief priests and elders feared what the crowd would do if they answered in this way. They might have rioted or attacked them. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [what the crowd would do] or [that the crowd might riot]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT they all regard
UST the large group of people believe that … how they would react (πάντες & ἔχουσιν)

The chief priests and elders say all here as an overstatement for emphasis. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different way to express the emphasis. Alternate translation: [most of them regard]

Support Reference: Hyperbole

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
we fear	Then … we are afraid of
John	John
a prophet	spoke for God

Matthew 21:27

ULT	UST
And answering Jesus, they said, "We do not know." He also said to them, "Nor do I tell you by what authority I do these things.	So, they answered Jesus, "We do not know {who authorized John}." Jesus responded, "Because you did not answer my question, I will not tell you in what way someone authorized me to do what I have done.

ULT And
UST So
(καὶ)

The word And introduces what the chief priests and scribes did as a result of what they said to each other. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the result of an action. Alternate translation: [Therefore,] or [So then,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT We do not know
UST We do not know {who authorized John}
(οὐκ οἴδαμεν)

The chief priests and elders are leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from the context if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [We do not know where the baptism of John was from]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT Nor do I tell you
UST Because you did not answer my question, I will not tell you
(οὐδὲ ἐγὼ λέγω ὑμῖν)

With the words Neither do I tell you, Jesus is indicating that his response is the result of what the Jewish leaders told him. If it would be helpful in your language, you could include a word or phrase that introduces a result. Alternate translation: [Then I will not tell you] or [Well then, neither do I tell you]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT by what authority I do these things
UST in what way someone authorized me to do what I have done
(ἐν ποίᾳ ἐξουσίᾳ ταῦτα ποιῶ)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of authority, you could express the same idea in another way. See how you expressed the idea in 21:23. Alternate translation: [how I am empowered to do these things]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT I do these things
UST what … me to do … I have done
(ταῦτα ποιῶ)

The phrase these things refers to what Jesus has done since he arrived in Jerusalem, including driving people out of the temple, healing people, and teaching. See how you translated the similar phrase in 21:23. Alternate translation: [I teach, heal, and drive people out of the temple]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
We do … know	We do … know {who authorized John}
authority	someone authorized

Matthew 21:28

ULT	UST
But what do you think? A man had two children, and having approached the first, he said, 'Child, go, work today in the vineyard.'	Think about this situation: There was a man with two children. He went to the older one and told him, 'My child, go {to where my grape vines are} and take care of them today.'

ULT But
(δὲ)

Here, the word But introduces the next topic that Jesus wishes to speak about. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next topic, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Now]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT what do you think
UST Think about this situation
(τί & ὑμῖν δοκεῖ)

Jesus is using the question form to get the attention of the chief priests and the elders. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [I want you to pay attention to what I am about to say.] or [listen to this!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT A man had two children
UST There was a man with two children
(ἄνθρωπος εἶχεν τέκνα δύο)

To teach the chief priests and the elders, Jesus offers a story or illustration. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could indicate that explicitly. Alternate translation: [Listen to this story: A man had two children]

Support Reference: Parables

> ULT the first
> UST the older one
> (τῷ πρώτῳ)

Jesus is using the adjective first as a noun to mean the first child. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the first child]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

> ULT the first
> UST the older one
> (τῷ πρώτῳ)

The word first could imply that: (1) this child was the older one. Alternate translation: [the older]; (2) this child simply the first one with whom the father spoke. Alternate translation: [the first one he found]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT the first
> UST the older one
> (τῷ πρώτῳ)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [child one]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

> ULT he said, 'Child, go, work today in the vineyard
> UST and told him, 'My child, go {to where my grape vines are} and take care of them today > (εἶπεν, τέκνον, ὕπαγε σήμερον, ἐργάζου ἐν τῷ ἀμπελῶνι)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [he called him son and told him to go work that day in the vineyard]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

> ULT go, work
> UST go {to where my grape vines are} and take care of > (ὕπαγε & ἐργάζου)

Since the man is talking to one of his children, the commands here are singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

> ULT go
> UST go {to where my grape vines are} > (ὕπαγε)

In a context such as this, your language might say "come" instead of go. Alternate translation: [come]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
work	and take care of vineyard	them

Matthew 21:29

ULT	UST
But he, answering, said, 'I will not,' but afterward, having changed his mind, he went.	His child replied, 'I will not {do that}!' However, later he regretted {what he had said}. He took care of the grape vines after all.

ULT I will not,' but afterward, having changed his mind, he went … I will, lord,' but he did not go … The first
UST I will not {do that}!' However, later he regretted {what he had said}. He took care of the grape vines after all … I will {do that}, my father!' However, he did not take care of the grape vines … The older one (οὐ θέλω; ὕστερον δὲ μεταμεληθεὶς, ἀπῆλθεν & ἐγώ, κύριε, καὶ οὐκ ἀπῆλθεν & ὁ πρῶτος) (21:29-31)

Many ancient manuscripts have the story as the ULT presents it. Some ancient manuscripts tell the story in a different sequence or with different answers to the questions. See the chapter introduction for more information. If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces what the man's child said in contrast with what his father told him to do. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [In response,] or [However,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT said, 'I will not
UST replied, 'I will not {do that} (εἶπεν, οὐ θέλω)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [said that he would not]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT I will not
UST I will not {do that} (οὐ θέλω)

The man's child means that he will not go and work in the vineyard. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [I will not work in the vineyard]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT afterward
UST later
(ὕστερον)

The word afterward introduces something that happened after the man's child said I will not. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces something that happened later. Alternate translation: [later that day]

Support Reference: Connect — Sequential Time Relationship

ULT having changed his mind
UST he regretted {what he had said}
(μεταμεληθεὶς)

The phrase changed his mind refers to deciding to do something that one had previously chosen not to do. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [having second thoughts] or [having reconsidered]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT he went
UST He took care of the grape vines after all
(ἀπῆλθεν)

Jesus implies that the man's child went to the vineyard and worked there. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [he went and worked in the vineyard]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT he went
> UST He took care of the grape vines after all
> (ἀπῆλθεν)

In a context such as this, your language might say “came” instead of went. Alternate translation: [he came]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having changed his mind	he regretted {what he had said}

Matthew 21:30

ULT	UST
But, having approached the other, he said likewise. And he, answering, said, 'I will, lord,' but he did not go.	After {speaking with the older child}, the man went to the younger child and told him to take care of his grape vines. His child replied, 'I will {do that}, my father!' However, he did not take care of the grape vines.

ULT But
UST After {speaking with the older child}
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the other
UST the younger child
(τῷ ἑτέρῳ)

Jesus is using the adjective other as a noun to mean the other child. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the other child]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT he said likewise
UST and told him to take care of his grape vines
(εἶπεν ὡσαύτως)

Jesus means that the man said the same things that he said to the first child (see 21:28). You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [he said the same thing] or [he told him also to go work in his vineyard]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT said, ‘I will, lord
> UST replied, ‘I will {do that}, my father
> (εἶπεν, ἐγώ, κύριε)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [called him lord and said that he would]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

> ULT I will
> UST I will {do that} > (ἐγώ)

The man’s child means that he will go and work in the vineyard. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [I will work in the vineyard]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT lord
> UST my father
> (κύριε)

In Jesus’ culture, the word lord was a polite way for a child to address a father. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that is a polite way to address a father in your culture. Alternate translation: [sir]

Support Reference: Politeness

> ULT he did not go
> UST he did not take care of the grape vines
> (οὐκ ἀπῆλθεν)

Jesus implies that the man’s child did not go to the vineyard and did not work there. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [he did not go and work in the vineyard]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT he did not go
> UST he did not take care of the grape vines
> (οὐκ ἀπῆλθεν)

In a context such as this, your language might say “come” instead of go. Alternate translation: [he did not come]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
lord	my father

Matthew 21:31

ULT	UST
Which of the two did the will of his father?" They say, "The first." Jesus says to them, "Truly I say to you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes enter into the kingdom of God before you.	Which of these two children did what their father wanted?" The ruling priests and the Jewish leaders answered, "The older one." Jesus replied, "Prostitutes and people who collect taxes are participating in God's kingdom before you are. What I have said is true.

ULT the two
UST these two children
(τῶν δύο)

Jesus is using the number two as a noun to refer to the two children. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this number with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the two of them]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT the will of his father
UST what their father wanted
(τὸ θέλημα τοῦ πατρός)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of will, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [what his father desired]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT They say … says
UST The ruling priests and the Jewish leaders answered … replied
(λέγουσιν & λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [They said … said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT The first
UST The older one
(ὁ πρῶτος)

The chief priests and the scribes are using the ordinal number first as a noun to refer to the first child. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this number with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [The first child]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT The first
UST The older one
(ὁ πρῶτος)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [Child one]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

ULT enter into the kingdom of God before you
UST are participating in God's kingdom before you are (προάγουσιν ὑμᾶς εἰς τὴν Βασιλείαν Θεοῦ)

Jesus could be implying that: (1) the tax collectors and prostitutes enter into the kingdom of God first, and at least some of the chief priests and elders will enter later. Alternate translation: [enter into the kingdom of God first, before you do]; (2) the tax collectors and prostitutes enter into the kingdom of God instead of the chief priests and elders. Alternate translation: [enter into the kingdom of God instead of you]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
Truly	What I have said is true
tax collectors	people who collect taxes
prostitutes	Prostitutes
kingdom of God	God's kingdom

Matthew 21:32

ULT	UST
For John came to you in the way of righteousness, but you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. But you, having seen this, did not change your minds afterward to believe in him.	{I say that} because, when John the Baptizer was with you, he did what was right. However, you did not trust him. In contrast, prostitutes and people who collect taxes did trust him. When you realized {that even they trusted John}, you did not regret how you were acting and trust him after all.

ULT For
UST {I say that} because
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces a basis for what Jesus said in the previous verse. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason or basis for a claim, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [That is because] or [Here is why I say that:]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT came
UST when … was (ἦλθεν)

In a context such as this, your language might say “went” instead of came. Alternate translation: [went]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT in the way of righteousness
UST he did what was right
(ἐν ὁδῷ δικαιοσύνης)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of righteousness, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [in the righteous way]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT in the way of righteousness
UST he did what was right
(ἐν ὁδῷ δικαιοσύνης)

Jesus is using the word way to refer to behavior in life. More specifically, he could mean that: (1) John lived a life characterized by righteousness. Alternate translation: [living righteously] or [behaving in righteous ways]; (2) John showed others how to live lives characterized by righteousness. Alternate translation: [to show you how to be righteous]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT you did not believe him
UST you did not trust him
(οὐκ ἐπιστεύσατε αὐτῷ)

The pronoun you is plural and refers to the religious leaders, so use the plural form in your translation if your language marks that distinction.

Support Reference: Forms of You

ULT did not change your minds
UST you did not regret how you were acting (οὐ μετεμελήθητε)

The phrase change your minds refers to deciding to do something that one had previously chosen not to do. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [did not have second thoughts] or [did not reconsider]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
John	John the Baptizer
of righteousness	he did what was right
you did … believe	you did … trust
tax collectors	people who collect taxes
prostitutes	prostitutes
believed	did trust
did … change your minds	you did … regret how you were acting
to believe	and trust

Matthew 21:33

ULT	UST
Listen to another parable. There was a man, a master of a house, who planted a vineyard and put a hedge around it and dug a winepress in it and built a watchtower and rented it out to farmers and went abroad.	I will tell you another story. A man who managed a household planted a vineyard. He built a fence around it {in order to protect it}. He made a stone tank {to collect the grape juice that they would press out of the grapes}. He also built a tower {for someone to sit in to guard his vineyard}. He rented the vineyard to some people who would take care of it, and he left to travel to a different country.

ULT Listen to another parable. There was a man
UST I will tell you another story. A man
(ἄλλην παραβολὴν ἀκούσατε: ἄνθρωπος ἦν)

To teach the chief priests and the elders, Jesus offers a story or illustration. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could indicate that explicitly. Alternate translation: [Now listen to this story: There was a man]

Support Reference: Parables

ULT There was a man, a master of a house, who
UST A man who managed a household
(ἄνθρωπος ἦν οἰκοδεσπότης, ὅστις)

Matthew is using the phrase There was a man, a master of a house to introduce this person into the story. If your language has its own way of introducing new participants, you could use it here in your translation. Alternate translation: [A man, a landowner,]

Support Reference: Introduction of New and Old Participants

ULT a hedge
UST a fence … in order to protect it
(φραγμὸν)

A hedge is a thick wall made out of bushy plants that were planted close together. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of wall, you could use the name of something similar in your area, or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [a wall made of bushes] or [a wall of plants]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT rented it out to farmers
UST He rented the vineyard to some people who would take care of it
(ἐξέδετο αὐτὸν γεωργοῖς)

As the rest of the story shows, the man rented the vineyard not for regular cash payments but under an arrangement that entitled him to a share of the crop in exchange for the use of the land. If an arrangement like that would not be familiar to your readers, you could translate this in a way that explains it. Alternate translation: [allowed some farmers to use it in exchange for a share of the crop]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
parable	story
a vineyard	a vineyard
a winepress	a stone tank {to collect the grape juice that they would press out of the grapes}
a watchtower	a tower {for someone to sit in to guard his vineyard}

Matthew 21:34

ULT	UST
Now, when the time of the fruits came near, he sent his servants to the farmers to receive his fruits.	When it was almost time to harvest the grapes, the man told some of his servants to go to the people who were taking care of the vineyard. He wanted them to give him his share of the grapes {that the vineyard had produced}.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the time of the fruits came near
UST it was almost time to harvest the grapes
(ἤγγισεν ὁ καιρὸς τῶν καρπῶν)

The phrase the time of the fruits refers to the time of year when the grape vines produced grapes. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [it was almost harvest time] or [the grapes were almost ripe]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT to receive his fruits
UST He wanted them to give him his share of the grapes {that the vineyard had produced}
(λαβεῖν τοὺς καρποὺς αὐτοῦ)

The master of the house wants to receive the share of the fruits that the farmers agreed to pay him when he rented the vineyard to them. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [to receive his portion of the fruit] or [to receive the fruits that they agreed to pay him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT his fruits
UST his share of the grapes {that the vineyard had produced}
(τοὺς καρποὺς αὐτοῦ)

The word fruits could refer: (1) directly to the grapes that the vineyard produced. Alternate translation: [his grapes]; (2) figuratively to what the farmers made when they sold the grapes. Alternate translation: [his money]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT his fruits
UST his share of the grapes {that the vineyard had produced}
(τοὺς καρποὺς αὐτοῦ)

The word translated as his could refer to: (1) the master of the house, who owned the vineyard. Alternate translation: [the fruits that were his]; (2) the vineyard. Alternate translation: [its fruits] or [the fruits of the vineyard]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
time	it was … time
of the fruits	to harvest the grapes
servants	some of … servants
to receive	He wanted them to give him
fruits	his share of the grapes {that the vineyard had produced}

Matthew 21:35

ULT	UST
But the farmers, having seized his servants, beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.	However, the people who were taking care of the vineyard grabbed the man's servants. They beat up some servants. They executed other servants. They {killed} other servants by throwing stones at them.

ULT his servants

UST the man's servants

(τοὺς δούλους αὐτοῦ)

The pronoun his refers to the master of the house. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to him more directly. Alternate translation: [the master of the house's servants]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
servants	servants
stoned	They {killed} … by throwing stones at them

Matthew 21:36

ULT	UST
Again, he sent other servants, more than the first, but they did to them likewise.	After that, the man told an even greater number of his servants to go {to the people who were taking care of the vineyard}. However, those people treated these servants just as they had treated the other servants.

ULT the first
UST an even greater number of his servants
(τῶν πρώτων)

Jesus is using the word first as a noun to mean the servants who were sent before he sent others. Your language may use numbers in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the first servants]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT the first
UST an even greater number of his servants
(τῶν πρώτων)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [the previous ones]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

ULT they did to them likewise
UST those people treated these servants just as they had treated the other servants
(ἐποίησαν αὐτοῖς ὡσαύτως)

Jesus means that the farmers did the same things to these later servants as they did to the first servants (see 21:35). You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they did the same things to them] or [they beat, killed, or stoned them too]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT they did to them
> UST those people treated these servants
> (ἐποίησαν αὐτοῖς)

The pronoun they refers to the farmers, and the pronoun them refers to the servants. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to these people more directly. Alternate translation: [the farmers did to the servants]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
servants	an even greater number of his servants

Matthew 21:37

ULT	UST
But afterward, he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.'	Finally, the man told his own son to go to them. He thought that they would treat his son well {and give him his share of the grapes}.

ULT But afterward
UST Finally
(ὕστερον δὲ)

The phrase But afterward introduces something that happened after the man sent many servants to the farmers. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces something that happened later. Alternate translation: [After all that happened]

Support Reference: Connect — Sequential Time Relationship

ULT he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son
UST the man told his own son to go to them. He thought that they would treat his son well {and give him his share of the grapes}
(ἀπέστειλεν πρὸς αὐτοὺς τὸν υἱὸν αὐτοῦ λέγων, ἐντραπήσονται τὸν υἱόν μου)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these two clauses. Alternate translation: [saying, 'They will respect my son,' he sent to them his son.]

Support Reference: Information Structure

ULT saying, 'They will respect my son
UST He thought that they would treat his son well {and give him his share of the grapes}
(λέγων, ἐντραπήσονται τὸν υἱόν μου)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [saying that they would respect his son]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT saying
UST He thought
(λέγων)

If you keep the direct quotation, consider natural ways of introducing it in your language. Alternate translation: [and he thought to himself]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT They will respect my son
UST that they would treat his son well {and give him his share of the grapes}
(ἐντραπήσονται τὸν υἱόν μου)

The man implies that respecting his son would also mean giving him the portion of the fruits that he and the farmers had agreed upon. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [They will respect my son and give him my portion of the fruits]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

Matthew 21:38

ULT	UST
But the farmers, having seen the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and have his inheritance.'	However, when the people who were taking care of the vineyard saw the man's son arriving, they told each other, 'This man is the one who will inherit the vineyard. We should kill him, and then we can take the vineyard for ourselves.'

ULT But the farmers, having seen the son
UST However, when the people who were taking care of the vineyard saw the man's son arriving (οἱ δὲ γεωργοὶ ἰδόντες τὸν υἱὸν)

Jesus is implying that the son traveled to the vineyard, after which the farmers saw him. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Then the son arrived at the vineyard. But the farmers, having seen him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and have his inheritance
UST they told each other, 'This man is the one who will inherit the vineyard. We should kill him, and then we can take the vineyard for ourselves (εἶπον ἐν ἑαυτοῖς, οὗτός ἐστιν ὁ κληρονόμος; δεῦτε, ἀποκτείνωμεν αὐτὸν καὶ σχῶμεν τὴν κληρονομίαν αὐτοῦ)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [said among themselves that this man was the heir and that they should come and kill him and have his inheritance]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT among themselves
UST each other
(ἐν ἑαυτοῖς)

The phrase among themselves could mean: (1) that the farmers were speaking with each other. Alternate translation: [to one another]; (2) that the farmers were thinking this without saying it. Alternate translation: [within themselves]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Come
UST We should kill
(δεῦτε)

In a context such as this, your language might say “Go” instead of Come. Alternate translation: [Go]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT and
UST and then
(καὶ)

The word and introduces the purpose for which the farmers plan to kill the son. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a purpose. Alternate translation: [in order that we might]

Support Reference: Connect — Goal (Purpose) Relationship

ULT his inheritance
UST the vineyard for ourselves
(τὴν κληρονομίαν αὐτοῦ)

The farmers are referring primarily to the vineyard, which would be the son’s inheritance. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [his inheritance, this vineyard]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT his inheritance
UST the vineyard for ourselves
(τὴν κληρονομίαν αὐτοῦ)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of inheritance, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [what he will inherit]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
heir	the one who will inherit the vineyard have	we can take
inheritance	the vineyard for ourselves

Matthew 21:39

ULT	UST
And having seized him, they threw him out of the vineyard and killed {him}.	So, they grabbed the man's son and dragged him outside the vineyard. Then, they killed him.

ULT And
UST So
(καὶ)

The word And introduces what the farmers did as a result of what they said to each other. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the result of an action. Alternate translation: [Therefore,] or [So then,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
they threw him out	and dragged him
vineyard	vineyard

Matthew 21:40

ULT	UST
Therefore, when the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?"	After that, the man who owned the vineyard came back. How do you think he treated the people who were taking care of the vineyard?"

ULT Therefore
(οὖν)

The word Therefore introduces a question that Jesus asks based on the story that he has told. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of question. Alternate translation: [In light of that story] or [Given all that]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT the lord of the vineyard
UST the man who owned the vineyard
(ὁ κύριος τοῦ ἀμπελῶνος)

Jesus is using the possessive form to describe a lord who owns the vineyard. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the lord who owned the vineyard] or [the man whose vineyard it is]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT comes
UST came back
(ἔλθῃ)

The word comes indicates that the lord of the vineyard returns to the vineyard. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [returns] or [visits them]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
lord	the man who owned
of … vineyard	vineyard

Matthew 21:41

ULT	UST
They say to him, “He will severely destroy those evil ones, and he will rent out the vineyard to other farmers who will repay him the fruits in their times.”	The ruling priests and the Jewish leaders replied, “He would kill those evil people! Then, he would rent the vineyard to other people who would give him his share of the grapes when it was time to harvest them.”

ULT They say
UST The ruling priests and the Jewish leaders replied
(λέγουσιν)

The pronoun they refers to the chief priests and elders. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to these people more directly. Alternate translation: [The chief priests and elders say]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT They say
UST The ruling priests and the Jewish leaders replied
(λέγουσιν)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [They said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT he will rent out the vineyard to other farmers
UST he would rent the vineyard to other people
(τὸν ἀμπελῶνα ἐκδώσεται ἄλλοις γεωργοῖς)

The chief priests and elders refer to the same kind of arrangement that Jesus referred to in 21:33. Express the idea as you did there. Alternate translation: [grant the use of it to other farmers]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

> ULT in their times
> UST when it was time to harvest them
> (ἐν τοῖς καιροῖς αὐτῶν)

The phrase in their times refers to the time of year when the grape vines produced grapes. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 21:34. Alternate translation: [at harvest time] or [when the grapes are ripe]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
He will … destroy	He would kill
vineyard	vineyard
fruits	his share of the grapes
times	it was time to harvest

Matthew 21:42

ULT	UST
Jesus says to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 'A stone that the builders rejected, this has become the head of the corner. This came about from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?	Jesus responded, "{What I have said fits with what} you have read in the Scriptures: 'The people who were constructing a building refused to use a certain stone. However, that stone is now the most important one in the building. The Lord {God} did that, and we think it is amazing.'

> ULT says
> UST responded
> (λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

> ULT to them
> UST responded
> (αὐτοῖς)

The pronoun them refers to the chief priests and the elders. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to them more directly. Alternate translation: [to the chief priests and elders]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT Did you never read in the Scriptures, A stone that the builders rejected, this has become the head of the corner. This came about from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes

UST { … What I have said fits with what} you have read in the Scriptures: The people who were constructing a building refused to use a certain stone. However, that stone is now the most important one in the building. The Lord {God} did that, and we think it is amazing

(οὐδέποτε ἀνέγνωτε ἐν ταῖς Γραφαῖς, λίθον ὃν ἀπεδοκίμασαν οἱ οἰκοδομοῦντες, οὗτος ἐγενήθη εἰς κεφαλὴν γωνίας; παρὰ Κυρίου ἐγένετο αὕτη, καὶ ἔστιν θαυμαστὴ ἐν ὀφθαλμοῖς ἡμῶν)

Jesus is using the question form to rebuke and teach the chief priests and elders. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [I know that you have read, ‘A stone that the builders rejected, this has become the head of the corner. This came about from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes.’] or [Surely you have read, ‘A stone that the builders rejected, this has become the head of the corner. This came about from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes’!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT Did you never read in the Scriptures

UST {What I have said fits with what} you have read in the Scriptures

(οὐδέποτε ἀνέγνωτε ἐν ταῖς Γραφαῖς)

Jesus introduces a quotation from an important text, in this case, the Old Testament book of Psalms (see Psalm 118:22–23). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase that indicates that Jesus is quoting from an important text. Alternate translation: [Did you never read in the book of Psalms] or [Have you never read what someone wrote in our Scriptures]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT A stone that the builders rejected, this has become the head of the corner
UST The people who were constructing a building refused to use a certain stone. However, that stone is now the most important one in the building (λίθον ὃν ἀπεδοκίμασαν οἱ οἰκοδομοῦντες, οὗτος ἐγενήθη εἰς κεφαλὴν γωνίας)

The author of the quotation speaks of a person whom others reject as if he were a stone that builders rejected. He speaks of this person gaining power and respect as if he became the head of the corner. Jesus is applying this quotation to himself as the stone. However, if possible, preserve the metaphor in your translation, or if necessary you could express the idea in simile form. Alternate translation: [A person who is like a stone that the builders rejected, that person has become like the head of the corner]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT A stone that the builders rejected
UST The people who were constructing a building refused to use a certain stone (λίθον ὃν ἀπεδοκίμασαν οἱ οἰκοδομοῦντες)

The author of the quotation is referring to the way people in this culture used stones to build the walls of houses and other buildings. In this case, the people do not want to use the stone for building. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [A stone that the builders thought was not good enough to use for building]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the head of the corner
UST the most important one in the building
(εἰς κεφαλὴν γωνίας)

The phrase the head of the corner refers to a specific stone that is especially key or important for a structure. It could be a stone at the corner of a wall, a stone at the top of an arch, or another important stone. You could use a term for one of these kinds of stones, or you could refer generally to an important or essential stone. Alternate translation: [the cornerstone] or [the capstone] or [the most important stone]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT This came about from the Lord
UST The Lord {God} did that (παρὰ Κυρίου ἐγένετο αὕτη)

Alternate translation: [The Lord has caused this]

> ULT in our eyes
> UST we think
> (ἐν ὀφθαλμοῖς ἡμῶν)

Here, eyes represent a person's judgement or evaluation. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [in our opinion] or [from our perspective]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
Scriptures	Scriptures
rejected	refused to use
the head of the corner	the most important one in the building
the Lord	The Lord {God}

Matthew 21:43

ULT	UST
For this reason I say to you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and will be given to a nation producing its fruits.	So then, here is what I want to tell you: God will stop you from participating in his kingdom. He will have a different group of people participate in his kingdom. They will do what he wants those in his kingdom to do.

ULT For this reason
UST So then, here is what
(διὰ τοῦτο)

The phrase For this reason introduces an inference based on the parable that Jesus has told and the quotation in the previous verse. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of inference. Alternate translation: [Because of that,] or [Therefore,]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT I say to you
UST I want to tell you
(λέγω ὑμῖν)

Jesus uses the clause I say to you to emphasize what he is telling the chief priests and elders. Use a natural form in your language for emphasizing the truth and importance of a statement. Alternate translation: [I want you to know]

Support Reference: Exclamations

ULT the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and will be given to a nation
UST God will stop you from participating in his kingdom. He will have a different group of people participate in his kingdom
(ἀρθήσεται ἀφ’ ὑμῶν ἡ Βασιλεία τοῦ Θεοῦ, καὶ δοθήσεται ἔθνει)

Jesus speaks as if the kingdom of God were an object that could be taken away and given. He means that the ability to be part of God’s kingdom will be taken away and given. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable image or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the ability to be in the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and will be given to a nation] or [the kingdom of God will no longer accept you and will accept a nation]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and will be given
UST God will stop you from participating in his kingdom. He will have … participate in his kingdom
(ἀρθήσεται ἀφ’ ὑμῶν ἡ Βασιλεία τοῦ Θεοῦ, καὶ δοθήσεται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the action, it is clear from the context that it will be God. Alternate translation: [God will take away his kingdom from you and give it]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT producing its fruits
UST They will do what he wants those in his kingdom to do
(ποιοῦντι τοὺς καρποὺς αὐτῆς)

Jesus speaks of how people behave as if they were plants that produced fruit. If it would be clearer in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [acting in its ways] or [perform its deeds]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT its fruits
UST what he wants those in his kingdom to do
(τοὺς καρποὺς αὐτῆς)

The pronoun its refers to the kingdom of God. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to the kingdom more directly. Alternate translation: [the kingdom’s fruits]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT its fruits
UST what he wants those in his kingdom to do
(τοὺς καρποὺς αὐτῆς)

Jesus is using the possessive form to describe fruits that are appropriate for the kingdom. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [fruits appropriate for it] or [fruits that are required for those who are in the kingdom]

Support Reference: Possession

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
kingdom of God	his kingdom

ULT	UST
to a nation	a different group of people
fruits	what he wants those in his kingdom to do

Matthew 21:44

ULT	UST
And the one having fallen on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it falls, it will crush him."	Any people who trip over the stone {that is now the most important one} will injure themselves. Further, that stone will squash anyone on whom it drops."

ULT And the one having fallen on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it falls, it will crush him
UST Any people who trip over the stone {that is now the most important one} will injure themselves. Further, that stone will squash anyone on whom it drops
(καὶ ὁ πεσὼν ἐπὶ τὸν λίθον τοῦτον, συνθλασθήσεται; ἐφ' ὃν δ' ἂν πέσῃ, λικμήσει αὐτόν)

Many ancient manuscripts include this verse. The ULT follows that reading. Some ancient manuscripts do not include this verse. If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

ULT the one having fallen on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it falls, it will crush him
UST Any people who trip over the stone {that is now the most important one} will injure themselves. Further, that stone will squash anyone on whom it drops
(ὁ πεσὼν ἐπὶ τὸν λίθον τοῦτον, συνθλασθήσεται; ἐφ' ὃν δ' ἂν πέσῃ, λικμήσει αὐτόν)

Jesus speaks of people who reject a person as if they had fallen on this stone and will be broken to pieces. He speaks of people whom this person punishes as if the stone fell on them and crushed them. Jesus is applying this quotation to himself as the stone. However, if possible, preserve the metaphor in your translation, or, if necessary, you could express the idea in simile form. Alternate translation: [people who have rejected the person I have mentioned are like people who fall on a stone and are broken to pieces. When the person I have mentioned punishes people, it is like a stone falling on them and crushing them]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the one having fallen on this stone will be broken to pieces
UST Any people who trip over the stone {that is now the most important one} will injure themselves (ὁ πεσὼν ἐπὶ τὸν λίθον τοῦτον, συνθλασθήσεται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who would do the action, it is clear from the context that it would be the stone. Alternate translation: [this stone will break to pieces the one having fallen on it]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT this stone
UST the stone {that is now the most important one}
(τὸν λίθον τοῦτον)

Here, this stone is the same stone as in 21:42. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [that stone] or [the stone that became the head of the corner]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT on whomever it falls, it will crush him
UST that stone will squash anyone on whom it drops
(ἐφ᾽ ὃν & ἂν πέσῃ, λικμήσει αὐτόν)

Jesus first introduces the person on whom the stone falls and then states what will happen to that person. If stating the topic and then referring back to it with the word him would be redundant in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [it will crush whomever it falls on]

Support Reference: Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

ULT him
UST anyone
(αὐτόν)

Although the term him is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [that person]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

Matthew 21:45

ULT	UST
And the chief priests and the Pharisees, having heard his parables, knew that he is speaking about them.	The ruling priests and the Pharisees listened to the stories that Jesus told. They realized that Jesus was telling {the stories} about them.

ULT he is speaking
UST Jesus was telling {the stories}
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [he was speaking]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
chief priests	ruling priests
Pharisees	Pharisees
parables	the stories
knew	They realized

Matthew 21:46

ULT	UST
And seeking to seize him, they feared the crowds, because they were regarding him as a prophet.	They wanted to arrest Jesus. However, since the large groups of people believed that Jesus spoke for God, they were afraid of how those people would react. {So, they did not arrest Jesus at that time.}

ULT And seeking to seize him, they feared the crowds, because they were regarding him as a prophet
UST They wanted to arrest Jesus. However, since the large groups of people believed that Jesus spoke for God, they were afraid of how those people would react. {So, they did not arrest Jesus at that time … }
(καὶ ζητοῦντες αὐτὸν κρατῆσαι, ἐφοβήθησαν τοὺς ὄχλους, ἐπεὶ εἰς προφήτην αὐτὸν εἶχον)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the last clause gives the reason for the result that the second clause describes. Alternate translation: [Now the crowds regarded him as a prophet, so they, seeking to arrest him, were afraid of those crowds]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT they feared the crowds
UST the large groups of people … they were afraid of how those people would react. {So, they did not arrest Jesus at that time … }
(ἐφοβήθησαν τοὺς ὄχλους)

Matthew implies that the chief priests and Pharisees did not seize Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they did not do so since they feared the crowds]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the crowds
UST the large groups of people
(τοὺς ὄχλους)

Matthew implies that the chief priests and the Pharisees feared what the crowds would do if they seized Jesus. They might have rioted or attacked them. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [what the crowd would do] or [that the crowd might riot]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
seeking	They wanted
to seize	to arrest
they feared	they were afraid of how those people would react. {So, they did not arrest Jesus at that time … }
a prophet	spoke for God

Matthew 22

Matthew 22 Chapter Introduction

Structure and Formatting

1. Jesus ministers in Judea (19:1–22:46)
    - The parable of the wedding feast (22:1–14)
    - Jesus debates with the religious leaders (22:15–46)
        - Jesus debates with the Pharisees and Herodians about taxes (22:15–22)
        - Jesus debates with the Sadducees about the resurrection (22:23–33)
        - Jesus debates with a lawyer about the greatest commandment (22:34–40)
        - Jesus asks the religious leaders about the Christ (22:41–46)

Some translations set each line of poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with the poetry in 22:44, which is a quote from Psalm 110:1.

Religious and Cultural Concepts in This Chapter

The poll tax

The word translated as “poll tax” refers to a specific amount of money that each adult person had to pay to the government. In Jesus’ time period, the Roman government required Jewish adults to pay a high tax. The Pharisees ask whether this tax that the Roman government required contradicted the law that God gave Moses. Make sure that your readers understand that the Pharisees are asking about a tax that the Roman government required each adult Jewish person to pay.

A man marrying his brother's widow

In 22:23–33, the Sadducees question Jesus in regard to a hypothetical situation in which a woman marries seven brothers in succession. This situation is based on a command in the Jewish law that can be found in Deuteronomy 25:5–6. The law requires a woman who is widowed without children to marry a brother of her late husband. The first child that they have together will be considered the child of the dead man. In this way, that man's family line would continue. The Sadducees present an extreme application of this law, with seven brothers successively marrying the same woman and dying without having children. They use this example to try to make the idea of resurrection look strange or silly. Make sure that your readers understand the example that the Sadducees present.

The great commandment

Jewish teachers sometimes debated which specific commandment was the greatest or most important one. This was important because, if commandments seemed to contradict each other in a specific situation, the greater one would be the correct one to obey. When the lawyer asks Jesus about "the first and great commandment" in 22:36, he wants Jesus to offer an opinion about this debate. Make sure that your readers understand that this is what the lawyer is asking about.

King David and the Christ

In 22:41–45, Jesus asks the Pharisees about which important person the Christ is descended from. They give a commonly accepted answer: the Christ is King David's descendant. Jesus then quotes from Psalm 110:1, in which King David, the author of the Psalm, calls God "Lord" but then also calls someone else, the Christ, "my Lord." Since people in David's culture called older and more important people "lord," it does not make sense for David to call his own descendant "Lord." When Jesus asks about this, he implies that the Christ is indeed King David's descendant, but he is also more than that. Make sure that this the discussion about calling someone "Lord" is clear to your readers.

Translation Issues in This Chapter

The Parable of the Wedding Feast

In 22:1–14, Jesus tells a story about a king whose son was getting married. He wanted to throw a feast, so he invited important people to come. However, they refused to come and even mistreated the king's servants. In response, the king punished those people and instead invited many unimportant people whom his servants found. When the king went to visit these guests, he noticed that one of them was not wearing clothing appropriate for a wedding feast. He had him tied up and punished. He applies this parable by indicating that many people are "called" to be part of God's kingdom but only a few of them are "chosen" to actually do so. In other words, just as the king invited many people to come to the feast, but only a few actually attended, so God invites many people to participate in his kingdom, but only a few actually do so. While you should not explain the meaning more than Jesus does, make sure that your translation fits with what Jesus is illustrating. (See: Parables)

Singular and plural forms of "you"

Many of the forms of "you" in this chapter appear in speeches that Jesus gives to the Jewish leaders or in things that the king in the parable says to his servants. Because of this, many forms of "you" in this chapter are plural. You should assume forms of "you" are plural unless a note specifies that the form is singular. (See: Forms of 'You' — Singular)

Paradox

A paradox is a statement that describes two things that seemingly cannot both be true at the same time. To the Jews, ancestors were greater than their descendants. However, in one psalm David calls one of his descendants "Lord." Jesus tells the Jewish leaders that this is a paradox, asking, "If David then calls the Christ 'Lord,' how is he David's son?" (22:45). He is trying to lead his hearers to the true understanding that the Christ will be divine, and that he himself is the Christ. So David is speaking to his son, that is, his descendant, as the Christ, and it is appropriate for him to address him as his "Lord."

Matthew 22:1

ULT	UST
And answering, Jesus again spoke to them in parables, saying,	Then Jesus used more stories to teach the chief priests and the Jewish leaders. He said,

ULT answering
UST Then
(ἀποκριθεὶς)

The word answering indicates that Jesus is responding to how the chief priests and the Pharisees wanted to arrest him (see 21:45–46). He is not responding to something that they said to him. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [responding to what they wanted to do] or [in response]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT to them
UST the chief priests and the Jewish leaders
(αὐτοῖς)

The pronoun them refers to the chief priests, the elders, and the Pharisees, with whom Jesus has been talking. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to these people more directly. Alternate translation: [to the chief priests, the elders, and the Pharisees] or [to the Jewish leaders]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT saying
UST He said
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he declared]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
parables	stories

Matthew 22:2

ULT	UST
“The kingdom of the heavens is compared to a man, a king, who made a wedding feast for his son.	“Here is what God’s heavenly kingdom is like: a king prepared a banquet to celebrate his son, who was getting married.

ULT The kingdom of the heavens is compared to a man
UST Here is what God’s heavenly kingdom is like: a king
(ὡμοιώθη ἡ Βασιλεία τῶν Οὐρανῶν ἀνθρώπῳ)

To teach the Jewish leaders, Jesus offers a story or illustration. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could indicate that explicitly. Alternate translation: [Listen to this story: the kingdom of the heavens is compared to a man]

Support Reference: Parables

ULT The kingdom of the heavens is compared to
UST Here is what God’s heavenly kingdom is like
(ὡμοιώθη ἡ Βασιλεία τῶν Οὐρανῶν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who does the comparing, it is clear from the context that it is Jesus himself. Alternate translation: [I compare the kingdom of the heavens to]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
kingdom of the heavens	God’s heavenly kingdom
of the heavens	heavenly
a king	a king
a wedding feast	a banquet … who was getting married

Matthew 22:3

ULT	UST
And he sent out his servants to call the ones having been invited to the wedding feast, and they were not willing to come.	{When it was time for the banquet,} the king told his servants to summon the people that he had asked to attend the banquet. However, those people refused to attend {the banquet}.

ULT he sent out his servants to call the ones having been invited to the wedding feast
UST the king told his servants to summon the people that he had asked to attend the banquet (ἀπέστειλεν τοὺς δούλους αὐτοῦ, καλέσαι τοὺς κεκλημένους εἰς τοὺς γάμους)

Jesus implies that the king had already sent out invitations and was now sending his servants to let people know that it was time to come to the feast. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [he invited many guests to the wedding feast. When it was time, he sent out his servants to call the ones having been invited]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT to call the ones having been invited to the wedding feast
UST to summon the people that he had asked to attend the banquet
(καλέσαι τοὺς κεκλημένους εἰς τοὺς γάμους)

The phrase to the wedding feast could go with: (1) the phrase had been invited. Alternate translation: [to call the ones having been invited to be guests at the wedding feast]; (2) the phrase to call. Alternate translation: [to call to go to the wedding feast the ones having been invited]

Support Reference: Information Structure

ULT the ones having been invited
UST the people that he had asked
(τοὺς κεκλημένους)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was king himself. Alternate translation: [the ones that the king had invited]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT and
UST However
(καὶ)

The word and introduces what actually happened in contrast to what the king wanted. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a contrast. Alternate translation: [but]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT to come
UST to attend {the banquet}
(ἐλθεῖν)

In a context such as this, your language might say “go” instead of come. Alternate translation: [to go]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
servants	servants
to call	to summon
having been invited	the people that he had asked
wedding feast	banquet

Matthew 22:4

ULT	UST
Again he sent other servants, saying, ‘Say to the ones having been invited, “Behold, I have prepared my dinner. My bulls and fattened calves have been killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding feast.”’	So, the king told different servants to summon again the people he had asked to attend {the banquet}. He instructed them to say that the meal was ready, that his servants had prepared special cows to eat and everything else, and that they should attend the banquet.

ULT saying, ‘Say to the ones having been invited, “Behold, I have prepared my dinner. My bulls and fattened calves have been killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding feast

UST the people he had asked to attend {the banquet}. He instructed them to say that the meal was ready, that his servants had prepared special cows to eat and everything else, and that they should attend the banquet

(λέγων, εἴπατε τοῖς κεκλημένοις, ἰδοὺ, τὸ ἄριστόν μου ἡτοίμακα, οἱ ταῦροί μου καὶ τὰ σιτιστὰ τεθυμένα, καὶ πάντα ἕτοιμα; δεῦτε εἰς τοὺς γάμους)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there are not quotations within quotations. Alternate translation: [telling them to say to the ones having been invited that he had prepared his dinner, that his oxen and fattened calves had been killed, and that all things were ready, so they should come to the wedding feast]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT saying

UST He instructed them

(λέγων)

If you keep the direct quotation, consider natural ways of introducing it in your language. Alternate translation: [and he told them]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

> ULT to the ones having been invited
> UST the people he had asked to attend {the banquet}
> (τοῖς κεκλημένοις)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the king himself. Alternate translation: [the ones that I have invited]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT Behold
> (ἰδοὺ)

The word Behold is intended to draw the attention of the people who were invited and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express Behold with a word or phrase that asks these people to listen. Alternate translation: [Listen] or [Take notice:]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT I have prepared my dinner
> UST that the meal was ready
> (τὸ ἄριστόν μου ἡτοίμακα)

The king implies that he had his servants prepare the dinner. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [I have had people prepare my dinner]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT My bulls and fattened calves have been killed
> UST that his servants had prepared special cows to eat
> (οἱ ταῦροί μου καὶ τὰ σιτιστὰ τεθυμένα)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the king's servants. Alternate translation: [My servants have killed my oxen and fattened calves]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT My bulls and fattened calves
UST special cows to eat
(οἱ ταῦροί μου καὶ τὰ σιτιστὰ)

The word bulls refers to male cattle. The phrase fattened calves refers to young cows that were specially fed and taken care of until they were slaughtered. These animals were valuable and considered to be very good for food for humans. If your readers would not be familiar with these types of animals, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [My male cows and specially fed young cows] or [The special animals that we will eat]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT have been killed
UST that his servants had prepared (τεθυμένα)

The king implies that the oxen and fattened calves have been slaughtered and prepared for eating. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [have been prepared as food]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Come
UST and that they should attend
(δεῦτε)

This is an imperative, but it should be translated as a polite request rather than as a command. It may be helpful to add an expression such as “please” to make this clear. Alternate translation: [I ask that you come]

Support Reference: Imperatives — Other Uses

ULT Come
UST and that they should attend
(δεῦτε)

In a context such as this, your language might say “Go” instead of Come. Alternate translation: [Go]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
servants	servants
wedding feast	banquet

Matthew 22:5

ULT	UST
But they, having paid no attention, went away, one to his own field and one to his business.	However, the people {that the king had asked to attend the banquet} ignored his servants. Instead, some of them left for other places, like their farms or workplaces.

ULT But
UST However
(δὲ)

The word But introduces what those people did in contrast to what the king asked them to do. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Despite that,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT went away, one to his own field and one to his business
UST Instead, some of them left for other places, like their farms or workplaces (ἀπῆλθον, ὃς & εἰς τὸν ἴδιον ἀγρόν, ὃς δὲ ἐπὶ τὴν ἐμπορίαν αὐτοῦ)

Jesus gives examples of what some of the people did instead of attending the wedding feast. He does not mean that there were only two people who were invited. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [went away to do other things, like taking care of fields or businesses]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT his own … his
UST like their farms or workplaces
(τὸν ἴδιον & αὐτοῦ)

Although the terms his and his are masculine, Jesus is using the words in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [to his or her own … his or her]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

Matthew 22:6

ULT	UST
But the rest, having seized his servants, mistreated and killed {them}.	Other {people that the king had asked to attend the banquet} grabbed his servants. They abused some of them, and they killed some of them.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces what other guests did in contrast to what some guests did as described in the previous verse. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces that kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [In contrast,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT the rest
UST Other {people that the king had asked to attend the banquet}
(οἱ & λοιποὶ)

Jesus is using the adjective rest as a noun to mean the rest of the invited guests. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the rest of the guests]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT mistreated and killed {them}
UST They abused some of them, and they killed some of them
(ὕβρισαν καὶ ἀπέκτειναν)

Jesus implies that some of them mistreated some of the servants, while others killed some of the servants. They did not always mistreat and kill each servant. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [mistreated some and killed others]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having seized	grabbed
servants	servants

Matthew 22:7

ULT	UST
But the king became angry, and having sent his soldiers, he destroyed those murderers and burned their city.	So, the king was very upset. He told his soldiers to kill the people who killed his servants and to burn down their town.

ULT But
UST So
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT he destroyed those murderers and burned their city
UST to kill the people who killed his servants and to burn down their town (ἀπώλεσεν τοὺς φονεῖς ἐκείνους, καὶ τὴν πόλιν αὐτῶν ἐνέπρησεν)

Jesus implies that the king had his soldiers destroy those murderers and burn their city. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [he had them kill those murders and burn their city]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
king	king
he destroyed	to kill

Matthew 22:8

ULT	UST
Then he says to his servants, 'The wedding feast is ready, but the ones having been invited were not worthy.	After that, the king told his servants that, although the feast for his son's wedding was ready, the people he had asked to attend did not deserve to be there.

ULT he says to his servants, 'The wedding feast is ready, but the ones having been invited were not worthy … Therefore, go to the crossings of the roads and invite as many as you find to the wedding feast
UST the king told his servants … the feast for his son's wedding was ready, the people he had asked to attend did not deserve to be there … So, {he told his servants} to walk to the intersections of the main roads and to tell the people they encountered to attend the feast for his son's wedding (λέγει τοῖς δούλοις αὐτοῦ, ὁ & γάμος ἕτοιμός ἐστιν, οἱ δὲ κεκλημένοι οὐκ ἦσαν ἄξιοι; πορεύεσθε οὖν ἐπὶ τὰς διεξόδους τῶν ὁδῶν, καὶ ὅσους ἐὰν εὕρητε, καλέσατε εἰς τοὺς γάμους) (22:8-9)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [he told his servants that the wedding feast was ready, but the ones having been invited were not worthy. So, he commanded them to go to the crossings of the roads and invite as many as they found to the wedding feast]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT he says
UST the king told
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [he said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT the ones having been invited
UST the people he had asked to attend
(οἱ & κεκλημένοι)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the king himself. Alternate translation: [the ones that I had invited]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT worthy
> UST did … deserve to be there
> (ἄξιοι)

The king implies that the people were not worthy to attend the wedding feast. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [worthy to come] or [worthy to be at the feast]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
to … servants	servants
wedding feast	feast for his son's wedding

Matthew 22:9

ULT	UST
Therefore, go to the crossings of the roads and invite as many as you find to the wedding feast.'	So, {he told his servants} to walk to the intersections of the main roads and to tell the people they encountered to attend the feast for his son's wedding.

ULT go
UST {he told his servants} to walk
(πορεύεσθε)

In a context such as this, your language might say "come" instead of go. Alternate translation: [come]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT the crossings of the roads
UST the intersections of the main roads
(τὰς διεξόδους τῶν ὁδῶν)

The phrase the crossings of the roads could refer to: (1) the places where roads cross other roads. Alternate translation: [the street crossings]; (2) the places where roads from the city cross into the country. Alternate translation: [where the roads leave the city]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
wedding feast	feast for his son's wedding

Matthew 22:10

ULT	UST
And those servants, having gone out to the roads, gathered together all whom they found, both evil and good, and the wedding was filled {with those} reclining to eat.	So, his servants walked to {the intersections of} the roads. They brought all the people they encountered, whether those people did what was right or did what was wrong. Then, the wedding hall was full of people who were feasting.

ULT having gone out
UST walked
(ἐξελθόντες)

In a context such as this, your language might say “come” instead of gone. Alternate translation: [having come out]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT both evil and good
UST whether those people did what was right or did what was wrong
(πονηρούς τε καὶ ἀγαθούς)

Jesus is using the adjectives evil and good as nouns to mean certain kinds of people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you can translate these words with equivalent phrases. Alternate translation: [both evil people and good people]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT the wedding was filled {with those} reclining to eat
UST the wedding hall was full of people who were feasting
(ἐπλήσθη ὁ γάμος ἀνακειμένων)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [those reclining to eat filled the wedding]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the wedding
UST the wedding hall
(ὁ γάμος)

Here, wedding represents the place where the wedding celebration would take place. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [place for the wedding]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT {with those} reclining to eat
UST of people who were feasting
(ἀνακειμένων)

In Jesus' culture, people would usually recline, or lie on one side, when they were eating. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to the position in which people eat in your culture, or you could just refer to eating. Alternate translation: [with those sitting down to eat] or [with those ready to eat]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
servants	his servants
gathered together	They brought evil	did what was wrong
good	those people did what was right

Matthew 22:11

ULT	UST
But the king, having come in to look at the ones reclining to eat, saw there a man not wearing wedding clothes.	The king went into the hall to see the people who were feasting. {While he was} there, he noticed that one person did not have on the proper clothing for a wedding.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT having come in
UST went into the hall
(εἰσελθὼν)

In a context such as this, your language might say “gone” instead of come. Alternate translation: [having gone in]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT the ones reclining to eat
UST the people who were feasting
(τοὺς ἀνακειμένους)

In Jesus’ culture, people would usually recline, or lie on one side, when they were eating. See how you expressed the idea in 22:10. Alternate translation: [the ones sitting down to eat] or [the ones ready to eat]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT wedding clothes
> UST the proper clothing for a wedding
> (ἔνδυμα γάμου)

The phrase wedding clothes refers to nice or special clothing that people would wear to weddings. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of clothing, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [appropriate clothes] or [the correct clothing]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
king	king

Matthew 22:12

ULT	UST
And he says to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here, not having wedding clothes?' But he was silent.	The king called him friend and told him that he should not have attended without having on the proper clothing for a wedding. The person had nothing to say in response.

ULT he says to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here, not having wedding clothes
UST The king called him friend and told him that he should not have attended without having on the proper clothing for a wedding (λέγει αὐτῷ, ἑταῖρε, πῶς εἰσῆλθες ὧδε μὴ ἔχων ἔνδυμα γάμου)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [and asked him politely how he came in that place, not having wedding clothes.]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT he says
UST The king called
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Jesus uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [he said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT how did you come in here, not having wedding clothes
UST and told him that he should not have attended without having on the proper clothing for a wedding
(πῶς εἰσῆλθες ὧδε μὴ ἔχων ἔνδυμα γάμου)

The king is using the question form to rebuke the man who was not wearing wedding clothes. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [it was wrong for you to come in here, not having wedding clothes.] or [you should never have come in here, not having wedding clothes!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

> ULT did you come in
> UST and told him that he … have attended
> (εἰσῆλθες)

Here, the word you is singular because the king is speaking to one of the wedding guests.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

> ULT did you come in
> UST and told him that he … have attended
> (εἰσῆλθες)

In a context such as this, your language might say "go" instead of come. Alternate translation: [did you go in]

Support Reference: Go and Come

> ULT wedding clothes
> UST the proper clothing for a wedding
> (ἔνδυμα γάμου)

The phrase wedding clothes refers to very good or special clothing that people would wear to weddings. Express the idea as you did in 22:11. Alternate translation: [appropriate clothes] or [the correct clothing]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

Matthew 22:13

ULT	UST
Then the king said to the servants, 'Having bound his feet and hands, throw him out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.'	After that, the king told his servants to tie the person up and cast him out {of the wedding hall}. {He told them to punish him} in a dark place, where people will cry and sorrowfully grind their teeth.

ULT the king said to the servants, 'Having bound his feet and hands, throw him out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth
UST the king told his servants to tie the person up and cast him out {of the wedding hall}. {He told them to punish him} in a dark place, where people will cry and sorrowfully grind their teeth
(ὁ βασιλεὺς εἶπεν τοῖς διακόνοις, δήσαντες αὐτοῦ πόδας καὶ χεῖρας, ἐκβάλετε αὐτὸν εἰς τὸ σκότος τὸ ἐξώτερον; ἐκεῖ ἔσται ὁ κλαυθμὸς καὶ ὁ βρυγμὸς τῶν ὀδόντων)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [the king commanded his servants to bind his feet and hands and to throw him out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth
UST {He told them to punish him} in a dark place, where people will cry and sorrowfully grind their teeth
(εἰς τὸ σκότος τὸ ἐξώτερον; ἐκεῖ ἔσται ὁ κλαυθμὸς καὶ ὁ βρυγμὸς τῶν ὀδόντων)

The clause where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth could be: (1) something that the king says. Alternate translation: [into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.']; (2) something that Jesus adds in comment. Alternate translation: [into the outer darkness.' That is where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT into the outer darkness
UST {He told them to punish him} in a dark place
(εἰς τὸ σκότος τὸ ἐξώτερον)

The phrase the outer darkness refers to a place of punishment. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. If possible, preserve the idea of darkness. See how you expressed the similar idea in 8:12. Alternate translation: [into the dark place of punishment]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the outer darkness
UST {He told them to punish him} in a dark place
(τὸ σκότος τὸ ἐξώτερον)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of darkness, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the dark place outside]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT grinding of the teeth
UST sorrowfully grind their teeth
(ὁ βρυγμὸς τῶν ὀδόντων)

In Jesus' culture, people would grind their teeth when they experienced anger, grief, and pain. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to an action with comparable meaning or state the meaning of this action plainly. See how you expressed this phrase in 8:12. Alternate translation: [beating of breasts] or [grinding of the teeth in anger and pain]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
king	king
to the servants	his servants
Having bound	to tie the person up
throw … out	and cast … out {of the wedding hall}

Matthew 22:14

ULT	UST
For many are called, but few chosen.”	As that story illustrates, God summons many people {to participate in his kingdom}. However, he only chooses a few of them {to do so}.”

ULT For
UST As that story illustrates
(γάρ)

The word For introduces Jesus’ explanation of the story he has just told. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces an explanation. Alternate translation: [Here is what I mean:] or [What that parable illustrates is that]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT many are called, but few chosen
UST God summons many people {to participate in his kingdom}. However, he only chooses a few of them {to do so}
(πολλοὶ & εἰσιν κλητοὶ, ὀλίγοι δὲ ἐκλεκτοί)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who does the action, it is clear from the context that it is God. Alternate translation: [God calls many, but he chooses few]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT many … few
UST many people … a few of them
(πολλοὶ & ὀλίγοι)

Matthew is using the adjectives many and few as nouns to mean many people and few people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate these words with equivalent phrases. Alternate translation: [many people … few people]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT called … chosen
UST God summons … to participate in his kingdom … he only chooses … to do so (κλητοὶ & ἐκλεκτοί)

Jesus implies that people are called and chosen to enter into God's kingdom. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [called to enter God's kingdom … chosen to enter it]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT few chosen
UST he only chooses a few of them {to do so}
(ὀλίγοι & ἐκλεκτοί)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [few are chosen]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
called	God summons … to participate in his kingdom
chosen	he only chooses … to do so

Matthew 22:15

ULT	UST
Then, having gone, the Pharisees took counsel how they might entrap him in word.	After {Jesus said those things}, the Pharisees left {that place}. They started to plan how they could cause him to make a mistake in what he said.

ULT Then
UST After {Jesus said those things}
(τότε)

The word Then introduces the next major event in the story. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Then untranslated. Alternate translation: [Later on] or [Sometime later]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT having gone
UST left {that place}
(πορευθέντες)

In a context such as this, your language might say “come” instead of gone. Alternate translation: [having come]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT took counsel
UST They started to plan
(συμβούλιον ἔλαβον)

The phrase took counsel indicates that the Pharisees were working together to figure something out. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the similar phrase in 12:14. Alternate translation: [made plans concerning] or [came up with ideas for]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT they might entrap him
> UST they could cause him to make a mistake
> (αὐτὸν παγιδεύσωσιν)

Matthew is speaking as if the Pharisees wanted to catch Jesus in a trap. He means that they wanted to get Jesus to say something that would allow them to accuse him of doing wrong. If it would be helpful for your readers, you could use a comparable figure of speech or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [they might catch him] or [they might cause him to make an error]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT in word
> UST in what he said
> (ἐν λόγῳ)

Here, word represents something said in words. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [in his speech]

Support Reference: Metonymy

> ULT in word
> UST in what he said
> (ἐν λόγῳ)

The phrase in word could refer to things spoken by: (1) Jesus. Alternate translation: [in his words]; (2) the Pharisees. Alternate translation: [with their words]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Pharisees	the Pharisees
counsel	They started to plan
they might entrap	they could cause … to make a mistake

Matthew 22:16

ULT	UST
And they send to him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful, and you teach the way of God in truth, and it is not a concern to you about anyone, for you do not look at the face of men.	So, the Pharisees told some of their apprentices and some people who supported King Herod to go to Jesus and say to him, "Our instructor, we realize that you say what is true. Further, you truthfully instruct people in what God wants them to do. You do not pay attention to how important or powerful people are. So, you do not care about what other people think.

ULT they send
UST the Pharisees told … to go
(ἀποστέλλουσιν)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [they sent]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT the Herodians
UST some people who supported King Herod
(τῶν Ἡρῳδιανῶν)

The Herodians were a group of people who supported the ruler Herod Antipas. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a short phrase to describe them. Alternate translation: [people who wanted King Herod to continue to rule]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT saying
UST and say to him
(λέγοντας)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

> ULT you are … you teach … to you … you do not look
> UST you say … you … instruct people in … You do not pay attention … you > (εἶ & διδάσκεις & σοι & οὐ & βλέπεις)

Throughout this verse, the word you is singular because the Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees are speaking to Jesus.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

> ULT the way of God
> UST what God wants them to do
> (τὴν ὁδὸν τοῦ Θεοῦ)

The Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees are using the possessive form to describe a way that God desires or approves of. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the way that pleases God]

Support Reference: Possession

> ULT the way of God
> UST what God wants them to do
> (τὴν ὁδὸν τοῦ Θεοῦ)

Jesus uses the word way to refer to behavior in life. More specifically, he means that this behavior pleases God. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable figure of speech or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [behavior that pleases God]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT in truth
> UST truthfully
> (ἐν ἀληθείᾳ)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of truth, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [in a truthful way]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

> ULT it is not a concern to you about anyone, for you do not look at the face of men
> UST You do not pay attention to how important or powerful people are. So, you do not care about what other people think > (οὐ μέλει σοι περὶ οὐδενός, οὐ γὰρ βλέπεις εἰς πρόσωπον ἀνθρώπων)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [since you do not look at the face of men, it is not a concern to you about anyone]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

> ULT it is not a concern to you about anyone
> UST you do not care about what other people think
> (οὐ μέλει σοι περὶ οὐδενός)

The Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees use this clause to say that Jesus does not care what others think and say about him. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [you do not concern yourself with the opinions of others] or [you are not influenced by what others think of you]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT it is not a concern to you about anyone
> UST you do not care about what other people think
> (οὐ μέλει σοι περὶ οὐδενός)

The words translated as not and anyone are two negative words in the original language. In this construction, the second negative does not cancel the first to create a positive meaning. Instead, it gives greater emphasis to the negative. If your language can use two negatives that do not cancel one another to create a positive meaning, you could use a double negative here. If your language does not use two negatives in that way, you could translate with one negative, as the ULT does. Alternate translation: [it is a concern to you about no one]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

> ULT it is not a concern to you
> UST you do not care
> (οὐ μέλει σοι)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of concern, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [nothing concerns you]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT for you do not look at the face of men
UST You do not pay attention to how important or powerful people are. So (οὐ γὰρ βλέπεις εἰς πρόσωπον ἀνθρώπων)

To look at the face of men refers to making decisions about how to treat people based on how they appear. People who look at the face of men treat wealthy and important people differently than they treat poor and unimportant people. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [for you do not judge men by appearances] or [for you do not treat people based on what they look like]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT of men
UST to how important or powerful people are (ἀνθρώπων)

Although the term men is masculine, the Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees are using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [of humans]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
disciples	some of … apprentices
Teacher	Our instructor
we know	we realize
of God	God wants

Matthew 22:17

ULT	UST
Therefore, tell us, what do you think? Is it lawful to give a poll tax to Caesar, or not?"	So, please tell us how you answer this question: Does our law allow us to pay taxes to the Roman government, or {does it} not {allow that}?"

ULT Therefore
UST So
(οὖν)

The word Therefore introduces what the Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees want to ask because of what they have claimed to think about Jesus. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of question, or you could leave Therefore untranslated. Alternate translation: [So then] or [Since you teach that way]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT tell us, what do you think
UST please tell us how you answer this question
(εἰπὲ & ἡμῖν, τί σοι δοκεῖ)

The Herodians and the Pharisees are using the question form to get the attention of Jesus. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [tell us what you think.] or [tell us what you think!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT tell
UST please tell
(εἰπὲ)

This is an imperative, but it should be translated as a polite request rather than as a command. It may be helpful to add an expression such as "please" to make this clear. Alternate translation: [we ask that you tell]

Support Reference: Imperatives — Other Uses

ULT tell … you
UST please tell … you
(εἰπὲ & σοι)

The imperative and the word you are singular because the Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees are speaking to Jesus.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT Is it lawful
UST Does our law allow (ἔξεστιν)

The word lawful could be referring to: (1) whether something is permitted by the Jewish law that God gave to Moses. Alternate translation: [Does the law that God gave to Moses permit us]; (2) whether something is generally right or wrong. Alternate translation: [Is it right] or [Is it appropriate]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT to Caesar
UST to the Roman government
(Καίσαρι)

Here, Caesar represents the Roman leaders and government in general. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [to the Roman leaders] or [to the Roman empire]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT not
UST does it} not {allow that} (οὔ)

The Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees are leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [is it not lawful to do so]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Is it lawful	Does our law allow a poll tax	taxes

ULT	UST
to Caesar	to the Roman government

Matthew 22:18

ULT	UST
But Jesus, having known their wickedness, said, "Why are you testing me, hypocrites?	However, Jesus knew that they were trying to harm him. So, he replied, "You are trying to make me say something wrong. You pretend to respect me, but you really do not!

ULT But
UST However
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT their wickedness
UST that they were trying to harm him
(τὴν πονηρίαν αὐτῶν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of wickedness, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [that they were acting wickedly]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT Why are you testing me, hypocrites
UST You are trying to make me say something wrong. You pretend to respect me, but you really do not (τί με πειράζετε, ὑποκριταί)

Jesus is using the question form to rebuke the Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [I know that you are testing me, hypocrites.] or [Stop testing me, hypocrites!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
having known	knew
wickedness	that they were trying to harm him

ULT	UST
are you testing	You are trying to make me say something wrong
hypocrites	You pretend to respect me, but you really do not

Matthew 22:19

ULT	UST
Show me the coin of the poll tax.” And they brought a denarius to him.	Hand me one of the coins that you use to pay taxes.” Someone handed him a Roman coin.

ULT the coin of the poll tax
UST one of the coins that you use to pay taxes
(τὸ νόμισμα τοῦ κήνσου)

Jesus is using the possessive form to describe a coin that is used to pay the poll tax. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the coin used to pay the poll tax]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT they
UST Someone
(οἱ)

The pronoun they refers to the people who were there, more specifically the Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to these people more directly. Alternate translation: [the disciples of the Pharisees and the Herodians] or [the people there]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT a denarius
UST a Roman coin
(δηνάριον)

A denarius was a silver coin equivalent to about one day’s wage for a hired worker. You could try to express this amount in terms of current monetary values, but that might cause your Bible translation to become outdated and inaccurate, since those values can change over time. So instead you might state something more general or give the equivalent in wages. Alternate translation: [a silver coin] or [a coin worth one day’s wage]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
of the poll tax	that you use to pay taxes

Matthew 22:20

ULT	UST
And he says to them, "Whose image and inscription {is} this?"	Then Jesus asked, "Whose picture and name are on this coin?"

ULT he says
UST Jesus asked
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [he said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT to them
UST Jesus asked
(αὐτοῖς)

The pronoun them refers to the Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to these people more directly. Alternate translation: [to the Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT image and inscription {is} this
UST picture and name are on this coin
(ἡ εἰκὼν αὕτη καὶ ἡ ἐπιγραφή)

In Jesus' culture, when governments made coins, they would usually put the face of the king or leader on one side, and they would usually have writing on the coin that honored that king or leader. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make this practice more explicit. Alternate translation: [face and words of honor did the Roman government stamp on this coin]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT inscription
UST name
(ἡ ἐπιγραφή)

The word inscription refers to a few words carved or pressed into a hard surface. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of writing, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [writing] or [written message]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
image	picture

Matthew 22:21

ULT	UST
They say, “Caesar’s.” Then he says to them, “Therefore, give back the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God.”	They replied, “{It is} Caesar’s {picture and name}.” Then Jesus said, “In that case, give to the Roman government what belongs to it, and give to God what belongs to him.”

ULT They say … he says
UST They replied … Jesus said
(λέγουσιν & λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [They said and he said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT Caesar’s
UST It is} Caesar’s {picture and name}
(Καίσαρος)

The Herodians and the disciples of the Pharisees are leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from the previous verse if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [The image and inscription are Caesar’s]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT Caesar’s
UST It is} Caesar’s {picture and name}
(Καίσαρος)

The fact that the image and inscription on the coin are Caesar’s implies that they were created by the empire that Caesar ruled, the Roman empire. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [They are of Caesar, the man who rules the Roman empire]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the things of Caesar to Caesar
UST to the Roman government what belongs to it
(τὰ Καίσαρος Καίσαρι)

Here, Caesar represents the Roman leaders and government in general. See how you translated this word in 22:17, but make sure that the connection to the answer Caesar's earlier in the verse is clear. Alternate translation: [the things of the Roman leaders to the Roman leaders] or [the things of the Roman empire to the Roman empire]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT and the things of God to God
UST and give to God what belongs to him
(καὶ τὰ τοῦ Θεοῦ τῷ Θεῷ)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [and give back the things of God to God]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Caesar's	It is} Caesar's {picture and name}
of Caesar to Caesar	to the Roman government … belongs to it
Caesar to	to the Roman government
of God to God	give to God … belongs to him
God to	give to God

Matthew 22:22

ULT	UST
And having heard {it}, they marveled, and having left him, they went away.	What Jesus said impressed the Pharisees' apprentices and the people who supported King Herod. They left where he was.

ULT they went away

UST They left where he was (ἀπῆλθαν)

In a context such as this, your language might say "came" instead of went. Alternate translation: [they came away]

Support Reference: Go and Come

Matthew 22:23

ULT	UST
On that day Sadducees, saying there is no resurrection, approached him and questioned him,	Later that day, some Sadducees came to Jesus. They are a Jewish group that does not believe that God will make people who have died alive again. They asked Jesus,

ULT On that day
UST Later that day
(ἐν ἐκείνῃ τῇ ἡμέρᾳ)

The phrase On that day indicates that this event happened later that same day, after the previous event that Matthew described. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces an event that happened later on the same day. Alternate translation: [Later on that same day,]

Support Reference: Connect — Sequential Time Relationship

ULT On that day Sadducees, saying there is no resurrection, approached him and questioned him
UST Later that day, some Sadducees came to Jesus. They are a Jewish group that does not believe that God will make people who have died alive again. They asked Jesus
(ἐν ἐκείνῃ τῇ ἡμέρᾳ προσῆλθον αὐτῷ Σαδδουκαῖοι λέγοντες, μὴ εἶναι ἀνάστασιν, καὶ ἐπηρώτησαν αὐτὸν)

Matthew is introducing the Sadducees as new participants in the story. If your language has its own way of introducing new participants, you could use it here in your translation. Alternate translation: [On that day some people approached him. They were Sadducees, people who say that there is no resurrection. They questioned him]

Support Reference: Introduction of New and Old Participants

ULT On that day Sadducees, saying there is no resurrection, approached him
UST Later that day, some Sadducees came to Jesus. They are a Jewish group that does not believe that God will make people who have died alive again
(ἐν ἐκείνῃ τῇ ἡμέρᾳ προσῆλθον αὐτῷ Σαδδουκαῖοι λέγοντες, μὴ εἶναι ἀνάστασιν)

Matthew provides background information about the Sadducees that will help readers understand what happens next. Use a natural form in your language for introducing background information. Alternate translation: [Now the Sadducees teach that there is no resurrection. On that day, some of them approached him]

Support Reference: Background Information

ULT there is no resurrection
UST not … that God will make people who have died alive again
(μὴ εἶναι ἀνάστασιν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of resurrection, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [that people do not resurrect]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
day	Later that day
Sadducees	some Sadducees
resurrection	that God will make people who have died alive again

Matthew 22:24

ULT	UST
saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If someone dies, not having children, his brother will marry his wife and will raise up seed for his brother.'	"Our instructor, Moses wrote {in the Scriptures} about what should happen when a man with {a wife but} no children dies. When that happens, the man's brother should marry the dead man's wife. When they have a child, they should consider it to be the child of the dead man.

ULT saying
(λέγοντες)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT Moses said, 'If someone dies, not having children, his brother will marry his wife and will raise up seed for his brother
UST Moses wrote {in the Scriptures} about what should happen when a man with {a wife but} no children dies. When that happens, the man's brother should marry the dead man's wife. When they have a child, they should consider it to be the child of the dead man (Μωϋσῆς εἶπεν, ἐάν τις ἀποθάνῃ μὴ ἔχων τέκνα, ἐπιγαμβρεύσει ὁ ἀδελφὸς αὐτοῦ τὴν γυναῖκα αὐτοῦ, καὶ ἀναστήσει σπέρμα τῷ ἀδελφῷ αὐτοῦ)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [Moses said that if someone has died, not having children, his brother will marry his wife and will raise up seed for his brother]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT Moses said
UST Moses wrote {in the Scriptures}
(Μωϋσῆς εἶπεν)

The Sadducees introduce a summary of a section of an important text, in this case, the Old Testament book of Deuteronomy (see Deuteronomy 25:5–6). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase that indicates that the Sadducees are summarizing an important text. Alternate translation: [Moses wrote in the book of Deuteronomy] or [Moses declared in the law]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT If someone dies, not having children, his brother will marry
UST about what should happen when a man with {a wife but} no children dies. When that happens, the man's brother should marry (ἐάν τις ἀποθάνῃ μὴ ἔχων τέκνα, ἐπιγαμβρεύσει ὁ ἀδελφὸς αὐτοῦ)

Here Moses uses an imaginary situation to show what should happen when that kind of situation actually happens. Use a natural method in your language for introducing an imaginary situation. Alternate translation: [Suppose that someone has died, not having children. Then, his brother will marry]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT his brother will marry his wife and will raise up seed for his brother
UST When that happens, the man's brother should marry the dead man's wife. When they have a child, they should consider it to be the child of the dead man (ἐπιγαμβρεύσει ὁ ἀδελφὸς αὐτοῦ τὴν γυναῖκα αὐτοῦ, καὶ ἀναστήσει σπέρμα τῷ ἀδελφῷ αὐτοῦ)

Here Moses required that, when a man's brother died without having any children even though he was married, the man had to marry his brother's widow. The first child that they had would be considered offspring of the man's deceased brother. That way, the deceased brother's family line could continue. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make that idea more explicit in your translation, or you could include some of this information in a footnote. Alternate translation: [his brother will marry the widow and will raise up seed with her. The first child will continue the dead man's family line]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT his brother will marry his wife and will raise up
UST When that happens, the man's brother should marry the dead man's wife. When they have (ἐπιγαμβρεύσει ὁ ἀδελφὸς αὐτοῦ τὴν γυναῖκα αὐτοῦ, καὶ ἀναστήσει)

The author of the quotation is using the future form to give a command. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea using a form that expresses a command or obligation. Alternate translation: [his brother must marry his wife and must raise up]

Support Reference: Statements — Other Uses

ULT will raise up seed
UST When they have a child
(ἀναστήσει σπέρμα)

The author of the quotation is speaking of having a child as if it were "raising up seed." If it would be clearer in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [will produce offspring]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Teacher	Our instructor
Moses	Moses
seed	a child

Matthew 22:25

ULT	UST
But there were among us seven brothers, and the first, having married, died. And not having seed, he left his wife to his brother.	So, {consider this situation}: seven brothers lived here. One brother got married, but then he died before he had children. So, one of his brothers married his widow.

ULT But
UST So, {consider this situation}
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next topic that the Sadducees want to talk about. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next topic, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Now]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT there were among us seven brothers, and the first
UST seven brothers lived here. One brother
(ἦσαν & παρ’ ἡμῖν ἑπτὰ ἀδελφοί; καὶ ὁ πρῶτος)

The Sadducees use an imaginary situation to set up a question they want to ask Jesus. Use a natural method in your language for introducing an imaginary situation. Alternate translation: [imagine a family with seven brothers. The first]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT the first
UST One brother
(ὁ πρῶτος)

The Sadducees are using the number first as a noun to mean the first brother. Your language may use numbers in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the first brother]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT the first
UST One brother
(ὁ πρῶτος)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you can use a cardinal number here. Alternate translation: [brother number one]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

ULT And not having seed, he left his wife to his brother
UST before he had children. So, one of his brothers married his widow (καὶ μὴ ἔχων σπέρμα, ἀφῆκεν τὴν γυναῖκα αὐτοῦ τῷ ἀδελφῷ αὐτοῦ)

The Sadducees are indicating that the dead man's brother married the widow, as Moses commanded. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [And since he did not have seed, his brother married his wife to produce seed for him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT seed
UST children
(σπέρμα)

The Sadducees are speaking of offspring as if they were seed. If it would be clearer in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [offspring]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
seed	children

Matthew 22:26

ULT	UST
Likewise also, the second and the third, until the seven.	The same thing happened to the second brother, the third brother, and the other four brothers. {They each married the widow but died before they had children.}

ULT the second and the third, until the seven
UST to the second brother, the third brother, and the other four brothers
(ὁ δεύτερος, καὶ ὁ τρίτος, ἕως τῶν ἑπτά)

The Sadducees are leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from the previous verse if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [Likewise also, the second and the third died without having seed and left her to a brother, until the seven had done so]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT the second … the third … the seven
UST to the second brother, the third brother, and the other four brothers
(ὁ δεύτερος & ὁ τρίτος & τῶν ἑπτά)

The Sadducees are using the numbers second, third, and seven as nouns to mean various brothers. Your language may use numbers in the same way. If not, you could translate these words with equivalent phrases. Alternate translation: [the second brother … the third brother … the seven brothers]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT the second … the third
UST to the second brother, the third brother
(ὁ δεύτερος & ὁ τρίτος)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you can use cardinal numbers here or equivalent expressions. Alternate translation: [brother number two … brother number three]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

> ULT until the seven
> UST and the other four brothers
> (ἕως τῶν ἑπτά)

The Sadducees imply that all seven brothers had married the woman and died without having children. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [until this had happened to all seven]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

Matthew 22:27

ULT	UST
And last of all, the woman died.	Finally, the widow died.

ULT of all
UST Finally
(πάντων)

The Sadducees are using the adjective all as a noun to mean all the people they have mentioned. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [of all those people]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

Matthew 22:28

ULT	UST
Therefore, in the resurrection, of which of the seven will she be a wife? For they all had her."	So then, of those seven brothers, whose wife will she be when God makes people alive again? {We ask} because she got married to all seven of them {at different times}."

ULT in the resurrection
UST when God makes people alive again
(ἐν τῇ ἀναστάσει)

The Sadducees did not actually believe that there would be a resurrection. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [in the supposed resurrection] or [if there is a resurrection]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT in the resurrection
UST when God makes people alive again
(ἐν τῇ ἀναστάσει)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of resurrection, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [when people resurrect]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT of the seven
UST of those seven brothers
(τῶν ἑπτὰ)

The Sadducees are using the number seven as a noun to mean the seven brother. Your language may use numbers in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [of the seven brothers]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT For
UST {We ask} because
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces a reason why the Sadducees ask their question. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason or basis for a question, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [We ask this question because] or [This is a problem, since]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT they all had her
UST she got married to all seven of them {at different times}
(πάντες & ἔσχον αὐτήν)

The Sadducees imply that all the brothers had the woman as a wife. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they all had her as a wife]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
resurrection	when God makes people alive again

Matthew 22:29

ULT	UST
But answering, Jesus said to them, "You are being led astray, not knowing the Scriptures or the power of God.	Jesus replied, "You do not realize what the Scriptures mean or how powerful God is. So, you believe what is wrong.

ULT You are being led astray, not knowing the Scriptures or the power of God
UST You do not realize what the Scriptures mean or how powerful God is. So, you believe what is wrong
(πλανᾶσθε, μὴ εἰδότες τὰς Γραφὰς, μηδὲ τὴν δύναμιν τοῦ Θεοῦ)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [Because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God, you are being led astray]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT You are being led astray
UST So, you believe what is wrong
(πλανᾶσθε)

Jesus is speaking as if the Sadducees have literally been led astray or directed down the wrong path. He means that they have been deceived. If it would be helpful for your readers, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [You are being deceived]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT You are being led astray
UST So, you believe what is wrong
(πλανᾶσθε)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who does the action, it is clear from the context that it is they themselves. Alternate translation: [You are going astray] or [You are leading yourselves astray]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT the power of God
> UST how powerful God is > (τὴν δύναμιν τοῦ Θεοῦ)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of power, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the powerful things that God can do]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
knowing	You do … realize
Scriptures	what the Scriptures mean
of God	God is

Matthew 22:30

ULT	UST
For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like angels in heaven.	Here is what I mean: after God makes people alive again, they will not get married. Instead, they will be like angels who dwell in heaven {and do not get married}.

ULT For
UST Here is what I mean
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces an explanation of how the Sadducees have been "led astray" (see 22:29). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces an explanation, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [In fact,] or [What you should know is that]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT in the resurrection
UST after God makes people alive again
(ἐν & τῇ ἀναστάσει)

Jesus could be referring to: (1) the period of time that will begin at the resurrection. Alternate translation: [once the resurrection happens]; (2) the moment of resurrection itself. Alternate translation: [at the moment of resurrection]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT in the resurrection
UST after God makes people alive again
(ἐν & τῇ ἀναστάσει)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of resurrection, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [when people resurrect]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT they neither marry nor are given in marriage
UST they will not get married
(οὔτε γαμοῦσιν οὔτε γαμίζονται)

In Jesus' culture, it was customary to talk about men marrying and women being given in marriage. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make that idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [men do not marry and women are not given in marriage] or [men and women do not get married]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT they neither marry … they are
UST they will not get married … they will be (οὔτε γαμοῦσιν & εἰσιν)

The pronouns they and they refer to everyone who participates in the resurrection. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to these people more directly. Alternate translation: [men and women neither marry … men and women are]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT are given in marriage
UST they will not get married
(γαμίζονται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, Jesus implies that it is the people's parents. Alternate translation: [do their parents give them in marriage]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT are given in marriage
UST they will not get married
(γαμίζονται)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of marriage, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [are they married]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

> ULT they are like angels in heaven
> UST they will be like angels who dwell in heaven {and do not get married}
> (ὡς ἄγγελοι ἐν τῷ οὐρανῷ εἰσιν)

Jesus is saying that people in the resurrection are like angels because neither of them marry. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state that explicitly. Alternate translation: [they are like angels in heaven, since they too do not marry]

Support Reference: Simile

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
resurrection	God makes people alive again
angels	angels
heaven	heaven {and do not get married}

Matthew 22:31

ULT	UST
But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read {what} was spoken to you by God, saying,	Now I will speak about whether God makes people who have died alive again. You have read in the Scriptures that God said to you,

ULT have you not read {what} was spoken to you by God, saying … I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob

UST You have read in the Scriptures that God said to you … I am the God whom Abraham worships, the God whom Isaac worships, and the God whom Jacob worships

(οὐκ ἀνέγνωτε τὸ ῥηθὲν ὑμῖν ὑπὸ τοῦ Θεοῦ λέγοντος, ἐγώ εἰμι ὁ Θεὸς Ἀβραὰμ, καὶ ὁ Θεὸς Ἰσαὰκ, καὶ ὁ Θεὸς Ἰακώβ) (22:31-32)

Jesus is using the question form to rebuke and teach the Sadducees. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [I know that you have read what was spoken to you by God, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'] or [Surely you have read what was spoken to you by God, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read

UST Now I will speak about whether God makes people who have died alive again. You have read in the Scriptures

(περὶ δὲ τῆς ἀναστάσεως τῶν νεκρῶν, οὐκ ἀνέγνωτε)

The phrase But concerning introduces the next topic that Jesus wants to talk about. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next topic. Alternate translation: [Next, I will talk about the resurrection of the dead. Have you not read]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the resurrection of the dead

UST whether God makes people who have died alive again

(τῆς ἀναστάσεως τῶν νεκρῶν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of resurrection, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [when the dead resurrect]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT of the dead
UST people who have died
(τῶν νεκρῶν)

Jesus is using the adjective dead as a noun in order to refer to people who are dead. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this with a noun phrase. Alternate translation: [of the dead people] or [of the corpses]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT {what} was spoken to you by God
UST that God said to you
(τὸ ῥηθὲν ὑμῖν ὑπὸ τοῦ Θεοῦ)

If your language does not use this passive form, you can state this in active form. Alternate translation: [what God spoke to you]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT by God, saying
UST God
(ὑπὸ τοῦ Θεοῦ λέγοντος)

Jesus introduces a quotation from an important text, in this case, the Old Testament book of Exodus (see Exodus 3:6). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase that indicates that Jesus is quoting from an important text. Alternate translation: [by God in the book of Exodus] or [by God in the Scriptures when he said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
resurrection	whether God makes … alive again
God	God

Matthew 22:32

ULT	UST
‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? He is not a God of the dead, but of the living.”	‘I am the God whom Abraham worships, the God whom Isaac worships, and the God whom Jacob worships.’ It is living people who worship God, not dead people. {So, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who all have died, must be alive again!}”

ULT I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob
UST I am the God whom Abraham worships, the God whom Isaac worships, and the God whom Jacob worships
(ἐγώ εἰμι ὁ Θεὸς Ἀβραὰμ, καὶ ὁ Θεὸς Ἰσαὰκ, καὶ ὁ Θεὸς Ἰακώβ)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation, with no comma at the end of verse 31: [that he is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob
UST the God whom Abraham worships, the God whom Isaac worships, and the God whom Jacob worships
(ὁ Θεὸς Ἀβραὰμ, καὶ ὁ Θεὸς Ἰσαὰκ, καὶ ὁ Θεὸς Ἰακώβ)

The author of the quotation is using the possessive form to describe the God whom Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob worship. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the God that Abraham honors, and the God that Isaac honors, and the God that Jacob honors]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT He is not a God of the dead, but of the living
UST It is living people who worship God, not dead people. {So, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who all have died, must be alive again … }
(οὐκ ἔστιν ὁ Θεὸς νεκρῶν, ἀλλὰ ζώντων)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You can supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [God is not the God of the dead, but he is the God of the living]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT He is not a God of the dead, but of the living
UST It is living people who worship God, not dead people. {So, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who all have died, must be alive again … }
(οὐκ ἔστιν ὁ Θεὸς νεκρῶν, ἀλλὰ ζώντων)

Jesus implies that, although Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had already died by the time God spoke these words, God still called himself their God. Since God is not of the dead, but of the living, this means that Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob must be alive again. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [God is not of the dead, but of the living, so Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob must live again after they died]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT not … of the dead, but of the living
UST living people who worship … not dead people. {So, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who all have died, must be alive again … }
(οὐκ & νεκρῶν, ἀλλὰ ζώντων)

If your language would not naturally put the negative statement before the positive statement, you could reverse the two phrases here. Alternate translation: [of the living, not of the dead]

Support Reference: Information Structure

ULT of the dead, but of the living
UST living people who worship … dead people. {So, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who all have died, must be alive again … }
(νεκρῶν, ἀλλὰ ζώντων)

Jesus is using the possessive form to describe the God whom the living, not the dead, worship. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [honored by the dead, but by the living]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT of the dead … of the living
UST living people who worship … dead people. {So, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who all have died, must be alive again … }
(νεκρῶν & ζώντων)

Jesus is using the adjectives dead and living as nouns to mean people who are dead and living. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you can translate these words with equivalent phrases. Alternate translation: [of dead people … of living people]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
God	God whom
of Abraham	Abraham worships
God	the God whom
of Isaac	Isaac worships
God	the God whom
of Jacob	Jacob worships
a God	God

Matthew 22:33

ULT	UST
And having heard this, the crowds were astonished at his teaching.	The things that Jesus taught impressed the large groups of people.

ULT having heard this, the crowds were astonished at his teaching
UST The things that Jesus taught impressed the large groups of people
(ἀκούσαντες, οἱ ὄχλοι ἐξεπλήσσοντο ἐπὶ τῇ διδαχῇ αὐτοῦ)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was what Jesus taught. Alternate translation: [what the crowds heard Jesus teach astonished them]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

Matthew 22:34

ULT	UST
But the Pharisees, having heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, gathered together at the same place.	The Pharisees heard that Jesus answered so well that the Sadducees could not respond. So, the Pharisees met together {and went to where Jesus was}.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next major event in the story. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT gathered together at the same place
UST So, the Pharisees met together {and went to where Jesus was}
(συνήχθησαν ἐπὶ τὸ αὐτό)

The expression gathered together at the same place contains extra information that would be unnatural to express in some languages. If this is true of your language, you could shorten the expression. Alternate translation: [gathered together] or [came to one place]

Support Reference: Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

ULT gathered together at the same place
UST So, the Pharisees met together {and went to where Jesus was}
(συνήχθησαν ἐπὶ τὸ αὐτό)

Matthew implies that the Pharisees gathered together and then went to where Jesus was. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [gathered together at the same place and approached Jesus]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Pharisees	Pharisees
Sadducees	Sadducees
gathered together	So, the Pharisees met together {and went to where Jesus was}

Matthew 22:35

ULT	UST
And one of them, a lawyer, questioned {him}, testing him—	Then, one of the Pharisees, who was an expert in the Jewish law, decided to investigate Jesus. He asked him,

ULT And one of them, a lawyer, questioned {him}
UST Then, one of the Pharisees, who was an expert in the Jewish law … He asked him
(καὶ ἐπηρώτησεν εἷς ἐξ αὐτῶν, νομικὸς)

Matthew introduces a lawyer, a man who is a Pharisee, as a new character in the story. Use a natural form in your language for introducing a new character. Alternate translation: [One of them was a lawyer. He questioned him]

Support Reference: Introduction of New and Old Participants

ULT a lawyer
UST who was an expert in the Jewish law
(νομικὸς)

A lawyer is an expert in the law of Moses and its application to various situations. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of profession, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [a man who studied the Jewish law]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT questioned {him}, testing him
UST decided to investigate Jesus. He asked him
(ἐπηρώτησεν & πειράζων αὐτόν)

The word testing introduces the purpose for which the lawyer questioned Jesus. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a purpose. Alternate translation: [questioned him with the goal of testing him]

Support Reference: Connect — Goal (Purpose) Relationship

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
testing	decided to investigate

Matthew 22:36

ULT	UST
“Teacher, which {is} the great commandment in the law?”	“Instructor, which of the laws that God gave us is the most important?”

ULT the great commandment
UST which … is the most important
(ἐντολὴ μεγάλη)

The lawyer is asking about which commandment is the greatest one of all the commandments. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the greatest commandment]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Teacher	Instructor
law	of the laws that God gave us

Matthew 22:37

ULT	UST
But he said to him, "You will love the Lord your God with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole mind.	Jesus replied: "We must love the Lord, the God whom we worship, with everything that we desire, everything that we do, and everything that we think.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT You will love the Lord your God with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole mind
UST We must love the Lord, the God whom we worship, with everything that we desire, everything that we do, and everything that we think (ἀγαπήσεις Κύριον τὸν Θεόν σου ἐν ὅλῃ τῇ καρδίᾳ σου, καὶ ἐν ὅλῃ τῇ ψυχῇ σου, καὶ ἐν ὅλῃ τῇ διανοίᾳ σου)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [The great commandment is to love the Lord God with one's whole heart, and with one's whole soul, and with one's whole mind]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT You will love the Lord your God
UST We must love the Lord, the God whom we worship
(ἀγαπήσεις Κύριον τὸν Θεόν σου)

Jesus begins to quote from an important text, in this case, the Old Testament book of Deuteronomy (see Deuteronomy 6:5). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that indicates that Jesus is quoting from an important text. Alternate translation: [In Deuteronomy you can read, 'You will love the Lord your God] or [Here is that commandment: 'You will love the Lord your God]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT You will love … your … your … your … your UST We must love … whom we worship … that we desire … that we do … that we think (ἀγαπήσεις & σου & σου & σου & σου)

Since in this command God is addressing each specific person who is part of God's people, the words You and your are singular throughout this verse.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT the Lord your God
UST the Lord, the God whom we worship
(Κύριον τὸν Θεόν σου)

The author of the quotation is using the possessive form to describe the God whom the people of Israel worship. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the Lord whom you honor]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT You will love
UST We must love
(ἀγαπήσεις)

The author of the quotation is using the future form to give a command. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea using a form that expresses a command or obligation. Alternate translation: [You should love] or [You must love]

Support Reference: Statements — Other Uses

ULT with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole mind
UST with everything that we desire, everything that we do, and everything that we think (ἐν ὅλῃ τῇ καρδίᾳ σου, καὶ ἐν ὅλῃ τῇ ψυχῇ σου, καὶ ἐν ὅλῃ τῇ διανοίᾳ σου)

The author of the quotation is referring to all of a human being by naming multiple parts of a person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [with all of who you are] or [with your entire being]

Support Reference: Merism

> ULT with your whole heart
> UST with everything that we desire
> (ἐν ὅλῃ τῇ καρδίᾳ σου)

In Matthew's culture, the heart is the place where humans think and feel. If it would be helpful in your language, you could translate heart by referring to the place where humans think and feel in your culture or by expressing the idea plainly. Alternate translation: [with all your desires] or [with all your feelings]

Support Reference: Metonymy

> ULT with your whole soul
> UST everything that we do
> (ἐν ὅλῃ τῇ ψυχῇ σου)

Here, soul represents a person's life, with special focus on that person's identity and actions. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [with everything you are] or [with all your inclinations]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
You will love	We must love
the Lord	the Lord
God	the God
soul	that we do
mind	that we think

Matthew 22:38

ULT	UST
This is the great and first commandment.	That is the most important law.

ULT great and first
UST most important
(μεγάλη καὶ πρώτη)

The terms great and first mean similar things. Jesus is using the two terms together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single phrase. Alternate translation: [greatest]

Support Reference: Doublet

ULT first
UST most important
(πρώτη)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [number one]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

Matthew 22:39

ULT	UST
Now a second {is} like it—'You will love your neighbor as yourself.'	The next most important law is similar. It is that we must care for people we know as much as we care for ourselves.

ULT a second
UST The next most important law
(δευτέρα)

Jesus is using the number second as a noun to mean a second commandment. Your language may use numbers in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [a second commandment]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT a second
UST The next most important law
(δευτέρα)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [number two]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

ULT {is} like it
UST is similar (όμοία αὐτῇ)

The phrase like it could indicate that this second commandment is: (1) similar in content. Alternate translation: [requires something similar]; (2) similar in importance. Alternate translation: [is just as great]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT {is} like it—'You will love your neighbor as yourself
UST is similar. It is that we must care for people we know as much as we care for ourselves (όμοία αὐτῇ, ἀγαπήσεις τὸν πλησίον σου ὡς σεαυτόν)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [is like it—to love one's neighbor as oneself]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT You will love your neighbor
UST It is that we must care for people we know
(ἀγαπήσεις τὸν πλησίον σου)

Jesus begins to quote from an important text, in this case, the Old Testament book of Leviticus (see Leviticus 19:18). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that indicates that Jesus is quoting from an important text. Alternate translation: [as you can read in the book of Leviticus, 'You will love your neighbor] or [it says in the law, 'You will love your neighbor]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT You will love your … yourself
UST It is that we must care for people we know … ourselves
(ἀγαπήσεις & σου & σεαυτόν)

Since, in this command, God is addressing each specific person who is part of God's people, the words You and your and yourself are singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT You will love
UST It is that we must care for (ἀγαπήσεις)

The author of the quotation is using the future form to give a command. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea using a form that expresses a command or obligation. Alternate translation: [You should love] or [You must love]

Support Reference: Statements — Other Uses

ULT as yourself
UST as much as we care for ourselves
(ὡς σεαυτόν)

The author of the quotation is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [as you love yourself]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

> ULT as yourself
> UST as much as we care for ourselves
> (ὡς σεαυτόν)

The author of the quotation assumes that people love themselves, so he wants these people to love their neighbors just as much. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state that explicitly. Alternate translation: [as deeply as yourself]

Support Reference: Simile

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
You will love	It is that we must care for neighbor	people we know

Matthew 22:40

ULT	UST
On these two commandments are hung the whole Law and the Prophets.”	All the parts of the Scriptures depend upon these two laws.”

> ULT On these two commandments are hung the whole Law and the Prophets
> UST All the parts of the Scriptures depend upon these two laws
> (ἐν ταύταις ταῖς δυσὶν ἐντολαῖς, ὅλος ὁ νόμος κρέμαται καὶ οἱ προφῆται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [The whole Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT On these two commandments are hung the whole Law and the Prophets
> UST All the parts of the Scriptures depend upon these two laws
> (ἐν ταύταις ταῖς δυσὶν ἐντολαῖς, ὅλος ὁ νόμος κρέμαται καὶ οἱ προφῆται)

Here Jesus speaks as if these two commandments were hooks upon which the whole Law and the Prophets hang. He could mean that: (1) the whole Law and the Prophets depend upon and elaborate these two commandments. Alternate translation: [The whole Law and the Prophets elaborate on just these two commandments]; (2) these two commandments summarize the whole Law and the Prophets. Alternate translation: [These two commandments summarize the whole Law and the Prophets]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT the whole Law and the Prophets
> UST All the parts of the Scriptures
> (ὅλος ὁ νόμος & καὶ οἱ προφῆται)

The word Law is the name for one part of the Hebrew Scriptures, and the word Prophets is the name for another part of the Hebrew Scriptures. Show this in your translation in the way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [all the Scriptures, both the Law and the Prophets]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the Prophets
UST the parts of the Scriptures
(οἱ προφῆται)

The word Prophets represents what the prophets said and wrote. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the writings of the prophets]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Law	the parts of the Scriptures
Prophets	the parts of the Scriptures

Matthew 22:41

ULT	UST
Now the Pharisees having been gathered together, Jesus questioned them,	While those Pharisees were still all together {near Jesus}, he asked them,

ULT Now
UST While
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next major event in the story. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT having been gathered together
UST were still all together {near Jesus}
(συνηγμένων)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that the Pharisees themselves did it. Alternate translation: [having gathered together]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Pharisees	Pharisees
having been gathered together	were still all together {near Jesus}
Jesus	he

Matthew 22:42

ULT	UST
saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?" They say to him, "David's."	"I want you to answer a question about the Messiah. Who is his ancestor?" They replied, "His ancestor is King David."

ULT saying
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT What do you think about the Christ
UST I want you to answer a question about the Messiah
(τί ὑμῖν δοκεῖ περὶ τοῦ Χριστοῦ)

Jesus is using the question form to get the attention of the Pharisees and to bring up the topic of the Christ. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [I am going to ask you what you think about the Christ.] or [Tell me what you think about the Christ!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT Whose son is he
UST Who is his ancestor
(τίνος υἱός ἐστιν)

The word son means a male descendant. Jesus is asking about an important ancestor of the Christ, not the direct father of the Christ. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [Whose descendant is he] or [From whom is he descended]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT They say
UST They replied
(λέγουσιν)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [They said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT David's
UST His ancestor is King David
(τοῦ Δαυείδ)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You can supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [He is David's son]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Christ	Messiah
David's	His ancestor is King David

Matthew 22:43

ULT	UST
He says to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call him 'Lord,' saying,	Jesus replied, "In that case, why did the Holy Spirit cause King David to write that the Messiah was his Lord? {People do not describe their descendants as their lords. However,} King David wrote

ULT How then does David in the Spirit call him 'Lord,' saying … The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet

UST In that case, why did the Holy Spirit cause King David to write that the Messiah was his Lord? {People do not describe their descendants as their lords. However,} King David wrote … that the Lord God said to David's Lord, Rule with me while I defeat all of your enemies

(πῶς οὖν Δαυεὶδ ἐν Πνεύματι καλεῖ Κύριον αὐτὸν λέγων, εἶπεν Κύριος τῷ Κυρίῳ μου, κάθου ἐκ δεξιῶν μου, ἕως ἂν θῶ τοὺς ἐχθρούς σου ὑποκάτω τῶν ποδῶν σου) (22:43-44)

If it would be helpful in your language, you could end the question earlier and introduce the quotation as evidence or support for the question. Alternate translation: [How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord? He called him that when he said, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right, until I put your enemies under your feet."']

Support Reference: Information Structure

ULT saying … The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet

UST { … However,} King David wrote … that the Lord God said to David's Lord, Rule with me while I defeat all of your enemies

(λέγων, εἶπεν Κύριος τῷ Κυρίῳ μου, κάθου ἐκ δεξιῶν μου, ἕως ἂν θῶ τοὺς ἐχθρούς σου ὑποκάτω τῶν ποδῶν σου) (22:43-44)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there are no quotations within quotations. If you use the following alternate translation, remove the quotation marks at the end of verse 44. Alternate translation: [saying that the Lord told his Lord to sit at his right hand until he puts his enemies under his feet]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT He says
UST Jesus replied
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [He said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT How then does David in the Spirit call him 'Lord
UST In that case, why did the Holy Spirit cause King David to write that the Messiah was his Lord? {People do not describe their descendants as their lords … }
(πῶς οὖν Δαυεὶδ ἐν Πνεύματι καλεῖ Κύριον αὐτὸν)

In Jesus' culture, people would not call any of their descendants Lord, since this title was used for people who were more important or older. Jesus' question assumes this practice. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Then, since no one calls his son 'Lord,' how does David in the Spirit call him 'Lord]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT How then
UST In that case, why
(πῶς οὖν)

The word then introduces an question based on the fact that the Messiah is the "son" of David (see 22:42). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of question, or you could leave then untranslated. Alternate translation: [Given that, how] or [Because of that, how]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT does David in the Spirit call
UST did the Holy Spirit cause King David to write that (Δαυεὶδ ἐν Πνεύματι καλεῖ)

In many languages, it is conventional to use the present tense to describe what a writer does within a composition. However, if that would not be natural in your language, you could use the past tense here. Alternate translation: [did David in the Spirit call]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT David in the Spirit
UST did the Holy Spirit cause King David (Δαυεὶδ ἐν Πνεύματι)

The phrase in the Spirit indicates that David called the Messiah 'Lord' as the Spirit inspired him. In other words, the Spirit prompted David to say this. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [David, by the inspiration of the Spirit,] or [David, prompted by the Spirit,]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT him
UST the Messiah
(αὐτὸν)

The pronoun him refers to the Christ. If this is not clear for your readers, you could use the person's title here. Alternate translation: [the Christ]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT saying
UST { … However,} King David wrote
(λέγων)

Jesus introduces a quotation from an important text, in this case, the Old Testament book of Psalms (see Psalm 110:1). This Psalm was written by David. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase that indicates that Jesus is quoting from an important text. Alternate translation: [as you can read in the book of Psalms] or [writing in the Scriptures]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
David	King David
the Spirit	did the Holy Spirit cause
does … call	to write that
Lord	was his Lord? {People do not describe their descendants as their lords … }

Matthew 22:44

ULT	UST
‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet”’?	that the Lord God said to David’s Lord, ‘Rule with me while I defeat all of your enemies!’

ULT The Lord said to my Lord
UST that the Lord God said to David’s Lord
(εἶπεν Κύριος τῷ Κυρίῳ μου)

The term Lord does not refer to the same person in both instances. The first instance refers to God. The second instance refers to a person whom David respectfully calls “lord.” The ULT and UST capitalize this second instance of the word because it refers to the Messiah. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [God, the Lord, said to my Lord] or [God said to my Lord]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Sit at my right hand
UST Rule with me
(κάθου ἐκ δεξιῶν μου)

When someone sits at God’s right hand, it symbolizes that person’s honor, authority, and ability to rule. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make this idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [Sit to rule at my right hand] or [Take the place of honor and authority at my right hand]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

ULT Sit … your … your
UST Rule with me … I defeat … your (κάθου & σου & σου)

The imperative and the words your and your are singular because God is speaking to the Messiah.

Support Reference: Forms of ‘You’ — Singular

> ULT at my right hand
> UST Rule with me
> (ἐκ δεξιῶν μου)

The phrase at my right hand refers to the place next to a person's right hand, which would be the "right side." In the author's culture, this side was associated with honor or authority. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to the "right side." Make sure that your readers understand that this side indicates that the Lord has honor and authority when he sits there. Alternate translation: [at my right side] or [at the honorable place next to me]

Support Reference: Metonymy

> ULT until I put your enemies under your feet
> UST while I defeat all of your enemies
> (ἕως ἂν θῶ τοὺς ἐχθρούς σου ὑποκάτω τῶν ποδῶν σου)

In the author's culture, to put people under a person's feet indicates that those people have been conquered and are powerless and shamed. So, this means that God will conquer and shame all the enemies of the Lord. If it would be helpful in your language, you could explain what this action means. Alternate translation: [until I make your enemies kneel before you] or [until I conquer and shame your enemies]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
The Lord	that the Lord God
to … Lord	to … Lord
enemies	all of … enemies

Matthew 22:45

ULT	UST
If David therefore calls him ‘Lord,’ how is he his son?”	So then, since King David wrote that the Messiah was his Lord, how is it possible for King David to be his ancestor?”

ULT If David therefore
UST So then, since King David
(εἰ οὖν Δαυεὶδ)

The word therefore introduces what Jesus wants to ask based on what he has just quoted. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of question, or you could leave therefore untranslated. Alternate translation: [Because of that, if David] or [Given that, if David]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT If
UST since
(εἰ)

Jesus speaks as if this were a hypothetical situation, but he means that it must be true. If your language does not state something as a condition if it is certain or true, and if your readers might think that what Jesus is saying is uncertain, then you could translate his words as an affirmative statement. Alternate translation: [Because]

Support Reference: Connect — Factual Conditions

ULT is he his
UST for King David to be his ancestor
(αὐτοῦ ἐστιν)

The pronoun he refers to the Messiah, and the pronoun his refers to David. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to these people more directly. Alternate translation: [is the Messiah David’s]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT his son
UST for King David to be his ancestor
(υἱὸς αὐτοῦ)

The word son means a male descendant. Jesus is not asking about the direct son of David. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 22:42. Alternate translation: [his descendant] or [descended from him]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
David	King David
calls	wrote that
Lord	was his Lord

Matthew 22:46

ULT	UST
And no one was able to answer him a word, nor did anyone dare from that day to question him any longer.	The people who were there could not answer his question. In fact, after that nobody was bold enough to ask him more questions.

ULT to answer him a word
UST answer his question
(ἀποκριθῆναι αὐτῷ λόγον)

Matthew is using the term word to mean something spoken in words. The phrase answer him a word refers to using words to answer Jesus' question. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [to give an answer] or [to answer him in any way]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT nor did anyone dare from that day to question him any longer
UST In fact, after that nobody was bold enough to ask him more questions (οὐδὲ ἐτόλμησέν τις ἀπ' ἐκείνης τῆς ἡμέρας ἐπερωτῆσαι αὐτὸν οὐκέτι)

The words translated as nor and any longer are two negative words. In this construction, the second negative does not cancel the first to create a positive meaning. Instead, it gives greater emphasis to the negative. If your language can use two negatives that do not cancel one another to create a positive meaning, you could use a double negative here. If your language does not use two negatives in that way, you could translate with one negative, as the ULT does. Alternate translation: [and people no longer dared from that day to question him]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

ULT from that day
UST after that
(ἀπ' ἐκείνης τῆς ἡμέρας)

The phrase from that day indicates that nobody questioned Jesus after he said what Matthew recorded in the previous verses. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable expression or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [starting right then] or [from that moment on]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
day	after that

Matthew 23

Matthew 23 Chapter Introduction

Structure and Formatting

1. Jesus teaches about the final judgment and salvation (23:1–25:46)
    - Jesus warns his disciples against acting like the Pharisees (23:1–12)
    - Seven woes against the Pharisees and scribes (23:13–36)
        - First woe: shutting the kingdom (23:13)
        - Second woe: making proselytes (23:15)
        - Third woe: rules about swearing (23:16–22)
        - Fourth woe: tithing (23:23–24)
        - Fifth woe: cleaning inside and outside (23:25–26)
        - Sixth woe: whitewashed tombs (23:27–28)
        - Seventh woe: killing the prophets (23:29–36)
    - Lament over Jerusalem (23:37–39)

Religious and Cultural Concepts in This Chapter

Woe

Seven times in this chapter, Jesus says “woe to you.” He is speaking to the scribes and Pharisees, and he is warning them that something bad will happen to them because of how they are acting. Consider how might express such a warning in your language. (See: woe)

Hypocrites

Six times in this chapter, Jesus calls the scribes and Pharisees “hypocrites.” This word describes people who or claim one thing but actually do another. After calling them “hypocrites,” Jesus goes on to illustrate how they act in this way. Consider what you might call someone who says one thing but does another. (See: hypocrite, hypocrisy)

Swearing by something

In Jesus’ culture, people would make a promise stronger by swearing by something. This means that they would call upon that thing to witness or guarantee what they promised. Jewish teachers and scholars debated which things most strongly guaranteed a promise. In 23:16–22, Jesus gives his own teaching on this issue.

Translation Issues in This Chapter

Being “blind”

Five times in this chapter, Jesus calls scribes and Pharisees “blind.” He means that they fail to understand what is right and true. He does not mean that they are physically blind. Consider how you might express this idea in your language.

Cleaning cups and plates

In 23:25–26, Jesus refers to cleaning the inside and outside of cups and plates. There are two primary ways to understand these verses. First, Jesus could be using cups and plates as a metaphor to speak about the scribes and Pharisees. In this case, he is saying that they should look righteous and also do what is righteous, just like cups and plates should be clean both on the outside and on the inside. Second, Jesus could be referring to literal cups and plates that the Pharisees use to eat food. In this case, he is saying that how they get the food that they eat from their cups and plates should be as “clean” (that is, righteously acquired) as the cups and plates are. The UST follows the first interpretation, and translation options for the second interpretation are in the notes.

Singular and plural forms of “you”

Most of the forms of “you” in this chapter appear in speeches that Jesus gives to his disciples or to the Jewish leaders. Because of this, most forms of “you” in this chapter are plural. You should assume forms of “you” are plural unless a note specifies that the form is singular. (See: Forms of ‘You’ — Singular)

Verse 14

Most of the earliest manuscripts do not include anything for 23:14. Some manuscripts include the following words: “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour the houses of widows, also for a pretext praying at length. For this reason, you will receive greater judgment.” Since the earliest manuscripts do not include these words, the ULT and UST put these words in brackets. If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to omit these words. If it would be helpful, you could put the words in brackets or in a footnote. (See: Textual Variants)

Matthew 23:1

ULT	UST
Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples,	After that, Jesus said to the large groups of people and to his apprentices,

ULT Then
UST After that
(τότε)

The word translated as Then at the beginning of this phrase indicates that this event happened soon after the previous event that Matthew has described. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces something that happened soon after something else. Alternate translation: [Right after saying those things,]

Support Reference: Connect — Sequential Time Relationship

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
to … disciples	to … apprentices

Matthew 23:2

ULT	UST
saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sat in the seat of Moses.	"The Pharisees and the teachers of the Jewish law instruct you as Moses did.

ULT saying
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT sat in the seat of Moses
UST instruct you as Moses did
(ἐπὶ τῆς Μωϋσέως καθέδρας ἐκάθισαν)

Jesus refers to having the authority that Moses had in teaching the law as if it were sitting in the seat of Moses. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [taught the law as Moses did] or [succeeded Moses as teachers of our law]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT sat
UST instruct you as Moses did
(ἐκάθισαν)

The word sat could imply: (1) that the scribes and the Pharisees are right or correct to sit in the seat of Moses. Alternate translation: [are those who sit]; (2) that the scribes and the Pharisees have inappropriately sat in the seat of Moses. Alternate translation: [decided to sit] or [seated themselves]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT sat
UST instruct you as Moses did
(ἐκάθισαν)

Jesus uses the past tense to speak about something that is generally true. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use whatever tense is most natural for expressing a general truth. Alternate translation: [sit]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
scribes	teachers of the Jewish law
Pharisees	Pharisees
of Moses	instruct you as Moses did

Matthew 23:3

ULT	UST
Therefore, everything, as much as they say to you, do and keep. But do not do according to their works, for they say and do not do.	So then, you should do whatever they tell you {to do}. However, they themselves do not do what they tell {you to do}. So, do not act as they do.

ULT everything, as much as they say
UST whatever they tell … to do
(πάντα & ὅσα ἐὰν εἴπωσιν)

The expression everything, as much as they say contains extra information that would be unnatural to express in some languages. If this is true of your language, you could shorten the expression. Alternate translation: [everything that they say]

Support Reference: Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

ULT do and keep
UST you should do
(ποιήσατε, καὶ τηρεῖτε)

The terms do and keep mean similar things. Jesus is using the two terms together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single phrase. Alternate translation: [obey]

Support Reference: Doublet

ULT do not do according to their works, for they say and do not do
UST they themselves do not do what they tell {you to do}. So, do not act as they do (κατὰ & τὰ ἔργα αὐτῶν, μὴ ποιεῖτε; λέγουσιν γὰρ καὶ οὐ ποιοῦσιν)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second and third clauses give the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [they say and do not do, so do not do according to their works]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

> ULT their works
> UST as they do
> (τὰ ἔργα αὐτῶν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of works, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [what they do]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

> ULT they say and do not do
> UST they themselves do not do what they tell {you to do}
> (λέγουσιν & καὶ οὐ ποιοῦσιν)

Jesus implies that the Pharisees and scribes say what to do, but they themselves do not do what they say that others should do. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they say what to do, and they do not do what they say]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT and
> (καὶ)

The word and introduces what the Pharisees and scribes actually do in contrast with what they say. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast. Alternate translation: [but]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

Matthew 23:4

ULT	UST
And they tie up loads, heavy and difficult to carry, and they put {them} on the shoulders of men, but they themselves are not willing with their finger to move them.	They tell people to do many things that are difficult. However, they do not do anything to help those people.

ULT And they tie up loads, heavy and difficult to carry, and they put {them} on the shoulders of men, but they themselves are not willing with their finger to move them

UST They tell people to do many things that are difficult. However, they do not do anything to help those people

(δεσμεύουσιν δὲ φορτία βαρέα καὶ δυσβάστακτα, καὶ ἐπιτιθέασιν ἐπὶ τοὺς ὤμους τῶν ἀνθρώπων; αὐτοὶ δὲ τῷ δακτύλῳ αὐτῶν οὐ θέλουσιν κινῆσαι αὐτά)

Jesus speaks as if the scribes and Pharisees were putting loads on people's shoulders without doing anything to help with moving those loads. He means that they tell people many things to do, some of which are hard to do, but they do not do anything to help those people do the things that they require. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [And they tell people many things that they need to do, which are like loads, heavy and difficult to carry, that they have tied up and put on the shoulders of these people. However, they are not willing to help these people do what they have told them to do, as if they were not willing to move those loads with their finger] or [And they tell people many things that they need to do, but they are not willing to help these people do what they have told them to do]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT heavy and difficult to carry

UST many things that are difficult

(βαρέα καὶ δυσβάστακτα)

The terms heavy and difficult to bear mean similar things. Jesus is using the two terms together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single phrase. Alternate translation: [very heavy ones] or [very hard to lift]

Support Reference: Doublet

ULT of men
UST people to do
(τῶν ἀνθρώπων)

Although the term men is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [of men and women]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

ULT with their finger
UST do not do anything to help those people
(τῷ δακτύλῳ αὐτῶν)

If it would not be natural in your language to speak as if a group of people had only one finger, you could use the plural form of that word in your translation. Alternate translation: [with their fingers]

Support Reference: Collective Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
they tie up	They tell

Matthew 23:5

ULT	UST
But they do all their deeds to be seen by men. For they broaden their phylacteries and they lengthen their tassels.	Whenever they do anything, they do it so that people praise them for it. For example, when they tie boxes containing Scripture on their foreheads and arms, they make sure the boxes are large. They make the hems on their robes very long.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that Jesus wants to say. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next topic, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Further,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT to be seen by men
UST so that people praise them for it
(πρὸς τὸ θεαθῆναι τοῖς ἀνθρώποις)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [in order for men to see them]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT to be seen
UST so that … praise them for it
(πρὸς τὸ θεαθῆναι)

The phrase to be seen refers to being recognized or praised. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [to be praised] or [to be honored]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT by men
UST people
(τοῖς ἀνθρώποις)

Although the term men is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [by humans] or [by men and women]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

ULT For
UST For example
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces examples of how the scribes and Pharisees behave. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces examples, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [For instance,] or [To illustrate,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT they broaden their phylacteries
UST when they tie boxes containing Scripture on their foreheads and arms, they make sure the boxes are large (πλατύνουσι & τὰ φυλακτήρια αὐτῶν)

The word phylacteries refers to small leather boxes containing papers with specific scriptures written on them. Jewish men tied these boxes to their foreheads and right arms when they were praying. If it would be helpful, you could describe these boxes in your translation or in a footnote. Alternate translation: [they enlarge their devotional boxes containing scriptures]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT they lengthen their tassels
UST They make the hems on their robes very long (μεγαλύνουσι τὰ κράσπεδα)

The word tassels refers to decorative fringes that Jewish men would attach to the hems of their robes. God commanded them to wear these tassels (see Numbers 15:38–39). If it would be helpful, you could describe these tassels in your translation or in a footnote. Alternate translation: [they make the tassels that God required us to wear extra long]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

Matthew 23:6

ULT	UST
And they love the first places at the banquets and the first seats in the synagogues,	They greatly enjoy sitting in the places for important people when they attend feasts or go to the Jewish meeting places.

ULT the first places … the first seats
UST sitting in the places for important people … go to the Jewish meeting places
(τὴν πρωτοκλισίαν & τὰς πρωτοκαθεδρίας)

Jesus speaks of the places and seats for the most important people as if they were first in a sequence. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the important places … the important seats]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the first places … the first seats
UST sitting in the places for important people … go to the Jewish meeting places
(τὴν πρωτοκλισίαν & τὰς πρωτοκαθεδρίας)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use cardinal numbers here or equivalent expressions. Alternate translation: [the number one places … the number one seats]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
they love	They greatly enjoy
banquets	when they attend feasts
synagogues	go to the Jewish meeting places

Matthew 23:7

ULT	UST
and the greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called ‘Rabbi’ by men.	{They greatly enjoy it when} people greet them {respectfully} in the open areas of towns and speak to them as important teachers.

ULT the marketplaces
UST the open areas of towns
(ταῖς ἀγοραῖς)

The word marketplaces refers to large, open-air areas where people buy and sell goods. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of area, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. See how you translated this word in 11:16. Alternate translation: [the town squares] or [the parks]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT to be called ‘Rabbi’ by men
UST speak to them as important teachers
(καλεῖσθαι ὑπὸ τῶν ἀνθρώπων, Ῥαββεί)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [to have men call them ‘Rabbi’]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT men
UST speak to them
(τῶν ἀνθρώπων)

Although the term men is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [men and women]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
to be called	speak to them
Rabbi	as important teachers

Matthew 23:8

ULT	UST
But you should not be called ‘Rabbi,’ for one is your teacher, and you are all brothers.	However, you have only one teacher, me. Also, you are all fellow believers. So then, you should not allow people to speak to you as important teachers.

ULT But
UST However
(δὲ)

The word But introduces what Jesus wants his disciples to do in contrast to what the scribes and the Pharisees do. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [In contrast,] or [Unlike them,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT you should not be called ‘Rabbi,’ for one is your teacher, and you are all brothers
UST you have only one teacher, me. Also, you are all fellow believers. So then, you should not allow people to speak to you as important teachers
(ὑμεῖς & μὴ κληθῆτε Ῥαββεί; εἷς γάρ ἐστιν ὑμῶν ὁ καθηγητὴς, πάντες δὲ ὑμεῖς ἀδελφοί ἐστε)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second and third clauses give the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [one is your teacher, and you are all brothers, so you should not be called ‘Rabbi’]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT you should not be called
UST you should not allow people to speak to you
(ὑμεῖς & μὴ κληθῆτε)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, you could use an indefinite subject. Alternate translation: [you should not have people call you]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT one
> UST only one
> (εἷς)

Jesus is using the adjective one as a noun to mean one person. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you can translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [one person]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

> ULT one
> UST only one
> (εἷς)

Jesus implies that the one teacher whom they have is he himself. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [one, by which I mean me,]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT brothers
> UST fellow believers
> (ἀδελφοί)

Jesus is using the term brothers to mean people who share the same faith. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [fellow disciples]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT brothers
> UST fellow believers
> (ἀδελφοί)

Although the term brothers is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could use language in your translation that is clearly inclusive of both men and women. Alternate translation: [brothers and sisters]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
should … be called	should … allow people to speak to you

ULT	UST
Rabbi	as important teachers

Matthew 23:9

ULT	UST
And you should not call {anyone} on the earth your father, for one is your heavenly Father.	Further, you have one Father, the one who rules from heaven. So, you should not honor people here on earth by using the title 'my father' for them.

ULT you should not call {anyone} on the earth your father, for one is your heavenly Father
UST you have one Father, the one who rules from heaven. So, you should not honor people here on earth by using the title 'my father' for them
(Πατέρα μὴ καλέσητε ὑμῶν ἐπὶ τῆς γῆς; εἷς γάρ ἐστιν ὑμῶν ὁ Πατὴρ ὁ οὐράνιος)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [since one is your heavenly Father, you should not call anyone on the earth your father]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT you should not call {anyone} on the earth … father … your
UST you should not honor people here on earth by using the title 'my father' for them
(Πατέρα μὴ καλέσητε ὑμῶν ἐπὶ τῆς γῆς)

Jesus is referring to using the title father for someone who is not one's actual father. In his culture, this was a way to honor someone. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [you should not call anyone on the earth your father out of respect for him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT your … one is … heavenly Father
UST you have one Father, the one who rules from heaven
(εἷς & ἐστιν ὑμῶν ὁ Πατὴρ ὁ οὐράνιος)

Jesus means that only one person deserves the honorary title father, and that is God, your heavenly Father. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [you should only call one your father, your heavenly Father]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT one
UST one
(εἷς)

Jesus is using the adjective one as a noun to mean one person. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you can translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [one person]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT your … heavenly Father
UST you have … Father, the one who rules from heaven
(ὑμῶν ὁ Πατὴρ ὁ οὐράνιος)

This is a figurative expression. God is not the Father of humans in the same actual way that he is the Father of Jesus. Even so, it would probably be best to translate Father with the same word that your language would naturally use to refer to a human father. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could indicate that this means God. Alternate translation: [your heavenly Father, God]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
you should … call {anyone}	you should … honor … by using the title … for them earth	people here on earth
heavenly	the one who rules from heaven
Father	Father

Matthew 23:10

ULT	UST
And you should not be called ‘teacher,’ for your teacher is one, the Christ.	You have one instructor, I, who am the Messiah. So, you should not allow people to speak to you as their instructors.

ULT And you should not be called ‘teacher,’ for your teacher is one, the Christ
UST You have one instructor, I, who am the Messiah. So, you should not allow people to speak to you as their instructors
(μηδὲ κληθῆτε Καθηγηταί; ὅτι καθηγητὴς ὑμῶν ἐστιν εἷς, ὁ Χριστός)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [And since your teacher is one, the Christ, you should not be called ‘teacher’]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT And you should not be called
UST you should not allow people to speak to you
(μηδὲ κληθῆτε)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [And you should not have people call you]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT one
UST one
(εἷς)

Jesus is using the adjective one as a noun to mean one person. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you can translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [one person]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

> ULT the Christ
> UST I, who am the Messiah
> (ὁ Χριστός)

Jesus is speaking about himself in the third person. If this would not be natural in your language, you could use the first person form. Alternate translation: [I, the Christ]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
you should … be called	you should … allow people to speak to you
Christ	I, who am the Messiah

Matthew 23:11

ULT	UST
But the greatest among you will be your servant.	The most important person in your group must serve the others.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces what Jesus wants his disciples to do in contrast to being called Rabbi, father, or teacher. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Instead,] or [Rather,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT the greatest
UST The most important person
(ὁ & μείζων)

Jesus is using the adjective greatest as a noun to mean the greatest person. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the greatest person]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT will be
UST must (ἔσται)

Jesus is using the future form to give a command. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea using a form that expresses a command or obligation. Alternate translation: [should be] or [has to be]

Support Reference: Statements — Other Uses

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
servant	serve

Matthew 23:12

ULT	UST
But whoever will exalt himself will be humbled, and whoever will humble himself will be exalted.	God will cause people who think they are important to be unimportant. God will cause people who think they are unimportant to be important.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that Jesus wants to say. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next thing, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Indeed,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT will be humbled
UST God will cause … to be unimportant
(ταπεινωθήσεται)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you must state who will do the action, Jesus implies that God will do it. Alternate translation: [God will humble]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT himself … himself
UST they … they (ἑαυτὸν)

Although the term himself is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [himself or herself … himself or herself]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

ULT will be exalted
UST God will cause … to be important
(ὑψωθήσεται)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you must state who will do the action, Jesus implies that God will do it. Alternate translation: [God will exalt]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
will exalt	who think … are important
will be humbled	God will cause … to be unimportant
will humble	who think … are unimportant
will be exalted	God will cause … to be important

Matthew 23:13

ULT	UST
But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut the kingdom of the heavens in front of men. For you do not enter in, nor do you permit the ones entering to enter.	You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! You keep people from participating in God's heavenly kingdom. In fact, you yourselves do not participate in the kingdom. Further, you prevent people who want to participate in it from doing so. How terrible it will be for you!

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that Jesus wants to say. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next topic, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Next,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut the kingdom of the heavens in front of men. For you do not enter in, nor do you permit the ones entering to enter

UST You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! You keep people from participating in God's heavenly kingdom. In fact, you yourselves do not participate in the kingdom. Further, you prevent people who want to participate in it from doing so. How terrible it will be for you
(οὐαὶ & ὑμῖν, γραμματεῖς καὶ Φαρισαῖοι, ὑποκριταί! ὅτι κλείετε τὴν Βασιλείαν τῶν Οὐρανῶν ἔμπροσθεν τῶν ἀνθρώπων; ὑμεῖς γὰρ οὐκ εἰσέρχεσθε, οὐδὲ τοὺς εἰσερχομένους ἀφίετε εἰσελθεῖν)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these sentences, since the second and third sentences give the reason for the result that the first sentence describes. Alternate translation: [you, scribes and Pharisees, shut the kingdom of the heavens in front of men. You do not enter in, nor do you permit the ones entering to enter. So woe to you, hypocrites!]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT For you shut the kingdom of the heavens in front of men. For you do not enter in, nor do you permit the ones entering to enter
UST You keep people from participating in God's heavenly kingdom. In fact, you yourselves do not participate in the kingdom. Further, you prevent people who want to participate in it from doing so (ὅτι κλείετε τὴν Βασιλείαν τῶν Οὐρανῶν ἔμπροσθεν τῶν ἀνθρώπων; ὑμεῖς γὰρ οὐκ εἰσέρχεσθε, οὐδὲ τοὺς εἰσερχομένους ἀφίετε εἰσελθεῖν)

Jesus speaks of the kingdom of the heavens as if it were a house that the scribes and Pharisees have shut so that neither they nor anyone else can enter in. Jesus means that they prevent themselves and others from participating in the kingdom. If it would be helpful for your readers, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [For you shut the kingdom of the heavens in front of men as if it a house. For you are not part of the kingdom, nor do you allow others to be part of it] or [For you keep people from being part of the kingdom of the heavens. You are not part of it, and you block people who do want to be part of it]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT men
UST people
(τῶν ἀνθρώπων)

Although the term men is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [men and women]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

ULT the ones entering to enter
UST people who want to participate in it … doing so (τοὺς εἰσερχομένους & εἰσελθεῖν)

Jesus could be referring: (1) to people who want to enter into the kingdom. Alternate translation: [to enter the ones wanting to enter]; (2) to people who are in the process of entering into the kingdom. Alternate translation: [to enter the ones having already begun to enter]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
woe	How terrible it will be scribes	teachers of the Jewish law

ULT	UST
Pharisees	You Pharisees
hypocrites	say that you obey God, but you really do not
kingdom of the heavens	God’s heavenly kingdom
of the heavens	heavenly

Matthew 23:14

ULT	UST
[But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour the houses of widows, also for a pretext praying at length. For this reason, you will receive greater judgment.]	[You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! You steal the property of women whose husbands have died. To make other people think that you are righteous, you pray for a long time. How terrible it will be for you! God will punish you very severely.]

ULT But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour the houses of widows, also for a pretext praying at length. For this reason, you will receive greater judgment

UST You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! You steal the property of women whose husbands have died. To make other people think that you are righteous, you pray for a long time. How terrible it will be for you! God will punish you very severely

(οὐαὶ δὲ ὑμῖν, γραμματεῖς καὶ Φαρισαῖοι, ὑποκριταί! ὅτι κατεσθίετε τὰς οἰκίας τῶν χηρῶν, καὶ προφάσει μακρὰ προσευχόμενοι. διὰ τοῦτο λήμψεσθε περισσότερον κρίμα)

See the discussion of textual issues at the end of the introduction to this chapter to decide whether to include this verse in your translation. The notes below discuss translation issues in this verse, for those who decide to include it.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

ULT But

(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that Jesus wants to say. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next topic, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,] or [So,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour the houses of widows, also for a pretext praying at length. For this reason, you will receive greater judgment
UST You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! You steal the property of women whose husbands have died. To make other people think that you are righteous, you pray for a long time. How terrible it will be for you! God will punish you very severely
(οὐαὶ & ὑμῖν, γραμματεῖς καὶ Φαρισαῖοι, ὑποκριταί! ὅτι κατεσθίετε τὰς οἰκίας τῶν χηρῶν, καὶ προφάσει μακρὰ προσευχόμενοι. διὰ τοῦτο λήμψεσθε περισσότερον κρίμα)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these sentences, since the second and third sentences give the reason for the result that the first sentence describes. Alternate translation: [you, scribes and Pharisees, devour the houses of widows, and for a pretext praying at length. For this reason, you will receive greater judgment. So woe to you, hypocrites!]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT you devour the houses of widows
UST You steal the property of women whose husbands have died
(κατεσθίετε τὰς οἰκίας τῶν χηρῶν)

Jesus speaks as if the scribes and Pharisees were devouring or eating the houses of widows. He means that they are taking the houses away from the widows. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable figure of speech or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [you take the houses of widows] or [you defraud widows of their houses]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the houses of widows
UST the property of women whose husbands have died
(τὰς οἰκίας τῶν χηρῶν)

Jesus speaks of the houses of widows to mean their wealth and possessions, which they would have in their houses. If it would be helpful in your language, you state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [everything that widows own]

Support Reference: Metonymy

> ULT for a pretext
> UST To make other people think that you are righteous
> (προφάσει)

The phrase for a pretext could mean: (1) that the scribes and Pharisees are using long prayers to try to look godly. Alternate translation: [in order to seem godly]; (2) that the scribes are Pharisees are using their long prayers to hide or cover up how they devour the houses of widows. Alternate translation: [to cover that up] or [to disguise what they do]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT For this reason
> (διὰ τοῦτο)

The pronoun this refers to how the scribes and Pharisees devour widows' houses while they are also praying at length. If this is not clear for your readers, you could make that idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [Because you do those things]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

> ULT you will receive greater judgment
> UST God will punish you very severely
> (λήμψεσθε περισσότερον κρίμα)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of judgment, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [you will be judged more severely]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

> ULT greater judgment
> UST punish … very severely
> (περισσότερον κρίμα)

Jesus implies that these scribes and Pharisees will receive greater judgment than they would have if they had not pretended to be godly. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [you will receive greater judgment than people who do not pretend to be godly]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

Matthew 23:15

ULT	UST
Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you go around the sea and the dry land to make one proselyte, and when he becomes {one}, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as you.	You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! You travel to many places to convert even one person to the Jewish religion. However, once you have done that, you cause that person to deserve to end up in hell as much as you do. How terrible it will be for you!

ULT Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you go around the sea and the dry land to make one proselyte, and when he becomes {one}, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as you

UST You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! You travel to many places to convert even one person to the Jewish religion. However, once you have done that, you cause that person to deserve to end up in hell as much as you do. How terrible it will be for you

(οὐαὶ ὑμῖν, γραμματεῖς καὶ Φαρισαῖοι, ὑποκριταί! ὅτι περιάγετε τὴν θάλασσαν καὶ τὴν ξηρὰν ποιῆσαι ἕνα προσήλυτον, καὶ ὅταν γένηται, ποιεῖτε αὐτὸν υἱὸν Γεέννης διπλότερον ὑμῶν)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these sentences, since the second sentence gives the reason for the result that the first sentence describes. Alternate translation: [You, scribes and Pharisees, go around the sea and the dry land to make one proselyte, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as you. So woe to you, hypocrites!]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT the sea and the dry land

UST to many places

(τὴν θάλασσαν καὶ τὴν ξηρὰν)

Jesus is referring to all of the earth by naming its two main components. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the entire earth]

Support Reference: Merism

ULT one proselyte
UST even one person to the Jewish religion
(ἕνα προσήλυτον)

A proselyte is a non-Jewish person who converts to Judaism. If your readers would not be familiar with the meaning of this term, you could refer to a similar phenomenon in your area, or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [one convert to Judaism]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT he becomes {one} … him … a son
UST once you have done that … that person to deserve to end up in hell
(γένηται & αὐτὸν υἱὸν)

Although the terms he, him, and son are masculine, Jesus is using the words in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [a person becomes one … him or her … a child]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

ULT twice as much a son of Gehenna as you
UST to deserve to end up in hell as much as you do
(υἱὸν Γεέννης διπλότερον ὑμῶν)

Jesus uses the phrase twice as much to indicate that the person is even more a son of Gehenna than the scribes and Pharisees. He does not mean that the person is exactly twice a son of Gehenna. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [even more a son of Gehenna than you are]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT a son of Gehenna
UST to deserve to end up in hell
(υἱὸν Γεέννης)

The expression a son of Gehenna refers to a person who will end up in Gehenna. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [a person who will end up in Gehenna] or [a person who belongs in Gehenna]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT of Gehenna
> UST to deserve to end up in hell
> (Γεέννης)

Jesus uses the name Gehenna to refer to hell. The valley named Gehenna was outside the city of Jerusalem and was a place where people threw out and burned garbage. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a simile or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 18:9. Alternate translation: [of a place like the valley of Gehenna] or [of hell, which is like Gehenna valley,]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Woe	How terrible it will be
scribes	teachers of the Jewish law
Pharisees	You Pharisees
hypocrites	say that you obey God, but you really do not
of Gehenna	to deserve to end up in hell

Matthew 23:16

ULT	UST
Woe to you, blind guides, the ones saying, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated.'	You do not know what you should be teaching. You say that when people have the temple guarantee what they promise, they do not need to do what they promised. However, you say that when they have the precious metal in the temple guarantee what they promise, they must do what they promised. How terrible it will be for you!

ULT Woe to you, blind guides, the ones saying, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated
UST You do not know what you should be teaching. You say that when people have the temple guarantee what they promise, they do not need to do what they promised. However, you say that when they have the precious metal in the temple guarantee what they promise, they must do what they promised. How terrible it will be for you (οὐαὶ ὑμῖν, ὁδηγοὶ τυφλοὶ, οἱ λέγοντες, ὃς ἂν ὀμόσῃ ἐν τῷ ναῷ, οὐδέν ἐστιν; ὃς δ' ἂν ὀμόσῃ ἐν τῷ χρυσῷ τοῦ ναοῦ ὀφείλει)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the rest of the sentence gives the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [you, who are blind guides, say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated.' So woe to you!]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT blind guides
UST You do not know what you should be teaching
(ὁδηγοὶ τυφλοὶ)

Jesus speaks of the scribes and Pharisees as if they were blind guides. He means that they do not know what is right, but they teach people anyway, even though what they teach is wrong. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. See how you translated the similar phrase in 15:14. Alternate translation: [who are like blind guides] or [who teach people what is wrong]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT the ones saying, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated
> UST You say that when people have the temple guarantee what they promise, they do not need to do what they promised. However, you say that when they have the precious metal in the temple guarantee what they promise, they must do what they promised > (οἱ λέγοντες, ὃς ἂν ὀμόσῃ ἐν τῷ ναῷ, οὐδέν ἐστιν; ὃς δ' ἂν ὀμόσῃ ἐν τῷ χρυσῷ τοῦ ναοῦ ὀφείλει)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [the ones saying that whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing, but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

> ULT it is nothing
> UST they do not need to do what they promised
> (οὐδέν ἐστιν)

Here, the phrase it is nothing means that the person is not bound to keep the oath. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [that person is not obligated to keep the oath]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT the gold of the temple
> UST the precious metal in the temple
> (τῷ χρυσῷ τοῦ ναοῦ)

Jesus could be using the possessive form to describe gold that: (1) decorates the temple. Alternate translation: [the gold that decorates the temple]; (2) makes up the vessels and tools used in the temple. Alternate translation: [the gold vessels in the temple]

Support Reference: Possession

> ULT he is obligated
> UST they must do what they promised
> (ὀφείλει)

The phrase he is obligated indicates that the person is bound to keep the oath. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [he is obligated to keep the oath]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT he is obligated
> UST they must do what they promised
> (ὀφείλει)

Although the term he is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [he or she is obligated]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Woe	How terrible it will be
swears	have … guarantee what they promise
temple	the temple
swears	have … guarantee what they promise
gold	the precious metal
of the temple	in the temple

Matthew 23:17

ULT	UST
Foolish and blind! For which is greater, the gold or the temple having sanctified the gold?	You do not understand what is true! You should realize that the precious metal {in the temple} is less important than the temple itself. It is the temple that makes the precious metal holy.

> ULT Foolish and blind
> UST You do not understand what is true
> (μωροὶ καὶ τυφλοί)

Jesus is using the adjectives Foolish and blind as nouns to mean foolish and blind people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate these words with equivalent phrases. Alternate translation: [You foolish and blind people]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

> ULT Foolish and blind
> UST You do not understand what is true
> (μωροὶ καὶ τυφλοί)

The terms Foolish and blind mean similar things. Jesus is using the two terms together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single phrase. Alternate translation: [Blind ones] or [Very foolish]

Support Reference: Doublet

> ULT blind
> UST You do not understand what is true
> (τυφλοί)

Jesus speaks of the scribes and Pharisees as if they were blind. He means that they do not know what is right. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. See how you translated the word blind in 23:16. Alternate translation: [like blind people] or [not knowing what is right]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT For
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces an explanation of why the teaching of the Pharisees about oaths is wrong. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces an explanation, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [Think about this:] or [You should know this:]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT which is greater, the gold or the temple having sanctified the gold
UST You should realize that the precious metal {in the temple} is less important than the temple itself. It is the temple that makes the precious metal holy (τίς & μείζων ἐστίν, ὁ χρυσὸς ἢ ὁ ναὸς ὁ ἁγιάσας τὸν χρυσόν)

Jesus is using the question form to rebuke the religious leaders. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [the temple having sanctified the gold is greater than the gold.] or [Certainly the gold is not greater than the temple that sanctifies the gold!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Foolish	You do not understand what is true
gold	the precious metal {in the temple}
temple	the temple itself
having sanctified	It is the temple that makes … holy gold	precious metal

Matthew 23:18

ULT	UST
And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gift on top of it, he is obligated.'	Similarly, {you say that} when people have the altar guarantee what they promise, they do not need to do what they promised. However, you say that when they have the sacrifice on the altar guarantee what they promise, they must do what they promised.

ULT And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gift on top of it, he is obligated
UST Similarly, {you say that} when people have the altar guarantee what they promise, they do not need to do what they promised. However, you say that when they have the sacrifice on the altar guarantee what they promise, they must do what they promised (καί, ὃς ἂν ὀμόσῃ ἐν τῷ θυσιαστηρίῳ, οὐδέν ἐστιν; ὃς δ' ἂν ὀμόσῃ ἐν τῷ δώρῳ & ἐπάνω αὐτοῦ ὀφείλει)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [And you say that whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing, but whoever swears by the gift on top of the altar, he is obligated]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT And
UST Similarly, {you say that} (καί)

Jesus uses the word And to introduce something else that the scribes and Pharisees say. If you keep the direct quotation in this verse, consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [And you also say]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT it is nothing
UST they do not need to do what they promised
(οὐδέν ἐστιν)

The phrase it is nothing means that the person is not bound to keep the oath. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you translated the same clause in 23:16. Alternate translation: [that person is not obligated to keep the oath]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT the gift
> UST the sacrifice
> (τῷ δώρῳ)

The word gift refers to an offering that is sacrificed to God on the altar. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [what is offered] or [the offering]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT he is obligated
> UST they must do what they promised
> (ὀφείλει)

The phrase he is obligated indicates that the person is bound to keep the oath. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you translated the same clause in 23:16. Alternate translation: [he is obligated to keep the oath]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT he is obligated
> UST they must do what they promised
> (ὀφείλει)

Although the term he is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [he or she is obligated]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
swears	have … guarantee what they promise
altar	the altar
swears	have … guarantee what they promise

Matthew 23:19

ULT	UST
Foolish and blind! For which {is} greater, the gift or the altar sanctifying the gift?	You do not understand what is true! You should realize that the sacrifice {on the altar} is less important than the altar itself. It is the altar that makes the sacrifice holy.

ULT Foolish and blind
UST You do not understand what is true
(μωροὶ καὶ τυφλοί)

Jesus is using the adjectives Foolish and blind as nouns to mean foolish and blind people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate these words with equivalent phrases. See how you expressed the idea in 23:17. Alternate translation: [You foolish and blind people]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT Foolish and blind
UST You do not understand what is true
(μωροὶ καὶ τυφλοί)

The terms Foolish and blind mean similar things. Jesus is using the two terms together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single phrase. See how you expressed the idea in 23:17. Alternate translation: [Blind ones] or [Very foolish]

Support Reference: Doublet

ULT blind
UST You do not understand what is true
(τυφλοί)

Jesus speaks of the scribes and Pharisees as if they were blind. He means that they do not know what is right. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 23:17. Alternate translation: [like blind people] or [not knowing what is right]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT For
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces an explanation of why the teaching of the Pharisees about oaths is wrong. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces an explanation, or you could leave For untranslated. See how you expressed the idea in 23:17. Alternate translation: [Think about this:] or [You should know this:]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT which {is} greater, the gift or the altar sanctifying the gift
UST You should realize that the sacrifice {on the altar} is less important than the altar itself. It is the altar that makes the sacrifice holy (τί & μεῖζον, τὸ δῶρον, ἢ τὸ θυσιαστήριον τὸ ἁγιάζον τὸ δῶρον)

Jesus is using the question form to rebuke the religious leaders. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [the altar sanctifying the gift is greater than the gift.] or [Certainly the gift is not greater than the altar that sanctifies the gift!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT the gift … the gift
UST the sacrifice {on the altar} … the sacrifice
(τὸ δῶρον & τὸ δῶρον)

The word gift refers to an offering that is sacrificed to God on the altar. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you translated this word in 23:18. Alternate translation: [what is offered … what is offered] or [the offering … the offering]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Foolish	You do not understand what is true
altar	the altar itself
sanctifying	It is the altar that makes … holy

Matthew 23:20

ULT	UST
Therefore, the one having sworn by the altar swears by it and by everything {that is} on top of it.	So, when people have the altar guarantee what they promise, they are having both it and every sacrifice on it guarantee what they promise.

ULT Therefore
UST So
(οὖν)

The word Therefore introduces an inference from the implied answer to Jesus' question in 23:19. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces this kind of inference. Alternate translation: [Since the altar is greater] or [Because of that]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT everything {that is} on top of it
UST every sacrifice on it
(πᾶσι τοῖς ἐπάνω αὐτοῦ)

Jesus is referring to the gifts that he has previously mentioned. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [all the gifts that are on top of it]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having sworn	when people have … guarantee what they promise
altar	the altar
swears	they are having … guarantee what they promise

Matthew 23:21

ULT	UST
And the one having sworn by the temple swears by it and by the one inhabiting it.	Further, when people have the temple guarantee what they promise, they are having both it and God, who dwells there, guarantee what they promise.

ULT the one inhabiting it
UST God, who dwells there
(τῷ κατοικοῦντι αὐτόν)

The phrase the one inhabiting it refers to God, who is specially present in the temple. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the one inhabiting it, God]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having sworn	when people have … guarantee what they promise
temple	the temple
swears	they are having … guarantee what they promise

Matthew 23:22

ULT	UST
And the one having sworn by heaven swears by the throne of God and by the one sitting on it.	When people have heaven guarantee what they promise, they are also having God's throne and God himself, who rules from that throne, guarantee what they promise.

ULT the one sitting on it
UST God himself, who rules from that throne
(τῷ καθημένῳ ἐπάνω αὐτοῦ)

When someone sits on a throne, it indicates that this person is ruling. If it would be helpful in your language, you could explain the meaning of this action. Alternate translation: [the one sitting on it as king] or [the one reigning from it]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

ULT the one sitting on it
UST God himself, who rules from that throne
(τῷ καθημένῳ ἐπάνω αὐτοῦ)

The phrase the one sitting on it refers to God, who rules from the throne. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the one sitting on it, God]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having sworn	have … guarantee what they promise
heaven	heaven
swears	they are also having … guarantee what they promise
throne	throne
of God	God's

Matthew 23:23

ULT	UST
Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe the mint and the dill and the cumin, but you have neglected the weightier {things} of the law—justice and mercy and faith. But it was necessary to do these and those not to neglect.	You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! You give one tenth of even your herbs and spices to God. However, you fail to obey the more important commands that God gave: to do what is right, to be merciful to others, and to be faithful to God. You should do these things as well as giving a tenth of everything to God. How terrible it will be for you!

ULT Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe the mint and the dill and the cumin, but you have neglected the weightier {things} of the law—justice and mercy and faith. But it was necessary to do these and those not to neglect

UST You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! You give one tenth of even your herbs and spices to God. However, you fail to obey the more important commands that God gave: to do what is right, to be merciful to others, and to be faithful to God. You should do these things as well as giving a tenth of everything to God. How terrible it will be for you

(οὐαὶ ὑμῖν, γραμματεῖς καὶ Φαρισαῖοι, ὑποκριταί! ὅτι ἀποδεκατοῦτε τὸ ἡδύοσμον, καὶ τὸ ἄνηθον, καὶ τὸ κύμινον, καὶ ἀφήκατε τὰ βαρύτερα τοῦ νόμου: τὴν κρίσιν, καὶ τὸ ἔλεος, καὶ τὴν πίστιν. ταῦτα δὲ ἔδει ποιῆσαι, κἀκεῖνα μὴ ἀφιέναι)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these sentences since the second and third sentences give the reason for the result that the first sentence describes. Alternate translation: [You, scribes and Pharisees, tithe the mint and the dill and the cumin, but you have neglected the weightier things of the law—justice and mercy and faith. But it was necessary to do these and those not to neglect. So woe to you, hypocrites!]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT you tithe the mint and the dill and the cumin

UST You give one tenth of even your herbs and spices to God

(ἀποδεκατοῦτε τὸ ἡδύοσμον, καὶ τὸ ἄνηθον, καὶ τὸ κύμινον)

Here Jesus refers to tithing mint, dill, and cumin because he wants to show that the scribes and Pharisees carefully tithe even the most insignificant things. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [you tithe even insignificant things like mint and dill and cumin]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the mint and the dill and the cumin
UST of even your herbs and spices
(τὸ ἡδύοσμον, καὶ τὸ ἄνηθον, καὶ τὸ κύμινον)

These are the names of plants. People put just a little bit of their leaves or seeds into their food to give it flavor. If your readers would not know what mint, dill, and cumin are, you could refer to similar plants that they would know, or you could use a general expression. Alternate translation: [the plants that you use to season your food] or [your garden herbs]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT the weightier {things}
UST the more important
(τὰ βαρύτερα)

Jesus is speaking as if the more important commandments in the law were literally weightier or heavier than others. If it would be clearer in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the more significant things]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT justice and mercy and faith
UST to do what is right, to be merciful to others, and to be faithful to God (τὴν κρίσιν, καὶ τὸ ἔλεος, καὶ τὴν πίστιν)

If your language does not use abstract nouns for the ideas of justice, mercy, and faith, you could express the same ideas in another way. Alternate translation: [to act justly and mercifully and faithfully]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT these and those
UST these things as well as giving a tenth of everything to God
(ταῦτα & κἀκεῖνα)

The pronoun these refers to doing justice and mercy and faith. The pronoun those refers to tithing the mint and the dill and the cumin. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to doing those things more directly. Alternate translation: [the latter and the former] or [justice, mercy, and faith and tithing]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

> ULT and those not to neglect
> UST as well as giving a tenth of everything to God
> (κἀκεῖνα μὴ ἀφιέναι)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could use a positive expression to translate this double negative that consists of the negative particle not and the negative word neglect. Alternate translation: [those also to do]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Woe	How terrible it will be
scribes	teachers of the Jewish law
Pharisees	You Pharisees
hypocrites	say that you obey God, but you really do not you tithe	You give one tenth … to God of the law	commands that God gave justice	to do what is right mercy	to be merciful to others
faith	to be faithful to God

Matthew 23:24

ULT	UST
Blind guides, the ones straining out the gnat but swallowing the camel!	You do not know what you should be teaching. You are like people who filter small flies out of their drinks without noticing large animals like camels in the same drinks!

ULT Blind guides
UST You do not know what you should be teaching
(ὁδηγοὶ τυφλοί)

Here, Jesus speaks of the scribes and Pharisees as if they were blind guides. He means that they do not know what is right, but they teach people anyway, even though what they teach is wrong. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. See how you translated the similar phrase in 23:16. Alternate translation: [You who are like blind guides] or [You who teach people what is wrong]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the ones straining out the gnat but swallowing the camel
UST You are like people who filter small flies out of their drinks without noticing large animals like camels in the same drinks
(οἱ διϋλίζοντες τὸν κώνωπα τὴν δὲ κάμηλον καταπίνοντες)

Here Jesus speaks as if the scribes and Pharisees were straining out a tiny gnat if they found one in a drink but swallowing a large camel whole without noticing it. He means that they are being careful to follow the less important laws but failing to notice that they were not following the more important laws. If it would be helpful for your readers, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [who are like a person who strains a gnat out of a drink but swallows a camel] or [the ones carefully obeying the less significant laws but failing to obey the more significant laws]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the gnat
UST small flies
(τὸν κώνωπα)

A gnat is a tiny flying insect. If your readers would not be familiar with what a gnat is, in your translation you could use the name of a comparable insect in your area, or you could use a general expression. Alternate translation: [the mosquito] or [the tiny insect]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
camel	large animals like camels

Matthew 23:25

ULT	UST
Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and lack of self-control.	You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! You seem to do what is right, just like dishes that you have washed on the outside. However, really you want what other people have and do not control yourselves, just like dishes that are still dirty on the inside. How terrible it will be for you!

ULT Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and lack of self-control

UST You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! You seem to do what is right, just like dishes that you have washed on the outside. However, really you want what other people have and do not control yourselves, just like dishes that are still dirty on the inside. How terrible it will be for you

(οὐαὶ ὑμῖν, γραμματεῖς καὶ Φαρισαῖοι, ὑποκριταί! ὅτι καθαρίζετε τὸ ἔξωθεν τοῦ ποτηρίου καὶ τῆς παροψίδος, ἔσωθεν δὲ γέμουσιν ἐξ ἁρπαγῆς καὶ ἀκρασίας)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these sentences since the second sentence gives the reason for the result that the first sentence describes. Alternate translation: [You, scribes and Pharisees, clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and lack of self-control. So woe to you, hypocrites!]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

> ULT you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and lack of self-control
> UST You seem to do what is right, just like dishes that you have washed on the outside. However, really you want what other people have and do not control yourselves, just like dishes that are still dirty on the inside > (καθαρίζετε τὸ ἔξωθεν τοῦ ποτηρίου καὶ τῆς παροψίδος, ἔσωθεν δὲ γέμουσιν ἐξ ἁρπαγῆς καὶ ἀκρασίας)

Jesus speaks of the scribes and Pharisees as if they were a cup and a plate. When he says that they clean the outside of these dishes, he means that they make sure that they appear to be doing what is right. When he says that inside the dishes are full of greed and lack of self-control, he means that they are full of these things. If it would be helpful for your readers, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [you are like cups and plates whose outside you clean but whose inside is dirty, just as you are full of greed and lack of self-control] or [on the outside you look like you do what is right, but on the inside you are full of greed and lack of self-control]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT of the cup and of the plate
> UST You seem to do what is right, just like dishes that you have washed on the outside > (τοῦ ποτηρίου καὶ τῆς παροψίδος)

A cup is a dish from which people drink. A plate is a dish on which food is served. If your readers would not be familiar with these types of dishes, you could use the names of similar things in your area or you could use more general terms. Alternate translation: [of the glass and of the bowl] or [of eating utensils]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

> ULT they are full of greed and lack of self-control
> UST really you want what other people have and do not control yourselves, just like dishes that are still dirty on the inside
> (γέμουσιν ἐξ ἁρπαγῆς καὶ ἀκρασίας)

Jesus could mean that the cup and plate: (1) figuratively have greed and self-indulgence inside them. Alternate translation: [they are characterized by greed and lack of self-control]; (2) are full of what the scribes and Pharisees gained through greed and lack of self-control. Alternate translation: [they are full of what you took through greed and lack of self-control]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT they are full of greed and lack of self-control
> UST really you want what other people have and do not control yourselves, just like dishes that are still dirty on the inside
> (γέμουσιν ἐξ ἁρπαγῆς καὶ ἀκρασίας)

If your language does not use abstract nouns for the ideas of greed and self-control, you could express the same ideas in another way. Alternate translation: [they are characterized by being greedy and not controlling themselves]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Woe	How terrible it will be
scribes	teachers of the Jewish law
Pharisees	You Pharisees
hypocrites	say that you obey God, but you really do not

Matthew 23:26

ULT	UST
Blind Pharisee! Clean first the inside of the cup and of the plate, so that the outside of them might become clean also.	You Pharisees do not understand what is true! You should focus on doing what is right. Once you do that, you will also seem to do what is right, just like dishes that are clean on both the inside and the outside.

> ULT Blind Pharisee
> UST You Pharisees do not understand what is true
> (Φαρισαῖε τυφλέ)

Jesus is not referring to a specific Pharisee. He is referring to every Pharisee who acts in the way he has described. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in plural form or in another way. If you use the plural form, make sure that you express the commands in this verse in plural form. Alternate translation: [Blind Pharisees]

Support Reference: Generic Noun Phrases

> ULT Blind Pharisee
> UST You Pharisees do not understand what is true
> (Φαρισαῖε τυφλέ)

Jesus speaks as if this Pharisee were blind. He means that the Pharisee does not know what is right. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. See how you translated the word blind in 23:17. Alternate translation: [You, Pharisee, are like a blind person] or [You, Pharisee, do not know what is right]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT Clean first the inside of the cup and of the plate, so that the outside of them might become clean also UST You should focus on doing what is right. Once you do that, you will also seem to do what is right, just like dishes that are clean on both the inside and the outside (καθάρισον πρῶτον τὸ ἐντὸς τοῦ ποτηρίου καὶ τῆς παροψίδος, ἵνα γένηται καὶ τὸ ἐκτὸς αὐτῶν καθαρόν)

Jesus continues to speak of the scribes and Pharisees as if they were a cup and a plate. He means that they should actually do what is right, and then they will also appear to be doing what is right. See how you expressed the similar ideas in 23:25. Alternate translation: [you should be like cups and plates whose inside is clean so that their outside is also clean] or [Actually do what is right, and then you will also look like you do what is right]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT Clean
UST You should focus on doing what is right
(καθάρισον)

Since Jesus is addressing one Pharisee, the command here is singular. However, if you refer to plural Pharisees as an earlier note suggested, you should use the plural form here.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT the inside
UST You should focus on doing what is right
(τὸ ἐντὸς)

As in 23:25, the word inside could refer to: (1) the inside of the dishes themselves. Alternate translation: [the inside parts]; (2) what the dishes have inside them. Alternate translation: [what is inside]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT of the cup and of the plate
UST just like dishes that are clean on both the inside and the outside
(τοῦ ποτηρίου καὶ τῆς παροψίδος)

See how you translated the words cup and plate in 23:25. Alternate translation: [of the glass and of the bowl] or [of eating utensils]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Pharisee	You Pharisees

Matthew 23:27

ULT	UST
Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside appear beautiful, but on the inside are full of bones of the dead and all uncleanness.	You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! I compare you to graves that people have painted white. They look good, but they are dirty and have many corpses in them. How terrible it will be for you!

ULT Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside appear beautiful, but on the inside are full of bones of the dead and all uncleanness

UST You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! I compare you to graves that people have painted white. They look good, but they are dirty and have many corpses in them. How terrible it will be for you

(οὐαὶ ὑμῖν, γραμματεῖς καὶ Φαρισαῖοι, ὑποκριταί! ὅτι παρομοιάζετε τάφοις κεκονιαμένοις, οἵτινες ἔξωθεν & φαίνονται ὡραῖοι, ἔσωθεν δὲ γέμουσιν ὀστέων νεκρῶν καὶ πάσης ἀκαθαρσίας)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these sentences since the second sentence gives the reason for the result that the first sentence describes. Alternate translation: [You, scribes and Pharisees, are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside appear beautiful, but on the inside are full of bones of the dead and all uncleanness. So woe to you, hypocrites!]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside appear beautiful, but on the inside are full of bones of the dead and all uncleanness

UST I compare you to graves that people have painted white. They look good, but they are dirty and have many corpses in them

(παρομοιάζετε τάφοις κεκονιαμένοις, οἵτινες ἔξωθεν & φαίνονται ὡραῖοι, ἔσωθεν δὲ γέμουσιν ὀστέων νεκρῶν καὶ πάσης ἀκαθαρσίας)

Jesus compares the scribes and Pharisees with whitewashed tombs. He explains the meaning of the comparison in the next verse, so you should not explain it here.

Support Reference: Simile

ULT whitewashed tombs
UST to graves that people have painted white
(τάφοις κεκονιαμένοις)

In Jesus' culture, people would paint tombs white so that they would appear beautiful to people who passed by. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [tombs that someone has covered in white paint]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT of the dead
UST have many corpses
(νεκρῶν)

Jesus is using the adjective dead as a noun to mean people who are dead. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [of the dead people] or [of the corpses]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT all uncleanness
UST they are dirty
(πάσης ἀκαθαρσίας)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of uncleanness, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [are very unclean]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Woe	How terrible it will be
scribes	teachers of the Jewish law
Pharisees	You Pharisees
hypocrites	say that you obey God, but you really do not tombs	to graves

Matthew 23:28

ULT	UST
In the same way, you also on the outside appear righteous to men, but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.	Similarly, you seem to do what is right, but really you usually do what is wrong while pretending to do what is right.

ULT to men
UST seem
(τοῖς ἀνθρώποις)

Although the term men is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [to men and women]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

ULT full of hypocrisy and lawlessness
UST usually do what is wrong while pretending to do what is right
(μεστοὶ ὑποκρίσεως καὶ ἀνομίας)

If your language does not use abstract nouns for the ideas of hypocrisy and lawlessness, you could express the same ideas in another way. Alternate translation: [very hypocritical and lawless]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
righteous	to do what is right
of hypocrisy	while pretending to do what is right
lawlessness	do what is wrong

Matthew 23:29

ULT	UST
Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the tombs of the righteous.	You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! How terrible it will be for you! You construct monuments to honor the people who spoke for God long ago. You decorate the graves of people who did what was right.

ULT Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the tombs of the righteous
UST You Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish law say that you obey God, but you really do not! How terrible it will be for you! You construct monuments to honor the people who spoke for God long ago. You decorate the graves of people who did what was right
(οὐαὶ ὑμῖν, γραμματεῖς καὶ Φαρισαῖοι, ὑποκριταί! ὅτι οἰκοδομεῖτε τοὺς τάφους τῶν προφητῶν, καὶ κοσμεῖτε τὰ μνημεῖα τῶν δικαίων)

The first sentence describes a result for which the second sentence and the following verses give the reasons for. You could reverse the order of these sentences, but then you would need to create a long verse bridge. If possible, preserve the order of the sentences. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase to indicate that the second and following sentences give the reason for the first sentence. Alternate translation: [Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! You are hypocrites. I say that because you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the tombs of the righteous]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the tombs of the righteous
UST You construct monuments to honor the people who spoke for God long ago. You decorate the graves of people who did what was right (οἰκοδομεῖτε τοὺς τάφους τῶν προφητῶν, καὶ κοσμεῖτε τὰ μνημεῖα τῶν δικαίων)

When the scribes and Pharisees build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the tombs of the righteous, they are honoring important people who have died. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [you build the tombs of the prophets to honor them, and you decorate the tombs of the righteous to show them respect]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT of the righteous
UST of people who did what was right
(τῶν δικαίων)

Jesus is using the adjective righteous as a noun to mean people who are righteous. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [of righteous people]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Woe	How terrible it will be
scribes	teachers of the Jewish law
Pharisees	You Pharisees
hypocrites	say that you obey God, but you really do not tombs	monuments to honor of the prophets	the people who spoke for God long ago
tombs	the graves
of the righteous	of people who did what was right

Matthew 23:30

ULT	UST
And you say, 'If we were in the days of our fathers, we would not have been sharers with them in the blood of the prophets.'	You declare that, had you been alive when your ancestors were, you would not have helped them murder the people who spoke for God.

ULT you say, 'If we were in the days of our fathers, we would not have been sharers with them in the blood of the prophets
UST You declare that, had you been alive when your ancestors were, you would not have helped them murder the people who spoke for God
(λέγετε, εἰ ἤμεθα ἐν ταῖς ἡμέραις τῶν πατέρων ἡμῶν, οὐκ ἂν ἤμεθα κοινωνοὶ αὐτῶν ἐν τῷ αἵματι τῶν προφητῶν)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [you say that if you had been in the days of your fathers, you would not have been sharers with them in the blood of the prophets]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT If we were in the days of our fathers, we would not have been sharers with them in the blood of the prophets
UST that, had you been alive when your ancestors were, you would not have helped them murder the people who spoke for God
(εἰ ἤμεθα ἐν ταῖς ἡμέραις τῶν πατέρων ἡμῶν, οὐκ ἂν ἤμεθα κοινωνοὶ αὐτῶν ἐν τῷ αἵματι τῶν προφητῶν)

Jesus quotes the scribes and Pharisees using an imaginary situation to show that they would not have participated in killing the prophets. Use a natural method in your language for introducing an imaginary situation. Alternate translation: [Imagine that we were in the days of our fathers. In that situation, we would not have been sharers with them in the blood of the prophets]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT in the days
UST when … were
(ἐν ταῖς ἡμέραις)

The phrase in the days refers to a specific period of time. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [during the times]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT of our fathers
> UST your ancestors
> (τῶν πατέρων ἡμῶν)

The word fathers refers to ancestors, not direct fathers. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a similar phrase or plain language. Alternate translation: [of our forefathers]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT the blood of the prophets
> UST murder the people who spoke for God
> (τῷ αἵματι τῶν προφητῶν)

The word blood represents death. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [killing the prophets] or [the death of the prophets]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
days	when … were
of the prophets	the people who spoke for God

Matthew 23:31

ULT	UST
Therefore you testify against yourselves that you are sons of the ones having killed the prophets.	When you declare that, you admit that you are descendants of and similar to the people who did murder those who spoke for God.

ULT Therefore
UST When you declare that (ὥστε)

The word Therefore introduces an inference or conclusion based on what Jesus said that the Pharisees and scribes say. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces an inference or conclusion, or you could leave Therefore untranslated. Alternate translation: [In saying that,] or [So then,]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT you are sons of the ones having killed
UST you are descendants of and similar to the people who did murder
(υἱοί ἐστε τῶν φονευσάντων)

The phrase sons means male descendants. It does not mean that the scribes and Pharisees are the direct sons of the people who killed the prophets. In this case, the expression sons of also indicates that the sons are similar to their ancestors. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [you are like your ancestors, the ones having killed] or [you are descended from and much like the ones having killed]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
you testify	you admit
prophets	those who spoke for God

Matthew 23:32

ULT	UST
And you, fill up the measure of your fathers!	As for you, think about what will happen if you do what your ancestors did.

ULT And you, fill up the measure of your fathers
UST As for you, think about what will happen if you do what your ancestors did (καὶ ὑμεῖς πληρώσατε τὸ μέτρον τῶν πατέρων ὑμῶν)

Jesus is speaking as if he wants the scribes and Pharisees literally to fill up a measure of a certain amount. This represents them completing the wicked behavior that their fathers began when they killed the prophets. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [And you, finish doing the evil things that your fathers started]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT fill up the measure of your fathers
UST think about what will happen if you do what your ancestors did (πληρώσατε τὸ μέτρον τῶν πατέρων ὑμῶν)

Jesus commands the opposite of what he wants in order to make a point. He means that they should carefully consider the consequences if they do fill up the measure of their fathers. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [consider whether you really want to fill up the measure of your fathers] or [perhaps you should not fill up the measure of your fathers]

Support Reference: Irony

ULT of your fathers
UST your ancestors
(τῶν πατέρων ὑμῶν)

The word fathers refers to ancestors, not direct fathers. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a similar phrase or plain language. Alternate translation: [of your forefathers]

Support Reference: Metaphor

Matthew 23:33

ULT	UST
Serpents, offspring of vipers, how might you escape from the judgment of Gehenna?	You are sneaky and dangerous like poisonous snakes! You will not avoid God punishing you in hell.

ULT Serpents, offspring of vipers
UST You are sneaky and dangerous like poisonous snakes
(ὄφεις, γεννήματα ἐχιδνῶν)

The terms serpents and offspring of vipers both refer to poisonous snakes. Jesus is using the two terms together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single expression. Alternate translation: [Poisonous snakes]

Support Reference: Doublet

ULT Serpents, offspring of vipers
UST You are sneaky and dangerous like poisonous snakes
(ὄφεις, γεννήματα ἐχιδνῶν)

Jesus speaks of the scribes and Pharisees as if they were serpents and offspring of vipers. He means that they are evil and hurt other people. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use simile form or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [You who are like serpents and the offspring of vipers] or [Evil and wicked people]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT how might you escape from the judgment of Gehenna
UST You will not avoid God punishing you in hell
(πῶς φύγητε ἀπὸ τῆς κρίσεως τῆς Γεέννης)

Jesus is using the question form to rebuke the religious leaders. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [you will not escape from the judgment of Gehenna] or [you cannot escape from the judgment of Gehenna!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

> ULT the judgment of Gehenna
> UST God punishing you in hell
> (τῆς κρίσεως τῆς Γεέννης)

Jesus is using the possessive form to describe judgment that takes place in Gehenna. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [judgment in Gehenna]

Support Reference: Possession

> ULT the judgment of Gehenna
> UST God punishing you in hell
> (τῆς κρίσεως τῆς Γεέννης)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of judgment, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [being judged in Gehenna]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

> ULT of Gehenna
> UST in hell
> (τῆς Γεέννης)

Jesus uses the name Gehenna to refer to hell. The valley named Gehenna was outside the city of Jerusalem and was a place where people threw out and burned garbage. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a simile or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 23:15. Alternate translation: [of a place like the valley of Gehenna] or [of hell, which is like Gehenna valley]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Serpents	You are sneaky and dangerous like poisonous snakes
of vipers	You are sneaky and dangerous like poisonous snakes judgment	God punishing you
of Gehenna	in hell

Matthew 23:34

ULT	UST
For this reason, behold, I am sending to you prophets and wise {ones} and scribes. From them you will kill and crucify, and from them you will whip in your synagogues and pursue from city to city,	Since you are like that, I will have people who speak for God, people who are wise, and teachers of the Jewish law go to you! You will murder some of them and kill some of them by nailing them to crosses. You will beat some of them in your meeting places. You will chase them from one town to another.

ULT For this reason
UST Since you are like that
(διὰ τοῦτο)

The phrase For this reason introduces something that Jesus says he will do in response to how the scribes and Pharisees are acting. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces a response. Alternate translation: [Because you are behaving like that]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT behold
(ἰδοὺ)

The word behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to listen, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [hear me] or [take note]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT From them … from them
UST some of them … some of them
(ἐξ αὐτῶν)

The phrases From them and from them refer to some of the prophets and wise men and scribes. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [Some from among them … some from among them]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
prophets	people who speak for God

ULT	UST
wise {ones}	people who are wise
scribes	teachers of the Jewish law
crucify	kill some of them by nailing them to crosses synagogues	meeting places
pursue	You will chase them

Matthew 23:35

ULT	UST
so that might come upon you all the righteous blood being shed on the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you killed between the temple and the altar.	So, God will consider you to be guilty for murdering everyone who did what was right here on earth but whom someone murdered. I am referring to {Adam's son} Abel, who did what was right, and Barachiah's son Zechariah, whom your ancestors murdered in the temple area, and everyone in between.

ULT so that
UST So
(ὅπως)

The phrase so that could introduce: (1) a result from what the scribes and Pharisees will do. Alternate translation: [with the result that]; (2) a purpose for which Jesus sends people to the scribes and Pharisees even when he knows that they will kill them. Alternate translation: [in order that]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT might come upon you
UST God will consider you to be guilty
(ἔλθῃ ἐφ' ὑμᾶς)

Jesus is speaking as if the blood of righteous people would come upon the scribes and Pharisees. He means that God would consider them guilty of shedding this blood. If it would be clearer in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [you might be considered guilty for]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the righteous blood being shed on the earth … the blood … the blood
UST for murdering … who did what was right here on earth but whom someone murdered. I am referring to {Adam's son} Abel … and … Zechariah (αἷμα δίκαιον ἐκχυννόμενον ἐπὶ τῆς γῆς & τοῦ αἵματος & τοῦ αἵματος)

In this verse, Jesus uses both the phrase blood being shed and the word blood to refer to murder. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the murders of righteous people having happened on the earth … the murder … the murder]

Support Reference: Metonymy

> ULT all the righteous blood
> UST for murdering everyone who did what was right
> (πᾶν αἷμα δίκαιον)

Jesus uses the phrase righteous blood to refer to blood from righteous people. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [all the blood from righteous people]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT being shed
> UST but whom someone murdered
> (ἐκχυννόμενον)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, you could use an indefinite subject. Alternate translation: [that humans have shed]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT from the blood of Abel the righteous to the blood of Zechariah
> UST I am referring to {Adam's son} Abel, who did what was right, and … Zechariah … and everyone in between > (ἀπὸ τοῦ αἵματος Ἄβελ τοῦ δικαίου, ἕως τοῦ αἵματος Ζαχαρίου)

Jesus refers to Abel and Zechariah because the stories of their murders are the first and last stories about the murders of righteous people in the Hebrew Scriptures. In this way, Jesus indicates that he is speaking about all the stories about the murders of righteous people. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [from the blood of Abel the righteous, the first victim, and including the blood of every victim after that up to the last, the blood of Zechariah]

Support Reference: Merism

ULT of Zechariah … of Barachiah
UST and Barachiah's … Zechariah
(Ζαχαρίου & Βαραχίου)

The words Zechariah and Barachiah are the names of men. The man named Zechariah is most likely the one whose murder is described in 2 Chronicles 24:20–22. King Joash had him stoned to death in the temple courtyard after he rebuked the people of Judah for worshipping idols.

Support Reference: How to Translate Names

ULT you killed
UST your ancestors murdered
(ἐφονεύσατε)

Jesus speaks here as if you, his current audience, killed Zechariah. He means that the ancestors of his current audience did that. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [your ancestors killed]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
righteous	who did what was right
earth	here on earth
of Abel	I am referring to {Adam's son} Abel
righteous	who did what was right
temple	in the temple area
altar	in the temple area

Matthew 23:36

ULT	UST
Truly I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.	God will consider {you people who live in} this time period to be guilty of all those murders. What I have said is true.

ULT all these things will come upon this generation
UST God will consider {you people who live in} this time period to be guilty of all those murders
(ἥξει ταῦτα πάντα ἐπὶ τὴν γενεὰν ταύτην)

Jesus is speaking as if the things he has just spoken about will come upon this generation. He means that God will consider this generation to be guilty of doing those things. If it would be clearer in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [this generation will be considered guilty for all these things]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT all these things
UST all those murders
(ταῦτα πάντα)

The phrase all these things refers to the murders that Jesus mentioned in the previous verse. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [all those evil deeds]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT this generation
UST {you people who live in} this time period
(τὴν γενεὰν ταύτην)

Here, generation represents the people who are part of the generation, which means that they are adults who are currently alive. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [today's people] or [the people of this generation]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Truly	What I have said is true

ULT	UST
generation	{you people who live in} this time period

Matthew 23:37

ULT	UST
Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one killing the prophets and stoning the ones having been sent to her! How often I desired to gather your children the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing!	Oh, people of Jerusalem! You killed the people who spoke for God long ago. Then you killed others whom God sent to you. You killed them by throwing stones at them. Many times I have wanted to bring you together {to protect you}, as a chicken brings her offspring together under her wings. However, you did not want me to do that.

ULT Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one killing the prophets and stoning the ones having been sent to her! How often I desired to gather your children the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing
UST Oh, people of Jerusalem! You killed the people who spoke for God long ago. Then you killed others whom God sent to you. You killed them by throwing stones at them. Many times I have wanted to bring you together {to protect you}, as a chicken brings her offspring together under her wings. However, you did not want me to do that (Ἰερουσαλὴμ, Ἰερουσαλήμ, ἡ ἀποκτείνουσα τοὺς προφήτας καὶ λιθοβολοῦσα, τοὺς ἀπεσταλμένους πρὸς αὐτήν! ποσάκις ἠθέλησα ἐπισυναγαγεῖν τὰ τέκνα σου, ὃν τρόπον ὄρνις ἐπισυνάγει τὰ νοσσία αὐτῆς ὑπὸ τὰς πτέρυγας, καὶ οὐκ ἠθελήσατε)

Jesus speaks as if the city of Jerusalem were a woman with children. He is referring to the people who live in Jerusalem. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [People of Jerusalem, people of Jerusalem, the ones killing the prophets and stoning the ones having been sent to you! How often I desired to gather you the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing]

Support Reference: Personification

ULT Jerusalem, Jerusalem
UST Oh, people of Jerusalem
(Ἰερουσαλὴμ, Ἰερουσαλήμ)

Jesus is addressing something he knows cannot hear him, the city of Jerusalem, in order to show his listeners in a strong way how he feels about them. If it would be helpful in your language, you could translate these words as if he were speaking directly to people about these cities. Alternate translation: [I am very upset about Jerusalem]

Support Reference: Apostrophe

ULT the one killing the prophets and stoning the ones having been sent to her
UST You killed the people who spoke for God long ago. Then you killed others whom God sent to you. You killed them by throwing stones at them (ἡ ἀποκτείνουσα τοὺς προφήτας καὶ λιθοβολοῦσα, τοὺς ἀπεσταλμένους πρὸς αὐτήν)

These two phrases mean basically the same thing. The second emphasizes the meaning of the first by repeating the same idea with different words. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could connect the phrases with a word other than and in order to show that the second phrase is repeating the first one, not saying something additional. Alternatively, you could combine the two phrases. Alternate translation: [the one killing the prophets, indeed, stoning the ones having been sent to her] or [the one killing the prophets having been sent to her by stoning them]

Support Reference: Parallelism

ULT the ones having been sent
UST others whom God sent (τοὺς ἀπεσταλμένους)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you must state who did the action, Jesus implies that God did it. Alternate translation: [the ones whom God sent]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT her
UST you
(αὐτήν)

Although Jesus is speaking to Jerusalem, he uses the third person here. If this would not be natural in your language, you could use the second person form. Alternate translation: [you]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT How often
UST Many times
(ποσάκις)

The phrase How often introduces an exclamation, not a question. Jesus uses the exclamation to show how strongly he feels about Jerusalem. Use a form that communicates strong emotion in your language. Alternate translation: [Very strongly]

Support Reference: Exclamations

ULT your
UST you
(σου)

Since Jesus is speaking to Jerusalem, the word your here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings
UST {to protect you}, as a chicken brings her offspring together under her wings (ὃν τρόπον ὄρνις ἐπισυνάγει τὰ νοσσία αὐτῆς ὑπὸ τὰς πτέρυγας)

Jesus is saying that he wants to act like a hen that gathers her chicks because he wants to comfort and protect the people of Jerusalem, just as a hen does that for her chicks. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state that explicitly. Alternate translation: [the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings to comfort and protect them]

Support Reference: Simile

ULT a hen … chicks … her
UST a chicken … her offspring
(ὄρνις & τὰ νοσσία αὐτῆς)

A hen is a female chicken, and chicks are the young chickens she is raising. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of animal, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [a bird … her young]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT and
UST However
(καὶ)

The word and introduces what the people of Jerusalem actually did in contrast with what Jesus wanted them to do. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a contrast. Alternate translation: [but]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jerusalem	Oh, people of Jerusalem
Jerusalem	Oh, people of Jerusalem
prophets	the people who spoke for God long ago stoning

ULT	UST
	you killed … You killed them by throwing stones at them

Matthew 23:38

ULT	UST
Behold, your house is left to you desolate.	Your city will become a place where no one lives!

ULT Behold
(ἰδοὺ)

The word Behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express Behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to listen, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [Listen] or [Be aware]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT your house is left to you desolate
UST Your city will become a place where no one lives
(ἀφίεται ὑμῖν ὁ οἶκος ὑμῶν ἔρημος)

Jesus could speaking: (1) of the city of Jerusalem as if it were a house that will be left to its people desolate. In this case, he means that the city will be destroyed so much that people will no longer live there. Alternate translation: [your city will be left to you like a desolate house] or [your city will be destroyed]; (2) of the temple as if it were a house that will be left to its people desolate. In this case, he means that God will no longer be present in the temple. Alternate translation: [your temple will be left to you like a desolate house] or [God will abandon your temple]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT your house is left
UST Your city will become (ἀφίεται & ὁ οἶκος ὑμῶν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who does the action, it is clear from the context that it is God. Alternate translation: [God will leave your house]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT is left
> UST will become > (ἀφίεται)

Jesus is using the present tense in order to refer to something that will happen in the future. He is doing this to show that the event will certainly happen. Alternate translation: [will be left]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
house	city
desolate	a place where no one lives

Matthew 23:39

ULT	UST
For I say to you, you will certainly not see me from now until you say, ‘Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord!’”	In fact, here is what I want to tell you: the next time you see me, you will be saying, ‘May God bless him who is here to represent the Lord!’”

ULT For
UST In fact
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces support for the claim that Jesus made in the previous verse. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces basis or support for a claim, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [That is because, as]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT certainly not
UST the next time you see me
(οὐ μή)

The words translated as certainly not are two negative words in the original language. In this construction, the second negative does not cancel the first to create a positive meaning. Instead, it gives greater emphasis to the negative. If your language can use two negatives that do not cancel one another to create a positive meaning, you could use a double negative here. If your language does not use two negatives in that way, you could translate with one strong negative, as the ULT does. Alternate translation: [by no means]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

ULT from now
UST the next time you see me
(ἀπ’ ἄρτι)

Jesus uses the word now to refer to the time of his current visit to Jerusalem. He is not referring to just the current moment. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the time of my current visit with you]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT until you say
UST the next time you see me, you will be saying (ἕως ἂν εἴπητε)

Jesus could be indicating that they will certainly not see him: (1) until the time when they say the following words. Alternate translation: [until the time when you say]; (2) unless they say the following words. Alternate translation: [unless you say]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord
UST May God bless him who is here to represent the Lord
(εὐλογημένος ὁ ἐρχόμενος ἐν ὀνόματι Κυρίου)

Jesus is quoting from Psalm 118:26. Since he does not introduce the words as a quotation from an important text, you also should not introduce them as anything more than what he said. However, if it would be helpful for your readers, you could include this information in a footnote.

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord
UST May God bless him who is here to represent the Lord
(εὐλογημένος ὁ ἐρχόμενος ἐν ὀνόματι Κυρίου)

The exact same sentence appears in 21:9. Translate it as you did there.

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Blessed is	May God bless
of the Lord	the Lord

Matthew 24

Matthew 24 Chapter Introduction

Structure and Formatting

1. Jesus teaches about the final judgment and salvation (23:1–25:46)
    - The disciples ask Jesus about the destruction of the temple and the end of the age (24:1–3)
    - Jesus teaches about the destruction of the temple (24:4–35)
        - Things that will happen in the time before the destruction of the temple (24:4–14)
        - Things that will happen immediately before the destruction of the temple (24:15–28)
        - The coming of the Son of Man (24:29–31)
        - When these things will happen (24:32–35)
    - Jesus teaches about the end of the age (24:36–51)
        - No one knows when this will happen (24:36–41)
        - The need to be alert (24:42–44)
        - The parable of the faithful slave and the evil slave (24:45–51)

When Jesus speaks about which topics

When the disciples speak to Jesus in 24:3, they ask about two things: first, they want to know when the temple will be destroyed, and second, they want to know about the sign of Jesus' coming and of the end of the age. Christians disagree about when Jesus is speaking about which topic. He could:

1. finish speaking about the destruction of the temple in 24:35 and then go on to speak about his second coming (the outline above follows this view)
2. finish speaking about the destruction of the temple in 24:28 and then go on to speak about his second coming
3. speak about the destruction of the temple as a foreshadowing of the final tribulation in 24:4–28 and 24:32–35 and speak about his second coming in 24:29–31

Since Christians disagree over when Jesus is speaking about which topic, if possible format your translation so that several interpretations are possible.

Religious and Cultural Concepts in This Chapter

The destruction of the temple

The temple in Jerusalem was a very impressive, large building. Despite that, Jesus predicted that it would be destroyed within the lifetime of those who heard him. In fact, about 40 years later, a Roman army conquered Jerusalem and destroyed the temple.

The end of the age

The disciples ask Jesus about "the end of the age," which both they and Jesus imply is also the time of Jesus' second coming. The end of the age is the moment when God changes how things are in the present time to how they will be forever after Jesus' second coming. Consider how you might naturally refer to this time in your translation.

The Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven

In 24:30, Jesus indicates that he, the Son of Man, will "come" on the clouds of heaven. However, he does not indicate the location to which he will "come." Christians debate whether Jesus is describing his return to earth or his enthronement in heaven. If possible, your translation should allow for both possibilities. See the notes on this verse for translation options.

“This generation” in 24:34

In 24:34, Jesus says that what he has described will happen before “this generation” passes away. Many interpretations have been proposed for the group of people to which “this generation” refers:

1. The people who were alive while Jesus was speaking these words
2. The people who would be alive when the signs of the end began
3. People who are like those who did not believe while Jesus was on earth
4. Jewish people in general throughout history
5. Humans in general

Since the word that Jesus uses primarily refers to people who are alive at the same time, if possible use a word or phrase that refers to such a group of people. If it would be helpful for your readers, you could include some interpretations of the word in a footnote.

The days of Noah

In 24:37–39, Jesus compares the coming of the Son of Man with the time period of Noah. When Noah was alive, God told him to warn people that an enormous flood was coming. Noah built a large boat named an ark so that he, his family, and many animals could float on the water and survive the flood. However, people did not listen to Noah, and when the flood finally happened, everyone else died. Jesus says that the coming of the Son of Man will similarly surprise people who have not listened to his warnings. Just as the flood began suddenly, so the coming of the Son of Man will begin suddenly. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could include information about Noah in a footnote.

Translation Issues in This Chapter

The proverb about the corpse and the vultures

In 24:28, Jesus uses or invents a proverb that states that wherever a corpse is, there vultures will gather. He could be using this proverb to indicate that:

1. the coming of the Son of Man will be very obvious, just as a corpse is obvious because of the vultures that gather near it
2. people and groups of people that are spiritually dead will certainly be judged and punished, just as a corpse is devoured by vultures
3. believers who have died (the corpse) will come back to life with the aid of angels (the vultures)

Since Christians debate how Jesus wishes to apply this proverb, it is best to preserve the proverb without explaining its meaning. See the notes on this verse for translation options. (See: Proverbs)

The parable of the faithful slave and the evil slave

In 24:45–51, Jesus tells a story about how a slave might react to being put in charge of the rest of the household when the master goes on a journey. If the slave is wise and faithful, he will do what his master asked him to do. Then, when the master returns, the slave will be rewarded. On the other hand, if the slave is evil, he will abuse the other slaves and feast with drunk people. Jesus tells this story to make his disciples think about how they should behave during the time before his second coming. They should be like the wise and faithful slave, not the evil slave. Your translation should not directly explain the meaning of this parable more than Jesus does, but be sure that your readers understand how to apply the story. (See: Parables)

Singular and plural forms of “you”

Most of the forms of “you” in this chapter appear in teaching that Jesus gives to his disciples. Because of this, most forms of “you” in this chapter are plural. You should assume forms of “you” are plural unless a note specifies that the form is singular. (See: Forms of ‘You’ — Singular)

Matthew 24:1

ULT	UST
And Jesus, having gone out from the temple, was going away. And his disciples approached {him} to show him the buildings of the temple.	After that, Jesus left the temple area. As he was walking, his apprentices came to him and pointed out the impressive structures that were in the temple area.

ULT having gone out
UST left
(ἐξελθὼν)

In a context such as this, your language might say “come” instead of gone. Alternate translation: [having come out]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT from the temple
UST the temple area
(ἀπὸ τοῦ ἱεροῦ)

Matthew means that Jesus went out from the temple area. He does not mean that Jesus was in the most sacred parts of the temple building. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [from the temple courtyard]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the buildings of the temple
UST the impressive structures that were in the temple area
(τὰς οἰκοδομὰς τοῦ ἱεροῦ)

Jesus is using the possessive form to describe buildings that are in the temple area. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the buildings in the temple complex]

Support Reference: Possession

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
temple	the temple area
disciples	apprentices
of the temple	that were in the temple area

Matthew 24:2

ULT	UST
But he, answering, said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, a stone upon a stone will certainly not be left here, which will not be torn down."	He responded, "Look at all these structures! Enemies will completely destroy them. They will not leave anything standing. What I have said is true."

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT Do you not see all these things
UST Look at all these structures
(οὐ βλέπετε ταῦτα πάντα)

Jesus is using the question form to draw the attention of the disciples to the buildings. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [Consider all these things.] or [Think about all these things!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT a stone upon a stone will certainly not be left here, which will not be torn down
UST Enemies will completely destroy them. They will not leave anything standing
(οὐ μὴ ἀφεθῇ ὧδε λίθος ἐπὶ λίθον, ὃς οὐ καταλυθήσεται)

Jesus says that every stone will be torn down as an overstatement for emphasis. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different way to express the emphasis. Alternate translation: [almost every stone upon a stone will not be left here, and almost none of them will not be torn down]

Support Reference: Hyperbole

> ULT a stone upon a stone will certainly not be left here, which will not be torn down
> UST Enemies will completely destroy them. They will not leave anything standing
> (οὐ μὴ ἀφεθῇ ὧδε λίθος ἐπὶ λίθον, ὃς οὐ καταλυθήσεται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the action, it is clear from the context that it will be invading enemies. Alternate translation: [an invading army will certainly not leave a stone upon a stone here, which they will not tear down]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT a stone upon a stone will certainly not be left here, which will not be torn down
> UST Enemies will completely destroy them. They will not leave anything standing
> (οὐ μὴ ἀφεθῇ ὧδε λίθος ἐπὶ λίθον, ὃς οὐ καταλυθήσεται)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could use a positive expression to translate this double negative that consists of the negative particle not and the verb left, which in this context would be negative. Alternate translation: [every stone will be toppled off the stone it is on, and each one will be torn down]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Truly	What I have said is true

Matthew 24:3

ULT	UST
Now {as} he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples approached him by themselves, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? And what {is} the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"	Later, Jesus sat down on top of the Mount of Olives. His apprentices came to him. No one else was with them. They asked him, "Please explain to us when what you have described will happen. Also, {please explain to us} how we can tell when you are going to return {to this world} and when this current time period will end."

ULT Now
UST Later
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT saying
UST They asked him
(λέγοντες)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT Tell
UST Please explain
(εἰπὲ)

This is an imperative, but it should be translated as a polite request rather than as a command. It may be helpful to add an expression such as "please" to make this clear. Alternate translation: [We ask that you tell]

Support Reference: Imperatives — Other Uses

ULT Tell … your
UST Please explain … when you are going to return {to this world}
(εἰπὲ & σῆς)

Since the disciples are speaking to Jesus, the command and the word your in this verse are singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT these things
UST what you have described (ταῦτα)

The phrase these things refers to the events that Jesus described in the previous verse. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the events you have spoken about] or [that destruction]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT of your coming
UST when you are going to return {to this world}
(τῆς σῆς παρουσίας)

The disciples imply that Jesus will come back to this world at some point in the future. They are also implying that he will leave this world before he comes back. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [of when you are going to come back to this world] or [of when, after leaving this world, you will come back]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT of the end of the age
UST when this current time period will end
(συντελείας τοῦ αἰῶνος)

The phrase the end of the age refers to when the current time period will cease and a new age will begin. If your language has a way to refer to the end of the way things are now, you could use it here, or you could use a descriptive phrase. Alternate translation: [of the end of the world] or [of the moment in the future when the current way of doing things will cease]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Mount of Olives	Mount of Olives
of Olives	of Olives

ULT	UST
disciples	His apprentices
sign	we can tell
of the age	when this current time period

Matthew 24:4

ULT	UST
And answering, Jesus said to them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray.	Jesus replied, "Make sure that nobody deceives you!

ULT leads you astray
UST deceives you
(ὑμᾶς πλανήσῃ)

Jesus is speaking as if the disciples could literally be led astray, that is, led down the wrong path. He means that they could be deceived. If it would be helpful for your readers, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [causes you to believe what is wrong]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus

Matthew 24:5

ULT	UST
For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and they will lead many astray.	{I say that} because many people will meet you and say that God has authorized them as he has authorized me. They will say that they are the Messiah. {By doing that,} they will deceive many people.

ULT For
UST {I say that} because
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces a reason why Jesus wants the disciples to be careful. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason or basis for an exhortation, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [You should be careful because] or [Indeed,]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT many … many
UST many people … many people
(πολλοὶ & πολλοὺς)

In both places, Jesus is using the adjective many as a noun to mean many people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [many men and women … many men and women]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT will come
UST will meet you
(ἐλεύσονται)

In a context such as this, your language might say "go" instead of come. Alternate translation: [will go]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT in my name
UST and say that God has authorized them as he has authorized me
(ἐπὶ τῷ ὀνόματί μου)

The word name refers primarily to the person who has that name, and it focuses especially on that person's authority. More specifically, Jesus could mean that: (1) these people claim to have the authority that Jesus properly has. Alternate translation: [in my authority] or [claiming to have the authority I have]; (2) these people claim to represent Jesus. Alternate translation: [claiming to be my representatives] or [as if they were my representatives]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT saying, 'I am the Christ,' and UST They will say that they are the Messiah. {By doing that … } (λέγοντες, ἐγώ εἰμι ὁ Χριστός; καὶ)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [saying that they are the Christ, and]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT saying
UST They will say that
(λέγοντες)

If you keep the direct quotation, consider natural ways of introducing it in your language. Alternate translation: [and they will say]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT they will lead many astray
UST they will deceive many people
(πολλοὺς πλανήσουσιν)

See how you translated the similar expression in 24:4. Alternate translation: [will cause many to believe what is wrong]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Christ	Messiah

Matthew 24:6

ULT	UST
And you are going to hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled, for it is necessary {for this} to happen, but the end is not yet.	Whenever people tell you about wars that are happening and about wars that could happen, make sure that you are not afraid. Things like that have to happen. However, the current time period will not yet end.

ULT you are not troubled
UST you are not afraid
(μὴ θροεῖσθε)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the wars and rumors of wars. Alternate translation: [those things do not trouble you]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT it is necessary {for this} to happen
UST Things like that have to happen
(δεῖ & γενέσθαι)

Jesus means that God has planned these things, and they will not change. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make that idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [God has chosen that these things will happen]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the end
UST the current time period
(τὸ τέλος)

Jesus is speaking about the end of the age, which is what the disciples asked about. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the end of the world] or [the moment in the future when the current way of doing things will cease]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
you are … troubled	you are … afraid

Matthew 24:7

ULT	UST
For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be faminesand earthquakes in various places.	Further, groups of people will attack each other. Many people will not have enough food to eat, and earthquakes will happen in many places.

ULT For
UST Further
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces a further explanation of what is going to happen. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a further explanation, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [Even more,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom
UST groups of people will attack each other
(ἐγερθήσεται & ἔθνος ἐπὶ ἔθνος, καὶ βασιλεία ἐπὶ βασιλείαν)

These two phrases mean basically the same thing. The second emphasizes the meaning of the first by repeating the same idea with different words. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could connect the phrases with a word other than and in order to show that the second phrase is repeating the first one, not saying something additional. Alternatively, you could combine the two phrases. Alternate translation: [nation will rise against nation, yes, kingdom against kingdom] or [nation and kingdom rise against nation and kingdom]

Support Reference: Parallelism

ULT nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom
UST groups of people will attack each other
(ἐγερθήσεται & ἔθνος ἐπὶ ἔθνος, καὶ βασιλεία ἐπὶ βασιλείαν)

The words nation and kingdom represents nations and kingdoms in general, not one particular kingdom and nation. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [some nations will rise against other nations, and some kingdoms will rise against other kingdoms]

Support Reference: Generic Noun Phrases

ULT nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom
UST groups of people will attack each other
(ἐγερθήσεται & ἔθνος ἐπὶ ἔθνος, καὶ βασιλεία ἐπὶ βασιλείαν)

The words nation and kingdom represent the people who live in them. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the people of a nation will rise up against the people of another nation, and the people of a kingdom against the people of another kingdom]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT will rise against
UST groups of people will attack each other
(ἐγερθήσεται & ἐπὶ)

The phrase rise against is referring to attacking someone or something. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [will fight against]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT kingdom against kingdom
UST groups of people will attack each other
(βασιλεία ἐπὶ βασιλείαν)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You can supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [kingdom will rise against kingdom]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT famines and earthquakes
UST Many people will not have enough food to eat, and earthquakes will happen (λιμοὶ καὶ σεισμοὶ)

Many ancient manuscripts read famines and earthquakes. The ULT follows that reading. Other ancient manuscripts read “famines and plagues and earthquakes.” If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
nation	groups of people will attack each other
nation	groups of people will attack each other
kingdom	groups of people will attack each other
kingdom	groups of people will attack each other
famines	Many people will not have enough food to eat

Matthew 24:8

ULT	UST
But all these things {are} the beginning of birth pains.	Those events are like the first pains a pregnant woman feels when she is going to birth. They are bad, but many more bad things will still happen after them.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces what Jesus says about how these things are just the beginning in contrast to how bad they seemed when he described them in the previous verses. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [And yet,] or [However,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT all these things
UST Those events
(πάντα & ταῦτα)

The phrase all these things refers to the things that Jesus has said will happen. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [all the things that I have described]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT {are} the beginning of birth pains
UST are like the first pains a pregnant woman feels when she is going to birth. They are bad, but many more bad things will still happen after them
(ἀρχὴ ὠδίνων)

Jesus speaks of the events that he has described as if they were the beginning of birth pains. He means that, just like birth pains, they are difficult and painful things that eventually lead to a happy and wonderful result. If possible, you should maintain the figure of speech or express the idea in simile form. Alternate translation: [are like the beginning of birth pains]

Support Reference: Metaphor

Matthew 24:9

ULT	UST
Then they will hand you over to tribulation and will kill you, and you will be hated by all the nations because of my name.	While those things are happening, people will hurt you and kill you. Indeed, because you are my apprentices, many groups of people will be hostile to you.

ULT Then
UST While those things are happening
(τότε)

The word Then could be introducing something that will happen: (1) during the events that Jesus has been describing. Alternate translation: [During that time,]; (2) after the events that Jesus has been describing. Alternate translation: [After that time,]

Support Reference: Connect — Simultaneous Time Relationship

ULT they will hand you over to tribulation
UST people will hurt you
(παραδώσουσιν ὑμᾶς εἰς θλῖψιν)

The phrase hand you over refers to putting people into a particular situation or experience. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [they will make you experience tribulation] or [they will cause you tribulation]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT they will hand you over
UST people will hurt you
(παραδώσουσιν ὑμᾶς)

The pronoun they refers to all people who persecute the disciples. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that refers to enemies of the disciples. Alternate translation: [your enemies will hand you over]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

> ULT to tribulation
> UST people will hurt
> (εἰς θλῖψιν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of tribulation, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [to be afflicted] or [to be persecuted]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

> ULT you will be hated by all the nations
> UST many groups of people will be hostile to you
> (ἔσεσθε μισούμενοι ὑπὸ πάντων τῶν ἐθνῶν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [all the nations will hate you]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT because of my name
> UST because you are my apprentices
> (διὰ τὸ ὄνομά μου)

Here, name represents the person whose name it is. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 10:22. Alternate translation: [because of me]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
tribulation	people will hurt
nations	many groups of people

Matthew 24:10

ULT	UST
And then many will be caused to stumble and will hand one another over and will hate one another.	Also while those things are happening, many people will stop believing {in me}. They will have people arrest their fellow believers. They will be hostile to each other.

ULT then
UST while those things are happening
(τότε)

Here, just as in 24:9, the word then could introduce something that will happen: (1) during the events that Jesus has been describing. Alternate translation: [During that time,]; (2) after the events that Jesus has been describing. Alternate translation: [After that time,]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT many will be caused to stumble
UST many people will stop believing {in me}
(σκανδαλισθήσονται πολλοὶ)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [many will stumble]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT many will be caused to stumble
UST many people will stop believing {in me}
(σκανδαλισθήσονται πολλοὶ)

Jesus speaks of ceasing to believe in God as if it were stumbling. If it would be clearer in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [many will stop believing] or [many will cease trusting God]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT many
UST many people
(πολλοὶ)

Jesus is using the adjective many as a noun to mean many disciples or fellow believers. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [many disciples] or [many of my followers]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT will hand one another over
UST They will have people arrest their fellow believers
(ἀλλήλους παραδώσουσιν)

The phrase hand one another over refers to putting people under the authority and control of other people. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [will have the authorities seize one another] or [will cause one another to be arrested]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
will hand … over	They will have people arrest

Matthew 24:11

ULT	UST
And many false prophets will be raised up and will lead many astray.	There will be many people who lie when they claim to speak for God. They will deceive many people.

ULT will be raised up
UST There will be
(ἐγερθήσονται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the action, it is clear from the context that it will be the false prophets themselves. Alternate translation: [will rise up]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT will be raised up
UST There will be
(ἐγερθήσονται)

The phrase will be raised up refers to people beginning to do some task publicly. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [will appear] or [will start prophesying]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT and will lead many astray
UST They will deceive many people
(καὶ πλανήσουσιν πολλούς)

Jesus is speaking as if the prophets would literally lead people astray, that is, down the wrong path. He means that they will deceive people. If it would be helpful for your readers, you could state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea 24:4. Alternate translation: [will cause many to believe what is wrong]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT many
> UST many people
> (πολλούς)

Jesus is using the adjective many as a noun to mean many people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [many men and women]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
false prophets	who lie when they claim to speak for God

Matthew 24:12

ULT	UST
And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold.	Since more and more people will do what is wrong, many people will stop caring {for each other}.

ULT lawlessness will be increased
UST Since more and more people will do what is wrong
(τὸ πληθυνθῆναι τὴν ἀνομίαν)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [lawlessness will increase]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT lawlessness
UST will do what is wrong
(τὴν ἀνομίαν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of lawlessness, you could express the same idea with a verbal form. Alternate translation: [people doing what is lawless]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT the love of many will grow cold
UST many people will stop caring {for each other}
(ψυγήσεται ἡ ἀγάπη τῶν πολλῶν)

Jesus speaks as if love were something hot that could literally grow cold. He means that love has diminished or ceased. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable figure of speech or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the love of many will be like a fire that has gone out] or [the love of many will cease]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the love of many will grow cold
UST many people will stop caring {for each other}
(ψυγήσεται ἡ ἀγάπη τῶν πολλῶν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of love, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [many will grow cold in how they love]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT the love of many
UST many people … caring {for each other}
(ἡ ἀγάπη τῶν πολλῶν)

Jesus could be speaking about: (1) love for other people. Alternate translation: [the love of many for other people]; (2) love for God. Alternate translation: [the love of many for God]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT of many
UST many people
(τῶν πολλῶν)

Jesus is using the adjective many as a noun to mean many people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [of many men and women]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
lawlessness	will do what is wrong
will be increased	Since more and more people love	caring {for each other}

Matthew 24:13

ULT	UST
But the one having endured to the end, this one will be saved.	However, if you persevere {in being my apprentices} while people harm you, God will rescue you.

ULT But the one having endured to the end, this one will be saved
UST However, if you persevere {in being my apprentices} while people harm you, God will rescue you (ὁ δὲ ὑπομείνας εἰς τέλος, οὗτος σωθήσεται)

The exact same sentence appears in 10:22. Translate it as you did there.

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having endured	if you persevere {in being my apprentices}
will be saved	God will rescue

Matthew 24:14

ULT	UST
And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.	You, my apprentices, will proclaim the good news about God's kingdom throughout this world. That way, you will tell every group of people {about me}. After that, the current time period will end.

ULT this gospel of the kingdom will be preached
UST You, my apprentices, will proclaim the good news about God's kingdom (κηρυχθήσεται τοῦτο τὸ εὐαγγέλιον τῆς βασιλείας)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you must state who did the action, Jesus implies that his disciples will do it. Alternate translation: [you will preach this gospel of the kingdom]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT this gospel of the kingdom
UST the good news about God's kingdom
(τοῦτο τὸ εὐαγγέλιον τῆς βασιλείας)

Jesus is using the possessive form to describe a gospel that is about the kingdom. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the gospel concerning the kingdom]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT for a testimony
UST That way, you will tell … about me
(εἰς μαρτύριον)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of testimony, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [so that someone testifies about it] or [so that it is testified]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

> ULT to all the nations
> UST every group of people
> (πᾶσιν τοῖς ἔθνεσιν)

The word nations represents the people who live in those nations. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [to the people of all the nations]

Support Reference: Metonymy

> ULT the end
> UST the current time period will end
> (τὸ τέλος)

Jesus is speaking about the end of the age, which is what the disciples asked about. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the end of the world] or [the moment in the future when the current way of doing things will cease]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT will come
> UST the current time period will end
> (ἥξει)

Jesus speaks as if the end were something that could come. He means that the end will happen. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [will happen]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
gospel	the good news
of the kingdom	about God's kingdom
will be preached	You, my apprentices, will proclaim world	throughout this world
a testimony	you will tell … about me
to … the nations	group of people

Matthew 24:15

ULT	UST
Therefore, when you see the abomination of desolation having been spoken of by Daniel the prophet standing in the holy place" (let the one reading understand),	At some point, you will realize that the detestable thing that destroys is in the temple building. Daniel, who spoke for God, already referred to this detestable thing." (So, anyone who has read what Daniel wrote should know what Jesus meant.)

ULT the holy place" (let the one reading understand … then
UST the temple building … So, anyone who has read what Daniel wrote should know what Jesus meant … When you realize that (τόπῳ ἁγίῳ (ὁ ἀναγινώσκων νοείτω), τότε) (24:15-16)

The clause in parentheses, let the one reading understand, could be: (1) written by Matthew to anyone who reads what Daniel wrote. Use a form that clearly indicates that Matthew is writing this, not reporting what Jesus spoke. Alternate translation: [the holy place" (and I, Matthew, add: Let the one who has read the book of Daniel understand.), "then]; (2) spoken by Jesus to anyone who reads what Daniel wrote. Alternate translation: [the holy place, and let the one who has read the book of Daniel understand, then]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Therefore
(οὖν)

The word Therefore introduces an inference or conclusion based on what Jesus has said about how persecution and suffering will happen. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of inference or conclusion. Alternate translation: [Because of all that]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

> ULT the abomination of desolation
> UST that the detestable thing that destroys
> (τὸ βδέλυγμα τῆς ἐρημώσεως)

The phrase the abomination of desolation is found in Daniel 9:27, Daniel 11:31, and Daniel 12:11. Jesus' audience would have been familiar with these passages, which prophesy about the abomination entering the temple and defiling it. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the shameful thing that defiles the temple]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT the abomination of desolation
> UST that the detestable thing that destroys
> (τὸ βδέλυγμα τῆς ἐρημώσεως)

Jesus is using the possessive form to describe an abomination that causes desolation. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the abomination that causes desolation] or [the abomination that leads to desolation]

Support Reference: Possession

> ULT the abomination of desolation
> UST that the detestable thing that destroys
> (τὸ βδέλυγμα τῆς ἐρημώσεως)

If your language does not use abstract nouns for the ideas of abomination and desolation, you could express the same ideas in another way. Alternate translation: [the abominable thing that desolates]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

> ULT having been spoken of by Daniel the prophet
> UST Daniel, who spoke for God, already referred to this detestable thing
> (τὸ ῥηθὲν διὰ Δανιὴλ τοῦ προφήτου)

If your language does not use this passive form, you can state this in active form. Alternate translation: [of which Daniel the prophet spoke]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT in the holy place
UST in the temple building
(ἐν τόπῳ ἁγίῳ)

The phrase the holy place refers to the temple building. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [in the holy temple]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT let the one reading understand
UST So, anyone who has read what Daniel wrote should know what Jesus meant (ὁ ἀναγινώσκων νοείτω)

The phrase let the one reading understand could indicate that the one reading: (1) can understand what the abomination of desolation is if they know what Daniel wrote. Alternate translation: [The one reading understands] or [You know what I mean]; (2) should try to understand what the abomination of desolation is. Alternate translation: [Let the one reading try to understand] or [Reader, pay attention]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT let the one reading understand
UST So, anyone who has read what Daniel wrote should know what Jesus meant (ὁ ἀναγινώσκων νοείτω)

If your language does not use the third-person imperative in this way, you could state this in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [The one reading must understand]

Support Reference: Third-Person Imperatives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
abomination	that the detestable thing
of desolation	that destroys
Daniel	Daniel
prophet	who spoke for God
the holy place	the temple building
holy	the temple building
understand	should know what Jesus meant

Matthew 24:16

ULT	UST
“then let the ones in Judea flee to the mountains,	“When you realize that, those of you who are in the region of Judea should escape to the hilly areas nearby.

ULT let the ones in Judea flee
UST those of you who are in the region of Judea should escape
(οἱ ἐν τῇ Ἰουδαίᾳ, φευγέτωσαν)

If your language does not use the third-person imperative in this way, you could state this in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [the ones in Judea must flee]

Support Reference: Third-Person Imperatives

ULT to the mountains
UST to the hilly areas nearby
(εἰς τὰ ὄρη)

Jesus implies that people will be safer in the mountains than in Judea. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [to the mountains, where they will be safer]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Judea	the region of Judea

Matthew 24:17

ULT	UST
let the one on the housetop not go down to take anything from his house,	Those of you who are outside your homes should not go back into your homes to get anything.

ULT let the one on the housetop not go down to take anything from his house
UST Those of you who are outside your homes should not go back into your homes to get anything
(ὁ ἐπὶ τοῦ δώματος, μὴ καταβάτω ἆραι τὰ ἐκ τῆς οἰκίας αὐτοῦ)

Jesus gives a command to one person, but he implies that it applies to any of his disciples who are in the situation that he describes. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [let the ones on the housetops not go down to take anything from their houses]

Support Reference: Generic Noun Phrases

ULT let the one on the housetop not go down to take anything from his house
UST Those of you who are outside your homes should not go back into your homes to get anything
(ὁ ἐπὶ τοῦ δώματος, μὴ καταβάτω ἆραι τὰ ἐκ τῆς οἰκίας αὐτοῦ)

Where Jesus lived, the tops of houses were flat. People would eat and do other activities on top of their houses. Jesus assumes that his hearers know this and that they know that the roofs were accessed by an exterior staircase at the back of the house, distant from the entry at the front. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [let the one who is on top of his roof escape immediately by the back stairway and not enter his house to get anything]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT let the one on the housetop not go down
UST Those of you who are outside your homes should not go back into (ὁ ἐπὶ τοῦ δώματος, μὴ καταβάτω)

If your language does not use the third-person imperative in this way, you could state this in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [the one on the housetop must not go down]

Support Reference: Third-Person Imperatives

ULT let the one on the housetop not go down
UST Those of you who are outside your homes should not go back into (ὁ ἐπὶ τοῦ δώματος, μὴ καταβάτω)

In a context such as this, your language might say “come” instead of go. Alternate translation: [let the one on the housetop not come down]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT his
UST your homes
(αὐτοῦ)

Although the term his is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [his or her]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
house	your homes

Matthew 24:18

ULT	UST
and let the one in the field not turn back to take his cloak.	Those of you who are working in fields should not go back home to get your coats.

ULT let the one in the field not turn back to take his cloak
UST Those of you who are working in fields should not go back home to get your coats
(ὁ ἐν τῷ ἀγρῷ, μὴ ἐπιστρεψάτω ὀπίσω ἆραι τὸ ἱμάτιον αὐτοῦ)

Jesus gives a command to one person, but he implies that it applies to any of his disciples who are in the situation that he describes. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [let the ones in the fields not turn back to take their cloaks]

Support Reference: Generic Noun Phrases

ULT let the one in the field not turn back to take his cloak
UST Those of you who are working in fields should not go back home to get your coats
(ὁ ἐν τῷ ἀγρῷ, μὴ ἐπιστρεψάτω ὀπίσω ἆραι τὸ ἱμάτιον αὐτοῦ)

People in Jesus' time often walked from their towns to the field that they worked in during the day. Jesus is saying that, when they see the abomination of desolation, they should not return to their town to get their cloaks. Instead, they should flee directly from the field in which they are working. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [let the one working the field not return to his town to get his cloak]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT let the one in the field not turn back
UST Those of you who are working in fields should not go back home
(ὁ ἐν τῷ ἀγρῷ, μὴ ἐπιστρεψάτω ὀπίσω)

If your language does not use the third-person imperative in this way, you could state this in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [the one in the field must not turn back]

Support Reference: Third-Person Imperatives

> ULT his
> UST your coats
> (αὐτοῦ)

Although the term his is masculine, Jesus is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [his or her]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

Matthew 24:19

ULT	UST
But woe to the ones having in the womb and to the ones nursing in those days!	When what I have described happens, how terrible it will be for pregnant women and for nursing mothers!

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that Jesus wants to say. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next idea, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Now]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT to the ones having in the womb
UST for pregnant women
(ταῖς ἐν γαστρὶ ἐχούσαις)

The phrase having in the womb refers to being pregnant. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [to the ones who are with child] or [to the ones who are pregnant]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT to the ones nursing
UST for nursing mothers
(ταῖς θηλαζούσαις)

This does not mean babies who are nursing but women who are nursing babies (providing their milk for them). You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [to mothers who are nursing their babies]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT in those days
UST When what I have described happens
(ἐν ἐκείναις ταῖς ἡμέραις)

The phrase those days refers to the time period that Jesus has been describing. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [at that time] or [during that time period]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
woe	how terrible it will be
the womb	for pregnant women
days	When what I have described happens

Matthew 24:20

ULT	UST
But pray that your flight might not happen in winter nor on a Sabbath.	Ask God to keep you from having to escape during the winter season or on the Jewish day of rest{, when it is difficult to travel}.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that Jesus wants to say. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next idea, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Now]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT your flight might not happen
UST to keep you from having to escape
(μὴ γένηται ἡ φυγὴ ὑμῶν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of flight, you could express the same idea with a verbal form. Alternate translation: [you might not have to flee]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT in winter
UST during the winter season
(χειμῶνος)

In the location to which Jesus is referring, winter is the time of year when it is cold and travel is difficult. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a term for a season in which it would be difficult to travel, or you could translate winter with a general expression. Alternate translation: [in the rainy season] or [in the cold season]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT on a Sabbath
UST on the Jewish day of rest{, when it is difficult to travel}
(Σαββάτῳ)

Because people in Jesus' culture did not work on a Sabbath, it was much harder to travel on that day, even in an emergency. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [on a Sabbath, when no one is working] or [on a Sabbath, when traveling is hard]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
pray	Ask God
on a Sabbath	on the Jewish day of rest{, when it is difficult to travel}

Matthew 24:21

ULT	UST
For then will be great tribulation, such as has not happened from the beginning of the world until now, nor will ever happen.	{I say that} because people will suffer very severely when what I have described happens. People have not suffered that severely since God created the world up to now, and no one will ever suffer that severely again.

ULT For
UST {I say that} because
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces a reason why the disciples should pray that they would not need to flee in winter or on a Sabbath. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason or basis for a command, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [You should pray that because] or [That is because]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT will be great tribulation
UST people will suffer very severely
(ἔσται & θλῖψις μεγάλη)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of tribulation, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [people will be greatly hurt] or [people will be greatly afflicted]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT nor will ever happen
UST and no one will ever suffer that severely again
(οὐδ’ οὐ μὴ γένηται)

The words translated as nor and ever are three negative words. In this construction, the second and third negatives do not cancel the first. Instead, they give greater emphasis to the negative. If your language can use three negatives that do not cancel one another to create a positive meaning, you could use a triple negative here. If your language does not use three negatives in that way, you could translate with one strong negative, as the ULT does. Alternate translation: [and will by no means happen again]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

> ULT will ever happen
> UST no one will ever suffer that severely again
> (οὐ μὴ γένηται)

Jesus means that a tribulation that is this great will not happen again after these events occur. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [nor will ever again happen after that]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
tribulation	suffer
of the world	the world

Matthew 24:22

ULT	UST
And if those days had not been shortened, no flesh would be saved. But because of the elect, those days will be shortened.	Suppose that God were to allow what I have described to continue. In that case, nobody would survive. However, because of the people whom he has chosen {to belong to him}, God will not allow what I have described to continue.

ULT if those days had not been shortened, no flesh would be saved
UST Suppose that God were to allow what I have described to continue. In that case, nobody would survive (εἰ μὴ ἐκολοβώθησαν αἱ ἡμέραι ἐκεῖναι, οὐκ ἂν ἐσώθη & σάρξ)

Jesus is making a conditional statement that sounds hypothetical, but he is already convinced that the condition is not true. He knows that those days really have been shortened. Use a natural form in your language for introducing a condition that the speaker believes is not true. Alternate translation: [were those days not to have been shortened, no flesh would have been saved] or [image that those days had not been shortened. Then, no flesh would have been saved]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrary to Fact Conditions

ULT those days had not been shortened, no flesh would be saved
UST God were to allow what I have described to continue. In that case, nobody would survive
(μὴ ἐκολοβώθησαν αἱ ἡμέραι ἐκεῖναι, οὐκ ἂν ἐσώθη & σάρξ)

Jesus is using the past tense in order to refer to something that will happen in the future. He is doing this because he knows that God has already decided to shorten those days. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the future tense, or you could refer to God's decision. Alternate translation: [those days were not going to be shortened, no flesh would be saved] or [the decision had not already been made to shorten those days, no flesh would have been saved]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT those days had not been shortened … those days will be shortened
UST God were to allow what I have described to continue … God will not allow what I have described to continue (μὴ ἐκολοβώθησαν αἱ ἡμέραι ἐκεῖναι & κολοβωθήσονται αἱ ἡμέραι ἐκεῖναι)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you must state who will do the action, Jesus implies that God will do it. Alternate translation: [God had not shortened those days … God will shorten those days]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT those days … those days
UST what I have described … what I have described (αἱ ἡμέραι ἐκεῖναι)

Here, the phrase those days refers to the time period that Jesus has been describing. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [that time period … that time period]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT no flesh would be saved
UST In that case, nobody would survive
(οὐκ ἂν ἐσώθη & σάρξ)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [no flesh would remain] or [no flesh would continue to live]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT flesh
UST In that case, nobody (σάρξ)

Jesus is using flesh to represent humans. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your culture or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [humans]

Support Reference: Synecdoche

ULT But
UST However
(δὲ)

Here, the word But introduces what will actually happen in contrast to what might have happened if God had not shortened the days. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces that kind of contrast. Alternate translation: [In reality, though,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT the elect
UST the people whom he has chosen {to belong to him}
(τοὺς ἐκλεκτοὺς)

Jesus is using the adjective elect as a noun to mean elect people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the elect people] or [the people whom God has elected]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
days	what I have described
would be saved	would survive
elect	the people whom he has chosen {to belong to him}
days	what I have described

Matthew 24:23

ULT	UST
Then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here {is} the Christ!' or, 'Here!' you should not believe {it};	While those things are happening, there will be people who lie when they claim to be the Messiah or to speak for God. They will perform amazing miracles. They will try to deceive the people whom God has chosen {to belong to him}, and they will almost succeed in doing so. Therefore, when people tell you that the Messiah is here or there, do not trust {what they say}. (vv23-24)

ULT Then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here {is} the Christ!' or, 'Here!' you should not believe {it} … for false Christs and false prophets will be raised up and will give great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect

UST While those things are happening … when people tell you that the Messiah is here or there, do not trust {what they say} … there will be people who lie when they claim to be the Messiah or to speak for God. They will perform amazing miracles. They will try to deceive the people whom God has chosen {to belong to him}, and they will almost succeed in doing so. Therefore

(τότε ἐάν τις ὑμῖν εἴπῃ, ἰδοὺ, ὧδε ὁ Χριστός, ἤ ὧδε, μὴ πιστεύσητε. ἐγερθήσονται γὰρ ψευδόχριστοι καὶ ψευδοπροφῆται, καὶ δώσουσιν σημεῖα μεγάλα καὶ τέρατα, ὥστε πλανῆσαι εἰ δυνατὸν καὶ τοὺς ἐκλεκτούς) (24:23-24)

If it would be helpful to your readers, you could combine 24:23 and 24:24 into a verse bridge, as the UST does, in order to include the reason for Jesus' command before the command itself. Alternate translation: [Then, false Christs and false prophets will be raised up and will give great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. So, if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here {is} the Christ!' or, 'Here!' you should not believe it.]

Support Reference: Verse Bridges

ULT Then if anyone says to you

UST While those things are happening … when people tell you

(τότε ἐάν τις ὑμῖν εἴπῃ)

Jesus speaks as if this were a hypothetical situation, but he means that it will happen. If your language does not state something as a condition if it is certain or true, and if your readers might think that what Jesus is saying is uncertain, then you could translate his words as an affirmative statement. Alternate translation: [Then, although some people will say to you]

Support Reference: Connect — Factual Conditions

ULT Then
UST While those things are happening
(τότε)

Here, the word Then could introduce something that will happen: (1) during the events that Jesus has been describing. Alternate translation: [During that time,]; (2) after the events that Jesus has been describing. Alternate translation: [After that time,]

Support Reference: Connect — Simultaneous Time Relationship

ULT says to you, ‘Behold, here {is} the Christ!’ or, ‘Here!’ you should not believe {it}
UST tell you that the Messiah is here or there, do not trust {what they say}
(ὑμῖν εἴπῃ, ἰδοὺ, ὧδε ὁ Χριστός, ἤ ὧδε, μὴ πιστεύσητε)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [says to you that you should look because the Christ is there or there, you should not believe it]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT Behold
(ἰδοὺ)

The word Behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to look at something. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express Behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to look, or you could draw the audience’s attention in another way. Alternate translation: [Look] or [Listen]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT Here
UST there
(ὧδε)

The person speaking is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [Here is the Christ]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Christ	Messiah

ULT	UST
you should … believe {it}	do … trust {what they say}

Matthew 24:24

ULT	UST
for false Christs and false prophets will be raised up and will give great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.	While those things are happening, there will be people who lie when they claim to be the Messiah or to speak for God. They will perform amazing miracles. They will try to deceive the people whom God has chosen {to belong to him}, and they will almost succeed in doing so. Therefore, when people tell you that the Messiah is here or there, do not trust {what they say}. (vv23-24)

> ULT for
> UST Therefore
> (γὰρ)

The word for introduces a basis for the command that Jesus gave in the previous verse. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason or basis for a command, or you could leave for untranslated. Alternate translation: [because] or [since]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

> ULT will be raised up
> UST there will be
> (ἐγερθήσονται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the action, it is clear from the context that it will be the false Christs and false prophets themselves. Alternate translation: [will rise up]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT will be raised up
> UST there will be
> (ἐγερθήσονται)

The phrase will be raised up refers to people beginning to do some task publicly. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [will appear] or [will begin to lead]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT great signs and wonders
UST amazing miracles
(σημεῖα μεγάλα καὶ τέρατα)

The terms signs and wonders mean similar things. Jesus is using the two terms together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single phrase. Alternate translation: [amazing signs] or [impressive deeds]

Support Reference: Doublet

ULT so as to lead astray
UST They will try to deceive
(ὥστε πλανῆσαι)

The phrase so as introduces the purpose for which the false Christs and false prophets give the great signs and wonders. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces a purpose. Alternate translation: [with the goal of leading astray] or [in order to lead astray]

Support Reference: Connect — Goal (Purpose) Relationship

ULT to lead astray, if possible, even the elect
UST to deceive the people whom God has chosen {to belong to him}, and they will almost succeed in doing so (πλανῆσαι εἰ δυνατὸν καὶ τοὺς ἐκλεκτούς)

Jesus is speaking as if the false Christs and prophets could literally lead people astray. He means that they would deceive others. If it would be helpful for your readers, you could state the meaning plainly. See how you translated the similar expression in 24:4. Alternate translation: [to cause, if possible, even the elect to believe what is wrong]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT if possible
UST and they will almost succeed in doing so
(εἰ δυνατὸν)

Here, the phrase if possible could mean: (1) that it is not actually possible to lead astray the elect. Alternate translation: [if it were possible]; (2) that the false Christs and false prophets will try everything they can to lead astray the elect. Alternate translation: [if they can] or [by all possible means]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrary to Fact Conditions

ULT the elect
UST the people whom God has chosen {to belong to him}
(τοὺς ἐκλεκτούς)

Jesus is using the adjective elect as a noun to mean elect people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. See how you translated this word in 24:22. Alternate translation: [the elect people] or [the people whom God has elected]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
false prophets	to speak for God
signs	amazing miracles
elect	the people whom God has chosen {to belong to him}

Matthew 24:25

ULT	UST
Behold, I have told you beforehand.	I have warned you about this before it happens!

> ULT Behold
> (ἰδοὺ)

The word Behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to listen, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [Listen] or [Notice]

Support Reference: Metaphor

Matthew 24:26

ULT	UST
Therefore, if they say to you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' you should not go out; 'Behold, in the inner chambers,' you should not believe {it}.	So, suppose someone says to you that the Messiah is in a place where no one lives. Do not go there. {Similarly, suppose that someone says to you that the Messiah} is in some private rooms. Do not trust what that person says.

ULT if they say to you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' you should not go out; 'Behold, in the inner chambers,' you should not believe {it}

UST suppose someone says to you that the Messiah is in a place where no one lives. Do not go there. {Similarly, suppose that someone says to you that the Messiah} is in some private rooms. Do not trust what that person says

(ἐὰν & εἴπωσιν ὑμῖν, ἰδοὺ, ἐν τῇ ἐρήμῳ ἐστίν, μὴ ἐξέλθητε. ἰδοὺ, ἐν τοῖς ταμείοις, μὴ πιστεύσητε)

Jesus uses imaginary situations to teach his disciples how to respond to people who claim to know where the Messiah is. Use a natural method in your language for introducing imaginary situations. Alternate translation: [imagine that they say to you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness.' In that case, you should not go out; imagine that they say to you, 'Behold, in the inner chambers.' In that case, you should not believe it]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT they say to you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' you should not go out; 'Behold, in the inner chambers,' you should not believe {it}

UST someone says to you that the Messiah is in a place where no one lives. Do not go there. {Similarly, suppose that someone says to you that the Messiah} is in some private rooms. Do not trust what that person says

(εἴπωσιν ὑμῖν, ἰδοὺ, ἐν τῇ ἐρήμῳ ἐστίν, μὴ ἐξέλθητε. ἰδοὺ, ἐν τοῖς ταμείοις, μὴ πιστεύσητε)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [they say to you that you should look because he is in the wilderness, you should not go out; that you should look in the inner chambers, you should not believe it]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT they say
UST someone says
(εἴπωσιν)

The pronoun they refers to any person who might say this. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to people in general. Alternate translation: [people say]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT Behold … Behold
(ἰδοὺ)

The word Behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to look at something. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express Behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to look, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [Look … Look] or [See … See]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT he is
UST that the Messiah is (ἐστίν)

Jesus implies that the people are speaking about the Christ. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the Christ is]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT you should not go out; 'Behold, in the inner chambers
UST Do not go there. {Similarly, suppose that someone says to you that the Messiah} is in some private rooms (μὴ ἐξέλθητε. ἰδοὺ, ἐν τοῖς ταμείοις)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [you should not go out; if they say to you, 'Behold, he is in the inner chambers]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

> ULT you should not go out
> UST Do not go there
> (μὴ ἐξέλθητε)

Jesus is referring to going out to the wilderness. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [you should not go out to that wilderness]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT you should not go out
> UST Do not go there
> (μὴ ἐξέλθητε)

In a context such as this, your language might say “come” instead of go. Alternate translation: [you should not come out]

Support Reference: Go and Come

> ULT the inner chambers
> UST some private rooms
> (τοῖς ταμείοις)

The phrase inner chambers refers to small, private rooms in a house. They could be bedrooms or storage rooms. If your readers would not be familiar with these types of rooms, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [the private areas] or [the inner rooms]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
wilderness	a place where no one lives
you should … believe {it}	Do … trust what that person says

Matthew 24:27

ULT	UST
For, just as the lightning comes out from the east and shines as far as the west, thus will be the coming of the Son of Man.	Here is why I say that: lightning lights up the sky from one side to the other{, and everyone can see it}. Similarly, when I, the Son of Man, return {to this world}, {everyone will see it}.

ULT For
UST Here is why I say that
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces a basis for the command that Jesus gave in the previous verse. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason or basis for a command, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [I say that because] or [That is because]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT just as the lightning comes out from the east and shines as far as the west, thus will be the coming of the Son of Man
UST lightning lights up the sky from one side to the other{, and everyone can see it}. Similarly, when I, the Son of Man, return {to this world}, {everyone will see it}
(ὥσπερ & ἡ ἀστραπὴ ἐξέρχεται ἀπὸ ἀνατολῶν καὶ φαίνεται ἕως δυσμῶν, οὕτως ἔσται ἡ παρουσία τοῦ Υἱοῦ τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου)

Jesus is saying that the coming of the Son of Man will be like lightning because they are both visible to everyone and very obvious. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state that explicitly. Alternate translation: [just as the lightning comes out from the east and shines as far as the west so that it is visible to everyone, so will the coming of the Son of Man be visible to everyone]

Support Reference: Simile

ULT the lightning comes out from the east and shines as far as the west
UST lightning lights up the sky from one side to the other{, and everyone can see it}
(ἡ ἀστραπὴ ἐξέρχεται ἀπὸ ἀνατολῶν καὶ φαίνεται ἕως δυσμῶν)

Jesus is referring to how a large bolt of lightning begins at one side of the sky and flashes to the other side. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the lightning flashes across the sky] or [the lightning lights up the sky from east to west]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT comes out
UST from one side
(ἐξέρχεται)

In a context such as this, your language might say “goes” instead of comes. Alternate translation: [goes out]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT will be the coming of the Son of Man
UST Similarly, when I, the Son of Man, return {to this world}, {everyone will see it}
(ἔσται ἡ παρουσία τοῦ Υἱοῦ τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου)

Jesus implies that the Son of Man will come back to this world at some point in the future. He is also implying that the Son of Man will leave this world before he comes back. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the Son of Man will come back to this world] or [the Son of Man, after leaving this world, will come back]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT of the Son of Man
UST I, the Son of Man
(τοῦ Υἱοῦ τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου)

Jesus speaks about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [me, who am the Son of Man]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
of the Son of Man	I, the Son of Man

Matthew 24:28

ULT	UST
Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will be gathered.	Carrion birds assemble wherever there is a dead body.

> ULT Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will be gathered
> UST Carrion birds assemble wherever there is a dead body
> (ὅπου ἐὰν ᾖ τὸ πτῶμα, ἐκεῖ συναχθήσονται οἱ ἀετοί)

Jesus uses or invents a proverb in order to teach. See the chapter introduction for what this proverb might mean in this context. Since there are many things that it might mean, you should express the idea in a form that your readers would recognize as a proverb without explaining its meaning. Alternate translation: [Vultures are gathered wherever there is a corpse]

Support Reference: Proverbs

> ULT the vultures will be gathered
> UST Carrion birds assemble
> (συναχθήσονται οἱ ἀετοί)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [the vultures will gather]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT the vultures
> UST Carrion birds
> (οἱ ἀετοί)

The word vultures describes large birds that travel in flocks and eat the flesh of dead animals that they find. If your readers would not be familiar with vultures, you could use the name of similar birds in your area, or you could use a general expression. Alternate translation: [the scavenger birds]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
vultures	Carrion birds

Matthew 24:29

ULT	UST
But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.	Once people suffer in the ways I have described, immediately God will cause the sun to become dark. The moon will not shine. Stars will drop down from the sky. God will disrupt the angels in heaven.

ULT But immediately after
UST Once … immediately
(εὐθέως δὲ μετὰ)

The phrase But immediately after indicates that the events Jesus will describe in 24:29–31 will come soon after the events he has described in 24:15–28 or perhaps all of 24:4–28. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that refers to events that will happen soon after other events. Alternate translation: [Then, directly following]

Support Reference: Connect — Sequential Time Relationship

ULT the tribulation of those days
UST people suffer in the ways I have described (τὴν θλῖψιν τῶν ἡμερῶν ἐκείνων)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of tribulation, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [those days when people will be greatly hurt] or [those days when people will be greatly afflicted]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT of those days
UST in the ways I have described
(τῶν ἡμερῶν ἐκείνων)

The phrase those days refers to the time period that Jesus has been describing. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 24:22. Alternate translation: [of that time period]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT the sun will be darkened
UST God will cause the sun to become dark
(ὁ ἥλιος σκοτισθήσεται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the action, it is clear from the context that it will be God. Alternate translation: [God will darken the sun]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the moon will not give its light
UST The moon will not shine
(ἡ σελήνη οὐ δώσει τὸ φέγγος αὐτῆς)

Jesus speaks as if the moon were a person who could give something to someone else. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the moon will become dark]

Support Reference: Personification

ULT the powers of the heavens will be shaken
UST God will disrupt the angels in heaven
(αἱ δυνάμεις τῶν οὐρανῶν σαλευθήσονται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the action, it is clear from the context that it will be God. Alternate translation: [God will shake the powers of the heavens]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the powers of the heavens
UST the angels in heaven
(αἱ δυνάμεις τῶν οὐρανῶν)

The phrase the powers of the heavens could refer to: (1) powerful spiritual beings that dwell in the heavens. Alternate translation: [the powerful beings in the heavens]; (2) the heavenly bodies, including the sun, moon, and stars. Alternate translation: [the sun, moon, and stars]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
tribulation	people suffer
of … days	in the ways I have described

ULT	UST
heaven	the sky
of the heavens	in heaven

Matthew 24:30

ULT	UST
And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn. And they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and much glory.	After that, people will see something in the sky that shows that I, the Son of Man, {am about to act}. In response, many groups of people here on earth will grieve. They will see me, the Son of Man, arriving by means of clouds. I will be powerful and very great.

ULT the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven
UST will see in the sky … the Son of Man … me
(φανήσεται τὸ σημεῖον τοῦ Υἱοῦ τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου ἐν οὐρανῷ)

The phrase in heaven could go with: (1) will appear. In this case, in heaven is where the sign will appear. Alternate translation: [will appear in heaven the sign of the Son of Man]; (2) the Son of Man. In this case, the sign shows that the Son of Man is in heaven. Alternate translation: [will appear the sign that the Son of Man is in heaven]

Support Reference: Information Structure

ULT the sign of the Son of Man
UST will see … the … Son of Man … me
(τὸ σημεῖον τοῦ Υἱοῦ τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου)

Jesus could be using the possessive form to describe a sign that: (1) shows that the Son of Man is about to do something. Alternate translation: [the sign that indicates that the Son of Man is about to do something]; (2) is the Son of Man. Alternate translation: [the sign, which is the Son of Man,]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT of the Son of Man … the Son of Man
UST the … Son of Man … of … me, the Son Man
(τοῦ Υἱοῦ τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου & τὸν Υἱὸν τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου)

Jesus is speaking about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could translate this in the first person. Alternate translation: [of me, who am the Son of Man, … me, who am the Son of Man,]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT all the tribes of the earth
UST groups … people on earth
(πᾶσαι αἱ φυλαὶ τῆς γῆς)

The phrase all the tribes of the earth could refer to: (1) all the groups of people in the world. Alternate translation: [all the people in the world]; (2) all the people who belong to the tribes of Israel. Alternate translation: [all the people of the tribes of Israel]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT coming
(ἐρχόμενον)

Christians debate exactly what it means in this verse for the the Son of Man to be coming. Some think he is coming to God's heavenly throne room. Others think he is coming back to earth. If possible, use a form that does not explicitly state where he is coming. Alternate translation: [traveling] or [going]

Support Reference: When to Keep Information Implicit

ULT the clouds of heaven
UST that … clouds
(τῶν νεφελῶν τοῦ οὐρανοῦ)

The expression of heaven contains extra information that would be unnatural to express in some languages. If this is true of your language, you could shorten the expression. Alternate translation: [the clouds]

Support Reference: Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

ULT with power and much glory
UST and
(μετὰ δυνάμεως καὶ δόξης πολλῆς)

If your language does not use abstract nouns for the ideas of power and glory, you could express the same ideas in another way. Alternate translation: [as someone who is powerful and very glorious] or [powerfully and very gloriously]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
sign	will see
of the Son of Man	the … Son of Man … me

ULT	UST
heaven	sky … the
tribes	groups … people on earth
of the earth	groups … people on earth will mourn	people … will … will … be
Son of Man	of … Son Man
of heaven	that … clouds
glory	δόξης (ORIG QUOTE)

Matthew 24:31

ULT	UST
And he will send his angels with a great trumpet, and they will gather together his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the heavens to the ends of them.	I will {have an angel} sound a loud trumpet. I will tell my angels to collect the people whom I have chosen. They will collect them from every place that exists.

ULT he will send his angels … his
UST I will tell my angels … the people whom I have chosen (ἀποστελεῖ τοὺς ἀγγέλους αὐτοῦ & αὐτοῦ)

If you expressed the idea in the previous verse in first person instead of third person, you should also use the first person here. Alternate translation: [I will send my angels … my]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT with a great trumpet
UST I will {have an angel} sound a loud trumpet
(μετὰ σάλπιγγος μεγάλης)

Here, a great trumpet represents the very loud sound that this trumpet would make. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [with a great trumpet call]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT his elect
UST the people whom I have chosen
(τοὺς ἐκλεκτοὺς αὐτοῦ)

Jesus is using the adjective elect as a noun to mean elect people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. See how you translated this word in 24:22. Alternate translation: [his elect people] or [the people whom he has elected]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT from the four winds, from the ends of the heavens to the ends of them
UST They will collect them from every place that exists
(ἐκ τῶν τεσσάρων ἀνέμων, ἀπ᾽ ἄκρων οὐρανῶν ἕως ἄκρων αὐτῶν)

These two phrases mean similar things. The phrase from the four winds indicates that the elect are gathered from every direction. The phrase from the ends of the heavens to the ends of them indicates that they are gathered from the farthest places. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could combine the two phrases and emphasize in another way the complete range of this gathering. Alternate translation: [from even the farthest points in every direction]

Support Reference: Parallelism

ULT from the four winds
UST They will collect them from every place that exists
(ἐκ τῶν τεσσάρων ἀνέμων)

The phrase the four winds refers to the four primary directions: north, south, east, and west, and so includes every place. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression or plain language. Alternate translation: [from the north, south, east, and west] or [from every place]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT from the ends of the heavens to the ends of them
UST They will collect them from every place that exists
(ἀπ᾽ ἄκρων οὐρανῶν ἕως ἄκρων αὐτῶν)

The phrase the ends of the heavens refers to the parts of the world that are the farthest away. Jesus means that the elect will be gathered from every place, no matter how far away. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [from the nearest to the farthest places] or [from even the farthest places]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
angels	my angels
a … trumpet	a … trumpet
they will gather together	to collect
elect	the people whom I have chosen

ULT	UST
of the heavens	They will collect them from every place that exists

Matthew 24:32

ULT	UST
Now learn the parable from the fig tree: When its branch already becomes tender and it puts out leaves, you know that the summer {is} near.	Listen to this story about how fig trees grow. Whenever they begin to produce new branches and leaves, you can tell that it is almost the summer season.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that Jesus wants to speak about. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next idea, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Next,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT learn the parable from the fig tree
UST Listen to this story about how fig trees grow
(ἀπὸ & τῆς συκῆς, μάθετε τὴν παραβολήν)

To teach the disciples, Jesus offers a story or illustration. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could indicate that explicitly. Alternate translation: [learn from this illustration concerning the fig tree]

Support Reference: Parables

ULT the fig tree … its branch already becomes tender and it puts out leaves
UST about how fig trees grow. Whenever they begin to produce new branches and leaves (τῆς συκῆς & ἤδη ὁ κλάδος αὐτῆς γένηται ἁπαλὸς καὶ τὰ φύλλα ἐκφύῃ)

The phrase fig tree represents fig trees in general, not one particular fig tree. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [fig trees … their branches already become tender and they put out leaves]

Support Reference: Generic Noun Phrases

ULT its branch already becomes tender
UST Whenever they begin to produce new branches
(ἤδη ὁ κλάδος αὐτῆς γένηται ἁπαλὸς)

The clause its branch already becomes tender means that the fig tree has begun to grow new branches, which are tender when they are new. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [it grows new twigs] or [it sprouts fresh branches]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the summer
UST the summer season
(τὸ θέρος)

In the location to which Jesus is referring, summer is the time of year when trees and plants grow and produce fruit. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a term for a season in which plants and trees grow. Alternate translation: [the time for things to grow] or [the hot season]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
parable	to this story
fig tree	about how fig trees grow
you know	you can tell

Matthew 24:33

ULT	UST
Thus also you, when you see all these things, know that it is near, at the doors.	Similarly, whenever you realize that what I have described is happening, you can tell that I will act very soon.

ULT all these things
UST what I have described
(ταῦτα, πάντα)

The phrase all these things refers back to what Jesus has described in 24:4–28 or perhaps 24:4–31. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [all those things about which I have told you]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT it is
UST I will act
(ἐστιν)

The word translated as it could: (1) refer to the coming of the Son of Man and the gathering of the elect, as described in 24:30–31. Alternate translation: [his coming is] or (if you expressed Son of Man in the first person) [my coming is]; (2) be translated as "he" and refer to the Son of Man. Alternate translation: [he is] or (if you expressed Son of Man in the first person) [I am]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT at the doors
UST very (ἐπὶ θύραις)

The phrase at the doors indicates that something or someone is very near and ready to enter. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [ready to enter] or [about to arrive]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
know	can tell

Matthew 24:34

ULT	UST
Truly I say to you that this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things happen.	Most of the people who are alive right now will still be alive when what I have described happens. What I have said is true.

ULT this generation
UST Most of the people who are alive right now
(ἡ γενεὰ αὕτη)

Here, generation represents the people who are part of the generation, which means that they are adults who are alive at the same time as the author. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the people of this generation]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT this generation
UST Most of the people who are alive right now
(ἡ γενεὰ αὕτη)

Christians debate whom Jesus was referring to with the phrase this generation. See the chapter introduction for more information. Two possibilities are most likely. Jesus could be referring to: (1) the people who were alive while he was saying these words. Alternate translation: [people who are alive right now]; (2) the people who will be alive when the things that he has described begin to happen. Alternate translation: [people who will be alive then]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT will certainly not pass away
UST will still be alive
(οὐ μὴ παρέλθῃ)

Jesus is referring to death in a polite way by using the phrase pass away. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a polite way of referring to this in your language, or you could state this plainly. Alternate translation: [will certainly not die]

Support Reference: Euphemism

> ULT will certainly not pass away
> UST will still be alive
> (οὐ μὴ παρέλθῃ)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could use a positive expression to translate this double negative that consists of the negative phrase certainly not and the negative verb pass away. Alternate translation: [will certainly remain]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

> ULT certainly not
> UST will still be alive
> (οὐ μὴ)

The words translated as certainly not are two negative words. In this construction, the second negative does not cancel the first to create a positive meaning. Instead, it gives greater emphasis to the negative. If your language can use two negatives that do not cancel one another to create a positive meaning, you could use a double negative here. If your language does not use two negatives in that way, you could translate with one strong negative, as the ULT does. Alternate translation: [by no means]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

> ULT all these things
> UST what I have described
> (πάντα ταῦτα)

Here, just as in 24:33, the phrase all these things refers back to what Jesus has described in 24:4–28 or perhaps 24:4–31. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make that idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [all those things I have told you about]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Truly	What I have said is true
generation	Most of the people who are alive right now

Matthew 24:35

ULT	UST
The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away.	Everything that God has created will eventually change or disappear. However, what I have said will never change or disappear.

ULT The heaven and the earth
UST Everything that God has created
(ὁ οὐρανὸς καὶ ἡ γῆ)

Jesus refers two main components of creation, heaven and earth, to refer to all of creation. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [All creation] or [The universe]

Support Reference: Merism

ULT my words
UST what I have said
(οἱ & λόγοι μου)

The phrase my words represents what Jesus has said using words. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the things I have spoken]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT will certainly not pass away
UST will never change or disappear
(οὐ μὴ παρέλθωσιν)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could use a positive expression to translate this double negative that consists of the negative phrase certainly not and the negative verb pass away. Alternate translation: [will always remain]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

ULT certainly not
UST never (οὐ μὴ)

The words translated as certainly not are two negative words. In this construction, the second negative does not cancel the first to create a positive meaning. Instead, it gives greater emphasis to the negative. If your language can use two negatives that do not cancel one another to create a positive meaning, you could use a double negative here. If your language does not use two negatives in that way, you could translate with one strong negative, as the ULT does. Alternate translation: [by no means]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
heaven	Everything that God has created earth	Everything that God has created

Matthew 24:36

ULT	UST
But concerning that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels of the heavens, nor the Son,except the Father only.	However, as for when this current time period will end, no human being knows that. The angels who dwell in heaven do not know that. Even I, the Son, do not know that. In fact, only God my Father knows that.

ULT But concerning that day and hour
UST However, as for when this current time period will end (περὶ δὲ τῆς ἡμέρας ἐκείνης καὶ ὥρας)

The phrase But concerning introduces the next topic that Jesus wants to talk about. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next topic. Alternate translation: [Next, I will talk about that day and hour. About them]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT that day and hour
UST when this current time period will end
(τῆς ἡμέρας ἐκείνης καὶ ὥρας)

The terms day and hour mean similar things. Jesus is using the two terms together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single phrase. Alternate translation: [that specific time]

Support Reference: Doublet

ULT that day and hour
UST when this current time period will end
(τῆς ἡμέρας ἐκείνης καὶ ὥρας)

Jesus is referring to the exact moment when this “age,” which is the current time period, will end (see the disciples’ question in 24:3). You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the end of the age] or [the moment in the future when the current way of doing things will cease]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT no one knows, neither the angels of the heavens, nor the Son,except the Father only
UST no human being knows that. The angels who dwell in heaven do not know that. Even I, the Son, do not know that. In fact, only God my Father knows that (οὐδεὶς οἶδεν, οὐδὲ οἱ ἄγγελοι τῶν οὐρανῶν, οὐδὲ ὁ Υἱός, εἰ μὴ ὁ Πατὴρ μόνος)

If, in your language, it would appear that Jesus was making a statement here and then contradicting it, you could reword this to avoid using an exception clause. Alternate translation: [only the Father knows and no one else, neither the angels of the heavens, nor the Son]

Support Reference: Connect — Exception Clauses

ULT the angels of the heavens
UST The angels who dwell in heaven
(οἱ ἄγγελοι τῶν οὐρανῶν)

Jesus is using the possessive form to describe angels that are in the heavens. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the angels in the heavens]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT nor the Son
UST Even I, the Son, do not know that (οὐδὲ ὁ Υἱός)

Many ancient manuscripts read nor the Son. The ULT follows that reading. Other ancient manuscripts do not include these words. If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

ULT the Son … the Father
UST Even I, the Son … God my Father
(ὁ Υἱός & ὁ Πατὴρ)

Son and Father are important titles that describes the relationship between Jesus the Son and God the Father. Be sure to retain these titles in your translation.

Support Reference: Translating Son and Father

ULT the Son
UST Even I, the Son
(ὁ Υἱός)

Jesus is speaking about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could translate this in the first person. Alternate translation: [I, who am the Son]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
day	when this current time period will end hour	when this current time period will end knows	knows that
angels	angels
of the heavens	who dwell in heaven
Son	Even I, the Son
Father	God my Father

Matthew 24:37

ULT	UST
For just as the days of Noah, thus will be the coming of the Son of Man.	So, when I, the Son of Man, return {to this world}, it will be like what happened when Noah was alive {long ago}.

ULT For
UST So
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces more information about how no one knows "that day or hour" (see 24:36). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces more information, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [In fact,] or [Indeed,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT just as the days of Noah, thus will be the coming of the Son of Man
UST when I, the Son of Man, return {to this world}, it will be like what happened when Noah was alive {long ago}
(ὥσπερ & αἱ ἡμέραι τοῦ Νῶε, οὕτως ἔσται ἡ παρουσία τοῦ Υἱοῦ τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου)

Jesus compares the days of Noah with the coming of the Son of Man. Jesus explains this comparison in the following verses, so you do not need to explain it here. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a form that introduces a comparison. Alternate translation: [think about the days of Noah. That is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like]

Support Reference: Simile

ULT just as the days of Noah
UST what happened when Noah was alive {long ago}
(ὥσπερ & αἱ ἡμέραι τοῦ Νῶε)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from the context if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [just as what occurred in the days of Noah]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT the days of Noah
UST what happened when Noah was alive {long ago}
(αἱ ἡμέραι τοῦ Νῶε)

The word days refers to a specific period of time. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the time when Noah was living] or [the time period of Noah]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT will be the coming of the Son of Man
UST when I, the Son of Man, return {to this world}, it will be (ἔσται ἡ παρουσία τοῦ Υἱοῦ τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου)

Jesus implies that the Son of Man will come back to this world at some point in the future. He is also implying that the Son of Man will leave this world before he comes back. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [it will be when the Son of Man comes back to this world] or [it will be when the Son of Man, after leaving this world, comes back]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT of the Son of Man
UST I, the Son of Man
(τοῦ Υἱοῦ τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου)

Jesus speaks about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [of me, who am the Son of Man]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
days	what happened when … was alive {long ago}
of Noah	Noah
of the Son of Man	I, the Son of Man

Matthew 24:38

ULT	UST
For as in the days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until that day Noah entered into the ark,	Here is what I mean: at the time before God flooded the whole world, people did not realize what was going to happen. They did {normal things, like} eating, drinking, and getting married. They did those things right up to the moment when Noah went into the big boat {that he had built}. Then, God flooded the whole world and destroyed everyone {who was not in the boat}. That is what it will be like when I, the Son of Man, return {to this world}. (vv38-39)

ULT For as in the days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until that day Noah entered into the ark … and they did not know until the flood came and took {them} all away, thus also will be the coming of the Son of Man
UST Here is what I mean: at the time before God flooded the whole world … They did {normal things, like} eating, drinking, and getting married. They did those things right up to the moment when Noah went into the big boat {that he had built} … and … when I, the Son … God flooded the whole world, people did not realize what was going to happen … and getting married … Then, God flooded the whole world and destroyed everyone {who was not in the boat}. That is what it will be like when I, the Son of Man, return {to this world}
(ὡς γὰρ ἦσαν ἐν ταῖς ἡμέραις & πρὸ τοῦ κατακλυσμοῦ, τρώγοντες καὶ πίνοντες, γαμοῦντες καὶ γαμίζοντες, ἄχρι ἧς ἡμέρας εἰσῆλθεν, Νῶε εἰς τὴν κιβωτόν. καὶ οὐκ ἔγνωσαν, ἕως ἦλθεν ὁ κατακλυσμὸς καὶ ἦρεν ἅπαντας; οὕτως ἔσται καὶ ἡ παρουσία τοῦ Υἱοῦ τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου) (24:38-39)

If it would be helpful to your readers, you could combine 24:38 and 24:39 into a verse bridge, as the UST does, in order to include the information in sequential order. Alternate translation: [For as in the days before the flood they did not understand, and they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until that day Noah entered into the ark and the flood came and took them all away, thus also will be the coming of the Son of Man]

Support Reference: Verse Bridges

ULT For
UST Here is what I mean
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces Jesus' explanation of the comparison he just drew between the time of Noah and the coming of the Son of Man. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of explanation, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [Here is how they are similar:] or [Indeed,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

> ULT in the days … until that day
> UST at the time … They did those things right up to the moment when > (ἐν ταῖς ἡμέραις & ἄχρι ἧς ἡμέρας)

The word days refers to a specific period of time, and the word day refers to a specific moment in time. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use comparable phrases or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [in the time … until the time when] or [in the time period … until the instant that]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage
> UST They did {normal things, like} eating, drinking, and getting married … and > (ἦσαν & τρώγοντες καὶ πίνοντες, γαμοῦντες καὶ γαμίζοντες)

Jesus describes several normal human activities (eating, drinking, and marrying and giving in marriage) in order to refer to normal human activities in general. If it would be helpful in your language, you could indicate more explicitly that these are examples of normal human activities, or you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [they were doing regular activities, such as eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage] or [they were going about their normal lives]

Support Reference: Synecdoche

> ULT they were
> UST They did {normal things … }
> (ἦσαν)

The pronoun they refers to people in general. If this is not clear for your readers, you could use a form that refers to people in general. Alternate translation: [men and women were] or [most people were]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

> ULT marrying and giving in marriage
> UST and getting married … and > (γαμοῦντες καὶ γαμίζοντες)

In Jesus' culture, it was customary to talk about men marrying and fathers giving their daughters in marriage. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [men marrying and women being given in marriage] or [men and women marrying]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT giving in marriage
> UST and getting married
> (γαμίζοντες)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of marriage, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [causing to be married]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
days	at the time
flood	God flooded the whole world
day	the moment when
Noah	Noah
ark	big boat {that he had built}

Matthew 24:39

ULT	UST
and they did not know until the flood came and took {them} all away, thus also will be the coming of the Son of Man.	Here is what I mean: at the time before God flooded the whole world, people did not realize what was going to happen. They did {normal things, like} eating, drinking, and getting married. They did those things right up to the moment when Noah went into the big boat {that he had built}. Then, God flooded the whole world and destroyed everyone {who was not in the boat}. That is what it will be like when I, the Son of Man, return {to this world}. (vv38-39)

ULT and they did not know
UST people did not realize what was going to happen
(καὶ οὐκ ἔγνωσαν)

Jesus implies that they did not know what was about to happen to them. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [and they did not know what was about to happen to them]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT took {them} all away
UST destroyed everyone {who was not in the boat}
(ἦρεν ἅπαντας)

Jesus is referring to death in a polite way by using the phrase took {them} all away. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a polite way of referring to death your language, or you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [swept them all away] or [killed them all]

Support Reference: Euphemism

ULT {them} all
UST everyone {who was not in the boat}
(ἅπαντας)

The word all does not include Noah and his family, who were in the ark. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [all those outside the ark]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT thus also will be the coming of the Son of Man
UST God flooded the whole world … That is what it will be like when I, the Son of Man, return {to this world}
(οὕτως ἔσται καὶ ἡ παρουσία τοῦ Υἱοῦ τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου)

Jesus concludes his comparison between the days of Noah and the coming of the Son of Man. He uses the comparison to show that the coming of the Son of Man will happen when people do not expect it, just as the flood came when people did not know that it was coming. If it would be helpful in your language, you could explain the meaning of the comparison more explicitly. Alternate translation: [thus also the coming of the Son of Man will happen when people are not expecting it]

Support Reference: Simile

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
they did … know	people did … realize what was going to happen
flood	God flooded the whole world
of the Son of Man	God flooded the whole world … when I, the Son of Man

Matthew 24:40

ULT	UST
Then two will be in the field—one is taken, and one is left.	Consider what will happen to two men working on a farm when I return. God will bring one man {to be with him}. He will leave the other man behind {to punish him}.

ULT Then
UST when I return
(τότε)

The word Then introduces something that will happen at the same time as the coming of the Son of Man. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces something that happens at the same time as something else. Alternate translation: [At that time,]

Support Reference: Connect — Simultaneous Time Relationship

ULT two will be in the field—one is taken, and one is left
UST Consider what will happen to two men working on a farm … God will bring one man {to be with him}. He will leave the other man behind {to punish him}
(ἔσονται δύο ἐν τῷ ἀγρῷ; εἷς παραλαμβάνεται, καὶ εἷς ἀφίεται)

Jesus uses two men in one field as a hypothetical example. He does not mean that this will happen to only two men in one specific field. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a form that introduces a hypothetical situation. Alternate translation: [two, for example, will be in a field—one is taken, and one is left]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT two will be in the field
UST Consider what will happen to two men working on a farm
(ἔσονται δύο ἐν τῷ ἀγρῷ)

Jesus implies that these two are working in the field. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [two men will be working in the field]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT two … one … one
> UST to two men … one man … the other man
> (δύο & εἷς & εἷς)

Jesus is using the numbers two and one as nouns to mean two men or one man. Your language may use numbers in the same way. If not, you could translate these words with equivalent phrases. Alternate translation: [two men … one man … one man]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

> ULT one is taken, and one is left
> UST God will bring one man {to be with him}. He will leave the other man behind {to punish him}
> (εἷς παραλαμβάνεται, καὶ εἷς ἀφίεται)

Jesus describes a separation between two men working in a field. He could mean that: (1) the one who is taken will be with God, while the one who is left will be punished. Alternate translation: [one is taken to be with God, and one is left to be punished]; (2) the one who is taken will be punished, while the one who is left will be with God. Alternate translation: [one is taken to be punished, and one is left to be with God]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT one is taken, and one is left
> UST God will bring one man {to be with him}. He will leave the other man behind {to punish him}
> (εἷς παραλαμβάνεται, καὶ εἷς ἀφίεται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the action, it is clear from the context that it will be God. Alternate translation: [God will take one, and he will leave one]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT one is taken, and one is left
> UST God will bring one man {to be with him}. He will leave the other man behind {to punish him}
> (εἷς παραλαμβάνεται, καὶ εἷς ἀφίεται)

Jesus uses the present tense to describe something that will happen in the future. He does this because it was a vivid way to tell a story in his language. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use whatever tense would be natural for telling a story about what will happen. Alternate translation: [one will be taken, and one will be left]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

Matthew 24:41

ULT	UST
Two grinding with the mill—one is taken, and one is left.	Consider what will happen to two women using a stone to prepare grain. God will bring one woman {to be with him}. He will leave the other woman behind {to punish her}.

ULT Two grinding with the mill—one is taken, and one is left
UST Consider what will happen to two women using a stone to prepare grain. God will bring one woman {to be with him}. He will leave the other woman behind {to punish her}
(δύο ἀλήθουσαι ἐν τῷ μύλῳ; μία παραλαμβάνεται, καὶ μία ἀφίεται)

Jesus uses two women grinding with one mill as a hypothetical example. He does not mean that this will happen to only two women using one specific mill. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a form that introduces a hypothetical situation. Alternate translation: [Two, for example, grinding with a mill—one is taken, and one is left]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT Two grinding
UST Consider what will happen to two women … to prepare grain
(δύο ἀλήθουσαι)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from the context if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [Two will be grinding]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT Two … one … one
UST Consider what will happen to two women … one woman … the other woman (δύο & μία & μία)

Jesus is using the numbers two and one as nouns to mean two women or one woman. Your language may use numbers in the same way. If not, you could translate these words with equivalent phrases. Alternate translation: [two women … one woman … one woman]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

> ULT grinding with the mill
> UST using a stone to prepare grain
> (ἀλήθουσαι ἐν τῷ μύλῳ)

The term grinding refers to the process of breaking up grain into very small pieces so that it can be used for cooking. A mill was a large stone that people would use to grind the grain. If your readers would not be familiar with grain, you could use a general expression. Alternate translation: [grinding grain] or [preparing food]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

> ULT one is taken, and one is left
> UST God will bring one woman {to be with him}. He will leave the other woman behind {to punish her}
> (μία παραλαμβάνεται, καὶ μία ἀφίεται)

Jesus describes a separation between two women grinding with a mill. See how you expressed the idea in 24:40. Jesus could mean that: (1) the one who is taken will be with God, while the one who is left will be punished. Alternate translation: [one is taken to be with God, and one is left to be punished]; (2) the one who is taken will be punished, while the one who is left will be with God. Alternate translation: [one is taken to be punished, and one is left to be with God]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT one is taken, and one is left
> UST God will bring one woman {to be with him}. He will leave the other woman behind {to punish her}
> (μία παραλαμβάνεται, καὶ μία ἀφίεται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the action, it is clear from the context that it will be God. Alternate translation: [God will take one, and he will leave one]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT one is taken, and one is left
> UST God will bring one woman {to be with him}. He will leave the other woman behind {to punish her}
> (μία παραλαμβάνεται, καὶ μία ἀφίεται)

Jesus uses the present tense to describe something that will happen in the future. He does this because it was a vivid way to tell a story in his language. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use whatever tense would be natural for telling a story about what will happen. See how you expressed the idea in 24:40. Alternate translation: [one will be taken, and one will be left]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

Matthew 24:42

ULT	UST
Therefore, be alert, for you do not know on what day your Lord will come.	So then, you cannot know at what moment I, your Lord, will return {to this world}. Because of that, you need to be ready {at all times}.

ULT be alert, for you do not know on what day your Lord will come
UST you cannot know at what moment I, your Lord, will return {to this world}. Because of that, you need to be ready {at all times}
(γρηγορεῖτε & ὅτι οὐκ οἴδατε ποίᾳ ἡμέρᾳ ὁ Κύριος ὑμῶν ἔρχεται)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the command in the first clause. Alternate translation: [since you do not know on what day your Lord will come, be alert]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT on what day
UST at what moment
(ποίᾳ ἡμέρᾳ)

The word day refers to a specific moment in time. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [at what hour] or [the time when]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT your Lord
UST I, your Lord
(ὁ Κύριος ὑμῶν)

Jesus speaks about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [I, who am your Lord,]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT will come
UST will return {to this world}
(ἔρχεται)

See how you translated “coming” in 24:37. Alternate translation: [will come back to this world] or [will, after leaving this world, come back]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
be alert	you need to be ready {at all times}
you do … know	you … know
on … day	at what moment
Lord	I, your Lord

Matthew 24:43

ULT	UST
But know this, that if the master of the house had known in which watch the thief comes, he would have been alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into.	Now learn from this situation: Suppose that a man who managed a household learned at what time a robber was going to steal from the house. In that case, he would be ready for the robber. He would prevent him from stealing from the house.

ULT But
UST Now
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that Jesus wants to say. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next idea, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Further,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT know this, that if the master of the house had known in which watch the thief comes, he would have been alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into
UST learn from this situation: Suppose that a man who managed a household learned at what time a robber was going to steal from the house. In that case, he would be ready for the robber. He would prevent him from stealing from the house
(ἐκεῖνο & γινώσκετε, ὅτι εἰ ᾔδει ὁ οἰκοδεσπότης, ποίᾳ φυλακῇ ὁ κλέπτης ἔρχεται, ἐγρηγόρησεν ἂν, καὶ οὐκ ἂν εἴασεν διορυχθῆναι τὴν οἰκίαν αὐτοῦ)

Jesus uses an imaginary situation to teach his disciples to be alert while they wait for him to return. Use a natural method in your language for introducing an imaginary situation. Alternate translation: [know this: imagine that the master of the house had known in which watch thief comes. Then, he would have been alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

> ULT know this, that
> UST learn from this situation
> (ἐκεῖνο & γινώσκετε, ὅτι)

The word this introduces the phrase that begins with that. This was a powerful way to introduce a statement in Jesus' culture. If this form would be redundant in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [know that]

Support Reference: Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

> ULT know this, that
> UST learn from this situation
> (ἐκεῖνο & γινώσκετε, ὅτι)

To teach his disciples, Jesus offers a story or illustration. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could indicate that explicitly. Alternate translation: [listen to this story:]

Support Reference: Parables

> ULT in which watch
> UST at what time
> (ποίᾳ φυλακῇ)

The word watch refers to a specific period of time during the night. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that refers to a period of time during the night. Alternate translation: [in which part of the night]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT comes
> UST was going to steal from the house
> (ἔρχεται)

Jesus uses the present tense to refer to the future coming of the thief. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use whatever tense would be natural to refer to this action. Alternate translation: [would come]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

> ULT his house to be broken into
> UST him from stealing from the house
> (διορυχθῆναι τὴν οἰκίαν αὐτοῦ)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you must state who would do the action, it is clear from the context that the thief would do it. Alternate translation: [the thief to break into his house]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
know	learn
master of the house	a man who managed a household had known	learned
thief	a robber
he would have been alert	In that case, he would be ready for the robber house	the house

Matthew 24:44

ULT	UST
For this reason you also be ready, because in that hour you do not think, the Son of Man comes.	So then, since I, the Son of Man, will return {to this world} when you do not expect me, you too need to be ready.

ULT For this reason you also be ready, because in that hour you do not think, the Son of Man comes
UST So then, since I, the Son of Man, will return {to this world} when you do not expect me, you too need to be ready (διὰ τοῦτο καὶ, ὑμεῖς γίνεσθε ἕτοιμοι, ὅτι ᾗ οὐ δοκεῖτε ὥρᾳ, ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου ἔρχεται)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second and third clauses give the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [For this reason, because the Son of Man comes in that hour you do not think, you also be ready]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT For this reason
UST So then
(διὰ τοῦτο)

The phrase For this reason introduces how Jesus applies the story about the master of the house and the thief. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces an application or implication. Alternate translation: [Here is what that means:] or [Given that illustration,]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT in that hour
UST when (ᾗ & ὥρᾳ)

The word hour refers to a specific moment in time. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [at that time] or [at that moment]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT you do not think
UST you do not expect me
(οὐ δοκεῖτε)

Jesus means that the Son of Man will come when they do not think he will come. In other words, his coming will be unexpected. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [that you do not think he will]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the Son of Man comes
UST I, the Son of Man, will return {to this world}
(ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου ἔρχεται)

Jesus speaks about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [I, who am the Son of Man, come]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT the Son of Man comes
UST I, the Son of Man, will return {to this world}
(ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου ἔρχεται)

See how you translated “coming” in 24:37. Alternate translation: [the Son of Man comes back to this world] or [the Son of Man, after leaving this world, comes back]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT comes
UST will return {to this world}
(ἔρχεται)

Jesus uses the present tense to refer to when he will come in the future. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use whatever tense would be natural to refer to this action. Alternate translation: [will come]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
hour	when
Son of Man	I, the Son of Man

Matthew 24:45

ULT	UST
Who then is the faithful and wise slave whom the master has appointed over his household to give them their food in time?	To further understand what I am saying, consider an important servant. His master has put him in charge of all the other servants, and he needs to feed them at the proper times. He should be trustworthy and act wisely.

ULT Who then is the faithful and wise slave whom the master has appointed over his household to give them their food in time

UST To further understand what I am saying, consider an important servant. His master has put him in charge of all the other servants, and he needs to feed them at the proper times. He should be trustworthy and act wisely

(τίς ἄρα ἐστὶν ὁ πιστὸς δοῦλος καὶ φρόνιμος, ὃν κατέστησεν ὁ κύριος ἐπὶ τῆς οἰκετείας αὐτοῦ, τοῦ δοῦναι αὐτοῖς τὴν τροφὴν ἐν καιρῷ)

Jesus is using the question form to introduce a further illustration or application of what he has been saying. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [Consider, then, who might be the faithful and wise slave whom the master has appointed over his household to give them their food in time.] or [You should know, then, who is the faithful and wise slave whom the master has appointed over his household to give them their food in time!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT Who then

UST To further understand what I am saying … He should

(τίς ἄρα)

The word then introduces an inference that Jesus draws from what he has said about being alert and ready. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces an inference, or you could leave then untranslated. Alternate translation: [Given what I have said, who] or [So then, who]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT whom the master has appointed over his household
UST His master has put him in charge of all the other servants
(ὃν κατέστησεν ὁ κύριος ἐπὶ τῆς οἰκετείας αὐτοῦ)

The implication, as the rest of the parable makes clear, is that the master is making this arrangement temporarily and provisionally, because he is going to be absent for a time. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [whom his master, while he goes away for a while, has appointed over his household]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT to give them their food
UST and he needs to feed them
(τοῦ δοῦναι αὐτοῖς τὴν τροφὴν)

The phrase to give introduces the purpose for which the master appointed the slave. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces a purpose. Alternate translation: [for the purpose of giving them their food]

Support Reference: Connect — Goal (Purpose) Relationship

ULT in time
UST at the proper times
(ἐν καιρῷ)

The phrase in time refers to the appropriate or correct time for something to happen. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [at the appropriate times] or [when it is time]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
faithful	trustworthy
wise	act wisely
slave	consider an important servant
master	His master
has appointed	has put … in charge
household	of all the other servants
time	at the proper times

Matthew 24:46

ULT	UST
Blessed {is} that slave whom his master, having come, will find doing thus.	When his master returns, it will be very good for that servant if his master learns that he has done what he put him in charge to do.

ULT Blessed {is}
UST it will be very good
(μακάριος)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was God. Alternate translation: [God will bless]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT having come
UST When … returns
(ἐλθὼν)

Jesus implies that the master comes back from a trip or absence. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [having come back]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT doing thus
UST has done what he put him in charge to do
(οὕτως ποιοῦντα)

The word thus refers to giving food to the rest of the household at the appropriate times (see 24:45). You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [doing that task] or [giving food to the household at the proper times]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Blessed {is}	it will be very good slave	for … servant
master	master

Matthew 24:47

ULT	UST
Truly I say to you that he will appoint him over all his possessions.	The master will put that servant in charge of everything that he owns. What I have said is true.

(There are no notes for this verse)

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Truly	What I have said is true
he will appoint	The master will put … in charge
possessions	that he owns

Matthew 24:48

ULT	UST
But if that evil slave says in his heart, 'My master delays,'	However, suppose that the servant were wicked. Then, he would think that his master was staying away for a long time.

ULT if that evil slave says in his heart, 'My master delays … and he begins to beat his fellow slaves and eats and drinks with the ones being drunk … the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and at an hour that he does not know
UST suppose that the servant were wicked. Then, he would think that his master was staying away for a long time … So, he would start hitting the other servants. He would feast with drunk people … However, then his master would return at a time when the servant does not expect him
(ἐὰν & εἴπῃ ὁ κακὸς δοῦλος ἐκεῖνος ἐν τῇ καρδίᾳ αὐτοῦ, χρονίζει μου ὁ κύριος, καὶ ἄρξηται τύπτειν τοὺς συνδούλους αὐτοῦ, ἐσθίῃ δὲ καὶ πίνῃ μετὰ τῶν μεθυόντων, ἥξει ὁ κύριος τοῦ δούλου ἐκείνου ἐν ἡμέρᾳ ᾗ οὐ προσδοκᾷ, καὶ ἐν ὥρᾳ ᾗ οὐ γινώσκει) (24:48-50)

Jesus uses an imaginary situation to teach his disciples about how they should not behave while they wait for him to return. Use a natural method in your language for introducing an imaginary situation. Alternate translation: [imagine that the slave is evil and says in his heart, 'My master is delaying,' and he begins to beat his fellow slaves and eats and drinks with the ones being drunk. As he is doing those things, the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and at an hour that he does not know]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT says in his heart
UST Then, he would think
(εἴπῃ & ἐν τῇ καρδίᾳ αὐτοῦ)

In Matthew's culture, the heart is the place where humans think and feel. If it would be helpful in your language, you could translate heart by referring to the places where humans think and feel in your culture or by expressing the idea plainly. Alternate translation: [says in his head] or [says to himself]

Support Reference: Metonymy

> ULT in his heart, ‘My master delays
> UST Then, he would think that his master was staying away for a long time
> (ἐν τῇ καρδίᾳ αὐτοῦ, χρονίζει μου ὁ κύριος)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [in his heart that his master delays]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

> ULT delays
> UST was staying away for a long time
> (χρονίζει)

The slave is implying that his master delays his return. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [delays coming back]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
evil	were wicked
slave	the servant
master	that … master

Matthew 24:49

ULT	UST
and he begins to beat his fellow slaves and eats and drinks with the ones being drunk,	So, he would start hitting the other servants. He would feast with drunk people.

(There are no notes for this verse)

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
fellow slaves	the other servants
being drunk	drunk people

Matthew 24:50

ULT	UST
the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and at an hour that he does not know,	However, then his master would return at a time when the servant does not expect him.

ULT will come
UST However, then … would return
(ἥξει)

Jesus implies that the master will come back from a trip or absence. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make that idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [will come back]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT on a day that he does not expect and at an hour that he does not know
UST at a time when the servant does not expect him
(ἐν ἡμέρᾳ ᾗ οὐ προσδοκᾷ, καὶ ἐν ὥρᾳ ᾗ οὐ γινώσκει)

The clauses on a day that he does not expect and at an hour that he does not know mean similar things. Jesus is using the two clauses together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single clause. Alternate translation: [on a day that he does not know] or [at a time that he does not expect]

Support Reference: Parallelism

ULT on a day … at an hour
UST at a time when the servant does not expect him
(ἐν ἡμέρᾳ & ἐν ὥρᾳ)

Jesus is using the terms day and hour to refer to a specific moment in time. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use comparable phrases or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [at a time … at a moment]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
master	master
of … slave	his
a day	at a time when the servant does not expect him
an hour	at a time when the servant does not expect him

ULT	UST
he does … know	at a time when the servant does not expect him

Matthew 24:51

ULT	UST
and he will cut him in two and appoint his place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.	The master will punish that servant severely. He will send him where he punishes people who pretend to obey but really do not. There, people will cry and sorrowfully grind their teeth.

ULT he will cut him in two
UST The master will punish that servant severely (διχοτομήσει αὐτὸν)

The phrase cut him in two could refer to: (1) a severe punishment that does not kill the slave. This is supported by how the following clauses imply that the slave is still alive, which he would not be if he had literally been cut in two. Alternate translation: [he will discipline him painfully]; (2) the slave literally being cut into two pieces. Alternate translation: [he will have him cut in half]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT appoint his place with the hypocrites
UST He will send him where he punishes people who pretend to obey but really do not (τὸ μέρος αὐτοῦ μετὰ τῶν ὑποκριτῶν θήσει)

The phrase appoint his place with the hypocrites indicates that the slave will be treated as the hypocrites are. More specifically, if the phrase cut him in two refers to: (1) a severe punishment, then Jesus indicates that the slave is punished in the same place where the hypocrites are punished. Alternate translation: [cause him to be punished where the hypocrites are punished]; (2) literally killing the servant, then Jesus indicates that the slave ends up after his death where the hypocrites end up: in hell. Alternate translation: [send him to hell with the hypocrites]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth
UST There, people will cry and sorrowfully grind their teeth
(ἐκεῖ ἔσται ὁ κλαυθμὸς καὶ ὁ βρυγμὸς τῶν ὀδόντων)

This clause is identical to the last clause in 8:12. Translate it as you did there.

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
appoint	He will send
hypocrites	people who pretend to obey but really do not

Matthew 25

Matthew 25 Chapter Introduction

Structure and Formatting

1. Jesus teaches about the final judgment and salvation (23:1–25:46)
    - The parable of the ten virgins (25:1–13)
    - The parable of the talents (25:14–30)
    - Teaching about the final judgment (25:31–46)

Religious and Cultural Concepts in This Chapter

The “lamps”

The word translated as “lamps” throughout 25:1–13 primarily refers to something that burns and gives light. Most likely, Jesus is either referring to oil lamps, which burn oil using a wick to create a relatively small amount of light, or to torches, which are soaked in oil and lit to create a relatively large amount of light. Since most translations express the idea with a word like “lamp,” the ULT and the UST translate the word as “lamp” and “oil lamp.” Consider whether “lamp” or “torch” better fits what the story narrates and then use the term that is more natural. (See: lamp)

Escorting the bridegroom

In 25:1–13, Jesus uses wedding customs to illustrate how to wait for his second coming. Unfortunately, we know very little about Jewish wedding customs during this time period. The story that Jesus tells implies that young women would escort the bridegroom to where the wedding celebration would be held. These young women may have been friends of the bride. It is unclear whether this is the first event in the wedding celebration, and it is also unclear exactly where the young women escort the bridegroom. It could be the bride’s parents’ house, a wedding hall, or some other location. Since Jesus does not include any further explanation, and since we do not know much about weddings in this time period, you should avoid giving explanatory information except for clarifying that the young women escort the bridegroom to wherever the wedding event was going to happen.

Talents

A talent was a unit of weight that, when used for precious metals, was also a unit of money. One talent weighed about 30 kilograms or about 65 pounds. The talent referred to in this chapter was probably worth about 6,000 denarii, that is, about 6,000 days' wages for a hired worker. The exact amount of money is not important, so you could use a general term in your culture for that amount of money, or you could indicate about how many days' wages it would be worth. Alternatively, you could spell "talent" how it sounds in your language and then provide a footnote that indicates about how much money this is. (See: Biblical Money)

The final judgment

In 25:31–46, Jesus describes some of what will happen at the final judgment when he, the Son of Man and the king, judges everyone. He divides people into two groups, and then he explains that this is based on how they have treated the least important believers. Then, he sends the ones who did not do what was right to eternal punishment, and he takes the ones who did what was right to experience eternal life with him. Jesus describes this scene to explain what the final judgment will be like, not to narrate everything about the final judgment exactly as it will happen, so be sure not to include anything beyond what he describes.

Translation Issues in This Chapter

The parable of the ten virgins

In 25:1–13, Jesus tells a story about ten young women who are supposed to escort a bridegroom to his wedding celebration. Five of them brought extra oil for their lamps, and five did not. When the bridegroom was late, the five young women who did not have extra oil had to go and buy some more, and they missed the bridegroom and the wedding celebration. Jesus uses this story to illustrate how his followers need to be prepared at all times for when he returns, since they do not know when that will be, just as the young women did not know when the bridegroom was going to arrive. Your translation should not directly explain the meaning of this parable more than Jesus does, but be sure that your readers understand how to apply the story. (See: Parables)

The parable of the talents

In 25:14–30, Jesus tells a story about a rich man who went on a journey. Before he left, he entrusted three of his servants with large sums of money. The first and second servant used the large sums of money to make even more money. The third servant, however, buried the money in the ground to keep it safe and did not make any more money. When the rich man returned, he rewarded the first two servants but punished the third servant. Jesus uses this story to illustrate how his followers should behave during the time before his second coming. They should be like the first two servants, who used what they were given to do useful things. They should not be like the third servant, who did not use what he was given to do anything. Your translation should not directly explain the meaning of this parable more than Jesus does, but be sure that your readers understand how to apply the story. (See: Parables)

Singular and plural forms of "you"

Most of the forms of "you" in this chapter appear in dialogues in the stories that Jesus tells. Because of this, there are many of both singular and plural forms of "you." However, there are slightly more plural forms of "you" in this chapter, so you should assume forms of "you" are plural unless a note specifies that the form is singular. (See: Forms of 'You' — Singular)

Matthew 25:1

ULT	UST
Then the kingdom of the heavens will be compared to ten virgins who, having taken their lamps, went out to a meeting of the bridegroom.	Here is what God's heavenly kingdom will be like at that time: Ten young women each took an oil lamp and prepared to escort a bridegroom {to his wedding celebration}.

ULT Then
UST at that time
(τότε)

Then refers to the time in the future when Jesus will return to the world. He called this time "the coming of the Son of Man" in 24:37 and the "day your Lord is coming" in 24:42. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [At the time I return to the world,]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Then the kingdom of the heavens will be compared to ten virgins
UST Here is what God's heavenly kingdom will be like at that time: Ten young women
(τότε ὁμοιωθήσεται ἡ Βασιλεία τῶν Οὐρανῶν δέκα παρθένοις)

To teach his disciples, Jesus offers a story or illustration. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could indicate that explicitly. Alternate translation: [Listen to this story: Then the kingdom of the heavens will be compared to ten virgins]

Support Reference: Parables

ULT the kingdom of the heavens will be compared to UST Here is what God's heavenly kingdom will be like (ὁμοιωθήσεται ἡ Βασιλεία τῶν Οὐρανῶν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who does the comparing, it is clear from the context that it is Jesus himself. Alternate translation: [I will compare the kingdom of the heavens to] or [the kingdom of the heavens will be comparable to]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT lamps
UST an oil lamp
(τὰς λαμπάδας)

The lamps throughout this story could be: (1) small clay containers for oil, which was burned using a wick. Alternate translation: [lamps that burn oil]; (2) torches dipped or soaked in oil. Alternate translation: [torches soaked in oil]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT went out to a meeting of the bridegroom
UST and prepared to escort a bridegroom {to his wedding celebration}
(ἐξῆλθον εἰς ὑπάντησιν τοῦ νυμφίου)

The virgins are supposed to escort the bridegroom to where the wedding feast will be held. The fact that they took lamps implies that they will escort the bridegroom at night. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [went out during the night to meet the bridegroom and bring him to the wedding feast]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
kingdom of the heavens	God's heavenly kingdom
of the heavens	heavenly
virgins	young women
lamps	an oil lamp
of the bridegroom	a bridegroom

Matthew 25:2

ULT	UST
Now five of them were foolish and five wise.	As for those young women, five of them were foolish, and the other five of them were wise.

ULT Now
UST As for those young women
(δὲ)

Jesus uses the word Now to introduce background information about the ten virgins that will help his audience understand what happens next. Use a natural form in your language for introducing background information. Alternate translation: [I want you to know that] or [About those ten virgins,]

Support Reference: Background Information

ULT five wise
UST the other five of them were wise
(πέντε φρόνιμοι)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [five of them were wise]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
foolish	foolish
wise	were wise

Matthew 25:3

ULT	UST
For the foolish, having taken their lamps, did not take oil with them.	Here is how five of them were foolish: they each took an oil lamp, but they did not take any extra oil {for their lamps}.

ULT For
UST Here is how
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces an explanation of how the virgins were wise or foolish. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces an explanation, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [This is what I mean:] or [As it happened,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the foolish
UST five of them were foolish
(αἱ & μωραὶ)

Jesus is using the adjective foolish as a noun to mean the foolish virgins. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the foolish virgins] or [the foolish ones]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT oil with them
UST but they did … take any extra oil {for their lamps}
(μεθ’ ἑαυτῶν ἔλαιον)

Jesus implies that this oil was extra oil stored in a separate container that the virgins would have used to refill their lamps. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [more oil with them for refilling their lamps] or [any additional oil with them]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
foolish	five of them were foolish
lamps	an oil lamp

ULT	UST
oil	any extra oil {for their lamps}

Matthew 25:4

ULT	UST
But the wise took oil in the containers with their lamps.	In contrast, here is how five of them were wise: they each took an oil lamp and also some extra oil {for their lamps}.

ULT the wise
UST five of them were wise
(αἱ & φρόνιμοι)

Jesus is using the adjective wise as a noun to mean the wise virgins. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the wise virgins] or [the wise ones]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT oil
UST and also some extra oil {for their lamps}
(ἔλαιον)

Jesus again implies that this oil was extra oil stored in separate containers that the virgins would have used to refill their lamps. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you expressed the idea in 25:3. Alternate translation: [more oil for refilling their lamps] or [additional oil]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
wise	five of them were wise
oil	and also some extra oil {for their lamps}
lamps	an oil lamp

Matthew 25:5

ULT	UST
But the bridegroom delaying, they all became sleepy and were sleeping.	Now the bridegroom did not arrive for a long time. So, all the young women became drowsy and then fell asleep.

ULT But
UST Now
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the bridegroom delaying
UST the bridegroom did not arrive for a long time
(χρονίζοντος & τοῦ νυμφίου)

The phrase the bridegroom delaying describes something that happens as the ten virgins became sleepy and were sleeping. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces something that happens at the same time. Alternate translation: [as the bridegroom delayed]

Support Reference: Connect — Simultaneous Time Relationship

ULT they all became sleepy and were sleeping
UST So, all the young women became drowsy and then fell asleep
(ἐνύσταξαν πᾶσαι καὶ ἐκάθευδον)

Jesus indicates that the ten virgins first became sleepy and then actually were sleeping. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make the sequence more explicit. Alternate translation: [they all became sleepy and then went to sleep]

Support Reference: Connect — Sequential Time Relationship

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
bridegroom	bridegroom

Matthew 25:6

ULT	UST
But in the middle of the night there was a cry, ‘Behold, the bridegroom! Go out to the meeting.’	Later, sometime during the night, someone shouted, ‘The bridegroom is almost here! You must escort him {to his wedding celebration}!’

ULT But
UST Later
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT there was a cry, ‘Behold, the bridegroom! Go out to the meeting
UST someone shouted, ‘The bridegroom is almost here! You must escort him {to his wedding celebration}
(κραυγὴ γέγονεν, ἰδοὺ, ὁ νυμφίος! ἐξέρχεσθε εἰς ἀπάντησιν)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [there was a cry that the bridegroom was there and that they should go out to the meeting]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT Behold
UST is almost here
(ἰδοὺ)

The word Behold draws the attention of the ten virgins and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express Behold with a word or phrase that asks people to listen, or you could use a different form that draws people’s attention. Alternate translation: [Look] or [Listen]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT Go out
> UST You must escort him {to his wedding celebration}
> (ἐξέρχεσθε)

In a context such as this, your language might say “Come” instead of Go. Alternate translation: [Come out]

Support Reference: Go and Come

> ULT to the meeting
> UST You must escort him {to his wedding celebration}
> (εἰς ἀπάντησιν)

The person saying these words implies that the ten virgins are supposed to meet and escort the bridegroom to the wedding celebration. See you expressed the similar idea in 25:1. Alternate translation: [to meet him and bring him to the wedding feast]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
a cry	someone shouted
bridegroom	bridegroom

Matthew 25:7

ULT	UST
Then all those virgins got up and put their lamps in order.	When they heard that, all the young women woke up and prepared their oil lamps.

> ULT put their lamps in order
> UST prepared their oil lamps
> (ἐκόσμησαν τὰς λαμπάδας ἑαυτῶν)

Jesus means that the ten virgins did got their lamps ready to burn well. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [got their lamps ready to burn well]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
virgins	the young women
lamps	oil lamps

Matthew 25:8

ULT	UST
Now the foolish said to the wise, ‘Give us from your oil, because our lamps are going out.’	The foolish young women said to the wise young women, ‘Our oil lamps no longer shine brightly. So, please share your oil with us.’

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the foolish … to the wise
UST The foolish young women … to the wise young women
(αἱ & μωραὶ ταῖς φρονίμοις)

Jesus is using the adjectives foolish and wise as nouns to mean the foolish virgins and the wise virgins. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate these words with equivalent phrases. Alternate translation: [the foolish ones … to the wise ones]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT said to the wise, ‘Give us from your oil, because our lamps are going out
UST said to the wise young women, ‘Our oil lamps no longer shine brightly. So, please share your oil with us (ταῖς φρονίμοις εἶπον, δότε ἡμῖν ἐκ τοῦ ἐλαίου ὑμῶν, ὅτι αἱ λαμπάδες ἡμῶν σβέννυνται)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [asked the wise to give them from their oil, because their lamps were going out]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT Give us from your oil, because our lamps are going out
UST Our oil lamps no longer shine brightly. So, please share your oil with us (δότε ἡμῖν ἐκ τοῦ ἐλαίου ὑμῶν, ὅτι αἱ λαμπάδες ἡμῶν σβέννυνται)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [Since our lamps are going out, give us from your oil]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT Give
UST please share
(δότε)

This is an imperative, but it should be translated as a polite request rather than as a command. It may be helpful to add an expression such as “please” to make this clear. Alternate translation: [We ask that you give]

Support Reference: Imperatives — Other Uses

ULT our lamps are going out
UST Our oil lamps no longer shine brightly
(αἱ λαμπάδες ἡμῶν σβέννυνται)

The phrase going out indicates that the lamps were running out of oil and unable to burn brightly. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the fire in our lamps is dying] or [our lamps are no longer burning]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
foolish	foolish young women to the wise	to the wise young women
oil	your oil
lamps	oil lamps

Matthew 25:9

ULT	UST
But the wise answered, saying, ‘Lest there not be enough for us and for you, go instead to the ones selling, and buy for yourselves.’	The wise young women replied, ‘{We will not share our oil, because} there is not enough for all of us. You should find someone from whom to buy oil for yourselves.’

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the wise
UST The wise young women
(αἱ φρόνιμοι)

Jesus is using the adjective wise as a noun to mean the wise virgins. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the wise ones] or [the wise virgins]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT saying
(λέγουσαι)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT saying, ‘Lest there not be enough for us and for you, go instead to the ones selling, and buy for yourselves
UST {We will not share our oil, because} there is not enough for all of us. You should find someone from whom to buy oil for yourselves
(λέγουσαι, μήποτε οὐ μὴ ἀρκέσῃ ἡμῖν καὶ ὑμῖν; πορεύεσθε μᾶλλον πρὸς τοὺς πωλοῦντας, καὶ ἀγοράσατε ἑαυταῖς)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [saying that there may not be enough for themselves and for them and that they should go instead to the ones selling and buy some for themselves]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT Lest there not be enough for us and for you, go instead to the ones selling, and buy for yourselves
UST {We will not share our oil, because} there is not enough for all of us. You should find someone from whom to buy oil for yourselves
(μήποτε οὐ μὴ ἀρκέσῃ ἡμῖν καὶ ὑμῖν; πορεύεσθε μᾶλλον πρὸς τοὺς πωλοῦντας, καὶ ἀγοράσατε ἑαυταῖς)

Throughout their response, the wise virgins are implicitly referring to oil. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [There may not be enough oil for us and for you. Go instead to the ones selling oil and buy some for yourselves]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Lest there not be enough for us and for you
UST {We will not share our oil, because} there is not enough for all of us
(μήποτε οὐ μὴ ἀρκέσῃ ἡμῖν καὶ ὑμῖν)

By answering in this way, the wise virgins imply that they will not give any oil to the foolish virgins. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [No, we will not give you any oil, for there may not be enough for us and for you]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Lest there not be enough
UST {We will not share our oil, because} there is not enough
(μήποτε οὐ μὴ ἀρκέσῃ)

The wise virgins could be: (1) sure that there will not be enough oil for all of them. Alternate translation: [There will definitely not be enough] (2) worried that there will not be enough oil for all of them. Alternate translation: [There may not be enough]

> ULT not
> UST not
> (οὐ μὴ)

The words translated as certainly not are two negative words. In this construction, the second negative does not cancel the first to create a positive meaning. Instead, it gives greater emphasis to the negative. If your language can use two negatives that do not cancel one another to create a positive meaning, you could use a double negative here. If your language does not use two negatives in that way, you could translate with one strong negative, as the ULT does. Alternate translation: [by no means]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

> ULT for us
> UST for all of us
> (ἡμῖν)

By us, the wise virgins mean themselves but not the foolish virgins, so use the exclusive form of that word in your translation if your language marks that distinction.

Support Reference: Exclusive and Inclusive ‘We’

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
wise	wise young women

Matthew 25:10

ULT	UST
But, they going away to buy, the bridegroom came, and the prepared entered with him into the wedding feast, and the door was shut.	So, the foolish young women left to buy oil. While they were gone, the bridegroom arrived. The wise young women, who were ready {to escort him}, went with him to the wedding hall. Then, people closed its doors.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT to buy
UST to buy oil
(ἀγοράσαι)

Jesus implies that they went to buy oil. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [to buy more oil]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the prepared
UST The wise young women, who were ready {to escort him}
(αἱ ἕτοιμοι)

Jesus is using the adjective prepared as a noun to mean the virgins who were prepared. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the prepared virgins] or [the virgins who were prepared]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

> ULT the wedding feast
> UST the wedding hall
> (τοὺς γάμους)

Here, wedding feast represents the place where the wedding feast was being held. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the place for the wedding feast]

Support Reference: Metonymy

> ULT the door was shut
> UST people closed its doors
> (ἐκλείσθη ἡ θύρα)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, you could use an indefinite subject. Alternate translation: [someone shut the door]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
bridegroom	bridegroom
wedding feast	the wedding hall

Matthew 25:11

ULT	UST
But afterward also the rest of the virgins come, saying, ‘Lord, lord, open for us!’	Later, the other young women also arrived {at the wedding hall}. They asked {the bridegroom}, ‘Sir, please open the door so that we can come in!’

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT come
UST arrived {at the wedding hall}
(ἔρχονται)

To call attention to a development in the story, Jesus uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [came]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT saying, ‘Lord, lord, open for us
UST They asked {the bridegroom}, ‘Sir, please open the door so that we can come in (λέγουσαι, κύριε, κύριε, ἄνοιξον ἡμῖν)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [repeatedly calling the bridegroom ‘lord’ and asking him to open for them.]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

> ULT Lord, lord
> UST Sir
> (κύριε, κύριε)

In Jesus' culture, the word lord was a polite way for a young woman to address an older man. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that is a polite way to address an older man in your culture. Alternate translation: [Honorable sir]

Support Reference: Politeness

> ULT saying
> UST They asked {the bridegroom}
> (λέγουσαι)

If you keep the direct quotation, consider natural ways of introducing it in your language. Alternate translation: [and they said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

> ULT open for us
> UST please open the door so that we can come in > (ἄνοιξον ἡμῖν)

The foolish virgins are implying that they want the door opened for them so they can join the wedding celebration. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [open the door so that we can join the wedding feast]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT open
> UST please open the door
> (ἄνοιξον)

This is an imperative, but it should be translated as a polite request rather than as a command. It may be helpful to add an expression such as "please" to make this clear. Alternate translation: [we ask that you open]

Support Reference: Imperatives — Other Uses

> ULT open
> UST please open the door
> (ἄνοιξον)

Since the virgins is talking to the bridegroom, the imperative here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
the virgins	young women
Lord	Sir
lord	Sir

Matthew 25:12

ULT	UST
But he, answering, said, 'Truly I say to you, I do not know you.'	The bridegroom replied, '{I will not open the door, because} I do not recognize you. What I have said is true!'

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces what the bridegroom actually did in contrast to what the foolish virgins wanted him to do. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [However]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT said, 'Truly I say to you, I do not know you
UST replied, '{I will not open the door, because} I do not recognize you. What I have said is true (εἶπεν, ἀμὴν, λέγω ὑμῖν, οὐκ οἶδα ὑμᾶς)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [said that he was speaking truly and that he did not know them]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT I do not know you
UST {I will not open the door, because} I do not recognize you
(οὐκ οἶδα ὑμᾶς)

By answering in this way, the bridegroom implies that he will not open the door for the foolish virgins. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [I do not know you, so I will not open the door]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Truly	What I have said is true
I do … know	{I will not open the door, because} I do … recognize

Matthew 25:13

ULT	UST
Therefore, be alert, for you do not know the day nor the hour.	So then, you cannot know at what moment {I will return to this world}. Because of that, you need to be ready {at all times}.

ULT Therefore
UST So then
(οὖν)

The word Therefore introduces Jesus' application of the parable he has given in 25:1–12. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces an application. Alternate translation: [Given that story] or [As what I have told you illustrates]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT be alert, for you do not know the day nor the hour
UST you cannot know at what moment {I will return to this world}. Because of that, you need to be ready {at all times}
(γρηγορεῖτε & ὅτι οὐκ οἴδατε τὴν ἡμέραν, οὐδὲ τὴν ὥραν)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the command in the first clause. Alternate translation: [since you do not know the day nor the hour, be alert]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT the day nor the hour
UST at what moment {I will return to this world}
(τὴν ἡμέραν, οὐδὲ τὴν ὥραν)

The terms day and hour mean similar things. Jesus is using the two terms together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single phrase. Alternate translation: [the specific time]

Support Reference: Doublet

ULT the day nor the hour
UST at what moment {I will return to this world}
(τὴν ἡμέραν, οὐδὲ τὴν ὥραν)

Jesus is referring to the moment when he will return. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the time of my coming] or [the moment in the future when I will return]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the hour
UST at what moment {I will return to this world}
(τὴν ὥραν)

Many ancient manuscripts include nothing after the word hour. The ULT follows that reading. Other ancient manuscripts include after the word hour the words “in which the Son of Man comes.” If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
be alert	you need to be ready {at all times}
you do … know	you … know
day	at what moment {I will return to this world}
hour	at what moment {I will return to this world}

Matthew 25:14

ULT	UST
For {it is} as if a man, going abroad, called his own slaves and handed over to them his possessions.	Even further, {here is what God's heavenly kingdom} is like: a man decided to travel to a different country. So, he summoned his servants and put them in charge of what he owned.

ULT For
UST Even further
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces another explanation of what the kingdom of the heavens is like. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces another explanation, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [Again,] or [Also,]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT {it is} as if a man, going abroad
UST {here is what God's heavenly kingdom} is like: a man decided to travel to a different country (ὥσπερ & ἄνθρωπος ἀποδημῶν)

To teach his disciples, Jesus offers another story or illustration. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could indicate that explicitly. Alternate translation: [listen to this story: it is as if a man, going abroad]

Support Reference: Parables

ULT {it is} as if
UST {here is what God's heavenly kingdom} is like (ὥσπερ)

Jesus implies that he is still speaking about the kingdom of the heavens. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the kingdom of the heavens is as if]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT handed over to them his possessions
UST put them in charge of what he owned (παρέδωκεν αὐτοῖς τὰ ὑπάρχοντα αὐτοῦ)

Jesus implies that the man entrusted the slaves with his possessions for the period of time when he would be away. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [gave them his possessions to take care of while he was gone]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
called	So, he summoned
slaves	his servants
possessions	what he owned

Matthew 25:15

ULT	UST
And to one he gave five talents, and to one, two, and to one, one—to each according to his own ability. And immediately he went abroad.	He gave as much money to each servant as each one could manage. He gave five bags of money to one servant. He gave two bags of money to another servant. He gave one bag of money to another servant. As soon as he did that, he traveled to a different country.

ULT immediately he went abroad … Having gone
UST As soon as he did that, he traveled to a different country … went (ἀπεδήμησεν εὐθέως. πορευθεὶς) (25:15-16)

The word immediately could go with: (1) the master traveling abroad. Alternate translation: [he went abroad immediately. Having gone]; (2) the servant going to trade with the money. Alternate translation: [he went abroad. Having gone immediately]

Support Reference: Information Structure

ULT five talents … two … to one
UST five bags of money … He gave two bags of money … to another servant
(πέντε τάλαντα & δύο, ᾧ)

The word talents refers to units of money equivalent to about 6,000 denarii, that is, about 6,000 days' wages for a hired worker. You could try to express this amount in terms of current monetary values, but that might cause your Bible translation to become outdated and inaccurate, since those values can change over time. So instead you might state something more general or give the equivalent in wages. Alternate translation: [about 90 years' wages … about 35 years' wages … about 18 years' wages]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

> ULT and to one, two, and to one, one
> UST He gave two bags of money to another servant. He gave one bag of money to another servant
> (᾽ῷ δὲ δύο, ᾽ῷ δὲ ἕν)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that a sentence would need in many languages to be complete. If it would be helpful in your language, you could supply these words from the first half of the sentence. Alternate translation: [and to one he gave two talents, and to one he gave one talent]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

> ULT his own ability
> UST as each one could manage
> (τὴν ἰδίαν δύναμιν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of ability, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [what he was able to do] or [what he was qualified to handle]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

Matthew 25:16

ULT	UST
Having gone, the one having received the five talents traded with them and gained another five talents.	Then, the servant who had five bags of money went to invest the money. He made five more bags of money.

ULT Having gone
UST went
(πορευθεὶς)

In a context such as this, your language might say “come” instead of gone. Alternate translation: [Having come]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT the five talents … another five talents
UST five bags of money … five more bags of money
(τὰ πέντε τάλαντα & ἄλλα πέντε τάλαντα)

See how you translated talents in 25:15. Alternate translation: [about 90 years’ wages … another 90 years’ wages]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

ULT traded with them
UST to invest the money
(ἠργάσατο ἐν αὐτοῖς)

Jesus refers to how people use money to do business and make more money. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [did business with them] or [put the money to work]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having received	who had
traded	to invest
gained	He made

Matthew 25:17

ULT	UST
Likewise, the one with the two also gained another two.	Similarly, the servant who had two bags of money {invested the money}. He made two more bags of money.

ULT the one with the two also gained another two
UST Similarly, the servant who had two bags of money {invested the money}. He made two more bags of money (καὶ ὁ τὰ δύο, ἐκέρδησεν ἄλλα δύο)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that a sentence would need in many languages to be complete. If it would be helpful in your language, you could supply these words from the previous verse. Alternate translation: [the one having received the two talents also gained another two talents]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT gained another two
UST He made two more bags of money
(ἐκέρδησεν ἄλλα δύο)

Jesus implies that this servant gained another two talents by trading with them, just like the servant with five talents. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [traded with them and gained another two]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
gained	He made

Matthew 25:18

ULT	UST
But the one having received the one, having gone away, dug in the ground and hid the money of his master.	However, the servant who had one bag of money went to bury it in the ground {to keep it safe}.

ULT the one
UST one bag of money
(τὸ ἓν)

Jesus is using the number one as a noun to mean the one talent. Your language may use numbers in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the one talent]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT dug in the ground and hid the money of his master
UST to bury it in the ground {to keep it safe}
(ὤρυξεν γῆν καὶ ἔκρυψεν τὸ ἀργύριον τοῦ κυρίου αὐτοῦ)

Jesus implies that this man dug a hole in the ground, put the money of his master there, and then covered it up to keep the money safe. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [dug a hiding place in the ground and stored the money of his master there to protect it]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having received	who had money	it
of … master	it

Matthew 25:19

ULT	UST
Now after a long time, the master of those slaves comes and takes up a word together with them.	Much later, the servants' master returned. He wanted to know what they had done with the bags of money.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT comes and takes up a word together
UST returned. He wanted to know what they had done with the bags of money (ἔρχεται & καὶ συναίρει λόγον)

To call attention to a development in the story, Jesus uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [came and took up a word together]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT takes up a word together
UST He wanted to know what they had done with the bags of money
(συναίρει λόγον)

The phrase takes up a word together refers to settling accounts, that is, resolving any debts or loans between people. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [settles accounts]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
a … time	Much later
master	master
of … slaves	the servants

Matthew 25:20

ULT	UST
And having approached, the one having received the five talents brought another five talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; behold, I gained another five talents.'	So, the servant who had five bags of money went to him. He brought {them and} the five more bags of money {that he had made}. He said, 'Master, you gave me five bags of money. I have made five more bags of money!'

ULT the five talents … another five talents … five talents … another five talents
UST five bags of money … the five more bags of money {that he had made} … five bags of money … five more bags of money (τὰ πέντε τάλαντα & ἄλλα πέντε τάλαντα & πέντε τάλαντά & ἄλλα πέντε τάλαντα)

See how you translated talents in 25:15. Alternate translation: [about 90 years' wages … another 90 years' wages … about 90 years' wages … another 90 years' wages]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

ULT brought another five talents
UST He brought {them and} the five more bags of money {that he had made} (προσήνεγκεν ἄλλα πέντε τάλαντα)

Jesus implies that the slave brought the original five talents as well as the five talents that he gained. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [brought those five talents and another five talents]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; behold, I gained another five talents
UST He said, 'Master, you gave me five bags of money. I have made five more bags of money (λέγων, Κύριε, πέντε τάλαντά μοι παρέδωκας, ἴδε, ἄλλα πέντε τάλαντα ἐκέρδησα)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [saying to his master that he had handed over to him five talents and that he gained another five talents]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT saying
UST He said
(λέγων)

If you keep the direct quotation, consider natural ways of introducing it in your language. Alternate translation: [and he declared]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT you handed over
UST you gave
(παρέδωκας)

Since the slave is talking to the his master, the word you here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT behold
(ἴδε)

The word behold draws the attention of the master and asks him to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express Behold with a word or phrase that asks people to listen, or you could use a different form that draws people's attention. Alternate translation: [look] or [listen]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having received	who had
Master	Master
I gained	I have made

Matthew 25:21

ULT	UST
His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things. Enter into the joy of your master.'	His master replied, 'I approve of what you have done. You are a trustworthy servant who does what is right! You were trustworthy when I put you in charge of only some money. Now I will put you in charge of many important things. Enjoy what I have with me!'

ULT said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things. Enter into the joy of your master
UST replied, 'I approve of what you have done. You are a trustworthy servant who does what is right! You were trustworthy when I put you in charge of only some money. Now I will put you in charge of many important things. Enjoy what I have with me (ἔφη αὐτῷ & εὖ, δοῦλε ἀγαθὲ καὶ πιστέ! ἐπὶ ὀλίγα ἦς πιστός, ἐπὶ πολλῶν σε καταστήσω; εἴσελθε εἰς τὴν χαρὰν τοῦ κυρίου σου)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [said to him that he had done well and that he was a good and faithful slave. His master also said that he had been faithful over a few things and that he would appoint him over many things. His master told him to enter into the joy of his master]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT Well done
UST I approve of what you have done
(εὖ)

Your language may have a phrase that an employer would use to show approval. If so, you could use it in your translation. Alternate translation: [Good work]

Support Reference: Exclamations

ULT You were … you … Enter … your
UST You were … you … Enjoy what I have with me
(ἦς & σε & εἴσελθε & σου)

Since the master is talking to his slave, the words You, you, and your and the imperative are singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

> ULT Enter into
> UST Enjoy what I have with me
> (εἴσελθε εἰς)

The master uses the phrase Enter into to represent experiencing or participating in something. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [Experience] or [Participate in]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT the joy of your master
> UST Enjoy what I have with me
> (τὴν χαρὰν τοῦ κυρίου σου)

The master is speaking about himself in the third person. If this would not be natural in your language, you could use the first person form. Alternate translation: [my joy] or [the joy of me, your master]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

> ULT the joy of your master
> UST Enjoy what I have with me
> (τὴν χαρὰν τοῦ κυρίου σου)

The master is using the possessive form to describe the joy that the master experiences. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the joy that your master experiences]

Support Reference: Possession

> ULT the joy of your master
> UST Enjoy what I have with me
> (τὴν χαρὰν τοῦ κυρίου σου)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of joy, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [how joyfully your master lives]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
master	master
Well done	I approve of what you have done
good	who does what is right
faithful	trustworthy

ULT	UST
slave	You are a … servant
faithful	trustworthy
I will appoint	Now I will put … in charge
joy	Enjoy what I have with me
of … master	Enjoy what I have with me

Matthew 25:22

ULT	UST
Having approached, also the one with the two talents said, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; behold, I gained another two talents.'	Then, the servant who had two bags of money went to him too. He said, 'Master, you gave me two bags of money. I have made two more bags of money!'

ULT with the two talents … two talents … another two talents
UST who had two bags of money … two bags of money … two more bags of money (τὰ δύο τάλαντα & δύο τάλαντά & ἄλλα δύο τάλαντα)

See how you translated talents in 25:15. Alternate translation: [with about 35 years' wages … about 35 years' wages … another 35 years' wages]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

ULT said, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; behold, I gained another two talents
UST He said, 'Master, you gave me two bags of money. I have made two more bags of money
(εἶπεν, Κύριε, δύο τάλαντά μοι παρέδωκας. ἴδε, ἄλλα δύο τάλαντα ἐκέρδησα)

If your language would not use a direct quotation inside of a direct quotation, you could translate the second direct quotation as an indirect quotation. Alternate translation: [said to his master that he had handed over to him two talents, but behold, he had gained two talents]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT you handed over
UST you gave
(παρέδωκας)

Since the slave is talking to his master, the word you here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT behold
(ἴδε)

The word behold draws the attention of the master and asks him to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express behold with a word or phrase that asks people to listen, or you could use a different form that draws people's attention. Alternate translation: [look] or [listen]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Master	Master
I gained	I have made

Matthew 25:23

ULT	UST
His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things. Enter into the joy of your master.’	His master replied, ‘I approve of what you have done. You are a trustworthy servant who does what is right! You were trustworthy when I put you in charge of only some money. Now I will put you in charge of many important things. Enjoy what I have with me!’

ULT His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things. Enter into the joy of your master

UST His master replied, ‘I approve of what you have done. You are a trustworthy servant who does what is right! You were trustworthy when I put you in charge of only some money. Now I will put you in charge of many important things. Enjoy what I have with me

(ἔφη αὐτῷ ὁ κύριος αὐτοῦ, εὖ, δοῦλε ἀγαθὲ καὶ πιστέ! ἐπὶ ὀλίγα ἦς πιστός, ἐπὶ πολλῶν σε καταστήσω; εἴσελθε εἰς τὴν χαρὰν τοῦ κυρίου σου)

This verse is identical to 25:21, so express the idea as you did there.

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
master	master
Well done	I approve of what you have done
good	who does what is right
faithful	trustworthy
slave	You are a … servant
faithful	trustworthy
I will appoint	Now I will put … in charge
joy	Enjoy what I have with me
of … master	Enjoy what I have with me

Matthew 25:24

ULT	UST
But having approached, also the one having received the one talent said, 'Master, I knew you, that you are a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter.	Then, the servant who had one bag of money went to him too. He said, 'Master, I realized that you are a demanding person. You are like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant.

ULT said, 'Master, I knew you, that you are a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter … And having become afraid, having gone away, I hid your talent in the ground. Behold, you have {what is} yours
UST He said, 'Master, I realized that you are a demanding person. You are like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant … So, because I feared you, I went to bury your bag of money in the ground {to keep it safe}. Now I am giving you back your money (εἶπεν, Κύριε, ἔγνων σε, ὅτι σκληρὸς εἶ ἄνθρωπος, θερίζων ὅπου οὐκ ἔσπειρας, καὶ συνάγων ὅθεν οὐ διεσκόρπισας. καὶ φοβηθεὶς ἀπελθὼν, ἔκρυψα τὸ τάλαντόν σου ἐν τῇ γῇ. ἴδε, ἔχεις τὸ σόν) (25:24-25)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [said to his master that he knew that he was a harsh man, reaping where he did not sow, and gathering where he did not scatter. He told his master that having become afraid, having gone away, he hid his master's talent in the ground. Then he said to his master that he was giving him back what was his]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT But
UST Then
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Next,] or [Finally,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the one talent
UST one bag of money
(τὸ ἓν τάλαντον)

See how you translated talent in 25:15. Alternate translation: [about 18 years' wages]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

ULT you … you are … you did not sow … you did not scatter
UST I realized … you are … You are like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant (σε & εἶ & οὐκ ἔσπειρας & οὐ διεσκόρπισας)

Since the slave is talking to his master, the word you throughout this verse is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter
UST You are like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant
(θερίζων ὅπου οὐκ ἔσπειρας, καὶ συνάγων ὅθεν οὐ διεσκόρπισας)

The clauses reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you did not scatter mean similar things. The servant is using the two clauses together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single clause. Alternate translation: [always harvesting where you did not plant] or [consistently gathering where you did not sow]

Support Reference: Parallelism

ULT reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter
UST You are like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant
(θερίζων ὅπου οὐκ ἔσπειρας, καὶ συνάγων ὅθεν οὐ διεσκόρπισας)

The slave speaks as if his master were a farmer who reaps and gathers crops that someone else sowed and scattered. He means that his master benefits from what other people, his employees, have worked hard to produce. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use simile form or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [like a farmer who reaps where he did not sow and who gathers where he did not scatter] or [benefitting from what you have not labored for, and taking what you have not earned]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT reaping where you did not sow
UST You are like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant
(θερίζων ὅπου οὐκ ἔσπειρας)

The servant implies that the master is reaping crops where he did not sow seed. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [reaping crops where you did not sow seed]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT gathering where you did not scatter
UST You are like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant
(συνάγων ὅθεν οὐ διεσκόρπισας)

The servant could be implying that the master is: (1) gathering crops where he did not scatter seed. Alternate translation: [gathering crops where you did not scatter seed]; (2) gathering grain kernels where he did not scatter the chaff. Alternate translation: [gathering grain where you did not scatter chaff]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having received	who had
Master	Master
I knew	I realized
harsh	a demanding
reaping	You are like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant
you did … sow	You are like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant

Matthew 25:25

ULT	UST
And having become afraid, having gone away, I hid your talent in the ground. Behold, you have {what is} yours.'	So, because I feared you, I went to bury your bag of money in the ground {to keep it safe}. Now I am giving you back your money!'

ULT I hid your talent in the ground
UST to bury your bag of money in the ground {to keep it safe}
(ἔκρυψα τὸ τάλαντόν σου ἐν τῇ γῇ)

The servant implies that he dug a hole in the ground, put the talent there, and then covered it up to keep the money safe. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you expressed the similar idea in 25:18. Alternate translation: [I dug a hiding place in the ground and stored the talent there to protect it]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT your … you have {what is} yours
UST your … I am giving you back your money
(σου & ἔχεις τὸ σόν)

Since the slave is talking to his master, the words your, you, and yours are singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT Behold
UST Now
(ἴδε)

The word Behold draws the attention of the master and asks him to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express Behold with a word or phrase that asks people to listen, or you could use a different form that draws people's attention. Alternate translation: [Look] or [Listen]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT you have {what is} yours
> UST I am giving you back your money
> (ἔχεις τὸ σόν)

The slave means that he is returning the master's one talent to his master. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [I am returning to you what is yours]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having become afraid	because I feared you

Matthew 25:26

ULT	UST
But answering, his master said to him, 'Wicked and lazy slave! Did you know that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter?	His master replied, 'You are an evil servant who refuses to work! You claim that you realized that I am like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant.

ULT said to him, 'Wicked and lazy slave! Did you know that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter … Therefore, it was necessary for you to have put my money with the bankers, and having come, I would have received back {what is} mine with interest … Therefore, take away the talent from him and give it to the one having the ten talents … For to everyone having, it will be given and it will abound. But from the one not having, even what he has will be taken away from him … And throw the worthless slave out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth
UST replied, 'You are an evil servant who refuses to work! You claim that you realized that I am like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant … If that were true about me, you should have given the bag of money to people who lend money. Then, when I returned, I would have gotten it back plus the interest it earned … So {the master said to his other servants,} 'Take the bag of money from him! Give it to the servant who has ten bags of money … { … I command that} because people give more to those who already have something. They will have many things. In contrast, people take everything from those who already have very little … Now {to punish} this useless servant, cast him out into a dark place, where people will cry and sorrowfully grind their teeth
(εἶπεν αὐτῷ, πονηρὲ δοῦλε καὶ ὀκνηρέ! ἤδεις ὅτι θερίζω ὅπου οὐκ ἔσπειρα, καὶ συνάγω ὅθεν οὐ διεσκόρπισα? ἔδει σε οὖν βαλεῖν τὰ ἀργύριά μου τοῖς τραπεζείταις, καὶ ἐλθὼν, ἐγὼ ἐκομισάμην ἂν τὸ ἐμὸν σὺν τόκῳ. ἄρατε οὖν ἀπ' αὐτοῦ τὸ τάλαντον, καὶ δότε τῷ ἔχοντι τὰ δέκα τάλαντα. τῷ γὰρ ἔχοντι παντὶ δοθήσεται καὶ περισσευθήσεται, τοῦ δὲ μὴ ἔχοντος, καὶ ὃ ἔχει ἀρθήσεται ἀπ' αὐτοῦ. καὶ τὸν ἀχρεῖον δοῦλον, ἐκβάλετε εἰς τὸ σκότος τὸ ἐξώτερον; ἐκεῖ ἔσται ὁ κλαυθμὸς καὶ ὁ βρυγμὸς τῶν ὀδόντων) (25:26-30)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [called him a wicked and lazy slave. He reminded his slave that he knew that his master reaped where he did not sow and harvested where he did not scatter, and that, therefore, it was necessary for him to have placed the money with the bankers and that, having come, his master would have received back his money with interest. Then he told others to take away the talent from the slave and give it to the one having the ten talents. He explained that to everyone having, it will be given and it will abound, but from the one not having, even what he has will be taken away. Then he commanded people to throw out the worthless slave into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT Did you know that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter
UST You claim that you realized that I am like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant (ἤδεις ὅτι θερίζω ὅπου οὐκ ἔσπειρα, καὶ συνάγω ὅθεν οὐ διεσκόρπισα)

The master is not asking his slave to verify what he just said. Rather, he is using the question form to challenge the slave. He is repeating what the slave said about him, but not to grant that it is true. Rather, he is about to tell the slave what he should have done if it actually had been true. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [You claim that you knew that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter.] or [So you knew that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT Did you know
UST You claim that you realized
(ἤδεις)

Since the master is speaking to his slave, the word You here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT I reap where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter
UST I am like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant (θερίζω ὅπου οὐκ ἔσπειρα, καὶ συνάγω ὅθεν οὐ διεσκόρπισα)

The master repeats what the slave said about him in 25:24. Express the idea as you did there.

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
master	master
Wicked	evil
slave	You are an … servant
Did you know	You claim that you realized

ULT	UST
I reap	I am like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant
I did … sow	I am like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant

Matthew 25:27

ULT	UST
Therefore, it was necessary for you to have put my money with the bankers, and having come, I would have received back {what is} mine with interest.	If that were true about me, you should have given the bag of money to people who lend money. Then, when I returned, I would have gotten it back plus the interest it earned.'

ULT Therefore
UST If that were true about me
(οὖν)

The word Therefore introduces an inference based on what the slave claimed to know. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of inference. Alternate translation: [Given that] or [Well then]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT you
UST you
(σε)

Since the master is speaking to his slave, the word you here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT to have put my money with the bankers … with interest
UST have given the bag of money to people who lend money … plus the interest it earned (βαλεῖν τὰ ἀργύριά μου τοῖς τραπεζείταις & σὺν τόκῳ)

The word bankers refers to people who accept deposits of money and use them to make loans. They charge interest on the loans, and then they pay interest to the people who deposited money with them. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of business, you could use names from a similar business in your area or you could use descriptive phrases. Alternate translation: [to let people borrow my money … with a share of the profits] or [to have given my money to businesspeople … plus even more]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
money	the bag of money
would have received back	would have gotten … back

Matthew 25:28

ULT	UST
Therefore, take away the talent from him and give it to the one having the ten talents.	So {the master said to his other servants,} 'Take the bag of money from him! Give it to the servant who has ten bags of money.

ULT Therefore
UST So {the master said to his other servants … }
(οὖν)

The word Therefore introduces what the master has decided to do in response to what the slave did not do. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces this kind of conclusion. Alternate translation: [Because he did not do that] or [However, since he did not invest the money]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT take away the talent from him
UST Take the bag of money from him
(ἄρατε & ἀπ' αὐτοῦ τὸ τάλαντον)

The master says this command to other servants. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state that explicitly. Alternate translation: [you other servants, take away the talent from him]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT the talent … the ten talents
UST the bag of money … ten bags of money
(τὸ τάλαντον & τὰ δέκα τάλαντα)

See how you translated talent and talents in 25:15. Alternate translation: [the 18 years' wages … the 90 years' wages]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

Matthew 25:29

ULT	UST
For to everyone having, it will be given and it will abound. But from the one not having, even what he has will be taken away from him.	{I command that} because people give more to those who already have something. They will have many things. In contrast, people take everything from those who already have very little.

ULT For
UST {I command that} because
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces the master's reason for why he commanded what he did in the previous verse. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason for a command. Alternate translation: [Here is why I said that:] or [I say that because]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT to everyone having, it will be given and it will abound. But from the one not having, even what he has will be taken away from him
UST people give more to those who already have something. They will have many things. In contrast, people take everything from those who already have very little (τῷ & ἔχοντι παντὶ δοθήσεται καὶ περισσευθήσεται, τοῦ δὲ μὴ ἔχοντος, καὶ ὃ ἔχει ἀρθήσεται ἀπ' αὐτοῦ)

The master does not specify what it is that people have or do not have and what will be given or taken. He does that to make his statements as general as possible. If you need to specify what is being given and taken, if possible use a very general term. Alternate translation: [to everyone having many things, more things will be given, and they will abound. But from the one not having many things, even what he has will be taken away from him]

Support Reference: When to Keep Information Implicit

> ULT it will be given … will be taken away
> UST people give more … people take > (δοθήσεται & ἀρθήσεται)

If your language does not use these passive forms, you could express the ideas in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, you could: (1) use an indefinite subject. Alternate translation: [people will give it … people will take away]; (2) indicate that the master will do it. Alternate translation: [I will give it … I will take away]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT from the one not having, even what he has will be taken away from him
> UST people take everything from those who already have very little > (τοῦ & μὴ ἔχοντος, καὶ ὃ ἔχει ἀρθήσεται ἀπ᾽ αὐτοῦ)

The phrase the one and the words he and him represent people in general, not one particular person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [from the people not having, even what they have will be taken away from them]

Support Reference: Generic Noun Phrases

> ULT from the one not having
> UST who already have very little > (τοῦ & μὴ ἔχοντος)

The master says the one not having here as a generalization for emphasis. It is clear in the second half of the sentence that this person does have something. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different way to express the emphasis. Alternate translation: [from the one having almost nothing] or [from the one not having much]

Support Reference: Hyperbole

> ULT he has … him
> UST everything from those > (ἔχει & αὐτοῦ)

Although the terms he and him are masculine, the master is using the words in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use phrases that make this clear. Alternate translation: [that person has … him or her]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

Matthew 25:30

ULT	UST
And throw the worthless slave out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.'	Now {to punish} this useless servant, cast him out into a dark place, where people will cry and sorrowfully grind their teeth.'

ULT into the outer darkness
UST into a dark place
(εἰς τὸ σκότος τὸ ἐξώτερον)

The phrase the outer darkness refers to a place of punishment. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. If possible, preserve the idea of darkness. See how you expressed the similar idea in 8:12. Alternate translation: [into the dark place of punishment]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the outer darkness
UST a dark place
(τὸ σκότος τὸ ἐξώτερον)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of darkness, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the dark place outside]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT grinding of the teeth
UST sorrowfully grind their teeth
(ὁ βρυγμὸς τῶν ὀδόντων)

In Jesus' culture, people would grind their teeth when they experienced anger, grief, and pain. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to an action with comparable meaning or state the meaning of this action plainly. See how you expressed this phrase in 8:12. Alternate translation: [beating of breasts] or [grinding of the teeth in anger and pain]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
throw … out	to punish … cast him out
slave	servant

Matthew 25:31

ULT	UST
Now, when the Son of Man comes in his glory and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his throne of glory.	When I, the Son of Man, return {to this world} with all the angels, I will be very glorious. At that time, I will sit down {to rule} from my great throne.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next topic that Jesus wants to speak about. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next topic, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the Son of Man comes in his glory … him … he will sit on his
UST I, the Son of Man, return {to this world} with … I will be very glorious … I will sit down {to rule} from my (ἔλθῃ ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου ἐν τῇ δόξῃ αὐτοῦ & αὐτοῦ & καθίσει ἐπὶ & αὐτοῦ)

Jesus speaks about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [I, who am the Son of Man, come in my glory … me … I will sit on my]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT the Son of Man comes
UST I, the Son of Man, return {to this world}
(ἔλθῃ ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου)

Jesus implies that the Son of Man will come back to this world at some point in the future. He is also implying that the Son of Man will leave this world before he comes back. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the Son of Man comes back to this world] or [the Son of Man, after leaving this world, comes back]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT in his glory
UST I will be very glorious
(ἐν τῇ δόξῃ αὐτοῦ)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of glory, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [and shows how glorious he is]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT he will sit on his throne of glory
UST I will sit down {to rule} from my great throne
(καθίσει ἐπὶ θρόνου δόξης αὐτοῦ)

When someone sits on a throne, it indicates that this person is ruling. If it would be helpful in your language, you could explain the meaning of this action. See how you expressed the idea in 19:28. Alternate translation: [he will sit on his throne of glory as king] or [he will rule from his throne of glory]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT his throne of glory
UST my great throne
(θρόνου δόξης αὐτοῦ)

Jesus could be using the possessive form to describe a throne that: (1) belongs to the Son of Man and that is characterized by glory. Alternate translation: [his throne that is glorious]; (2) shows or illustrates the glory that the Son of Man has. Alternate translation: [the throne that displays his glory]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT throne of glory
UST great throne
(θρόνου δόξης)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of glory, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [glorious throne]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Son of Man	I, the Son of Man
glory	I will be very glorious
angels	angels

ULT	UST
throne	throne
of glory	great

Matthew 25:32

ULT	UST
And before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them from one another, just as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.	Then all groups of people will assemble in front of me. I will divide them into two groups, as a sheepherder divides his animals into a group of sheep and a group of goats.

ULT him … he will separate
UST me. I will divide
(αὐτοῦ & ἀφοριεῖ)

Jesus continues to speak about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [me … I will separate]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT will be gathered all the nations
UST all groups of people will assemble
(συναχθήσονται & πάντα τὰ ἔθνη)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [all the nations will gather] or [all the nations will come]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT all the nations
UST all groups of people
(πάντα τὰ ἔθνη)

The word nations represents the people who live in those nations. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the people of all the nations]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT he will separate them from one another, just as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats
UST I will divide them into two groups, as a sheepherder divides his animals into a group of sheep and a group of goats
(ἀφοριεῖ αὐτοὺς ἀπ᾽ ἀλλήλων, ὥσπερ ὁ ποιμὴν ἀφορίζει τὰ πρόβατα ἀπὸ τῶν ἐρίφων)

Jesus is saying that separating people from one another is like a shepherd separating sheep from goats. He means that in both situations a person divides a larger group into two smaller groups based on some important characteristic. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state that explicitly. Alternate translation: [he will separate them from one another into two groups, just as a shepherd separates into two groups the sheep and the goats]

Support Reference: Simile

ULT the shepherd separates
UST a sheepherder divides his animals
(ὁ ποιμὴν ἀφορίζει)

The phrase the shepherd represents shepherds in general, not one particular shepherd. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [shepherds separate]

Support Reference: Generic Noun Phrases

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
will be gathered	will assemble
nations	groups of people
shepherd	a sheepherder
sheep	into a group of sheep
goats	and a group of goats

Matthew 25:33

ULT	UST
And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on his left.	I will have some people, who are like sheep, go to the area to my right {to honor them}. I will have the other people, who are like goats, go to the area to my left {to shame them}.

ULT he will place … his … his left
UST I will have … go to the area to my right {to honor them} … go to the area to my left {to shame them}
(στήσει & αὐτοῦ & εὐωνύμων)

Jesus continues to speak about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [I will place … my … my left]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT the sheep … the goats
UST some people, who are like sheep … I will have the other people, who are like goats
(τὰ & πρόβατα & τὰ & ἐρίφια)

Here, as the following verses make clear, Jesus speaks of people who do what is right as if they were sheep and of people who do what is wrong as if they were goats. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use simile form or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the people who are like sheep … people who are like goats] or [the righteous people … the wicked people]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT his right … his left
UST go to the area to my right {to honor them} … go to the area to my left {to shame them}
(δεξιῶν αὐτοῦ & εὐωνύμων)

Jesus uses the adjectives right and left as nouns to refer to his right and left sides. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate these words with equivalent phrases. Alternate translation: [his right side … his left side]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT on his right … on his left
UST go to the area to my right {to honor them} … go to the area to my left {to shame them}
(ἐκ δεξιῶν αὐτοῦ & ἐξ εὐωνύμων)

In Jesus' culture, the right side was considered to be more honorable or important than the left side. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [on the honorable right … on less honorable left]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT but the goats
UST I will have the other people, who are like goats
(τὰ δὲ ἐρίφια)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [but he will place the goats]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
sheep	some people, who are like sheep
goats	I will have the other people, who are like goats

Matthew 25:34

ULT	UST
Then the King will say to the ones on his right, 'Come, the ones having been blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.	After that, I, the king, will tell the people in the area to my right, 'You are people whom God my Father has blessed. Come with me! God will enable you to participate in the kingdom that he set up for you when he created everything.

ULT on his right, 'Come, the ones having been blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world … For I was hungry, and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me to drink; I was a stranger, and you gathered together with me … { … I was} naked, and you clothed me; I was sick, and you cared for me; I was in prison, and you came to me

UST in the area to my right, 'You are people whom God my Father has blessed. Come with me! God will enable you to participate in the kingdom that he set up for you when he created everything … { … You will do that} because you fed me when I was hungry. You gave me water when I was thirsty. You welcomed me when I arrived from a different place … You gave me clothes when I did not have enough to wear. You took care of me when I was ill. You visited me when I was in jail

(ἐκ δεξιῶν αὐτοῦ, δεῦτε οἱ εὐλογημένοι τοῦ Πατρός μου, κληρονομήσατε τὴν ἡτοιμασμένην ὑμῖν βασιλείαν ἀπὸ καταβολῆς κόσμου. ἐπείνασα γὰρ καὶ ἐδώκατέ μοι φαγεῖν, ἐδίψησα καὶ ἐποτίσατέ με, ξένος ἤμην καὶ συνηγάγετέ με, γυμνὸς καὶ περιεβάλετέ με, ἠσθένησα καὶ ἐπεσκέψασθέ με, ἐν φυλακῇ ἤμην καὶ ἤλθατε πρός με) (25:34-36)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [on his right that they, who had been blessed by his Father, should come and inherit the kingdom prepared for them from the foundation of the world. He said that this was because he was hungry, and they gave him to eat; he was thirsty, and they gave him to drink; he was a stranger, and they gathered together with him; he was naked, and they clothed him; he was sick, and they cared for him; he was in prison, and they came to him]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT the King … his

UST I, the king … in the area to my right

(ὁ Βασιλεὺς & αὐτοῦ)

Jesus continues to speak about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [I, who am the King, … my]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

> ULT the King
> UST I, the king
> (ὁ Βασιλεὺς)

The title the King describes the Son of Man. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the Son of Man, who is the King,]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT his right
> UST in the area to my right
> (δεξιῶν αὐτοῦ)

See how you translated his right in 25:33. Alternate translation: [his right side]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

> ULT Come
> UST Come with me
> (δεῦτε)

In a context such as this, your language might say "Go" instead of Come. Alternate translation: [Go]

Support Reference: Go and Come

> ULT the ones having been blessed by my Father
> UST You are people whom God my Father has blessed > (οἱ εὐλογημένοι τοῦ Πατρός μου)

If your language does not use this passive form, you can state this in active form. Alternate translation: [the ones my Father has blessed]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT by my Father
> UST God my Father
> (τοῦ Πατρός μου)

Father is an important title that describes the relationship between God the Father and Jesus the Son.

Support Reference: Translating Son and Father

ULT inherit
UST God will enable you to participate in (κληρονομήσατε)

Here the King speaks as if the people on his right were children who would receive property from a relative. He speaks in this way to indicate that these people will receive the kingdom. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [receive] or [you are being given]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT prepared for you
UST that he set up for you
(ἡτοιμασμένην ὑμῖν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was God. Alternate translation: [that God has prepared for you]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT from the foundation of the world
UST when he created everything
(ἀπὸ καταβολῆς κόσμου)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of foundation, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [from when God founded the world]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
King	I, the king
having been blessed	You are people whom … has blessed
by … Father	God … Father
inherit	God will enable you to participate in kingdom	kingdom
the foundation	when he created everything
the foundation of the world	when he created everything of the world	when he created everything

Matthew 25:35

ULT	UST
For I was hungry, and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me to drink; I was a stranger, and you gathered together with me;	{You will do that} because you fed me when I was hungry. You gave me water when I was thirsty. You welcomed me when I arrived from a different place.

ULT For
UST {You will do that} because
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces the reasons why the people on the right will inherit the kingdom. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason. Alternate translation: [That is because] or [Here is why:]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT you gave me to eat … you gave me to drink
UST you fed me … You gave me water
(ἐδώκατέ μοι φαγεῖν & ἐποτίσατέ με)

The king implies that the people gave him food to eat and water to drink. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [you gave me food to eat … you gave me something to drink]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT you gathered together with me
UST You welcomed me
(συνηγάγετέ με)

The phrase gathered together with me means that these people invited him to eat and sleep in their houses. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [you invited me into your homes] or [you gave me a place to stay]

Support Reference: Idiom

Matthew 25:36

ULT	UST
{I was} naked, and you clothed me; I was sick, and you cared for me; I was in prison, and you came to me.'	You gave me clothes when I did not have enough to wear. You took care of me when I was ill. You visited me when I was in jail.'

ULT {I was} naked
UST I did not have enough to wear
(γυμνὸς)

The word naked refers generally to having too little clothing. It does not necessarily mean that the king had no clothes at all, although that could have been true. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [I was without proper clothing] or [I was ill-clothed]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT you came to me
UST You visited me
(ἤλθατε πρός με)

The king implies that the people visited him while he was in prison. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [you spent time with me there]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT you came
UST You visited
(ἤλθατε)

In a context such as this, your language might say "went" instead of came. Alternate translation: [you went]

Support Reference: Go and Come

Matthew 25:37

ULT	UST
Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you being hungry and feed {you}? Or being thirsty and give {you} to drink?	After that, the people who did what was right will reply, 'Lord, we do not remember feeding you when you were hungry. {We do not remember} giving you water when you were thirsty.

ULT saying, 'Lord, when did we see you being hungry and feed {you}? Or being thirsty and give {you} to drink … And when did we see you a stranger and gather together with {you}? Or naked and clothe {you … } … And when did we see you sick or in prison and come to you

UST will reply, 'Lord, we do not remember feeding you when you were hungry. {We do not remember} giving you water when you were thirsty … We do not remember welcoming you even though you were from a different place. {We do not remember} giving you clothes when you did not have enough to wear … We do not remember visiting you when you were ill or in jail

(λέγοντες, Κύριε, πότε σε εἴδομεν πεινῶντα καὶ ἐθρέψαμεν, ἢ διψῶντα καὶ ἐποτίσαμεν? πότε δέ σε εἴδομεν ξένον καὶ συνηγάγομεν, ἢ γυμνὸν καὶ περιεβάλομεν? πότε δέ σε εἴδομεν ἀσθενῆ ἢ ἐν φυλακῇ, καὶ ἤλθομεν πρός σε) (25:37-39)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [calling him Lord and asking when they had seen him being hungry and fed him, or being thirsty and given him to drink. They asked when they had seen him a stranger and gathered together with him, or naked and clothed him. They asked when they had seen him sick or in prison and came to him.]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT when did we see you being hungry and feed {you}? Or being thirsty and give {you} to drink … And when did we see you a stranger and gather together with {you}? Or naked and clothe {you … } … And when did we see you sick or in prison and come to you
UST we do not remember feeding you when you were hungry. {We do not remember} giving you water when you were thirsty … We do not remember welcoming you even though you were from a different place. {We do not remember} giving you clothes when you did not have enough to wear … We do not remember visiting you when you were ill or in jail
(πότε σε εἴδομεν πεινῶντα καὶ ἐθρέψαμεν, ἢ διψῶντα καὶ ἐποτίσαμεν? πότε δέ σε εἴδομεν ξένον καὶ συνηγάγομεν, ἢ γυμνὸν καὶ περιεβάλομεν? πότε δέ σε εἴδομεν ἀσθενῆ ἢ ἐν φυλακῇ, καὶ ἤλθομεν πρός σε) (25:37-39)

The people speaking are using the question form to indicate that they do not remember helping the king in any of these ways. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate these as statements or exclamations. Alternate translation: [we do not think that we saw you hungry and fed you, or thirsty and gave you to drink. We do not think that we saw you a stranger and gathered together with you, or naked and clothed you. We do not think that we saw you sick or in prison and came to you.]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT the righteous
UST the people who did what was right
(οἱ δίκαιοι)

The king is using the adjective righteous as a noun to mean righteous people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the righteous people]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT saying
UST will reply
(λέγοντες)

If you keep the direct quotation, consider natural ways of introducing it in your language. Alternate translation: [and they will say]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

> ULT you … feed {you} … give {you} to drink
> UST we do not remember feeding you … giving you water
> (σε & ἐθρέψαμεν & ἐποτίσαμεν)

Since the people are speaking to the king, the word you throughout this verse is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

> ULT being thirsty and give {you} to drink
> UST giving you water when you were thirsty
> (διψῶντα καὶ ἐποτίσαμεν)

The people speaking are leaving out some of the words that a sentence would need in many languages to be complete. If it would be clearer in your language, you could supply these words from earlier in the sentence. Alternate translation: [when did we see you thirsty and give you to drink]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
righteous	the people who did what was right
Lord	Lord

Matthew 25:38

ULT	UST
And when did we see you a stranger and gather together with {you}? Or naked and clothe {you}?	We do not remember welcoming you even though you were from a different place. {We do not remember} giving you clothes when you did not have enough to wear.

ULT you … gather together with {you} … clothe {you}
UST We do not remember welcoming you … giving you clothes
(σε & συνηγάγομεν & περιεβάλομεν)

Since the people are speaking to the king, the word you throughout this verse is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT gather together with {you}
UST welcoming you
(συνηγάγομεν)

See how you translated this phrase in 25:35. Alternate translation: [invite you into our houses] or [give you a place to stay]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT naked and clothe {you}
UST giving you clothes when you did not have enough to wear
(γυμνὸν καὶ περιεβάλομεν)

The people speaking are leaving out some of the words that a sentence would need in many languages to be complete. If it would be clearer in your language, you could supply these words from earlier in the sentence. Alternate translation: [when did we see you naked and clothe you]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

> ULT naked
> UST you did not have enough to wear
> (γυμνὸν)

See how you translated this word in 25:36. Alternate translation: [without proper clothing] or [ill-clothed]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

Matthew 25:39

ULT	UST
And when did we see you sick or in prison and come to you?'	We do not remember visiting you when you were ill or in jail.'

ULT you … you
UST We do not remember … you
(σε & σε)

Since the people are speaking to the king, the word you throughout this verse is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT come to you
UST visiting you
(ἤλθομεν πρός σε)

The people speaking ask when they visited the king while he was sick or in prison. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [spend time with you]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT come
UST visiting (ἤλθομεν)

In a context such as this, your language might say "go" instead of come. Alternate translation: [go]

Support Reference: Go and Come

Matthew 25:40

ULT	UST
And answering, the King will say to them, 'Truly I say to you, as much as you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.'	I, the king, will respond, 'Whenever you do something to help an insignificant fellow believer, it is as if you did it to help me. What I have said is true.'

ULT the King
UST I, the king
(ὁ Βασιλεὺς)

Jesus continues to speak about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [I, who am the King,]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT to them, 'Truly I say to you, you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me
UST will respond, 'Whenever you do something to help an insignificant fellow believer, it is as if you did it to help me. What I have said is true (αὐτοῖς, ἀμὴν, λέγω ὑμῖν, ἐφ' ὅσον ἐποιήσατε ἑνὶ τούτων τῶν ἀδελφῶν μου τῶν ἐλαχίστων, ἐμοὶ ἐποιήσατε)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [to them that he was speaking truly and that as much as they did for one of the least of these brothers of his, they did for him]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT of … least
UST insignificant
(τῶν ἐλαχίστων)

The word least identifies someone who is not very important. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make this idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [of the least important]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT of these brothers of mine
UST fellow believer
(τούτων τῶν ἀδελφῶν μου)

The king, Jesus, speaks of his disciples as if they were his brothers. He means that he considers them to be part of his family. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use simile form or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [of those whom I call my brothers] or [of the people I love as if they were my brothers]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT brothers
UST fellow believer
(τῶν ἀδελφῶν)

Although the term brothers is masculine, the king is using the word in a generic sense that includes both men and women. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could use language in your translation that is clearly inclusive of both men and women. Alternate translation: [brothers and sisters]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

ULT you did for me
UST it is as if you did it to help me
(ἐμοὶ ἐποιήσατε)

The king speaks as if anything that people did for one of the least of these brothers of mine was actually done for him. He means that he considers any help given to these brothers of mine to be as important to him as if it had been given directly to him. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [I consider that you did it for me] or [it is just like you did it for me]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
King	I, the king
Truly	What I have said is true

Matthew 25:41

ULT	UST
Then he will say also to the ones on his left, 'Go from me, the ones having been cursed, into the eternal fire that has been prepared for the devil and his angels.	After that, I will tell the people in the area to my left, 'You are people whom God has cursed. Leave me! {I send you} to hell, which God set up for Satan and his demons.

ULT to the ones on his left, 'Go from me, the ones having been cursed, into the eternal fire that has been prepared for the devil and his angels … For I was hungry, and you did not give me to eat; I was thirsty, and you did not give me to drink … I was a stranger, and you did not gather together with me; {I was} naked, and you did not clothe me; {I was} sick and in prison, and you did not care for me

UST the people in the area to my left, 'You are people whom God has cursed. Leave me! {I send you} to hell, which God set up for Satan and his demons … { … You will go there} because you did not feed me when I was hungry. You did not give me water when I was thirsty … You did not welcome me when I arrived from a different place. You did not give me clothes when I did not have enough to wear. You did not take care of me when I was ill and in jail

(τοῖς ἐξ εὐωνύμων, πορεύεσθε ἀπ' ἐμοῦ κατηραμένοι εἰς τὸ πῦρ τὸ αἰώνιον, τὸ ἡτοιμασμένον τῷ διαβόλῳ καὶ τοῖς ἀγγέλοις αὐτοῦ. ἐπείνασα γὰρ καὶ οὐκ ἐδώκατέ μοι φαγεῖν, ἐδίψησα καὶ οὐκ ἐποτίσατέ με, ξένος ἤμην καὶ οὐ συνηγάγετέ με, γυμνὸς καὶ οὐ περιεβάλετέ με, ἀσθενὴς καὶ ἐν φυλακῇ καὶ οὐκ ἐπεσκέψασθέ με) (25:41-43)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [to the ones on his left that they, who had been cursed, should go from him into the eternal fire that has been prepared for the devil and his angels. He said that this was because he was hungry, and they did not give him to eat; he was thirsty, and they did not give him to drink; he was a stranger, and they did not gather together with him; he was naked, and they did not clothe him; he was sick and in prison, and they did not care for him]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT he will say … his left

UST I will tell … in the area to my left

(ἐρεῖ & εὐωνύμων)

Jesus continues to speak about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [I will say … my left]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT his left
UST in the area to my left (εὐωνύμων)

See how you translated his left in 25:33. Alternate translation: [his left side]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT the ones having been cursed
UST You are people whom God has cursed (κατηραμένοι)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was God. Alternate translation: [the ones God has cursed]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the eternal fire
UST hell
(τὸ πῦρ τὸ αἰώνιον)

The phrase the eternal fire refers to hell and describes it as a very unpleasant place. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. See how you translated the similar phrase in 18:8. Alternate translation: [hell, which is as hot as an eternal fire and] or [the hell]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT that has been prepared
UST which God set up
(τὸ ἡτοιμασμένον)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was God. Alternate translation: [that God has prepared]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
the ones having been cursed	You are people whom God has cursed eternal	hell
for the devil	for Satan

ULT	UST
angels	demons

Matthew 25:42

ULT	UST
For I was hungry, and you did not give me to eat; I was thirsty, and you did not give me to drink;	{You will go there} because you did not feed me when I was hungry. You did not give me water when I was thirsty.

ULT For
UST {You will go there} because
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces the reasons why the people on the left will go to the “eternal fire.” If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason. Alternate translation: [That is because] or [Here is why:]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT you did not give me to eat … you did not give me to drink
UST you did not feed me … You did not give me water
(οὐκ ἐδώκατέ μοι φαγεῖν & οὐκ ἐποτίσατέ με)

The king is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You can supply these words from the context if that would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [you did not give me food to eat … you did not give me something to drink]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

Matthew 25:43

ULT	UST
I was a stranger, and you did not gather together with me; {I was} naked, and you did not clothe me; {I was} sick and in prison, and you did not care for me.'	You did not welcome me when I arrived from a different place. You did not give me clothes when I did not have enough to wear. You did not take care of me when I was ill and in jail.'

> ULT you did not gather together with me
> UST You did not welcome me
> (οὐ συνηγάγετέ με)

The phrase did not gather together with me means that these people did not invite him to eat and sleep in their houses. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 25:35. Alternate translation: [you did not invite me into your houses] or [you did not give me a place to stay]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT {I was} naked
> UST I did not have enough to wear
> (γυμνὸς)

The word naked refers generally to having too little clothing. It does not necessarily mean that the king had no clothes at all, although that could have been true. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you expressed the idea in 25:36. Alternate translation: [I was without proper clothing] or [I was ill-clothed]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

Matthew 25:44

ULT	UST
Then they also will answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not serve you?'	After that, those people will reply, 'Lord, we do not remember failing to help you when you were hungry or thirsty or came from a different place or did not have enough to wear or were ill or in jail.'

ULT saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not serve you
UST will reply, 'Lord, we do not remember failing to help you when you were hungry or thirsty or came from a different place or did not have enough to wear or were ill or in jail
(λέγοντες, Κύριε, πότε σε εἴδομεν πεινῶντα, ἢ διψῶντα, ἢ ξένον, ἢ γυμνὸν, ἢ ἀσθενῆ, ἢ ἐν φυλακῇ, καὶ οὐ διηκονήσαμέν σοι)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [calling him Lord and asking when they had seen him being hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and they did not serve him.]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not serve you
UST we do not remember failing to help you when you were hungry or thirsty or came from a different place or did not have enough to wear or were ill or in jail
(πότε σε εἴδομεν πεινῶντα, ἢ διψῶντα, ἢ ξένον, ἢ γυμνὸν, ἢ ἀσθενῆ, ἢ ἐν φυλακῇ, καὶ οὐ διηκονήσαμέν σοι)

The people speaking are using the question form to indicate that they do not remember failing to help the king in these ways. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [we do not think that we saw you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not serve you.]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT saying
UST will reply
(λέγοντες)

If you keep the direct quotation, consider natural ways of introducing it in your language. Alternate translation: [and they will say]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT you … you
UST we do not remember … you
(σε & σοι)

Since the people are talking to the king, the word you throughout this verse is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT naked
UST did not have enough to wear
(γυμνὸν)

See how you translated this word in 25:36. Alternate translation: [without proper clothing] or [ill-clothed]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Lord	Lord
did … serve	to help

Matthew 25:45

ULT	UST
Then he will answer them, saying, ‘Truly I say to you, as much as you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.’	He will reply, ‘I tell you truly that you did not do for me whatever you did not do for even the least important one among these people of mine.’

ULT he will answer
UST He will reply
(ἀποκριθήσεται)

Jesus continues to speak about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [I will answer them]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT saying, ‘Truly I say to you, as much as you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me
UST I tell you truly that you did not do for me whatever you did not do for even the least important one among these people of mine (λέγων, ἀμὴν, λέγω ὑμῖν, ἐφ’ ὅσον οὐκ ἐποιήσατε ἑνὶ τούτων τῶν ἐλαχίστων, οὐδὲ ἐμοὶ ἐποιήσατε)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [saying that he was speaking truly and that as much as they did not do for one of the least of these, they did not do for him]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT saying
(λέγων)

If you keep the direct quotation, consider natural ways of introducing it in your language. Alternate translation: [and he will say]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

> ULT of the least
> UST the least important
> (τῶν ἐλαχίστων)

The word least identifies someone who is not very important. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make this idea more explicit. See how you translated this word in 25:40. Alternate translation: [of the least important]

> ULT of these
> UST among these people of mine
> (τούτων)

The word these refers to the people whom the king, Jesus, calls "brothers of mine" in 25:40. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to those people more directly. Alternate translation: [of these brothers of mine] or [of the people I love as if they were my brothers]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

> ULT you did not do for me
> UST you … not … for me … did … do
> (οὐδὲ ἐμοὶ ἐποιήσατε)

The king speaks as if people who fail to do something for one of the least of these actually fail to do something for him. He means that he considers any neglect of these people to be as important to him as if he himself had been neglected. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in simile form or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the similar figure of speech in 25:40. Alternate translation: [I consider that you did not do it for me] or [it is just as though you did not do it for me]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Truly	I tell you truly that

Matthew 25:46

ULT	UST
And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”	As for those people {who did what was wrong}, God will punish them forever. In contrast, the people who did what was right will live with God forever.”

ULT these
UST As for those people {who did what was wrong}
(οὗτοι)

The pronoun these refers to the people on the king’s left who did not help people in need. If it would be helpful to your readers, you could refer to them more directly. Alternate translation: [those to whom the king just spoke] or [those on the king’s left side]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life
UST God will punish them forever. In contrast, the people who did what was right will live with God forever (ἀπελεύσονται & εἰς κόλασιν αἰώνιον, οἱ δὲ δίκαιοι εἰς ζωὴν αἰώνιον)

Jesus speaks as if eternal punishment and eternal life were locations that people could go away into. He means that people will either experience eternal punishment or eternal life. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable figure of speech or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [will experience eternal punishment, but the righteous ones eternal life]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT into eternal punishment
UST God will punish them forever
(εἰς κόλασιν αἰώνιον)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of punishment, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [to be punished eternally]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT the righteous into eternal life
UST the people who did what was right will live with God forever
(οἱ & δίκαιοι εἰς ζωὴν αἰώνιον)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [the righteous ones will go away into eternal life]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT into eternal life
UST will live with God forever
(εἰς ζωὴν αἰώνιον)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of life, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [to live eternally]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
eternal	forever
punishment	God will punish them
righteous	people who did what was right
eternal	forever

Matthew 26

Matthew 26 Chapter Introduction

Structure and Formatting

1. The crucifixion of Jesus, his death, and his resurrection (26:1–28:19)
    - The chief priests and elders plan to kill Jesus (26:1–5)
    - A woman anoints Jesus (26:6–13)
    - Judas agrees to hand Jesus over (26:14–16)
    - Jesus' last meal with his disciples (26:17–29)
    - Jesus predicts that his disciples will deny him (26:30–35)
    - Jesus prays in Gethsemane (26:36–46)
    - Judas hands Jesus over (26:47–56)
    - Jesus' trial before the Jewish council (26:57–68)
    - Peter denies Jesus three times (26:69–75)

Some translations set each line of poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with the poetry in 26:31, which is a quote from Zechariah 13:7.

Religious and Cultural Concepts in This Chapter

Perfumed oil

In 26:6–13, a woman anoints Jesus with perfumed oil. The kind that the woman uses was very expensive. People would use these oils to make themselves look and smell good. Also, they used oils to anoint corpses before they buried them, possibly to keep them from smelling. In this story, the woman uses the oil to honor Jesus, and Jesus also interprets it as a preparation for his burial. Make sure that your readers understand what anointing with this kind of oil means. (See: oil)

Denying Jesus

Throughout this chapter, Jesus and his disciples speak about "denying" Jesus. If a disciple denies Jesus, the disciple claims to have no connection with Jesus, neither knowing nor following him. Consider how you might naturally express this idea in your language.

Jesus' trial before the Jewish council

In 26:57–68, Matthew narrates Jesus' trial before the Jewish council. Since Jerusalem was governed by the Roman empire, the Roman governor, Pilate, was the only one who could actually have someone executed. So, the Jewish council needed to find evidence against Jesus that proved that he did something for which the Roman governor would execute him. This trial, then, was a preliminary step. They first needed to find good evidence to condemn Jesus, and then they needed to present evidence to the Roman governor that would lead to him executing Jesus. While you should not explain all these details in your translation, make sure that your translation does fit with this general idea.

The Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven

In 26:64, Jesus indicates that he, the Son of Man, will "come" on the clouds of heaven. However, he does not indicate the location to which he will "come." Christians debate whether Jesus is describing his return to earth or his enthronement in heaven. If possible, your translation should allow for both possibilities. See the notes on this verse for translation options.

Peter's accent

In
26:73, people who are standing near Peter tell him that they think he was one of Jesus' disciples. They back up this claim by referring to his "speech," by which they mean his accent and choice of words. In other words, Peter's accent and word choice make it clear that he is from Galilee, where Jesus was from. So, they infer that Peter came to Jerusalem from Galilee with Jesus. Make sure that it is clear in your translation that the people standing near Peter are speaking about his accent and word choice that prove that he is from a specific region.

Translation Issues in This Chapter

Metaphor with bread and cup

In 26:26–28, Jesus identifies bread as "my body" and wine in a cup as "my blood of the covenant." These metaphors can be understood in at least three primary ways: (1) the bread and wine somehow become Jesus' body and blood; (2) Jesus' body and blood are present, physically or spiritually, in the bread and wine; or (3) the bread and wine memorialize or symbolize Jesus' body and blood. Christians are divided on this question, and metaphors that link body and blood to bread and wine are very significant in the Bible and in Christian teaching. For these reasons, it is best to preserve these metaphors without expressing them as similes or in another nonfigurative way. If you must express them in another way, see the notes on 26:26–28 for translation possibilities. (See: Metaphor)

Singular and plural forms of "you"

Most of the forms of "you" in this chapter appear in dialogue, which can include both individuals and groups. Because of this, there are many of both singular and plural forms of "you." However, there are slightly more plural forms of "you" in this chapter, so you should assume forms of "you" are plural unless a note specifies that the form is singular. (See: Forms of 'You' — Singular)

The answer "You said it"

In 26:25 and 26:64, Jesus answers questions with the clause "You said it." He uses this answer because he does not want to directly say "yes," but he wants to imply that what the person asked is true in some way. In other words, Jesus' answer indirectly provides a positive answer to the question. If possible, you should use a comparable phrase that gives an indirect positive answer to a question. If necessary, you could use a more direct answer, as modeled by the UST. See the notes on these verses for translation options that are more indirect.

Judas' kiss for Jesus

In 26:49, Matthew describes how Judas kissed Jesus so the soldiers would know whom to arrest. In this culture, when men greeted other men who were family or friends, they would kiss them, probably on one cheek or on both cheeks. If men would not greet each other with a kiss in your culture, you could explain the purpose of the kiss, or you could translate the expression in a more general way. See the notes on this verse for translation options. (See: kiss)

Matthew 26:1

ULT	UST
And it happened that when Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples,	So, Jesus completed saying all those things. Then, he told his apprentices,

ULT And it happened that when Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples
UST So, Jesus completed saying all those things. Then, he told his apprentices (καὶ ἐγένετο ὅτε ἐτέλεσεν ὁ Ἰησοῦς πάντας τοὺς λόγους τούτους, εἶπεν τοῖς μαθηταῖς αὐτοῦ)

These clauses mark the end of Jesus' teaching by stating that Jesus finished speaking to his disciples and then describing what he did next. Use a natural form in your language for expressing the conclusion of a story. Alternate translation: [At that time, Jesus finished all these words. Then, he said to his disciples]

Support Reference: End of Story

ULT all these words
UST saying all those things
(πάντας τοὺς λόγους τούτους)

Matthew uses the term words to refer to what Jesus said. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [speaking all these words]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
to … disciples	apprentices

Matthew 26:2

ULT	UST
“You know that after two days the Passover happens, and the Son of Man is handed over to be crucified.”	“As you know, two days from now, the Passover festival will begin. At that time, somebody will help the authorities arrest me, the Son of Man. They will have people kill me by nailing me to a cross.”

ULT happens … is handed over
UST will begin … somebody will help the authorities arrest
(γίνεται & παραδίδοται)

Because Jesus is sure that these things will happen, he uses the present to refer to events that will happen in the future. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the future tense here. Alternate translation: [will happen … will be handed over]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT the Son of Man is handed over
UST somebody will help the authorities arrest me, the Son of Man
(ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου παραδίδοται)

Jesus speaks about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [I, who am the Son of Man, am handed over]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT the Son of Man is handed over to be crucified
UST somebody will help the authorities arrest me, the Son of Man. They will have people kill me by nailing me to a cross
(ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου παραδίδοται εἰς τὸ σταυρωθῆναι)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the actions, you could use indefinite subjects. Alternate translation: [someone hands over the Son of Man so that people crucify him]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
You know	As you know
days	days
Passover	Passover festival

ULT	UST
Son of Man	me, the Son of Man
be crucified	They will have people kill me by nailing me to a cross

Matthew 26:3

ULT	UST
Then the chief priests and the elders of the people were gathered together in the courtyard of the chief priest, the one called Caiaphas.	At that time, the ruling priests and the Jewish leaders assembled outside the house of the ruling priest whose name was Caiaphas.

ULT were gathered together
UST assembled
(συνήχθησαν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [gathered] or [came together]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the one called Caiaphas
UST whose name was Caiaphas
(τοῦ λεγομένου Καϊάφα)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [the one people called Caiaphas]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT of the chief priest, the one called Caiaphas
UST of the ruling priest whose name was Caiaphas
(τοῦ ἀρχιερέως, τοῦ λεγομένου Καϊάφα)

Matthew uses the phrase the one called Caiaphas to distinguish this chief priest from the rest of the chief priests. Be sure that this distinction is clear in your translation. Alternate translation: [of the chief priest who was called Caiaphas]

Support Reference: Distinguishing Versus Informing or Reminding

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
chief priests	ruling priests
elders	leaders
were gathered together	assembled
of the chief priest	of the ruling priest
called	whose name was

ULT	UST
Caiaphas	Caiaphas

Matthew 26:4

ULT	UST
And they took counsel together in order that they might seize Jesus by deceit and kill him.	They started to plan a clever way to arrest Jesus and have others execute him.

> ULT they took counsel together
> UST They started to plan
> (συνεβουλεύσαντο)

The phrase took counsel together indicates that the chief priests and elders were working together to figure something out. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the similar phrase in 22:15. Alternate translation: [they made plans together] or [they came up with ideas together]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT by deceit
> UST a clever way
> (δόλῳ)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of deceit, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [deceitfully] or [cleverly]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

> ULT kill him
> UST have others execute him
> (ἀποκτείνωσιν)

Matthew implies that the chief priests and elders would have other people kill Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [have him killed]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
they might seize	to arrest
Jesus	Jesus

Matthew 26:5

ULT	UST
But they were saying, "Not during the festival, so that a riot does not happen among the people."	However, they agreed that they would not act during the Passover festival. Otherwise, the people who were there in Jerusalem might riot.

ULT they were saying, "Not during the festival, so that a riot does not happen among the people
UST they agreed that they would not act during the Passover festival. Otherwise, the people who were there in Jerusalem might riot (ἔλεγον & μὴ ἐν τῇ ἑορτῇ, ἵνα μὴ θόρυβος γένηται ἐν τῷ λαῷ)

It may be more natural in your language to have an indirect quotation here. Alternate translation: [they were saying that they would not do it during the festival, so that a riot would not happen among the people]

Support Reference: Direct and Indirect Quotations

ULT Not during the festival
UST that they would not act during the Passover festival
(μὴ ἐν τῇ ἑορτῇ)

The phrase Not during the festival refers to not arresting Jesus during the festival. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [We must not arrest him during the festival]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the festival
UST the Passover festival
(τῇ ἑορτῇ)

Here, the festival is the Passover, as indicated in 26:2. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the festival of Passover]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT the people
> UST the people who were there in Jerusalem
> (τῷ λαῷ)

This means specifically the great crowds of people who were in the city of Jerusalem and who liked Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers.
Alternate translation: [the people who listen to Jesus] or [the people who are here who follow Jesus]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
festival	Passover festival

Matthew 26:6

ULT	UST
Now, Jesus being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper,	One time, Jesus {and his apprentices} were in the village of Bethany. They were in the home of Simon, who used to have a skin disease.

ULT Now
UST One time
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next major event in the story. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT Jesus being
UST Jesus {and his apprentices} were (τοῦ & Ἰησοῦ γενομένου)

Matthew implies that the disciples were with Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Jesus and his disciples being]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT of Simon the leper
UST of Simon, who used to have a skin disease
(Σίμωνος τοῦ λεπροῦ)

Matthew could be implying that: (1) Simon had once been a leper but had been healed. Alternate translation: [of Simon, who had been healed of leprosy]; (2) the house was owned by Simon, who was a leper, but he did not live there. Alternate translation: [owned by Simon the leper]; (3) the leper was a nickname for Simon, who did not actually have leprosy. Alternate translation: [of Simon, who was nicknamed “the leper”]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT of Simon
> UST of Simon
> (Σίμωνος)

The word Simon is the name of a man. This is not the same Simon whom Jesus also called Peter.

Support Reference: How to Translate Names

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus {and his apprentices}
Bethany	the village of Bethany
the house	the home
leper	who used to have a skin disease

Matthew 26:7

ULT	UST
a woman approached him having an alabaster jar of very expensive perfumed oil, and she poured {it} upon his head, {he} reclining to eat.	While Jesus was feasting {there}, a woman came to him. She brought with her a stone jar that contained a valuable, fragrant ointment. She poured the ointment on Jesus' head.

ULT a woman approached him having an alabaster jar of very expensive perfumed oil
UST a woman came to him. She brought with her a stone jar that contained a valuable, fragrant ointment (προσῆλθεν αὐτῷ γυνὴ ἔχουσα ἀλάβαστρον μύρου βαρυτίμου)

Matthew introduces a woman into the story. If your language has its own way of introducing new participants, you could use it here in your translation. Alternate translation: [there was a woman who had an alabaster jar of very expensive perfumed oil. She approached him]

Support Reference: Introduction of New and Old Participants

ULT an alabaster jar of very expensive perfumed oil
UST a stone jar that contained a valuable, fragrant ointment
(ἀλάβαστρον μύρου βαρυτίμου)

Matthew is using the possessive form to describe an alabaster jar that is filled with very expensive perfumed oil. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [an alabaster jar full of very expensive perfumed oil]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT an alabaster jar
UST a stone jar
(ἀλάβαστρον)

The word alabaster is the name of a soft, white stone. People stored precious and valuable items in jars made from alabaster. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of stone, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [a white stone jar]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

> ULT of very expensive perfumed oil
> UST that contained a valuable, fragrant ointment
> (μύρου βαρυτίμου)

This oil had fragrant additives. To make themselves have a nice smell, people would rub the oil on themselves or sprinkle their clothing with it. Matthew indicates that this was particularly expensive oil. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of oil, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [of very expensive oil with perfume in it]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

> ULT his head, {he} reclining to eat
> UST While Jesus was feasting {there} … Jesus' head
> (τῆς κεφαλῆς αὐτοῦ ἀνακειμένου)

The phrase {he} reclining to eat refers to something else that was happening while the woman poured the oil on Jesus' head. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a simultaneous action. Alternate translation: [his head as he was reclining to eat]

Support Reference: Connect — Simultaneous Time Relationship

> ULT {he} reclining to eat
> UST While Jesus was feasting {there}
> (ἀνακειμένου)

In Jesus' culture, people would usually recline, or lie on one side, when they were eating. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to the position in which people eat in your culture, or you could just refer to eating. See how you translated the similar phrase in 9:10. Alternate translation: [he sitting down to eat] or [he eating]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
of … perfumed oil	that contained a … fragrant ointment

Matthew 26:8

ULT	UST
Now, having seen this, the disciples became very angry, saying, "For what {is} this waste?	When the apprentices noticed {what the woman had done}, they were very upset. They declared, "She wasted {the valuable ointment}!

ULT saying, "For what {is} this waste … For this was able to be sold for much and given to the poor

UST They declared, "She wasted {the valuable ointment} … She could have sold it for a lot of money! Then, she could have given {that money} to poor people

(λέγοντες, εἰς τί ἡ ἀπώλεια αὕτη? ἐδύνατο γὰρ τοῦτο πραθῆναι πολλοῦ καὶ δοθῆναι πτωχοῖς) (26:8-9)

It may be more natural in your language to have an indirect quotation here. Alternate translation: [asking what the waste was for and saying that the perfume was able to have been sold for much and then given to the poor]

Support Reference: Direct and Indirect Quotations

ULT Now

(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT saying

UST They declared

(λέγοντες)

If you keep the direct quotation, consider natural ways of introducing it in your language. Alternate translation: [and they said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT For what {is} this waste
UST She wasted {the valuable ointment}
(εἰς τί ἡ ἀπώλεια αὕτη)

The disciples is using the question form to show that they think the woman wasted the perfume. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [There is no reason for this waste.] or [What a waste!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT For what {is} this waste
UST She wasted {the valuable ointment}
(εἰς τί ἡ ἀπώλεια αὕτη)

Alternate translation: [What is the purpose for this waste]

ULT this waste
UST She wasted {the valuable ointment}
(ἡ ἀπώλεια αὕτη)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of waste, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [she wasting this]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
disciples	the apprentices
waste	She wasted {the valuable ointment}

Matthew 26:9

ULT	UST
For this was able to be sold for much and given to the poor."	She could have sold it for a lot of money! Then, she could have given {that money} to poor people."

ULT For
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces a reason why the disciples say that the woman wasted the perfume. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason or basis for a claim, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [We say that because] or [As a matter of fact,]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT this was able to be sold for much and given to UST She could have sold it for a lot of money! Then, she could have given {that money}
(ἐδύνατο & τοῦτο πραθῆναι πολλοῦ καὶ δοθῆναι)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who would have done the action, it is clear from the context that would have been the woman. Alternate translation: [she was able to sell this for much and give to]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT this
UST it
(τοῦτο)

The pronoun this refers to the jar full of perfumed oil that the woman poured on Jesus' head in 26:7. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer back to it more directly. Alternate translation: [this perfumed oil]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

> ULT for much and given to
> UST for a lot of money! Then, she could have given {that money}
> (πολλοῦ καὶ δοθῆναι)

The disciples imply that the perfume could have been sold for much money, and this money is what would been given to the poor. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [for much money, which could have been given]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT the poor
> UST to poor people
> (πτωχοῖς)

The disciples are using the adjective poor as a noun to mean poor people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [to people who are poor]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

Matthew 26:10

ULT	UST
But Jesus, knowing this, said to them, "Why are you causing trouble for the woman? For she did a good work for me.	However, Jesus realized {what they were saying}. He told them, "Do not bother this woman! {I say that} because what she did to me was right.

ULT But
UST However
(δὲ)

The word But introduces how Jesus responded in contrast to how the disciples responded. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast. Alternate translation: [In contrast,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT Why are you causing trouble for the woman
UST Do not bother this woman
(τί κόπους παρέχετε τῇ γυναικί)

Jesus is using the question form to rebuke the disciples for saying these things about what the woman did. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [Do not cause trouble for the woman.] or [Stop causing trouble for the woman!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT are you causing trouble for the woman … a good work
UST Do not bother this woman … what … was right
(κόπους παρέχετε τῇ γυναικί? ἔργον & καλὸν)

If your language does not use abstract nouns for the ideas of trouble and work, you could express the same ideas in another way. Alternate translation: [are you troubling the woman … something good]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT For
UST {I say that} because
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces a reason why the disciples should not cause trouble for the woman. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason or basis for a command, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [You should not do that, because] or [In fact,]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
knowing this	realized {what they were saying} trouble	Do not bother
good	was right

Matthew 26:11

ULT	UST
For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.	There will always be poor people with you. {So, you can help them whenever you want to}. However, I will not always be with you.

ULT For
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces a reason why Jesus rebukes the disciples for saying that the woman should have given money to the poor instead of pouring the perfume on Jesus' head. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason or basis for a rebuke, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [I am rebuking you because] or [Here is why I say that:]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT you always have the poor with you
UST There will always be poor people with you. {So, you can help them whenever you want to} (πάντοτε & τοὺς πτωχοὺς ἔχετε μεθ' ἑαυτῶν)

Jesus implies that they will always have the opportunity of giving to the poor. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [you always have the poor with you, and you can give to them whenever you desire to do so]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the poor
UST poor people
(τοὺς πτωχοὺς)

Jesus is using the adjective poor as a noun to mean poor people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [people who are poor]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

Matthew 26:12

ULT	UST
For she, putting this perfumed oil on my body, did {it} to prepare me for burial.	When she poured this ointment on me, she was getting me ready for when someone buries me.

ULT For
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces a further explanation about why what the woman did was a "good work." If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces further explanation, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [In fact,] or [Further,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT perfumed oil
UST ointment
(τὸ μύρον)

See how you translated perfumed oil in 26:7. Alternate translation: [oil with perfume in it]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT to prepare me for burial
UST getting me ready for when someone buries me
(πρὸς τὸ ἐνταφιάσαι με)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of burial, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [to prepare me to be buried]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
perfumed oil	ointment
prepare … for burial	getting me ready for when someone buries me

Matthew 26:13

ULT	UST
Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, also what she did will be spoken in remembrance of her."	In every place where my apprentices proclaim the good news, they will also tell what this woman just did. That way, people remember her. What I have said is true."

ULT this gospel is preached … also what she did will be spoken
UST my apprentices proclaim the good news, they will also tell what this woman just did (κηρυχθῇ τὸ εὐαγγέλιον τοῦτο & λαληθήσεται καὶ ὃ ἐποίησεν αὕτη)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the actions, you could use indefinite subjects. Alternate translation: [people preach this gospel … they will also speak what she did]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT in remembrance of her
UST That way, people remember her
(εἰς μνημόσυνον αὐτῆς)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of remembrance, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [so that she is remembered] or [as a way to remember her]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Truly	What I have said is true
gospel	the good news
is preached	my apprentices proclaim
world	In every place

Matthew 26:14

ULT	UST
Then one of the Twelve, the one called Judas Iscariot, having gone to the chief priests,	After that, one of Jesus' 12 representatives visited the ruling priests. This man's name was Judas Iscariot.

ULT of the Twelve
UST of Jesus' 12 representatives
(τῶν δώδεκα)

Matthew is using the adjective Twelve as a noun to refer to Jesus' closest disciples. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [of the 12 apostles] or [of the 12 men whom Jesus had chosen to be apostles]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT the one called
UST This man's name was (ὁ λεγόμενος)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. See how you translated the similar form in 26:3. Alternate translation: [the one people called Judas Iscariot]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT having gone
UST visited
(πορευθεὶς)

In a context such as this, your language might say "come" instead of gone. Alternate translation: [having come]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
of the Twelve	of Jesus' 12 representatives called	This man's name was
Judas Iscariot	Judas Iscariot
chief priests	the ruling priests

Matthew 26:15

ULT	UST
said, “What are you willing to give me, and I will hand him over to you?” And they weighed out 30 pieces of silver for him.	He said to them, “Suppose that I help you arrest Jesus. How much money would you pay me?” {In response,} they offered Judas 30 silver coins.

ULT What are you willing to give me
UST How much money would you pay me
(τί θέλετέ μοι δοῦναι)

Judas is asking how much money they will give to him. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [What sum of money are you willing to pay me]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT and I
UST Suppose that I
(κἀγὼ)

The word and introduces what Judas is offering to do if they give him enough money. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a goal or result. If you use the following alternate translations, you may need to delete the comma before and. Alternate translation: [so that I] or [in order that I]

Support Reference: Connect — Goal (Purpose) Relationship

ULT they weighed out 30 pieces of silver for him
UST they offered Judas 30 silver coins
(οἱ & ἔστησαν αὐτῷ τριάκοντα ἀργύρια)

Matthew refers to a procedure in which pieces of silver would be weighed so that all the people involved in the transaction would be sure that the correct amount of money had been paid. Matthew means that they offered to pay Judas 30 pieces of silver. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they counted out 30 pieces of silver for him] or [they offered 30 pieces of silver to him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT 30 pieces of silver
> UST 30 silver coins
> (τριάκοντα ἀργύρια)

Each of these pieces of silver was a coin equivalent to about four days' wages. You could try to express this amount in terms of current monetary values, but that might cause your Bible translation to become outdated and inaccurate, since those values can change over time. So instead you might state something more general or give the equivalent in wages. Alternate translation: [30 coins made out of silver] or [about four months' wages]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
will hand … over	help … arrest
pieces of silver	silver coins

Matthew 26:16

ULT	UST
And from then he was seeking an opportunity in order that he might hand him over.	From that moment on, Judas tried to find a good time to help {the ruling priests} arrest Jesus.

ULT an opportunity in order that he might hand him over
UST a good time to help {the ruling priests} arrest Jesus
(εὐκαιρίαν ἵνα αὐτὸν παραδῷ)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of opportunity, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [when it might be easy to hand him over] or [an opportune moment in which to hand him over]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
he was seeking	Judas tried to find
he might hand … over	help {the ruling priests} arrest

Matthew 26:17

ULT	UST
Now on the first of the Festival of Unleavened Bread the disciples approached Jesus, saying, "Where do you want {that} we might prepare for you to eat the Passover?"	During the first day of the Celebration of Unleavened Bread, the apprentices came to Jesus. They asked him, "Where should we set up the meal for the Passover celebration?"

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next major event in the story. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Sometime later,]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT on the first
UST During the first day
(τῇ & πρώτῃ)

Matthew is using the number first as a noun to mean the first day. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [on the first day]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT on the first
UST During the first day
(τῇ & πρώτῃ)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [on day one]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

ULT saying
UST They asked him
(λέγοντες)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

> ULT do you want … for you
> UST should … the meal for the Passover celebration
> (θέλεις & σοι)

Since the disciples are talking to Jesus, the word you is singular throughout this verse.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

> ULT the Passover
> UST the meal for the Passover celebration
> (τὸ Πάσχα)

Jesus' disciples are using the name of one part of the festival, Passover, to refer to the meal that people shared on that occasion. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the Passover meal]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
of the Festival of Unleavened Bread	of the Celebration of Unleavened Bread
disciples	apprentices
Jesus	to Jesus
Passover	the meal for the Passover celebration

Matthew 26:18

ULT	UST
And he said, "Go into the city to so-and-so and say to him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is near. I with my disciples am doing the Passover with you."'"	Jesus told them, "Enter the city of Jerusalem and find a certain man. Tell him, 'Our instructor says that something important is about to happen to him. He wants to eat the meal for the Passover celebration with us, his apprentices, in your home.'"

ULT Go into the city to so-and-so and say to him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is near. I with my disciples am doing the Passover with you
UST Enter the city of Jerusalem and find a certain man. Tell him, 'Our instructor says that something important is about to happen to him. He wants to eat the meal for the Passover celebration with us, his apprentices, in your home
(ὑπάγετε εἰς τὴν πόλιν πρὸς τὸν δεῖνα καὶ εἴπατε αὐτῷ, ὁ διδάσκαλος λέγει, ὁ καιρός μου ἐγγύς ἐστιν; πρὸς σὲ ποιῶ τὸ Πάσχα μετὰ τῶν μαθητῶν μου)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there are not quotations within quotations. Alternate translation: [Go into the city to so-and-so and say to him that the Teacher says that his time is near and that he with his disciples is doing the Passover with him]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT the city
UST the city of Jerusalem
(τὴν πόλιν)

The phrase the city refers to Jerusalem. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Jerusalem]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT so-and-so
UST a certain man
(τὸν δεῖνα)

The phrase so-and-so is used to refer to a person whose name the speaker does not want to share. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable form in your language, or you could refer to a man without naming him. Alternate translation: [such-and-such a man] or [a certain man]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT My time
UST that something important … to him
(ὁ καιρός μου)

The phrase My time refers to a moment when something important is going to happen to Jesus. More specifically, Jesus is referring to the time when he will suffer and die. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make that idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [A significant moment for me] or [The time for me to die]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT I with my disciples am doing the Passover
UST He wants to eat the meal for the Passover celebration with us, his apprentices
(ποιῶ τὸ Πάσχα μετὰ τῶν μαθητῶν μου)

Jesus uses the name of one part of the festival, Passover, to refer to the meal that people shared on that occasion. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 26:17. Alternate translation: [I with my disciples am eating the Passover meal]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT I with my disciples am doing
UST He wants to eat … with us, his apprentices
(ποιῶ & μετὰ τῶν μαθητῶν μου)

Jesus uses the present tense to refer to something that he plans to do in the future. Use whatever tense would be natural for describing plans for the future. Alternate translation: [I with my disciples plan to do]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT with you
UST in your home
(πρὸς σὲ)

Jesus implies that he and his disciples will celebrate the Passover at this man's house. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [at your house]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT you
> UST in your home
> (σὲ)

Since the disciples will be talking to a man, the word you here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Teacher	Our instructor
time	that something important
disciples	us, his apprentices
Passover	the meal for the Passover celebration

Matthew 26:19

ULT	UST
And the disciples did as Jesus directed them, and they prepared the Passover.	The apprentices did what Jesus told them to do. They {went to that man's house and} set up the meal for the Passover celebration.

ULT the Passover
UST the meal for the Passover celebration
(τὸ Πάσχα)

Matthew uses the name of one part of the festival, Passover, to refer to the meal that people shared on that occasion. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 26:17. Alternate translation: [the Passover meal]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
disciples	apprentices
Jesus	Jesus
Passover	the meal for the Passover celebration

Matthew 26:20

ULT	UST
Now evening having come, he was reclining to eat with the Twelve.	When it was evening, Jesus and his 12 representatives began to feast.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT he was reclining to eat
UST Jesus … began to feast
(ἀνέκειτο)

In Jesus' culture, people would usually recline, or lie on one side, when they were eating. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to the position in which people eat in your culture, or you could just refer to eating. See how you translated the similar phrase in 9:10. Alternate translation: [he was sitting down to eat] or [he was eating]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT the Twelve
UST his 12 representatives
(τῶν δώδεκα)

Matthew is using the adjective Twelve as a noun to refer to Jesus' closest disciples. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. See how you expressed the idea in 26:14. Alternate translation: [of the 12 apostles] or [of the 12 men whom Jesus had chosen to be apostles]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Twelve	his 12 representatives

Matthew 26:21

ULT	UST
And they eating, he said, “Truly I say to you that one of you will hand me over.”	As they ate, Jesus told them, “One of you is going to help {my enemies} arrest me. What I have said is true.”

(There are no notes for this verse)

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Truly	What I have said is true
will hand … over	is going to help {my enemies} arrest

Matthew 26:22

ULT	UST
And being very grieved, each one began to say to him, "Surely not I, Lord?"	The apprentices became very sad. Every one of them told Jesus, "Lord, I will not do that!"

ULT being very grieved
UST The apprentices became very sad
(λυπούμενοι σφόδρα)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was what Jesus said. Alternate translation: [since what he said grieved them very much]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT Surely not I, Lord
UST Lord, I will not do that
(μήτι ἐγώ εἰμι, Κύριε)

The disciples could be using the question form: (1) to tell Jesus that they would never hand him over. In this case, you could express the idea as a statement or exclamation. Alternate translation: [I am not the one, Lord!]; (2) to ask a hesitant question. In this case, they are unsure whether they would hand Jesus over. Alternate translation: [Could it really be me, Lord?]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT Surely not I, Lord
UST Lord, I will not do that
(μήτι ἐγώ εἰμι, Κύριε)

The disciples are leaving out some of the words that a sentence would need in many languages to be complete. If it would be helpful in your language, you could supply these words from the context. Alternate translation: [Surely it is not I who will hand you over, Lord]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Lord	Lord

Matthew 26:23

ULT	UST
But he, answering, said, "The one having dipped his hand with me in the bowl, this one will hand me over.	Jesus replied, "The one who will help {my enemies} arrest me is eating food here with me.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT The one having dipped his hand with me in the bowl, this one will hand me over
UST The one who will help {my enemies} arrest me is eating food here with me (ὁ ἐμβάψας μετ' ἐμοῦ τὴν χεῖρα ἐν τῷ τρυβλίῳ, οὗτός με παραδώσει)

The phrase this one refers directly back to The one having dipped his hand with me in the bowl. Jesus expresses the idea in this way to introduce The one having dipped his hand and then say what he will do. If stating the topic and then referring back to it with the phrase this one would be redundant in your language, you could omit the redundant information. Alternate translation: [The one having dipped his hand with me in the bowl will hand me over]

Support Reference: Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

ULT The one having dipped his hand with me in the bowl
UST is eating food here with me
(ὁ ἐμβάψας μετ' ἐμοῦ τὴν χεῖρα ἐν τῷ τρυβλίῳ)

Jesus describes one specific way of eating food in his culture to refer to eating in general. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your culture or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [The one taking food from the same plate with me] or [The one participating in this meal with me]

Support Reference: Synecdoche

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
will hand … over	who will help {my enemies} arrest

Matthew 26:24

ULT	UST
The Son of Man departs just as it has been written about him. But woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is handed over! It would have been good for him if that man had not been born."	I, the Son of Man, will die. That is what you can read in the Scriptures about me. Nevertheless, how terrible it will be for the man who helps {my enemies} arrest me, the Son of Man. In fact, that man would be better off if he had never existed."

ULT The Son of Man departs just as it has been written about him. But woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is handed over
UST I, the Son of Man, will die. That is what you can read in the Scriptures about me. Nevertheless, how terrible it will be for the man who helps {my enemies} arrest me, the Son of Man
(ὁ & Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου ὑπάγει καθὼς γέγραπται περὶ αὐτοῦ, οὐαὶ δὲ τῷ ἀνθρώπῳ ἐκείνῳ δι' οὗ ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου παραδίδοται)

Jesus speaks about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [I, who am the Son of Man, depart just as it has been written about me. But woe to that man through whom I am handed over]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

ULT departs
UST will die
(ὑπάγει)

Jesus uses the present tense to describe a future event. He does this to emphasize that the future event is sure to happen. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the future tense here and express the certainty in another way. Alternate translation: [will surely depart]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT departs
UST will die
(ὑπάγει)

Here, departs is a polite way to refer to dying. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable polite way to refer to dying, or you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [passes away] or [dies]

Support Reference: Euphemism

ULT just as it has been written
UST That is what you can read in the Scriptures
(καθὼς γέγραπται)

Jesus implies that what has been written can be found in the Old Testament Scriptures. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [just as it has been written in the Scriptures]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT it has been written
UST you can read in the Scriptures
(γέγραπται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the people who wrote the Scriptures. Alternate translation: [the prophets wrote] or [the Scriptures testify]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT through whom the Son of Man is handed over
UST who helps {my enemies} arrest me, the Son of Man
(δι᾽ οὗ ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου παραδίδοται)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [who hands over the Son of Man]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT that man had not been born
UST he had never existed
(οὐκ ἐγεννήθη ὁ ἄνθρωπος ἐκεῖνος)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the man’s mother. Alternate translation: [that man’s mother had not given birth to him]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Son of Man	I, the Son of Man
woe	how terrible it will be
Son of Man	me, the Son of Man
is handed over	helps {my enemies} arrest
good	better off

Matthew 26:25

ULT	UST
But answering, Judas, the one handing him over, said, "Surely not I, Rabbi?" He says to him, "You said {it}."	Judas, the one who was going to help {his enemies} arrest him, replied, "Teacher, I will not do that!" Jesus replied, "Yes you will."

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT Surely not I, Rabbi
UST Teacher, I will not do that
(μήτι ἐγώ εἰμι, Ῥαββεί)

Judas could be using the question form: (1) to deny that he would ever hand Jesus over. In this case, you could express the idea as a statement or exclamation. Alternate translation: [I am not the one, Rabbi!]; (2) to ask Jesus if he knows whether Judas is the one who will hand him over. In this case, Judas is actually asking for information. Alternate translation: [Do you think it is me, Rabbi?]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT Surely not I, Rabbi
UST Teacher, I will not do that
(μήτι ἐγώ εἰμι, Ῥαββεί)

Judas is leaving out some of the words that a sentence would need in many languages to be complete. If it would be helpful in your language, you could supply these words from the context. Alternate translation: [Surely it is not I who will hand you over, Rabbi]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

> ULT He says
> UST Jesus replied
> (λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [He said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

> ULT You said {it}
> UST Yes you will
> (σὺ εἶπας)

The phrase You said {it} indicates that the speaker acknowledges the truth of what the other person said. Jesus uses this phrase to indirectly indicate that Judas is the one who will hand him over. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that gives an indirect positive response to a question. If necessary, you could express the idea more directly, as the UST does. Alternate translation: [That is what you say] or [Your words show what is true]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT You
> UST Yes you will
> (σὺ)

Since Jesus is talking to Judas, the word You here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Judas	Judas
handing … over	who was going to help {his enemies} arrest
Rabbi	Teacher

Matthew 26:26

ULT	UST
Now they eating, Jesus, having taken bread and having blessed, broke {it}. And having given {it} to the disciples, he said, "Take, eat. This is my body."	As they ate, Jesus picked up a loaf of bread. He thanked God {for the loaf of bread}. Then, he tore it into pieces and handed the pieces to the apprentices {to eat}. He said, "This {bread} is my body. Receive it and eat it."

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next major event in the story. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [After that,] or [Later on,]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT having blessed
UST He thanked God {for the loaf of bread}
(εὐλογήσας)

Matthew could be implying that Jesus blessed: (1) God for providing the food. Alternate translation: [having blessed God] or [having praised God]; (2) the food. Alternate translation: [having blessed it] or [having asked God to make it holy]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT broke {it} … he
UST Then, he tore it into pieces
(ἔκλασεν)

Matthew means that Jesus broke the bread in pieces so that it could be served to the disciples. This was a normal practice in his culture. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [divided the bread into servings] or [broke the bread into smaller pieces]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT Take, eat
> UST Receive it and eat it
> (λάβετε, φάγετε)

Jesus implies that he wants the disciples to Take and eat the pieces of bread that he gave to them. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make that idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [Take these pieces of bread and eat them]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

> ULT This is my body
> UST This {bread} is my body
> (τοῦτό ἐστιν τὸ σῶμά μου)

Jesus identifies the bread as his body. This figure of speech has been interpreted in a number of ways. The bread could somehow become Jesus' body, or Jesus' body could be present in some way when people eat the bread, or the bread could represent or memorialize Jesus' body. Because of the variety of interpretations and the significance of this metaphor, you should preserve the metaphor if there is any way to do so. If you must express the metaphor in a different way, use a form that could fit with as many of the listed interpretations as possible. Alternate translation: [This functions as my body]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
bread	a loaf of bread
having blessed	He thanked God {for the loaf of bread}
to … disciples	to the apprentices

Matthew 26:27

ULT	UST
And having taken a cup and having given thanks, he gave {it} to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you.	Then Jesus picked up a cup {of wine}. He thanked God {for the wine}. Then, he handed {the cup of wine} to the apprentices. He said, "All of you must drink wine from this cup.

ULT a cup
UST a cup {of wine}
(ποτήριον)

Matthew uses the word cup to refer both the container and to the drink inside the container, a cup. In Jesus' culture, the drink would have been wine. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [a cup full of wine] or [some wine]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT saying
UST He said
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he instructed them]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

Matthew 26:28

ULT	UST
For this is my blood of thecovenant that is being poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.	This wine is my blood, which inaugurates the agreement {God is making with you}. My blood will flow from my body {when my enemies kill me}. That way, God will forgive the sins of many people.

ULT For
(γάρ)

The word For introduces an explanation of the cup of wine. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces an explanation, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [Here is what this cup of wine means:]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT this
UST This wine
(τοῦτο)

The pronoun this refers to the wine in the cup that Matthew mentioned in the previous verse. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to the wine more directly. Alternate translation: [the wine in this cup]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT this is my blood of the covenant
UST This wine is my blood, which inaugurates the agreement {God is making with you}
(τοῦτο & ἐστιν τὸ αἷμά μου τῆς διαθήκης)

Jesus identifies the cup of wine as his blood of the covenant. This figure of speech has been interpreted in a number of ways. The wine could somehow become Jesus' blood, or Jesus' blood could be present in some way when people drink the wine, or the wine could represent or memorialize Jesus' blood. Because of the variety of interpretations and the significance of this metaphor, you should preserve the metaphor if there is any way to do so. If you must express the metaphor in a different way, use a form that could fit with as many of the listed interpretations as possible. Alternate translation: [this functions as my blood of the covenant]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT my blood of the covenant
UST my blood, which inaugurates the agreement {God is making with you}
(τὸ αἷμά μου τῆς διαθήκης)

Jesus is using the possessive form to describe how his blood inaugurates or initiates the covenant. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [my blood that initiates the covenant]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT of the covenant
UST which inaugurates the agreement {God is making with you}
(τῆς διαθήκης)

Many ancient manuscripts read the covenant. The ULT follows that reading. Other ancient manuscripts read "the new covenant." If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

ULT that is being poured out for many
UST My blood will flow from my body {when my enemies kill me} … of many people (τὸ περὶ πολλῶν ἐκχυννόμενον)

Jesus means that he will die and his blood will be poured out of his body. He is using words that people would use to describe how animals would be offered to God: these animals would be killed and then their blood would be poured out on or near the altar. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [that, when I die, is being poured out for many] or [that is being shed for many]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT is being poured out
UST will flow from my body {when my enemies kill me}
(ἐκχυννόμενον)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who does the action, Jesus implies that he himself does it when he dies. Alternate translation: [I am pouring out]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT many
> UST of many people
> (πολλῶν)

Jesus is using the adjective many as a noun to mean many people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [many men and women]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

> ULT for the forgiveness of sins
> UST That way, God will forgive the sins
> (εἰς ἄφεσιν ἁμαρτιῶν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of forgiveness, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [to forgive sins]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
of the covenant	which inaugurates the agreement {God is making with you}
the forgiveness	God will forgive
of sins	the sins

Matthew 26:29

ULT	UST
But I say to you, I will certainly not drink from now from this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in the kingdom of my Father."	Here is what I want to tell you: From this moment on, I will not drink any more wine until the time when I drink it again with you when we participate in God my Father's kingdom."

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that Jesus wants to say. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next topic, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Next,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT I say to you, I will certainly not drink
UST Here is what I want to tell you … I will not drink
(λέγω & ὑμῖν, οὐ μὴ πίω)

Jesus uses the clause I say to you to emphasize what he is about to tell the disciples. Use a natural form in your language for emphasizing the truth and importance of a statement. Alternate translation: [I want you to know that I will certainly not drink]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT certainly not
UST not
(οὐ μὴ)

The words translated as certainly not are two negative words. In this construction, the second negative does not cancel the first to create a positive meaning. Instead, it gives greater emphasis to the negative. If your language can use two negatives that do not cancel one another to create a positive meaning, you could use a double negative here. If your language does not use two negatives in that way, you could translate with one strong negative, as the ULT does. Alternate translation: [by no means]

Support Reference: Double Negatives

> ULT from this fruit of the vine
> UST any more wine
> (ἐκ τούτου τοῦ γενήματος τῆς ἀμπέλου)

The phrase fruit of the vine refers to wine. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [alcohol made from grapes] or [wine]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT that day
> UST the time
> (τῆς ἡμέρας ἐκείνης)

Jesus uses the term day to refer to a particular moment in time. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [that hour] or [the moment]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT I drink it new
> UST I drink it again
> (αὐτὸ πίνω & καινὸν)

The word new could go with: (1) drink. In this case, Jesus means that he will drink the wine in a new way. Alternate translation: [I drink it in a new way] or [I drink it anew]; (2) the wine. In this case, Jesus means that he will drink new wine. Alternate translation: [I drink new wine]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT of my Father
> UST God my Father's
> (τοῦ Πατρός μου)

Father is an important title that describes the relationship between God the Father and Jesus the Son.

Support Reference: Translating Son and Father

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
fruit	any more wine
of the vine	any more wine
day	the time
kingdom of … Father	God … Father's kingdom

ULT	UST
of … Father	God … Father’s

Matthew 26:30

ULT	UST
And having sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.	After they sang a song praising God, Jesus and his apprentices walked to the Mount of Olives.

> ULT having sung a hymn
> UST After they sang a song praising God > (ὑμνήσαντες)

A hymn is a song or poem that is sung to praise God. The Jews would traditionally sing a psalm from Psalms 113–118 at the end of the Passover meal, so the hymn that Jesus and his disciples sang was likely one of these psalms. If your readers would not be familiar with a hymn, you could use the name for religious songs in your culture, if you have them, or you could use a general expression. Alternate translation: [having sung a psalm] or [having sung a song of praise to God]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Mount of Olives	Mount of Olives
of Olives	of Olives

Matthew 26:31

ULT	UST
Then Jesus says to them, "You all will be caused to stumble on me in this night, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'	After that, Jesus told them, "{God had Zechariah} write in the Scriptures, 'I will kill the one who is like a shepherd. Then, the people who are like sheep in his flock will flee.' So, tonight all of you will reject me!

ULT says
UST told
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT You all will be caused to stumble on me in this night, for it is written, I will strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered
UST { … God had Zechariah} write in the Scriptures, I will kill the one who is like a shepherd. Then, the people who are like sheep in his flock will flee.' So, tonight all of you will reject me
(πάντες ὑμεῖς σκανδαλισθήσεσθε ἐν ἐμοὶ ἐν τῇ νυκτὶ ταύτῃ; γέγραπται γάρ, πατάξω τὸν ποιμένα, καὶ διασκορπισθήσονται τὰ πρόβατα τῆς ποίμνης)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the last clauses gives the basis for the claim that the first clause makes. Alternate translation: [It is written, 'I will strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' Therefore, you all will be caused to stumble on me in this night]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT will be caused to stumble on me
UST will reject me
(σκανδαλισθήσεσθε ἐν ἐμοὶ)

Jesus speaks as if he were a lump or rock that his disciples could stumble on. He means that they will reject and desert him because of what will happen to him. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [will desert me because of what happens to me] or [will run away from me]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT will be caused to stumble
UST will reject
(σκανδαλισθήσεσθε)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [will stumble]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT it is written
UST {God had Zechariah} write in the Scriptures
(γέγραπται)

In Jesus' culture, it is written was a normal way to introduce a quotation from an important text, in this case, the book of Zechariah (see Zechariah 13:7). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase that indicates that Jesus is quoting from an important text. Alternate translation: [you can read in the Scriptures] or [it says in the book of Zechariah]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT it is written
UST {God had Zechariah} write in the Scriptures
(γέγραπται)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was God speaking through Zechariah. Alternate translation: [Zechariah wrote] or [God spoke through Zechariah]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT it is written, I will strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered
UST {… God had Zechariah} write in the Scriptures, I will kill the one who is like a shepherd. Then, the people who are like sheep in his flock will flee
(γέγραπται & πατάξω τὸν ποιμένα, καὶ διασκορπισθήσονται τὰ πρόβατα τῆς ποίμνης)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [it is written that God will strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

> ULT I will strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered
> UST I will kill the one who is like a shepherd. Then, the people who are like sheep in his flock will flee > (πατάξω τὸν ποιμένα, καὶ διασκορπισθήσονται τὰ πρόβατα τῆς ποίμνης)

The author of the quotation speaks as if the Messiah were a shepherd and as if his people were sheep of the flock. He means that the Messiah is the leader, and his people are like helpless sheep without him. Since Jesus is quoting these words from the Old Testament, if possible preserve the metaphor or express the idea in simile form. Alternate translation: [I will strike the person who is like a shepherd, and those who are like sheep of the flock will be scattered]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT I will strike
> UST I will kill
> (πατάξω)

In this quotation, God is the one speaking. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [I, God, will strike]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT I will strike
> UST I will kill
> (πατάξω)

The word strike means to hit someone hard enough to kill that person. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [I will fatally strike] or [I will strike down]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT the sheep of the flock will be scattered
> UST the people who are like sheep in his flock will flee
> (διασκορπισθήσονται τὰ πρόβατα τῆς ποίμνης)

If your language does not use this passive form, you can state this in active form. Alternate translation: [the sheep of the flock will scatter]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT the sheep of the flock
> UST the people who are like sheep in his flock
> (τὰ πρόβατα τῆς ποίμνης)

In your language, it might seem that this phrase expresses unnecessary extra information. If so, you could abbreviate it. Alternate translation: [the sheep]

Support Reference: When to Keep Information Implicit

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
shepherd	the one who is like a shepherd
sheep	the people who are like sheep
of the flock	in his flock

Matthew 26:32

ULT	UST
But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."	However, once God has made me alive again, I will go ahead of you to the region of Galilee {and meet you there}."

ULT I am raised up
UST God has made me alive again
(τὸ ἐγερθῆναί με)

The word raised refers to someone coming back to life after they died. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable word or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [I am restored to life]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT I am raised up
UST God has made me alive again
(τὸ ἐγερθῆναί με)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the action, Jesus could be implying that: (1) God will do it. Alternate translation: [God raises me up]; (2) Jesus himself will do it. Alternate translation: [I raise myself up]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT I will go before you into Galilee
UST I will go ahead of you to the region of Galilee {and meet you there}
(προάξω ὑμᾶς εἰς τὴν Γαλιλαίαν)

Jesus implies that once he is in Galilee, his disciples will meet him there. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [I will go ahead of you into Galilee, where you will be with me again]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT I will go before
> UST I will go ahead of > (προάξω)

In a context such as this, your language might say “come” instead of go. Alternate translation: [I will come ahead of]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Galilee	the region of Galilee {and meet you there}

Matthew 26:33

ULT	UST
But answering, Peter said to him, "If all will be caused to stumble on you, I never will be caused to stumble."	Peter replied, "Suppose that everyone else rejects you. Despite that, I will never reject you!"

ULT If all will be caused to stumble
UST Suppose that everyone else rejects (εἰ πάντες σκανδαλισθήσονται)

Peter is suggesting that this is a hypothetical condition, that all might be caused to stumble. Use a natural form in your language for introducing a situation that could happen. Alternate translation: [Were all to be caused to stumble]

Support Reference: Connect — Hypothetical Conditions

ULT will be caused to stumble on you … will be caused to stumble
UST rejects you. Despite that … will … reject you (σκανδαλισθήσονται ἐν σοί & σκανδαλισθήσομαι)

Peter speaks as if Jesus were a lump or rock that his disciples could stumble on. He means that they may reject and desert Jesus because of what will happen to him. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea 26:31. Alternate translation: [will desert you because of what will happen to you … will desert you] or [will run away from you … will run away]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT will be caused to stumble … will be caused to stumble
UST rejects … Despite that … will … reject you
(σκανδαλισθήσονται & σκανδαλισθήσομαι)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [will stumble … will stumble]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT you
> UST you
> (σοί)

Because Peter is talking to Jesus, the word you here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Peter	Peter

Matthew 26:34

ULT	UST
Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you that in this night, before a rooster crows, you will deny me three times."	Jesus replied, "Tonight before male chickens crow {at dawn}, you will say three times that you are not my apprentice! What I have said is true."

ULT to you … you will deny
UST you will say … that you are not my apprentice! What I have said is true (σοι & ἀπαρνήσῃ)

Since Jesus is talking to Peter, the word you throughout this verse is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT before a rooster crows
UST before male chickens crow {at dawn}
(πρὶν ἀλέκτορα φωνῆσαι)

Jesus describes what a certain animal does in the morning when the sun comes up to refer to that time of day. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [before a rooster crows in the early morning]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT before a rooster crows
UST before male chickens crow {at dawn}
(πρὶν ἀλέκτορα φωνῆσαι)

A rooster is a type of poultry, a male that calls out loudly around the time the sun comes up. If your readers would not be familiar with this bird, you could use the name of a bird in your area that calls out or sings just before dawn, or you could use a general expression. Alternate translation: [before the birds begin to sing in the morning]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT you will deny me three times
UST you will say three times that you are not my apprentice
(τρὶς ἀπαρνήσῃ με)

Jesus implies that Peter will deny that he knows Jesus and is his disciple. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [you will deny three times that you know me] or [you will deny three times that you are my disciple]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
Truly	What I have said is true

Matthew 26:35

ULT	UST
Peter says to him, "Even if it were necessary for me to die with you, I will certainly not deny you." All the disciples also said likewise.	Peter told him, "I will always say that I am your apprentice, even if I die with you because of that!" The rest of the apprentices said the same thing.

ULT says
UST told
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT Even if it were necessary for me to die with you
UST even if I die with you because of that (κἂν δέῃ με σὺν σοὶ ἀποθανεῖν)

Peter is suggesting that this is a hypothetical condition, that it might be necessary to die with Jesus. Use a natural form in your language for introducing a situation that could happen. Alternate translation: [Even were it necessary for me to die with you]

Support Reference: Connect — Hypothetical Conditions

ULT Even if it were necessary for me to die with you
UST even if I die with you because of that
(κἂν δέῃ με σὺν σοὶ ἀποθανεῖν)

Peter means that if it were necessary for him to die if he remained faithful to Jesus, he would rather do that than deny him. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Even if it were necessary for me, to keep from denying you, to die with you] or [Even if I would have to die with you if I stayed with you]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT you … you
> UST I will … say that I am your apprentice … you > (σοὶ & σε)

Since Peter is talking to Jesus, the word you throughout this verse is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Peter	Peter
disciples	The rest of the apprentices

Matthew 26:36

ULT	UST
Then Jesus comes with them to a place called Gethsemane and says to the disciples, "Sit here while, having gone away there, I pray."	After that, Jesus and his apprentices walked to a place whose name was Gethsemane. He told the apprentices, "Stay here. I will walk over there and pray {to God}."

ULT comes … says
UST walked … He told
(ἔρχεται & λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [came … said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT comes
UST walked
(ἔρχεται)

In a context such as this, your language might say "goes" instead of comes. Alternate translation: [goes]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT called Gethsemane
UST whose name was Gethsemane
(λεγόμενον Γεθσημανεὶ)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [that people call Gethsemane]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
called	whose name was
Gethsemane	Gethsemane
to the disciples	the apprentices

ULT	UST
I pray	and pray {to God}

Matthew 26:37

ULT	UST
And having taken along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be grieved and greatly troubled.	Jesus had Peter and Zebedee's two sons{, James and John}, go with him. Then, Jesus started to become very sad and upset.

ULT having taken along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be grieved and greatly troubled
UST Jesus had Peter and Zebedee's two sons{, James and John}, go with him. Then, Jesus started to become very sad and upset
(παραλαβὼν τὸν Πέτρον καὶ τοὺς δύο υἱοὺς Ζεβεδαίου, ἤρξατο λυπεῖσθαι καὶ ἀδημονεῖν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was something that Jesus was thinking about. Alternate translation: [he took along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee. Now something began to grieve and greatly trouble Jesus] or [as he took along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, what he was thinking began to grieve and greatly trouble him]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the two sons of Zebedee
UST Zebedee's two sons{, James and John}
(τοὺς δύο υἱοὺς Ζεβεδαίου)

The two sons of Zebedee were James and John (see 4:21). If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to them by name. Alternate translation: [James and John, the two sons of Zebedee]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT to be grieved and greatly troubled
UST to become very sad and upset
(λυπεῖσθαι καὶ ἀδημονεῖν)

The terms grieved and greatly troubled mean similar things. Matthew is using the two terms together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single phrase. Alternate translation: [to be extremely grieved] or [to be very troubled]

Support Reference: Doublet

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Peter	Peter
of Zebedee	Zebedee’s

Matthew 26:38

ULT	UST
Then he says to them, "My soul is very grieved —unto death. Remain here and be alert with me."	He told those three apprentices, "I am so sad that I feel like I am dying. Stay here and stay awake with me!"

ULT he says
UST He told
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you can use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [he said]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT My soul is very grieved
UST I am so sad
(περίλυπός ἐστιν ἡ ψυχή μου)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was something that Jesus was thinking about. Alternate translation: [Something grieves my soul very much] or [What I am thinking grieves my soul very much]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT My soul is
UST I am
(ἐστιν ἡ ψυχή μου)

Here, soul refers to the whole person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [I am very grieved]

Support Reference: Synecdoche

> ULT unto death
> UST that I feel like I am dying
> (ἕως θανάτου)

Jesus is using the phrase to death to describe the extent of his grief. He uses this overstatement in order to show how very grieved he is. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language that expresses great sorrow, or you could express the idea in simile form. Alternate translation: [so much so that I cannot stand it much longer] or [as if I were about to die]

Support Reference: Hyperbole

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
soul	I
be alert	stay awake

Matthew 26:39

ULT	UST
And having gone a little farther, he fell on his face, praying and saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me. Yet, not as I will, but as you."	After saying that, Jesus walked a little further. Then, he kneeled down to pray. He said, "God my Father, if there is any way to do so, please prevent me from suffering terribly. However, please do what you want to do, not what I want you to do."

ULT having gone a little farther
UST Jesus walked a little further (προσελθὼν μικρὸν)

In a context such as this, your language might say "come" instead of gone. Alternate translation: [having come a little farther]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT he fell on his face
UST Then, he kneeled down
(ἔπεσεν ἐπὶ πρόσωπον αὐτοῦ)

In Matthew's culture, falling on one's face refers to kneeling down and putting one's face close to the ground. This was a position used to show respect and reverence. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable expression for a physical position used to show respect or worship, or you could express the idea plainly. Alternate translation: [he bowed down] or [he prostrated himself to show respect]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

ULT praying and saying
UST to pray. He said
(προσευχόμενος καὶ λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he asked God]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

> ULT Father
> UST God … Father
> (Πάτερ)

Father is an important title that describes the relationship between God the Father and Jesus the Son.

Support Reference: Translating Son and Father

> ULT let this cup pass away from me
> UST please prevent me from suffering terribly
> (παρελθέτω ἀπ᾽ ἐμοῦ τὸ ποτήριον τοῦτο)

If your language does not use the third-person imperative in this way, you could state this in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [cause this cup to pass away from me] or [allow this cup to pass away from me]

Support Reference: Third-Person Imperatives

> ULT this cup
> UST from suffering terribly
> (τὸ ποτήριον τοῦτο)

Jesus is referring to the sufferings he will soon experience as if they were a cup of bitter-tasting liquid that he would have to drink. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use simile form or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [this suffering that is like a cup full of poison] or [this suffering]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT not as I will, but as you
> UST please do what you want to do, not what I want you to do
> (οὐχ ὡς ἐγὼ θέλω, ἀλλ᾽ ὡς σύ)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that a sentence would need in many languages to be complete. If it would be clearer in your language, you could supply these words from the context. Alternate translation: [do not do as I will, but do as you will]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT you
UST please do what you want to do
(σύ)

Since Jesus is speaking to his Father, the word you here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
he fell	Then, he kneeled down
praying	to pray
Father	God … Father

Matthew 26:40

ULT	UST
And he comes to the disciples and finds them sleeping, and he says to Peter, "So, were you not able to be alert with me for one hour?	Then he returned to the three apprentices. He discovered that they were asleep. He {woke them up} and rebuked Peter, "It disappoints me that you {men} could not stay awake with me for just a short time!

ULT he comes … finds … he says
UST he returned … He discovered … He {woke them up} and rebuked
(ἔρχεται & εὑρίσκει & λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you can use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [he came … found … he said]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT the disciples
UST the three apprentices
(τοὺς μαθητὰς)

Here, the disciples refers specifically to Peter, James, and John. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Peter, James, and John]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT he says to Peter
UST He {woke them up} and rebuked Peter (λέγει τῷ Πέτρῳ)

Matthew implies that Jesus woke up Peter before speaking to him. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [he wakes up Peter to say to him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT So, were you not able to be alert with me for one hour
UST It disappoints me that you {men} could not stay awake with me for just a short time
(οὕτως οὐκ ἰσχύσατε μίαν ὥραν γρηγορῆσαι μετ' ἐμοῦ)

Jesus is using the question form to rebuke Peter, James, and John. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [So, I see that you were not able to be alert with me for one hour.] or [You surely should have been able to be alert with me for one hour!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT So, were you not able
UST It disappoints me that you {men} could not (οὕτως οὐκ ἰσχύσατε)

Here, the word So indicates that Jesus question is based on what he found when he returned to the disciples. Given that the disciples were asleep, the word So means that the answer to this question is already obvious. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a rhetorical question based on something that the person has observed. Alternate translation: [Given what I just found, should I conclude that were you not able] or [I do not really need to ask, but were you not able]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT were you not able
UST It disappoints me that you {men} could not (οὐκ ἰσχύσατε)

Although Jesus is speaking directly to Peter, you here is plural and refers to Peter, James, and John. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state this explicitly. Alternate translation: [were the three of you not able]

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
disciples	three apprentices
to Peter	Peter
to be alert	stay awake
for … hour	for just a short time

Matthew 26:41

ULT	UST
Be alert and pray so that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed {is} willing, but the flesh {is} weak."	You want to do what I say, but you are not strong enough. Stay awake and pray! That way, nothing can convince you to sin."

ULT you do not enter into temptation
UST nothing can convince you to sin
(μὴ εἰσέλθητε εἰς πειρασμόν)

Jesus speaks as if temptation were a location that someone could enter into. He is referring to experiencing temptation. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable figure of speech or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [you do not experience temptation] or [you are kept away from temptation]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT you do not enter into temptation
UST nothing can convince you to sin
(μὴ εἰσέλθητε εἰς πειρασμόν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of temptation, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [you are not tempted]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT The spirit indeed {is} willing, but the flesh {is} weak
UST You want to do what I say, but you are not strong enough
(τὸ μὲν πνεῦμα πρόθυμον, ἡ δὲ σὰρξ ἀσθενής)

The words spirit and flesh represent people's spirits and flesh in general, not one particular spirit and flesh. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [People's spirits indeed are willing, but their flesh is weak]

Support Reference: Generic Noun Phrases

ULT The spirit indeed {is} willing
UST You want to do what I say
(τὸ μὲν πνεῦμα πρόθυμον)

Here, spirit represents a person's desires and will. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [The will indeed wants to do it] or [Inside, you indeed are willing]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT {is} willing
UST You want to do what I say
(πρόθυμον)

Jesus implies that the spirit is willing to do what is right, and more specifically what Jesus has asked. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [is willing to do what is right] or [is willing to do what I ask]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the flesh {is} weak
UST you are not strong enough
(ἡ & σὰρξ ἀσθενής)

Here, flesh represents a person's body and actions. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the body is weak] or [when you act, you are weak]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Be alert	Stay awake
pray	pray
temptation	nothing can convince you to sin
spirit	You want to do what I say

Matthew 26:42

ULT	UST
Again, having gone away a second time, he prayed, saying, "My Father, if this is not able to pass away unless I drink it, let your will be done."	Then Jesus walked a short distance away a second time. He prayed, "God my Father, there may be no way to prevent me from suffering terribly. So, please do what you want to do!"

ULT having gone away
UST Then Jesus walked a short distance away
(ἀπελθὼν)

In a context such as this, your language might say "come" instead of gone. Alternate translation: [having come away]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT a second time
UST a second time
(ἐκ δευτέρου)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [for time two]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

ULT saying
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT My Father
UST God my Father
(Πάτερ μου)

Father is an important title that describes the relationship between God the Father and Jesus the Son.

Support Reference: Translating Son and Father

ULT this is not able to pass away unless I drink it
UST there may be no way to prevent me from suffering terribly
(οὐ δύναται τοῦτο παρελθεῖν, ἐὰν μὴ αὐτὸ πίω)

Jesus continues to refer to the sufferings he will soon experience as if they were a cup of bitter-tasting liquid that he would have to drink. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use simile form or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 26:39. Alternate translation: [this suffering that is like a cup full of poison is not able to pass away unless I drink from it] or [this suffering is not able to pass away unless I experience it]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT this … it
UST to prevent me from suffering terribly
(τοῦτο & αὐτὸ)

The pronouns this and it refer to the cup that Jesus already mentioned in 26:39. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to the cup more directly. Alternate translation: [this cup … from it]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT let your will be done
UST So, please do what you want to do
(γενηθήτω τὸ θέλημά σου)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the action, it is clear from the context that it will be God. Alternate translation: [let your will happen] or [may you do your will]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT let your will be done
UST So, please do what you want to do
(γενηθήτω τὸ θέλημά σου)

If your language does not use the third-person imperative in this way, you could state this in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [do your will] or [cause your will to be done]

Support Reference: Third-Person Imperatives

> ULT your will
> UST what you want to do
> (τὸ θέλημά σου)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of will, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [what you will]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

> ULT your
> UST what you want to do
> (σου)

Since Jesus is talking to his Father, the word your here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
he prayed	He prayed
your will	what you want to do

Matthew 26:43

ULT	UST
And having come again, he found them sleeping, for their eyes were weighed down.	Then he returned a second time {to the three apprentices}. He discovered that they, because they were so sleepy, had fallen asleep again.

ULT And having come again, he found them sleeping, for their eyes were weighed down
UST Then he returned a second time {to the three apprentices}. He discovered that they, because they were so sleepy, had fallen asleep again (καὶ ἐλθὼν πάλιν, εὗρεν αὐτοὺς καθεύδοντας, ἦσαν γὰρ αὐτῶν οἱ ὀφθαλμοὶ βεβαρημένοι)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the third clause gives the reason for the result that the second clause describes. Alternate translation: [And since their eyes were weighed down, when he came again, he found them sleeping]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT having come
UST he returned … to the three apprentices
(ἐλθὼν)

In a context such as this, your language might say “gone” instead of come. Alternate translation: [having gone]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT their eyes were weighed down
UST they were so sleepy
(ἦσαν & αὐτῶν οἱ ὀφθαλμοὶ βεβαρημένοι)

The clause their eyes were weighed down indicates that the three disciples were very tired and sleepy. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [they were exhausted] or [they were very tired]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT their eyes were weighed down
> UST they were so sleepy
> (ἦσαν & αὐτῶν οἱ ὀφθαλμοὶ βεβαρημένοι)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [their eyes were heavy] or [sleepiness weighed their eyes down]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

Matthew 26:44

ULT	UST
And having left them again, having gone away, he prayed a third time, having said the same word again.	So, Jesus walked a short distance away a third time. He prayed again what he had prayed before.

ULT having gone away
UST Jesus walked a short distance away
(ἀπελθὼν)

In a context such as this, your language might say “come” instead of gone. Alternate translation: [having come away]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT a third time
UST again
(ἐκ τρίτου)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you can use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [for time three]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

ULT the same word
UST what he had prayed before
(τὸν αὐτὸν λόγον)

Matthew is using the term word to mean something spoken using words. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the same things] or [what he said previously]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
he prayed	He prayed

Matthew 26:45

ULT	UST
Then he comes to the disciples and says to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour has come near, and the Son of Man is handed over into the hands of sinners.	Then he returned to the three apprentices. He {woke them up and} rebuked them, "It disappoints me that you continue to sleep! The time {when I will suffer} is about to begin! Someone is about to help sinful people arrest me, the Son of Man.

ULT he comes … says
UST he returned … He {woke them up and} rebuked
(ἔρχεται & λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you can use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [he came … said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT Are you still sleeping and resting
UST It disappoints me that you continue to sleep
(καθεύδετε τὸ λοιπὸν καὶ ἀναπαύεσθε)

This sentence could be: (1) a rhetorical question that Jesus uses to rebuke the disciples. In this case, Jesus is disappointed that the disciples continue to sleep. Alternate translation: [You should not still be sleeping and resting!]; (2) a command to continue to sleep and rest. Jesus is using irony, that is, he is saying the opposite of what he means. Alternate translation: [You might as well sleep and rest now]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT Are you still sleeping and resting
UST It disappoints me that you continue to sleep
(καθεύδετε τὸ λοιπὸν καὶ ἀναπαύεσθε)

Jesus is using the question form to rebuke Peter, James, and John. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [It is sad that you are still sleeping and resting.] or [You should not still be sleeping and resting!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

> ULT Are you still sleeping and resting
> UST It disappoints me that you continue to sleep
> (καθεύδετε τὸ λοιπὸν καὶ ἀναπαύεσθε)

The terms sleeping and resting mean similar things. Jesus is using the two terms together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single phrase. Alternate translation: [Are you still taking your rest] or [Are you still sleeping soundly]

Support Reference: Doublet

> ULT Behold
> (ἰδοὺ)

The word Behold draws the attention of the disciples and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express Behold with a word or phrase that asks someone to listen, or you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [Listen] or [Take note:]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT the hour
> UST The time {when I will suffer}
> (ἡ ὥρα)

The word hour refers to a specific moment in time. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the moment]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT the hour
> UST The time {when I will suffer}
> (ἡ ὥρα)

Jesus implies that the hour is the time when he will suffer. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the hour of my suffering]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT the Son of Man is handed over
> UST Someone is about to help … arrest me, the Son of Man
> (ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου παραδίδοται)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you could state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [someone hands over the Son of Man]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT the Son of Man is handed over
> UST Someone is about to help … arrest me, the Son of Man
> (ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου παραδίδοται)

Jesus speaks about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [I, the Son of Man, am handed over]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

> ULT is handed over
> UST Someone is about to help … arrest
> (παραδίδοται)

Jesus uses the present tense to describe a future event that he knows will surely happen. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the future tense and indicate the certainty in another way. Alternate translation: [will certainly be handed over]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

> ULT into the hands
> UST sinful people
> (εἰς χεῖρας)

The term hands represents power and control. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. See how expressed the similar idea in 17:22. Alternate translation: [into the power] or [into the control]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
disciples	the three apprentices
hour	The time {when I will suffer}
Son of Man	me, the Son of Man
is handed over	Someone is about to help … arrest

ULT	UST
of sinners	sinful people

Matthew 26:46

ULT	UST
Get up, let us go. Behold, the one handing me over has come near.”	Stand up! We are going to leave {this place}. The person who is helping {my enemies} arrest me has arrived!”

ULT Behold
(ἰδοὺ)

The word Behold draws the attention of the disciples and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express Behold with a word or phrase that asks someone to listen, or you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [Listen] or [Pay attention:]

Support Reference: Metaphor

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
handing … over	who is helping {my enemies} arrest

Matthew 26:47

ULT	UST
And he still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the Twelve, came, and with him a large crowd with swords and clubs from the chief priests and elders of the people.	While Jesus was still talking {to the three apprentices}, Judas arrived. He was one of the 12 men whom Jesus had chosen to represent him. {He brought} with him a large group of people carrying swords and clubs. The ruling priests and the Jewish leaders had sent them {to arrest Jesus}.

ULT behold
(ἰδοὺ)

The word behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to listen, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [observe] or [look]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT of the Twelve
UST of the 12 men whom Jesus had chosen to represent him
(τῶν δώδεκα)

Matthew is using the adjective Twelve as a noun to refer to Jesus' closest disciples. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. See how you expressed the idea in 26:14. Alternate translation: [of the 12 apostles] or [of the 12 men whom Jesus had chosen to be apostles]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT and with him a large crowd
UST {He brought} with him a large group of people
(καὶ μετ' αὐτοῦ ὄχλος πολὺς)

Matthew is leaving out some of the words that a sentence would need in many languages to be complete. If it would be clearer in your language, you could supply these words from earlier in the sentence. Alternate translation: [and with him came a large crowd]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT clubs
UST clubs
(ξύλων)

A “club” is a hard piece of wood that a person uses to hit people. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of weapon, you could use the name of something similar in your area, or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [weapons for hitting people]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Judas	Judas
of the Twelve	of the 12 men whom Jesus had chosen to represent him
swords	swords
chief priests	ruling priests
elders	the … leaders

Matthew 26:48

ULT	UST
Now the one handing him over gave them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss is he. Seize him."	Previously, Judas, who was helping {Jesus' enemies} arrest him, told the group of people how they would know which man was Jesus. He instructed them, "The man you should arrest is the one whom I will greet affectionately."

ULT Now
UST Previously
(δὲ)

Matthew uses the word Now to introduce background information that will help readers understand what happens next. It does not introduce another event in the story. Use a natural form in your language for introducing background information. Alternate translation: [At an earlier time,] or [Earlier,]

Support Reference: Background Information

ULT a sign
UST how they would know which man was Jesus
(σημεῖον)

Matthew is referring to an action by which one person communicates to others. More specifically, Judas arranged with the crowd an action that would communicate to them which person was Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [a signal to point out Jesus] or [a cue that would indicate whom to seize]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT saying, "Whomever I kiss is he. Seize him
UST He instructed them, "The man you should arrest is the one whom I will greet affectionately (λέγων, ὃν ἂν φιλήσω, αὐτός ἐστιν; κρατήσατε αὐτόν)

It may be more natural in your language to have an indirect quotation here. Alternate translation: [saying that whomever he kissed was he, and that they should seize him]

Support Reference: Direct and Indirect Quotations

ULT saying
UST He instructed them
(λέγων)

If you keep the direct quotation, consider natural ways of introducing it in your language. Alternate translation: [and he said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT Whomever I kiss
UST whom I will greet affectionately
(ὃν ἂν φιλήσω)

In Jesus' culture, close friends would greet each other with a kiss. In some cultures, a kiss as a greeting is appropriate, but in other cultures it is not appropriate. If it would be helpful in your language, you could explain what the kiss means, or you could refer to how close friends would greet each other in your culture. Alternate translation: [Whomever I greet with a kiss] or [Whomever I hug]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

ULT he
UST the one
(αὐτός)

Alternate translation: [the one you are seeking]

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
handing … over	Judas, who was helping {Jesus' enemies} arrest
a sign	how they would know which man was Jesus
I kiss	I will greet affectionately
Seize	you should arrest

Matthew 26:49

ULT	UST
And immediately, having approached Jesus, he said, "Rejoice, Rabbi!" and he kissed him.	As soon as he arrived, Judas went to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Teacher!" Then he greeted Jesus affectionately.

ULT Rejoice
UST Greetings
(χαῖρε)

In Jesus' culture, people commonly greeted each other with the word Rejoice. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable word or phrase that people use to greet each other. Alternate translation: [Hello]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT Rejoice
UST Greetings
(χαῖρε)

Since Judas is speaking to Jesus, the command to Rejoice is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT he kissed him
UST he greeted Jesus affectionately
(κατεφίλησεν αὐτόν)

In Jesus' culture, close friends would greet each other with a kiss. See how you expressed the idea in 26:48. Alternate translation: [he greeted him with a kiss] or [he hugged him]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
Rabbi	Teacher
he kissed	he greeted … affectionately

Matthew 26:50

ULT	UST
But Jesus said to him, "Friend, for what are you present?" Then, having approached, they laid hands on Jesus and seized him.	Jesus told him, "My friend, I know why you are really here." After that, the large group of people arrested Jesus.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT for what are you present
UST I know why you are really here
(ἐφ' ὃ πάρει)

Jesus is using the question form to rebuke Judas. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [you are present to do something wrong] or [you should not have come here to do this!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT are you present
UST you are really here
(πάρει)

Since Jesus is talking to Judas, the word you here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

> ULT they laid hands on Jesus and seized him
> UST the large group of people arrested Jesus
> (ἐπέβαλον τὰς χεῖρας ἐπὶ τὸν Ἰησοῦν, καὶ ἐκράτησαν αὐτόν)

The clauses they laid hands on Jesus and seized him mean similar things. Matthew is using the two clauses together for emphasis. If it would be clearer for your readers, you could express the emphasis with a single clause. Alternate translation: [they seized Jesus] or [they took hold of Jesus to arrest him]

Support Reference: Parallelism

> ULT they laid hands on
> UST the large group of people arrested Jesus
> (ἐπέβαλον τὰς χεῖρας ἐπὶ)

The clause, they laid hands on Jesus, means that they grabbed and restrained Jesus. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [they took hold of] or [they grabbed]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
Jesus	the large group of people arrested Jesus
seized	the large group of people arrested Jesus

Matthew 26:51

ULT	UST
And behold, one of the ones with Jesus, having stretched out his hand, drew his sword, and having struck the servant of the high priest, cut off his ear.	Then one of the men who were with Jesus pulled his sword {out of its sheath}! He attacked a man who served the ruling priest, but he {only} cut off that man's ear.

ULT behold
(ἰδοὺ)

The word behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to listen, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [look] or [suddenly]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT one of the ones with Jesus, having stretched out his hand, drew his sword
UST one of the men who were with Jesus pulled his sword {out of its sheath}
(εἷς τῶν μετὰ Ἰησοῦ, ἐκτείνας τὴν χεῖρα, ἀπέσπασεν τὴν μάχαιραν αὐτοῦ)

The expression having stretched out his hand contains extra information that might be unnatural to express in some languages. If this is true of your language, you could shorten the expression. Alternate translation: [one of the ones with Jesus drew his sword]

Support Reference: Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

ULT one of the ones with Jesus
UST one of the men who were with Jesus
(εἷς τῶν μετὰ Ἰησοῦ)

Matthew uses this phrase to bring one of the characters in the story into the center of the action, but he does not identify the person by name. John indicates in his Gospel that it was Peter, but since Matthew does not name him here, it would not be appropriate to use his name in your translation. If your language has its own way of introducing new participants, you could use it here in your translation. Alternate translation: [one of the disciples who was with Jesus came forward and]

Support Reference: Introduction of New and Old Participants

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus

ULT	UST
sword	sword
servant	a man who served
of the high priest	the ruling priest

Matthew 26:52

ULT	UST
Then Jesus says to him, "Return your sword to its place, for all the ones having taken a sword will perish by a sword.	After that, Jesus told him, "Put your sword back in its sheath! {I say that} because someone will kill with a sword every person who tries to kill another person with a sword.

ULT says
UST told
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [said]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT Return your sword to its place, for all the ones having taken a sword will perish by a sword
UST Put your sword back in its sheath! {I say that} because someone will kill with a sword every person who tries to kill another person with a sword (ἀπόστρεψον τὴν μάχαιράν σου εἰς τὸν τόπον αὐτῆς; πάντες γὰρ οἱ λαβόντες μάχαιραν, ἐν μαχαίρῃ ἀπολοῦνται)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these phrases, since the second phrase gives the reason for the result that the first phrase describes. Alternate translation: [All the ones having taken a sword will perish by a sword, so return your sword to its place]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT Return your
UST Put your … back
(ἀπόστρεψον & σου)

Since Jesus is talking to the man who drew his sword, the word your and the command Return are singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

> ULT its place
> UST its sheath
> (τὸν τόπον αὐτῆς)

The place for the sword is where a person would normally store or keep a sword while he or she was not using it. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use comparable a word or phrase that refers to where a person keeps a sword on them, or you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [your belt] or [where you keep it]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT the ones having taken a sword
> UST with a sword … who tries to kill another person
> (οἱ λαβόντες μάχαιραν)

Jesus refers to those who fight and kill others as the ones having taken a sword. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [the ones using swords] or [the ones having taken a sword to kill others]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT will perish by a sword
> UST someone will kill … with a sword
> (ἐν μαχαίρῃ ἀπολοῦνται)

Jesus implies that these people will perish by someone killing them with a sword. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [will be killed by someone else using a sword]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
sword	sword
a sword	with a sword … who tries to kill another person will perish	someone will kill
a sword	a sword

Matthew 26:53

ULT	UST
Or do you think that I am not able to beg my Father, and he will provide me now with more than 12 legions of angels?	You should realize that I could ask God my Father to protect me, and he would immediately send more than 12 armies of angels to do so!

> ULT Or do you think that I am not able to beg my Father, and he will provide me now with more than 12 legions of angels
> UST You should realize that I could ask God my Father to protect me, and he would immediately send more than 12 armies of angels to do so > (ἢ δοκεῖς ὅτι οὐ δύναμαι παρακαλέσαι τὸν Πατέρα μου, καὶ παραστήσει μοι ἄρτι πλείω δώδεκα λεγιῶνας ἀγγέλων)

Jesus is using the question form to teach the disciple who drew the sword. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [Indeed, I am able to beg my Father, and he will provide me now with more than 12 legions of angels] or [Surely you know that I am able to beg my Father, and he will provide me now with more than 12 legions of angels!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

> ULT Or
> (ἢ)

The word Or introduces a contrasting alternative to "taking a sword" (see 26:52). Jesus provides this alternative to show further that "taking a sword" is wrong. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces an alternative, or you could leave Or untranslated. Alternate translation: [Indeed,] or [As a matter of fact,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

> ULT do you think
> UST You should realize > (δοκεῖς)

The pronoun you is singular because Jesus is speaking to the man who drew his sword.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT Father
UST God … Father
(τὸν Πατέρα)

Father is an important title that describes the relationship between God the Father and Jesus the Son.

Support Reference: Translating Son and Father

ULT more than 12 legions of angels
UST more than 12 armies of angels
(πλείω δώδεκα λεγιῶνας ἀγγέλων)

The word legions is a military term. Each legion is a group of about 6,000 soldiers. Jesus means that God could send a large number of angels and easily stop those who are arresting Jesus. The exact number of angels is not important. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable military term in your language or a more general term. Alternate translation: [more than 12 regiments of angels] or [more than 12 large groups of angels]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Father	God … Father
of angels	of angels

Matthew 26:54

ULT	UST
How then would the scriptures be fulfilled, that it is necessary to happen in this way?”	{However, if I did that,} then what people wrote in the Scriptures would not come true. They wrote that what is happening to me has to occur.”

ULT How then would the scriptures be fulfilled, that it is necessary to happen in this way
UST {However, if I did that,} then what people wrote in the Scriptures would not come true. They wrote that what is happening to me has to occur
(πῶς οὖν πληρωθῶσιν αἱ Γραφαὶ, ὅτι οὕτως δεῖ γενέσθαι)

Jesus is using the question form to teach his disciple about why he is acting as he does. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [Then the scriptures would not be fulfilled, that it is necessary to happen in this way.] or [Then the scriptures would certainly not be fulfilled, that it is necessary to happen in this way!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT How then
UST {However, if I did that,} then … not (πῶς οὖν)

The word then introduces what the result would be if Jesus did what he said he could do in the previous verse. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces this kind of result. Alternate translation: [Were I to do that, then how]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT would the scriptures be fulfilled
UST what people wrote in the Scriptures would … come true
(πληρωθῶσιν αἱ Γραφαὶ)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [would I fulfill the scriptures]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT that it is necessary to happen in this way
> UST They wrote that what is happening to me has to occur
> (ὅτι οὕτως δεῖ γενέσθαι)

Jesus is leaving out some of the words that a sentence would need in many languages to be complete. If it would be helpful in your language, you could supply these words from the context. Alternate translation: [which indicate that it is necessary for things to happen in this way]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
scriptures	what people wrote in the Scriptures would … be fulfilled	would … come true

Matthew 26:55

ULT	UST
At that hour Jesus said to the crowds, "As against a robber have you come out with swords and clubs to seize me? Every day I was sitting in the temple teaching, and you did not seize me.	At that time, Jesus told the groups of people {who were arresting him}, "You did not need to treat me like a dangerous bandit by arming yourselves with swords and clubs to arrest me. Each day I was peacefully instructing people in the temple area. You did not arrest me then!

ULT At that hour
UST At that time
(ἐν ἐκείνῃ τῇ ὥρᾳ)

The word hour refers to a specific moment in time. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [At that moment] or [Then]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT As against a robber have you come out with swords and clubs to seize me
UST You did not need to treat me like a dangerous bandit by arming yourselves with swords and clubs to arrest me
(ὡς ἐπὶ λῃστὴν ἐξήλθατε μετὰ μαχαιρῶν καὶ ξύλων συνλαβεῖν με)

Jesus is using the question form to rebuke the crowds for how they have acted. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [It was not necessary for you to come out as against a robber, bringing swords and clubs to seize me.] or [There was no reason for you to come out with swords and clubs to seize me, as if I were a robber!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT As against a robber
UST You did not need to treat me like a dangerous bandit
(ὡς ἐπὶ λῃστὴν)

Jesus is saying that the crowds are acting as though he were a dangerous robber, because they have come to arrest him with many weapons. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state that explicitly. Alternate translation: [As you arm yourselves to seize a robber,] or [As if I were a bandit who needed to be subdued with force]

Support Reference: Simile

ULT have you come out
UST by arming yourselves
(ἐξήλθατε)

In a context such as this, your language might say “gone” instead of come. Alternate translation: [have you gone out]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT clubs
UST clubs
(ξύλων)

See how you translated clubs in 26:47. Alternate translation: [weapons for hitting people]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT I was sitting in the temple teaching
UST I was peacefully instructing people in the temple area
(ἐν τῷ ἱερῷ, ἐκαθεζόμην διδάσκων)

In Jesus’ culture, teachers usually sat down when they were going to teach. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make the connection between sitting and teaching more explicit. Alternate translation: [I was sitting in the temple to teach] or [I was sitting as a teacher in the temple, instructing people]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

ULT the temple
UST the temple area
(τῷ ἱερῷ)

Matthew means that Jesus entered into the temple area. He does not mean that Jesus went into the most sacred parts of the temple building. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the temple courtyard]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
hour	At that time
Jesus	Jesus
a robber	a dangerous bandit
swords	swords
to seize	to arrest

ULT	UST
day	Each day
temple	temple area
you did … seize	You did … arrest … then

Matthew 26:56

ULT	UST
But all this has happened so that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples, having left him, fled.	However, as all these things have happened, what the prophets wrote has come true." After that, all of Jesus' apprentices deserted him and ran away.

ULT all this has happened
UST all these things have happened
(τοῦτο & ὅλον γέγονεν)

The pronoun this refers to the events that have just occurred, particularly the crowd arresting Jesus once Judas handed him over. If this is not clear for your readers, you could refer to these events more directly. Alternate translation: [all these events have happened] or [what just occurred has happened]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT so that
UST as (ἵνα)

The phrase so that could introduce: (1) a result from what has happened. Alternate translation: [with the result that]; (2) a purpose for what has happened. Alternate translation: [in order that]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled
UST what the prophets wrote has come true
(πληρωθῶσιν αἱ Γραφαὶ τῶν προφητῶν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [it might fulfill the writings of the prophets]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT the writings of the prophets
> UST what the prophets wrote
> (αἱ Γραφαὶ τῶν προφητῶν)

The phrase the writings of the prophets refers to those parts of the Old Testament Scriptures in which the prophets wrote about what would happen to the Messiah. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [what the prophets wrote about the Messiah in the Scriptures]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
writings	what … wrote
of the prophets	the prophets
might be fulfilled	has come true
disciples	Jesus' apprentices
having left	deserted

Matthew 26:57

ULT	UST
Now the ones having seized Jesus led {him} away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.	The people who had arrested Jesus took him to {the house where} Caiaphas, the ruling priest{, lived}. The teachers of the Jewish law and the Jewish leaders had {already} assembled there.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT to Caiaphas
UST to {the house where} Caiaphas … lived
(πρὸς Καϊάφαν)

Here, Caiaphas represents the house where Caiaphas lived. This is clear from the word where in this verse, which refers to a place, not a person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [to the house of Caiaphas]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT were gathered together
UST had {already} assembled
(συνήχθησαν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [gathered] or [came together]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having seized	had arrested
Jesus	Jesus
Caiaphas	{the house where} Caiaphas … lived
high priest	ruling priest

ULT	UST
scribes	teachers of the Jewish law
elders	Jewish leaders
were gathered together	had {already} assembled

Matthew 26:58

ULT	UST
But Peter was following him from a distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest. And having entered inside, he was sitting down with the officers to see the end.	Peter followed Jesus, but he stayed a safe distance away. He went into the area just outside {the house where} the ruling priest {lived}. He sat there with the servants. That way, he could see what was going to happen.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces something that was happening at the same time as what Matthew narrated in the previous verse (Jesus being led to the house of Caiaphas). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a simultaneous action, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Meanwhile,] or [While that was happening,]

Support Reference: Connect — Simultaneous Time Relationship

ULT But Peter was following him from a distance
UST Peter followed Jesus, but he stayed a safe distance away
(ὁ δὲ Πέτρος ἠκολούθει αὐτῷ ἀπὸ μακρόθεν)

Matthew implies that Peter followed from a distance because he did not want anyone to see him and arrest him too. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [But Peter, because he did not want to be seen and arrested, was following him from a distance]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the officers
UST the servants
(τῶν ὑπηρετῶν)

The word officers refers to servants and attendants in general. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that generally refers to servants and any others who do what they are told. Alternate translation: [the attendants] or [those who served there]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

> ULT the end
> UST what was going to happen
> (τὸ τέλος)

The word end refers to the outcome or result of what was happening to Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the outcome] or [the result of what was happening]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Peter	Peter
of the high priest	the house where} the ruling priest {lived}

Matthew 26:59

ULT	UST
Now the chief priests and the entire Sanhedrin were seeking false testimony against Jesus so that they might put him to death.	The ruling priests and all {the rest of} the Jewish council tried to find {people who would say} what was untrue about Jesus. That way, they could have {the Roman authorities} execute him.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

Here, the word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then] or [Next,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT were seeking false testimony against Jesus
UST tried to find {people who would say} what was untrue about Jesus
(ἐζήτουν ψευδομαρτυρίαν κατὰ τοῦ Ἰησοῦ)

Matthew means that the chief priests and the Sanhedrin were trying find evidence against Jesus even if it was false. In other words, they needed to find people who were willing to say that Jesus had done something very wrong. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [were seeking evidence against Jesus, even false evidence,] or [were seeking proof, even if it were not true, that Jesus had done something wrong]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT false testimony
UST {people who would say} what was untrue
(ψευδομαρτυρίαν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of testimony, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [someone to testify falsely]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT they might put him to death
UST they could have {the Roman authorities} execute him
(αὐτὸν θανατώσωσιν)

Matthew implies that the chief priests and the Sanhedrin want to convince the Roman authorities to kill Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they might have the Romans put him to death]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT so that they might put him to death
UST That way, they could have {the Roman authorities} execute him
(ὅπως αὐτὸν θανατώσωσιν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of death, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [so that they could have him killed]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT they might put him to death
UST they could have {the Roman authorities} execute him
(αὐτὸν θανατώσωσιν)

Because the Roman authorities did not allow the Sanhedrin to execute people, the Sanhedrin had to convince the Roman authorities to execute people for them. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they might convince the Roman authorities to put him to death]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
chief priests	ruling priests
Sanhedrin	Jewish council
were seeking	tried to find
Jesus	Jesus

Matthew 26:60

ULT	UST
And they did not find {any}, many false witnesses having approached. But later two, having approached,	However, even though many people said what was untrue about Jesus, the Jewish council did not find {anything that they could tell the Roman authorities about}. Finally, two people came forward.

ULT many false witnesses having approached
UST even though many people said what was untrue about Jesus
(πολλῶν προσελθόντων ψευδομαρτύρων)

Matthew describes something that is unexpected in a situation where the Jewish council did not find any good evidence against Jesus. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces something that is unexpected. Alternate translation: [despite the fact that many false witnesses approached]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT later
UST Finally
(ὕστερον)

The word later indicates that these two witnesses approached the council after the many false witnesses described in the previous sentence. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [after all those false witnesses,]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT two
UST two people
(δύο)

Matthew is using the number two as a noun to mean two people. Your language may use numbers in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [two witnesses]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
false witnesses	people said what was untrue about Jesus

Matthew 26:61

ULT	UST
said, “This one said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God and to rebuild {it} in three days.’”	They said, “This man said that he could tear down God’s temple and construct it again within three days.”

ULT This one said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God and to rebuild {it} in three days
UST This man said that he could tear down God’s temple and construct it again within three days
(οὗτος ἔφη, δύναμαι καταλῦσαι τὸν ναὸν τοῦ Θεοῦ, καὶ διὰ τριῶν ἡμερῶν οἰκοδομῆσαι)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [This one said that he was able to destroy the temple of God and to rebuild it in three days]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT in three days
UST within three days
(διὰ τριῶν ἡμερῶν)

The phrase in three days refers to a time period made up of three days. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [during a period of three days]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
temple	temple
of God	God’s
days	days

Matthew 26:62

ULT	UST
And having stood up, the high priest said to him, "Do you answer nothing? What are these testifying against you?"	Then the ruling priest stood up. He asked Jesus, "Are you going to reply? How do you respond to what these people have said about you?"

ULT Do you answer nothing? What are these testifying against you
UST Are you going to reply? How do you respond to what these people have said about you (οὐδὲν ἀποκρίνῃ, τί οὗτοί σου καταμαρτυροῦσιν)

Here the high priest could be asking: (1) two questions. See the ULT and UST. (2) one question. Alternate translation: [Do you answer nothing to what these are testifying against you]

Support Reference: Information Structure

ULT Do you answer nothing
UST Are you going to reply
(οὐδὲν ἀποκρίνῃ)

Alternate translation: [Do you have no answer]

ULT Do you answer … you
UST Are you going to reply … you
(ἀποκρίνῃ & σου)

Since the high priest is talking to Jesus, the word you is singular throughout this verse.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT What are these testifying against you
UST How do you respond to what these people have said about you (τί οὗτοί σου καταμαρτυροῦσιν)

The high priest is asking Jesus how he will defend himself against the people who have accused him of saying and doing wrong things. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [What is your defense against these testifying against you]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
high priest	ruling priest

Matthew 26:63

ULT	UST
But Jesus was silent. And the high priest said to him, "I make you swear by the living God that you tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God."	Despite that, Jesus kept quiet. Then the ruling priest told him, "I want you to have the only real God guarantee that you will say truthfully whether you are the Messiah, God's Son."

ULT I make you swear by the living God
UST I want you to have the only real God guarantee
(ἐξορκίζω σε κατὰ τοῦ Θεοῦ τοῦ ζῶντος)

The high priest puts Jesus under oath, or makes him swear by God that what he says is true. Use a natural way in your language to express an oath. Alternate translation: [I make you swear before the living God] or [I require that you solemnly promise the living God]

Support Reference: Oath Formulas

ULT you … you tell … you
UST you … you will say truthfully … you
(σε & εἴπῃς & σὺ)

Since the high priest is talking to Jesus, the word you throughout this verse is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT by the living God
UST I want … to have the only real God guarantee
(κατὰ τοῦ Θεοῦ τοῦ ζῶντος)

The phrase the living God identifies God as the one who "lives." The primary point is that God actually "lives," unlike idols and other things that people call "god." If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that emphasizes that God really "lives." Alternate translation: [by the God who lives] or [by the true God]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT you tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God
UST you will say truthfully whether you are the Messiah, God's Son
(ἡμῖν εἴπῃς εἰ σὺ εἶ ὁ Χριστὸς, ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Θεοῦ)

The high priest uses the statement form to ask a question. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in question form. Alternate translation: [you answer this question: Are you the Christ, the Son of God?]

Support Reference: Statements — Other Uses

ULT us
UST you will say truthfully
(ἡμῖν)

Here, us refers to the high priest and the rest of the Jewish council, so us would be exclusive. Your language may require you to mark this form.

Support Reference: Exclusive and Inclusive 'We'

ULT the Son of God
UST God's Son
(ὁ Υἱὸς τοῦ Θεοῦ)

Son of God is an important title for Jesus that describes his relationship with God the Father.

Support Reference: Translating Son and Father

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
high priest	ruling priest
God	God
Christ	Messiah
Son of God	God's Son

Matthew 26:64

ULT	UST
Jesus says to him, "You said {it}. But I say to you, from now you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power and coming on the clouds of heaven."	Jesus replied, "What you have called me is right. In fact, here is what I want to tell you: From this time on, you will see me, the Son of Man, ruling powerfully with God. {You will see me} arriving by means of clouds."

ULT says
UST replied
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you can use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [said]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT You said {it}
UST What you have called me is right
(σὺ εἶπας)

Here, much as in 26:25, the phrase You said {it} indicates that the speaker acknowledges the truth of what the other person said. Jesus uses this phrase to indirectly indicate that the high priest is right to suggest that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that gives an indirect positive response to a request. If necessary, you could express the idea more directly, as the UST does. Alternate translation: [That is what you say] or [Your words show what is true]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT You
UST What you have called me is right
(σὺ)

Since Jesus is speaking to the high priest, the word You here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT But
UST In fact
(πλὴν)

The word But introduces what Jesus wishes to say about himself in further development of what the high priest suggested. The word thus indicates some contrast and some explanation. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that a person would use to clarify or develop another person's statement. Alternate translation: [Yet even further,] or [Nevertheless,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT I say to you
UST here is what I want to tell you
(λέγω ὑμῖν)

Jesus uses the clause I say to you to emphasize what he is telling the Jewish council. Use a natural form in your language for emphasizing the truth and importance of a statement. Alternate translation: [I want you to know]

Support Reference: Statements — Other Uses

ULT to you … you will see
UST here is what I want to tell you … you will see (ὑμῖν & ὄψεσθε)

Since Jesus is speaking to the whole Jewish council, the words you and you here are plural.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT the Son of Man
UST me, the Son of Man
(τὸν Υἱὸν τοῦ Ἀνθρώπου)

Jesus speaks about himself in the third person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use the first person. Alternate translation: [me, who am the Son of Man,]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

> ULT sitting at the right hand
> UST ruling … with God
> (καθήμενον ἐκ δεξιῶν)

When someone sits at the right hand, it symbolizes that person's honor, authority, and ability to rule. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make this idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [Sit to rule at the right hand] or [Take the place of honor and authority at the right hand]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

> ULT at the right hand of power
> UST powerfully with God
> (ἐκ δεξιῶν τῆς δυνάμεως)

The phrase at the right hand refers to the place next to a person's right hand, which would be their right side. In the Jesus' culture, the right side was associated with honor or authority. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to the right side. Make sure that your readers understand that this side indicates that Jesus has honor and authority when he sits there. Alternate translation: [at the right side of power] or [at the honorable place of power]

Support Reference: Metonymy

> ULT at the right hand of power
> UST powerfully with God
> (ἐκ δεξιῶν τῆς δυνάμεως)

The word power could refer to: (1) the power held by a person sitting at the right hand. In this case, Jesus implies that the right hand is God's. Alternate translation: [at the right hand with power] or [at the right hand of God, the place of power,]; (2) God the Father by reference to the power that he has. Alternate translation: [at the right hand of the powerful God] or [at the right hand the Almighty]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT at the right hand of power
> UST powerfully with God
> (ἐκ δεξιῶν τῆς δυνάμεως)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of power, and if you do not translate the word as a title for God, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [at the right hand, which is a powerful place,] or [powerfully at the right hand]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

> ULT coming
> UST {You will see me} arriving
> (ἐρχόμενον)

Christians debate exactly what it means in this verse for the Son of Man to be coming. Some think he is coming to God's heavenly throne room. Others think he is coming back to earth. If possible, use a form that does not explicitly state where he is coming. Alternate translation: [traveling] or [going]

Support Reference: When to Keep Information Implicit

> ULT the clouds of heaven
> UST clouds
> (τῶν νεφελῶν τοῦ οὐρανοῦ)

The expression of heaven contains extra information that would be unnatural to express in some languages. If this is true of your language, you could shorten the expression. Alternate translation: [the clouds]

Support Reference: Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
Son of Man	me, the Son of Man
of heaven	clouds

Matthew 26:65

ULT	UST
Then the high priest tore his robes, saying, "He has blasphemed! Why do we still have need of witnesses? Behold, now you have heard the blasphemy.	When he heard that, the ruling priest was so upset that he ripped his outer garments. He said, "This man has insulted God! We certainly do not need anyone else to say anything about him. You all just heard him insult God!

ULT tore his robes
UST was so upset that he ripped his outer garments
(διέρρηξεν τὰ ἱμάτια αὐτοῦ)

In Jesus' culture the act of tearing one's clothes was a symbolic act done to show outrage or grief. If there is a gesture with a similar meaning in your culture, you could use it here in your translation, or you could explain what this action means. Alternate translation: [tore his robes in outrage]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

ULT saying
UST He said
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he declared]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT Why do we still have need of witnesses
UST We certainly do not need anyone else to say anything about him
(τί ἔτι χρείαν ἔχομεν μαρτύρων)

The high priest is using the question form to emphatically state that he thinks that they do not need more witnesses. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [We do not still have need of witnesses.] or [We certainly do not still have need of witnesses!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT need of witnesses
UST need … to say anything about him
(χρείαν & μαρτύρων)

The high priest implies that they do not need more witnesses to prove that Jesus blasphemes. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [need of witnesses to prove that he blasphemes]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Behold
(ἴδε)

The word Behold draws the attention of the Jewish council and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express Behold with a word or phrase that asks people to listen, or you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [Look] or [Indeed]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the blasphemy
UST him insult God
(τὴν βλασφημίαν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of blasphemy, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [him blaspheme] or [the blasphemous things he says]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
high priest	ruling priest
He has blasphemed	This man has insulted God
of witnesses	to say anything about him
blasphemy	him insult God

Matthew 26:66

ULT	UST
What do you think?" And they, answering, said, "He is deserving of death."	What should we decide to do?" The Jewish council replied, "Someone should execute him because of what he has said!"

ULT What do you think
UST What should we decide to do
(τί ὑμῖν δοκεῖ)

The high priest is asking the rest of the Jewish council what they think they should do with Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [What do you think we should do with him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT He is deserving of death
UST Someone should execute him because of what he has said
(ἔνοχος θανάτου ἐστίν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of death, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [He deserves to die]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

Matthew 26:67

ULT	UST
Then they spit in his face and beat him. And they slapped him,	After that, some of the people there spit in Jesus' face {to insult him}. They struck him {with their fists}. They slapped him

ULT they spit in his face
UST some of the people there spit in Jesus' face {to insult him}
(ἐνέπτυσαν εἰς τὸ πρόσωπον αὐτοῦ)

In Jesus' culture, people would spit in someone's face to insult that person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could explain what this action means. Alternate translation: [they spit in his face to dishonor him]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

ULT they spit … they
UST some of the people there spit … to insult him … They (ἐνέπτυσαν & οἱ)

The pronouns they and they refer to people who were there. Matthew may be referring to some members of the Jewish council, some of the people that Peter was sitting with, and other people who were in or near the house of the high priest. If possible use a general word or phrase that refers to some of the people who were there. Alternate translation: [some people spit … they] or [some of those present spit … they]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

Matthew 26:68

ULT	UST
saying, "Prophesy to us, Christ. Who is the one having hit you?"	and demanded, "{You who claim to be the} Messiah, prove to us that you speak for God! Name the people who just struck you!"

ULT saying
UST and demanded
(λέγοντες)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT Prophesy to us
UST prove to us that you speak for God
(προφήτευσον ἡμῖν)

Those people hitting Jesus did not believe that he really could Prophesy. When they demanded that Jesus Prophesy, they were challenging him to do something they believed he could not do. They were only asking Jesus to Prophesy in order to mock him. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [Show us that you can prophesy] or [Prophesy to us if you really can]

Support Reference: Irony

ULT Prophesy … you
UST that you speak for God … you
(προφήτευσον & σε)

Since the people are talking to Jesus, the command Prophesy and the word you are singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

> ULT Christ
> UST {You who claim to be the} Messiah
> (Χριστέ)

Those hitting Jesus did not really think he is the Christ. They call him this to mock him. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [you so-called Christ] or [you who call yourself Christ]

Support Reference: Irony

> ULT Who is the one having hit you
> UST Name the people who just struck you
> (τίς ἐστιν ὁ παίσας σε)

The people who hit Jesus do not expect Jesus to be able to answer their question. They are really using the question form to give a command, to tell Jesus what he should do if he wants to convince them that he is a prophet. So, if it would be helpful in your language, you could translate this as a command. Alternate translation: [Tell us who hit you!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Prophesy	that you speak for God
Christ	{You who claim to be the} Messiah

Matthew 26:69

ULT	UST
Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and one servant girl approached him, saying, "You also were with Jesus of Galilee."	Meanwhile, Peter was sitting down in the area just outside the {ruling priest's} house. A female servant came up to him and said, "{I can tell that} you were an apprentice of Jesus, that man from the region of Galilee."

ULT Now
UST Meanwhile
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces something that was happening at the same time as what Matthew narrated in 26:59–68 (Jesus' trial). This story continues the narrative about Peter that Matthew began in 26:58. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a simultaneous event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [During those events,] or [While that was happening,]

Support Reference: Connect — Simultaneous Time Relationship

ULT saying
UST and said
(λέγουσα)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and she declared]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT You also were with Jesus
UST {I can tell that} you were an apprentice of Jesus
(καὶ σὺ ἦσθα μετὰ Ἰησοῦ)

The servant girl means that Peter was a disciple of Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [You also were a disciple of Jesus]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT You
UST {I can tell that} you
(σὺ)

Since the servant girl is talking to Peter, the word You here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Peter	Peter
servant girl	female servant
Jesus	Jesus
of Galilee	that man from the region of Galilee

Matthew 26:70

ULT	UST
But he denied {it} before all, saying, "I do not know what you are saying."	However, while everyone there was listening, he told them that he was not Jesus' apprentice. He said, "I do not understand what you are talking about!"

ULT he denied {it}
UST he told them that he was not Jesus' apprentice
(ὁ & ἠρνήσατο)

Matthew implies that Peter denied that he was with Jesus as his disciple. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [he denied that he was with Jesus]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT all
UST while everyone there was listening
(πάντων)

Matthew is using the adjective all as a noun to mean all the people who were there. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [all the people there]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT saying
UST He said
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he declared]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

> ULT I do not know what you are saying
> UST I do not understand what you are talking about > (οὐκ οἶδα τί λέγεις)

Peter means that the servant girl's words do not apply to him. He does not mean that he was unable to understand what the servant girl said. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make that idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [You are saying things that I know nothing about.] or [I have no idea what you are talking about!]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT you are saying
> UST you are talking about > (λέγεις)

Since Peter is talking to the servant girl, the word you here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
I do … know	I do … understand

Matthew 26:71

ULT	UST
But {he} having gone out to the gateway, another saw him and says to the ones there, "This one was with Jesus the Nazarene."	Then Peter walked to the entrance {into the area just outside the house}. Another female servant noticed him there. She told the people who were standing nearby, "This man was an apprentice of Jesus, that man from the town of Nazareth."

ULT But
UST Then
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [After that,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT another
UST Another female servant
(ἄλλη)

Matthew is using the adjective another as a noun to mean another servant girl. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [another servant girl]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT says
UST She told
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you can use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [said]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT This one was with Jesus
UST This man was an apprentice of Jesus
(οὗτος ἦν μετὰ Ἰησοῦ)

The servant girl means that Peter was a disciple of Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you expressed the similar clause in 26:69.
Alternate translation: [This one was a disciple of Jesus]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
gateway	the entrance {into the area just outside the house}
Jesus	Jesus
Nazarene	that man from the town of Nazareth

Matthew 26:72

ULT	UST
And again he denied {it} with an oath, "I do not know the man!"	Peter again said that he was not Jesus' apprentice. He solemnly promised, "I have never met that man!"

ULT he denied {it} with an oath, "I do not know
UST Peter … said that he was not Jesus' apprentice. He solemnly promised, "I have never met (ἠρνήσατο μετὰ ὅρκου & οὐκ οἶδα)

Alternate translation: [he denied it, 'I swear that I do not know]

ULT he denied {it} with an oath
UST Peter … said that he was not Jesus' apprentice. He solemnly promised (ἠρνήσατο μετὰ ὅρκου)

Matthew implies that Peter again denied that he was with Jesus as his disciple. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you expressed the similar idea in 26:70. Alternate translation: [he denied with an oath that he was with Jesus]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
an oath	He solemnly promised
I do … know	I have … met

Matthew 26:73

ULT	UST
But after a little {while} the ones standing {there}, having approached, said to Peter, "Truly you also are from them, for also your speech makes you evident."	A little later, some people who were there came up to Peter. They told him, "When you talk, you sound like {you are from where Jesus is from}. So, you must really be one of his apprentices."

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT Truly you also are from them, for also your speech makes you evident
UST When you talk, you sound like {you are from where Jesus is from}. So, you must really be one of his apprentices (ἀληθῶς καὶ σὺ ἐξ αὐτῶν εἶ, καὶ γὰρ ἡ λαλιά σου δῆλόν σε ποιεῖ)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [Your speech makes you evident, so we know truly that you also are from them]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT you … your … you
UST When you talk, you sound like {you are from where Jesus is from} … you (σὺ & σου & σε)

Because these people are talking to Peter, the words you and your throughout this verse are singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

> ULT from them
> UST one of his apprentices
> (ἐξ αὐτῶν)

The pronoun them refers to Jesus' disciples. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to the disciples more directly. Alternate translation: [from Jesus' disciples] or [one of his disciples]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

> ULT your speech makes you evident
> UST When you talk, you sound like {you are from where Jesus is from} > (ἡ λαλιά σου δῆλόν σε ποιεῖ)

This phrase implies that Peter's speech had an accent like the accent of someone from Galilee, where Jesus was from. The people who are talking with people think that this makes it evident that he is one of Jesus' disciples. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [your speech makes it evident that you are from Galilee] or [how you talk makes it clear that you come from where Jesus is from]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
to Peter	him

Matthew 26:74

ULT	UST
Then he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know the man!" And immediately a rooster crowed.	After they said that, Peter asked God to punish him if he was lying. Then he solemnly promised, "I have never met that man!" As soon as he said that, a male chicken crowed.

ULT Then he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know
UST After they said that, Peter asked God to punish him if he was lying. Then he solemnly promised, "I have never met (τότε ἤρξατο καταθεματίζειν καὶ ὀμνύειν & οὐκ οἶδα)

Alternate translation: [Then he said, 'I call a curse down on myself and swear that I do not know]

ULT to curse
UST Peter asked God to punish him if he was lying (καταθεματίζειν)

The phrase to curse could mean that: (1) Peter asks God to curse him if he is lying. Alternate translation: [to ask God to curse him if he was speaking falsely] or [to invoke a curse on himself]; (2) Peter curses Jesus. Alternate translation: [to curse Jesus]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT a rooster crowed
UST a male chicken crowed
(ἀλέκτωρ ἐφώνησεν)

See how you translated rooster and "crow" in 26:34. Alternate translation: [a bird began to sing]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
to curse	Peter asked God to punish him if he was lying to swear	he solemnly promised
I do … know	I have … met

Matthew 26:75

ULT	UST
And Peter remembered the word of Jesus that he had said: "Before a rooster crows you will deny me three times." And having gone outside, he wept bitterly.	Then Peter remembered what Jesus had told him. He had said, "Before male chickens crow {at dawn}, you will say three times that you are not my apprentice." Peter left {the area just outside the ruling priest's house} and cried very sorrowfully.

ULT the word of Jesus
UST what Jesus had told him
(τοῦ ῥήματος Ἰησοῦ)

Here, word represents what Jesus just said using words. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [Jesus' statement] or [the words of Jesus]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT that he had said: "Before a rooster crows you will deny me three times
UST He had said, "Before male chickens crow {at dawn}, you will say three times that you are not my apprentice (εἰρηκότος & πρὶν ἀλέκτορα φωνῆσαι, τρὶς ἀπαρνήσῃ με)

It may be more natural in your language to have an indirect quotation here. Alternate translation: [that he had said that before a rooster crowed, he would deny him three times]

Support Reference: Direct and Indirect Quotations

ULT Before a rooster crows you will deny me three times
UST Before male chickens crow {at dawn}, you will say three times that you are not my apprentice (πρὶν ἀλέκτορα φωνῆσαι, τρὶς ἀπαρνήσῃ με)

This clause is identical to what Jesus said in 26:34, so express the idea as you did there.

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT you will deny
UST you will say … that you are not my apprentice
(ἀπαρνήσῃ)

Since Jesus had said this to Peter, the word you here is singular.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

> ULT having gone outside
> UST Peter left {the area just outside the ruling priest's house}
> (ἐξελθὼν ἔξω)

This expression means that Peter left the courtyard and went completely outside the area where the house of the high priest was. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [having gone out of the courtyard and away from the house]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT having gone
> UST Peter left {the area just outside the ruling priest's house}
> (ἐξελθὼν)

In a context such as this, your language might say "come" instead of gone. Alternate translation: [having come]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Peter	Peter
of Jesus	Jesus

Matthew 27

Matthew 27 Chapter Introduction

Structure and Formatting

1. The crucifixion of Jesus, his death, and his resurrection (26:1–28:19)
    - The Jewish council sends Jesus to Pilate, the governor (27:1–2)
    - Judas repents and kills himself (27:3–10)
    - Jesus' trial before Pilate, the governor (27:11–26)
    - Jesus is crucified (27:27–56)
        - The soldiers mock Jesus (27:27–31)
        - Jesus is crucified, and people mock him (27:32–44)
        - Jesus dies (27:45–56)
    - Joseph of Arimathea buries Jesus' body (27:57–61)
    - The chief priests and Pharisees secure Jesus' tomb (27:62–66)

Religious and Cultural Concepts in This Chapter

The prophecy about the 30 pieces of silver and the field of the potter

In 27:3–8, Matthew tells the story of how Judas returned the 30 pieces of silver that the Jewish leaders had paid him to hand Jesus over. The leaders used that money to buy "the field of the potter" as a burial ground for foreigners. Then, in 27:9–10, Matthew indicates that these events "fulfilled" what the prophet Jeremiah spoke. Then, Matthew summarizes or paraphrases Zechariah 11:12–13, Jeremiah 19:1–13, and Jeremiah 32:6–9. These passages speak about a potter, 30 pieces of silver, or someone buying a field. Since Matthew indicates that he is referring to what Jeremiah said, you too should indicate that these words come from Jeremiah. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a form that indicates that Matthew is summarizing or paraphrasing from another text.

The drinks that people offered to Jesus

In 27:34, the soldiers offer Jesus "wine mixed with gall." In 27:48, someone offers Jesus "vinegar." In both cases, scholars debate whether people offered these drinks to help Jesus by easing the pain or quenching his thirst or whether they offered these drinks to torment Jesus by giving him a bad-tasting drink. Since it is not obvious what the purpose of the drinks was, if possible express the idea in such a way that your readers could draw either conclusion. If it would be helpful for your readers, you could include some extra information in a footnote. See the notes on these verses for translation options.

Calling Elijah

In 27:46, Jesus calls out "Eli, Eli," which is how Jesus said "My God, my God" in his language. Some of the people standing there misheard him and thought that he was calling out to "Elijah," a prophet with a name that sounds like "Eli." There is a story about this Elijah in 2 Kings 2:11–12, where God takes him into heaven. So, some people believed that Elijah did not die and would someday return. The people who thought Jesus was calling to Elijah thought that he was asking Elijah to return and rescue him. If your readers would not understand why the people standing near Jesus speak about Elijah, you could include some extra information in your translation or include this information in a footnote. (See: Elijah)

The curtain of the temple tearing from top to bottom

The "curtain" to which Matthew refers in 27:51 could be either the curtain that separated the Most Holy Place from the rest of the temple, or it could be the curtain that separated the Holy Place from the rest of the temple area. Matthew indicates that this curtain tore from the top to the bottom, which means that a person did not do it. Christians debate what the tearing of this curtain might have symbolized. There are at least three major options:

1. The tearing of the curtain could indicate that access to God is now available to everyone.

2. The tearing of the curtain could indicate that God is going to destroy the temple.
3. The tearing of the curtain could indicate that God is about to do something powerful.

Since Matthew does not explain what the tearing of the curtain means, you should not explain it in your translation. However, if it would be helpful for your readers, you could include what it might mean in a footnote.

The tomb of Joseph of Arimathea

The tomb in which Jesus was buried (27:60) was the kind of tomb in which wealthy Jewish families buried their dead. It was an large hole or room cut into a rock. It had a flat place on one side where they could place the body after they had put oil and spices on it and wrapped it in cloth. Then they would roll a large rock in front of the tomb so no one could see inside or enter.

Sealing the tomb

In 27:66, Matthew indicates that the chief priests and Pharisees "sealed" Jesus tomb. This means that they used something, probably wax on which they put a special symbol, to mark the stone that closed the tomb. It is not clear exactly where they put the "seal." They might have attached it to the edge of the stone. They might have tied a rope around the stone and put the "seal" there. However, it was done, anyone who wanted to open the tomb would have to damage the "seal," and the chief priests and Pharisees would know that someone had broken in. If your readers would not understand what the chief priests and Pharisees did, you could use a descriptive phrase or include some of this information in a footnote. (See: seal, sealed, unsealed)

Translation Issues in This Chapter

Sarcasm

In this chapter, people mock Jesus several times. First, in 27:28–29, the soldiers pretend like Jesus is a king. They give him a scarlet robe, a crown of thorns, and a reed, and they pretend to greet him as a king. They do not actually believe that Jesus is a king, so they are doing these things sarcastically to make fun of Jesus. Second, in 27:40–43, people walking by and the Jewish leaders tell Jesus to save himself, to come down from the cross, and to wait for God to rescue him. They do not actually believe that he can do these things, so they are speaking sarcastically to make fun of Jesus. Make sure that it is clear in your translation that these are sarcastic actions done to make fun of Jesus. See the notes on these verses for translation options. (See: Irony)

Singular and plural forms of "you"

Most of the forms of "you" in this chapter appear in conversations, and many of the conversations are with one person. Because of this, the majority of the forms of "you" in this chapter are singular. So, you should assume forms of "you" are singular unless a note specifies that the form is plural. (See: Forms of 'You' — Singular)

Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?

In 27:46, Matthew spells out the sounds of the words that Jesus spoke in his own language. The words "lama sabachthani" are Aramaic, but it is unclear whether the words "Eli, Eli" are Aramaic or Hebrew. Either way, Matthew translates the words later on in the verse as "My God, my God, why did you forsake me?" You can express the idea as Matthew did by spelling out how the words sound and then translating their meaning in your language. (See: Copy or Borrow Words)

Matthew 27:1

ULT	UST
Now morning having come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus so as to put him to death.	When it was morning, all the ruling priests and the Jewish leaders planned how they could have someone execute Jesus.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next major event in the story. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT took counsel against Jesus
UST planned how they could have (συμβούλιον ἔλαβον & κατὰ τοῦ Ἰησοῦ)

The phrase took counsel against Jesus indicates that the chief priests and elders were working together to figure out ways to harm Jesus. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you translated the similar construction in 12:14. Alternate translation: [made plans concerning Jesus] or [came up with ideas about what they could do with Jesus]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT so as to put him to death
UST how they could have someone execute Jesus
(ὥστε θανατῶσαι αὐτόν)

Because the Roman authorities did not allow the Jewish leaders to execute people, the Jewish leaders had to convince the Roman authorities to execute people for them. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [so as to convince the Roman authorities to put him to death]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT put him to death
> UST someone execute Jesus
> (θανατῶσαι αὐτόν)

Matthew implies that the chief priests and the elders want to convince the Roman authorities to kill Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [have the Romans put him to death]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT put him to death
> UST someone execute Jesus
> (θανατῶσαι αὐτόν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of death, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [have him killed]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
chief priests	ruling priests
elders	leaders
counsel	planned
Jesus	how they could have

Matthew 27:2

ULT	UST
And having bound him, they led {him} away and handed {him} over to Pilate the governor.	They had their guards tie Jesus up and take him from there to Pilate, the {Roman} local ruler. They wanted Pilate to condemn him.

ULT having bound him
UST They had their guards tie Jesus up
(δήσαντες αὐτὸν)

Matthew implies that the Jewish council commanded guards to bind Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [having commanded the guards to bind him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT they led {him} away
UST and take him from there
(ἀπήγαγον)

Matthew implies that they led Jesus away from Caiaphas' house. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they led him away from Caiaphas' house]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT handed {him} over to Pilate the governor
UST to Pilate, the {Roman} local ruler. They wanted Pilate to condemn him (παρέδωκαν Πειλάτῳ τῷ ἡγεμόνι)

Matthew implies that the Jewish leaders brought Jesus to Pilate because they wanted Pilate to judge him. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [handed him over to Pilate the governor to be judged by him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having bound	They had their guards tie … up to Pilate	to Pilate
governor	the {Roman} local ruler

Matthew 27:3

ULT	UST
Then Judas, the one handing him over, having seen that he was condemned, having repented, returned the 30 pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,	After that, Judas, the man who had helped {Jesus' enemies} arrest him, realized that the ruling priests and Jewish leaders had decided that Jesus was guilty. He regretted {what he had done}. So, he gave the 30 silver coins {that they had paid him} back to them.

ULT Then
UST After that
(τότε)

The word Then indicates that Matthew has stopped telling the story of Jesus' trial so he can tell the story of what happened to Judas. If your language has a way of showing that a new story is starting, you could use that form here. Alternate translation: [Around that time,] or [While those things were happening,]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT he was condemned
UST the ruling priests and Jewish leaders had decided that Jesus was guilty (κατεκρίθη)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the Jewish council. Alternate translation: [the Jewish council condemned him]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the 30 pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders
UST the 30 silver coins {that they had paid him} … to them
(τὰ τριάκοντα ἀργύρια τοῖς ἀρχιερεῦσιν καὶ πρεσβυτέροις)

This phrase refers to the money that the chief priests had given Judas to hand Jesus over, as mentioned in 26:15. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [to the chief priests and elders the 30 pieces of silver that they had given him to hand Jesus over]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the 30 pieces of silver
UST the 30 silver coins {that they had paid him}
(τὰ τριάκοντα ἀργύρια)

Each of these pieces of silver was a coin equivalent to about four days' wages. See how you expressed the idea in 26:15. Alternate translation: [30 coins made out of silver] or [the money worth about four months' wages]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Judas	Judas
handing … over	who had helped {Jesus' enemies} arrest
he was condemned	the ruling priests and Jewish leaders had decided that Jesus was guilty
having repented	He regretted {what he had done} pieces of silver	silver coins {that they had paid him}
to the chief priests	to them
elders	to them

Matthew 27:4

ULT	UST
saying, “I have sinned, having handed over innocent blood.” But they said, “What {is that} to us? You will see.”	He told them, “I have done what is wrong by helping you arrest someone who is not guilty.” They replied, “We do not care {what you think}! That is your problem.”

ULT saying
UST He told them
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT innocent blood
UST someone who is not guilty
(αἷμα ἀθῷον)

The word blood refers to a person who has or will soon die. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [a person who does not deserve to die] or [an innocent person who will now die]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT What {is that} to us
UST We do not care {what you think}
(τί πρὸς ἡμᾶς)

The chief priests and elders are using the question form to tell Judas that they do not care about how Judas feels or what he wants to do now. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [We do not care about how you feel.] or [That is completely unimportant to us!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

ULT us
UST We do not care {what you think}
(ἡμᾶς)

Here, us refers to the Jewish leaders who are speaking to Judas, so us would be exclusive. Your language may require you to mark this form.

Support Reference: Exclusive and Inclusive ‘We’

ULT You will see
UST That is your problem
(σὺ ὄψῃ)

The phrase You will see means that the chief priests and elders claim that Judas is responsible for dealing with what he did, and they are not responsible. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [What you do is none of our business] or [That is your responsibility]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
I have sinned	I have done what is wrong
having handed over	by helping you arrest
innocent	who is not guilty

Matthew 27:5

ULT	UST
And having thrown the pieces of silver into the temple, he withdrew. And having gone out, he hanged himself.	So Judas took the silver coins {that they had paid him} and threw them into the temple. Then he left {the temple area}. After that, he hanged himself and died.

ULT having thrown the pieces of silver into the temple
UST Judas took the silver coins {that they had paid him} and threw them into the temple
(ῥίψας τὰ ἀργύρια εἰς τὸν ναὸν)

Matthew implies that Judas was outside the temple building when he threw the pieces of silver into the temple building. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [having tossed the pieces of silver into the temple building]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the pieces of silver
UST Judas took the silver coins {that they had paid him}
(τὰ ἀργύρια)

See how you referred to these pieces of silver in 27:3. Alternate translation: [the coins made out of silver] or [the money]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

ULT he withdrew. And having gone out, he hanged himself
UST Then he left {the temple area}. After that, he hanged himself and died (ἀνεχώρησεν καὶ ἀπελθὼν ἀπήγξατο)

Matthew implies that Judas withdrew from the temple area to some other place. Then, Judas went out from that place and hanged himself. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers, or you could use just one phrase to describe Judas' movements. Alternate translation: [he departed from the temple and having gone out to another place, he hanged himself] or [he left and hanged himself]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
pieces of silver	Judas took the silver coins {that they had paid him}
temple	temple

ULT	UST
he hanged himself	he hanged himself and died

Matthew 27:6

ULT	UST
Now the chief priests, having taken the pieces of silver, said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood."	Later, the ruling priests picked up the silver coins {that Judas had thrown}. They declared, "This is money that we paid so that a man would die. So, our laws prohibit us from adding these coins to the money for the temple."

ULT Now
UST Later
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. It is not clear how soon the priests picked up the pieces of silver after Judas threw them. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next action, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Sometime after that,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the pieces of silver
UST the silver coins {that Judas had thrown} (τὰ ἀργύρια)

See how you referred to these pieces of silver in 27:3. Alternate translation: [the coins made out of silver] or [the money]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

ULT It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood
UST This is money that we paid so that a man would die. So, our laws prohibit us from adding these coins to the money for the temple (οὐκ ἔξεστιν βαλεῖν αὐτὰ εἰς τὸν κορβανᾶν, ἐπεὶ τιμὴ αἵματός ἐστιν)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [Because it is the price of blood, it is not lawful to put them into the treasury]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

> ULT the treasury
> UST the money for the temple
> (τὸν κορβανᾶν)

The word treasury refers to the place in the temple where the money that people gave to help maintain the temple and the sacrifices was kept. If your readers would not be familiar with a treasury for a temple, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [the place where we keep the money designated for the temple] or [the storage area with the rest of the temple money]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

> ULT the price of blood
> UST money that we paid so that a man would die
> (τιμὴ αἵματός)

The chief priests are using the possessive form to describe a price that is paid for blood. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different expression. Alternate translation: [the price that was paid for blood]

Support Reference: Possession

> ULT of blood
> UST so that a man would die
> (αἵματός)

Here, blood refers to the death of a person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 27:4. Alternate translation: [of a person's death] or [of a man dying]

Support Reference: Metonymy

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
chief priests	ruling priests
pieces of silver	the silver coins {that Judas had thrown}
It is … lawful	our laws prohibit us

Matthew 27:7

ULT	UST
But, having taken counsel, they bought with them the field of the potter for burial for strangers.	After planning what to do, they used the coins to buy some land that people called the Potter's Field. That way, they could bury on that land people who came from a different place {but who died in Jerusalem}.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces what the chief priests and elders did instead of putting the money in the treasury. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Instead]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT having taken counsel
UST After planning what to do
(συμβούλιον & λαβόντες)

The phrase having taken counsel indicates that the chief priests and elders were working together to figure something out. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the similar phrase in 12:14. Alternate translation: [having made plans] or [having come up with an idea]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT the field of the potter
UST some land that people called the Potter's Field
(τὸν Ἀγρὸν τοῦ Κεραμέως)

The phrase the field of the potter could refer to: (1) what the local people called the field. Alternate translation: [a field named Field of the Potter]; (2) a field that a potter owned. Alternate translation: [a field from a potter] or [a field that belonged to a potter]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT for burial for strangers
UST That way, they could bury on that land people who came from a different place {but who died in Jerusalem}
(εἰς ταφὴν τοῖς ξένοις)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of burial, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [in order to bury strangers there] or [as a cemetery for strangers]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT for strangers
UST people who came from a different place {but who died in Jerusalem}
(τοῖς ξένοις)

Here, strangers refers to people who died in Jerusalem but did not live there normally. They could have been Jews visiting from other areas or non-Jewish foreigners. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [for people from outside Jerusalem]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
counsel	After planning what to do
burial	they could bury on that land

Matthew 27:8

ULT	UST
Therefore, that field has been called Field of Blood to this day.	That is why people now call that land Blood's Field.

ULT that field has been called
UST people … call that land
(ἐκλήθη ὁ ἀγρὸς ἐκεῖνος)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you could state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [that field's name has been]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT Field of Blood
UST Blood's Field
(Ἀγρὸς Αἵματος)

Alternate translation: [Bloody Field]

ULT to this day
UST now
(ἕως τῆς σήμερον)

The phrase this day refers to Matthew's present time. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [to the present] or [from then on]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
has been called	people … call

Matthew 27:9

ULT	UST
Then was fulfilled {what} was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "And they took the 30 pieces of silver, the price of the one having been priced, whom they from the sons of Israel priced,	At that time, what God said by speaking through the prophet Jeremiah came true: "They took the 30 silver coins, which was what some of the Israelites had decided that he was worth.

ULT Then
UST At that time
(τότε)

The word Then indicates that the prophecy was fulfilled at the time when the chief priests and elders bought the field of the potter with the 30 silver coins that they had paid Judas. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces something that happens at the same time. Alternate translation: [And so] or [It was then that]

Support Reference: Connect — Simultaneous Time Relationship

ULT was fulfilled {what} was spoken
UST what God said … came true
(ἐπληρώθη τὸ ῥηθὲν)

See how your translated the similar passive forms in 2:17. Alternate translation: [these events fulfilled what God spoke]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT saying
(λέγοντος)

In Matthew's culture, saying was a normal way to introduce a quotation from an important text. In this case, Matthew paraphrases or summarizes several passages from the Old Testament, including Zechariah 11:12–13, Jeremiah 19:1–13, and Jeremiah 32:6–9. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase that indicates that Matthew is paraphrasing an important text. Alternate translation: [who wrote in the book of Jeremiah] or [as I summarize it:]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT the 30 pieces of silver
UST the 30 silver coins
(τὰ τριάκοντα ἀργύρια)

Each of these pieces of silver was a coin equivalent to about four days' wages. See how you expressed the idea in 26:15. Alternate translation: [30 coins made out of silver] or [the money worth about four months' wages]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

ULT the price of the one having been priced, whom they from the sons of Israel priced
UST which was what some of the Israelites had decided that he was worth
(τὴν τιμὴν τοῦ τετιμημένου, ὃν ἐτιμήσαντο ἀπὸ υἱῶν Ἰσραήλ)

The author of the quotation means that the 30 pieces of silver were the price that some from sons of Israel decided was the correct price for the person for whom they were paying. Some of the words here may be redundant in your language. If it would be helpful in your language, you could omit any redundant information and make the idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [which was the price that some of the sons of Israel set for the person] or [which some from the sons of Israel set as the price for the one whom they were buying]

Support Reference: Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

ULT of the one having been priced, whom they from the sons of Israel priced
UST some of the Israelites had decided that he was worth
(τοῦ τετιμημένου, ὃν ἐτιμήσαντο ἀπὸ υἱῶν Ἰσραήλ)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could state this in active form. Alternate translation: [of the one whom they from the sons of Israel priced]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the sons of Israel
UST some of the Israelites
(υἱῶν Ἰσραήλ)

The author of the quotation uses the word sons to refer in general to all the descendants of Israel. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that refers to descendants in general. Alternate translation: [the descendants of Israel] or [those descended from Israel]

Support Reference: Metaphor

> ULT the sons
> UST some of the Israelites
> (υἱῶν)

Although the word sons is masculine, the author of the quotation is using it to refer to any children or descendants, both men and women. If you preserve the metaphor, and if it would be helpful in your language, you could use a phrase that makes this clear. Alternate translation: [the sons and daughters] or [the children]

Support Reference: When Masculine Words Include Women

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
was fulfilled	came true
Jeremiah	Jeremiah
prophet	prophet
pieces of silver	silver coins
of Israel	some of the Israelites

Matthew 27:10

ULT	UST
and they gave them for the field of the potter, just as the Lord directed me.”	Then, the Israelites did what the Lord {God} had commanded me {to do}. They used those coins to buy the Potter’s Field.”

ULT they gave them for
UST They used those coins to buy
(ἔδωκαν αὐτὰ εἰς)

The author of the quotation means that the people bought the field with the pieces of silver. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [with them they bought]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the field of the potter
UST the Potter’s Field
(τὸν Ἀγρὸν τοῦ Κεραμέως)

If possible, express the idea here as you did in 27:7. Alternate translation: [a field named Field of the Potter] or [a field that belonged to a potter]

Support Reference: Possession

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
the Lord	the Lord {God}

Matthew 27:11

ULT	UST
Now Jesus was stood before the governor, and the governor questioned him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" But Jesus said to him, "You say {it}."	As for Jesus, {the Jewish council} had him stand in front of {Pilate,} the {Roman} local ruler. Pilate asked him, "Do you claim to be king over the Jewish people?" Jesus replied, "What you are calling me is right."

ULT Now
UST As for
(δὲ)

The word Now indicates that what follows is the continuation of the story of Jesus' trial before Pilate, which began in 27:2. If your language has a way of continuing a story after a break from the main story line, you could use it here. Alternate translation: [Returning to the story of Jesus,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT Jesus was stood
UST Jesus, {the Jewish council} had him stand
(ὁ & Ἰησοῦς ἐστάθη)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the Jewish council. Alternate translation: [was standing] or [the Jewish leaders made Jesus stand]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT saying
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT You say {it}
UST What you are calling me is right
(σὺ λέγεις)

Here, much as in 26:25, the phrase You say {it} indicates that the speaker acknowledges the truth of what the other person said. Jesus uses this phrase to indirectly indicate that the governor is right to suggest that Jesus is the King of the Jews. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that gives an indirect positive response to a request. If necessary, you could express the idea more directly, as the UST does. Alternate translation: [That is what you say] or [Your words show what is true]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
governor	{Pilate,} the {Roman} local ruler
governor	Pilate
King	king
King of the Jews	king over the Jewish people
of the Jews	over the Jewish people
Jesus	Jesus

Matthew 27:12

ULT	UST
And when he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he answered nothing.	Then the ruling priests and the {Jewish} leaders claimed that Jesus had done {many bad things}. However, Jesus did not respond.

ULT when he was accused by the chief priests and the elders
UST Then the ruling priests and the {Jewish} leaders claimed that Jesus had done {many bad things}
(ἐν τῷ κατηγορεῖσθαι αὐτὸν ὑπὸ τῶν ἀρχιερέων καὶ τῶν πρεσβυτέρων)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [when the chief priests and the elders accused him]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT he answered nothing
UST However, Jesus did not respond
(οὐδὲν ἀπεκρίνατο)

Alternate translation: [he did not answer anything]

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
chief priests	the ruling priests
elders	the {Jewish} leaders

Matthew 27:13

ULT	UST
Then Pilate says to him, "Do you not hear how many things they are testifying against you?"	After that, Pilate asked him, "Are you going to respond to anything that they have accused you of doing?"

ULT says
UST asked
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you can use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [said]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT Do you not hear how many things they are testifying against you
UST Are you going to respond to anything that they have accused you of doing (οὐκ ἀκούεις πόσα σου καταμαρτυροῦσιν)

Pilate asks if Jesus has heard, but he implies that he is asking if Jesus is going to respond to what he has heard. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Do you intend to defend yourself against the many things they are testifying against you?] or [Do you not hear how many things they are testifying against you? Why do you not answer them?]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Pilate	Pilate

Matthew 27:14

ULT	UST
And he did not answer him, not even to one word, so as to amaze the governor very much.	However, Jesus did not respond to even one of the things that they accused him of doing. How Jesus was acting greatly impressed {Pilate,} the {Roman} local ruler.

ULT not even to one word
UST to even one of the things that they accused him of doing (πρὸς οὐδὲ ἓν ῥῆμα)

The phrase not even to one word could mean: (1) that Jesus did not respond to any of the accusations, each of which Matthew refers to as a word. Alternate translation: [not even with regard to one accusation]; (2) that Jesus did not use even one word to answer Pilate's question. Alternate translation: [not even with one word]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT so as to amaze
UST How Jesus was acting … impressed
(ὥστε θαυμάζειν)

The phrase so as to introduces a result clause. Use a natural way in your language for introducing a result clause. Alternate translation: [so that he amazed]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
governor	{Pilate,} the {Roman} local ruler

Matthew 27:15

ULT	UST
Now at the festival the governor had been accustomed to release to the crowd one prisoner whom they were wishing.	It is important to know that whenever the Passover festival began, the {Roman} local ruler{, Pilate,} usually set free one person who was in jail. He allowed the group of people {who were in Jerusalem} to decide who it would be.

ULT Now
UST It is important to know that
(δὲ)

Matthew provides background information about something that Pilate, the governor, normally did. This background information will help readers understand what happens next. Use a natural form in your language for introducing background information. Alternate translation: [Here is some important information:]

Support Reference: Background Information

ULT the festival
UST the Passover festival
(ἑορτὴν)

The phrase the festival refers the Passover celebration. See how you translated the same phrase in 26:5. Alternate translation: [the festival of Passover]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT had been accustomed to release
UST usually set free
(εἰώθει & ἀπολύειν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [had a custom of releasing]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
the festival	the Passover festival
governor	the {Roman} local ruler{, Pilate … }

Matthew 27:16

ULT	UST
Now at that time they were holding a well-known prisoner named Barabbas.	It is also important to know that a famous man whose name was Barabbas was in jail.

ULT Now
UST It is also important to know that
(δὲ)

The word Now marks a continuation of the break in the main story line which began in the preceding verse. Matthew is introducing more background information, this time about Barabbas, to help readers understand what happens next. Use a natural way in your language for introducing background information. Alternate translation: [And] or [Here is some more important information:]

Support Reference: Background Information

ULT they were holding
UST was in jail
(εἶχον)

Here, they refers to the Roman authorities. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state this explicitly. Alternate translation: [the Roman authorities were holding]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT a well-known prisoner
UST a famous man … was in jail
(δέσμιον ἐπίσημον)

The term well-known indicates that Barabbas was a man about whom others had heard many things. Most likely, the Romans considered him to be well-known in bad way (that is, notorious), while some Jewish people considered him to be well-known in a good way (that is, renowned). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that describes someone whom others have heard many things about, both positively and negatively. Alternate translation: [a prisoner about whom there were many stories, a man] or [a prominent prisoner]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT named
UST whose name was (λεγόμενον)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [whom people called]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT Barabbas
UST Barabbas
(Βαραββᾶν)

Many ancient manuscripts read Barabbas. The ULT follows that reading. Other ancient manuscripts read “Jesus Barabbas.” If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
named	whose name was
Barabbas	Barabbas

Matthew 27:17

ULT	UST
Therefore, they being gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want {that} I would release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus, the one called Christ?"	So, when the people {who were in Jerusalem} assembled, Pilate told them, "I will set free one person who is in jail. Whom do you want it to be? {Do you want it to be} Barabbas? Or {do you want it to be} Jesus, whom people call the Messiah?"

ULT Therefore
UST So
(οὖν)

The word Therefore introduces what Pilate did because of the custom that Matthew just described. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the result of some situation. Alternate translation: [Because of that custom] or [So then]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT they
UST the people {who were in Jerusalem}
(αὐτῶν)

The pronoun they refers to the same "crowd" that Matthew mentioned in 27:15. This "crowd" describes a large group of people who were in Jerusalem. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to these people more directly. Alternate translation: [the crowd] or [many people in Jerusalem]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

ULT being gathered together
UST when … assembled
(συνηγμένων)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [gathering] or [coming together]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT do you want … to you
UST I will set free one person who is in jail … do you want it to be (θέλετε & ὑμῖν)

Since Pilate is speaking to a crowd of people, the word you throughout this verse is plural.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT Barabbas
UST {Do you want it to be} Barabbas
(Βαραββᾶν)

Many ancient manuscripts read Barabbas. The ULT follows that reading. Other ancient manuscripts read "Jesus Barabbas." If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

ULT the one called Christ
UST whom people call the Messiah
(τὸν λεγόμενον Χριστόν)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [whose title is Christ] or [who goes by Christ]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
being gathered together	when … assembled
Pilate	Pilate
Barabbas	{Do you want it to be} Barabbas
Jesus	{do you want it to be} Jesus
called	whom people call
Christ	the Messiah

Matthew 27:18

ULT	UST
For he knew that they handed him over because of envy.	{Pilate asked that question} because he realized that the Jewish council had arrested Jesus and brought him to Pilate because they were jealous {of Jesus}.

ULT For
UST {Pilate asked that question} because
(γὰρ)

The word For introduces a reason why Pilate asked the question which he just asked. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a reason for question, or you could leave For untranslated. Alternate translation: [Pilate did that because]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT because of envy
UST because they were jealous {of Jesus}
(διὰ φθόνον)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of envy, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [because they envied him]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
he knew	he realized
envy	they were jealous {of Jesus}

Matthew 27:19

ULT	UST
Now, he sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Nothing to you and to that righteous one, for I suffered many {things} today because of him by means of a dream."	While Pilate was sitting where he did when he was deciding whether people were guilty or innocent, his wife sent a message to him: "Today I dreamed about that man, and it upset me very much. So, do not do anything with that man. He is a man who does what is right!"

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT he sitting on the judgment seat
UST While Pilate was sitting where he did when he was deciding whether people were guilty or innocent (καθημένου & αὐτοῦ ἐπὶ τοῦ βήματος)

When a leader was sitting on the judgment seat, it meant that the leader was ready to make judgments and legal decisions. If it would be helpful in your language, you could explain what sitting in this place means. Alternate translation: [he sitting on the judgment seat to judge] or [he sitting on the judgment seat, ready to make legal decisions]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

ULT on the judgment seat
UST where he did when he was deciding whether people were guilty or innocent
(ἐπὶ τοῦ βήματος)

The judgment seat was a special chair in which a leader sat when making an official judgment. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of seat, you could use the name of something similar in your area, or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [at the judge's bench] or [on the seat used for judgment]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT the judgment seat
UST where he did when he was deciding whether people were guilty or innocent
(τοῦ βήματος)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of judgment, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the seat for judging]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT sent to him, saying
UST sent a message to him
(ἀπέστειλεν πρὸς αὐτὸν & λέγουσα)

Matthew implies that Pilate's wife sent someone to Pilate to say the words that follow. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [sent someone to him to say]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Nothing to you and to that righteous one, for I suffered many {things} today because of him by means of a dream
UST Today I dreamed about that man, and it upset me very much. So, do not do anything with that man. He is a man who does what is right (μηδὲν σοὶ καὶ τῷ δικαίῳ ἐκείνῳ, πολλὰ γὰρ ἔπαθον σήμερον κατ' ὄναρ δι' αὐτόν)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [I suffered many things today because of him by means of a dream. So, nothing to you and to that righteous one.]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT Nothing to you and to that righteous one
UST do not do anything with that man. He is a man who does what is right (μηδὲν σοὶ καὶ τῷ δικαίῳ ἐκείνῳ)

The phrase Nothing to you and to that righteous one is a request to avoid doing anything with and to Jesus, the righteous one. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [Have nothing to do with that righteous one] or [Avoid doing anything to that righteous one]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT I suffered many {things} today
UST Today … and it upset me very much
(πολλὰ & ἔπαθον σήμερον)

Pilate's wife means that the dream upset her or caused her You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [I was very distressed] or [I have been miserable]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
to … righteous one	do not do anything with that man. He is a man who does what is right
I suffered	and it upset me
a dream	I dreamed

Matthew 27:20

ULT	UST
But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds so that they would ask for Barabbas but would destroy Jesus.	However, the ruling priests and the {Jewish} leaders convinced the groups of people {who were there} to ask Pilate {to set} Barabbas {free}. Also, {they convinced the groups of people} to have Pilate execute Jesus.

ULT But
UST However
(δὲ)

The word But introduces how the chief priests and elders were trying to have Jesus executed; that is in contrast to Pilate's wife, who wanted Pilate to have nothing to do with Jesus. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [In contrast,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT they would ask for Barabbas
UST ask Pilate {to set} Barabbas {free}
(αἰτήσωνται τὸν Βαραββᾶν)

Matthew means that the crowds were going to ask Pilate to release Barabbas. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they would ask Pilate to release Barabbas]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT but would destroy Jesus
UST Also, {they convinced the groups of people} to have Pilate execute Jesus
(τὸν δὲ Ἰησοῦν ἀπολέσωσιν)

Matthew implies that the crowds were going to pressure Pilate to destroy Jesus by executing him. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [but would demand that Jesus be killed]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
chief priests	ruling priests
elders	{Jewish} leaders

ULT	UST
for Barabbas	Barabbas
Jesus	Jesus

Matthew 27:21

ULT	UST
But answering, the governor said to them, "Whom from the two do you want {that} I would release to you?" But they said, "Barabbas."	Then the {Roman} local ruler{, Pilate,} told the groups of people {who were there}, "Choose one of these two men, and I will set that man free." They replied, "{We want you to set} Barabbas {free}!"

ULT But
UST Then
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [After that,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT answering
(ἀποκριθεὶς)

Pilate is answering or responding to a situation, not to something that someone has asked. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make it more explicit that Pilate is responding to what is happening among the crowds, or you could leave answering untranslated. Alternate translation: [seeing that the crowds were discussing what to do] or [responding to what the crowd was doing]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the two
UST these two men
(τῶν δύο)

Pilate uses the number two as a noun in order to refer to the two men, Jesus and Barabbas. Your language may use numbers in the same way. If not, you could translate this with a noun phrase. Alternate translation: [the two prisoners]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT do you want … to you
UST Choose … and I will set that man free
(θέλετε & ὑμῖν)

Since Pilate is speaking to a crowd of people, the word you throughout this verse is plural.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT Barabbas
UST We want you to set} Barabbas {free}
(τὸν Βαραββᾶν)

The crowds are leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the verse if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [We want you to release Barabbas]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
governor	the {Roman} local ruler{, Pilate … }
Barabbas	We want you to set} Barabbas {free}

Matthew 27:22

ULT	UST
Pilate says to them, "What then should I do with Jesus, the one called Christ?" They all say, "Let him be crucified."	Pilate replied, "So what do you want me to do with Jesus, whom people call the Messiah?" All the people {who were there} replied, "{Have your soldiers} kill him by nailing him to a cross!"

ULT says … They all say
UST replied … All the people {who were there} replied
(λέγει & λέγουσιν πάντες)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [said … They all said]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT the one called Christ
UST whom people call the Messiah
(τὸν λεγόμενον Χριστόν)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. See how you expressed the idea in 27:17. Alternate translation: [whom some people call the Christ]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT Let him be crucified
UST {Have your soldiers} kill him by nailing him to a cross
(σταυρωθήτω)

If your language does not use the third-person imperative in this way, you could state this in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [He should be crucified]

Support Reference: Third-Person Imperatives

ULT Let him be crucified
UST {Have your soldiers} kill him by nailing him to a cross
(σταυρωθήτω)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [Crucify him]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Pilate	Pilate
with Jesus	with Jesus
called	whom people call
Christ	the Messiah
Let him be crucified	{Have your soldiers} kill him by nailing him to a cross

Matthew 27:23

ULT	UST
But he said, "For what evil did he do?" But they were crying out even more, saying, "Let him be crucified."	Pilate replied, "But he has not done anything wrong!" But they shouted even louder, "{Have your soldiers} kill him by nailing him to a cross!"

> ULT But … But
> UST But
> (δὲ)

In both places, the word But introduces what Pilate or the crowds say in contrast to what the other person or people said. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use words or phrases that introduce this kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [In response, … In response,] or [However, … Yet]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

> ULT For what evil did he do
> UST But he has not done anything wrong
> (τί γὰρ κακὸν ἐποίησεν)

Pilate is using the question form to emphasize that he thinks that Jesus has not done any evil. If you would not use the question form for this purpose in your language, you could translate this as a statement or an exclamation. Alternate translation: [Despite what you say, he did not do evil] or [Yet he has certainly not done evil!]

Support Reference: Rhetorical Question

> ULT For what
> UST But … not
> (τί γὰρ)

The word For indicates that Pilate is asking for a reason why the crowd wants him to crucify Jesus. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that indicates that a question is asking for a reason for something. Alternate translation: [Why? What] or [What is your reason for that? What]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT evil
UST anything wrong
(κακὸν)

Pilate is using the adjective evil as a noun to mean an evil thing. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [evil thing]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT saying
(λέγοντες)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they demanded]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT Let him be crucified
UST {Have your soldiers} kill him by nailing him to a cross
(σταυρωθήτω)

This clause is identical to the clause at the end of the previous verse (27:22). Express the idea as you did there.

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
evil	anything wrong
were crying out	shouted
Let him be crucified	{Have your soldiers} kill him by nailing him to a cross

Matthew 27:24

ULT	UST
But Pilate, having seen that he is benefiting nothing, but, instead, a riot is happening, having taken water, washed his hands opposite the crowd, saying, "I am innocent from the blood of this one. You will see."	Then Pilate realized that he was not accomplishing anything {by asking those questions}. Rather, the group of people {who were there} were starting to riot. So, while they were watching, he washed his hands in water {to indicate that he was not guilty}. He declared, "I am not guilty of killing this man! That is your problem."

ULT But
UST Then
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [After that,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT having seen that he is benefiting nothing, but, instead, a riot is happening
UST realized that he was not accomplishing anything {by asking those questions}. Rather, the group of people {who were there} were starting to riot (ἰδὼν & ὅτι οὐδὲν ὠφελεῖ, ἀλλὰ μᾶλλον θόρυβος γίνεται)

These two clauses indicate the reason why Pilate did what is described in the rest of the verse. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a form in your language that introduces a reason for some action. Alternate translation: [because he saw that he is benefiting nothing, and because, instead, a riot is happening]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT he is benefiting nothing … a riot is happening
UST he was not accomplishing anything {by asking those questions} … the group of people {who were there} were starting to riot
(οὐδὲν ὠφελεῖ & θόρυβος γίνεται)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you can use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [he was benefiting nothing … a riot was happening]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT having taken water, washed his hands opposite the crowd
UST So, while they were watching, he washed his hands in water {to indicate that he was not guilty}
(λαβὼν ὕδωρ, ἀπενίψατο τὰς χεῖρας ἀπέναντι τοῦ ὄχλου)

Pilate washed his hands as a sign to the people that he was not responsible for Jesus' death. If there is a gesture with a similar meaning in your culture, you could use it here in your translation, or you could explain what this action means. Alternate translation: [having gotten some water, washed his hands opposite the crowd to indicate that he was not responsible for what was going to happen to Jesus]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

ULT opposite
UST while they were watching
(ἀπέναντι)

The word opposite means that Pilate was directly in front of the crowd. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [in front of] or [before]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT saying
UST He declared
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT the blood of this one
UST killing this man
(τοῦ αἵματος τούτου)

Here, blood refers to the death of a person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 27:4. Alternate translation: [the death of this one] or [this one dying]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT of this one
UST this man
(τούτου)

Many ancient manuscripts read this one. The ULT follows that reading. Other ancient manuscripts read “this righteous one.” If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

ULT You will see
UST That is your problem
(ὑμεῖς ὄψεσθε)

The phrase You will see means that Pilate claims that the crowd is responsible for dealing with what they are doing, and he is not responsible. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the similar clause in 27:4. Alternate translation: [What you are doing is none of my business] or [That is your responsibility]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT You
UST That is your problem
(ὑμεῖς)

Because Pilate is speaking to a crowd, the word You here is plural.

Support Reference: Forms of ‘You’ — Singular

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Pilate	Pilate
he is benefiting	he was … accomplishing
innocent	not guilty

Matthew 27:25

ULT	UST
And answering, all the people said, "His blood {be} on us and on our children!"	All the people {who were there} replied, "We and our children will be responsible for killing this man!"

ULT His blood {be} on us and on our children
UST We and our children will be responsible for killing this man
(τὸ αἷμα αὐτοῦ ἐφ' ἡμᾶς καὶ ἐπὶ τὰ τέκνα ἡμῶν)

The clause, His blood {be} on us and on our children, means that the crowd was accepting the responsibility for Jesus' blood. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable clause or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [The responsibility for his blood will be on us and on our children]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT His blood
UST will be responsible for killing this man
(τὸ αἷμα αὐτοῦ)

Here, blood refers to the death of a person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the idea in 27:4. Alternate translation: [His death]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT us … our
UST We … our (ἡμᾶς & ἡμῶν)

Here, us and our refer to the people who were there, so us and our are exclusive. Your language may require you to mark these forms.

Support Reference: Exclusive and Inclusive 'We'

ULT children
UST children
(τὰ τέκνα)

The word children could refer: (1) just to the people's children. Alternate translation: [sons and daughters]; (2) to the people's offspring or descendants in general. Alternate translation: [offspring] or [descendants]

Support Reference: Metaphor

Matthew 27:26

ULT	UST
Then he released Barabbas to them, but having flogged Jesus, he handed {him} over so that he might be crucified.	Then Pilate set Barabbas free. He had his soldiers whip Jesus and take him away to kill him by nailing him to a cross.

ULT having flogged Jesus
UST He had his soldiers whip Jesus
(τὸν & Ἰησοῦν φραγελλώσας)

Matthew implies that Pilate had his soldiers flog Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [having commanded his soldiers to flog Jesus]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT Barabbas … having flogged Jesus
UST Barabbas … He had his soldiers whip Jesus
(τὸν Βαραββᾶν; τὸν & Ἰησοῦν φραγελλώσας)

Flogging was a Roman penalty in which soldiers whipped a person with a whip to which were attached pieces of bone and metal to increase the whip's capacity to do harm to the person being flogged. If your readers would not be familiar with this form of punishment, you could explain explicitly what flogging was. Alternate translation: [having whipped Jesus with a whip to which were attached pieces of bone and metal]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT he handed {him} over
UST and take him away
(παρέδωκεν)

Matthew implies that Pilate handed Jesus over to his soldiers. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [he handed him over to his soldiers]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT he might be crucified
> UST kill him by nailing him to a cross
> (σταυρωθῇ)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who would do the action, it is clear from the context that it would be Pilate's soldiers. Alternate translation: [the soldiers might crucify him]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Barabbas	Barabbas
he might be crucified	kill him by nailing him to a cross
Jesus	Jesus

Matthew 27:27

ULT	UST
Then the soldiers of the governor, having taken Jesus into the Praetorium, gathered together to him the whole cohort.	After that, the soldiers who served the {Roman} local ruler{, Pilate,} took Jesus into their headquarters. They assembled all the soldiers who were there.

ULT the Praetorium
UST their headquarters
(τὸ πραιτώριον)

The Praetorium was where the Roman governor stayed when he was in Jerusalem and where the Roman soldiers in Jerusalem lived. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of structure, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [the government building] or [the governor's residence]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT the whole cohort
UST all the soldiers who were there
(ὅλην τὴν σπεῖραν)

The word cohort is a military term. Each cohort is a group of about 600 soldiers, which is a tenth of a legion. Most likely, Matthew is referring to all the soldiers who were stationed in Jerusalem. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable military term in your language or a more general term. Alternate translation: [the whole company] or [all the soldiers stationed there]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
soldiers	soldiers
of the governor	who served the {Roman} local ruler{, Pilate … }
Jesus	Jesus
gathered together	They assembled

Matthew 27:28

ULT	UST
And having stripped him, they placed a scarlet cloak on him.	They pulled off his clothes and put a red robe on him{, the kind that kings wear}.

ULT they placed a scarlet cloak on him
UST and put a red robe on him{, the kind that kings wear}
(χλαμύδα κοκκίνην περιέθηκαν αὐτῷ)

In Roman culture, a scarlet cloak was like the expensive clothing worn by kings. The soldiers put a scarlet cloak on Jesus to pretend that he was a king, even though they did not think that he really was a king. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they put a scarlet cloak on him to pretend that he was a king] or [they put a royal scarlet cloak on him in mockery]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT scarlet
UST red
(κοκκίνην)

The word scarlet refers to a color that is a shade of bright red. If your readers would be unfamiliar with the color scarlet, you could refer to a shade of bright red. Alternate translation: [bright red] or [crimson]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
a … cloak	a … robe … the kind that kings wear

Matthew 27:29

ULT	UST
And having woven together a crown of thorns, they put {it} on his head and a reed in his right hand, and having knelt down before him, they mocked him, saying, "Rejoice, King of the Jews!"	They took some branches with thorns and laced them together to make a crown. They put it on Jesus' head and had him hold a staff. Then they bowed down in front of him and made fun of him. They said, "Greetings, you who are king over the Jewish people!"

ULT a crown of thorns, they put {it} on his head and a reed in his right hand
UST They took some branches with thorns … a crown. They put it on Jesus' head and had him hold a staff (στέφανον ἐξ ἀκανθῶν, ἐπέθηκαν ἐπὶ τῆς κεφαλῆς αὐτοῦ; καὶ κάλαμον ἐν τῇ δεξιᾷ αὐτοῦ)

In Roman culture, a crown was worn by a king, and a king held a scepter in his right hand. In order to mock Jesus, the soldiers put a crown made from thorns on Jesus' head and put a reed in his right hand. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [a crown of thorns, they put it on his head and a reed in his right hand to pretend that he was a king] or [a crown of thorns, they put it on his head as if he were king, and they put a reed like a royal scepter in his right hand]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT a crown of thorns
UST They took some branches with thorns … a crown (στέφανον ἐξ ἀκανθῶν)

Matthew is using the possessive form to describe a crown that is made from branches with thorns on them. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different expression. Alternate translation: [a crown made from thorny branches]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT thorns
UST They took some branches with thorns (ἀκανθῶν)

Matthew uses the word thorns to refer to small branches with thorns on them. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [thorny branches]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT having knelt down before him
UST they bowed down in front of him
(γονυπετήσαντες ἔμπροσθεν αὐτοῦ)

In Jesus' culture, kneeling before someone was a way to respect a greater person, especially when asking the greater person to do a favor. Here, the soldiers perform this action to mock Jesus by pretending that he is a king. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to a similar action from your culture, or you could explain what kneeling means. Alternate translation: [having prostrated themselves before him] or [having knelt down before him as if he were a king]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

ULT saying
UST They said
(λέγοντες)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they spoke these words:]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT Rejoice, King of the Jews
UST Greetings, you who are king over the Jewish people
(χαῖρε, ὁ Βασιλεῦ τῶν Ἰουδαίων)

The soldiers mock Jesus by greeting him as if he were King of the Jews when they do not believe that he actually is. They actually meant to communicate the opposite of the literal meaning of their words, as Matthew indicates when he says that they mocked him. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a form that indicates that this is irony. Alternate translation: [Rejoice, you so-called King of the Jews]

Support Reference: Irony

ULT Rejoice
UST Greetings
(χαῖρε)

In Jesus' culture, people commonly greeted each other with the word Rejoice. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable word or phrase that people use to greet each other. Alternate translation: [Hello]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
a crown	a crown
thorns	They took some branches with thorns
a reed	a staff
having knelt down	they bowed down
they mocked	and made fun of
King	you who are king
King of the Jews	you who are king over the Jewish people
of the Jews	over the Jewish people

Matthew 27:30

ULT	UST
And having spat on him, they took the reed and were striking {him} on his head.	Then, they spat on Jesus {to insult him}. Also, they took the staff {from him} and kept hitting his head {with it}.

ULT having spat on him
UST they spat on Jesus {to insult him}
(ἐμπτύσαντες εἰς αὐτὸν)

In Jesus' culture, people would spit on someone to insult that person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could explain what this action means. Alternate translation: [having spit on him to dishonor him]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

ULT the reed
UST the staff
(τὸν κάλαμον)

The phrase the reed refers to the stick the soldiers had put in Jesus' right hand in the previous verse. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the reed from his right hand]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
reed	staff

Matthew 27:31

ULT	UST
And when they had mocked him, they took the cloak off him and put his robes on him and led him away to crucify {him}.	After the soldiers made fun of Jesus, they pulled the robe off of him. They put his own clothes back on him. Then, they took him {from there to the place where} they were going to kill him by nailing him to a cross.

ULT led him away
UST they took him {from there … }
(ἀπήγαγον αὐτὸν)

Matthew implies that they led Jesus away from the Praetorium. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [led him away from the Praetorium]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
they had mocked	the soldiers made fun of cloak	robe
crucify {him}	{ … to the place where} they were going to kill him by nailing him to a cross

Matthew 27:32

ULT	UST
Now coming out, they found a Cyrenean man, Simon by name. They pressed this one into service so that he would carry his cross.	As they were on their way, they passed a man who was from the city of Cyrene. His name was Simon. The soldiers forced this man to carry the cross for Jesus.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT coming out
UST As they were on their way
(ἐξερχόμενοι)

In a context such as this, your language might say “going” instead of coming. Alternate translation: [going out]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT coming out
UST As they were on their way
(ἐξερχόμενοι)

Here, coming out implies that Jesus and the soldiers came out of the city of Jerusalem. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [coming out of Jerusalem]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT a Cyrenean man, Simon by name
UST a man who was from the city of Cyrene. His name was Simon
(ἄνθρωπον Κυρηναῖον, ὀνόματι Σίμωνα)

Matthew introduces a man named Simon into the story. If your language has its own way of introducing new participants, you could use it here in your translation. Alternate translation: [a certain man. He was from Cyrene, and he was called Simon]

Support Reference: Introduction of New and Old Participants

ULT Simon
UST Simon
(Σίμωνα)

The word Simon is the name of a man.

Support Reference: How to Translate Names

ULT They pressed this one into service so that he would carry
UST The soldiers forced this man to carry (τοῦτον ἠγγάρευσαν ἵνα ἄρῃ)

According to Roman law, Roman soldiers could press someone into service, which means that they could force a person to carry a load for them or work for them. In this case, they forced Simon to carry Jesus' cross. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of forced service, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [They conscripted this one so that he would carry] or [They made this one carry]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT They pressed this one into service
UST The soldiers forced this man
(τοῦτον ἠγγάρευσαν)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of service, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [They forced this one to serve them]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Cyrenean	who was from the city of Cyrene
cross	the cross

Matthew 27:33

ULT	UST
And having come to a place called Golgotha, which is called Place of a Skull,	Then, they arrived at a place whose name is Golgotha. That name means "Skull Place."

ULT having come
UST they arrived
(ἐλθόντες)

In a context such as this, your language might say "gone" instead of come. Alternate translation: [having gone]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT a place called Golgotha, which is called UST a place whose name is Golgotha. That name means (τόπον λεγόμενον Γολγοθᾶ, ὅ ἐστιν & λεγόμενος)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [a place that people call Golgotha, which means]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT Golgotha
UST Golgotha
(Γολγοθᾶ)

The word Golgotha is an Aramaic word. Matthew has spelled it out using Greek letters so his readers would know how it sounded. Since Matthew states what this word means later in the verse, you also should spell it out the way it sounds in your language.

Support Reference: Copy or Borrow Words

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
called	whose name is
Golgotha	Golgotha
called	means

Matthew 27:34

ULT	UST
they gave him wine mixed with gall to drink. And having tasted {it}, he was not willing to drink {it}.	The soldiers offered Jesus a drink that they had made out of wine and a bitter liquid. After he took a sip of it, Jesus refused to drink it.

ULT wine mixed with gall to drink
UST a drink that they had made out of wine and a bitter liquid
(πιεῖν οἶνον μετὰ χολῆς μεμιγμένον)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the soldiers. Alternate translation: [wine, which they had mixed with gall, to drink]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT gall
UST a bitter liquid
(χολῆς)

Here, gall refers to a liquid with a bitter taste. This liquid may have been a pain-relieving medicine, or it may simply have made the wine taste bitter. If possible, use a form that does indicate what the gall would have been used for. Alternate translation: [something bitter] or [a bitter substance]

Support Reference: When to Keep Information Implicit

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
wine	out of wine

Matthew 27:35

ULT	UST
Now, having crucified him, they divided up his robes, casting a lot,	After nailing Jesus to the cross, the soldiers split up his clothes among them by gambling for them.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT they divided up his robes
UST the soldiers split up his clothes among them
(διεμερίσαντο τὰ ἱμάτια αὐτοῦ)

Matthew means that the soldiers took the clothes that Jesus had been wearing and divided them up by giving each piece of clothing to a soldier. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the soldiers took his clothes and distributed them among them]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT casting a lot
UST by gambling for them
(βάλλοντες κλῆρον)

The term lot refers to an object with different markings on various sides that was used to decide randomly among several possibilities. It would be tossed onto the ground to see which marked side would come up on top. If your readers would not be familiar with a lot, you could refer to a similar practice in your culture, or you could use a more general expression for gambling. Alternate translation: [rolling dice] or [deciding randomly]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

> ULT casting a lot
> UST by gambling for them
> (βάλλοντες κλῆρον)

Matthew implies that the soldiers were casting a lot in order to determine who would take which pieces of Jesus' clothing. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [casting a lot to decide who would take which pieces of clothing]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT a lot
> UST by gambling for them
> (κλῆρον)

Many ancient manuscripts end this verse with the word lot. The ULT follows that reading. Other ancient manuscripts include after the word lot the words "so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled, 'They divided my robes for themselves, and they cast a lot for my clothing.'" If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having crucified	After nailing … to the cross
a lot	by gambling for them

Matthew 27:36

ULT	UST
and sitting down, they were guarding him there.	Then, the soldiers stayed there to make sure that Jesus died.

ULT they were guarding him there
UST there to make sure that Jesus died
(ἐτήρουν αὐτὸν ἐκεῖ)

Matthew implies that the soldiers were guarding Jesus to prevent anyone from rescuing him. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they kept guard over him there to prevent anyone from rescuing him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
they were guarding	to make sure that … died

Matthew 27:37

ULT	UST
And they put above his head his charge, having been written, "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews."	They wrote on a sign why {they were executing Jesus}. On the sign were these words: "This man is Jesus. He was king over the Jewish people." The soldiers placed the sign above Jesus' head.

ULT his charge
UST They wrote on a sign why {they were executing Jesus}
(τὴν αἰτίαν αὐτοῦ)

Here, his charge represents the written explanation of his charge, that offense of which he was accused and convicted. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [a placard stating his charge]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT his charge
UST They wrote on a sign why {they were executing Jesus}
(τὴν αἰτίαν αὐτοῦ)

Matthew is using the possessive form to describe the charge that was made against Jesus. If this is not clear in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the charge against him]

Support Reference: Possession

ULT having been written
UST On the sign were these words
(γεγραμμένην)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the soldiers. Alternate translation: [which the soldiers had written]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT the King of the Jews
> UST He was king over the Jewish people
> (ὁ Βασιλεὺς τῶν Ἰουδαίων)

The soldiers mock Jesus by referring to him as King of the Jews when they do not believe that he actually is. They actually mean to communicate the opposite of the literal meaning of their words. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a form that indicates that this is irony. Alternate translation: [the so-called King of the Jews]

Support Reference: Irony

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
King	He was king
King of the Jews	He was king over the Jewish people
of the Jews	over the Jewish people

Matthew 27:38

ULT	UST
Then two robbers are being crucified with him, one at his right and one at his left.	After that, the soldiers nailed two bandits to crosses near Jesus. They put one bandit on one side of Jesus. They put the other bandit on the other side of Jesus.

ULT two robbers are being crucified
UST the soldiers nailed two bandits to crosses
(σταυροῦνται & δύο λῃσταί)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the soldiers. Alternate translation: [Pilate's soldiers crucified two robbers]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT are being crucified
UST the soldiers nailed … to crosses
(σταυροῦνται)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [were being crucified]

Support Reference: Predictive Past

ULT one at his right and one at his left
UST They put one bandit on one side of Jesus. They put the other bandit on the other side of Jesus (εἷς ἐκ δεξιῶν, καὶ εἷς ἐξ εὐωνύμων)

Matthew uses the adjectives right and left as nouns to refer to Jesus' right and left sides. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate these words with equivalent phrases. Alternate translation: [one on his right side and one on his left side]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
robbers	bandits

ULT	UST
are being crucified	the soldiers nailed … to crosses

Matthew 27:39

ULT	UST
But the ones passing by were blaspheming him, wagging their heads	The people who walked past Jesus insulted him by shaking their heads {at him}.

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Also,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT wagging their heads
UST by shaking their heads {at him}
(κινοῦντες τὰς κεφαλὰς αὐτῶν)

The people's action of wagging their heads at Jesus showed that they felt disdain for him and that they disapproved of him. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a gesture with a similar meaning in your culture, or you could indicate what the gesture means. Alternate translation: [showing disdain for him by wagging their heads] or [wagging their heads to mock him]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
were blaspheming	insulted

Matthew 27:40

ULT	UST
and saying, "The one destroying the temple and in three days rebuilding {it}, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, also come down from the cross!"	They said {to him}, "You said that you could tear down God's temple and construct it again within three days. So, rescue yourself! Show us that you really are God's Son. Get down from that cross!"

ULT saying
UST They said {to him}
(λέγοντες)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [mocking him]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT The one destroying the temple and in three days rebuilding {it}
UST You said that you could tear down God's temple and construct it again within three days
(ὁ καταλύων τὸν ναὸν καὶ ἐν τρισὶν ἡμέραις οἰκοδομῶν)

The people refer to Jesus by what the false witnesses testified during his trial that he had said. If it would be helpful in your language, you could indicate more explicitly that the people are describing Jesus. Alternate translation: [You who said that you would destroy the temple and in three days rebuild it]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT in three days
UST within three days
(ἐν τρισὶν ἡμέραις)

The phrase in three days refers to a time period made up of three days. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you translated this phrase in 26:61. Alternate translation: [during a period of three days]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT If you are the Son of God, also come down from the cross
UST Show us that you really are God's Son. Get down from that cross (εἰ υἱὸς εἶ τοῦ Θεοῦ, καὶ κατάβηθι ἀπὸ τοῦ σταυροῦ)

The people are suggesting that this is a hypothetical condition, that Jesus could only come down from the cross if he were the Son of God. The people are speaking as if it is uncertain who Jesus is in order to challenge him to do something to prove that he really is the Son of God. Use a natural form in your language for introducing something that could be true. Alternate translation: [Prove that you are the Son of God by coming down from the cross]

Support Reference: Connect — Hypothetical Conditions

ULT the Son of God
UST God's Son
(υἱὸς & τοῦ Θεοῦ)

Son of God is an important title for Jesus that describes his relationship with God the Father.

Support Reference: Translating Son and Father

ULT come down
UST Get down
(κατάβηθι)

In a context such as this, your language might say "go" instead of come. Alternate translation: [go down]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
temple	God's temple
days	days
save	So, rescue
the Son	Son
of God	God's
cross	that cross

Matthew 27:41

ULT	UST
Likewise also the chief priests, mocking {him} with the scribes and elders, were saying,	Similarly, the ruling priests, the teachers of the Jewish law, and the {Jewish} leaders made fun of Jesus. They declared,

(There are no notes for this verse)

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
chief priests	ruling priests
mocking {him}	made fun of Jesus
scribes	the teachers of the Jewish law
elders	the {Jewish} leaders

Matthew 27:42

ULT	UST
“He saved others; he is not able to save himself. He is the King of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him.	“He has rescued other people. However, he cannot rescue himself! He {says that he} is king over the people of Israel. So, he should get down now from that cross. Then we will trust him!

ULT He saved others
UST He has rescued other people
(ἄλλους ἔσωσεν)

In context, the Jewish leaders are implicitly referring to how Jesus saved others by healing their diseases, releasing them from demon-possession, and saving them from other physical problems. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [He saved others by curing or exorcising them]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT others
UST other people
(ἄλλους)

The Jewish leaders are using the adjective others as a noun to mean other people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [other men and women]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT He is the King of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him
UST He {says that he} is king over the people of Israel. So, he should get down now from that cross. Then we will trust him
(Βασιλεὺς Ἰσραήλ ἐστιν, καταβάτω νῦν ἀπὸ τοῦ σταυροῦ, καὶ πιστεύσομεν ἐπ᾽ αὐτόν)

The Jewish leaders use what they think is an imaginary situation to prove that Jesus is not really the King of Israel. Use a natural method in your language for introducing an imaginary situation. Alternate translation: [Imagine he really was the King of Israel. In that case, he should come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him] or [If he is the King of Israel, let him come down now from the cross. Then, we will believe in him]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT He is the King of Israel
UST He {says that he} is king over the people of Israel
(Βασιλεὺς Ἰσραήλ ἐστιν)

The Jewish leaders mock Jesus by speaking about him as if he were the King of Israel when they do not believe that he actually is. They actually mean to communicate the opposite of the literal meaning of their words, as Matthew indicated when he says that they mocked him (see 27:41). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a form that indicates that this is irony. Alternate translation: [He is the so-called King of Israel] or [He thinks he is the King of Israel]

Support Reference: Irony

ULT Let him come down
UST So, he should get down
(καταβάτω)

If your language does not use the third-person imperative in this way, you could state this in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [He must come down]

Support Reference: Third-Person Imperatives

ULT Let him come down
UST So, he should get down
(καταβάτω)

In a context such as this, your language might say “go” instead of come. Alternate translation: [Let him go down]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
He saved	He has rescued
to save	rescue
the King	king
of Israel	over the people of Israel
cross	that cross
we will believe	we will trust

Matthew 27:43

ULT	UST
He has trusted in God; let him deliver {him} now, if he wants him. For he said, 'I am the Son of God.'"	He says that he is God's Son and that he relies on God. However, if God really wanted to do so, he would protect him right now."

ULT He has trusted in God; let him deliver {him} now, if he wants him. For he said, 'I am the Son of God
UST He says … he is God's Son and that he relies on God. However, if God really wanted to do so, he would protect him right now
(πέποιθεν ἐπὶ τὸν Θεόν, ῥυσάσθω νῦν εἰ θέλει αὐτόν. εἶπεν γὰρ & Θεοῦ εἰμι Υἱός)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these sentences, since the last sentence gives the reason for the result that the first sentence describes. Alternate translation: [He said, 'I am the Son of God.' So, since he has trusted in God, let God deliver him now, if he wants him]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT He has trusted in God; let him deliver {him} now, if he wants him
UST and that he relies on God. However, if God really wanted to do so, he would protect him right now (πέποιθεν ἐπὶ τὸν Θεόν, ῥυσάσθω νῦν εἰ θέλει αὐτόν)

The Jewish leaders use what they think is an imaginary situation to prove that God does not really protect or want Jesus. Use a natural method in your language for introducing an imaginary situation. Alternate translation: [Imagine he really trusted in God and that God really wanted him. In that case, God would deliver him now] or [If he has trusted in God and if God wants him, let God rescue him now]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT let him deliver {him}
UST he would protect him
(ῥυσάσθω)

If your language does not use the third-person imperative in this way, you could state this in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [he must rescue him]

Support Reference: Third-Person Imperatives

ULT he said, ‘I am the Son of God
UST He says … he is God’s Son
(εἶπεν & Θεοῦ εἰμι Υἱός)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [he said that he was the Son of God]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT the Son of God
UST God’s Son
(Θεοῦ & Υἱός)

Son of God is an important title for Jesus that describes his relationship with God the Father.

Support Reference: Translating Son and Father

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
He has trusted	and that he relies
God	God
let him deliver {him}	he would protect him
the Son	Son
of God	God’s

Matthew 27:44

ULT	UST
But also the robbers having being crucified with him were reviling him the same.	The two bandits whom the soldiers had nailed to crosses near Jesus also insulted him in similar ways.

ULT But
(δ’)

The word But introduces something else that was happening. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces another action, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [At the same time,] or [Even more,]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT having being crucified
UST whom the soldiers had nailed to crosses
(οἱ συνσταυρωθέντες)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the soldiers. Alternate translation: [whom Pilate’s soldiers were crucifying]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the same
UST in similar ways
(τὸ & αὐτὸ)

The phrase the same indicates that the robbers used the same kind of insults that the Jewish leaders did. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [with the same insults]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
robbers	two bandits
having being crucified	whom the soldiers had nailed to crosses
were reviling	insulted

Matthew 27:45

ULT	UST
Now from the sixth hour, darkness happened over all the land until the ninth hour.	At noon, it became dark in that whole area. {It stayed dark} until three o'clock in the afternoon.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the sixth hour … the ninth hour
UST noon … three o'clock in the afternoon
(ἕκτης ὥρας & ὥρας ἐνάτης)

In this culture, people began counting the hours each day beginning around daybreak, at six o'clock in the morning. So, the sixth hour would be around noon, and the ninth hour would be around three o'clock in the afternoon. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express this in the way the people of your culture reckon time. See how you translated these time references in 20:5. Alternate translation: [about 12:00 PM … about 3:00 PM]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the sixth hour … the ninth hour
UST noon … three o'clock in the afternoon
(ἕκτης ὥρας & ὥρας ἐνάτης)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use cardinal numbers here or equivalent expressions. Alternate translation: [hour six … hour nine]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

ULT darkness happened
UST it became dark
(σκότος ἐγένετο)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of darkness, you could express it in a different way. Alternate translation: [the sky darkened] or [the light dimmed]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT over all the land
UST in that whole area
(ἐπὶ πᾶσαν τὴν γῆν)

Here, all the land could refer to: (1) the entire area around where Jesus was crucified. This could include just the city of Jerusalem or all of Palestine. Alternate translation: [over all that region]; (2) the entire earth. Alternate translation: [over the whole earth]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
the … hour	noon
the … hour	three o’clock in the afternoon

Matthew 27:46

ULT	UST
But about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" This is, "My God, my God, why did you forsake me?"	At about three o'clock in the afternoon, Jesus shouted, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" That means, "My God, my God, why did you abandon me?"

ULT But
UST At about
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the ninth hour
UST three o'clock in the afternoon
(τὴν ἐνάτην ὥραν)

See how you translated the ninth hour in 27:45. Alternate translation: [3:00 PM]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the ninth hour
UST three o'clock in the afternoon
(τὴν ἐνάτην ὥραν)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [hour nine]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

ULT cried out with a loud voice
UST shouted
(ἀνεβόησεν & φωνῇ μεγάλῃ)

The phrase cried out with a loud voice means Jesus raised the volume of his voice. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [yelled loudly]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT saying
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani
UST Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani
(Ἐλωΐ, Ἐλωΐ, λεμὰ σαβαχθάνει)

This phrase is what Jesus cried out in Aramaic. Matthew has spelled the words out using Greek letters so his readers would know how they sounded. Since Matthew states what these words mean later in the verse, you also should spell them out the way they sound in your language.

Support Reference: Copy or Borrow Words

ULT This is
UST That means
(τοῦτ' ἔστιν)

Matthew uses the phrase This is to introduce what the Aramaic words means. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Those words can be translated this way:] or [Here is what that means:]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
hour	three o'clock in the afternoon
Jesus	Jesus
cried out	shouted
God	God
God	God
did you forsake	did you abandon

Matthew 27:47

ULT	UST
But some of the ones having stood there, having heard {it}, were saying, "This one calls Elijah."	Some people who were there heard {what Jesus said and misunderstood it}. They said, "He is speaking to the prophet Elijah!"

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT having heard {it}
UST heard {what Jesus said and misunderstood it}
(ἀκούσαντες)

Matthew implies that the people did not understand what Jesus said. They heard him say "Eli," which means "My God," but they thought it sounded like the name Elijah. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state more explicitly that these people misunderstood Jesus. Alternate translation: [having heard Jesus speaking without understanding him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
calls	is speaking to
Elijah	the prophet Elijah

Matthew 27:48

ULT	UST
And immediately one of them, having run and having taken a sponge, having both filled {it} with vinegar and put {it} around a reed, gave {it} to him to drink.	As soon as they said that, one person quickly went to get a sponge. He soaked it in sour wine and attached it to the top of a staff. Then, he held it up to Jesus so that Jesus could suck {the sour wine} from it.

ULT a sponge
UST a sponge
(σπόγγον)

A sponge is a soft, porous object that can soak up and hold liquid; the liquid comes out of it when the sponge is squeezed. If your readers would not be familiar with this object, you could use the name of something your readers would use for soaking up liquid, or you could use a general expression. Alternate translation: [something to soak up liquid]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT with vinegar
UST in sour wine
(ὄξους)

Here, vinegar refers to the inexpensive and sour wine that common people in Jesus' culture would usually drink. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of beverage, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [with cheap wine] or [with an inexpensive alcoholic beverage]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT put {it} around a reed, gave {it} to him to drink
UST attached it to the top of a staff. Then, he held it up to Jesus so that Jesus could suck {the sour wine} from it (περιθεὶς καλάμῳ, ἐπότιζεν αὐτόν)

The person put the sponge on a reed, or long stick, so that he could hold the sponge up to Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [having put it around a reed, he used the reed to lift the sponge up to Jesus to give it to him to drink]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
a reed	the top of a staff

Matthew 27:49

ULT	UST
But the rest were saying, "Leave {him}! Let us see if Elijah comes, saving him."	Then the other people there said, "Do not do anything else for him! We should wait to find out whether Elijah appears to rescue him."

ULT But
UST Then
(δὲ)

The word But introduces what the rest of the people who were there did in contrast with how one person gave Jesus some sour wine. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [In contrast,] or [However,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT the rest
UST the other people there
(οἱ & λοιποὶ)

Matthew is using the adjective rest as a noun to mean the rest of the people who were there. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the rest of the people who were watching]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT Leave {him}
UST Do not do anything else for him
(ἄφες)

The clause Leave {him} means that the person who gave Jesus the sour wine should stop doing things to and for Jesus. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Ignore him] or [Stop doing things for him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT comes, saving him
> UST appears to rescue him
> (ἔρχεται & σώσων αὐτόν)

The phrase saving him indicates the purpose for which Elijah would come. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a purpose. Alternate translation: [comes in order to save him]

Support Reference: Connect — Goal (Purpose) Relationship

> ULT comes
> UST appears
> (ἔρχεται)

In a context such as this, your language might say “goes” instead of comes. Alternate translation: [goes]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Elijah	Elijah
saving	to rescue

Matthew 27:50

ULT	UST
But Jesus, having cried out again with a loud voice, released his spirit.	After that, Jesus shouted loudly again. Then, he died.

ULT But
UST After that
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT having cried out again with a loud voice
UST shouted loudly again
(πάλιν κράξας φωνῇ μεγάλῃ)

The phrase cried out again with a loud voice means Jesus raised the volume of his voice again. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you translated the similar phrase in 27:46. Alternate translation: [having yelled loudly]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT released his spirit
UST Then, he died
(ἀφῆκεν τὸ πνεῦμα)

The phrase released his spirit could: (1) simply indicate that Jesus died. In this case, the phrase is a polite way to refer to death. Alternate translation: [breathed his last] or [expired]; (2) mean that Jesus voluntarily chose to die at this moment. In this case, Matthew is saying that Jesus died and also that he chose to die. Alternate translation: [allowed himself to die] or [willingly died]

Support Reference: Euphemism

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
having cried out	shouted

ULT	UST
spirit	Then, he died

Matthew 27:51

ULT	UST
And behold, the curtain of the temple was split in two from top to bottom, and the earth was shaken, and the rocks were split.	Then the drape hanging {in front of the Most Holy Place} in the temple ripped in half. It tore from the top down to the bottom. Also, the earth quaked, and rocks broke apart.

ULT behold
UST Then
(ἰδοὺ)

The word behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to listen, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [see] or [suddenly]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT the curtain of the temple was split in two from top to bottom, and the earth was shaken, and the rocks were split
UST the drape hanging {in front of the Most Holy Place} in the temple ripped in half. It tore from the top down to the bottom. Also, the earth quaked, and rocks broke apart (τὸ καταπέτασμα τοῦ ναοῦ ἐσχίσθη εἰς δύο, ἀπ' ἄνωθεν ἕως κάτω, καὶ ἡ γῆ ἐσείσθη, καὶ αἱ πέτραι ἐσχίσθησαν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the actions, it is clear from the context that it was God. Alternate translation: [God split the curtain of the temple in two from top to bottom, and he shook the earth, and he split the rocks]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the curtain of the temple
UST the drape hanging {in front of the Most Holy Place} in the temple
(τὸ καταπέτασμα τοῦ ναοῦ)

Matthew could referring to the curtain: (1) that separated the Most Holy Place from the rest of the temple. Alternate translation: [the curtain that marked off the Most Holy Place in the temple]; (2) that separated the Holy Place from the rest of the temple area. Alternate translation: [the curtain that marked off the temple building]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the rocks
UST rocks
(αἱ πέτραι)

The phrase the rocks represents nearby rocks in general, not one particular set of rocks. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the nearby rocks] or [many rocks]

Support Reference: Generic Noun Phrases

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
curtain	drape hanging {in front of the Most Holy Place}
of the temple	in the temple earth	earth
was shaken	quaked

Matthew 27:52

ULT	UST
And the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints having fallen asleep were raised.	Also, graves opened, and God made many of his people who had died alive again.

ULT the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints having fallen asleep were raised
UST graves opened, and God made many of his people who had died alive again
(τὰ μνημεῖα ἀνεῴχθησαν, καὶ πολλὰ σώματα τῶν κεκοιμημένων ἁγίων ἠγέρθη)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the actions, it is clear from the context that it was God. Alternate translation: [God opened the tombs, and he raised many bodies of the saints having fallen asleep]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the tombs
UST graves
(τὰ μνημεῖα)

The phrase the tombs represents nearby tombs in general, not one particular set of tombs. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express the idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the nearby tombs] or [many tombs]

Support Reference: Generic Noun Phrases

ULT many bodies of the saints having fallen asleep were raised
UST God made many of his people who had died alive again
(πολλὰ σώματα τῶν κεκοιμημένων ἁγίων ἠγέρθη)

Matthew does not just mean that bodies were raised, but rather, that people as a whole were raised. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [many of the saints having fallen asleep were raised]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT saints
UST of his people
(ἁγίων)

The word saints could refer to: (1) anyone who was part of God's people. Alternate translation: [God's people]; (2) people who were particularly holy or righteous. Alternate translation: [holy people] or [righteous people]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT having fallen asleep
UST who had died
(κεκοιμημένων)

The phrase fallen asleep refers politely to people dying. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a form that politely refers to a person dying, or you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [having passed away] or [having perished]

Support Reference: Euphemism

ULT were raised
UST God made … alive again
(ἠγέρθη)

The word raised refers to people who died coming back to life. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable word or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [were restored to life]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
tombs	graves
saints	of his people

Matthew 27:53

ULT	UST
And having come out from the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many.	After God made Jesus alive again, those people left their graves. They went into {Jerusalem,} the sacred city. Many people saw them there.

ULT having come out from the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city
UST After God made Jesus alive again, those people left their graves. They went into {Jerusalem,} the sacred city (ἐξελθόντες ἐκ τῶν μνημείων μετὰ τὴν ἔγερσιν αὐτοῦ, εἰσῆλθον εἰς τὴν ἁγίαν πόλιν)

The phrase after his resurrection could go with: (1) having come out from the tombs. In this case, the resurrected people did not leave their tombs until after Jesus' resurrection. Alternate translation: [after his resurrection having out from the tombs, they entered into the holy city]; (2) they entered into the holy city. In this case, the resurrected people left their tombs right away but did not enter into the holy city until after Jesus' resurrection. Alternate translation: [having come out from the tombs, they entered into the holy city after his resurrection]

Support Reference: Information Structure

ULT having come out
UST those people left
(ἐξελθόντες)

In a context such as this, your language might say "gone" instead of come. Alternate translation: [having gone out]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT after his resurrection
UST After God made Jesus alive again
(μετὰ τὴν ἔγερσιν αὐτοῦ)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of resurrection, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [after he resurrected]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT to many
UST Many people
(πολλοῖς)

Matthew is using the adjective many as a noun to mean many people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [to many men and women]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
tombs	their graves
resurrection	God made … alive again
holy	{Jerusalem,} the sacred city
holy city	{Jerusalem,} the sacred city

Matthew 27:54

ULT	UST
Now the centurion and the ones with him guarding Jesus, having seen the earthquake and the things having happened, were very afraid, saying, "Truly this was a Son of God."	The Roman officer and his soldiers, who were making sure that Jesus died, saw the earth quaking and the other things that happened. They became extremely afraid. They declared, "This man really was God's Son."

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT the ones with him guarding Jesus
UST his soldiers, who were making sure that Jesus died
(οἱ μετ' αὐτοῦ τηροῦντες τὸν Ἰησοῦν)

Matthew implies that the soldiers were guarding Jesus to prevent anyone from rescuing him. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you expressed the similar idea in 27:36. Alternate translation: [the ones with him guarding Jesus to prevent anyone from rescuing him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT saying
UST They declared
(λέγοντες)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT a Son of God
UST God's Son
(Θεοῦ Υἱὸς)

Son of God is an important title for Jesus that describes his relationship with God the Father.

Support Reference: Translating Son and Father

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
centurion	Roman officer
guarding	who were making sure that … died
Jesus	Jesus
were … afraid	They became … afraid
a Son of God	God’s Son

Matthew 27:55

ULT	UST
Now there were many women there, watching from a distance, who followed Jesus from Galilee, serving him.	{While all that was happening,} many women were there. They had come with Jesus from the region of Galilee. They were the ones who had taken care of him. These women observed {what was happening} from farther away.

ULT Now
UST While all that was happening
(δὲ)

Matthew uses the word Now to introduce background information that will help readers understand what happens later in the story. The word does not introduce the next event in the story. Use a natural form in your language for introducing background information. Alternate translation: [Meanwhile,] or [During all those things,]

Support Reference: Background Information

ULT followed Jesus
UST had come with Jesus
(ἠκολούθησαν τῷ Ἰησοῦ)

The phrase followed Jesus could indicate that: (1) the women had traveled with Jesus and were his disciples. Alternate translation: [traveled with Jesus as his students]; (2) the women walked with Jesus on the road. Alternate translation: [walked with Jesus] or [went with Jesus]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
Galilee	the region of Galilee
serving	They were the ones who had taken care

Matthew 27:56

ULT	UST
Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.	These women included Mary from the town of Magdala, another Mary who was the mother of James and Joseph, and Zebedee's wife.

ULT and Mary the mother
UST another Mary who was the mother
(καὶ Μαρία ἡ & μήτηρ)

The word Mary is the name of a woman. This Mary was not Mary Magdalene nor Mary, the mother of Jesus. Matthew identifies her instead as the mother of James and Joseph.

Support Reference: How to Translate Names

ULT of James … Joseph
UST of James … Joseph
(τοῦ Ἰακώβου & Ἰωσὴφ)

The word James is the name of a man. This James is not James, the brother of Jesus, James, son of Zebedee, or James, son of Alphaeus. The word Joseph is also the name of a man. This Joseph is not Jesus' father, Jesus' brother, or Joseph of Arimathea.

Support Reference: How to Translate Names

ULT of the sons of Zebedee
UST Zebedee's wife
(τῶν υἱῶν Ζεβεδαίου)

Matthew refers to James and John, who were the sons of Zebedee. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you translated the similar phrase in 20:20. Alternate translation: [of James and John, the sons of Zebedee]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Mary Magdalene	Mary from the town of Magdala
of Zebedee	Zebedee's wife

Matthew 27:57

ULT	UST
Now evening having come, a rich man from Arimathea came, Joseph by name, who also himself was discipled by Jesus.	When it was evening, a wealthy man arrived. His name was Joseph, and he was from the city of Arimathea. He too was one of Jesus' apprentices.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next major event in the story. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Later on,]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT a rich man from Arimathea came, Joseph by name, who also himself was discipled by Jesus
UST a wealthy man arrived. His name was Joseph, and he was from the city of Arimathea. He too was one of Jesus' apprentices
(ἦλθεν ἄνθρωπος πλούσιος ἀπὸ Ἁριμαθαίας, τοὔνομα Ἰωσήφ, ὃς καὶ αὐτὸς ἐμαθητεύθη τῷ Ἰησοῦ)

Matthew is here introducing this Joseph as a new participant in the story. If your language has its own way of introducing new participants, you could use it here in your translation. Alternate translation: [a man named Joseph came. He was from Arimathea, and he was rich. He also himself was discipled by Jesus]

Support Reference: Introduction of New and Old Participants

ULT came
UST arrived
(ἦλθεν)

In a context such as this, your language might say "went" instead of came. Alternate translation: [went]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT Arimathea … Joseph
UST Joseph … the city of Arimathea
(Ἀριμαθαίας & Ἰωσήφ)

The word Joseph is the name of a man, and the word Arimathea is the name of the city he was from.

Support Reference: How to Translate Names

ULT Joseph by name
UST His name was Joseph
(τοὔνομα Ἰωσήφ)

Alternate translation: [who was called Joseph]

ULT who also himself was discipled by Jesus
UST He too was one of Jesus' apprentices
(ὃς καὶ αὐτὸς ἐμαθητεύθη τῷ Ἰησοῦ)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [whom also Jesus had discipled]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
was discipled	was one of Jesus' apprentices
by Jesus	was one of Jesus' apprentices

Matthew 27:58

ULT	UST
This one, having approached Pilate, asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded {it} to be given {to him}.	Joseph went to Pilate. He asked Pilate to allow him to take the body of Jesus {to bury it}. So, Pilate told {his soldiers} to give {him the body}.

ULT asked for the body of Jesus
UST He asked Pilate to allow him to take the body of Jesus {to bury it}
(ἠτήσατο τὸ σῶμα τοῦ Ἰησοῦ)

The reason that Joseph asked Pilate for the body of Jesus was so that he could bury it. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [asked for the body of Jesus so that he could bury it]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT it} to be given {to him}
UST his soldiers} to give {him the body}
(ἀποδοθῆναι)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who would do the action, it is clear from the context that it would be Pilate's soldiers. Alternate translation: [the soldiers to give it to him]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Pilate	to Pilate
of Jesus	of Jesus
Pilate	Pilate

Matthew 27:59

ULT	UST
And Joseph, having taken the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,	So Joseph received Jesus' body. He {prepared to bury it by} winding a fresh sheet of cloth around it.

> ULT wrapped it in a clean linen cloth
> UST He {prepared to bury it by} winding a fresh sheet of cloth around it > (ἐνετύλιξεν αὐτὸ σινδόνι καθαρᾷ)

This was the burial custom in this culture. If your readers would not be familiar with such a custom, you could indicate that more explicitly, or you could use a general expression. Alternate translation: [wrapped it in a clean linen burial cloth] or [prepared it for burial]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

> ULT in a clean linen cloth
> UST a fresh sheet of cloth
> (σινδόνι καθαρᾷ)

The term linen cloth refers to a high quality cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant. If your readers would be unfamiliar with linen, you could use a general expression. Alternate translation: [in a clean, fine cloth]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

Matthew 27:60

ULT	UST
and put it in his own new tomb, which he had cut in the rock. And having rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, he went away.	Then, Joseph put Jesus' body into Joseph's own fresh grave. Joseph's workers had made it by digging into a rock cliff. After that, Joseph rolled a huge flat stone to block the entrance to the grave. Then he left.

ULT which he had cut in the rock
UST Joseph's workers had made it by digging into a rock cliff
(ὃ ἐλατόμησεν ἐν τῇ πέτρᾳ)

Matthew implies that Joseph had hired people to cut the tomb in the rock. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [which he had had people cut in the rock]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT he had cut in the rock
UST Joseph's workers had made … by digging into a rock cliff
(ἐλατόμησεν ἐν τῇ πέτρᾳ)

Matthew means specifically a burial place that had been cut or chiseled out of rock, most likely into the face of a cliff. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of burial place, you could use the name of something similar in your area or you could use a more general term. Alternate translation: [which had been chiseled into the rock] or [which had been specially prepared]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

ULT having rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb
UST Joseph rolled a huge flat stone to block the entrance to the grave
(προσκυλίσας λίθον μέγαν τῇ θύρᾳ τοῦ μνημείου)

Matthew implies that Joseph rolled the large stone to close up the tomb. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [having rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb to close it up]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
tomb	grave

ULT	UST
of the tomb	to the grave

Matthew 27:61

ULT	UST
Now Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.	{While Joseph was doing those things}, Mary from the town of Magdala and the other woman whose name was Mary were there in front of the grave.

ULT Now
UST While Joseph was doing those things
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces something that was happening at the same time as what Matthew narrated in the previous verse (Joseph burying Jesus' body). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces a simultaneous action, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Meanwhile,] or [While that was happening,]

Support Reference: Connect — Simultaneous Time Relationship

ULT the other Mary
UST the other woman whose name was Mary
(ἡ ἄλλη Μαρία)

Matthew implies that this is the other woman, also called Mary, whom he mentioned in 27:56 as the mother of James and Joseph. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the other Mary, the mother of James and Joseph,]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT opposite
UST in front of (ἀπέναντι)

The word opposite means that Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were directly in front of the tomb. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [before] or [facing]

Support Reference: Idiom

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Mary Magdalene	Mary from the town of Magdala
tomb	grave

Matthew 27:62

ULT	UST
Now the next day, which is after the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate,	The next day was {the Jewish day of rest,} the day after Preparation Day. {On that day,} the ruling priests and the Pharisees assembled {to meet} with Pilate.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next major event in the story. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then,] or [After all that,]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT the next day, which is after the Day of Preparation
UST The next day was {the Jewish day of rest,} the day after Preparation Day
(τῇ & ἐπαύριον, ἥτις ἐστὶν μετὰ τὴν παρασκευήν)

Here, the Day of Preparation refers to the day before the Sabbath, on which Jews would prepare for the Sabbath so that they would not have to do work on that day. So, the next day here refers to the Sabbath. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the next day, which was after the day on which Jews prepared for the Sabbath] or [the next day, which was the Sabbath]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT were gathered together
UST assembled
(συνήχθησαν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [gathered] or [came together]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
chief priests	{On that day,} the ruling priests
Pharisees	Pharisees
were gathered together	assembled

ULT	UST
Pilate	Pilate

Matthew 27:63

ULT	UST
saying, “Lord, we remember that that deceiver said, still living, ‘After three days I am being raised up.’	They said, “Sir, we can recall something that {Jesus,} that man who deceived {others,} said while he was still alive. He claimed that during the third day {after he died}, God would make him alive again.

ULT saying
UST They said
(λέγοντες)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they told him]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT Lord
UST Sir
(κύριε)

In Jesus’ culture, the word Lord was a polite way for subjects to address their governor. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that is a polite way to address a governor or leader in your culture. Alternate translation: [Honorable sir]

Support Reference: Politeness

ULT that deceiver
UST Jesus,} that man who deceived {others … }
(ἐκεῖνος ὁ πλάνος)

The chief priests and Pharisees imply that they are speaking about Jesus, whom they call a deceiver. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [that deceiver, Jesus,]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT said, still living, ‘After three days I am being raised up
> UST said while he was still alive. He claimed that during the third day {after he died}, God would make him alive again > (εἶπεν ἔτι ζῶν, μετὰ τρεῖς ἡμέρας ἐγείρομαι)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [said, still living, that after three days he is being raised up]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

> ULT After three days
> UST He claimed that during the third day {after he died}
> (μετὰ τρεῖς ἡμέρας)

Jesus was referring to three days after he died. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Three days after my death]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT I am being raised up
> UST God would make him alive again
> (ἐγείρομαι)

The Jewish leaders quote Jesus using the present tense to refer to a future event that he considered to be certain. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you can use the future tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [I will be raised up]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

> ULT I am being raised up
> UST God would make him alive again
> (ἐγείρομαι)

The word raised refers to someone who died and then came back to life. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable word or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [I am being restored to life]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT I am being raised up
UST God would make him alive again
(ἐγείρομαι)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who will do the action, Jesus could be implying that: (1) God will do it. Alternate translation: [God is raising me up]; (2) Jesus himself will do it. Alternate translation: [I am raising myself up]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Lord	Sir
deceiver	who deceived {others … }
days	He claimed that during the third day {after he died}

Matthew 27:64

ULT	UST
Therefore, command the tomb to be secured until the third day, lest his disciples, having come, might steal him and say to the people, 'He has been raised up from the dead,' and the last deception will be worse than the first."	So, please tell your soldiers to protect Jesus' grave for the next three days. That way, his apprentices cannot go there, remove his corpse, and tell people that God had made him alive again. If they succeed in deceiving people {in this way}, it will be more dangerous than how Jesus himself deceived people."

ULT command
UST please tell
(κέλευσον)

This is an imperative, but it should be translated as a polite request rather than as a command. It may be helpful to add an expression such as "please" to make this clear. Alternate translation: [we ask that you command]

Support Reference: Imperatives — Other Uses

ULT the tomb to be secured
UST your soldiers to protect Jesus' grave
(ἀσφαλισθῆναι τὸν τάφον)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who would do the action, it is clear from the context that it would be Pilate's soldiers. Alternate translation: [soldiers to secure the tomb]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT until the third day
UST for the next three days
(ἕως τῆς τρίτης ἡμέρας)

The phrase until the third day means that the tomb should be secured that day, the following day, and the day after that. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [through the third day from now] or [today, tomorrow, and the day after tomorrow]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT the third day
> UST three days
> (τῆς τρίτης ἡμέρας)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you can use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [day three]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

> ULT having come
> UST go there
> (ἐλθόντες)

Your language may say "gone" rather than come in contexts such as this. Use whichever is more natural. Alternate translation: [having gone]

Support Reference: Go and Come

> ULT having come
> UST go there
> (ἐλθόντες)

The Jewish leaders imply here that Jesus' disciples might come to the tomb in which Jesus was buried. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [having come to Jesus' tomb]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT say to the people, 'He has been raised up from the dead,' and > UST tell people that God had made him alive again
> (εἴπωσιν τῷ λαῷ, ἠγέρθη ἀπὸ τῶν νεκρῶν; καὶ)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [say to the people that he has been raised up from the dead, and]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

> ULT He has been raised up
> UST that God had made him alive again
> (ἠγέρθη)

The word raised refers to someone who died and then came back to life. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable idiom or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [He has been restored to life]

Support Reference: Idiom

> ULT He has been raised up
> UST that God had made him alive again
> (ἠγέρθη)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, the chief priests and Pharisees could be indicating that the disciples will claim that: (1) God did it. Alternate translation: [God has raised him up]; (2) Jesus himself did it. Alternate translation: [He has raised himself up]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT from the dead
> UST that God had made him alive again
> (ἀπὸ τῶν νεκρῶν)

Matthew is using the adjective dead as a noun in order to refer to people who are dead. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this with a noun phrase. Alternate translation: [from among the dead people] or [from the corpses]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT the last deception will be worse than the first
UST If they succeed in deceiving people {in this way}, it will be more dangerous than how Jesus himself deceived people
(ἔσται ἡ ἐσχάτη πλάνη χείρων τῆς πρώτης)

The phrase the last deception refers to what the chief priests and Pharisees have just suggested that Jesus' disciples might do. The phrase the first refers to Jesus' teaching, which the chief priests and Pharisees considered to be deceptive. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [this last deception accomplished by his disciples will be worse than the first one accomplished by his teaching]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the last deception
UST If they succeed in deceiving people {in this way}
(ἡ ἐσχάτη πλάνη)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of deception, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [the last time the people are deceived]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT the first
UST than how Jesus himself deceived people
(τῆς πρώτης)

The chief priests and Pharisees are leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [the first deception]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

ULT the first
UST than how Jesus himself deceived people
(τῆς πρώτης)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [the earlier] or [number one]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
tomb	Jesus' grave
day	days

ULT	UST
disciples	apprentices
deception	If they succeed in deceiving people {in this way}

Matthew 27:65

ULT	UST
And Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go, secure {it} as you know."	Pilate told them, "Take with you some soldiers. Walk {to the grave and} protect it as well as you can."

ULT You have a guard
UST Take with you some soldiers
(ἔχετε κουστωδίαν)

Pilate could be using the statement You have a guard to: (1) give the chief priests and Pharisees permission to take a guard of Roman soldiers with them. Alternate translation: [You may take a Roman guard]; (2) tell the chief priests and Pharisees that they already have their own guard that they should use. Alternate translation: [You already have your own guard]

Support Reference: Statements — Other Uses

ULT a guard
UST some soldiers
(κουστωδίαν)

In this verse, the word guard is singular in form, but it refers to multiple soldiers or guards as a group. If it would be helpful in your language, you could say this plainly. Alternate translation: [some guards] or [soldiers to act as guards]

Support Reference: Collective Nouns

ULT You have … Go, secure {it} as you know
UST Take with you … Walk {to the grave and} protect it as well as you can (ἔχετε & ὑπάγετε ἀσφαλίσασθε ὡς οἴδατε)

Since Pilate is speaking to the chief priests and Pharisees, the words You and you and the commands Go and secure {it} are plural.

Support Reference: Forms of 'You' — Singular

ULT Go
UST Walk {to the grave … }
(ὑπάγετε)

Pilate implies that they should Go to Jesus' tomb. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Go to his tomb]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT as you know
UST as well as you can (ὡς οἴδατε)

The phrase as you know indicates that Pilate wants the chief priests and Pharisees to secure the tomb in whatever ways they know are effective. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [as best as you can] or [in whatever way you think is best]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Pilate	Pilate
you know	you can

Matthew 27:66

ULT	UST
And they, having gone, secured the tomb, having sealed the stone, with the guard.	So, they went {to Jesus' grave and} protected it. They marked the huge flat stone {that blocked the entrance. That way, they would know if anyone moved it}. Also, they left some soldiers there to make sure {that no one opened the grave}.

ULT having gone
UST went {to Jesus' grave … }
(πορευθέντες)

In a context such as this, your language might say "come" instead of gone. Alternate translation: [having come]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT having sealed the stone
UST They marked the huge flat stone {that blocked the entrance. That way, they would know if anyone moved it}
(σφραγίσαντες τὸν λίθον)

Matthew means that a seal was put on the stone that covered the entrance of Jesus' tomb. The seal would break if someone moved the stone, thus indicating that the stone had been moved. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [having placed a seal on the stone that closed the tomb]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT with the guard
UST Also, they left some soldiers there to make sure {that no one opened the grave}
(μετὰ τῆς κουστωδίας)

Matthew means that the chief priests and Pharisees left the guard at the tomb to help secure it. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [and having stationed the guard there]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT the guard
> UST some soldiers there to make sure {that no one opened the grave}
> (τῆς κουστωδίας)

See how you translated guard in 27:65. Alternate translation: [the guards] or [the soldiers who were acting as guards]

Support Reference: Collective Nouns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
tomb	it
having sealed	They marked … That way, they would know if anyone moved it

Matthew 28

Matthew 28 Chapter Introduction

Structure and Formatting

1. The crucifixion of Jesus, his death, and his resurrection (26:1–28:19)
    - Mary Magdalene and the other Mary learn that Jesus has resurrected (28:1–10)
    - The chief priests and elders spread a false story (28:11–15)
    - Jesus meets and commissions the 11 disciples (28:16–20)

Religious and Cultural Concepts in This Chapter

The resurrection

Matthew does not narrate the resurrection, but he does narrate how an angel opens the tomb so that people can tell that Jesus has risen from the dead. It is not clear exactly when Jesus actually rose from the dead, although it is clear that this happened before the angel opened the tomb. When Jesus rose from the dead, he was a living human being again, and he could never die again. Make sure that it is clear that Jesus came back to life as a living human being.

The false story about Jesus' resurrection

In 28:11–15, Matthew describes how the chief priests and the elders have the soldiers who were guarding the tomb spread a false story about what happened. The soldiers tell people that they fell asleep, and that Jesus' disciples stole his body while they were asleep. In 28:15, Matthew explains that he is telling this because the story was still circulating among Jewish people when he was writing this book. Make sure that it is clear to your readers that the chief priests and elders bribe the soldiers to spread this false story.

Discipling all the nations

The last two verses (28:19–20) are commonly known as "The Great Commission" because they contain a very important command given to all Christians. Christians are to "disciple" all the nations, which includes telling them the gospel, baptizing them, and teaching them to obey what Jesus commanded. Make sure that this command is as general as possible, including all Christians all "nations."

Translation Issues in This Chapter

Singular and plural forms of "you"

All the forms of "you" in this chapter appear in instructions given to groups of people. Because of this, all the forms of "you" in this chapter are plural. (See: Forms of 'You' — Singular)

The timing of the women's visit to the tomb

In 28:1, Matthew indicates that the women went to Jesus' tomb "after the Sabbath, at the dawning on the first of the week." The words translated in this way can be understood in several ways:

1. They could refer to the early morning (the "dawn") on the day after the Sabbath. This would be the first day of the week, Sunday. Further, the parallel stories in Mark 16:2 and Luke 24:1 similarly take place at dawn on Sunday. So, the ULT and UST follow this interpretation.

2. They could refer to a time late in the day on the Sabbath. In this case, the word "dawning" would refer to the beginning of a day, not to the sun coming up. Since people in Jesus' culture considered sunset to be the start of a new day, Matthew would be referring to evening on the Sabbath, right around the time when the next day, Sunday, would begin at sunset.

It is recommended that you follow the first interpretation unless there is a good reason to follow the second interpretation.

Matthew 28:1

ULT	UST
Now after the Sabbath, at the dawning on the first of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to watch the tomb.	When the Sabbath ended, at dawn on Sunday morning, Mary from the town of Magdala and the other woman whose name was Mary went to observe Jesus' tomb.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next major event in the story. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [After that,]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT after the Sabbath, at the dawning on the first of the week
UST When the Sabbath ended, at dawn on Sunday morning
(ὀψὲ & Σαββάτων, τῇ ἐπιφωσκούσῃ εἰς μίαν σαββάτων)

Matthew refers to early in the morning, when the day was dawning, on the day after the Sabbath, which would be Sunday. See the end of the chapter introduction for more information about these phrases. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make that idea more explicit. Alternate translation: [very early in the morning on the day after the Sabbath]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT the first
UST on Sunday morning
(μίαν)

Matthew is using the adjective first as a noun to mean the first day. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [the first day]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT the first
UST on Sunday morning
(μίαν)

If your language does not use ordinal numbers, you could use a cardinal number here or an equivalent expression. Alternate translation: [day one]

Support Reference: Ordinal Numbers

ULT the other Mary
UST the other woman whose name was Mary
(ἡ ἄλλη Μαρία)

Matthew implies that this is the other woman, also called Mary, whom he mentioned in 27:56 as the mother of James and Joseph. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. See how you expressed the idea in 27:61. Alternate translation: [the other Mary, the mother of James and Joseph,]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT came
UST went
(ἦλθεν)

In a context such as this, your language might say "went" instead of came. Alternate translation: [went]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
the Sabbath	the Sabbath
Mary Magdalene	Mary from the town of Magdala
tomb	Jesus' tomb

Matthew 28:2

ULT	UST
And behold, a great earthquake happened, for an angel of the Lord, having come down from heaven and having approached, rolled away the stone and was sitting on it.	Then the earth quaked violently! {That happened} because an angel from the Lord descended from heaven. He went to {Jesus' grave}. He rolled the flat stone away {from the entrance to the grave}. Then, he sat down on the stone.

ULT behold
(ἰδοὺ)

The word behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to listen, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [indeed] or [suddenly]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT a great earthquake happened, for an angel of the Lord, having come down from heaven and having approached, rolled away the stone and was sitting on it
UST the earth quaked violently! {That happened} because an angel from the Lord descended from heaven. He went to {Jesus' grave}. He rolled the flat stone away {from the entrance to the grave}. Then, he sat down on the stone
(σεισμὸς ἐγένετο μέγας; ἄγγελος γὰρ Κυρίου καταβὰς ἐξ οὐρανοῦ καὶ προσελθὼν, ἀπεκύλισε τὸν λίθον καὶ ἐκάθητο ἐπάνω αὐτοῦ)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clause, since the last clauses give the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [an angel of the Lord, having come down from heaven and having approached, rolled away the stone and sat on it. That caused a great earthquake]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT having come down
UST descended
(καταβὰς)

In a context such as this, your language might say "gone" instead of come. Alternate translation: [having gone down]

Support Reference: Go and Come

> ULT having approached
> UST He went to {Jesus' grave}
> (προσελθὼν)

Matthew implies that the angel approached Jesus' tomb. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [having approached the tomb]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT rolled away the stone
> UST He rolled the flat stone away {from the entrance to the grave}
> (ἀπεκύλισε τὸν λίθον)

Matthew implies that the angel rolled away the large stone from the opening of the tomb to open it. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [having rolled the stone away from the door of the tomb to open it up]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
an angel	an angel
of the Lord	from the Lord
heaven	heaven

Matthew 28:3

ULT	UST
Now his appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow.	This angel looked as bright as lightning. His garments were pure white.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

Matthew uses the word Now to introduce background information that will help readers understand what happens next. It does not introduce another event in the story. Use a natural form in your language for introducing background information. Alternate translation: [As for that angel,]

Support Reference: Background Information

ULT was like lightning
UST looked as bright as lightning
(ἦν & ὡς ἀστραπὴ)

The point of this comparison is that the appearance of the angel was very bright, as lightning is very bright. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state that explicitly. Alternate translation: [was as bright as it is when lightning strikes]

Support Reference: Simile

ULT his clothing white as snow
UST His garments were pure white
(τὸ ἔνδυμα αὐτοῦ λευκὸν ὡς χιών)

Matthew is leaving out some of the words that in many languages a sentence would need in order to be complete. You could supply these words from earlier in the sentence if it would be clearer in your language. Alternate translation: [his clothing was white, like snow]

Support Reference: Ellipsis

> ULT white as snow
> UST were pure white
> (λευκὸν ὡς χιών)

The point of this comparison is that the clothing of the angel was pure and bright white in color, just like snow is pure and bright white in color. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state that explicitly. Alternate translation: [bright white, as snow is bright white]

Support Reference: Simile

> ULT white as snow
> UST were pure white
> (λευκὸν ὡς χιών)

The word snow refers to a type of frozen precipitation that is extremely white in color. If your readers would not be familiar with this type of precipitation, you could use the name of something in your area that is known to be very white, or you could refer more generally to a very bright white color. Alternate translation: [white as cotton] or [extremely white]

Support Reference: Translate Unknowns

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
snow	pure

Matthew 28:4

ULT	UST
And the ones guarding were shaken from the fear of him and became as dead.	The soldiers who were protecting {the grave} trembled because they were afraid of the angel. {They were so afraid that} they looked like they had died.

ULT the ones guarding were shaken from the fear of him and became UST The soldiers who were protecting {the grave} trembled because they were afraid of the angel. {They were so afraid that} they looked (ἀπὸ & τοῦ φόβου αὐτοῦ, ἐσείσθησαν οἱ τηροῦντες, καὶ ἐγενήθησαν)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [the fear of him shook the ones guarding, and they became]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT the ones guarding
UST The soldiers who were protecting {the grave}
(οἱ τηροῦντες)

Matthew refers here to the soldiers who were guarding Jesus' tomb. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the ones guarding the grave]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT were shaken
UST trembled
(ἐσείσθησαν)

Matthew means that the ones guarding the tomb physically trembled or shuddered because they were so afraid. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [were shuddering]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT from the fear of him
UST because they were afraid of the angel
(ἀπὸ & τοῦ φόβου αὐτοῦ)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of fear, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [because they feared him]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT became as dead
UST {They were so afraid that} they looked like they had died
(ἐγενήθησαν ὡς νεκροί)

Matthew compares the guards to dead people to indicate that the guards fell down and did not move, just as dead people lie without moving. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state that explicitly. Alternate translation: [fell to the ground and lay still, like the dead] or [fainted so that they were like the dead]

Support Reference: Simile

ULT dead
UST they had died
(νεκροί)

Matthew is using the adjective dead as a noun to mean dead people. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this word with an equivalent phrase. Alternate translation: [dead people]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
guarding	soldiers who were protecting {the grave}
were shaken	trembled
fear	they were afraid

Matthew 28:5

ULT	UST
But answering, the angel said to the women, "You, do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, the one having been crucified.	The angel told the two women, "I realize that you are looking for Jesus, whom people killed by nailing him to a cross. So, you should stop being afraid!

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces what the angel says, putting it in contrast to the fear that the soldiers felt. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces this kind of contrast, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [However,]

Support Reference: Connect — Contrast Relationship

ULT answering
(ἀποκριθεὶς)

The angel is answering or responding to a situation, not to something that someone has asked. More specifically, the angel is responding to the fear of the guards by telling the women that they do not need to be afraid. If it would be helpful in your language, you could make it more explicit that the angel is responding to what is happening, or you could leave answering untranslated. Alternate translation: [seeing that the people nearby were afraid] or [responding to how the soldiers were afraid]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT to the women
UST the two women
(ταῖς γυναιξίν)

The phrase, the women, refers to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, whom Matthew mentioned in 28:1. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT You, do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, the one having been crucified
UST I realize that you are looking for Jesus, whom people killed by nailing him to a cross. So, you should stop being afraid (μὴ φοβεῖσθε ὑμεῖς; οἶδα γὰρ ὅτι Ἰησοῦν, τὸν ἐσταυρωμένον, ζητεῖτε)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second clause gives the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [I know that you seek Jesus, the one having been crucified; therefore, do not be afraid]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT the one having been crucified
UST whom people killed by nailing him to a cross
(τὸν ἐσταυρωμένον)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was Pilate's soldiers. Alternate translation: [the one whom Pilate's soldiers crucified]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
angel	angel
do … be afraid	should stop being afraid
I know	I realize
you seek	you are looking for
Jesus	Jesus
having been crucified	whom people killed by nailing him to a cross

Matthew 28:6

ULT	UST
He is not here, for he was raised up, just as he said. Come, see the place where he was lying.	God made him alive again, which is what he told you {would happen}. So, he is no longer in this place! If you walk with us, we will show you where his body was.

ULT He is not here, for he was raised up, just as he said
UST God made him alive again, which is what he told you {would happen}. So, he is no longer in this place (οὐκ ἔστιν ὧδε, ἠγέρθη γὰρ καθὼς εἶπεν)

If it would be more natural in your language, you could reverse the order of these clauses, since the second and third clauses give the reason for the result that the first clause describes. Alternate translation: [Since he was raised up, just as he said, he is not here]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

ULT he was raised up
UST God made him alive again
(ἠγέρθη)

The word raised refers to someone who died and then came back to life. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable word or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [he was restored to life]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT he was raised up
UST God made him alive again
(ἠγέρθη)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, the angel could be implying that: (1) God did it. Alternate translation: [God raise him up]; (2) Jesus himself did it. Alternate translation: [he raise himself up]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

> ULT he said
> UST he told you {would happen}
> (εἶπεν)

The angel implies that Jesus said that he would be raised up. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [he said would happen to him]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT Come
> UST If you walk with us
> (δεῦτε)

In a context such as this, your language might say “Go” instead of Come. Alternate translation: [Go]

Support Reference: Go and Come

> ULT the place where he was lying
> UST where his body was > (τὸν τόπον ὅπου ἔκειτο)

The angel is referring to the place where Jesus’ body had been laid in the tomb. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [the place in this tomb where his body was placed]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

Matthew 28:7

ULT	UST
And having gone quickly, say to his disciples, 'He has been raised up from the dead. And behold, he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him.' Behold, I have said {it} to you."	Then, hurry to his apprentices and tell them that God has made Jesus alive again. {Tell them that} they should listen, and that Jesus is going ahead of them to the region of Galilee. {Tell them that} Jesus will meet them there. I have told you {what to say}!"

ULT having gone
UST hurry to (πορευθεῖσαι)

In a context such as this, your language might say "come" instead of gone. Alternate translation: [having come]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT say to his disciples, 'He has been raised up from the dead. And behold, he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him
UST his apprentices and tell them … God has made Jesus alive again. {Tell them that} they should listen, and that Jesus is going ahead of them to the region of Galilee. {Tell them that} Jesus will meet them there
(εἴπατε τοῖς μαθηταῖς αὐτοῦ & ἠγέρθη ἀπὸ τῶν νεκρῶν; καὶ ἰδοὺ, προάγει ὑμᾶς εἰς τὴν Γαλιλαίαν; ἐκεῖ αὐτὸν ὄψεσθε)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [say to his disciples that he has been raised up from the dead, and behold, he is going before them to Galilee, where they will see him]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT He has been raised up
UST God has made Jesus alive again
(ἠγέρθη)

The word raised refers to someone who died and then came back to life. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable idiom or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [He has been restored to life]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT He has been raised up
UST God has made Jesus alive again
(ἠγέρθη)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, the angel could be indicating that: (1) God did it. Alternate translation: [God has raised him up]; (2) Jesus himself did it. Alternate translation: [He has raised himself up]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT from the dead
UST God has made Jesus alive again
(ἀπὸ τῶν νεκρῶν)

The angel is using the adjective dead as a noun in order to refer to people who are dead. Your language may use adjectives in the same way. If not, you could translate this with a noun phrase. Alternate translation: [from among the dead people] or [from the corpses]

Support Reference: Nominal Adjectives

ULT behold … Behold
UST {Tell them that} they should listen
(ἰδοὺ & ἰδοὺ)

The word behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to listen, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [be aware … Hear now] or [listen … Listen]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT he is going before
UST and that Jesus is going ahead of (προάγει)

In a context such as this, your language might say "coming" instead of going. Alternate translation: [he is coming before]

Support Reference: Go and Come

> ULT I have said {it} to you
> UST I have told you {what to say}
> (εἶπον ὑμῖν)

The angel uses the clause I have said {it} to you to indicate that he has finished speaking the important message that he wants them to relay to the disciples. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [I have given you the full message] or [that is what you should tell his disciples]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
to … disciples	apprentices
Galilee	the region of Galilee

Matthew 28:8

ULT	UST
And having quickly gone away from the tomb with fear and great joy, they ran to report {this} to his disciples.	So the two women hurried away from the grave. They were afraid and also very happy. They ran {to where Jesus' apprentices were} to tell them {what had happened and what the angel had said}.

ULT having quickly gone away
UST the two women hurried away
(ἀπελθοῦσαι ταχὺ)

In a context such as this, your language might say "come" instead of gone. Alternate translation: [having quickly come away]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT with fear and great joy
UST They were afraid and also very happy
(μετὰ φόβου καὶ χαρᾶς μεγάλης)

If your language does not use abstract nouns for the ideas of fear and joy, you could express the same ideas in another way. Alternate translation: [fearfully and very joyfully]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT they ran
UST They ran {to where Jesus' apprentices were} (ἔδραμον)

Here, they refers to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary mentioned in 28:1. If it would be helpful in your language, you could refer to them more directly. Alternate translation: [Mary Magdalene and the other Mary ran]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
tomb	grave
fear	afraid
joy	happy
to report {this}	to tell … what had happened and what the angel had said

ULT	UST
to … disciples	them

Matthew 28:9

ULT	UST
And behold,Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!" But they, having approached, seized his feet and worshiped him.	{As they were running,} Jesus came up to them! He said, "Greetings!" The two women went to him and {bowed down to} hold his feet {to honor him}. Also, they worshiped him.

ULT behold,Jesus met them
UST Jesus came up to them
(ἰδοὺ, Ἰησοῦς ὑπήντησεν αὐταῖς)

Many ancient manuscripts read behold, Jesus met them. The ULT follows that reading. Other ancient manuscripts read "behold, as they were going to report to his disciples, Jesus met them." If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

ULT behold
(ἰδοὺ)

The word behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to listen, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [look] or [listen]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT saying
UST He said
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT Rejoice
UST Greetings
(χαίρετε)

In Jesus' culture, people commonly greeted each other with the word Rejoice. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable word or phrase that people use to greet each other. Alternate translation: [Hello]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT But
(δὲ)

The word But introduces the next thing that happened. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave But untranslated. Alternate translation: [Then]

Support Reference: Connecting Words and Phrases

ULT seized his feet
UST and {bowed down to} hold his feet {to honor him}
(ἐκράτησαν αὐτοῦ τοὺς πόδας)

In Jesus' culture, people would kneel down and seize or hold someone's feet when they wanted to show great honor and respect toward that person. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning of this action explicitly. Alternate translation: [seized his feet out of respect] or [seized his feet to show him honor]

Support Reference: Symbolic Action

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
worshiped	they worshiped

Matthew 28:10

ULT	UST
Then Jesus says to them, "Do not be afraid. Go, report {this} to my brothers so that they might go away to Galilee, and there they will see me."	After that, Jesus told them, "You should stop being afraid! Go to my apprentices and tell them to leave for the region of Galilee. I will meet them there."

ULT says
UST told
(λέγει)

To call attention to a development in the story, Matthew uses the present tense in past narration. If it would not be natural to do that in your language, you could use the past tense in your translation. Alternate translation: [said]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT to my brothers
UST them
(τοῖς ἀδελφοῖς μου)

Jesus speaks of his disciples as if they were his brothers. He means that he considers them to be part of his family. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use simile form or state the meaning plainly. See how you translated the similar phrase in 25:40. Alternate translation: [those whom I call my brothers] or [the people I love as if they were my brothers]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT they might go away
UST leave
(ἀπέλθωσιν)

In a context such as this, your language might say "come" instead of go. Alternate translation: [they might come away]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
Do … be afraid	You should … being afraid
report {this}	and tell

ULT	UST
Galilee	the region of Galilee

Matthew 28:11

ULT	UST
Now they going, behold, some of the guard, having come into the city, reported to the chief priests all the things having happened.	Then, the two women went to meet {Jesus' apprentices}. Meanwhile, some of the soldiers {whom the Jewish leaders had told to make sure that no one opened Jesus' grave} entered the city of Jerusalem. They told the ruling priests about everything that had happened {at Jesus' grave}.

ULT Now
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next major event in the story. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [After that,]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT going
UST Then … went to meet {Jesus' apprentices}
(πορευομένων)

In a context such as this, your language might say "coming" instead of going. Alternate translation: [coming]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT behold
UST Meanwhile
(ἰδού)

The word behold draws the attention of the audience and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to listen, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [indeed] or [it happened]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT of the guard
UST of the soldiers {whom the Jewish leaders had told to make sure that no one opened Jesus' grave}
(τῆς κουστωδίας)

Matthew implies that this guard was made up of the Roman soldiers who had been guarding Jesus' tomb. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [of the Roman guard that had been protecting the tomb]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT of the guard
UST of the soldiers {whom the Jewish leaders had told to make sure that no one opened Jesus' grave}
(τῆς κουστωδίας)

See how you translated guard in 27:65. Alternate translation: [of the guards] or [of the soldiers who were acting as guards]

Support Reference: Collective Nouns

ULT having come
UST entered
(ἐλθόντες)

In a context such as this, your language might say "gone" instead of come. Alternate translation: [having gone]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT the city
UST the city of Jerusalem
(τὴν πόλιν)

The phrase the city refers to Jerusalem. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Jerusalem]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
reported	They told … about
to the chief priests	the ruling priests

Matthew 28:12

ULT	UST
And having been gathered together with the elders, and having taken counsel, they gave many pieces of silver to the soldiers,	So, the ruling priests and the {Jewish} leaders assembled and planned what to do. They paid those soldiers a large number of silver coins {to bribe them}.

ULT having been gathered together
UST the ruling priests … assembled (συναχθέντες)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [having gathered] or [having come together]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT having taken counsel
UST planned what to do
(συμβούλιόν & λαβόντες)

The phrase having taken counsel indicates that the chief priests and elders were working together to figure something out. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. See how you expressed the similar phrase in 12:14. Alternate translation: [having made plans] or [having come up with an idea]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT they gave many pieces of silver to the soldiers
UST They paid those soldiers a large number of silver coins {to bribe them}
(ἀργύρια ἱκανὰ ἔδωκαν τοῖς στρατιώταις)

Matthew means that the chief priests and elders gave money to the soldiers so that they would tell a lie about what happened. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they bribed the soldiers with many pieces of silver]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT many pieces of silver
UST a large number of silver coins {to bribe them}
(ἀργύρια ἱκανὰ)

Each of these pieces of silver was a coin equivalent to about four days' wages. See how you expressed the idea in 26:15. Alternate translation: [many coins made out of silver] or [a lot of money]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
having been gathered together	the ruling priests … assembled
elders	the {Jewish} leaders
counsel	planned what to do
pieces of silver	of silver coins {to bribe them}
to the soldiers	those soldiers

Matthew 28:13

ULT	UST
saying, “Say, ‘His disciples, having come at night, stole him, we sleeping.’	They instructed them, “Tell people that his apprentices arrived during the night while you were asleep and stole his body.

ULT saying
UST They instructed them
(λέγοντες)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and they said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT Say, ‘His disciples, having come at night, stole him, we sleeping
UST Tell people … his apprentices arrived during the night while you were asleep and stole his body (εἴπατε & οἱ μαθηταὶ αὐτοῦ νυκτὸς ἐλθόντες ἔκλεψαν αὐτὸν, ἡμῶν κοιμωμένων)

If it would be clearer in your language, you could translate this so that there is not a quotation within a quotation. Alternate translation: [Say that his disciples, having come at night, stole him, you sleeping]

Support Reference: Quotes within Quotes

ULT having come
UST arrived
(ἐλθόντες)

In a context such as this, your language might say “gone” instead of come. Alternate translation: [having gone]

Support Reference: Go and Come

ULT we
UST you
(ἡμῶν)

Here, we refers to the Roman soldiers who guarded Jesus’ tomb, so we would be exclusive. Your language may require you to mark this form.

Support Reference: Exclusive and Inclusive ‘We’

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
disciples	apprentices

Matthew 28:14

ULT	UST
And if this is heard by the governor, we will persuade and make you free from concern."	Suppose that the {Roman} local ruler{, Pilate,} learns what you are telling people. In that case, we will convince {him to refrain from punishing you}. You will not have to worry about anything."

ULT if this is heard by the governor, we will persuade and make you free from concern
UST Suppose that the {Roman} local ruler{, Pilate,} learns what you are telling people. In that case, we will convince {him to refrain from punishing you}. You will not have to worry about anything (ἐὰν ἀκουσθῇ τοῦτο ἐπὶ τοῦ ἡγεμόνος, ἡμεῖς πείσομεν καὶ ὑμᾶς ἀμερίμνους ποιήσομεν)

The Jewish leaders use an imaginary situation to explain that they will protect the soldiers from punishment. Use a natural method in your language for introducing an imaginary situation. Alternate translation: [imagine this is heard by the governor. Then, we will persuade and make you free from concern]

Support Reference: Hypothetical Situations

ULT this is heard by the governor
UST the {Roman} local ruler{, Pilate,} learns what you are telling people (ἀκουσθῇ τοῦτο ἐπὶ τοῦ ἡγεμόνος)

If your language does not use the passive form in this way, you can state this in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. Alternate translation: [the governor hears this]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT we will persuade
UST In that case, we will convince {him to refrain from punishing you}
(ἡμεῖς πείσομεν)

The chief priests and elders imply that they will persuade the governor not to punish the soldiers. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [will persuade him not to punish you]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT we
UST In that case, we (ἡμεῖς)

Here, we refers to the Jewish chief priests and elders, so we would be exclusive. Your language may require you to mark this form.

Support Reference: Exclusive and Inclusive 'We'

ULT make you free from concern
UST You will not have to worry about anything
(ὑμᾶς ἀμερίμνους ποιήσομεν)

The chief priests and elders mean that the they will act in such a way that the soldiers do not need to worry about the punishment that they would normally receive for sleeping while on guard duty. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [make you free from worry about how you might be punished] or [prevent you from worrying about what might happen to you]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
governor	the {Roman} local ruler{, Pilate … }

Matthew 28:15

ULT	UST
And they, having taken the pieces of silver, did as they were taught. And this word has been reported among the Jews until today.	So, the soldiers accepted the silver coins. They told people what {the ruling priests and Jewish leaders} had instructed them {to say}. In fact, even now Jewish people continue to repeat the story that the soldiers told.

ULT the pieces of silver
UST the silver coins
(ἀργύρια)

Each of these pieces of silver was a coin equivalent to about four days' wages. See how you expressed the idea in 26:15. Alternate translation: [the coins made out of silver] or [the money]

Support Reference: Biblical Money

ULT they were taught
UST the ruling priests and Jewish leaders} had instructed them {to say} (ἐδιδάχθησαν)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was the chief priests and elders. Alternate translation: [the chief priests and elders taught them]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT this word has been reported among the Jews
UST Jewish people continue to repeat the story that the soldiers told (διεφημίσθη ὁ λόγος οὗτος παρὰ Ἰουδαίοις)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, you could use an indefinite subject. Alternate translation: [people have reported this word among the Jews]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT this word
UST the story that the soldiers told (ὁ λόγος οὗτος)

Here, word represents what the soldiers said using words. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use an equivalent expression from your language or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [their story] or [what they said]

Support Reference: Metonymy

ULT until today
UST even now
(μέχρι τῆς σήμερον ἡμέρας)

The phrase until today refers to the time period up to and including Matthew's present time. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [to the present] or [from then on]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
the pieces of silver	the silver coins
they were taught	the ruling priests and Jewish leaders} had instructed them {to say} word	the story that the soldiers told the Jews	Jewish people

Matthew 28:16

ULT	UST
Now the 11 disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them.	Meanwhile, Jesus' 11 apprentices traveled to the region of Galilee. They went to the hill to which Jesus had told them to go.

ULT Now
UST Meanwhile
(δὲ)

The word Now introduces the next major event in the story. This event occurs sometime soon after the women give the disciples the message from the angel. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a word or phrase that introduces the next event, or you could leave Now untranslated. Alternate translation: [Sometime later,]

Support Reference: Introduction of a New Event

ULT the 11 disciples
UST Jesus' 11 apprentices
(οἱ & ἕνδεκα μαθηταὶ)

Matthew refers to Jesus' closest disciples, the ones whom he called "the Twelve" earlier in the book. There are only 11 of them now because Judas Iscariot was no longer part of the group. If it would be helpful in your language, you could indicate more explicitly that these are Jesus' 11 closest disciples. Alternate translation: [Jesus' 11 closest disciples] or [the 11 most important disciples]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT went
UST traveled (ἐπορεύθησαν)

In a context such as this, your language might say "came" instead of went. Alternate translation: [came]

Support Reference: Go and Come

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
11 disciples	Jesus' 11 apprentices
disciples	Jesus' 11 apprentices
Galilee	the region of Galilee

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus

Matthew 28:17

ULT	UST
And having seen him, they worshiped, but they doubted.	When they met him {there}, they worshiped him. However, they were unsure {that it really was Jesus}.

ULT they doubted
UST they were unsure {that it really was Jesus}
(οἱ & ἐδίστασαν)

Matthew implies that the disciples doubted that the person they were seeing was really Jesus and that he had really become alive again. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [they doubted whether Jesus really was there] or [they doubted whether Jesus really was alive]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

ULT they
UST they (οἱ)

The word as translated they could refer to: (1) all the disciples who worshiped Jesus. Alternate translation: [they also]; (2) some of the disciples who worshiped Jesus. Alternate translation: [some of them]

Support Reference: Pronouns — When to Use Them

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
they worshiped	they worshiped him

Matthew 28:18

ULT	UST
And having approached, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "All authority was given to me in heaven and on the earth.	Then Jesus came up to them and said, "God my Father has authorized me {to rule} over everything that God has created.

ULT saying
UST and said
(λέγων)

Consider natural ways of introducing direct quotations in your language. Alternate translation: [and he said]

Support Reference: Quotations and Quote Margins

ULT All authority was given to me
UST God my Father has authorized me {to rule}
(ἐδόθη μοι πᾶσα ἐξουσία)

If your language does not use this passive form, you could express the idea in active form or in another way that is natural in your language. If you need to say who did the action, it is clear from the context that it was God. Alternate translation: [God has given to me all authority]

Support Reference: Active or Passive

ULT All authority was given to me
UST God my Father has authorized me {to rule}
(ἐδόθη μοι πᾶσα ἐξουσία)

If your language does not use an abstract noun for the idea of authority, you could express the same idea in another way. Alternate translation: [I have been completely empowered]

Support Reference: Abstract Nouns

ULT in heaven and on the earth
UST over everything that God has created
(ἐν οὐρανῷ καὶ ἐπὶ τῆς γῆς)

Jesus is referring to all of the created world by naming the parts that are at the extreme ends of it. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [in all creation] or [in the universe]

Support Reference: Merism

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
Jesus	Jesus
authority	God my Father has authorized me {to rule}
heaven	over everything that God has created earth	over everything that God has created

Matthew 28:19

ULT	UST
Having gone, therefore, disciple all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit;	So then, go {from here}. Help all groups of people become my apprentices. Baptize them so that they belong to {God} the Father, me his Son, and the Holy Spirit.

> ULT baptizing them … teaching them
> UST Baptize them … Instruct them
> (βαπτίζοντες αὐτοὺς & διδάσκοντες αὐτοὺς) (28:19-20)

The phrases baptizing them and teaching them could introduce: (1) more things that the disciples are supposed to do in addition to discipling all the nations. Alternate translation: [and baptize them … and teach them]; (2) the means by which the disciples are supposed to disciple all the nations. Alternate translation: [which you should do by baptizing them … also by teaching them]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT Having gone, therefore
> UST So then, go {from here}
> (πορευθέντες οὖν)

The word Therefore introduces what the disciples should do since Jesus has all authority (see 28:18). If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a different word or phrase that introduces a result or an inference. Alternate translation: [Because of that, having gone]

Support Reference: Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

> ULT Having gone
> UST go {from here}
> (πορευθέντες)

Jesus means that the disciples should go to from where they were to many other places. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [Having gone to many places] or [Having gone from here]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT disciple all the nations
> UST Help all groups of people become my apprentices
> (μαθητεύσατε πάντα τὰ ἔθνη)

Jesus means that the disciples should help or enable people from all the nations to become disciples too. You could include this information if that would be helpful to your readers. Alternate translation: [make all the nations into my disciples] or [enable all the nations to become my disciples]

Support Reference: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

> ULT all the nations
> UST all groups of people
> (πάντα τὰ ἔθνη)

The word nations represents the people who live in those nations. If it would be helpful in your language, you could state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [people of all the nations]

Support Reference: Metonymy

> ULT into the name
> UST so that they belong to > (εἰς τὸ ὄνομα)

Jesus uses the word name here to refer to authority. What he means is that, when they baptize people, they should say the names of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit to indicate that they belong to God. If it would be helpful in your language, you could indicate that Jesus is referring to authority or belonging. Alternate translation: [under the authority] or [so that they are people]

Support Reference: Metonymy

> ULT of the Father … of the Son
> UST {God} the Father, me his Son
> (τοῦ Πατρὸς & τοῦ Υἱοῦ)

Father and Son are important titles that describe the relationship between God the Father and Jesus his Son.

Support Reference: Translating Son and Father

> ULT of the Son
> UST me his Son
> (τοῦ Υἱοῦ)

Jesus is speaking about himself in the third person. If this would not be natural in your language, you could use the first person form. Alternate translation: [of me, who am the Son]

Support Reference: First, Second or Third Person

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
disciple	Help … become my apprentices
the nations	groups of people
baptizing	Baptize
of the Father	{God} the Father of the Son	me his Son
of the Holy Spirit	the Holy Spirit

Matthew 28:20

ULT	UST
teaching them to keep everything, as much as I commanded you. And behold, I am with you all the days, until the end of the age."	Instruct them so that they do everything that I have told you {to do}. Finally, I will be with you at all times, even up to the point when this current time period ends."

ULT everything, as much as
UST everything
(πάντα ὅσα)

The expression everything, as much as contains extra information that would be unnatural to express in some languages. If this is true of your language, you could shorten the expression. Alternate translation: [all things that]

Support Reference: Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

ULT behold
UST Finally
(ἰδοὺ)

The word behold draws the attention of the disciples and asks them to listen carefully. If it would be helpful in your language, you could express behold with a word or phrase that asks the audience to listen, or you could draw the audience's attention in another way. Alternate translation: [listen] or [never forget]

Support Reference: Metaphor

ULT am
UST will be (εἰμι)

Jesus is using the present tense to describe something that is true during the time period that he describes. Use whatever tense is natural in your language for referring to this time period. Alternate translation: [will continue to be]

Support Reference: Irregular Use of Tenses

ULT all the days
UST at all times
(πάσας τὰς ἡμέρας)

The phrase all the days indicates that something happens or is true every day, that is, always. If it would be helpful in your language, you could use a comparable phrase or state the meaning plainly. Alternate translation: [always]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT until the end of the age
UST even up to the point when this current time period ends
(ἕως τῆς συντελείας τοῦ αἰῶνος)

The phrase the end of the age refers to when the current time period will cease and a new age will begin. If your language has a way to refer to the end of the way things are now, you could use it here, or you could use a descriptive phrase. Alternate translation: [until the end of the world] or [until the moment in the future when the current way of doing things will cease]

Support Reference: Idiom

ULT of the age
UST this current time period
(τοῦ αἰῶνος)

Many ancient manuscripts do not include anything after the word age. The ULT follows that reading. Other ancient manuscripts include the word “Amen” after Jesus ends his speech with the word age. If a translation of the Bible exists in your region, you may wish to use the reading that it uses. If a translation of the Bible does not exist in your region, you may wish to use the reading of the ULT.

Support Reference: Textual Variants

UNFOLDINGWORD® TRANSLATION WORDS

ULT	UST
days	at all times
of the age	this current time period

unfoldingWord® Translation Academy - Matthew

v91

Abstract Nouns

Description

Abstract nouns are nouns that refer to attitudes, qualities, events, or situations. These are things that cannot be seen or touched in a physical sense, such as happiness, weight, unity, friendship, health, and reason. This is a translation issue because some languages may express a certain idea with an abstract noun, while others would need a different way to express it.

Remember that nouns are words that refer to a person, place, thing, or idea. Abstract nouns are the nouns that refer to ideas. These can be attitudes, qualities, events, situations, or even relationships between those ideas. These are things that cannot be seen or touched in a physical sense, such as joy, peace, creation, goodness, contentment, justice, truth, freedom, vengeance, slowness, length, weight, and many, many more.

Some languages, such as Biblical Greek and English, use abstract nouns a lot. They provide a way of giving names to actions or qualities. With names, people who speak these languages can talk about the concepts as though they were things. For example, in languages that use abstract nouns, people can say, “I believe in the forgiveness of sin.” But some languages do not use abstract nouns very much. In these languages, speakers may not have the two abstract nouns “forgiveness” and “sin,” but they would express the same meaning in other ways. For example, they would express, “I believe that God is willing to forgive people after they have sinned,” by using verb phrases instead of nouns for those ideas.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

The Bible that you translate from may use abstract nouns to express certain ideas. Your language might not use abstract nouns for some of those ideas. Instead, it might use phrases to express those ideas. Those phrases will use other kinds of words such as adjectives, verbs, or adverbs to express the meaning of the abstract noun. For example, “What is its weight?” could be expressed as “How much does it weigh?” or “How heavy is it?”

Examples From the Bible

> From childhood you have known the sacred writings … (2 Timothy 3:15a ULT)

The abstract noun “childhood” refers to when someone was a child.

> But godliness with contentment is great gain. (1 Timothy 6:6 ULT)

The abstract nouns “godliness” and “contentment” refer to being godly and content. The abstract noun “gain” refers to something that benefits or helps someone.

> Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. (Luke 19:9 ULT)

The abstract noun “salvation” here refers to being saved.

> The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider slowness to be (2 Peter 3:9a ULT)

The abstract noun “slowness” refers to the lack of speed with which something is done.

> He will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart. (1 Corinthians 4:5b ULT)

The abstract noun “purposes” refers to the things that people want to do and the reasons they want to do them.

Translation Strategies

If an abstract noun would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

(1) Reword the sentence with a phrase that expresses the meaning of the abstract noun. Instead of a noun, the new phrase will use a verb, an adverb, or an adjective to express the idea of the abstract noun.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Reword the sentence with a phrase that expresses the meaning of the abstract noun. Instead of a noun, the new phrase will use a verb, an adverb, or an adjective to express the idea of the abstract noun. Alternative translations are indented below the Scripture example.

> … from childhood you have known the sacred writings … (2 Timothy 3:15a ULT)
>
> > Ever since you were a child you have known the sacred writings.
>
> But godliness with contentment is great gain. (1 Timothy 6:6 ULT)
>
> > But being godly and content is very beneficial. But we benefit greatly when we are godly and content. But we benefit greatly when we honor and obey God and when we are happy with what we have.
>
> Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. (Luke 19:9 ULT)

> > Today the people in this house have been saved …
> > Today God has saved the people in this house …
>
> The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider slowness to be. (2 Peter 3:9a ULT)
>
> > The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider moving slowly to be.
>
> He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart. (1 Corinthians 4:5b ULT)
>
> > He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the things that people want to do and the reasons that they want to do them.

Matthew References:

3:7; 3:8; 3:11; 3:15; 4:8; 4:16; 4:16; 4:24; 5:6; 5:7; 5:10; 5:20; 5:21; 5:22; 5:25; 5:27; 5:28; 5:32; 5:32; 5:40; 6:1; 6:7; 6:10; 6:13; 6:14; 6:15; 6:23; 6:24; 6:25; 6:29; 6:33; 7:2; 7:2; 7:13; 7:14; 7:21; 7:23; 7:27; 7:28; 7:29; 8:4; 8:10; 8:12; 8:16; 8:26; 8:26; 9:2; 9:2; 9:6; 9:8; 9:12; 9:13; 9:22; 9:22; 9:27; 9:29; 9:36; 10:1; 10:13; 10:15; 10:18; 10:21; 10:21; 10:27; 10:34; 11:12; 11:12; 11:19; 11:22; 11:24; 11:28; 11:29; 12:13; 12:18; 12:20; 12:31; 12:31; 12:36; 12:41; 12:42; 12:42; 12:43; 12:50; 13:12; 13:20; 13:21; 13:22; 13:35; 13:41; 13:44; 13:54; 13:57; 13:58; 14:14; 14:26; 14:27; 14:31; 14:35; 15:2; 15:3; 15:3; 15:4; 15:6; 15:9; 15:19; 15:22; 15:28; 15:32; 16:8; 16:12; 16:27; 16:27; 16:28; 17:15; 17:15; 17:20; 18:6; 18:8; 18:9; 18:14; 18:25; 18:26; 18:27; 18:29; 18:33; 19:9; 19:9; 19:16; 19:17; 19:18; 19:28; 19:29; 20:18; 20:25; 20:28; 20:30; 20:31; 20:34; 21:16; 21:21; 21:22; 21:23; 21:24; 21:25; 21:27; 21:31; 21:32; 21:38; 22:13; 22:16; 22:16; 22:18; 22:23; 22:28; 22:29; 22:30; 22:30; 22:31; 23:3; 23:14; 23:23; 23:25; 23:27; 23:28; 23:33; 24:9; 24:12; 24:12; 24:14; 24:15; 24:20; 24:21; 24:29; 24:30; 24:38; 25:15; 25:21; 25:30; 25:31; 25:31; 25:34; 25:46; 25:46; 26:4; 26:8; 26:10; 26:12; 26:13; 26:16; 26:28; 26:41; 26:42; 26:59; 26:59; 26:64; 26:65; 26:66; 27:1; 27:7; 27:18; 27:19; 27:32; 27:45; 27:53; 27:64; 28:4; 28:8; 28:18

Active or Passive

Some languages use both active and passive sentences. In active sentences, the subject does the action. In passive sentences, the subject is the one that receives the action. Here are some examples with their subjects bolded:

- Active: My father built the house in 2010.
- Passive: The house was built in 2010.

Translators whose languages do not use passive sentences will need to know how they can translate passive sentences that they find in the Bible. Other translators will need to decide when to use a passive sentence and when to use the active form.

Description

Some languages have both active and passive forms of sentences.

- In the active form, the subject does the action and is always mentioned.
- In the passive form, the action is done to the subject, and the one who does the action is not always mentioned.

In the examples of active and passive sentences below, we have bolded the subject.

- active: My father built the house in 2010.
- passive: The house was built by my father in 2010.
- passive: The house was built in 2010. (This does not tell who did the action.)

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

All languages use active forms. Some languages use passive forms, and some do not. Some languages use passive forms only for certain purposes, and the passive form is not used for the same purposes in all of the languages that use it.

Purposes for the Passive

- The speaker is talking about the person or thing the action was done to, not about the person who did the action.
- The speaker does not want to tell who did the action.
- The speaker does not know who did the action.

Translation Principles Regarding the Passive

- Translators whose language does not use passive forms will need to find another way to express the idea.
- Translators whose language has passive forms will need to understand why the passive is used in a particular sentence in the Bible and decide whether or not to use a passive form for that purpose in his translation of the sentence.

Examples From the Bible

> Then their shooters shot at your soldiers from off the wall, and some of the king's servants were killed, and your servant Uriah the Hittite was killed too. (2 Samuel 11:24 ULT)

This means that the enemy's shooters shot and killed some of the king's servants, including Uriah. The point is what happened to the king's servants and Uriah, not who shot them. The purpose of the passive form here is to keep the focus on the king's servants and Uriah.

> When the men of the city arose early in the morning, and see, the altar of Baal was torn down. (Judges 6:28a ULT)

The men of the town saw what had happened to the altar of Baal, but they did not know who broke it down. The purpose of the passive form here is to communicate this event from the perspective of the men of the town.

> It would be better for him if a millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. (Luke 17:2a ULT)

This describes a situation in which a person ends up in the sea with a millstone around his neck. The purpose of the passive form here is to keep the focus on what happens to this person. Who does these things to the person is not important.

Translation Strategies

If your language would use a passive form for the same purpose as in the passage that you are translating, then use a passive form. If you decide that it is better to translate without a passive form, here are some strategies that you might consider.

(1) Use the same verb in an active sentence and tell who or what did the action. If you do this, try to keep the focus on the person receiving the action.
(2) Use the same verb in an active sentence, and do not tell who or what did the action. Instead, use a generic expression like “they” or “people” or “someone.”
(3) Use a different verb.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the same verb in an active sentence and tell who did the action. If you do this, try to keep the focus on the person receiving the action.

> A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers. (Jeremiah 37:21b ULT)
>
> > The king’s servants gave Jeremiah a loaf of bread every day from the street of the bakers.

(2) Use the same verb in an active sentence, and do not tell who did the action. Instead, use a generic expression like “they” or “people” or “someone.”

> It would be better for him if a millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. (Luke 17:2a ULT)
>
> > It would be better for him if they were to put a millstone around his neck and throw him into the sea.
> > It would be better for him if someone were to put a > > heavy stone around his neck and throw him into the sea.

(3) Use a different verb in an active sentence.

> A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers. (Jeremiah 37:21 ULT)
>
> > He received a loaf of bread every day from the street of the bakers.

Matthew References:

1:16; 1:16; 1:18; 1:18; 1:20; 1:22; 1:22; 1:23; 1:24; 2:2; 2:4; 2:5; 2:12; 2:15; 2:15; 2:16; 2:17; 2:18; 2:18; 2:22; 2:23; 2:23; 2:23; 3:3; 3:6; 3:10; 3:10; 3:13; 3:14; 3:16; 3:16; 3:17; 3:17; 4:1; 4:1; 4:4; 4:6; 4:7; 4:10; 4:12; 4:14; 4:18; 4:24; 4:24; 5:4; 5:6; 5:9; 5:10; 5:13; 5:13; 5:13; 5:14; 5:18; 5:19; 5:19; 5:21; 5:24; 5:25; 5:27; 5:29; 5:31; 5:32; 5:33; 5:38; 5:43; 6:1; 6:2; 6:5; 6:7; 6:9; 6:10; 6:16; 6:18; 6:30; 6:33; 7:1; 7:2; 7:2; 7:7; 7:7; 7:8; 7:14; 7:19; 7:24; 7:25; 7:26; 8:3; 8:6; 8:8; 8:9; 8:10; 8:12; 8:13; 8:13; 8:14; 8:16; 8:17; 8:17; 8:24; 8:28; 8:33; 9:2; 9:5; 9:9; 9:15; 9:17; 9:17; 9:21; 9:22; 9:23; 9:25; 9:25; 9:29; 9:30; 9:32; 9:33; 9:33; 9:36; 10:2; 10:13; 10:18; 10:19; 10:22; 10:22; 10:26; 10:29; 10:30; 11:5; 11:6; 11:6; 11:7; 11:8; 11:10; 11:11; 11:19; 11:20; 11:23; 11:23; 11:27; 12:13; 12:18; 12:18; 12:22; 12:22; 12:23; 12:25; 12:25; 12:26; 12:31; 12:32; 12:33; 12:37; 12:39; 12:44; 13:2; 13:6; 13:11; 13:12; 13:14; 13:15; 13:19; 13:19; 13:20; 13:21; 13:22; 13:23; 13:24; 13:33; 13:35; 13:35; 13:40; 13:44; 13:47; 13:48; 13:52; 13:54; 13:55; 13:57; 14:2; 14:8; 14:9; 14:9; 14:11; 14:20; 14:24; 14:26; 14:36; 15:12; 15:13; 15:17; 15:22; 15:24; 15:28; 15:28; 15:37; 16:17; 16:19; 16:21; 16:21; 17:2; 17:3; 17:5; 17:18; 17:22; 17:22; 17:23; 17:23; 18:6; 18:8; 18:9; 18:16; 18:19; 18:20; 18:23; 18:24; 18:25; 18:30; 18:31; 18:34; 19:5; 19:9; 19:11; 19:12; 19:12; 19:13; 19:22; 19:25; 19:25; 20:18; 20:19; 20:23; 20:28; 20:33; 21:2; 21:4; 21:9; 21:10; 21:13; 21:13; 21:21; 21:43; 21:44; 22:2; 22:3; 22:4; 22:4; 22:8; 22:10; 22:14; 22:29; 22:30; 22:31; 22:33; 22:40; 22:41; 23:5; 23:7; 23:8; 23:10; 23:12; 23:12; 23:35; 23:37; 23:38; 24:2; 24:6; 24:9; 24:10; 24:11; 24:12; 24:13; 24:14; 24:15; 24:22; 24:22; 24:24; 24:28; 24:29; 24:29; 24:40; 24:41; 24:43; 24:46; 25:10; 25:29; 25:32; 25:34; 25:34; 25:41; 25:41; 26:2; 26:3; 26:3; 26:9; 26:13; 26:14; 26:22; 26:24; 26:24; 26:24; 26:28; 26:31; 26:31; 26:31; 26:32; 26:33; 26:36; 26:37; 26:38; 26:42; 26:43; 26:45; 26:54; 26:56; 26:57; 27:3; 27:8; 27:9; 27:9; 27:11; 27:12; 27:15; 27:16; 27:17; 27:17; 27:22; 27:22; 27:23; 27:26; 27:33; 27:34; 27:37; 27:38; 27:44; 27:51; 27:52; 27:57; 27:58; 27:62; 27:63; 27:64; 27:64; 28:4; 28:5; 28:6; 28:7; 28:12; 28:14; 28:15; 28:15; 28:18

Apostrophe

Description

An apostrophe is a figure of speech in which a speaker turns his attention away from his listeners and speaks to someone or something that he knows cannot hear him. He does this to tell his listeners his message or feelings about that person or thing in a very strong way.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Many languages do not use apostrophe, and readers could be confused by it. They may wonder who the speaker is talking to, or think that the speaker is crazy to talk to things or people who cannot hear.

Examples from the Bible

> Mountains of Gilboa, let there not be dew or rain on you. (2 Samuel 1:21a ULT)

King Saul was killed on Mount Gilboa, and David sang a sad song about it. By telling these mountains that he wanted them to have no dew or rain, he showed how sad he was.

> Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those sent to you. (Luke 13:34a ULT)

Jesus was expressing his feelings for the people of Jerusalem in front of his disciples and a group of Pharisees. By speaking directly to Jerusalem as though its people could hear him, Jesus showed how deeply he cared about them.

> He cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh: "Altar, altar! This is what Yahweh says, 'See, … on you they will burn human bones.'" (1 Kings 13:2 ULT)

The man of God spoke as if the altar could hear him, but he really wanted the king, who was standing there, to hear him.

Translation Strategies

If apostrophe would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. But if this way of speaking would be confusing to your people, let the speaker continue speaking to the people that are listening to him as he tells them his message or feelings about the people or thing that cannot hear him. See the example below.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

> He cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh: "Altar, altar! This is what Yahweh says, 'See, … on you they will burn human bones.'" (1 Kings 13:2 ULT)
>
> > He said this about the altar: "This is what Yahweh says about this altar. 'See, … they will burn people's bones on it.'"
>
> Mountains of Gilboa, let there not be dew or rain on you. (2 Samuel 1:21a ULT)
>
> > As for these mountains of Gilboa, let there not be dew or rain on them.

Matthew References:

2:6; 11:21; 11:23; 17:17; 23:37

Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

Assumed knowledge is whatever a speaker assumes his audience knows before he speaks and gives them some kind of information. The speaker does not give the audience this information because he believes that they already know it.

When the speaker does give the audience information, he can do so in two ways. The speaker gives explicit information in what he states directly. Implicit Information is what the speaker does not state directly because he expects his audience to be able to learn it from other things he says.

Description

When someone speaks or writes, he has something specific that he wants people to know or do or think about. He normally states this directly. This is explicit information.

The speaker assumes that his audience already knows certain things that they will need to think about in order to understand this information. Normally he does not tell people these things, because they already know them. This is called assumed knowledge.

The speaker does not always directly state everything that he expects his audience to learn from what he says. Implicit information is information that he expects people to learn from what he says even though he does not state it directly.

Often, the audience understands this implicit information by combining what they already know (assumed knowledge) with the explicit information that the speaker tells them directly.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

All three kinds of information are part of the speaker's message. If one of these kinds of information is missing, then the audience will not understand the message. Because the target translation is in a language that is very different from the biblical languages and is made for an audience that lives in a very different time and place than the people in the Bible, many times the assumed knowledge or the implicit information is missing from the message. In other words, modern readers do not know everything that the original speakers and hearers in the Bible knew. When these things are important for understanding the message, it is helpful if you include this information in the text or in a footnote.

Examples From the Bible

> Then a scribe came to him and said, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.” Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.” (Matthew 8:19-20 ULT)

Jesus did not say what foxes and birds use holes and nests for, because he assumed that the scribe would have known that foxes sleep in holes in the ground and birds sleep in their nests. This is assumed knowledge.

Jesus did not directly say here “I am the Son of Man” but, if the scribe did not already know it, then that fact would be implicit information that he could learn because Jesus referred to himself that way. Also, Jesus did not state explicitly that he travelled a lot and did not have a house that he slept in every night. That is implicit information that the scribe could learn when Jesus said that he had nowhere to lay his head.

> Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you. (Matthew 11:21-22 ULT)

Jesus assumed that the people he was speaking to knew that Tyre and Sidon were very wicked, and that the day of judgment is a time when God will judge every person. Jesus also knew that the people he was talking to believed that they were good and did not need to repent. Jesus did not need to tell them these things. This is all assumed knowledge.

An important piece of implicit information here is that the people he was speaking to would be judged more severely than the people of Tyre and Sidon would be judged because they did not repent.

> Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread. (Matthew 15:2 ULT)

One of the traditions of the elders was a ceremony in which people would wash their hands in order to be ritually clean before eating. People thought that in order to be righteous, they had to follow all the traditions of the elders. This was assumed knowledge that the Pharisees who were speaking to Jesus expected him to know. By saying this, they were accusing his disciples of not following the traditions, and thus not being righteous. This is implicit information that they wanted him to understand from what they said.

Translation Strategies

If readers have enough assumed knowledge to be able to understand the message, along with any important implicit information that goes with the explicit information, then it is good to leave that knowledge unstated and leave the implicit information implicit. If the readers do not understand the message because one of these is missing for them, then follow these strategies:

(1) If readers cannot understand the message because they do not have certain assumed knowledge, then provide that knowledge as explicit information.
(2) If readers cannot understand the message because they do not know certain implicit information, then state that information clearly, but try to do it in a way that does not imply that the information was new to the original audience.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If readers cannot understand the message because they do not have certain assumed knowledge, then provide that knowledge as explicit information.

> Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.” (Matthew 8:20 ULT)

The assumed knowledge was that the foxes slept in their holes and birds slept in their nests.

> > Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes to live in, and the birds of the sky have nests to live in, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head and sleep.”
>
> It will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you (Matthew 11:22 ULT)

The assumed knowledge was that the people of Tyre and Sidon were very, very wicked. This can be stated explicitly.

> > At the day of judgment, it will be more tolerable for those cities of Tyre and Sidon, whose people were very wicked, than it will be for you. or At the day of judgment, It will be more tolerable for those wicked cities, Tyre and Sidon, than for you.
>
> Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread. (Matthew 15:2 ULT)

The assumed knowledge was that one of the traditions of the elders was a ceremony in which people would wash their hands in order to be ritually clean before eating, which they must do to be righteous. It was not to remove germs from their hands to avoid sickness, as a modern reader might think.

> > Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not go through the ceremonial > > handwashing ritual of righteousness when they eat bread.

(2) If readers cannot understand the message because they do not know certain implicit information, then state that information clearly, but try to do it in a way that does not imply that the information was new to the original audience.

> Then a scribe came to him and said, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.” Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.” (Matthew 8:19-20 ULT)

The implicit information is that Jesus himself is the Son of Man. Other implicit information is that if the scribe wanted to follow Jesus, then, like Jesus, he would have to live without a house.

> > Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but I, the Son of Man, have no home to rest in. If you want to follow me, you will live as I live.”
>
> It will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you (Matthew 11:22 ULT)

The implicit information is that God would not only judge the people; he would punish them. This can be made explicit.

> > At the day of judgment, God will punish Tyre and Sidon, cities whose people were very wicked, less severely than he will punish you.
> > or:
> > At the day of judgment, God will punish you more severely than Tyre and Sidon, cities whose people were very wicked.

Modern readers may not know some of the things that the people in the Bible and the people who first read it knew. This can make it hard for them to understand what a speaker or writer says, and to learn things that the speaker left implicit. Translators may need to state some things explicitly in the translation that the original speaker or writer left unstated or implicit.

Matthew References:

1:1; 1:1; 1:6; 1:8-9; 1:11; 1:11; 1:12; 1:12; 1:17; 1:17; 1:18; 1:19; 1:19; 1:21; 1:21; 1:22; 1:23; 2:1; 2:2; 2:2; 2:4; 2:8; 2:9; 2:10; 2:11; 2:11; 2:13; 2:14; 2:15; 2:15; 2:15; 2:16; 2:16; 2:16; 2:22; 2:23; 3:1; 3:2; 3:2; 3:6; 3:7; 3:9; 3:9; 3:10; 3:11; 3:11; 3:11; 3:14; 3:14; 3:15; 3:16; 3:16; 3:16; 4:3; 4:3; 4:5; 4:6; 4:8; 4:9; 4:9; 4:13; 4:13; 4:13; 4:15; 4:15; 4:17; 4:17; 4:18; 4:21; 4:23; 4:23; 4:25; 4:25; 5:1; 5:5; 5:9; 5:9; 5:11; 5:12; 5:12; 5:16; 5:16; 5:18; 5:18; 5:18; 5:19; 5:21; 5:21; 5:22; 5:22; 5:22; 5:22; 5:22; 5:22; 5:23; 5:24; 5:24; 5:25; 5:26; 5:28; 5:28; 5:29; 5:30; 5:32; 5:32; 5:32; 5:33; 5:33; 5:34; 5:35; 5:36; 5:37; 5:37; 5:37; 5:38; 5:39; 5:39; 5:39; 5:39; 5:41; 5:42; 5:42; 5:44; 5:47; 6:1; 6:2; 6:2; 6:2; 6:5; 6:5; 6:5; 6:5; 6:6; 6:7; 6:8; 6:8; 6:9; 6:10; 6:11; 6:13; 6:16; 6:16; 6:16; 6:17; 6:18; 6:19; 6:20; 6:22; 6:22; 6:23; 6:23; 6:23; 6:24; 6:25; 6:29; 6:29; 6:30; 6:30; 6:30; 6:32; 6:32; 6:33; 6:33; 6:33; 6:34; 6:34; 7:1; 7:6; 7:7; 7:7; 7:8; 7:10; 7:11; 7:12; 7:14; 7:15; 7:15; 7:21; 7:21; 7:22; 7:23; 7:24; 7:24; 7:25; 7:25; 7:26; 7:27; 8:2; 8:3; 8:4; 8:4; 8:4; 8:4; 8:6; 8:7; 8:8; 8:10; 8:11; 8:11; 8:12; 8:13; 8:15; 8:16; 8:17; 8:18; 8:18; 8:19; 8:20; 8:20; 8:21; 8:21; 8:22; 8:23; 8:23; 8:24; 8:27; 8:28; 8:28; 8:28; 8:28; 8:29; 8:30; 8:31; 8:32; 8:32; 8:33; 8:33; 9:1; 9:1; 9:1; 9:2; 9:3; 9:7; 9:8; 9:9; 9:9; 9:10; 9:10; 9:14; 9:16; 9:16; 9:17; 9:19; 9:21; 9:23; 9:24; 9:25; 9:25; 9:26; 9:27; 9:27; 9:27; 9:28; 9:28; 9:30; 9:32; 9:33; 9:34; 9:34; 9:35; 10:8; 10:8; 10:9; 10:10; 10:10; 10:11; 10:11; 10:11; 10:12; 10:12; 10:13; 10:15; 10:15; 10:17; 10:18; 10:18; 10:19; 10:19; 10:20; 10:20; 10:21; 10:22; 10:23; 10:28; 10:28; 10:28; 10:29; 10:30; 10:30; 10:31; 10:32; 10:32; 10:32; 10:33; 10:33; 10:33; 10:35; 10:37; 10:38; 10:38; 10:39; 10:39; 10:40; 10:42; 11:1; 11:1; 11:2; 11:3; 11:5; 11:5; 11:7; 11:8; 11:8; 11:11; 11:12; 11:12; 11:13; 11:13; 11:14; 11:14; 11:14; 11:18; 11:21; 11:22; 11:23; 11:23; 11:24; 11:25; 11:25; 11:26; 11:27; 11:28; 11:28; 12:2; 12:3-4; 12:4; 12:5; 12:5; 12:7; 12:9; 12:10; 12:11; 12:11; 12:12; 12:15; 12:15; 12:15; 12:16; 12:18; 12:18; 12:18; 12:19; 12:21; 12:21; 12:22; 12:22; 12:22; 12:24; 12:27; 12:30; 12:31; 12:33; 12:36; 12:38; 12:40; 12:40;

12:41; 12:42; 12:45; 12:45; 12:46; 12:49; 12:50; 13:1; 13:1; 13:2; 13:4; 13:4; 13:5; 13:7; 13:8; 13:8; 13:11; 13:12; 13:13; 13:15; 13:16; 13:17; 13:17; 13:17; 13:18; 13:19; 13:20; 13:20; 13:21; 13:22; 13:23; 13:23; 13:24; 13:25; 13:25; 13:26; 13:26; 13:27; 13:27; 13:27; 13:28; 13:29; 13:30; 13:30; 13:32; 13:33; 13:34; 13:36; 13:37; 13:38; 13:38; 13:41; 13:41; 13:42; 13:44; 13:44; 13:44; 13:45; 13:47; 13:48; 13:48; 13:49; 13:51; 13:52; 13:52; 13:53; 13:54; 13:56; 14:3; 14:3; 14:5; 14:5; 14:6; 14:8; 14:8; 14:9; 14:9; 14:9; 14:10; 14:11; 14:12; 14:12; 14:12; 14:12; 14:13; 14:13; 14:13; 14:13; 14:14; 14:15; 14:16; 14:18; 14:19; 14:19; 14:19; 14:21; 14:22; 14:23; 14:24; 14:25; 14:26; 14:28; 14:29; 14:30; 14:31; 14:31; 14:33; 14:34; 14:35; 14:36; 15:2; 15:2; 15:5; 15:5; 15:6; 15:6; 15:6; 15:7; 15:8; 15:11; 15:11; 15:14; 15:15; 15:17; 15:18; 15:20; 15:21; 15:21; 15:22; 15:22; 15:23; 15:23; 15:23; 15:26; 15:27; 15:27; 15:28; 15:29; 15:29; 15:30; 15:32; 15:35; 15:36; 15:36; 15:38; 15:39; 16:1; 16:1; 16:2; 16:4; 16:5; 16:5; 16:5; 16:7; 16:7; 16:8; 16:9; 16:10; 16:13; 16:14; 16:14; 16:16; 16:17; 16:18; 16:23; 16:24; 16:25; 16:25; 16:26; 16:27; 17:3; 17:4; 17:5; 17:5; 17:10; 17:10; 17:10; 17:11; 17:12; 17:12; 17:13; 17:13; 17:14; 17:16; 17:18; 17:20; 17:21; 17:22; 17:24; 17:25; 17:25; 17:25; 17:25; 17:26; 17:26; 17:26; 17:26; 17:27; 17:27; 18:4; 18:5; 18:6; 18:6; 18:6; 18:8; 18:9; 18:10; 18:10; 18:14; 18:14; 18:16; 18:17; 18:19; 18:19; 18:20; 18:22; 18:25; 18:27; 18:28; 18:28; 18:28; 18:30; 18:30; 18:31; 18:32; 18:32; 18:34; 18:34; 19:1; 19:1; 19:2; 19:4; 19:4; 19:4; 19:5; 19:7; 19:8; 19:9; 19:9; 19:10; 19:10; 19:11; 19:12; 19:13; 19:15; 19:17; 19:20; 19:22; 19:27; 19:28; 19:28; 20:2; 20:3; 20:3; 20:3; 20:4; 20:5; 20:5; 20:5; 20:6; 20:6; 20:7; 20:8; 20:8; 20:8; 20:9; 20:10; 20:12; 20:13; 20:16; 20:17; 20:19; 20:20; 20:22; 20:25; 20:29; 20:30; 20:31; 21:1; 21:2; 21:3; 21:3; 21:4; 21:9; 21:9; 21:9; 21:9; 21:12; 21:12; 21:12; 21:12; 21:14; 21:15; 21:16; 21:16; 21:17; 21:17; 21:18; 21:18; 21:21; 21:21; 21:23; 21:23; 21:23; 21:23; 21:24; 21:25; 21:26; 21:27; 21:28; 21:29; 21:29; 21:30; 21:30; 21:30; 21:31; 21:34; 21:36; 21:37; 21:38; 21:38; 21:38; 21:40; 21:42; 21:44; 21:46; 21:46; 22:1; 22:3; 22:4; 22:4; 22:5; 22:6; 22:7; 22:8; 22:9; 22:10; 22:11; 22:14; 22:15; 22:17; 22:20; 22:21; 22:24; 22:25; 22:26; 22:28; 22:28; 22:30; 22:30; 22:32; 22:34; 22:36; 22:39; 22:40; 22:43; 22:43; 22:44; 23:2; 23:3; 23:7; 23:8; 23:9; 23:9; 23:13; 23:14; 23:14; 23:15; 23:16; 23:16; 23:18; 23:18; 23:18; 23:19; 23:20; 23:21; 23:22; 23:23; 23:25; 23:26; 23:27; 23:29; 23:35; 23:36; 23:39; 23:39; 23:39; 23:39; 24:1; 24:3; 24:3; 24:6; 24:6; 24:8; 24:10; 24:12; 24:14; 24:15-16; 24:15; 24:15; 24:15; 24:16; 24:17; 24:18; 24:19; 24:20; 24:21; 24:26; 24:26; 24:27; 24:27; 24:29; 24:30; 24:32; 24:33; 24:33; 24:34; 24:34; 24:36; 24:37; 24:38; 24:39; 24:39; 24:40; 24:40; 24:41; 24:42; 24:44; 24:44; 24:45; 24:46; 24:46; 24:48; 24:51; 25:1; 25:1; 25:1; 25:3; 25:4; 25:6; 25:7; 25:9; 25:9; 25:10; 25:11; 25:12; 25:13; 25:14; 25:14; 25:16; 25:17; 25:18; 25:20; 25:24; 25:24; 25:25; 25:25; 25:31; 25:33; 25:34; 25:35; 25:36; 25:36; 25:38; 25:39; 25:40; 25:43; 25:44; 26:4; 26:5; 26:5; 26:5; 26:6; 26:6; 26:9; 26:11; 26:15; 26:15; 26:18; 26:18; 26:24; 26:26; 26:26; 26:28; 26:29; 26:31; 26:31; 26:32; 26:34; 26:34; 26:35; 26:37; 26:40; 26:40; 26:41; 26:45; 26:48; 26:52; 26:52; 26:55; 26:56; 26:58; 26:58; 26:59; 26:59; 26:59; 26:60; 26:61; 26:62; 26:63; 26:64; 26:65; 26:66; 26:69; 26:70; 26:71; 26:72; 26:73; 26:74; 26:75; 27:1; 27:1; 27:2; 27:2; 27:2; 27:3; 27:5; 27:5; 27:7; 27:7; 27:8; 27:10; 27:13; 27:15; 27:16; 27:19; 27:19; 27:20; 27:20; 27:21; 27:26; 27:26; 27:28; 27:29; 27:29; 27:30; 27:31; 27:32; 27:35; 27:35; 27:36; 27:40; 27:40; 27:42; 27:44; 27:45; 27:45; 27:46; 27:46; 27:47; 27:48; 27:49; 27:51; 27:52; 27:52; 27:54; 27:56; 27:58; 27:60; 27:60; 27:61; 27:62; 27:63; 27:63; 27:64; 27:64; 27:65; 27:65; 27:66; 27:66; 28:1; 28:1; 28:2; 28:2; 28:4; 28:4; 28:5; 28:5; 28:6; 28:6; 28:7; 28:11; 28:11; 28:12; 28:14; 28:14; 28:15; 28:16; 28:17; 28:19-20; 28:19; 28:19

Background Information

Description

When people tell a story, they normally tell the events in the order that they happened. This sequence of events makes up the storyline. The storyline is full of action verbs that move the story along in time. But sometimes a writer may take a break from the storyline and give some information to help his listeners understand the story better. This type of information is called background information. The background information might be about things that happened before the events he has already told about, or it might explain something in the story, or it might be about something that would happen much later in the story.

Example — The bolded phrases in the story below are all background information.

Peter and John went on a hunting trip because their village was going to have a feast the next day. Peter was the best hunter in the village.He once killed three wild pigs in one day! They walked for hours through low bushes until they heard a wild pig. The pig ran, but they managed to shoot the pig and kill it. Then they tied up its legs with some rope they had brought with them and carried it home on a pole. When they brought it to the village, Peter's cousin saw the pig and realized that it was his own pig. Peter had mistakenly killed his cousin's pig.

Background information often tells about something that had happened earlier or something that would happen much later. Examples of these are: "their village was going to have a feast the next day," "He once killed three wild pigs in one day," and "that they had brought with them."

Often background information uses "be" verbs like "was" and "were," rather than action verbs. Examples of these are "their village was going to have a feast the next day," and "Peter was the best hunter in the village."

Background information can also be marked with words that tell the reader that this information is not part of the event line of the story. In this story, some of these words are "because," "once," and "had."

A writer may use background information:

- to help their listeners be interested in the story
- to help their listeners understand something in the story
- to help the listeners understand why something is important in the story
- to tell the setting of a story

> - Setting includes:
> - where the story takes place
> - when the story takes place
> - who is present when the story begins
> - what is happening when the story begins

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Languages have different ways of marking background information and storyline information.
- You (the translator) need to know the order of the events in the Bible, which information is background information, and which is storyline information.
- You will need to translate the story in a way that marks the background information in a way that your own readers will understand the order of events, which information is background information, and which is storyline information.

Examples From the Bible

> Hagar gave birth to Abram's son, and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. Abram was 86 years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Genesis 16:15-16 ULT)

The first sentence tells about two events. Hagar gave birth and Abraham named his son. The second sentence is background information about how old Abram was when those things happened.

> And Jesus himself was beginning about 30 years old. He was the son (as it was assumed) of Joseph, of Heli, (Luke 3:23 ULT)

The verses before this tell about when Jesus was baptized. This sentence introduces a section of background information about Jesus' age and ancestors (Luke 3:23-38). The story resumes in chapter 4 where it tells about Jesus going to the wilderness.

> Then it happened on a Sabbath that he was going through the grain fields, and his disciples were picking and eating the heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands. But some of the Pharisees said … (Luke 6:1-2a ULT)

These verses give the setting of the story. The events took place in a grain field on the Sabbath day. Jesus, his disciples, and some Pharisees were there, and Jesus' disciples were picking heads of grain and eating them. The main action in the story starts with the phrase, "But some of the Pharisees said …."

Translation Strategies

To keep translations clear and natural you will need to study how people tell stories in your language. Observe how your language marks background information. You may need to write down some stories in order to study this. Observe what kinds of verbs your language uses for background information and what kinds of words or other markers signal that something is background information. Do these same things when you translate, so that your translation is clear and natural and people can understand it easily.

(1) Use your language's way of showing that certain information is background information.
(2) Reorder the information so that earlier events are mentioned first. (This is not always possible when the background information is very long.)

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use your language's way of showing that certain information is background information. The examples below explain how this was done in the ULT English translations.

> And Jesus himself was beginning about 30 years old. He was the son (as it was assumed) of Joseph, of Heli. (Luke 3:23 ULT)

As here, English sometimes uses the word “and” to show that there is some kind of change in the story. The verb “was” shows that it is background information. A set of parentheses is also a way to mark background information. Here, “as it was assumed” gives background information to the phrase, “He was the son.” People assumed that Joseph was Jesus‘ father, although his true father was God.

> Therefore, also exhorting many other things, he preached the good news to the people. But Herod the tetrarch, having been rebuked by him concerning Herodias, the wife of his brother, and concerning all the evil things that Herod had done, added even this to them all: He locked John up in prison. (Luke 3:18-20 ULT)

The bolded phrase happened before John rebuked Herod. In English, the helping verb “had” in “had done” shows that Herod did those things before John rebuked him.

(2) Reorder the information so that earlier events are mentioned first.

> Hagar gave birth to Abram’s son, and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. Abram was 86 years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Genesis 16:16 ULT)
>
> > “When Abram was 86 years old, Hagar gave birth to his son, and Abram named his son Ishmael.”

> Therefore, also exhorting many other things, he preached the good news to the people. But Herod the tetrarch, having been rebuked by him concerning Herodias, the wife of his brother, and concerning all the evil things that Herod had done, added even this to them all: He locked John up in prison. (Luke 3:18-20 ULT)

The translation below reorders John's rebuke and Herod's actions.

> > "Now Herod the tetrarch married his brother's wife, Herodias, and he did many other evil things, so John rebuked him. But then Herod did another very evil thing. He had John locked up in prison."

Matthew References:

3:4; 8:28; 8:30; 10:2; 14:intro; 14:3; 14:21; 15:38; 22:23; 25:2; 26:48; 27:15; 27:16; 27:55; 28:3

Biblical Distance

Description

The following terms are the most common measures for distance or length that were originally used in the Bible. Most of these are based on the sizes of the hand and forearm.

- The handbreadth was the width of the palm of a man's hand.
- The span or handspan was the width of a man's hand with the fingers spread out.
- The cubit was the length of a man's forearm, from the elbow to the tip of the longest finger.
- The "long" cubit is used only in Ezekiel 40-48. It is the length of a normal cubit plus a span.
- The stadium (plural, stadia) referred to a certain footrace that was about 185 meters in length. Some older English versions translated this word as "furlong," which referred to the average length of a plowed field.

The metric values in the table below are close but not exactly equal to the biblical measures. The biblical measures probably differed in exact length from time to time and place to place. The equivalents below are an attempt to give an average measurement.

Original Measure	Metric Measure
handbreadth	8 centimeters
span	23 centimeters
cubit	46 centimeters
"long" cubit	54 centimeters
stadia	185 meters

Translation Principles

1. The people in the Bible did not use modern measures such as meters, liters, and kilograms. Using the original measures can help readers know that the Bible really was written long ago in a time when people used those measures.
2. Using modern measures can help readers understand the text more easily.
3. Whatever measure you use, it would be good, if possible, to tell about the other kind of measure in the text or a footnote.

4. If you do not use the Biblical measures, try not to give the readers the idea that the measurements are exact. For example, if you translate one cubit as ".46 meters" or even as "46 centimeters," readers might think that the measurement is exact. It would be better to say "half a meter," "45 centimeters," or "50 centimeters."
5. Sometimes it can be helpful to use the word "about" to show that a measurement is not exact. For example, Luke 24:13 says that Emmaus was 60 stadia from Jerusalem. This can be translated as "about ten kilometers" from Jerusalem.
6. When God tells people how long something should be, and when people make things according to those lengths, do not use "about" in the translation. Otherwise it will give the impression that God did not care exactly how long something should be.

Translation Strategies

(1) Use the measurements from the ULT. These are the same kinds of measurements that the original writers used. Spell them in a way that is similar to the way they sound or are spelled in the ULT. (See Copy or Borrow Words.)
(2) Use the metric measurements given in the UST. The translators of the UST have already figured how to represent the amounts in the metric system.
(3) Use measurements that are already used in your language. In order to do this you would need to know how your measurements relate to the metric system and figure out each measurement.
(4) Use the measurements from the ULT and include measurements that your people know in the text or a note.
(5) Use measurements that your people know, and include the measurements from the ULT in the text or in a note.

Translation Strategies Applied

The strategies are all applied to Exodus 25:10 below.

> They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be two and a half cubits; its width will be one cubit and a half; and its height will be one cubit and a half. (Exodus 25:10 ULT)

(1) Use the measurements given in the ULT. These are the same kinds of measurements that the original writers used. Spell them in a way that is similar to the way they sound or are spelled in the ULT. (See Copy or Borrow Words.)

> > “They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be two and a half kubits; its width will be one kubit and a half; and its height will be one kubit and a half.”

(2) Use the metric measurements given in the UST. The translators of the UST have already figured how to represent the amounts in the metric system.

> > “They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be one meter; its width will be two thirds of a meter; and its height will be two thirds of a meter.”

(3) Use measurements that are already used in your language. In order to do this you would need to know how your measurements relate to the metric system and figure out each measurement. For example, if you measure things using the standard meter length, you could translate it as below.

> > “They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be one meter; its width will be two thirds of a meter; and its height will be two thirds of a meter.”

(4) Use the measurements from the ULT and include measurements that your people know in the text or a note. The following shows both measurements in the text.

> "They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be two and a half cubits (one meter); its width will be one cubit and a half (two thirds of a meter); and its height will be one cubit and a half (two thirds of a meter)."

(5) Use measurements that your people know, and include the measurements from the ULT in the text or in a note. The following shows the ULT measurements in notes.

> "They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be one meter; [1] its width will be two thirds of a meter; [2] and its height will be two thirds of a meter."

The footnotes would look like:

> "They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be one meter; [1] its width will be two thirds of > a meter; [2] and its height will be two thirds of a meter."

The footnotes would look like:

> [1] two and a half cubits
> [2] one cubit and a half

Matthew References:

5:41; 6:27

Biblical Imagery — Extended Metaphors

An extended metaphor is an explicit metaphor that uses multiple images and multiple ideas at the same time. This is in contrast to a simple metaphor, which uses only a single Image and a single Idea. The difference between an extended metaphor and a complex metaphor is that an extended metaphor is explicitly stated by a writer/speaker, but a complex metaphor is not.

Explanation of an Extended Metaphor

When using a metaphor, a writer/speaker uses a physical Image in order to express an abstract Idea about some immediate Topic, with at least one point of comparison between the Topic and the Image. In an extended metaphor, the writer/speaker explicitly states the Topic, and then describes multiple images and communicates multiple ideas.

In Isaiah 5:1b-7, the prophet Isaiah uses a vineyard (the Image) to express God's disappointment (the Idea) with the nation of Israel (the Topic) for their unfaithfulness to God and his covenant with them as his people. Farmers care for their gardens, and a farmer would feel disappointed if his vineyard produced bad fruit. If a vineyard produced only bad fruit for a long enough time, the farmer would eventually stop caring for it. We call this an extended metaphor because the prophet describes in detail multiple images relating to a vineyard as well as multiple aspects of God's disappointment.

> 1b My well beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill. 2 He spaded it,removed the stones, and planted it with an excellent kind of vine. He built a tower in the middle of it, and also built a winepress. He waited for it to produce grapes, but it produced wild grapes. 3 So now, inhabitant of Jerusalem and man of Judah; judge between me and my vineyard. 4 What more could have been done for my vineyard, that I have not done for it? When I looked for it to produce grapes, why did it produce wild grapes? 5 Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard; I will remove the hedge; I will turn it into a pasture; I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled down. 6 I will lay it waste, and it will not be pruned nor hoed. Instead, briers and thorns will spring up. I > will also command the clouds not to rain on it. 7 For the vineyard of Yahweh of hosts is the house of Israel, and the man of Judah his pleasant planting; he waited for justice, but instead, there was killing; for righteousness, but, instead, a shout for help. (Isa 5:1b-7 ULT)

Other Examples From the Bible

In Psalm 23, the psalmist uses the physical Image of a shepherd to describe the way that God (the Topic) shows great concern and care (the Idea) for his people. The psalmist describes multiple aspects of what shepherds do for sheep (leads them to pasture and to water, protects them, etc.). The psalmist also describes multiple aspects of how God takes care of him (gives him life, righteousness, comfort, etc.). Shepherds give sheep what they need, take them to safe places, rescue them, guide them, and protect them. What God does for his people is like these actions.

> 1 Yahweh is my shepherd; I will lack nothing.
> 2 He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
> he leads me beside tranquil water.
> 3 He brings back my life;
> he guides me along right paths for his name's sake.
> 4 Even though I walk through a valley of darkest shadow,
> I will not fear harm since you are with me;
> your rod and your staff comfort me. (Psalm 23:1-4 ULT)

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- People may not realize that the images represent other things.
- People may not be familiar with the things that are used as images.
- Extended metaphors are often so profound that it would be impossible for a translator to show all of the meaning generated by the metaphor.

Translation Principles

- Make the meaning of the extended metaphor as clear to the target audience as it was to the original audience.

- Do not make the meaning more clear to the target audience than it was to the original audience.
- When someone uses an extended metaphor, the images are an important part of what he is trying to say.
- If the target audience is not familiar with some of the images, you will need to find some way of helping them understand the images so that they can understand the whole extended metaphor.

Translation Strategies

Consider using the same extended metaphor if your readers will understand it in the same way the original readers would have understood it. If not, here are some other strategies:

(1) If the target audience would think that the images should be understood literally, translate the metaphor as a simile by using words such as “like” or “as.” It may be enough to to do this in just the first sentence or two.
(2) If the target audience would not know the image, find a way of translating it so they can understand what the image is.
(3) If the target audience still would not understand, then state it clearly.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the target audience would think that the images should be understood literally, translate the metaphor as a simile by using words such as “like” or “as.” It may be enough to to do this in just the first sentence or two. See Psalm 23:1-2 as an example:

> Yahweh is my shepherd; I will lack nothing.
> He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
> he leads me beside tranquil water. (ULT)

Can be translated as:

> “Yahweh is like a shepherd to me, so I will lack nothing.
> Like a shepherd who makes his sheep lie down in green pastures and leads them by peaceful waters, Yahweh helps me to rest peacefully.”

(2) If the target audience would not know the image, find a way of translating it so they can understand what the image is.

> My well beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.
> He spaded it, removed the stones, and planted it with an excellent kind of vine.
> He built a tower in the middle of it, and also built a winepress.
> He waited for it to produce grapes, but it only produced wild grapes.
> (Isaiah 5:1b-2 ULT)

May be translated as:

> My well beloved had a grapevine garden on a very fertile hill.
> He dug up the ground and removed the stones, and planted it with the best grapevines.
> He built a watchtower in the middle of it, and also built a tank where he could crush the juice out of the grapes.
> He waited for it to produce grapes, but it produced wild grapes that were not good for making wine.

(3) If the target audience still would not understand, then state it clearly.

> Yahweh is my shepherd; I will lack nothing. (Psalm 23:1 ULT)
>
> > "Yahweh cares for me like a shepherd that cares for his sheep, so I will lack nothing."
>
> For the vineyard of Yahweh of hosts is the house of Israel, > and the men of Judah his pleasant planting;

> he waited for justice, but instead, there was killing;
> for righteousness, but, instead, a shout for help. (Isaiah 5:7 ULT)

Can be translated as:

> > For the vineyard of Yahweh of hosts represents the house of Israel, > > and the men of Judah are like his pleasant planting;
> > he waited for justice, but instead, there was killing;
> > for righteousness, but, instead, a cry for help.

or as:

> > So asa farmer stops caringforagrapevinegarden that produces bad fruit,
> > Yahweh will stop protecting Israel and Judah, > > because they do not do what is right.
> > He waited for justice, but instead, there was killing;
> > for righteousness, but, instead, a cry for help.

Matthew References:

3:12; 4:16; 5:13; 6:22; 6:22; 6:23; 6:23; 7:3; 7:4; 7:5; 7:13; 7:14; 7:16; 7:17; 7:18; 7:19; 7:20; 9:intro; 9:37; 9:38; 11:29; 11:30; 12:33; 12:44; 12:44; 12:45

Biblical Money

Description

In early Old Testament times, people weighed their metals, such as silver and gold, and would pay a certain weight of that metal in order to buy things. Later, people started to make coins that each contained a standard amount of a certain metal. The daric is one such coin. In New Testament times, people used silver and copper coins.

The two tables below show some of the most well-known units of money found in the Old Testament (OT) and New Testament (NT). The table for Old Testament units shows what kind of metal was used and how much it weighed. The table for New Testament units shows what kind of metal was used and how much it was worth in terms of a day's wage.

Unit in OT	Metal	Weight
daric	gold coin	8.4 grams
shekel	various metals	11 grams
talent	various metals	33 kilograms

Unit in NT	Metal	Day's Wage
denarius/denarii	silver coin	1 day
drachma	silver coin	1 day
mite	copper coin	1/64 day
shekel	silver coin	4 days
talent	silver	6,000 days

Translation Principle

Do not use modern money values since these change from year to year. Using them will cause the Bible translation to become outdated and inaccurate.

Translation Strategies

The value of most money in the Old Testament was based on its weight. So when translating these weights in the Old Testament, see Biblical Weight. The strategies below are for translating the value of money in the New Testament.

(1) Use the Bible term and spell it in a way that is similar to the way it sounds. (See Copy or Borrow Words.)
(2) Describe the value of the money in terms of what kind of metal it was made of and how many coins were used.
(3) Describe the value of the money in terms of what people in Bible times could earn in one day of work.
(4) Use the biblical term and give the equivalent amount in the text or a footnote.
(5) Use the biblical term and explain it in a footnote.

Translation Strategies Applied

The translations strategies are all applied to Luke 7:41 below.

> The one owed 500 denarii, and the other, 50. (Luke 7:41b ULT)

1. Use the Bible term and spell it in a way that is similar to the way it sounds. (See Copy or Borrow Words.)

> > “The one owed 500 denali, and the other, 50.”

1. Describe the value of the money in terms of what kind of metal it was made of and how many pieces or coins were used.

> > "The one owed 500 silver coins, and the other, 50."

(3) Describe the value of the money in terms of what people in Bible times could earn in one day of work.

> > "The one owed 500 days' wages, and the other, 50."

(4) Use the Bible term and give the equivalent amount in the text or a footnote.

> > "The one owed 500 denarii 1, and the other owed 50 denarii. 2"

The footnotes would look like:

> > [1] 500 days' wages [2] 50 days' wages

(5) Use the Bible term and explain it in a footnote.

> “The one owed 500 denarii,1 and the other, 50.”
> (Luke 7:41 ULT)

> [1] A denarius was the amount of silver that people could earn in one day of work.

Matthew References:

5:26; 10:29; 17:24; 17:27; 18:24; 18:28; 20:2; 20:9; 20:10; 22:19; 25:intro; 25:15; 25:16; 25:20; 25:22; 25:24; 25:28; 26:15; 27:3; 27:5; 27:6; 27:9; 28:12; 28:15

Biblical Volume

Description

The following terms are the most common units of volume used in the Bible to state how much a certain container could hold. The containers and measurements are given for both liquids (such as wine) and dry solids (such as grain). The metric values are not exactly equal to the biblical measures. The biblical measures probably differed in exact amount from time to time and place to place. The equivalents below are an attempt to give an average measurement.

Type	Original Measure	Liters
Dry	omer	2 liters
Dry	ephah	22 liters
Dry	homer	220 liters
Dry	cor	220 liters
Dry	seah	7.7 liters
Dry	lethek	114.8 liters
Liquid	metrete	40 liters
Liquid	bath	22 liters
Liquid	hin	3.7 liters
Liquid	kab	1.23 liters
Liquid	log	0.31 liters

Translation Principles

- The people in the Bible did not use modern measures such as meters, liters, and kilograms. Using the original measures can help readers know that the Bible really was written long ago in a time when people used those measures.
- Using modern measures can help readers understand the text more easily.
- Whatever measures you use, it would be good, if possible, to tell about the other kinds of measures in the text or a footnote.

- If you do not use the biblical measures, try not to give the readers the idea that the measurements are exact. For example, if you translate one hin as “3.7 liters,” readers might think that the measurement is exactly 3.7 liters, not 3.6 or 3.8. It would be better to use a more approximate measure such as “three and a half liters” or “four liters.”
- When God tells people how much of something to use, and when people use those amounts in obedience to him, do not say “about” in the translation. Otherwise it will give the impression that God did not care exactly how much they used.

When the unit of measure is stated

Translation Strategies

(1) Use the measurements from the ULT. These are the same kinds of measurements that the original writers used. Spell them in a way that is similar to the way they sound or are spelled in the ULT. (See Copy or Borrow Words.)
(2) Use the metric measurements given in the UST. The translators of the UST have already figured how to represent the amounts in the metric system.
(3) Use measurements that are already used in your language. In order to do this you would need to know how your measurements relate to the metric system and figure out each measurement.
(4) Use the measurements from the ULT and include measurements that your people know in the text or a note.
(5) Use measurements that your people know, and include the measurements from the ULT in the text or in a note.

Translation Strategies Applied

The strategies are all applied to Isaiah 5:10 below.

> For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only one bath, and one homer of seed will yield only an ephah. (Isaiah 5:10 ULT)

(1) Use the measurements from the ULT. These are the same kinds of measurements that the original writers used. Spell them in a way that is similar to the way they sound or are spelled in the ULT. (See Copy or Borrow Words.)

> > “For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only one bat, and one homer of seed will yield only an efa.”

(2) Use the measurements given in the UST. Usually they are metric measurements. The translators of the UST have already figured how to represent the amounts in the metric system.

> > “For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only 22 liters and 220 liters of seed will yield only 22 liters.”

> > “For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only 22, and ten baskets of seed will yield only one basket.”

(3) Use measurements that are already used in your language. In order to do this you would need to know how your measurements relate to the metric system and figure out each measurement.

> > "For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only six gallons, and six and a half bushels of seed will yield only 20 quarts."

(4) Use the measurements from the ULT and include measurements that your people know in the text or a note. The following shows both measurements in the text.

> > "For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only one bath (six gallons), and one homer (six and a half bushels) of seed will yield only an ephah (20 quarts)."

(5) Use measurements that your people know, and include the measurements from the ULT in the text or in a note. The following shows the ULT measurements in footnotes.

> > "For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only 22 liters[1], and 220 liters[2] of seed will yield only 22 liters[3]."

The footnotes would look like:

> > [1] one bath
> > [2] one homer
> > [3] one ephah

When the unit of measure is implied

Sometimes the Hebrew does not specify a particular unit of volume but only uses a number. In these cases, many English versions, including the ULT and UST, add the word “measure.”

> When you came to a heap of 20 measures of grain, there were only ten, and when you came to the wine vat to draw out 50 measures of wine, there were only 20. (Haggai 2:16 ULT)

Translation Strategies

(1) Translate literally by using the number without a unit.
(2) Use a generic word like “measure” or “quantity” or “amount.”
(3) Use the name of an appropriate container, such as “basket” for grain or “jar” for wine.
(4) Use a unit of measure that you are already using in your translation.

Translation Strategies Applied

The strategies are all applied to Haggai 2:16 below.

> When you came to a heap of 20 measures of grain, there were only ten, and when you came to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures of wine, there were only 20. (Haggai 2:16 ULT)

(1) Translate literally by using the number without a unit.

> > When you came to a heap of 20 of grain, there were only ten, and when you came to the wine vat to draw out 50 of wine, there were only 20.

(2) Use a generic word like “measure” or “quantity” or “amount.”

> > When you came to a heap of 20 amounts of grain, there were only ten, and when you came to the wine vat to draw out fifty amounts of wine, there were only 20.

(3) Use the name of an appropriate container, such as “basket” for grain or “jar” for wine.

> > When you came to a heap of 20 baskets of grain, there were only ten, and when you came to the wine vat to draw out 50 jars of wine, there were only 20.

(4) Use a unit of measure that you are already using in your translation.

> > When you came to a heap for 20 liters of grain, there were only ten liters, and when you came to the wine vat to draw out 50 liters of wine, there were only 20 liters.

Matthew References:

13:33

Collective Nouns

Description

A collective noun is a singular noun that refers to a group of something. Examples: a family, clan, or tribe is a group of people who are related to each other; a flock is a group of birds or sheep; a fleet is a group of ships; and an army is a group of soldiers.

Many collective nouns are used exclusively as a singular replacement for a group as in the examples above. Frequently in the Bible the name of an ancestor is used, through a process of metonymy, as a collective noun referencing the group of his descendants. In the Bible, sometimes the singular noun will take a singular verb form, other times it will take a plural verb form. This may depend on how the author is thinking about the group, or whether the action is being done as a group or as individuals.

Reason This is a Translation Issue

There are several issues that require care when translating collective nouns. Further care is needed because the language you are translating into may not use collective nouns in the same way as the language you are translating from. Issues include:

1. The source language may have a collective noun for a group that the target language does not and vice-versa. You may have to translate a collective noun with a plural noun in your language, or you may need to translate a plural noun with a collective noun in your language.
2. Subject-verb agreement. Different languages or dialects may have different rules about using singular or plural verbs with collective nouns. Examples (from Wikipedia):
    - a singular noun with a singular verb: The team is in the dressing room.
    - a singular noun with a plural verb which is correct in British, but not American, English: The team are fighting among themselves. The team have finished the project.
3. Pronoun agreement. Similar to the previous, care needs to be taken to use the correct pronoun plurality and possibly gender or noun class to agree with the number/gender/class of the noun used. See the biblical examples below.
4. Clarity of referent. Especially if there is a mismatch in your translation between the verb and noun or pronoun concerning any of the factors above, readers may be confused about who or what is being referenced.

Examples from the Bible

> And Joab and all the army which was with him arrived (2 Samuel 3:23a ULT)

The word in bold is written in singular form in both Hebrew and English, but it refers to a group of warriors that fight together.

> and though the flock is cut off from the fold and there are no cattle in the stalls. (Habakkuk 3:17b ULT)

The word in bold is singular and refers to a group of sheep.

> And he went out again beside the sea, and all the crowd was coming to him, and he was teaching them. (Mark 2:13 ULT)

Note in this example that the noun is singular but the pronoun is plural. This may or may not be allowed or natural in your language.

> Do not let your heart be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. (John 14:1 ULT)

In this verse, the words translated “your” and “you” are plural, referring to many people. The word “heart” is singular in form, but it refers to all of their hearts as a group.

> And he shall take the hair of the head of his separation. And he shall put it on the fire that is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. (Num 6:18b ULT)

The word hair is singular, but it refers to many hairs, not just one.

> And Pharaoh said, “Who is Yahweh that I should listen to his voice to let Israel go? I do not know Yahweh; and moreover, I will not let Israel go.” (Exodus 5:2 ULT)

Here, “Israel” is singular, but means “the Israelites” by metonymy.

Translation Strategies

If your language has a collective (singular) noun that refers to the same group as referenced by the collective noun in the source text, then translate the word using that term. If not, here are some strategies to consider:

(1) Translate the collective noun with a plural noun.
(2) Add a plural word to the collective noun so that you can use a plural verb and pronouns.
(3) Use a phrase to describe the group that the collective noun references. A useful strategy here can be to use a general collective noun that refers to a group of people or things.
(4) If your language uses a collective noun for something that is a plural noun in the source language, you can translate the plural noun as a collective noun and, if necessary, change the form of the verb and any pronouns so that they agree with the singular noun.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Translate the collective noun with a plural noun.

> And Pharaoh said, “Who is Yahweh that I should listen to his voice to let Israel go? I do not know Yahweh; and moreover, I will not let Israel go.” (Exodus 5:2 ULT)

And Pharaoh said, “Who is Yahweh that I should listen to his voice to let the Israelites go? I do not know Yahweh; and moreover, I will not let the Israelites go.”

> And he shall take the hair of the head of his separation. And he shall put it on the fire that is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. (Num 6:18b ULT)

And he shall take the hairs of the head of his separation. And he shall put them on the fire that is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings.

(2) Add a plural word to the collective noun so that you can use a plural verb and pronouns.

> And Joab and all the army which was with him arrived (2 Samuel 3:23a ULT)

And Joab and all the army men who were with him arrived

> And he went out again beside the sea, and all the crowd was coming to him, and he was teaching them. (Mark 2:13 ULT)

And he went out again beside the sea, and all the people of the crowd were coming to him, and he was teaching them.

(3) Use a phrase to describe the group that the collective noun references. A useful strategy here can be to use a general collective noun that refers to a group of people or things.

> and though the flock is cut off from the fold and there are no cattle in the stalls. (Habakkuk 3:17b ULT) and though the group of sheep is cut off from the fold and there are no cattle in the stalls.

> And Pharaoh said, “Who is Yahweh that I should listen to his voice to let Israel go? I do not know Yahweh; and moreover, I will not let Israel go.” (Exodus 5:2 ULT)

And Pharaoh said, “Who is Yahweh that I should listen to his voice to let the people of Israel go? I do not know Yahweh; and moreover, I will not let the people of Israel go.”

(4) If your language uses a collective noun for something that is a plural noun in the source language, you can translate the plural noun as a collective noun and, if necessary, change the form of the verb and any pronouns so that they agree with the singular noun.

> Now this John had his clothing from the hairs of a camel and a leather belt around his waist (Matthew 3:4a ULT)

Now this John had his clothing from the hair of a camel and a leather belt around his waist

> You shall not make for yourself a carved figure nor any likeness that {is} in the heavens above, or that {is} in the earth beneath, or that {is} in the waters under the earth. (Deuteronomy 5:8 ULT)

You shall not make for yourself a carved figure nor any likeness that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

Matthew References:

3:10; 6:22; 6:23; 7:19; 10:30; 13:8; 13:15; 13:23; 13:24; 13:27; 13:37; 13:38; 15:8; 15:27; 17:6; 21:19; 23:4; 27:65; 27:66; 28:11

Connect — Background Information

Time Relationship

Some connectors establish time relationships between two phrases, clauses, sentences, or chunks of text.

Background Clause

Description

A background clause is one that describes something that is ongoing. Then, in the same sentence, another clause indicates an event that begins to happen during that time. These events are also simultaneous events, but they have the further relationship of background event and main event because the event that is already happening serves as the background for the other event, the one that is in focus. The background event simply provides the time frame or other context for the main event or events.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Languages indicate a shift in time in different ways. You (the translator) need to understand how these shifts in time are indicated in the original languages in order to communicate them clearly in your own language. Background clauses often indicate a time that began long before the event that is in focus. Translators need to understand how both the source language and the target language communicate background events. Some English words that indicate background events are “now,” “when,” “while,” and “during.” Those words can also indicate simultaneous events. To tell the difference, ask yourself if all of the events seem to be equal in importance and started at about the same time. If so, they are probably simultaneous events. But if an event(s) is ongoing and another event(s) just started, then the ongoing event(s) is probably background to the other event(s). Some common phrases that indicate background events are “in those days” and “at that time.”

Examples From OBS and the Bible

> When Solomon was old, he also worshiped their gods. (OBS Story 18 Frame 3)

Solomon began to worship foreign gods at a time when he was old. Being old is the background event. Worshiping other gods is the main event.

> And his parents went every year to Jerusalem to the Feast of the Passover. And when he was 12 years old, they went up according to the custom of the feast. (Luke 2:41-42 ULT)

The first event—going to Jerusalem—is ongoing and started long ago. We know this because of the words “every year.” Going to Jerusalem is the background event. Then an event begins that started during the time “when he was twelve years old.” So the main event is the specific time Jesus and his family traveled to Jerusalem for the Passover festival when he was twelve years old.

> And it came about that, while they were there, the days were fulfilled for her to give birth. (Luke 2:6 ULT)

Being in Bethlehem is the background event. The birth of the baby is the main event.

> And in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar—while Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas—the word of God came to John, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. (Luke 3:1-2 ULT)

This example begins with five background clauses (marked by commas), signalled as background by the words “while” and “during.” Then the main event happens: “the word of God came to John.”

Translation Strategies

If the way that the Background Clauses are marked is also clear in your language, then translate the Background Clauses as they are.

(1) If the connecting word does not make it clear that what follows is a Background Clause, use a connecting word that communicates this more clearly.
(2) If your language marks Background Clauses in a different way than using connecting words (such as by using different verb forms), then use that way.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

> And in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar—while Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas—the word of God came to John, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. (Luke 3:1-2 ULT)

(1) If the connecting word does not make it clear that what follows is a background clause, use a connecting word that communicates this more clearly.

> It happened during the time that Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and during the time that Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, and during the time that his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and during the time that Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene, and also during the time that Annas and Caiaphas were high priests—that the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness.

(2) If your language marks background clauses in a different way than using connecting words, such as with different verb forms, then use that way.

> Pontius Pilate was governing Judea, and Herod was ruling over Galilee, and his brother Philip was ruling over the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was ruling over Abilene, and Annas and Caiaphas were being high priests—the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness.

Example of Differences in Time Relationship Connecting Words:

Category	Example
Background setting	Yahweh's word was rare in those days;
Background repeated	there was no frequent prophetic vision.
Introduction of main event	At that time, when Eli
Background	whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see well,
Simultaneous background	was lying down in his own bed.
Simultaneous background	The lamp of God had not yet gone out,
Simultaneous background	and Samuel was lying down to sleep in the temple of Yahweh,
Simultaneous background	where the ark of God was.
Main event	Yahweh called to Samuel,
Sequential event	who said, "Here I am." (1 Sam 3:1-4 ULT)

In the above example, the first two lines talk about a condition that was going on for a long time. This is the general, long-term background. We know this from the phrase "in those days." After the introduction of the main event ("At that time,"), there are several lines of simultaneous background. The first one is introduced by “when,” and then three more follow, with the last connected by “and.” The background clause introduced by “where” explains a little more about the background clause before it. Then the main event happens, followed by more events. Translators will need to think about the best way to show these relationships in their language.

Matthew References:

4:18; 10:4

Connect — Contrary to Fact Conditions

Conditional Relationships

Conditional connectors connect two clauses to indicate that one of them will happen when the other one happens. In English, the most common way to connect conditional clauses is with the words, “if … then.” Often, however, the word “then” is not stated.

Contrary-to-Fact Conditions

Description

A Contrary-to-Fact Condition is a condition that sounds hypothetical, but the speaker is already certain that it is NOT true.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Usually there are no special words that indicate a Contrary-to-Fact Condition. The writer assumes that the reader knows that it is NOT a true condition. For this reason it often requires knowledge of implied information to know that it is not true. If this kind of condition is difficult for translators to communicate, they may want to consider using the same strategies that they used for Rhetorical Questions or Implied Information.

Examples From OBS and the Bible

> But if Baal is God, worship him! (Story 19 Frame 6 OBS)

> Elijah came near to all the people and said, “How long will you keep changing your mind? If Yahweh is God, follow him. But if Baal is God, then follow him.” Yet the people did not answer him a word. (1 Kings 18:21 ULT)

Baal is not God. Elijah is not suggesting that Baal might be God, and he does not want the people to follow Baal. But Elijah used a conditional statement to show them that what they were doing was wrong. In the example above, we see two conditions that have the same construction. The first one, "If Yahweh is God," is a Factual Condition because Elijah is certain that it is true. The second one, "if Baal is God," is a Contrary-to-Fact Condition because Elijah is certain that it is not true. You will need to consider if people would say both of these in the same way in your language or if they would say them in different ways.

> But his wife replied to him, "If Yahweh had desired to kill us, he would not have taken from our hand the whole burnt offering and the offering. He would not have shown us all these things, and at this time would he have not allowed us to hear about this." (Judges 13:23 ULT)

Manoah's wife thinks that the second part of her conditional statement is not true, therefore the first part is also not true. God received their burnt offering; therefore, He does not want to kill them.

>

> "If only we had died by Yahweh's hand in the land of Egypt, sitting by a pot of meat and eating bread to the full." (Exodus 16b:3 ULT)

Of course the people speaking here did not die in Egypt, and so this is a Contrary-to-Fact condition that is used to express a wish.

> "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes." (Matthew 11:21 ULT)

The English reader knows that these last two examples are Contrary-to-Fact conditions because of the past-tense verbs used in the first part (they are not things that might happen).

The last example also has a second part that uses “would have.” These words also signal something that did not happen.

Translation Strategies

If Contrary-to-Fact conditions are clear in your language, then use them as they are.

(1) If the condition leads the reader to think that the speaker believes something that is false, then restate the condition as something that others believe.
(2) If the condition leads the reader to think that the speaker is suggesting that the first part is true, then restate it as a statement that it is not true.
(3) If the condition is expressing something that did not happen but the speaker wanted it to happen, restate it as a wish.
(4) If the condition is expressing something that did not happen, restate it as a negative statement.
(5) Often Factual and Contrary-to-Fact conditions are used to make reasoned arguments for a change in behavior. If translators are struggling to know the best way to translate them, it could be helpful to discuss how this is done in their language community. If someone is trying to convince people to change their behavior, how do they do that? It may be possible to adapt similar strategies when translating these conditions.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the condition leads the reader to think that the speaker believes something that is false, then restate the condition as something that others believe.

> But if Baal is God, worship him! (Story 19 Frame 6 OBS)

> > If you believe that Baal is God, then worship him!

(2) If the condition leads the reader to think that the speaker is suggesting that the first part is true, then restate it as a statement that it is not true.

> > If Baal is not God, then you should not worship him!

But his wife replied to him, "If Yahweh had desired to kill us, he would not have taken from our hand the whole burnt offering and the offering. He would not have shown us all these things, and at this time would he have not allowed us to hear about this." (Judges 13:23 ULT)

> > "Yahweh does not want to kill us, or he would not have received the burnt offering and the offering we gave him."

(3) If the condition is expressing something that did not happen but the speaker wanted it to happen, restate it as a wish.

> "If only we had died by Yahweh's hand in the land of Egypt, sitting by a pot of meat and eating bread to the full." (Exodus 16b:3 ULT)
>
> > "I wish we had died by Yahweh's hand in the land of Egypt…"

(4) If the condition is expressing something that did not happen, restate it as a negative statement.

> "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes." (Matthew 11:21 ULT)

> > "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! The mighty deeds which were done in you were not done in Tyre and Sidon. But if they had been done there, those people would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes."

(5) Often Factual and Contrary-to-Fact Conditions are used to make reasoned arguments for a change in behavior. If translators are struggling to know the best way to translate them, it could be helpful to discuss how this is done in their language community. If someone is trying to convince people to change their behavior, how do they do that? It may be possible to adapt similar strategies when translating these conditions.

> But if Baal is God, worship him! (Story 19 Frame 6 OBS)

> > Is Baal the one who is truly God? Should you worship him?

> "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes." (Matthew 11:21 ULT)

> > "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! You think that you are better than Tyre and Sidon, but you are not! They would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes at seeing the mighty deeds that you have seen! You should be like them!"

Matthew References:

12:7; 12:26; 12:27; 24:22; 24:24

Connect — Contrast Relationship

Logical Relationships

Some connectors establish logical relationships between two phrases, clauses, sentences, or chunks of text.

Contrast Relationship

Description

A contrast relationship is a logical relationship in which one event or item is in contrast or opposition to another.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

In Scripture, many events did not happen as the people involved intended or expected them to happen. Sometimes people acted in ways that were not expected, whether good or bad. Often it was God at work, changing the events. These events were often pivotal. It is important that translators understand and communicate these contrasts. In English, contrast relationships are often indicated by the words “but,” “although,” “even though,” “though,” “yet,” or “however.”

Examples From OBS and the Bible

> You tried to do evil when you sold me as a slave, but God used the evil for good! (Story 8 Frame 12 OBS)

Joseph’s brothers’ evil plan to sell Joseph is contrasted with God’s good plan to save many people. The word “but” marks the contrast.

> For who is greater, the one who reclines at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at the table? Yet I am among you as one who serves. (Luke 22:27 ULT)

Jesus contrasts the proud way that human leaders behave with the humble way that he behaves. The contrast is marked by the word “yet.”

> The hill country will also be yours. Though it is a forest, you will clear it and it will become yours to its farthest borders, for you will drive out the Canaanites, even though they have chariots of iron, and even though they are strong. (Joshua 17:18 ULT)

It was unexpected that the Israelites, who had been slaves in Egypt, would be able to conquer and lay claim to the promised land.

Translation Strategies

If your language uses contrast relationships in the same way as in the text, then use them as they are.

(1) If the contrast relationship between the clauses is not clear, then use a connecting word or phrase that is more specific or more clear.
(2) If it is more clear in your language to mark the other clause of the contrast relationship, then use a connecting word on the other clause.
(3) If your language shows a contrast relationship in a different way, then use that way.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the contrast relationship between the clauses is not clear, then use a connecting word or phrase that is more specific or more clear.

> For who is greater, the one who reclines at table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at table? Yet I am among you as one who serves. (Luke 22:27 ULT)
>
> > For who is greater, the one who reclines at table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at > > table? Unlike that person, I am among you as one who serves.

(2) If it is more clear in your language to mark the other clause of the contrast relationship, then use a connecting word on the other clause.

> The hill country will also be yours. Though it is a forest, you will clear it and it will become yours to its farthest borders, for you will drive out the Canaanites, even though they have chariots of iron, and even though they are strong. (Joshua 17:18 ULT)
>
> > The hill country will also be yours. It is a forest, but you will clear it and it will become yours to its farthest borders. They have chariots of iron, and they are strong, but you will drive out the Canaanites.

(3) If your language shows a contrast relationship in a different way, then use that way.

> {David} found favor in the sight of God, and he asked if he might find a dwelling place for the house of Jacob. However, Solomon built the house for him. But the Most High does not live in houses made with hands. (Acts 7:46-48a ULT)
>
> > [David] found favor in the sight of God, and he asked if he might find a dwelling place for the house of Jacob. But it was, Solomon, not David, who built the house for God. Even though Solomon built him a > house, the Most High does not live in houses made with hands.

Matthew References:

3:10; 5:22; 5:28; 5:32; 5:33; 5:34; 5:37; 5:39; 5:44; 6:1; 6:6; 6:13; 6:17; 6:30; 7:11; 9:6; 9:17; 9:18; 9:25; 9:31; 9:34; 10:6; 10:28; 11:8; 11:9; 11:17; 11:19; 11:22; 11:24; 12:1; 12:6; 12:28; 14:5; 14:16; 14:17; 14:24; 14:30; 15:5; 16:11; 17:12; 17:27; 18:16; 18:25; 18:30; 19:9; 19:14; 20:13; 20:14; 21:15; 21:29; 22:5; 22:6; 23:8; 23:11; 24:8; 24:22; 25:12; 26:10; 26:60; 26:64; 27:7; 27:20; 27:23; 27:49; 28:5

Connect — Exception Clauses

Exceptional Relationship

Description

Exceptional relationship connectors exclude one or more items or people from a group.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

English indicates exceptional relationships by first describing a group (Part 1) and then stating what is not in that group by using words like “except,” “but not,” “other than,” “besides,” “unless,” “however … not,” and “only” (Part 2). Some languages do not indicate in this way that one or more items or people are excluded from a group. Instead, they have other ways of doing this. In some languages this type of construction does not make sense because the exception in Part 2 seems to contradict the statement in Part 1. Translators need to understand who (or what) is in the group and who (or what) is excluded in order to be able to accurately communicate this in their language.

Examples From OBS and the Bible

> God told Adam that he could eat from any tree in the garden except from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. (OBS Story 1 Frame 11)
>
> But if you will not redeem it, then tell me so that I may know, for there is no one to redeem it besides you, and I am after you. (Ruth 4:4b ULT)
>
> David attacked them from the twilight to the evening of the next day. Not a man escaped except for 400 young men, who rode on camels and fled. (1 Samuel 30:17 ULT)
>
> The man said, “Let me go, for the dawn is breaking.” Jacob said, “I will not let you go unless you bless me.” (Genesis 32:26 ULT)

Translation Strategies

If the way that Exceptional Clauses are marked in the source language is also clear in your language, then translate the Exceptional Clauses in the same way.

(1) Very often, the exception in Part 2 contradicts something that was negated in Part 1. In this case, the translator can phrase the same idea without the contradiction by deleting the negative and using a word like "only."
(2) Reverse the order of the clauses so that the exception is stated first, and then the larger group is named second.

Examples of Translation Strategy Applied

(1) Very often, the exception in Part 2 contradicts something that was negated in Part 1. In this case, the translator can phrase the same idea without the contradiction by deleting the negative and using a word like "only."

> David attacked them from the twilight to the evening of the next day. Not a man escaped except for 400 young men, who rode on camels and fled. (1 Samuel 30:17 ULT)

- Part 1: (Not a man escaped)
- Part 2: (except for 400 young men)

> > David attacked them from the twilight to the evening of the next day. Only 400 young men escaped; they rode on camels and fled.

> But if you will not redeem it, then tell me so that I may know, for there is no one to redeem it besides you, and I am after you. (Ruth 4:4 ULT)

> > But if you will not redeem it, then tell me so that I may know, for you are first in line to redeem it {only you can redeem it}, and I am after you.

> The man said, “Let me go, for the dawn is breaking.” Jacob said, “I will not let you go unless you bless me.” (Genesis 32:26 ULT)
>
> > The man said, “Let me go, for the dawn is breaking.” Jacob said, “I will let you go only if you bless me.”

(2) Reverse the order of the clauses, so that the exception is stated first, and then the larger group is named second.

> God told Adam that he could eat from any tree in the garden except from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. (OBS Story 1 Frame 11)
>
> > God told Adam that he could not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, but he could eat from any other tree in the garden.

Matthew References:

5:13; 5:20; 5:32; 11:27; 11:27; 12:4; 12:24; 12:29; 12:31; 12:39; 13:57; 14:17; 15:24; 17:8; 17:21; 18:3; 19:9; 21:19; 24:36

Connect — Factual Conditions

Conditional Relationships

Conditional connectors connect two clauses to indicate that one of them will happen when the other one happens. In English, the most common way to connect conditional clauses is with the words, “if … then.” Often, however, the word “then” is not stated.

Factual Conditions

Description

A Factual Condition is a condition that sounds hypothetical but is already certain or true in the speaker’s mind. In English, a sentence containing a Factual Condition can use the words “even though,” “since,” or “this being the case” to indicate that it is a factual condition and not a hypothetical condition.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages do not state something as a condition if it is certain or true. Translators from these languages may misunderstand the original languages and think that the condition is uncertain. This would lead to mistakes in their translations. Even if the translators understand that the condition is certain or true, the readers may misunderstand it. In this case, it would be best to translate it as a statement of fact rather than as a conditional statement.

Examples From OBS and the Bible

> “If Yahweh is God, worship him!” (Story 19 Frame 6 OBS)

> Elijah came near to all the people and said, “How long will you keep changing your mind? If Yahweh is God, follow him. But if Baal is God, then follow him.” Yet the people did not answer him a word. (1 Kings 18:21 ULT)

This sentence has the same construction as a hypothetical condition. The condition is "if Yahweh is God." If that is true, then the Israelites should worship Yahweh. But the prophet Elijah does not question whether or not Yahweh is God. In fact, he is so certain that Yahweh is God that later in the passage he pours water all over his sacrifice. He is confident that God is real and that he will burn even an offering that is completely wet. Over and over again, the prophets taught that Yahweh is God, so the people should worship him. The people did not worship Yahweh, however, even though He is God. By putting the statement or instruction into the form of a Factual Condition, Elijah is trying to get the Israelites to understand more clearly what they should do.

> "A son honors his father, and a servant honors his master. If I, then, am a father, where is my honor? If I am a master, where is the reverence for me?" says Yahweh of hosts to you priests, who despise my name. (Malachi 1:6 ULT)

Yahweh has said that he is a father and a master to Israel, so even though this sounds like a hypothetical condition because it begins with "if," it is not hypothetical. This verse begins with the proverb that a son honors his father. Everyone knows that is right. But the Israelites are not honoring Yahweh. The other proverb in the verse says that a servant honors his master. Everyone knows that is right. But the Israelites are not honoring Yahweh, so it seems that he is not their master. But Yahweh is the master. Yahweh uses the form of a hypothetical condition to demonstrate that the Israelites are wrong. The second part of the condition that should occur naturally is not happening, even though the conditional statement is true.

Translation Strategies

If using the form of a hypothetical condition is confusing or would make the reader think that the speaker doubts what he is saying in the first part of the sentence, then use a statement instead. Words such as "since" or "you know that …" or "it is true that …" can be helpful to make the meaning clear.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

> "If Yahweh is God, worship him!" (Story 19 Frame 6 OBS)

> > "It is true that Yahweh is God, so worship him!"

> "A son honors his father, and a servant honors his master. If I, then, am a father, where is my honor? If I am a master, where is the reverence for me?" says Yahweh of hosts to you priests, who despise my name. (Malachi 1:6 ULT)

> > "A son honors his father, and a servant honors his master. Since I, then, am a father, where is my honor? Since I am a master, where is the reverence for me?"

Matthew References:

6:30; 7:11; 8:31; 10:25; 12:28; 19:17; 19:21; 22:45; 24:23

Connect — Goal (Purpose) Relationship

Logical Relationships

Some connectors establish logical relationships between two phrases, clauses, sentences, or chunks of text.

Goal (or Purpose) Relationship

Description

A Goal Relationship is a logical relationship in which the second event is the purpose or goal of the first event. In order for something to be a goal relationship, someone must do the first event with the intention that it will cause the second event.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

In Scripture, the goal or purpose may be stated either first or second. But in some languages, the goal or purpose must always occur in the same position (either first or second) in order for that logical relationship to be understood. You (the translator) need to understand the relationship between the two parts and communicate those accurately in your language. This may require changing the order of the two events. It may also require specific words to indicate that one is the goal or purpose of the other. Words commonly used to indicate a goal relationship in English are “in order to,” “in order that” or “so that.” It is important that the translator recognize the words that signal a goal relationship and translate that relationship in a natural way.

Examples From OBS and the Bible

> She became angry and falsely accused Joseph so that he was arrested and sent to prison. (Story 8 Frame 5 OBS)

The goal or purpose of the woman’s false accusation was to get Joseph arrested and sent to prison.

> Meanwhile Gideon, his son, was threshing out wheat at the winepress in order to hide from the presence of Midian. (Judges 6:11b ULT)

Here the prepositional phrase begins with “in order to.”

> Now if I have found favor in your eyes, show me your ways so that I may know you and continue to find favor in your eyes. Remember that this nation is your people. (Exodus 33:13 ULT)

Moses wants God to show him God’s ways for the goal or purpose of Moses knowing God and continuing to find favor with God.

> Even be sure to pull some out from the bundles for her and leave it for her to glean, and do not rebuke her! (Ruth 2:16 ULT)

The goal or purpose of Boaz instructing the men to pull out the grain from their bundles and leave it was for Ruth to gather (glean) it.

> The shepherds said to each other, “Let us indeed go over as far as Bethlehem, and let us see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.” (Luke 2:15 ULT)

The purpose of going to Bethlehem was to see the thing that had happened. Here the purpose is not marked and might be misunderstood.

> “… if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.” (Matthew 19:17b ULT)

The goal of keeping the commandments is to enter into life.

> Do not turn from it to the right or to the left so that you may bewise in everything in which you walk. (Joshua 1:7c ULT)

The purpose of not turning away from the instructions that Moses gave to the Israelites was so that they would be wise.

> But when the vine growers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and take over his inheritance.' So they took him, threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. (Matt 21:38-39 ULT)

The purpose of the vine growers killing the heir was so they could take his inheritance. They state both events as a plan, joining them only with "and." Then the word "so" marks the reporting of the first event, but the second event (the goal or purpose) is not stated.

Translation Strategies

If your language uses Goal or Purpose relationships in the same way as in the text, then use them as they are.

(1) If the construction of the Goal statement is unclear, change it to one that is more clear.
(2) If the order of the statements makes the Goal statement unclear or confusing for the reader, then change the order.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the construction of the goal statement is unclear, change it to one that is more clear.

> "Even be sure to pull some out from the bundles for her and leave it for her to glean, and do not rebuke her!" (Ruth 2:16 ULT)

> > "Even be sure to pull some out from the bundles for her and leave it so that she can glean it, and do not rebuke her!"

> The shepherds said to each other, "Let us indeed go over as far as Bethlehem, and let us see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." (Luke 2:15 ULT)
>
> > The shepherds said to each other, "Let us indeed go over as far as Bethlehem so that we can see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us."

(2) If the order of the statements makes the goal statement unclear or confusing for the reader, then change the order.

> "… if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments." (Matthew 19:17bULT)
>
> > "… keep the commandments if you want to enter into life." or: "… keep the commandments so that you can enter into life."

> But when the vine growers saw the son, they said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and take over his inheritance.’ So they took him, threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. (Matt 21:38-39 ULT)

(1) and (2)

> But when the vine growers saw the son, they said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and take over his inheritance.’ So they took him, threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. (Matt 21:38-39 ULT)

> > But when the vine growers saw the son, they said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him so that we can take over his inheritance.’ So they took him, threw him out of the vineyard and killed him so that they could take over his inheritance.

Matthew References:

5:28; 5:45; 6:4; 6:18; 6:27; 7:1; 9:6; 10:18; 12:10; 16:1; 19:3; 21:38; 22:35; 24:24; 24:45; 26:15; 27:49

Connect — Hypothetical Conditions

Conditional Relationships

Conditional connectors connect two clauses to indicate that one of them will happen when the other one happens. In English, the most common way to connect conditional clauses is with the words “if … then.” Often, however, the word “then” is not stated.

Hypothetical Condition

Description

A Hypothetical Condition is a condition in which the second event (the “then” clause) will only take place if the first event (the “if” clause) takes place or is fulfilled in some way. Sometimes what takes place is dependent on the actions of other people.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

It is important that translators understand whether or not something is a Hypothetical Condition so that they translate it in the correct way. For example, some of God’s promises to Israel were conditional, based on whether or not Israel obeyed God. However, many of God’s promises to Israel were not conditional; God would keep these promises whether or not the Israelites obeyed. It is important that you (the translator) know the difference between these two types of promises and communicate each one accurately in your own language. Also, sometimes conditions are stated in an order different than the order in which they would happen. If the target language would state the clauses in a different order, then you will need to make that adjustment.

Examples From OBS and the Bible

> God promised to bless the people and protect them, if they obeyed these laws. But he said he would punish them if they did not obey them (Story 13 Frame 7 OBS)

There are two hypothetical conditions in this frame. In both of these conditions, the first event (the “if clause”) is stated after the “then” clause. If this is unnatural or confusing, the clauses can be restated in the more natural order. The first hypothetical condition is: if the Israelites obeyed God, then God would bless and protect them. The second hypothetical condition is: if the Israelites did not obey God, then God would punish them.

> If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? (Genesis 4:7a ULT)

If Cain does what is right, then he will be accepted. The only way for Cain to be accepted is by doing what is right.

> … if this plan or this work is of men, it will be overthrown. But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them. (Acts 5:38b-39aULT)

There are two hypothetical conditions here: (1) If it is true that this plan is of men, then it will be overthrown; (2) If it is true that this plan is of God, then it cannot be overthrown.

Translation Strategies

(1) If the order of clauses makes the hypothetical condition confusing, then change the order of the clauses.

(2) If it is not clear where the second event is, mark that part with a word like “then.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the order of clauses makes the hypothetical condition confusing, then change the order of the clauses.

> God promised to bless the people and protect them if they obeyed these laws. But he said he would punish them if they did not obey them. (Story 13 Frame 7 OBS)

> > If the people obeyed these laws, God promised he would bless them and protect them. But if they did not obey these laws, God said that he would punish them.

(2) If it is not clear where the second event is, mark that part with a word like “then.”

> God promised to bless the people and protect them, if they obeyed these laws. But he said he would punish them if they did not obey them. (Story 13 Frame 7 OBS)

> > If the people obeyed these laws, then God promised he would bless them and protect them. But if they did not obey these laws, then God said that he would punish them.

> … if this plan or this work is of men, it will be overthrown. But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them; (Acts 5:38b-39a ULT)

> > … if this plan or this work is of men, then it will be overthrown. But if it is of God, then you will not be able to overthrow them;

Matthew References:

4:3; 4:6; 5:13; 5:23; 5:29; 5:30; 5:39; 11:21; 11:23; 14:28; 16:24; 18:8; 18:9; 18:13; 18:35; 21:3; 26:33; 26:35; 27:40

Connect — Reason-and-Result Relationship

Logical Relationships

Some connectors establish logical relationships between two phrases, clauses, sentences, or chunks of text.

Reason-and-Result Relationships

Description

A reason-and-result relationship is a logical relationship in which one event is the reason or cause for another event. The second event, then, is the result of the first event.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

A reason-and-result relationship can look forward — "I did Y because I wanted X to happen." But usually it is looking backward — "X happened, and so I did Y." Also, it is possible to state the reason either before or after the result. Many languages have a preferred order for the reason and the result, and it will be confusing for the reader if they are in the opposite order. Common words used to indicate a reason-and-result relationship in English are "because," "so," "therefore," and "for." Some of these words can also be used to indicate a goal relationship, so translators need to be aware of the difference between a goal relationship and a reason-and-result relationship. It is necessary for translators to understand how the two events are connected, and then communicate them clearly in their language.

If the reason and result are stated in different verses, it is still possible to put them in a different order. If you change the order of the verses, then put the verse numbers together at the beginning of the group of verses that were rearranged like this: 1-2. This is called a Verse Bridge.

Examples From OBS and the Bible

> The Jews were amazed, because Saul had tried to kill believers, and now he believed in Jesus! (Story 46 Frame 6 OBS)

The reason is the change in Saul — that he had tried to kill people who believed in Jesus, and now he himself believed in Jesus. The result is that the Jews were amazed. “Because” connects the two ideas and indicates that what follows it is a reason.

> Behold, a great storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves. (Matthew 8:24a ULT)

The reason is the great storm, and the result is that the boat was covered with the waves. The two events are connected by “so that.” Notice that the term “so that” often indicates a goal relationship, but here the relationship is reason-and-result. This is because the sea cannot think and therefore does not have a goal.

> God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it he rested from all his work which he had done in his creation. (Genesis 2:3 ULT)

The result is that God blessed and sanctified the seventh day. The reason is because he rested on the seventh day from his work.

> “Blessed are the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.” (Luke 6:20b ULT)

The result is that the poor are blessed. The reason is that the kingdom of God is theirs.

> But he raised up in their place their sons that Joshua circumcised, being uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way. (Joshua 5:7 ULT)

The result is that Joshua circumcised the boys and men who had been born in the wilderness. The reason was that they had not been circumcised while they were journeying.

Translation Strategies

If your language uses reason-and-result relationships in the same way as in the text, then use them as they are.

(1) If the order of the clauses is confusing for the reader, then change the order.

(2) If the relationship between the clauses is not clear, then use a more clear connecting word.

(3) If it is more clear to put a connecting word in the clause that does not have one, then do so.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

> God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it he rested from all his work which he had done in his creation. (Genesis 2:3 ULT)

(1) God rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had done in his creation. That is why he blessed the seventh day and sanctified it.

> Blessed are the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. (Luke 6:20 ULT)

(1) The kingdom of God belongs to you who are poor. Therefore, the poor are blessed.

(2) Blessed are the poor, because yours is the kingdom of God.

(3) The reason that the poor are blessed is because yours is the kingdom of God.

> Behold, a great storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves. (Matthew 8:24a ULT)

(1) Behold, the boat was covered with the waves because a great storm arose on the sea.

(2) Behold, a great storm arose on the sea, with the result that the boat was covered with the waves.

(3) Behold, because a great storm arose on the sea, the boat was covered with the waves.

> Since he was not able to find out anything for certain because of the noise, he ordered that he be brought into the fortress. (Acts 21:34b ULT)

(1) The captain ordered that Paul be brought into the fortress, because he could not tell anything because of all the noise.

(2) Because the captain could not tell anything because of all the noise, he ordered that Paul be brought into the fortress.

(3) The captain could not tell anything because of all the noise, so he ordered that Paul be brought into the fortress.

Matthew References:

1:20; 1:21; 2:2; 2:13; 2:18; 2:20; 2:23; 3:2; 3:8; 3:9; 3:15; 4:14; 5:3; 5:4; 5:5; 5:6; 5:7; 5:8; 5:9; 5:10; 5:11; 5:12; 5:12; 5:15; 5:18; 5:23; 5:29; 5:30; 5:34; 5:35; 5:35; 5:36; 5:45; 5:46; 5:48; 6:2; 6:7; 6:8; 6:8; 6:9; 6:21; 6:23; 6:24; 6:25; 6:32; 6:33; 6:34; 7:2; 7:8; 7:12; 7:12; 7:13; 7:14; 7:20; 7:24; 7:29; 8:17; 9:13; 9:21; 9:24; 9:36; 10:10; 10:17; 10:20; 10:23; 10:26; 10:32; 11:20; 11:21; 11:23; 11:29; 11:30; 12:8; 12:12; 12:12; 12:27; 12:31; 12:33; 12:34; 12:34; 12:41; 12:42; 13:5; 13:15; 13:17; 13:18; 13:35; 13:40; 13:52; 13:56; 13:58; 14:2; 14:3; 14:4; 14:7; 14:24; 15:3; 15:6; 15:9; 15:23; 15:31; 15:32; 16:2; 16:3; 16:17; 16:23; 16:25; 16:27; 17:10; 18:1; 18:4; 18:10; 18:20; 18:23; 18:26; 18:29; 18:31; 18:32; 19:6; 19:6; 19:7; 19:14; 19:22; 19:25; 19:27; 21:4; 21:26; 21:27; 21:32; 21:40; 21:43; 21:46; 22:16; 22:17; 22:28; 22:29; 22:43; 22:45; 23:3; 23:8; 23:9; 23:10; 23:13; 23:14; 23:15; 23:16; 23:20; 23:23; 23:25; 23:27; 23:29; 23:31; 23:34; 23:35; 24:5; 24:15; 24:21; 24:24; 24:27; 24:42; 24:44; 24:44; 24:45; 25:8; 25:13; 25:13; 25:14; 25:27; 25:28; 25:35; 25:42; 26:9; 26:10; 26:31; 26:43; 26:52; 26:54; 26:56; 26:73; 27:6; 27:14; 27:17; 27:18; 27:19; 27:23; 27:24; 27:43; 28:2; 28:5; 28:6; 28:19

Connect — Sequential Time Relationship

Time Relationships

Some connectors establish time relationships between two phrases, clauses, sentences, or chunks of text.

Sequential Clause

Description

A sequential clause is a time relation that connects two events in which one happens and then the other happens.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Languages indicate sequences of events in different ways; some use ordering, some use connecting words, some even use relative tense (Relative tense is a tense that refers to a time in relation to a reference point in the context.) Connecting words that may indicate sequence are words such as “then,” “later,” “after,” “afterward,” “before,” “first,” and “when.” Translators need to be certain that they communicate the order of the events in a way that is natural in their language. This may require ordering clauses differently than in the original languages.

Examples From OBS and the Bible

> When Joseph came to his brothers, they kidnapped him and sold him to some slave traders. (OBS Story 8 Frame 2)

First Joseph came to his brothers, and then they kidnapped and sold him. We know this because of the connecting word “when.” The translator needs to decide the best way to communicate this sequence clearly and correctly.

> It was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but after I ate it, my stomach became bitter. (Revelation 10:10b ULT)

The event of the first clause occurs first, and the event of the last clause occurs later. We know this because of the connecting word "after." The translator needs to decide the best way to communicate this sequence clearly and correctly.

> For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be desolate (Isaiah 7:16 ULT)

The event of the first clause occurs after the event of the second clause. First the land they dread will be desolate, and then the child will know to refuse evil and choose good. We know this because of the connecting word "before." However, stating the clauses in this order may communicate the wrong order of events in your language. The translator may have to change the order so that the clauses come in the order that they happen. Or it may be possible to keep the order of the original language text and mark the ordering of sequence so that it is clear to the readers. You (the translator) need to decide the best way to communicate this sequence clearly and correctly.

> Then Mary arose in those days and quickly went into the hill country, to a city of Judah, and she entered into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. (Luke 1:39-40 ULT)

Here the general connector "and" connects four events. These are sequential events—each happens after the one before it. We know this because that is the only way that these events would happen. So in English, the general connector "and" is enough to make the sequence clear for events such as these. You will need to decide if this also communicates this sequence clearly and correctly in your language.

Translation Strategies

If the sequence of events is clear in your language, then translate the sequence as it is.

(1) If the connecting word is not clear, use a connecting word that communicates the sequence more clearly.
(2) If the clauses are in an order that makes the sequence unclear, put the clauses in an order that is more clear.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the connecting word is not clear, use a connecting word that communicates the sequence more clearly.

> Then Mary arose in those days and quickly went into the hill country, to a city of Judah, and she entered into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. (Luke 1:39-40 ULT)
>
> > Then Mary arose in those days. Then she quickly went into the hill country, to a city of Judah. Then she entered into the house of Zechariah, and then she greeted Elizabeth.

> For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be desolate (Isaiah 7:16 ULT)
>
> > For the time will come when the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, but even before that time, the land whose two kings you dread will be desolate.

(2) If the clauses are in an order that makes the sequence unclear, put the clauses in an order that is more clear.

> For the land whose two kings you dread will be desolate before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good.

For more about sequences of events, see Sequence of Events.

Matthew References:

2:1; 2:8; 3:6; 5:24; 8:18; 11:20; 12:20; 17:6; 21:29; 21:37; 22:23; 23:1; 24:29; 25:5

Connect — Simultaneous Time Relationship

Time Relationships

Some connectors establish time relationships between two phrases, clauses, sentences, or chunks of text.

Simultaneous Clause

Description

A simultaneous clause is a time relationship that connects two or more events that occur at the same time.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Languages indicate in many different ways that events occur simultaneously. These ways may vary based on whether or not something is causing the events to occur simultaneously. Connecting words that may indicate simultaneous events are words such as “while,” “as,” and “during.” Often the Bible does not state a relationship between the events but simply says they occurred at the same time. It is important that you (the translator) know when a time relationship is implied and when it is not implied so that you can communicate it clearly. A simultaneous clause communicates that events happened at the same time but it does not indicate that one event caused the other. That would be a reason-and-result relationship.

Examples From OBS and the Bible

> Joseph served his master well, and God blessed Joseph. (OBS Story 8 Frame 4)

Two events happened while Joseph was a slave to a wealthy government official: Joseph served well, and God blessed Joseph. There is no indication of a reason-and-result (cause and effect) relationship between the two, or that the first event happened, and then the second event happened.

> But in truth I say to you that there were many widows in Israel during the days of Elijah. (Luke 4:25b ULT)

The connecting word "during" tells us clearly that two things happened at the same time, but one event did not cause the other.

> And the people were waiting for Zechariah, and they were wondering at his delaying in the temple. (Luke 1:21 ULT)

The people were both waiting and wondering at the same time. The general connector "and" indicates this.

> While they were looking intensely into heaven as he was going up, suddenly, two men stood by them in white clothing. (Acts 1:10 ULT)

Three events happened at the same time — the disciples looking, Jesus going up, and two men standing. The connector words "while" and "as" tell us this.

Translation Strategies

If the way that the simultaneous clauses are marked also is clear in your language, then translate the simultaneous clauses as they are.

(1) If the connecting word does not make it clear that the simultaneous clauses are happening at the same time, use a connecting word that communicates this more clearly.
(2) If it is not clear which clause the simultaneous clause is connected to, and that they are happening at the same time, mark all of the clauses with a connecting word.
(3) If your language marks events as simultaneous in a different way than using connecting words, then use that way.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

Below, each Bible verse will be restated in three different ways, according to the translation strategies in the list above. Each restatement will have the same number as the translation strategy that it is using.

> And the people were waiting for Zechariah, and they were wondering at his delaying in the temple. (Luke 1:21 ULT)

(1) Now while the people were waiting for Zechariah, they were wondering at his delaying in the temple.

(2) Now while the people were waiting for Zechariah, they were also wondering at his delaying in the temple.

(3) Now the people were waiting for Zechariah, wondering at his delaying in the temple.

> While they were looking intently into heaven as he was going up, suddenly, two men stood by them in white clothing. (Acts 1:10 ULT)

(1) And during the time they were looking intently into heaven while he was going up, suddenly, two men stood by them in white clothing.

(2) And while they were looking intently into heaven as he was going up, suddenly, at that same time two men stood by them in white clothing.

(3) They were looking intently into heaven; he was going up when they saw two men standing by them in white clothing.

Matthew References:

1:20; 2:17; 3:5; 6:3; 14:6; 24:9; 24:23; 24:40; 25:5; 26:7; 26:58; 26:69; 27:9; 27:61

Connecting Words and Phrases

Description

As humans, we write our thoughts in phrases and sentences. We usually want to communicate a series of thoughts that are connected to each other in different ways. Connecting words and phrases show how these thoughts are related to each other. For example, we can show how the following thoughts are related by using the Connecting Words in bold type:

- It was raining, so I opened my umbrella.
- It was raining, but I did not have an umbrella. So I got very wet.

Connecting words or phrases can connect phrases or clauses within a sentence. They can connect sentences to each other. They can also connect entire chunks to one another in order to show how the chunk before relates to the chunk after the connecting word. Very often, the connecting words that connect entire chunks to one another are either conjunctions or adverbs.

> It was raining, but I did not have an umbrella, so I got very wet.
>
> Now I must change my clothes. Then I will drink a cup of hot tea and warm myself by the fire.

In the above example, the word now connects the two short chunks of text, showing the relationship between them. The speaker must change his clothes, drink hot tea, and warm himself because of something that happened earlier (that is, he got wet in the rain).

Sometimes people might not use a connecting word because they expect the context to help the readers understand the relationship between the thoughts. Some languages do not use connecting words as much as other languages do. They might say:

- It was raining. I did not have an umbrella. I got very wet.

You (the translator) will need to use the method that is most natural and clear in the target language. But in general, using connecting words whenever possible helps the reader to understand the ideas in the Bible most clearly.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- You need to understand the relationship between paragraphs, between sentences, and between parts of sentences in the Bible, and how connecting words and phrases can help you to understand the relationship between the thoughts that they are connecting.
- Each language has its own ways of showing how thoughts are related.
- You need to know how to help readers understand the relationship between the thoughts in a way that is natural in your language.

Translation Principles

- You need to translate in a way that readers can understand the same relationship between thoughts that the original readers would have understood.
- Whether or not a connecting word is used is not as important as readers being able to understand the relationship between the ideas.

The Different Types of Connections

Listed below are different types of connections between ideas or events. These different types of connections can be indicated by using different connecting words. When we write or translate something, it is important to use the right connecting word so that these connections are clear for the reader. If you would like additional information, simply click the colored, hyperlinked word to be directed to a page containing definitions and examples for each type of connection.

- Sequential Clause — a time relationship between two events in which one happens and then the other happens.
- Simultaneous Clause — a time relationship between two or more events that occur at the same time.
- Background Clause — a time relationship in which the first clause describes a long event that is happening at the time when the beginning of the second event happens, which is described in the second clause.
- Exceptional Relationship — one clause describes a group of people or items, and the other clause excludes one or more items or people from the group.
- Hypothetical Condition — the second event will only take place if the first one takes place. Sometimes what takes place is dependent on the actions of other people.
- Factual Condition — a connection that sounds hypothetical but is already certain or true, so that the condition is guaranteed to happen.
- Contrary-to-Fact Condition — a connection that sounds hypothetical but is already certain that it is not true. See also: Hypothetical Statements.
- Goal Relationship — a logical relationship in which the second event is the purpose or goal of the first.

- Reason and Result Relationship — a logical relationship in which one event is the reason for the other event, the result.
- Contrast Relationship — one item is being described as different or in opposition to another.

Examples from the Bible

> I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood. I did not go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me. Instead, I went to Arabia and then returned to Damascus. Then after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and I stayed with him 15 days. (Galatians 1:16b-18 ULT)

The word "instead" introduces something that contrasts with what was said before. The contrast here is between what Paul did not do and what he did do. The word "then" introduces a sequence of events. It introduces something that Paul did after he returned to Damascus.

> Therefore, whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps them and teaches them, that one will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:19 ULT)

The word "therefore" links this section with the section before it, signaling that the section that came before gave the reason for this section. "Therefore" usually links sections larger than one sentence. The word "and" links only two actions within the same sentence, that of breaking commandments and teaching others. In this verse the word "but" contrasts what one group of people will be called in God's kingdom with what another group of people will be called.

> We place nothing as a stumbling block in front of anyone, so that our ministry might not be discredited. Instead, we commend ourselves in everything as God's servants. (2 Corinthians 6:3-4 ULT)

Here the words “so that” connect what follows as the reason for what came before; the reason that Paul does not place stumbling blocks is that he does not want his ministry brought into disrepute. “Instead” contrasts what Paul does (prove by his actions that he is God’s servant) with what he said he does not do (place stumbling blocks).

General Translation Strategies

See each type of Connecting Word above for specific strategies

If the way the relationship between thoughts is shown in the ULT would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, then consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

(1) Use a connecting word (even if the ULT does not use one).
(2) Do not use a connecting word if it would be strange to use one and people would understand the right relationship between the thoughts without it.
(3) Use a different connecting word.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use a connecting word (even if the ULT does not use one).

> Jesus said to them, “Come follow me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.” Then immediately they left the nets and followed him. (Mark 1:17-18 ULT)

They followed Jesus because he told them to. Some translators may want to mark this clause with the connecting word “so.”

> > Jesus said to them, “Come follow me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.” So, immediately they left the nets and followed him.

(2) Do not use a connecting word if it would be odd to use one, and if people would understand the right relationship between the thoughts without it.

> Therefore, whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps them and teaches them, that one will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:19 ULT)

Some languages would prefer not to use connecting words here because the meaning is clear without them and using them would be unnatural. They might translate like this:

> > Therefore, whoever breaks the least one of these commandments, teaching others to do so as well, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever keeps them and teaches them, that one will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

> I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood. I did not go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me. Instead, I went to Arabia and then returned to Damascus. Then after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and I stayed with him 15 days. (Galatians 1:16b-18 ULT) (Galatians 1:16-18 ULT)

Some languages might not need the words “instead” or “then” here. They might translate like this:

> > I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who had become apostles before me. I went to Arabia and then returned to Damascus. After three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and I stayed with him 15 days.

(3) Use a different connecting word.

> Therefore, whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps them and teaches them, that one will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:19 ULT)

Instead of a word like “therefore,” a language might need a phrase to indicate that there was a section before it that gave the reason for the section that follows. Also, the word “but” is used here because of the contrast between the two groups of people. But in some languages, the word “but” would show that what comes after it is surprising because of what came before it. So “and” might be clearer for those languages. They might translate like this:

> > Because of that, whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. And > whoever keeps them and teaches them, that one will > be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew References:

1:18; 1:19; 1:22; 1:24; 1:24; 1:25; 2:3; 3:3; 3:16; 4:6; 5:20; 5:29; 5:29; 5:30; 5:30; 5:31; 5:33; 5:40; 6:1; 6:7; 6:14; 6:16; 6:27; 6:30; 6:32; 6:33; 7:2; 7:3; 7:4; 7:9; 7:10; 8:11; 8:21; 8:31; 8:33; 8:33; 9:5; 9:8; 9:13; 9:16; 9:18; 9:28; 9:35; 10:7; 10:11; 10:12; 10:17; 10:19; 10:30; 10:35; 11:7; 11:12; 11:13; 11:16; 12:5; 12:7; 12:14; 12:15; 12:25; 12:29; 12:36; 12:37; 12:40; 12:43; 12:47; 12:48; 12:50; 13:11; 13:12; 13:20; 13:22; 13:23; 13:27; 13:28; 13:28; 13:29; 13:37; 13:45; 13:47; 13:52; 14:6; 14:8; 14:15; 14:18; 14:23; 14:25; 14:26; 14:27; 14:28; 14:31; 15:2; 15:4; 15:6; 15:9; 15:13; 15:14; 15:15; 15:16; 15:19; 15:25; 15:27; 15:32; 16:6; 16:8; 16:17; 16:19; 16:23; 16:26; 16:26; 17:8; 17:11; 17:15; 17:16; 17:17; 17:20; 17:26; 18:3; 18:7; 18:8; 18:11; 18:15; 18:17; 18:17; 18:19; 18:24; 18:27; 18:28; 19:11; 19:12; 19:17; 19:17; 19:21; 19:22; 19:23; 19:24; 19:25; 19:26; 19:30; 20:1; 20:2; 20:6; 20:11; 20:15; 20:15; 20:25; 20:31; 21:4; 21:6; 21:8; 21:9; 21:21; 21:25; 21:27; 21:28; 21:30; 21:34; 21:39; 22:3; 22:7; 22:11; 22:14; 22:18; 22:25; 22:30; 22:31; 22:37; 23:3; 23:5; 23:5; 23:12; 23:13; 23:14; 23:17; 23:19; 23:37; 23:39; 24:2; 24:3; 24:7; 24:19; 24:20; 24:32; 24:36; 24:37; 24:38; 24:43; 25:3; 25:5; 25:6; 25:8; 25:9; 25:10; 25:11; 25:19; 25:24; 25:26; 25:29; 25:31; 26:8; 26:11; 26:12; 26:20; 26:23; 26:25; 26:28; 26:29; 26:40; 26:50; 26:53; 26:57; 26:59; 26:65; 26:71; 26:73; 27:6; 27:11; 27:11; 27:19; 27:21; 27:21; 27:24; 27:32; 27:35; 27:39; 27:44; 27:45; 27:46; 27:47; 27:50; 27:54; 28:9

Copy or Borrow Words

Description

Sometimes the Bible includes things that are not part of your culture and for which your language may not have a word. The Bible also includes people and places for which you may not have names.

When that happens you can “borrow” the word from the Bible in a familiar language and use it in your translation in your own language. This means that you basically copy it from the other language. This page tells how to “borrow” words. (There are also other ways to translate words for things that are not in your language. See Translate Unknowns.)

Examples From the Bible

> Seeing one fig tree along the roadside, he went to it. (Matthew 21:19a ULT)

If there are no fig trees where your language is spoken, there might not be a name for this kind of tree in your language.

> Above him were the seraphim; each one had six wings; with two each covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. (Isaiah 6:2 ULT)

Your language might not have a name for this kind of creature.

> The declaration of the word of Yahweh to Israel by the hand of Malachi. (Malachi 1:1 ULT)

Malachi might not be a name that people who speak your language use.

Translation Strategies

There are several things to be aware of when borrowing words from another language.

- Different languages use different scripts, such as the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, Cyrillic, Devanagari, and Korean scripts. These scripts use different shapes to represent the letters in their alphabets.
- Languages that use the same script might pronounce the letters in that script differently. For example, when speaking German, people pronounce the letter “j” the same way that people pronounce the letter “y” when speaking English.
- Languages do not all have the same sounds or combinations of sounds. For example, many languages do not have the soft “th” sound in the English word “think,” and some languages cannot start a word with a combination of sounds like “st” as in “stop.”

There are several ways to borrow a word.

(1) If your language uses a different script from the language you are translating from, you can simply substitute each letter shape with the corresponding letter shape of the script of your language.
(2) You can spell the word as the Other Language spells it, and pronounce it the way your language normally pronounces those letters.
(3) You can pronounce the word similarly to the way the Other Language does, and adjust the spelling to fit the rules of your language.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If your language uses a different script from the language you are translating from, you can simply substitute each letter shape with the corresponding letter shape of the script of your language.

> צְפַנְיָה — A man’s name in Hebrew letters.

> > “Zephaniah” — The same name in Roman letters

(2) You can spell the word as the Other Language spells it, and pronounce it the way your language normally pronounces those letters.

> Zephaniah — This is a man’s name.
>
> > “Zephaniah” — The name as it is spelled in English, but you can pronounce it according to the rules of your language.

(3) You can pronounce the word similarly to the way the Other Language does, and adjust the spelling to fit the rules of your language.

> Zephaniah — If your language does not have the “z,” you could use “s.” If your writing system does not use “ph” you could use “f.” Depending on how you pronounce the “i” you could spell it with “i” or “ai” or “ay.”
>
> > “Sefania”
> >
> > “Sefanaia”
> >
> > “Sefanaya”

Matthew References:

1:23; 5:22; 10:4; 16:17; 21:intro; 21:9; 21:15; 27:intro; 27:33; 27:46

Crowd

Description

This is the placeholder for an article about discussion of crowds in biblical literature. This article is still being developed.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue:

Text

Examples From the Bible

Text

Translation Strategies

Text

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

Text

Matthew References:

5:intro

Direct and Indirect Quotations

Description

There are two kinds of quotations: direct quotations and indirect quotations.

A direct quotation occurs when someone reports what another person said from the viewpoint of that original speaker. People usually expect that this kind of quotation will represent the original speaker's exact words. In the example below, John would have said "I" when referring to himself, so the narrator, who is reporting John's words, uses the word "I" in the quotation to refer to John. To show that these are John's exact words, many languages put the words between quotation marks: "".

- John said, "I do not know at what time I will arrive."

An indirect quotation occurs when a speaker reports what someone else said, but in this case, the speaker is reporting it from his own point of view instead and not from the original person's point of view. This kind of quotation usually contains changes in pronouns, and it often includes changes in time, in word choices, and in length. In the example below, the narrator refers to John as "he" in the quotation and uses the word "would" to replace the future tense, indicated by "will."

- John said that he did not know at what time he would arrive.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

In some languages, reported speech can be expressed by either direct or indirect quotations. In other languages, it is more natural to use one than the other. There may be a certain meaning implied by using one rather than the other. So for each quotation, translators need to decide whether it is best to translate it as a direct quotation or as an indirect quotation.

Examples From the Bible

The verses in the examples below contain both direct and indirect quotations. In the explanation below the verse, we have marked in bold the words that are quoted.

> And he commanded him to tell no one, but, “Go, show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.” (Luke 5:14 ULT)

- Indirect quote: He commanded him to tell no one,
- Direct quote: but told him, “Go, show yourself to the priest …”

> And being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, he answered them and said, “The kingdom of God is not coming with careful observation. Neither will they say, ‘Look, here it is!’ or ‘There it is!’ For indeed, the kingdom of God is among you.” (Luke 17:20-21 ULT)

- Indirect quote: Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming,
- Direct quote: he answered them and said, “The kingdom of God is not coming with careful observation. Neither will they say, ‘Look. here it is!’ or ‘There it is!’ For indeed, the kingdom of God is among you.”
- Direct quotes: Neither will they say, ‘Look, here it is!’ or, ‘There it is!’

Translation Strategies

If the kind of quote used in the source text would work well in your language, consider using it. If the kind of quote used in that context is not natural for your language, follow these strategies.

(1) If a direct quote would not work well in your language, change it to an indirect quote.
(2) If an indirect quote would not work well in your language, change it to a direct quote.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If a direct quote would not work well in your language, change it to an indirect quote.

> And he commanded him to tell no one, but, “Go, show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.” (Luke 5:14 ULT)

> > He commanded him to tell no one, but to go and show himself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for his cleansing according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

(2) If an indirect quote would not work well in your language, change it to a direct quote.

> And he commanded him to tell no one, but, "Go, show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." (Luke 5:14 ULT)
>
> > He commanded him, "Tell no one. But go and show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

You may also want to watch the video at https://ufw.io/figs_quotations.

Matthew References:

2:4; 2:7; 2:12; 2:22; 2:23; 3:9; 3:9; 4:3; 5:22; 6:31; 8:18; 8:34; 9:21; 9:38; 12:10; 12:16; 12:47; 13:10; 13:36; 13:51; 14:4; 14:7; 14:19; 14:26; 14:29; 14:36; 16:1; 16:7; 16:20; 16:20; 16:21; 17:7; 17:9; 17:19; 17:20; 18:2; 18:25; 18:28; 19:3; 20:10; 20:20; 20:21; 20:30; 20:32; 21:15; 26:5; 26:8-9; 26:48; 26:75

Distinguishing Versus Informing or Reminding

Description

In some languages, phrases that modify a noun can be used with the noun for two different purposes. They can either (1) distinguish the noun from other similar items, or (2) they can give more information about the noun. That information could be new to the reader, or a reminder about something the reader might already know. Other languages use modifying phrases with a noun only for distinguishing the noun from other similar things. When people who speak these languages hear a modifying phrase along with a noun, they assume that its function is to distinguish one item from another similar item.

When the phrase that modifies a noun is a relative clause (a phrase that starts with a word such as “who” or“which”), some languages use a comma to mark the difference between (1) making a distinction between similar items and (2) giving more information about an item. Without the comma, the sentence below communicates that the added phrase is making a distinction:

- Mary gave some of the food to her sister who was very thankful.
    - If her sister was usually thankful, the phrase “who was thankful” could distinguish this sister of Mary’s from another sister who was not usually thankful.

With the comma, the phrase is giving more information:

- Mary gave some of the food to her sister, who was very thankful.
    - This same phrase can be used to give us more information about Mary’s sister. It tells us about how Mary’s sister responded when Mary gave her the food. In this case it does not distinguish one sister from another sister.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Many source languages of the Bible use phrases that modify a noun both for distinguishing the noun from another similar item and also for giving more information about the noun. You (the translator) must be careful to understand which meaning the author intended in each case.
- Some languages use phrases that modify a noun only for distinguishing the noun from another similar item. When translating a phrase that is used for giving more information, translators who speak these languages will need to separate the phrase from the noun. Otherwise, people who read it or hear it will think that the phrase is meant to distinguish the noun from other similar items.

Examples From the Bible

Examples of words and phrases that are used to distinguish one item from other possible items:

(These usually do not cause any problem in translation.)

> The curtain is to separate the holy place from the most holy place. (Exodus 26:33b ULT)

The words “holy” and “most holy” distinguish two different places from each other and from any other place.

> A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to the woman who bore him. (Proverbs 17:25 ULT)

The phrase “who bore him” distinguishes which woman the son is bitterness to. He is not bitterness to all women, but to his mother.

Examples of words and phrases that are used to give added information or a reminder about an item:

(These are a translation issue for languages that do not use these.)

> … for your righteous judgments are good. (Psalm 119:39b ULT)

The word “righteous” simply reminds us that God’s judgments are righteous. It does not distinguish his righteous judgments from his unrighteous judgments, because all of his judgments are righteous.

> You must surely open your hand to your brother, to your needy and to your poor in your land. (Deuteronomy 15:11 ULT)

The phrases “to your needy and to your poor” give further information about “your brother.” They do not refer to a separate group of people.

> How can Sarah, who is 90 years old, bear a son? (Genesis 17:17b ULT)

The phrase “who is 90 years old” is a reminder of Sarah’s age. It tells why Abraham was asking the question. He did not expect that a woman who was that old could bear a child. He was not distinguishing one woman named Sarah from another woman named Sarah who was a different age.

> I will wipe away mankind whom I have created from the surface of the earth. (Genesis 6:7 ULT)

The phrase “whom I have created” is a reminder of the relationship between God and mankind. It is the reason God had the right to wipe away mankind. There is not another mankind that God did not create.

> I hate those who serve worthless idols (Psalm 31:6 ULT)

By saying “worthless idols,” David was commenting about all idols and giving his reason for hating those who serve them. He was not distinguishing worthless idols from valuable idols.

Translation Strategies

If readers would understand the purpose of a phrase with a noun, then consider keeping the phrase and the noun together. For languages that use words or phrases with a noun only to distinguish one item from another, here are some strategies for translating phrases that are used to inform or remind.

(1) Put the information in another part of the sentence and add words that show its purpose. (2) Use one of your language’s ways for expressing that this is just added information. It may be by adding a small word, or by changing the way the voice sounds. Sometimes changes in the voice can be shown with punctuation marks, such as parentheses or commas.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Put the information in another part of the sentence and add words that show its purpose.

> I hate those who serve worthless idols (Psalm 31:6 ULT)

> > Becauseidols are worthless, I hate those who serve them.
>
> … for your righteous judgments are good. (Psalm 119:39b ULT)
>
> > … for your judgments are good because they are righteous.
>
> Can Sarah, who is 90 years old, bear a son? (Genesis 17:17b ULT)
>
> > Can Sarah bear a son even whenshe is 90 years old?
>
> > You must surely open your hand to your brother, to your needy and to your poor in your land. (Deuteronomy 15:11 ULT)

> > You must surely open your hand to any of your needy and poor brothers in your land.

(2) Use one of your language's ways for expressing that this is just added information.

> You are my Son, whom I love. I am pleased with you. (Luke 3:22 ULT)
>
> > You are my Son. I love you and I am pleased with you.

> > Receiving my love, you are my Son. I am pleased with you.

> You must surely open your hand to your brother, to your needy and to your poor in your land. (Deuteronomy 15:11 ULT)

> > You must surely open your hand to your brother who is needy and poor in your land.

Matthew References:

1:16; 26:3

Double Negatives

A double negative occurs when a clause has two words that each express the meaning of "not." Double negatives mean very different things in different languages. To translate sentences that have double negatives accurately and clearly, you need to know what a double negative means in the Bible and how to express this idea in your language.

Description

Negative words are words that have in them the meaning "not." Examples in English are "no," "not," "none," "no one," "nothing," "nowhere," "never," "nor," "neither," and "without." Also, some words have prefixes or suffixes that mean "not," such as the bolded parts of these words: "unhappy," "impossible," and "useless." Some other kinds of words also have a negative meaning, such as "lack" or "reject," or even "fight" or "evil."

A double negative occurs when a clause has two words that each have a negative meaning.

> We did this not because we have no authority … (2 Thessalonians 3:9a ULT)
>
> And this was not done without an oath! (Hebrews 7:20a ULT)
>
> Be sure of this—the wicked person will not go unpunished. (Proverbs 11:21a ULT)

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Double negatives mean very different things in different languages.

- In some languages, such as English, a second negative in a clause cancels the first one, creating a positive sentence. So, "He is not unintelligent" means "He is intelligent."
- In some languages, such as French and Spanish, two negative words in a clause do not cancel each other to become a positive. The Spanish sentence, "No vi a nadie," literally says "I did not see no one." It has both the word 'no' next to the verb and 'nadie,' which means "no one." The two negatives are seen as in agreement with each other, and the sentence means, "I did not see anyone."
- In some languages, a double negative creates a stronger negative statement.

- In some languages, a double negative creates a positive sentence, but it is a weak statement. So, “He is not unintelligent” means, “He is somewhat intelligent.”
- In some languages, including the languages of the Bible, a double negative can produce a stronger positive meaning than a simple positive statement. So, “He is not unintelligent” can mean “He is very intelligent.” In this case, the double negative is actually the figure of speech called litotes.

Biblical Greek can do all of the above. So to translate sentences with double negatives accurately and clearly in your language, you need to know what each double negative means in the Bible and how to express the same idea in your language.

Examples From the Bible

The Greek of John 15:5 says:

> χωρὶς ἐμοῦ οὐ δύνασθε ποιεῖν οὐδέν
>
> Without me not you can do nothing

We cannot reproduce this double negative in the English ULT because in English, a second negative in a clause cancels the first one. In English, and perhaps in your language, we need to choose only one of the negatives and say either:

Without me, you can do nothing.
or:
Without me, you cannot do anything.

> … in order not to be unfruitful. (Titus 3:14b ULT)

This means “in order to be fruitful.”

> A prophet is not without honor (Mark 6:4 ULT)

This means “a prophet is honored.”

> I do not want you to be ignorant. (1 Corinthians 12:1)

This means “I want you to be knowledgeable.”

Translation Strategies

If the way that the double negative is used in the Bible is natural and has the same meaning as in your language, consider using it in the same way. Otherwise, you could consider these strategies:

(1) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a positive statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove the two negatives so that it is positive.
(2) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a negative statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove one of the two negatives.
(3) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a stronger negative statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove one of the two negatives and add a strengthening word.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a positive statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove the two negatives so that it is positive.

> For we do not have a high priest who cannot feel sympathy for our weaknesses. (Hebrews 4:15a ULT)
>
> > “For we have a high priest who can feel sympathy for our weaknesses.”

> … in order not to be unfruitful. (Titus 3:14b ULT)

> > "… so that they may be fruitful."

(2) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a negative statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove one of the two negatives.

> χωρὶς ἐμοῦ οὐ δύνασθε ποιεῖν οὐδέν
>
> Without me not you can do nothing (John 15:5)

> > Without me, you can do nothing.
>
> or:
> Without me, you cannot do anything.

(3) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a stronger negative statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove one of the two negatives and add a strengthening word.

> …ἰῶτα ἓν ἢ μία κεραία οὐ μὴ παρέλθῃ ἀπὸ τοῦ νόμου (Matthew 5:18)
>
> …iota one or one serif not not may pass away from the law

> …not even one iota or one serif may pass away from the law
>
> or:
> …certainly no iota or serif may pass away from the law

Matthew References:

5:18; 5:20; 5:26; 10:23; 10:26; 10:29; 10:38; 10:42; 13:14; 13:34; 13:57; 15:6; 16:22; 16:28; 17:20; 18:3; 22:16; 22:46; 23:23; 23:39; 24:2; 24:21; 24:34; 24:34; 24:35; 24:35; 25:9; 26:29

Doublet

Description

We are using the word “doublet” to refer to two words or phrases that are used together and either mean the same thing or mean very close to the same thing. Often they are joined with the word “and.” Unlike Hendiadys, in which one of the words modifies the other, in a doublet the two words or phrases are equal and are used to emphasize or intensify the one idea that is expressed by the two words or phrases.

A very similar issue is the repetition of the same word or phrase for emphasis, usually with no other words between them. Because these figures of speech are so similar and have the same effect, we will treat them here together.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

In some languages people do not use doublets. Or they may use doublets, but only in certain situations, so a doublet might not make sense in their language in some verses. People might think that the verse is describing two ideas or actions, when it is only describing one. In this case, translators may need to find some other way to express the meaning expressed by the doublet.

Examples From the Bible

> He has one people scattered and dispersed among the peoples (Esther 3:8 ULT)

The bolded words mean the same thing. Together they mean the people were spread out.

> He attacked two men more righteous and better than himself. (1 Kings 2:32b ULT)

This means that they were “much more righteous” than he was.

> You have decided to prepare false and deceptive words. (Daniel 2:9b ULT)

This means that they had decided to lie, which is another way of saying that they intended to deceive people.

> … like of a lamb without blemish and without spot. (1 Peter 1:19b ULT)

This means that he was like a lamb that did not have any defect—not even one.

> Then they approached {and} woke him up, saying, “Master! Master! We are perishing!” (Luke 8:24 ULT)

The repetition of “Master” means that the disciples called to Jesus urgently and continually.

Translation Strategies

If a doublet would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, consider these strategies.

(1) Translate only one of the words or phrases.
(2) If the doublet is used to intensify the meaning, translate one of the words or phrases and add a word that intensifies it such as “very” or “great” or “many.”
(3) If the doublet is used to intensify or emphasize the meaning, use one of your language’s ways of doing that.

Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Translate only one of the words.

> You have decided to prepare false and deceptive words. (Daniel 2:9b ULT)

> > "You have decided to prepare false things to say."

(2) If the doublet is used to intensify the meaning, translate one of the words and add a word that intensifies it such as "very" or "great" or "many."

> He has one people scattered and dispersed among the peoples (Esther 3:8 ULT)
>
> > "He has one people very spread out."

(3) If the doublet is used to intensify or emphasize the meaning, use one of your language's ways of doing that.

> … like a lamb without blemish and without spot. (1 Peter 1:19b ULT)
>
> • English can emphasize this with "any" and "at all."
>
> > "… like a lamb without any blemish at all."

> Then they approached {and} woke him up, saying, "Master! Master! We are perishing!" (Luke 8:24 ULT)

> > Then they approached {and} woke him up, urgently shouting, "Master! We are perishing!"

Matthew References:

2:18; 4:23; 4:24; 5:12; 5:18; 9:35; 10:1; 11:1; 11:25; 11:29; 16:6; 17:25; 21:16; 22:38; 23:3; 23:4; 23:17; 23:19; 23:33; 24:24; 24:36; 25:13; 26:37; 26:45

Ellipsis

Description

An ellipsis[^1] occurs when a speaker or writer leaves out one or more words that normally should be in the sentence. The speaker or writer does this because he knows that the hearer or reader will understand the meaning of the sentence and supply the words in his mind when he hears or reads the words that are there. For example:

> So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous. (Psalm 1:5 ULT)

There is ellipsis in the second part because “nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous” is not a complete sentence. The speaker assumes that the hearer will understand what it is that sinners will not do in the assembly of the righteous by filling in the action from the previous clause. With the action filled in, the complete sentence would read:

> So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor will sinners stand in the assembly of the righteous.

[^1]: English has a punctuation symbol which is also called an ellipsis. It is a series of three dots (…) used to indicate an intentional omission of a word, phrase, sentence or more from text without altering its original meaning. This translationAcademy article is not about the punctuation mark, but about the concept of omission of words that normally should be in the sentence.

Two Types of Ellipsis

1. A Relative Ellipsis happens when the reader has to supply the omitted word or words from the context. Usually the word is in the previous sentence, as in the example above.

2. An Absolute Ellipsis happens when the omitted word or words are not in the context, but the phrases are common enough in the language that the reader is expected to supply what is missing from this common usage or from the nature of the situation.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Readers who see incomplete sentences or phrases may not know that there is information missing that the writer expects them to fill in. Or readers may understand that there is information missing, but they may not know what information is missing because they do not know the original biblical language, culture, or situation as the original readers did. In this case, they may fill in the wrong information. Or readers may misunderstand the ellipsis if they do not use ellipsis in the same way in their language.

Examples From the Bible

Relative Ellipsis

> He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox. (Psalm 29:6 ULT)

The writer wants his words to be few and to make good poetry. The full sentence with the information filled in would be:

> He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and he makes
> Sirion skip like a young ox.
>
> Watch carefully, therefore, how you walk—not as unwise but as wise. (Ephesians 5:15b ULT)

The information that the reader must understand in the second parts of these sentences can be filled in from the first parts:

> > Watch carefully, therefore, how you walk—walk not as unwise but walk as wise,

Absolute Ellipsis

> Then when he had come near, he asked him, “What do you want me to do for you?” And so he said, “Lord, that I might recover my sight.” (Luke 18:40b-41 ULT)

It seems that the man answered in an incomplete sentence because he wanted to be polite and not directly ask Jesus for healing. He knew that Jesus would understand that the only way he could receive his sight would be for Jesus to heal him. The complete sentence would be:

> > “Lord, I want you to heal me so that I might receive my sight.”
>
> To Titus, a true son in our common faith. Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior. (Titus 1:4 ULT)

The writer assumes that the reader will recognize this common form of a blessing or wish, so he does not need to include the full sentence, which would be:

> > To Titus, a true son in our common faith. May you receive grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Translation Strategies

If ellipsis would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

(1) Add the missing words to the incomplete phrase or sentence.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Add the missing words to the incomplete phrase or sentence.

> So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous. (Psalm 1:5 ULT)
>
> > So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, and sinners will not stand in the assembly of the righteous.
>
> Then when he had come near, he asked him, “What do you want me to do for you?” And so he said, “Lord, that I might recover my sight.” (Luke 18:40b-41 ULT)
>
> > Then when the man was near, Jesus asked him, “What do you want me to do for you?” He said,

> > “Lord, I want you to heal me that I might receive my sight.”
>
> He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox. (Psalm 29:6 ULT)
>
> > He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and he makes Sirion skip like a young ox.

Matthew References:

2:3; 2:5; 3:11; 3:17; 4:4; 5:15; 5:17; 5:25; 5:41; 6:7; 6:16; 6:25; 6:26; 6:30; 7:18; 7:21; 7:29; 8:9; 8:20; 9:12; 9:13; 9:24; 9:28; 10:20; 10:21; 10:24; 10:25; 10:25; 10:34; 10:35; 10:37; 11:3; 11:9; 13:16; 13:17; 13:55; 14:19; 15:34; 15:36; 16:3; 16:3; 16:10; 16:12; 16:14; 16:17; 16:23; 17:15; 18:13; 18:21; 18:22; 19:11; 19:19; 19:30; 20:9; 20:14; 20:22; 20:23; 20:28; 20:33; 21:27; 22:14; 22:17; 22:21; 22:21; 22:26; 22:32; 22:39; 22:42; 24:7; 24:23; 24:26; 24:37; 24:41; 25:2; 25:15; 25:17; 25:33; 25:37; 25:38; 25:42; 25:46; 26:22; 26:25; 26:26; 26:39; 26:47; 26:54; 27:21; 27:64; 28:3

End of Story

Description

There are different types of information that may be given at the end of a story. Often this is background information. This background information is different from the actions that make up the main part of the story. A book of the Bible is often made up of many smaller stories that are part of the larger story of the book itself. For example, the story of Jesus' birth is a smaller story in the larger story of the book of Luke. Each of these stories, whether large or small, can have background information at the end of it.

The following are purposes for end of story information:

- to summarize the story
- to give a conclusion about what the story means or what is important about it
- to connect a smaller story to the larger story it is a part of
- to tell the reader what happens to a specific character after the main part of the story ends
- to tell on-going action that continues after the main part of the story ends
- to tell what happens after the story as a result of the events that happened in the story itself

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

Different languages have different ways of presenting these kinds of information. If you (the translator) do not use your language's ways of doing this, readers may not know:

- that this information is ending the story
- what the purpose of the information is
- how the information is related to the story

Translation Strategies

- Translate the particular kind of information at the end of a story the way your language expresses that kind of information.
- Translate it so that people will understand how it relates to the story it is part of.
- If possible, translate the end of the story in a way that people will know where that story ends and the next begins.

Examples From the Bible

- To summarize the story

> Then the rest of the men should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. In this way it happened that all of us were brought safely to the land. (Acts 27:44 ULT)

- To give a conclusion about what the story means or what is important about it

> Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of everyone. Then they counted the value of them, and found it was 50,000 pieces of silver. So the word of the Lord was spreading and prevailing with power. (Acts 19:19-20 ULT)

- To tell the reader what happens to a specific character after the main part of the story ends

> And Mary said, “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoiced in God my savior.” And Mary stayed with her about three months and then returned to her house. (Luke 1:46-47, 56 ULT)

- To tell on-going action that continues after the main part of the story ends

> All who those who heard it were amazed concerning the things that were spoken to them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all the things, pondering them in her heart. (Luke 2:18-19 ULT)

- To tell what happens after the story as a result of the events that happened in the story itself

> “Woe to you, experts in the Jewish law, because you have taken away the key of knowledge; you do not enter in yourselves, and you hinder those > who are entering." After he went from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to fiercely oppose him and argued against him about many things, lying in wait to trap him in something from his mouth. (Luke 11:52-54 ULT)

Matthew References:

7:28; 11:1; 13:34; 13:53; 19:1; 26:1

Euphemism

Description

A euphemism is a mild or polite way of referring to something that is unpleasant, embarrassing, or socially unacceptable, such as death or activities usually done in private.

> … they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. (1 Chronicles 10:8b ULT)

This means that Saul and his sons "were dead." It is a euphemism because the important thing was not that Saul and his sons had fallen but that they were dead. Sometimes people do not like to speak directly about death because it is unpleasant.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Different languages use different euphemisms. If the target language does not use the same euphemism as in the source language, readers may not understand what it means and they may think that the writer means only what the words literally say.

Examples From the Bible

> … where there was a cave. Saul went inside to cover his feet. (1 Samuel 24:3b ULT)

The original hearers would have understood that Saul went into the cave to use it as a toilet, but the writer wanted to avoid offending or distracting them, so he did not say specifically what Saul did or what he left in the cave.

> But Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I have not known a man?" (Luke 1:34 ULT)

In order to be polite, Mary uses a euphemism to say that she has never had sexual intercourse with a man.

Translation Strategies

If euphemism would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

(1) Use a euphemism from your own culture.
(2) State the information plainly without a euphemism if it would not be offensive.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use a euphemism from your own culture.

> … where there was a cave. Saul went inside to cover his feet. (1 Samuel 24:3b ULT) — Some languages might use euphemisms like these:
>
> > "… where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to dig a hole"
> >
> > "… where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to have some time alone"
>
> But Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I have not known a man?" (Luke 1:34 ULT)
>
> > But Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I have not slept with a man?"

(2) State the information plainly without a euphemism if it would not be offensive.

> They found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. (1 Chronicles 10:8b ULT)
>
> > "They found Saul and his sons dead on Mount Gilboa."

Matthew References:

1:18; 1:25; 2:18; 9:20; 10:29; 15:17; 24:34; 24:39; 26:24; 27:50; 27:52

Exclamations

Description

Exclamations are words or sentences that show strong feeling such as surprise, joy, fear, or anger. In the ULT and UST, they usually have an exclamation mark (!) at the end. The mark shows that it is an exclamation. The situation and the meaning of what the people said helps us understand what feelings they were expressing. In the example below from Matthew 8, the speakers were terribly afraid. In the example from Matthew 9, the speakers were amazed, because something happened that they had never seen before.

> Save us, Lord; we are about to die! (Matthew 8:25b ULT)

> When the demon had been driven out, the mute man spoke. The crowds were astonished and said, “This has never been seen before in Israel!” (Matthew 9:33 ULT)

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Languages have different ways of showing that a sentence communicates strong emotion.

Examples From the Bible

Some exclamations have a word that shows feeling. The sentences below have “Oh” and “Ah.” The word “oh” here shows the speaker’s amazement.

> Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! (Romans 11:33 ULT)

The word “Alas” below shows that Gideon was very frightened.

> When Gideon saw that he was the angel of Yahweh, Gideon lamented, "Alas, O my Lord Yahweh, for because of this I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!" (Judges 6:22 ULT)
>
> Some exclamations start with a question word such as "how" or "why," even though they are not questions. The sentence below shows that the speaker is amazed at how unsearchable God's judgments are.
>
> How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways beyond discovering! (Romans 11:33b ULT)

Some exclamations in the Bible do not have a main verb. The exclamation below shows that the speaker is disgusted with the person he is speaking to.

> You worthless person! (Matthew 5:22b ULT)

Translation Strategies

(1) If an exclamation in your language needs a verb, add one. Often a good verb is "is" or "are."
(2) Use an exclamation word from your language that shows the strong feeling.
(3) Translate the exclamation word with a sentence that shows the feeling.
(4) Use a word that emphasizes the part of the sentence that brings about the strong feeling.
(5) If the strong feeling is not clear in the target language, then tell how the person felt.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If an exclamation in your language needs a verb, add one. Often a good verb is "is" or "are."

> You worthless person! (Matthew 5:22b ULT)

> > "You are such a worthless person!"

Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! (Romans 11:33b ULT)

> > "Oh, the riches of the wisdom and the knowledge of God are so deep!"

(2) Use an exclamation word from your language that shows the strong feeling. In the first suggested translation below, the word "wow" shows that they were astonished. In the second suggested translation, the expression "Oh no" shows that something terrible or frightening has happened.

They were extremely astonished, saying, "He has done everything well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak." (Mark 7:37 ULT)

> > "They were extremely astonished, saying, 'Wow! He has done everything well. He even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.'"

Alas, oh my Lord Yahweh! For because of this I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face! (Judges 6:22b ULT)

> > "Oh no, Lord Yahweh! I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!"

(3) Translate the exclamation word with a sentence that shows the feeling.

> "Alas, O my Lord Yahweh, for because of this I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!" (Judges 6:22 ULT)
>
> > "Lord Yahweh, what will happen to me? For I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!"
> > "Help, Lord Yahweh! For I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!"

(4) Use a word that emphasizes the part of the sentence that brings about the strong feeling.

> How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways beyond discovering! (Romans 11:33b ULT)
>
> > "His judgments are so unsearchable and his ways are far beyond discovering!"

(5) If the strong feeling is not clear in the target language, then tell how the person felt.

> When Gideon saw that he was the angel of Yahweh, Gideon lamented, "Alas, O my Lord Yahweh, for because of this I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!" (Judges 6:22 ULT)

> Gideon understood that this was the angel of Yahweh.
> He was terrified and said, "Alas, Lord Yahweh! I > have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!"

Matthew References:

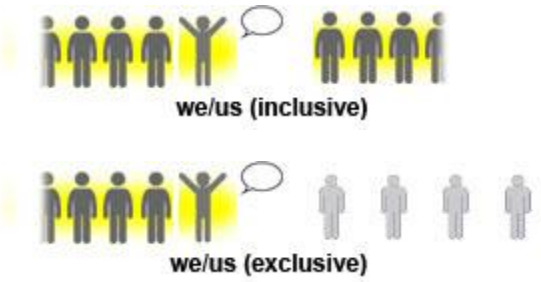
6:23; 11:22; 11:24; 21:43; 23:37; 25:21

Exclusive and Inclusive ‘We’

Description

Some languages have more than one form of “we”: an inclusive form that means “I and you” and an exclusive form that means “I and someone else but not you.” The exclusive form excludes the person being spoken to. The inclusive form includes the person being spoken to and possibly others. This is also true for “us,” “our,” “ours,” and “ourselves.” Some languages have inclusive forms and exclusive forms for each of these. Translators whose language has separate exclusive and inclusive forms for these words will need to understand what the speaker meant so that they can decide which form to use.

See the pictures. The people on the right are the people that the speaker is talking to. The yellow highlight shows who the inclusive “we” and the exclusive “we” refer to.



Reason This Is a Translation Issue

The Bible was first written in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek languages. Like English, these languages do not have separate exclusive and inclusive forms for “we.” If your language has separate exclusive and inclusive forms of “we,” then you will need to understand what the speaker meant so that you can decide which form of “we” to use.

Examples From the Bible

Exclusive

> They said, “There are not more than five loaves of bread and two fish with us—unless we go and buy food for all these people.” (Luke 9:13 ULT)

In the second clause, the disciples are talking about some of them going to buy food. They were speaking to Jesus, but Jesus was not going to buy food. So languages that have inclusive and exclusive forms of "we" would use the exclusive form there.

> We have seen it, and we bear witness to it. We are announcing to you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and which has been made known to us. (1 John 1:2 ULT)

John is telling people who have not seen Jesus what he and the other apostles have seen. So languages that have inclusive and exclusive forms of "we" and "us" would use the exclusive forms in this verse.

Inclusive

> The shepherds said one to each other, "Let us now go to Bethlehem, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." (Luke 2:15b ULT)

The shepherds were speaking to one another. When they said "us," they were including the people they were speaking to, so languages that have inclusive and exclusive forms of "we" and "us" would use the inclusive form in this verse.

> Now it happened that on one of those days, he indeed got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So they set sail. (Luke 8:22 ULT)

When Jesus said "us," he was referring to himself and to the disciples he was speaking to, so languages that have inclusive and exclusive forms of "we" and "us" would use the inclusive form in this verse.

Matthew References:

3:15; 6:9; 6:31; 8:25; 8:31; 9:14; 13:28; 15:15; 16:7; 17:4; 17:19; 19:27; 20:12; 20:18; 20:22; 25:9; 26:63; 27:4; 27:25; 28:13; 28:14

First, Second or Third Person

Normally a speaker refers to himself as “I” and the person he is speaking to as “you.” Sometimes in the Bible a speaker refers to himself or to the person he is speaking to with terms other than “I” or “you.”

Description

- First person — This is how a speaker normally refers to himself. English uses the pronouns “I” and “we.” (Also: me, my, mine; us, our, ours)
- Second person — This is how a speaker normally refers to the person or people he is speaking to. English uses the pronoun “you.” (Also: your, yours)
- Third person — This is how a speaker refers to someone else. English uses the pronouns “he,” “she,” “it,” and “they.” (Also: him, his, her, hers, its; them, their, theirs) Noun phrases like “the man” or “the woman” are also third person.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Sometimes in the Bible a speaker uses the third person to refer to himself or to the people he is speaking to. Readers might think that the speaker was referring to someone else. They might not understand that he meant “I” or “you.”

Examples From the Bible

Sometimes people used the third person instead of “I” or “me” to refer to themselves.

> But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father’s sheep.” (1 Samuel 17:34 ULT)

David referred to himself in the third person as “your servant” and used “his.” He was calling himself Saul’s servant in order to show his humility before Saul.

> Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said,
> “… Do you have an arm like God’s? Can you thunder with a voice like his?” (Job 40:6, 9 ULT)

God referred to himself in the third person with the words “God’s” and “his.” He did this to emphasize that he is God, and he is powerful.

Sometimes people use the third person instead of “you” or “your” to refer to the person or people they are speaking to.

> Abraham answered and said, “Look, I have undertaken to speak to my Lord, even though I am only dust and ashes!” (Genesis 18:27 ULT)

Abraham was speaking to the Lord, and referred to the Lord as “My Lord” rather than as “you.” He did this to show his humility before God.

> So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart. (Matthew 18:35 ULT)

After saying “each of you,” Jesus used the third person “his” instead of “your.”

Translation Strategies

If using the third person to mean “I” or “you” would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

(1) Use the third person phrase along with the pronoun “I” or “you.”
(2) Simply use the first person (“I”) or second person (“you”) instead of the third person.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the third person phrase along with the pronoun “I” or “you.”

> But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father’s sheep.” (1 Samuel 17:34)

> But David said to Saul, "I, your servant, used to keep my father's sheep."

(2) Simply use the first person ("I") or second person ("you") instead of the third person.

> Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said, "… Do you have an arm like God's? Can you thunder with a voice like his?" (Job 40:6, 9 ULT)
>
> > Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said, "… Do you have an arm like mine? Can you thunder with a voice like mine?"
>
> So also my heavenly Father will do to you if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart. (Matthew 18:35 ULT)
>
> > So also my heavenly Father will do to you if each of you does not forgive your brother from your heart.

Matthew References:

8:20; 9:6; 10:23; 11:15; 11:19; 11:27; 12:8; 12:32; 12:39; 12:40; 13:15; 13:37; 13:41; 16:4; 16:13; 16:27; 16:28; 17:9; 17:12; 17:22-23; 18:11; 18:19; 18:35; 19:28; 20:18-19; 20:28; 23:10; 23:37; 24:27; 24:30; 24:31; 24:36; 24:37; 24:42; 24:44; 25:21; 25:31; 25:32; 25:33; 25:34; 25:40; 25:41; 25:45; 26:2; 26:24; 26:45; 26:64; 28:19

Forms of You

Singular, Dual, and Plural

Some languages have more than one word for "you" based on how many people the word "you" refers to. The singular form refers to one person, and the plural form refers to more than one person. Some languages also have a dual form which refers to two people, and some languages have other forms that refer to three or four people.

You may also want to watch the video at https://ufw.io/figs_younum.

Sometimes in the Bible a speaker uses a singular form of "you" even though he is speaking to a crowd. For help with translating these, we suggest you read:

- Singular Pronouns that Refer to Groups

Formal and Informal

Some languages have more than one form of "you" based on the relationship between the speaker and the person he or she is talking to. People use the formal form of "you" when speaking to someone who is older, or has higher authority, or is someone they do not know very well. People use the informal form when speaking to someone who is not older, or does not have higher authority, or is a family member or close friend.

You may also want to watch the video at https://ufw.io/figs_youform.

For help with translating these, we suggest you read:

- Forms of "You" — Formal or Informal

Masculine and Feminine

Some languages have a masculine form and a feminine form of the word for "you." People use the masculine form when speaking to a man or boy and the feminine form when speaking to a woman or girl.

English does not make any of the above distinctions, so they are absent in the ULT. Please be aware of this and use the appropriate forms of “you” if your language does make any of these distinctions.

Matthew References:

6:5; 21:32

Forms of ‘You’ — Dual/Plural

Description

Some languages have a singular form of “you” for when the word “you” refers to just one person, and a plural form for when the word “you” refers to more than one person. Some languages also have a dual form of “you” for when the word “you” refers to only two people. Translators who speak one of these languages will always need to know what the speaker meant so they can choose the right word for “you” in their language. Other languages, such as English, have only one form, which people use regardless of how many people it refers to.

The Bible was first written in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek languages. These languages all have a singular form of “you” and a plural form of “you.” When we read the Bible in those languages, the pronouns and verb forms show us whether the word “you” refers to one person or more than one person. However, they do not show us whether it refers to only two people or more than two people. When the pronouns do not show us how many people the word “you” refers to, we need to look at the context to see how many people the speaker was speaking to.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Translators who speak a language that has distinct singular, dual, and plural forms of “you” will always need to know what the speaker meant so they can choose the right word for “you” in their language.
- Many languages also have different forms of the verb depending on whether the subject is singular or plural. So even if there is no pronoun meaning “you,” translators of these languages will need to know if the speaker was referring to one person or more than one.

Often the context will make it clear whether the word “you” refers to one person or more than one. If you look at the other pronouns in the sentence, they will help you know how many people the speaker was addressing.

Examples From the Bible

> Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came up to him, saying to him, “Teacher, we desire that you to do for us whatever we ask you.” 36

> So he said to them, “What do you want me to do for you?” (Mark 10:35-36 ULT)

Jesus is asking the two, James and John, what they want him to do for them. If the target language has a dual form of “you,” use that. If the target language does not have a dual form, then the plural form would be appropriate.

> Jesus sent out two of his disciples and said to them, “Go into the village opposite us. As soon as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, on which no one has yet sat. Untie it and bring it to me.” (Mark 11:1b-2 ULT)

The context makes it clear that Jesus is addressing two people. If the target language has a dual form of “you,” use that. If the target language does not have a dual form, then the plural form would be appropriate.

> James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes who are in the dispersion: Greetings. Consider it all joy, my brothers, when you experience various troubles. You know that the testing of your faith produces endurance. (James 1:1-3 ULT)

James wrote this letter to many people, so the word “you” refers to many people. If the target language has a plural form of “you,” it would be best to use it here.

Strategies for finding out how many people “you” refers to

(1) Look at the translationNotes to see if they tell whether “you” refers to one person or more than one person.
(2) Look at the UST to see if it says anything that would show you whether the word “you” refers to one person or more than one person.
(3) If you have a Bible that is written in a language that distinguishes “you” singular from “you” plural, see which form of “you” that Bible has in that sentence.
(4) Look at the context to see who the speaker was talking to and who responded.

You may also want to watch the video at https://ufw.io/figs_youdual.

Matthew References:

11:21

Forms of ‘You’ — Singular

Description

Some languages have a singular form of “you” for when the word “you” refers to just one person, and a plural form for when the word “you” refers to more than one person. Translators who speak one of these languages will always need to know what the speaker meant so they can choose the right word for “you” in their language. Other languages, such as English, have only one form, which people use regardless of how many people it refers to.

The Bible was first written in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek languages. These languages all have both a singular form of “you” and a plural form of “you.” When we read the Bible in those languages, the pronouns and verb forms show us whether the word “you” refers to one person or more than one. When we read the Bible in a language that does not have different forms of you, we need to look at the context to see how many people the speaker was speaking to.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- Translators who speak a language that has distinct singular and plural forms of “you” will always need to know what the speaker meant so they can choose the right word for “you” in their language.
- Many languages also have different forms of the verb depending on whether the subject is singular or plural. So even if there is no pronoun meaning “you,” translators of these languages will need to know if the speaker was referring to one person or more than one.

Often the context will make it clear whether the word “you” refers to one person or more than one. If you look at the other pronouns in the sentence, they will help you know the number of people the speaker was speaking to. Sometimes Greek and Hebrew speakers used the singular form of “you” even though they were speaking to a group of people. (See Forms of ‘You’ — Singular to a Crowd.)

Examples From the Bible

> But he said, “All these things I have kept from my youth.” But when he heard this, Jesus said to him, “One thing is still lacking to you. All things, > as much as you have, sell all and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven—and come, follow me." (Luke 18:21-22 ULT)

The ruler was speaking about just himself when he said "I." This shows us that when Jesus said "you" he was referring only to the ruler and he used the singular form. So languages that have singular and plural forms of "you" need the singular form here, as well as for the verbs "sell," distribute," "come," and "follow."

> The angel said to him, "Dress yourself and put on your sandals." So he did that. He said to him, "Put on your outer garment and follow me." (Acts 12:8 ULT)

The angel used singular forms here and the context makes it clear that he was speaking to one person and that only one person did what the the angel commanded. So languages that have singular and plural forms of "you" would need the singular form here for "yourself" and "your." Also, if verbs have different forms for singular and plural subjects, then the verbs "dress," "put on," and "follow" need the form that indicates a singular subject.

> All the ones {who are} with me greet you. Greet the ones loving us in faith. Grace {be} with all of you. (Titus 3:15 ULT)

Paul wrote this letter to one person, Titus, so most of the time the word "you" in this letter is singular and refers only to Titus. In this verse, the first "you" is singular, so the greeting is for Titus, as well as the instruction to greet the others there. The second "you," however, is plural, so the blessing is for Titus and for all of the believers there in Crete.

> "Having gone, search carefully for the young child, and after you have found him, report to me so that I also, having come, might worship him." (Matthew 2:8 ULT)

Since Herod is speaking to all of the learned men, the word “you” and the commands “search” and “report” are plural.

Strategies for finding out how many people “you” refers to

(1) Look at the notes to see if they tell whether “you” refers to one person or more than one person.
(2) Look at the UST to see if it says anything that would show you whether the word “you” refers to one person or more than one person.
(3) If you have a Bible that is written in a language that distinguishes “you” singular from “you” plural, see which form of “you” that Bible has in that sentence.
(4) Look at the context to see how many people the speaker was talking to and who responded.

You may also want to watch the video at https://ufw.io/figs_younum.

Matthew References:

front:intro; 1:intro; 2:intro; 2:6; 2:8; 3:intro; 3:14; 3:15; 4:intro; 4:6; 4:7; 4:10; 4:17; 4:19; 5:intro; 5:21; 5:27; 5:33; 5:43; 6:intro; 6:9; 6:10; 7:intro; 7:22; 8:intro; 8:10; 8:11; 8:26; 8:32; 9:intro; 9:4; 9:6; 9:11; 9:13; 9:24; 9:28; 9:29; 9:30; 9:38; 10:intro; 11:intro; 11:3; 11:10; 11:21; 11:23; 11:24; 11:25; 11:26; 12:intro; 12:2; 12:13; 12:38; 12:47; 13:intro; 13:10; 13:27; 13:28; 13:36; 14:intro; 14:16; 14:18; 14:27; 15:intro; 15:2; 15:4; 15:5; 15:12; 15:15; 15:22; 15:23; 15:25; 15:28; 16:intro; 16:16; 16:17; 16:18; 16:19; 16:22; 16:23; 17:intro; 17:4; 17:15; 17:16; 17:20; 17:25; 17:27; 18:intro; 18:3; 18:10; 18:12; 18:13; 18:14; 18:18; 18:19; 18:35; 19:intro; 19:17; 19:18; 19:19; 19:21; 19:27; 20:intro; 20:8; 20:12; 20:13; 20:14; 20:15; 20:21; 20:21; 20:30; 20:31; 21:intro; 21:5; 21:16; 21:16; 21:19; 21:21; 21:23; 21:28; 22:intro; 22:12; 22:16; 22:17; 22:37; 22:39; 22:44; 23:intro; 23:26; 23:37; 24:intro; 24:3; 25:intro; 25:11; 25:20; 25:21; 25:22; 25:24; 25:25; 25:26; 25:27; 25:37; 25:38; 25:39; 25:44; 26:intro; 26:17; 26:18; 26:25; 26:33; 26:34; 26:35; 26:39; 26:40; 26:42; 26:49; 26:50; 26:52; 26:53; 26:62; 26:63; 26:64; 26:64; 26:68; 26:69; 26:70; 26:73; 26:75; 27:intro; 27:17; 27:21; 27:24; 27:65; 28:intro

Generic Noun Phrases

Description

Generic noun phrases refer to people or things in general rather than to specific individuals or things. This happens frequently in proverbs, because proverbs tell about things that are true about people in general.

> Can a man walk on hot coals without scorching his feet?
> So is the man who goes in to his neighbor's wife;
> the one who touches her will not go unpunished. (Proverbs 6:28-29 ULT)

The phrases in bold above do not refer to a specific man. They refer to any man who does these things.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Different languages have different ways of showing that noun phrases refer to something in general. You (the translator) should refer to these general ideas in ways that are natural in your language.

Examples From the Bible

> The righteous person is kept away from trouble and it comes upon the wicked instead. (Proverbs 11:8 ULT)

The bold phrases above do not refer to a specific person but to anyone who does what is right or anyone who is wicked.

> People curse the man who refuses to sell grain. (Proverbs 11:26 ULT)

This does not refer to a particular man, but to any person who refuses to sell grain.

> Yahweh gives favor to a good man, but he condemns a man who makes evil plans. (Proverbs 12:2 ULT)

The phrase “a good man” does not refer to a particular man, but to any person who is good. The phrase “a man who makes evil plans” does not refer to a particular man, but to any person who makes evil plans.

Translation Strategies

If your language can use the same wording as in the ULT to refer to people or things in general rather than to specific individuals or things, consider using the same wording. If not, here are some strategies you might use.

(1) Use the word “the” in the noun phrase.
(2) Use the word “a” in the noun phrase.
(3) Use the word “any,” as in “any person” or “anyone.”
(4) Use the plural form, as in “people.”
(5) Use any other way that is natural in your language.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the word “the” in the noun phrase.

> Yahweh gives favor to a good man, but he condemns a man who makes evil plans. (Proverbs 12:2 ULT)
>
> > “Yahweh gives favor to the good man, but he condemns the man who makes evil plans.” (Proverbs 12:2)

(2) Use the word “a” in the noun phrase.

> People curse the man who refuses to sell grain. (Proverbs 11:26 ULT)
>
> > "People curse a man who refuses to sell grain."

(3) Use the word "any," as in "any person" or "anyone."

> People curse the man who refuses to sell grain. (Proverbs 11:26 ULT)
>
> > "People curse any man who refuses to sell grain."

(4) Use the plural form, as in "people" (or in this sentence, "men").

> People curse the man who refuses to sell grain. (Proverbs 11:26 ULT)
>
> > "People curse men who refuse to sell grain"

(5) Use any other way that is natural in your language.

> People curse the man who refuses to sell grain. (Proverbs 11:26 ULT)
>
> > "People curse whoever refuses to sell grain."

Matthew References:

4:4; 5:43; 6:19; 6:22; 6:25; 6:28; 6:30; 7:17; 7:21; 10:5; 10:22; 10:23; 10:25; 12:29; 12:33; 12:34; 12:35; 13:4; 15:11; 15:17; 15:18; 15:19; 15:20; 17:15; 18:7; 18:11; 18:17; 19:10; 20:14; 23:26; 24:7; 24:17; 24:18; 24:32; 25:29; 25:32; 26:41; 27:51; 27:52

Go and Come

Description

Different languages have different ways of determining whether to use the words “go” or “come” and whether to use the words “take” or “bring” when talking about motion. For example, when saying that they are approaching a person who has called them, English speakers say “I am coming,” while Spanish speakers say “I am going.” You will need to study the context in order to understand what is meant by the words “go” and “come” (and also “take” and “bring”), and then translate those words in a way that your readers will understand which direction people are moving in.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Different languages have different ways of talking about motion. The biblical languages or your source language may use the words “go” and “come” or “take” and “bring” differently than your language uses them. If these words are not translated in the way that is natural in your language, your readers may be confused about which direction people are moving.

Examples From the Bible

> Yahweh said to Noah, “Come, you and all your household, into the ark.” (Genesis 7:1 ULT)

In some languages, this would lead people to think that Yahweh was in the ark.

> But you will be free from my oath if you come to my relatives and they will not give her to you. Then you will be free from my oath. (Genesis 24:41 ULT)

Abraham was speaking to his servant. Abraham’s relatives lived far away from where he and his servant were standing and he wanted his servant to go to them, not come toward Abraham.

> When you have come to the land that Yahweh your God gives you, and when you take possession of it and begin to live in it … (Deuteronomy 17:14a ULT)

Moses is speaking to the people in the wilderness. They had not yet gone into the land that God was giving them. In some languages, it would make more sense to say, "When you have gone into the land …"

> They brought him up to the temple in Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. (Luke 2:22b ULT)

In some languages, it might make more sense to say that they took or carried Jesus to the temple.

> Then see, there was a man whose name was Jairus, and he was a leader of the synagogue. And falling at the feet of Jesus, he begged him to come to his house. (Luke 8:41 ULT)

The man was not at his house when he spoke to Jesus. He wanted Jesus to go with him to his house.

> What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed shaken by the wind? (Luke 7:24b ULT)

In some languages, it might make more sense to ask what did you come out to see.

Translation Strategies

If the word used in the ULT would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other strategies.

(1) Use the word “go,” “come,” “take,” or “bring” that would be natural in your language.
(2) Use another word that expresses the right meaning.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the word “go,” “come,” “take,” or “bring” that would be natural in your language.

> But you will be free from my oath if you come to my relatives and they will not give her to you. (Genesis 24:41 ULT)
>
> > But you will be free from my oath if you go to my relatives and they will not give her to you.

> What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed shaken by the wind? (Luke 7:24b ULT)
>
> > What did you come out into the desert to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

(2) Use another word that expresses the right meaning.

> When you have come to the land that Yahweh your God gives you, and when you take possession of it and begin to live in it … (Deuteronomy 17:14 ULT)

> > "When you have arrived in the land that Yahweh your God gives you, and when you take possession of it and begin to live in it …"

Yahweh said to Noah, "Come, you and all your household, into the ark …" (Genesis 7:1 ULT)

> > Yahweh said to Noah, "Enter, you and all your household, into the ark …"

What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed shaken by the wind? (Luke 7:24b ULT)

> > What did you travel out into the desert to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

Matthew References:

2:2; 2:8; 2:8; 2:11; 2:23; 3:5; 3:13; 5:1; 5:24; 5:26; 8:7; 8:14; 9:1; 9:18; 9:23; 9:28; 9:28; 9:31; 12:44; 12:45; 13:1; 13:49; 13:54; 14:12; 14:14; 14:15; 14:28; 14:29; 14:29; 14:34; 15:1; 15:11; 15:18; 15:19; 15:21; 15:22; 15:29; 15:39; 16:5; 16:13; 17:9; 17:14; 17:24; 17:27; 18:12; 18:28; 18:30; 18:31; 19:1; 19:14; 20:1; 20:3; 20:5; 20:5; 20:6; 20:9; 20:10; 20:17; 20:18; 20:29; 21:1; 21:2; 21:6; 21:9; 21:17; 21:19; 21:23; 21:28; 21:29; 21:30; 21:32; 21:38; 22:3; 22:4; 22:9; 22:10; 22:11; 22:12; 22:15; 22:22; 24:1; 24:5; 24:17; 24:26; 24:27; 25:6; 25:16; 25:34; 25:36; 25:39; 26:14; 26:32; 26:36; 26:39; 26:42; 26:43; 26:44; 26:55; 26:75; 27:32; 27:33; 27:40; 27:42; 27:49; 27:53; 27:57; 27:64; 27:66; 28:1; 28:2; 28:6; 28:7; 28:7; 28:8; 28:10; 28:11; 28:11; 28:13; 28:16

Hendiadys

Description

In a hendiadys, a speaker uses two words that mean different things and that are connected with “and.” These two words work together to express a single idea. Usually one of the words is the primary idea and the other word further describes the primary one.

> … his own kingdom and glory. (1 Thessalonians 2:12b ULT)

Though “kingdom” and “glory” are both nouns, “glory” actually tells what kind of kingdom it is: it is a kingdom of glory or a glorious kingdom.

Two phrases connected by “and” can also be a hendiadys when they refer to a single person, thing, or event.

> while we look forward to receiving the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. (Titus 2:13b ULT)

Titus 2:13 contains two hendiadyses. “The blessed hope” and “appearing of the glory” refer to the same thing and serve to strengthen the idea that the return of Jesus Christ is greatly anticipated and wonderful. Also, “our great God” and “Savior Jesus Christ” refer to one person, not two.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Often a hendiadys contains an abstract noun. Some languages may not have a noun with the same meaning.
- Many languages do not use the hendiadys, so people may not understand that the second word is further describing the first one.
- Many languages do not use the hendiadys, so people may not understand that only one person or thing is meant, not two.

Examples From the Bible

> For I will give you a mouth and wisdom … (Luke 21:15a ULT)

"A mouth" and "wisdom" are nouns, but in this figure of speech "wisdom" describes what comes from the mouth.

> If you are willing and obedient … (Isaiah 1:19a ULT)

"Willing" and "obedient" are adjectives, but "willing" describes "obedient."

Translation Strategies

If the hendiadys would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

(1) Substitute the describing noun with an adjective that means the same thing.
(2) Substitute the describing noun with a phrase that means the same thing.
(3) Substitute the describing adjective with an adverb that means the same thing.
(4) Substitute other parts of speech that mean the same thing and show that one word or phrase describes the other.
(5) If it is unclear that only one thing is meant, change the phrase so that this is clear.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Substitute the describing noun with an adjective that means the same thing.

> For I will give you a mouthand wisdom … (Luke 21:15a ULT)
>
> > For I will give you wise words …
>
> Walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory. (1 Thessalonians 2:12b ULT)

> > You should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, > > who calls you to his own glorious kingdom.

(2) Substitute the describing noun with a phrase that means the same thing.

> For I will give you a mouthand wisdom … (Luke 21:15a ULT)
>
> > for I will give you words of wisdom.
>
> You should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory. (1 Thessalonians 2:12b ULT)
>
> > You should walk in a manner that is worthy of God,
> > who calls you to his own kingdom of glory.

(3) Substitute the describing adjective with an adverb that means the same thing.

> If you are willing and obedient … (Isaiah 1:19a ULT)
>
> > If you are willingly obedient …

(4) Substitute other parts of speech that mean the same thing and show that one word or phrase describes the other.

> If you are willing and obedient … (Isaiah 1:19a ULT)

The adjective “obedient” can be substituted with the verb “obey.”

> > if you obey willingly …

(4) and (5) If it is unclear that only one thing is meant, change the phrase so that this is clear.

> We look forward to receiving the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. (Titus 2:13b ULT)

The noun “glory” can be changed to the adjective “glorious” to make it clear that Jesus’ appearing is what we hope for. Also, “Jesus Christ” can be moved to the front of the phrase and “great God and Savior” put into a relative clause that describes the one person, Jesus Christ.

> > We look forward to receiving what we are longing for, the blessed and glorious appearing of Jesus Christ, who is our great God and Savior.

Matthew References:

12:48; 16:17

How to Translate Names

Description

The Bible contains the names of many people, groups of people, and places. Some of these names may sound strange and be hard to say. Sometimes readers may not know what a name refers to, and sometimes they may need to understand what a name means. This page will help you see how you can translate these names and how you can help people understand what they need to know about them.

Meaning of names

Most names in the Bible have meaning. Most of the time, names in the Bible are used simply to identify the people and places they refer to, but sometimes the meaning of a name is especially important.

> For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, was the one who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him. (Hebrews 7:1 ULT)

Here the writer uses the name “Melchizedek” primarily to refer to a man who had that name, and the title “king of Salem” tells us that he ruled over a certain city.

> His name first indeed means “king of righteousness,” and then also “king of Salem,” that is, “king of peace.” (Hebrews 7:2b ULT)

Here the writer explains the meanings of Melchizedek’s name and title because those things tell us more about the person. Other times, the writer does not explain the meaning of a name because he expects the reader to already know the meaning. If the meaning of the name is important to understand the passage, you can include the meaning in the text or in a footnote.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Readers may not know some of the names in the Bible. They may not know whether a name refers to a person or place or something else.
- Readers may need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand the passage.
- Some names may have different sounds or combinations of sounds that are not used in your language or are unpleasant to say in your language. For strategies to address this problem, see Borrow Words.
- Some people and places in the Bible have two names. Readers may not realize that two names refer to the same person or place.

Examples From the Bible

> Then you crossed over the Jordan and came to Jericho, and the men of Jericho, and the Amorites … fought against you, but I gave them into your hand. (Joshua 24:11 ULT)

Readers might not know that "Jordan" is the name of a river, "Jericho" is the name of a city, and "Amorites" is the name of a group of people.

> She said, "Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?" Therefore, the well was called Beer Lahai Roi. (Genesis 16:13b-14a ULT)

Readers may not understand the second sentence if they do not know that "Beer Lahai Roi" means "Well of the Living One who sees me."

> And she called his name Moses and she said, "For out of the water I drew him." (Exodus 2:10b ULT)

Readers may not understand why she said this if they do not know that the name Moses sounds like the Hebrew words "pull out."

> Saul was in agreement with his execution. (Acts 8:1a ULT)
>
> But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothing. (Acts 14:14a ULT)

Readers may not know that the names Saul and Paul refer to the same person.

Translation Strategies

(1) If readers cannot easily understand from the context what kind of a thing a name refers to, you can add a word to clarify it.
(2) If readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, copy the name and tell about its meaning either in the text or in a footnote.
(3) Or if readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, and that name is used only once, translate the meaning of the name instead of copying the name.
(4) If a person or place has two different names, use one name most of the time and the other name only when the text tells about the person or place having more than one name or when it says something about why the person or place was given that name. Write a footnote when the source text uses the name that is used less frequently.
(5) Or if a person or place has two different names, then use whatever name is given in the source text, and add a footnote that gives the other name.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If readers cannot easily understand from the context what kind of a thing a name refers to, you can add a word to clarify it.

> Then you crossed over the Jordan and came to Jericho, and the men of Jericho, and the Amorites … fought against you, but I gave them into your hand. (Joshua 24:11 ULT)

> > You went over the Jordan River and came to the city of Jericho. The men of Jericho fought against you, along with the tribe of the Amorites.
>
> At that hour, certain Pharisees approached, saying to him, “Leave and go away from here, because Herod wants to kill you.” (Luke 13:31 ULT)
>
> > At that hour, certain Pharisees approached, saying to him, “Go and leave here, because King Herod wants to kill you.”

(2) If readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, copy the name and tell about its meaning either in the text or in a footnote.

> And she called his name Moses and she said, “For out of the water I drew him.” (Exodus 2:10b ULT)
>
> > She called his name Moses (which sounds like ‘drawn out’), and she said, “For out of the water I drew him.”

(3) Or if readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, and that name is used only once, translate the meaning of the name instead of copying the name.

> She said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore, the well was called Beer Lahai Roi. (Genesis 16:13b-14a ULT)
>
> > She said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore, the well was called Well of the Living One who sees me.

(4) If a person or place has two different names, use one name most of the time and the other name only when the text tells about the person or place having more than one name or when it says something about why the person or place was given that name. Write a footnote when the source text uses the name that is used less frequently. For example, Paul is called “Saul” before Acts 13 and “Paul” after Acts 13. You could translate his name as “Paul” all of the time, except in Acts 13:9 where it talks about him having both names.

> … a young man named Saul. (Acts 7:58b ULT)
>
> > … a young man named Paul 1

The footnote would look like:

> > [1] Most versions say “Saul” here, but most of the time in the Bible he is called “Paul.”

Then later in the story, you could translate this way:

> But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit; (Acts 13:9)
>
> > But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit;

(5) Or if a person or place has two names, use whatever name is given in the source text, and add a footnote that gives the other name. For example, you could write “Saul” where the source text has “Saul” and “Paul” where the source text has “Paul.”

> a young man named Saul (Acts 7:58 ULT)
>
> > a young man named Saul

The footnote would look like:

> > [1] This is the same man who is called Paul beginning in Acts 13.

Then later in the story, you could translate this way:

> But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit; (Acts 13:9)
>
> > But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit;

Then after the story has explained the name change, you could translate this way.

> It came about in Iconium that Paul and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue (Acts 14:1 ULT)
>
> > It came about in Iconium that Paul[1] and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue

The footnote would look like:

> > [1] This is the same man who was called Saul before Acts 13.

Matthew References:

front:intro; 1:2; 1:2; 1:3; 1:3; 1:3; 1:4; 1:4; 1:5; 1:5; 1:6; 1:7; 1:7; 1:8; 1:8; 1:9; 1:9; 1:10; 1:10; 1:11; 1:12; 1:12; 1:13; 1:14; 1:15; 1:16; 1:16; 2:22; 4:25; 5:17; 7:12; 8:28; 10:3; 11:21; 12:42; 13:55; 14:3; 14:34; 15:39; 16:17; 21:1; 23:35; 26:6; 27:32; 27:56; 27:56; 27:57

Hyperbole

Description

A speaker or writer can use exactly the same words to say something that he means as completely true, or as generally true, or as a hyperbole. This is why it can be hard to decide how to understand a statement. For example, the sentence below could mean three different things.

It rains here every night.

1. The speaker means this as literally true if he means that it really does rain here every night.
2. The speaker means this as a generalization if he means that it rains here most nights.
3. The speaker means this as a hyperbole if he wants to say that it rains more than it actually does, usually in order to express a strong attitude toward the amount or frequency of rain, such as being annoyed or being happy about it.

Hyperbole

In hyperbole, a figure of speech that uses exaggeration, a speaker deliberately describes something with an extreme or even unreal statement, usually to show his strong feeling or opinion about it. He expects people to understand that he is exaggerating.

> They will not leave stone upon stone in you. (Luke 19:44b ULT)

This is an exaggeration. It means that the enemies will completely destroy Jerusalem.

> Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. (Acts 7:22a ULT)

This hyperbole means that he had learned everything an Egyptian education could offer.

Generalization

This is a statement that is true most of the time or in most situations that it could apply to.

> The one who ignores instruction will have poverty and shame, > but honor will come to him who learns from correction. (Proverbs 13:18)

These generalizations tell about what normally happens to people who ignore instruction and what normally happens to people who learn from correction. There may be some exceptions to these statements, but they are generally true.

> And when you pray, do not make useless repetitions as the Gentiles do, > for they think that they will be heard because of their many words.
> (Matthew 6:7)

This generalization tells about what Gentiles were known for doing. Many Gentiles did this. It does not matter if a few did not. The point was that the hearers should not join in this well-known practice.

Even though a hyperbole or a generalization may have a strong-sounding word like “all,” “always,” “none,” or “never,” it does not necessarily mean exactly “all,” “always,” “none,” or “never.” It simply means “most,” “most of the time,” “hardly any,” or “rarely.”

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

1. Readers need to be able to understand whether or not a statement is literally true.
2. If readers realize that a statement is not literally true, they need to be able to understand whether it is a hyperbole, a generalization, or a lie. (Though the Bible is completely true, it tells about people who did not always tell the truth.)

Examples From the Bible

Examples of Hyperbole

> If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed … (Mark 9:43a ULT)

When Jesus said to cut off your hand, he meant that we should do whatever extreme things we need to do in order not to sin. He used this hyperbole to show how extremely important it is to try to stop sinning.

> The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel with 3,000 chariots, 6,000 men to drive the chariots, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. (1 Samuel 13:5a ULT)

The bolded phrase is an exaggeration for the purpose of expressing the emotion that the Philistine army was overwhelming in number. It means that there were many, many soldiers in the Philistine army.

> But as his anointing teaches you everything and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, remain in him. (1 John 2:27b ULT)

This is a hyperbole. It expresses the assurance that God's Spirit teaches us about all things that we need to know. God's Spirit does not teach us about everything that it is possible to know.

> When they found him, they also said to him, "Everyone is looking for you." (Mark 1:37 ULT)

The disciples probably did not mean that everyone in the city was looking for Jesus, but that many people were looking for him, or that all of Jesus' closest friends there were looking for him. This is an exaggeration for the purpose of expressing the emotion that they and many others were worried about him.

Examples of Generalization

> Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? (John 1:46b ULT)

This rhetorical question is meant to express the generalization that there is nothing good in Nazareth. The people there had a reputation for being uneducated and not strictly religious. Of course, there were exceptions.

> One of them, of their own prophets, has said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies." (Titus 1:12 ULT)

This is a generalization that means that Cretans had a reputation to be like this because, in general, this is how Cretans behaved. It is possible that there were exceptions.

> A lazy hand causes a person to be poor, but the hand of the diligent person gains riches. (Proverbs 10:4 ULT)

This is generally true, and it reflects the experience of most people. It is possible that there are exceptions in some circumstances.

Caution

- Do not assume that something is an exaggeration just because it seems to be impossible. God does miraculous things.

> They saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat. (John 6:19b ULT)

This is not hyperbole. Jesus really walked on the water. It is a literal statement.

- Do not assume that the word “all” is always a generalization that means “most.”

> Yahweh is righteous in all his ways > and gracious in all he does. (Psalms 145:17 ULT)

Yahweh is always righteous. This is a completely true statement.

Translation Strategies

If the hyperbole or generalization would be natural and people would understand it and not think that it is a lie, consider using it. If not, here are other options.

(1) Express the meaning without the exaggeration.
(2) For a generalization, show that it is a generalization by using a phrase like “in general” or “in most cases.”
(3) For a hyperbole or a generalization, add a word like “many” or “almost” to show that the hyperbole or generalization is not meant to be exact.
(4) For a hyperbole or a generalization that has a word like “all,” “always,” “none,” or “never,” consider deleting that word.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Express the meaning without the exaggeration.

> The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel: 3,000 chariots, 6,000 men to drive the chariots, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. (1 Samuel 13:5a ULT)
>
> > The Philistines gathered together to fight against > > Israel: 3,000 chariots, 6,000 men to drive the chariots, > > and a great number of troops.

(2) For a generalization, show that it is a generalization by using a phrase like “in general” or “in most cases.”

> The one who ignores instruction will have poverty and shame.
> (Proverbs 13:18a ULT)
>
> > In general, the one who ignores instruction will have poverty and shame
>
> When you pray, do not make useless repetitions as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard because of their many words. (Matthew 6:7 ULT)
>
> > And when you pray, do not make useless repetitions as the Gentiles generally do, for they think that they will be heard because of their many words.

(3) For a hyperbole or a generalization, add a word like “many” or “almost” to show that the hyperbole or generalization is not meant to be exact.

> The whole country of Judea and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. (Mark 1:5a ULT)
>
> > Almost all the country of Judea and almost all the people of Jerusalem went out to him.
> > or:

> > Many of the country of Judea and many of the people of Jerusalem went out to him.

(4) For a hyperbole or a generalization that has a word like “all,” “always,” “none,” or “never,” consider deleting that word.

> The whole country of Judea and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. (Mark 1:5a ULT)
>
> > The country of Judea and the people of Jerusalem went out to him.

Matthew References:

2:3; 3:5; 4:23; 4:24; 5:11; 5:29; 5:30; 7:3; 7:4; 7:5; 8:20; 8:34; 9:13; 9:35; 10:1; 10:22; 13:6; 13:12; 13:21; 13:32; 13:47; 14:35; 18:8; 18:9; 19:24; 21:8; 21:26; 24:2; 25:29; 26:38

Hypothetical Situations

Consider these phrases: “If the sun stopped shining …” “What if the sun stopped shining …” “Suppose the sun stopped shining …” and “If only the sun had not stopped shining.” We use such expressions to set up hypothetical situations, imagining what might have happened or what could happen in the future but probably will not. We also use them to express regret or wishes. Hypothetical expressions occur often in the Bible. You (the translator) need to translate them in a way that people will know that the event did not actually happen and so that they will understand why the event was imagined.

Description

Hypothetical situations are situations that are not real. They can be in the past, present, or future. Hypothetical situations in the past and present have not happened, are not happening now, and ones in the future are not expected to happen.

People sometimes tell about conditions and what would happen if those conditions were met, but they know that these things have not happened or probably will not happen. (The conditions comprise a phrase that starts with “if.”)

- If he had lived to be 100 years old, he would have seen his grandson’s grandson. (But he did not.)
- If he lived to be 100 years old, he would still be alive today. (But he is not.)
- If he lives to be 100 years old, he will see his grandson’s grandson. (But he probably will not.)

People sometimes express wishes about things that have not happened or that are not expected to happen.

- I wish he had come.
- I wish he were here.
- I wish he would come.

People sometimes express regrets about things that have not happened or that are not expected to happen.

- If only he had come.
- If only he were here.

- If only he would come.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- Translators need to recognize the different kinds of hypothetical situations in the Bible and understand that they are unreal.
- Translators need to know their own language's ways of talking about different kinds of hypothetical situations.

Examples From the Bible

Hypothetical Situations in the Past

> "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes." (Matthew 11:21 ULT)

Here in Matthew 11:21, Jesus said that if the people living in the ancient cities of Tyre and Sidon had been able to see the miracles that he performed, they would have repented long ago. The people of Tyre and Sidon did not actually see his miracles, and they did not repent. He said this to rebuke the people of Chorazin and Bethsaida who had seen his miracles and yet did not repent.

> Martha then said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." (John 11:21 ULT)

Martha said this to express her wish that Jesus would have come sooner so that her brother would not have died. But Jesus did not come sooner and her brother did die.

Hypothetical Situations in the Present

> And no man puts new wine into old wineskins. But if he did do that, the new wine would burst the wineskins, and it would be spilled out, and the wineskins would be destroyed. (Luke 5:37 ULT)

Jesus told about what would happen if a person were to put new wine into old wineskins. But no one would do that. He used this imaginary situation as an example to show that there are times when it is unwise to mix new things with old things. He did this so that people could understand why his disciples were not fasting as people traditionally did.

> Jesus said to them, "What man would there be among you, who, if he had just one sheep, and if this sheep fell into a deep hole on the Sabbath, would not grasp hold of it and lift it out?" (Matthew 12:11 ULT)

Jesus asked the religious leaders what they would do on the Sabbath if one of their sheep fell into a hole. He was not saying that their sheep would fall into a hole. He used this imaginary situation to show them that they were wrong to judge him for healing people on the Sabbath.

Hypothetical Situation in the Future

> Unless those days are shortened, no flesh would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened. (Matthew 24:22 ULT)

Jesus was talking about a future time when very bad things would happen. He told what would happen if those days of trouble were to last a long time. He did this to show how bad those days will be—so bad that if they lasted a long time, no one would be saved. But then he clarified that God will shorten those days of trouble so that the elect (those he has chosen) will be saved.

Expressing Emotion About a Hypothetical Situation

People sometimes talk about hypothetical situations in order to express regrets and wishes. Regrets are about the past and wishes are about the present and future.

> The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by Yahweh's hand in the land of Egypt when we were sitting by the pots of meat and were > eating bread to the full. For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill our whole community with hunger." (Exodus 16:3 ULT)

Here the Israelites were afraid that they would have to suffer and die of hunger in the wilderness, and so they wished that they had stayed in Egypt and died there with full stomachs. They were complaining, expressing regret that this had not happened.

> I know what you have done, and that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were either cold or hot! (Revelation 3:15 ULT)

Jesus wished that the people were either hot or cold, but they are neither. He was rebuking them, expressing anger at this.

Translation Strategies

Find out how people speaking your language show:

- that something could have happened, but did not.
- that something could be true now, but is not.
- that something could happen in the future, but will not unless something changes.
- that they wish for something, but it does not happen.
- that they regret that something did not happen.

Use your language's ways of showing these kinds of things.

You may also want to watch the video at https://ufw.io/figs_hypo.

Matthew References:

5:40; 5:41; 6:30; 7:9; 7:10; 9:17; 12:11; 15:14; 16:26; 17:20; 18:12; 21:21; 21:25; 21:26; 22:24; 22:25; 23:30; 24:26; 24:40; 24:41; 24:43; 24:48-50; 27:42; 27:43; 28:14

Idiom

An idiom is a figure of speech made up of a group of words that, as a whole, has a meaning that is different from what one would understand from the meanings of the individual words. Someone from outside of the culture usually cannot understand an idiom without someone inside the culture explaining its true meaning. Every language uses idioms. Some English examples are:

- You are pulling my leg. (This means, “You are teasing me by telling me something that is not true.”)
- Do not push the envelope. (This means, “Do not take a matter to its extreme.”)
- This house is under water. (This means, “The debt owed for this house is greater than its actual value.”)
- We are painting the town red. (This means, “We are going around town tonight celebrating very intensely.”)

Description

An idiom is a phrase that has a special meaning to the people of the language or culture who use it. Its meaning is different than what a person would understand from the meanings of the individual words that form the phrase.

> he set his face to go to Jerusalem. (Luke 9:51b ULT)

The words “set his face” is an idiom that means “decided.”

Sometimes people may be able to understand an idiom from another culture, but it might sound like a strange way to express the meaning.

> I am not worthy that you would come under my roof. (Luke 7:6b ULT)

The phrase “come under my roof” is an idiom that means “enter my house.”

> Put these words into your ears. (Luke 9:44a ULT)

This idiom means “Listen carefully and remember what I say.”

Purpose: An idiom is probably created in a culture somewhat by accident when someone describes something in an unusual way. But, when that unusual way communicates the message powerfully and people understand it clearly, other people start to use it. After a while, it becomes a normal way of talking in that language.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- People can easily misunderstand idioms in the original languages of the Bible if they do not know the cultures that produced the Bible.
- People can easily misunderstand idioms that are in the source language Bibles if they do not know the cultures that made those translations.
- It is useless to translate idioms literally (according to the meaning of each word) when the target language audience will not understand what they mean.

Examples From the Bible

> Then all Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Look, we are your flesh and bone.” (1 Chronicles 11:1 ULT)

This means, “We and you belong to the same race, the same family.”

> The children of Israel went out with a high hand. (Exodus 14:8b ASV)

This means, “The Israelites went out defiantly.”

> the one who lifts up my head (Psalm 3:3b ULT)

This means, “the one who helps me.”

Translation Strategies

If the idiom would be clearly understood in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

(1) Translate the meaning plainly without using an idiom.
(2) Use a different idiom that people use in your own language that has the same meaning.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Translate the meaning plainly without using an idiom.

> Then all Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Look, we are your flesh and bone.” (1 Chronicles 11:1 ULT)
>
> > Look, we all belong to the same nation.

> Then he set his face to go to Jerusalem. (Luke 9:51b ULT)
>
> > He started to travel to Jerusalem, determined to reach it.

> I am not worthy that you would come under my roof. (Luke 7:6b ULT)
>
> > I am not worthy that you should enter my house.

(2) Use an idiom that people use in your own language that has the same meaning.

> Put these words into your ears. (Luke 9:44a ULT)
>
> > Be all ears when I say these words to you.

> My eyes grow dim from grief. (Psalm 6:7a ULT)
>
> > I am crying my eyes out

Matthew References:

1:18; 1:23; 2:1; 2:2; 2:6; 2:9; 2:16; 2:20; 3:1; 3:4; 3:7; 3:12; 3:15; 3:16; 4:2; 4:4; 4:19; 4:20; 4:22; 5:2; 5:3; 5:4; 5:5; 5:6; 5:7; 5:8; 5:8; 5:8; 5:9; 5:10; 5:11; 5:17; 5:23; 5:25; 5:25; 5:33; 6:33; 7:23; 8:8; 8:10; 8:12; 8:13; 8:19; 8:20; 8:29; 9:10; 9:13; 9:13; 9:13; 9:15; 9:15; 9:21; 9:22; 9:30; 9:30; 10:5; 10:8; 10:17; 10:19; 10:21; 10:25; 10:27; 10:34; 10:35; 10:41; 10:42; 11:5; 11:9; 11:10; 11:11; 11:11; 11:12; 11:18; 11:18; 11:19; 11:21; 11:23; 11:26; 11:28; 11:29; 12:1; 12:7; 12:11; 12:14; 12:20; 12:20; 12:30; 12:32; 12:36; 12:40; 12:42; 12:45; 13:5; 13:6; 13:32; 13:35; 13:38; 13:38; 13:39; 13:40; 13:49; 13:54; 13:56; 14:2; 14:13; 14:15; 14:20; 15:4; 15:28; 15:30; 15:37; 16:6; 16:21; 16:21; 16:22; 16:24; 16:24; 17:6; 17:8; 17:9; 17:10; 17:17; 17:18; 17:23; 17:23; 18:7; 18:10; 18:10; 18:11; 18:14; 18:15; 18:23; 18:24; 18:27; 18:30; 18:32; 18:34; 18:35; 19:8; 19:12; 19:21; 19:27; 19:28; 20:1; 20:15; 20:19; 20:19; 20:33; 20:34; 21:2; 21:5; 21:19; 21:29; 21:32; 21:34; 21:41; 21:42; 22:15; 22:16; 22:16; 22:46; 23:15; 23:30; 23:34; 24:3; 24:7; 24:11; 24:19; 24:19; 24:22; 24:24; 24:29; 24:31; 24:33; 24:37; 24:38; 24:42; 24:43; 24:44; 24:45; 24:50; 24:50; 24:51; 25:8; 25:19; 25:35; 25:38; 25:43; 26:4; 26:25; 26:29; 26:29; 26:32; 26:43; 26:45; 26:49; 26:50; 26:52; 26:55; 26:64; 26:70; 27:1; 27:4; 27:7; 27:11; 27:19; 27:24; 27:24; 27:25; 27:29; 27:46; 27:50; 27:52; 27:55; 27:61; 27:63; 27:64; 27:64; 27:64; 28:6; 28:7; 28:9; 28:12; 28:20; 28:20

Imperatives — Other Uses

Description

Imperative sentences are mainly used to express a desire or requirement that someone do something. In the Bible, sometimes imperative sentences have other uses.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages would not use an imperative sentence for some of the functions that they are used for in the Bible.

Examples From the Bible

Speakers often use imperative sentences to tell or ask their listeners to do something. In Genesis 26, God spoke to Isaac and told him not to go to Egypt but to live where God would tell him to live.

> Now Yahweh appeared to him and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land that I tell you to live in." (Genesis 26:2 ULT)

Sometimes imperative sentences in the Bible have other uses.

Imperatives that make things happen

God can make things happen by commanding that they happen. Jesus healed a man by commanding that the man be healed. The man could not do anything to obey the command, but Jesus caused him to be healed by commanding it. (In this context, the command "Be clean" means to "be healed" so that others around would know that it was safe to touch the man again.)

> "I am willing. Be clean." Immediately he was cleansed of his leprosy. (Matthew 8:3b ULT)

In Genesis 1, God commanded that there should be light, and by commanding it, he caused it to exist. Some languages, such as the Hebrew of the Bible, have commands that are in the third person. English does not do that, and so it must turn the third-person command into a general, second-person command, as in the ULT:

> God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULT)

Languages that have third-person commands can follow the original Hebrew, which translates into English as something like "light must be."

Imperatives that function as blessings

In the Bible, God blesses people by using imperatives. This indicates what his will is for them.

> God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful, and multiply. Fill the earth, and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth." (Genesis 1:28 ULT)

Imperatives that function as conditions

An imperative sentence can also be used to tell the condition under which something will happen. The proverbs mainly tell about life and things that often happen. The purpose of Proverbs 4:6 below is not primarily to give a command, but to teach what people can expect to happen if they love wisdom.

> Do not abandon wisdom and she will watch over you;
> love her and she will keep you safe. (Proverbs 4:6 ULT)

The purpose of Proverbs 22:6, below, is to teach what people can expect to happen if they teach their children the way they should go.

> Teach a child the way he should go, > and when he is old he will not turn away from that instruction. (Proverbs 22:6 ULT)

Imperatives that function as good results

An imperative sentence can also describe a desirable result. In Proverbs 3:3-4, several imperatives give instructions, then the final imperative describes the good outcome of following those instructions.

> Do not let covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness leave you;
> tie them on your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart,
> and find favor and good insight in the eyes of God and man! (Proverbs 3:3-4 ULT)

Translation Strategies

(1) If people would not use an imperative sentence for one of the functions in the Bible, try using a statement instead.
(2) If people would not understand that a sentence is used to cause something to happen, add a connecting word like “so” to show that what happened was a result of what was said.
(3) If people would not use a command as a condition, translate it as a statement with the words “if” and “then.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If people would not use an imperative sentence for one of the functions in the Bible, try using a statement instead.

> Be clean. (Matthew 8:3b ULT)

> You are now clean.
> I now cleanse you.

God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULT)

> God said, "There is now light" and there was light.

God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful, and multiply. Fill the earth, and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth." (Genesis 1:28 ULT)

> God blessed them and said to them, "My will for you is that you be fruitful, and multiply. Fill the earth, and subdue it. I want you to have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth."

Do not let covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness leave you;
tie them on your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart,
and find favor and good insight in the eyes of God and man! (Proverbs 3:3-4 ULT)

> Do not let covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness > leave you;
> tie them on your neck, write them on the tablet of > > your heart,

> > then you will find favor and good insight in the eyes > > of God and man!

(2) If people would not understand that a sentence is used to cause something to happen, add a connecting word like "so" to show that what happened was a result of what was said.

> God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULT)
>
> > God said, 'Let there be light,' so there was light.
> > God said, "Light must be;" as a result, there was > > light.

(3) If people would not use a command as a condition, translate it as a statement with the words "if" and "then."

> Teach a child the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn away from that instruction. (Proverbs 22:6 ULT)

Translated as:

> "If you teach a child the way he should go, > then when he is old he will not turn away from that instruction."

Matthew References:

6:11; 6:12; 6:13; 8:8; 8:31; 9:18; 12:13; 13:36; 14:8; 14:15; 14:28; 14:30; 15:15; 15:23; 15:25; 17:15; 18:26; 18:29; 20:21; 20:30; 20:31; 22:4; 22:17; 24:3; 25:8; 25:11; 27:64

Information Structure

Description

Different languages arrange the parts of the sentence in different ways. In English, a sentence normally has the subject first, then the verb, then the object, then other modifiers, like this: Peter painted his house yesterday.

Many other languages normally put these things in a different order such as: Painted yesterday Peter his house.

Although all languages have a normal order for parts of a sentence, this order can change depending on what information the speaker or writer considers to be the most important.

Suppose that someone is answering the question, “What did Peter paint yesterday?” The person asking the question already knows all of the information in our sentence above except for the object, “his house.” Therefore, that becomes the most important part of the information, and a person answering in English might say “His house is what Peter painted (yesterday).”

This puts the most important information first, which is normal for English. Many Other Languages would normally put the most important information last. In the flow of a text, the most important information is usually what the writer considers to be new information for the reader. In some languages the new information comes first, and in others it comes last.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Different languages arrange the parts of a sentence in different ways. If you (the translator) copy the order of the parts of a sentence from the source, it may not make sense in your language.
- Different languages put important or new information in different places in the sentence. If you keep the important or new information in the same place that it had in the source language, it may be confusing or give the wrong message in your language.

Examples From the Bible

> They all ate until they were satisfied. (Mark 6:42 ULT)

The parts of this sentence were in a different order in the original Greek source language. They were like this: And they ate all and they were satisfied.

In English, this means that the people ate everything. But the next verse says that they took up twelve baskets full of leftover pieces of food. In order for this to not be so confusing, the translators of the ULT put the parts of the sentence in the right order for English.

> And the day began to end, and the twelve came to him and said, “Send the crowd away so that, going into the surrounding villages and countryside, they may find lodging and food, because we are here in an desolate place.” (Luke 9:12 ULT)

In this verse, what the disciples say to Jesus puts the important information first, that he should send the crowd away. In languages that put the important information last, people would understand that the reason that they gave, being in an isolated place, is the most important part of their message to Jesus. They might then think that the disciples are afraid of the spirits in that place, and that sending the people to buy food is a way to protect them from the spirits. That is the wrong message.

> Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for their fathers treated the false prophets in the same way. (Luke 6:26 ULT)

In this verse, the most important part of the information is first, that “woe” is coming on the people for what they are doing. The reason that supports that warning comes last. This could be confusing for people who expect the important information to come last.

Translation Strategies

(1) Study how your language arranges the parts of a sentence, and use that order in your translation.
(2) Study where your language puts the new or important information, and rearrange the order of information so that it follows the way it is done in your language.

Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Study how your language arranges the parts of a sentence, and use that order in your translation.

This is the verse in the original Greek order:

> And he went out from there and came to the hometown his, and they followed him the disciples his. (Mark 6:1)

The ULT has put this into the normal order for English:

> Now Jesus went out from there and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. (Mark 6:1 ULT)

(2) Study where your language puts the new or important information and rearrange the order of information so that it follows the way it is done in your language.

> And the day began to end, and the twelve came and said to him, “Send the crowd away so that, going into the surrounding villages and countryside, they may find lodging and food, because we are here in a desolate place.” (Luke 9:12 ULT)

If your language puts the important information last, you can change the order of the verse.

> > Now the day was about to come to an end, and the twelve came to him and said, “Because we are here in an desolate place, send the crowd away that they may > > go into the surrounding villages and countryside to find lodging and food.”

>
> Woe to you, when all men speak well of you, for that is how their ancestors treated the false prophets. (Luke 6:26 ULT)

If your language puts the important information last, you can change the order of the verse.

> > When all men speak well of you, which is just as people’s ancestors treated the false prophets, then woe to you!

Matthew References:

4:9; 4:13; 5:45; 6:21; 6:28; 7:6; 7:12; 8:27; 9:14; 11:9; 12:12; 15:22; 16:12; 16:17; 16:23; 17:7; 17:15; 17:15; 18:21; 18:22; 20:28; 21:37; 22:3; 22:32; 22:43-44; 24:30; 25:15-16; 26:62; 27:53

Introduction of a New Event

Description

When people tell a story, they tell about an event or a series of events. Often they put certain information at the beginning of the story, such as who the story is about, when it happened, and where it happened. This information that the writer gives before the events of the story begin is called the setting of the story. Some new events in a story also have a setting because they might involve new people, new times, and new places. In some languages, people also tell if they saw the event or heard about it from someone else.

When your people tell about events, what information do they give at the beginning? Is there a certain order that they put it in? In your translation, you will need to follow the way your language introduces new information at the beginning of a story or a new event rather than the way the source language did that. In this way your translation will sound natural and communicate clearly in your language.

Examples From the Bible

> In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a certain priest named Zechariah, from the division of Abijah. And his wife was from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. (Luke 1:5 ULT)

The verses above introduce a story about Zechariah. The first bolded phrase tells when it happened, and the next two bolded phrases introduce the main people. The next two verses go on to explain that Zechariah and Elizabeth were old and did not have any children. All of this is the setting. Then the phrase “And it happened that” in Luke 1:8 helps to introduce the first event in this story:

> And it happened that in his performing as priest before God, in the order of his division, according to the custom of the priesthood, he came up by lot to enter into the temple of the Lord to burn incense. (Luke 1:8-9 ULT)

> The birth of Jesus Christ happened in the following way. His mother, Mary, was engaged to marry Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant by the Holy Spirit. (Matthew 1:18 ULT)

The bolded sentence above makes it explicit that a story about Jesus is being introduced. The story will tell about how the birth of Jesus happened.

> Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, learned men from the east arrived in Jerusalem. (Matthew 2:1 ULT)

The bolded phrase above shows that the events concerning the learned men happened after Jesus was born.

> Now in those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea. (Matthew 3:1-22 ULT)

The bolded phrase above shows that John the Baptist came preaching around the time of the previous events. It is probably very general and refers to when Jesus lived in Nazareth.

> Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan River to John, to be baptized by him. (Matthew 3:13 ULT)

The word “then” shows that Jesus came to the Jordan River some time after the events in the previous verses.

> Now there was a man from thePharisees whose name was Nicodemus, a Jewish leader. This man came to Jesus at night. (John 3:1-2a ULT)

The author first introduced the new person and then told about what he did and when he did it. In some languages, it might be more natural to tell about the time first.

> 6 Noah was 600 years old when the flood came upon the earth. 7 Noah, his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives went into the ark together because of the waters of the flood. (Genesis 7:6-7 ULT)

Verse 6 is a statement of the events that happen in the rest of chapter 7. Chapter 6 already told about how God told Noah that there would be a flood, and how Noah prepared for it. Chapter 7 verse 6 introduces the part of the story that tells about Noah and his family and the animals going into the ship, the rain starting, and the rain flooding the earth. Some languages might need to make it clear that this verse simply introduces the event, or move this verse after verse 7. Verse 6 is not one of the events of the story. The people went into the ship before the flood came.

Translation Strategies

If the information given at the beginning of a new event is clear and natural to your readers, consider translating it as it is in the ULT or UST. If not, consider one of these strategies:

(1) Put the information that introduces the event in the order that your people put it.
(2) If readers would expect certain information but it is not in the Bible, consider using an indefinite word or phrase to fill in that information, such as: "another time" or "someone."
(3) If the introduction is a summary of the whole event, use your language's way of showing that it is a summary.
(4) If it would be strange in the target language to give a summary of the event at the beginning, indicate that the event would actually happen later in the story.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Put the information that introduces the event in the order that your people put it.

> Now there was a man from thePharisees whose name was Nicodemus, a Jewish leader. This man came to Jesus at night. (John 3:1-2a ULT)

> There was a man whose name was Nicodemus. He was a Pharisee and a member of the Jewish Council. One night he came to Jesus.

> One night a man named Nicodemus, who was a Pharisee and a member of the Jewish Council, came to Jesus.

As he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alpheus, sitting at the tax collector's tent, and he said to him … (Mark 2:14a ULT)

> As he passed by, Levi the son of Alpheus was sitting at the tax collector's tent. Jesus saw him and and said to him …

> As he passed by, there was a man sitting at the tax collector's tent. His name was Levi, and he was the son of Alpheus. Jesus saw him and said to him …

> > As he passed by, there was a tax collector sitting at the tax collector's tent. His name was Levi, and he was the son of Alpheus. Jesus saw him and said to him …

(2) If readers would expect certain information, but it is not in the Bible, consider using an indefinite word or phrase such as "another time," or "someone."

> Noah was 600 years old when the flood came upon the earth. (Genesis 7:6 ULT) — If people expect to be told something about when the new event happened, the phrase "after that" can help them see that it happened after the events already mentioned.
>
> > After that, when Noah was 600 years old, the flood came upon the earth.

> Again he began to teach beside the sea. (Mark 4:1a ULT) — In chapter 3 Jesus was teaching at someone's house. Readers may need to be told that this new event happened at another time, or that Jesus actually went to the sea.
>
> > Another time Jesus began to teach people again beside the sea.

> > Jesus went to the sea and began to teach people again there.

(3) If the introduction is a summary of the whole event, use your language's way of showing that it is a summary.

> Noah was 600 years old when the flood came upon the earth. (Genesis 7:6 ULT)
>
> > Now this is what happened when Noah was 600 years old and the flood came upon the earth.

> > This part tells about what happened when the flood came upon the earth. It happened when Noah was 600 years old.

(4) If it would be strange in the target language to give a summary of the event at the beginning, show that the event will actually happen later in the story.

> Noah was 600 years old when the flood came upon the earth. Noah, his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives went into the ark together because of the waters of the flood. (Genesis 7:6-7 ULT)
>
> > Now this is what happened when Noah was 600 years old. Noah, his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives went into the ark together because God had said that the waters of the flood would come.

Matthew References:

2:1; 2:13; 2:19; 3:1; 3:7; 3:13; 4:1; 4:12; 4:18; 5:1; 8:1; 8:5; 8:16; 8:18; 9:14; 9:18; 9:32; 9:36; 10:1; 11:2; 12:1; 12:22; 13:1; 13:36; 14:1; 14:13; 15:1; 15:21; 15:29; 16:1; 16:5; 16:13; 17:1; 17:22; 17:24; 18:1; 19:13; 20:17; 20:20; 21:1; 21:18; 22:15; 22:34; 22:41; 26:6; 26:17; 26:26; 27:1; 27:3; 27:57; 27:62; 28:1; 28:11; 28:16

Introduction of New and Old Participants

Description

The first time that people or things are mentioned in a story, they are new participants. After that, whenever they are mentioned, they are old participants.

> Now there was a man from the Pharisees whose name was Nicodemus … This man came to Jesus at night … Jesus replied and said to him … (John 3:1, 2a, 3a)

The first bolded phrase introduces Nicodemus as a new participant. After being introduced, he is then referred to as “This man” and “him” when he has become an old participant.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

In order to make your translation clear and natural, it is necessary to refer to the participants in such a way that people will know if they are new participants or participants that they have already read about. Different languages have different ways of doing this. You must follow the way that your language does this, not the way that the source language does this.

Examples From the Bible

New Participants

Often the most important new participant is introduced with a phrase that says that he existed, such as “There was a man,” as in the example below. The phrase “There was” tells us that this man existed. The word “a” in “a man” tells us that the author is speaking about him for the first time. The rest of the sentence tells where this man was from, who is family was, and what his name was.

> Now there was a man from Zorah, of the families of the Danites, and his name was Manoah. (Judges 13:2a ULT)

A new participant who is not the most important participant is often introduced in relation to the more important person who was already introduced. In the example below, Manoah's wife is simply referred to as "his wife." This phrase shows her relationship to him.

> Now there was one man from Zorah, of the families of the Danites, and his name was Manoah. His wife was barren and she had never given birth. (Judges 13:2 ULT)

Sometimes a new participant is introduced simply by name because the author assumes that the readers know who the person is. In the first verse of 1 Kings, the author assumes that his readers know who King David is, so there is no need to explain who he is.

> Now King David was old, he had advanced in the days, and they covered him with the garments, but it was not warm enough for him. (1 Kings 1:1 ULT)

Old Participants

A person who has already been brought into the story can be referred to with a pronoun after that. In the example below, Manoah is referred to with the pronoun "his," and his wife is referred to with the pronoun "she."

> His wife was barren and she had never given birth. (Judges 13:2 ULT)

Old participants can also be referred to in other ways, depending on what is happening in the story. In the example below, the story is about bearing a son, and Manoah's wife is referred to by the noun phrase "the wife."

> The angel of Yahweh appeared to the wife and he said to her … (Judges 13:3a ULT)

If the old participant has not been mentioned for a while, or if there could be confusion between participants, the author may use the participant's name again. In the example below, Manoah is referred to by his name, which the author has not used since verse 2.

> Then Manoah prayed to Yahweh. (Judges 13:8a ULT)

Some languages place an affix on the verb that tells something about the subject. In some of those languages, people do not always use noun phrases or pronouns for old participants when they are the subject of the sentence. The marker on the verb gives enough information for the listener to understand who the subject is. (See Verbs.)

Translation Strategies

(1) If the participant is new, use one of your language's ways of introducing new participants.
(2) If it is not clear to whom a pronoun refers, use a noun phrase or name.
(3) If an old participant is referred to by name or a noun phrase, and people wonder if this is another new participant, try using a pronoun instead. If a pronoun is not needed because people would understand it clearly from the context, then leave out the pronoun.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the participant is new, use one of your language's ways of introducing new participants.

> Then Joseph, who was called Barnabas by the apostles (which is translated as Son of Encouragement), a Levite from Cyprus by birth … (Acts 4:36-37 ULT) — Starting the sentence with Joseph's name when he has not been introduced yet might be confusing in some languages.
>
> > There was a man from Cyprus who was a Levite. His name was Joseph, and he was given the name Barnabas by the apostles (that is, being interpreted, Son of Encouragement). There was a Levite from Cyprus whose name was Joseph. The apostles gave > > him the name Barnabas, which means Son of encouragement.

(2) If it is not clear who a pronoun refers to, use a noun phrase or name.

> And it happened that when he was praying in a certain place, when he stopped, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray just as John also taught his disciples.” (Luke 11:1 ULT) — Since this is the first verse in a chapter, readers might wonder who “he” refers to.
>
> > It happened when Jesus finished praying in a certain place, that one of his disciples said, “Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples.”

(3) If an old participant is referred to by name or a noun phrase, and people wonder if this is another new participant, try using a pronoun instead. If a pronoun is not needed because people would understand it clearly from the context, then leave out the pronoun.

> Joseph’s master took Joseph and put him in prison, in the place where all the king’s prisoners were put, and Joseph stayed there. (Genesis 39:20) — Since Joseph is the main person in the story, some languages might prefer the pronoun.
>
> > Joseph’s master took him and put him in prison, in the place where all the king’s prisoners were put, and he stayed there in the prison.

Matthew References:

3:1; 4:18; 4:21; 8:2; 9:9; 9:18; 9:20; 12:10; 12:22; 12:43; 13:3; 14:3; 14:6; 15:22; 20:20; 20:30; 21:33; 22:23; 22:35; 26:7; 26:51; 27:32; 27:57

Irony

Description

Irony is a figure of speech in which the sense that the speaker intends to communicate is actually the opposite of the literal meaning of the words. Sometimes a person does this by using someone else's words, but in a way that communicates that he does not agree with them. People do this to emphasize how different something is from what it should be, or how someone else's belief about something is wrong or foolish. It is often humorous.

> Then Jesus answered and said to them, "People who are well do not have need of a physician, but those who have sickness. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." (Luke 5:31-32 ULT)

When Jesus spoke of "the righteous," he was not referring to people who were truly righteous, but to people who wrongly believed that they were righteous. By using irony, Jesus communicated that they were wrong to think that they were better than others and did not need to repent.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

If someone does not realize that a speaker is using irony, he will think that the speaker actually believes what he is saying. He will understand the passage to mean the opposite of what it was intended to mean.

Examples From the Bible

> How well you reject the commandment of God so that you may keep your tradition! (Mark 7:9b ULT)

Here Jesus praises the Pharisees for doing something that is obviously wrong. Through irony, he communicates the opposite of praise: He communicates that the Pharisees, who take great pride in keeping the commandments, are so far from God that they do not even recognize that their traditions are breaking God's commandments. The use of irony makes the Pharisee's sin more obvious and startling.

> "Present your case," says Yahweh; "present your best arguments for your idols," says the King of Jacob. "Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well. Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled." (Isaiah 41:21-22 ULT)

People worshiped idols as if their idols had knowledge or power, and Yahweh was angry at them for doing that. So he used irony and challenged their idols to tell what would happen in the future. He knew that the idols could not do this, but by speaking as if they could, he mocked the idols, making their inability more obvious, and rebuked the people for worshiping them.

> Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?
> Can you find the way back to their houses for them?
> You know, for you were born then,and the number of your days is many! (Job 38:20-21 ULT)

Job thought that he was wise. Yahweh used irony to show Job that he was not so wise. The two phrases in bold above are irony. They emphasize the opposite of what they say, because they are so obviously false. They emphasize that Job could not possibly answer God's questions about the creation of light because Job was not born until many, many years later.

> Already you are satisfied! Already you have become rich! You began to reign apart from us, and I wish you really did reign, so that we also might reign with you. (1 Corinthians 4:8 ULT)

The Corinthians considered themselves to be very wise, self-sufficient, and not in need of any instruction from the Apostle Paul. Paul used irony, speaking as if he agreed with them, to show how proudly they were acting and how far from being wise they really were.

Translation Strategies

If the irony would be understood correctly in your language, translate it as it is stated. If not, here are some other strategies.

(1) Translate the irony in a way that shows that the speaker is saying what someone else believes.
(2) Translate the actual, intended meaning of the statement of irony. (Remember: The true meaning of the irony is not found in the literal words of the speaker, but instead the true meaning is found in the opposite of the literal meaning of the speaker's words.)

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Translate it in a way that shows that the speaker is saying what someone else believes.

> How well you reject the commandment of God so that you may keep your tradition! (Mark 7:9a ULT)
>
> > You think that you are doing well when you reject God's commandment so you may keep your tradition!
> > or:
> > You act like it is good to reject God's commandment so you may keep your tradition!
>
> I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. (Luke 5:32 ULT)

> > I did not come to call people who think that they are righteous to repentance, but to call people who know that they are sinners to repentance.

(2) Translate the actual, intended meaning of the statement of irony.

> How well you reject the commandment of God so that you may keep your tradition! (Mark 7:9a ULT)
>
> > You are doing a terrible thing when you reject the commandment of God so you may keep your tradition!
>
> "Present your case," says Yahweh; "present your best arguments for your idols," says the King of Jacob. "Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well. Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled." (Isaiah 41:21-22 ULT)
>
> > 'Present your case,' says Yahweh; 'present your best arguments for your idols,' says the King of Jacob. Can your idols bring us their own arguments or come forward to declare to us what will happen so we may know these things well? No! We cannot hear them because they cannot speak to tell us their earlier predictive declarations, so we cannot reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled.

> Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?
> Can you find the way back to their houses for them?
> You know, for you were born then,
> and the number of your days is many! (Job 38:20-21 ULT)
>
> > Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work? Can you find the way back to their houses for them? You act like you know how light and darkness were created, as if you were there; as if you are as old as creation, but you are not!

Matthew References:

11:25; 23:32; 26:68; 26:68; 27:intro; 27:29; 27:37; 27:42

Irregular Use of Tenses

Description

Normally, languages indicate when an event happens by marking it as past, present, or future (or some subset of those categories) through using different verb tenses. But sometimes speakers use those verb tenses in other ways to draw special attention to what they are saying. This article will discuss three ways that this happens in the Bible.

Past For Future

In the Bible, sometimes the past tense is used to refer to things that will happen in the future. This is a figure of speech that is used in prophecy to show that the event will certainly happen. It is sometimes called the "predictive past" or "prophetic perfect."

> Therefore my people have gone into captivity for lack of understanding;
> their honored leaders go hungry, and their common people have nothing to drink. (Isaiah 5:13 ULT)

In the example above, the people of Israel had not yet gone into captivity, but God spoke of their going into captivity as if it had already happened because he had decided that they certainly would go into captivity.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue:

Speakers of languages that do not use the past tense in prophecy to refer to future events may think that these are events that have already happened.

Examples From the Bible

> Now Jericho was tightly closed because of the sons of Israel. No one went out and no one came in. Yahweh said to Joshua, "See, I have delivered > Jericho and its king and its powerful soldiers into your hand." (Joshua 6:1-2 ULT)

> For to us a child has been born, to us a son has been given; and the rule will be on his shoulder. (Isaiah 9:6a ULT)

In the examples above, God spoke of things that would happen in the future as if they had already happened.

> But even Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about them, saying, "Look! The Lord came with thousands and thousands of his holy ones." (Jude 1:14 ULT)

Enoch was speaking of something that would happen far in the future, but he used the past tense when he said, "the Lord came."

Present For Past

In the Bible, sometimes the present tense is used to refer to events that happened in the past. This is a figure of speech that makes these events more vivid or prominent for the reader. The effect can be to draw the reader into the story because these events are told as though they are happening now. The reader, however, knows that the events happened in the past. This is sometimes called the "historical present."

> Now the mother-in-law of Simon was lying down, being sick with a fever, and immediately they speak to him concerning her. (Mark 1:30 ULT)

In the example above, Mark had been narrating events that happened in the past, using the past tense. But when he came to the part about the disciples speaking to Jesus about Simon's mother-in-law, he changed from past tense to present tense.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue:

Speakers of languages that do not use the present tense to refer to past events may think that these events are happening now or that the Bible translation makes no sense.

Examples From the Bible

> And Simon and the ones with him searched for him 37 and found him and say to him, “Everyone is seeking you.” 38 And he says to them, “Let us go elsewhere, (Mark 1:36-38 ULT)

As in the above example, the historical present is often used to make direct speech stand out from the narrative.

> And he enters into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbaths, having entered into the synagogue, he began to teach. (Mark 1:21 ULT)

As in the above example, the historical present sometimes serves to set the scene for a new set of events. By using the historical present in this way, the writer draws the reader into the scene, and then relates the events using the past tense.

Present For Future

In the Bible, sometimes the present tense is used for a future event. Usually, this is to communicate that the event will happen very soon. Also, like the predictive past, this can communicate that the event is sure to happen or that the speaker is fully committed to making the event happen. This is sometimes called the “imminent future.”

> And Moses said, “Thus says Yahweh: ‘About the middle of the night I am going out in the midst of Egypt, (Exodus 11:4 ULT)

In the example above, Yahweh uses the present tense for something that he will do soon.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue:

Speakers of languages that do not use the present tense to refer to future events may think that these events are happening at the time of speaking or writing or that the Bible translation is confusing or wrong.

Examples From the Bible

> For behold me, raising up the Chaldeans, that fierce and impetuous nation… (Habakkuk 1:6 ULT)

> Therefore, remember from where you have fallen and repent and do the first works. But if not, I am coming to you and I will remove your lampstand from its place—if you do not repent. (Revelation 2:5 ULT)

In the examples above, God speaks of a future event as though he is doing it in the present. This is a way of emphasizing the certainty of the event.

> Therefore my people have gone into captivity for lack of understanding; their honored leaders go hungry, and their common people have nothing to drink. (Isaiah 5:13 ULT)

In the example above, the present tense continues the sense of the predictive past, communicating future events that are sure to happen.

Translation Strategies

If the tense that is used in the Literal Translation would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

(1) Use the future tense to refer to future events.
(2) Use the past tense to refer to past events.
(3) Use the tense that your language commonly uses to communicate the time of the event.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the future tense to refer to future events.

> For to us a child has been born, to us a son has been given. (Isaiah 9:6a ULT)

> > For to us a child will be born, to us a son will be given.

> Yahweh said to Joshua, “See, I have delivered Jericho and its king and its powerful soldiers into your hand.” (Joshua 6:2 ULT)

> > Yahweh said to Joshua, “See, I will deliver Jericho and its king and its powerful soldiers into your hand.”

> And Moses said, “Thus says Yahweh: ‘About the middle of the night I am going out in the midst of Egypt, (Exodus 11:4 ULT)

> > And Moses said, “Thus says Yahweh: ‘About the middle of the night I will go out in the midst of Egypt,

(2) Use the past tense to refer to past events.

> And Simon and the ones with him searched for him and found him and say to him, “Everyone is seeking you.” And he says to them, “Let us go elsewhere, (Mark 1:36-38 ULT)

> > And Simon and the ones with him searched for him and found him and said to him, “Everyone is seeking you.” And he said to them, “Let us go elsewhere,

> And he enters into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbaths, having entered into the synagogue, he began to teach. (Mark 1:21 ULT)

> > And he entered into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbaths, having entered into the synagogue, he began to teach.

(3) Use the tense that your language commonly uses to communicate the time of the event.

> Yahweh said to Joshua, “See, I have delivered Jericho and its king and its powerful soldiers into your hand.” (Joshua 6:2 ULT)

> > Yahweh said to Joshua, “See, I am delivering Jericho and its king and its powerful soldiers into your hand.” Or: Yahweh said to Joshua, “See, I am about to deliver Jericho and its king and its powerful soldiers into your hand.”

> And Moses said, “Thus says Yahweh: ‘About the middle of the night I am going out in the midst of Egypt, (Exodus 11:4 ULT)

> > And Moses said, “Thus says Yahweh: ‘About the middle of the night I will be going out in the midst of

> Egypt,
> Or: And Moses said, “Thus says Yahweh: ‘About the middle of the night I shall certainly go out in the midst of Egypt,

Matthew References:

1:21; 2:4; 2:13; 2:19; 3:1; 3:10; 3:13; 4:5; 4:6; 4:8; 4:11; 4:16; 4:19; 6:22; 6:23; 7:24; 7:26; 8:4; 8:7; 8:20; 8:22; 8:26; 9:9; 9:14; 9:28; 9:37; 12:13; 12:18; 13:28; 13:44; 13:51; 14:17; 14:31; 15:33; 15:34; 16:15; 17:1; 17:11; 17:20; 17:25; 18:22; 18:32; 19:5; 19:7; 19:8; 19:10; 19:18; 19:20; 19:23; 20:6; 20:7; 20:8; 20:21; 20:22; 20:23; 20:33; 21:13; 21:16; 21:19; 21:31; 21:41; 21:42; 21:45; 22:8; 22:12; 22:16; 22:20; 22:21; 22:42; 22:43; 22:43; 23:2; 23:38; 24:40; 24:41; 24:43; 24:44; 26:2; 26:18; 26:24; 26:25; 26:31; 26:35; 26:36; 26:45; 26:45; 27:63; 28:10; 28:20

Kinship

Description

Kinship terms refer to those words used to describe people related to one another in familial relationships. These terms vary widely in their specificity from language to language. They range from the (Western) nuclear or immediate family (father-son, husband-wife) out to broad clan relationships in other cultures.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Depending on the language translators may need to use specific terms to designate the accurate kinship relationship. In some languages a different term may be used based on siblings' birth order. In others, the side of the family (father's or mother's), age, marital status, etc. may determine the term used. Different terms may be used based on the gender of the speaker and/or addressee. Translators may need to make sure they know the exact relationship between two related people in the Bible to find the correct term. Sometimes these terms are difficult even for native speakers to remember and translators may need to seek community help in finding the correct term. Another complicating issue is that the Bible may not give enough information about the relationship for translators to determine the correct term in the language being translated into. In this case, translators will have to use a more general term or simply pick a satisfactory term based on the limited information available.

Sometimes terms that seem like kinship terms are used for people who are not necessarily related. For instance, an older person may refer to a younger man or woman as "my son" or "my daughter."

Examples from the Bible

> Then Yahweh said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" He said, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?" (Genesis 4:9 ULT)

Abel was Cain's younger brother.

> Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field to his flock and said to them, “I see your father’s attitude toward me has changed, but the God of my father has been with me.” (Genesis 31:4-5 ULT)

Jacob is referring here to his father-in-law. In some languages there may be a specific term for a man’s father-in-law, however, in this case it is better to retain the form your father as Jacob may be using it to distance himself from Laban.

> And Moses was shepherding the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. (Exodus3:1a ULT)

Unlike the previous instance, if your language has a term for a man’s father-in-law this is a good place to use it.

> And his sister stationed herself at a distance to know what would be done to him. (Exodus 2:4 ULT)

From context we know that this was Miriam, Moses’s older sister. In some languages this may require a specific term. In others, the term for older sister may be only used when the younger sibling is addressing and/or referring to his or her sister.

> Then she and her daughters-in-law arose to return from the fields of Moab (Ruth 1:6a ULT)

Ruth & Orpah are Naomi’s daughters-in-law.

> Then she said, “Look, your sister-in-law has turned back to her people and to her gods.” (Ruth 1:15 ULT)

Orpah had been the wife of Ruth's husband's brother. This may be a different term in your language than if she had been Ruth's husband's sister.

> Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Will you not listen to me, my daughter?" (Ruth 2:8a ULT)

Boaz is not Ruth's father; he is simply using the term to address a younger woman.

> And behold, your relative Elizabeth—she also has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren. (Luke 1:36 ULT)

While the KJV translated this as cousin, the term simply means a related woman.

Translation Strategies

(1) Find out the exact relationship specified and translate using the term your language uses.

(2) If the text does not specify the relationship as clearly as your language would, either:

(a) settle on a more general term.

(b) use a specific term if required by your language, choosing the one that is most likely to be correct.

Translation Strategies Applied

This is not an issue in English, so the following illustrations draw on other languages.

In Korean, there are several terms for brother and sister, the use of them depends on the speaker's (or referent's) sex and birth order. Examples are from the Korean Living Bible, found on biblegateway.com

> Genesis 30:1 Rachel is jealous of her "eonni," which is the term a woman uses for her older sister.

> Genesis 34:31 Simeon and Levi refer to Dinah as “nui,” a general term for sister.
>
> Genesis 37:16 Joseph refers to his brothers as “hyeong,” which is the term a man uses for his older brother(s).
>
> Genesis 45:12 Joseph refers to Benjamin as “dongsaeng,” which roughly means sibling, usually younger.

In Russian, in-law terms are complex. For instance, “nevéstka” is the term for a brother’s (or brother-in-law’s) wife; a woman uses the same term for her daughter-in-law but her husband would call the same daughter-in-law “snoxá.” Examples from the Russian Synodal Version.

> Genesis 38:25 Tamar sends a message to her father-in-law, Judah. The term used is “svekor.” This is used for a woman’s husband’s father.
>
> Exodus 3:1 Moses is watching his father-in-law’s herd. The term used is “test’.” This is used for a man’s wife’s father.

Matthew References:

1:2; 1:11; 4:18; 4:21; 8:14; 10:2; 10:2; 12:46; 12:47; 12:48; 12:49; 13:55; 14:3; 14:6; 17:1

Litotes

Description

Litotes is a figure of speech in which the speaker expresses a strong positive meaning by negating a word or phrase that means the opposite of the meaning that he intends. For example, someone could intend to communicate that something is extremely good by describing it as "not bad." The difference between a litotes and a double negative is that a litotes heightens the positive meaning beyond what a plain positive statement would do, and a double negative does not. In the example above, the literal meaning of "not bad," taken as a plain double negative, would be "acceptable" or even "good." But if the speaker intended it as a litotes, then the meaning is "very good" or "extremely good."

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages do not use litotes. People who speak those languages might not understand that a statement using litotes actually strengthens the positive meaning. Instead, they might think that it weakens or even cancels the positive meaning.

Examples From the Bible

> For you yourselves know, brothers, that our coming to you was not useless, (1 Thessalonians 2:1 ULT)

By using litotes, Paul emphasized that his visit with them was very useful.

> Now when it became day, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers over what therefore had happened to Peter. (Acts 12:18 ULT)

By using litotes, Luke emphasized that there was a lot of excitement or anxiety among the soldiers about what happened to Peter. (Peter had been in prison, and even though there were soldiers guarding him, he escaped when an angel let him out. So they were very agitated.)

> But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, > are not the least among the leaders of Judah, > for from you will come a ruler > who will shepherd my people Israel. (Matthew 2:6 ULT)

By using litotes, the prophet emphasized that Bethlehem would be a very important city.

Translation Strategies

If the litotes would be understood correctly, consider using it.

(1) If the meaning with the negative would not be clear, give the positive meaning in a strong way.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the meaning with the negative would not be clear, give the positive meaning in a strong way.

> For you yourselves know, brothers, that our coming to you was not useless. (1 Thessalonians 2:1 ULT)
>
> > "For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you > > did much good."

> Now when it became day, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers over what therefore had happened to Peter. (Acts 12:18 ULT)
>
> > "Now when it became day, there was great > > excitement among the soldiers, regarding what had > > happened to Peter."

> >
> > or:
> > "Now when it became day, the soldiers were very concerned because of what had happened to Peter."

Matthew References:

2:6; 10:42; 11:11

Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit

Description

Some languages have ways of saying things that are natural for them but sound strange when translated into Other Languages. One of the reasons for this is that some languages say things explicitly that some Other Languages would leave as implicit information.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

If you translate all of the explicit information from the source language into the explicit information in the target language, it could sound foreign, unnatural, or perhaps even unintelligent if the target language would not make that information explicit. Instead, it is best to leave that kind of information implicit in the target language.

Examples from the Bible

> And Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it and drew near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire. (Judges 9:52 ESV)

In Biblical Hebrew, it is normal to start most sentences with a conjunction such as “and” to show the connection between sentences. In English, it is not natural to do so, it is quite tiresome for the English reader, and it gives the impression that the author is uneducated. In English, it is best to leave the idea of connection between sentences implicit in most cases and not translate the conjunction explicitly.

In Biblical Hebrew, it is normal to say that something was burned with fire. In English, the idea of fire is included in the action of burning, and so it is unnatural to state both ideas explicitly. It is enough to say that something was burned and leave the idea of fire implicit.

> But the centurion answered and said, “Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof” (Matthew 8:8a ULT)

In the biblical languages, it was normal to introduce direct speech with two verbs of speaking. One verb indicated the action, and the other introduced the words of the speaker. English speakers do not do this, so it is very unnatural and confusing to use two verbs. For the English speaker, the idea of speaking is included in the idea of answering. Using two verbs in English implies two separate speeches, rather than just one. So in English, it is better to use only one verb of speaking.

Translation Strategies

(1) If the explicit information of the source language sounds natural in the target language, then translate it as explicit information.
(2) If the explicit information does not sound natural in the target language or seems unnecessary or confusing, leave the explicit information implicit. Only do this if the reader can understand this information from the context. You can test this by asking the reader a question about the passage.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the explicit information of the source language sounds natural in the target language, then translate it as explicit information.

- There would be no change to the text using this strategy, so no examples are given here.

(2) If the explicit information does not sound natural in the target language or seems unnecessary or confusing, make the explicit information implicit. Only do this if the reader can understand this information from the context. You can test this by asking the reader a question about the passage.

> And Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it and drew near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire. (Judges 9:52 ESV)
>
> > Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it,
> > and he approached the door of the tower to burn it.
> > (Or) … to set it on fire.

In English, it is clear that the action of this verse follows the action of the previous verse without the use of the connector “and” at the beginning, so it was omitted. Also, the words “with fire” were left out, because this information is communicated implicitly by the word “burn.” An alternative translation for “to burn it” is “to set it on fire.” It is not natural in English to use both “burn” and “fire,” so the English translator should choose only one of them. You can test if the readers understood the implicit information by asking, “How would the door burn?” If they knew it was by fire, then they have understood the implicit information. Or, if you chose the second option, you could ask, “What happens to a door that is set on fire?” If the readers answer, “It burns,” then they have understood the implicit information.

> But the centurion answered and said, “Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof” (Matthew 8:8a ULT)
>
> > The centurion answered, “Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof”

In English, the information that the centurion responded by speaking is included in the verb “answered,” so the verb “said” can be left implicit. You can test if the readers understood the implicit information by asking, “How did the centurion answer?” If they knew it was by speaking, then they have understood the implicit information.

> He opened his mouth and taught them, saying, (Matthew 5:2 ULT)
>
> > He began to teach them, saying, (Or) He taught them, saying,

In English, it would be very strange to include the information that Jesus opened his mouth when he spoke. That information is included in the verbs “taught” and “saying,” so that phrase can be omitted and that information left implicit. However, “he opened his mouth” is an idiom that indicates the beginning of a speech, so that information may be included, or it may also be left implicit.

Matthew References:

2:10; 5:2; 8:20; 10:2; 13:15; 13:20; 13:22; 13:23; 13:30; 13:32; 13:38; 13:44; 13:46; 15:11; 18:25; 21:22; 21:25; 21:44; 22:34; 23:3; 24:30; 24:43; 26:23; 26:51; 26:64; 27:9; 28:20

Merism

Definition

Merism is a figure of speech in which a person refers to something by speaking of two extreme parts of it. By referring to the extreme parts, the speaker intends to include also everything in between those parts.

> "I am the alpha and the omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty." (Revelation 1:8 ULT)
>
> I am the alpha and the omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. (Revelation 22:13, ULT)

Alpha and omega are the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. This is a merism that includes everything from the beginning to the end. It means eternal.

> … I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth …, (Matthew 11:25b ULT)

Heaven and earth is a merism that includes everything that exists.

Reason This is a Translation Issue

Some languages do not use merism. The readers of those languages may think that the phrase only applies to the items mentioned. They may not realize that it refers to those two things and everything in between.

Examples From the Bible

> From the rising of the sun to its setting, Yahweh's name should be praised. (Psalm 113:3 ULT)

This bolded phrase is a merism because it speaks of the east and the west and everywhere in between. It means “everywhere.”

> He will bless those who honor him, both young and old. (Psalm 115:13)

The bolded phrase is merism because it speaks of old people and young people and everyone in between. It means “everyone.”

Translation Strategies

If the merism would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

(1) Identify what the merism refers to without mentioning the parts.
(2) Identify what the merism refers to and include the parts.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Identify what the merism refers to without mentioning the parts.

> I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth. (Matthew 11:25b ULT)
>
> > I praise you, Father, Lord of everything.

> From the rising of the sun to its setting, Yahweh’s name should be praised. (Psalm 113:3 ULT)
>
> > In all places, people should praise Yahweh’s name.

(2) Identify what the merism refers to and include the parts.

> I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth. (Matthew 11:25b ULT)
>
> > I praise you, Father, Lord of everything, including both what is in heaven and what is on earth.

> He will bless those who honor him, both young and old. (Psalm 115:13 ULT)
>
> > He will bless all those who honor him, regardless of whether they are young or old.

Matthew References:

5:18; 8:11; 8:20; 11:13; 11:25; 12:40; 22:37; 23:15; 23:35; 24:35; 28:18

Metaphor

Description

A metaphor is a figure of speech in which someone speaks of one thing as if it were a different thing because he wants people to think about how those two things are alike.

For example, someone might say, “The girl I love is a red rose.”

A girl and a rose are very different things, but the speaker considers that they are alike in some way. The hearer’s task is to understand in what way they are alike.

The Parts of a Metaphor

The example above shows us that a metaphor has three parts. In this metaphor, the speaker is talking about “the girl I love.” This is the Topic. The speaker wants the hearer to think about what is similar between her and “a red rose.” The red rose is the Image to which he compares the girl. Most probably, he wants the hearer to consider that they are both beautiful. This is the Idea that the girl and the rose both share, and so we may also call it the Point of Comparison.

Every metaphor has three parts:

- The Topic, the item being immediately discussed by the writer/speaker.
- The Image, the physical item (object, event, action, etc.) which the speaker uses to describe the topic.
- The Idea, the abstract concept or quality that the physical Image brings to the mind of the hearer when he thinks of how the Image and the Topic are similar. Often, the Idea of a metaphor is not explicitly stated in the Bible, but it is only implied from the context. The hearer or reader usually needs to think of the Idea himself.

Using these terms, we can say that a metaphor is a figure of speech that uses a physical Image to apply an abstract Idea to the speaker’s Topic.

Usually, a writer or speaker uses a metaphor in order to express something about a Topic, with at least one Point of Comparison (Idea) between the Topic and the Image. Often in metaphors, the Topic and the Image are explicitly stated, but the Idea is only implied. The writer/speaker often uses a metaphor in order to invite the readers/listeners to think about the similarity between the Topic and the Image and to figure out for themselves the Idea that is being communicated.

Speakers often use metaphors in order to strengthen their message, to make their language more vivid, to express their feelings better, to say something that is hard to say in any other way, or to help people remember their message.

Sometimes speakers use metaphors that are very common in their language. However, sometimes speakers use metaphors that are uncommon, and even some metaphors that are unique. When a metaphor has become very common in a language, often it becomes a "passive" metaphor, in contrast to uncommon metaphors, which we describe as being "active." Passive metaphors and active metaphors each present a different kind of translation problem, which we will discuss below.

Passive Metaphors

A passive metaphor is a metaphor that has been used so much in the language that its speakers no longer regard it as one concept standing for another. Linguists often call these "dead metaphors." Passive metaphors are extremely common. Examples in English include the terms "table leg," "family tree," "book leaf" (meaning a page in a book), or the word "crane" (meaning a large machine for lifting heavy loads). English speakers simply think of these words as having more than one meaning. Examples of passive metaphors in Biblical Hebrew include using the word "hand" to represent "power," using the word "face" to represent "presence," and speaking of emotions or moral qualities as if they were "clothing."

Patterned Pairs of Concepts Acting as Metaphors

Many ways of metaphorical speaking depend on pairs of concepts, where one underlying concept frequently stands for a different underlying concept. For example, in English, the direction "up" (the Image) often represents the concepts of "more" or "better" (the Idea). Because of this pair of underlying concepts, we can make sentences such as "The price of gasoline is going up," "A highly intelligent man," and also the opposite kind of idea: "The temperature is going down," and "I am feeling very low."

Patterned pairs of concepts are constantly used for metaphorical purposes in the world's languages because they serve as convenient ways to organize thought. In general, people like to speak of abstract qualities (such as power, presence, emotions, and moral qualities) as if they were body parts, or as if they were objects that could be seen or held, or as if they were events that could be watched as they happened.

When these metaphors are used in normal ways, it is rare that the speaker and audience regard them as figurative speech. Examples of metaphors in English that go unrecognized are:

- "Turn the heat up." More is spoken of as up.
- "Let us go ahead with our debate." Doing what was planned is spoken of as walking or advancing.
- "You defend your theory well." Argument is spoken of as war.
- "A flow of words." Words are spoken of as liquids.

English speakers do not view these as metaphorical expressions or figures of speech, so it would be wrong to translate them into other languages in a way that would lead people to pay special attention to them as figurative speech. For a description of important patterns of this kind of metaphor in biblical languages, please see Biblical Imagery — Common Patterns and the pages it will direct you to.

When translating something that is a passive metaphor into another language, do not treat it as a metaphor. Instead, just use the best expression for that thing or concept in the target language.

Active Metaphors

These are metaphors that people recognize as one concept standing for another concept, or one thing for another thing. Metaphors make people think about how the one thing is like the other thing, because in most ways the two things are very different. People also easily recognize these metaphors as giving strength and unusual qualities to the message. For this reason, people pay attention to these metaphors. For example,

> But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. (Malachi 4:2a ULT)

Here, God speaks about his salvation as if it were the sun rising in order to shine its rays on the people whom he loves. He also speaks of the sun's rays as if they were wings. Also, he speaks of these wings as if they were bringing medicine that would heal his people. Here is another example:

> And he said to them, “Go and tell that fox …” (Luke 13:32a ULT)

Here, “that fox” refers to King Herod. The people listening to Jesus certainly understood that Jesus was intending for them to apply certain characteristics of a fox to Herod. They probably understood that Jesus intended to communicate that Herod was evil, either in a cunning way or as someone who was destructive, murderous, or who took things that did not belong to him, or all of these.

Active metaphors require the translator’s special care to make a correct translation. To do so, you need to understand the parts of a metaphor and how they work together to produce meaning.

> Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; he who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty.” (John 6:35 ULT)

In this metaphor, Jesus called himself the bread of life. The Topic is “I” (meaning Jesus himself) and the Image is “bread.” Bread was the primary food that people ate in that place and time. The similarity between bread and Jesus is that people need both to live. Just as people need to eat food in order to have physical life, people need to trust in Jesus in order to have eternal life. The Idea of the metaphor is “life.” In this case, Jesus stated the central Idea of the metaphor, but often the Idea is only implied.

Purposes of Metaphor

- One purpose of metaphor is to teach people about something that they do not know (the Topic) by showing that it is like something that they already do know (the Image).
- Another purpose is to emphasize that something (the Topic) has a particular quality (the Idea) or to show that it has that quality in an extreme way.
- Another purpose is to lead people to feel the same way about the Topic as they would feel about the Image.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- People may not recognize that something is a metaphor. In other words, they may mistake a metaphor for a literal statement, and thus, misunderstand it.
- People may not be familiar with the thing that is used as an image, and so, not be able to understand the metaphor.
- If the topic is not stated, people may not know what the topic is.
- People may not know the points of comparison that the speaker wants them to understand. If they fail to think of these points of comparison, they will not understand the metaphor.
- People may think that they understand the metaphor, but they do not. This can happen when they apply points of comparison from their own culture, rather than from the biblical culture.

Translation Principles

- Make the meaning of a metaphor as clear to the target audience as it was to the original audience.
- Do not make the meaning of a metaphor more clear to the target audience than you think it was to the original audience.

Examples From the Bible

> Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, (Amos 4:1q ULT)

In this metaphor Amos speaks to the upper-class women of Samaria (“you,” the Topic) as if they were cows (the Image). Amos does not say what similarity(s) he intends between these women and cows. He wants the reader to think of them, and he fully expects that readers from his culture will easily do so. From the context, we can see that he means that the women are like cows in that they are fat and interested only in feeding themselves. If we were to apply similarities from a different culture, such as that cows are sacred and should be worshiped, we would get the wrong meaning from this verse.

NOTE: Amos does not actually mean that the women are cows. He speaks to them as human beings.

> Yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULT)

The example above has two related metaphors. The Topic(s) are “we” and “you,” and the Image(s) are “clay” and “potter.” The similarity between a potter and God is the fact that both make what they wish out of their material. The potter makes what he wishes out of the clay, and God makes what he wishes out of his people. The Idea being expressed by the comparison between the potter’s clay and “us” is that neither the clay nor God’s people have a right to complain about what they are becoming.

> Jesus said to them, “Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” The disciples reasoned among themselves and said, “It is because we did not take bread.” (Matthew 16:6-7 ULT)

Jesus used a metaphor here, but his disciples did not realize it. When he said “yeast,” they thought he was talking about bread, but “yeast” was the Image in his metaphor, and the Topic was the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. Since the disciples (the original audience) did not understand what Jesus meant, it would not be good to state clearly here what Jesus meant.

Translation Strategies

If people would understand the metaphor in the same way that the original readers would have understood it, go ahead and use it. Be sure to test the translation to make sure that people do understand it in the right way.

If people do not or would not understand it, here are some other strategies.

(1) If the metaphor is a common expression in the source language or expresses a patterned pair of concepts in a biblical language (that is, it is a passive metaphor), then express the Idea in the simplest way preferred by your language.
(2) If the metaphor seems to be an active metaphor, you can translate it literally if you think that the target language also uses this metaphor in the same way to mean the same thing as in the Bible. If you do this, be sure to test it to make sure that the language community understands it correctly.
(3) If the target audience does not realize that it is a metaphor, then change the metaphor to a simile. Some languages do this by adding words such as “like” or “as.” See Simile.
(4) If the target audience would not know the Image, see Translate Unknowns for ideas on how to translate that image.

(5) If the target audience would not use that Image for that meaning, use an image from your own culture instead. Be sure that it is an image that could have been possible in Bible times.
(6) If the target audience would not know what the Topic is, then state the topic clearly. (However, do not do this if the original audience did not know what the Topic was.)
(7) If the target audience would not know the intended similarity (the Idea) between the topic and the image, then state it clearly.
(8) If none of these strategies is satisfactory, then simply state the Idea plainly without using a metaphor.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the metaphor is a common expression in the source language or expresses a patterned pair of concepts in a biblical language (that is, a passive metaphor), then express the Idea in the simplest way preferred by your language.

> Then, see, one of the leaders of the synagogue, named Jairus, came, and when he saw him, fell at his feet. (Mark 5:22 ULT)
>
> > Then one of the leaders of the synagogue, named Jairus, came, and when he saw him, immediately bowed down in front of him.

(2) If the metaphor seems to be an active metaphor, you can translate it literally if you think that the target language also uses this metaphor in the same way to mean the same thing as in the Bible. If you do this, be sure to test it to make sure that the language community understands it correctly.

> But Jesus said to them, “He wrote this commandment to you because of your hardness of heart.” (Mark 10:5 ULT)

> > It was because of your hard hearts that he wrote you this law.

We made no change to this one, but it must be tested to make sure that the target audience correctly understands this metaphor.

(3) If the target audience does not realize that it is a metaphor, then change the metaphor to a simile. Some languages do this by adding words such as “like” or “as.”

> Yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULT)
>
> > And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are like clay. You are like a potter; and we all are the work of your hand.

(4) If the target audience would not know the Image, see Translate Unknowns for ideas on how to translate that image.

> Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against a goad. (Acts 26:14b ULT)
>
> > Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against a pointed stick.

(5) If the target audience would not use that Image for that meaning, use an image from your own culture instead. Be sure that it is an image that could have been possible in Bible times.

> Yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULT)
>
> > "And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the wood. You are our carver; and we all are the work of your hand."
> > "And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the string. You are the weaver; and we all are the work of your hand."

(6) If the target audience would not know what the Topic is, then state the topic clearly. (However, do not do this if the original audience did not know what the topic was.)

> Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted. (Psalm 18:46 ULT)
>
> > Yahweh lives; He is my rock. May he be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted.

(7) If the target audience would not know the intended similarity between the Topic and the Image, then state it clearly.

> Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted. (Psalm 18:46 ULT)

> > Yahweh lives; may he be praised because he is the > > rock under which I can hide from my enemies.
> > May the God of my salvation be exalted.
>
> Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against a goad. (Acts 26:14 ULT)
>
> > Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? You fight against me and hurt yourself like an ox that kicks against its owner's pointed stick.

(8) If none of these strategies are satisfactory, then simply state the idea plainly without using a metaphor.

> I will make you to become fishers of men. (Mark 1:17b ULT)
>
> > I will make you to become people who gather men.
> > Now you gather fish. I will make you gather people.

To learn more about specific metaphors, see Biblical Imagery — Common Patterns.

Matthew References:

1:1; 1:20; 1:20; 1:23; 2:1; 2:6; 2:9; 2:13; 2:18; 2:19; 3:3; 3:7; 3:8; 3:9; 3:9; 3:10; 3:11; 3:11; 3:16; 3:17; 4:11; 4:16; 4:19; 5:intro; 5:3; 5:5; 5:6; 5:9; 5:14; 5:14; 5:16; 5:16; 5:22; 5:22; 5:23; 5:24; 5:29; 5:29; 5:30; 5:30; 5:34; 5:35; 5:42; 5:43; 5:45; 5:47; 5:48; 6:1; 6:2; 6:4; 6:6; 6:8; 6:9; 6:12; 6:13; 6:14; 6:15; 6:18; 6:21; 6:26; 6:27; 6:30; 6:32; 7:intro; 7:3; 7:4; 7:4; 7:5; 7:6; 7:7; 7:8; 7:11; 7:15; 8:2; 8:9; 8:11; 8:12; 8:24; 8:29; 8:32; 8:34; 9:2; 9:2; 9:3; 9:4; 9:10; 9:18; 9:20; 9:22; 9:27; 9:32; 10:6; 10:6; 10:13; 10:16; 10:24; 10:25; 10:27; 10:27; 10:28; 10:29; 10:38; 10:39; 10:39; 10:40; 10:40; 10:42; 11:6; 11:7; 11:8; 11:10; 11:10; 11:19; 11:23; 11:23;

11:25; 11:28; 11:29; 12:intro; 12:2; 12:18; 12:18; 12:20; 12:20; 12:23; 12:25; 12:26; 12:27; 12:27; 12:28; 12:34; 12:34; 12:35; 12:39; 12:41; 12:42; 12:46; 12:47; 12:49; 12:50; 13:3; 13:15; 13:15; 13:15; 13:19; 13:19; 13:20; 13:21; 13:21; 13:22; 13:23; 13:24; 13:31; 13:37; 13:38; 13:38; 13:38; 13:39; 13:39; 13:39; 13:41; 13:42; 13:43; 13:43; 13:57; 15:6; 15:8; 15:12; 15:13; 15:14; 15:22; 15:22; 15:24; 15:24; 16:intro; 16:3; 16:6; 16:11; 16:18; 16:18; 16:18; 16:19; 16:19; 16:19; 16:23; 16:23; 16:23; 16:24; 16:25; 16:25; 16:27; 16:28; 17:3; 17:5; 17:27; 18:3; 18:5; 18:6; 18:7; 18:8; 18:8; 18:8; 18:9; 18:9; 18:9; 18:11; 18:14; 18:15; 18:15; 18:18; 18:20; 18:21; 18:35; 19:5; 19:6; 19:12; 19:16; 19:17; 19:27; 19:29; 19:30; 20:intro; 20:12; 20:18; 20:22; 20:23; 20:27; 20:28; 20:30; 20:31; 21:intro; 21:5; 21:5; 21:9; 21:10; 21:13; 21:13; 21:15; 21:32; 21:34; 21:42; 21:43; 21:43; 21:44; 22:4; 22:13; 22:15; 22:16; 22:24; 22:25; 22:29; 22:40; 22:42; 22:45; 23:2; 23:4; 23:6; 23:8; 23:9; 23:13; 23:14; 23:15; 23:16; 23:17; 23:19; 23:23; 23:24; 23:24; 23:25; 23:26; 23:26; 23:30; 23:31; 23:32; 23:32; 23:33; 23:33; 23:34; 23:35; 23:36; 23:38; 23:38; 24:4; 24:5; 24:8; 24:9; 24:10; 24:10; 24:11; 24:12; 24:14; 24:23; 24:24; 24:25; 24:26; 24:31; 24:51; 25:6; 25:20; 25:21; 25:22; 25:24; 25:25; 25:26; 25:30; 25:33; 25:34; 25:40; 25:40; 25:41; 25:45; 25:46; 26:intro; 26:26; 26:28; 26:29; 26:31; 26:31; 26:33; 26:39; 26:41; 26:42; 26:45; 26:46; 26:47; 26:51; 26:65; 27:9; 27:25; 27:51; 28:2; 28:7; 28:9; 28:10; 28:11; 28:20

Metonymy

Description

Metonymy is a figure of speech in which an item (either physical or abstract) is called not by its own name, but by the name of something closely associated with it. A metonym is a word or phrase used as a substitute for something that it is associated with.

> … and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from every sin. (1 John 1:7b ULT)

The blood represents Christ's death.

> And he took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you." (Luke 22:20 ULT)

The cup represents the wine that is in the cup.

Metonymy can be used

- as a shorter way of referring to something
- to make an abstract idea more meaningful by referring to it with the name of a physical object associated with it

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

The Bible uses metonymy very often. Speakers of some languages are not familiar with metonymy and they may not recognize it when they read it in the Bible. If they do not recognize the metonymy, they will not understand the passage or, worse yet, they will get a wrong understanding of the passage. Whenever a metonym is used, people need to be able to understand what it represents.

Examples From the Bible

> The Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David. (Luke 1:32b ULT)

A throne represents the authority of a king. “Throne” is a metonym for “kingly authority,” “kingship,” or “reign.” This means that God would make him become a king who would follow King David.

> Then immediately his mouth was opened (Luke 1:64a ULT)

The mouth here represents the power to speak. This means that he was able to talk again.

> Who warned you to flee from the wrath that is coming? (Luke 3:7b ULT)

The word “wrath” or “anger” is a metonym for “punishment.” God was extremely angry with the people and, as a result, he would punish them.

Translation Strategies

If people would easily understand the metonym, consider using it. Otherwise, here are some options.

(1) Use the metonym along with the name of the thing it represents.

(2) Use only the name of the thing the metonym represents.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the metonym along with the name of the thing it represents.

> And he took the cup in the same way after the supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you." (Luke 22:20 ULT)
>
> > He took the cup in the same way after supper, saying,
> > "The wine in this cup is the new covenant in my > > blood, which is poured out for you."

This verse also contains a second metonym: The cup, (representing the wine it contains) also represents the new covenant made with the blood Christ shed for us.

(2) Use the name of the thing the metonym represents.

> The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David. (Luke 1:32b ULT)
>
> > "The Lord God will give him the kingly authority of > > his father, David."
> > or:
> > "The Lord God will make him king like his ancestor, > > King David."
>
> Who warned you to flee from the wrath that is coming? (Luke 3:7b ULT)
>
> > "Who warned you to flee from God's coming > > punishment?"

To learn about some common metonymies, see Biblical Imagery — Common Metonymies 🔗.

Matthew References:

1:1; 2:3; 2:11; 2:16; 3:5; 4:4; 4:4; 4:15; 4:23; 5:13; 5:14; 5:17; 5:28; 5:37; 5:45; 6:1; 6:9; 6:21; 6:26; 7:12; 7:22; 8:10; 8:16; 8:34; 9:4; 9:26; 9:35; 10:1; 10:7; 10:9; 10:10; 10:12; 10:13; 10:15; 10:22; 10:34; 10:34; 11:15; 11:16; 11:17; 11:20; 11:21; 11:22; 11:23; 11:24; 12:19; 12:21; 12:24; 12:25; 12:26; 12:32; 12:34; 12:35; 12:41; 12:42; 12:43; 12:43; 12:45; 13:9; 13:15; 13:19; 13:19; 13:20; 13:21; 13:22; 13:23; 13:43; 13:52; 13:57; 14:30; 15:6; 15:8; 15:8; 15:12; 15:18; 15:19; 15:23; 15:31; 17:5; 17:17; 17:22; 18:5; 18:7; 18:16; 18:16; 18:20; 19:1; 19:11; 19:22; 19:29; 20:21; 20:22; 20:23; 20:23; 21:9; 21:10; 21:16; 21:24; 21:25; 21:42; 22:10; 22:15; 22:17; 22:21; 22:37; 22:37; 22:40; 22:44; 22:46; 23:5; 23:14; 23:30; 23:35; 23:35; 23:36; 24:5; 24:7; 24:9; 24:14; 24:31; 24:34; 24:35; 24:48; 25:1; 25:10; 25:31; 25:32; 26:1; 26:17; 26:18; 26:18; 26:19; 26:27; 26:41; 26:41; 26:44; 26:45; 26:57; 26:64; 26:75; 27:4; 27:6; 27:14; 27:24; 27:25; 27:37; 28:15; 28:19; 28:19

Nominal Adjectives

Description

In some languages an adjective can be used to refer to a class of things that the adjective describes. When it does, it acts like a noun. For example, the word “rich” is an adjective. Here are two sentences that show that “rich” is an adjective.

> The rich man had huge numbers of flocks and herds. (2 Samuel 12:2 ULT)

The adjective “rich” comes before the word “man” and describes “man.”

> He will not be rich; his wealth will not last. (Job 15:29a ULT)

The adjective “rich” comes after the verb “be” and describes “He.”

Here is a sentence that shows that “rich” can also function as a noun.

> The rich must not give more than the half shekel, and the poor must not give less. (Exodus 30:15b ULT)

In Exodus 30:15, the word “rich” acts as a noun in the phrase “the rich,” and it refers to rich people. The word “poor” also acts as a noun and refers to poor people.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- Many times in the Bible adjectives are used as nouns to describe a group of people.
- Some languages do not use adjectives in this way.
- Readers of these languages may think that the text is talking about one particular person when it is really talking about the group of people whom the adjective describes.

Examples From the Bible

> The scepter of wickedness must not rule in the land of the righteous. (Psalms 125:3a ULT)

"The righteous" here are people who are righteous, not one particular righteous person.

> Blessed are the meek. (Matthew 5:5a ULT)

"The meek" here are all people who are meek, not one particular meek person.

Translation Strategies

If your language uses adjectives as nouns to refer to a class of people, consider using the adjectives in this way. If it would sound strange, or if the meaning would be unclear or wrong, here is another option:

(1) Use the adjective with a plural form of the noun that the adjective describes.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the adjective with a plural form of the noun that the adjective describes.

> The scepter of wickedness must not rule in the land of the righteous. (Psalms 125:3a ULT)
>
> > The scepter of wickedness must not rule in the land of righteous people.

> Blessed are the meek. (Matthew 5:5a ULT)

> Blessed are people who are meek.

Matthew References:

4:24; 5:3; 5:5; 5:7; 5:8; 5:45; 6:24; 7:6; 7:13; 7:14; 7:22; 8:11; 8:16; 8:22; 9:4; 9:13; 10:5; 10:8; 10:22; 10:23; 11:5; 11:11; 11:25; 12:7; 12:13; 12:15; 13:4; 13:5; 13:7; 13:8; 13:11; 13:43; 13:49; 13:52; 14:2; 14:14; 15:30; 15:31; 16:9; 16:10; 16:14; 17:9; 18:4; 18:12; 18:13; 18:20; 19:5; 19:9; 19:11; 19:16; 19:21; 19:30; 20:8; 20:10; 20:14; 20:24; 20:28; 21:8; 21:9; 21:14; 21:16; 21:28; 21:30; 21:31; 21:31; 21:36; 22:6; 22:10; 22:14; 22:25; 22:26; 22:27; 22:28; 22:31; 22:32; 22:39; 23:8; 23:9; 23:10; 23:11; 23:17; 23:19; 23:27; 23:29; 24:5; 24:10; 24:11; 24:12; 24:22; 24:24; 24:31; 24:40; 24:41; 25:3; 25:4; 25:8; 25:9; 25:10; 25:18; 25:33; 25:34; 25:37; 25:41; 26:9; 26:11; 26:14; 26:17; 26:20; 26:28; 26:47; 26:60; 26:70; 26:71; 27:21; 27:23; 27:38; 27:42; 27:49; 27:53; 28:1; 28:4; 28:7

Numbers

Description

There are many numbers in the Bible. They can be written as words (“five”) or as numerals (“5”). Some numbers are very large, such as “two hundred” (200), “twenty-two thousand” (22,000), or “one hundred million” (100,000,000). Some languages do not have words for all of these numbers. Translators need to decide how to translate numbers and whether to write them as words or numerals.

Some numbers are exact and others are rounded.

> Abram was 86 years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Genesis 16:16 ULT)

Eighty-six (86) is an exact number.

> That day about 3,000 of the people died. (Exodus 32:28b ULT)

Here the number three thousand (3,000) is a round number. It may have been a little more than that or a little less than that. The word “about” shows that it is not an exact number.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages do not have words for some of these numbers.

Translation Principles

- Exact numbers should be translated as closely and specifically as they can be.
- Rounded numbers can be translated more generally.

Examples From the Bible

> When Jared had lived 162 years, he became the father of Enoch. After he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived 800 years. He became the father of more sons and daughters. Jared lived 962 years, and then he died. (Genesis 5:18-20 ULT)

The numbers 162, 800, and 962 are exact numbers and should be translated with something as close to those numbers as possible.

> Our sister, may you be the mother of thousands of ten thousands. (Genesis 24:60b ULT)

This is a rounded number. It does not say exactly how many descendants she should have, but it was a huge number of them.

Translation Strategies

(1) Write numbers using numerals.
(2) Write numbers using your language's words or the Gateway Language words for those numbers.
(3) Write numbers using words, and put the numerals in parentheses after them.
(4) Combine words for large numbers.
(5) Use a very general expression for very large rounded numbers and write the numeral in parentheses afterward.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

We will use the following verse in our examples:

> Now, see, at great effort I have prepared for Yahweh's house 100,000 talents of gold, 1,000,000 talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities. (1 Chronicles 22:14a ULT)

(1) Write numbers using numerals.

> I have prepared for Yahweh's house 100,000 talents of gold, 1,000,000 talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(2) Write numbers using your language's words or the Gateway Language words for those numbers.

> I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(3) Write numbers using words, and put the numerals in parenthesis after them.

> I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand (100,000) talents of gold, one million (1,000,000) talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(4) Combine words for large numbers.

> > I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand talents of gold, a thousand thousand talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(5) Use a very general expression for very large rounded numbers and write the numeral in parentheses afterward.

> I have prepared for Yahweh's house a great amount of gold (100,000 talents), ten times that amount of silver (1,000,000 talents), and bronze and iron in large quantities.

Consistency

Be consistent in your translations. Decide how the numbers will be translated, using numbers or numerals. There are different ways of being consistent.

- Use words to represent numbers all of the time. (You might have very long words.)
- Use numerals to represent numbers all of the time.
- Use words to represent the numbers that your language has words for and use numerals for the numbers that your language does not have words for.
- Use words for low numbers and numerals for high numbers.
- Use words for numbers that require few words and numerals for numbers that require more than a few words.
- Use words to represent numbers, and write the numerals in parentheses after them.

Consistency in the ULT and UST

The unfoldingWord® Literal Text (ULT) and the unfoldingWord® Simplified Text (UST) use words for the numbers one through ten and use numerals for all numbers above ten.

> When Adam had lived 130 years, he became the father of a son in his own likeness, after his image, and he called his name Seth. After Adam became the father of Seth, he lived 800 years. He became the father of more sons and daughters. Adam lived 930 years, and then he died. (Genesis 5:3-5 ULT)

Matthew References:

19:29

Oath Formulas

An oath is a solemn promise that someone makes to another person to do something or to solemnly testify that something is true. The oath includes the idea that a bad thing will happen if the person making the oath does not do the thing promised or if what the person says is not true.

Description

There are two types of oath in the Bible. We can call the first type a “Promise” oath, and the second type a “Truth” oath.

Promise Oath

In this type of oath, the person saying it is promising to do something. As a guarantee that the person taking the oath will do what he promises, the person calls on God to witness the oath and to punish him severely if he does not do the thing promised. A complete Promise oath has four parts, but some of them are often left unspoken and only implied:

1. Calling on God to witness the oath and judge the person making it
2. Making the promise (may be implied as the opposite of the violation)
3. Telling what would be a violation of the oath (may be implied as the opposite of the promise)
4. Saying what punishment God would do if the person violates the oath (often implied)

Truth Oath

In this type of oath, the person saying it is affirming that what he is saying is true, and he guarantees that it is true by naming the life of God. Sometimes the person will not name God directly but will instead name something holy that is associated with God, such as the temple. In some situations, a person might name a revered person, such as a king. The implication is that if the person’s statement proves to be false, that person will lose any relationship to God or to the revered person. These oaths have three parts, but the third part is implied and not stated:

1. Naming something holy, usually the life of God or of someone who is revered.
2. Making the statement.
3. Implied: The speaker and hearers of the oath understand that the speaker forfeits his relationship to God or to the revered person if his statement is false.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue:

People in some cultures may not be familiar with the practice of taking oaths, and so they may not understand what the people in the Bible are doing. In many languages, people would not take an oath the way that people did in the Bible, and so they might not recognize that the person is taking an oath. In the Old Testament, people often did not speak one or more parts of the oath, leaving those parts implied. The part that was most often left unspoken was the part that would tell what would happen if they break the oath. People believed that spoken words have power, and that speaking the part about punishment might cause the punishment to happen, so they often left that part to be understood silently. Because of these things, people might think that the person in the Bible is not making a real oath or they may not understand what the verse is talking about at all.

Examples From the Bible

Promise Oath

> “I raise my hand to Yahweh, God Most High, the possessor of heaven and earth, if from a thread even to the strap of a sandal, or if I take from anything that {belongs} to you, so that you will not say, ‘I made Abram rich.’ (Genesis 14:22-23 ULT)

In the verse above, Abram describes a symbolic action (raising his hand to Yahweh) to signal that he is taking an oath and calling on Yahweh as witness and judge. He says what would violate his oath (thus promising to do the opposite). Then he leaves out the part that would describe how Yahweh would punish him if he fails to do what he is promising.

> May Yahweh do thus to me, and thus may he add, if death separates between me and between you. (Ruth 1:17 ULT)

Ruth calls on Yahweh and includes the part about Yahweh punishing her, says what the violation would be (thus promising to do the opposite), but does not say what the punishment would be.

> And Saul said, “Thus may God do and thus may he add, for dying you will die, Jonathan.” (1 Samuel 14:44 ULT)

Saul takes an oath that Jonathan will die, but does not specifically say whom God would punish, what the punishment would be, or what the person would do that would violate the oath and bring about God’s punishment.

Truth Oath

> But indeed, the life of Yahweh and the life of yourself, that between me and between death is like a step!” (1 Samuel 20:3)

Here David uses a truth oath to convince Jonathan that Saul does indeed want to kill David. David says this because Jonathan had been trying to assure David that he had nothing to fear from Saul. But Jonathan knows that David holds both Yahweh’s and Jonathan’s life as sacred, and so this oath convinces Jonathan that David truly believes what he is saying.

> The life of your soul, my lord, I {am} the woman having stationed herself with you in this {place} to pray to Yahweh. (1 Samuel 1:26 ULT)

Hannah is speaking to the priest Eli. She demonstrates that she holds the priest’s life as sacred by swearing by it that what she is saying is true.

And Elijah said, “The life of Yahweh of armies, before whom I stand, that I will appear before him today.” (1 Kings 18:15 ULT)

Elijah uses this oath to convince Obadiah to announce his arrival to Ahab. Obadiah knows that Elijah would never break his relationship to Yahweh.

Combination oath

> The life of Pharaoh, if you leave from this {place} without your youngest brother coming here. (Genesis 42:15)

Joseph is speaking to his brothers as an Egyptian official, and so he swears by the life of Pharaoh rather than by the life of the God of the Hebrews. Joseph combines the two types of oaths here by using a conditional "if" statement (part 3 of the "Promise" oath). He leaves unstated the "then" part of the oath which would be either a punishment from Pharoah (as with a Promise oath) or a breaking of relationship with Pharaoh (as with a "Truth" oath) if this conditional statement proves true.

Translation Strategies

If people who speak your language would recognize the oath as it is in the ULT, consider translating it in its current form. If not, consider using the following strategies.

(1) Add in the missing parts so that people recognize it as an oath.
(2) If oaths are unfamiliar, add a short explanation of what an oath is.
(3) Put the oath into a form that would be natural in your language.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Add in the missing parts so that people recognize it as an oath.

> "I raise my hand to Yahweh, God Most High, the possessor of heaven and earth, if from a thread even to the strap of a sandal, or if I take from anything that {belongs} to you, so that you will not say, 'I made Abram rich.' (Genesis 14:22-23 ULT)

"I raise my hand to Yahweh, God Most High, the possessor of heaven and earth, and ask him to punish me severely if from a thread even to the strap of a sandal, or if I take from anything that {belongs} to you, so that you will not say, 'I made Abram rich.'

> And Saul said, “Thus may God do and thus may he add, for dying you will die, Jonathan.” (1 Samuel 14:44 ULT)

And Saul said, “May God punish me severely and may he add even more punishment if I do not kill you, for dying you will die, Jonathan.”

> But indeed, the life of Yahweh and the life of yourself, that between me and between death is like a step! (1 Samuel 20:3)

But indeed, I swear by Yahweh’s life and by the life of yourself that it is true that between me and death is like a step!

> The life of Pharaoh, if you leave from this {place} without your youngest brother coming here. (Genesis 42:15)

I swear by the life of Pharaoh, if you leave from this {place} without your youngest brother coming here, may Pharaoh punish me severely.

(2) If oaths are unfamiliar, add a short explanation of what an oath is.

> May Yahweh do thus to me, and thus may he add, if death separates between me and between you. (Ruth 1:17 ULT)

Then Ruth called on Yahweh to enforce her promise: “May Yahweh do thus to me, and thus may he add, if death separates between me and between you.”

> But indeed, the life of Yahweh and the life of yourself, that between me and between death is like a step! (1 Samuel 20:3)

Then David made a statement to Jonathan to convince him that he truly believed that he was in danger: "But indeed, I forfeit my relationship to Yahweh and to you yourself if it is not true that between me and death is like a step!"

(3) Put the oath into a form that would be natural in your language.

> "I raise my hand to Yahweh, God Most High, the possessor of heaven and earth, if from a thread even to the strap of a sandal, or if I take from anything that {belongs} to you, so that you will not say, 'I made Abram rich.' (Genesis 14:22-23 ULT)

"I solemnly swear before Yahweh, God Most High, the possessor of heaven and earth, that I will not take from a thread even to the strap of a sandal, or from anything that {belongs} to you, so help me God, so that you will not say, 'I made Abram rich.'

> May Yahweh do thus to me, and thus may he add, if death separates between me and between you. (Ruth 1:17 ULT)

May Yahweh strike me dead right where I stand if death separates between me and between you.

> But indeed, the life of Yahweh and the life of yourself, that between me and between death is like a step! (1 Samuel 20:3)

But indeed, before Yahweh and before you yourself, I swear that between me and death is like a step!

Matthew References:

26:63

Order of Events

Description

In the Bible, events are not always told in the order in which they occurred. Sometimes the author wanted to discuss something that happened at an earlier time than the event that he just talked about. This can be confusing to the reader.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Readers might think that the events happened in the order that they are told. It is important to help them understand the correct order of events.

Examples From the Bible

> He even added this to them all: he locked John up in prison. Now it came about, when all the people were baptized, Jesus also was baptized. (Luke 3:20-21 ULT)

This could sound like John baptized Jesus after John was locked up in prison, but John baptized Jesus before John was locked up in prison.

> Just as Joshua had said to the people, the seven priests carrying seven trumpets of rams' horns before Yahweh went forward and blew the trumpets, and the ark of the covenant of Yahweh followed after them. But Joshua commanded the people, saying, "Do not shout nor let your voice be heard, nor let any word leave your mouth until the day I tell you to shout. Then you must shout." (Joshua 6:8,10 ULT)

This could sound like Joshua gave the order not to shout after the army had already started their march, but he had given that order before they started marching.

> Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals? (Revelation 5:2b ULT)

This sounds like a person must first open the scroll and then break its seals, but the seals that lock the scroll must be broken before the scroll can be unrolled.

Translation Strategies

(1) If your language uses phrases or time words to show that an event happened before one that was already mentioned, consider using one of them.
(2) If your language uses verb tense or aspect to show that an event happened before one that was already mentioned, consider using that. (See the section on "Aspect" of Verbs.)
(3) If your language prefers to tell events in the order that they occurred, consider reordering the events so they they are in that order. This may require putting two or more verses together (like 5-6). (See Verse Bridges.)

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If your language uses phrases, time words or tenses to show that an event happened before the one just mentioned, consider using one of them.

> 20 he even added this to them all: he locked John up in prison. Now it came about, when all the people were baptized, Jesus also was baptized. (Luke 3:20-21 ULT)
>
> > 20 But then Herod … had John locked up in prison.
> > 21 Before John was put in prison, while all the people were being baptized by John, Jesus also was baptized.
>
> Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals? (Revelation 5:2b ULT)

> > Who is worthy to open the scroll after breaking its seals?

(2) If your language uses verb tense or aspect to show that an event happened before one that was already mentioned, consider using that.

> Just as Joshua had said to the people, the seven priests carrying seven trumpets of rams' horns before Yahweh went forward and blew the trumpets, But Joshua commanded the people, saying, "Do not shout nor let your voice be heard, nor let any word leave your mouth until the day I tell you to shout. Then you must shout." (Joshua 6:8,10 ULT)
>
> > 8 Just as Joshua had said to the people, the seven priests carried the seven trumpets of rams' horns before Yahweh, as they advanced, they gave a blast on the trumpets 10 But Joshua had commanded the people, saying, "Do not shout. No sound must leave your mouths until the day I tell you to shout. Only then must you shout."

(3) If your language prefers to tell events in the order that they occur, consider reordering the events. This may require putting two or more verses together (like 5-6).

> 8 Just as Joshua had said to the people, the seven priests carrying seven trumpets of rams' horns before Yahweh went forward and blew the trumpets, But Joshua commanded the people, saying, "Do not shout nor let your voice be heard, nor let any word leave your mouth until the day I tell you to shout. Then you must shout." (Joshua 6:8,10 ULT)

> > 8,10 Joshua commanded the people, saying, “Do not shout. No sound must leave your mouths until the day I tell you to shout. Only then must you shout.” Then just as Joshua had said to the people, the seven priests carried the seven trumpets of rams horns before Yahweh, as they advanced, they gave a blast on the trumpets…
>
> Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals? (Revelation 5:2b ULT)
>
> > Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?

You may also want to watch the video at https://ufw.io/figs_events.

Matthew References:

10:5

Ordinal Numbers

Description

Ordinal numbers are used in the Bible mainly to tell the position of something in a list.

> And God has indeed appointed some in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles. (1 Corinthians 12:28a ULT)

This is a list of workers that God gave to the church in their order.

Ordinal Numbers in English

Most ordinal numbers in English simply have "-th" added to the end.

Numeral	Number	Ordinal Number
4	four	fourth
10	ten	tenth
100	one hundred	one hundredth
1,000	one thousand	one thousandth

Some ordinal numbers in English do not follow that pattern.

Numeral	Number	Ordinal Number
1	one	first
2	two	second
3	three	third
5	five	fifth
12	twelve	twelfth

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages do not have special numbers for showing the order of items in a list. There are different ways to deal with this.

Examples From the Bible

> The first lot went to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim … the twenty-third to Delaiah, and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah. (1 Chronicles 24:7-18 ULT)

The people cast lots and one went to each of these people in the order given.

> You must place in it four rows of precious stones. The first row must have a ruby, a topaz, and a garnet. The second row must have an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. The third row must have a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. The fourth row must have a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper. They must be mounted in gold settings. (Exodus 28:17-20 ULT)

This describes four rows of stones. The first row is probably the top row, and the fourth row is probably the bottom row.

Translation Strategies

If your language has ordinal numbers and using them would give the right meaning, consider using them. If not, here are some strategies to consider:

(1) Use “one” with the first item and “another” or “the next” with the rest.
(2) Tell the total number of items and then list them or the things associated with them.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Tell the total number of items, and use “one” with the first item and “another” or “the next” with the rest.

The first lot went to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim … the twenty-third to Delaiah, and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah. (1 Chronicles 24:7-18 ULT)

> There were 24 lots. One lot went to Jehoiarib, another to Jedaiah, another to Harim … another to Delaiah, and the last went to Maaziah.
>
> There were 24 lots. One lot went to Jehoiarib, the next to Jedaiah, the next to Harim … the next to Delaiah, and the last went to Maaziah.

A river went out of Eden to water the garden. From there it divided and became four rivers. The name of the first is Pishon. It is the one which flows throughout the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold. The gold of that land is good. There is also bdellium and the onyx stone there. The name of the second river is Gihon. This one flows throughout the whole land of Cush. The name of the third river is Tigris, which flows east of Asshur. The fourth river is the Euphrates. (Genesis 2:10-14 ULT)

> A river went out of Eden to water the garden. From there it divided and became four rivers. The name of one is Pishon. It is the one which flows throughout the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold. The gold of that land is good. There is also bdellium and the onyx stone there. The name of the next river is Gihon. This one flows throughout the whole land of > > Cush. The name of the next river is Tigris, which flows east of Asshur. The last river is the Euphrates.

(2) Tell the total number of items and then list them or the things associated with them.

> The first lot went to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim … the twenty-third to Delaiah, and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah. (1 Chronicles 24:7-18 ULT)
>
> > They cast 24 lots. The lots went to Jerhoiarib, Jedaiah, Harim, Seorim … Delaiah, and Maaziah.

Matthew References:

10:2; 16:21; 17:23; 20:3; 20:5; 20:6; 20:9; 20:19; 21:28; 21:31; 21:36; 22:25; 22:26; 22:38; 22:39; 23:6; 26:17; 26:42; 26:44; 27:45; 27:46; 27:64; 27:64; 28:1

Parables

A parable is a short story that teaches something(s) that is true, and delivers the lesson in a way that is easy to understand and hard to forget.

Description

A parable is a short story that is told to teach something that is true. The events in a parable are usually things that could or often do happen, but they are not specific events that actually did happen. They are told only to teach the lesson that the listener is meant to learn. Parables rarely contain the names of specific people. (This may help you to identify what is a parable and what is an account of a real event.) Parables often use figures of speech such as simile and metaphor. Sometimes the person telling the parable explains the lesson afterward, but often the person does not.

> Then he also told them a parable. “A blind man is not able to guide a blind man, is he? Would not both fall into a pit?” (Luke 6:39 ULT)

This parable teaches that if a person does not have spiritual understanding, he cannot help someone else to understand spiritual things.

Examples From the Bible

> Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a basket but, rather, on the lampstand, and it shines for everyone in the house. Let your light shine before people in such a way that they see your good deeds and praise your Father who is in heaven. (Matthew 5:15-16 ULT)

This parable teaches us not to hide the way we live for God from other people.

> Then Jesus presented another parable to them. He said, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field.

> This seed is indeed the smallest of all other seeds. But when it has grown, it is greater than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches." (Matthew 13:31-32 ULT)

This parable teaches that the kingdom of God may seem small at first, but it will grow and spread throughout the world.

Translation Strategies

(1) If a parable is hard to understand because it has unknown objects in it, you can replace the unknown objects with objects that people in your culture know. However, be careful to keep the lesson the same.
(2) If the teaching of the parable is unclear, consider telling a little about what it teaches in the introduction, such as "Jesus told this story about being generous."

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If a parable is hard to understand because it has unknown objects in it, you can replace the unknown objects with objects that people in your culture know. However, be careful to keep the lesson the same.

> Jesus also said to them, "The lamp is not brought in order to put it under a basket, or under the bed, is it? Is it not so that it might be put on the lampstand?" (Mark 4:21 ULT)

If people do not know what a lampstand is, you could substitute something else that people put a light on so it can give light to the house.

> > Jesus also said to them, "The lamp is not brought in order to put it under a basket, or under the bed, is it? Is it not so that it might be put on a high shelf?"

> Then Jesus presented another parable to them. He said, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field. It is indeed the smallest of all the seeds. But when it has grown, it is greater than the garden plants. It becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches.” (Matthew 13:31-32 ULT)

To sow seeds means to toss them so that they scatter on the ground. If people are not familiar with sowing, you can substitute planting.

> > Then Jesus presented another parable to them. He said, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and planted in his field. This seed is indeed the smallest of all the seeds. But when it has grown, it is greater than the garden plants. It becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches.”

(2) If the teaching of the parable is unclear, consider telling a little about what it teaches in the introduction, such as “Jesus told this story about being generous.”

> Jesus also said to them, “The lamp is not brought in order to put it under a basket, or under the bed, is it? Is it not so that it might be put on the lampstand?” (Mark 4:21 ULT)

> > Jesus told them a parable about why they should witness openly. Jesus also said to them, “The lamp is not brought in order to put it under a basket, or under > the bed, is it? Is it not so that it might be put on the lampstand?" (Mark 4:21 ULT)

Then Jesus presented another parable to them. He said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field. It is indeed the smallest of all the seeds. But when it has grown, it is greater than the garden plants. It becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches." (Matthew 13:31-32 ULT)

> Then Jesus presented another parable to them about how the kingdom of God grows. He said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field. This seed is indeed the smallest of all the seeds. But when it has grown, it is greater than the garden plants. It becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."

Matthew References:

9:intro; 9:15; 9:16; 9:17; 12:intro; 12:29; 12:43; 13:intro; 13:3; 13:24; 13:31; 13:33; 13:44; 13:45; 13:47; 15:26; 15:27; 18:intro; 18:12; 18:23; 20:intro; 20:1; 21:intro; 21:28; 21:33; 22:intro; 22:2; 24:intro; 24:32; 24:43; 25:intro; 25:1; 25:14

Parallelism

Description

Parallelism is a poetic device in which two phrases or clauses that are similar in structure or idea are used together. The following are some of the different kinds of parallelism.

- The second clause or phrase means the same as the first. This is called synonymous parallelism.
- The second clarifies or strengthens the meaning of the first.
- The second completes what is said in the first.
- The second says something that contrasts with the first, but adds to the same idea.

Parallelism is most commonly found in Old Testament poetry, such as in the books of Psalms and Proverbs. It also occurs in Greek in the New Testament, both in the four gospels and in the apostles' letters.

This article will only discuss synonymous parallelism, the kind in which the two parallel phrases mean the same thing, because that is the kind that presents a problem for translation. Note that we use the term "synonymous parallelism" for long phrases or clauses that have the same meaning. We use the term "doublet" for words or very short phrases that mean basically the same thing and are used together.

In the poetry of the original languages, synonymous parallelism has several effects:

- It shows that something is very important by saying it more than once and in more than one way.
- It helps the hearer to think more deeply about the idea by saying it in different ways.
- It makes the language more beautiful and raises it above the ordinary way of speaking.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages would not use synonymous parallelism. They would either think it odd that someone said the same thing twice, or, since it is in the Bible, they would think that the two phrases must have some difference in meaning. For them it would be confusing, rather than beautiful. They would not understand that the repetition of the idea in different words serves to emphasize the idea.

Examples From the Bible

> Your word is a lamp to my feet
>
> and a light for my path. (Psalm 119:105 ULT)

Both parts of the sentence are metaphors saying that God's word teaches people how to live. That is the single idea. The words "lamp" and "light" are similar in meaning because they refer to light. The words "my feet" and "my path" are related because they refer to a person walking. Walking is a metaphor for living.

> You make him to rule over the works of your hands;
>
> you have put all things under his feet (Psalm 8:6 ULT)

Both lines say that God made man the ruler of everything. "To rule over" is the same idea as putting things "under his feet," and "the works of your [God's] hands" is the same idea as "all things."

> Yahweh sees everything a person does
>
> and watches all the paths he takes. (Proverbs 5:21 ULT)

The first phrase and the second phrase mean the same thing. There are three ideas that are the same between these two phrases. "Sees" corresponds to "watches," "everything…does" corresponds to "all the paths…takes," and "a person" corresponds to "he."

> Praise Yahweh, all you nations;
>
> exalt him, all you peoples! (Psalm 117:1 ULT)

Both parts of this verse tell people everywhere to praise Yahweh. The words ‘Praise’ and ‘exalt’ mean the same thing. The words ‘Yahweh’ and ‘him’ refer to the same person. The terms ‘all you nations’ and ‘all you peoples’ refer to the same people.

> For Yahweh has a lawsuit with his people, > and he will fight in court against Israel. (Micah 6:2b ULT)
>

The two parts of this verse say that Yahweh has a serious disagreement with his people, Israel. These are not two different disagreements or two different groups of people.

Translation Strategies

For most kinds of parallelism, it is good to translate both of the clauses or phrases. For synonymous parallelism, it is good to translate both clauses if people in your language understand that the purpose of saying something twice is to strengthen a single idea. But if your language does not use parallelism in this way, then consider using one of the following translation strategies.

(1) Combine the ideas of both clauses into one.
(2) If it appears that the clauses are used together to show that what they say is really true, you could combine the ideas of both clauses into one and include words that emphasize the truth such as “truly” or “certainly.”
(3) If it appears that the clauses are used together to intensify an idea in them, you could combine the ideas of both clauses into one and use words like “very,” “completely,” or “all.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Combine the ideas of both clauses into one.

> Until now you have dealt deceitfully with me and you have spoken lies to me. (Judges 16:13, ULT)

Delilah expressed this idea twice to emphasize that she was very upset.

> > Until now you have deceived me with your lies.
>
> Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes. (Proverbs 5:21 ULT)

The phrase “all the paths he takes” is a metaphor for “all he does.”

> > Yahweh pays attention to everything a person does.
>
> For Yahweh has a lawsuit with his people, and he will fight in court against Israel. (Micah 6:2 ULT)

This parallelism describes one serious disagreement that Yahweh had with one group of people. If this is unclear, the phrases can be combined:

> > For Yahweh has a lawsuit with his people, Israel.

(2) If it appears that the clauses are used together to show that what they say is really true, you could combine the ideas of both clauses into one and include words that emphasize the truth such as “truly” or “certainly.”

> Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes. (Proverbs 5:21 ULT)

> > Yahweh truly sees everything a person does.
>
> You make him to rule over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet (Psalm 8:6 ULT)
>
> > You have certainly made him to rule over everything that you have created.

(3) If it appears that the clauses are used together to intensify an idea in them, you could combine the ideas of both clauses into one and use words like “very,” “completely” or “all.”

> Until now you have dealt deceitfully with me and you have spoken lies to me. (Judges 16:13, ULT)
>
> > All you have done is lie to me.
>
> Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes. (Proverbs 5:21 ULT)
>
> > Yahweh sees absolutely everything that a person does.

Matthew References:

3:3; 4:10; 4:15; 4:16; 6:24; 7:16; 8:17; 10:26; 10:27; 11:12; 11:30; 12:20; 12:25; 12:37; 13:15; 13:15; 19:14; 20:25; 20:26-27; 21:21; 21:23; 23:37; 24:7; 24:31; 24:50; 25:24; 26:50

Personification

Description

Personification is a figure of speech in which someone speaks of something as if it could do things that animals or people can do. People often do this because it makes it easier to talk about things that we cannot see:

Such as wisdom:

> Does not Wisdom call out? (Proverbs 8:1a ULT)

Or sin:

> Sin crouches at the door. (Genesis 4:7b ULT)

People also use personification because it is sometimes easier to talk about people's relationships with non-human things such as wealth as if they were relationships between people.

> You cannot serve God and wealth. (Matthew 6:24b ULT)

In each case, the purpose of the personification is to highlight a certain characteristic of the non-human thing. As in metaphor, the reader needs to think of the way that the thing is like a certain kind of person.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Some languages do not use personification.
- Some languages use personification only in certain situations.

Examples From the Bible

> You cannot serve God and wealth. (Matthew 6:24b ULT)

Jesus speaks of wealth as if it were a master whom people might serve. Loving money and basing one's decisions on it is like serving it as a slave would serve his master.

> Does not Wisdom call out? Does not Understanding raise her voice? (Proverbs 8:1 ULT)

The author speaks of wisdom and understanding as if they were woman who calls out to teach people. This means that they are not something hidden, but something obvious that people should pay attention to.

Translation Strategies

If the personification would be understood clearly, consider using it. If it would not be understood, here are some other ways for translating it.

(1) Add words or phrases to make the human (or animal) characteristic clear.
(2) In addition to Strategy (1), use words such as "like" or "as" to show that the sentence is not to be understood literally.
(3) Find a way to translate it without the personification.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Add words or phrases to make the human (or animal) characteristic clear.

> Sin crouches at the door. (Genesis 4:7b ULT) — God speaks of sin as if it were a wild animal that is waiting for the chance to attack. This shows how dangerous sin is. An additional phrase can be added to make this danger clear.

> > Sin is at your door, waiting to attack you.

(2) In addition to Strategy (1), use words such as “like” or “as” to show that the sentence is not to be understood literally.

> Sin crouches at the door. (Genesis 4:7b ULT) — This can be translated with the word “as.”

> > Sin is crouching at the door, just as a wild animal does as it waits to attack a person..

(3) Find a way to translate it without the personification.

> Even the winds and the sea obey him. (Matthew 8:27b ULT) — The men speak of the “wind and the sea” as if they are able to hear and obey Jesus, just as people can. This could also be translated without the idea of obedience by speaking of Jesus controlling them.
>
> > He even controls the winds and the sea.

NOTE: We have broadened our definition of "personification" to include "zoomorphism" (speaking of other things as if they had animal characteristics) and "anthropomorphism" (speaking of non-human things as if they had human characteristics) because the translation strategies for them are the same.

Matthew References:

2:6; 2:9; 3:7; 4:24; 5:29; 5:30; 5:30; 6:3; 6:10; 6:24; 6:34; 8:15; 9:22; 9:26; 11:13; 11:19; 14:2; 14:24; 18:8; 18:9; 23:37; 24:29

Politeness

Description

People say certain things, or say things in a certain way, in order to communicate that they respect the people to whom they are speaking. We can refer to this as speaking politely. The ways of speaking politely are generally agreed on by those who share a culture. People also use polite ways of speaking to avoid offending others. This can be especially important if the person being addressed has an influential or powerful position.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue:

Every language has ways to communicate politeness to other speakers of that language, but different languages do not communicate politeness in the same ways. A phrase that is polite in one language may be offensive in another language, or it may simply be confusing. Translators need to recognize politeness in the Bible and communicate the same polite meaning using the appropriate form of politeness in the target language.

Examples From the Bible

> do not trouble yourself (Luke 7:6 ULT)

The centurion sent friends to give Jesus this polite message that Jesus should not come to his house.

> I ask you, have me excused (Luke 14:18 ULT)

In this culture, this was a polite formula for declining a social invitation.

> May I find favor in your eyes, my lord, since you have comforted me, and since you have spoken to the heart of your female servant. (Ruth 2:13 ULT)

Ruth uses several phrases of politeness as she talks to Boaz. May I find favor in your eyes is an idiomatic phrase that communicates that Boaz is in a high position, my lord is an honorific form of address, and she refers to herself humbly as your female servant even though she is not actually one of his servants.

> Please let a little water be brought… Let me also bring a bit of bread (Genesis 18:4-5 ULT)

Abraham describes his generosity as something small in order to be polite. This was a way to communicate to his guests that they were not imposing on him at all. Abraham also uses a word translated as "please" to make his request more polite.

> Then he brought him outside and said, "Please look at the heavens and count the stars…" (Genesis 15:5)

In the above example, God is speaking to Abram, inviting him to look at the stars. He also uses the word translated as "please." God has no need to be polite, but this communicates respect for Abram.

Honorifics

A specific category of politeness is the way that people address other people who are important, powerful, or worthy of honor in other ways. We can refer to this form of politeness as using honorific language. Honorific language can be in the form of special titles or, in some languages, special forms of the words used.

> to the most excellent Governor Felix (Acts 23:26 ULT)

The expression most excellent was an honorific title by which people addressed Roman government officials.

> O king, live forever! (Daniel 5:10 ULT)

This was the polite and respectful way to address the king before saying anything else to him.

Politeness under other categories

People often use language that is non-standard or figurative to communicate politeness. In these cases, there will be a Translation Note under the category of the figure of speech rather than under the category of politeness. The Note will discuss the issue of the figurative speech and then also mention that this is being used to be polite. For example, the following verses will have Translation Notes under the categories given rather than under politeness.

Metaphor

> Men, brothers and fathers, hear my defense to you now. (Acts 22:1 ULT)

Paul is using the word brothers to refer to his fellow Israelites. He is using the word fathers to refer either to Jewish leaders who may be present or to Jewish men who are older than he is. In both cases he is speaking respectfully.

Idiom

> I beg of you, about whom is the prophet saying this…? (Acts 8:34 ULT)

The Ethiopian official is using an idiomatic expression as a polite way to introduce a request.

Symbolic action

> And having fallen down, they worshiped him (Matt 2:11 ULT)

The act of kneeling down before someone showed deep respect for the person.

Speaking of oneself in the third person

> please do not pass by your servant. (Gen 18:3 ULT)

Abraham refers to himself as your servant here in order to show respect to his guests.

Euphemism

> And having said this, he fell asleep. (Acts 7:60 ULT)

Luke is describing the death of Stephen when he says he fell asleep. He is using this polite way of referring to something unpleasant to avoid offending his readers.

Other Uses of the Imperative

> You pray to the Lord for me, so that nothing of which you have spoken may come upon me. (Acts 8:24 ULT)

The verb pray is an imperative, but it communicates a polite request rather than a command.

Rhetorical question

> Lord, are you not concerned that my sister has left me alone to serve? (Luke 10:40 ULT)

Martha is complaining that Jesus is allowing Mary to sit listening to him when there is so much work to do. But Martha respects Jesus, so she uses the question form to make her complaint more polite.

Translation Strategies

If the phrase used in the ULT would be natural and be a polite expression in your language, consider using it. If not, use the strategy below.

(1) Use a phrase that would be both natural and polite in your language for this situation.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use a phrase that would be both natural and polite in your language for this situation.

> do not trouble yourself (Luke 7:6 ULT)

I do not want you to go out of your way
or
Please do not bother

> I ask you, have me excused (Luke 14:18 ULT)

Please accept my apology for not being able to attend

> May I find favor in your eyes, my lord, since you have comforted me, and since you have spoken to the heart of your female servant. (Ruth 2:13 ULT)

You are too kind to me, good sir; you have comforted me and you have spoken to my heart even though I am not worthy of it.

> Please let a little water be brought… Let me also bring a bit of bread (Genesis 18:4-5 ULT)

I have plenty of water… I also have plenty of food

> "Please look at the heavens and count the stars…" (Genesis 15:5)

"Look up at the heavens, if you will, and count the stars…"

> O king, live forever! (Daniel 5:10 ULT)

Your majesty, I wish you well!

> I beg of you, about whom is the prophet saying this…? (Acts 8:34 ULT)

Please tell me, about whom is the prophet saying this…?

> You pray to the Lord for me, so that nothing of which you have spoken may come upon me. (Acts 8:24 ULT)

Please pray to the Lord for me so that nothing of which you have spoken may come upon me.
or
I ask you to pray to the Lord for me so that nothing of which you have spoken may come upon me.

> Lord, are you not concerned that my sister has left me alone to serve?
> (Luke 10:40 ULT)

Lord, it seems as if you do not care that my sister has left me alone to serve.

Matthew References:

21:30; 25:11; 27:63

Possession

Description

In English, the grammatical form that commonly indicates possession is also used to indicate a variety of relationships between people and objects or people and other people. In English, that grammatical relationship is shown by using the word "of," by using an apostrophe and the letter "s", or by using a possessive pronoun. The following examples are different ways to indicate that my grandfather owns a house.

- the house of my grandfather
- my grandfather's house
- his house

Possession is used in Hebrew, Greek, and English for a variety of situations. Here are a few common situations that it is used for.

- Ownership — Someone owns something.

> The clothes of me - my clothes — The clothes that I own

- Social Relationship — Someone has some kind of social relationship with another.

> The mother of John — John's mother - the woman who gave birth to John, or the woman who cared for John

> A teacher of Israel - Israel's teacher — a person who teaches Israel

- Association — A particular thing is associated with a particular person, place, or thing.

> The sickness of David - David's sickness — the sickness that David is experiencing > the fear of the Lord — the fear that is appropriate for a human being to have when relating to the Lord

• Contents — Something has something in it.

> a bag of clothes — a bag that has clothes in it, or a bag that is full of clothes

• Part and whole: One thing is part of another.

> my head — the head that is part of my body

> the roof of a house — the roof that is part of a house

In some languages there is a special form of possession, termed inalienable possession. This form of possession is used for things that cannot be removed from you, as opposed to things you could lose. In the examples above, my head and my mother are examples of inalienable possession (at least in some languages), while my clothes or my teacher would be alienably possessed. What may be considered alienable vs. inalienable may differ by language. In languages that mark the difference, the expression of inalienable possession and alienable possession will be different.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

• You (the translator) need to understand the relationship between two ideas represented by the two nouns when one is in the grammatical relationship of possessing the other.

- Some languages do not use grammatical possession for all of the situations that your source text Bible might use it for.

Examples From the Bible

Ownership — In the example below, the son owned the money.

> The younger son … wasted his wealth by living recklessly. (Luke 15:13b)

Social Relationship — In the example below, the disciples were people who learned from John.

> Then the disciples of John came to him. (Matthew 9:14a ULT)

Association — In the example below, the gospel is the message associated with Paul because he preaches it.

> Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, from the seed of David, according to my gospel, (2 Timothy 2:8 ULT)

Material — In the example below, the material used for making the crowns was gold.

> On their heads were something like crowns of gold. (Revelation 9:7b)

Contents — In the example below, the cup has water in it.

> For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink … will not lose his reward. (Mark 9:41 ULT)

Part of a whole — In the example below, the door was a part of the palace.

> But Uriah slept at the door of the king's palace. (2 Samuel 11:9a ULT)

Part of a group — In the example below, "us" refers to the whole group and "each one" refers to the individual members.

> Now to each one of us grace has been given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. (Ephesians 4:7 ULT)

Events and Possession

Sometimes one or both of the nouns is an abstract noun that refers to an event or action. In the examples below, the abstract nouns are in bold print. These are just some of the relationships that are possible between two nouns when one of them refers to an event.

Subject — Sometimes the word after "of" tells who would do the action named by the first noun. In the example below, John baptized people.

> The baptism of John, was it from heaven or from men? Answer me. (Mark 11:30)

In the example below, Christ loves us.

> Who will separate us from the love of Christ? (Romans 8:35)

Object — Sometimes the word after "of" tells who or what something would happen to. In the example below, people love money.

> For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. (1 Timothy 6:10a ULT)

Instrument — Sometimes the word after "of" tells how something would happen. In the example below, God would punish people by sending enemies to attack them with swords.

> Then be afraid of the sword, because wrath brings the punishment of the sword. (Job 19:29a ULT)

Representation — In the example below, John was baptizing people who were repenting of their sins. They were being baptized to show that they were repenting. Their baptism represented their repentance.

> John came, baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. (Mark 1:4 ULT)

Strategies for learning what the relationship is between the two nouns

(1) Read the surrounding verses to see if they help you to understand the relationship between the two nouns.
(2) Read the verse in the UST. Sometimes it shows the relationship clearly.
(3) See what the notes say about it.

Translation Strategies

If possession would be a natural way to show a particular relationship between two nouns, consider using it. If it would be strange or hard to understand, consider these.

(1) Use an adjective to show that one noun describes the other.
(2) Use a verb to show how the two are related.
(3) If one of the nouns refers to an event, translate it as a verb.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use an adjective to show that one noun describes the other.

> On their heads were something like crowns of gold. (Revelation 9:7b)

> > "On their heads were gold crowns"

(2) Use a verb to show how the two are related.

> Whoever gives you a cup of water to drink … will not lose his reward. (Mark 9:41 ULT)
>
> > Whoever gives you a cup that has water in it to drink … will not lose his reward.
>
> Wealth is worthless on the day of wrath. (Proverbs 11:4a ULT)
>
> > Wealth is worthless on the day when God shows his wrath.
> > or:
> > Wealth is worthless on the day when God punishes people because of his wrath.

(3) If one of the nouns refers to an event, translate it as a verb. (In the example below, there are two possession relationships, "punishment of Yahweh" and "your God.")

> Notice that I am not speaking to your children, who have not known or seen the punishment of Yahweh your God. (Deuteronomy 11:2a ULT)

> > Notice that I am not speaking to your children who have not known or seen how Yahweh, the God whom you worship, punished the people of Egypt.
>
> You will only observe and see the punishment of the wicked. (Psalms 91:8 ULT)
>
> > You will only observe and see how Yahweh punishes the wicked.
>
> You will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2:38b ULT)
>
> > You will receive the Holy Spirit, whom God will give to you.

Matthew References:

1:1; 2:1; 2:2; 2:5; 2:7; 3:8; 4:15; 4:16; 4:23; 4:24; 5:3; 5:10; 5:13; 5:14; 5:22; 5:25; 5:35; 6:12; 6:26; 6:28; 6:30; 6:33; 8:20; 9:35; 9:38; 10:6; 10:15; 10:41; 11:2; 11:12; 11:22; 11:24; 12:8; 12:31; 12:36; 12:39; 13:11; 13:19; 13:22; 13:22; 13:30; 13:36; 13:42; 15:2; 15:3; 15:9; 15:24; 15:26; 15:31; 16:3; 16:6; 16:9; 16:10; 16:11; 16:12; 17:25; 18:9; 18:10; 18:24; 19:14; 19:28; 20:12; 21:11; 21:13; 21:25; 21:40; 21:43; 22:16; 22:19; 22:32; 22:32; 22:37; 23:16; 23:33; 24:1; 24:14; 24:15; 24:30; 24:36; 25:21; 25:31; 26:7; 26:28; 27:6; 27:10; 27:29; 27:37

Predictive Past

Description

The predictive past is a figure of speech that uses the past tense to refer to things that will happen in the future. This is sometimes done in prophecy to show that the event will certainly happen. It is also called the prophetic perfect.

> Therefore my people have gone into captivity for lack of understanding;
> their honored leaders go hungry, and their common people have nothing to drink. (Isaiah 5:13 ULT)

In the example above, the people of Israel had not yet gone into captivity, but God spoke of their going into captivity as if it had already happened because he had decided that they certainly would go into captivity.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue:

Readers who are not aware of the past tense being used in prophecy to refer to future events may find it confusing.

Examples From the Bible

> Now Jericho was tightly closed because of the sons of Israel. No one went out and no one came in. Yahweh said to Joshua, “See, I have delivered Jericho, and its king, and its powerful soldiers into your hand.” (Joshua 6:1-2 ULT)

> For to us a child has been born, to us a son has been given; > and the rule will be on his shoulder. (Isaiah 9:6a ULT)

In the examples above, God spoke of things that would happen in the future as if they had already happened.

> But even Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about them, saying, “Look! The Lord came with thousands and thousands of his holy ones.” (Jude 1:14 ULT)

Enoch was speaking of something that would happen in the future, but he used the past tense when he said “the Lord came.”

Translation Strategies

If the past tense would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

(1) Use the future tense to refer to future events.
(2) If it refers to something in the immediate future, use a form that would show that.
(3) Some languages may use the present tense to show that something will happen very soon.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the future tense to refer to future events.

> For to us a child has been born, to us a son has been given. (Isaiah 9:6a ULT)
>
> > For to us a child will be born, to us a son will be given.

(2) If it refers to something that would happen very soon, use a form that shows that.

> Yahweh said to Joshua, “See, I have delivered Jericho, and its king, and its powerful soldiers into your hand.” (Joshua 6:2 ULT)
>
> > Yahweh said to Joshua, “See, I am about to deliver over to you Jericho, its king, and its powerful soldiers.”

(3) Some languages may use the present tense to show that something will happen very soon.

> Yahweh said to Joshua, “See, I have delivered Jericho, and its king, and its powerful soldiers into your hand.” (Joshua 6:2 ULT)
>
> > Yahweh said to Joshua, “See, I am delivering over to you Jericho, its king, and its powerful soldiers.”

Matthew References:

24:22; 25:11; 25:19; 26:38; 26:40; 26:52; 26:64; 26:71; 27:13; 27:22; 27:24; 27:38

Pronouns — When to Use Them

Description

When we talk or write, we use pronouns to refer to people or things without always having to repeat the noun or name. Usually, the first time we refer to someone in a story, we use a descriptive phrase or a name. The next time we might refer to that person with a simple noun or by name. After that we might refer to him simply with a pronoun as long as we think that our listeners will be able to understand easily to whom the pronoun refers.

> Now there was a man from thePharisees whose name was Nicodemus, a Jewish leader. This man came to Jesus at night. Jesus replied and said to him … (John 3:1, 2a, 3a ULT)

In John 3, Nicodemus is first referred to with noun phrases and his name. Then he is referred to with the noun phrase “this man.” Then he is referred to with the pronoun “him.”

Each language has its rules and exceptions to this usual way of referring to people and things.

- In some languages, the first time something is referred to in a paragraph or chapter, it is referred to with a noun rather than a pronoun.
- The main character is the person whom a story is about. In some languages, after a main character is introduced in a story, he is usually referred to with a pronoun. Some languages have special pronouns that refer only to the main character.
- In some languages, marking on the verb helps people know who the subject is. (See Verbs.) In some of these languages, listeners rely on this marking to help them understand who the subject is. Speakers will use a pronoun, noun phrase, or proper name only when they want either to emphasize or to clarify who the subject is.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- If translators use a pronoun at the wrong time for their language, readers might not know about whom the writer is talking.
- If translators too frequently refer to a main character by name, listeners of some languages might not realize that the person is a main character, or they might think that there is a new character with the same name.
- If translators use pronouns, nouns, or names at the wrong time, people might think that there is some special emphasis on the person or thing to which it refers.

Examples From the Bible

The example below occurs at the beginning of a chapter. In some languages it might not be clear to whom the pronouns refer.

> Then Jesus entered into the synagogue again, and there was a man who had a withered hand. Some people watched him closely to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath so that they might accuse him. (Mark 3:1-2 ULT)

In the example below, two men are named in the first sentence. It might not be clear whom "he" in the second sentence refers to.

> Now after some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice came down to Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus. After he had been there for many days, Festus presented to the king the things concerning Paul. (Acts 25:13-14)

Jesus is the main character of the book of Matthew, but in the verses below he is referred to four times by name. This may lead speakers of some languages to think that Jesus is not the main character. Or it might lead them to think that there is more than one person named Jesus in this story. Or it might lead them to think that there is some kind of emphasis on him, even though there is no emphasis.

> At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grainfields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and eat them. But when the Pharisees saw that, they said to Jesus, "See, your disciples do what is unlawful to do on the Sabbath." But Jesus said to them, "Have you never read what David did, when he was hungry, and the men who were with him?" Then Jesus left from there and went into their synagogue. (Matthew 12:1-3,9 ULT)

Translation Strategies

(1) If it would not be clear to your readers to whom or to what a pronoun refers, use a name or a noun.
(2) If repeating a noun or name would lead people to think that a main character is not a main character, or that the writer is talking about more than one person with that name, or that there is some kind of emphasis on someone when there is no emphasis, use a pronoun instead.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If it would not be clear to your readers to whom or to what a pronoun refers, use a name or a noun.

> Again he walked into the synagogue, and a man with a withered hand was there. Some Pharisees watched him to see if he would heal the man on the Sabbath. (Mark 3:1-2)
>
> > Again Jesus walked into the synagogue, and a man with a withered hand was there. Some Pharisees watched Jesus to see if he would heal the man on the Sabbath.

(2) If repeating a noun or name would lead people to think that a main character is not a main character, or that the writer is talking about more than one person with that name, or that there is some kind of emphasis on someone when there is no emphasis, use a pronoun instead.

> At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grainfields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and eat them. But when the Pharisees saw that, they said to Jesus, “See, your disciples do what is unlawful to do on the Sabbath.” But Jesus said to them, “Have you never read what David did, when he was hungry, and the men who > were with him?" Then Jesus left from there and went into their synagogue. (Matthew 12:1-3,9 ULT)

This may be translated as:

> > At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grainfields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and eat them. But when the Pharisees saw that, they said to him, "See, your disciples do what is unlawful to do on the Sabbath." But he said to them, "Have you never read what David did, when he was hungry, and the men who were with him?" Then he left from there and went into their synagogue.

Matthew References:

1:22; 1:23; 1:25; 2:23; 3:15; 4:6; 4:21; 4:24; 5:11; 5:12; 5:15; 7:2; 7:6; 7:6; 7:14; 7:16; 7:16; 7:20; 8:2; 8:3; 8:4; 8:7; 8:14; 8:16; 8:24; 8:25; 8:32; 9:2; 9:3; 9:8; 9:9; 9:9; 9:11; 9:11; 9:12; 9:12; 9:14; 9:17; 9:18; 9:25; 9:31; 9:32; 9:32; 9:32; 10:4; 10:11; 10:18; 10:19; 10:23; 10:25; 10:26; 11:1; 11:2; 11:7; 11:10; 11:14; 11:18; 12:9; 12:10; 12:10; 12:16; 12:29; 13:10; 13:13; 13:13; 13:19; 13:24; 13:28; 13:28; 13:29; 13:31; 13:33; 13:39; 13:42; 13:48; 13:54; 14:2; 14:3; 14:4; 14:5; 14:11; 14:20; 14:25; 14:32; 14:35; 14:36; 15:8; 15:14; 15:30; 15:37; 16:4; 16:12; 16:17; 16:18; 16:22; 16:27; 16:27; 17:3; 17:5; 17:12; 17:17; 17:18; 17:18; 17:19; 17:22; 17:24; 17:27; 18:17; 18:30; 18:32; 19:5; 19:13; 19:14; 19:17; 19:18; 19:26; 20:22; 20:29; 21:1; 21:4; 21:7; 21:13; 21:17; 21:34; 21:35; 21:36; 21:41; 21:42; 21:43; 22:1; 22:19; 22:20; 22:30; 22:43; 22:45; 23:14; 23:23; 24:9; 24:26; 24:38; 25:45; 25:46; 26:9; 26:28; 26:42; 26:56; 26:67; 26:73; 27:16; 27:17; 28:8; 28:17

Proverbs

Description

Proverbs are short sayings that give wise advice or teach something that is generally true about life. People enjoy proverbs because they give a lot of wisdom in few words. Proverbs in the Bible often use metaphor and parallelism. Proverbs should not be understood as absolute and unchangeable laws. Rather, proverbs offer general advice to a person about how to live his life.

> Hatred stirs up conflicts, but love covers over all offenses. (Proverbs 10:12 ULT)

Here is another example from the book of Proverbs.

> Look at the ant, you lazy person, consider her ways, and be wise. It has no commander, officer, or ruler, yet it prepares its food in the summer, and during the harvest it stores up what it will eat. (Proverbs 6:6-8 ULT)

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Each language has its own ways of saying proverbs. There are many proverbs in the Bible. They need to be translated in the way that people say proverbs in your language so that people recognize them as proverbs and understand what they teach.

Examples From the Bible

> A good name is to be chosen over great riches,
>
> and favor is better than silver and gold. (Proverbs 22:1 ULT)

This means that it is better to be a good person and to have a good reputation than it is to have a lot of money.

> Like vinegar on the teeth and smoke in the eyes,
>
> so is the sluggard to those who send him. (Proverbs 10:26 ULT)

This means that a lazy person is very annoying to those who send him to do something.

> The way of Yahweh protects those who have integrity,
>
> but it is destruction for the wicked. (Proverbs 10:29 ULT)

This means that Yahweh protects people who do what is right, but he destroys those who are wicked.

Translation Strategies

If translating a proverb literally would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider doing that. If not, here are some options:

(1) Find out how people say proverbs in your language, and use one of those ways.
(2) If certain objects in the proverb are not known to many people in your language group, consider replacing them with objects that people know and that function in the same way in your language.
(3) Substitute a proverb in your language that has the same teaching as the proverb in the Bible.
(4) Give the same teaching but not in a form of a proverb.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Find out how people say proverbs in your language, and use one of those ways.

> A good name is to be chosen over great riches,
>
> and favor is better than silver and gold. (Proverbs 22:1 ULT)

Here are some ideas for ways that people might say a proverb in their language.

> > It is better to have a good name than to have great riches, > > and to be favored by people than to have silver and gold.
> >
>
> > Wise people choose a good name over great riches,
> >
> > and favor over silver and gold.
>
> > Try to have a good reputation rather than great riches.
>
> > Will riches really help you?
> >
> > I would rather have a good reputation.

(2) If certain objects in the proverb are not known to many people in your language group, consider replacing them with objects that people know and that function in the same way in your language.

> Like snow in summer or rain in harvest,
>
> so a fool does not deserve honor. (Proverbs 26:1 ULT)

> > It is not natural for a cold wind to blow in the hot season or for it to rain in the harvest season;
> >
> > And it is not natural to honor a foolish person.

(3) Substitute a proverb in your language that has the same teaching as the proverb in the Bible.

> Do not boast about tomorrow,
>
> for you do not know what a day may bring. (Proverbs 27:1a ULT)
>
> > Do not count your chickens before they hatch.

(4) Give the same teaching but not in a form of a proverb.

> There is a generation that curses their father
>
> and does not bless their mother.
>
> There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, > and yet they are not washed of their filth. (Proverbs 30:11-12 ULT)

> > People who do not respect their parents think that > > they are righteous,
> >
> > and they do not turn away from their sin.

Matthew References:

7:2; 9:12; 10:10; 10:24; 10:25; 10:26; 10:41; 11:19; 12:25; 12:35; 13:12; 24:intro; 24:28

Quotations and Quote Margins

Description

When saying that someone said something, we often tell who spoke, whom they spoke to, and what they said. The information about who spoke and whom they spoke to is called the quote margin. What the person said is the quotation. (This is also called a quote.) In some languages the quote margin may come first, last, or even in between two parts of the quotation.

The quote margins are bolded below.

- She said, “The food is ready. Come and eat.”
- “The food is ready. Come and eat,” she said.
- “The food is ready,” she said. “Come and eat.”

Also in some languages, the quote margin may have more than one verb meaning “said.”

> But his mother answered and said, “No. Rather, he will be called John.” (Luke 1:60 ULT)

When writing that someone said something, some languages put the quote (what was said) in quotation marks called inverted commas (“ ”). Some languages use other symbols around the quotation, such as these angle quote marks (« »), or something else.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Translators need to put the quote margin where it is most clear and natural in their language.
- Translators need to decide whether they want the quote margin to have one or two verbs meaning “said.”
- Translators need to decide which marks to use around the quotation.

Examples From the Bible

Quote margin before the quote

> Then Zechariah said to the angel, “How will I know this? For I am an old man and my wife is advanced in her days.” (Luke 1:18 ULT)

> Then tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, “Teacher, what should we do?” (Luke 3:12 ULT)

> So he said to them, “Collect nothing more than what you have been ordered.” (Luke 3:13 ULT)

Quote margin after the quote

> Yahweh relented concerning this. “It will not happen,” he said. (Amos 7:3 ULT)

Quote margin between two parts of the quote

> “I will hide my face from them,” he said, “and I will see what their end will be; for they are a perverse generation, children who are unfaithful.” (Deuteronomy 32:20 ULT)

> For look, days are coming—this is Yahweh’s declaration—when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel and Judah. (Jeremiah 30:3a ULT)

Translation Strategies

(1) Decide where to put the quote margin.
(2) Decide whether to use one or two words meaning "said."

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Decide where to put the quote margin.

> He said, "Therefore, those among you who are leaders should go down with us. If there is something wrong with the man, let them accuse him." (Acts 25:5 ULT)
>
> > "Therefore, those who can should go there with us," he said. "If there is something wrong with the man, you should accuse him."

> > "Therefore, those who can should go there with us. If there is something wrong with the man, you should accuse him," he said.

> > “Therefore, those who can,” he said, “should go there with us. If there is something wrong with the man, you should accuse him.”

(2) Decide whether to use one or two words meaning “said.”

> But his mother answered and said, “No. Rather, he will be called John.” (Luke 1:60 ULT)
>
> > But his mother replied, “No. Rather, he will be called John.”

> > But his mother said, “No. Rather, he will be called John.”

> > But his mother answered like this. “No. Rather, he will be called John,” she said.

Matthew References:

1:20; 1:22; 2:2; 2:5; 2:13; 2:15; 2:17; 2:20; 3:2; 3:3; 3:3; 3:14; 3:15; 3:17; 4:4; 4:4; 4:6; 4:6; 4:7; 4:7; 4:9; 4:10; 4:10; 4:14; 4:17; 5:2; 5:21; 5:21; 5:27; 5:31; 5:33; 5:38; 5:43; 8:3; 8:6; 8:17; 8:25; 8:27; 8:29; 8:31; 9:13; 9:14; 9:18; 9:27; 9:29; 9:30; 9:33; 10:5; 10:7; 10:35-36; 11:4; 11:10; 11:17; 12:7; 12:10; 12:18-21; 12:38; 13:3; 13:14; 13:24; 13:31; 13:35; 13:36; 14:15; 14:27; 14:30; 14:33; 15:1; 15:4; 15:7; 15:22; 15:23; 16:7; 16:13; 16:22; 17:5; 17:9; 17:10; 17:25; 18:1; 18:16; 18:26; 18:28; 18:29; 19:4; 19:5; 19:18-19; 19:25; 20:12; 20:30; 20:31; 21:intro; 21:2; 21:4; 21:9; 21:10; 21:13; 21:16; 21:20; 21:23; 21:25; 21:37; 21:42; 22:1; 22:4; 22:13; 22:16; 22:24; 22:24; 22:31; 22:37; 22:39; 22:42; 22:43; 23:2; 23:18; 24:3; 24:5; 25:9; 25:11; 25:20; 25:28; 25:37; 25:44; 25:45; 26:8; 26:17; 26:27; 26:31; 26:39; 26:42; 26:48; 26:68; 26:69; 26:70; 27:4; 27:9; 27:11; 27:23; 27:24; 27:29; 27:40; 27:46; 27:54; 27:63; 28:9; 28:13; 28:18

Quotes within Quotes

Description

A quotation may have a quote within it, and quotes that are inside of other quotes can also have quotes within them. When a quote has quotes within it, we say there are "layers" of quotation, and each of the quotes is a layer. When there are many layers of quotes inside of quotes, it can be hard for listeners and readers to know who is saying what. Some languages use a combination of direct quotes and indirect quotes to make it easier.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

1. When there is a quote within a quote, the listener needs to know who the pronouns refer to. For example: if a quote that is inside a quote has the word "I," the listener needs to know whether "I" refers to the speaker of the inner quote or the outer quote.
2. Some languages make this clear by using different kinds of quotes when there are quotes within quotes. They may use direct quotes for some and indirect quotes for others.
3. Some languages do not use indirect quotes.

Examples From the Bible

A quotation with only one layer

> But Paul said, "I, however, was indeed born a citizen." (Acts 22:28b ULT)

Quotations with two layers

> Jesus answered and said to them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray. For many will come in my name. They will say, 'I am the Christ,' and will lead many astray." (Matthew 24:4-5 ULT)

The outermost layer is what Jesus said to his disciples. The second layer is what other people will say.

> Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king.” (John 18:37b ULT)

The outermost layer is what Jesus said to Pilate. The second layer is what Pilate said about Jesus.

A quotation with three layers

> Abraham said, “… I said to her, ‘You must show me this faithfulness as my wife: At every place where we go, say about me, “He is my brother.”’” (Genesis 20:11a, 13 ULT)

The outermost layer is what Abraham responded to Abimelech. The second layer is what Abraham had told his wife. The third layer is what he wanted his wife to say. (We have bolded the third layer.)

A quotation with four layers

> They said to him, “A man came to meet us who said to us, ‘Go back to the king who sent you, and say to him, “Yahweh says this: ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you sent men to consult with Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not come down from the bed to which you have gone up; instead, you will certainly die.’”’” (2 Kings 1:6 ULT)

The outermost layer is what the messengers said to the king. The second layer is what the man who had met the messengers told them. The third is what that man wanted the messengers to say to the king. The fourth is what Yahweh said. (We have bolded the fourth layer.)

Translation Strategies

Some languages use only direct quotes. Other languages use a combination of direct quotes and indirect quotes. In those languages it might sound strange and perhaps even be confusing if there are many layers of direct quotes.

(1) Translate all of the quotes as direct quotes.
(2) Translate one or some of the quotes as indirect quotes. (See Direct and Indirect Quotations.)

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Translate all of the quotes as direct quotes. In the example below we have bolded the indirect quotes in the ULT and the quotes that we have changed to direct quotes below it.

> Festus presented to the king the things concerning Paul, saying, "There is a certain man was left here as a prisoner by Felix. So I am uncertain about the things concerning this matter. I asked if he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there to be judged concerning these things. But when Paul appealed to keep him in custody for the decision of the emperor, I ordered him to be held in custody until when I could send him to Caesar." (Acts 25:14b, 20-21 ULT)
>
> > Festus presented Paul's case to the king. He said, "A certain man was left behind here by Felix as a prisoner. I was uncertain about the things concerning this matter. I asked him, 'Will you go to Jerusalem to be judged there concerning these things?' But when Paul said, 'I want to be kept in custody for the emperor's decision,' I told the guard, 'Keep him in custody until when I can send him to Caesar.'"

(2) Translate one or some of the quotes as indirect quotes. In English the word “that” can come before indirect quotes. It is bolded in the examples below. The pronouns that changed because of the indirect quote are also bolded.

> And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, “I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel. Speak to them and say, ‘During the evenings you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be satisfied with bread. And you will know that I am Yahweh your God.’” (Exodus 16:11-12 ULT)
>
> > And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, “I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel. Tell them that during the evenings they will eat meat, and in the morning they will be satisfied with bread. And they will know that I am Yahweh their God.’”
>
> They said to him, “A man came to meet us who said to us, ‘Go back to the king who sent you, and say to him, “Yahweh says this: ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you sent men to consult with Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not come down from the bed to which you have gone up; instead, you will certainly die.’”””” (2 Kings 1:6 ULT)
>
> > They told him that a man had come to meet them who said to them, “Go back to the king who sent you, and tell him that Yahweh says this: ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you sent men to consult with Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not come down from the bed to which you have gone up; instead, you will certainly die.’”

Matthew References:

2:6; 3:3; 4:6; 4:7; 4:10; 8:9; 9:5; 10:7; 11:17; 11:18; 11:19; 12:44; 13:27; 13:28; 13:28; 13:29-30; 15:4; 15:5-6; 16:2; 16:3; 20:4; 20:6; 20:7; 20:12; 20:13; 21:3; 21:5; 21:21; 21:25; 21:26; 21:28; 21:29; 21:30; 21:37; 21:38; 22:4; 22:8-9; 22:12; 22:13; 22:24; 22:32; 22:37; 22:39; 22:43-44; 23:16; 23:18; 23:30; 24:5; 24:23; 24:26; 24:48; 25:6; 25:8; 25:9; 25:11; 25:12; 25:20; 25:21; 25:22; 25:24-25; 25:26-30; 25:34-36; 25:37-39; 25:40; 25:41-43; 25:44; 25:45; 26:18; 26:31; 26:61; 27:43; 27:63; 27:64; 28:7; 28:13

Reduplication

Description

Writers and speakers in the Bible sometimes repeat the same word or forms of the same word. This is to increase the intensity, completeness, or certainty of the action that the word describes, or to otherwise increase the emotional impact of the word.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages may not repeat words to increase the intensity, completeness, or certainty of an action, or they may not repeat words to increase the level of emotion that they communicate. In these cases, repeated words may appear to be a mistake or may indicate that the speaker is unable to speak correctly.

Examples From the Bible

To the woman he said, “To multiply I will multiply your pain and your childbearing…” (Genesis 3:16 ULT)

The speaker is repeating forms of the verb “multiply” in order to intensify the idea of multiplying.

To be circumcised he must be circumcised (Genesis 17:13)

The speaker is repeating forms of the verb “circumcise” in order to increase the certainty that this must happen.

Begin, possess, to possess his land (Deuteronomy 2:31 ULT)

Moses repeats the word “possess” to emphasize the completeness of the action of possessing the land.

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? (Psalm 22:1 ULT)

The writer repeats “my God” to increase the level of emotion that he wants to communicate; he is crying out desperately to God.

“Fallen, fallen has Babylon the Great…” (Revelation 14:8 ULT)

The angel repeats the word “fallen” in order to show deep emotion in this lament for the ruined city of Babylon.

Translation Strategies

If repeating words would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, then do the same in your translation. If not, here are some other options:

(1) If your language would not repeat words to increase the intensity, completeness, or certainty of an action, then use a different word or phrase to add that meaning.
(2) If your language would not repeat words to increase emotional intensity, then use an emotional word to do that.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If your language would not repeat words to increase the intensity, completeness, or certainty of an action, then use a different word or phrase to add that meaning.

> To the woman he said, “To multiply I will multiply your pain and your childbearing…” (Genesis 3:16 ULT)

> > To the woman he said, “I will greatly multiply your pain and your childbearing…”

> To be circumcised he must be circumcised (Genesis 17:13 ULT)

> > He certainly must be circumcised
> > Or By all means, he must be circumcised

> Begin, possess, to possess his land (Deuteronomy 2:31 ULT)

> > Begin to completely possess his land
> > Or Enter his land until you completely possess it

(2) If your language would not repeat words to increase emotional intensity, then use an emotional word to do that.

> My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? (Psalm 22:1 ULT)

> > You are my God! Why, then, have you forsaken me?
> > Or My God, oh, why have you forsaken me?

> “Fallen, fallen has Babylon the Great…” (Revelation 14:8 ULT)

> > “Alas, Babylon the Great has fallen!

Matthew References:

7:21; 7:22; 13:14

Reflexive Pronouns

Description

All languages have ways of showing that the same person fills two different roles in a sentence. English does this by using reflexive pronouns. These are pronouns that refer to someone or something that has already been mentioned in a sentence. In English the reflexive pronouns are: “myself,” “yourself,” “himself,” “herself,” “itself,” “ourselves,” “yourselves,” and “themselves.” In English, these pronouns can also be used to emphasize the person to whom they refer. Other languages may have other ways to do both of these things.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- Languages have different ways of showing that the same person fills two different roles in a sentence. For those languages, translators will need to know how to translate the English reflexive pronouns.
- The reflexive pronouns in English also have other functions.

Uses of Reflexive Pronouns

- To show that the same person or things fills two different roles in a sentence
- To emphasize a person or thing in the sentence
- To show that someone or something did something alone or was alone

Examples From the Bible

To show that the same person or thing fills two different roles in a sentence

> If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true. (John 5:31 ULT)

> Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the country before the Passover in order to purify themselves. (John 11:55 ULT)

To emphasize a person or thing in the sentence

> Jesus himself was not baptizing, but his disciples were. (John 4:2 ULT)

> So they left the crowd, taking Jesus with them, just as he was, in the boat. There also were other boats with him. Then a violent windstorm arose and the waves were breaking into the boat so that the boat was already full of water. But Jesus himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. (Mark 4:36-38a ULT)

> Then Festus answered that Paul was being held at Caesarea but that he himself was about to depart soon. (Acts 25:4 ULT)

To show that someone did something alone, or that something was alone

> When Jesus realized that they were about to come and seize him by force to make him king, he withdrew again up the mountain by himself. (John 6:15 ULT)

> He saw the linen cloths lying there and the cloth that had been on his head. It was not lying with the linen cloths but was folded up in a place by itself. (John 20:6b-7 ULT)

Translation Strategies

If a reflexive pronoun would have the same function in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other strategies.

(1) In some languages people put something on the verb to show that the object of the verb is the same as the subject.
(2) In some languages people emphasize a certain person or thing by referring to it in a special place in the sentence.
(3) In some languages people emphasize a certain person or thing by adding something to that word or putting another word with it.
(4) In some languages people show that someone did something alone by using a word like "alone."
(5) In some languages people show that something was alone by using a phrase that tells about where it was.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) In some languages people modify the verb to show that the object of the verb is the same as the subject.

> If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true. (John 5:31)
>
> > "If I self-testify, my testimony is not true."

> Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the country before the Passover in order to purify themselves. (John 11:55)
>
> > "Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem out from country before the Passover in order to self-purify."

(2) In some languages people emphasize a certain person or thing by referring to it in a special place in the sentence.

> He himself took our sickness and bore our diseases. (Matthew 8:17 ULT)
>
> > "The one who took our sickness and bore our diseases was Jesus."

> Jesus himself was not baptizing, but his disciples were. (John 4:2)
>
> > "It was not Jesus who was baptizing, but his disciples."

(3) In some languages people emphasize a certain person or thing by adding something to that word or putting another word with it.

> But Jesus said this to test Philip, for he himself knew what he was going to do. (John 6:6)
>
> > But Jesus said this to test Philip, for, as for him, he knew what he was going to do.

> Then Festus answered that Paul was being held at Caesarea but that he himself was about to depart soon. (Acts 25:4 ULT)
>
> > Then Festus answered that Paul was being held at Caesarea but that, for his part, he was about to depart soon.

(4) In some languages people show that someone did something alone by using a word like "alone."

> When Jesus realized that they were about to come and seize him by force to make him king, he withdrew again up the mountain by himself. (John 6:15)
>
> > "When Jesus realized that they were about to come and seize him by force to make him king, he withdrew again alone up the mountain."

(5) In some languages people show that something was alone by using a phrase that tells about where it was.

> He saw the linen cloths lying there and the cloth that had been on his head. It was not lying with the linen cloths but was folded up in a place by itself. (John 20:6b-7 ULT)

> “He saw the linen cloths lying there and the cloth that had been on his head. It was not lying with the linen cloths but was folded up and lying in it’s own place.”

Matthew References:

17:8

Rhetorical Question

A rhetorical question is a question that a speaker asks when he is more interested in expressing his attitude about something than in getting information about it. Speakers use rhetorical questions to express deep emotion or to encourage hearers to think deeply about something. The Bible contains many rhetorical questions, often to express surprise, to rebuke or scold the hearer, or to teach. Speakers of some languages use rhetorical questions for other purposes as well.

Description

A rhetorical question is a question that strongly expresses the speaker's attitude toward something. Often the speaker is not looking for information at all. Or, if he is asking for information, it is not usually the information that the question appears to ask for. The speaker is more interested in expressing his attitude than in getting information.

> But those who stood by said, "Are you insulting the high priest of God?"(Acts 23:4 ULT)

The people who asked Paul this question were not asking if he was insulting God's high priest. Rather, they used this question to accuse Paul of insulting the high priest.

The Bible contains many rhetorical questions. These rhetorical questions might be used for the purposes: of expressing attitudes or feelings, rebuking people, teaching something by reminding people of something they know and encouraging them to apply it to something new, or introducing something they want to talk about.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Some languages do not use rhetorical questions; for them a question is always a request for information.
- Some languages use rhetorical questions, but for purposes that are different or more limited than in the Bible.
- Because of these differences between languages, some readers might misunderstand the purpose of a rhetorical question in the Bible.

Examples From the Bible

> Do you not still rule the kingdom of Israel? (1 Kings 21:7b ULT)

Jezebel used the question above to remind King Ahab of something he already knew: he still ruled the kingdom of Israel. The rhetorical question made her point more strongly than if she had merely stated it, because it forced Ahab to admit the point himself. She did this in order to rebuke him for being unwilling to take over a poor man's property. She was implying that, since he was the king of Israel, he had the power to take the man's property.

> Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULT)

God used the question above to remind his people of something they already knew: a young woman would never forget her jewelry or a bride forget her veils. He then rebuked his people for forgetting him who is so much greater than those things.

> But you, why do you judge your brother? And you also, why do you despise your brother? (Romans 14:10 ULT)

Paul used these rhetorical questions to rebuke the Romans for doing what they should not do.

> Why did I not die when I came out from the womb? (Job 3:11a ULT)

Job used the question above to show deep emotion. This rhetorical question expresses how sad he was that he did not die as soon as he was born. He wished that he had not lived.

> And how has this happened to me that the mother of my Lord would come to me? (Luke 1:43 ULT)

Elizabeth used the question above to show how surprised and happy she was that the mother of her Lord came to her.

> Or what man is there among you, of whom his son will ask for a loaf of bread, but he will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULT)

Jesus used the question above to remind the people of something they already knew: a good father would never give his son something bad to eat. By introducing this point, Jesus could go on to teach them about God with his next rhetorical question:

> Therefore, if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him? (Matthew 7:11 ULT)

Jesus used this question to teach the people in an emphatic way that God gives good things to those who ask him.

> What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to? It is like a mustard seed that a man took and threw into his garden … (Luke 13:18b-19a ULT)

Jesus used the question above to introduce what he was going to talk about. He was about to compare the kingdom of God to something. In this case, he compared the kingdom of God to a mustard seed.

Translation Strategies

In order to translate a rhetorical question accurately, first be sure that the question you are translating truly is a rhetorical question and is not an information question. Ask yourself, "Does the person asking the question already know the answer to the question?" If so, it is a rhetorical question. Or, if no one answers the question, did the person who asked it expect to receive an answer? If not, it is a rhetorical question.

When you are sure that the question is rhetorical, then be sure that you understand the purpose for the rhetorical question. Is it to encourage or rebuke or shame the hearer? Is it to bring up a new topic? Is it to express surprise or other emotion? Is it to do something else?

When you know the purpose of the rhetorical question, then think of the most natural way to express that purpose in the target language. It might be as a question, or a statement, or an exclamation.

If using the rhetorical question would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider doing so. If not, here are other options:

(1) Add the answer after the question.
(2) Change the rhetorical question to a statement or exclamation.
(3) Change the rhetorical question to a statement, and then follow it with a short question.
(4) Change the form of the question so that it communicates in your language what the original speaker communicated in his.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Add the answer after the question.

> Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULT)
>
> > Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Of course not! Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number!

> Or what man is there among you, of whom his son will ask for a loaf of bread, but he will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULT)

> > Or what man is there among you, of whom his son will ask for a loaf of bread, but he will give him a stone? None of you would do that!

(2) Change the rhetorical question to a statement or exclamation.

> What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to? It is like a mustard seed. (Luke 13:18-19a ULT)
>
> > This is what the kingdom of God is like. It is like a mustard seed …

> Are you insulting the high priest of God? (Acts 23:4b ULT) (Acts 23:4 ULT)
>
> > You should not insult God's high priest!

> Why did I not die when I came out from the womb? (Job 3:11a ULT)
>
> > I wish I had died when I came out from the womb!

> And how has this happened to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? (Luke 1:43 ULT)
>
> > How wonderful it is that the mother of my Lord has come to me!

(3) Change the rhetorical question to a statement, and then follow it with a short question.

> Do you not still rule the kingdom of Israel? (1 Kings 21:7b ULT)
>
> > You still rule the kingdom of Israel, do you not?

(4) Change the form of the question so that it communicates in your language what the orignal speaker communicated in his.

> Or what man is there among you, of whom his son will ask for a loaf of bread, but he will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULT)
>
> > If your son asks you for a loaf of bread, would you give him a stone?

> Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULT)

> What virgin would forget her jewelry, and what bride would forget her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number!

> But you, why do you judge your brother? And you also, why do you despise your brother? (Romans 14:10 ULT)
>
> > Do you think it is good to judge your brother? Do you think it is good to despise your brother?

Matthew References:

3:7; 3:14; 5:13; 5:46; 5:46; 5:47; 5:47; 6:intro; 6:25; 6:26; 6:27; 6:28; 6:30; 7:3; 7:4; 7:9; 7:10; 7:11; 7:16; 7:22; 8:intro; 8:26; 8:27; 8:29; 8:29; 9:4; 9:5; 9:11; 9:15; 10:29; 11:7; 11:8; 11:9; 11:16; 11:23; 12:3-4; 12:5; 12:11; 12:12; 12:23; 12:26; 12:27; 12:29; 12:34; 12:48; 13:27; 13:27; 13:54; 13:55; 13:56; 13:56; 14:31; 15:2; 15:3; 15:12; 15:16; 15:17; 15:33; 16:3; 16:8; 16:9; 16:10; 16:11; 16:26; 16:26; 17:17; 18:12; 18:12; 18:33; 19:4-5; 19:17; 19:25; 20:13; 20:15; 20:15; 21:16; 21:25; 21:28; 21:42; 22:12; 22:17; 22:18; 22:31-32; 22:42; 23:17; 23:19; 23:33; 24:2; 24:45; 25:26; 25:37-39; 25:44; 26:8; 26:10; 26:22; 26:25; 26:40; 26:45; 26:45; 26:50; 26:53; 26:54; 26:55; 26:65; 26:68; 27:4; 27:23

Simile

Description

A simile is a comparison of two things that are not normally thought to be similar. The simile focuses on a particular trait the two items have in common, and it includes the words “like,” “as,” or “than.”

> When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were troubled and discouraged, like sheep not having a shepherd. (Matthew 9:36)

Jesus compared the crowds of people to sheep without a shepherd. Sheep grow frightened when they do not have a good shepherd to lead them in safe places. The crowds were like that because they did not have good religious leaders.

> See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be as wise as the serpents and harmless as the doves. (Matthew 10:16 ULT)

Jesus compared his disciples to sheep and their enemies to wolves. Wolves attack sheep; Jesus’ enemies would attack his disciples.

> For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword. (Hebrews 4:12a ULT)

God’s word is compared to a two-edged sword. A two-edged sword is a weapon that can easily cut through a person’s flesh. God’s word is very effective in showing what is in a person’s heart and thoughts.

Purposes of Simile

- A simile can teach about something that is unknown by showing how it is similar to something that is known.
- A simile can emphasize a particular trait, sometimes in a way that gets people's attention.
- Similes help form a picture in the mind or help the reader experience what he is reading about more fully.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- People may not know how the two items are similar.
- People may not be familiar with both of the items being compared.

Examples From the Bible

> Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. (2 Timothy 2:3 ULT)

In this simile, Paul compares suffering with what soldiers endure, and he encourages Timothy to follow their example.

> Just as the lightning flashing from a place under the sky shines to another place under the sky, so will the Son of Man be. (Luke 17:24b ULT)

This verse does not tell how the Son of Man will be like the lightning. But in context we can understand from the verses before it that just as lighting flashes suddenly and everyone can see it, the Son of Man will come suddenly and everyone will be able to see him. No one will have to be told about it.

Translation Strategies

If people would understand the correct meaning of a simile, consider using it. If they would not, here are some strategies you can use:

(1) If people do not know how the two items are alike, tell how they are alike. However, do not do this if the meaning was not clear to the original audience.

(2) If people are not familiar with the item that something is compared to, use an item from your own culture. Be sure that it is one that could have been used in the cultures of the Bible. If you use this strategy, you may want to put the original item in a footnote.
(3) Simply describe the item without comparing it to another.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If people do not know how the two items are alike, tell how they are alike. However, do not do this if the meaning was not clear to the original audience.

> See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. (Matthew 10:16a ULT) — This compares the danger that Jesus' disciples would be in with the danger that sheep are in when they are surrounded by wolves.
>
> > See, I send you out among wicked people and you will be in danger from them as sheep are in danger when they are among wolves.
>
> For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword. (Hebrews 4:12a ULT)
>
> > For the word of God is living and active and more powerful than a very sharp two-edged sword.

(2) If people are not familiar with the item that something is compared to, use an item from your own culture. Be sure that it is one that could have been used in the cultures of the Bible. If you use this strategy, you may want to put the original item in a footnote.

> See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, (Matthew 10:16a ULT) — If people do not know what sheep and wolves are, or that wolves kill and eat sheep, you could use some other animal that kills another.
>
> > See, I send you out as chickens in the midst of wild dogs.
>
> How often did I long to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you were not willing! (Matthew 23:37b ULT)
>
> > How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a mother closely watches over her infants, but you refused!
>
> If you have faith as a grain of mustard … (Matthew 17:20)
>
> > If you have faith even as small as a tiny seed,

(3) Simply describe the item without comparing it to another.

> See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. (Matthew 10:16a ULT)
>
> > See, I send you out among people who will want to harm you.

> How often did I long to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you were not willing! (Matthew 23:37b ULT)
>
> > How often I wanted to protect you, but you refused!

Matthew References:

3:16; 7:24; 7:26; 9:36; 10:16; 10:16; 10:16; 11:16; 13:40; 13:43; 13:52; 17:2; 17:2; 17:20; 18:3; 18:4; 18:14; 18:17; 19:14; 19:19; 22:30; 22:39; 23:27; 23:37; 24:27; 24:37; 24:39; 25:32; 26:55; 28:3; 28:3; 28:4

Singular Pronouns that refer to Groups

Description

The Bible was written in Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek. These languages have a singular form of “you” for when the word “you” refers to just one person, and a plural form for when the word “you” refers to more than one person. However, sometimes speakers in the Bible used the singular form of “you” even though they were speaking to a group of people. This is not obvious when you read the Bible in English because English does not have different forms that indicate where “you” is singular and where “you” is plural. But you may see this if you read a Bible in a language that does have distinct forms.

Also, speakers and writers of the Old Testament often referred to groups of people with the singular pronoun “he,” rather than with the plural pronoun “they.”

Finally, Old Testament speakers and writers sometimes referred to actions that they performed as part of a group by saying ‘I’ did it when, really, the whole group was involved.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- For many languages, a translator who reads a Bible with a general form of “you” will need to know whether the speaker was speaking to one person or to more than one.
- In some languages, it might be confusing if a speaker uses a singular pronoun when speaking to or about more than one person.

Examples From the Bible

> 1 Now take heed that you do not do your acts of righteousness before people to be seen by them, otherwise you will not have a reward with your Father who is in heaven. 2 So when you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before yourself as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may have the praise of people. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward. (Matthew 6:1-2 ULT)

Jesus said this to a crowd. He used “you” plural in verse 1, and “you” singular in the first sentence of verse 2. Then, in the last sentence, he used the plural again.

> God spoke all these words: “I am Yahweh, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. You must have no other gods before me.” (Exodus 20:1-3 ULT)

God said this to all the people of Israel. He had taken them all out of Egypt and he wanted them all to obey him, but he used the singular form of you here when speaking to them.

> This is what Yahweh says,
> “For three sins of Edom,
> even for four,
> I will not turn away punishment,
> because he pursued his brother with the sword
> and cast off all pity.
> His anger raged continually,
> and his wrath lasted forever.” (Amos 1:11 ULT)

Yahweh said these things about the nation of Edom, not about only one person.

> And I arose in the night, myself and a few men with me. And I was going up by the wadi at night, and I was looking intently at the wall. And I turned back, and I entered by the gate of the valley, and I returned. (Nehemiah 2:12a,15 ULT)

Nehemiah makes clear that he brought other people with him on his inspection tour of the wall of Jerusalem. But as he describes the tour, he just says “I” did this and that.

Translation Strategies

If the singular form of the pronoun would be natural when referring to a group of people, consider using it.

(1) If using the singular form of the pronoun when referring to a group of people would not be natural in your language, use the plural form of the pronoun.

- Whether you can use use the singular form of the pronoun may depend on who the speaker is and who the people are that he is talking about or talking to.
- It may also depend on what the speaker is saying.

Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If using the singular form of the pronoun when referring to a group of people would not be natural in your language, use the plural form of the pronoun.

> This is what Yahweh says,
> "For three sins of Edom,
> even for four,
> I will not turn away punishment,
> because he pursued his brother with the sword
> and cast off all pity.
> His anger raged continually,
> and his wrath lasted forever." (Amos 1:11 ULT)

> > This is what Yahweh says,
> > "For three sins of Edom,
> > even for four,
> > I will not turn away punishment,
> > because they pursued their brothers with the sword
> > and cast off all pity.
> > Their anger raged continually,
> > and their wrath lasted forever."

> And I arose in the night, myself and a few men with me. And I was going up by the wadi at night, and I was looking intently at the wall. And I turned back, and I entered by the gate of the valley, and I returned. (Nehemiah 2:12a,15 ULT)

> > And I arose in the night, myself and a few men with me. … And we were going up by the wadi at night and we were looking intently at the wall. And we turned back and we entered by the gate of the valley, and we returned.

Matthew References:

5:23; 5:24; 5:25; 5:26; 5:29; 5:30; 5:36; 5:39; 5:40; 5:41; 5:42; 6:2; 6:3; 6:6; 6:17; 6:18; 6:22; 6:23; 7:3; 7:4; 7:5; 12:37; 18:8; 18:9; 18:15; 18:16; 18:17

Statements — Other Uses

Description

Normally statements are used to give information. Sometimes they are used in the Bible for other functions.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Some languages would not use a statement for some of the functions that statements are used for in the Bible.

Examples From the Bible

Statements are normally used to give information. All of the sentences in John 1:6-8 below are statements, and their function is to give information.

> There was a man who was sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness in order to testify about the light, that all might believe through him. John was not the light, but came that he might testify about the light. (John 1:6-8 ULT)

A statement can also be used as a command to tell someone what to do. In the examples below, the high priest used statements with the verb “will” to tell people what to do.

> He commanded them, saying, “This is what you must do. A third of you who come on the Sabbath will keep watch over the king’s house, and a third will be at the Sur Gate, and a third at the gate behind the guardhouse.” (2 Kings 11:5 ULT)

A statement can also be used to give instructions. The speaker below was not just telling Joseph about something Joseph would do in the future; he was telling Joseph what he needed to do.

> She will give birth to a son, and you will call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins. (Matthew 1:21 ULT)

A statement can also be used to make a request. The man with leprosy was not just saying what Jesus was able to do. He was also asking Jesus to heal him.

> Behold, a leper came to him and bowed before him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you are able to make me clean." (Matthew 8:2 ULT)

A statement can also be used to perform something. By telling Adam that the ground was cursed because of him, God actually cursed it.

> … cursed is the ground because of you; (Genesis 3:17b ULT)

By telling a man that his sins were forgiven, Jesus forgave the man's sins.

> When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralyzed man, "Son, your sins are forgiven." (Mark 2:5 ULT)

Translation Strategies

(1) If the function of a statement would not be understood correctly in your language, use a sentence type that would express that function.
(2) If the function of a statement would not be understood correctly in your language, add a sentence type that would express that function.
(3) If the function of a statement would not be understood correctly in your language, use a verb form that would express that function.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the function of a statement would not be understood correctly in your language, use a sentence type that would express that function.

> She will give birth to a son, and you will call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins. (Matthew 1:21 ULT)

The phrase "you will call his name Jesus" is an instruction. It can be translated using the sentence type of a normal instruction.

> > She will give birth to a son. Name him Jesus, > > because he will save his people from their sins.

(2) If the function of a statement would not be understood correctly in your language, add a sentence type that would express that function.

> Lord, if you are willing, you are able to make me clean. (Matthew 8:2 ULT)

The function of "you are able" is to make a request. In addition to the statement, a request can be added.

> > Lord, you are able to make me clean. If you are > > willing, please do so.
> > OR:

> > Lord, if you are willing, please heal me. I know that you are able to do so.

(3) If the function of a statement would not be understood correctly in your language, use a verb form that would express that function.

> She will give birth to a son, and you will call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins. (Matthew 1:21 ULT)
>
> > She will give birth to a son, and you must call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.
>
> Son, your sins are forgiven. (Mark 2:5 ULT)
>
> > Son, I forgive your sins.
> > OR:
> > Son, God hereby forgives your sins.

Matthew References:

4:4; 4:7; 4:10; 8:2; 18:21; 20:26; 20:26; 20:27; 22:24; 22:37; 22:39; 23:11; 26:63; 26:64; 27:65

Symbolic Action

Description

A symbolic action is something that someone does in order to express a certain idea. For example, in some cultures people nod their heads up and down to mean “yes” or turn their heads from side to side to mean “no.” Symbolic actions do not mean the same things in all cultures. In the Bible, sometimes people perform symbolic actions and sometimes they only refer to the symbolic action.

Examples of symbolic actions

- In some cultures people shake hands when they meet to show that they are willing to be friendly.
- In some cultures people bow when they meet to show respect to each other.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

An action may have a meaning in one culture and a different meaning or no meaning at all in another culture. For example, in some cultures raising the eyebrows means “I am surprised” or “What did you say?” In other cultures it means “yes.”

In the Bible, people did things that had certain meanings in their culture. When we read the Bible, we might not understand what someone meant if we interpret the action based on what it means in our own culture today.

You (the translator) need to understand what people in the Bible meant when they used symbolic actions. If an action does not mean the same thing in your own culture, then you need to figure out how to translate what the action meant.

Examples From the Bible

> And behold, a man came whose name was Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And falling at the feet of Jesus, he begged him to come to his house. (Luke 8:41 ULT)

Meaning of symbolic action: He did this to show great respect to Jesus.

> Look, I am standing at the door and am knocking. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come into him and will eat with him, and he with me. (Revelation 3:20 ULT)

Meaning of symbolic action: When people wanted someone to welcome them into their home, they stood at the door and knocked on it.

Translation Strategies

If people would correctly understand what a symbolic action meant to the people in the Bible, consider using it. If not, here are some strategies for translating it.

(1) Tell what the person did and why he did it.
(2) Do not tell what the person did, but tell what he meant.
(3) Use an action from your own culture that has the same meaning. Do this only in poetry, parables, and sermons. Do not do this when there actually was a person who did a specific action.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Tell what the person did and why he did it.

> And falling at the feet of Jesus (Luke 8:41 ULT)
>
> > Jairus fell down at Jesus' feet in order to show that he greatly respected him.

> Look, I am standing at the door and am knocking. (Revelation 3:20 ULT)

> > Look, I stand at the door and knock on it, asking you to let me in.

(2) Do not tell what the person did, but tell what he meant.

> And falling at the feet of Jesus (Luke 8:41 ULT)
>
> > Jairus showed Jesus great respect.

> Look, I am standing at the door and am knocking. (Revelation 3:20 ULT)
>
> > Look, I stand at the door and ask you to let me in.

(3) Use an action from your own culture that has the same meaning.

> And falling at the feet of Jesus (Luke 8:41 ULT) — Since Jairus actually did this, you should not substitute an action from your own culture.

> Look, I am standing at the door and am knocking. (Revelation 3:20 ULT) — Jesus was not standing at a real door. Rather he was speaking about wanting to have a relationship with people. So in cultures where it is > polite to clear one's throat when wanting to be let into a house, you could use that.

>
> > Look, I stand at the door and clear my throat.

Matthew References:

10:14; 11:21; 12:41; 12:42; 12:49; 14:19; 15:25; 17:14; 18:26; 18:29; 19:13; 19:15; 19:28; 19:28; 20:20; 20:21; 20:23; 21:8; 22:13; 22:44; 22:44; 23:22; 25:30; 26:39; 26:48; 26:49; 26:55; 26:64; 26:65; 26:67; 27:19; 27:24; 27:29; 27:30; 27:39; 28:9

Synecdoche

Description

Synecdoche is a figure of speech in which a speaker uses a part of something to refer to the whole thing, or uses the whole to refer to a part.

> My soul magnifies the Lord. (Luke 1:46b ULT)

Mary was was very happy about what the Lord was doing, so she said "my soul," which means the inner, emotional part of herself, to refer to her whole self.

> So the Pharisees said to him, "Look, why are they doing that which is not lawful?" (Mark 2:24a ULT)

The Pharisees who were standing there did not all say the same words at the same time. Instead, it is more likely that one man representing the group said those words.

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue

- Some readers may not recognize the synecdoche and thus misunderstand the words as a literal statement.
- Some readers may realize that they are not to understand the words literally, but they may not know what the meaning is.

Example From the Bible

> Then I looked on all the deeds that my hands had accomplished.
> (Ecclesiastes 2:11a ULT)

"My hands" is a synecdoche for the whole person because clearly the arms and the rest of the body and the mind were also involved in the person's accomplishments. The hands are chosen to represent the person because they are the parts of the body most directly involved in the work.

Translation Strategies

If the synecdoche would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

(1) State specifically what the synecdoche refers to.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) State specifically what the synecdoche refers to.

> "My soul magnifies the Lord." (Luke 1:46b ULT)
>
> > "I magnify the Lord."
>
> So the Pharisees said to him … (Mark 2:24a ULT)
>
> > Arepresentative of the Pharisees said to him …
>
> Then I looked on all the deeds that my hands had accomplished. (Ecclesiastes 2:11a ULT)
>
> > I looked on all the deeds that I had accomplished

Matthew References:

3:3; 3:17; 4:6; 6:11; 10:10; 11:29; 12:18; 12:34; 13:16; 15:2; 15:26; 15:33; 24:22; 24:38; 26:23; 26:38

Textual Variants

Description

Thousands of years ago, people wrote the books of the Bible. Other people then copied them by hand and translated them. They did this work very carefully, and over the years many people made thousands of copies. However, people who looked at them later saw that there were small differences between them. Some copiers accidentally left out some words, or some mistook one word for another that looked like it. Occasionally, they added words or even whole sentences, either by accident or because they wanted to explain something. Modern Bibles are translations of the old copies. Some modern Bibles include some of these sentences that were added. In the ULT, these added sentences are usually written in footnotes.

Bible scholars have read many old copies and compared them with each other. For each place in the Bible where there was a difference, they have figured out which wordings are most likely correct. The translators of the ULT based the ULT New Testament on wordings that scholars say are most likely correct. The ULT Old Testament is based on the Westminster Leningrad Codex, which is considered to be the best representative of the ancient copies. Because people who use the ULT may have access to Bibles that are based on other copies, the ULT translators have sometimes included information about some of the differences between them, either in the ULT footnotes or in the unfoldingWord® Translation Notes.

Translators are encouraged to translate the text in the ULT and to write about added sentences in footnotes, as is done in the ULT. However, if the local church really wants those sentences to be included in the main text, translators may put them in the text and include a footnote about them.

Examples From the Bible

Matthew 18:10-11 ULT has a footnote about verse 11.

> [10] See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I say to you that in heaven their angels always look on the face of my Father who is in heaven. [11] [1]

> [1] Many authorities, some ancient, insert v. 11: For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.

John 7:53-8:11 is not in the best earliest copies. It has been included in the ULT, but it is marked off with square brackets ([ ]) at the beginning and end, and there is a footnote after verse 11.

> 53 [Then everyone went to his own house … 11 She said, “No one, Lord.” Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more.”] [2]
>
> [2] Some ancient manuscripts include John 7:53-8:11

Psalm 100:3 ULT follows the Westminster Leningrad Codex. It says:

> Know that Yahweh, he {is} God; he, he made us, and not we,

There are some other ancient copies that say:

> Know that Yahweh, he {is} God; he, he made us, and we are his,

There is an unfoldingWord® Translation Note at that place to tell the translator about this other reading and that either one is an acceptable choice.

Translation Strategies

When there is a textual variant, you may choose to follow the ULT or another version that you have access to.

(1) Translate the verses as they are in the ULT and include a footnote about the alternate reading such as the one that the ULT provides or one in the unfoldingWord® Translation Notes.

(2) Translate the verses as another version has them, and change the footnote so that it fits this situation.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

The translation strategies are applied to Mark 7:14-16 ULT, which has a footnote about verse 16.

> 14 He called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, > and understand. 15 There is nothing from outside the man that can defile > him when it enters into him. But the things that come out of the man are > the things that defile the man.” 16 [1]

> [1] Some ancient manuscripts include verse 16: If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

(1) Translate the verses as they are in the ULT and include the footnote that the ULT provides.

> 14 He called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you,
> and understand. 15 There is nothing from outside the man that can defile > him when it enters into him. But the things that come out of the man are > the things that defile the man.” 16 [1]
>
> > [1] Some ancient manuscripts include verse 16: If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

(2) Translate the verses as another version has them, and change the footnote so that it fits this situation.

> 14 He called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you,
> and understand. 15There is nothing from outside the man that can defile > him when it enters into him. But the things that come out of the man are > the things that defile the man. 16 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.”
> [1]
>
> > [1] Some ancient manuscripts do not include verse 16.

Matthew References:

front:intro; 5:11; 5:22; 5:44; 5:47; 6:4; 6:6; 6:13; 6:15; 6:18; 6:25; 6:33; 7:14; 8:10; 8:18; 8:28; 9:8; 10:3; 11:15; 11:19; 11:23; 12:47; 13:9; 14:24; 15:4; 15:6; 15:14; 15:39; 16:2-3; 17:intro; 17:4; 17:21; 18:intro; 18:11; 18:14; 18:15; 19:9; 19:29; 20:16; 20:22; 20:23; 21:intro; 21:29-31; 21:44; 23:intro; 23:14; 24:7; 24:36; 25:13; 26:28; 27:16; 27:17; 27:24; 27:35; 28:9; 28:20

Third-Person Imperatives

Description

The languages of the Bible have verb forms that can give commands, instructions or other directive speech in the third person. In other words, these directives address “he,” “she,” “it,” or “they” rather than “you.”

Reasons This Is a Translation Issue:

Many languages, including English, do not have these verb forms and so they must communicate this kind of directive speech in other ways. In English, we normally represent these third-person imperatives by putting “let” before the subject or verb. This is actually one of the translation strategies, since English does not have third-person imperatives.

Examples From the Bible

> Let your kingdom come, let your will be done as in heaven also on earth. (Matthew 6:9 ULT)

In this prayer, Jesus uses two third–person imperatives. The first one tells God’s kingdom to come, and the second one tells God’s will to be done. Of course, a kingdom and a will cannot hear Jesus, so Jesus is using these verb forms to communicate to God that Jesus desires that these things happen.

> Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a “fool,” that he may become wise. (1 Corinthians 3:18 ULT)

In this verse, Paul uses third–person imperatives to give a warning and an instruction. It may be that using this third–person form was more polite than if he had used second–person imperatives.

> But because of immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. (1 Corinthians 7:2 ULT)

Here again Paul uses two third–person imperatives to instruct the Corinthian church. Since he had just recommended a celibate life in the previous verse, these imperatives have the sense of giving advice rather than command.

> Then God said, "Let there be light." And there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULT)

The Biblical Hebrew verb form used here is equivalent to the third–person imperative in Greek. Here, God commands in the third person that light come into existence, so it does.

> …let him do to me just as {is} good in his eyes. (2 Samuel 15:26 ULT)

David uses the third-person form to express his willingness for God to do to him whatever God wants to do.

Translation Strategies

If your language has third-person imperative forms and would use them in the way that the biblical languages do, then please use them. If not, then consider these strategies.

(1) Use a form that your language has that indicates that this is the will or wish of the speaker.
(2) If appropriate, use a second-person imperative.
(3) Use an explicit reference to the function of the imperative.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use a form that your language has that indicates that this is the will or wish of the speaker.

> Let your kingdom come, let your will be done as in heaven also on earth. (Matthew 6:9 ULT)

(Since English does not have third-person imperatives, it follows this strategy and uses “let” to indicate that this is the will or wish of the speaker.)

> > May your kingdom come, may your will be done as in heaven also on earth.

> Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a “fool,” that he may become wise. (1 Corinthians 3:18 ULT)

(Since English does not have third-person imperatives, it follows this strategy and uses “let” to indicate that this is the will or wish of the speaker.)

> > No one should deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, he should become a “fool,” that he may become wise.

> …let him do to me just as {is} good in his eyes. (2 Samuel 15:26 ULT)

(Since English does not have third-person imperatives, it follows this strategy and uses “let” to indicate that this is the will or wish of the speaker.)

> > …he may do to me just as {is} good in his eyes. (2 Samuel 15:26 ULT)

(2) If appropriate, use a second-person imperative.

> Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a “fool,” that he may become wise. (1 Corinthians 3:18 ULT)

> > Do not deceive yourselves. If you think you are wise in this age, then become a “fool,” that you may become wise.

> Then God said, “Let there be light.” And there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULT)

> > Then God said, “Light, come into being.” And there was light.

> …let him do to me just as {is} good in his eyes. (2 Samuel 15:26 ULT)

> > …Yahweh, do to me just as {is} good in your eyes.

(3) Use an explicit reference to the function of the imperative.

> Let your kingdom come, let your will be done as in heaven also on earth. (Matthew 6:9 ULT)

> > We pray that your kingdom come, we pray that your will be done as in heaven also on earth.

> Then God said, “Let there be light.” And there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULT)

> > Then God said, “I command light to be.” And there was light.

> But because of immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. (1 Corinthians 7:2 ULT)

> > But because of immorality, I advise each man to have his own wife, and I advise each woman to have her own husband.

> …let him do to me just as {is} good in his eyes. (2 Samuel 15:26 ULT)

> > …he has my permission to do to me just as {is} good in his eyes.

See also Imperatives – Other Uses

Matthew References:

5:16; 5:31; 5:37; 6:9; 6:10; 8:13; 9:29; 10:13; 11:15; 15:4; 15:28; 16:24; 18:17; 19:6; 19:12; 24:15; 24:16; 24:17; 24:18; 26:39; 26:42; 27:22; 27:42; 27:43

Translate Unknowns

While working to translate the Bible, you (the translator) might find yourself asking: “How do I translate words like lion, fig tree, mountain, priest, or temple when people in my culture have never seen these things and we do not have a word for them?”

Description

Unknowns are things that occur in the source text that are not known to the people of your culture. The unfoldingWord® Translation Words pages and the unfoldingWord® Translation Notes will help you understand what they are. After you understand them, you will need to find ways to refer to those things so that people who read your translation will understand what they are.

> They said to him, “We have nothing here except five loaves of bread and two fish.” (Matthew 14:17 ULT)

Bread is a particular food made by mixing finely crushed grains with oil, and then cooking the mixture so that it is dry. (Grains are the seeds of a kind of grass.) In some cultures people do not have bread and do not know what it is.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- Readers may not know some of the things that are in the Bible because those things are not part of their own culture.
- Readers may have difficulty understanding a text if they do not know some of the things that are mentioned in it.

Translation Principles

- Use words that are already part of your language if possible.
- Keep expressions short if possible.
- Represent God’s commands and historical facts accurately.

Examples From the Bible

> So I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals. (Jeremiah 9:11a ULT)

Jackals are wild animals like dogs that live in only a few parts of the world. So they are not known in many places.

> Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. (Matthew 7:15 ULT)

If wolves do not live where the translation will be read, the readers may not understand that they are fierce, wild animals like dogs that attack and eat sheep.

> They offered him wine mixed with myrrh, but he did not drink it. (Mark 15:23 ULT)

People may not know what myrrh is and that it was used as a medicine.

> … to him who made great lights … (Psalm 136:7a ULT)

Some languages have terms for things that give light, like the sun and fire, but they have no general term for lights.

> Your sins … will be white like snow. (Isaiah 1:18b ULT)

People in many parts of the world have not seen snow, but they may have seen it in pictures.

Translation Strategies

Here are ways you might translate a term that is not known in your language:

(1) Use a phrase that describes what the unknown item is, or what is important about the unknown item for the verse being translated.
(2) Substitute something similar from your language if doing so does not falsely represent a historical fact.
(3) Copy the word from another language, and add a general word or descriptive phrase to help people understand it.
(4) Use a word that is more general in meaning.
(5) Use a word or phrase that is more specific in meaning.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use a phrase that describes what the unknown item is, or what is important about the unknown item for the verse being translated.

> Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are inwardly they are ravenous wolves. (Matthew 7:15 ULT)
>
> > Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are very hungry and dangerous animals.

"Ravenous wolves" is part of a metaphor here, so the reader needs to know that they are very dangerous to sheep in order to understand this metaphor. (If sheep are also unknown, then you will need to also use one of the translation strategies to translate sheep, or change the metaphor to something else, using a translation strategy for metaphors. See Translating Metaphors.)

> "We have nothing here except five loaves of bread and two fish." (Matthew 14:17 ULT)

> > We have nothing here except five loaves of baked grain seeds and two fish.

(2) Substitute something similar from your language if doing so does not falsely represent a historical fact.

> Your sins … will be white like snow. (Isaiah 1:18b ULT) This verse is not about snow. It uses snow in a figure of speech to help people understand how white something will be.
>
> > Your sins … will be white like milk.
> >
> > Your sins … will be white like the moon.

(3) Copy the word from another language, and add a general word or descriptive phrase to help people understand it.

> Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with myrrh. But he refused to drink it. (Mark 15:23 ULT) — People may understand better what myrrh is if it is used with the general word “medicine.”
>
> > Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with a medicine called myrrh. But he refused to drink it.

> "We have nothing here except five loaves of bread and two fish." (Matthew 14:17 ULT) — People may understand better what bread is if it is used with a phrase that tells what it is made of (seeds) and how it is prepared (crushed and baked).
>
> > We have nothing here except five loaves of baked crushed seed bread and two fish.

(4) Use a word that is more general in meaning.

> I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals (Jeremiah 9:11a ULT)
>
> > I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for wild dogs

> "We have nothing here except five loaves of bread and two fish." (Matthew 14:17 ULT)
>
> > We have nothing here except five loaves of baked food and two fish.

(5) Use a word or phrase that is more specific in meaning.

> … to him who made great lights … (Psalm 136:7a ULT)
>
> > to him who made the sun and the moon

Matthew References:

3:4; 3:7; 3:12; 3:12; 4:18; 4:20; 4:21; 4:24; 4:24; 5:15; 5:18; 5:25; 5:31; 5:40; 6:6; 6:19; 6:19; 6:20; 6:26; 6:28; 6:28; 7:3; 7:3; 7:4; 7:4; 7:5; 7:5; 7:6; 7:6; 7:8; 7:16; 7:26; 8:6; 8:14; 8:20; 9:2; 9:2; 9:6; 9:6; 9:23; 9:32; 9:33; 10:9; 10:9; 10:10; 10:27; 10:29; 10:31; 11:16; 11:19; 12:1; 12:1; 12:4; 12:10; 12:20; 12:22; 12:23; 12:40; 13:2; 13:25; 13:26; 13:27; 13:29; 13:30; 13:30; 13:31; 13:32; 13:36; 13:38; 13:45; 13:45; 13:46; 13:47; 13:48; 13:55; 14:6; 14:8; 14:11; 14:17; 14:19; 14:20; 14:25; 14:26; 15:17; 15:26; 15:27; 15:34; 15:37; 16:9; 16:9; 16:10; 16:10; 16:19; 17:2; 17:4; 17:15; 17:20; 17:27; 18:6; 18:6; 19:7; 19:24; 21:2; 21:5; 21:5; 21:7; 21:33; 21:33; 21:41; 22:4; 22:11; 22:12; 22:16; 22:20; 22:35; 23:5; 23:5; 23:15; 23:23; 23:24; 23:25; 23:26; 23:37; 24:20; 24:26; 24:28; 24:32; 24:41; 25:27; 26:7; 26:7; 26:7; 26:12; 26:18; 26:20; 26:30; 26:34; 26:47; 26:53; 26:55; 26:58; 26:74; 26:75; 27:6; 27:19; 27:26; 27:27; 27:27; 27:28; 27:32; 27:35; 27:48; 27:48; 27:59; 27:59; 27:60; 28:3

Translating Son and Father

Door43 supports Bible translations that represent these concepts when they refer to God.

Biblical Witness

"Father" and "Son" are names that God calls himself in the Bible.

The Bible shows that God called Jesus his Son:

> After he was baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water, and … a voice came out of the heavens saying, "This is my beloved Son. I am very pleased with him." (Matthew 3:16-17 ULT)

The Bible shows that Jesus called God his Father:

> Jesus … said, "I praise you Father, Lord of heaven and earth … no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son." (Matthew 11:25a, 27b ULT) (See also: John 6:26-57)

Christians have found that "Father" and "Son" are the ideas that most essentially describe the eternal relationship of the First and Second Persons of the Trinity to each other. The Bible indeed refers to them in various ways, but no other terms reflect the eternal love and intimacy between these Persons, nor the interdependent eternal relationship between them.

Jesus referred to God in the following terms:

> Baptize them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. (Matthew 28:19b ULT)

The intimate, loving relationship between the Father and the Son is eternal, just as they are eternal. The Father loves the Son. (See John 3:35-36; 5:19-20 ULT)

> I love the Father, and just as the Father commanded me, thus I do. (John 14:31 ULT)
>
> No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son. (Luke 10:22b ULT)

The terms "Father" and "Son" also communicate that the Father and the Son are of the same essence; they are both eternal God.

> Jesus said, "Father, … glorify your Son so that the Son will glorify you … I glorified you on the earth … Now Father, glorify me … with the glory that I had with you before the world was made." (John 17:1, 4a, 5 ULT)
>
> But in these last days, {God the Father} has spoken to us through a Son, whom he appointed to be the heir of all things. Through him, he also made the universe. He is the brightness of God's glory and the very exact representation of his being. He holds everything together by the word of his power. (Hebrews 1:2-3a ULT)
>
> Jesus said to him, "I have been with you for so long and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'?" (John 14:9 ULT)

Human Relationships

Human fathers and sons are not perfect, but the Bible still uses those terms for the Father and Son, who are perfect.

Just as today, human father-son relationships during Bible times were never as loving or perfect as the relationship between Jesus and his Father. But this does not mean that the translator should avoid the concepts of father and son. The Scriptures use these terms to refer to God, the perfect Father and Son, as well as to sinful human fathers and sons. In referring to God as Father and Son, choose words in your language that are widely used to refer to a human "father" and "son." In this way you will communicate that God the Father and God the Son are of the same divine essence (they are both God), just as a human father and son are of the same human essence (they are both human and share the same human characteristics).

Translation Strategies

(1) Think through all the possibilities within your language to translate the words “son” and “father.” Determine which words in your language best represent the divine “Son” and “Father.”
(2) If your language has more than one word for “son,” use the word that has the closest meaning to “only son” (or “first son” if necessary).
(3) If your language has more than one word for “father,” use the word that has the closest meaning to “birth father,” rather than “adoptive father.”

(See God the Father and Son of God pages in unfoldingWord® Translation Words for help translating “Father” and “Son.”)

Matthew References:

3:17; 4:3; 4:6; 5:45; 7:21; 8:29; 10:20; 10:32; 10:33; 11:25; 11:26; 11:27; 12:50; 14:33; 15:13; 16:16; 16:17; 16:27; 18:10; 18:19; 18:35; 20:23; 24:36; 25:34; 26:29; 26:39; 26:42; 26:53; 26:63; 27:40; 27:43; 27:54; 28:19

Unusual Uses of the Plural

The biblical languages sometimes use plural forms to refer to single objects, ideas, or people.

Description

Using a plural form to refer to something singular is done to show an intensified feeling about the object, idea, or person, or to show that an object or idea is extraordinary in some way. Also, sometimes a person refers to himself or herself with a plural pronoun. If the person is a king or a leader in a high position, this is to show that the person is very important and represents many people. If the person is writing a letter, such as Paul in the New Testament, this is to do the opposite. It is to avoid referring directly to himself, to avoid any sense that he is boasting or drawing attention to himself.

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

Many languages do not use plural forms to refer to single objects, ideas, or people. In these languages, doing so would be both wrong and confusing. Instead, they need to use a singular form and express any intended intensification in another way.

Examples From the Bible

> The tents of robbers prosper, and securities {are} to the provokers of God (Job 12:6 ULT)

Job is using the plural form securities to indicate that these provokers of God experience security to a supreme extent.

> Now you had cast me deep into the heart of the seas (Jonah 2:3 ULT)

Jonah refers to the sea using the plural seas to intensify the idea of either the sea's vastness or activity.

> The letter that you sent to us has been carefully read aloud before me. (Ezra 4:18 ULT)

Artaxerxes, the king of Persia, refers to himself as us in response to a letter sent to him.

> …through whom [Jesus] we received grace and apostleship for obedience of faith among all the Gentiles (Romans 1:5 ULT)

Since this letter is from Paul alone, it is likely that he is using the plural we to refer to himself.

Translation Strategies

If a plural form would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, consider these strategies.

(1) Use a singular form instead of the plural.
(2) If the plural is used to intensify the meaning, use a singular form with another word that intensifies it such as “very” or “great” or “many.”
(3) If the plural is used to intensify or emphasize the meaning, use one of your language’s ways of doing that.

Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use a singular form instead of the plural.

> The letter that you sent to us has been carefully read aloud before me. (Ezra 4:18 ULT)

The letter that you sent to me has been carefully read aloud before me.

> …through whom [Jesus] we received grace and apostleship for obedience of faith among all the Gentiles (Romans 1:5 ULT)

…through whom [Jesus] I received grace and apostleship for obedience of faith among all the Gentiles

(2) If the plural is used to intensify or emphasize the meaning, use a singular form with another word that intensifies it such as “very” or “great” or “many.”

> The tents of robbers prosper, and securities {are} to the provokers of God (Job 12:6 ULT)

The tents of robbers prosper, and great security {is} to the provokers of God

> Now you had cast me deep into the heart of the seas (Jonah 2:3 ULT)

Now you had cast me deep into the heart of the great sea

(3) If the plural is used to intensify or emphasize the meaning, use one of your language’s ways of doing that.

> The tents of robbers prosper, and securities {are} to the provokers of God (Job 12:6 ULT)

The tents of robbers prosper, and the provokers of God enjoy complete security

> Now you had cast me deep into the heart of the seas (Jonah 2:3 ULT)

Now you had cast me deep into the heart of the raging sea

Matthew References:

15:19

Verse Bridges

Description

In some cases, you will see in the unfoldingWord® Simplified Text (UST) that two or more verse numbers are combined, such as 17-18. This is called a verse bridge. This means that the information in the verses was rearranged so that the story or message could be more easily understood.

> 29 These were the clans of the Horites: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, and Anah,
> 30 Dishon, Ezer, Dishan: these are clans of the Horites, according to their clan lists in the land of Seir. (Genesis 36:29-30 ULT)

> 29-30 The people groups who were descendants of Hor lived in Seir land. The names of the people groups are Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. (Genesis 36:29-30 UST)

In the ULT text, verses 29 and 30 are separate, and the information about the people living in Seir is at the end of verse 30. In the UST text, the verses are joined, and the information about them living in Seir is at the beginning. For many languages, this is a more logical order of information.

Examples From the Bible

Where the UST has a verse bridge, the ULT will have separate verses.

> 4-5 Yahweh our God will bless you in the land that he is giving to you. If you obey Yahweh our God and obey all the commandments that I am giving to you today, there will not be any poor people among you. (Deuteronomy 15:4-5 UST)

> [4] However, there should be no poor among you (for Yahweh will surely bless you in the land that he gives you as an inheritance to possess), [5] if only you diligently listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, to keep all these commandments that I am commanding you today. (Deuteronomy 15:4-5 ULT)

> [16-17] But Yahweh said to him, “I will not permit you to eat the fruit of the tree that will enable you to know what actions are good to do and what actions are evil to do. If you eat any fruit from that tree, on the day you eat it you will surely die. But I will permit you to eat the fruit of any of the other trees in the park.” (Genesis 2:16-17 UST)

> [16] Yahweh God commanded the man, saying, “From every tree in the garden you may freely eat. [17] But from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you may not eat, for on the day that you eat from it, you will surely die.” (Genesis 2:16-17 ULT)

Translation Strategies

Order the information in a way that will be clear to your readers. If the order of information is clear as it is in the ULT, then use that order. But if the order is confusing or gives the wrong meaning, then change the order so that it is more clear.

(1) If you put information from one verse before information from an earlier verse, then combine the verses and put a hyphen between the two verse numbers.

See how to mark verses in translationStudio.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If information from one verse is put before information from an earlier verse, then combine the verses and put the verse numbers before the first verse with a hyphen between them.

> 2 You must select three cities for yourself in the middle of your land that Yahweh your God is giving you to possess. 3 You must build a road and divide the borders of your land into three parts, the land that Yahweh your God is causing you to inherit, so that everyone who kills another person may flee there. (Deuteronomy 19:2-3 ULT)
>
> 2-3 You must divide into three parts the land that he is giving to you. Then select a city in each part. You must make good roads in order that people can get to those cities easily. Someone who kills another person can escape to one of those cities to be safe. (Deuteronomy 19:2-3 UST)

Matthew References:

7:13-14; 9:20-21; 14:3-4; 24:23-24; 24:38-39

When Masculine Words Include Women

In the Bible, sometimes the words “men,” “brothers,” and “sons” refer only to men. At other times, those words include both men and women. In those places where the writer meant both men and women, you (the translator) need to translate it in a way that does not limit the meaning to men.

Description

In some languages a word that normally refers to men can also be used in a more general way to refer to both men and women. For example, the Bible sometimes says “brothers” when it refers to both brothers and sisters.

Also in some languages, the masculine pronouns “he” and “him” can be used in a more general way for any person if it is not important whether the person is a man or a woman. In the example below, the pronoun is “his,” but it is not limited to males.

> A wise son makes his father rejoice > but a foolish son brings grief to his mother. (Proverbs 10:1 ULT)

Reason This Is a Translation Issue

- In some cultures words like “man,” “brother,” and “son” can only be used to refer to men. If those words are used in a translation in a more general way, people will think that what is being said does not apply to women.
- In some cultures, the masculine pronouns “he” and “him” can only refer to men. If a masculine pronoun is used, people will think that what is said does not apply to women.

Translation Principles

When a statement applies to both men and women, translate it in such a way that people will be able to understand that it applies to both.

Examples From the Bible

> Now we want you to know, brothers, the grace of God that has been given to the churches of Macedonia. (2 Corinthians 8:1 ULT)

This verse is addressing the believers in Corinth, not only men, but men and women.

> Then said Jesus to his disciples, “If anyone wants to follow me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” (Matthew 16:24 ULT)

Jesus was not speaking only of men, but of men and women.

Caution: Sometimes masculine words are used specifically to refer to men. Do not use words that would lead people to think that they include women. The words below are specifically about men.

> Moses said, ‘If someone dies, not having children, hisbrother must marry his wife and have children for hisbrother.’ (Matthew 22:24 ULT)

Translation Strategies

If people would understand that that masculine words like “man,” “brother,” and “he” can include women, then consider using them. Otherwise, here are some ways for translating those words when they include women.

(1) Use a noun that can be used for both men and women.
(2) Use a word that refers to men and a word that refers to women.
(3) Use pronouns that can be used for both men and women.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use nouns that can be used for both men and women.

> The wise man dies just like the fool dies. (Ecclesiastes 2:16b ULT)
>
> > "The wise person dies just like the fool dies."
> > "Wise people die just like fools die."

(2) Use a word that refers to men and a word that refers to women.

> For we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about the troubles that happened to us in Asia. (2 Corinthians 1:8) — Paul was writing this letter to both men and women.
>
> > "For we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about the troubles that happened to us in Asia."

(3) Use pronouns that can be used for both men and women.

> "If anyone wants to follow me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." (Matthew 16:24 ULT)

English speakers can change the masculine singular pronouns, "he," "himself," and "his" to plural pronouns that do not mark gender, "they," "themselves," and "their" in order to show that it applies to all people, not just men.

> > “If people want to follow me, they must deny themselves, take up their cross, and follow me.”

Matthew References:

4:4; 4:19; 5:9; 5:13; 5:16; 5:19; 5:22; 5:23; 5:24; 5:25; 5:39; 5:40; 5:41; 5:47; 6:1; 6:2; 6:5; 6:14; 6:15; 6:16; 6:27; 7:3; 7:4; 7:5; 7:9; 7:10; 7:12; 7:24; 7:26; 8:12; 9:8; 10:10; 10:17; 10:24; 10:25; 10:25; 10:32; 10:32; 10:33; 10:33; 10:36; 10:38; 10:39; 10:41; 10:42; 11:12; 11:15; 12:11; 12:12; 12:31; 12:32; 12:35; 12:36; 12:41; 12:50; 13:12; 13:19; 13:21; 13:24; 13:31; 13:38; 14:35; 15:4; 15:6; 15:9; 15:11; 15:18; 15:20; 16:13; 16:23; 16:24; 16:25; 16:26; 16:27; 18:2; 18:4; 18:6; 18:7; 18:15; 18:16; 18:17; 18:21; 18:35; 19:6; 19:12; 19:12; 19:26; 21:3; 21:25; 21:26; 21:44; 22:5; 22:16; 23:4; 23:5; 23:7; 23:8; 23:12; 23:13; 23:15; 23:16; 23:18; 23:28; 24:17; 24:18; 25:29; 25:40; 27:9

When to Keep Information Implicit

Description

Sometimes it is better not to state assumed knowledge or implicit information explicitly. This page gives some direction about when not to do this.

Translation Principles

- If a speaker or author intentionally left something unclear, do not try to make it more clear.
- If the original audience did not understand what the speaker meant, do not make it so clear that your readers would find it strange that the original audience did not understand.
- If you need to explicitly state some assumed knowledge or implicit information, try to do it in a way that does not make your readers think that the original audience needed to be told those things.
- Do not make implicit information explicit if it confuses the message or leads the reader to forget what the main point is.
- Do not make assumed knowledge or implicit information explicit if your readers already understand it.

Examples From the Bible

> From the eater came forth food;
> and from the strong one came forth sweetness. (Judges 14:14 ULT)

This was a riddle. Samson purposely said this in a way that it would be hard for his enemies to know what it meant. Do not make it clear that the eater and the strong thing was a lion and that the sweet thing to eat was honey.

> Jesus said to them, “Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” They reasoned among themselves saying, “It is because we did not take bread.” (Matthew 16:6-7 ULT)

Some possible implicit information here is that the disciples should beware of the false teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. But Jesus' disciples did not understand this. They thought that Jesus was talking about real yeast and bread. So it would not be appropriate to state explicitly that the word "yeast" here refers to false teaching. The disciples did not understand what Jesus meant until they heard what Jesus said in Matthew 16:11.

> "How is it that you do not understand that I was not speaking to you about bread? Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees." Then they understood that he was not telling them to beware of yeast in bread, but to beware of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. (Matthew 16:11-12 ULT)

Only after Jesus explained that he was not talking about bread did they realize that he was talking about the false teaching of the Pharisees. Therefore, it would be wrong to explicitly state the implicit information in Matthew 16:6.

Translation Strategies

Because we recommend that translators not change this kind of passage to make it more clear, this page does not have any translation strategies.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

Because we recommend that translators not change this kind of passage to make it more clear, this page does not have any translation strategies applied.

Matthew References:

1:25; 2:23; 5:1; 5:15; 8:1; 9:18; 9:20; 10:1; 10:5; 10:23; 10:29; 11:2; 12:6; 12:41; 12:42; 14:13; 14:23; 15:24; 15:29; 16:13; 16:28; 17:20; 18:12; 21:5; 21:7; 24:30; 25:29; 26:31; 26:64; 27:34

unfoldingWord® Translation Words - Matthew

v91

Abel

Definition:

Abel was Adam and Eve's second son. He was Cain's younger brother.

- Abel was a shepherd.
- Abel sacrificed some of his animals as an offering to God.
- God was pleased with Abel and his offerings.
- Adam and Eve's firstborn son Cain murdered Abel.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Cain, sacrifice, shepherd)

Bible References:

- Genesis 4:2
- Genesis 4:9
- Hebrews 12:24
- Luke 11:49-51
- Matthew 23:35

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1893, G00060

Matthew References:

23:35

Abijah

Definition:

Abijah was a king of Judah who reigned from 915 to 913 B.C. He was a son of King Rehoboam. There were also several other men named Abijah in the Old Testament:

- Samuel's sons Abijah and Joel were leaders over the people of Israel at Beersheba. Because Abijah and his brother were dishonest and greedy, the people asked Samuel to appoint a king to rule them instead.
- Abijah was one of the temple priests during the time of King David.
- Abijah was one of King Jeroboam's sons.
- Abijah was also a chief priest who returned with Zerubbabel to Jerusalem from the Babylonian captivity.

(Translation suggestions: Translate Names)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 15:3
- 1 Samuel 8:1-3
- 2 Chronicles 13:2
- 2 Chronicles 13:19
- Luke 1:5

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0029, G00070

Matthew References:

1:7

abomination, abominable

Definition:

The term “abomination” is used to refer to something that causes disgust or extreme dislike.

- The Egyptians considered the Hebrew people to be an “abomination.” This means that the Egyptians disliked the Hebrews and did not want to associate with them or be near them.
- Some of the things that the Bible calls “an abomination to Yahweh” include lying, pride, sacrificing humans, worship of idols, murder, and sexual sins such as adultery and homosexual acts.
- In teaching his disciples about the end times, Jesus referred to a prophecy by the prophet Daniel about an “abomination of desolation” that would be set up as a rebellion against God, defiling his place of worship.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “abomination” could also be translated by “something God hates” or “something disgusting” or “disgusting practice” or “very evil action.”
- Depending on the context, ways to translate the phrase “is an abomination to” could include “is greatly hated by” or “is disgusting to” or “is totally unacceptable to” or “causes deep disgust.”
- The phrase “abomination of desolation” could be translated as “defiling object that causes people to be greatly harmed” or “disgusting thing that causes great sorrow.”

(See also: adultery, desecrate, desolate, false god, sacrifice)

Bible References:

- Ezra 9:1-2
- Genesis 46:34
- Isaiah 1:13
- Matthew 24:15
- Proverbs 26:25

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0887, H6292, H8251, H8262, H8263, H8441, G09460

Matthew References:

24:15

Abraham, Abram

Definition:

Abram was a Chaldean man from the city of Ur who was chosen by God to be the forefather of the Israelites. God changed his name to "Abraham."

- The name "Abram" means "exalted father."
- "Abraham" means "father of many."
- God promised Abraham that he would have many descendants, who would become a great nation.
- Abraham believed God and obeyed him. God led Abraham to move from Chaldea to the land of Canaan.
- Abraham and his wife Sarah, when they were very old and living in the land of Canaan, had a son, Isaac.

(Translation suggestions: Translate Names)

(See also: Canaan, Chaldea, Sarah, Isaac)

Bible References:

- Galatians 3:8
- Genesis 11:29-30
- Genesis 21:4
- Genesis 22:2
- James 2:23
- Matthew 1:2

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 4:6 When Abram arrived in Canaan, God said, "Look all around you. I will give to you and your descendants all the land that you can see as an inheritance."
- 5:4 Then God changed Abram's name to Abraham, which means "father of many."
- 5:5 About a year later, when Abraham was 100 years old and Sarah was 90, Sarah gave birth to Abraham's son.
- 5:6 When Isaac was a young man, God tested Abraham's faith by saying, "Take Isaac, your only son, and kill him as a sacrifice to me."

- 6:1 When Abraham was very old and his son, Isaac, had grown to be a man, Abraham sent one of his servants back to the land where his relatives lived to find a wife for his son, Isaac.
- 6:4 After a long time, Abraham died and all of the promises that God had made to him in the covenant were passed on to Isaac.
- 21:2 God promised Abraham that through him all people groups of the world would receive a blessing.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0087, H0085, G00110

Matthew References:

1:1; 1:2; 1:17; 3:9; 8:11; 22:32

adultery, adulterous, adulterer, adulteress

Definition:

The term “adultery” refers to a sin that occurs when a married person has sexual relations with someone who is not that person’s spouse. Both of them are guilty of adultery. The term “adulterous” describes this kind of behavior or any person who commits this sin.

- The term “adulterer” refers generally to any person who commits adultery.
- Sometimes the term “adulteress” is used to specify that it was a woman who committed adultery.
- Adultery breaks the promises that a husband and wife made to each other in their covenant of marriage.
- God commanded the Israelites to not commit adultery.

Translation Suggestions:

- If the target language does not have one word that means “adultery,” this term could be translated with a phrase such as “having sexual relations with someone else’s wife” or “being intimate with another person’s spouse.”
- Some languages may have an indirect way of talking about adultery, such as “sleeping with someone else’s spouse” or “being unfaithful to one’s wife.” (See: euphemism)

(See also: commit, covenant, sexual immorality, faithful)

Bible References:

- Exodus 20:14
- Hosea 4:1-2
- Luke 16:18
- Matthew 5:28
- Matthew 12:39
- Revelation 2:22

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 13:6 “Do not commit adultery.”
- 28:2 Do not commit adultery.

- 34:7 “The religious leader prayed like this, ‘Thank you, God, that I am not a sinner like other men-such as robbers, unjust men, adulterers, or even like that tax collector.’”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5003, H5004, G34280, G34290, G34300, G34310, G34320

Matthew References:

5:27; 5:28; 5:32; 12:39; 15:19; 16:4; 19:9; 19:18

adversary, enemy

Definition:

An “adversary” is a person (or group of people) who is opposed to someone else. The term “enemy” has a similar meaning.

- Your adversary can be a person who tries to oppose or harm another person.
- When two nations fight, each can be called an “adversary” of the other.
- In the Bible, the devil is referred to as an “adversary” and an “enemy.”
- The term “adversary” may be translated as “opponent” or “enemy,” but it suggests a stronger form of opposition.

(See also: Satan)

Bible References:

- 1 Timothy 5:14
- Isaiah 9:11
- Job 6:23
- Lamentations 4:12
- Luke 12:59
- Matthew 13:25

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0341, H6146, H6887, H6862, H6965, H7790, H7854, H8130, H8324, G04760, G04800, G21890, G21900, G52270

Matthew References:

5:43; 5:44; 10:36; 13:25; 13:28; 13:39; 22:44

advice, advise, advisor, counsel, counselor, counsels

Definition:

The terms “counsel” and “advice” have the same meaning and refer to helping someone decide wisely about what to do in a certain situation. A wise “counselor” or “advisor” is someone who gives advice or counsel that will help a person make right choices.

- Kings often have official advisors or counselors to help them decide important matters that affect the people they are ruling.
- Sometimes the advice or counsel that is given is not good. Evil advisors may urge a king to take action or make a decree that will harm him or his people.
- Depending on the context, “advice” or “counsel” could also be translated as “help in deciding” or “warnings” or “exhortations” or “guidance.”
- The action, to “counsel” could be translated as to “advise” or to “make suggestions” or to “exhort.”
- Note that “counsel” is a different word than “council,” which refers to a group of people.

(See also: exhort, Holy Spirit, wise)

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1697, H1847, H1875, H1884, H1907, H3272, H3289, H3982, H4156, H4431, H5475, H5779, H6440, H6963, H6098, H7592, H8458, G10110, G10120, G11060, G48230, G48250

Matthew References:

12:14; 22:15; 27:1; 27:7; 28:12

age, aged, old, old age, years old

Definition:

In this sense, the term “age” refers to the number of years a person has lived. In the Bible the terms “aged” and “old” are both used to describe someone who has lived a for many years.

Translation Suggestions:

- The phrase “at a very old age” could be translated as “at many years old” or “when he was very old” or “when he had lived a very long time.”
- The term “aged” could also be translated as “old” or “very old” depending on context.

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G01650, G01660

Matthew References:

12:32; 13:22; 13:39; 13:40; 13:49; 24:3; 28:20

age, era, time

Definition:

Used in this sense the term “age” refers to a time period.

- Other words used to express an extended period of time include “era” and “season.”
- Jesus refers to “this age” as the present time when evil, sin, and disobedience toward God fill the earth.
- There will be a future age when righteousness will reign in a new heaven and a new earth.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “age” could be translated as “era” or “time period” or “time.”
- The phrase “this present evil age” means “during this time right now when people are very evil.”
- The phrase “end of the age” (used in Jesus’ words in Matthew 28:20) means “end of this period of history” or “end of this present age” and refers to the end of this present age at Jesus’ second coming.

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2165, H6256, H6471, G21190, G21210, G22350, G25400, G35680, G41830, G42180, G44550, G51190, G55500, G55510, G56100

Matthew References:

2:7; 2:16; 8:29; 11:25; 12:1; 13:30; 14:1; 21:34; 21:41; 24:45; 25:19; 26:18

Ahaz

Definition:

Ahaz was a wicked king who ruled over the kingdom of Judah from 732 BC to 716 BC. This was about 140 years before the time when many people in Israel and Judah were taken as captives to Babylonia.

- While he was ruling Judah, Ahaz had an altar built for worshiping the false gods of the Assyrians, which caused the people to turn away from the one true God, Yahweh.
- King Ahaz was 20 years old when he started to rule over Judah, and he ruled for 16 years.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Babylon)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 8:35-37
- 2 Chronicles 28:1
- 2 Kings 16:20
- Hosea 1:1
- Isaiah 1:1
- Isaiah 7:4
- Matthew 1:9-11

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0271

Matthew References:

1:9

alms

Definition:

The term “alms” refers to money, food, or other things that are given to help poor people.

- Often the giving of alms was seen by people as something that their religion required them to do in order to be righteous.
- Jesus said that giving alms should not be done publicly for the purpose of getting other people to notice.
- This term could be translated as “money” or “gifts to poor people” or “help for the poor.”

Bible References:

- Acts 3:1-3
- Matthew 6:1
- Matthew 6:3

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G16540

Matthew References:

6:2; 6:3; 6:4

altar

Definition:

An altar was a raised structure on which the Israelites burned animals and grains as offerings to God.

- During Bible times, simple altars were often made by forming a mound of packed-down dirt or by carefully placing large stones to form a stable pile.
- Some special box-shaped altars were made of wood overlaid with metals such as gold, brass, or bronze.
- Other people groups living near the Israelites also built altars to offer sacrifices to their gods.

(See also: altar of incense, false god, grain offering, sacrifice)

Bible References:

- Genesis 8:20
- Genesis 22:9
- James 2:21
- Luke 11:49-51
- Matthew 5:23
- Matthew 23:19

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 3:14 After Noah got off the boat, he built an altar and sacrificed some of each kind of animal which could be used for a sacrifice.
- 5:8 When they reached the place of sacrifice, Abraham tied up his son Isaac and laid him on an altar.
- 13:9 A priest would kill the animal and burn it on the altar.
- 16:6 He (Gideon) built a new altar dedicated to God near where the altar to the idol used to be and made a sacrifice to God on it.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0741, H2025, H4056, H4196, G10410, G23790

Matthew References:

5:23; 5:24; 23:18; 23:19; 23:20; 23:35

amen, truly

Definition:

The term “amen” is a word used to emphasize or call attention to what a person has said. It is often used at the end of a prayer. Sometimes it is translated as “truly.”

- When used at the end of a prayer, “amen” communicates agreement with the prayer or expresses a desire that the prayer be fulfilled.
- In his teaching, Jesus used “amen” to emphasize the truth of what he said. He often followed that by “and I say to you” to introduce another teaching that related to the previous teaching.
- When Jesus uses “amen” this way, some English versions (and the ULT) translate this as “verily” or “truly.”
- Another word meaning “truly” is sometimes translated as “surely” or “certainly” and is also used to emphasize what the speaker is saying.

Translation Suggestions:

- Consider whether the target language has a special word or phrase that is used to emphasize something that has been said.
- When used at the end of a prayer or to confirm something, “amen” could be translated as “let it be so” or “may this happen” or “that is true.”
- When Jesus says, “truly I tell you,” this could also be translated as “Yes, I tell you sincerely” or “That is true, and I also tell you.”
- The phrase “truly, truly I tell you” could be translated as “I tell you this very sincerely” or “I tell you this very earnestly” or “what I am telling you is true.”

(See also: fulfill, true)

Bible References:

- Deuteronomy 27:15
- John 5:19
- Jude 1:24-25
- Matthew 26:33-35
- Philemon 1:23-25
- Revelation 22:20-21

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0543, G02810

Matthew References:

5:18; 5:26; 6:2; 6:5; 6:16; 8:10; 10:15; 10:23; 10:42; 11:11; 13:17; 16:28; 17:20; 18:3; 18:13; 18:18; 18:19; 19:23; 19:28; 21:21; 21:31; 23:36; 24:2; 24:34; 24:47; 25:12; 25:40; 25:45; 26:13; 26:21; 26:34

Andrew

Definition:

Andrew was one of twelve men whom Jesus chose to be his closest disciples (later called apostles).

- Andrew's brother was Simon Peter. Both of them were fishermen.
- Peter and Andrew were fishing in the Sea of Galilee when Jesus called them to be his disciples.
- Before Peter and Andrew met Jesus, they had been disciples of John the Baptizer.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: apostle, disciple, the twelve)

Bible References:

- Acts 1:12-14
- John 1:40
- Mark 1:17
- Mark 1:29-31
- Mark 3:17-19
- Matthew 4:19
- Matthew 10:2-4

Word Data:

- Strong's: G04060

Matthew References:

4:18; 10:2

angel, archangel

Definition:

An angel is a powerful spirit being whom God created. Angels exist to serve God by doing whatever he tells them to do. The term “archangel” refers to the angel who rules or leads all the other angels.

- The word “angel” literally means “messenger.”
- The term “archangel” literally means “chief messenger.” The only angel referred to in the Bible as an “archangel” is Michael.
- In the Bible, angels gave messages to people from God. These messages included instructions about what God wanted the people to do.
- Angels also told people about events that were going to happen in the future or events that had already happened.
- Angels have God’s authority as his representatives and sometimes in the Bible they spoke as if God himself was speaking.
- Other ways that angels serve God are by protecting and strengthening people.
- A special phrase, “angel of Yahweh,” has more than one possible meaning: (1) It may mean “angel who represents Yahweh” or “messenger who serves Yahweh.” (2) It may refer to Yahweh himself, who looked like an angel as he talked to a person. Either one of these meanings would explain the angel’s use of “I” as if Yahweh himself was talking.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “angel” could include “messenger from God” or “God’s heavenly servant” or “God’s spirit messenger.”
- The term “archangel” could be translated as “chief angel” or “head ruling angel” or “leader of the angels.”
- Also consider how these terms are translated in a national language or another local language.
- The phrase “angel of Yahweh” should be translated using the words for “angel” and “Yahweh.” This will allow for different interpretations of that phrase. Possible translations could include “angel from Yahweh” or “angel sent by Yahweh” or “Yahweh, who looked like an angel.”

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: chief, head, messenger, Michael, ruler, servant)

Bible References:

- 2 Samuel 24:16
- Acts 10:3-6
- Acts 12:23
- Colossians 2:18-19
- Genesis 48:16
- Luke 2:13
- Mark 8:38
- Matthew 13:50
- Revelation 1:20
- Zechariah 1:9

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 2:12 God placed large, powerful angels at the entrance to the garden to keep anyone from eating the fruit of the tree of life.
- 22:3 The angel responded to Zechariah, “I was sent by God to bring you this good news.”
- 23:6 Suddenly, a shining angel appeared to them (the shepherds), and they were terrified. The angel said, “Do not be afraid, because I have some good news for you.”
- 23:7 Suddenly, the skies were filled with angels praising God.
- 25:8 Then angels came and took care of Jesus.
- 38:12 Jesus was very troubled and his sweat was like drops of blood. God sent an angel to strengthen him.
- 38:15 “I could ask the Father for an army of angels to defend me.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0047, H0430, H4397, H4398, H8136, G00320, G07430, G24650

Matthew References:

1:20; 1:24; 2:13; 2:19; 4:6; 4:11; 13:39; 13:41; 13:49; 16:27; 18:10; 22:30; 24:31; 24:36; 25:31; 25:41; 26:53; 28:2; 28:5

anoint, anointed, anointing

Definition:

The term “anoint” means to rub or pour oil on a person or object. In biblical times, there were several reasons for anointing someone with oil. Often this was a Symbolic Action, representing God empowering that person with the Holy Spirit for special service to him.

- In the Old Testament, priests, kings, and prophets were anointed with oil to set them apart for special service to God.
- Objects such as altars or the tabernacle were also anointed with oil to show that they were to be used to worship and glorify God.
- In the New Testament, sick people were anointed with oil for their healing.
- Sometimes the oil was mixed with spices, giving it a sweet, perfumed smell.
- The New Testament records two times that Jesus was anointed with perfumed oil by a woman, as an act of worship.
- People prepared dead bodies for burial by anointing them with perfumed oils and spices.
- In the New Testament, receiving the Holy Spirit is described as anointing.
- The titles “Messiah” (Hebrew) and “Christ” (Greek) mean “the Anointed (One).”
- Jesus the Messiah is the one who was chosen and anointed as a Prophet, High Priest, and King.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “anoint” could be translated as “pour/put oil on” or “consecrate by pouring oil on” or “consecrate” or “appoint.”
- Depending on the context, to “be anointed” could be translated as “be consecrated with oil” or “be appointed” or “be consecrated” or “be given the Holy Spirit.”
- A phrase like “the anointed priest,” could be translated as “the priest who was consecrated with oil” or “the priest who was set apart by the pouring on of oil.”

(See also: Christ, consecrate, high priest, King of the Jews, priest, prophet)

Bible References:

- 1 John 2:20
- 1 John 2:27
- 2 Corinthians 1:21

- 1 Samuel 16:2-3
- Acts 4:27-28
- Amos 6:5-6
- Exodus 29:5-7
- James 5:13-15

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0047, H0430, H1101, H1878, H3323, H4397, H4398, H4473, H4886, H4888, H4899, H5480, H8136, G00320, G02180, G07430, G14720, G20250, G34620, G55450, G55480

Matthew References:

6:17

apostle, apostleship

Definition:

The “apostles” were men sent by Jesus to preach about God and his kingdom. The term “apostleship” refers to the position and authority of those who were chosen as apostles.

- The word “apostle” means “someone who is sent out for a special purpose.” The apostle has the same authority as the one who sent him.
- Jesus’ twelve closest disciples became the first apostles. Other men, such as Paul and James, also became apostles.
- By God’s power, the apostles were able to boldly preach the gospel and heal people, and were able to force demons to come out of people.

Translation Suggestions:

- The word “apostle” can also be translated with a word or phrase that means “someone who is sent out” or “sent-out one” or “person who is called to go out and preach God’s message to people.”
- It is important to translate the terms “apostle” and “disciple” in different ways.
- Also consider how this term was translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language. (See How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: authority, disciple, James (son of Zebedee), Paul, the twelve)

Bible References:

- Jude 1:17-19
- Luke 9:12-14

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 26:10 Then Jesus chose twelve men who were called his apostles. The apostles traveled with Jesus and learned from him.
- 30:1 Jesus sent his apostles to preach and to teach people in many different villages.
- 38:2 Judas was one of Jesus’ apostles. He was in charge of the apostles’ money bag, but he loved money and often stole from the bag.
- 43:13 The disciples devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching, fellowship, eating together, and prayer.

- 46:8 Then a believer named Barnabas took Saul to the apostles and told them how Saul had preached boldly in Damascus.

Word Data:

- Strong's: G06510, G06520, G24910, G53760, G55700

Matthew References:

10:2

appoint, appointed

Definition:

The terms “appoint” and “appointed” refer to choosing someone to fulfill a specific task or role.

- To “be appointed” can also refer to being “chosen” to receive something, as in “appointed to eternal life.” That people were “appointed to eternal life” means they were chosen to receive eternal life.
- The phrase “appointed time” refers to God’s “chosen time” or “planned time” for something to happen.
- The word “appoint” may also mean to “command” or “assign” someone to do something.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate “appoint” could include “choose” or “assign” or “formally choose” or “designate.”
- The term “appointed” could be translated as “assigned” or “planned” or “specifically chose.”
- The phrase “be appointed” could also be translated as “be chosen.”

Bible References:

- 1 Samuel 8:11
- Acts 3:20
- Acts 6:2
- Acts 13:48
- Genesis 41:33-34
- Numbers 3:9-10

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0561, H0977, H2163, H2296, H2706, H2708, H2710, H3198, H3245, H3259, H3677, H3983, H4150, H4151, H4152, H4483, H4487, H4662, H5324, H5344, H5414, H5567, H5975, H6310, H6485, H6565, H6635, H6680, H6923, H6942, H6966, H7760, H7896, G03220, G06060, G12990, G13030, G19350, G25250, G27490, G42870, G42960, G43840, G49290, G50210, G50870

Matthew References:

8:9; 24:45; 24:47; 24:51; 25:21; 25:23

ark

Definition:

The term “ark” literally refers to a rectangular wooden box that is made to hold or protect something. An ark can be large or small, depending on what it is being used for.

- In the English Bible, the word “ark” is first used to refer to the very large, rectangular, wooden boat that Noah built to escape the worldwide flood. The ark had a flat bottom, a roof, and walls.
- Ways to translate this term could include “very large boat” or “barge” or “cargo ship” or “large, box-shaped boat.”
- The Hebrew word that is used to refer to this huge boat is the same word used for the basket or box that held baby Moses when his mother put him in the Nile River to hide him. In that case it is usually translated as “basket.”
- In the phrase “ark of the covenant,” a different Hebrew word is used for “ark.” This could be translated as “box” or “chest” or “container.”
- When choosing a term to translate “ark,” it is important in each context to consider what size it is and what it is being used for.

(See also: ark of the covenant, basket)

Bible References:

- 1 Peter 3:20
- Exodus 16:33-36
- Exodus 30:6
- Genesis 8:4-5
- Luke 17:27
- Matthew 24:37-39

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0727, H8392, G27870

Matthew References:

24:38

Asa

Definition:

Asa was a king who ruled over the kingdom of Judah for forty years, from 913 B.C. to 873 B.c.

- King Asa was a good king who removed many idols of false gods and caused the Israelites to start worshiping Yahweh again.
- Yahweh gave King Asa success in his warfare against other nations.
- Later in his reign, however, King Asa stopped trusting Yahweh and became sick with a disease that eventually killed him.

(Translation suggestions: Translate Names)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 9:14-16
- 1 Kings 15:7-8
- 2 Chronicles 14:3
- Jeremiah 41:9
- Matthew 1:7

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0609

Matthew References:

1:7; 1:8

assembly, assemble, congregation, meeting, gather, community

Definition:

The term “assembly” usually refers to a group of people who come together for some reason, often to discuss problems, give advice, or make decisions. An assembly can be a group that is organized in an official and somewhat permanent way, or it can be a group of people who come together temporarily for a specific purpose or occasion.

Old Testament

- In the Old Testament there was a special kind of assembly called a “sacred assembly” in which the people of Israel would gather to worship Yahweh.
- Sometimes the term “assembly” referred to the Israelites in general, as a group.

New Testament

- In the New Testament, an assembly of 70 Jewish leaders in major cities such as Jerusalem would meet to judge legal matters and to settle disputes between people. This assembly was known as the “Sanhedrin” or the “Council.”

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, “assembly” could also be translated as “special gathering” or “congregation” or “council” or “army” or “large group.”
- When the term “assembly” refers generally to the Israelites as a whole, it could also be translated as “community” or “people of Israel.”
- The phrase, “all the assembly” could be translated as “all the people” or “the whole group of Israelites” or “everyone.” (See: hyperbole)
- A large gathering of enemy soldiers was sometimes also referred to as an “assembly.” This could be translated as “army.”

(See also: council)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 8:14
- Acts 7:38
- Ezra 10:12-13

- Hebrews 12:22-24
- Leviticus 4:20-21
- Nehemiah 8:1-3

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0622, H1481, H2199, H3259, H4150, H4186, H4744, H5475, H5712, H6116, H6908, H6950, H6951, H6952, G15770, G38310, G48630, G48640, G48710, G49050

Matthew References:

2:4; 13:2; 22:10; 22:34; 22:41; 24:31; 25:32; 26:3; 26:57; 27:17; 27:27; 27:62; 28:12 authority

Definition:

The term “authority” usually refers to a position of influence, responsibility, or rule over another person.

- Kings and other governing rulers have authority over the people they are ruling.
- The word “authorities” can refer to people, governments, or organizations that have authority over others.
- The word “authorities” can also refer to spirit beings who have power over people who have not submitted themselves to God’s authority.
- Masters have authority over their servants or slaves. Parents have authority over their children.
- Governments have the authority or right to make laws that govern their citizens.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “authority” can also be translated as “control” or “right” or “qualifications.”
- Sometimes “authority” is used with the meaning of “power.”
- When “authorities” is used to refer to people or organizations who rule people, it could also be translated as “leaders” or “rulers” or “powers.”
- The phrase “by his own authority” could also be translated as “with his own right to lead” or “based on his own qualifications.”
- The expression, “under authority” could be translated as “responsible to obey” or “having to obey others’ commands.”

(See also: dominion, king, ruler, power)

Bible References:

- Colossians 2:10
- Esther 9:29
- Genesis 41:35
- Jonah 3:6-7
- Luke 12:5
- Luke 20:1-2
- Mark 1:22

- Matthew 8:9
- Matthew 28:19
- Titus 3:1

Word Data:

- Strong's: H8633, G08310, G14130, G18490, G18500, G20030, G27150, G52470

Matthew References:

7:29; 8:9; 9:6; 9:8; 10:1; 20:25; 21:23; 21:24; 21:27; 28:18

ax

Definition:

An ax is tool used for cutting or chopping trees or wood.

- An ax usually has a long wooden handle with a large metal blade attached to the end.
- If your culture has a tool that is similar to an ax, the name of that tool could be used to translate “ax.”
- Other ways to translate this term could include “tree-cutting tool” or “wooden tool with blade” or “long-handled wood-chopping tool.”
- In one Old Testament event, the blade of an ax fell into a river, so it is best if the tool that is described has a blade that can come loose from the wooden handle.

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 6:7-8
- 2 Kings 6:5
- Judges 9:48-49
- Luke 3:9
- Matthew 3:10
- Psalm 35:3

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1631, H4621, H7134, G05130

Matthew References:

3:10

Babylon, Babylonia, Babylonian

Definition:

The city of Babylon was the capital of the ancient region of Babylonia, which was also part of the Babylonian Empire.

- Babylon was located along the Euphrates River, in the same region where the Tower of Babel had been built hundreds of years before.
- Sometimes the word "Babylon" refers to the entire Babylonian Empire. For example, the "king of Babylon" ruled the entire empire, not just the city.
- The Babylonians were a powerful people group who attacked the kingdom of Judah and kept the people in exile in Babylonia for 70 years.
- Part of this region was called "Chaldea" and the people living there were the "Chaldeans." As a result, the term "Chaldea" was often used to refer to Babylonia. (See: synecdoche)

(See also: Babel, Chaldea, Judah, Nebuchadnezzar)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 9:1
- 2 Kings 17:24-26
- Acts 7:43
- Daniel 1:2
- Ezekiel 12:13
- Matthew 1:11
- Matthew 1:17

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 20:6 About 100 years after the Assyrians destroyed the kingdom of Israel, God sent Nebuchadnezzar, king of the Babylonians, to attack the kingdom of Judah. Babylon was a powerful empire.
- 20:7 But after a few years, the king of Judah rebelled against Babylon. So, the Babylonians came back and attacked the kingdom of Judah. They captured the city of Jerusalem, destroyed the Temple, and took away all the treasures of the city and the Temple.
- 20:9 Nebuchadnezzar and his army took almost all of the people of the kingdom of Judah to Babylon, leaving only the poorest people behind to plant the fields.

- 20:11 About seventy years later, Cyrus, the king of the Persians, defeated Babylon.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3778, H3779, H8152, H0894, H0895, H0896, G08970

Matthew References:

1:11; 1:12; 1:17

baptize, baptized, baptism

Definition:

In the New Testament, the terms “baptize” and “baptism” usually refer to ritually bathing a Christian with water to show that he has been cleansed from sin and has been united with Christ.

Translation Suggestions:

- Christians have different views about how a person should be baptized with water. It is probably best to translate this term in a general way that allows for different ways of applying the water.
- Depending on the context, the term “baptize” could be translated as “purify,” “pour out on,” “plunge (or dip) into,” “wash.” For example, “baptize you with water” could be translated as “plunge you into water.”
- The term “baptism” could be translated as “purification,” “a pouring out,” “a dipping,” “a cleansing.”
- Also consider how this term is translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language.

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: John (the Baptist), repent, Holy Spirit)

Bible References:

- Acts 2:38
- Acts 8:36
- Acts 9:18
- Acts 10:48
- Luke 3:16
- Matthew 3:14
- Matthew 28:18-19

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 24:3 When people heard John's message, many of them repented from their sins, and John baptized them. Many religious leaders also came to be baptized by John, but they did not repent or confess their sins.
- 24:6 The next day, Jesus came to be baptized by John.
- 24:7 John said to Jesus, "I am not worthy to baptize you. You should baptize me instead."
- 42:10 "So go, make disciples of all people groups by baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit and by teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you."
- 43:11 Peter answered them, "Every one of you should repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ so that God will forgive your sins."
- 43:12 About 3,000 people believed what Peter said and became disciples of Jesus. They were baptized and became part of the church at Jerusalem.
- 45:11 As Philip and the Ethiopian traveled, they came to some water. The Ethiopian said, "Look! There is some water! May I be baptized?"
- 46:5 Saul immediately was able to see again, and Ananias baptized him.
- 49:14 Jesus invites you to believe in him and be baptized.

Word Data:

- Strong's: G09070

Matthew References:

3:6; 3:7; 3:11; 3:13; 3:14; 3:16; 21:25; 28:19

Barabbas

Definition:

Barabbas was a prisoner in Jerusalem at the time when Jesus was arrested.

- Barabbas was a criminal who had committed crimes of murder and rebellion against the Roman government.
- When Pontius Pilate offered to either release Barabbas or Jesus, the people chose Barabbas.
- So Pilate allowed Barabbas to go free, but condemned Jesus to be killed.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Pilate, Rome)

Bible References:

- John 18:40
- Luke 23:19
- Mark 15:7
- Matthew 27:15-16

Word Data:

- Strong's: G09120

Matthew References:

27:16; 27:17; 27:20; 27:21; 27:26

Bartholomew

Definition:

Bartholomew was one of Jesus' twelve apostles.

- Along with the other apostles, Bartholomew was sent out to preach the gospel and do miracles in Jesus' name.
- He was also one of those who saw Jesus return to heaven.
- A few weeks after that, he was with the other apostles in Jerusalem at Pentecost when the Holy Spirit came upon them.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: apostle, good news, Holy Spirit, miracle, Pentecost, the twelve)

Bible References:

- Acts 1:12-14
- Luke 6:14-16
- Mark 3:17-19

Word Data:

- Strong's: G09180

Matthew References:

10:3

bear, bearer, bore, borne, produce, produced

Definition:

Used in this sense, the term “bear” means to “produce” or “give birth to.”

- A common expression in the Bible is “bear fruit,” which means “produce fruit”
- When speaking of a woman who will bear a child, this means “give birth to” a child
- Depending on context, this term could be translated as “produce” or “give birth to.”

(Translation suggestions: fruit)

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3205, H3209, H3211, H5375, G01420, G03990, G04300, G09410, G10800, G41600, G47220, G50410, G50880, G53420, G54090

Matthew References:

1:21; 1:23; 3:11; 8:17; 17:17; 20:12

Beelzebul

Definition:

Beelzebul is another name for Satan, or the devil. It is also sometimes spelled, “Beelzebub.”

- This name literally means “lord of flies” which means “ruler over demons.” But it is best to translate this term close to the original spelling rather than translate the meaning.
- It could also be translated as “Beelzebul the devil” to make it clear who is being referred to.
- This name is related to the name of the false god “Baal-zebub” of Ekron.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: demon, Ekron, Satan)

Bible References:

- Luke 11:15
- Mark 3:22
- Matthew 10:25
- Matthew 12:25

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G09540

Matthew References:

10:25; 12:24; 12:27

beg, begging, begged

Definition:

The term “beg” means to urgently ask someone for something.

- Often people beg or plead when they strongly need something, but do not know if the other person will give them what they ask for.
- Depending on the context, this term could be translated as “plead” or “urgently ask.”

(See also: plead)

Bible References:

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 10:4 God sent frogs all over Egypt. Pharaoh begged Moses to take away the frogs.
- 29:8 “The king called the servant and said, ‘You wicked servant! I forgave your debt because you begged me.’”
- 32:7 The demons begged Jesus, “Please do not send us out of this region!” There was a herd of pigs feeding on a nearby hill. So, the demons begged Jesus, “Please send us into the pigs instead!”
- 32:10 The man who used to have the demons begged to go along with Jesus.
- 35:11 His father came out and begged him to come and celebrate with them, but he refused.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H7592, G12100, G18710, G20650, G38700, G43190, G43195

Matthew References:

8:5; 8:31; 8:34; 9:38; 14:36; 18:29; 18:32

believe, believer, belief, unbeliever, unbelief

Definition:

The terms “believe” and “believe in” are closely related, but have slightly different meanings:

1. believe

- To believe something is to accept or trust that it is true.
- To believe someone is to acknowledge that what that person has said is true.

2. believe in

- To “believe in” someone means to “trust in” that person. It means to trust that the person is who he says he is, that he always speaks the truth, and that he will do what he has promised to do.
- When a person truly believes in something, he will act in such a way that shows that belief.
- The phrase “have faith in” usually has the same meaning as “believe in.”
- To “believe in Jesus” means to believe that he is the Son of God, that he is God himself who also became human and who died as a sacrifice to pay for our sins. It means to trust him as Savior and live in a way that honors him.

3. believer

In the Bible, the term “believer” refers to someone who believes in and relies on Jesus Christ as Savior.

- The term “believer” literally means “person who believes.”
- The term “Christian” eventually came to be the main title for believers because it indicates that they believe in Christ and obey his teachings.

4. unbelief

The term “unbelief” refers to not believing something or someone.

- In the Bible, “unbelief” refers to not believing in or not trusting in Jesus as one’s Savior.
- A person who does not believe in Jesus is called an “unbeliever.”

Translation Suggestions:

- To “believe” could be translated as to “know to be true” or “know to be right.”
- To “believe in” could be translated as “trust completely” or “trust and obey” or “completely rely on and follow.”
- Some translations may prefer to say “believer in Jesus” or “believer in Christ.”
- This term could also be translated by a word or phrase that means “person who trusts in Jesus” or “someone who knows Jesus and lives for him.”
- Other ways to translate “believer” could be “follower of Jesus” or “person who knows and obeys Jesus.”
- The term “believer” is a general term for any believer in Christ, while “disciple” and “apostle” were used more specifically for people who knew Jesus while he was alive. It is best to translate these terms in different ways, in order to keep them distinct.
- Other ways to translate “unbelief” could include “lack of faith” or “not believing.”
- The term “unbeliever” could be translated as “person who does not believe in Jesus” or “someone who does not trust in Jesus as Savior.”

(See also: believe, apostle, Christian, disciple, faith, trust)

Bible References:

- Genesis 15:6
- Genesis 45:26
- Job 9:16-18
- Habakkuk 1:5-7
- Mark 6:4-6
- Mark 1:14-15
- Luke 9:41
- John 1:12
- Acts 6:5
- Acts 9:42

- Acts 28:23-24
- Romans 3:3
- 1 Corinthians 6:1
- 1 Corinthians 9:5
- 2 Corinthians 6:15
- Hebrews 3:12
- 1 John 3:23

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 3:4 Noah warned the people about the coming flood and told them to turn to God, but they did not believe him.
- 4:8 Abram believed God's promise. God declared that Abram was righteous because he believed God's promise.
- 11:2 God provided a way to save the firstborn of anyone who believed in him.
- 11:6 But the Egyptians did not believe God or obey his commands.
- 37:5 Jesus replied, "I am the Resurrection and the Life. Whoever believes in me will live, even though he dies. Everyone who believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"
- 43:1 After Jesus returned to heaven, the disciples stayed in Jerusalem as Jesus had commanded them to do. The believers there constantly gathered together to pray.
- 43:3 While the believers were all together, suddenly the house where they were was filled with a sound like a strong wind. Then something that looked like flames of fire appeared over the heads of all the believers.
- 43:13 Every day, more people became believers.
- 46:6 That day many people in Jerusalem started persecuting the followers of Jesus, so the believers fled to other places. But in spite of this, they preached about Jesus everywhere they went.
- 46:1 Saul was the young man who guarded the robes of the men who killed Stephen. He did not believe in Jesus, so he persecuted the believers.
- 46:9 Some believers who fled from the persecution in Jerusalem went far away to the city of Antioch and preached about Jesus.
- 46:9 It was at Antioch that believers in Jesus were first called "Christians."
- 47:14 They also wrote many letters to encourage and teach the believers in the churches.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0539, H0540, G05430, G05440, G05690, G05700, G05710, G39820, G41000, G41020, G41030, G41350

Matthew References:

8:13; 9:28; 13:58; 17:17; 18:6; 21:22; 21:25; 21:32; 24:23; 24:26; 27:42 beloved

Definition:

The term “beloved” is an expression of affection that describes someone who is loved and dear to someone else.

- The term “beloved” literally means “loved (one)” or “(who is) loved.”
- God refers to Jesus as his “beloved Son.”
- In their letters to Christian churches, the apostles frequently address their fellow believers as “beloved.”

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could also be translated as “loved” or “loved one” or “well-loved,” or “very dear.”
- In the context of talking about a close friend, this could be translated as “my dear friend” or “my close friend.” In English it is natural to say “my dear friend, Paul” or “Paul, who is my dear friend.” Other languages may find it more natural to order this in a different way.
- Note that the word “beloved” comes from the word for God’s love, which is unconditional, unselfish, and sacrificial.

(See also: love)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 4:14
- 1 John 3:2
- 1 John 4:7
- Mark 1:11
- Mark 12:6
- Revelation 20:9
- Romans 16:8
- Song of Songs 1:14

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0157, H1730, H2532, H3033, H3039, H4261, G00250, G00270, G52070

Matthew References:

3:17; 12:18; 17:5

Bethany

Definition:

The town of Bethany was located at the base of the eastern slope of the Mount of Olives, about 2 miles east of Jerusalem.

- Bethany was near the road that ran between Jerusalem and Jericho.
- Jesus often visited Bethany where his close friends Lazarus, Martha, and Mary lived.
- Bethany is especially known as the place where Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Jericho, Jerusalem, Lazarus, Martha, Mary (sister of Martha), Mount of Olives)

Bible References:

- John 1:26-28
- Luke 24:50-51
- Mark 11:1
- Matthew 21:15-17

Word Data:

- Strong's: G09630

Matthew References:

21:17; 26:6

Bethlehem, Ephrathah

Definition:

Bethlehem was a small city in the land of Israel, near the city of Jerusalem. It was also known as "Ephrathah," which was probably its original name.

- Bethlehem has been called the "city of David," since King David was born there.
- The prophet Micah said that the Messiah would come from "Bethlehem Ephrathah."
- Fulfilling that prophecy, Jesus was born in Bethlehem, many years later.
- The name "Bethlehem" means "house of bread" or "house of food."

(See also: Caleb, David, Micah)

Bible References:

- Genesis 35:16
- John 7:42
- Matthew 2:6
- Matthew 2:16
- Ruth 1:2
- Ruth 1:21

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 17:2 David was a shepherd from the town of Bethlehem.
- 21:9 The prophet Isaiah prophesied that the Messiah would be born from a virgin. The prophet Micah said that he would be born in the town of Bethlehem.
- 23:4 Joseph and Mary had to make a long journey from where they lived in Nazareth to Bethlehem because their ancestor was David whose hometown was Bethlehem.
- 23:6 "The Messiah, the Master, has been born in Bethlehem!"

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0376, H0672, H1035, G09650

Matthew References:

2:1; 2:5; 2:6; 2:8; 2:16

betray, betrayer

Definition:

The term “betray” means to act in a way that deceives and harms someone. A “betrayer” is a person who betrays a friend who was trusting him.

- Judas was “the betrayer” because he told the Jewish leaders how to capture Jesus.
- The betrayal by Judas was especially evil because he was an apostle of Jesus who received money in exchange for giving the Jewish leaders information that would result in Jesus’ unjust death.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “betray” could be translated as “deceive and cause harm to” or “turn over to the enemy” or “treat treacherously.”
- The term “betrayer” could be translated as “person who betrays” or “double dealer” or “traitor.”

(See also: Judas Iscariot, Jewish leaders, apostle)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:52
- John 6:64
- John 13:22
- Matthew 10:4
- Matthew 26:22

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 21:11 Other prophets foretold that those who killed the Messiah would gamble for his clothes and he would be betrayed by a friend. The prophet Zechariah foretold that the friend would be paid thirty silver coins as payment for betraying the Messiah.
- 38:2 After Jesus and the disciples arrived in Jerusalem, Judas went to the Jewish leaders and offered to betray Jesus to them in exchange for money.
- 38:3 The Jewish leaders, led by the high priest, paid Judas thirty silver coins to betray Jesus.
- 38:6 Then Jesus said to the disciples, “One of you will betray me.” * * 38:6 Jesus said, “The person to whom I give this piece of bread is the betrayer.”

- 38:13 When he returned the third time, Jesus said, “Wake up! My betrayer is here.”
- 38:14 Then Jesus said, “Judas, do you betray me with a kiss?”
- 39:8 Meanwhile, Judas, the betrayer, saw that the Jewish leaders had condemned Jesus to die. He became full of sorrow and went away and killed himself.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H7411, G38600, G42730

Matthew References:

10:4; 24:10; 26:15; 26:16; 26:21; 26:23; 26:24; 26:25; 26:45; 26:46; 26:48; 27:3; 27:4

bind, bond, bound

Definition:

The term “bind” means to tie something or fasten it securely. Something that is tied or joined together is called a “bond.” The term “bound” is the past tense of this term.

- To be “bound” means to have something tied or wrapped around something else.
- In a figurative sense, a person can be “bound” to a vow, which means he is “required to fulfill” what he promised to do.
- The term “bonds” refers to anything that binds, confines, or imprisons someone. It usually refers to physical chains, fetters or ropes that keep a person from being free to move.
- In Bible times, bonds such as ropes or chains were used to attach prisoners to the wall or floor of a stone prison.
- The term “bind” can also be used to talk about wrapping cloth around a wound to help it heal.
- A dead person would be “bound” with cloth in preparation for burial.
- The term “bond” is used figuratively to refer to something, such as sin, that controls or enslaves someone.
- A bond can also be a close relationship between people in which they support each other emotionally, spiritually and physically. This applies to the bond of marriage.
- For example, a husband and wife are “bound” or tied to each other. It is a bond that God does not want broken.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “bind” could also be translated as “tie” or “tie up” or “wrap (around).”
- Figuratively, it could be translated as to “restrain” or to “prevent” or to “keep from (something).”
- A special use of “bind” in Matthew 16 and 18 means “forbid” or “not permit.”
- The term “bonds” could be translated as “chains” or “ropes” or “shackles.”
- Figuratively the term “bond” could be translated as “knot” or “connection” or “close relationship.”
- The phrase “bond of peace” means “being in harmony, which brings people in closer relationship to each other” or “the tying together that peace brings.”
- To “bind up” could be translated as “wrap around” or “put a bandage on.”
- To “bind” oneself with a vow could be translated as “promise to fulfill a vow” or “commit to fulfill a vow.”

- Depending on the context, the term “bound” could also be translated as “tied” or “tied up” or “chained” or “obligated (to fulfill)” or “required to do.”

(See also: fulfill, peace, prison, servant, vow)

Bible References:

- Leviticus 8:7

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0247, H0481, H0519, H0615, H0631, H0632, H0640, H1366, H1367, H1379, H2280, H2706, H3256, H3533, H3729, H4147, H4148, H4205, H4562, H5650, H5656, H5659, H6029, H6123, H6616, H6696, H6872, H6887, H7194, H7405, H7573, H7576, H8198, H8244, H8379, G02540, G03310, G03320, G11950, G11960, G11980, G11990, G12100, G13970, G13980, G14010, G14020, G26110, G26150, G37340, G37840, G38140, G40190, G40290, G43850, G48860, G48870, G52650

Matthew References:

12:29; 13:30; 14:3; 16:19; 18:18; 22:13; 23:4; 27:2

blasphemy, blaspheme, blasphemous

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “blasphemy” refers to speaking in a way that shows a deep disrespect for God or people. To “blaspheme” someone is to speak against that person so that others think something false or bad about him.

- Most often, to blaspheme God means to slander or insult him by saying things that are not true about him or by behaving in an immoral way that dishonors him.
- It is blasphemy for a human being to claim to be God or to claim that there is a God other than the one true God.
- Some English versions translate this term as “slander” when it refers to blaspheming people.

Translation Suggestions:

- To “blaspheme” can be translated as to “say evil things against” or to “dishonor God” or to “slander.”
- Ways to translate “blasphemy” could include “speaking wrongly about others” or “slander” or “spreading false rumors.”

(See also: dishonor, slander)

Bible References:

- 1 Timothy 1:12-14
- Acts 6:11
- Acts 26:9-11
- James 2:5-7
- John 10:32-33
- Luke 12:10
- Mark 14:64
- Matthew 12:31
- Matthew 26:65
- Psalms 74:10

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1288, H1442, H2778, H5006, H5007, H5344, G09870, G09880, G09890

Matthew References:

9:3; 12:intro; 12:31; 15:19; 26:65; 27:39

bless, blessed, blessing

Definition:

To “bless” someone or something means to cause good and beneficial things to happen to the person or thing that is being blessed.

- Blessing someone also means expressing a desire for positive and beneficial things to happen to that person.
- In Bible times, a father would often pronounce a formal blessing on his children.
- When people “bless” God or express a desire that God be blessed, this means they are praising him.
- The term “bless” is sometimes used for consecrating food before it is eaten, or for thanking and praising God for the food.

Translation Suggestions:

- To “bless” could also be translated as to “provide abundantly for” or to “be very kind and favorable toward.”
- “God has brought great blessing to” could be translated as “God has given many good things to” or “God has provided abundantly for” or “God has caused many good things to happen to”.
- “He is blessed” could be translated as “he will greatly benefit” or “he will experience good things” or “God will cause him to flourish.”
- “Blessed is the person who” could be translated as “How good it is for the person who.”
- Expressions like “blessed be the Lord” could be translated as “May the Lord be praised” or “Praise the Lord” or “I praise the Lord.”
- In the context of blessing food, this could be translated as “thanked God for the food” or “praised God for giving them food” or “consecrated the food by praising God for it.”

(See also: praise)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 10:16
- Acts 13:34
- Ephesians 1:3
- Genesis 14:20
- Isaiah 44:3

- James 1:25
- Luke 6:20
- Matthew 26:26
- Nehemiah 9:5
- Romans 4:9

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 1:7 God saw that it was good and he blessed them.
- 1:15 God made Adam and Eve in his own image. He blessed them and told them, “Have many children and grandchildren and fill the earth.”
- 1:16 So God rested from all he had been doing. He blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on this day he rested from his work.
- 4:4 “I will make your name great. I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you. All families on earth will be blessed because of you.”
- 4:7 Melchizedek blessed Abram and said, “May God Most High who owns heaven and earth bless Abram.”
- 7:3 Isaac wanted to give his blessing to Esau.
- 8:5 Even in prison, Joseph remained faithful to God, and God blessed him.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0833, H0835, H1288, H1289, H1293, G17570, G21270, G21280, G21290, G31060, G31070, G31080, G60500

Matthew References:

5:3; 5:4; 5:5; 5:6; 5:7; 5:8; 5:9; 5:10; 5:11; 11:6; 13:16; 14:19; 16:17; 21:9; 23:39; 24:46; 25:34; 26:26

Boaz

Definition:

Boaz was an Israelite man who lived during the time when there were judges ruled Israel. He married a Moabite woman named Ruth and became both the great grandfather of King David and an ancestor of Jesus Christ.

- He was a relative of an Israelite woman named Naomi who had returned to Israel after her husband and sons died in Moab.
- Boaz "redeemed" Naomi's widowed daughter-in-law Ruth by marrying her and giving her a future with a husband and children.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Moab, redeem, Ruth)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 2:12
- 2 Chronicles 3:17
- Luke 3:30-32
- Matthew 1:5
- Ruth 2:4

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1162

Matthew References:

1:5

born again, born of God, new birth

Definition:

The term “born again” was first used by Jesus to describe what it means for God to change a person from being dead spiritually to being alive spiritually. The terms “born of God” and “born of the Spirit” also refer to a person being given new spiritual life.

- All humans are born spiritually dead and are given a “new birth” when they accept Jesus Christ as their Savior.
- At the moment of the spiritual new birth, God’s Holy Spirit begins to live in the new believer and empowers him to produce good spiritual fruit in his life.
- It is God’s work to cause a person to be born again and become his child.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “born again” could include “born anew” or “born spiritually.”
- It is best to translate this term literally and use the normal word in the language that would be used for being born.
- The term “new birth” might be translated as “spiritual birth.”
- The phrase “born of God” could be translated as “caused by God to have new life like a newborn baby” or “given new life by God.”
- In the same way, “born of the Spirit” could be translated as “given new life by the Holy Spirit” or “empowered by the Holy Spirit to become God’s child” or “caused by the Spirit to have new life like a newborn baby.”

(See also: Holy Spirit, save)

Bible References:

- 1 John 3:9
- 1 Peter 1:3
- 1 Peter 1:23
- John 3:4
- John 3:7
- Titus 3:5

Word Data:

- Strong's: G03130, G05090, G10800, G38240

Matthew References:

19:28

bow, bow down, kneel, bend, bend the knee

Definition:

To bow means to bend over to humbly express respect and honor toward someone. To “bow down” means to bend over or kneel down very low, often with face and hands toward the ground.

- Other expressions include “bow the knee” (meaning to kneel) and “bow the head” (meaning to bend the head forward in humble respect or in sorrow).
- Bowing down can also be a sign of distress or mourning. Someone who is “bowed down” has been brought to a low position of humility.
- Often a person will bow in the presence of someone who is of higher status or greater importance, such as kings and other rulers.
- Bowing down before God is an expression of worship to him.
- In the Bible, people bowed down to Jesus when they realized from his miracles and teaching that he had come from God.
- The Bible says that when Jesus comes back someday, everyone will bow the knee to worship him.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, this term could be translated with a word or phrase that means “bend forward” or “bend the head” or “kneel.”
- The term “bow down” could be translated as “kneel down” or “prostrate oneself.”
- Some languages will have more than one way of translating this term, depending on the context.

(See also: humble, worship)

Bible References:

- 2 Kings 5:18
- Exodus 20:5
- Genesis 24:26
- Genesis 44:14
- Isaiah 44:19
- Luke 24:5

- Matthew 2:11
- Revelation 3:9

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0086, H3721, H3766, H5753, H5791, H6915, H7743, H7812, H7817, G11200, G25780, G28270, G40980

Matthew References:

2:11; 4:9; 9:18; 17:6; 18:26; 18:29; 20:20; 26:39; 27:29

bread

Definition:

Bread is a food made from flour mixed with water and oil to form a dough. The dough is then shaped into a loaf and baked.

- When the term “loaf” occurs by itself, it means “loaf of bread.”
- Bread dough is usually made with something that makes it rise, such as yeast. However, bread can also be made without yeast so that it does not rise. This is called “unleavened bread” in the Bible. The ancient Israelites ate “unleavened bread” during the passover meal.
- Since bread was the main food for many people in biblical times, this term is also used in the Bible to refer to food in general. (See: Synecdoche) Many times the term “bread” can be translated more generally as “food.”
- The phrase “bread of the presence” refers to twelve loaves of bread that were placed on a golden table in the tabernacle or temple building as a sacrifice to God. These loaves represented the twelve tribes of Israel and were only for the priests to eat. This could be translated as “bread showing that God lived among them.”
- The term “bread from heaven” refers to the special white food called “manna” that God provided for the Israelites when they were wandering through the desert. Jesus also called himself the “bread that came down from heaven” and the “bread of life.”

(See also: Passover, tabernacle, temple, unleavened bread, yeast)

Bible References:

- Acts 2:46
- Acts 27:35
- Exodus 16:15
- Luke 9:13
- Mark 6:38
- Matthew 4:4
- Matthew 11:18

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2557, H3899, H4635, H4682, G01060, G07400, G42860

Matthew References:

4:3; 4:4; 6:11; 7:9; 12:4; 14:17; 14:19; 15:2; 15:26; 15:33; 15:34; 15:36; 16:5; 16:7; 16:8; 16:9; 16:10; 16:11; 16:12; 26:26 bridegroom, groom

Definition:

In a marriage ceremony, the bridegroom, also called the groom, is the man who will marry the bride (the woman).

Translation Suggestions:

You could use the term that your language uses to refer to the man who is getting married in a marriage ceremony or if you do not have a term for this in your language you could use a descriptive phrase to describe what a bridegroom is. Depending on the context you could translate the terms “bridegroom” and “groom” with descriptive phrases such as “a man getting married” or “a man who is being married” or “the man getting married.”

(See also: bride, marriage)

Bible References:

- Isaiah 62:5
- Joel 2:15-16
- John 3:30
- Luke 5:35
- Mark 2:19
- Mark 2:20
- Matthew 9:15

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2860, G35660

Matthew References:

9:15; 25:1; 25:5; 25:6; 25:10

bury, buried, burial

Definition:

The term “bury” refers to putting an object (usually a dead body) into a hole or other burial place and then covering it with dirt or stones, etc. The term “burial” is the act of burying something, or it can be used to describe a place where something has been buried.

- Often people bury a dead body by placing it into a deep hole in the ground and then covering it with dirt.
- Sometimes the dead body is placed in a box-like structure, such as a coffin, before burying it.
- In Bible times, dead people were often buried in a cave or similar place. After Jesus died, his body was wrapped in cloths and placed in a stone tomb that was sealed with a large boulder.
- The terms “burial place” or “burial room” or “burial chamber” or “burial cave” always refer to a place where a dead body is buried.
- Other things can also be buried, such as when Achan buried silver and other things that he had stolen from Jericho.
- The phrase “buried his face” usually means “covered his face with his hands.”
- Sometimes the word “hide” can mean “bury” as when Achan hid things in the ground that he had stolen from Jericho. This meant he buried them in the ground.

(See also: Jericho, tomb)

Bible References:

- 2 Kings 9:9-10
- Genesis 35:4-5
- Jeremiah 25:33
- Luke 16:22
- Matthew 27:7
- Psalm 79:1-3

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H6900, H6912, H6913, G17790, G17800, G22900, G49160, G50270

Matthew References:

8:21; 8:22; 14:12; 26:12; 27:7

Caesar

Definition:

The term “Caesar” was the name or title used by many of the rulers of the Roman Empire. In the Bible, this name refers to three different Roman rulers.

- The first Roman ruler named Caesar was “Caesar Augustus,” who was ruling during the time that Jesus was born.
- About thirty years later, at the time when John the Baptist was preaching, Tiberius Caesar was the ruler of the Roman Empire.
- Tiberius Caesar was still ruling Rome when Jesus told the people to pay Caesar what was due him and to give to God what is due him.
- When Paul appealed to Caesar, this referred to the Roman emperor, Nero, who also had the title “Caesar.”
- When “Caesar” is used by itself as a title, it can also be translated as: “the Emperor” or “the Roman Ruler.”
- In names such as Caesar Augustus or Tiberius Caesar, “Caesar” can be spelled close to the way a national language spells it.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: king, Paul, Rome)

Bible References:

- Acts 25:6
- Luke 2:1
- Luke 20:23-24
- Luke 23:2
- Mark 12:13-15
- Matthew 22:17
- Philippians 4:22

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G25410

Matthew References:

22:17; 22:21

Caesarea, Caesarea Philippi

Definition:

Caesarea was an important city on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea, about 39 kilometers south of Mount Carmel. Caesarea Philippi was a city located in the northeastern part of Israel, near Mount Hermon.

- These cities were named for the Caesars who ruled the Roman empire.
- The coastal Caesarea became the capital city of the Roman province of Judea around the time of the birth of Jesus.
- The apostle Peter first preached to the Gentiles in Caesarea.
- Paul sailed from Caesarea to Tarsus and also passed through this city on two of his missionary journeys.
- Jesus and his disciples traveled in the region surrounding Caesarea Philippi in Syria. Both cities were named after Herod Philip.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Caesar, Gentile, the sea, Carmel, Mount Hermon, Rome, Tarsus)

Bible References:

- Acts 9:30
- Acts 10:1-2
- Acts 25:1
- Acts 25:14
- Mark 8:27
- Matthew 16:13-16

Word Data:

- Strong's: G25420, G53760

Matthew References:

16:13

Caiaphas

Definition:

Caiaphas was the high priest of Israel during the time of John the Baptist and Jesus.

- Caiaphas played a major role in the trial and condemnation of Jesus.
- The high priests Annas and Caiaphas were at the trial of Peter and John when they were arrested after healing a crippled man.
- Caiaphas is the one who said that it was better for one man to die for the whole nation than for the whole nation to perish. God caused him to say this as a prophecy about how Jesus would die to save his people.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Annas, high priest)

Bible References:

- Acts 4:5-7
- John 18:12
- Luke 3:2
- Matthew 26:3-5
- Matthew 26:57-58

Word Data:

- Strong's: G25330

Matthew References:

26:3; 26:57

call, called, call out, called out

Definition:

The terms “call” and “call out,” in this sense, mean to speak loudly.

- To “call out” to someone means to shout, to announce, or to proclaim. It can also mean to ask someone for help, especially God.
- In some contexts the terms “call” and “call out” mean to loudly ask for help.

Translation Suggestions:

- The expression “call out to you” could be translated as “ask you for help” or “pray to you urgently.”
- To “call out” could be translated as “say loudly” or “shout” or “say with a loud voice.” Make sure the translation of this does not sound like the person is angry.

(See also: pray, cry, call to summon, call name)

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0559, H2199, H4744, H6817, H7121, H7123, H7769, H7773, G01540, G03630, G14580, G15280, G19410, G19510, G20280, G20460, G25640, G28210, G28220, G28400, G29190, G30040, G31060, G33330, G33430, G36030, G36860, G36870, G43160, G43410, G43770, G47790, G48670, G54550, G55370, G55810

Matthew References:

1:16; 1:21; 1:23; 1:25; 2:7; 2:15; 2:23; 4:18; 4:21; 5:9; 5:19; 9:13; 10:1; 10:2; 10:25; 11:16; 13:55; 15:10; 15:32; 18:2; 18:32; 20:8; 20:25; 20:32; 21:13; 22:3; 22:14; 22:43; 22:45; 23:7; 23:8; 23:9; 23:10; 25:14; 26:3; 26:14; 26:36; 27:8; 27:16; 27:17; 27:22; 27:33; 27:47

camel

Definition:

A camel is a large, four legged animal with one or two humps on its back. (See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

- In Bible times, the camel was the largest animal found in Israel and the surrounding regions.
- The camel was used mainly for carrying people and burdens.
- Some people groups also used camels for food but not the Israelites because God said that camels were unclean and were not to be eaten.
- Camels were valuable because they could move swiftly in the sand and could live without food and water for several weeks at a time.

(See also: burden, clean)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 5:21
- 2 Chronicles 9:1-2
- Exodus 9:1-4
- Mark 10:25
- Matthew 3:4
- Matthew 19:23-24

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1581, G25740

Matthew References:

3:4; 19:24; 23:24

Canaan, Canaanite

Definition:

Canaan was the son of Ham, who was one of Noah's sons. The Canaanites were the descendants of Canaan.

- The term "Canaan" or the "land of Canaan" also referred to an area of land between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea. It extended south to the border of Egypt and north to the border of Syria.
- This land was inhabited by the Canaanites, as well as several other people groups.
- God promised to give the land of Canaan to Abraham and his descendants, the Israelites.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Ham, Promised Land)

Bible References:

- Acts 13:19-20
- Exodus 3:7-8
- Genesis 9:18
- Genesis 10:19-20
- Genesis 13:7
- Genesis 47:2

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 4:5 He (Abram) took his wife, Sarai, together with all his servants and everything he owned and went to the land God showed him, the land of Canaan.
- 4:6 When Abram arrived in Canaan God said, "Look all around you. I will give to you and your descendants all the land that you can see as an inheritance."
- 4:9 "I give the land of Canaan to your descendants."
- 5:3 "I will give you and your descendants the land of Canaan as their possession and I will be their God forever."
- 7:8 After twenty years away from his home in Canaan, Jacob returned there with his family, his servants, and all his herds of animals.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3667, H3669, G54780

Matthew References:

15:intro; 15:22

Capernaum

Definition:

Capernaum was a fishing village on the northwest shore of the Sea of Galilee.

- Jesus lived in Capernaum whenever he was teaching in Galilee.
- Several of his disciples were from Capernaum.
- Jesus also did many miracles in this city, including bringing a dead girl back to life.
- Capernaum was one of three cities that Jesus publicly rebuked because their people rejected him and did not believe his message. He warned them that God would punish them for their unbelief.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Galilee, Sea of Galilee)

Bible References:

- John 2:12
- Luke 4:31
- Luke 7:1
- Mark 1:21
- Mark 2:2
- Matthew 4:12-13
- Matthew 17:24-25

Word Data:

- Strong's: G25840

Matthew References:

4:13; 8:5; 11:23; 17:24

cast out, driving out, throw out

Definition:

To “cast out” or “drive out” someone or something means to force that person or thing to go away.

- The term “cast” means the same thing as “throw.” To cast a net means to throw the net into the water.
- In a figurative sense, “cast out” or “cast away” someone can mean to reject that person and send him away.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this could include, “force out” or “send away” or “get rid of.”
- To “cast out demons” could be translated as “cause the demons to leave” or “drive the evil spirits out” or “expel the demons” or “command the demon to come out.”
- To “cast out” someone from a synagog or church could be translated as “banish them” or “put them out.”

(See also: demon, demon-possessed, lots)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:17-19
- Mark 3:13-16
- Mark 9:29
- Matthew 7:21-23
- Matthew 9:32-34
- Matthew 12:24
- Matthew 17:19-21

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1272, H1644, H1920, H3423, H7971, H7993, G15440

Matthew References:

7:22; 8:12; 8:16; 8:31; 9:25; 9:33; 9:34; 10:1; 10:8; 12:24; 12:26; 12:27; 12:28; 15:17; 17:19; 21:12; 21:39; 22:13; 25:30

centurion

Definition:

A centurion was a Roman army officer who had a group of 100 soldiers under his command.

- This could also be translated with a term that means “leader of a hundred men” or “army leader” or “officer in charge of a hundred.”
- One Roman centurion came to Jesus to request healing for his servant.
- The centurion in charge of Jesus’ crucifixion was amazed when he witnessed how Jesus died.
- God sent a centurion to Peter so that Peter could explain to him the good news about Jesus.

(See also: Rome)

Bible References:

- Acts 10:1
- Acts 27:1
- Acts 27:42-44
- Luke 7:4
- Luke 23:47
- Mark 15:39
- Matthew 8:7
- Matthew 27:54

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G15430, G27600

Matthew References:

8:5; 8:8; 8:13; 27:54

chaff

Definition:

Chaff is a dry protective covering of a grain seed. The chaff is not good for food so people separate it from the seed and throw it away.

- Often, the chaff is separated from the seed by throwing the heads of grain up into the air. The wind blows the chaff away and the seed falls on the ground. This process is called "winnowing."
- In the Bible, this term is also used figuratively to refer to evil people and evil, worthless things.

(See also: grain, wheat, winnow)

Bible References:

- Daniel 2:35
- Job 21:18
- Luke 3:17
- Matthew 3:12

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2842, H4671, H5784, H8401, G08920

Matthew References:

3:12

chosen, choose, chosen people, Chosen One, elect

Definition:

The term “the elect” literally means “chosen ones” or “chosen people” and refers to those whom God has appointed or selected to be his people. “Chosen One” or “Chosen One of God” is a title that refers to Jesus, who is the chosen Messiah.

- The term “choose” means to select something or someone or to decide something. It is often used to refer to God appointing people to belong to him and to serve him.
- To be “chosen” means to be “selected” or “appointed” to be or do something.
- God chose people to be holy, to be set apart by him for the purpose of bearing good spiritual fruit. That is why they are called “the chosen (ones)” or “the elect.”
- The term “chosen one” is sometimes used in the Bible to refer to certain people such as Moses and King David whom God had appointed as leaders over his people. It is also used to refer to the nation of Israel as God’s chosen people.
- The phrase “the elect” is an older term that literally means “the chosen ones” or “the chosen people.” This phrase in the original language is plural when referring to believers in Christ.
- In older English Bible versions, the term “elect” is used in both the Old and New Testaments to translate the word for “chosen one(s).” More modern versions use “elect” only in the New Testament, to refer to people who have been saved by God through faith in Jesus. Elsewhere in the Bible text, they translate this word more literally as “chosen ones.”

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate “elect” with a word or phrase that means “chosen ones” or “chosen people.” This could also be translated as “people whom God chose” or “the ones God appointed to be his people.”
- The phrase “who were chosen” could also be translated as “who were appointed” or “who were selected” or “whom God chose.”
- “I chose you” could be translated as “I appointed you” or “I selected you.”
- In reference to Jesus, “Chosen One” could also be translated as “God’s chosen One” or “God’s specially appointed Messiah” or “the One God appointed (to save people).”

(See also: appoint, Christ)

Bible References:

- 2 John 1:1

- Colossians 3:12
- Ephesians 1:3-4
- Isaiah 65:22-23
- Luke 18:7
- Matthew 24:19-22
- Romans 8:33

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0970, H0972, H0977, H1262, H1305, H4005, H6901, G01380, G01400, G15860, G15880, G15890, G19510, G37240, G44000, G44010, G47580, G48990, G55000

Matthew References:

12:18; 22:14; 24:22; 24:24; 24:31

Christ, Messiah

Definition:

The terms “Messiah” and “Christ” mean “Anointed One” and refer to Jesus, God’s Son.

- Both “Messiah” and “Christ” are used in the New Testament to refer to God’s Son, whom God the Father appointed to rule as king over his people, and to save them from sin and death.
- In the Old Testament, the prophets wrote prophecies about the Messiah hundreds of years before he came to earth.
- Often a word meaning “anointed (one)” is used in the Old Testament to refer to the Messiah who would come.
- Jesus fulfilled many of these prophecies and did many miraculous works that proves he is the Messiah; the rest of these prophecies will be fulfilled when he returns.
- The word “Christ” is often used as a title, as in “the Christ” and “Christ Jesus.”
- “Christ” also came to be used as part of his name, as in “Jesus Christ.”

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated using its meaning, “the Anointed One” or “God’s Anointed Savior.”
- Many languages use a transliterated word that looks or sounds like “Christ” or “Messiah.” (See: How to Translate Unknowns)
- The transliterated word could be followed by the definition of the term as in, “Christ, the Anointed One.”
- Be consistent in how this is translated throughout the Bible so that it is clear that the same term is being referred to.
- Make sure the translations of “Messiah” and “Christ” work well in contexts where both terms occur in the same verse (such as John 1:41).

(See also: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Son of God, David, Jesus, anoint)

Bible References:

- 1 John 5:1-3
- Acts 2:35
- Acts 5:40-42

- John 1:40-42
- John 3:27-28
- John 4:25
- Luke 2:10-12
- Matthew 1:16

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 17:7 The Messiah was God's Chosen One who would save the people of the world from sin.
- 17:8 As it happened, the Israelites would have to wait a long time before the Messiah came, almost 1,000 years.
- 21:1 From the very beginning, God planned to send the Messiah.
- 21:4 God promised King David that the Messiah would be one of David's own descendants.
- 21:5 The Messiah would start the New Covenant.
- 21:6 God's prophets also said that the Messiah would be a prophet, a priest, and a king.
- 21:9 The prophet Isaiah prophesied that the Messiah would be born from a virgin.
- 43:7 "But God raised him to life again to fulfill the prophecy which says, 'You will not let your Holy One rot in the grave.'"
- 43:9 "But know for certain that God has caused Jesus to become both Lord and Messiah!"
- 43:11 Peter answered them, "Every one of you should repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ so that God will forgive your sins."
- 46:6 Saul reasoned with the Jews, proving that Jesus was the Messiah.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H4899, G33230, G55470

Matthew References:

1:1; 1:16; 1:17; 1:18; 2:4; 11:2; 16:16; 16:20; 16:21; 22:42; 23:10; 24:5; 24:23; 26:63; 26:68; 27:17; 27:22

church, Church

Definition:

In the New Testament, the term “church” refers to all people who believe in Jesus. Sometimes “church” refers to a part of that larger group who regularly met together in a certain place, such as the “church at Ephesus.”

- This term literally refers to an assembly or congregation of people who were “called out” of the general population to meet together for a special purpose.
- Often the believers in a particular city would meet together in someone’s home to pray together and to hear and discuss scripture. These local churches were given the name of the city such as the “church at Ephesus.”
- In the Bible, “church” does not refer to a building.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “church” could be translated as a “gathering together” or “assembly” or “congregation” or “ones who meet together.”
- The word or phrase that is used to translate this term should also be able to refer to all believers, not just one small group.
- Make sure that the translation of “church” does not just refer to a building.
- The term used to translate “assembly” in the Old Testament could also be used to translate this term.
- Also consider how it is translated in a local or national Bible translation. (See: How to Translate Unknowns.)

(See also: assembly, believe, Christian)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 5:12
- 1 Thessalonians 2:14
- 1 Timothy 3:5
- Acts 9:31
- Acts 14:23
- Acts 15:41
- Colossians 4:15

- Ephesians 5:23
- Matthew 16:18
- Philippians 4:15

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 43:12 About 3,000 people believed what Peter said and became disciples of Jesus. They were baptized and became part of the church at Jerusalem.
- 46:9 Most of the people in Antioch were not Jews, but for the first time, very many of them also became believers. Barnabas and Saul went there to teach these new believers more about Jesus and to strengthen the church.
- 46:10 So the church in Antioch prayed for Barnabas and Saul and placed their hands on them. Then they sent them off to preach the good news of Jesus in many other places.
- 47:13 The good news of Jesus kept spreading, and the Church kept growing.
- 50:1 For almost 2,000 years, more and more people around the world have been hearing the good news about Jesus the Messiah. The Church has been growing.

Word Data:

- Strong's: G15770

Matthew References:

16:18; 18:17

compassion, compassionate

Definition:

The term “compassion” refers to a feeling of concern for people, especially for those who are suffering. A “compassionate” person cares about other people and helps them.

- The word “compassion” refers to caring about people in need, as well as taking action to help them.
- The Bible says that God is compassionate, that is, he is full of love and mercy.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways of translating “compassion” could include, “deep caring” or “pity” or “helpful mercy.”
- The term “compassionate” could also be translated as “caring and helpful” or “deeply loving and merciful.”

Bible References:

- Daniel 1:8-10
- Hosea 13:14
- James 5:9-11
- Jonah 4:1-3
- Mark 1:41
- Romans 9:14-16

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2550, H7349, H7355, H7356, G16530, G33560, G36270, G46970, G48340, G48350

Matthew References:

9:36; 14:14; 15:32; 18:27; 20:34

conceive, conceived, conception

Definition:

Used in this sense, the terms “conceive” and “conception” usually refer to a woman becoming pregnant with a child. It can also be used for animals that become pregnant.

- The phrase “conceive a child” could be translated as “become pregnant” or some other term that is an acceptable way of referring to this.
- The related term “conception” could be translated as “beginning of a pregnancy” or “moment of becoming pregnant.”
- Depending on context, the term “conceived” could be translated as “became pregnant” or “became pregnant with.”

(See also: create, womb)

Bible References:

- Genesis 21:1-4
- Hosea 2:4-5
- Job 15:35
- Luke 1:24-25
- Luke 2:21

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2029, H2030, H2032, H2232, H2254, H2803, H3179, G10800, G17220, G28450, G48150

Matthew References:

1:20

condemn, condemned, condemnation

Definition:

The terms “condemn” and “condemnation” refer to judging someone for doing something wrong.

- Often the word “condemn” includes punishing that person for what they did wrong.
- Sometimes “condemn” means to falsely accuse someone or to judge someone harshly.
- The term “condemnation” refers to the act of condemning or accusing someone.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, this term could be translated as “harshly judge” or “criticize falsely.”
- The phrase “condemn him” could be translated as “judge that he is guilty” or “state that he must be punished for his sin.”
- The term “condemnation” could be translated as “harsh judging” or “declaring to be guilty” or “punishment of guilt.”

(See also: judge, punish)

Bible References:

- 1 John 3:20
- Job 9:29
- John 5:24
- Luke 6:37
- Matthew 12:7
- Proverbs 17:15-16
- Psalms 34:22
- Romans 5:16

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H6064, H7034, H7561, H8199, G01760, G08430, G26070, G26130, G26310, G26320, G26330, G29170, G29190, G29200, G52720, G60480

Matthew References:

12:7; 12:37; 12:41; 12:42; 20:18; 27:3

confess, confession

Definition:

To confess means to admit or assert that something is true. A “confession” is a statement or admission that something is true.

- The term “confess” can refer to boldly stating the truth about God. It can also refer to admitting that we have sinned.
- The Bible says that if people confess their sins to God, he will forgive them.
- James the apostle wrote in his letter that when believers confess their sins to each other, this brings spiritual healing.
- The apostle Paul wrote to the Philippians that someday everyone will confess or declare that Jesus is Lord.
- Paul also said that if people confess that Jesus is Lord and believe that God raised him from the dead, they will be saved.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate “confess” could include, “admit” or “testify” or “declare” or “acknowledge” or “affirm.”
- Different ways to translate “confession” could be, “declaration” or “testimony” or “statement about what we believe” or “admitting sin.”

(See also: faith, testimony)

Bible References:

- 1 John 1:8-10
- 2 John 1:7-8
- James 5:16
- Leviticus 5:5-6
- Matthew 3:4-6
- Nehemiah 1:6-7
- Philippians 2:9-11
- Psalms 38:17-18

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3034, H8426, G18430, G36700, G36710

Matthew References:

3:6; 10:32

cornerstone

Definition:

The term “cornerstone” refers to a large stone that has been specially cut and placed in the corner of the foundation of a building.

- All the other stones of the building are measured and placed in relation to the cornerstone.
- It is very important for the strength and stability of the whole structure.
- In the New Testament, the Assembly of believers is metaphorically compared to a building which has Jesus Christ as its “cornerstone.”
- In the same way that the cornerstone of a building supports and determines the position of the whole building, so Jesus Christ is the cornerstone on which the Assembly of believers is founded and supported.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “cornerstone” could also be translated as “main building stone” or “foundation stone.”
- Consider whether the target language has a term for a part of a building’s foundation that is the main support. If so, this term could be used.
- Another way to translate this would be, “a foundation stone used for the corner of a building.”
- It is important to keep the fact that this is a large stone, used as a solid and secure building material. If stones are not used for constructing buildings, there may be another word that could be used that means “large stone” (such as “boulder”) but it should also have the idea of being well-formed and made to fit.

Bible References:

- Acts 4:11
- Ephesians 2:20
- Matthew 21:42
- Psalms 118:22

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0068, H6438, H7218, G02040, G11370, G27760, G30370

Matthew References:

21:42

corrupt witness, false report, false testimony, false witness

Definition:

The terms “false witness” and “corrupt witness” refer to a person who says untrue things about a person or an event, usually in a formal setting such as a court.

- A “false testimony” or “false report” is the actual lie that is told.
- To “bear false witness” means to lie or give a false report about something.
- The Bible gives several accounts in which false witnesses were hired to lie about someone in order to have that person punished or killed.

Translation Suggestions:

- To “bear false witness” or “give a false testimony” could be translated as “testify falsely” or “give a false report about someone” or “speak falsely against someone” or “lie.”
- When “false witness” refers to a person, it could be translated as “person who lies” or “one who testifies falsely” or “someone who says things that are not true.”

(See also: testimony, true)

Bible References:

- Deuteronomy 19:19
- Exodus 20:16
- Matthew 15:18-20
- Matthew 19:18-19
- Proverbs 14:5-6
- Psalms 27:11-12

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5707, H6030, H7650, H8267, G19650, G31440, G55710, G55750, G55760, G55770

Matthew References:

15:19; 19:18; 26:60

corrupt, corrupted, corruption, incorruptibility, depraved

Definition:

The terms “corrupt” and “corruption” refer to a state of affairs in which people have become ruined, immoral, or dishonest.

- The term “corrupt” literally means to be “bent” or “broken” morally.
- A person who is corrupt has turned away from truth and is doing things that are dishonest or immoral.
- To corrupt someone means to influence that person to do dishonest and immoral things.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term to “corrupt” could be translated as to “influence to do evil” or to “cause to be immoral.”
- A corrupt person could be described as a person “who has become immoral” or “who practices evil.”
- This term could also be translated as “bad” or “immoral” or “evil.”
- The term “corruption” could be translated as “the practice of evil” or “evil” or “immorality.”

(See also: evil)

Bible References:

- Ezekiel 20:42-44
- Galatians 6:6-8
- Genesis 6:12
- Matthew 12:33-35
- Psalm 14:1

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2610, H3891, H4889, H7843, H7844, G08610, G13110, G27040, G53510, G53560

Matthew References:

7:17; 7:18; 12:33; 13:48

council

Definition:

A council is a group of people who meet to discuss, give advice, and make decisions about important matters.

- A council is usually organized in an official and somewhat permanent way for a specific purpose, such as making decisions about legal matters.
- The "Jewish Council" in Jerusalem, also known as the "Sanhedrin," had 70 members, which included Jewish leaders such as chief priests, elders, scribes, Pharisees, and Sadducees who met regularly to decide matters of Jewish law. It was this council of religious leaders who put Jesus on trial and decided that he should be killed.
- There were also smaller Jewish councils in other cities.
- The apostle Paul was brought before a Roman council when he was arrested for teaching the gospel.
- Depending on the context, the word "council" could also be translated as "legal assembly" or "political assembly."
- To be "in council" means to be in a special meeting to decide something.
- Note that this is a different word than "counsel," which means "wise advice."

(See also: assembly, counsel, Pharisee, law, priest, Sadducee, scribe)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:57-58
- Acts 24:20
- John 3:2
- Luke 22:68
- Mark 13:9
- Matthew 5:22
- Matthew 26:59

Word Data:

- Strong's: H4186, H5475, G10100, G48240, G48920

Matthew References:

5:22; 10:17; 26:59

courage, courageous, valor

Definition:

The term “courage” refers to boldly facing or doing something that is difficult, frightening, or dangerous.

- The term, “courageous” describes someone who shows courage, who does the right thing even when feeling afraid or pressured to give up.
- A person shows courage when he faces emotional or physical pain with strength and perseverance or when he faces the threat of emotional or physical pain with emotional strength.
- The expression “take courage” means “do not be afraid” or “be assured that things will turn out well.”
- When Joshua was preparing to go into the dangerous land of Canaan, Moses exhorted him to be “strong and courageous.”
- The term “courageous” could also be translated as “brave” or “unafraid” or “bold.”
- Depending on the context, to “have courage” could also be translated as “be emotionally strong” or “be confident” or “stand firm.”
- To “speak with courage” could be translated as “speak boldly” or “speak without being afraid” or “speak confidently.”

Translation Suggestions

(See also: encourage, confidence, fear, strength)

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0553, H2428, H2865, G21140, G21150, G21740, G22930, G22940, G38700, G38740, G43890, G51110

Matthew References:

9:2; 9:22; 14:27

covenant

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “covenant” refers to a formal, binding agreement between two parties that one or both parties must fulfill.

- This agreement can be between individuals, between groups of people, or between God and people.
- When people make a covenant with each other, they promise that they will do something, and they must do it.
- Examples of human covenants include marriage covenants, business agreements, and treaties between countries.
- Throughout the Bible, God made several different covenants with his people.
- In some of the covenants, God promised to fulfill his part without conditions. For example, when God established his covenant with mankind promising to never destroy the earth again with a worldwide flood, this promise had no conditions for people to fulfill.
- In other covenants, God promised to fulfill his part only if the people obeyed him and fulfilled their part of the covenant.

The term “new covenant” refers to the commitment or agreement God made with his people through the sacrifice of his Son, Jesus.

- God’s “new covenant” was explained in the part of the Bible called the “New Testament.”
- This new covenant is in contrast to the “old” or “former” covenant that God had made with the Israelites in Old Testament times.
- The new covenant is better than the old one because it is based on the sacrifice of Jesus, which completely atoned for people’s sins forever. The sacrifices made under the old covenant did not do this.
- God writes the new covenant on the hearts those who become believers in Jesus. This causes them to want to obey God and to begin to live holy lives.
- The new covenant will be completely fulfilled in the end times when God establishes his reign on earth. Everything will once again be very good, as it was when God first created the world.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate this term could include, “binding agreement” or “formal commitment” or “pledge” or “contract.”

- Some languages may have different words for covenant depending on whether one party or both parties have made a promise they must keep. If the covenant is one-sided, it could be translated as “promise” or “pledge.”
- Make sure the translation of this term does not sound like people proposed the covenant. In all cases of covenants between God and people, it was God who initiated the covenant.
- The term “new covenant” could be translated as “new formal agreement” or “new pact” or “new contract.”
- The word “new” in these expressions has the meaning of “fresh” or “new kind of” or “another.”

(See also: covenant, promise)

Bible References:

- Genesis 9:12
- Genesis 17:7
- Genesis 31:44
- Exodus 34:10-11
- Joshua 24:24-26
- 2 Samuel 23:5
- 2 Kings 18:11-12
- Mark 14:24
- Luke 1:73
- Luke 22:20
- Acts 7:8
- 1 Corinthians 11:25-26
- 2 Corinthians 3:6
- Galatians 3:17-18
- Hebrews 12:24

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 4:9 Then God made a covenant with Abram. A covenant is an agreement between two parties.
- 5:4 "I will make Ishmael a great nation, too, but my covenant will be with Isaac."
- 6:4 After a long time, Abraham died and all of the promises that God had made to him in the covenant were passed on to Isaac.
- 7:10 "The covenant promises God had promised to Abraham and then to Isaac now passed on to Jacob."
- 13:2 God said to Moses and the people of Israel, "If you will obey my voice and keep my covenant, you will be my prized possession, a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation."
- 13:4 Then God gave them the covenant and said, "I am Yahweh, your God, who saved you from slavery in Egypt. Do not worship other gods."
- 15:13 Then Joshua reminded the people of their obligation to obey the covenant that God had made with the Israelites at Sinai.
- 21:5 Through the prophet Jeremiah, God promised that he would make a New Covenant, but not like the covenant God made with Israel at Sinai. In the New Covenant, God would write his law on the people's hearts, the people would know God personally, they would be his people, and God would forgive their sins. The Messiah would start the New Covenant.
- 21:14 Through the Messiah's death and resurrection, God would accomplish his plan to save sinners and start the New Covenant.
- 38:5 Then Jesus took a cup and said, "Drink this. It is my blood of the New Covenant that is poured out for the forgiveness of sins. Do this to remember me every time you drink it."
- 48:11 But God has now made a New Covenant that is available to everyone. Because of this New Covenant, anyone from any people group can become part of God's people by believing in Jesus.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1285, H2319, H3772, G08020, G12420, G49340

Matthew References:

26:28

create, created, creation, creator

Definition:

The term “create” means to make something or to cause something to be. Whatever is created is called a “creation.” God is called the “Creator” because he caused everything in the entire universe to come into existence.

- When this term is used to refer to God creating the world, it means he made it out of nothing.
- When human beings “create” something, it means they made it out of things that already existed.
- Sometimes “create” is used in a figurative way to describe something abstract, such as creating peace, or creating a pure heart in someone.
- The term “creation” can refer to the very beginning of the world when God first created everything. It can also be used to refer generally to everything that God created. Sometimes the word “creation” refers more specifically to just the people in the world.

Translation Suggestions:

- Some languages may have to directly say that God created the world “out of nothing” to make sure this meaning is clear.
- The phrase, “since the creation of the world” means “since the time when God created the world.”
- A similar phrase, “at the beginning of creation” could be translated as “when God created the world at the beginning of time,” or “when the world was first created.”
- To preach the good news to “all creation” means to preach the good news to “all people everywhere on earth.”
- The phrase “Let all creation rejoice” means “Let everything that God created rejoice.”
- Depending on the context, “create” could be translated as “make” or “cause to be” or “make out of nothing.”
- The term “the Creator” could be translated as “the One who created everything” or “God, who made the whole world.”
- Phrases like “your Creator” could be translated as “God, who created you.”

(See also: God, good news, world)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 11:9-10

- 1 Peter 4:17-19
- Colossians 1:15
- Galatians 6:15
- Genesis 1:1
- Genesis 14:19-20

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3335, H4639, H6213, H6385, H7069, G20410, G26020, G26750, G29360, G29370, G29390, G41600, G54800

Matthew References:

13:35; 25:34

cross

Definition:

In Bible times, a cross was an upright wooden post stuck into the ground, with a horizontal wooden beam attached to it near the top.

- During the time of the Roman Empire, the Roman government would execute criminals by tying or nailing them to a cross and leaving them there to die.
- Jesus was falsely accused of crimes he did not commit and the Romans put him to death on a cross.
- Note that this is a completely different word from the verb "cross" that means to go over to the other side of something, such as a river or lake.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated using a term in the target language that refers to the shape of a cross.
- Consider describing the cross as something on which people were killed, using phrases such as "execution post" or "tree of death."
- Also consider how this word is translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language. (See: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: crucify, Rome)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 1:17
- Colossians 2:15
- Galatians 6:12
- John 19:18
- Luke 9:23
- Luke 23:26
- Matthew 10:38
- Philippians 2:8

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 40:1 After the soldiers mocked Jesus, they led him away to crucify him. They made him carry the cross on which he would die.
- 40:2 The soldiers brought Jesus to a place called “the Skull” and nailed his arms and feet to the cross.
- 40:5 The Jewish leaders and the other people in the crowd mocked Jesus. They said to him, “If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross and save yourself! Then we will believe you.”
- 49:10 When Jesus died on the cross, he received your punishment.
- 49:12 You must believe that Jesus is the Son of God, that he died on the cross instead of you, and that God raised him to life again.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G47160

Matthew References:

10:38; 16:24; 27:32; 27:40; 27:42

crown, crowned

Definition:

A crown is a decorative, circular headpiece worn on the head of rulers such as kings and queens. The term to "crown" means to put a crown on someone's head; figuratively it means, to "honor."

- Crowns are usually made of gold or silver, and are embedded with precious gems such as emeralds and rubies.
- A crown was intended to be a symbol of a king's power and wealth.
- By contrast, the crown made of thorn branches that the Roman soldiers placed on Jesus' head was meant to mock him and hurt him.
- In ancient times, winners of athletic contests would be awarded a crown made out of olive branches. The apostle Paul mentions this crown in his second letter to Timothy.
- Used figuratively, to "crown" means to honor someone. We honor God by obeying him and praising him to others. This is like putting a crown on him and acknowledging that he is King.
- Paul calls fellow believers his "joy and crown." In this expression, "crown" is used figuratively to mean that Paul has been greatly blessed and honored by how these believers have remained faithful in serving God.
- When used figuratively, "crown" could be translated as "prize" or "honor" or "reward."
- The figurative use of to "crown" could be translated as to "honor" or to "decorate."
- If a person is "crowned" this could be translated as "a crown was put on his head."
- The expression, "he was crowned with glory and honor" could be translated as "glory and honor were bestowed on him" or "he was given glory and honor" or "he was endowed with glory and honor."

(See also: glory, king, olive)

Bible References:

- John 19:3
- Lamentations 5:16
- Matthew 27:29
- Philippians 4:1
- Psalms 21:3
- Revelation 3:11

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3803, H3804, H5145, H5849, H5850, H6936, G12380, G47350, G47370

Matthew References:

27:29

crucify, crucified

Definition:

The term “crucify” means to execute someone by attaching him to a cross and leaving him there to suffer and die in great pain.

- The victim was either tied to the cross or nailed to it. Crucified people died from blood loss or from suffocation.
- The ancient Roman Empire frequently used this method of execution to punish and kill people who were terrible criminals or who had rebelled against the authority of their government.
- The Jewish religious leaders asked the Roman governor to order his soldiers to crucify Jesus. The soldiers nailed Jesus to a cross. He suffered there for six hours, and then died.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “crucify” could be translated as “kill on a cross” or “execute by nailing to a cross.”

(See also: cross, Rome)

Bible References:

- Acts 2:23
- Galatians 2:20-21
- Luke 23:20-22
- Luke 23:34
- Matthew 20:17-19
- Matthew 27:23-24

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 39:11 But the Jewish leaders and the crowd shouted, “Crucify him (Jesus)!”
- 39:12 Pilate became afraid that the crowd would begin to riot, so he ordered his soldiers to crucify Jesus.played a major role in the crucifixion of Jesus Christ.
- 40:1 After the soldiers mocked Jesus, they led him away to crucify him. They made him carry the cross on which he would die.
- 40:4 Jesus was crucified between two robbers.

- 43:6 “Men of Israel, Jesus was a man who did many mighty signs and wonders by the power of God, as you have seen and already know. But you crucified him!”
- 43:9 “You crucified this man, Jesus.”
- 44:8 Peter answered them, “This man stands before you healed by the power of Jesus the Messiah. You crucified Jesus, but God raised him to life again!”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G03880, G43620, G47170, G49570

Matthew References:

20:19; 23:34; 26:2; 27:22; 27:23; 27:26; 27:31; 27:35; 27:38; 27:44; 28:5

cry, cry out, outcry

Definition:

The terms “cry” or “cry out” usually mean to say something loudly or urgently. Someone can “cry out” in pain, distress, anger, or fear, often with the intent of asking for help.

- The phrase “cry out” can mean to shout or to call out with the intent of asking for help.
- The terms “cry” or “cry out” can also mean to pray.
- This term could also be translated as “exclaim loudly” or “urgently ask for help,” depending on the context.
- An expression such as, “I cry out to you” could be translated as “I call to you for help” or “I urgently ask you for help.”

(See also: call speak loudly, plead, pray)

Bible References:

- Job 27:9
- Mark 5:5-6
- Mark 6:48-50
- Psalm 22:1-2

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1058, H2199, H2201, H6030, H6463, H6670, H6682, H6817, H6818, H6873, H6963, H7121, H7123, H7321, H7440, H7442, H7723, H7737, H7768, H7771, H7775, H8663, G03100, G03490, G08630, G09940, G09950, G19160, G20190, G27990, G28050, G28960, G29050, G29060, G29290, G43770, G54550

Matthew References:

3:3; 8:29; 9:27; 12:19; 14:26; 14:30; 15:22; 15:23; 20:30; 20:31; 21:9; 21:15; 25:6; 27:23; 27:46; 27:50 curse, cursed, cursing

Definition:

The term “curse” means to cause negative things to happen to the person or thing that is being cursed.

- A curse can be a statement that harm will happen to someone or something.
- To curse someone can also be an expression of desire that bad things will happen to them.
- It can also refer to the punishment or other negative things that someone causes to happen to someone.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated as “cause bad things to happen to” or “declare that something bad will happen to” or “swear to cause evil things to happen to.”
- In the context of God sending curses on his disobedient people, it could be translated as “punish by allowing bad things to happen.”
- The term “cursed” when used to describe people could be translated as “(this person) will experience much trouble.”
- The phrase “cursed be” could be translated as “May (this person) experience great difficulties.”
- The phrase, “Cursed is the ground” could be translated as “The soil will not be very fertile.”
- However, if the target language has the phrase “cursed be” and it has the same meaning, then it is good to keep the same phrase.

(See also: bless)

Bible References:

- 1 Samuel 14:24-26
- 2 Peter 2:12-14
- Galatians 3:10
- Galatians 3:14
- Genesis 3:14
- Genesis 3:17
- James 3:10

- Numbers 22:6
- Psalms 109:28

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 2:9 God said to the snake, “You are cursed!”
- 2:11 “Now the ground is cursed, and you will need to work hard to grow food.”
- 4:4 “I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you.”
- 39:7 Then Peter vowed, saying, “May God curse me if I know this man!”
- 50:16 Because Adam and Eve disobeyed God and brought sin into this world, God cursed it and decided to destroy it.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0422, H0423, H0779, H1288, H2763, H2764, H3994, H5344, H6895, H7043, H7045, H7621, H8381, G03310, G03320, G06850, G19440, G25510, G26520, G26530, G26710, G26720, G60350

Matthew References:

25:41; 26:74

curtain

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “curtain” refers to a very thick, heavy piece of material used in the making of the tabernacle and the temple.

- The tabernacle was built using four layers of curtains for the top and sides. These curtain coverings were made of cloth or animal skins.
- Cloth curtains were also used to form a wall surrounding the tabernacle courtyard. These curtains were made out of “linen” which was a kind of cloth made out of the flax plant.
- In both the tabernacle and temple building, a thick cloth curtain hung between the holy place and the most holy place. It was this curtain that was miraculously torn into two parts when Jesus died.

Translation Suggestions:

- Since modern-day curtains are very different from the curtains used in the Bible, it may be more clear to use a different word or to add words that describe the curtains.
- Depending on the context, ways to translate this term could include, “curtain covering” or “covering” or “piece of thick cloth” or “animal skin covering” or “hanging piece of cloth.”

(See also: holy place, tabernacle, temple)

Bible References:

- Hebrews 10:20
- Leviticus 4:17
- Luke 23:45
- Matthew 27:51
- Numbers 4:5

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1852, H3407, H4539, H6532, H7050, G26650

Matthew References:

27:51

Cyrene

Definition:

Cyrene was a Greek city on the north coast of Africa on the Mediterranean Sea, directly south of the island of Crete.

- In New Testament times, both Jews and Christians lived in Cyrene.
- Cyrene is probably most well-known in the Bible as the home city of a man named Simon who carried the cross of Jesus.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Crete)

Bible References:

- Acts 11:19-21
- Matthew 27:32-34

Word Data:

- Strong's: G29560, G29570

Matthew References:

27:32

Daniel

Definition:

Daniel was an Israelite prophet who as a young man was taken captive by the Babylonian king Nebuchadnezzar around 600 BC.

- This was during the time that many other Israelites from Judah were held captive in Babylon for 70 years.
- Daniel was given the Babylonian name Belteshazzar.
- Daniel was an honorable and righteous young man who obeyed God.
- God enabled Daniel to interpret several dreams or visions for the Babylonian kings.
- Because of this ability and because of his honorable character, Daniel was given a high leadership position in the Babylonian empire.
- Many years later, Daniels enemies tricked the Babylonian king Darius into making a law forbidding the worship of anyone except the king. Daniel continued to pray to God, so he was arrested and thrown into a den of lions. But God rescued him and he was not harmed at all.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Babylon, Nebuchadnezzar)

Bible References:

- Daniel 1:6-7
- Daniel 5:29
- Daniel 7:28
- Ezekiel 14:12-14
- Matthew 24:15

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1840, H1841, G11580

Matthew References:

24:15

David

Definition:

David was the second king of Israel and he loved and served God. He was the main writer of the book of Psalms.

- When David was still a young boy caring for his family's sheep, God chose him to become the next king of Israel.
- David became a great fighter and led the Israelite army in battles against their enemies. His defeat of Goliath the Philistine is well known.
- King Saul tried to kill David, but God protected him, and made him king after Saul's death.
- David committed a terrible sin, but he repented and God forgave him.
- Jesus, the Messiah, is called the "Son of David" because he is a descendant of King David.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Goliath, Philistines, Saul (OT))

Bible References:

- 1 Samuel 17:12-13
- 1 Samuel 20:34
- 2 Samuel 5:2
- 2 Timothy 2:8
- Acts 2:25
- Acts 13:22
- Luke 1:32
- Mark 2:26

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 17:2 God chose a young Israelite named David to be king after Saul. David was a shepherd from the town of Bethlehem. … David was a humble and righteous man who trusted and obeyed God.

- 17:3 David was also a great soldier and leader. When David was still a young man, he fought against a giant named Goliath.
- 17:4 Saul became jealous of the people's love for David. Saul tried many times to kill him, so David hid from Saul.
- 17:5 God blessed David and made him successful. David fought many battles and God helped him defeat Israel's enemies.
- 17:6 David wanted to build a temple where all the Israelites could worship God and offer him sacrifices.
- 17:9 David ruled with justice and faithfulness for many years, and God blessed him. However, toward the end of his life he sinned terribly against God.
- 17:13 God was very angry about what David had done, so he sent the prophet Nathan to tell David how evil his sin was. David repented of his sin and God forgave him. For the rest of his life, David followed and obeyed God, even in difficult times.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1732, G11380

Matthew References:

1:1; 1:6; 1:17; 1:20; 9:27; 12:3; 12:23; 15:22; 20:30; 20:31; 21:9; 21:15; 22:42; 22:43; 22:45

day

Definition:

The term “day” generally refers to the time it takes for the alternating periods of light and darkness in the sky to complete one cycle (that is, 24 hours). However, in the Bible the same term is often used to refer to a shorter period of time (such as the time between sunrise and sunset) or a longer period of time that is often not specified.

- “Day” is sometimes used in contrast to “night.” In these cases, the term refers to the period of time when the sky is light.
- The term may also refer to a specific point in time, such as “today.”
- Sometimes the term “day” is used figuratively to refer to a longer period of time, such as the “day of Yahweh” or “last days.” Some languages will use a different expression to translate these figurative uses or will translate “day” non-figuratively.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term literally as “day” or “daytime” using the word in your language that refers to the part of the day when there is light.
- Other translations of “day” could include “daytime,” “time,” “season,” “occasion” or “event,” depending on the context.

(See also: time, judgment day, last day)

Bible References:

- Acts 20:6
- Daniel 10:4
- Ezra 6:15
- Ezra 6:19
- Matthew 9:15

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3117, H3118, H6242, G22500

Matthew References:

2:1; 3:1; 4:2; 6:34; 7:22; 9:15; 10:15; 11:12; 11:22; 11:24; 12:36; 12:40; 13:1; 15:32; 16:21; 17:1; 17:23; 20:2; 20:6; 20:12; 20:19; 22:23; 22:46; 23:30; 24:19; 24:22; 24:29; 24:36; 24:37; 24:38; 24:42; 24:50; 25:13; 26:2; 26:29; 26:55; 26:61; 27:40; 27:63; 27:64; 28:20 deceive, lie, deception, illusion

Definition:

The term “deceive” means to cause someone to believe something that is not true, often by telling a “lie.” The act of deceiving someone is called “lying,” “deceit,” or “deception.”

- Someone who causes others to believe something false is a “deceiver.” For example, Satan is called a “deceiver.” The evil spirits that he controls are also deceivers.
- To “lie” is to say something that is not true.
- A person, action, or message that is not truthful can be described as “deceptive.”
- The terms “deceit” and “deception” have the same meaning, but there are some small differences in how they are used.
- The descriptive terms “deceitful” and “deceptive” have the same meaning and are used in the same contexts.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “deceive” could include “lie to” or “cause to have a false belief” or “cause someone to think something that is not true.”
- The term “deceived” could also be translated as “caused to think something false” or “lied to” or “tricked” or “fooled” or “misled.”
- “Deceiver” could be translated as “liar” or “one who misleads” or “someone who deceives.”
- Depending on the context, the terms “deception” or “deceit” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “falsehood” or “lying” or “trickery” or “dishonesty.”
- The terms “deceptive” or “deceitful” could be translated as “untruthful” or “misleading” or “lying” to describe a person who speaks or acts in a way that causes other people to believe things that are not true.

(See also: true)

Bible References:

- 1 John 1:8
- 1 Timothy 2:14
- 2 Thessalonians 2:3-4
- Genesis 3:12-13
- Genesis 31:26-28

- Leviticus 19:11-12
- Matthew 27:64
- Micah 6:11

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0898, H2048, H3577, H3584, H3868, H4123, H4820, H4860, H5230, H5377, H5558, H6121, H6231, H6601, H7411, H7423, H7683, H7686, H7952, H8267, H8496, H8582, H8591, H8649, G05380, G05390, G13860, G13870, G13880, G18180, G38840, G41050, G41060, G41080, G54220, G54230

Matthew References:

13:22; 27:63; 27:64

declare, proclaim, announce

Definition:

The terms “declare” and “declaration” refer to making a formal or public statement, often to emphasize something. Other terms with similar meaning include “proclaim,” “proclamation,” “announce,” and “announcement.”

- A “declaration” not only emphasizes the importance of what is being proclaimed, but it also calls attention to the one making the declaration.
- For example, in the Old Testament, a message from God is often preceded by “the declaration of Yahweh” or “this is what Yahweh declares.” This expression emphasizes that it is Yahweh himself who is saying this. The fact that the message comes from Yahweh shows how important that message is.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “declare” could also be translated as “proclaim” or “publicly state” or “strongly say” or “emphatically state.”
- The term “declaration” could also be translated as “statement” or “proclamation.”
- The phrase “this is Yahweh’s declaration” could be translated as “this is what Yahweh declares” or “this is what Yahweh says.”

(See also: preach, decree)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 16:24
- 1 Corinthians 15:31-32
- 1 Samuel 24:17-18
- Amos 2:16
- Ezekiel 5:11-12
- Matthew 7:21-23

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0262, H0559, H0816, H0874, H1696, H3045, H4853, H5002, H5042, H5046, H5608, H6567, H7121, H7561, H7878, H8085, G03120, G05180, G06690, G12290, G13440, G15550, G17180, G18340, G20970, G25110, G26050, G26070, G31400, G36700, G37240, G38220, G38700, G39550, G42960

Matthew References:

7:23

defile, defiled, desecrate

Definition:

The terms “defile” and “be defiled” refer to becoming polluted or dirty. Something can be defiled in a physical, moral, or ritual sense.

- God warned the Israelites to not defile themselves by eating or touching things that he had declared as “unclean” and “unholy.”
- Certain things such as dead bodies and contagious diseases were declared by God to be unclean and would defile a person if they touched them.
- God commanded the Israelites to avoid sexual sins. These would defile them and make them unacceptable to God.
- There were also certain kinds of bodily processes that defiled a person temporarily until he could become ritually pure again.
- In the New Testament, Jesus taught that sinful thoughts and actions are what truly defile a person.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “defile” can also be translated as “cause to be unclean” or “cause to be unrighteous” or “cause to be ritually unacceptable.”
- To “be defiled” could be translated as “become unclean” or “be caused to be morally unacceptable (to God)” or “become ritually unacceptable.”

(See also: profane, clean)

Bible References:

- 2 Kings 23:8
- Exodus 20:24-26
- Genesis 34:27
- Genesis 49:4
- Isaiah 43:27-28
- Leviticus 11:43-45
- Mark 7:14-16
- Matthew 15:10

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1351, H1352, H1602, H2490, H2491, H2610, H2930, H2931, G28390, G28400, G33920, G34350

Matthew References:

15:11; 15:18; 15:20

delight

Definition:

The term “delight” means great pleasure or great joy.

- To “delight in” something means to “to take pleasure in” or “take joy in” or “be happy about” it. If a person “delights in” something, it means that he enjoys it very much.
- When something is very agreeable or pleasing it is called “delightful.”
- The expression “my delight is in the law of Yahweh” could be translated as “the law of Yahweh gives me great joy” or “I love to obey the laws of Yahweh” or “I am happy when I obey Yahweh’s commands.”
- The phrases “take no delight in” and “have no delight in” could be translated as “not at all pleased by” or “not happy about.”
- The phrase “delight himself in” means “he enjoys doing” something or “he is very happy about” something or someone.
- The term “delights” refers to things that a person enjoys. This could be translated as “pleasures” or “things that give joy.”
- An expression such as “I delight to do your will” could also be translated as “I enjoy doing your will” or “I am very happy when I obey you.”

Bible References:

- Proverbs 8:30
- Psalm 1:2
- Psalms 119:69-70
- Song of Songs 1:3

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1523, H2530, H2531, H2532, H2654, H2655, H2656, H2836, H4574, H5276, H5727, H5730, H6026, H6027, H7306, H7381, H7521, H7522, H8057, H8173, H8191, H8588, H8597

Matthew References:

3:17; 12:18; 17:5

deliver, deliverer, deliverance, delivered

Definition:

To “deliver” someone means to rescue that person. The term “deliverer” refers to someone who rescues or frees people from slavery, oppression, or other dangers. The term “deliverance” refers to what happens when someone rescues or frees people from slavery, oppression, or other dangers.

- In the Old Testament, God appointed deliverers to protect the Israelites by leading them in battle against other people groups who came to attack them.
- These deliverers were also called “judges” and the Old Testament book of Judges records the time in history when these judges were governing Israel.
- God is also called a “deliverer.” Throughout the history of Israel, he delivered or rescued his people from their enemies.

Translation Suggestions:

- In the context of helping people escape from their enemies, the term “deliver” can be translated as “rescue” or “liberate” or “save.”
- When the term “deliverer” refers to the judges who led Israel, it could also be translated as “judge” or “leader.”

(See also: judge, save)

Bible References:

- 2 Corinthians 1:10
- Acts 7:35
- Galatians 1:4
- Judges 10:12

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 16:3 Then God provided a deliverer who rescued them from their enemies and brought peace to the land.
- 16:16 They (Israel) finally asked God for help again, and God sent them another deliverer.

- 16:17 Over many years, God sent many deliverers who saved the Israelites from their enemies.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1350, H2020, H2502, H3205, H3444, H3467, H4042, H4422, H4672, H5337, H5414, H5462, H6299, H6403, H6413, H6475, H6561, H7725, H7804, H8199, G03250, G05250, G06290, G10800, G13250, G15600, G16590, G18070, G19290, G26730, G30860, G38600, G45060, G49910, G50880, G54830

Matthew References:

6:13; 27:43

demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit

Definition:

All these terms refer to demons, which are spirit beings that oppose God's will.

- God created angels to serve him. When the devil rebelled against God, some of the angels also rebelled and were thrown out of heaven. It is believed that demons and evil spirits are these "fallen angels."
- Sometimes these demons are called "unclean spirits." The term "unclean" means "impure" or "evil" or "unholy."
- Because demons serve the devil, they do evil things. Sometimes they live inside people and control them.
- Demons are more powerful than human beings, but not as powerful as God.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "demon" could also be translated as "evil spirit."
- The term "unclean spirit" could also be translated as "impure spirit" or "corrupt spirit" or "evil spirit."
- Make sure that the word or phrase used to translate this term is different from the term used to refer to the devil.
- Also consider how the term "demon" is translated in a local or national language. (See: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: demon-possessed, Satan, false god, angel, evil, clean)

Bible References:

- James 2:19
- James 3:15
- Luke 4:36
- Mark 3:22
- Matthew 4:24

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 26:9 Many people who had demons in them were brought to Jesus. When Jesus commanded them, the demons came out of the people, and often shouted, "You are the Son of God!"

- 32:8 The demons came out of the man and entered the pigs.
- 47:5 Finally one day when the slave girl started yelling, Paul turned to her and said to the demon that was in her, “In the name of Jesus, come out of her.” Right away the demon left her.
- 49:2 He (Jesus) walked on water, calmed storms, healed many sick people, drove out demons, raised the dead to life, and turned five loaves of bread and two small fish into enough food for over 5,000 people.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2932, H7307, H7451, H7700, G01690, G11390, G11400, G11410, G11420, G41900, G41510, G41520, G41890

Matthew References:

7:22; 8:16; 8:31; 9:33; 9:34; 10:1; 10:8; 11:18; 12:24; 12:27; 12:28; 12:43; 12:45; 17:18

demon-possessed

Definition:

A person who is demon-possessed has a demon or evil spirit that controls what he does and thinks.

- Often a demon-possessed person will hurt himself or other people because the demon causes him to do that.
- Jesus healed demon-possessed people by commanding the demons to come out of them. This is often called “casting out” demons.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate this term could include “demon-controlled” or “controlled by an evil spirit” or “having an evil spirit living inside.”

(See also: demon)

Bible References:

- Mark 1:32
- Matthew 4:24
- Matthew 8:16
- Matthew 8:33

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 26:9 Many people who had demons in them were brought to Jesus.
- 32:2 When they reached the other side of the lake, a demon-possessed man came running up to Jesus.
- 32:6 The man with the demon cried out in a loud voice, “What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Please do not torture me!”
- 32:9 The people from the town came and saw the man who used to have the demons.
- 47:3 Every day as they (Paul and Silas) walked there, a slave girl possessed by a demon followed them.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G11390

Matthew References:

4:24; 8:16; 8:28; 8:33; 9:32; 12:22; 15:22

desert, wilderness

Definition:

A desert, or wilderness, is a dry, barren place where very few plants and trees can grow.

- A desert is a land area with a dry climate and few plants or animals.
- Because of the harsh conditions, very few people can live in the desert, so it is also referred to as "wilderness."
- "Wilderness" conveys the meaning of being remote, desolate and isolated from people.
- This word can also be translated as "deserted place" or "remote place" or "uninhabited place."

Bible References:

- Acts 13:16-18
- Acts 21:38
- Exodus 4:27-28
- Genesis 37:21-22
- John 3:14
- Luke 1:80
- Luke 9:12-14
- Mark 1:3
- Matthew 4:1
- Matthew 11:8

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0776, H2723, H3293, H3452, H4057, H6160, H6723, H6728, H6921, H8047, H8414, G20470, G20480

Matthew References:

3:1; 3:3; 4:1; 11:7; 15:33; 24:26

desolate, desolated, desolation, deserted, desolator

Definition:

The terms “desolate” and “desolation,” when used to refer to a place or location, refer to the state or condition of being ruined and left fully or partially uninhabited. The term “desolate,” when referring to a person or group of people, describes a state or condition of ruin, loneliness, and grief.

- If a field where crops are growing is made desolate, it means that something has destroyed the crops, such as insects or an invading army.
- A “desolate region” refers to an area of land that is partially deserted or abandoned and therefore has few people living there.
- If a city is “made desolate” it means that its buildings and goods have been destroyed or stolen, and its people have been killed or captured. The city becomes “empty” and “ruined.” This is similar to the meaning of “devastate” or “devastated,” but with more emphasis on the emptiness.
- A “desolate land” or “wilderness” was often where outcasts (such as lepers) and dangerous animals lived.
- Depending on the context, this term, when referring to a city or region, could be translated as “ruined” or “destroyed” or “laid waste” or “abandoned” or “deserted.”
- Depending on the context, this term, when referring to a person or people group, could be translated as “lonely and outcast” or “deserted.”
- A “desolator” is one who causes desolation.

(See also: desert, devastate, ruin, waste)

Bible References:

- 2 Kings 22:19
- Acts 1:20
- Daniel 9:17-19
- Lamentations 3:11
- Luke 11:17
- Matthew 12:25

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0490, H0816, H0910, H1565, H2717, H2720, H2721, H2723, H3173, H3341, H3456, H3582, H4875, H4923, H5352, H5800, H7582, H7701, H7722, H8047, H8074, H8076, H8077, G20480, G20490, G20500, G34430

Matthew References:

12:25; 14:13; 14:15; 23:38; 24:15

destroy, destruction, annihilate

Definition:

The term “destroy” means to completely make an end to something, so that it no longer exists.

- The term “destroyer” means “a person who destroys.”
- This term is often used in the Old Testament as a general reference to anyone who destroys other people, such as an invading army.
- When God sent the angel to kill all the firstborn males in Egypt, that angel was referred to as “the destroyer of the firstborn.” This could be translated as “the one (or angel) who killed the firstborn males.”
- In the book of Revelation about the end times, Satan or some other evil spirit is called “the Destroyer.” He is the “one who destroys” because his purpose is to destroy and ruin everything God created.

(See also: angel, Egypt, firstborn, Passover)

Bible References:

- Exodus 12:23
- Hebrews 11:28
- Jeremiah 6:26
- Judges 16:24

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0006, H0007, H0622, H0398, H1104, H1197, H1820, H1826, H1942, H2000, H2015, H2026, H2040, H2254, H2255, H2717, H2718, H2763, H2764, H3238, H3341, H3381, H3423, H3582, H3615, H3617, H3772, H3807, H4191, H4229, H4591, H4658, H4889, H5218, H5221, H5307, H5362, H5420, H5422, H5428, H5595, H5642, H6365, H6789, H6979, H7665, H7667, H7703, H7722, H7760, H7843, H7921, H8045, H8074, H8077, H8316, H8552, G03550, G03960, G06220, G08530, G13110, G18420, G20490, G25060, G25070, G26470, G26730, G27040, G30890, G36450, G41990, G53510, G53560

Matthew References:

2:13

devour

Definition:

The term “devour” means to eat or consume in an aggressive manner.

- Using this word in a figurative sense, Paul warned believers to not devour one another, meaning to not attack or destroy each other with words or actions (Galatians 5:15).
- Also in a figurative sense, the term “devour” is often used with a meaning of “completely destroy” as when talking about nations devouring each other or a fire devouring buildings and people.
- This term could also be translated as “completely consume” or “totally destroy.”

(See also: consume)

Bible References:

- 1 Peter 5:8
- Amos 1:10
- Exodus 24:17
- Ezekiel 16:20
- Luke 15:30
- Matthew 23:13-15
- Psalms 21:9

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0398, H0399, H0400, H0402, H1104, H1105, H3216, H3615, H3857, H3898, H7462, H7602, G20680, G26660, G27190, G53150

Matthew References:

13:4

disciple

Definition:

The term “disciple” refers to a person who spends much time with a teacher, learning from that teacher’s character and teaching.

- The people who followed Jesus around, listening to his teachings and obeying them, were called his “disciples.”
- John the Baptist also had disciples.
- During Jesus’ ministry, there were many disciples who followed him and heard his teachings.
- Jesus chose twelve disciples to be his closest followers; these men became known as his “apostles.”
- Jesus’ twelve apostles continued to be known as his “disciples” or “the 12.”
- Just before Jesus went up to heaven, he commanded his disciples to teach other people about how to become Jesus’ disciples, too.
- Anyone who believes in Jesus and obeys his teachings is called a disciple of Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “disciple” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “follower” or “student” or “pupil” or “learner.”
- Make sure that the translation of this term does not refer only to a student who learns in a classroom.
- The translation of this term should also be different from the translation of “apostle.”

(See also: apostle, believe, Jesus, John (the Baptist), the twelve)

Bible References:

- Acts 6:1
- Acts 9:26-27
- Acts 11:26
- Acts 14:22
- John 13:23
- Luke 6:40
- Matthew 11:3

- Matthew 26:33-35
- Matthew 27:64

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 30:8 He (Jesus) gave the pieces to his disciples to give to the people. The disciples kept passing out the food, and it never ran out!
- 38:1 About three years after Jesus first began preaching and teaching publicly, Jesus told his disciples that he wanted to celebrate this Passover with them in Jerusalem, and that he would be killed there.
- 38:11 Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane. Jesus told his disciples to pray that they would not enter into temptation.
- 42:10 Jesus said to his disciples, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. So go, make disciples of all people groups by baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and by teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you."

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3928, G31000, G31010, G31020

Matthew References:

front:intro; 5:1; 8:21; 8:23; 9:10; 9:11; 9:14; 9:19; 9:37; 10:1; 10:24; 10:25; 10:42; 11:1; 11:2; 12:1; 12:2; 12:49; 13:10; 13:36; 13:52; 14:12; 14:15; 14:19; 14:22; 14:26; 15:2; 15:12; 15:23; 15:32; 15:33; 15:36; 16:5; 16:13; 16:20; 16:21; 16:24; 17:6; 17:10; 17:13; 17:16; 17:19; 18:1; 19:10; 19:13; 19:23; 19:25; 20:17; 21:1; 21:6; 21:20; 22:16; 23:1; 24:1; 24:3; 26:1; 26:8; 26:17; 26:18; 26:19; 26:26; 26:35; 26:36; 26:40; 26:45; 26:56; 27:57; 27:64; 28:7; 28:8; 28:13; 28:16; 28:19

doctrine, teaching, belief, beliefs, instruction, knowledge

Definition:

The word “doctrine” literally means “teaching.” It usually refers to religious teaching.

- In the context of Christian teachings, “doctrine” refers to all teachings about God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—including all his character qualities and everything he has done.
- It also refers to everything God teaches Christians about how to live holy lives that bring glory to him.
- The word “doctrine” is sometimes also used to refer to false or worldly religious teachings that come from human beings. The context makes the meaning clear.
- This term could also be translated as “teaching.”

(See also: teach)

Bible References:

- 1 Timothy 1:3
- 2 Timothy 3:16-17
- Mark 7:6-7
- Matthew 15:7-9

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3948, G13190, G13220, G20850

Matthew References:

15:9

donkey, mule

Definition:

A donkey is a four-legged work animal, similar to a horse, but smaller and with longer ears.

- A mule is the sterile offspring of a male donkey and a female horse.
- Mules are very strong animals and so they are valuable work animals.
- Both donkeys and mules are used for carrying burdens and people when traveling.
- In Bible times, kings would ride a donkey in times of peace, rather than a horse, which was used for times of war.
- Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a young donkey a week before he was crucified there.

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 1:32-34
- 1 Samuel 9:4
- 2 Kings 4:21-22
- Deuteronomy 5:12-14
- Luke 13:15
- Matthew 21:2

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0860, H2543, H3222, H5895, H6167, H6501, H6505, H6506, G36780, G36880, G52680

Matthew References:

21:2; 21:5; 21:7

dove, pigeon, turtledove

Definition:

Doves and pigeons are two kinds of small, gray-brown birds that look similar. A dove is often thought of as being lighter in color, almost white.

- Some languages have two different names for them, while others use the same name for both.
- Doves and pigeons were used in sacrifices to God, especially for people who could not afford to buy a larger animal.
- A dove brought the leaf of an olive tree to Noah when the flood waters were going down.
- Doves sometimes symbolize purity, innocence, or peace.
- If doves or pigeons are not known in the language area where the translation is being done, this term could be translated as “a small grayish brown bird called a dove” or “a small gray or brown bird, similar to a (name of local bird)”.
- If both a dove and a pigeon are referred to in the same verse, it is best to use two different words for these birds, if possible.
- A turtledove is a type of dove mentioned in Genesis 15:9, Song of Songs 2:12, and Leviticus 12:6.

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: olive, innocent, pure)

Bible References:

- Genesis 8:9
- Luke 2:22-24
- Mark 1:10
- Matthew 3:16
- Matthew 21:12-14

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1469, H1686, H3123, H8449, G40580

Matthew References:

3:16; 10:16; 21:12

dream

Definition:

A dream is something that people see or experience in their minds while they are sleeping.

- Dreams often seem like they are really happening, but they are not.
- Sometimes God causes people to dream about something so they can learn from it. He may also speak directly to people in their dreams.
- In the Bible, God gave special dreams to certain people to give them a message, often about something that would happen in the future.
- A dream is different from a vision. Dreams happen while a person is asleep, but visions usually happen when a person is awake.

(See also: vision)

Bible References:

- Acts 2:16-17
- Daniel 1:17-18
- Daniel 2:1
- Genesis 37:6
- Genesis 40:4-5
- Matthew 2:13
- Matthew 2:19-21

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 8:2 Joseph's brothers hated him because their father loved him most and because Joseph had dreamed that he would be their ruler.
- 8:6 One night, the Pharaoh, which is what the Egyptians called their kings, had two dreams that disturbed him greatly. None of his advisors could tell him the meaning of the dreams.
- 8:7 God had given Joseph the ability to interpret dreams, so Pharaoh had Joseph brought to him from the prison. Joseph interpreted the dreams for him and said, "God is going to send seven years of plentiful harvests followed by seven years of famine."
- 16:11 So that night, Gideon went down to the camp and heard a Midianite soldier telling his friend about something he had dreamed. The man's friend said, "This dream means that Gideon's army will defeat the Midianite army!"

- 23:1 He (Joseph) did not want to shame her (Mary), so he planned to quietly divorce her. Before he could do that, an angel came and spoke to him in a dream.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1957, H2472, H2492, H2493, G17970, G17980, G36770

Matthew References:

1:20; 2:12; 2:13; 2:19; 2:22; 27:19

drunk, drunkard

Definition:

The term “drunk” means to be intoxicated from drinking too much of an alcoholic beverage.

- A “drunkard” is a person who is often drunk. This kind of person could also be referred to as an “alcoholic.”
- The Bible tells believers not to be drunk with alcoholic drinks, but to be controlled by God’s Holy Spirit.
- The Bible teaches that drunkenness is unwise and influences a person to sin in other ways.
- Other ways to translate “drunk” could include “inebriated” or “intoxicated” or “having too much alcohol” or “filled with fermented drink.”

(See also: wine)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 5:11-13
- 1 Samuel 25:36
- Jeremiah 13:13
- Luke 7:34
- Luke 21:34
- Proverbs 23:19-21

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5433, H7301, H7910, H7937, H7941, H7943, H8354, H8358, G31780, G31820, G31830, G31840, G36300, G36320

Matthew References:

11:19; 24:49

eagle

Definition:

An eagle is a very large, powerful bird of prey that eats small animals such as fish, mice, snakes, and chickens.

- The Bible compares the speed and strength of an army to how fast and suddenly an eagle swoops down to catch its prey.
- Isaiah states that those who trust in the Lord will soar as an eagle does. This is figurative language used to describe the freedom and strength that comes from trusting and obeying God.
- In the book of Daniel, King Nebuchadnezzar's hair length was compared to the length of an eagle's feathers, which can be more than 50 centimeters long.

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: Daniel, free, Nebuchadnezzar, power)

Bible References:

- 2 Samuel 1:23
- Daniel 7:4
- Jeremiah 4:13-15
- Leviticus 11:13-16
- Revelation 4:7

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5403, H5404, G01050

Matthew References:

24:28

earth, land

Definition:

The term “earth” refers to the world on which human beings and other living things live. In the Bible, this term is sometimes translated as “land” when used in a general way to refer to the ground or the soil, or when used in a specific way to refer to a particular geographical area, usually a country or nation.

- In the Bible, the term “earth” is often paired with the term “heaven” as a way of indicating the abode of humankind on the earth in contrast with the abode of God in heaven.
- This term is usually translated “land” when paired with the name of a people group to denote the territory belonging to those people, such as “the land of Canaan.”
- The term “earthly” is sometimes used to refer to things that are physical and/or visible in contrast to things that are non-physical and/or invisible.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term can be translated by the word or phrase that the local language or nearby national languages use to refer to the planet earth on which we live.
- Depending on the context, “earth” could also be translated as “world” or “land” or “dirt” or “soil.”
- Ways to translate “earthly” could include “physical” or “things of this earth” or “visible.”

(See also: world, heaven)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 1:38-40
- 2 Chronicles 2:11-12
- Daniel 4:35
- Luke 12:51
- Matthew 6:10
- Matthew 11:25
- Zechariah 6:5

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0127, H0772, H0776, H0778, H2789, H3007, H3335, H6083, H7494, G10930, G19190, G27090, G28860, G36250, G45780, G55170

Matthew References:

5:5; 5:13; 5:18; 5:35; 6:10; 6:19; 9:6; 10:34; 11:25; 12:40; 12:42; 16:19; 17:25; 18:18; 18:19; 23:9; 23:35; 24:30; 24:35; 27:51; 28:18

Egypt, Egyptian

Definition:

Egypt is a country in the northeast part of Africa, to the southwest of the land of Canaan. An Egyptian is a person who is from the country of Egypt.

- In ancient times, Egypt was a powerful and wealthy country.
- Ancient Egypt was divided into two parts, Lower Egypt (northern part where the Nile River flowed downward into the sea) and Upper Egypt (southern part). In the Old Testament, these parts are referred to as “Egypt” and “Pathros” in the original language text.
- Several times when there was little food in Canaan, Israel’s patriarchs traveled to Egypt to buy food for their families.
- For several hundred years, the Israelites were slaves in Egypt.
- Joseph and Mary went down to Egypt with the young child Jesus, to escape from Herod the Great.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Herod the Great, Joseph (NT), Nile River, patriarchs)

Bible References:

- 1 Samuel 4:7-9
- Acts 7:10
- Exodus 3:7
- Genesis 41:29
- Genesis 41:57
- Matthew 2:15

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 8:4 The slave traders took Joseph to Egypt. Egypt was a large, powerful country located along the Nile River.
- 8:8 Pharaoh was so impressed with Joseph that he appointed him to be the second most powerful man in all of Egypt!
- 8:11 So Jacob sent his older sons to __Egypt __ to buy food.

- 8:14 Even though Jacob was an old man, he moved to Egypt with all of his family, and they all lived there.
- 9:1 After Joseph died, all of his relatives stayed in Egypt.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H4713, H4714, G01240, G01250

Matthew References:

2:13; 2:14; 2:15; 2:19

elder

Definition:

The term “elder” refers to people (in the Bible, usually men) who have grown old enough to become mature adults and leaders within a community and to be respected for their wisdom and experience.

- The term “elder” came from the fact that elders were originally older men who, because of their age and experience, had greater wisdom.
- In the Old Testament, the elders helped lead the Israelites in matters of justice and the Law of Moses.
- In the New Testament, Jewish “elders” continued to be leaders in their communities and also were judges for the people.
- In the early Christian churches, Christian “elders” gave spiritual leadership to the local assemblies of believers. Elders in these churches sometimes included young men who were spiritually mature.
- This term could be translated as “respected leaders” or “spiritually mature men leading the church.”

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 11:1-3
- 1 Timothy 3:1-3
- 1 Timothy 4:14
- Acts 5:19-21
- Acts 14:23
- Mark 11:28
- Matthew 21:23-24

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1419, H2205, H7868, G10870, G31870, G42440, G42450, G48500

Matthew References:

15:intro; 15:2; 16:21; 21:23; 26:3; 26:47; 26:57; 27:1; 27:3; 27:12; 27:20; 27:41; 28:12

Eleazar

Definition:

Eleazar was the name of several men in the Bible.

1. Eleazar was the third son of Moses' brother Aaron. After Aaron died, Eleazar became the high priest in Israel.
2. Eleazar was also the name of one of David's "mighty men."
3. Another Eleazar was one of Jesus' ancestors.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Aaron, high priest, David, mighty)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 24:3
- Judges 20:27-28
- Numbers 26:1-2
- Numbers 34:16-18

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0499, G16480

Matthew References:

1:15

Eliakim

Definition:

Eliakim was the name of two men in the Old Testament.

- One man named Eliakim was the manager of the palace under King Hezekiah.
- Another man named Eliakim was a son of King Josiah. He was made king of Judah by the Egyptian pharaoh Necho.
- Necho changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim.

(Translation suggestions: Translate Names)

(See also: Hezekiah, Jehoiakim, Josiah, Pharaoh)

Bible References:

- 2 Kings 18:18
- 2 Kings 18:26
- 2 Kings 18:37
- 2 Kings 23:34-35

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0471, G16620

Matthew References:

1:13

Elijah

Definition:

Elijah was one of the most important prophets of Yahweh. Elijah prophesied during the reigns of several kings of Israel and Judah, including King Ahab.

- God did many miracles through Elijah, including raising a dead boy back to life.
- Elijah rebuked King Ahab for worshiping the false god Baal.
- He challenged the prophets of Baal to a test that proved that Yahweh is the only true God.
- At the end of Elijah's life, God miraculously took him up to heaven while he was still alive.
- Hundreds of years later, Elijah, along with Moses, appeared with Jesus on a mountain, and they talked together about Jesus' coming suffering and death in Jerusalem.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: miracle, prophet, Yahweh)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 17:1
- 2 Kings 1:3-4
- James 5:16-18
- John 1:19-21
- John 1:24-25
- Mark 9:5

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 19:2 Elijah was a prophet when Ahab was king over the kingdom of Israel.
- 19:2 Elijah said to Ahab, "There will be no rain or dew in the kingdom of Israel until I say so."
- 19:3 God told Elijah to go to a stream in the wilderness to hide from Ahab who wanted to kill him. Every morning and every evening, birds would bring him bread and meat.
- 19:4 But they took care of Elijah, and God provided for them so that their flour jar and their bottle of oil never became empty.

- 19:5 After three and a half years, God told Elijah to return to the kingdom of Israel and speak with Ahab because he was going to send rain again.
- 19:7 Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Kill a bull and prepare it as a sacrifice, but do not light the fire.”
- 19:12 Then Elijah said, “Do not let any of the prophets of Baal escape!”
- 36:3 Then Moses and the prophet Elijah appeared. These men had lived hundreds of years before this. They talked with Jesus about his death that would soon happen in Jerusalem.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0452, G22430

Matthew References:

11:14; 16:14; 17:intro; 17:3; 17:4; 17:10; 17:11; 17:12; 27:intro; 27:47; 27:49

endure, endurance

Definition:

The term “endure” means to last a long time or to bear something difficult with patience.

- It also means to stand firm when times of testing come, without giving up.
- The term “endurance” can mean “patience” or “bearing up under a trial” or “persevering when being persecuted.”
- The encouragement to Christians to “endure to the end” is telling them to obey Jesus, even if this causes them to suffer.
- To “endure suffering” can also mean to “experience suffering.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate the term “endure” could include “persevere” or “keep believing” or “continue to do what God wants you to do” or “stand firm.”
- In some contexts, to “endure” could be translated as to “experience” or to “go through.”
- With the meaning of lasting for a long time, the term “endure” could also be translated as “last” or “continue.” The phrase “will not endure” could be translated as “will not last” or “will not continue to survive.”
- Ways to translate “endurance” could include “perseverance” or “continuing to believe” or “remaining faithful.”

(See also: persevere)

Bible References:

- 2 Timothy 2:11-13
- James 1:3
- James 1:12
- Luke 21:19
- Matthew 13:21
- Revelation 1:9
- Romans 5:3-5

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0386, H3201, H3557, H5331, H5375, H5975, G04300, G09070, G15260, G20050, G20760, G25940, G33060, G47220, G52780, G52810, G52970, G53420

Matthew References:

10:22; 24:13

envy, covet, jealous, jealousy

Definition:

The terms “envy” and “envious” refer to being jealous of someone because of what that person possesses or because of that person’s admirable qualities or abilities. The term “covet” means to strongly desire to have something.

- Envy is normally a negative feeling of resentment because of another person’s success, good fortune, possessions, or abilities.
- Coveting is a strong desire to have someone else’s property, or even someone else’s spouse.
- In some contexts the terms “jealous” and “jealousy” can mean “envy.”

Translation Suggestions

- When the terms “jealous” and “jealousy” refer to being wrongfully “envious” of someone the terms “envious” or “envy” could be used if the context permits.

(See also: jealous)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 13:4-7
- 1 Peter 2:1
- Exodus 20:17
- Mark 7:20-23
- Proverbs 3:31-32
- Romans 1:29

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0183, H1214, H1215, H2530, H3415, H5869, H7065, H7068, G08660, G19370, G22050, G22060, G37130, G37880, G41230, G41240, G41900, G53540, G53550, G53660

Matthew References:

27:18

eternity, everlasting, eternal, forever

Definition:

The terms “everlasting” and “eternal” have very similar meanings and refer to something that will always exist or that lasts forever.

- The term “eternity” refers to a state of being that has no beginning or end. It can also refer to life that never ends.
- After this present life on earth, humans will spend eternity either in heaven with God or in hell apart from God.
- The terms “eternal life” and “everlasting life” are used in the New Testament to refer to living forever with God in heaven.

The term “forever” refers to never-ending time.

- The phrase “forever and ever” has the idea of time that never ends and expresses what eternity or eternal life is like. It emphasizes that something will always happen or exist. It refers to time that never ends.
- God said that David’s throne would last “forever.” This is referred to the fact that David’s descendant Jesus will reign as king forever.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “eternal” or “everlasting” could include “unending” or “never stopping” or “always continuing.”
- The terms “eternal life” and “everlasting life” could also be translated as “life that never ends” or “life that continues without stopping” or “the raising up of our bodies to live forever.”
- Depending on the context, different ways to translate “eternity” could include “existing outside of time” or “unending life” or “life in heaven.”
- Also consider how this word is translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language. (See: How to Translate Unknowns)
- “Forever” could also be translated by “always” or “never ending.”

- The phrase “will last forever” could also be translated as “always exist” or “will never stop” or “will always continue.”
- The emphatic phrase “forever and ever” could also be translated as “for always and always” or “not ever ending” or “which never, ever ends.”
- David’s throne lasting forever could be translated as “David’s descendant will reign forever” or “a descendant of David will always be reigning.”

(See also: David, reign, life)

Bible References:

- Genesis 17:8
- Genesis 48:4
- Exodus 15:17
- 2 Samuel 3:28-30
- 1 Kings 2:32-33
- Job 4:20-21
- Psalms 21:4
- Isaiah 9:6-7
- Isaiah 40:27-28
- Daniel 7:18
- Luke 18:18
- Acts 13:46
- Romans 5:21
- Hebrews 6:19-20
- Hebrews 10:11-14
- 1 John 1:2
- 1 John 5:12
- Revelation 1:4-6
- Revelation 22:3-5

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 27:1 One day, an expert in the Jewish law came to Jesus to test him, saying, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”
- 28:1 One day, a rich young ruler came up to Jesus and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to have eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only One who is good, and that is God. But if you want to have eternal life, obey God’s laws.”
- 28:10 Jesus answered, “Everyone who has left houses, brothers, sisters, father, mother, children, or property for my name’s sake, will receive 100 times more and will also receive eternal life.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3117, H4481, H5331, H5703, H5705, H5769, H5865, H5957, H6924, G01260, G01650, G01660, G13360

Matthew References:

18:8; 19:16; 19:29; 25:41; 25:46

eunuch

Definition:

Usually the term “eunuch” refers to a man who has been castrated. The term later became a general term to refer to any government official, even those without the deformity.

- Jesus said that some eunuchs were born that way, perhaps because of damaged sex organs or because of not being able to function sexually. Others chose to live like eunuchs in a celibate lifestyle.
- In ancient times, eunuchs were often kings’ servants who were set as guards over the women’s quarters.
- Some eunuchs were important government officials, such as the Ethiopian eunuch who met the apostle Philip in the desert.

(See also: Philip)

Bible References:

- Acts 8:27
- Acts 8:36
- Acts 8:39
- Isaiah 39:7-8
- Jeremiah 34:17-19
- Matthew 19:12

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5631, G21340, G21350

Matthew References:

19:12

evil, wicked, wickedness, unpleasant

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “evil” can refer either to the concept of moral wickedness or emotional unpleasantness. The context will usually make it clear which meaning is intended in the specific instance of the term.

- While “evil” may describe a person’s character, “wicked” may refer more to a person’s behavior. However, both terms are very similar in meaning.
- The term “wickedness” refers to the state of being that exists when people do wicked things.
- The results of evil are clearly shown in how people mistreat others by killing, stealing, slandering and being cruel and unkind.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the terms “evil” and “wicked” can be translated as “bad” or “sinful” or “immoral.”
- Other ways to translate these could include “not good” or “not righteous” or “not moral.”
- Make sure the words or phrases that are used to translate these terms fit the context that is natural in the target language.

(See also: disobey, sin, good, righteous, demon)

Bible References:

- 1 Samuel 24:11
- 1 Timothy 6:10
- 3 John 1:10
- Genesis 2:17
- Genesis 6:5-6
- Job 1:1
- Job 8:20
- Judges 9:57
- Luke 6:22-23
- Matthew 7:11-12

- Proverbs 3:7
- Psalms 22:16-17

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 2:4 "God just knows that as soon as you eat it, you will be like God and will understand good and evil like he does."
- 3:1 After a long time, many people were living in the world. They had become very wicked and violent.
- 3:2 But Noah found favor with God. He was a righteous man living among wicked people.
- 4:2 God saw that if they all kept working together to do evil, they could do many more sinful things.
- 8:12 "You tried to do evil when you sold me as a slave, but God used the evil for good!"
- 14:2 They (Canaanites) worshiped false gods and did many evil things.
- 17:1 But then he (Saul) became a wicked man who did not obey God, so God chose a different man who would one day be king in his place.
- 18:11 In the new kingdom of Israel, all the kings were evil.
- 29:8 The king was so angry that he threw the wicked servant into prison until he could pay back all of his debt.
- 45:2 They said, "We heard him (Stephen) speak evil things about Moses and God!"
- 50:17 He (Jesus) will wipe away every tear and there will be no more suffering, sadness, crying, evil, pain, or death.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0205, H0605, H1100, H1681, H1942, H2154, H2162, H2254, H2617, H3399, H3415, H4209, H4849, H5753, H5766, H5767, H5999, H6001, H6090, H7451, H7455, H7489, H7561, H7562, H7563, H7564, G00920, G01130, G04590, G09320, G09870, G09880, G14260, G25490, G25510, G25540, G25550, G25560, G25570, G25590, G25600, G26350, G26360, G41510, G41890, G41900, G41910, G53370

Matthew References:

5:11; 5:37; 5:39; 5:45; 6:23; 6:34; 7:11; 9:4; 12:34; 12:35; 12:39; 12:45; 13:49; 15:19; 16:4; 18:32; 20:15; 22:10; 22:18; 24:48; 25:26; 27:23 ewe, ram, sheep, sheepfold, sheepshearer, sheepskin

Definition:

A “sheep” is a medium-sized animal with four legs that has wool all over its body. A male sheep is called a “ram.” A female sheep is called a “ewe.” The plural of “sheep” is also “sheep.”

- A baby sheep is called a “lamb.”
- The Israelites often used sheep for sacrifices, especially male sheep and young sheep.
- People eat meat from sheep and use their wool to make clothing and other things.
- Sheep are very trusting, weak, and timid. They are easily influenced to wander away. They need a shepherd to lead them, protect them, and provide them with food, water, and shelter.
- In the Bible, people are compared to sheep who have God as their shepherd.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: Israel, lamb, sacrifice, shepherd)

Bible References:

- Acts 8:32
- Genesis 30:32
- John 2:14
- Luke 15:5
- Mark 6:34
- Matthew 9:36
- Matthew 10:6
- Matthew 12:12
- Matthew 25:33

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 9:12 One day while Moses was taking care of his sheep, he saw a bush that was on fire.

- 17:2 David was a shepherd from the town of Bethlehem. At different times while he was watching his father's sheep, David had killed both a lion and a bear that had attacked the sheep.
- 30:3 To Jesus, these people were like sheep without a shepherd.
- 38:8 Jesus said, "All of you will all abandon me tonight. It is written, 'I will strike the shepherd and all the sheep will be scattered.'"

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0352, H1494, H1798, H2169, H3104, H3532, H3535, H3733, H3775, H5739, H5763, H6260, H6629, H6792, H7353, H7462, H7716, G41650, G42620, G42630

Matthew References:

7:15; 9:36; 10:6; 10:16; 12:11; 12:12; 15:24; 18:12; 25:32; 25:33; 26:31

exalt, exalted, exaltation

Definition:

To exalt is to highly praise and honor someone. It can also mean to put someone in a high position.

- In the Bible, the term “exalt” is most often used for exalting God.
- When a person exalts himself, it means he is thinking about himself in a proud or arrogant way.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “exalt” could include “highly praise” or “honor greatly” or “extol” or “speak highly of.”
- In some contexts it could be translated by a word or phrase that means “put in a higher position” or “give more honor to” or “talk about proudly.”
- “Do not exalt yourself” could also be translated as “Do not think of yourself too highly” or “Do not brag about yourself.”
- “Those that exalt themselves” could also be translated as “Those who think proudly about themselves” or “Those who boast about themselves.”

(See also: praise, worship, glory, boast, proud)

Bible References:

- 1 Peter 5:5-7
- 2 Samuel 22:47
- Acts 5:31
- Philippians 2:9-11
- Psalms 18:46

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1361, H4984, H5375, H5549, H5927, H7311, H7426, H7682, G18690, G52290, G52510, G53110, G53120

Matthew References:

11:23; 23:12

exult, exultant

Definition:

The terms “exult” and “exultant” refer to being very happy because of a success or special blessing.

- To “exult” includes a feeling of celebrating something wonderful.
- A person can exult in God’s goodness.
- The term “exultant” can also include being arrogant in one’s feeling of gladness about success or prosperity.
- The term “exult” could also be translated as “celebrate joyfully” or “praise with great joy.”
- Depending on the context, the term “exultant” could be translated as “praising triumphantly” or “celebrating with self praise” or “arrogant.”

(See also: arrogant, joy, praise, rejoice)

Bible References:

- 1 Samuel 2:1
- Isaiah 13:3
- Job 6:10
- Psalm 68:1-3
- Zephaniah 2:15

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5539, H5947, H5970

Matthew References:

5:12

faith

Definition:

In general, the term “faith” refers to a belief, trust or confidence in someone or something.

- To “have faith” in someone is to believe that what he says and does is true and trustworthy.
- To “have faith in Jesus” means to believe all of God’s teachings about Jesus. It especially means that people trust in Jesus and his sacrifice to cleanse them from their sin and to rescue them from the punishment they deserve because of their sin.
- True faith or belief in Jesus will cause a person to produce good spiritual fruits or behaviors because the Holy Spirit is living in him.
- Sometimes “faith” refers generally to all the teachings about Jesus, as in the expression “the truths of the faith.”
- In contexts such as “keep the faith” or “abandon the faith,” the term “faith” refers to the state or condition of believing all the teachings about Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- In some contexts, “faith” can be translated as “belief” or “conviction” or “confidence” or “trust.”
- For some languages these terms will be translated using forms of the verb “believe.” (See: abstractnouns)
- The expression “keep the faith” could be translated by “keep believing in Jesus” or “continue to believe in Jesus.”
- The sentence “they must keep hold of the deep truths of the faith” could be translated by “they must keep believing all the true things about Jesus that they have been taught.”
- The expression “my true son in the faith” could be translated by something like “who is like a son to me because I taught him to believe in Jesus” or “my true spiritual son, who believes in Jesus.”

(See also: believe, faithful)

Bible References:

- 2 Timothy 4:7
- Acts 6:7
- Galatians 2:20-21
- James 2:20

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 5:6 When Isaac was a young man, God tested Abraham's faith by saying, "Take Isaac, your only son, and kill him as a sacrifice to me."
- 31:7 Then he (Jesus) said to Peter, "You man of little faith, why did you doubt?"
- 32:16 Jesus said to her, "Your faith has healed you. Go in peace."
- 38:9 Then Jesus said to Peter, "Satan wants to have all of you, but I have prayed for you, Peter, that your faith will not fail."

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0529, H0530, G16800, G36400, G41020, G60660

Matthew References:

6:30; 8:10; 8:26; 9:2; 9:22; 9:29; 15:28; 16:8; 17:20; 21:21 faithful, faithfulness, trustworthy

Definition:

To be “faithful” to God means to consistently live according to God’s teachings. It means to be loyal to him by obeying him. The state or condition of being faithful is “faithfulness.”

- A person who is faithful can be trusted to always keep his promises and to always fulfill his responsibilities to other people.
- A faithful person perseveres in doing a task, even when it is long and difficult.
- Faithfulness to God is the consistent practice of doing what God wants us to do.

Translation Suggestions:

- In many contexts, “faithful” can be translated as “loyal” or “dedicated” or “dependable.”
- In other contexts, “faithful” can be translated by a word or phrase that means “continuing to believe” or “persevering in believing and obeying God.”
- Ways that “faithfulness” could be translated could include “persevering in believing” or “loyalty” or “trustworthiness” or “believing and obeying God.”

(See also: believe, faith, believe)

Bible References:

- Genesis 24:49
- Leviticus 26:40
- Numbers 12:7
- Joshua 2:14
- Judges 2:16-17
- 1 Samuel 2:9
- Psalm 12:1
- Proverbs 11:12-13
- Isaiah 1:26
- Jeremiah 9:7-9
- Hosea 5:7
- Luke 12:46

- Luke 16:10
- Colossians 1:7
- 1 Thessalonians 5:24
- 3 John 1:5

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 8:5 Even in prison, Joseph remained faithful to God, and God blessed him.
- 14:12 Even so, God was still faithful to His promises to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
- 15:13 The people promised to remain faithful to God and follow his laws.
- 17:9 David ruled with justice and faithfulness for many years, and God blessed him. However, toward the end of his life he sinned terribly against God.
- 35:12 “The older son said to his father, ‘All these years I have worked faithfully for you!’”
- 49:17 But God is faithful and says that if you confess your sins, he will forgive you.
- 50:4 “If you remain faithful to me to the end, then God will save you.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0529, H0530, H0539, H0540, H0571, H0898, H2181, H4603, H4604, H4820, G05690, G05710, G41030

Matthew References:

23:23; 24:45; 25:21; 25:23

false prophet

Definition:

A false prophet is a person who wrongly claims that his message comes from God.

- The prophecies of false prophets are not usually fulfilled. That is, they do not come true.
- False prophets teach messages that partially or totally contradict what the Bible says.
- This term could also be translated as “person who falsely claims to be God’s spokesman” or “someone who falsely claims to speak God’s words.”
- The New Testament teaches that in the end times there will be many false prophets who will try to deceive people into thinking that they come from God.

(See also: fulfill, prophet, true)

Bible References:

- 1 John 4:1-3
- 2 Peter 2:1
- Acts 13:6-8
- Luke 6:26
- Matthew 7:16
- Matthew 24:23-25

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G55780

Matthew References:

7:15; 24:11; 24:24

famine

Definition:

The term “famine” refers to an extreme lack of food throughout a country or region, usually due to not enough rain.

- Food crops can fail from natural causes such as lack of rain, crop disease, or insects.
- Food shortages can also be caused by people, such as enemies who destroy crops.
- In the Bible, God sometimes caused famine as a way to punish nations when they sinned against him.
- In Amos 8:11 the term “famine” is used figuratively to refer to a time when God punished his people by not speaking to them. This could be translated with the word for “famine” in your language, or with a phrase such as “extreme lack” or “severe deprivation.”

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 21:11-12
- Acts 7:11
- Genesis 12:10
- Genesis 45:6
- Jeremiah 11:21-23
- Luke 4:25
- Matthew 24:8

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3720, H7458, H7459, G30420

Matthew References:

24:7

fast, fasting

Definition:

The term to “fast” means to stop eating food for a period of time, such as for a day or more.

Sometimes it also includes not drinking.

- Fasting can help people to focus on God and pray without being distracted by preparing food and eating.
- Jesus condemned the Jewish religious leaders for fasting for the wrong reasons. They fasted so that others would think they were righteous.
- Sometimes people fast because they are very sad or grieved about something.
- The verb to “fast” can also be translated as to “refrain from eating” or to “not eat.”
- The noun “fast” could be translated as “time of not eating” or “time of abstaining from food.”

(See also: Jewish leaders)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 21:8-10
- 2 Chronicles 20:3
- Acts 13:1-3
- Jonah 3:4-5
- Luke 5:34
- Mark 2:19
- Matthew 6:18
- Matthew 9:15

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 25:1 Immediately after Jesus was baptized, the Holy Spirit led him out into the wilderness, where he fasted for forty days and forty nights.
- 34:8 “‘For example, I fast two times every week and I give you ten percent of all the money and goods that I receive.’”
- 46:10 One day, while the Christians at Antioch were fasting and praying, the Holy Spirit said to them, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul to do the work I have called them to do.”

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2908, H5144, H6684, H6685, G35210, G35220

Matthew References:

4:2; 6:16; 6:17; 6:18; 9:14; 9:15

fear, afraid, frighten

Definition:

The terms “fear” often refers to the unpleasant emotion a person feels when experiencing a potential threat to their safety or well-being. In the Bible, however, the term “fear” can also mean an attitude of worship, respect, awe, or obedience toward another person, usually someone powerful such as God or a king.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “fear” can be translated in various ways. Some possibilities include: “be afraid;” “deeply respect,” or “deep respect;” “revere,” or “reverence;” or perhaps “be in awe of.”
- The sentence “The fear of God fell on all of them” might be translated in various ways. Some possibilities include: “Suddenly they all felt a deep awe and respect for God;” or “Immediately, they all felt very amazed and revered God deeply;” or “Right then, they all felt very afraid of God (because of his great power).”
- The phrase “fear Yahweh” could be translated as “reverence Yahweh” or “deeply respect Yahweh.”
- The phrase “fear not” could also be translated as “do not be afraid” or “stop being afraid.”

(See also: awe, Yahweh, Lord, marvel, power)

Bible References:

- 1 John 4:18
- Acts 2:43
- Acts 19:15-17
- Genesis 50:21
- Isaiah 11:3-5
- Job 6:14
- Jonah 1:9
- Luke 12:5
- Matthew 10:28
- Proverbs 10:24-25

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0367, H0926, H1204, H1481, H1672, H1674, H1763, H2119, H2296, H2727, H2729, H2730, H2731, H2844, H2849, H2865, H3016, H3025, H3068, H3372, H3373, H3374, H4032, H4034, H4035, H4116, H4172, H6206, H6342, H6343, H6345, H6427, H7264, H7267, H7297, H7374, H7461, H7493, H8175, G08700, G11670, G11680, G11690, G16300, G17190, G21240, G21250, G29620, G53980, G53990, G54000, G54010

Matthew References:

1:20; 2:22; 9:8; 10:26; 10:28; 10:31; 14:5; 14:26; 14:27; 14:30; 17:6; 17:7; 21:26; 21:46; 25:25; 27:54; 28:4; 28:5; 28:8; 28:10 feast, feasting

Definition:

The term “feast” is a very general term that refers to an event where people gather to celebrate something by eating a large meal together. In biblical times, a feast sometimes lasted for several days or more.

- Often there are special kinds of food that are eaten at a certain feast.
- The religious festivals that God commanded the Jews to celebrate usually included having a feast together. For this reason the festivals are often called “feasts.”
- In biblical times, kings and other rich and powerful people often gave feasts to entertain their family or friends.
- In the story about the lost son, the father had a special feast prepared to celebrate the return of his son.
- The term to “feast” could also be translated as to “eat lavishly” or to “celebrate by eating lots of food” or to “eat a special, large meal.”
- Depending on the context, “feast” could be translated as “celebrating together with a large meal” or “a meal with a lot of food” or “a celebration meal.”

(See also: festival, banquet)

Bible References:

- 2 Peter 2:12-14
- Genesis 26:30
- Genesis 29:22
- Genesis 40:20
- Jude 1:12-13
- Luke 2:43
- Luke 14:7-9
- Matthew 22:1

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0398, H2077, H2282, H3899, H3900, H4150, H4797, H4960, H7646, H8057, H8354, G00260, G10620, G11730, G18590, G21650, G49100

Matthew References:

22:2; 22:3; 22:4; 22:8; 22:9; 23:6; 25:10

festival, feast, celebrate

Definition:

In general, a festival is a celebration held by a community of people.

- The word for “festival” in the Old Testament literally means “appointed time.”
- The festivals celebrated by the Israelites were specially appointed times or seasons that God had commanded them to observe.
- In some English translations, the word “feast” is used instead of festival because the celebrations included having a large meal together.
- There were several main festivals that the Israelites celebrated every year:
  - Passover
  - Festival of Unleavened Bread
  - Firstfruits
  - Festival of Weeks (Pentecost)
  - Festival of Trumpets
  - Day of Atonement
  - Festival of Shelters
- The purpose of these festivals was to thank God and to remember the amazing things he had done to rescue, protect, and provide for his people.

(See also: feast)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 23:31
- 2 Chronicles 8:13
- Exodus 5:1
- John 4:45
- Luke 22:1

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1974, H2166, H2282, H2287, H6213, H4150, G14560, G18580, G18590

Matthew References:

26:5; 27:15

fig

Definition:

A fig is a small, soft, sweet fruit that grows on trees. When ripe, this fruit can be a variety of colors, including brown, yellow, or purple.

- Fig trees can grow 6 meters in height and their large leaves provide pleasant shade. The fruit is about 3-5 centimeters long.
- Adam and Eve used the leaves from fig trees to make clothing for themselves after they had sinned.
- Figs can be eaten raw, cooked, or dried. People also chop them into small pieces and press them into cakes to eat later.
- In Bible times, figs were important as a source of food and income.
- The presence of fruitful fig trees is frequently mentioned in the Bible as a sign of prosperity.
- Several times Jesus used fig trees as an illustration to teach his disciples spiritual truths.

Bible References:

- Habakkuk 3:17
- James 3:12
- Luke 13:7
- Mark 11:14
- Matthew 7:17
- Matthew 21:18

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1061, H1690, H6291, H8384, G36530, G48080, G48100

Matthew References:

7:16; 21:19; 21:20; 21:21; 24:32

fisherman, fishermen, fisher

Definition:

Fishermen are men who catch fish from the water as a means of earning money. In the New Testament, the fishermen used large nets to catch fish. The term “fishers” is another name for fishermen.

- Peter and other apostles worked as fishermen before being called by Jesus.
- Since the land of Israel was near water, the Bible has many references to fish and fishermen.
- This term could be translated with a phrase such as “men who catch fish” or “men who earn money by catching fish.”

Bible References:

- Ezekiel 47:9-10
- Isaiah 19:8
- Luke 5:1-3
- Matthew 4:19
- Matthew 13:47

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1728, H1771, H2271, G02310

Matthew References:

4:18; 4:19

flock, herd

Definition:

In the Bible, “flock” refers to a group of sheep or goats and “herd” refers to a group of cattle or pigs.

- Different languages may have different ways of naming groups of animals or birds.

Translation Suggestions

- Consider what terms are used in your language to refer to different groups of animals, and use the appropriate term for each kind of animal.
- If your language uses the same word to refer to both groups of sheep and cattle, then you may need to say “groups of sheep” where the Bible says only “flocks,” and “groups of cattle” where the Bible says only “herds.” Alternatively, if the Biblical context does not demand differentiation (if the text simply says “flocks and herds,” meaning all their domesticated animals) you may just use the one word once.

(See also: goat, cow, pig, sheep)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 10:28-29
- 2 Chronicles 17:11
- Deuteronomy 14:22-23
- Luke 2:8-9
- Matthew 8:30
- Matthew 26:31

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0951, H1241, H2835, H4029, H4735, H4830, H5349, H5739, H6251, H6629, H7399, H7462, G00340, G41670, G41680

Matthew References:

26:31

flood

Definition:

The term “flood” literally refers to a large amount of water that completely covers over the land.

- This term is also used figuratively to refer to an overwhelming amount of something, especially something that happens suddenly.
- In Noah’s time, people had become so evil that God caused a worldwide flood to come over the entire surface of the earth, even covering the mountaintops. Everyone who was not in the boat with Noah drowned. All other floods cover a much smaller land area.
- This term can also be an action, as in “the land was flooded by river water.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate the literal meaning of “flood” could include “an overflowing of water” or “large amounts of water.”
- The figurative comparison “like a flood” could keep the literal term, or a substitute term could be used that refers to something that has a flowing aspect to it, such as a river.
- For the expression “like a flood of water” where water is already mentioned, the word “flood” could be translated as “an overwhelming amount” or “an overflowing.”
- This term can be used as a metaphor, as in “do not let the flood sweep over me,” which means “do not let these overwhelming disasters happen to me” or “don’t let me be devastated by disasters” or “don’t let your anger devastate me.” (See: Metaphor)
- The figurative expression “I flood my bed with tears” could be translated as “my tears cover my bed with water like a flood.”

(See also: ark, Noah)

Bible References:

- Daniel 11:10
- Genesis 7:6-7
- Luke 6:46-48
- Matthew 7:24-25
- Matthew 7:26-27
- Matthew 24:37-39

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3999, G26270

Matthew References:

24:38; 24:39

flute, pipe

Definition:

In Bible times, pipes were musical instruments made of bone or wood with holes to allow the sound to come out. A flute was a kind of pipe.

- Most pipes had reeds made out of a kind of thick grass that vibrated as air was blown over it.
- A pipe without any reeds was often called a “flute.”
- A shepherd played a pipe to calm his flocks of sheep.
- Pipes and flutes were used for playing sad or joyful music.

(See also: flock, shepherd)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 14:7
- 1 Kings 1:38-40
- Daniel 3:3-5
- Luke 7:31-32
- Matthew 9:23
- Matthew 11:17

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H4953, H5748, H2485, H2490, G08320, G08340, G08360

Matthew References:

11:17

fool, foolish, folly

Definition:

The term “fool” refers to a person who often makes wrong choices, especially choosing to disobey. The term “foolish” describes a person or behavior that is not wise.

- In the Bible, the term “fool” usually refers to a person who does not believe or obey God. This is often contrasted to the wise person, who trusts in God and obeys God.
- In the Psalms, David describes a fool as a person who does not believe in God, one who ignores all the evidence of God in his creation.
- The Old Testament book of Proverbs also gives many descriptions of what a fool, or foolish person, is like.
- The term “folly” refers to an action that is not wise because it is against God’s will. Often “folly” also includes the meaning of something that is ridiculous or dangerous.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “fool” could be translated as “foolish person” or “unwise person” or “senseless person” or “ungodly person.”
- Ways to translate “foolish” could include “lacking understanding” or “unwise” or “senseless.”

(See also: wise)

Bible References:

- Ecclesiastes 1:17
- Ephesians 5:15
- Galatians 3:3
- Genesis 31:28
- Matthew 7:26
- Matthew 25:8
- Proverbs 13:16
- Psalms 49:13

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0191, H0196, H0200, H1198, H1984, H2973, H3684, H3687, H3688, H3689, H3690, H5014, H5034, H5036, H5039, H5528, H5529, H5530, H5531, H6612, H8417, H8602, H8604, G04530, G04540, G07810, G08010, G08770, G08780, G27570, G31500, G31540, G34710, G34720, G34730, G34740, G39120

Matthew References:

5:22; 7:26; 23:17; 23:19; 25:2; 25:3; 25:8

footstool

Definition:

The term “footstool” refers to an object which a person puts his feet on, usually to rest them while sitting. This term also has figurative meanings of submission and lower status.

- People in Bible times considered feet to be the least honorable parts of the body. So a “footstool” was of even lower honor because feet were rested on it.
- When God says “I will make my enemies a footstool for my feet” he is declaring power, control, and victory over the people who rebel against him. They will be humbled and conquered to the point of submitting to God’s will.
- To “worship at God’s footstool” means to bow down in worship before him as he sits on his throne. This again communicates humility and submission to God.
- David refers to the temple as God’s “footstool.” This could refer to his absolute authority over his people. This could also be picturing God the King on his throne, with his feet resting on his footstool, which represents all that is in submission to him.

Bible References:

- Acts 7:49
- Isaiah 66:1
- Luke 20:43
- Matthew 5:35
- Matthew 22:44
- Psalm 110:1

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1916, H3534, H7272, G42280, G52860

Matthew References:

5:35

forgive, forgiven, forgiveness, pardon, pardoned

Definition:

To forgive someone means to not hold a grudge against that person even though they did something hurtful. “Forgiveness” is the act of forgiving someone.

- Forgiving someone often means not punishing that person for something he has done wrong.
- This term can be used figuratively to mean “cancel,” as in the expression “forgive a debt.”
- When people confess their sins, God forgives them based on Jesus’ sacrificial death on the cross.
- Jesus taught his disciples to forgive others as he has forgiven them.

The term “pardon” means to forgive and not punish someone for his sin.

- This word has the same meaning as “forgive” but may also include the meaning of a formal decision to not punish someone who is guilty.
- In a court of law, a judge can pardon a person found guilty of a crime.
- Even though we are guilty of sin, Jesus Christ pardoned us from being punished in hell, based on his sacrificial death on the cross.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “forgive” could be translated as “pardon” or “cancel” or “release” or “not hold against” (someone).
- The term “forgiveness” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “practice of not resenting” or “declaring (someone) as not guilty” or “the act of pardoning.”
- If the language has a word for a formal decision to forgive, that word could be used to translate “pardon.”

(See also: guilt)

Bible References:

- Genesis 50:17
- Numbers 14:17-19
- Deuteronomy 29:20-21
- Joshua 24:19-20

- 2 Kings 5:17-19
- Psalms 25:11
- Psalms 25:17-19
- Isaiah 55:6-7
- Isaiah 40:2
- Luke 5:21
- Acts 8:22
- Ephesians 4:31-32
- Colossians 3:12-14
- 1 John 2:12

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 7:10 But Esau had already forgiven Jacob, and they were happy to see each other again.
- 13:15 Then Moses climbed the mountain again and prayed that God would forgive the people. God listened to Moses and forgave them.
- 17:13 David repented of his sin and God forgave him.
- 21:5 In the New Covenant, God would write his law on the people's hearts, the people would know God personally, they would be his people, and God would forgive their sins.
- 29:1 One day Peter asked Jesus, "Master, how many times should I forgive my brother when he sins against me?"
- 29:8 I forgave your debt because you begged me.
- 38:5 Then Jesus took a cup and said, "Drink this. It is my blood of the New Covenant that is poured out for the forgiveness of sins."

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5546, H5547, H3722, H5375, H5545, H5547, H7521, G85900, G86300, G54830

Matthew References:

6:12; 6:14; 6:15; 9:2; 9:5; 9:6; 12:31; 12:32; 18:21; 18:27; 18:32; 18:35; 26:28

forsake, forsaken, leave

Definition:

The term “forsake” means to abandon someone or to give up something. Someone who has been “forsaken” has been deserted or abandoned by someone else.

- When people “forsake” God, they are being unfaithful to him by disobeying him.
- When God “forsakes” people, he has stopped helping them and allowed them to experience suffering in order to cause them to turn back to him.
- This term can also mean to forsake things, such as forsaking, or not following, God’s teachings.
- The term “forsaken” can be used in the past tense, as in “he has forsaken you” or as in referring to someone who has “been forsaken.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate this term could include “abandon” or “neglect” or “give up” or “go away from” or “leave behind,” depending on the context.
- To “forsake” God’s law could be translated “disobey God’s law.” This could also be translated as “abandon” or “give up on” or “stop obeying” his teachings or his laws.
- The phrase “be forsaken” can be translated as “be abandoned” or “be deserted.”
- It more clearer to use different words to translate this term, depending on whether the text describes forsaking a thing or a person.

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 6:11-13
- Daniel 11:29-30
- Genesis 24:27
- Joshua 24:16-18
- Matthew 27:45-47
- Proverbs 27:9-10
- Psalms 71:18

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0488, H2308, H5203, H5428, H5800, H5805, H7503, G06460, G06570, G08630, G14590, G26410

Matthew References:

26:56; 27:46

foundation, founder, founded

Definition:

Used in this sense, the verb “found” means build, create, or lay a base for. The phrase “founded on” means supported by or based on. A “foundation” is the base of support on which something is built or created.

- The foundation of a house or building must be strong and dependable in order to support the entire structure.
- The term “foundation” can also refer to the beginning of something or to the time when something was first created.
- A “foundation stone” was a stone that was laid as part of the foundation. These stones were tested to make sure they were strong enough to support an entire building.

Translation Suggestions:

- The phrase “before the foundation of the world” could be translated as “before the creation of the world” or “before the time when the world first existed” or “before everything was first created.”
- The term “founded on” could be translated as “securely built on” or “firmly based on.”
- Depending on the context, “foundation” could be translated as “strong base” or “solid support” or “beginning” or “creation.”

(See also: cornerstone, create)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 6:37-38
- 2 Chronicles 3:1-3
- Ezekiel 13:13-14
- Luke 14:29
- Matthew 13:35
- Matthew 25:34

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0134, H0787, H2713, H3245, H3247, H3248, H4143, H4144, H4146, H4328, H4349, H4527, H8356, G23100, G23110, G26020

Matthew References:

7:25; 13:35; 25:34

frankincense

Definition:

Frankincense is a fragrant spice made from tree resin. It is used to make perfumes and incense.

- In Bible times, frankincense was an important spice used to prepare dead bodies for burial.
- This spice is also valuable for its healing and calming qualities.
- When learned men came from an eastern country to visit baby Jesus in Bethlehem, frankincense was one of the three gifts they brought him.

(See also: Bethlehem, learned men)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 9:28-29
- Exodus 30:34-36
- Matthew 2:11-12
- Numbers 5:15

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3828, G30300

Matthew References:

2:11

free, freed, freedom, freeman, freewill, liberty

Definition:

The terms “free” or “freedom” refer to not being in slavery, or any other kind of bondage.

Another word for “freedom” is “liberty.”

- The expression to “set someone free” or to “free someone” means to provide a way for someone to no longer be in slavery or captivity.
- In the Bible, these terms are often used figuratively to refer to how a believer in Jesus is no longer under the power of sin.
- Having “liberty” or “freedom” can also refer to no longer being required to obey the Law of Moses, but instead being free to live by the teachings and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “free” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “not bound” or “not enslaved” or “not in slavery” or “not in bondage.”
- The term “freedom” or “liberty” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “the state of being free” or “the condition of not being a slave” or “not being bound.”
- The expression to “set free” could be translated as to “cause to be free” or to “rescue from slavery” or to “release from bondage.”
- A person who has been “set free” has been “released” or “taken out of” bondage or slavery.

(See also: bind, enslave, servant)

Bible References:

- Galatians 4:26
- Galatians 5:1
- Isaiah 61:1
- Leviticus 25:10
- Romans 6:18

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1865, H2600, H2666, H2668, H2670, H3318, H4800, H5068, H5069, H5071, H5337, H5352, H5355, H5425, H5674, H5800, H6299, H6362, H7342, H7971, G04250, G05250, G05580, G06290, G06300, G08590, G13440, G14320, G16570, G16580, G16590, G18490, G30890, G39550, G45060, G54830

Matthew References:

10:8; 17:26

fruit, fruitful, unfruitful

Definition:

The term “fruit” refers to the part of a plant that can be eaten. Something that is “fruitful” produces a lot of fruit. Something that is “unfruitful” does not produce fruit.

- In general, the expression “fruit of” refers to anything that comes from or that is produced by something else. For example, the phrase “the fruit of every tree” refers to the fruit that comes from these trees.
- The expression “fruit of the land” refers generally to everything that the land produces for people to eat. This includes not only fruits such as grapes or dates, but also vegetables, nuts, and grains.

Translation Suggestions:

- When the term “fruit” refers to what a specific plant produces, the specific term for the fruit of that plant can be used, otherwise, use a general word for the edible things that plants produce, if possible. In many languages it may be more natural to use the plural “fruits” whenever it refers to more than one fruit.
- When used literally, the term “fruitful” could be translated as “producing much fruit.”
- The expression “fruit of the land” could also be translated as “food that the land produces” or “food crops that are growing in that region.”
- When used literally, the expression “will be more fruitful” could also be translated as “will produce more fruit.”

(See also: descendant, grain, grape, Holy Spirit, vine, womb)

Bible References:

- Genesis 1:11
- Matthew 7:17

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0004, H1061, H1063, H1069, H2233, H2981, H3581, H3759, H3899, H3978, H4022, H5108, H6509, H6529, H7019, H8393, H8570, G10810, G25900, G25920, G25930, G37030, G50520, G53520

Matthew References:

3:8; 3:10; 7:16; 7:17; 7:18; 7:19; 7:20; 12:33; 13:8; 13:22; 13:23; 13:26; 21:19; 21:34; 21:41; 21:43; 26:29 fulfill, fulfilled, carried out

Definition:

The term “fulfill” means to complete or accomplish something that was expected.

- When a prophecy is fulfilled, it means that God causes to happen what was predicted in the prophecy.
- If a person fulfills a promise or a vow, it means that he does what he has promised to do.
- To fulfill a responsibility means to do the task that was assigned or required.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “fulfill” could be translated as “accomplish” or “complete” or “cause to happen” or “obey” or “perform.”
- The phrase “has been fulfilled” could also be translated as “has come true” or “has happened” or “has taken place.”
- Ways to translate “fulfill,” as in “fulfill your ministry,” could include “complete” or “perform” or “practice” or “serve other people as God has called you to do.”

(See also: prophet, Christ, minister, call)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 2:27
- Acts 3:17-18
- Leviticus 22:17-19
- Luke 4:21
- Matthew 1:22-23
- Matthew 5:17
- Psalms 116:12-15

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 24:4 John fulfilled what the prophets said, “See I send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way.”
- 40:3 The soldiers gambled for Jesus’ clothing. When they did this, they fulfilled a prophecy that said, “They divided my garments among them, and gambled for my clothing.”

- 42:7 Jesus said, “I told you that everything written about me in God’s word must be fulfilled.”
- 43:5 “This fulfills the prophecy made by the prophet Joel in which God said, ‘In the last days, I will pour out my Spirit.’”
- 43:7 “This fulfills the prophecy which says, ‘You will not let your Holy One rot in the grave.’”
- 44:5 “Although you did not understand what you were doing, God used your actions to fulfill the prophecies that the Messiah would suffer and die.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1214, H5487, G10960, G41380

Matthew References:

front:intro; 1:22; 2:15; 2:17; 2:23; 3:15; 4:14; 5:17; 8:17; 12:17; 13:14; 13:35; 21:4; 26:54; 26:56; 27:9

furnace

Definition:

A furnace was a very large oven used for heating objects to a high temperature.

- In ancient times, most furnaces were used for melting metals to make objects such as cooking pots, jewelry, weapons, and idols.
- Furnaces were also used in the making of clay pottery.
- Sometimes a furnace is referred to figuratively to explain that something is very hot.

(See also: false god, image)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 8:51
- Genesis 19:28
- Proverbs 17:3
- Psalms 21:9
- Revelation 9:2

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0861, H3536, H3564, H5948, H8574, G25750

Matthew References:

13:42; 13:50

Galilee, Galilean

Definition:

Galilee was the most northern region of Israel, just north of Samaria. A “Galilean” was a person who lived in Galilee or who lived in Galilee.

- Galilee, Samaria, and Judea were the three main provinces of Israel during New Testament times.
- Galilee is bordered on the east by a large lake called the “Sea of Galilee.”
- Jesus grew up and lived in the town of Nazareth in Galilee.
- Most of the miracles and teachings of Jesus took place in the region of Galilee.

(See also: Nazareth, Samaria, Sea of Galilee)

Bible References:

- Acts 9:32
- Acts 13:31
- John 2:1-2
- John 4:3
- Luke 13:3
- Mark 3:7
- Matthew 2:22-23
- Matthew 3:13-15

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 21:10 The prophet Isaiah said the Messiah would live in Galilee, comfort broken-hearted people, and proclaim freedom to captives and release to prisoners.
- 26:1 After overcoming Satan’s temptations, Jesus returned in the power of the Holy Spirit to the region of Galilee where he lived.
- 39:6 Finally, the people said, “We know that you were with Jesus because you both are from Galilee.”
- 41:6 Then the angel told the women, “Go and tell the disciples, ‘Jesus has risen from the dead and he will go to Galilee ahead of you.’”

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1551, G10560, G10570

Matthew References:

2:22; 3:13; 4:12; 4:15; 4:18; 4:23; 4:25; 15:29; 17:22; 19:1; 21:11; 26:32; 26:69; 27:55; 28:7; 28:10; 28:16 gate, gate bar, gatekeeper, gatepost, gateway

Definition:

The term “gate” refers to an access point in a fence, wall, or other kind of barrier that surrounds a house, property, city, etc.

- A city gate could be opened to allow people, animals, and cargo to travel in and out of the city.
- To protect the city, its walls and gates were thick and strong. Gates were closed and locked with a metal or wooden bar to prevent enemy soldiers from entering the city.
- A “bar” for a gate refers to a wood or metal bar that can be moved into place so that the doors of the gate cannot be opened from the outside.
- In Bible times, a city gate was often the social center for that town or city. It was a place where news of current events was exchanged between people, where business transactions occurred, and where civil judgments were made.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate “gate” could be “door” or “wall opening” or “barrier” or “entranceway.”
- The phrase “bars of the gate” could be translated as “gate bolts” or “wooden beams to lock the gate” or “metal locking rods of the gate.”

Bible References:

- Acts 9:24
- Acts 10:18
- Deuteronomy 21:18-19
- Genesis 19:1
- Genesis 24:60
- Matthew 7:13

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1817, H5592, H6607, H8179, G23740, G44390, G44400

Matthew References:

7:13; 7:14; 26:71

generation

Definition:

The term “generation” in this sense refers to a period of time approximately equal to the lifetime of a person. This could be as long as 100 years. This period of time also came to be measured by the time between the adulthood of one person and the adulthood of his or her offspring, or a 30–40-year time span.

Translation Suggestions

- When referring to the past, “generations” could be translated as “during the times of our ancestors” or “when people lived before us.”
- When referring to the future, “generations” could be translated as “lifespans” or “times of people who will come afterwards” or “when our descendants are living.”
- The phrase “in his own generation” could be translated as “while he lived” or “during his time”
- The expression “from generation to generation” or “from one generation to the next” could be translated as “from the time of people living now and for always” or “as long as people live on the earth” or “from now to all future time periods” or “for all time.”

(See also: descendant, ancestor)

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1755, H8435, G01650, G10740

Matthew References:

1:17; 11:16; 12:39; 12:41; 12:42; 12:45; 16:4; 17:17; 23:36; 24:34

Gentile

Definition:

The term “Gentile” refers to anyone who is not a Jew. Gentiles are people who are not descendants of Jacob.

- In the Bible, the term “uncircumcised” is also used figuratively to refer to Gentiles because many of them did not circumcise their male children as the Israelites did.
- Because God chose the Jews to be his special people, they thought of the Gentiles as outsiders who could never be God’s people.
- The Jews were also called “Israelites” or “Hebrews” at different times in history. They referred to anyone else as a “Gentile.”
- Gentile could also be translated as “not a Jew” or “non-Jewish” or “not an Israelite” (Old Testament) or “non-Jew.”.
- Traditionally, Jews would neither eat with nor associate with Gentiles, which at first caused problems within the early church.

(See also: Israel, Jacob, Jew)

Bible References:

- Acts 9:13-16
- Acts 14:5-7
- Galatians 2:16
- Luke 2:32
- Matthew 5:47
- Matthew 6:5-7
- Romans 11:25

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1471, G14820, G14840, G16720

Matthew References:

4:15; 5:47; 6:7; 6:32; 10:5; 10:18; 12:18; 12:21; 18:17; 20:19; 20:25

Gethsemane

Definition:

Gethsemane was a garden of olive trees east of Jerusalem beyond the Kidron valley and near the Mount of Olives.

- The garden of Gethsemane was a place where Jesus and his followers would go to be alone and rest, away from the crowds.
- It was in Gethsemane that Jesus prayed in deep sorrow, before being arrested there by Jewish leaders.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Judas Iscariot, Kidron Valley, Mount of Olives)

Bible References:

- Mark 14:32
- Matthew 26:36

Word Data:

- Strong's: G10680

Matthew References:

26:36

glory, glorious, glorify

Definition:

The term “glory” is a general term for a family of concepts including value, worth, importance, honor, splendor, or majesty. The term “glorify” means to ascribe glory to someone or something, or to show or tell how glorious something or someone is.

- In the Bible, the term “glory” is especially used to describe God, who is more valuable, more worthy, more important, more honorable, more splendid, and more majestic than anyone or anything in the universe. Everything about his character reveals his glory.
- People can glorify God by telling about the wonderful things he has done. They can also glorify God by living in accordance with God’s character, because doing so shows to others his value, worth, importance, honor, splendor, and majesty.
- The expression to “glory in” means to boast about or take pride in something.

Old Testament

- The specific phrase “the glory of Yahweh” in the Old Testament usually refers to some perceptible manifestation of Yahweh’s presence in a particular location.

New Testament

- God the Father will glorify God the Son by revealing to all people the full extent of how glorious Jesus is.
- Everyone who believes in Christ will be glorified with him. This use of the term “glorify” carries a unique meaning. It means that when people who believe in Christ are raised to life, they will be changed physically to be like Jesus as he appeared after his resurrection.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, different ways to translate “glory” could include “splendor” or “majesty” or “awesome greatness” or “extreme value.”
- The term “glorious” could be translated as “full of glory” or “extremely valuable” or “brightly shining” or “awesomely majestic.”
- The expression “give glory to God” could be translated as “honor God’s greatness” or “praise God because of his splendor” or “tell others how great God is.”
- The expression “glory in” could also be translated as “praise” or “take pride in” or “boast about” or “take pleasure in.”
- “Glorify” could also be translated as “give glory to” or “bring glory to” or “cause to appear great.”

- The phrase “glorify God” could also be translated as “praise God” or “talk about God’s greatness” or “show how great God is” or “honor God (by obeying him).”
- The term “be glorified” could also be translated as “be shown to be very great” or “be praised” or “be exalted.”

(See also: honor, majesty, exalt, obey, praise)

Bible References:

- Exodus 24:17
- Numbers 14:9-10
- Isaiah 35:2
- Luke 18:43
- Luke 2:9
- John 12:28
- Acts 3:13-14
- Acts 7:1-3
- Romans 8:17
- 1 Corinthians 6:19-20
- Philippians 2:14-16
- Philippians 4:19
- Colossians 3:1-4
- 1 Thessalonians 2:5
- James 2:1-4
- 1 Peter 4:15-16
- Revelation 15:4

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 23:7 Suddenly, the skies were filled with angels praising God, saying, “Glory to God in heaven and peace on earth to the people he favors!”
- 25:6 Then Satan showed Jesus all the kingdoms of the world and all their glory and said, “I will give you all this if you bow down and worship me.”
- 37:1 When Jesus heard this news, he said, “This sickness will not end in death, but it is for the glory of God.”

- 37:8 Jesus responded, “Did I not tell you that you would see God’s glory if you believe in me?”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0117, H0142, H0155, H0215, H1342, H1921, H1926, H1935, H1984, H3367, H3513, H3519, H3520, H6286, H6643, H7623, H8597, G13910, G13920, G17400, G17410, G27440, G48880

Matthew References:

4:8; 5:16; 6:2; 6:29; 9:8; 15:31; 16:27; 19:28; 24:30; 25:31

goat, goatskin, scapegoat, kid

Definition:

A goat is a medium-sized, four-legged animal which is similar to a sheep and is raised primarily for its milk and meat. A baby goat is called a "kid."

- Like sheep, goats were important animals of sacrifice, especially at Passover.
- Although goats and sheep can be very similar, these are some ways that they are different:
  - Goats have coarse hair; sheep have wool.
  - The tail of a goat stands up; the tail of a sheep hangs down.
  - Sheep usually like to stay with their herd, but goats are more independent and tend to wander away from their herd.
- In Bible times, goats were often the main source of milk in Israel.
- Goat skins were used for tent coverings and to make bags for holding wine.
- In both the Old and New Testaments, the goat was used as a symbol for unrighteous people, perhaps because of its tendency to wander away from the one taking care of it.
- The Israelites also used goats as symbolic sin bearers. When one goat was sacrificed, the priest would lay his hands on a second, live goat, and send it into the desert as a symbol that the animal was bearing the people's sins.

(See also: flock, sacrifice, sheep, righteous, wine)

Bible References:

- Exodus 12:3-4
- Genesis 30:32
- Genesis 31:10
- Genesis 37:31
- Leviticus 3:12-14
- Matthew 25:33

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0689, H1423, H1429, H3277, H3629, H5795, H5796, H6260, H6629, H6842, H7716, H8163, H8166, H8495, G01220, G20550, G20560, G51310

Matthew References:

25:32; 25:33

God

Definition:

In the Bible, the term "God" refers to the eternal being who created the universe out of nothing. God exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God's personal name is "Yahweh."

- God has always existed; he existed before anything else existed, and he will continue to exist forever.
- He is the only true God and has authority over everything in the universe.
- God is perfectly righteous, infinitely wise, holy, sinless, just, merciful, and loving.
- He is a covenant-keeping God, who always fulfills his promises.
- People were created to worship God and he is the only one they should worship.
- God revealed his name as "Yahweh," which means "he is" or "I am" or "the One who (always) exists."
- The Bible also teaches about false "gods," which are nonliving idols that people wrongly worship.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate "God" could include "Deity" or "Creator" or "Supreme Being" or "Supreme Creator" or "Infinite Sovereign Lord" or "Eternal Supreme Being."
- Consider how God is referred to in a local or national language. There may also already be a word for "God" in the language being translated. If so, it is important to make sure that this word fits the characteristics of the one true God as described above.
- Many languages capitalize the first letter of the word for the one true God, to distinguish it from the word for a false god. Another way to make this distinction would be to use different terms for "God" and "god." NOTE: In the biblical text, when a person who does not worship Yahweh speaks about Yahweh and uses the word "god," it is acceptable to render the term without a capital letter in reference to Yahweh (see Jonah 1:6, 3:9).
- The phrase "I will be their God and they will be my people" could also be translated as "I, God, will rule over these people and they will worship me."

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: create, false god, God the Father, Holy Spirit, false god, Son of God, Yahweh)

Bible References:

- 1 John 1:7
- 1 Samuel 10:7-8
- 1 Timothy 4:10
- Colossians 1:16
- Deuteronomy 29:14-16
- Ezra 3:1-2
- Genesis 1:2
- Hosea 4:11-12
- Isaiah 36:6-7
- James 2:20
- Jeremiah 5:5
- John 1:3
- Joshua 3:9-11
- Lamentations 3:43
- Micah 4:5
- Philippians 2:6
- Proverbs 24:12
- Psalms 47:9

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 1:1 God created the universe and everything in it in six days.
- 1:15 God made man and woman in his own image.
- 5:3 "I am God Almighty. I will make a covenant with you."
- 9:14 God said, "I AM WHO I AM. Tell them, 'I AM has sent me to you.' Also tell them, 'I am Yahweh, the God of your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. This is my name forever.'"
- 10:2 Through these plagues, God showed Pharaoh that he is more powerful than Pharaoh and all of Egypt's gods.
- 16:1 The Israelites began to worship the Canaanite gods instead of Yahweh, the true God.
- 22:7 "You, my son, will be called the prophet of the Most High God who will prepare the people to receive the Messiah!"

- 24:9 There is only one God. But John heard God the Father speak, and saw Jesus the Son and the Holy Spirit when he baptized Jesus.
- 25:7 “Worship only the Lord your God and only serve him.”
- 28:1 “There is only one who is good, and that is God.”
- 49:9 But God loved everyone in the world so much that he gave his only Son so that whoever believes in Jesus will not be punished for his sins, but will live with God forever.
- 50:16 But some day God will create a new heaven and a new earth that will be perfect.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0136, H0305, H0410, H0426, H0430, H0433, H2486, H2623, H3068, H3069, H3863, H4136, H6697, G01120, G05160, G09320, G09350, G10960, G11400, G20980, G21240, G21280, G21500, G21520, G21530, G22990, G23040, G23050, G23120, G23130, G23140, G23150, G23160, G23170, G23180, G23190, G23200, G33610, G37850, G41510, G52070, G53770, G54630, G55370, G55380

Matthew References:

1:23; 3:9; 4:3; 4:4; 4:6; 4:7; 4:10; 5:8; 5:9; 5:34; 6:24; 6:30; 9:8; 12:4; 15:3; 15:4; 15:31; 16:23; 19:6; 19:26; 22:16; 22:21; 22:29; 22:31; 22:32; 22:37; 23:22; 26:61; 26:63; 27:40; 27:43; 27:46

God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

Definition:

The terms “God the Father” and “heavenly Father” refer to Yahweh, the one true God. Another term with the same meaning is “Father,” used most often when Jesus was referring to him.

- God exists as God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Each one is fully God, and yet they are only one God. This is a mystery that mere humans cannot fully understand.
- God the Father sent God the Son (Jesus) into the world and he sends the Holy Spirit to his people.
- Anyone who believes in God the Son becomes a child of God the Father, and God the Holy Spirit comes to live in that person. This is another mystery that human beings cannot fully understand.

Translation Suggestions:

- In translating the phrase “God the Father,” it is best to translate “Father” with the same word that the language naturally uses to refer to a human father.
- The term “heavenly Father” could be translated by “Father who lives in heaven” or “Father God who lives in heaven” or “God our Father from heaven.”
- Usually “Father” is capitalized when it, refers to God.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: ancestor, God, heaven, Holy Spirit, Jesus, Son of God)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 8:4-6
- 1 John 2:1
- 1 John 2:23
- 1 John 3:1
- Colossians 1:1-3
- Ephesians 5:18-21
- Luke 10:22
- Matthew 5:16

- Matthew 23:9

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 24:9 There is only one God. But John heard God the Father speak, and saw Jesus the Son and the Holy Spirit when he baptized Jesus.
- 29:9 Then Jesus said, “This is what my heavenly Father will do to every one of you if you do not forgive your brother from your heart.”
- 37:9 Then Jesus looked up to heaven and said, “Father, thank you for hearing me.”
- 40:7 Then Jesus cried out, “It is finished! Father, I give my spirit into your hands.”
- 42:10 “So go, make disciples of all people groups by baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit and by teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.”
- 43:8 “Jesus is now exalted to the right hand of God the Father.”
- 50:10 “Then the righteous ones will shine like the sun in the kingdom of God their Father.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0001, H0002, G39620

Matthew References:

5:16; 5:45; 5:48; 6:1; 6:4; 6:6; 6:8; 6:9; 6:14; 6:15; 6:18; 6:26; 6:32; 7:11; 7:21; 10:20; 10:29; 10:32; 10:33; 11:25; 11:26; 11:27; 12:50; 13:43; 15:13; 16:17; 16:27; 18:10; 18:14; 18:19; 18:35; 20:23; 23:9; 24:36; 25:34; 26:29; 26:39; 26:53; 28:19

gold, golden

Definition:

Gold is a yellow, high quality metal that was used for making jewelry and religious objects. It was the most valuable metal in ancient times.

- In Bible times, many different kinds of objects were made out of solid gold or were covered with a thin layer of gold.
- These objects included earrings and other jewelry, and idols, altars, and other objects used in the tabernacle or temple, such as the ark of the covenant.
- In Old Testament times, gold was used as a means of exchange in buying and selling. It was weighed on a scale to determine its value.
- Later on, gold and other metals such as silver were used to make coins to use in buying and selling
- When referring to something that is not solid gold, but only has a thin covering of gold, the term “golden” or “gold-covered” or “gold-overlaid” could also be used.
- Sometimes an object is described as “gold-colored,” which means it has the yellow color of gold, but may not actually be made of gold.

(See also: altar, ark of the covenant, false god, silver, tabernacle, temple)

Bible References:

- 1 Peter 1:7
- 1 Timothy 2:8-10
- 2 Chronicles 1:15
- Acts 3:6
- Daniel 2:32

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1220, H1722, H2091, H2742, H3800, H5458, H6884, H6885, G55520, G55530, G55540, G55570

Matthew References:

2:11; 10:9; 23:16; 23:17

Golgotha

Definition:

"Golgotha" was the name of the place where Jesus was crucified. Its name comes from an Aramaic word that means "Skull" or "Place of the Skull."

- Golgotha was located outside the city walls of Jerusalem, somewhere nearby. It was perhaps located on a slope of the Mount of Olives.
- In some older English versions of the Bible, Golgotha is translated as "Calvary," which comes from the Latin word for "skull."
- Many Bible versions use a word that looks or sounds similar to "Golgotha," since its meaning is already explained in the Bible text.

(Translation Suggestion: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Aram, Mount of Olives)

Bible References:

- John 19:17
- Mark 15:22
- Matthew 27:33

Word Data:

- Strong's: G11150

Matthew References:

27:33

Gomorrah

Definition:

Gomorrah was a city located in a fertile valley near Sodom, where Abraham's nephew Lot chose to live.

- The exact location of Gomorrah and Sodom is unknown, but there are indications that they may have been located directly south of the Salt Sea, near the Valley of Siddim.
- There were many kings at war in the region where Sodom and Gomorrah were located.
- When Lot's family was captured in a conflict between Sodom and other cities, Abraham and his men rescued them.
- Not long after that, Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed by God because of the wickedness of the people who lived there.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Abraham, Babylon, Lot, Salt Sea, Sodom)

Bible References:

- 2 Peter 2:6
- Genesis 10:19
- Genesis 14:1-2
- Genesis 18:21
- Isaiah 1:9
- Matthew 10:15

Word Data:

- Strong's: H6017

Matthew References:

10:15

good news, gospel

Definition:

The term “gospel” literally means “good news” and refers to a message or announcement that tells people something that benefits them and makes them glad.

- In the Bible, this term usually refers to the message about God’s salvation for people through Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross.
- In most English Bibles, “good news” is usually translated as “gospel” and is also used in phrases such as, the “gospel of Jesus Christ,” the “gospel of God” and the “gospel of the kingdom.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Different ways to translate this term could include, “good message” or “good announcement” or “God’s message of salvation” or “the good things God teaches about Jesus.”
- Depending on the context, ways to translate the phrase, “good news of” could include, “good news/message about” or “good message from” or “the good things God tells us about” or “what God says about how he saves people.”

(See also: kingdom, sacrifice, save)

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 1:5
- Acts 8:25
- Colossians 1:23
- Galatians 1:6
- Luke 8:1-3
- Mark 1:14
- Philippians 2:22
- Romans 1:3

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 23:6 The angel said, “Do not be afraid, because I have some good news for you. The Messiah, the Master, has been born in Bethlehem!”

- 26:3 Jesus read, “God has given me his Spirit so that I can proclaim good news to the poor, freedom to captives, recovery of sight for the blind, and release to the oppressed. This is the year of the Lord’s favor.”
- 45:10 Philip also used other Scriptures to tell him the good news of Jesus.
- 46:10 Then they sent them off to preach the good news about Jesus in many other places.
- 47:1 One day, Paul and his friend Silas went to the town of Philippi to proclaim the good news about Jesus.
- 47:13 The good news about Jesus kept spreading, and the Church kept growing.
- 50:1 For almost 2,000 years, more and more people around the world have been hearing the good news about Jesus the Messiah.
- 50:2 When Jesus was living on earth he said, “My disciples will preach the good news about the kingdom of God to people everywhere in the world, and then the end will come.”
- 50:3 Before he returned to heaven, Jesus told Christians to proclaim the good news to people who have never heard it.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G20970, G20980, G42830

Matthew References:

4:23; 9:35; 11:5; 24:14; 26:13

good, right, pleasant, better, best, goodness

Definition:

The term “good” generally refers to a positive evaluation of the quality of something or someone, often in a moral or emotional sense. However, the term conveys various nuances throughout the Bible depending on the context.

- Something that is “good” could be emotionally pleasant, morally right, excellent, helpful, suitable, or profitable.
- In the Bible, the general meaning of “good” is often contrasted with “evil.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The general term for “good” in the target language should be used wherever this general meaning is accurate and natural, especially in contexts where it is contrasted to evil.
- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this term could include “kind” or “excellent” or “pleasing to God” or “righteous” or “morally upright” or “profitable.”
- “Good land” could be translated as “fertile land” or “productive land”; a “good crop” could be translated as a “plentiful harvest” or “large amount of crops.”
- The phrase “do good to” means to do something that benefits others and could be translated as “be kind to” or “help” or “benefit” someone or “cause someone to prosper.”
- To “do good on the Sabbath” means to “do things that help others on the Sabbath.”
- Depending on the context, ways to translate the term “goodness” could include “blessing” or “kindness” or “moral perfection” or “righteousness” or “purity.”

(See also: righteous, prosper, evil)

Bible References:

- Galatians 5:22-24
- Genesis 1:12
- Genesis 2:9
- Genesis 2:17
- James 3:13
- Romans 2:4

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 1:4 God saw that what he had created was good.
- 1:11 God planted the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.
- 1:12 Then God said, “It is not good for man to be alone.”
- 2:4 “God just knows that as soon as you eat it, you will be like God and will understand good and evil like he does.”
- 8:12 “You tried to do evil when you sold me as a slave, but God used the evil for good!”
- 14:15 Joshua was a good leader because he trusted and obeyed God.
- 18:13 Some of these kings were good men who ruled justly and worshiped God.
- 28:1 “Good teacher, what must I do to have eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me ‘good?’ There is only one who is good, and that is God.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0117, H0145, H0155, H0202, H0239, H0410, H1580, H1926, H1935, H2532, H2617, H2623, H2869, H2895, H2896, H2898, H3190, H3191, H3276, H3474, H3788, H3966, H4261, H4399, H5232, H5750, H6287, H6643, H6743, H7075, H7368, H7399, H7443, H7999, H8231, H8232, H8233, H8389, H8458, G00140, G00150, G00180, G00190, G05150, G07440, G08650, G09790, G13800, G20950, G20970, G21060, G21070, G21080, G21090, G21140, G21150, G21330, G21400, G21620, G21630, G21740, G22930, G25650, G25670, G25700, G25730, G28870, G29860, G31400, G36170, G37760, G41470, G46320, G46740, G48510, G52230, G52240, G53580, G55420, G55430, G55440

Matthew References:

3:10; 5:16; 5:45; 7:11; 7:17; 7:18; 7:19; 12:12; 12:33; 12:34; 12:35; 13:8; 13:23; 13:24; 13:27; 13:37; 13:38; 13:45; 13:48; 15:26; 17:4; 18:8; 18:9; 19:16; 19:17; 20:15; 22:10; 25:21; 25:23; 26:10; 26:24

govern, governor, proconsul, Tirshatha

Definition:

A “governor” is a person who rules over a large area of land (such as a territory, region, or province) within a nation or empire.

- In the Old Testament, the term “Tirshatha” is a more specific title for a governor who ruled over a Persian province.
- In the New Testament, the term “proconsul” is a more specific title for a governor who ruled over a Roman province.
- In Bible times, governors were appointed by a king or emperor and were under his authority.
- A “government” consists of all the rulers who govern a certain country or empire. These rulers make laws that guide the behavior of their citizens so that there is peace, safety, and prosperity for all the people of that nation.

Translation Suggestions:

- The word “governor” can also be translated as “ruler” or “overseer” or “regional leader” or “one who rules over a small territory.”
- Depending on the context, the term “govern” could also be translated as “rule over” or “lead” or “manage” or “supervise.”
- The term “governor” should be translated differently than the terms for “king” or “emperor”, since a governor was a less powerful ruler who was under their authority.
- The term “proconsul” could also be translated as “Roman governor” or “Roman provincial ruler.”

(See also: authority, king, power, province, Rome, ruler)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:9-10
- Acts 23:22
- Acts 26:30
- Mark 13:9-10
- Matthew 10:18
- Matthew 27:1-2

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0324, H1777, H2280, H4951, H5148, H5460, H6346, H6347, H6486, H7989, H8269, H8660, G04450, G04460, G07460, G14810, G22320, G22330, G22300, G42320

Matthew References:

2:6; 10:18; 27:2; 27:11; 27:14; 27:15; 27:21; 27:27; 28:14

grain, grainfields

Definition:

The term “grain” usually refers to the seed of a food plant such as wheat, barley, corn, millet, or rice. It can also refer to the whole plant.

- In the Bible, the main grains that are referred to are wheat and barley.
- A head of grain is the part of the plant that holds the grain.
- Note that some older Bible versions use the word “corn” to refer to grain in general. In modern English however, “corn” only refers to one type of grain.

(See also: head, wheat)

Bible References:

- Genesis 42:3
- Genesis 42:26-28
- Genesis 43:1-2
- Luke 6:2
- Mark 2:24
- Matthew 13:7-9
- Ruth 1:22

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1250, H1430, H1715, H2233, H2591, H3759, H3899, H7054, H7383, H7641, H7668, G02480, G25900, G34500, G46210, G47190

Matthew References:

12:1; 13:31; 17:20

grape, grapevine

Definition:

A grape is a small, round, smooth-skinned berry fruit that grows in clusters on vines. The juice of grapes is used in making wine.

- There are different colors of grapes, such as light green, purple, or red.
- Individual grapes can be around one to three centimeters in size.
- People grow grapes in gardens called vineyards. These normally consist of long rows of vines.
- Grapes were a very important food during Bible times and having vineyards was a sign of wealth.
- In order to keep grapes from rotting, people would often dry them. Dried grapes are called “raisins” and they were used to make raisin cakes.
- Jesus told a parable about a grape vineyard to teach his disciples about God’s kingdom.

(See also: vine, vineyard, wine)

Bible References:

- Deuteronomy 23:24
- Hosea 9:10
- Job 15:33
- Luke 6:43-44
- Matthew 7:15-17
- Matthew 21:33

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0811, H0891, H1154, H1155, H1210, H3196, H5955, H6025, H6528, G02880, G47180

Matthew References:

7:16

grave, gravedigger, tomb, burial place

Definition:

The terms “tomb” and “grave” refer to a place where people put the body of a person who has died. A “burial place” is a more general term that also refers to this.

- The Jews sometimes used natural caves as tombs, and sometimes they dug caves into rock in the side of a hill.
- In New Testament times, it was common to roll a large, heavy stone in front of the opening of a tomb in order to close it.
- If the target language the word for a tomb can only refer to a hole in which the body is placed below the ground, other ways to translate this could include “cave” or “hole in the side of a hill.”
- The phrase “the grave” is often used generally and figuratively to refer to the condition of being dead or a place where the souls of dead people are.

(See also: bury, death)

Bible References:

- Acts 2:29-31
- Genesis 23:6
- Genesis 50:5
- John 19:41
- Luke 23:53
- Mark 5:1-2
- Matthew 27:53
- Romans 3:13

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 32:4 The man lived among the tombs in the area.
- 37:6 Jesus asked them, “Where have you put Lazarus?” They told him, “In the tomb. Come and see.”
- 37:7 The tomb was a cave with a stone rolled in front of its opening.

- 40:9 Then Joseph and Nicodemus, two Jewish leaders who believed Jesus was the Messiah, asked Pilate for Jesus' body. They wrapped his body in cloth and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock. Then they rolled a large stone in front the tomb to block the opening.
- 41:4 He (the angel) rolled away the stone that was covering the entrance to the tomb and sat on it. The soldiers guarding the tomb were terrified and fell to the ground like dead men.
- 41:5 When the women arrived at the tomb, the angel told them, "Do not be afraid. Jesus is not here. He has risen from the dead, just like he said he would! Look in the tomb and see." The women looked into the tomb and saw where Jesus' body had been laid. His body was not there!

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1430, H6900, H6913, H7585, H7845, G34180, G34190, G50280

Matthew References:

8:28; 23:27; 23:29; 27:52; 27:53; 27:60; 27:61; 27:64; 27:66; 28:1; 28:8

Hades, Sheol

Definition:

The terms “Hades” (in Greek) and “Sheol” (in Hebrew) are proper names for the place where the spirits of dead people would go after they had died.

- In these ancient cultures, people thought of this as an underground dwelling place where the spirits of dead people existed in a shadowy, semi-conscious form.
- Although these terms are place names, in the Bible they often mean the same thing as “death” or “the grave.”
- Throughout most of biblical history, “Sheol” and “Hades” refer to a neutral place where all of the dead go to await judgment, both the righteous and the unrighteous. In the New Testament, however, “Hades” begins to be seen as a place for only the unrighteous, in contrast with “Abraham’s side” (Luke 16:22) or “paradise” (Luke 23:43), which describe the place for the righteous.

Translation Suggestions

- Both “Sheol” and “Hades” can be translated in various ways, depending on the context. Some possibilities include: “place of the dead,” “place for dead spirits,” “the underworld,” “the pit,” “the grave,” or “death.”
- Some translations keep the proper names “Sheol” and “Hades,” spelling them to fit the sound patterns of the language of translation. (See: How to Translate Unknowns).
- A phrase could also be added to each term to explain it. Examples of doing this are, “Sheol, place where dead people are” and “Hades, place of death.”

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: death, heaven, hell, tomb)

Bible References:

- Acts 2:31
- Genesis 44:29
- Jonah 2:2
- Luke 10:15
- Luke 16:23
- Matthew 11:23
- Matthew 16:18

- Revelation 1:18

Word Data:

- Strong's: H7585, G00860

Matthew References:

11:23; 16:18

hang, hung

Definition:

The term “hang” means to suspend something or someone above the ground.

- In modern times, death by hanging is usually done by tying a rope around a person’s neck and suspending him from an elevated object until he dies. This elevated object can be any number of things, such as a tree or a gallows, that is, a platform built specifically for the purpose of hanging a person in order to kill him.
- In biblical times, however, ancient cultures may not have killed people by hanging in precisely the same way. For example, Jesus died while hanging on a wooden cross (sometimes called a “tree”), but there was nothing around his neck. The soldiers suspended him by nailing his hands (or wrists) and his feet to the cross.
- Some ancient cultures “hung” a person by impaling him on a wooden pole in such a way that he was suspended above the ground so that he could not escape. The person would be left there until he died.
- For many references to death by “hanging” in the Bible, the specific means of death is unknown.

Bible References:

- 2 Samuel 17:23
- Acts 10:39
- Galatians 3:13
- Genesis 40:22
- Matthew 27:3-5

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2614, H3363, H8518, G05190

Matthew References:

27:5

hard, harder

Definition:

The term “hard” generally refers to something that is difficult, challenging, or requires great diligence and persistence to be done.

- When used as a modifier, its meaning is similar to “great effort.”

Translation Suggestions

- The term “hard” could also be translated as “difficult” or “persistent” or “diligently” or “challenging,” depending on the context.
- In expressions such as “work hard” or “try hard,” the term “hard” could be translated as “with perseverance” or “diligently.”
- The expression “press hard against” could also be translated as “shove with force” or “push strongly against.”
- To “oppress people with hard labor” could be translated as “force people to work so hard that they suffer” or “cause people to suffer by forcing them to do very difficult work.”
- Depending on context the term “harder” could also be translated as “more difficult” or “more diligently”
- In some contexts “hard” could be translated as “heavy” or “heavily.”
- A different kind of “hard labor” is experienced by a woman who is about to deliver a baby.

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2388, H3515, H6381, H7185, H7186, G03180, G14190, G14220, G14230, G25320, G28730, G44560, G44570, G46410, G46420, G46430, G46450, G49120

Matthew References:

19:8; 19:23; 25:24

harvest, reap

Definition:

The term “harvest” refers to the gather the ripe fruits, vegetables, seeds, or grains from the plants on which they were growing. The term “reap” means to harvest crops.

- The harvest time normally happens at the end of a growing season.
- The Israelites held a “Festival of Harvest” or “Festival of Ingathering” to celebrate the reaping of the food crops. God commanded them to offer the first fruits of these crops as a sacrifice to him.
- In biblical times, reapers usually harvested crops by hand, either pulling up the plants or cutting them with a sharp cutting tool.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate the concept with the word that is commonly used in the language to refer to the harvesting of crops.
- The event of harvesting could be translated as “time of gathering in” or “crop gathering time” or “fruit picking time.”
- The verb to “harvest” could be translated as to “gather in” or to “pick up” or to “collect.”

(See also: firstfruits, festival, good news)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 9:9-11
- 2 Samuel 21:7-9
- Galatians 6:9-10
- Isaiah 17:11
- James 5:7-8
- Leviticus 19:9
- Matthew 9:38
- Ruth 1:22
- Galatians 6:9-10
- Matthew 6:25-26
- Matthew 13:30

- Matthew 13:36-39
- Matthew 25:24

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2758, H4395, H4672 H7105, H7114, H7938, G02700, G23250, G23260, G23270

Matthew References:

6:26; 9:37; 9:38; 13:30; 13:39; 25:24; 25:26

heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly

Definition:

The term that is translated as “heaven” usually refers to where God lives. The same word can also mean “sky,” depending on the context.

- The term “heavens” refers to everything we see above the earth, including the sun, moon, and stars. It also includes the heavenly bodies, such as far-off planets, that we cannot directly see from the earth.
- The term “sky” refers to the blue expanse above the earth that has clouds and the air we breathe. Often the sun and moon are also said to be “up in the sky.”
- In some contexts in the Bible, the word “heaven” could refer to either the sky or the place where God lives.

Translation Suggestions:

- For “kingdom of heaven” in the book of Matthew, it is best to keep the word “heaven” since this is distinctive to Matthew’s gospel.
- The terms “heavens” or “heavenly bodies” could also be translated as “sun, moon, and stars” or “all the stars in the universe.”
- The phrase, “stars of heaven” could be translated as “stars in the sky” or “stars in the galaxy” or “stars in the universe.”

(See also: kingdom of God)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 8:22-24
- 1 Thessalonians 1:8-10
- 1 Thessalonians 4:17
- Deuteronomy 9:1
- Ephesians 6:9
- Genesis 1:1
- Genesis 7:11
- John 3:12
- John 3:27
- Matthew 5:18

- Matthew 5:46-48

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 4:2 They even began building a tall tower to reach heaven.
- 14:11 He (God) gave them bread from heaven, called “manna.”
- 23:7 Suddenly, the skies were filled with angels praising God, saying, “Glory to God in heaven and peace on earth to the people he favors!”
- 29:9 Then Jesus said, “This is what my heavenly Father will do to every one of you if you do not forgive your brother from your heart.”
- 37:9 Then Jesus looked up to heaven and said, “Father, thank you for hearing me.”
- 42:11 Then Jesus went up to heaven, and a cloud hid him from their sight.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1534, H6160, H6183, H7834, H8064, H8065, G09320, G20320, G33210, G37700, G37710, G37720

Matthew References:

front:intro; 3:2; 3:16; 3:17; 4:17; 5:3; 5:10; 5:12; 5:16; 5:18; 5:19; 5:20; 5:34; 5:45; 5:48; 6:1; 6:9; 6:10; 6:14; 6:20; 6:26; 6:32; 7:11; 7:21; 8:11; 8:20; 10:7; 10:32; 10:33; 11:11; 11:12; 11:23; 11:25; 12:50; 13:11; 13:24; 13:31; 13:32; 13:33; 13:44; 13:45; 13:47; 13:52; 14:19; 15:13; 16:1; 16:17; 16:19; 18:1; 18:3; 18:4; 18:10; 18:14; 18:18; 18:19; 18:23; 18:35; 19:12; 19:14; 19:21; 19:23; 20:1; 21:25; 22:2; 22:30; 23:9; 23:13; 23:22; 24:29; 24:30; 24:31; 24:35; 24:36; 25:1; 26:64; 28:2; 28:18

heir

Definition:

An “heir” is a person who legally receives property or money that belonged to a person who has died.

- In Bible times, the main heir was the firstborn son, who received most of the property and money of his father.
- The Bible also uses “heir” in a figurative sense to refer to person who as a Christian receives spiritual benefits from God, his spiritual father.
- As God’s children, Christians are said to be “joint heirs” with Jesus Christ. This could also be translated as “co-heirs” or “fellow heirs” or “heirs together with.”
- The term “heir” could be translated as “person receiving benefits” or whatever expression is used in the language to communicate the meaning of someone who receives property and other things when a parent or other relative dies.

(See also: firstborn, inherit)

Bible References:

- Galatians 4:1-2
- Galatians 4:7
- Genesis 15:1
- Genesis 21:10-11
- Luke 20:14
- Mark 12:7
- Matthew 21:38-39

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1121, H3423, G28160, G28180, G28200, G47890

Matthew References:

21:38

hell, lake of fire

Definition:

Hell is the final place of unending pain and suffering where God will punish everyone who rebels against him and rejects his plan of saving them through Jesus' sacrifice. It is also referred to as the "lake of fire."

- Hell is described as a place of fire and severe suffering.
- Satan and the evil spirits who follow him will be thrown into hell for eternal punishment.
- People who do not believe in Jesus' sacrifice for their sin and do not trust in him to save them, will be punished forever in hell.

Translation Suggestions:

- These terms should probably be translated differently since they occur in different contexts.
- Some languages cannot use "lake" in the phrase "lake of fire" because it refers to water.
- The term "hell" could be translated as "place of suffering" or "final place of darkness and pain."
- The term "lake of fire" could also be translated as "sea of fire" or "huge fire (of suffering)" or "field of fire."

(See also: heaven, death, Hades, abyss)

Bible References:

- James 3:6
- Luke 12:5
- Mark 9:42-44
- Matthew 5:21-22
- Matthew 5:29
- Matthew 10:28-31
- Matthew 23:33
- Matthew 25:41-43
- Revelation 20:15

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 50:14 He (God) will throw them into hell, where they will weep and grind their teeth in anguish forever. A fire that never goes out will continually burn them, and worms will never stop eating them.
- 50:15 He will throw Satan into hell where he will burn forever, along with everyone who chose to follow him rather than to obey God.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H7585, G00860, G04390, G04400, G10670, G30410, G44420, G44430, G44470, G44480, G50200, G53940, G54570

Matthew References:

5:22; 5:29; 5:30; 10:28; 18:9; 23:15; 23:33

Herod, Herod Antipas

Definition:

During most of Jesus' lifetime, Herod Antipas was the ruler of the part of the Roman Empire that included Galilee province.

- Like his father Herod the Great, Antipas was sometimes referred to as "King Herod" even though he was not really a king.
- Herod Antipas ruled about one-fourth of the provinces of Israel, so he was also called "Herod the tetrarch." "Tetrarch" was a title for a person who ruled one-fourth of a country.
- Antipas is the "Herod" who gave the order for John the Baptist to be killed by beheading.
- It was also Herod Antipas who questioned Jesus before his crucifixion.
- The other Herods in the New Testament were Antipas' son (Agrippa) and grandson (Agrippa 2) who ruled during the time of the apostles.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: crucify, Herod the Great, John (the Baptist), king, Rome)

Bible References:

- Luke 3:1-2
- Luke 3:20
- Luke 9:9
- Luke 13:32
- Luke 23:9
- Mark 6:20
- Matthew 14:2

Word Data:

- Strong's: G22640, G22650, G22670

Matthew References:

14:1; 14:3; 14:6

Herod, Herod the Great

Definition:

Herod the Great was ruling over Judea at the time Jesus was born. He was the first of several Edomite rulers named Herod who ruled over parts of the Roman Empire.

- His ancestors converted to Judaism and he was raised as a Jew.
- Caesar Augustus named him "King Herod" even though he was not a true king. He ruled over the Jews in Judea for 33 years.
- Herod the Great was known for the beautiful buildings he ordered to be built and for the rebuilding of the Jewish temple in Jerusalem.
- This Herod was very cruel and had many people killed. When he heard that a "king of the Jews" had been born in Bethlehem, he had all the baby boys in that town killed.
- His sons Herod Antipas and Herod Philip and his grandson Herod Agrippa also became Roman rulers. His great-grandson Herod Agrippa II (called "King Agrippa") ruled over the entire area of Judea.

(See How to Translate Names)

(See also: Herod Antipas, Judea, king, temple)

Bible References:

- Matthew 2:3
- Matthew 2:12
- Matthew 2:16
- Matthew 2:20
- Matthew 2:22

Word Data:

- Strong's: G22640

Matthew References:

2:1; 2:3; 2:7; 2:12; 2:13; 2:15; 2:16; 2:19; 2:22

Herodias

Definition:

Herodias was the wife of Herod Antipas in Judea during the time of John the Baptist.

- Herodias was originally the wife of Herod Antipas's brother Philip, but later she unlawfully married Herod Antipas.
- John the Baptist rebuked Herod and Herodias for their unlawful marriage. Because of this, Herod put John in prison and because of Herodias eventually was beheaded.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Herod Antipas, John (the Baptist))

Bible References:

- Luke 3:19
- Mark 6:17
- Mark 6:22
- Matthew 14:4

Word Data:

- Strong's: G22660

Matthew References:

14:3; 14:6

Hezekiah

Definition:

Hezekiah was the 13th king over the kingdom of Judah. He was a king who trusted and obeyed God.

- Unlike his father Ahaz, who had been an evil king, King Hezekiah was a good king who destroyed all the places of idol worship in Judah.
- One time when Hezekiah became very sick and almost died, he earnestly prayed that God would spare his life. God healed him and allowed him to live 15 more years.
- As a sign to Hezekiah that this would happen, God performed a miracle and caused the sun to move backwards in the sky.
- God also answered Hezekiah's prayer to save his people from King Sennacherib of Assyria, who was attacking them.

(See also: Ahaz, Assyria, false god, Judah, Sennacherib)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 3:13-14
- 2 Kings 16:19-20
- Hosea 1:1
- Matthew 1:9-11
- Proverbs 25:1-3

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2396, H3169, G14780

Matthew References:

1:9; 1:10

high priest, chief priest

Definition:

The term “high priest” refers to a special priest who was appointed to serve for one year as the leader of all of the other Israelite priests. In New Testament times, some other priests were also considered very important Jewish religious leaders, with authority over other priests and the people. These were the chief priests.

- The high priest had special responsibilities. He was the only one who was permitted to go into the most holy part of the tabernacle or the temple to offer a special sacrifice once per year.
- The Israelites had many priests, but only one high priest at a time.
- After high priests retired, they still kept the title, along with some of the responsibilities of the office. For example, Annas was still referred to as high priest during the priesthood of Caiaphas and others.
- The chief priests were responsible for everything needed for the worship services at the temple. They were also in charge of the money that was given to the temple.
- The chief priests were higher in rank and power than the ordinary priests. Only the high priest had more authority.
- The chief priests were some of Jesus’ main enemies and they strongly influenced the Roman leaders to arrest and kill him.

Translation Suggestions:

- “High priest” could be translated as “supreme priest” or “highest ranking priest.”
- The term “chief priests” could be translated as “head priests” or “leading priests” or “ruling priests.”

(See also: Annas, Caiaphas, priest, temple)

Bible References:

- Acts 5:27
- Acts 7:1
- Acts 9:1
- Exodus 30:10
- Hebrews 6:19-20

- Leviticus 16:32
- Luke 3:2
- Mark 2:25-26
- Matthew 26:3-5
- Matthew 26:51-54

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 13:8 No one could enter the room behind the curtain except the high priest, because God lived there.
- 21:7 The Messiah who would come would be the perfect high priest who would offer himself as a perfect sacrifice to God.
- 38:3 The Jewish leaders, led by the high priest, paid Judas thirty silver coins to betray Jesus.
- 39:1 The soldiers led Jesus to the house of the high priest in order for the high priest to question him.
- 39:3 Finally, the high priest looked directly at Jesus and said, “Tell us, are you the Messiah, the Son of the living God?”
- 44:7 The next day, the Jewish leaders brought Peter and John to the high priest and the other religious leaders.
- 45:2 So the religious leaders arrested Stephen and brought him to the high priest and the other leaders of the Jews, where more false witnesses lied about Stephen.
- 46:1 The high priest gave Saul permission to go to the city of Damascus to arrest Christians there and bring them back to Jerusalem.
- 48:6 Jesus is the Great High Priest. Unlike other priests, he offered himself as the only sacrifice that could to take away the sin of all the people in the world. Jesus was the perfect high priest because he took the punishment for every sin that anyone has ever committed.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H7218, H1419, H3548, G07480, G07490

Matthew References:

2:4; 16:21; 20:18; 21:15; 21:23; 21:45; 26:3; 26:14; 26:47; 26:51; 26:57; 26:58; 26:59; 26:62; 26:63; 26:65; 27:1; 27:3; 27:6; 27:12; 27:20; 27:41; 27:62; 28:11

holy city

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “holy city” refers to the city of Jerusalem.

- This term is used to refer to the ancient city of Jerusalem as well as the new, heavenly Jerusalem where God will live and reign among his people.
- This term can be translated by combining the terms for “holy” and “city” that have been used in the rest of the translation.

(See also: heaven, holy, Jerusalem)

Bible References:

- Matthew 4:5-6
- Matthew 27:51-53
- Revelation 21:1-2
- Revelation 21:9-10
- Revelation 22:18-19

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5892, H6944, G00400, G41720

Matthew References:

4:5; 27:53

holy place

Definition:

In the Bible, the terms “the holy place” and “the most holy place” refer to the two parts of the tabernacle or temple building.

- The “holy place” was the first room, and it contained the altar of incense and the table with the special “bread of the presence” on it.
- The “most holy place” was the second, innermost room, and it contained the ark of the covenant.
- A thick, heavy curtain separated the outer room from the inner room.
- The high priest was the only one who was permitted to go into the most holy place.
- Sometimes “holy place” refers to both the building and courtyard areas of either the temple or tabernacle. It could also refer generally to any place that is set apart for God.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “holy place” could also be translated as “room set apart for God” or “special room for meeting God” or “place reserved for God.”
- The term “most holy place” could be translated as “room that is the most set apart for God” or “most special room for meeting God.”
- Depending on the context, ways to translate the general expression “a holy place” could include “a consecrated place” or “a place that God has set apart” or “a place in the temple complex, which is holy” or “a courtyard of God’s holy temple.”

(See also: altar of incense, ark of the covenant, bread, consecrate, courtyard, curtain, holy, set apart, tabernacle, temple)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 6:16-18
- Acts 6:12-15
- Exodus 26:33
- Exodus 31:10-11
- Ezekiel 41:1
- Ezra 9:8-9
- Hebrews 9:1-2

- Leviticus 16:18
- Matthew 24:15-18
- Revelation 15:5

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1964, H4720, H4725, H5116, H6918, H6944, G00400, G00400, G34850, G51170

Matthew References:

24:15

Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord, Spirit

Definition:

These terms all refer to the Holy Spirit, who is God. The one true God exists eternally as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

- The Holy Spirit is also referred to as “the Spirit” and “Spirit of Yahweh” and “Spirit of truth.”
- Because the Holy Spirit is God, he is absolutely holy, infinitely pure, and morally perfect in all his nature and in everything he does.
- Along with the Father and the Son, the Holy Spirit was active in creating the world.
- When God’s Son, Jesus, returned to heaven, God sent the Holy Spirit to his people to lead them, teach them, comfort them, and enable them to do God’s will.
- The Holy Spirit guided Jesus and he guides those who believe in Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could simply be translated with the words used to translate “holy” and “spirit.”
- Ways to translate this term could also include “Pure Spirit” or “Spirit who is Holy” or “God the Spirit.”

(See also: holy, spirit, God, Lord, God the Father, Son of God, gift)

Bible References:

- 1 Samuel 10:10
- 1 Thessalonians 4:7-8
- Acts 8:17
- Galatians 5:25
- Genesis 1:1-2
- Isaiah 63:10
- Job 33:4
- Matthew 12:31
- Matthew 28:18-19
- Psalms 51:10-11

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 1:1 But God's Spirit was there over the water.
- 24:8 When Jesus came up out of the water after being baptized, the Spirit of God appeared in the form of a dove and came down and rested on him.
- 26:1 After overcoming Satan's temptations, Jesus returned in the power of the Holy Spirit to the region of Galilee where he lived.
- 26:3 Jesus read, "God has given me his Spirit so that I can proclaim good news to the poor, freedom to captives, recovery of sight for the blind, and release to the oppressed."
- 42:10 "So go, make disciples of all people groups by baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit and by teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you."
- 43:3 They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and they began to speak in other languages.
- 43:8 "And Jesus has sent the Holy Spirit just as he promised he would do. The Holy Spirit is causing the things that you are are now seeing and hearing."
- 43:11 Peter answered them, "Every one of you should repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ so that God will forgive your sins. Then he will also give you the gift of the Holy Spirit."
- 45:1 He (Stephen) had a good reputation and was full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3068, H6944, H7307, G00400, G41510

Matthew References:

1:18; 1:20; 3:11; 3:16; 4:1; 10:20; 12:intro; 12:18; 12:28; 12:31; 12:32; 22:43; 28:19

holy, holiness, unholy, sacred

Definition:

The terms “holy” and “holiness” refer to the character of God that is totally set apart and separated from everything that is sinful and imperfect.

- Only God is absolutely holy. He makes people and things holy.
- A person who is holy belongs to God and has been set apart for the purpose of serving God and bringing him glory.
- An object that God has declared to be holy is one that he has set apart for his glory and use, such as an altar that is for the purpose of offering sacrifices to him.
- People cannot approach him unless he allows them to, because he is holy and they are merely human beings, sinful and imperfect.
- In the Old Testament, God set apart the priests as holy for special service to him. They had to be ceremonially cleansed from sin in order to approach God.
- God also set apart as holy certain places and things that belonged to him or in which he revealed himself, such as his temple.

Literally, the term “unholy” means “not holy.” It describes someone or something that does not honor God.

- This word is used to describe someone who dishonors God by rebelling against him.
- A thing that is called “unholy” could be described as being common, profane or unclean. It does not belong to God.

The term “sacred” describes something that relates to worshiping God or to the pagan worship of false gods.

- In the Old Testament, the term “sacred” was often said to describe the stone pillars and other objects used in the worship of false gods. This could also be translated as “religious.”
- “Sacred songs” and “sacred music” refer to music that was sung or played for God’s glory. This could be translated as “music for worshiping Yahweh” or “songs that praise God.”
- The phrase “sacred duties” referred to the “religious duties” or “rituals” that a priest performed to lead people in worshiping God. It could also refer to the rituals performed by a pagan priest to worship a false god

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “holy” might include “set apart for God” or “belonging to God” or “completely pure” or “perfectly sinless” or “separated from sin.”
- To “make holy” is often translated as “sanctify” in English. It could also be translated as “set apart (someone) for God’s glory.”
- Ways to translate “unholy” could include “not holy” or “not belonging to God” or “not honoring to God” or “not godly.”
- In some contexts, “unholy” could be translated as “unclean.”

(See also: Holy Spirit, consecrate, sanctify, set apart)

Bible References:

- Genesis 28:22
- 2 Kings 3:2
- Lamentations 4:1
- Ezekiel 20:18-20
- Matthew 7:6
- Mark 8:38
- Acts 7:33
- Acts 11:8
- Romans 1:2
- 2 Corinthians 12:3-5
- Colossians 1:22
- 1 Thessalonians 3:13
- 1 Thessalonians 4:7
- 2 Timothy 3:15

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 1:16 He (God) blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on this day he rested from his work.
- 9:12 “You are standing on holy ground.”

- 13:2 “If you will obey me and keep my covenant, you will be my prized possession, a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation.”
- 13:5 “Always be sure to keep the Sabbath day holy.”
- 22:5 “So the baby will be holy, the Son of God.”
- 50:2 As we wait for Jesus to return, God wants us to live in a way that is holy and that honors him.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0430, H2455, H2623, H4676, H4720, H6918, H6922, H6942, H6944, H6948, G00370, G00380, G00400, G00400, G00410, G00420, G04620, G18590, G21500, G24120, G24130, G28390, G37410, G37420

Matthew References:

4:5; 7:6; 24:15; 27:53

honey, honeycomb

Definition:

“Honey” is the sweet, sticky, edible substance that honeybees make out of flower nectar.

Honeycomb is the waxy frame where the bees store honey.

- Depending on the kind, honey can be yellowish or brownish in color.
- Honey can be found in the wild, such as in the hollow of a tree, or wherever bees make a nest. People also raise bees in hives in order to produce honey to eat or sell, but probably the honey mentioned in the Bible was wild honey.
- Three people that the Bible specifically mentions as eating wild honey were Jonathan, Samson, and John the Baptist.
- This term is often used figuratively to describe something that is sweet or very pleasurable. For example, God’s words and decrees are said to be “sweeter than honey.” (See also: Simile, Metaphor)
- Sometimes a person’s words are described as seeming sweet like honey, but instead result in deceiving and harming others.

(See also: John (the Baptist), Jonathan, Philistines, Samson)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 14:1-3
- Deuteronomy 6:3
- Exodus 13:3-5
- Joshua 5:6
- Proverbs 5:3

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1706, H3293, H3295, H5317, H6688, G31920

Matthew References:

3:4

honor

Definition:

The terms “honor” and “to honor” refer to giving someone respect, esteem, or reverence.

- Honor is usually given to someone who is of higher status and importance, such as a king or God.
- God instructs Christians to honor others.
- Children are instructed to honor their parents in ways that include respecting them and obeying them.
- The terms “honor” and “glory” are often used together, especially when referring to Jesus. These may be two different ways of referring to the same thing.
- Ways of honoring God include thanking and praising him, and showing him respect by obeying him and living in a way that shows how great he is.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “honor” could include “respect” or “esteem” or “high regard.”
- The term to “honor” could be translated as to “show special respect to” or to “cause to be praised” or to “show high regard for” or to “highly value.”

(See also: dishonor, glory, praise)

Bible References:

- 1 Samuel 2:8
- Acts 19:17
- John 4:44
- John 12:26
- Mark 6:4
- Matthew 15:6

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1420, H1921, H1922, H1923, H1926, H1927, H1935, H2082, H2142, H3366, H3367, H3368, H3372, H3373, H3374, H3444, H3513, H3519, H3655, H3678, H5081, H5375, H5457, H6213, H6286, H6437, H6942, H6944, H6965, H7236, H7613, H7812, H8597, H8416, G08200, G13910, G13920, G17840, G21510, G25700, G31700, G44110, G45860, G50910, G50920, G50930, G53990

Matthew References:

15:4; 15:6; 15:8; 19:19

hope, hoped

Definition:

Hope is strongly desiring something to happen. Hope can imply either certainty or uncertainty regarding a future event.

- In the Bible, the term "hope" also has the meaning of "trust," as in "my hope is in the Lord." It refers to a sure expectation of receiving what God has promised his people.
- Sometimes the ULT translates the term in the original language as "confidence." This happens mostly in the New Testament in situations where people who believe in Jesus as their Savior have the assurance (or confidence or hope) of receiving what God has promised.
- To have "no hope" means to have no expectation of something good happening. It means that it is actually very certain that it will not happen.

Translation Suggestions:

- In some contexts, the term to "hope" could also be translated as to "wish" or to "desire" or to "expect."
- The expression "nothing to hope for" could be translated as "nothing to trust in" or "no expectation of anything good"
- To "have no hope" could be translated as "have no expectation of anything good" or "have no security" or "be sure that nothing good will happen."
- The expression "have set your hopes on" could also be translated as "have put your confidence in" or "have been trusting in."
- The phrase "I find hope in your Word" could also be translated as "I am confident that your Word is true" or "Your Word helps me trust in you" or "When I obey your Word, I am certain to be blessed."
- Phrases such as "hope in" God could also be translated a, "trust in God" or "know for sure that God will do what he has promised" or "be certain that God is faithful."

(See also: bless, confidence, good, obey, trust, word of God)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 29:14-15
- 1 Thessalonians 2:19
- Acts 24:14-16
- Acts 26:6

- Acts 27:20
- Colossians 1:5
- Job 11:20

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0982, H0983, H0986, H2620, H2976, H3175, H3176, H3689, H4009, H4268, H4723, H7663, H7664, H8431, H8615, G00910, G05600, G16790, G16800, G20700

Matthew References:

12:21

hour, moment

Definition:

The term “hour” is often used in the Bible to tell what time of day a certain event took place. It is also used figuratively to mean “time” or “moment.”

- The Jews counted daylight hours starting at sunrise (around 6 AM). For example, “the ninth hour” meant “around three in the afternoon.”
- Nighttime hours were counted starting at sunset (around 6 PM). For example, “the third hour of the night” meant “around nine in the evening” in our present-day system.
- Since references to time in the Bible will not correspond exactly to the present-day time system, phrases such as “around nine” or “about six o’clock” could be used.
- Some translations might add phrases like “in the evening” or “in the morning” or “in the afternoon” to make it clear what time of day is being talked about.
- The phrase, “in that hour” could be translated as “at that time” or “in that moment.”
- Referring to Jesus, the expression “his hour had come” could be translated as “the time had come for him to” or “the appointed time for him had come.”

Bible References:

- Acts 2:15
- John 4:51-52
- Luke 23:44
- Matthew 20:3

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H8160, G56100

Matthew References:

8:13; 9:22; 10:19; 14:15; 15:28; 17:18; 18:1; 20:3; 20:5; 20:9; 20:12; 24:36; 24:44; 24:50; 25:13; 26:40; 26:45; 26:55; 27:45; 27:46 house

Definition:

The term “house” refers to a small building, shelter, or tent, usually the place where a family sleeps.

- When referring to a building where people live and sleep the term “house” could be translated as “dwelling place” or “dwelling structure” or with another term that expresses the meaning.

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1004, H1005, H1035, H1397, G36140, G36240

Matthew References:

2:11; 5:15; 7:24; 7:25; 7:26; 7:27; 8:6; 8:14; 9:6; 9:7; 9:10; 9:23; 9:28; 10:6; 10:12; 10:13; 10:14; 11:8; 12:4; 12:25; 12:29; 12:44; 13:1; 13:36; 15:24; 17:25; 19:29; 21:13; 23:38; 24:17; 24:43; 26:6

house of God, your house, his house, Yahweh's house, a house for my name, the house for my name, the house, a house, a house of Yahweh

Short Title: house of God, Yahweh's house, house of Yahweh

Definition:

In the Bible, the phrases "house of God" (God's house) and "house of Yahweh (Yahweh's house)" refer to a place where God is worshiped.

- This term is also used more specifically to refer to the tabernacle or the temple.
- The terms "house of God" and "house of Yahweh" refer to the tabernacle or temple. These expressions can also refer generally to a central place where Yahweh was worshipped.
- The Bible often uses the phrases "your house" and "his house" to refer to the temple of Yahweh.
- The phrases "the house for my name," "a house for my name," and "a house of Yahweh" all refer to the temple of Yahweh.
- In some contexts, such as in 1 Chronicles 17:25 and 29:16, the phrase "a house" refers to the temple of Yahweh.
- In some contexts, such as in 1 Kings 8:44 and 2 Chronicles 6:4, the phrase "the house" refers to the temple of Yahweh.

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to a place of worship, this term could be translated as "a house for worshiping God" or "a place for worshiping God."
- If it is referring to the temple or tabernacle, this could be translated as "the temple (or tabernacle) where God is worshiped" (or "where God is present" or "where God meets with his people").
- The word "house" may be important to use in the translation in order to communicate that God "dwells" there, that is, his spirit is in that place to meet with his people and to be worshiped by them.
- The phrase "house of Yahweh" could be translated as "Yahweh's temple" or "place where Yahweh is worshiped" or "place where Yahweh meets with his people" or "where Yahweh dwells." The phrase "house of God" could be translated in a similar way.

(See also: people of God, tabernacle, temple)

Bible References:

- 1 Timothy 3:14-15
- 2 Chronicles 23:8-9
- Ezra 5:13
- Genesis 28:17
- Judges 18:30-31
- Mark 2:26
- Matthew 12:4

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0426, H0430, H1004, H1005, H3068, G23160, G36240

Matthew References:

12:4

household, house

Definition:

The term “household” refers to all the people who live together in a house, including family members and all their servants.

- Used in this sense, the term “house” means “household” and refers to all the people who live together in one house or in a multi-structure home compound (whether buildings or tents), including family members and all their servants.
- Managing a household would have involved directing the servants and also taking care of the property.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, “house” could be translated as “household” or “family.”
- Depending on the context, the phrase “your household” could be translated as “those who live in your house” or “your family.”

(See also: house dwelling structure, house descendants nation)

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1004, H1397, G36090, G36095, G36140, G36150, G36240

Matthew References:

10:25; 10:36; 13:57; 24:45

humble, humbled, humility

Definition:

The term “humble” describes a person who does not think of himself as better than others. He is not proud or arrogant. Humility is the quality of being humble.

- To be humble before God means to understand one’s weakness and imperfection in comparison with his greatness, wisdom and perfection.
- When a person humbles himself, he puts himself in a position of lower importance.
- Humility is caring about the needs of others more than one’s own needs.
- Humility also means serving with a modest attitude when using one’s gifts and abilities.
- The phrase “be humble” could be translated as “do not be prideful.”
- “Humble yourself before God” could be translated as “Submit your will to God, recognizing his greatness.”

(See also: proud)

Bible References:

- James 1:21
- James 3:13
- James 4:10
- Luke 14:11
- Luke 18:14
- Matthew 18:4
- Matthew 23:12

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 17:2 David was a humble and righteous man who trusted and obeyed God.
- 34:10 “God will humble everyone who is proud, and he will lift up whoever humbles himself.”

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1792, H3665, H6031, H6035, H6038, H6041, H6800, H6819, H7511, H7807, H7812, H8213, H8214, H8215, H8217, H8467, G08580, G42360, G42390, G42400, G50110, G50120, G50130, G53910

Matthew References:

11:29; 18:4; 23:12

hypocrite, hypocrisy

Definition:

The term “hypocrite” refers to a person who does things to appear righteous, but who secretly is acting in evil ways. The term “hypocrisy” refers to the behavior that deceives people into thinking a person is righteous.

- Hypocrites want to be seen doing good things so that people will think that they are good people.
- Often a hypocrite will criticize other people for doing the same sinful things that they themselves do.
- Jesus called the Pharisees hypocrites because although they acted religiously like wearing certain clothes and eating certain foods, they were not kind or fair to people.
- A hypocrite points out faults in other people, but does not admit his own faults.

Translation Suggestions:

- Some languages have an expression like “two-faced” that refers to a hypocrite or a hypocrite’s actions.
- Other ways to translate “hypocrite” could include “fraud” or “pretender” or “arrogant, deceitful person.”
- The term “hypocrisy” could be translated by, “deception” or “fake actions” or “pretending.”

Bible References:

- Galatians 2:13
- Luke 6:41-42
- Luke 12:54-56
- Luke 13:15
- Mark 7:6-7
- Matthew 6:1-2
- Romans 12:9

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0120, H2611, H2612, G05050, G52720, G52730

Matthew References:

6:2; 6:5; 6:16; 7:5; 15:7; 22:18; 23:intro; 23:13; 23:15; 23:23; 23:25; 23:27; 23:28; 23:29; 24:51

image, carved image, cast metal image, figure, carved figure, statue

Definition:

These terms are all used to refer to idols that have been made for worshiping a false god. In the context of worshiping idols, the term “image” is a shortened form of “carved image.”

- A “carved image” or “carved figure” is a wooden object that has been made to look like an animal, person, or thing.
- A “cast metal figure” is an object or statue created by melting metal and pouring it into a mold that is in the shape of an object, animal, or person.
- These wooden and metal objects were used in the worship of false gods.
- The term “image” when referring to an idol could either refer to a wooden or metal idol.

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to an idol, the term “image” could also be translated as “statue” or “engraved idol” or “carved religious object.”
- It may be more clear in some languages to always use a descriptive word with this term, such as “carved image” or “cast metal figure,” even in places where only the term “image” or “figure” is in the original text.
- Make sure it is clear that this term is different than the term used to refer to being in the image of God.

(See also: false god, God, false god, image of God)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 14:9-10
- Acts 7:43
- Isaiah 21:8-9
- Matthew 22:21
- Romans 1:23

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0457, H1544, H2553, H4541, H4676, H4853, H4906, H5257, H5262, H5566, H6091, H6456, H6459, H6754, H6755, H6816, H8403, H8544, H8655, G15040, G51790

Matthew References:

22:20

inherit, inheritance, heir

Definition:

The term “inherit” refers to receiving something valuable from a parent after a parent dies. The term can also refer to receiving something valuable from some other person because of a special relationship with that person. An “inheritance” is the things that are received, and an “heir” is a person who receives an inheritance.

- A physical inheritance that is received may be money, land, or other kinds of property.
- God promised Abraham and his descendants that they would inherit the land of Canaan, that it would belong to them forever.

Translation Suggestions:

- As always, consider first whether there are already terms in the target language for the concept of an heir or an inheritance, and use those terms.
- Depending on the context, other ways that the term “inherit” could be translated might include “receive” or “possess” or “come into possession of.”
- Ways to translate “inheritance” could include “promised gift” or “secure possession.”
- The term “heir” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “privileged child who receives the father’s possessions.”
- The term “heritage” could be translated as “inherited blessings.”

(See also: heir, Canaan, Promised Land, possess)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 6:9
- 1 Peter 1:4
- 2 Samuel 21:3
- Acts 7:4-5
- Deuteronomy 20:16
- Galatians 5:21
- Genesis 15:7
- Hebrews 9:15
- Jeremiah 2:7

- Luke 15:11
- Matthew 19:29
- Psalm 79:1

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 4:6 When Abram arrived in Canaan God said, “Look all around you. I will give to you and your descendants all the land that you can see as an inheritance.”
- 27:1 One day, an expert in the Jewish law came to Jesus to test him, saying, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”
- 35:3 “There was a man who had two sons. The younger son told his father, ‘Father, I want my inheritance now!’ So the father divided his property between the two sons.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2490, H2506, H3423, H3425, H4181, H5157, H5159, G28160, G28170, G28190, G28200

Matthew References:

5:5; 19:29; 21:38; 25:34

innocent

Definition:

The term “innocent” means to not be guilty of a crime or other wrongdoing. It can also refer more generally to people who are not involved in evil things.

- A person accused of doing something wrong is innocent if he has not committed that wrong.
- Sometimes the term “innocent” is used to refer to people who have done nothing wrong to deserve the bad treatment they are receiving, as in an enemy army attacking “innocent people.”
- In the Bible, “blood” can represent “killing,” so “innocent blood” refers to “killing people who did not deserve to die.”

Translation Suggestions:

- In most contexts, the term “innocent” can be translated as “not guilty” or “not responsible” or “not to blame” for something.
- When referring in general to innocent people, this term could be translated as “who have done nothing wrong” or “who are not involved in evil.”
- “To shed innocent blood” can be translated as “to kill people who did not deserve to die.”

(See also: guilt)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 4:4
- 1 Samuel 19:5
- Acts 20:26
- Exodus 23:7
- Jeremiah 22:17
- Job 9:23
- Romans 16:18

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 8:6 After two years, Joseph was still in prison, even though he was innocent.

- 40:4 One of them mocked Jesus, but the other said, “Do you have no fear of God? We are guilty, but this man is innocent.”
- 40:8 When the soldier guarding Jesus saw everything that happened, he said, “Certainly, this man was innocent. He was the Son of God.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2136, H2600, H2643, H5352, H5355, H5356, G01210

Matthew References:

12:5; 12:7; 27:4; 27:24

instruct, instruction, instructor

Definition:

The terms “instruct” and “instruction” refer to giving specific directions about what to do.

- To “give instructions” means to tell someone specifically what he is supposed to do.
- When Jesus gave the disciples the bread and fish to distribute to the people, he gave them specific instructions about how to do it.
- Depending on the context, the term “instruct” could also be translated as “tell” or “direct” or “teach” or “give instructions to.”
- The term “instructions” could be translated as “directions” or “explanations” or “what he has told you to do.”
- When God gives instructions, this term is sometimes translated as “commands” or “orders.”

(See also: command, decree, teach)

Bible References:

- Exodus 14:4
- Genesis 26:5
- Hebrews 11:22
- Matthew 10:5
- Matthew 11:1
- Proverbs 1:30

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0241, H0376, H0559, H0631, H1004, H1696, H1697, H3256, H3289, H3384, H4148, H4156, H4687, H4931, H4941, H6098, H6310, H6490, H6680, H7919, H8451, G12560, G12990, G13190, G13210, G13780, G17810, G17850, G27270, G27530, G35590, G35600, G38110, G38520, G38530, G42640, G43670, G48220

Matthew References:

10:5; 28:15

interpret, interpretation, interpreter

Definition:

The terms “interpret” and “interpretation” refer to understanding and explaining the meaning of something that is not clear.

- Often in the Bible these terms are used in connection with explaining the meaning of dreams or visions.
- When the king of Babylon had some confusing dreams, God helped Daniel to interpret them and to explain their meanings.
- The “interpretation” of the dream is the “explanation” of the meaning of the dream.
- In the Old Testament, God sometimes used dreams to reveal to people what would happen in the future. So the interpretations of those dreams were prophecies.
- The term “interpret” can also refer to figuring out the meaning of other things, such as figuring out what the weather will be like based on how cold or hot it is, how windy it is, and what the sky looks like.
- Ways to translate the term “interpret” could include, “figure out the meaning of” or “explain” or “give the meaning of.”
- The term “interpretation” could also be translated as “explanation” or “meaning.”

(See also: Babylon, Daniel, dream, prophet, vision)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 12:10
- Daniel 4:4-6
- Genesis 40:4-5
- Judges 7:15-16
- Luke 12:56

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0995, H3887, H6591, H6622, H6623, H7667, H7760, H7922, G12520, G13280, G13290, G13810, G19550, G20580, G31770, G47930

Matthew References:

1:23

Isaac

Definition:

Isaac was the only son of Abraham and Sarah. God had promised to give them a son even though they were very old.

- The name "Isaac" means "he laughs." When God told Abraham that Sarah would give birth to a son, Abraham laughed because they were both very old. Some time later, Sarah also laughed when she heard this news.
- But God fulfilled his promise and Isaac was born to Abraham and Sarah in their old age.
- God told Abraham that the covenant he had made with Abraham would also be for Isaac and his descendants forever.
- When Isaac was a youth, God tested Abraham's faith by commanding him to sacrifice Isaac.
- Isaac's son Jacob had twelve sons whose descendants later became the twelve tribes of the nation of Israel.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Abraham, descendant, eternity, fulfill, Jacob, Sarah, twelve tribes of Israel)

Bible References:

- Galatians 4:28-29
- Genesis 25:9-11
- Genesis 25:19
- Genesis 26:1
- Genesis 26:8
- Genesis 28:1-2
- Genesis 31:18
- Matthew 8:11-13
- Matthew 22:32

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 5:4 "Your wife, Sarai, will have a son—he will be the son of promise. Name him Isaac."

- 5:6 When Isaac was a young man, God tested Abraham's faith by saying, "Take Isaac, your only son, and kill him as a sacrifice to me."
- 5:9 God had provided the ram to be the sacrifice instead of Isaac.
- 6:1 When Abraham was very old and his son, Isaac, had grown to be a man, Abraham sent one of his servants back to the land where his relatives lived to find a wife for his son, Isaac.
- 6:5 Isaac prayed for Rebekah, and God allowed her to get pregnant with twins.
- 7:10 Then Isaac died, and Jacob and Esau buried him. The covenant promises God had promised to Abraham and then to Isaac now passed on to Jacob.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3327, H3446, G24640

Matthew References:

1:2; 8:11; 22:32

Isaiah

Definition:

Isaiah was a prophet of God who prophesied during the reigns of four kings of Judah: Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah.

- He lived in Jerusalem during the time when the Assyrians were attacking the city, during the reign of Hezekiah.
- The Old Testament book of Isaiah is one of the major books of the Bible.
- Isaiah wrote many prophecies that came true while he was still living.
- Isaiah is especially known for the prophecies he wrote about the Messiah that came true 700 years later when Jesus was living on earth.
- Jesus and his disciples quoted Isaiah's prophecies to teach people about the Messiah.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Ahaz, Assyria, Christ, Hezekiah, Jotham, Judah, prophet, Uzziah)

Bible References:

- 2 Kings 20:1-3
- Acts 28:26
- Isaiah 1:1
- Luke 3:4
- Mark 1:1
- Mark 7:6
- Matthew 3:3
- Matthew 4:14

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 21:9 The prophet Isaiah prophesied that the Messiah would be born from a virgin.
- 21:10 The prophet Isaiah said the Messiah would live in Galilee, comfort broken-hearted people, and proclaim freedom to captives and release to prisoners.
- 21:11 The prophet Isaiah also prophesied that the Messiah would be hated without reason and rejected.

- 21:12 Isaiah prophesied that people would spit on, mock, and beat the Messiah.
- 26:2 They handed him (Jesus) the scroll of the prophet Isaiah so that he would read from it. Jesus opened up the scroll and read part of it to the people.
- 45:8 When Philip approached the chariot, he heard the Ethiopian reading from what the prophet Isaiah wrote.
- 45:10 Philip explained to the Ethiopian that Isaiah was writing about Jesus.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3470, G22680

Matthew References:

3:3; 4:14; 8:17; 12:17; 13:14; 15:7

Israel, Israelites

Definition:

The term “Israel” is the name that God gave to Jacob. Often it refers to the nation that is descended from him.

- The name Israel probably means “He struggles with God.”
- The descendants of Jacob became known as the “sons of Israel” or the “people of Israel” or the “nation of Israel” or the “Israelites.”
- God formed his covenant with the people of Israel. They were his chosen people.
- The nation of Israel consisted of twelve tribes.
- Soon after King Solomon died, Israel was divided into two kingdoms: the southern kingdom, called “Judah,” and the northern kingdom, called “Israel.”
- Often the term “Israel” can be translated as “the people of Israel” or “the nation of Israel,” depending on the context.

(See also: Jacob, kingdom of Israel, Judah, nation, twelve tribes of Israel)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 10:1
- 1 Kings 8:2
- Acts 2:36
- Acts 7:24
- Acts 13:23
- John 1:49-51
- Luke 24:21
- Mark 12:29
- Matthew 2:6
- Matthew 27:9
- Philippians 3:4-5

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 8:15 The descendants of the twelve sons became the twelve tribes of Israel.

- 9:3 The Egyptians forced the Israelites to build many buildings and even whole cities.
- 9:5 A certain Israelite woman gave birth to a baby boy.
- 10:1 They said, “This is what the God of Israel says, ‘Let my people go!’”
- 14:12 But despite all this, the people of __Israel __ complained and grumbled against God and against Moses.
- 15:9 God fought for Israel that day. He caused the Amorites to be confused and he sent large hailstones that killed many of the Amorites.
- 15:12 After this battle, God gave each tribe of __Israel __ its own section of the Promised Land. Then God gave Israel peace along all its borders.
- 16:16 So God punished __Israel __ again for worshiping idols.
- 43:6 “Men of Israel, Jesus was a man who did many mighty signs and wonders by the power of God, as you have seen and already know.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3478, H3479, H3481, H3482, G09350, G24740, G24750

Matthew References:

2:6; 2:20; 2:21; 8:10; 9:33; 10:6; 10:23; 15:24; 15:31; 19:28; 27:9; 27:42

Jacob, Israel

Definition:

Jacob was the younger twin son of Isaac by Rebekah. God changed his name to "Israel." His descendants became the nation of Israel.

- Jacob is the last of the three patriarchs of the Israelite nation: Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The descendants of Jacob's twelve sons became the twelve tribes of Israel.
- The name Jacob is similar to the Hebrew word meaning "heel." As Jacob was being born, he was holding onto the heel of his twin brother Esau. In the Old Testament times, the heel was a body part associated both with attack and with the rear part of a person's body. The Hebrew name Jacob was probably associated with the idea of attacking someone from behind.
- Many years later, God changed Jacob's name to "Israel," which probably means "He struggles with God."
- The name Jacob is often used to represent the nation of Israel.
- Jacob married Laban's two daughters, Leah and Rachel, as well as each of their servants, Zilpah and Bilhah. These four women mothered the twelve sons who became the ancestral fathers of the twelve tribes of Israel.
- In the New Testament, a different man named Jacob is listed as being Joseph's father in Matthew's genealogy.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Israel, twelve tribes of Israel, Leah, Rachel, Zilpah, Bilhah, deceive, Esau, Isaac, Rebekah, Laban)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:11
- Acts 7:46
- Genesis 25:26
- Genesis 29:1-3
- Genesis 32:1-2
- John 4:4-5
- Matthew 8:11-13
- Matthew 22:32

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 7:1 As the boys grew up, Rebekah loved Jacob, but Isaac loved Esau. Jacob loved to stay at home, but Esau loved to hunt.
- 7:7 Jacob lived there for many years, and during that time he married and had twelve sons and a daughter. God made him very wealthy.
- 7:8 After twenty years away from his home in Canaan, Jacob returned there with his family, his servants, and all his herds of animals.
- 7:10 The covenant promises God had promised to Abraham and then to Isaac now passed on to Jacob.
- 8:1 Many years later, when Jacob was an old man, he sent his favorite son, Joseph, to check on his brothers who were taking care of the herds.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3290, G23840

Matthew References:

1:2; 1:15; 1:16; 8:11; 22:32

James (brother of Jesus)

Definition:

James was a son of Mary and Joseph. He was one of Jesus' younger half-brothers.

- Jesus' other half-brothers were named Joseph, Judas, and Simon.
- During Jesus' lifetime, James and his brothers did not believe that Jesus was the Messiah.
- Later, after Jesus was raised from the dead, James believed in him and became a leader of the church in Jerusalem.
- The New Testament book of James is a letter that James wrote to Christians who had fled to other countries to escape persecution.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: apostle, Christ, church, Judas the son of James, persecute)

Bible References:

- Galatians 1:18-20
- Galatians 2:9-10
- James 1:1-3
- Jude 1:1-2
- Mark 9:1-3
- Matthew 13:54-56

Word Data:

- Strong's: G23850

Matthew References:

13:55

James (son of Alphaeus)

Definition:

James, the son of Alphaeus, was one of Jesus' twelve apostles.

- His name is given in the lists of Jesus' disciples in the gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke.
- He is also mentioned in the book of Acts as one of the eleven disciples who were together praying in Jerusalem after Jesus went back up to heaven.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: apostle, disciple, James (brother of Jesus), James (son of Zebedee), the twelve)

Bible References:

- Acts 1:12-14
- Luke 6:14-16
- Mark 3:17-19
- Mark 14:32-34
- Matthew 10:2-4

Word Data:

- Strong's: G23850

Matthew References:

10:3

James (son of Zebedee)

Definition:

James, a son of Zebedee, was one of Jesus' twelve apostles. He had a younger brother named John who was also one of Jesus' apostles.

- James and his brother John worked by fishing with their father Zebedee.
- James and John were nicknamed the "Sons of Thunder," perhaps because they got angry quickly.
- Peter, James, and John were Jesus' closest disciples and were with him for amazing events such as when Jesus was on a mountaintop with Elijah and Moses and when Jesus caused a dead little girl to come back to life.
- This is a different James than the one who wrote a book in the Bible. Some languages may have to write their names differently to make it clear that they were two different men.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: apostle, Elijah, James (brother of Jesus), James (son of Alphaeus), Moses)

Bible References:

- Luke 9:28-29
- Mark 1:19-20
- Mark 1:29-31
- Mark 3:17
- Matthew 4:21-22
- Matthew 17:1-2

Word Data:

- Strong's: G23850

Matthew References:

4:21; 10:2; 17:1

Jehoram, Joram

Definition:

"Jehoram" was the name of two kings in the Old Testament. Both kings were also known as "Joram."

- One King Jehoram ruled over the kingdom of Judah for eight years. He was the son of King Jehoshaphat. This is the king that is most commonly known as Jehoram.
- The other King Jehoram ruled over the kingdom of Israel for twelve years. He was the son of King Ahab.
- King Jehoram of Judah reigned during the time that the prophets Jeremiah, Daniel, Obadiah, and Ezekiel were prophesying in the kingdom of Judah.
- The King Jehoram also reigned during some of the time that his father King Jehoshaphat was reigning over Judah.
- Some translations may choose to consistently use the name "Jehoram" when this king of Israel is mentioned and the name "Joram" for the king of Judah.
- Another way to clearly identify each one would be to include the name of his father.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Ahab, Jehoshaphat, Joram, Judah, kingdom of Israel, Obadiah)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 22:48-50
- 2 Chronicles 21:3
- 2 Kings 11:1-3
- 2 Kings 12:18

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3088, H3141, G24960

Matthew References:

1:8

Jehoshaphat

Definition:

Jehoshaphat was the name of at least two men in the Old Testament.

- The best known man by this name was King Jehoshaphat who was the fourth king to rule over the kingdom of Judah.
- He restored peace between Judah and Israel and destroyed the altars of false gods.
- Another Jehoshaphat was a “recorder” for David and Solomon. His job included writing documents for the king to sign and recording the history of the important events that happened in the kingdom.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: altar, David, false god, Israel, Judah, priest, Solomon)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 3:10-12
- 1 Kings 4:17
- 2 Chronicles 17:1
- 2 Kings 1:17
- 2 Samuel 8:15-18
- Matthew 1:7-8

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3092, G24980

Matthew References:

1:8

Jeremiah

Definition:

Jeremiah was a prophet of God in the kingdom of Judah. The Old Testament book of Jeremiah contains his prophecies.

- Like most of the prophets, Jeremiah often had to warn the people of Israel that God was going to punish them for their sins.
- Jeremiah prophesied that the Babylonians would capture Jerusalem, making some of the people of Judah angry. So they put him in a deep, dry well and left him there to die. But the king of Judah ordered his servants to rescue Jeremiah from the well.
- Jeremiah wrote that he wished his eyes could be a "fountain of tears," to express his deep sadness over the rebellion and sufferings of his people.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Babylon, Judah, prophet, rebel, suffer, well)

Bible References:

- 2 Chronicles 35:25
- Jeremiah 1:2
- Jeremiah 11:1
- Matthew 2:18
- Matthew 16:13-16
- Matthew 27:10

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 19:17 Once, the prophet Jeremiah was put into a dry well and left there to die. He sank down into the mud that was in the bottom of the well, but then the king had mercy on him and ordered his servants to pull Jeremiah out of the well before he died.
- 21:5 Through the prophet Jeremiah, God promised that he would make a New Covenant, but not like the covenant God made with Israel at Sinai.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3414, G24080

Matthew References:

2:17; 16:14; 27:9

Jericho

Definition:

Jericho was a powerful city in the land of Canaan. It was located just west of the Jordan River and just north of the Salt Sea.

- As all Canaanites did, the people of Jericho worshiped false gods.
- Jericho was the first city in the land of Canaan that God told the Israelites to conquer.
- When Joshua led the Israelites against Jericho, God did a great miracle to help them defeat the city.

(See also: Canaan, Jordan River, Joshua, miracle, Salt Sea)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 6:78
- Joshua 2:1-3
- Joshua 7:2-3
- Luke 18:35
- Mark 10:46-48
- Matthew 20:29-31
- Numbers 22:1

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 15:1 Joshua sent two spies to the Canaanite city of Jericho.
- 15:3 After the people crossed the Jordan River, God told Joshua how to attack the powerful city of Jericho.
- 15:5 Then the walls around Jericho fell down! The Israelites destroyed everything in the city as God had commanded.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3405, G24100

Matthew References:

20:29

Jerusalem

Definition:

Jerusalem was originally an ancient Canaanite city that later became the most important city in Israel. It is located about 34 kilometers west of the Salt Sea and just north of Bethlehem. It is still the capital city of Israel today.

- The name "Jerusalem" is first mentioned in the book of Joshua. Other Old Testament names for this city include "Salem" "city of Jebus," and "Zion." Both "Jerusalem" and "Salem," have the root meaning of "peace."
- Jerusalem was originally a Jebusite fortress called "Zion" which King David captured and made into his capital city.
- It was in Jerusalem that David's son Solomon built the first temple in Jerusalem, on Mount Moriah, which was the mountain where Abraham had offered his son Isaac to God. The temple was rebuilt there after it was destroyed by the Babylonians.
- Because the temple was in Jerusalem, the major Jewish festivals were celebrated there.
- People normally referred to going "up" to Jerusalem since it is located in the mountains.

(See also: Babylon, Christ, David, Jebusites, Jesus, Solomon, temple, Zion)

Bible References:

- Galatians 4:26-27
- John 2:13
- Luke 4:9-11
- Luke 13:5
- Mark 3:7-8
- Mark 3:20-22
- Matthew 3:6
- Matthew 4:23-25
- Matthew 20:17

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 17:5 David conquered Jerusalem and made it his capital city.
- 18:2 In Jerusalem, Solomon built the Temple for which his father David had planned and gathered materials.

- 20:7 They (Babylonians) captured the city of Jerusalem, destroyed the Temple, and took away all the treasures of the city and the Temple.
- 20:12 So, after seventy years in exile, a small group of Jews returned to the city of Jerusalem in Judah.
- 38:1 About three years after Jesus first began preaching and teaching publicly, Jesus told his disciples that he wanted to celebrate this Passover with them in Jerusalem, and that he would be killed there.
- 38:2 After Jesus and the disciples arrived in Jerusalem, Judas went to the Jewish leaders and offered to betray Jesus to them in exchange for money.
- 42:8 "It was also written in the scriptures that my disciples will proclaim that everyone should repent in order to receive forgiveness for their sins. They will do this starting in Jerusalem, and then go to all people groups everywhere."
- 42:11 Forty days after Jesus rose from the dead, he told his disciples, "Stay in Jerusalem until you receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you."

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3389, H3390, G24140, G24150, G24190

Matthew References:

2:1; 2:3; 3:5; 4:25; 5:35; 15:1; 16:21; 20:17; 20:18; 21:1; 21:10; 23:37

Jesse

Definition:

Jesse was the father of King David and the grandson of Ruth and Boaz.

- Jesse was from the tribe of Judah.
- He was an “Ephrathite,” which means he was from the region of Ephrathah. The town of Bethlehem was located in the region of Ephrathah.
- The prophet Isaiah prophesied about a “shoot” or “branch” that would come from the “root of Jesse” and bear fruit. This refers to Jesus, who was a descendant of Jesse.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Bethlehem, Boaz, descendant, Jesus, king, prophet, Ruth, twelve tribes of Israel)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 2:12
- 1 Kings 12:16
- 1 Samuel 16:1
- Luke 3:32
- Matthew 1:4-6

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3448, G24210

Matthew References:

1:5; 1:6

Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus

Definition:

Jesus is God's Son. The name "Jesus" means "Yahweh saves." The term "Christ" is a title that means "anointed one" and is another word for Messiah.

- The two names are often combined as "Jesus Christ" or "Christ Jesus." These names emphasize that God's Son is the Messiah, who came to save people from being punished eternally for their sins.
- In a miraculous way, the Holy Spirit caused the eternal Son of God to be born as a human being. His mother was told by an angel to call him "Jesus" because he was destined to save people from their sins.
- Jesus did many miracles that revealed that he is God and that he is the Christ, or the Messiah.

Translation Suggestions:

- In many languages "Jesus" and "Christ" are spelled in a way that keeps the sounds or spelling as close to the original as possible. For example, "Jesucristo," "Jezus Christus," "Yesus Kristus", and "Hesukristo" are some of the ways that these names are translated into different languages.
- For the term "Christ," some translators may prefer to use only some form of the term "Messiah" throughout.
- Also consider how these names are spelled in a nearby local or national language.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Christ, God, God the Father, high priest, kingdom of God, Mary, Savior, Son of God)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 6:11
- 1 John 2:2
- 1 John 4:15
- 1 Timothy 1:2
- 2 Peter 1:2
- 2 Thessalonians 2:15

- 2 Timothy 1:10
- Acts 2:23
- Acts 5:30
- Acts 10:36
- Hebrews 9:14
- Hebrews 10:22
- Luke 24:20
- Matthew 1:21
- Matthew 4:3
- Philippians 2:5
- Philippians 2:10
- Philippians 4:21-23
- Revelation 1:6

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 22:4 The angel said, “You will become pregnant and give birth to a son. You are to name him Jesus and he will be the Messiah.”
- 23:2 “Name him Jesus (which means, ‘Yahweh saves’), because he will save the people from their sins.”
- 24:7 So John baptized him (Jesus), even though Jesus had never sinned.
- 24:9 There is only one God. But John heard God the Father speak, and saw Jesus the Son and the Holy Spirit when he baptized Jesus.
- 25:8 Jesus did not give in to Satan’s temptations, so Satan left him.
- 26:8 Then Jesus went throughout the region of Galilee, and large crowds came to him. They brought many people who were sick or handicapped, including those who could not see, walk, hear, or speak, and Jesus healed them.
- 31:3 Then Jesus finished praying and went to the disciples. He walked on top of the water across the lake toward their boat!
- 38:2 He (Judas) knew that the Jewish leaders denied that Jesus was the Messiah and that they were plotting to kill him.
- 40:8 Through his death, Jesus opened a way for people to come to God.
- 42:11 Then Jesus was taken up to heaven, and a cloud hid him from their sight. Jesus sat down at the right hand of God to rule over all things.
- 50:17 Jesus and his people will live on the new earth, and he will reign forever over everything that exists. He will wipe away every tear and there will be no more suffering, sadness, crying, evil, pain, or death. Jesus will rule his kingdom with peace and justice, and he will be with his people forever.

Word Data:

- Strong's: G24240, G55470

Matthew References:

1:1; 1:16; 1:18; 1:21; 1:25; 2:1; 3:13; 3:15; 3:16; 4:1; 4:7; 4:10; 4:17; 7:28; 8:4; 8:10; 8:13; 8:14; 8:18; 8:20; 8:22; 8:34; 9:2; 9:4; 9:9; 9:10; 9:15; 9:19; 9:22; 9:23; 9:27; 9:28; 9:30; 9:35; 10:5; 11:1; 11:4; 11:7; 11:25; 12:1; 12:15; 13:1; 13:34; 13:53; 13:57; 14:1; 14:12; 14:13; 14:16; 14:27; 14:29; 14:31; 15:1; 15:21; 15:28; 15:29; 15:32; 15:34; 16:6; 16:8; 16:13; 16:17; 16:21; 16:24; 17:1; 17:4; 17:7; 17:8; 17:9; 17:17; 17:18; 17:19; 17:22; 17:25; 17:26; 18:1; 18:22; 19:1; 19:14; 19:18; 19:21; 19:23; 19:26; 19:28; 20:17; 20:22; 20:25; 20:30; 20:32; 20:34; 21:1; 21:6; 21:11; 21:12; 21:16; 21:21; 21:24; 21:27; 21:31; 21:42; 22:1; 22:18; 22:29; 22:41; 23:1; 24:1; 24:4; 26:1; 26:4; 26:6; 26:10; 26:17; 26:19; 26:26; 26:31; 26:34; 26:36; 26:49; 26:50; 26:51; 26:52; 26:55; 26:57; 26:59; 26:63; 26:64; 26:69; 26:71; 26:75; 27:1; 27:11; 27:17; 27:20; 27:22; 27:26; 27:27; 27:37; 27:46; 27:50; 27:54; 27:55; 27:57; 27:58; 28:5; 28:9; 28:10; 28:16; 28:18

Jew, Jewish

Definition:

Jews are people who are descendants of Abraham's grandson Jacob. The word "Jew" comes from the word "Judah."

- People began to call the Israelites "Jews" after they returned to Judah from their exile in Babylon.
- Jesus the Messiah was Jewish. However, the Jewish religious leaders rejected Jesus and demanded that he be killed.

(See also: Abraham, Jacob, Israel, Babylon, Jewish leaders)

Bible References:

- Acts 2:5
- Acts 10:28
- Acts 14:5-7
- Colossians 3:11
- John 2:14
- Matthew 28:15

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 20:11 The Israelites were now called Jews and most of them had lived their whole lives in Babylon.
- 20:12 So, after seventy years in exile, a small group of Jews returned to the city of Jerusalem in Judah.
- 37:10 Many of the Jews believed in Jesus because of this miracle.
- 37:11 But the religious leaders of the Jews were jealous, so they gathered together to plan how they could kill Jesus and Lazarus.
- 40:2 Pilate commanded that they write, "King of the Jews" on a sign and put it on the cross above Jesus' head.
- 46:6 Right away, Saul began preaching to the Jews in Damascus, saying, "Jesus is the Son of God!"

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3054, H3061, H3062, H3064, H3066, G24500, G24510, G24520, G24530, G24540

Matthew References:

2:2; 27:11; 27:29; 27:37; 28:15

John (the apostle)

Definition:

John was one of Jesus' twelve apostles and one of Jesus' closest friends.

- John and his brother James were sons of a fisherman named Zebedee.
- In the gospel that he wrote about Jesus' life, John referred to himself as "the disciple whom Jesus loved." This seems to indicate that John was an especially close friend of Jesus.
- The Apostle John wrote five New Testament books: the gospel of John, the Revelation of Jesus Christ, and three letters written to other believers.
- Note that the Apostle John was a different person than John the Baptist.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: apostle, reveal, James (son of Zebedee), John (the Baptist), Zebedee)

Bible References:

- Galatians 2:9-10
- John 1:19-21
- Mark 3:17-19
- Matthew 4:21-22
- Revelation 1:1-3

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 36:1 One day, Jesus took three of his disciples, Peter, James, and John with him. (The disciple named John was not the same person who baptized Jesus.) They went up on a high mountain by themselves.
- 44:1 One day, Peter and John were going to the Temple. As they approached the Temple gate, they saw a crippled man who was begging for money.
- 44:6 The leaders of the Temple were very upset by what Peter and John were saying. So they arrested them and put them into prison.
- 44:7 The next day, the Jewish leaders brought Peter and John to the high priest and the other religious leaders. They asked Peter and John, "By what power did you heal this crippled man?"

- 44:9 The leaders were shocked that Peter and John spoke so boldly because they could see that these men were ordinary men who were uneducated. But then they remembered that these men had been with Jesus. After they threatened Peter and John, they let them go.

Word Data:

- Strong's: G24910

Matthew References:

4:21; 10:2; 17:1

John (the Baptist)

Definition:

John was the son of Zechariah and Elizabeth. Since "John" was a common name, he is often called "John the Baptist" to distinguish him from the other people named John, such as the Apostle John.

- John was the prophet whom God sent to prepare people to believe in and follow the Messiah.
- John told people to confess their sins, turn to God, and stop sinning, so that they would be ready to receive the Messiah.
- John baptized many people in water as a sign that they were sorry for their sins and were turning away from them.
- John was called "John the Baptist" because he baptized many people.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: baptize, Zechariah (NT))

Bible References:

- John 3:22-24
- Luke 1:11-13
- Luke 1:62-63
- Luke 3:7
- Luke 3:15-16
- Luke 7:27-28
- Matthew 3:13
- Matthew 11:14

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 22:2 The angel said to Zechariah, "Your wife will have a son. You will name him John. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, and will prepare the people for Messiah!"
- 22:7 After Elizabeth gave birth to her baby boy, Zechariah and Elizabeth named the baby John, as the angel had commanded.

- 24:1 John, the son of Zechariah and Elizabeth, grew up and became a prophet. He lived in the wilderness, ate wild honey and locusts, and wore clothes made from camel hair.
- 24:2 Many people came out to the wilderness to listen to John. He preached to them, saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of God is near!”
- 24:6 The next day, Jesus came to be baptized by John. When John saw him, he said, “Look! There is the Lamb of God who will take away the sin of the world.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G09100 G24910

Matthew References:

3:1; 3:4; 3:13; 3:14; 4:12; 9:14; 11:2; 11:4; 11:7; 11:11; 11:12; 11:13; 11:18; 14:2; 14:3; 14:4; 14:8; 14:10; 16:14; 17:13; 21:25; 21:26; 21:32

Jonah

Definition:

Jonah was a Hebrew prophet in the Old Testament.

- The book of Jonah tells the story of what happened when God sent Jonah to preach to the people of Nineveh.
- Jonah refused to go to Nineveh and instead got on a ship headed for a Tarshish.
- God caused a huge storm to overwhelm that ship.
- Jonah told the men sailing the ship that he was running away from God, and he suggested that they throw him into the sea. When they did that, the storm stopped and the sailors offered a sacrifice to Yahweh.
- Jonah was swallowed by a huge fish, and he was inside the belly of that fish for three days and nights.
- After that, Jonah went to Nineveh and preached to the people there, and the people stopped acting so violently toward others.
- Jonah became angry at God for not destroying Nineveh, and God used a plant and a worm to teach Jonah a lesson about compassion.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: disobey, Nineveh, turn)

Bible References:

- Jonah 1:3
- Luke 11:30
- Matthew 12:39
- Matthew 16:4

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3124, G24950

Matthew References:

12:39; 12:40; 12:41; 16:intro; 16:4

Jordan River, Jordan

Definition:

The Jordan River is a river that flows from north to south, and forms the eastern boundary of the land that was called Canaan.

- Today, the Jordan River separates Israel on its west from Jordan on its east.
- The Jordan River flows through the Sea of Galilee and then empties into the Dead Sea.
- When Joshua led the Israelites into Canaan, they had to cross the Jordan River. It was too deep to cross normally, but God miraculously stopped the river from flowing so they could walk across the river bed.
- Often in the Bible the Jordan River is referred to as “the Jordan.”

(See also: Canaan, Salt Sea, Sea of Galilee)

Bible References:

- Genesis 32:9-10
- John 1:26-28
- John 3:25-26
- Luke 3:3
- Matthew 3:6
- Matthew 3:13-15
- Matthew 4:14-16
- Matthew 19:1-2

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 15:2 The Israelites had to cross the Jordan River to enter into the Promised Land.
- 15:3 After the people crossed the Jordan River, God told Joshua how to attack the powerful city of Jericho.
- 19:14 Elisha told him (Naaman) to dip himself seven times in the Jordan River.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3383, G24460

Matthew References:

3:5; 3:6; 3:13; 4:15; 4:25; 19:1

Joseph (NT)

Definition:

Joseph was Jesus' earthly father and raised him as his son. He was a righteous man who worked as a carpenter.

- Joseph became engaged to a Jewish girl named Mary, while they were engaged God chose her to become the mother of Jesus the Messiah.
- An angel told Joseph that the Holy Spirit had miraculously caused Mary to be pregnant, and that Mary's baby was the Son of God.
- After Jesus was born, an angel warned Joseph to take the baby and Mary to Egypt in order to escape from Herod.
- Joseph and his family later lived in the city of Nazareth of Galilee, where he earned a living doing carpentry work.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Christ, Galilee, Jesus, Nazareth, Son of God, virgin)

Bible References:

- John 1:43-45
- Luke 1:26-29
- Luke 2:4-5
- Luke 2:15-16
- Matthew 1:18-19
- Matthew 1:24-25
- Matthew 2:19-21
- Matthew 13:54-56

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 22:4 She (Mary) was a virgin and was engaged to be married to a man named Joseph.
- 23:1 Joseph, the man Mary was engaged to, was a righteous man. When he heard that Mary was pregnant, he knew it was not his baby. He did not want to shame her, so he planned to quietly divorce her.

- 23:2 The angel said, "Joseph, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife. The baby in her body is from the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son. Name him Jesus (which means, 'Yahweh saves'), because he will save the people from their sins."
- 23:3 So Joseph married Mary and took her home as his wife, but he did not sleep with her until she had given birth.
- 23:4 Joseph and Mary had to make a long journey from where they lived in Nazareth to Bethlehem because their ancestor was David whose hometown was Bethlehem.
- 26:4 Jesus said, "The words I just read to you are happening right now." All the people were amazed. "Is not this the son of Joseph?" they said.

Word Data:

- Strong's: G25010

Matthew References:

1:16; 1:18; 1:19; 1:20; 1:24; 2:13; 2:19

Josiah

Definition:

Josiah was a godly king who reigned over the kingdom of Judah for thirty-one years. He led the people of Judah to repent and worship Yahweh.

- After his father King Amon was killed, Josiah became king over Judah at eight years of age.
- In the eighteenth year of his reign, King Josiah ordered Hilkiah the high priest to rebuild the temple of the Lord. While this was being done, the books of the Law were found.
- When the books of the Law were read to Josiah, he was grieved at how his people were disobeying God. He ordered that all the places of idol worship be destroyed and that the priests of the false gods be killed.
- He also ordered the people to start celebrating the Passover feast again.

(Translation suggestions: Translate Names)

(See also: false god, Judah, law, Passover, temple)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 3:13-14
- 2 Chronicles 33:24-25
- 2 Chronicles 34:3
- Jeremiah 1:3
- Matthew 1:11

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2977, G25020

Matthew References:

1:10; 1:11

Jotham

Definition:

In the Old Testament, there were three men with the name Jotham.

- One man named Jotham was the youngest son of Gideon. Jotham helped defeat his older brother Abimelech, who had killed all the rest of their brothers.
- Another man named Jotham was a king over Judah for sixteen years following the death of his father Uzziah (Azariah).
- Like his father, King Jotham obeyed God and was a good king.
- However, by not removing the places of idol worship he caused the people of Judah to later turn away from God again.
- Jotham is also one of the ancestors listed in the genealogy of Jesus Christ in the book of Matthew.

(See also: Abimelech, Ahaz, Gideon, Uzziah)

Bible References:

- 2 Chronicles 26:21
- 2 Kings 15:5
- Isaiah 1:1
- Judges 9:5-6

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3147

Matthew References:

1:9

joy, joyful, rejoice, glad

Definition:

joy

The term “joy” refers to a feeling of delight or deep satisfaction. The related term “joyful” describes a person who feels very glad and is full of deep happiness.

- A person feels joy when he has a deep sense that what he is experiencing is very good.
- God is the one who gives true joy to people.
- Having joy does not depend on pleasant circumstances. God can give people joy even when very difficult things are happening in their lives.
- Sometimes places are described as joyful, such as houses or cities. This means that the people who live there are joyful.

rejoice

The term “rejoice” means to be full of joy and gladness.

- This term often refers to being very happy about the good things that God has done.
- It could be translated as “be very happy” or “be very glad” or “be full of joy.”
- When Mary said “my soul rejoices in God my Savior,” she meant “God my Savior has made me very happy” or “I feel so joyful because of what God my Savior has done for me.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “joy” could also be translated as “gladness” or “delight” or “great happiness.”
- The phrase, “be joyful” could be translated as “rejoice” or “be very glad” or it could be translated “be very happy in God’s goodness.”
- A person who is joyful could be described as “very happy” or “delighted” or “deeply glad.”
- A phrase such as “make a joyful shout” could be translated as “shout in a way that shows you are very happy.”
- A “joyful city” or “joyful house” could be translated as “city where joyful people live” or “house full of joyful people” or “city whose people are very happy.” (See: metonymy)

Bible References:

- Nehemiah 8:10

- Psalm 48:2
- Isaiah 56:6-7
- Jeremiah 15:15-16
- Matthew 2:9-10
- Luke 15:7
- Luke 19:37-38
- John 3:29
- Acts 16:32-34
- Romans 5:1-2
- Romans 15:30-32
- Galatians 5:23
- Philippians 4:10-13
- 1 Thessalonians 1:6-7
- 1 Thessalonians 5:16
- Philemon 1:4-7
- James 1:2
- 3 John 1:1-4

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 33:7 "The rocky ground is a person who hears God's word and accepts it with joy."
- 34:4 "The kingdom of God is also like hidden treasure that someone hid in a field… Another man found the treasure and then buried it again. He was so filled with joy, that he went and sold everything he had and used the money to buy that field."
- 41:7 The women were full of fear and great joy. They ran to tell the disciples the good news.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1523, H1524, H1525, H2302, H2304, H2305, H2654, H2898, H4885, H5937, H5947, H5965, H5970, H6342, H6670, H7440, H7442, H7444, H7445, H7797, H7832, H8055, H8056, H8057, H8342, H8643, G00200, G00210, G21650, G21670, G27440, G46400, G47960, G49130, G54630, G54790

Matthew References:

2:10; 5:12; 13:20; 13:44; 18:13; 25:21; 25:23; 28:8

Judah

Definition:

Judah was Jacob's fourth son. He was Leah's fourth son. His descendants became one of the tribes of Israel.

- The tribe descended from him was known as the "tribe of Judah" or "Judah."
- His name sounds similar to the Hebrew word meaning "praise."
- The tribe of Judah settled in the southern part of Canaan, including the mountainous area to the south of the city of Jerusalem. When used as the name of a region of land, the term "Judah" refers to the land given to the tribe of Judah.
- In the Old Testament, the name Judah is sometimes used to refer to the whole southern kingdom of Israel (similar to how the name Ephraim is sometimes used to refer to the whole northern kingdom).
- King David, King Solomon, and all the kings of the southern kingdom were descendants of Judah. Jesus, too, was a descendant of Judah.
- The words "Jew" and "Judea" come from the name "Judah."

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: twelve tribes of Israel, Judah (kingdom), Jew, Judea, Jacob, Leah)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 2:1-2
- 1 Kings 1:9
- Genesis 29:35
- Genesis 38:2
- Luke 3:33
- Ruth 1:2

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3063

Matthew References:

1:2; 1:3; 2:6

Judas Iscariot

Definition:

Judas Iscariot was one of Jesus' apostles. He was the one who betrayed Jesus to the Jewish leaders.

- The name "Iscariot" may mean "from Kerioth," perhaps indicating that Judas grew up in that city.
- Judas Iscariot managed the apostles' money and regularly stole some of it to use for himself.
- Judas betrayed Jesus by telling the religious leaders where Jesus was so they could arrest him.
- After the religious leaders condemned Jesus to die, Judas regretted that he had betrayed Jesus, so he gave the betrayal money back to the Jewish leaders and then killed himself.
- One of the other apostles of Jesus was Judas son of James. He was not the same person as Judas Iscariot.
- One of Jesus' brothers was named Judas. He was later known as "Jude." He was not the same person as Judas Iscariot.

(Translation suggestions: Translate Names)

(See also: apostle, betray, Jewish leaders, Judas the son of James)

Bible References:

- Luke 6:14-16
- Luke 22:47-48
- Mark 3:19
- Mark 14:10-11
- Matthew 26:23-25

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 38:2 One of Jesus' disciples was a man named Judas. … After Jesus and the disciples arrived in Jerusalem, Judas went to the Jewish leaders and offered to betray Jesus to them in exchange for money.
- 38:3 The Jewish leaders, led by the high priest, paid Judas thirty silver coins to betray Jesus.

- 38:14 Judas came with the Jewish leaders, soldiers, and a large crowd. They were all carrying swords and clubs. Judas came to Jesus and said, “Greetings, teacher,” and kissed him.
- 39:8 Meanwhile, Judas, the betrayer, saw that the Jewish leaders had condemned Jesus to die. He became full of sorrow and went away and killed himself.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G24550, G24690

Matthew References:

10:4; 26:14; 26:25; 26:47; 27:3

Judea, Judah

Definition:

The term “Judea” refers to an area of land in ancient Israel. It is sometimes used in a narrow sense and other times in a broad sense.

- Sometimes “Judea” is used in a narrow sense to refer only to the province located in the southern part of ancient Israel just west of the Dead Sea. Some translations call this province “Judah.”
- Other times “Judea” has a broad sense and refers to all the provinces of ancient Israel, including Galilee, Samaria, Perea, Idumea and Judea (Judah).
- If translators want to make the distinction clear, the broad sense of Judea could be translated as “Judea Country” and the narrow sense could be translated as “Judea Province,” or “Judah Province” since this is the part of ancient Israel where the tribe of Judah had originally lived.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Galilee, Edom, Judah, Judah, Samaria)

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 2:14
- Acts 2:9
- Acts 9:32
- Acts 12:19
- John 3:22-24
- Luke 1:5
- Luke 4:44
- Luke 5:17
- Mark 10:1-4
- Matthew 2:1
- Matthew 2:5
- Matthew 2:22-23
- Matthew 3:1-3
- Matthew 19:1

Word Data:

- Strong's: G24530

Matthew References:

2:1; 2:5; 2:22; 3:1; 3:5; 4:25; 19:1; 24:16

judge

Definition:

A judge is a person who decides what is right or wrong when there are disputes between people, usually in matters that pertain to the law.

- In the Bible, God is often referred to as a judge because he is the one perfect judge who makes the final decisions about what is right or wrong.
- After the people of Israel entered the land of Canaan and before they had kings to rule them, God appointed leaders called "judges" to lead them in times of trouble. Often these judges were military leaders who rescued the Israelites by defeating their enemies.
- The term "judge" could also be called "decision-maker" or "leader" or "deliverer" or "governor," depending on the context.

(See also: governor, judge, law)

Bible References:

- 2 Timothy 4:8
- Acts 7:27
- Luke 11:19
- Luke 12:14
- Luke 18:1-2
- Matthew 5:25
- Ruth 1:1

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0148, H0430, H1777, H1778, H1779, H1781, H1782, H6414, H6416, H6419, H8199, G03500, G12520, G13480, G29190, G29220, G29230

Matthew References:

5:25; 12:27

judge, judgment

Definition:

The terms “judge” and “judgment” often refer to making a decision about whether or not something is good, wise, or right. However, these terms can also refer to actions performed by a person as the result of a decision, usually in the context of deciding that something is bad, wrong, or evil.

- The terms “judge” and “judgment” can also mean “to cause harm to” (usually because God has decided a person or nation’s actions are wicked).
- The “judgment of God” often refers to his decision to condemn something or someone as sinful.
- God’s judgment usually includes punishing people for their sin.
- The term “judge” can also mean “condemn.” God instructs his people not to judge each other in this way.
- Another meaning is “arbitrate between” or “judge between,” as in deciding which person is right in a dispute between them.
- In some contexts, God’s “judgments” are what he has decided is right and just. They are similar to his decrees, laws, or precepts.
- “Judgment” can refer to wise decision-making ability. A person who lacks “judgment” does not have the wisdom to make wise decisions.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate to “judge” could include to “decide” or to “condemn” or to “punish” or to “decree.”
- The term “judgment” could be translated as “punishment” or “decision” or “verdict” or “decree” or “condemnation.”
- In some contexts, the phrase “in the judgment” could also be translated as “on judgment day” or “during the time when God judges people.”

(See also: decree, judge, judgment day, just, law, law)

Bible References:

- 1 John 4:17
- 1 Kings 3:9
- Acts 10:42-43

- Isaiah 3:14
- James 2:4
- Luke 6:37
- Micah 3:9-11
- Psalm 54:1

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 19:16 The prophets warned the people that if they did not stop doing evil and start obeying God, then God would judge them as guilty, and he would punish them.
- 21:8 A king is someone who rules over a kingdom and judges the people. The Messiah would come would be the perfect king who would sit on the throne of his ancestor David. He would reign over the whole world forever, and who would always judge honestly and make the right decisions.
- 39:4 The high priest tore his clothes in anger and shouted to the other religious leaders, "We do not need any more witnesses! You have heard him say that he is the Son of God. What is your judgment?"
- 50:14 But God will judge everyone who does not believe in Jesus. He will throw them into hell, where they will weep and grind their teeth in anguish forever.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0148, H0430, H1777, H1778, H1779, H1780, H1781, H1782, H2940, H4055, H4941, H6414, H6415, H6416, H6417, H6419, H6485, H8196, H8199, H8201, G01440, G03500, G09680, G11060, G12520, G13410, G13450, G13480, G13490, G29170, G29190, G29200, G29220, G29230, G42320

Matthew References:

5:21; 5:22; 5:40; 7:1; 7:2; 10:15; 11:22; 11:24; 12:36; 12:41; 12:42; 19:28; 23:33 just, justice, unjust, injustice, justify, justification

Definition:

"Just" and "justice" refer to treating people fairly according to God's laws. Human laws that reflect God's standard of right behavior toward others are also just.

- To be "just" is to act in a fair and right way toward others. It also implies honesty and integrity to do what is morally right in God's eyes.
- To act "justly" means to treat people in a way that is right, good, and proper according to God's laws.
- To receive "justice" means to be treated fairly under the law, either being protected by the law or being punished for breaking the law.
- Sometimes the term "just" has the broader meaning of "righteous" or "following God's laws."

The terms "unjust" and "unjustly" refer to treating people in an unfair and often harmful manner.

- An "injustice" is something bad that is done to someone that the person did not deserve. It refers to treating people unfairly.
- Injustice also means that some people are treated badly while others are treated well.
- Someone who is acting in an unjust way is being "partial" or "prejudiced" because he is not treating people equally.

The terms "justify" and "justification" refer to causing a guilty person to be righteous. Only God can truly justify people.

- When God justifies people, he forgives their sins and makes it as though they have no sin. He justifies sinners who repent and trust in Jesus to save them from their sins.
- "Justification" refers to what God does when he forgives a person's sins and declares that person to be righteous in his sight.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate "just" could include "morally right" or "fair."
- The term "justice" could be translated as "fair treatment" or "deserved consequences."
- To "act justly" could be translated as "treat fairly" or "behave in a just way."

- In some contexts, “just” could be translated as “righteous” or “upright.”
- Depending on the context, “unjust” could also be translated as “unfair” or “partial” or “unrighteous.”
- The phrase “the unjust” could be translated as “the unjust ones” or “unjust people” or “people who treat others unfairly” or “unrighteous people” or “people who disobey God.”
- The term “unjustly” could be translated as “in an unfair manner” or “wrongly” or “unfairly.”
- Ways to translate “injustice” could include, “wrong treatment” or “unfair treatment” or “acting unfairly.” (See: abstractnouns)
- Other ways to translate “justify” could include “declare (someone) to be righteous” or “cause (someone) to be righteous.”
- The term “justification” could be translated as “being declared righteous” or “becoming righteous” or “causing people to be righteous.”
- The phrase “resulting in justification” could be translated as “so that God justified many people” or “which resulted in God causing people to be righteous.”
- The phrase “for our justification” could be translated as “in order that we could be made righteous by God.”

(See also: forgive, guilt, judge, righteous, righteous)

Bible References:

- Genesis 44:16
- 1 Chronicles 18:14
- Isaiah 4:3-4
- Jeremiah 22:3
- Ezekiel 18:16-17
- Micah 3:8
- Matthew 5:43-45
- Matthew 11:19

- Matthew 23:23-24
- Luke 18:3
- Luke 18:8
- Luke 18:13-14
- Luke 21:20-22
- Luke 23:41
- Acts 13:38-39
- Acts 28:4
- Romans 4:1-3
- Galatians 3:6-9
- Galatians 3:11
- Galatians 5:3-4
- Titus 3:6-7
- Hebrews 6:10
- James 2:24
- Revelation 15:3-4

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 17:9 David ruled with justice and faithfulness for many years, and God blessed him.
- 18:13 Some of these kings (of Judah) were good men who ruled justly and worshiped God.
- 19:16 They (the prophets) all told the people to stop worshiping idols and to start showing justice and mercy to others.
- 50:17 Jesus will rule his kingdom with peace and justice, and he will be with his people forever.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0205, H2555, H3477, H4941, H5765, H5766, H5767, H6662, H6663, H6664, H6666, H8003, H8264, H8636, G00910, G00930, G00940, G13420, G13440, G13450, G13460, G13470, G17380

Matthew References:

5:45; 11:19; 12:18; 12:20; 12:37; 23:23

King of the Jews

Definition:

The term "King of the Jews" is a title that refers to Jesus, the Messiah.

- The first time the Bible records this title is when it was used by the wise men who traveled to Bethlehem looking for the baby who was "King of the Jews."
- The angel revealed to Mary that her son, a descendant of King David, would be a king whose reign would last forever.
- Before Jesus was crucified, Roman soldiers mockingly called Jesus "King of the Jews." This title was also written on a piece of wood and nailed to the top of Jesus' cross.
- Jesus truly is the King of the Jews and the king over all creation.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "King of the Jews" could also be translated as "king over the Jews" or "king who rules over the Jews" or "supreme ruler of the Jews."
- Check to see how the phrase "king of" is translated in other places in the translation.

(See also: descendant, Jew, Jesus, king, kingdom, kingdom of God, wise men)

Bible References:

- Luke 23:3
- Luke 23:38
- Matthew 2:2
- Matthew 27:11
- Matthew 27:35-37

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 23:9 Some time later, wise men from countries far to the east saw an unusual star in the sky. They realized it meant a new king of the Jews was born.
- 39:9 Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?"
- 39:12 The Roman soldiers whipped Jesus and put a royal robe and a crown made of thorns on him. Then they mocked him by saying, "Look, the King of the Jews!"
- 40:2 Pilate commanded that they write, "King of the Jews" on a sign and put it on the cross above Jesus' head.

Word Data:

- Strong's: G09350, G24530

Matthew References:

2:2; 27:11; 27:29; 27:37

king, kingship

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “king” refers to a man who is the supreme ruler of a particular group of people or a particular region of land (or both).

- In biblical times, a king was usually chosen to rule on the basis of family relation to the previous king(s). When a king died, usually his oldest son became the next king.
- The Bible often refers to God is as a king who rules over the entire universe (in a general sense) and over his people (in a specific sense).
- The New Testament refers to Jesus as a king in various ways, including: “king of the Jews;” “king of Israel;” and “king of kings.”
- Depending on the context, the term “king” might also be translated as “supreme chief” or “sovereign ruler.”
- The phrase “king of kings” might be translated as “king who rules over all other kings” or “supreme ruler who has authority over all other rulers.”

(See also: authority, Herod Antipas, kingdom, kingdom of God)

Bible References:

- 1 Timothy 6:15-16
- 2 Kings 5:18
- 2 Samuel 5:3
- Acts 7:9-10
- Acts 13:22
- John 1:49-51
- Luke 1:5
- Luke 22:24-25
- Matthew 5:35
- Matthew 14:9

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 8:6 One night, the Pharaoh, which is what the Egyptians called their kings, had two dreams that disturbed him greatly.

- 16:1 The Israelites had no king, so everyone did what they thought was right for them.
- 16:18 Finally, the people asked God for a king like all the other nations had.
- 17:5 Eventually, Saul died in battle, and David became king of Israel. He was a good king, and the people loved him.
- 21:6 God's prophets also said that the Messiah would be a prophet, a priest, and a king.
- 48:14 David was the king of Israel, but Jesus is the king of the entire universe!

Word Data:

- Strong's: H4427, H4428, H4430, G09350, G09360

Matthew References:

1:6; 2:1; 2:2; 2:3; 2:9; 5:35; 10:18; 11:8; 14:9; 17:25; 18:23; 21:5; 22:2; 22:7; 22:11; 22:13; 25:34; 25:40; 27:11; 27:29; 27:37; 27:42 kingdom

Definition:

A kingdom is a group of people ruled by a king. It also refers to the realm or political regions over which a king or other ruler has control and authority.

- A kingdom can be of any geographical size. A king might govern a nation or country or only one city.
- The term “kingdom” can also refer to a spiritual reign or authority, as in the term “kingdom of God.”
- God is the ruler of all creation, but the term “kingdom of God” especially refers to his reign and authority over the people who have believed in Jesus and who have submitted to his authority.
- The Bible also talks about Satan having a “kingdom” in which he temporarily rules over many things on this earth. His kingdom is evil and is referred to as “darkness.”

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to a physical region that is ruled over by a king, the term “kingdom” could be translated as “country (ruled by a king)” or “king’s territory” or “region ruled by a king.”
- In a spiritual sense, “kingdom” could be translated as “ruling” or “reigning” or “controlling” or “governing.”
- One way to translate “kingdom of priests” might be “spiritual priests who are ruled by God.”
- The phrase “kingdom of light” could be translated as “God’s reign that is good like light” or “when God, who is light, rules people” or “the light and goodness of God’s kingdom.” It is best to keep the word “light” in this expression since that is a very important term in the Bible.
- Note that the term “kingdom” is different from an empire, in which an emperor rules over several countries.

(See also: authority, king, kingdom of God, kingdom of Israel, Judah, Judah, priest)

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 2:12
- 2 Timothy 4:17-18
- Colossians 1:13-14

- John 18:36
- Mark 3:24
- Matthew 4:7-9
- Matthew 13:19
- Matthew 16:28
- Revelation 1:9

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 13:2 God said to Moses and the people of Israel, “If you will obey me and keep my covenant, you will be my prized possession, a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation.”
- 18:4 God was angry with Solomon and, as a punishment for Solomon’s unfaithfulness, he promised to divide the nation of Israel in two kingdoms after Solomon’s death.
- 18:7 Ten of the tribes of the nation of Israel rebelled against Rehoboam. Only two tribes remained faithful to him. These two tribes became the kingdom of Judah.
- 18:8 The other ten tribes of the nation of Israel that rebelled against Rehoboam appointed a man named Jeroboam to be their king. They set up their kingdom in the northern part of the land and were called the kingdom of Israel.
- 21:8 A king is someone who rules over a kingdom and judges the people.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H4410, H4437, H4438, H4467, H4468, H4474, H4475, G09320

Matthew References:

front:intro; 4:8; 12:25; 12:26; 13:44; 24:7

kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

Definition:

The terms “kingdom of God” and “kingdom of heaven” both refer to God’s rule and authority over his people and over all creation.

- The Jews often used the term “heaven” to refer to God, to avoid saying his name directly. (See: metonymy)
- In the New Testament book that Matthew wrote, he referred to God’s kingdom as “the kingdom of heaven,” probably because he was writing primarily for a Jewish audience.
- The kingdom of God refers to God ruling people spiritually as well as ruling over the physical world.
- The Old Testament prophets said that God would send the Messiah to rule with righteousness. Jesus, the Son of God, is the Messiah who will rule over God’s kingdom forever.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “kingdom of God” can be translated as “God’s rule (as king)” or “when God reigns as king” or “God’s rule over everything.”
- Depending on the context, the term “kingdom of heaven” could also be translated as “God’s rule from heaven as king” or “God in heaven reigning” or “heaven’s reign” or “heaven ruling over everything.” If it is not possible to translate this simply and clearly, the phrase “kingdom of God” could be translated instead.
- Some translators may prefer to capitalize “Heaven” to show that it refers to God. Others may include a note in the text, such as “kingdom of heaven (that is, ‘kingdom of God’).”
- A footnote at the bottom of the page of a printed Bible may also be used to explain the meaning of “heaven” in this expression.

(See also: God, heaven, king, kingdom, King of the Jews, reign)

Bible References:

- 2 Thessalonians 1:5
- Acts 8:12-13
- Acts 28:23
- Colossians 4:11
- John 3:3
- Luke 7:28

- Luke 10:9
- Luke 12:31-32
- Matthew 3:2
- Matthew 4:17
- Matthew 5:10
- Romans 14:17

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 24:2 He (John) preached to them, saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of God is near!”
- 28:6 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “It is extremely hard for rich people to enter into the kingdom of God! Yes, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”
- 29:2 Jesus said, “The kingdom of God is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.”
- 34:1 Jesus told many other stories about the kingdom of God. For example, he said, “The kingdom of God is like a mustard seed that someone planted in his field.”
- 34:3 Jesus told another story, “The kingdom of God is like yeast that a woman mixes into some bread dough until it spreads throughout the dough.”
- 34:4 “The kingdom of God is also like hidden treasure that someone hid in a field… Another man found the treasure and then buried it again.”
- 34:5 “The kingdom of God is also like a perfect pearl of great value.”
- 42:9 He proved to his disciples in many ways that he was alive, and he taught them about the kingdom of God.
- 49:5 Jesus said that the kingdom of God is more valuable than anything else in the world.
- 50:2 When Jesus was living on earth he said, “My disciples will preach the good news about the kingdom of God to people everywhere in the world, and then the end will come.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G09320, G23160, G37720

Matthew References:

front:intro; 3:2; 4:17; 4:23; 5:3; 5:10; 5:19; 5:20; 6:10; 6:33; 7:21; 8:11; 8:12; 9:35; 10:7; 11:11; 11:12; 12:28; 13:11; 13:19; 13:24; 13:31; 13:33; 13:38; 13:41; 13:43; 13:44; 13:45; 13:47; 13:52; 16:19; 16:28; 18:1; 18:3; 18:4; 18:23; 19:12; 19:14; 19:23; 19:24; 20:1; 20:21; 21:31; 21:43; 22:2; 23:13; 24:14; 25:1; 25:34; 26:29

kiss

Definition:

A kiss is an action in which one person puts his lips to another person's lips or face. This term can also be used figuratively.

- Some cultures kiss each other on the cheek as a form of greeting or to say goodbye.
- A kiss can communicate deep love between two people, such as a husband and wife.
- The expression to "kiss someone farewell" means to say goodbye with a kiss.
- Sometimes the word "kiss" is used to mean "say goodbye to." When Elisha said to Elijah, "Let me first go and kiss my father and mother," he wanted to say goodbye to his parents before leaving them to follow Elijah.

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 5:25-28
- Genesis 27:26-27
- Genesis 29:11
- Genesis 31:28
- Genesis 45:15
- Genesis 48:10
- Luke 22:48
- Mark 14:45
- Matthew 26:48

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5390, H5401, G27050, G53680, G53700

Matthew References:

26:intro; 26:48; 26:49

know, knew, knowledge, known, unknown, distinguish

Definition:

Used in this sense the term “know” and “knowledge” mean generally to understand something. It can also mean to be aware of a fact. The expression “to make known” means to tell information.

- The term “knowledge” refers to information that people know. It can apply to knowing physical concepts or abstract concepts.
- To “know about” God means to understand facts about him because of what he has revealed to us.
- To “know the Law” means to be aware of what God has commanded or to understand what God has instructed in the laws he gave to Moses.
- Sometimes “knowledge” is used as a synonym for “wisdom,” which includes living in a way that is pleasing to God.
- The “knowledge of God” is sometimes used as a synonym for the “fear of Yahweh.”

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, ways to translate “know” could include “understand” or “be familiar with” or “be aware of” or “be acquainted with.”
- In the context of understanding the difference between two things, the term is usually translated as “distinguish.” When used in this way, the term is often followed by the preposition “between.”
- The term “make known” could be translated as “cause people to know” or “reveal” or “tell about” or “explain.”
- To “know about” something could be translated as “be aware of” or “be familiar with.”
- The expression “know how to” means to understand the process or method of getting something done. It could also be translated as “be able to” or “have the skill to.”
- The term “knowledge” could also be translated as “what is known” or “wisdom” or “understanding,” depending on the context.
- Some languages have two different words for “know,” one for knowing facts and one for knowing a person and having a relationship with that person. The word for knowing facts should be used when translating this sense of the word “know.”

(See also: know-relationship, law, reveal, understand, wise)

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1844, H1847, H3045, H3046, H3318, G00500, G00560, G03190, G10970, G11070, G11080, G11100, G14920, G19210, G19220, G19870, G42670

Matthew References:

1:25; 6:3; 6:8; 6:32; 7:11; 7:16; 7:20; 7:23; 9:6; 9:30; 10:26; 11:27; 12:7; 12:15; 12:25; 12:33; 14:35; 15:12; 16:8; 17:12; 20:22; 20:25; 21:27; 21:45; 22:16; 22:18; 22:29; 24:32; 24:33; 24:36; 24:39; 24:42; 24:43; 24:50; 25:12; 25:13; 25:24; 25:26; 26:2; 26:10; 26:70; 26:72; 26:74; 27:18; 27:65; 28:5

labor, labors, labored, laboring, laborer, work, hard work

Definition:

The term “labor” refers to doing hard work of any kind.

- In general, labor is any task which uses energy. It is often implied that the task is difficult.
- A laborer is a person who does any type of labor.
- Ways to translate “labor” could include “work” or “toil” or “hard work” or “difficult work” or to “work hard.”

(See also: hard)

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3021, H4399, H4522, H4639, H5647, H5656, H5998, H6001, H6089, G20380, G20400, G20410, G28720, G28730

Matthew References:

6:28; 7:23; 9:37; 9:38; 10:10; 11:28; 20:1; 20:2; 20:8; 21:28; 25:16 lamp

Definition:

The term “lamp” generally refers to something that produces light. The lamps used in Bible times were usually oil lamps.

The type of lamp that was used in Bible times is a small container with a fuel source, usually oil, that gives light when it burns.

- An ordinary oil lamp usually consisted of a common piece of pottery filled with olive oil, with a wick placed in the oil to burn.
- For some lamps, the pot or jar was oval, with one end pinched close together to hold the wick.
- An oil lamp could be carried or placed on a stand so that its light could fill a room or house.
- In scripture, lamps are used in several figurative ways as symbols of light and life.

(See also: lampstand, life, light)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 11:36
- Exodus 25:3-7
- Luke 8:16-18
- Matthew 5:15
- Matthew 6:22
- Matthew 25:3

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3940, H3974, H4501, H5215, H5216, G29850, G30880

Matthew References:

5:15; 6:22; 25:intro; 25:1; 25:3; 25:4; 25:7; 25:8

lampstand

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “lampstand” refers to a structure on which a lamp is placed in order to provide light to a room.

- The lampstand would be tall enough so that the light of the lamp could shine throughout the room.
- The lampstand could be made of wood or metal and could hold one or more lamps.
- Ordinary lamps were made of clay, and lamps for special purposes, such as for the temple, were made of metal (such as bronze, silver, or gold.)
- The lamps were in the shape of a bowl with a raised lip on one side that held a wick. The lamps were filled with olive oil that soaked the wick and burned when the wick was lighted.
- In the Jerusalem temple there was a special gold lampstand that had seven branches for holding seven lamps.

Translation Suggestions

- This term could be also translated as “lamp pedestal” or “structure for holding a lamp” or “lamp holder.”
- For the temple lampstand, this could be translated as “seven-lamp lampstand” or “gold pedestal with seven lamps.”
- It would also be helpful in a translation to include pictures of a simple lampstand and a seven-branch lampstand in the relevant Bible passages.

(See also: bronze, gold, lamp, light, silver, temple)

Bible References:

- Daniel 5:5-6
- Exodus 37:17
- Mark 4:21-23
- Matthew 5:15-16
- Revelation 1:12-13
- Revelation 1:20

Word Data:

- Strong's: H4501, G30870

Matthew References:

5:15

law, law of Moses, law of Yahweh, law of God

Definition:

Most simply, the term “law” refers to a rule or instruction that should be followed. In the Bible, the term “law” is often used generally to refer to anything and everything God wants his people to obey and do. The specific term “law of Moses” refers to the commandments and instructions that God gave Moses for the Israelites to obey.

- Depending on the context, the “law” can refer to:
  - the Ten Commandments that God wrote on stone tablets for the Israelites
  - all the laws given to Moses
  - the first five books of the Old Testament
  - the entire Old Testament (also referred to as “scriptures” in the New Testament).
  - all of God’s instructions and will
- The phrase “the Law and the Prophets” is used in the New Testament to refer to the Hebrew scriptures (or “Old Testament”)

Translation Suggestions:

- These terms could be translated using the plural, “laws,” since they refer to many instructions.
- The term “law of Moses” could be translated as “the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites.”
- Depending on the context, “the law of Moses” could also be translated as “the law that God told to Moses” or “God’s laws that Moses wrote down” or “the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites.”
- Ways to translate “the law” or “law of God” or “God’s laws” could include “laws from God” or “God’s commands” or “laws that God gave” or “everything that God commands” or “all of God’s instructions.”
- The phrase “law of Yahweh” could also be translated as “Yahweh’s laws” or “laws that Yahweh said to obey” or “laws from Yahweh” or “things Yahweh commanded.”

(See also: instruct, Moses, Ten Commandments, lawful, Yahweh)

Bible References:

- Acts 15:6

- Daniel 9:13
- Exodus 28:42-43
- Ezra 7:25-26
- Galatians 2:15
- Luke 24:44
- Matthew 5:18
- Nehemiah 10:29
- Romans 3:20

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 13:7 God also gave many other laws and rules to follow. If the people obeyed these laws, God promised that he would bless and protect them. If they disobeyed them, God would punish them.
- 13:9 Anyone who disobeyed God's law could bring an animal to the altar in front of the Tent of Meeting as a sacrifice to God.
- 15:13 Then Joshua reminded the people of their obligation to obey the covenant that God had made with the Israelites at Sinai. The people promised to remain faithful to God and follow his laws.
- 16:1 After Joshua died, the Israelites disobeyed God and did not drive out the rest of the Canaanites or obey God's laws.
- 21:5 In the New Covenant, God would write his law on the people's hearts, the people would know God personally, they would be his people, and God would forgive their sins.
- 27:1 Jesus answered, "What is written in God's law?"
- 28:1 Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me 'good?' There is only one who is good, and that is God. But if you want to have eternal life, obey God's laws."

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0430, H1881, H1882, H2706, H2710, H3068, H4687, H4872, H4941, H8451, G23160, G35510, G35650

Matthew References:

5:17; 5:18; 7:12; 11:13; 12:5; 22:36; 22:40; 23:23

lawful, unlawful, not lawful, lawless, lawlessness

Definition:

The term “lawful” refers to something that is permitted to be done according to a law or other requirement. The opposite of this is “unlawful,” which simply means “not lawful.”

- In the Bible, something was “lawful” if it was permitted by God’s moral law, or by the Law of Moses and other Jewish laws. Something that was “unlawful” was “not permitted” by those laws.
- To do something “lawfully” means to do it “properly” or “in the right way.”
- Many of the things that the Jewish laws considered lawful or not lawful were not in agreement with God’s laws about loving others.
- Depending on the context, ways to translate “lawful” could include “permitted” or “according to God’s law” or “following our laws” or “proper” or “fitting.”
- The phrase “Is it lawful?” could also be translated as “Do our laws allow?” or “Is that something our laws permit?”

The terms “unlawful” and “not lawful” are used to describe actions that break a law.

- In the New Testament, the term “unlawful” is not only used to refer to breaking God’s laws, but also often refers to breaking Jewish man-made laws.
- Over the years, the Jews added to the laws that God gave to them. The Jewish leaders would call something “unlawful” if it did not conform to their man-made laws.
- When Jesus and his disciples were picking grain on a Sabbath day, the Pharisees accused them of doing something “unlawful” because it was breaking the Jewish laws about not working on that day.
- When Peter stated that eating unclean foods was “unlawful” for him, he meant that if he ate those foods he would be breaking the laws God had given the Israelites about not eating certain foods.

The term “lawless” describes a person who does not obey laws or rules. When a country or group of people are in a state of “lawlessness,” there is widespread disobedience, rebellion, or immorality.

- A lawless person is rebellious and does not obey God’s laws.
- The apostle Paul wrote that in the last days there will be a “man of lawlessness,” or a “lawless one,” who will be influenced by Satan to do evil things.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term “unlawful” should be translated using a word or expression that means “not lawful” or “lawbreaking.”
- Other ways to translate “unlawful” could be “not permitted” or “not according to God’s law” or “not conforming to our laws.”
- The expression “against the law” has the same meaning as “unlawful.”
- The term “lawless” could also be translated as “rebellious” or “disobedient” or “law-defying”.
- The term “lawlessness” could be translated as “not obeying any laws” or “rebellion (against God’s laws).”
- The phrase “man of lawlessness” could be translated as “man who does not obey any laws” or “man who rebels against God’s laws.”
- It is important to keep the concept of “law” in this term, if possible.
- Note that the term “unlawful” has a different meaning from this term.

(See also: law, law, Moses, Sabbath)

Bible References:

- Matthew 7:21-23
- Matthew 12:2
- Matthew 12:4
- Matthew 12:10
- Mark 3:4
- Luke 6:2
- Acts 2:23
- Acts 10:28
- Acts 22:25
- 2 Thessalonians 2:3
- Titus 2:14

- 1 John 3:4-6

Word Data:

- Strong's: H6530, G01110, G01130, G02660, G04580, G04590, G18320, G35450

Matthew References:

7:23; 12:2; 12:4; 12:10; 12:12; 13:41; 14:4; 19:3; 20:15; 22:17; 23:28; 24:12; 27:6

locust

Definition:

The term “locust” refers to a type of large, flying grasshopper that sometimes flies with many other of its kind in a very destructive swarm that eats all vegetation.

- Locusts and other grasshoppers are large, straight-winged insects with long, jointed back legs that give them the ability to jump a long distance way.
- In the Old Testament, swarming locusts were referred to figuratively as a symbol or picture of the overwhelming devastation that would come as a result of Israel’s disobedience.
- God sent locusts as one of the ten plagues against the Egyptians.
- The New Testament says that locusts were a main source of food for John the Baptist while he was living in the desert.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: captive, Egypt, Israel, John (the Baptist), plague)

Bible References:

- 2 Chronicles 6:28
- Deuteronomy 28:38-39
- Exodus 10:3-4
- Mark 1:6
- Proverbs 30:27-28

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0697, H1357, H1462, H1501, H2284, H3218, H5556, H6767, G02000

Matthew References:

3:4

loins

Definition:

The term “loins” refers to the part of the body of an animal or person that is between the lower ribs and the hip bones, also known as the lower abdomen.

- The expression “gird up the loins” refers to preparing to work hard. It comes from the custom of tucking the bottom of one’s robe into a belt around the waist in order to move with ease.
- The term “loins” is often used in the Bible to refer to the lower back part of an animal that was sacrificed.
- In the Bible, the term “loins” often refers figuratively and euphemistically to a man’s reproductive organs as the source of his descendants. (See: euphemism)
- The expression “will come from your loins” could also be translated as “will be your offspring” or “will be born from your seed” or “God will cause to come from you.” (See: euphemism)
- When referring to a part of the body, this could also be translated as “abdomen” or “hips” or “waist,” depending on the context.

(See also: descendant, gird, children)

Bible References:

- 1 Peter 1:13
- 2 Chronicles 6:9
- Deuteronomy 33:11
- Genesis 37:34
- Job 15:27

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2504, H3409, H3689, H4975, G37510

Matthew References:

3:4

lord, Lord, master, sir

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “lord” generally refers to someone who has ownership or authority over other people. In the Bible, however, the term is used to address many different kinds of people, including God.

- This word is sometimes translated as “master” when addressing Jesus or when referring to someone who owns slaves.
- Some English versions translate this as “sir” in contexts where someone is politely addressing someone of higher status.

When “Lord” is capitalized, it is a title that refers to God. (Note, however, that when it is used as a form of addressing someone or it occurs at the beginning of a sentence it may be capitalized and have the meaning of “sir” or “master.”)

- In the Old Testament, this term is also used in expressions such as “Lord God Almighty” or “Lord Yahweh” or “Yahweh our Lord.”
- In the New Testament, the apostles used this term in expressions such as “Lord Jesus” and “Lord Jesus Christ,” which communicate that Jesus is God.
- The term “Lord” in the New Testament is also used alone as a direct reference to God, especially in quotations from the Old Testament. For example, the Old Testament text has “Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh” and the New Testament text has “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.”
- In the ULT and UST, the title “Lord” is only used to translate the actual Hebrew and Greek words that mean “Lord.” It is never used as a translation of God’s name (Yahweh), as is done in many translations.
- Some languages translate “Lord” as “Master” or “Ruler” or some other term that communicates ownership or supreme rule.
- In the appropriate contexts, many translations capitalize the first letter of this term to make it clear to the reader that this is a title referring to God.

- For places in the New Testament where there is a quote from the Old Testament, the term "Lord God" could be used to make it clear that this is a reference to God.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term can be translated with the equivalent of "master" when it refers to a person who owns slaves. It can also be used by a servant to address the person he works for.
- When it refers to Jesus, if the context shows that the speaker sees him as a religious teacher, it can be translated with a respectful address for a religious teacher, such as "master."
- If the person addressing Jesus does not know him, "lord" could be translated with a respectful form of address such as "sir." This translation would also be used for other contexts in which a polite form of address to a man is called for.
- When referring to God the Father or to Jesus, this term is considered a title, written as "Lord" (capitalized) in English.

(See also: God, Jesus, ruler, Yahweh)

Bible References:

- Genesis 39:2
- Joshua 3:9-11
- Psalms 86:15-17
- Jeremiah 27:4
- Lamentations 2:2
- Ezekiel 18:29
- Daniel 9:9
- Daniel 9:17-19
- Malachi 3:1
- Matthew 7:21-23
- Luke 1:30-33
- Luke 16:13
- Romans 6:23
- Ephesians 6:9
- Philippians 2:9-11
- Colossians 3:23
- Hebrews 12:14

- James 2:1
- 1 Peter 1:3
- Jude 1:5
- Revelation 15:4

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 25:5 But Jesus replied to Satan by quoting from the Scriptures. He said, “In God’s word, he commands his people, ‘Do not test the Lord your God.’”
- 25:7 Jesus replied, “Get away from me, Satan! In God’s word he commands his people, ‘Worship only the Lord your God and only serve him.’”
- 26:3 This is the year of the Lord’s favor.
- 27:2 The law expert replied that God’s law says, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, strength, and mind.”
- 31:5 Then Peter said to Jesus, “Master, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water”
- 43:9 “But know for certain that God has caused Jesus to become both Lord and Messiah!”
- 47:3 By means of this demon she predicted the future for people, she made a lot of money for her masters as a fortuneteller.
- 47:11 Paul answered, “Believe in Jesus, the Master, and you and your family will be saved.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0113, H0136, H1167, H1376, H4756, H7980, H8323, G02030, G06340, G09620, G12030, G29620

Matthew References:

1:20; 1:22; 1:24; 2:13; 2:15; 2:19; 3:3; 4:7; 4:10; 5:33; 6:24; 7:21; 7:22; 8:2; 8:6; 8:8; 8:21; 8:25; 9:28; 9:38; 10:24; 10:25; 11:25; 12:8; 13:27; 14:28; 14:30; 15:22; 15:25; 15:27; 16:22; 17:4; 17:15; 18:21; 18:25; 18:26; 18:27; 18:31; 18:32; 18:34; 20:8; 20:11; 20:30; 20:31; 20:33; 21:3; 21:9; 21:30; 21:40; 21:42; 22:37; 22:43; 22:44; 22:45; 23:39; 24:42; 24:43; 24:45; 24:46; 24:48; 24:50; 25:11; 25:18; 25:19; 25:20; 25:21; 25:22; 25:23; 25:24; 25:26; 25:37; 25:44; 26:22; 27:10; 27:63; 28:2

lots, casting lots

Definition:

In the Bible, a “lot” is a marked object(s) used as a way of making a fair and/or random decision, usually for the purpose of selecting a specific person within a group. “Casting lots” refers to the process of using “lots” to make a fair and/or random decision.

- In modern times, some cultures “draw” or “pull out” lots using a bunch of straws. Someone holds the straws so that no one can see how long they are. Each person pulls out a straw and the one who picks the longest (or shortest) straw is the one who is chosen.
- In biblical times, the objects cast (the “lots”) were probably small marked stones. It is unknown how the “lots” actually indicated a decision, but it probably involved dropping or throwing marked stones on the ground.
- The phrase “casting lots” can be translated as “tossing lots” or “throwing lots” or “rolling lots.” The translation of “cast” should not sound like the lots were being thrown a long distance.
- If a decision is made “by lot,” this could be translated as “by casting lots” or “by throwing lots,” etc.

(See also: Elizabeth, priest, Zechariah (OT), Zechariah (NT))

Bible References:

- Jonah 1:7
- Luke 1:8-10
- Luke 23:34
- Mark 15:22
- Matthew 27:35-37
- Psalms 22:18-19

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1486, H5307, G28190, G29750

Matthew References:

27:35

love, beloved

Definition:

To love another person is to care for that person and do things that will benefit him. There are different meanings for “love” some languages may express using different words:

1. The kind of love that comes from God is focused on the good of others even when it does not benefit oneself. This kind of love cares for others, no matter what they do. God himself is love and is the source of true love.
    - Jesus showed this kind of love by sacrificing his life in order to rescue us from sin and death. He also taught his followers to love others sacrificially.
    - When people love others with this kind of love, they act in ways that show they are thinking of what will cause the others to thrive. This kind of love especially includes forgiving others.
    - In the ULT, the word “love” refers to this kind of sacrificial love, unless a Translation Note indicates a different meaning.
2. Another word in the New Testament refers to brotherly love, or love for a friend or family member.
    - This term refers to natural human love between friends or relatives.
    - The term can also be used in such contexts as, “They love to sit in the most important seats at a banquet.” This means that they “like very much” or “greatly desire” to do that.
3. The word “love” can also refer to romantic love between a man and a woman.

Translation Suggestions:

- Unless indicated otherwise in a Translation Note, the word “love” in the ULT refers to the kind of sacrificial love that comes from God.
- Some languages may have a special word for the kind of unselfish, sacrificial love that God has. Ways to translate this might include, “devoted, faithful caring” or “care for unselfishly” or “love from God.” Make sure that the word used to translate God’s love can include giving up one’s own interests to benefit others and loving others no matter what they do.
- Sometimes the English word “love” describes the deep caring that people have for friends and family members. Some languages might translate this with a word or phrase that means “like very much” or “care for” or “have strong affection for.”

- In contexts where the word “love” is used to express a strong preference for something, this could be translated by “strongly prefer” or “like very much” or “greatly desire.”
- Some languages may also have a separate word that refers to romantic or sexual love between a husband and wife.
- Many languages must express “love” as an action. So for example, they might translate “love is patient, love is kind” as, “when a person loves someone, he is patient with him and kind to him.”

(See also: covenant, death, sacrifice, save, sin)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 13:7
- 1 John 3:2
- 1 Thessalonians 4:10
- Galatians 5:23
- Genesis 29:18
- Isaiah 56:6
- Jeremiah 2:2
- John 3:16
- Matthew 10:37
- Nehemiah 9:32-34
- Philippians 1:9
- Song of Songs 1:2

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 27:2 The law expert replied that God’s law says, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, strength, and mind. And love your neighbor as yourself.”
- 33:8 “The thorny ground is a person who hears God’s word, but, as time passes, the cares, riches, and pleasures of life choke out his love for God.”
- 36:5 As Peter was talking, a bright cloud came down on top of them and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son whom I love.”
- 39:10 “Everyone who loves the truth listens to me.”
- 47:1 She (Lydia) loved and worshiped God.
- 48:1 When God created the world, everything was perfect. There was no sin. Adam and Eve loved each other, and they loved God.

- 49:3 He (Jesus) taught that you need to love other people the same way you love yourself.
- 49:4 He (Jesus) also taught that you need to love God more than you love anything else, including your wealth.
- 49:7 Jesus taught that God loves sinners very much.
- 49:9 But God loved everyone in the world so much that he gave his only Son so that whoever believes in Jesus will not be punished for his sins, but will live with God forever.
- 49:13 God loves you and wants you to believe in Jesus so he can have a close relationship with you.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0157, H0158, H0159, H0160, H2245, H2617, H2836, H3039, H4261, H5689, H5690, H5691, H7355, H7356, H7453, H7474, G00250, G00260, G53600, G53610, G53620, G53630, G53650, G53670, G53680, G53690, G53770, G53810, G53820, G53830, G53880

Matthew References:

5:43; 5:44; 5:46; 6:5; 6:24; 10:37; 19:19; 22:37; 22:39; 23:6; 24:12

lust, lustful, passion, desire

Definition:

Lust is a very strong desire, usually in the context of wanting something sinful or immoral. To lust is to have lust.

- In the Bible, “lust” usually referred to sexual desire for someone other than one’s own spouse.
- Sometimes this term was used in a figurative sense to refer to worshiping idols.
- Depending on the context, “lust” could be translated as “wrong desire” or “strong desire” or “wrongful sexual desire” or “strong immoral desire” or to “strongly desire to sin.”
- The phrase to “lust after” could be translated as to “wrongly desire” or to “think immorally about” or to “immorally desire.”

(See also: adultery, false god)

Bible References:

- 1 John 2:16
- 2 Timothy 2:22
- Galatians 5:16
- Galatians 5:19-21
- Genesis 39:7-9
- Matthew 5:28

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0183, H0185, H0310, H1730, H2181, H2183, H2530, H5178, H5375, H5689, H5691, H5869, H7843, G07660, G19370, G19390, G22370, G37150, G38060

Matthew References:

5:28

manager, steward, stewardship

Definition:

The term “manager” or “steward” in the Bible refers to a servant who was entrusted with taking care of his master’s property and business dealings.

- A steward was given a lot of responsibility, which included supervising the work of other servants.
- The term “manager” is a more modern term for a steward. Both terms refer to someone who manages practical affairs for someone else.

Translation Suggestions:

- This could also be translated as “supervisor” or “household organizer” or “servant who manages” or “person who organizes.”

(See also: servant)

Bible References:

- 1 Timothy 3:4-5
- Genesis 39:4
- Genesis 43:16
- Isaiah 55:10-11
- Luke 8:3
- Luke 16:2
- Matthew 20:8-10
- Titus 1:7

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0376, H4453, H5057, H6485, G20120, G36210, G36230

Matthew References:

20:8

Manasseh

Definition:

Manasseh was the older son of Joseph. His descendants became one of the tribes of Israel.

- The name Manasseh is similar to the the Hebrew word meaning “to forget.”
- The tribe of Manasseh was often called the “half-tribe of Manasseh” because only part of the tribe settled in the land of Canaan, on the west side of the Jordan River. The other part of the tribe settled on the east side of the Jordan.
- One of the kings of Judah was also named Manasseh. King Manasseh was an evil king who sacrificed his own children as burnt offerings to false gods.
- God punished King Manasseh by allowing him to be captured by an enemy army. Manasseh turned back to God and destroyed the altars where idols were worshiped.
- Three other men named Manasseh are mentioned in the Old Testament. One of them was the grandfather of some Danites who were priests for false gods. The other two were men who lived during the time of Ezra and were required to divorce their pagan wives, who had influenced them to worship false gods.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Joseph, Ephraim, twelve tribes of Israel)

Bible References:

- 2 Chronicles 15:9
- Deuteronomy 3:12-13
- Genesis 41:51
- Genesis 48:1-2
- Judges 1:27-28

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H4519, H4520, G31280

Matthew References:

1:10

Mary (the mother of Jesus)

Definition:

Mary was a young woman living in the city of Nazareth who was pledged to be married to a man named Joseph. God chose Mary to be the mother of Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God.

- The Holy Spirit miraculously caused Mary to become pregnant while she was a virgin.
- An angel told Mary that the baby to be born to her was the Son of God and that she must name him Jesus.
- Mary loved God and praised him for being gracious to her.
- Joseph married Mary, but she remained a virgin until after the baby was born.
- Mary thought deeply about the amazing things that the shepherds and wise men said about the baby Jesus.
- Mary and Joseph took the baby Jesus to be dedicated at the temple. Later they took him to Egypt to escape King Herod's plot to kill the baby. Eventually they moved back to Nazareth.
- When Jesus was an adult, Mary was with him when he changed water to wine at a wedding in Cana.
- The gospels also mention that Mary was at the cross when Jesus was dying. He told his disciple John to take care of her like his own mother.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Cana, Egypt, Herod the Great, Jesus, Joseph (NT), Son of God, virgin)

Bible References:

- John 2:4
- John 2:12
- Luke 1:29
- Luke 1:35
- Mark 6:3
- Matthew 1:16
- Matthew 1:19

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 22:4 When Elizabeth was six months pregnant, the same angel appeared to Elizabeth's relative, whose name was Mary. She was a virgin and was engaged to be married to a man named Joseph. The angel said, "You will become pregnant and give birth to a son. You are to name him Jesus and he will be the Messiah."
- 22:5 The angel explained, "The Holy Spirit will come to you, and the power of God will overshadow you. So the baby will be holy, the Son of God." Mary believed and accepted what the angel said.
- 22:6 Soon after the angel spoke to Mary, she went and visited Elizabeth. As soon as Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, Elizabeth's baby jumped inside her.
- 23:2 The angel said, "Joseph, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife. The baby in her body is from the Holy Spirit."
- 23:4 Joseph and Mary had to make a long journey from where they lived in Nazareth to Bethlehem because their ancestor was David whose hometown was Bethlehem.
- 49:1 An angel told a virgin named Mary that she would give birth to God's Son. So while she was still a virgin, she gave birth to a son and named him Jesus.

Word Data:

- Strong's: G31370

Matthew References:

1:16; 1:18; 1:20; 2:11; 13:55

Mary Magdalene

Definition:

Mary Magdalene was one of several women who believed in Jesus and followed him in his ministry. She was known as the one whom Jesus had healed from seven demons who had controlled her.

- Mary Magdalene and some other women helped support Jesus and his apostles by giving to them.
- She is also mentioned as one of the women who were the first to see Jesus after he rose from the dead.
- As Mary Magdalene stood outside the empty tomb, she saw Jesus standing there and he told her to go tell the other disciples that he was alive again.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: demon, demon-possessed)

Bible References:

- Luke 8:1-3
- Luke 24:8-10
- Mark 15:39-41
- Matthew 27:54-56

Word Data:

- Strong's: G30940, G31370

Matthew References:

27:56; 27:61; 28:1

Matthew, Levi

Definition:

Matthew was one of the twelve men that Jesus chose to be his apostles. He was also known as Levi, son of Alpheus.

- Levi (Matthew) was a tax-collector from Capernaum before he met Jesus.
- Matthew wrote the gospel that bears his name.
- There are several other men named Levi in the Bible.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: apostle, Levite, tax collector)

Bible References:

- Luke 5:27
- Luke 6:14-16
- Mark 2:14
- Mark 3:17-19
- Matthew 9:9
- Matthew 10:3

Word Data:

- Strong's: G30170, G31560

Matthew References:

front:intro; 9:9; 10:3

meek, meekness

Definition:

The term “meek” describes a person who is gentle, submissive, and willing to suffer injustice. Meekness is the ability to be gentle even when harshness or force might seem appropriate.

- Meekness is often associated with humility.
- This term could also be translated as “gentle” or “mild-mannered” or “sweet-tempered.”
- The term “meekness” could be translated as “gentleness” or “humility.”

(See also: humble)

Bible References:

- 1 Peter 3:15-17
- 2 Corinthians 10:1-2
- 2 Timothy 2:25
- Matthew 5:5
- Matthew 11:29
- Psalms 37:11

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H6035, H6037, G42350, G42360, G42390, G42400

Matthew References:

5:5; 11:29

member, body part

Definition:

The term “member” refers to one part of a complex body or group.

- The New Testament describes Christians as “members” of the body of Christ. Believers in Christ belong to a group that is made up of many members.
- Jesus Christ is the “head” of the body and individual believers function as the members of the body. The Holy Spirit gives each member of the body a special role to help the entire body to function well.
- Individuals who participate in groups such as the Jewish Council and the Pharisees are also called “members” of these groups.

(See also: body, Pharisee, council)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 6:15
- 1 Corinthians 12:14-17
- Numbers 16:2
- Romans 12:5

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1004, H1121, H3338, H5315, H8212, G10100, G31960, G36090

Matthew References:

5:29; 5:30

mercy, merciful

Definition:

The terms “mercy” and “merciful” refer to helping people who are in need, especially when they are in a lowly or humbled condition.

- The term “mercy” can also include the meaning of not punishing people for something they have done wrong.
- A powerful person such as a king is described as “merciful” when he treats people kindly instead of harming them.
- Being merciful also means to forgive someone who has done something wrong against us.
- We show mercy when we help people who are in great need.
- God is merciful to us, and he wants us to be merciful to others.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “mercy” could be translated as “kindness” or “compassion” or “pity.”
- The term “merciful” could be translated as “showing pity” or “being kind to” or “forgiving.”
- To “show mercy to” or “have mercy on” could be translated as “treat kindly” or “be compassionate toward.”

(See also: compassion, forgive)

Bible References:

- 1 Peter 1:3-5
- 1 Timothy 1:13
- Daniel 9:17
- Exodus 34:6
- Genesis 19:16
- Hebrews 10:28-29
- James 2:13
- Luke 6:35-36
- Matthew 9:27

- Philippians 2:25-27
- Psalms 41:4-6
- Romans 12:1

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 19:16 They (the prophets) all told the people to stop worshiping idols and to start showing justice and mercy to others.
- 19:17 He (Jeremiah) sank down into the mud that was in the bottom of the well, but then the king had mercy on him and ordered his servants to pull Jeremiah out of the well before he died.
- 20:12 The Persian Empire was strong but merciful to the people it conquered.
- 27:11 Then Jesus asked the law expert, “What do you think? Which one of the three men was a neighbor to the man who was robbed and beaten?” He replied, “The one who was merciful to him.”
- 32:11 But Jesus said to him, “No, I want you to go home and tell your friends and family about everything that God has done for you and how he has had mercy on you.”
- 34:9 “But the tax collector stood far away from the religious ruler, did not even look up to heaven. Instead, he pounded on his chest and prayed, ‘God, please be merciful to me because I am a sinner.’”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2551, H2603, H2604, H2616, H2617, H2623, H3722, H3727, H4627, H4819, H5503, H5504, H5505, H5506, H6014, H7349, H7355, H7356, H7359, G16530, G16550, G16560, G24330, G24360, G36280, G36290, G37410, G46980

Matthew References:

5:7; 9:13; 9:27; 12:7; 15:22; 17:15; 18:33; 20:30; 20:31; 23:23

messenger

Definition:

The term “messenger” refers to someone who is given a message to tell others.

- In ancient times, a messenger would be sent from the battlefield to tell people back in the city what was happening.
- An angel is a special kind of messenger whom God sends to give people messages. Some translations translate “angel” as “messenger.”
- John the Baptist was called a messenger who came before Jesus to announce the Messiah’s coming and to prepare people to receive him.
- Jesus’ apostles were his messengers to go share with other people the good news about the kingdom of God.

(See also: angel, apostle, John (the Baptist))

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 19:1-3
- 1 Samuel 6:21
- 2 Kings 1:1-2
- Luke 7:27
- Matthew 11:10

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1319, H4397, H4398, H5046, H5894, H6735, H6737, H7323, H7971, G00320, G06520

Matthew References:

11:10

might, mighty, mighty works

Definition:

The terms “mighty” and “might” refer to having great strength or power.

- Often the word “might” is another word for “strength.” When talking about God, it can mean “power.”
- The phrase “mighty men” often refers to men who are courageous and victorious in battle. David’s band of faithful men who helped protect and defend him were often called “mighty men.”
- God is also referred to as the “mighty one.”
- The phrase “mighty works” usually refers to the amazing things God does, especially miracles.
- This term is related to the term “almighty,” which is a common description for God, meaning that he has complete power.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “mighty” could be translated as “powerful” or “amazing” or “very strong.”
- The phrase “his might” could be translated as “his strength” or “his power.”
- In Acts 7, Moses is described as a man who was “mighty in word and deed.” This could be translated as “Moses spoke powerful words from God and did miraculous things” or “Moses spoke God’s word powerfully and did many amazing things.”
- Depending on the context, “mighty works” could be translated as “amazing things that God does” or “miracles” or “God doing things with power.”
- The term “might” could also be translated as “power” or “great strength.”
- Do not confuse this term with the English word that is used to express a possibility, as in “It might rain.”

(See also: Almighty, miracle, power, strength)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:22
- Genesis 6:4
- Mark 9:38-39
- Matthew 11:23

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0046, H0047, H0117, H0202, H0386, H0410, H0430, H0533, H0650, H1219, H1368, H1369, H1396, H1397, H1419, H2220, H2389, H2428, H3201, H3524, H3581, H3966, H4101, H5794, H5797, H6099, H6105, H6108, H6184, H7227, H7580, H8623, H8624, G14110, G14150, G14980, G24780, G24790, G29000, G29040, G31670, G31730

Matthew References:

3:11

mind, mindful, remind, reminder, likeminded

Definition:

The term “mind” refers to the part of a person that thinks and makes decisions.

- The mind of each person is the total of his or her thoughts and reasoning.
- To “have the mind of Christ” means to be thinking and acting as Jesus Christ would think and act. It means being obedient to God the Father, obeying the teachings of Christ, being enabled to do this through the power of the Holy Spirit.
- To “change his mind” means someone made a different decision or had a different opinion than he had previously.

Translation Suggestions

- The term “mind” could also be translated as “thoughts” or “reasoning” or “thinking” or “understanding.”
- The expression “keep in mind” could be translated as “remember” or “pay attention to this” or “be sure to know this.”
- The expression “heart, soul, and mind” could also be translated as “what you feel, what you believe, and what you think about.”
- The expression “call to mind” could be translated as “remember” or “think about.”
- The expression “changed his mind and went” could also be translated as “decided differently and went” or “decided to go after all” or “changed his opinion and went.”
- The expression “double-minded” could also be translated as “doubting” or “unable to decide” or “with conflicting thoughts.”

(See also: believe, heart, soul)

Bible References:

- Luke 10:27
- Mark 6:51-52
- Matthew 21:29
- Matthew 22:37
- James 4:8

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3629, H3820, H3824, H5162, H7725, G12710, G13740, G33280, G35250, G35400, G35630, G49930, G55900

Matthew References:

16:23; 22:37

miracle, wonder, sign

Definition:

A “miracle” is something amazing that is not possible unless God causes it to happen.

- Examples of miracles that Jesus did include calming a storm and healing a blind man.
- Miracles are sometimes called “wonders” because they cause people to be filled with wonder or amazement.
- The term “wonder” can also refer more generally to amazing displays of God’s power, such as when he created the heavens and the earth.
- Miracles can also be called “signs” because they are used as indicators or evidence that God is the all-powerful one who has complete authority over the universe.
- Some miracles were God’s acts of redemption, such as when he rescued the Israelites from being slaves in Egypt and when he protected Daniel from being hurt by lions.
- Other wonders were God’s acts of judgment, such as when he sent a worldwide flood in Noah’s time and when he brought terrible plagues on the land of Egypt during the time of Moses.
- Many of God’s miracles were the physical healings of sick people or bringing dead people back to life.
- God’s power was shown in Jesus when he healed people, calmed storms, walked on water, and raised people from the dead. These were all miracles.
- God also enabled the prophets and the apostles to perform miracles of healing and other things that were only possible through God’s power.

Translation Suggestions:

- Possible translations of “miracles” or “wonders” could include “impossible things that God does” or “powerful works of God” or “amazing acts of God.”
- The frequent expression “signs and wonders” could be translated as “proofs and miracles” or “miraculous works that prove God’s power” or “amazing miracles that show how great God is.”
- Note that this meaning of a miraculous sign is different from a sign that gives proof or evidence for something. The two can be related.

(See also: power, prophet, apostle, sign)

Bible References:

- 2 Thessalonians 2:8-10
- Acts 4:17

- Acts 4:22
- Daniel 4:1-3
- Deuteronomy 13:1
- Exodus 3:19-22
- John 2:11
- Matthew 13:58

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 16:8 Gideon asked God for two signs so he could be sure that God would use him to save Israel.
- 19:14 God did many miracles through Elisha.
- 37:10 Many of the Jews believed in Jesus because of this miracle.
- 43:6 “Men of Israel, Jesus was a man who did many mighty signs and wonders by the power of God, as you have seen and already know.”
- 49:2 Jesus did many miracles that prove he is God. He walked on water, calmed storms, healed many sick people, drove out demons, raised the dead to life, and turned five loaves of bread and two small fish into enough food for over 5,000 people.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0226, H0852, H2368, H2858, H4150, H4159, H4864, H5251, H5824, H5953, H6381, H6382, H6383, H6395, H6725, H7560, H7583, H8047, H8074, H8539, H8540, G08800, G12130, G12290, G14110, G15690, G17180, G17700, G18390, G22850, G22960, G22970, G31670, G39020, G45910, G45920, G50590

Matthew References:

7:22; 11:20; 11:21; 11:23; 13:54; 13:58; 21:15

mock, mocker, mockery, ridicule, scoff at, laughingstock

Definition:

The terms “mock,” “ridicule,” and “scoff at” all refer to making fun of someone, especially in a cruel way.

- Mocking often involves imitating people’s words or actions with the intent to embarrass them or show contempt for them.
- The Roman soldiers mocked or ridiculed Jesus when they put a robe on him and pretended to honor him as king.
- A group of young people ridiculed or scoffed at Elisha when they called him a name, making fun of his bald head.
- The term “scoff at” can also refer to ridiculing an idea that is not considered believable or important.
- A “mocker” is someone who mocks and ridicules consistently.

Bible References:

- 2 Peter 3:4
- Acts 2:12-13
- Galatians 6:6-8
- Genesis 39:13-15
- Luke 22:63-65
- Mark 10:34
- Matthew 9:23-24
- Matthew 20:19
- Matthew 27:29

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 21:12 Isaiah prophesied that people would spit on, mock, and beat the Messiah.
- 39:5 The Jewish leaders all answered the high priest, “He deserves to die!” Then they blindfolded Jesus, spit on him, hit him, and mocked him.
- 39:12 The soldiers whipped Jesus, and put a royal robe and a crown made of thorns on him. Then they mocked him by saying, “Look, the King of the Jews!”

- 40:4 Jesus was crucified between two robbers. One of them mocked Jesus, but the other said, “Do you have no fear of God?”
- 40:5 The Jewish leaders and the other people in the crowd mocked Jesus. They said to him, “If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross and save yourself! Then we will believe you.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1422, H2048, H2049, H2778, H2781, H3213, H3887, H3931, H3932, H3933, H3934, H3944, H3945, H4167, H4485, H4912, H5058, H5607, H6026, H6711, H7046, H7048, H7814, H7832, H8103, H8148, H8437, H8595, G15920, G17010, G17020, G17030, G23010, G26060, G34560, G55120

Matthew References:

20:19; 27:29; 27:31; 27:41

Moses

Definition:

Moses was a prophet and leader of the Israelite people for over 40 years. He was the leader of the Israelite people when they came out of Egypt, as described in the book of Exodus.

- When Moses was a baby, Moses' parents put him in a basket in the reeds of the Nile River to hide him from the Egyptian Pharaoh. Moses' sister Miriam watched over him there. Moses' life was spared when the pharaoh's daughter found him and took him to the palace to raise him as her son.
- God chose Moses to free the Israelites from slavery in Egypt and to lead them to the Promised Land.
- After the Israelites' escape from Egypt and while they were wandering in the desert, God gave Moses two stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them.
- Near the end of his life, Moses saw the Promised Land, but did not get to live in it, because he disobeyed God.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Miriam, Promised Land, Ten Commandments)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:21
- Acts 7:30
- Exodus 2:10
- Exodus 9:1
- Matthew 17:4
- Romans 5:14

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 9:12 One day while Moses was taking care of his sheep, he saw a bush that was on fire.
- 12:5 Moses told the Israelites, "Stop being afraid! God will fight for you today and save you."
- 12:7 God told Moses to raise his hand over the sea and divide the waters.

- 12:12 When the Israelites saw that the Egyptians were dead, they trusted in God and believed that Moses was a prophet of God.
- 13:7 Then God wrote these Ten Commandments on two stone tablets and gave them to Moses.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H4872, H4873, G34750

Matthew References:

8:4; 17:3; 17:4; 19:7; 19:8; 22:24; 23:2

Mount of Olives

Definition:

The Mount of Olives is a mountain or large hill located near the east side of the city of Jerusalem. It is about 787 meters high.

- In the Old Testament, this mountain is sometimes referred to as “the mountain that is east of Jerusalem.”
- The New Testament records several occasions when Jesus and his disciples went to the Mount of Olives to pray and rest.
- Jesus was arrested in the Garden of Gethsemane, which is located on the Mount of Olives.
- This could also be translated as “Olive Hill” or “Olive Tree Mountain.”

(See also: Translate Names)

(See also: Gethsemane, olive)

Bible References:

- Luke 19:29
- Luke 19:37
- Mark 13:3
- Matthew 21:1-3
- Matthew 24:3-5
- Matthew 26:30

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2022, H2132, G37350, G16360

Matthew References:

21:1; 24:3; 26:30

mourn, mourner, weeping

Definition:

The terms “mourn” and “mourning” refer to expressing deep grief, usually in response to the death of someone.

- In many cultures, mourning includes specific outward behaviors that show this sadness and grief.
- The Israelites and other people groups in ancient times expressed mourning through loud wailing and lamenting. They also wore rough clothing made of sackcloth and put ashes on themselves.
- Hired mourners, usually women, would loudly weep and wail from the time of death until well after the body was put in the tomb.
- The typical period of mourning was seven days, but could last as long as thirty days (as for Moses and Aaron) or seventy days (as for Jacob).
- The Bible also uses the term figuratively to talk about “mourning” because of sin. This refers to feeling deeply grieved because sin hurts God and people.

(See also: sackcloth, sin)

Bible References:

- 1 Samuel 15:34-35
- 2 Samuel 1:11
- Genesis 23:2
- Luke 7:31-32
- Matthew 11:17

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0056, H0057, H0060, H0205, H0578, H0584, H0585, H1058, H1065, H1068, H1671, H1897, H1899, H4553, H4798, H5092, H5098, H5110, H5594, H6937, H6941, H8386, G23540, G28750, G36020, G39960, G39970

Matthew References:

2:18; 5:4; 9:15; 24:30

multiply, multiplied, multiplication

Definition:

The term “multiply” means to greatly increase in number. It can also mean to cause something to increase in amount, such as causing pain to multiply.

- God told animals and human beings to “multiply” and fill the earth. This was a command to reproduce many more of their own kind.
- Jesus made the bread and fish multiply in order to feed the 5,000 people. The amount of food kept increasing so that there was more than enough food to feed everyone.
- Depending on the context, this term could also be translated as “increase” or “cause to increase” or “greatly increase in number” or “become greater in number” or “become more numerous.”
- The phrase “greatly multiply your pain” could also be translated as “cause your pain to become more severe” or “cause you to experience much more pain.”
- To “multiply horses” means to “greedily keep acquiring more horses” or to “get large numbers of horses.”

Bible References:

- Deuteronomy 8:1
- Genesis 9:7
- Genesis 22:17
- Hosea 4:6-7

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3254, H3527, H6280, H7231, H7233, H7235, H7680, G40520, G41290

Matthew References:

24:12

myrrh

Definition:

Myrrh is an oil or spice that is made from the resin of a myrrh tree that grows in Africa and Asia. It is related to frankincense.

- Myrrh was also used to make incense, perfume, and medicine, and to prepare dead bodies for burial.
- Myrrh was one of the gifts that the learned men gave to Jesus when he was born.
- Jesus was offered wine mixed with myrrh in order to ease the pain when he was crucified.

(See also: frankincense, learned men)

Bible References:

- Exodus 30:22-25
- Genesis 37:25-26
- John 11:1-2
- Mark 15:23
- Matthew 2:11-12

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3910, H4753, G34640, G46660, G46690

Matthew References:

2:11

mystery, hidden truth

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “mystery” refers to something that we cannot know or understand unless God reveals it or explains it to us.

- The New Testament states that the gospel of Christ was a mystery that was not known in past ages.
- One of the specific points described as a mystery is that Jews and Gentiles would be equal in Christ.
- This term could also be translated as “secret” or “hidden truth” or “previously unknown thing.”

(See also: Christ, Gentile, good news, Jew, true)

Bible References:

- Colossians 4:2-4
- Ephesians 6:19-20
- Luke 8:9-10
- Mark 4:10-12
- Matthew 13:11

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1219, H7328, G34660

Matthew References:

13:11

Naphtali

Definition:

Naphtali was Jacob's sixth son. He was Bilhah's second son. His descendants became one of the tribes of Israel.

- The tribe descended from him was known as the "tribe of Naphtali" or "Naphtali" or "Naphtalites."
- The name Naphtali is similar to the Hebrew word meaning "to twist, wrestle."
- The tribe of Naphtali settled in the northern part of Canaan, between the tribes of Manassah and Asher. Its eastern border was on the western shoreline of the Sea of Chinnereth. When used as the name of a region of land, the term "Naphtali" refers to the land given to the tribe of Naphtali.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: twelve tribes of Israel, Jacob, Bilhah)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 4:15
- Deuteronomy 27:13-14
- Ezekiel 48:1-3
- Genesis 30:8
- Judges 1:33
- Matthew 4:13

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5321, G35080

Matthew References:

4:13; 4:15

nation

Definition:

In the Bible, a nation is a large group of people who share a common identity and speak the same language. The people of a nation often have the same ancestors and share a common ethnicity.

- In the Bible, a nation could be a country with an extensive government structure and defined boundaries (such as Egypt or Ethiopia), but usually it is more general and refers to a people group.
- Nations in the Bible included the Israelites, the Philistines, the Assyrians, the Babylonians, the Canaanites, the Romans, and the Greeks, among many others.
- Sometimes the word "nation" was used figuratively to refer to the ancestor of a certain people group, as when Rebekah was told by God that her unborn sons were "nations" that would fight against each other. This could be translated as "the founders of two nations" or the "ancestors of two people groups."
- When used in the plural in a general way, the word translated as "nations" often referred to the people who were not Israelites, that is, to Gentiles, the people who do not worship Yahweh. The context usually makes the meaning clear.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the word "nation" could also be translated as "people group" or "people" or "country."
- If a language has a term for "nation" that is distinct from these other terms, then that term can be used wherever it occurs in the Bible text, as long as it is natural and accurate in each context.
- The plural term "nations" can often be translated as "people groups."
- In certain contexts, this term could also be translated as "Gentiles" or "non-Jews."

(See also: Assyria, Babylon, Canaan, Gentile, Greek, people group, Philistines, Rome)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 14:15-17
- 2 Chronicles 15:6
- 2 Kings 17:11-12
- Acts 2:5

- Acts 13:19
- Acts 17:26
- Acts 26:4
- Daniel 3:4
- Genesis 10:2-5
- Genesis 27:29
- Genesis 35:11
- Genesis 49:10
- Luke 7:5
- Mark 13:7-8
- Matthew 21:43
- Romans 4:16-17

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0523, H0524, H0776, H1471, H3816, H4940, H5971, G02460, G10740, G10850, G14840

Matthew References:

21:43; 24:7; 24:9; 24:14; 25:32; 28:19

Nazareth, Nazarene

Definition:

Nazareth is a town in the region of Galilee in northern Israel. It is about 100 kilometers north of Jerusalem, and it takes about three to five days to travel there on foot.

- Joseph and Mary were from Nazareth, and this is where they raised Jesus. That is why Jesus was known as "the Nazarene."
- Many of the Jews living in Nazareth did not respect Jesus' teaching because he had grown up among them, and they thought he was just an ordinary person.
- Once, when Jesus was teaching in the synagogue at Nazareths, the Jews there tried to kill him because he claimed to be the Messiah and had rebuked them for rejecting him.
- The remark Nathaniel made when he heard that Jesus was from Nazareth indicated that this city was not thought of very highly.

(See also: Christ, Galilee, Joseph (NT), Mary)

Bible References:

- Acts 26:9-11
- John 1:43-45
- Luke 1:26-29
- Mark 16:5-7
- Matthew 2:23
- Matthew 21:9-11
- Matthew 26:71-72

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 23:4 Joseph and Mary had to make a long journey from where they lived in Nazareth to Bethlehem because their ancestor was David whose hometown was Bethlehem.
- 26:2 Jesus went to the town of Nazareth where he had lived during his childhood.
- 26:7 The people of Nazareth dragged Jesus out of the place of worship and brought him to the edge of a cliff to throw him off of it in order to kill him.

Word Data:

- Strong's: G34780, G34790, G34800

Matthew References:

2:23; 4:13; 21:11; 26:71

neighbor, neighborhood, neighboring

Definition:

The term “neighbor” usually refers to a person who lives nearby. It can also refer more generally to someone who lives in the same community or people group.

- A “neighbor” is someone who would be protected and treated kindly because he is part of the same community.
- In the New Testament parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus used the term “neighbor” figuratively, expanding its meaning to include all human beings, even someone who is considered an enemy.
- If possible, it is best to translate this term literally with a word or phrase that means “person who lives nearby.”

(See also: adversary, parable, people group, Samaria)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:26-28
- Ephesians 4:25-27
- Galatians 5:14
- James 2:8
- John 9:8-9
- Luke 1:58
- Matthew 5:43
- Matthew 19:19
- Matthew 22:39

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5997, H7138, H7453, H7468, H7934, G10690, G20870, G40400, G41390

Matthew References:

5:43; 19:19; 22:39

Nineveh, Ninevite

Definition:

Nineveh was the capital city of Assyrian empire. A “Ninevite” was a person who lived in Nineveh.

- God sent the prophet Jonah to warn the Ninevites to turn from their wicked ways. The people stopped acting so violently and God did not destroy them at that time.
- The prophets Nahum and Zephaniah both prophesied that God would destroy Nineveh as judgment for their sin.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Assyria, Jonah, repent, turn)

Bible References:

- Genesis 10:11-14
- Jonah 1:3
- Jonah 3:3
- Luke 11:32
- Matthew 12:41

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5210, G35350, G35360

Matthew References:

12:41

Noah

Definition:

Noah was a man who lived over 4,000 years ago, at the time when God sent a worldwide flood to destroy all the evil people in the world. God told Noah to build a gigantic ark in which he and his family could live while the flood waters covered the earth.

- Noah was a righteous man who obeyed God in everything.
- When God told Noah how to build the gigantic ark, Noah built it exactly the way God told him to.
- Inside the ark, Noah and his family were kept safe, and later their children and grandchildren filled the earth with people again.
- Everyone born since the time of the flood is a descendant of Noah.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: descendant, ark)

Bible References:

- Genesis 5:30-31
- Genesis 5:32
- Genesis 6:8
- Genesis 8:1
- Hebrews 11:7
- Matthew 24:37

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 3:2 But Noah found favor with God.
- 3:4 Noah obeyed God. He and his three sons built the boat just the way God had told them.
- 3:13 Two months later God said to Noah, “You and your family and all the animals may leave the boat now. Have many children and grandchildren and fill the earth.” So Noah and his family came out of the boat.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5146, G35750

Matthew References:

24:37; 24:38

oath, vow, swear, swearing, swear by, sworn

Definition:

The term “oath” in the Bible refers to a formal promise, usually made in a legal or religious context, in which the person making the oath accepts some kind of accountability or punishment if he does not fulfill his promise. In the Bible, the term “swear” means to make an oath. A “vow” is a solemn promise or oath that a person makes to God.

- In a court of law, a witness often gives an oath to promise that whatever he says will be true and factual.
- In modern times, one meaning of the word “swear” is to use foul or vulgar language. This is never its meaning in the Bible.
- The term “swear by” means to use the name of something or someone as the basis or power on which the oath is made.
- Abraham and Abimelech swore an oath when they made a covenant together concerning the use of a well.
- Abraham told his servant to swear (formally promise) that he would find Isaac a wife from among Abraham’s relatives.
- God also made oaths in which he made promises to his people.
- If a person in ancient Israel made a vow to God, that person was obligated to fulfill the vow. The ancient Israelites believed that God might punish a person who did not fulfill a vow that he made.
- In ancient Israel, sometimes a person would ask God to protect him or provide for him in exchange for making the vow. However, the ancient Israelites did not believe that God was obligated to fulfill these requests.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “an oath” could also be translated as “a pledge” or “a solemn promise.”
- To “swear” could be translated as to “formally promise” or to “pledge” or to “commit to do something.”
- Other ways to translate “swear by my name” could include “make a promise using my name to confirm it.”
- To “swear by heaven and earth” could be translated as to, “promise to do something, stating that heaven and earth will confirm it.”
- Make sure the translation of “swear” or “oath” does not refer to cursing. In the Bible it does not have that meaning.

- Depending on the context, the term “vow” can be translated as “solemn promise” or “solemn oath” or “promise made to God.”

(See also: Abimelech, covenant, promise)

Bible References:

- Genesis 21:23
- Genesis 24:3
- Genesis 31:51-53
- Genesis 47:31
- Luke 1:73
- Mark 6:26
- Matthew 5:36
- Matthew 14:6-7
- Matthew 26:72
- 1 Corinthians 7:27-28
- Acts 21:23
- Genesis 28:21
- Genesis 31:12-13
- Jonah 1:14-16
- Jonah 2:9-10
- Proverbs 7:14

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0422, H0423, H3027, H5375, H7621, H7650, G03320, G36600, G37270, G37280, H5087, H5088, G21710

Matthew References:

5:33; 5:34; 5:36; 14:7; 14:9; 23:16; 23:18; 23:20; 23:21; 23:22; 26:72; 26:74 oil

Definition:

Oil is a thick, clear liquid that can be taken from certain plants. In Bible times, oil usually came from olives.

- Olive oil was used for cooking, anointing, sacrifice, lamps, and medicine.
- In ancient times, olive oil was highly prized, and the possession of oil was considered a measurement of wealth.
- Make sure the translation of this term refers to the kind of oil that can be used in cooking, not motor oil. Some languages have different words for these different kinds of oil.

(See also: olive, sacrifice)

Bible References:

- 2 Samuel 1:21
- Exodus 29:2
- Leviticus 5:11
- Leviticus 8:1-3
- Mark 6:12-13
- Matthew 25:7-9

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2091, H3323, H4887, H6671, H7246, H8081, G16370, G34640

Matthew References:

25:3; 25:4; 25:8; 26:intro; 26:7; 26:12

olive

Definition:

The olive is the small, oval fruit from an olive tree, which is mostly grown in the regions surrounding the Mediterranean Sea.

- Olive trees are a type of large evergreen shrub with tiny white flowers. They grow best in hot weather and can survive well with little water.
- The olive tree's fruit starts out green and changes to black as they ripen. Olives were useful for food and for the oil that could be extracted from them.
- Olive oil was used for cooking in lamps and for religious ceremonies.
- In the Bible, olive trees and branches are sometimes used figuratively to refer to people.

(See also: lamp, the sea, Mount of Olives)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 27:28-29
- Deuteronomy 6:10-12
- Exodus 23:10-11
- Genesis 8:11
- James 3:12
- Luke 16:6
- Psalms 52:8

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2132, H3323, H8081, G00650, G16360, G16370, G25650

Matthew References:

24:3; 26:30

ordain, ordained, ordination, planned long ago, set up, prepared

Definition:

To ordain means to formally appoint a person for a special task or role. It also means to formally make a rule or decree.

- The term “ordain” often refers to formally appointing somebody as a priest, minister, or rabbi.
- For example, God ordained Aaron and his descendants to be priests.
- It can also mean to institute or establish something, such as a religious feast or covenant.
- Depending on the context, to “ordain” could be translated as to “assign” or to “appoint” or to “command” or to “make a rule” or to “institute.”

(See also: command, covenant, decree, law, law, priest)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 12:31-32
- 2 Samuel 17:13-14
- Exodus 28:40-41
- Numbers 3:3
- Psalms 111:7-9

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3245, H4390, H6186, H6213, H6680, H7760, H8239, G12990, G25250, G42700, G42820

Matthew References:

21:16

parable

Definition:

The term “parable” usually refers to a short story or object lesson that is used to explain or teach a moral truth.

- Jesus used parables to teach his disciples. Although he also told parables to the crowds of people, he did not always explain the parable.
- A parable could be used to reveal truth to his disciples while hiding that truth from people like the Pharisees who did not believe in Jesus.
- The prophet Nathan told David a parable to show the king his terrible sin.
- The story of the Good Samaritan is an example of a parable that is a story. Jesus’ comparison of old and new wineskins is an example of a parable that was an object lesson to help the disciples understand Jesus’ teachings.

(See also: Samaria)

Bible References:

- Luke 5:36
- Luke 6:39
- Luke 8:4
- Luke 8:9-10
- Mark 4:1
- Matthew 13:3
- Matthew 13:10
- Matthew 13:13

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1819, H4912, G38500, G39420

Matthew References:

13:3; 13:10; 13:13; 13:18; 13:24; 13:31; 13:33; 13:34; 13:35; 13:36; 13:53; 15:15; 21:33; 21:45; 22:1; 24:32

Passover

Definition:

The “Passover” is the name of a religious festival that the Jews celebrate every year, to remember how God rescued their ancestors, the Israelites, from slavery in Egypt.

- The name of this festival comes from the fact that God “passed over” the houses of the Israelites and did not kill their sons when he killed the firstborn sons of the Egyptians.
- The Passover celebration includes a special meal of a perfect lamb that they have killed and roasted, as well as bread made without yeast. These foods remind them of the meal that the Israelites ate the night before they escaped from Egypt.
- God told the Israelites to eat this meal every year in order to remember and celebrate how God “passed over” their houses and how he set them free from slavery in Egypt.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “Passover” could be translated by combining the words “pass” and “over” or another combination of words that has this meaning.
- It is helpful if the name of this festival has a clear connection to the words used to explain what the angel of the Lord did in passing by the houses of the Israelites and sparing their sons.

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 5:7
- 2 Chronicles 30:13-15
- 2 Kings 23:23
- Deuteronomy 16:2
- Exodus 12:26-28
- Ezra 6:21-22
- John 13:1
- Joshua 5:10-11
- Leviticus 23:4-6
- Numbers 9:3

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 12:14 God commanded the Israelites to remember his victory over the Egyptians and their deliverance from slavery by celebrating the Passover every year.
- 38:1 Every year, the Jews celebrated the Passover. This was a celebration of how God had saved their ancestors from slavery in Egypt many centuries earlier.
- 38:4 Jesus celebrated the Passover with his disciples.
- 48:9 When God saw the blood, he passed over their houses and did not kill their firstborn sons. This event is called the Passover.
- 48:10 Jesus is our Passover Lamb. He was perfect and sinless and was killed at the time of the Passover celebration.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H6453, G39570

Matthew References:

26:2; 26:17; 26:18; 26:19

patient, patience, impatient

Definition:

The terms “patient” and “patience” refer to persevering through difficult circumstances. Often patience involves waiting.

- When people are patient with someone, it means they are loving that person and forgiving whatever faults that person has.
- The Bible teaches God’s people to be patient when facing difficulties and to be patient with each other.
- Because of his mercy, God is patient with people, even though they are sinners who deserve to be punished.

(See also: endure, forgive, persevere)

Bible References:

- 1 Peter 3:20
- 2 Peter 3:8-9
- Hebrews 6:11-12
- Matthew 18:28-29
- Psalms 37:7
- Revelation 2:2

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0750, H0753, H2342, H3811, H6960, H7114, G04200, G04630, G19330, G31140, G31150, G31160, G52780, G52810

Matthew References:

18:26; 18:29

peace, peaceful, peacemaker

Definition:

The term “peace” refers to a state of being or a feeling of having no conflict, anxiety, or fearfulness. A person who is “peaceful” feels calm and assured of being safe and secure.

- In the Old Testament, the term “peace” often means a general sense of a person’s welfare, wellness, or wholeness.
- “Peace” can also refer to a time when people groups or countries are not at war with each other. These people are said to have “peaceful relations.”
- To “make peace” with a person or a group of people means to take actions to cause fighting to stop.
- A “peacemaker” is someone who does and says things to influence people to live at peace with each other.
- To be “at peace” with other people means being in a state of not fighting against those people.
- A good or right relationship between God and people happens when God saves people from their sin. This is called having “peace with God.”
- The greeting “grace and peace” was used by the apostles in their letters to their fellow believers as a blessing.
- The term “peace” can also refer to being in a good relationship with other people or with God.

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 5:1-3
- Acts 7:26
- Colossians 1:18-20
- Colossians 3:15
- Galatians 5:23
- Luke 7:50
- Luke 12:51
- Mark 4:39
- Matthew 5:9
- Matthew 10:13

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 15:6 God had commanded the Israelites not to make a peace treaty with any of the people groups in Canaan.
- 15:12 Then God gave Israel peace along all its borders.
- 16:3 Then God provided a deliverer who rescued them from their enemies and brought peace to the land.
- 21:13 He (Messiah) would die to receive the punishment for other people's sin. His punishment would bring peace between God and people.
- 48:14 David was the king of Israel, but Jesus is the king of the entire universe! He will come again and rule his kingdom with justice and peace, forever.
- 50:17 Jesus will rule his kingdom with peace and justice, and he will be with his people forever.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5117, H7961, H7962, H7965, H7999, H8001, H8002, H8003, H8252, G02690, G15140, G15150, G15160, G15170, G15180, G22720

Matthew References:

10:13; 10:34

people of God

Definition:

The concept of the “people of God” in the Bible refers to people with whom God has established a covenant relationship.

- In the Old Testament, the phrase “people of God” refers to the nation of Israel. The nation of Israel was chosen by God and set apart from the other nations of the world in order to serve and obey him.
- In the New Testament, the phrase “people of God” refers to the “Church,” meaning everyone who believes in Jesus. This includes both Jews and Gentiles. In the New Testament, sometimes this group of people is called the “sons of God” or “children of God.”
- When God uses the phrase “my people,” he is referring to people who have a covenant relationship with him. God’s people are chosen by him, and he wants them to live in a way that is pleasing to him.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “people of God” could be translated as “God’s people” or “the people who worship God” or “people who serve God” or “people who belong to God.”
- When God says “my people” other ways to translate it could include “the people I have chosen” or “the people who worship me” or “the people who belong to me.”
- Similarly, “your people” could be translated as “the people who belong to you” or “the people you chose to belong to you.”
- Also “his people” could be translated as “the people who belong to him” or “the people God chose to belong to himself.”

(See also: Israel, people group)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 11:2
- Acts 7:34
- Acts 7:51-53
- Acts 10:36-38
- Daniel 9:24-25
- Isaiah 2:5-6

- Jeremiah 6:20-22
- Joel 3:16-17
- Micah 6:3-5
- Revelation 13:7-8

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0430, H5971, G23160, G29920

Matthew References:

1:21

perfect, complete

Definition:

In the New Testament, the term “perfect” means to be mature in our Christian life. To perfect something means to work at it until it is excellent and without flaws. Old Testament sacrifices needed to be “perfect” or “complete,” that is, without blemish.

- Being perfect and mature means that a Christian is obedient, not sinless.
- The term “perfect” also has the meaning of being “complete” or “whole.”
- The New Testament book of James states that persevering through trials will produce completeness and maturity in the believer.
- When Christians study the Bible and obey it, they will become more spiritually perfect and mature because they will be more like Christ in their character.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated as “without flaw” or “without error” or “flawless” or “without fault” or “not having any faults.”

(See also: blemish)

Bible References:

- Hebrews 12:2
- James 3:2
- Matthew 5:46-48
- Psalms 19:7-8

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3632, H3634, H4359, H8003, H8503, H8537, H8549, H8552, G01990, G26750, G26760, G36470, G50460, G50470, G50480, G50500

Matthew References:

5:48; 19:21

perish

Definition:

The term “perish” means to die or be destroyed, usually as the result of violence or disaster. In the New Testament, it often has the spiritual meaning of being lost or separated from the people of God.

Spiritual Meaning of “Perish:”

- People who are “perishing” are those who have refused to trust in Jesus for their salvation.
- Those who “perish” will not live eternally with God in heaven. Instead, they will live eternally in hell under God’s punishment.
- Everyone will die physically, but only those who do not trust in Jesus for their salvation will perish eternally.
- When “perish” is used in a spiritual sense, make sure that your translation expresses this differently than dying physically.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate this term could include “be lost from God’s people,” “die eternally,” “be punished in hell,” or “be destroyed.”
- Try to use a term or expression that does not only mean “die physically” or “cease to exist.”

(See also: death, everlasting)

Bible References:

- 1 Peter 1:23
- 2 Corinthians 2:16-17
- 2 Thessalonians 2:10
- Jeremiah 18:18
- Psalms 49:18-20
- Zechariah 9:5-7
- Zechariah 13:8

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0006, H0007, H0008, H1478, H1820, H1826, H5486, H5595, H6544, H8045, G05990, G06220, G06840, G08530, G13110, G27040, G48810, G53560

Matthew References:

5:29; 5:30; 8:25; 8:32; 9:17; 10:6; 10:28; 10:39; 10:42; 15:24; 16:25; 18:14; 21:41; 22:7; 26:52

persecute

Definition:

The terms “persecute” and “persecution” refer to continually treating a person or a certain group of people in a harsh way that causes harm to them.

- Persecution can be against one person or many people and usually involves repeated, persistent attacks.
- The Israelites were persecuted by many different people groups Who attacked them, captured them, and stole things from them.
- People often persecute other people who have different religious beliefs or who are weaker.
- The Jewish religious leaders persecuted Jesus because they did not like what he was teaching.
- After Jesus went back to heaven, the Jewish religious leaders and the Roman government persecuted his followers.
- The term “persecute” could also be translated as “keep oppressing” or “treat harshly” or “continually mistreat.”
- Ways to translate “persecution” could include, “harsh mistreatment” or “oppression” or “persistent hurtful treatment”

(See also: Christian, church, oppress, Rome)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:52
- Acts 13:50
- Galatians 1:13-14
- John 5:16-18
- Mark 10:30
- Matthew 5:10
- Matthew 5:43-45
- Matthew 10:22
- Matthew 13:20-21
- Philippians 3:6

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 33:7 “The rocky ground is a person who hears God’s word and accepts it with joy. But when he experiences hardship or persecution, he falls away.”
- 45:6 That day many people in Jerusalem started persecuting the followers of Jesus, so the believers fled to other places.
- 46:2 Saul heard someone say, “Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?” Saul asked, “Who are you, Master?” Jesus replied to him, “I am Jesus. You are persecuting me!”
- 46:4 But Ananias said, “Master, I have heard how this man has persecuted the believers.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1814, H7291, H7852, G13750, G13760, G13770, G15590, G23470

Matthew References:

5:10; 5:11; 5:12; 5:44; 10:23; 13:21; 23:34

perverse, perversion, pervert, depraved, malicious, devious, dishonest, distortion

Definition:

The term “perverse” is used to describe a person or action that is morally crooked or twisted. The term “perversely” means “in a perverse manner.” To “pervert” something means to twist it or turn it away from what is right or good.

- Someone or something that is perverse has deviated from what is good and right.
- In the Bible, the Israelites acted perversely when they disobeyed God. They often did this by worshiping false gods.
- Any action which is against God’s standards or behavior is considered perverse.
- Ways to translate “perverse” could include “morally twisted” or “immoral” or “turning away from God’s straight path,” depending on the context.
- “Perverse speech” could be translated as “speaking in an evil way” or “deceitful talk” or “immoral way of talking.”
- “Perverse people” could be described as “immoral people” or “people who are morally deviant” or “people who continually disobey God.”
- The phrase “acting perversely” could be translated as “behaving in an evil way” or “doing things against God’s commands” or “living in a way that rejects God’s teachings.”
- The term “pervert” could also be translated as “cause to be corrupt” or “turn into something evil.”

(See also: corrupt, deceive, disobey, evil, turn)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 8:47
- 1 Samuel 20:30
- Job 33:27-28
- Luke 23:2
- Psalms 101:4-6

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1942, H2015, H3868, H4297, H5186, H5557, H5558, H5753, H5766, H5773, H5791, H6140, H6141, H8138, H8397, H8419, G12940

Matthew References:

17:17

Peter, Simon Peter, Cephas

Definition:

Peter was one of Jesus' twelve apostles. He was an important leader of the early Church.

- Before Jesus called him to be his disciple, Peter's name was Simon.
- Later, Jesus also named him "Cephas," which means "stone" or "rock" in the Aramaic language. The name Peter also means "stone" or "rock" in the Greek language.
- God worked through Peter to heal people and to preach the good news about Jesus.
- Two books in the New Testament are letters that Peter wrote to encourage and teach fellow believers.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: disciple, apostle)

Bible References:

- Acts 8:25
- Galatians 2:6-8
- Galatians 2:12
- Luke 22:58
- Mark 3:16
- Matthew 4:18-20
- Matthew 8:14
- Matthew 14:30
- Matthew 26:33-35

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 28:9 Peter said to Jesus, "We have left everything and followed you. What will be our reward?"
- 29:1 One day Peter asked Jesus, "Master, how many times should I forgive my brother when he sins against me? As many as seven times?"
- 31:5 Then Peter said to Jesus, "Master, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." Jesus told Peter, "Come!"
- 36:1 One day, Jesus took three of his disciples, Peter, James, and John with him.

- 38:9 Peter replied, “Even if all the others abandon you, I will not!” Then Jesus said to Peter, “Satan wants to have all of you, but I have prayed for you, Peter, that your faith will not fail. Even so, tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny that you even know me three times.”
- 38:15 As the soldiers arrested Jesus, Peter pulled out his sword and cut off the ear of the servant of the high priest.
- 43:11 Peter answered them, “Every one of you should repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ so that God will forgive your sins.”
- 44:8 Peter answered them, “This man stands before you healed by the power of Jesus the Messiah.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G27860, G40740, G46130

Matthew References:

4:18; 8:14; 10:2; 14:28; 14:29; 15:15; 16:16; 16:17; 16:18; 16:22; 16:23; 17:1; 17:4; 17:24; 17:25; 18:21; 19:27; 26:33; 26:35; 26:37; 26:40; 26:58; 26:69; 26:73; 26:75

Pharisee

Definition:

The Pharisees were an important, powerful group of Jewish religious leaders in Jesus' time.

- Many of them were middle class businessmen and some of them were also priests.
- Of all the Jewish leaders, the Pharisees were the most strict in obeying the Laws of Moses and other Jewish laws and traditions.
- They were very concerned about keeping the Jewish people separated from the influence of the Gentiles around them. The name "Pharisee" comes from the word to "separate."
- The Pharisees believed in life after death; they also believed in the existence of angels and other spiritual beings.
- The Pharisees and Sadducees actively opposed Jesus and the early Christians.

(See also: council, Jewish leaders, law, Sadducee)

Bible References:

- Acts 26:4
- John 3:1-2
- Luke 11:44
- Matthew 3:7
- Matthew 5:20
- Matthew 9:11
- Matthew 12:2
- Matthew 12:38
- Philippians 3:5

Word Data:

- Strong's: G53300

Matthew References:

3:7; 5:20; 9:11; 9:14; 9:34; 12:2; 12:14; 12:24; 12:38; 15:1; 15:12; 16:1; 16:6; 16:11; 16:12; 19:3; 21:45; 22:15; 22:34; 22:41; 23:2; 23:13; 23:15; 23:23; 23:25; 23:26; 23:27; 23:29; 27:62

Philip (the apostle)

Definition:

Philip the apostle was one of the original twelve disciples of Jesus. He was from the town of Bethsaida.

- Philip brought Nathanael to meet Jesus.
- Jesus questioned Philip about how to provide food for a crowd of over 5,000 people.
- At the last Passover supper that Jesus ate with his disciples, he talked to them about God, his Father. Philip asked Jesus to show them the Father.
- Some languages may prefer to spell this Philip's name in a different way from the other Philip (the evangelist) to avoid confusion.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Philip)

Bible References:

- Acts 1:14
- John 1:44
- John 6:6
- Luke 6:14
- Mark 3:17-19

Word Data:

- Strong's: G53760

Matthew References:

10:3

pig, pork, swine

Definition:

A pig is a type of four-legged, hoofed animal that is raised for meat. Its meat is called “pork.” The general term for pigs and related animals is “swine.”

- God told the Israelites not to eat pig meat and to consider it unclean. Jews today still view pigs as unclean and do not eat pork.
- Pigs are raised on farms to be sold to other people for their meat.
- There is a kind of swine that is not raised on farms but rather lives out in the wild; it is called a “wild boar.” Wild boars have tusks and are considered to be very dangerous animals.
- Sometimes large pigs are referred to as “hogs.”

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: clean)

Bible References:

- 2 Peter 2:22
- Mark 5:13
- Matthew 7:6
- Matthew 8:32

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2386, G55190

Matthew References:

7:6; 8:30; 8:31; 8:32

Pilate

Definition:

Pilate was the governor of the Roman province of Judea who sentenced Jesus to death.

- Because Pilate was the governor, he had the authority to put criminals to death.
- The Jewish religious leaders wanted Pilate to crucify Jesus, so they lied and said that Jesus was a criminal.
- Pilate realized that Jesus was not guilty, but he was afraid of the crowd and wanted to please them, so he ordered his soldiers to crucify Jesus.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: crucify, governor, guilt, Judea, Rome)

Bible References:

- Acts 4:27-28
- Acts 13:28
- Luke 23:2
- Mark 15:2
- Matthew 27:13
- Matthew 27:58

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 39:9 Early the next morning, the Jewish leaders brought Jesus to Pilate, the Roman governor. They hoped that Pilate would condemn Jesus as guilty and sentenced him to be killed. Pilate asked Jesus, “Are you the King of the Jews?”
- 39:10 Pilate said, “What is truth?”
- 39:11 After speaking with Jesus, Pilate went out to the crowd and said, “I find no guilt in this man.” But the Jewish leaders and the crowd shouted, “Crucify him!” Pilate replied, “He is not guilty.” But they shouted even louder. Then Pilate said a third time, “He is not guilty!”
- 39:12 Pilate became afraid that the crowd would begin to riot, so he ordered his soldiers to crucify Jesus.
- 40:2 Pilate commanded that a sign be put above Jesus’ head that read, “King of the Jews.”

- 41:2 Pilate said, “Take some soldiers and make the tomb as secure as you can.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G40910, G41940

Matthew References:

27:2; 27:13; 27:17; 27:22; 27:24; 27:58; 27:62; 27:65

pit, pitfall, trench, cistern

Definition:

A pit is a deep hole that has been dug in the ground.

- A “cistern” was a hole dug in order to hold water.
- People dig pits for the purpose of trapping animals or finding water.
- A pit can also be used as a temporary place to hold a prisoner.
- Sometimes the phrase “the pit” refers to the grave or to hell. Other times it may refer to “the abyss.”
- The term “pit” is also used figuratively in phrases such as, “pit of destruction” which describes being trapped in a disastrous situation or being deeply involved in sinful, destructive practices.

(See also: abyss, hell, prison)

Bible References:

- Genesis 37:21-22
- Job 33:18
- Luke 6:39
- Proverbs 1:12

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0875, H0953, H1356, H1475, H2352, H4087, H4113, H4379, H6354, H7585, H7745, H7816, H7825, H7845, H7882, G00120, G09990, G54210

Matthew References:

12:11; 15:14

possess, possessed, possession, dispossess

Definition:

The terms “possess” and “possession” usually refer to owning something. They can also mean to gain control over something or occupy an area of land.

- In the Old Testament, this term is often used in the context of “possessing” or “taking possession of” an area of land.
- When Yahweh commanded the Israelites to “possess” the land of Canaan, it meant that they should go into the land and live there. This involved first conquering the Canaanite peoples who were living on that land.
- Yahweh told the Israelites that he had given them the land of Canaan as “their possession.” This could also be translated as “their rightful place to live.”
- The people of Israel were also called Yahweh’s “special possession.” This means that they belonged to him as his people whom he had specifically called to worship and serve him.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “possess” could also be translated as “own” or “have” or “have charge over.”
- The phrase “take possession of” could be translated as “take control of” or “occupy” or “live on,” depending on the context.
- When referring to things that people own, “possessions” could be translated as “belongings” or “property” or “owned things” or “things they owned.”
- When Yahweh calls the Israelites, “my special possession” this could also be translated as “my special people” or “people who belong to me” or “my people whom I love and rule.”
- The sentence, “they will become their possession” when referring to land, means “they will occupy the land” or “the land will belong to them.”
- The expression, “found in his possession” could be translated as “that he was holding” or “that he had with him.”
- The phrase “as your possession” could also be translated as “as something that belongs to you” or “as a place where your people will live.”
- The phrase, “in his possession” could be translated as “that he owned” or “which belonged to him.”

(See also: Canaan, worship, inherit)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 6:70

- 1 Kings 9:17-19
- Acts 2:45
- Deuteronomy 4:5-6
- Genesis 31:36-37
- Matthew 13:44

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0270, H0272, H0834, H2505, H2631, H3027, H3423, H3424, H3425, H3426, H4180, H4181, H4672, H4735, H4736, H5157, H5159, H5459, H7069, G11390, G21920, G26970, G27220, G29320, G29330, G29350, G40470, G52240, G55640

Matthew References:

6:2; 6:5; 6:16; 19:21; 19:22; 21:38; 24:47; 25:14

praise, praised, praiseworthy

Definition:

To praise someone is to express admiration and honor for that person.

- People praise God because of how great he is and because of all the amazing things he has done as the Creator and Savior of the world.
- Praise for God often includes being thankful for what he has done.
- Music and singing is often used as a way to praise God.
- Praising God is part of what it means to worship him.
- The term to "praise" could also be translated as to "speak well of" or to "highly honor with words" or to "say good things about."
- The noun "praise" could be translated as "spoken honor" or "speech that honors" or "speaking good things about."

(See also: worship)

Bible References:

- 2 Corinthians 1:3
- Acts 2:47
- Acts 13:48
- Daniel 3:28
- Ephesians 1:3
- Genesis 49:8
- James 3:9-10
- John 5:41-42
- Luke 1:46
- Luke 1:64-66
- Luke 19:37-38
- Matthew 11:25-27
- Matthew 15:29-31

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 12:13 The Israelites sang many songs to celebrate their new freedom and to praise God because he saved them from the Egyptian army.
- 17:8 When David heard these words, he immediately thanked and praised God because he had promised David this great honor and many blessings.
- 22:7 Zechariah said, "Praise God, because he has remembered his people!"
- 43:13 They (disciples) enjoyed praising God together and they shared everything they had with each other.
- 47:8 They put Paul and Silas in the most secure part of the prison and even locked up their feet. Yet in the middle of the night, they were singing songs of praise to God.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1319, H7121, H8416, G29800, G38530

Matthew References:

11:25; 21:16

pray, prayer

Definition:

The terms “pray” and “prayer” refer to talking with God. These terms are also used to refer to people trying to talk to a false god.

- People can pray silently, talking to God with their thoughts, or they can pray aloud, speaking to God with their voice. Sometimes prayers are written down, such as when David wrote his prayers in the Book of Psalms.
- Prayer can include asking God for mercy, for help with a problem, and for wisdom in making decisions.
- Often people ask God to heal people who are sick or who need his help in other ways.
- People also thank and praise God when they are praying to him.
- Praying includes confessing our sins to God and asking him to forgive us.
- Talking to God is sometimes called “communing” with him as our spirit communicates with his spirit, sharing our emotions and enjoying his presence.
- This term could be translated as “talking to God” or “communicating with God.” The translation of this term should be able to include praying that is silent.

(See also: false god, forgive, praise)

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 3:9
- Acts 8:24
- Acts 14:26
- Colossians 4:4
- John 17:9
- Luke 11:1
- Matthew 5:43-45
- Matthew 14:22-24

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 6:5 Isaac prayed for Rebekah, and God allowed her to get pregnant with twins.
- 13:12 But Moses prayed for them, and God listened to his prayer and did not destroy them.

- 19:8 Then the prophets of Baal prayed to Baal, “Hear us, O Baal!”
- 21:7 Priests also prayed to God for the people.
- 38:11 Jesus told his disciples to pray that they would not enter into temptation.
- 43:13 The disciples continually listened to the teaching of the apostles, spent time together, ate together, and prayed with each other.
- 49:18 God tells you to pray, to study his word, to worship him with other Christians, and to tell others what he has done for you.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0559, H0577, H1156, H2470, H3863, H3908, H4994, H6279, H6293, H6419, H6739, H7592, H7878, H7879, H7881, H8034, H8605, G01540, G11620, G11890, G17830, G20650, G21710, G21720, G38700, G43350, G43360

Matthew References:

5:44; 6:5; 6:6; 6:7; 6:9; 14:23; 19:13; 21:13; 21:22; 24:20; 26:36; 26:39; 26:41; 26:42; 26:44 preach, preaching, preacher, proclaim, proclamation

Definition:

To “preach” means to speak to a group of people, teaching them about God and urging them to obey him. To “proclaim” means to announce or declare something publicly and boldly.

- Often preaching is done by one person to a large group of people. It is usually spoken, not written.
- “Preaching” and “teaching” are similar, but are not exactly the same.
- “Preaching” mainly refers to publicly proclaiming spiritual or moral truth, and urging the audience to respond. “Teaching” is a term that emphasizes instruction, that is, giving people information or teaching them how to do something.
- The term “preach” is usually used with the word “gospel.”
- What a person has preached to others can also be referred to in general as his “teachings.”
- Often in the Bible, “proclaim” means to announce publicly something that God has commanded, or to tell others about God and how great he is.
- In the New Testament, the apostles proclaimed the good news about Jesus to many people in many different cities and regions.
- The term “proclaim” can also be used for decrees made by kings or for denouncing evil in a public way.
- Other ways to translate “proclaim” could include “announce” or “openly preach” or “publicly declare.”
- The term “proclamation” could also be translated as “announcement” or “public preaching.”

(See also: declare, good news, Jesus, kingdom of God)

Strong‘s for preach: H1319, H7121, H7150, G12290, G20970, G26050, G27820, G27830, G27840, G29800, G42830

Strong‘s for proclaim: H1319, H1696, H1697, H2199, H3045, H3745, H4161, H5046, H5608, H6963, H7121, H7440, H8085, G51800, G59100, G12290, G18610, G20970, G26050, G27820, G27840, G29800, G31420, G41350

Bible References:

- 2 Timothy 4:1-2
- Acts 8:4-5

- Acts 10:42-43
- Acts 14:21-22
- Acts 20:25
- Luke 4:42
- Matthew 3:1-3
- Matthew 4:17
- Matthew 12:41
- Matthew 24:14
- Acts 9:20-22
- Acts 13:38-39
- Jonah 3:1-3
- Luke 4:18-19
- Mark 1:14-15
- Matthew 10:26

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 24:2 He (John) preached to them, saying, “Repent, for the Kingdom of God is near!”
- 30:1 Jesus sent his apostles to preach and to teach people in many different villages.
- 38:1 About three years after Jesus first began preaching and teaching publicly, Jesus told his disciples that he wanted to celebrate this Passover with them in Jerusalem, and that he would be killed there.
- 45:6 But in spite of this, they preached about Jesus everywhere they went.
- 45:7 He (Philip) went to Samaria where he preached about Jesus and many people were saved.
- 46:6 Right away, Saul began preaching to the Jews in Damascus, saying, “Jesus is the Son of God!”
- 46:10 Then they sent them off to preach the good news of Jesus in many other places.
- 47:14 Paul and other Christian leaders traveled to many cities, preaching and teaching people the good news about Jesus.
- 50:2 When Jesus was living on earth he said, “My disciples will preach the good news about the kingdom of God to people everywhere in the world, and then the end will come.”

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1319, H7121, H7150, H1319, H1696, H1697, H2199, H3045, H3745, H4161, H5046, H5608, H6963, H7121, H7440, H8085, G12290, G20970, G26050, G27820, G27830, G27840, G29800, G42830, G51800, G59100, G12290, G18610, G20970, G26050, G27820, G27840, G29800, G31420, G41350

Matthew References:

3:1; 4:17; 4:23; 9:35; 10:7; 10:27; 11:1; 12:41; 24:14; 26:13

priest, priesthood

Definition:

In the Bible, a priest was someone who was chosen to offer sacrifices to God on behalf of God's people. The "priesthood" was the name for the office or condition of being a priest.

- In the Old Testament, God chose Aaron and his descendants to be his priests for the people of Israel.
- The "priesthood" was a right and a responsibility that was passed down from father to son in the Levite clan.
- The Israelite priests had the responsibility of offering the people's sacrifices to God, along with other duties in the temple.
- Priests also offered regular prayers to God on behalf of his people and performed other religious rites.
- The priests pronounced formal blessings on people and taught them God's laws.
- In Jesus' time, there were different levels of priests, including the chief priests and the high priest.
- Jesus is our "great high priest" who intercedes for us in God's presence. He offered himself as the ultimate sacrifice for sin. This means that the sacrifices made by human priests are no longer needed.
- In the New Testament, every believer in Jesus is called a "priest" who can come directly to God in prayer to intercede for himself and other people.
- In ancient times, there were also pagan priests who presented offerings to false gods such as Baal.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term "priest" could be translated as "sacrifice person" or "God's intermediary" or "sacrificial mediator" or "person God appoints to represent him."
- The translation of "priest" should be different from the translation of "mediator."
- Some translations may prefer to always say something like "Israelite priest" or "Jewish priest" or "Yahweh's priest" or "priest of Baal" to make it clear that this does not refer to a modern-day type of priest.
- The term used to translate "priest" should be different from the terms for "chief priest" and "high priest" and "Levite" and "prophet."

(See also: Aaron, high priest, mediator, sacrifice)

Bible References:

- 2 Chronicles 6:41
- Genesis 14:17-18
- Genesis 47:22
- John 1:19-21
- Luke 10:31
- Mark 1:44
- Mark 2:25-26
- Matthew 8:4
- Matthew 12:4
- Micah 3:9-11
- Nehemiah 10:28-29
- Nehemiah 10:34-36
- Revelation 1:6

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 4:7 “Melchizedek, the priest of God Most High”
- 13:9 Anyone who disobeyed God’s law could bring an animal to the altar in front of the Tent of Meeting as a sacrifice to God. A priest would kill the animal and burn it on the altar. The blood of the animal that was sacrificed covered the person’s sin and made that person clean in God’s sight. God chose Moses’ brother, Aaron, and Aaron’s descendants to be his priests.
- 19:7 So the priests of Baal prepared a sacrifice but did not light the fire.
- 21:7 An Israelite priest was someone who made sacrifices to God on behalf of the people as a substitute for the punishment of their sins. Priests also prayed to God for the people.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3547, H3548, H3549, H3550, G07480, G07490, G24050, G24060, G24070, G24090, G24200

Matthew References:

8:4; 12:4; 12:5

profane, profaned

Definition:

To profane something means to act in a way that defiles, pollutes, or disrespects something that is holy.

- A profane person is one who acts in a way that is unholy and dishonoring of God.
- The verb to “profane” could be translated as to “treat as unholy” or to “be irreverent toward” or to “dishonor.”
- God told the Israelites that they “profaned” themselves with idols, meaning that the people were making themselves “unclean” or “dishonored” by this sin. They were also dishonoring God.
- Depending on the context, the adjective “profane” could be translated as “dishonoring” or “godless” or “unholy.”

(See also: defile, holy, clean)

Bible References:

- 2 Timothy 2:16-18
- Ezekiel 20:9
- Malachi 1:10-12
- Matthew 12:5
- Numbers 18:30-32

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2455, H2490, H2491, H5234, H8610, G09520, G09530

Matthew References:

12:5

profit, profits, profited, profitable

Definition:

Used in this sense, the terms “profit” and “profitable” refer to gaining some material thing through doing certain actions or behaviors. Something is “profitable” to someone if it enables them to earn or attain good material things.

- More specifically, the term “profit” often refers to money that is gained from doing business. A business is “profitable” if it gains more money than it spends.
- Actions are profitable if they cause material things to be gained for people.

(See also: worthy,profit-spiritual)

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “profit” could also be translated as “benefit” or “help” or “gain.”
- Depending on context, the term “profits” could be translated as “earnings” when referring to wages earned by working.
- The term “profitable” could be translated as “useful” or “beneficial” or “helpful.”
- The term “profited” could be translated as “gained.”
- To “profit from” something could be translated as “benefit from” or “gain money from.”
- In the context of a business, “profit” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “money gained” or “surplus of money” or “extra money.”

Bible References:

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1215, H3276, H4195, G12810, G20390, G27700, G27710, G36850, G37860, G48510, G48525, G55390, G56220, G56230, G56240

Matthew References:

5:29; 5:30; 15:5; 16:26; 18:6; 18:15; 19:10; 25:16; 25:17; 25:20; 25:22; 27:24

promise, promised

Definition:

When used as a verb, the term “promise” refers to the action of a person saying that he will do something in such way that he obligates himself to fulfill what he has said. When used as a noun, the term “promise” refers to the thing that a person obligates himself to do.

- The Bible records many promises that God has made for his people.
- Promises are an important part of formal agreements such as covenants.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “promise” could be translated as “commitment” or “assurance” or “guarantee.”
- To “promise to do something” could be translated as “assure someone that you will do something” or “commit to doing something.”

(See also: covenant, oath, vow)

Bible References:

- Galatians 3:15-16
- Genesis 25:31-34
- Hebrews 11:9
- James 1:12
- Numbers 30:2

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 3:15 God said, “I promise I will never again curse the ground because of the evil things people do, or destroy the world by causing a flood, even though people are sinful from the time they are children.”Â
- 3:16 God then made the first rainbow as a sign of his promise. Every time the rainbow appeared in the sky, God would remember what he promised and so would his people.
- 4:8 God spoke to Abram and promised again that he would have a son and as many descendants as the stars in the sky. Abram believed God’s promise.
- 5:4 “Your wife, Sarai, will have a son—he will be the son of promise.”

- 8:15 The covenant promises that God gave to Abraham were passed on to Isaac, then to Jacob, and then to Jacob's twelve sons and their families.
- 17:14 Though David had been unfaithful to God, God was still faithful to his promises.
- 50:1 Jesus promised he would return at the end of the world. Though he has not yet come back, he will keep his promise.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0559, H0562, H1696, H8569, G18430, G18600, G18610, G18620, G36700, G42790

Matthew References:

14:7

prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess

Definition:

A “prophet” is a man who speaks God’s messages to people. A woman who does this is called a “prophetess.”

- Often prophets warned people to turn away from their sins and obey God.
- A “prophecy” is the message that the prophet speaks. To “prophesy” means to speak God’s messages.
- Often the message of a prophecy was about something that would happen in the future.
- Many prophecies in the Old Testament have already been fulfilled.
- In the Bible the collection of books written by prophets are sometimes referred to as “the prophets.”
- For example the phrase, “the law and the prophets” is a way of referring to all the Hebrew scriptures, which are also known as the “Old Testament.”
- An older term for a prophet was “seer” or “someone who sees.”
- Sometimes the term “seer” refers to a false prophet or to someone who practices divination.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “prophet” could be translated as “God’s spokesman” or “man who speaks for God” or “man who speaks God’s messages.”
- A “seer” could be translated as “person who sees visions” or “man who sees the future from God.”
- The term “prophetess” could be translated as “spokeswoman for God” or “woman who speaks for God” or “woman who speaks God’s messages.”
- Ways to translate “prophecy” could include, “message from God” or “prophet message.”
- The term “prophesy” could be translated as “speak words from God” or “tell God’s message.”
- The figurative expression, “law and the prophets” could also be translated as “the books of the law and of the prophets” or “everything written about God and his people, including God’s laws and what his prophets preached.” (See: synecdoche)
- When referring to a prophet (or seer) of a false god, it may be necessary to translate this as “false prophet (seer)” or “prophet (seer) of a false god” or “prophet of Baal,” for example.

(See also: Baal, divination, false god, false prophet, fulfill, law, vision)

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 2:14-16
- Acts 3:25
- John 1:43-45
- Malachi 4:4-6
- Matthew 1:23
- Matthew 2:18
- Matthew 5:17
- Psalm 51:1

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 12:12 When the Israelites saw that the Egyptians were dead, they trusted in God and believed that Moses was a prophet of God.
- 17:13 God was very angry about what David had done, so he sent the prophet Nathan to tell David how evil his sin was.
- 19:1 Throughout the history of the Israelites, God sent them prophets. The prophets heard messages from God and then told the people God's messages.
- 19:6 All the people of the entire kingdom of Israel, including the 450 prophets of Baal, came to Mount Carmel.
- 19:17 Most of the time, the people did not obey God. They often mistreated the prophets and sometimes even killed them.
- 21:9 The prophet Isaiah prophesied that the Messiah would be born from a virgin.
- 43:5 "This fulfills the prophecy made by the prophet Joel in which God said, 'In the last days, I will pour out my Spirit.'"
- 43:7 "This fulfills the prophecy which says, 'You will not let your Holy One rot in the grave.'"
- 48:12 Moses was a great prophet who proclaimed the word of God. But Jesus is the greatest prophet of all. He is the Word of God.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2372, H2374, H4853, H5012, H5013, H5016, H5017, H5029, H5030, H5031, H5197, G24950, G43940, G43950, G43960, G43970, G43980, G55780

Matthew References:

1:22; 2:5; 2:15; 2:17; 2:23; 3:3; 4:14; 5:12; 5:17; 7:12; 7:22; 8:17; 10:41; 11:9; 11:13; 12:17; 12:39; 13:14; 13:17; 13:35; 13:57; 14:5; 15:7; 16:14; 21:4; 21:11; 21:26; 21:46; 22:40; 23:29; 23:30; 23:31; 23:34; 23:37; 24:15; 26:56; 26:68; 27:9

prostitute, harlot, whored

Definition:

The terms “prostitute” and “harlot” both refer to a person who performs sexual acts for money or for religious rites. Prostitutes or harlots were usually female, but some were male.

- In the Bible, the word “prostitute” is sometimes used figuratively to refer to a person who worships false gods or who practices witchcraft.
- The expression “play the harlot” means to act like a harlot by being sexually immoral. This expression is also used in the Bible to refer to a person who worships idols.
- To “prostitute oneself” to something means to be sexually immoral or when used figuratively, to be unfaithful to God by worshiping false gods.
- In ancient times, some pagan temples used male and female prostitutes as part of their rituals.
- This term could be translated by the word or phrase that is used in the project language to refer to a prostitute. Some languages may have a euphemistic term that is used for this. (See: euphemism)

(See also: adultery, false god, sexual immorality, false god)

Bible References:

- Genesis 34:31
- Genesis 38:21
- Luke 15:30
- Matthew 21:31

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2154, H2181, H2183, H2185, H6945, H6948, H8457, G42040

Matthew References:

21:31; 21:32

prostrate, bow down, worship

Definition:

To “prostrate” oneself means to lie flat on the ground, usually in submission to a person of authority such as a king or some other powerful person. This same term can also mean to “worship,” referring to the actions of honoring, praising, and obeying God.

- This term often means literally “bow down” or “prostrate oneself” to humbly honor someone.
- We worship God when we serve and honor him, by praising him and obeying him.
- When the Israelites worshiped God, it often included sacrificing an animal on an altar.
- This term can be used both of people who worship Yahweh as the One True God and others who worship false gods.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “worship” could be translated as “bow down to” or “honor and serve” or “honor and obey.”
- In some contexts, it could also be translated as “humbly praise” or “give honor and praise.”

(See also: bow, fear, sacrifice, praise, honor)

Bible References:

- Colossians 2:18-19
- Deuteronomy 29:18
- Exodus 3:11-12
- Luke 4:7
- Matthew 2:2
- Matthew 2:8

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 13:4 Then God gave them the covenant and said, “I am Yahweh, your God, who saved you from slavery in Egypt. Do not worship other gods.”
- 14:2 The Canaanites did not worship or obey God. They worshiped false gods and did many evil things.

- 17:6 David wanted to build a temple where all the Israelites could worship God and offer him sacrifices.
- 18:12 All of the kings and most of the people of the kingdom of Israel worshiped idols.
- 25:7 Jesus replied, “Get away from me, Satan! In God’s word he commands his people, ‘Worship only the Lord your God and only serve him.’”
- 26:2 On the Sabbath, he (Jesus) went to the place of worship.
- 47:1 There they met a woman named Lydia who was a merchant. She loved and worshiped God.
- 49:18 God tells you to pray, to study his word, to worship him with other Christians, and to tell others what he has done for you.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5457, H5647, H6087, H7812, G13910, G14790, G21510, G23180, G23230, G23560, G30000, G35110, G43520, G43530, G45730, G45740, G45760

Matthew References:

2:2; 2:8; 2:11; 4:9; 4:10; 8:2; 14:33; 15:9; 15:25; 18:26; 28:9; 28:17 punish, punished, punishment, unpunished

Definition:

The term “punish” means to cause someone to suffer a negative consequence for doing something wrong. The term “punishment” refers to the negative consequence that is given as a result of that wrong behavior.

- Often punishment is intended to motivate a person to stop sinning.
- God punished the Israelites when they disobeyed him, especially when they worshiped false gods. Because of their sin, God allowed their enemies to attack and capture them.
- God is righteous and just, so he has to punish sin. Every human being has sinned against God and deserves punishment.
- Jesus was punished for all the evil things that every person has ever done. He received each person’s punishment on himself even though he did nothing wrong and did not deserve that punishment.
- The expressions “go unpunished” and “leave unpunished” mean to decide not to punish people for their wrongdoing. God often allows sin to go unpunished as he waits for people to repent.

(See also: just, repent, righteous, sin)

Bible References:

- 1 John 4:18
- 2 Thessalonians 1:9
- Acts 4:21
- Acts 7:59-60
- Genesis 4:15
- Luke 23:16
- Matthew 25:46

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 13:7 God also gave many other laws and rules to follow. If the people obeyed these laws, God promised that he would bless and protect them. If they disobeyed them, God would punish them.
- 16:2 Because the Israelites kept disobeying God, he punished them by allowing their enemies to defeat them.

- 19:16 The prophets warned the people that if they did not stop doing evil and start obeying God, then God would judge them as guilty, and he would punish them.
- 48:6 Jesus was the perfect high priest because he took the punishment for every sin that anyone has ever committed.
- 48:10 When anyone believes in Jesus, the blood of Jesus takes away that person's sin, and God's punishment passes over him.
- 49:9 But God loved everyone in the world so much that he gave his only Son so that whoever believes in Jesus will not be punished for his sins, but will live with God forever.
- 49:11 Jesus never sinned, but he chose to be punished and die as the perfect sacrifice to take away your sins and the sins of every person in the world.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3027, H3256, H4148, H4941, H5221, H5414, H6031, H6064, H6213, H6485, H7999, H8011, H8199, G13490, G15560, G15570, G28490, G38110, G50970

Matthew References:

25:46

pure, purify, purification

Definition:

To be “pure” means to have no flaw or to have nothing mixed in that is not supposed to be there. To purify something is to cleanse it and remove anything that contaminates or pollutes it.

- In regard to Old Testament laws, “purify” and “purification” refer mainly to the cleansing from things that make an object or a person ritually unclean, such as disease, body fluids, or childbirth.
- The Old Testament also had laws telling people how to be purified from sin, usually by the sacrifice of an animal. This was only temporary and the sacrifices had to be repeated over and over again.
- In the New Testament, to be purified often refers to being cleansed from sin.
- The only way that people can be completely and permanently purified from sin is through repenting and receiving God’s forgiveness, through trusting in Jesus and his sacrifice.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “purify” could be translated as “make pure” or “cleanse” or “cleanse from all contamination” or “get rid of all sin.”
- A phrase such as “when the time for their purification was over” could be translated as “when they had purified themselves by waiting the required number of days.”
- The phrase “provided purification for sins” could be translated as “provided a way for people to be completely cleansed from their sin.”
- Other ways to translate “purification” could include “cleansing” or “spiritual washing” or “becoming ritually clean.”

(See also: atonement, clean, spirit)

Bible References:

- 1 Timothy 1:5
- Exodus 31:6-9
- Hebrews 9:13-15
- James 4:8
- Luke 2:22
- Revelation 14:4

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1249, H1252, H1253, H1305, H1865, H2134, H2135, H2141, H2212, H2398, H2403, H2561, H2889, H2890, H2891, H2892, H2893, H3795, H3800, H4795, H5343, H5462, H6337, H6884, H6942, H8562, G00480, G00490, G00530, G00540, G15060, G25110, G25120, G25130, G25140

Matthew References:

5:8

queen

Definition:

A queen is either the female ruler of a country or the wife of a king.

- Esther became the queen of the Persian empire when she married King Ahasuerus.
- Queen Jezebel was the evil wife of King Ahab.
- The Queen of Sheba was a famous ruler who came to visit King Solomon.
- A term such as “queen mother” usually referred to the mother or grandmother of a ruling king or the widow of the previous king. A queen mother had much influence; Athaliah, for example, influenced the people to worship idols.

(See also: Ahasuerus, Athaliah, Esther, king. Persia ruler, Sheba)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 10:10
- 1 Kings 11:18-19
- 2 Kings 10:12-14
- Acts 8:27
- Esther 1:17
- Luke 11:31
- Matthew 12:42

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1404, H1377, H4410, H4427, H4433, H4436, H4438, H4446, H7694, H8282, G09380

Matthew References:

12:42

quench, quenched, unquenchable

Definition:

The term “quench” means to put out or stop something that is demanding to be satisfied.

- This term is usually used in the context of quenching thirst and means to stop being thirsty by drinking something.
- It can also be used to refer to putting out a fire.
- Both thirst and fire are quenched with water.
- Paul uses the term “quench” in a figurative way when he instructs believers to not “quench the Holy Spirit.” This means to not discourage people from allowing the Holy Spirit from produce his fruits and gifts in them. Quenching the Holy Spirit means preventing the Holy Spirit from freely manifesting his power and work in people…

(See also: fruit, gift, Holy Spirit)

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 5:19
- Ezekiel 20:47
- Isaiah 1:31
- Jeremiah 21:12

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1846, H3518, H7665, G07620, G45700

Matthew References:

12:20

Rabbi

Definition:

The term “Rabbi” literally means “my master” or “my teacher.”

- It was a title of respect that was used to address a man who was a Jewish religious teacher, especially a teacher of God’s laws.
- Both John the Baptist and Jesus were sometimes called “Rabbi” by their disciples.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate this term could include “My Master” or “My Teacher” or “Honorable Teacher” or “Religious Teacher.” Some languages may capitalize a greeting like this, while others may not.
- The project language may also have a special way that teachers are normally addressed.
- Make sure the translation of this term does not indicate that Jesus was a schoolteacher.
- Also consider how “Rabbi” is translated in a Bible translation in a related language or a national language.

(See: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: teacher)

Bible References:

- John 1:49-51
- John 6:24-25
- Mark 14:43-46
- Matthew 23:8-10

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G44610

Matthew References:

23:7; 23:8; 26:25; 26:49

Rachel

Definition:

Rachel was one of Jacob's wives. She was the mother of Joseph and Benjamin, whose descendants became three of the twelve tribes of Israel.

- Rachel and her sister Leah were the daughters of Laban, Jacob's uncle.
- For many years, Rachel was not able to have any children. Then God enabled her to give birth to Joseph.
- Years later, Rachel died as she gave birth to Benjamin. Jacob buried her near Bethlehem.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Bethlehem, Jacob, Laban, Leah, Joseph (OT), twelve tribes of Israel)

Bible References:

- Genesis 29:6
- Genesis 29:19-20
- Genesis 29:30
- Genesis 31:6
- Genesis 33:1-3
- Matthew 2:18

Word Data:

- Strong's: H7354, G44780

Matthew References:

2:18

Rahab

Definition:

Rahab was a woman who lived in Jericho when Israel attacked the city. Rahab was also the name of a mythical monster of primeval chaos.

- Rahab was a prostitute who hid the two Israelites who came to spy on Jericho before the Israelites attacked it. She helped the spies escape back to the Israelite camp.
- Rahab became a believer in Yahweh.
- She and her family came to live with the Israelites after the Israelites destroyed Jericho and spared Rahab and her family.
- The mythical sea monster was pictured as ruling the chaotic sea and God was pictured as defeating that sea monster when he brought order into the world during creation.
- The sea monster Rahab was pictured as a serpent or dragon, and may have been considered the same as the mythical creature called Leviathan.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Israel, Jericho, prostitute)

Bible References:

- Hebrews 11:29-31
- James 2:25
- Joshua 2:21
- Joshua 6:17-19
- Matthew 1:5
- Psalms 87:4
- Psalms 89:10
- Job 9:13

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 15:1 In that city there lived a prostitute named Rahab who hid the spies and later helped them to escape. She did this because she believed God. They promised to protect Rahab and her family when the Israelites would destroy Jericho.

- 15:5 The Israelites destroyed everything in the city as God had commanded. Rahab and her family were the only people in the city that they did not kill. They became part of the Israelites.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H7343, G44600

Matthew References:

1:5

Ramah

Definition:

Ramah was an ancient Israelite city located about 8 kilometers from Jerusalem. It was in the region where the tribe of Benjamin lived.

- Ramah was where Rachel died after giving birth to Benjamin.
- When the Israelites were taken captive to Babylon, they were first brought to Ramah before being moved to Babylon.
- Ramah was the home of Samuel's mother and father.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Benjamin, twelve tribes of Israel)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 27:27
- 1 Samuel 2:11
- 2 Chronicles 16:1
- Jeremiah 31:15
- Joshua 18:25-28
- Matthew 2:17-18

Word Data:

- Strong's: H7414, G44710

Matthew References:

2:18

ransom, ransomed

Definition:

The term “ransom” refers to a sum of money or other payment that is demanded or paid for the release of a person who is held captive.

- As a verb, to “ransom” means to make a payment or to do something self-sacrificially in order to rescue someone who has been captured, enslaved or imprisoned. This meaning of “buy back” is similar to the meaning of “redeem.”
- Jesus allowed himself to be killed as a ransom to free sinful people from their enslavement to sin. This act of God buying back his people through paying the penalty of their sin is also called “redemption” in the Bible.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term to “ransom” could also be translated as to “pay to release” or to “pay a price to free” or to “buy back.”
- The phrase to “pay a ransom” could be translated as to “pay the price (of freedom)” or to “pay the penalty (to free people)” or to “make the required payment.”
- The noun “ransom” could be translated as “a buying back” or “a penalty paid” or “the price paid” (to free or buy back people or land).
- The terms a “ransom” and a “redemption” have the same meaning in English but are sometimes used slightly differently. Other languages may have only one term for this concept.
- Make sure this is translated differently from “atonement.”

(See also: atonement, redeem)

Bible References:

- 1 Timothy 2:6
- Isaiah 43:3
- Job 6:23
- Leviticus 19:20
- Matthew 20:28
- Psalms 49:7

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1350, H3724, H6299, H6306, G04870, G30830

Matthew References:

20:28

rebuke, reprove

Definition:

The term “rebuke” refers to correcting someone verbally, usually with sternness or force.

- The New Testament commands Christians to rebuke other believers when they are clearly disobeying God.
- The book of Proverbs instructs parents to rebuke their children when they are disobedient.
- A rebuke is typically given to prevent those who committed a wrong from further involving themselves in sin.
- This could be translated by “sternly correct” or “admonish.”
- The phrase “a rebuke” could be translated by “a stern correction” or “a strong criticism.”
- “Without rebuke” could be translated as “without admonishing” or “without criticism.”

(See also admonish, disobey)

Bible References:

- Genesis 21:25
- Mark 1:23-26
- Mark 16:14
- Matthew 8:26-27
- Matthew 17:17-18

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1605, H1606, H2778, H2781, H3198, H4045, H4148, H8156, H8433, G16490, G16510, G19690, G20080, G36790

Matthew References:

8:26; 16:22; 17:18; 18:15; 19:13; 20:31

receive, welcome, taken up, acceptance

Definition:

The term “receive” generally means to get or accept something that is given, offered, or presented.

- To “receive” can also mean to suffer or experience something, as in “he received punishment for what he did.”
- There is also a special sense in which we can “receive” a person. For example, to “receive” guests or visitors means to welcome them and treat them with honor in order to build a relationship with them.
- To “receive the gift of the Holy Spirit” means we are given the Holy Spirit and welcome him to work in and through our lives.
- To “receive Jesus” means to accept God’s offer of salvation through Jesus Christ.
- When a blind person “receives his sight” means that God has healed him and enabled him to see.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “receive” could be translated as “accept” or “welcome” or “experience” or “be given.”
- The expression “you will receive power” could be translated as “you will be given power” or “God will give you power” or “power will be given to you (by God)” or “God will cause the Holy Spirit to work powerfully in you.”
- The phrase “received his sight” could be translated as “was able to see” or “became able to see again” or “was healed by God so that he was able to see.”

(See also: Holy Spirit, Jesus, lord, save)

Bible References:

- 1 John 5:9
- 1 Thessalonians 1:6
- 1 Thessalonians 4:1
- Acts 8:15
- Jeremiah 32:33
- Luke 9:5
- Malachi 3:10-12

- Psalms 49:14-15

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 21:13 The prophets also said that the Messiah would be perfect, having no sin. He would die to receive the punishment for other people's sin. His punishment would bring peace between God and people.
- 45:5 As Stephen was dying, he cried out, "Jesus, receive my spirit."
- 49:6 He (Jesus) taught that some people will receive him and be saved, but others will not.
- 49:10 When Jesus died on the cross, he received your punishment.
- 49:13 God will save everyone who believes in Jesus and receives him as their Master.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3557, H3947, H6901, H6902, H8254, G03080, G03240, G03530, G03540, G05680, G05880, G06180, G11830, G12090, G15230, G16530, G19260, G28650, G29830, G30280, G33350, G33360, G35490, G38580, G38800, G43270, G43550, G43560, G46870, G52640, G55620

Matthew References:

7:8; 10:8; 10:14; 10:40; 10:41; 11:14; 13:20; 17:25; 18:5; 19:11; 19:12; 19:29; 20:9; 20:10; 20:11; 21:22; 21:34; 25:16; 25:18; 25:20; 25:24; 25:27 reconcile, reconciled, reconciliation

Definition:

To “reconcile” and “reconciliation” refer to “make peace” between people who were formerly enemies of each other. “Reconciliation” is that act of making peace

- In the Bible, this term usually refer to Gods reconciling people to himself through the sacrifice of his Son, Jesus Christ.
- Because of sin, all human beings are God’s enemies. But because of his compassionate love, God provided a way for people to be reconciled to him through Jesus.
- Through trusting in Jesus’ sacrifice as payment for their sin, people can be forgiven and have peace with God.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “reconcile” could be translated as “make peace” or “restore good relations” or “cause to be friends.”
- The term “reconciliation” could be translated as “restoring good relations” or “making peace” or “causing peaceful relating.”

(See also: peace, sacrifice)

Bible References:

- 2 Corinthians 5:19
- Colossians 1:18-20
- Matthew 5:24
- Proverbs 13:17-18
- Romans 5:10

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2398, H3722, G06040, G12590, G24330, G26430, G26440

Matthew References:

5:24

reed

Definition:

The term “reed” refers to a plant with a long stalk that grows in the water, usually along the edge of a river or stream.

- The reeds in the Nile River where Moses was hidden as a baby were also called “bulrushes.” They were tall, hollow stalks growing in dense clumps in the river water.
- These fibrous plants were used in ancient Egypt for making paper, baskets, and boats.
- The stalk of the reed plant is flexible and is easily bent over by the wind.

(Translation suggestions: Translate Names)

(See also: Egypt, Moses, Nile River)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 14:15
- Luke 7:24
- Matthew 11:7
- Matthew 12:20
- Psalm 68:30

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0098, H0100, H0260, H5488, H6169, H7070, G25630

Matthew References:

11:7; 12:20; 27:48

Rehoboam

Definition:

Rehoboam was one of the sons of King Solomon, and he became the king of the nation of Israel after Solomon died.

- At the beginning of his reign, Rehoboam was severe with his people, so ten of the tribes of Israel rebelled against him and formed the "kingdom of Israel" in the north.
- Rehoboam continued as king of the southern kingdom of Judah, which consisted of the remaining two tribes, Judah and Benjamin.
- Rehoboam was a wicked king who did not obey Yahweh, but worshiped false gods.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: kingdom of Israel, Judah, Solomon)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 3:10
- 1 Kings 11:41-43
- 1 Kings 14:21
- Matthew 1:7

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 18:5 After Solomon died, his son, Rehoboam, became king. Rehoboam was a foolish man.
- 18:6 Rehoboam answered foolishly and told them, "You thought my father Solomon made you work hard, but I will make you work harder than he did, and I will punish you more harshly than he did."
- 18:7 Ten of the tribes of the nation of Israel rebelled against Rehoboam. Only two tribes remained faithful to him.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H7346, G44970

Matthew References:

1:7

reign, rule

Definition:

The term to “reign” means to rule over the people of a particular country or kingdom. The reign of a king is the time period during which he is ruling.

- The term “reign” is also used to refer to God reigning as king over the entire world.
- God allowed human kings to reign over Israel after the people rejected him as their king.
- When Jesus Christ returns, he will openly reign as king over the whole world, and Christians will reign with Him.
- This term could also be translated as “absolute rule” or “rule as king.”

(See also: kingdom)

Bible References:

- 2 Timothy 2:11-13
- Genesis 36:34-36
- Luke 1:30-33
- Luke 19:26-27
- Matthew 2:22-23

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3427, H4427, H4437, H4438, H4467, H4468, H4475, H4791, H4910, H6113, H7287, H7786, G07570, G09360, G22310, G48210

Matthew References:

2:22

reject, rejected, rejection

Definition:

To “reject” someone or something means to refuse to accept that person or thing.

- The term “reject” can also mean to “refuse to believe in” something.
- To reject God also means to refuse to obey him.
- When the Israelites rejected Moses’ leadership, it means that they were rebelling against his authority. They did not want to obey him.
- The Israelites showed that they were rejecting God when they worshiped false gods.
- The term “push away” is the literal meaning of this word. Other languages may have a similar expression that means to reject or refuse to believe someone or something.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, the term “reject” could also be translated by “not accept” or “stop helping” or “refuse to obey” or “stop obeying.”
- In the expression “stone that the builders rejected,” the term “rejected” could be translated as “refused to use” or “did not accept” or “threw away” or “got rid of as worthless.”
- In the context of people who rejected God’s commandments, rejected could be translated as “refused to obey” his commands or “stubbornly chose to not accept” God’s laws.

(See also: command, disobey, obey, stiff-necked)

Bible References:

- Galatians 4:12-14
- Hosea 4:6-7
- Isaiah 41:9
- John 12:48-50
- Mark 7:9

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0947, H0959, H2186, H2310, H3988, H5006, H5034, H5186, H5203, H5307, H5541, H5800, G01140, G04830, G05500, G05790, G05800, G05930, G06830, G07200, G16090, G38680

Matthew References:

21:42

repent, repentance

Definition:

The terms “repent” and “repentance” refer to turning away from sin and turning back to God.

- To “repent” literally means to “change one’s mind.”
- In the Bible, “repent” usually means to turn away from a sinful, human way of thinking and acting, and to turn to God’s way of thinking and acting.
- When people truly repent of their sins, God forgives them and helps them start obeying him.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “repent” can be translated with a word or phrase that means “turn back (to God)” or “turn away from sin and toward God” or “turn toward God, away from sin.”
- Often the term “repentance” can be translated using the verb “repent.” For example, “God has given repentance to Israel” could be translated as “God has enabled Israel to repent.”
- Other ways to translate “repentance” could include “turning away from sin” or “turning to God and away from sin.”

(See also: forgive, sin, turn)

Bible References:

- Acts 3:19-20
- Luke 3:3
- Luke 3:8
- Luke 5:32
- Luke 24:47
- Mark 1:14-15
- Matthew 3:3
- Matthew 3:11
- Matthew 4:17
- Romans 2:4

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 16:2 After many years of disobeying God and being oppressed by their enemies, the Israelites repented and asked God to rescue them.
- 17:13 David repented of his sin and God forgave him.
- 19:18 They (prophets) warned people that God would destroy them if they did not repent.
- 24:2 Many people came out to the wilderness to listen to John. He preached to them, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of God is near!"
- 42:8 "It was also written in the scriptures that my disciples will proclaim that everyone should repent in order to receive forgiveness for their sins."
- 44:5 "So now, repent and turn to God so that your sins will be washed away."

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5150, H5162, H5164, G02780, G33380, G33400, G33410

Matthew References:

3:2; 3:8; 3:11; 4:17; 11:20; 11:21; 12:41; 21:29; 21:32; 27:3

report, reported, tell, reputation

Definition:

The term to “report” means to tell people about something that happened, often giving details about that event. A “report” is what is told, and can be spoken or written.

- “Report” could also be translated as “tell” or “explain” or “tell the details of.”
- The expression “Report this to no one” could be translated as “Do not talk about this with anyone” or “Do not tell anyone about this.”
- Ways to translate “a report” could include “an explanation” or “a story” or “a detailed account,” depending on the context.

Bible References:

- Acts 5:22-23
- John 12:38
- Luke 5:15
- Luke 8:34-35
- Matthew 28:15

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1681, H1696, H1697, H5046, H7725, H8034, H8052, H8085, H8088, H8089, G01890, G01910, G03120, G05180, G09870, G12250, G13100, G18340, G20360, G21630, G30040, G30560, G31400, G33770

Matthew References:

2:8; 8:33; 9:26; 11:4; 14:12; 18:31; 28:8; 28:10; 28:11; 28:15

resurrection

Definition:

The term “resurrection” refers to the act of becoming alive again after having died.

- To resurrect someone means to bring that person back to life again. Only God has the power to do this.
- The word “resurrection” often refers to Jesus’ coming back to life after he died.
- When Jesus said, “I am the Resurrection and the Life” he meant that he is the source of resurrection, and the one who causes people to come back to life.

Translation Suggestions:

- A person’s “resurrection” could be translated as his “coming back to life” or his “becoming alive again after being dead.”
- The literal meaning of this word is “a rising up” or “the act of being raised (from the dead).” These would be other possible ways to translate this term.

(See also: life, death, raise)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 15:13
- 1 Peter 3:21
- Hebrews 11:35
- John 5:28-29
- Luke 20:27
- Luke 20:36
- Matthew 22:23
- Matthew 22:30
- Philippians 3:11

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 21:14 Through the Messiah’s death and resurrection, God would accomplish his plan to save sinners and start the New Covenant.

- 37:5 Jesus replied, “I am the Resurrection and the Life. Whoever believes in me will live, even though he dies.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G03860, G14540, G18150

Matthew References:

22:23; 22:28; 22:30; 22:31; 27:53

reward, prize, deserve

Definition:

The term “reward” refers to what a person receives because of something he has done, either good or bad. To “reward” someone is to give someone something he deserves. However, this is different than the concept of “wages,” which refers to payment (often money) given in exchange for work performed.

- A reward can be a good or positive thing that a person receives because he has done something well or because he has obeyed God.
- Sometimes a reward can refer to negative things that may result from bad behavior, such as the statement “the reward of the wicked.” In this context “reward” refers to the punishment or negative consequences they receive because of their sinful actions.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “reward” could be translated as “payment” or “something that is deserved” or “punishment.”
- To “reward” someone could be translated by to “repay” or to “punish” or to “give what is deserved.”
- Make sure the translation of this term does not refer to wages. A reward is not specifically about earning money as part of a job.

(See also: punish)

Bible References:

- Deuteronomy 32:6
- Isaiah 40:10
- Luke 6:35
- Mark 9:40-41
- Matthew 5:11-12
- Matthew 6:3-4
- Psalms 127:3-5
- Revelation 11:18

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0319, H0866, H0868, H1576, H1578, H1580, H4909, H4991, H5023, H6118, H6468, H6529, H7938, H7939, H7999, G04690, G05140, G05910, G26030, G34050, G34060, G34080

Matthew References:

5:12; 5:46; 6:1; 6:2; 6:4; 6:5; 6:6; 6:16; 6:18; 10:41; 10:42 righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness

Definition:

The term “righteousness” refers to God’s absolute goodness, justice, faithfulness, and love. Having these qualities makes God “righteous.” Because God is righteous, he must condemn sin.

- These terms are also often used to describe a person who obeys God and is morally good. However, because all people have sinned, no one except God is completely righteous.
- Examples of people the Bible who were called “righteous” include Noah, Job, Abraham, Zachariah, and Elisabeth.
- When people trust in Jesus to save them, God cleanses them from their sins and declares them to be righteous because of Jesus’ righteousness.

The term “unrighteous” means to be sinful and morally corrupt. “Unrighteousness” refers to sin or the condition of being sinful.

- These terms especially refer to living in a way that disobeys God’s teachings and commands.
- Unrighteous people are immoral in their thoughts and actions.
- Sometimes “the unrighteous” refers specifically to people who do not believe in Jesus.

The terms “upright” and “uprightness” refer to acting in a way that follows God’s laws.

- The meaning of these words includes the idea of standing up straight and looking directly ahead.
- A person who is “upright” is someone who obeys God’s rules and does not do things that are against his will.
- Terms such as “integrity” and “righteous” have similar meanings and are sometimes used in parallelism constructions, such as “integrity and uprightness.” (See: parallelism)

Translation Suggestions:

- When it describes God, the term “righteous” could be translated as “perfectly good and just” or “always acting rightly.”
- God’s “righteousness” could also be translated as “perfect faithfulness and goodness.”

- When it describes people who are obedient to God, the term “righteous” could also be translated as “morally good” or “just” or “living a God-pleasing life.”
- The phrase “the righteous” could also be translated as “righteous people” or “God-fearing people.”
- Depending on the context, “righteousness” could also be translated with a word or phrase that means “goodness” or “being perfect before God” or “acting in a right way by obeying God” or “doing perfectly good.”
- The term “unrighteous” could simply be translated as “not righteous.”
- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this could include “wicked” or “immoral” or “people who rebel against God” or “sinful.”
- The phrase “the unrighteous” could be translated as “unrighteous people.”
- The term “unrighteousness” could be translated as “sin” or “evil thoughts and actions” or “wickedness.”
- If possible, it is best to translate this in a way that shows its relationship to “righteous, righteousness.”
- Ways to translate “upright” could include “acting rightly” or “one who acts rightly” or “following God’s laws” or “obedient to God” or “behaving in a way that is right.”
- The term “uprightness” could be translated as “moral purity” or “good moral conduct” or “rightness.”
- The phrase “the upright” could be translated as “people who are upright” or “upright people.”

(See also: evil, faithful, good, holy, integrity, just, law, law, obey, pure, righteous, sin, unlawful)

Bible References:

- Deuteronomy 19:16
- Job 1:8

- Psalms 37:30
- Psalms 49:14
- Psalms 107:42
- Ecclesiastes 12:10-11
- Isaiah 48:1-2
- Ezekiel 33:13
- Malachi 2:6
- Matthew 6:1
- Acts 3:13-14
- Romans 1:29-31
- 1 Corinthians 6:9
- Galatians 3:7
- Colossians 3:25
- 2 Thessalonians 2:10
- 2 Timothy 3:16
- 1 Peter 3:18-20
- 1 John 1:9
- 1 John 5:16-17

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 3:2 But Noah found favor with God. He was a righteous man, living among wicked people.
- 4:8 God declared that Abram was righteous because he believed in God's promise.
- 17:2 David was a humble and righteous man who trusted and obeyed God.
- 23:1 Joseph, the man Mary was engaged to, was a righteous man.
- 50:10 Then the righteous ones will shine like the sun in the kingdom of God their Father.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0205, H1368, H2555, H3072, H3474, H3476, H3477, H3483, H4334, H4339, H4749, H5228, H5229, H5324, H5765, H5766, H5767, H5977, H6662, H6663, H6664, H6665, H6666, H6968, H8535, H8537, H8549, H8552, G00930, G00940, G04580, G13410, G13420, G13430, G13440, G13450, G13460, G21180, G37160, G37170

Matthew References:

1:19; 3:15; 5:6; 5:10; 5:20; 6:1; 6:33; 9:13; 10:41; 13:17; 13:43; 13:49; 20:4; 21:32; 23:28; 23:29; 23:35; 25:37; 25:46; 27:19

robe, robed

Definition:

A robe is an outer garment with long sleeves that can be worn by a man or a woman. It is similar to a coat.

- Robes are open in the front and are tied shut with a sash or belt.
- They can be long or short.
- Purple robes were worn by kings as a sign of royalty, wealth, and prestige.

(See also: royal, tunic)

Bible References:

- Exodus 28:4-5
- Genesis 49:11-12
- Luke 15:22
- Luke 20:46
- Matthew 27:27-29

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0145, H0155, H0899, H1545, H2436, H2684, H3671, H3801, H3830, H3847, H4060, H4254, H4598, H5497, H5622, H6614, H7640, H7757, H7897, H8071, G17460, G20670, G24400, G47490, G40160, G55110

Matthew References:

27:28; 27:31

rule, reign, ruler, prefect, official, leader

Definition:

The term “ruler” is a general reference to a person who has authority over other people, such as a leader of a country, kingdom, or religious group. A ruler is one who “rules,” and his authority is his “rule.”

- In the Old Testament, a king was sometimes referred to generally as a “ruler,” as in the phrase “appointed him ruler over Israel.”
- God was referred to as the ultimate ruler, who rules over all other rulers.
- In the New Testament, the leader of a synagogue was called a “ruler.”
- Another type of ruler in the New Testament was a “governor.”
- Depending on the context, “ruler” could be translated as “leader” or “person who has authority over.”
- The action to “rule” means to “lead” to “have authority over.” It means the same thing as “reign” when it refers to the ruling of a king.

(See also: authority, governor, king, synagogue)

Bible References:

- Acts 3:17-18
- Acts 7:35-37
- Luke 12:11
- Luke 23:35
- Mark 10:42
- Matthew 9:32-34
- Matthew 20:25
- Titus 3:1

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0995, H1166, H1167, H1404, H2708, H2710, H3027, H3548, H3920, H4043, H4410, H4427, H4428, H4438, H4467, H4474, H4475, H4623, H4910, H4941, H5057, H5065, H5387, H5401, H5461, H5715, H6113, H6213, H6485, H6957, H7101, H7218, H7287, H7300, H7336, H7786, H7860, H7980, H7981, H7985, H7989, H7990, H8199, H8269, H8323, H8451, G07460, G07520, G07550, G07570, G07580, G09320, G09360, G10180, G12030, G12990, G17780, G17850, G18490, G22320, G22330, G25250, G25830, G28880, G29610, G35450, G38410, G41650, G41730, G42910

Matthew References:

9:18; 9:23; 9:34; 12:24; 20:25

Ruth

Definition:

Ruth was a Moabite woman who lived during the time when judges were leading Israel. In Moab, she married an Israelite man named Mahlon after his family had moved there because of a famine in Israel. Mahlon died, and some time after that she left Moab with her mother-in-law Naomi to return to the city of Bethlehem in Israel.

- Ruth was loyal to Naomi and worked hard to provide food for her.
- She also committed herself to serving the one true God of Israel.
- Ruth married an Israelite man named Boaz and gave birth to a son named Obed. Obed became the grandfather of King David, and King David was an ancestor of Jesus.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Bethlehem, Boaz, David, judge)

Bible References:

- Matthew 1:5
- Ruth 1:3-5
- Ruth 3:9
- Ruth 4:6

Word Data:

- Strong's: H7327, G45030

Matthew References:

1:5

Sabbath

Definition:

The term “Sabbath” refers to the seventh day of the week, which God commanded the Israelites to set apart as a day of rest and doing no work.

- After God finished creating the world in six days, he rested on the seventh day. In the same way, God commanded the Israelites to set aside the seventh day as a special day to rest and worship him.
- The command to “keep the Sabbath holy” is one of the ten commandments that God wrote on the stone tablets that he gave Moses for the Israelites.
- Following the Jewish system of counting days, the Sabbath begins on Friday at sundown and lasts until Saturday at sundown.
- Sometimes in the Bible the Sabbath is called “Sabbath day” rather than only the Sabbath.

Translation Suggestions:

- This could also be translated as “resting day” or “day for resting” or “day of not working” or “God’s day of rest.”
- Some translations capitalize this term to show that it is a special day, as in “Sabbath Day” or “Resting Day.”
- Consider how this term is translated in a local or national language.

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: rest)

Bible References:

- 2 Chronicles 31:2-3
- Acts 13:26-27
- Exodus 31:14
- Isaiah 56:6-7
- Lamentations 2:6
- Leviticus 19:3
- Luke 13:14
- Mark 2:27

- Matthew 12:2
- Nehemiah 10:32-33

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 13:5 "Always be sure to keep the Sabbath day holy. That is, do all your work in six days, for the seventh day is a day for you to rest and to honor me."
- 26:2 Jesus went to the town of Nazareth where he had lived during his childhood. On the Sabbath, he went to the place of worship.
- 41:3 The day after Jesus was buried was a Sabbath day, and the Jews were not permitted to go to the tomb on that day.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H4868, H7676, H7677, G43150, G45210

Matthew References:

12:intro; 12:1; 12:2; 12:5; 12:8; 12:10; 12:11; 12:12; 24:20; 28:1

sackcloth

Definition:

Sackcloth was a coarse, scratchy type of cloth that was made from goat hair or camel hair.

- A person who wore clothing made from it would be uncomfortable. Sackcloth was worn to show mourning, grief, or humble repentance.
- The phrase “sackcloth and ashes” was a common term referring to a traditional expression of grief and repentance.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could also be translated as “coarse cloth from animal hair” or “clothes made of goat hair” or “rough, scratchy clothing.”
- Another way to translate this term could be “rough, scratchy mourning clothes.”
- The phrase “sit in sackcloth and ashes” could be translated as “show mourning and humility by wearing scratchy cloth and sitting in ashes.”

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: ash, camel, goat, humble, mourn, repent, sign)

Bible References:

- 2 Samuel 3:31
- Genesis 37:34
- Joel 1:8-10
- Jonah 3:5
- Luke 10:13
- Matthew 11:21

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H8242, G45260

Matthew References:

11:21

sacrifice, offering

Definition:

In the Bible, the terms “sacrifice” and “offering” refer to special gifts given to God as an act of worshiping him. People also offered sacrifices to false gods.

sacrifice

- Sacrifices to God often involved the killing of an animal.
- Only the sacrifice of Jesus, God’s perfect sinless Son, can completely cleanse people from sin; animal sacrifices could never do that.

offering

- The word “offering” generally refers to anything that is offered or given. The term “sacrifice” refers to something that is given or done at great cost to the giver.
- Offerings to God were specific things that he commanded the Israelites to give in order to express devotion and obedience to him.
- The names of the different offerings, such as “burnt offering” and “peace offering,” indicated what kind of offering was being given.

Translation Suggestions

- The term “offering” could also be translated as “a gift to God” or “something given to God” or “something valuable that is presented to God.”
- Depending on the context, the term “sacrifice” could also be translated as “something valuable given in worship” or “a special animal killed and presented to God.”
- The action to “sacrifice” could be translated as to “give up something valuable” or to “kill an animal and give it to God.”
- Another way to translate “present yourself as a living sacrifice” could be “as you live your life, offer yourself to God as completely as an animal is offered on an altar.”

(See also: altar, burnt offering, drink offering, false god, fellowship offering, freewill offering peace offering, priest, sin offering, worship)

Bible References:

- 2 Timothy 4:6
- Acts 7:42

- Acts 21:25
- Genesis 4:3-5
- James 2:21-24
- Mark 1:43-44
- Mark 14:12
- Matthew 5:23

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 3:14 After Noah got off the boat, he built an altar and sacrificed some of each kind of animal which could be used for a sacrifice. God was happy with the sacrifice and blessed Noah and his family.
- 5:6 "Take Isaac, your only son, and kill him as a sacrifice to me." Again Abraham obeyed God and prepared to sacrifice his son.
- 5:9 God had provided the ram to be the sacrifice instead of Isaac.
- 13:9 Anyone who disobeyed God's law could bring an animal to the Tent of Meeting as a sacrifice to God. A priest would kill the animal and burn it on the altar. The blood of the animal that was sacrificed covered the person's sin and made that person clean in God's sight.
- 17:6 David wanted to build a temple where all the Israelites could worship God and offer him sacrifices.
- 48:6 Jesus is the Great High Priest. Unlike other priests, he offered himself as the only sacrifice that could to take away the sin of all the people in the world.
- 48:8 But God provided Jesus, the Lamb of God, as a sacrifice to die in our place.
- 49:11 Because Jesus sacrificed himself, God can forgive any sin, even terrible sins.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0801, H0817, H0819, H1685, H1890, H1974, H2076, H2077, H2281, H2282, H2398, H2401, H2402, H2403, H2409, H3632, H4394, H4503, H4504, H5066, H5068, H5071, H5257, H5258, H5261, H5262, H5927, H5928, H5930, H6453, H6944, H6999, H7133, H7311, H8002, H8426, H8548, H8573, H8641, G02660, G03340, G10490, G14350, G14940, G23780, G23800, G36460, G43760, G54850

Matthew References:

9:13; 12:7

Sadducee

Definition:

The Sadducees were a political group of Jewish priests during the time of Jesus Christ. They supported Roman rule and did not believe in the resurrection.

- Many Sadducees were wealthy, upper-class Jews who held powerful leadership positions such as chief priest and high priest.
- The duties of the Sadducees included taking care of the temple complex and priestly tasks such as offering sacrifices.
- The Sadducees and the Pharisees strongly influenced the Roman leaders to crucify Jesus.
- Jesus spoke against these two religious groups because of their selfishness and hypocrisy.

(See also: chief priests, council, high priest, hypocrite, Jewish leaders, Pharisee, priest)

Bible References:

- Acts 4:3
- Acts 5:17-18
- Luke 20:27
- Matthew 3:7
- Matthew 16:1

Word Data:

- Strong's: G45230

Matthew References:

3:7; 16:1; 16:6; 16:11; 16:12; 22:23; 22:34

saint

Definition:

The term “saints” literally means “holy ones” and refers to believers in Jesus.

- Later in church history, a person known for his good works was given the title “saint,” but that was not how this term was used during New Testament times.
- Believers in Jesus are saints or holy ones, not because of what they have done, but rather because of their faith in the saving work of Jesus Christ. He is the one who makes them holy.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “saints” could include “holy ones” or “holy people” or “holy believers in Jesus” or “set apart ones.”
- Be careful not to use a term that refers to people of only one Christian group.

(See also: holy)

Bible References:

- 1 Timothy 5:10
- 2 Corinthians 9:12-15
- Revelation 16:6
- Revelation 20:9-10

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2623, H6918, H6922, G00400

Matthew References:

27:52

Samaria, Samaritan

Definition:

Samaria was the name of a city and its surrounding region in the northern part of Israel. The region was located between the Plain of Sharon on its west and the Jordan River on its east.

- In the Old Testament, Samaria was the capital city of the northern kingdom of Israel. Later the region surrounding it was also called Samaria.
- When the Assyrians conquered the northern kingdom of Israel, they captured the city of Samaria and forced most of the northern Israelites to leave the region, moving them far away to different cities in Assyria.
- The Assyrians also brought many foreigners into the region of Samaria to replace the Israelites who had been moved.
- Some of the Israelites who remained in that region married the foreigners who had moved there, and their descendants were called Samaritans.
- The Jews despised the Samaritans because they were only partly Jewish and because their ancestors had worshiped pagan gods.
- In New Testament times, the region of Samaria was bordered by the region of Galilee on its north and the region of Judea on its south.

(See also: Assyria, Galilee, Judea, Sharon, kingdom of Israel)

Bible References:

- Acts 8:1-3
- Acts 8:5
- John 4:4-5
- Luke 9:51-53
- Luke 10:33

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 20:4 Then the Assyrians brought foreigners to live in the land where the kingdom of Israel had been. The foreigners rebuilt the destroyed cities and married the Israelites who were left there. The descendants of the Israelites who married foreigners were called Samaritans.
- 27:8 “The next person to walk down that road was a Samaritan. (Samaritans were the descendants of Jews who had married people from other nations. Samaritans and Jews hated each other.)”

- 27:9 “The Samaritan then lifted the man onto his own donkey and took him to a roadside inn where he took care of him.”
- 45:7 He (Philip) went to Samaria where he preached about Jesus and many people were saved.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H8111, H8115, H8118, G45400, G45410, G45420

Matthew References:

10:5

sanctify, sanctification

Definition:

To sanctify is to set apart or to make holy. Sanctification is the process of being made holy.

- In the Old Testament, certain people and things were sanctified, or set apart, for service to God.
- The New Testament teaches that God sanctifies people who believe in Jesus. That is, he makes them holy and sets them apart to serve him.
- Believers in Jesus are also commanded to sanctify themselves to God, to be holy in everything they do.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “sanctify” can be translated as “set apart” or “make holy” or “purify.”
- When people sanctify themselves, they purify themselves and dedicate themselves to God’s service. Often the word “consecrate” is used in the Bible with this meaning.
- When its meaning is “consecrate,” this term could be translated as “dedicate someone (or something) to God’s service.”
- Depending on the context, the phrase “your sanctification” could be translated as “making you holy” or “setting you apart (for God)” or “what makes you holy.”

(See also: consecrate, holy, set apart)

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 4:3-6
- 2 Thessalonians 2:13
- Genesis 2:1-3
- Luke 11:2
- Matthew 6:8-10

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H6942, G00370, G00380

Matthew References:

6:9; 23:17; 23:19

sandal

Definition:

A sandal is a simple shoe with a flat sole that is held onto the foot by straps that go around the foot or ankle. Sandals are worn by both men and women.

- In ancient Israel, a sandal was sometimes used to confirm a legal transaction, such as the selling of property. One person would take off a sandal and give it to the other person to show that the transaction was legal and binding.
- John said that he was not worthy to even untie Jesus' sandals, which was a normal task for the servant or slave with the lowest status in a Jewish household.

Bible References:

- Acts 7:33
- Deuteronomy 25:10
- John 1:27
- Joshua 5:15
- Mark 6:7-9

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5274, H5275, H8288, G45470, G52660

Matthew References:

3:11; 10:10

Satan, devil, evil one

Definition:

Although the devil is a spirit being that God created, he rebelled against God and became God's enemy. The devil is also called "Satan" and "the evil one."

- The devil hates God and all that God created because he wants to take the place of God and be worshiped as God.
- Satan tempts people to rebel against God.
- God sent his Son, Jesus, to rescue people from Satan's control.
- The name "Satan" means "adversary" or "enemy."
- The word "devil" means "accuser."

Translation Suggestions:

- The word "devil" could also be translated as "the accuser" or "the evil one" or "the king of evil spirits" or "the chief evil spirit."
- "Satan" could be translated as "Opponent" or "Adversary" or some other name that shows that he is the devil.
- These terms should be translated differently from demon and evil spirit.
- Consider how these terms are translated in a local or national language.

(See: How to Translate Unknowns)

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: demon, evil, kingdom of God, tempt)

Bible References:

- 1 John 3:8
- 1 Thessalonians 2:17-20
- 1 Timothy 5:15
- Acts 13:10
- Job 1:8
- Mark 8:33
- Zechariah 3:1

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 21:1 The snake who deceived Eve was Satan. The promise meant that the Messiah who would come would defeat Satan completely.
- 25:6 Then Satan showed Jesus all the kingdoms of the world and all their glory and said, “I will give you all this if you bow down and worship me.”
- 25:8 Jesus did not give in to Satan’s temptations, so Satan left him.
- 33:6 So Jesus explained, “The seed is the word of God. The path is a person who hears God’s word, but does not understand it, and the devil takes the word from him.”
- 38:7 After Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him.
- 48:4 God promised that one of Eve’s descendants would crush Satan’s head, and Satan would wound his heel. This meant that Satan would kill the Messiah, but God would raise him to life again, and then the Messiah will crush the power of Satan forever.
- 49:15 God has taken you out of Satan’s kingdom of darkness and put you into God’s kingdom of light.
- 50:9 “The weeds represent the people who belong to the evil one. The enemy who planted the weeds represents the devil.”
- 50:10 “When the world ends, the angels will gather together all the people who belong to the devil and throw them into a raging fire, where they will cry and grind their teeth in terrible suffering.”
- 50:15 When Jesus returns, he will completely destroy Satan and his kingdom. He will throw Satan into hell where he will burn forever, along with everyone who chose to follow him rather than to obey God.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H7700, H7854, H8163, G11390, G11400, G11410, G11420, G12280, G41900, G45660, G45670

Matthew References:

4:1; 4:5; 4:8; 4:10; 4:11; 6:13; 12:26; 13:19; 13:38; 13:39; 16:23; 25:41 save, saved, safe, salvation, rescue

Definition:

The term “save” refers to keeping someone from experiencing something bad or harmful. To “be safe” means to be protected from harm or danger.

- In a physical sense, people can be saved or rescued from harm, danger, or death.
- In a spiritual sense, if a person has been “saved,” then God, through Jesus’ death on the cross, has forgiven him and rescued him from being punished in hell for his sin.
- People can save or rescue people from danger, but only God can save people from being punished eternally for their sins.

The term “salvation” refers to being saved or rescued from evil and danger.

- In the Bible, “salvation” usually refers to the spiritual and eternal deliverance granted by God to those who repent of their sins and believe in Jesus.
- The Bible also talks about God saving or delivering his people from their physical enemies.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “save” could include “deliver” or “keep from harm” or “take out of harm’s way” or “keep from dying.”
- In the expression “whoever would save his life,” the term “save” could also be translated as “preserve” or “protect.”
- The term “safe” could be translated as “protected from danger” or “in a place where nothing can harm.”
- The term “salvation” could also be translated using words related to “save” or “rescue,” as in “God’s saving people (from being punished for their sins)” or “God’s rescuing his people (from their enemies).”
- “God is my salvation” could be translated as “God is the one who saves me.”
- “You will draw water from the wells of salvation” could be translated as “You will be refreshed as with water because God is rescuing you.”

(See also: cross, deliver, punish, sin, Savior)

Bible References:

- Genesis 49:18
- Genesis 47:25-26
- Psalms 80:3
- Jeremiah 16:19-21
- Micah 6:3-5
- Luke 2:30
- Luke 8:36-37
- Acts 4:12
- Acts 28:28
- Acts 2:21
- Romans 1:16
- Romans 10:10
- Ephesians 6:17
- Philippians 1:28
- 1 Timothy 1:15-17
- Revelation 19:1-2

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 9:8 Moses tried to save his fellow Israelite.
- 11:2 God provided a way to save the firstborn son of anyone who believed in him.
- 12:5 Moses told the Israelites, “Stop being afraid! God will fight for you today and save you.”
- 12:13 The Israelites sang many songs to celebrate their new freedom and to praise God because he saved them from the Egyptian army.
- 16:17 This pattern repeated many times: the Israelites would sin, God would punish them, they would repent, and God would send a deliverer to save them.
- 44:8 “You crucified Jesus, but God raised him to life again! You rejected him, but there is no other way to be saved except through the power of Jesus!”

- 47:11 The jailer trembled as he came to Paul and Silas and asked, “What must I do to be saved?” Paul answered, “Believe in Jesus, the Master, and you and your family will be saved.”
- 49:12 Good works cannot save you.
- 49:13 God will save everyone who believes in Jesus and receives him as their Master. But he will not save anyone who does not believe in him.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0983, H2421, H2502, H3444, H3467, H3468, H4190, H4422, H4931, H5338, H6308, H6403, H7682, H7951, H7965, H8104, H8199, H8668, G08030, G08040, G08060, G12950, G15080, G49820, G49910, G49920, G51980

Matthew References:

1:21; 8:25; 10:22; 14:30; 16:25; 19:25; 24:13; 24:22; 27:40; 27:42; 27:49

scribe

Definition:

Scribes were officials who were responsible for writing or copying important government or religious documents by hand. Another name for a Jewish scribe was “expert in Jewish law.”

- Scribes were responsible for copying and preserving the books of the Old Testament.
- They also copied, preserved, and interpreted religious opinions and commentary on the law of God.
- At times, scribes were important government officials.
- Important biblical scribes include Baruch and Ezra.
- In the New Testament, the term translated “scribes” was also translated as “teachers of the Law.”
- In the New Testament, scribes were usually part of the religious group called the “Pharisees,” and the two groups were frequently mentioned together.

(See also: law, Pharisee)

Bible References:

- Acts 4:5
- Luke 7:29-30
- Luke 20:47
- Mark 1:22
- Mark 2:16
- Matthew 5:19-20
- Matthew 7:28
- Matthew 12:38
- Matthew 13:52

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5608, H5613, H7083, G11220

Matthew References:

2:4; 5:20; 7:29; 8:19; 9:3; 12:38; 13:52; 15:1; 16:21; 17:10; 20:18; 21:15; 23:2; 23:13; 23:15; 23:23; 23:25; 23:27; 23:29; 23:34; 26:57; 27:41

Sea of Galilee, Sea of Kinnereth, lake of Gennesaret, Sea of Tiberias

Definition:

The “Sea of Galilee” is a lake in eastern Israel. In the Old Testament it was called the “Sea of Kinnereth.”

- The water of this lake flows south through the Jordan River down to the Salt Sea.
- Capernaum, Bethsaida, Gennesaret, and Tiberias were some of the towns located on the Sea of Galilee during New Testament times.
- Many events of Jesus’ life took place on or near the Sea of Galilee.
- The Sea of Galilee was also referred to as the “Sea of Tiberias” and the “lake of Gennesaret.”
- This term could also be translated as “lake in the region of Galilee” or “Lake Galilee” or “lake near Tiberias (Gennesaret).”

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Capernaum, Galilee, Jordan River, Salt Sea)

Bible References:

- John 6:1-3
- Luke 5:1
- Mark 1:16-18
- Matthew 4:12-13
- Matthew 4:18-20
- Matthew 8:18-20
- Matthew 13:1-2
- Matthew 15:29-31

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3220, H3672, G10560, G10820, G22810, G30410, G50850

Matthew References:

4:18; 8:24; 8:26; 8:27; 8:32; 13:1; 14:25; 14:26; 15:29; 17:27

seal, sealed, unsealed

Definition:

When referring to an action, the term “seal” means to close an object with something (usually called a “seal”) that makes the object impossible to open without breaking the seal. When referring to an object, the term “seal” refers to something that was made of wood or metal or stone that was formed into a design so that it could be used to stamp something (make an imprint on it).

- A seal was marked with a design to show who it belonged to.
- Seals were used to mark different objects for the purpose of showing that the thing belonged to the owner or had come from the owner or was approved by the owner.
- Seals were used to indicate the authenticity of something as deriving from the owner or being approved by the owner or belonging to the owner in some way.
- Sometimes a seal was put on the top of a ring so that the owner of the ring could press the seal down into something and make an imprint on it.
- Sometimes seals were attached to a string or cord and worn around the neck.
- Melted wax was used to seal letters or other documents that needed to be protected. When the wax cooled and hardened, the letter could not be opened without breaking the wax seal. The person who received the letter would see the unbroken seal and know that no one had opened it.
- A seal was put on the stone in front of Jesus’ grave in order to keep anyone from moving the stone.

(See also: Holy Spirit, tomb)

Bible References:

- Exodus 2:3
- Isaiah 29:11
- John 6:27
- Matthew 27:66
- Revelation 5:2

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2368, H2560, H2856, H2857, H2858, H5640, G26960, G49720, G49730

Matthew References:

27:intro; 27:66

seed

Definition:

A “seed” is the part of a plant that gets planted in the ground to reproduce more of the same kind of plant.

- The term “seed” can also refer to what a man plants into a woman that allows them to reproduce.
- Related to this, “seed” is also used to refer to a man‘s or woman‘s offspring or descendants.
- This word often has a plural meaning, referring to more than one seed grain or more than one descendant.
- In the parable of the farmer planting seeds, Jesus compared his seeds to the Word of God, which is planted in people’s hearts in order to produce good spiritual fruit.
- The apostle Paul also uses the term “seed” to refer to the Word of God.

Translation Suggestions:

- For the seed of a plant, use a general term that can apply to all plants, if possible.
- When “seed” refers to people who are of the same family line, it may be more clear to use the word “descendant” or “descendants” instead of “seed.” Some languages may have a word that means “children and grandchildren.”
- For a man or woman’s “seed,” consider how the target expresses this in a way that will not offend or embarrass people.

(See also: children, descendant)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 18:32
- Genesis 1:11
- Jeremiah 2:21
- Matthew 13:8

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2232, H2233, H3610, H6507, G46150, G46870, G46900, G47010, G47030

Matthew References:

13:24; 13:27; 13:32; 13:37; 13:38; 22:24; 22:25

seek, search, look for

Definition:

The term “seek” means to look for something or someone. In the past tense, the verb is “sought.” This term is sometimes used figuratively, meaning to “attempt” or “make an effort” to do something or to ask for something.

- To “seek” or “look for” an opportunity to do something can mean to “try to find a time” to do it.
- To “seek Yahweh” means to “spend time and energy getting to know Yahweh and learning to obey him.”
- To “seek protection” means to “try to find a person or place that will protect you from danger.”
- To “seek justice” means to “make an effort to see that people are treated justly or fairly.”
- To “seek the truth” means to “make an effort to find out what the truth is.”
- To “seek favor” means to “urgently ask for favor” or to “do things to cause someone to help you.”

(See also: just, true)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 10:14
- Acts 17:26-27
- Hebrews 11:6
- Luke 11:9
- Psalms 27:8

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0579, H1156, H1239, H1243, H1245, H1556, H1875, H2470, H2603, H2658, H2664, H3289, H7125, H7592, H7836, H8446, G03270, G15670, G19340, G20520, G22120

Matthew References:

2:13; 2:20; 6:32; 6:33; 7:7; 7:8; 12:39; 12:43; 12:46; 12:47; 13:45; 16:4; 18:12; 21:46; 26:16; 26:59; 28:5

seize, seizure, capture

Definition:

The term “seize” means to take or capture someone or something by force. It can also mean to overpower and control someone.

- When a city was taken by means of military force, the soldiers would seize the valuable property of the people they had conquered.
- When used figuratively, a person can be described as being “seized with fear.” This means that the person was suddenly “overcome by fear.” If a person was “seized with fear” it could also be stated that the person “suddenly became very afraid.”
- In the context of labor pains that “seize” a woman, the meaning is that the pains are sudden and overpowering. This could be translated by saying that the pains “overcome” or “suddenly come upon” the woman.
- This term could also be translated as “take control of” or “suddenly take” or “grab.”
- The expression “seized and slept with her” could be translated as “forced himself on her” or “violated her” or “raped her.” Make sure the translation of this concept is acceptable.

(See: euphemism)

Bible References:

- Acts 16:19-21
- Exodus 15:14
- John 10:37-39
- Luke 8:29
- Matthew 26:48

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0270, H1497, H2388, H3027, H3920, H3947, H4672, H5377, H5860, H6031, H7760, H8610, G07240, G19490, G26380, G29020, G29830, G48150, G48840

Matthew References:

11:12; 12:29; 13:19; 14:3; 18:28; 21:46; 22:6; 26:4; 26:48; 26:50; 26:55; 26:57 serpent, snake, viper

Definition:

These terms all refer to a kind of reptile that has a long, thin body and large, fanged jaws, and that moves by slithering back and forth across the ground. The term “serpent” usually refers to a large snake and “viper” refers to a type of snake that has venom which it uses to poison its prey.

- This animal is also used figuratively to refer to a person who is evil, especially someone who is deceitful.
- Jesus called the religious leaders “offspring of vipers” because they pretended to be righteous but deceived people and treated them unfairly.
- In the garden of Eden, Satan took the form of a serpent when he talked to Eve and tempted her to disobey God.
- After the serpent tempted Eve to sin, and both Eve and her husband Adam did sin, God cursed the snake, saying that from then on, all snakes would slither along the ground, implying that before then they had had legs.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: curse, deceive, disobey, Eden, evil, prey, Satan, sin, tempt)

Bible References:

- Genesis 3:3
- Genesis 3:4-6
- Genesis 3:12-13
- Mark 16:17-18
- Matthew 3:7
- Matthew 23:33

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0660, H2119, H5175, H6620, H6848, H8314, H8577, G21910, G20620, G37890

Matthew References:

3:7; 7:10; 10:16; 12:34; 23:33

servant, serve, maidservant, young man, young women

Definition:

A “servant” refers to a person who works for (or obeys) another person, either by choice or by force. A servant was under his master’s direction. In the Bible, “servant” and “slave” are mostly interchangeable terms. The term “serve” generally means to do work for someone, and the concept can be applied in a wide variety of contexts.

- In the Bible the words “young man” or “young woman” often mean “servant” or “slave.” This meaning will be discerned from context. One indicator of this situation is if the possessive is used, eg. “her young women” which could be translated as “her servants” or “her slaves.”

Translation Suggestions

- The term “serve” can also be translated as “minister to” or “work for” or “take care of” or “obey,” depending on the context.
- To “serve God” can be translated as to “worship and obey God” or to “do the work that God has commanded.”
- In the Old Testament, God’s prophets and other people who worshiped God were often called his “servants.”
- In the New Testament, people who obeyed God through faith in Christ were often called his “servants.”
- To “serve tables” means to bring food to people who are sitting at tables, or more generally, to “distribute food.”
- In the context of a person serving guests, this term means “care for” or “serve food to” or “provide food for.” When Jesus told the disciples to “serve” the fish to the people, this could be translated as, “distribute” or “hand out” or “give.”
- People who teach others about God are said to serve both God and the ones they are teaching.
- The apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthian Christians about how they used to “serve” the old covenant. This refers to obeying the laws of Moses. Now they “serve” the new covenant. That is, because of Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross, believers in Jesus are enabled by the Holy Spirit to please God and live holy lives.
- Paul talks about their actions in terms of their “service” to either the old or new covenant. This could be translated as “serving” or “obeying” or “devotion to.”
- Often, when a person referred to himself as “your servant” he was showing respect to the person addressed. That person may have had higher social status, or the speaker may be showing humility. It did not mean that the person speaking was an actual servant.

(See also: enslave, works, obey, house, lord)

Bible References:

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 6:1 When Abraham was very old and his son, Isaac, had grown to be a man, Abraham sent one of his servants back to the land where his relatives lived to find a wife for his son, Isaac.
- 19:10 Then Elijah prayed, “O Yahweh, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, show us today that you are the God of Israel and that I am your servant.”
- 29:3 “Since the servant could not pay the debt, the king said, ‘Sell this man and his family as slaves to make payment on his debt.’”
- 35:6 “All my father’s servants have plenty to eat, and yet here I am starving.”
- 47:4 The slave girl kept yelling as they walked, “These men are servants of the Most High God.”
- 50:4 Jesus also said, “A servant is not greater than his master.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s for Servant: H0519, H5288, H5647, H5649, H5650, H5657, H7916, H8198, H8334, G12490, G14010, G14020, G23240, G34070, G34110, G36100, G38160, G49830, G52570

Strong’s for Serve: H3547, H4929, H4931, H5647, H5656, H5673, H5975, H6213, H6399, H6402, H6440, H6633, H6635, H7272, H8104, H8120, H8199, H8278, H8334, G12470, G12480, G13980, G14020, G14380, G19830, G20640, G22120, G23230, G29990, G30000, G30090, G43370, G43420, G47540, G50870, G52560

Matthew References:

4:10; 6:24; 8:6; 8:8; 8:9; 8:13; 10:24; 10:25; 12:18; 13:27; 13:28; 14:2; 18:23; 18:26; 18:27; 18:28; 18:29; 18:31; 18:32; 18:33; 20:27; 21:34; 21:35; 21:36; 22:3; 22:4; 22:6; 22:8; 22:10; 24:45; 24:46; 24:48; 24:49; 24:50; 25:14; 25:19; 25:21; 25:23; 25:26; 25:30; 26:51; 26:69

sexual immorality, immorality, immoral, fornication

Definition:

The term “sexual immorality” refers to sexual activity that takes place outside the marriage relationship of a man and a woman. This is against God’s plan. Older English Bible versions call this “fornication.”

- This term can refer to any kind of sexual activity that is against God’s will, including homosexual acts and pornography.
- One type of sexual immorality is adultery, which is sexual activity specifically between a married person and someone who is not that person’s spouse.
- Another type of sexual immorality is “prostitution,” which involves being paid to have sex with someone.
- This term is also used figuratively to refer to Israel’s unfaithfulness to God when they worshiped false gods.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “sexual immorality” could be translated as “immorality” as long as the correct meaning of the term is understood.
- Other ways to translate this term could include “wrong sexual acts” or “sex outside of marriage.”
- This term should be translated in a different way from the term “adultery.”
- The translation of this term’s figurative uses should retain the literal term if possible since there is a common comparison in the Bible between unfaithfulness to God and unfaithfulness in the sexual relationship.

(See also: adultery, false god, prostitute, faithful)

Bible References:

- Acts 15:20
- Acts 21:25-26
- Colossians 3:5-8
- Ephesians 5:3
- Genesis 38:24-26
- Hosea 4:13-14

- Matthew 5:31-32
- Matthew 19:7-9

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2181, H8457, G16080, G42020, G42030

Matthew References:

5:32; 15:19; 19:9

shame, ashamed, disgrace, humiliate, reproach

Definition:

The term “shame” refers to the painful feeling of being disgraced or humiliated that a person feels when they do something that others consider dishonorable or improper.

- Something that is “shameful” is “improper” or “dishonorable.”
- The term “ashamed” describes how a person feels when he has done something improper or dishonorable.
- The term “humiliate” means to cause someone to feel shamed or disgraced, usually publicly. The act of shaming someone is called “humiliation.”
- To “reproach” someone means to criticize or disapprove of that person’s character or behavior.
- The phrase “put to shame” means to defeat people or expose their actions so that they feel ashamed of themselves. The prophet Isaiah said that those who make and worship idols will be put to shame.
- The term “disgraceful” can be used to describe a sinful act or the person who did it. When a person does something sinful, it can cause him to be in a state of disgrace or dishonor.
- Sometimes a person who is doing good things is treated in a way that causes him disgrace or shame. For example, when Jesus was killed on a cross, this was a disgraceful way to die. Jesus had done nothing wrong to deserve this disgrace.
- When God humbles someone, it means that he is causing a prideful person to experience failure to help him overcome his pride. This is different from humiliating someone, which is often done in order to hurt that person.
- Saying that a person is “above reproach” or “beyond reproach” or “without reproach” means that this person behaves in a God-honoring way and there is little or nothing that could be said in criticism of him.

Translation Suggestions

- Ways to translate “disgrace” could include “shame” or “dishonor.”
- Ways to translate “disgraceful” could include “shameful” or “dishonoring.”
- To “humiliate” could also be translated as to “shame” or to “cause to feel shame” or to “embarrass.”
- Depending on the context, ways to translate “humiliation” could include “shame” or “degrading” or “disgrace.”
- The word “reproach” could also be translated as “accusation” or “shame” or “disgrace.”
- To “reproach” could also be translated as to “rebuke” or to “accuse” or to “criticize,” depending on the context.

(See also: dishonor, accuse, rebuke, false god, humble, Isaiah, worship)

Bible References:

- 1 Peter 3:15-17
- 2 Kings 2:17
- 2 Samuel 13:13
- Luke 20:11
- Mark 8:38
- Mark 12:4-5
- 1 Timothy 3:7
- Genesis 34:7
- Hebrews 11:26
- Lamentations 2:1-2
- Psalms 22:6
- Deuteronomy 21:14
- Ezra 9:5
- Proverbs 25:7-8
- Psalms 6:8-10
- Psalms 123:3
- 1 Timothy 5:7-8
- 1 Timothy 6:13-14
- Jeremiah 15:15-16
- Job 16:9-10
- Proverbs 18:3

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0937, H0954, H0955, H1317, H1322, H1421, H1442, H1984, H2490, H2616, H2617, H2659, H2778, H2781, H2865, H3001, H3637, H3639, H3640, H3971, H5007, H5034, H5039, H6030, H6031, H6172, H6256, H7022, H7034, H7036, H7043, H7511, H7817, H8103, H8213, H8216, H8217, H8589, G01520, G01530, G04100, G04220, G04230, G08080, G08180, G08190, G08210, G17880, G17910, G18700, G26170, G30590, G36790, G36800, G36810, G38560, G50140, G51950, G51960, G54840

Matthew References:

5:11; 11:20; 27:44

shepherd, herder, pastor

Definition:

A “shepherd” is a person who takes care of sheep. In the Old Testament, this word can also refer to a “herder” who takes care of other kinds of domestic livestock such as goats or cattle.

- As a verb, the term “shepherd” means to lead sheep (or other livestock) to places with good food and water, protect them from wild animals, keep them from getting lost and other duties necessary to keep livestock alive and healthy.
- In the Bible, this term is often used figuratively to refer to taking care of the needs of people (not only animals), both physical and spiritual.
- In the Old Testament, God was called the “shepherd” of his people because he took care of them. In the New Testament, Jesus called himself the “good shepherd,” and in other places Jesus is called the “great shepherd” of the Church.
- The term “shepherd” is also used in the New Testament to refer to a person who is a spiritual leader over other believers. The word translated as “pastor” is the same word that is translated as “shepherd.” Elders and overseers are also called shepherds.

Translation Suggestions

- The noun “shepherd” can be translated as “person who takes care of sheep” or “sheep tender” or “sheep caregiver.”
- When referring to someone who cares for livestock other than sheep, the term can be translated as “herder,” “tender of livestock” or “person who takes care of livestock.”
- When used as a verb, the term “shepherd” could be translated as “take care of sheep” or “watch over sheep.”
- In some contexts, the term “shepherd” could be translated as “leader” or “guide” or “caregiver.”
- When used figuratively, the noun “shepherd” could be translated in different ways, including “spiritual shepherd” or “spiritual leader” or “one who is like a shepherd” or “one who cares for his people like a shepherd cares for his sheep” or “one who leads his people like a shepherd guides his sheep” or “one who takes care of God’s sheep.”
- When used figuratively, the verb “shepherd” could be translated as to “take care of” or to “spiritually nourish” or to “guide and teach” or to “lead and take care of (like a shepherd cares for sheep).”

(See also: sheep, livestock, pastor)

Bible References:

- Genesis 13:7

- Genesis 49:24
- Luke 2:9
- Mark 6:34
- Mark 14:26-27
- Matthew 2:6
- Matthew 9:36
- Matthew 25:32
- Matthew 26:31

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 9:11 Moses became a shepherd in the wilderness far away from Egypt.to
- 17:2 David was a shepherd from the town of Bethlehem. At different times while he was watching his father's sheep, David had killed both a lion and a bear that had attacked the sheep.
- 23:6 That night, there were some shepherds in a nearby field guarding their flocks.
- 23:8 The shepherds soon arrived at the place where Jesus was and they found him lying in a feeding trough, just as the angel had told them.
- 30:3 To Jesus, these people were like sheep without a shepherd.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H6629, H7462, H7469, H7473, G07500, G41650, G41660

Matthew References:

2:6; 9:36; 25:32; 26:31

Sidon, Sidonians

Definition:

Sidon was the oldest son of Canaan. There is also a Canaanite city called Sidon, probably named after Canaan's son.

- The city of Sidon was located northwest of Israel on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea in a region that is part of the present-day country of Lebanon.
- The "Sidonians" were a Phoenician people group who lived in ancient Sidon and the region surrounding it.
- In the Bible, Sidon is closely associated with the city of Tyre, and both cities were known for their wealth and for immoral behavior of their people.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Canaan, Noah, Phoenicia, the sea, Tyre)

Bible References:

- Acts 12:20
- Acts 27:3-6
- Genesis 10:15-18
- Genesis 10:19
- Mark 3:7-8
- Matthew 11:22
- Matthew 15:22

Word Data:

- Strong's: H6721, H6722, G46050, G46060

Matthew References:

11:21; 11:22; 15:21

sign, proof, reminder

Definition:

The term “sign” usually refers an object, event, or action that communicates a special meaning.

- In the Bible, signs are sometimes given in connection to a promise or covenant that God has made:
  - The book of Genesis describes the rainbow God created in the sky as a sign (or reminder) to himself that he has promised he will never again destroy all life with a worldwide flood.
  - In the book of Genesis, God commanded the Israelites to circumcise their sons as a sign (or indicator) of the fact that he had made his covenant with them.
- Signs can reveal or point to something:
  - The book of Luke describes that an angel gave shepherds a sign that would help them know which baby in Bethlehem was the newborn Messiah.
  - Judas kissed Jesus as a sign to the religious leaders that Jesus was the one they should arrest.
- Signs can prove that something is true:
  - The book of Exodus describes the plagues that destroyed Egypt as signs that showed who Yahweh was and proved that he was greater than Pharaoh and the Egyptian gods.
  - The book of Acts describes the miracles performed by the prophets and apostles as signs that proved they were speaking God’s message.
  - The book of John describes the miracles that Jesus performed as signs that proved he was truly the Messiah.

Translation Suggestions:

- The frequent expression “signs and wonders” could be translated as “proofs and miracles” or “miraculous works that prove God’s power” or “amazing miracles that show how great God is.”
- Depending on its context, “sign” could also be translated as “signal” or “symbol” or “mark” or “evidence” or “proof” or “gesture.”
- To “make signs with the hands” could also be translated as “motion with the hands” or “gesture with the hands” or “make gestures.”

- In some languages, there may be one word for a “sign” that proves something and a different word for a “sign” that is a miracle.

(See also: miracle, apostle, Christ, covenant, circumcise)

Bible References:

- Acts 2:18-19
- Exodus 4:8-9
- Exodus 31:12-15
- Genesis 1:14
- Genesis 9:12
- John 2:18
- Luke 2:12
- Mark 8:12
- Psalms 89:5-6

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0226, H0852, H2368, H2858, H4150, H4159, H4864, H5251, H5824, H6161, H6725, H6734, H7560, G03640, G08800, G12130, G12290, G17180, G17300, G17320, G17700, G39020, G41020, G45910, G45920, G49530, G49730, G52800

Matthew References:

12:38; 12:39; 16:1; 16:4; 24:3; 24:24; 24:30; 26:48

silver

Definition:

Silver is a shiny, gray precious metal used to make coins, jewelry, containers, and ornaments.

- The various containers that are made from silver include silver cups and bowls, and other things used for cooking, eating, or serving.
- Silver and gold were used in the building of the tabernacle and the temple. The temple in Jerusalem had containers made of silver.
- In Bible times, a shekel was a unit of weight, and a purchase was often priced at a certain number of shekels of silver. By New Testament times there were silver coins of various weights that were measured in shekels.
- Joseph's brothers sold him as a slave for twenty shekels of silver.
- Judas was paid thirty silver coins for betraying Jesus.
- If your culture does not have silver you could translate this term as "precious metal"

(See also: tabernacle, temple)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 18:9-11
- 1 Samuel 2:36
- 2 Kings 25:13-15
- Acts 3:6
- Matthew 26:15

Word Data:

- Strong's: H3701, H3702, H7192, G06930, G06940, G06950, G06960, G14060

Matthew References:

10:9; 25:18; 25:27; 26:15; 27:3; 27:5; 27:6; 27:9; 28:12; 28:15

Simon the Zealot

Definition:

Simon the Zealot was one of Jesus' twelve disciples.

- Simon is mentioned three times in the listing of Jesus' disciples, but little else is known about him.
- Simon was one of the Eleven who met to pray together in Jerusalem after Jesus went back up into heaven.
- The term "zealot" may mean that Simon was a member of "the Zealots," a Jewish religious party that was very zealous in upholding the Law of Moses while strongly opposing the Roman government.
- Or, "zealot" may simply mean "the zealous one," referring to Simon's religious zeal.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: apostle, disciple, the twelve)

Bible References:

- Acts 1:12-14
- Luke 6:14-16
- Mark 3:17-19

Word Data:

- Strong's: G22080, G25810, G46130

Matthew References:

10:4

sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

Definition:

The term “sin” refers to actions, thoughts, and words that are against God’s will and laws. Sin can also refer to not doing something that God wants us to do.

- Sin includes anything we do that does not obey or please God, even things that other people do not know about.
- Thoughts and actions that disobey God’s will are called “sinful.”
- Because Adam sinned, all human beings are born with a “sinful nature,” a nature that that controls them and causes them to sin.
- A “sinner” is someone who sins, so every human being is a sinner.
- Sometimes the word “sinners” was used by religious people like the Pharisees to refer to people who did not keep the law as well as the Pharisees thought they should.
- The term “sinner” was also used for people who were considered to be worse sinners than other people. For example, this label was given to tax collectors and prostitutes.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “sin” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “disobedience to God” or “going against God’s will” or “evil behavior and thoughts” or “wrongdoing.”
- To “sin” could also be translated as to “disobey God” or to “do wrong.”
- Depending on the context “sinful” could be translated as “full of wrongdoing” or “wicked” or “immoral” or “evil” or “rebelling against God.”
- Depending on the context the term “sinner” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “person who sins” or “person who does wrong things” or “person who disobeys God” or “person who disobeys the law.”
- The term “sinners” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “very sinful people” or “people considered to be very sinful” or “immoral people.”
- Ways to translate “tax collectors and sinners” could include “people who collect money for the government, and other very sinful people” or “very sinful people, including (even) tax collectors.”
- Make sure the translation of this term can include sinful behavior and thoughts, even those that other people do not see or know about.
- The term “sin” should be general, and different from the terms for “wickedness” and “evil.”

(See also: disobey, evil, flesh, tax collector)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 9:1-3
- 1 John 1:10
- 1 John 2:2
- 2 Samuel 7:12-14
- Acts 3:19
- Daniel 9:24
- Genesis 4:7
- Hebrews 12:2
- Isaiah 53:11
- Jeremiah 18:23
- Leviticus 4:14
- Luke 15:18
- Matthew 12:31
- Romans 6:23
- Romans 8:4

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 3:15 God said, “I promise I will never again curse the ground because of the evil things people do, or destroy the world by causing a flood, even though people are sinful from the time they are children.”
- 13:12 God was very angry with them because of their sin and planned to destroy them.
- 20:1 The kingdoms of Israel and Judah both sinned against God. They broke the covenant that God made with them at Sinai.
- 21:13 The prophets also said that the Messiah would be perfect, having no sin. He would die to receive the punishment for other people’s sin.
- 35:1 One day, Jesus was teaching many tax collectors and other sinners who had gathered to hear him.
- 38:5 Then Jesus took a cup and said, “Drink this. It is my blood of the New Covenant that is poured out for the forgiveness of sins.”
- 43:11 Peter answered them, “Every one of you should repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ so that God will forgive your sins.”
- 48:8 We all deserve to die for our sins!

- 49:17 Even though you are a Christian, you will still be tempted to sin. But God is faithful and says that if you confess your sins, he will forgive you. He will give you strength to fight against sin.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0817, H0819, H2398, H2399, H2400, H2401, H2402, H2403, H2408, H2409, H5771, H6588, H7683, H7686, G02640, G02650, G02660, G02680, G03610, G37810, G39000, G42580

Matthew References:

1:21; 3:6; 9:intro; 9:2; 9:5; 9:6; 9:10; 9:11; 9:13; 11:19; 12:31; 18:15; 18:21; 26:28; 26:45; 27:4

skin disease, leper, leprosy

Definition:

The term “leprosy” is used in the Bible to refer to several different skin diseases. A “leper” is a person who has leprosy. The term “leprous” describes a person or body part that is infected with leprosy.

- Certain kinds of leprosy cause the skin to become discolored with white patches, as when Miriam and Naaman had leprosy.
- In modern times, leprosy often causes hands, feet, and other body parts to become damaged and deformed.
- According to the instructions that God gave to the Israelites, when a person had leprosy, he was considered “unclean” and had to stay away from other people so that they would not become infected with the disease.
- A leper would often call out “unclean” so that others would be warned not to come near him.
- Jesus healed many lepers, and also people who had other kinds of diseases.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “leprosy” in the Bible can be translated as “skin disease” or “dreaded skin disease.”
- Ways to translate “leprous” could include “full of leprosy” or “infected with skin disease” or “covered with skin sores.”

(See also: Miriam, Naaman, clean)

Bible References:

- Luke 5:13
- Luke 17:12
- Mark 1:40
- Mark 14:3
- Matthew 8:3
- Matthew 10:8-10
- Matthew 11:5

Word Data:

- Strong's: H6879, H6883, G30140, G30150

Matthew References:

8:2; 8:3; 10:8; 11:5; 26:6

snare, ensnare, entrap, trap, trapped, pitfall

Definition:

The terms “snare” and “trap” refer to devices that are used to catch animals and keep them from escaping. To “snare” or “ensnare” is to catch with a snare, and to “trap” or “entrap” is to catch with a trap. In the Bible, these terms were also used figuratively to talk about how sin and temptation are like hidden traps that catch people and harm them.

- A “snare” is a loop of rope or wire that suddenly pulls tight when an animal steps into it, ensnaring its leg.
- A “trap” is usually made of metal or wood and has two parts that suddenly and powerfully close together, catching an animal so it can not get away. Sometimes a trap can be a deep hole that has been made in order to get something to fall into it.
- Usually the snare or trap is hidden so that its prey is taken by surprise.
- The phrase “set a trap” means to get a trap ready to capture something.
- To “fall into a trap” refers to falling into a deep hole or pit that was dug and hidden in order to catch an animal.
- A person who is starts sinning and cannot stop can be described as “ensnared by sin” in a figurative reference to the way an animal can be ensnared and cannot escape.
- Just as an animal is endangered and hurt by being in a trap, so a person caught in the trap of sin is being harmed by that sin and needs to be set free.

(See also: free, prey, Satan, tempt)

Bible References:

- Ecclesiastes 7:26
- Luke 21:34
- Mark 12:13
- Psalms 18:5

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2256, H3353, H3369, H3920, H3921, H4170, H4204, H4434, H4685, H4686, H4889, H5367, H5914, H6341, H6351, H6354, H6679, H6983, H7639, H7845, H8610, G00640, G23390, G23400, G38020, G38030, G39850, G46250

Matthew References:

22:15

snow

Definition:

The term “snow” refers to white flakes of frozen water that can fall from clouds in places where the air temperature is cold.

- Snow falls in places of higher elevation in Israel, but does not always stay on the ground very long before melting. The peaks of mountains tend to have snow that lasts longer. One example of a place mentioned in the Bible as having snow is Mount Lebanon.
- Something that is very white often has its color compared to the color of snow. For example, in the book of Revelation Jesus’ clothing and hair were described as being “white as snow.”
- The whiteness of snow also symbolizes purity and cleanliness. For example, the statement that our “sins will be as white as snow” means that God will completely cleanse his people from their sins.
- Some languages might refer to snow as “frozen rain” or “flakes of ice” or “frozen flakes.”
- “Snow water” refers to the water that comes from melted snow.

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

(Translation suggestions: Translate Names)

(See also: Lebanon, pure)

Bible References:

- Exodus 4:6
- Job 37:4-6
- Matthew 28:3
- Psalms 147:16
- Revelation 1:14

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H7949, H7950, H8517, G55100

Matthew References:

28:3

Sodom

Definition:

Sodom was a city in the southern part of Canaan where Abraham's nephew Lot lived with his wife and children.

- The land of the region surrounding Sodom was very well watered and fertile, so Lot chose to live there when he first settled in Canaan.
- The exact location of this city is not known because Sodom and the nearby city of Gomorrah were completely destroyed by God as punishment for the evil things the people there were doing.
- The most significant sin that the people of Sodom and Gomorrah were practicing was homosexuality.

(See also: Canaan, Gomorrah)

Bible References:

- Genesis 10:19
- Genesis 13:12
- Matthew 10:15
- Matthew 11:24

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5467, G46700

Matthew References:

10:15; 11:23; 11:24

soldier, warrior

Definition:

The terms “warrior” and “soldier” both can refer to someone who fights in an army. But there are also some differences.

- Usually the term “warrior” is a general, broad term to refer to a man who is gifted and courageous in battle.
- Yahweh is figuratively described as a “warrior.”
- The term “soldier” more specifically refers to someone who belongs to a certain army or who is fighting in a certain battle.
- Roman soldiers in Jerusalem were there to keep order and to carry out duties such as executing prisoners. They guarded Jesus before crucifying him and some were ordered to stand guard at his tomb.
- The translator should consider whether there are two words in the project language for “warrior” and “soldier” that also differ in meaning and use.

(See also: courage, crucify, Rome, tomb)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 21:5
- Acts 21:33
- Luke 3:14
- Luke 23:11
- Matthew 8:8-10

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0352, H0510, H1368, H1416, H1995, H2389, H2428, H2502, H3715, H4421, H5971, H6518, H6635, H7273, H7916, G46860, G47530, G47540, G47570, G47580, G49610

Matthew References:

8:9; 27:27; 28:12

Solomon

Definition:

Solomon was one of King David's sons. His mother was Bathsheba.

- When Solomon became king, God told him to ask for anything he wanted. So Solomon asked for wisdom to rule the people justly and well. God was pleased with Solomon's request and gave him both wisdom and much wealth.
- Solomon is also well known for having a magnificent temple built in Jerusalem.
- Although Solomon ruled wisely in the first years of his reign, later on he foolishly married many foreign women and started worshiping their gods.
- Because of Solomon's unfaithfulness, after his death God divided the Israelites into two kingdoms, Israel and Judah. These kingdoms often fought against each other.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Bathsheba, David, Israel, Judah, kingdom of Israel, temple)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:47-50
- Luke 12:27
- Matthew 1:7-8
- Matthew 6:29
- Matthew 12:42

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 17:14 Later, David and Bathsheba had another son, and they named him Solomon.
- 18:1 After many years, David died, and his son Solomon began to rule. God spoke to Solomon and asked him what he wanted most. When Solomon asked for wisdom, God was pleased and made him the wisest man in the world. Solomon learned many things and was a very wise judge. God also made him very wealthy.
- 18:2 In Jerusalem, Solomon built the Temple for which his father David had planned and gathered materials.
- 18:3 But Solomon loved women from other countries.…When Solomon was old, he also worshiped their gods.

- 18:4 God was angry with Solomon and, as a punishment for Solomon's unfaithfulness, he promised to divide the nation of Israel into two kingdoms after Solomon's death.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H8010, G46720

Matthew References:

1:6; 1:7; 6:29; 12:42

Son of God, the Son

Definition:

The term "Son of God" refers to Jesus, the Word of God, who came into the world as a human being. He is also often referred to as "the Son."

- The Son of God has the same nature as God the Father, and is fully God.
- God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit are all of one essence.
- Unlike human sons, the Son of God has always existed.
- In the beginning, the Son of God was active in creating the world, along with the Father and the Holy Spirit.

Because Jesus is God's Son, he loves and obeys his Father, and his Father loves him.

Translation Suggestions:

- For the term "Son of God," it is best to translate "Son" with the same word the language would naturally use to refer to a human son.
- Make sure the word used to translate "son" fits with the word used to translate "father" and that these words are the most natural ones used to express a true father-son relationship in the project language.
- Using a capital letter to begin "Son" may help show that this is talking about God.
- The phrase "the Son" is a shortened form of "the Son of God," especially when it occurs in the same context as "the Father."

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Christ, ancestor, God, God the Father, Holy Spirit, Jesus, son, sons of God)

Bible References:

- 1 John 4:10
- Acts 9:20
- Colossians 1:17
- Galatians 2:20
- Hebrews 4:14
- John 3:18

- Luke 10:22
- Matthew 11:27
- Revelation 2:18
- Romans 8:29

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 22:5 The angel explained, “The Holy Spirit will come to you, and the power of God will overshadow you. So the baby will be holy, the Son of God.”
- 24:9 God had told John, “The Holy Spirit will come down and rest on someone you baptize. That person is the Son of God.”
- 31:8 The disciples were amazed. They worshiped Jesus, saying to him, “Truly, you are the Son of God.”
- 37:5 Martha answered, “Yes, Master! I believe you are the Messiah, the Son of God.”
- 42:10 “So go, make disciples of all people groups by baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and by teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.”
- 46:6 Right away, Saul began preaching to the Jews in Damascus, saying, “Jesus is the Son of God!”
- 49:9 But God loved everyone in the world so much that he gave his only Son so that whoever believes in Jesus will not be punished for his sins, but will live with God forever.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0426, H0430, H1121, H1247, G23160, G52070

Matthew References:

2:15; 3:17; 4:3; 4:6; 8:29; 11:27; 14:33; 16:16; 17:5; 24:36; 26:63; 27:40; 27:43; 27:54; 28:19

Son of Man, son of man

Definition:

The title “Son of Man” was used by Jesus to refer to himself. He often used this term instead of saying “I” or “me.”

- In the Bible, “son of man” could be a way of referring to or addressing a man. It could also mean “human being.”
- Throughout the Old Testament book of Ezekiel, God frequently addressed Ezekiel as “son of man.” For example he said, “You, son of man, must prophesy.”
- The prophet Daniel saw a vision of a “son of man” coming with the clouds, which is a reference to the coming Messiah.
- Jesus also said that the Son of Man will be coming back someday on the clouds.
- These references to the Son of Man coming on the clouds reveal that Jesus the Messiah is God.

Translation Suggestions:

- When Jesus uses the term “Son of Man” it could be translated as “the One who became a human being” or “the Man from heaven.”
- Some translators occasionally include “I” or “me” with this title (as in “I, the Son of Man”) to make it clear that Jesus was talking about himself.
- Check to make sure that the translation of this term does not give a wrong meaning (such as referring to an illegitimate son or giving the wrong impression that Jesus was only a human being).
- When used to refer to a person, “son of man” could also be translated as “you, a human being” or “you, man” or “human being” or “man.”

(See also: heaven, son, Son of God, Yahweh)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:56
- Daniel 7:14
- Ezekiel 43:6-8
- John 3:12-13
- Luke 6:5
- Mark 2:10

- Matthew 13:37
- Psalms 80:17-18
- Revelation 14:14

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0120, H0606, H1121, H1247, G04440, G52070

Matthew References:

front:intro; 8:20; 9:6; 10:23; 11:19; 12:8; 12:32; 12:40; 13:37; 13:41; 16:13; 16:27; 16:28; 17:9; 17:12; 17:22; 19:28; 20:18; 20:28; 24:27; 24:30; 24:37; 24:39; 24:44; 25:31; 26:2; 26:24; 26:45; 26:64

sons of God, children of God

Definition:

The term “sons of God” is a figurative expression that has several possible meanings.

- In the New Testament, the term “sons of God” refers to all believers in Jesus and is often translated as “children of God” since it includes both males and females.
- This use of the term speaks of a relationship with God that is like the relationship between a human son and his father, with all the privileges associated with being sons.
- Some people interpret the term “sons of God” that appears in Genesis 6 to mean fallen angels—evil spirits or demons. Others think it may refer to powerful political rulers or to the descendants of Seth.
- The title “Son of God” is a different term: it refers to Jesus, who is God’s only Son.

Translation Suggestions:

- When “sons of God” refers to believers in Jesus, it could be translated as “children of God.”
- In Genesis 6:2 and 4 ways to translate “sons of God” could include “angels,” “spirit beings,” “supernatural creatures,” or “demons.”
- Also see the link for “son.”

(See also: angel, demon, son, Son of God, ruler, spirit)

Bible References:

- Genesis 6:2
- Genesis 6:4
- Job 1:6
- Romans 8:14

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0430, H1121, G52070, G50430

Matthew References:

5:9; 5:45

soul, self

Definition:

The term “soul” can either refer generally to the non-physical part of a person or refer specifically to a person’s awareness of themselves as a person distinct from others.

- In the Bible, the terms “soul” and “spirit” may be two different concepts, or they may be two terms that refer to the same concept.
- When a person dies, his soul leaves his body.
- In contrast to the body, the “soul” can be spoken of as the part of a person that “relates to God.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “soul” could also be translated as “inner self” or “inner person.”
- In some contexts, “my soul” could be translated as “I” or “me.”
- Usually the phrase “the soul” can be translated as “the person” or “he” or “him,” depending on the context.
- Some languages might only have one word for the concepts “soul” and “spirit.”
- In Hebrews 4:12, the figurative phrase “dividing soul and spirit” could mean “deeply discerning or exposing the inner person.”

(See also: spirit)

Bible References:

- 2 Peter 2:8
- Acts 2:27-28
- Acts 2:41
- Genesis 49:6
- Isaiah 53:10-11
- James 1:21
- Jeremiah 6:16-19
- Jonah 2:7-8
- Luke 1:47
- Matthew 22:37

- Psalms 19:7
- Revelation 20:4

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5082, H5315, H5397, G55900

Matthew References:

10:28; 11:29; 12:18; 16:26; 22:37; 26:38

sow, sower, plant, planted, replanted, transplanted

Definition:

To “sow” means to put seeds on top of or in the ground in order to grow plants. A “sower” is a person who sows or plants seeds. A “plant” is generally something that grows and is attached to the ground.

- One method of sowing or planting seeds during biblical times was to take handfuls of seeds and scatter them on the ground.
- Farmers would often plow the ground on which they had sown seeds after they had sown the seeds. The reason farmers would plow the ground after they had sown the seed is so that the seed would be covered with soil.
- Sometimes farmers may have plowed the field that they sowed seeds in both before and after sowing seeds.

Translations Suggestions

- The term to “sow” could also be translated as to “plant.” Make sure the word or phrase you use to translate this term refers to, or can include, planting seeds by scattering them because this is the method of sowing that Jesus was referring to in his parable in Matthew 13:3-23, Mark 4:2-20, and Luke 8:4-8 where he describes a sower who sowed seeds.
- Other ways to translate “sower” could include “planter” or “farmer” or “person who plants seeds.”
- In English, “sow” is only used for planting seeds, but the English word “plant” can be used for planting seeds as well as larger things, such as trees. Other languages may also use different words, depending on what is being planted.

(See also: harvest)

Bible References:

- Luke 8:5
- Matthew 6:25-26
- Matthew 13:4
- Matthew 13:19
- Matthew 25:24

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2221, H2232, H2233, H2236, H4218, H4302, H5193, H7971, H8362, G46870, G47030, G54520

Matthew References:

6:26; 13:3; 13:4; 13:18; 13:19; 13:20; 13:22; 13:23; 13:24; 13:25; 13:27; 13:31; 13:37; 13:39; 15:13; 25:24; 25:26

spirit, wind, breath

Definition:

The term “spirit” refers to the non-physical part of a person which cannot be seen. In biblical times, the concept of a person’s spirit was closely related to the concept of a person’s breath. The term can also refer to wind, that is, the movement of air in the natural world.

- The term “spirit” can refer to a being that does not have a physical body, such as an evil spirit.
- In general, the term “spiritual” describes things in the non-physical world.
- The term “spirit of” can also mean “having the characteristics of,” such as in “spirit of wisdom” or “in the spirit of Elijah.” Sometimes the Bible applies this term in the context of a person’s attitude or emotional state, such as “spirit of fear” and “spirit of jealousy.”
- Jesus said that God is a spirit.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, some ways to translate “spirit” might include “non-physical being” or “inside part” or “inner being.”
- In some contexts, the term “spirit” could be translated as “evil spirit” or “evil spirit being.”
- Sometimes the term “spirit” is used to express the feelings of a person, as in “my spirit was grieved in my inmost being.” This could also be translated as “I felt grieved in my spirit” or “I felt deeply grieved.”
- The phrase “spirit of” could be translated as “character of” or “influence of” or “attitude of” or “thinking (that is) characterized by.”
- Depending on the context, “spiritual” could be translated as “non-physical” or “from the Holy Spirit” or “God’s” or “part of the non-physical world.”
- The phrase “spiritual maturity” could be translated as “godly behavior that shows obedience to the Holy Spirit.”
- The term “spiritual gift” could be translated as “special ability that the Holy Spirit gives.”
- Sometimes this term can be translated as “wind” when referring to the simple movement of air or “breath” when referring to air movement caused by living beings.

(See also: soul, Holy Spirit, demon, breath)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 5:5

- 1 John 4:3
- 1 Thessalonians 5:23
- Acts 5:9
- Colossians 1:9
- Ephesians 4:23
- Genesis 7:21-22
- Genesis 8:1
- Isaiah 4:4
- Mark 1:23-26
- Matthew 26:41
- Philippians 1:27

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 13:3 Three days later, after the people had prepared themselves spiritually, God came down on top of Mount Sinai with thunder, lightning, smoke, and a loud trumpet blast.
- 40:7 Then Jesus cried out, “It is finished! Father, I give my spirit into your hands.” Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.
- 45:5 As Stephen was dying, he cried out, “Jesus, receive my spirit.”
- 48:7 All the people groups are blessed through him, because everyone who believes in Jesus is saved from sin, and becomes a spiritual descendant of Abraham.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0178, H1172, H5397, H7307, H7308, G41510, G41520, G41530, G53260, G54270

Matthew References:

5:3; 26:41; 27:50

staff, clubs

Definition:

A staff is a long wooden stick or rod, often used as a walking stick.

- When Jacob was old, he used a staff to help him walk.
- God turned Moses' staff into a snake to show his power to Pharaoh.
- Shepherds also used a staff to help guide their sheep, or to rescue the sheep when they fell or wandered.
- The shepherd's staff had a hook on the end, so it differed from the shepherd's rod, which was straight and was used to kill wild animals that were trying to attack the sheep.

(See also: Pharaoh, power, sheep, shepherd)

Bible References:

- Exodus 4:1-3
- Exodus 7:9
- Luke 9:3
- Mark 6:7-9
- Matthew 10:8-10
- Matthew 27:29

Word Data:

- Strong's: H4132, H4294, H4731, H4938, H6086, H6418, H7626, G25630, G35860, G44640

Matthew References:

10:10; 27:29; 27:30

stone, stoning

Definition:

A stone is a small rock. To “stone” someone is to throw stones and larger rocks at that person with the intention of killing him. A “stoning” is an event in which someone was stoned.

- In ancient times, stoning was a common method of executing people as punishment for crimes they had committed.
- God commanded the Israelite leaders to stone people for certain sins, such as adultery.
- In the New Testament, Jesus forgave a woman caught in adultery and stopped people from stoning her.
- Stephen, who was the first person in the Bible to be killed for testifying about Jesus, was stoned to death.
- In the city of Lystra, the apostle Paul was stoned, but he did not die from his wounds.

(See also: adultery, commit, crime, death, Lystra, testimony)

Bible References:

- Acts 7:57-58
- Acts 7:59-60
- Acts 14:5
- Acts 14:19-20
- John 8:4-6
- Luke 13:34
- Luke 20:6
- Matthew 23:37-39

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0068, H0069, H0810, H1382, H1496, H1530, H2106, H2672, H2687, H2789, H4676, H4678, H5553, H5601, H5619, H6344, H6443, H6697, H6864, H6872, H7275, H7671, H8068, G26420, G29910, G30340, G30350, G30360, G30370, G40740, G43480, G55860

Matthew References:

21:35; 23:37

stumble, reeling

Definition:

The term “stumble” means “almost fall” when walking or running. Usually it involves tripping over something.

- Figuratively, to “stumble” can mean to “sin” or to “falter” in believing.
- This term can also refer to faltering or showing weakness when fighting a battle or when being persecuted or punished.

Translation Suggestions

- In contexts where the term “stumble” means to physically trip over something, it should be translated with a term that means “almost fall” or “trip over.”
- This literal meaning could also be used in a figurative context, if it communicates the correct meaning in that context.
- For figurative uses where the literal meaning would not make sense in the project language, “stumble” could be translated as “sin” or “falter” or “stop believing” or “become weak,” depending on the context.
- Another way to translate this term could be, “stumble by sinning” or “stumble by not believing.”
- The phrase “made to stumble” could be translated as “caused to become weak” or “caused to falter.”

(See also: believe, persecute, sin, stumbling block)

Bible References:

- 1 Peter 2:8
- Hosea 4:5
- Isaiah 31:3
- Matthew 11:4-6
- Matthew 18:8

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1762, H3782, H4383, H5062, H5063, H5307, H6328, H6761, H8058, G06790, G43480, G43500, G44170, G46240, G46250

Matthew References:

5:29; 5:30; 18:6; 18:8; 18:9

suffer, suffering

Definition:

The terms “suffer” and “suffering” refer to experiencing something very unpleasant, such as illness, pain, or other hardships.

- When people are persecuted or when they are sick, they suffer.
- Sometimes people suffer because of wrong things they have done; other times they suffer because of sin and disease in the world.
- Suffering can be physical, such as feeling pain or sickness. It can also be emotional, such as feeling fear, sadness, or loneliness.
- The phrase “suffer me” means “bear with me” or “hear me out” or “listen patiently.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “suffer” can be translated as “feel pain” or “endure difficulty” or “experience hardships” or “go through difficult and painful experiences.”
- Depending on the context, “suffering” could be translated as “extremely difficult circumstances” or “severe hardships” or “experiencing hardship” or “time of painful experiences.”
- The phrase “suffer thirst” could be translated as “experience thirst” or “suffer with thirst.”
- To “suffer violence” could also be translated as “undergo violence” or “be harmed by violent acts.”

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 2:14-16
- 2 Thessalonians 1:3-5
- 2 Timothy 1:8
- Acts 7:11-13
- Isaiah 53:11
- Jeremiah 6:6-8
- Matthew 16:21
- Psalms 22:24
- Revelation 1:9
- Romans 5:3-5

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 9:13 God said, “I have seen the suffering of my people.”
- 38:12 Jesus prayed three times, “My Father, if it is possible, please let me not have to drink this cup of suffering.”
- 42:3 He (Jesus) reminded them that the prophets said the Messiah would suffer and be killed, but would rise again on the third day.
- 42:7 He (Jesus) said, “It was written long ago that the Messiah would suffer, die, and rise from the dead on the third day.”
- 44:5 “Although you did not understand what you were doing, God used your actions to fulfill the prophecies that the Messiah would suffer and die.”
- 46:4 God said, “I have chosen him (Saul) to declare my name to the unsaved. I will show him how much he must suffer for my sake.”
- 50:17 He (Jesus) will wipe away every tear and there will be no more suffering, sadness, crying, evil, pain, or death.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0943, H1741, H1934, H4531, H5142, H5375, H5999, H6031, H6040, H6041, H6064, H6090, H6770, H6869, H6887, H7661, G00910, G09410, G09710, G22100, G23460, G23470, G25520, G25530, G25610, G38040, G39580, G43100, G47780, G47770, G48410, G50040

Matthew References:

16:21; 17:12; 27:19

sweep

Definition:

To “sweep” usually means to remove dirt by making broad, quick movements with a broom or brush. “Swept” is the past tense of “sweep.” These words are also used figuratively.

- The term “sweep” is used figuratively to describe how an army attacks with swift, decisive, wide-reaching movements.
- For example, Isaiah prophesied that the Assyrians would “sweep through” the Kingdom of Judah. This means they would destroy Judah and capture its people.
- The term “sweep” can also be used to describe the manner in which rapidly flowing water pushes things and forces them away.
- When overwhelming, difficult things are happening to a person, it can be said that they are “sweeping over” him.

(See also: Assyria, Isaiah, Judah, prophet)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 16:3
- Daniel 11:40-41
- Genesis 18:24
- Proverbs 21:7-8
- Psalms 90:5

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0622, H0857, H1640, H2498, H2894, H3261, H5500, H5595, H7857, G42160, G45630, G49510

Matthew References:

12:44

sword, swordsmen

Definition:

A sword is a flat-bladed metal weapon used to cut or stab. It has a handle and a long, pointed blade with a very sharp cutting edge.

- In ancient times the length of a sword's blade was about 60 to 91 centimeters.
- Some swords have two sharp edges and are called "double-edged" or "two-edged" swords.
- Jesus' disciples had swords for self defense. With his sword, Peter cut off the ear of the high priest's servant.
- Both John the Baptist and the apostle James were beheaded with swords.

Translation Suggestions

- A sword is used as a metaphor for God's word. God's teachings in the Bible exposed people's innermost thoughts and convicted them of their sin. In a similar way, a sword cuts deeply, causing pain. (See: Metaphor)
- One way to translate this figurative use would be, "God's word is like a sword, which cuts deeply and exposes sin."
- Another figurative use of this term occurred in the book of Psalms, where the tongue or speech of a person was compared to a sword, which can injure people. This could be translated as "the tongue is like a sword that can badly injure someone."
- If swords are not known in your culture, this word could be translated with the name of another long-bladed weapon that is used to cut or stab.
- A sword could also be described as a "sharp weapon" or "long knife." Some translations could include a picture of a sword.

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: James (brother of Jesus), John (the Baptist), tongue, word of God)

Bible References:

- Acts 12:2
- Genesis 27:40
- Genesis 34:25
- Luke 2:33-35

- Luke 21:24
- Matthew 10:34
- Matthew 26:55
- Revelation 1:16

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0019, H1300, H2719, H4380, H6609, H7524, H7973, G31620, G45010

Matthew References:

10:34; 26:47; 26:51; 26:52; 26:55

synagogue

Definition:

A synagogue is a building where Jewish people meet together to worship God.

- Since ancient times, a synagogue's services have included times of prayer, scripture reading, and teaching about the scriptures.
- The Jews originally started building synagogues as places to pray and worship God in their own cities, because many of them lived far away from the temple in Jerusalem.
- Jesus often taught in synagogues and healed people there.
- The word "synagogue" can be used figuratively to refer to the group of people meeting there.

(See also: heal, Jerusalem, Jew, pray, temple, word of God, worship)

Bible References:

- Acts 6:9
- Acts 14:1-2
- Acts 15:21
- Acts 24:10-13
- John 6:59
- Luke 4:14
- Matthew 6:1-2
- Matthew 9:35-36
- Matthew 13:54

Word Data:

- Strong's: H4150, G06560, G07520, G48640

Matthew References:

4:23; 6:2; 6:5; 9:35; 10:17; 12:9; 13:54; 23:6; 23:34

Syria, Ashur

Definition:

Syria is a country located northeast of Israel. During the time of the New Testament, it was a province under the rule of the Roman Empire.

- In the Old Testament time period, the Syrians were strong military enemies of the Israelites.
- Naaman was a commander of the Syrian army who was cured of leprosy by the prophet Elisha.
- Many inhabitants of Syria are descendants of Aram, who was descended from Noah's son Shem.
- Damascus, the capital city of Syria, was mentioned many times in the Bible.
- Saul went to the city of Damascus with plans to persecute Christians there, but Jesus stopped him.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Aram, commander, Damascus, descendant, Elisha, leprosy, Naaman, persecute, prophet)

Bible References:

- Acts 15:23
- Acts 15:41
- Acts 20:3
- Galatians 1:21-24
- Matthew 4:23-25

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0758, H0804, G49470, G49480

Matthew References:

4:24

Tamar

Definition:

Tamar is the name of several different women in the Old Testament. There are also several cities or other places that are named Tamar in the Old Testament.

- Tamar was the daughter-in-law of Judah. After Tamar became a widow, Judah fathered a son with Tamar, who continued the family name of her dead husband. The son's name was Perez, who became an ancestor of King David and of Jesus Christ.
- One of King David's daughters was named Tamar; she was the sister of Absalom. Her half-brother Amnon raped her and left her desolate.
- Absalom also had a daughter named Tamar.
- A city called "Hazezon Tamar" was the same as the city of Engedi on the western shore of the Salt Sea. There is also a "Baal Tamar," and general references to a place called "Tamar" which may have been different from the cities.

(See also: Absalom, ancestor, Amnon, David, ancestor, Judah, Salt Sea)

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 2:4
- 2 Samuel 13:2
- 2 Samuel 14:25-27
- Genesis 38:6-7
- Genesis 38:24
- Ruth 4:12
- Matthew 1:1-3

Word Data:

- Strong's: H1193, H2688, H8412, H8559

Matthew References:

1:3

tax, tribute, taxation, taxpayer, tax collector

Definition:

The terms “tax” and “taxes” refer to money or goods that people pay to a government that is in authority over them. A “tax collector” was a government worker whose job was to receive money that people were required to pay the government in taxes.

- The amount of money that is paid as a tax is usually based on the value of an item or on how much a person’s property is worth.
- In the time of Jesus and and the apostles, the Roman government required taxes from everyone living in the Roman empire, including the Jews.
- If taxes are not paid, the government can take legal action against a person to get the money that is owed.
- Joseph and Mary traveled to Bethlehem to be counted in the census held to tax everyone living in the Roman empire.
- The term “tax” could also be translated as “required payment” or “government money” or “temple money,” depending on the context.
- To “pay taxes” could also be translated as to “pay money to the government” or “receive money for the government” or “make the required payment.” To “collect taxes” could be translated as to “receive money for the government.”
- A “tax collector” is someone who works for the government and receives the money that people are required to pay it.
- The people who collected taxes for the Roman government would often demand more money from the people than the government required. The tax collectors would keep the extra amount for themselves.
- Because tax collectors cheated people in this way, the Jews considered them to be among the worst of sinners.
- The Jews also considered Jewish tax collectors to be traitors to their own people because they worked for the Roman government which was oppressing the Jewish people.
- The phrase, “tax collectors and sinners” was a common expression in the New Testament, showing how much the Jews despised tax collectors.

(See also: Jew, Rome, sin)

Strong’s for Tax: H2670, H4060, H4371, H4522, H4864, H6186, G13230, G27780, G50550, G54110

Strong’s for Tax Collector: H5065, H5674, G50570, G50580

Bible References:

- Luke 20:21-22
- Mark 2:13-14
- Matthew 9:7-9
- Numbers 31:28-29
- Romans 13:6-7
- Luke 3:12-13
- Luke 5:27-28
- Matthew 5:46-48
- Matthew 9:10-11
- Matthew 11:18-19
- Matthew 17:26-27
- Matthew 18:17

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 34:6 He said, “Two men went to the Temple to pray. One of them was a tax collector, and the other was a religious leader.”
- 34:7 “The religious leader prayed like this, ‘Thank you, God, that I am not a sinner like other men—such as robbers, unjust men, adulterers, or even like that tax collector.’”
- 34:9 “But the tax collector stood far away from the religious ruler, did not even look up to heaven. Instead, he pounded on his chest and prayed, ‘God, please be merciful to me because I am a sinner.’”
- 34:10 Then Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, God heard the tax collector’s prayer and declared him to be righteous.”
- 35:1 One day, Jesus was teaching many tax collectors and other sinners who had gathered to hear him.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2670, H4060, H4371, H4522, H4864, H6186, G13230, H5065, H5674, G27780, G50550, G54110, G50570, G50580

Matthew References:

5:46; 9:9; 9:10; 9:11; 10:3; 11:19; 17:25; 18:17; 21:31; 21:32

teacher, Teacher

Definition:

A teacher is a person who gives other people new information. Teachers help others to obtain and use both knowledge and skills.

- In the Bible, the word “teacher” is used in a special sense to refer to someone who teaches about God.
- People who learn from a teacher are called “students” or “disciples.”
- In some Bible translations, this term is capitalized (“Teacher”) when it is used as a title for Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- The usual word for a teacher can be used to translate this term, unless that word is only used for a school teacher.
- Some cultures may have a special title that is used for religious teachers, such as “Sir” or “Rabbi” or “Preacher.”

(See also: disciple, preach)

Bible References:

- Ecclesiastes 1:12-15
- Ephesians 4:11-13
- Galatians 6:6-8
- Habakkuk 2:18
- James 3:2
- John 1:37-39
- Luke 6:40
- Matthew 12:38-40

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 27:1 One day, an expert in the Jewish law came to Jesus to test him, saying, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”
- 28:1 One day a rich young ruler came up to Jesus and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to have eternal life?”

- 37:2 After the two days had passed, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s go back to Judea.” “But Teacher,” the disciples answered, “Just a short time ago the people there wanted to kill you!”
- 38:14 Judas came to Jesus and said, “Greetings, Teacher,” and kissed him.
- 49:3 Jesus was also a great teacher, and he spoke with authority because he is the Son of God.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3384, H3925, G13200, G25670, G35470, G55720

Matthew References:

8:19; 9:11; 10:24; 10:25; 12:38; 17:24; 19:16; 22:16; 22:24; 22:36; 26:18

temple, house, house of God

Definition:

A temple is a building dedicated to the worship of a specific diety where that diety was thought to dwell. Nations around Israel had temples dedicated to their various gods. The temple in Israel was a building surrounded by walled courtyards where the Israelites came to pray and to offer sacrifices to God. It was located on Mount Moriah in the city of Jerusalem.

- Often the term “temple” referred to the whole temple complex, including the courtyards that surrounded the main building. Sometimes it referred only to the building.
- The temple building had two rooms, the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place.
- God referred to the temple as his dwelling place.
- King Solomon built the first temple during his reign. It was supposed to be the permanent place of worship in Jerusalem.

Translation Suggestions:

- Usually when the text says that people were “in the temple,” it is referring to the courtyards outside the building. This could be translated as “in the temple courtyards” or “in the temple complex.”
- Where it refers specifically to the building itself, some translations translate “temple” as “temple building,” to make it the reference clear.
- Ways to translate “temple” could include, “God’s holy house” or “sacred worship place.”
- Often in the Bible, the temple is referred to as “the house of Yahweh” or “the house of God.”

(See also: sacrifice, Solomon, Babylon, Holy Spirit, tabernacle, courtyard, Zion, house)

Bible References:

- Acts 3:2
- Acts 3:8
- Ezekiel 45:18-20
- Luke 19:46
- Nehemiah 10:28
- Psalm 79:1-3

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 17:6 David wanted to build a temple where all the Israelites could worship God and offer him sacrifices.
- 18:2 In Jerusalem, Solomon built the Temple for which his father David had planned and gathered materials. Instead of at the Tent of Meeting, people now worshiped God and offered sacrifices to him at the Temple. God came and was present in the Temple, and he lived there with his people.
- 20:7 They (Babylonians) captured the city of Jerusalem, destroyed the Temple, and took away all the treasures.
- 20:13 When the people arrived in Jerusalem, they rebuilt the Temple and the wall around the city.
- 25:4 Then Satan took Jesus to the highest point on the Temple and said, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, ‘God will command his angels to carry you so your foot does not hit a stone.’”
- 40:7 When he died, there was an earthquake and the large curtain that separated the people from the presence of God in the Temple was torn in two, from the top to the bottom.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1004, H1964, H1965, G14930, G24110, G34850

Matthew References:

4:5; 12:5; 12:6; 21:12; 21:14; 21:15; 21:23; 23:16; 23:17; 23:21; 23:35; 24:1; 26:55; 26:61; 27:5; 27:40; 27:51

tempt, temptation

Definition:

To tempt someone is to try to get that person to do something wrong.

- A temptation is something that causes a person to want to do something wrong.
- People are tempted by their own sinful nature and by other people.
- Satan also tempts people to disobey God and to sin against God by doing wrong things.
- Satan tempted Jesus and tried to get him to do something wrong, but Jesus resisted all of Satan's temptations and never sinned.
- Someone who is "tempting God" is not trying to get him to do something wrong, but rather, is continuing in stubborn disobedience of him to the point that God must respond by punishing him. This is also called "testing God."

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "tempt" can be translated as "try to cause to sin" or "entice" or "cause a desire to sin."
- Ways to translate "temptations" could include, "things that tempt" or "things that entice someone to sin" or "things that cause desire to do something wrong."
- To "tempt God" could be translated as to "put God to the test" or to "test God" or to "try God's patience" or to "cause God to have to punish" or to "stubbornly keep disobeying God."

(See also: disobey, Satan, sin, test)

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 3:4-5
- Hebrews 4:15
- James 1:13
- Luke 4:2
- Luke 11:4
- Matthew 26:41

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 25:1 Then Satan came to Jesus and tempted him to sin.

- 25:8 Jesus did not give in to Satan's temptations, so Satan left him.
- 38:11 Jesus told his disciples to pray that they would not enter into temptation.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0974, H4531, H5254, G05510, G15980, G39850, G39860, G39870

Matthew References:

4:1; 4:3; 6:13; 26:41

tenth, tithe

Definition:

The terms “tenth” and “tithe” refer to “ten percent” or “one-out-of-ten portion” of one’s money, crops, livestock, or other possessions, which is given to God.

- In the Old Testament, God instructed the Israelites to set aside a tenth of their belongings to give as an offering of thanksgiving to him.
- This offering was used to support the Levite tribe of Israel who served the Israelites as priests and caretakers of the tabernacle and later, the temple.
- In the New Testament, God does not require giving a tithe, but instead he instructs believers to generously and cheerfully help people in need and support the work of Christian ministry.
- This could also be translated as “one-tenth” or “one out of ten.”

(See also: believe, Israel, Levite, livestock, Melchizedek, minister, sacrifice, tabernacle, temple)

Bible References:

- Genesis 14:19-20
- Genesis 28:20-22
- Hebrews 7:4-6
- Isaiah 6:13
- Luke 11:42
- Luke 18:11-12
- Matthew 23:23-24

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H4643, H6237, H6241, G05860, G11810, G11830

Matthew References:

23:23

test, tested, testing, testing in the fire

Definition:

The term “test” refers to a difficult or painful experience that reveals a person’s strengths and weaknesses.

- God tests people, but he does not tempt them to sin. Satan, however, tempts people to sin.
- God sometimes uses tests to expose people’s sin. A test helps a person to turn away from sin and to draw closer to God.
- Gold and other metals are tested with fire to find out how pure and strong they are. This is a picture of how God uses painful circumstances to test his people.
- To “put to the test” can mean, “challenge something or someone to prove its value.”
- In the context of putting God to the test, it means to try to make him do a miracle for us, taking advantage of his mercy.
- Jesus told Satan that it is wrong to put God to the test. He is the almighty, holy God who is above everything and everyone.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term to “test” could also be translated as, to “challenge” or to “cause to experience difficulties” or to “prove.”
- Ways to translate “a test” could be, “a challenge” or “a difficult experience.”
- To “put to the test” could be translated as to “test” or to “set up a challenge” or to “force to prove oneself.”
- In the context of testing God, this could be translated as “trying to force God to prove his love.”
- In some contexts, when God is not the subject, the term “test” can mean “tempt.”

(See also: tempt)

Bible References:

- 1 John 4:1
- 1 Thessalonians 5:21
- Acts 15:10
- Genesis 22:1
- Isaiah 7:13

- James 1:12
- Lamentations 3:40-43
- Malachi 3:10
- Philippians 1:10
- Psalm 26:2

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5254, H5713, H5715, H5749, H6030, H8584, G12420, G12630, G13030, G13820, G19570, G31400, G31410, G31420, G31430, G39840, G43030, G44510, G48280, G60200

Matthew References:

4:7; 16:1; 19:3; 22:18; 22:35

testimony, testify, witness, eyewitness, evidence

Definition:

When a person gives “testimony” he makes a statement about something he knows, claiming that the statement is true. To “testify” is to give “testimony.”

- In some places in the Old Testament, “Testimony” refers specifically to the tablets of stone on which Yahweh wrote his ten commandments. From that use it came to refer to God’s law more broadly.
- Often a person “testifies” about something he has experienced directly.
- A witness who gives “false testimony” does not tell the truth about what happened.
- Sometimes the term “testimony” refers to a prophecy that a prophet has stated.
- In the New Testament, this term was often used to refer to how Jesus’ followers testified about the events of Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection.

The term “witness” refers to a person who has personally experienced something that happened. Usually a witness is also someone who testifies about what they know is true. The term “eyewitness” emphasizes that the person was actually there and saw what happened.

- To “witness” something means to see it happen.
- At a trial, a witness “gives witness” or “bears witness.” This has the same meaning as “testify.”
- Witnesses are expected to tell the truth about what they have seen or heard.
- A witness who does not tell the truth about what happened is called a “false witness.” He is said to “give false witness” or to “bear false witness.”
- The expression “be a witness between” means that something or someone will be evidence that a contract has been made. The witness will make sure each person does what he has promised to do.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “testify” or “give testimony” could also be translated as “tell the facts” or “tell what was seen or heard” or “tell from personal experience” or “give evidence” or “tell what happened.”

- Ways to translate “testimony” could include, “report of what happened” or “statement of what is true” or “evidence” or “what has been said” or “prophecy.”

- Ways to translate “Testimony” could include, “the stone slabs on which I wrote my commands” or “God’s law” or “God’s commands” or “the record of the agreement between Yahweh and Israel.”
- The phrase, “as a testimony to them” could be translated as to “show them what is true” or to “prove to them what is true.”
- The phrase, “as a testimony against them” could be translated as “which will show them their sin” or “exposing their hypocrisy” or “which will prove that they are wrong.”
- To “give false testimony” could be translated as “say false things about” or “state things that are not true.”
- The term “witness” or “eyewitness” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “person seeing it” or “the one who saw it happen” or “those who saw and heard (those things).”
- Something that is “a witness” could be translated as “guarantee” or “sign of our promise” or “something that testifies that this is true.”
- The phrase “you will be my witnesses” could also be translated as “you will tell other people about me” or “you will teach people the truth that I taught you” or “you will tell people what you have seen me do and heard me teach.”
- To “witness to” could be translated as to “tell what was seen” or to “testify” or to “state what happened.”
- To “witness” something could be translated as to “see something” or to “experience something happen.”

(See also: ark of the covenant, guilt, judge, prophet, true)

Bible References:

- Deuteronomy 31:28
- Micah 6:3
- Matthew 26:60
- Mark 1:44
- John 1:7

- John 3:33
- Acts 4:32-33
- Acts 7:44
- Acts 13:31
- Romans 1:9
- 1 Thessalonians 2:10-12
- 1 Timothy 5:19-20
- 2 Timothy 1:8
- 2 Peter 1:16-18
- 1 John 5:6-8
- 3 John 1:12
- Revelation 12:11

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 39:2 Inside the house, the Jewish leaders put Jesus on trial. They brought many false witnesses who lied about him.
- 39:4 The high priest tore his clothes in anger and shouted, “We do not need any more witnesses. You have heard him say that he is the Son of God. What is your judgment?”
- 42:8 “It was also written in the scriptures that my disciples will proclaim that everyone should repent in order to receive forgiveness for their sins. They will do this starting in Jerusalem, and then go to all people groups everywhere. You are witnesses of these things.”
- 43:7 “We are witnesses to the fact that God raised Jesus to life again.”

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5707, H5713, H5715, H5749, H6030, H8584, G02670, G12630, G19570, G26490, G31400, G31410, G31420, G31430, G31440, G43030, G48280, G49010, G55750, G55760, G55770, G60200

Matthew References:

8:4; 10:18; 18:16; 23:31; 24:14; 26:65

tetrarch

Definition:

The term “tetrarch” refers to a governing official who ruled over part of the Roman Empire.

Each tetrarch was under the authority of the Roman emperor.

- The title “tetrarch” means “one of four joint rulers.”
- Starting under the Emperor Diocletian, there were four major divisions of the Roman Empire and each tetrarch ruled one division.
- The kingdom of of Herod “the Great,” who was king at the time of the birth of Jesus, was divided into four sections after his death, and ruled by his sons as “tetrarchs,” or “rulers of a fourth.”
- Each division had one or more smaller parts called “provinces,” such as Galilee or Samaria.
- “Herod the tetrarch” is mentioned several times in the New Testament. He is also known as “Herod Antipas.”
- The term “tetrarch” could also be translated as “regional governor” or “provincial ruler” or “ruler” or “governor.”

(See also: governor, Herod Antipas, province, Rome, ruler)

Bible References:

- Luke 3:1-2
- Luke 9:7
- Matthew 14:1-2

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G50750, G50760

Matthew References:

14:1

the twelve, the eleven

Definition:

The term “the twelve” refers to the twelve men that Jesus chose to be his closest disciples, or apostles. After Judas killed himself, they were called “the eleven.”

- Jesus had many other disciples, but the title “the twelve” distinguished those who were apparently closest to Jesus.
- The names of these twelve disciples are listed in Matthew 10, Mark 3, and Luke 6.
- Some time after Jesus had returned to heaven, “the eleven” chose a disciple named Matthias to take Judas’ place. Then they were called “the twelve” again.

Translation Suggestions:

- For many languages it may be clearer or more natural to add the noun and say, “the twelve apostles” or “Jesus’ twelve closest disciples.”
- “The eleven” could also be translated as “Jesus’ eleven remaining disciples.”
- Some translations may prefer to use a capital letter to show that it was used as a title, as in “the Twelve” and “the Eleven.”

(See also: apostle, disciple)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 15:5-7
- Acts 6:2
- Luke 9:1
- Luke 18:31
- Mark 10:32-34
- Matthew 10:7

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G14270, G17330

Matthew References:

10:1; 10:2; 10:5; 11:1; 20:17; 26:14; 26:20; 26:47; 28:16

thief, thieves, rob, robber, robbery, bandit

Definition:

The term “thief” refers to a person who steals money or property from other people. The plural of “thief” is “thieves.” The term “robber” often refers to a thief who also physically harms or threatens the people he is stealing from.

- Jesus told a parable about a Samaritan man who took care of a Jewish man who had been attacked by robbers. The robbers had beaten the Jewish man and wounded him before stealing his money and clothing.
- Both thieves and robbers come suddenly to steal, when people are not expecting it. Often they use the cover of darkness to hide what they are doing.
- In a figurative sense, the New Testament describes Satan as a thief who comes to steal, kill, and destroy. This means that Satan’s plan is to try to get God’s people to stop obeying him. If he succeeded in doing this Satan would be stealing from them the good things that God has planned for them.
- Jesus compared the suddenness of his return to the suddenness of a thief coming to steal from people. Just as a thief comes at a time when people are not expecting it, so Jesus will return at a time when people do not expect it.

(See also: bless, crime, crucify, darkness, destroyer, power, Samaria, Satan)

Bible References:

- 2 Peter 3:10
- Luke 12:33
- Mark 14:48
- Proverbs 6:30
- Revelation 3:3

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1214, H1215, H1416, H1589, H1590, H1980, H6530, H7703, G07270, G24170, G28120, G30270

Matthew References:

6:19; 6:20; 21:13; 24:43; 26:55; 27:38; 27:44

Thomas

Definition:

Thomas was one of twelve men whom Jesus chose to be his disciples and later, apostles. He was also known as "Didymus," which means "twin."

- Near the end of Jesus' life, he told his disciples that he was going away to be with the Father and would prepare a place for them to be with him. Thomas asked Jesus how they could know the way to get there when they did not even know where he was going.
- After Jesus died and came back to life, Thomas said he would not believe that Jesus was really alive again unless he could see and feel the scars where Jesus had been wounded.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: apostle, disciple, God the Father, the twelve)

Bible References:

- Acts 1:12-14
- John 11:15-16
- Luke 6:14-16
- Mark 3:17-19
- Matthew 10:2-4

Word Data:

- Strong's: G23810

Matthew References:

10:3

thorn, thorn bush, thistle

Definition:

Thorn bushes and thistles are plants that have prickly branches or flowers. These plants do not produce fruit or anything else that is useful.

- A “thorn” is a hard, sharp growth on the branch or stem of a plant. A “thornbush” is a type of small tree or shrub that has many thorns on its branches.
- A “thistle” is a plant with prickly stems and leaves. Often the flowers are purple.
- Thorn and thistle plants multiply quickly and can cause nearby plants or crops to not be able to grow. This is a picture of how sin keeps a person from producing good spiritual fruit.
- A crown made of twisted thorn branches was placed on Jesus’ head before he was crucified.
- If possible, these terms should be translated by the names of two different plants or bushes that are known in the language area.

(See also: crown, fruit, spirit)

Bible References:

- Hebrews 6:7-8
- Matthew 13:7
- Matthew 13:22
- Numbers 33:55

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0329, H1863, H2312, H2336, H4534, H5285, H5518, H5544, H6791, H6796, H6975, H7063, H7898, G01730, G01740, G46470, G51460

Matthew References:

7:16; 13:7; 13:22; 27:29

thresh

Definition:

The terms “thresh” and “threshing” refer to the first part of the process of separating grain from the rest of the plant.

- Threshing a crop loosens the grain from the stalk. Afterwards the grain is “winnowed” to completely separate the seed from all unwanted materials, leaving only the part the grain that can be eaten.
- In Bible times, a “threshing floor” was a large flat rock or an area of packed-down dirt, giving a hard, level surface to crush the grain stalks and remove the grain.
- A “threshing cart” or “threshing wheel” was sometimes used to crush the grain and help separate it from the straw and chaff.
- A “threshing sledge” or “threshing board” was also used for separating grain. It was made of wooden boards that had sharp metal spikes on the end.

(See also: chaff, grain, winnow)

Bible References:

- 2 Chronicles 3:1-3
- 2 Kings 13:7
- 2 Samuel 24:16
- Daniel 2:35
- Luke 3:17
- Matthew 3:12
- Ruth 3:1-2

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0212, H4173, H1637, H1758, H1786, H1869, H2251, G02480

Matthew References:

3:12

throne, enthroned

Definition:

A throne is a specially-designed chair where a ruler sits when he decides important matters and listens to requests from his people.

- A throne is also a symbol of the authority and power that a ruler has.
- The word “throne” can also be used to refer to the ruler, his reign, or his power.
- In the Bible, God was often portrayed as a king who sits on his throne. Jesus was described as sitting on a throne at the right hand of God the Father.
- Jesus said that heaven is God’s throne. One way to translate this could be, “where God reigns as king.”

(See also: authority, power, king, reign)

Bible References:

- Colossians 1:15-17
- Genesis 41:40
- Luke 1:32
- Luke 22:30
- Matthew 5:34
- Matthew 19:28
- Revelation 1:4-6

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3427, H3676, H3678, H3764, H7675, G09680, G23620

Matthew References:

5:34; 19:28; 23:22; 25:31

to minister, ministry

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “ministry” refers to serving others by teaching them about God and caring for their spiritual needs.

- In the Old Testament, the priests would “minister” to God in the temple by offering sacrifices to him.
- Their “ministry” also included taking care of the temple and offering prayers to God on behalf of the people.
- The job of “ministering” to people can include serving them spiritually by teaching them about God.
- It can also refer to serving people in physical ways, such as caring for the sick and providing food for the poor.

Translation Suggestions:

- In the context of ministering to people, to “minister” could also be translated as to “serve” or to “care for” or to “meet the needs of.”
- When referring to ministering in the temple, the term “minister” could be translated as “serve God in the temple” or “offer sacrifices to God for the people.”
- In the context of ministering to God, this could be translated as to “serve” or to “work for God.”
- The phrase “ministered to” could also be translated as “took care of” or “provided for” or “helped.”

(See also: serve, sacrifice)

Bible References:

- 2 Samuel 20:23-26
- Acts 6:4
- Acts 21:17-19

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H6399, H8120, H8334, H8335, G12470, G12480, G12490, G20230, G20380, G24180, G30080, G30090, G30100, G30110, G39300, G52560, G52570, G55240

Matthew References:

4:11; 8:15; 20:26; 20:28; 22:13; 23:11; 25:44; 27:55

torment, tormented, tormentor

Definition:

The term “torment” refers to terrible suffering. To torment someone means to cause that person to suffer, often in a cruel way.

- Sometimes the term “torment” refers to physical pain and suffering. For example, the book of Revelation describes physical torment that worshipers of the “beast” will suffer in the end times.
- Suffering may also take the form of spiritual and emotional pain, as experienced by Job.
- The apostle John wrote in the book of Revelation that people who do not believe in Jesus as their Savior will experience eternal torment in the lake of fire.
- This term could be translated as “terrible suffering” or “cause someone to suffer greatly” or “agony.” Some translators may add “physical” or “spiritual” to make the meaning clear.

(See also: beast, everlasting, Job, Savior, spirit, suffer, worship)

Bible References:

- 2 Peter 2:8
- Jeremiah 30:20-22
- Lamentations 1:11-12
- Luke 8:28-29
- Revelation 11:10

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3013, G09280, G09290, G09300, G09310, G25580, G28510, G36000

Matthew References:

8:6; 8:29

tradition

Definition:

The term “tradition” refers to a custom or practice that has been kept over time and which is passed down to people in later generations.

- Often in the Bible the word “traditions” referred to teachings and practices that people made, not God’s laws. The expression “tradition of men” or “human tradition” makes this clear.
- Phrases such as “traditions of the elders” or “traditions of my fathers” referred specifically to Jewish customs and practices that Jewish leaders over time had added to the laws God gave to the Israelites through Moses. Even though these added traditions had not come from God, people thought they had to obey them in order to be righteous.
- The apostle Paul used the term “tradition” in a different way to refer to teachings about Christian practice that came from God and that he and other apostles had taught new believers.
- In modern times, there are many Christian traditions that are not taught in the Bible, but rather are the result of historically accepted customs and practices. These traditions should always be evaluated in light of what God teaches us in the Bible.

(See also: apostle, believe, Christian, ancestor, generation, Jew, law, Moses)

Bible References:

- 2 Thessalonians 3:6-9
- Colossians 2:8
- Galatians 1:13-14
- Mark 7:2
- Matthew 15:3

Word Data:

- Strong’s: G38620

Matthew References:

15:intro; 15:2; 15:3; 15:6

trample

Definition:

To “trample” means to step on something and smash it with the feet. This term is also used figuratively in the Bible to mean “destroy” or “defeat” or “humiliate.”

- An example of “trampling” would be the smashing down of grass by the feet of people running in a field.
- In ancient times, wine was sometimes made by trampling grapes to remove the juice from them.
- Sometimes the term to “trample” has a figurative meaning of to “punish by humiliating,” comparing it to trampling mud for a threshing floor.
- The term “trample” was used figuratively to express how Yahweh would punish his people Israel for their pride and rebellion.
- Other ways that “trample” could be translated include “crush with the feet” or “smash down with the feet” or “stomp on and crush” or “smash into the ground.”
- Depending on the context, this term could also be translated as “run over,” “walk around on,” or “crush underfoot.”

(See also: grape, shame, punish, rebel, thresh, wine)

Bible References:

- Hebrews 10:29
- Psalms 7:5

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0947, H1758, H1869, H4001, H4823, H7429, H7512, G26620, G39610

Matthew References:

5:13; 7:6

tremble, shake, shaken, quake

Definition:

The term “tremble” means to quiver or to shake slightly and repeatedly, usually from fear or distress. The term can also be used figuratively, meaning “to be very afraid.”

- Sometimes when the ground shakes it is said to “tremble.” It can do this during an earthquake or in response to a very loud noise.
- The Bible says that in the presence of the Lord the earth will tremble. This could mean that the people of the earth will shake out of fear of God or that the earth itself will shake.
- This term could be translated as “be afraid” or “fear God” or “shake,” depending on the context.

(See also: earth, fear, Lord)

Bible References:

- 2 Corinthians 7:15
- 2 Samuel 22:44-46
- Acts 16:29-31
- Jeremiah 5:22
- Luke 8:47

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1674, H2111, H2112, H2151, H2342, H2648, H2729, H2730, H2731, H5128, H5568, H6342, H6426, H6427, H7264, H7268, H7269, H7322, H7460, H7461, H7481, H7493, H7578, H8078, H8653, G17900, G51410, G51560, G54250

Matthew References:

27:51; 28:4

trespass

Definition:

The term “trespass” means to cross a line or to violate a boundary. This term is often used figuratively, meaning to break a law or to violate the rights of another person.

- This term is very similar to the word “transgression,” but is generally used more often to describe violations against other people than against God.
- A trespass can be a violation of a moral law or a civil law.
- A trespass can also be a sin committed against another person.
- This term is related to the terms “sin” and “transgress,” especially as it relates to disobeying God. All sins are trespasses against God.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, to “trespass against” could be translated as to “sin against” or to “break the rule.”
- Some languages may have an expression like “cross the line” that could be used to translate “trespass.”
- Consider how this term fits with the meaning of the surrounding Bible text and compare it to other terms that have a similar meaning, such as “transgress” and “sin.”

(See also: disobey, iniquity, sin, transgress)

Bible References:

- 1 Samuel 25:28
- 2 Chronicles 26:16-18
- Colossians 2:13
- Ephesians 2:1
- Ezekiel 15:7-8
- Romans 5:17
- Romans 5:20-21

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0816, H0817, H0819, H2398, H4603, H4604, H6586, H6588, G02640, G39000

Matthew References:

6:14; 6:15

tribe, tribal, tribesmen

Definition:

A tribe is a group of people who are descended from a common ancestor.

- People from the same tribe usually also share a common language and culture.
- In the Old Testament, God divided the people of Israel into twelve tribes. Each tribe was descended from a son or grandson of Jacob.
- A tribe is smaller than a nation, but larger than a clan.

(See also: clan, nation, people group, twelve tribes of Israel)

Bible References:

- 1 Samuel 10:19
- 2 Kings 17:16-18
- Genesis 25:16
- Genesis 49:17
- Luke 2:36-38

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0523, H4294, H7625, H7626, G14290, G54430

Matthew References:

19:28; 24:30

tribulation, distress, distresses, trouble

Definition:

The term “tribulation” refers to a time of hardship, suffering, and distress.

- It is explained in the New Testament that Christians will endure times of persecution and other kinds of tribulation because many people in this world are opposed to Jesus’ teachings.
- The term “tribulation” could also be translated as “time of great suffering” or “deep distress” or “severe difficulties.”

(See also: earth, teach, wrath)

Bible References:

- Mark 4:17
- Mark 13:19
- Matthew 13:20-21
- Matthew 24:9
- Matthew 24:29
- Romans 2:9

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H6869, G23470, G44230

Matthew References:

13:21; 24:9; 24:21; 24:29

tribute, contribution

Definition:

The term “tribute” refers to a gift from one ruler to another ruler, for the purpose of protection and for good relations between their nations. A tribute can also be a payment that a ruler or government requires from the people, such as a toll or tax.

- In Bible times, traveling kings or rulers sometimes paid a tribute to the king of the region they were traveling through to make sure they would be protected and safe.
- Often the tribute would include things besides money, such as foods, spices, rich clothing, and expensive metals such as gold.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “tribute” could be translated as “official gifts” or “special tax” or “required payment.”

(See also: gold, king, ruler, tax)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 18:1-2
- 2 Chronicles 9:22-24
- 2 Kings 17:3
- Luke 23:2

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1093, H4061, H4503, H4530, H4853, H6066, H7862, G54110

Matthew References:

17:25; 22:17; 22:19

trouble, disturb, stir up, distress, hardship, calamity

Definition:

A “trouble” is an experience in life that is very difficult and distressing. To “trouble” someone means to “bother” that person or to cause him distress. To be “troubled” means to feel upset or distressed about something.

- Troubles can be physical, emotional, or spiritual things that hurt a person.
- In the Bible, often troubles are times of testing that God uses to help believers mature and grow in their faith.
- The Old Testament use of “trouble” also referred to judgment that came on people groups who were immoral and rejected God.

Translation Suggestions

- The term “trouble” or “troubles” could also be translated as “danger” or “painful things that happen” or “persecution” or “difficult experiences” or “distress.”
- The term “troubled” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “undergoing distress” or “feeling terrible distress” or “worried” or “anxious” or “distressed” or “terrified” or “disturbed.”
- “Do not trouble her” could also be translated as “do not bother her” or “do not criticize her.”
- The phrase “day of trouble” or “times of trouble” could also be translated as “when you experience distress” or “when difficult things happen to you” or “when God causes distressing things to happen.”
- Ways to translate “make trouble” or “bring trouble” could include “cause distressing things to happen” or “cause difficulties” or “make them experience very difficult things.”

(See also: afflict, persecute)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 18:18-19
- 2 Chronicles 25:19
- Luke 24:38
- Matthew 24:6
- Matthew 26:36-38

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0205, H0926, H0927, H1204, H1607, H1644, H1804, H2000, H4103, H5916, H5999, H6031, H6040, H6470, H6696, H6862, H6869, H6887, H7264, H7267, H7451, H7489, H8513, G03870, G16130, G17760, G23460, G23470, G23500, G23600, G28730, G36360, G39260, G39300, G39860, G44230, G46600, G50150, G51820

Matthew References:

2:3; 9:36; 14:26; 24:6; 26:10

trumpet, trumpeter

Definition:

The term “trumpet” refers to an instrument for producing music or for calling people to gather together for an announcement or meeting.

- A trumpet was commonly made from either metal, seashell, or an animal horn.
- Trumpets were most commonly blown to call people to come together for battle, and for Israel’s public assemblies.
- The book of Revelation describes a scene in the end times in which angels blow their trumpets to signal the outpouring of the wrath of God on the earth.

(See also: angel, assembly, earth, horn, Israel, wrath)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 13:7-8
- 2 Kings 9:13
- Exodus 19:12-13
- Hebrews 12:19
- Matthew 6:2
- Matthew 24:31

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2689, H2690, H3104, H7782, H8619, H8643, G45360, G45370, G45380

Matthew References:

6:2; 24:31

trust, trusted, trustworthy, trustworthiness

Definition:

To “trust” something or someone is to believe that the thing or person is true or dependable. That belief is also called “trust.” A “trustworthy” person is one you can trust to do and say what is right and true, and therefore one who has the quality of “trustworthiness.”

- Trust is closely related to faith. If we trust someone, we have faith in that person to do what they promised to do.
- Having trust in someone also means depending on that person.
- To “trust in” Jesus means to believe that he is God, to believe that he died on the cross to pay for our sins, and to rely on him to save us.
- A “trustworthy saying” refers to something that is said that can be counted on to be true.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “trust” could include “believe” or “have faith” or “have confidence” or “depend on.”
- The phrase “put your trust in” is very similar in meaning to “trust in.”
- The term “trustworthy” could be translated as “dependable” or “reliable” or “can always be trusted.”

(See also: believe, confidence, faith, faithful, true)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 9:22-24
- 1 Timothy 4:9
- Hosea 10:12-13
- Isaiah 31:1-2
- Nehemiah 13:13
- Psalm 31:5
- Titus 3:8

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 12:12 When the Israelites saw that the Egyptians were dead, they trusted in God and believed that Moses was a prophet of God.
- 14:15 Joshua was a good leader because he trusted and obeyed God.
- 17:2 David was a humble and righteous man who trusted and obeyed God.
- 34:6 Then Jesus told a story about people who trusted in their own good deeds and despised other people.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0539, H0982, H1556, H2620, H2622, H3176, H4009, H4268, H7365, G16790, G38720, G39820, G40060, G41000, G42760

Matthew References:

27:43

tunic

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “tunic” referred to a garment that was worn next to the skin, under other clothing.

- A tunic reached from the shoulders down to the waist or knees and was usually worn with a belt. Tunics worn by wealthy people sometimes had sleeves and reached down to the ankles.
- Tunics were made of leather, haircloth, wool, or linen, and were worn by both men and women.
- A tunic was normally worn under a longer over-garment, such as a toga or outer robe. In warmer weather a tunic was sometimes worn with no outer garment.
- This term could be translated as “long shirt” or “long undergarment” or “shirt-like garment.” It could also be written in a similar way to “tunic,” with a note to explain what kind of clothing it was.

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See Also: robe)

Bible References:

- Daniel 3:21-23
- Isaiah 22:21
- Leviticus 8:12-13
- Luke 3:11
- Mark 6:7-9
- Matthew 10:10

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2243, H3801, H6361, G55090

Matthew References:

5:40; 10:10

twelve tribes of Israel, twelve tribes

Definition:

The term “twelve tribes of Israel” refers to the twelve sons of Jacob and their descendants.

- These are the names of Jacob’s twelve sons: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher, Issachar, Zebulun, Joseph and Benjamin.
- There are several places in the Bible where the list of the twelve tribes is slightly different. Sometimes Levi, Joseph, or Dan is left out of the list and sometimes Joseph’s two sons Ephraim and Manasseh are included in the list.

(See also: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher, Issachar, Zebulun, Joseph, Benjamin, Ephraim, Manasseh, Israel, Jacob, tribe)

Bible References:

- Acts 26:7
- Genesis 49:28
- Luke 22:28-30
- Matthew 19:28

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3478, H7626, H8147, G14270, G24740, G54430

Matthew References:

19:28

Tyre, Tyrians

Definition:

Tyre was an ancient Canaanite city located on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea in a region that is now part of the modern-day country of Lebanon. Its people were called "Tyrians."

- Part of the city was located on an island in the sea, about one kilometer from the mainland.
- Because of its location and its valuable natural resources, such as cedar trees, Tyre had a prosperous trading industry and was very wealthy.
- King Hiram of Tyre sent wood from cedar trees and skilled laborers to help build a palace for King David.
- Years later, Hiram also sent King Solomon wood and skilled laborers to help build the temple. Solomon paid him with large amounts of wheat and olive oil.
- Tyre was often associated with the nearby ancient city of Sidon. These were the most important cities of the region of Canaan called Phoenicia.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Canaan, cedar, Israel, the sea, Phoenicia, Sidon)

Bible References:

- Acts 12:20
- Mark 3:7-8
- Matthew 11:22
- Matthew 15:22

Word Data:

- Strong's: H6865, H6876, G51830, G51840

Matthew References:

11:21; 11:22; 15:21

understand, understanding, thinking

Definition:

The term “understand” means to hear or receive information and know what it means.

- The term “understanding” can refer to “knowledge” or “wisdom” or realizing how to do something.
- To understand someone can also mean to know how that person is feeling.
- While walking on the road to Emmaus, Jesus caused the disciples to understand the meaning of the scriptures about the Messiah.
- Depending on the context, the term “understand” could be translated by “know” or “believe” or “comprehend” or “know what (something) means.”
- Often the term “understanding” can be translated by “knowledge” or “wisdom” or “insight.”

(See also: believe, know, wise)

Bible References:

- Job 34:16-17
- Luke 2:47
- Luke 8:10
- Matthew 13:12
- Matthew 13:14
- Proverbs 3:5

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0995, H0998, H0999, H1847, H2940, H3045, H3820, H3824, H4486, H7200, H7919, H7922, H7924, H8085, H8394, G00500, G01450, G01910, G08010, G10970, G11080, G12710, G19210, G19220, G19870, G19900, G26570, G35390, G35630, G49070, G49080, G49200, G54240, G54280, G54290

Matthew References:

11:25; 13:11; 13:13; 13:14; 13:15; 13:19; 13:23; 13:51; 15:10; 15:17; 16:9; 16:11; 16:12; 17:13; 24:15

unleavened bread

Definition:

The term “unleavened bread” refers to bread that is made without yeast or other leavening.

This kind of bread is flat because it has no leaven to make it rise.

- When God freed the Israelites from slavery in Egypt, he told them to flee Egypt quickly without waiting for their bread to rise. So they ate unleavened bread with their meal. Since then unleavened bread is used in their yearly Passover celebrations to remind them of that time.
- Since leaven sometimes is used as a picture of sin, “unleavened bread” represents the removal of sin from a person’s life in order to live in a way that honors God.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate this term could include “bread with no yeast” or “flat bread that did not rise.”
- Make sure the translation of this term is consistent with how you translate the term “yeast, leaven.”
- In some contexts, the term “unleavened bread” refers to the “Feast of Unleavened Bread” and can be translated that way.

(See also: bread, Egypt, feast, Passover, servant, sin, yeast)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 5:6-8
- 2 Chronicles 30:13-15
- Acts 12:3
- Exodus 23:14-15
- Ezra 6:21-22
- Genesis 19:1-3
- Judges 6:21
- Leviticus 8:1-3
- Luke 22:1

Word Data:

- Strong's: H4682, G01060

Matthew References:

26:17

Uriah

Definition:

Uriah was a righteous man and one of King David's best soldiers. He is often referred to as "Uriah the Hittite."

- Uriah had a very beautiful wife named Bathsheba.
- David committed adultery with Uriah's wife, and she became pregnant with David's child.
- To cover up this sin, David caused Uriah to be killed in battle. Then David married Bathsheba.
- Another man named Uriah was a priest during the time of King Ahaz.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Ahaz, Bathsheba, David, Hittite)

Bible References:

- 1 Kings 15:5
- 2 Samuel 11:3
- 2 Samuel 11:26-27
- Nehemiah 3:4

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 17:12 Bathsheba's husband, a man named Uriah, was one of David's best soldiers. David called Uriah back from the battle and told him to go be with his wife. But Uriah refused to go home while the rest of the soldiers were in battle. So David sent Uriah back to the battle and told the general to place him where the enemy was strongest so that he would be killed.
- 17:13 After Uriah was killed, David married Bathsheba.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0223, G37740

Matthew References:

1:6

Uzziah, Azariah

Definition:

Uzziah became king of Judah at the age of 16 and reigned 52 years, which was an unusually long reign. Uzziah was also known as "Azariah."

- King Uzziah was well-known for his organized and skilled military. He had towers built to protect the city and had specially-designed weapons of war mounted on them to hurl arrows and large stones.
- As long as Uzziah served the Lord, he prospered. Toward the end of his reign, however, he became proud and he disobeyed the Lord by burning incense in the temple, which only the priest was permitted to do.
- Because of this sin, Uzziah became sick with leprosy and had to live separately from other people until the end of his reign.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Judah, king, leprosy, reign, watchtower)

Bible References:

- 2 Kings 14:21
- Amos 1:1
- Hosea 1:1
- Isaiah 6:1-2
- Matthew 1:7-8

Word Data:

- Strong's: H5818, H5838, H5839

Matthew References:

1:8; 1:9

vain, vanity

Definition:

The terms “vain” and “vanity” describe something that is useless or extremely temporary.

- In the Old Testament, idols are sometimes described as “vain” things that are worthless and cannot do anything.
- If something is done “in vain,” it means that there the effort or action did not accomplish what was intended. The phrase “in vain” might be translated in various ways, including: “without result;” “with no result;” “for no reason;” “for no purpose,” or “with no purpose.”
- Depending on the context, the term “vain” could be translated as “empty,” “useless,” “hopeless,” “worthless,” “meaningless,” etc.

(See also: false god, worthy)

Bible References:

- 1 Corinthians 15:1-2
- 1 Samuel 25:21-22
- 2 Peter 2:18
- Isaiah 45:19
- Jeremiah 2:29-31
- Matthew 15:9

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1891, H1892, H2600, H7307, H7385, H7387, H7723, H8193, H8267, H8414, G09450, G15000, G27560, G27580, G27610, G31510, G31520, G31530, G31550

Matthew References:

15:9

vine

Definition:

The term “vine” refers to a plant that grows by trailing along the ground or by climbing trees and other structures. The word “vine” in the Bible is used only of fruit-bearing vines and usually refers to grape vines.

- In the Bible, the word “vine” almost always means “grapevine.”
- The branches of the grapevine are attached to the main stem which gives them water and other nutrients so that they can grow.
- Jesus called himself the “vine” and called his people the “branches.” In this context, the word “vine” could also be translated as “grapevine stem” or “grape plant stem.” (See: Metaphor)

(See also: grape, vineyard)

Bible References:

- Genesis 40:9
- Genesis 49:11
- John 15:1
- Luke 22:18
- Mark 12:3
- Matthew 21:35-37

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H5139, H1612, H8321, G02880, G02900, G10090, G10920

Matthew References:

26:29

vineyard

Definition:

A vineyard is a large garden area where grapevines are grown and grapes are cultivated.

- A vineyard often has a wall around it to protect the fruit from thieves and animals.
- God compared the people of Israel to a vineyard that did not bear good fruit. (See: Metaphor)
- Vineyard could be also translated as “grapevine garden” or “grape plantation.”

(See also: grape, Israel, vine)

Bible References:

- Genesis 9:20-21
- Luke 13:6
- Luke 20:15
- Matthew 20:2
- Matthew 21:40-41

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1612, H3754, H3755, H8284, G02900

Matthew References:

20:1; 20:2; 20:4; 20:7; 20:8; 21:28; 21:33; 21:39; 21:40; 21:41

virgin, virginity

Definition:

A virgin is a woman who has never had sexual relations.

- The prophet Isaiah said that the Messiah would be born from a virgin.
- Mary was a virgin when she was pregnant with Jesus. He did not have a human father.
- Some languages may have a term that is a polite way of referring to a virgin. (See: Euphemism)

(See also: Christ, Isaiah, Jesus, Mary)

Bible References:

- Genesis 24:15-16
- Luke 1:27
- Luke 1:35
- Matthew 1:23
- Matthew 25:2

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 21:9 The prophet Isaiah prophesied that the Messiah would be born from a virgin.
- 22:4 She (Mary) was a virgin and was engaged to be married to a man named Joseph.
- 22:5 Mary replied, “How can this be, since I am a virgin?”
- 49:1 An angel told a virgin named Mary that she would give birth to God’s Son. So while she was still a virgin, she gave birth to a son and named him Jesus.

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1330, H1331, G39320, G39330

Matthew References:

1:23; 25:1; 25:7; 25:11

vision, envision

Definition:

The term “vision” refers to something that a person sees. It especially refers to something unusual or supernatural that God shows people in order to give them a message.

- Usually, visions are seen while the person is awake. However, sometimes a vision is something a person sees in a dream while asleep.
- God sends visions to tell people something that is very important. For example, Peter was shown a vision to tell him that God wanted him to welcome Gentiles.

Translation Suggestion

- The phrase “saw a vision” could be translated as “saw something unusual from God” or “God showed him something special.”
- Some languages may not have separate words for “vision” and “dream.” So a sentence such as “Daniel had dreams and visions in his mind” could be translated as something like “Daniel was dreaming while asleep and God caused him to see unusual things.”

(See also: dream)

Bible References:

- Acts 9:10-12
- Acts 10:3-6
- Acts 10:11
- Acts 12:9-10
- Luke 1:22
- Luke 24:23
- Matthew 17:9-10

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2376, H2377, H2378, H2380, H2384, H4236, H4758, H4759, H7203, H7723, H8602, G37010, G37050, G37060

Matthew References:

17:9

waste, wasted, wasteland, becomes weak

Definition:

To waste something means to carelessly throw it away or to use it unwisely. Something that is a “wasteland” or a “waste” refers to land or a city that has been destroyed so that nothing lives in it anymore.

- The term “waste away” is an expression that means to become more and more sick or ruined. A person who is wasting away usually becomes very thin due to illness or lack of food.
- To “lay waste” to a city or land means to destroy it.
- Another word for a “wasteland” could be “desert” or “wilderness.” But a wasteland also implies that people used to live there and the land used to have trees and plants that produced food.

Bible References:

- Ezekiel 6:6
- Leviticus 26:39
- Matthew 26:8
- Revelation 18:15-17
- Zechariah 7:13-14

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0535, H1086, H1104, H1326, H2100, H2490, H2522, H2717, H2721, H2723, H3615, H3856, H4127, H4198, H4592, H4743, H5307, H5327, H7334, H7582, H7703, H7736, H7843, H8047, H8074, H8077, H8414, G06840, G12870, G20490, G26730

Matthew References:

26:8

watch, guard, take heed, beware

Definition:

The term “watch” means to look at something very closely and carefully. It also has several figurative meanings. A “watchman” was someone whose job was to guard a city by looking carefully all around him for any danger or threat to the people in the city.

- The command to “watch your life and doctrine closely” means to be careful to live wisely and to not believe false teachings.
- To “watch out” is a warning to be careful to avoid a danger or harmful influence.
- To “watch” or “keep watch” means to always be alert and on guard against sin and evil. It can also mean to “be ready.”
- To “keep watch over” or “keep close watch” can mean to guard, protect or take care of someone or something.
- Other ways of translating “watch” could include “pay close attention to” or “be diligent” or “be very careful” or “be on guard.”
- Other words for “watchman” are “sentry” or “guard.”

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 5:6
- Hebrews 13:17
- Jeremiah 31:4-6
- Mark 8:15
- Mark 13:33-34
- Matthew 25:10-13

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0821, H2370, H4929, H4931, H5027, H5341, H6486, H6822, H6836, H6974, H7462, H7789, H7919, H8104, H8108, H8245, G00690, G09910, G11270, G14920, G23340, G28920, G35250, G37080, G39060, G43370, G46480, G50830, G54380

Matthew References:

14:25; 16:6; 24:42; 24:43; 25:13; 26:38; 26:40; 26:41; 27:36; 27:54; 28:4

watchtower, tower

Definition:

The term “watchtower” refers to a tall structure built as a place from which guards could look out for any danger. These towers were often made of stone.

- Landowners sometimes built watchtowers from which they could guard their crops and protect them from being stolen.
- The towers often included rooms where the watchmen or family lived, so that they could guard the crops day and night.
- Watchtowers for cities were built higher than the city walls so that watchmen could see if any enemies were coming to attack the city.
- The term “watchtower” is also used as a symbol of protection from enemies. (See: Metaphor)

(See also: adversary, watch)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 27:25-27
- Ezekiel 26:3-4
- Mark 12:1-3
- Matthew 21:33-34
- Psalm 62:2

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0803, H0971, H0975, H1785, H2918, H4026, H4029, H4692, H4707, H4869, H6076, H6438, H6836, G44440

Matthew References:

21:33

wheat

Definition:

Wheat is a type of grain that people grow for food. When the Bible mentions “grain” or “seeds,” it is often talking about wheat grain or seeds.

- The wheat seeds or grains grow at the top of the wheat plant.
- After harvesting the wheat, the grain is separated from the stalk of the plant by threshing it. The stalk of the wheat plant is also called “straw” and is often placed on the ground for animals to sleep on.
- After threshing, the chaff surrounding the grain seed is separated from the grain by winnowing and is thrown away.
- People grind the wheat grain into flour, and use this for making bread.

(See also: barley, chaff, grain, seed, thresh, winnow)

Bible References:

- Acts 27:36-38
- Exodus 34:21-22
- John 12:24
- Luke 3:17
- Matthew 3:12
- Matthew 13:26

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1250, H2406, G46210

Matthew References:

3:12; 13:25; 13:29; 13:30

will of God

Definition:

The “will of God” refers to God’s desires and plans.

- God’s will especially relates to his interactions with people and how he wants people to respond to him.
- It also refers to his plans or desires for the rest of his creation.
- The term to “will” means to “determine” or to “desire.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The “will of God” could also be translated as “what God desires” or “what God has planned” or “God’s purpose” or “what is pleasing to God.”

Bible References:

- 1 John 2:15-17
- 1 Thessalonians 4:3-6
- Colossians 4:12-14
- Ephesians 1:1-2
- John 5:30-32
- Mark 3:33-35
- Matthew 6:8-10
- Psalms 103:21

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H6310, H6634, H7522, G10120, G10130, G23070, G23080, G23090, G25960

Matthew References:

6:10; 7:21; 12:50; 18:14; 26:42

wine, wineskin, new wine

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “wine” refers to a kind of fermented drink made from the juice of a fruit called grapes. Wine was stored in “wineskins,” which were containers made out of animal skin.

- The term “new wine” referred to grape juice that had just been taken from the grape and was not fermented yet. Sometimes the term “wine” also referred to unfermented grape juice.
- To make wine, grapes are crushed in a winepress so that the juice comes out. The juice eventually ferments and alcohol forms in it.
- In Bible times, wine was the normal drink with meals. It did not have as much alcohol as present-day wine has.
- Before wine was served for a meal, it was often mixed with water.
- A wineskin that was old and brittle would get cracks in it, which allowed the wine to leak out. New wineskins were soft and flexible, which meant they did not tear easily and could store the wine safely.
- If wine is unknown in your culture, it could be translated as “fermented grape juice” or “fermented drink made from a fruit called grapes” or “fermented fruit juice.” (See: How to Translate Unknowns)
- Ways to translate “wineskin” could include “bag for wine” or “animal skin wine bag” or “animal skin container for wine.”

(See also: grape, vine, vineyard, winepress)

Bible References:

- 1 Timothy 5:23
- Genesis 9:21
- Genesis 49:12
- John 2:3-5
- John 2:10
- Matthew 9:17
- Matthew 11:18

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2561, H2562, H3196, H4469, H4997, H5435, H6025, H6071, H8492, G10980, G36310, G38200, G39430

Matthew References:

9:17; 27:34

winepress

Definition:

During Bible times, a “winepress” was a large container or open place where the juice of grapes was extracted in order to make wine.

- In Israel, winepresses were usually large, wide basins that were dug out of solid rock. Clusters of grapes were put on the flat bottom of the hole and people trampled the grapes with their feet to get the grape juice to flow out.
- Usually a winepress had two levels, with the grapes being trampled in the top level so that the juice would run down into the lower level where it could be collected.
- The term “winepress” is also used figuratively in the Bible as a picture of God’s wrath being poured out on wicked people. (See: Metaphor)

(See also: grape, wrath)

Bible References:

- Isaiah 63:2
- Mark 12:1
- Matthew 21:33
- Revelation 14:20

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H1660, H3342, H6333, G30250, G52760

Matthew References:

21:33

winnow, sift

Definition:

The terms “winnow” and “sift” mean to separate grain from unwanted materials. In the Bible, both words can also be used to refer to separating or dividing people.

- To “winnow” means to separate grain from the unwanted parts of the plant by tossing both the grain and chaff into the air, allowing the wind to blow the chaff away.
- The word “sift” refers to shaking the winnowed grain in a sieve to get rid of any remaining unwanted materials, such as dirt or stones.
- In the Old Testament, “winnow” and “sift” are used figuratively to describe hardship that separates the righteous people from the unrighteous people.
- Jesus also used the term “sift” in this figurative way when he was telling Simon Peter about how he and the other disciples would be tested in their faith.
- To translate these terms, use the words or phrases in the project language that refer to these activities; possible translations might be “shaking” or “fanning.” If winnowing or sifting are not known, then these terms could be translated by a term that refers to a different method of separating grain from chaff or dirt, or by describing this process.

(See also: How to Translate Unknowns)

(See also: chaff, grain)

Bible References:

- Isaiah 21:10
- Luke 22:31
- Matthew 3:12
- Proverbs 20:8
- Ruth 3:2

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2219, H5128, H5130, G44250, G46170

Matthew References:

3:12

wise men, advisor

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “wise men” is often a technical term referring to men with unusual knowledge and abilities who served in a king’s royal court as advisors to the king or other high officials.

Old Testament

- The “wise men” who served pharaohs or other kings were often scholars who studied the stars, especially looking for special meanings for the patterns that the stars made in their positions in the sky. Sometimes “wise men” also practiced divination of performed acts of magic, probably by the power of evil spirits.
- Often wise men were expected to explain the meanings of dreams. For example, King Nebuchadnezzar demanded that his wise men describe his dreams and tell him what they meant, but none of them was able to do this, except Daniel who had received this knowledge from God.

New Testament

- The group of men who came from eastern regions to worship Jesus were called “magi,” which is often translated as “wise men,” since this probably refers to scholars who served a ruler of an eastern country.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “wise men” could be translated using the term “wise” or with a phrase such as “gifted men” or “educated men” or some other term that refers to men who have an important job working for a ruler.

(See also: Babylon, Daniel, divination, magic, Nebuchadnezzar, ruler, wise)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 27:32-34
- Daniel 2:1-2
- Daniel 2:10-11

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2445, H2450, H3778, H3779, G46800

Matthew References:

2:1; 2:7; 2:16

wise, wisdom

Definition:

The term “wise” describes someone who understands what is the right and moral thing to do and then does that. “Wisdom” is the understanding and practice of what is true and morally right.

- Being wise includes the ability to make good decisions, especially choosing to do what pleases God.
- People become wise by listening to God and humbly obeying his will.
- A wise person will show the fruits of the Holy Spirit in his life, such as joy, kindness, love, and patience.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate “wise” could include “obedient to God” or “sensible and obedient” or “God-fearing.”
- “Wisdom” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “wise living” or “sensible and obedient living” or “good judgment.”
- It is best to translate “wise” and “wisdom” in such a way that they are different terms from other key terms like righteous or obedient.

(See also: obey, fruit)

Bible References:

- Acts 6:3
- Colossians 3:15-17
- Exodus 31:6
- Genesis 3:6
- Isaiah 19:12
- Jeremiah 18:18
- Matthew 7:24

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 2:5 She also wanted to be wise, so she picked some of the fruit and ate it.

- 18:1 When Solomon asked for wisdom, God was pleased and made him the wisest man in the world.
- 23:9 Some time later, wise men from countries far to the east saw an unusual star in the sky.
- 45:1 He (Stephen) had a good reputation and was full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0998, H1350, H2445, H2449, H2450, H2451, H2452, H2454, H2942, H3820, H3823, H6195, H6493, H6912, H7535, H7919, H7922, H8454, G46780, G46790, G46800, G49200, G54280, G54290, G54300

Matthew References:

7:24; 10:16; 11:19; 11:25; 12:42; 13:54; 23:34; 24:45; 25:2; 25:4; 25:8; 25:9

woe

Definition:

The term “woe” refers to a feeling of great distress. It also gives a warning that someone will experience severe trouble.

- The expression “woe to” is followed by a warning to people that they will experience suffering as punishment for their sins.
- In several places in the Bible, the word “woe” is repeated, to emphasize an especially terrible judgment.
- A person who says “woe is me” or “woe to me” is expressing sorrow about severe suffering.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “woe” could also be translated as “great sorrow” or “sadness” or “calamity” or “disaster.”
- Other ways to translate the expression “Woe to (name of city)” could include, “How terrible it will be for (name of city)” or “The people in (that city) will be severely punished” or “Those people will suffer greatly.”
- The expression, “Woe is me!” or “Woe to me!” could be translated as “How sad I am!” or “I am so sad!” or “How terrible this is for me!”
- The expression “Woe to you” could also be translated as “You will suffer terribly” or “You will experience terrible troubles.”

Bible References:

- Ezekiel 13:17-18
- Habakkuk 2:12
- Isaiah 31:1-2
- Jeremiah 45:1-3
- Jude 1:9-11
- Luke 6:24
- Luke 17:1-2
- Matthew 23:23

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0188, H0190, H0337, H0480, H1929, H1945, H1958, G37590

Matthew References:

11:21; 18:7; 23:intro; 23:13; 23:15; 23:16; 23:23; 23:25; 23:27; 23:29; 24:19; 26:24

wolf, wild dog, wild dogs

Definition:

A wolf is a fierce, meat-eating animal that is similar to a wild dog.

- Wolves usually hunt in groups and stalk their prey in a clever and stealthy manner.
- In the Bible, the term “wolves” is used figuratively to refer to false teachers or false prophets who destroy believers, who are compared to sheep. False teaching causes people to believe wrong things that bring harm to them.
- This comparison is based on the fact that sheep are especially vulnerable to being attacked and eaten by wolves, because they are weak and cannot defend themselves.

Translation Suggestion

- This term could be translated as “wild dog” or “wild animal.”
- Other names for wild dogs could be “jackal” or “coyote.”
- When used figuratively to refer to people, this could be translated as “evil people who harm people like animals that attack sheep.”

(See also: evil, false prophet, sheep, teach)

Bible References:

- Acts 20:29
- Isaiah 11:7
- John 10:11-13
- Luke 10:3
- Matthew 7:15
- Zephaniah 3:3

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H2061, H3611, G30740

Matthew References:

7:15; 10:16

womb

Definition:

The term “womb” refers to where a baby grows inside its mother.

- This is an older term that is sometimes used in order to be polite and less direct. (See: euphemism)
- A more modern term for womb is “uterus.”
- Some languages use a word like “belly” to refer to a woman’s womb or uterus.
- Use a word for this in the project language that is well-known, natural, and acceptable.

Bible References:

- Genesis 25:23
- Genesis 25:24-26
- Genesis 38:27-28
- Genesis 49:25
- Luke 2:21
- Luke 11:27
- Luke 23:29
- Matthew 19:12

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0990, H4578, H7356, H7358, G10640, G28360, G33880

Matthew References:

1:18; 1:23; 19:12; 24:19 word of God, word of Yahweh, word of the Lord, word of truth, scripture

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “word of God” refers to anything that God has communicated to people. This includes spoken and written messages. Jesus is also called “the Word of God.”

- The term “scriptures” means “writings.” It is only used in the New Testament and refers to the Hebrew scriptures, which is the Old Testament. These writings were God’s message that he had told people to write down so that many years in the future people could still read it.
- The related terms “word of Yahweh” and “word of the Lord” often refer to a specific message from God that was given to a prophet or other person in the Bible.
- Sometimes this term occurs as simply “the word” or “my word” or “your word” (when talking about God’s word).
- In the New Testament, Jesus is called “the Word” and “the Word of God.” These titles mean that Jesus fully reveals who God is, because he is God himself.

The term “word of truth” is another way of referring to “God’s word,” which is his message or teaching. It does not refer to just one word.

- God’s word of truth includes everything that God has taught people about himself, his creation, and his plan of salvation through Jesus.
- This term emphasizes the fact that what God has told us is true, faithful, and real.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this term could include “the message of Yahweh” or “God’s message” or “the teachings from God.”
- It may be more natural in some languages to make this term plural and say “God’s words” or “the words of Yahweh.”
- The expression “the word of Yahweh came” is often used to introduce something that God told his prophets or his people. This could be translated as “Yahweh spoke this message” or “Yahweh spoke these words.”

- The term “scripture” or “scriptures” could be translated as “the writings” or “the written message from God.” This term should be translated differently from the translation of the term “word.”
- When “word” occurs alone and it refers to God’s word, it could be translated as “the message” or “God’s word” or “the teachings.” Also consider the alternate translations suggested above.
- When the Bible refers to Jesus as “the Word,” this term could be translated as “the Message” or “the Truth.”
- “Word of truth” could be translated as “God’s true message” or “God’s word, which is true.”
- It is important for the translation of this term to include the meaning of being true.

(See also: prophet, true, Yahweh)

Bible References:

- Genesis 15:1
- 1 Kings 13:1
- Jeremiah 36:1-3
- Luke 8:11
- John 5:39
- Acts 6:2
- Acts 12:24
- Romans 1:2
- 2 Corinthians 6:7
- Ephesians 1:13
- 2 Timothy 3:16
- James 1:18
- James 2:8-9

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 25:7 In God's word he commands his people, "Worship only the Lord your God and only serve him."
- 33:6 So Jesus explained, "The seed is the word of God."
- 42:3 Then Jesus explained to them what God's word says about the Messiah.
- 42:7 Jesus said, "I told you that everything written about me in God's word must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds so they could understand God's word.
- 45:10 Philip also used other scriptures to tell him the good news of Jesus.
- 48:12 But Jesus is the greatest prophet of all. He is the Word of God.
- 49:18 God tells you to pray, to study his word, to worship him with other Christians, and to tell others what he has done for you.

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0561, H0565, H1697, H3068, G30560, G44870

Matthew References:

15:6; 21:42; 22:29; 26:54; 26:56

world, worldly

Definition:

The term “world” usually refers to the part of the universe where people live: the earth. The term “worldly” describes the evil values and behaviors of people living in this world.

- In its most general sense, the term “world” refers to the heavens and the earth, as well as everything in them.
- In many contexts, “world” actually means “people in the world.”
- Sometimes it is implied that this refers to the evil people on earth or the people who do not obey God.
- The apostles also used “world” to refer to the selfish behaviors and corrupt values of the people living in this world. This can include self-righteous religious practices which are based on human efforts.
- People and things characterized by these values are said to be “worldly.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “world” could also be translated as “universe” or “people of this world” or “corrupt things in the world” or “evil attitudes of people in the world.”
- The phrase “all the world” often means “many people” and refers to the people living in a certain region. For example, “all the world came to Egypt” could be translated as “many people from the surrounding countries came to Egypt” or “people from all the countries surrounding Egypt came there.”
- Another way to translate “all the world went to their hometown to be registered in the Roman census” would be “many of the people living in regions ruled by the Roman empire went…”
- Depending on the context, the term “worldly” could be translated as “evil” or “sinful” or “selfish” or “ungodly” or “corrupt” or “influenced by the corrupt values of people in this world.”
- The phrase “saying these things in the world” can be translated as “saying these things to the people of the world.”
- In other contexts, “in the world” could also be translated as “living among the people of the world” or “living among ungodly people.”

(See also: corrupt, heaven, Rome, godly)

Bible References:

- 1 John 2:15

- 1 John 4:5
- 1 John 5:5
- John 1:29
- Matthew 13:36-39

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0776, H2309, H2465, H5769, H8398, G10930, G28860, G28890, G36250

Matthew References:

4:8; 5:14; 13:35; 13:38; 16:26; 18:7; 24:14; 24:21; 25:34; 26:13

wrath, fury

Definition:

Wrath is an intense anger that is sometimes long-lasting. The Bible describes both people and God as experiencing intense anger. When speaking about God's "wrath," make sure the word or phrase used to translate this term does not refer to a sinful fit of rage (which might be true of a human person).

- In the Bible, "wrath" often refers to God's righteous judgment of sin and punishment of people who rebel against him.
- The "wrath of God" can also refer to his judgment and punishment for sin.
- God's wrath is the righteous penalty for those who do not repent of their sin.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways this term could be translated include "intense anger" or "righteous judgment" or "anger."
- God's wrath is just and holy. When talking about God's wrath, make sure the word or phrase used to translate this term does not refer to a sinful human rage.

(See also: judge, sin)

Bible References:

- 1 Thessalonians 1:8-10
- 1 Timothy 2:8-10
- Luke 3:7
- Luke 21:23
- Matthew 3:7
- Revelation 14:10
- Romans 1:18
- Romans 5:9

Word Data:

- Strong's: H0639, H2197, H2528, H2534, H2740, H3707, H3708, H5678, H7107, H7109, H7110, H7265, H7267, G23720, G37090, G39490, G39500

Matthew References:

3:7

wrong, wronged, wrongdoer, mistreat, hurt, hurtful

Definition:

To “wrong” someone means to treat that person unjustly and dishonestly.

- The term “mistreat” means to act badly or roughly toward someone, causing physical or emotional harm to that person.
- The term “hurt” is more general and means to “cause someone harm in some way.” It often has the meaning of “physically injure.”
- Depending on the context, these terms could also be translated as “do wrong to” or “treat unjustly” or “cause harm to” or “treat in a harmful way” or “injure.”

Bible References:

- Acts 7:26
- Exodus 22:21
- Genesis 16:5
- Luke 6:28
- Matthew 20:13-14
- Psalms 71:13

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H0205, H0816, H2248, H2250, H2255, H2257, H2398, H2554, H2555, H3238, H3637, H4834, H5062, H5142, H5230, H5627, H5753, H5766, H5791, H5792, H5916, H6031, H6087, H6127, H6231, H6485, H6565, H6586, H7451, H7489, H7563, H7665, H7667, H7686, H8133, H8267, H8295, G00910, G00920, G00930, G00950, G02640, G08240, G09830, G09840, G15360, G16260, G16510, G17270, G19080, G25560, G25580, G25590, G26070, G30760, G30770, G37620, G41220, G51950, G51960

Matthew References:

20:13

year

Definition:

When used literally, the term “year” in the Bible refers to a period of time lasting 354 days. This is according to the lunar calendar system which is based on the time it takes for the moon to go around the earth.

- A year in the modern-day solar calendar lasts 365 days divided into twelve months, based on the amount of time it takes for the earth to travel around the sun.
- In both calendar systems a year has twelve months. But an extra thirteenth month is sometimes added to the year in the lunar calendar to make up for the fact that a lunar year is eleven days less than a solar year. This helps keep the two calendars more in line with each other.
- In the Bible, the term “year” is also used in a figurative sense to refer to a general time when a special event takes place. Examples of this include, “the year of Yahweh” or “in the year of drought” or “the favorable year of the Lord.” In these contexts, “year” could be translated as “time” or “season” or “time period.”

(See also: month)

Bible References:

- 2 Kings 23:31
- Acts 19:8-10
- Daniel 8:1
- Exodus 12:2

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3117, H7620, H7657, H8140, H8141, G17630, G20940

Matthew References:

9:20

yeast, leaven, unleavened

Definition:

"Leaven" is a general term for a substance that causes bread dough to expand and rise. "Yeast" is a specific kind of leaven.

- In some English translations, the word for leaven is translated as "yeast," which is a modern leavening agent that fills the bread dough with gas bubbles, making the dough expand before baking it. The yeast is kneaded into the dough so that it spreads throughout the entire lump of dough.
- In Old Testament times, the leavening or rising agent was produced by allowing the dough to sit for awhile. Small amounts of dough from a previous batch of dough were saved as leavening for the next batch.
- When the Israelites escaped from Egypt, they did not have time to wait for bread dough to rise, so they made bread without leaven to take with them on their journey. As a reminder of this, every year the Jewish people celebrate Passover by eating bread that has no leaven in it.
- The term "leaven" or "yeast" is used figuratively in the Bible as a picture of how sin spreads through a person's life or how sin can influence other people.
- It can also refer to false teaching which often spreads to many people and influences them.
- The term "leaven" is also used in a positive way to explain how the influence of God's kingdom spreads from person to person.

Translation Suggestions

- This could be translated as "leaven" or "substance that causes dough to rise" or "expanding agent." The word "rise" could be expressed as "expand" or "get bigger" or "puff up."
- If a local leavening agent is used for making bread dough rise, that term can be used. If the language has a well-known, general term that means "leavening," this would be the best term to use.

(See also: Egypt, Passover, unleavened bread)

Bible References:

- Exodus 12:8
- Galatians 5:9-10
- Luke 12:1

- Luke 13:21
- Matthew 13:33
- Matthew 16:8

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2556, H2557, H4682, H7603, G01060, G22190, G22200

Matthew References:

13:33; 16:6; 16:11; 16:12

yoke, yoked, tied

Definition:

A yoke is a piece of wood or metal attached to two or more animals to connect them for the purpose of pulling a plow or a cart. There are also several figurative meanings for this term.

- The term “yoke” is used figuratively to refer to something that joins people for the purpose of working together, such as in serving Jesus.
- Paul used the term “yokefellow” to refer to someone who was serving Christ as he was. This could also be translated as “fellow worker” or “fellow servant” or “coworker.”
- The term “yoke” is also often used figuratively to refer to a heavy load that someone has to carry, such as when being oppressed by slavery or persecution.
- In most contexts, it is best to translate this term literally, using the local term for a yoke that is used for farming.
- Other ways to translate the figurative use of this term could be, “oppressive burden” or “heavy load” or “bond,” depending on the context.

(See also: bind, burden, oppress, persecute, servant)

Bible References:

- Acts 15:10
- Galatians 5:1
- Genesis 27:40
- Isaiah 9:4
- Jeremiah 27:4
- Matthew 11:30
- Philippians 4:3

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H3627, H4132, H4133, H5674, H5923, H6776, G20860, G22180

Matthew References:

11:29; 11:30

Zadok

Definition:

Zadok was the name of an important high priest in Israel during the reign of King David.

- When Absalom rebelled against King David, Zadok supported David and helped bring the ark of the covenant back into Jerusalem.
- Years later, he also took part in the ceremony to anoint David's son Solomon as king.
- Two different men by the name of Zadok helped rebuild the walls of Jerusalem during Nehemiah's time.
- Zadok was also the name of King Jotham's grandfather.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: ark of the covenant, David, Jotham, Nehemiah, reign, Solomon)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 24:1-3
- 1 Kings 1:26-27
- 2 Samuel 15:24-26
- Matthew 1:12-14

Word Data:

- Strong's: H6659, G45240

Matthew References:

1:14

Zebedee

Definition:

Zebedee was a fisherman from Galilee who is known because of his sons, James and John, who were Jesus' disciples. They are often identified in the New Testament as the "sons of Zebedee."

- Zebedee's sons were also fishermen and worked with him to catch fish.
- James and John quit their fishing work with their father Zebedee and left to go follow Jesus.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: disciple, fishermen, James (son of Zebedee), John (the apostle))

Bible References:

- John 21:1-3
- Luke 5:8-11
- Mark 1:19-20
- Matthew 4:21-22
- Matthew 20:20
- Matthew 26:36-38

Word Data:

- Strong's: G21990

Matthew References:

4:21; 10:2; 20:20; 26:37; 27:56

Zebulun

Definition:

Zebulun was Jacob's tenth son. He was Leah's sixth son. His descendants became one of the tribes of Israel.

- The tribe descended from him was known as the "tribe of Zebulun" or "Zebulun."
- The meaning of the name Zebulun is unknown, but it is similar to a Hebrew word probably meaning "to honor" or "to dwell."
- The tribe of Zebulun settled in northwest Canaan, bordered by the lands of Naphtali, Issachar, Manasseh, and Asher.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: twelve tribes of Israel, Jacob, Leah)

Bible References:

- Exodus 1:1-5
- Genesis 30:20
- Isaiah 9:1
- Judges 4:10
- Matthew 4:13
- Matthew 4:16

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2074, H2075, G21940

Matthew References:

4:13; 4:15

Zerubbabel

Definition:

Zerubbabel was the name of two Israelite men in the Old Testament.

- One of these was a descendant of Jehoiakim and Zedekiah.
- A different Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, was the head of the tribe of Judah during the time of Ezra and Nehemiah, when Cyrus king of Persia released the Israelites from their captivity in Babylon.
- Zerubbabel and the high priest Joshua were among those who helped rebuild the temple and altar of God.

(Translation suggestions: How to Translate Names)

(See also: Babylon, captive, Cyrus, Ezra, high priest, Jehoiakim, Joshua, Judah, Nehemiah, Persia, Zedekiah)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 3:19-21
- Ezra 2:1-2
- Ezra 3:8-9
- Luke 3:27-29
- Matthew 1:12

Word Data:

- Strong's: H2216, H2217, G22160

Matthew References:

1:12; 1:13

Zion, Mount Zion

Definition:

Originally, the term “Zion” or “Mount Zion” referred to a stronghold or fortress that King David captured from the Jebusites. Both these terms became other ways of referring to Jerusalem.

- Mount Zion and Mount Moriah were two of the hills that the city of Jerusalem was located on. Later, “Zion” and “Mount Zion” became used as general terms to refer to both of these mountains and to the city of Jerusalem. Sometimes they also referred to the temple that was located in Jerusalem. (See: metonymy)
- David named Zion, or Jerusalem, the “City of David.” This is different from David’s hometown, Bethlehem, which was also called the City of David.
- The term “Zion” is used in other figurative ways, to refer to Israel or to God’s spiritual kingdom or to the new, heavenly Jerusalem that God will create.

(See also: Abraham, David, Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Jebusites)

Bible References:

- 1 Chronicles 11:5
- Amos 1:2
- Jeremiah 51:35
- Psalm 76:1-3
- Romans 11:26

Word Data:

- Strong’s: H6726

Matthew References:

21:5