Psalms

Psalms 1

Psalms 1:1

ULT

¹ Blessed is the man who does not walk in the advice of the wicked, or stand in the pathway with sinners, or sit in the assembly of mockers.

UST

¹ How fortunate are those who do not do what the wicked people advise them to do, who do not imitate the behavior of sinful people, and who do not join with people who ridicule God.

Where does the blessed man not walk?

He does not walk in the advice of the wicked.

Where does the blessed man not stand?

He does not stand in the pathway with sinners.

Where does the blessed man not sit?

He does not sit in the assembly of mockers.

Psalms 1:2

ULT

² But his delight is in the law of Yahweh, and on his law he meditates day and night.

UST

² Instead, those with whom Yahweh is pleased delight in understanding what he teaches us. They read and think every day and every night about what Yahweh teaches.

In what does the blessed man delight?

He delights in the law of Yahweh.

When does the blessed man meditate on the law?

He meditates on it day and night.

Psalms 1:3ULT

³ He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water that produces its fruit in its season, whose leaves do not wither; whatever he does will prosper.

UST

³ They constantly do things that please God, just as fruit trees that have been planted along the banks of a stream produce fruit at the right time every year. Like trees that never wither, they succeed in everything that they do.

What is the blessed man like?

He is like a tree planted by the streams of water.

What will happen to everything the blessed man does?

Whatever he does will prosper.

⁴ The wicked are not so, but are instead like the chaff that the wind drives away.

UST

⁴ But wicked people are not like that! Wicked people are as worthless as chaff that is blown away by the wind.

What are wicked people like?

They are like the chaff that the wind drives away.

⁵ So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

UST

⁵ Therefore, when God judges all mankind, he will condemn the wicked. Furthermore, the wicked will not be present when Yahweh gathers all the righteous people together.

What will happen to wicked people in the judgment?

They will not stand in the judgment.

ULT

⁶ For Yahweh approves of the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

UST

⁶ For Yahweh guides and protects righteous people, but the path that the wicked walk on leads them to where God will destroy them forever.

Who approves of the way of the righteous?

Yahweh approves of the way of the righteous.

What will happen to the way of the wicked?

The way of the wicked will perish.

Psalms 2

Psalms 2:1

ULT

¹ Why are the nations in turmoil, and why do the peoples make plots that will fail?

UST

¹ Why do the leaders of nations rage against Yahweh? Why do people plan to rebel against him, even though it is in vain?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 2:2

ULT

² The kings of the earth take their stand together and the rulers conspire together against Yahweh and against his Messiah, saying,

UST

² The kings of the nations on earth prepare to revolt; the rulers plot together to fight against Yahweh and against his Anointed One.

Who are the rulers conspiring against?

They are conspiring against Yahweh and against his Messiah.

Psalms 2:3

ULT

³ "Let us tear off the shackles they put on us and throw off their chains."

UST

³ They shout, "We should free ourselves from their control; we should not let them rule over us any longer!"

What do the rulers want to tear off and throw off?

They want to tear off the shackles Yahweh and his Messiah put on them and throw off their chains.

⁴ He who sits in the heavens will sneer at them; the Lord mocks them.

UST

⁴ But the one who sits on his throne in heaven laughs at them; the Lord ridicules those rulers.

Who sits in the heavens and mocks the nations who rebel?

The Lord mocks them.

Psalms 2:5ULT

⁵ Then he will speak to them in his anger and terrify them in his rage, saying,

UST

⁵ Then, because he is angry with them, he rebukes them. He causes them to be terrified when they realize that he will furiously punish them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

⁶ "I myself have anointed my king on Zion, my holy mountain."

UST

⁶ Yahweh says, "I have put my king on a throne on Zion, my sacred hill in Jerusalem."

Who has the Lord anointed?

The Lord has anointed his king on Zion, his holy mountain.

Psalms 2:7ULT

⁷ I will announce a decree of Yahweh. He said to me, "You are my son! This day I have become your father.

UST

⁷ His king says, "I will proclaim what Yahweh has decreed. He said to me, 'You are my son; today I have become your father.

What decree does Yahweh give to the writer?

Yahweh says, "You are my son! This day I have become your father."

Psalms 2:8ULT

⁸ Ask me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance and the farthestmost regions of the earth for your possession.

UST

⁸ Request me to give you the nations so that they belong to you permanently, and I will give them to you. Even the most remote nations will be yours.

What will Yahweh do with the nations and farthestmost regions of the earth?

Yahweh will give them as an inheritance and possession.

Psalms 2:9ULT

⁹ You will break them with an iron rod; like a jar of a potter, you will smash them to pieces."

UST

⁹ You will strike them down with an iron rod; like the potter crashes his pot into pieces when he throws it on the ground, that is how you will break them up into small pieces.

What will happen to the nations?

They will be broken and smashed.

Psalms 2:10ULT

¹⁰ So now, you kings, be warned; be corrected, you rulers of the earth.

UST

¹⁰ So then, you kings and other rulers on the earth, act wisely! Listen to what Yahweh is warning you!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 2:11ULT

¹¹ Worship Yahweh in fear and rejoice with trembling.

UST

¹¹ Worship Yahweh; fervently honor him. Rejoice about the things he has done, but tremble before him!

How should the kings and rulers respond to Yahweh's decree?

They should worship Yahweh in fear and rejoice with trembling.

Psalms 2:12ULT

¹² Kiss the son or he will be angry with you, and you will die in the way when his anger burns for just a moment. How blessed are all those who seek refuge in him.

UST

¹² Bow down humbly before his son! If you do not do that, he will be angry, and he will suddenly kill you. Do not forget that he can, in one moment, show that he is very angry! But how fortunate are all those who request him to protect them.

Why should the kings give allegiance to Yahweh's son?

They should give him allegiance so that he will not be angry and they will not die.

What happens to all those who take shelter in the son?

They are blessed.

Psalms 3

Psalms 3:1

ULT

¹ Yahweh, how many are my enemies! Many have risen against me.

UST

¹ Yahweh, I have many enemies! There are many people who oppose me.

What have David's enemies done to him?

They have turned away and attacked him.

Psalms 3:2

ULT

² Many say about me, "There is no help for him from God." Selah

UST

² Many people are saying about me, "God will certainly not help him."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 3:3

ULT

³ But you, Yahweh, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.

UST

³ But Yahweh, you are like a shield that protects me. You greatly honor me, and you encourage me.

To what does David compare Yahweh?

Yahweh is a shield around him, his glory, and the one who lifts his head.

Psalms 3:4ULT

⁴ I lift up my voice to Yahweh, and he answers me from his holy hill. Selah

UST

⁴ I cry out to you, Yahweh, and you answer me from Zion, your sacred hill.

What does Yahweh do when David lifts his voice to him?

He answers from his holy hill.

⁵ I lay down and slept; I awoke, for Yahweh protected me.

UST

⁵ At night I lay down and slept, and I woke up in the morning because you, Yahweh, took care of me all during the night.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 3:6ULT

⁶ I will not be afraid of the multitudes of people who have set themselves against me on every side.

UST

⁶ There may be thousands of enemy soldiers who surround me, but I am not afraid.

Who will David not fear because of Yahweh's protection?

David will not be afraid of people who have set themselves against him.

Psalms 3:7ULT

⁷ Rise up, Yahweh! Save me, my God! For you will hit all my enemies on the jaw; you will break the teeth of the wicked.

UST

⁷ Yahweh, arise! My God, come and rescue me again! You will insult my enemies by slapping them on their cheeks; when you strike them, you will destroy their power, with the result that they cannot hurt anyone.

What will Yahweh do to David's enemies?

He will hit all his enemies on the jaw; he will break the teeth of the wicked.

Psalms 3:8ULT

⁸ Salvation comes from Yahweh. May your blessings be on your people. Selah

UST

⁸ Yahweh, you are the one who saves your people from their enemies. Yahweh, bless your people!

From whom does salvation come?

Salvation comes from Yahweh.

Psalms 4

Psalms 4:1

ULT

¹ Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness; give me room when I am hemmed in. Have mercy on me and listen to my prayer.

UST

¹ God, answer me when I pray to you. You are the one who shows people that I am right to trust in you. You rescued me when I was in great trouble. Act mercifully toward me and listen to me while I pray.

Who does David ask to answer when he calls?

David prays for the God of his righteousness to answer when he calls.

Psalms 4:2

ULT

² You people, how long will you turn my honor into shame? How long will you love that which is worthless and seek after lies? Selah

UST

² How long will you people shame me instead of honoring me? You people love to falsely accuse me.

What are the people doing to David's honor?

They are turning his honor into shame.

ULT

³ But know that Yahweh has set apart the faithful ones for himself. Yahweh will hear when I call to him.

UST

³ All those who honor Yahweh— he has chosen them to belong to him. Yahweh will listen to me when I pray to him.

Who does Yahweh set apart?

He sets apart the godly for himself.

Psalms 4:4ULT

⁴ Tremble in fear, but do not sin! Meditate in your heart on your bed and be silent. Selah

UST

⁴ You should be afraid of Yahweh, but do not allow your fear to cause you to sin. While you lie on your bed, silently examine what you are thinking in your inner being.

How does David say to meditate?

He says, "Meditate in your heart on your bed and be silent."

Psalms 4:5ULT

⁵ Offer the sacrifices of righteousness and put your trust in Yahweh.

UST

⁵ Also, offer to Yahweh the proper sacrifices and continue trusting in him.

What kind of sacrifices does David say to offer?

He says to offer the sacrifices of righteousness.

In whom does David say to trust?

He says to trust in Yahweh.

Psalms 4:6ULT

⁶ Many say, "Who will show us anything good?" Yahweh, lift up the light of your face on us.

UST

⁶ Some people ask, "Will someone please bring good things to us?" But I say, "Yahweh, continue to act kindly toward us."

What will many say?

Many will say, "Who will show us anything good?"

What does David ask Yahweh to lift up?

He asks Yahweh to lift up the light of his face on them.

ULT

⁷ You have given my heart more gladness than others have when their grain and new wine abound.

UST

⁷ You have caused me to be very happy; I am happier than people who have harvested a great amount of grain and grapes.

What has Yahweh given David's heart?

Yahweh has given his heart more gladness than others have when their grain and new wine abound.

Psalms 4:8

ULT

⁸ It is in peace that I will lie down and sleep, for you alone, Yahweh, make me safe and secure.

UST

⁸ It is in peace and security that I will lie down at night and sleep soundly because I know that it is only you, Yahweh, who will keep me safe."

Who makes David safe and secure when he lies down in peaceful sleep?

Yahweh alone makes David safe and secure.

Psalms 5

ULT

¹ Listen to my call to you, Yahweh; think about my groanings.

UST

¹ Yahweh, listen to me while I pray! Pay attention to me when I am groaning because I am suffering very much.

Who is David asking to listen to his call and think about his groanings?

David is asking Yahweh to listen to his call and think about his groanings.

Psalms 5:2

ULT

² Listen to the sound of my call, my King and my God, for it is to you that I pray.

UST

² You are my king and my God. When I call to you to request you to help me, listen to me because you are the one to whom I pray.

What names does David use for the one who listens to the sound of his call?

David calls him, "my King and my God."

Psalms 5:3

ULT

³ Yahweh, in the morning you hear my cry; in the morning I will bring my petition to you and wait expectantly.

UST

³ You listen to me when I pray to you each morning, and I wait for you to reply.

What will David do in the morning?

He will bring his petition to Yahweh and wait expectantly.

Psalms 5:4ULT

⁴ Certainly you are not a God who approves of evil; evil people will not be your guests.

UST

⁴ You are not a god who is pleased with wicked people; you will never welcome those who do what is evil.

What does God certainly not do?

He certainly does not approve of evil, and evil people will not be his guests.

Psalms 5:5ULT

⁵ The arrogant will not stand in your presence; you hate all who behave wickedly.

UST

⁵ You do not allow those who are proud to come to you to worship you. You hate all those who do evil things.

Who will not stand in God's presence?

The arrogant will not stand in God's presence.

Who does God hate?

God hates all who behave wickedly.

Psalms 5:6ULT

⁶ You will destroy liars; Yahweh despises violent and deceitful men.

UST

⁶ You get rid of liars, and you despise those who murder others and those who deceive others.

What will God do to liars?

God will destroy liars.

Who does Yahweh despise?

Yahweh despises violent and deceitful men.

Psalms 5:7ULT

⁷ But as for me, because of your great covenant faithfulness, I will come into your house; in reverence I will bow down toward your holy temple.

UST

⁷ Yahweh, because you greatly and faithfully love me, I come into your temple. I have an awesome respect for you and I will bow down to worship you at your sacred temple.

Why will David come into Yahweh's house?

David will come into Yahweh's house because of Yahweh's great covenant faithfulness.

How will David bow down toward Yahweh's holy temple?

David will bow down in reverence.

Psalms 5:8ULT

⁸ Oh Lord, lead me in your righteousness because of my enemies; make your path straight before me.

UST

⁸ Yahweh, because you act righteously toward me, show me what is right for me to do. Because I have many enemies, show me clearly how to live in the right way.

Why does David ask the Lord to lead him in righteousness?

David asks the Lord to lead him in the Lord's righteousness because of David's enemies.

⁹ For there is no truth in their mouth; their inward being is wicked; their throat is an open tomb; they flatter with their tongue.

UST

⁹ My enemies never say what is true; in their inner beings they want to destroy others. They speak threats of violence and death. They use their tongues to say good things to please people.

How does David describe his enemies?

David describes his enemies as having no truth in their mouth, their inward being is wicked, their throat is an open sepulchre and they flatter with their tongue.

Psalms 5:10ULT

¹⁰ Declare them guilty, God; may their schemes be their downfall! Drive them out for their many transgressions, for they have rebelled against you.

UST

¹⁰ O God, declare that they are guilty and punish them. Cause them to experience the same disasters that they plan to cause to happen to others. Get rid of them because they have committed many sins, and they have rebelled against you.

What is David asking God to do to David's enemies because of their many transgressions and rebellion against God?

David is asking God to declare that his enemies are guilty.

Psalms 5:11ULT

¹¹ But may all those who take refuge in you rejoice; let them always shout for joy because you defend them; let them be joyful in you, those who love your name.

UST

¹¹ But cause that all those who go to you to be protected will rejoice; cause them to sing joyfully to you forever. Protect those who love you; they are truly happy because of what you do for them.

Why should those who take refuge in God shout for joy?

They should shout for joy because God defends them.

Psalms 5:12ULT

¹² For you will bless the righteous, Yahweh; you will surround them with favor as with a shield.

UST

¹² Yahweh, you always bless those who act righteously; you protect them as a soldier protects himself with his shield.

What will Yahweh do for the righteous?

Yahweh will bless the righteous and surround them with his favor as with a shield.

Psalms 6

ULT

¹ Yahweh, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.

UST

¹ Yahweh, do not correct me when you are angry with me; do not punish me when you are upset.

What is David asking Yahweh not to do?

He asks Yahweh not to rebuke him in his anger or discipline him in his wrath.

Psalms 6:2

ULT

² Have mercy on me, Yahweh, for I am frail; heal me, Yahweh, for my bones are shaking.

UST

² Yahweh, act kindly toward me and heal me because I have become weak. My body shakes because I am experiencing so much sorrow.

What is David asking Yahweh to do because David is frail?

David asks Yahweh to have mercy on him and to heal him.

ULT

³ My soul also is very troubled. But you, Yahweh—how long will this continue?

UST

³ Yahweh, I am greatly troubled in my inner being. How long must I endure this?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

⁴ Return, Yahweh! rescue me. Save me because of your covenant faithfulness!

UST

⁴ Yahweh, please come and rescue me. Save me because you always keep the promises of your covenant.

Why should Yahweh rescue and save David?

Because of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness.

Psalms 6:5ULT

⁵ For in death there is no remembrance of you. In Sheol who will give you thanks?

UST

⁵ I will not be able to praise you after I die; no one in the place where the dead are praise you.

What will not be remembered in death?

In death there is no remembrance of Yahweh.

Psalms 6:6ULT

⁶ I am weary with my groaning. All night I drench my bed with tears; I wash my couch away with my tears.

UST

⁶ I am exhausted because of my pain. I cry all night long so that my bed and my pillow are drenched by my tears.

What does David do to his bed because he is weary and groaning?

All night he drenches it with his tears.

Psalms 6:7ULT

⁷ My eyes grow dim from grief; they grow weak because of all my adversaries.

UST

⁷ Because I cry so much, I cannot see well. My eyes have become weak because I constantly cry in fear of my enemies.

What happens to David's eyes because of his grief and because of all his adversaries?

His eyes grow dim and weak.

Psalms 6:8ULT

⁸ Get away from me, all you who practice iniquity; for Yahweh has heard the sound of my weeping.

UST

⁸ You people who do evil things, get away from me, because Yahweh heard me when I was crying!

Why should those who practice iniquity get away from David? (vv8-9)

Because Yahweh has heard the sound of his weeping and his appeal for mercy and has accepted his prayer.

Psalms 6:9ULT

⁹ Yahweh has heard my appeal for mercy; Yahweh has accepted my prayer.

UST

⁹ Yahweh heard me when I called out for him to help me, and he will answer my prayer.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

ULT

¹⁰ All my enemies will be ashamed and greatly troubled. They will turn back and be suddenly humiliated.

UST

¹⁰ When that happens, all my enemies will be ashamed; they will be the ones who are terrified. They will turn away from me and suddenly leave me because they will be disgraced.

What will happen to David's enemies?

All his enemies will be ashamed and greatly troubled and they will turn back and be suddenly humiliated.

Psalms 7

Psalms 7:1

ULT

¹ Yahweh my God, I take refuge in you! Save me from all who chase me, and rescue me.

UST

¹ Yahweh my God, I come to you to protect me. Rescue me, save me from all those who are pursuing me in order to harm me.

In whom does David take refuge?

David takes refuge in Yahweh his God.

What is David asking Yahweh to do?

David is asking Yahweh to save him from those who chase him, and to rescue him.

Psalms 7:2

ULT

² Otherwise, they will rip me apart like a lion, tearing me in pieces with no one else able to bring me to safety.

UST

² If you do not do that, they will tear me into pieces like a lion does when it attacks the animals it wants to kill; no one will save me from them.

What is only Yahweh able to do for David?

No one but Yahweh is able to bring David to safety.

Psalms 7:3

ULT

³ Yahweh my God, if I have done this, and there is guilt on my hands—

UST

³ Yahweh my God, suppose that I have done anything that is wrong,

What did David say that he did not do?

David tells Yahweh that he never did what his enemies said he did and there is no injustice on his hands.

Psalms 7:4ULT

⁴ if I have done evil to him who was at peace with me, or senselessly harmed my enemy without cause, then hear my words.

UST

⁴ or that I have done evil to some friend, or that, for no good reason, I have harmed my enemies.

What does David say he has not done to anyone at peace with him or who is against him?

David says he has never done wrong to anyone at peace with him or senselessly harmed any who are against him.

Psalms 7:5ULT

⁵ Then let my enemy pursue my life and overtake me; let him trample my life to the ground and lay my honor in the dust. Selah

UST

⁵ Then allow my enemies to pursue me and capture me. Allow them to trample me into the ground and leave me lying dead in the dirt.

What does David say Yahweh should do to him if David is not telling the truth?

David says Yahweh should let David's enemy pursue David's life and overtake it, trample his living body, and leave him dishonored in the dust.

Psalms 7:6ULT

⁶ Arise, Yahweh, in your anger; stand up against the rage of my enemies; wake up for my sake and carry out the righteous decrees that you have commanded for them.

UST

⁶ Yahweh, because you are very angry with those who pursue me, arise and attack the ones attacking me! Do to them what you have said is just!

What is David asking Yahweh to do in Yahweh's anger?

David is asking Yahweh to arise and stand up against David's enemies.

What does David ask Yahweh to do for David's sake?

David asks Yahweh to wake up and carry out the righteous decrees that Yahweh commanded.

Psalms 7:7ULT

⁷ The countries are assembled all around you; take once more your rightful place over them.

UST

⁷ The people of all nations gather around you to attack you, but you will rule them from where you are in heaven.

What does David want Yahweh to do about the countries?

David wants Yahweh to take his rightful place over the countries.

Psalms 7:8ULT

⁸ Yahweh, judge the nations; vindicate me, Yahweh, because I am righteous and innocent, Most High.

UST

⁸ Yahweh, judge the people of all nations! Yahweh, show that I have done nothing wrong.

Who does David want Yahweh to judge?

David wants Yahweh to judge the nations.

Psalms 7:9ULT

⁹ May the evil deeds of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous people, righteous God, you who examine hearts and minds.

UST

⁹ God, you know what every person is thinking in his inner being and because you are righteous, you always do what is just. So now stop evil people from doing wicked deeds, and defend all of us who are righteous!

What does David say the righteous God does?

David says God examines hearts and minds.

Psalms 7:10ULT

¹⁰ My shield comes from God, the one who saves the upright in heart.

UST

¹⁰ God, you protect me as a shield protects soldiers; you rescue all those who are righteous in their inner being.

Where does David's shield come from?

David's shield comes from God.

Who does God save?

God saves the upright in heart.

Psalms 7:11ULT

¹¹ God is a righteous judge, a God who is indignant each day.

UST

¹¹ You judge everyone correctly, and every day you punish wicked people who insult your law.

How does David describe God?

David describes God as a righteous judge who is indignant each day.

Psalms 7:12ULT

¹² If a person does not repent, God will sharpen his sword and will prepare his bow for battle.

UST

¹² Whenever your enemies do not repent, it is as though you sharpen your sword and put a string on your bow to get ready to kill them.

What will God do if a person does not repent?

God will sharpen his sword and will prepare his bow for battle.

¹³ He prepares to use weapons against him; he makes his arrows flaming shafts.

UST

¹³ You are preparing your weapons to kill those whom you strike; the arrows that you will shoot have flaming tips.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 7:14ULT

¹⁴ Think about the one who is pregnant with wickedness, who conceives destructive plans, who gives birth to harmful lies.

UST

¹⁴ Wicked people plot their lies and evil things, they plan and take delight in their thoughts like a pregnant woman who is planning to give birth.

How does David describe wickedness in the one who does not repent?

David describes him as pregnant with wickedness, one who conceives destructive plans and gives birth to harmful lies.

Psalms 7:15ULT

¹⁵ He digs a pit and hollows it out and then falls into the hole he has made.

UST

¹⁵ But when they dig a deep pit to trap others, they themselves will fall into it.

What happens to the wicked man who digs a pit?

He falls into the hole he has made.

Psalms 7:16ULT

¹⁶ His own destructive plans return to his own head, for his violence comes down on his own head.

UST

¹⁶ They themselves will experience the trouble that they want to cause others to have; they will hurt themselves by the violent things that they want to do to others.

What happens to the destructive plans of the wicked man?

His plans return to his own head and his violence comes down on his own head.

Psalms 7:17ULT

¹⁷ I will give thanks to Yahweh for his justice; I will sing praise to Yahweh Most High.

UST

¹⁷ I praise Yahweh because he always acts righteously; I sing to praise Yahweh, the one who is much greater than any other god.

For what will David give thanks to Yahweh?

He will give thanks to Yahweh for his justice.

To whom will David sing praise?

David will sing praise to Yahweh Most High.

Psalms 8

Psalms 8:1

ULT

¹ Yahweh our Lord, how magnificent is your name in all the earth, you who reveal your glory in the heavens above.

UST

¹ Yahweh our Lord, people all over the world know that you are very great! We see your greatness every time we look toward the heavens!

Whose name is magnificent in all the earth?

The name of Yahweh our Lord is magnificent.

Psalms 8:2

ULT

² Out of the mouth of babies and infants you have established praise ^[1] because of your enemies, so that you might silence both the enemy and the avenger.

UST

² You have taught little children and infants to praise you; they cause your enemies and those who try to get revenge on you to be silent.

What did Yahweh create out of the mouth of babies and infants?

Yahweh created praise.

Why did Yahweh create praise?

He created praise in order to silence both the enemy and the avenger.

Psalms 8:3ULT

³ When I look up at your heavens, which your fingers have made, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,

UST

³ I look up at the sky at night and see the things that you have made— the moon and the stars that you have set in place.

Psalms 36:2

ULT

² For he comforts himself, thinking that his sin will not be discovered and be hated.

UST

² Because they want to believe good things about themselves, they do not think that God knows and hates their sins.

How does the wicked man comfort himself?

He thinks that his sin will not be discovered and be hated.

Psalms 36:3

ULT

³ His words are sinful and deceitful; he does not want to be wise and do good.

UST

³ Everything that they say is deceitful and full of lies; they no longer do what is good and are no longer wise.

What are the wicked man's words like?

His words are sinful and deceitful.

What does the wicked man not want to be?

He does not want to be wise and to do good.

Psalms 36:4ULT

⁴ While he lies in bed, he plans ways to sin; he sets out on an evil way; he does not reject evil.

UST

⁴ While they are lying on their beds, they plan to do things to harm others; they are determined to do things that are not good, and they never refuse to do what is evil.

What does the wicked man do while he lies in bed?

He plans ways to sin while he lies in bed.

Psalms 36:5ULT

⁵ Your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, reaches to the heavens; your loyalty reaches to the clouds.

UST

⁵ Yahweh, your faithful love for us reaches as high as the heavens; your faithfulness in doing what you have promised extends up to the clouds.

What reaches to the heavens and to the clouds?

Yahweh's covenant faithfulness reached to the heavens, and his loyalty reaches to the clouds.

Psalms 36:6ULT

⁶ Your righteousness is like the mountains of God; your judgments are like the great deep. Yahweh, you preserve both mankind and the animals.

UST

⁶ Your righteous behavior is as permanent as the highest mountains; your acting justly will continue as long as the deepest oceans will continue. You take care of people and you take care of animals.

What is Yahweh's justice like?

His justice is like the highest mountains and the deepest sea.

What does Yahweh preserve?

Yahweh preserves both mankind and the animals.

Psalms 36:7ULT

⁷ How precious is your covenant faithfulness, God! Humanity takes refuge under the shadow of your wings.

UST

⁷ God, your faithful love for us is very precious. You protect us like birds protect their baby birds under their wings.

Who takes refuge under the shadow of God's wings?

Humanity takes refuge under the shadow of God's wings.

Psalms 36:8ULT

⁸ They feast upon the abundance of your house; you let them drink from the river of your delights.

UST

⁸ You provide for us plenty of food from the abundant supply that you have; your great gifts flow to us like a river.

What will abundantly satisfy humanity?

The richness of the food of God's house will satisfy humanity.

Psalms 36:9ULT

⁹ For with you is the fountain of life; in your light we will see light.

UST

⁹ You are the one who causes everything to live; your light is what enables us to know the truth about you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 36:10ULT

¹⁰ Extend your covenant faithfulness fully to those who know you, your defense to the upright of heart.

UST

¹⁰ Continue to faithfully love those who are faithful to you, and protect those who act righteously.

To whom does David ask God to extend his covenant faithfulness?

David asks God to extend God's covenant faithfulness fully to those who know God.

Psalms 36:11ULT

¹¹ Do not let the foot of the arrogant man come near to me. Do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.

UST

¹¹ Do not allow proud people to attack me, or allow wicked people to chase me away.

What does David ask God not to let happen?

David asks God not to let the foot of the arrogant man come near him, and the hand of the wicked to drive him away.

Psalms 36:12ULT

¹² Over there the evildoers have fallen; they are knocked down and are not able to get up.

UST

¹² Look where evil people have fallen on the ground, defeated; they were thrown down, and they will never rise again.

What will happen to the evildoers who have fallen?

They are knocked down and not able to get up.

Psalms 37

Psalms 37:1

ULT

¹ Do not be irritated because of evildoers; do not be envious of those who act unrighteously.

UST

¹ Do not be bothered by what wicked people do. Do not desire to have the things that people who do wrong have

Why does David say to not be irritated because of evildoers? (vv1-2)

He says to not be irritated because of evildoers because they will soon dry up as the grass and wither as the green plants.

Psalms 37:2

ULT

² For they will soon dry up as the grass and wither as the green plants.

UST

² because they will soon disappear like grass withers in the hot sun and dries up. Just like some green plants come up but die during the hot summer, evil people will soon die also.

Psalms 37:3

ULT

³ Trust in Yahweh and do what is good; settle in the land and graze in faithfulness.

UST

³ Trust in Yahweh and do what is good. If you do that, then you will live safely in the land he has given you, and that land will be a place where you can be faithful to God as you live your lives.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 37:4ULT

⁴ Then delight yourself in Yahweh, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

UST

⁴ Be delighted with all that Yahweh does for you; if you do that, he will give you the things that you desire most.

Why does David say to delight in Yahweh?

He says to delight in Yahweh so he will give you the desires of your heart.

Psalms 37:5ULT

⁵ Give your ways to Yahweh; trust in him, and he will act on your behalf.

UST

⁵ Commit to Yahweh all the things that you plan to do; trust in him, and he will do whatever is needed to help you.

Why does David say to trust in Yahweh? (vv5-6)

He says to trust in Yahweh so that he will act on your behalf, display your justice like the daylight, and your innocence like the day at noon.

Psalms 37:6ULT

⁶ He will display your justice like the daylight and your innocence like the day at noon.

UST

⁶ He will show as clearly as the sunlight that you are innocent; he will show as clearly as the sun at noontime that all the things that you have decided are just.

Psalms 37:7ULT

⁷ Be still before Yahweh and wait patiently for him. Do not be angry if someone succeeds in what he does, or when he makes evil plots.

UST

⁷ Be quiet in Yahweh's presence and wait patiently for him to do what you want him to do. Do not be bothered when what evil men do is successful, when they are able to do the wicked things that they plan.

What does David say we should do before Yahweh?

He says to be still before him and wait patiently for him, and to not worry if someone tries to make his evil ways succeed.

Psalms 37:8ULT

⁸ Do not be angry and frustrated. Do not worry. This only makes trouble.

UST

⁸ Do not be angry about what wicked people do. Do not want to punish them yourself. Do not be envious of such people because you will only harm yourself if you try to do that.

Why does David say to not be angry and frustrated or to worry about evildoers? (vv8-10)

They will be cut off and disappear, but those who wait for Yahweh will inherit the land.

Psalms 37:9ULT

⁹ Evildoers will be cut off, but those who wait for Yahweh will inherit the land.

UST

⁹ Someday Yahweh will get rid of wicked people, but those who trust in him will live safely in the land that he has given to them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 37:10ULT

Psalms 37:14ULT

¹⁴ The wicked have drawn out their swords and have bent their bows to cast down the oppressed and needy, to kill those who are upright.

UST

¹⁴ Wicked people pull out their swords and they put strings on their bows, ready to kill people who are poor and to slaughter those who live righteously.

What will happen to the wicked who have tried to kill those who are upright? (vv14-15)

The swords of the wicked will pierce their own hearts and their bows will be broken.

¹⁵ Their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

UST

¹⁵ But they will be killed by their own swords, and their bows will be broken.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 37:16ULT

¹⁶ Better is the little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked people.

UST

¹⁶ It is good to be righteous even if you do not have many possessions, but it is bad to be wicked even if you are very wealthy

Why is the little that the righteous have better than the abundance of many wicked people? (vv16-17)

The little that the righteous have is better because the arms of the wicked people will be broken, but Yahweh will support the righteous people.

Psalms 37:17ULT

¹⁷ For the arms of the wicked people will be broken, but Yahweh supports the righteous people.

UST

¹⁷ because Yahweh will completely remove the strength of wicked people, but he will sustain people who live righteously.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

¹⁸ Yahweh watches over the blameless day by day, and their heritage will be forever.

UST

¹⁸ Day by day Yahweh protects those who have not done any evil things; the things that Yahweh gives them will last forever.

How will Yahweh provide for the blameless? (vv18-19)

The blameless will not be ashamed when times are bad, they will have enough to eat, and their heritage will be forever.

Psalms 37:19ULT

¹⁹ They will not be ashamed when times are bad. When famine comes, they will have enough to eat.

UST

¹⁹ They will survive when calamities occur; when there are famines, they will still have plenty to eat.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 37:20ULT

²⁰ But evil men will perish. Yahweh's enemies will be like the glory of the pastures; they will be consumed and disappear in the smoke.

UST

²⁰ But wicked people will die; just as the beautiful wild flowers in the fields die under the hot sun and disappear like smoke, Yahweh will cause his enemies to suddenly disappear.

What will happen to Yahweh's enemies?

His enemies will be like the glory of the pastures which will be consumed and disappear in the smoke.

Psalms 37:21ULT

²¹ The wicked person borrows but does not repay, but the righteous person is generous and gives.

UST

²¹ The wicked people borrow money, but they are not able to repay it; righteous people, in contrast, have enough money to give generously to others.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 37:22ULT

²² Those who are blessed by God will inherit the land; those who are cursed by him will be cut off.

Psalms 37:25ULT

²⁵ I was young and now am old; I have never seen the righteous person abandoned or his children begging for bread.

UST

²⁵ I was young previously, and now I am an old man, but in all those years, I have never seen that righteous people have been abandoned by Yahweh, nor have I seen that their children needed to beg for food.

What has David not seen happen to the righteous person?

He has not seen that the righteous person abandoned or his children begging for bread.

Psalms 37:26ULT

²⁶ All the day long he is gracious and lends, and his children become a blessing.

UST

²⁶ Righteous people are generous and happily lend money to others, and their children are a blessing to them.

How does the righteous person act?

He is gracious all the day long and lends.

Psalms 37:27ULT

²⁷ Turn away from evil and do what is right; then you will be safe forever.

UST

²⁷ Turn away from doing evil, and do what is good. If you do that, you and your descendants will live in your land forever.

What should people do to be safe forever?

They should turn away from evil and do what is right.

Psalms 37:28ULT

²⁸ For Yahweh loves justice and does not abandon his faithful ones. They are preserved forever, but the descendants of the wicked will be cut off.

UST

²⁸ This will happen because Yahweh likes to see people doing what is just, and he will never forsake righteous people. He will protect them forever; but he will get rid of the children of wicked people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 37:29ULT

²⁹ The righteous will inherit the land and live there forever.

² He brought me up out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and he set my feet on a rock and made my steps secure.

UST

² When I had many troubles, it was as though I was in a deep pit. But he lifted me up out of the mud and slime of that pit; he set my feet on a solid rock and enabled me to walk safely.

What else did Yahweh do for David?

Yahweh brought David out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set his feet on a rock.

Psalms 40:3

ULT

³ He has put a new song in my mouth, praise to our God. Many will see it and honor him and will trust in Yahweh.

UST

³ He has given me a new song to sing, a song to praise him who is our God. Many people will find out what he has done for me, and they will revere and trust him.

What will many do because God has put a new song of praise in David's mouth?

Many will see it and honor Yahweh and trust in Yahweh.

Psalms 40:4ULT

⁴ Blessed is the man who makes Yahweh his trust and does not honor the proud or those who turn away from him to lies.

UST

⁴ How fortunate are those who trust Yahweh to protect them, those who do not trust in idols or join with those who worship those false gods.

Who is blessed?

The man who makes Yahweh his trust and does not honor the proud or those who turn away from God is blessed.

Psalms 40:5ULT

⁵ Many, Yahweh my God, are the wonderful deeds that you have done, and your thoughts which are about us cannot be numbered; if I declared and spoke of them, they would be more than could be counted.

UST

⁵ O Yahweh, my God, you have done many wonderful things! No one can list all the wonderful things that you have planned for us. If I tried to tell others about all those wonderful things, I would not be able to because there would be too many for me to mention.

How does David describe God's deeds and thoughts?

God's wonderful deeds are many and his thoughts about us cannot be numbered.

Psalms 40:6ULT

⁶ You have no delight in sacrifice or offering, but you have opened my ears; you have not required burnt offerings or sin offerings.

UST

⁶ Sacrifices and other offerings are not the things that delight you most. But you have enabled me to hear your commands. Animals burned on the altar and other offerings for our sins are not what you require most.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 40:7ULT

⁷ Then said I, "See, I have come; it is written about me in the scroll of the document.

UST

⁷ So I said to you, "Yahweh, here I am, to obey the laws that have been written in the scroll, things that you want me to do."

What is written about David in the scroll of the document? (vv7-8)

It is written that he delights to do God's will and that God's laws are in his heart.

Psalms 40:8ULT

⁸ I delight to do your will, my God; your laws are in my heart."

UST

⁸ O my God, I enjoy doing what you desire; I am always thinking about your laws within my inner being.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 40:9ULT

⁹ I have proclaimed good news of your righteousness in the great assembly; Yahweh, you know that my lips have not kept back from doing this.

UST

⁹ When all your people were gathered together, I told them about how you do what is right and how you rescue us. Yahweh, you know that I have not refused to tell that to them.

What has David proclaimed in the great assembly?

He has proclaimed good news of God's righteousness in the great assembly.

Psalms 40:10ULT

¹⁰ I have not concealed your righteousness in my heart; I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your covenant faithfulness or your trustworthiness from the great assembly.

UST

¹⁰ I have not kept within me the news that you always act justly; when many of your people have gathered together to worship you, I have told them that you are faithful to us and save us. I have not concealed that you faithfully love us and act loyally toward us.

What has David not concealed?

He has not concealed God's righteousness in his heart nor God's covenant faithfulness nor trustworthiness from the great assembly.

Psalms 40:11ULT

¹¹ Do not keep back your acts of mercy from me, Yahweh; let your covenant faithfulness and your trustworthiness always preserve me.

UST

¹¹ Yahweh, do not stop acting mercifully toward me. Because you faithfully love me and are loyal to me, protect me always.

What does David pray that Yahweh will do for him?

David prays that Yahweh not keep back his acts of mercy from David but rather let Yahweh's covenant faithfulness and his trustworthiness always preserve David.

Psalms 40:12ULT

¹² Troubles that cannot be numbered surround me; my iniquities have caught up with me so that I am no longer able to see anything; they are more than the hairs on my head, and my heart has failed me.

UST

¹² I have many troubles; I cannot count them. I am now suffering the things that happened because I sinned. I can no longer see because of my tears. The sins that I have committed are more than the hairs on my head. I am very discouraged.

Why is David afraid?

He is afraid because troubles that cannot be numbered surround him and his iniquities have overtaken him. His heart has failed him.

Psalms 40:13ULT

¹³ Be pleased, Yahweh, to rescue me; hurry to help me, Yahweh.

UST

¹³ O Yahweh, please save me! Come quickly to help me!

What does he pray that Yahweh will be pleased to do?

He prays that Yahweh will be pleased to rescue him.

Psalms 40:14ULT

¹⁴ Let them be ashamed and completely disappointed who pursue my life to take it away. Let them be turned back and brought to dishonor, those who delight in hurting me.

UST

¹⁴ Humble those who are happy about my troubles, and cause them to be disgraced. Chase away those who are trying to get rid of me.

What does David pray will happen to those who pursue his life?

He prays that they be put to shame and confused, turned back and brought to dishonor.

Psalms 40:15ULT

¹⁵ Let them be shocked because of their shame, those who say to me, "Aha, aha!"

UST

¹⁵ I hope that those who make fun of me will be dismayed when you defeat them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 40:16ULT

¹⁶ But may all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; let everyone who loves your salvation say continually, "May Yahweh be praised."

UST

¹⁶ But I hope that all those who go to worship you will be very joyful. I hope that those who love you because you saved them will shout repeatedly, "Yahweh is great!"

What does David pray for those who seek God and love his salvation?

He prays that they rejoice and be glad in God, and that they say continually, "May Yahweh be praised."

Psalms 40:17ULT

¹⁷ I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinks about me. You are my help and you come to my rescue; do not delay, my God.

UST

¹⁷ As for me, I am poor and needy, but I know that the Lord has not forgotten me. O my God, you are the one who saves and helps me, so please come quickly and help me!

How does David describe the Lord?

The Lord thinks about him, is his help, and comes to David's rescue.

Psalms 41

Psalms 41:1

ULT

¹ Blessed is he who is concerned for the weak; in the day of trouble, Yahweh will rescue him.

UST

¹ How fortunate are those who provide for the poor; Yahweh will rescue those people when they have troubles.

Who does David say is the one who is blessed?

The one who is concerned for the weak is blessed.

What will Yahweh do for the blessed person? (vv1-2)

Yahweh will rescue him, preserve him and keep him alive, and he will be blessed on the earth.

Psalms 41:2

ULT

² Yahweh will preserve him and keep him alive, and he will be blessed on the earth; Yahweh will not turn him over to the will of his enemies.

UST

² Yahweh will protect them and allow them to live for a long time. He will enable them to be happy in the land of Israel and will rescue them from their enemies.

What will Yahweh not do to the blessed person?

Yahweh will not turn him over to the will of his enemies.

Psalms 41:3

ULT

³ Yahweh will support him on the bed of suffering; you will make his bed of sickness into a bed of healing.

UST

³ When they are sick, Yahweh will strengthen them and will heal them.

What will Yahweh do for the blessed person on the bed of suffering?

Yahweh will support him on the bed of suffering and make his bed of sickness into a bed of healing.

Psalms 41:4ULT

⁴ I said, "Yahweh, have mercy on me! Heal me, for I have sinned against you."

UST

⁴ When I was sick, I said, "Yahweh, act mercifully toward me and heal me; I know that I am sick because I have sinned against you."

Why did David ask Yahweh to have mercy on him?

He asked Yahweh to have mercy on him because he had sinned against Yahweh.

Psalms 41:5ULT

⁵ My enemies speak evil against me, saying, "When will he die and his name perish?"

UST

⁵ My enemies say cruel things about me; they say, "How soon will he die, and then everyone will forget about him?"

What evil do his enemies speak against David?

They ask when he will die and his name perish.

Psalms 41:6ULT

⁶ If my enemy comes to see me, he says worthless things; his heart gathers up my disaster for itself; when he goes away from me, he tells others about it.

UST

⁶ When my enemies come to me, they pretend to be concerned about me. They eagerly listen to all the bad news about me. Then they go away and tell everyone what is happening to me.

What does David's enemy say to him?

His enemy says worthless things.

Psalms 41:7ULT

⁷ All who hate me whisper together against me; against me they hope for my hurt.

UST

⁷ All those who hate me whisper to others about me, and they hope that very bad things will happen to me.

What do those who hate David whisper and hope for?

Those who hate David whisper together against him and hope for his hurt.

Psalms 41:8ULT

⁸ They say, "An evil disease holds on tightly to him; now that he is lying down, he will rise up no more."

UST

⁸ They say, "He will soon die because of his being sick; he will never get up from his bed before he dies."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 41:9ULT

⁹ Indeed, even my own close friend, in whom I trusted, who ate my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.

UST

⁹ Even a very close friend, whom I trusted very much, who often ate with me, has betrayed me.

What has David's own close friend in whom he trusted done?

His own close friend has lifted his heel against him.

Psalms 41:10ULT

¹⁰ But you, Yahweh, have mercy on me and raise me up so that I may pay them back.

UST

¹⁰ But Yahweh, act mercifully to me, and enable me to become healthy again. When you do that, I will be able to pay back my enemies.

What has Yahweh done for David?

Yahweh had mercy on him and raised him up so that he may pay back the ones who hate him.

Psalms 41:11ULT

¹¹ By this I know that you delight in me, for my enemy does not triumph over me.

UST

¹¹ If you enable me to do that, with the result that my enemies do not defeat me, I will know that you are pleased with me.

How does David know that Yahweh delights in him?

David knows this because his enemy does not triumph over him.

Psalms 41:12ULT

¹² As for me, you support me in my integrity and will keep me before your face forever.

UST

¹² I will know that it is because I have done what is right that you have helped me, and I will know that you will enable me to be with you forever.

How does Yahweh support David?

Yahweh supports him in his integrity and will keep him before Yahweh's face forever.

Psalms 41:13

ULT

¹³ May Yahweh, the God of Israel be praised from everlasting to everlasting. Amen and Amen.

Book Two

UST

¹³ Praise Yahweh, the God whom we Israelites worship; Praise him forever! Amen! I desire that it will be so!

Book Two

When may Yahweh be praised?

Yahweh may be praised from everlasting to everlasting.

Psalms 42

Psalms 42:1

ULT

¹ As the deer pants after streams of water, so I thirst for you, God.

UST

¹ O God, I need you very much as a deer needs to drink water from a cool stream.

How does the writer's soul pant after God?

His soul pants after God as the deer pants after streams of water.

Psalms 42:2

ULT

² I thirst for God, for the living God, when will I come and appear before God?

UST

² I desire to be with you, the all-powerful God. I say to myself, "When will I be able to go back to the temple in Israel and worship in your presence again?"

What does the writer's say about his soul?

His soul thirsts for God, for the living God.

Psalms 42:3

ULT

³ My tears have been my food day and night, while my enemies are always saying to me, "Where is your God?"

UST

³ Every day and every night I weep; the only thing I have to drink is my tears; and while I do that, my enemies are always asking me, "Why does your God not help you?"

What have the writer's tears become for him?

His tears have been his food day and night.

Psalms 42:4ULT

⁴ These things I call to mind as I pour out my soul: how I went with the throng and led them to the house of God with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude celebrating a festival.

UST

⁴ I pray earnestly to God as I remember when I used to go with the crowd of people to the temple in Jerusalem. I used to lead them as we walked along; we were all shouting joyfully and singing to thank God for what he had done; we were a large group who were celebrating.

What things does the writer call to mind?

He calls to mind how he went with the throng and led them to the house of God with the voice of joy and praise.

Psalms 42:5ULT

⁵ Why are you bowed down, my soul? Why are you upset within me? Hope in God, for again I will praise him who is my salvation.

UST

⁵ So now I say to myself, "Why am I in a panic? I confidently expect God to bless me, and again I will praise him, my God, the one who saves me."

What does the writer tell his soul to do?

He tells his soul to hope in God, for he will yet praise God for the help of God's presence.

Psalms 42:6ULT

⁶ My God, my soul is bowed down within me, therefore I call you to mind from the land of the Jordan, from the three peaks of Mount Hermon, and from the hill of Mizar.

UST

⁶ But now, Yahweh, I was panicking, so I think about you. You are there in Israel where the Jordan River rushes down from the bottom of the peaks of Mount Hermon and from Mount Mizar.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 42:7ULT

⁷ Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls; all your waves and your billows have gone over me.

UST

⁷ But here, the great sorrow that I feel is like water that you send down; it is like a waterfall that tumbles down and floods over me.

What has gone over the writer?

All God's waves and billows have gone over the writer.

Psalms 42:8ULT

⁸ Yet Yahweh will command his covenant faithfulness in the daytime; in the night his song will be with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

UST

⁸ I desire that Yahweh will show me each day that he faithfully loves me, in order that each night I may sing to him and pray to him, the God who causes me to live.

What will Yahweh command in the daytime?

Yahweh will command his covenant faithfulness in the daytime.

What will happen in the night?

In the night God's song will be with the writer, a prayer to the God of his life.

Psalms 42:9ULT

⁹ I will say to God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

UST

⁹ I say to God, who is like a huge rock on top of which I am safe, "Why have you forgotten me? You know the hardships that my enemies bring on me."

What will the writer ask God, his rock?

He will ask why God has forgotten him, and why he must mourn because of the oppression of the enemy.

Psalms 42:10ULT

¹⁰ As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries rebuke me, while they always say to me, "Where is your God?"

UST

¹⁰ They are always making fun of me; they keep asking, "Why does your God not help you?" When they insult me like that, it is like wounds that shatter my bones.

To what does the writer compare the rebukes of his adversaries?

He says they are like wounds that shatter his bones.

Psalms 42:11ULT

¹¹ Why are you bowed down, my soul? Why are you upset within me? Hope in God, for again I will praise him who is my salvation and my God.

UST

¹¹ But I say to myself, "Why am I in a panic? I will confidently expect God to bless me, and I will praise him again, my God, the one who saves me."

What will the writer expect God to do?

He will confidently expect God to bless him.

Psalms 43

Psalms 43:1

ULT

¹ Bring me justice, God, and plead my cause against a nation that is not faithful.

UST

¹ God, declare that I am innocent. Defend me when people say things against me—those people who do not honor you! Rescue me from people who deceive me and say things about me that are not true.

What does the writer ask God to do for him?

He asks God to judge him and to plead his cause against an ungodly nation.

Psalms 43:2

ULT

² For you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me? Why do I go about in mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

UST

² You are God, the one who protects me; why have you abandoned me? It does not seem right that I should always have to be sad because of my enemies acting cruelly toward me.

Why should God judge him and plead his cause?

God should judge him because God is the God of his strength.

Psalms 43:3

ULT

³ Oh, send out your light and your truth, let them lead me. Let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling.

UST

³ Speak true words that help me to live. Give a command that will allow me to go back to Zion, your sacred hill in Jerusalem, and to your temple where you live.

What does the writer ask God to let his light and truth do?

He asks God to let his light and truth lead him and bring him to God's holy hill and tabernacles.

ULT

⁴ Then I will go to the altar of God, to God my exceeding joy. I will praise you with the harp, God, my God.

UST

⁴ When you do that, I will go to your altar to worship you, my God, who causes me to be very joyful. There I will praise you, the God whom I worship, and I will play my harp.

Where will the writer go when God bring him to the tabernacle?

He will go to the altar of God.

What will the writer do on his harp?

He will praise God on his harp.

ULT

⁵ Why are you bowed down, my soul? Why are you upset within me? Hope in God, for again I will praise him who is my salvation and my God.

UST

⁵ So why am I sad and discouraged? I confidently expect God to bless me, and again I will praise him, my God, the one who saves me.

Why should the writer's soul not be discouraged nor disquieted within himself?

His soul should hope in God for he will yet praise God, who is his help and his God.

Psalms 44

Psalms 44:1

ULT

¹ We have heard with our ears, God, our fathers have told us what work you did in their days, in the days of old.

UST

¹ God, we ourselves have heard what our parents and grandparents told us. They told us about the miracles that you performed long ago.

What have the writers heard with their ears?

They have heard what work God did in their days, in the days of old.

Psalms 44:2

ULT

² You drove out the nations with your hand, but you planted our people; you afflicted the peoples, but you spread our people out in the land.

UST

² They told us how you expelled the ungodly people and enabled us to live in their land. They told us that you punished those ungodly people and enabled your own people to possess the land.

What did God do with his hand?

God drove out the nations with his hand and planted the people of Israel.

Psalms 44:3

ULT

³ For they did not obtain the land for their possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them; but your right hand, your arm, and the light of your face, because you were favorable to them.

UST

³ It was not by using their own swords that they conquered the people that lived in that land, and it was not by their own power that they were victorious; it was only by your power that they did those things; and they were sure that you were with them, showing that you were pleased with them.

How did the Israelites obtain the land and save themselves?

They did not obtain the land for their possession by their own sword or by their own arm, but by God's right arm because he was favorable to them.

Psalms 44:4ULT

⁴ God, You are my King; command victory for Jacob.

UST

⁴ You are my king and my God; Make us, your people, able to defeat our enemies.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 44:5ULT

⁵ Through you we will push down our adversaries; through your name we will tread them under, those who rise up against us.

UST

⁵ It is by your power that we knock our enemies down and tramp on them.

What will the Israelites do through God?

They will push down their adversaries and through God's name tread them under.

Psalms 44:6ULT

⁶ For I will not trust in my bow, neither will my sword save me.

UST

⁶ I do not trust that I can save myself by using my bow and arrows and my sword.

In what will the writer not trust?

He will not trust in his bow, neither will his sword save him.

Psalms 44:7ULT

⁷ But you have saved us from our adversaries, and have put to shame those who hate us.

UST

⁷ No, it is you who have rescued us from our enemies; it is you who have caused those who hate us to become ashamed because they were defeated.

From what has God saved them?

God has saved them from their adversaries and put to shame those who hate them.

Psalms 44:8ULT

⁸ In God we have made our boast all the day long, and we will give thanks to your name forever. Selah

UST

⁸ We have always been proud about what God has done for us, and we will thank him forever.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 44:9ULT

⁹ But now you have thrown us off and brought us dishonor, and you do not go out with our armies.

UST

⁹ But now you have rejected us and caused us to be disgraced; when our armies march out to fight a battle, you no longer go with them.

What has God now done?

God has now thrown them off and brought them dishonor, and does not go out with their armies.

Psalms 44:10ULT

¹⁰ You make us turn back from the adversary; and those who hate us take spoil for themselves.

UST

¹⁰ You have caused us to run away from our enemies, with the result that they captured the things that belonged to us.

What does God make the Israelites do?

God makes them turn back from the adversary.

What do those who hate the Israelites do?

Those who hate them take spoil for themselves.

Psalms 44:11ULT

¹¹ You have made us like sheep to be slaughtered and have scattered us among the nations.

UST

¹¹ You have allowed us to become like sheep that were ready to be slaughtered; you scattered us far away among other nations.

What has God made the Israelites like?

God has made them like sheep destined for food and has scattered them among the nations.

Psalms 44:12ULT

¹² You sell your people for nothing; you have not increased your wealth by doing so.

UST

¹² It is as though you sold us, your people, to our enemies for a very small price, although you did not gain any profit from selling us!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 44:13ULT

¹³ You make us a rebuke to our neighbors, scoffed and mocked by those around us.

UST

¹³ People who live in nations near us make fun of us; they laugh at us and deride us.

What does God make the Israelites to their neighbors?

God makes them a rebuke to their neighbors, a scoffing and a derision to those who are around them.

Psalms 44:14ULT

¹⁴ You make us an insult among the nations, a shaking of the head among the peoples.

UST

¹⁴ They make jokes using the name of our country, they shake their heads to indicate that they despise us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 44:15ULT

¹⁵ All the day long my dishonor is before me, and the shame of my face has covered me

UST

¹⁵ All day I am disgraced; from seeing my face, people know that I am ashamed.

Why is the writer's dishonor before him all the day long?

His dishonor is before him, and the shame of his face has covered him because of the voice of him who rebukes and insults, because of the enemy and the avenger.

Psalms 44:16ULT

¹⁶ because of the voice of him who rebukes and insults, because of the enemy and the avenger.

UST

¹⁶ I hear what those who sneer at me and revile me say; I am ashamed in front of my enemies and those who want to harm me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 44:17ULT

¹⁷ All this has come on us; yet we have not forgotten you or dealt falsely with your covenant.

UST

¹⁷ All these things have happened to us even though we have not forgotten you, and we are not the ones who disobeyed the covenant you made with our ancestors.

What have the Israelites not done?

They have not forgotten God nor dealt falsely with God's covenant.

Psalms 44:18ULT

¹⁸ Our heart has not turned back; our steps have not gone from your way.

UST

¹⁸ We have not stopped being loyal to you, and we have not stopped doing what you want us to do.

What have the Israelites' heart and steps not done?

Their heart has not turned back nor have their steps gone from God's way.

Psalms 44:19ULT

¹⁹ Yet you have severely broken us in the place of jackals and covered us with the shadow of death.

UST

¹⁹ But it is as though you have allowed us to be helpless among wild animals and you have abandoned us in a deep dark ravine.

What has God done anyway?

God has severely broken them in the place of jackals and covered them with the shadow of death.

Psalms 44:20ULT

²⁰ If we have forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a strange god,

UST

²⁰ If we had forgotten to worship our God, or if we had spread out our hands to worship a foreign god,

What would God surely search out? (vv20-21)

God would search out whether they have forgotten the name of their God or spread out their hands to a strange god.

Psalms 44:21ULT

²¹ would not God search this out? For he knows the secrets of the heart.

UST

²¹ you certainly would have known that because you know even what we secretly think.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 44:22ULT

²² Indeed, for your sake we are being killed all day long; we are considered to be sheep for the slaughter.

UST

²² But it is because we belong to you that our enemies are constantly killing us. They act toward us as though we were only sheep that they were going to slaughter.

What are the Israelites considered to be for God's sake?

They are considered to be sheep for the slaughter.

Psalms 44:23ULT

²³ Awake, why do you sleep, Lord? Arise, do not throw us off permanently.

UST

²³ So Yahweh, arise! Why are you asleep? Get up! Do not reject us forever!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 44:24ULT

²⁴ Why do you hide your face and forget our affliction and our oppression?

UST

²⁴ Why are you not looking at us? Why are you forgetting that we are suffering, that our enemies are oppressing us?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 44:25

ULT

²⁵ For we have sunk down into the dust; our bodies cling to the earth.

UST

²⁵ We are in complete panic; we cannot do anything; we are as good as dead.

What have the Israelites' souls done?

Their souls have melted away into the dust and their bodies cling to the earth.

ULT

²⁶ Rise up for our help and redeem us for the sake of your covenant faithfulness.

UST

²⁶ Do something! Come and help us! Rescue us because you love us as you promised to do.

What does the writer pray that God would do?

He prays that God might rise up for their help and redeem them for the sake of God's covenant faithfulness.

Psalms 45

Psalms 45:1

ULT

¹ My heart overflows on a good subject; I will read aloud the words I have composed about the king; my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

UST

¹ In my inner being I am aroused by something beautiful to write about, a song that I will sing to the king. The words of this song will be written by me, a skilled writer.

What will the writer read aloud?

He will read aloud the words he has composed about the king.

Psalms 45:2

ULT

² You are fairer than the children of mankind; grace is poured onto your lips; therefore we know that God has blessed you forever.

UST

² O King, you are the most handsome man in the world, and you always speak eloquently! So we know that God has always blessed you.

How does the writer describe the king?

The king is fairer than the children of men, grace is poured onto his lips, and God has blessed him forever.

Psalms 45:3

ULT

³ Put your sword on your side, mighty one, in your glory and your majesty.

UST

³ You who are a mighty warrior, put on your sword! You are glorious and majestic.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 45:4ULT

⁴ In your majesty ride on triumphantly because of trustworthiness, meekness, and righteousness; your right hand will teach you fearful things.

UST

⁴ Ride on like a great king to defend the truth that you speak and the fair decisions that you make! Because you fight in many battles, you will learn to do deeds that your enemies will fear.

Why should the king ride on triumphantly?

The king should ride on triumphantly because of trustworthiness, meekness, and righteousness.

Psalms 45:5ULT

⁵ Your arrows are sharp; the peoples fall under you; your arrows are in the hearts of the king's enemies.

UST

⁵ Your arrows are sharp, and they pierce the hearts of your enemies. Soldiers of many nations will fall at your feet.

How are the king's arrows described?

His arrows are sharp and in the hearts of the king's enemies.

Psalms 45:6ULT

⁶ Your throne, God, is forever and ever; a scepter of justice is the scepter of your kingdom.

What can those who trust in their wealth not do? (vv6-7)

None of them can by any means redeem his brother nor give God a ransom for him.

Psalms 49:7ULT

⁷ It is certain that no one can redeem his brother or give God a ransom for him,

UST

⁷ They may be rich, but no one can pay God money so that he can live forever! No one can pay God enough so that God will allow him to continue to live

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 49:8ULT

⁸ For the redemption of one's life is costly, and no one can pay what we owe.

UST

⁸ because that cost is too much, and he will never be able to pay enough.

How does the writer describe the redemption of one's life?

The redemption of one's life is costly and always costs too much.

Psalms 49:9ULT

⁹ No one can live forever so that his body should not decay.

UST

⁹ No one can pay God enough money so that he will live forever and never die and be buried!

Who can live forever?

No one can live forever so that his body should not decay.

Psalms 49:10ULT

¹⁰ For he will see decay. Wise men die; the fool and the brute alike perish and leave their wealth to others.

UST

¹⁰ We see that foolish and stupid people die, but we see that wise people also die; they all leave their wealth, and others inherit it.

What happens to wise men, the fool, and the brute alike?

²³ The sacrifice that truly honors me is to thank me for what I have done; and I will save those who always do the things that I want them to."

To whom will God show his salvation?

God will show his salvation to whoever offers a sacrifice of thanksgiving and plans his path in the right way.

Psalms 51

Psalms 51:1

ULT

¹ Have mercy on me, God, because of your covenant faithfulness; for the sake of the multitude of your merciful actions, blot out my transgressions.

UST

¹ O God, act mercifully toward me because you love me faithfully; because you are very merciful, forget the ways that I disobeyed you!

Why does David say that God should have mercy on him?

He says God should have mercy because of his covenant faithfulness.

Psalms 51:2

ULT

² Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

UST

² Make me acceptable to you again, even though I did wrong things; forgive the guilt of my sin and accept me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 51:3

ULT

³ For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.

UST

³ I say that because I know the ways that I have disobeyed you; I cannot forget them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 51:4ULT

⁴ Against you, you only, I have sinned and done what is evil in your sight; you are right when you speak; you are correct when you judge.

UST

⁴ You, you only, are the one I have really sinned against, and you have seen the evil things that I have done. When you say that I am guilty, you are right, and when you judge me, you justly say that I deserve to be punished.

Against whom does David say he has sinned?

He says he has sinned against God, and only against God.

Psalms 51:5ULT

⁵ See, I was born in iniquity; as soon as my mother conceived me, I was in sin.

UST

⁵ I have been a sinner since the day that I was born; truly, I have been like that since my mother conceived me.

When does David say that his sin began?

He says he was born in iniquity, and as soon as his mother conceived him, he was in sin.

Psalms 51:6ULT

⁶ See, you desire trustworthiness in my inner self; and you teach me wisdom in the secret place within.

UST

⁶ What you desire is that in my inner being I desire what is true in order that you can teach me how to act wisely.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 51:7ULT

⁷ Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

UST

⁷ Forgive the guilt of my sins, and after that happens, I will be completely acceptable to you; if you forgive me, then I will be absolutely right with you.

What does David ask God to do so that he may be purified?

He asks God to purify him with hyssop so he will be clean, and to wash him so he will be whiter than snow.

Psalms 51:8ULT

⁸ Make me hear joy and gladness so that the bones that you have broken may rejoice.

UST

⁸ Allow me to rejoice again; you have made me immeasurably sad, but now let me rejoice again.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 51:9ULT

⁹ Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.

UST

⁹ Do not continue to remember the sins that I have committed; forget the evil things that I have done.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 51:10ULT

¹⁰ Create in me a clean heart, God, and renew a right spirit within me.

UST

¹⁰ O God, make me want to do the things that you approve of. Make me want to do only what is right.

What does David ask God to create and renew in him?

He asks God to create in him a clean heart, and to renew a right spirit within him.

Psalms 51:11ULT

¹¹ Do not drive me away from your presence, and do not take your holy Spirit from me.

UST

¹¹ Do not reject me as one of your people, and do not make your holy Spirit leave me.

What does David ask God to not do to him?

He asks God not to drive him away from his presence, and to not take his holy Spirit from him.

Psalms 51:12ULT

¹² Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain me with a willing spirit.

UST

¹² Make me happy again by rescuing me from my guilt, and always help me by making me sincerely want to obey you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 51:13ULT

¹³ Then will I teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will be converted to you.

UST

¹³ If you do that, I will teach other sinners what you want them to do; they will repent and obey you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 51:14ULT

¹⁴ Forgive me for shedding blood, God of my salvation, and I will shout for the joy of your righteousness.

UST

¹⁴ O God, you are the one who saves me; forgive me for being guilty of causing someone who was not my enemy to die. When you do that, I will sing joyfully about your being very good and righteous.

What sin does David ask God to forgive?

He asks God to forgive him for shedding blood.

Psalms 51:15ULT

¹⁵ Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will express your praise.

UST

¹⁵ O Yahweh, help me to speak in order that I may praise you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 51:16ULT

¹⁶ For you do not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it; you have no pleasure in burnt offerings.

UST

¹⁶ When people only bring sacrifices to you, that does not please you. If that were enough to please you, I would do the same. But you are not pleased with burnt offerings alone.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 51:17ULT

¹⁷ The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. You, God, will not despise a broken and a contrite heart.

UST

¹⁷ The sacrifice that you really want is for people to be truly humble and sorry for having sinned. O God, you will not refuse that kind of sacrifice.

What are the sacrifices of God?

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. He will not despise a broken and a contrite heart.

Psalms 51:18ULT

¹⁸ Do good in your good pleasure to Zion; rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

UST

¹⁸ O God, be good to the people who live in Jerusalem; make them able to rebuild the city walls.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 51:19ULT

¹⁹ Then will you delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings; then our people will offer bulls on your altar.

UST

¹⁹ When that happens, they will bring you the proper sacrifices: normal animal sacrifices and sacrifices to be completely burned. They will burn young bulls on your altar, and you will be pleased.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 52

Psalms 52:1

ULT

¹ Why are you proud of making trouble, you mighty man? The covenant faithfulness of God comes every day.

UST

¹ You proud man, you think that you are strong; you boast about the trouble that you make for others, but God faithfully protects people from you every day.

What comes from God every day?

The covenant faithfulness of God comes every day.

Psalms 52:2

ULT

² Your tongue plans destruction like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

UST

² All during the day you plan to get rid of others; what you say is like a sharp blade, and you are always deceiving others.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 52:3

ULT

³ You love evil more than good and lying rather than speaking righteousness. Selah

UST

³ You like doing what is evil more than you like doing what is good, and you like telling lies more than you like telling the truth.

What does the mighty man love more than good?

He loves evil more than good.

Psalms 52:4ULT

⁴ You love all words that devour others, you deceitful tongue.

UST

⁴ You, the one who says things to deceive people, you like to say things that hurt people!

What kind of words does the mighty man love?

He loves all words that devour others.

Psalms 52:5ULT

⁵ God will likewise destroy you forever; he will take you up and pluck you out of your tent and root you out of the land of the living. Selah

UST

⁵ But God will get rid of you forever; he will grab you and drag you from your home and take you away from this world where people are alive.

What will God do to the mighty man?

God will destroy him forever.

Psalms 52:6ULT

⁶ The righteous will also see it and fear; they will laugh at him and say,

UST

⁶ When righteous people see that, they will be awestruck, and they will laugh at what happened to you, and say,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 52:7ULT

⁷ “See, this is a man who did not make God his refuge, but he trusted in the abundance of his wealth, and he was strong when he destroyed others.”

UST

⁷ “Look what happened to the man who would not ask God to protect him; he trusted that his great wealth would save him; he grew more powerful by wickedly hurting other people.”

In what did the man trust?

He trusted in the abundance of his riches.

Psalms 52:8ULT

⁸ But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God’s house; I will trust in the covenant faithfulness of God forever and ever.

UST

⁸ But I am secure because I worship in God’s temple; I am like a strong green olive tree. I trust in God, who faithfully loves us forever.

In what will David place his own trust?

He will trust in the covenant faithfulness of God forever and ever.

Psalms 52:9ULT

⁹ I will give you thanks forever for what you have done. I will wait for your name, because it is good, in the presence of your faithful ones.

UST

⁹ God, I will always thank you for everything you have done. I will wait patiently because you are so good, especially when I stand before your faithful people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 53

Psalms 53:1

ULT

¹ A fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity; there is no one who does good.

UST

¹ Only foolish people say to themselves, "There is no God!" People who say that are corrupt; they commit terrible sins; there is not one of them who does what is good.

What does the fool say in his heart?

He says, "There is no God."

Psalms 53:2

ULT

² God looks down from heaven on the children of mankind to see if there are any who understand, who seek after him.

UST

² God looks down from heaven and sees humans; he looks to see if any man is very wise and seeks to know God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 53:3

ULT

³ They have all turned away. Together they have become corrupt. There is not one who does good, not even one.

UST

³ But everyone has turned away from God. They are depraved and do disgusting, filthy things. No one does what is good.

When God looks down on the sons of mankind, does he find anyone who understands and seeks after him?

No, they have all become filthy, and there is no one who does good.

Psalms 53:4ULT

⁴ Do those who commit iniquity have no understanding— those who devour my people as if they were eating bread and they do not call on God?

UST

⁴ Will all these evil people never learn what God will do to them? They hurt Yahweh's people with terrible violence. They had no guilt in what they did. They had the same expression on their faces as people eating bread at dinner. And what is worse is that they never prayed to Yahweh.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 53:5ULT

⁵ They were in great fear, although no reason to fear was there; for God will scatter the bones of whoever will camp against you; such people will be put to shame because God has rejected them.

UST

⁵ But someday those people will become very terrified, although they have nothing to fear. For God will cause those who attack you to die, and he will scatter their bones. They have rejected God, so he will cause them to be defeated and completely disgraced.

Why will people who do not call on God will be put to shame?

They will be put to shame because God has rejected them.

Psalms 53:6ULT

⁶ Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion! When God brings back his people from the captivity, then Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad!

UST

⁶ I wish that God would come and rescue the Israelite people! God, when you bless your people again, all the Israelite people, all the descendants of Jacob, will rejoice.

From where did David hope that salvation for Israel would come?

He hoped that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!

Psalms 54

Psalms 54:1

ULT

¹ Save me, God, by your name, and judge me in your might.

UST

¹ God, by your power save me from my enemies, and show people that I have not done anything that is wrong!

By what did David ask God to save him?

He asked God to save him by God's name.

Psalms 54:2

ULT

² Hear my prayer, God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

UST

² God, listen to my prayer; listen to what I say to you

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 54:3

ULT

³ For strangers have risen up against me, and pitiless men have sought after my life; they have not set God before them. Selah

UST

³ because strangers are trying to attack me; proud men are wanting to kill me, men who have no respect for you.

Who has risen up and sought David's soul?

Strangers have risen up against him, and pitiless men have sought after his soul.

Psalms 54:4ULT

⁴ See, God is my helper; the Lord is the one who upholds me.

UST

⁴ But God is the one who helps me; Yahweh defends me from my enemies.

Who sustains David's soul?

The Lord is the one who sustains his soul.

Psalms 54:5ULT

⁵ He will repay my enemies with evil; in your faithfulness, destroy them!

UST

⁵ He will cause the evil things that they want to do to me to happen to them instead; because you faithfully do what you have promised to me, destroy them.

What will God repay David's enemies?

He will repay the evil to them.

Psalms 54:6ULT

⁶ I will sacrifice to you with a freewill offering; I will give thanks to your name, Yahweh, for it is good.

UST

⁶ Yahweh, I will gladly give an offering to you because I want to, and I will thank you, for you are good to me;

Why will David give thanks to the name of Yahweh?

He will give thanks to his name for it is good.

Psalms 54:7

ULT

⁷ For he has rescued me from every trouble; my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies.

UST

⁷ you have rescued me from all my troubles, and I have seen that you have defeated my enemies.

How has David looked on his enemies?

His eye has looked in triumph on his enemies.

Psalms 55

Psalms 55:1

ULT

¹ Give ear to my prayer, God; and do not hide yourself from my plea.

UST

⁸ I would quickly find a safe place where my enemies could not strike me like a strong wind and rainstorm.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 55:9ULT

⁹ Devour them, Lord, confuse their language! For I have seen violence and strife in the city.

UST

⁹ Lord, confuse my enemies and cause their plans to fail. I saw them hurting others by their violence and causing riots throughout the city.

What does David ask the Lord to do to David’s enemies?

He asks the Lord to destroy them, and to confuse their languages.

Psalms 55:10ULT

¹⁰ Day and night they go about on its walls; wickedness and trouble are in the middle of it.

UST

¹⁰ During each day and night they march around on top of its walls, committing crimes and causing trouble.

What is found in the middle of the city? (vv10-11)

Iniquity, mischief and wickedness are in the middle of the city.

Psalms 55:11ULT

¹¹ Wickedness is in the middle of it; oppression and deceit do not leave its streets.

UST

¹¹ They destroy things everywhere. They oppress people and defraud people in the marketplaces.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 55:12ULT

¹² For it was not an enemy who rebuked me, then I could have borne it; neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me, then I would have hidden myself from him.

UST

¹² If it were an enemy who was making fun of me, I could endure it. If it were someone who hates me, who despises me, I could hide from him.

Who rebuked David and raised himself up against David? (vv12-13)

David's companion and close friend rebuked David and raised himself up against him.

Psalms 55:13ULT

¹³ But it was you, a man equal to myself, my companion and my close friend.

UST

¹³ But it is someone who is just like me, my companion, someone who was my friend who is doing this to me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 55:19ULT

¹⁹ God, the one who rules from eternity, will hear them and humiliate them. Selah They never change, and they do not fear God.

UST

¹⁹ God is the one who has ruled everything forever, and he will put those who fought against me in their place. He will cause my enemies to be defeated and disgraced because they do not change their evil behavior and because they do not have any respect for God.

Why will God hear and respond to David's enemies?

He will hear and respond because they do not change, and they do not fear God.

Psalms 55:20ULT

²⁰ My friend has raised his hands against those who were at peace with him; he has not respected the covenant that he had.

UST

²⁰ My companion, whom I mentioned previously, betrayed his friends and broke the agreement that he made with them.

What did David's friend do to the covenant that he made?

He has not respected the covenant that he made.

Psalms 55:21ULT

²¹ His mouth was smooth as butter, but his heart was hostile; his words were softer than oil, yet they were actually drawn swords.

UST

²¹ What he said was as easy to listen to as butter is easy to swallow, but in his inner being he hated people; his words were as soothing as olive oil, but they hurt people as sharp swords do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 55:22ULT

²² Place your burdens on Yahweh, and he will sustain you; he will never allow a righteous person to totter.

UST

²² Put your troubles in Yahweh's hands, and he will take care of you; he will never allow disaster to destroy righteous people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 55:23ULT

²³ But you, God, will bring the wicked down into the pit of destruction; bloodthirsty and deceitful men will not live even half as long as others, but I will trust in you.

UST

²³ God, you will cause murderers and liars to die before they have lived half as long as they expect to live; but as for me, I will trust in you.

To where will God bring the wicked down?

He will bring the wicked down into the pit of destruction.

Psalms 56

Psalms 56:1

ULT

¹ Be merciful to me, God, for men are attacking me! All the day long those who fight me press their assault.

What do David's enemies do with David's words?

They twist David's words.

What are David's enemies thoughts toward David?

All their thoughts are against David for evil.

Psalms 56:6ULT

⁶ They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, and they mark my steps, just as they have waited for my life.

UST

⁶ In order to cause trouble for me, they hide and watch everything that I do, waiting for an opportunity to kill me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 56:7ULT

⁷ Do not let them escape doing iniquity. Bring down the peoples in your anger, God.

UST

⁷ So, God, punish them for the wicked things that they are doing; show that you are angry by defeating those people!

How does David ask God to bring down David's enemies?

David asks God to bring them down in God's anger.

Psalms 56:8ULT

⁸ You number my wanderings and put my tears into your bottle; are they not in your book?

UST

⁸ You have counted all the times that I have been wandering alone; it is as though you have put all my tears in a bottle so that you can see how much I have cried. You have counted my tears and written the number in your book.

What does David ask God to do what with his tears?

David asks God to put David's tears in God's bottle.

Psalms 56:9ULT

⁹ Then my enemies will turn back on the day that I call to you; this I know, that God is for me.

UST

⁹ When I call out to you, my God, my enemies will be defeated; I know that will happen because you are fighting for me.

When will David's enemies turn back?

David's enemies will turn back on the day that he calls to God.

Psalms 56:10ULT

¹⁰ In God—whose word I praise, in Yahweh—whose word I praise,

UST

¹⁰ I praise you that you do what you have promised; Yahweh, I will always praise you for that.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 56:11ULT

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 65:7ULT

⁷ It is you who quiet the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the commotion of the peoples.

UST

⁷ You are the one who calms the seas when they roar, and stop the waves from pounding on the shore; you also calm people when they cause a lot of trouble.

What does God quiet?

He quiets the roaring seas, the roaring waves, and the commotion of the peoples.

Psalms 65:8ULT

⁸ Those who live in the uttermost parts of the earth are afraid of the evidence of your deeds; you make the east and the west rejoice.

UST

⁸ People who live in very remote places on the earth are awed by the miracles that you perform; because of what you do, people who live far to the west and far to the east shout joyfully.

Who is afraid of the evidence of God's deeds?

Those who live in the uppermost parts of the earth are afraid of the evidence of God's deeds.

Psalms 65:9ULT

⁹ You come to help the earth; you water it; you greatly enrich it; the river of God is full of water; you provide mankind grain when you have prepared the earth.

UST

⁹ You take care of the soil and send rain, causing many good things to grow; you fill the streams with water and cause grain to grow. This is what you have determined would happen.

How does David say God helps the earth?

God waters it, enriches it, and prepares the earth to provide mankind with grain.

Psalms 65:10ULT

¹⁰ You water its furrows abundantly; you settle down the furrows' ridges; you make them soft with rain showers; you bless the sprouts between them.

UST

¹⁰ You send plenty of rain on the fields that have been plowed, and you fill the furrows with water. With showers you soften the hard clods of soil, and you bless the soil by causing young plants to grow.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 65:11ULT

¹¹ You crown the year with your goodness, and your wagon tracks overflow with abundance.

They say, "How does God know? Does God know what goes on?"

Psalms 73:12ULT

¹² Take notice: these people are wicked; they are always carefree, becoming richer and richer.

UST

¹² That is what wicked people are like; they never worry about anything, and they are always becoming richer.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 73:13ULT

¹³ Surely it is in vain that I have guarded my heart and washed my hands in innocence.

UST

¹³ So, God, I think it is useless that I have always done what you want me to and that I have not committed sins.

Why does Asaph feel he guarded his heart in vain? (vv13-14)

Asaph has been afflicted all day long and disciplined every morning.

Psalms 73:14ULT

¹⁴ For all the day long I have been afflicted and disciplined every morning.

UST

¹⁴ During each day I have problems, and every morning you punish me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 73:15ULT

¹⁵ If I had said, "I will say these things," then I would have betrayed this generation of your children.

UST

¹⁵ But if I had said these things out loud in front of others, I would have been sinning against your people.

What will happen if Asaph says these things?

He will betray this generation of God's children.

Psalms 73:16ULT

¹⁶ Though I tried to understand these things, it was too difficult for me.

UST

¹⁶ When I tried to think completely about these things, it was too hard for me to understand them.

Where did Asaph go to gain understanding of these things? (vv16-17)

Asaph went to God's sanctuary.

Psalms 73:17ULT

¹⁷ Then I went into God's sanctuary and came to understand their fate.

UST

¹⁷ But when I went to your temple, you spoke to me, and I understood what will happen to the wicked people after they die.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 73:18ULT

¹⁸ Surely you put them in slippery places; you bring them down to ruin.

UST

¹⁸ Now I know that you will surely put them in dangerous places where they will fall down and die.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 73:19ULT

¹⁹ How they become a wilderness in a moment! They come to an end and are finished in awful terrors.

UST

¹⁹ They will be destroyed instantly; they will die in terrible ways.

What will the wicked become in a moment?

They will become a wilderness in a moment.

Psalms 73:20ULT

²⁰ They are like a dream after one wakes up; Lord, when you arise, you will think nothing of those dreams.

UST

²⁰ They will disappear as quickly as a dream disappears when a person awakes in the morning; Lord, when you arise, you will cause them to disappear.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

²¹ For my heart was grieved, and I was deeply wounded.

UST

²¹ When I felt sad in my inner being and my feelings were hurt,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 73:22ULT

²² I was ignorant and lacked insight; I was like a senseless animal before you.

UST

²² I was stupid and ignorant, and I behaved like an animal toward you.

What did Asaph say he was like before God?

He was like a senseless animal before God.

Psalms 73:23ULT

²³ Yet I am always with you; you hold my right hand.

UST

²³ But I am always close to you, and you hold my hand.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 73:24ULT

²⁴ You will guide me with your advice and afterward receive me to glory.

UST

²⁴ You guide me by teaching me, and at the end of my life, you will receive me and honor me.

What will God do for Asaph after he guides him with his advice?

Afterward, God will receive Asaph into glory.

Psalms 73:25ULT

²⁵ Whom have I in heaven but you? There is no one on earth that I desire but you.

UST

²⁵ You are in heaven, and I belong to you; there is nothing on this earth that I desire more than that.

What is Asaph's only desire on earth?

The God of heaven is all he desires.

Psalms 73:26ULT

²⁶ My flesh and my heart grow weak, but God is the strength of my heart forever.

UST

²⁶ My body and my mind may become very weak, but, God, you continue to enable me to be strong; I belong to you forever.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 73:27

ULT

²⁷ Those who are far from you will perish; you will destroy all those who are unfaithful to you.

UST

²⁷ Those who remain far from you will be destroyed; you will get rid of those who abandon you.

Who will perish?

Those who are far from God will perish, and he will destroy all those who are unfaithful to him.

Psalms 73:28

ULT

²⁸ But as for me, all I need to do is to approach God. I have made the Lord Yahweh my refuge. I will declare all your deeds.

UST

²⁸ But as for me, it is wonderful to be near to God and to have Yahweh protect me and to proclaim to others all that he has done for me.

What is the one thing that Asaph needs to do?

He needs to draw near to God.

Psalms 74

Psalms 74:1

ULT

¹ God, why have you rejected us forever? Why does your anger burn against the sheep of your pasture?

UST

¹ God, why have you abandoned us? Will you keep rejecting us forever? Why are you angry with us since we are like sheep in your pasture and you are like our shepherd?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 74:2

ULT

² Call to mind your people, whom you purchased in ancient times, the tribe whom you have redeemed to be your own heritage, and Mount Zion, where you live.

UST

² Do not forget your people whom you chose long ago, the people whom you freed from being slaves in Egypt and caused to become your tribe. Do not forget Jerusalem, which is your home on this earth.

What does Asaph ask God to remember that he did for his people in ancient times?

God redeemed them in ancient times, and purchased them to be his own heritage.

Psalms 74:3

ULT

³ Come look at the complete ruins, all the damage that the enemy has done in the holy place.

UST

³ Walk along and see where everything has been totally ruined; our enemies have destroyed everything in the sacred temple.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 74:4ULT

⁴Your adversaries roared in the middle of your appointed place; they set up their battle flags.

UST

⁴Your enemies shouted triumphantly in this sacred place; they erected their banners to show they had defeated us.

What damage did the enemy do in the sanctuary? (vv4-6)

They set up their battle flags, hacked with axes, smashed and broke the engravings.

Psalms 74:5ULT

⁵They hacked away with axes as in a thick forest.

UST

⁵They cut down all the engraved objects in the temple as woodsmen cut down trees.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

UST

⁶Then they smashed all the carved wood with their axes and hammers.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 74:7ULT

⁷ They set your sanctuary on fire; they desecrated where you live, knocking it to the ground.

UST

⁷ Then they burned your temple to the ground; they caused that place where you were worshiped to be unfit for people to worship in.

What else did they do to the sanctuary?

They set it on fire, and desecrated it by knocking it to the ground,

Psalms 74:8ULT

⁸ They said in their hearts, "We will destroy them all." They burned up all of your meeting places in the land.

UST

⁸ They said to themselves, "We will destroy the Israelites completely," and they also burned down all the other places where we gathered to worship you.

What did the enemy do to the meeting places?

They burned them all of the meeting places in the land.

Psalms 74:9ULT

⁹ We do not see any more signs; there is no prophet any more, and no one among us knows how long this will last.

UST

⁹ All our sacred symbols are gone; there are no prophets now, and no one knows how long this situation will continue.

What did God's people not see anymore?

They did not see any more miraculous signs, there is no prophet any more.

Psalms 74:10ULT

¹⁰ How long, God, will the enemy throw insults at you? Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?

UST

¹⁰ God, how long will our enemies make fun of you? Will they insult you?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 74:11ULT

¹¹ Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand? Take your right hand from your garment and destroy them.

UST

¹¹ Why do you refuse to help us? Why do you keep your hand inside your cloak instead of using it to destroy our enemies?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 74:12ULT

¹² Yet God has been my king from ancient times, bringing salvation on the earth.

UST

¹² God, you have been our king during all the years since we came out of Egypt, and you have enabled us to defeat our enemies in the land of Israel.

What are signs that God has been Asaph's king since ancient times? (vv12-13)

God divided the sea and smashed the heads of sea monsters.

Psalms 74:13ULT

¹³ You divided the sea by your strength; you smashed the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.

UST

¹³ By your power you caused the sea to divide; it was as though you had smashed the heads of the rulers of Egypt who were like huge sea dragons.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 74:14ULT

¹⁴ You crushed the heads of leviathan; you fed him to those living in the wilderness.

UST

¹⁴ It was as though you crushed the head of the king of Egypt and gave his body to the animals in the desert to eat.

What did God do to the leviathan?

He crushed the heads of leviathan, and fed him to those living in the wilderness.

Psalms 74:15ULT

¹⁵ You broke open springs and streams; you dried up flowing rivers.

UST

¹⁵ You caused springs and streams to flow, and you also dried up rivers that had never dried up previously.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 74:16ULT

¹⁶ The day is yours, and the night is yours also; you set the sun and moon in place.

UST

¹⁶ You created the days and the nights, and you put the sun and the moon in their places.

What did God set in place? (vv16-17)

He set the sun and moon in place, and set all the borders of the earth.

Psalms 74:17ULT

¹⁷ You have set all the borders of the earth; you have made summer and winter.

UST

¹⁷ You determined where the oceans end and the land begins, and you created the summer season and the winter season.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 74:18ULT

¹⁸ Call to mind how the enemy hurled insults at you, Yahweh, and that a foolish people has blasphemed your name.

UST

What does Asaph want God to defend?

Asaph wants God to arise and defend his own honor.

Psalms 74:23

ULT

²³ Do not forget the voice of your adversaries or the uproar of those who continually defy you.

UST

²³ Do not forget that your enemies shout angrily at you; the uproar that they make while they oppose you never stops.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 75

Psalms 75:1

ULT

¹ We give thanks to you, God; we give thanks, for you reveal your presence; people tell of your wondrous works.

UST

¹ We give thanks to you; our God, we thank you. You are close to us, and we proclaim to others the wonderful things that you have done for us.

For what do the people give thanks?

They give thanks because God reveals his presence.

Psalms 75:2

ULT

² At the appointed time I will judge fairly.

UST

² You have said, "I have appointed a time when I will judge people, and I will judge everyone fairly.

What will God do at the appointed time? (vv2-3)

UST

⁵ Do not be arrogant, and do not speak so boastfully!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 75:6ULT

⁶ It is not from the east or from the west, and it is not from the wilderness that lifting up comes.

UST

⁶ The one who judges people does not come from the east or from the west, and he does not come from the desert.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 75:7ULT

⁷ But God is the judge; he brings down and he lifts up.

UST

⁷ God is the one who judges people; he shames and punishes some, and he honors others.

What does Asaph say about God?

God is judge and brings one down and raises up another.

Psalms 75:8ULT

⁸ For Yahweh holds in his hand a cup of foaming wine, which is mixed with spices, and pours it out. Surely all the wicked of the earth will drink it to the last drop.

UST

⁸ It is as though Yahweh held a cup in his hand; it is filled with wine that has spices mixed in it to cause those who drink it to become more drunk; and when Yahweh pours it out, he will force all the wicked people to drink it; they will drink every drop of it; yes, he will punish them fully.

What will the wicked do with the cup of foaming wine in Yahweh's hand?

They will drink it to the last drop.

Psalms 75:9ULT

⁹ But I will continually tell what you have done; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

UST

⁹ But as for me, I will never stop saying what the God whom Jacob worshiped has done; I will never stop singing to praise him.

How will Asaph praise the God of Jacob?

He will continually tell what God has done and sing praises to him.

ULT

Psalms 78:4ULT

⁴ We will not keep them from their descendants. We will tell the next generation about the praiseworthy deeds of Yahweh, his strength, and the wonders that he has done.

UST

⁴ We will tell these things to our children, but we will also tell our grandchildren about Yahweh's power and the glorious things that he has done.

What will Asaph pass on to the next generation?

Asaph will tell the next generation about the praise worthy deeds of Yahweh, his strength, and the wonders that he has done.

Psalms 78:5ULT

⁵ For he established covenant decrees in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel. He commanded our ancestors that they were to teach them to their children.

UST

⁵ He gave laws and commandments to the Israelite people, those who are the descendants of Jacob, and he told our ancestors to teach them to their children.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 78:6ULT

⁶ He commanded this so that the generation to come might know his decrees, the children not yet born, who should tell them in turn to their own children.

UST

⁶ He commanded this so that their children would also know them and so that they would teach them to their own children.

Why did Yahweh command Asaph's ancestors to teach Yahweh's decrees to their children?

Yahweh commanded this so that the generation to come might know his decrees so that the children not yet born should tell them in turn to their own children.

Psalms 78:7ULT

⁷ Then they would place their hope in God and not forget his deeds but keep his commandments.

UST

⁷ In that way, they also would trust in God and would not forget the things that he has done; instead, they would obey his commandments.

Why was it important for Asaph's ancestors to teach Yahweh's decrees to their children? (vv7-8)

It was important for them to teach Yahweh's decrees to their children so the children would not be like their ancestors who were a stubborn and rebellious generation.

Psalms 78:8ULT

⁸ Then they would not be like their ancestors, who were a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation whose hearts were not right, and whose spirits were not committed and faithful to God.

UST

⁸ They would not be like their ancestors, who were very stubborn and kept rebelling against God; they did not continue firmly trusting in God, and they did not worship him alone.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 90:7ULT

⁷ Truly, we are consumed in your anger, and in your wrath we are terrified.

UST

⁷ Similarly, because of the sins that we commit, you become angry with us; you terrify us and then you destroy us.

Why is mankind consumed in the Lord's anger and terrified in his wrath? (vv7-8)

They are consumed and terrified because the Lord has set their iniquities before himself, and their hidden sins in the light of his presence.

Psalms 90:8ULT

⁸ You have set our iniquities before you, our hidden sins in the light of your presence.

UST

⁸ It is as though you place our sins in front of you; you spread out even our secret sins where you can see them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 90:9ULT

⁹ Our life passes away under your wrath; our years quickly pass like a sigh.

UST

⁹ Because you are angry with us, you cause our lives to end; the years that we live pass as quickly as a sigh does.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 90:10ULT

¹⁰ Our years are seventy, or even eighty if we are healthy; but even our best years are marked by trouble and sorrow. Yes, they pass quickly, and we fly away.

UST

¹⁰ People live for only seventy years; if they are strong, some of them live for eighty years. But even during good years we have much pain and troubles; our lives soon end, and we die.

How many are the years of mankind if they are healthy?

Their years are eighty if healthy.

Psalms 90:11ULT

¹¹ Who knows the intensity of your anger, and your wrath that is equal to the fear of you?

UST

Psalms 129

Psalms 129:1

ULT

¹ "Often since my youth they have attacked me," let Israel say.

UST

¹ I say that my enemies have afflicted me ever since I was young. Now I ask you, my fellow Israelites, to repeat those same words:

How long has Israel been under attack and not defeated? (vv1-2)

Israel has been under attack and not defeated since it's youth.

Psalms 129:2

ULT

² "Often since my youth they have attacked me, yet they have not defeated me.

UST

² "Our enemies have afflicted us since our nation began, but they have not defeated us!

Psalms 130:3ULT

³ If you, Yahweh, would mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand?

UST

³ Yahweh, if you kept a record of the sins that we have committed, not one of us would escape from being condemned and punished!

Why does the writer say Yahweh should be revered? (vv3-4)

Yahweh should be revered because there is forgiveness with him.

Psalms 130:4ULT

⁴ But there is forgiveness with you, that you may be revered.

UST

⁴ But you forgive us, with the result that we have an awesome respect for you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 130:5ULT

⁵ I wait for Yahweh, my soul waits, and in his word I hope.

UST

⁵ Yahweh has said that he would help me; I trust what he said, and I wait eagerly for him to do that.

For whom does the writer's soul wait and hope? (vv5-6)

His soul waits for Yahweh and in his word does he hope.

Psalms 130:6ULT

Psalms 131

Psalms 131:1

ULT

¹ Yahweh, my heart is not proud or my eyes haughty. I do not have great hopes for myself or concern myself with things that are beyond me.

UST

¹ Yahweh, I am not proud; I do not deserve to achieve impressive things in life. I do not worry about problems that are too difficult for me to solve.

How does David describe his heart and eyes?

His heart is not proud and his eyes are not haughty.

Psalms 131:2

ULT

² Indeed I have stilled and quieted my soul; like a weaned child with his mother, my soul within me is like a weaned child.

UST

² Instead, I am calm and peaceful in my inner being like a small child who no longer nurses but is happy to be with its mother. In the same way, I am peaceful within my inner being.

What David's soul like?

His soul is stilled and quieted like a weaned child.

Psalms 137:7ULT

⁷ Call to mind, Yahweh, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell. They said, "Tear it down, tear it down to its foundations."

UST

⁷ Yahweh, punish the people of the Edom people group for what they did on the day that the army of Babylon captured Jerusalem. Do not forget that they said, "Tear down all the buildings! Destroy them completely! Leave only the foundations!"

What did the writer want Yahweh to remember about the Edomites?

He wanted Yahweh to remember that on the day Jerusalem fell the Edomites said, "Tear it down, tear it down to its foundations".

Psalms 137:8ULT

⁸ Daughter of Babylon, soon to be destroyed— may the person be blessed, whoever pays you back for what you have done to us.

UST

⁸ You people of Babylon, you will certainly be destroyed! How fortunate are those who punish you for what you did to us;

Who does the writer want be blessed? (vv8-9)

He wants the person who destroys Babylon to be blessed.

Psalms 137:9ULT

⁹ May the person be blessed, whoever takes and dashes your little ones against a rock.

UST

⁹ How fortunate are those who take your babies and smash them to pieces on the rocks.

Psalms 138

Psalms 138:1

ULT

¹ I will give you thanks with my whole heart; before the gods I will sing praises to you.

UST

¹ Yahweh, I thank you with all my inner being. I sing to praise you, even though many people worship idols.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 138:2

ULT

² I will bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your covenant faithfulness and for your trustworthiness. You have made your word and your name more important than anything else.

UST

² When I look toward your sacred temple, I bow down and thank you because you faithfully love us and do all that you have promised. You have given cause for people everywhere to honor you and what you have said more than anything else.

What has Yahweh magnified above all?

He has magnified his word and his name above all.

Psalms 138:3

ULT

³ On the day that I called you, you answered me; you made me bold and strengthened my soul.

UST

³ When I called out to you, you answered me; you enabled me to be strong and brave.

What did Yahweh do for David when he called to him?

Yahweh answered him, and encouraged and strengthened his soul.

Psalms 138:4ULT

⁴ All the kings of the earth will give you thanks, Yahweh, for they will hear the words from your mouth.

UST

⁴ Yahweh, someday all the kings of this earth will praise you because they will have heard what you have said.

What will the kings of the earth do?

They will give thanks for Yahweh's words.

Psalms 138:5ULT

⁵ Indeed, they will sing of the deeds of Yahweh, for great is the glory of Yahweh.

UST

⁵ They will sing about what you have done; they will sing and say that you are very great.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 138:6ULT

⁶ For though Yahweh is high, yet he cares for the lowly, but the proud he knows from far off.

UST

⁶ Yahweh, you are supreme, but you take care of people who are considered to be unimportant. However, you do not show yourself to proud people as faithful.

For whom does Yahweh care?

He cares for the lowly.

Psalms 138:7ULT

⁷ Though I walk in the middle of danger, you will preserve my life; you will reach out with your hand against the anger of my enemies, and your right hand will save me.

UST

⁷ When I am in the middle of many troubles, you save me. With your hand you rescue me from my enemies who are angry at me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 138:8ULT

⁸ Yahweh is with me to the end; your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, endures forever. Do not forsake the ones whom your hands have made.

UST

⁸ Yahweh, you will do for me everything that you promised; you faithfully love us forever. Finish what you started to do for us, your Israelite people!

Who does David ask that Yahweh not forsake?

He asks that Yahweh not forsake the ones his hands made.

Psalms 139Psalms 139:1*ULT

¹¹ If I said, "Surely the darkness will cover me, and the light will become night around me,"

UST

¹¹ I could wish for the darkness to hide me, or I could wish for the light around me to become darkness.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 139:12ULT

¹² even the darkness would not be dark to you. The night would shine like the day, for the darkness and the light are both alike to you.

UST

¹² But even if that happened, you would still see me. For you the night is as bright as the daytime, because daylight and darkness are no different to you.

How are the darkness and the light different to Yahweh?

The darkness and the light are both alike to Yahweh?

Psalms 139:13ULT

¹³ You formed my inner parts; you formed me in my mother's womb.

UST

¹³ You created all the parts of my body; you put the parts of my body together when I was still in my mother's womb.

Where did Yahweh form David?

Yahweh formed him in his mother's womb.

Psalms 139:14ULT

¹⁴ I will praise you, for I am wonderfully made. My soul knows this very well.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 140:9ULT

⁹ Those who surround me raise their heads; let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

UST

⁹ Do not allow my enemies to become proud; cause the evil things that they say they will do to me to happen to them instead.

What does David want to overwhelm those who surround him?

David wants the mischief of their own lips to overwhelm them.

Psalms 140:10ULT

¹⁰ Let burning coals fall on them; throw them into the fire, into bottomless pits, never more to rise.

UST

¹⁰ Cause burning coals to fall on their heads! Cause them to be thrown into deep pits from which they cannot climb out!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 140:11ULT

¹¹ May men of tongues not be made secure on the earth; may evil hunt down the violent man to strike him dead.

UST

¹¹ Do not allow those who slander others to succeed; cause evil things to happen to violent men and destroy them!

What does David want to happen to those who say evil things about others?

David wants anyone who says evil things about others to not be secure on the earth.

Psalms 140:12ULT

¹² I know that Yahweh will judge in favor of the afflicted, and that he will give justice to the needy.

UST

What will Yahweh do for the afflicted and the needy?

Yahweh will maintain the cause of the afflicted and will exercise justice for the needy.

Psalms 140:13

ULT

¹³ Surely the righteous people will give thanks to your name; the upright people will live in your presence.

UST

¹³ Righteous people will surely thank you, and they will live in your presence.

What will the righteous people surely do?

The righteous people will surely give thanks to Yahweh's name.

What will happen the upright people?

They will live in Yahweh's presence.

Psalms 141

Psalms 141:1

ULT

¹ Yahweh, I am crying out to you; come quickly to me. Listen to me when I call to you.

UST

¹ Yahweh, I call out to you; please help me quickly! Listen to me when I am calling to you.

What is David crying out to Yahweh?

He is crying out for Yahweh to come quickly and to listen to him when he calls.

Psalms 141:2

ULT

² May my prayer be like incense before you; may my lifted hands be like the evening sacrifice.

UST

² Accept my prayer as though it were incense being burned as an offering to you. Accept me while I lift up my hands to pray to you, just as you accept sacrifices that are offered to you in the evening.

What does David want his prayer and lifted hands to be like for Yahweh?

David wants his prayer to be like incense before Yahweh and his lifted hands to be like the evening sacrifice.

Psalms 141:3

ULT

³ Yahweh, place a guard over my mouth; guard the door of my lips.

UST

³ Yahweh, do not allow me to say things that are wrong; guard what I say as a sentry guards a door.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 141:4ULT

⁴ Do not let my heart desire any evil thing or participate in sinful activities with men who behave wickedly. May I not eat any of their delicacies.

UST

What does David not want his heart to do?

He wants his heart to not desire any evil thing, or participate in sinful activities with wicked men, and to not eat any of the evil men's delicacies.

Psalms 141:5ULT

⁵ Let a righteous man hit me; it will be a kindness to me. Let him correct me; it will be like oil on my head; may my head not refuse to accept it. But my prayer is always against their wicked deeds.

UST

⁵ It is all right if righteous people strike me or rebuke me because they are trying to act kindly toward me to teach me to do what is right; if they do that, it will be as if someone honored me by anointing my head with olive oil; but I am always praying that you will punish the wicked because of the wicked deeds that they do.

What does David say it will be like if a righteous man hits him?

He says if a righteous man hits him, it will be kindness to him.

What does David say it will be like if a righteous man corrects him?

He says it will be like oil on his head.

Against what does David always pray?

He always prays against the deeds of the wicked people.

Psalms 141:6ULT

⁶ Their leaders will be thrown down from the top of cliffs; they will hear that my own words are pleasant.

UST

⁶ When their rulers are thrown down from the top of rocky cliffs, they will know that what I am saying here is good.

What will happen to the wicked peoples' leaders?

Their leaders will be thrown down from the top of cliffs and hear that David's own words are pleasant.

Psalms 141:7ULT

⁷ They will have to say, "As when one plows and breaks up the ground, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of Sheol."

UST

⁷ They will know one day that their bodies will lie scattered on the ground in the place of the dead, just as one scatters clods of earth when he plows a field.

Who will have to say "As when one plows and breaks up the ground, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of sheol."

The wicked people will have to say, "As when one plows and breaks up the ground, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of sheol."

Psalms 141:8ULT

⁸ Surely my eyes are on you, Yahweh, Lord; in you I take refuge; do not leave my soul defenseless.

UST

⁸ But Yahweh God, I continue to request that you help me. I ask you to protect me; do not allow me to die now!

On whom are David's eyes?

David's eyes are on Yahweh, the Lord.

From what does David want Yahweh to protect him? (vv8-9)

David wants Yahweh to protect him from the snares that have been laid for him, and from the traps of evildoers.

Psalms 141:9

ULT

⁹ Protect me from the snares that they have laid for me, from the traps of evildoers.

UST

⁹ It is as though people have set traps for me; protect me from falling into those traps. It is as though they have spread nets to catch me; keep me from being caught in those nets.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 141:10

ULT

¹⁰ Let the wicked fall into their own nets while I escape.

UST

¹⁰ I wish that wicked people may fall into the traps they have set to catch me while I escape from them.

What does David want to happen to the wicked?

David wants the wicked to fall into their own nets while he escapes.

Psalms 142Psalms 142:1*ULT

What does David pour out to Yahweh?

David pours out a lament to tell Yahweh his troubles.

Psalms 142:3ULT

³ When my spirit is weak within me, you know my path. In the way that I walk they have hidden a trap for me.

UST

³ When I am very discouraged, you know what I should do. Wherever I walk, it is as though my enemies have hidden traps for me to fall into.

What does Yahweh know when David's spirit is weak?

Yahweh knows David's path when his spirit is weak.

Psalms 142:4ULT

⁴ I look to my right and see that there is no one who cares about me. There is no escape for me; no one cares about my life.

UST

⁴ I look around, but there is no one who sees me, no one who will protect me, and no one who cares about what happens to me.

What does David see when he looks to the right?

David sees that there is no one who cares about him, and there is no escape for him.

Psalms 142:5ULT

⁵ I called out to you, Yahweh; I said, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.

UST

⁵ So Yahweh, I cry out to you to help me; you are the one who protects me; you are all that I need while I am alive.

Who does David say Yahweh was to him?

Yahweh was David's refuge and his portion in the land of the living.

Psalms 142:6ULT

⁶ Listen to my call, for I have been brought very low; rescue me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than I.

UST

⁶ Listen to me while I cry out to you for help because I am very distressed. Rescue me because those who make me suffer are very strong; I cannot escape from them.

Why does David need Yahweh to reduce him from his persecutors?

David asks Yahweh to rescue him from his persecutors because they are stronger than David.

Psalms 142:7

ULT

⁷ Bring my soul out of prison so that I may give thanks to your name. The righteous will gather around me because you have been good to me.”

UST

⁷ Free me from my troubles so that I may thank you. If you do that, when I am with others who live rightly, I will praise you for having been very good to me.

Why will the righteous gather around David?

The righteous will gather around David because Yahweh has been good to him.

Psalms 143

Psalms 143:1

ULT

¹ Hear my prayer, Yahweh; listen to my pleas. Because of your faithfulness and righteousness, answer me!

UST

¹ Yahweh, hear me while I pray to you! Because you are righteous and because you faithfully do what you have promised, listen to what I am pleading for you to do for me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 143:2

ULT

² Do not enter into judgment with your servant, for in your sight no one is righteous.

UST

² I am one who worships you; do not judge me because you do not consider anyone to be completely innocent.

Why does David not want Yahweh to enter judgement against him?

David does not want Yahweh to enter judgement against him because in Yahweh's sight no one is righteous.

Psalms 143:3

ULT

³ The enemy has pursued my soul; he has crushed me to the ground; he has made me to live in darkness like those who have been dead a long time.

UST

³ My enemies have pursued me; they have completely defeated me. It is as though they have put me in a dark prison where I have nothing good to hope for.

What has the enemy done to David?

The enemy has pursued his soul, pushed him down to the ground, and made him live in darkness.

Psalms 143:4ULT

⁴ My spirit is overwhelmed within me; my heart despairs.

UST

⁴ So I am very discouraged in my inner being; I am very dismayed.

What does the enemy cause to happen to David's spirit and his heart?

The enemy causes David's spirit to overwhelm him and his heart to despair.

Psalms 143:5ULT

⁵ I call to mind the old days; I meditate on all your deeds; I reflect on your accomplishments.

UST

David asks Yahweh to cut off David's enemies and destroy all the enemies of David's life.

Psalms 144

Psalms 144:1

ULT

¹ Blessed be Yahweh, my rock, who trains my hands for war and my fingers for battle.

UST

¹ I praise Yahweh, who is like a huge rock on which I am safe! He trains my hands so that I can use them to fight battles; he trains my fingers so that I can shoot arrows in a war.

For what does Yahweh train David's hands for war and his fingers?

Yahweh trains David's hands for war and his fingers for battle.

Psalms 144:2

ULT

² You are my covenant faithfulness and my fortress, my high tower and the one who rescues me, my shield and the one in whom I take refuge, the one who subdues nations under me.

UST

² He is the one who protects me as he promised; he is like a fortress in which I am safe, he protects me as shields protect soldiers, and he gives me refuge. He defeats other nations and then puts them under my power.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Psalms 144:3

ULT

³ Yahweh, what is man that you take notice of him or the son of man that you think about him?

UST

³ Yahweh, we people are so insignificant! Why do you notice us? It is amazing to me that you pay attention to humans.

Who does Yahweh notice and thinks about that surprises David?

David is surprised that Yahweh notices man and the son of man.

Psalms 144:4ULT
