Daniel

Daniel 1

Daniel 1:1

ULT

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.

UST

<sup>1</sup> After King Jehoiakim had been ruling in Judah for almost three years, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem with his army and surrounded the city.

When did Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon come to Jerusalem to surround the city and cut off all supplies to it?

Nebuchadnezzar came to Jerusalem in the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah.

Daniel 1:2

ULT

<sup>2</sup> The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with some of the vessels from the house of God. He brought them to the land of Shinar, to the house of his god, and he placed the vessels in the treasury of his god.

UST

<sup>2</sup> After two years, the Lord allowed Nebuchadnezzar's soldiers to capture Jehoiakim, who was the King of Judah. They also took some of the things that were in the temple of God, and took them to Babylonia. There Nebuchadnezzar put them in the temple of his god.

Who gave Nebuchadnezzar victory over Jehoiakim king of Judah?

The Lord gave Nebuchadnezzar victory over Jehoiakim.

Daniel 1:3*ULT

<sup>3</sup> Then the king commanded Ashpenaz, chief of his officials, to bring in some of the sons of Israel, both of the royal family and of the nobility,

UST

<sup>3</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar commanded Ashpenaz, the chief official in his palace, to bring to him some of the Israeli men whom they had brought to Babylon. He wanted men who belonged to important families, including the family of the king of Judah.

What did the king tell Ashpenaz to do?

The king told Ashpenaz to bring in some of the people of Israel, both of the royal family and of the nobility.

Daniel 1:4*ULT

<sup>4</sup> youths in whom was no blemish, who were good-looking, skillful in all wisdom, endowed with knowledge and understanding learning, and who were competent to stand in the palace of the king, and to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans.

UST

<sup>4</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar wanted only men who were very healthy, handsome, wise, well-educated, capable of learning many things, and suitable for working in the palace. He also wanted to teach them the Babylonian language and have them read things that had been written in the Babylonian language.

What kind of young men did the king want to be brought in to Babylon?

The king wanted young men without blemish, attractive in appearance, skillful in all wisdom, filled with knowledge and understanding, qualified to serve in the king's palace.

Daniel 1:5*ULT

<sup>5</sup> The king assigned them a daily portion of the choice food of the king and of the wine that he drank. They were to be trained for three years, and at the end of which they were to stand before the king.

UST

<sup>5</sup> The king commanded his servants, "Give them the same kind of food and wine that is given to me. Train them for three years. Then they will become my servants."

What were these young men to be fed?

They were to be fed a daily portion of the king's delicacies and some of the king's wine.

Daniel 1:6*ULT

<sup>6</sup> Among these were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, some of the sons of Judah.

UST

<sup>6</sup> Among the young Israeli men who were chosen were me, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, who all came from Judah.

What was the name of some of these young men from Israel and what names were they given by the chief official? (vv6-7)

The names of some of these young men and the names given to them by the chief official were: Daniel called Belteshazzar, Hananiah called Shadrach, Mishael called Meshach, and Azariah called Abednego.

Daniel 1:7*ULT

<sup>7</sup> The chief of the officials gave them names: Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

UST

<sup>7</sup> But Ashpenaz gave us Babylonian names. The name he gave to me was Belteshazzar, the name he gave to Hananiah was Shadrach, the name he gave to Mishael was Meshach, and the name he gave to Azariah was Abednego.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 1:8*ULT

<sup>8</sup> But Daniel resolved in his heart that he would not defile himself with the choice food of the king or with the wine that he drank. So he asked permission from the chief of the officials that he might not defile himself.

UST

<sup>8</sup> But I decided that I would not eat the kind of food that the king ate, or drink the wine that he drank, because that would make me ritually defiled. So I asked Ashpenaz to allow me to eat and drink other things.

What did Daniel intend in his mind?

Daniel intended in his mind that he would not pollute himself with the king's delicacies or the king's wine.

Daniel 1:9*ULT

<sup>9</sup> Now God gave Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the chief of the officials.

UST

<sup>9</sup> God had caused Ashpenaz to greatly respect me,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 1:10*ULT

<sup>10</sup> The chief of the officials said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your food and your drink; for why should he see your faces looking worse than the youths who are of your own age? Then you would endanger my head with the king."

UST

<sup>10</sup> but he was worried about what I suggested. He said, "My master, the king, has commanded that you eat the kinds of food and drink that he does. If you eat other things and as a result you become more thin and pale than the other young men who are your age, he will order his soldiers to cut off my head because of what you have done!"

How did the chief official respond when Daniel asked him for permission not to pollute himself with the king's delicacies and wine?

The chief official told Daniel that he was afraid of the king, that the king had commanded what food and drink Daniel should have and that the king might have the chief official's head if the king saw Daniel looking worse than the other young men of Daniel's own age.

Daniel 1:11*ULT

<sup>11</sup> Then Daniel said to the steward whom the chief of the officials had assigned over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

UST

<sup>11</sup> Ashpenaz had ordered a guard to watch me, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

What did Daniel ask of the steward who had been assigned over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah? (vv11-13)

Daniel asked the steward to test them for ten days by giving them only vegetables to eat and water to drink and at the end of ten days to compare them with the other young men who ate the king's delicacies and then to treat them based of what he saw.

Daniel 1:12*ULT

<sup>12</sup> "Please test your servants for ten days, and let us be given some vegetables to eat and water to drink.

UST

<sup>12</sup> So I said to this guard: " Please test us for ten days. During that time give us only vegetables to eat and water to drink.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 1:13*ULT

<sup>13</sup> Then let our appearance be observed in your presence and the appearance of the youths who eat the choice food of the king, and deal with your servants according to what you see."

UST

<sup>13</sup> After ten days, see how we look, and see how the other young men look, the ones who are eating the kind of food that the king eats. Then you can decide about what food you will let us eat."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 1:14*ULT

<sup>14</sup> So he listened to them in this matter, and he tested them for ten days.

UST

<sup>14</sup> The guard agreed to do what I suggested, and he tested us like that for ten days.

After the steward agreed to the test, what did he observe after ten days when he compared Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah to the other young men? (vv14-15)

The steward observed that the appearance of Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah was more healthy, and that they were better nourished than all the young men who ate the king's delicacies.

Daniel 1:15*ULT

<sup>15</sup> At the end of ten days their appearance appeared better, and they were fatter in flesh than all the youths who ate the choice food of the king.

UST

<sup>15</sup> After ten days, he saw that I and my three friends looked to be more healthy than the young men who had been eating the food that the king wanted them to eat.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 1:16*ULT

<sup>16</sup> So the steward took away their choice food and the wine they were to drink and gave them vegetables.

UST

<sup>16</sup> So after that, the guard gave us only vegetables to eat; he did not give us the king's special food and wine.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 1:17*ULT

<sup>17</sup> As for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and insight in all literature and wisdom, and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

UST

<sup>17</sup> And God gave to us four young men wisdom and the ability to study many things that Babylonians had written and studied. And he also gave to me the ability to understand the meaning of visions and dreams.

What did God give to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah?

God gave them knowledge and insight in all literature and wisdom, and Daniel could understand all kinds of visions and dreams.

Daniel 1:18*ULT

<sup>18</sup> At the end of the time, when the king had commanded to bring them in, the chief of the officials brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

UST

<sup>18</sup> When those three years that the king had set for training us young men from Judah were ended, Ashpenaz brought all of us to King Nebuchadnezzar.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 1:19*ULT

<sup>19</sup> The king spoke with them, and among all of them none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Therefore they stood before the king.

UST

<sup>19</sup> The king talked with each of us, and realized that none of the other young men were as capable as I, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah were. So we four became the king's special advisors.

What did the king find when he spoke with the whole group of young men? (vv19-20)

The king found that there were none to compare with Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. In every question of wisdom and knowledge that the king asked them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and those who claimed to speak with the dead, who were in his entire kingdom.

Daniel 1:20*ULT

<sup>20</sup> In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters, who were in his entire kingdom.

UST

<sup>20</sup> In all important matters which the king inquired of us, he found that what we four men advised was ten times as good as what all the magicians and sorcerers in his kingdom advised.

UST

<sup>4</sup> The men who studied the stars replied to the king, speaking in the Aramaic language. They said, "King Nebuchadnezzar, we hope that you will live a long time! Tell us what you dreamed, and then we will tell you what it means!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:5*ULT

<sup>5</sup> The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "The word from me is firm. If you do not make known the dream to me and its interpretation, you will be torn limb from limb and your houses made a rubbish heap.

UST

<sup>5</sup> But the king replied to them, "I have firmly decided that you must tell me the dream, and also tell me what it means. If you do not do that, I will order my soldiers to cut you into pieces, and to cause your houses to become only piles of stones!"

What did the king specifically want the wise men to do?

UST

<sup>8</sup> The king replied, "I know that you are just trying to get more time, because you know that I will do to you what I said that I would do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:9*ULT

<sup>9</sup> that if you do not make the dream known to me, there is only one sentence for you. For you have agreed together to speak lying and corrupt words before me until the times change. So then, tell me the dream, and I will know that you can show me its interpretation."

UST

<sup>9</sup> If you do not tell me what I dreamed, you will be punished. I think that you have all agreed to tell me lies and other wicked things, because you hope that I will change my mind. But tell me the dream, and then I will know that you can also tell me what it means."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:10*ULT

UST

<sup>10</sup> The men who studied the stars replied to the king, "There is no one on the earth who can do what you ask! There is no king, even a great and mighty king, who has ever asked his men who work magic or his fortune-tellers or men who study the stars to do something like that!

Who did the wise men say could do what the king asked concerning his dream? (vv10-11)

The wise men said that there was not a man on earth who could meet the king's demand, only the gods could do that.

Daniel 2:11*ULT

<sup>11</sup> The thing that the king demands is difficult, and there is no one else who can show it to the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

UST

<sup>11</sup> What you are asking us to do is impossible. Only the gods can tell you what you dreamed, and they do not live among us!"

After the wise men's reply to Nebuchadnezzar, what did the king decree?

The king decreed that all those known for their wisdom were to be put to death.

Daniel 2:14*ULT

<sup>14</sup> Then Daniel replied with prudence and discretion to Arioch the captain of the guard of the king, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:16*ULT

<sup>16</sup> Then Daniel went in and requested of the king that he would give him time so that he might show the interpretation to the king.

<sup>18</sup> so that they might seek mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery so that Daniel and his companions might not be destroyed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

UST

<sup>18</sup> I urged them to ask God, who lives in heaven, to act mercifully toward us by telling us the secret meaning of what the king dreamed, in order that we and the other wise men in Babylon would not be executed.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:19*ULT

<sup>19</sup> Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven

UST

<sup>19</sup> And that night God gave to me a vision in which he revealed the secret. Then I praised God,

What did Daniel do after the secret was revealed to him?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:21*ULT

<sup>21</sup> He changes the times and seasons; he removes kings and sets up kings. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.

UST

<sup>21</sup> He determines what events will happen through the years. He removes some kings and gives their authority to new kings. He gives wisdom to some, and people become wise. He is the one who causes people to become wise and enables those who study to understand many things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:22*ULT

<sup>22</sup> He reveals the deep and hidden things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him.

UST

<sup>22</sup> He reveals things that are very mysterious; he is surrounded by light but he knows things that are hidden as though they were in the darkness.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:23*ULT

<sup>23</sup> O God of my fathers, I thank you and praise you for the wisdom and power you have given to me. Now you have made known to me what we asked of you, for you have made known to us the matter that concerns the king."

UST

<sup>23</sup> God, whom my ancestors worshiped, I thank you and I praise you, because you have caused me to be wise and made me strong. You have told me what my friends and I asked you to tell us; and you have revealed to us what the king demanded to know."

For what did Daniel thank the God of his ancestors?

Daniel thanked the God of his ancestors for the wisdom and power the God of his ancestors had given him.

Daniel 2:24*ULT

<sup>24</sup> Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said thus to him, "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, and I will show the king the interpretation."

UST

<sup>24</sup> Then I went to Arioch, the man whom the king had appointed to execute the wise men in Babylon. I said to him, "Do not kill those wise men. Take me to the king, and I will tell him what his dream means."

Who did Daniel go see after the secret was revealed to him?

Daniel went in to see Arioch.

What did Daniel tell Arioch?

Daniel told Arioch not to kill the wise men in Babylon. Daniel told Arioch to escort him before the king so Daniel could tell the king the dream's meaning.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:26*ULT

<sup>26</sup> The king said to Daniel (whose name was Belteshazzar), "Are you able to make known to me the dream that I saw and its interpretation?"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

(There are no questions for this verse.)

UST

<sup>29</sup> O King, while you were sleeping, you dreamed about events that will happen in the future. The one who reveals mysteries has shown you what is going to happen.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:30*ULT

<sup>30</sup> As for me, this mystery was revealed to me, not because of any wisdom that I have more than all the living, but in order that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and so that you may know the thoughts of your mind.

UST

<sup>30</sup> And it is not because I am wiser than anyone else on earth that I know the meaning of this mysterious dream. It is because God wanted you to understand what you were thinking.

Daniel 2:34*ULT

<sup>34</sup> You continued looking until a stone was cut out, although not by human hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and it crushed them.

UST

<sup>34</sup> As you watched, something cut a rock from a mountain, but it was not a human who cut it. The rock tumbled down and smashed the feet of the statue, feet that were made of iron and clay. It smashed them to bits.

What happened to the statue the king saw in his dream? (vv34-35)

The king saw a stone cut, but not by human hands. The stone struck the statue's feet and the whole statue shattered into pieces which the wind carried away.

Daniel 2:35*ULT

<sup>35</sup> Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed all at the same time and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors. The wind carried them away so that no trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

UST

<sup>35</sup> Then the rest of the statue collapsed into a big heap of iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold. The pieces of the statue were as small as bits of chaff on the ground where it is threshed, and the wind blew away all the tiny pieces. There was nothing left. But the rock that smashed the statue became a large mountain that covered the whole earth.

What happened to the stone that struck the statue?

The stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

Daniel 2:36*ULT

<sup>36</sup> This was the dream. Now we will tell its interpretation before the king.

UST

<sup>36</sup> That was what you dreamed. Now I will tell you what it means.

Daniel 2:37*ULT

<sup>37</sup> You, O king, are the king of kings to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength, and the glory;

UST

<sup>37</sup> You are a king who rules over many other kings. The God who rules in heaven has caused you to rule over them and has given you great power and has honored you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:38*ULT

<sup>38</sup> and wherever the sons of men dwell, the animals of the fields and the birds of the heavens, he has given them into your hand, and he has made you rule over them all. You are the head of gold.

UST

<sup>38</sup> He has caused you to be the ruler over all people, and even the animals and birds are controlled by you. So the head of the statue represents you.

Who was the head of gold?

King Nebuchadnezzar was the head of gold.

Daniel 2:39*ULT

<sup>39</sup> After you will arise another kingdom inferior to you, then another third kingdom of bronze, which will rule over all the earth.

UST

<sup>39</sup> But after your kingdom ends, there will be another great kingdom, but it will not be as great as yours. The silver parts of the statue represent that kingdom. Then there will be a third great kingdom whose king will rule over the whole earth. The bronze parts of the statue represent that kingdom.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:40*ULT

<sup>40</sup> Then there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron, because iron crushes and shatters all things. And like iron that breaks into pieces, it will crush and break all these in pieces.

UST

<sup>40</sup> After that kingdom ends, there will be a fourth great kingdom. The iron parts of the statue represent that kingdom. The army of that kingdom will smash the previous kingdoms, just like iron smashes everything that it strikes.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:41*ULT

<sup>41</sup> And as you saw the feet and toes, partly of the clay of a potter and partly of iron, it will be a divided kingdom; some of the firmness of iron will be in it, just as you saw iron mixed with the soft clay.

UST

<sup>41</sup> The feet and toes of the statue that you saw, that were a mixture of iron and clay, indicate that the kingdom they represent will later be divided.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:42*ULT

<sup>42</sup> As the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle.

UST

<sup>42</sup> Some parts of that kingdom will be as strong as iron, but some parts will not remain together, just as iron and clay do not stick together.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:43*ULT

<sup>43</sup> As you saw the iron mixed with soft clay, so they will mix with one another in the seed of men; but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.

UST

<sup>43</sup> The mixture of iron and clay in the statue shows also that the rulers of those kingdoms that separate from each other will try to form alliances with each other as a result of members of the royal families of these kingdoms marrying each other. But that will not succeed, just as iron and clay do not stick together.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 2:44*ULT

<sup>44</sup> In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will the kingdom be left to another people. It will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms, and it will stand forever.

UST

<sup>44</sup> But while those kings are ruling, God who rules in heaven will establish a kingdom that will never end. No one will ever defeat its king. He will completely destroy all those kingdoms, but his kingdom will remain forever.

What will the God of heaven do in the days of the kingdom that is partly iron and partly clay?

In those days the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed or conquered by another people.

Daniel 2:45*ULT

<sup>45</sup> Just as you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain by no human hands and that it crushed the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the great God has made known to the king what will happen after this. The dream is true and its interpretation is trustworthy."

UST

<sup>45</sup> That is the meaning of the rock that something cut from the mountain, the rock that will crush to tiny bits the statue that is made of iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold. O king, the great God has shown you what will truly happen in the future. And you can trust what I told you about the meaning of the dream."

UST

<sup>47</sup> The king said to Daniel, "Your God has enabled you to tell me the meaning of this dream, so now I truly know that your God is greater than all the other gods, and King over all other kings. He reveals secrets; he makes known mysteries no one else could know."

UST

What did Nebuchadnezzar do after Daniel made a request of the king?

UST

<sup>28</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise the God whom Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego worship! He sent one of his angels to rescue these three men who worship him and trust in him. <sup>26</sup> This is what those words mean: 'Mene' means 'numbered.' That means that God has been counting the days that you will rule, and he has decided that you will not rule anymore.

What was the meaning of the writing on the plaster wall? (vv26-28)

The meaning was as follows: God has numbered Belshazzar's kingdom and brought it to an end. Belshazzar is weighed in the scales and found lacking. Belshazzar's kingdom is divided and is given to the Medes and Persians.

Daniel 6

Daniel 6:1

ULT

<sup>1</sup> It pleased Darius to appoint over the kingdom 120 satraps, who would be throughout the whole kingdom.

UST

<sup>1</sup> King Darius decided to divide his kingdom into 120 provinces. He appointed a governor to rule each province.

Who did Darius appoint over the kingdom? (vv1-2)

He appointed 120 provincial governors with three chief administrators over them.

Daniel 6:2

ULT

<sup>2</sup> Over them were three high officials, of whom Daniel was one, to whom these satraps should give account, so that the king might suffer no loss.

UST

<sup>2</sup> He also appointed me and two other men to be administrators, to supervise the governors and to be sure that they did the king's work properly, in order that the king would not have to worry.

Who was one of the three chief administrators?

Daniel was one of the three chief administrators.

Why were the three chief administrators appointed?

They were appointed to supervise the provincial governors, so that the king should suffer no loss.

Daniel 6:3

ULT

<sup>3</sup> Then this Daniel became distinguished above the high officials and satraps because an extraordinary spirit was in him, and the king planned to appoint him over the whole kingdom.

UST

<sup>3</sup> I soon showed that I was more capable to do the work better than all the other administrators and the governors. Because of that, the king planned to appoint me to be in charge of the entire empire.

Who was the king planning to put over the whole kingdom?

The king planned to put Daniel over the whole kingdom.

Daniel 6:4*ULT

<sup>4</sup> Then the high officials and the satraps were seeking to find a ground for accusation against Daniel with regard to the kingdom, but they were not able to find any ground for accusation or corruption because he was faithful, and no negligence or corruption was found in him.

UST

<sup>4</sup> Then, the other administrators and the governors became jealous. So they began to search to find something that they could criticize about the way I was working for the king. But I always did my work faithfully and honestly, and was never lazy. So they could not find anything to criticize.

Why could the other chief administrators and provincial governors find no corruption, no failure in his duty, no mistakes and no negligence in Daniel's work for the kingdom?

They could find none of these things because Daniel was faithful.

Daniel 6:5*ULT

<sup>5</sup> Then these men said, "We will not find any ground for accusation against this Daniel unless we find something against him with regard to the law of his God."

UST

<sup>5</sup> They concluded, "The only way we can find something for which we can criticize Daniel will be something concerning the laws that his god has given him."

What was the only area of his life that the other chief administrators and provincial governors think they might find something to complain against Daniel?

They thought they might find something against Daniel regarding the law of his God.

Daniel 6:6*ULT

<sup>6</sup> Then these high officials and satraps went as a group to the king and said to him as follows, "O King Darius, live forever!"

UST

<sup>6</sup> So the administrators and governors went as one group to the king and said, "Your Majesty, we wish that you will live a long time!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 6:7*ULT

<sup>7</sup> All the high officials of the kingdom, the prefects, and the satraps, the counselors, and the governors have consulted together that the king should establish a statute and enforce an injunction, that whoever makes a petition to any god or man for thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be thrown into the den of lions.

UST

<sup>7</sup> We administrators and governors and district governors and advisors and other officials have all agreed that you should make a law that everyone must obey. We want you to command that for the next thirty days people may pray only to you. If anyone prays to anyone else, either to a human or to a god, he must be thrown into a pit of lions.

What did the provincial governors and the other chief administrators advise King Darius to do?

They advised Darius to issue a decree and enforce it that whoever made a petition to any god or man except King Darius for thirty days, that person had to be thrown into a den of lions.

Daniel 6:8*ULT

<sup>8</sup> Now, O king, establish the injunction and sign the document so that it may not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which may not be revoked."

UST

<sup>8</sup> And because laws made by our governments of Media and Persia cannot be changed, we want you, the head of our government, to sign it."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 6:9*ULT

<sup>9</sup> Therefore king Darius signed the document and injunction.

UST

<sup>9</sup> So King Darius wrote the law and signed it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 6:10*ULT

<sup>10</sup> Now when Daniel knew that the document had been signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his roof chamber toward Jerusalem), and he continued kneeling on his knees three times a day, praying and giving thanks before his God, as he had been doing previously.

UST

<sup>10</sup> But when I found out that the king had written and signed that law, I went home. I knelt down in my upstairs room and prayed. I looked toward Jerusalem, and the windows were open with the result that everyone could see me while I was praying. I prayed three times each day, just as I always did, thanking God.

What did Daniel do after he learned that the decree had been issued and the document signed into law?

Daniel went into his house, got down on his knees and prayed giving thanks to God as he had done before.

Daniel 6:11*ULT

<sup>11</sup> Then these men went as a group and found Daniel making petition and imploring favor before his God.

UST

<sup>11</sup> The officials went together to my house and they saw me praying and requesting God to help me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 6:12*ULT

<sup>12</sup> Then they approached and spoke before the king about the injunction of the king: "Did you not sign an injunction that any man who makes a petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, must be thrown into the den of lions?" The king answered and said, "The matter is certain, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which may not be revoked."

UST

<sup>12</sup> So they returned to the king and said to him, "Do you remember that you wrote a law stating that for the next thirty days people may pray only to you, and if anyone prays to anyone else, either to a human or to a god, he will be thrown into a pit of lions?" The king replied, "Yes, that is the law that I wrote. It is a law of our governments of Media and Persia, which cannot be canceled."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 6:13*ULT

<sup>13</sup> Then they answered and said before the king, "Daniel, who is one of the people of the exile from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the injunction that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day."

UST

<sup>13</sup> Then they said to the king, "That man Daniel, one of the men who were brought from Judah, is not paying any attention to you or the law that you signed. He prays to his god three times each day!"

What did the men who plotted against Daniel do when they saw Daniel make requests and seek help from God?

Those men went to the king and told him that Daniel paid no attention to the king or his decree and that Daniel prayed to God three times a day.

Daniel 6:14*ULT

<sup>14</sup> Then the king, when he heard the matter, was greatly distressed, and he set his mind on Daniel to deliver him; and until the sun went down he kept exerting himself to rescue him.

UST

<sup>14</sup> When the king heard that, he was very distressed. He tried to find a way to save me. All the rest of the day he tried to think of a way to rescue me.

What did the king do when he heard Daniel had disobeyed the king's decree?

The king became terribly distressed and he applied his mind to rescue Daniel from his ruling.

Daniel 6:15*ULT

<sup>15</sup> Then these men went as a group to the king and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no injunction or statute that the king establishes can be changed."

UST

<sup>15</sup> In the evening, many of the officials went together to the king and said, "Your Majesty, you know that our governments of Media and Persia have declared that no law that the king signs can be canceled. So Daniel must be thrown to the lions!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 6:16*ULT

<sup>16</sup> Then the king gave an order, and Daniel was brought in and thrown into the den of lions. The king responded and said to Daniel, "Your God, whom you serve continually, may he deliver you."

UST

<sup>16</sup> So the king gave the order, and his servants brought me and threw me into a pit where the lions were. Before they threw me in, the king said to me, "I hope that your God, whom you worship regularly, will rescue you!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 6:17*ULT

<sup>17</sup> A stone was brought and laid over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his nobles so that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel.

UST

<sup>17</sup> They rolled a huge stone across the entrance to the pit. Then the king fastened a string across the entrance and put wax at each end, and stamped the wax with the seal from his ring and the seals of the rings of his officials, in order that no one could secretly rescue me.

After Daniel was thrown into the lion's den, what did the king do? (vv17-18)

The king sealed the entrance to the den with his own signet ring. He then went to the palace and fasted through the night and did not sleep.

Daniel 6:18*ULT

<sup>18</sup> Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting. No entertainment was brought before him, and his sleep fled from him.

UST

<sup>18</sup> Then the king returned to his palace. That night he refused to eat any food. He would not allow any one to entertain him because he did not want to be happy, with the result that he would forget about me. And that night he was unable to sleep because he was worried about me.

UST

<sup>20</sup> When he came near it, he was very worried. He called out, "Daniel, you who serve the all-powerful God! Was your God, whom you worship regularly, able to save you from the lions?"

The next day after Daniel was thrown into the lions den, when the king went to the den, what did he ask Daniel?

The king asked Daniel if the God whom Daniel served continually had been able to save him from the lions.

How did Daniel answer the king? (vv21-22)

Daniel said to the king, "King, live forever! My God has sent his messenger and has shut the lion's mouths, and they have not hurt me. For I was found blameless before him and also before you, king, and I have done you no harm."

Daniel 6:22*ULT

<sup>22</sup> My God sent his angel and shut the mouths of the lions, and they have not hurt me, because I was found blameless before him and also before you, O king, I have done no harm."

UST

<sup>22</sup> Yes, my God sent his angel to shut the lions' mouths, in order that they would not harm me! He did that because he knows that I have done nothing that he thinks is wrong. And, Your Majesty, I never did anything wrong to you!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 6:23*ULT

<sup>23</sup> Then the king was exceedingly glad, and gave an order for Daniel to be taken up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

UST

<sup>23</sup> The king was extremely happy, and he commanded his servants to lift me out of the pit. When they did that, they saw that the lions had not wounded me at all. God had protected me because I trusted in him.

He will oppress the holy people of the most high. He will try to change the festivals and the law. He will rule over these things for one year, two years, and half a year but his royal power would be taken away to be consumed and destroyed at the end.

Daniel 7:26*ULT

<sup>26</sup> But the court will sit, and his dominion will be taken away, to be consumed and destroyed to the end.

UST

<sup>1</sup> During the third year that Belshazzar was the King of Babylonia, I had another vision.

When did Daniel have his second vision?

Daniel had his second vision in the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar.

Daniel 8:2

ULT

<sup>2</sup> I saw in the vision, and as I was looking, that I was in Susa, the citadel, which is in the province of Elam. And I saw in the vision that I was beside the Ulai Canal.

Where was Daniel in his vision?

Daniel was in the fortified city of Susa in the province of Elam beside the Ulai Canal.

Daniel 8:3

ULT

<sup>3</sup> Then I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, a ram standing beside the canal. It had two horns and both horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last.

UST

<sup>3</sup> I looked up and saw a ram that was standing alongside the canal. It had two long horns, but the one that grew last was longer than the one that grew first.

What were the two animals Daniel saw in this vision?

Daniel saw a ram and a male goat in this vision.

What were the ram's two horns like?

One of the ram's horns was longer than the other but the shorter horn grew longer than the previously longer horn.

Daniel 8:4*ULT

<sup>4</sup> I saw the ram charging westward, and northward, and southward; no animal could stand before him. There was no one to rescue out of his hand. He did as he pleased and magnified himself.

UST

<sup>4</sup> The ram butted away with its horns everything that was west and everything that was north and everything that was south of it. There were no other animals that were able to oppose it, and none that could rescue other animals from its power. The ram did whatever it wanted to do and became very powerful.

How powerful was the ram?

No animal could stand before the ram. None could be rescued from the ram's hand. He did whatever he wanted, and he became great.

Daniel 8:5*ULT

<sup>5</sup> As I was observing, behold, a male goat was coming from the west across the face of the whole earth, without touching the ground. The goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes.

UST

<sup>5</sup> While I was thinking about what I had seen, in the vision I saw a goat come from the west. It ran across the land very quickly, with the result that it seemed that its feet did not touch the ground. This goat had one very large horn between its eyes.

What kind of horns did the goat have?

The goat only had one large horn between his eyes.

Daniel 8:6*ULT

<sup>6</sup> It was very angry, and it ran straight toward at the ram that I had seen previously, the ram that was standing alongside the canal.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 8:7*ULT

<sup>7</sup> I saw him come beside the ram, and he was enraged at him, and he struck the ram and shattered his two horns. The ram had no strength to stand before him. So he cast him down to the ground and trampled on him. There was no one who could rescue the ram from his power.

UST

<sup>7</sup> The goat struck the ram furiously and broke off its two horns, with the result that the ram had no power to defend itself. So the goat knocked the ram down and trampled on it. No one could rescue the ram from the goat's power.

What did the goat do to the ram?

The goat hit the ram and broke off its two horns, knocked the ram down to the ground and trampled on him.

Daniel 8:8*ULT

<sup>8</sup> Then the male goat magnified himself exceedingly. But when he was mighty, the great horn was broken, and in its place there came up four conspicuous horns toward the four winds of heaven.

UST

What happened to one of the goat's four horns?

Out of one of the horns grew another horn, little at first, but which became very large in the south, in the east, and in the glorious land of Israel.

Daniel 8:10*ULT

<sup>10</sup> It grew up to the host of heaven. Some of the host and some of the stars it threw down to the earth and trampled on them.

UST

<sup>10</sup> The man who was represented by that horn became very strong, with the result that he attacked some of the soldiers of the army of heaven, and the stars in the sky which represented God's people. He threw some of them to the ground and trampled on them.

What did this horn do when it became large?

It became so large that it engaged in war with the army of heaven.

Daniel 8:11*ULT

<sup>11</sup> It magnified itself to be as great as the Prince of the host. It took away from him the regular burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was overthrown.

UST

<sup>11</sup> He defied himself to be greater than the leader of the army of heaven, and prevented priests from offering sacrifices to him. He also defiled the temple.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 8:12*ULT

<sup>12</sup> Because of transgression, the host will be given over to it along with the regular burnt offering. It will throw truth to the ground, and it will act and prosper.

UST

<sup>12</sup> Then God's people allowed the man who was represented by that horn to control them, with the result that they sinned by offering sacrifices to him. And he threw to the ground the laws that contained the true religion. Everything that he did was successful.

Why will the army be given over to the goat's horn and the burnt offering stopped?

This will happen because of rebellion.

Daniel 8:13*ULT

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard a holy one speaking and another holy one said to that particular one who was speaking, "For how long is the vision about the regular burnt offering, the transgression that makes desolate, the giving over of the sanctuary and the host to be trampled on?"

UST

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard two angels who were talking to each other. One of them asked, "How long will the things that were in this vision continue? How long will the man who rebels against God and causes the temple to be defiled be able to prevent priests from offering sacrifices? How long will he trample on the temple and on the armies of heaven?"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 8:14*ULT

<sup>14</sup> He said to me, "For 2300 evenings and mornings. Then the sanctuary will be put right."

How long will these things last, this vision about the burnt offering, the sin that brings destruction, the handing over of the sanctuary, and heaven's army being trampled on?

It will last for 2,300 evenings and mornings.

What will happen after the 2,300 evenings and mornings?

The sanctuary will be put right.

Daniel 8:15*ULT

<sup>15</sup> When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it. And behold, standing before me was one having the appearance of a man.

<sup>15</sup> While I, Daniel, was trying to understand what the vision meant, suddenly an angel who resembled a man stood in front of me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 8:16*ULT

<sup>16</sup> I heard the voice of a man between the banks of the Ulai, and he called out and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision."

Who was told to help Daniel understand the vision?

Gabriel was told to help Daniel understand the vision.

Daniel 8:17*ULT

<sup>17</sup> So he came near where I stood. When he came, I was frightened and fell on my face. But he said to me, "Understand, O son of man, that the vision is for the time of the end."

UST

<sup>17</sup> So Gabriel came and stood beside me. I was very terrified, with the result that I fell onto the ground. But he said to me, "You human, it is necessary for you to understand that the events that you saw in the vision will occur near the time that the world will end."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 8:18*ULT

<sup>18</sup> Now while he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground. Then he touched me and made me stand on my feet.

For when was the vision? What time did it concern?

The vision was for the time of wrath. It concerned the fixed time for the end.

Daniel 8:20*ULT

Daniel 8:23*ULT

<sup>23</sup> At the latter end of their rule, when the transgressors have reached their limit, a king of bold face, one who understands riddles, will arise.

UST

<sup>23</sup> The people in those kingdoms will become very wicked, with the result that it will be necessary for them to be punished. But near the time when those kingdoms will end, one of those kingdoms will have a king who will be very proud. He will also be very fierce and very deceitful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Daniel 8:24*ULT

<sup>24</sup> His power will be great—but not by his own power. He will destroy to an extraordinary degree; he will succeed in what he does. He will destroy mighty men and the holy people.

UST

<sup>24</sup> He will become very powerful, but it will not be because of what he himself does. He will terribly destroy things in many places, and he will succeed in doing everything that he wants to. He will get rid of many powerful men, and also some of God's people.

What will this intelligent, grim-face king do? (vv24-25)

He will cause widespread destruction and succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy powerful people, people who are holy. He will make deceit prosper under his hand. He will rise up against the king of kings.

Daniel 8:25*ULT

UST

<sup>25</sup> Because he is very cunning, he will succeed by doing things that deceive many people. He will be proud of himself. He will get rid of many people when they think that they are safe. UST

<sup>25</sup> You need to know and understand this: There will be 49 years from the time that the king commands that Jerusalem should be rebuilt until the leader that God has chosen will come. UST

<sup>26</sup> After those 434 years, the leader whom God has appointed will be killed when it seems that he will have accomplished nothing unjustly. That will be the beginning of the war and destruction that God has decreed will happen.

When will the anointed one be destroyed?

He will be destroyed after the sixty-two sevens of years.

Daniel 9:27*ULT

UST

<sup>27</sup> That ruler will make a strong agreement with many people. He will promise to do for seven years what he has said in that agreement. But when that time is half finished, he will prevent priests from giving any more offerings and sacrifices to God.
