²⁷ And they come to Jerusalem again, and as he is walking around in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders come to him.

UST

²⁷ Jesus and his apprentices arrived in the temple courtyard in Jerusalem again. While Jesus was walking there, a group consisting of chief priests, some men who taught the Jewish laws, and elders came to him.

In the temple, what did the chief priests, scribes, and elders want to know from Jesus?
(vv27-28)

They wanted to know by what authority he did the things he was doing.

Mark 11:28ULT

²⁸ And they were saying to him, "By what authority do you do these {things}, and who gave you this authority, so that you might do these {things}?"

UST

²⁸ They said to him, "By what authority are you doing these things? Who authorized you to do things like those you did here yesterday?"

UST

²⁹ Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question. If you answer me, then I will tell you who authorized me to do those things.

What question did Jesus ask the chief priests, scribes, and elders? (vv29-30)

Mark 11:30ULT

³⁰ The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me."

Mark 11:31ULT

³¹ And they began to discuss between themselves, saying, "What should we say? If we would say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Because of what then did you not believe him?' ^[2]

UST

³¹ They debated among themselves as to what they should answer. They said to each other, "If we say that it was God who authorized him, he will say to us, 'Then you should have believed what John said!'

Why did the chief priests, scribes, and elders not want to answer that John's baptism was from heaven?

They did not want to give this answer because Jesus would ask why they didn't believe John.

Mark 11:32ULT

³² But {if} we say, 'From men,?' (They were afraid of the crowd, for they all held that John really was a prophet.)

UST

³² On the other hand, if we say that it was people who authorized John, then what will happen to us?" They were afraid to say that about where John got his authority, because they knew that the people would be very angry with them. They knew that all the people truly believed that John was a prophet whom God had sent.

Why did the chief priests, scribes, and elders not want to answer that John's baptism was from men?

They did not want to give this answer because they feared the people, who all believed that John was a prophet.

Mark 11:33ULT

³³ And answering Jesus, they say, "We do not know." And Jesus says to them, "Neither do I say to you by what authority I do these {things}."

11:26 ^[1]

11:31 ^[2] but the best manuscripts include it.

UST

³³ So they answered Jesus, "We do not know who authorized John to baptize people." Then Jesus said to them, "Because you did not answer my question, I will not tell you who authorized me to do those things here yesterday."

UST

¹⁴ After they arrived, one of them said to Jesus, "Teacher, we know that you teach only what is true. We also know that you are not influenced by people's opinions. Instead, you truthfully teach all people what God wants them to do; you do not show regard for their social position. {So tell us what you think about this matter;} Is it right that we pay taxes to the Roman government, or not? Should we pay the taxes, or should we not pay them?"

What question did the Pharisees and some of the Herodians ask Jesus?

They asked him if it was lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not.

UST

¹⁹ “Teacher, Moses instructed us Jews that if a man who has no children dies, his brother should marry the dead man’s widow.
