UST

<sup>3</sup> He owned 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 1,000 oxen, and 500 donkeys. He also had many servants. Job was richer than anyone else who lived in the area east of the Jordan River.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 1:4*ULT

<sup>4</sup> And his sons went and made a feast, a man in {his} house on his day, and they sent and called their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

<sup>4</sup> Job's sons often held feasts in their homes. Whenever any of them held a feast, he would invite all of his brothers and sisters to share the meal with him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 1:5*ULT

<sup>5</sup> And it happened that when the days of the feast had gone around, Job sent and consecrated them. He arose early in the morning and offered burnt offerings {according to} the number of all of them. For Job said, "Perhaps my sons have sinned and blessed God in their hearts." Thus Job did all the days.

UST

<sup>5</sup> After all of the sons had each held a feast, Job would gather his children together. He would ask Yahweh to cleanse them from any action they might have committed during their feasting that would have made them unacceptable to him. He would get up early in the morning, kill animals, and burn them on the altar {as sacrifices}, one for each {of his children}. {For} Job {always said}, "Perhaps my children have sinned by saying something evil about God in their thoughts. {If they have, I need to ask God to forgive them.}" Job did this after each time his sons had all hosted feasts.

After Job's sons held feasts with their brothers and sisters in their houses, what would Job do?
