He described her as a garden spring, a well of fresh water, and streams flowing down from Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:16ULT

¹⁶ Awake, north wind, and come, south wind; blow on my garden and let its spices flow. Let my beloved come to his garden and eat its delicious fruit.

UST

¹⁶ I want the north wind and the south wind to come, and blow on me, so that the fragrance of my body will spread through the air and attract the man I love. You who I love, I am like your garden. I want you to come and enjoy my body like someone comes into a garden and enjoys eating the delicious fruit that grows there. The man speaking to the woman

On what does the young woman want the north and south winds to blow and why?

She wanted the north and south winds to blow on her garden so that its spices would give off their fragrance.

What did she want her beloved to do and to eat?

She wanted her beloved to come into his garden and to eat some of its choice fruit.

Song of Solomon 5

Song of Solomon 5:1

ULT

¹ I have come to my garden, my sister, {my} bride; I have plucked my myrrh with my spice. I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk. Eat, friends; drink and be drunk {with} love.

UST

¹ You who are as dear to me as a sister, my bride, I am ready to go away with you now and enjoy making love with you. It will be delightful, delightful like when I gather my myrrh with my other spices, as wonderful as eating my honey and honeycomb, and as enjoyable as drinking my wine with milk. The women of Jerusalem speaking to the newly married couple Friends, enjoy making love; fully enjoy all that you do with each other. The woman speaking to the women of Jerusalem

Where had Solomon come?

Solomon had come into his garden.

Song of Solomon 5:2

ULT

² I {am} asleep, but my heart {is} awake. A sound—my beloved is knocking: “Open to me, my sister, my darling, my dove, my perfect one, because my head {is} full of dew, my hair {is full of} the drops of the night.”

UST

² I was asleep, and I had a dream. In it I heard the man I love knocking at the door. He said, “You who are as dear to me as a sister, my dear one, you who are like a dove, my flawless one. Open the door for me because my hair is wet from the dew, from the mist that has fallen during the night.”

Of what was Solomon’s bride dreaming?

She was dreaming of her beloved’s knocking and talking.

Song of Solomon 5:3

ULT

³ “I have taken off my robe; how will I put it on? I have washed my feet; how could I get them dirty?”

UST

³ But I had already taken my robe off; I did not want to put it on again to open the door. I had already washed my feet; so I did not want them to get dirty again by answering the door.

What had Solomon’s beloved already done?

She had already taken off her robe and washed her feet.

Song of Solomon 5:4ULT

⁴ My beloved stretched out his hand through the hole and my belly roared concerning him.

UST

⁴ The man I love put his hand through the opening in the door, and I was thrilled in my inner being that he was there.

Where had Solomon put his hand?

Solomon had put his hand through the opening of the door latch.

Song of Solomon 5:5ULT

⁵ I got myself up to open to my beloved and my hands dripped {with} myrrh and my fingers {dripped with} flowing myrrh on the hands of the bolt.

UST

⁵ I got up to open the door for the man I love, but first I put much myrrh on my hands. The liquid myrrh was dripping from my fingers while I unlatched the bolt.

With what were the bride's hands dipping when she opened the door?

Her hands were dripping with moist myrrh.

Song of Solomon 5:6ULT

⁶ I myself opened to my beloved, but my beloved had turned and gone. My soul went out because he departed. I searched for him, but I did not find him; I called him, but he did not answer me.

UST

⁶ I opened the door for the man I love, but he had left. He had turned away and was gone! I greatly despaired because he was not there. I searched for him, but I could not find him. I called out for him, but he did not answer.

What did the bride find when she opened the door and how did she feel?

She found that her beloved had turned and gone, so her heart sank and she became sad.

Song of Solomon 5:7ULT

⁷ The guards going about in the city found me. They beat me and wounded me; they lifted my shawl from me, the guards of the walls.

UST

⁷ The city watchmen saw me while they were walking around the city. They struck me and bruised me because they thought I was a prostitute; those watchmen who were guarding the city walls took my shawl that was on me.

What did the watchmen do when they found Solomon's bride?

They struck and wounded her and took away her veil.

Song of Solomon 5:8ULT

⁸ I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, what will you declare to him? {Declare to him} that sick {with} love {am} I.

UST

⁸ You young women of Jerusalem, if you see the man I love, what will you tell him? I want you to solemnly promise me that if you see him, you will tell him that the way he loves me makes me feel lovesick. The women of Jerusalem speaking to the woman

What did the bride ask the women of Jerusalem to promise?

She asked the women of Jerusalem to promise that if they found her beloved they would tell him she was lovesick for him.

How did the young woman's beloved make her feel?

The young woman's beloved made her feel sick with love.

Song of Solomon 5:9ULT

⁹ What {is} your beloved more than {another} beloved, most beautiful among women? What {is} your beloved more than {another} beloved, that thus you adjure us?

UST

⁹ You who are the most beautiful of all the women, why do you think that the man you love is better than other men? In what way is he better than other men that would cause you to want us to solemnly promise that we will tell him that? The woman speaking to the women of Jerusalem

What did the young women ask of the bride?

They asked her how and why her beloved is better than another beloved.

Song of Solomon 5:10ULT

She described his mouth as most sweet and that Solomon was most desirable.

Song of Solomon 6

Song of Solomon 6:1

ULT

¹ Where did he go, your beloved, most beautiful woman among women? Where did he turn, your beloved, and let us seek him with you?

UST

¹ You who are the most beautiful of the women, where has the man you love gone? Tell us which direction he went, and we will go with you to search for him. The young woman speaking to herself

What questions do the women of Jerusalem ask of the young woman?

They ask her where her beloved has gone and in what direction has he gone?

For what did the young women want to seek?

The young women wanted to seek for the young woman's beloved.

Song of Solomon 6:2

ULT

² My beloved went down to his garden, to the beds of spices, in order to graze in the gardens and in order to glean lilies.

UST

² The man who I love has come to me. I am like his garden where pleasant spices grow. He has come to enjoy my body as a gazelle enjoys grazing in a garden and as a person enjoys picking lilies.

What does the young woman say her beloved was doing?

The young woman said he was in his spice gardens to graze in the garden and gather lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:3ULT

³ I {belong} to my beloved, and my beloved {belongs} to me; he grazes among the lilies.

UST

³ I belong to the man I love, and he belongs to me. He feels pleasure when he is near me, as a gazelle does when eating among lilies. The man speaking

To whom did the young woman and her lover belong?

The young woman and her lover belonged to each other.

Where did the young woman's lover graze?

The young woman's lover grazed among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:4ULT

⁴ You {are} beautiful, my darling, like Tirzah, lovely like Jerusalem, awe-inspiring like bannered armies.

UST

⁴ My dear one, you are beautiful. You are as beautiful as the city of Tirzah and as lovely as the city of Jerusalem. You are as exciting and majestic to look at as an army with banners.

What two cities did the woman's lover use to describe her?

He described her as two cities, Tirzah and Jerusalem.

How did her beloved feel about her?

He felt that she was completely beautiful and lovely, but also terrifying.

Song of Solomon 6:5ULT

⁵ Turn your eyes away from me, because they excite me. Your hair {is} like a flock of goats that hop down from Gilead.

UST

⁵ Stop looking at me like that, because your eyes excite me very much. Your long black hair moves from side to side like a flock of black goats moving down the slopes of Mount Gilead.

Why did the woman's lover want her to turn her eyes away from him?

The woman's lover wanted her to turn her eyes away from him because her eyes excited him.

How did the woman's lover describe her hair?

UST

³ Your breasts are as delicate as two young twin deer.

How did Solomon describe his lover's two breasts?

Solomon described her two breasts like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

Song of Solomon 7:4ULT

⁴ Your neck {is} like a tower of ivory. Your eyes {are} pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bath Rabbim. Your nose {is} like the tower of Lebanon, looking {to the} face of Damascus.

UST

⁴ Your neck is long and beautiful like a tower made of ivory. Your eyes sparkle like the pools of water in the city of Heshbon, near the Bath Rabbim gate. Your nose is beautiful like the tower in Lebanon that faces Damascus.

How did Solomon describe his lover's neck, eyes, and nose?

Solomon described her neck as an ivory tower, her eyes like a pool, and her nose like the tower in Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 7:5ULT

⁵ Your head on you {is} like Carmel, and the loose hair of your head {is} like purple; a king is held captive in the tresses.

UST

⁵ Your head is majestic like Mount Carmel. Your long hair is shiny and black; it is as though I, your king, am captured by your tresses.

How did Solomon describe his lover's head and hair?

Solomon described her head like Mount Carmel and her hair as dark.

Song of Solomon 7:6ULT

⁶ How you are beautiful and how you are lovely— love with delights!

UST

⁶ You are very beautiful and very lovely! Loving you is very delightful!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Song of Solomon 7:7ULT

⁷ This is your height—it is like a palm tree, and your breasts {like its} clusters.

UST

⁷ You are tall like a palm tree, and your breasts are full and round like date clusters that hang from palm trees.

How did Solomon describe his lover and her breasts?

He described her height as a date palm tree and her breasts as clusters of grapes.

Song of Solomon 7:8ULT

⁸ I said, "I will go up {the} palm tree; I will grab hold of its fruit stalks." And, please, let your breasts be like the clusters of the vine, and {let the} smell of your nose {be} like apples,

UST

⁸ I said to myself, "I will climb that palm tree and take hold of those clusters of dates." I want your breasts to be like sweet clusters of grapes that I can enjoy; I want your breath to be like the sweet fragrance of apples.

What did he also want his lover's breasts and breath to be like?

He also wanted his lover's breasts to be like grape clusters and her breath to be sweet like the smell of an apple.

Song of Solomon 7:9ULT

⁹ and {let} your mouth {be} like the best wine. Going down for my beloved smoothly, gliding over the lips of those who sleep.

UST

⁹ I want your kisses to be like very good wine. The woman speaking When I kiss you, the man who I love, I want my kisses to be as if you are freely drinking wine, and as if wine is flowing over our lips as we sleep together.

What did he want his lover's mouth to be like?

He wanted her mouth to be like the best wine.

Song of Solomon 7:10ULT

¹⁰ I {belong} to my beloved and his longing {is} for me.

UST

¹⁰ I belong to the man I love, and he desires me.

To whom did the young woman belong and whom did he desire?

The young woman belonged to her beloved and her beloved desired her.

Song of Solomon 7:11ULT

¹¹ Come, my beloved, let us go out {to} the fields; let us spend the night in the villages.

UST

¹¹ You who I love, come with me and let us go to the countryside, and sleep in one of the villages.

Where did the young woman want her beloved to go with her?

She wanted him to go into the countryside to spend the night in the villages.

Song of Solomon 7:12ULT

¹² Let us go early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine has budded, {if} the blossoms have opened, {if} the pomegranates have bloomed. There I will give my love to you.

UST

¹² And let us go early to the vineyards to see if the grapevines have budded and if there are blossoms on them that have opened, and to see if the pomegranate trees are blooming, and there I will have sexual relations with you.

Why did she want her beloved to rise early?

She wanted him to rise early to see if the vines in the vineyards had budded and the pomegranates had begun blooming.

What did she say she would give her beloved when they got to the vineyards?

She said she would give him her love.

Song of Solomon 7:13

ULT

¹³ The mandrakes give off a scent, and over our doors {are} all choice fruits, new ones and also old ones. My beloved, I have stored {these} up for you.

UST

¹³ The mandrake plants are producing a fragrant scent, and the pleasures we will experience as we express our love for each other are like choice fruits which have been stored, new ones and old ones. You who I love, I have reserved my love for you as if I were storing choice fruit.

What did she say the mandrakes would do?

She said the mandrakes would give off their fragrance.

What did she say was at the door where she and her lover were staying?

She said that at the door where they were staying there were all sorts of choice fruits, new and old, that she had stored up for him.

Song of Solomon 8

Song of Solomon 8:1

ULT

¹ Who will give you like a brother to me, who nursed at the breasts of my mother? If I found you outside, I would kiss you. Yes, they would not despise me.

UST

¹ I wish that you were like my brother, my own brother, who nursed from my mother's breasts when he was a baby. Because then, whenever I met you outside the house, I could kiss you, and no one would criticize me.

What did the woman wish that her lover was like and why?

She wished he were like her brother so that she could kiss her lover at any time and no one would despise her.

Song of Solomon 8:2

ULT

² I would lead you; I would bring you to the house of my mother, she {who} taught me. I would make you drink from the wine of spice, from the juice of my pomegranate.

UST

² I would like to bring you to my mother's house, to where my mother, who taught me so many things, lives. I would like to take you to my mother's house so I could have sexual relations with you there. Having sexual relations with you would be as if I were giving you spiced wine to drink, as if I were giving you sweet pomegranate wine.

Where would the woman have liked to bring her lover?

She would have liked to bring him to her mother's house.

Song of Solomon 8:3

³ His left hand {is} under my head and his right hand embraces me.

UST

³ The man I love has placed his left arm under my head and he holds me close with his right arm. The woman speaking to the women of Jerusalem

What were her lover's left and right hands doing?

His left hand was holding her head and his right hand was hugging her.

Song of Solomon 8:4ULT

⁴ I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, do not awaken and do not stir love until it desires.

UST

⁴ You young women of Jerusalem, I want you to solemnly promise me, that you will not cause people to love romantically until it is the right time. The women of Jerusalem speaking

What did the woman want Jerusalem's women to promise?

The woman wanted Jerusalem's women to promise that they would not stir up love before its proper time.

Song of Solomon 8:5ULT

⁵ Who {is} that coming up from the wilderness, leaning against her beloved? Under the apple tree I awakened you; there your mother was in labor {with} you; there she was in labor; she gave birth {to} you.

UST

⁵ Look at this woman who is coming up from the wilderness, the woman who is leaning on the man she loves! The young woman speaking to her lover I woke you up when you were under the apple tree at the place where your mother was in labor with you, the place where you were born.

What did the women of Jerusalem ask?

They asked who was coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved.

What did the young woman tell her lover when she woke him under the apple tree?

She told him that his mother had conceived and given birth to him under the apple tree.

Song of Solomon 8:6ULT

⁶ Place me like the seal on your heart, like the seal on your arm, because strong like death {is} love; hard as Sheol {is} jealousy. Its flashes {are} flashes of fire, the flame of Yahweh.

UST

⁶ Keep me close to you, like a seal on your heart, or like a bracelet on your arm. Our love for each other is as powerful as death; it is as strong as the grave. It is as though our love for each other bursts into flames and burns like a hot fire.

What did the young woman want her lover to do and why?

She wanted him to set her as a seal over his heart, because love is as strong as death, and jealousy flashes like a hot flame.

Song of Solomon 8:7ULT

⁷ Many waters are not able to quench {this} love and rivers will not drown it. If a man will give all {the} wealth of his house in exchange for love, they will utterly despise him.

UST

⁷ Nothing can stop us from loving each other, not even a flood. If a man tried to cause a woman to love him by saying he would give her everything that is in his house, she would refuse. The young woman's brothers speaking among themselves

What couldn't stop love?

Floods of water could put out the fire of love.

Song of Solomon 8:8ULT

⁸ A sister {belongs} to us—a little one— and breasts there are not for her. What will we do with our sister on the day when it is spoken for her?

UST

⁸ We have a younger sister, and her breasts are not large yet. So this is what we should do for her on the day that we promise some young man that he can marry her:

What did the woman's brothers say about their little sister?

They said that her breasts had not yet grown and that they wondered what they would do for her when she was promised in marriage.

Song of Solomon 8:9ULT

⁹ If she {is} a wall, we will build on her a battlement of silver. And if she {is} a door, we will lay siege against her with boards of cedar.

UST

⁹ If her chest is as flat as a wall, we will decorate it by putting silver jewels that are like towers on her. If she is as flat as a door, we will decorate her with bits of cedar wood. The young woman speaking to herself

What would the woman's brothers do if she were a wall?

If she were a wall, they would build a tower of silver on her.

What would the woman's brothers do if she were a door?

If she were a door, they would adorn her with boards of cedar.

Song of Solomon 8:10ULT

¹⁰ I {was} a wall and my breasts {were} like towers; then I was in his eyes like a person who finds peace.

UST

¹⁰ My chest was previously flat like a wall, but now my breasts are big like towers. So I am delightful to my beloved. The young woman speaking to himself

How did the young woman describe herself?

She described herself as a wall with breasts like fortress towers and completely mature.

Song of Solomon 8:11ULT

¹¹ {There} was a vineyard for Solomon in Baal Hamon. He gave the vineyard to keepers. Each person brought in exchange for its fruit a thousand {pieces of} silver.

UST

¹¹ King Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon, and he rented it to people for them to farm it. He required each one to pay him one thousand pieces of silver each year for the grapes that they harvested.

What did the young woman say that Solomon did with his vineyard at Baal Hamon?

Solomon leased his vineyard to those who would take care of it.

Song of Solomon 8:12ULT

¹² My vineyard that {belongs} to me {is} to my face. The thousand {belong} to you, Solomon, and the two hundred {belong} to the people who kept its fruit.

UST

¹² But my body is like my own vineyard, and you, my lover whom I call "Solomon," I am giving it to you. You do not need to pay me a thousand pieces of silver to enjoy my body, but I will give two hundred pieces of silver to those who take care of me. The woman's lover speaking to her

What does the young woman say about her own vineyard and those who maintained it?

She said the 1000 shekels that it brought belonged to Solomon and that those who maintained it would get 200 shekels.

Song of Solomon 8:13

ULT

¹³ {You} who reside in the gardens; companions are listening intently for your voice— let me hear it.

UST

¹³ You are staying in the gardens, my friends are listening to your voice; so allow me to hear it, too! The young woman speaking to her lover

What did the woman's lover say to her who lived in the gardens about what his friends, as well as he, wanted to hear?

He said that his friends, as well as he, wanted to be the ones to hear her voice.

Song of Solomon 8:14

ULT

¹⁴ Flee away, my beloved, and resemble a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of the balsam tree.

UST

¹⁴ You who love me, come to me quickly; run to me like a gazelle or young deer, because I am as delightful as hills of spices.

What did the young woman want her beloved to do and be like?

She wanted her beloved to hurry and to be like a deer.
