UST

¹⁰ You who are as dear to me as a sister, my bride, your love for me is delightful! It is more delightful than wine! The fragrance of your perfume is more pleasing than any spice!

What was the smell of her perfume better than?

The smell of her perfume was better than any spice.

Song of Solomon 4:11ULT

¹¹ Your lips drip {with} nectar, {my} bride; honey and milk {are} under your tongue and the smell of your garments {is} like the smell of Lebanon.

UST

¹¹ When you kiss me, my bride, it is as delightful as eating honey. Your kisses are as sweet as milk mixed with honey. The aroma of your clothes is like the aroma of cedar trees in Lebanon.

With what did he say his bride's lips dripped and what was under her tongue?

He said his bride's lips dripped with nectar and she had honey and milk under her tongue.

What did the woman's clothes smell like?

Her clothes smelled like the fragrance of Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:12ULT

¹² A locked garden {is} my sister, {my} bride, a locked spring, a sealed fountain.

UST

¹² You who are as dear to me as a sister, my bride, you are like a garden that the owner keeps locked so that other men cannot enter it; you are like a spring or a fountain that is covered so that others may not drink from it.

What kind of garden and what kind of spring did Solomon say his sister, his bride, was like?

Solomon said she was like a garden locked up and a spring that was sealed.

Song of Solomon 4:13ULT

Song of Solomon 5

Song of Solomon 5:1

ULT

¹ I have come to my garden, my sister, {my} bride; I have plucked my myrrh with my spice. I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk. Eat, friends; drink, and be drunk, beloved ones.

UST

¹ You who are as dear to me as a sister, my bride, I am ready to go away with you now and enjoy making love with you. It will be delightful, delightful like when I gather my myrrh with my other spices, as wonderful as eating my honey and honeycomb, and as enjoyable as drinking my wine with milk. The women of Jerusalem speaking to the newly married couple Friends, enjoy making love; fully enjoy all that you do with each other. The woman speaking to the women of Jerusalem

Where had Solomon come?

Solomon had come into his garden.

Song of Solomon 5:2

ULT

² I {am} asleep, but my heart {is} awake. A sound—my beloved is knocking: “Open to me, my sister, my darling, my dove, my perfect one, because my head {is} full of dew, my hair {is full of} the drops of the night.”

UST

² I was asleep, and I had a dream. In it I heard the man I love knocking at the door. He said, “You who are as dear to me as a sister, my dear one, you who are like a dove, my flawless one. Open the door for me because my hair is wet from the dew, from the mist that has fallen during the night.”

Of what was Solomon’s bride dreaming?

She was dreaming of her beloved’s knocking and talking.

Song of Solomon 5:3ULT

³ "I have taken off my robe; how will I put it on? I have washed my feet; how could I get them dirty?"

UST

³ But I had already taken my robe off; I did not want to put it on again to open the door. I had already washed my feet; so I did not want them to get dirty again by answering the door.

What had Solomon's beloved already done?

She had already taken off her robe and washed her feet.

Song of Solomon 5:4ULT

⁴ My beloved stretched out his hand through the hole and my belly roared concerning him.

UST

How did Solomon describe his lover's two breasts?

Solomon described her two breasts like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

Song of Solomon 7:4ULT

⁴ Your neck {is} like a tower of ivory. Your eyes {are} pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bath Rabbim. Your nose {is} like the tower of Lebanon, looking {to the} face of Damascus.

UST

⁴ Your neck is long and beautiful, like a tower made of ivory. Your eyes sparkle like the pools of water in the city of Heshbon, near the Bath Rabbim gate. Your nose is beautiful like the tower in Lebanon that faces Damascus.

How did Solomon describe his lover's neck, eyes, and nose?

Solomon described her neck as an ivory tower, her eyes like a pool, and her nose like the tower in Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 7:5ULT

⁵ Your head on you {is} like Carmel, and the loose hair of your head {is} like purple; a king is held captive in the tresses.

UST

⁵ Your head is majestic like Mount Carmel. Your long hair is shiny and black; it is as though I, your king, am captured by your tresses.

How did Solomon describe his lover's head and hair?

Solomon described her head like Mount Carmel and her hair as dark.

Song of Solomon 7:6ULT

⁶ How you are beautiful and how you are lovely— love with delights! ^[1]

UST

⁶ You are very beautiful and very lovely! Loving you is very delightful!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Song of Solomon 7:7ULT

⁷ This is your height—it is like a palm tree, and your breasts {like its} clusters.

UST

⁷ You are tall like a palm tree, and your breasts are full and round like date clusters that hang from palm trees.

How did Solomon describe his lover and her breasts?

He described her height as a date palm tree and her breasts as clusters of grapes.

Song of Solomon 7:8ULT

⁸ I said, "I will go up {the} palm tree; I will grab hold of its fruit stalks." And, please, let your breasts be like the clusters of the vine, and {let the} smell of your nose {be} like apples,

UST

⁸ I said to myself, "I will climb that palm tree and take hold of those clusters of dates." I want your breasts to be like sweet bunches of grapes that I can enjoy; I want your breath to be like the sweet fragrance of apples.

What did he also want his lover's breasts and breath to be like?

He also wanted his lover's breasts to be like grape clusters and her breath to be sweet like the smell of an apple.

Song of Solomon 7:9ULT

⁹ and {let} your mouth {be} like the best wine. Going down for my beloved smoothly, gliding over the lips of those who sleep. ^[2]

UST

⁹ I want your kisses to be like very good wine. The woman speaking to the man she loves When I kiss you, the man whom I love, I want my kisses to be as if you are freely drinking wine, and as if wine is flowing over our lips as we sleep together.

What did he want his lover's mouth to be like?

He wanted her mouth to be like the best wine.

Song of Solomon 7:10ULT

¹⁰ I {belong} to my beloved and his longing {is} for me.

UST

Song of Solomon 7:11ULT

¹¹ Come, my beloved, let us go out {to} the fields; let us spend the night in the villages.

UST

¹¹ You whom I love, come with me, and let us go to the countryside, and sleep in one of the villages.

Where did the young woman want her beloved to go with her?

She wanted him to go into the countryside to spend the night in the villages.

Song of Solomon 7:12ULT

¹² Let us go early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine has budded, {if} the blossoms have opened, {if} the pomegranates have bloomed. There I will give my love to you.

UST

¹² And let us go early to the vineyards to see if the grapevines have budded and if there are blossoms on them that have opened, and to see if the pomegranate trees are blooming, and there I will have sexual relations with you.

Why did she want her beloved to rise early?

She wanted him to rise early to see if the vines in the vineyards had budded and the pomegranates had begun blooming.

What did she say she would give her beloved when they got to the vineyards?

She said she would give him her love.

Song of Solomon 7:13ULT

¹³ The mandrakes give off a scent, and over our doors {are} all choice fruits, new ones and also old ones. My beloved, I have stored {these} up for you.

7:6 ^[1]

7:9 ^[2]

UST

¹³ The mandrake plants are producing a fragrant scent, and the pleasures we will experience as we express our love for each other will be like choice fruits that have been stored, new ones and old ones. You whom I love, I have reserved my love for you as if I were storing choice fruit.

What did she say the mandrakes would do?

She said the mandrakes would give off their fragrance.

What did she say was at the door where she and her lover were staying?

She said that at the door where they were staying there were all sorts of choice fruits, new and old, that she had stored up for him.

Song of Solomon 8

Song of Solomon 8:1

ULT

¹ Who will give you like a brother to me, who nursed at the breasts of my mother? If I found you outside, I would kiss you. Yes, they would not despise me.

UST

¹ I wish that you were like my brother, my own brother, who nursed from my mother's breasts when he was a baby. Because then, whenever I met you outside the house, I could kiss you, and no one would criticize me.

What did the woman wish that her lover was like and why?

She wished he were like her brother so that she could kiss her lover at any time and no one would despise her.

Song of Solomon 8:2

ULT

² I would lead you; I would bring you to the house of my mother, she {who} taught me. I would make you drink from the wine of spice, from the juice of my pomegranate.

UST

² I would like to bring you to my mother's house, to where my mother, who taught me so many things, lives. I would like to take you to my mother's house so I could have sexual relations with you there. Having sexual relations with you would be as if I were giving you spiced wine to drink, as if I were giving you sweet pomegranate wine.

Where would the woman have liked to bring her lover?

She would have liked to bring him to her mother's house.

Song of Solomon 8:3

What were her lover's left and right hands doing?

His left hand was holding her head and his right hand was hugging her.

Song of Solomon 8:4ULT

⁴ I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, do not awaken and do not stir love until it desires.

UST

⁴ You young women of Jerusalem, I want you to solemnly promise me, that you will not cause people to love romantically until it is the right time. The women of Jerusalem speaking

What did the woman want Jerusalem's women to promise?

The woman wanted Jerusalem's women to promise that they would not stir up love before its proper time.

Song of Solomon 8:5ULT

⁵ Who {is} that coming up from the wilderness, leaning against her beloved? Under the apple tree I awakened you; there your mother was in labor {with} you; there she was in labor; she gave birth {to} you.

UST

⁵ Look at this woman who is coming up from the wilderness, the woman who is leaning on the man she loves! The young woman speaking to the man she loves I woke you up when you were under the apple tree at the place where your mother was in labor with you, the place where you were born.

What did the women of Jerusalem ask?

They asked who was coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved.

What did the young woman tell her lover when she woke him under the apple tree?

She told him that his mother had conceived and given birth to him under the apple tree.

Song of Solomon 8:6ULT

⁶ Place me like the seal on your heart, like the seal on your arm, because strong like death {is} love; unyielding like Sheol {is} jealousy. Its flashes {are} flashes of fire, the flame of Yah.

UST

⁶ Keep me close to you, like a seal that rests against your chest as it hangs down from its cord, or like a seal worn on your bracelet. The strength with which I love you is as powerful as the strength of death; it is as strong as the grave. It is as though our love for each other bursts into flames, and as though our love is the lightening that Yahweh creates.

What did the young woman want her lover to do and why?

She wanted him to set her as a seal over his heart, because love is as strong as death, and jealousy flashes like a hot flame.

Song of Solomon 8:7ULT

⁷ Many waters are not able to quench {this} love and rivers will not drown it. If a man would give all {the} wealth of his house in exchange for love, they would utterly despise it.

UST

⁷ We love each other so deeply, that how we love each other can be compared to a strong fire that no river or flood can put out. If a man tried to cause a woman to love him by saying he would give her everything that he owns, she would refuse. The young woman's brothers speaking among themselves

What couldn't stop love?

Floods of water could put out the fire of love.

Song of Solomon 8:8ULT

⁸ A sister {belongs} to us—a little one— and breasts there are not for her. What will we do for our sister on the day when it is spoken for her?

UST

⁸ We have a young sister, and her breasts are not large yet. What should we do for her at the time that we promise some young man that he can marry her?

What did the woman's brothers say about their little sister?

They said that her breasts had not yet grown and that they wondered what they would do for her when she was promised in marriage.

Song of Solomon 8:9ULT

⁹ If she {is} a wall, we will build on her a battlement of silver. And if she {is} a door, we will enclose over her boards of cedar.

UST

⁹ We will protect her virginity, as if we were soldiers building a battlement of silver to protect a wall. We will protect her virginity, like we would protect a door from intruders by covering it with boards made of cedar wood. The woman speaking

What would the woman's brothers do if she were a wall?

If she were a wall, they would build a tower of silver on her.

What would the woman's brothers do if she were a door?

If she were a door, they would adorn her with boards of cedar.

Song of Solomon 8:10ULT

¹⁰ I {was} a wall and my breasts {are} like towers; then I was in his eyes like a person who finds peace.

UST

¹⁰ Like a wall that allows no one to enter, I have remained a virgin and let no man come into me; but now my breasts are large like towers. So I am delightful to my beloved.

How did the young woman describe herself?

She described herself as a wall with breasts like fortress towers and completely mature.

Song of Solomon 8:11ULT

¹¹ {There} was a vineyard for Solomon in Baal Hamon. He gave the vineyard to keepers. Each person brought in exchange for its fruit a thousand {pieces of} silver.

UST

¹¹ King Solomon had a vineyard at a place called Baal Hamon, and he rented it to people for them to farm it. He required each one to pay him one thousand pieces of silver each year for the grapes that they harvested.

What did the young woman say that Solomon did with his vineyard at Baal Hamon?

Solomon leased his vineyard to those who would take care of it.

Song of Solomon 8:12ULT

¹² My vineyard that {belongs} to me {is} before me. The thousand {belong} to you, Solomon, and the two hundred {belong} to the people who {are} keepers of its fruit.

UST

¹² But my body is like my own vineyard, which is mine to give to the man whom I choose. Solomon can keep the one thousand pieces of silver that he receives from renting his vineyard, and the farmers who take care of it for him can keep the two hundred pieces of silver he pays them. The man speaking to the woman he loves

What does the young woman say about her own vineyard and those who maintained it?

She said the 1000 shekels that it brought belonged to Solomon and that those who maintained it would get 200 shekels.

Song of Solomon 8:13ULT

¹³ {You} who reside in the gardens; companions are listening intently for your voice— let me hear it.

UST

¹³ You, the woman I love, who are staying in the gardens, my friends are eagerly listening so that they can hear you speak; speak to me! The young woman speaking to the man she loves

What did the woman's lover say to her who lived in the gardens about what his friends, as well as he, wanted to hear?

He said that his friends, as well as he, wanted to be the ones to hear her voice.

Song of Solomon 8:14ULT

¹⁴ Flee, my beloved, and resemble a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

UST

¹⁴ You who I love, come to me quickly! Run to me like a gazelle or a young male deer runs across mountains where spices grow.

What did the young woman want her beloved to do and be like?

She wanted her beloved to hurry and to be like a deer.
