Mark

ULT

<sup>1</sup> The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. <sup>[1]</sup>

UST

<sup>1</sup> I am going to tell you the good news about Jesus, the Messiah. He is the Son of God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:2

ULT

<sup>2</sup> just as it has been written in Isaiah the prophet, "Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way;

UST

<sup>2</sup> This story began as Isaiah, who spoke for God, wrote that it would: "Listen, I am sending my messenger ahead of you. He will make things ready for when you come.

What did the prophet Isaiah predict would happen before the Lord came? (vv2-3)

Isaiah predicted that God would send a messenger, a voice of someone calling out in the wilderness, to prepare the way of the Lord.

Mark 1:3

<sup>3</sup> a voice of one calling out in the wilderness, 'Make ready the way of the Lord; make his paths straight.'"

UST

<sup>3</sup> In the desolate place, someone will be calling out {to the people}: 'Prepare yourselves to receive the Lord! Make yourselves ready for when he comes!'"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:4*ULT

<sup>4</sup> John came, the one baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins.

UST

<sup>4</sup> Now there was a man whose name was John. He baptized people in a desolate area. He proclaimed that people should allow him to baptize them. That would show that they were going to stop doing what was wrong. That way, God would forgive their sins.

What did John come preaching?

John came preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Mark 1:5*ULT

<sup>5</sup> And all the Judea region and all the Jerusalemites were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

UST

<sup>5</sup> Many people who lived in the region of Judea and many people who lived in the city of Jerusalem often went to listen to John. Many of these people agreed that they had sinned. Then, John baptized them in the Jordan River.

What did the people do as they were baptized by John?

The people confessed their sins as they were baptized by John.

Mark 1:6*ULT

<sup>6</sup> And John was clothed with camel hair and a leather belt around his waist, and {he was} eating locusts and wild honey.

UST

<sup>6</sup> John wore rough clothes that he made out of camel's hair. He fastened around his waist a belt that he made from animal skin. He ate grasshoppers and honey that he found in that desolate area.

What did John eat?

John ate locusts and wild honey.

Mark 1:7*ULT

<sup>7</sup> And he was proclaiming, saying, "One more powerful than I is coming after me, of whom I am not worthy, stooping down, to untie the strap of his sandals.

UST

<sup>7</sup> He often preached, "Soon you will see someone else who is greater than I am. It is not appropriate for me even to kneel down and help him take off his sandals.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:8*ULT

<sup>8</sup> I baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

UST

<sup>8</sup> I use water to baptize you. However, he will give you the Holy Spirit, which will be like baptizing you."

With what did John say the one coming after him would baptize?

John said the one coming after him would baptize with the Holy Spirit.

Mark 1:9*ULT

<sup>9</sup> And it happened that in those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and he was baptized by John in the Jordan.

UST

<sup>9</sup> Now while John was preaching and baptizing people, Jesus traveled from the town of Nazareth, which was in the region of Galilee. {He arrived where John was} and had John baptize him in the Jordan River.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:10*ULT

<sup>10</sup> And immediately, coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens being split open and the Spirit coming down on him like a dove.

UST

<sup>10</sup> As soon as John baptized him, Jesus waded out of the Jordan River. Then, he saw God opening the way from heaven. He saw that the Holy Spirit, who looked like a small bird, was descending {from heaven} to him.

What did Jesus see as he came up out of the water after being baptized by John?

After being baptized, Jesus saw the heavens split open and the Spirit descend on him as a dove.

Mark 1:11*ULT

<sup>11</sup> And a voice came out of the heavens, "You are my beloved Son. With you, I am well pleased."

UST

<sup>11</sup> Then God spoke from heaven, "You are my Son, the one whom I love dearly. What you do pleases me."

What did the voice from heaven say after Jesus was baptized?

The voice from heaven said, "You are my beloved Son; I am very pleased with you."

Mark 1:12*ULT

<sup>12</sup> And immediately, the Spirit casts him out into the wilderness.

UST

<sup>12</sup> As soon as that happened, the Holy Spirit sent Jesus into a desolate area.

Who drove Jesus out into the wilderness?

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the wilderness.

Mark 1:13*ULT

<sup>13</sup> And he was in the wilderness 40 days, being tempted by Satan. And he was with the wild animals, and the angels were serving him.

UST

<sup>13</sup> Jesus stayed for 40 days in that desolate area with the animals that lived there. During that time, Satan tried to make Jesus sin. Also, angels took care of Jesus.

How long was Jesus in the wilderness, and what happened to him there?

Jesus was in the wilderness 40 days, and he was tempted by Satan there.

Mark 1:14*ULT

<sup>14</sup> But after John was handed over, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God

UST

<sup>14</sup> Later, after {King Herod Antipas} arrested John, Jesus traveled {back} to the region of Galilee. There, he preached the good news from God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:15*ULT

<sup>15</sup> and saying, "The time has been fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe in the gospel."

UST

<sup>15</sup> He declared, "This is the moment when God is about to establish his kingdom here. Stop doing what is wrong! Trust the good news!"

What message did Jesus preach?

Jesus preached that the kingdom of God was near, and that people must repent and believe in the gospel.

Mark 1:16*ULT

<sup>16</sup> And passing beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, net-casting into the sea, for they were fishermen.

UST

<sup>16</sup> One day, Jesus was walking next to the Sea of Galilee. He saw {a man whose name was} Simon and that man's {younger} brother, {whose name was} Andrew. They earned money by catching and selling fish. {When Jesus saw them,} they were using nets to try to catch fish.

What was the occupation of Simon and Andrew?

Simon and Andrew were fishermen.

Mark 1:17*ULT

<sup>17</sup> And Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men."

UST

<sup>17</sup> Jesus told them, "Come with me and be my apprentices. I will teach you how to gather people {to be my apprentices}, just as you have been gathering fish."

What did Jesus say he would make Simon and Andrew become?

Jesus said he would make Simon and Andrew fishers of men.

<sup>18</sup> And immediately, having left the nets, they followed him.

UST

<sup>18</sup> As soon as {Jesus said that}, they stopped working. They went with him and were his apprentices.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:19*ULT

<sup>19</sup> And having gone on a little farther, he saw James, the {son} of Zebedee, and John, his brother, and they {were} mending the nets in the boat.

UST

<sup>19</sup> Then Jesus walked a short distance {next to the sea}. He saw {a man whose name was} James and that man's {younger} brother, {whose name was} John. They were sons of {a man whose name was} Zebedee. {When Jesus saw them,} they were preparing their fishing tools in a boat.

What was the occupation of James and John?

James and John were fishermen.

Mark 1:20*ULT

<sup>20</sup> And immediately he called them and, having left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, they went away after him.

UST

<sup>20</sup> As soon as he saw them, Jesus commanded them, {"Come with me and be my apprentices."} They got out of the boat and left Zebedee their father with the workers they had hired. They went with Jesus and were his apprentices.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:21*ULT

<sup>21</sup> And they enter into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbaths, having entered into the synagogue, he was teaching.

UST

<sup>21</sup> Jesus, along with Peter, Andrew, James, and John, went to the town of Capernaum. As soon as it was the Jewish day of rest, Jesus visited the Jewish meeting place and instructed {the people who were there}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:22*ULT

<sup>22</sup> And they were astonished at his teaching, for he was teaching them as having authority and not as the scribes.

UST

<sup>22</sup> The way that Jesus taught impressed {the people who were there}. {It impressed them} because Jesus did not teach as the teachers of the Jewish law did. Rather, he taught them like someone whom God had authorized to do so.

Why did Jesus' teaching astonish the people in the synagogue?

Jesus' teaching astonished the people because Jesus taught as one with authority.

Mark 1:23*ULT

<sup>23</sup> And immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out,

UST

<sup>23</sup> As Jesus was instructing people in the Jewish meeting place, a man whom a demon controlled was there. He shouted,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:24*ULT

<sup>24</sup> saying, "What to us and to you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"

UST

<sup>24</sup> "Jesus from the town of Nazareth, leave us alone! You must be here to punish us. I realize who you are. You are the special one whom God has set apart!"

What title did the unclean spirit in the synagogue give Jesus?

The unclean spirit in the synagogue gave Jesus the title of the Holy One of God.

Mark 1:25*ULT

<sup>25</sup> And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silenced and come out from him!"

UST

<sup>25</sup> Then Jesus commanded the demon to stop {controlling the man}. He said, "Be quiet. Leave that man!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:26*ULT

<sup>26</sup> And having convulsed him and having cried out with a loud voice, the unclean spirit went out from him.

UST

<sup>26</sup> The demon shook the man violently and shouted loudly. Then, it left the man.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:27*ULT

<sup>27</sup> And they all were amazed, so that they discussed among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching according to authority! And he commands the unclean spirits, and they obey him!"

UST

<sup>27</sup> {What Jesus had done} impressed all {the people who were in the Jewish meeting place}, and they talked about it with each other. They said, "{What he does} is amazing! He teaches new things as someone whom God has authorized {to do so}. He tells the demons what to do, and they do what he says!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:28*ULT

<sup>28</sup> And the hearing of him immediately went out everywhere into the whole surrounding region of Galilee.

UST

<sup>28</sup> And so, throughout the whole region of Galilee, people kept talking about what Jesus had done.

What happened with the news about Jesus?

The news about Jesus went out everywhere.

Mark 1:29*ULT

<sup>29</sup> And immediately, having come out from the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, along with James and John.

UST

<sup>29</sup> As soon as {Jesus forced the demon out of the man}, he left the Jewish meeting place. He, along with Simon, Andrew, James, and John, went to Simon and Andrew's home.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:30*ULT

<sup>30</sup> Now the mother-in-law of Simon was lying down, being sick with a fever, and immediately they speak to him concerning her.

UST

<sup>30</sup> Meanwhile, Simon's mother-in-law was resting in bed because she had a fever. As soon as {Jesus arrived}, the people there told him that she was sick.

When they went into Simon's house, who did Jesus heal?

When they went into Simon's house, Jesus healed Simon's mother-in-law.

Mark 1:31*ULT

<sup>31</sup> And having approached, he raised her up, having taken hold of her hand, and the fever left her, and she was serving them.

UST

<sup>31</sup> So, Jesus went to her. He took her hand and helped her stand up. Then, she recovered from the fever and offered Jesus and his disciples some food.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:32*ULT

<sup>32</sup> Now evening having come, after the sun {had} set, they were bringing to him all the ones having sickness and the ones possessed by demons.

UST

<sup>32</sup> When it was late in the evening, people brought to Jesus many men and women who were sick or whom demons controlled.

What happened when it was evening? (vv32-34)

When it was evening, the people brought all who were sick or possessed by demons, and Jesus healed them.

<sup>33</sup> And the whole city was gathered together at the door.

UST

<sup>33</sup> In fact, almost everybody in the town of Capernaum assembled outside the door of {Simon and Andrew's home}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:34*ULT

<sup>34</sup> And he healed many having sickness with various diseases and cast out many demons, but he was not permitting the demons to speak, because they knew him.

UST

<sup>34</sup> Jesus cured many people who were sick in many different ways. He also forced demons out of many people. Further, because the demons realized that Jesus was {the Messiah}, he did not allow them to say anything.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:35*ULT

<sup>35</sup> And in the morning, {while it was} still very dark, having gotten up, he went out and went away to a desolate place, and there he was praying.

UST

<sup>35</sup> Jesus woke up early the next morning, before sunrise. He left {the house} and walked to a place where no one lived. He prayed {to God} there.

What did Jesus do before the sun rose?

Before the sun rose, Jesus went out to a solitary place and prayed there.

Mark 1:36*ULT

<sup>36</sup> And Simon and the ones with him pursued him

UST

<sup>36</sup> {When they realized that Jesus was gone}, Simon and other people with him urgently searched for Jesus.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:37*ULT

<sup>37</sup> and found him and say to him, "All are seeking you."

UST

<sup>37</sup> When they found Jesus, they told him, "Almost everybody {in the town of Capernaum} is trying to find you. {We think that you should return there with us.}"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:38*ULT

<sup>38</sup> And he says to them, "Let us go elsewhere, into the surrounding towns, so that I may preach there also, because for this I went out."

UST

<sup>38</sup> Jesus replied, "{I will not return with you.} I need to do what I am here to do. So, we need to visit other towns in this area. That way, I can preach {the good news} in those places too."

What did Jesus tell Simon he had come to do? (vv38-39)

Jesus said that he had come to preach in the surrounding towns.

Mark 1:39*ULT

<sup>39</sup> And he went in all Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out the demons.

UST

<sup>39</sup> So Jesus and his apprentices visited all the towns in the region of Galilee. Jesus preached {the good news} in the Jewish meeting places. Also, he forced demons out of people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:40*ULT

<sup>40</sup> And a leper comes to him, begging him and kneeling down, saying to him, "If you are willing, you are able to make me clean."

UST

<sup>40</sup> One day, a man who had a skin disease approached Jesus. He bowed down before Jesus and urged him, "{Please heal me!} I know that you can heal me if you want to do so."

What attitude did Jesus have toward the leper who begged Jesus to be healed? (vv40-41)

Jesus had pity on the leper and healed him.

Mark 1:41*ULT

<sup>41</sup> And having had compassion, <sup>[2]</sup> having reached out his hand, he touched {him} and says to him, "I am willing. Be clean."

UST

<sup>41</sup> Jesus pitied the man. So, he stretched out his hand and touched the man. Jesus told him, "I want {to heal you}, and I heal you now!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:42*ULT

<sup>42</sup> And immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean.

UST

<sup>42</sup> At that time, Jesus cured the man. He no longer had the skin disease!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:43*ULT

<sup>43</sup> But having strictly warned him, he immediately sent him away.

UST

<sup>43</sup> As soon as {he healed the man}, Jesus commanded him to leave. As he was leaving, Jesus sternly told him,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 1:44*ULT

<sup>44</sup> And he says to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

UST

<sup>44</sup> "Do not tell anyone what just happened. Instead, go and show yourself to a priest {so that he can examine you and see that you no longer have the skin disease}. Also, present what Moses required you to offer to become ceremonially clean again. This will prove to the community {that you no longer have the skin disease}."

What did Jesus tell the leper to do, and why?

Jesus told the leper to go offer the sacrifices according to what Moses commanded. It would serve the community as a testimony that he was healed.

Mark 1:45*ULT

<sup>45</sup> But he, having gone out, began to proclaim much and to report the word, so that he was able no longer to enter into a town openly, but he was out in desolate places, and they were coming to him from all sides.

1:1 <sup>[1]</sup>

1:41 <sup>[2]</sup>

UST

<sup>45</sup> However, after the man left, he frequently told people about how Jesus had healed him. As a result, people from many different places kept approaching Jesus. So, Jesus could no longer walk into any town publicly. Instead, he stayed outside {the towns} in places where no one lived.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 2*Mark 2:1*ULT

<sup>1</sup> And having entered again into Capernaum after {some} days, it was heard that he is in a house.

UST

<sup>1</sup> Sometime later, Jesus returned to the town of Capernaum. Then, people learned that he was in a certain house.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 2:2*ULT

<sup>2</sup> And many were gathered, so that it could no longer receive, not even the {areas} at the door, and he was speaking the word to them.

UST

<sup>2</sup> So, very many people assembled there. {There were so many of them} that there was no room for them inside the house or even outside the door. Jesus preached the good news to them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 2:3*ULT

<sup>3</sup> And they come bringing to him a paralytic, being carried by four men.

UST

<sup>3</sup> Then some people arrived {at the house} where Jesus was. Four of them were carrying a man who could not move.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 2:4*ULT

<sup>4</sup> And not being able to bring {him} to him because of the crowd, they removed the roof where he was, and having dug {it} out, they lower the mat where the paralytic was lying.

UST

<sup>4</sup> However, because of how many people were there, they could not carry the man close to Jesus. So, they went up on the flat roof of the house and dug a hole through it. Then, they lowered the man down as he was lying on his sleeping pad.

What did the four men do who were carrying the paralyzed man?

The men removed the roof of the house and lowered the paralyzed man to Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> And Jesus, having seen their faith, says to the paralytic, "Child, your sins are forgiven."

UST

<sup>5</sup> Jesus perceived that these people believed {that he could heal the man}. So, he said to the man who could not move, "Young man, I forgive you for your sins!"

What did Jesus say to the paralyzed man?

Jesus said, "Child, your sins are forgiven".

Mark 2:6*ULT

<sup>6</sup> But some of the scribes were sitting there and debating in their hearts,

UST

<sup>6</sup> Now some teachers of the Jewish law were there. They were thinking to themselves,

Why did some of the scribes object to what Jesus had said? (vv6-7)

Some of the scribes reasoned that Jesus had blasphemed because only God can forgive sins.

Mark 2:7*ULT

<sup>7</sup> “Why does this one speak in this way? He blasphemes! Who is able to forgive sins except one, God?”

UST

<sup>7</sup> “This man should not be saying that {he forgives sins}. The only one who can forgive sins is God. So, he is insulting God!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 2:8*ULT

<sup>8</sup> And immediately Jesus, having known in his spirit that they are debating in this way within themselves, says to them, “Why are you debating these things in your hearts?”

UST

<sup>8</sup> As soon as {they thought that}, Jesus realized what they were thinking to themselves. He told them, “You should not be thinking to yourselves that {I cannot forgive sins}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 2:9*ULT

<sup>9</sup> Which is easier to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven’ or to say, ‘Get up and take up your mat and walk?’

UST

<sup>9</sup> You may think that it is easy to claim to forgive this man who cannot move for his sins{, since it is difficult to prove whether this has happened}. Similarly, you may think that it is difficult to tell {this man who cannot move} to stand up, carry his sleeping pad, and walk around{, since it is easy to prove whether this has happened}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 2:10*ULT

<sup>10</sup> But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins,"—he says to the paralytic—

UST

<sup>10</sup> However, I want you to know that God has authorized me, the Son of Man, to forgive people on earth for their sins." So, he said to the man who could not move,

How did Jesus demonstrate that he had authority on earth to forgive sins? (vv10-12)

Jesus told the paralyzed man to take up his bed and go to his house, and the man did.

Mark 2:11*ULT

<sup>11</sup> "I say to you, get up, pick up your mat, and go to your house."

UST

<sup>11</sup> "Here is what I want you to do: stand up, carry your sleeping pad, and go home!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 2:12*ULT

<sup>12</sup> And having gotten up and immediately having taken up the mat, he went out before all, so that all were amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw thus."

UST

<sup>12</sup> Then the man stood up! As soon as {he did that}, he carried his sleeping pad and left. Everyone saw him {do those things}, and it impressed all of them. They praised God and declared that they had never seen anything like that before.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 2:13*ULT

<sup>13</sup> And he went out again beside the sea, and all the crowd was coming to him, and he was teaching them.

UST

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus returned to the area next to the Sea of Galilee. A large group of people approached him, and he instructed them.

What was Levi doing when Jesus told Levi to follow him? (vv13-14)

Levi was sitting at the tax-collecting place when Jesus called him.

Mark 2:14*ULT

<sup>14</sup> And passing by, he saw Levi the {son} of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's office, and he says to him, "Follow me." And having gotten up, he followed him.

UST

<sup>14</sup> As Jesus was walking along, he noticed a man whose name was Levi. He was the son of a man whose name was Alphaeus. Levi was sitting in the booth {where the people came to pay him the taxes that the government required}. Jesus said to him, "Come with me and be my apprentice!" So, Levi stood up and went with him as his apprentice.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 2:15*ULT

<sup>15</sup> And it happens {that} he reclined to eat in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners were dining with Jesus and his disciples, for they were many, and they were following him.

UST

<sup>15</sup> Later, Jesus was feasting in Levi's home. Many people who collected taxes and other sinful people feasted with Jesus and his apprentices. All these people went with Jesus as his apprentices.

At Levi's house, what was Jesus doing that offended the Pharisees? (vv15-16)

Jesus was dining with the sinful people and tax collectors.

Mark 2:16*ULT

<sup>16</sup> And the scribes of the Pharisees, having seen that he eats with the sinners and tax collectors, were saying to his disciples, "Does he eat with the tax collectors and sinners?"

UST

<sup>16</sup> Then, some Pharisees who taught the Jewish law noticed that Jesus was eating food with sinful people and people who collected taxes. They told Jesus' apprentices, "He should not be feasting with people who collect taxes and other sinful people."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 2:17*ULT

<sup>17</sup> And having heard, Jesus says to them, "The ones being healthy do not have need of a physician, but the ones having sickness. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

UST

<sup>17</sup> Jesus learned what they said. He told them, "People who are well do not need a doctor. Rather, people who are sick need a doctor. I am here not to invite those who think they are righteous to come to me. Rather, {I invite} those who know that they have sinned {to come to me}."

Who did Jesus say he had come to call?

Jesus said he had come to call sinful people.

Mark 2:18*ULT

<sup>18</sup> And the disciples of John and the Pharisees were fasting, and they come and say to him, "For what reason do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

UST

<sup>18</sup> One day, the Pharisees and the apprentices of John the Baptizer were abstaining from eating in order to please God. Meanwhile, some people visited Jesus. They asked him, "The apprentices of John the Baptizer and the apprentices of the Pharisees are abstaining from eating in order to please God. However, your apprentices do not do so. Why not?"

What question did some people ask Jesus about fasting?

They asked Jesus why his disciples did not fast when John's disciples and the Pharisees' disciples did fast.

Mark 2:19*ULT

<sup>19</sup> And Jesus said to them, "The sons of the bridal chamber are not able to fast while the bridegroom is still with them, are they? As much time as they have the bridegroom with them, they are not able to fast.

UST

<sup>19</sup> Jesus answered, "The friends of the bridegroom do not abstain from eating while the wedding celebration is still going on. Indeed, they continue to eat as long as the wedding celebration continues.

How did Jesus explain why his disciples were not fasting?

Jesus said that while the bridegroom is still with the wedding attendants, they cannot fast.

Mark 2:20*ULT

<sup>20</sup> But days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and in those days, then they will fast.

UST

<sup>20</sup> However, someday the bridegroom will no longer be with his friends. Then they will abstain from eating.

<sup>23</sup> And it happened {that}, on the Sabbaths, he was passing through the grainfields, and his disciples began to make a way, picking the heads of grain.

UST

<sup>23</sup> Later, Jesus {and his apprentices} were walking through grain fields during one of the Jewish days of rest. As the apprentices were walking along, they picked some grain {and ate it}.

What did Jesus' disciples do in some fields on the Sabbath which offended the Pharisees?
(vv23-24)

Jesus' disciples picked heads of grain and ate them on the Sabbath.

Mark 2:24*ULT

<sup>24</sup> And the Pharisees were saying to him, "Behold, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbaths?"

UST

<sup>24</sup> So, some Pharisees said to Jesus, "Look! Your apprentices should not be working on a Jewish day of rest. Our law forbids us to do that."

What example did Jesus give of someone who needed and ate bread normally forbidden for them? (vv25-26)

Jesus gave the example of David who, out of need, ate the bread of the presence, normally reserved for the priests.

Mark 2:26*ULT

<sup>26</sup> how he went into the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest and ate the loaves of the presence, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and he also gave to the ones being with him?"

<sup>27</sup> And he was saying to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.

UST

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus told the Pharisees, "God did not create humans because of the Jewish day of rest. Rather, he created the Jewish day of rest because of humans.

For whom did Jesus say the Sabbath was made?

Jesus said the Sabbath was made for people.

Mark 2:28

<sup>28</sup> Therefore, the Son of Man is Lord, even of the Sabbath.”

UST

<sup>28</sup> So then, I, the Son of Man, can decide {what is right for people to do} even during the Jewish day of rest!”

What authority did Jesus claim for himself?

Jesus said that he was Lord also of the Sabbath.

Mark 3*Mark 3:1*ULT

<sup>1</sup> And he entered into a synagogue again, and there was a man there having a withered hand.

UST

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus again visited the Jewish meeting place there. A certain man also was there. He could not move his hand.

Why were they watching Jesus on the Sabbath in the synagogue? (vv1-2)

They were watching Jesus to see if he would heal on the Sabbath, so they could accuse him.

Mark 3:2*ULT

<sup>2</sup> And they were watching him closely, if he will heal him on the Sabbaths, so that they might accuse him.

UST

<sup>2</sup> Since it was the Jewish day of rest, {the Pharisees who were there} focused on Jesus to see whether he would cure the man. They wanted to accuse Jesus {of disobeying the laws about not working on the Sabbath}.

Mark 3:4*ULT

<sup>4</sup> And he says to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbaths to do good or to do harm; to save a life or to kill?" But they were keeping silent.

UST

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus told the Pharisees, "You know that the laws that God gave Moses allow people to do what is good and to rescue people on Jewish days of rest. They do not allow people to do what is wrong and to kill people {on Jewish days of rest}." However, the Pharisees did not respond to him.

What question did Jesus ask the people about the Sabbath?

Jesus asked the people if it was lawful to do good, or to do harm on the Sabbath.

How did the people respond to Jesus' question?

The people were silent.

Mark 3:5*ULT

<sup>5</sup> And having looked around at them with anger, being grieved by the hardness of their heart, he says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored.

UST

<sup>5</sup> So Jesus stared at them angrily. Because they stubbornly refused to listen to him, he became very sad. Then Jesus commanded the man, "Extend the hand {that you cannot move}!" The man extended his hand, and he could move it again.

What then was Jesus' attitude toward them?

Jesus became angry with them.

Mark 3:6*ULT

<sup>6</sup> And having gone out, the Pharisees immediately were making counsel with the Herodians against him so that they might destroy him.

UST

<sup>6</sup> Then the Pharisees left {the Jewish meeting place}. As soon as {they left}, they met with some people who supported King Herod. Together, they started planning how they could kill Jesus.

What did the Pharisees do when Jesus healed the man?

The Pharisees went out and plotted to put Jesus to death.

Mark 3:7*ULT

<sup>7</sup> And Jesus, with his disciples, withdrew to the sea, and a great multitude followed from Galilee. And from Judea

UST

<sup>7</sup> Jesus and his apprentices went back to the Sea of Galilee. Very many people from the region of Galilee went with him. Also, there were more people from the region of Judea,

How many people followed Jesus as he went to the sea? (vv7-8)

A great crowd followed Jesus.

Mark 3:8*ULT

<sup>8</sup> and from Jerusalem and from Idumea and beyond the Jordan and around Tyre and Sidon a great multitude, hearing how much he was doing, came to him.

UST

<sup>8</sup> from the city of Jerusalem, from the region of Idumea, from the east side of the Jordan River, and from the regions around the cities of Tyre and Sidon. Because they learned about all the things that Jesus was doing, all these many people went to where he was.

What accusation did the scribes make against Jesus?

The scribes accused Jesus of driving out demons by the ruler of demons.

Mark 3:23*ULT

<sup>23</sup> And having summoned them, in parables he was saying to them, "How is Satan able to cast out Satan?"

UST

<sup>23</sup> So Jesus told the people there to come to him. He used stories to teach them. He said, "Satan does not enable people to force out his own demons!"

What was Jesus' response to the scribes' accusation? (vv23-24)

Jesus responded that no kingdom divided against itself can stand.

Mark 3:24*ULT

<sup>24</sup> And if a kingdom has been divided against itself, that kingdom is not able to stand.

ULT

<sup>41</sup> And they feared a great fear and were saying to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

UST

<sup>41</sup> The apprentices became very afraid. They kept asking each other, "Who could Jesus be? The wind and the water do what he says!"

After Jesus did this, what was the response of the disciples?

The disciples were filled with great fear and wondered who Jesus was, that the wind and sea obeyed him.

Mark 5*Mark 5:1*ULT

<sup>1</sup> And they came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gerasenes. <sup>[1]</sup>

UST

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus and his apprentices arrived on the other side of the Sea of Galilee, in the region where the Gerasene people lived.

Who met Jesus when they came to the region of the Gerasenes? (vv1-2)

A man with an unclean spirit met Jesus.

Mark 5:2*ULT

<sup>2</sup> And he having gone out from the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit met him from the tombs,

UST

<sup>2</sup> As soon as Jesus got out of the boat, a man whom a demon controlled came up to him. This man had come from the burial caves.

<sup>4</sup> In the past, they had frequently tied him up with {metal} chains and bonds. However, he always snapped the {metal} chains and broke apart the bonds. He was so strong that nobody could overpower him.

What had happened when people tried to restrain this man with chains?

When people tried to restrain this man with chains, he tore the chains apart.

Mark 5:5*ULT

<sup>5</sup> And throughout every night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out and cutting himself with stones.

UST

<sup>5</sup> All day long, this man would yell and hurt himself with rocks while he wandered around among the burial caves and the hills.

<sup>7</sup> And crying out with a loud voice, he says, "What to me and to you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I make you swear by God, do not torment me."

UST

<sup>7-8</sup> Then Jesus said, "You demon, leave this man!" Then the demon shouted loudly. It said, "Jesus, Son of the greatest God, leave me alone! I want you to have God guarantee that you will not make me suffer."

What title did the unclean spirit give Jesus?

The unclean spirit called Jesus the Son of the Most High God.

Mark 5:8*ULT

<sup>8</sup> For he was saying to him, "Come out from the man, unclean spirit."

UST

<sup>7-8</sup> Then Jesus said, "You demon, leave this man!" Then the demon shouted loudly. It said, "Jesus, Son of the greatest God, leave me alone! I want you to have God guarantee that you will not make me suffer."

What did Jesus say to the unclean spirit in the man?

Jesus said, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit".

Mark 5:9*ULT

<sup>9</sup> And he was asking him, "What {is} your name?" And he says to him, "My name {is} Legion, for we are many."

UST

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus asked the man, "What do people call you?" He replied, "People call me 'Thousands.' {They call me that} because there are many of us demons in this man."

What was the name of the unclean spirit?

The unclean spirit's name was Legion, because there were many.

Mark 5:10*ULT

<sup>10</sup> And he was begging him much that he would not send them out of the region.

UST

<sup>10</sup> Then the demon repeatedly urged Jesus not to make the many demons leave that area.

What are three things that Jesus said can come out of a person to defile him? (vv21-22)

Jesus said that evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, coveting, wickedness, deceit, sensuality, envy, slander, pride, and folly can come out of a person to defile him.

<sup>22</sup> adultery, coveting, wickedness, deceit, sensuality, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, {and} folly.

UST

<sup>22</sup> They are sexually unfaithful to their spouses, want more than they need, and do what is evil. They trick others, fail to restrain themselves, and are jealous. They say bad things {about God or others}, think too highly of themselves, and are foolish.

Mark 7:25*ULT

<sup>25</sup> But immediately having heard about him, a woman, of whom her little daughter had an unclean spirit, having come, fell down at his feet.

UST

<sup>25</sup> In fact, as soon as {he arrived}, a certain woman learned about him. A demon was controlling this woman's young daughter. So, she walked to where Jesus was and knelt before him.

Was the woman whose daughter had an unclean spirit a Jew or a Greek? (vv25-26)

The woman whose daughter had an unclean spirit was a Greek.

Mark 7:26*ULT

<sup>26</sup> Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophoenician by descent, and she was asking him that he would cast out the demon from her daughter.

UST

<sup>26</sup> It is important to know that this woman was not Jewish. Instead, her ancestors were people from the regions of Syria and Phoenicia. {While she was kneeling before Jesus,} she begged him to force the demon out of her daughter.

<sup>28</sup> The woman replied, "My Lord, what you say is correct. However, dogs lying nearby do eat leftovers from the children's food. {What I am asking you to do is like those leftovers.}"

How did the woman respond when Jesus told her that it was not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs?

The woman said that even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs.

Mark 7:29*ULT

<sup>29</sup> And he said to her, "Because of this word, go! The demon has gone out from your daughter."

UST

<sup>29</sup> Jesus replied, "Because of what you have said, {I will do what you asked}. You can go home. {I have forced} the demon to stop controlling your daughter."

What did Jesus do for the woman? (vv29-30)

Jesus cast the demon out of the woman's daughter.

Mark 7:30*ULT

<sup>30</sup> And having gone away to her house, she found the child having been put on the bed and the demon having gone out.

UST

<sup>30</sup> So, the woman went home. She saw that her daughter was resting. The demon had stopped controlling her.

How many loaves did the disciples have with them?

The disciples had seven loaves with them.

Mark 8:6*ULT

<sup>6</sup> And he commands the crowd to recline on the ground, and having taken the seven loaves, having given thanks, he broke {them} and was giving {them} to his disciples so that they might set {them} before {them}, and they set {them} before the crowd.

UST

<sup>6</sup> Then Jesus told the large group of people to sit down on the ground. He picked up the seven loaves of bread. Then he thanked God for the food. After that, he tore the bread into pieces and gave the pieces to his apprentices. That way, they could serve them to the large group of people, which they did.

What did Jesus do with the disciples' loaves?

Jesus gave thanks, broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to serve.

Mark 8:7*ULT

<sup>7</sup> And they had a few small fish, and having blessed them, he said to set these also before {them}.

UST

<sup>32</sup> Now they were on the way, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going ahead of them. And they were amazed, but the ones following behind were afraid. And having taken the Twelve aside again, he began to tell them the things being about to happen to him:

UST

<sup>32</sup> Sometime later, Jesus and his apprentices were walking toward the city of Jerusalem. Jesus was walking ahead of them, which impressed them. However, the rest of the people with them were afraid. Then Jesus again spoke to his 12 representatives privately. He started to tell them about what people were going to do to him.

On what road were Jesus and the disciples traveling?

Jesus and the disciples were traveling on the road going up to Jerusalem.

Mark 10:33*ULT

<sup>33</sup> "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and hand him over to the Gentiles.

UST

<sup>33</sup> He said, "We are walking toward the city of Jerusalem! There, somebody will help the ruling priests and the teachers of the Jewish law arrest me, the Son of Man. They will decide that I am guilty and that someone should kill me. They will bring me to the non-Jewish authorities.

What did Jesus tell his disciples would happen to him in Jerusalem? (vv33-34)

Jesus told his disciples that he would be condemned to death and delivered over to the Gentiles.

Mark 10:34*ULT

<sup>34</sup> And they will mock him and spit on him and whip him and kill {him}, and after three days, he will rise."

UST

<sup>34</sup> Those people will make fun of me, spit on me {to insult me}, beat me, and execute me. Then, three days after I die, I will live again."

<sup>35</sup> And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approach him, saying to him, "Teacher, we desire that whatever we ask you, you do for us."

UST

<sup>35</sup> After that, Zebedee's sons, James and John, came to Jesus. They said, "Instructor, we want you to do for us what we are about to request."

What request did James and John make to Jesus? (vv35-37)

James and John requested to sit on Jesus' right and left hand with him in glory.

Mark 10:36*ULT

<sup>36</sup> And he said to them, "What do you desire {that} I do for you?"

UST

<sup>36</sup> Jesus replied, "What do you want me to do for you?"

<sup>38</sup> Jesus replied, "You do not realize what you have actually requested. Are you willing to suffer as I will soon suffer? Are you willing for people to hurt you as they will soon hurt me?"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 10:39*ULT

<sup>39</sup> And they said to him, "We are able." But Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am being baptized, you will be baptized."

UST

<sup>39</sup> They told Jesus, "Yes, we are willing {to do those things}." Then Jesus told them, "You will certainly suffer as I will soon suffer. People will certainly hurt you as they will soon hurt me."

What did Jesus say that James and John would endure?

Jesus said that James and John would endure the cup Jesus would drink, and the baptism with which Jesus would be baptized.

Mark 10:40*ULT

<sup>40</sup> But to sit at my right hand or at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared."

UST

<sup>40</sup> However, I am not the one who chooses whom to honor by having them sit at my right side or at my left side. Rather, God has already chosen who {will sit in those places}."

Did Jesus grant the request of James and John?

No. Jesus said that the seats at his right and left hand were not his to give.

Mark 10:41*ULT

<sup>41</sup> And having heard this, the ten began to be very angry with James and John.

UST

<sup>41</sup> When the ten other apprentices learned {what James and John had requested}, they started to be very upset with them.

How did Jesus say the rulers of the Gentiles treat their subjects?

Jesus said that the rulers of the Gentiles dominate their subjects.

Mark 10:43*ULT

<sup>43</sup> But it is not this way among you. Instead, whoever desires to become great among you will be your servant,

UST

<sup>43</sup> You must not behave like that. Rather, when one of you wants to be important, that person must serve the others.

How did Jesus say those who wish to be great among the disciples must live? (vv43-44)

Jesus said those who wish to be great among the disciples must be servant of all.

Mark 10:44*ULT

<sup>44</sup> and whoever desires to be first among you will be a slave of all.

Why did the chief priests, scribes, and elders not want to answer that John's baptism was from heaven?

They did not want to give this answer because Jesus would ask why they didn't believe John.

Mark 11:32*ULT

<sup>32</sup> But should we say, 'From men?'" (They were afraid of the crowd, for they all held that John really was a prophet.)

UST

<sup>32</sup> On the other hand, we cannot answer that people {authorized John}." {They said that because they knew that} the large group of people believed that John had truly spoken for God, which made them afraid of how the large group of people would react.

Why did the chief priests, scribes, and elders not want to answer that John's baptism was from men?

They did not want to give this answer because they feared the people, who all believed that John was a prophet.

Mark 11:33*ULT

UST

<sup>22</sup> In this way, each of the seven brothers {married the woman but} died before they had children. Finally, the woman died too.

In the story told by the Sadducees, how many husbands did the woman have?

The woman had seven husbands.

Mark 12:23*ULT

<sup>23</sup> In the resurrection, when they rise again, of which of them will she be a wife? For the seven had her {as} wife."

UST

<sup>23</sup> So, of those brothers, whose wife will she be when God makes people alive again? {We ask} because she got married to all seven brothers {at different times}."

What question did the Sadducees ask Jesus about the woman?

They asked which of the men would be the woman's husband in the resurrection.

Mark 12:24*ULT

<sup>24</sup> Jesus said to them, "Are you not being led astray because of this, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God?"

UST

<sup>24</sup> Jesus replied, "You do not realize what the Scriptures mean or how powerful God is. Because of that, you believe what is wrong!"

What reason did Jesus give the Sadducees for their error?

Jesus said that the Sadducees did not know the scriptures nor the power of God.

Mark 12:25*ULT

<sup>25</sup> For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like angels in the heavens.

You have read in the section of the Scriptures that Moses wrote the story about {how God appeared to Moses in a} bush. In that story, God told Moses, 'I am the God whom Abraham worships, the God whom Isaac worships, and the God whom Jacob worships.'

How did Jesus show from the scriptures that there is a resurrection? (vv26-27)

Jesus quoted from the book of Moses, where God says that he is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob - all who must then be still alive.

Mark 12:27*ULT

<sup>27</sup> He is not a God of the dead, but of the living. You are being much deceived."

<sup>29</sup> Thus also you, when you see these things happening, know that it is near, at the doors.

UST

<sup>29</sup> Similarly, whenever you realize that what I have described is happening, you can tell that I will act very soon.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 13:30*ULT

<sup>30</sup> Truly I say to you that this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things happen.

UST

<sup>30</sup> Most of the people who are alive right now will still be alive when what I have described happens. What I have said is true.

What did Jesus say would not pass away until all of these things occurred?

Jesus said that this generation would not pass away until all of these things occurred.

Mark 13:31*ULT

<sup>31</sup> The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away.

UST

<sup>31</sup> Everything that God has created will eventually change or disappear. However, what I have said will never change or disappear.

What did Jesus say would never pass away?

Jesus said that his words would never pass away.

Mark 13:32*ULT

<sup>32</sup> But concerning that day or the hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, except the Father.

UST

<sup>32</sup> However, as for when {I will return to this world}, no human being knows that. The angels who dwell in heaven do not know that. Even I, the Son, do not know that. Only God my Father knows that.

When did Jesus say all these things would happen?

Jesus said that no one knows the day or hour except the Father.

<sup>33</sup> Watch! Stay awake and pray, <sup>[2]</sup> for you do not know when the time is.

UST

<sup>33</sup> So, you do not know at what moment I will return to this world. Because of that, you need to make sure that you are ready. You need to focus and pray.

What command did Jesus give his disciples regarding when the time is?

Jesus told his disciples to be alert, watch and pray.

Mark 13:34*ULT

<sup>34</sup> As a man on a journey, having left his house, and having given authority to his servants, to each his work, also he commanded the doorkeeper that he should stay alert;

UST

<sup>34</sup> {Here is a story} that illustrates {what I mean}. A man decided to travel to a different country. Before he left home, he authorized each of his servants to do something specific {to manage the household}. Then, he told the man who guarded the house to be ready {for him to return}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 13:35*ULT

<sup>35</sup> therefore, stay alert, because you do not know when the lord of the house is coming—whether evening or midnight or at rooster crowing or at morning—

UST

<sup>35</sup> So then, I am like the man who owned that house. You cannot know at what moment I will return {to this world}. It might be at sunset or at midnight. It might be very early in the morning or after sunrise. Because of that, you need to be ready {at all times}.

What command did Jesus give his disciples regarding his coming?

Jesus told his disciples to be stay alert as they await his coming.

Mark 13:36*ULT

<sup>36</sup> lest, having come suddenly, he might find you sleeping.

UST

<sup>36</sup> Otherwise, when I return {to this world} when you do not expect me, I might discover that you are not ready {for me}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 13:37*ULT

<sup>37</sup> But what I say to you I say to all: Stay alert!"

13:8 <sup>[1]</sup>

13:33 <sup>[2]</sup>

UST

<sup>37</sup> I am telling you that you need to be ready {at all times}. In fact, I am telling that to all people!"

What command did Jesus give his disciples regarding his coming?

Jesus told his disciples to be alert and watch.

Mark 14*Mark 14:1*ULT

<sup>1</sup> Now the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread was in two days, and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how, having seized him by deceit, they might kill him.

UST

<sup>1</sup> At that time, it was only two days until the Passover festival, which was the first day of the Celebration of Unleavened Bread. The ruling priests and the teachers of the Jewish law were planning a clever way to arrest Jesus and have people execute him.

What were the chief priests and scribes considering how to do?

They were considering how to stealthily arrest Jesus and then kill him.

Mark 14:2*ULT

<sup>2</sup> For they were saying, "Not during the festival, so that there will not be a riot of the people."

UST

<sup>2</sup> {They were planning something clever} because they agreed that they would not act during the festival period. Otherwise, the people who were there in Jerusalem might riot.

Why did the chief priests and scribes not want to act during the Feast of Unleavened Bread?

They were worried that a riot would arise among the people.

Mark 14:3*ULT

<sup>3</sup> And he being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, he reclining to eat, a woman came, having an alabaster jar of very precious perfumed oil of pure nard. Having broken the jar, she poured it on his head.

UST

<sup>3</sup> Now Jesus was in the village of Bethany. He was in the home of Simon, who used to have a skin disease. While Jesus was feasting {there}, a woman arrived. She brought with her a stone jar that contained nard, a very valuable, fragrant ointment. She shattered the jar and poured the ointment on Jesus' head.

What did a woman do to Jesus at the house of Simon the leper?

A woman broke a vial of costly liquid and poured it on Jesus' head.

Mark 14:4*ULT

<sup>4</sup> But there were some being very angry within themselves, "For what has this waste of the perfumed oil happened?"

UST

<sup>4</sup> Some of the people there were very upset. {They said} to each other, "She wasted the fragrant ointment!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 14:5*ULT

<sup>5</sup> For this perfumed oil was able to be sold for more than 300 denarii and given to the poor." And they were scolding her.

UST

<sup>5</sup> She could have sold this fragrant ointment for at least 300 coins! Then, she could have given {that money} to poor people." So, they rebuked her.

For what were some rebuking the woman?

Some were rebuking the woman for not selling the perfume and giving the money to the poor.

Mark 14:6*ULT

<sup>6</sup> But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why are you causing trouble for her? She did a good work in me.

UST

<sup>6</sup> However, Jesus told {those people}, "Stop rebuking this woman. Do not bother her! What she did for me was right.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 14:7*ULT

<sup>7</sup> For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you desire, you are able to do good to them, but you do not always have me.

UST

<sup>7</sup> There will always be poor people with you, so you can help them whenever you want to. However, I will not always be with you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 14:8*ULT

<sup>8</sup> What she had, she did. She anticipated to anoint my body for burial.

UST

<sup>8</sup> This woman used what she possessed to do {something for me}. When she poured this ointment on me, she was preparing me ahead of time for when someone buries me.

What did Jesus say the woman had done for him?

Jesus said the woman had anointed his body for burial.

Mark 14:9*ULT

<sup>9</sup> And truly I say to you, wherever the gospel is preached in the whole world, also what she did will be spoken in remembrance of her."

UST

<sup>9</sup> In every place where my apprentices proclaim the good news, they will also tell what this woman just did. That way, people will remember her. What I have said is true."

What promise did Jesus make about what the woman had done?

Jesus promised that wherever the gospel was preached in the whole world, what the woman had done would be spoken of in memory of her.

Mark 14:10*ULT

<sup>10</sup> And Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went away to the chief priests so that he might hand him over to them.

UST

<sup>10</sup> Then Judas Iscariot visited the ruling priests to talk about helping them arrest Jesus. He was one of the 12 men whom Jesus had chosen to represent him.

Why did Judas Iscariot go away to the chief priests?

Judas Iscariot went away to the chief priests so that he might deliver Jesus to them.

Mark 14:11*ULT

<sup>11</sup> And they, having heard {it}, rejoiced and promised to give him silver. And he was seeking how he might opportunely hand him over.

UST

<sup>11</sup> When the ruling priests heard from Judas, they were very happy. They agreed to pay money to Judas {to help them arrest Jesus}. So, Judas tried to find a good time to help {the ruling priests} arrest Jesus.

Mark 14:12*ULT

<sup>12</sup> And on the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, when they were sacrificing the Passover, his disciples say to him, "Where do you want {that} we, having gone away, might prepare so that you may eat the Passover?"

UST

<sup>12</sup> Then it was the first day of the Celebration of Unleavened Bread, the time when people slaughter lambs for the Passover festival. Jesus' apprentices asked him, "Where should we go to set up the meal for the Passover celebration?"

How did the disciples find the place where they would all eat the Passover? (vv12-15)

Jesus told them to go into the city and follow a man carrying a pitcher of water, and then ask him where the guest room was that they would use to eat the Passover.

Mark 14:13*ULT

<sup>13</sup> And he sends two of his disciples and says to them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him.

UST

<sup>13</sup> So, Jesus told two of his apprentices {to prepare everything}. He instructed them, "Enter the city of Jerusalem. There you will encounter a certain man. He will be holding a jar with water in it. Go wherever he does.

Mark 14:18*ULT

<sup>18</sup> And they reclining to eat, and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you that one of you, one eating with me, will hand me over."

UST

<sup>18</sup> Then, they began to feast. As they ate, Jesus told them, "One of you is going to help {my enemies} arrest me. This person is eating with me right now! What I have said is true."

What did Jesus say as they were reclining at the table and eating?

Jesus said that one of the disciples eating with him would betray him.

Mark 14:19*ULT

<sup>19</sup> They began to be grieved and to say to him one by one, "Surely not I?"

UST

<sup>19</sup> The apprentices started to become sad. One after another they told Jesus, "I will not do that!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 14:20*ULT

<sup>20</sup> And he said to them, "{It is} one of the Twelve, the one dipping with me into the bowl.

UST

<sup>20</sup> Jesus responded, "One of you 12 men whom I have chosen to represent me {will do that}. It is one of you who is sharing food from this dish with me.

Which disciple did Jesus say would betray him?

Jesus said that the disciple dipping bread with him in the bowl would betray him.

Mark 14:21*ULT

<sup>21</sup> For the Son of Man departs just as it has been written about him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is handed over! It would have been good for him if that man had not been born."

UST

<sup>21</sup> {I say that} because I, the Son of Man, will die. That is what you can read in the Scriptures about me. Nevertheless, how terrible it will be for the man who helps {my enemies} arrest me, the Son of Man. In fact, that man would be better off if he had never existed."

What did Jesus say about the destiny of the disciple who betrayed him?

Jesus said that it would have been better for him if he had not been born.

Mark 14:22*ULT

<sup>22</sup> And they eating, having taken bread, having blessed, he broke {it} and gave {it} to them and said, "Take. This is my body."

UST

<sup>22</sup> Then, as they ate, Jesus picked up a loaf of bread. He thanked God {for the loaf of bread}. He tore it into pieces and handed the pieces to the apprentices {to eat}. He said, "This {bread} is my body. Receive it."

What did Jesus say as he gave the disciples the broken bread?

Jesus said, "Take this. This is my body."

Mark 14:23*ULT

<sup>23</sup> And having taken a cup, having given thanks, he gave {it} to them, and they all drank from it.

UST

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus picked up a cup {of wine}. He thanked God {for the wine}. Then, he handed {the cup of wine} to the apprentices. All of them drank wine from it.

Mark 14:24*ULT

<sup>24</sup> And he said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, <sup>[1]</sup> which is being poured out for many.

UST

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus told them, "This wine is my blood, which inaugurates the agreement {God is making with you}. My blood will flow from my body {when my enemies kill me}. That will help many people.

What did Jesus say as he gave the disciples the cup?

Jesus said, "This is my blood of the covenant, the blood that is poured out for many."

Mark 14:25*ULT

<sup>25</sup> Truly I say to you that I will certainly not any longer drink from the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

UST

<sup>25</sup> I will no longer drink any more wine until the time when I drink it again when we participate together in God's kingdom. What I have said is true."

When did Jesus say he would again drink of this fruit of the vine?

Jesus said he would again drink of this fruit of the vine on the day when he drank it anew in the kingdom of God.

<sup>26</sup> And having sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

UST

<sup>26</sup> After they sang a song praising God, Jesus and his apprentices walked to the Mount of Olives.

Mark 14:27*ULT

<sup>27</sup> And Jesus says to them, “You all will be caused to stumble, for it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’”

UST

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus told them, “{God had Zechariah} write in the Scriptures, ‘I will kill the one who is like a shepherd. Then, the people who are like sheep will flee.’ So, all of you will reject me!”

At the Mount of Olives, what did Jesus predict about his disciples?

Jesus predicted that his disciples would all fall away because of him.

Mark 14:28*ULT

<sup>28</sup> But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee.”

UST

<sup>28</sup> However, once God has made me alive again, I will go ahead of you to the region of Galilee {and meet you there}.”

<sup>30</sup> Jesus replied, “During this day, tonight, before a male chicken crows two times, you will say three times that you are not my apprentice! What I have said is true.”

What did Jesus tell Peter after Peter said he would never fall away?

Jesus told Peter that before the rooster crowed twice, Peter would deny Jesus three times.

Mark 14:31*ULT

<sup>31</sup> But he was saying emphatically, "Even if it were necessary for me to die with you, I will certainly not deny you." And they all also were speaking in the same manner.

UST

<sup>31</sup> Peter replied strongly, "I will always say that I am your apprentice, even if I die with you because of that!" The rest {of the apprentices} said similar things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 14:35*ULT

<sup>35</sup> And having gone a little farther, he fell to the ground and was praying that, if it is possible, the hour might pass from him.

UST

<sup>35</sup> After saying that, Jesus walked a little further. Then, he kneeled down to pray. He asked God to prevent him from experiencing what was about to happen, if there was any way to do so.

For what did Jesus pray?

Jesus prayed that this hour might pass from him.

Mark 14:36*ULT

<sup>36</sup> And he was saying, "Abba, Father, all things {are} possible for you. Remove this cup from me. But not what I will, but what you."

UST

<sup>36</sup> He prayed, "Abba (which means Father), you are able to do anything. Please prevent me from suffering terribly. However, please do what you want to do, not what I want you to do."

What was Jesus willing to accept as an answer to his prayer to the Father?

Jesus was willing to accept whatever the Father's will was for him.

Mark 14:37*ULT

<sup>37</sup> And he comes and finds them sleeping, and he says to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Were you not able to be alert for one hour?"

UST

<sup>37</sup> Then he returned {to the three apprentices}. He discovered that they were asleep. He {woke them up and} told Peter, "Simon, it disappoints me that you were asleep. You could not stay awake for even a short time!"

What did Jesus find when he returned to the three disciples?

Jesus found the three disciples sleeping.

Mark 14:38*ULT

<sup>38</sup> Be alert and pray so that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed {is} willing, but the flesh {is} weak."

UST

<sup>38</sup> You {men} want to do what I say, but you are not strong enough. Stay awake and pray! That way, nothing can convince you to sin."

What did Jesus find the second time he returned from praying?

Jesus found the three disciples sleeping.

Mark 14:41*ULT

<sup>41</sup> And he comes the third time and says to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is handed over into the hands of the sinners.

UST

<sup>41</sup> {After Jesus walked away and prayed again}, he returned a third time {to the three apprentices}. He {woke them up and} told them, "It disappoints me that you continue to sleep! You have slept enough. The time {when I will suffer} is beginning! Someone is about to help sinful people arrest me, the Son of Man.

What did Jesus find the third time he returned from praying?

Jesus found the three disciples sleeping.

Mark 14:42*ULT

<sup>42</sup> Get up, let us go. Behold, the one handing me over has come near."

UST

<sup>42</sup> Stand up! We are going to leave {this place}. The person who is helping {my enemies} arrest me has arrived!"

Mark 14:48*ULT

<sup>48</sup> And answering, Jesus said to them, "As against a robber have you come out with swords and clubs to seize me?"

UST

<sup>48</sup> Jesus responded by saying to the group of people, "You did not need to treat me like a dangerous bandit by arming yourselves with swords and clubs to arrest me."

What did Jesus say was being done in his arrest to fulfill scripture? (vv48-49)

Jesus said that scripture was being fulfilled because they came to arrest him like a robber, with swords and clubs.

Mark 14:49*ULT

<sup>49</sup> Every day I was with you in the temple teaching, and you did not seize me. But so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled."

What did those with Jesus do when Jesus was arrested?

Those with Jesus left him and fled.

Mark 14:51*ULT

<sup>51</sup> And a certain young man was following him, wearing a linen garment over his naked body. And they seize him,

UST

<sup>51</sup> Now there was a young man there. He was wearing only one thin garment. He had been walking around with Jesus. The people who arrested Jesus tried to arrest him too.

What did a young man who was following Jesus do when Jesus was arrested? (vv51-52)

The young man left his linen garment there and ran away naked.

<sup>52</sup> but he, having left behind the linen garment, fled naked.

UST

<sup>52</sup> However, {he escaped by} slipping out of his garment, and he ran away naked.

Where was Peter as Jesus was taken to the high priest? (vv53-54)

Peter sat among the guards, near a fire to keep warm.

Mark 14:54*ULT

<sup>54</sup> And Peter followed him from a distance, as far as inside into the courtyard of the high priest, and he was sitting with the officers and warming himself at the fire.

UST

<sup>54</sup> Peter followed Jesus, but he stayed a safe distance away. {He went} into the area just outside {the house where} the ruling priest {lived}. He sat there with the servants near a fire to keep from getting cold.

<sup>55</sup> The ruling priests and all {the rest of} the Jewish council tried to find something for which they could accuse Jesus. That way, they could have {the Roman authorities} execute him. However, they did not find {anything for which they could accuse him}.

What was wrong with the testimony against Jesus given to the Council? (vv55-56)

The testimony against Jesus was false and did not agree.

Mark 14:56*ULT

<sup>56</sup> For many were testifying falsely against him, and their testimonies were not the same.

UST

<sup>56</sup> In fact, many people said what was untrue about Jesus. However, these people did not agree about what Jesus had done.

<sup>60</sup> Then the ruling priest got up in front of everyone. He asked Jesus, “Are you going to reply? How do you respond to what these people have said about you?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 14:61*ULT

<sup>61</sup> But he was silent and did not answer anything. Again the high priest was questioning him and says to him, “Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?”

UST

<sup>61</sup> Despite that, Jesus kept quiet. Then the ruling priest asked him another question. He asked, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of {the God} whom we praise?”

What question did the high priest ask Jesus about who Jesus was?

The high priest asked Jesus if he was the Christ, the son of the Blessed.

Mark 14:62*ULT

<sup>62</sup> And Jesus said, "I am; and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power and coming with the clouds of heaven."

UST

<sup>62</sup> Jesus replied, "That is who I am. You will see me, the Son of Man, ruling powerfully with God. {You will see me} arriving by means of clouds."

What was Jesus' answer to the high priest's question?

Jesus answered by saying, "I am."

Mark 14:63*ULT

<sup>63</sup> But the high priest, having torn his tunics, says, "Why do we still have need of witnesses?"

UST

<sup>63</sup> When he heard that, the ruling priest was so upset that he ripped his clothes. He said, "We certainly do not need anyone else to say anything about him."

Mark 14:64*ULT

<sup>64</sup> You have heard the blasphemy. What is evident to you?" And they all condemned him to be deserving of death.

UST

<sup>64</sup> You have heard him insult God! What do you think we should do?" The whole Jewish council agreed that he was guilty and that someone should execute him because of what he had said.

Hearing Jesus' answer, of what did the high priest say Jesus was guilty?

The high priest said that Jesus was guilty of blasphemy.

Mark 14:65*ULT

<sup>65</sup> And certain ones began to spit on him and to blindfold his face and to beat him and to say to him, "Prophesy!" And the officers received him with slaps.

UST

<sup>65</sup> Then some of them started to spit on Jesus {to insult him}. They covered his eyes and then struck him {with their fists}. They demanded, "Speak for God!" When the servants led Jesus away, they slapped him.

What did they do to Jesus after condemning him as one who deserved death?

They spit on him, struck him, and beat him.

Mark 14:66*ULT

<sup>66</sup> And Peter being below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest comes.

UST

<sup>66</sup> Meanwhile, Peter was down in the area just outside the {ruling priest's} house. A female servant, one of the servants who served the ruling priest, was there.

What was Peter's answer to the servant girl who said that Peter was with Jesus? (vv66-68)

Peter answered that he did not know or understand about what the girl was talking.

Mark 14:67*ULT

<sup>67</sup> And having seen Peter warming himself, having looked closely at him, she says, "You also were with the Nazarene, Jesus."

UST

<sup>67</sup> She noticed Peter, who was near a fire to keep from getting cold. She stared at him and declared, "{I can tell that} you were an apprentice of Jesus, that man from the town of Nazareth."

Mark 15*Mark 15:1*ULT

<sup>1</sup> And immediately in the morning, having made counsel, the chief priests with the elders and scribes and the entire Sanhedrin, having bound Jesus, led {him} away and handed {him} over to Pilate.

UST

<sup>1</sup> As soon as it was morning, the entire Jewish council, including the ruling priests, the other Jewish leaders, and the teachers of the Jewish law, planned {what to do with Jesus}. They had their guards tie Jesus up and take him from there to Pilate{, the Roman local ruler}. They wanted Pilate to condemn him.

Early in the morning, what did the chief priests do with Jesus?

Early in the morning, they bound Jesus and handed him over to Pilate.

Mark 15:2*ULT

<sup>2</sup> And Pilate questioned him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" But he, answering him, says, "You say {it}."

UST

<sup>2</sup> Pilate asked Jesus, "Do you claim to be king over the Jewish people?" Jesus replied, "What you are calling me is right."

Mark 15:4*ULT

<sup>4</sup> Now Pilate again was questioning him, saying, "Do you not answer anything? See how many things they are accusing you!"

UST

<sup>4</sup> After that, Pilate again spoke to Jesus. He said, "Listen to all the bad things they claim that you have done! Are you going to reply?"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 15:5*ULT

<sup>5</sup> But Jesus no longer answered anything, so as to amaze Pilate.

UST

<sup>5</sup> However, Jesus did not respond anymore. How Jesus was acting greatly impressed Pilate.

While the chief priests were presenting many charges against Jesus, what amazed Pilate about Jesus?

Pilate was amazed that Jesus no longer answered him.

Mark 15:6*ULT

<sup>6</sup> Now at the festival, he was releasing to them one prisoner whom they were requesting.

UST

<sup>6</sup> It is important to know that during the festival period, Pilate usually set free one person who was in jail. {He set free} whomever the people who were in the city of Jerusalem chose.

What did Pilate usually do for the crowd at the time of the feast?

Pilate usually released to the crowd one prisoner they requested at the time of the feast.

Mark 15:7*ULT

<sup>7</sup> Now there was the one called Barabbas, having been bound with the rebels, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

UST

<sup>7</sup> It is also important to know that a man whose name was Barabbas was in jail with some other men who had rebelled against the Roman government. While they were rebelling, they had murdered some people.

Mark 15:9*ULT

<sup>9</sup> And Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want {that} I would release to you the King of the Jews?"

UST

<sup>9</sup> Pilate replied, "Would you like for me to set free for you the man who claims to be king over you Jewish people?"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 15:10*ULT

<sup>10</sup> For he knew that the chief priests had handed him over because of envy.

UST

<sup>10</sup> {Pilate asked that question} because he realized that the ruling priests had arrested Jesus and brought him to Pilate because they were jealous {of Jesus}.

Why did Pilate want to release Jesus to the crowd?

Pilate knew that it was because of envy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over to him.

Mark 15:11*ULT

<sup>11</sup> But the chief priests stirred up the crowd so that he would release Barabbas to them instead.

UST

<sup>11</sup> However, the ruling priests convinced the large group of people {to ask} Pilate to free Barabbas rather than {Jesus}.

Who did the crowd cry out to be released?

The crowd cried out for Barabbas to be released.

Mark 15:12*ULT

<sup>12</sup> And Pilate, answering again, was saying to them, "What therefore should I do {with the one} you call <sup>[2]</sup> the King of the Jews?"

UST

<sup>12</sup> Then Pilate again replied, "So what do you want me to do with the person whom you claim is king over you Jewish people?"

What did the crowd say should be done with the King of the Jews? (vv12-13)

The crowd said that the King of the Jews should be crucified.

<sup>13</sup> But they cried out again, "Crucify him!"

UST

<sup>13</sup> The large group of people shouted, "{Have your soldiers} kill him by nailing him to a cross!"

<sup>7</sup> Now depart to his apprentices and tell them, especially Peter, that Jesus is going ahead of them to the region of Galilee. {Tell them that} Jesus will meet them there, which is what Jesus already told them."

Where did the young man say the disciples would meet Jesus?

The young man said the disciples would meet Jesus in Galilee.

Mark 16:8*ULT

<sup>8</sup> And having gone out, they fled from the tomb, for trembling and amazement was gripping them. And they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

UST

<sup>8</sup> The three women were shaking because what had happened amazed them. So they left the grave and ran away. Because they felt afraid, they did not speak to anyone {about what had happened}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 16:9*ULT

<sup>9[1]</sup> [Now having arisen early in the morning on the first of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.

UST

<sup>9</sup> [When Jesus lived again early on Sunday morning, Mary from the town of Magdala was the first person to see him. Jesus had forced seven demons out of her.

To whom did Jesus first appear after his resurrection?

Jesus first appeared to Mary Magdalene.

Mark 16:10*ULT

<sup>10</sup> That {one}, going, reported {it} to the ones having been with him, mourning and weeping.

UST

<sup>10</sup> She approached Jesus' apprentices, who were grieving very much. She told them {what she had seen}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 16:11*ULT

<sup>11</sup> And those {ones}, having heard that he lives and was seen by her, did not believe.

UST

<sup>11</sup> So, the apprentices learned that Jesus was alive and that Mary had seen him. However, they did not accept what she said.

How did Jesus' disciples respond when Mary told them she had seen Jesus alive?

The disciples did not believe.

Mark 16:12*ULT

<sup>12</sup> Now after these things, he appeared in a different form to two of them walking, going into the country.

UST

<sup>12</sup> Sometime later, two of Jesus' apprentices were traveling to farm areas. They saw Jesus, although he looked different.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 16:13*ULT

<sup>13</sup> And those {ones}, having gone away, reported {it} to the rest, but they did not believe those {ones}.

UST

<sup>13</sup> Then, the two apprentices went back {to Jerusalem}. They told the other apprentices what had happened, but the others did not accept what the two apprentices said.

How did Jesus' disciples respond when two other people told them they had seen Jesus alive?

The disciples did not believe.

Mark 16:14*ULT

<sup>14</sup> Now later, he appeared to the Eleven, they reclining to eat, and he rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe the ones having seen him, having been raised from the dead.

UST

<sup>14</sup> Sometime later, Jesus revealed himself to his 11 representatives while they were eating. Because they had not accepted it when people told them that they had seen Jesus after God made him alive again, Jesus scolded them. He told them that they should not have stubbornly refused to accept what those people said.

When he appeared to the disciples, what did Jesus say to them about their unbelief?

Jesus rebuked the disciples for their unbelief.

Mark 16:15*ULT

<sup>15</sup> And he said to them, "Having gone into all the world, preach the gospel to all the creation.

UST

<sup>15</sup> Then he told them, "Visit every place and proclaim the good news to every person!

What command did Jesus give the disciples?

Jesus commanded the disciples to go into all the world and preach the gospel.

Mark 16:16*ULT

<sup>16</sup> The one having believed and having been baptized will be saved, but the one not having believed will be condemned.

UST

<sup>16</sup> God will rescue all people who trust in me and who have someone baptize them. However, God will punish all people who do not trust in me.

Who did Jesus say would be saved?

Jesus said those who believed and were baptized would be saved.

Who did Jesus say would be condemned?

Jesus said those who did not believe would be condemned.

Mark 16:17*ULT

<sup>17</sup> Now these signs will accompany the ones having believed: In my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues;

UST

<sup>17</sup> I will enable those who trust in me to perform miracles. Specifically, they will represent me by forcing demons out {of people}. They will talk in languages that they have not learned.

What signs did Jesus say would go with those who believed? (vv17-18)

Jesus said those who believed would cast out demons, would speak in new languages, would not be hurt by anything deadly, and would heal others.

Mark 16:18*ULT

<sup>18/2</sup> they will pick up snakes, and if they drink anything deadly, it will certainly not hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well."

UST

<sup>18</sup> They will be able to hold snakes and drink poison without becoming sick or dying. When they touch sick people, it will cure them."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Mark 16:19*ULT

<sup>19</sup> After he spoke to them, the Lord Jesus was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

UST

<sup>19</sup> After the Lord Jesus said that to his apprentices, God brought him up into heaven. There, Jesus sat down to rule with God {the Father}.

What happened to Jesus after he spoke to the disciples?

After he spoke to the disciples, Jesus was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

Mark 16:20*ULT

<sup>20</sup> Now those {ones}, having gone out, preached everywhere, the Lord working with {them} and confirming the word through the accompanying signs. Amen. <sup>[3]</sup> ]

16:18 <sup>[2]</sup>

16:20 <sup>[3]</sup>

UST

<sup>20</sup> As for the apprentices, they left {Jerusalem} and proclaimed {the good news} in every place. The Lord {Jesus} helped them and enabled them to perform miracles. That way, people could see that the good news was true. May it be so!]

What did the disciples then do?

The disciples then left and preached everywhere.

What did the Lord then do?

The Lord then worked with the disciples and confirmed the word with miraculous signs.
