⁶ Still, some of the people of the island expected that Paul's body would soon swell up because of the snake bite. Others thought he would suddenly fall down and die. But they waited a long time and did not see either of those things happen to him. So the people decided they had been wrong about who Paul was. They said to one another, "This man is not a murderer. He must be a god, because that snake bite would have killed any human being!"

What did the people think when they saw Paul was not killed by the viper?

The people thought that Paul was a god.

Acts 28:7ULT

⁷ Now in the {areas} around that place were lands of the first of the island, Publius by name, who, welcoming us, kindly entertained us for three days.

UST

⁷ Now the people of the island had built the fire near some fields that belonged to a man whose name was Publius. He was the chief official on the island. He invited us to come and stay in his home. He took very good care of us for three days.

Acts 28:10ULT

¹⁰ They also honored us with many honors, and they gave to us as we were putting to sea the things for {our} needs.

UST

¹⁰ The island people also brought us gifts and showed in other ways that they greatly respected us. Later on, when we were ready to leave, they brought us food and other things that we would need on the ship.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Acts 28:11ULT

¹¹ And after three months, we put to sea in an Alexandrian ship with a Dioscouri figurehead having wintered at the island.

UST

¹¹ We stayed on Malta for a total of three months. Then we left on a ship that had spent the winter there. The ship was from Alexandria and was going to Italy. On the front of the ship there were carved images of the twin gods whose names were Castor and Pollux.

How long did Paul and the crew remain on the island of Malta?

Paul and the crew remained on the island of Malta for three months.

Acts 28:12ULT

¹² And having come down to Syracuse, we stayed for three days.

UST

¹² When we arrived at the city of Syracuse, we stayed there three days.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Acts 28:13ULT

¹³ Having sailed from there, we came down to Rhegium, and after one day, a south wind having occurred, we came to Puteoli the next day,

UST

¹³ Then we sailed away from Syracuse and arrived at the city of Rhegium in Italy. The next day, the wind began to blow from the south. So in only two more days, we reached the town of Puteoli. {There we got off the ship and went the rest of the way to Rome by land.}

Acts 28:15ULT

¹⁵ From there, the brothers, having heard the things about us, came to a meeting with us as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns, whom seeing, Paul, thanking God, took courage.

UST

¹⁵ Some fellow believers in Rome had heard that we were coming and they came to meet us. Some of them met us at the place on the Appian Road whose name was the Market. Others met us at the place whose name was the Three Inns. When Paul saw those believers, he thanked God and felt brave.

What did Paul do when he saw the brothers from Rome who had come to meet him?

When he saw the brothers, Paul thanked God and took courage.

Acts 28:16ULT

¹⁶ And when we entered into Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier guarding him.

UST

¹⁶ After we arrived in Rome, the authorities there permitted Paul to live in a home rather than in prison. But a soldier was always there to guard him.

What were Paul's living arrangements in Rome as a prisoner?

Paul was allowed to live by himself with a soldier who was guarding him.

Acts 28:17ULT

¹⁷ And it happened that after three days, he called together the ones being first among the Jews. And when they had come together, he said to them, "Men, brothers, having done nothing opposed to the people or to the fathers' customs, I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans,

UST

¹⁷ Now after Paul had been in Rome for three days, he sent a message to the Jewish leaders to come and talk with him. And when they arrived, Paul said to them, "My dear kinsmen, I have not opposed our people or spoken against the customs of our ancestors. {But some Jews in Jerusalem seized me and tried to kill me. A Roman commander rescued me and later} sent me as a prisoner to the city of Caesarea so that the Roman authorities could put me on trial.

Acts 28:20ULT

²⁰ Therefore for this reason I summoned you, to see and to speak with you. For on account of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain."

UST

²⁰ So I asked you to come here so that I could tell you why I am a prisoner. It is because I believe in what we Jews confidently expect that God will do for us."

For what reason did Paul tell the Jewish leaders in Rome he had been chained?

Paul told the Jewish leaders in Rome he had been chained because of the hope of Israel.

Acts 28:21ULT

²¹ But they said to him, "We have not received letters from Judea about you, nor have any of the brothers, coming, reported or said anything evil about you.

UST

²¹ Then the Jewish leaders replied, "We have not received any letters from our fellow Jews in Judea about you. And none of our fellow Jews who have come here from Judea have said anything bad about you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Acts 28:22ULT

²² But we value to hear from you what you think, for concerning this sect, it is known to us that it is spoken against everywhere."

UST

²² But we would appreciate you telling us what you think about this group that you belong to. Please tell us, because we are aware that in many places people are speaking against it."

What did the Jewish leaders in Rome know about the sect of the Christians?

The Jewish leaders in Rome knew that the sect was spoken against everywhere.

Acts 28:23ULT

²³ And having appointed a day for him, more came to him at his lodging, to whom he was explaining, testifying about the kingdom of God and persuading them about Jesus both from the Law of Moses and the Prophets from morning until evening.

UST

²³ So they decided that they would come back on another day. On that day, even more people than before came to where Paul was staying to hear Paul speak. Paul explained many things to them. He talked about how God would rule everyone. He also talked about how various places in the Scriptures foretold that Jesus would come. Paul talked for that entire day with the people who had come to his house.

When the Jewish leaders came again to Paul at his dwelling place, what did Paul try to do from morning until evening?

Paul tried to persuade them about Jesus, from both the law of Moses and from the prophets.

Acts 28:24ULT

²⁴ And while some were convinced by the things being said, others still did not believe.

UST

²⁴ Paul was able to persuade some of those Jews that the things he said about Jesus were true. But some others would not believe that they were true.

What was the response of the Jewish leaders to Paul's presentation?

Some of the Jewish leaders were convinced, while others did not believe.

Acts 28:25ULT

²⁵ And being discordant with one another, they were leaving, Paul having spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit spoke well through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers,

UST

²⁵ The two groups argued with each other. When they were about to leave, Paul told them one more thing. He said, "The Holy Spirit spoke the truth to your ancestors when he said something through Isaiah the prophet.

Acts 28:26ULT

²⁶ saying, 'Go to this people and say, "By hearing you will hear but you will not understand at all, and seeing you will see but you will not perceive at all."

UST

²⁶ He said, 'Go to the people of Israel and say to them: "You seem to be listening but you never really understand what God is saying. You seem to be looking but you never really recognize the things that God is doing."

What did the final scripture quoted by Paul say about the Jewish leaders who did not believe?

The final scripture Paul quoted said that those who did not believe would not understand nor perceive what they heard and saw.

Acts 28:27ULT

²⁷ For the heart of this people has been thickened, and with {their} ears they have hardly heard, and they have shut their eyes, lest they might see with {their} eyes, and they might hear with {their} ears, and they might understand with {their} heart and turn back, and I would heal them.'

UST

²⁷ These people do not understand because they have become stubborn. It is as if they have become deaf. It is as if they have closed their eyes. It is as if they have done this because they do not want to see well, and they do not want to hear well, and they do not want to understand well. If they did pay attention to me and understand what I am telling them, they would stop sinning and live in the right way again. If they did that, I would restore them.'

Acts 28:28ULT

²⁸ Therefore, let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will hear."

UST

²⁸ Therefore, you should know that God is offering to save the non-Jews, and many of them will accept his offer."

Where did Paul say God's message of salvation had been sent, and what would be the response?

Paul said that God's message of salvation had been sent to the Gentiles, and they would listen.

Acts 28:29ULT

²⁹[1] [And when he had said these things, the Jews went away, having a great dispute among themselves.]

UST

²⁹[1] [When he had said these things, the Jews went away. They were having a great dispute among themselves.]

Acts 28:30ULT

³⁰ And he stayed for two whole years in his own rented house, and he was welcoming all the ones coming in to him,

UST

³⁰ After that, Paul stayed in Rome for two whole years in a house that he rented. Many people came to see him. He received each of them gladly and spoke with them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Acts 28:31ULT

³¹ proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching the things about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, without hindrance.

28:29 [1]

UST

³¹ He preached about how God would rule over everyone. He also taught people about the Lord Jesus the Messiah. He spoke about these things very openly. No one tried to stop him.

28:29 [1]

What did Paul do while a prisoner in Rome?

Paul preached the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.

Who stopped Paul from preaching and teaching while he was a prisoner in Rome for two years?

The phrase "without hindrance" means that no one stopped him.

Romans

Romans 1

Romans 1:1

ULT

¹ Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, a called apostle, set apart for the gospel of God,

UST

¹ {I,} Paul, {am writing this letter}. I serve the Messiah Jesus. He called me to represent him and specially chose me to proclaim God's good news.

By what means had God promised the gospel before Paul's time? (vv1-2)

God had promised the gospel before by his prophets in the holy Scriptures.

Romans 1:2

ULT

² which he promised beforehand by his prophets in the holy Scriptures,

UST

² God previously promised this good news by means of his spokesmen who prophesied about it {and wrote it down} in the sacred writings.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:3

ULT

³ concerning his Son—the one having been born from a seed of David according to the flesh,

UST

³ {This good news is} about God's Son. He was born a natural descendant of David.

According to the flesh, God's Son was born out of which descendants?

According to the flesh, God's Son was born out of the descendants of David.

Romans 1:4ULT

⁴ the one having been designated the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by the resurrection of dead ones—Jesus Christ our Lord,

UST

⁴ In accordance with the Holy Spirit, God powerfully demonstrated that Jesus is his Son by causing him to live again after he had died. {God's Son is} Jesus the Messiah, {who is} our Lord.

By what event was Jesus Christ declared to be the Son of God?

Jesus Christ was declared to be the Son of God by the resurrection from the dead.

Romans 1:5ULT

⁵ through whom we received grace and apostleship for obedience of faith among all the Gentiles, for the sake of his name,

UST

⁵ Jesus favored us who represent him and authorized us to represent him on his behalf in order that all the nations would obey {God} by trusting {in Jesus the Messiah}.

For what purpose did Paul receive grace and apostleship from Christ?

Paul received grace and apostleship for obedience of faith among all the nations.

Romans 1:6ULT

⁶ among whom you also are called ones of Jesus Christ.

UST

⁶ Jesus the Messiah has also called you who are {living} among the nations.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:7ULT

⁷ To all the ones being in Rome, beloved of God, called saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

⁷ {I am writing this letter} to all of you {believers} who dwell in the city of Rome. God loves you and has called you to be people who belong to him. {May} God our Father and the Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to} be kind to you and make you peaceful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:8ULT

⁸ First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ concerning all of you, because your faith is being proclaimed in the whole world.

UST

⁸ Now, {the} first {thing I want to tell you, is that} I am constantly thanking my God through Jesus the Messiah for all of you {believers in the Messiah}. {I thank him} because {people} throughout the known world are proclaiming how you trust {in Jesus}.

For what does Paul thank God concerning the believers in Rome?

Paul thanks God because their faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world.

Romans 1:9ULT

⁹ For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how I continually make mention of you,

UST

⁹ {I can say this truthfully} because God testifies for me that I frequently pray for you. I serve him devotedly by proclaiming the good news about his Son{, Jesus}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:10ULT

¹⁰ always requesting in my prayers if somehow now at last I will be successful by the will of God to come to you.

UST

¹⁰ {When} I pray, I very often request that I might finally succeed in coming to {visit} you because God wants {me to}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:11ULT

¹¹ For I long to see you so that I may share with you some spiritual gracious gift to strengthen you,

UST

¹¹ {I pray for this} because I deeply desire to see you {in person} in order to share some kind of gracious gift with you from the Holy Spirit in order to help you become spiritually stronger.

Why does Paul desire to see the believers in Rome?

Paul desires to see them in order to give them some spiritual gift in order to strengthen them.

Romans 1:12ULT

¹² and that is to be mutually encouraged with you through each other's faith, both yours and mine.

UST

¹² In other words, {I want to share some gracious gift with you} in order that we may mutually encourage one other. Both you and I can help each other by sharing how we mutually trust in God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:13ULT

¹³ Now I do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, that I often intended to come to you (but I was hindered until now), so that I might have some fruit among you also, just as also among the rest of the Gentiles.

UST

¹³ My fellow believers, I certainly want you to know that I planned to visit you many times. But {God} has prevented me from visiting you until the present time. {I planned to visit you} in order to lead some people to believe in Christ among you as well, just like {how I have} also {done so} among the other nations.

Why had Paul been unable to visit the believers in Rome until now?

Paul had been unable to visit because he was hindered until now.

Romans 1:14ULT

¹⁴ I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to wise ones and to foolish ones.

UST

¹⁴ I am obligated {to proclaim the good news} to all non-Jewish people, whether or not they are {culturally} Greek and whether or not they are educated.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:15ULT

¹⁵ So, as it depends on me, {I am} eager to proclaim the gospel also to you, the ones in Rome.

UST

¹⁵ So then, if it were my choice, I would gladly proclaim the good news to you who dwell in Rome.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:16ULT

¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to all the ones believing, both to the Jew first and to the Greek.

UST

¹⁶ {I would gladly do this} because I am deeply honored to proclaim the good news because it is the powerful way that God uses to save anyone who believes {it}. {This is true for} both the Jews {who} first {heard the good news} and then everyone else.

What does Paul say the gospel is?

Paul says the gospel is the power of God for salvation for every one who believes.

Romans 1:17ULT

¹⁷ For the righteousness of God is revealed in it from faith to faith, just as it is written, "But the righteous one will live by faith."

UST

¹⁷ {This is true} because whenever {people proclaim} the good news, they reveal how God makes people righteous, which is entirely through trusting {in the Messiah}. This is what {the prophet Habakkuk meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "But the person whom God makes righteous will live forever by trusting {in God}."

What scripture does Paul quote concerning how the righteous will live?

Paul quotes the scripture, "The righteous will live by faith".

Romans 1:18ULT

¹⁸ For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, the ones holding back the truth in unrighteousness,

UST

¹⁸ {This is true} because from where God dwells he is revealing how he is furious toward {and will judge} every person who does ungodly and unrighteous things. These people suppress the things that God says are true by living in an unrighteous manner.

What do the ungodly and unrighteous do even though that which is known about God is visible to them? (vv18-19)

The ungodly and unrighteous hold back the truth even though that which is known about God is visible to them.

Romans 1:19ULT

¹⁹ because that which {is} known about God is visible to them, for God made it visible to them.

UST

¹⁹ {God will judge them} because what anyone can know about God is obvious to these people since God has made it obvious to them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:20ULT

²⁰ For his invisible qualities, both his eternal power and divine nature, are clearly seen from the creation of the world, being understood by the things that have been made. So they are without excuse.

UST

²⁰ {This is true} because people can clearly perceive those things about God that they cannot see {with their eyes}. {These things are} how powerful God is and the fact that he is God. {People could perceive these things} since the time God created the universe. The things that God has made have understood {these things}. For this reason, people cannot excuse themselves {from acknowledging that God exists}.

How are the unseen things about God clearly visible?

The unseen things about God are clearly visible through the created things.

What characteristics of God are clearly visible?

God's everlasting power and divine nature are clearly visible.

Romans 1:21ULT

²¹ For having known God, they did not glorify {him} as God, nor did they give {him} thanks. Instead, they became futile in their thoughts, and their senseless heart was darkened.

UST

²¹ {People cannot excuse themselves} because they do not honor him as God, even though they know that he exists. They also refuse to thank him. In contrast, they think about worthless things, and they are unable to understand spiritual things.

What happens to the thoughts and hearts of those who do not glorify God nor give him thanks?

Those who do not glorify God nor give him thanks become foolish in their thoughts and their hearts are darkened.

²² Claiming to be wise ones, they became foolish,

UST

²² {Although} they assert that they are wise, they are {actually} fools.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:23ULT

²³ and exchanged the glory of the imperishable God for a likeness of an image of perishable man, and of birds, and of four-footed beasts, and of creeping things.

UST

²³ They stop glorifying the God who is immortal, and instead they glorify idols that resemble mortal people, birds, four-legged animals, and animals that crawl {on the ground}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:24ULT

²⁴ Therefore, God gave them over to the lusts of their hearts for uncleanness, to dishonor their bodies among themselves;

UST

²⁴ Consequently, God lets these people do the lustful things that they desire to do, so that they become {spiritually} impure and they disgrace their bodies with one another {by doing sexually immoral acts}.

What does God do to those who exchange his glory for the images of perishable men and animals?

God gives them over to the lusts of their hearts for uncleanness, for their bodies to be dishonored among themselves.

Romans 1:25ULT

²⁵ who exchanged the truth of God for the lie and worshiped and served the creation instead of the Creator, who is blessed to eternity. Amen.

UST

²⁵ These people stop believing what is true about God and instead believe what is false {about idols}. They reverently worship things that God has created, instead of {worshiping} {the God} who created those things. {He is the one} whom people should bless forever! May it be so!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:26ULT

²⁶ For this reason, God gave them over to passions of dishonor, for both their females exchanged the natural use for that {which is} contrary to nature,

UST

²⁶ Because {these people do that}, God lets them do the dishonorable things they strongly desire {to do}. For example, their women stop doing natural {sexual} acts {with men} and instead do unnatural {sexual} acts {with women}.

For what dishonorable passions do these women and men burn in their lust? (vv26-27)

The women burn in their lust for one another, and the men burn in their lust for one another.

Romans 1:27ULT

²⁷ and likewise, the males also, having left the natural use of the female, burned in their lust for one another, male with male producing shameless acts and receiving in themselves the penalty which was necessary for their perversion.

UST

²⁷ Similarly, the men also stopped doing natural {sexual} acts with women {and} lusted intensely after other men. These men do shameless {sexual} acts with each other. They experience God penalizing them in their own bodies. {God must penalize them} because they pervert {God's natural sexual acts}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:28ULT

²⁸ And just as they did not approve of having God in their full awareness, God gave them over to a disapproved mind, to do the things that are not proper,

UST

²⁸ As these people thought that acknowledging God was worthless, God let their minds become worthless. As a result, they do inappropriate things.

What does God do to those who do not approve of having him in their awareness?

God gives them up to a disapproved mind, to do those things that are not proper.

Romans 1:29ULT

²⁹ filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, {and} malice, they are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, {and} evil intent. {They are} gossips,

UST

²⁹ {These people} are completely controlled by all kinds of unrighteous, wicked, covetous, and malicious {thoughts}. They are completely willing to be jealous, take another's life, argue, deceive, and commit evil deeds {against others}. They reveal secrets {about others}.

What are some of the characteristics of those who have a depraved mind?

Those who have a depraved mind are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, and evil intentions.

Romans 1:30ULT

³⁰ slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

UST

³⁰ They speak badly of {other people}. They hate God. They act violently. They think too highly of themselves. They boast {about themselves}. They think of {new kinds of} evil things {to do}. They do not obey their parents.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:31ULT

³¹ senseless, faithless, heartless, {and} merciless.

UST

³¹ These people are {morally} foolish. They do not do what they promise to do. They do not care {about other people}. They do not show mercy {to others}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 1:32ULT

³² Who, having fully known the righteous decree of God, that the ones practicing such things are worthy of death, they not only do these things, but they also give consent to the ones practicing them.

UST

³² These people fully understand that God has righteously declared that people who keep doing such {inappropriate} things deserve to die {spiritually}. {Nevertheless,} they not only keep on doing those {inappropriate} things, but they even happily approve of people who do such things!

What do those with a depraved mind understand about God's requirements?

Those with a depraved mind understand that those who practice such things are worthy of death.

Even though those with a depraved mind understand God's requirements, what do they do anyway?

They do unrighteous things anyway, and approve of those who practice them.

Romans 2

Romans 2:1

ULT

¹ Therefore, you are without excuse, O man—everyone judging—for in that which you judge the other you condemn yourself; for you, the one judging practice the same things.

UST

¹ Consequently, any one of you who judges another person cannot excuse yourself {at all} {when God condemns you}. {This is} because you are actually condemning yourself when you judge someone else, since you who judge someone else do the exact same things {that they do}!

Why are some people without excuse in their judging?

Some people are without excuse in their judging because what they judge in another they practice themselves.

Romans 2:2

ULT

² Now we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against the ones practicing such things.

UST

² Certainly, we acknowledge that God will correctly judge those people who continue doing such {inappropriate} things.

How does God judge when he judges those who practice unrighteousness?

God judges according to truth when he judges those who practice unrighteousness.

Romans 2:3

ULT

³ But do you think this, O man, the one judging the ones practicing such things and you are doing the same things, that you will escape from the judgment of God?

UST

³ You who judge the people who continue to do such {inappropriate} things while you do the exact same things yourself should certainly not think that you can escape when God judges you!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 2:4ULT

⁴ Or do you scorn the wealth of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance?

UST

⁴ You who despise {how} abundantly kind, tolerant, and patient God is must certainly know that God's kind acts {are meant to} cause you to repent.

What are God's patience, kindness, and goodness meant to do?

God's patience, kindness, and goodness are meant to lead a person to repentance.

Romans 2:5ULT

⁵ But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart, you are storing up for yourself wrath on the day of wrath and of the revelation of the righteous judgment of God,

UST

⁵ Instead, because you are stubborn and refuse to repent, you are causing God to punish you even more severely. {This will happen} when God punishes {sinners} and reveals how justly he judges.

What are those with hard, unrepentant hearts toward God storing up for themselves?

Those with hard, unrepentant hearts are storing up for themselves wrath on the day of God's righteous judgment.

Romans 2:6ULT

⁶ who will pay back to each one according to his deeds:

UST

⁶ God will {justly} reward or punish everyone for whatever they do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 2:7ULT

⁷ Indeed, eternal life to the ones, according to endurance of good work, seeking glory and honor and incorruptibility,

UST

⁷ Living eternally {is how God repays} those people who keep striving for God to glorify, honor, and preserve them {forever}. {They do this} by persisting in doing what is good.

What do those receive who have done consistent, good actions?

Those who have done consistent, good actions will receive eternal life.

Romans 2:8ULT

⁸ but to the ones from selfish ambition indeed being disobedient to the truth and becoming obedient to unrighteousness, wrath and anger.

UST

⁸ By contrast, God will fiercely punish those people who refuse to do what he says is true and right because they are selfishly ambitious.

What do those receive who obey unrighteousness? (vv8-9)

Those who obey unrighteousness receive wrath and anger.

Romans 2:9ULT

⁹ Tribulation and distress {will be} on every soul of man that produces the evil, both to the Jew first and to the Greek.

UST

⁹ {God will cause} every human being who does what is evil to become distressed and troubled. {This will happen} especially to the Jew {who does what is evil} and also to everyone else {who does so}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 2:10ULT

¹⁰ But glory and honor and peace will be to everyone working the good, both to the Jew first and to the Greek.

UST

¹⁰ By contrast, God will glorify, honor, and reconcile every person who does what is good. {This will happen} especially to the Jew {who does what is good} and also to everyone else {who does so}.

Romans 2:11ULT

¹¹ For there is no favoritism with God.

UST

¹¹ {These things are true} because God is impartial.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 2:12ULT

¹² For as many as have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and as many as have sinned with the law will be judged by the law.

UST

¹² {We know this about God,} because he will punish forever all people who sin without {knowing} the laws {that God gave the Jews} {even though} they do not know those laws. At the same time, God will judge according to his laws whoever sins while knowing those laws.

How does God show no partiality in his judgment between Jew and Greek?

God shows no partiality, because those who sin, either Jew or Greek, will perish.

Romans 2:13ULT

¹³ For the hearers of the law {are} not righteous with God, but the doers of the law will be justified.

UST

¹³ {God will judge everyone who sins} because God does not make righteous those people who {only} hear his laws. Rather, God will make righteous those people who obey his laws.

Who is justified before God?

The doers of the law are justified before God.

Romans 2:14ULT

¹⁴ For when Gentiles, the ones not having the law, do by nature the things of the law, they, not having the law, are a law to themselves,

UST

¹⁴ {God will judge everyone who sins} because whenever nations which do not know the laws {that God gave the Jews} naturally obey rules from those laws, {they prove that} they know laws within their minds even though they do not know God's laws.

How do Gentiles show that they do are a law to themselves?

Gentiles show that they are a law to themselves when, by nature, they do the things of the Law.

Romans 2:15ULT

¹⁵ who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness, the thoughts between themselves both accusing or even defending them

UST

¹⁵ {By naturally following some laws that God gave through Moses,} these people demonstrate that God has made each person aware of how to obey his laws. What they think shows that this is true, in that what each of them thinks will either accuse or even defend their actions.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 2:16ULT

¹⁶ on the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my gospel, through Christ Jesus.

UST

¹⁶ {This will happen} at the time when God {finally} judges the hidden thoughts that people think. {God's} good news that I proclaim teaches that he will judge {mankind} through the Messiah Jesus.

Romans 2:17ULT

¹⁷ But if you name yourself a Jew and rely upon the law and boast in God,

UST

¹⁷ Now, {I am addressing} you who identify yourselves as Jews: You depend on the laws {God gave you} {to avoid God's judgment}. You brag that you know God.

Romans 2:18ULT

¹⁸ and know his will and approve of the things that are excellent, being instructed from the law;

UST

¹⁸ You know what God wants. Also, since {some people} have taught you {God's law}, you approve of what is superior.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 2:19ULT

¹⁹ and you have become confident that you are a guide to blind men, a light to the ones in darkness,

UST

¹⁹ You have even convinced yourselves that you {Jews} are the only ones who can teach those {non-Jewish people} who do not know {about God}. {You are convinced that} only you can enable ignorant people to understand {who God is}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 2:20ULT

²⁰ an instructor of foolish men, a teacher of little children, having in the law the form of the knowledge and of the truth,

UST

²⁰ {You have convinced yourself that} you should instruct people who are foolish. {You have convinced yourself that} you should teach {people who are as ignorant as} infants. {You think this way} because you know the laws {God gave the Jews}, which fully contain what we can know and what is true.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 2:21ULT

²¹ then you, the one teaching another, do you not teach yourself? You, the one preaching not to steal, do you steal?

UST

²¹ So {even though you Jews have convinced yourself that these things are true}, you should teach yourselves to do what you teach others to do {because you don't do those things}! You keep telling others that they should not steal, but you steal!

What challenge does Paul give to those Jews who rest upon the law and teach others?

Paul challenges them that if they teach others the law, they should also teach themselves.

Which sins does Paul mention that the Jewish teachers of the Law should stop doing? (vv21-22)

Paul mentions the sins of stealing, adultery, and the robbery of temples.

Romans 2:22ULT

²² You, the one saying not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You, the one abhorring idols, do you rob temples?

UST

²² You keep telling {people} not to have sexual relations with people whom they did not marry, {but} you do so! You {supposedly} detest idols, {but} you ransack temples {that contain idols}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 2:23ULT

²³ You, who boast in the law, do you dishonor God through the transgression of the law?

UST

²³ You brag about {how well you understand} the laws {God gave you}, {but} you disgrace God by disobeying those laws!

Why is the name of God dishonored among the Gentiles because of the Jewish teachers of the law? (vv23-24)

God's name is being dishonored because the Jewish teachers of the law are transgressing the law.

Romans 2:24ULT

²⁴ For "the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you," just as it is written.

UST

²⁴ {These things are true} because it is what {the prophet Isaiah meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "The nations say bad things about God because of {how wickedly} you {Jews act}."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 2:25ULT

²⁵ For circumcision indeed benefits if you practice the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

UST

²⁵ {You Jews who have sinned will be judged} because, being circumcised {only} benefits you if you obey the laws {God gave you}. However, if you disobey those laws, being circumcised does not benefit you at all.

How does Paul say a Jewish person's circumcision can become uncircumcision?

Paul says that a Jewish person's circumcision can become uncircumcision if that person is a violator of the law.

Romans 2:26ULT

²⁶ If, then, the uncircumcision keeps the requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be considered as circumcision?

UST

²⁶ So then, if uncircumcised people obey what God requires in the laws {he gave the Jews}, God will regard those uncircumcised people as being circumcised.

How does Paul say that a Gentile person's uncircumcision can be considered circumcision?

Paul says that a Gentile person's uncircumcision can be considered circumcision if that person keeps the requirements of the law.

Romans 2:27ULT

²⁷ And the uncircumcision by nature, fulfilling the law, will judge you who {are}, through letter and circumcision, a transgressor of the law!

UST

²⁷ And people who are physically uncircumcised yet fully obey the laws {from God} will judge you {Jews}! Although {you know} the written rules {God gave the Jews} and you are circumcised, you have disobeyed those laws!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 2:28ULT

²⁸ For he is not a Jew who {is} one visibly, neither is this circumcision visible in the flesh,

UST

²⁸ {This is true} because a {true} Jew is not someone who does Jewish rituals that people can see. {Similarly,} people cannot see {true} circumcision on a person's body.

Who does Paul say is a true Jew? (vv28-29)

Paul says that a true Jew is a Jew inwardly, with a circumcision of the heart.

Romans 2:29ULT

²⁹ but the Jew in secret {is}, and circumcision {is} of the heart in the Spirit, not in the letter; whose the praise {is} not from men but from God.

UST

²⁹ Rather, a {true} Jew is one {by means of something} that people cannot see. {True} circumcision {happens} in a person's mind {and} the {Holy} Spirit does it. {Obeying} the written rules {God gave the Jews} cannot do it. God commends a true Jew, but other people do not.

From whom does a true Jew receive praise?

A true Jew receives praise from God.

Romans 3

Romans 3:1

ULT

¹ What then {is} the advantage of the Jew, or what {is} the benefit of the circumcision?

UST

¹ {You Jews might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely being a Jew is not advantageous! Surely being circumcised is not beneficial at all!"

What is first of all among the advantages of the Jew? (vv1-2)

First of all among the advantages of the Jew is that they were entrusted with revelation from God.

Romans 3:2

ULT

² Great in every way! For indeed first, that they were entrusted with the sayings of God.

UST

² {Then I would say, "Being a Jew benefits a person} in many ways!" {This is} certainly {true} because, first of all, God trusted the Jews with preserving what he had said {in the Scriptures}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 3:3

ULT

³ For what if some were unfaithful? Their unfaithfulness will not nullify the faithfulness of God, will it?

UST

³ {So you might say,} "Some of these {Jews} were certainly unfaithful {to God}! How unfaithful those people are certainly cannot invalidate how faithful God is!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 3:4ULT

⁴ May it never be! Instead, let God be true, but every man a liar. Just as it is written, "So that you might be justified in your words and you will prevail when you are judged."

UST

⁴ {Then I would say,} "Of course not!" On the contrary, God {is always} truthful, but everyone else is not. This is what {David meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "The result {of my sin} is that people will acknowledge that you{, God,} are right when you speak and victorious when people {try to} judge you."

Even though every man is a liar, what is God found to be?

Even though every man is a liar, God is found to be true.

Romans 3:5ULT

⁵ But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? God {is} not unrighteous for imposing his wrath, {is he}? (I speak according to men.)

UST

⁵ But {you might say,} "Suppose {this is true and} how unrighteous we {Jews} are {actually} confirms how righteous God is. {That} could not {possibly mean} that God is unrighteous because he punishes {us}!" (When I talk like this, I am expressing how human beings think.)

Because God is righteous, what is he able to do? (vv5-6)

Because God is righteous, he is able to judge the world.

Romans 3:6ULT

⁶ May it never be! Otherwise, how will God judge the world?

UST

⁶ {Then I would say,} "Of course not! If God were unrighteous when he punishes us, then he could not {possibly} judge {anyone in} the world!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 3:7ULT

⁷ But if the truth of God through my lie abounds to his glory, why am I still being judged as a sinner?

UST

⁷ But {then you might say,} "Suppose {this is true, and} my lying further glorifies God {and} how truthful he is. {If that is so,} then {surely} God should not still judge me as if I were sinning!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 3:8ULT

⁸ And not (just as we are blasphemed and just as some affirm us to say), "Let us do the evil things, so that the good things may come"—whose judgment is just.

UST

⁸ And {if this is true, then} you should {just} tell us to act wickedly in order that good things can happen!" (This is exactly what some people say falsely about me and claim that I say. It is right {for God} to condemn people {who speak and act} this way!)

What comes on those who say, "Let us do evil, that good may come"?

Judgment comes on those who say, "Let us do evil, that good may come."

Romans 3:9ULT

⁹ What then? Are we better off? Not at all. For we have already accused both Jews and Greeks, all of them, of being under sin.

UST

⁹ {You Jews might then say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then we are surely not superior {to non-Jewish people}!" {And I would say that} indeed we are not. {I say this} because I have previously charged that all Jews and non-Jewish people cannot stop being sinful.

What is written in the Scriptures about the righteousness of all, both Jews and Greeks? (vv9-10)

It is written that there is none righteous, not one.

Romans 3:10ULT

¹⁰ Just as it is written: "There is none righteous, not even one.

Romans 3:20ULT

²⁰ because not any flesh will be justified by works of law before him; for full awareness of sin {is} through law.

UST

²⁰ {This is true} because God will not make anyone righteous with himself {simply} because they obey the laws {he gave the Jews}. {This is so} because those laws {only} make people aware of how sinful they are.

Who will be justified by the works of the law?

No flesh will be justified by the works of the law.

What comes through the law?

The full awareness of sin comes through the law.

Romans 3:21ULT

²¹ But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been made visible, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets;

UST

²¹ But now God has revealed how he makes people righteous. {Becoming righteous} is not related to obeying the laws {God gave the Jews}. {Yet,} in what they wrote {in the Scriptures} Moses and the prophets testify {about how God makes people righteous}.

By what witnesses has a righteousness without the law now been made known?

By the witnesses of the Law and the Prophets has a righteousness without the law now been made known.

Romans 3:22ULT

²² but the righteousness of God {is} through faith in Jesus Christ for all the ones believing, for there is no distinction.

UST

What is the righteousness without the law that has now been made known?

The righteousness without the law is the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all those who believe.

Romans 3:23ULT

²³ For all sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

UST

²⁴ God makes {these sinful people} righteous as a gift because he is so kind. {People receive this gift from God} when God unites them to Jesus the Messiah, who redeemed them {from being punished for being sinful}.

How is a person justified before God?

A person is justified before God freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

Romans 3:25ULT

²⁵ whom God presented {as} a propitiation through faith in his blood for a demonstration of his righteousness, because of the overlooking of the sins that happened previously

UST

²⁵ God offered Jesus as the one who atones {for everyone's sins}. {People are rescued from being punished for being sinful} by trusting in his {sacrificial} death. {God did this} in order to show how God makes people righteous. {This happened} because God disregarded people's sinful acts that they had previously done.

For what purpose did God provide Christ Jesus?

God provided Christ Jesus as a propitiation through faith in his blood.

Romans 3:26ULT

²⁶ in the forbearance of God, for the demonstration of his righteousness at this present time, so that he could be just and justifying the one who {is} from faith in Jesus.

UST

²⁶ {God did this} because he is so tolerant. {God also did this} in order to show how he makes people righteous during our time. {This is} for the purpose of showing that God is righteous and that he makes people righteous {if} they trust in Jesus.

What did God show by all that happened through Jesus Christ?

God showed that he is the one who justifies anyone because of faith in Jesus.

Romans 3:27ULT

²⁷ Where then {is} the boasting? It is excluded. Through what kind of law? Of the works? No! But through a law of faith.

UST

²⁷ {You Jews might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely no one can boast!" {Then I would say,} "Indeed, no one can!" {Then you might say,} "Surely {we can become righteous} by obeying the laws {God gave the Jews}! Surely doing {those things} {will make us righteous}!" {Then I would say,} "Absolutely not! On the contrary, {people become righteous} by trusting {in Jesus the Messiah}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 3:28ULT

²⁸ For we reckon a man to be justified by faith apart from works of the law.

UST

²⁸ Indeed, we {Jewish Christians} consider people to become righteous by trusting {in Jesus the Messiah}. {Being righteous} is not related to doing those things {that God commanded} in the laws {he gave the Jews}."

What role do the works of the law have in justification?

A person is justified by faith totally apart from the works of the law.

Romans 3:29ULT

²⁹ Or {is he} God of Jews only? {Is he} not also of Gentiles? Yes, also of Gentiles,

UST

²⁹ {Or you might say,} "Surely God is not only the God of the Jews. Surely he is the God of {all} the nations too!" {So I would say,} "Absolutely! He is the God of {all} the nations too.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 3:30ULT

³⁰ if, indeed, God {is} one, who will justify the circumcision by faith and the uncircumcision through the {same} faith.

UST

³⁰ {This is true} because there is certainly {only} one God {for all people}. He will make righteous {both} the Jews who trust {in Jesus} and the non-Jewish people who trust in {Jesus}."

How does God justify the circumcised Jew and the uncircumcised Gentile?

God justifies both by faith.

Romans 3:31

ULT

³¹ Do we then nullify the law through the {same} faith? May it never be! Instead, we uphold the law.

UST

³¹ {You Jews might say,} “Then surely we make the laws {God gave us} invalid by trusting in {Jesus}!” {So I would say,} “Of course not! On the contrary, we confirm that {what God said in} those laws is valid.”

What do we do with the law through faith?

We uphold the law through faith.

Romans 4

Romans 4:1

ULT

¹ What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has discovered?

UST

¹ {You Jews might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely our physical ancestor Abraham found out {about it}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 4:2

ULT

² For if Abraham was justified by works, he has a boast, but not before God.

UST

² {This must be true} because if Abraham became righteous based on doing the things {that God commanded in his laws}, then he could brag {about it}." On the contrary, {I would say that} {Abraham could} not possibly {boast about it} to God!

What would have given Abraham reason to boast?

Abraham would have had reason to boast if he had been justified by works.

Romans 4:3

ULT

³ For what does the scripture say? "And Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."

UST

³ {I say this} because, {Moses} surely tells {us} in the Scriptures, "Abraham trusted in God, and God considered Abraham to be righteous because he trusted in him."

What do the scriptures say about how Abraham was justified?

The scripture says that Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.

Romans 4:4ULT

⁴ Now to the one working, the wage is not credited according to grace, but according to obligation.

UST

⁴ Indeed, when a person works, he does not consider the wage {he earns} to be a gracious gift. On the contrary, {that person considers the wage he earns} to be what his employer owes him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 4:5ULT

⁵ Now to the one not working, but believing on the one justifying the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness.

UST

⁵ By contrast, when a person does not obey {the laws God gave the Jews}, but trusts in the God who can make unrighteous people righteous, God considers him to be righteous because he trusted in him.

What kind of people does God justify?

God justifies the people who trust in him.

Romans 4:6ULT

⁶ Even as David also speaks {of} the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

UST

⁶ This is also the same thing that David wrote {in the Scriptures} about how blessed people are when God considers them to be righteous, even though they do not do those things {that God commanded}. {David wrote:}

According to David, in what way is a man blessed by God? (vv6-8)

According to David, blessed is the man whose sins are forgiven and whose sins are not counted by the Lord.

Romans 4:7ULT

⁷ “Blessed {are those} whose lawless deeds have been forgiven, and whose sins have been covered.

UST

⁷ “People are so happy when God forgives their lawless acts! People are so happy when God no longer acknowledges their sinful acts!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 4:8ULT

⁸ Blessed {is} a man whose sin the Lord does certainly not count.”

UST

⁸ Any person whom the Lord never again considers to be sinful is so happy!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 4:9ULT

⁹ Then {is} this blessedness upon the circumcision, or also upon the uncircumcision? For we say, “His faith was credited to Abraham as righteousness.”

UST

⁹ Therefore, these happy people are not only circumcised {Jews} but even uncircumcised people {who are not Jews}! {This must be true} because we {Jews} quote {the scripture that states,} “God considers Abraham to be righteous because he trusted {in him}.”

Was Abraham’s faith counted as righteousness before or after he was circumcised?
(vv9-10)

Abraham’s faith was counted as righteousness before he was circumcised.

Romans 4:10ULT

¹⁰ How then was it credited? Being in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? {It was} not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

UST

¹⁰ So then, {you surely know} when Abraham trusted in God and God considered {him to be righteous}! {You surely know whether this happened} before he was circumcised or afterward! {Indeed,} it was not while Abraham was circumcised, but while he was still uncircumcised {that God considered him to be righteous}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 4:11ULT

¹¹ And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith that {he had} in his uncircumcision so that he would be the father of all the ones believing through uncircumcision, so that the righteousness would be credited to them;

UST

¹¹ Abraham was circumcised as a mark {in his body} to prove that God had made him righteous because Abraham trusted {in him} before he was circumcised. {This happened} in order for him to become the {spiritual} ancestor for every non-Jewish person who trusts in God in order that God would consider them to be righteous {because they trust in him}.

Abraham is the father of which groups of people? (vv11-12)

Abraham is the father of all who believe, both the physically uncircumcised and the circumcised.

Romans 4:12ULT

¹² and the father of circumcision to the one {being} not only from the circumcision, but to the ones also following in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham in uncircumcision.

UST

¹² {This} also {happened in order for Abraham to become} the {spiritual} ancestor of those people who are circumcised, that is, those circumcised {Jews} {who are not only circumcised in their bodies}, but who also trust in God the same way that our ancestor Abraham did even before he was circumcised.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 4:13ULT

¹³ For the promise to Abraham or to his seed that he would be heir of the world {was} not through the law but through the righteousness of faith.

UST

¹³ {This is true} because {when} God promised Abraham and those who descend from him that the {whole} world would belong to him, {God did not promise this} because {Abraham obeyed} the laws {God gave the Jews}. Rather, {God promised this} because God had made {Abraham} righteous because Abraham trusted {in him}.

What promise was given to Abraham and his descendants through the righteousness of faith?

It was promised to Abraham and his descendants that they would be heirs of the world.

Romans 4:14ULT

¹⁴ For if the heirs {are} from the law, the faith has been emptied, and the promise has been nullified.

UST

¹⁴ {This is true} because, if people could inherit {what God promised Abraham} by obeying the laws {he gave the Jews}, {then} trusting {in God} would become useless! What God promised would also become invalid.

What would be true if the promise to Abraham had come through the law?

If the promise had come through the law, then faith would be empty and the promise not true.

Romans 4:15ULT

¹⁵ For the law brings about wrath, but where there is no law, neither {is there} transgression.

UST

¹⁵ {This is} because the laws {God gave the Jews} are intended to punish {those who disobey them}. However, where God's laws do not exist, no one can disobey {them}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 4:16ULT

¹⁶ For this reason {it is} by faith, in order that {it may be} according to grace, so that the promise might be certain to all the seed—not only to the one from the law, but also to the one from the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

UST

¹⁶ This is why what God promised comes by trusting in him in order to show how kind he is. {God was so kind} in order that he could secure what he promised to everyone who has {spiritually} descended {from Abraham}. {Those who have spiritually descended from Abraham} are not only those {Jews} who obey the laws {God gave them}, but also those who trust {in God} as Abraham did. Abraham is the {spiritual} ancestor of all of us {who trust in God}.

For what reasons is the promise given by faith?

The promise is given by faith so that it is by grace, and so that it is sure.

Romans 4:17ULT

¹⁷ just as it is written, "I have appointed you the father of many nations," in the presence of God whom he trusted, the one making the dead ones live and calling the things not existing as existing;

UST

¹⁷ (This is exactly what {God} said in the Scriptures {about Abraham}: "I have chosen you to be a {spiritual} ancestor for numerous people groups.") God considers {Abraham to be our spiritual ancestor}. Abraham trusted God. {God is the one} who causes dead people to become alive {again}. He also commands things that do not exist {to exist}, then they exist.

What two things does Paul say God does?

Paul says that God gives life to the dead and calls things that do not exist into existence.

Romans 4:18ULT

¹⁸ who against hope believed on the basis of hope so that he might become the father of many nations according to what {was} said, "So will your seed be."

UST

¹⁸ Abraham trusted {in God} by hoping {in God} despite what seemed hopeless. As a result, he became the {spiritual} ancestor for numerous people groups. {This happened} just as God had promised {him} {in the Scriptures}: "The people who descend from you will become as numerous {as the stars in the sky}."

How did Abraham respond to God's promise even with these outward circumstances?

Abraham confidently trusted God and did not hesitate in unbelief.

What outward circumstances made it difficult for Abraham to believe God's promise that he would be the father of many nations? (vv18-19)

When God made the promise to Abraham, Abraham was about a hundred years old and Sarah's womb was dead.

Romans 4:19ULT

¹⁹ And not weakening in the faith, he considered his own body as already being dead (being about a hundred years old)—and the deadness of the womb of Sarah.

UST

¹⁹ Abraham thought that his body was too old to produce children. (He was almost 100 years old!) {He also thought} that {his wife} Sarah was unable to become pregnant {because she never had been able to do so before}. {Nevertheless,} Abraham kept on trusting {God}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 4:20ULT

²⁰ But toward the promise of God, he did not waver in unbelief, but was strengthened in the faith, having given glory to God,

UST

²⁰ Indeed, Abraham did not faithlessly doubt what God had promised. On the contrary, God empowered Abraham to continue trusting {in him} while Abraham was glorifying God.

How did Abraham respond to God's promise even with these outward circumstances?

Abraham confidently trusted God and did not hesitate in unbelief.

Romans 4:21ULT

²¹ and having been fully convinced that what he had promised, he is also able to do.

UST

²¹ God also totally assured Abraham that he is able to do what he had promised {to do}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 4:22ULT

²² And therefore, "it was credited to him as righteousness."

UST

²² And this is why, "God considered Abraham to be righteous because he trusted in him."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 4:23ULT

²³ Now it was not written only for his sake, "It was credited to him,"

UST

²³ Yet, when {Moses} wrote {in the Scriptures}, "God considered how Abraham trusted {him};" {these words} not only refer to Abraham.

For whom was the account of Abraham written? (vv23-24)

The account of Abraham was written for his benefit and also for our benefit.

Romans 4:24ULT

²⁴ but also for our sake, to whom it is about to be credited, to the ones believing in the one having raised Jesus our Lord from the dead ones,

UST

²⁴ On the contrary, {these words} also refer to us {who trust in Jesus}. God is going to consider how we {believers} trust {him}. {We are} the people who trust him. {He is} the one who caused our Lord Jesus to become alive again after he had died.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 4:25ULT

²⁵ who was given up for the sake of our trespasses and was raised for the sake of our justification.

UST

²⁵ God allowed people to kill Jesus because we sinned {against God}. {God} also caused Jesus to become alive again in order to make us righteous.

What do we believe God has done for us?

We believe God has raised Jesus from the dead, who was delivered up for our sins and raised for our justification.

Romans 5

Romans 5:1

ULT

¹ Therefore, having been justified by faith, let us have peace ^[1] with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

UST

¹ Consequently, we should live peacefully with God by means of {what} our Lord Jesus the Messiah {did for us} because we have become righteous by trusting {in Jesus}.

What do believers have because they are justified by faith?

Because they are justified by faith, believers have peace with God through the Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:2

ULT

² through whom we also have access by this faith into this grace in which we stand, and we boast on the basis of hope of the glory of God.

UST

² Our Lord Jesus the Messiah also allows us to continually experience how kind God is by trusting in Jesus. We can confidently boast that we will share in God's glorious status.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 5:3

ULT

³ And not only this, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that this suffering produces endurance;

UST

³ This is not the only thing {about which we can confidently boast}. Rather, we can also confidently boast about the painful things {that we have experienced}. {We can do this} because we know that a painful thing {that we experience} causes us to endure {hardships better than before}.

What are three things that suffering produces? (vv3-4)

Suffering produces endurance, character, and hope.

Romans 5:4ULT

⁴ and this endurance, character; and this character, hope.

UST

⁴ And being able to endure {hardships} results in {God} approving {us}. And {when God} approves {us, we become more} confident.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 5:5ULT

⁵ And that hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, the one given to us.

UST

⁵ And when we become confident, we will not be disappointed. {This is} because the Holy Spirit has enabled us to deeply understand {how much} God loves us. God has given us this Holy Spirit.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 5:6ULT

⁶ For we still being weak, yet at the right time Christ died on behalf of ungodly ones.

UST

⁶ In fact, while we were still helpless, {Jesus} the Messiah died for the sake of {us} impious people. {God caused this to happen} at just the right time.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 5:7ULT

⁷ For someone will hardly die on behalf of a righteous {person}. Perhaps, though, someone might even dare to die on behalf of the good {person}.

UST

⁷ Indeed, someone would rarely consider dying for the sake of a person who is righteous, although someone might possibly even bravely consider dying for the sake of a good person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 5:8ULT

⁸ But God demonstrates his own love toward us, in that, we still being sinners, Christ died for us.

UST

⁸ However, God shows his own love towards we {believers} by this fact: while we were still sinful, {Jesus} the Messiah died for our benefit!

How does God demonstrate his love toward us?

God demonstrates his love toward us, because while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 5:9ULT

⁹ Much more then, having now been justified by his blood, we will be saved through him from the wrath.

UST

⁹ Consequently, since the Messiah's {sacrificial} death has already made us righteous, it is even more certain that he will rescue us when God {finally} punishes {sinners}!

Being justified by Christ's blood, from what are believers saved?

Being justified by Christ's blood, believers are saved from the wrath of God.

Romans 5:10ULT

¹⁰ For if, being enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life.

UST

¹⁰ Indeed, God's Son {Jesus} died to reconcile us to God while we were {still} {his} enemies. Therefore, since Jesus has {already} reconciled us to God, it is even more certain that he will rescue us {when God punishes sinners} because he is alive {again}!

What relationship do unbelievers have with God before they are reconciled to God through Jesus?

Unbelievers are enemies of God before they are reconciled to God through Jesus.

Romans 5:11ULT

¹¹ Not only this, but we also are boasting in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we now have received the reconciliation.

UST

¹¹ Now these are not the only things {God does for us}. Rather, we also boast about God by means of {what} our Lord Jesus the Messiah {has done for us}. Jesus has already reconciled us {with God}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 5:12ULT

¹² For this reason, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and through sin, death, so also death spread to all men, because of which all sinned.

UST

¹² So then, sin started existing in the world because one man sinned, and {living things started} to die because he sinned. In the same way, everyone started dying as well, because everyone sins.

What happened because of one man's sin?

Because of the sin of one man, sin entered into the world, death entered through sin, and death spread to all people.

Romans 5:13ULT

¹³ For until law, sin was in the world, but sin is not charged, {there} being no law.

UST

¹³ Indeed, people throughout the world sinned before {God gave his} laws {to the Jews}. However, God did not legally regard what they did as sinning, since those laws did not yet exist {to identify what it means to sin}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 5:14ULT

¹⁴ Nevertheless, death ruled from Adam until Moses, even over the ones not having sinned in the likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is a pattern of the one coming.

UST

¹⁴ However, everyone died from {the time of the first man} Adam until {the time of} Moses. Even those people died who did not sin by violating the same command God gave to Adam. Adam is like the person who would come {later}.

Who was the one man through whom sin entered the world?

Adam was the one man through whom sin entered the world.

Romans 5:15ULT

¹⁵ But not like the trespass, so also {is} the gracious gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gift by grace that {is} of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many!

UST

¹⁵ But what God has kindly given {us} is not the same as how Adam rejected {God's command}. In fact, it is true that many people died because the one man {Adam} rejected {God's command}. {But} how kind God is and that which God kindly gives through the one man Jesus the Messiah extend to many people {and are} much greater!

How is God's free gift different than Adam's sins?

By Adam's sin many died, but the grace of God and his free gift through Christ abounds to many.

Romans 5:16ULT

¹⁶ And the gift {is} not as through one who sinned. For indeed, the judgment from one, to condemnation, but the gracious gift from many trespasses, to justification.

UST

¹⁶ Yet, what God gives is not like {what happened} because the one man {Adam} sinned. {This is true} because, in fact, God judged {everyone} after the sinful thing {that Adam did}, which resulted in God condemning {everyone}. By contrast, what God kindly gave {people} after they rejected {his commands} many {times} resulted in God making them righteous.

What resulted from Adam's sin, and what resulted from God's free gift?

The judgment of condemnation resulted from Adam's sin, but justification resulted from God's free gift.

Romans 5:17ULT

¹⁷ For if, by the trespass of the one, death ruled through the one, how much more will the ones receiving the abundance of the grace and the gift of the righteousness rule in life through the one, Jesus Christ.

UST

¹⁷ Indeed, since everyone died because the one man {Adam} rejected {God's command}, it is even more certain that those {people} who accept how abundantly kind God is and {are those people whom} he makes righteous will live in control {of themselves}. {This will happen} because of {what} Jesus the Messiah {has done}.

What ruled from Adam's sin, and what ruled through God's gift of righteousness?

Death ruled from Adam's sin, and those who receive God's gift rule through the life of Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:18ULT

¹⁸ So then, as through one trespass to all men {led} to condemnation, so also through one righteous act to all men {led} to justification of life.

UST

¹⁸ Therefore, in the way that God condemned everyone because {Adam} rejected {God's command}, in the same way, God makes everyone righteous, which results in {them} living eternally, because of the righteous act that {Jesus} did.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 5:19ULT

¹⁹ For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one will the many be made righteous ones.

UST

¹⁹ Indeed, in the same way that people became sinful because the one man {Adam} disobeyed {God}, in the same way many people will become righteous because the one man {Jesus} obeyed {God}.

What were many made through Adam's disobedience, and what will many be made through the obedience of Christ?

Many were made sinners through Adam's disobedience, and many will be made righteous through the obedience of Christ.

Romans 5:20ULT

²⁰ Now the law slipped in so that the trespass might increase. But where the sin increased, the grace abounded even more

UST

²⁰ Yet {God} added {his} laws in order that people might reject {his commands} even more. Nevertheless, whenever people began to sin even more, then even more God showed how kind he is!

Why did the law come in alongside?

The law came alongside in order that the trespass might increase.

What abounded more than the trespass?

God's grace abounded more than the trespass.

Romans 5:21ULT

²¹ so that just as sin ruled in death, so also grace might rule through righteousness to everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

5:1 ^[1]

UST

²¹ {This happened} so that God could be gracious to people by making them righteous. Just as being sinful controlled people by making them die, in the same way, when God makes people righteous, they live forever. {This is} because of {what} our Lord Jesus the Messiah {has done}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6

Romans 6:1

ULT

¹ What then will we say? Should we continue in the sin so that the grace might increase?

UST

¹ {Someone might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely we {believers} should keep on sinning in order that, even more, God might show how kind he is even more!"

Should believers continue in sin so that God's grace may abound? (vv1-2)

May it never be.

Romans 6:2

ULT

² May it never be! We who died to sin, how will we still live in it?

UST

² {Then I would say,} "Of course not!" We who are no longer controlled by sinning surely must not continue living sinfully!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6:3

ULT

³ Or do you not know that as many as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

UST

³ You surely know that God unites to the Messiah Jesus whomever someone baptizes, and it is as if that baptized person also died with the Messiah!

Into what were people baptized who were baptized into Christ Jesus?

People baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into Christ's death.

Romans 6:4ULT

⁴ We were buried, then, with him through the baptism into his death so that just as Christ was raised from dead ones through the glory of the Father, so also we in newness of life might walk.

UST

⁴ So, by being baptized as if we died with {the Messiah}, it is like God buried us {in the tomb} with {Jesus}. {This is so} in order that, just as God the Father's glorious power caused the Messiah to become alive again after he had died, in the same way, we too can live a new way of living.

What should believers do since Christ was raised from the dead?

Believers should walk in newness of life.

Romans 6:5ULT

⁵ For if we have become planted together in the likeness of his death, we will also certainly become {part of} the resurrection;

UST

⁵ Indeed, since we share in what resembles Jesus dying, we will surely also share in God making us alive again.

In what two ways are believers united to Christ through baptism?

Believers are united to Christ in his death and resurrection.

Romans 6:6ULT

⁶ knowing this, that our old man was crucified together {with him} in order that the body of sin might be nullified, {for it} to no longer enslave us to the sin.

UST

⁶ We know that God {also} did away with our former {sinful} way of living when people crucified Jesus. {He did this} in order to totally remove the way sin controls us, so that we no longer have to live sinfully.

What was done for us so that we should no longer be slaves to sin?

Our old man was crucified with Christ so that we should no longer be slaves to sin.

Romans 6:7ULT

⁷ For the one having died has been freed from the sin.

UST

⁷ {This is} because, when people {who live sinfully} share in {Jesus'} death, God frees them from having to live sinfully.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6:8ULT

⁸ But if we died together with Christ, we believe that we will also live together with him,

UST

⁸ Now since {it is as if} we died with the Messiah, we trust that we will also live with him {eternally}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6:9ULT

⁹ knowing that Christ, having been raised from dead ones, no longer dies; death no longer is lord over him.

UST

⁹ We know that the Messiah can never die again, because God caused him to become alive again after he had died. Nothing can ever cause the Messiah to die again!

How do we know that death no longer rules over Christ?

We know that death no longer rules over Christ because Christ has been raised from the dead.

Romans 6:10ULT

¹⁰ For that which he died, he died to sin once and never again. But what he lives, he lives to God.

UST

¹⁰ {This is} because when Jesus died, he only had to die that one time only in order to remove {the way} sin {controls people}. Now that he is alive {again}, he lives in order to glorify God.

How many times did Christ die to sin, and for how many people did he die?

Christ died to sin once for all.

How should a believer think of himself with respect to sin? (vv10-11)

A believer should think of himself as dead to sin.

For whom does a believer live his life? (vv10-11)

A believer lives his life for God.

Romans 6:11ULT

¹¹ In the same way, you also must consider yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

UST

¹¹ Similarly, you too regard yourselves as no longer controlled by sinning. Indeed, {regard yourselves} as alive in order to glorify God because God has united you to the Messiah Jesus.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6:12ULT

¹² Therefore, do not let sin rule in your mortal body, to obey its lusts.

UST

¹² Since this is true, do not allow your sinful desires to control you. {This would} result in you doing {the sinful things} that you want to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6:13ULT

¹³ And do not keep presenting your members {as} tools of unrighteousness to sin. But present yourselves to God, as living from dead ones, and your members {as} tools of righteousness to God.

UST

¹³ Do not use your body parts in order to do unrighteous things {or} to sin. Instead, live in order to do what God wants you to do, like people whom God caused to live again after they had died. Also, use your body parts in order to do righteous things to glorify God.

To whom should a believer present the members of his body, and for what purpose?

A believer should present the members of his body to God as tools of righteousness.

Romans 6:14ULT

¹⁴ For sin must not be lord over you, for you are not under law, but under grace.

UST

¹⁴ Indeed, do not allow your desire to sin to control you because the laws {God gave the Jews} do not control you. Instead, how kind God is controls you.

What does a believer live under, which allows him to rule over sin?

A believer lives under grace, which allows him to rule over sin.

Romans 6:15ULT

¹⁵ What then? Should we sin because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be!

UST

¹⁵ {Someone might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely we {believers} should keep on sinning because the laws {God gave the Jews} do not control us. Instead, how kind God is controls us!" {Then I would say,} "Of course not!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6:16ULT

¹⁶ Do you not know that to what you keep presenting yourselves {as} slaves for obedience, you become slaves to what you obey—whether of sin {leading} to death, or of obedience {leading} to righteousness?

UST

¹⁶ You surely know that if you submit yourselves to be controlled by a thing or person, you become like slaves to that thing or person you submit to! {This is true} whether you submit yourselves to living sinfully, which will kill you {eternally}, or you submit yourselves to God, which will make you righteous.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6:17ULT

¹⁷ But thanks {be} to God that you were slaves of sin, but you listened from the heart to the pattern of teaching that you were given over to.

UST

¹⁷ Although you used to submit yourselves to living sinfully, {now} you are sincerely submissive to the type of teaching to which God has submitted you. Thank God!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6:18ULT

¹⁸ And having been freed from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness.

UST

¹⁸ Indeed, since God liberated you from living sinfully, you are {now} serving {God} righteously.

What is the end result for a person who makes himself a servant of God? (vv18-19)

The end result of a person who makes himself a servant of God is righteousness.

Romans 6:19ULT

¹⁹ I speak as a man because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves to uncleanness and to more and more lawlessness, so now present your members {as} slaves to righteousness {leading} to sanctification.

UST

¹⁹ (I {Paul} am speaking in human terms, because you are spiritually immature.) Indeed, just as you {previously} used your body parts to live impurely and to increasingly break God's laws, in the same way, now use your body parts to live righteously. {This will cause you} to live like God's people should live.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6:20ULT

²⁰ For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with respect to righteousness.

UST

²⁰ {This is} because when you used to submit yourselves to living sinfully, you were not living righteously.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6:21ULT

²¹ So what fruit were you then having because of which things you are now ashamed? For the outcome of those things {is} death.

UST

²¹ So, formerly you did not benefit from those {sinful} things {you did} that now embarrass you. {This is because} those things will eventually kill {you} {eternally}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 6:22ULT

²² But now, having been freed from sin and having been enslaved to God, you have your fruit {leading} to sanctification, and the outcome {is} eternal life.

UST

²² But now {that you trust in Jesus}, God has freed you from living sinfully and has caused you to serve him the way slaves would serve him. Therefore, you receive what is beneficial, which results in you living like God's people should live. Indeed, {living in that way} will eventually result in you living eternally.

Slaves of God have their fruit for what purpose?

Slaves of God have their fruit for sanctification.

Romans 6:23ULT

²³ For the wages of sin {is} death, but the gracious gift of God {is} eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

UST

²³ {I say this} because living sinfully causes those who do so to die {eternally}, but God graciously causes those who are united to our Lord, the Messiah Jesus, to live eternally.

What is the wages of sin?

The wages of sin is death.

What is the free gift of God?

The free gift of God is eternal life.

Romans 7

Romans 7:1

ULT

¹ Or do you not know, brothers (for I am speaking to those knowing the law), that the law is lord of the man for as long as he lives?

UST

¹ My fellow {Jewish} believers, you are well-aware that the laws {God gave the Jews} must be obeyed by {Jewish} people throughout their whole lives. ({I know that you are well-aware of this fact}, because I am speaking to people who are familiar with the laws {God gave the Jews}.)

How long does the law control a person?

The law controls a person for as long as he lives.

Romans 7:2

ULT

² For the married woman remains bound by law to the living husband, but if the husband dies, she has been released from the law of the husband.

UST

² For instance, according to the laws {God gave the Jews}, a married woman must remain married to her husband as long as he lives. However, if her husband dies, {God's} law no longer requires her to remain married to him.

How long is a married woman bound by the law of marriage?

A married woman is bound by the law of marriage until her husband dies.

Romans 7:3ULT

³ So then, the husband being alive, if she becomes {married} to another husband, she will be titled an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress, having become {married} to another husband.

UST

³ Therefore, if she marries another man while her husband is alive, {according to God's law} she will be an adulterous woman. However, if her husband dies, she no longer has to obey {what} God's law {requires of those who are married}. As a result, she would not be an adulterous woman if she married another man.

What may a woman do once she is free from the law of marriage?

Once she is free from the law of marriage, a woman may marry another man.

Romans 7:4ULT

⁴ So then, my brothers, you yourselves were also made dead to the law through the body of Christ so that you might become {married} to another, to the one having been raised from dead ones, in order that we might produce fruit for God.

UST

⁴ So, my fellow {Jewish} believers, by means of the Messiah dying {on the cross} the laws {God gave the Jews} no longer control you. {God did this} in order to unite you to the Messiah, {as if you were marrying a new husband}. He is the person whom God made alive again after he had died. {God did this} in order that we may do things that please him.

How are believers made dead to the law?

Believers are made dead to the law through the body of Christ.

Having been made dead to the law, what are believers able to do?

Having been made dead to the law, believers are able to be joined to Christ.

Romans 7:5ULT

⁵ For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions that {were} through the law were working in our members to produce fruit for death.

UST

⁵ Indeed, when living sinfully used to control us, the laws {God gave us} caused us to want to sin even more. {Our living sinfully} controlled what we did with our body parts. As a result, we would {eventually} die {eternally}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 7:6ULT

⁶ But now we have been released from the law, having died to that by which we were being held, so that we might serve in newness of the Spirit and not in oldness of the letter.

UST

⁶ But now {that we trust in Jesus}, God cancels what his laws require {us to do}. The laws {God gave the Jews} no longer control us as if we were prisoners. As a result, we now serve God in the new way that comes from the {Holy} Spirit. {We} no longer {serve God} in the old way that the written rules {God gave the Jews} require.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 7:7ULT

⁷ What then will we say? {Is} the law sin? May it never be! But I would not have known sin, if not through the law. For I would not have known the covetousness unless the law said, "You will not covet."

UST

⁷ {Someone might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely the laws {God gave the Jews} are sinful!" {Then I would say,} "Of course not!" On the contrary, without the laws {God gave the Jews}, I would never have become aware of {what it means to} sin. For instance, if God did not say in his laws, "You must not covet," I would never have become aware of {what it means to} covet.

What function does the law perform?

The law makes sin known.

Is the law sin?

No, the law is not sin.

Romans 7:8ULT

⁸ But sin, having taken opportunity through the commandment, produced all covetousness in me. For apart from law, sin {is} dead.

UST

⁸ However, since I am sinful, I wanted to covet in many ways because I knew that {God} commanded {us not to covet}. {This is} because if the laws {God gave the Jews} did not exist, living sinfully would cease.

What does sin do through the commandment of the law?

Sin, through the commandment of the law, brings about every lust in a person.

Romans 7:9ULT

⁹ Now at one time I was alive without law, but the commandment having come, sin came to life again,

UST

⁹ There was a time when I was living without being aware of the laws {God gave the Jews}. But, when I became aware of those commandments, I wanted to sin even more.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 7:10ULT

¹⁰ and I died. And the commandment that {was} for life, it was found {to be} for death to me.

UST

¹⁰ I became {spiritually} dead. God's command was supposed to result in me living {eternally}. But God's command actually will result in me dying {eternally}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 7:11ULT

¹¹ For sin, having taken the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it, killed {me}.

UST

¹¹ {This is so} because {I} wanted to sin even more because I knew what God had commanded. When I sinned, I tricked myself. Then {disobeying} what God had commanded killed me {spiritually}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 7:12ULT

¹² So then, the law {is} indeed holy, and the commandment {is} holy and righteous and good.

UST

¹² So the laws {God gave the Jews} are worthy of God and what God has commanded is worthy of God, just, and good.

Is the law holy?

The law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous, and good.

Romans 7:13ULT

¹³ Therefore, did what {is} good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, in order that it might be shown {to be} sin through what {is} good, producing death in me so that through the commandment, sin might become sinful beyond measure.

UST

¹³ So, {God's laws}, which are good, surely did not cause me to die {spiritually}! Of course not! Rather, living sinfully did so. {This happened} so that {God's} good {laws} would reveal how sinful it is to live sinfully. {This also happened} so that what God commands would reveal that living sinfully is utterly sinful.

What does Paul say sin does to him?

Paul says that sin, through the law, brings about death in him.

Romans 7:14ULT

¹⁴ For we know that the law is spiritual, but I myself am fleshly, sold into slavery under sin.

UST

¹⁴ {This is true} because we are {all} aware that the laws {God gave the Jews} are from God's Spirit. But as for me, I am {spiritually} weak. {It is as if} I must serve as a slave to living sinfully.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 7:15ULT

¹⁵ For what I produce, I do not understand. For what I do not want, this I practice. But what I hate, this I do.

UST

¹⁵ {This is true} because I do not comprehend what I do! Indeed, I keep on doing what I do not want to do. But I do what I hate {that I do}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 7:16ULT

¹⁶ But if what I do not want, this I do, I agree with the law that {it is} good.

UST

¹⁶ Now because I do what I do not want {to do}, {this proves that} I agree with the laws {God gave the Jews}. {I also testify} that they are good {laws}.

What causes Paul to agree with the law that the law is good?

When Paul does that which he does not want, then he agrees with the law that the law is good.

Romans 7:17ULT

¹⁷ But now no longer I myself produce it, but the sin living in me!

UST

¹⁷ This means that now I am no longer the one who causes me to do {these sinful things}. Rather, my wanting to live sinfully causes me {to do them}.

What is causing him to do the things that Paul does, but does not wish to do?

Sin that lives in Paul causes him to do the things that he does not wish to do.

Romans 7:18ULT

¹⁸ For I know that there does not live in me, (that is, in my flesh), good. For the wanting is present in me, but the producing of the good {is} not.

UST

¹⁸ Indeed, I am aware that I am not good {at all}. In other words, my sinful self {is not good at all}. {This is true} because, even though I really want to do {what is good}, I am unable to do so.

What lives in Paul's flesh?

No good thing lives in Paul's flesh.

Romans 7:19ULT

¹⁹ For I do not do the good I want; but the evil I do not want, this I practice.

UST

¹⁹ Indeed, I do not do the good things I want {to do}. Rather, I keep on doing evil things that I do not want {to do}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 7:20ULT

²⁰ Now if what I do not want, this I do, I myself no longer produce it, but the sin living in me.

UST

²⁰ Now because I do what I do not want {to do}, I am no longer the one who causes me to do {these sinful things}. Rather, my wanting to live sinfully causes me {to do them}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 7:21ULT

²¹ I find, then, this law in me, the one wanting to do good, that evil is present in me.

UST

²¹ Consequently, I realized that a principle exists: I keep on doing evil things, {even though} I really want to do good things.

What principle does Paul find at work in him?

Paul finds the principle in him that he wants to do what is good, but evil is actually present in him.

Romans 7:22ULT

²² For I delight in the law of God with the inner man.

UST

²² {This is true} because the laws God gave {the Jews} make my mind rejoice.

What attitude does Paul's inner man have toward the law of God?

Paul's inner man rejoices in the law of God.

Romans 7:23ULT

²³ But I see a different law in my members fighting against the law of my mind and taking me captive by the law of the sin that exists in my members.

UST

²³ Yet, I notice another principle that controls what I do with my body parts. {This principle} conflicts with the {other} principle that my mind {accepts}. It also controls me, making me its prisoner by means of the principle that I tend to live sinfully. {Living sinfully} controls what I do with my body parts.

What principle does Paul find active in the members of his body?

In the members of his body, Paul finds the principle of sin taking him captive.

Romans 7:24ULT

²⁴ I am a miserable man! Who will rescue me from the body of this death?

UST

²⁴ I am truly a wretched person! {I feel as though there is no one} who could {possibly} rescue me from this body that kills me!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 7:25ULT

²⁵ Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve with the mind the law of God, but with the flesh, the law of sin.

UST

²⁵ I thank God {who rescued me} by means of our Lord Jesus the Messiah! Therefore, I actually do obey with my mind the laws God gave {the Jews}. Yet {at the same time} with my sinful self {I obey} the principle that I tend to live sinfully.

Who will deliver Paul from his body of death?

Paul gives thanks to God for his deliverance through Jesus Christ.

Romans 8

Romans 8:1

ULT

¹ {There is} therefore now no condemnation at all for the ones in Christ Jesus.

UST

¹ So now, God absolutely does not condemn anyone whom he has united with the Messiah Jesus.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:2

ULT

² For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus set you free from the law of sin and death.

UST

² {This is true} because the principle that pertains to the life-giving Holy Spirit has caused you {believers} to no longer be controlled by the principle that causes people to sin and die {eternally}. {It did this} by uniting you with the Messiah Jesus.

What has made Paul free from the law of sin and death?

The principle of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made Paul free from the law of sin and death.

Romans 8:3

ULT

³ For what the law {was} unable {to do}, in that it was weak through the flesh, God {did}, having sent his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for the sake of sin, he condemned sin in the flesh,

UST

³ Indeed, God {accomplished} what the laws {he gave the Jews} could not accomplish, because they could not prevent people from living sinfully. Through {the crucifying of} {his Son's} body, God removed {how} sinning {controls people}. {He did this} by sending his own Son {Jesus} {to the world} in a human body {that was} like the bodies of sinful people. {God sent his Son} in order to {remove} that which causes man to sin.

Why was the law unable to set people free from the principle of sin and death?

The law was unable because it was weak through the flesh.

Romans 8:4ULT

⁴ so that the righteous deeds of the law might be fulfilled in us, those walking not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

UST

⁴ {God did these things} so that we {believers} could do the righteous acts that the laws {he gave the Jews} required. We can live as people whom living sinfully does not control. Rather, {we can live as people} whom the {Holy} Spirit controls.

Those who walk according to the Spirit set their minds on what? (vv4-5)

Those who walk according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit.

Romans 8:5ULT

⁵ For those existing according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those according to the Spirit, {on} the things of the Spirit.

UST

⁵ {This is true} because those {people} whom living sinfully controls think about those things that are related to living sinfully. However, those people whom the {Holy} Spirit controls think about those things that are related to the {Holy} Spirit.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:6ULT

⁶ For the mindset of the flesh {is} death, but the mindset of the Spirit {is} life and peace;

UST

⁶ Indeed, focusing on living sinfully will cause {a person} to die {eternally}. However, focusing on the {Holy} Spirit will cause {a person} to live {eternally and} peacefully.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:7ULT

⁷ because the mindset of the flesh {is} hostility toward God, for it does not subject itself to the law of God, for it is not able {to do so}.

UST

⁷ {This is true} because {people} who focus on living sinfully are God's enemies. {This is} because they do not voluntarily obey the laws God gave {the Jews}; they are incapable {of doing so}.

What is the flesh's relationship to God and the law?

The flesh is hostile toward God and is not able to be subject to the law.

Romans 8:8ULT

⁸ But those existing in the flesh are not able to be pleasing to God.

UST

⁸ But those whom living sinfully controls are incapable of pleasing God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:9ULT

⁹ However, you yourselves are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, since indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. But if someone does not have the Spirit of Christ, this one is not of him.

UST

⁹ By contrast, you {believers} are not those whom living sinfully controls. Rather, you are those whom the {Holy} Spirit controls because God's Spirit really does reside within you. But if some person does not possess Jesus the Messiah's Spirit, this person does not belong to the Messiah.

What are people lacking who do not belong to God?

People who do not belong to God lack the Spirit of Christ living in them.

Romans 8:10ULT

¹⁰ But if Christ {is} in you, the body {is} dead because of sin, but the Spirit {is} life because of righteousness.

UST

¹⁰ Now, since the Messiah resides within you {believers}, the {Holy} Spirit gives {you} {eternal} life because he has made you righteous. {This is true} even though your bodies will die because you sin.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:11ULT

¹¹ If indeed the Spirit of the one having raised Jesus from dead ones lives in you, the one having raised Christ Jesus from dead ones will also make alive your mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

UST

¹¹ The {Holy} Spirit does indeed reside within you. {He came} from God, who caused Jesus to become alive again after he had died. {Since this is true,} God, who caused the Messiah Jesus to become alive again after he had died, will also cause your physical bodies to become alive {again} by his Spirit. This {Spirit} resides within you.

How does God give life to the believer's mortal body?

God gives life to the believer's mortal body through his Spirit, who lives in the believer.

Romans 8:12ULT

¹² So then, brothers, we are debtors—not to the flesh to live according to the flesh.

UST

¹² Therefore, {my} fellow believers, we are obligated. {But we are not obligated} to live sinfully, {which means} to live like those whom living sinfully controls.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:13ULT

¹³ For if you live according to the flesh, you are going to die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the practices of the body, you will live.

UST

¹³ Indeed, if you live like those whom living sinfully controls, you will die {eternally}. However, if the {Holy} Spirit enables you to stop doing what is sinful with your bodies, you will live {eternally}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:14ULT

¹⁴ For as many as are being led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God.

UST

¹⁴ {This is} because those people whom God's Spirit guides are God's {spiritual} children.

How are the sons of God led to live?

The sons of God are led by the Spirit of God.

Romans 8:15ULT

¹⁵ For you did not receive again a spirit of slavery {leading} to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by which we cry out, "Abba, Father!"

UST

¹⁵ Indeed, God has not given you {believers} an enslaved mind to terrify you, such as you had before. Rather, God has given you the Holy Spirit to {spiritually} adopt you {as his children}. {It is} the Holy Spirit who enables us to cry out, "Abba, my Father!"

How is a believer included into God's family?

A believer is included into God's family by adoption.

Romans 8:16ULT

¹⁶ The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God.

UST

¹⁶ The {Holy} Spirit personally testifies, along with our own minds, that we are God's {spiritual} children.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:17ULT

¹⁷ Now if children, {then} also heirs: both heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if indeed we suffer together with {him} so that we may also be glorified together with {him}.

UST

¹⁷ Since we are {God's spiritual} children, we are also those who will inherit {blessings from God}. We inherit {blessings from God himself} and also together with the Messiah {Jesus}. {This is true} only if we keep suffering together with the Messiah in order for God to also glorify us together with the Messiah.

As children of God, what other benefit do believers receive in God's family?

As children of God, believers are also heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ.

Romans 8:18ULT

¹⁸ For I consider that the sufferings of this present time {are} not worthy {to be compared} with the glory that is going to be revealed to us.

UST

¹⁸ Indeed, I regard what we {believers in the Messiah} suffer at this time as being incomparable to what glorious things God will reveal to us {in the future}.

Why are the sufferings of the present time to be endured by believers? (vv18-19)

The sufferings of the present time are to be endured so that believers may be glorified with Christ when the sons of God are revealed.

Romans 8:19ULT

¹⁹ For the eager expectation of the creation is eagerly expecting the revelation of the sons of God.

UST

¹⁹ Indeed, what God created is very eagerly waiting for {the time} when God reveals whom his {spiritual} children are.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:20ULT

²⁰ For to the futility the creation was subjected, not willingly, but because of the one having subjected it, on the basis of hope

UST

²⁰ {This is} because God subjugated what he created so that it became useless. {What God created} did not want this to happen. Rather, {God subjugated what he created} because he wanted to {do so}. {He did this} to keep {the creation} confidently expecting

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:21ULT

²¹ that also the creation itself will be freed from the slavery of the decay into the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

UST

²¹ that God would also enable what he created to stop decaying and let it freely experience the same glorious status that belongs to his {spiritual} children.

At the present time, under what kind of slavery is the creation?

At the present time, the creation is under the slavery of decay.

Into what will the creation be delivered?

The creation will be delivered into the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

Romans 8:22ULT

²² For we know that all the creation groans and labors in pain together until now.

UST

²² Indeed, we are aware that, {even} at the present time, everything God has created keeps groaning and suffering together {like a mother experiencing pain before bearing a child}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:23ULT

²³ Not only that, but also we, having the firstfruits of the Spirit—even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly expecting our adoption, the redemption of our body.

UST

²³ {It is} not only {what God created that groans}! On the contrary, even we ourselves who possess the {Holy} Spirit as the first portion {from God} feel suffering. {We feel this way} while we eagerly wait for God to {spiritually} adopt us, which will be when God redeems our bodies.

How are believers to wait for the redemption of the body? (vv23-25)

Believers are to wait with confidence and patience for the redemption of the body.

Romans 8:24ULT

²⁴ For in this hope we were saved. Now hope being seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees?

UST

²⁴ {This is so} because God rescued us while we confidently expect this. If we {already} had what we have been confidently expecting, then we would have nothing to confidently expect. {This is} because surely nobody confidently expects something that he {already} has.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:25ULT

²⁵ But if we hope for what we do not see, with endurance we are eagerly expecting {it}.

UST

²⁵ Yet, if we keep on confidently expecting what we do not yet have, then we will keep on eagerly waiting for it while persevering.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:26ULT

²⁶ Now in the same way, the Spirit also helps in our weakness. For the thing for which we should pray as we ought, we do not know, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groans.

UST

²⁶ The {Holy} Spirit similarly also assists us because we are weak. {This is} because we are not aware for what we should pray. However, the {Holy} Spirit personally pleads on our behalf by groaning without speaking words.

What does the Spirit himself do to help in the saints' weakness? (vv26-27)

The Spirit himself intercedes in behalf of the saints according to the will of God.

Romans 8:27ULT

²⁷ But the one searching the hearts knows what {is} the mindset of the Spirit, because he intercedes on behalf of the saints in accordance with God.

UST

²⁷ Now God is the one who investigates what we think and feel. He is aware of what the {Holy} Spirit intends, because the Spirit pleads for the sake of God's people according to {what} God {wants}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:28ULT

²⁸ And we know that for the ones loving God, God works all things together for good, ^[1] for the ones being called according to his purpose.

UST

²⁸ We are certain that God makes all things that happen to benefit those who love him. {They are} the people whom God called because he previously planned {to do so}.

How does God work all things together for those who love God and are called according to his purpose?

God works all things together for good for those who love God and are called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:29ULT

²⁹ Because those whom he foreknew, he also predestined {to be} a similar form to the image of his Son so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.

UST

²⁹ {This is} because those whom God chose in advance, he also decided in advance to make resemble his Son {Jesus}. {God did these things} in order for his Son {Jesus} to have first place among many {spiritual} siblings.

What is the destiny that God has predetermined for those whom he foreknew?

God has predestined those whom he foreknew to be conformed to the image of his Son.

Romans 8:30ULT

³⁰ Now those whom he predestined, these he also called. And those whom he called, these he also justified. And those whom he justified, these he also glorified.

UST

³⁰ Certainly, the people whom God chose in advance {to become his people}, he also summoned to become his people. And those people whom God summoned {to become his people}, he also made righteous. And those people whom God made righteous, he will also make glorious.

What else did God do for those he predestined?

Those he predestined, God also called, justified, and glorified.

Romans 8:31ULT

³¹ What then will we say to these things? If God {is} for us, who {is} against us?

UST

³¹ {Since these things are true,} then we should say this about them: since God supports us, surely no one {is powerful enough} to oppose us!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:32ULT

³² He who indeed did not spare his own Son, but gave him up on behalf of us all, how will he not also with him freely give us all things?

UST

³² God did not even spare his own Son, {Jesus}. On the contrary, God handed him over {to die} for the sake of us all. So God surely will also graciously give us, along with Jesus, every {blessing}!

How do believers know that God will freely give them all things?

Believers know that God will freely give them all things because God gave up his own Son on behalf of all believers.

Romans 8:33ULT

³³ Who will bring an accusation against God's elect? God {is} the one justifying.

UST

³³ Surely no one can {rightly} accuse those whom God chose {to become his people}! {This is because} God is the one who makes people righteous.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:34ULT

³⁴ Who {is} the one condemning? Christ Jesus {is} the one having died—but more {than that}, having been raised ^[2], who also is at the right hand of God—the one also interceding on our behalf.

UST

³⁴ Surely no one can condemn {God's people}! {This is because} the Messiah Jesus is the one who died. Furthermore, he is the one whom God made alive again. He is also at the place of highest honor next to God, and he even pleads for our sake.

What is Christ Jesus doing at the right hand of God?

Christ Jesus is interceding on behalf of the saints at the right hand of God.

Romans 8:35ULT

³⁵ Who will separate us from the love of Christ? ^[3] Tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

UST

³⁵ Surely no one can make Jesus stop loving us! If people trouble us or distress us or persecute us, or if we are hungry or naked or in danger, or if people kill us with swords, surely none of those things can make Jesus stop loving us!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:36ULT

³⁶ Just as it is written, “For your sake we are being put to death the whole day {long}. We were considered as sheep for slaughter.”

UST

³⁶ This is what {God meant when} he said {in the Scriptures}, “They constantly kill us because of you{, God}. They consider us to be like sheep for them to slaughter.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:37ULT

³⁷ But in all these things we are more than conquerors through the one having loved us.

UST

³⁷ However, he who loved us enables us to completely overcome all of these things {that might happen to us}.

How are believers more than conquerors over tribulation, persecution, or even death?

Believers are more than conquerors through the one who loved them.

Romans 8:38ULT

³⁸ For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor governments, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,

UST

³⁸ In fact, God has persuaded me that {none of these things}—whether being dead, or what happens while we are alive, or angels, or demons who rule, or things that are happening to us, or things that will happen to us, or powerful demons,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 8:39ULT

³⁹ nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which {is} in Christ Jesus our Lord.

8:28 ^[1]

8:34 ^[2]

8:35 ^[3]

UST

³⁹ or what is above {us}, or what is below {us}, or anything else that God created—can stop God from loving us! {God loves us} because we are united to the Messiah Jesus, our Lord!

What is Paul convinced that no created thing can do to the believer?

Paul is convinced that no created thing can separate the believer from the love of God.

Romans 9Romans 9:1*ULT

¹ I speak truth in Christ. I do not lie—my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Spirit—

UST

¹ I speak what is true as one whom God has united with the Messiah. I do not speak what is false. The Holy Spirit confirms what my conscience testifies within myself {when I say}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:2ULT

² that for me there is great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart.

UST

² that I grieve very greatly and constantly!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:3ULT

³ For I could wish myself to be accursed, {separated} from Christ for the sake of my brothers, those of my own race according to the flesh;

UST

³ {I do so} because I truly wish that God would curse me and completely alienate me from {Jesus} the Messiah for my fellow {kinsmen} {to be saved}! They are physically related to me.

What would Paul be willing to do for the sake of his brothers according to the flesh, the Israelites?

Paul would be willing to be cursed by God for the sake of his brothers.

Romans 9:4ULT

⁴ who are Israelites, of whom {is} the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the law-giving, and the service, and the promises;

UST

⁴ These {kinsmen of mine} are the Israelites. {They are those} whom God {spiritually} adopted. God allowed them to experience how glorious he is. God made covenants with them. God gave them his laws. God gave them the way to worship him. God also made promises to them.

What do the Israelites have in their history?

The Israelites have adoption, the glory, the covenants, the law, the worship of God, and the promises.

Romans 9:5ULT

⁵ of whom {are} the fathers, and from whom {is} the Christ—(that {is}, according to the flesh)—the one who {is} over all, blessed God to eternity. Amen.

UST

⁵ {Our Jewish} forefathers {Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob} were Israelites. The Messiah is also one of them, as someone physically related to them. The Messiah rules over everything. {He is} the blessed God forever. May it be so!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:6ULT

⁶ But {it is} not such a thing that the word of God has failed. For not all the ones from Israel, these {are} Israel.

UST

⁶ Yet God has not failed to do what he promised {to the Israelites}. {This is true} because not all people who have physically descended from Israel are {true} Israelites.

What does Paul say is not true about everyone in Israel and all of Abraham's descendants? (vv6-7)

Paul says that not everyone in Israel truly belongs to Israel, and not all of Abraham's descendants are truly his children.

Romans 9:7ULT

⁷ Neither that all the children are seed of Abraham. But, "In Isaac your seed will be called."

UST

⁷ {It is} also not {true} that all those who physically descended {from Abraham} are Abraham's {true} offspring. Rather, {as God says to Abraham in the Scriptures,} "I will identify your {true} offspring through {those who descend from} Isaac."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:8ULT

⁸ That is, the children of the flesh, these {are} not children of God. But the children of the promise are considered as seed.

UST

⁸ In other words, the people who {only} physically descended {from Abraham} are not God's {spiritual} children. Rather, those {who became God's spiritual} children as a result of what God promised are regarded as {Abraham's true spiritual} offspring.

Who are not counted as the children of God?

The children of the flesh are not counted as the children of God.

Who are counted as the children of God?

The children of the promise are counted as the children of God.

Romans 9:9ULT

⁹ For this {is} the word of promise: "At this time I will come, and a son will be to Sarah."

UST

⁹ Indeed, this is what God promised {would happen} {when he said in the Scriptures}, "At a set time, I will come. As a result, Sarah will give birth to a son."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:10ULT

¹⁰ Now, not only this, but Rebekah also having conceived from one {man}, our father Isaac—

UST

¹⁰ This is not the only {promise God made}. But {God made a promise} also when Rebekah became pregnant by this same man, Isaac. {He is} the ancestor of us {Israelites}.

What was the cause behind the statement given to Rebecca, “The older will serve the younger,” before her children were born? (vv10-12)

The purpose of God according to choice was the cause behind the statement given to Rebecca.

Romans 9:11ULT

¹¹ for not yet having been born, nor indeed having done anything good or bad, so that the purpose of God according to election might endure,

UST

¹¹ Indeed, {God chose only one of her two sons} even though she had not yet born them and they had not yet done anything right or wrong. {God did this} in order that what he had previously planned with regard to choosing {people} would happen.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:12ULT

¹² not by works, but by the one calling—it was said to her, “The older will be enslaved to the younger.”

UST

¹² {God did not choose only one of her sons} because of what he did. Rather, it was because God summons {those whom he chooses}. {This is why} God told Rebekah {in the Scriptures}, “Your older son will become a slave to your younger son.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:13ULT

¹³ {It is} just as it is written: “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”

UST

¹³ This is what {God meant when} he said {in the Scriptures}, “I love {the younger son} Jacob, but I emphatically reject {the older son} Esau.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:14ULT

¹⁴ What then will we say? {There is} no unrighteousness with God{, is there}? May it never be!

UST

¹⁴ {Someone might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely God must be unrighteous!" {Then I would say,} "Of course not!"

What is the cause behind God's gifts of mercy and compassion? (vv14-16)

The cause behind God's gifts of mercy and compassion is God's choice.

Romans 9:15ULT

¹⁵ For he says to Moses, "I will have mercy {on} whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion {on} whomever I will have compassion."

UST

¹⁵ {We know that God is truly righteous} because God told Moses {in the Scriptures}, "I will be merciful to whomever I want to be merciful. I will be compassionate to whomever I want to be compassionate."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:16ULT

¹⁶ So then, {it is} not of the one willing, nor of the one running, but of God, the one having mercy.

UST

¹⁶ Therefore, {who receives God's mercy does} not {depend} on {how much} someone desires {to receive it}. {Who receives God's mercy} also does not depend on {how much} effort someone exerts. Rather, {it depends on} what God wants. {He is} the one who is merciful.

What is not the cause behind God's gifts of mercy and compassion?

The cause behind God's gifts of mercy and compassion is not the will or actions of the person receiving the gifts.

Romans 9:17ULT

¹⁷ For the scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very {purpose} I raised you up: so that I might demonstrate my power in you and so that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."

UST

¹⁷ Indeed, this is what God told Pharaoh in the Scriptures, "I allowed you {to become king in Egypt} for this exact reason: in order that I could use you to exhibit how powerful I am. I also {allowed you to become king} in order that I will be famous all over the world."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:18ULT

¹⁸ So then, he has mercy on whom he wills, but whom he wills, he hardens.

UST

¹⁸ Therefore, God is merciful to whomever he wants {to be merciful}. But he makes stubborn whomever he wants {to become stubborn}.

Romans 9:19ULT

¹⁹ You will say then to me, "Why then does he still find fault? For who has ever withstood his will?"

UST

¹⁹ As a result {of what I have said,} one of you may tell me, "{If what you have said is true,} then surely God should not blame people {for doing what they do}! {God should not do that} because no one can ever stop him from doing whatever he wants {to do}!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:20ULT

²⁰ O man, who indeed are you, the one answering against God? The one molded will not say to the one having molded {it}, "Why did you make me this way?" will it?

UST

²⁰ {Then I would say,} "You {mere} human! You who argue with God are truly not worthy {to do so}! Who God has made surely must not say to God who made him, 'You should not have made me to be like this!'"

What is Paul's reply to those who would question if God is righteous because he finds fault in men?

Paul replies, "Who are you who answers against God?"

Romans 9:21ULT

²¹ Or does the potter not have authority over the clay to make from the same lump not only what {is} a vessel for honor, but also what {is} for dishonor?

UST

²¹ {God can surely do whatever he wants to do with what he has made. In the same way,} someone who makes containers can do whatever he wants to do with his materials. From the same material he can make both containers for special use and containers for ordinary use.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:22ULT

²² But {what} if God, willing to demonstrate his wrath and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction;

UST

²² Now, {you should surely not argue with God} because he very patiently endured those people whom he would punish {and} had prepared to destroy {eternally}. {He endured them} because he wanted to show how angry he is and to reveal how powerful he is.

What did God do with those prepared for destruction?

God endured with much patience those prepared for destruction.

Romans 9:23ULT

²³ and so that he might make known the wealth of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory—

UST

²³ {God} also {endures those whom he will punish} in order to reveal how abundantly glorious he is to those people to whom he will be merciful. God has previously arranged to glorify these people {eternally}.

What did God do with those prepared for glory?

God made known to them the riches of his glory.

Romans 9:24ULT

²⁴ even us whom he called, not only from the Jews, but also from the Gentiles?

UST

²⁴ We are also {among those people to whom God is merciful and} whom God has summoned. {God summons people} from {among} Jewish people and even from {among} non-Jewish people.

From which peoples has God called those on whom he is having mercy?

God has called from both Jews and Gentiles those on whom he is having mercy.

Romans 9:25ULT

²⁵ As he says also in Hosea: "I will call those {who were} not my people, 'my people,' and the one not loved, 'Beloved.'

UST

²⁵ In the same way, God also told Hosea {in the Scriptures}, "I will give the name 'My people' to people who were not my people. I will also give the name 'Loved one' to the person whom I did not love."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:26ULT

²⁶ And it will be that in the place where it was said to them, 'You {are} not my people,' there they will be called 'sons of the living God.'"

UST

²⁶ {God also told Hosea,} "Then it will happen, in the {exact} same location where I previously told them, 'You are not my people,' I will give them the name, 'Children of God who lives.'"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:27ULT

²⁷ But Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, "Though the number of the sons of Israel might be as the sand of the sea, the remnant will be saved,

UST

²⁷ Indeed, {elsewhere in the Scriptures} Isaiah shouts out about {the people} of Israel, "Even though there were as many Israelites as there are grains of sand along the seashore, God will refrain from punishing {only} a few of them.

From all the children of Israel, how many will be saved?

From all the children of Israel, a remnant will be saved.

Romans 9:28ULT

²⁸ for the Lord will carry out his word on the earth, finishing {it} and cutting {it} short."

UST

²⁸ {This is} because the Lord will fully and swiftly accomplish what he promised {to do} on the earth."

Romans 9:29ULT

²⁹ And just as Isaiah has said beforehand, "If the Lord of hosts did not leave us a seed, we would have become like Sodom, and we would have been made like Gomorrah."

UST

²⁹ {It is} also just like Isaiah previously said {in the Scriptures}, "Unless the Lord, who rules over angel armies, had preserved offspring for us {Israelites}, he would have utterly destroyed us like he destroyed the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:30ULT

³⁰ What then will we say? That the Gentiles, who are not pursuing righteousness, obtained righteousness, but righteousness that {is} by faith.

UST

³⁰ {Since these things are true}, we should surely say that {although} the nations are not trying to be righteous, {they} became righteous. {However,} they became righteous by trusting {God}.

How did the Gentiles, who were not pursuing righteousness, attain it?

The Gentiles attained it through the righteousness by faith.

Romans 9:31ULT

³¹ But Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, did not attain {it} through the law.

UST

³¹ By contrast, {the people of} Israel tried to obey the laws {God gave them} in order to become righteous. {But} they could not become righteous by {obeying} those laws.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 9:32ULT

³² Why? Because {it was} not by faith, but as by works. They stumbled over the stone of stumbling,

UST

³² The reason why {the people of Israel could not become righteous} is that they did not {try to become righteous} by trusting {God}. Instead, they tried to become righteous by working {for it}. {Because of this} {the Messiah offended them when he came}. It is as if the Messiah is} a stone that causes them to trip.

Why did Israel, although pursuing a law of righteousness, not arrive at it?

Israel did not arrive at it because they pursued it by works, and not by faith.

Over what did the Israelites stumble? (vv32-33)

The Israelites stumbled over the stone of stumbling and the rock of offense.

Romans 9:33ULT

³³ just as it is written, "Behold, I place in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense, and the one believing on it will not be ashamed."

UST

³³ This is what {God meant when} he had {Isaiah} write {in the Scriptures}, "Pay attention! I am placing in Jerusalem {someone who is like} a stone that trips {people} and a rock that offends {people}. But God will not humiliate {anyone} who trusts in that person."

What happens to those who do not stumble, but believe?

Those who do not stumble, but believe, will not be ashamed.

Romans 10

Romans 10:1

ULT

¹ Brothers, the good pleasure of my heart and my prayer to God {is} on behalf of them for salvation.

UST

¹ My fellow believers, I strongly desire {that God will save the Israelites}. I also pray for him {to save} them!

What is Paul's desire for his brothers, the Israelites?

Paul's desire is for the Israelites' salvation.

Romans 10:2

ULT

² For I testify about them that they have a zeal of God, but not according to full knowledge.

UST

² {This is} because I personally confirm that they are zealous about God. However, {they are} not {zealous} based on fully knowing {God}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 10:3

ULT

³ For not knowing about the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit themselves to the righteousness of God.

UST

³ {This is} because they are not aware of how God makes people righteous, and they try to make themselves righteous. {This is why} they refuse to subject themselves to the way God makes people righteous.

What are the Israelites seeking to establish?

The Israelites are seeking to establish their own righteousness.

Of what do the Israelites not know?

The Israelites do not know of God's righteousness.

Romans 10:4ULT

⁴ For Christ {is} the completion of the law for righteousness for everyone who believes.

UST

⁴ {They were wrong to try to make themselves righteous}, because {Jesus} the Messiah has ended the laws {that God gave the Jews}. {Christ did this} in order for God to make righteous anyone who trusts {in Jesus}.

What has Christ done with respect to the law?

Christ is the fulfillment of the law for righteousness for everyone who believes.

Romans 10:5ULT

⁵ For Moses writes {about} the righteousness that {is} from the law: "The man having done these things will live by it."

UST

⁵ Indeed, this is what Moses wrote {in the Scriptures} about being righteous by {obeying} the laws {God gave the Jews}: "The person who obeys {all} {God's} laws {perfectly} will live {eternally} by doing so."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 10:6ULT

⁶ But the righteousness by faith says thus, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down);

UST

⁶ However, this is what {Moses} said {in the Scriptures} about people becoming righteous by trusting {in God}, "Do not say to yourselves, 'Surely no one can go up to heaven!'" (This refers to trying to make the Messiah come down {to the earth}.)

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 10:7ULT

⁷ or, "Who will descend into the abyss?" (that is, to bring Christ up from dead ones).

UST

⁷ {Moses} also {said not to say,} "Surely no one can go down into the bottomless pit!" (This refers to trying to make the Messiah become alive again after he had died.)

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 10:8ULT

⁸ But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart." This is the word of faith, which we proclaim.

UST

⁸ However, {Moses also} said this {in the Scriptures} {about people becoming righteous by trusting in God}, "You can easily know what God said. You can proclaim it and know it personally." This refers to what God said about trusting {in him}. {This is what} we {believers in the Messiah} keep announcing.

Where is the word of faith which Paul is proclaiming?

The word of faith is near, in the mouth and in the heart.

Romans 10:9ULT

⁹ For if with your mouth you confess, "Jesus {is} Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from dead ones, you will be saved.

UST

⁹ {What we keep announcing is} that God will save {any of} you who verbally acknowledges that Jesus is the Lord {over all things} and {personally} trusts that God made Jesus become alive again after he had died.

What does Paul say a person does to be saved?

Paul says a person must acknowledge with the mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in the heart that God raised him from the dead.

Romans 10:10ULT

¹⁰ For with the heart one believes to righteousness, and with the mouth one confesses to salvation.

UST

¹⁰ {This is true} because God makes righteous anyone who personally trusts {in Jesus}, and he saves anyone who verbally acknowledges {that Jesus is the Lord}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 10:11ULT

¹¹ For the scripture says, "Everyone who believes on him will not be put to shame."

UST

¹¹ Indeed, this is {what God} said in the Scriptures, "God will not humiliate {anyone} who trusts in that person."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 10:12ULT

¹² For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord {is} of all, being rich to all the ones calling on him.

UST

¹² Indeed, the Lord {Jesus} does not discriminate between Jewish people and non-Jewish people. {This is} because {Jesus} is the same Lord {who rules} over everyone. He generously blesses all people who call out to him {to save them}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 10:13ULT

¹³ For "all, whoever calls on the name of the Lord, will be saved."

UST

¹³ Indeed, {Joel wrote in the Scriptures,} "God will save all people who call out to the Lord {to save them}."

Everyone who does what will be saved?

Everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved.

Romans 10:14ULT

¹⁴ How then would they call on {him} in whom they have not believed? And how would they believe in {him} whom they have not heard? And how would they hear without someone preaching?

UST

¹⁴ So, people certainly will not call out {for the Lord Jesus to save them} {if} they do not trust {in him}. And people certainly will not trust {in Jesus} {if} they have not heard {about him}. And people certainly will not hear {about Jesus} {if} someone does not proclaim {to them who he is}.

What does Paul say is the series of steps which brings the good news to a person, so he can call on the name of the Lord? (vv14-15)

Paul says that first a preacher is sent and the good news is heard and believed so that a person can call on the name of the Lord.

Romans 10:15ULT

¹⁵ And how would they preach, unless they would be sent? Just as it is written, "How beautiful {are} the feet of the ones proclaiming good news {of} good things!"

UST

¹⁵ And certainly people would not proclaim {to other people who Jesus is} unless someone sends them out! This is what {Isaiah meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "It is a beautiful thing when people go and declare {to other people} the good news about good things!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 10:16ULT

¹⁶ But not all of them obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?"

UST

¹⁶ However, not all {Jews} accepted the good news {about Jesus}. Indeed, this is what Isaiah {meant when} he said {in the Scriptures}, "Lord, no one trusts what we say!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 10:17ULT

¹⁷ So this faith {is} by hearing, and this hearing through the word of Christ. ^[1]

UST

¹⁷ So then, {a person can only} trust {in Jesus} by hearing {about him}. And {a person can only} hear {about Jesus} through {hearing} the message {that is about} the Messiah.

What is heard which brings faith?

The word of Christ is heard, which brings faith.

Romans 10:18ULT

¹⁸ But I say, "Did they certainly not hear?" Yes, indeed. "Their sound went out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world."

UST

¹⁸ However, this is what I say, "The Jews most definitely heard {the message}!" It is a fact. {As David wrote in the Scriptures,} "{The heavenly bodies are like witnesses and} everyone throughout the entire world could hear what they said."

Did Israel hear the gospel?

Yes, Israel heard the gospel.

Romans 10:19ULT

¹⁹ But I say, "Did Israel certainly not know?" First Moses says, "I myself will provoke you to jealousy by a non-nation; by means of a senseless nation, I will provoke you to anger."

UST

¹⁹ This is also what I say, "{The people of} Israel most definitely understood {the message}!" {God} first said through Moses {in the Scriptures}, "I will {personally} make you envious and angry by {using} a nation that does not {belong to me} and does not {even} know {me}."

How did God say he would provoke Israel to jealousy?

God said he would provoke Israel to jealousy by appearing a nation that had not known him.

Romans 10:20ULT

²⁰ Now Isaiah is very bold, and he says, "I was found by the ones not seeking me; I appeared to the ones not asking for me."

UST

²⁰ Moreover, {God} quite boldly declared through Isaiah {in the Scriptures}, "I revealed myself to those {non-Jewish people} who were not interested in knowing me and did not {even} ask about me."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 10:21ULT

²¹ But to Israel he says, "The whole day I stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contradictory people."
10:17 ^[1]

UST

²¹ However, {God} told {the people of} Israel {in the Scriptures}, "I am always inviting {you} to know me, {but you} {constantly} disobey and oppose {me}!"

What did God find when he reached out to Israel?

When God reached out to Israel, he found a disobedient and resistant people.

Romans 11

Romans 11:1

ULT

¹ I say then, God did not reject his people, did he? May it never be! For I myself also am an Israelite, from the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

UST

¹ Since {these things are true}, this is what I say, "God certainly has not rejected his people, the Israelites!" Of course not! {I know this is true} because I too am one of the Israelites. I descended from Abraham. {More specifically, I descended} from the tribe that descended from Benjamin.

Has God then rejected the Israelites?

May it never be!

Romans 11:2

ULT

² God did not reject his people, whom he foreknew. Or do you not know what the scripture says about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel?

UST

² God did not discard his people. {They are the people} whom he chose in advance. You certainly are aware of what the Prophet Elijah said in the Scriptures when he appealed to God against the people of Israel!

Romans 11:3

ULT

³ "Lord, they killed your prophets, they tore down your altars, and I alone was left behind, and they seek my life."

UST

³ {Elijah said,} "Lord, the people of Israel murdered {all of} your prophets {except for me}! They demolished {all of} your altars! I am the very last {prophet} who is still alive! Now, they are trying to kill me {too}!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:4ULT

⁴ But what does the divine response say to him? "I have reserved for myself 7,000 men who have not bent a knee to Baal."

UST

⁴ However, this is how God replied to Elijah, "I have kept alive 7,000 men for my purposes. These men have not worshipped {the false god} Baal."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:5ULT

⁵ In the same way, then, at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

UST

⁵ So, similarly, at this time some faithful Israelites also remain. {This is} because God has graciously chosen them {to remain}.

Does Paul say if there are any faithful Israelites remaining, and if so, how have they been preserved?

Paul says that there is a remnant remaining that has been preserved because of the choice of grace.

Romans 11:6ULT

⁶ But if by grace, {it is} no longer by works. Otherwise this grace becomes no longer grace. ^[1]

UST

⁶ Yet because {God chooses his people} based on how gracious he is, {God} does not {choose his people} based on what they do. {If God chose people based on what they do,} then how gracious he is would not {really} be gracious.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:7ULT

⁷ What then? The thing Israel diligently seeks, this it did not obtain, but the elect obtained, and the rest {of them} were hardened,

UST

⁷ So this is what we should conclude: Although {the people of} Israel keep trying to make themselves righteous, they cannot do so. Instead, those whom God {graciously} chose {from them} became righteous. But God made stubborn those people of Israel whom he did not {graciously} choose.

Who among the Israelites obtained salvation, and what happened to the rest?

The chosen among the Israelites obtained salvation, and the rest were hardened.

Romans 11:8ULT

⁸ just as it is written: "God gave them a spirit of dullness, eyes not to see, and ears not to hear, until this very day."

UST

⁸ This is exactly {what God meant when he wrote} in the Scriptures, "God caused the people of Israel to not think properly. Until this present day, God has made them completely unable to understand {how to become righteous}."

What did the spirit of dullness given by God do to those who received it?

The spirit of dullness made their eyes unable to see and their ears unable to hear.

Romans 11:9ULT

⁹ And David says, "Let their table become for a net and for a trap, and for a stumbling block and for a retribution to them.

UST

⁹ David also stated {in the Scriptures}, "{O God}, make the luxurious way they live punish them completely {like a hunter catches an animal} in a net or trap! {Make the luxurious way they live} cause them to sin and pay them back {for sinning}!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:10ULT

¹⁰ Let their eyes be darkened to not see, and make their backs bend continually."

UST

¹⁰ Make them unable to understand! Make them suffer like slaves forever!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:11ULT

¹¹ I say then, "They did not stumble so that they might fall, did they?" May it never be! Instead, by their transgression, this salvation {is} to the Gentiles, in order to provoke them to jealousy.

UST

¹¹ Since {these things are true}, this is what I say, "The Jewish people were certainly not offended in order that God would completely reject them!" Of course not! Rather, God saves non-Jewish people because the Jewish people disobeyed {him}. This happened in order for God to make the Jewish people envious {of non-Jewish people who know him}.

What good has happened because of Israel's refusal to receive the gospel?

Salvation has come to the Gentiles.

What effect will the salvation of the Gentiles have on the Israelites?

The salvation of the Gentiles will provoke the Israelites to jealousy.

Romans 11:12ULT

¹² Now if their transgression {is} wealth of the world, and their loss {is} wealth of the Gentiles, how much more {will} their fullness {be}?

UST

¹² Indeed, God used how the Jewish people disobeyed {him and} failed {to make themselves righteous} to abundantly bless people from all the nations in the whole world. So, {when} the complete amount of {faithful} Jewish people {become righteous}, there will be even greater blessings!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:13ULT

¹³ Now I am speaking to you the Gentiles. As much therefore as I myself am an apostle to the Gentiles, I glorify my ministry,

UST

¹³ But now I am speaking to you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus}. God indeed made me his representative to non-Jewish people. Therefore, I show how glorious is what I do to minister {to non-Jewish people}.

In Paul's analogy of the olive tree root and the wild branches, who is the root and who are the wild branches? (vv13-17)

The root is Israel, and the wild branches are the Gentiles.

Romans 11:14ULT

¹⁴ if somehow I might provoke to jealousy my own flesh and might save some from them.

UST

¹⁴ If possible, I want to make those who I am physically related to, the Jews, envious {of the non-Jewish people who know God}, so that God will save some of them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:15ULT

¹⁵ For if their rejection {is} reconciliation of the world, what {is their} acceptance if not life from dead ones?

UST

¹⁵ Indeed, God is reconciling with {people in} the world as a result of him rejecting the Jewish people. So, when God accepts the Jewish people, it will result in God making alive those who are dead.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:16ULT

¹⁶ Now if the firstfruits {is} holy, the lump {of dough} also. And if the root {is} holy, the branches also.

UST

¹⁶ Indeed, because {the ancestors of the Jewish people belong to God, just like} the first portion {of a lump of dough} belongs to God, {all the Jewish people belong to God, just like} that whole lump of dough {belongs to God}. Also, because {the ancestors of the Jewish people belonged to God, just like} the root {of an olive tree} belongs to God, {all the Jewish people belong to God, just like} the branches of that {same} tree {belong to God}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:17ULT

¹⁷ But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive branch, were grafted into them, and became partakers with them of the richness of the root of the olive tree,

UST

¹⁷ Indeed, {God has removed some of the Jewish people from his people, as} a farmer breaks {unfruitful} branches off {of an olive tree}. But, {God has made} you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus} {part of his people, as} a farmer grafts wild olive branches into {a cultivated tree}. {You} also {share together in benefitting from being part of God's people, as} grafted branches share in the nutrition in the olive tree root.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:18ULT

¹⁸ do not boast over the branches. But if you boast, you yourself do not support the root, but the root, you.

UST

¹⁸ Therefore, you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus} must not boast against the {Jewish people whom God removed, even though they are like} broken off branches! If you do boast, {you must realize that} you indeed do not sustain the Jewish people. Rather, {they sustain} you, as the root sustains {the branches}!

What attitude does Paul say the wild branches must avoid?

Paul says the wild branches must avoid the attitude of boasting over the natural branches that were broken off.

Romans 11:19ULT

¹⁹ You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I myself might be grafted in."

UST

¹⁹ So then, you might say, "{God removed some of the Jewish people from his people, as} a farmer breaks {unfruitful} branches off {of a tree}. {God did this} in order that {he could join} me {to his people, as} a farmer grafts a branch into {a tree}."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:20ULT

²⁰ {That is} true. They were broken off in unbelief, but you yourself stand firm in faith. Do not think arrogant things, but fear!

UST

²⁰ {I would reply by saying that} what you said is correct. {God removed} some of the Jewish people {from being his people, as} a farmer breaks off {unfruitful} branches because they were unfaithful. However, you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus} remain {part of God's people} by trusting {in him}. Do not arrogantly think {that you are better than unbelieving Jewish people}! Rather, fear {God}!

What warning does Paul give the wild branches? (vv20-21)

Paul warns the wild branches that if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare the wild branches if they fall into unbelief.

Romans 11:21ULT

²¹ For if God did not spare of the natural branches, neither will he spare of you.

UST

²¹ {You should fear God} because he did not show pity to the {faithless Jewish people, who are like} natural branches. So, he will not show pity to you {non-Jewish people} {if you stop trusting in Jesus}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:22ULT

²² See, then, the kindness and the severity of God: severity on the ones having fallen, but kindness of God on you, if you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you yourself also will be cut off.

UST

²² Since {this is true}, pay attention to how kind and severe God can be! God acts severely toward those who stop trusting in him. However, God will act kindly toward you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus} if you continue accepting how kind he is. But, if you do not {do this}, {God will reject you, like} a farmer cuts an {unfruitful} branch off of a tree!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:23ULT

²³ But those, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in. For God is able to graft them in again.

UST

²³ However, if those faithless Jewish people believe {in Jesus}, God will allow them to {rejoin his people, just as} a farmer grafts {branches} into {a tree}. {This is} because God is powerful enough to rejoin the Jewish people {to his people}.

What can God do with natural branches if they do not continue in their unbelief? (vv23-24)

God can graft back into the olive tree natural branches that do not continue in their unbelief.

Romans 11:24ULT

²⁴ For if you from what {is} by nature a wild olive tree were cut off, and contrary to nature were grafted into a good olive tree, how much more will these, who {are} according to nature, be grafted back into their own olive tree?

UST

²⁴ Indeed, {God removed} you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus from the nations and joined you to his people, as} a farmer cuts off a branch from a naturally wild olive tree and grafts it into a cultivated olive tree, {even though doing so is} not natural. Since {this is true}, {God} will certainly {join Israelites back into his people, just as} a farmer grafts a naturally cultivated olive branch back into its own tree.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:25ULT

²⁵ For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, in order that you might not be wise in yourselves, that a partial hardening has occurred in Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in;

UST

²⁵ {I say this} because I really want you, my {non-Jewish} fellow believers, to know what God had previously hidden {from people}, so that you do not become arrogant. {God had previously hidden from people the fact} that some of {the people of} Israel will stubbornly oppose {him} until all the non-Jewish people God has chosen have joined his people.

How long will the partial hardening of Israel last?

The partial hardening of Israel will last until the completion of the Gentiles comes in.

Romans 11:26ULT

²⁶ and thus all Israel will be saved, just as it is written: "From Zion will come the Deliverer. He will turn away ungodly things from Jacob.

UST

²⁶ Then, in the same way, God will save all {of the people of} Israel. This is what {Isaiah meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "God will send from Jerusalem someone to rescue {his people}. {That man} will make {the descendants of} Jacob stop being ungodly."

Romans 11:28ULT

²⁸ Indeed, according to the gospel, {they are} enemies for your sake, but according to election, {they are} beloved for the sake of their forefathers.

UST

²⁸ With regard to {Jewish people rejecting} the good news, they are enemies {of God} for your benefit. However, with regard to {God} choosing {Jewish people}, God loves them for the sake of {what he promised} their ancestors.

Despite their disobedience, why do the Israelites continue to be loved by God? (vv28-29)

The Israelites continue to be loved by God because of the ancestors and because the call of God is unchangeable.

Romans 11:29ULT

²⁹ For the gracious gifts and the calling of God {are} without regret.

UST

²⁹ {This is true} because God does not revoke the things he graciously gives. {He} also {does not revoke} {the people whom} he summons {to be his people}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:30ULT

³⁰ For just as you yourselves were formerly disobedient to God, but now were shown mercy in the disobedience of these,

UST

³⁰ Indeed, {it is} just as you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus} used to disobey God, but now God has been merciful to you because the Jewish people disobeyed {him}.

What have both Jew and Gentile been shown to be by God? (vv30-32)

Both Jew and Gentile have been shown to be disobedient.

What has God shown to the disobedient? (vv30-32)

God has shown mercy to the disobedient, both Jew and Gentile.

Romans 11:31ULT

³¹ thus also, these now were disobedient in your mercy so that they might also now be shown mercy.

UST

³¹ In the same way, the Jewish people also are now disobeying {God} because God has been merciful to you {non-Jewish people}. {This happened} in order for God to now also be merciful to them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:32ULT

³² For God shut up all {people} into disobedience in order that he might show mercy on all the {people}.

UST

³² Indeed, God allowed everyone to disobey him in order to be merciful to them.

Romans 11:33ULT

³³ O, the depth of the wealth and the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable {are} his judgments, and his ways beyond discovering!

UST

³³ God is so very wealthy, wise, and knowledgeable! No one can fully understand what he does!

Who is able to search God's judgments and give him advice? (vv33-34)

No person can search God's judgments and give him advice.

Romans 11:34ULT

³⁴ For, "Who has known the mind of the Lord or who has become his advisor?"

UST

³⁴ Indeed, {as Isaiah wrote,} "{No one} could {ever} comprehend what the Lord thinks or advise him!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:35ULT

³⁵ Or, "Who gave to him, that he should be repaid by him?"

UST

³⁵ Furthermore, "No one could {ever} give God {anything} that would cause God to owe him {something}!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 11:36ULT

³⁶ For from him and through him and to him {are} all things. To him {be} the glory to the ages. Amen.

11:6 ^[1]

UST

³⁶ {No one can do these things}, because everything {came} from God, {exists} by God, and {exists} for God. {I pray that} everyone will glorify him forever. May this truly be so!

What are the three ways all things are related to God?

All things are from God, through God, and to God.

Romans 12

Romans 12:1

ULT

¹ I urge you therefore, brothers, by the compassions of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, well-pleasing to God, which {is} your reasonable service.

UST

¹ So then, {considering everything that I have told you,} I exhort you fellow believers, based on how compassionate God is: Devote yourselves {to God}, as if you were living animals someone offers to God. Be holy and please God. Doing so is the reasonable way for you to serve {God}.

What is the spiritual service to God for a believer?

A believer's spiritual service is to present himself a living sacrifice to God.

Romans 12:2

ULT

² And do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewal of the mind, so that you can approve what {is} the good and well-pleasing and perfect will of God.

UST

² Do not change yourselves to be like the {sinful people who live at} the current time. Rather, let God change the way you behave by changing the way you think in order that you can test and prove what God wants {you to do}. {God wants you to do} what is good, pleasing, and flawless.

What does a transformed mind in the believer enable him to do?

A transformed mind enables a believer to know what is the good, acceptable, and perfect will of God.

Romans 12:3ULT

³ For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you to not think more highly of himself than what he ought to think, but to think with sound mind, as God has distributed to each one a measure of faith.

UST

³ Indeed, based on {how} God has kindly authorized me {to represent him,} I am telling every one of you to not think you are better than you really are. Rather, think properly {about yourselves}, according to the amount of trusting {in God} that God has apportioned to each one {of you}.

How should a believer not think of himself?

A believer should not think of himself more highly than he ought to think.

Romans 12:4ULT

⁴ For just as we have many members in one body, but not all the members have the same function,

UST

⁴ {You must think properly about yourselves} because, in the same way that a {human} body has many parts that all function for different purposes,

How are the many believers related to each other in Christ? (vv4-5)

The many believers are one body in Christ, and individually members of each other.

Romans 12:5ULT

⁵ in the same way, we, the many, are one body in Christ and the {body} individually {are} members of one other.

UST

⁵ so also, we many {believers in the Messiah} are united to the Messiah as one group. {Each one of us is united to each other like} the individual parts {of a human body} are united.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 12:6ULT

⁶ But we have different gracious gifts according to the grace given to us: if prophecy, according to the proportion of his faith;

UST

⁶ Yet we {believers in the Messiah} have received different spiritual abilities in accordance with what God has kindly given to us. If {God has enabled you} to prophesy, {then prophesy} in accordance with the amount of trusting {in God} that God has apportioned to you.

What should each believer do with the gifts God has given him?

Each believer should exercise his gifts according to the proportion of his faith.

Romans 12:7ULT

⁷ if service, in the service; if the one teaching, in the teaching;

UST

⁷ If {God has enabled you} to serve, {then you should} serve {others}. {If God has enabled you} to teach {others}, {then you should} teach {others}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 12:8ULT

⁸ if the one encouraging, in the encouragement; the one giving, in generosity; the one leading, in diligence; the one showing mercy, with cheerfulness.

UST

⁸ If {God has enabled you} to encourage {others}, {then} you should encourage {others}. If God has enabled you to give {what you have to others}, {then} you should generously give {what you have to others}. {If God has enabled you} to lead {others}, {then} you should lead {others} diligently. {If God has enabled you} to be merciful, {then} you should cheerfully be merciful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 12:9ULT

⁹ {Let} love {be} without hypocrisy, abhorring the wicked, holding on to the good;

UST

⁹ Love {each other} genuinely. Detest what is wicked. Fervently retain what is good.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 12:10ULT

¹⁰ in brotherly love, affectionate to one another; in honor, outdoing one another;

UST

¹⁰ Be affectionate toward each other in regard to loving fellow believers. Be the first to honor other {fellow believers}.

How should believers treat one another?

Believers should be affectionate to one another and respect one another.

Romans 12:11ULT

¹¹ in diligence, not lazy; in the spirit, being eager; serving the Lord;

UST

¹¹ Do not be lazy, {but} be diligent. Be sincerely enthusiastic. Serve the Lord.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 12:12ULT

¹² in hope, rejoicing; in suffering, being patient; in prayer, persisting;

UST

¹² Rejoice because you are confident {in the Lord}. Be patient when you suffer. Pray persistently.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 12:13ULT

¹³ in the needs of the saints, sharing; pursuing the hospitality.

UST

¹³ Share {what you have} {to provide} what God's people need. Find opportunities to welcome {others into your home}.

How should believers respond to the needs of the saints?

Believers should share in the needs of the saints.

Romans 12:14ULT

¹⁴ Bless the ones persecuting you; bless and do not curse;

UST

¹⁴ {Ask God to} bless the people who mistreat you. {Ask God to} bless them rather than curse them.

How should believers respond to those who persecute them?

Believers should bless, and not curse, those who persecute them.

Romans 12:15ULT

¹⁵ to rejoice with those rejoicing; to weep with those weeping;

UST

¹⁵ Rejoice along with those people who are rejoicing. Cry along with those who are crying.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 12:16ULT

¹⁶ thinking the same thing toward one another, not thinking the high things, but accepting the lowly ones. Do not be wise in yourselves;

UST

¹⁶ Be as concerned for each other as you are for yourselves. Do not think arrogantly {about yourselves}. Rather, associate with humble people. Do not be arrogant.

How should believers treat lowly people?

Believers should accept lowly people.

Romans 12:17ULT

¹⁷ paying back to no one evil for evil; giving careful thought to good things in the sight of all men;

UST

¹⁷ Do not do something evil to someone who has done something evil to you. Think carefully about {doing} things that everyone considers to be good.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 12:18ULT

¹⁸ if possible, what {is} from you, living at peace with all men;

UST

¹⁸ Live peacefully with everyone whenever it is possible for you to do so.

As much as is possible, what should believers seek with all people?

As much as is possible, believers should seek peace with all people.

Romans 12:19ULT

¹⁹ not avenging yourselves, beloved, but give way to {God's} wrath, for it is written, "'Vengeance {is} for me; I will repay,' says the Lord."

UST

¹⁹ {Fellow believers} whom I love, do not retaliate {when people do something evil against you}. Rather, let God punish {them}. {I say this} because Moses wrote {in the Scriptures}, "The Lord says, 'I will retaliate {when people do something evil against you}. I will punish {them according to what they have done}.'"

Why should believers not avenge themselves?

Believers should not avenge themselves, because vengeance belongs to the Lord.

Romans 12:20ULT

²⁰ But, "If your enemy is hungry, feed him. If he is thirsty, give him a drink. For doing this, you will heap coals of fire on his head."

UST

²⁰ Rather {than permitting us to retaliate, God instructed us in the Scriptures}, "Feed your enemy if that person is hungry. Give your enemy something to drink if that person is thirsty. {Do this} because when you do so, {your enemy will feel ashamed, as if} you were piling up burning coals on top of that person's head."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 12:21

ULT

²¹ Do not be overcome by the evil, but overcome the evil with the good.

UST

²¹ {In other words,} do not let what is evil defeat you {by causing you to do what is evil}. Rather, defeat what is evil by {doing} what is good.

How should believers overcome evil?

Believers should overcome evil with good.

Romans 13

Romans 13:1

ULT

¹ Let every soul be subject to governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and the existing {authorities} are appointed by God.

UST

¹ Every one of you must submit yourselves to those whom God has authorized to govern you. {This is} because no one {can govern} unless God authorizes them {to do so}. God has instituted the existing governments.

From where do earthly authorities get their authority?

Earthly authorities are appointed by God and get their authority from God.

Romans 13:2

ULT

² So then, the one resisting that authority has opposed the command of God, and the ones who have opposed it will bring judgment on themselves.

UST

² So people who resist those whom God has authorized {to govern} are opposing what God has commanded. God will punish those people who oppose {those whom he has authorized to govern}.

What will those receive who oppose the earthly authority?

Those who oppose the earthly authority will receive judgment upon themselves.

Romans 13:3

ULT

³ For rulers are not a terror to the good deed, but to the evil {deed}. Now do you want to not fear the authority? Do the good, and you will have praise from it,

UST

³ Indeed, the people who rule are {not supposed} to terrify {those people who do} what is good. Rather, {they are supposed to terrify} {those people who do} what is evil. If you do not want to fear those whom God authorizes to rule, {then} do what is good and those who rule will commend you for doing so.

What does Paul tell believers to do so that they can be unafraid of the ruling authority?

Paul tells believers to do what is good so that they can be unafraid of the ruling authority.

Romans 13:4ULT

⁴ for he is a servant of God to you for the good. But if you do the evil, fear; for he does not carry the sword in vain, for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath on the one practicing the evil.

UST

⁴ {This is} because the people {whom God authorizes to rule} serve God for your benefit. But if you do what is evil, you should be afraid, because God has authorized those people who rule to punish {people} for a good reason. Indeed, those people who rule serve God by avenging {what is evil} in order to punish anyone who practices what is evil.

What authority has God given rulers in order to suppress evil?

God has given rulers the authority to carry the sword and to punish the one who does evil.

Romans 13:5ULT

⁵ Therefore, {it is} necessary to be subjected not only because of the wrath, but also because of the conscience.

UST

⁵ Consequently, you must submit yourselves {to those people whom God authorizes to rule}. {You must do this} not only because they can punish you, but also because you know {that to disobey them is to disobey God}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 13:6ULT

⁶ For because of this you pay taxes also; for they are servants of God, persisting in this very thing.

UST

⁶ Indeed, you also pay taxes because of these things. {You also pay taxes} because those people {whom God authorizes to rule} serve God. They devote themselves to serving {by governing}.

What authority has God given rulers regarding money?

God has given rulers the authority to require payment of taxes.

Romans 13:7ULT

⁷ Pay back to everyone your obligations: tax to whom tax, toll to whom toll, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

UST

⁷ Give to everyone what you owe them: Pay taxes to whom you owe taxes. Pay fees to whom you owe fees. Fear those people whom you should fear. Honor those people whom you should honor.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 13:8ULT

⁸ Owe nothing to no one, except to love one another, for the one loving his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

UST

⁸ Do not owe anything to anyone. Rather, continue to love other {people who believe in the Messiah} {as if you owe it to them}. {Do this} because someone who loves another person accomplishes {what God required in} the laws {he gave the Jews}.

What is the one thing Paul says believers should owe to others?

Paul says that believers should owe love to others.

How does a believer fulfill the law?

A believer fulfills the law by loving his neighbor.

Romans 13:9ULT

⁹ For this: "You shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not covet," and if any other commandment, it is summed up in this word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

UST

⁹ {This is true} because {God commanded} these things {in his laws when he said}, "Do not have sexual relations with someone whom you did not marry. Do not murder. Do not rob people. Do not lust for what belongs to other people." You could summarize anything else that God commands {in the laws he gave the Jews} with this {other} thing {God commanded}: "Love other people in the same way you love yourself."

Which commandments does Paul list as part of the law?

Paul lists the commandments to not commit adultery, not kill, not steal, and not covet as part of the law.

Romans 13:10ULT

¹⁰ Love for a neighbor does not work evil. Therefore, love {is the} fulfillment of the law.

UST

¹⁰ {When you} love other people, {you} do not do evil things {to them}. This is why loving {other people} accomplishes {what God required in} the laws {he gave the Jews}.

How does a believer fulfill the law?

A believer fulfills the law by loving his neighbor.

Romans 13:11ULT

¹¹ And this, knowing the time, that {it is} already the hour for you ^[1] to awake from sleep. For now our salvation {is} nearer than when we believed.

UST

¹¹ {Do} these things because you know what time it is. It is already the time for you to be spiritually alert because {the time when Jesus will return} to {finally} save us is now closer than when we began trusting {in him}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 13:12ULT

¹² The night advanced, and the day has come near. Let us therefore put off the works of the darkness, and let us put on the weapons of the light.

UST

¹² {In the same way that} the night ends just before the day begins{, the time of this sinful world is almost over, and Jesus will return soon}. So, we must stop doing {what is evil, which is like} what people do when it is dark. Instead, we must {oppose what is evil by doing what is good, which is like} a soldier puts on his armor {to fight the enemy} during the day.

What does Paul say believers should put aside, and put on?

Paul says believers should put aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light.

Romans 13:13ULT

¹³ Let us walk decently, as in the day, not in drunken celebrations or drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and uncontrolled lust, not in strife and jealousy.

UST

¹³ We must behave appropriately, as if it were daytime {and people could see what we do}. We must not celebrate drunkenly or get drunk {at all}. We must not do any unrestrained sexually immoral acts {at all}. We must not quarrel {with others} or be jealous {of others}.

In what activities are believers not to walk?

Believers are not to walk in wild celebrations, drunkenness, sexual immorality, uncontrolled lust, strife, or jealousy.

Romans 13:14ULT

¹⁴ But put on the Lord Jesus Christ and make no forethought with regard to desires of the flesh.
13:11 ^[1]

UST

¹⁴ Rather {than doing those things}, act like the Lord Jesus the Messiah would act. Do not concern yourselves with {anything that is related to} what your {sinful} self wants to do.

What should be the believer's attitude toward the lusts of the flesh?

The believer should make no provision for the lusts of the flesh.

Romans 14

Romans 14:1

ULT

¹ Now accept the one being weak in the faith, not for passing judgments on opinions.

UST

¹ Welcome any fellow {believer in the Messiah} who is immature in how they believe. {Do} not {welcome them} in order to argue with them about matters of opinion.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:2

ULT

² One person believes to eat anything, but the one being weak eats vegetables.

UST

² {There are some people} who are convinced that they can eat any {kind of food}. But the immature {believer in the Messiah} {thinks that they can only} eat vegetables.

What kind of food does a person with stronger faith eat, and what does a person with weaker faith eat?

A person who is stronger in faith eats anything, but a person who is weaker in faith eats only vegetables.

Romans 14:3

ULT

³ Let the one eating not despise the one not eating, and let the one not eating not judge the one eating. For God has accepted him.

UST

³ {The believer in the Messiah} who eats {every kind of food} must not scorn {his fellow believer} who does not eat {every kind of food}. The believer in the Messiah} who does not eat {every kind of food} also must not judge {his fellow believer} who eats {every kind of food}. {This is} because God has welcomed {both of} them.

What attitude should believers who differ on what they eat have toward one another?

Believers who differ on what they eat should not despise or judge each other.

Who has received both the one who eats anything and the one who eats only vegetables? (vv3-4)

God has received both the one who eats anything and the one who eats only vegetables.

Romans 14:4ULT

⁴ Who are you, the one judging a household slave belonging to another? To his own master he stands or falls. But he will be made to stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

UST

⁴ You should not judge {your fellow believer, who is like} a slave belonging to another {master}. He either pleases or does not please his master, {according to how the master judges}. Yet God will make him pleasing {to himself} because the Lord can do so.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:5ULT

⁵ Indeed, one {person} judges day from day, but another person judges every day {alike}. Let each one be fully convinced in his own mind.

UST

⁵ Some people consider certain days to be special, while other people consider all days {to be the same}. Each person must be completely certain {that what they do honors God}.

What other issue does Paul mention as being an issue of personal conviction?

Paul mentions as an issue of personal conviction whether one day is valued over another or all days are valued equally.

Romans 14:6ULT

⁶ The one regarding the day, regards it for the Lord; and the one eating, eats for the Lord, for he gives thanks to God, and the one not eating, does not eat for the Lord; he also gives thanks to God.

UST

⁶ The person who thinks certain days are special does so in order to {honor} the Lord. The person who eats {every kind of food} does so in order to {honor} the Lord. {This is} because that person is thankful to God. The person who refuses to eat {certain foods} does so in order to {honor} the Lord. That person is thankful to God as well.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:7ULT

⁷ For none of us lives for himself, and none dies for himself.

UST

⁷ {This is true} because not one of us {believers in the Messiah} lives {only} to {please} himself, and not one of us dies {only} to {please} himself.

For what do believers live and die? (vv7-8)

Believers live and die for the Lord.

Romans 14:8ULT

⁸ For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or whether we die, we are of the Lord.

UST

⁸ Indeed, while we {believers in the Messiah} live, we live to {please} the Lord. When we die, we die to {please} the Lord. So then, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:9ULT

⁹ For to this {purpose} Christ died and lived {again}, so that he might be Lord of both dead ones and of living ones.

UST

⁹ Indeed, this is why the Messiah {Jesus} died and {became} alive {again}: in order to become Lord over those who are dead and those who are alive.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:10ULT

¹⁰ But you, why do you judge your brother? And you also, why do you despise your brother? For we will all present ourselves before the judgment seat of God.

UST

¹⁰ As for you, those of you who judge your fellow believers must not do so! You also must not scorn your fellow believers! {Do not do these things} because {one day} God will judge all of us {who believe in the Messiah}.

Where will all believers ultimately stand?

All believers will ultimately stand before the judgment seat of God.

Romans 14:11ULT

¹¹ For it is written, "As I live," says the Lord, "to me every knee will bend, and every tongue will confess to God."

UST

¹¹ Indeed, Isaiah wrote in the Scriptures, "The Lord says {this oath}, 'As certainly as I am alive, {it is just as certain that} everyone will worship me. And everyone will acknowledge to me {that I am God}.'"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:12ULT

¹² So then, each one of us will give an account concerning himself to God.

UST

¹² Therefore, each one of us {who believes in the Messiah} will certainly answer to God for whatever we do {while we are alive}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:13ULT

¹³ Therefore, let us no longer judge one another, but rather judge this: to not place a stumbling block for the brother or a trap.

UST

¹³ So we must stop judging other believers. Instead, we must resolve not to do anything that could tempt our fellow believers to sin.

What attitude should a brother have toward another brother on issues of personal conviction?

A brother should not place a stumbling block or a snare for another brother on issues of personal conviction.

Romans 14:14ULT

¹⁴ I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing {is} unclean by itself, except to the one considering anything to be unclean, for that one {it is} unclean.

UST

¹⁴ I am absolutely convinced by the Lord Jesus that no {food} is inherently sinful {for believers in the Messiah to eat}. If someone regards some {food} as sinful to eat, then it is {only} sinful for that person to eat it.

Paul is persuaded in the Lord Jesus that which foods are unclean?

Paul is persuaded that no foods are unclean.

Romans 14:15ULT

¹⁵ For if because of food your brother is hurt, you are no longer walking according to love. Do not destroy with your food that one for whom Christ died.

UST

¹⁵ {Do not tempt fellow believers to sin} because, if you grieve your fellow believer by eating what that person considers to be sinful to eat, you are not acting in a loving manner anymore. Do not cause a fellow believer to {stop trusting in God and} become ruined {eternally} because of what you {want to} eat! The Messiah died to save that person!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:16ULT

¹⁶ So do not allow your good to be blasphemed.

UST

¹⁶ So then, do not do anything that will cause anyone to slander the good things that God has given you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:17ULT

¹⁷ For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

UST

¹⁷ {Do not do this}, because eating and drinking do not characterize God's kingdom. Rather, being righteous, peaceful, and joyful through the Holy Spirit {characterizes God's kingdom}.

About what is the kingdom of God?

The kingdom of God is about righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.

Romans 14:18ULT

¹⁸ For the one serving Christ in this way {is} well-pleasing to God and approved by men.

UST

¹⁸ Indeed, {any} believer who serves the Messiah by doing these things greatly pleases God, and {other} people will {also} approve of that person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:19ULT

¹⁹ So then, let us pursue the things of peace and the things of the building up for one another.

UST

¹⁹ Therefore, we must eagerly try to live peacefully {with other believers} and help each other become {spiritually} mature.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:20ULT

²⁰ Do not tear down the work of God on account of food. All things {are} indeed clean, but {it is} evil for the man who eats with a stumbling block.

UST

²⁰ Do not ruin what God has done because {you want to eat certain} foods! God permits us to eat all {kinds of food}. However, it is sinful for someone to eat {certain foods} if doing so tempts {your fellow believer} to sin.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:21ULT

²¹ {It is} good not to eat meat, nor to drink wine, nor {anything} by which your brother stumbles [or is offended or becomes weak]. ^[1]

UST

²¹ It is better not to eat {any} meat, or drink {any} wine, or {do} anything that could tempt your fellow believer to sin, [or that could offend that person or cause that person to remain spiritually immature].

What does Paul say a brother should do in the presence of another brother who does not eat meat or drink wine?

Paul says it is good if the brother does not eat meat or drink wine in the presence of the other brother.

Romans 14:22ULT

²² The faith that you yourself have, keep according to yourself before God. Blessed {is} the one not judging himself in what he approves.

UST

²² Keep what you believe {that God permits you to do} between you and God. The person who does not feel guilty concerning what he believes to be right is blessed.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 14:23ULT

²³ But the one passing judgment is condemned if he eats, because {it is} not from faith. And all that {is} not from faith is sin.

14:21 ^[1]

UST

²³ By contrast, God judges someone who considers {eating certain foods to be sinful} and eats {those foods}. {This is} because that person did not act according to what that person believes {is right}. A person who does anything that is not according to what that person believes {is right} is sinning.

What is the result if a person does not act from faith?

Whatever actions are not taken from faith are sin.

Romans 15

Romans 15:1

ULT

¹ Now we, being able, ought to bear the weaknesses of the ones being unable, and not to please ourselves.

UST

¹ Indeed, we {spiritually} mature {believers in the Messiah} must support {our} fellow believers in the Messiah who are {spiritually} immature. We must not {only} do what pleases us.

What attitude should believers with strong faith have toward those with weak faith? (vv1-2)

Believers with strong faith should bear the weaknesses of those with weak faith, in order to build them up.

Romans 15:2

ULT

² Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, toward his building up.

UST

² Each one of us believers in the Messiah must do what pleases his fellow believers in order to do what is good {for them, and} in order to help them become {spiritually} mature.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:3

ULT

³ For even Christ did not please himself. Instead, just as it is written, "The insults of the ones insulting you fell on me."

UST

³ For instance, not even the Messiah {Jesus} pleased himself! Rather, {he lived to please others}. This is what {David meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures about the Messiah saying to God}, "When people insult you, they {also} insult me!"

Who is the example Paul uses of one who did not live to please himself, but served others?

Christ did not live to please himself, but served others.

Romans 15:4ULT

⁴ For whatever was previously written was written for our own instruction, in order that through the patience and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we would have the hope.

UST

⁴ Indeed, the prophets previously wrote everything {in the Scriptures} in order to teach us. {They also wrote the Scriptures} in order to make us confident through what the Scriptures say that helps us endure and encourages us.

What was one of the purposes of the Scriptures written previously?

The Scriptures written previously were written for our instruction.

Romans 15:5ULT

⁵ Now may the God of patience and of encouragement grant you to think the same with each other according to Christ Jesus,

UST

⁵ I pray that {our} patient and encouraging God will allow you to live harmoniously with each other the way the Messiah Jesus did.

What does Paul desire for the believers through their exercise of patience and encouragement with each other?

Paul desires that the believers be of the same mind with each other.

Romans 15:6ULT

⁶ so that with one accord you might glorify with one mouth the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

⁶ {I pray that you will live harmoniously with each other} in order that you might be united when you glorify God. {He is} the Father of our Lord Jesus the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:7ULT

⁷ Therefore, accept one another, just as Christ also accepted you, to the glory of God.

UST

⁷ Consequently, welcome your fellow believers {in the Messiah} in the same way that the Messiah {Jesus} also welcomed you in order to glorify God!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:8ULT

⁸ For I say that Christ has become a servant of the circumcision because of the truth of God, to confirm the promises of the fathers,

UST

⁸ Indeed, I{ Paul,} am telling {you} that the Messiah {Jesus} serves the circumcised {Jews} because of how trustworthy God is. {He did this} in order to secure what God had promised to the {Jewish} forefathers {Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob}.

Who is the example Paul uses of one who lived to serve others? (vv8-9)

Christ lived to served others.

Romans 15:9ULT

⁹ and also for the Gentiles to glorify God because of his mercy, just as it is written, "For this {reason}, I will confess you among the Gentiles and sing psalms to your name."

UST

⁹ {Jesus also did this} in order for the nations to glorify God because he is so merciful. This is what {David meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "So I will proclaim {who} you {are} {when I am} among the nations, and I will praise you by singing songs."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:10ULT

¹⁰ And again it says, "Rejoice, Gentiles, with his people."

UST

¹⁰ Again, {Moses} said in the Scriptures, "{All you} nations, celebrate along with God's people!"

What do the scriptures say the Gentiles will do because of God's mercy toward them?
(vv10-11)

The scriptures say the Gentiles will rejoice and praise the Lord.

Romans 15:11ULT

¹¹ And again, "Praise the Lord, all {you} Gentiles; and let all the peoples extol him."

UST

¹¹ And also {in the Scriptures someone said}, "All {you} nations, praise the Lord! All {you} people groups, commend him!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:12ULT

¹² And again, Isaiah says, "The root of Jesse will come, even the one rising to rule over the Gentiles; in him the Gentiles will hope."

UST

¹² {The Prophet} Isaiah also said {in the Scriptures}, "The one who descends from {David's father} Jesse will come. He will begin to rule over the nations. The nations will become confident because of him."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:13ULT

¹³ Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing so that you might abound in this hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

UST

¹³ I pray that the God who makes {people} confident will cause you to feel exceedingly joyful and peaceful by trusting {in him}! {I pray that God will do this} in order for you to be exceedingly confident by the Holy Spirit enabling you.

What does Paul say the believers will be able to do by the power of the Holy Spirit?

The believers will be filled with joy and peace, and will abound in hope.

Romans 15:14ULT

¹⁴ But I myself am also persuaded about you, my brothers, that also you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to instruct one another.

UST

¹⁴ My fellow believers, God has also persuaded me personally that each of you are exceedingly good, exceedingly knowledgeable of many things, and even able to teach other people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:15ULT

¹⁵ But I wrote more boldly to you in part as reminding you, because of the grace given me by God,

UST

¹⁵ {In this letter} I have written to you {believers in the Messiah} in a bold manner about some things in order to remind you {of them}. {I have done this} because God has kindly authorized me {to do so}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:16ULT

¹⁶ in order for me to be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priest the gospel of God so that the offering of the Gentiles might become well-pleasing, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

UST

¹⁶ {God did this} in order for me to serve the Messiah Jesus among non-Jewish people {by preaching} the good news from God as if I were a priest. {I do this} in order for the non-Jewish people {who trust in Jesus} to be {like} something offered {to God that} pleases {him, and that} the Holy Spirit has set apart {for him}.

What gift did God give Paul, which is Paul's mission?

Paul's mission is to be a servant of Christ Jesus sent to the Gentiles.

Romans 15:17ULT

¹⁷ Therefore, in Christ Jesus I have a boast {about} the things pertaining to God.

UST

¹⁷ So, as someone who is united with the Messiah Jesus, I have {good reasons} to boast about what God is doing {through me}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:18ULT

¹⁸ For I will not dare to speak anything {except} what Christ produced through me for the obedience of the Gentiles—by word and deed,

UST

¹⁸ Indeed, I will only be so bold as to speak about what the Messiah has done through me {that has led} to the nations obediently {trusting in God's good news}! {The Messiah did this} through what I said and did.

By what means has Christ worked through Paul to bring about the obedience of the Gentiles? (vv18-19)

Christ has worked through Paul by word and action, by the power of signs and wonders, and by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:19ULT

¹⁹ in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit of God—so that from Jerusalem, and round about as far as Illyricum, I have fulfilled the gospel of Christ;

UST

¹⁹ {The Messiah also did this} through powerful and wonderful miracles as God's {Holy} Spirit powerfully {enabled me}! As a result, I have completed proclaiming the good news about the Messiah all the way around from Jerusalem to the {province of} Illyricum.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:20ULT

²⁰ but in this way, counting it honor to proclaim the gospel, not where Christ has been named, in order that I might not build upon another man's foundation.

UST

²⁰ And so, I aspire to preach the good news where people have never heard about the Messiah {Jesus}. {I desire this} in order to not {interfere with someone else's work, as if I were} building something where another person had already laid the foundation.

Where does Paul desire to proclaim the gospel? (vv20-21)

Paul desires to proclaim the gospel where Christ is not known by name.

Romans 15:21ULT

²¹ But just as it is written: "Those to whom it was not reported concerning him will see, and those who have not heard will understand."

UST

²¹ Rather, {I preach the good news to those who have never heard it.} This is what {Isaiah meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "Those people whom no one told about him will perceive {who he is}. Those people who have not heard {about him} will comprehend {who he is}."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:22ULT

²² Therefore, I was also prevented these many times from coming to you.

UST

²² That also hindered me over and over again from visiting all of you {at Rome}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:23ULT

²³ But now, no longer having a place in these regions, and having a longing from a considerable {number} of years to come to you,

UST

²³ Yet at the present time I have nowhere left to go in these areas {to proclaim the good news}. I also have deeply desired to visit you for many years.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:24ULT

²⁴ whenever I travel to Spain, I indeed hope, passing through, to see you, and to be sent ahead there by you, if I might first be satisfied for a while by you.

UST

²⁴ {So} whenever I go to {the province of} Spain, I truly expect to visit you while passing through {Rome}. {I} also {expect} you to help me continue my journey to Spain after I first enjoy being with you for some time.

Where does Paul plan to travel that will also allow him to come to Rome?

Paul plans to travel to Spain, which will also allow him to come to Rome.

Romans 15:25ULT

²⁵ But now I am traveling to Jerusalem, ministering to the saints.

UST

²⁵ Yet, at the present time I am going to Jerusalem in order to serve God's people {there}.

Why is Paul now going to Jerusalem?

Paul is now going to Jerusalem to serve the believers there.

Romans 15:26ULT

²⁶ For Macedonia and Achaia were well-pleased to make a certain contribution to the poor ones of the saints in Jerusalem.

UST

²⁶ {I am doing this} because {the believers in} the provinces of Macedonia and Achaia were glad to give money to help the poor people of God {who live} in Jerusalem.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:27ULT

²⁷ For they were pleased, and they are obligated to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, they are obligated also to minister to them in material things.

UST

²⁷ In fact, those believers were glad, and they should {help} the poor believers in Jerusalem. {This is} because the non-Jewish believers have spiritually benefited from the Jewish believers. {So,} the non-Jewish believers should also serve the Jewish believers by providing what they physically need.

Why does Paul say the Gentile believers owe the Jewish believers material things?

The Gentiles believers owe the Jewish believers material things because the Gentile believers have shared in the spiritual things of the Jewish believers.

Romans 15:28ULT

²⁸ Therefore, having completed this and having sealed this fruit to them, I will go away through you to Spain.

UST

²⁸ So then, after I finish this task and safely deliver this money to the poor believers in Jerusalem, I will pass through {your city} on my way to Spain.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:29ULT

²⁹ But I know that coming to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

UST

²⁹ I am certain that the Messiah will fully bless {us} when I visit you!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:30ULT

³⁰ Now I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in the prayers to God for me,

UST

³⁰ Fellow believers, I appeal to you based on our Lord Jesus the Messiah and how the {Holy} Spirit has enabled us to love {each other}: Fervently pray to God with me {and} for me!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:31ULT

³¹ so that I might be delivered from the disobedient ones in Judea, and {so that} my service that {is} for Jerusalem might be acceptable to the saints;

UST

³¹ {Pray} that God will rescue me from the Jews in the province of Judea who do not believe {in Jesus}. {Pray} also that God's people in Jerusalem will accept the money that I give them for {the poor believers there}.

From whom does Paul wish to be delivered?

Paul wishes to be delivered from those who are disobedient in Judea.

Romans 15:32ULT

³² so that I might come to you in joy through the will of God, {and} might be refreshed together with you.

UST

³² {Pray also} that I can joyfully visit you as God wants, {and} we may refresh each other.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 15:33ULT

³³ Now the God of peace {be} with you all. Amen.

UST

³³ Finally, {I pray that} the God who makes {us} peaceful will be with all of you. May it be so!

Romans 16:16ULT

¹⁶ Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

UST

¹⁶ Say hello to each other in a loving way. All of the groups of believers who belong to the Messiah {in this area} say hello to you!

How do the believers greet one another?

The believers greet one another with a holy kiss.

Romans 16:17ULT

¹⁷ Now I urge you, brothers, to watch out for the ones causing divisions and traps, contrary to the teaching that you have learned, and turn away from them.

UST

¹⁷ My fellow believers, I exhort you to look out for the people who are causing {believers} to argue {with each other} and tempting {them} to sin, which contradicts what we have taught you. Stay away from them!

What does Paul tell the believers to do with those causing divisions and stumbling?

Paul tells the believers to turn away from those causing divisions and stumbling.

What are some doing, which is causing divisions and stumbling? (vv17-18)

Some are going beyond the teaching they have learned, deceiving the hearts of the innocent.

Romans 16:18ULT

¹⁸ For ones such as these are not enslaved to our Lord Christ, but to their own stomach, and through their smooth speech and flattery they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting ones.

UST

¹⁸ Indeed, people like this are not serving our Lord {Jesus} the Messiah! Rather, {they only serve} their own appetites. By speaking so eloquently and flatteringly, they trick the minds of people who do not suspect {them of teaching what is false}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Romans 16:19ULT

¹⁹ For your obedience reaches to everyone. I rejoice, therefore, over you, but I want you to be wise as to the good, but innocent as to the evil.

UST

¹⁹ {I tell you these things} because {believers} in many places have heard about how you obey {God}. As a result, I am overjoyed because of you! But I {also} desire that you act wisely with regard to what is good and remain innocent with regard to what is bad.

What attitude does Paul want the believers to have toward good and evil?

Paul wants the believers to be wise to that which is good, and innocent to that which is evil.

Romans 16:20ULT

²⁰ Now the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet with haste. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with you.

UST

²⁰ The God who makes {us} peaceful will quickly {make you victorious over Satan, as if} you were trampling{him} under your feet! {I pray that} our Lord Jesus the Messiah {will} be gracious to you!

What will the God of peace be doing soon?

The God of peace will soon be crushing Satan under the believers' feet.

Romans 16:21ULT

²¹ Timothy, my fellow worker, and Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen, greet you.

UST

Romans 16:25ULT

²⁵ Now to the one being able to establish you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, kept secret for long ages,

UST

²⁵ {I pray that everyone will glorify God.} He is the one who can strengthen you {spiritually} based on the good news that I proclaim about Jesus the Messiah. {What I proclaim is} based on the mysterious {plan} that God revealed but {previously} concealed {from people} for a very long time.

What revelation that had been kept secret from long ago is Paul now preaching? (vv25-26)

Paul is now preaching the revelation of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Romans 16:26ULT

²⁶ but now having been revealed, and through the prophetic writings, according to the command of the eternal God, to the obedience of faith, to all the nations, having been made known,

UST

²⁶ However, now God has revealed {that mysterious plan}. He has made it known through his prophets who wrote about it {in the Scriptures}. {They did this} according to what the God who lives forever commanded in order that all the nations would obey {God} by trusting {in Jesus the Messiah}.

For what purpose is Paul preaching?

Paul is preaching for the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles.

Romans 16:27ULT

Who called Paul and what was he called to be?

Jesus Christ called Paul to be an apostle.

1 Corinthians 1:2

ULT

² to the church of God that is in Corinth, having been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called saints, with all the ones in every place calling on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, theirs and ours.

UST

² {I send this letter} to {you who are part of} the groups of believers belonging to God, which are in the city of Corinth. {God has} set {you} apart for himself by uniting you to the Messiah Jesus, and {he has} chosen {you} to be his own people. {You are} part of the group of believers who worship our Lord Jesus the Messiah in many countries and cities. {Jesus the Messiah is} their {Lord} and our {Lord}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:3ULT

³ Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

³ {May} God, {who is} our Father, and the Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to be} kind to you and {make you} peaceful.

What does Paul desire the church at Corinth to receive from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ?

Paul desires that they may have grace and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:4ULT

⁴ I always give thanks to my God for you because of the grace of God, the one having been given to you in Christ Jesus.

UST

⁴ I often thank my God about you. {I do this} because {I know how} God is acting kindly towards you by uniting you to the Messiah Jesus.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:5ULT

⁵ For in everything you were made rich in him, in all word and all knowledge,

UST

⁵ {When I say that God has acted kindly towards you, I mean} that he has abundantly blessed you by uniting you to the Messiah in every area {of your lives}, including whatever you say and whatever you know.

How has God made the church at Corinth rich?

God has made them rich in every way, in all speech and with all knowledge.

1 Corinthians 1:6ULT

⁶ just as the testimony of Christ has been confirmed among you,

UST

⁶ {God has blessed you} because he has proved to you that what we told you about the Messiah was true.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:7ULT

⁷ so that you do not lack in any gift, eagerly waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ,

UST

⁷ {God has done these things for you} so that you are completely equipped spiritually {during this time when you} confidently expect our Lord Jesus the Messiah to return.

What did the church at Corinth not lack?

They did not lack any spiritual gift.

1 Corinthians 1:8ULT

⁸ who will also confirm you to the end, blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

⁸ {Just as he proved our message to be true,} God will also prove your trust {in the Messiah} true until {your earthly lives} end. {Because of this,} he will judge you not guilty when our Lord Jesus the Messiah returns {to earth}.

Why will God strengthen the church at Corinth to the end?

He will do this so that they will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:9ULT

⁹ God {is} faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

UST

⁹ God always does what he promises, {and he is the one} who has specially chosen you to share everything with his Son, Jesus the Messiah, our Lord.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:10ULT

¹⁰ Now I urge you, brothers, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there might not be divisions among you, but that you might be joined together in the same mind and in the same purpose.

UST

¹⁰ My fellow believers, as one whom our Lord Jesus the Messiah has authorized, I appeal to you, {asking} that all of you agree with one another. {I ask that} you do not split up into rival groups but that you reconcile with each other by agreeing in what you think and by agreeing in what you decide to do.

What does Paul urge the Church at Corinth to do?

Paul urges them to all agree and for there to be no divisions among them and that they be joined together with the same mind and by the same purpose.

1 Corinthians 1:11ULT

¹¹ For it was made clear to me concerning you, my brothers, by those of Chloe, that there are factions among you.

UST

¹¹ {I appeal to you} because some {members} of Chloe's {household} have talked to me about you, my fellow believers. {They said} that you quarrel among yourselves.

What did Chloe's people report to Paul?

Chloe's people reported to Paul that factions had developed among the people of the church at Corinth.

1 Corinthians 1:12ULT

¹² Now I say this, that each of you says, "I am of Paul," or "I am of Apollos," or "I am of Cephas," or "I am of Christ."

UST

¹² What I am talking about is how many of you are claiming that you belong to Paul's group, for example, or that you belong to Apollos' group, or that you belong to Cephas' group, or that you belong to the Messiah's group.

What did Paul mean by factions?

Paul meant this: Each one of you says, "I am with Paul," or "I am with Apollos," or "I am with Cephas," or "I am with Christ."

1 Corinthians 1:13ULT

¹³ Has Christ been divided? Paul was not crucified for you, was he? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

UST

¹³ No one has split the Messiah into pieces{, so you also should not split into pieces}. No one crucified Paul in your behalf, and no one baptized you so that you belong to Paul.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:14ULT

¹⁴ I thank {God} that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius,

UST

¹⁴ I give thanks {to God} that I baptized no people who belong to your group except for {two individuals:} Crispus and Gaius.

Why does Paul thank God that he baptized none of them except Crispus and Gaius?
(vv14-15)

Paul thanks God for this because this would give them no occasion to say that they were baptized into Paul's name.

1 Corinthians 1:15ULT

¹⁵ so that no one might say that you were baptized into my name.

UST

¹⁵ Because {I baptized so few of you,} no person is able to claim that I baptized you, so that you belong to my group.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:16ULT

¹⁶ (Now I also baptized the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know if I baptized any others.)

UST

¹⁶ Oh yes, I remember that I also baptized those who live in the house of Stephanas. Other than that, I do not think that I baptized any other people {in your group}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:17ULT

¹⁷ For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to proclaim the gospel—not with wise speech so that the cross of Christ would not be emptied.

UST

¹⁷ The reason {I baptized so few of you} is that the Messiah did not commission me to baptize {people}. Rather, {he commissioned me} to proclaim the good news. {I do this} without using words that are wise {by human standards}. That way, I do not destroy {the power of the message about} the Messiah dying on the cross.

What did Christ send Paul to do?

Christ sent Paul to preach the gospel.

1 Corinthians 1:18ULT

¹⁸ For the word of the cross is foolishness to the ones perishing, but to us, the ones being saved, it is the power of God.

UST

¹⁸ {I do not use wise words,} because the message that I proclaim about {the death of the Messiah on} the cross sounds foolish to people who are bringing destruction on themselves. However, God works powerfully in this message for us whom he is rescuing.

What is the message of the cross to those who are dying?

The message of the cross is foolishness to those who are dying.

What is the message of the cross among those whom God is saving?

It is the power of God among those whom God is saving.

1 Corinthians 1:19ULT

¹⁹ For it is written, “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will frustrate the understanding of the intelligent.”

UST

¹⁹ {You can tell that this is true,} because the prophet Isaiah wrote, “I will render useless the wise things that wise people think, and I will make the intelligent things that intelligent people think worthless.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:20ULT

²⁰ Where {is} the wise person? Where {is} the scholar? Where {is} the debater of this age? Has not God turned the wisdom of the world into foolishness?

UST

²⁰ {So then,} wise people are not really wise, and experts are not really experts, and people who are good at arguing are not really good at it, as they all belong to the current world system. {In fact,} God has shown that what seems to be wise in this current world is not wise at all.

Into what has God turned the wisdom of the world?

God has turned the wisdom of the world into foolishness.

1 Corinthians 1:21ULT

²¹ For since in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God was pleased to save the ones believing through the foolishness of the preaching.

UST

²¹ Here is how {God has done this}. Just as God wisely chose, unbelievers did not get to know God by means of their wise thinking. So, God decided to rescue those who have faith {in the Messiah} by means of the foolish message that believers proclaim.

Why did it please God to save those who believe through the foolishness of preaching?

It pleased God to do this because the world in its wisdom did not know God.

1 Corinthians 1:22ULT

²² For indeed, Jews ask for signs and Greeks seek wisdom.

UST

²² On the one hand, {many} Jewish people want to see powerful deeds. On the other hand, {many} Greek people search for wise thinking.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:23ULT

²³ But we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles.

UST

²³ We, however, proclaim that the Messiah died on a cross. {Many} Jewish people {find this message} offensive, and {many} non-Jewish people {think that this message is} foolish.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:24ULT

²⁴ But to them, the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ {is} the power of God and the wisdom of God.

UST

²⁴ We, however, whom God has chosen, whether {we are} Jewish {people} or Greek {people}, have learned that God works powerfully and wisely through {this message about} the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:25ULT

²⁵ For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God {is} stronger than men.

UST

²⁵ {This is} because what God does that seems foolish is wiser than {anything that} humans {do}, and what God does that seems weak is stronger than {anything that} humans {do}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:26ULT

²⁶ For consider your calling, brothers, that not many {were} wise according to the flesh, not many {were} powerful, {and} not many {were} of noble birth.

UST

²⁶ For {proof that this is so,} think about the fact that God chose you {the way you are}, fellow believers. From a human perspective, most of you did not think wisely, do powerful deeds, {or} belong to important families.

How many who were wise by human standards or powerful or of noble birth did God call?

God didn't call many who were like that.

1 Corinthians 1:27ULT

²⁷ But God chose the foolish things of the world in order that he might shame the wise, and God chose the weak things of the world in order that he might shame the strong,

UST

²⁷ Rather, God decided to use what seems foolish to humans to humble those who think wisely. God decided to use what seems weak to humans to humble those people and things that act powerfully.

Why did God choose the foolish things of the world and what is weak in the world?

He did this to shame the wise and to shame what is strong.

1 Corinthians 1:28ULT

²⁸ and God chose the base things and the despised things of the world, {and} the {things that} are not, in order that he might bring to nothing the {things that} are,

UST

²⁸ God decided to use what seems unimportant to people and what people look down on. {It is as if} these things do not {even} exist, {but God decided to use them} to make the things that everyone knows about insignificant.

What did God do so that no one would have reason to boast before him? (vv28-29)

God chose what is low and despised in the world and even things that are regarded as nothing.

1 Corinthians 1:29ULT

²⁹ so that no flesh might boast before God.

UST

²⁹ {God did these things with the goal} that no humans would say great things about themselves in God's sight.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 1:30ULT

³⁰ But because of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made for us wisdom from God, righteousness, and also sanctification and redemption,

UST

³⁰ It is God who has united you to the Messiah Jesus. By working through the Messiah, God has made us wise. He has declared us innocent, chosen us to be his own people, and delivered us {from evil powers}.

Why were the believers in Christ Jesus?

They were in Christ Jesus because of what God did.

What did Christ Jesus become for us?

He became for us wisdom from God—our righteousness, holiness, and redemption.

1 Corinthians 1:31ULT

³¹ so that, just as it is written, “Let the one boasting, boast in the Lord.”

UST

³¹ So, {because God is the one who does all these things, we should do what} the prophet Jeremiah wrote: “If people want to say great things about something, they should say those great things about the Lord.”

If we are going to boast, in whom should we boast?

Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 2

1 Corinthians 2:1

ULT

¹ And I, brothers, having come to you, did not come with superiority of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery of God. ^[1]

UST

¹ My fellow believers, I also {acted according to this pattern} when I visited you and told you about what God has now revealed to us. I did not speak in more powerful ways than others do. I did not argue in wiser ways than others do.

In what manner did Paul come to the Corinthians when he proclaimed the mystery of God?

Paul did not come with elegant speech or wisdom when he proclaimed the mystery of God.

1 Corinthians 2:2

ULT

² For I decided not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

UST

² {I did this} because I chose {to speak and act as if} the only things I understood while I was with you were Jesus the Messiah and how he died on the cross.

What did Paul decide to know when he was among the Corinthians?

Paul decided to know nothing except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

1 Corinthians 2:3

ULT

³ And I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling.

UST

³ I also {lived according to this pattern} when I was staying with you. I was sick, I was afraid, and I frequently shivered and shook.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 2:4ULT

⁴ And my word and my proclamation {were} not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power,

UST

⁴ I did not speak wisely and persuasively {according to human standards} when I talked {to you} and shared my message {with you}. Instead, I proved that God's Spirit works powerfully {through me when I shared my message}.

Why was Paul's word and his proclamation done with the demonstration of the Spirit and of power rather than with persuasive words of wisdom? (vv4-5)

This was so that their faith might not be in the wisdom of humans, but in the power of God.

1 Corinthians 2:5ULT

⁵ so that your faith might not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

UST

⁵ {I shared my message in this way} in order that you might trust {in God} because he acts powerfully, not because humans spoke wise words {to you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 2:6ULT

⁶ Now we speak wisdom among the mature, but not wisdom of this age nor of the rulers of this age, the ones passing away.

UST

⁶ Despite {what I have said,} we {who proclaim the good news} do speak wisely when we are with spiritually mature people. However, people who think only in human ways and people who rule right now do not think that we speak wisely. {Soon,} these people will no longer rule.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 2:7ULT

⁷ Instead, we speak the wisdom of God that has been hidden in a mystery that God predestined before the ages for our glory,

UST

⁷ No, we speak wisely {because we proclaim} the things that God has revealed to us. God concealed these things {until now}, although he had already decided to do them before he created anything. {He has done all of this} so that he might honor us.

What wisdom did Paul and those with him speak?

They spoke God's wisdom hidden in mystery—the hidden wisdom that God predestined before the ages for our glory.

1 Corinthians 2:8ULT

⁸ which none of the rulers of this age understood, for if they had understood {it}, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

UST

⁸ The people who rule right now did not know about these wise things. {You can tell that} they did not know, because they killed our glorious Lord on the cross.

If the rulers of Paul's time had known God's wisdom, what would they not have done?

If those rulers had known God's wisdom, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

1 Corinthians 2:9ULT

⁹ But just as it is written, "What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and has not arisen in the heart of man, these things God has prepared for the one loving him."

UST

⁹ Rather, {how they acted} fits with what the prophet Isaiah wrote: "God has ready for the people who love him things that no one witnessed before and things that no one heard about before and things that no human even imagined before."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 2:10ULT

¹⁰ For God revealed them to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the deep things of God.

UST

¹⁰ God has made these things known to us by the {power of God's} Spirit. {God works by the power of his Spirit} because God's Spirit explores all people and things. He even explores things about God that are very difficult to understand.

How did Paul and those with him know God's wisdom?

God revealed those things to them through the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:11ULT

¹¹ For who among men knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man {that is} within him? So also, no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God.

UST

¹¹ {You can tell that God's Spirit explores everything about God,} because everyone knows that only each human being understands everything about himself or herself. In the same way, only God's Spirit understands everything about God.

Who knows the deep things of God?

Only the Spirit of God knows the deep things of God.

1 Corinthians 2:12ULT

¹² But we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit from God, so that we might know the things freely given to us by God.

UST

¹² We did indeed receive the Spirit who comes from God. We did not receive a spirit that belongs to the current world. {We received God's Spirit} in order that we might understand everything that God has done for us.

What is one reason that Paul and those with him received the Spirit who is from God?

They received the Spirit who is from God so that they might know the things freely given to them by God.

1 Corinthians 2:13ULT

¹³ And we speak these things not in words taught by human wisdom but in those taught by the Spirit, combining spiritual things with spiritual words.

UST

¹³ These are the very things that we also talk about. We do not use words that humans wisely teach. Instead, we use words that the Spirit teaches, so that we explain spiritual truths with spiritual words.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 2:14ULT

¹⁴ But the natural person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he is not able to understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.

UST

¹⁴ Now, people who do not have God's Spirit reject the things that God's Spirit gives and teaches. {They reject these things,} because they think that they are foolish. They cannot know about {the things that God's Spirit gives and teaches,} because only people who have God's Spirit can judge rightly about them.

Why can't the unspiritual person receive or know the things that belong to the Spirit of God?

The unspiritual person can't receive them because they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them because they are spiritually discerned.

1 Corinthians 2:15ULT

¹⁵ But the spiritual one discerns all things, but he himself is discerned by no one.

UST

¹⁵ On the other hand, people who have God's Spirit {can} judge rightly about everything. However, no {other} person {can} judge rightly about them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 2:16

ULT

16 “For who has known the mind of the Lord—who will instruct him?” But we have the mind of Christ.
2:1 ^[1]

UST

16 This fits with {what the scripture says}: “No human knows what the Lord is thinking. No human can teach him about anything.” We, however, can think the same things that the Messiah is thinking.

Whose mind did Paul say the ones who believed in Jesus have?

Paul said they have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 3

1 Corinthians 3:1

ULT

¹ And I, brothers, was not able to speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to infants in Christ.

UST

¹ My fellow believers, {when I visited you,} I was unable to teach you in the way I would teach people who have God's Spirit. Rather, {I had to teach you} in the way I would teach people who think only in human ways. {I had to do this} because you believed in the Messiah in an immature way.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 3:2

ULT

² I gave you milk to drink, not solid food, for you were not yet able. Indeed, even now, you are not able.

UST

² I taught you about things that are simple. I did not teach about things that are complex. {I did this} because you were not ready for complex teachings. In fact, you are still not ready for complex teachings.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 3:3

ULT

³ For you are still fleshly. For where {there is} jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly and walking according to men?

UST

³ {I know that you are not ready for complex teachings,} because you are still people who think only in human ways. Some of you are jealous of each other, and some of you are fighting with each other. When you do these things, it proves that you are people who think only in human ways and who act only in human ways.

Why did Paul say the Corinthian believers were still fleshly?

Paul said they were still fleshly because jealousy and strife existed among them.

1 Corinthians 3:4ULT

⁴ For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not men?

UST

⁴ Further, some of you are claiming that you belong to Paul's group, for example, or that you belong to Apollos's group. When you make claims like these, it proves that you are thinking and acting only in human ways.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 3:5ULT

⁵ Who then is Apollos? And who is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to each one.

UST

⁵ You need to realize that Apollos and I, Paul, are just people who serve {the Messiah}. Each of us does what the Lord has assigned us to do. When we told you about the Messiah, you trusted in him{, not in us}.

Who were Paul and Apollos to the Corinthians?

They were servants through whom the Corinthians came to believe in Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:6ULT

⁶ I planted, Apollos watered, but God caused {it} to grow.

UST

⁶ {God assigned} me to proclaim the good news to you first. I was like someone who plants seeds. {God assigned} Apollos to proclaim even more about the good news to you. He was like someone who waters the seeds {so that they grow}. However, God himself enabled you to believe in and understand the good news. In the same way, he is the one who makes the plants grow.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 3:7ULT

⁷ So then, neither the one planting nor the one watering is anything, but God {is} the one causing the growth.

UST

⁷ You can see that the person who first proclaims the good news to people is not important. The person who proclaims even more about the good news to people is not important. These people are like those who plant the seeds and those who water the plants, since they too are not important. Instead, it is God who is important, because he enables people to believe in and understand the good news. In the same way, he is important because he causes the plants to grow.

Who gives the growth?

God gives the growth.

1 Corinthians 3:8ULT

⁸ Now the one planting and the one watering are one, and each will receive his own wages according to his own labor.

UST

⁸ In fact, the person who first proclaims the good news to people and the person who proclaims more about the good news to people have the same goal. They are like the person who plants the seeds and the person who waters the plants, who also have the same goal. God will reward people who do either task. {He will reward them} in a way that is appropriate for what they did.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 3:9ULT

⁹ For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building.

UST

⁹ We {who proclaim the good news} all work for God, but you belong to God. It is as if you were farmland that God owns{, in which we planted and watered seeds}. Indeed, it is as if you were a house that God owns.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 3:10ULT

¹⁰ According to the grace of God that was given to me as a wise master builder, I laid a foundation, and another is building {on it}, but let each one be careful how he builds {on it},

UST

¹⁰ God gave me the skills to wisely proclaim the good news to you first. I am like the construction boss who puts a foundation in the ground before building a house. Others{, such as Apollos,} proclaim more about the good news to you. They are like other builders who construct a house on top of that foundation. In the end, all the people who proclaim more about the good news should make sure that they proclaim it correctly. They should be like builders who construct a house the right way on top of a foundation.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 3:11ULT

¹¹ for no one is able to lay a foundation other than the one being laid, that is, Jesus Christ.

UST

¹¹ No one can put a foundation in the ground if another person has already put it in the ground. So also, no one else can first proclaim the good news to you, because I already did that. What I proclaimed to you is {what} Jesus the Messiah {accomplished}. This message about Jesus is like the foundation of a house.

What is the foundation?

Jesus Christ is the foundation.

What will happen to the work of someone who builds on the foundation of Jesus Christ? (vv11-13)

His work will be revealed in daylight and in fire.

1 Corinthians 3:12ULT

¹² Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw,

UST

¹² Builders can use many different building materials when they construct a house on its foundation. They can use {more durable materials like} gold, silver, and jewels, {and less durable materials like} lumber, grass, and straw. In the same way, some of those who proclaim more about the good news teach things that are more pleasing to God. Others teach things that are less pleasing to God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 3:13ULT

¹³ the work of each one will become evident, for the day will display {it}; for it is revealed in fire, and the fire itself will test of what sort is the work of each one.

UST

¹³ On the day when the Messiah returns to judge everyone, he will reveal what kind of work each person has done. The quality of the materials that builders use to construct a building becomes clear when the building catches on fire. In a similar way, a judgment like fire will occur on the day when the Messiah returns. This judgment will show the quality of what those who proclaim more about the gospel have taught.

What will the fire do to a person's work?

The fire will test the work, revealing the quality of what each one has done.

1 Corinthians 3:14ULT

¹⁴ If anyone's work that he built will remain, he will receive a reward;

UST

¹⁴ Any builders who constructed a building that survives a fire gain honor and money. In the same way, God will honor and reward all those who teach more about the good news in a way that God accepts when he judges everyone.

What will a person receive if their work survives the fire?

That person will receive a reward.

1 Corinthians 3:15ULT

¹⁵ if anyone's work will be burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as though through fire.

UST

¹⁵ Any builders who constructed a building that fire consumes lose respect and money. However, the builders do not die in the fire, but they escape from the flames. In the same way, when he judges everyone, God will not honor or reward all those who teach more about the good news in a way that God does not accept. However, God will still accept these teachers despite the wrong things that they have taught.

What will happen to the person whose work is burned up?

That person will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, as though escaping through fire.

1 Corinthians 3:16ULT

¹⁶ Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and the Spirit of God lives in you?

UST

¹⁶ You need to remember that you are like God's temple in Jerusalem {because God is present among you like he was present in the temple}. You need to remember that you are like a house in which God's Spirit lives {because he is always present with you}.

Who are we and what lives in us as believers in Jesus Christ?

We are God's temple, and the Spirit of God lives in us.

1 Corinthians 3:17ULT

¹⁷ If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy that {person}. For the temple of God is holy, which you are.

UST

¹⁷ God will act against any person who acts against his temple. This is because God's temple belongs to him alone. {Since} you are like God's temple, God will act against any person who acts against you.

What will happen if anyone destroys God's temple?

God will destroy the person who destroys God's temple.

1 Corinthians 3:18ULT

¹⁸ Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a "fool," that he may become wise.

UST

¹⁸ Do not believe what is not true about yourselves. You who consider yourselves to be wise according to human standards should become foolish {according to human standards}. In this way, you will {really} become wise people.

What does Paul say to him who thinks he is wise in this age?

Paul says, "...let him become a "fool," that he may become wise."

1 Corinthians 3:19ULT

¹⁹ For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their craftiness."

UST

¹⁹ {I speak these words} because the things that humans consider to be wise are things that God considers to be foolish. {You know that this is true} because the author of the book of Job wrote, "God is the one who disrupts the clever schemes that wise people plan."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 3:20ULT

²⁰ And again, "The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are futile."

UST

²⁰ Further, {the author of a psalm wrote}, "The Lord is aware of everything that wise people plan, {and he knows} that these plans will not succeed."

What does the Lord know about the reasonings of the wise?

The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise are futile.

1 Corinthians 3:21ULT

²¹ So then, let no one boast in men. For all things are yours,

UST

²¹ Therefore, none of you should boast about {how you follow other} humans. {I say this} because you have everything{, so boasting about following other humans is foolish}.

Why does Paul tell the Corinthian believers to stop boasting about people? (vv21-23)

He told them to stop boasting, "For all things are yours," and because, "... you are Christ's, and Christ is God's"..

1 Corinthians 3:22ULT

²² whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or things present or things coming. All {things are} yours,

UST

²² You have {leaders such as} Paul, Apollos, and Peter. You have everything that God made, {you do not fear when} you live, and {you can find comfort when you} die. You have everything that exists now and everything that will exist in the future. Indeed, you have everything.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 3:23ULT

²³ and you {are} Christ's, and Christ {is} God's.

UST

²³ Further, the Messiah has you, and God has the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 4

1 Corinthians 4:1

ULT

¹ In this manner let a man regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.

UST

¹ I want people to think of us {who proclaim the good news} as those who serve the Messiah and who are in charge of proclaiming what God has now revealed to us.

How did Paul say the Corinthians should regard Paul and his companions?

The Corinthians should regard them as servants of Christ and stewards of the hidden truths of God.

1 Corinthians 4:2

ULT

² In this case, it is required in the stewards that one may be found faithful.

UST

² Whenever a leader puts another person in charge, the leader requires that person to do his or her tasks faithfully. {In the same way, God requires that we who proclaim the good news do our task faithfully.}

What is one of the requirements for a steward?

Stewards must be found faithful.

1 Corinthians 4:3

ULT

³ But to me it is a very small thing that I would be examined by you or by a human court. For I do not examine myself.

UST

³ I do not worry about what you or any other human authority decides {about whether I have acted faithfully or not}. In fact, I do not even worry about what I myself decide {about whether I have acted faithfully or not}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 4:4ULT

⁴ For I am aware of nothing against myself, but I am not justified by this; but the one judging me is the Lord.

UST

⁴ In fact, I do not know about anything I have done wrong. However, what I know about myself does not prove that I have acted faithfully. Rather, it is the Lord who will decide {whether I have acted faithfully or not}.

Who does Paul say is his judge?

Paul says the Lord judges him.

1 Corinthians 4:5ULT

⁵ Therefore, do not judge anything before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the hearts. And then the praise from God will come to each one.

UST

⁵ So then, you should not finally decide about anything until the Lord comes back {to judge everyone and everything}. He will make clear what is now hidden, and he will show everyone what each person desires and plans. At that time, God will praise each person {who has acted faithfully}.

What will the Lord do when he comes?

He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the hearts.

1 Corinthians 4:6ULT

⁶ Now, these things, brothers, I applied to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that through us you might learn this: "Not beyond what is written," so that no one would be puffed up in favor of the one against the other.

UST

⁶ My fellow believers, I have talked in this way about myself and Apollos for your benefit. I want you to learn from our example that you should act only in ways that fit with what the authors of the Scriptures wrote. Then, nobody will speak great things about one leader and bad things about another leader.

Why did Paul apply these principles to himself and to Apollos?

Paul did it for the sake of the Corinthian believers so they might learn the meaning of the saying, "Not beyond what is written," so that none of them would think in favor of one against the other.

1 Corinthians 4:7ULT

⁷ For who makes you superior? And what do you have that you did not receive? And if indeed you received {it}, why do you boast as if you did not receive {it}?

UST

⁷ Nobody has set you apart {from every other believer}. In fact, God has given to you every good thing that you have. Since these things are gifts from God, you should not say proudly that you yourself earned them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 4:8ULT

⁸ Already you are satisfied! Already you have become rich! You began to reign apart from us, and I wish you really did reign, so that we also might reign with you.

UST

⁸ {You are acting as if} you currently have everything that you need spiritually. {You are acting as if} you currently have more spiritual blessings than you need. {You are acting as if} you have currently begun to rule with Christ, even though we {who proclaim the good news} are not ruling with Christ now. Indeed, I wish that you really were ruling with him, in order that we {who proclaim the good news} could be ruling with you.

Why does Paul wish the Corinthian believers did reign?

Paul wishes they did reign so that Paul and his companions could be reigning with them.

1 Corinthians 4:9ULT

⁹ For I think God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as sentenced to death. For we have become a spectacle to the world—both to angels and to men.

UST

⁹ Rather {than thinking that we rule with Christ now}, I consider us apostles to be those whom God has appointed to suffer humiliation and to die. We suffer humiliation and die publicly, and everything that God has created, including spiritual beings and humans, can see us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 4:10ULT

¹⁰ We {are} fools for Christ's sake, but you {are} wise in Christ. We {are} weak, but you {are} strong. You {are} honored, but we {are} dishonored.

UST

¹⁰ We {seem to} be foolish people because we serve the Messiah, but {you think that} you are wise people because God unites you to the Messiah. We {seem to} be people who do not have power or influence, but {you think that} you do have these things. {You think that} people praise you, but those people shame us.

What are three ways Paul contrasts himself and his companions with the Corinthian believers?

Paul says, "We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we are held in dishonor."

1 Corinthians 4:11ULT

¹¹ Up to the present hour we are both hungry and thirsty and are poorly clothed and are brutally beaten and are homeless

UST

¹¹ Even now {as I write this letter to you}, we {whom Christ has sent} have often not had enough food or drink. We wear ragged clothing, and others repeatedly strike us. We constantly travel and do not return to a home.

How did Paul describe the physical condition of the apostles?

Paul said they were hungry and thirsty, poorly clothed, brutally beaten and homeless.

1 Corinthians 4:12ULT

¹² and are working hard, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure;

UST

¹² We do manual labor {to earn a living}. When people speak badly to us, we say good things about them. When people hurt us {because we serve the Messiah}, we patiently live through it.

How did Paul and his companions respond when they were mistreated? (vv12-13)

When they were attacked, they blessed. When they were persecuted, they endured it. When they were slandered, they spoke with kindness.

1 Corinthians 4:13ULT

¹³ being slandered, we comfort. We have become as the scum of the world, the refuse of all things, even until now.

UST

¹³ When people say bad things about us, we say encouraging words to them. From a human perspective, we are worthless, like filthy garbage that someone should throw away. {All these things are true about us} even now {as I write this letter to you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 4:14ULT

¹⁴ I do not write these things as shaming you, but as my beloved children, I correct {you}.

UST

¹⁴ I do not include in my letter what I have just finished saying because I want to make you ashamed. Rather, {I include these things} because I want to admonish you, since you are like my own children, whom I love.

Why did Paul write these things to the Corinthian believers?

He wrote them to correct them as his beloved children.

1 Corinthians 4:15ULT

¹⁵ For if you would have myriads of guardians in Christ, yet {you would} not {have} many fathers; for I fathered you in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

UST

¹⁵ When I first preached the good news to you, and God united you to Jesus the Messiah, I became your spiritual father. So, even if you had a million teachers who helped you to live in union with the Messiah, I would still be the only spiritual father you have.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 4:16ULT

¹⁶ Therefore, I urge you, become imitators of me.

UST

¹⁶ Because {I am your spiritual father}, I plead with you to imitate how I live.

Who does Paul tell the Corinthian believers to imitate?

Paul tells them to imitate himself.

1 Corinthians 4:17ULT

¹⁷ Because of this I sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways {that are} in Christ Jesus, just as I teach everywhere in every church.

UST

¹⁷ Because {I want you to imitate me}, I had Timothy visit you. He is like my own child, and I love him. He faithfully {serves the Messiah} as one whom God has united to the Lord. He will teach you again about how I behave as one whom God has united to the Messiah Jesus. I instruct every church in every place {that I visit} to behave in these ways.

Of what was it that Paul sent Timothy to the Corinthian believers to remind them?

Paul sent Timothy to Corinth to remind the believers there of Paul's ways in Christ.

1 Corinthians 4:18ULT

¹⁸ Now some have been puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.

UST

¹⁸ Some of you are saying great things about yourselves. These people act as if I were not about to visit you.

How were some of the Corinthian believers acting?

Some of them were arrogant, acting as though Paul was not coming to them.

1 Corinthians 4:19ULT

¹⁹ But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not merely the word of the ones having been puffed up, but their power.

UST

¹⁹ However, I will visit you very soon, as long as the Lord wants {me to do so}. I already know what these people who say great things about themselves claim. {When I visit you}, I will learn whether they are actually powerful or not.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 4:20ULT

²⁰ For the kingdom of God {is} not in word but in power.

UST

²⁰ {I will do this} because God's kingdom functions by God working powerfully through people, not by people saying great things.

In what does the kingdom of God consist?

The kingdom of God consists in power.

1 Corinthians 4:21ULT

²¹ What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

UST

²¹ When you choose how you will respond to what I am saying, you are also choosing how I will act {when I visit}. When I visit you, I can either harshly discipline you {because you did not listen}, or I can act gently and lovingly {because you did listen}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 5

1 Corinthians 5:1

ULT

¹ It is actually reported {that there is} sexual immorality among you, and such immorality which {is} not even among the Gentiles—that someone has his father’s wife.

UST

¹ I have learned that you are in fact allowing people from your group to have improper sex. Even those who do not worship God do not allow some of the things that you allow. {The worst thing that I have learned is} that a man from your group is having sex with his stepmother.

What report did Paul hear about the church at Corinth?

Paul heard that there was sexual immorality there. One of them was sleeping with his father’s wife.

1 Corinthians 5:2

ULT

² And you are puffed up, and you did not mourn instead, so that the one having done this deed might be removed from among you.

UST

² {Despite this,} you still say great things about yourselves instead of lamenting {that sin}. {You should have lamented} with the goal of expelling the man who committed this sexual sin.

What did Paul say must be done to that person who sinned with his father’s wife?

The one who sinned with his father’s wife must be removed from among them.

1 Corinthians 5:3

ULT

³ For even I, being absent in the body but being present in the spirit, have already passed judgment on the one having done such a thing, as if being present.

UST

³ {You should expel him} because I have already declared the man who did this evil thing to be guilty. Although I am not with you physically, I think about you and care about you. {Therefore, when I declare this man to be guilty, it is as valid} as if I were with you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 5:4ULT

⁴ You and my spirit, having been assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, with the power of our Lord Jesus,

UST

⁴ When you gather together, and I am thinking of you, we represent our Lord Jesus the Messiah. {When you gather in this way, you should punish this man} as our Lord Jesus authorizes you to do.

How and why was that person who sinned with his father's wife to be removed? (vv4-5)

When the church at Corinth gathered together in the name of the Lord Jesus, they were to hand the sinning man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit might be saved on the day of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 5:5ULT

⁵ hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.

UST

⁵ You should expel this man so that Satan rules over him. That will destroy his sinful parts, and then God will save him when the Lord returns.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 5:6ULT

⁶ Your boasting {is} not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole loaf?

UST

⁶ Saying great things about yourselves is not the right thing to do. Surely you realize that one person doing evil things is like fermented dough. Even a little fermented dough makes a whole lump of dough fermented, and even one person doing evil things makes the whole church guilty.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 5:7ULT

⁷ Clean out the old yeast so that you may be new dough, just as you are unleavened bread. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has also been sacrificed.

UST

⁷ Just as Jews remove the yeast from their houses {during the Passover festival}, so you should remove anyone who does evil things from your group. Then, you will be free of sin, just like fresh, unleavened dough is free of yeast. In fact, you live in a time that is like the festival of Passover. {This is because} the Messiah has died for you, just like the lamb that Jews sacrifice during the Passover festival represents how God delivered them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 5:8ULT

⁸ So then, we should celebrate the festival, not with old yeast, nor with yeast of evil and wickedness, but with unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

UST

⁸ Since {the Messiah has died for us}, let us act as if we were participating in the festival of Passover and remove the old leaven. We should get rid of the leaven, which stands for doing what is evil and wicked. Instead, we should eat unfermented bread, which stands for doing what is honest and trustworthy.

To what does Paul compare bad behavior and wickedness?

Paul compares them to yeast.

What does Paul use as a metaphor for sincerity and truth?

Paul uses unleavened bread as a metaphor for sincerity and truth.

1 Corinthians 5:9ULT

⁹ I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—

UST

⁹ In the letter {that I sent to you before this one}, I told you not to keep company with people who act in sexually improper ways.

With whom did Paul tell the Corinthian believers not to associate?

Paul wrote to them not to associate with sexually immoral people.

1 Corinthians 5:10ULT

¹⁰ by no means the immoral people of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out from the world.

UST

¹⁰ {I did} not {mean that you should} entirely {disassociate} with unbelieving people who act in sexually immoral ways, or with people who want more than they need or who cheat others, or with people who worship false gods. To avoid these kinds of people, you would need to get away from the entire world. {That is not what I have commanded you to do.}

Did Paul mean for them not to associate with any sexually immoral people?

Paul did not mean the immoral people of this world. You would have to go out of the world to stay away from them

1 Corinthians 5:11ULT

¹¹ But now I wrote to you not to associate with any so-called brother {who} is sexually immoral or greedy or an idolater or verbally abusive or a drunkard or a swindler. Do not even eat with such a person.

UST

¹¹ Now, in this letter, I am telling you not to keep company with any person whom you call a fellow believer who is acting sinfully. This includes having improper sex, wanting more than one needs, worshiping other gods, abusing others with words, getting drunk, and cheating others. Do not have meals with a person who does any of these things.

With whom did Paul mean for the Corinthian believers not to associate?

He meant for them not to associate with anyone who is called a brother or sister in Christ and who is sexually immoral, greedy, verbally abusive, a drunkard, a swindler, or an idolater.

1 Corinthians 5:12ULT

¹² For what to me to judge the ones outside? Do you not judge the ones inside?

UST

¹² {I want you to act in this way only with fellow believers,} because {you and} I do not need to decide whether someone who is not part of our group is guilty or innocent. Rather, you need to focus on deciding whether people who are part of your group are guilty or innocent.

Who are the believers supposed to judge?

They are supposed to judge those inside the church.

1 Corinthians 5:13

ULT

¹³ But God judges ^[1] the ones outside. "Remove the evil from among yourselves."

5:13 ^[1]

UST

¹³ {Do not worry about people who are not part of your group because} God is the one who decides whether they are guilty or innocent. {You should focus on people who are part of your group because the scripture says,} "You must get rid of any evil person who is part of your group!"

Who judges those outside the church?

God judges those who are on the outside.

1 Corinthians 6

1 Corinthians 6:1

ULT

¹ Do any of you dare, having a dispute with another, to go to court before the unrighteous, and not before the saints?

UST

¹ When someone from your group quarrels with another person from your group, you should never settle the quarrel {in a public court} in front of people who do not believe. Rather, {you should settle the quarrel in private} among the people whom God has set apart for himself.

What does Paul say the saints at Corinth should be able to judge? (vv1-3)

Paul says they should be able to judge disputes between saints concerning the matters of this life.

1 Corinthians 6:2

ULT

² Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy of the smallest cases?

UST

² Surely you know that the people whom God has set apart for himself will decide whether all things and people that God has created are guilty or innocent. Since you will decide whether all these things and people are guilty or innocent, you can surely decide about small quarrels {within your group}.

Who will the saints judge? (vv2-3)

The saints will judge the world and the angels.

1 Corinthians 6:3

ULT

³ Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more, matters of this life?

UST

³ You need to realize that we will decide whether angels are innocent or guilty. {Since we will do that,} we are certainly able to decide about disputes related to our current lives.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 6:4ULT

⁴ So then, if you have legal disputes about things of this life, why do you appoint as judges these ones of no account in the church?

UST

⁴ Therefore, whenever you quarrel with one another concerning your current lives, you should not choose people who are not part of your group of believers to decide who is guilty or innocent.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 6:5ULT

⁵ I speak to your shame. {Is it} thus that there is not any wise {man} among you who will be able to discern between his brothers?

UST

⁵ I include what I have just said in order to make you feel ashamed. Surely there are people in your group who are wise enough to be able to decide about disputes among fellow believers.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 6:6ULT

⁶ But brother goes to court against brother, and this before unbelievers?

UST

⁶ But instead, some believers among you accuse other believers in a legal court, and people who do not believe settle the dispute.

How are the Corinthian Christians handling their disputes with one another?

One believer goes to court against another believer, and that case is placed before a judge who is an unbeliever.

1 Corinthians 6:7ULT

⁷ This, therefore, is indeed already a complete defeat for you, since you have lawsuits among yourselves. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated?

UST

⁷ Because you have disputes with each other, you have already completely failed to follow Jesus. Rather {than failing in this way}, you should instead forgive fellow believers when they harm or defraud you.

What does the fact that there are disputes among the Corinthian Christians indicate?

It indicates that this is a defeat for them.

1 Corinthians 6:8ULT

⁸ But you do wrong and cheat, and this to your brothers!

UST

⁸ Rather {than forgiving others}, however, you have harmed and defrauded {other people}. In fact, {you have done} these things to fellow believers!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 6:9ULT

⁹ Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor practicing homosexuals

UST

⁹ {I am shocked that you do these things} even though you realize that people who harm others will not participate in God's kingdom. Do not believe anyone who tells you something else. Anyone who has improper sex or who worships other gods or who has sex with a married person or who participates in sexual acts with a person of the same gender or who initiates sexual acts with a person of the same gender

Who will not inherit the kingdom of God? (vv9-10)

The unrighteous: the sexually immoral, idolaters, adulterers, male prostitutes, those who practice homosexuality, thieves, the greedy, drunkards, slanderers, and swindlers will not inherit the kingdom of God.

1 Corinthians 6:10ULT

¹⁰ nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God.

UST

¹⁰ or who steals from others or who wants more than he or she needs or who gets drunk or who abuses others with words or who cheats others will not participate in God's kingdom.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 6:11ULT

¹¹ And that {is what} some of you were. But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

UST

¹¹ Some of you used to behave in these ways. However, now God has cleansed you, he has made you holy, and he has declared you to be innocent. {You experience these things} because the Lord Jesus the Messiah and the Holy Spirit work powerfully {to give them to you}.

What happened to the Corinthian believers who previously practiced unrighteousness?

They were cleansed and made holy, made right with God in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

1 Corinthians 6:12ULT

¹² "Everything is lawful for me," but not everything is beneficial. "Everything is lawful for me," but I will not be mastered by anything.

UST

¹² {Some of you say,} "I can do anything and not become guilty." However, {I say that} some things are not helpful {to anybody}. {Again, some of you say,} "I can do anything and not become guilty." However, {I say that} I will not serve anything that will make me its slave.

What are the two things Paul says he will not allow to master him? (vv12-13)

Paul says he will not be mastered by food or sex.

1 Corinthians 6:13ULT

¹³ “Food {is} for the stomach, and the stomach for food,” but God will do away with both this and those. Now the body {is} not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord and the Lord for the body.

UST

¹³ {Some of you say,} “Food exists for a person’s stomach to digest it, and a person’s stomach exists to digest food.” Indeed, {I also say that} God will make food and stomachs unimportant. {While it is true that food exists for a person’s stomach,} the human body does not exist for a person to have improper sex with it. Instead, {the human body} exists to serve the Lord, and the Lord has worked to save the human body.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 6:14ULT

¹⁴ Now God indeed raised the Lord and will also raise up us by his power.

UST

¹⁴ In fact, God made the Lord alive again, and he will work powerfully to make us also alive again.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 6:15ULT

¹⁵ Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Therefore, having taken away the members of Christ, should I make {them} members of a prostitute? May it never be!

UST

¹⁵ Surely you know that your bodies belong to the Messiah, just as if you were his body parts. Because of that, you should not take your body back and then give it to a prostitute, so that your body belongs to her, just as if you were her body parts. Never do that!

The bodies of believers are members of what?

Their bodies are members of Christ.

Should believers join themselves to prostitutes?

No. May it never be!

1 Corinthians 6:16ULT

¹⁶ Or do you not know that the one being joined to the prostitute is one body? For it says, "The two will become as one flesh."

UST

¹⁶ Surely you know that a man who has sex with a prostitute unites himself to her as closely as if they shared the same body. {You should know this} because the scripture says, "The {man and the woman, although} two people, will become {like} one person."

What happens when someone joins himself to a prostitute?

The two will become as one flesh.

1 Corinthians 6:17ULT

¹⁷ But the one being joined to the Lord is one spirit.

UST

¹⁷ In a similar way, any people who unite themselves to the Lord become spiritually one {with the Lord}.

What happens when someone joins himself to the Lord?

He becomes one spirit with him.

1 Corinthians 6:18ULT

¹⁸ Flee from sexual immorality! Every sin that a man might commit is outside the body, but the one being sexually immoral sins against his own body.

UST

¹⁸ Intentionally avoid having improper sex. When people sin, they usually do so without directly hurting their bodies. However, when people have improper sex, they do hurt their own bodies.

Who do people sin against when they are sexually immoral?

They sin against their own bodies when they are sexually immoral.

1 Corinthians 6:19ULT

¹⁹ Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit in you, whom you have from God? And you are not your own,

UST

¹⁹ Surely you know that God has given the Holy Spirit to you. Therefore, your bodies are like temples for the Holy Spirit, since he unites himself to you {like how a god unites himself to his temple}. Because of that, you do not belong to yourselves.

Why should believers glorify God with their bodies? (vv19-20)

They should glorify God with their bodies because their bodies are a temple of the Holy Spirit and because they were bought with a price.

1 Corinthians 6:20ULT

²⁰ for you were bought with a price. Therefore, glorify God in your body. ^[1]
6:20 ^[1]

UST

²⁰ {Rather, you belong to God, since the Messiah died for you. When he died for you,} it was as if God paid money to buy you. Because {you belong to God}, you must honor him whenever you do anything with your body.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 7

1 Corinthians 7:1

ULT

¹ Now concerning what you wrote: “[It is] good for a man not to touch a woman.”

UST

¹ Moving on to what you asked me about, in your letter you said that it is appropriate for people not to have sex with each other.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 7:2

ULT

² But because of immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.

UST

² On the other hand, people often desire to have sex, even improper sex. Because of that, a husband should stay married to his own wife, and a wife should stay married to her own husband.

Why should each man have his own wife and each woman have her own husband?

Because of temptations for many immoral acts, each man should have his own wife and each wife should have her own husband.

1 Corinthians 7:3

ULT

³ Let the husband give to the wife the duty and likewise the wife also to the husband.

UST

³ Husbands should regularly have sex with their wives. Similarly, wives should regularly have sex with their husbands.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 7:4ULT

⁴ The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband {does}. And likewise, the husband also does not have authority over his own body, but the wife {does}.

UST

⁴ Wives' bodies belong to their husbands, not to themselves. Similarly, husbands' bodies belong to their wives, not to themselves.

Does a wife or husband have authority over their own body?

No. A husband has authority over his wife's body, and likewise, the wife has authority over her husband's body.

1 Corinthians 7:5ULT

⁵ Do not deprive each other, except by mutual agreement for a season, so that you may devote {yourselves} to prayer, and then be together again, so that Satan might not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

UST

⁵ You should only stop having sex regularly when both of you agree to do so for a brief time. You should only do this when you want to focus on praying to God, and you should soon resume having sex regularly. If you do not do this quickly, Satan will use how you desire to have sex to entice you to do what is wrong.

When is it appropriate for a husband and a wife to deprive one another sexually?

It is appropriate if both husband and wife mutually agree and set a specific period of time, so that they may devote themselves to prayer.

1 Corinthians 7:6ULT

⁶ But I say this as a concession, not as a command.

UST

⁶ I do not command you {to stop having sex regularly in order to focus on praying}. Rather, I am only allowing you {to do so}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 7:7ULT

⁷ But I wish for all men to be even as myself. But each one has his own gift from God, one indeed this way, and another that way.

UST

⁷ If it were up to me, all people would be like me {and remain unmarried}. However, God gives each person his or her own way to live. Some {people live in} one way, while other people {live in} another way.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 7:8ULT

⁸ Now to the unmarried and to the widows I say that {it is} good if they remain as I also am.

UST

⁸ Here I am speaking to people who have not married and to women whose husbands have died. The best thing {for these people} is to stay {unmarried} like I do.

What does Paul say is good for the widows and people who are unmarried to do?

Paul says it is good for them to remain unmarried, as he is.

1 Corinthians 7:9ULT

⁹ But if they do not have self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to burn.

UST

⁹ However, some people will struggle to control how they desire to have sex. These people should get married, because that is a better choice than constantly desiring to have sex.

In what situation should the unmarried and widows get married?

They should get married if they burn with passion and cannot exercise self-control.

1 Corinthians 7:10ULT

¹⁰ Now to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—a wife is not to be separated from her husband

UST

¹⁰ Here I am speaking what the Lord himself said to people who have gotten married. I require the wives to stay with their husbands.

What command does the Lord give to those who are married? (vv10-11)

The wife should not separate from her husband. If she does separate from her husband, she should remain unmarried or be reconciled to him. Also, the husband should not divorce his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:11ULT

¹¹ (but even if she might be separated, let her remain unmarried, or let her be reconciled to the husband), and a husband is not to divorce a wife.

UST

¹¹ Now whenever they do not stay with their husbands, they should not marry again, or they should go back to their husbands. Further, husbands should stay with their wives.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 7:12ULT

¹² But to the rest I say—I, not the Lord—if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she agrees to live with him, let him not divorce her.

UST

¹² Now to the rest {of you who have a spouse who is not a believer}, the Lord did not speak about this, so I am speaking what I myself command. Some fellow believers have unbelieving wives, and the wives may wish to stay with their believing husbands. In this situation, the husbands should stay with their wives.

Should a believing husband or wife divorce his or her unbelieving spouse? (vv12-13)

If the unbelieving husband or wife is content to live with their spouse, the believing spouse should not divorce the unbeliever.

1 Corinthians 7:13ULT

¹³ And if any woman has an unbelieving husband, and he agrees to live with her, let her not divorce the husband.

UST

¹³ Similarly, some fellow believers have unbelieving husbands, and the husbands may wish to stay with their believing wives. In this situation, the wives should stay with their husbands.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 7:14ULT

¹⁴ For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through the brother. Otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy.

UST

¹⁴ {You should remain with an unbelieving husband or wife,} because God considers the unbelieving husband to be an acceptable spouse for the believing wife. Similarly, God considers the unbelieving wife to be an acceptable spouse for the believing husband. Because of this, God treats the children in this situation just like he treats the children of two believing parents. If what I have said were not true, God would treat the children in this situation just like he treats the children of two unbelieving parents.

1 Corinthians 7:15ULT

¹⁵ But if the unbeliever departs, let him go. In such cases, the brother or the sister is not bound, but God has called us to peace.

UST

¹⁵ On the other hand, some unbelieving husbands or wives may want to leave their believing spouses. In this situation, the believing spouses should allow them to leave. The believing spouses do not have to stay with their unbelieving husbands or wives. {In any situation like this, remember that} God requires us to be peaceful people.

What should a believer do if their unbelieving partner departs?

The believer is to let the unbelieving partner go..

1 Corinthians 7:16ULT

¹⁶ For how do you know, woman, whether you will save the husband? Or how do you know, man, whether you will save the wife?

UST

¹⁶ {You should allow an unbelieving spouse to leave} because each wife does not know whether she can help her husband to believe in Jesus. Each husband also does not know whether he can help his wife to believe in Jesus.

1 Corinthians 7:17ULT

¹⁷ However, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each one, thus let him walk. And in this way I direct in all the churches.

UST

¹⁷ In general, all people need to behave in ways that fit with what the Lord has appointed them to do and with how God requires them to act. I require people to follow this teaching in every group of believers {that I visit}.

What rule did Paul set in all the churches?

The rule was: Let each one live the life the Lord has assigned them, and to which God called them.

1 Corinthians 7:18ULT

¹⁸ Was anyone called, having been circumcised? Let him not be uncircumcised. Was anyone called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised.

UST

¹⁸ There are some people whom others circumcised before they believed in Jesus. These people should not try to become uncircumcised again. There are other people whom others did not circumcise before they believed in Jesus. These people should not try to become circumcised.

What counsel did Paul give to the uncircumcised and to the circumcised?

Paul said the uncircumcised should not become circumcised and the circumcised should not try to remove the marks of their circumcision.

1 Corinthians 7:19ULT

¹⁹ Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but observance of the commandments of God.

UST

¹⁹ Whether a person has had someone circumcise them or not does not matter {to us or to God}. On the other hand, doing what God requires of us {does matter to us and to God}.

²¹ Were you called {as} a slave? Let it not be a concern to you. But if indeed you are able to become free, then take advantage of {it}.

UST

²¹ Some people were slaves when they believed in Jesus. These people should not worry about being slaves. On the other hand, they should make use of any chance they have to become free.

What did Paul say about slaves? (vv21-23)

If they were a slave when God called them, don't be concerned about it, but if they can become free, they should do so. Even if they were slaves, they are the Lord's freeman. They should not become the slaves of men.

1 Corinthians 7:22ULT

²² For the one having been called in the Lord {as} a slave is a freedman of the Lord. Likewise, the one having been called as a freeman is a slave of Christ.

UST

²² {Do not worry about your social position,} because the Lord considers all people who were slaves when they believed in him to be free people now. Similarly, the Messiah considers all people who were free people when they believed in him to be his slaves now.

1 Corinthians 7:23ULT

²³ You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men.

²⁵ Now concerning the virgins, I do not have a command of the Lord. However, I give an opinion as having received mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy.

UST

²⁵ I am now moving on to speak about those who have not gotten married. On this issue, I do not have anything that the Lord said to tell you. However, I will tell you what I think is best. {I do this} because God has acted kindly towards me by making me a trustworthy {teacher}.

1 Corinthians 7:26ULT

²⁶ Therefore, I think this is good, because of the coming distress, that {it is} good for a man to remain as he is.

UST

²⁶ What I suggest is that people should not change how they are living. I say this because I know that dangerous things are going to happen soon.

Why did Paul think it was good for a man who had never married to remain unmarried, as Paul was?

Paul thought that, because of the impending crisis, it was good for a man to remain unmarried.

1 Corinthians 7:27ULT

²⁷ Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

UST

²⁷ Some people have gotten engaged. They should not separate. Other people have never gotten engaged. They should not try to become engaged.

What should believers do if they are bound to a woman by a vow of marriage?

They should not seek freedom from their vow to marry the woman.

1 Corinthians 7:28ULT

²⁸ But if indeed you would marry, you have not sinned; and if the virgin would marry, she has not sinned. But the ones of such kind will have distress in the flesh, and I want to spare you {from this}.

UST

²⁸ However, a single man or woman who gets married does not sin. I only advise you against getting married because people who get married will experience troubles while they live.

Why does Paul say to those who are free from a wife and those who are unmarried, "Do not seek a wife."

He said this because he wanted to spare them from the many kinds of trouble that those who marry will have while living.

1 Corinthians 7:29ULT

²⁹ But this I say, brothers: The time is shortened, so that from now on, even the ones having wives should be as having none;

UST

³¹ Each person who utilizes worldly things should live like a person who does not utilize these things. {You should act in these ways} because God will soon abolish the worldly way of doing things.

Why should those who deal with the world act as though they had no dealings with it?

They should act that way because the system of this world is coming to an end.

1 Corinthians 7:32ULT

³² But I would like you to be free from concern. The unmarried {man} is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he might please the Lord.

UST

³³ On the other hand, married men care about worldly things, particularly how they can serve their wives. Because of this, they care about two different things{: serving their wives and serving the Lord}. Single women and women who have never gotten married

Why is it hard for those Christians who are married to be undivided in their devotion to the Lord? (vv33-34)

It is hard because a believing husband or wife is concerned about the things of the world, how to please his wife or her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:34ULT

³⁴ is concerned about the things of the Lord, so that she might be holy both in the body and in the spirit. But the one having been married is concerned about the things of the world, how she might please the husband.

1 Corinthians 7:36ULT

³⁶ But if anyone thinks he is acting improperly toward his virgin—if she is beyond the age of marriage and it must be so—he should do what he wants. He is not sinning; let them marry.

UST

³⁶ In some cases, an engaged man may consider that he might act in sexually improper ways with his fiancée. Further, his fiancée may be fully mature and ready to have sex. In these cases, here is what to do: the man should marry his fiancé. He does not sin {when he does this}, and the two of them should get married.

³⁷ But he who stands firm in his heart, not under compulsion, but having authority over his own will, and he has decided this in his own heart—to keep his own virgin—he will do well.

UST

³⁷ In other cases, an engaged man may have made up his mind, and no person or thing has forced him {not to marry}. He can control what he desires, and he has decided for himself {not to marry}. In this case, he can rightly choose not to marry his fiancée.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 7:38ULT

³⁸ So then, the one marrying his own virgin does well, and the one not marrying will do even better.

UST

³⁸ In the end, any man who gets married to his fiancée does a good thing. Further, any man who does not get married {to his fiancée} does a better thing.

Who does better than the one who marries his fiancée?

The one who chooses not to marry will do even better.

1 Corinthians 7:39ULT

³⁹ A wife is bound for as long as her husband lives. But if the husband dies, she is free to marry whomever she wishes, but only in the Lord.

UST

³⁹ Wives must stay married to their husbands unless their husbands die. Then, they may marry any believing man whom they want to marry.

For how long is a woman bound to her husband?

She is bound to her husband for as long as he lives.

If a believing woman's husband dies, whom may she marry?

She may marry whomever she wishes, but only one who is in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:40ULT

⁴⁰ Yet according to my judgment she would be happier if she would remain as she is. And I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

¹ Now about the things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

UST

¹ I am now moving on to speak about meat that someone has offered to another god. All of us {who believe} do know {what is true about other gods. However,} knowing {what is true often} makes people proud. It is loving others that really helps other believers.

What subject does Paul begin to address in this chapter?

Paul addresses the subject of food sacrificed to idols.

What results do knowledge and love cause?

Knowledge makes one proud, but love builds up.

1 Corinthians 8:2

⁴ So then, about the eating of the things sacrificed to idols: We know that an idol in the world {is} nothing and that {there is} no God except one.

UST

⁴ Now {I will go back to speaking} about whether to eat meat that someone has offered to another god. We {who believe in God} understand that other gods do not really exist. In fact, {we understand} that the only god is the one God.

Is an idol equal to God?

No. An idol in this world is nothing, and there is no God but one.

1 Corinthians 8:5ULT

⁵ For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, just as there are many "gods" and many "lords,"

UST

⁵ It is true that there are many things that are in heaven or on earth that people call "gods." In this way, many "gods" and "lords" exist.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 8:6ULT

⁶ yet for us {there is} one God the Father, from whom {are} all things and for whom we {are}, and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all {things are}, and through whom we {are}.

UST

⁶ However, we {who believe} acknowledge one God, who is the Father. He created everything, and we exist to honor him. We also acknowledge one Lord, who is Jesus the Messiah. He created everything with the Father, and we exist by means of what he does {for us}.

Who is the one God?

There is only one God the Father. From him are all things, and we live for him.

Who is the one Lord?

There is one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all things exist, and through whom we exist.

1 Corinthians 8:7ULT

⁷ However, this knowledge {is} not in everyone. Instead, some, {being} in the custom of the idols until now, eat things as sacrificed to idols, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

UST

⁷ However, some people do not fully understand {what I have said}. They used to worship other gods in the past, and they incompletely understand what is right and wrong. When they eat meat that someone has offered to another god, they feel guilty.

What happens when some who practiced idol worship eat food as if it had been sacrificed to an idol?

Their conscience is corrupted because it is weak.

1 Corinthians 8:8ULT

⁸ But food will not bring us near to God; neither are we made to lack if we do not eat, nor do we abound if we eat.

UST

⁸ Now food does not connect us with God. Those who do not eat {certain foods} do not miss out {on anything from God}. Also, those who do eat {certain foods} do not receive something extra {from God}.

Does the food we eat make us better or worse to God?

Food will not recommend us to God. We are not worse if we do not eat, nor better if we do eat it.

1 Corinthians 8:9ULT

⁹ But take care lest this authority of yours might become a stumbling block for the weak.

UST

⁹ However, you need to be careful about how you live if you know {that food is not significant}. How you live should not cause someone who incompletely understands what is right and wrong to struggle {to follow Jesus}.

Of what should we be careful that our freedom does not become?

We should be careful that our freedom does not become a reason for someone who is weak in faith to stumble.

1 Corinthians 8:10ULT

¹⁰ For if someone might see the one having knowledge reclining to eat in an idol's temple, will his conscience, being weak, not be built up so as to eat the things sacrificed to idols?

UST

¹⁰ {You need to be careful} because fellow believers might observe a believer who knows {what is true about other gods} sitting down to eat {meat} in another god's temple. Those fellow believers, who incompletely understand what is right and wrong, will become confident that they also can eat meat that someone has offered to another god.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 8:11ULT

¹¹ So the one being weak, the brother for whom Christ died, is destroyed through your knowledge.

UST

¹¹ As a result, by acting based on what you know {is true about other gods}, you harm others who incompletely understand what is right and wrong. These are fellow believers, and the Messiah died for them.

What can happen to a brother or sister with a weak conscience if those with an understanding of the true nature of idols are not careful in using their freedom?

A brother or sister with a weak conscience can be destroyed.

Who do we sin against when we knowingly cause a brother or sister in Christ to stumble because of their weak conscience? (vv11-12)

We sin against the brother or sister that we caused to stumble, and we sin against Christ.

1 Corinthians 8:12ULT

¹² And thus sinning against your brothers and wounding their weak consciences, you sin against Christ.

UST

¹² When you act in these ways, you sin against fellow believers by leading them, who incompletely understand what is right and wrong, to do what they think is wrong. {When do you this,} you sin against the Messiah too.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 8:13

ULT

¹³ Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will certainly not ever eat meat, so that I might not cause my brother to stumble.

UST

¹³ Consequently, in cases where what I eat would lead a fellow believer to sin, I will never ever eat meat again{, whether someone has offered it to another god or not}. This way, I do not lead any of my fellow believers to sin.

What does Paul say he will do if food causes his brother or sister to stumble?

Pauls says if his food causes his brother or sister to stumble, he will never eat meat again.

What proof did Paul offer that he was an apostle? (vv1-2)

Paul says that because the Corinthian believers were his workmanship in the Lord, they themselves were proof of Paul's apostleship in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 9:2

ULT

² If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you. For you are the proof of my apostleship in the Lord.

UST

⁴ Barnabas and I certainly can require you to send us food and drink.

What did Paul list as some of the rights of the apostles, the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? (vv4-5)

Paul said they had the right to eat and drink and the right to take along with them a wife who is a believer.

1 Corinthians 9:5ULT

⁵ Do we certainly not have a right to take along a believing wife, even as the rest of the apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?

1 Corinthians 9:7ULT

⁷ Who serves as a soldier at any time at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not drink from the milk of the flock?

UST

⁷ No soldiers ever pay with their own money to serve in the army. No farmers plant vines and then do not eat what the vines produce. No shepherds take care of sheep and then do not drink the milk that they produce.

What examples did Paul give of those who receive benefits or pay from their work?

Paul mentions soldiers, one who plants a vineyard, and one who tends a flock as examples of those who receive benefits or pay from their work.

1 Corinthians 9:8ULT

⁸ Am I not saying these things according to men, or does not the law also say these things?

1 Corinthians 9:9ULT

⁹ For it is written in the law of Moses, "Do not muzzle an ox treading out grain." God does not care about the oxen, does he?

UST

⁹ Here is what Moses wrote in the law of Moses: "You should not keep an ox from eating the grain when it is helping you separate grain from chaff." God is not primarily interested in oxen{, however}.

What example from the law of Moses did Paul give to support the idea of receiving benefits or pay from one's work?

To support his argument, Paul quoted the command, "Do not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the grain."

1 Corinthians 9:10ULT

¹⁰ Or is he speaking entirely for our sake? For it was written for our sake that the one plowing ought to plow in hope, and the one threshing, in hope of sharing the harvest.

UST

¹⁰ Rather, God speaks mostly about us {in this law}. God had Moses write this command for us because any person who plows a field should expect to receive some of the crop. Any person who separates the grain from the wheat stalks should also expect to receive some of the crop.

1 Corinthians 9:11ULT

¹¹ If we sowed spiritual things among you, {is it} too much if we will reap material things from you?

UST

¹¹ We proclaimed the good news to you as if we were planting spiritual seeds. Because of that, it would be normal for us to receive financial help from you as if we were receiving some of the crop that grew from the seed that we planted.

1 Corinthians 9:12ULT

¹² If others shared the right over you, {do} we not even more? But we did not take advantage of this right. Instead we endured everything in order that we might not give any hindrance to the gospel of Christ.

UST

¹² Other people have received financial support from you. Barnabas and I deserve even more to receive it from you. However, we have not asked for any support from you. Rather, we choose to go without things so that we will not keep the good news about the Messiah from spreading.

Why did Paul and his companions not claim their right to material benefits from the Corinthians?

Paul and his companions did not claim this right so they would not cause any hindrance to the gospel of Christ.

1 Corinthians 9:13ULT

¹³ Do you not know that the ones working in the temple eat from the things of the temple; the ones serving at the altar partake from the altar?

1 Corinthians 9:14ULT

¹⁴ In the same way also, the Lord commanded the ones proclaiming the gospel to live from the gospel.

UST

¹⁴ Similarly, the Lord instructed that anyone who preaches the good news should make their living from {preaching} the good news.

What did the Lord command concerning those who proclaim the gospel?

The Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living from the gospel.

1 Corinthians 9:15ULT

¹⁵ But I have not taken advantage of {any} of these things. Now I do not write these things so that thus it might be done for me, for {it would be} better for me to die rather than {anyone} will make my boast empty.

UST

¹⁵ However, I have not asked for any of this support from you. Further, I am not now writing to you to ask for support for myself. I would prefer to die rather than to have someone take away what I can boast about.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 9:16ULT

¹⁶ For if I proclaim the gospel, there is nothing for me to boast, because compulsion is placed upon me. For woe be to me if I would not preach the gospel!

UST

¹⁶ Now I cannot boast about preaching the good news, because God requires me to preach it. Indeed, were I to stop preaching the good news, God would discipline me.

What did Paul say he could not boast about, and why couldn't he boast about it?

Paul said he couldn't boast about preaching the gospel, because he had to preach the gospel.

1 Corinthians 9:17ULT

¹⁷ For if I do this willingly, I have a reward. But if unwillingly, I have been entrusted with a stewardship.

UST

¹⁷ God would reward me if I preached the good news because I myself chose to. However, I have not chosen to do so, for God himself has told me what I need to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 9:18ULT

¹⁸ What then is my reward? That proclaiming the gospel without charge, I might offer the gospel so as not to take advantage of my right in the gospel.

UST

¹⁸ God still rewards me, however. {He does so} when I preach the good news without requiring people to pay me. I tell people about the good news in this way so that I do not misuse what I am able to require because I preach the good news.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 9:19ULT

¹⁹ For being free from all, I enslaved myself to all in order that I might gain the more {people}.

UST

¹⁹ {Since I preach the good news for free,} I do not need to serve any humans. However, I choose to serve all humans so that I can help more of them {believe in the Messiah}.

Why did Paul become a servant to all?

Paul became a servant to all in order that he might win more people to God.

1 Corinthians 9:20ULT

²⁰ And to the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to gain Jews. To the ones under law, as under law, not being under law myself ^[1] in order to gain the ones under law.

²⁰ When I am with Jewish people, I act like a Jewish person. That way, I can help Jewish people {believe in the Messiah}. When I am with people who think they need to obey Moses' law, I act like someone who thinks that he needs to obey Moses' law. While I myself know that I do not need to obey Moses' law, {I act this way} so that I can help the people who think they need to obey Moses' law {believe in the Messiah}.

Who did Paul become like in order to win Jews?

Paul became like a Jew in order to win Jews.

1 Corinthians 9:21ULT

²¹ To the ones without law, {I became} as without law (not being without the law of God, but under the law of Christ) so that I might gain the ones without law.

UST

²¹ When I am with people who do not obey Moses' law, I act like someone who does not obey Moses' law. {I act this way} so that I can help the people who do not obey Moses' law {to believe in the Messiah}. Of course, I do obey God's law, since I do what the Messiah commanded.

Who did Paul become like in order to win those outside the law?

Paul became like those outside the law in order to win those outside the law.

1 Corinthians 9:22ULT

²² To the weak I became weak so that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to everyone so that I might by all means save some.

UST

²² When I am with people who incompletely understand what is right and wrong, I act like someone who incompletely understands what is right and wrong. {I act this way} so that I can help the people who incompletely understand what is right and wrong {to believe in the Messiah}. {As you can see,} when I am with any people, I act like they do so that God might work through all the things I do in order to save some of them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 9:23ULT

²³ But I do all things for the sake of the gospel so that I might become a partaker of it.

UST

²³ As you can see, I act in all these ways because I want people to believe in the good news. {Further, I do these things} in order that I too will receive what God has promised in the good news.

Why did Paul do all things for the gospel's sake?

He did this so that he might participate in the blessings of the gospel.

1 Corinthians 9:24ULT

²⁴ Do you not know that the ones running in a stadium all run, but {only} one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you might obtain {it}.

UST

²⁴ Surely you know that all the runners participate in a race, but in the end only one runner wins the race and takes the reward for winning. When you serve God, it is much like this kind of race. You need to work hard to gain what God has promised to you, just like the runner runs hard to win the race.

How did Paul say to run?

Paul said to run to win the prize.

1 Corinthians 9:25ULT

²⁵ But everyone competing in the games exercises self-control in all things. They therefore {do it} in order that they might receive a perishable wreath, but we, an imperishable one.

UST

²⁵ All athletes carefully control everything that they do {so that they can win}. They compete for a crown made of leaves that will fall apart. We, however, {control ourselves so that we can receive what God has promised to give us,} which will last forever.

What kind of wreath was Paul running to receive?

Paul was running so that he might receive a wreath which does not perish.

1 Corinthians 9:26ULT

²⁶ Therefore, I run thus, not as without purpose; I fight thus, not as boxing the air.

UST

²⁶ Because of this, I am like a runner who runs straight toward the finish line. I am like a boxer who strikes an opponent without missing.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 9:27ULT

²⁷ But I subdue my body and enslave it, lest having preached to others, I myself might be disqualified.
9:20 ^[1]

UST

²⁷ I totally control my body and make it serve me. I do that because I do not want to proclaim the good news to other people but then find that God does not approve of me.

Why did Paul subdue his body and make it a slave?

Paul did this so that after he had preached to others, he himself might not be disqualified.

1 Corinthians 10

1 Corinthians 10:1

ULT

¹ For I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea,

UST

¹ Now I want to remind you, fellow believers, that our Jewish ancestors all followed God when he appeared to them in a cloud. They all walked through the Red Sea when God made a dry path for them through the water.

What common experiences did their fathers have in the time of Moses? (vv1-4)

All were under the cloud and passed through the sea. All were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food and drank the same spiritual drink.

1 Corinthians 10:2

ULT

² and they all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea,

UST

² {It was as if} someone baptized all of them so that they belonged to Moses. {This happened} when they followed the cloud and walked through the Red Sea.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:3

ULT

³ and they all ate the same spiritual food,

UST

³ All of them together ate the special food that God gave them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:4ULT

⁴ and they all drank the same spiritual drink, for they drank from a spiritual rock following {them}, and the rock was Christ.

UST

⁴ All of them together drank the special water that God gave them. This happened when they drank the water that came out of the special rock that God provided and that followed them. That water was something that the Messiah gave.

Who was the spiritual rock that followed their fathers?

Christ was the rock that followed them.

1 Corinthians 10:5ULT

⁵ But God was not well pleased with most of them, for they were scattered about in the wilderness.

UST

⁵ However, most of our Jewish ancestors did not please God. {You can tell that this is true} because they died while they traveled through the desert places.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:6ULT

⁶ Now these things became examples for us so that we would not be ones desiring evil things, just as they also desired.

UST

⁶ The things that happened to them illustrate how we should act. Through what happened to them, God warns us to avoid doing what is evil, such as the evil things that they did.

Why was God not pleased with their fathers in the time of Moses?

He was not pleased because their fathers longed for evil things.

1 Corinthians 10:7ULT

⁷ Do not become idolaters, just as some of them {were}; even as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and to drink and rose up to play."

UST

⁷ You should not worship idols, which is what some of our Jewish ancestors did. {You can tell that they worshiped idols,} because Moses wrote, "The Israelites started eating and drinking and then worshiped other gods in sexually immoral ways."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:8ULT

⁸ Nor should we commit sexual immorality, just as many of them committed sexual immorality, and 23,000 people fell in one day.

UST

⁸ We should not have improper sex, which is what some of our Jewish ancestors did. Because they did this, 23,000 of them died during one day.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:9ULT

⁹ Nor should we put the Lord ^[7] to the test, just as many of them put {him} to the test and were destroyed by the snakes.

UST

⁹ We should not challenge the Lord, which is what some of our Jewish ancestors did. Because they did this, snakes killed them.

By what means did God destroy the disobedient and grumbling people? (vv9-10)

God destroyed them by snakes and the destroyer, the angel of death.

1 Corinthians 10:10ULT

¹⁰ Do not grumble, even as many of them grumbled and were destroyed by the destroyer.

UST

¹⁰ You should not complain, which is what some of our Jewish ancestors did. Because they did this, a dangerous spiritual being {whom God sent} killed them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:11ULT

¹¹ Now these things happened to them {as} examples, but they were written for our admonition, on whom the end of the ages has come.

UST

¹¹ Those things that our ancestors experienced illustrate {how we should act}. In fact, someone wrote down what happened to them so that we can learn from them, since we are the ones who are experiencing the last days.

Why did the things happen and why were they written down?

They happened as examples for us and they were written down for our instruction.

1 Corinthians 10:12ULT

¹² Therefore, the one thinking he stands, let him be careful that he might not fall.

UST

¹² As those stories illustrate, any people who think that they firmly believe {in the Messiah} should make sure that they do not fail {to follow the Messiah}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:13ULT

¹³ No temptation has seized you except {what is} common to humanity; but God {is} faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation, he will also provide the way of escape, {so that} you will be able to endure it.

UST

¹³ Other people have experienced the things that tempt you. Further, God will act faithfully. He will not let you experience anything that tempts you if you cannot resist it. Rather, when something tempts you, he will give you what you need to faithfully resist it.

Has any unique temptation happened to us?

No temptation has overtaken us that is not common to all humanity.

What has God done to enable us to endure temptation?

He has provided the way of escape so that we may be able to endure temptation.

1 Corinthians 10:14ULT

¹⁴ Therefore, my beloved ones, flee from idolatry.

UST

¹⁴ Because {of that I have said}, fellow believers whom I love, intentionally avoid worshiping other gods.

From what does Paul warn the Corinthian believers to run away?

He warns them to run away from idolatry.

1 Corinthians 10:15ULT

¹⁵ I speak as to sensible {people}. Judge for yourselves what I say.

UST

¹⁵ I am talking this way because I think that you are reasonable people. You should decide for yourselves whether what I am about to say is right or wrong.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:16ULT

¹⁶ The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing of the body of Christ?

UST

¹⁶ When we drink the wine that we bless in the Lord's Supper, we together connect ourselves with the Messiah's blood. When we eat the bread, we together connect ourselves with the Messiah's body.

What is the cup of blessing the believers bless, and what is the bread they break?

The cup is a sharing in the blood of Christ. The bread is a sharing in the body of Christ.

1 Corinthians 10:17ULT

¹⁷ Because {there is} one bread, we the many {are} one body; for we all partake from the one bread.

UST

¹⁷ We use one loaf of bread {in the Lord's Supper}, and we all together eat pieces of that one loaf. Because we do this, we join ourselves together like we all make up one body.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:18ULT

¹⁸ Look at Israel according to the flesh; are not the ones eating the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

UST

¹⁸ Take the people of Israel as an example. The people who offered something would eat some of what they offered. This means that they connected themselves with the altar{, where the priest would present the rest of what they offered to God}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:19ULT

¹⁹ What am I saying then: that {food} sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?

UST

¹⁹ I am arguing, therefore, that meat that someone has offered to another god and other gods themselves are not powerful or important.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:20ULT

²⁰ Rather, that what the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. But I do not want you to be partakers with the demons!

UST

²⁰ However, {you should know} that when those who do not worship God offer sacrifices, they are offering them to evil spiritual beings, not to God. I want you to avoid connecting yourselves with evil spiritual beings.

To whom do the Gentile pagans offer their sacrifices?

They offer these things to demons and not to God.

Since Paul did not want the Corinthian believers to be participants with demons, what does he tell them they cannot do? (vv20-21)

Paul tells them they cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons, and they cannot have fellowship at the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

1 Corinthians 10:21ULT

²¹ You are not able to drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You are not able to partake of the table of the Lord and of the table of demons.

UST

²¹ You cannot drink wine that belongs to the Lord and also wine that belongs to evil spiritual beings. You cannot eat food that belongs to the Lord and also food that belongs to evil spiritual beings.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:22ULT

²² Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? We are not stronger than him, are we?

UST

²² Those who do both of those things should expect the Lord to act jealously against them. Further, we are certainly less powerful than he is.

What do we risk if we as believers of the Lord also participate with demons?

We risk provoking the Lord to jealousy.

1 Corinthians 10:23ULT

²³ "All {things are} lawful," but not all {things are} beneficial. "All {things are} lawful," but not all things build up.

UST

²³ {Some of you say,} "I can do anything and not become guilty." However, {I say that} some things are not helpful {to anybody}. {Again, some of you say,} "I can do anything and not become guilty." However, {I say that} some things do not help you grow.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:24ULT

²⁴ Let no one seek his own good, but that of the other {person}.

UST

²⁴ Do not work hard to gain what is best for yourselves. Rather, {you should work hard to gain} what is best for other people.

Should we seek our own good?

No. Instead, each one should seek the good of his neighbor.

1 Corinthians 10:25ULT

²⁵ Eat everything that is being sold in the market, without asking for the sake of the conscience.

UST

²⁵ You can eat any food that you buy in the public marketplace. You do not need to find out {where it came from} so that you know whether it is right or wrong {to eat it}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:26ULT

²⁶ For "the earth {is} the Lord's, and the fullness of it."

UST

²⁶ {You can do this} because {David wrote}, "The earth and everything connected with it belongs to the Lord."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:27ULT

²⁷ If any of the unbelievers invite you, and you want to go, eat everything being set before you, without asking questions for the sake of the conscience.

UST

²⁷ At some point, people who do not believe may ask you {to eat with them}, and you may decide to {do so}. When this happens, you can eat all the food that they serve you. You do not need to find out {where it came from} so that you know whether it is right or wrong {to eat it}.

If an unbeliever invites you to eat a meal, and you wish to go, what should you do?

You should eat whatever is set before you without asking questions of conscience.

1 Corinthians 10:28ULT

²⁸ But if someone says to you, "This is offered in sacrifice," do not eat {it}, for the sake of that one having informed you, and conscience— ^[2]

UST

²⁸ (However, someone might tell you that a person offered the food to a god. In this situation, you should not eat the food. {You should act in this way} to benefit the person who told you {about the food} and because of knowing what is right and wrong.

If your unbelieving host tells you the food you are about to eat came from a pagan sacrifice, why should you not eat it? (vv28-29)

You shouldn't eat it, for the sake of the person who informed you and for the sake of the other person's conscience.

1 Corinthians 10:29ULT

²⁹ now I say the conscience, not your own, but that of the other {person}. For why {is} my freedom judged by another's conscience?

UST

²⁹ By "knowing what is right and wrong," I mean what the other person knows, not what you know.) In general, what another person thinks is right or wrong should not keep me from doing what I am able to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:30ULT

³⁰ If I partake with gratitude, why am I insulted for that which I give thanks?

UST

³⁰ As long as I am grateful to God when I eat any food, no one should speak badly about me because of something for which I thanked God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 10:31ULT

³¹ Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

UST

³¹ To summarize, whenever you eat or drink anything, and indeed whenever you do anything, you should always behave so that you and others honor God.

What should we do to the glory of God?

We should do all things, including eating and drinking, to the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 10:32ULT

³² Give no offense either to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God,

UST

³² Do not behave in ways that discourage Jewish people, non-Jewish people, or fellow believers from trusting the Messiah.

Why should we give no offence to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God? (vv32-33)

We should give no offence to them so that they may be saved.

1 Corinthians 10:33ULT

³³ just as I also please all {people} in all things, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, so that they might be saved.

10:9 ^[1]

10:28 ^[2]

UST

³³ I illustrate {how to do this} with how I live. I always act in ways that everyone around me accepts. I do not work hard to gain what is best for myself. Rather, {I work hard to gain what is best} for other people. {I do this} in order that God will save them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11

1 Corinthians 11:1

ULT

¹ Be imitators of me, just as I also {am} of Christ.

UST

¹ Do what I do, just like I do what Christ did.

Who did Paul tell the Corinthian believers to imitate?

Paul told them to imitate himself.

Who did Paul imitate?

Paul was an imitator of Christ.

1 Corinthians 11:2

ULT

² Now I praise you, because you remember me in all things and you hold firmly to the traditions, just as I delivered them to you.

UST

² I commend you because you always think of what I teach and do and because you carefully believe and do what I taught you to believe and do.

For what did Paul praise the Corinthian believers?

Paul praised them for remembering him in everything and for holding fast to the traditions just as he delivered them to the Corinthians.

1 Corinthians 11:3

ULT

³ Now I want you to understand that Christ is the head of every man, and the man {is} the head of a woman, and God {is} the head of Christ.

UST

³ I am telling you that each man comes from the Messiah. A wife comes from her husband. Finally, the Messiah comes from God.

Who is the head of Christ?

God is the head of Christ.

Who is the head of man?

Christ is the head of every man.

Who is the head of a woman?

A man is the head of a woman.

1 Corinthians 11:4

ULT

⁴ Every man praying or prophesying, having something on his head, dishonors his head.

UST

⁴ Men might cover their heads when they pray or proclaim what God says. Those who do this shame the person they come from: {the Messiah}.

What happens when a man prays with his head covered?

He dishonors his head if he prays with his head covered.

1 Corinthians 11:5ULT

⁵ But every woman praying or prophesying with her head uncovered dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as having been shaved.

UST

⁵ Now women might bare their heads when they pray or proclaim what God says. Those who do this shame the people they come from: {their husbands}. {You can tell that this is true,} because a woman who bares her head is like a woman whose hair someone has shaved off.

What happens when a woman prays with her head uncovered?

Any woman who prays with her head uncovered dishonors her head.

1 Corinthians 11:6ULT

⁶ For if a woman does not cover her head, let her hair also be cut off. But if {it is} disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or to be shaved, let her cover her head.

UST

⁶ In fact, someone should cut short the hair of any woman who bares her head. Since people shame a woman who has short hair, women should not bare their heads.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:7ULT

⁷ For a man ought not to cover his head, being the image and glory of God. But the woman is the glory of man.

UST

⁷ Further, on the one hand, men should not cover their heads, because they represent and honor God. On the other hand, wives honor their husbands.

Why should a man not have his head covered?

He should not have his head covered because his is the image and glory of God.

1 Corinthians 11:8ULT

⁸ For man is not from woman, but woman {is} from man.

UST

⁸ {You can tell that this is true} because God did not make the man Adam from the woman Eve. Rather, he made the woman Eve from the man Adam.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:9ULT

⁹ For indeed man was not created for the woman, but woman for the man.

UST

⁹ Another {way that you can tell that this is true is} because God did not make the man Adam for the sake of the woman Eve. Rather, he made the woman Eve for the sake of the man Adam.

For whom was the woman created?

The woman was created for the man.

1 Corinthians 11:10ULT

¹⁰ Because of this the woman ought to have authority on the head, because of the angels.

UST

¹⁰ Because {wives honor their husbands}, women should control {what they wear} on their heads. {They should do this also} because of the powerful spiritual beings.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:11ULT

¹¹ Nevertheless, in the Lord, woman {is} not independent from man, nor {is} man independent from woman.

UST

¹¹ Despite all that, when God unites people to the Messiah, women cannot exist without men, and men cannot exist without women.

Why are the woman and the man both dependent on each other? (vv11-12)

The woman comes from the man, and the man comes from the woman.

1 Corinthians 11:12ULT

¹² For even as the woman {is} from the man, so also the man {is} through the woman, but all {things are} from God.

UST

¹² In fact, while the woman {Eve} did come from the man {Adam}, men only exist because women give birth to them. However, everything that exists{, including men and women,} comes from God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:13ULT

¹³ Judge for your own selves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God uncovered?

UST

¹³ You yourselves should decide whether women who pray to God without covering their heads act appropriately or not.

What was the practice of Paul, his associates, and the churches of God concerning women praying?

It was their practice for women to pray with their heads covered.

1 Corinthians 11:14ULT

¹⁴ Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man might have long hair, it is a disgrace for him,

UST

¹⁴ You can learn from observing the way things are that it is dishonorable for men to have long hair.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:15ULT

¹⁵ but if a woman might have long hair, it is glory for her? For the long hair has been given to her as a covering.

UST

¹⁵ However, {you can also learn from observing the way things are} that it is honorable for women to have long hair. {This is} because God has given women their long hair, which functions to cover {their heads}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:16ULT

¹⁶ But if anyone thinks to be contentious {about this}, we do not have any such practice, nor the churches of God.

UST

¹⁶ Now if any people consider arguing about what I have said, neither we nor God's churches allow women to uncover their heads {when they pray or prophesy}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:17ULT

¹⁷ But in commanding this, I do not praise you, for you come together not for the better but for the worse.

UST

¹⁷ I am now going to instruct you about another topic, and I cannot commend you in this area. {I cannot commend you,} because you harm fellow believers instead of helping them when you gather as fellow believers.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:18ULT

¹⁸ For first, I hear {that in} your coming together in the church, there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it.

UST

¹⁸ Here is the first thing I will speak about: some people have told me that you split up into rival groups when you gather as fellow believers to worship God. I believe that this is partly true.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:19ULT

¹⁹ For it is necessary indeed for there to be factions among you, so that also the ones approved may become evident among you.

UST

¹⁹ {I believe it} because there need to be disagreements in your group. That way, it may become clear {to everyone} whom in your group God considers to be acceptable {to him}.

Why must there be factions among the Corinthian Christians?

There must be factions among them so that those who are approved may be recognized among them.

1 Corinthians 11:20ULT

²⁰ So then, your coming together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper.

UST

²⁰ Because of these divisions, you are not actually eating the Lord's Supper when you gather as fellow believers together {to eat}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:21ULT

²¹ For when eating, each one takes his own supper first; and one is indeed hungry, but one is drunk.

UST

²¹ During your meals, some people are eating their own food before {others receive some}. In this way, some people do not have enough to eat, while other people are getting drunk.

What was happening when the Corinthian church came together to eat.

When they ate, each one ate his own food before the others had their meal. One was hungry, and another became drunk.

1 Corinthians 11:22ULT

²² For do you certainly not have houses in {which} to eat and to drink? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate the ones having nothing? What should I say to you? Should I praise you for this? I do not praise you!

UST

²² You act in these ways despite the fact that you can eat food and drink wine in your own houses. Instead, though, you think contemptuously about God's church. In particular, you shame people who have less than you do. You should already know what I will say to you. I am not going to commend you for doing these things. I will definitely not do that!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:23ULT

²³ For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night in which he was betrayed, took bread,

UST

²³ I have already told you what I learned from the Lord about the night when Judas handed the Lord Jesus over {to the authorities, who executed him}. During that night, Jesus picked up a loaf of bread.

On the night he was betrayed, what did the Lord say after he broke the bread? (vv23-24)

He said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me."

1 Corinthians 11:24ULT

²⁴ and having given thanks, he broke {it} and said, "This is my body, {which is} for you. Do this in the remembrance of me."

UST

²⁴ He thanked God {for the loaf of bread}, and then he tore it into pieces {so that the disciples could eat it}. Then he said, "This {bread} is my body, which I am offering for your sake. Repeat what I have done so that you remember {how I am offering} myself {for you}."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:25ULT

²⁵ In the same way also the cup after the supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink {it}, in the remembrance of me."

UST

²⁵ Just as {he picked up the loaf of bread}, he also picked up the cup {of wine} after they had eaten. He said, "This cup {of wine} is the new covenant {that I am inaugurating} with my blood. Repeat what I have done whenever you drink from this cup of wine so that you remember {how I am offering} myself {for you}."

What did the Lord say when he took the cup after the supper?

He said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

1 Corinthians 11:26ULT

²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he would come.

UST

²⁶ This means that, until the Lord comes back, whenever {you participate in the Lord's Supper by} eating this bread and drinking {wine from} this cup, you announce that the Lord has died.

What are you doing every time you eat this bread and drink this cup?

You are proclaiming the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:27ULT

²⁷ Whoever, therefore, might eat the bread or might drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and of the blood of the Lord.

UST

²⁷ So then, some people, while participating in the Lord's Supper, might eat the bread or drink {wine from} the cup in a way that dishonors {the Messiah}. God will hold them responsible for {how they have acted against} the Lord's body and blood.

Why should a person not eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner?

Doing so makes you guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 11:28ULT

²⁸ But let a man examine himself, and in this way let him eat from the bread, and let him drink from the cup.

UST

²⁸ To avoid that, believers should carefully consider how they are behaving. Then, they can eat the bread and drink {wine} from the cup.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:29ULT

²⁹ For the one eating and drinking without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment to himself.

UST

²⁹ {You should carefully consider how you are behaving,} because some people eat and drink {during the Lord's Supper} but do not recognize {that God has united fellow believers to the Lord as closely as if they were} the Lord's body. How those people eat and drink {during the Lord's Supper} will result in God punishing them.

What happens to the person who eats the bread or drinks the cup without discerning?

Doing so, that person eats and drinks judgment to himself.

1 Corinthians 11:30ULT

³⁰ Because of this many among you {are} weak and sick, and many are fallen asleep.

UST

³⁰ Because {people in your group have acted in that improper way}, many of them have gotten sick and some of them have died.

What happened to many among the Corinthian church who ate the bread and drank the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner?

Many among them became sick and ill, and some of them died.

1 Corinthians 11:31ULT

³¹ But if we were examining ourselves, we would not be judged.

UST

³¹ So, we believers really should carefully consider how we are acting {before we participate in the Lord's Supper}. Then, God will not punish us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:32ULT

³² But being judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we might not be condemned along with the world.

UST

³² However, when the Lord does punish us, he does it to train us. That way, God does not include us when he declares everyone who does not believe in the Messiah to be guilty.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 11:33ULT

³³ Therefore, my brothers, coming together to eat, wait for one another.

UST

³³ In conclusion, my fellow believers, when you gather together to eat {the Lord's Supper}, you should not start eating until everyone has received food and drink.

What does Paul tell the Corinthian believers to do when they come together to eat?

He tells them to wait for one another.

1 Corinthians 11:34ULT

³⁴ If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that you might not come together for judgment. Now {about} the remaining things, I will give directions when I come.

UST

³⁴ Any people who are {so} hungry {that they start eating before everyone has received food and drink} should eat at their own houses. That way, when you gather together as fellow believers, God will not punish you. I have not said everything that I need to say. So, I will instruct you about those things whenever I visit you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12

1 Corinthians 12:1

ULT

¹ Now about the spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant.

UST

¹ I am now moving on to speak about how God's Spirit specially empowers believers. I want to inform you, my fellow believers, about these things.

About what does Paul want the Corinthian Christians to be informed?

Paul wants them to be informed about spiritual gifts.

1 Corinthians 12:2

ULT

² You know that when you were pagans, you were led astray to the mute idols, in whatever ways you were led.

UST

² You remember {what you did} when you were not believers. You worshiped other gods. These other gods cannot even speak, but you did whatever {wrong things people told you to do} to worship these other gods.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:3

ULT

³ Therefore, I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus {is} accursed," and no one is able to say, "Jesus {is} Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

UST

³ So then, I am informing you that a person who curses Jesus does not speak with the power of God's Spirit. On the other hand, a person who says that Jesus is Lord must be speaking with the power of the Holy Spirit.

What is one who speaks by the Spirit of God not capable of saying?

He cannot say, "Jesus is accursed."

How can one say, "Jesus is Lord"?

One can only say "Jesus is Lord" by the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:4ULT

⁴ Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit.

UST

⁴ The Spirit empowers people in many different ways, but there is only one Spirit.

What does God make possible in every believer? (vv4-6)

He makes possible in every believer different gifts, different ministries, and different kinds of work.

1 Corinthians 12:5ULT

⁵ And there are varieties of ministries, but the same Lord.

UST

⁵ People serve the Lord in many different ways, but there is only one Lord.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:6ULT

⁶ And there are varieties of workings, but the same God working all things in everyone.

UST

⁶ People work for God in many different ways, but there is only one God. He is the one who empowers all people to function in all these ways.

1 Corinthians 12:7ULT

⁷ Now to each one is given the outward display of the Spirit for the collective benefit.

UST

⁷ Each believer receives from God specific ways in which God's Spirit works through them to help fellow believers.

Why is the outward display of the Spirit given?

It is given for the benefit of all.

1 Corinthians 12:8ULT

⁸ For to one is given by the Spirit a word of wisdom, and to another, a word of knowledge according to the same Spirit;

UST

⁸ For example, God's Spirit empowers some believers to speak wisely. Other believers can speak knowledgeably, and the same Spirit empowers them to do this.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:9ULT

⁹ to another, faith by the same Spirit; and to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit;

UST

⁹ The same Spirit empowers some believers to trust God in special ways. The same Spirit empowers other believers to heal others.

What are some of the gifts given by the Spirit? (vv9-10)

Some of the gifts are faith, gifts of healing, deeds of power, prophecy, ability to distinguish between spirits, various kinds of tongues and interpretation of tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:10ULT

¹⁰ and to another, workings of power; to another, prophecy; to another, discernments of spirits; to another, kinds of tongues; and to another, interpretation of tongues.

UST

¹⁰ Other believers can do powerful things. Other believers can speak messages from God. Other believers can decide whether something comes from God's Spirit or not. Some believers can speak unknown languages. Other believers can interpret those unknown languages.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:11ULT

¹¹ But the one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing them to each one individually just as he desires.

UST

¹¹ The same Spirit works to empower believers to do all these things. There is just one Holy Spirit, and he decides how to work specifically through each believer.

Who chooses which gifts each one receives?

The Spirit gives the gifts to each one individually, as he chooses.

1 Corinthians 12:12ULT

¹² For even as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also {is} Christ.

UST

¹² {We consider} a person's body to be a unity, but the body has many body parts. So, all those body parts, no matter how many there are, together make up one body. {We can think about} the Messiah in a similar way.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:13ULT

¹³ For indeed by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bound or free, and all were made to drink one Spirit.

UST

¹³ Now, {God has united us together as closely as if} we made up one body. {This happened when} people baptized us, with the result that we have the one Spirit. {We make up this one body} even though some of us are Jewish people and others are non-Jewish people, and even though some of us are slaves and others are free people. Further, we all shared in this one Spirit just like we all shared a drink from one cup.

Into what were all Christians baptized?

We were all baptized into one body and all were made to drink of one Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:14ULT

¹⁴ For indeed the body is not one member, but many.

UST

¹⁴ As you know, one body part does not make up a body. Rather, it takes many body parts {to make up a body}.

1 Corinthians 12:15ULT

¹⁵ If the foot would say, "Since I am not a hand, I am not of the body," not for this it is not of the body.

UST

¹⁵ Imagine that your foot {could talk to you, and it} said that, since it was not a hand, it could not belong to your body. That reason does not keep it from belonging to your body.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:16ULT

¹⁶ And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," not for this it is not of the body.

UST

¹⁶ Again, imagine that your ear {could talk to you, and it} said that, since it was not an eye, it could not belong to your body. That reason does not keep it from belonging to your body.

1 Corinthians 12:17ULT

¹⁷ If the whole body {were} an eye, where {would} the hearing {be}? If the whole {were} an ear, where {would} the sense of smell {be}?

UST

¹⁷ Imagine that only eyes made up your body. You would not be able to hear anything! Imagine that only ears made up your body. You would not be able to smell anything!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:18ULT

¹⁸ But now God appointed the members, each one of them, in the body just as he desired.

UST

¹⁸ But here is what is true {about the body}: God decided how each body part should function, and he connected each body part to the body for a specific reason.

Who arranged and designed each part of the body?

God arranged each part of the body as he designed it.

1 Corinthians 12:19ULT

¹⁹ But if they were all one member, where {would} the body {be}?

UST

¹⁹ Imagine that all {your body parts} were the same {kind of} body part. You would not really have a body at all!

1 Corinthians 12:20ULT

²⁰ But now {there are} many members, but one body.

UST

²⁰ But here is what is true {about the body}: many {different} body parts exist. However, {together they make up} one body.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:21ULT

²¹ Now the eye is not able to say to the hand, "I do not have need of you," or again, the head to the feet, "I do not have need of you."

1 Corinthians 12:22ULT

²² On the contrary, the members of the body appearing to be weaker are much more essential;

UST

²² Rather, what is true is that the body parts that we consider to be the delicate ones are actually necessary.

Can we do without the members of the body that appear to be less honorable?

No. The members of the body that appear to be less honorable are essential.

1 Corinthians 12:23ULT

²³ and those of the body which we think to be less honorable, we bestow them greater honor; and our unrepresentable members have more dignity;

UST

²³ Further, we more highly value the body parts that we think of as less valuable. We treat our indecent body parts more decently,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:24ULT

²⁴ but our presentable members do not have need. But God has combined the body together, giving more honor to the one lacking {it}

UST

²⁴ but we do not treat our decent body parts in any special way. In the end, God is the one who put all the body parts together into one body, and he makes the less valuable parts more valuable.

What has God done for the members of the body, including those that are less honorable?

God has joined all the members together, and he gave more honor to those that lacked it.

1 Corinthians 12:25ULT

²⁵ so that there may be no division within the body, but that the members should care for one another the same.

UST

²⁵ {God did this} in order that the body would not split up into different parts. Instead, the body parts work together and do not privilege one body part over other body parts.

Why did God give more honor to the members of the body that lacked it?

He did this so there may be no division within the body, but that the members should care for one another with the same affection.

1 Corinthians 12:26ULT

²⁶ And if one member suffers, all the members suffer together; if a member is honored, all the members rejoice with {it}.

UST

²⁶ So, all the body parts hurt when one body part is hurting. All the body parts celebrate when somebody praises one body part.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:27ULT

²⁷ Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of {it}.

UST

²⁷ {I say all this because} you all are {like} the Messiah's body. Each of you is {like} a body part {in that body}.

1 Corinthians 12:28ULT

²⁸ And God has indeed appointed some in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helps, administration, {and} various kinds of tongues.

UST

²⁸ In line with that, God has specially empowered the people who worship him. First, some people are those whom God has sent to represent the Messiah. Second, some people proclaim what God says. Third, some people teach other believers. Further, some people do powerful things. Others can heal others, help other believers, guide the group of believers, or speak unknown languages.

Who has God appointed in the church?

In the church God has appointed first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, those who do powerful deeds, gifts of healing, those who provide helps, administrators, and those who speak various kinds of tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:29ULT

²⁹ Not all {are} apostles, are they? Not all {are} prophets, are they? Not all {are} teachers, are they? Not all {do} miracles, do they?

UST

²⁹ Only some believers are those whom God has sent to represent the Messiah. Only some proclaim what God says. Only some teach other believers. Only some do powerful things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:30ULT

³⁰ Not all have gifts of healing, do they? Not all speak in tongues, do they? Not all interpret, do they?

UST

³⁰ Only some heal others. Only some speak unknown languages. Only some interpret {those unknown languages}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 12:31

ULT

³¹ But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And now, I show you a more excellent way.

UST

³¹ Now I want you to eagerly seek the most beneficial gifts. Next, I will tell you about the very best thing you can do.

What does Paul tell the Corinthian Christians to seek?

He tells them to seek the greater gifts.

What does Paul say he will show the Corinthian Christians?

He says he will show them a more excellent way.

1 Corinthians 13

1 Corinthians 13:1

ULT

¹ If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but I do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

UST

¹ Imagine that I could speak many human and angelic languages, but I did not love others. I would be {able to make much noise,} like a loud metal instrument{, but I would not be helping anyone}.

What would Paul become if he spoke with tongues of men and of angels but didn't have love?

He would become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

1 Corinthians 13:2

ULT

² And if I have prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains, but I do not have love, I am nothing.

UST

² Again, imagine that I could proclaim what God says, that I could comprehend and know everything, and that I believed so much that I could make mountains change places. But imagine further that I did not love others. Because of that, nothing else matters.

What would Paul be if he had the gift of prophecy, understood all hidden truths and knowledge and had great faith, but didn't have love?

Without love, he would be nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:3ULT

³ And if I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body, so that I might boast, but I do not have love, I gain nothing. ^[1]

UST

³ Yet again, imagine that I gifted everything I owned {to people who needed food}, and that I did not protect my own body, with the result that people would honor me. But imagine further that I did not love others. {Because I did not love others}, none of those things that I did help me at all.

How could Paul give all he owned to feed the poor and give his body to be burned and still gain nothing?

If he didn't have love, he would gain nothing even though he did all these other things.

1 Corinthians 13:4ULT

⁴ Love is patient {and} is kind; love does not envy; love does not boast; it is not puffed up.

UST

⁴ Those who love others wait patiently and act graciously. They do not wish that others would lose the good things that they have. They do not say great things about themselves or act like they are great.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 13:5ULT

⁵ It is not rude; it does not seek {its} own; it is not easily angered; it does not keep a count of the wrongs.

UST

⁵ They do not do shameful things. They do not care only about themselves. They do not quickly become angry. They do not keep track of what others have done wrong.

What are some of the characteristics of love? (vv5-7)

Love is patient and kind; it does not envy or boast; it isn't arrogant or rude. It is not self serving, not easily angered, nor does it keep a count of wrongs. It doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, has confidence concerning all things, and endures all things.

1 Corinthians 13:6ULT

⁶ It does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth.

UST

⁶ They do not celebrate when people do bad things. Instead, they celebrate what is true.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 13:7ULT

⁷ It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

UST

⁷ They always put up with {others}. They always believe {that God will do what is best}, and they are always confident {that God will do what he has promised}. They always persevere {when bad things happen}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 13:8ULT

⁸ Love never fails. But if {there are} prophecies, they will pass away; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will pass away.

UST

⁸ Those who love others never cease doing so. However, someday people will no longer proclaim what God says. Someday, people will stop speaking unknown languages. Someday, people will no longer know special things.

What will never fail?

Love never fails.

What are some things that will pass away or cease? (vv8-10)

Prophecies, knowledge and that which is incomplete will pass away and tongues will cease.

1 Corinthians 13:9ULT

⁹ For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

UST

⁹ {These things will no longer happen,} because we know special things incompletely, and we proclaim what God says incompletely.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 13:10ULT

¹⁰ But when the perfect comes, {that which is} partial will pass away.

UST

¹⁰ So, when we experience what is complete {when Jesus comes back}, what is incomplete will no longer matter.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 13:11ULT

¹¹ When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put away the things of the child.

UST

¹¹ {Here is an analogy;} when we were young, we talked as children talk. We thought as children think. We made decisions as children make decisions. But when we grew up, we stopped acting as children do.

What did Paul say he did when he became an adult?

Paul said when he became an adult he put away childish things.

1 Corinthians 13:12ULT

¹² For now we see unclearly in a mirror, but then, face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, just as I also have been fully known.

UST

¹² Right now, we see {God} indirectly, as if we saw a reflection in a mirror. When {Jesus comes back}, however, {we will see God} in person. Right now, we know {God} incompletely. When {Jesus comes back}, however, we will know God just as much as he knows us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 13:13ULT

¹³ But now these three remain: faith, hope, {and} love. But the greatest of these {is} love.

13:3 ^[1]

UST

¹³ In the end, there are three things that we will always keep doing. We will believe {in the Messiah}, confidently expect {God to do what he has promised}, and love {God and other people}. However, loving {God and others} is the most important out of these three things.

What three things will remain, and which of the three is the greatest?

Faith, hope, and love will remain. The greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 14

1 Corinthians 14:1

ULT

¹ Pursue love, but be zealous for the spiritual gifts, but especially that you might prophesy.

UST

¹ You should seek to love others always. Also, you should eagerly seek that the Holy Spirit specially empowers you, particularly that you might be able to proclaim what God says.

For which spiritual gift did Paul say we should be especially zealous?

Paul said we should be especially zealous to prophesy.

1 Corinthians 14:2

ULT

² For the one speaking in a tongue does not speak to men, but to God; for no one understands, but he speaks mysteries in spirit.

UST

² {You should desire this} because people who talk in unknown languages are talking with God, not with other people. {This is} because no one knows what they are saying. Rather, they say secret things as the Holy Spirit empowers them.

To whom is one speaking when he speaks in a tongue?

He is speaking not to people but to God.

1 Corinthians 14:3

ULT

³ But the one prophesying speaks to men for building up and encouragement and consolation.

UST

³ On the other hand, those who proclaim what God says do talk to other people. They help other believers become stronger, urge other believers to act in proper ways, and comfort other believers.

Who does the one prophesying build up, and who does the one speaking in tongues build up? (vv3-4)

The one who prophesies builds up the people, but the one who speaks in tongues builds up himself

1 Corinthians 14:4ULT

⁴ The one speaking in a tongue builds up himself, but the one prophesying builds up the church.

UST

⁴ People who talk in unknown languages help themselves become stronger. On the other hand, people who proclaim what God says help the group of believers become stronger.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:5ULT

⁵ Now I desire you all to speak in tongues, but even more, that you might prophesy. Now the one prophesying is greater than the one speaking in tongues (unless he would interpret, so that the church might receive building up).

UST

⁵ I want all of you to talk in unknown languages. What I want even more, however, is that you might proclaim what God says. Proclaiming what God says is more important and helpful than talking in unknown languages. Of course, if someone explains {the unknown language}, then it {too} can help believers become stronger.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:6ULT

⁶ But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what will I benefit you unless I speak to you either in revelation or in knowledge or in prophecy or teaching?

UST

⁶ Here {is what I am trying to say}, my fellow believers: imagine that I{, for example,} visited you, and I talked in unknown languages. I would not be helping you at all. To actually help you, I would need to reveal things {to you}, help you know things, proclaim what God says {to you}, or teach {you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:7ULT

⁷ Even lifeless things giving sounds—whether flute or harp—if they would not give different sounds, how will the thing being played on the flute or the thing being played on the harp be known?

UST

⁷ Even things that are not alive but that we use to make sounds {illustrate what I am saying}. {When someone plays} a flute or a harp, the instrument must make various distinct sounds. Otherwise, no one would understand what a person plays on the flute or the harp, {since all the sounds would be the same}.

To what does Paul compare speech which one can not understand? (vv7-9)

He compares it to instruments like the flute or harp if they do not make distinctive sounds, and also to a trumpet played with an uncertain sound.

1 Corinthians 14:8ULT

⁸ For indeed, if a trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle?

UST

⁸ Further, suppose that a trumpet did not make clear sounds {when a person used it to warn others}. No one would know that they needed to get ready to fight the enemy.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:9ULT

⁹ In the same way also you, unless you give intelligible speech with your tongue, how will the thing being spoken be understood? For you will be speaking into the air.

UST

⁹ Whenever you do not use words that other people recognize when you talk, you are like {an instrument that does not make a clear sound}. No one will comprehend what you are saying, and you will be {like} a person who talks to nobody.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:10ULT

¹⁰ There are doubtless so many kinds of languages in the world, and none {is} without meaning.

UST

¹⁰ It seems to be true that a great many varieties of languages exist. Every one of them communicates clearly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:11ULT

¹¹ If then I would not know the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner to the one speaking, and the one speaking {will be} a foreigner to me.

UST

¹¹ So, when I{, for example,} do not understand how a language communicates, I am a stranger to everyone who speaks {that language}, and they are strangers to me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:12ULT

¹² So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts for the building up of the church, seek that you would abound in them.

UST

¹² So, here is what you must do: because you desire that the Holy Spirit specially empowers you, you should strive more and more {to use what the Holy Spirit empowers you to do} to help the group of believers become stronger.

What does Paul say the Corinthian believers should be zealous to do?

He says they should be zealous to abound in gifts for building up the church.

1 Corinthians 14:13ULT

¹³ So let the one speaking in a tongue pray that he might interpret.

UST

¹³ Therefore, those who talk in unknown languages should ask God to enable them to explain {what they are saying}.

For what should the one who speaks in a tongue pray?

He should pray that he may interpret.

1 Corinthians 14:14ULT

¹⁴ If I would pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.

UST

¹⁴ When I{, for example,} pray {to God} in an unknown language, only part of me is praying since I am not thinking about what I am saying.

What did Paul say his spirit and mind did when he prayed in a tongue?

Paul said if he prayed in a tongue, his spirit prayed, but his mind was unfruitful.

1 Corinthians 14:15ULT

¹⁵ What then is it? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing with my spirit, and I will also sing with my mind.

UST

¹⁵ Therefore, here is what {you and I should do}. We should pray {to God} not only with just some parts of us but also by thinking about what we are saying. We should sing {to God} not only with just some parts of us but also by thinking about what we are singing.

How did Paul say he was going to pray and sing?

Paul said he was going to pray and sing not only with his spirit but also with his mind.

1 Corinthians 14:16ULT

¹⁶ Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will the one filling the place of the ungifted say the “Amen” at your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you are saying?

UST

¹⁶ Imagine that people who do not understand {unknown languages} hear you praising God when you are using just some parts of you{, and you are not thinking about what you are saying}. Those people will not be able to participate when you praise God because they do not understand {the unknown language} that you are speaking.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:17ULT

¹⁷ For you certainly give thanks well, but the other {person} is not built up.

UST

¹⁷ In this situation, you praise God appropriately. However, you do not help other people become stronger.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:18ULT

¹⁸ I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you;

UST

¹⁸ I give thanks to God that I talk in unknown languages more than you all do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:19ULT

¹⁹ but in the church I prefer to speak five words with my mind so that I might also instruct others, than myriads of words in a tongue.

UST

¹⁹ However, when I gather together with fellow believers to worship God, I want to speak only a few words that I think about. In this way, I can teach other believers and {not just myself}. {It is better for me to do that} than {to say} a million words in an unknown language.

What did Paul say he had rather do than speak 10,000 words in a tongue?

Paul said he had rather speak five words with his understanding so that he might instruct others.

1 Corinthians 14:20ULT

²⁰ Brothers, do not become children in your thoughts. Rather, be childlike in evil, but become mature in the thoughts.

UST

²⁰ My fellow believers, I do not want you to be foolish {about these things, like} little children {are}. Rather, you should know much {about these things, like} a fully grown adult {does}. You should {only} be {like} little children by not doing what is wrong.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:21ULT

²¹ In the Law it is written, "By {people} of other tongues and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people, but not even in this way will they hear me," says the Lord.

UST

²¹ The prophet Isaiah wrote in the Scriptures what the Lord says, "I will talk to my people Israel by means of people who speak foreign languages. However, they will not listen to me in this way."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:22ULT

²² So then, the tongues are for a sign, not to the ones believing, but to the unbelievers; but prophecy {is} not to the unbelievers, but to the ones believing.

UST

²² Therefore, talking in unknown languages signifies that God judges people who do not believe {in the Messiah}, not people who do believe {in the Messiah}. On the other hand, proclaiming what God says {signifies that God acts kindly toward} people who believe {in the Messiah}, not toward people who do not believe {in the Messiah}.

To whom are tongues and prophesying a sign?

Tongues are a sign to unbelievers, and prophesying is a sign for believers.

1 Corinthians 14:23ULT

²³ If, therefore, the whole church might come together to the same place and they would all speak in tongues, but ungifted or unbelievers would come in, will they not say that you are insane?

UST

²³ So, imagine that the whole group of believers gathered together to worship God, and all of you talked in unknown languages. Imagine further that people who do not understand {unknown languages} or who do not believe {in the Messiah} visit your group. They will tell {others} that you are crazy.

What would outsiders and unbelievers likely say if they came into the church, and all were speaking in tongues?

They would likely say the believers were insane.

1 Corinthians 14:24ULT

²⁴ But if they all would prophesy, but some unbeliever or ungifted person might come in, he is convicted by all, he is examined by all,

UST

²⁴ On the other hand, imagine that all of you proclaimed what God says. Imagine further that any people who do not believe {in the Messiah} or who do not understand {unknown languages} visit your group. Everything that you say will show them and confront them with {what they have done wrong}.

What does Paul say would happen if all in the church were prophesying, and an unbeliever or an outsider came in?

Paul says the unbeliever or outsider would be convicted and examined by all he heard.

1 Corinthians 14:25ULT

²⁵ the secrets of his heart become visible, and so, having fallen on his face, he will worship God, declaring, "God is really among you."

UST

²⁵ {In this way,} everyone will know the things that these {visitors} hide from others. In response, they will kneel down and worship God. They will proclaim {to others} that God truly is with you.

What would the unbeliever or outsider do if those prophesying revealed the secrets of his heart?

He would fall on his face, worship God, and declare that God was really among them.

1 Corinthians 14:26ULT

²⁶ What then is to be, brothers? When you come together, each one has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has a tongue, {or} has an interpretation. Let all things happen for building up.

UST

²⁶ My fellow believers, here is what I mean. Whenever you gather together {to worship God}, each believer {has something to do}. Some sing songs, others teach, others reveal things, others speak in an unknown language, others interpret an unknown language. Believers should do all these things to help other believers become stronger.

1 Corinthians 14:27ULT

²⁷ If anyone speaks in a tongue, {it should be} by two or at most three, and in turn, and one must interpret.

UST

²⁷ When believers are talking in unknown languages, only two or three at most {should speak}. They should talk one after the other, and someone needs to explain {what they are saying}.

What is Paul's instruction for those who speak in tongues when believers come together? (vv27-28)

He says only two or three at the most should speak, each one in turn. If there is no one to interpret the tongue, let each one of them keep silent in the church.

1 Corinthians 14:28ULT

²⁸ But if there is not an interpreter, let him be silent in the church. Instead, let him speak to himself and to God.

UST

²⁸ On the other hand, when believers gather to worship God and a person who can explain the unknown language is not there, everyone who can talk in unknown languages should keep quiet. Instead {of talking out loud}, they should talk {in unknown languages} privately to God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:29ULT

²⁹ But let two or three prophets speak, and let the others evaluate.

UST

²⁹ Similarly, {around} two or three people who proclaim what God says should speak. Everyone else should decide whether {what they say} is correct or incorrect.

What is Paul's instruction to the prophets when the church comes together? (vv29-30)

Paul says to let two or three prophets speak while the other people listen with discernment to what is said. If another prophet has an insight, the one who is speaking should be silent.

1 Corinthians 14:30ULT

³⁰ But if {something} is revealed to another sitting there, let the first be silent.

UST

³⁰ Now, whenever God reveals something to a person who is listening {to someone else proclaim what God says when believers gather together}, the person who is speaking should stop speaking.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:31ULT

³¹ For all are able to prophesy one by one so that all may learn, and all may be encouraged.

UST

³¹ {You should do that} so that everyone has a chance to proclaim what God says, one after the other. In that way, everyone learns something, and everyone becomes stronger.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:32ULT

³² Indeed, the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets.

UST

³² Those who proclaim what God says control how and when they proclaim it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:33ULT

³³ For God is not of confusion, but of peace. As in all the churches of the saints,

UST

³³ {That is true} because what is peaceful and orderly, not what is disorderly, characterizes God. {I want you to act} like all the {other} people whom God has set apart for himself act when they gather together to worship God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:34ULT

³⁴ let the women be silent in the churches. For it is not permitted for them to speak, but to be in submission, just as also the law says.

UST

³⁴ Wives should keep quiet when believers gather together {and their husbands are speaking}. They should not talk but rather honor and obey {their husbands}. {They should do this} because that is what we find in {God's} law.

Where does Paul say the women are not permitted to speak?

Paul says the women are not permitted to speak in the churches.

1 Corinthians 14:35ULT

³⁵ But if they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in church.

UST

³⁵ Now, when wives want to learn more {about what their husbands are saying}, they should ask their husbands questions in their own houses. {They should do this} because wives who talk when believers gather together {and their husbands are speaking} shame {themselves and their families}.

What did Paul say the women should do if they desired to learn anything?

Paul told them to ask their husbands at home.

How did people look on a woman speaking in the church?

It was looked on as a disgrace.

1 Corinthians 14:36ULT

³⁶ Or did the word of God go out from you? Or did it come only to you?

UST

³⁶ {If you dislike what I have said,} remember that you are not the source of what God has said, and you are not the only ones who have heard {and believed what God has said}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:37ULT

³⁷ If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that what I write to you is a command of the Lord.

UST

³⁷ All people who consider themselves to be those who proclaim what God says or those whom the Holy Spirit has specially empowered must recognize that the Lord himself requires what I am writing to you.

What did Paul say should be acknowledged by those who think themselves to be prophets or spiritual?

Paul said they should acknowledge that the things he wrote to the Corinthian believers were a command of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 14:38ULT

³⁸ But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant. ^[1]

UST

³⁸ On the other hand, you should not recognize {as authoritative} any people who do not recognize {that the Lord requires what I have said}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:39ULT

³⁹ So then, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak in tongues.

UST

³⁹ In the end, my fellow believers, eagerly seek to proclaim what God says. Further, do not prohibit people from speaking unknown languages.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 14:40

ULT

⁴⁰ But let all things be done properly and in order.

14:38 ^[1]

UST

⁴⁰ Finally, {when you gather together to worship God}, you should always act in honorable and orderly ways.

How should everything in the Church be done?

All things should be done properly and in order.

1 Corinthians 15

1 Corinthians 15:1

ULT

¹ Now I make known to you, brothers, the gospel that I proclaimed to you, which also you received, on which also you stand,

UST

¹ Next, I am informing you, fellow believers, about the good news that I told you about. You learned this good news {from me}, and you firmly believe it.

About what did Paul remind the brothers and sisters?

He reminded them about the gospel he proclaimed to them.

1 Corinthians 15:2

ULT

² by which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to what word I proclaimed to you, unless you believed in vain.

UST

² When you continue to firmly believe the message that I preached to you, God saves you by means of that message. Otherwise, you believed {the message} for nothing.

What condition had to be fulfilled if the Corinthians were to be saved by the gospel Paul preached to them?

Paul told them they would be saved if they held firmly to the word he preached to them.

1 Corinthians 15:3

ULT

³ For I delivered to you among the first what I also received—that Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures,

UST

³ Here is one of the first things that I told you, which I learned {from the Lord}: the Messiah died {on the cross} to take away our sins, just as {the authors of} the holy books {wrote}.

What were the parts of the gospel that were of first importance? (vv3-5)

The parts that were of first importance were that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures.

1 Corinthians 15:4ULT

⁴ and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,

UST

⁴ People buried him, but during the third day {after that}, God made him alive again, just as {the authors of} the holy books {wrote}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:5ULT

⁵ and that he was seen by Cephas, then by the Twelve.

UST

⁵ He appeared to Peter and then to the {rest of Jesus'} 12 {closest followers}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:6ULT

⁶ Then he was seen by more than 500 brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep.

UST

⁶ After that, he appeared at one time to greater than 500 fellow believers. Although some of these people have died, almost all of them are still alive.

Who did Christ appear to after he was raised from the dead? (vv6-8)

After he was raised from the dead, Christ appeared to Cephas, to the Twelve, to more than 500 brothers and sisters at once, to James, to all the apostles, and to Paul.

1 Corinthians 15:7ULT

⁷ Then he was seen by James, then by all the apostles.

UST

⁷ After that, he appeared to James and then to everyone whom he sent to represent him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:8ULT

⁸ Now last of all, he was seen by me also, as if to a child born at the wrong time.

UST

⁸ Finally, after he appeared to all of them, he appeared to me also. So, {because I became one whom Jesus sent to represent him after everyone else}, I am like a baby that was born in an unusual way.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:9ULT

⁹ For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

UST

⁹ In fact, I am less significant and honorable than every other person whom the Messiah sent to represent him. Indeed, since I tried to destroy those who believe in the Messiah, I do not deserve it when others call me one whom the Messiah sent to represent him.

Why did Paul say he was the least of the apostles?

He said this because he persecuted the church of God.

1 Corinthians 15:10ULT

¹⁰ But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace that {was} in me was not in vain. Instead, I labored harder than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God with me.

UST

¹⁰ However, God graciously made me one whom the Messiah sent to represent him. Further, what he has given me has resulted in great things. In fact, I worked harder than all the other {ones whom the Messiah sent to represent him}. Of course, it was not really I {who worked so hard}. Instead, it was God graciously working through me {who did so much}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:11ULT

¹¹ Therefore, whether I or they, in this way we preach, and in this way you believed.

UST

¹¹ In the end, both I and the other apostles proclaim the good news that I have described, and you trusted this good news.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:12ULT

¹² Now if Christ is proclaimed, that he was raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

UST

¹² Because all believers say that God made the Messiah alive again, no one in your group should be claiming that people who have died will not live again.

What did Paul imply that some of the Corinthians believers were saying about resurrection?

He implied that some of them were saying there was no resurrection from the dead.

1 Corinthians 15:13ULT

¹³ But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Christ has been raised;

UST

¹³ Suppose {that it were true} that people who have died will not live again. {In that case,} God did not make the Messiah alive again.

If there is no resurrection from the dead, what does Paul say must also be true? (vv13-14)

Paul says that if there is no resurrection, then even Christ has not been raised from the dead, and the preaching of Paul and others like him is in vain, and the faith of the Corinthians is also in vain.

1 Corinthians 15:14ULT

¹⁴ but if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching {is} in vain, and your faith {is} in vain.

UST

¹⁴ Suppose {that it is true} that God did not make the Messiah alive again. In that case, it was for no reason that we proclaimed {the good news} and you believed it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:15ULT

¹⁵ But also, we are found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified concerning God that he raised Christ, whom he has not raised, if then the dead are not raised.

UST

¹⁵ Further, we would be people who tell lies about God, because we declared before God that he made the Messiah alive again when he really did not. This would all be true were God not to make those who have died alive again.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:16ULT

¹⁶ For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised;

UST

¹⁶ {You can tell that this is true when you} suppose that God does not make people who have died alive again. {In that case,} God did not make even the Messiah alive again.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:17ULT

¹⁷ but if Christ has not been raised, your faith {is} in vain; you are still in your sins.

UST

¹⁷ Suppose {that it is true} that God did not make the Messiah alive again. {In that case,} you believed {the good news} for no reason, and sin continues to control you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:18ULT

¹⁸ Then also the ones having fallen asleep in Christ perished.

UST

¹⁸ In that case again, the believers who have died will never live again.

If Christ has not been raised, what happened to those who have died in Christ?

They have perished.

1 Corinthians 15:19ULT

¹⁹ If only in this life we have hope in Christ, of all people we are most pitiful.

UST

¹⁹ Suppose that we can confidently expect the Messiah {to help us} only before we die. {In that case,} all people should feel sorry for us more than {they feel sorry} for anyone else.

What does Paul say is true if only in this life we have confidence for the future in Christ?

If this is so, Paul says that of all people, we are most to be pitied.

1 Corinthians 15:20ULT

²⁰ But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of the ones having fallen asleep.

UST

²⁰ But here is what is true: God has made the Messiah alive again, and he is the first of those who have died {whom God will make alive again}.

What does Paul call Christ?

He calls Christ "the first fruits of those who have died."

1 Corinthians 15:21ULT

²¹ For since death {is} by a man, by a man also resurrection of the dead.

UST

²¹ {You can tell that this is true,} because people die through what the one man {Adam} did. So also people who have died will live again through what the one man {Jesus} did.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:22ULT

²² For even as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

UST

²² What I mean is that, just as all people end up dying because God united them to Adam, in the same way all {believers} will live again because God unites them to the Messiah.

Who was the man by whom death came into the world, and who was the man by whom all will be made alive?

Adam brought death into the world, and by Christ all will be made alive.

1 Corinthians 15:23ULT

²³ But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; then at his coming, the ones of Christ.

UST

²³ Now, all people {who will live again} do so in turn: first the Messiah and then those who belong to the Messiah when he comes {back again}.

When will those who belong to Christ be made alive?

This will happen when Christ comes.

1 Corinthians 15:24ULT

²⁴ Then {will be} the end, when he hands over the kingdom to the God and Father, when he has abolished all rule and all authority and power.

UST

²⁴ After that, what everything that God has created is waiting for {will happen}. At that time, the Messiah will get rid of everyone and everything that rules and governs and controls. Then, he will present God, {who is our} Father, with the kingdom {so that God rules over everything}.

What will happen at the end?

Christ will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, when he has abolished all rule and authority and power.

1 Corinthians 15:25ULT

²⁵ For he must reign until he has put all the enemies under his feet.

UST

²⁵ Here is how {that works}: God has decided that the Messiah will rule until whenever he has conquered all those who oppose him.

How long must Christ reign?

He must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

1 Corinthians 15:26ULT

²⁶ The last enemy to be abolished: death.

UST

²⁶ The last thing that opposes Christ that he will get rid of is that people die.

What is the last enemy to be destroyed?

Death is the last enemy to be destroyed.

1 Corinthians 15:27ULT

²⁷ For “he has put everything under his feet.” But when it says, “he has put everything,” {it is} clear that the one having put everything in subjection to him {is} excepted.

UST

²⁷ Now, {David wrote,} “he made him conquer everything that opposes him.” Of course, “everything” does not include God, who is the one who “made him conquer everything.”

Who is not included when it says, “he has put everything under his feet.”

God, the one who put everything in subjection to the Son (himself) is not included as being in subjection (to the Son).

1 Corinthians 15:28ULT

²⁸ Now when all the things have been subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one having subjected all the things to him, so that God might be all in all.

UST

²⁸ So, after he has conquered everything, then God the Son will submit to the one who made him conquer everything. In this way, God will conquer and rule all things.

What will the Son do so that God the Father may be all in all?

The Son himself will be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him.

1 Corinthians 15:29ULT

²⁹ Otherwise, what will the ones being baptized for the dead do? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them?

UST

²⁹ Now, consider people who baptize others to help those who are dead. Further, suppose again that God never makes people who have died alive again. {In that case,} there is no reason for people to baptize others to help those who have died.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:30ULT

³⁰ Why also are we in danger every hour?

UST

³⁰ Even more, {in that case,} there is no reason for we {who proclaim the good news} to constantly endanger ourselves {as we do}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:31ULT

³¹ I die every day, by the boasting in you, brothers, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord.

UST

³¹ Indeed, I risk dying very frequently. I swear {that this is true} by how I boast about you, fellow believers, which I do because God has united all of us to the Messiah, {who is} Jesus our Lord.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:32ULT

³² What {is} the profit to me, according to men, if I fought wild beasts at Ephesus? if the dead are not raised, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."

UST

³² Suppose that I was thinking about merely human things while I struggled against those who opposed me when I visited the city of Ephesus. {In that case, struggling against them} does not benefit me at all. Suppose again that God does not make people who have died alive again. {In that case,} we should {do what many people say to do}: eat {food}, and drink {wine}, because we will die very soon.

What did Paul declare they might as well do if the dead are not raised?

Paul declared, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."

1 Corinthians 15:33ULT

³³ Do not be deceived: "Bad company corrupts good morals."

UST

³³ You should not believe what is wrong. {This popular saying is true;} "Evil friends lead astray a person who normally does what is proper."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:34ULT

³⁴ Be sober, as is right! And do not keep sinning. For some have no knowledge of God—I say this to your shame.

UST

³⁴ I want you to start acting alertly and properly. You should not keep doing what is wrong. {I command these things} because some people in your group do not know God. I say that in order to make you feel ashamed

What does Paul command the Corinthians to do?

He commands them be sober, live righteously, and to not keep sinning.

What does Paul say to the shame of the Corinthians?

He said some of them have no knowledge of God.

1 Corinthians 15:35ULT

³⁵ But someone will say, "How are the dead raised, and with what kind of body do they come?"

UST

³⁵ Now a person may ask about the way in which the people who have died live again and about what form they will take.

To what does Paul compare the resurrection of the dead? (vv35-38)

He compares it to a seed that is sown.

1 Corinthians 15:36ULT

³⁶ You foolish one! What you sow is not caused to live unless it dies.

UST

³⁶ {If you do not know the answers to those questions,} you are not thinking clearly! {Just think about this:} a seed that you put in the ground must die before it can grow.

What must happen to a seed before it starts to grow?

It must die.

1 Corinthians 15:37ULT

³⁷ And what you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a bare seed—perhaps wheat or something else.

UST

³⁷ {Speaking about} a seed that you put in the ground, {you know that} it is not in the form of the plant. Rather, it is just the seed. This is true whether {we are speaking about} wheat or some other crop.

Does the bare seed that is sown resemble the body (plant) that comes from the seed?

No, what you sow does not resemble the body that will be.

1 Corinthians 15:38ULT

³⁸ But God gives it a body just as he desires, and to each of the seeds, its own body.

UST

³⁸ Indeed, God makes seeds grow into the forms that he chooses, and each kind of seed has a specific form {into which it grows}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:39ULT

³⁹ Not all flesh {is} the same flesh. Instead, {there is} one {flesh} of men, and another flesh of animals, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish.

UST

³⁹ The physical parts of different living beings vary. For example, humans, mammals, birds, and fish all have different kinds of physical parts.

Is all flesh the same?

No. Not all flesh is the same, The flesh of human beings, animals, birds and fish are all different from one another.

1 Corinthians 15:40ULT

⁴⁰ {There are} also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the glory of the heavenly {is} one, and that of the earthly {is} another.

UST

⁴⁰ Some things exist in heaven, and other things exist on earth. The forms of things in heaven are glorious in one way, while the forms of things on earth are glorious in another way.

Are there other types of bodies?

There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies.

1 Corinthians 15:41ULT

⁴¹ {There is} one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars. For star differs from star in glory.

UST

⁴¹ {Further,} the sun, moon, and stars are glorious in different ways. In fact, each star is glorious in its own specific way.

Do the sun, moon, and stars all share the same glory?

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon and another glory of the stars, and one star differs from another star in glory.

1 Corinthians 15:42ULT

⁴² So also {is} the resurrection of the dead. {What} is sown in decay is raised in immortality.

UST

⁴² Here is the way {all that applies to how} people who have died live again. People put a decaying body into the ground, but God makes it alive again so that it can never die.

How are our perishable bodies sown? (vv42-44)

They are sown in decay, in dishonor, and weakness.

What is our condition when we are raised from the dead? (vv42-44)

What is raised is an imperishable spiritual body; it is raised in glory and power.

1 Corinthians 15:43ULT

⁴³ It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power.

UST

⁴³ People put a body that receives no respect into the ground, but God makes it alive again so that everyone respects it. People put a frail body into the ground, but God makes it alive again so that it is strong.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:44ULT

⁴⁴ It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual {body}.

UST

⁴⁴ People put a body that belongs to this world into the ground, but God makes it alive again so that it belongs to the world that God will renew. Just as some bodies belong to this world, so some bodies belong to the world that God will renew.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:45ULT

⁴⁵ So also it is written, "The first man Adam became a living soul." The last Adam {is} a life-giving spirit.

UST

⁴⁵ {You can tell that this is true} because Moses wrote, "God made the first human, Adam, as a living being who belonged to this world." {On the other hand, Jesus, who is like} another Adam, now belongs to the world that God will renew and gives life to others.

What did the first man Adam become?

He became a living soul.

What did the last Adam become?

He became a life-giving spirit.

1 Corinthians 15:46ULT

⁴⁶ But the spiritual {is} not first, but the natural, then the spiritual.

UST

⁴⁶ Now {the first Adam's} body that belongs to this world existed first, and only after that does {the last Adam's body} exist that belongs to the world that God will renew.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:47ULT

⁴⁷ The first man {is} of the earth, made of dust. The second man {is} from heaven.

UST

⁴⁷ {Adam, who represents} the first {kind of} human, belonged on the earth. {In fact,} God made him from dust. {On the other hand, Jesus, who represents} the second {kind of} human, belongs in heaven.

From where did the first man and the second man come?

The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:48ULT

⁴⁸ As the earthly, so also {are} the ones of earth; and as the heavenly, so also {are} the ones of heaven.

UST

⁴⁸ All people who belong on the earth are like Adam. All those who belong in heaven are like Jesus.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:49ULT

⁴⁹ And just as we have borne the image of the earthly, let us also bear ^[1] the image of the heavenly.

UST

⁴⁹ Our bodies currently are like {Adam's body} that belongs to this world. In the same way, we should live in such a way that our bodies will eventually be like {Jesus' body,} which belongs to the world that God will renew.

Whose image have we borne and whose image will we bear?

Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:50ULT

⁵⁰ Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood are not able to inherit the kingdom of God. Neither does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

UST

⁵⁰ Listen to this, my fellow believers: human bodies as they currently exist cannot participate in God's kingdom that lasts forever, since they fall apart and die.

What cannot inherit the kingdom of God?

Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God.

1 Corinthians 15:51ULT

⁵¹ Behold! I tell you a mystery: We will not all fall asleep, but we will all be changed—

UST

⁵¹ Pay attention! I am going to tell you something that God has now revealed. Not all of us will die, but God will transform all of us.

What will happen to all of us?

We will all be changed.

1 Corinthians 15:52ULT

⁵² in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For a trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.

UST

⁵² {He will transform us} in one moment, as fast as a person blinks an eye. {This will happen} when {an angel blows} the trumpet that signals that this world is ending. When {an angel} blows that trumpet, God will make those who have died live again so that they can never die, and he will transform everyone who still lives.

When and how fast will we be changed?

When the last trumpet sounds, we will be change in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye,

1 Corinthians 15:53ULT

⁵³ For it is necessary for this perishable to put on incorruptibility, and this mortal to put on immortality.

UST

⁵³ So, bodies that fall apart and die need to transform into bodies that last forever and can never die.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:54ULT

⁵⁴ But when this perishable has put on incorruptibility, and this mortal has put on immortality, then will come about the word that is written, "Death is swallowed up in victory."

UST

⁵⁴ When our bodies that fall apart and die transform into bodies that last forever and can never die, at that time what the prophets wrote about will finally happen: "God has made it so that people no longer die."

What will happen when this perishable has put on imperishable and this mortal has put on immortality?

Death will be swallowed up in victory.

1 Corinthians 15:55ULT

⁵⁵ "Death, where {is} your victory? Death, where {is} your sting?"

UST

⁵⁵ {Further,} "When people die, this does not destroy or hurt them."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 15:56ULT

⁵⁶ But the sting of death {is} sin, and the power of sin {is} the law.

UST

⁵⁶ People die because sin causes them to die, and that happens because the law specifies dying as the penalty for sin.

What is the sting of death and what is the power of sin?

The sting of death is sin and the power of sin is the law.

1 Corinthians 15:57ULT

⁵⁷ But thanks {be} to God, the one giving us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!

UST

⁵⁷ However, I praise God because he has enabled us to conquer {how we sin and die}. {He has done this} by means of what our Lord, Jesus the Messiah, has done.

Through whom does God give us the victory?

God gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!

1 Corinthians 15:58ULT

⁵⁸ Therefore, my beloved brothers, become steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

15:49 ^[1]

UST

⁵⁸ So then, fellow believers whom I love, firmly believe {what you know is true}. Consistently serve the Lord more and more. {You should do these things} because you know that what you do {to serve the Lord} will result in great things, since God has united you to the Lord.

What reason does Paul give for telling the Corinthian brothers and sisters to be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord?

He tells them to do this because they know that their work in the Lord is not in vain.

1 Corinthians 16

1 Corinthians 16:1

ULT

¹ Now concerning the collection {that is} for the saints, even as I directed the churches of Galatia, so also you must do.

UST

¹ I am now moving on to speak about the money that I am collecting for God's people {who are Jewish}. I want you to do what I instructed the groups of believers {who live} in the region of Galatia to do.

Who did Paul direct in the same way as the church at Corinth concerning the collection for the saints?

Paul directed the churches of Galatia in the same way as the church at Corinth.

1 Corinthians 16:2

ULT

² Every first of the week, let each of you put {something} aside, storing up from whatever he might have prospered, so that when I come, there will not be collections then.

UST

² During each Sunday, every one of you should take some money out of whatever you have earned and save it. That way, I will not need to collect money when I visit you.

How did Paul tell the church at Corinth to make their collection?

He told them that on the first day of the week each of them was to put something aside and store it up as each one was able, so that there would be no collections when Paul came.

1 Corinthians 16:3

ULT

³ Now when I arrive, whomever you might approve, I will send them with letters to carry your gift to Jerusalem.

UST

³ Choose some trustworthy people from your group. When I visit you, I will have them take the money {that you have collected} to the city of Jerusalem. Also, I will give them letters {that say that I have authorized them}.

To whom was the offering going?

It was going to the saints at Jerusalem.

1 Corinthians 16:4ULT

⁴ But if it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me.

UST

⁴ You and I may decide that I should go {to Jerusalem} as well. In that case, the people {whom you choose} will travel with me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 16:5ULT

⁵ But I will come to you after I have passed through Macedonia, for I am going through Macedonia.

UST

⁵ I am going to visit you after I travel through the region of Macedonia, which is the way I will be traveling.

When was Paul going to come to the church at Corinth?

He said he was going to come to them when he passed through Macedonia.

1 Corinthians 16:6ULT

⁶ But perhaps I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you may help me on my way wherever I might go.

UST

⁶ In fact, I may spend some time with you, maybe the whole winter. That way, you can assist me in traveling to wherever I decide to go next.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 16:7ULT

⁷ For I do not desire to see you now only in passing; for I hope to remain with you for some time, if the Lord would permit.

UST

⁷ {I am making these plans} because I would rather wait to be with you for a long time than visit you right now for just a short time. I confidently expect to do this as long as it is what the Lord wants {me to do}.

Why didn't Paul want to see the saints in Corinth immediately for a short time?

Paul wanted to visit with them for more than a short time, if the Lord permitted.

1 Corinthians 16:8ULT

⁸ But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost,

UST

⁸ For now, I plan on remaining here in the city of Ephesus until the Pentecost festival.

Why was Paul going to stay in Ephesus until Pentecost? (vv8-9)

Paul stayed in Ephesus because a wide door had opened for him, and there were many adversaries.

1 Corinthians 16:9ULT

⁹ for a wide and effective door has opened for me, and many are opposing {me}.

UST

⁹ {I am remaining here} because God has allowed me to effectively and freely proclaim the good news. {Further, I need to resist} the large number of people who are working against me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 16:10ULT

¹⁰ Now if Timothy comes, see that he would be unafraid with you, for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I {am.}

UST

¹⁰ Whenever Timothy arrives {in your city}, make sure that he feels safe when he is with you. {You should do this} because he serves the Lord {by proclaiming the good news}, just like I do.

What was Timothy doing?

He was doing the work of the Lord, just as Paul was.

What did Paul command the church at Corinth to do concerning Timothy? (vv10-11)

Paul told the church at Corinth to see that Timothy was with them unafraid. Paul told them not to despise Timothy and also to help Timothy on his way in peace.

1 Corinthians 16:11ULT

¹¹ Therefore, let no one despise him. But help him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me, for I am expecting him with the brothers.

UST

¹¹ So, do not treat him disrespectfully. Rather, act in a friendly way by assisting him in traveling back to me. {You should do this} because I anticipate that he will come back to me with the other believers {who are traveling to visit me}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 16:12ULT

¹² Now concerning the brother Apollos, I strongly encouraged him that he would come to you with the brothers, but it was not at all his will that he would come now. However, he will come when he might have the opportunity.

UST

¹² I am now moving on to speak about our fellow believer, Apollos. I firmly urged him to visit you with the other believers {who were traveling to visit you}. However, he firmly decided that it was not the right time to visit you. Instead, he will visit you when he thinks that it is the right time.

What did Paul strongly encourage Apollos to do?

Paul strongly encouraged Apollos to visit the saints at Corinth.

1 Corinthians 16:13ULT

¹³ Stay alert; stand firm in the faith; act like men; be strong.

UST

¹³ Watch out {for what is wrong}! Firmly believe {the good news}! Be courageous! Be determined!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 16:14ULT

¹⁴ Let all your things happen in love.

UST

¹⁴ You should focus on loving others whenever you think or do anything.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 16:15ULT

¹⁵ Now I urge you, brothers (you know the household of Stephanas, that they are the firstfruits of Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to service of the saints),

UST

¹⁵ You know that those who live in the house of Stephanas were the first people {to believe the good news} in the region of Achaia. Further, they have chosen to serve God's people. I ask you, my fellow believers,

Who among the Corinthians had set themselves to the service of the saints?

The household of Stephanas set themselves to the service of the saints.

1 Corinthians 16:16ULT

¹⁶ that you also would be subject to the ones such as these and to everyone who is joining together in the work and laboring.

UST

¹⁶ to honor and obey them and other people like them. In fact, {you should honor and obey} every person who works hard {to proclaim the good news} with us.

What did Paul tell the Corinthian saints to do concerning the household of Stephanas?

Paul told them to be in submission to such people.

1 Corinthians 16:17ULT

¹⁷ Now I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, because they have supplied {what} was lacking from you;

UST

¹⁷ I am happy that Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus arrived here. {That is} because they have allowed me to connect with you all even when you are not with me.

What did Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus do for Paul? (vv17-18)

They made up for the absence of the Corinthian saints and refreshed Paul's spirit.

1 Corinthians 16:18ULT

¹⁸ for they refreshed my spirit and yours. So then, recognize the ones like these.

UST

¹⁸ They encouraged and energized both me and you. Therefore, you should honor them and other people like them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 16:19ULT

¹⁹ The churches of Asia send greetings to you. Aquila and Priscilla enthusiastically greet you in the Lord, with the church in their home.

UST

¹⁹ The groups of believers here in the region of Asia say hello to you. Aquila and Priscilla, as those whom God has also united to the Lord, say hello to you affectionately. The believers that gather in their house {also say hello to you}.

Who sent their greetings to the church at Corinth? (vv19-20)

The churches of Asia, Aquila and Priscilla, and all the brothers and sisters sent their greetings to the church at Corinth.

1 Corinthians 16:20ULT

²⁰ All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

UST

²⁰ All the fellow believers {who are with me} say hello to you. Welcome each other in a loving way.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 16:21ULT

²¹ This greeting {is} in my own hand—Paul.

UST

²¹ I, Paul, say hello {to you}. I am writing {these last words} myself {instead of having my scribe write them}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 16:22ULT

²² If anyone does not love the Lord, let him be accursed. Maranatha!

UST

²² May God curse everyone who fails to love the Lord. I pray that the Lord returns soon.

What did Paul say concerning those who do not love the Lord?

Paul said, "If any one does not love the Lord, let a curse be on him."

1 Corinthians 16:23ULT

²³ The grace of the Lord Jesus {be} with you.

UST

²³ {I pray that} the Lord Jesus will be gracious to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Corinthians 16:24ULT

²⁴ My love {be} with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen. ^[1]

16:24 ^[1]

UST

²⁴ I continue to love all of you, since God has united us together with Jesus the Messiah. May it be so!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians

2 Corinthians 1

2 Corinthians 1:1

ULT

¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, and to all the saints being in the whole of Achaia.

UST

¹ {I,} Paul, {write this letter to you,} and Timothy, our fellow believer, {is with me}. God chose to send me to represent the Messiah Jesus, because that is what God wanted. {I send this letter} to {you who are part of} the group of believers belonging to God, which is in the city of Corinth. {I} also {send this letter} to all the believers who live throughout the region of Achaia.

Who wrote this epistle?

Paul and Timothy wrote the epistle.

To whom was the epistle written?

It was written to the church of God which was at Corinth and to all the saints in the entire region of Achaia.

2 Corinthians 1:2

ULT

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

² {May} God, {who is} our Father, and the Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to be} kind to you and {make you} peaceful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:3ULT

³ Blessed {be} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort,

UST

³ May we always praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus the Messiah—he is our merciful Father and our God who always comforts us.

How does Paul describe God?

Paul describes God as the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and God of all comfort.

2 Corinthians 1:4ULT

⁴ the one comforting us in all our affliction so that we are able to comfort the ones in every affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

UST

⁴ God comforts us whenever we suffer. He does that so that we can comfort others who are suffering in any way. God enables us to comfort them in the very same way as he comforts us.

Why does God comfort us in our affliction?

He comforts us so that we are able to comfort those who are in affliction, with the same comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

2 Corinthians 1:5ULT

⁵ For just as the sufferings of Christ abound toward us, in the same way also our comfort abounds through Christ.

UST

⁵ You see, the Messiah suffered a lot for us, and now we continue to suffer as the Messiah did because we belong to him. But now the Messiah also comforts us in the same abundant amount.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:6ULT

⁶ But if we are afflicted, {it is} for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, {it is} for your comfort {which} you are experiencing in endurance of the same sufferings that we ourselves also suffer.

UST

⁶ So whenever people cause us to suffer, it is so that God may comfort you and protect you spiritually. Whenever God comforts us, it is so that he may also comfort you. God does this as you patiently endure when people cause you to suffer just as people cause us to suffer.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:7ULT

⁷ And our hope concerning you {is} firm, knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, in the same way, also of the comfort.

UST

⁷ We know that God will also comfort you as you suffer like we suffer. Therefore, we are very confident that you will continue {trusting in Jesus}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:8ULT

⁸ For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning the tribulation having happened to us in Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond our ability, so that we despaired even of life.

UST

⁸ For example, fellow believers, we want you to know about the bad things that happened to us in the province of Asia. They were so difficult that we felt that we could not endure them. We felt certain that we were going to die.

What trouble did Paul and his companions have in Asia? (vv8-9)

They were burdened beyond what they could bear, so that they expected to die.

2 Corinthians 1:9ULT

⁹ Indeed, we ourselves have had within ourselves the sentence of death so that we would not be having become confident in ourselves, but in God, the one raising the dead,

UST

⁹ We felt like a person feels when he has heard a judge say, "I condemn you to die." But God allowed us to feel that way so that we would learn to not rely on ourselves but, instead, to rely on God. He causes people who have died to live again.

For what reason was the sentence of death on Paul and his companions?

The sentence of death caused them to not put their trust in themselves, but instead to trust in God.

2 Corinthians 1:10ULT

¹⁰ who rescued us from so great a death, and he will rescue {us}—on whom we have set our hope that he will rescue {us} yet again,

UST

¹⁰ Even though it seemed to us that we would certainly die, God rescued us from the people who wanted to kill us, and he will continue to rescue us {from similar people}. We confidently expect that he will rescue us again

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:11ULT

¹¹ you also joining in helping in supplication on our behalf—so that thanks may be given on our behalf from many faces for the gracious gift to us through many.

UST

¹¹ as you help us by praying for us. Please do pray for us so that many people will thank God for what he will graciously do for us because many people prayed for us.

How did Paul say that the Corinthian church could help them?

Paul said the Corinthian church could help them by their prayer.

2 Corinthians 1:12ULT

¹² For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that we conducted ourselves in the world in holiness ^[1] and sincerity of God, and not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God, and more abundantly toward you.

UST

¹² We are proud that we can honestly say that we have behaved toward all people in a holy and sincere way, as God has enabled us to do. We do not behave in the way that unbelievers think is wise. Instead, God graciously guides us, especially {as we interact} with you.

Of what did Paul say that he and his companions were proud?

They were proud of the testimony of their conscience, which is that they had conducted themselves in the world—and especially in dealing with the Corinthian church—with the holiness and sincerity that come from God, not according to earthly wisdom but by the grace of God.

2 Corinthians 1:13ULT

¹³ For we write no other {things} to you but than what you read or also understand, but I hope that you will understand to the end—

UST

¹³ To see this, look at my letters. In all of my letters to you I have written only what you can {easily} read and understand. I hope that {soon} you will understand {us} completely

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:14ULT

¹⁴ just as you also understood us in part—so that we are your boasting, just as you also {are} ours, on the day of our Lord Jesus.

UST

¹⁴ just as you partially understand us {already}. Then when our Lord Jesus returns, you will be just as proud of us as we will be proud of you.

What was Paul confident would happen on the day of our Lord Jesus?

He was confident that on that day Paul and his companions would be the reason for the pride of the Corinthian saints.

2 Corinthians 1:15ULT

¹⁵ And with this confidence, I was intending to come to you before so that you might have a second grace, ^[2]

UST

¹⁵⁻¹⁶ Because I was confident that you were proud of me, I planned to visit you once on my way to the province of Macedonia, and then to visit you again as I returned from there. In that way, you would benefit twice from having me with you. Also, you could help supply what I would need to go from your city to the province of Judea.

How many times was Paul planning to visit the Corinthian saints?

He was planning to visit them two times.

2 Corinthians 1:16ULT

¹⁶ and to pass through you into Macedonia and to come to you again from Macedonia and to be sent ahead to Judea by you.

UST

¹⁵⁻¹⁶ Because I was confident that you were proud of me, I planned to visit you once on my way to the province of Macedonia, and then to visit you again as I returned from there. In that way, you would benefit twice from having me with you. Also, you could help supply what I would need to go from your city to the province of Judea.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:17ULT

¹⁷ Therefore, intending this, I did not then act in fickleness, did I? Or what I intend, do I intend according to the flesh, so that there would be with me "Yes, yes" and "No, no"?

UST

¹⁷ I intended to visit you those two times{, but then I did not come the second time}. That does not mean that I changed my plan lightly. I do not make or change my plans according to what I might desire at the time. I do not say, "Yes, I will do that" and then quickly say, "No, I will not do it."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:18ULT

¹⁸ But God {is} faithful, so that our word to you is not “Yes” and “No.”

UST

¹⁸ Just as God is faithful, we are completely sincere in everything that we say to you. We would never say, “Yes” when we really think, “No.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:19ULT

¹⁹ For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, the one having been proclaimed among you by us—by me and Silvanus and Timothy—was not “Yes” and “No,” but it has been “Yes” in him.

UST

¹⁹ I and Silvanus and Timothy taught you about the Son of God, Jesus the Messiah. {You know that} he would never say, “Yes” if what he meant was, “No.” Because of who he is, our message about him has also remained consistent and dependable.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:20ULT

²⁰ For as many as {are} the promises of God, {they are} “Yes” in him. Therefore, also through him the “Amen” {is} through us to God for his glory.

UST

²⁰ Because of Jesus, we can rely on all of the promises of God. Jesus fulfills them all. Therefore, Jesus is also the one who enables us to say, “Yes, it is true” when we praise God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:21ULT

²¹ Now the one establishing us with you in Christ and having anointed us {is} God,

UST

²¹ It is God who causes us, along with you, to keep on believing strongly in the Messiah. God is also the one who has given us his Spirit so that we can serve him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 1:22ULT

²² the one also having sealed us and having given {us} the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts.

UST

²² God gave us the Holy Spirit to live within us. That shows both that we belong to him and that he will also do for us everything else that he has promised to do for us.

What is one reason that Christ gave us the Spirit in our hearts?

He gave the Spirit as a down payment or guarantee of what he would later give us.

2 Corinthians 1:23ULT

²³ Now I invoke God as a witness upon my soul that sparing you, I have not yet come to Corinth.

UST

²³ So now I will tell you why I changed my mind and did not visit you again as I intended to do. May God strike me dead if I am lying, but he knows that what I am telling you is true. The reason that I did not return to Corinth was so that I might not grieve you by having to speak to you severely about the wrong things that you have done.

Why did Paul not come to Corinth?

He did not come to Corinth so that he might spare them.

2 Corinthians 1:24ULT

²⁴ Not that we lord it over your faith, but we are fellow workers for your joy, for you stand firm in the faith.

1:12 ^[1]

1:15 ^[2]

UST

²⁴ When I say that, I do not mean that we are your masters who give you orders about what to believe and do. Instead, everything that we tell you {about living for God} is so that you will be joyful. We do not need to command you, because God himself tells you what to believe and do.

What did Paul say he and Timothy were and were not doing with the Corinthian church?

Paul said they were not trying to control what their faith should be, but they were working with the Corinthian church for their joy.

2 Corinthians 2

2 Corinthians 2:1

ULT

¹ For I decided this for myself, not to come to you again in sorrow.

UST

¹ {I have not visited you} because I have chosen to avoid visiting you if it hurts you and me like it did last time {I visited you}.

What circumstances was Paul trying to avoid by not coming to the Corinthian church?

Paul was avoiding coming to the Corinthian church in sorrow.

2 Corinthians 2:2

ULT

² For if I myself grieve you, then who {is} the one cheering me up except the one being grieved by me?

UST

² {I chose not to visit you again} because, when I hurt you, I have hurt the only people who can make me glad.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 2:3

ULT

³ And I wrote this same thing so that, having come, I might not have sorrow from {those in} whom it is necessary for me to rejoice, having become confident in all of you that my joy is {the joy} of all of you.

UST

³ I already wrote {in my previous letter} what I am now saying {to you}. {I wrote those things} so that, when I next visited you, you would not hurt me, and I would be glad about you as I should. {I wrote those things because} I was sure about all of you that you would be glad when I was glad.

Why did Paul write as he did in his previous epistle to the Corinthian church?

He wrote as he did so that when he came to them he might not be hurt by those who should have made him rejoice.

2 Corinthians 2:4ULT

⁴ For I wrote to you out of much tribulation and anguish of heart, through many tears, not so that you would be grieved, but so that you might know the love that I have more abundantly for you.

UST

⁴ I suffered greatly and hurt inside when I wrote {that previous letter} to you. In fact, I wept {while I wrote it}. {I sent it to you} so that you would realize how much I care for you. I did not intend to hurt you.

When Paul wrote to the Corinthians before, what was his state of mind?

He was in great tribulation and anguish of heart.

Why did Paul write this letter to the Corinthian church?

He wrote to them so that they would know the depth of the love that he had for them.

2 Corinthians 2:5ULT

⁵ But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved {only} me, but in part—in order that I might not burden all of you.

UST

⁵ However, the person who has hurt others did not really hurt me. Rather, that person hurt some {of you}. {I use the word “some”} so that I do not include all of you {as those whom that person hurt}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 2:6ULT

⁶ This punishment on such a {person} by the majority {is} sufficient,

UST

⁶ Most of you together have disciplined that person. {You do not need to do} anything more.

What did Paul say the Corinthian saints should now do for the one they punished? (vv6-7)

Paul said they should forgive and comfort that person.

2 Corinthians 2:7ULT

⁷ so that, on the contrary, you should rather forgive and comfort {him} {so that} such a {person} might not be overwhelmed in his excessive sorrow.

UST

⁷ So then, instead {of disciplining that person}, you should now forgive and encourage that person. Otherwise, the person will become very sad and give up.

Why did Paul say the Corinthian saints should forgive and comfort the one they had punished?

This was so that the one they had punished would not be overwhelmed by too much sorrow.

2 Corinthians 2:8ULT

⁸ So I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

UST

⁸ Therefore, I encourage you to show publicly that you care for that person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 2:9ULT

⁹ Indeed, I also wrote for this reason: so that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in all things.

UST

⁹ Another reason for which I wrote {that previous letter} was in order that I could find out for sure if you would do everything that I asked {you to do}.

What is another reason Paul wrote to the Corinthian church?

Paul wrote to them to test them and to find out whether they were obedient in everything.

2 Corinthians 2:10ULT

¹⁰ Now to whomever you forgive anything, I also {forgive}—for indeed, the one I have forgiven (if I have forgiven anything) {is} for your sake in the presence of Christ

UST

¹⁰ In the end, when you forgive any person for anything, I too forgive that person. In fact, I have forgiven {that person} for what {that person did}, even though it was basically nothing. {I did that} to help you, as the Messiah desires.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 2:11ULT

¹¹ so that we would not be taken advantage of by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

UST

¹¹ {We should forgive others} so that Satan will not control us. Indeed, we know all about his plans {to control us}.

Why was it important for the Corinthian church to know that whoever they had forgiven was also forgiven by Paul and in the presence of Christ?

This was so that Satan would not trick them.

2 Corinthians 2:12ULT

¹² Now having come to Troas and a door for the gospel of Christ having been opened to me in the Lord,

UST

¹² {To return to how I traveled,} when I arrived in the city of Troas, the Lord Jesus made it possible for me to proclaim the good news about the Messiah effectively.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 2:13ULT

¹³ I had no relief in my spirit, as I did not find my brother Titus there. So having said farewell to them, I went on to Macedonia.

UST

¹³ However, since my fellow believer Titus was not {in the city of Troas}, I continued to be anxious about {what happened when he visited you}. Therefore, I said goodbye to the believers there and left to travel to the region of Macedonia.

Why did Paul have no peace of mind when he went to the city of Troas?

He had no peace of mind because he couldn't find his brother Titus in Troas.

2 Corinthians 2:14ULT

¹⁴ But thanks {be} to God, always leading us in triumphal procession in Christ and making known through us the aroma of the knowledge of him in every place.

UST

¹⁴ Now we praise God! {He is the one} who, because he has united us to the Messiah, continually includes us as he conquers {his enemies}. Further, he uses us to reveal to people in many places what God is like.

What did God do through Paul and his companions? (vv14-15)

Through Paul and his companions God spread the sweet aroma of the knowledge of Christ everywhere.

2 Corinthians 2:15ULT

¹⁵ For we are a fragrance of Christ to God among the ones being saved and among the ones perishing—

UST

¹⁵ In fact, we are like a pleasant smell that comes from Christ and that pleases God. {We are like this smell} when we are with people whom God is rescuing and when we are with people who are passing away.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 2:16ULT

¹⁶ to the ones, indeed, an aroma from death to death, but to the {others}, an aroma from life to life. And for these things, who {is} sufficient?

UST

¹⁶ Those {who are passing away think that we are like} a smell that comes from a dead body and that causes people to die. On the other hand, those {whom God is rescuing think that we are like} a smell that comes from a living thing and that causes people to live. No one can perfectly {proclaim the good news in that way}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 2:17ULT

¹⁷ For we are not like the many peddling the word of God; but as from sincerity, but as from God, we speak in the presence of God in Christ.

UST

¹⁷ {You can tell that we do not do so perfectly} because we do not sell the message that God has given us for money, like many other people do. Rather, we only want to serve God, not to gain something. Indeed, {we proclaim the good news} because that is what God sent us {to do}. So, as those whom God has united to the Messiah, we proclaim {the good news} to please God{, not people}.

How did Paul say that he and his companions were different from many people who sold the word of God for profit?

Paul and his companions were different in that they spoke with purity of motives, as sent from God, speaking in Christ in the presence of God.

2 Corinthians 3

2 Corinthians 3:1

ULT

¹ Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or we do not need, like some, letters of recommendation to you or from you, do we?

UST

¹ We are not going to prove to you a second time that we are trustworthy. As you know, you do not need to write or receive a note that proves that we are trustworthy, even though {you might need to do those things} for other people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 3:2

ULT

² You yourselves are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men,

UST

² It is you all who function like a note {that proves that we are trustworthy}. When we care for each other, all people realize that we are trustworthy, just as if they read {a note from you}.

What letter of recommendation did Paul and his companions have?

The saints at Corinth were their letter of recommendation, known and read by all people.

2 Corinthians 3:3

ULT

³ making known that you are a letter of Christ having been administered by us, not written with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of hearts of flesh.

UST

³ Everyone knows that you are like a note that the Messiah wrote and that we delivered. {The Messiah} did not write {this note} on stone slabs using dye. Rather, {it is as if he wrote it} inside you by working through the Holy Spirit, {who is} the only real God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 3:4ULT

⁴ Now we have such confidence through Christ toward God.

UST

⁴ I say those things because we are sure about {what} God {thinks of us}. {We are sure} because the Messiah makes {us sure}.

What was the confidence that Paul and his companions had in God through Christ? (vv4-5)

Their confidence was not in their own competence, but in the adequacy that God provided them.

2 Corinthians 3:5ULT

⁵ Not that we are sufficient from ourselves to consider anything as from ourselves. Instead, our sufficiency {is} from God,

UST

⁵ Of course, we cannot {proclaim the good news} well on our own, and we do not think that anything we do well is because of us. Rather, God enables us {to proclaim the good news} well.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 3:6ULT

⁶ who indeed made us competent {as} servants of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit makes alive.

UST

⁶ He has also enabled us to act on behalf of the new agreement. The Holy Spirit gives {this new agreement}, so it is not just words that someone wrote down. {This is important} because {people who rely on} the Holy Spirit will live, but {people who rely on} words that someone wrote down will die.

What was the basis of the new covenant of which God had qualified Paul and his companions to be servants?

The new covenant was based on the Spirit, who gives life, not the letter, which kills.

2 Corinthians 3:7ULT

⁷ Now if the ministry of this death—engraved in letters on stones—came in glory, so that the sons of Israel were not able to look intently at the face of Moses because of the fading glory of his face,

UST

⁷ Further, when Moses acted on behalf of {the old agreement that condemned people} to die, God carved the words {of the agreement} onto stone slabs. What Moses did was glorious enough that the Israelites could not gaze at his face afterwards because it {reflected how} glorious {God is}, although that would eventually go away.

Why could the people of Israel not look directly at Moses' face?

They could not look directly at his face because of the glory of his face, a glory that was fading.

2 Corinthians 3:8ULT

⁸ how will the ministry of the Spirit not be with much more glory?

UST

⁸ So then, when people act on behalf of {the new agreement that gives} the Holy Spirit, that is even more glorious.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 3:9ULT

⁹ For if the ministry of this condemnation {had} glory, the ministry of this righteousness abounds much more in glory!

UST

⁹ Indeed, when Moses acted on behalf of {the old agreement that led to God} condemning people, it was glorious. So then, when people act on behalf of {the new agreement that leads to people becoming} righteous, it is even more glorious!

Which will have more glory, the ministry of condemnation or the service of righteousness?

The ministry of righteousness abounds much more in glory.

2 Corinthians 3:10ULT

¹⁰ For indeed, {what} had been glorified is not glorified in this part, because of the surpassing glory.

UST

¹⁰ In fact, the glorious {old agreement} does not look glorious at all because of how glorious {the new agreement} is.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 3:11ULT

¹¹ For if {what} is fading away {came} with glory, much more {what} remains {will come} with glory!

UST

¹¹ Indeed, {the old agreement} that is going away was glorious. So then, {the new agreement} that will last forever is even more glorious!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 3:12ULT

¹² Therefore, having such a hope, we act with much boldness,

UST

¹² So then, since we confidently expect {to receive} these {glorious} things, we behave very boldly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 3:13ULT

¹³ and not like Moses putting a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel would not look intently at the end of {what} was fading away.

UST

¹³ {We are} not like Moses, who wore a cloth that hid his face. That way, the Israelites could not gaze at how his face stopped reflecting how glorious God is.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 3:14ULT

¹⁴ But their minds were hardened, for until the present day, the same veil remains at the reading of the old covenant, not being lifted, because in Christ it is fading away.

UST

¹⁴ In fact, the Israelites did not understand {what God revealed}. Indeed, even now, when someone reads {the Scriptures that contain} the old agreement, {it is as if} the cloth that Moses wore keeps people from understanding {it}. That is because no one can understand {these Scriptures} until God unites them to the Messiah.

How can Israel's mind be opened and the veil removed from their hearts?

Only when Israel turns to the Lord Christ are their minds opened and the veil lifted away.

2 Corinthians 3:15ULT

¹⁵ But until today, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart,

UST

¹⁵ Indeed, even now, when someone reads the Law of Moses, it is as if that cloth keeps people from understanding it.

What is the problem which remains today for the people of Israel whenever the old covenant of Moses is read?

Their problem is that their minds are closed and a veil lies over their hearts.

2 Corinthians 3:16ULT

¹⁶ but whenever one might turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

UST

¹⁶ However, when people begin to trust the Lord {God}, God enables them to understand {the Law of Moses}, just as if he removed that cloth.

How can Israel's mind be opened and the veil removed from their hearts?

Only when Israel turns to the Lord Christ are their minds opened and the veil lifted away.

2 Corinthians 3:17ULT

¹⁷ Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord {is}, {there is} freedom.

UST

¹⁷ When I speak of the Lord {God}, I mean the Holy Spirit. It is the Holy Spirit who enables {people to understand the Scriptures}.

What is present with the Spirit of the Lord?

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

2 Corinthians 3:18ULT

¹⁸ Now we all, with unveiled face reflecting the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

UST

¹⁸ So, all of us {who believe} show how glorious the Lord {God} is, and {we do so} without a cloth covering our faces. God is changing us so that we are like {the Messiah}. In this way, the glorious Lord, who is the Holy Spirit, makes us glorious.

Into what are all those who are seeing the glory of the Lord being transformed?

They are being transformed into the same glorious likeness from one degree of glory into another.

2 Corinthians 4

2 Corinthians 4:1

ULT

¹ Therefore, having this ministry, just as we received mercy, we do not become discouraged.

UST

¹ Because of those things, and because God mercifully enabled us to act on behalf of {the new agreement}, we do not give up.

Why did Paul and his companions not become discouraged?

They didn't become discouraged because of the ministry they had and because they had received mercy.

2 Corinthians 4:2

ULT

² Instead, we have rejected the shameful hidden things, not walking in craftiness, nor distorting the word of God, but by the manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience before God.

UST

² Rather, we refuse to do anything that we would hide because it is disgraceful. We do not try to deceive others, and we do not change the message from God. Instead, we proclaim the true {message}, and we prove to everyone that God considers us trustworthy.

What were the ways that Paul and his companions had renounced?

They had renounced the ways that are shameful and hidden. They didn't live by craftiness and did not mishandle the word of God.

How did Paul and those like him recommend themselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God?

They did this by presenting the truth.

2 Corinthians 4:3ULT

³ But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to the ones perishing,

UST

³ In fact, the only people who do not understand the good news that we proclaim are people who are passing away.

To whom is the gospel veiled?

It is veiled to those who are perishing.

2 Corinthians 4:4ULT

⁴ to whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, so that the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, does not appear {to them}.

UST

⁴ Satan, who rules the world right now, has kept these people who do not believe from understanding. That way, the good news about the glorious Messiah, who shows what God is like, does not change them.

Why is the gospel veiled to those who are perishing?

It is veiled because the god of this world has blinded their unbelieving minds so they are not able to see the light of the gospel.

2 Corinthians 4:5ULT

⁵ For we do not proclaim ourselves, but the Lord Christ Jesus, and ourselves {as} your servants for Jesus' sake.

UST

⁵ {I say that the good news is about the Messiah} because we do not tell other people about ourselves. Rather, {we tell them} about Jesus the Messiah, the Lord, and about how we serve you because of him.

What did Paul and his companions proclaim about Jesus and about themselves?

They proclaimed Christ Jesus as Lord and themselves as the servants of the Corinthian church for Jesus' sake.

2 Corinthians 4:6ULT

⁶ For God {is} the one who said, "From darkness a light will shine," who shined in our hearts for the illumination of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

UST

⁶ {We do that} because it is God who spoke these words: "What is dark will become bright." He has enabled us to understand what is true about how glorious he is, just as if he had shined a light on us. {God has revealed this} in Jesus the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 4:7ULT

⁷ But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that the surpassing greatness of the power might be from God and not from us;

UST

⁷ We experience and proclaim these wonderful things, but we ourselves are weak and worthless. That way, {it is clear that} God causes these things to be so powerful, not we.

Why did Paul and his companions have this treasure in jars of clay?

They had this treasure in jars of clay so that it would be clear that the exceedingly great power belongs to God and not to them.

2 Corinthians 4:8ULT

⁸ in every {side} being pressed in, but not being crushed; being perplexed, but not despairing;

UST

⁸ {We experience} many {difficult things}. People persecute us, but they do not overcome us. We are not sure what to do, but we do not give up.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 4:9ULT

⁹ being persecuted, but not being forsaken; being thrown down, but not perishing;

UST

⁹ People try to hurt us, but God does not abandon us. People act against us, but they do not defeat us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 4:10ULT

¹⁰ always carrying around in the body the dying of Jesus so that the life of Jesus also might be revealed in our body;

UST

¹⁰ We continually suffer physically, like Jesus did. That way, God will make us live again, just like he made Jesus live again.

Why did Paul and his companions carry in their bodies the death of Jesus?

They carried the death of Jesus in their bodies so that the life of Jesus might also be shown in their bodies.

2 Corinthians 4:11ULT

¹¹ for we being alive are always being handed over to death for the sake of Jesus so that also the life of Jesus might be revealed in our mortal flesh.

UST

¹¹ Indeed, while we are living, God allows us to suffer continually because of Jesus. That way, even though we will die, God will make us live again, just like he made Jesus live again.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 4:12ULT

¹² So then, death works in us, but life in you.

UST

¹² As you can see, God allows us to suffer, but he will make you live.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 4:13ULT

¹³ But having the same spirit of the faith according to {what} has been written: "I believed; therefore I spoke," we also believe; therefore we also speak,

UST

¹³ Now we are those who trust {God}, just like the person who wrote {in the psalm}, "I trusted {God}, so I spoke." We too trust {God}, so we too speak.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 4:14ULT

¹⁴ knowing that the one having raised Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and will present {us} with you.

UST

¹⁴ {We do that because} we realize that God made Jesus alive again, so he will also make us alive again. Then we will be with Jesus and with you before God.

Who will be raised and brought into the presence of him who raised the Lord Jesus?

Paul and his companions as well as the Corinthian saints will be brought into the presence of him who raised the Lord Jesus.

2 Corinthians 4:15ULT

¹⁵ For all these {things are} for your sake so that the grace, having increased through more and more {people}, may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.

UST

¹⁵ We do each of those things to help you. That way, God will act graciously to more people. Then, people will thank God more, which honors God.

What will happen as a result of grace spreading to many people?

As grace is spread to many people, thanksgiving will increase to the glory of God.

2 Corinthians 4:16ULT

¹⁶ So we do not become discouraged. Rather, even if our outer man is decaying, yet our inner {man} is being renewed day {by} day.

UST

¹⁶ Therefore, we do not give up. Instead, even though the part of us that people can see is perishing, every day God is strengthening the part of us that people cannot see.

Why did Paul and his companions have reason to become discouraged?

They had reason to become discouraged because, outwardly, they were decaying.

Why did Paul and his companions not become discouraged? (vv16-18)

They didn't become discouraged because inwardly they were being renewed day by day. Also, their momentary, light affliction was preparing them for an eternal weight of glory that exceeds all measurement. Lastly, they were watching for unseen eternal things.

2 Corinthians 4:17ULT

¹⁷ For our momentary, light affliction is producing in us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison.

UST

¹⁷ {We do not give up,} because when we suffer in temporary and unimportant ways, that will cause us to become glorious forever and in important ways, ways that we cannot even imagine.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 4:18ULT

¹⁸ We are not watching the things being seen, but the things not being seen. For the things being seen {are} temporary, but the things not being seen {are} eternal.

UST

¹⁸ So, we pay attention to what we do not see rather than to what we see. {That is} because what we do not see will last forever, but what we see will pass away.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 5

2 Corinthians 5:1

ULT

¹ For we know that if our earthly house of this tent is torn down, we have a building from God, an eternal house in the heavens, not made with hands.

UST

¹ Indeed, we realize that the bodies we have on this earth will die. They are like tents that people destroy. However, God will give us new bodies that will live forever. They will be like buildings that God creates in the heavenly places.

What did Paul say we still have if our earthly dwelling is destroyed?

Paul said we have a building from God, a house not made by human hands, but an eternal house, in the heavens.

2 Corinthians 5:2

ULT

² For indeed, in this {house} we groan, longing to be fully clothed with our dwelling {that is} from heaven,

UST

² In fact, we mourn how we live in these bodies. We want God to give us new bodies, just as if he was putting new clothes on us. {These new bodies will be like} buildings {that God gives us} from heaven.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 5:3

ULT

³ and if indeed having clothed ourselves, we will not be found naked.

UST

³ Whenever we receive our new bodies, they will be like clothes that keep us from being naked.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 5:4ULT

⁴ For indeed, we, the ones being in this tent, groan, being burdened, because of which we do not want to be unclothed, but to be fully clothed so that the mortal may be swallowed up by the life.

UST

⁴ Even further, while we have these bodies that are like tents, we mourn, and these bodies make living difficult. Because of that, it is not that we want to be without bodies, which would be like having no clothes. Rather, {we want} to receive new bodies, which will be like putting on new clothes. That way, we will live forever instead of expecting to die.

Why did Paul say that we groan while we are in this tent?

Paul said this because while in this tent, we are burdened and want to be clothed so that what is mortal may be absorbed by life.

2 Corinthians 5:5ULT

⁵ Now the one having prepared us for this very thing {is} God, the one having given us the down payment of the Spirit.

UST

⁵ God is the one who makes us ready for these new bodies. He gave the Holy Spirit to us, which shows that he will also give us everything else that he has promised.

What did God give to us as a pledge of what is to come?

God gave us the Spirit as a pledge of what is to come.

2 Corinthians 5:6ULT

⁶ Therefore, always being courageous and knowing that being at home in the body, we are away from the Lord—

UST

⁶ So then, we are confident at all times {about what God will give us}. Also, we realize that while we have these bodies, we are not with the Lord {Jesus}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 5:7ULT

⁷ for we walk by faith, not by sight.

UST

⁷ Indeed, we act as we do because we trust {the Lord Jesus}, not because we see {him}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 5:8ULT

⁸ Now we are confident and think it good rather to be away from the body and to be at home with the Lord.

UST

⁸ As I said, we are confident {about what God will give us}. Also, we would choose instead to be without our bodies and with the Lord {Jesus}.

Would Paul rather be in the body or at home with the Lord?

Paul said, "We would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord."

2 Corinthians 5:9ULT

⁹ And therefore we aspire, whether being at home or being away, to be well-pleasing to him.

UST

⁹ So then, we strive to please the Lord Jesus whether we are with him or not.

What was Paul's goal?

Paul made it his goal to please the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:10

ULT

¹⁰ For it is necessary for us all to be revealed before the judgment seat of Christ so that each one may receive back the {things done} through the body, with regard to what things he did, whether good or bad.

UST

¹⁰ {We do that} because all of us will have to appear before the Messiah and he will decide whether each one of us has done what is right or what is wrong. Then, he will give us what we deserve in proportion to what we did while we had these bodies.

Why did Paul make it his goal to please the Lord?

Paul made this his goal because we all must appear before the judgment seat of Christ to receive what is due for the things done in the body, whether for good or for bad.

2 Corinthians 5:11

ULT

¹¹ Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men. But we are clearly known by God, and I hope also to be clearly known in your consciences.

UST

¹¹ So then, because we experience what it means to fear the Lord {Jesus}, we convince others {to fear him also}. God knows {that we are trustworthy}, and I want you also to know {that we are trustworthy}.

Why did Paul and his companions persuade people?

They persuaded people because they knew the fear of the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:12

ULT

¹² We are not again commending ourselves to you, but are giving you an opportunity of boasting on our behalf, so that you may have {an answer} for the ones boasting in appearance and not in heart.

UST

¹² We are not proving to you a second time that we are trustworthy. Rather, we are enabling you to say great things about us. That way, you can respond to anybody who says great things about how people appear on the outside and not about who those people really are on the inside.

Paul said they were not again recommending themselves to the Corinthian saints. What were they doing?

They were giving the Corinthian saints a reason to be proud of them, so that the Corinthian saints might have an answer for those who boasted about appearances but not about what was in the heart.

2 Corinthians 5:13ULT

¹³ For if we are out of our mind, {it is} for God; if we are of sound mind, {it is} for you.

UST

¹³ So, when we seem crazy, we are serving God. When we seem to think normally, we are serving you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 5:14ULT

¹⁴ For the love of Christ controls us, having judged this: that one died for the sake of all; therefore, all died.

UST

¹⁴ {Those things are true} because the Messiah loves us, and that directs us {to act in certain ways}. Here is how we think about it: one person{, the Messiah,} died to rescue all people. Because of that, {it is as if} all people died.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 5:15ULT

¹⁵ And he died for all so that the ones living should live no longer for themselves, but for the one having died for them and having been raised.

UST

¹⁵ Further, {this is why} he died to rescue all people: that way, those who live spiritually will not do whatever they want anymore. Instead, {they will do} what the Messiah wants, since he died to rescue them and God made him alive again.

Since Christ died for all, what should those who live do?

They should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised.

2 Corinthians 5:16ULT

¹⁶ Therefore, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh. Even if we regarded Christ according to the flesh, yet now we no longer regard him {that way}.

UST

¹⁶ Because of all that, we do not think about anyone in merely human ways any longer. Indeed, although at one time we thought about the Messiah in merely human ways, we do not think about him in those ways any longer.

By what standards do the saints no longer judge anyone?

The saints no longer judge anyone by human standards

2 Corinthians 5:17ULT

¹⁷ Therefore, if anyone {is} in Christ, {he is} a new creation. The old things passed away; behold, new things have come. ^[1]

UST

¹⁷ So then, whenever God unites people to the Messiah, he makes them new people. What they used to be has disappeared. Look, what they are now is something new!

What happens to anyone who is in Christ?

He is a new creation. The old things have passed away; new things have come.

2 Corinthians 5:18ULT

¹⁸ Now all these things {are} from God, the one having reconciled us to himself through Christ and having given us the ministry of this reconciliation,

UST

¹⁸ God is the one who gives us every one of these things. By working through the Messiah, he has enabled us to be with him. Further, God empowers us to act so that others can also be with him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 5:19ULT

¹⁹ namely, that God in Christ was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and having placed in us the word of reconciliation.

UST

¹⁹ Here is how that works: God works through Christ to enable every person to be with him. In doing so, he forgives people for what they have done wrong. Further, he commissions us to tell others about how they can be with God.

When God through Christ reconciles people to himself, what does God do for them?

God doesn't count their sinful stumblings against them, and he entrusts to them the message of reconciliation.

2 Corinthians 5:20ULT

²⁰ Therefore, we are ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God is appealing through us: We implore {you} on behalf of Christ: "Be reconciled to God!"

UST

²⁰ Because {God has commissioned us}, we represent the Messiah. So, God encourages others through us. We speak for the Messiah when we ask you {to believe the good news so that} you can be with God.

As appointed representatives of Christ, what is the plea of Paul and his companions to the Corinthians?

Their plea to the Corinthians is to be reconciled to God for the sake of Christ!

2 Corinthians 5:21ULT

²¹ The one not having known sin he made sin for us, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.
5:17 ^[1]

UST

²¹ Jesus did not sin. {Despite that,} for our sake God treated him as if he had sinned. As a result, God makes us righteous by uniting us to Jesus.

Why did God make Christ become the sacrifice for our sin?

God did this so that in Christ we might become the righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 6

2 Corinthians 6:1

ULT

¹ Now working together with {him}, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain—

UST

¹ As those who serve with God, we encourage you to accept fully what God has graciously done {for you}, so that it changes {how you live}.

What did Paul and his companions beg the Corinthians not to do?

They begged the Corinthians not to receive the grace of God to no effect.

2 Corinthians 6:2

ULT

² for he says, “At an acceptable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I helped you.” Behold, now {is} a favorable time. Look, now {is} a day of salvation.

UST

² {You should do that} because God says {in the scripture}: “When I considered it to be the right time, I heard you {and acted}. Indeed, when I was rescuing {people}, I assisted you.” Right now is when God considers it to be the best time! Indeed, right now is when God is rescuing {people}!

When is the favorable time? When is the day of salvation?

Now is the favorable time. Now is the day of salvation.

2 Corinthians 6:3

ULT

³ Giving no cause for offense in anything so that our ministry might not be blamed,

UST

³ We avoid doing anything that might offend others. That way, no one can criticize how we serve {God}.

Why did Paul and his companions not place a stumbling block in front of anyone?

They didn't put a stumbling block in front of anyone, for they did not want their ministry to be blamed.

2 Corinthians 6:4ULT

⁴ instead, we commend ourselves in everything as servants of God; in much endurance, in tribulations, in hardships, in distresses,

UST

⁴ Rather, we prove that we are trustworthy in every way while we serve God. We always persevere when people hurt and persecute us.

What did the actions of Paul and his companions prove?

Their actions proved they were God's servants.

What are some of the things that Paul and his companions endured? (vv4-5)

They endured affliction, distress, hardship, beatings, imprisonments, riots, hard work, sleepless nights and hunger.

2 Corinthians 6:5ULT

⁵ in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in hard labors, in sleeplessness {nights}, in hungers,

UST

⁵ {We persevere} when people strike us, put us in jail, and stir up crowds against us. {We persevere} when we work hard, do not sleep much, and go hungry.

2 Corinthians 6:6ULT

⁶ in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love,

UST

⁶ We are free from evil things, we know {what is true}, and we do not easily become angry. We care {for others}, we have the Holy Spirit, and we love {people} sincerely.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 6:7ULT

⁷ in the word of truth, in the power of God; through the weapons of righteousness {for} the right hand and the left,

UST

⁷ We proclaim what is true, and God enables us to act powerfully. We are righteous, which is like having a sword in one hand and a shield in the other.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 6:8ULT

⁸ through honor and dishonor, through bad report and good report; as deceivers, yet true;

UST

⁸ Some people honor us, and others shame us. Some people say bad things about us, and others say good things about us. Some people think that we tell lies, but really we speak what is true.

Even though Paul and his companions were truthful, of what were they accused?

They were accused of being deceitful.

2 Corinthians 6:9ULT

⁹ as being unknown, yet being well known; as dying yet—behold!—living; as being disciplined, yet not being put to death;

UST

⁹ Some people think that nobody acknowledges us, but really, God acknowledges us. Some people think that we are dying, but really, we are alive! Some people think that God is punishing us, but really, he has not decided that we should die.

2 Corinthians 6:10ULT

¹⁰ as being sorrowful, but always rejoicing; as poor, but making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing all things.

UST

¹⁰ Some people think that we mourn, but really, we continually rejoice. Some people think that we are needy, but really, we help many people gain what is truly valuable. Some people think that we do not have anything, but really, we have everything.

2 Corinthians 6:11ULT

¹¹ Our mouth has been opened toward you, Corinthians; our heart has been opened wide.

UST

¹¹ Fellow believers in the city of Corinth, we have told you what is true, and we care for you greatly.

What exchange does Paul wish to make with the Corinthians?

Paul said his heart was wide open to the Corinthians and, in fair exchange, Paul wanted the Corinthians saints to open their hearts wide to Paul and his companions.

2 Corinthians 6:12ULT

¹² You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your affections;

UST

¹² We are not the ones who have stopped {caring for you}. Rather, it is you who have stopped caring {for us}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 6:13ULT

¹³ and {in} the same exchange—I speak as to children—open yourselves wide also.

UST

¹³ Now I will speak to you {as if you thought in simple ways} like children {do}: since we care for you, it would only be right if you cared for us in return.

What exchange does Paul wish to make with the Corinthians?

Paul said their heart was wide open to the Corinthians and in fair exchange Paul wanted the Corinthians saints to open their hearts wide to Paul and his companions.

2 Corinthians 6:14ULT

¹⁴ Do not be yoked together with unbelievers, for what partnership {does} righteousness and lawlessness {have}? Or what fellowship {does} light {have} with darkness?

UST

¹⁴ Do not join in with people who do not trust {the Messiah}. {I say that} because what is right and what is wrong have nothing in common. Further, what is good shares nothing with what is evil.

What reasons does Paul give as to why the Corinthian saints should not be tied together with unbelievers? (vv14-16)

Paul gives the following reasons: What association does righteousness have with lawlessness? Does light have fellowship with darkness? Can Christ agree with Beliar? What share does a believer have together with an unbeliever? Can there be agreement between the temple of God and idols?.

2 Corinthians 6:15ULT

¹⁵ And what harmony {does} Christ {have} with Beliar? Or what share {does} a believer {have} with an unbeliever?

UST

¹⁵ The Messiah does not agree {about anything} with the devil Beliar. Further, people who trust {the Messiah} do not belong with people who do not trust {the Messiah}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 6:16ULT

16 And what agreement {does} the temple of God {have} with idols? For we are the temple of the living God, just as God said: "I will dwell among them, and walk {among them}; and I will be their God, and they themselves will be my people."

UST

16 God's temple does not go together with other gods. In fact, it is as if we {who believe} were the only real God's temple. {You can tell that we are God's temple} because God spoke {these words in the Scriptures}: "I will be with my people. Indeed, I will not leave them. They will consider me to be their God and I will consider them to be my people."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 6:17ULT

17 Therefore, "Come out from the midst of them, and be separate," says the Lord, "and touch no unclean thing," and "I will welcome you."

UST

17 So then, {we should do what} the Lord {God} says {in the Scriptures}: "Get away from people {who do not serve me}. Make sure that you are different {than them}. Stay away from anything that defiles you." {He says,} "Then, I will gladly receive you."

What does the Lord say he will do for those who will, "Come out from among them and be set apart, and touch no unclean thing..."? (vv17-18)

The Lord says he will welcome them. He will be a Father to them and they will be his sons and daughters.

2 Corinthians 6:18ULT

18 And "I will be to you as a Father, and you will be to me as sons and daughters," says the Lord Almighty.

UST

18 Further, the Lord {God}, who rules all things, says, "I will be your father. You will be my sons and daughters."

2 Corinthians 7

2 Corinthians 7:1

ULT

¹ Therefore, beloved, having these promises, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

UST

¹ So then, {fellow believers} whom I love, because God has promised these things to us, we should get rid of everything that defiles us on the outside and on the inside. We should become completely holy as we fear God.

Of what does Paul say we are supposed to cleanse ourselves?

We are supposed to cleanse ourselves of everything that makes us unclean in body and spirit.

2 Corinthians 7:2

ULT

² Make room for us! We wronged no one; we ruined no one; we took advantage of no one.

UST

² {We ask you to} care for us! We have not hurt, cheated, or destroyed anyone.

What did Paul want the Corinthian saints to do for himself and his companions?

Paul wanted them to, "Make room for us!"

2 Corinthians 7:3

ULT

³ I do not speak for your condemnation; for I have already said that you are in our hearts to die together and to live together.

UST

³ I am not saying these things to blame you. In fact, as I have already written {in this letter}, we care for you greatly, no matter what happens.

What words of encouragement did Paul have for the Corinthian saints? (vv3-4)

Paul told the Corinthian saints they were in his and his companion's hearts, to die together and to live together. Paul also told them he had great confidence in them and was proud of them.

2 Corinthians 7:4ULT

⁴ Great {is} my confidence in you; great {is} my boasting on your behalf. I have been filled with encouragement. I overflow with this joy in all our afflictions.

UST

⁴ I am very confident {that} you {will do what is right}. {In fact,} I often say great things about you. You encourage me greatly, and I rejoice very much {about you} even while we are suffering.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 7:5ULT

⁵ For even having come to Macedonia, our flesh had no relief at all, but {we were} being afflicted in every {way}—conflicts without, fears within.

UST

⁵ Now to return {to how I traveled}, when we arrived in Macedonia, things did not get easier for us. Instead, we suffered in many ways. Other people quarreled with us, and we ourselves were often afraid.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 7:6ULT

⁶ But God, the one comforting the humble, comforted us by the arrival of Titus,

UST

⁶ However, God encourages people who feel discouraged. He encouraged us by having Titus join {us}.

What comfort did God give to Paul and his companions when they came to Macedonia and were troubled in every way – conflicts on the outside and fears on the inside? (vv6-7)

God comforted them by the arrival of Titus, by the report of the comfort Titus had received from the Corinthian saints, and by the Corinthian's great affection and their sorrow and deep concern for Paul.

2 Corinthians 7:7ULT

⁷ and not only by his arrival, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted by you, reporting to us your longing, your mourning, {and} your zeal for my sake, so that I was caused to rejoice even more.

UST

⁷ {God encouraged us} partly by having Titus join {us}, but even more by how what you did encourages Titus. He has told us that you want {to see me}, that you are sorry {for what you did}, and that you strive to honor me. Because of those things, I rejoiced more {than I did before}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 7:8ULT

⁸ For even if I grieved you in the letter, I do not regret {it}. Even if I was regretting {it} (I see ^[1] that that letter grieved you, if only for an hour),

UST

⁸ I am not sorry {that I wrote the previous letter}, even though I hurt you with what I wrote. In fact, the only reason I would be sorry {that I wrote it} is that I know that the letter hurt you, although only for a little while.

What did Paul's previous letter produce in the Corinthian saints? (vv8-9)

The Corinthian saints experienced grief unto repentance in response to Paul's previous letter.

2 Corinthians 7:9ULT

⁹ now I rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to {the point of} repentance. For you were grieved with respect to God, so that you would not suffer loss in anything through us.

UST

⁹ However, now {that Titus has told us about you,} I am very happy. {I am happy} not because I hurt you. Rather, {I am happy} because when I hurt you, you became sorry {for what you did} and stopped {doing it}. In fact, you felt hurt in a way that honors God. So, we have not deprived you of anything good.

What did Godly sadness produce in the Corinthian saints?

Sadness brought about repentance in them.

2 Corinthians 7:10ULT

¹⁰ For the sorrow with respect to God works repentance towards salvation without regret. But the sorrow of the world produces death.

UST

¹⁰ {That is} because, when people feel hurt in a way that honors God, it causes them to be sorry {for what they did} and stop {doing it}. They are not sorry {that they felt hurt}, because {God uses how they feel} to rescue them. However, when people feel hurt in the way that most people do, {how they feel} eventually causes them to die.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 7:11ULT

¹¹ For behold how much earnestness this same thing produced in you, to be made sorrowful with respect to God: what defense, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, {and} what vindication! In everything you proved yourselves to be pure in this matter.

UST

¹¹ As for you, when you felt hurt in this way that honors God, it certainly caused you to be very eager {to do what is right}. You argued that you were not guilty. You were upset {about what had happened}. You feared {what might happen}. You wanted {to see us}. You strove to honor {us}. You punished {the person who had done what was wrong}. By doing all {those things}, you have shown that you have done what is right in response to what happened.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 7:12ULT

¹² So even though I wrote to you, {it was} not for the sake of the one having done wrong, nor for the sake of the one having suffered wrong, but so that your earnestness which {is} on our behalf might be revealed to you before God.

UST

¹² So then, when I sent {the previous letter} to you, I was not primarily dealing with the person who did what was wrong. Also, I was not primarily dealing with the person whom he hurt. Rather, I intended to show you how eager you are {to act rightly} toward us and that God approves {of this}.

Why did Paul say he wrote his previous letter to the Corinthian saints?

Paul said he wrote so that the earnestness of the Corinthian saints for Paul and his companions should be made known to the Corinthian saints in the sight of God.

2 Corinthians 7:13ULT

¹³ Because of this we have been encouraged. Now in addition to our own encouragement, we rejoiced even more abundantly at the joy of Titus, because his spirit had been refreshed by all of you.

UST

¹³ Since you responded in these ways, you have encouraged us. In fact, although you did encourage us, we are even more happy about how you made Titus happy. {You did that} when you all comforted and strengthened him.

Why was Titus joyful?

He was joyful because his spirit was refreshed by all the Corinthian saints.

2 Corinthians 7:14ULT

¹⁴ For if I had boasted anything to him about you, I was not ashamed, but as we spoke everything to you in truth, in the same way also our boasting became the truth to Titus.

UST

¹⁴ {We were this happy} because you did not disgrace me after I had said great things about you to Titus. Instead, Titus found out that the great things we said about you were actually true. {This is} just like how everything we told you was also true.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 7:15ULT

¹⁵ And his affections towards you are more abundant, remembering the obedience of all of you, how you received him with fear and trembling.

UST

¹⁵ Titus recalls how you all obeyed us, particularly how you feared him when he arrived. {Because of that,} he cares about you even more now.

Why did Titus' affection for the Corinthian saints grow even greater?

Titus' affection for the Corinthian saints grew even greater as he remembered the obedience of all the Corinthian saints as they welcomed him with fear and trembling.

2 Corinthians 7:16

ULT

¹⁶ I rejoice that in everything I am confident in you.

7:8 ^[1]

UST

¹⁶ I am happy that I am completely sure that you {are doing what is right}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8

2 Corinthians 8:1

ULT

¹ Now we make known to you, brothers, the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia,

UST

¹ My fellow believers, we want to tell you about what God has graciously enabled the groups of believers {here} in Macedonia province to do.

What did Paul want the Corinthian brothers and sisters to know?

Paul wanted them to know about the grace of God that was given to the churches of Macedonia.

2 Corinthians 8:2

ULT

² that during a severe trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity.

UST

² Even though they suffered very much, which tested {how they would respond}, they were extremely generous. They were very joyful {as they did this}, even though they had very little.

What did the churches of Macedonia do during a great test of affliction, and even though were extremely poor?

They produced great riches of generosity.

2 Corinthians 8:3

ULT

³ For I testify that {they gave} according to their ability, and beyond their ability, of their own accord,

UST

³ In fact, I can tell you that {they offered} as much as they could afford, and even more than they could afford. They were the ones who chose to do this.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:4ULT

⁴ with much urging they pleaded with us {for} the favor and the fellowship of this ministry {that is} to the saints.

UST

⁴ They were very insistent when they urged us to accept {what they were giving}. They wanted to share in serving God's people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:5ULT

⁵ And not as we hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord and then to us, by the will of God.

UST

⁵ Further, they did even more than what we had expected. They dedicated themselves primarily to {serving} the Lord {Jesus} and then also to {serving} us. {That is} just what God wants.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:6ULT

⁶ So we urged Titus that, just as he began, in the same way he would also complete for you this grace as well.

UST

⁶ Because of that, we encouraged Titus to finish accepting what you are giving, especially since he had already started {doing so}.

What did Paul urge Titus to do?

Paul urged Titus to bring to completion this act of grace on the part of the Corinthian saints.

2 Corinthians 8:7ULT

⁷ But even as you abound in everything, in faith and in speech and in knowledge and in all earnestness and in the love from us in you, ^[1] so also you should abound in this act of grace.

UST

⁷ As for you, you are already doing well in so many ways. {This includes} how you trust {God}, what you say, how much you know, how you are always eager {to do what is right}, and how much we love you. So, you should also do well in giving {money for fellow believers}.

In what else did the Corinthian believers abound?

They abounded in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in their love for Paul.

2 Corinthians 8:8ULT

⁸ I say this not according to a command, but also proving the genuineness of your love through the earnestness of others.

UST

⁸ I am not ordering you {to give money}. Rather, I want to show that you really care {for fellow believers} by comparing {what you do} with how other people are always eager {to give money}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:9ULT

⁹ For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that he became poor for your sake {though} being rich so that by the poverty of that one, you might become rich.

UST

⁹ {You should be eager to give money} because you realize that our Lord, Jesus the Messiah, kindly gave up everything he had to help you. {He did that even though} he had very many things. He wanted to give you many things by himself giving up what he had.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:10ULT

¹⁰ And I give my opinion in this, for this is profitable for you, who not only began to do this a year ago, but also to desire {to do it}.

UST

¹⁰ I am telling you what I think about giving money, because hearing what I think helps you. Last year, you both wanted to and did start {giving money}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:11ULT

¹¹ But now also complete {what you began} to do, so that just as {there was} the readiness of the desire, so also {there may be} the completion from what you have.

UST

¹¹ Right now, you should finish what you started. That way, what you finish doing matches what you eagerly wanted {to do}, {which is to give some} of what you have.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:12ULT

¹² For if the readiness is already there, {it is} fully acceptable according to whatever one might have, not according to what he does not have.

UST

¹² Now God approves of {what people give} based on what they have, not based on what they do not have. {This is true} as long as they are eager {to give}.

What does Paul say is a good and acceptable thing?

Paul says it is a good and acceptable thing for the Corinthian saints to have a readiness to do that work.

2 Corinthians 8:13ULT

¹³ For {this is} not so that {there is} relief for others {but} tribulation for you, but out of equality.

UST

¹³ So, it is not that I want you to suffer while other believers do well. Rather, I want {believers to share what they have} equally.

Does Paul want this task to be done so others may be relieved and the Corinthian saints may be burdened? (vv13-14)

No. Paul said the Corinthians' abundance at that current time would supply what they (the other saints) needed, and so that their abundance might also supply the Corinthian saints' need, and so that there might be fairness.

2 Corinthians 8:14ULT

¹⁴ At the present time, your abundance {is} for the lack of those ones, so that also the abundance of those ones may be for your need, so that there may be equality.

UST

¹⁴ Right now, how much you have can help people who do not have much. Then, when those people have much and you have little, they can help you. That way, believers share {what they have} equally.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:15ULT

¹⁵ just as it is written: "The one {gathering} much did not have too much, and the one {gathering} little did not have too little."

UST

¹⁵ {We want it to be} like what someone wrote {when God powerfully gave food to the Israelites}: "The people who had much did not have more than they needed. The people who had little did not have less than they needed."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:16ULT

¹⁶ But thanks {be} to God, the one placing the same earnestness on your behalf into the heart of Titus.

UST

¹⁶ We thank God for causing Titus to be eager {to care} for you, just like we are.

What did Titus do after God put into his heart the same earnest care that Paul had for the Corinthian saints? (vv16-17)

Titus accepted Paul's appeal, and being very earnest about it, he came to the Corinthian saints of his own free will.

2 Corinthians 8:17ULT

¹⁷ For he not only accepted our appeal, but being very eager, he has gone to you of his own accord.

UST

¹⁷ Indeed, he is visiting you partly because he listened to us urging him {to do so}. Mostly, however, {he is visiting you} because he is so eager {to care for you} that he himself chose {to visit you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:18ULT

¹⁸ Now we have sent together with him the brother of whom is the praise throughout all of the churches in the gospel,

UST

¹⁸ We have chosen a fellow believer to go with Titus. Many groups of believers commend him {because of what he does} for the sake of the good news.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:19ULT

¹⁹ And not only this, but he also was chosen by the churches as our traveling companion, along with this grace that is being administered by us to the glory of the Lord, and {to show} our readiness;

UST

¹⁹ More than that, the groups of believers selected him to travel with me. He is helping us as we work to accept {money for the believers in Jerusalem}. {Accepting this money} honors the Lord {God} and demonstrates how eager we are {to care for fellow believers}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:20ULT

²⁰ avoiding this, that no one might blame us concerning this generosity being administered by us.

UST

²⁰ So, we are doing what we can to keep others from criticizing us for what we do {with this money} that people have generously given.

What was Paul careful to avoid in his actions concerning this act of generosity?

Paul was careful to avoid giving anyone reason to complain about his actions.

2 Corinthians 8:21ULT

²¹ For we consider beforehand {what is} good, not only before the Lord, but also before men.

UST

²¹ As you can see, before {we started to collect this money}, we planned how to do it well. {We considered} what the Lord {God} thinks, but we also {considered} what other people think.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:22ULT

²² Now we sent our brother with them, whom we proved in many ways, {and} often being eager. But now he is even more eager {because of his} great confidence that {he has} in you.

UST

²² We have chosen another fellow believer to go with Titus and the other man {I have been speaking about}. We have tested him and know for sure that he is eager {to serve God}. In fact, because he is very confident that you {will do what is right}, right now he is particularly eager {to serve with you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:23ULT

²³ As for Titus, {he is} my partner and fellow worker for you. As {for} our brothers, {they are} messengers of the churches, a glory of Christ.

UST

²³ {I recommend these men.} Titus joins me {in what I do} and works with me to help you. The groups of believers send the other two fellow believers, and they honor the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 8:24

ULT

²⁴ Therefore, prove to them to the faces of the churches the proof of your love and of our boasting about you.
8:7 ^[1]

UST

²⁴ So then, show these three men and also the groups of believers that you really do care {for fellow believers} and that the great things we say about you really are true.

What did Paul tell the Corinthian saints to do concerning the brothers that were sent to them by the other churches?

Paul told the Corinthian church to show them their love and to show them why Paul had boasted about the Corinthian church among the other churches.

2 Corinthians 9

2 Corinthians 9:1

ULT

¹ For concerning the ministry {that is} to the saints, it is excessive for me to write to you.

UST

¹ Really, though, I do not need to say anything to you about how we are serving God's people {in Jerusalem}.

About what does Paul say it is not necessary to write to the Corinthian saints?

Paul says it isn't necessary to write to them concerning the ministry for the saints.

2 Corinthians 9:2

ULT

² For I know your readiness, {of} which I boast to the Macedonians concerning you, that Achaia has been ready since last year, and your zeal stirred up most {of them}.

UST

² {That is} because I recognize how eager you are {to give}. In fact, I say great things about you to the believers in Macedonia province. {I tell them} that you believers in Achaia province were already preparing {to give} last year. How eager you were {to give} has encouraged most of them {to give also}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 9:3

ULT

³ But I sent the brothers so that our boasting which {is} about you might not be futile in this matter {and} so that you might be ready, as I was saying.

UST

³ However, {although we know that you are eager}, we have chosen these {three} fellow believers to visit you to make sure that the great things we say about how you are eager {to give} prove true. {They are visiting you} so that you can finish preparing {to give} and in this way match what I have told {the Macedonians about you}.

Why did Paul send the brothers to Corinth?

He sent the brothers so that his boasting about the Corinthian saints might not be futile, and so that the Corinthian saints would be ready, as Paul said they would be.

2 Corinthians 9:4ULT

⁴ Otherwise, if Macedonians might come with me and might find you unprepared, we would be ashamed—not to mention you—by this situation. ^[1]

UST

⁴ On the other hand, {think about what would happen} were some believers from Macedonia province to visit you with me and discover that you had not finished preparing {to give}. How you had acted would shame even us, and {it would} most definitely {shame} you.

Why did Paul think it necessary to urge the brothers to go to the Corinthian saints and make arrangements in advance for the gift the Corinthians had promised? (vv4-5)

Paul thought it necessary so that Paul and his companions would not be put to shame in case any Macedonians came with Paul and found the Corinthians unprepared. Paul wanted the Corinthians to be ready with the gift as one freely offered and not because the Corinthians were forced to give it.

2 Corinthians 9:5ULT

⁵ So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers that they should go to you beforehand and prepare in advance this promised blessing of yours, to be ready in this way as a blessing and not as something forced.

UST

⁵ Because of that, I decided that I needed to ask these {three} fellow believers to visit you before {I do} and help you with what you said you would give. That way, you will have already prepared what you are giving, and {you will offer it} because you want to and not because we are making you do it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 9:6ULT

⁶ Now this {I say}: the one sowing sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one sowing in blessings will also reap in blessings.

UST

⁶ Here is an example {that illustrates how you should give}. When farmers plant only a few seeds, they harvest only a little food. When farmers plant many seeds, they harvest much food. Much like that, when you help other people, someone will help you in return.

What does Paul say is the point of their giving?

Paul says the point is this: "The one who sows sparingly will reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully."

2 Corinthians 9:7ULT

⁷ {Let} each one {give} just as he has decided beforehand in his heart, not from sorrow or from compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

UST

⁷ Each of you should choose for yourself {how much to give}. Do not {choose how much to give} because you feel hurt or because you have to. {I say that} because God cares for people who give gladly.

How is each one to give?

Each one is to give as he has planned in his heart—not out of compelling obligation or so as to have sorrow when he gives.

2 Corinthians 9:8ULT

⁸ And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in everything, always, having all sufficiency, you may abound in every good work.

UST

⁸ God can graciously give you more than you need. That way, because you always have everything you need in every situation, you can always do everything that is right.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 9:9ULT

⁹ Just as it is written: “He distributed {alms}, he gave to the poor, his righteousness endures to eternity.”

UST

⁹ {You can tell that is true} because someone wrote {about this kind of person} in the Scriptures, “They give to many people. Yes, they help those who have very little. They will do what is right forever.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 9:10ULT

¹⁰ Now the one supplying seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed and will increase the fruits of your righteousness,

UST

¹⁰ God provides the seeds for the one who plants them, and {he provides} food for people to eat. So, he will also provide what you need and give you more of it. Further, when you do what is right, he will use that to accomplish good things.

What was the one who provides seed for the sower and bread for food going to do for the Corinthian saints? (vv10-11)

That one was going to supply and multiply their seed for sowing and increase the harvest of their righteousness. They were going to be enriched in every way so they could be generous.

2 Corinthians 9:11ULT

¹¹ in every way being enriched for all generosity, which produces thanksgiving to God through us,

UST

¹¹ God consistently gives you more than you need so that you can always generously {give to others}. When you give generously and we send your gifts {to fellow believers}, they thank God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 9:12ULT

¹² because the ministry of this service not only is fully supplying the needs of the saints but is also abounding with many thanksgivings to God.

UST

¹² In fact, when you serve God's people {in Jerusalem} by giving {to them}, it provides what they need. Even more, though, it causes them to thank God very much.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 9:13ULT

¹³ Through the proof of this ministry, they are glorifying God on the basis of the obedience of your confession to the gospel of Christ and the generosity of the fellowship toward them and toward everyone,

UST

¹³ You prove yourselves by serving God's people {in Jerusalem}. So then, they will honor God because you actually do what the good news about the Messiah requires, {which is the same good news} that you say you believe. {They will honor God} also because you generously share {what you have} with them and with all {believers}.

How did the Corinthian saints glorify God?

They glorified God by the obedience of their confession to the gospel of Christ and the generosity of their gift.

2 Corinthians 9:14ULT

¹⁴ and in their prayer on your behalf, longing for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you.

UST

¹⁴ Further, they will want {to see} you as they pray for you, since you give very graciously as God enables you to.

Why did the other saints long for the Corinthian saints as they prayed for them?

They longed for them because of the exceedingly great grace of God that was upon the Corinthians.

2 Corinthians 9:15ULT

¹⁵ Thanks {be} to God for his indescribable gift!
9:4 ^[1]

UST

¹⁵ We thank God for giving us these things that are more wonderful than we can say!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 10

2 Corinthians 10:1

ULT

¹ Now I, Paul, myself—who {am} meek {when} face to face among you, but being absent, am bold toward you—appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ.

UST

¹ Now I {will speak about} myself, Paul. I am humbly and reasonably urging you {to do what is right}, just like the Messiah {was humble and reasonable}. {Some people say that} when I was with you in person, I was gentle with you, but now, when I am away, I am forceful with you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 10:2

ULT

² Now I am pleading that, being present, {I will} not {need} to be bold with the confidence with which I plan to be courageous against some of the ones regarding us as walking according to the flesh.

UST

² I do intend to be forceful when I boldly act against these people who think that I and those {who serve} with me act in merely human ways. So, I ask you {to do what is right} so that I will not need to be forceful with you too when I visit you.

What did Paul beg of the Corinthian saints?

Paul begged of them that when he was present with them, he would not have to be bold with self-confidence.

For what occasion did Paul think he would have to be bold with self-confidence?

Paul thought he would have to be bold with self-confidence when he opposed those who supposed that Paul and his companions were living according to the flesh.

2 Corinthians 10:3

ULT

³ For {though} walking in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh.

UST

³ In fact, although we act as humans, we do not defend ourselves in merely human ways.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 10:4ULT

⁴ For the weapons of our warfare {are} not fleshly, but {are} powerful to God for the tearing down of strongholds, tearing down strategies

UST

⁴ In fact, what we use to defend ourselves is not what humans normally use. Rather, God empowers {what we use to defend ourselves} so that we can defeat what other people powerfully argue.

When Paul and his companions waged war, what kind of weapons did they not use?

Paul and his companions did not use fleshly weapons when they waged war.

What did the weapons that Paul used have the power to do?

The weapons Paul used had divine power to destroy strongholds.

2 Corinthians 10:5ULT

⁵ and every high thing raising itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive into the obedience of Christ;

UST

⁵ {We} also {defeat} anything that people claim is greater than knowing God. Further, we work to influence everything that people think so that they obey the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 10:6ULT

⁶ and being in readiness to avenge every act of disobedience, when your obedience would be complete.

UST

⁶ At the time when you fully obey {the Messiah}, we will be ready to punish anyone who disobeys {him}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 10:7ULT

⁷ Look at the things according to appearance. If anyone is confident in himself that he is of Christ, let him consider this again concerning himself: that just as he {is} of Christ, so also {are} we.

UST

⁷ Think about what is obvious. Suppose that people are sure that they represent the Messiah. Those people need to remember that we too represent the Messiah, just like they do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 10:8ULT

⁸ For even if I might boast somewhat excessively about our authority, which the Lord gave for building up and not for your tearing down, I will not be ashamed,

UST

⁸ Indeed, I do not disgrace myself when I say many great things about how the Lord {Jesus} has empowered us to represent him. {He did that} so that we could encourage and help you {to trust God more}, not so that we could discourage you {from trusting God}.

For what reason did the Lord give Paul and his companions authority?

The Lord gave Paul and his companions authority so they could build up the Corinthian saints and not destroy them.

2 Corinthians 10:9ULT

⁹ so that I would not seem as if to terrify you through my letters.

UST

⁹ So, {you can tell that} I am not trying to scare you when I send {forceful} letters to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 10:10ULT

¹⁰ For {someone} says, "Indeed, his letters {are} weighty and forceful, but his bodily presence {is} weak, and his speech is despised."

UST

¹⁰ {I write that} because some people say {about me}, "He sends severe and powerful letters to us, but he is feeble and speaks very poorly when he is with us."

What were some people saying about Paul and his letters?

Some were saying Paul's letters were serious and powerful, but physically he was weak and his speech was not worth listening to.

2 Corinthians 10:11ULT

¹¹ Let such {a person} consider this, that such as we are in our word through letters being absent, such {we are} also in our deed being present.

UST

¹¹ People who say those things need to realize that what we write in our letters {to you} when we are not with you is also how we act when we are with you.

What did Paul say to those who thought he was much different in person than his letters indicated?

Paul said that what he said by letter when he was away would be the same as he would do when he was there with the Corinthians saints.

2 Corinthians 10:12ULT

¹² For we do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of the ones commending themselves. But these—measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves with themselves—do not understand.

UST

¹² We are too humble to say that we are as good as people {you know} who say that they are trustworthy. Those people are foolish. {When they say that they are great,} they are looking only at themselves.

What did those who praised themselves do to show they had no insight?

They showed they had no insight because they measured themselves by one another and compared themselves with each other.

2 Corinthians 10:13ULT

¹³ We, however, will not boast to the immeasurable things, but according to the measure of the limit that God has assigned to us, a measure that reached even as far as you.

UST

¹³ In contrast, we do not say great things about ourselves beyond what we actually do. Rather, {we say great things about ourselves} that match with what God has given us to do. That includes what we do whenever we are with you.

What were the limits of Paul's boasting?

Paul said his boasting would stay in the area that God had assigned to them, even reaching as far as the Corinthians. Paul said they would not boast about the labor of others, about the work being done in another's area.

2 Corinthians 10:14ULT

¹⁴ For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we did not reach to you, for we came even as far as you with the gospel of Christ,

UST

¹⁴ In fact, only if we had not actually visited you would {what God has given us to do} not include you. Of course, we really have already visited you {and told you} the good news about the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 10:15ULT

¹⁵ not boasting to the immeasurable things in the labors of others, but having hope, {as} your faith increases, to be enlarged among you according to our limit to abundance

UST

¹⁵ We do not say great things about ourselves because of what others do but because of what we actually do. In fact, we confidently expect that God will give us even more to do with you. {That will happen} when you trust {God} more.

What were the specific limits of Paul's boasting? (vv15-16)

Paul said their boasting would stay in the area that God had assigned to them, even reaching as far as the Corinthians. Paul said they would not boast about the labor of others, about the work being done in another's area.

2 Corinthians 10:16ULT

¹⁶ to preach the gospel in the {places} beyond you—not to boast in the things accomplished in another’s area.

UST

¹⁶ That way, we can tell the good news to people who live even further away from us than you do. {That is what we plan to do} instead of saying great things about ourselves because of how other people have done what God has given them to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 10:17ULT

¹⁷ But “let the one boasting, boast in the Lord.”

UST

¹⁷ {Everyone should do what the prophet Jeremiah wrote,} “Anyone who says great things should say them about the Lord {God}.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 10:18ULT

¹⁸ For that one commending himself is not approved, but whom the Lord commends.

UST

¹⁸ {Everyone should do that} because the Lord {Jesus} recommends those whom he says are trustworthy, not those who say that about themselves.

Who is the one who is approved?

The one who is approved is the one the Lord commends.

2 Corinthians 11

2 Corinthians 11:1

ULT

¹ I wish that you would bear with me in a little bit of foolishness, but you are indeed bearing with me!

UST

¹ {Next,} I hope that you will be patient with me as I say a few things {that I consider} foolish. I know that you are patient with me!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:2

ULT

² For I am jealous {for} you with a godly jealousy, for I joined you to one husband, to present {you} {as} a pure virgin to Christ.

UST

² {I will say foolish things} because I am protective of you as God is protective of you. In fact, when I told you the good news, I was like a father who promised to give you to a man as his wife. Just like this father wants his daughter to be with only this one man, so I want you to trust only in the Messiah.

Why did Paul have a godly jealousy for the Corinthian saints?

He was jealous for them because he had promised them in marriage to one husband, to present them as pure virgins for Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:3

ULT

³ But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds might be corrupted from the sincerity and the purity {that are} to Christ.

UST

³ However, I fear that someone {will trick you}, just as Satan cleverly tricked Eve{, the first woman}. {I fear that such a person} will ruin how you think in ways that are completely loyal to the Messiah.

What was Paul afraid of concerning the Corinthian saints?

Paul was afraid their thoughts might be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:4ULT

⁴ For if indeed one coming proclaims another Jesus whom we did not proclaim, or you receive a different spirit which you did not receive or a different gospel which you did not accept, you are bearing with {it} well!

UST

⁴ {I fear for you} because {I know that} people visit you and tell you about Jesus, but it is not the same Jesus we told you about. Others offer you a spirit, but it is not the Holy Spirit that we offered to you. Others proclaim good news to you, but it is not the same good news that you first believed. Despite that, you are very patient {when people tell you about these things}.

What did the Corinthian saints tolerate?

They tolerated someone coming and proclaiming another Jesus, a different gospel than the one Paul and his companions preached.

2 Corinthians 11:5ULT

⁵ For I consider {myself} not to fall short of the “super-apostles.”

UST

⁵ {I want you to believe what we first told you} because I think that the Messiah acts through me as much as through those who say that they represent him the best.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:6ULT

⁶ But even if I am untrained in this speech, yet not in this knowledge, but in everything having made this clear to you in all things.

UST

⁶ Although I have not learned how to speak very well, despite that, {I have learned} to know {what is true}. I show you that this is true whenever I say or do anything.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:7ULT

⁷ Or did I commit a sin, humbling myself so that you yourselves might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you without payment?

UST

⁷ You know that I did not sin against you when I did not ask you to pay me for proclaiming to you the good news from God. {By doing that,} I made myself less important to make you more important.

How did Paul preach the gospel to the Corinthians?

Paul preached the gospel freely to the Corinthians.

2 Corinthians 11:8ULT

⁸ I robbed other churches, having accepted a wage for the ministry {to} you.

UST

⁸ {In fact,} I received money from other groups of believers. I accepted their money so that I could serve you.

How did Paul “rob” other churches?

He “robbed” them by accepting support from them so he could serve the Corinthians.

2 Corinthians 11:9ULT

⁹ And being present with you—and having lacked—I did not burden anyone. For the brothers having come from Macedonia completely met my need, and in everything I kept and will {continue to} keep myself {from being} a burden to you.

UST

⁹ Further, when I was with you, I did not have everything that I needed. However, I did not bother any of you {by asking for money}. {I could do that} because our fellow believers who traveled {with me} from Macedonia province gave me everything that I needed. Indeed, in every situation, I did not and never will bother you {by asking for money for myself}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:10ULT

¹⁰ The truth of Christ is in me, that this boasting will not be shut to me in the regions of Achaia.

UST

¹⁰ No one who lives in any part of Achaia province will be able to keep me from saying great things {about how I did not bother you}. What I am saying is as true as if the Messiah were saying it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:11ULT

¹¹ Why? Because I do not love you? God knows {I do}!

UST

¹¹ My reason for {not bothering you} is not that I do not care for you. God can testify {that I do care for you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:12ULT

¹² But what I do I will also {continue to} do so that I may cut off the opportunity of the ones desiring an opportunity that in what they are boasting about they may be found just as we also {are}.

UST

¹² Rather, {here is my reason for why} I will continue not to bother you. That way, I can prevent anyone from being able to say such great things about themselves as we {say about ourselves}. {I know that} some people want to do this.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:13ULT

¹³ For the ones of such kind {are} false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves {as} apostles of Christ.

UST

¹³ Those people are not really those whom the Messiah sent to represent him. They deceive people with what they do, and they can only pretend to represent the Messiah.

How does Paul describe those who wish to be found equal to Paul and his companions in the things about which they boast?

Paul describes such people as false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:14ULT

¹⁴ And no wonder, for Satan himself disguises himself {as} an angel of light.

UST

¹⁴ That should not surprise us. The devil also pretends to be a glorious spiritual being.

How does Satan disguise himself?

He disguises himself as an angel of light.

2 Corinthians 11:15ULT

¹⁵ Therefore, {it is} no great thing if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

UST

¹⁵ So then, we should expect those who serve him also to pretend to help people become righteous. God will eventually give them what they deserve in proportion to what they have done.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:16ULT

¹⁶ I say again: Let no one think me to be foolish. But if not, receive me at least as a fool so that I too may boast a little bit.

UST

¹⁶ I repeat what I said earlier: I do not want anyone to think that I am foolish. However, if you do {think that I am foolish}, you should at least allow me to act in foolish ways. That way, I too can say a few great things about myself.

Why did Paul ask the Corinthian saints to receive him like a fool?

Paul asked them to receive him like a fool so he could boast a little.

2 Corinthians 11:17ULT

¹⁷ What I am saying, I am not saying according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this situation of boasting.

UST

¹⁷ What I am about to say is not how I speak when I am representing the Lord {Jesus}. Rather, I am about to speak foolishly as I prove that I can say great things about myself.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:18ULT

¹⁸ Since many boast according to the flesh, I too will boast.

UST

¹⁸ Many other people say great things about themselves in merely human ways. So, I too will say great things about myself.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:19ULT

¹⁹ For gladly you bear with the foolish, being wise.

UST

¹⁹ {I know that you will listen to me,} because you consider yourselves to be wise people, so you are happy to be patient with other people who act foolishly.

With whom did Paul say the Corinthian saints gladly put up? (vv19-20)

Paul said they gladly put up with the foolish, with someone who enslaved them, with someone who caused divisions among them, with someone who took advantage of them, with one who put on airs, or one who slapped them in the face.

2 Corinthians 11:20ULT

²⁰ For you bear with {it} if anyone enslaves you, if anyone devours {you}, if anyone takes advantage {of you}, if anyone exalts {himself}, if anyone hits you in the face.

UST

²⁰ In fact, you are patient {when people treat you badly}. They may force you to obey them. They may use up what you have. They may cheat you. They may say they are better than you. They may insult you. {However, you are still patient with them.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:21ULT

²¹ According to dishonor I speak, namely that we ourselves have been weak! However, in whatever {way} anyone might be bold—I am speaking in foolishness—I too am bold.

UST

²¹ {If that is the right way for powerful people to treat you, then} I admit {that how we acted when we were with you} shames us and proves that we are weak. On the other hand, whatever other people dare to do, I too can dare to do. Of course, I say these things only because I am acting foolishly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:22ULT

²² Are they Hebrews? I {am} also. Are they Israelites? I {am} also. Are they offspring of Abraham? I {am} also.

UST

²² Those people say they are Jews who speak Hebrew, but I also {am a Jew and speak Hebrew}. They say they are Israelites, but I also {am an Israelite}. They say they are descendants of Abraham, but I also {am a descendant of Abraham}.

What are Paul's boasts comparing himself to those who wish to be found equal with Paul in what they boasted about? (vv22-23)

Paul boasted that he was a Hebrew, an Israelite and a descendant of Abraham just like those who claimed to be equal to Paul. Paul said he was more a servant of Christ than they were—in even more hard work, in far more prisons, in beatings beyond measure, in facing many dangers of death.

2 Corinthians 11:23ULT

²³ Are they servants of Christ? (I speak {as} being insane.) I {am} more so: more abundantly in hard work, more abundantly in imprisonments, in beatings beyond measure, often in {danger of} deaths.

UST

²³ They say they serve the Messiah, but I {serve the Messiah} even more. {Of course,} I am talking like a crazy person. {However,} I have worked harder {than they have}. People have put me in jail more {than them}. People have struck me very many times. I have almost died many times.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 11:24ULT

²⁴ Five times I received from Jews 40 {lashes} minus one.

UST

²⁴ Five different times Jewish leaders had someone strike me {the maximum number of times;} 39.

What were some of the specific dangers Paul endured? (vv24-26)

Paul received five times the “40 lashes minus one” from the Jews. Three times he was beaten with rods. Once he was stoned. Three times he was shipwrecked. He spent a night and a day in the open sea. He was in danger from rivers, from robbers, from his own people, from the Gentiles. He was in danger in the city, in the wilderness, in the sea and in danger from false brothers.

2 Corinthians 11:25ULT

²⁵ Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked. I have spent a night and a day in the deep;

UST

²⁵ Three different times leaders had someone repeatedly hit me with a stick. One time people threw stones at me {to kill me}. Three different times the ship {I was sailing in} sank. I have survived for 24 hours in the middle of the ocean.

2 Corinthians 11:29ULT

²⁹ Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I am not inflamed?

UST

²⁹ When a fellow believer is feeble, I am feeble. When someone causes a fellow believer to sin, I become very angry.

According to Paul, what caused him to burn within?

One causing another to fall into sin made Paul burn within.

2 Corinthians 11:30ULT

³⁰ If it is necessary to boast, I will boast {about} the things of my weakness.

UST

³⁰ Since I need to say great things about myself, I intend to say great things about how feeble I am.

What did Paul say he would boast about, if he had to boast?

Paul said he would boast about what showed his weaknesses.

2 Corinthians 11:31ULT

³¹ The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, the one being blessed to eternity, knows that I am not lying!

What danger afflicted Paul at Damascus?

The governor of Damascus guarded the city to arrest Paul.

2 Corinthians 11:33ULT

³³ But I was lowered in a basket through a window through the wall, and I escaped from his hands.

UST

³³ However, fellow believers helped me get away from the local ruler. {They put me} in a large basket, {attached it to a rope, and} let it down through an opening in the city wall.

2 Corinthians 12

2 Corinthians 12:1

ULT

¹ It is necessary to boast. {It is} not profitable, but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord.

UST

¹ I need to say great things about myself. {So,} although it is not helpful, I am moving on to {speak about} how the Lord {Jesus} specially shows things {to specific people}.

About what did Paul say he would now boast?

Paul said he would go on to boast about visions and revelations from the Lord.

2 Corinthians 12:2

ULT

² I know a man in Christ—whether in the body, I do not know, or out of the body, I do not know, God knows—such a {man} having been caught up to the third heaven 14 years ago.

UST

² Fourteen years ago, God took a certain Christian to the third {level of} heaven. I am not sure whether {God took him there} physically or in a dream or spiritually. Only God can be sure {how it happened}.

What happened to the man in Christ 14 years ago?

He was caught up into the third heaven.

2 Corinthians 12:3

ULT

³ And I know that such a man—whether in body, or out of the body, I do not know, God knows—

UST

³ Now {I will tell you more about} that specific Christian. {Again,} I am not sure whether {God took him to the third level of heaven} physically or in a dream or spiritually. Only God can be sure {how it happened}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 12:4ULT

⁴ that he was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words which are not permitted for a man to speak.

UST

⁴ God took that person into Paradise{, the place in heaven where dead believers are}. There, he heard amazing things that he cannot repeat to anyone.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 12:5ULT

⁵ On behalf of such a {man} I will boast. But on behalf of myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses.

UST

⁵ I could say great things about that{, since the person I have been talking about is me}. However, I will only say great things about how feeble I am.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 12:6ULT

⁶ For even if I desire to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth; but I refrain, {so that} no one would think more of me than what he sees {in} me or hears from me.

UST

⁶ In fact, suppose that I did want to say great things about myself. Since I am speaking truthfully, I would still not be acting foolishly. However, I decide not to {say great things about myself}. {That way,} people can only characterize me by what they observe me saying and doing.

Why does Paul say it would not be foolish if he boasted?

Paul said it would not be foolish for him to boast because he would be speaking the truth.

2 Corinthians 12:7ULT

⁷ And because of the surpassing {nature} of the revelations, therefore, so that I would not become arrogant, a thorn in the flesh was given to me—a messenger of Satan—so that he might buffet me, so that I would not become arrogant. ^[1]

UST

⁷ So then, in order that I might not become proud because God revealed such great things to me, he allowed me to suffer. Specifically, a spiritual being whom Satan sent made me suffer. That way, I might not become proud.

What happened to Paul to keep him from becoming puffed up?

Paul was given a thorn in the flesh, a messenger from Satan to harass him.

2 Corinthians 12:8ULT

⁸ Three times I begged the Lord about this, that he would remove {it} from me.

UST

⁸ I asked the Lord {Jesus} three different times to make me stop suffering in that way.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 12:9ULT

⁹ But he has said to me, “My grace is enough for you, for my power is being made perfect in weakness.” So I will most gladly boast even more in my weaknesses so that the power of Christ might reside upon me.

UST

⁹ He responded by saying to me, “When I act kindly to you, that is all you need. In fact, I make people fully powerful when they are feeble.” Therefore, I will most happily say more great things about how feeble I am. That way, the Messiah will always enable me to act powerfully.

What did the Lord tell Paul after Paul asked the Lord to remove his thorn in the flesh?

The Lord told Paul, “My grace is enough for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.”

Why did Paul say it was preferable to boast about his weakness?

Paul said it was preferable so that the power of Christ might reside in him.

2 Corinthians 12:10ULT

¹⁰ Therefore, I take delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions and distresses for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am powerful.

UST

¹⁰ So then, I am happy {when bad things happen to me} because {I serve} the Messiah. This includes when I am feeble, when people say bad things about me, when people hurt me, when people persecute me, and when I struggle. {I am happy} because {God} empowers me when I am feeble.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 12:11ULT

¹¹ I have become foolish; you yourselves compelled me. For I ought to be commended by you, for I lacked nothing of the “super-apostles,” even if I am nothing.

UST

¹¹ I have been speaking foolishly, which is what you forced me to do. {You forced me} because you should be saying that I am trustworthy, {but you are not saying that}. {You should be saying that} because I am just as great as any people who say that they represent the Messiah the best. {That is true} even though I am not great at all.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 12:12ULT

¹² Indeed, the signs of an apostle were performed among you with all endurance—both signs and wonders and miracles.

UST

¹² I persevered in acting in the ways that prove to you that I really am one whom the Messiah sent to represent him. I did powerful and amazing things.

What was performed among the Corinthians with all patience?

Signs wonders and mighty deeds, the true signs of an apostle, were performed among them with all patience.

2 Corinthians 12:13ULT

¹³ For what is {the way} that you were {treated} worse than the remaining churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this injustice!

UST

¹³ Further, I did not treat you like you were less important than any other group of believers. The only way {I acted differently with you} was that I did not bother you {by asking you for money}. If that was actually wrong, please forgive me for doing it!

2 Corinthians 12:14ULT

¹⁴ Behold! I am ready to come to you this third time, and I will not burden you. For I do not seek the things of yours, but you. For the children should not store up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

UST

¹⁴ Pay attention! I am about to visit you for the third time. Yet again, I will not bother you {by asking for money}. {That is} because I want you {to trust me and the Messiah}. {I do not want} the things that you have. In fact, since I am like your parent, I should be saving money for you. Further, since you are like my children, you should not be saving money for me.

Why did Paul tell the Corinthians he would not be a burden to them?

Paul told them this to show them that he did not want what was theirs. He wanted them.

2 Corinthians 12:15ULT

¹⁵ Now I will most gladly spend and be completely spent for the sake of your souls. If loving ^[2] you more abundantly, am I to be loved less?

UST

¹⁵ I will most happily do and experience anything to help you. When I love you more {than I did before}, you should not love me less {than you did before}.

What did Paul say he would most gladly do for the Corinthian saints?

Paul said he would most gladly spend and be spent for their souls.

2 Corinthians 12:16ULT

¹⁶ But let it be {so}, I myself did not burden you, but being crafty, I caught you by deceit.

UST

¹⁶ You can agree, then, that I personally did not bother you {by asking for money}. However, perhaps I am a clever person. {Maybe} I somehow tricked you into giving me {money}.

2 Corinthians 12:17ULT

¹⁷ {There is} no one whom I have sent to you, that through him I took advantage of you, is there?

UST

¹⁷ {However,} I have not had anyone visit you who has acted for me by cheating you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 12:18ULT

¹⁸ I urged Titus {to go} and sent the {other} brother with {him}. Unless Titus took advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? {Did we} not {walk} in the same footsteps?

UST

¹⁸ {For example,} I asked Titus {to visit you}, and I had a fellow believer go with him. {You know that} Titus did not cheat you. He and I live the same way and do the same things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 12:19ULT

¹⁹ Do you think all of this time that we are defending ourselves to you? Before God in Christ we are speaking. But all these things, beloved, {are} for the sake of your building up.

UST

¹⁹ You should know that the reason why we have said these things is not to explain to you that I and those who serve with me are trustworthy. Rather, as those whom God has united to the Messiah, we have been saying what pleases God. Of course, {fellow believers} whom we love, we intend everything we say and do to help you grow.

For what purpose did Paul say all these things to the Corinthian saints?

Paul said all these things to build up the Corinthian saints.

2 Corinthians 12:20ULT

²⁰ For I fear that somehow, having come, I might find you not such as I wish, and I might be found by you not such as you wish; that somehow {there may be} quarreling, jealousy, ragings, rivalries, slanders, gossips, inflated egos, {and} riots,

UST

²⁰ {I have said these things} because I am concerned about {what will happen} when I visit. {I am concerned that} I will discover that you are not acting as I want {you to act} and that you will discover that I am not acting as you want {me to act}. {I am concerned} that you may be fighting {with each other}, being jealous {of each other}, being angry {with each other}, trying to control {each other}, saying bad things {about each other}, telling false stories {about others}, saying great things about yourselves, or stirring up crowds {against each other}.

What was Paul afraid he might find when he went back to the Corinthian saints?

Paul was afraid that among them he would find arguments, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, gossip, pride, and disorder.

2 Corinthians 12:21ULT

²¹ that when I come again, my God might humble me before you, and I would mourn over many of the ones having sinned before and not having repented from the impurity and sexual immorality and debauchery that they did.

12:7 ^[1]

12:15 ^[2]

UST

²¹ {I am concerned} about {what will happen} when I visit you this third time. God may make me ashamed about you. Further, I may feel very sad about many people who have previously done what is wrong and have not stopped having improper sex.

What was Paul afraid that God might do to him?

Paul was afraid God might humble Paul before the Corinthian saints.

For what reason does Paul think he might mourn for many of the Corinthian saints who previously sinned?

Paul was afraid they might not have repented of the impurity and sexual immorality and lustful indulgence which they previously practiced.

2 Corinthians 13

2 Corinthians 13:1

ULT

¹ This {will be} the third {time} that I am coming to you. “Every matter must be established on the basis of the mouth of two or three witnesses.”

UST

¹ {The scripture says;} “At least two or three witnesses must say the same thing {about someone} before we can believe that it is true.” {Be aware that} the next time that I visit you will be the third time {that I will be a witness to what you are doing}.

How many times had Paul already come to the Corinthian saints at the time 2 Corinthians was written? (vv1-2)

Paul had already come to them twice at the time 2 Corinthians was written.

2 Corinthians 13:2

ULT

² I have previously said when being present the second {time}, and {though} being absent, I also say now—to those who sinned before and to all the rest—that if I come again, I will not spare {anyone},

UST

² When I visited you the second time, I warned all of you that I was going to punish everyone among you who had been sinning. And now I am warning you again while I am still away from you. When I visit you this third time, I will punish everyone who has been sinning.

2 Corinthians 13:3

ULT

³ since you are seeking proof of the Christ speaking in me, who is not weak toward you but is powerful among you.

UST

³ I tell you this because you have demanded that I prove to you that the Messiah is speaking to you when I speak to you. {You will know this when he disciplines you.} He will not be weak with you; instead, he will work powerfully among you.

Why did Paul tell the Corinthians saints who had sinned and all the rest that if he came again, he would not spare them?

Paul told them this because the Corinthian saints were seeking evidence that Christ was speaking through Paul.

2 Corinthians 13:4ULT

⁴ For he was also crucified as a result of weakness, but he lives as a result of God's power. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him as a result of God's power toward you.

UST

⁴ You see, {as a man,} the Messiah allowed himself to be weak when people nailed him to a cross. But God is powerful, and he has made him alive again. We, too, are weak human beings, as he was. But God also works powerfully in us to make us live as the Messiah does, so we will work powerfully among you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 13:5ULT

⁵ Test yourselves, whether you are in the faith. Examine yourselves. Or do you not fully realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ {is} in you—unless you are unapproved?

UST

⁵ Each of you should ask yourself: "Do I trust the Messiah and live as he directs me?" Each of you should test yourself {in this way}. Then you will know that you truly live as one with Jesus the Messiah. That is true unless, of course, you fail this test.

For what did Paul tell the Corinthian saints to examine and test themselves?

Paul told them to examine and test themselves to see if they were in the faith.

2 Corinthians 13:6ULT

⁶ And I hope that you will realize that we ourselves are not unapproved.

UST

⁶ As for us, I am certain that you will understand that we have passed the test.

What was Paul confident the Corinthian saints would find concerning Paul and his companions?

Paul was confident the Corinthian saints would find that they were not unapproved, but approved by God.

2 Corinthians 13:7ULT

⁷ Now we pray to God that you may not do anything wrong, not so that we ourselves might be seen {as} approved, but so that you yourselves might do the good, even if we ourselves might be as unapproved.

UST

⁷ We pray to God that you may not be doing any bad things. We pray for this, not because we want people to consider that we have been successful {in disciplining you}, but so that you would be doing good things. We want this for you even if it means that people consider that we have failed {because you did not need us}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 13:8ULT

⁸ For we are not able {to do} anything against the truth, but only on behalf of the truth.

UST

⁸ We want you to do good things {even if then we cannot discipline you and appear to be powerful} because we must obey God's true message. We cannot do anything that contradicts God's true message.

What did Paul say that he and his companions were not able to do?

Paul said they were not able to do anything against the truth.

2 Corinthians 13:9ULT

⁹ For we rejoice whenever we ourselves are weak but you yourselves are powerful. We also pray for this: for your restoration.

UST

⁹ We are happy when {people think that} we are weak, because you are strong {in obeying God} {without needing discipline from us}. This is the very thing that we pray for, that you may decide to trust and obey God completely.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 13:10ULT

¹⁰ Because of this, I write these things being absent so that, being present, I would not treat {you} harshly according to the authority which the Lord gave to me for building up and not for tearing down.

UST

¹⁰ It is because I want you to trust and obey God completely that I am writing to you about these things while I am apart from you. Then when I come to you, I will not have to discipline you severely. The Lord has empowered me to represent him, but he did that so that I could encourage and help you {to trust God more}, not so that I could discourage you {from trusting God}.

Why did Paul write these things to the Corinthian saints while he was away from them?

Paul did this so that when he was with them, he would not have to act harshly toward them.

How did Paul want to use the authority the Lord gave him with regard to the Corinthian saints?

Paul wanted to use his authority to build up the Corinthian saints and not tear them down.

2 Corinthians 13:11ULT

¹¹ Finally, brothers, rejoice! Be restored, be encouraged, think the same, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.

UST

¹¹ Here are the last things that I want to say to you, my fellow believers. Be joyful! Live in the way that God wants you to live. Let the things that I have said to you encourage you {to trust God more}. Agree with each other {about the important things}. Live peacefully with each other. {If you do these things,} God will be with you. He is the one who enables you to love and to be peaceful with others.

In concluding, what did Paul want the Corinthians to do? (vv11-12)

Paul wanted them to rejoice, to work for restoration, to agree with one another, to live in peace, and to greet each other with a holy kiss.

2 Corinthians 13:12ULT

¹² Greet each other with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. ^[1]

UST

¹² Greet each other affectionately in a way that is appropriate for those who are members of God's family. All of God's people {here} send greetings to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 13:13ULT

¹³ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit {be} with all of you. ^[2]

13:12 ^[1]

13:13 ^[2]

UST

¹³ May the Lord Jesus the Messiah act kindly toward you, may God love you, and may the Holy Spirit be with you and join you all together.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Corinthians 13:14ULT*What did Paul want all the Corinthian saints to have with them?

Paul wanted them all to have the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit.

Galatians

Galatians 1

Galatians 1:1

ULT

¹ Paul, an apostle—not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, the one having raised him from the dead—

UST

¹ I, Paul, write this letter to you. {I remind you that} God sent me to represent him. That is not because a group of people appointed me, nor because a human being sent me to be an apostle. Instead, I am an apostle because Jesus the Messiah and God the Father have appointed and sent me to be an apostle—yes, God the Father, who made the Messiah alive again after he died!

How did Paul become an apostle?

Paul became an apostle through Jesus Christ and God the Father.

Galatians 1:2

ULT

² and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia:

UST

² All the fellow believers who are here with me {approve of this message that I am writing}. I am sending this letter to the congregations that are in the province of Galatia.

Galatians 1:4ULT

⁴ the one having given himself for our sins so that he might deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,

UST

⁴ The Messiah offered himself as a sacrifice in order that he might remove the guilt for the sinful things we have done. He did that in order that he might enable us to not do the evil things that people who do not know him do. He did this because God, who is our Father, wanted it.

From what have believers in Jesus Christ been delivered?

Believers in Jesus Christ have been delivered from this present evil age.

Galatians 1:5ULT

⁵ to whom {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

UST

⁵ {Because that is true,} let us praise God forever and ever. May it be so!

Galatians 1:6ULT

⁶ I am amazed that you are turning away so quickly to a different gospel from the one having called you in the grace of Christ,

UST

⁶ I am very disappointed that so soon after you trusted in the Messiah you are turning away from God. God chose you to be in a relationship that is based on the kindness of the Messiah. I am also disappointed that so soon you are believing a different message which some say is "good news."

With what is Paul amazed with the church in Galatia?

Paul is amazed that they are turning so quickly to a different gospel.

Galatians 1:7ULT

⁷ which is not another, except there are certain ones causing you trouble and wanting to pervert the gospel of Christ.

UST

⁷ Their message is not a true message. What is happening is that certain persons are confusing your minds. They are desiring to change the good news about the Messiah and are creating another message.

How many true gospels are there?

There is only one true gospel, the gospel of Christ.

Galatians 1:8ULT

⁸ But even if we or an angel from heaven might proclaim to you a gospel other than the one we proclaimed to you, let him be cursed.

UST

⁸ But even if we apostles or an angel from heaven would tell you a message that is different from the good news that we told you before, I appeal to God that he would punish such a person forever.

What does Paul say should happen to anyone proclaiming a different gospel than the gospel of Christ? (vv8-9)

Paul says anyone proclaiming a different gospel should be cursed.

Galatians 1:9ULT

⁹ As we have said before, and now I say again, "If anyone proclaims to you a gospel other than the one you received, let him be cursed."

UST

⁹ As we told you previously, so now I tell you this once more: Someone is telling you what he says is good news, but it is a message that is different from the good news that I gave you. So I appeal to God that he eternally condemn that person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 1:10ULT

¹⁰ For am I now trying to persuade men, or God? Or am I seeking to please men? If I were still pleasing men, I would not be a servant of Christ.

UST

¹⁰ I said that because I do not desire that people approve me, contrary to what some people have said about me. It is God whom I desire to approve me. Specifically, I do not say and do things just to please people. If it were still people whom I was trying to please, then I would not be one who willingly and completely serves the Messiah.

Servants of Christ must seek the approval of whom first?

Servants of Christ must seek the approval of God first.

Galatians 1:11ULT

¹¹ For I make known to you, brothers, that the gospel having been proclaimed by me is not according to man.

UST

¹¹ My fellow believers, I want you to know that the message about the Messiah that I proclaim to people is not one that some person created.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 1:12ULT

¹² For neither I did receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but by revelation of Jesus Christ.

UST

¹² I was not given this good news by a human being, and no human being taught it to me. Instead, it was God who revealed Jesus the Messiah to me.

How did Paul receive the knowledge of the gospel of Christ?

Paul received the gospel of Christ by revelation from Jesus Christ directly to himself.

Galatians 1:13ULT

¹³ For you have heard about my former manner of life in Judaism, that I was persecuting the church of God beyond measure, and I was destroying it.

UST

¹³ People have told you how I used to behave when I practiced the Jewish religion. They told you that I continually did very harmful things to the groups of believers belonging to God, and they told you that I tried to get rid of those people.

What was Paul doing in his life before he received the revelation of the gospel of Christ? (vv13-14)

Paul was following Judaism zealously, persecuting the church of God and destroying it.

Galatians 1:14ULT

¹⁴ And I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of the same age among my race, being far more zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

UST

¹⁴ I was practicing the Jewish religion more thoroughly than many other Jews who were my age were practicing it. I was also trying much more enthusiastically to get others to obey the traditions that my ancestors kept.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 1:15ULT

¹⁵ But when the one having set me apart from the womb of my mother and having called {me} through his grace was pleased

UST

¹⁵ Nevertheless, before I was born God selected me for a special task and he kindly chose me. When God thought that it was good,

When did God choose Paul to be his apostle?

God was pleased to choose Paul from his mother's womb to be his apostle.

Galatians 1:16ULT

¹⁶ to reveal his Son in me, so that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood,

UST

¹⁶ he showed me who his Son really is. He did this so that I would tell others the good news about his Son in regions where the non-Jews live. But I did not immediately go to any human beings in order to gain an understanding of that message.

For what purpose did God choose Paul as his apostle?

God chose Paul as his apostle so that Paul would proclaim Christ among the Gentiles.

Galatians 1:17ULT

¹⁷ nor did I go up to Jerusalem to the ones {being} apostles before me. Instead, I went to Arabia and again returned to Damascus.

UST

¹⁷ I also did not immediately leave Damascus and go to Jerusalem {for that purpose} to those who were representatives of Jesus before I was. Rather, I went away into the region of Arabia{, a desert area}. Later I returned once more to the city of Damascus.

Galatians 1:18ULT

¹⁸ Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and I stayed with him fifteen days.

UST

¹⁸ Then three years after {God revealed this good news to me,} I went up to the city of Jerusalem in order that I might meet Peter. {But} I remained with him for {only} fifteen days.

Where did Paul finally meet some of the other apostles? (vv18-19)

Finally, Paul went to Jerusalem and met the apostles Cephas and James.

Galatians 1:19ULT

¹⁹ But I did not see any of the other apostles except James, the brother of the Lord.

UST

¹⁹ I also saw James, the brother and representative of our Lord Jesus, but I did not see any other representatives of Jesus.

UST

²² At that time people in the Christian congregations who were in the province of Judea still had not met me personally

What were the churches in Judea hearing about Paul? (vv22-23)

The churches in Judea were hearing that Paul, who once persecuted the church, was now proclaiming the faith.

Galatians 1:23

ULT

²³ But they were only hearing, "The one formerly persecuting us is now proclaiming the faith which he formerly was destroying,"

UST

²³ They only heard others say about me repeatedly, "Paul, the one who in the past was doing harmful things to us, is now telling the same message which we believe and which formerly he was trying to cause people to stop believing!"

Galatians 2

Galatians 2:1

ULT

¹ Then after 14 years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, also taking Titus along with {me}.

UST

¹ After fourteen years passed, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas. I also took Titus.

What did Paul do when he went up to Jerusalem after 14 years? (vv1-2)

Paul spoke privately to the leaders of the church, explaining to them the gospel that he was proclaiming.

Galatians 2:2

ULT

² Now I went up according to a revelation and set before them the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, but privately to the ones seeming to be important, lest I might run—or had run—in vain.

UST

² I went up there because of what God revealed to me. {It was not because someone asked me to come.} I told people the content of the good news that I preach to non-Jews. But I spoke privately to those whom your new teachers highly respect so that what I was doing and what I had done might not become useless. That could have happened if people rejected my message because they thought that I was teaching falsely, which could have happened if the leaders in Jerusalem would have disagreed with my message}.

Galatians 2:3

ULT

³ But not even Titus, the one with me, being a Greek, was forced to be circumcised.

UST

³ But those leaders did not even require Titus, who was with me and was an uncircumcised Gentile, to be circumcised.

What was Titus, a Gentile, not required to do?

Titus was not required to be circumcised.

Galatians 2:4ULT

⁴ But it was because of the secretly brought in false brothers, who came in secretly to spy on our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus so that they will enslave us,

UST

⁴ But this problem occurred because {some people demanded that Titus be circumcised} after they had successfully pretended that they were fellow believers and associated with the true believers. They associated with the true believers in order that they might observe closely what we do because we are free from having to obey all the Jewish laws and rituals because of our close relationship with the Messiah Jesus. Those people wanted to make us like slaves of those rituals {by convincing us that we cannot trust the Messiah solely but that we must also obey all the Jewish laws and rituals}.

What did the false brothers desire to do?

The false brothers desired to make Paul and his companions slaves to the law.

Galatians 2:5ULT

⁵ we did not even yield in submission to them for an hour, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with you.

UST

⁵ But not even briefly did we do what they wanted regarding circumcision. We resisted them in order that you might continue to have, and benefit from, the true, correct, and unmodified good news.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 2:6ULT

⁶ But from the ones seeming to be something (what sort they were formerly matters nothing to me; God does not accept the face of man)—for, the ones seeming important added nothing to me.

UST

⁶ The leaders in Jerusalem, whom your new teachers respect, did not add anything to what I proclaim. And I would add that what status those leaders had did not influence me, because God does not favor important and powerful persons more than others.

Did the leaders of the church in Jerusalem change Paul's message?

No, they added nothing to Paul's message.

Galatians 2:7ULT

⁷ But on the contrary, having seen that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcision, just as Peter to the circumcision

UST

⁷ Instead {of those leaders adding to the content of the message that I tell people,} they understood that God had given me the good news so that I might proclaim it to the non-Jews, just like God had given the good news to Peter so that he might tell it to those who are Jews.

To whom was Paul primarily sent to proclaim the gospel? (vv7-8)

Paul was primarily sent to the uncircumcised, the Gentiles, to proclaim the gospel.

To whom was Peter primarily sent to proclaim the gospel? (vv7-8)

Peter was primarily sent to the circumcised, the Jews, to proclaim the gospel.

Galatians 2:8ULT

⁸ (for the one having worked in Peter for apostleship to the circumcision also worked in me to the Gentiles),

UST

⁸ That is, just like God had authorized and empowered Peter in order that he might be a representative of Jesus to take God's message to the Jews, he also had authorized and empowered me in order that I might be a representative of Jesus to take God's message to the non-Jews.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 2:9ULT

⁹ and having understood the grace having been given to me, James and Cephas and John, the ones seeming to be pillars, gave the right hand of fellowship to Barnabas and me, so that we to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision,

UST

⁹ Those leaders knew that God had kindly given to me this special mission. So James, Peter, and John, the ones whom your new teachers respect because they are leaders of the believers, shook hands with us to show that they agreed that Barnabas and I are serving the Lord just like they are, and that we are preaching the same message that they are preaching. They also agreed that we are the ones whom God was sending to tell his message to non-Jews, but that God is sending them to tell his message to Jews.

How did the leaders in Jerusalem show their approval of Paul's ministry?

The leaders in Jerusalem gave Paul and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship to show their approval.

Galatians 2:10ULT

¹⁰ only that we should continue to remember the poor, this same thing that I was also eager to do.

UST

¹⁰ They only urged us to still remember to help the poor among the fellow believers who live in Jerusalem. That is exactly what I have been eager to do.

Galatians 2:11ULT

¹¹ But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned.

UST

¹¹ But later, Peter became guilty of doing wrong things. This happened while he was visiting us in the city of Antioch. So I confronted him directly about those things.

What error did Peter make when he came to Antioch? (vv11-12)

Peter stopped eating with the Gentiles, because he feared the men who had been circumcised.

Galatians 2:12ULT

¹² For before certain ones came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles. But when they came, he was withdrawing and was separating himself, being afraid of the ones from the circumcision.

UST

¹² This is what happened: Peter had been eating with the non-Jewish believers there. But then some men came who were from {the group of Jewish believers in Jerusalem that} James {was leading}. These men said that believers should keep the Jewish laws. Peter was afraid of what people who want Jewish believers to keep the Jewish laws might do, and so he began to withdraw from the non-Jews and eat with only the Jewish believers.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 2:13ULT

¹³ And the rest of the Jews also joined with him, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy.

UST

¹³ Also, the other Jewish believers who were in Antioch acted in a way that they knew was not right, along with Peter{, when they separated themselves from the non-Jewish believers}. The result was that {they convinced} even Barnabas to stop associating with the non-Jewish believers!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 2:14ULT

¹⁴ But when I saw that they were not walking correctly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of all {of them}, "If you, being a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?"

UST

¹⁴ I had realized that they were not acting forthrightly and in a manner that was consistent with the correct facts and teachings of the good news about the Messiah. {So when all the fellow believers had come together;} I told Peter {the following:} "Although you are a Jew, you often conduct yourself like non-Jews do by disregarding Jewish laws about food. When you are among non-Jews, you do not customarily conduct yourself at all like Jews do. So, now it is wrong that you are causing non-Jews to think that they must obey all the Jewish rituals and customs!"

What did Paul ask Cephas in front of everyone?

Paul asked Cephas how he could force Gentiles to live like Jews when Cephas was living like a Gentile.

Galatians 2:15ULT

¹⁵ We {are} Jews by birth, and not sinners from the Gentiles;

UST

¹⁵ We were born as Jews. {We were} not {born} as non-Jews. We Jews have always considered non-Jews to be •sinners• because they do not obey the Jewish rituals and laws.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 2:16ULT

¹⁶ but knowing that no man is justified by works of the law except through faith in Jesus Christ, we also believed in Christ Jesus so that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law. For by works of the law not any flesh will be justified.

UST

¹⁶ But we Jewish believers now know that it is not because some person obeys those things {that God commanded} in the laws {he gave the Jews} that God makes a person righteous. {God makes a person righteous} only if that person trusts in the Messiah Jesus. So even we Jews have trusted the Messiah Jesus. {We did that} so God would declare us good in his sight, because we trust the Messiah, and not because we try to obey the laws that God gave to Moses. We did that because God has said that he will not declare anyone good in his sight just because they obey those laws.

Paul said that no one is justified by what?

Paul said that no one is justified by the works of the law.

How is a person justified before God?

A person is justified before God by faith in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 2:17ULT

¹⁷ But if, seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves were also found {to be} sinners, {is} Christ then a minister of sin? May it never be!

UST

¹⁷ Furthermore, because we {Jewish believers} desired that God would make us righteous because of our relationship with the Messiah, it means that we ourselves, like non-Jews {whom we called sinners,} also disobeyed the laws and rituals that God gave Moses. But we certainly cannot conclude that it is the Messiah who causes us to sin. No, the Messiah certainly does not cause anyone to sin.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 2:18ULT

¹⁸ For if I again rebuild those things which I destroyed, I prove myself to be a transgressor.

UST

¹⁸ If I again believed that God would make me righteous because of my obeying the laws that he gave to Moses, I would be like a man who rebuilds an old building that he had torn down. If I did that I would show that I was guilty of acting wrongly.

If someone returns to trying to follow the law after having faith in Christ, what does Paul say he has actually become?

Paul says he shows himself actually to be a law breaker.

Galatians 2:19ULT

¹⁹ For I, through the law, died to the law so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ,

UST

¹⁹ I realized that God would not regard me as righteous because I tried to obey the laws that he gave to Moses. So I have decided not to respond to what those laws demand, just like a dead person does not respond to anything. {I decided to do this} so that I may now live to serve God. It is as though I was with the Messiah when he died on the cross.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 2:20ULT

²⁰ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. And that which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith that {is in} the Son of God, the one having loved me and having given himself for me.

UST

²⁰ My old way of living ended since I began believing in the Messiah. No longer am I directing the way I behave as I did before {I believed in the Messiah}. Now the Messiah is directing how I behave. And whatever I do now while I live in my earthly body, I do it by trusting in God's Son. He is the one who loved me and offered himself as a sacrifice for me.

Who did Paul say now lived in him?

Paul said that Christ now lived in him.

What does Paul say the Son of God did for him?

Paul says the Son of God loved him and gave himself for Paul.

Galatians 2:21

ULT

²¹ I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness {is} through the law, then Christ died for nothing!"

UST

²¹ I am not rejecting as useless what God kindly did for me{, as my opponents are doing}. If God considers people to be righteous because they obey the laws that he gave to Moses, then the Messiah died needlessly!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3

Galatians 3:1

ULT

¹ O foolish Galatians! Who bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed {as} crucified?

UST

¹ You {fellow believers} who live in Galatia are acting mindlessly! Someone must have put an evil spell on you! I clearly explained to you what Jesus the Messiah accomplished when he died on the cross.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:2

ULT

² I want to learn only this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by hearing of faith?

UST

² {So,} I want to tell you this one thing: God did not give you his Holy Spirit because you obeyed the laws that he gave Moses. Surely you must know that the reason he gave you his Holy Spirit is because when you heard the good news about the Messiah you believed it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:3

ULT

³ Are you so foolish? Having begun by Spirit, are you now finishing by flesh?

UST

³ You are acting very foolishly! You first became Christians because God's Spirit enabled you. So, you should not now think that it is because of what you do by obeying the laws God gave Moses that you will continue to grow spiritually.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:4ULT

⁴ Have you experienced so many things for nothing—if indeed it was really for nothing?

UST

⁴ {Keep in mind that if} what God has done for you {was because of your obeying the laws that God gave to Moses and not because of trusting in the Messiah then} you suffered many things needlessly! I certainly hope that you did not suffer like that needlessly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:5ULT

⁵ Therefore, the one providing the Spirit to you and working miracles among you, {is it} by works of the law, or by hearing of faith?

UST

⁵ So then, when God now generously gives to you his Spirit and performs mighty deeds among you, it is not because you obey the laws that God gave to Moses? Surely you know it is because when you heard the good news about the Messiah you believed it!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:6ULT

⁶ Just as Abraham “believed God and it was credited to him as righteousness,”

UST

⁶ {What you have experienced is} just as {Moses had written in the scriptures about Abraham. He wrote that} Abraham trusted God, and {as a result,} God considered Abraham as being righteous.

How was Abraham considered righteous before God?

Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.

Galatians 3:7ULT

⁷ know, then, that the ones by faith, these are sons of Abraham.

UST

⁷ You must realize, therefore, that it is those who trust in what the Messiah has done who are like Abraham's descendants {because they trust in God as Abraham did}.

Who are the sons of Abraham?

Those who believe God are the sons of Abraham.

Galatians 3:8ULT

⁸ And the Scripture, having foreseen that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, "In you all the nations will be blessed."

UST

⁸ Furthermore, God planned beforehand that it was when non-Jews trusted him that he would consider them righteous. Moses wrote in the Scriptures this good message that God told Abraham: "Through you, I will bless people in all nations."

The scripture foresaw that the Gentiles would be justified in what way?

The scripture foresaw that the Gentiles would be justified by faith.

Galatians 3:9ULT

⁹ So then, the ones by faith are blessed along with the believing Abraham.

UST

⁹ So, we can conclude that it is those who trust in what the Messiah has done whom God blesses along with Abraham, the one who trusted him {long ago}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:10ULT

¹⁰ For as many as are of works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed {is} everyone who does not abide by all the things written in the Book of the Law to do them."

UST

¹⁰ That is, God will eternally punish all those who mistakenly think that God will consider them righteous as a result of their trying to obey the laws that God gave to Moses. What Moses wrote in the Scriptures is that God will eternally punish everyone who does not continuously and completely obey all the laws that God instructed him to write in the Book of the Law.

Those who rely on the works of the law to be justified are under what?

Those who rely on the works of the law to be justified are under a curse.

Galatians 3:11ULT

¹¹ Now, that no one is justified before God by the law {is} clear, because "The righteous will live by faith."

UST

¹¹ God does not regard any person as righteous as a result of their trying to obey the laws that he gave to Moses. This is evident since {the Scriptures say}, "Every righteous person lives {spiritually} as a result of their trusting {God}."

How many people have been justified by God through the works of the law?

No one has been justified through the works of the law.

Galatians 3:12ULT

¹² Now the law is not by faith, but, "The one doing these things will live in them."

UST

¹² But when God gave his laws to the Jews, he did not make them dependent upon a person believing in him. Instead {God said that} it is those who obey {all} God's laws, continuously and completely, who will live through obeying them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:13ULT

¹³ Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse on behalf of us—for it is written, “Cursed {is} everyone hanging on a tree”—

UST

¹³ Even though we humans have not continuously and completely obeyed God's laws, the Messiah rescued us from God punishing us eternally. The Messiah rescued us by his being the one God condemned instead of God condemning us. What Moses wrote in the Scriptures shows that this is true. He wrote, “God has cursed anyone whom people have executed {for his crimes} by hanging his body on a tree.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:14ULT

¹⁴ so that the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, so that through faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.

UST

¹⁴ {The Messiah rescued us} in order that as a result of what he has done, God might bless the non-Jews, in a way similar to the way God blessed Abraham. The reason for this is that as a result of our trusting in the Messiah, we all might receive the Holy Spirit whom God promised to give to us.

Why did Christ redeem us by becoming a curse for us?

Christ redeemed us by becoming a curse for us so that the blessing upon Abraham might come to the Gentiles.

Galatians 3:15ULT

¹⁵ Brothers, I speak according to man. Nevertheless, no one sets aside or adds to a covenant established by man.

UST

¹⁵ My fellow believers, I will now illustrate by referring to human relationships. After two people have signed an agreement, no one can reject it or add to it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:16ULT

¹⁶ Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, "and to seeds," as to many, but as to one, "and to your seed," who is Christ.

UST

¹⁶ God declared to Abraham and his descendant that he was promising to give blessings to Abraham. The words that God spoke were not "and your descendants." He was not referring to many persons. Instead, he was referring to one person, who is the Messiah, because the words that God spoke were, "and your descendant."

Who was the "descendant" that was spoken of in the promise to Abraham?

The "descendant" spoken of in the promise to Abraham was Christ.

Galatians 3:17ULT

¹⁷ Now I say this: The law, having come after 430 years, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God to nullify the promise.

UST

¹⁷ This is what I am saying: God established an agreement with Abraham that the laws which he gave to the Jews 430 years later could not cancel.

Did the coming of the Jewish law 430 years after Abraham void the promise God made to Abraham?

No, the law did not void the promise made to Abraham.

Galatians 3:18ULT

¹⁸ For if the inheritance {is} from the law, {it is} no longer from promise. But God has graciously given {it} to Abraham through a promise.

UST

¹⁸ I want you to know that if it is because we obey the laws God gave to the Jews that he gives to us what he has promised to give to us, then he would not be giving it because he had promised to do so. However, God kindly gave to Abraham what he had promised to give to him, just because God had promised that he would give it to him. {Similarly,} it is not because we obey God's laws that God kindly gives to us what he has promised to give to us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:19ULT

¹⁹ Why, then, the law? It was added because of transgressions, having been put into effect through angels by the hand of a mediator until the seed would come to whom the promise had been made.

UST

¹⁹ So, if someone should ask, "Why did God later give his laws to Moses?" I would reply that it was in order that people might realize how sinful they were. Those laws were valid until Jesus came. He was the descendant that God was referring to when he made the promises to Abraham. God gave his laws to Moses by God's causing angels to speak to him. Moses was the mediator, the one who told the laws to the people.

Why then was there the law?

The law came because of transgressions until Abraham's descendant came.

Galatians 3:20ULT

²⁰ Now a mediator is not for one, but God is one.

UST

²⁰ Now, when a mediator functions, one person is not speaking with another directly; but God himself made his promises directly to Abraham.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:21ULT

²¹ Therefore {is} the law against the promises? May it never be! For if a law was given being able to make alive, {then} truly righteousness would have come by the law.

UST

²¹ If someone should ask, "When God gave his laws to Moses long after he told Abraham what he was promising to give to him, was he changing his mind?" {I would reply that} God certainly did not change his mind when he did that! If God had given a law that could enable people to live {eternally and spiritually}, then it certainly would be because of people obeying that law that God would consider people righteous.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:22ULT

²² But the Scripture imprisoned all things under sin so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to the ones believing.

UST

²² But, {in fact, it is impossible for the law to enable people to live eternally or spiritually.} Instead, the law given in the Scriptures caused all people to be unable to escape being punished for their sins, just like people in prison are unable to escape. {God did that} in order that he might give what he promised to those who trust Jesus Christ, just because they trust him.

What did the law in scripture imprison everyone under?

The law in scripture imprisoned everyone under sin.

Galatians 3:23ULT

²³ Now before the faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the faith about to be revealed.

UST

²³ Before God revealed the good news about trusting in the Messiah, the laws that God gave to Moses were confining us, as a prisoner in jail is confined. This happened until the time we might believe the good news concerning the Messiah, the good news that God was about to reveal {and now has}.

How are we released from the imprisonment of the law? (vv23-26)

We are released from the imprisonment of the law by faith in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:24ULT

²⁴ So the law became our guardian until Christ, so that we might be justified by faith.

UST

²⁴ Like a father supervises his immature child by appointing a servant to take care of that child, God was supervising us by his laws until the Messiah {came}. {He did this} in order that he might now declare us righteous in his sight {only} because we trust in the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:25ULT

²⁵ But faith having come, we are no longer under a guardian.

UST

²⁵ But now that God has revealed the message about trusting in the Messiah, the laws that God gave to Moses no longer supervise us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:26ULT

²⁶ For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

UST

²⁶ Now all of you {Jews and non-Jews} are {as though you are} God's children because you trust in the Messiah Jesus. You are {now} in close spiritual union with the Messiah Jesus {because you believe in Him}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 3:27ULT

²⁷ For as many as have been baptized into Christ put on Christ.

UST

²⁷ That is, you who {began a relationship with the Messiah when you} were baptized identified yourselves with Christ.

Who has been clothed in Christ?

All who have been baptized into Christ have been clothed in Christ.

Galatians 3:28ULT

²⁸ There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

UST

²⁸ If you believe in the Messiah, it does not matter to God if you are Jews or non-Jews; slaves or ones who are not slaves; males or females, because all of you are as one sort of person because of your relationship with the Messiah Jesus.

What different kinds of persons are made one in Christ Jesus?

Jews, Greeks, slaves, free, male, and female are all made one in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:29ULT

²⁹ Now if you {are} of Christ, then you are seed of Abraham, heirs according to promise.

UST

²⁹ Furthermore, since you belong to the Messiah, you are {like} Abraham's descendants because you trust God as Abraham did, and you will possess what God promised Abraham.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4

Galatians 4:1

ULT

¹ Now I say, for as much time as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, being master of all.

UST

¹ Now, I will further discuss children and heirs. An heir is a person who will later possess and control all that his father has. But as long as that heir is a child, others control him, with the result that he is just like a slave.

How does the heir of an estate live while he is a child? (vv1-2)

The heir lives like a slave under guardians and trustees until the time set by his father.

Galatians 4:2

ULT

² But he is under guardians and stewards until the date appointed by his father.

UST

² Until the day that his father has {previously} determined, other persons supervise the child and manage his property.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:3

ULT

³ So also, when we were children, we were being enslaved under the elemental principles of the world.

UST

³ Likewise, when we were spiritually immature {because we did not yet believe in the Messiah}, we submitted to the rules that everyone in this world lives by. Those rules controlled us like masters control their slaves.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:4ULT

⁴ But when the fullness of time came, God sent forth his Son, having been born from a woman, having been born under the law,

UST

⁴ But exactly at the time that God had previously determined, he sent Jesus his Son, into the world. (Jesus was} born to a human mother, and he had to obey the laws that God gave to Moses.

What did God do at the right time in history? (vv4-5)

At the right time, God sent forth his Son to redeem those under the law.

Galatians 4:5ULT

⁵ in order that he might redeem the ones under the law, so that we might receive the adoption as sons.

UST

⁵ God sent Jesus to rescue us who had to obey God's laws he gave to Moses from being condemned for not obeying these laws. God did this so that we might all receive from him the status of being his children.

How did God bring children who were under the law into his family?

God adopted as sons the children who were under the law.

Galatians 4:6ULT

⁶ And because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father."

UST

⁶ Furthermore, God sent the Spirit to live in our inner beings because we are now in such a close relationship with God it is as though we are his children. It is his Spirit who enables us to fervently call out {to God}, "Father, Father!"

What does God send forth into the hearts of his children?

God sends forth the Spirit of his Son into the hearts of his children.

Galatians 4:7ULT

⁷ So then, you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, also an heir through God.

UST

⁷ So, because of what God has done, no longer is each of you like a slave. Instead, each of you is like a child of God. Furthermore, since each of you is now like God's child, God has also made each of you his heir, one to whom he will give all that he has promised.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:8ULT

⁸ But at that time, not having known God, you were enslaved to the ones by nature not being gods.

UST

⁸ When you did not have a relationship with God, you served gods that really did not exist. You were like slaves at that time, because you were in spiritual bondage.

Before we know God, to whom are we slaves?

Before we know God, we are slaves to the spirits that rule the world, who are not gods at all.

Galatians 4:9ULT

⁹ But now, having come to know God, or rather, having come to be known by God, how are you turning again to the weak and worthless elemental principles to which once more you want to be enslaved again?

UST

⁹ But now you have come to intimately know God. Perhaps it would be better to say that now God intimately knows each of you. So now you are acting foolishly! You are again believing that by obeying rules and rites you will benefit spiritually! Those rules are ineffective and inadequate! You are wanting to obey them again like slaves obey their masters.

Paul was perplexed that the Galatians were returning to what?

Paul was perplexed that the Galatians were returning again to the ruling spirits of the world.

As he sees the Galatians turning back, what does Paul fear for them? (vv9-11)

Paul fears that the Galatians will become slaves again, and that he has labored in vain over them.

Galatians 4:10ULT

¹⁰ You observe days and months and seasons and years!

UST

¹⁰ You non-Jews are carefully practicing Jewish rules and rituals regarding what you should do on Jewish special days and at special times in certain months, seasons, and years.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:11ULT

¹¹ I am afraid for you lest I have labored among you for nothing.

UST

¹¹ I am concerned about your mistaken ideas! I do not want to have so strenuously served you in vain.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:12ULT

¹² I beg you, brothers, become as I am, because I also {became} as you {are}. You did me no harm.

UST

¹² My fellow believers, I strongly urge you that you do as I do. {Stop thinking that you have to obey the Jewish rules and ceremonial laws prescribed by the law of Moses.} When I was with you, I did not obey all the Jewish rules and ceremonial laws, just like you did not obey them. At that time you treated me entirely as you should have.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:13ULT

¹³ Now you know that because of a weakness of the flesh I proclaimed the gospel to you previously.

UST

¹³ You remember that I originally told you the good news because I was physically weak {and was recovering}. Because of the opportunity which that sickness provided I was able to tell you the good news.

When Paul first came to the Galatians, what problem did he have?

When Paul first came to the Galatians, he had a physical illness.

Galatians 4:14ULT

¹⁴ And you did not despise your trial in my flesh nor reject me, but you welcomed me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus.

UST

¹⁴ Although you might have treated me contemptuously because of my physical malady, you did not treat me contemptuously or reject me. Instead, you welcomed me like you would welcome an angel that came from God. You welcomed me like you would welcome the Messiah Jesus himself!

Despite Paul's problem, how did the Galatians receive him?

Despite Paul's problem, the Galatians received Paul as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus.

Galatians 4:15ULT

¹⁵ Where, then, {is} your blessing? For I testify to you that, if possible, having torn out your eyes, you would have given {them} to me.

UST

¹⁵ I am disappointed that you have forgotten that then you declared that you were pleased with me. I know for certain that you would have done anything to help me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:16ULT

¹⁶ So then, speaking truth to you, have I become your enemy?

UST

¹⁶ So I am very disappointed that you now act as though I have become hostile to you because I have kept speaking the true message about the Messiah to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:17ULT

¹⁷ They are zealous for you, not rightly, but they desire to separate you so that you would be zealous for them.

UST

¹⁷ Those who are insisting on obeying the Jewish laws are eagerly showing interest in you, but they are not doing this because they have good motives. They are doing this because they want you not to associate with me and others who teach what is true about the Messiah. They desire that instead of you associating with us, you will eagerly show interest in them, not in us.

Who are the false teachers in Galatia trying to separate?

The false teachers are trying to separate the Galatians from Paul.

Galatians 4:18ULT

¹⁸ But {it is} good to be zealous for good at all times and not only when I am present with you.

UST

¹⁸ But, it is an honorable thing to eagerly desire to do the right things at all times. I would like you to eagerly desire to do the right things, both when I am with you and when I am absent.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:19ULT

¹⁹ My children, with whom I am in labor again until Christ would be formed in you—

UST

¹⁹ You who are like my children, once again I am very concerned about you, and I will continue to be concerned about you until you become like the Messiah in your thinking and in your conduct.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:20ULT

²⁰ but I am desiring to be present with you now and to change my tone, because I am perplexed about you.

UST

²⁰ But I do wish that I could be with you now and that I might talk more gently with you, because right now I do not know what to do about you.

Under what are the false teachers trying to put the Galatians? (vv20-21)

The false teachers are trying to put the Galatians back under the law.

Galatians 4:21ULT

²¹ Tell me, you desiring to be under the law, do you not listen to the law?

UST

²¹ Some of you desire to obey all the laws that God gave Moses. I say that you should consider the implications of what Moses wrote in the Scriptures.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:22ULT

²² For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave girl and one by the free woman.

UST

²² He wrote that Abraham became the father of two sons. His female slave, Hagar, bore one son, and his wife Sarah, who was not a slave, bore the other.

From which two kinds of women did Abraham have two sons?

Abraham had two sons, one from a slave woman and one from a free woman.

Galatians 4:23ULT

²³ And the one was born from the slave girl according to flesh, but the {other}, from the free woman, through promise.

UST

²³ Also, the sons differed. Ishmael, the son born by Hagar, the female slave, was conceived naturally. But Isaac, the son born by Sarah, his wife who was not a slave, was conceived miraculously because God intervened in order to fulfill what he had promised Abraham.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:24ULT

²⁴ These things are being spoken as an allegory, for they are two covenants. One {is} from Mount Sinai, giving birth to slavery; this is Hagar.

UST

²⁴ I am telling you this as an illustration. These two women symbolize two agreements. God made the first agreement, which involved obeying the laws that God gave to Moses at Mount Sinai. Because that agreement forces those who accept it to keep obeying all its rules, it is like a slave mother who gives birth to slaves. So Hagar, the female slave, symbolizes this agreement.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:25ULT

²⁵ Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.

UST

²⁵ Also Hagar symbolizes the agreement, with its laws and rituals, that God gave to Moses on Mount Sinai, in the land of Arabia. Hagar also symbolizes the Jewish religion. The Jewish religion is like a slave mother, and those who practice the Jewish religion are like slave children because they all must obey the laws that God gave to Moses.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:26ULT

²⁶ But the Jerusalem above is free, which is our mother.

UST

²⁶ But there is a heavenly Jerusalem, and because we belong to the heavenly Jerusalem, it is like a mother to all of us {who believe in the Messiah}. Those who belong to the heavenly Jerusalem are free from having to obey the laws of Moses and free from being condemned for failing to obey those laws.

Who is the symbolic mother of Paul and the believing Galatians?

The Jerusalem above, the free woman, is the symbolic mother of Paul and the believing Galatians.

Galatians 4:27ULT

²⁷ For it is written, "Rejoice, you barren woman, the one not giving birth; break forth and shout, you {who are} not suffering the pains of childbirth; because the children of the desolate one {are} many more than of the one having a husband."

UST

²⁷ Our new city will have more people than those who live in Jerusalem now. It will be just like Isaiah foretold {about the people whom he expected would come back to Jerusalem from exile}. {He expected that they would be more numerous than those who were taken into exile.} He wrote: You who live in Jerusalem, you will rejoice! Now you have no children, like a barren woman who does not give birth to children! But some day you will shout joyfully, as loudly as you can, even though now you are few in number, like a woman who cannot give birth to children, and you feel deserted. You will be very happy because you will have many children who will come to you. Those children will be more than the children any woman with a husband could have borne.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 4:28ULT

²⁸ Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

UST

²⁸ Now, my fellow believers, you have become children of God because God has fulfilled what he promised to Abraham. You are like Isaac, who was born because God fulfilled what he promised to give Abraham.

Are believers in Christ children of the flesh or children of the promise?

Believers in Christ are children of the promise.

Galatians 4:29ULT

²⁹ But just as then, the one having been born according to flesh was persecuting the one according to Spirit, so {it} also {is} now.

UST

²⁹ Also, long ago Abraham's son Ishmael, the one who was conceived naturally, caused trouble for Abraham's son Isaac, who was conceived supernaturally. Similarly, now those who think that we must obey the laws that God gave to Moses in order that God will save us are causing trouble for those who are trusting Abraham's descendant, the Messiah.

Who persecutes the children of the promise?

The children of the flesh persecute the children of the promise.

Galatians 4:30ULT

³⁰ But what does the scripture say? "Cast out the slave girl and her son. For the son of the slave girl will certainly not inherit with the son of the free woman."

UST

³⁰ But Moses wrote these words in a scripture passage in Genesis: "The son of the woman who was not a slave will inherit what his father owns. The female slave's son will certainly not inherit those things. So send away from this place the female slave and her son!"

What do the children of the slave woman not inherit?

The children of the slave woman do not inherit along with the children of the free woman.

Galatians 4:31ULT

³¹ Therefore, brothers, we are not children of a slave girl, but of the free woman.

UST

³¹ My fellow believers, Hagar symbolizes the laws that God gave to Moses. But we are not those who must obey all the laws that God gave to Moses. So we are not the female slave Hagar's spiritual descendants. But Sarah's descendants are those who were born as a result of God fulfilling what he promised to Abraham. So we are the spiritual descendants of Sarah, the woman who was not a slave.

Are believers in Christ children of the slave woman or children of the free woman?

Believers in Christ are children of the free woman.

Galatians 5

Galatians 5:1

ULT

¹ For freedom Christ set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not again be subjected to a yoke of slavery.

UST

¹ The Messiah freed us {believers} {from having to obey the laws God gave the Jews} in order that we would not have to obey {them}. So continue to be steadfastly committed {to the Lord}. Do not let anyone force you to obey {those laws} again as if you were slaves {to those laws}.

For what purpose has Christ set us free?

For freedom Christ has set us free.

Galatians 5:2

ULT

² Behold, I, Paul, say to you that if you would be circumcised, Christ will benefit you nothing.

UST

² I am Paul. Pay attention to what I am telling you! If you let anyone circumcise you, what the Messiah has done for you will not help you at all!

What did Paul warn the Galatians would happen if they became circumcised?

Paul said that if the Galatians became circumcised, Christ would not benefit them in any way.

Galatians 5:3

ULT

³ Now I testify again to every man being circumcised that he is obligated to do the whole law.

UST

³ Once again I solemnly declare to every man who has someone circumcise him, that he must obey all of the laws {God gave the Jews} {in order to be righteous}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 5:4ULT

⁴ You were cut off from Christ, whoever is being justified by law; you fell from grace.

UST

⁴ You who are trying to make yourselves righteous by {obeying} the laws {God gave the Jews} have separated yourselves from the Messiah. God will no longer act kindly toward you.

What did Paul warn would happen to all the Galatians who would seek to be justified by following the law?

Paul warned that all the Galatians who would seek to be justified by following the law would be alienated from Christ and would fall away from grace.

Galatians 5:5ULT

⁵ For through the Spirit, by faith, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness.

UST

⁵ {This is so} because we {believers} are confidently expecting by trusting {in Jesus} that God will make us righteous. The Holy Spirit enables us {to do this}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 5:6ULT

⁶ For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is capable of anything, but {only} faith working through love.

UST

⁶ {This is so} because {when} God has united {us} with the Messiah Jesus, whether people are circumcised or not is not important. Rather, only whether we trust {in the Messiah} is important. We show we trust {in the Messiah} by loving others.

As opposed to circumcision and uncircumcised, what is the only thing that means anything in Christ Jesus?

In Christ Jesus, only faith working through love means anything.

Galatians 5:7ULT

⁷ You were running well. Who hindered you, not to be persuaded by truth?

UST

⁷ You were spiritually progressing so well! You should never have let someone stop you {from progressing}, so that what is true does not convince you!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 5:8ULT

⁸ This persuasion {is} not from the one calling you!

UST

⁸ God is the one who calls you. He is not the one who is persuading you {to think like this}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 5:9ULT

⁹ A little leaven leavens the whole lump.

UST

⁹ {This false teaching might deceive all of you, just like} a little yeast {in some dough} makes all of it swell up.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 5:10ULT

¹⁰ I am confident in you in the Lord that you will think nothing otherwise. But the one troubling you will bear the judgment, whoever he may be.

UST

¹⁰ Because God has united {us} with the Lord {Jesus}, I am certain that you will believe only {what I have told you}. By contrast, God will certainly punish everyone who is confusing you {about these things}, whoever they are.

Of what is Paul confident regarding the one who has confused the Galatians about the gospel?

Paul is confident that the one who has confused the Galatians about the gospel will bear God's judgment.

Galatians 5:11ULT

¹¹ But brothers, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the stumbling block of the cross has been removed.

UST

¹¹ Fellow believers, as for me, were I to still declare that men must have someone circumcise them {in order to be righteous}, surely no one would still be persecuting me! {This is because} declaring that would abolish how offensive {Jesus dying on} the cross is.

Paul says that proclaiming circumcision does what?

Paul says that in proclaiming circumcision, the stumbling block of the cross would be destroyed.

Galatians 5:12ULT

¹² I wish the ones disturbing you will even castrate themselves!

UST

¹² O that those who are upsetting you would just castrate themselves!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 5:13ULT

¹³ For you have been called to freedom, brothers, only not the freedom for an opportunity for the flesh; rather, through love serve one another.

UST

¹³ Fellow believers, God has called you to free you {from having to obey the laws God gave the Jews}. But he did not free you {from those laws} so you could sin. Instead {of sinning}, serve each other by loving {each other}!

How are believers not to use their freedom in Christ?

Believers are to not use their freedom in Christ as an opportunity for the flesh.

How are believers to use their freedom in Christ?

Believers are to use their freedom in Christ to serve one another in love.

Galatians 5:14ULT

¹⁴ For all the law has been fulfilled in one command, in this, "You will love your neighbor as yourself."

UST

¹⁴ {Do this} because one command summarizes all the laws {God gave the Jews}. That {command} is, "Love each person as much as {you love} yourself."

The whole law is fulfilled in what one commandment?

The whole law is fulfilled in the commandment, "You must love your neighbor as yourself".

Galatians 5:15ULT

¹⁵ But if you are biting and devouring one another, watch out that you might not be consumed by one another.

UST

¹⁵ Now if you keep attacking and harming each other {like wild animals}, beware that you might completely destroy each other.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 5:16ULT

¹⁶ Now I say, walk by the Spirit and you would certainly not fulfill desires of the flesh.

UST

¹⁶ I am telling you to let the Holy Spirit lead you. {If you do that,} you will definitely not do what your {sinful} selves want to do.

How can believers not fulfill the lust of the flesh?

Believers can live by the Spirit, and thus, not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

Galatians 5:17ULT

¹⁷ For the flesh desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh. For these oppose each other, so that you are not doing these things that you would desire.

UST

¹⁷ {This is} because your sinful selves {want to do what} is contrary to what the Holy Spirit {wants to do}. Also, {what} the Holy Spirit {wants to do is contrary to what} your sinful selves {want to do}. {This is} because they are always against each other. The result is that you do not {always} do the {good} things that you {truly} want to do.

What two things are opposed to each other within the believer?

The Spirit and the flesh are opposed to each other within the believer.

Galatians 5:18ULT

¹⁸ But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

UST

¹⁸ However, if the Holy Spirit leads you, the laws {God gave the Jews} do not control you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 5:19ULT

¹⁹ Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: sexual immorality, impurity, licentiousness,

UST

¹⁹ You clearly know what people do because of their sinful selves. {They} do sexually immoral acts, impure acts, {and} unrestrained immoral acts.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 5:20ULT

²⁰ idolatry, sorcery, hostilities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, divisions, factions,

UST

²⁰ {They also} worship false gods, do witchcraft, repeatedly act in hostile ways, quarrel with people, act jealously, behave angrily, act ambitiously, act divisively within a group of people, and make divisive groups of people.

What are three examples of works of the flesh? (vv20-21)

Three examples of works of the flesh are any three of the following list: sexual immorality, impurity, lustfulness, idolatry, sorcery, hostility, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, rivalry, dissension, sectarian division, envy, drunkenness, and drunken riots.

Galatians 5:21ULT

²¹ envy, drunkenness, drunken celebrations, and things like these, about which I warn you, just as I warned you before, that the ones practicing such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

UST

²¹ {They also} envy others, get drunk, celebrate drunkenly, and do other {sinful} things like these. I warn you now about {doing these sinful things}, just like I warned you previously: anyone who regularly does these {sinful} things will not participate in God's kingdom.

What will those who practice the works of the flesh not receive?

Those who practice the works of the flesh will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Galatians 5:22ULT

²² But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,

UST

²² Yet the Holy Spirit enables {us believers in the Messiah} to love others and be joyful, peaceful, patient, kind, good, faithful,

What is the fruit of the Spirit? (vv22-23)

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, gentleness, and self-control.

Galatians 5:23ULT

²³ gentleness, {and} self-control; against such things there is no law.

UST

²³ gentle, and to control ourselves. There is no law that prohibits people from doing these {good} things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 5:24ULT

²⁴ But the ones of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the passions and the desires.

UST

²⁴ We who belong to the Messiah Jesus have stopped doing {what} our sinful selves feel and want {to do}.

Those who belong to Christ Jesus have done what with the flesh and its passions?

Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh and its passions.

Galatians 5:25ULT

²⁵ If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit.

UST

²⁵ Since the Holy Spirit has made us spiritually alive, we must let the Holy Spirit lead us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 5:26ULT

²⁶ Let us not become boastful, provoking one another, envying one another.

UST

²⁶ Do not boast. Do not make each other angry. Do not envy each other.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 6

Galatians 6:1

ULT

¹ Brothers, even if a man is caught in any trespass, let you, the spiritual ones, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself, lest you also be tempted.

UST

¹ Fellow believers, if you discover that another believer does something wrong, those of you who are spiritually mature should gently correct that person. {While doing so,} you should be very careful so that you do not sin as well.

What should those who are spiritual do if a man is caught in some transgression?

Those who are spiritual should restore that man in a spirit of gentleness.

For what danger must those who are spiritual watch out?

Those who are spiritual must watch out that they are not also tempted.

Galatians 6:2

ULT

² Carry the burdens of one another, and thus you will fulfill the law of Christ.

UST

² Help each other overcome the problems you have. By doing that, you will obey what the Messiah commands.

How do believers fulfill the law of Christ?

Believers fulfill the law of Christ by carrying one another's burdens.

Galatians 6:3

ULT

³ For if anyone thinks {himself} to be something, being nothing, he deceives himself.

UST

³ {I say this} because people who wrongly think that they are better than others trick themselves {into believing what is not true}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 6:4ULT

⁴ But let each one examine his own work, and then he will have reason to boast in himself alone and not in someone else.

UST

⁴ Instead, each of you should constantly evaluate what you do. {Only} then might you be able to rightly boast about {what} you {have done} on your own instead {of wrongly boasting} about {what} someone else {has done}.

How can a person have something in himself to be proud of regarding his work?

A person can have something in himself to be proud of by examining his own work, without comparing himself to anyone else.

Galatians 6:5ULT

⁵ For each one will carry his own burden.

UST

⁵ {I say this} because each one {of you} must do what God has given you {to do}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 6:6ULT

⁶ But let the one being taught the word share in all good things with the one teaching.

UST

⁶ If fellow believers teach you what God has said, then you must share what you have with them.

What must one who is taught the word do with his teacher?

One who is taught the word must share all good things with his teacher.

Galatians 6:7ULT

⁷ Do not be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man may sow, that he will also reap.

UST

⁷ Do not trick yourselves: No one can scorn God! {This is} because{, just like} a farmer will harvest exactly the kind of crop that he plants{, people will experience the results of what they have done}.

What happens to whatever a man spiritually plants?

Whatever a man spiritually plants he will harvest.

Galatians 6:8ULT

⁸ For the one sowing to his own flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction. But the one sowing to the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.

UST

⁸ Those who do what their {sinful} selves want to do will experience the result {of doing so}. God will punish them forever. But those who please the Holy Spirit will experience the result {of doing so}. The Holy Spirit will enable them to live forever {with God}.

What does a man harvest who plants to his own flesh?

A man who plants to his own flesh harvests destruction out of his flesh.

What does a man harvest who plants to the Spirit?

Out of the Spirit a man who plants to the Spirit harvests eternal life.

Galatians 6:9ULT

⁹ But we should not become discouraged in doing good, for in due time, not becoming weary, we will reap.

UST

⁹ Let us not tire of doing what is good, because at the right time we will experience the {good} result {of what we do}. {This will happen} if we do not stop {doing these good things}.

If a believer does not give up and continues doing good, what will he receive?

A believer who continues doing good will reap a harvest.

Galatians 6:10ULT

¹⁰ So then, as we have time, we should do good to all, but especially to the ones of the household of the faith.

UST

¹⁰ Therefore, let us do what is good to everyone whenever we can. {Let us} especially {do what is good} to all our fellow believers {in Jesus}.

To whom should believers especially do good?

Believers should especially do good to those of the household of faith.

Galatians 6:11ULT

¹¹ See what large letters I wrote to you with my own hand.

UST

¹¹ I am writing {this} to you in my own handwriting. Notice how large the letters are!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 6:12ULT

¹² As many as desire to make a good impression in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised, only so that they might not be persecuted for the cross of Christ Jesus.

UST

¹² Everyone who wants to impress {the Jews} with how they appear outwardly is trying to force you to have someone circumcise you. {They} only {do this} in order to prevent the Jews from persecuting them for {believing that} the Messiah Jesus died on the cross {to save us}.

What is the motivation of those who want to compel the believers to be circumcised?

Those who want to compel the believers to be circumcised do not want to be persecuted for the cross of Christ.

Galatians 6:13ULT

¹³ For not even the ones circumcised keep the law themselves, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh.

UST

¹³ {I say this} because not even those people whom someone has circumcised obey the laws {God gave the Jews}. Rather, they want to circumcise you in order to boast because of how you appear outwardly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Galatians 6:14ULT

¹⁴ But may it never be to me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

UST

¹⁴ As for me, I will ever only boast about our Lord Jesus the Messiah dying on the cross {to save us}! Because Jesus died on the cross, the {sinful} world has become {like} a dead person to me, and I have become {like} a dead person to the {sinful} world.

Of what did Paul say he was proud?

Paul said that he was proud of the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Galatians 6:15ULT

¹⁵ For neither circumcision is anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation.

UST

¹⁵ {I may boast about Jesus dying on the cross} because whether people are circumcised or not is not important. Rather, {the Holy Spirit} making them new people is important.

Instead of circumcision or uncircumcision, what is important?

What is important is a new creation.

Galatians 6:16ULT

¹⁶ And as many as will walk in this standard, peace and mercy upon them and upon the Israel of God.

UST

¹⁶ I pray that God will make peaceful everyone who behaves in this way and will act kindly to them. {I} also {pray these things} for those Israelites who {trust in Jesus and} belong to God!

Upon whom does Paul wish peace and mercy?

Paul wishes peace and mercy upon those who live by the rule of the new creation and upon the Israel of God.

Galatians 6:17ULT

¹⁷ From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I carry in my body the marks of Jesus.

UST

¹⁷ I have scars on my body because I declared the truth about Jesus. So do not let anyone bother me {about these matters} again!

What did Paul carry on his body?

Paul carried the marks of Jesus on his body.

Galatians 6:18ULT

¹⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

UST

¹⁸ Fellow believers, {I pray that} our Lord Jesus the Messiah {will} be gracious to all of you! May it be so!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians

Ephesians 1

Ephesians 1:1

ULT

¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints, the ones being [in Ephesus] ^[1] and faithful in Christ Jesus.

UST

¹ I am Paul. The Messiah Jesus sent me to represent him because that is what God wanted. I write this letter to the people whom God has set apart for himself who are living [in the city of Ephesus] ^[1] and who are loyal to the Messiah Jesus.

How does Paul describe the people he is writing to in this letter?

Paul describes the people he is writing to as saints, and as faithfully trusting in Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 1:2

ULT

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

² {May} God our Father and our Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to be} kind to you and {make you} peaceful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 1:3

ULT

³ Blessed {be} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the one having blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly {places} in Christ,

UST

³ Praise God, the Father of our Lord Jesus the Messiah! He has blessed us with every kind of spiritual blessing that comes from heaven because we belong to the Messiah.

With what has God the Father blessed believers?

God the Father has blessed believers with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ.

Ephesians 1:4ULT

⁴ just as he chose us in him from the foundation of the world, {for} us to be holy and blameless before him. In love

UST

⁴ In fact, even before God created the world, he chose us to belong to the Messiah, so that the Messiah could make us completely holy for him. Because God loves us,

When did God the Father choose those who believe in Christ?

God the Father chose those who believe in Christ before the foundation of the world.

For what purpose did God the Father choose the believers?

God the Father chose the believers so they could be holy and blameless before him.

Ephesians 1:5ULT

⁵ he predestined us for adoption through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

UST

⁵ he decided long ago to adopt us as his own children by means of Jesus the Messiah. It pleased him to do this, so he did what he wanted to do.

Why did God destine the believers in advance for adoption?

God destined the believers in advance because he was pleased to do it.

Ephesians 1:6ULT

⁶ to the praise of the glory of his grace that he has freely given us in the Beloved One,

UST

⁶ Because of this, we now praise God for being so amazingly kind to us, far beyond what we could deserve, as he blessed us by means of his Son whom he loves.

Why did God destine the believers in advance for adoption?

God destined the believers in advance so that he would be praised for his glorious grace.

Ephesians 1:7ULT

⁷ in whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of the trespasses, according to the riches of his grace,

UST

⁷ When Jesus died in our place, he paid the price for our sin. That is, when he died for us, God forgave us our sins because that is how abundantly and generously kind he is.

What do believers receive through the blood of Christ, God's beloved one?

Believers receive redemption, the forgiveness of their trespasses through the blood Christ.

Ephesians 1:8ULT

⁸ which he caused to abound to us in all wisdom and understanding.

UST

⁸ God knew that we would need him to be extremely kind to us in this way because God knows everything and is completely wise.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 1:9ULT

⁹ He made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had planned in him,

UST

⁹ In this way, God has now revealed to us his plan that he had not revealed to anyone before—a plan that he was pleased to accomplish through the work of the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 1:10ULT

¹⁰ with a view to an administration of the fullness of time, to bring all the things together in Christ, the things in the heavens and the things on earth, in him,

UST

¹⁰ In this plan, when the time was just right, the Messiah would unite all things under himself so that all things in heaven and all things on earth would belong to the Messiah.

What will God do when the times for the completion of his plan come?

God will bring together everything in heaven and on the earth under Christ.

Ephesians 1:11ULT

¹¹ in whom we were also allotted as a possession. We were predestined according to the purpose of the one working out everything according to the counsel of his will,

UST

¹¹ Because of what the Messiah has done, God has also claimed us as his own. He planned to do this long ago, and he always does exactly what he wishes to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 1:12ULT

¹² so that we, the ones having first hoped in Christ, would be for the praise of his glory.

UST

¹² In God's plan, we Jews, who were the first to trust in the Messiah, would live to praise God because he is so great.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 1:13ULT

¹³ In him, you also, having heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and having believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit,

UST

¹³ Then you non-Jews also heard the true message, the good news of how God saves you, and you believed in the Messiah. When you did that, God marked you as belonging to the Messiah by giving you the Holy Spirit, as he had promised to do.

What seal did the believers receive when they heard the word of truth?

The believers were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit.

Ephesians 1:14ULT

¹⁴ who is a down payment of our inheritance until the redemption of the full possession, to the praise of his glory.

UST

¹⁴ The Holy Spirit is like a down payment that proves that God will also give to us everything else that he has promised to give to us at that time when he will release everything that he has for us. Praise God because he is so great!

Of what is the Spirit a down payment?

The Spirit is a down payment of the inheritance of believers.

Ephesians 1:15ULT

¹⁵ Because of this, I also, having heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and the love ^[2] for all the saints,

UST

¹⁵ Because God has done all of this for you, and because people have told me how you trust in the Lord Jesus and how much you love all the believers,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 1:16ULT

¹⁶ I have not stopped giving thanks for you, making mention {of you} in my prayers,

UST

¹⁶ I thank God for you constantly as I talk to God about you when I pray to him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 1:17ULT

¹⁷ so that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, would give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him,

UST

¹⁷ I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus the Messiah, the glorious Father, will give you his Spirit to make you wise and to reveal God to you so that you can continually know him better.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 1:18ULT

¹⁸ the eyes of your heart having been enlightened {for} you to know what is the hope of his calling {and} what {are} the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

UST

¹⁸ I pray that God may enable you to see things as they truly are so that you may know the wonderful plan that God has for us because he has called us to be his people. I pray that you may know how wonderful and abundant are the things he promises to give to us and to all the believers.

What does Paul pray the Ephesians will be enlightened to understand?

Paul prays that the Ephesians will be enlightened to understand the hope of their calling and the glorious riches of Christ's inheritance in the saints.

Ephesians 1:19ULT

¹⁹ and what {is} the incomparable greatness of his power toward us, the ones believing, according to the working of the force of his strength,

UST

¹⁹ And I pray that you will know how exceedingly powerfully God acts for us who believe in the Messiah. He is just as powerfully strong for us

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 1:20ULT

²⁰ which he worked in Christ, having raised him from the dead and seated {him} at his right hand in the heavenly places,

UST

²⁰ as he was for the Messiah when he caused the Messiah to become alive again after he died, and raised him to the place of highest honor in heaven.

What did the same power that now works in the believers do in Christ?

The same power raised Christ from the dead and seated him at God's right hand in the heavenly places.

Ephesians 1:21ULT

²¹ far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and every name being named, not only in this age, but also in the one coming.

UST

²¹ The Messiah rules as supreme there over every ruler and powerful spirit on every level of authority and over every being that people revere. He rules over them not only now, but forever.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 1:22ULT

²² And he put all things under his feet and gave him {as} head over all things to the church,

UST

²² God has made everything to be subject to the Messiah and has appointed the Messiah as the ruler over everything among all believers everywhere.

What has God put under Christ's feet?

God has put all things under Christ's feet.

What is Christ's position of authority in the Church?

Christ is the head over all things in the Church.

Ephesians 1:23

ULT

²³ which is his body, the fullness of the one filling all in all.

1:1 ^[1]

1:15 ^[2]

UST

²³ We believers relate to the Messiah as the parts of a person's body relate to its head. He supplies what is lacking for all believers just as he completes everything everywhere.

1:1 ^[1]

What is the Church?

The Church is Christ's body.

Ephesians 2

Ephesians 2:1

ULT

¹ And you were dead in your trespasses and sins,

UST

¹ Before you trusted the Messiah, you were spiritually dead—you were unable to stop sinning.

What is the spiritual condition of all unbelievers?

All unbelievers are dead in their trespasses and sins.

Ephesians 2:2

ULT

² in which you once walked according to the age of this world, according to the ruler of the authorities of the air, the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience,

UST

² You used to live in a sinful way, guided by the spirit of this world. You were guided by the ruler of the evil spirits who controls the authorities of this world. This ruler is Satan, who now works through the people who disobey God.

Who is working in the sons of disobedience?

The ruler of the authorities of the air is working in the sons of disobedience.

Ephesians 2:3

ULT

³ in which we all also once lived in the evil desires of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the body and of the minds. And we were by nature children of wrath, as also the rest.

UST

³ All of us used to live in the same way as these people who disobey God; we did the evil things that we desired, things that would bring pleasure to our bodies and our minds. We deserved that God should be very angry with us, just as he is with the other people.

By nature, what are all unbelievers?

All unbelievers are by nature children of wrath.

Ephesians 2:4ULT

⁴ But God being rich in mercy because of his great love with which he loved us,

UST

⁴ But God is very merciful to us because he loves us very much.

Why is God rich in mercy towards believers?

God is rich mercy because of his great love.

Ephesians 2:5ULT

⁵ and we being dead in the trespasses, he made us alive together in Christ—by grace you have been saved—

UST

⁵ God loved us so much that even when we were spiritually dead and constantly sinning, he made us alive by joining us to the Messiah. Remember, when God saved you from being spiritually dead, he was being very kind to you in a way that you did not deserve.

By what have believers been saved?

Believers have been saved by God's grace.

Ephesians 2:6ULT

⁶ and raised us up with {him} and seated us with {him} in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,

UST

⁶ God saved us from being spiritually dead just as he raised Jesus from being physically dead and he made us spiritually alive with him. Then he gave us seats of honor to rule with the Messiah Jesus in heaven.

Where are believers seated?

Believers are seated in the heavenly places with Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 2:7ULT

⁷ so that in the ages that are coming he might show the immeasurably great riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus.

UST

⁷ He did that to show to everyone in all future times how exceedingly gracious he is in being kind to us by joining us to the Messiah Jesus.

For what purpose has God saved and raised up believers?

God has saved and raised up believers so that in the ages that are coming he might show them the great riches of his grace.

Ephesians 2:8ULT

⁸ For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this {is} not from yourselves; {it is} the gift of God,

UST

⁸ So God was very kind to you in a way that you did not deserve when he saved you from being spiritually dead. He did this because you trust in Jesus. You have not saved yourselves; this is a gift from God—

How have we been saved?

We have been saved by grace through faith as God's gift.

Ephesians 2:9ULT

⁹ not from works, so that no one may boast.

UST

⁹ a gift that no one can earn, so no one can boast and say that he has saved himself.

Why should believer not boast?

No believer should boast because he is not saved by his own works.

Ephesians 2:10ULT

¹⁰ For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works that God prepared beforehand, so that we would walk in them.

UST

¹⁰ So God is making us what he wants us to be; through the Messiah Jesus he has created us as new people to do good things—things that God had previously arranged for us to do.

For what purpose has God created believers in Christ Jesus?

God's purpose for believers in Christ Jesus is that they should walk in good works.

Ephesians 2:11ULT

¹¹ Therefore, remember that once you {were} Gentiles in the flesh, the ones being called “uncircumcised” by the ones being called “circumcised” in the flesh, performed by human hands.

UST

¹¹ So remember that previously you non-Jewish people according to who your ancestors were did not belong to God's people. The Jews insulted you by calling you “the uncircumcised.” They call themselves “the circumcised.” By this they mean that they, not you, are God's people, although circumcision is something that humans do that only changes the body, not something that God does that changes the spirit.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 2:12ULT

¹² For at that time you were apart from Christ, excluded from the community of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world.

UST

¹² Remember that, at that time, you were separated from the Messiah. You were foreigners to the people of Israel. You did not share in the things that God promised in his agreements with them. You did not confidently expect that God would save you. No, you were living in this world completely without God.

What is the spiritual condition of unbelieving Gentiles?

Unbelieving Gentiles are separated from Christ, alienated from Israel, strangers to the covenants, without hope and without God.

Ephesians 2:13ULT

¹³ But now in Christ Jesus you, the ones once being far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

UST

¹³ But now, because you have trusted in Jesus the Messiah, God has brought you into his family, even though before that you did not know him. This was possible because the Messiah died on the cross for you.

What has brought some Gentile unbelievers near to God?

Some Gentile unbelievers have been brought near to God by the blood of Christ.

Ephesians 2:14ULT

¹⁴ For he himself is our peace, the one having made the two one and destroyed in his flesh the middle wall of partition, the hostility.

UST

¹⁴ It is the Messiah who has made it possible for Jews and non-Jews to live peacefully with each other. He made the two separate groups into one group. The two groups hated each other, but he took away every reason for hating each other when he died for all of us.

How did Christ change the relationship between Gentiles and Jews?

Christ made believing Gentiles and Jews into one group, destroying the hostility that divided them.

Ephesians 2:15ULT

¹⁵ He abolished the law of the commandments in regulations so that he might make the two into one new man in himself, making peace,

UST

¹⁵ He made it no longer necessary for us to obey the commandments and requirements of the Jewish law for him to accept us. He did this in order to make the Jews and the non-Jews into one new people who would live peacefully together because of their relationship to him.

What did Christ abolish in order to make peace between Jews and Gentiles?

Christ abolished the law of commandments and regulations in order to make peace between Jews and Gentiles.

Ephesians 2:16ULT

¹⁶ and so that he might reconcile both to God as one body through the cross, putting to death the hostility in it.

UST

¹⁶ He did this in order to reconcile both groups to God as one group by dying on the cross for all of them. By dying for them, Jesus made it possible for them to stop being enemies to each other and to God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 2:17ULT

¹⁷ And he came {and} proclaimed peace to you, the ones far away and peace to the ones near,

UST

¹⁷ Jesus came and announced the good news that we can be at peace with God; he announced this to you non-Jews, who did not know about God, and to us Jews, who did know about God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 2:18ULT

¹⁸ for through him both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

UST

¹⁸ Because of what Jesus did for us, both Jews and non-Jews now can come to God the Father with the help of God's Spirit.

By what means do all believers have access to the Father?

All believers have access to the Father by means of the Holy Spirit.

Ephesians 2:19ULT

¹⁹ So then, you are no longer strangers and foreigners. Instead, you are fellow citizens with the saints and {members} of the household of God,

UST

¹⁹ Therefore now you non-Jews are no longer left out of God's people, but instead you are fellow members with those whom God has set apart for himself, and you belong to God's family.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 2:20ULT

²⁰ having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone,

UST

²⁰ You are like stones that God has put together into a building, and the apostles and prophets are like the foundation stones of that building. You depend on what they have taught, just as building stones depend on the foundation stones below them to form a wall that is upright and strong. The Messiah Jesus himself is like the cornerstone, which is the most important stone of the building.

On what foundation is God's family built?

God's family is built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus being the cornerstone.

Ephesians 2:21ULT

²¹ in whom the whole building, being fit together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord,

UST

²¹ Jesus determines where each person belongs, just as the cornerstone determines where each stone fits in the building. Just as a builder joins stones together to make a holy temple, Jesus is assembling his family of believers to be one holy group which serves the Lord.

What kind of building are believers becoming?

They are becoming a holy temple for the Lord.

Ephesians 2:22ULT

²² in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God in the Spirit.

UST

²² Because you belong to Jesus, he is building you up together, both Jews and non-Jews, into one family that is like a building in which God lives by means of his Spirit.

Where does God dwell in the Spirit?

God dwells in the Spirit within believers.

Ephesians 3

Ephesians 3:1

ULT

¹ For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles,

UST

¹ Because God is working out this plan for you non-Jews, I, Paul, pray to the Father for you, even as I am in prison because I serve the Messiah Jesus for your sake.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 3:2

ULT

² if indeed you have heard of the stewardship of the grace of God that was given to me for you,

UST

² I assume that people have told you about me, that God has given me the task of communicating to you non-Jews his plan to be extremely kind to you.

For whose benefit did God give Paul his stewardship?

God gave Paul his stewardship for the benefit of the Gentiles.

Ephesians 3:3

ULT

³ according to a revelation made known to me, the mystery about which I already wrote in brief.

UST

³ God told me this message that people did not understand before by revealing it to me directly, just as I wrote to you before briefly.

What was made known to Paul?

The revelation about the mystery was made known to Paul.

Ephesians 3:4ULT

⁴ Concerning that, reading {it}, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ,

UST

⁴ As you read that, you can perceive that I clearly understand things that God had not previously revealed about the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 3:5ULT

⁵ which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men as it now has been revealed by the Spirit to his holy apostles and prophets—

UST

⁵ Formerly, God did not fully reveal this message to people, but now his Spirit has revealed it to his holy apostles and prophets.

To whom has God revealed what was not made known to the human race in other generations?

God revealed the hidden truth about Christ to his apostles and prophets.

Ephesians 3:6ULT

⁶ that the Gentiles are to be fellow heirs and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel,

UST

⁶ The message is this: the non-Jews now share together with Jews the spiritual riches of God and belong to the same group of God's people and will share all the things God has promised to his people because they are joined to the Messiah Jesus as a result of believing the good news.

What hidden truth has been revealed?

The hidden truth revealed is that the Gentiles are fellow heirs and fellow members of the body, and fellow sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 3:7ULT

⁷ for which I became a servant by the gift of the grace of God that was given to me through the working of his power.

UST

⁷ I now serve God by telling people this good news. God was very kind to me and gave me this work to do even though I am not worthy of it, and he enables me to do it by powerfully working in me.

What gift was given to Paul?

The gift of God's grace was given to Paul.

Ephesians 3:8ULT

⁸ To me—the least of all the saints—this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,

UST

⁸ Although I am the least worthy of all of God's people, God kindly gave me this gift: he appointed me to proclaim to the non-Jews the good news about the unending spiritual blessings that the Messiah has for us

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 3:9ULT

⁹ and to reveal for everyone what {is} the administration of the mystery that was hidden from the ages in God, the one having created all things,

UST

⁹ and to enable everyone to understand what God's plan is. This plan is something that God, who created everything, has kept hidden from long ago.

About what was Paul sent to help the Gentiles understand?

Paul was sent to help the Gentiles understand the administration of the mystery that was hidden from the ages in God.

Ephesians 3:10ULT

¹⁰ so that now through the church the multifaceted wisdom of God might be made known to the rulers and to the authorities in the heavenly places,

UST

¹⁰ God hid this plan so that as he reveals it now by making it happen in those who believe, he also reveals to the spiritual authorities at the highest levels how profoundly wise he is.

Through what will the complex wisdom of God be made known?

Through the church the complex wisdom of God will be made known.

Ephesians 3:11ULT

¹¹ according to the eternal purpose that he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord,

UST

¹¹ This is the plan that God has always had, and it is what he accomplished through the work of the Messiah Jesus, our Lord.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 3:12ULT

¹² in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through faith in him.

UST

¹² So now, because of what Jesus has done, we can come to God freely and confidently because, when we trust in Jesus, he joins us to himself.

What does Paul say believers have because of faith in Christ?

Paul says believers have boldness and access with confidence because of faith in Christ.

Ephesians 3:13ULT

¹³ Therefore, I ask you not to be discouraged by my sufferings for you, which is your glory.

UST

¹³ So please do not be discouraged by the things that I am suffering here in prison on your behalf, because they produce a glorious result for you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 3:14ULT¹⁴ For this reason I bend my knees to the Father,UST¹⁴ Because God has done all this for you, I kneel and pray to God our Father.*(There are no questions for this verse.)Ephesians 3:15*ULT¹⁵ from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,UST¹⁵ He is the original father, who gave the pattern for every family in heaven and on the earth to follow.What is named and created after the Father?

Every family in heaven and on earth is named and created after the Father.

Ephesians 3:16ULT¹⁶ so that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inner man,UST¹⁶ I pray that God will give you his Spirit to strengthen your spirit in proportion to how abundantly great he is.How does Paul pray for the believers to be strengthened?

Paul prays for the believers to be strengthened with power through God's Spirit.

Ephesians 3:17ULT¹⁷ that Christ may live in your hearts through faith, being rooted and grounded in love,UST¹⁷ I pray that the Messiah may stay as close to you as your own hearts because you trust in him, and that everything that you do and say will be a result of God's love for you and your love for him and others*(There are no questions for this verse.)*

Ephesians 3:18ULT

¹⁸ so that you may be fully able to comprehend, along with all the saints, what {is} the width and length and height and depth,

UST

¹⁸ so that you may be fully able to understand, along with all of God's people, how very much the Messiah loves us.

What does Paul pray that the believers will be able to understand?

Paul prays that the believers will be able to understand how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ.

Ephesians 3:19ULT

¹⁹ and to know the love of Christ surpassing knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

UST

¹⁹ I pray that you will come to know how much the Messiah loves us, even though he loves us so much that we cannot understand it. I pray that God will give you a full measure of everything that he is.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 3:20ULT

²⁰ And to the one being able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that is working in us,

UST

²⁰ Praise God, who is able to do much more than anything that we ask him to do, or even that we think that he can do, because of how powerfully he works within us!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 3:21

ULT

²¹ to him {be} the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever {and} ever. Amen.

UST

²¹ May all believers praise him for how great he is and for the awesome work that he has done through the Messiah Jesus! May they praise him throughout all generations forever! May it be so.

What does Paul pray will be given to the Father to all generations?

Paul prays that the glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus will be given to the Father to all generations.

Ephesians 4

Ephesians 4:1

ULT

¹ Therefore I, the prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk worthily of the calling by which you were called,

UST

¹ Because of all this, as someone who is in prison because I serve the Lord Jesus, I appeal to you to live in a way that honors Jesus, who called you to live for him.

How does Paul urge believers to live?

Paul urges believers to walk in a way that is worthy of their calling.

Ephesians 4:2

ULT

² with all humility and gentleness, with patience, putting up with one another in love,

UST

² Always be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, enduring the bothersome things that others do because you love each other.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:3

ULT

³ doing your best to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

UST

³ Since God's Spirit has united you, do everything that you can to remain united with one another. Bind yourselves together by acting peacefully toward each other.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:4

ULT

⁴ {There is} one body and one Spirit, just as also you were called in one hope of your calling,

UST

⁴ God only has one family of believers and one Holy Spirit, just as he also called all of you to receive the one and only thing that people can hope for, that belongs to you whom God has called.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:5ULT

⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism,

UST

⁵ There is only one Lord, Jesus the Messiah, only one way to believe in him, and they baptized us to show that we belong to him alone.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:6ULT

⁶ one God and Father of all, the one over all and through all and in all.

UST

⁶ There is one God, who is the Father of all of us, whether Jew or non-Jew. He rules over all of us, works through all of us, and is in all of us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:7ULT

⁷ And to each one of us this grace has been given according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

UST

⁷ To each one of us God has given spiritual gifts in just the way that the Messiah has decided that we should have them.

What did Christ give to each believer after his ascension?

Christ gave each believer grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

Ephesians 4:8ULT

⁸ Therefore it says: "Having ascended to the heights, he led captives into captivity, {and} he gave gifts to men."

UST

⁸ That is why the scripture says, As he went up to the high place, he brought with him many people whom he had captured, and gave gifts to his people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:9ULT

⁹ And this "He ascended," what is it except that he also descended into the lower regions of the earth?

UST

⁹ The words "he went up" certainly make us know that the Messiah had also previously gone down to the lower parts of the earth.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:10ULT

¹⁰ The one having descended is also himself the one having ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.

UST

¹⁰ The Messiah, who came down to earth from heaven, is also the one who returned upward to the most exalted position in heaven in order that he might fill the universe.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:11ULT

¹¹ And he himself gave the apostles, and the prophets, and the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers,

UST

¹¹ As gifts to his people, he appointed some of them to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to seek out people to tell them the good news about Jesus, and some to care for and to teach the groups of believers.

What five types of people does Paul say Christ gave?

Christ gave apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers.

Ephesians 4:12ULT

¹² for the equipping of the saints for the work of serving, for building up of the body of Christ,

UST

¹² God appointed all of them to prepare God's people to do the work of serving others so that all the people who belong to the Messiah might become spiritually strong.

What are these five types of people supposed to do for the church?

These five types of people are supposed to equip the believers for the work of service, for the building up of the body.

Ephesians 4:13ULT

¹³ until we all reach to the unity of the faith and the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ,

UST

¹³ This work will continue until all of us together become what God wants us to be: united as we together fully trust in the Son of God and experience his working in us, and completely mature as a group of believers—as fully mature in trusting and knowing God as the Messiah himself.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:14ULT

¹⁴ so that we may no longer be children tossed back and forth by the waves and carried away by every wind of teaching through the trickery of men in cleverness for deceitful scheming.

UST

¹⁴ Then we will no longer be spiritually immature, as little children are immature. We will no longer follow every new teaching, always changing what we believe like a boat that goes one way and then the other as the wind and waves change direction. We will not allow clever people who teach what is false to deceive us with their lies.

How does Paul say believers can be like children?

Believers can be like children by being tossed around and carried away by people's trickery and erring deceit.

Ephesians 4:15ULT

¹⁵ Instead, speaking truth in love, let us grow up in all things into him who is the head, {even} Christ,

UST

¹⁵ Rather than that, as we lovingly speak to each other what is true, let us become more and more like the Messiah in every way as he directs us, just like a person's head directs the person's body.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:16ULT

¹⁶ from whom the whole body, being joined and held together by every supporting ligament, according to the working in measure of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for building up itself in love.

UST

¹⁶ He is the one who joins us all together and keeps us connected to each other. He teaches us how to support each other and to work in a coordinated way as he gives the ability that is appropriate to each one of us, just as a person's head does that for the parts of his body. In this way, as we love each other, we will grow together and make each other stronger.

How does Paul say the body of believers is constructed?

The body of believers fits together, held together by each joint, each part working in the body's growth, for the building up of each one in love.

Ephesians 4:17ULT

¹⁷ Therefore, I say this and strongly urge you in the Lord, to walk no longer as the Gentiles also walk, in futility of their minds.

UST

¹⁷ For that reason, and with the authority of the Lord Jesus, I tell you this: from now on you must not live in the same way as the other non-Jews live. The way that they live comes from an empty way of thinking.

How does Paul say the Gentiles walk?

The Gentiles walk in the futility of their minds.

Ephesians 4:18ULT

¹⁸ They have been darkened in their understanding, being alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their hearts.

UST

¹⁸ They are unable to think clearly about what is right or wrong because they try to live completely separated from God. They do this because they do not know what they are missing and because they stubbornly refuse to obey God.

What does Paul say has happened to the understanding of the Gentiles?

The understanding of the Gentiles has been darkened.

Ephesians 4:19ULT

¹⁹ They, being dead to all feeling, handed themselves over to sensuality for the practice of every kind of impurity with greediness.

UST

¹⁹ They have become unable to sense if something is good or bad, and so they have devoted themselves to doing whatever shameful things their bodies desire. They commit all kinds of immoral acts and want to do them more and more.

To what have the Gentiles handed themselves over?

The Gentiles have handed themselves over to sensuality to do every kind of impurity.

Ephesians 4:20ULT

²⁰ But you did not thus learn about Christ,

UST

²⁰ But that is not how you learned to live when you learned about the Messiah,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:21ULT

²¹ if indeed you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus.

UST

²¹ to the extent that you have heard and understood the message about Jesus and have learned from him, since his way is the true way to live.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:22ULT

²² You are to put aside {what} belongs to your former manner of life, the old man being corrupted according to {its} deceitful desires,

UST

²² Your teachers taught you to stop living the way that you used to live. Because you desired to do evil things, you deceived yourselves into thinking that those things were good. Living like that was destroying you spiritually.

What does Paul say believers must put off?

Believers must put off what belongs to the old man.

Ephesians 4:23ULT

²³ and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds,

UST

²³ So you must let God give you a new spirit and a new way of thinking,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:24ULT

²⁴ and to put on the new man {that is} according to God—having been created in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

UST

²⁴ and you must start living like the new person that God created you in his own image to be. He created you to live in the right way with each other and with himself, in the true way of Jesus.

What does Paul say believers must put on?

Believers must put on the new man.

Ephesians 4:25ULT

²⁵ Therefore, putting aside the lying, let each of you speak truth with his neighbor, because we are members of one another.

UST

²⁵ So stop lying to one another. Speak truthfully to each other because we belong to each other as members of God's family.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:26ULT

²⁶ Be angry and do not sin. Do not let the sun go down on your indignation,

UST

²⁶ Be angry about sinful behavior, but do not sin because you are angry. Before the end of each day, take care of whatever has made you angry

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:27ULT

²⁷ nor give an opportunity to the devil.

UST

²⁷ so that you will not allow the devil to do evil things among you.

To whom must a believer never give opportunity?

A believer must never give opportunity to the devil.

Ephesians 4:28ULT

²⁸ The thief must steal no longer. But rather, he must labor, working good with his hands, so that he may have something to share with the ones having need.

UST

²⁸ Those who have been stealing must not steal anymore. Instead, they must work hard, doing good work by their own efforts so that they may have something to give to those who are needy.

What must believers do instead of steal?

Believers must labor so that they may be able to share with the person who has need.

Ephesians 4:29ULT

²⁹ Do not let any corrupt talk come out from your mouth, but whatever {is} good for building up of the {one in} need, so that it might give grace to the hearers,

UST

²⁹ Do not say harmful things. Instead, say good things that will encourage people when they need help so that God can work through your words to benefit those who hear.

What kind of talk does Paul say must come out of the believer's mouth?

No corrupt talk must come out of the believer's mouth, but, instead, words that build up others.

Ephesians 4:30ULT

³⁰ and do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

UST

³⁰ God has marked you as his own by giving you the Holy Spirit, who will be with you until the day that the Messiah will rescue you from this world. So do not make the Holy Spirit of God sad by how you live.

Who must a believer not grieve?

A believer must not grieve the Holy Spirit.

Ephesians 4:31ULT

³¹ Let all bitterness, and rage, and anger, and quarreling, and insults be removed from yourselves, along with all malice.

UST

³¹ Do your best to completely stop behaving in these ways: Do not be resentful or furious toward others or even become angry with others. Do not shout abusively at others or slander others. Never act maliciously in any way.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 4:32ULT

³² Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God in Christ also forgave you.

UST

³² Rather than behave like that, be kind to one another. Act mercifully toward each other. Forgive each other in the same way that God also forgave you through what the Messiah has done for you.

What is a believer to do because God in Christ forgave him?

A believer must forgive others because God in Christ forgave him.

Ephesians 5

Ephesians 5:1

ULT

¹ Therefore, be imitators of God, as beloved children,

UST

¹ Because of what God has done for you, imitate him just as children imitate the father who loves them dearly.

Who should believers imitate?

Believers should imitate God the Father as his children.

Ephesians 5:2

ULT

² and walk in love, as also Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, an offering and sacrifice to God for a fragrant aroma.

UST

² Do everything in a way that shows that you love others. Be like the Messiah, who loved us so much that he willingly died for us on the cross as the offering and sacrifice to God in our place. This sacrifice pleased God very much.

What did Christ do which was a pleasing aroma to God?

Christ gave himself up for the believers as an offering and sacrifice to God.

Ephesians 5:3

ULT

³ But sexual immorality and every impurity or greed must not even be named among you, just as is proper for saints,

UST

³ But there should be no reason for anyone to even suggest that any of you are involved in sexual sin or any kind of immoral or obsessive sexual behavior. Such sins do not belong among God's people.

What must not be suggested among believers?

Sexual immorality, impurity, and greed must not be suggested among believers.

Ephesians 5:4ULT

⁴ and filthiness and foolish talk or crude jokes—which are not fitting—but instead, thanksgiving.

UST

⁴ When you speak to each other, do not tell obscene stories or say foolish things or joke about committing sins. Such things are not what people who belong to God talk about. Instead, express the things that you are thankful for.

What attitude should instead be seen among believers?

Believers should instead have an attitude of thankfulness.

Ephesians 5:5ULT

⁵ Indeed, know this for certain, that every sexually immoral or unclean or greedy {person}—that is, an idolater—has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

UST

⁵ It is quite true that these people will be excluded from the kingdom of the Messiah who is God: everyone who is sexually immoral or indecent, or who is obsessed with sex, which is the same as worshiping an idol.

Who has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God?

The sexually immoral, impure, and greedy have no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.

Ephesians 5:6ULT

⁶ Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience.

UST

⁶ Do not let anyone deceive you by telling you that God will not punish people who do these things. It is because of these very things that God will punish the people who disobey him.

What is coming upon the children of disobedience?

The wrath of God is coming upon the children of disobedience.

Ephesians 5:7ULT

⁷ Therefore, do not become partners with them,

UST

⁷ So do not join with those people in doing these kinds of sins.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:8ULT

⁸ because formerly you were darkness, but now {are} light in the Lord. Walk as children of light

UST

⁸ Remember that before you believed in the Lord Jesus, you did not know what was true, just as people who are in a dark place do not know what is around them. But now it is as though you have come out into the light, because the Lord has shown to you what is true. So live in the way that the Lord has shown to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:9ULT

⁹ (for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness and righteousness and truth),

UST

⁹ Because just as people who have light will walk in the right way, as a result of knowing Jesus you can always live in a way that is good, right, and true.

What fruit of the light is pleasing to the Lord?

The fruit of goodness, righteousness, and truth is pleasing to the Lord.

Ephesians 5:10ULT

¹⁰ carefully testing what is pleasing to the Lord.

UST

¹⁰ As you live this way, keep learning what pleases the Lord.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:11ULT

¹¹ And do not take part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even expose {them}.

UST

¹¹ So do not participate together with those who are doing the worthless deeds that they do in spiritual darkness. Instead, expose to everyone how worthless those deeds are.

What are believers to do with the works of the darkness?

Believers are not to participate with, but instead expose, the works of darkness.

Ephesians 5:12ULT

¹² For it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret.

UST

¹² Of course it is shameful for God's people to even talk about the evil things that those people do in secret,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:13ULT

¹³ But everything exposed by the light is revealed, for everything that is revealed is light.

UST

¹³ but it is necessary for us to expose them so that people can know and understand that these deeds are evil. This is like when we bring something into the light in order to reveal to everyone what it truly is. Then people can examine and judge that thing that light has exposed.

What is revealed by the light?

Everything is revealed by the light.

Ephesians 5:14ULT

¹⁴ Therefore it says, "Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."

UST

¹⁴ Before you knew God you were like someone asleep or dead in a dark place. This is what believers are talking about when they say, "You who are asleep, wake up! You who are dead, come out of the darkness and live! The Messiah will show you what is true, just as a light that shines shows people what was in the darkness."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:15ULT

¹⁵ Watch carefully, therefore, how you walk—not as unwise but as wise,

UST

¹⁵ So be very careful how you live. Do not behave as foolish people do. Instead, behave as wise people do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:16ULT

¹⁶ redeeming the time because the days are evil.

UST

¹⁶ Do the most good that you can with the time that you have, because people are doing more and more evil things every day.

What should believers do since the days are evil?

Believers should redeem the time since the days are evil.

Ephesians 5:17ULT

¹⁷ Because of this, do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord {is}.

UST

¹⁷ So be wise, understand well what it is that the Lord Jesus wants you to do, and do it!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:18ULT

¹⁸ And do not get drunk with wine, in which is recklessness. Instead, be filled with the Spirit,

UST

¹⁸ Do not become drunk by drinking alcoholic drinks, because people cannot control themselves when they are drunk. Instead, let God's Spirit control what you do at all times.

What leads to recklessness?

Getting drunk with wine leads to recklessness.

Ephesians 5:19ULT

¹⁹ speaking to each other in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and singing psalms in your heart to the Lord,

UST

¹⁹ Sing to each other Psalms and songs about the Messiah and songs that God's Spirit gives you. Let this music come from deep within you as sincere praise to the Lord.

With what should believers speak to each other?

Believers should speak to each other with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs.

Ephesians 5:20ULT

²⁰ giving thanks always for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God, even the Father,

UST

²⁰ At all times thank God the Father for everything because of what our Lord Jesus the Messiah has done for you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:21ULT

²¹ submitting yourselves to one another in reverence for Christ—

UST

²¹ Humbly submit yourselves to each other because you deeply respect the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:22ULT

²² wives, to your own husbands, as to the Lord.

UST

²²⁻²³ Wives should submit to their own husband's leadership as they do to the Lord Jesus because the husband is the leader of the wife as also the Messiah is the leader of the worldwide assembly of believers. He is the Savior who has saved all believers from being condemned for their sins.

In what way should wives be subject to their husbands?

Wives should be subject to their husbands as to the Lord.

Ephesians 5:23ULT

²³ For a husband is the head of the wife as Christ also {is} the head of the church—he himself {is} the savior of the body.

UST

²²⁻²³ Wives should submit to their own husband's leadership as they do to the Lord Jesus because the husband is the leader of the wife as also the Messiah is the leader of the worldwide assembly of believers. He is the Savior who has saved all believers from being condemned for their sins.

Of what is the husband the head, and of what is Christ the head?

The husband is head of the wife, and Christ is head of the Church.

Ephesians 5:24ULT

²⁴ But as the church is subject to Christ, so also {are} wives to their husbands in everything.

UST

²⁴ As for wives, just as all believers submit themselves to the authority of the Messiah, in the same way wives must also submit themselves completely to the authority of their husbands.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:25ULT

²⁵ Husbands, love your wives just as Christ also loved the church and gave himself up for her,

UST

²⁵ Each of you husbands, love your wife as much as the Messiah loved all who would believe in him. He even gave up his own life for us on the cross

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:26ULT

²⁶ so that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of the water with the word,

UST

²⁶ so that he might set us apart for himself. He purified us by telling us his plan to forgive us and by removing our sins as though washing them away in water.

How does Christ sanctify the Church?

Christ sanctifies the Church holy by the washing her of water with the word.

Ephesians 5:27ULT

²⁷ so that he might present the church to himself as glorious, not having stain or wrinkle or any of those things, but so that she might be holy and blameless.

UST

²⁷ He did this so that he could present the group of all believers to himself as a glorious group that does not have any sin or moral imperfection, but instead is holy and perfect, like a glorious bride ready to meet her groom.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:28ULT

²⁸ In the same way, the husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. The one loving his own wife loves himself.

UST

²⁸ In that same way, each man should love his own wife as much as he loves his own body. A man who loves his wife is also, by doing that, loving himself

How should husbands love their wives?

Husbands should love their wives as their own bodies.

Ephesians 5:29ULT

²⁹ For no one ever hated his own body, but he nourishes and treats it with care, just as Christ also {does} the church,

UST

²⁹⁻³⁰ because no one ever hated his own body. Instead, he feeds his own body and cares for it, just like the Messiah also cares for all us believers in his worldwide assembly. We have become one group of believers that belongs to him.

How does a person treat his own body?

A person nourishes and loves his own body.

Ephesians 5:30ULT

³⁰ because we are members of his body.

UST

²⁹⁻³⁰ because no one ever hated his own body. Instead, he feeds his own body and cares for it, just like the Messiah also cares for all us believers in his worldwide assembly. We have become one group of believers that belongs to him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 5:31ULT

³¹ “Because of this a man will leave his father and his mother and will be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.”

UST

³¹ The scriptures say this about people who marry: “Therefore a man will leave his father and his mother and will join himself to his wife, and the two of them will become as though they were one person.”

What happens when a man is joined to his wife?

When a man is joined to his wife, they become one flesh.

Ephesians 5:32ULT

³² This mystery is great—but I am speaking about Christ and about the church.

UST

³² There is very much about this that we cannot understand, but I am telling you that this example of a husband and wife also helps us to understand the relationship between the Messiah and the group of people who belong to him.

What hidden truth is demonstrated by the joining of a man and his wife?

The hidden truth about Christ and his Church is demonstrated by the joining of a man and his wife.

Ephesians 5:33ULT

³³ Nevertheless, you also—each one of you—must love his own wife in this way—as himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

UST

³³ However, as for you, each man must love his wife just as he loves himself, and each woman must deeply respect her husband.

Ephesians 6

Ephesians 6:1

ULT

¹ Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is righteous.

UST

¹ As for you who are children, obey your parents as a way of serving the Lord Jesus because it is right for you to do that.

How should Christian children treat their parents?

Christian children should obey their parents.

Ephesians 6:2

ULT

² "Honor your father and mother" (which is the first commandment with a promise),

UST

² God commanded in the scriptures, "Greatly respect your father and mother." That is the first law that God commanded in which he also promised something. He promised,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 6:3

ULT

³ "so that it may be well with you and you may be long-lived on the earth."

UST

³ "If you do that, you will prosper, and you will live a long time on the earth."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 6:4ULT

⁴ And fathers, do not provoke your children to anger. Instead, raise them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

UST

⁴ As for you who are fathers, do not treat your children in a way that makes them become angry. Instead, bring them up well by instructing them and by disciplining them in the manner that the Lord Jesus wants you to do.

What are Christian fathers to do for their children?

Christian fathers are to raise their children in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Ephesians 6:5ULT

⁵ Slaves, obey your masters according to the flesh with fear and trembling, in honesty of your heart, as to Christ,

UST

⁵ As for you who are slaves, very respectfully and sincerely obey those who are your masters here on the earth, just as you obey the Messiah.

With what attitude should Christian slaves obey their masters?

Christian slaves should obey their masters in the honesty of their heart as for the Lord.

Ephesians 6:6ULT

⁶ not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the soul,

UST

⁶ Obey them not only when they are watching you, as people do who only care about appearing to work hard. Instead, work as though you were slaves of the Messiah, doing enthusiastically what God wants you to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 6:7ULT

⁷ serving with a good attitude, as to the Lord and not to men,

UST

⁷ Serve your masters willingly, as though you are serving the Lord Jesus rather than people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 6:8ULT

⁸ knowing that each person, if he does something good, this he will receive from the Lord, whether slave or free.

UST

⁸ Do this because you know that the Lord Jesus will reward each person for whatever good deeds that person has done. It makes no difference whether that person was a slave or a free person.

What should a believer remember about whatever good deed he does?

A believer should remember that for whatever good deed he does, he will receive a reward from the Lord.

Ephesians 6:9ULT

⁹ And masters, do the same to them. Stop using threats. You know that the Master, both theirs and yours, is in heaven, and there is no favoritism with him.

UST

⁹ As for you who are masters, just like your slaves should serve you well, in the same way you must treat them well. Stop threatening them. Do not forget that the one who is both their Lord and your Lord is in heaven and he judges all people equally whether their position is high or low.

What should a Christian master remember about his Master?

A Christian master should remember that his and his servant's Master is in heaven, and that there is no favoritism with him.

Ephesians 6:10ULT

¹⁰ Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the force of his strength.

UST

¹⁰ Finally, rely completely on the Lord Jesus to strengthen you spiritually because he is immeasurably strong.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 6:11ULT

¹¹ Put on the whole armor of God, to enable you to stand against the scheming of the devil.

UST

¹¹ Just as a soldier puts on all of his armor to be ready to fight his enemy, you should use every spiritual resource that God provides for you so that you may successfully resist the devil when he cleverly schemes against you.

Why must a believer put on the whole armor of God?

A believer must put on the whole armor of God to stand against the wicked plans of the devil.

Ephesians 6:12ULT

¹² For our struggle is not against blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the world-controllers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly {places}.

UST

¹² Remember that we are not fighting against other human beings. Instead, we are fighting against the demons who have authority to rule over the people doing evil things in this evil time, that is, against the evil spirits who live in the air.

Against whom does a believer battle?

A believer battles against governments and rulers of the realm of darkness and against spiritual forces of evil.

Ephesians 6:13ULT

¹³ Because of this, put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done everything, to stand.

UST

¹³ That is why you must use well all of the spiritual resources that God has given you, like a soldier who puts on all of his armor. If you do that, you will be able to resist the evil spirits when they attack you. You will also be ready for when they attack you again and able to continue to live well for God.

Why must a believer put on the whole armor of God?

A believer must put on the whole armor of God to stand against the wicked plans of the devil.

Ephesians 6:14ULT

¹⁴ Stand, therefore, having girded up your loins with truth and having put on the breastplate of righteousness,

UST

¹⁴ You must be ready to resist the devil and his evil spirits just as soldiers must always be ready to resist the enemy. To do that, keep thinking about the true things that God has shown you. Also, continue to act righteously. This will protect you like a soldier's armor protects his chest.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 6:15ULT

¹⁵ and having shod your feet with readiness of the gospel of peace.

UST

¹⁵ Just like a soldier who keeps his boots on, be ready to go anywhere you are needed for the sake of the good news that tells people how to be at peace with God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 6:16ULT

¹⁶ In everything take up the shield of the faith, by which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

UST

¹⁶ Just as a soldier holds up a shield to stop the flaming arrows that his enemy shoots at him, you must keep trusting firmly in the Lord at all times. That will protect you from all of the things that your enemy, Satan, the evil one, will try to do to harm you spiritually.

Which piece of the armor of God puts out the flaming arrows of the evil one?

The shield of faith puts out the flaming arrows of the evil one.

Ephesians 6:17ULT

¹⁷ And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

UST

¹⁷ Also, as a soldier relies on a helmet to protect his head, rely on the fact that God has saved you. And just as a soldier uses a sword to defeat his enemies, use the weapon that God's Spirit gives you, which is the message that comes from God.

What is the sword of the Spirit?

The sword of the Spirit is the word of God.

Ephesians 6:18ULT

¹⁸ With every prayer and request, pray at all times in the Spirit. And to this {end}, be watchful with all perseverance and requests for all the saints,

UST

¹⁸ Whenever you pray to God and request things from him, always let God's Spirit direct you in how you pray and what you pray for. To be most effective, keep watching to see what God is doing, and be persistent as you continue to pray for all of God's people.

How should believers conduct themselves in prayer?

Believers should pray at all times, persevering and watching for God's answer.

Ephesians 6:19ULT

¹⁹ and for me, so that a message might be given to me in the opening of my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel

UST

¹⁹ Pray for me, also, that God would tell me what I should say whenever I speak, in order that I may boldly tell others the good news about the Messiah that people did not know before.

What does Paul wish to have through the prayers of the Ephesians?

Paul wishes to have the word given to him with boldness when he speaks the gospel.

Ephesians 6:20ULT

²⁰ (for which I am an ambassador in chains), so that in it I may speak boldly, as it is necessary for me to speak.

UST

²⁰ It is because I have been telling people about the Messiah that I am now representing him here in prison. Pray that as I continue to tell others about the Messiah, I may speak boldly because that is how I ought to speak.

Where is Paul as he writes this letter?

Paul is in chains in prison as he writes this letter.

Ephesians 6:21ULT

²¹ But so that you also may know the things concerning me, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known to you everything,

UST

²¹ Now in order that you may know about what is happening with me and what I am doing, Tychicus will tell you everything that is happening here. He is a fellow believer whom we all love very much, and he serves the Lord Jesus faithfully.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 6:22ULT

²² whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, so that you may know the things about us and your hearts may be encouraged.

UST

²² That is the reason that I am sending him to you with this letter; I want you to know how we are, and I want him to comfort and encourage you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ephesians 6:23ULT

²³ Peace to the brothers, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

²³ I pray that God our Father and the Lord Jesus the Messiah may give to all of you fellow believers a peaceful spirit and enable you to love each other and to continue to trust in God.

What does Paul ask that God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give the believers?

Paul asks that God will give them peace and love with faith.

Ephesians 6:24ULT

²⁴ Grace {be} with all the ones loving our Lord Jesus Christ with incorruptibility.

UST

²⁴ I pray that God will continue to act graciously among all people who steadfastly love our Lord Jesus the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians

Philippians 1

Philippians 1:1

ULT

¹ Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus being in Philippi, with the overseers and deacons.

UST

¹ {I,} Paul, {am writing this letter} to all of God's people who are joined to the Messiah Jesus in {the city of} Philippi. Timothy is with me. We are servants of the Messiah Jesus. {We especially write this letter} for the leaders of the believers and for those who assist {them}.

To whom did Paul address this letter?

Paul addressed this letter to all the people who are set apart in Christ Jesus at Philippi, including the overseers and deacons.

Philippians 1:2

ULT

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

² May God our Father and our Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to} be kind to you and {make you} peaceful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:3

ULT

³ I thank my God in all my remembrance of you,

UST

³ Every time I think about you, I thank my God whom I worship {because of you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:4ULT

⁴ always, in every prayer of mine for all of you, making my prayer with joy

UST

⁴ I always pray joyfully each time I pray for all of you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:5ULT

⁵ because of your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

UST

⁵ {The reason I pray joyfully is} because you have partnered with me in telling people the good news from the time you first believed {it} and you continue to partner with me now.

For what did Paul give thanks to God for the Philippians?

Paul gave thanks to God for the Philippians' fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now.

Philippians 1:6ULT

⁶ having become confident about this very thing, that the one having begun a good work in you will perfect {it} until the day of Jesus Christ;

UST

⁶ God started his good work within you {when you first believed in him}, and I am confident that he will continue that work until Jesus the Messiah returns.

Of what was Paul confident regarding the Philippians?

Paul was confident that he who had begun a good work in them would complete it.

Philippians 1:7ULT

⁷ just as it is right for me to think this {way} about all of you because, I have you in my heart, all of you being partakers with me of grace both in my chains and in my defense and confirmation of the gospel.

UST

⁷ I love you all greatly, so it is right for me to think about you in this way. God has kindly blessed us to share together {in this work}, both {as I endure} being a prisoner and also as I explain to people why the good news {about Jesus} is true.

In what had the Philippians been Paul's partners?

In Paul's imprisonment, and in his defense and confirmation of the gospel, the Philippians had been his partners.

Philippians 1:8ULT

⁸ For God {is} my witness, how I long for all of you with the inner parts of Christ Jesus.

UST

⁸ I desire very much to be with you all, and I love you all in the same way as Jesus the Messiah loves you. God knows that this is true.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:9ULT

⁹ And I pray this: that your love would abound still more and more in knowledge and all understanding

UST

⁹ I pray that God will enable you to love {God and others} in a way that continues to increase. As you increasingly love others, I pray that God will also help you to know {him} better and to understand {how to love others} in all situations.

What did Paul pray would increase more and more among the Philippians?

Paul prayed that love would increase more and more among the Philippians.

Philippians 1:10ULT

¹⁰ so that you may approve {what} excels, so that you might be pure and blameless until the day of Christ,

UST

¹⁰ The reason I pray this is so that you will test and choose what is most pleasing {to God} so that then you will be completely free of doing anything wrong when the Messiah returns.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:11ULT

¹¹ being filled with the fruit of righteousness {that is} through Jesus Christ to the glory and praise of God.

UST

¹¹ {Instead of doing wrong things,} you will be busy doing the truly good things that Jesus the Messiah enables us to do. These things will cause people to honor and praise God.

With what did Paul desire that the Philippians be filled?

Paul desired that the Philippians be filled with the fruits of righteousness.

Philippians 1:12ULT

¹² Now I want you to know, brothers, that the things concerning me have really happened for the advancement of the gospel.

UST

¹² My fellow believers, I want you to know that the things that have happened to me have not hindered people from hearing the good news. Instead, even more people have been able to hear the good news because I am in prison.

How had Paul's imprisonment advanced the gospel? (vv12-14)

Paul's imprisonment for Christ had become widely known, and most of the brothers were now speaking with more boldness.

Philippians 1:13ULT

¹³ As a result, my chains in Christ became apparent among the whole palace guard and all the others.

UST

¹³ In fact, all the military guards here and many other people now know that I am in prison because I proclaim the good news about the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:14ULT

¹⁴ And most of the brothers have become confident in the Lord by my chains to dare more fearlessly to speak the word.

UST

¹⁴ Also, because the believers {here} have seen what the Lord has done through me in prison, most of them now proclaim the good news about Jesus more courageously and fearlessly {than they did before}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:15ULT

¹⁵ Some indeed even proclaim Christ because of envy and strife, but also some because of goodwill,

UST

¹⁵⁻¹⁷ Some people are proclaiming the good news about the Messiah because they want to {obey God} and because they love {me and others}. They understand that God has appointed me to explain to people why the good news {about Jesus} is true. But some are not honest about why they are proclaiming the good news about the Messiah. They do it only because they want to promote themselves. They are envious of me and want to cause trouble for me. They think that I will suffer even more in prison as they become famous for proclaiming the good news.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:16ULT

¹⁶ the ones indeed from love having understood that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:17ULT

¹⁷ but the ones from selfish ambition proclaim Christ not sincerely, supposing to raise up trouble in my chains.

UST

¹⁵⁻¹⁷ Some people are proclaiming the good news about the Messiah because they want to {obey God} and because they love {me and others}. They understand that God has appointed me to explain to people why the good news {about Jesus} is true. But some are not honest about why they are proclaiming the good news about the Messiah. They do it only because they want to promote themselves. They are envious of me and want to cause trouble for me. They think that I will suffer even more in prison as they become famous for proclaiming the good news.

Why were some proclaiming Christ out of selfish and insincere motives?

Some were proclaiming Christ out of selfish and insincere motives thinking they were adding to Paul's affliction in prison.

Philippians 1:18ULT

¹⁸ What then? Only that in every way—whether in pretext or in truth—Christ is proclaimed, and in this I rejoice. Yes, and I will rejoice,

UST

¹⁸ But what they want to do to me is not important! The important thing is that people are proclaiming {the good news about} the Messiah, either for good reasons or for bad reasons. So I am rejoicing that people are spreading the message about the Messiah! And I will continue to rejoice in that!

What was Paul's reaction to the sincere and insincere preaching of Christ?

Paul rejoiced that, either way, Christ was being proclaimed.

Philippians 1:19ULT

¹⁹ for I know that this will result to me in deliverance through your prayers and the provision of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

UST

¹⁹ {I will rejoice} because I know how this situation will turn out: that God will deliver me {from prison}. He will do this because you are praying for me and because the Spirit of Jesus the Messiah is helping me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:20ULT

²⁰ according to my eager expectation and hope that I will in nothing be ashamed, but in everything have boldness, and that now, as always, Christ will be exalted in my body, whether through life or through death.

UST

²⁰ {I know that this will happen, because} I very confidently expect that I will continue to faithfully honor the Messiah. {I expect and desire that} I will boldly honor the Messiah by my actions now and always, whether by the way I live or by the way I die.

What did Paul desire to do in life or by death?

Paul desired to bring glory to Christ either in life or by death.

Philippians 1:21ULT

²¹ For to me to live {is} Christ, and to die {is} gain.

UST

²¹ As for me, I live to honor the Messiah, and if I die, it will be even better for me.

Paul said that to live is what, and to die is what?

Paul said that to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

Philippians 1:22ULT

²² Now if to live in the flesh, this {is} fruitful labor for me, but I do not know which I will choose.

UST

²² But if I continue to live here in my body, I will be able to productively serve the Messiah. So I do not know which I prefer, {to live or to die}.

What choices pulled Paul in different directions? (vv22-24)

Paul was pulled by the choices of being with Christ in death or of remaining in the flesh to continue his labor.

Philippians 1:23ULT

²³ But I am hard pressed between the two, having the desire to depart and to be with Christ, for {that is} very much better,

UST

²³ It is difficult for me to choose which I prefer, {living or dying}. I long to leave {this world} and go to be with the Messiah, because to be with the Messiah is very much better {than being here},

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:24ULT

²⁴ but to remain in the flesh {is} more necessary for your sake.

UST

²⁴ but I need to remain alive here on earth in order to continue to help you.

Philippians 1:25ULT

²⁵ And having become confident of this, I know that I will remain and will continue with you all for your progress and joy in the faith

UST

²⁵ Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain alive with you all in order to help you to be even more joyful as you continue to trust in Jesus.

For what purpose was Paul confident that he would remain with the Philippians?

Paul was confident that he would remain with the Philippians for their progress and joy in the faith.

Philippians 1:26ULT

²⁶ so that in me your boasting in Christ Jesus might abound through my coming to you again.

UST

²⁶ {I will do this} so that you will praise Jesus the Messiah even more because of me, because I will come and visit you again.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 1:27ULT

²⁷ Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ so that whether having come and having seen you or whether being absent, I might hear about you, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving together for the faith of the gospel.

UST

²⁷ The important thing is that you act in a way that honors the good news about the Messiah. {Do this} so that people will tell me that you are working hard together in a unified way as you resist those who oppose the message about the Messiah and as you help people to live according to the good news. {You must act in this way} whether or not I visit you again.

Whether with the Philippians or away from them, what did Paul want to hear about the Philippians?

Paul wanted to hear that the Philippians stood fast in one spirit, with one soul striving together for the faith of the gospel.

Philippians 1:28ULT

²⁸ And do not be frightened in anything by the ones opposing {you}. This is a sign to them of their destruction, but of your salvation—and this from God.

UST

²⁸ Do not let the people who are against you make you afraid by anything {that they do or say}. When they see that you are not afraid of them, they will know that God will destroy them, but he will save you. All of this is from God.

When the Philippians did not fear those opposing them, of what was that a sign?

When the Philippians did not fear those opposing them, it was a sign of their opponents' destruction, but of the believers' salvation.

Philippians 1:29ULT

²⁹ For it has been freely given to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on behalf of him,

UST

²⁹ God does this for you because he has given you the gift of suffering for the Messiah, along with the gift of believing in him.

What two things had been granted to the Philippians by God?

It had been granted to the Philippians that they believe on Christ, but also that they suffer on his behalf.

Philippians 1:30

ULT

³⁰ having the same struggle which you saw in me, and now you hear in me.

UST

³⁰ You saw how I had to resist the people who opposed me {when I was there in Philippi}. Now you have to resist the people who are opposing you in the same way. As people tell you even now, I am still struggling to resist such people.

Philippians 2

Philippians 2:1

ULT

¹ Therefore, if {there is} any encouragement in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affections and compassions,

UST

¹ Since the Messiah encourages us, since he comforts us with his love, since the Spirit has produced fellowship {among you}, since {God gives you} affection and compassion {toward one another},

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:2

ULT

² fulfill my joy that you might think the same, having the same love, united in soul, thinking the one thing.

UST

² make me completely happy by doing the following things: Agree with one another, love one another, be closely united with one another, be united in your thinking.

What does Paul say the Philippians must do to make his joy full?

The Philippians must be of the same mind, have the same love, and be united in spirit and mind.

Philippians 2:3

ULT

³ {Do} nothing according to selfish ambition or according to empty conceit, but with humility considering others better than yourselves,

UST

³ Never try to selfishly make yourselves more important than others, and do not think of yourselves as better than others. Instead, be humble, and treat others as more important than yourselves.

How does Paul say the Philippians should consider each other?

The Philippians should consider each other better than themselves.

Philippians 2:4

ULT

⁴ each one not considering the things of themselves, but also the things of each other.

UST

⁴ Each one of you should not only be concerned about your needs. Instead, you should also be concerned about other people and their needs.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:5

ULT

⁵ Have this attitude in you which also {was} in Christ Jesus,

UST

⁵ Think the same way as the Messiah Jesus thought:

Whose mind does Paul say we need to have? (vv5-6)

Paul says we need to have the mind of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 2:6

ULT

⁶ who, existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal with God something to be grasped.

UST

⁶ Although he was in every way the same as God, he did not insist on keeping all the privileges of being equal with God.

In what form did Christ Jesus exist?

Christ Jesus existed in the form of God.

Philippians 2:7ULT

⁷ Instead, he emptied himself, having taken the form of a servant, having been born in the likeness of men, and having been found in appearance as a man,

UST

⁷ Rather, he gave up divine privileges and became a servant to others and became a human being. When he had become a human being,

What form did Christ Jesus then take?

Christ Jesus then took the form of a servant, in the appearance of a man.

Philippians 2:8ULT

⁸ he humbled himself, having become obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross!

UST

⁸ he humbled himself further. Specifically, {he humbled himself} by obeying God so far as to be willing to die. He was even willing to die by being crucified on a cross.

How did Jesus humble himself?

Jesus humbled himself by obeying to the point of death on the cross.

Philippians 2:9ULT

⁹ Therefore, God also highly exalted him and gave him the name {that is} above every name

UST

⁹ Because {the Messiah humbly obeyed God,} God also honored him very much; he honored him more than any other person or being,

What did God then do for Jesus?

God highly exalted Jesus and gave him the name above every name.

Philippians 2:10ULT

¹⁰ so that at the name of Jesus every knee would bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

UST

¹⁰ so that before Jesus, every being will bow down and honor him, beings who are in heaven and beings on earth and beings under the earth;

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:11ULT

¹¹ and every tongue would confess that Jesus Christ {is} Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

UST

¹¹ and every mouth will say, that Jesus the Messiah is Lord, so that God the Father is honored.

What will every tongue confess?

Every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

Philippians 2:12ULT

¹² So then, my beloved, just as you always obeyed, not only as in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

UST

¹² As a result of these things, my dearly loved fellow believers, as you have always obeyed God when I was with you, now that I am apart from you, you also must obey him even more. Every one of you, work with God in his saving work within you, and do this humbly reverencing God.

How are the Philippians called to work out their salvation?

The Philippians are to work out their salvation with fear and trembling.

Philippians 2:13ULT

¹³ For God is the one working in you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

UST

¹³ For God is doing something within you so that you will want to do—and then actually do—the good things that please him.

What does God work in believers to do?

God works in believers both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Philippians 2:14ULT

¹⁴ Do all things without complaining or arguing

UST

¹⁴ Do everything without grumbling or quarreling.

Everything must be done without what?

Everything must be done without complaining and arguing.

Philippians 2:15ULT

¹⁵ so that you might become blameless and pure, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world,

UST

¹⁵ Behave like that in order that you may be completely faultless, children of God, who keep yourselves from evil as you live among the wicked people of this world. Then, as you live among them, you will stand out brightly against the darkness of sin.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:16ULT

¹⁶ holding forth the word of life for my boasting on the day of Christ that I did not run in vain nor labor in vain.

UST

¹⁶ Tell others the message about how to have eternal life. {Do all these things} so that at the time when the Messiah returns, I will be able to rejoice that I did not work hard among you uselessly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:17ULT

¹⁷ But even if I am being poured out as an offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and rejoice with you all.

UST

¹⁷ And I am joyful and I will rejoice with you all, despite suffering daily or going through times when those who oppose the gospel try to kill me. I will gladly suffer along with you, adding to your service which you offer because you believe in him.

For what purpose is Paul pouring out his life?

Paul is pouring out his life in the sacrifice and service of the Philippian's faith.

Philippians 2:18ULT

¹⁸ Now in the same manner, you also rejoice and rejoice with me.

UST

¹⁸ In the same way also, each of you should rejoice regarding these things; you should rejoice together with me!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:19ULT

¹⁹ Now I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon so that I also might be encouraged, having come to know the things concerning you.

UST

¹⁹ I am hoping that the Lord Jesus will soon allow me to be able to send Timothy to visit you. I want this visit to happen because I hope he can encourage me when he returns with news of you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:20ULT

²⁰ For I have no one like-minded, who will be genuinely anxious about the things concerning you,

UST

²⁰ I have no one else like Timothy who genuinely cares for you.

Why is Timothy a unique helper for Paul?

Timothy is unique because he truly cares for the Philippians.

Philippians 2:21ULT

²¹ for they all seek their own things, not the things of Jesus Christ.

UST

²¹ All the others whom I might send to you are concerned only about their own matters. They are not concerned enough about what Jesus the Messiah considers important.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:22ULT

²² But you know his proven worth, that as a child with his father, he served with me in the gospel.

UST

²² But you know that Timothy has proved that he serves the Lord and others faithfully. You know that he has served the Lord closely together with me in proclaiming the good news to people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:23ULT

²³ Therefore, I hope to send him at once, as soon as I would see {how} the things concerning me {go}.

UST

²³ I am hoping to send Timothy to you as soon as I know what will happen to me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:24ULT

²⁴ But I am confident in the Lord that I myself will also come soon.

UST

²⁴ And I am confident that the Lord will allow me to be released soon, so that I myself will also come to you.

Is Paul expecting to see the Philippians?

Yes, Paul expects to see the Philippians soon.

Philippians 2:25ULT

²⁵ Now I consider {it} necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, and your messenger and minister for my needs,

UST

²⁵ I have concluded that I should send Epaphroditus back to you. He is a fellow believer and my fellow worker, and he endures difficulties together with me just like soldiers endure difficulties together. He is your messenger and servant, whom you sent to help me when I was needy.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:26ULT

²⁶ seeing that he has been longing to be with you all, and he is distressed because you heard that he was sick.

UST

²⁶ Epaphroditus eagerly desires to be there with you at Philippi, and he is concerned for you {that you would be worried about him} since you learned of his illness.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:27ULT

²⁷ For indeed he was sick nearly to death, but God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but also on me, so that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow.

UST

²⁷ Indeed, he was so sick that he almost died. But God pitied him, and he also pitied me{, and as a result, he healed him}. God pitied me so that I would not grieve even more.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:28ULT

²⁸ Therefore, I sent him all the more eagerly, so that, having seen him again, you might rejoice, and I might be free from pain.

UST

²⁸ So I am sending him back to you as quickly as possible. I will do this in order that you may rejoice when you see him again, and so that I might grieve less.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:29ULT

²⁹ Therefore, welcome him in the Lord with all joy, and hold in honor the ones such as {him},

UST

²⁹ Receive Epaphroditus joyfully as a fellow believer, and honor other believers who are like him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 2:30ULT

³⁰ since for the sake of the work of Christ, he came near even to death, risking his life so that he might make up your lack of service to me.

UST

³⁰ Do this because, as Epaphroditus was working for the Messiah, he almost died. He knew that he might die as a result of helping me, and he nearly did die. He helped me in order to supply the things that I needed, something you could not do because you are far away from me.

For what did Epaphroditus almost die?

Epaphroditus almost died doing the work of Christ, serving Paul and supplying Paul's needs.

Philippians 3

Philippians 3:1

ULT

¹ {As to} the rest, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. For me to write these same things to you {is} no trouble, and {is} a safeguard for you.

UST

¹ Finally, my fellow believers, rejoice in who God is, and rejoice about what he has done and is doing. Though I will now write to you about the same things that I mentioned to you before, this is not tiresome for me, and it will protect you from being led astray by those who teach things that are not true.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 3:2

ULT

² Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the mutilation.

UST

² Guard yourselves against the ones who are like dirty dogs. Guard yourselves against the ones who teach what is false. Guard yourselves against the ones who cut their bodies.

For whom does Paul warn the believers to watch out?

Paul warns the believers to watch out for the dogs, the evil workers, and the mutilators.

Philippians 3:3

ULT

³ For we are the circumcision—the ones worshiping by the Spirit of God and boasting in Christ Jesus and not being confident in the flesh,

UST

³ But as for us—we ourselves are what it truly means to be circumcised. The Spirit of God enables us to truly worship God, and we glory in the Messiah Jesus rather than trusting in religious acts such as circumcision.

Who does Paul say are the true circumcision?

Paul says the true circumcision are those who worship in the Spirit of God, glory in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

Philippians 3:4ULT

⁴ although I myself having confidence even in the flesh. If anyone else thinks to be confident in the flesh, I even more:

UST

⁴ However, if anyone thinks they could trust in religious acts, I could; and I even more than others. {I will tell you why.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 3:5ULT

⁵ circumcision on the eighth day, from the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; according to the law, a Pharisee;

UST

⁵ I was circumcised eight days after I was born. I am from the people of Israel and am a descendant of the tribe of Benjamin. I am a Hebrew who has retained the Hebrew language and way of living. As regards obeying the laws of Moses, I was a Pharisee, and therefore I strictly obeyed all the laws of Moses and teachings of the scribes.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 3:6ULT

⁶ according to zeal, persecuting the church; according to righteousness {that is} in the law, having become blameless.

UST

⁶ With regard to being passionate about what I believed, I was so extremely passionate about what I believed that I caused those who followed Jesus to suffer. With regard to doing what God required in the law of Moses and doing what the scribes required concerning it, I was without fault.

How does Paul describe his previous conduct in respect to the righteousness of the law?

Paul describes his previous conduct as blameless in respect to the righteousness of the law.

Philippians 3:7ULT

⁷ Whatever things were gains for me, I consider these things loss for the sake of Christ.

UST

⁷ But all the things that I formerly trusted in, these same things I now consider to be worthless because of the Messiah.

How does Paul now regard his previous confidence in the flesh?

Paul now counts all his previous confidence in the flesh as worthless because of Christ.

Philippians 3:8ULT

⁸ But on the contrary, I consider even all things to be loss because of the surpassing value of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, because of whom I have suffered the loss of all things—and I consider {them} dung—so that I might gain Christ

UST

⁸ Instead, even more, I now regard all things as worthless compared to how great it is to know the Messiah, Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have willingly given up all things and I think of them as feces to throw away in order that I might have the Messiah.

For what purpose does Paul now consider all the previous things as garbage?

Paul considers all the previous things as garbage so that he may gain Christ.

Philippians 3:9ULT

⁹ and be found in him, not having my own righteousness {that is} from law, but {that which is} through faith in Christ—the righteousness from God by faith—

UST

⁹ I have willingly given up the things I formerly trusted in so that I might be fully united with the Messiah by believing in him, and not by obeying the laws that God gave to Moses. {I do this because I know} that the only way to please God is by believing in the Messiah.

What righteousness does Paul now have?

Paul now has the righteousness from God that is through faith in Christ.

Philippians 3:10ULT

¹⁰ to know him and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his sufferings, being conformed to his death,

UST

¹⁰ I want to know the Messiah better and better. I want to continually experience him working powerfully in my life, just like God worked powerfully when he caused the Messiah to become alive after he had died. I also want to be continually willing to suffer in order that I may obey God, just like the Messiah suffered in order that he might obey God. I want to become like him in his death.

Paul has fellowship with Christ in what?

Paul has the fellowship of Christ's sufferings.

Philippians 3:11ULT

¹¹ if, in some way, I might attain to the resurrection {that is} from the dead.

UST

¹¹ {I want all of this because} I somehow want God to cause me to live again after I have died.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 3:12ULT

¹² Not that I already received {it}, or have already been made perfect, but I am pursuing {it}, if perhaps I might also grasp that for which I was also grasped by Christ Jesus.

UST

¹² I do not claim that I have already attained this. Nor do I say that God has already finished working in me to make me like Jesus. But I earnestly try to become more and more like Jesus, because this is why Jesus the Messiah took hold of me.

Although he is not yet complete, what does Paul continue to do?

Paul pursues perfection to grasp the reason for which Jesus grasped him.

Philippians 3:13ULT

¹³ Brothers, I do not consider myself to have grasped {it}. But one thing: forgetting {what is} behind and straining for {what is} ahead,

UST

¹³ My fellow believers, I certainly do not think that I have already become completely like Jesus. Nor have fully known him. Rather, I have determined to forget about the things that are in the past and to work hard for the things that are in front of me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 3:14ULT

¹⁴ I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus.

UST

¹⁴ Instead, I concentrate only on continuing to become more and more like Jesus until I die. As a result, because of my relationship with Jesus the Messiah, God will reward me in heaven.

Toward what goal does Paul press on?

Paul presses on toward the goal to win the prize of the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:15ULT

¹⁵ Therefore, as many as {are} perfect should think this {way}; and if you think differently about anything, God will also reveal that to you.

UST

¹⁵ So then, all of us who are mature believers should think this same way. But if you think differently about anything I have just written, God also will show this to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 3:16ULT

¹⁶ However, in what we have attained, we should live in it.

UST

¹⁶ However, regarding the true things that God has already revealed to us, let us all conduct our lives according to these things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 3:17ULT

¹⁷ Become imitators of me, brothers, and watch closely the ones walking in this manner, just as you have us {as} an example.

UST

¹⁷ My fellow believers, join together in imitating me, and observe closely those people who live as we do.

What does Paul tell the Philippians to do regarding the example of his walk?

Paul tells the Philippians to join and imitate him in his walk.

Philippians 3:18ULT

¹⁸ For many walk—about whom I have often told you, but now even weeping, I say—{as} the enemies of the cross of Christ,

UST

¹⁸ There are many people who act in a way that shows that they oppose the message about the Messiah dying on the cross. I have told you about these people many times before, and now I am sad, even crying, as I tell you about them again.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 3:19ULT

¹⁹ whose end {is} destruction, whose god {is their} belly, and {whose} glory {is} in their shame, the ones thinking about earthly things.

UST

¹⁹ God will severely punish these people. These people serve their physical desires rather than God, and they are proud of the very things of which they should be ashamed. These people only think about earthly things instead of heavenly things.

What is the destiny of those whose god is their belly and who think about earthly things?

Those whose god is their belly and who think about earthly things are destined for destruction.

Philippians 3:20

ULT

²⁰ But our citizenship exists in heaven, from where we also eagerly await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ,

UST

²⁰ As for us, we are citizens of heaven, and it is from heaven that we eagerly wait for our Lord Jesus the Messiah to return and rescue us.

Where does Paul say the citizenship of believers is located?

Paul says the citizenship of believers is in heaven.

Philippians 3:21

ULT

²¹ who will transform our lowly body to conformity to his glorious body, according to the working of his power even to subject all things to himself.

UST

²¹ God will change the weak and humble bodies that we have now to be bodies like the glorious resurrected body of Jesus. He will do this by his power, by which he is able to control all things.

What will Christ do to the bodies of believers when he comes from heaven?

Christ will transform the lowly bodies of believers into bodies formed like his glorious body.

Philippians 4

Philippians 4:1

ULT

¹ Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, in this way stand firm in the Lord, beloved.

UST

¹ My fellow believers, I love you, and I greatly desire to see you. I rejoice because of you; you are the reason God will reward me. In the way that I have just described to you {in this letter}, continue to be steadfastly committed to the Lord, my fellow believers whom I love.

What does Paul want his beloved friends in Philippi to do?

Paul wants the Philippians to stand firm in the Lord.

Philippians 4:2

ULT

² I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to think the same in the Lord.

UST

² I urge you, Euodia, and I urge you, Syntyche, to again have a peaceful relationship with each other, because you are both joined to the Lord.

What does Paul wish to see happen with Euodia and Syntyche?

Paul wishes to see Euodia and Syntyche have the same mind in the Lord.

Philippians 4:3

ULT

³ Yes, I also ask you, true companion, to help these {women} who labored with me in the gospel, with also Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names {are} in the Book of Life.

UST

³ And I also urge you, my faithful partner, to please help these women. {Please help them because} they have helped me spread the good news, as have Clement and the rest of my fellow laborers, whose names God has written in his book of those who will live with him forever.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 4:4ULT

⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice.

UST

⁴ Always rejoice in who God is and what he has done and is doing! I say again, rejoice!

What does Paul tell the Philippians to always do?

Paul tells them to rejoice in the Lord always.

Philippians 4:5ULT

⁵ Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord {is} near.

UST

⁵ Act in such a way that all people see that you are gentle. {Do this because} the Lord will return soon.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 4:6ULT

⁶ Be anxious about nothing, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God,

UST

⁶ Do not worry about anything. Instead, in every situation pray to God, and tell him exactly what you need, and ask him to help you. And thank God for all he does for you.

Instead of being anxious, what does Paul say to do?

Paul says that instead of being anxious, we are to tell God in prayer what we need, and thank him.

Philippians 4:7ULT

⁷ and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

UST

⁷ As a result God will enable you not to worry about anything, and he will protect how you think and feel, as you are joined to the Messiah Jesus.

If we do this, what will guard our hearts and thoughts?

If we do this, the peace of God will guard our hearts and thoughts.

Philippians 4:8ULT

⁸ {As to} the rest, brothers, as many as are true, as many as honorable, as many as just, as many as pure, as many as lovely, as many as reputable, if anything {is} virtuous, and if anything {is} praiseworthy, think about these things.

UST

⁸ Finally, my fellow believers, think about whatever is true, whatever is worth honoring, whatever is right, whatever is faultless, whatever is pleasing, whatever is worth admiring, whatever is good, whatever is worth praising: These are the things that you should always be thinking about.

Upon what kinds of things does Paul say to think?

Paul says to think upon things that are honorable, just, pure, lovely, of good report, excellent, and praiseworthy.

Philippians 4:9ULT

⁹ And what you learned and received and heard and saw in me, do these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

UST

⁹ Continually do the things that I have taught you and the things you have heard me say and the things you have seen me do. If you do these things, the God who causes us to be at peace will be with you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 4:10ULT

¹⁰ Now I greatly rejoice in the Lord, because now at last you renewed your concern on my behalf, for which indeed you were concerned, but were lacking opportunity.

UST

¹⁰ I rejoice greatly and thank the Lord, because now, after some time, {by sending money to me} you have once again shown that you are concerned about me. Indeed, you were concerned about me all the time, but you had no opportunity to show it.

What have the Philippians now been able to renew?

The Philippians have now been able to renew their concern for Paul.

Philippians 4:11ULT

¹¹ Not that I speak according to need, for I myself have learned in whatever I am to be content.

UST

¹¹ Do not think that I am saying this because I am concerned about lacking something I need. Rather, I have learned how to be happy no matter what situation I am in.

What secret has Paul learned about living in different circumstances? (vv11-12)

Paul has learned the secret of living contently in both abundance and need.

Philippians 4:12ULT

¹² I know both {how} to be brought low, and I know {how} to abound. In each {situation} and in all {situations}, I have learned both to be filled and to be hungry, and to abound and to be in need.

UST

¹² I have learned how to be happy when I do not have what I need and how to be happy when I have more than I need. I have learned how to be happy when I am hungry and when I have plenty of food to eat. I have learned how to be happy in all circumstances and at all times.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 4:13ULT

¹³ I can do all things in the one strengthening me.

UST

¹³ Because the Messiah strengthens me, I am able to respond well to every situation.

By what power can Paul live contently?

Paul can live contently in all circumstances through Christ, who strengthens him.

Philippians 4:14ULT

¹⁴ However, you did well, having shared together in my affliction.

UST

¹⁴ Nevertheless, you did the right thing to help me in my difficult situation.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 4:15ULT

¹⁵ Now you Philippians also know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I went out from Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving except you alone,

UST

¹⁵ You yourselves, my friends there at Philippi, know that during the time I first proclaimed the good news to you, when I left there to go out from the province of Macedonia, no assembly of believers except you sent me funds or helped me in any way!

Philippians 4:17ULT

¹⁷ Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that is increasing to your account.

UST

¹⁷ I do not say this because I desire that you give me money. Instead, I desire that God will abundantly reward you {as a result of your helping me}.

What does Paul seek for the Philippians in their giving to provide for his needs?

Paul seeks the fruit that increases to the Philippians' account.

Philippians 4:18ULT

¹⁸ Now I have all things in full, and I abound. I have been filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things from you, an aroma, a sweet smell, an acceptable, pleasing sacrifice to God.

UST

¹⁸ You have given me a very generous gift, and, as a result, I have all I require and more. I have an abundant supply of what I need, because you sent Epaphroditus to me with your gift. God considers that your gift is very acceptable, and he is very pleased with it.

How does God view the gift made by the Philippians to Paul?

God is pleased with the gift that the Philippians have made to Paul.

Philippians 4:19ULT

¹⁹ Now my God will fulfill all your need according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

UST

¹⁹ God, whom I serve, will supply everything you need, because you belong to Jesus the Messiah and because he owns all things.

What does Paul say God will do for the Philippians?

Paul says that God will supply every need of the Philippians according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:20ULT

²⁰ Now to our God and Father {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

UST

²⁰ Now, may our God and Father be praised and honored forever! Amen!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 4:21ULT

²¹ Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers with me greet you.

UST

²¹ Greet for me all God's people there. They all belong to Jesus the Messiah. The believers with me greet you also.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philippians 4:22ULT

²² All the saints greet you, but especially the ones from the household of Caesar.

UST

²² All of God's people here send their greetings to you. The fellow believers who work in the palace of Caesar, the emperor, especially send their greetings to you.

Paul says that those of which household greet the Philippians?

Those of Caesar's household greet the Philippians.

Philippians 4:23ULT

²³ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit. Amen. ^[1]
4:23 ^[1]

UST

²³ I desire and pray that our Lord Jesus the Messiah will continue to act kindly toward you all. Amen.

Colossians

Colossians 1

Colossians 1:1

ULT

¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

UST

¹ {I,} Paul, {write this letter to you,} and Timothy our fellow believer {is with me}. God sent me to represent the Messiah Jesus, because that is what God chose to do.

How did Paul become an apostle of Christ Jesus?

Paul became an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God.

Colossians 1:2

ULT

² to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ in Colossae. Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ^[1]

UST

² {I send this letter} to you who are God's people and faithful fellow believers united to the Messiah, {who live} in {the city of} Colossae. {May} God our Father and the Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to} be kind to you and make you peaceful.

To whom did Paul write this letter?

Paul wrote to those set apart for God and the faithful brothers at Colossae.

Colossians 1:3

ULT

³ We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, always praying for you,

UST

³ We pray for you very often. {When we do,} we thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus the Messiah,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 1:4ULT

⁴ having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love that you have for all the saints,

UST

⁴ {because} have learned that you trust in the Messiah Jesus and that you love all God's people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 1:5ULT

⁵ because of the hope that is being reserved for you in the heavens, which you heard before in the word of truth, the gospel,

UST

⁵ {You do these things} because you are confidently waiting for everything that God is keeping for you in heaven. You first learned about all that God has for you when you heard the true message, {which is} the good news about the Messiah.

From where did the Colossians hear about the confident expectation that they now have?

The Colossians heard about their confident expectation in the word of truth, the gospel.

Colossians 1:6ULT

⁶ which being present among you just as also in all the world, is bearing fruit and growing, just as also in you, from the day you heard {it} and learned about the grace of God in truth,

UST

⁶ Just as you heard and believed this good news {in Colossae}, increasing numbers of people in many places are also hearing and believing it. These people are living in a different way now, just as you have been living in a different way since you first learned {about it} and truly experienced how God acts kindly {toward us}.

What does Paul say the gospel has been doing in the world?

Paul says the gospel has been bearing fruit and growing in all the world.

Colossians 1:7ULT

⁷ just as you learned {it} from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our behalf, ^[2]

UST

⁷ This is what Epaphras told you {would happen}. He works with us for the Messiah, and we love him. He faithfully serves the Messiah as our representative.

Who presented the gospel to the Colossians?

Epaphras, the faithful servant of Christ, presented the gospel to the Colossians.

Colossians 1:8ULT

⁸ and the one having made known to us your love in the Spirit.

UST

⁸ He told us that you love {all God's people}, just as God's Spirit {has empowered you to do}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 1:9ULT

⁹ Because of this, from the day we heard this, we also have not stopped praying for you and asking that you might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding,

UST

⁹ Because of everything that Epaphras told us, since the time when he first told us {about you}, we have joined him in consistently praying for you. {When we pray for you,} we ask God to show you everything that he wants you to do and {to make you} able to understand everything that God's Spirit {is teaching you}.

With what does Paul pray that the Colossians be filled?

Paul prays that the Colossians be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding.

Colossians 1:10ULT

¹⁰ to walk worthily of the Lord in every pleasing {way}, bearing fruit in every good deed and growing in the knowledge of God,

UST

¹⁰ {We have been praying that you know what God wants} so that you can live in a way that honors the Lord and pleases him in every way. {When you live this way, you will be} doing every sort of good thing and continually knowing God better.

How does Paul pray that the Colossians will walk in their lives?

Paul prays that the Colossians will walk worthy of the Lord, bearing fruit with good deeds, growing in the knowledge of God.

Colossians 1:11ULT

¹¹ being strengthened with all power according to the power of his glory to all endurance and patience with joy,

UST

¹¹ {As you live this way,} God will greatly strengthen you to be able to patiently endure in all situations, and to do so joyfully. God can strengthen you greatly because he is gloriously powerful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 1:12ULT

¹² giving thanks to the Father, the one having made you able to share the inheritance of the saints in the light. ^[3]

UST

¹² {Then you will continually} thank {God our} Father, {because} he has made you worthy to take part in everything that he has to give to his people when they are with him.

For what have those set apart for God been qualified?

Those set apart for God have been qualified for a share in the inheritance in the light.

Colossians 1:13ULT

¹³ He rescued us from the authority of the darkness and transferred {us} to the kingdom of his beloved Son,

UST

¹³ God our Father has delivered us from the evil one, who used to control us, and he has given us to his Son, whom he loves, so that now we can obey his Son.

From what has the Father rescued those set apart for him?

He rescued them from the dominion of darkness and transferred them to the kingdom of his Son.

Colossians 1:14ULT

¹⁴ in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. ^[4]

UST

¹⁴ Because we are united to his Son, God has set us free; {that is,} he has forgiven our sins.

In Christ, we have redemption, which is what?

In Christ we have redemption, which is the forgiveness of sins.

Colossians 1:15ULT

¹⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

UST

¹⁵ God's Son perfectly reveals who God is, even though no one can see God. The Son existed before God created anything, and he has first place over everything that God has created.

The Son is the image of whom?

The Son is the image of the invisible God.

Colossians 1:16ULT

¹⁶ For in him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, the visible and the invisible. Whether thrones or dominions or governments or authorities, all things have been created through him and for him.

UST

¹⁶ {You can know that the Son existed before anything else existed and has first place over everything} because the Father and the Son together created everything that exists. {This includes} everything in heaven and everything on earth, and everything that we can see and everything that we cannot see, {including the spiritual beings} such as thrones, dominions, rulers, and authorities. The Father and the Son together created everything, and everything exists to honor the Son.

What was created through Jesus Christ and for him?

All things were created through Jesus Christ and for him.

Colossians 1:17ULT

¹⁷ And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

UST

¹⁷ The Son existed before any of creation existed, and he sustains and connects all of it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 1:18ULT

¹⁸ And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from among the dead, so that he himself might become first among all things.

UST

¹⁸ In regard to the church, {that is, all believers,} he rules over it as people's heads rule over their bodies. He made it possible for the church to begin {when he was} the first person to live again after dying{, never to die again}. Because of these things about him, he is greater and more important than anything and anybody else.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 1:19ULT

¹⁹ For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell,

UST

¹⁹ {The Son rules over everything} because the Son is fully God, just as the Father gladly willed him to be.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 1:20ULT

²⁰ and to reconcile through him all things to himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross, through him, whether the things on the earth or the things in the heavens.

UST

²⁰ {God the Father} also {gladly chose to work} through the Son to reconcile to himself everything {and every person that he created} in the whole universe. {God did this} through his Son when his Son died on the cross, which made everything peaceful between God and his creation.

How did God reconcile all things to himself?

God reconciled all things to himself when he made peace through his Son's blood.

Colossians 1:21ULT

²¹ At one time you also were alienated and enemies in thought, in evil deeds.

UST

²¹ Before {you believed in the Messiah}, you did not want to be close {to God}, and you were hostile {to him} because everything you thought and did was evil.

What relationship did the Colossians have with God before they believed the gospel?

Before believing the gospel, the Colossians were separated from God and were his enemies.

Colossians 1:22ULT

²² But now you have been reconciled by the body of his flesh through death to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him,

UST

²² But {that has all changed} now {that you believe in Jesus!} God the Father has repaired the relationship between himself and you {by working} through his Son when his Son became human and died. {God the Father repaired the relationship} so that you can dwell with him as people who are completely free from sin.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 1:23ULT

²³ if indeed you continue in the faith, founded and firm and not being moved from the hope of the gospel that you heard, the one having been proclaimed to every creature {that is} under heaven, of which I, Paul, became a servant.

UST

²³ {This is all true about you} as long as you continue confidently to believe {in the Messiah}, and as long as you do not give up confidently hoping {for God to do what he has promised} in the good news that you heard and that people all over the world have heard. I, Paul, serve God {by proclaiming to people} this same good news.

What must the Colossians continue to do?

The Colossians must continue to be settled in the faith and confident of the gospel.

Colossians 1:24ULT

²⁴ Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and I fill up in my flesh the lack of the afflictions of Christ for the sake of his body, which is the church,

UST

²⁴ At the present time I suffer cheerfully {because it is} for your benefit. I am suffering physically to complete {my part of} the suffering that the Messiah began on behalf of {his people,} the church, which is like the Messiah's own body.

For whose sake is Paul suffering, and what is his attitude?

Paul is suffering for the sake of the church, and he rejoices in it.

Colossians 1:25ULT

²⁵ of which I became a servant according to the stewardship of God, the one having been given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God,

UST

²⁵ God called me to serve his church, and he appointed me {specifically} to carry out his plan that concerns you. {My part of this plan is} to proclaim {to you non-Jews} the full message from God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 1:26ULT

²⁶ the mystery that had been hidden from the ages and from the generations, but now having been revealed to his saints,

UST

²⁶ God kept this message a secret, concealing it from people for a long time. But now he has made the message known to his people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 1:27ULT

²⁷ to whom God desired to make known what {is} the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

UST

²⁷ God has been wanting to tell his people this very glorious message that was secret, which applies to non-Jews {as well as to Jews}. The secret is that the Messiah is united to you {non-Jews}, which means that you can confidently expect to become glorious beings like the Messiah.

What is the mystery that was hidden for ages but now has been revealed?

The mystery that was hidden for ages but now has been revealed is Christ in you, the confidence of glory.

Colossians 1:28ULT

²⁸ We proclaim him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom so that we may present every man complete in Christ.

UST

²⁸ {This is the Messiah} whom we announce {to everyone}. {When we talk about him,} we warn and teach each person as wisely as we can. {We do these things} so that each of these people may become spiritually mature in each person's union with the Messiah.

What is the goal for which Paul is admonishing and teaching every man?

Paul's goal is to present every person complete in Christ.

Colossians 1:29ULT

²⁹ For this also I labor, striving according to his working, the one working in me in power.

1:2 ^[1]

1:7 ^[2]

1:12 ^[3]

1:14 ^[4]

UST

²⁹ I work hard in all that I do in order to accomplish that goal. {I can do this} because the Messiah is powerfully enabling me to do it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 2

Colossians 2:1

ULT

¹ For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and the ones at Laodicea and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh

UST

¹ {I write these things} because I want to inform you about how hard I am working. {I work hard} for you, for the fellow-believers who live in {the city of} Laodicea, and for all fellow-believers who have not met me in person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 2:2

ULT

² so that their hearts might be encouraged, having been brought together in love and into all the riches of the full assurance of understanding, into knowledge of the mystery of God, Christ,

UST

² {I work this hard} in order to encourage all of you {who have not met me} so that you unite yourselves together with love for each other. {I want you} to completely and confidently understand the secret that God had previously kept hidden. {This secret is about} the Messiah.

What is the mystery of God?

The mystery of God is Christ.

Colossians 2:3

ULT

³ in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden.

UST

³ The Messiah is the one who knows all of God's wonderful, wise plan.

What is hidden in Christ?

All the hidden treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden in Christ.

Colossians 2:4ULT

⁴ I say this so that no one might deceive you with persuasive speech.

UST

⁴ I am telling you about this secret in order that no person who argues persuasively will be able to convince you to believe what is not true.

What is Paul concerned that might happen to the Colossians?

Paul is concerned that the Colossians might be deceived with persuasive speech.

Colossians 2:5ULT

⁵ For even if I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your good order and the strength of your faith in Christ.

UST

⁵ {You can know that those who argue persuasively are wrong} because I care about you and think about you, even though I am not with you in person. I am very happy to see that you are behaving properly and that you firmly believe in the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 2:6ULT

⁶ Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in him,

UST

⁶ Now {that I have told you the truth about the good news}, I want you to behave in a way that fits with how God has united you to the Messiah. You should keep behaving as you did when you accepted the Messiah Jesus the Lord.

What does Paul call the Colossians to do now that they have received Christ Jesus?

Paul calls the Colossians to walk in Christ Jesus in the same way that they received him.

Colossians 2:7ULT

⁷ being rooted and built up in him and confirmed in the faith just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

UST

⁷ {Behaving in this way includes} staying firmly united to him, just as a plant's roots hold it firmly in place. {It also includes} depending completely on him, just as a house stands on its foundation. {It also includes} confidently trusting the Messiah, just as Epaphras taught you, and giving thanks more and more.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 2:8ULT

⁸ Beware lest someone will be the one taking you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the elemental teaching of the world, and not according to Christ.

UST

⁸ Be on the alert so that no one who tries to lead you away from the truth will succeed. Anyone who tries to lead you away will use human thinking that is meaningless and deceptive. {Such a false message comes} from what older generations teach younger generations and from what humans normally think about the world, not from the Messiah.

Upon what are the empty deceits that Paul is concerned about based?

The empty deceits are based upon human tradition and the sinful belief systems of the world.

Colossians 2:9ULT

⁹ For in him all the fullness of deity dwells in bodily form,

UST

⁹ {I mention the Messiah} because he, a human, is fully God.

What lives in Christ?

All the fullness of God's nature lives in Christ.

Colossians 2:10ULT

¹⁰ and you are filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority,

UST

¹⁰ In addition, you have everything you need since God has united you to the Messiah, who rules over {the spiritual beings, including} every ruler and every authority.

Who is the head of all rule and authority?

Christ is the head of all rule and authority.

Colossians 2:11ULT

¹¹ in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision made without hands in the removal of the body of flesh in the circumcision of Christ,

UST

¹¹ When God united you to the Messiah, it was as if God the Father had circumcised you. I do not mean that a human physically cut flesh off you. {Rather, instead of cutting off flesh,} God removed your weak and sinful parts. {God} circumcised {you in this way} through what the Messiah accomplished.

What is removed through the circumcision of Christ?

The sinful body of flesh is removed through the circumcision of Christ.

Colossians 2:12ULT

¹² having been buried with him in baptism and in whom you were raised up through faith in the power of God, the one having raised him from the dead.

UST

¹² {Here is another way to understand what God has done for you:} when they baptized you, it was as if {you died and} people buried you {because God the Father included you} when {the Messiah died and} people buried him. And it was as if God the Father brought you back to life {because he included you} when he brought the Messiah back to life. {This happened} because you believed that God the Father works powerfully, particularly when he brought the Messiah back to life.

What happens in baptism?

A person is buried with Christ in baptism.

Colossians 2:13ULT

¹³ And you, being dead in the trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, he made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all of our trespasses, ^[1]

UST

¹³ You used to be spiritually dead, because you {often} sinned against God and because you were non-Jews {and not part of God's people}. But God the Father brought you back to life spiritually {because he included you} when he brought the Messiah back to life. {This means that} he has forgiven us for all the wrong things we have done against him.

What is a person's condition before Christ makes him alive?

A person is dead in his sins before Christ makes him alive.

Colossians 2:14ULT

¹⁴ having canceled the written record of the decrees against us, which were opposed to us, and he has taken {it} out from our midst, having nailed it to the cross;

UST

¹⁴ It was as if God had an official list of the debts we owe{, which are our sins}. {When he forgave us,} he wiped out that list of sins that counted against us, and he prevented it from coming between us and him. God accomplished this when {the Messiah died on the cross, as surely as if} he had nailed the list to the cross.

What did Christ do with the record of debts charged against us?

Christ removed the record of debts and nailed it to the cross.

Colossians 2:15ULT

¹⁵ having stripped the rulers and the authorities, he made a public spectacle of {them}, having triumphed over them in it.

UST

¹⁵ Moreover, God defeated the spiritual beings that rule the world, and he publicly showed {that he defeated them}, just as if he had paraded them around as prisoners. {God did this when the Messiah died} on the cross.

What did Christ do with the rulers and authorities?

Christ removed the rulers and authorities, openly exposed them, and led them as his captives in a victory procession.

Colossians 2:16ULT

¹⁶ Therefore, do not let anyone judge you in food or in drink or in regard to a festival or a new moon or Sabbaths,

UST

¹⁶ Because of these things {that God has done for you}, do not worry about what other people say you should do. {They may have opinions} about what to eat and what to drink. {They may have opinions about} what special days to observe, including days for worshipping God, days for celebrating when there is a new moon, or days for resting.

What does Paul say are a shadow of the things to come?

Paul says that food, drink, feast days, and Sabbaths are a shadow of the things to come.

Colossians 2:17ULT

¹⁷ which are a shadow of the things coming, but the body {is} of Christ.

UST

¹⁷ {God used} these things {to} point to what he had planned for the future, which is the coming of the Messiah himself.

To what reality do the shadows point?

The shadows point to the reality of Christ.

Colossians 2:18ULT

¹⁸ Let no one delighting in false humility and worship of the angels deprive you of your prize, standing on things he has seen, becoming puffed up without cause by the mind of his flesh

UST

¹⁸ {You will meet some people} who enjoy pretending to be humble and worshipping angels and who love to talk about {amazing} things that they have seen. They act like they are great—although without good reason, because they think only in human ways. Do not listen to these people who are trying to take away what God has ready to give to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 2:19ULT

¹⁹ and not holding fast to the head, from which the whole body, being supplied and held together through the joints and ligaments, grows with the growth from God.

UST

¹⁹ {These people} are not remaining loyal to the Messiah. It is he who leads the church, just like people's heads lead their bodies. The head directs how the whole body, each and every part, receives what it needs and how it works together. In this way the body grows. Just like that, the Messiah directs the church so that it grows as God wants it to grow.

From what does the whole body grow with the growth from God?

The whole body holds fast to Christ, the head, to grow with the growth from God.

Colossians 2:20ULT

²⁰ If you died with Christ from the elemental principles of the world, why, as living in the world, are you being subjected to its decrees:

UST

²⁰ It is as if you have died, {because God included you} when the Messiah died. {This frees you} from the spiritual beings that rule this world. So, you should not obey the rules {that these people have given to you}. {Doing so would mean that} you were really still part of this world.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 2:21ULT

²¹ "You may not handle, nor taste, nor touch!"

UST

²¹ {These rules include commands like these:} "Do not feel {certain things}!" "Do not try {certain foods}!" "Do not take hold of {certain things}!"

What kinds of commandments does Paul say are part of the world's beliefs?

Commandments to not handle, not taste, and not touch are part of the world's beliefs.

Colossians 2:22ULT

²² which are all for destruction with the use, according to the commands and teachings of men;

UST

²² All such rules concern things that perish when people make use of them. Further, people{, not God,} teach and require {these rules}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 2:23ULT

²³ which, having indeed a word of wisdom in self-made religion and false humility {and} severity of the body, are not of any value against indulgence of the flesh.

2:13 ^[1]

UST

²³ Following these rules may seem to be a wise thing to do for people who worship God the way they want to, who pretend to be humble, and who treat their bodies badly {as part of their religion}. However, {following these rules} will not help you stop sinning.

Against what do the rules of man-made religion have no value?

The rules of man-made religion have no value against the indulgence of the flesh.

Colossians 3

Colossians 3:1

ULT

¹ If, therefore, you were raised with Christ, seek the things above, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God.

UST

¹ To return {to what I said before}, it is as if God brought you back to life {because he included you} when he brought the Messiah back to life. {Because of this,} I want you to stay focused on what is in heaven, since the Messiah is there. He sits next to God the Father on the throne {and rules everything}.

To where has Christ been raised?

Christ has been raised to sit at the right hand of God.

What should believers seek, and what should they not seek? (vv1-2)

Believers should seek the things above and not the things of the earth.

Colossians 3:2

ULT

² Think about the things above, not the things on the earth.

UST

² I want you to desire what {God has ready for you} in heaven, not what {you could have here} on earth.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 3:3

ULT

³ For you died, and your life has been hidden with Christ in God.

UST

³ {You should think this way} because it is as if you have died. You are spiritually alive only because God has united you to the Messiah in close relationship with himself, and this cannot be seen {on earth right now}.

Where has God put the believer's life?

God has hidden the believer's life in Christ.

Colossians 3:4ULT

⁴ When Christ, your life, ^[1] is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

UST

⁴ You are alive because God has united you to the Messiah. {Therefore,} when {he returns again to earth and} everyone sees him, at that time you will be with him. Then, everyone will see that you too have become glorious {beings like him}.

What will happen to the believer when Christ is revealed?

When Christ is revealed, the believer will also be revealed with him in glory.

Colossians 3:5ULT

⁵ Put to death, therefore, the members {that are} on the earth—sexual immorality, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and envy, which is idolatry,

UST

⁵ Because {this is your destiny}, think of the desires you have to do evil things in this world as enemies that you must kill. {The evil things that you might desire include} having improper sex, doing impure things, enjoying wrong emotions, desiring evil things, and wanting more than you need, which is the same as worshiping another god.

What must the believer put to death?

The believer must put to death the sinful desires of the earth.

Colossians 3:6ULT

⁶ because of which the wrath of God is coming, ^[2]

UST

⁶ Because people have these desires, God is angry with them and will punish them.

What happens to those who are disobedient to God?

The wrath of God comes upon those who are disobedient to God.

Colossians 3:7ULT

⁷ in which you also formerly walked when you were living in them.

UST

⁷ You, just like them, used to have these desires to do evil things. {That was} when you acted out these desires.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 3:8ULT

⁸ But now you must also lay aside all {such things}—wrath, anger, evil desire, slander, {and} obscene speech from your mouth.

UST

⁸ But now {that you have believed}, you must stop behaving in all evil ways. {These evil ways include} acting in angry ways, being angry with others, desiring to hurt others, talking bad about others, and speaking shameful words.

What are some of the things that Paul says the believers must get rid of, which are part of the old self?

The believers must get rid of wrath, anger, evil intentions, insults, and obscene speech.

Colossians 3:9ULT

⁹ Do not lie to one another, having taken off the old man with its practices

UST

⁹ You must not tell lies to one another. You are not the person you used to be, a person who normally behaved in these evil ways.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 3:10ULT

¹⁰ and having put on the new man being renewed in knowledge according to the image of the one having created it;

UST

¹⁰ You are a new person now, {a person} in whom God is working to make you know him more. {You are now a person} who is like God, who turned you into this new person.

In whose image is the believer's new self created?

The believer's new self is created in the image of Christ.

Colossians 3:11ULT

¹¹ where there is no Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, freeman, but Christ {is} all, and in all.

UST

¹¹ Since {you are all new people}, {it is not important} whether anyone is a non-Jew or a Jew, or whether anyone is circumcised or not, or whether anyone is a foreigner or an uncivilized person, or whether anyone is a slave or not. Instead, it is the Messiah who is most important, and God has united him to all {of you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 3:12ULT

¹² Therefore, as chosen ones of God, holy and beloved, put on inner parts of mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, {and} patience,

UST

¹² God has chosen you, he has set you apart as his own people, and he loves you. Because of these things and because {you are new people}, you must always behave properly {towards others}. {This includes} caring about them, being kind to them, not being proud, not behaving harshly, and taking a long time to become angry.

What are some of the things that Paul says the believers must put on, which are part of the new self?

The believers must put on a heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, and patience.

Colossians 3:13ULT

¹³ bearing with one another and being gracious to each other if someone may have a complaint against someone else; just as also the Lord forgave you, so also should you.

UST

¹³ You must not easily become irritated with one another. When you blame other people for the things they have done, you must forgive them. You should imitate how the Lord forgave you by {forgiving one another}.

In what way should the believer forgive?

The believer should forgive in the same way that the Lord has forgiven him.

Colossians 3:14ULT

¹⁴ But above all these things, love, which is the bond of perfection.

UST

¹⁴ Finally, {what is} more important than everything {I have said} so far is that you love one another. By doing this you will unite yourselves together, just as God has called you to do.

What is the bond of perfection among believers?

Love is the bond of perfection.

Colossians 3:15ULT

¹⁵ And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body, and become thankful.

UST

¹⁵ You must make the peace which the Messiah has given you a primary factor when you choose what to do. {You must do this} because God has chosen you to have peace as he unites you closely together, as closely as if you were one person's body. Also, you must give thanks to God.

What should rule in the believer's heart?

The peace of Christ should rule in the believer's heart.

What should the believer give to God in his attitude, song, word, and deed? (vv15-17)

In his attitude, song, word, and deed, the believer should give thanks to God.

Colossians 3:16ULT

¹⁶ Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, {and} spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

UST

¹⁶ You must focus completely on the message about the Messiah as you think and act. You must teach and instruct one another very wisely using songs from the Scriptures, songs about Jesus, and songs that the Holy Spirit has given to you. You must thankfully and sincerely sing to God.

What should live in the believer richly?

The word of Christ should live in the believer richly.

Colossians 3:17ULT

¹⁷ And everything, whatever you might do in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

UST

¹⁷ Whenever you say or do anything, {you should behave} in every situation {as people who} represent the Lord Jesus. Also, you should thank God, {who is our} Father. {You can do this only} because of {the work of} the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 3:18ULT

¹⁸ Wives, be subjected to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

UST

¹⁸ Wives must treat their husbands as the leaders {in their families}, since this is appropriate behavior for those whom God has united to the Lord.

How should a wife respond to her husband?

A wife should submit to her husband.

Colossians 3:19

ULT

¹⁹ Husbands, love your wives, and do not be embittered against them.

UST

¹⁹ Husbands must love their wives and not treat them harshly.

How should a husband treat his wife?

A husband should love his wife and not be bitter against her.

Colossians 3:20

ULT

²⁰ Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is pleasing in the Lord.

UST

²⁰ Children must obey their parents in every circumstance. This pleases God {and is appropriate} for those whom God has united to the Lord.

How should a child treat his parents?

A child should obey his parents in all things.

Colossians 3:21

ULT

²¹ Fathers, do not provoke your children, so that they may not be discouraged.

UST

²¹ Fathers must not make their children angry. Otherwise, the children may feel like giving up.

What should a father not do to his children?

A father should not provoke his children.

Colossians 3:22ULT

²² Slaves, obey your masters according to the flesh in all things, not with eyeservice as people pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord.

UST

²² Slaves must obey those who are their masters in this world in every circumstance. {They should obey} not just when their masters are watching, which is how those who want to please only humans behave. Instead, {they should obey their masters} sincerely because they treat the Lord with reverence.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 3:23ULT

²³ Whatever you might do, work from the soul as to the Lord and not to men,

UST

²³ You must do whatever work you have to do diligently, as if {you were working} for the Lord instead of for merely human masters.

For whom are believers working in whatever they do? (vv23-24)

Believers are working for the Lord in whatever they do.

Colossians 3:24ULT

²⁴ knowing that you will receive from the Lord the reward of the inheritance. You are serving the Lord Christ.

UST

²⁴ {You must obey and serve in this way} because you know that the Lord will justly repay you by giving you what he has kept for you. {Remember that} the Lord Messiah is {the real master} for whom you are working.

What will those receive who serve the Lord in whatever they do?

Those who serve the Lord in whatever they do will receive the reward of the inheritance.

Colossians 3:25

ULT

²⁵ For the one doing unrighteousness will receive what he did unrighteously, and there is no favoritism.

3:4 ^[1]

3:6 ^[2]

UST

²⁵ {You must remember who the real master is} because God will punish anyone who does wrong in proportion to those wrong actions. {This is because} God does not judge people based on how they look or who they are but on what they have done.

What will those receive who do unrighteousness?

Those who do unrighteousness will receive the penalty for what they did.

Colossians 4

Colossians 4:1

ULT

¹ Masters, give to your slaves {what is} right and fair, knowing that you also have a master in heaven.

UST

¹ Masters must treat their slaves justly and fairly. {You who are masters must do this} because you know that you too serve a Master{, one who is} in heaven.

What does Paul remind earthly masters that they also have?

Paul reminds earthly masters that they also have a master in heaven.

Colossians 4:2

ULT

² Continue steadfastly in prayer, staying alert in it in thanksgiving,

UST

² Pray {to God} persistently. Pay attention when you pray, and give thanks {to God}.

In what does Paul want the Colossians to continue steadfastly?

Paul wants the Colossians to continue steadfastly in prayer.

Colossians 4:3

ULT

³ praying together for us also so that God may open a door to us for the word to speak the mystery of Christ, on account of which also I have been bound,

UST

³ When you are praying, pray for us too. {Pray} that God will make it possible for us to freely proclaim our message, which is the secret about the Messiah that we now share with others. Because {we proclaimed} this message, I am now in prison.

For what does Paul want the Colossians to pray?

Paul wants the Colossians to pray that he has an open door to speak the word, the mystery of Christ.

Colossians 4:4ULT

⁴ in order that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak.

UST

⁴ {Pray} that I am able to explain the good news clearly, since this is what God has called me to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 4:5ULT

⁵ Walk in wisdom toward the ones outside, redeeming the time,

UST

⁵ Behave wisely around those who do not believe in the Messiah. Take advantage of every opportunity {you have to do this}.

How does Paul instruct the Colossians to treat those who are outsiders? (vv5-6)

Paul instructs them to live in wisdom, and speak with grace toward those who are outsiders.

Colossians 4:6ULT

⁶ your words always with grace, seasoned with salt, to know how it is necessary for you to answer each one.

UST

⁶ {When you talk with them,} you must always speak in a pleasant and interesting way. {When you do this,} you will know the best way to respond to each person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 4:7ULT

⁷ All the things concerning me, Tychicus will make known to you, the beloved brother and faithful servant and fellow slave in the Lord,

UST

⁷ Tychicus will tell you everything that has been happening to me. {He is} a fellow believer whom I love, who helps me faithfully, and who serves together with me as a man whom God has united to the Lord.

What task had Paul given Tychicus and Onesimus? (vv7-9)

Paul gave them the task of making everything known concerning him to the Colossians.

Colossians 4:8ULT

⁸ whom I sent to you for this very {reason}, so that you might know the things concerning us ^[1] and that he might encourage your hearts.

UST

⁸ I am sending Tychicus to you {with this letter} because I want you to know how we are doing and because Tychicus will help you live confidently.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 4:9ULT

⁹ Together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother who is from among you, they will make known to you all the things here.

UST

⁹ {I am sending him to you} with Onesimus, who is a faithful fellow believer whom I love. He is from your group. Tychicus and Onesimus will tell you about everything {that has been happening} here.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 4:10ULT

¹⁰ Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received orders; if he may come to you, receive him),

UST

¹⁰ Aristarchus, who is in prison with me, and Mark, who is Barnabas' cousin, send their regards to you. You already know that you should welcome Mark if he visits you.

What instructions did Paul give concerning Mark, the cousin of Barnabas?

Paul told the Colossians to receive Mark if he comes to them.

Colossians 4:11ULT

¹¹ and Jesus, the one called Justus. These {are} the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God being from the circumcision, who were a comfort to me.

UST

¹¹ Jesus, whom you may know by the name Justus, also {sends his regards}. These men{—Aristarchus, Mark, and Justus—}are the only Jewish believers who are working with me for the sake of God's kingdom. They have encouraged me {in this work}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 4:12ULT

¹² Epaphras greets you. He {is} from among you, a servant of Christ Jesus, always striving on behalf of you in prayers so that you may stand complete and fully assured in all the will of God.

UST

¹² Epaphras, who is from your group {and} who serves the Messiah Jesus, sends his regards to you. He prays earnestly for you very often. {He prays} that God will make you able to be what God has called you to be and to be sure of everything that God wants {you to do}.

For what does Epaphras pray for the Colossians?

He prays that the Colossians will stand complete and fully assured in all the will of God.

Colossians 4:13ULT

¹³ For I testify for him that he has much hard labor on behalf of you and of the ones in Laodicea and of the ones in Hierapolis.

UST

¹³ {You know that he prays this way for you} because I can personally affirm this about him. {I tell you} that he works very hard for you, for the people {who live} in the city of Laodicea, and for the people {who live} in the city of Hierapolis.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 4:14ULT

¹⁴ Luke, the beloved physician, greets you, and also Demas.

UST

¹⁴ Luke the doctor, whom I love, and Demas send their regards to you.

What is the name of the physician that is with Paul?

The physician's name is Luke.

Colossians 4:15ULT

¹⁵ Greet the brothers in Laodicea, and Nympha, and the church in her house.

UST

¹⁵ Give our regards to the fellow believers who live in Laodicea, to Nympha, and to the group of believers {that meets} in Nympha's home.

In what kind of place was the church in Laodicea meeting?

The church in Laodicea was meeting in a house.

Colossians 4:16ULT

¹⁶ And when this letter has been read among you, make sure that it would be read also in the church of Laodicea and that you also would read the one from Laodicea.

UST

¹⁶ After the person who reads this letter to you finishes it, send {it to Laodicea} so that someone can read it to the group of believers there, too. Also, {ask for} the letter I sent to the believers in Laodicea so that you too can read it.

To what other church had Paul also written a letter?

Paul also had written a letter to the church in Laodicea.

Colossians 4:17ULT

¹⁷ And say to Archippus, "Look to the ministry that you have received in the Lord so that you may fulfill it."

UST

¹⁷ {You must} tell Archippus to make sure that he completes the task that God gave him to do when God united him to the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Colossians 4:18ULT

¹⁸ This greeting {is} by my {own} hand—Paul. Remember my chains. Grace {be} with you.

4:8 ^[1]

UST

¹⁸ I, Paul, send my regards {to you}. I am writing {these last words} myself {instead of having my scribe write them}. You must not forget that I am in prison. {I pray that God will} be gracious to you.

How did Paul show that this letter was actually from him?

Paul wrote his name in his own handwriting at the end of the letter.

1 Thessalonians

1 Thessalonians 1

1 Thessalonians 1:1

ULT

¹ Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace to you and peace. ^[1]

UST

¹ {I,} Paul, {write this letter to you,} and Silas and Timothy {are with me}. {I send this letter} to {you,} the group of believers in the city of Thessalonica. God the Father has united you to himself and to the Lord Jesus the Messiah. {May God continue to be} kind to you and {make you} peaceful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 1:2

ULT

² We give thanks to God always for all of you, making mention {of you} in our prayers continually,

UST

² We pray for you persistently. {When we do,} we consistently thank God for all of you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 1:3

ULT

³ remembering your work of faith and labor of love and endurance of hope of our Lord Jesus Christ before our God and Father;

UST

³ We thank our God and Father for what you do because you trust {in him}. {We thank him} for the way that you help people because you love {them}. {We thank him} for the way that you patiently endure because you confidently expect our Lord Jesus the Messiah {to come again}.

What does Paul always remember before God concerning the Thessalonians?

Paul remembers their work of faith, their labor of love, and their patience of hope.

1 Thessalonians 1:4ULT

⁴ knowing, brothers loved by God, your election,

UST

⁴ {We thank God because} we know that he chose you, fellow believers whom God loves.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 1:5ULT

⁵ because our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance—just as you know what kind {of men} we were among you for your sake.

UST

⁵ {We know that God chose you,} because when we told you the good news, we did not just say words. Rather, the Holy Spirit also powerfully worked {through us}, and we were sure that the good news was true. In the same way, you remember how we acted to help you when we were with you.

In what four ways did the gospel come to the Thessalonians?

The gospel came to the Thessalonians in word, in power, in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance.

1 Thessalonians 1:6ULT

⁶ And you yourselves became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit,

UST

⁶ As for you, you acted as we do and as the Lord {Jesus} did. Specifically, when you believed the good news, you suffered greatly, but the Holy Spirit caused you to rejoice.

What was happening to the Thessalonians as they received the word of the gospel?

The Thessalonians received the word in much hardship.

What was the Thessalonians' attitude as they received the word of the gospel?

The Thessalonians received the word with joy in the Holy Spirit.

1 Thessalonians 1:7ULT

⁷ so that you became examples to all the ones believing in Macedonia and in Achaia.

UST

⁷ Because {you acted in those ways}, all the believers in the provinces of Macedonia and Achaia want to act as you do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 1:8ULT

⁸ For from you the word of the Lord has been sounded out not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but your faith toward God has gone out into every place, so that we do not have need to say anything.

UST

⁸ In fact, many people {who live} in the provinces of Macedonia and Achaia have heard the message about the Lord {Jesus} because of you. Even more, people in very many places have heard about how you trust in God. As a result, we do not need to tell people anything {about what God has done for you}.

What happened to the word of the Lord after the Thessalonians received it?

The word of the Lord rang out in every place their faith went out.

1 Thessalonians 1:9ULT

⁹ For they themselves report concerning us what kind of entrance we had to you and how you turned to God from the idols to serve the living and true God

UST

⁹ Indeed, those same people tell others about how well it went when we visited you. {They say that} you stopped caring about other gods {and began to focus on} God so that you could worship and obey him, the only real God.

What were the Thessalonians worshipping before they became believers in the true God?

The Thessalonians were worshipping idols before they became believers in the true God.

1 Thessalonians 1:10ULT

¹⁰ and to wait for his Son from the heavens, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, the one rescuing us from the coming wrath.

1:1 ^[1]

UST

¹⁰ Further, {they say that you focused on God} so that you could eagerly anticipate when God's Son {will come back} from {where he is in} heaven. God made Jesus alive again, and Jesus is the one who will save us {who believe in him} at the time when God will punish people {for their sins}.

For what were Paul and the Thessalonians waiting?

Paul and the Thessalonians were waiting for Jesus to come from heaven.

From what does Jesus deliver us?

Jesus delivers us from the wrath to come.

1 Thessalonians 2

1 Thessalonians 2:1

ULT

¹ For you yourselves know, brothers, that our entrance to you has not been in vain.

UST

¹ Fellow believers, you surely remember that when we visited you, it was very productive.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 2:2

ULT

² But having previously suffered and having been mistreated at Philippi, just as you know, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in much struggle.

UST

² As you remember, when we were in the city of Philippi, people hurt us and abused us. However, our God made us confident when we told you the good news from God, despite how hard it was {to do}.

How had Paul and his companions been treated before coming to the Thessalonians?

Paul and his companions had suffered and had been treated shamefully.

1 Thessalonians 2:3

ULT

³ For our exhortation {was} neither from error, nor from impurity, nor in deceit,

UST

³ {When} we encouraged {you to believe the good news, we did} not convince you to believe an incorrect message. {We did} not say or do unclean things. {We did} not deceive you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 2:4ULT

⁴ but just as we have been examined by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not as pleasing to men, but to God, the one examining our hearts.

UST

⁴ Rather, we speak as people whom God has tested and approved to proclaim the good news. We are not {trying} to please people. Instead, {we are trying to please} God. He is the one who tests what we think and desire.

Who is Paul desiring to please with his preaching of the gospel?

Paul is desiring to please God with his preaching of the gospel.

1 Thessalonians 2:5ULT

⁵ For we were not at that time in a word of flattery, just as you know, nor in a pretext of greed—God {is} witness—

UST

⁵ In fact, when we visited you, we did not flatter you or pretend not to want money. You remember {that this is true}, and God testifies {that it is true}.

What did Paul not do in his preaching of the gospel? (vv5-6)

Paul did not use flattery, nor seek glory from people.

1 Thessalonians 2:6ULT

⁶ nor seeking glory from men, neither from you nor from others,

UST

⁶ {We did} not desire that people would honor us. {We did not desire this} from you or from anyone else.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 2:7ULT

⁷ being able to be a burden as apostles of Christ; but we became little children ^[1] in the midst of you, as if a mother might comfort her own children.

UST

⁷ Since the Messiah sent us to represent him, we could have required you to obey us and give us whatever we wanted. However, when we were with you, we acted as gentle as babies. {We were} like mothers who lovingly take care of their children.

How did Paul treat the Thessalonians when he was among them? (vv7-8)

Paul was gentle with the Thessalonians, like a mother or father with their own children.

1 Thessalonians 2:8ULT

⁸ Longing for you in this manner, we were pleased to share with you not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls. For you became beloved to us.

UST

⁸ Since we care for you in those ways, we delighted to share the good news from God with you. Even more, {we delighted to share} our own lives {with you}. {That is} because we started to love you {very much}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 2:9ULT

⁹ For you remember, brothers, our labor and toil, night and day working in order not to burden any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.

UST

⁹ Fellow believers, {I know that} you recall how hard we labored. We worked all day long so that we would not have to bother any of you {by asking for money}. {That was how we acted when} we told you the good news from God.

What did Paul and his companions do so that they were not a burden to the Thessalonians?

Paul and his companions worked night and day so that they were not a burden to the Thessalonians.

1 Thessalonians 2:10ULT

¹⁰ You and God {are} witnesses, how piously and righteously and blamelessly we were to you, the ones believing,

UST

¹⁰ Both you and God can testify that we did what was good and right {when we were} with you who trust {in God}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 2:11ULT

¹¹ just as you know how, {with} each one of you, as a father his own children,

UST

¹¹ You remember that {we behaved} toward every one of you as a father {behaves toward} his own children.

How did Paul treat the Thessalonians when he was among them?

Paul was gentle with the Thessalonians like a mother or father with their own children.

1 Thessalonians 2:12ULT

¹² exhorting you and encouraging and testifying in order that you might walk worthily of God, the one calling you into his own kingdom and glory.

UST

¹² {That means that we} were teaching you and urging you so that you would live the way that God wants {his people to live}. He is the one who invites you to participate in his kingdom and in how great he is.

How did Paul tell the Thessalonians they should walk?

Paul told the Thessalonians that they should walk in a manner worthy of God who calls them to his own kingdom and glory.

1 Thessalonians 2:13ULT

¹³ And because of this, we also thank God continually, that having received the word of hearing of God from us, you received it not {as} the word of men, but just as it truly is, the word of God, which is also working in you, the ones believing.

UST

¹³ Further, we consistently thank God that you accepted what you heard about God in our message. You did not consider it to be a merely human message. Rather, {you considered it to be} a message from God, which is what it really is. This message is changing you who trust {in God}.

As what kind of word did the Thessalonians receive the message Paul preached to them?

The Thessalonians received the message as the word of God, not as the word of man.

1 Thessalonians 2:14ULT

¹⁴ For you, brothers, became imitators of the churches of God that are in Judea in Christ Jesus, because the same things you also suffered from your own countrymen, just as they also from the Jews,

UST

¹⁴⁻¹⁵ Now {unbelieving} Jews not only killed the prophets {long ago}, but they also {recently} killed the Lord Jesus and forced us to leave {your city}. These unbelieving Jews also persecuted the believers {who live in the region of Judea}. In fact, fellow believers, you have become like these groups of believers in Judea whom God has united to Jesus the Messiah. {That is} because people from your own country persecute you, just as {the unbelieving Jews persecuted the believers in Judea}. These {unbelieving} Jews do not please God, and they act against most people.

What had the unbelieving Jews done which did not please God? (vv14-16)

The unbelieving Jews persecuted the churches in Judea, killed Jesus and the prophets, drove out Paul, and forbade Paul to speak to the Gentiles.

1 Thessalonians 2:15ULT

¹⁵ the ones having killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets and having persecuted us and not being pleasing to God and {being} hostile to all men,

UST

¹⁴⁻¹⁵ Now {unbelieving} Jews not only killed the prophets {long ago}, but they also {recently} killed the Lord Jesus and forced us to leave {your city}. These unbelieving Jews also persecuted the believers {who live in the region of Judea}. 1 Thessalonians 2:16ULT

¹⁶ forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles so that they might be saved, so that {they} always fill up their sins. But the wrath has come upon them to the end.

UST

¹⁶ They try to stop us from telling {the good news} to non-Jews, {which we do} so that God saves non-Jews. So, {these unbelieving Jews} consistently continue to sin. However, God will completely punish them!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 2:17ULT

¹⁷ But we, brothers, having been separated from you for the time of an hour, by face, not by heart, became extremely eager to see your face, in much desire.

UST

¹⁷ In contrast, fellow believers, we very eagerly desired to be with you in person, even though we had to leave you for a little while. Although we were physically absent, we always thought and cared about you.

Why was Paul not able to come to the Thessalonians even though that was his wish?
(vv17-18)

Paul was not able to come because Satan hindered him.

1 Thessalonians 2:18ULT

¹⁸ For we desired to come to you—indeed I, Paul, both once and twice—but Satan hindered us.

UST

¹⁸ Indeed, we wanted to visit you. Specifically, I myself, Paul, {tried to visit} several times. However, {each time,} Satan stopped us {from visiting}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 2:19ULT

¹⁹ For what {is} our hope or joy or crown of boasting? ^[2] Or {is it} not also you before our Lord Jesus at his coming?

UST

¹⁹ {We wanted to visit you} because it is you who enable us to hope and to rejoice and to say great things about you, who honor us. {We know that this will be true} when our Lord Jesus examines everyone after he returns to this world.

What will the Thessalonians be for Paul at the Lord's coming? (vv19-20)

The Thessalonians will be Paul's hope, joy, and crown of glorying at the Lord's coming.

1 Thessalonians 2:20ULT

²⁰ For you are our glory and joy.

2:7 ^[1]

2:19 ^[2]

¹ Therefore, enduring {it} no longer, we thought it good to be left behind in Athens alone,

UST

¹ So then, because we {felt like we} could not possibly wait any longer, we decided that just Silas and I should stay behind in the city of Athens.

What did Paul do, even though he would be left behind in Athens? (vv1-2)

Paul sent Timothy to strengthen and comfort the believers in Thessalonica.

1 Thessalonians 3:2

ULT

² and we sent Timothy, our brother and a servant of God ^[1] in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you regarding your faith,

UST

² Then, Silas and I had Timothy visit you. {He is} our fellow believer and serves God by {proclaiming} the good news about the Messiah. {We had him visit you} so that he could support and encourage you as you trust {in God}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 3:3

ULT

³ that no one be disturbed by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that for this we are appointed.

UST

³ That way, when people hurt {you}, you do not become unsure {as you trust in God}. In fact, you are well aware that {God} already decided that people would hurt us {believers}.

To what did Paul say he was appointed?

Paul said that he was appointed to afflictions.

1 Thessalonians 3:4ULT

⁴ For also when we were with you, we were telling you in advance that we are about to be afflicted, just as also it happened and you know.

UST

⁴ {You are well aware of that} because, while we {apostles} were visiting you, we warned you ahead of time that others were about to hurt us {believers}. You are well aware that this is exactly what occurred.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 3:5ULT

⁵ Because of this, I also, no longer enduring {it}, sent to know about your faith, lest somehow the tempter had tempted you, and our labor might have been in vain.

UST

⁵ Because {others have hurt us believers}, and because I {felt like I} could not possibly wait any longer, I had {Timothy} visit you. {I wanted} to learn if you were still trusting {in God}. {I was concerned that} the devil might have {succeeded in} tempting you {to stop trusting in God}. {If that were true,} how hard we had worked among you would have accomplished nothing!

About what was Paul concerned regarding the Thessalonians?

Paul was concerned that somehow the tempter had tempted them and that his labor had been in vain.

1 Thessalonians 3:6ULT

⁶ But just now Timothy has come to us from you and has told us the good news about your faith and love and that you always have good memory of us, longing to see us just as we also, you.

UST

⁶ However, Timothy recently returned to Silas and me after visiting you. He gave us good news about how much you trust {God} and love {each other}. {He told us} that whenever you think about us, it makes you happy. {He also told us that} you desire to be with us, just as we {desire to be with} you.

What comforted Paul when Timothy returned from Thessalonica? (vv6-7)

Paul was comforted to hear the good news of the Thessalonians' faith and love, and that they longed to see him.

1 Thessalonians 3:7ULT

⁷ Because of this, brothers, we were encouraged about you in all our distress and affliction, through your faith.

UST

⁷ Fellow believers, because of what {Timothy told us}, although people were persecuting and hurting us often, God used how you continue to trust {in him} to encourage us that you {are doing well}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 3:8ULT

⁸ For now we live, if you yourselves stand firm in the Lord.

UST

⁸ Indeed, since you continue {to trust} in the Lord {Jesus}, we feel much better now!

Paul says that he lives if the Thessalonians do what?

Paul says that he lives if the Thessalonians stand firm in the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 3:9ULT

⁹ For what thanks are we able to give back to God concerning you for all the joy with which we rejoice because of you before our God, ^[2]

UST

⁹ In fact, we cannot thank God enough for you! We are extremely happy about you {whenever we pray} to our God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 3:10ULT

¹⁰ night and day pleading earnestly to see your face and to provide what {is} lacking in your faith?

UST

¹⁰ All day long we urgently ask {God} to allow us to visit you and help you increase how much you trust {in God}.

For what does Paul pray night and day?

Paul prays night and day that he might see the Thessalonians and provide what is lacking in their faith.

1 Thessalonians 3:11ULT

¹¹ But may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you.

UST

¹¹ {We pray that} God our Father and our Lord Jesus will enable us to visit you {again}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 3:12ULT

¹² Now may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we also toward you,

UST

¹² {We pray that} the Lord {Jesus} will cause you always to love each other and all people more and more. That is how we love you!

In what does Paul wish the Thessalonians to increase and abound?

Paul wishes the Thessalonians to increase and abound in love toward one another and toward all people.

1 Thessalonians 3:13ULT

¹³ to strengthen your hearts, blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. Amen!

3:2 ^[1]

3:9 ^[2]

UST

¹³ {We pray those things} so that God will make you spiritually strong. {That way,} God our Father will consider you to be faultlessly pure. {He will do that} when our Lord Jesus returns to this world, {bringing} with him everyone who belongs to him. May it be so!

For what event does Paul want the Thessalonians to be prepared by having their hearts blameless in holiness?

Paul wants the Thessalonians to be prepared for the coming of the Lord Jesus with all his holy ones.

1 Thessalonians 4

1 Thessalonians 4:1

ULT

¹ Therefore, finally, brothers, we ask and encourage you in the Lord Jesus, just as you received from us how it is necessary for you to walk and to please God (just as also you are walking), that you might abound even more.

UST

¹ So then, fellow believers, {here is} the rest {of what I want to write to you}. {When we visited you,} we taught you how you should behave in a way that honors God, and that is how you are behaving! Now we urge you, because God has united you to the Lord Jesus, to continue to behave in this way more and more.

What did Paul want the Thessalonians to do with the instructions he had given them about how they must walk and please God? (vv1-2)

Paul wanted the Thessalonians to continue to walk and please God, and to do even more.

1 Thessalonians 4:2

ULT

² For you know what commands we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

UST

² You remember what we commanded you {to do as we spoke} for the Lord Jesus.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 4:3

ULT

³ For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you keep yourselves from sexual immorality;

UST

³ For example, God desires that you act in pure ways. That means that you should not have improper sex.

What did Paul say was God's will for the Thessalonians?

Paul said God's will for the Thessalonians was their sanctification.

1 Thessalonians 4:4ULT

⁴ that each of you knows to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor,

UST

⁴ {That also means that} you all should learn to control how you desire to have sex. {That way,} you will be acting purely and honoring {God}.

How were the husbands to treat their wives?

The husbands were to treat their wives in holiness and honor.

1 Thessalonians 4:5ULT

⁵ not in the passion of lust (just as also the Gentiles, the ones not knowing God);

UST

⁵ {You should} not have any improper sex that you greatly desire. That is what non-Jews who do not trust in God do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 4:6ULT

⁶ not to transgress and take advantage of his brother in this matter, for the Lord {is} an avenger concerning all these things, just as we also said before to you and testified.

UST

⁶ {You should do what God desires} concerning having sex so that you will not sin by mistreating a fellow believer. {You should avoid sinning in that way} because the Lord {Jesus} will punish {all people who have} any kind of improper sex. We already declared that to you {when we were with you}.

What would happen to a brother who sinned in the matter of sexual immorality?

The Lord would be an avenger toward a brother who sinned in the matter of sexual immorality.

1 Thessalonians 4:7ULT

⁷ For God did not call us for uncleanness, but in sanctification.

UST

⁷ Indeed, God chose us so that we would belong to him. {He did} not {choose us} so that we would do impure things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 4:8ULT

⁸ Therefore, the one rejecting this rejects not man, but God, the one giving ^[1] his Holy Spirit to you. ^[2]

UST

⁸ So then, anyone who disobeys {what we have commanded you} is not {simply} disobeying a human. Rather, {that person is disobeying} God. He is the one who sends the Holy Spirit to you.

Who does a person reject who rejects the call to holiness?

A person who rejects the call to holiness rejects God.

1 Thessalonians 4:9ULT

⁹ But concerning brotherly love, you have ^[3] no need {for us} to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another.

UST

⁹ We do not have to tell you anything about how to care for fellow believers. {That is} because God instructed you so that you care for each other.

What were the Thessalonians doing that Paul wanted them to do even more? (vv9-10)

Paul wanted the Thessalonians to love one another even more.

1 Thessalonians 4:10ULT

¹⁰ For also you do it to all the brothers who {are} in all Macedonia. But we encourage you, brothers, to abound even more

UST

¹⁰ {That is} also because you {already} care for all the fellow believers throughout Macedonia {province}. Fellow believers, we exhort you {to care for fellow believers} even more.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 4:11ULT

¹¹ and to strive to be quiet and to perform your own things and to work with your own hands, just as we commanded you,

UST

¹¹ {We} also {exhort you} to try very earnestly to live peacefully, to focus on your own tasks, and to earn what you need to live. In fact, {that is} what we told you to do {when we were with you}.

What were the Thessalonians to do so that they walked properly before unbelievers and had need of nothing? (vv11-12)

The Thessalonians were to be quiet, mind their own business, and work with their hands.

1 Thessalonians 4:12ULT

¹² so that you may walk properly before the ones outside and have need of nothing.

UST

¹² {We urge you to do these things,} so that you can set a good example toward those who do not believe in the Messiah {by how modestly you live.} Then you would not have to depend {on others} to provide what you need {to live}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 4:13ULT

¹³ Now we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning the ones sleeping, so that you may not grieve just as also the rest, the ones not having hope.

UST

¹³ Also, {our} fellow believers in the Messiah, we want you to be aware about {what will happen to} believers in the Messiah who are dead. You should not be like the rest of humanity, which does not believe in the Messiah. They are deeply sad because they do not confidently expect that people will resurrect after death.

About what subject did the Thessalonians possibly have a misunderstanding?

The Thessalonians possibly had a misunderstanding about what happened to those who slept.

1 Thessalonians 4:14ULT

¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, thus also God will bring the ones having slept through Jesus with him.

UST

¹⁴ Certainly, we {apostles} are convinced that Jesus died and resurrected. This is why we also are convinced that God will {resurrect} the dead people who are united to Jesus. Then God will send them back with Jesus {when he returns to earth again}.

What will God do for those who have fallen asleep in Jesus?

God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in Christ.

1 Thessalonians 4:15ULT

¹⁵ For this we say to you in a word of the Lord, that we, the ones living, the ones surviving to the coming of the Lord, will certainly not go before the ones having slept.

UST

¹⁵ In fact, what we {apostles} are now telling you is a message from the Lord {Jesus himself}. When the Lord {Jesus} comes again{, all believers in the Messiah will greet him}. First, those {believers in the Messiah} who have {already} died will certainly greet him, and then we {believers in the Messiah} who are still alive.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 4:16ULT

¹⁶ For the Lord himself, with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with a trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

UST

¹⁶ {This is how} the Lord {Jesus} will come down from heaven: the Lord {Jesus} himself will personally give the command {for all to resurrect}. The chief angel will shout. God's trumpet will blast. Then {all} the dead who are united to the Messiah will be the first to resurrect {from the earth}.

How will the Lord descend from heaven?

The Lord will descend from heaven with a shout and with the trumpet of God.

Who will rise first, and then who will rise together with them? (vv16-17)

The dead in Christ will rise first, then those who are still alive will be caught up with them.

1 Thessalonians 4:17ULT

¹⁷ Then we, the ones living, the ones surviving, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and in this way we will always be with the Lord.

UST

¹⁷ After that, God will snatch up all of us believers in the Messiah who are still alive on earth so that we can meet the Lord {Jesus} in the air. Both groups of believers in the Messiah will meet together on the clouds. This is how we will remain together with the Lord {Jesus} forever!

Who will the risen meet, and for how long?

The risen will meet the Lord in the air, and will always then be with the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 4:18

ULT

18 Therefore, encourage one another with these words.

4:8 ^[1]

4:8 ^[2]

4:9 ^[3]

UST

18 As a result, you must encourage each other with this message!

What did Paul tell the Thessalonians to do with his teaching about those who had fallen asleep?

Paul told the Thessalonians to comfort one another with his words.

1 Thessalonians 5

1 Thessalonians 5:1

ULT

¹ Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need {for anything} to be written to you.

UST

¹ {Now I want you to be aware of the timing of our Lord's return to earth} Our fellow believers in the Messiah, we do not {really} need to write {anything} to you about the specific time {of our Lord's return}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:2

ULT

² For you yourselves know perfectly well that the day of the Lord comes in this manner—as a thief in the night.

UST

² This is because you yourselves already know accurately about the time when the Lord {Jesus} will come back. You also know that he will come {unexpectedly}, like when a robber comes at night.

How does Paul say the day of the Lord will come?

Paul says the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

1 Thessalonians 5:3

ULT

³ Whenever they say, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction comes on them, just as the birth pain to the one having in the womb, and they will certainly not escape.

UST

³ {The Lord Jesus} will come at a time when people are saying, "{We are} safe and secure!" Then, suddenly, God will overwhelm and destroy them! It will be similar to when a pregnant woman cannot escape being overwhelmed by labor pains. In the same way, those people can never escape {when God destroys}!

What will some people be saying when sudden destruction comes upon them?

Some people will be saying, "Peace and safety".

1 Thessalonians 5:4ULT

⁴ But you, brothers, are not in darkness, so that the day might overtake you as a thief.

UST

⁴ However, {our} fellow believers in the Messiah, you are not people who are unaware of what will happen, like when people are in the darkness. This is why, when the Lord Jesus returns to earth to punish the people who do not belong to him, he will not surprise you as if he were a thief.

Why does Paul say the day of the Lord should not overtake the believers like a thief? (vv4-5)

Because the believers are not in darkness, but are sons of the light, the day of the Lord should not overtake them like a thief.

1 Thessalonians 5:5ULT

⁵ For you are all sons of light and sons of day. We are not of night, nor of darkness.

UST

⁵ {Since} you are all God's children, {you should live ready for Jesus to return to earth}, like people who are in the light or awake during day are aware of what is happening. We are not {Satan's children,} who live unaware of what will happen, like people at night or in the darkness {who cannot perceive as well}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:6ULT

⁶ So then, let us not sleep as the rest, but let us keep watch and be sober.

UST

⁶ So, this is why, {as God's children, we must live ready for what will happen. We must} not live unaware of what will happen like the rest of humanity, who are just like people who are sleeping. Instead, we must stay alert and remain attentive, {expecting Jesus to return to earth}.

What does Paul tell the believers to do regarding the coming day of the Lord?

Paul tells the believers to watch and be sober.

1 Thessalonians 5:7ULT

⁷ For the ones sleeping sleep at night, and the ones getting drunk get drunk at night.

UST

⁷ It is well known that when people are unaware of what will happen, it is {usually} at night, when they are sleeping. And when people get drunk, they are not ready for what will happen. They {usually} get drunk at night, {when they cannot perceive things as well}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:8ULT

⁸ But let us, being of day, be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and of love, and a helmet—the hope of salvation.

UST

⁸ But {we who are ready for the Lord Jesus to return to earth do not live unaware of what will happen like these people. Since} we are ready, we must remain attentive. We must fully arm ourselves {like soldiers}. Faithful love {towards God should cover our chests} like a breastplate. Being confident {that God} will save us {should fully protect our heads} like a helmet.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:9ULT

⁹ For God did not appoint us for wrath, but for the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

UST

⁹ Since {we are his people,} God did not destine that he would punish us {for our sins}. Instead, he destined that our Lord, Jesus the Messiah, would preserve and save us.

For what are the believers destined by God?

The believers are destined by God for salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 5:10ULT

¹⁰ the one having died for us so that, whether we keep watch or sleep, we will live together with him.

UST

¹⁰ Jesus died in our place so that we would live {forever} with him. {This is true,} whether we are alive or dead {when he returns to earth}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:11ULT

¹¹ Therefore, encourage one another and build up one the one, just as also you are doing.

UST

¹¹ Since this is true, continue to habitually encourage and support each and every one {of your fellow believers in the Messiah}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:12ULT

¹² Now we ask you, brothers, to recognize the ones laboring among you and leading you in the Lord and admonishing you,

UST

¹² Finally, {our} fellow believers in the Messiah, we request that you give recognition to your spiritual leaders who work hard among you, in the same way you would give recognition to the Lord {Jesus}. You should also give them recognition because they continually warn and instruct you {about living like believers in the Messiah should}.

What attitude does Paul say the believers should have toward those who are over them in the Lord? (vv12-13)

Paul says that they should acknowledge and highly regard them in love.

1 Thessalonians 5:13ULT

¹³ and to regard them highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.

UST

¹³ Because {of how hard} they work {for you,} we also request {that} you abundantly love your spiritual leaders by being considerate of them. {We also urge} that you keep living peacefully with each other.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:14ULT

¹⁴ Now we encourage you, brothers: Admonish the disorderly, comfort the discouraged, help the weak, be patient toward all.

UST

¹⁴ {Our} fellow believers in the Messiah, we now urge that you warn and instruct those who live inappropriately. We {also} urge that you cheer up those who are discouraged. We {also} urge that you support those who are weak. We {also} urge that you live patiently with every one {of your fellow believers in the Messiah}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:15ULT

¹⁵ See that no one repays evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue {what is} good, both for one another and for all.

UST

¹⁵ If someone treats you badly, make sure that you do not treat them badly in return. Instead, whenever {you can,} actively look for ways to kindly treat every {fellow believer in the Messiah}.

What does Paul say no one should do when evil is done to them?

Paul says that no one should pay back evil when evil is done to them.

1 Thessalonians 5:16ULT

¹⁶ Rejoice always.

UST

¹⁶ Be joyful all the time!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:17ULT

¹⁷ Pray continually.

UST

¹⁷ Constantly pray!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:18ULT

¹⁸ In everything give thanks, for this {is} the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

UST

¹⁸ Keep giving thanks to God in every situation! Indeed, God desires for all of you who are united to Jesus the Messiah to do all these things.

What does Paul say that the believers should do in everything, and why?

Paul says that the believers should give thanks in everything, because this is the will of God for them.

1 Thessalonians 5:19ULT

¹⁹ Do not quench the Spirit.

UST

¹⁹ Do not {try to stop} the {Holy} Spirit {from working among you. That would be like someone trying to} extinguish {a fire}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:20ULT

²⁰ Do not despise prophecies.

UST

²⁰ {In other words,} do not scorn prophecies {that the Holy Spirit gives to other believers in the Messiah}!

What instructions does Paul give the believers about prophecies? (vv20-21)

Paul instructs the believers to not despise prophecies, and to test all things, holding on to that which is good.

1 Thessalonians 5:21ULT

²¹ Test all things. ^[1] Hold fast to what {is} good.

UST

²¹ {Instead,} keep evaluating all {of the prophecies and} retain {only} those that prove to be excellent.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:22ULT

²² Keep yourselves from every form of evil.

UST

²² Refrain from any thing that appears to be wicked!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:23ULT

²³ Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit, and soul, and body be kept blamelessly at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

²³ In summary, we pray that God will personally make you live like people who completely belong to him. God is the one who gives his people peace. We also pray that God will preserve you completely innocent for the time when our Lord Jesus the Messiah arrives on earth again.

What does Paul pray that God will do for the believers?

Paul prays that God will sanctify the believers completely in spirit, soul, and body.

1 Thessalonians 5:24ULT

²⁴ Faithful {is} the one calling you, who also will do {it}.

UST

²⁴ The faithful God {continually} summons all of you {to live like those who completely belong to him. So, you can be certain that} he will also do {whatever is necessary for you to be able to live like those who completely belong to him}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:25ULT

²⁵ Brothers, pray also for us.

UST

²⁵ {Our} fellow believers in the Messiah, we also ask that you keep praying for me, for Silas, and for Timothy!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:26ULT

²⁶ Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.

UST

²⁶ When you meet together {for worship}, affectionately greet each of your fellow believers in the Messiah in a way that is appropriate for those who belong to God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:27ULT

²⁷ I solemnly charge you {by} the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers. ^[2]

UST

²⁷ I want you to swear an oath to the Lord {Jesus}, that you will read this letter to all the believers in the Messiah {among you}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Thessalonians 5:28ULT

²⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with you. ^[3]

5:21 ^[1]

5:27 ^[2]

5:28 ^[3]

UST

²⁸ May our Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to} act kindly toward all of you!

What does Paul pray would be with the believers?

Paul prays that the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ would be with the believers.

2 Thessalonians

2 Thessalonians 1

2 Thessalonians 1:1

ULT

¹ Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

¹ {I,} Paul, {am writing this letter.} Silas and Timothy {are with me. We are sending this letter} to {you,} the group of believers in the city of Thessalonica, who belong to God our Father and to {our} Lord Jesus the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 1:2

ULT

² Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

² {May} God our Father and our Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to be} kind to you and {make you} peaceful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 1:3

ULT

³ We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, just as it is fitting, because your faith is increasing greatly, and the love of each one of you all for one another is increasing;

UST

³ Our fellow believers, we should thank God very frequently for you{, and we certainly do}! It is very appropriate that we should do this, because you are trusting in the Lord Jesus more and more, and because every one of you is loving each of the others more and more.

For what two things in the church at Thessalonica does Paul give thanks to God?

Paul give thanks to God for their growing faith and for their love toward each other.

2 Thessalonians 1:4ULT

⁴ so that we ourselves boast concerning you among the churches of God about your endurance and faith in all your persecutions and afflictions that you endure,

UST

⁴ As a result, we keep proudly talking about you to the other groups of believers belonging to God. We tell them how you patiently endure {suffering} and how you continue trusting in the Lord Jesus, even though other people continually cause you to suffer.

What circumstances are the believers enduring in Thessalonica?

The believers are enduring persecutions and afflictions.

2 Thessalonians 1:5ULT

⁵ evidence of the righteous judgment of God, for you to be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer;

UST

⁵ {We can clearly see that God has made you able to stay faithful to Jesus while people make you suffer.} From that we know that God judges justly, because it means that he considers you to be worthy of being part of his people forever. That is what you are suffering for.

What will be the positive result of the circumstances the believers are enduring?

The believers will be counted worthy of the kingdom of God.

2 Thessalonians 1:6ULT

⁶ if indeed {it is} righteous for God to return affliction to the ones afflicting you,

UST

⁶ Since God judges justly, he will certainly also cause suffering for those people who are making you suffer.

What will God do to those who afflict the believers? (vv6-8)

God will afflict those who afflict the believers, punishing them with flaming fire.

2 Thessalonians 1:7ULT

⁷ and relief to you, the ones being afflicted with us at the revealing of the Lord Jesus from heaven with his mighty angels,

UST

⁷ He will also cause the people who are afflicting you to stop doing it. He will also do that for us. This will happen when our Lord Jesus shows himself to everyone as he returns from heaven with his powerful angels.

When will the believers be relieved of their afflictions?

The believers will be relieved when Jesus Christ is revealed from heaven.

2 Thessalonians 1:8ULT

⁸ in flaming fire taking vengeance on the ones not having known God and on the ones not obeying the gospel of our Lord Jesus,

UST

⁸ Then with blazing fire he will punish those people who have rejected God, those who refuse to accept the good news about our Lord Jesus.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 1:9ULT

⁹ who will pay the penalty—eternal destruction away from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his power,

UST

⁹ These people will experience the direct result {of rejecting God}. They will be apart from the Lord {Jesus} forever, where they will never know how wonderfully powerful he is, and where they will be always dying.

How long will the punishment be for those who do not know God?

The punishment for those who do not know God will be eternal.

From what are those who do not know God separated as part of their punishment?

Those who do not know God are separated from the presence of the Lord as part of their punishment.

2 Thessalonians 1:10ULT

¹⁰ when he comes on that day to be glorified by his saints and to be marveled at by all the ones having believed, for our testimony to you has been believed.

UST

¹⁰ {This will happen} when the Lord Jesus comes back from heaven at the time that God has decided. As a result, all we who are his people will praise him and marvel at him. {You will be there, too,} because you believed us when we told you the things about Jesus that we knew to be true.

What will the believers do when they see Christ come on his day?

The believers will marvel at Christ when he comes on his day.

2 Thessalonians 1:11ULT

¹¹ For this we also pray always for you, so that our God may consider you worthy of the calling and he may fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith in power

UST

¹¹ We frequently ask God {to strengthen you spiritually so} that you might praise Jesus like this. We pray that the God whom we worship will make you worthy to be the new people that he has invited you to be. We pray that he will empower you to accomplish every good thing that you want to do because God has inspired you to do it.

What is the result of the believers' good works of faith done in God's power? (vv11-12)

The result of their good works is that the name of the Lord Jesus Christ is glorified.

2 Thessalonians 1:12ULT

¹² so that the name of our Lord Jesus might be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

¹² We pray this because we want you to praise our Lord Jesus, and we want him to honor you. This will happen because the God whom we worship and our Lord Jesus the Messiah are exceedingly kind to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 2

2 Thessalonians 2:1

ULT

¹ Now about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering to him, we ask you, brothers,

UST

¹ Now {I want to write to you} about the time when our Lord Jesus the Messiah will return and will gather us to himself. My fellow believers, I urge you

About what event does Paul say he is now going to write?

Paul says he is now going to write concerning the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:2

ULT

² for you not to be quickly shaken in your mind and not to be troubled neither by a spirit nor by a word nor by a letter as if from us, as if the day of the Lord has already come.

UST

² to think calmly about any message that may have come to you that says that the Lord Jesus has already returned to earth. Do not let this kind of message upset you. It does not matter if the message comes from a spirit or if it comes from a person or if it is in a letter that someone claims that I wrote.

What does Paul tell them not to believe?

Paul tells them not to believe that the day of the Lord has already come.

2 Thessalonians 2:3

ULT

³ May no one deceive you in any way, for unless the apostacy comes first and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, ^[1]

UST

³ Do not allow anyone to persuade you to believe any such message. It is not true, because other things {that have not yet happened} must happen before {the Lord returns}. Before the Lord returns, a large number of people will rebel against God. They will accept and obey a certain man who will oppose everything that God has said. (After some time, God will destroy him.)

What does Paul say must come before the day of the Lord?

The falling away and the revealing of the man of lawlessness must come before the day of the Lord.

2 Thessalonians 2:4ULT

⁴ the one opposing and exalting himself against everything being called god or an object of worship. As a result, he himself sits in the temple of God, showing that he himself is God.

UST

⁴ This man will say that he is greater than everything that people consider to be God and everything that people worship. He will oppose both. As a result, he will even sit {in God's place} in God's temple to proclaim that he himself is God!

What does the man of lawlessness do?

The man of lawlessness opposes and exalts himself against God, sitting in the temple of God and portraying himself as God.

2 Thessalonians 2:5ULT

⁵ Do you not remember that, still being with you, I was telling you these things?

UST

⁵ I am sure that you remember that I told you all about these things while I was still with you {there in Thessalonica}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 2:6ULT

⁶ And now you know the one restraining {him}, until his revealing in his time.

UST

⁶ You also know what is preventing this man from showing himself to everybody now. He will not be able to show himself until the time that God has set for him.

When will the man of lawlessness be revealed? (vv6-7)

The man of lawlessness will be revealed when it is time, when the one who restrains him is taken out of the way.

2 Thessalonians 2:7ULT

⁷ For the mystery of lawlessness is already working, only the one restraining {him} now will do so until he comes out of the way,

UST

⁷ Clearly, people are already opposing what God has said, for reasons that only believers can understand. But someone is preventing this man {from revealing himself} now, and he will continue to prevent this man until God tells him to stop preventing this man.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 2:8ULT

⁸ and then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth, and will bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming,

UST

⁸ It is then that God will allow this man who completely rejects God's instructions to show himself to everyone. (In the end, Jesus will return. When this man sees Jesus, this man will become completely powerless. Then the Lord Jesus will speak a command that will destroy this man.)

What will Jesus do to the man of lawlessness when Jesus is revealed?

When Jesus is revealed, he will kill the man of lawlessness.

2 Thessalonians 2:9ULT

⁹ the arrival of whom is according to a work of Satan in all power and signs and false wonders

UST

⁹ {But before Jesus destroys this man,} Satan will work very powerfully through this man. Satan will empower this man to do all kinds of supernatural deeds that look like the miracles that God does.

Who is working with the man of lawlessness to give him power, signs, and false wonders?

Satan is working with the man of lawlessness to give him power, signs, and false wonders.

2 Thessalonians 2:10ULT

¹⁰ and in all deceit of unrighteousness to the ones perishing, because of which they did not receive the love of the truth for them to be saved.

UST

¹⁰ This man will be very wicked and will deceive very many people. These people will perish because they did not accept the true message about Jesus as highly valuable, so God will not save them.

Why are some deceived by the man of lawlessness and are perishing?

Some are deceived because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

2 Thessalonians 2:11ULT

¹¹ And because of this, God is sending to them a working of error for them to believe the lie

UST

¹¹ Because these people reject the true message about Jesus, God enables them to think falsely so that they will believe this man's lies.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 2:12ULT

¹² so that they might all be judged, the ones not having believed the truth, but having taken pleasure in the unrighteousness.

UST

¹² God does that so that he may justly condemn all those who refused to believe the true message about Jesus, people who instead preferred to do things that are wicked.

In what do those who are deceived and perishing take pleasure?

Those who are deceived and perishing take pleasure in unrighteousness.

2 Thessalonians 2:13ULT

¹³ Now we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers having been loved by the Lord. For God chose you {as} firstfruits ^[2] for salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth. ^[3]

UST

¹³ But we should always thank God for you, our fellow believers, you whom our Lord Jesus loves. We should do this because God chose you to be among the first people to believe the true message about Jesus. God chose you to be among the first people that he would save and set apart for himself by means of his Spirit.

What did God choose for the Thessalonians to obtain through the gospel? (vv13-14)

God chose for the Thessalonians to obtain the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ through the gospel.

2 Thessalonians 2:14ULT

¹⁴ He called you to this through our gospel, to the acquiring of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

¹⁴ God invited you to belong to him as we proclaimed to you the good news about Jesus so that God might honor you in some of the same ways that he honors our Lord Jesus the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 2:15ULT

¹⁵ So then, brothers, stand firm and hold tight to the traditions that you were taught, whether by word or by our letter.

UST

¹⁵ So, our fellow believers, continue to strongly believe in the Messiah. Continue believing the true teachings that we have passed on to you when we spoke to you and wrote a letter to you.

What does Paul call the Thessalonians to do now that they have received the gospel?

Paul calls the Thessalonians to stand firm and to grasp the traditions that they were taught.

2 Thessalonians 2:16ULT

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave {us} eternal comfort and good hope through grace,

UST

16-17 God our Father loves us. Because he is extremely kind to us, he will continue to encourage us forever, and we can expect to receive good things from him. We pray that he and our Lord Jesus the Messiah himself will encourage you and make you able to continually do and say every kind of good thing.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 2:17ULT

17 may he comfort and strengthen your hearts in every good work and word.

2:3 ^[1]

2:13 ^[2]

2:13 ^[3]

UST

16-17 God our Father loves us. Because he is extremely kind to us, he will continue to encourage us forever, and we can expect to receive good things from him. We pray that he and our Lord Jesus the Messiah himself will encourage you and make you able to continually do and say every kind of good thing.

In what does Paul desire the Thessalonians to be established in their hearts?

Paul desires that the Thessalonians be established in every good work and word.

2 Thessalonians 3

2 Thessalonians 3:1

ULT

¹ Finally, brothers, pray for us so that the word of the Lord might run and might be glorified, just as also with you,

UST

¹ This is the last part of what I want to say. Our fellow believers, pray for us that many more people will soon hear the message about our Lord Jesus and honor it, just as you have done.

For what does Paul want the Thessalonians to pray regarding the word of the Lord?

Paul wants the Thessalonians to pray that the word of the Lord would spread rapidly and be glorified.

2 Thessalonians 3:2

ULT

² and so that we might be rescued from the perverse and evil men, for not everyone {has} the faith.

UST

² Pray also for us that God will keep the many evil people from harming us. As you know, most people are not faithful to the Lord.

From whom does Paul wish to be delivered?

Paul wishes to be delivered from wicked and evil people who do not have faith.

2 Thessalonians 3:3

ULT

³ But the Lord is faithful, who will strengthen and keep you from the evil one.

UST

³ Nevertheless, the Lord Jesus is faithful to you! He will make you strong spiritually and he will protect you from Satan, the evil one.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 3:4ULT

⁴ We are also confident in the Lord about you that you are doing and will do what we command.

UST

⁴ Because you are joined to our Lord Jesus, we are also confident that you are now obeying what we have commanded you, and that you will obey what we are commanding you {in this letter}.

What does Paul tell the Thessalonians to continue to do?

Paul tells the Thessalonians to continue to do the things he has commanded them.

2 Thessalonians 3:5ULT

⁵ Now may the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

UST

⁵ We pray that our Lord Jesus would continue to help you to experience how much God loves you as well as to experience the endurance that the Messiah will give you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 3:6ULT

⁶ Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, for you to keep away from every brother walking disorderly and not according to the traditions which you received from us.

UST

⁶ Our fellow believers, accept what we say now as if our Lord Jesus the Messiah himself were saying this: we command you to stop associating with every fellow believer who is lazy and refuses to work. These people are not living in the way that Jesus taught us and that we in turn have taught you.

How are the believers to react every brother who walks disorderly and not according to the traditions they received from Paul?

The believers are to avoid every brother who walks disorderly and not according to the traditions they received from Paul.

2 Thessalonians 3:7ULT

⁷ For you yourselves know in what manner it is necessary to imitate us, because we did not behave disorderly among you,

UST

⁷ We tell you this because you yourselves know that you should behave just as we behaved. We did not just sit there without working while we were living among you.

What example did Paul set for the Thessalonians regarding his work and support? (vv7-8)

Paul labored night and day, paying for his food, and not being a burden to anyone.

2 Thessalonians 3:8ULT

⁸ nor did we eat bread from anyone for free, but, working night and day in toil and hardship not to burden any of you,

UST

⁸ That is to say, we did not eat anyone's food if we did not pay for it. Instead, we worked very hard all the time {to support ourselves}. We did that so that we would not have to depend on any of you {for what we needed}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 3:9ULT

⁹ not because we do not have authority, but in order that we might offer ourselves {as} an example to you to imitate us.

UST

⁹ God has certainly authorized us to receive what we need from his people. But instead of demanding things from you, we worked hard so that you could see how God wants his people to live, and then you could live in just the same way.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 3:10ULT

¹⁰ For even when we were with you, we were commanding you this, "If anyone is not willing to work, do not even let him eat."

UST

¹⁰ Remember that when we were there with you, we kept commanding you that if any fellow believer refuses to work, you should not give him food to eat.

What did Paul command concerning anyone who does not want to work?

Paul commanded that anyone who does not want to work should not eat.

2 Thessalonians 3:11ULT

¹¹ For we hear about some walking idly among you, not working, but meddling.

UST

¹¹ Now we tell you this again, because people have told us that some of you are lazy and not working at all. Not only that, but some of you are interfering with what other people are doing.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 3:12ULT

¹² But such ones we are commanding and exhorting in the Lord Jesus Christ, that working with quietness, they might eat their own bread.

UST

¹² Accept what we say now as if the Lord Jesus the Messiah himself were saying this: We command and urge those fellow believers who are not working to mind their own business and to work so that they have what they need to live.

Instead of being lazy, what does Paul command such people to do?

Paul commands the lazy to work with quietness and to eat their own food.

2 Thessalonians 3:13ULT

¹³ But you, brothers, do not become weary in doing what is right.

UST

¹³ As for you fellow believers who are working hard, do not ever get tired of doing what is right!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 3:14ULT

¹⁴ Now if anyone does not obey our word through the letter, note this one—not to associate with him, so that he may be put to shame.

UST

¹⁴ If any fellow believer does not obey what we have written in this letter, publicly identify that person. Then do not associate with him, in order that he may become ashamed {that he is not working}.

What are the brothers to do with anyone who does not obey Paul's instruction in this letter?

The brothers are to have no association with anyone who does not obey Paul's instruction in this letter.

2 Thessalonians 3:15ULT

¹⁵ And do not consider {him} as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

UST

¹⁵ Do not think of him as though he were your enemy; instead, warn him as you would warn your other fellow believers.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Thessalonians 3:16ULT

¹⁶ Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace through all in every way. The Lord {be} with you all.

UST

¹⁶ I pray that our Lord, who is the only one who can truly make anyone peaceful, will make you peaceful in every way and in all situations. I pray that our Lord Jesus will continue to help you all.

What does Paul desire that the Lord would give the Thessalonians?

Paul desires that the Lord would give the Thessalonians peace at all times in all ways.

2 Thessalonians 3:17ULT

¹⁷ This greeting {is} in my own hand—Paul—which is a sign in every letter. In this manner I write.

UST

¹⁷ {Now I have taken the pen from my scribe, and} I, Paul, am sending this greeting to you as I write this myself. I do this in all my letters in order that you may know that it is truly I who have sent this letter. This is how I always end my letters.

How does Paul show that he is the author of this letter?

Paul wrote the greeting with his own hand as the sign that he is the author.

2 Thessalonians 3:18ULT

¹⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with you all.

UST

¹⁸ I pray that our Lord Jesus the Messiah will continue to act kindly to you all.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy

1 Timothy 1

1 Timothy 1:1

ULT

¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the command of God our Savior and of the Lord Jesus Christ our hope,

UST

¹ {I,} Paul, {write this letter to you.} God is the one who rescues us, and the Lord Jesus, the Messiah, is the one whom we confidently expect. The two of them ordered me to represent the Messiah, Jesus.

How was Paul made an apostle of Christ Jesus?

Paul was made an apostle by to the commandment of God.

1 Timothy 1:2

ULT

² to Timothy, a genuine child in the faith: Grace, mercy, peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

UST

² {I send this letter} to you, Timothy. You have become like my own son because we both trust in {Jesus}. {May} God the Father and the Messiah, Jesus our Lord, {continue to be} kind and merciful to you and {make you} peaceful.

What was the relationship between Paul and Timothy?

Timothy was Paul's true son in the faith.

1 Timothy 1:3ULT

³ Just as I, going into Macedonia, urged you to remain in Ephesus so that you can command certain ones not to teach differently

UST

³ As I asked you when I was traveling to the province of Macedonia, {I ask you again} to stay in the city of Ephesus. That way, you can prohibit certain people there from teaching things that are different {from what is true}.

Where did Paul urge Timothy to remain?

He urged Timothy to remain in Ephesus.

What was Timothy to command certain people not to do?

He was to command them not to teach differently.

1 Timothy 1:4ULT

⁴ and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which promote arguments rather than the stewardship of God, {which is} by faith—.

UST

⁴ {I want you to tell them} to stop focusing on legends and very long lists of ancestors. Those things cause people to argue with each other. They do not help to accomplish God's plan. That happens when we trust in {Jesus}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 1:5ULT

⁵ Now the goal of the command is love from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith,

UST

⁵ I want you to require those things so that people will love {each other}. {They will do that} while they desire only what is good, while they know that they are doing what is right, and while they genuinely trust in {Jesus}.

What did Paul say was the goal of his commandment and teaching?

The goal of his commandment was love from a pure heart, from a good conscience, and from sincere faith.

1 Timothy 1:6ULT

⁶ from which some, having missed the mark, have turned away to foolish talk,

UST

⁶ However, some people have failed to do those things. Instead, they speak about things that do not matter.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 1:7ULT

⁷ wanting to be teachers of the law, not understanding neither what they are saying nor what they insist on.

UST

⁷ Those people desire to be people who teach the {Jewish} law. However, they do not understand what they talk about or what they confidently affirm.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 1:8ULT

⁸ But we know that the law (is) good if one uses it lawfully,

UST

⁸ We {believers} understand that the {Jewish} law is excellent as long as people use it properly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 1:9ULT

⁹ knowing this, that the law is not laid down for the righteous but for the lawless and the rebellious, the ungodly and the sinful, the unholy and the profane, father-killers and mother-killers, man-slayers,

UST

⁹ Indeed, we {believers} realize that God did not establish the {Jewish} law for people who do what is right. Rather, {he established the Jewish law} for people who do what is wrong and do not obey anyone. They do not honor God, and they sin. They do things that defile themselves, and they do not set themselves apart for God. They murder their parents. They murder other people.

For whom is the law made?

The law is for lawless, rebellious, ungodly people, and sinners.

1 Timothy 1:10ULT

¹⁰ the sexually immoral, homosexuals, kidnappers, liars, perjurers, and if anything else is contrary to the healthy teaching,

UST

¹⁰ They act in sexually improper ways. They have sex with people of the same gender. They sell other people as slaves. They lie even when they solemnly promise to say what is true. When people teach them what is right, they always do the opposite.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 1:11ULT

¹¹ according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, with which I have been entrusted.

UST

¹¹ {When people teach what is right,} it fits with the good news, which shows how great is the God whom we praise. That is the good news that God has told me {to proclaim to people}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 1:12ULT

¹² I have gratitude to the one having strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he considered me trustworthy, placing {me} into service,

UST

¹² I thank the Messiah, Jesus our Lord, who has enabled me {to proclaim the good news}. {I thank him} because he decided that he could trust me, so he appointed me to serve {him}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 1:13ULT

¹³ formerly being a blasphemer and a persecutor and an insolent {one}, but I was shown mercy because, not knowing, I acted in unfaithfulness.

UST

¹³ {Jesus did that} even though I used to insult him, harm his people, and act violently. However, I did not understand what I was doing when I did not trust in {Jesus}. So, Jesus acted mercifully to me.

What sins did Paul formerly commit?

Paul was a blasphemer, persecutor, and a violent man.

1 Timothy 1:14ULT

¹⁴ But the grace of our Lord overflowed with faith and love {that are} in Christ Jesus.

UST

¹⁴ Our Lord {Jesus} acted extremely kindly to me. By uniting me to himself, the Messiah Jesus, he enabled me to believe in him and to love people.

What overflowed to Paul, resulting in Paul becoming an apostle of Jesus Christ?

The grace of our Lord overflowed with faith and love to Paul.

1 Timothy 1:15ULT

¹⁵ This word {is} trustworthy and worthy of all acceptance, “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners”—of whom I am first.

UST

¹⁵ Everyone should trust and rely on this statement: “The Messiah, Jesus, was here on earth to rescue sinful people.” {As for me,} I am more sinful than everyone else.

Who did Christ Jesus come into the world to save?

Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

1 Timothy 1:16ULT

¹⁶ But because of this I was shown mercy so that in me, the first, Jesus Christ might demonstrate all patience as an example for the ones about to believe in him for eternal life.

UST

¹⁶ However, that is why Jesus acted mercifully to me. That way, Jesus the Messiah could show how very patient he is by how he treated me, the most sinful person. He wanted to illustrate {his character} for people who are going to trust in him so that they live with God forever.

Why does Paul say God gave him mercy?

God gave Paul mercy so that Jesus could demonstrate his patience in Paul as an example.

1 Timothy 1:17ULT

¹⁷ Now to the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, ^[1] {be} honor and glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

UST

¹⁷ God is always ruling. He will never die, and no one can see him. There are no other gods. So, let us praise and glorify him forever! May it be so!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 1:18ULT

¹⁸ This command I am placing before you, my child, Timothy, according to the earlier prophecies about you, that in them you might fight the good fight,

UST

¹⁸ Timothy, you are like my son. I have told you to do certain things because they fit with what people previously prophesied about you. {I have told you to do those things} so that, as those people prophesied, you will serve God well, as a soldier obeys a commanding officer.

What did Paul tell Timothy to do in accordance with the prophecies made about Timothy?

Paul tells Timothy to fight the good fight.

1 Timothy 1:19ULT

¹⁹ having faith and a good conscience, which some, having rejected, have shipwrecked regarding the faith,

UST

¹⁹ {You can do that} by trusting in {Jesus} and by knowing that you are doing what is right. Some people have stopped doing that, and now they no longer trust in {Jesus}.

What happened to some who rejected their faith and their good conscience?

These people have shipwrecked regarding the faith.

1 Timothy 1:20

ULT

²⁰ of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have given over to Satan so that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

1:17 ^[1]

UST

²⁰ Among those who have done that are Hymenaeus and Alexander. I have expelled them so that Satan rules over them. That way, they will learn not to insult God.

What did Paul do for those men who had rejected faith and a good conscience and had shipwrecked their faith?

Paul gave them over to Satan so that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

1 Timothy 2

1 Timothy 2:1

ULT

¹ I urge, therefore, first of all, for requests, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings to be made for all men,

UST

¹ So then, I ask {believers} to focus especially on praying for all people. {Believers} should be thankful for these people and ask God to act kindly to them.

For whom does Paul request that prayers be made?

Paul requests prayers be made for all people.

1 Timothy 2:2

ULT

² for kings and all the ones being in authority, so that we may live a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and dignity.

UST

² {They should pray particularly} for kings and for everyone who rules {over other people}. That way, we {believers} can live calmly and peacefully, and we can honor God and act in ways that others respect.

What kind of life does Paul desire Christians be allowed to live?

Paul desires that Christians be allowed to live a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and dignity.

1 Timothy 2:3

ULT

³ This {is} good and acceptable before God our Savior,

UST

³ It is right {to pray like that}, and it pleases God. He is the one who rescues us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 2:4ULT

⁴ who desires all men to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth.

UST

⁴ God wants to rescue all people. He wants everyone to understand what is true.

What does God desire for all people?

God desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

1 Timothy 2:5ULT

⁵ For {there is} one God, and one mediator of God and of men—the man Christ Jesus,

UST

⁵ {You can tell that God wants those things to happen} because God is the only God. Further, the Messiah Jesus is the only one who reconciles God and humans. He is human himself.

What is the position of Christ Jesus between God and man?

Christ Jesus is the one mediator between God and man.

1 Timothy 2:6ULT

⁶ the one having given himself {as} a ransom for all, the testimony in its own times,

UST

⁶ He chose to die so that he could free all people {from their sins}. That is what believers testify to during this time when it is right to do so.

What did Christ Jesus do for all?

Christ Jesus gave himself as a ransom for all.

1 Timothy 2:7ULT

⁷ for which I was made a herald and an apostle—I am speaking the truth in Christ, ^[1] I am not lying—a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

UST

⁷ It was to testify in that way that Jesus appointed me to speak for him and to represent him. {Jesus also appointed me} to instruct non-Jewish people about what is true and about what to believe. As surely as God has united me to the Messiah, I am not telling you what is false, but what is true!

Who does the apostle Paul teach?

Paul is a teacher of the Gentiles.

1 Timothy 2:8ULT

⁸ Therefore, I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and argument;

UST

⁸ Next, wherever {you worship God}, here is how I desire men to pray: They should not be angry or quarreling {with each other}. Instead, they should pray in a way that honors God.

What does Paul want men to do?

Paul wants men to pray and lift up holy hands.

1 Timothy 2:9ULT

⁹ likewise women to adorn themselves in proper attire, with modesty and self-control, not in braids and gold, or pearls, or very expensive clothing,

UST

⁹ Similarly, {when you worship God, here is how I desire} women to dress: They should be modest and control themselves by wearing appropriate clothing. They should not wear elaborate hairstyles, golden {jewelry}, pearls, or clothes that cost much money.

What does Paul want women to do?

Paul wants women to dress modestly and with self-control.

1 Timothy 2:10ULT

¹⁰ but—what is proper for women professing godliness—through good works.

UST

¹⁰ Instead, {they should focus on} doing what is right. That is appropriate for women who claim to honor God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 2:11ULT

¹¹ Let a woman learn in quietness, in all submission.

UST

¹¹ Women should learn unobtrusively. They should always honor and obey {the people who lead their group of believers}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 2:12ULT

¹² But I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in quietness.

UST

¹² Further, I do not allow women to teach or to rule men. Instead, they should behave unobtrusively.

What does Paul not permit a woman to do?

Paul does not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man.

1 Timothy 2:13ULT

¹³ For Adam was formed first, then Eve,

UST

¹³ {What you can read in the Scriptures supports what I have commanded,} since God made {the first man} Adam before {he made the first woman} Eve.

What is the first reason that Paul gives for not permitting a woman to teach or exercise authority over a man?

Paul's first reason is that Adam was formed first.

1 Timothy 2:14ULT

¹⁴ and Adam was not deceived, but the woman, having been deceived, came into transgression.

UST

¹⁴ Further, the talking snake did not convince Adam to do what was wrong. Rather, the talking snake convinced the woman, Eve, to do what was wrong. So, she disobeyed what God had commanded.

What is the second reason that Paul gives for not permitting a woman to teach or exercise authority over a man?

Paul's second reason is that Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived.

1 Timothy 2:15ULT

¹⁵ But she will be saved through childbearing if they remain in faith and love and holiness with self-control.
2:7 ^[1]

UST

¹⁵ However, God would eventually rescue Eve {by sending the Messiah} through women having children. {Along with her, God will save other women} as long as they continue to trust in {Jesus}, love other people, act as those who belong to God, and control themselves.

In what does Paul want women to remain?

Paul wants women to continue in faith and love and sanctification with self-control.

1 Timothy 3

1 Timothy 3:1

ULT

¹ This word {is} trustworthy: "If someone aspires to overseership, he desires a good work."

UST

¹ Everyone should trust this statement: "People who want to lead the rest of God's people are seeking to do something that is good."

What kind of work is the work of an overseer?

The work of an overseer is good work.

1 Timothy 3:2

ULT

² Therefore, it is necessary for the overseer to be irreproachable, a husband of one wife, temperate, self-controlled, proper, hospitable, able to teach,

UST

² Because {doing that is good}, those who lead the rest of God's people must be those whom no one can rightly accuse of doing anything wrong. They must be sexually faithful to their wives. They must not do everything that they desire. They must control themselves. They must act in appropriate ways. They must welcome guests into their homes. They must be good at teaching others.

What must an overseer be able to do?

An overseer must be able to teach.

1 Timothy 3:3

ULT

³ not addicted to wine, not a brawler, ^[1] but gentle, peaceable, not money-loving,

UST

³ They must not be alcoholics. They must not like to fight and argue. Rather, they must treat others kindly. They must avoid fighting. They must not desire to have more money.

How must an overseer handle alcohol and money?

An overseer must not be a drunkard, and must not love money.

1 Timothy 3:4ULT

⁴ leading his own household well, having children in submission with all dignity,

UST

⁴ They must direct their own families rightly. Their children must honor and obey them and always act in ways that others respect.

How should an overseer's children treat him?

An overseer's children must obey and honor him.

1 Timothy 3:5ULT

⁵ (but if someone does not know {how} to lead his own household, how will he take care of the church of God?),

UST

⁵ After all, people who cannot direct their own families will not be able to care properly for any group of believers belonging to God.

Why is it important that an overseer manage his household well?

It is important because if he cannot manage his household well, he will likely not care well for a church.

1 Timothy 3:6ULT

⁶ not a new convert, so that he may not fall, being puffed up, into the judgment of the devil.

UST

⁶ They must not have only recently trusted in {Jesus}. Otherwise, they might become prideful. Then, God would punish them as he punished Satan.

What is the danger if the overseer is a new convert?

The danger is that he will be puffed up and fall into condemnation.

1 Timothy 3:7ULT

⁷ But it is also necessary to have a good testimony from the ones outside, so that he may not fall into reproach and a trap of the devil.

UST

⁷ Further, those who lead the rest of God's people must be those about whom nonbelievers say good things. That way, people do not insult them and Satan will not be able to control them.

What must an overseer's reputation be with those outside the church?

An overseer must have a good reputation with those outside the church.

1 Timothy 3:8ULT

⁸ Likewise deacons {must be} dignified, not double-talkers, not indulging in much wine, not greedy,

UST

⁸ Similarly, those who serve the rest of God's people must be those whom others respect. They must consistently speak what is true. They must not drink too much alcohol. They must not want more than they need.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 3:9ULT

⁹ having the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience.

UST

⁹ They should know that they are doing what is right as they remain faithful to what God has revealed, which is the good news that we trust.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 3:10ULT

¹⁰ But let them also be tested first; then let them serve, being blameless.

UST

¹⁰ Further, the group of believers must also evaluate how they behave. After that, as long as they consistently do what is right, they can serve the rest of God's people.

What should be done with deacons before they serve?

Before they serve, deacons should be tested.

1 Timothy 3:11ULT

¹¹ Likewise women {must be} dignified, not slanderers, temperate, trustworthy in everything.

UST

¹¹ Similarly, the women {who serve the rest of God's people} must be those whom others respect. They must not say mean or false things about other people. They must not do everything that they desire. They must always act faithfully.

What are some characteristics of godly women?

Godly women are dignified, not slanderers, sober, and trustworthy in everything.

1 Timothy 3:12ULT

¹² Let deacons be husbands of one wife, leading children and their own households well.

UST

¹² The {men} who serve the rest of God's people must be sexually faithful to their wives. They must direct their own families, especially their children, rightly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 3:13ULT

¹³ For the ones having served well acquire for themselves good standing and much confidence in the faith {that is} in Christ Jesus.

UST

¹³ {They should act in all those ways} because those who serve the rest of God's people rightly will be people whom other believers honor. Also, they will very boldly trust in the Messiah, Jesus.

¹⁴ I am writing these things to you—hoping to come to you in quickness,

UST

¹⁴ I plan to visit you soon. However, I am sending this letter to you now.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 3:15ULT

¹⁵ but if I delay—so that you may know how it is necessary to behave in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, a pillar and support of the truth.

UST

¹⁵ That way, even if I cannot visit you soon, you will understand how people who are like God's own family should act. I am speaking about the group of all believers who belong to the only real God. {These believers} preserve and testify to what is true.

What is the household of God?

The household of God is the church of the living God.

1 Timothy 3:16ULT

¹⁶ And admittedly great is the mystery of godliness: "Who was revealed in flesh, ^[2] was justified in the Spirit, was seen by angels, was proclaimed among the nations, was believed in the world, was taken up in glory."

3:3 ^[1]

3:16 ^[2]

UST

¹⁶ Everyone must agree that what God has revealed that enables us to honor him is marvelous: "People saw the Messiah as a human. The Holy Spirit declared that he was who he claimed to be. Angels saw him. Believers proclaimed who he was to non-Jewish people. People in many places trusted in him. God brought him up {into heaven} in a glorious way."

After Jesus appeared in the flesh, was justified by the Spirit, and was seen by angels, what happened?

Jesus was proclaimed among nations, believed in the world, and taken up in glory.

1 Timothy 4

1 Timothy 4:1

ULT

¹ Now the Spirit says specifically that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceiving spirits and teachings of demons,

UST

¹ The Holy Spirit has declared clearly that some people will stop believing in {Jesus} when this time period is about to end. Instead, they will focus on evil spirits who convince people to believe what is wrong. They will focus on what demons teach.

According to the Spirit, what will some people do in the later times?

Some people will leave the faith and attend to deceiving spirits and the teachings of demons.

1 Timothy 4:2

ULT

² in the hypocrisy of liars, having been seared {in} their own conscience,

UST

² {They focus on those things} because they listen to people who pretend to teach what is true but who actually teach what is false. These teachers refuse to accept that what they are doing is wrong.

1 Timothy 4:3

ULT

³ forbidding to marry, to abstain from foods that God created for receiving with thanksgiving by {the ones} faithful and knowing the truth.

UST

³ They command people not to marry others. {They command people} not to eat certain kinds of food. However, God made those foods so that people would thank him for them and eat them. {He made those foods} for people who trust in {Jesus} and who understand what is true.

What lies will these people teach?

They will forbid marriage and forbid eating some foods.

1 Timothy 4:4ULT

⁴ For every creation of God {is} good, and nothing being received with thanksgiving {is} to be rejected,

UST

⁴ {I say that} because everything that God made is good. People can eat any {kind of food} as long as they thank God for it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 4:5ULT

⁵ for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

UST

⁵ {That is} because what God has said and what people pray makes the food holy.

How is anything we eat sanctified for our use?

Anything we eat is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

1 Timothy 4:6ULT

⁶ Placing these things before the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, being nourished by the words of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed.

UST

⁶ When you instruct your fellow believers about those things, you will be serving the Messiah, Jesus, well. You will become spiritually stronger because of the good news that you have believed, which includes the correct teachings that you have accepted.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 4:7ULT

⁷ But reject the profane and old-womanish myths, but train yourself for godliness,

UST

⁷ You should refuse to listen to silly legends that have nothing to do with God. Instead, you should work hard to honor God.

In what does Paul tell Timothy to train himself?

Paul tells Timothy to train himself in godliness.

1 Timothy 4:8ULT

⁸ for bodily training is useful for little, but godliness is useful for all, having promise of life, now and coming.

UST

⁸ Here is what I mean: working hard to make your body stronger is helpful for a little while. However, working hard to honor God is helpful at all times. When you do that, you can confidently expect to live {with God} both now and also when God makes you alive again.

Why is training in godliness more profitable than bodily training?

Training in godliness is more profitable because it holds promise for this present life and the coming one.

1 Timothy 4:9ULT

⁹ The word {is} trustworthy and worthy of all acceptance.

UST

⁹ Everyone should trust and rely on this statement,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 4:10ULT

¹⁰ For unto this we toil and struggle, ^[1] that we have hoped in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers.

UST

¹⁰ since it is why we work so hard: "We confidently expect that the only real God {will do what he has promised}. He is the one who rescues all people, but particularly those who trust in {Jesus}."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 4:11ULT

¹¹ Command and teach these things.

UST

¹¹ Instruct people about {what I have told you}. Require them to do those things.

What does Paul exhort Timothy to do with all of the good things that he has received in Paul's teaching to him?

Paul exhorts Timothy to command and teach these things.

1 Timothy 4:12ULT

¹² Let no one despise your youth, but be an example for the believers in word, in conduct, in love, ^[2] in faith, in purity.

UST

¹² Do not allow anyone to consider you to be unimportant because you are young. Instead, show other believers how to live. Show them that by how you speak, how you behave, how you love others, how you trust in {Jesus}, and how you avoid what is evil.

In what ways is Timothy to be an example to others?

Timothy is to be an example in word, conduct, love, faith, and purity.

1 Timothy 4:13ULT

¹³ Until I come, attend to the reading, to the exhortation, to the teaching.

UST

¹³ While I am not with you, be sure to continue reading {the Scriptures to the believers when you meet together}, instructing {the believers}, and urging {them to do what is right}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 4:14ULT

¹⁴ Do not neglect the gift in you, which was given to you through prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the council of elders.

UST

¹⁴ Be sure to do what God has graciously enabled you to do. God enabled you to do that when someone spoke to you for God and the leaders of the group of believers touched you.

How did Timothy receive the spiritual gift that he had?

The gift was given to Timothy through prophecy, with the imposition of the hands of the elders.

1 Timothy 4:15ULT

¹⁵ Practice these things, be in these things, so that your progress may be apparent to all.

UST

¹⁵ Consistently do what I have told you {to do}! Focus on those things. That way, everyone will notice that you are {serving Jesus} better.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 4:16ULT

¹⁶ Pay attention to yourself and to the teaching. Continue in them, for, doing this, you will save both yourself and the ones hearing you.

4:10 ^[1]

4:12 ^[2]

UST

¹⁶ Make sure that you {behave properly} and that what you teach {is right}. As long as you do what I have told you {to do}, you will rescue yourself and anyone who listens to you. So, keep doing what I have told you {to do}.

If Timothy continues faithfully in his life and teaching, who will be saved?

Timothy will save both himself and his listeners.

1 Timothy 5

1 Timothy 5:1

ULT

¹ Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort {him} as a father, younger men as brothers,

UST

¹ Do not scold a man who is older than you are. Instead, speak to him as if he were your father. Speak to men who are younger than you are as if they were your brothers.

How did Paul tell Timothy to treat an older man in the church?

Paul told Timothy to exhort him as if he were a father.

1 Timothy 5:2

ULT

² older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, in all purity.

UST

² Speak to women who are older than you are as if each one were your mother. Speak to women who are younger than you are as if they were your sisters. {When you do that,} avoid everything that might be improper.

1 Timothy 5:4ULT

⁴ But if any widow has children or grandchildren, first let them learn to treat their own household in a godly way and to make repayment to their forebears, for this is acceptable before God.

UST

⁴ However, suppose that women whose husbands have died have children or grandchildren. In that case, those children or grandchildren should, most importantly, practice honoring their own family members {by taking care of them}. {In that way,} they will do for their parents and grandparents what their parents and grandparents did for them. That pleases God.

What should children and grandchildren of a widow do for her?

Children and grandchildren should repay their parents and take care of her.

1 Timothy 5:5ULT

⁵ But the real widow and one having been left alone has hoped in God and remains in requests and prayers night and day.

UST

⁵ Women who have no close relatives and whose husbands have died confidently expect that God {will help them}. They persistently pray {to God} all day long.

1 Timothy 5:8ULT

⁸ But if someone does not provide for his own, and especially for household members, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

UST

⁸ Suppose that believers do not take care of their relatives, particularly their close family members. Those people show that they do not really trust in {Jesus}. They have sinned more than people who never trusted in {Jesus}.

What has someone done who does not take care of those in his own household?

He has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

1 Timothy 5:9ULT

⁹ Let a widow be enrolled, not less than 60 years old, having been a wife of one husband,

UST

⁹ When you add a woman whose husband has died to the list {of women that the group of believers will take care of}, here is what she must be like. She must be at least 60 years old. She must have been sexually faithful to her husband.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 5:10ULT

¹⁰ being testified in good works: if she has raised children, if she has received strangers, if she has washed the feet of the saints, if she has aided the afflicted, if she has followed every good work.

UST

¹⁰ People must say that she does what is right. For example, she might have brought up children. She might have welcomed people from a different place. She might have cleaned the dirty feet of God's people. She might have helped people who were suffering. In general, she must have persisted in always doing what is good.

For what should a widow be known?

A widow should be attested for good works.

1 Timothy 5:11ULT

¹¹ But reject younger widows, for when they indulge themselves against Christ, they want to marry,

UST

¹¹ However, do not add women whose husbands have died and who are still young {to the list of women that the group of believers will take care of}. These women may choose to do whatever they want instead of doing what the Messiah wants. {So that they can do whatever they want,} they will desire to marry {even an unbeliever}.

Why should the church not enroll young widows onto the list of people for the church to care for?

These younger widows will later want to marry.

1 Timothy 5:12ULT

¹² having judgment because they have annulled the first faith.

¹³ But at the same time, they also learn to be idle, wandering about the houses, and not only idle, but also babblers and meddlers, saying what they should not.

UST

¹³ In addition to that, these women may also practice avoiding work. Instead, they may visit one person's home after another. In addition to avoiding work, they may also talk too much and interfere with what others are doing. They may talk about things that they should not talk about.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 5:14ULT

¹⁴ Therefore, I want younger ones to marry, to bear children, to manage a household, to give no opportunity for reviling to the one opposing.

UST

¹⁴ Because of all that, I recommend that women {whose husbands have died and} who are still young should marry again. They should have children. They should direct their own families. They should act in such a way that Satan cannot insult any believers.

What does Paul want younger women to do?

Paul wants younger women to marry, to bear children, and to manage a household.

1 Timothy 5:15ULT

¹⁵ For already some have turned away after Satan.

UST

¹⁵ {I have written those things} because some {women whose husbands have died and who are still young} are already doing what Satan wants {instead of what God wants}.

1 Timothy 5:17ULT

¹⁷ Let the elders having led well be considered worthy of double honor, especially the ones toiling in word and teaching.

UST

¹⁷ The leaders who rightly direct {believers} deserve to have those believers respect them and take care of them. The leaders who work hard to proclaim {the good news} and instruct others about it particularly deserve that.

What should be done for elders who lead well?

Elders who lead well should be considered worthy of double honor.

1 Timothy 5:18ULT

¹⁸ For the Scripture says, "You will not muzzle an ox threshing," and, "The worker {is} worthy of his wages."

UST

¹⁸ {You know that this is right} because {Moses wrote} in the Scriptures: "You should not keep an ox from eating the grain when it is helping you separate grain from chaff." Further, {Jesus said,} "Workers deserve to have people pay them for their work."

1 Timothy 5:19ULT

¹⁹ Against an elder, do not receive an accusation unless on two or three witnesses.

UST

¹⁹ When someone claims that a leader has done something wrong, you should only listen if {at least} two or three people say the same thing about that leader.

What conditions must be met before someone accuses an elder?

There must be two or three witnesses when someone accuses an elder.

1 Timothy 5:20ULT

²⁰ The ones sinning, rebuke before all, so that the rest also may have fear.

UST

²⁰ When any leaders have sinned, you should confront them {with what they have done} in front of everyone. That way, the other leaders will be afraid {to sin} too.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 5:21ULT

²¹ I adjure you before God and Christ Jesus and the chosen angels that you keep these things without prejudice, doing nothing according to partiality.

UST

²¹ I want you to have God, the Messiah Jesus, and the angels whom God has selected guarantee that you will do what I have instructed you to do. {You should do those things} fairly, without favoring one person over another.

Paul commands Timothy to be careful to keep these rules in what way?

Paul commands Timothy to be careful to keep these rules without favoritism.

1 Timothy 5:22ULT

²² Place hands hastily on no one, nor share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

UST

²² You should not too quickly touch people {to appoint them as leaders}. When they sin, you should not approve of it. You should avoid what is evil.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 5:23ULT

²³ No longer drink only water, but use a little wine because of your stomach and your frequent illnesses.

²³ You should not drink only water. Instead, you should have a small amount of wine. It will make your stomach feel better and reduce how often you are sick.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 5:24ULT

²⁴ The sins of some men are evident, going ahead into judgment, but also they follow after some.

UST

²⁴ When some people sin, everyone knows about it before God punishes them. However, when other people sin, everyone knows about it only after {God punishes them}.

When do the sins of people become known?

The sins of some people are evident, but the sins of others are not known until the judgment.

1 Timothy 5:25ULT

²⁵ Likewise, also the good works {are} evident, and the ones having otherwise are not able to be hidden.
5:16 ^[1]

1 Timothy 6:1

ULT

¹ As many as are slaves under a yoke, let them consider their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be blasphemed.

UST

¹ All {believers} who are slaves should treat their masters as people whom they should respect in every way. That way, no one will insult God or what we teach.

How did Paul say slaves should regard their masters?

Paul said that slaves should regard their masters as worthy of all honor.

1 Timothy 6:2

ULT

² But the ones having believing masters, let them not despise {them} because they are brothers, but rather, let them serve {them} because the ones taking the benefaction are believers and beloved. Teach and urge these things.

UST

² {Some believers who are} slaves have masters who trust in {Jesus}. Those slaves should not disrespect their masters because they are fellow believers. Instead, since the masters for whom they do what is good are people who trust in {Jesus} and whom God loves, those slaves should work for their masters. Instruct people about those things and tell them to do them.

⁴ These people are prideful. They know very little, but they obsess over resolving controversial issues and debating what words mean. When people act in that way, they become jealous of others. They fight with each other. They insult each other. They act in evil ways by suspecting others.

What kind of person rejects healthy words and godly teaching?

The person who rejects healthy words and godly teaching is puffed up and understands nothing.

1 Timothy 6:5ULT

⁵ constant friction of men having been corrupted {in} the mind and having been deprived of the truth, considering godliness to be a means of gain. ^[1]

1 Timothy 6:6ULT

⁶ But godliness with contentment is great gain.

UST

⁶ However, we do acquire something valuable when we honor God while we are grateful for whatever we have.

What does Paul say is great gain?

Paul says that godliness with contentment is great gain.

1 Timothy 6:7ULT

⁷ For we brought nothing into the world, that neither are we able to take anything out. ^[2]

UST

⁷ {We should focus on acquiring things besides money} because we owned nothing when our mothers gave birth to us. Indeed, we will no longer own anything when we die.

What did we bring into this world, and what can we take with us when we leave?

We have brought nothing into the world and cannot take anything out.

1 Timothy 6:8ULT

⁸ But having food and covering, with these we will be satisfied.

UST

⁸ So, we should be content as long as we can eat and have clothes to wear.

With what should we be content in this world?

We should be satisfied that we have food and clothing.

1 Timothy 6:9ULT

⁹ But the ones wanting to be rich fall into temptation and a trap and many foolish and harmful desires, whatever sinks men into ruin and destruction.

UST

⁹ As for people who desire to become wealthy, they often think about sinning. They cannot stop what they are doing. The things that they want are senseless and bad for them, and they will eventually destroy these people.

Into what do those who desire to become wealthy fall?

Those who desire to become wealthy fall into temptation and a trap.

1 Timothy 6:10ULT

¹⁰ For a root of all the evils is the love of money, which desiring, some have been led away from the faith and have pierced themselves with many sorrows.

UST

¹⁰ {That is} because people do all sorts of evil things when they strongly desire to have money. When some people started desiring money, they stopped trusting in {Jesus}. By doing that, they have made themselves sorrowful in many ways.

What is a root of all kinds of evil?

The love of money is a root of all kinds of evil.

What has happened to some who have loved money?

Some who have loved money have been led away from the faith.

1 Timothy 6:11ULT

¹¹ But you, O man of God, flee these things, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness.

UST

¹¹ However, you are a man who serves God. You must avoid those {evil} things. Instead, you should always try to do what is right. You should honor God. You should trust in {Jesus}. You should love {others}. You should persevere {when difficult things happen to you}. You should be gentle {with people}.

1 Timothy 6:12ULT

¹² Fight the good fight of the faith, grasp eternal life, to which you were called and {for which} you confessed the good confession before many witnesses.

UST

¹² You should persist in trusting in {Jesus} just as soldiers battle their enemies. You should make sure that you will live with God forever. God chose you for that. Also, that is why you claimed that you trusted in Jesus while many people listened to you.

What fight does Paul say Timothy must fight?

Paul says Timothy must fight the good fight of the faith.

1 Timothy 6:13ULT

¹³ I command you before God, the one making all alive, and Christ Jesus, the one having testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate,

UST

¹³ God is the one who enables everything that exists to live. The Messiah Jesus is the one who declared what was true when he was on trial before Pontius Pilate. They authorize what I am about to tell you to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 6:14ULT

¹⁴ that you keep the commandment spotless, irreproachable, until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ,

UST

¹⁴ You must obey what God has commanded. You should obey completely. No one should be able to rightly accuse you of doing anything wrong. Continue to obey until our Lord Jesus the Messiah returns {to this world}.

1 Timothy 6:15ULT

¹⁵ which in its own times the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of the ones reigning and Lord of the ones ruling, will reveal,

UST

¹⁵ God will cause Jesus to return at the right time. We praise God! There are no rulers more powerful than he is. He is king over all other kings. He is lord over all other lords.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 6:16ULT

¹⁶ the only One having immortality, dwelling {in} unapproachable light, whom no one of men has seen, nor is able to see, to whom {be} honor and eternal power. Amen.

UST

¹⁶ God is the only one who can never die. His place {in heaven} is so bright that no one can go near it! No human has looked at him, and no human can look at him. Let us praise him and acknowledge that he is powerful forever! May it be so!

Where does God dwell?

God dwells in unapproachable light.

1 Timothy 6:17ULT

¹⁷ Command the rich in the present age not to be proud, nor to hope in the uncertainty of riches, but in God, ^[3] the one providing us all things richly for enjoyment,

UST

¹⁷ You should tell believers who are wealthy right now that they should not think too highly of themselves. They should not trust in all the things that they have, because they cannot be certain how long they will have them. Instead, they should trust in God. He is the one who abundantly gives us everything that we have so that we can enjoy it.

Why should the rich hope in God and not in uncertain riches?

The rich should hope in God because he provides us with everything that we enjoy.

1 Timothy 6:18ULT

¹⁸ to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, willing to share,

UST

¹⁸ {Tell those wealthy believers that} they should do very many good things. They should be ready to give away {what they have}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Timothy 6:19ULT

¹⁹ storing up for themselves a good foundation for what is coming, so that they may grasp the real life. ^[4]

UST

¹⁹ {If they do those things,} they will establish the good things that they will have when God renews this world. {When they do those things,} they make sure that they will truly live {with God}.

Those who are rich in good works do what for themselves?

Those who are rich in good works store up for themselves a good foundation and grasp genuine life.

1 Timothy 6:20ULT

²⁰ O Timothy, guard the deposit, turning away from the profane, empty sayings and oppositions of falsely-named knowledge,

UST

²⁰ Timothy, carefully preserve the true message that God has given to you. Refuse to listen when people say things that mean nothing and that have nothing to do with God. Do not pay attention when people argue against the good news, using what they claim is true. It is not really true.

Finally, what does Paul tell Timothy to do with the things given to him?

Paul tells Timothy to guard what has been entrusted to him.

1 Timothy 6:21ULT

²¹ which some, professing, have missed the mark concerning the faith. Grace {be} with you. ^[5]

6:5 ^[1]

6:7 ^[2]

6:17 ^[3]

6:19 ^[4]

6:21 ^[5]

2 Timothy 1

2 Timothy 1:1

ULT

¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, according to the promise of life that {is} in Christ Jesus,

UST

¹ {I,} Paul, {write this letter to you.} God chose to send me to represent the Messiah, Jesus. So, I tell others that God has promised that people whom he has united to the Messiah Jesus will live {with God forever}.

How did Paul become an apostle of Christ?

Paul became an apostle of Christ through the will of God.

2 Timothy 1:2

ULT

² to Timothy, beloved child: Grace, mercy, peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

UST

² {I send this letter} to you, Timothy. I love you as if you were my own son. {May} God the Father and the Messiah, Jesus our Lord, {continue to be} kind and merciful to you and {make you} peaceful.

What does Paul say is his relationship with Timothy?

Paul calls Timothy his "beloved child."

2 Timothy 1:3

ULT

³ I have gratitude to God, whom I serve from my ancestors, with a pure conscience, as I have the constant remembrance concerning you in my prayers night and day,

UST

³ I worship God just as my parents and grandparents did, and I know that I am doing what is right. I thank God when I pray for you, which I do very frequently.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 1:4ULT

⁴ longing to see you, remembering your tears, so that I may be filled with joy,

UST

⁴ I think about how you cried {when I left you}, and I desire to be with you again. Then I will rejoice greatly.

When Paul remembers Timothy in his prayers, what does Paul long to do?

Paul longs to see Timothy.

2 Timothy 1:5ULT

⁵ having received remembrance of the sincere faith in you which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am persuaded that {it is} also in you,

UST

⁵ I also think about how you truly trust {in Jesus}. Your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice first trusted in him. I know that you also trust in him like they do!

In Timothy's family, who else had genuine faith before Timothy did?

Timothy's grandmother and mother both had genuine faith.

2 Timothy 1:6ULT

⁶ for which reason I am reminding you to rekindle the gift of God that is in you through the laying on of my hands.

UST

⁶ Because you truly trust in {Jesus}, I urge you to continue eagerly to do what God has graciously enabled you to do. God enabled you to do that when I touched you {to authorize you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 1:7ULT

⁷ For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but of power and of love and of self-control.

UST

⁷ {You should eagerly do that} because God did not cause us to be afraid. Instead, he enabled us to serve him powerfully, to love others, and to control ourselves.

What kind of spirit did God give Timothy?

God gave Timothy a spirit of power and love and discipline.

2 Timothy 1:8ULT

⁸ Therefore, do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me, his prisoner, but suffer together for the gospel, according to the power of God,

UST

⁸ Because of that, do not think that telling people about our Lord {Jesus} disgraces you. Do not think that I, who am in jail because of him, disgrace you. Instead, you should be willing to let bad things happen to you, as they have happened to me, so that {you can proclaim} the good news. God will enable you {to endure those bad things}.

What does Paul tell Timothy not to do?

Paul tells Timothy not to be ashamed of the testimony about the Lord.

What does Paul tell Timothy to do?

Paul tells Timothy to suffer for the gospel together with Paul.

2 Timothy 1:9ULT

⁹ the one having saved us and having called {us} to a holy calling—not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, the {grace} having been given to us in Christ Jesus before eternal times,

UST

⁹ He is the one who rescued us and chose us to be people whom he sets apart for himself. He did not do those things because of what we had done. Rather, he did those things because he wanted to and because he decided to act kindly toward us. Before the world began, he prepared to act kindly toward us when he would unite us to the Messiah, Jesus.

When was God's plan and grace given to us?

God's plan and grace was given to us before eternal times.

2 Timothy 1:10ULT

¹⁰ and now having been revealed through the appearance of our Savior Christ Jesus, both having abolished death and having brought to light life and immortality through the gospel,

UST

¹⁰ Now is the time when we can experience how God acts kindly toward us. That happens because the Messiah Jesus, the one who rescues us, came {to this world}. He has made it insignificant when people die. He has given us the good news, which shows us how we can live {with God forever} and never die.

How did God reveal his plan of salvation?

God's plan of salvation was revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus.

When Jesus appeared, what did he do regarding death, life, and immortality?

Jesus put an end to death, and brought to light life and immortality through the gospel.

2 Timothy 1:11ULT

¹¹ for which I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, ^[1]

UST

¹¹ For the sake of that good news, God commissioned me to speak for him, to represent Jesus, and to instruct people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 1:12ULT

¹² for which reason I also suffer these things. But I am not ashamed, for I know in whom I have believed, and I have been persuaded that he is able to guard my deposit until that day.

UST

¹² Because {God commissioned me to do those things}, bad things are happening to me. However, I do not think that experiencing those bad things disgraces me. That is because I understand who God is. He is the one in whom I have trusted. I am sure that he will preserve what I have given to him until Jesus returns to this world.

What is Paul confident that God is able to do for him which makes Paul not ashamed of the gospel?

Paul is persuaded that God is able to keep the deposit that Paul has entrusted to God until that day.

2 Timothy 1:13ULT

¹³ Hold the pattern of healthy words that you heard from me, in faith and love {that are} in Christ Jesus.

UST

¹³ You should maintain the basic parts of the right message that you learned from me. {As you do that,} you should trust in {Jesus} and love others. {You can do those things} because God unites you to the Messiah Jesus.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 1:14ULT

¹⁴ Guard the good deposit through the Holy Spirit, the one dwelling in us.

UST

¹⁴ You should carefully preserve the true message that God has given to you. The Holy Spirit who empowers us will enable you {to do that}.

What is Timothy to do with the good deposit God has committed to him?

Timothy is to guard through the Holy Spirit the good deposit God has committed to him.

2 Timothy 1:15ULT

¹⁵ You know this, that all the ones in Asia turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

UST

¹⁵ You realize that almost all the believers in {the province of} Asia {Minor} have left me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

What did all of Paul's Asian companions do to him?

All those in Asia turned away from Paul.

2 Timothy 1:16ULT

¹⁶ May the Lord give mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chain,

UST

¹⁶ {I pray that} the Lord {Jesus} will be kind to Onesiphorus and his family. {I pray that} since he often encouraged me. Further, even when people put me in jail, he did not think that I disgraced him.

Why does Paul ask the Lord to grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus?

Paul asks the Lord to grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus because Onesiphorus refreshed Paul and was not ashamed of Paul's chain.

2 Timothy 1:17ULT

¹⁷ but being in Rome he diligently searched for me and found {me}.

UST

¹⁷ In fact, when he came {here} to {the city of} Rome, he kept looking for me until he located me.

What did Onesiphorus do for Paul when Paul was in Rome?

Onesiphorus diligently sought Paul in Rome and found him.

2 Timothy 1:18ULT

¹⁸ May the Lord give to him to find mercy from the Lord in that day. And as much as he served in Ephesus, you know very well.

1:11 ^[1]

UST

¹⁸ {So, I pray that} the Lord {Jesus} will be kind to Onesiphorus when the Lord Jesus returns to this world. Additionally, you realize how much Onesiphorus helped {me when we were} in {the city of} Ephesus.

What does Paul ask the Lord to grant to Onesiphorus?

Paul asks the Lord to grant mercy to Onesiphorus.

2 Timothy 2

2 Timothy 2:1

ULT

¹ You, therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace {that is} in Christ Jesus.

UST

¹ As for you, {Timothy,} you are like my own son. Allow God to make you {spiritually} stronger as he acts kindly toward you. {He acts kindly toward you} because he has united you to the Messiah, Jesus.

What is able to strengthen Timothy?

The grace that is in Christ Jesus can strengthen Timothy.

2 Timothy 2:2

ULT

² And what you have heard from me through many witnesses, place these things before faithful men who will be able to teach others also.

UST

² You have listened to the things that I teach, and many people have confirmed them to you. You must teach other people those same things. Those people must be trustworthy and good at teaching even more people.

To whom is Timothy to entrust the message Paul has taught him?

Timothy is to entrust the message to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.

2 Timothy 2:3

ULT

³ Suffer together as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

UST

³ You should be willing to let bad things happen to you, as they have happened to me, when you obey Jesus the Messiah. Then, you will be like a good soldier{, who obeys his commander even if bad things happen to him}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:4ULT

⁴ No one serving as a soldier is entangled in the affairs of life, so that he may please the one having enlisted him.

UST

⁴ {Consider this;} soldiers focus on doing what their commanders want. Because of that, they do not participate in what civilians normally do.

As an illustration for Timothy, Paul says a good soldier does not entangle himself in what?

A good soldier does not entangle himself in the affairs of life.

2 Timothy 2:5ULT

⁵ But also, if anyone competes, he is not crowned if he has not competed lawfully.

UST

⁵ {Consider this} too: when an athlete disobeys the rules, the referee does not name that athlete the winner.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:6ULT

⁶ It is necessary for the hardworking farmer first to share in the fruits.

UST

⁶ {Finally, consider this;} people who labor to grow crops should be the first people to receive some of what they grow.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:7ULT

⁷ Think about what I am saying, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.

UST

⁷ Consider {the three examples} that I have just written to you. The Lord {Jesus} will enable you to learn completely what they mean.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:8ULT

⁸ Remember Jesus Christ, having been raised from the dead, from the seed of David, according to my gospel,

UST

⁸ Focus on Jesus the Messiah, whom God made alive again. He is a descendant of King David. That is the good news that I proclaim.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:9ULT

⁹ in which I am suffering even to chains like a criminal. But the word of God has not been bound.

UST

⁹ Because I proclaim that good news, bad things happen to me. In fact, I am now in jail, as if I had done something wrong. However, no one can prevent people from hearing the message from God.

As he writes to Timothy, in what condition is Paul suffering for his preaching the word of God?

Paul is suffering by being chained like a criminal.

What does Paul say is not bound?

The word of God is not bound.

2 Timothy 2:10ULT

¹⁰ Because of this, I endure all things because of the elect, so that they also may obtain salvation {that is} in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

UST

¹⁰ Because that is true, for the sake of those whom God has chosen I always persevere {when bad things happen to me}. That way, God will rescue them, like me, by uniting them to the Messiah Jesus, and they will be glorious forever.

Why does Paul endure all these things?

Paul endures all things for those chosen by God, that they may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 2:11ULT

¹¹ The word {is} trustworthy: "For if we died with {him}, we will also live with {him}.

UST

¹¹ Everyone should trust this statement: "It is as if we died with Jesus when he died. So then, we will also live {forever} with him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:12ULT

¹² If we endure, we will also reign with {him}. If we deny {him}, he also will deny us.

UST

¹² Suppose that we persevere {when bad things happen to us}. Then we will also rule {over everything} with him. Suppose that we say that we do not know him. Then he also will say that he does not know us.

What is Christ's promise to those who endure?

Those who endure will reign with Christ.

What is Christ's warning to those who deny him?

Those who deny Christ, Christ will deny.

2 Timothy 2:13ULT

¹³ If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful, for he is not able to deny himself."

UST

¹³ Suppose that we stop being loyal {to Jesus}. Then he continues to be loyal {to us}. That is because he always acts based on who he is."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:14ULT

¹⁴ Remind {them} of these things, adjuring {them} before God ^[1] not to battle about words; {it is} useful for nothing, to the destruction of the ones hearing.

UST

¹⁴ Teach those things again {to the believers who are with you}. You should tell them to have God guarantee that they will not debate about what words mean. Debating like that does not help anybody. Further, it harms the people who listen to it.

About what should Timothy warn the people not to quarrel?

Timothy should warn the people not to quarrel about words, which is useful for nothing.

2 Timothy 2:15ULT

¹⁵ Strive to present yourself approved to God, a worker not ashamed, cutting the word of truth straight.

UST

¹⁵ Eagerly desire to be a person whom God considers to be acceptable to him. {To do that,} you should serve God by properly explaining the true message. Then, nothing can disgrace you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:16ULT

¹⁶ But avoid profane, empty sayings, for they will advance further in ungodliness,

UST

¹⁶ Do not listen when people say things that mean nothing and that have nothing to do with God. Those people dishonor God more and more.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:17ULT

¹⁷ and their word will have a spreading like gangrene, among whom are Hymenaeus and Philetus,

UST

¹⁷ Further, what they say will spread as an infectious disease does. Hymenaeus and Philetus are examples of such people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:18ULT

¹⁸ who have missed the mark concerning the truth, saying the resurrection has already happened, and {who} overturn the faith of some.

UST

¹⁸ These two men have failed to believe and teach what is true. Instead, they claim that God has already made everyone alive again. In this way, they cause some people to stop trusting in {Jesus}.

What false doctrine were the two men who wandered from the truth saying?

They were saying that the resurrection had already happened.

2 Timothy 2:19ULT

¹⁹ Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal: "The Lord knew the ones being his" and "Let everyone naming the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness."

UST

¹⁹ Despite that, God preserves his people. They are like a building that has a solid foundation, which God has guaranteed with two statements. {Here is the first statement:} "The Lord {Jesus} realizes which people belong to him." {Here is the second statement:} "Everyone who claims to serve the Lord {Jesus} must stop doing what is wrong."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:20ULT

²⁰ Now in a great house, there are not only gold and silver containers, but also wood and clay, and some for honor and some for dishonor.

UST

²⁰ Consider this example: a wealthy person's house contains utensils that someone made out of {valuable materials like} gold and silver. {Such a house} also contains utensils that someone made out of {less valuable materials like} wood and clay. People use the valuable utensils to perform dignified tasks. In contrast, they use the less valuable utensils to perform undignified tasks.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:21ULT

²¹ Therefore, if someone has cleansed himself from these, he will be a container for honor, having been sanctified, useful to the master, having been prepared for every good work.

UST

²¹ So then, suppose that some people avoid doing what is evil. Those people will be like the utensils that people use to perform dignified tasks. God will set them apart for himself. They will serve God well. God will enable them to do everything that is right.

How are the believers to prepare themselves for every good work?

The believers are to clean themselves from dishonorable use in order to be ready for every good work.

2 Timothy 2:22ULT

²² But flee youthful lusts, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace with the ones calling on the Lord from a pure heart.

UST

²² You must avoid desiring the wrong things that young people usually desire. Instead, you should always try to do what is right. You should trust in {Jesus}. You should love {others}. You should live peacefully {with others.} {You should do those things} along with people who desire what is good and who worship the Lord {Jesus}.

From what is Timothy to flee?

Timothy is to flee youthful lusts.

2 Timothy 2:23ULT

²³ But reject foolish and uneducated controversies, knowing that they give birth to battles.

UST

²³ Refuse to discuss controversial issues that uninformed and unwise people care about. You realize that discussing those issues makes people quarrel with each other.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 2:24ULT

²⁴ But it is necessary for a slave of the Lord not to battle, but to be gentle toward all, able to teach, patient,

UST

²⁴ People who serve the Lord {Jesus} must not quarrel. Instead, they must be kind to all people. They must be good at teaching others. They must endure when bad things happen to them.

What does Paul say that a servant of the Lord must be?

A servant of the Lord must be patient, kind to all, and able to teach.

2 Timothy 2:25ULT

²⁵ in meekness educating the ones opposing. God may perhaps give them repentance for knowledge of the truth,

UST

²⁵ They should gently instruct the people who argue against them. Then God may enable those people to stop believing what is wrong and instead understand what is true.

How must a servant of the Lord treat those who oppose him?

A servant of the Lord must educate in meekness those who oppose him.

2 Timothy 2:26ULT

²⁶ and they may become sober again from the trap of the devil, having been captured by him for the will of that one.

2:14 ^[1]

UST

²⁶ Previously, Satan was able to control them so that they did what he wanted. {However, after you instruct them,} Satan may no longer be able to control them, and they may be able to think clearly again.

What has the devil done with unbelievers?

The devil has trapped and captured the unbelievers for his will.

2 Timothy 3

2 Timothy 3:1

ULT

¹ But know this, that in the last days difficult times will be present.

UST

¹ You need to understand that the final time period {before Jesus returns to this world} will be very dangerous {for believers}.

What does Paul say will come in the last days?

Paul says difficult times will come in the last days.

2 Timothy 3:2

ULT

² For the men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, proud, blasphemous, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy,

UST

² {It will be dangerous} because people will care about themselves {more than they care about anyone else}. They will strongly desire to have money. They will say great things about themselves. They will think too highly of themselves. They will insult {God and others}. They will fail to do what their parents require. They will not thank {anyone for anything}. They will not honor God.

In the last days, what will people love instead of God?

In the last days, people will love themselves and love money instead of God.

2 Timothy 3:3

ULT

³ unloving, irreconcilable, slanderous, unrestrained, savage, not lovers of the good,

UST

³ They will fail to care {for others}. They will refuse to forgive {anyone}. They will say bad things {about others}. They will fail to control themselves. They will act in brutal ways. They will hate everything that is good.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 3:4ULT

⁴ traitors, reckless, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God,

UST

⁴ They will betray {others}. They will act without thinking first. They will be prideful. They will care about whatever makes them feel good instead of loving God.

In the last days, what other thing will people love instead of God?

In the last days, people will love pleasure instead of God.

2 Timothy 3:5ULT

⁵ having a form of godliness, but denying its power. And turn away from these.

UST

⁵ They will appear to honor God, but they will refuse to actually do so. Stay away from such people.

What does Paul tell Timothy to do with those who have only a form of godliness?

Paul tells Timothy to turn away from those who have only a form of godliness.

2 Timothy 3:6ULT

⁶ For from these are the ones entering into households and taking captive little women having been heaped with sins, being led away by various desires,

UST

⁶ Further, some of those people convince others to invite them to their homes. {While they are there}, they start to control what any spiritually immature women {who live there} think. These are women who have sinned very often. They do all the many things that they want to do.

What do some of these ungodly men do?

Some of these ungodly men enter households and captivate foolish women who are led away by various desires.

2 Timothy 3:7ULT

⁷ always learning, and never being able to come to knowledge of the truth.

UST

⁷ They keep learning new things, but they can never understand what is true.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 3:8ULT

⁸ And the way Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so also these oppose the truth, men having been corrupted {in} the mind, unapproved concerning the faith.

UST

⁸ {You know} how Jannes and Jambres{, Pharaoh's magicians,} tried to stop Moses {from freeing the Israelites}. Much like that, the {false teachers I am speaking about} try to stop others from learning what is true. These false teachers are people who can no longer think properly. When they claim to believe in {Jesus}, God does not approve of them.

How are these ungodly men like Jannes and Jambres in the Old Testament?

These ungodly men oppose the truth just as Jannes and Jambres did to Moses.

2 Timothy 3:9ULT

⁹ But they will not advance further, for their foolishness will be obvious to all, as also that of those became.

UST

⁹ However, they will not be able to convince many more people. {That is} because everyone will realize that they are foolish. That is just what happened to Pharaoh's magicians.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 3:10ULT

¹⁰ But you have followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance,

UST

¹⁰ In contrast, as for you, you know what I do, and you imitate me. I teach {others}. I live {to please God}. I focus on what {God has called me} to do. I trust in {Jesus}. I do not easily become angry. I love {others}. I persevere {when bad things happen to me}.

Instead of the false teachers, who has Timothy followed?

Timothy has followed Paul.

2 Timothy 3:11ULT

¹¹ persecutions, sufferings, such as happened to me in Antioch, in Iconium, in Lystra; what kind of persecutions I endured. And the Lord rescued me from {them} all.

UST

¹¹ People hurt me. I experience painful things. I experienced those kinds of painful things when I was in {the cities of} Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. Even when people hurt me in those ways, I persisted {in serving God}. When any of those bad things happened to me, the Lord {Jesus} delivered me.

From what did the Lord rescue Paul?

The Lord rescued Paul from all his persecutions and sufferings.

2 Timothy 3:12ULT

¹² But also all the ones wanting to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

UST

¹² Indeed, people will hurt all men and women who desire to live in a way that honors God as God unites them to the Messiah, Jesus.

What does Paul say will happen to all those who want to live in a godly manner?

Paul says that all those who want to live in a godly manner will be persecuted.

2 Timothy 3:13ULT

¹³ But evil men and impostors will advance to the worse, leading astray and being led astray.

UST

¹³ On the other hand, people who do what is wrong and people who try to trick others will become more and more evil. They will deceive others, and people will deceive them.

Who will become worse in the last days?

Evil people and imposters will become worse in the last days.

2 Timothy 3:14ULT

¹⁴ But you, remain in what you learned and were convinced of, knowing from whom you learned,

UST

¹⁴ In contrast, as for you, you realize who taught you what you have learned and what you are sure about. So, you should persist in {believing} those things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 3:15ULT

¹⁵ and that from infancy you have known the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith {that is} in Christ Jesus.

UST

¹⁵ Further, {you should persist in believing those things because you realize} that you have heard what God says in the Scriptures from the time when you were a young child. The Scriptures enable you to think wisely. That way, when you trust in the Messiah, Jesus, God rescues you.

From what time in Timothy's life had he known the sacred writings?

Timothy knew the sacred writings from childhood.

2 Timothy 3:16ULT

¹⁶ All Scripture {is} God-breathed and {is} profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness,

UST

¹⁶ All the Scriptures come from God's Spirit. They are useful for teaching people. {They are useful} for telling people that they have done what is wrong. {They are useful} for telling people what is actually true. {They are useful} for instructing people in how to do what is right.

How did all the Scripture come into being?

All Scripture is God-breathed.

For what is all Scripture profitable?

All Scripture is profitable for teaching, reproof, correction, and training in righteousness.

2 Timothy 3:17ULT

¹⁷ so that the man of God may be complete, having been equipped for every good work.

UST

¹⁷ As a result, people who serve God have everything that they need. They are ready to do everything that is right.

What is the purpose of training a person in the Scriptures?

A person is trained in the Scriptures so that he is proficient, equipped for every good work.

2 Timothy 4

2 Timothy 4:1

ULT

¹ I adjure you before God and Christ Jesus, the one going to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom:

UST

¹ {Timothy,} I am now going to solemnly charge you {to do some things, and} as God and the Messiah Jesus see and hear us{, they will also expect you to do them}. {Remember that} the Messiah Jesus is coming to judge all the people who have ever lived. As strongly as you want to see Jesus and to be a part of his kingdom when he comes again to rule as king, I solemnly charge you

Who is Jesus Christ going to judge?

Jesus Christ will judge the living and the dead.

2 Timothy 4:2

ULT

² Preach the word; be ready opportunely, inopportunely; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all patience and teaching.

UST

² to proclaim the message {about the Messiah}. Be ready to do this when it is easy to do so and also when it is not easy. Correct people when they have done wrong. Warn them {not to sin}. Encourage them to do what is right. {As you do all of these things,} keep teaching them very patiently.

What did Paul solemnly command Timothy to do?

Paul solemnly commanded Timothy to preach the Word.

2 Timothy 4:3ULT

³ For there will be a time when they will not endure the healthy teaching. Instead, they will heap up for themselves teachers according to their own desires, their ear itching,

UST

³ {I tell you these things because} later on people will not want to listen to accurate teaching. Instead, they will collect as many teachers as they can who will tell them that they can do what they want to do. This is what they will be eager to hear.

Paul warned that the time will come when people will do what regarding doctrine?

People will not endure sound teaching, but will listen to teachings that agree with their own desires.

2 Timothy 4:4ULT

⁴ and will both turn their ear away from the truth and be turned aside to myths.

UST

⁴ So not only will they stop listening to what is true, but instead they will let these teachers deceive them with foolish stories.

2 Timothy 4:5ULT

⁵ But you, be sober in all things. Suffer hardship. Do the work of an evangelist. Carry out fully your service.

UST

⁵ But as for you, Timothy, control yourself no matter what happens. {Be willing to} endure difficult things. Do the work of preaching the good news. Complete the work you must do to serve the Lord.

What work and ministry had Timothy been given to do?

Timothy had been given the work and ministry of an evangelist.

2 Timothy 4:6ULT

⁶ For I am already being poured out, and the time of my departure is here.

UST

⁶ {I tell you these things} because my life is like a drink offering to God that the priest is almost done pouring out. The time of my death is near.

What time in his life did Paul say had now come?

Paul said that his time of departure had come.

2 Timothy 4:7ULT

⁷ I have fought the good fight; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith.

UST

⁷ I am like an athlete who has done his best in a contest. I am like a runner who has finished his race. {By these comparisons, I mean that} I have always continued to obey God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Timothy 4:8ULT

⁸ Now the crown of righteousness has been reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that day, and not to me only, but also to all the ones having loved his appearing.

UST

⁸ So{, just like a runner who has won his race,} what remains for me now is {to receive} the prize for having lived in a way that pleased God. The Lord, who judges rightly, has kept this prize for me and he will give it to me when he comes again. He will not only give it to me, but also to everyone who waits eagerly for him to come again.

What reward did Paul say all those who love Christ's appearing will receive?

Paul said that all those who love Christ's appearing will receive the crown of righteousness.

2 Timothy 4:9ULT

⁹ Hasten to come to me quickly,

UST

⁹ {Timothy,} try to come to me soon

2 Timothy 4:10ULT

¹⁰ for Demas has deserted me, having loved the present age, and has gone to Thessalonica, Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.

UST

¹⁰ because Demas has abandoned me and has gone to {the city of} Thessalonica. He loves life in this world {too much}. Crescens {has gone} to {the province of} Galatia, and Titus {has gone} to {the district of} Dalmatia.

Why did Paul's companion Demas leave him?

Demas left Paul because he loved this present age.

2 Timothy 4:11ULT

¹¹ Only Luke is with me. Getting Mark, bring {him} with you, because he is useful to me for service.

UST

¹¹ Only Luke is still with me. Get Mark and bring him with you. {Do this} because he can help me with the things that I need.

Who was the only companion of Paul to still be with him?

Only Luke was still with Paul.

2 Timothy 4:16ULT

¹⁶ At my first defense, no one appeared with me, but everyone deserted me. May it not be counted against them.

UST

¹⁶ The first time I defended myself {in court}, no believers came to support me. They all stayed away. May God not hold them responsible for that.

Which people appeared with Paul at his first defense?

At Paul's first defense, no one appeared with Paul.

2 Timothy 4:17ULT

¹⁷ But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that through me the proclamation might be fully carried out and all the Gentiles might hear. And I was rescued out of the mouth of the lion.

UST

¹⁷ But the Lord was with me. He made me strong, so that I could fully speak his word and so that all the Gentiles could hear it. God saved me from a very dangerous situation as if he had rescued me from a lion's mouth.

Titus

Titus 1

Titus 1:1

ULT

¹ Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the faith of the chosen people of God and knowledge of the truth that agrees with godliness,

UST

¹ I, Paul, {write this letter to you, Titus. I} am a servant of God and a representative of Jesus the Messiah. God sent me to teach the people whom he has chosen as his own to trust him more. I work to help his people to know what is true, so that they can live in a way that pleases God.

What was Paul's purpose in his service to God?

His purpose was to establish the faith of God's chosen people and to establish the knowledge of the truth.

Titus 1:2

ULT

² with the certain hope of eternal life that the non-lying God promised before all the ages of time.

UST

² His people can learn how to live like this because they are confident that God will cause them to live forever. Even before the world began, God promised to cause us to live forever, and God does not lie.

When did God promise everlasting life to his chosen people?

He promised it to them before all the ages of time.

Does God lie?

No.

Titus 1:3ULT

³ But at the right time, he revealed his word by the proclamation, the one I was entrusted with by the command of God our Savior.

UST

³ Then, in God's own timing, he communicated his plan through this message that he trusted me to preach. I do this in order to obey the command of God, who saves us.

To whom did God entrust his proclamation at the right time?

God entrusted it to the apostle Paul.

Titus 1:4ULT

⁴ To Titus, a true son in a common faith. Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

UST

⁴ Titus, you have become like a real son to me because we both now believe in Jesus the Messiah. May God the Father and the Messiah Jesus who saves us continue to be kind to you and keep you peaceful.

What was the relationship between Titus and Paul?

Titus was like a true son to Paul because of their common faith.

Titus 1:5ULT

⁵ For this purpose I left you in Crete, that you might set in order the things not yet being complete and ordain elders in every city as I directed you—

UST

⁵ I left you on the Island of Crete for this reason: that you do the work that is still unfinished and also appoint elders {for the group of believers} in every city, just as I told you to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Titus 1:6ULT

⁶ if anyone is blameless, a husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of reckless behavior or rebellion.

UST

⁶ Now every elder must be someone whom no one can criticize. He must also have just one wife, his children must trust in God, and people must not consider his children to be out of control or disobedient.

What must an elder's wife and children be like?

He must be the husband of one wife and have faithful children who are not accused of reckless behavior or rebellion.

Titus 1:7ULT

⁷ For the overseer must be blameless, as a household manager of God, not arrogant, not easily angered, not addicted to wine, not a brawler, not greedy.

UST

⁷ Everyone who leads God's people is like the person who manages the servants and property of someone else, but he is doing this for God. So it is necessary for this person to have a good reputation. He must not be proud and he must not get angry quickly. He must not be an alcoholic, not someone who likes to fight and argue, and not a greedy man.

What are some of the character traits that an elder must avoid in order to be blameless?

He must not be arrogant or easily angered or addicted to wine or a brawler or greedy.

What position and responsibility does an overseer have in God's household?

He is like God's household manager.

Titus 1:8ULT

⁸ Instead, he must be hospitable, a friend of what is good, sensible, righteous, holy, self-controlled.

UST

⁸ Rather than that, he must welcome strangers and love the things that are good. He must always act sensibly and treat other people in a fair and honest manner. He must always act in a way that is right for someone who is devoted to God and he must always control his emotions.

What good qualities should an elder have?

An elder should be hospitable, a friend of what is good, sensible, righteous, holy, and self-controlled.

Titus 1:9ULT

⁹ He must hold tightly to the trustworthy message that is in accordance with the teaching, so that he may be able both to encourage others with sound teaching and to rebuke the ones opposing {him}.

UST

⁹ He must always believe the true things that we have taught him, and he must live according to them. He must do this so that he can persuade people to live like this too, and so that he can correct people if they do not want to live like this.

What must an elder's attitude be toward the message that he was taught?

He must hold tightly to it, and thus, be able to encourage and rebuke others.

Titus 1:10ULT

¹⁰ For there are many rebellious people, empty talkers and deceivers, especially the ones from the circumcision.

UST

¹⁰ I tell you these things because there are many people who refuse to obey those who are in authority over them. What these people say has no value. They persuade people to believe wrong things. The people who are the most like this are the ones who tell all followers of the Messiah to become circumcised.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Titus 1:11ULT

¹¹ It is necessary to stop them. They are upsetting whole households, teaching what they should not for the sake of shameful profit.

UST

¹¹ You and the leaders whom you appoint must prevent such people from teaching the believers. They are teaching things that they should not teach, causing entire families to believe wrong things. They only do it so that people will give them money. This is very shameful!

What were the false teachers doing by their teaching?

They were upsetting whole households.

What did the false teachers want?

They wanted shameful profit.

Titus 1:12ULT

¹² One of them, of their own prophets, has said, "Cretans {are} always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies."

UST

¹² One man of Crete, someone his people thought was a prophet, said, "Cretans frequently lie to each other! They are like dangerous wild animals! They are lazy and always eat too much food."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Titus 1:13ULT

¹³ This testimony is true. For this reason, rebuke them severely, so that they may be sound in the faith,

UST

¹³ What he said is true, so correct them forcefully so that they may believe and teach correct things about God.

How should an elder treat these false teachers who damage the church?

He must rebuke them severely so they might be sound in the faith.

Titus 1:14ULT

¹⁴ not paying any attention to Jewish myths or to commands of people turning away from the truth.

UST

¹⁴ In order to believe correct things about God, they must stop living according to stories invented by the Jews and commandments that did not come from God. These commandments came from people who have stopped obeying what is true.

To what did Paul say they should not pay attention?

They should not pay attention to Jewish myths and to commandments of men.

Titus 1:15ULT

¹⁵ All things {are} pure to the ones {who are} pure. But to the ones having been corrupted and unbelieving, nothing {is} pure, but both their minds and consciences have been corrupted.

UST

¹⁵ If some people only want to do or think about doing good things, then everything that they do is good. But if people are wicked and do not believe in the Messiah Jesus, everything that they do is bad. Such people's way of thinking has been ruined. They do not even feel guilty when they do what is evil.

In an unbelieving man, what is corrupted?

Both his mind and conscience are corrupted.

Titus 1:16ULT

¹⁶ They profess to know God, but they deny {him} by their actions, being detestable and disobedient and unfit for any good work.

UST

¹⁶ Even though they claim to know God, what they do shows that they do not know him. They are disgusting. They disobey God and can do nothing good for him.

Although the corrupted man professes to know God, how does he deny him?

He denies God through his actions.

Titus 2

Titus 2:1

ULT

¹ But you, speak what fits with sound teaching.

UST

¹ But as for you, Titus, teach people the things that agree with what you know is true about God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Titus 2:2

ULT

² Older men, to be temperate, dignified, sensible, sound in faith, in love, {and} in perseverance.

UST

² Tell the older men that they must control themselves at all times, that they must live in a way that other people respect, and that they must act sensibly. Tell them that they must also firmly believe the true things about God, love others truly, and do all these things even when it is difficult.

What are some characteristics that older men in the church should have?

They should be temperate, dignified, sensible, and sound in faith, in love, and in perseverance.

Titus 2:3

ULT

³ Older women, likewise, reverent in behavior, not slanderers and not enslaved to much wine, teachers of what is good,

UST

³ Tell the older women, like the men, to live so that everyone knows that they respect God very much. Tell them that they must not say mean or false things about other people, and that they must not be addicted to drinking a lot of wine. Instead, they should teach others what is good.

What are some characteristics that older women in the church should have?

They should be reverent, sober, not be slanderers, be teachers of what is good.

Titus 2:4ULT

⁴ so that they may train the younger women to be lovers of their husbands, lovers of their children,

UST

⁴ In this way, they will be able to instruct the younger women to love their own husbands and children.

What should the older women teach the younger women to do?

They should teach them to love and obey their husbands, and to love their children.

Titus 2:5ULT

⁵ sensible, pure, good housekeepers, {and} subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God may not be insulted.

UST

⁵ The older women should also teach the younger women to control what they say and do, not to act in a wrong way toward any man, to work well at home, and to do what their husbands tell them. They should do all these things so that no one can mock God's message to us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Titus 2:6ULT

⁶ In the same way, exhort the younger men to be sensible.

UST

⁶ As for the younger men, urge them likewise to control themselves well.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Titus 2:7ULT

⁷ In everything present yourself {as} an example of good works. In the teaching, incorruption, dignity,

UST

⁷ You yourself must continually do what is good so that others will see what they should also be doing. When you teach the believers, make sure that everything you say is true and say it in a way that they will respect.

How should Titus present himself as an example of good works?

In his teaching, he should be uncorrupted, act with dignity, and deliver a sound message that is above criticism.

Titus 2:8ULT

⁸ {with} a sound message {that is} above criticism, so that the opponent may be ashamed, having nothing bad to say about us.

UST

⁸ Teach people what is right with messages that no one can criticize. Then, if anybody wants to stop you, other people will shame them because they will have nothing bad that they can justly say about any of us.

What will happen to those who oppose Titus if he is a good example?

Those who oppose him will be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about him.

Titus 2:9ULT

⁹ Slaves, to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be pleasing, not to argue,

UST

⁹ As for those believers who are slaves, teach them that they should always submit to their masters. Tell them to live in a way that pleases their masters in every way, and to not argue with them.

How are slaves who are believers to behave?

They are to obey their masters, be pleasing, and should not argue.

Titus 2:10ULT

¹⁰ not to steal, but to demonstrate all good faith, so that in every way they may show the beauty of the teaching that {is} about God our Savior.

UST

¹⁰ They must not steal even little things from their masters; instead, they should be faithful to them, and they should do everything in a way that leads people to admire all that we teach about God, who saves us.

When Christian slaves behave as Paul has instructed, what effect will that have on others?

It will bring credit to the teaching about God our Savior.

Titus 2:11ULT

¹¹ For the grace of God has appeared, salvific for all men,

UST

¹¹ The believers should behave in these good ways because God is offering to save everyone as a gift that no one deserves.

Who can the grace of God save?

The grace of God can save everyone.

Titus 2:12ULT

¹² training us, so that, rejecting godlessness and worldly passions, we might live in a sensible and righteous and godly way in the present age,

UST

¹² By means of this free gift, God trains us to stop doing what is wrong and what people of the world want to do. He teaches us to be sensible, to do what is right, and to obey him while we live during this present time.

What does the grace of God train us to reject?

The grace of God trains us to reject godlessness and worldly passions.

Titus 2:13ULT

¹³ while we look forward to receiving the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ.

UST

¹³ At the same time, God teaches us to wait for what he will certainly do in the future, which is something that will make us very happy: That is, Jesus the Messiah, our Savior and powerful God, will return to us in a glorious way.

What future event do believers look forward to receiving?

Believers look forward to receiving the blessed hope: the appearance of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ.

Titus 2:14ULT

¹⁴ He gave himself for us in order to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a chosen people, zealous for good works.

UST

¹⁴ He gave himself {to die} in our place so that we can be free to live in the way that God wants us to live, and to remove our sin from us so that we can be a special {group of} people who belong only to him, and who eagerly desire to do what is good.

Why did Jesus give himself for us?

He gave himself in order to redeem us from lawlessness and to purify for himself a people who are zealous to do good works.

Titus 2:15ULT

¹⁵ Speak of these things, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

UST

¹⁵ {Titus,} speak about these things. Urge {the believers to live as I have described} and correct {them when they do what is wrong,} using your right to command {them if necessary}. Make sure that everyone pays attention to what you say.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Titus 3

Titus 3:1

ULT

¹ Remind them to submit to rulers {and} authorities, to obey {them}, to be ready for every good work,

UST

¹ Titus, continue to tell our people again that they should obey the people who rule over them. They need to be ready to be helpful whenever they are able.

What should the believer's attitude be toward rulers and authorities?

The believer should submit to them and obey them, and be ready for every good work.

Titus 3:2

ULT

² to revile no one, to be uncontentious, gentle, showing all humility toward all men.

UST

² They should not say disrespectful things about anyone. They should be peaceful. They should treat everyone gently and as more important than themselves.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Titus 3:3

ULT

³ For once we also were foolish {and} disobedient. We were led astray, enslaved by various passions and pleasures. We lived in evil and envy, detestable, hating one another.

UST

³ We need to remember that there was a time when we ourselves were foolish and unwilling to obey God. We strongly desired to do things that made us feel good, and so we did those things. But then we discovered that we were unable to stop doing those things. We were constantly envying each other and doing other evil things. We caused people to hate us and we hated each other.

What leads unbelievers astray and enslaves them?

Their various passions and pleasures lead them astray and enslave them.

Titus 3:4ULT

⁴ But when the kindness and the love for mankind of God our Savior appeared,

UST

⁴ But then when God showed us that he was acting generously to save us because he loves us,

Titus 3:5ULT

⁵ {it was} not by works of righteousness that we did but by his mercy that he saved us through the washing of new birth and renewal by the Holy Spirit,

UST

⁵ he saved us by removing our sin from us as though he had washed it away. As he did this, the Holy Spirit made us new and enabled us to start living in a new way for God. He did not save us because we do good things, but he saved us because he is merciful.

Through what means did God save us?

He saved us through the washing of new birth and renewal by the Holy Spirit.

Are we saved because of good works which we have done or because of God's mercy?

We are saved only because of God's mercy.

Titus 3:6ULT

⁶ whom he richly poured on us through our Savior Jesus Christ,

UST

⁶ God generously gave us his Holy Spirit when Jesus the Messiah saved us.

Titus 3:7ULT

⁷ so that having been justified by the grace of that one, we might become heirs according to certain hope of eternal life.

UST

⁷ When Jesus freely gave himself for us, God declared that everything was made right between him and us. Because Jesus did that, God gave us the Holy Spirit so that we can share in everything that the Lord Jesus has to give us, especially everlasting life with him.

After he justifies us, what does God make us to become?

God makes us become his heirs.

Titus 3:8ULT

⁸ This message {is} trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things so that the ones having believed God may be careful to engage themselves in good works. These things are good and useful for men.

UST

⁸ This is a statement that everyone can trust. I want you to continually emphasize these things so that those who have believed God may constantly devote themselves to doing those things that are good and that help others. These things are excellent and beneficial for everyone.

What should believers be careful to do?

Believers should be careful to do the good works.

Titus 3:9ULT

⁹ But avoid foolish debates and genealogies and strife and conflict about the law because they are unprofitable and worthless.

UST

⁹ But many people will want to debate with you about senseless things, such as about lists of Jewish ancestors. They will want to dispute with you about {religious} law and argue with you about many things. Do not engage with them in any of that. Those kinds of things are useless and they do not help you in any way.

What should believers avoid?

Believers should avoid foolish debates, genealogies, strife, and conflict about religious law.

Titus 3:10ULT

¹⁰ Reject a divisive person after one or two warnings,

UST

¹⁰ If someone insists on engaging in these divisive activities after you have warned him one or two times to stop doing it, then have nothing more to do with him,

Who should we reject after one or two warnings?

We should reject a divisive person.

Titus 3:11ULT

¹¹ knowing that such a one has turned from the right way and is sinning, being self-condemned.

UST

¹¹ because you know that someone like that has rejected the truth; he is sinning and condemns himself.

Titus 3:14ULT

¹⁴ And also, our own must learn to engage themselves in good works toward essential needs, in order not to be unfruitful.

UST

¹⁴ In the same way, make sure that our people learn to occupy themselves with doing good things for people who need help. By doing this, they will be living in a useful way for God.

What must believers engage themselves in so that they will be fruitful?

Believers must learn to engage themselves in doing good works that provide for essential needs.

Titus 3:15ULT

¹⁵ All those with me greet you. Greet the ones loving us in faith. Grace {be} with all of you.

UST

¹⁵ Titus, all those who are with me greet you! Please greet for us everyone there who loves us as fellow believers. May God continue to be kind to all of you.

¹ Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and our brother Timothy to Philemon, the beloved and our fellow worker,

UST

¹ {I,} Paul, am currently in prison for serving the Messiah, Jesus. I am here with Timothy, our fellow believer. {I am writing this letter} to {you,} Philemon. You also serve the Messiah, and we love you.

Where is Paul as he writes this letter?

Paul is in prison as he writes this letter.

To whom is this letter written?

This letter is written to Philemon, Paul's dear friend and fellow-worker.

Philemon 1:2

ULT

² and to Apphia our sister, and to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house.

UST

² {I also write} to Apphia, our fellow believer, and to Archippus, who is {like} a soldier {in the way he serves the Messiah} with us. {I also write} to the group of believers that meets in your house.

In what kind of place is the church meeting?

The church is meeting in a house.

Philemon 1:3ULT

³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

³ {I pray that} God our Father and our Lord Jesus the Messiah will continue to be kind to you all and make you peaceful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philemon 1:4ULT

⁴ I always thank my God, making mention of you in my prayers,

UST

⁴ When I pray, I always thank my God for you, {Philemon,}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philemon 1:5ULT

⁵ hearing of your love and the faith that you have in the Lord Jesus and for all the saints,

UST

⁵ because {people tell me} how much you trust in the Lord Jesus and how much you love him and all of God's people.

Of what good characteristics has Paul heard about Philemon?

Paul has heard about Philemon's love, faith in the Lord, and faithfulness toward all the saints.

Philemon 1:6ULT

⁶ that the fellowship of your faith may become effective through the knowledge of everything good {that is} among us for Christ.

UST

⁶ I also pray that as you trust in the Messiah, just as we trust in him, you will understand even more all the good things the Messiah has given to us for serving him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philemon 1:7ULT

⁷ For I had much joy and comfort because of your love, because the inner parts of the saints are being refreshed by you, brother.

UST

⁷ My dear friend, you have greatly encouraged me and have caused me to rejoice a lot. For you have been encouraging God's people by how much you love them.

According to Paul, what has Philemon done for the saints?

Philemon has refreshed the hearts of the saints.

Philemon 1:8ULT

⁸ Therefore, having much boldness in Christ to command you the {thing that} is proper {to do},

UST

⁸ So {because you love God's people,} and because {I am an apostle} of the Messiah, I am completely confident that the Messiah would allow me to command you to do what you should do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philemon 1:9ULT

⁹ because of love I appeal to you instead—being such a one as Paul, an elder, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus.

UST

⁹ But {instead of commanding you,} {because we love each other,} I, Paul, an old man and now also a prisoner because I serve the Messiah, Jesus, only request {that you do this.}

Why is Paul asking Philemon for something instead of commanding him?

Paul is asking Philemon because of love.

Philemon 1:10ULT

¹⁰ I am appealing to you on behalf of my child Onesimus, whom I have fathered in my chains.

UST

¹⁰ I am asking you do something for Onesimus. He has become like a son to me {since I told him about the Messiah here} in prison.

What did Paul call Onesimus?

Paul called Onesimus his child.

Where was Paul when he became Onesimus' father?

Paul was in chains, in prison.

Philemon 1:11ULT

¹¹ The one formerly useless to you, but now useful both to you and to me,

UST

¹¹ He was useless to you in the past, but now he is useful both to you and to me!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philemon 1:12ULT

¹² whom I have sent back to you—him—this one is my inner parts;

UST

¹² Although he is very dear to me, I am sending him back to you.

What has Paul done with Onesimus?

Paul has sent Onesimus back to Philemon.

Philemon 1:13ULT

¹³ whom I desired to keep with me, so that he might serve me on behalf of you in the chains of the gospel.

UST

¹³ I wanted to keep him here with me in order that he might serve me in your place, especially while I am still in prison for preaching the good news {about the Messiah.}

Where is Paul as he writes this letter?

Paul is in prison as he writes this letter.

What would Paul like Onesimus to be able to do?

Paul would like Onesimus to be able to help him.

Philemon 1:14ULT

¹⁴ But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that your good {deed} might not be as according to compulsion but according to good will.

UST

¹⁴ However, {I am sending him back to you} because you did not tell me I could keep him here. I want you to help me {because you want to help me,} and not because I have forced you to help me.

Why did Paul not want to act without the consent of Philemon?

Paul wanted Philemon's good deed to be his own choice and not forced upon him by Paul's action.

Philemon 1:15ULT

¹⁵ For perhaps because of this he was separated from {you} for an hour, so that you might have him back forever,

UST

¹⁵ It may be {that God allowed Onesimus} to be apart {from you} during this short time so that he could return to you {as a believer} and be with you eternally.

Why did Paul say Onesimus may have been separated from Philemon?

Paul said Onesimus may have been separated from Philemon so that Philemon could have him back forever, meaning as an eternal brother in Christ.

Philemon 1:16ULT

¹⁶ no longer as a slave, but better than a slave—a beloved brother, especially to me, but much more so to you, in both the flesh and in the Lord.

UST

¹⁶ This is because {Onesimus} is no longer just a slave, but he is much more than a slave. For now you can love him as a fellow believer! He is very dear to me, but he is certainly even more dear to you. This is because now he not only belongs to you {as a slave,} but he also belongs to the Lord.

How does Paul now want Philemon to consider Onesimus? (vv16-17)

Paul wants Philemon to consider Onesimus as a beloved brother.

Philemon 1:17ULT

¹⁷ Therefore, if you have me {as} a partner, receive him as me.

UST

¹⁷ So if you consider me to be your companion {in doing the work God has given us,} then welcome Onesimus into your home in the same way you would welcome me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philemon 1:18ULT

¹⁸ But if he has wronged you or owes {you} anything, charge that to me.

UST

¹⁸ But if he has taken anything from you, or if he is in debt to you for anything, I will repay you.

What does Paul want Philemon to do about anything that Onesimus owes Philemon?

Paul wants Philemon to charge anything owed by Onesimus to Paul's account.

Philemon 1:19ULT

¹⁹ I, Paul, wrote this with my own hand. I myself will pay it back—in order not to say to you that you also owe me even your own self!

UST

¹⁹ I, Paul, am now writing this in my own handwriting: I will repay you whatever he owes you. I am certain that I do not have to remind you that you owe me {even more than Onesimus might owe you,} {because God saved} your life {when I told you about the Messiah.}

What does Philemon owe Paul?

Philemon owes Paul his very life.

Philemon 1:20ULT

²⁰ Yes, brother, may I benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my inner parts in Christ.

UST

²⁰ Yes, my fellow believer, {I am saying what you think I am saying}. I want {you to do this for me} because of what the Lord {did for you}. Give me another reason to be glad that we are both joined to the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philemon 1:21ULT

²¹ Having become confident in your obedience, I wrote to you, having known that you will do even beyond what I am saying.

UST

²¹ As I write {this letter} to you, I am sure that you will do what I am asking you to do. In fact, I know that you will do even more than what I am asking you to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philemon 1:22ULT

²² But at the same time, also prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be given back to you.

UST

²² As {you do what I am asking you to do}, I also ask you to prepare to receive me into your home. Because all of you have been praying for me, I confidently expect that {God will allow me to leave prison} and to come to you all.

What does Paul want Philemon to do for him?

Paul wants Philemon to prepare a guest room for him.

Why does Paul want Philemon to do this?

Paul hopes that God will send him back to Philemon.

Philemon 1:23ULT

²³ Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you,

UST

²³ Epaphras, who is {suffering} with me in prison {for serving} Messiah Jesus, says hello to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philemon 1:24ULT

²⁴ Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, {and} Luke, my fellow workers.

UST

²⁴ Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, who are my partners here, {also say hello to you.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Philemon 1:25ULT

²⁵ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit. Amen.

UST

²⁵ {I pray} that our Lord Jesus the Messiah will continue to be kind to you. Amen.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews

Hebrews 1

Hebrews 1:1

ULT

¹ In many portions and in many ways long ago, God, having spoken to our fathers through the prophets,

UST

¹ In the past, God communicated to the Israelite ancestors through people who proclaimed his message. He did this throughout the time during which the ancestors lived, and he used many different means to do so.

How has God spoken in the past?

God has spoken in the past through the prophets at many times and in many ways.

Hebrews 1:2

ULT

² at the last of these days spoke to us through a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the ages;

UST

² {However,} when this final time period {began}, God communicated to us through his own Son. God made the world together with him, and God has chosen him to receive everything.

How has God spoken in these recent days?

God has spoken in these recent days through a Son.

Through whom were the ages made?

The ages were made through the Son of God.

Hebrews 1:3ULT

³ who, being the brightness of his glory and exact representation of his being, upholding all the things by the word of his power and having made purification for sins, sat down at the right of the Majesty on high;

UST

³ In God's Son, we see how glorious God is. In fact, God's Son perfectly shows what God is like. By speaking powerfully, he sustains everything {that God has made}. After he purified his people from the wrong things that they did, he ascended into heaven and began to rule with God {his Father}.

How are all things sustained?

All things are sustained by the word of the Son of God's power.

How does the Son display the glory and essence of God?

The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the representation of God's essence.

Hebrews 1:4ULT

⁴ having become far superior to the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they.

UST

⁴ {These things about him mean that} he is much greater than the spiritual beings. In the same way, the name that God now calls him is greater than their {names}.

How does the Son of God compare to the angels?

The Son of God is far superior to the angels.

Hebrews 1:5ULT

⁵ For to which of the angels did he ever say, "You are my son. Today I have fathered you"? And again, "I will be as a father to him, and he will be as a son to me"?

UST

⁵ {You can tell that God's Son is greater than the spiritual beings} because God did not at any time say these words to any spiritual being: "On this day, I have declared to everyone that I am your father, and you are my son!" {He did not say these words about any spiritual being} either: "I will be his father, and he will be my son." {However, he did say these words to his own Son.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 1:6ULT

⁶ But again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, “And let all the angels of God worship him.”

UST

⁶ More than that, when God raised his Son into the heavenly world, he commanded: “All the spiritual beings who serve God must honor and praise him.”

What did God command the angels to do when the Son was brought into the world?

God commanded the angels to worship the Son when the Son was brought into the world.

Hebrews 1:7ULT

⁷ And on the one hand, with regard to the angels, he says, “The one making his angels spirits, and his servants flames of fire.”

UST

⁷ God says this about the spiritual beings: “I have caused the spiritual beings who serve me to be {like} the wind and {like} burning fire.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 1:8ULT

⁸ But on the other hand with regard to the Son, “Your throne, God, {is} forever {and} ever, and the scepter of righteousness {is the} scepter of his ^[1] kingdom.

UST

⁸ On the other hand, {God says this} about his Son: “You who are God will rule forever, and you will reign justly over your kingdom.

How long will the Son rule as a king?

The Son will rule as a king for ever and ever.

Hebrews 1:9ULT

⁹ You loved righteousness and hated lawlessness. Because of this, God, your God, has anointed you {with the} oil of exultation more than your companions.”

UST

⁹ You loved whatever is just, and you hated whatever breaks God’s law. Because of that, I, your God, have caused you to be more powerful and joyful than anyone else who is with you.”

What does the Son love and what does the Son hate?

The Son loves righteousness and the Son hates lawlessness.

Hebrews 1:10ULT

¹⁰ And “according to the beginnings, Lord, you founded the earth, and the heavens are the works of your hands.

UST

¹⁰ And {God also says this about his Son:} “You are the Lord, who powerfully created everything that exists when it all began.

What will happen to the earth and heavens over time? (vv10-11)

The earth and heavens will wear out like a garment and perish.

Hebrews 1:11ULT

¹¹ They themselves will perish, but you yourself will continue, and they will all wear out like a garment,

UST

¹¹ All those things will eventually fall apart, but you keep on living forever. They are like clothing that becomes old and wears out,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 1:12ULT

¹² and as a cloak you will roll them up, and as a garment they will be changed, but you yourself are the same, and your years will not fail.”

UST

¹² and you will {remove them and} roll them up as if they were old clothes. In the same way that a person changes clothes, you will change the things that you created. In contrast, you are the one who stays the same and lives at all times!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 1:13ULT

¹³ But to which of the angels has he ever said, “Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool {for} your feet”?

UST

¹³ God did not at any time say these words to any spiritual being: “Rule with me while I defeat all of your enemies!” {However, he did say these words to his own Son.}

Where did God tell the Son to sit, and until what happened?

God told the Son to sit at his right hand until God made the Son’s enemies a stool for the Son’s feet.

Hebrews 1:14ULT

¹⁴ Are they not all ministering spirits, being sent for service for the sake of the ones going to inherit salvation?

1:8 ^[1]

UST

¹⁴ The spiritual beings are all powerful beings who serve God, and God has sent them to help those whom he will soon save.

For whom do the angels care?

The angels care for those who are going to inherit salvation.

Hebrews 2

Hebrews 2:1

ULT

¹ Because of this, it is far more necessary for us to give attention to the {things that} have been heard, so that we might not drift away {from them}.

UST

¹ Because {God did say those things to his Son}, we need to focus most of all on {the good news} that we learned. That way, we do not stop believing it.

Why must believers pay attention to what they have heard?

Believers must pay attention to what they have heard so that they do not drift away from it.

Hebrews 2:2

ULT

² For if the message spoken through angels became valid and every transgression and disobedience received just penalty,

UST

² {This is important} because, when the spiritual beings gave the law {to the people of Israel}, what they said was reliable. Further, God justly punished anyone who did not listen to this law or broke it.

What would every transgression and disobedience receive?

Every transgression and disobedience would receive just punishment.

Hebrews 2:3

ULT

³ how will we escape, having neglected so great a salvation? Which {salvation}, first having been chosen to be spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by the ones having heard {it};

UST

³ {Since that is true}, God will certainly punish any one of us who ignores the message about how God has acted powerfully to save us. It was the Lord {Jesus} who first spoke this message, and those who listened to him told us the same message reliably.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 2:4ULT

⁴ God also testifying together with {them} by signs and wonders and various miracles and distributions of the Holy Spirit according to his will.

UST

⁴ God also has confirmed to us that this message is true by empowering believers to do powerful and amazing things. Further, he gave the Holy Spirit to believers, to each as God chose.

How did God testify to the message of salvation announced by the Lord?

God testified to the message by signs, wonders, powerful deeds, and by the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Hebrews 2:5ULT

⁵ For {it was} not to angels that {God} subjected the world that is coming, about which we are speaking.

UST

⁵ Now God has not put the spiritual beings in charge of the heavenly world that he will bring to earth. It is that world about which I am talking.

Who will not rule the world to come?

Angels will not rule the world to come.

Hebrews 2:6ULT

⁶ Instead, someone somewhere testified, saying, "What is man, that you remember him, or a son of man, that you watch over him?"

UST

⁶ Someone confirmed {what I have said} when he wrote in the Scriptures, "No humans are worthy enough for you to think about them{, God}! No human beings are important enough for you to take care of them!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 2:7ULT

⁷ You made him a little lower than the angels; you crowned him with glory and honor. ^[1]

UST

⁷ {Despite that,} you created humans to be only slightly less powerful than the spiritual beings, and you have greatly honored and empowered them.

Who will rule the world to come? (vv7-8)

Man will rule the world to come.

Hebrews 2:8ULT

⁸ You subjected all things under his feet." For in subjecting all the things, he left nothing not subjected to him. But now we do not yet see all the things subjected to him,

UST

⁸ You have put them in charge of everything {that you created}." When he wrote, "put them in charge of everything," that means that there is nothing over which they are not in charge. However, at this present time, we do not observe that humans are in charge of everything.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 2:9ULT

⁹ but we see Jesus, the one made a little lower than the angels, crowned with glory and honor because of his suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste of death on behalf of everyone.

UST

⁹ However, we do observe Jesus. He is the one who was less powerful than the spiritual beings for a short time, and God has {now} greatly honored and empowered him. God did this because Jesus died. In this way, God graciously had him die for all people {who believe in him}.

Why was Jesus crowned with glory and honor?

Jesus was crowned with glory and honor because of his suffering and death.

For whom did Jesus taste death?

Jesus tasted death for every man.

Hebrews 2:10ULT

¹⁰ For it was proper for him, because of whom all the things {exist} and through whom all the things {exist}, having brought many sons into glory, to perfect the founding leader of their salvation through sufferings.

UST

¹⁰ {Working in that way} was appropriate for God, who created and directs everything {that exists}. When Jesus began to make glorious everyone who believes in him, who are {like} his own siblings, God used how Jesus suffered to make him able to save them.

Whom does God plan to bring to glory?

God plans to bring many sons to glory.

Hebrews 2:11ULT

¹¹ For both the sanctifying and the ones being sanctified {are} all from one. For this reason, he is not ashamed to call them brothers,

UST

¹¹ Jesus, who sets his people apart for God, and those same people whom he set apart for God, all come from God himself. So, Jesus does not hesitate to refer to them as his own siblings.

Who are the two who come from the one source, God?

Both the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified come from the one source, God.

Hebrews 2:12ULT

¹² saying, "I will proclaim your name to my brothers; I will sing praise to you in the midst of the assembly."

UST

¹² {Jesus calls them his siblings} when he says, "I will declare to my siblings what you are like{, God}; I will praise you when people gather together {to worship you}."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 2:13ULT

¹³ And again, "I will be confident in him." And again, "Behold, I and the little children whom God gave me."

UST

¹³ {Jesus says} further: "I will rely on him." And {Jesus says} further, "Look at me and God's children whom he has entrusted to me."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 2:14ULT

¹⁴ Therefore, since the little children share in flesh and blood, he likewise also shared in the same things so that through his death he might abolish the one having the power of death, that is, the devil,

UST

¹⁴ So, because God's children are human beings, Jesus also became a human being just like them. {He did that} so that he, by dying, could defeat Satan, who uses the fact that people die to control them.

Who was made ineffective through Jesus' death?

The devil was made ineffective through Jesus' death.

Hebrews 2:15ULT

¹⁵ and might release those {people}, as many as, in fear of death throughout all their lives, were held in slavery.

UST

¹⁵ {When he did that,} he got rid of the way that dying makes us afraid while we live.

From what slavery are people freed through the death of Jesus?

Through the death of Jesus, people are freed from the fear of death.

Hebrews 2:16ULT

¹⁶ For of course he does not take hold of angels, but he takes hold of the offspring of Abraham,

UST

¹⁶ {Jesus became a human being,} because he came to help those who belong to Abraham{, the ancestor of the Israelites}, not to help spiritual beings, as you know.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 2:17ULT

¹⁷ from which he was obligated to become like his brothers in all things, so that he would be a merciful and faithful high priest {concerning} the things pertaining to God in order to make atonement {for} the sins of the people.

UST

¹⁷ Because that {is why he came}, Jesus needed to be exactly like us, who are his siblings. That way, he can be the ruling priest who serves God in a compassionate and trustworthy way, so that God forgives what his people did wrong.

Why was it necessary for Jesus to be like his brothers in all ways?

It was necessary so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest over God's things, and so he might obtain forgiveness for the people's sins.

Hebrews 2:18ULT

¹⁸ For in that he himself had suffered, having been tempted, he is able to help the ones being tempted.
2:7 ^[1]

UST

¹⁸ {Jesus can be that kind of priest} because he endured painful things and experienced how doing what is wrong seems to be good. So, he can aid everyone who also experiences how doing what is wrong seems to be good.

Why is Jesus able to help those who are tempted?

Jesus is able to help those who are tempted because he was tempted also.

Hebrews 3

Hebrews 3:1

ULT

¹ Therefore, holy brothers, sharers of a heavenly calling, consider carefully the apostle and high priest of our confession, Jesus,

UST

¹ My fellow believers, God has set you apart for himself, and he has summoned us together from heaven. Since {I have told you what Jesus has done,} you should think about him. God sent him to us, and he is the ruling priest in whom we say we believe.

What two roles does the author of the book of Hebrews say Jesus fills?

The author says Jesus is an apostle and a high priest.

Hebrews 3:2

ULT

² being faithful to the one having appointed him, as also Moses {was} in his house ^[1].

UST

² He faithfully served God, who made him {a ruling priest}. {He is} like Moses, who also {faithfully served God} as part of God's people.

Why has Jesus been considered worthy of greater glory than Moses? (vv2-3)

Jesus has been considered worthy of greater glory because while Moses was faithful in all God's house, Jesus is the one who built the house.

Hebrews 3:3

ULT

³ For this one has been considered worthy of greater glory than Moses, according to how much greater honor the one building it has {than} the house.

UST

³⁻⁴ Now each building has a builder who made it, and people rightly praise the builder more than {they praise} the building. Similarly, God is the builder who made everything. Therefore, people should praise Jesus{, who is God,} more than {they praise} Moses{, whom God made}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 3:4ULT

⁴ For every house is built by someone, but God {is} the one having built all things.

UST

³⁻⁴ Now each building has a builder who made it, and people rightly praise the builder more than {they praise} the building. Similarly, God is the builder who made everything. Therefore, people should praise Jesus{, who is God,} more than {they praise} Moses{, whom God made}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 3:5ULT

⁵ And Moses {was} indeed faithful as a servant in his entire house, for a testimony of the {things that} would be spoken in the future;

UST

⁵ Moses faithfully served God as one who helped all God's people. In that way, he already proclaimed what God says now {about Jesus}.

What was Moses' role in God's house?

Moses was a servant in God's house.

About what did Moses give testimony?

Moses gave testimony about the things that were to be spoken of in the future.

Hebrews 3:6ULT

⁶ but Christ, as a Son over his house (whose house we are if we hold fast to the confidence and the boasting of our hope).

UST

⁶ But the Messiah is God's Son, who {faithfully} rules over God's people. As long as we persist in boldly and proudly expecting {what God will give us}, we belong to those same people.

What is Jesus' role in God's house?

Jesus' role is as a Son in charge of God's house.

Who is God's house?

The believers are God's house if they hold fast to their confidence.

Hebrews 3:7ULT

⁷ Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says: "Today, if you hear his voice,

UST

⁷ Since {we are God's people}, {we should do} what the Holy Spirit says: "This day, when you hear the Father speak {to you},

What did the Israelites in the wilderness do when they heard God's voice? (vv7-8)

The Israelites hardened their hearts.

Hebrews 3:8ULT

⁸ do not harden your hearts as in the provocation, during the day of testing in the wilderness

UST

⁸ do not stubbornly disobey him. {That is what your ancestors did} when they rebelled against God and provoked him while they lived in the wild places.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 3:9ULT

⁹ where your fathers tested {me} by examination, and they saw my works

UST

⁹ {While they were} in those places, your ancestors provoked God to see what he would do. {They did that} even though they saw all the amazing things that he did {for them}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 3:10ULT

¹⁰ for 40 years. Therefore, I was very angry with that generation, and I said, 'They are always going astray in their hearts, and they have not known my ways.'

UST

¹⁰ during a period of 40 years. So, he was angry with those people, and he said about them, 'They want to do what is wrong all the time. They do not understand how I want them to behave.'

What did God swear concerning the Israelites who went astray in their hearts? (vv10-11)

God swore that they would not enter his rest.

Hebrews 3:11ULT

¹¹ As I swore in my wrath, '... if they will enter into my rest!'"

UST

¹¹ So then, because he was angry with them, he solemnly declared, 'They will never participate in how I rest!'"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 3:12ULT

¹² Watch out, brothers, so that there will not be in any of you a wicked heart of unbelief, in the falling away from the living God.

UST

¹² Fellow believers, pay attention! Make sure that none of you think in evil and unbelieving ways that would lead you to become disloyal to the only real God.

Of what are the brothers warned to be careful?

The brothers are warned to be careful not to turn away from the living God by unbelief.

Hebrews 3:13ULT

¹³ Instead, exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," so that no one among you is hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

UST

¹³ Rather, you should encourage each other {to be loyal to God} daily, during every day that we call "this day." That way, none of you sin and thus deceive yourselves, which would make you unable to obey God.

What are the brothers to do in order to avoid being hardened by the deceitfulness of sin?

The brothers are to encourage one another daily.

Hebrews 3:14ULT

¹⁴ For we have become sharers of Christ, if indeed we hold firm the beginning of our confidence until the end,

UST

¹⁴ {You should encourage each other,} because we share {in everything} with the Messiah. {That is true} as long as we persist in trusting him, from when we began to do so until we die.

As partners of Christ, what must believers do?

As partners of Christ, believers must firmly hold their confidence in him from the beginning to the end.

Hebrews 3:15ULT

¹⁵ while it is said, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

UST

¹⁵ {You should encourage each other} while the Holy Spirit says, "This day, when you hear God speak {to you}, do not stubbornly disobey him. {That is what your ancestors did} when they rebelled against God."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 3:16ULT

¹⁶ For which ones, having heard, provoked {him}? {Was it} not all the ones having come out from Egypt through Moses?

UST

¹⁶ Now you know that it was all God's people, whom Moses led out of the land of Egypt, who listened to God speak and still rebelled against him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 3:17ULT

¹⁷ And with whom was he very angry for 40 years? {Was it} not with the ones having sinned, whose corpses fell in the wilderness?

UST

¹⁷ You know that it was God's people, who did what was wrong, with whom God was angry for a period of 40 years. They died in the wild places.

With whom was God angry for 40 years?

God was angry with those who sinned in the wilderness.

What happened to those with whom God was angry?

Their dead bodies lay in the wilderness.

Hebrews 3:18ULT

¹⁸ And to whom did he swear that they would not enter into his rest, if not to the ones having disobeyed?

UST

¹⁸ You know that it was God's people, who did not obey him, to whom he solemnly declared that they would never participate in how he rests.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 3:19ULT

¹⁹ And we see that they were not able to enter, because of unbelief.

3:2 ^[1]

UST

¹⁹ So, we can tell that they could not participate {in how God rests} because they did not trust {in him}.

Why were the disobedient Israelites not able to enter God's rest?

They were not able to enter God's rest, because of unbelief.

Hebrews 4

Hebrews 4:1

ULT

¹ Therefore, let us be afraid lest {while} there remains a promise to enter into his rest, any of you might seem to have failed {to attain it}.

UST

¹ So, {we can tell that} God still promises that his people will participate in how he rests. Because of that, we need to make sure that every one of you really receives {what God has promised}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 4:2

ULT

² For we also are having good news proclaimed {to us} just as to them also. But the message of the hearing did not benefit them, not having been joined in faith with the ones having heard {it}. ^[1]

UST

² {We need to make sure of this,} because we heard the good news just like they did. However, because they were not among those people who believed in what they heard, what they heard did not help them.

What good news had the believers and the Israelites both heard?

The believers and the Israelites had both heard the good news about God's rest.

Why did the good news not benefit the Israelites?

The good news did not benefit the Israelites because they did not join in faith with those who believed it.

Hebrews 4:3ULT

³ For we, the ones having believed enter into rest, just as he said, "As I swore in my wrath, '... if they will enter into my rest!'" although his works were finished from the foundation of the world.

UST

³ {That is} because {only} we who believe {in the good news} participate in how God rests, {but those who do not believe do not participate in it}. As the Holy Spirit says, "So then, because he was angry with them, he solemnly declared, 'They will never participate in how I rest!'" {God said this} even though he stopped working {and rested} after he created the world.

Who are the ones who enter God's rest?

Those who have believed enter God's rest.

When did God finish his created works and then rest? (vv3-4)

God finished his created works at the beginning of the world and then rested on the seventh day.

Hebrews 4:4ULT

⁴ For he has somewhere spoken thus about the seventh {day}: "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works."

UST

⁴ {You know that God rested} because of what the Holy Spirit says elsewhere about the seventh {day of the week}. {He says,} "Then, when {it was} the seventh day {of the week}, God finished working {to create everything}, and he rested."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 4:5ULT

⁵ And again in this {passage}, "... if they will enter into my rest!"

UST

⁵ But {note} again {what God says about the Israelite ancestors} in the words that I already quoted: "They will never participate in how I rest!"

What did God say about the Israelites and his rest? (vv5-6)

God said that the Israelites would not enter his rest.

Hebrews 4:6ULT

⁶ Therefore, since it remains {for} some to enter into it, and the ones previously having had the good news proclaimed {to them} did not enter because of their disobedience,

UST

⁶ So then, the Israelite ancestors who heard the good news in the past did not obey God, and so they did not participate in how God rests. However, God still wants some people to participate in how he rests.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 4:7ULT

⁷ he again sets a certain day, calling it "Today," speaking through David after so much time, just as it has already been said, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts."

UST

⁷ {Because of that,} the Holy Spirit once more picked a time {when we can participate in how God rests}. {That time is} what we call "this day." {He did this} when he spoke through David a long time after {the Israelite ancestors disobeyed}. He said, as I have already quoted, "This day, when you hear God speak {to you}, do not stubbornly disobey him."

What day has God now set for people to enter his rest?

God has set "Today" as the day for people to enter his rest.

What must a person do in order to enter God's rest?

A person must listen to God's voice and not harden his heart.

Hebrews 4:8ULT

⁸ For if Joshua gave them rest, he would not have spoken about another day after these things.

UST

⁸ So, the Holy Spirit refers to a different day {when God's people can participate in how God rests} that comes after the day {when Joshua led the Israelite ancestors into the land that God had promised them}. This means that {when Joshua did that,} he did not help them participate in how God rests.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 4:9ULT

⁹ Therefore, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God.

UST

⁹ So, as you can see, God's people can still participate in how God rests, {just as people rest on} the Jewish day of rest.

What is still reserved for God's people?

A Sabbath rest is still reserved for God's people.

Hebrews 4:10ULT

¹⁰ For the one having entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, just as God {did} from his own {works}.

UST

¹⁰ In fact, the people who participate in how God rests also finish what they are doing and rest. {They do this} just like God finished {creating everything} and rested.

A person who enters God's rest also rests from what?

A person who enters God's rest also rests from his works.

Hebrews 4:11ULT

¹¹ Therefore, let us be eager to enter into that rest so that no one might fall into the same example of this disobedience.

UST

¹¹ Because of all that, we should focus on participating in how God rests. That way, none {of us} disobeys {God} like the Israelite ancestors did.

Why should believers be eager to enter God's rest?

Believers should be eager to enter God's rest so that they do not fall into disobedience as the Israelites did.

Hebrews 4:12ULT

¹² For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

UST

¹² {You need to pay attention to these things,} because what God speaks {is like a person who} lives and does things, including discerning what people think and plan. {It does that as if it were} a sword with two very sharp edges that could cut apart people's bones from their tendons and that could divide up people's inner lives.

What is the word of God sharper than?

The word of God is sharper than any two-edged sword.

What is the Word of God able to divide?

The Word of God is able to divide soul from spirit and joints from marrow.

What is the Word of God able to discern?

The Word of God is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

Hebrews 4:13ULT

¹³ And no creature is hidden before him. Instead, all things {are} bare and laid open to the eyes of him to whom {is} our word.

UST

¹³ God knows everything about every person and thing. Nothing that he created can stay secret when he wishes to examine it. He is the one about whom we are talking.

Who or what is hidden from God's sight?

No created thing is hidden from God's sight.

Hebrews 4:14ULT

¹⁴ Therefore, having a great high priest {who} has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us firmly hold to our confession.

UST

¹⁴ So, a powerful ruling priest works for us, one who ascended through the heavens. He is Jesus, God's Son. Because of that, we need to persist in believing what we say we believe.

Who serves as the great high priest for believers?

Jesus, the Son of God, serves as the great high priest for believers.

Hebrews 4:15ULT

¹⁵ For we do not have a high priest {who} is not able to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one having been tempted according to all things, according to our likeness, {yet} without sin.

UST

¹⁵ Now the ruling priest who works for us can very well understand how weak we are. In fact, he experienced many times how doing what is wrong seems to be good, just like we do. However, he never sinned.

Why does Jesus feel sympathy for the weaknesses of believers?

Jesus feels sympathy for the weaknesses of believers because he was in all ways tempted.

How many times did Jesus sin?

Jesus never sinned. Jesus was without sin.

Hebrews 4:16ULT

¹⁶ Let us then approach with confidence to the throne of grace so that we may receive mercy and find grace for timely help.

4:2 ^[1]

UST

¹⁶ So then, we should boldly go closer to God, who rules graciously. That way, he will act mercifully and kindly toward us when we need him to help us.

In time of need, what are believers to do to receive mercy and find grace?

In time of need, believers are to approach with confidence to the throne of grace.

Hebrews 5

Hebrews 5:1

ULT

¹ For every high priest, being taken from among men on the behalf of men, is appointed {in} the things related to God so that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins;

UST

¹ When God appoints a person to be a ruling priest, he selects that person from a group of people in order to serve God for that group. The ruling priest then presents {to God} what people give or sacrifice to take away sins.

What does every high priest do on behalf of the people?

For the people, every high priest offers gifts and sacrifices for sins.

Hebrews 5:2

ULT

² being able to deal gently with the ones being ignorant and being deceived, because he also is subject to weakness.

UST

² {Every ruling priest} is weak. Because of that, he can act patiently toward those who do not know much about God and toward those who believe and do what is wrong.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 5:3

ULT

³ And because of this, he is obligated, just as for the people, so also for himself, to offer {sacrifices} for sins.

UST

³ Further, because {each ruling priest is weak}, God requires him to present a sacrifice to take away his own sins, just like {he presents sacrifices} to take away {the sins of} the rest of the people {of Israel}.

In addition to the people, for whom does the high priest also present sacrifices?

The high priest also presents sacrifices for his own sins.

Hebrews 5:4ULT

⁴ And no one takes this honor for himself, but {only} being called by God, just as also Aaron {was}.

UST

⁴ Now people cannot decide to become honorable ruling priests on their own. Rather, God chooses {each person who will be a ruling priest}, just like {he chose} Aaron{, the first ruling priest}.

How does a man receive the honor of being a high priest of God?

A man must be called by God to be a high priest of God.

Hebrews 5:5ULT

⁵ In the same way also, Christ did not glorify himself to become a high priest. Instead, the one having spoken to him {said}, "You are my Son; today I have fathered you."

UST

⁵ Similarly, the Messiah too did not decide to become a glorious ruling priest on his own. Rather, God the Father {chose him to be a ruling priest} when he said to him, "On this day, I have declared to everyone that I am your father, and you are my son!"

Who declared Christ to be a high priest?

God declared Christ to be a high priest.

Hebrews 5:6ULT

⁶ {It is} just as he also says in another {place}, "You {are} a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek."

UST

⁶ Similarly, {as you can read} in another Psalm, God the Father said {to the Messiah}: "You will never stop being a priest in the same way that Melchizedek was a priest."

For how long is Christ God's high priest?

Christ is God's high priest forever.

Of what order is Christ as a high priest?

Christ is a high priest of the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 5:7ULT

⁷ He, during the days of his flesh, offered up both prayers and requests with loud cries and tears to the one being able to save him from death and he was heard because of his godly life.

UST

⁷ When the Messiah lived with us before he died and came back to life, he often prayed powerfully and sorrowfully to God. He did this because God could rescue him when he died. Because he honored God, God listened to him {and made him alive again}.

Why was Christ heard by God when he prayed?

Christ was heard by God because of his godly life.

Hebrews 5:8ULT

⁸ Even though being a son, he learned obedience from {the things} which he suffered.

UST

⁸ Although he is God's Son, he learned what it means to obey God when bad things happened to him.

How did Christ learn obedience?

Christ learned obedience from the things he suffered.

Hebrews 5:9ULT

⁹ And having been made perfect, he became, for all the ones obeying him, the source of eternal salvation,

UST

⁹ Then, when God finished making him able to do so, the Son became the one who saves forever every person who does what he requires.

For whom did Christ become the cause of eternal salvation?

For everyone who obeys him, Christ became the cause of their eternal salvation.

Hebrews 5:10ULT

¹⁰ having been designated by God {as} high priest, according to the order of Melchizedek,

UST

¹⁰ {He did that} after God appointed him to be a ruling priest in the same way that Melchizedek was a priest.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 5:11ULT

¹¹ concerning whom the message to us {is} great, but hard to speak {about} since you have become dull in your hearing.

UST

¹¹ We have many things to talk about with regard to Melchizedek. However, since you do not listen {and understand} well, these things will be difficult to explain {to you}.

What was the spiritual condition of the original readers of this letter?

The original readers were dull of hearing.

Hebrews 5:12ULT

¹² For even though by this time you ought to be teachers, you again have need of someone to teach you the elementary principles of the oracles of God, and you have become ones having a need of milk, not solid food!

UST

¹² {You have believed in the Messiah} for long enough that you should be teaching others {about God}. Instead, though, someone still has to teach you simple things about what God says. You are like babies who have to drink milk rather than being like adults who eat food.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 5:13ULT

¹³ For anyone partaking of milk {is} inexperienced {with the} message of righteousness, because he is an infant.

UST

¹³ All people who know very little about what is right {and what is wrong} are like people who drink only milk. In fact, they are like babies.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 5:14

ULT

¹⁴ But this solid food is for the mature ones, having through habit trained their senses for distinguishing both {what is} good and {what is} evil.

UST

¹⁴ On the other hand, people who know much about God are {like adults who eat} food. These people have consistently practiced how to recognize and then distinguish between what is right and what is wrong.

How does the author of the letter say that believers grow from spiritual babies into full-grown adults?

Believers grow spiritually by practicing distinguishing right from wrong, discerning both good and evil.

Hebrews 6

Hebrews 6:1

ULT

¹ So then, having left the message of the beginning of Christ, let us go forward to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith in God,

UST

¹ Therefore, we need to learn more so that we become mature. We should not continue to focus on only the most basic things about the Messiah. {In other words,} we do not need to learn again about how to stop doing useless things or about how to trust in God.

On to what does the author of Hebrews want the believers to go forward?

The author of Hebrews wants the believers to go forward to maturity.

What teachings does the author list as the foundation of the message of Christ? (vv1-2)

The foundational teachings are repentance from dead works, faith in God, baptisms, laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.

Hebrews 6:2

ULT

² teaching about baptisms and laying on of hands and resurrection of the dead and eternal judgment.

UST

² {We should not} learn {again} about different ways to baptize people, about putting our hands on others {to help them}, about how those who have died will live again, or about how God will finally decide whether people are guilty or innocent.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 6:3

ULT

³ And this we will do, if God permits.

UST

³ At this time, as long as God wants {us to do so}, we will indeed {learn more so that we become mature}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 6:4ULT

⁴ For {it is} impossible—for the ones having been once enlightened and having tasted of the heavenly gift and having become sharers of the Holy Spirit

UST

⁴ {Let me tell you about something} that cannot happen. {Think about} people who learned about the good news at one time. They experienced what God gives {to his people} from heaven, and they received God's Spirit.

What had these enlightened people gained? (vv4-5)

These enlightened people had tasted the heavenly gift, became sharers of the Holy Spirit, and tasted God's Word and the powers of the age to come.

What is impossible for those who gained so much in Christ but then fell away, to do? (vv4-6)

It is impossible for those who gained so much in Christ, but then fell away, to be restored again to repentance.

Hebrews 6:5ULT

⁵ and having tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come

UST

⁵ They experienced how good are the things God says, and {they have already begun to experience} the powerful things that God will do when he renews the world.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 6:6ULT

⁶ but having fallen away—to restore {them} again to repentance {since} they are crucifying again for themselves the Son of God and exposing {him} to public shame.

UST

⁶ {Think about what would happen} were these people to stop believing the good news. {In that case,} they cannot repent and believe again. {That is because what they did} is like selfishly crucifying and humiliating God's Son.

Why are these people not able to be restored to repentance?

They are not able to be restored because they have crucified for themselves the very Son of God and exposed him to public shame.

Hebrews 6:7ULT

⁷ For a land that drinks the rain that often comes upon it and produces useful vegetation for those for whom it is also cultivated shares {in} a blessing from God,

UST

⁷ {Here is an example:} God blesses any field where, once rain falls on it, crops grow that people use.

In the author's analogy, what happens to land that receives rain but bears thorns and thistles? (vv7-8)

Land that receives rain but bears thorns and thistles has its end in burning.

Hebrews 6:8ULT

⁸ but producing thorns and thistles, {it is} worthless and close to a curse, the end of which {is} for burning.

UST

⁸ However, when a field produces plants that are useless, it helps nobody, and God will soon curse it. In the end, someone will set fire to it {to burn up all the useless plants}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 6:9ULT

⁹ But concerning you, beloved ones, we are persuaded of things {that are} better and are accompanying salvation, even if we speak thus.

UST

⁹ Even though I have warned you in this way, fellow believers whom I love, I am sure that you are believing more firmly {than I have implied}. {In fact, I am sure that} God has saved you.

What is the author's expectation concerning the believers to whom he is writing?

The author expects better things concerning these believers, things that are about salvation.

Hebrews 6:10ULT

¹⁰ For God {is} not unjust, to forget your work and the love that you have demonstrated toward his name, having served the saints and continuing to serve {them}.

UST

¹⁰ Indeed, since God always acts justly, he will not overlook how you act and how you love {others}. You have proved that you do these things to honor God, particularly when you have helped and continue to help God's people.

What will God not forget about these believers?

God will not forget their work, love of God, and service to the saints.

Hebrews 6:11ULT

¹¹ And we long for each of you to demonstrate the same diligence toward the full assurance of your hope until the end

UST

¹¹ I greatly desire that you all, until you die, continue to focus diligently on fully trusting {that God will give to you} what you confidently expect.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 6:12ULT

¹² so that you might not become dull, but imitators of the ones by faith and patience inheriting the promises.

UST

¹² That way, you will not be lazy. Instead, you will do what other believers have done: they have received what God promised them, because they trusted in him and waited patiently.

What should the believers imitate about those who inherit the promises of God?

The believers should imitate the faith and patience of those who inherit the promises of God.

Hebrews 6:13ULT

¹³ For God, having promised to Abraham, since he had no one greater by {whom} to swear, swore by himself,

UST

¹³ When God said that he would do something for Abraham, he guaranteed it himself. {He did that} because every other person who could guarantee it is less powerful {than God}.

What did Abraham have to do in order to obtain what God promised him? (vv13-15)

Abraham had to wait patiently to obtain what God promised him.

Hebrews 6:14ULT

¹⁴ saying, "I will most certainly bless you and multiply you."

UST

¹⁴ {Here is what} he promised {to Abraham}: "I will definitely bless you, and I will definitely give you many descendants."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 6:15ULT

¹⁵ And in this way, having patiently waited, he obtained the promise.

UST

¹⁵ Because {God guaranteed what he promised}, and because Abraham persevered in expecting it, God gave him what he had promised, {a son}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 6:16ULT

¹⁶ For men swear by one {who is} greater, and an end of all disputes to them for confirmation {is} the oath,

UST

¹⁶ Now, people have someone who is more powerful than they are guarantee {what they promise}. In fact, when someone guarantees what he or she promises in this way, it definitely concludes whatever people are arguing about.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 6:17ULT

¹⁷ in which God, intending even more to show to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable quality of his purpose, mediated {it} with an oath

UST

¹⁷ In a similar way, God wanted to demonstrate very clearly to those who would receive what he promised that he would not change what he intended to do. So, he guaranteed what he promised, {just like humans do}.

Why did God guarantee his promise with an oath?

God guaranteed his promise with an oath to show more clearly the unchangeable quality of his purpose.

Hebrews 6:18ULT

¹⁸ so that by two unchangeable things, in which things {it is} impossible for God to lie, we, the ones having fled for refuge, might have a strong encouragement to hold firmly {to} the hope set before {us};

UST

¹⁸ So, God both promised and swore an oath, and he will not lie about or change either of these things. {He did that} for us, who have trusted in him to save us. In this way, he encourages us to persist in confidently expecting what he is ready to give us.

What is it impossible for God to do?

It is impossible for God to lie.

Hebrews 6:19ULT

¹⁹ which {hope} we have as an anchor of the soul, both reliable and confirmed, and entering into the inside of the curtain,

UST

¹⁹ When we confidently expect {what God will give us}, it is as if an anchor holds us very securely {so that we do not waver from trusting God}. Further, {when we confidently expect what God will give us}, it is as if we had gone into the inner part of the {heavenly} sanctuary, behind the cloth hanging{, and already received it}.

What does the believer's hope in God do for his soul?

The believer's hope in God is a secure and reliable anchor for his soul.

Where did Jesus enter as the forerunner for the believers? (vv19-20)

Jesus entered into the inner place behind the curtain as the forerunner for the believers.

Hebrews 6:20

ULT

²⁰ where Jesus has entered {as} a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

UST

²⁰ {That is the same place} where Jesus went {to serve God} for us and to open the way for us. {He went there} after he became a ruling priest who will always {serve God}, in the same way that Melchizedek was a priest.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 7

Hebrews 7:1

ULT

¹ For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, the one having met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,

UST

¹ {Now I will say more about} Melchizedek. He ruled {the city of} Salem, and he served the greatest God as a priest. When Abraham was going home after defeating some of his enemies, Melchizedek met with him and blessed him.

What two titles did Melchizedek have?

Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of God Most High.

Hebrews 7:2

ULT

² to whom also Abraham apportioned a tenth from all things, first indeed translated as “king of righteousness,” and then also “king of Salem,” that is, “king of peace,”

UST

² Then Abraham gave to him one tenth of everything {that he took when he defeated his enemies}. {The name “Melchizedek”} means “just king” {in Hebrew}. {The title} “ruler of {the city of} Salem” means “peaceful ruler,” {since “Salem” sounds like the Hebrew word for “peaceful”}.

What did Abraham give Melchizedek?

Abraham gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything he had captured.

What does the name Melchizedek mean?

The name Melchizedek means “king of righteousness” and “king of peace”.

Hebrews 7:3ULT

³ without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, he remains a priest perpetually.

UST

³ {When Moses wrote about Melchizedek, he did not say anything about} his father, his mother, his other ancestors, when he was born, or when he died. So, {Moses} described him as if he were similar to God's Son and as if he always served as a priest.

Who were the ancestors of Melchizedek, and when did he die?

Melchizedek was without ancestors and has no end of life.

Hebrews 7:4ULT

⁴ But notice how great this one {was}, to whom the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth from the best plunder.

UST

⁴ You can tell how important Melchizedek was from how Abraham, the ancestor of all the Israelites, offered him one tenth of the most valuable things {that he took when he defeated his enemies}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 7:5ULT

⁵ And the ones indeed from the sons of Levi having received the priesthood have a command according to the law to collect a tithe from the people, that is, {from} their brothers, even though they have come from the loins of Abraham.

UST

⁵ In Moses' law, {God spoke to} the men who are part of the clan of Levi and who serve as priests. He commanded them to receive one tenth of what the rest of the Israelites, who are their relatives, {earned or grew}. {God commanded this} despite the fact that all the Israelites are descendants of Abraham.

From whom are the priests descended who are priests according to the Law and who collect tithes from the people?

The priests of the Law are descended from Levi, and before him, from Abraham.

Hebrews 7:6ULT

⁶ But this one not being from their genealogy, has collected tithes from Abraham, and has blessed the one having the promises.

UST

⁶ Now Melchizedek is not part of the clan of Levi. Despite that, he received one tenth of what Abraham {took when he defeated his enemies}. Further, he blessed Abraham, the man to whom God had promised {that he would give him many descendants}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 7:7ULT

⁷ But without any dispute, the lesser is blessed by the greater.

UST

⁷ Now everyone agrees that more important people bless less important people. {So, because he blessed Abraham, Melchizedek is more important than Abraham.}

Who was the greater person, Abraham or Melchizedek?

Melchizedek was the greater person because he blessed Abraham

Hebrews 7:8ULT

⁸ And indeed here mortal men receive tithes, but there he is testified about that he lives on.

UST

⁸ In Moses' law, we learn about how priests receive one tenth {of what the rest of the Israelites earn or grow}, but these priests all die. In the story about Melchizedek, we learn that he {also received one tenth of what Abraham took from his enemies}, but he continues to live.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 7:9ULT

⁹ And, so to speak, Levi, the one collecting tithes, also had paid a tithe through Abraham,

UST

⁹ In fact, in a way, Levi {and the priests from his clan} gave one tenth {of what they had to Melchizedek} when Abraham {gave him one tenth}. {This is true even though} they are the ones who receive one tenth {from what the Israelites have}.

In what way did Levi himself also pay tithes to Melchizedek? (vv9-10)

Levi also paid tithes to Melchizedek, because Levi was of the seed of Abraham, and Abraham paid tithes to Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7:10ULT

¹⁰ because he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

UST

¹⁰ {What I have said makes sense} because Levi {had not yet been born} and was{, in a way,} still inside Abraham, his great-grandfather, when he and Melchizedek met together.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 7:11ULT

¹¹ If indeed then, perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people had been given {the law}), what further need {was there} for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek and to not be said {to be} according to the order of Aaron?

UST

¹¹ Now God made the law that he gave to the Israelites depend on having the descendants of Levi serve as priests. So, suppose that people could become what God wanted them to be through what these priests did to serve God. {In that case,} God would never have appointed another priest to serve in the way that Melchizedek was a priest instead of in the way that Aaron was a priest. {However, God did appoint this kind of priest.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 7:12ULT

¹² For {when} the priesthood is changed, from necessity a change of the law also takes place.

UST

¹² {You can tell that God made the law depend on having the descendants of Levi serve as priests,} because the law must change whenever the way that people serve as priests changes.

What must also be changed when the priesthood changes?

The law must be changed when the priesthood changes.

Hebrews 7:13ULT

¹³ For he about whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar.

UST

¹³ {You can tell that God has changed how people serve as priests,} because Jesus, whom God has called {a priest}, is not one of the descendants of Levi but is a descendant of one of Levi's brothers. No descendant of this man has served as a priest.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 7:14ULT

¹⁴ For {it is} obvious that our Lord has sprung up from Judah, a tribe in regard to which Moses said nothing concerning priests.

UST

¹⁴ In fact, we all know that our Lord {Jesus} is a descendant of {Levi's brother} Judah, and Moses did not write down anything about descendants of Judah serving as priests.

From which tribe did Jesus descend, and had this tribe served before at the altar as priests?

Jesus descended from the tribe of Judah, which had never before served at the altar as priests.

Hebrews 7:15ULT

¹⁵ And this is still even more obvious if another priest emerges according to the likeness of Melchizedek,

UST

¹⁵ Further, {you can tell} even more clearly {that God has changed how people serve as priests,} since God has appointed a different kind of priest{, Jesus,} who serves God like Melchizedek did.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 7:16ULT

¹⁶ who has become {a priest} not according to a law of a fleshly command, but according to the power of an indestructible life.

UST

¹⁶ He serves as a priest because nothing can keep him from living, which makes him a powerful {priest}. {As this kind of priest,} he does not depend on what God commanded in Moses' law about how human priests {are descendants of Levi}.

On what basis did Jesus become a priest after the order of Melchizedek?

Jesus became a priest after the order of Melchizedek based on the power of an indestructible life.

Hebrews 7:17ULT

¹⁷ For it is being testified: "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."

UST

¹⁷ {You can tell that this is true about him}, because God the Father said {to him}: "You will never stop being a priest in the same way that Melchizedek was a priest."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 7:18ULT

¹⁸ For on the one hand, there is an annulment of the former commandment because it {is} weak and useless

UST

¹⁸ What this means is that God withdrew what he had first commanded {about priests}. {He did this because} that way of doing things was ineffective.

What has been set aside because it is weak and useless? (vv18-19)

The former commandment, the Law, has been set aside because it is weak and useless.

Hebrews 7:19ULT

¹⁹ (for the law perfected nothing), and on the other hand {is} the introduction of a better hope, through which we come near to God.

UST

¹⁹ {That way was ineffective} because people could not become what God wanted them to be by doing what God previously commanded. Now what this also means is that God provided something better for us to confidently expect. When we confidently expect this, we go closer to God.

Hebrews 7:20ULT

²⁰ And by as much as not without swearing an oath,—for indeed they without swearing an oath are become priests,

Hebrews 7:21ULT

²¹ but he with an oath-taking, through the one saying to him, "The Lord swore and will not change his mind: 'You {are} a priest forever'"—

UST

²⁰⁻²¹ Now God did not guarantee what he said when he made some of the descendants of Levi to be priests. However, he did guarantee what he said {when he made} the Messiah {to be a priest}. Here is what God said to him: "The Lord has guaranteed what he says, and he will not do something else: 'You will never stop being a priest!'" So, just as {Jesus serves as a greater priest because} God guaranteed what he said {when he made him a priest},

What oath did God swear concerning Jesus?

God swore that Jesus would be a priest forever.

Hebrews 7:22ULT

²² and according to so much more, Jesus has become a guarantor of a better covenant.

UST

²² so also there is a better agreement, which Jesus guarantees.

Of what is Jesus the guarantee?

Jesus is the guarantee of a better covenant.

Hebrews 7:23ULT

²³ And the ones, on the one hand, having become priests are many, since by death they are prevented {from} continuing,

UST

²³ Further, each one {of the descendants of Levi} died and so could not continue {to serve as a priest}. Because of that, there have been many {descendants of Levi} who have served as priests.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 7:24ULT

²⁴ but he, on the other hand, since he remains forever, has the permanent priesthood,

UST

²⁴ However, Jesus will never die. Because of that, he will always serve as a priest.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 7:25ULT

²⁵ because of which he is also able to save completely the ones approaching God through him, always living to intercede on behalf of them.

UST

²⁵ Because {he always serves as a priest}, he can fully rescue anyone who, because of what he has done, goes closer to God. {He can do that because} he will never die and thus can always ask God to help them.

Why is Jesus able to completely save those who draw near to God through him?

Jesus is able to completely save those who draw near to God through him because he always lives to intercede for them.

Hebrews 7:26ULT

²⁶ For such a high priest was indeed suitable for us: holy, innocent, pure, separated from the sinners, and having become higher than the heavens;

UST

²⁶ Jesus is exactly the kind of ruling priest that we need. He honors God, he does not think about what is evil, and he does not do what would defile him. He is not one of the people who sin, and he now lives in the highest heaven.

What four attributes does Jesus have that make him the right priest for believers?

Jesus is holy, innocent, pure, and separated from sinners.

What offering did Jesus need to make for his own sins?

Jesus did not need to make any offering for his own sins, because he is sinless.

Hebrews 7:27ULT

²⁷ who does not have each day a need, even as the high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first on behalf of his own sins {and} then {on behalf of} those of the people, for he did this, having offered himself once and never again.

UST

²⁷ Now each {descendant of Levi who serves as a} ruling priest has to present sacrifices {to God} every day. First, he presents a sacrifice to take away his own sins, and after that he presents a sacrifice to take away the sins of the rest of the Israelites. However, Jesus {took away everyone's sins} when he presented himself {as a sacrifice} one time, so he does not need {to present many sacrifices}.

What offering did Jesus make for the sins of the people?

Jesus offered up himself once for the sins of the people.

Hebrews 7:28ULT

²⁸ For the law appoints {as} high priests men having weakness, but the word of the swearing of an oath, which {came} after the law, {appoints} a Son, having been made perfect forever.

UST

²⁸ In the end, God commanded through Moses that some people should serve as priests, but these priests are weak {and die}. In contrast, when God guaranteed what he said, which he did after he had commanded {those things through Moses}, he enabled his Son {to serve} always as the most effective {priest}.

How is Jesus different from the priests who were appointed through the Law?

The priests who were appointed through the Law were weak, but Jesus has been made perfect forever.

Hebrews 8

Hebrews 8:1

ULT

¹ Now the point concerning the things being said {is this}: We have such a high priest who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,

UST

¹ Here is the main idea that I am writing about: a ruling priest like the one I have described is serving for us. He has gone to be with God {the Father} in the heavenly places, and he has begun to rule.

Where is the believers' high priest sitting?

The believers' high priest is sitting at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens.

Hebrews 8:2

ULT

² a servant of the holy {place} and the true tabernacle that the Lord, not a man, set up.

UST

² He serves in the Most Holy Place and in the most real sacred tent. The Lord {God}, not any human, made {this sanctuary}.

Where is the true tabernacle?

The true tabernacle is in the heavens.

Hebrews 8:3

ULT

³ For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, because of which {it is} necessary also for this one to have something that he might offer.

UST

³ Now God makes people ruling priests so that they can present sacrifices. Because {that is what ruling priests do}, Jesus too needed to present a sacrifice.

What is necessary for every priest to have?

Every priest must have something to offer.

Hebrews 8:4ULT

⁴ Now if indeed he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, {since} there are the ones offering the gifts according to the law;

UST

⁴ So, because the priests {who are descendants of Levi already} present sacrifices {on earth} as God commanded, Jesus would not be serving as a priest were he on earth {right now}.

Where were the priests who offered gifts according to the Law?

The priests who offered gifts according to the Law were on the earth.

Hebrews 8:5ULT

⁵ who serve an example and a shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses had been warned, being about to complete the tabernacle, for he says, "See that you will make everything according to the type that was shown to you on the mountain."

UST

⁵ Those priests do what God requires {in a sanctuary that} models the heavenly {sanctuary}. {You can tell that this is true,} because God revealed it to Moses when Moses was going to have the Israelites construct the sacred tent. {At that time,} God spoke to him, "Make sure that everything {about the sacred tent} matches the original {sanctuary} that I revealed to you {when you were with me} on Mount Sinai!"

What did the priests on earth serve?

The priests on earth served an example and a shadow of the heavenly things.

According to what pattern was the earthly tabernacle built?

The earthly tabernacle was built according to the pattern God showed Moses on the mountain.

Hebrews 8:6ULT

⁶ But now he has obtained a far superior ministry, in as much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been legislated on better promises.

UST

⁶ But here is what is true {about Jesus}: he serves in a much better way {than the descendants of Levi do}. In the same way, the agreement that God has made with his people through Jesus is greater {than the agreement that God made with the Israelites}. That is because God promised greater things when he made this new agreement.

Why does Christ have a superior priestly ministry?

Christ has a superior priestly ministry because he is the mediator of a better covenant, established on better promises.

Hebrews 8:7ULT

⁷ For if that first {covenant} would have been faultless, no place would have been sought {for} a second one.

UST

⁷ Now {you can tell that} the agreement that God made with the Israelites was not perfect, because God chose to make another agreement.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 8:8ULT

⁸ For finding fault with them, he says, "Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, {when} I will complete a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

UST

⁸ {You can tell that the first agreement was not perfect,} because God declared that the Israelites did not perfectly keep that agreement when he said, "Here is what I say to you: Pay attention! Soon I will make a new agreement with all my people from both the kingdom of Israel and the kingdom of Judah.

What did God promise when he found fault with the people under the first covenant?

God promised to make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

Hebrews 8:9ULT

⁹ not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day {when} I grasped their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they did not continue in my covenant, and I did not care about them, says the Lord.

UST

⁹ {That agreement will} not be like the agreement that I made with their ancestors when I lovingly delivered them from the land of Egypt. Here is what I say: {It will not be like that agreement,} because they did not keep it, so I abandoned them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 8:10ULT

¹⁰ For this {is} the covenant that I will covenant with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord, putting my laws into their mind, and I will write them on their hearts, and I will be to them as God, and they will be to me as a people.

UST

¹⁰ This is the kind of agreement that I will make with my people, the Israelites, very soon. Here is what I say: I will enable them to understand and obey my laws. I will be the God whom they worship, and they will be the people whom I care for.

What did God say he would do in the new covenant?

God said he would put his laws into the people's minds, and write them on their hearts.

Hebrews 8:11ULT

¹¹ And they will certainly not teach each one his fellow citizen, and each one his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' for they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

UST

¹¹ No one will ever have to instruct another Israelite, 'Trust and worship the Lord God.' {That is} because all my people will trust and worship me, no matter how important or unimportant they are.

In the new covenant, who will know the Lord?

In the new covenant, all will know the Lord, from the least to the greatest.

Hebrews 8:12ULT

¹² For I will be merciful toward their unrighteousness, and their sins I will certainly not remember any longer.”

UST

¹² {That will happen} because I will mercifully forgive them for the wrong things that they have done. I will never again punish them for the sins that they have committed.”

What did God say he would do with the people’s sins in the new covenant?

God said he would remember the people’s sins no more.

Hebrews 8:13ULT

¹³ By saying “new,” he has made the first obsolete, and {what} is being made obsolete and growing old {is} near disappearing.

UST

¹³ When God uses the word “new,” he means that the earlier {agreement with the Israelites} is now old. Further, what is old will soon cease to exist.

In announcing a new covenant, what did God make the first covenant?

In announcing a new covenant, God made the first covenant obsolete, growing old and disappearing.

Hebrews 9

Hebrews 9:1

ULT

¹ Now indeed the first {covenant} had regulations for worship and the earthly holy {place},

UST

¹ As for the earlier {agreement that God made with Israel}, it required people to worship God in a specific way in a sanctuary on earth.

What was the place of worship for the first covenant? (vv1-2)

The place of worship for the first covenant was the earthly holy place which was called the “tabernacle.”

Hebrews 9:2

ULT

² for a tabernacle was prepared, the first one, in which {were} both the lampstand and the table, and the presentation of the loaves, which is called ‘Holy,’

UST

² The sanctuary that the Israelites set up was a sacred tent {that had two sections}. They called the outer section the Holy Place. In it, {they put} a stand for lamps and a table on which they laid out {special} bread.

What was located in the holy place of the earthly tabernacle?

In the holy place of the earthly tabernacle were the lampstand, the table, and the bread of the presence.

Hebrews 9:3

ULT

³ and behind the second curtain {was} a tent which is called ‘the Holy of Holies,’

UST

³ The inner section was on the other side of an inner cloth hanging. They called this {inner section} the Most Holy Place.

What was located in the most holy place of the earthly tabernacle? (vv3-4)

In the most holy place of the earthly tabernacle were the altar for incense and the ark of the covenant.

Hebrews 9:4ULT

⁴ having a golden incense altar and the ark of the covenant, having been covered completely all around with gold, in which {was} a golden jar holding the manna, and the rod of Aaron that budded, and the tablets of the covenant,

UST

⁴ In it, they put the altar for incense and the sacred chest, both of which they completely coated with gold. In the sacred chest, {they put} a gold container with manna inside{, the food that God gave the Israelites while they lived in the desert}. {They also put in it} Aaron's staff that God caused to produce leaves. {They also put in it} the stone slabs {on which Moses wrote the most important parts} of the agreement with God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 9:5ULT

⁵ and above it, cherubim of glory overshadowing the atonement lid, about which things it is not now {the time} to speak according to {each} part.

UST

⁵ On top of the sacred chest, {they put two statues of} glorious spiritual beings with wings. {These statues} cast shadows on the lid for the sacred chest. {However,} now is not the right time to carefully discuss each of these objects.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 9:6ULT

⁶ And {when} these things had been thus prepared, the priests always enter into the first tabernacle, performing their services;

UST

⁶ After they had set up all those things, the priests went into the outer section of the sacred tent every day to serve God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 9:7ULT

⁷ but into the second {tent}, once {in} the year only the high priest {enters}, {and} not without blood that he offers on behalf of himself and of the unintentional sins of the people.

UST

⁷ On the other hand, on only one day a year does the {current} ruling priest go into the inner section {of the sacred tent}. He has to take blood {from an animal with him}, which he presents {to God} to take away his own {sins} and the sins that the rest of the Israelites committed by accident.

How often did the high priest enter the Holy of Holies, and what did he do before he entered?

The high priest entered the Holy of Holies once each year, after making a blood sacrifice for himself and the people.

Hebrews 9:8ULT

⁸ This {is what} the Holy Spirit is making clear, that the way of the holy {places} {is} not yet to be revealed, the first tabernacle still having a place,

UST

⁸ The Holy Spirit shows {through what the priests do in the sacred tent} that God did not reveal how to enter the {heavenly} Most Holy Place during the time when he required people to use the first section of the {earthly} sacred tent.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 9:9ULT

⁹ which {is} a parable for the present time, according to which both gifts and sacrifices are being offered, not being able according to the conscience to perfect the worshiper,

UST

⁹ This {first section of the earthly sacred tent} figuratively describes the time in which those Israelites lived. In that time, priests presented offerings that could not enable the people who brought the offerings to distinguish properly between what is right and what is wrong.

What served as an illustration in the present time for the readers of this letter?

The earthly tabernacle and the gifts and sacrifices being offered there served as an illustration in the present time.

What were the offerings of the earthly tabernacle not able to do?

The offerings of the earthly tabernacle were not able to perfect the worshiper's conscience.

Hebrews 9:10ULT

¹⁰ only concerning foods and drinks and different baptisms, regulations of the body, being imposed until a time of new order.

UST

¹⁰ They also followed rules that were only about bodily things, {including rules} about what to eat and drink and how to wash with water often. God gave them these rules to follow until he made a new agreement with his people.

Until when were the regulations of the earthly tabernacle provided?

The regulations of the earthly tabernacle were provided until the new order would be put in place.

Hebrews 9:11ULT

¹¹ But Christ, having come as a high priest of the good things having come into existence, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by human hands, that is, not of this creation; ^[1]

UST

¹¹ In contrast, when the Messiah began to serve as a ruling priest, {he gave us} the good things that we now have. He passed through the {heavenly} sacred tent that functions better {than the earthly one}. God, not humans, made this sacred tent, and it does not belong on the earth.

What is different about the sacred tent in which Christ serves?

The sacred tent in which Christ serves is more perfect, is not made by human hands, and does not belong to this created world.

Hebrews 9:12ULT

¹² and not by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered into the holy {places} once and never again, having himself obtained eternal redemption.

UST

¹² Then, when he went into the {heavenly} Most Holy Place only one time, he did not present blood from animals that someone sacrificed{, like the priests who are descendants of Levi do}. Instead, he presented his own blood and freed {his people} from their sins forever.

What offering did Christ make, by which he entered the Holy of Holies?

Christ made an offering of his own blood by which he entered the Holy of Holies.

What did Christ's offering accomplish?

Christ's offering secured everlasting redemption for everyone.

Hebrews 9:13ULT

¹³ For if the blood of goats and bulls and sprinkling ashes of a heifer on the ones that had been defiled sanctifies {them} for the cleansing of their flesh,

UST

¹³ Now {those priests present} blood from animals that someone sacrificed, and they scatter ashes from a female cow, which they have burned, on unclean people. {When the priests do these things,} they really do cleanse the outside of a person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 9:14ULT

¹⁴ how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse your ^[2] conscience from dead works to serve the living God!

UST

¹⁴ {Since that is true,} what the Messiah does with his blood cleanses people much more! He presented himself as a perfect sacrifice to God, and the Spirit who lives forever enabled him to do so. He cleanses the inside of you all, removing what you do that accomplishes nothing and enabling you to do what the only real God requires.

What does Christ's blood do for the believer?

Christ's blood cleanses the believer's conscience from dead deeds to serve the living God.

Hebrews 9:15ULT

¹⁵ And for this reason, he is a mediator of a new covenant, so that, a death having happened for redemption of the transgressions {related} to the first covenant, the ones called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

UST

¹⁵ Because {the Messiah cleanses the inside of people}, God has made a new agreement through him. That way, God gives to those whom he chose what he promised that they would receive forever. {That can happen because Jesus} died to free {his people} from what they did wrong when they disobeyed the agreement that God made with Israel.

Of what is Christ the mediator?

Christ is the mediator of a new covenant.

Hebrews 9:16ULT

¹⁶ For where {there is} a covenant, {there is} a necessity for the death of the one having covenanted {it} to be proven.

UST

¹⁶ Now when someone sets up a will, {which is a type of agreement,} that person needs to die before the will becomes effective.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 9:17ULT

¹⁷ For a covenant {is} in force on the basis of the dead, because it never has force when the one covenanting {it} lives.

UST

¹⁷ In fact, every will is valid only because of a dead person. {That is} because a will is not effective while the person who set it up is alive.

What is required in order for a will to be in force?

A death is required in order for a will to be in force.

Hebrews 9:18ULT

¹⁸ So not even the first {covenant} had been inaugurated without blood.

UST

¹⁸ Much like that, God definitely required {the Israelites to use} blood when he made the agreement with them.

What death was required for the first covenant? (vv18-19)

The death of calves and goats was required for the first covenant.

Hebrews 9:19ULT

¹⁹ For every command having been spoken according to the law by Moses to all the people, having taken the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and red wool and hyssop, he sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people,

UST

¹⁹ Indeed, after Moses declared everything that God commanded in his law to the Israelites, he picked up {a bowl containing} blood from animals that someone had sacrificed. Then, also using water, red cloth, and parts of a hyssop plant, he scattered the blood on the book {in which he wrote what God commanded} and on all the Israelites.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 9:20ULT

²⁰ saying, "This {is} the blood of the covenant that God commanded for you."

UST

²⁰ {When he scattered the blood,} he said to them, "This blood signifies {that} the agreement that God made with you {is now effective}."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 9:21ULT

²¹ And in a similar way, he sprinkled with the blood both the tabernacle and all the containers of the service.

UST

²¹ Moses likewise scattered blood on the sacred tent and on every tool {that the priests used} to serve God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 9:22ULT

²² And according to the law, almost everything is cleansed with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

UST

²² Further, God commanded in Moses' law that the priests should use blood almost every time they cleansed {people or things}. In fact, God does not forgive anyone unless a priest presents blood {from an animal that someone has sacrificed}.

What cannot happen without the shedding of blood?

Without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.

Hebrews 9:23ULT

²³ Therefore {it is} necessary on the one hand {for} the examples of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these, but on the other hand, the heavenly things themselves, with better sacrifices than these,

UST

²³ So then, the priests had to sacrifice animals to purify the {earthly} copy of the heavenly {Most Holy Place}. Much like that, {Jesus had to} present an even greater offering {to purify} the heavenly {Most Holy Place} itself.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 9:24ULT

²⁴ for Christ did not enter into holy {places} made with hands—copies of the true ones—but into heaven itself, to be made visible now in the presence of God on our behalf,

UST

²⁴ {When he presented that offering,} the Messiah went into the highest heaven, where he reveals himself right now before God to help us. He did not go into a Most Holy Place that humans have made, which is a model of the most real Most Holy Place.

Where does Christ now appear on our behalf?

Christ now appears in heaven itself, in the presence of God, on our behalf.

Hebrews 9:25ULT

²⁵ and not in order to offer himself many times, even as the high priest enters into the holy {places} each year with blood {that is} not his own;

UST

²⁵ Further, he {went into the highest heaven} to present himself as an offering only once. That is not what the {earthly} ruling priests do. They go into the Most Holy Place every year {and present} blood from an animal {that someone has sacrificed}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 9:26ULT

²⁶ since it was necessary for him to suffer many times from the foundation of the world. But now he has been revealed once at the end of the ages for the annulment of sin through the sacrifice of himself.

UST

²⁶ {If Jesus had actually needed to present himself as an offering more than once,} then he would have needed to die very often since the time when God created everything. But here is what is true {about Jesus}: during this final time period, he presented himself one time only as an offering to make sin powerless.

How many times must Christ offer himself to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself?

Christ offers himself one time, at the end of the ages, to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

Hebrews 9:27ULT

²⁷ And just as it is appointed to men to die once, and after that, the judgment,

UST

²⁷ Humans will each die one time only, and then God will decide whether they are guilty or innocent.

For every person, what happens after their death?

After every person dies, they face the judgment.

Hebrews 9:28ULT

²⁸ so also, Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many {people}, will appear for a second time, apart from sin, for salvation to the ones eagerly waiting {for} him.

9:11 ^[1]

9:14 ^[2]

UST

²⁸ Much like that, the Messiah presented himself one time only as an offering to take away many people's sins. Then, he will come again {to earth}, not {to take away} sins, but to rescue his people, who are persistently expecting him.

For what purpose will Christ appear a second time?

Christ will appear a second time for the salvation of those who wait eagerly for him.

Hebrews 10

Hebrews 10:1

ULT

¹ For the law, having a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the image itself of those things—is never able to make perfect the ones approaching with the same sacrifices that they continually bring every year.

UST

¹ The law {that God gave through Moses} is not itself one of the wonderful things that God will give to his people. Rather, it only points to those wonderful things. So, even though the people who go closer to God always present offerings year after year, doing so never enables them to be what God wants them to be.

What is the law compared to the realities in Christ?

The law is only a shadow of the realities in Christ.

Hebrews 10:2

ULT

² Otherwise, would they not have ceased being offered, because the ones serving would no longer have consciousness of sins, having been cleansed once?

UST

² Suppose that {those offerings} actually purified the people who worship God. {In that case,} they would never feel guilty about their sins, and they would stop presenting offerings.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:3

ULT

³ But with those {sacrifices} {there is} a reminder of sins every year.

UST

³ But {here is what is true about those offerings}: they remind people year after year of their sins.

Of what do the repeated sacrifices made through the law remind the worshipers?

The repeated sacrifices made through the law remind the worshipers of sins committed year after year.

Hebrews 10:4ULT

⁴ For {it is} impossible {for} blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

UST

⁴ {Those offerings can only do that,} because blood from animals that someone sacrificed cannot remove people's sins.

What is it impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to do?

It is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

Hebrews 10:5ULT

⁵ Therefore, entering into the world, he says, "Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but a body you prepared for me;

UST

⁵ That is why, when the Messiah came to earth, he spoke {to his Father}, "You did not want {people to present} offerings. Instead, you made a human body ready for me.

What did God prepare for Christ when Christ came into the world?

God prepared a body for Christ.

Hebrews 10:6ULT

⁶ {in} whole burnt {offerings} and concerning sin {offerings} nor were you well-pleased {with them}.

UST

⁶ You did not enjoy the sacrifices that people present to take away their sins.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:7ULT

⁷ Then I said, 'Behold, I have come— {as} it is written about me in a section of a scroll— to do your will, God.'

UST

⁷ So, I spoke {these words}: 'Here I am! Someone wrote about me in the Scriptures. I will do what you want {me to do}, my God.'

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:8ULT

⁸ {When} he says above, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not desire, nor did you take pleasure in them" (which things are offered according to the law),

UST

⁸ Here is what the Messiah said {to God} first: "You did not want or enjoy the offerings {that people present} or the sacrifices that people present to take away their sins." Those offerings and sacrifices are the ones that the Israelites present {to God} as he required in the laws {that he gave through Moses}.

What practice did God set aside when Christ came into the world?

God set aside the first practice of the sacrifices offered according to the law.

Hebrews 10:9ULT

⁹ then he had said, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He takes away the first in order to establish the second.

UST

⁹ Then, the Messiah said this second: "Here I am! I will do what you want {me to do}." He abolishes {what he spoke about} first in order to set up {what he spoke about} second.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:10ULT

¹⁰ By that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once and never again.

UST

¹⁰ Here is what God wanted: Jesus the Messiah presented his body as an offering one time only, and by that {offering}, God set us apart for himself.

What practice did God establish when Christ came into the world?

God established the second practice of the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Hebrews 10:11ULT

¹¹ And indeed, every priest stands every day serving and repeatedly offering the same sacrifices that never are able to take away sins.

UST

¹¹ Now all {earthly} priests have to stand up day after day while they worship God and present many offerings of the same kind. These offerings cannot remove {people's} sins.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:12ULT

¹² But he, having offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, sat down at the right hand of God,

UST

¹² In contrast, the Messiah presented a single offering that is always effective in taking away sins. Then, he went to be with God {the Father}, where he sits {on the throne} and rules.

For what is Christ waiting as he sits at the right side of God? (vv12-13)

Christ is waiting until his enemies are humbled and made a stool for his feet.

Hebrews 10:13ULT

¹³ waiting from then until his enemies might be made a footstool {for} his feet.

UST

¹³ Right now, he remains {there} until God defeats all of his enemies.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:14ULT

¹⁴ For by one offering he has perfected for all time the ones being sanctified.

UST

¹⁴ {The Messiah remains there,} because he presented a single offering, by which he always makes the people whom God is setting apart for himself to be what God wants them to be.

By his one offering, what has Christ done for those sanctified?

Christ has perfected forever those who are sanctified by his one offering.

Hebrews 10:15ULT

¹⁵ And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after having said,

UST

¹⁵ God's Spirit too confirms to us {that this is true}. Here is what he said first {in the words that I have already quoted}:

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:16ULT

¹⁶ "This {is} the covenant that I will covenant with them after those days, says the Lord, putting my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their mind."

UST

¹⁶ "This is the kind of agreement that I will make with them, very soon. Here is what I say: I will enable them to obey and understand my laws."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:17ULT

¹⁷ And {then}, "Their sins and their lawless deeds I will certainly not still remember."

UST

¹⁷ Then{, God's Spirit said this second in the words I have already quoted}: "I will never again punish them for the sinful and disobedient things that they have done."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:18ULT

¹⁸ Now where {there is} forgiveness {for} these things, {there is} no longer sacrifice on behalf of sin.

UST

¹⁸ When God forgives people for the {sinful and disobedient} things that they have done, no one again presents sacrifices to take away sins.

What is no longer required where there is forgiveness of sins?

Additional sacrifices are no longer required where there is forgiveness of sins.

Hebrews 10:19ULT

¹⁹ Therefore, brothers, having confidence to enter the holy {places} by the blood of Jesus,

UST

¹⁹ So then, fellow believers, we can be totally sure that there is a way into the heavenly Most Holy Place {for us}, because of Jesus' blood.

Into what place can believers now enter by Jesus' blood?

Believers can now enter the most holy place by Jesus' blood.

Hebrews 10:20ULT

²⁰ which has inaugurated for us a fresh and living way through the curtain, that is, his flesh,

UST

²⁰ Jesus established that new and effective way for us, which passes through the cloth hanging {into the Most Holy Place}. This {cloth hanging figuratively} represents Jesus {while he lived} on earth.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:21ULT

²¹ and a great priest over the house of God,

UST

²¹ Further, {the Messiah is} a ruling priest {who} works for us, God's people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:22ULT

²² let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, our hearts having been sprinkled clean from a wicked conscience and our body having been washed with pure water.

UST

²² {Because those things are true,} we should go closer {to God}, completely serving him and fully believing in him now that he has purified us on the inside and on the outside so that we no longer feel guilty about evil things {that we have done}.

What has been sprinkled and what has been washed in the believer?

The believer's heart has been sprinkled clean from an evil conscience, and his body has been washed with pure water.

Hebrews 10:23ULT

²³ Let us hold tightly the confession of our hope without wavering, because the one having promised {is} faithful.

UST

²³ {God,} who promised {these things to us,} will do what he has said. So, we need to persist in fully believing what we say we confidently expect.

To what must believers hold tightly?

Believers must hold tightly to the confession of their hope.

Hebrews 10:24ULT

²⁴ And let us consider one another to stimulate love and good deeds,

UST

²⁴ Further, we need to think about each other, particularly how to encourage each other to love others and to do what is right.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:25ULT

²⁵ not abandoning our own meeting together, just as {is} the habit for some {people}, but exhorting {one another}, and so much more in as much as you see that day approaching.

UST

²⁵ {We can do that by} always continuing to gather together {to worship God} and encouraging each other, even though some people often do not {do this}. Since we know that Jesus is coming back soon, we should be very eager to do those things.

What must believers do as they see the day drawing near?

Believers must encourage one another more and more as they see the day drawing near.

Hebrews 10:26ULT

²⁶ For if we deliberately keep on sinning after we receive the full knowledge of the truth, a sacrifice on behalf of sins no longer remains,

UST

²⁶ {We should do all those things,} because whenever we intentionally and habitually sin once we have completely understood the true {message about Christ}, no one can present any offering that will take away our sins.

What is the expectation of those who deliberately go on sinning after receiving the knowledge of the truth? (vv26-27)

The expectation of those who deliberately go on sinning after receiving the knowledge of the truth is judgment and a fiery zeal that consumes God's enemies.

Hebrews 10:27ULT

²⁷ but a certain fearful expectation of judgment and of fire of zeal {that is} going to consume the adversaries.

UST

²⁷ {If we did go on sinning}, all we could do is fearfully wait for God to declare us guilty and, soon after, forcefully punish us as his enemies, {which would be like} flames burning us up.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:28ULT

²⁸ Anyone having rejected the law of Moses dies without mercy at {the testimony of} two or three witnesses.

UST

²⁸ The Israelites would kill any person who completely stopped obeying the laws that God gave through Moses, as long as at least two or three people confirmed that the person had done that. They would not be merciful to that person.

What does the person deserve who treats the blood of Christ, by which he was sanctified, as something unholy? (vv28-29)

The person who treats the blood of Christ by which he was sanctified as something unholy deserves punishment without mercy beyond the punishment given under the law of Moses.

Hebrews 10:29ULT

²⁹ How much worse punishment do you think will deserve the one having trampled underfoot the Son of God and having considered the blood of the covenant—by which he was sanctified—{as} profane and having insulted the Spirit of grace!

UST

²⁹ But now consider people who shame God's Son. They treat his blood as if it were ordinary, even though God used that blood to make his covenant and set them apart for himself. They make fun of God's Spirit, who acts graciously. God will rightly punish those people more than {he punished anyone who completely stopped obeying the laws that God gave through Moses}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:30ULT

³⁰ For we know the one having said, "Vengeance {is} mine; I will pay back." And again, "The Lord will judge his people."

UST

³⁰ {We know that is true,} because we have encountered God, who spoke, "I am the one who will punish people when they act against me. I will do so in a way that they deserve." Further, {he} also {spoke}, "I, the Lord, will decide whether my people are guilty or innocent."

To whom does vengeance belong?

Vengeance belongs to the Lord.

Hebrews 10:31ULT

³¹ {It is} a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God!

UST

³¹ Those who deserve the only real God to punish them should be afraid!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:32ULT

³² But remember the former days, in which, having been enlightened, you endured a great struggle of sufferings,

UST

³² On the other hand, I want you to think about what it was like when you first learned about the good news. During that time, you continued {to trust God} while you firmly withstood what you suffered.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:33ULT

³³ at {times} indeed being publicly exposed both to reproach and persecution, but at other {times} having become partners of the ones being treated in this way.

UST

³³ In some cases, people publicly insulted and hurt you. In other cases, you helped other people who experienced those same things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:34ULT

³⁴ For you also sympathized with the prisoners, and you welcomed with joy the seizure of your possessions, knowing yourselves to have a better and abiding possession. ^[1]

UST

³⁴ More specifically, you acted compassionately toward those in jail. Also, you rejoiced even when people took away what you owned. {You did that} because you recognized that God has something greater and more lasting for you.

How had the believers who received this letter reacted to the seizure of their possessions?

The believers had accepted with joy the seizure of their possessions, knowing they had a better and everlasting possession.

Hebrews 10:35ULT

³⁵ So you must not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.

UST

³⁵ Therefore, continue to be confident {that God will do what he has promised}. God greatly rewards those who are confident in this way.

What must the believer need not throw away so he may receive what God has promised?
(vv35-36)

The believer needs to retain his confidence so he may receive what God has promised.

Hebrews 10:36ULT

³⁶ For you have need of endurance so that, having done the will of God, you might obtain the promise.

UST

³⁶ As you can see, you need to continue {to trust God}. That way, once you have done what God desires, you will receive what he has promised {to give to you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:37ULT

³⁷ "For yet {in} a very little {while}, the one coming will come and will not delay.

UST

³⁷ Here is what a prophet wrote: "Very soon, the person who is going to arrive will arrive. He will not wait a long time.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 10:38ULT

³⁸ But my righteous one will live by faith, and if he would shrink back, my soul is not well-pleased with him.”

UST

³⁸ Further, those who serve me righteously will trust {in me} while they are alive. But suppose they stop {trusting in me}. Then, they will not please me.”

How will the righteous live?

The righteous will live by faith.

What does God think of those who shrink back?

God is not pleased with those who shrink back.

Hebrews 10:39ULT

³⁹ But we ourselves are not of shrinking back to destruction, but of faith to the preservation of the soul.
10:34 ^[1]

UST

³⁹ However, we are not those who stop {trusting in God}, whom he will destroy. Rather, we are those who trust {in God}, so he saves us.

What is the author's expectation for those who received this letter?

The author's expectation is that those who received this letter will have faith for keeping their souls.

Hebrews 11

Hebrews 11:1

ULT

¹ Now faith is assurance of things being hoped {for}, proof of things not being seen.

UST

¹ When people trust God, it makes them sure that they will receive what they confidently expect. {When people trust God,} it makes them certain about things that they do not see.

What attitude does a person of faith have toward God's promises that are yet to be fulfilled?

A person of faith confidently expects and has certainty toward God's promises that are yet to be fulfilled.

Hebrews 11:2

ULT

² For by this the ancients were commended.

UST

² In fact, because the Israelite ancestors trusted God, he approved of them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:3

ULT

³ By faith we understand the ages to have been prepared by the word of God—so that {what} is seen was not made from what is visible.

UST

³ Because we trust God, we recognize that, by speaking, God set up everything that exists. So then, the things we see did not come from other things we can see.

From what were the visible things of the universe created?

The visible things of the universe were not made out of things that were visible.

Hebrews 11:4ULT

⁴ By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he was testified to be righteous, God testifying because of his gifts, and through {faith}, having died, he still speaks.

UST

⁴ Because he trusted God, Adam's son Abel presented a more acceptable offering to God than did his older brother Cain. Because he trusted God, God approved of him for what he presented and declared that he did what was right. Although Abel died, we can still learn from how he trusted God.

Why did God praise Abel for being righteous?

God praised Abel because Abel by faith offered God a more appropriate sacrifice than Cain did.

Hebrews 11:5ULT

⁵ By faith Enoch was transferred, so that he did not see death, and "He was not found, because God transferred him." For before his transfer, he was reported to have been well-pleasing to God.

UST

⁵ Because Enoch trusted God, God took him {to heaven}, and so he never died. As {Moses wrote,} "No one could find him. That is because God took him {to heaven}." Now before God took {Enoch to heaven}, he declared that Enoch pleased him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:6ULT

⁶ Now without faith {it is} impossible to be well-pleasing, for it is necessary for the one coming to God to believe that he exists and is a rewarder of the ones seeking him.

UST

⁶ In fact, people can only please God when they trust him. {That is} because people who go closer to God have to believe that he is real and that he will reward people who want to serve and worship him.

What must one who comes to God believe about God?

One who comes to God must believe that God exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Hebrews 11:7ULT

⁷ By faith Noah, having been warned about the things not yet being seen, having become reverent, built an ark for salvation of his household, through which he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness {which is} according to faith.

UST

⁷ Because he trusted God, Noah honored God {by believing him} when God revealed to him what he could not yet experience. So, Noah built the ark to rescue his family {from the flood that God would send}. Since Noah trusted God {in this way}, he proved that everyone else was guilty. Further, Noah became a person whom God made right with himself because Noah trusted him.

How did Noah demonstrate his faith?

Noah demonstrated his faith by building an ark to save his family according to God's warning.

Hebrews 11:8ULT

⁸ By faith, Abraham, being called, obeyed to go out to a place that he was going to receive for an inheritance and went out, not fully knowing where he is going.

UST

⁸ Because he trusted God, Abraham did what God said when God spoke to him. He left {his home} to travel to a location that God would soon make to be his new home. When he left {his home}, he did not even know exactly where {this new home would be}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:9ULT

⁹ By faith he lived as a foreigner in the land of the promise, having lived in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the fellow heirs of the same promise,

UST

⁹ Because he trusted God, Abraham stayed in the country that God had promised {to give him}, but it was not yet his country. He lived with Isaac his son and Jacob his grandson in temporary shelters, {even though} God promised to all three of them {that he would give them this country}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:10ULT

¹⁰ for he was waiting for the city having foundations, whose architect and builder {is} God.

UST

¹⁰ {Abraham lived like that} because he was looking forward to {living in} the secure and permanent {heavenly} city that God created.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:11ULT

¹¹ By faith, even Sarah herself received ability for the conception of an offspring, even beyond the time of full age, since she considered {to be} faithful the one having promised. ^[1]

UST

¹¹ Because he believed, Abraham was able to have a son with {his wife} Sarah even though he was old enough that he could not normally have had a child. {That happened} because he reckoned that God would certainly do what he said.

What promise did Abraham and Sarah receive by faith?

Abraham and Sarah received by faith the power to conceive even when they were too old.

Hebrews 11:12ULT

¹² Therefore, also from one {man}—and he having become dead—these {children} were born, just as the stars of the sky in their great number and countless as the sand along the shore of the sea.

UST

¹² So then, even though he was very old, Abraham had many descendants, {the Israelites}. {Just as God promised,} there are as many {Israelites} as there are many stars in the sky and as there are many grains of sand on a beach by the ocean.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:13ULT

¹³ According to their faith all these died without receiving the promises, but seeing and greeting them from far off, and having confessed that they are strangers and foreigners on the earth.

UST

¹³ All those people trusted God until they died. {While they lived,} they did not experience what God had promised {to give them}, but they knew that God would soon do what he had promised. They showed everyone that they did not really belong in this world.

What did the ancestors of faith see from far off?

The ancestors of faith saw and welcomed God's promises from far off.

What did the ancestors of faith consider themselves on the earth?

The ancestors of faith considered themselves strangers and aliens on the earth.

Hebrews 11:14ULT

¹⁴ For those saying such things are making it clear that they seek a homeland.

UST

¹⁴ Indeed, all people who speak what they spoke {about not belonging in this world} show clearly that they desire {to live in} their own country.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:15ULT

¹⁵ And if indeed they had been thinking of that {land} from which they went out, they would have had opportunity to return.

UST

¹⁵ But suppose these {faithful people} considered the country they had left {to be their own country}. In that case, they could have gone back there{, but they did not}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:16ULT

¹⁶ But now they reach for a better {land}, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he prepared a city for them.

UST

¹⁶ But here is what is true {about them}: they longed for a greater country that is in heaven. Because of that, it honors God when other people describe him as the God of these people {who trusted him}. {You can tell that this is true,} because God has made a city for them {to live in}.

What has God prepared for those of faith?

God has prepared a heavenly city for those of faith.

Hebrews 11:17ULT

¹⁷ By faith Abraham, being tested, had offered Isaac; even the one having welcomed the promises offered up his one and only {son},

UST

¹⁷ Because he trusted God, when God tested him, Abraham would have presented {his son} Isaac {as an offering}. Indeed, the man to whom God promised {many descendants} was about to present {as an offering} the only child {he and his wife Sarah had}.

What did Abraham believe God would be able to do even as he offered up Isaac his only son? (vv17-19)

Abraham believed God would be able to raise up Isaac from the dead.

Hebrews 11:18ULT

¹⁸ to whom it was said, "Through Isaac your offspring will be named,"

UST

¹⁸ {In fact,} God {had already} said to Abraham, "The many descendants {that I promised to give you} will come from {your son} Isaac."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:19ULT

¹⁹ having reasoned that God is able to raise up even from the dead, and in a parable, he received him back from there.

UST

¹⁹ {Abraham acted in this way because} he reckoned that God could make dead people alive again. In fact, in a manner of speaking, Abraham did get Isaac back after he had died.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:20ULT

²⁰ By faith also, concerning coming things, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau.

UST

²⁰ Because he trusted God, Isaac blessed {his sons} Jacob and Esau, declaring what would happen {to each of them}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:21ULT

²¹ By faith Jacob, {when} dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph and worshiped on the end of his staff.

UST

²¹ Because he trusted God, when he was about to die, Jacob blessed both sons of {his son} Joseph. He praised God while he leaned on his walking stick.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:22ULT

²² By faith Joseph, coming to an end, mentioned about the exodus of the sons of Israel and commanded {them} about his bones.

UST

²² Because he trusted God, when he was about to die, Joseph spoke about how the Israelites would leave {the land of Egypt}. Also, he commanded {them to take} his bones {with them when they left}.

What did Joseph prophesy by faith when his end was near?

Joseph prophesied of the departure of the children of Israel from Egypt when his end was near.

Hebrews 11:23ULT

²³ By faith Moses, having been born, was hidden for three months by his parents because they saw that the little child {was} beautiful, and they were not afraid of the decree of the king.

UST

²³ Because they trusted God, Moses' father and mother kept Moses hidden for 13 weeks after he was born. They bravely disobeyed what the king {of Egypt} commanded {about killing the sons of the Israelites}. {They did that} because they could tell that Moses was a good child.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:24ULT

²⁴ By faith Moses, having become great, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter.

UST

²⁴ Because he trusted God, when he grew up, Moses rejected how he was living as the {adopted} son of one {of the daughters} of the king of Egypt.

What did Moses choose to do by faith when he had grown up? (vv24-26)

Moses chose by faith to share mistreatment with God's people, considering the disgrace of following Christ as greater riches.

Hebrews 11:25ULT

²⁵ Rather, he chose to suffer evil together with the people of God than to have the temporary enjoyment of sin.

UST

²⁵ He decided to experience how people mistreated God's people rather than to enjoy sinning for a little while.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:26ULT

²⁶ He considered the reproach of the Christ greater riches {than} the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking away toward his reward.

UST

²⁶ He reckoned that people insulting him because of the Messiah was more valuable than all the valuable things in {the land of} Egypt. {He thought in this way,} because he focused on how God would reward him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:27ULT

²⁷ By faith he left Egypt behind, not having feared the wrath of the king, for he endured as if he were seeing the unseen one.

UST

²⁷ Because he trusted God, Moses departed from {the land of} Egypt. He was not afraid of {what} the king {would do} while he was angry. {He acted in that way,} because he continued {to trust God as completely} as if he could see God, who is invisible.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:28ULT

²⁸ By faith he has performed the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that the destroyer {of} the firstborn would not touch them.

UST

²⁸ Because he trusted God, Moses led the Israelites in celebrating the {first} Passover festival and spreading blood {from lambs on their doors}. {They did that} so that the spiritual being who killed the eldest children {of the Egyptians} would not kill their {eldest children}.

What did Moses observe by faith in order to save the Israelites' firstborn sons?

Moses observed the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood by faith in order to save the Israelites' firstborn sons.

Hebrews 11:29ULT

²⁹ By faith they passed through the Red Sea as if through dry land, which the Egyptians, having taken an attempt, were swallowed up.

UST

²⁹ Because they trusted God, the Israelites walked across the Sea of Reeds like {they were walking on} hard ground {when God made a path for them}. Then, when the Egyptians tried to follow, they drowned in the water {when God covered the path}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:30ULT

³⁰ By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, having been encircled for seven days.

UST

³⁰ Because the Israelites trusted God, he broke down the walls {around the city} of Jericho after the Israelites {repeatedly} marched around the city during one week.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:31ULT

³¹ By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish together with the ones having disobeyed, having welcomed the spies with peace.

UST

³¹ Because she trusted God, Rahab, who was a prostitute, kept the spies {whom Joshua had sent} safe. {Because she did that,} the Israelites did not kill her when they killed {everyone else who lived in Jericho}, everyone who did not obey {God}.

What did Rahab do by faith which prevented her from perishing?

Rahab by faith received the spies in safety, which prevented her from perishing.

Hebrews 11:32ULT

³² And what more might I say? For the time will fail me, fully relating about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, and also Samuel and the prophets,

UST

³² I cannot now say any more about this. Indeed, I do not have the time to tell you about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the {other} prophets.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:33ULT

³³ who through faith conquered kingdoms, worked justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions,

UST

³³ Because such people trusted God, some of them defeated foreign armies. Others ruled justly. Others received what God had promised. Others kept lions from eating them.

What did some of the ancestors of faith accomplish in war? (vv33-34)

Some of the ancestors of faith conquered kingdoms, escaped the sword, became mighty in war, and caused foreign armies to flee.

Hebrews 11:34ULT

³⁴ extinguished the power of fire, escaped the mouth of the sword, were empowered out of weakness, became strong in battle, {and} routed foreign armies.

UST

³⁴ Others stopped fire from burning them. Others survived when someone violently attacked them. Others became powerful when they were weak. Others fought their enemies powerfully. Others completely defeated soldiers from other countries.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:35ULT

³⁵ Women received back their dead by resurrection, but others were tortured, not accepting their release, so that they might obtain a better resurrection;

UST

³⁵ Some women experienced how God made their {family members} who had died to become alive again. However, other people experienced how others intentionally hurt them {to make them disobey God}. They kept obeying God despite that. That way, God would make them alive again so that they could never die.

What did some of the ancestors of faith suffer? (vv35-38)

Some of the ancestors of faith suffered torture, mocking, whippings, chains, imprisonments, stoning, sawing in two, death, and destitution.

Hebrews 11:36ULT

³⁶ and others received a trial of mockings and of whippings, and even more of chains and of imprisonment.

UST

³⁶ Further, other people suffered when others made fun of them or struck their backs with ropes. Sometimes, rulers even arrested them and put them in jail.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:37ULT

³⁷ They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were tried, they died with slaughter of a sword, they went about in sheepskins {and} in goatskins, destitute, oppressed, mistreated; ^[2]

UST

³⁷ People killed these {faithful people} by throwing rocks at them or by cutting them in half. People tempted them {to disobey God}. People killed them with swords. These {faithful people} wandered around wearing only animal skins. They had nothing, and people persecuted them and treated them badly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:38ULT

³⁸ (of which {people} the world was not worthy), being caused to wander about in deserts and mountains and caves and the holes in the ground.

UST

³⁸ {People treated them like that even though} they did not deserve to live in the same place with those who trusted God. {Despite that,} these faithful people had to live in wilderness places, on hills, and in caves in the earth.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 11:39ULT

³⁹ And all these {people}, having been commended because of their faith, did not receive the promise,

UST

³⁹ Although God approved of all these people because they trusted him, he did not {yet} give them what he had promised {to give them}.

Despite the faith of these ancestors, what did they not receive in their earthly lives?

Despite the faith of these ancestors, they did not receive in their earthly lives what God had promised them.

Hebrews 11:40ULT

⁴⁰ God having provided something better concerning us, so that without us, they would not be made perfect.

11:11 ^[1]

11:37 ^[2]

UST

⁴⁰ Rather, God prepared ahead of time to give us something greater {than what those people received while they lived}. That way, only when we and they are all together will we all be what God wants us to be.

With whom will the ancestors of faith receive the promises of God and be perfected?

The ancestors of faith will receive the promises of God and be perfected with the new covenant believers in Christ.

Hebrews 12

Hebrews 12:1

ULT

¹ For that very reason, we also, having so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, having laid aside every weight and the easily entangling sin, let us run with endurance the race that is placed before us,

UST

¹ So then, because all those people who trusted God are watching us, we need to persevere in trusting God too. To do that, we need to stop sinning and avoid anything else that could hinder us.

Why should the believer throw off the sin that easily entangles him?

The believer should throw off the sin that easily entangles him in order to run with endurance the race placed before him.

Hebrews 12:2

ULT

² looking away to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of the faith, who, for the joy that is placed before him, endured a cross, despising {its} shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

UST

² We need to focus on Jesus, the one who enables us to trust God at first and then to do so until we die. He himself persevered when he died on the cross, and he did not care that he died shamefully. {He acted in those ways} because he knew that God would make him joyful afterward. Now, he is with God {the Father}, where he sits on the throne and rules.

Why did Jesus endure the cross and despise its shame?

Jesus endured the cross and despised its shame for the joy that was set before him.

Hebrews 12:3ULT

³ For consider the one that has endured such opposition by sinners against themselves ^[1], so that you might not become weary in your souls, giving up.

UST

³ You need to think about Jesus, who persevered when sinners quarreled with him, {although} they {only} hurt themselves. That way, you can be strong on the inside and persevere.

How can a believer avoid becoming weary or fainthearted?

By considering Jesus, who endured hateful speech from sinners, a believer can avoid becoming weary or fainthearted.

Hebrews 12:4ULT

⁴ You have not yet resisted to the point of blood, struggling against sin,

UST

⁴ So far, you have not died while you oppose {what is evil} and work hard not to sin.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:5ULT

⁵ and you have completely forgotten the exhortation that instructs you as sons: "My son, do not make light of the discipline of the Lord, nor become weary {when} being reprovved by him;

UST

⁵ Further, you have failed to remember what {Solomon} encouraged his children to do, which also applies to you. {Here is what Solomon wrote}: "My child, learn carefully when the Lord trains you. Indeed, persevere when he corrects you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:6ULT

⁶ For whom the Lord loves, he disciplines, and he whips every son whom he welcomes.”

UST

⁶ {You should do that,} because the Lord {God} trains everyone he loves. Indeed, he severely corrects every child he calls his own.”

What does the Lord do to those whom he loves and receives?

The Lord disciplines those whom he loves and receives.

Hebrews 12:7ULT

⁷ Endure for discipline; God is treating you as sons. For what son {is there} whom his father does not discipline?

UST

⁷ You need to persevere so that God can train you. God acts in these ways toward you because you are his children. {You can tell that this is true,} because parents always train their own children.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:8ULT

⁸ But if you are without discipline, of which all {men} have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not his sons.

UST

⁸ Suppose God did not train you, even though he trained everybody else. In that case, you would not actually be {God's} children.

What is a person who is without the Lord's discipline?

A person without the Lord's discipline is an illegitimate child and not God's child.

Hebrews 12:9ULT

⁹ Furthermore, on the one hand, we had the fathers of our flesh {as} discipliners and we were respectful {of them}; on the other hand, will we not much more be subjected to the Father of the spirits and live?

UST

⁹ Moreover, our human parents trained us when we were children, and we respected them. So, we should accept it even more when our spiritual Father {, God, trains us}. That way, we will live {forever}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:10ULT

¹⁰ For indeed, they were disciplining {us} for a few days according to {what} seems {best} to them, but he, to benefit {us}, so that we might share his holiness.

UST

¹⁰ Further, our human parents trained us for a short time in the ways that they thought were right. However, God our Father {trains us} in the ways that are best {for us}. That way, we become those whom he has set apart, just as he sets himself apart.

Why does God discipline his children?

God disciplines his children for their good, so they can share in his holiness.

Hebrews 12:11ULT

¹¹ Now every discipline does not seem to be joy at the present, but pain, but afterward it produces the peaceful fruit of righteousness for the ones having been trained by it.

UST

¹¹ Whenever God trains us, we hurt rather than rejoice while it is happening. However, once we learn from how God is training us, we are able peacefully to do what is right.

What does discipline produce?

Discipline produces peaceful fruit of righteousness.

Hebrews 12:12ULT

¹² Therefore, make straight the drooping hands and the knees that have been paralyzed,

UST

¹² Because of all that, you need to prepare yourselves to persevere in trusting God, just like runners prepare their tired bodies to continue running.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:13ULT

¹³ and make straight paths for your feet, so that the lame might not be dislocated, but rather might be healed.

UST

¹³ You need to focus on trusting and obeying God, just like a runner focuses on running the straightest path. That way, anyone who is spiritually weak will not stop trusting God but will instead trust him more.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:14ULT

¹⁴ Pursue peace with all {men}, and the sanctification without which no one will see the Lord,

UST

¹⁴ You should seek to live peacefully with everybody. Also, {you should seek} to set yourselves apart for God. Only if you do that will you eventually be with the Lord.

What should believers pursue with all people?

Believers should pursue peace with all people.

Hebrews 12:15ULT

¹⁵ carefully watching that no one is falling short from the grace of God, not any root of bitterness is growing up to cause trouble, and by this many might become defiled,

UST

¹⁵ Make sure that your fellow believers fully receive what God has given you. {Be alert for} anyone who begins to behave resentfully and disturbs {fellow believers}. That may lead many {other believers} to behave that way as well.

What must not grow up and cause trouble and pollute many?

A root of bitterness must not grow up and cause trouble and pollute many.

Hebrews 12:16ULT

¹⁶ not any sexually immoral or profane one such as Esau, who in exchange for one meal sold his own birthright.

UST

¹⁶ {Be alert for} people who have improper sex or do not set themselves apart for God. {These people are} like Esau, who allowed {his younger brother Jacob} to act as the firstborn child in order to get some food {from him}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:17ULT

¹⁷ For you know that even afterwards, desiring to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, because he found no place {for} repentance, even though he sought it with tears.

UST

¹⁷ {You should avoid being like Esau,} because you realize what happened to him later. He wanted his father to bless him, but his father refused to do so. As you can see, Esau could not change what he had done, even when he cried while he tried {to change it}.

What happened to Esau when he desired to inherit the blessing with tears after selling his own birthright?

Esau was rejected when he desired to inherit the blessing with tears after selling his own birthright.

Hebrews 12:18ULT

¹⁸ For you have not come to {what} can be touched and to a blazing fire and to darkness and to gloom and to a storm

UST

¹⁸ We have not gone closer to {what the Israelites went closer to when they arrived at Mount Sinai}. {They went closer to a mountain} that they could feel {with their hands}. They saw flames burning, dark clouds, shadows, and a thunderstorm.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:19ULT

¹⁹ and to a sound of a trumpet and to a voice of words of which the ones having heard begged for not a word to be added to them.

UST

¹⁹ They heard someone playing a trumpet and God speaking a message. When they heard God speaking, they pleaded for him not to say any more to them.

For what did the Israelites beg at the mountain where God spoke?

The Israelites begged that not another word be spoken to them.

Hebrews 12:20ULT

²⁰ For they could not endure {what} was ordered: "If even an animal might touch the mountain, it must be stoned."

UST

²⁰ {They did that,} because they were afraid when God commanded them, "You must kill all people and animals that touch this mountain. {You must kill them} by throwing rocks at them."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:21ULT

²¹ And the thing being made visible was so fearful that Moses said, "I am terrified and trembling."

UST

²¹ Further, when Moses saw how frightening everything was, he said, "I am shaking because I am afraid!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:22ULT

²² But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, to the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels, to the assembly

UST

²² In contrast to that, you have gone closer to a heavenly place, Mount Zion. {On this mountain is} the city Jerusalem in heaven that belongs to the only real God. {In the city are} very many spiritual beings who celebrate together.

To where do believers in Christ come instead of the mountain where the Israelites heard the voice of God?

Believers in Christ come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God.

Hebrews 12:23ULT

²³ and to the church of the firstborn ones, {who} have been registered in the heavens, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous ones made perfect,

UST

²³ Also {in the city are} those whose {names} God has recorded in heaven. {They are} God's people, his special children. {There} also {is} God, the one who decides whether all {people} are guilty or innocent. {There} too {are} those who obeyed God. They died, but God has now made them what he wants them to be.

To what assembly do believers in Christ come?

Believers in Christ come to the assembly of all the firstborn registered in heaven.

To whom do believers in Christ come? (vv23-24)

Believer in Christ come to God, the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous, and to Jesus.

Hebrews 12:24ULT

²⁴ and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood speaking better than Abel.

UST

²⁴ Also {in the city is} Jesus, through whom God has made a new agreement. {There} also {is} Jesus' blood, which purifies us. His blood is more effective than Abel's blood.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:25ULT

²⁵ See that you do not refuse the one speaking. For if those did not escape, having refused the one warning {them} on earth, much less we {who} are turning away from the one from heaven,

UST

²⁵ Make sure that you obey God, who is speaking to you. Consider how some of the Israelites did not obey what God revealed to them from Mount Sinai. God certainly punished them. Now consider how much more {God will punish any of} us who do not obey what he {reveals to us} from Mount Zion.

What will happen to those who turn away from the one who warns them from heaven?

Those who turn away will not escape from God.

Hebrews 12:26ULT

²⁶ the voice of whom at that time shook the earth, but now he has promised, saying, "Still once I myself will shake not only the earth, but also the heaven."

UST

²⁶ When God spoke from Mount Sinai, it made the earth quake. However, at this time he promises, "One more time, I will make the earth and also heaven quake."

What has God promised to shake?

God has promised to shake the earth and the heaven.

Hebrews 12:27ULT

²⁷ But this {phrase}, "Still once" indicates the removal of the things being shaken, that is, of {the things} created, so that the things not being shaken might remain.

UST

²⁷ The words "one more time" mean that God will transform everything that he shakes. {He will do that} just as he created all those things. That way, everything that he does not shake will last forever.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 12:28ULT

²⁸ Therefore, receiving an unshakeable kingdom, let us have gratitude, through which let us serve well-pleasingly to God, with reverence and awe,

UST

²⁸ So, we will live in a kingdom that God will not quake. {Because of that,} we should thank God. By doing that, we respectfully worship God in a way that pleases him.

What will the believers receive instead of the things that can be shaken?

The believers will receive a kingdom that cannot be shaken.

How should believers worship God?

Believers should worship God with reverence and awe.

Hebrews 12:29ULT

²⁹ for indeed our God {is} a consuming fire.

12:3 ^[1]

UST

²⁹ {We should do so respectfully,} because the God we {worship} is {as powerful and dangerous as} a raging fire.

Why should believers worship God in this way?

Believers should worship God in this way because he is a consuming fire.

Hebrews 13

Hebrews 13:1

¹ Let brotherly love continue.

¹ Persist in loving your fellow believers.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 13:2

ULT

² Do not neglect hospitality, for through this, some have shown hospitality to angels without knowing {it}.

UST

² Make sure that you are welcoming other people. {You should do that} because some people who welcomed others actually welcomed spiritual beings, although they did not know {that they were spiritual beings}.

What have some done by welcoming strangers?

Some have welcomed angels without knowing it.

Hebrews 13:3

ULT

³ Remember the prisoners, as having been bound with {them}, {and} the ones being mistreated, as yourselves also being in body.

UST

³ Be sure to help those who are in jail. {You should help them} as {you would want others to help you} were you in jail with them. {Also, do not forget to help} those whom others treat badly. {You should do that} because you too are humans {who can suffer}.

How should believers remember those in prison?

Believers should remember them as if they were in prison also, and as if their bodies were being mistreated also.

Hebrews 13:4ULT

⁴ Marriage {must be} honorable among all, and the marriage bed pure, for God will judge sexually immoral {people} and adulterers.

UST

⁴ All of you should greatly value how God joins people together when they marry. Further, people who marry should have sex only with their spouses. {You should do those things} because God will declare guilty anyone who has sex with a married person or who has improper sex in any way.

What must be respected by all?

Marriage must be respected by all.

What does God do with the sexually immoral and adulterers?

God judges the sexually immoral and adulterers.

Hebrews 13:5ULT

⁵ Your manner of life {must be} free from the love of money, being content {with} the things being present, for he himself has said, "I will never leave you, nor never will I forsake you,"

UST

⁵ You should always avoid desiring money. {You can do that} by being happy with whatever you have. {You should behave in this way,} because God has spoken {these words to each of you}: "I will definitely not abandon you. Yes, I will always be with you."

How can a believer be free from the love of money?

A believer can be free from the love of money because God has said he will never leave nor forsake him.

Hebrews 13:6ULT

⁶ so that, being confident, we say, "The Lord {is} my helper, and I will not become afraid. What will a man do to me?"

UST

⁶ Because {God says that,} we boldly speak {these words}: "The Lord {God} is the one who supports me. Because of that, I do not fear anyone. No one can do anything to {hurt} me."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 13:7ULT

⁷ Remember your leaders, who spoke the Word of God to you, of whom considering the outcome of their conduct, imitate their faith.

UST

⁷ Pay attention to the people who were in charge of your group. I mean the ones who told you about {what} God {has done}. Examine {the good things} that happened because of how they lived. You should imitate how they trusted God.

Who's faith should believers imitate?

Believers should imitate the faith of those who have led them and who have spoken God's Word to them.

Hebrews 13:8ULT

⁸ Jesus Christ {is} the same yesterday and today and forever.

UST

⁸ Jesus the Messiah has never changed and will never change.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 13:9ULT

⁹ Do not be carried away by various and strange teachings. For {it is} good {for} the heart to be confirmed by grace, not by foods with which the ones walking {in them} were not benefitted.

UST

⁹ Do not let other people mislead you by teaching you many kinds of things that do not fit {with the good news}. {You should reject what they teach,} because only what God gives us rightly makes us strong. The food {that we eat} cannot {do that}. In fact, people who act as if {food could do that} gain nothing.

About what kind of strange teachings does the author warn the believers?

The author warns the believers about strange teachings involving rules about food.

Hebrews 13:10ULT

¹⁰ We have an altar from which the ones serving in the tabernacle have no authority to eat.

UST

¹⁰ We benefit from {Jesus'} offering, {which is greater than the offerings that} the priests presented in the sacred tent. {In fact, those priests} would be unable to participate in Jesus' offering.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 13:11ULT

¹¹ For the blood of which animals is brought on behalf of sin by the high priest into the holy {places}, {but} the bodies of these {animals} are burned up outside the camp.

UST

¹¹ In the Most Holy Place, the ruling priest would present blood from animals {that he had killed}. {He did that} to take away sins. Someone {then} would completely burn the remains of these animals away from where the Israelites were staying.

Where were the bodies of the animals used for sacrifice in the holy place burned?

The bodies of the animals were burned outside the camp.

Hebrews 13:12ULT

¹² So Jesus also suffered outside the gate, so that he might sanctify the people through his own blood.

UST

¹² Therefore, Jesus too died away from where people lived {in the city of Jerusalem}. {He did that} to set {God's} people apart for himself by offering his own blood.

Where did Jesus suffer?

Jesus suffered outside the city gate.

Hebrews 13:13ULT

¹³ Let us therefore go to him outside the camp, bearing his reproach.

UST

¹³ So then, we should abandon everything that could separate us from the Messiah. {As we do that,} we should accept it when people insult us like they insulted him.

Where must believers go, and why?

Believers must go to Jesus outside the camp, bearing his disgrace.

Hebrews 13:14ULT

¹⁴ For we do not have a lasting city here, but we are seeking the one coming.

UST

¹⁴ {We should do that} because, here {on earth}, we do not live in any city that will last forever. Rather, we desire {to live in} the city that God will soon give us.

What permanent city do believers have here on earth?

Believers have no permanent city here on earth.

What city do believers seek instead?

Believers seek the city that is to come.

Hebrews 13:15ULT

¹⁵ Through him, let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips acknowledging his name.

UST

¹⁵ With Jesus helping us, we should frequently praise God, as if we were presenting offerings to him. We do that when we say that we believe in Jesus.

What sacrifice should believers constantly offer up to God?

Believers should constantly offer up a sacrifice of praise to God.

Hebrews 13:16ULT

¹⁶ But let us not neglect the doing of good and sharing, for God is well-pleased with such sacrifices.

UST

¹⁶ Further, we need to make sure that we help others by giving some of what we have to them. Doing that is like presenting offerings that please God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 13:17ULT

¹⁷ Obey your leaders and submit {to them}, for they keep watch over your souls, as ones {who} will give account, in order that they might do this with joy and not {with} groaning, for this {would be} unprofitable to you.

UST

¹⁷ Those who are in charge of your group {know that} God considers them responsible for you, and so they always focus on taking care of you. Because of that, you should respectfully do what they require. That way, they can {lead your group} joyfully instead of sadly. Indeed, {if they led sadly,} that would not help you at all.

What attitude should believers have toward their leaders?

Believers should obey and submit to their leaders.

Hebrews 13:18ULT

¹⁸ Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves honorably in all things.

UST

¹⁸ Please ask God to help me and those with me. {I ask that} because we are sure that we are not guilty. Indeed, we always want to behave properly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 13:19ULT

¹⁹ But I encourage {you} even more to do this, so that I will be restored to you soon.

UST

¹⁹ I urge you still more to ask God to send me back to you quickly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 13:20ULT

²⁰ Now the God of peace, the one having brought up from the dead ones the great shepherd of the sheep, our Lord Jesus, by the blood of the eternal covenant,

UST

²⁰ God is the one who makes his people peaceful. He made our Lord Jesus alive again after he had died. Jesus is like a powerful shepherd who leads us, his sheep. {God made him alive again} because Jesus used his own blood to make {the new} covenant that will last forever.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 13:21ULT

²¹ may he prepare you in every thing good to do his will, working in us {what} {is} well-pleasing before him, through Jesus Christ, to whom {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

UST

²¹ We pray that God will provide you with all {his} good {gifts}. That way, you can do what he wants you to do. In fact, he works through Jesus the Messiah to enable us to do what pleases him. So, let us honor God forever! May it be so!

What does God work in the believer?

God works in the believer that which is well pleasing in God's sight.

Hebrews 13:22ULT

²² Now I encourage you, brothers, bear with the word of exhortation, for only through a few {words} I have written to you.

UST

²² I have sent you a short letter. So, I ask you, fellow believers, to please consider carefully what I have said to encourage you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 13:23ULT

²³ Know that our brother Timothy has been set free, with whom I will see you if he comes soon.

UST

²³ I want you to be aware that {the authorities} have released Timothy, our fellow believer. If he arrives here quickly, we will visit you together.

With whom will the author come when he visits the believers?

The author will come with Timothy when he visits the believers.

Hebrews 13:24ULT

²⁴ Greet all your leaders and all the saints. The ones from Italy greet you.

UST

²⁴ Say hello to everyone who is in charge of your group. Also, {say hello to} all God's people. The {believers} who are from the country of Italy say hello to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Hebrews 13:25ULT

²⁵ Grace {be} with all of you. ^[1]

13:25 ^[1]

UST

²⁵ {I pray that God will} be gracious to you all.

James

James 1

James 1:1

ULT

¹ James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes {that are} in the dispersion: Rejoice!

UST

¹ I, James, serve God and the Lord Jesus the Messiah. I am writing this letter to you who believe in Jesus and are living in various parts of the Roman Empire. I greet you all.

To whom did James write this letter?

James wrote this letter to the twelve tribes that were scattered.

James 1:2

ULT

² Consider {it} all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various trials,

UST

² My fellow believers, consider it something to rejoice over greatly when you experience various kinds of hardships.

When experiencing troubles, what attitude does James say his readers should have?

James says to consider it all joy when experiencing troubles.

James 1:3

ULT

³ knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance.

UST

³ Understand that as you trust God in hardships, this helps you to become a stronger person.

What does the testing of our faith produce?

The testing of our faith produces endurance.

James 1:4ULT

⁴ But let the endurance have a perfect work, so that you may be perfect and whole, lacking in nothing.

UST

⁴ Endure hardships to their very end, so that you may follow the Messiah in every way. Then you will not fail to do well.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 1:5ULT

⁵ Now if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, the one giving to all generously and not reproaching, and it will be given to him.

UST

⁵ If anyone of you needs to know what to do, let him ask God, and God will tell him. God gives generously to everyone. God does not scold people {who ask for things}.

For what should we ask from God if we need it?

We should ask God for wisdom if we need it.

James 1:6ULT

⁶ But let him ask in faith, doubting nothing, for the one doubting has become like a wave of the sea, wind-blown and tossed.

UST

⁶ But when you pray to God, you must trust him to answer you. Do not doubt that he will answer and help you. People who doubt God first decide to do one thing, but then they want to do something else. They never settle on a single course of action.

What is a doubter like?

Someone who doubts is like a wave in the sea that is tossed around by the wind.

James 1:7ULT

⁷ For let that man not think that he will receive anything from the Lord,

UST

⁷ Indeed, people who doubt should not think that God the Lord will give them what they ask for {so uncertainly}.

What should someone who asks with doubting expect to receive? (vv7-8)

Someone who asks with doubting should not expect to receive anything from the Lord.

James 1:8ULT

⁸ a double-minded man, unsettled in all his ways.

UST

⁸ People like this can never decide what to do. They make a plan, but then they do not follow it.

¹⁰ but the rich in his lowliness, because he will pass away like a flower of the grass.

UST

¹⁰ But believers who have a lot of money should be glad that God has humbled them {by showing them that their wealth does not make them better than other people}. After all, like wildflowers {that bloom for only a short time and then wither}, rich believers will die {like anyone else}.

Why should the rich be humble?

The rich should be humble because he will pass away just like the flowers.

James 1:11ULT

¹¹ For the sun rose with the heat and dried up the grass, and its flower fell off and the beauty of its face perished. Thus also the rich will wither in his journeys.

UST

¹¹ A wildflower only lasts a short time because when the sun rises, its scorching heat dries out the plants so that their flowers fall off. They are no longer beautiful. Like the flower that dies, rich people will die while they are trying to make money.

To what can the rich be compared?

The rich can be compared to the flower of the grass that dries up, falls off, and perishes.

James 1:12ULT

¹² Blessed {is} a man who endures trial. For, becoming approved, he will receive the crown of life, which he promised to the ones loving him.

UST

¹² God honors those who remain faithful to him in difficult circumstances. Indeed, God will reward them by having them live forever. That is what God has promised to do for all who love him.

Those who pass the test of faith will receive what?

Those who pass the test of faith will receive the crown of life.

James 1:13ULT

¹³ Let no one being tempted say, "I am tempted by God," because God is untempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one.

UST

¹³ When we are tempted to sin, we must not think it is God who is tempting us. No, no one can persuade God to do evil, and God never tries to persuade anyone to do evil.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 1:14ULT

¹⁴ But each one is tempted by his own desire, dragged away and enticed.

UST

¹⁴ But people want to do evil because of their own desires. When they do, it is just as if they had fallen into a trap.

What causes a person to be tempted by evil?

A person's own evil desires cause him to be tempted by evil.

James 1:15ULT

¹⁵ Then the desire, having conceived, bears sin, and the sin, having grown up, gives birth to death.

UST

¹⁵ Then, because they have desired to do evil things, they begin to do them, and eventually they do them habitually. {If they do not turn away from their sinful behavior,} they will be separated from God forever.

What is the result of full-grown sin?

The result of full-grown sin is death.

James 1:16ULT

¹⁶ Do not be led astray, my beloved brothers.

UST

¹⁶ My fellow believers whom I love, stop deceiving yourselves.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 1:17ULT

¹⁷ Every good present and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change or shadow of turning.

UST

¹⁷ Every truly good and perfect gift comes from God the Father, who is in heaven. He created the sun, moon, and stars. But God does not change the way shadows change, appearing and disappearing. God never changes. He is always good!

What comes down from the Father of lights?

Every good gift and every perfect gift comes down from the Father of lights.

James 1:18ULT

¹⁸ Having willed, he gave birth to us by the word of truth, for us to be something like a firstfruits of his creatures.

UST

¹⁸ God became our spiritual father when we trusted in his true message. That was what he wanted to do. So now believers in Jesus have become the first people to experience the kind of relationship with God that many more people will have in the future.

By what means did God choose to give us life?

God chose to give us life by the word of truth.

James 1:19ULT

¹⁹ Know, my beloved brothers: But let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger.

UST

¹⁹ My fellow believers whom I love, I want you to know that every one of you should listen patiently {to what others have to say}. You should speak {your own thoughts} carefully. You should control your anger,

What does James tell us to do about our hearing, speaking, and emotions?

James tells us to be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger.

James 1:20ULT

²⁰ For anger of man does not work the righteousness of God.

UST

²⁰ because when we get angry, we cannot do the good things that God wants us to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 1:21ULT

²¹ Therefore, having laid aside all filth and abundance of wickedness, in humility receive the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

UST

²¹ So stop doing all kinds of evil. Without resisting proudly, do what God has told you to do. God will help you to remember and understand it. This will show that you belong to God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 1:22ULT

²² But be doers of the word and not only hearers, deluding yourselves.

UST

²² It is important to what God commands, do not just listen to it. People who only listen to it and do not obey it are fooling themselves {into thinking that this will save them}.

How does James say that we can deceive ourselves?

James says that we can deceive ourselves by hearing the word and not doing it.

James 1:23ULT

²³ For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man beholding the face of his birth in a mirror.

UST

²³ Now some people hear God's message, but they do not do what it says. Those people are like someone who looks at his face in a mirror.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 1:24ULT

²⁴ For he beheld himself and went away and immediately forgot of what sort he was.

UST

²⁴ Although he looks at himself, he goes away {from the mirror} and immediately forgets what he looks like.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 1:25ULT

²⁵ But the one having gazed into the perfect law of freedom and having continued, not having become a hearer of forgetfulness, but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in his doing.

UST

²⁵ But other people consider God's message carefully. It is perfect and it enables people to do voluntarily {what God wants them to do}. If these people remember what they have heard and continue to do what God tells them to do, then God will bless them because of what they do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 1:26ULT

²⁶ If anyone thinks to be religious, not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his heart, the religion of that one {is} worthless.

UST

²⁶ Some people think that they worship God properly, but they say bad things. Those people are wrong in what they are thinking. God is not impressed with our worship activities if we continually say bad things.

What must be controlled in order for us to be truly religious?

The tongue must be controlled in order for us to be truly religious.

James 1:27

ULT

²⁷ Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to look upon orphans and widows in their distress, to keep oneself unstained by the world.

UST

²⁷ {One of the things that God has told us to do is} to take care of orphans and widows who suffer hardship. People who do that truly worship God, who is our Father. People are also truly worshipping God if they do not think or act immorally like others who do not obey God. God approves of people who do these things.

What is pure and undefiled religion before God?

Pure and undefiled religion before God is to visit the fatherless and widows, and to protect ourselves from the world's corruption.

James 2

James 2:1

ULT

¹ My brothers, do not with favoritism have the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory.

UST

¹ My fellow believers, do not honor some people more than others and at the same time trust in our great Lord Jesus the Messiah.

What attitude should believers not have?

They should not have an attitude of favoritism.

James 2:2

ULT

² For if a gold-ringed man in splendid clothing comes into your synagogue, and a poor one in filthy clothing also comes in,

UST

² For example, suppose that a person who wears gold rings and fine clothes joins you for worship. And suppose that a poor person who wears shabby clothes joins you as well.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 2:3

ULT

³ and you look at the one wearing the splendid clothing and say, "You sit here well," and to the poor one you say, "You stand there," or, "Sit by my footstool,"

UST

³ And suppose that you show special attention to the one dressed in fine clothes. You tell him, "Please sit here in this nice seat!" But you tell the poor one {to go to a less honorable place, saying}, "You stand over there," or, "Sit on the floor!"

What are believers telling a rich man who enters their meeting?

They are telling him to come up front into the best location.

What are believers telling a poor man who enters their meeting?

They are telling him to stand far away or in a poor location.

James 2:4ULT

⁴ have you not distinguished among yourselves and become judges of evil thoughts?

UST

⁴ This would show that you thought rich people were better than poor people. It would show that you were making your judgments {about how to treat people} based on evil thinking.

What have the believers become because of their favoritism?

They have become judges of evil thoughts.

James 2:5ULT

⁵ Listen, my beloved brothers, did not God choose the poor in the world {to be} rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to the ones loving him?

UST

⁵ Listen to me, my fellow believers whom I love. God has chosen poor people who seem to own nothing of value to trust in him very much. He will give them great things when he reigns everywhere. This is what he has promised to do for everyone who loves him.

What does James say about God's choice of the poor?

James says that God chose the poor to be rich in faith and to inherit the kingdom.

James 2:6ULT

⁶ But you dishonored the poor! Do not the rich overpower you and themselves drag you into court?

UST

⁶ But you have treated poor people disrespectfully! Think about it! It is the rich people, not the poor people, who are causing you to suffer! It is the rich people who forcibly take you to court {to accuse you in front of judges}!

What does James say the rich have been doing? (vv6-7)

James says the rich have been oppressing the brothers and blaspheming God's name.

James 2:7ULT

⁷ Do they not blaspheme the good name that has been called upon you?

UST

⁷ And they are the ones who insult you because you are Christians!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 2:8ULT

⁸ If, however, you fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You will love your neighbor as yourself," you do well.

UST

⁸ {So you should not treat rich people better than poor people.} Instead, you should obey the commandment that Jesus said was so important. It is from the law of Moses: "Love your neighbor as you love yourself." If you show love to everyone equally, you will be doing what is right.

What is the royal law of the scriptures?

The royal law is, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself".

James 2:9ULT

⁹ But if you favor, you are committing sin, convicted by the law as transgressors.

UST

⁹ But if you honor some people more than others, you are doing wrong. And {because you are not doing what God has commanded,} God will say that you have broken his law.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 2:10ULT

¹⁰ For whoever might keep the whole law but stumble in one thing has become guilty of all.

UST

¹⁰ {God will say this} because if you break one of God's laws, even if you obey all the other ones, it is just as if you had broken all the laws.

Whoever breaks one point of God's law is guilty of what?

Whoever breaks one point of God's law is guilty of breaking all the law.

James 2:11ULT

¹¹ For the one having said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." If, then, you do not commit adultery but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.

UST

¹¹ For example, God said, "Do not commit adultery," but he also said, "Do not murder anyone." So if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder someone, then you have become a person who disobeys God's laws.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 2:12ULT

¹² Thus speak and thus act, as ones who are going to be judged by means of the law of freedom.

UST

¹² {Always} speak and act towards others knowing that God will judge you based on the commandment he gave us {to love others}. When we follow that commandment, we obey God freely.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 2:13ULT

¹³ For the judgment {is} merciless to the ones not having done mercy. Mercy boasts against judgment.

UST

¹³ You should speak and act in this way because when God judges us, he will not act mercifully toward those who have not acted mercifully toward others. But if we are merciful to others, then we can expect that God will be merciful to us when he judges us.

What comes to those who have not shown mercy?

Judgment without mercy comes to those who have not shown mercy.

James 2:14ULT

¹⁴ What {would be} the profit, my brothers, if someone would say he has faith, but he does not have works? That faith is not able to save him, is it?

UST

¹⁴ My fellow believers, some people say, "I believe in the Lord Jesus the Messiah," but they do not do loving things. What they say will do them no good. If they only believe with words, God will certainly not save them.

What does James say about those who claim to have faith, but do not help those in need?

James says that those who claim to have faith but do not help those in need have a faith that cannot save them.

James 2:15ULT

¹⁵ If a brother or sister were unclothed and lacking their daily food,

UST

¹⁵ {To illustrate,} suppose that a fellow believer, whether a man or a woman, is continually lacking clothes and food for each day.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 2:16ULT

¹⁶ and someone of you said to them, "Go in peace, warm yourself and be satisfied," but you did not give them the necessary things of the body, what {would be} the profit?

UST

¹⁶ And suppose one of you says to them, "Do not worry, get warm, and have the food you need." But suppose that you then do not give them any clothing or food. Then that will be no help to them!

Does it help a poor person if we tell them to be warmed and filled, but do not give them anything?

No, it does not help a poor person if we don't give them anything to warm or feed them.

James 2:17ULT

¹⁷ Thus also the faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

UST

¹⁷ Similarly, if you just say that you believe in Jesus but you do not do anything that demonstrates that, you do not really believe in Jesus.

What is faith by itself, if it has no works?

Faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

James 2:18ULT

¹⁸ But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without the works, and I will show you my faith from the works.

UST

¹⁸ But someone might say {to you} that you have faith, while I have works. {He might claim that a person can express his religion through either faith or works and that he does not need to have both.} {But I would say in response that you cannot} show me your faith without works. I{, on the other hand,} can show you my faith by my works.

How does James say we must show our faith?

James says we must show our faith by our works.

James 2:19ULT

¹⁹ You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and they tremble.

UST

¹⁹ {Let me illustrate how believing in God without doing what God wants you to do cannot save you.} You believe that there is only one true God. You are right to believe that. But the demons also believe that, and they shake {with fear} because they also know that the one true God is going to punish them.

What do demons and those who claim to have faith both believe?

Those who claim to have faith and demons both believe there is one God.

James 2:20ULT

²⁰ But do you wish to know, O foolish man, that the faith without the works is idle? ^[1]

UST

²⁰ Also, you foolish person, I will give you proof that if someone says he believes in Jesus but he does not do anything that demonstrates that, then what he says does not help him in any way.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 2:21ULT

²¹ Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar?

UST

²¹ {Here is the proof.} Abraham, from whom we are descended, showed that he was willing to offer his son Isaac {to God} as a sacrifice {if God wanted him to do that}. God considered Abraham to be a righteous person because he showed that he would obey him {and that proved that he genuinely trusted God}.

How did Abraham demonstrate his faith by his works?

Abraham demonstrated his faith by his works when he offered up Isaac upon the altar.

James 2:22ULT

²² You see that the faith was working with his works and the faith was perfected from the works.

UST

²² In this way, Abraham obeyed God because he trusted him. When he obeyed him, that helped him trust God completely.

How was the faith of Abraham perfected?

Abraham's faith was perfected by his works.

James 2:23ULT

²³ And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness," and he was called a friend of God.

UST

²³ That was how the scripture came true that says, "Because Abraham truly trusted in God, God viewed him as someone who did what was right." Other scriptures say that Abraham was God's friend.

What scripture was fulfilled with Abraham's faith and works?

The scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness".

James 2:24ULT

²⁴ You see that a man is justified from works and not from faith alone.

UST

²⁴ {From the example of Abraham,} you should recognize that God considers people to be righteous because of what they do, not simply because they trust in him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 2:25ULT

²⁵ And similarly was not Rahab the prostitute also justified from works, having welcomed the messengers and having sent them away by another road?

UST

²⁵ Just as he did for Abraham, God also considered Rahab to be righteous because of what she did. She had been a prostitute, but she took care of the messengers {Joshua sent to spy out the land}. She then helped them to escape by sending them back on a safer road.

How did Rahab demonstrate her faith by her works?

Rahab demonstrated her faith by her works when she welcomed the messengers and sent them away by another road.

James 2:26

ULT

²⁶ For just as the body without the spirit is dead, thus also the faith without works is dead.
2:20 ^[1]

UST

²⁶ All of this illustrates an important truth. Just as a person's body is not alive if he is no longer breathing, in the same way, a person does not really trust in God if he does not express that trust through what he does.

What is a body apart from the spirit?

A body apart from the spirit is dead.

James 3

James 3:1

ULT

¹ Do not become many teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive greater judgment.

UST

¹ My fellow believers, most of you should not desire to become teachers {of God's word}. As you know, God will judge us teachers more severely {than he will judge other people}.

Why does James say that not many should become teachers?

Not many should become teachers because they will receive greater judgment.

James 3:2

ULT

² For we all stumble much. If anyone does not stumble in word, he {is} a perfect man, able to bridle even the whole body.

UST

² {I will tell you why most of you should not become teachers.} All of us often do things that are wrong. But if anyone is able to avoid saying things that are wrong, he has become the person God intends him to be. He will be able to control all of his actions as well.

Who stumbles, and in how many ways?

We all stumble in many ways.

What kind of person is able to control his whole body?

A person who does not stumble in his words is also able to control his whole body.

James 3:3

ULT

³ Now if we put the bits into the mouths of the horses for them to obey us, we also turn their whole body.

UST

³ To illustrate, we can put a small metal bar into the mouth of a horse and use it to make the horse go where we want it to go. When we do that, we can direct the horse's large body {just by means of that small device}.

What little thing is able to steer a large ship where the pilot wants it to go?

A small rudder is able to steer a large ship.

James 3:4ULT

⁴ Behold also the ships, being so large and driven by strong winds, it is turned by the smallest rudder where the inclination of the one steering desires.

UST

⁴ Think about ships too. A ship may be very large and the winds that propel it forward may be very strong. Even so, by using a tiny rudder, the pilot can direct the ship wherever he wants it to go.

What small thing is able to start a large fire in a forest?

A small fire is able to start a large fire in a forest.

James 3:5ULT

⁵ Thus also the tongue is a small member, but it boasts great things. Behold how small a fire kindles so large a forest.

UST

⁵ Similarly, although our tongues are very small, we use them to brag that we have done great things. Note also that a fire that starts as a small flame can burn up many trees.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 3:6ULT

⁶ The tongue {represents} also a fire, the world of unrighteousness. The tongue is placed among our members, the thing staining the whole body and setting the course of existence on fire, and it is set on fire by Gehenna.

UST

⁶ Just as a fire burns a forest, when we say bad things, we hurt many people. {What we say reveals that} there is much evil within us. When we say bad things, this contaminates all that we think and do. It can ruin our whole life. It is Satan himself who influences us to speak what is evil.

What is the sinful tongue able to do to the whole body?

The sinful tongue is able to defile the whole body.

James 3:7ULT

⁷ For every kind, both of beasts and birds, both of reptiles and marine animals, is being tamed and has been tamed by the human kind.

UST

⁷ To give another example, people have been able to tame a wide variety of wild animals, birds, reptiles, and animals that live in the water.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 3:8ULT

⁸ But no one of men is able to tame the tongue, an unsettled evil, full of deadly poison.

UST

⁸ But no one can control the things he says. The things people say are like a dangerous creature that never stops killing people with its venom.

What has no one among man been able to tame?

No one among man has been able to tame the tongue.

James 3:9ULT

⁹ With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse the men, the ones having come into being according to the likeness of God.

UST

⁹ We use speech to praise {God, who is} our Lord and Father. But we also use speech to say that we want bad things to happen to people. {That is very wrong, because} God made people like himself.

What two ways to people treat God and men with their tongues?

With a single tongue, they bless God and curse men.

James 3:10ULT

¹⁰ Out from the same mouth come blessing and cursing. It is not fitting, my brothers, {for} these things to happen thus.

UST

¹⁰ Someone may use his speech to praise God. But then he will use that same speech to wish that bad things would happen to people. My fellow believers, this should not happen!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 3:11ULT

¹¹ The spring does not gush the sweet and the bitter from the same opening, does it?

UST

¹¹ Surely good-tasting water and bad-tasting water do not come from the same source!

What two things can a spring not provide?

One spring cannot provide both sweet and bitter water.

James 3:12ULT

¹² A fig tree is not able to make olives, is it, my brothers, or a grapevine, figs? Nor salty to make sweet water.

UST

¹² My fellow believers, a fig tree cannot produce olives. And a grapevine cannot produce figs. Nor can a salty source produce good water. {Similarly, we should speak only what is good, and we should not speak what is evil.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 3:13ULT

¹³ Who {is} wise and understanding among you? Let him show his works from his good conduct in humility of wisdom.

UST

¹³ If any of you are very understanding, you will demonstrate that by living your life properly. Being wise leads us to act gently toward others.

How does a person demonstrate wisdom and understanding?

A person demonstrates wisdom and understanding by his works done in humility.

James 3:14ULT

¹⁴ But if you have bitter jealousy and ambition in your heart, do not boast and lie against the truth.

UST

¹⁴ But if inwardly you grudgingly resent other people and you think you are more important than they are, you should not claim to be wise. That would be saying that what is false is actually true.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 3:15ULT

¹⁵ This is not the wisdom coming down from above, but {it is} earthly, soulish, demonic.

UST

¹⁵ People who are envious and selfish are not wise as God wants them to be. Instead, they are thinking and acting like people who do not respect God. They are following their own evil desires. They are doing what demons would do.

Where kind of wisdom causes a person to be jealous and ambitious, and to lie?

Wisdom that is earthly, soulish, and demonic causes a person to be jealous and ambitious, and to lie.

James 3:16ULT

¹⁶ For where {there is} jealousy and ambition, there {is} unsettledness and every wicked deed.

UST

¹⁶ We can tell that people who are resentful and selfish are not wise, because they do not control themselves. They take part in many different sinful activities.

What results from jealousy and ambition?

Jealousy and ambition causes unsettledness and every wicked deed.

James 3:17ULT

¹⁷ But the wisdom from above first indeed is pure, then peaceable, gentle, cooperative, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial, sincere.

UST

¹⁷ But the person whom God has taught to be wise is, first of all, morally pure. Such a person also makes peace with others. He is kind to them and gets along with them well. He is generous to people who do not deserve it, and he does practical things to help others. He does not favor one person over another, and he does not pretend to be something that he is not.

What attitudes reflect a wisdom from above?

A person that is peace-loving, gentle, warm-hearted, full of mercy and good fruit, without favoritism, and sincere has wisdom from above.

James 3:18ULT

¹⁸ And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those making peace.

UST

¹⁸ When people work quietly to help others get along, they can help those others to have good relationships.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 4

James 4:1

ULT

¹ From where {are} wars and from where {are} battles among you? {Are they} not from there, from your lusts, the ones fighting in your members?

UST

¹ I will tell you why you are fighting among yourselves and quarreling with each other. It is because each of you inwardly desires to do evil things. Those desires lead you to fight {in order to be able to do those things}.

What does James say is the source of quarreling and disputing among the believers?

The source is the evil desires that war among them.

James 4:2

ULT

² You covet, and you do not have. You kill and envy, and you are not able to obtain. You battle and war. You do not have because you do not ask.

UST

² You desire to have things, but you do not get {them}. This makes you bitterly resent the people who do have them. But you {still} do not get {what you want}, so you quarrel and fight {with others}. If you pray {to God} instead {for the things you desire}, then God will give you {what you truly need}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 4:3

ULT

³ You ask and you do not receive, because you ask badly, so that you may spend on your lusts.

UST

³ But even when you do ask God for things, he does not give them to you, because you are asking with bad motives. You are asking for things just so that you can use them to enjoy yourselves in wrong ways.

Why do the believers not receive their requests to God?

They do not receive because they ask for bad things to be spent on their evil desires.

James 4:4ULT

⁴ Adulteresses! Do you not know that the friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wants to be a friend of the world is made an enemy of God.

UST

⁴ You are being disloyal to God {by not obeying him}! You must realize that those who behave as evil people do are hostile to God. So if that is how you decide to live, then you will be choosing to be hostile to God.

If a person decides to be a friend of the world, what is that person's relationship with God?

A person who decides to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

James 4:5ULT

⁵ Or do you think that the scripture says vainly, "The Spirit whom he caused to live in us longs with jealousy"?

UST

⁵ You must realize that God has purposely told us about this in the Scriptures. There he teaches us that the Spirit he placed in us yearns for us to live our lives in ways that please him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 4:6ULT

⁶ But he gives greater grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but he gives grace to the humble."

UST

⁶ If we are living in ways that do not please God, he is very kind to us. {He will help us live differently if we humbly admit that we have been doing wrong.} That is why this teaching is in the Bible: "God does not help those who are proud, but he does help those who are humble."

Who does God resist, and to whom does he give grace?

God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.

James 4:7ULT

⁷ Be submitted, therefore, to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

UST

⁷ So choose humbly to obey God. Firmly determine not to give in to the devil's temptations. This will make the devil give up on trying to tempt you.

What will the devil do when a believer subjects himself to God and resists the devil?

The devil will flee.

James 4:8ULT

⁸ Come near to God and he will come near to you. Cleanse your hands, sinners, and purify your hearts, double-minded.

UST

⁸ Be honest and open with God. If you do, he will welcome you into his presence. You who are sinners, turn away from doing what is wrong and do only what is right. You who cannot decide whether you will commit yourselves to God, stop thinking wrong thoughts and think only right thoughts.

What will God do for those who draw near to him?

God will draw near to those who draw near to him.

James 4:9ULT

⁹ Be miserable and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be changed into mourning, and your joy into gloom.

UST

⁹ Show sorrow and be sad and weep {because of the wrong things that you have done}. You have been enjoying yourselves, but you should be serious {and realize how much you need to change}.

James 4:10ULT

¹⁰ Be humbled before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

UST

¹⁰ Humbly show the Lord how sorry you are for your sins. if you do that, he will honor you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 4:11ULT

¹¹ Do not speak against one another, brothers. The one speaking against a brother or judging his brother speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge.

UST

¹¹ My fellow believers, stop accusing one another of doing wrong. Anyone who accuses and condemns a fellow believer is really accusing and condemning God's commandment {that we should love one another}. But if you speak against that commandment, you are not obeying it. Instead, you are acting like a judge who condemns it.

What does James tell the believers not to do?

James tells the believers not to speak against one another.

James 4:12ULT

¹² There is one lawgiver and judge, the one being able to save and to destroy. But who are you, the one judging your neighbor?

UST

¹² The only one who can judge people {according to the law} is the one who gave the law. That is God, who is able not just to condemn people {for breaking the law} but also to pardon them {even though they have broken the law}. You certainly are not entitled to take God's place and judge others.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 4:13ULT

¹³ Come now, the ones saying, "Today or tomorrow we will travel to this city and do a year there and trade and gain."

UST

¹³ Some of you are {arrogantly} saying, "Today or tomorrow we will go to a certain city. We will spend a year there and we will buy and sell things and earn a lot of money." Now you listen to me!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 4:14ULT

¹⁴ You who do not know the thing of the tomorrow, of what sort {is} your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little {while} and then disappears.

UST

¹⁴ You should not talk like that, because you do not know what will happen tomorrow. In fact, you do not even know how long you will live! After all, your life is short, like a mist that is visible briefly but then vanishes.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 4:15ULT

¹⁵ Instead, you should say, "If the Lord wishes, we will both live and do this or that."

UST

¹⁵ Instead {of what you are saying,} you should say, "If the Lord is willing, we will still be alive and we will be able to do one thing or another."

What does James tell the believers to say about what will happen in the future?

James tells the believers to say that if the Lord allows, we will live and do this or that.

James 4:16ULT

¹⁶ But now you are boasting in your pretensions. All such boasting is evil.

UST

¹⁶ But what you are doing is bragging about all the things you plan to do. That kind of bragging is sinful.

What does James say about those who boast about their plans?

James says that those who boast about their plans are doing evil.

James 4:17

ULT

¹⁷ Therefore to the one having known to do good and not doing {it}, to him it is sin.

UST

¹⁷ So if anyone does not do something even though he knows it is the right thing that he should do, he has committed a sin.

What is it if someone knows to do good, but does not do it?

It is sin if someone knows to do good, but does not do it.

James 5

James 5:1

ULT

¹ Come now, the rich, weep, wailing because of your coming miseries.

UST

¹ Now I have something to say to you rich people {who say you believe in Jesus}. Listen to me! You should weep and wail loudly because you are going to experience terrible troubles!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 5:2

ULT

² Your wealth has rotted and your clothes have become moth-eaten.

UST

² Your wealth is worthless, as though it were rotten. Your fine clothes are worthless, as though moths had ruined them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 5:3

ULT

³ Your gold and silver have been tarnished, and their rust will be for a testimony against you and it will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up in the last days.

UST

³ Your gold and silver are worthless, as though they were corroded. {When God judges you,} this worthless wealth of yours will be evidence that you are guilty {of being greedy}. Just as rust and fire destroy things, God will severely punish you. You should not have been trying to get richer and richer knowing that Jesus was going to return. {When he returns, your riches will be worthless.}

What have the rich, about whom James is talking, done in the last days which will testify against them?

The rich have hoarded their treasure.

James 5:4ULT

⁴ Behold, the pay of the workers who have reaped your fields, which has been withheld from you, is crying out, and the cries of the ones harvesting have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

UST

⁴ Think about what you have done. You did not pay the wages you promised to the workers who harvested your fields. These unpaid wages show how unfair you were to these workers. They are crying out to God because of the way you have treated them. The Lord is a God of great power, and he is listening to their loud cries {and he will punish you for what you have done}.

How have these rich treated their workers?

These rich have not paid their workers.

James 5:5ULT

⁵ You have lived luxuriously on the earth and have lived self-indulgently. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

UST

⁵ You have bought all the luxuries you wanted for yourselves. Just as cattle fatten themselves, not realizing that they will be slaughtered, you have lived just to enjoy things, not realizing that God will severely punish you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 5:6ULT

⁶ You have condemned, you have killed the righteous. He does not resist you.

UST

⁶ You have arranged for others to condemn honest people. You have arranged for others to kill people who had not done anything wrong. They were not able to defend themselves against you. {But God will judge and punish you for doing all these things.}

How have these rich treated the righteous man?

These rich have condemned and killed the righteous man.

James 5:7ULT

⁷ Therefore, wait patiently, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer awaits the valuable fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early {rain} and the late {rain}.

UST

⁷ So, my fellow believers, {even though rich people cause you to suffer;} be patient until Jesus the Messiah comes back. Remember that when farmers plant a field, they have to wait for their valuable crops to grow. They have to wait patiently for the rain that comes at the planting season and for more rain that comes just before the harvest season. {This rain is necessary for the crops to grow and mature so that the farmers can harvest them.}

What does James say the believer's attitude should be toward the coming of the Lord?

The believers should wait patiently for the coming of the Lord.

James 5:8ULT

⁸ You also wait patiently. Strengthen your hearts, because the coming of the Lord has come near.

UST

⁸ Similarly, you also should wait patiently and trust Jesus the Messiah firmly, because he is coming back soon {and he will judge all people fairly}.

Why should believers strengthen their hearts as they wait patiently for the coming of the Lord?

They should strengthen their hearts because the coming of the Lord is near.

James 5:9ULT

⁹ Do not complain, brothers, against one another, so that you may be not judged. Behold, the judge is standing at the door.

UST

⁹ My fellow believers, do not grumble about each other. That way the Lord Jesus will not have to punish you. He is the one who will judge us, and he will come back soon to do that.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 5:10ULT

¹⁰ Take an example, brothers, of the suffering and the patience of the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord.

UST

¹⁰ My fellow believers, as an example {of how to be patient}, consider the prophets whom the Lord God sent long ago to speak his messages. Although people caused them to suffer much, they endured it patiently.

What should the suffering and the patience of the Old Testament prophets become for us?

The suffering and the patience of the Old Testament prophets should become an example for us.

James 5:11ULT

¹¹ Behold, we call blessed the ones having endured. You have heard of the endurance of Job, and you have seen the end of the Lord, that the Lord is greatly compassionate and merciful.

UST

¹¹ Consider how, when people are able to endure suffering {patiently and faithfully}, we say that God has blessed them. {One example of this is the man named} Job. You know about him {from the Scriptures}. You know that he suffered many things patiently. You also know that God planned {to do good things through what Job suffered}. And from that you can tell that God is very caring and kind.

What positive character trait did Job demonstrate?

Job demonstrated endurance.

James 5:12ULT

¹² But before all, my brothers, do not swear, neither {by} the heaven nor {by} the earth, nor {by} any other oath. But let your "Yes" be "Yes" and your "No," "No," so that you may not fall under judgment.

UST

¹² Now this, my fellow believers, is something very important for you to realize. You must never take an oath by calling on heaven or the earth or anything else to guarantee a promise that you make. All you need to say is "Yes" or "No." God will judge you {if you go beyond that and make an oath but then do not keep your promise}.

What does James say about the reliability of a believer's "Yes" and "No?"

A believer's "Yes" must mean "Yes" and his "No" must mean "No".

James 5:13ULT

¹³ Is anyone among you suffering hardship? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise.

UST

¹³ Any one of you who is experiencing trouble should pray {that God would help him}. Whoever is happy should sing songs of praise {to God}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 5:14ULT

¹⁴ Is anyone among you sick? Let him summon the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, having anointed him with oil in the name of the Lord.

UST

¹⁴ Any one of you who is sick should call the leaders of the congregation to come and pray for him {to recover}. They should put olive oil on him {to help him recover} and, with the Lord's authority, pray.

What should those who are sick do?

The sick should call for the elders so they can pray over him and anoint him with oil.

James 5:15ULT

¹⁵ And the prayer of the faith will save the sick and the Lord will raise him up. And if he may have committed sins, it will be forgiven to him.

UST

¹⁵ When these leaders pray to God in faith, God will answer that prayer and heal the person who is sick. The Lord will restore his health. If that person has sinned, God will forgive him {for those sins}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 5:16ULT

¹⁶ Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another so that you may be healed. A working prayer of the righteous is very strong.

UST

¹⁶ Because the Lord is able to heal the sick and to forgive sins, admit to each other the sinful things you have done and pray for each other. Then God will heal you. If people who are right with God pray, God will answer their prayers in powerful ways.

What two things does James say believers should do with each other in order to be healed?

Believers should confess to one another and pray for one another.

James 5:17ULT

¹⁷ Elijah was a man of similar passions to us, and he prayed with prayer for {it} not to rain, and it did not rain upon the land {for} three years and six months.

UST

¹⁷ The prophet Elijah was an ordinary person like us. But when he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, the land {of Israel} had no rain for three and a half years.

What happened when Elijah prayed that it would not rain?

It did not rain on the land for three years and six months.

James 5:18ULT

¹⁸ And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth produced its fruit.

UST

¹⁸ Then Elijah prayed again{, asking God to send rain}, and God made it rain and plants grew and produced crops again.

What happened when Elijah prayed again, this time for rain?

When he prayed again, the heaven gave rain and the earth produced fruit.

James 5:19ULT

¹⁹ My brothers, if anyone among you may have been led astray from the truth and someone turns him back,

UST

¹⁹ My fellow believers, if one of you stops obeying the true message from God, then another one of you should persuade that person to do once again what God has told us to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

James 5:20ULT

²⁰ let him know that the one having turned back a sinner from his wandering way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

UST

²⁰ I want anyone who helps a sinner to repent to know that because of what he has done, God will save the sinner from spiritual death and will forgive his many sins.

What does someone accomplish who leads a sinner out of the error of his way?

The person who leads a sinner out of the error of his way saves a soul from death and covers a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

1 Peter 1

1 Peter 1:1

ULT

¹ Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect exiles of the dispersion of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

UST

¹ {I am} Peter, whom Jesus the Messiah sent {to represent him}. {I am writing this letter} to you whom God has chosen to belong to himself. {I am writing to you} who are temporarily living in the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, far away {from your true home in heaven}.

Of whom was Peter an apostle?

Peter was an apostle of Jesus Christ.

To whom did Peter write?

Peter wrote to the foreigners of the dispersion, the chosen ones, throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia.

1 Peter 1:2

ULT

² according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by sanctification of the Spirit for obedience and the sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. Grace and peace be multiplied to you.

UST

² God our Father {chose you} according to what he had already decided. {He did this} by his Spirit, setting you apart in order that you may obey {him} and in order that the death of Jesus the Messiah may make you members of a covenant with God. {I pray that} God will increase his kind acts toward you and make you more peaceful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Peter 1:3ULT

³ Blessed {is} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, according to his great mercy, caused us to be born again into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from dead ones,

UST

³ Praise God, who is the Father of our Lord Jesus the Messiah! Because he is very merciful to us, he has caused us to experience the new birth by bringing Jesus the Messiah back to life after he had died. {God did this} in order that we would have hope that will never disappoint us,

Whom did Peter want to be blessed?

Peter wanted the God and Father of their Lord Jesus Christ to be blessed.

How did God give them a new birth?

In his great mercy, God gave them a new birth through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

1 Peter 1:4ULT

⁴ into an imperishable and undefiled and unfading inheritance, having been kept in heaven for you,

UST

⁴ {that is,} in order that we might inherit what cannot perish, be defiled, or fade, which is what God has kept for us in heaven.

Why would the inheritance not perish, become stained, or fade away?

The inheritance would not perish, become stained, or fade away because the inheritance was reserved in heaven for them.

1 Peter 1:5ULT

⁵ the ones being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

UST

⁵ God's power is guarding you by means of your trust {in Jesus}. {He is guarding you} in order to reveal your salvation at the final time {when Jesus returns to judge everyone}.

By what means were they protected in God's power?

They were protected through faith for the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last times.

1 Peter 1:6ULT

⁶ In this you greatly rejoice, if now being necessary, having been distressed a little {while} in various trials

UST

⁶ You rejoice a lot because of what will happen then, even though now for a short time many different hardships must grieve you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Peter 1:7ULT

⁷ so that the genuineness of your faith—more precious than perishing gold, but being tested by fire—might be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ,

UST

⁷ {These hardships} happen in order to prove that you really trust {in Jesus}. {That trust} is more valuable to God than gold, which someone can destroy even though someone has tested it by {passing it through} fire. Because you trust in Jesus, God will praise, glorify, and honor you when Jesus the Messiah {returns and} reveals himself.

Why was it necessary for them to feel sorrow in many different trials?

It was necessary so that their faith would be tested, and so that their faith would be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

What is more precious than gold which perishes?

Faith is more precious than gold.

1 Peter 1:8ULT

⁸ whom, not having seen, you love; in whom, not seeing {him} now, but believing, you exult with joy inexpressible and filled with glory,

UST

⁸ You love Jesus, although you have not seen him. Although you do not see him now, you trust him and rejoice with joy that you can hardly express,

Although the believers had not seen Jesus, what did they do?

They loved him and believed in him and were very glad with unspeakable joy that was full of glory.

1 Peter 1:9ULT

⁹ receiving for yourselves the outcome of your faith, salvation of your souls.

UST

⁹ because you are experiencing the result of trusting him: God is saving you from the guilt of your sins.

What did the ones who believed in him receive as the result of their faith?

They received the salvation of their souls.

1 Peter 1:10ULT

¹⁰ The prophets searched and inquired carefully about this salvation, having prophesied about this grace for you,

UST

¹⁰ {Long ago} prophets investigated very carefully about God saving you. They spoke what God told them about God graciously saving you.

About what did the prophets search and inquire carefully?

The prophets searched about the salvation the believers were receiving, about the grace that was to be theirs.

1 Peter 1:11ULT

¹¹ inquiring into whom or what time the Spirit of Christ in them was revealing, testifying beforehand {about} the sufferings of Christ and the glories after these things.

UST

¹¹ They were trying to find out to whom the Spirit of the Messiah that was in them was referring to, and to what time the Spirit was referring to. {The Spirit was referring to these things} when he told them beforehand that the Messiah would suffer and that glorious things would happen afterwards.

About what was the Spirit of Christ telling the prophets in advance?

He was telling them about the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow him.

1 Peter 1:12ULT

¹² It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves, but you, {in} these things which now were declared to you by the ones who proclaimed the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit having been sent from heaven—into which things angels desire to look.

UST

¹² God told these prophets that it was not for their own benefit that he was revealing these things to them, but that it was for your benefit. Those people who preached the good news to you now have declared these things to you by the Holy Spirit, whom God sent from heaven, {enabling them to do that}. Angels would like to know more about what these people declared to you.

Whom were the prophets serving by their searches and inquiries?

They were serving the believers.

Who desired the results of the prophets' searches and inquiries to be revealed?

Even the angels desired the results to be revealed.

1 Peter 1:13ULT

¹³ Therefore, having girded up the loins of your mind, being sober, hope fully in the grace being brought to you in the revelation of Jesus Christ.

UST

¹³ As a result of all these things, prepare your minds for action. Be alert. Be completely confident that God will graciously save you when Jesus the Messiah {returns and} reveals himself.

What did Peter command the believers to do as obedient children? (vv13-14)

He commanded them to prepare their minds to obey God, be sober in their thinking, and have complete confidence in the grace that would be brought them, and not to conform themselves to their former desires.

1 Peter 1:14ULT

¹⁴ As children of obedience, not being conformed to your former desires in your ignorance,

UST

¹⁴ Because you obey God like children ought to obey their fathers, do not allow yourself to be controlled by the {sinful} desires you used to have when you did not know {the truth about God}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Peter 1:15ULT

¹⁵ but as the one having called you {is} holy, you yourselves also be holy in all your behavior.

UST

¹⁵ Instead, just like God, the one who chose you {to belong to him}, is holy, act in a holy manner when you do anything.

Why did Peter say the believers should be holy? (vv15-16)

Because the one who called them is holy.

1 Peter 1:16ULT

¹⁶ For it is written, "You will be holy, because I {am} holy."

UST

¹⁶ Be holy, because Moses wrote {in the scriptures that God said}, "Be holy, because I am holy."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Peter 1:17ULT

¹⁷ And if you call "Father" the one judging impartially according to the work of each one, conduct yourselves in fear {during} the time of your sojourn,

UST

¹⁷ God is the one who judges what each person does, and he judges without bias. Since you call him 'Father,' behave in a way that shows you fear him while you are temporarily living {far away from your true home in heaven}.

Why should the believers spend the time of their journey in fear?

Because they called as "Father" the one who judges impartially according to each person's work.

1 Peter 1:18ULT

¹⁸ knowing that you have been redeemed not with perishable things, with silver or with gold, from your futile behavior handed down from your fathers,

UST

¹⁸ {Behave in that way} because you know that {God paid to free you} from behaving foolishly, as your ancestors taught you {to behave}. God did not pay to free you with things like silver or gold that will not last forever.

From whom had the foreigners, the chosen ones, learned futile behavior?

They had learned futile behavior from their fathers.

With what were the believers redeemed? (vv18-19)

They were not redeemed with silver or gold, but with the honored blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.

1 Peter 1:19ULT

¹⁹ but with the precious blood of Christ, as of an unblemished and spotless lamb,

UST

¹⁹ Instead, {God paid for you to be free} by the Messiah's priceless death {on the cross}. {That death was} like {the deaths} of the entirely perfect lambs {that the Jewish priests sacrificed}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Peter 1:20ULT

²⁰ having been foreknown before the foundation of the world, but having been revealed in the last of the times for you,

UST

²⁰ God chose him to do this before he created the world. But {it was now,} in this last time period, that God revealed him to you.

When was Christ foreknown, and when was he revealed?

He was foreknown before the foundation of the world; he was revealed to the foreigners, the chosen ones, in what was then the last times.

1 Peter 1:21ULT

²¹ those through him believing in God, who has raised him from dead ones and has given him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

UST

²¹ Because of what the Messiah has done, you are trusting in God. He caused the Messiah to become alive again after he had died and has shown how great he is. As a result, you are trusting God and expecting {him to do great things}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Peter 1:22ULT

²² Having purified your souls by the obedience to the truth for sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, ^[1]

UST

²² Because you have made yourselves pure by obeying the true teachings {of Jesus} in order to genuinely love other believers, love each other sincerely and fervently.

How did the believers make their souls pure?

They made their souls pure by obedience to the truth for brotherly love.

1 Peter 1:23ULT

²³ having been born again, not from perishable seed, but from imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God.

UST

²³ {Do this} because God has caused you to experience the new birth. {You did not experience this new birth} by means of something that will perish. Rather, {you experienced it} by means of something that will never perish: the message {about Jesus} that came from God and truly lasts forever.

How were the believers born again?

They were born again from imperishable seed, through the living and remaining word of God, not from perishable seed.

1 Peter 1:24ULT

²⁴ For, "All flesh {is} like grass, and all its glory {is} like the flower of the grass. The grass was dried up, and the flower fell off,

UST

²⁴ {We know that this is true} because, {as the prophet Isaiah wrote,} "All people are like grass, and everything that is great about people is like flowers in the grass. Just as grass dies and flowers wither, {so do people die and what is great about them only lasts for a short time},

What is all flesh like, and what is its glory like?

Flesh is like grass; its glory is like the flower of grass.

1 Peter 1:25ULT

²⁵ but the word of the Lord endures into eternity." And this is the word that has been proclaimed to you.
1:22 ^[1]

UST

²⁵ but God's message lasts forever." This message {that lasts forever} is the good news {about the Messiah} that we have declared to you.

What happens to the word of the Lord?

The word of the Lord remains forever.

1 Peter 21 Peter 2:1*ULT

¹ Therefore, having put aside all evil and all deceit and hypocrisies and envies and all slanders,

UST

¹ Because {these things are true}, do not act wickedly or deceive others in any way. Do not be hypocrites, and do not envy others. Do not speak evil things falsely about anyone.

What were the believers told to put aside?

They were told to put aside all evil deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander.

1 Peter 2:2ULT

² as newborn babies, long for the pure rational milk so that by it you may grow up to salvation,

UST

² Just as newborn babies strongly desire their mothers' pure milk, so you should strongly desire to learn true things about God so that by {learning} them you may become spiritually mature. {You must do this} until the time when God saves you completely {from this sinful world}.

Why were the believers to long for pure spiritual milk?

They were to long for pure spiritual milk that they might grow in salvation.

1 Peter 2:3ULT

³ if you have tasted that the Lord {is} kind,

UST

³ {You must do this} because you have experienced that the Lord acts very kindly {toward you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Peter 2:4ULT

⁴ coming to him, a living stone, having been rejected by men, but chosen by God, precious,

UST

⁴ You have come to the Lord Jesus. {He is like} a stone {that is part of a building, but he is} alive. Although people rejected him, God chose him and greatly values him.

Who was the living stone who was rejected by people and chosen by God? (vv4-5)

Jesus Christ was the living stone.

1 Peter 2:5ULT

⁵ and you yourselves, like living stones, are being built up {to be} a spiritual house, for a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

UST

⁵ And you are like stones that are alive. {Like men build houses with stones,} God is joining you together like a building in which his Spirit dwells. {He is also making you} be like priests whom he has set apart in order to do spiritual acts, pleasing to God, by means of Jesus the Messiah.

Why were the believers also like living stones?

They were like living stones because they were being built up to be a spiritual house.

1 Peter 2:6ULT

⁶ Therefore, it stands in scripture: "Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone, chosen, precious. And the one believing in him may certainly not be ashamed."

UST

⁶ What {Isaiah} wrote {that God had said} in Scripture shows us that this is true: "Pay attention! I am placing in Jerusalem someone who is like the most important stone in the building. I have chosen him. He is very valuable. And anyone who trusts in him will surely never be humiliated."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Peter 2:7ULT

⁷ Therefore, the honor {is} to you, the ones believing. But to those not believing, "A stone that the ones building rejected, this has become the head of the corner,"

UST

⁷ Therefore, {God} will honor you who believe in Jesus. However, those who refuse to believe in him {are like the builders that someone wrote about in the Psalms}: "The stone that the builders rejected has become the most important stone in the building."

Why did the builders stumble, disobeying the word? (vv7-8)

The builders stumbled because they were appointed to do that.

1 Peter 2:8ULT

⁸ and, "A stone of stumbling and a rock of offense." They stumble, disobeying the word to which also they were appointed.

UST

⁸ {Isaiah} also {wrote in the Scriptures that the Messiah would be like} "a stone that causes people to stumble, and a rock that offends people." {Just as people become injured because they trip over a rock,} people become offended because they disobey God's message; that is what God determined would happen to them.

1 Peter 2:9ULT

⁹ But you {are} a chosen family, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for possession, so that you might proclaim the praiseworthy actions of the one having called you out from darkness into his marvelous light,

UST

⁹ In contrast {to them}, you {believers} are people whom God has chosen {for himself}. {You are} like a group of priests {who worship God} and rule {with him}. {You are} a people group that God has set apart {for himself}. {You are} a people who belong to God so that you might declare the praiseworthy things he has done. He has called you out of your former manner of living, when you were sinful and ignorant about God, and he has made you understand the wonderful true things about himself.

Why were the believers a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, and a people for God's possession? (vv9-10)

They were chosen so that they might announce the wonderful actions of God.

1 Peter 2:10ULT

¹⁰ who once {were} “not a people,” but now “a people of God;” the ones “not having received mercy,” but now “having received mercy.”

UST

¹⁰ {What Hosea wrote is true about you} who used to be “no people group at all,” but now are “God’s people group.” At one time “God had not acted mercifully toward you,” but now “he has acted mercifully toward you.”

1 Peter 2:11ULT

¹¹ Beloved ones, I exhort you as foreigners and exiles to abstain from fleshly desires, which make war against the soul,

UST

¹¹ Fellow believers whom I love, you are like foreigners {whose real home is in heaven}. So I urge you not to do the things that your sinful human natures want to do. Those desires will destroy you.

Why did Peter call the beloved to abstain from sinful desires? (vv11-12)

He called them to abstain so that those who might speak of them as having done evil would see their good behavior and praise God.

1 Peter 2:12ULT

¹² keeping your behavior among the Gentiles good so that, in whatever they slander you as evildoers, by observing your good works, they might glorify God in the day of visitation.

UST

¹² Behave well among those who do not know God in order that, concerning the things you are doing, which they falsely say are evil, they will see that you are {actually} doing good things and they will honor God when he comes to judge everyone.

1 Peter 2:13ULT

¹³ Be subjected to every human authority for the sake of the Lord, whether to a king as one having supreme authority

UST

¹³ In order to honor the Lord Jesus, obey everyone who has power {to govern people}. This includes the king, because he has the greatest {human} power.

Why were the believers to obey every human authority? (vv13-15)

They were to obey every human authority because God wanted to use their obedience to silence the ignorant talk of foolish people.

1 Peter 2:14ULT

¹⁴ or to governors as those being sent through him for punishment of evildoers and praise of doers of good;

¹⁶ {Obey those who govern people} as people who are free to do so voluntarily, but do not try to use your status as free people to hide evil deeds. Instead, {obey} as those who serve God should.

Instead of using their freedom as a covering for wickedness, what were the foreigners, the chosen ones, to do?

They were to use their freedom to be servants of God.

1 Peter 2:17ULT

¹⁸ House slaves, be subjected to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle ones, but also to the crooked ones.

UST

¹⁸ You household slaves {who are believers}, submit to your masters with a completely reverent attitude. {Do this} not only to those {masters} who act very kindly toward you but also to those who act unjustly toward you.

Why were servants supposed to be subject to their masters, even the malicious ones? (vv18-20)

Servants were supposed to be subject even to malicious masters because doing good and then suffering by being punished for it is praiseworthy with God.

1 Peter 2:19ULT

¹⁹ For this {finds} favor—if anyone endures sorrows, suffering unjustly because of consciousness of God.

UST

¹⁹ {Submit to your masters,} because this is something that God prefers—if someone endures hardships and suffers undeservedly because that person is aware of who God is {and what he wants}.

²¹ For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered on your behalf, leaving an example for you so that you might follow in his footsteps

UST

²¹ {God favors this} because he has called you to suffer while doing what is good. {He has called you to this} because the Messiah also suffered for your sake in order to be an example for you with the purpose that you would imitate what he did.

Why were the servants called to suffer for doing good? (vv21-23)

Because Christ suffered for them, leaving an example for them, and gave himself to the one who judges justly.

UST

²⁴ The Messiah himself was punished for our sins in his body {when he died} on the cross with the purpose that we would live rightly because we are no longer controlled by sin. God has healed you because people wounded the Messiah.

Why did Christ carry Peter, believers, and the servants' sins in his body to the tree?

He carried their sins so that they might have no more part in sin, but instead live for righteousness, and because they were healed by his bruises.

1 Peter 2:25ULT

²⁵ For you were like straying sheep, but now you have been turned back to the shepherd and overseer of your souls.

UST

²⁵ {God healed you} because you were {alienated from God} like sheep that had become lost, but now God has brought you back to Jesus, who cares for you and watches over you {as a shepherd cares for his sheep}.

UST

⁵ {Do this} because this is the way that the women who lived holy lives long ago made themselves beautiful. They trusted in God and submitted to their husbands.

Which holy woman did Peter mention as an example of a wife who had confidence in God and submitted to her husband? (vv5-6)

Peter mentioned Sarah as an example.

1 Peter 3:6ULT

⁶ like Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him "lord," whose children you have become, doing what is good and not being afraid of any terror.

UST

⁶ Sarah, for example, obeyed her husband Abraham and called him {her} master. God will consider you to be her daughters if you do good deeds and are not afraid of anything terrible happening to you.

⁷ You men {who are believers}, in a similar way, dwell together with your wives in an understanding manner. {Treat them} as {you would treat} someone who is weaker {than you are}. Honor them as those who will also receive God's gracious gift with you, which is eternal life. {Do this} so that nothing will hinder you from praying.

Why should husbands live with their wives according to knowledge?

Husbands should live with their wives according to knowledge so that their prayers are not hindered.

1 Peter 3:8ULT

⁸ Now finally, everyone {be} likeminded, sympathetic, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, humble;

UST

⁸ To end {this part of my letter}, {I say to} all of you, have the same mindset {among yourselves}. Be sympathetic {toward each other}. Love each other as fellow believers. Act compassionately {toward each other}. Be humble.

Why did Peter instruct all of the foreigners, the chosen ones, to be likeminded and to continue to bless? (vv8-9)

Because they were all called to do so, that they might inherit a blessing.

1 Peter 3:9ULT

⁹ not paying back evil in exchange for evil or insult in exchange for insult, but on the contrary, blessing, because to this you were called so that you might inherit a blessing.

What were the believers told to do to maintain their confidence in God?

They were told to set apart the Lord Christ as precious in their hearts.

How were the believers always to answer everyone who asked about their confidence in God? (vv15-16)

They were to be ready to answer always with meekness and respect.

1 Peter 3:16ULT

¹⁶ but with meekness and fear, having a good conscience so that, in what you are being slandered, the ones reviling your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed.

¹⁸ For Christ also suffered once for sins—righteous on behalf of unrighteous—so that he might bring you to God, having indeed been killed in flesh, but having been made alive in spirit,

UST

¹⁸ {This is true} because the Messiah also suffered. {He suffered} one time for the sake of {other people's} sins. He was a righteous person {who died} for the benefit of unrighteous people. {He died} in order to enable you to be with God. Although people killed him, God's Spirit caused him to become alive again.

Why did Christ suffer once for sins?

Christ suffered once so that he would bring Peter and the believers to God.

1 Peter 3:19ULT

¹⁹ in which also he proclaimed, having gone to the spirits in prison,

UST

¹⁹ The Spirit also enabled him to go and announce {God's victory} to the {evil} spirits whom God had imprisoned.

Why were the spirits to whom Christ preached in the spirit now in prison? (vv19-20)

The spirits who are now in prison were disobedient when the patience of God was waiting in the days of Noah.

1 Peter 3:20ULT

Instead, it shows that we are asking God to assure us that he has forgiven our sins. {This baptism saves you} by means of God having caused Jesus the Messiah to become alive again.

What kind of baptism saves the believer?

The baptism that saves the believer is not the washing with water, but the appeal of a good conscience to God through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 3:22ULT

²² who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, with angels and authorities and powers having been subjected to him.

UST

²² After God caused every evil and powerful spirit to submit to him, the Messiah went to heaven, where he is at the place of highest honor next to God.

Why did the Gentiles speak evil about the believers? (vv3-4)

They spoke evil about the foreigners, the chosen ones, because they did not participate in sensuality, passion, drunkenness, carousing, wild parties, and in wicked idolatries like the Gentiles.

⁷ All things {on this earth} will soon end. So think sensibly and clearly in order to pray well.

Why were the believers to be of sound mind and have fervent love for one another?

They were to do those things because the end of all things was coming, and for the sake of their prayers.

1 Peter 4:8ULT

⁸ above all, having the fervent love for one another, for love covers up a multitude of sins;

Why were the believers told to rejoice if they experienced the sufferings of Christ or were insulted for the name of Christ? (vv12-13)

Because they were blessed if they were insulted.

1 Peter 4:13ULT

¹³ but, however much you are sharing in the sufferings of Christ, rejoice, so that also, at the revelation of his glory, you may rejoice, being glad.

UST

Christians were not to suffer as murderers, thieves, evildoers, or meddlers.

1 Peter 4:16ULT

Why should the ungodly person and the sinner obey God's gospel? (vv17-18)

The ungodly person and the sinner obey God's gospel because their judgment will be even more severe than the judgment of righteous people.

1 Peter 4:18ULT

¹⁸ And, "If with difficulty the righteous is being saved, where will the ungodly and sinner appear?"

Who was Peter?

Peter was a fellow elder, a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and a participant in the glory that will be revealed.

What did Peter exhort his fellow elders to do? (vv1-2)

He exhorted them to tend the flock of God and look after them.

1 Peter 5:2

ULT

To whom were the younger men to submit?

They were to submit to the older men.

Why did all of them need to have humility and serve one another? (vv5-7)

Because God gives grace to the humble, and so that God might exalt them in due time.

1 Peter 5:6ULT

⁶ Therefore, humble yourselves under the powerful hand of God so that he may lift you up at a time,

UST

⁶ Since that is true, humble yourselves before God, who has the power {to save and to punish people,} in order that he may honor you at the proper time.

What were the people instructed to do? (vv8-9)

They were instructed to be sober, to be watchful, to stand firm against the devil, and to be strong in their faith.

1 Peter 5:9ULT

⁹ Resist him, firm in the faith, knowing the same kind of sufferings are being brought to completion in your brotherhood in the world.

¹² Through Silvanus, the faithful brother, as I regard {him}, I wrote to you briefly, exhorting and testifying this to be the true grace of God. Stand in it.

UST

¹² Silas has written this letter for me {as I have dictated it to him}. I consider him to be a faithful fellow believer. I have written this short letter to you in order to encourage you and to declare to you that what I have written is about the true and gracious message from God. Continue to firmly believe this message!

As whom did Peter regard Silvanus?

Peter regarded Silvanus as a faithful brother.

What did Peter say about what he had written?

He said that what he had written was the true grace of God.

1 Peter 5:13ULT

¹³ She {who is} in Babylon, fellow-elect one, greets you, and my son Mark.

UST

¹³ In {this city that we call} 'Babylon,' the believers, whom God has chosen {to belong to him} just like he chose you, send their regards to you. Mark, who is like a son to me, also {sends his regards to you}.

Who greeted the believers and how were they to greet one another? (vv13-14)

She who was in Babylon, and Mark, Peter's son in the faith, greeted them; they were to greet one another with a kiss of love.

1 Peter 5:14ULT

¹⁴ Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to you, all those in Christ.

UST

¹⁴ Affectionately greet each other with a kiss to show that you love each other. I pray that God will continue to make all you who are joined to the Messiah feel peaceful.

2 Peter

2 Peter 1

2 Peter 1:1

ULT

¹ Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the ones having received a faith equal in value with us, by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

UST

¹ {I,} Simon Peter, serve Jesus the Messiah, and I am an apostle {whom he appointed}. {I am writing this letter} to you whom God has caused to believe {in the Messiah} just like he caused us {apostles} to believe {in the Messiah}. {Jesus has done this} by his righteous acts. Jesus the Messiah is our God, and he is the one who saves us.

Who wrote 2 Peter?

Simon Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ, wrote the letter or book we call 2 Peter.

To whom did Peter write?

Peter wrote to those who had received the same precious faith.

2 Peter 1:2

ULT

² May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

UST

² I pray that God will increase his kind acts toward you and make you more peaceful because you know God and Jesus, {who is} our Lord.

2 Peter 1:3ULT

³ As his divine power has given to us all the things for life and godliness through the knowledge of the one having called us through his glory and excellence,

UST

³ God has given us everything that we need in order to live a life that honors him. {He does this} by his power as God. {He does this} by what we know about him. God is the one who chose us {to be his people} by his glorious and excellent character.

How were all the things of divine power for life and godliness given to Peter and the recipients of faith?

They were given to them through the knowledge of God.

Why did God give Peter and the recipients of faith all the things of divine power for life and godliness, along with great and precious promises? (vv3-4)

He did that so that they might be sharers in the divine nature.

2 Peter 1:4ULT

⁴ through which he has given to us the precious and great promises so that through them you might be sharers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption in the world by lust,

UST

⁴ {By his glorious and excellent character;} God has promised that he will do priceless and great things for us. {He has done this} so that by {believing in} what he has promised, you will be able to act like God, {and} you will no longer suffer the moral corruption that is in the world through the desire to do sinful things.

2 Peter 1:5ULT

⁵ and now {for} this same {reason}, applying all diligence, supply in your faith, goodness; and in goodness, knowledge;

UST

⁵ Because God has done all that, do your best to not only believe in the Messiah, {but also} to do good things. {And make sure that you not only} do good things, {but that you also} learn more about God.

What were the recipients of faith ultimately supposed to gain through their faith? (vv5-7)

They were ultimately supposed to gain love through their faith.

2 Peter 1:6ULT

⁶ and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control, endurance; and in endurance, godliness;

UST

⁶ {And make sure that you do not only} learn more about God, {but that you also} control yourself {in what you do and say}. {And make sure that you do not only} control yourself {in what you do and say}, {but that you also} remain faithful to God in hardship. {And make sure that you do not only} remain faithful to God in hardship, {but that you also} honor him.

2 Peter 1:7ULT

⁷ and in godliness, brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love.

UST

⁷ {And make sure that you do not only} honor God, {but that you also} show affection to each other as family members. {And make sure that you do not only} show affection to each other as family members, {but that you also} love others.

2 Peter 1:8ULT

⁸ For these things existing and increasing in you cause you to be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

UST

⁸ {Do these things,} because if you do all these things more and more, then they will make you productive with respect to your knowing our Lord Jesus the Messiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 1:9ULT

⁹ For he in whom these things are not present is blind, nearsighted, having received forgetfulness of the cleansing of his past sins.

UST

⁹ {Do these things,} because a person who does not do these things {is not aware that these things are important.} {This person is like} a blind person {who cannot see what is around him,} {or like} a nearsighted person {who can only see things that are close to him.} {This person has even} forgotten that God has forgiven him for the sinful things {he did} in the past.

What has the spiritually blind person forgotten?

He has forgotten the cleansing from his old sins.

2 Peter 1:10ULT

¹⁰ Therefore, brothers, be even more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for doing these things, you will certainly not ever stumble.

UST

¹⁰ Consequently, you fellow believers, make even more effort to make sure that God has chosen you to be his people. If you do these things I have just told you about, then you will absolutely never become separated from God.

If the brothers did their best to make their calling and election sure, what would happen? (vv10-11)

They would not stumble, and an entrance would be granted to them into the eternal kingdom of their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:11ULT

¹¹ For in this way will be richly provided to you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

UST

¹¹ {This is true} because, {by your doing} thus, God will wholeheartedly allow you to enter into the place where our Lord and Savior Jesus the Messiah will rule {his people} forever.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 1:12ULT

¹² Therefore, I will always remind you about these things, although you have known {them} and have been established in the present truth.

UST

¹² Consequently, {because these things are so important,} I am always prepared to keep on reminding you about these things. {I will remind you} even though you already know {them} and are firmly convinced of the true teaching that you now have.

Why did Peter think it was right for him to remind the brothers of these things? (vv12-14)

Because their Lord Jesus Christ had shown him that he would soon remove his tent.

2 Peter 1:13ULT

¹³ But I think {it is} right, as long as I am in this tent, to arouse you in remembrance,

UST

¹³ Nevertheless, I consider it to be right for me to keep reminding you {about these things} as long as I am alive.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 1:14ULT

¹⁴ knowing that the putting off of my tent is imminent, just as also our Lord Jesus Christ revealed this to me.

UST

¹⁴ {I want to remind you of these things,} because I know that I shall die soon. {I shall die} just like our Lord Jesus the Messiah has made clear to me {previously}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 1:15ULT

¹⁵ Likewise, I will be diligent to cause you to always have the remembrance of these things after my departure.

UST

¹⁵ In addition, I will make every effort {by writing these things down} to cause you to keep on remembering these things after I have died.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 1:16ULT

¹⁶ For we did not make known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ {by} having followed cleverly invented myths, but {by} having become eyewitnesses of the majesty of that one.

UST

¹⁶ {I will do this} because, when we apostles told you that our Lord Jesus the Messiah is coming back in power {some day}, we were not basing {what we told you} on stories that we had cleverly made up. On the contrary, {we told you} what we saw with our own eyes, the divinely majestic Jesus.

What did those who were eyewitnesses of Jesus' majesty see? (vv16-17)

They saw that he received honor and glory from God the Father.

2 Peter 1:17ULT

¹⁷ For he has received honor and glory from God the Father, such a voice having been brought to him by the Majestic Glory: "This is my Son, my Beloved, in whom I myself am well pleased."

UST

¹⁷ {I can say we were eyewitnesses} because {we were there when} God the Father honored him and glorified him, {when Jesus heard} a voice from the majestically glorious God. {And the voice said,} "This is my Son, whom I love very much. I am very pleased with him."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 1:18ULT

¹⁸ And we ourselves heard this voice, having been brought from heaven, being with him on the holy mountain.

UST

¹⁸ We ourselves also heard this voice of God that came from heaven when we were with Jesus on that sacred mountain.

2 Peter 1:19ULT

¹⁹ And we have the very certain prophetic word, to which you do well to pay attention, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day might dawn and the morning star might rise in your hearts,

UST

¹⁹ And we have what the prophets wrote {previously}, {which is} absolutely reliable. Pay attention to what they wrote, because it is like a lamp that is shining in a dark place {that helps people see where they are going}. {That light} will shine until the day {of the return of the Messiah} dawns and {Jesus}, the star that appears before the morning, gives your minds greater understanding.

How can we be certain that the prophetic word is sure? (vv19-21)

Because written prophecy does not come from the reasoning of the prophet, nor any prophecy from the will of man, but by men carried along by the Holy Spirit who spoke from God.

2 Peter 1:20ULT

²⁰ knowing this first, that every prophecy of scripture does not come from one's own interpretation.

UST

²⁰ Above all, you should know that no prophet could interpret {his prophecy} by his own imagination.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 1:21ULT

²¹ For no prophecy was ever brought by the will of man, but men being carried along by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

UST

²¹ {This is true} because no one ever prophesied a {true} prophecy according to what a human wanted. On the contrary, those who spoke {prophecies} from God did so by the Holy Spirit guiding them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 2

2 Peter 2:1

ULT

¹ Now false prophets were also among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will bring in heresies of destruction, and denying the master who bought them, bringing swift destruction on themselves.

UST

¹ But people who falsely proclaimed {messages from God} were also amidst the Israelites. In the same way there will also be people who teach false {messages} amidst you. They will introduce opinions {that will result in} eternal condemnation. They will even reject their owner, {Jesus,} who redeemed them. {As a result of this,} God will soon condemn them {for eternity}.

What will false teachers secretly bring to the believers?

False teachers will bring destructive heresies to the believers.

What will come upon the false teachers?

False teachers will bring swift destruction upon themselves.

What will false teachers do with deceptive words? (vv1-3)

False teachers greedily make a profit off of the brothers.

2 Peter 2:2

ULT

² And many will follow their licentious acts, because of whom the way of truth will be slandered.

UST

² And many {people} will do the same unrestrained immoral acts {as these false teachers}. Because of these false teachers, {unbelievers} will speak evil of Christianity.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 2:3

ULT

³ And in greed, they will exploit you with false words, for whom condemnation from long ago is not idle, and their destruction does not sleep.

UST

³ And due to their greedy hearts, {these false teachers} will make a profit off of you by telling you lies. God condemned them a long time ago, and God will certainly destroy them.

2 Peter 2:4ULT

⁴ For if God did not spare angels who had sinned, but, in chains of darkness throwing down to Tartarus, he handed over those being kept for judgment; ^[1]

UST

⁴ {This judgment is certain} because God did not let the angels who acted sinfully remain unpunished. On the contrary, he threw them into hell {where they are} chained in darkness. God imprisoned {these sinful angels} there and is holding them there in order to judge them.

Who did God not spare? (vv4-6)

God did not spare the angels who sinned, the ancient world, and the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah.

2 Peter 2:5ULT

⁵ and he did not spare the ancient world, but protected the eighth, Noah, a preacher of righteousness, having brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly ones;

UST

⁵ And God did not let {the people who lived in} the world long ago remain unpunished. However, he preserved eight people, including Noah, who was a righteous herald, when he destroyed by a flood the ungodly {people who lived in the} world {at that time}.

Who did God preserve in the Flood?

God preserved Noah with seven others.

2 Peter 2:6ULT

⁶ and the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, having reduced to ashes, he condemned to destruction, having set an example {of the things that} are going to happen to the ungodly ones;

UST

⁶ And God condemned the cities {called} Sodom and Gomorrah to be destroyed by burning them completely to ashes. {This resulted in God} making {those cities} an example of what will happen to people who dishonor God.

2 Peter 2:9ULT

⁹ the Lord knows how to rescue godly ones from a trial, and to keep the unrighteous ones to be punished in the day of judgment,

UST

⁹ {Since these things are all true, then you can be sure that} the Lord knows how to rescue people who honor him from being tried. And {the Lord also knows how} to keep those who do unrighteous deeds {ready} {in order} to punish them at the time when he judges.

What did God show by not sparing some and preserving others?

God's actions showed that the Lord knows how to rescue the godly men and how to keep the unrighteous men in custody.

2 Peter 2:10ULT

¹⁰ but especially the ones going after the flesh in {its} lusts of defilement, and despising authority. Audacious ones! Self-willed ones! They do not tremble while insulting glorious ones;

UST

¹⁰ And {he will punish} especially those who keep on doing what their sinful hearts want to do, {which are things that make them} displeasing to God. {These people} also scorn divine authority. How bold {they are}! They do whatever they wish! They are not even afraid to insult God's glorious angels.

Who were the glorious ones the ungodly men were unafraid to blaspheme? (vv10-11)

The glorious one were angels, who do not bring insulting judgments against men to the Lord.

2 Peter 2:11ULT

¹¹ whereas angels, being greater in strength and power, do not bring an insulting judgment against them in the presence of the Lord.

UST

¹¹ But {God's} angels, {even though} they are much more powerful than these people, do not accuse glorious beings in an insulting manner in front of God!

2 Peter 2:12ULT

¹² But these {men}, as unreasoning animals, having by nature been born for capture and destruction, slandering about {those things} in which they are ignorant, they will also be destroyed in their destruction,

UST

¹² However, these {false teachers} are like animals that cannot think rationally. According to the way they naturally behave, they were born so that others may capture and destroy them. They say bad things about things they do not even know. God will surely destroy them when it is time for their destruction.

¹⁴ having eyes full of an adulteress, and never ceasing from sin, enticing unstable souls, having hearts trained in covetousness, children of cursing.

UST

¹⁴ They constantly want to have immoral sexual relations with {every} woman {they see}. They cannot stop sinning. They lure spiritually weak people {into sin}. {As athletes train for sports, these false teachers} train themselves to be greedy. {God} has cursed them!

Who do the false teachers entice?

The false teachers entice unstable souls.

2 Peter 2:15ULT

¹⁵ Abandoning the straight way, they have gone astray, having followed the way of Balaam of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness. ^[3]

UST

¹⁵ They refuse to live the way God wants them to. They are acting wickedly. They are imitating what Balaam, the son of Bosor, did {long ago}. He loved {to receive money as} payment for wicked deeds.

Who stopped the prophet Balaam's insanity? (vv15-16)

A mute donkey speaking in a human voice stopped Balaam.

2 Peter 2:16ULT

¹⁶ But he had a rebuke for his own transgression—a mute donkey, having spoken in a voice of a man, restrained the irrationality of the prophet.

UST

¹⁶ However, God rebuked him for his wicked deed {against Israel}. {And even though donkeys do not speak}, God used {Balaam's} donkey to speak to him with a human voice and stop his foolish action.

¹⁷ These {men} are waterless springs and mists driven by a storm, for whom the gloom of darkness has been reserved.

2 Peter 2:18ULT

¹⁸ For, speaking arrogant things of vanity, they entice by lusts of the flesh, by licentious acts, the ones barely escaping from the ones living in error,

UST

¹⁸ {This is true} because they persuade people to sin who have recently {become believers and} stopped doing what wicked unbelievers do. {These false teachers do this} by speaking proud words that are not worth anything. {They persuade these people to sin} by doing whatever their sinful natures want to do.

2 Peter 2:19ULT

¹⁹ promising freedom to them, while themselves being slaves of destruction. (For by what someone has been overcome, by this he has been enslaved.)

UST

¹⁹ {They also do this} by telling their listeners that they are free to do whatever they want while, at the same time, they themselves are controlled {by their sinful desires} that will destroy them. {This is true} because the thing that overpowers a person's will takes control of that person.

To what is a man a slave?

A man is a slave to whatever overcomes him.

2 Peter 2:20ULT

²⁰ For if, having escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, but, having been entangled again, they have been overcome by these things, for them the last things have become worse than the first things.

UST

²⁰ And if they have stopped doing the things that defile sinful human society by knowing the one who rules over us and saves us, Jesus the Messiah, but those {defiling things} {began to} control them again, {then} their situation is worse now than {it was} at first.

For those who escape the wickedness of the world through the knowledge of Jesus Christ and then return to them, what would be better? (vv20-21)

What would be better is for them not to have known the way of righteousness.

2 Peter 2:21ULT

²¹ For it was better for them not to know the way of righteousness than, having known {it}, to turn away from the holy commandment that has been delivered to them.

UST

²¹ {This is because} it would have been better for them if they had never learned how to live in the way that pleases God than to learn {this way} and reject {God's} holy commands that {the apostles} taught them.

2 Peter 3

2 Peter 3:1

ULT

¹ Beloved ones, this {is} now a second letter I write to you, in which I arouse your pure mind in remembrance,

UST

¹ Fellow believers whom I love, this {letter} that I am now writing to you is the second letter {that I have written to you}. {I have written} both {of these letters to you} to remind you of the things that your sincere minds already know.

Why did Peter write this second letter? (vv1-2)

He wrote so that the beloved might recall the words said before by the prophets and about the command of their Lord and Savior.

2 Peter 3:2

ULT

² to remember the words spoken previously by the holy prophets and the command of the Lord and Savior through your apostles,

UST

² {I have written these letters} in order to remind you of the prophecies that the holy prophets spoke a long time ago. {I also want you} to remember what the one who rules over us and saves us has commanded you through the teaching of the apostles {whom we sent to} you.

2 Peter 3:3

ULT

³ knowing this first, that mockers will come with mockery in the last days, going according to their own lusts,

UST

³ It is important for you to understand that people who mock will come and mock {the return of Jesus} during the time shortly before Jesus returns. {Those people} will do whatever they want to do.

What would mockers say in the last days? (vv3-4)

Mockers would question the promise of Jesus' return and say that all things remain the same since the beginning of creation.

2 Peter 3:4ULT

⁴ and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue in the same way from the beginning of creation."

UST

⁴ {These mockers} will say, "Jesus' promise to return is not true! {We know this} because since Israel's ancestors died, everything has remained the same. It has been the same way since God created everything!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 3:5ULT

⁵ For this is hidden {from} them willingly, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth had been formed out of water and through water by the word of God,

UST

⁵ {They will say this} because they deliberately ignore that God caused the heavens to exist a long time ago by commanding it to be so, and he caused the earth to come out from water and up through water {by commanding it to be so}.

How were the heavens and earth established, and how were they being reserved for fire and for the day of judgment and the destruction of ungodly people? (vv5-7)

They were established and reserved by the word of God.

2 Peter 3:6ULT

⁶ through which the world at that time perished, having been flooded by water.

UST

⁶ And God, by his command and by water, destroyed the world that existed at that time. {He did so} by flooding the earth with water.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 3:7ULT

⁷ But the present heavens and the earth, by the same word, are having been reserved for fire, being kept for a day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly men.

UST

⁷ However, God, by the same command, has set apart the heavens and the earth that exist now for fire. God is keeping them for the time when he will judge and destroy people who act wickedly.

2 Peter 3:8ULT

⁸ But let this one thing not be hidden {from} you, beloved ones, that one day with the Lord {is} like 1,000 years, and 1,000 years {are} like one day.

UST

⁸ Fellow believers whom I love, do not ignore this one truth: from God's perspective a short period of time is no different from a long period of time!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 3:9ULT

⁹ The Lord does not delay {concerning} the promise, as some consider delay, but is patient toward you, not wanting any to perish, but all to move on to repentance.

UST

⁹ The Lord is not acting slowly to fulfill his promise of Jesus' return. Some people think {that this is so}. On the contrary, God is being patient with you, because he does not want any of you to be punished eternally. Rather, he wants everyone to repent.

Why was the Lord patient towards the beloved?

Because he desires that they not perish, but have time for all to repent.

2 Peter 3:10ULT

¹⁰ But the day of the Lord will come as a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be destroyed, being burned up, and the earth and the deeds in it will be found.

UST

¹⁰ In contrast {to what those mockers say}, the time when the Lord returns will come unexpectedly. At that time there will be a great roaring sound and the heavens will cease to exist. God will also destroy the basic elements of nature by fire. Then God will reveal the earth and everything that has been done in it.

How will the day of the Lord come?

The day of the Lord will come like a thief.

2 Peter 3:11ULT

¹¹ All of these things being thus destroyed, of what sort is it necessary for you to be in holy behaviors and godliness,

UST

¹¹ Since God will destroy all these things {I have just mentioned} in the way {I have described}, you must certainly behave in a holy manner and do what pleases God.

Why did Peter ask the beloved what kind of people they should be in respect to holy living and godliness? (vv11-13)

Because the heavens and earth would be destroyed, and because they expected righteousness to live in the new heavens and new earth.

2 Peter 3:12ULT

¹² waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens, being set on fire, will be destroyed, and the elements, being burned up by heat, will be melted?

UST

¹² {Do these things} while expecting and trying to speed up the time of Jesus' return. On account of that day, God will destroy the heavens with fire and melt the basic elements of nature with heat.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 3:13ULT

¹³ But new heavens and a new earth, according to his promise, we are waiting for, in which righteousness dwells.

UST

¹³ {Although all those events will happen,} we are expecting the new heavens and new earth that God has promised to create. Everyone will be righteous in that new universe.

2 Peter 3:14ULT

¹⁴ Therefore, beloved ones, while waiting for these things, be diligent to be found spotless and blameless by him, in peace.

UST

¹⁴ Because this is true, fellow believers whom I love, while you are waiting for these things {to happen}, do your best to make sure that Jesus will see that you are not living sinfully {and that you are} at peace {with God}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Peter 3:15ULT

¹⁵ And consider the patience of our Lord {to be} salvation, just as also our beloved brother Paul wrote to you according to the wisdom having been given to him,

UST

¹⁵ And think about this: Our Lord Jesus is patient so that more people can be saved. Paul, a fellow believer whom we love, has also said this when he wrote to you. He wrote using the wisdom that God gave him.

What will happen to ignorant and unknowledgeable men who distort the wisdom given to Paul and distort other Scriptures? (vv15-16)

Their actions will result in their own destruction.

2 Peter 3:16ULT

¹⁶ as also in all the letters, speaking in them about these things, in which are some difficult to understand things, which the ignorant and unstable distort, as also the other scriptures, to their own destruction.

UST

¹⁶ In all the letters that Paul wrote, he also writes about these things {that I have just mentioned}. In his letters are also some {teachings} that are difficult to understand. People who lack knowledge and stability misinterpret those difficult teachings, as well as the rest of the scriptures. {God} will punish them as a result.

2 Peter 3:17ULT

¹⁷ Therefore, you beloved ones, knowing beforehand, guard yourselves, so that you might not lose your own steadfastness, having been led astray by the error of the lawless ones.

UST

¹⁷ Because all these things are true, fellow believers whom I love, and because you already know about these things, keep yourselves from ceasing to live faithfully because you let the wrong teaching of those who live like there is no law deceive you into sinning.

Rather than being led astray by deceit and losing their own faithfulness, what did Peter command the beloved to do? (vv17-18)

He commanded them to grow in the grace and knowledge of their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 3:18ULT

¹⁸ But grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him {be} the glory both now and to the day of the age. Amen!

UST

¹⁸ Rather, live in such a manner that you experience more and more of the kind acts of the one who rules over us and saves us, Jesus the Messiah. And live in such a manner that you know more and more about him. I pray that everyone will glorify Jesus both at this time and forever. May this truly be so!

1 John

1 John 1

1 John 1:1

ULT

¹ What was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have touched, regarding the Word of life—

UST

¹ {I, John, am writing to you} about {Jesus,} the Word {of God}, the one who gives life. He existed before there was anything else. We {apostles} listened to him {as he taught people}. We saw him personally. We looked at him and touched him. {So we can testify that he was a real human being.}

By what means did John know about the Word of life?

John had heard, seen, contemplated, and handled the Word of life.

1 John 1:2

ULT

² indeed, the life appeared, and we have seen {it}, and we are testifying {to it}, and we are announcing to you the eternal life that was with the Father and appeared to us—

UST

² Because he came here to the earth and we saw him, we are proclaiming him to you clearly. The one who has always existed, who had been with his Father in heaven, came here to us.

Where was eternal life before it was manifested to John?

Eternal life was with the Father before it was manifested to John.

1 John 1:3ULT

³ what we have seen and heard, we declare also to you, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And indeed, our fellowship {is} with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ.

UST

³ We want you to share life with us, and so we are proclaiming to you what we saw {Jesus do} and what we heard {Jesus say}. {If you believe in him,} you will share life, as we do, with God our Father and with his Son Jesus the Messiah.

Why is John declaring what he has seen and heard?

John is declaring what he has seen and heard so that others may also have fellowship with him.

With whom does John already have fellowship?

John already has fellowship with the Father and his Son, Jesus Christ.

1 John 1:4ULT

⁴ And we are writing these things so that our joy may be fulfilled. ^[1]

UST

⁴ I am writing to you about these things so that {you will recognize that they are true, and that as a result} we will be completely joyful together.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 1:5ULT

⁵ And this is the message that we have heard from him and are announcing to you, that God is light, and darkness is not in him at all.

UST

⁵ The message that we heard from Jesus and are proclaiming to you is this: God always does what is right, and he never, ever does anything wrong. He is like a pure light in which there is no darkness at all.

What is the message from God that John is announcing to his readers?

John is announcing the message that God is light, and in him there is no darkness at all.

1 John 1:6ULT

⁶ If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we are lying and we are not doing the truth.

UST

⁶ If we say that we share life with God, but we live in an evil manner, we are lying. We are not living truthfully. It is as though we are living in the dark.

What does John say about a person who says he has fellowship with God, but walks in darkness?

John says that such a person is a liar and does not practice the truth.

1 John 1:7ULT

⁷ But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

UST

⁷ But if we live in a pure manner, as God is pure in every way, then we can share life with each other. This is like living in God's pure light. Then God forgives all of our sin and accepts us because his Son Jesus died for us.

What cleanses all the sin of those walking in the light?

The blood of Jesus cleanses them from all sin.

1 John 1:8ULT

⁸ If we say that we have no sin, we are leading ourselves astray, and the truth is not in us.

UST

⁸ If we say that we do not commit sin, we are fooling ourselves. We are refusing to believe the true things {that God says about us}.

What do we do to ourselves if we say we have no sin?

If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

1 John 1:9ULT

⁹ If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous, that he should forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

UST

⁹ But God always does what he says he will do, and what he does is always right. So if we admit to him that we have sinned {and reject that sin}, he will forgive us for our sins and he will free us from {the guilt of} everything that we have done wrong.

What will God do for those who confess their sins?

For those who confess their sins, God will forgive their sins and cleanse them from all unrighteousness.

1 John 1:10ULT

¹⁰ If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.
1:4 ^[1]

UST

¹⁰ {Because God says that everyone has sinned,} if we say that we have not sinned, we are speaking as if God were a liar! We are rejecting what God has said about us!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 21 John 2:1*ULT

¹ My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. And if anyone would sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

UST

¹ You are as dear to me as though you were my own children. Therefore, I am writing this to you to keep you from sinning. But if any of you does sin, {remember that} Jesus the Messiah, the righteous one, pleads with the Father {and asks him to forgive us}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:2ULT

² And he is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world.

UST

² Jesus is the one who sacrificed his life for us so that God could forgive our sins. And this is true not just of our sins, but of all the sins that all people everywhere have committed!

For whom is Jesus Christ the propitiation for their sins?

Jesus Christ is the propitiation for the sins for the whole world.

1 John 2:3ULT

³ And in this we know that we have known him, if we keep his commandments.

UST

³ When we obey what God commands us to do, then we can be sure that we have come to have a close relationship with God.

How do we know that we have known Jesus Christ?

We know that we have known him if we keep his commandments.

1 John 2:4ULT

⁴ The one who says, "I know him," and is not keeping his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in this one.

UST

⁴ If someone says, "I am living in close relationship with God," but that person does not obey what God has commanded, then he is a liar. He is not conducting his life according to God's true message.

What kind of person says he knows God, but does not keep God's commandments?

A liar says he knows God, but does not keep God's commandments.

1 John 2:5ULT

⁵ But whoever keeps his word, in this one truly the love of God has been perfected. In this we know that we are in him:

UST

⁵ But if someone obeys what God has commanded, that person loves God in every way. This is how we can be sure that we have a close relationship with God:

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:6ULT

⁶ the one saying he remains in him ought, just as that one walked, also to walk himself.

UST

⁶ If anyone says that he has a close relationship with God, then he should conduct his life as Jesus did {when he was here on earth}.

How should a person walk if he says he remains in Christ?

He should walk even as Jesus Christ walked.

1 John 2:7ULT

⁷ Beloved, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment, which you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word that you heard.

UST

⁷ Dear friends, I am not writing this to tell you to do something new. Instead, I am writing this to tell you to do something that you have known that you should do since you first believed {in Jesus}. This is {part of} the message that {Jesus gave to us and that} we have already told to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:8ULT

⁸ Again, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is going away, and the true light is already shining.

UST

⁸ However, if we think about this in another way, I am telling you to do something new. It is new because the way that the Messiah lived was new, and the way that you are living is new. That is because you are ceasing to do evil, and you are doing good more and more. It is as though you have come out of a dark place and have begun to live in the light that is from God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:9ULT

⁹ The one saying he is in the light and hating his brother is in the darkness until now.

UST

⁹ Someone might say that he is living in a good way, just as God wants him to do. That would be like living in light from God. But if he hates any of his fellow believers, then he is still living in a bad way, doing what God does not want, like a person who lives in darkness.

What is the spiritual condition of someone who says he is in the light, but hates his brother?

Someone who says he is in the light, but hates his brother, is in the darkness.

1 John 2:10ULT

¹⁰ The one loving his brother remains in the light and a stumbling block is not in him.

UST

¹⁰ But if someone loves his fellow believers, then he is truly living well, like a person who is living in light from God. He will not have a reason to do anything evil {as he would have if he hated a fellow believer}. This is like a person in daylight who has no reason to trip over anything.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:11ULT

¹¹ But the one hating his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and he does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

UST

¹¹ But anyone who hates a fellow believer is living in a completely wrong way. He does not understand how he should live, because the wrong things that he is doing are keeping him from understanding God's way. It is as though he is walking in darkness and cannot see where to go.

What is the spiritual condition of someone who hates his brother?

Someone who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness.

1 John 2:12ULT

¹² I am writing to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven because of his name.

UST

¹² I am writing to you, whom I love as though you were my own children, because God has forgiven your sins because of what Jesus has done for you.

Why does God forgive the sins of believers?

God forgives the sins of believers because of his name.

1 John 2:13ULT

¹³ I am writing to you, fathers, because you know the one {who is} from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one.

UST

¹³ I am writing to you who have been believers longer than the others. I am writing to you because you have a close relationship with {Jesus,} the person who has always been alive. I am writing to you newer, but steadfast, believers because Satan, that evil being, has tried to tempt you to do wrong, but you have successfully resisted him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:14ULT

¹⁴ I have written to you, young children, because you know the Father. I have written to you, fathers, because you know the one {who is} from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

UST

¹⁴ I have written to you whom I love as though you were my own little children because you have a close relationship with God the Father. I have written to you who have been believers longer than the others because you have a close relationship with {Jesus,} the person who has always been alive. I have written to you newer, but steadfast, believers because you are spiritually strong. I have also written to you because you continue to obey what God commands and because you have successfully resisted {Satan,} that evil being{,} when he tried to tempt you to do wrong.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:15ULT

¹⁵ Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

UST

¹⁵ Do not desire to be like people who do not honor God. Do not desire the things that they want to have. If anyone desires to be like those people, {he is proving that} he does not love God the Father.

What should the attitude of a believer be toward the things of the world?

A believer must not love the world nor the things of the world.

1 John 2:16ULT

¹⁶ For everything that {is} in the world—the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the arrogance of life—is not from the Father but is from the world.

UST

¹⁶ {I say that such a person does not love God the Father} because the way that ungodly people live is not the way that God our Father teaches us to live. They want to fulfill their physical desires. They want to get for themselves the things that they see. They boast about all of the things that they own. All of these things come from the selfish and ungodly way of thinking.

What are three things that come from the world rather than from the Father?

The lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the vain glory of life are from the world, and not from the Father.

1 John 2:17ULT

¹⁷ And the world is going away, and its desire, but the one doing the will of God remains to eternity.

UST

¹⁷ The people who do not honor God will disappear, along with all of the things that they desire. But the people who do what God wants them to do will live forever!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:18ULT

¹⁸ Young children, it is the last hour, and just as you heard that antichrist is coming, indeed now many antichrists have come, by which we know that it is the last hour.

UST

¹⁸ You who are as dear to me as though you were my own children, {I want you to know that} this is the time just before Jesus returns to earth. You have already heard that a person is coming who will strongly oppose the Messiah. In fact, many people like that, who are against the true Messiah, are already here. Because of this, we know that it is that time.

What do we know about the Antichrist?

We know that he is coming.

How do we know that it is the last hour?

We know it is the last hour because many antichrists have come.

1 John 2:19ULT

¹⁹ They went out from us, but they were not from us. For if they had been from us, they would have remained with us, but so that they would be made apparent that they are all not from us.

UST

¹⁹ These people refused to remain in our congregations. However, they never really belonged with us in the first place. After all, if they had belonged with us, they would not have left us. But {when they left us,} then we clearly saw that none of them had actually joined with us.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:20ULT

²⁰ And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know. ^[1]

UST

²⁰ But as for you, the Holy Messiah has given you his Spirit. As a result, you all know {what is true}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:21ULT

²¹ I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it and that every lie is not from the truth.

UST

²¹ I am not writing this letter to you because you do not know the true things {that God has told us}, but because you do know them. You also know enough to recognize and reject every lie that is not one of the true things {that God has told us}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:22ULT

²² Who is the liar if not the one denying that Jesus is the Christ? This one is the antichrist, the one denying the Father and the Son.

UST

²² The worst liars are the ones who deny that Jesus is the Messiah. All who do that are against the Messiah. They are refusing to believe both in God the Father and in Jesus his Son.

How will we recognize the Antichrist?

The Antichrist will deny the Father and the Son.

1 John 2:23ULT

²³ Everyone denying the Son does not have the Father. The one confessing the Son also has the Father.

UST

²³ Those who refuse to acknowledge that Jesus is God's Son are in no way joined with God the Father. But those who acknowledge that Jesus is God's Son are also joined with God the Father.

Can someone deny the Son and yet have the Father?

No, someone who denies the Son cannot have the Father.

1 John 2:24ULT

²⁴ {As for} you, what you have heard from the beginning, let {it} remain in you. If what you have heard from the beginning remains in you, you will also remain in the Son and in the Father.

UST

²⁴ Here is what you must do{, unlike those people who deny Jesus}. You must continue to believe and live by the truth about Jesus the Messiah that you first heard. If you continue to believe and live by the truth about Jesus the Messiah that you first heard, then you will continue to share life with Jesus the Son and God the Father.

What must believers do in order to remain in the Son and in the Father?

They must remain in what they have heard from the beginning.

1 John 2:25ULT

²⁵ And this is the promise that he promised to us—eternal life.

UST

²⁵ And what God promised us is that he will enable us to live forever!

What promise has been given the believers by God?

God has promised everlasting life to the believers.

1 John 2:26ULT

²⁶ I have written these things to you about the ones leading you astray.

UST

²⁶ I am writing this letter to you to warn you about people who want to deceive you {about Jesus}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:27ULT

²⁷ And {as for} you, the anointing that you received from him remains in you, and you do not have need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, remain in him.

UST

²⁷ Here is what you should do {about those people who are trying to deceive you}. God's Spirit, whom you received from Jesus, continues to live in you. So you do not need anyone else to be your teacher. God's Spirit is teaching you everything that you need to know. He always teaches the truth, and never says anything that is false. So continue to live in the way that he has taught you and continue to share life with Jesus.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 2:28ULT

²⁸ And now, little children, remain in him, so that whenever he appears, we may have boldness and not be put to shame by him at his coming.

UST

²⁸ Now, my dear ones, {I urge you to} continue to share life with Jesus. That way, when he comes back again, we will be confident {that he will accept us}. {If we do that,} we will not be ashamed to stand before him when he returns.

What attitudes will we have when Christ appears if we remain in him?

If we remain in him, we will have boldness and will not be ashamed when Christ appears.

1 John 2:29

ULT

²⁹ If you know that he is righteous, you also know that everyone doing righteousness has been begotten from him.

2:20 ^[1]

UST

²⁹ Since you know that God always does what is right, you know that all those who continue doing what is right are the ones who have become God's spiritual children.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 3

1 John 3:1

ULT

¹ See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God, and we are. ^[1] For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know him.

UST

¹ Think about how much God our Father loves us! He says that we are his children. In a spiritual sense, this is completely true. That is why people who are unbelievers do not understand us. It is because they have not understood who God is, and we take after him just as children take after their parents.

How has the Father expressed his love to believers?

He has made it possible for them to be called children of God.

1 John 3:2

ULT

² Beloved, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been revealed. We know that whenever he appears, we will be like him because we will see him just as he is.

UST

² Dear friends, at present we are God's spiritual children. He has not yet shown us what we will be {in the future}. {However,} we know that when Jesus comes back again, we will become like him because we will see him as he truly is.

What will happen to believers when Christ is revealed?

When Christ is revealed, believers will be like Christ because they will see him as he is.

1 John 3:3

ULT

³ And everyone having this hope upon him purifies himself, just as that one is pure.

UST

³ So all those who confidently expect to see Jesus as he truly is make themselves free from sin because Jesus himself is free from sin.

What action concerning himself should be taken by every believer who hopes in Christ?

Every believer who hopes in Christ should purify himself.

1 John 3:4ULT

⁴ Everyone committing sin also commits lawlessness. Indeed, sin is lawlessness.

UST

⁴ But everyone who continues to sin is refusing to obey God's laws, because that is what sinning is; it is refusing to obey God's laws.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 3:5ULT

⁵ And you know that that one appeared so that he might take away sins, and sin is not in him.

UST

⁵ You know that Jesus came in order to make us free from our sins. {You know} also {that} he himself never sinned.

What does Christ not have in himself?

Christ has no sin in himself.

1 John 3:6ULT

⁶ Everyone remaining in him does not sin. Everyone sinning has not seen him and has not known him.

UST

⁶ Those who share life with Jesus do not continue sinning. But all those who continue to sin have not understood who Jesus is and they do not really know him.

If a person continues to sin, what does that tell us about their relationship to God?

It tells us they have neither seen Christ, nor known him.

1 John 3:7ULT

⁷ Little children, let no one lead you astray. The one doing righteousness is righteous, just as that one is righteous.

UST

⁷ So I urge you who are very dear to me not to let anyone deceive you {by telling you that it is all right to sin}. If you continue doing what is right, that will please God, just as Jesus always does what pleases God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 3:8ULT

⁸ The one committing sin is from the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this reason the Son of God appeared, so that he might destroy the works of the devil.

UST

⁸ But anyone who continues to sin is behaving like the devil, because the devil has always been sinning, ever since the world began. The very reason that God's Son became a human being was to undo this work of the devil {that kept people continually sinning}.

For what reason was the Son of God revealed?

The Son of God was revealed in order to destroy the works of the devil.

1 John 3:9ULT

⁹ Everyone having been begotten from God does not commit sin, because his seed remains in him. And he is not able to sin, because he has been begotten from God.

UST

⁹ People do not continue sinning if they have become spiritual children of God because God has made them to be like him. They cannot continually sin, because they are God's spiritual children.

Why is the one who is begotten from God not able to continue to sin?

He is not able to continue to sin because God's seed remains in him.

1 John 3:10ULT

¹⁰ In this the children of God and the children of the devil are apparent: Everyone not doing righteousness is not from God, and the one not loving his brother.

UST

¹⁰ People who belong to God are clearly different from people who belong to the devil. Those who do not do what is right do not belong to God. Those who do not love their fellow believers also do not belong to God.

How are the children of the devil apparent?

The children of the devil are apparent because they do not do righteousness and they do not love their brother.

1 John 3:11ULT

¹¹ For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another,

UST

¹¹ {You should recognize this because} the message that you heard when you first believed in Jesus is that we should love each other.

What is the message that we have heard from the beginning?

The message is that we should love one another.

1 John 3:12ULT

¹² not like Cain, {who} was from the evil one and killed his brother. And on account of what did he kill him? Because his works were evil, but those of his brother, righteous.

UST

¹² We should not hate others as {Adam's son} Cain did. He belonged to {Satan,} that evil being. Cain murdered his {younger} brother {Abel}. I will tell you why he did that. It was because Cain behaved in an evil way, and {he hated his younger brother because} his younger brother behaved in the right way.

How did Cain demonstrate that he was from the evil one?

Cain demonstrated that he was from the evil one by murdering his brother.

1 John 3:13ULT

¹³ Do not be amazed, brothers, if the world hates you.

UST

¹³ Therefore, my fellow believers, you should not be amazed when unbelievers hate you.

What does John say should not amaze believers?

John says believers should not be amazed that the world hates them.

1 John 3:14ULT

¹⁴ We know that we have relocated from death into life, because we love the brothers. The one not loving remains in death.

UST

¹⁴ We love our fellow believers, and this assures us that God has made us spiritually alive. But if someone does not love {other believers}, then that person is still spiritually dead.

What attitude demonstrates that we have relocated from death to life?

We know we have relocated from death to life because we love the brothers.

1 John 3:15ULT

¹⁵ Everyone hating his brother is a murderer, and you know that every murderer does not have eternal life remaining in him.

UST

¹⁵ Anyone who hates one of his fellow believers is doing something just as bad as murdering him. And you know that someone who murders another person is not living in the new way that God enables us to live.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 3:16ULT

¹⁶ In this we have known love, that that one laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.

UST

¹⁶ Jesus taught us how to truly love each other when he willingly died for us. For our part, we should also be willing to do anything for our fellow believers, even die for them.

How have we known love?

We have known love because Christ laid down his life for us.

1 John 3:17ULT

¹⁷ But whoever has the possessions of the world and sees his brother having need and closes his entrails from him, how does the love of God remain in him?

UST

¹⁷ Many of us have the things that are necessary for life in this world. But suppose that we become aware that a fellow believer does not have what he needs. Suppose also that we refuse to provide for him. Then we are not loving him the way that God taught us to love {people}.

What indicates that a person does not have the love of God in him?

When someone who is rich sees a brother in need, but does not help him, the love of God does not remain in that person.

1 John 3:18ULT

¹⁸ Little children, let us not love in word nor in tongue, but in deed and truth.

UST

¹⁸ You who are as dear to me as though you were my own children, let us not {merely} say that we love {each other}. Let us love {each other} genuinely by helping {each other}.

What are two ways in which it is insufficient for us to love?

If it is not enough for us to love only in word or tongue.

What are two ways in which we should love?

We should love in deed and in truth.

1 John 3:19ULT

¹⁹ In this we will know that we are from the truth, and we will persuade our hearts before him,

UST

¹⁹⁻²⁰ By doing that, we can know that we belong to God, who is the source of everything that is true. When we are in God's presence, we may feel that we do not belong to God because of our sins. When that happens, we can reassure ourselves that we truly do belong to him. This is because God is more trustworthy than our feelings and he knows everything about us{, including that we have trusted in him}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 3:20ULT

²⁰ that if our heart condemns {us}, that God is greater than our heart and knows everything.

UST

¹⁹⁻²⁰ By doing that, we can know that we belong to God, who is the source of everything that is true. When we are in God's presence, we may feel that we do not belong to God because of our sins. When that happens, we can reassure ourselves that we truly do belong to him. This is because God is more trustworthy than our feelings and he knows everything about us{, including that we have trusted in him}.

1 John 3:21ULT

²¹ Beloved, if the heart does not condemn, we have confidence toward God

UST

²¹ Dear friends, when we feel that God does not condemn us {for having sinned}, then we can pray confidently to God.

What do we have if our heart does not condemn us?

If our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God.

1 John 3:22ULT

²² and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and we do the pleasing things before him.

UST

²² We find that when we pray confidently to God and ask for something, he gives it to us. {We pray confidently like this} because {as people who belong to him,} we do what he commands us to do, and we do what pleases him.

1 John 3:23ULT

²³ And this is his commandment: that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another just as he gave us a commandment.

UST

²³ I will tell you what God commands us to do. We must trust in his Son, Jesus the Messiah. We must also love each other just as Jesus commanded us to do.

What is the commandment that God has given to us?

God's commandment is that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another.

1 John 3:24ULT

²⁴ And the one keeping his commandments remains in him, and he in him. And in this we know that he remains in us, from the Spirit whom he gave to us.

3:1 ^[1]

UST

²⁴ The people who do what God commands share life with God, and God shares life with them. I will tell you how we can be sure that God is sharing life with us. We can be sure of that because we have God's Spirit, whom he gave to us.

How do believers know that God remains in them?

God has given believers the Spirit so that they know God remains in them.

1 John 4

1 John 4:1

ULT

¹ Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

UST

¹ Dear friends, there are many people who have a false message, and they are going around teaching it to others. So do not trust every teacher. Instead, think carefully about what each teacher says and decide whether it came from God's Spirit {or from a different spirit}.

Why should believers not believe every spirit?

They should not believe every spirit because there are many false prophets that have gone out into the world.

1 John 4:2

ULT

² In this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ having come in the flesh is from God,

UST

² I will tell you how to know if someone is teaching truth that comes from the Spirit of God {or if he is not}. Those who affirm that Jesus the Messiah came from God and became a human like us are teaching a message that is from God.

How can you know the Spirit of God?

Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God.

1 John 4:3

ULT

³ and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. And this is that of the antichrist, which you have heard about, that it is coming, and it is now already in the world. ^[1]

UST

³ But those who do not affirm {that} Jesus {became a real human being} are not teaching a message from God. They are teachers who oppose the Messiah. You have heard that people like that will be coming {among us}. Even now they are already here.

What spirit does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh?

The spirit of an antichrist does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh.

1 John 4:4ULT

⁴ You are from God, little children, and you have overcome them because greater is the one in you than the one in the world.

UST

⁴ As for you who are as dear to me as though you were my own children, you belong to God, and you have rejected what those people teach. You have done this because God, who enables you to do what he wants, is more powerful than the devil, who motivates everyone who does not honor God.

How are believers able to overcome spirits that are not from God?

We can overcome them because the spirit in us is greater than the one in the world.

1 John 4:5ULT

⁵ They are from the world. Because of this, they speak from the world, and the world listens to them.

UST

⁵ As for those people who are teaching what is false, they think and live in ways that do not honor God. That is why what they say also does not honor God, and that is why other people who do not honor God believe what they say.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 4:6ULT

⁶ We are from God. The one knowing God listens to us. Whoever is not from God does not listen to us. From this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

UST

⁶ As for us, God has sent us. Whoever lives in relationship with God believes and obeys what we teach. Whoever does not live in relationship with God does not believe or obey what we teach. That difference enables us to distinguish between people who teach true messages from God's Spirit and people who teach false messages from the devil.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 4:7ULT

⁷ Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and everyone loving has been begotten from God and knows God.

UST

⁷ Dear friends, we must love each other. This is what God wants for us, and it is because he loves {us} that we can love {others}. Those who love {their fellow believers} have become God's spiritual children and are living in relationship with him.

Why should believers love one another?

Believers should love one another because love is from God, and the one who is begotten from God loves.

1 John 4:8ULT

⁸ The one not loving does not know God, for God is love.

UST

⁸ God's character is to love {people}. So whoever does not love {others} is not living in relationship with God.

How does the one who does not love demonstrate that he does not know God?

People who know God love because God is love.

1 John 4:9ULT

⁹ In this the love of God appeared among us, that God sent his Son, the One and Only, into the world so that we might live through him.

UST

⁹ I will tell you how God has shown us that he loves us. He sent his only Son to this earth so that his Son would enable us to live eternally because of what he did for us.

How did God reveal his love for us?

God revealed his love for us by sending his only begotten Son into the world.

For what purpose did the Father send his Son?

The Father sent his Son so that we might live through him.

1 John 4:10ULT

¹⁰ In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son {as the} propitiation for our sins.

UST

¹⁰ I will tell you what loving {someone} really means. Our efforts to love God do not define what it means to love {someone}. No, God himself did that by loving us so much that he sent his Son to offer himself as a sacrifice in our place. When Jesus did that, God could forgive the sins of people who trust in Jesus instead of punishing them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 4:11ULT

¹¹ Beloved, if God thus loved us, we also ought to love one another.

UST

¹¹ Dear friends, since God loves us like that, we certainly ought to love each other!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 4:12ULT

¹² No one has ever seen God. If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is perfected in us.

UST

¹² No one has ever seen God. Nevertheless, when we love each other, we can see that God lives within us and that he is the one who enables us to love others, just as he intended for us to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 4:13ULT

¹³ In this we know that we remain in him and he in us: that he has given us of his Spirit.

UST

¹³ This is how we can be sure that we are sharing life with God and that God is sharing life with us: He has given us his own Spirit.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 4:14ULT

¹⁴ Indeed, we have seen and we testify that the Father sent the Son {as the} Savior of the world.

UST

¹⁴ We {apostles} have seen God's Son {Jesus on earth}, and we solemnly tell others that the Father sent him to save the people in the world {from suffering eternally for their sins}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 4:15ULT

¹⁵ Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him and he in God.

UST

¹⁵ So God continues to share life with those who say the truth about Jesus. They say, "He is the Son of God." And so they continue to share life with God.

If God remains in a person and he remains in God, what does that person confess about Jesus?

The person who remains in God confesss that Jesus is the Son of God.

1 John 4:16ULT

¹⁶ And we have known and believed the love that God has in us. God is love, and the one remaining in love remains in God, and God remains in him.

UST

¹⁶ We have experienced how God loves us and we believe that he loves us. Because God's nature is to love people, those who continue to love others share life with God, and God shares life with them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 4:17ULT

¹⁷ In this, love has been perfected with us so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment because, just as that one is, we also are in this world.

UST

¹⁷ When we continue to share life with God, then God has achieved his purpose in loving us. As a result, when the time comes for God to judge us, we will be confident {that he will not condemn us}. This is because we are {loving others as we live} in this world just as Jesus does.

What attitude will the love of God cause us to have on the day of judgment?

The love of God will cause us to have confidence on the day of judgment.

1 John 4:18ULT

¹⁸ Fear is not in love, but perfect love throws fear outside, because fear has punishment. So the one fearing has not been perfected in love.

UST

¹⁸ We will not be afraid {of God} if we truly love him, because those who love {God} completely cannot be afraid {of him}. We would be afraid only if we thought that he would punish us. So those who are afraid {of God} have not completely understood how much he loves them, and they are not loving {God} completely.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 4:19ULT

¹⁹ We love because he first loved us.

UST

¹⁹ We love {God and others} because God loved us first.

How are we able to love?

We love because God first loved us.

1 John 4:20ULT

²⁰ If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar. For the one not loving his brother, whom he has seen, is not able to love God, whom he has not seen.

UST

²⁰ People are lying if they say that they love God but they also hate a fellow believer. After all, we can see our fellow believers. But we have not seen God. So those who do not love one of their fellow believers certainly cannot be loving God, {because it is much easier to love someone whom you can see than someone whom you cannot see}.

If someone hates his brother, what relationship does he have with God?

Someone who hates his brother is not able to love God.

1 John 4:21ULT

²¹ Indeed, we have this commandment from him, that the one loving God should also love his brother.
4:3 ^[1]

UST

²¹ Keep in mind that this is what God has commanded us: If we love him, we must also love our fellow believers.

How should the one who loves God treat his brother?

The one who loves God should also love his brother.

1 John 5

1 John 5:1

ULT

¹ Everyone believing that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten from God, and everyone loving the one begetting also loves the one having been begotten from him.

UST

¹ All those who believe that Jesus is the Messiah are spiritually children of God. Now, whoever loves anyone who is a father {certainly} loves his child also. {So if we believe in Jesus, then we love God, and therefore we should also love our fellow believers.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 5:2

ULT

² In this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and we keep his commandments.

UST

² We can be sure that we truly love others who believe that Jesus is the Messiah when we love God and do what he commands us to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 5:3

ULT

³ For this is the love of God, that we should keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome.

UST

³ I am saying this because what loving God really means is that we do what he commands us to do. And it is not difficult to do what he commands us to do.

How do we demonstrate that we love God?

We demonstrate that we love God when we keep his commandments.

1 John 5:4ULT

⁴ For everyone who has been begotten from God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world, our faith.

UST

⁴ Here is the reason why it is not difficult for us to do what God commands. All of us who have become God's spiritual children have been able to refuse to do what unbelievers want us to do. There is one reason why we are stronger than everything that is against God. It is because we trust in Jesus.

What is the victory that has overcome the world?

Faith is the victory that has overcome the world.

1 John 5:5ULT

⁵ But who is the one overcoming the world if not the one believing that Jesus is the Son of God?

UST

⁵ I will tell you who is stronger than everything that is against God: It is anyone who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 5:6ULT

⁶ This is the one having come by water and blood: Jesus Christ—not in water alone, but in water and in blood. And the Spirit is the one testifying, because the Spirit is truth.

UST

⁶ Jesus the Messiah is the one who came {to earth from God}, experiencing both {the} water {of his baptism} and {the} blood {of his death on the cross}. God showed that he had truly sent Jesus not only {when John baptized Jesus} in water, but also when Jesus' blood flowed from his body {when he died}. And God's Spirit declares {truthfully that Jesus the Messiah did these things}, because the Spirit always tells the truth.

By what two things did Jesus Christ come?

Jesus Christ came by water and by blood.

1 John 5:7ULT

⁷ For there are three who are testifying: ^[1]

UST

⁷ So there are three ways by which we know {that Jesus is the Messiah who came from God}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 5:8ULT

⁸ the Spirit and the water and the blood, and the three are unto the one. ^[2]

UST

⁸ {Those three ways are:} what God's Spirit tells us, what happened {when John baptized Jesus} in water, and what happened when {Jesus'} blood flowed {from his body when he died on the cross}. These three things all tell us the same thing{, that Jesus came from God}.

What three things testify about Jesus Christ?

The Spirit, the water, and the blood all testify about Jesus Christ.

1 John 5:9ULT

⁹ If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater. For this is the testimony of God, that he has testified about his Son.

UST

⁹ We rely on what people tell us when we have to decide about something. But we can certainly rely much more on what God tells us. So let me tell you what God has told us about who his Son is.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 5:10ULT

¹⁰ The one believing in the Son of God has the testimony in him. The one not believing God has made him a liar because he has not believed in the testimony that God has testified about his Son.

UST

¹⁰ {First, however, let me say that} those who trust in the Son of God already know that what God says about him is true. But those who do not believe what God says are calling him a liar because they have refused to believe what God has testified about his Son.

If someone does not believe the testimony of God concerning his Son, what do they make God to be?

Anyone who does not believe the testimony of God concerning his Son makes God to be a liar.

1 John 5:11ULT

¹¹ And this is the testimony: that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

UST

¹¹ Now this is what God has told us {about who his Son is}: "I gave you eternal life, and my Son is the one who makes this life possible."

What has God given us in his Son?

God has given us everlasting life in his Son.

1 John 5:12ULT

¹² The one having the Son has life. The one not having the Son of God does not have life.

UST

¹² Those who share life with God's Son {Jesus} have begun to live forever {with God}. Those who do not share life with God's Son have not begun to live forever.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 5:13ULT

¹³ I have written these things to you, the ones believing in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

UST

¹³ Because I want you to know that you will live forever, I have written this letter to you. This is for you who believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 5:14ULT

¹⁴ And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us.

UST

¹⁴ I also want you to know that we can be very confident that God wants to do what we ask of him when we pray for what he desires.

What confidence do believers have before God?

Believers have confidence that if they ask anything according to God's will, he hears them.

1 John 5:15ULT

¹⁵ And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we may request, we know that we have the requests that we have requested from him.

UST

¹⁵ Since we know that God wants to give us whatever we ask of him, {if it is what he desires,} then we also know that God is already giving us what we ask of him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 5:16ULT

¹⁶ If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not toward death, he will ask, and he will give him life, for the ones sinning not toward death. There is a sin toward death; I am not saying that he should pray about that.

UST

¹⁶ For example, suppose someone sees one of his fellow believers sinning in a way that would not separate him from God eternally. Then he should ask {God to restore the one who is sinning}. If he does that, then God will bring that person back into spiritual life with himself. However, I am saying this only about people who are sinning in a way that would not separate them from God eternally. There is sin that causes people to separate from God eternally. I am not saying that you should pray for people who are sinning in that way.

What should a believer do when he sees his brother committing a sin not to death?

A believer who sees his brother committing a sin not to death should pray that God will give his brother life.

1 John 5:17ULT

¹⁷ All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not toward death.

UST

¹⁷ Every wrong thing that people do is a sin {against God}, but there are some sins that will not separate a person from God eternally.

What is all unrighteousness?

All unrighteousness is sin.

1 John 5:18ULT

¹⁸ We know that everyone having been begotten from God does not sin, but the One having been begotten from God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him.

UST

¹⁸ We know that everyone who has become God's spiritual son or daughter does not continually sin. Instead, the Son of God protects that person so that Satan, that evil being, does not harm him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 John 5:19ULT

¹⁹ We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the evil one.

UST

¹⁹ We know that we belong to God. We also know that Satan, that evil being, is controlling all the people who are unbelievers.

Where does the whole world lie?

The whole world lies in the evil one.

1 John 5:20ULT

²⁰ But we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know the True One. And we are in the True One, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life.

UST

²⁰ We also know that the Son of God has come among us and has made it possible for us to understand {what is true}. He did this so that we can truly know the genuine God. And we are sharing life with the genuine God, {that is,} with his Son, Jesus the Messiah. Jesus is truly God, and he is the one who gives us {this new,} eternal life.

What is the result of the understanding that the Son of God has given to us?

Because of the understanding that the Son of God has given to us, we may know the True One.

1 John 5:21ULT

²¹ Little children, keep yourselves from the idols.

5:7 ^[1]

5:8 ^[2]

UST

²¹ I say this to you who are as dear to me as though you were my own children: "Be careful that you never give yourselves to anything that is a false god."

From what must believers keep themselves?

Believers must keep themselves from idols.

2 John

2 John 1

2 John 1:1

ULT

¹ The elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth—and not only I, but also all the ones having known the truth—

UST

¹ {From John,} the elder. {I am writing this letter} to you, the congregation {of people} that God has chosen {to belong to him}. I sincerely love all of you believers. Not only do I myself love you, but all those who know and accept the true message {that Jesus taught} also love you.

By what title does the writer John introduce himself in this letter?

John introduces himself as the elder.

To whom is this letter written?

The letter is written to the elect lady and her children.

2 John 1:2

ULT

² because of the truth that remains in us and will be with us to eternity.

UST

² {We love you} because we have all accepted God's true message. This true message has become a part of us and will be with us forever.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 John 1:3ULT

³ Grace, mercy, {and} peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

UST

³ God the Father and Jesus the Messiah, the Father's Son, will {continue to} act kindly and mercifully toward us and will make us peaceful. {They will do this because} they are truthful and they love {us}.

From whom does John say grace, mercy, and peace come?

John says grace, mercy, and peace come from God, the Father, and from Jesus Christ, his Son.

2 John 1:4ULT

⁴ I rejoiced greatly that I found some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received a commandment from the Father.

UST

⁴ I have learned that some of the believers from your congregation are living according to the true message {that God has taught us}. That made me very happy. This is just what our Father commanded us to do.

Why is John rejoicing?

John is rejoicing because he has found some of the lady's children walking in the truth.

2 John 1:5ULT

⁵ And now I ask you, lady—not as writing a new commandment to you, but what we have had from the beginning—that we should love one another.

UST

⁵ And now, dear congregation, I ask you {to do what God commanded:} that we should love each other. I am not writing this to you as a new thing that God has commanded {us to do}. Instead, we have known this command to love each other from when we first believed in the Messiah.

What commandment does John say they have had from the beginning?

The commandment they have from the beginning is that they love one another.

2 John 1:6ULT

⁶ And this is that love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, just as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it.

UST

⁶ This is what it means to love {God and each other}. We should obey what God commands us to do. This is what God commands you, {to love each other,} so you need to do it. You have heard this from when you first believed in the Messiah.

What does John say that love is?

Love is to walk according to God's commandments.

2 John 1:7ULT

⁷ For many deceivers have gone out into the world, the ones not confessing Jesus Christ coming in flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist.

UST

⁷ I say this because there are many people in this world who travel around, deceiving people. These deceptive people refuse to say that Jesus the Messiah came to the earth and was a man. This {teaching} comes from the {original} deceiver, the one who opposes the Messiah.

What does John call those who do not confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh?

John calls them the deceiver and the antichrist.

2 John 1:8ULT

⁸ Watch yourselves, that you do not lose what we have worked {for}, but may receive a full reward.

UST

⁸ Be careful so that you do not {let those teachers deceive you! If you let them deceive you, you will} lose the reward that we have worked for. So be careful to make sure that you receive the complete reward!

What does John tell the believers to be careful not to do?

John tells the believers to be careful not to lose what they have worked for.

2 John 1:9ULT

⁹ Everyone going beyond and not remaining in the teaching of Christ does not have God. The one remaining in the teaching, this one has both the Father and the Son.

UST

⁹ Those who do not continue to believe and teach the things that the Messiah taught, but instead believe and teach other things, do not have {a true relationship with} God. But those who continue to believe and teach what the Messiah taught do have {a true relationship} both {with God,} our Father{,} and {with Jesus,} his Son.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 John 1:10ULT

¹⁰ If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house and do not say to him, "Greetings."

UST

¹⁰ So when anyone comes to you who teaches something different from what the Messiah taught, do not welcome him into your homes! Do not even greet him {or wish him well in any way, so that you do not encourage him}.

What does John tell the believers to do with anyone who does not bring the true teaching about Christ?

They should not receive anyone who does not bring the true teaching about Christ.

2 John 1:11ULT

¹¹ For the one saying to him, "Greetings," shares in his evil deeds.

UST

¹¹ If you greet these people respectfully, you are helping them to do the evil things that they do.

Of what is a believer guilty if he receives someone who does not bring the true teaching about Christ?

The believer who receives and greets a false teacher shares in his evil deeds.

2 John 1:12ULT

¹² Having many things to write to you, I did not want with paper and ink. However, I hope to come to you and to speak mouth to mouth, so that your joy might be made complete.

UST

¹² I have much more that I want to say to you. But I have decided not to write them to you in a letter. Instead, I hope to be with you soon and to talk with you personally. Then we will be completely joyful together.

What does John hope to do in the future?

John hopes to come and speak directly with the elect lady.

2 John 1:13ULT

¹³ The children of your chosen sister greet you.

UST

¹³ Your fellow believers in the congregation here, whom God has also chosen, greet you.

ULT

¹ The elder, to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth.

UST

¹ {You know me as} the elder{. I am writing this letter} to {you}, my dear friend Gaius, whom I truly love.

By what title does the author John introduce himself in this letter?

John introduces himself as the elder.

What relationship does John have with Gaius, the one receiving this letter?

John loves Gaius in truth.

3 John 1:2

ULT

² Beloved, I pray concerning everything {for} you to prosper and to be healthy, just as your soul prospers.

UST

² Dear friend, I ask God that he would make everything go well for you, and that you may be physically healthy just as you are healthy in respect to God.

For what does John pray concerning Gaius?

John prays that Gaius would prosper in all things and be in health, as his soul prospers.

3 John 1:3ULT

³ For I rejoiced greatly at the coming of the brothers and testifying to your truth, just as you are walking in truth.

UST

³ I know that you are healthy in respect to God because of the fellow believers who came here and who told me about your truthful {teaching}. Your teaching agrees with how you live according to the true message {about Jesus}. That made me very happy.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

3 John 1:4ULT

⁴ I have no greater joy than these things, that I hear my children are walking in the truth.

UST

⁴ This is what makes me the very happiest—when someone tells me that the people whom I have helped to follow Jesus are living according to the true message from God!

What is John's greatest joy?

John's greatest joy is to hear that his children are walking in the truth.

3 John 1:5ULT

⁵ Beloved, you are doing a faithful thing whenever you might work for the brothers, and this {for} strangers,

UST

⁵ Dear friend, you are serving Jesus loyally whenever you do things to help fellow believers, even those whom you do not know.

For whom did Gaius work?

Gaius worked for the brothers even though they were strangers.

3 John 1:6ULT

⁶ the ones having borne witness to your love in the presence of the church. You will do well to send them on in a manner worthy of God,

UST

⁶⁻⁷ Some of them have reported before the congregation {here} how you have shown that you love them. You should continue to help such people because they are traveling in order to be obedient to Jesus, and people who do not believe in Jesus do not help them. Therefore, it is good that you give such people what they need for traveling {in a generous way} because doing so honors God.

In what manner did Gaius send the brothers on their journey?

He sent them out in a manner worthy of God.

3 John 1:7ULT

⁷ because they went out for the sake of the name, receiving nothing from the Gentiles.

UST

⁶⁻⁷ Some of them have reported before the congregation {here} how you have shown that you love them. You should continue to help such people because they are traveling in order to be obedient to Jesus, and people who do not believe in Jesus do not help them. Therefore, it is good that you give such people what they need for traveling {in a generous way} because doing so honors God.

Why did the brothers need help from the believers to send them out on their journey?

They needed help because they did not receive anything from the Gentiles.

3 John 1:8ULT

⁸ Therefore, we ourselves ought to welcome such as these so that we become fellow workers for the truth.

UST

⁸ So we {who believe in Jesus} ought to give these people whatever they need. Then it will be as though we are working alongside them as they help others to know God's true message.

Why does John say believers should welcome brothers such as these?

John says believers should welcome them so that they may be fellow-workers for the truth.

3 John 1:9ULT

⁹ I wrote something to the church, but Diotrephes, the one loving to be first among them, does not accept us.

UST

⁹ I wrote a letter to your group of believers {to tell them to help those other believers}. However, Diotrephes does not accept anything that I say, because he wants to dominate your group.

What does Diotrephes love?

Diotrephes loves to be first among the congregation.

What is Diotrephes' attitude toward John?

Diotrephes does not receive John.

3 John 1:10ULT

¹⁰ For this reason, if I come, I will call attention to his works that he is doing—accusing us with evil words. But not being satisfied with these things, he does not receive the brothers, and he stops the ones willing and puts {them} out of the church.

UST

¹⁰ So when I arrive there I will publicly tell everyone what he does: He falsely tells others that we do evil things. He does this in order to harm us by what he says. As well as doing that, he also refuses to welcome the fellow believers who are traveling in order to do God's work. He even prevents those who do want to welcome them and forces them to leave the group of believers!

What will John do when he comes to Gaius and the congregation?

When John comes, he will remember Diotrephes' evil deeds.

What does Diotrephes do with the brothers who were sent out?

Diotrephes does not receive the brothers.

What does Diotrephes do with those who receive these brothers?

Diotrephes forbids them from receiving the brothers and puts them out of the church.

3 John 1:11ULT

¹¹ Beloved, do not imitate the evil, but the good. The one doing good is from God; the one doing evil has not seen God.

UST

¹¹ Dear friend, do not copy a bad example {like that}. Instead, do the good things that you see good people doing. {Remember that} people who do good deeds truly belong to God. But anyone who keeps doing what is bad has not known God.

What does John tell Gaius to imitate?

John tells Gaius to imitate what is good.

3 John 1:12ULT

¹² Demetrius has been borne witness to by all and by the truth itself. And we also bear witness, and you know that our testimony is true.

UST

¹² All the believers who know Demetrius say that he is a good person. The way that he lives according to God's true message also shows you that he is a good person. We also confirm that he is a good person, and you know that what we say is true.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

3 John 1:13ULT

¹³ I have many things to write to you, but I am not wishing to write {them} to you with ink and pen.

UST

¹³ There are many {more} things about which I could write to you. But I do not want to write to you {about them} in a letter.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

3 John 1:14ULT

¹⁴ But I expect to see you soon, and we will speak mouth to mouth.

UST

¹⁴ Instead, I hope to come and see you soon. Then we will talk directly with one another.

What does John expect to do in the future?

John expects to come and speak with Gaius in person.

3 John 1:15ULT

¹⁵ Peace to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

UST

¹⁵ I pray that God will continue to make you peaceful. The believers {here} greet you. Please greet for us {each of} the believers {there} individually.

Jude

Jude 1

Jude 1:1

ULT

¹ Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James, to the ones loved in God the Father and kept {and} called in Jesus Christ:

UST

¹ {I,} Jude, serve Jesus the Messiah, and I am a brother of James. {I am writing} to you whom God has called, to you whom God the Father loves, to you whom Jesus the Messiah is keeping {for himself}.

Of whom was Jude a servant?

Jude was a servant of Jesus Christ.

Who was the brother of Jude?

James was the brother of Jude.

To whom did Jude write?

He wrote to those who were called, beloved in God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ.

Jude 1:2

ULT

² May mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you.

UST

² I pray that God will increase his merciful acts toward you and make you more peaceful and make you experience more of his love.

What did Jude want multiplied to those to whom he wrote?

Jude wanted mercy, peace, and love to be multiplied.

Jude 1:3ULT

³ Beloved ones, making every effort to write to you about our common salvation, I have a necessity to write to you, exhorting to contend for the faith delivered once for all to the saints.

UST

³ {Fellow believers} whom I love, I tried my best to write {a letter} to you about how God has saved all of us {who believe}. However, I needed to write {this letter instead} in order to urge you to defend the true things that we believe. {These are things} that God has given for all time to all those whom he has made holy.

What did Jude first want to write about?

Jude first wanted to write about their common salvation.

What did Jude actually write about?

Jude actually wrote about the need to struggle for the faith of the saints.

Jude 1:4ULT

⁴ For certain men have entered secretly, the ones long ago having been designated beforehand for this condemnation, ungodly ones, changing the grace of our God into licentiousness and denying our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

UST

⁴ {I am urging you to do this} because some men have crept stealthily {into your meetings}. {They are men} whom God has chosen to condemn a long time ago. They do ungodly things. They think that our God permits people to be sexually immoral because he is kind. {They also} oppose what is true about Jesus the Messiah, who alone owns us and rules over us.

How did some condemned and ungodly men come?

Some condemned and ungodly men came stealthily.

What did the condemned and ungodly men do?

They changed the grace of God into sexual immorality and denied Jesus Christ.

Jude 1:5ULT

⁵ Now I want to remind you, you knowing all things once for all, that Jesus, ^[1] having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed the ones not having believed.

UST

⁵ Although you previously knew all these things, I desire to remind you {of them}. {Remember} that after Jesus rescued the people {of Israel} from the country of Egypt, he destroyed those people {among them} who did not trust him.

From where did the Lord once save people?

The Lord saved them from the land of Egypt.

What did the Lord do to those people who did not believe?

The Lord destroyed those people who did not believe.

Jude 1:6ULT

⁶ And angels, not having kept their own domain, but having left their own dwelling place, he has kept in eternal chains, under darkness, for judgment of the great day—

UST

⁶ Also, {some} angels did not continue to remain in their proper places where they had authority but abandoned them. {Because they did this} God has imprisoned them forever in darkness {in hell}. {God did this} in order to judge them on the important day {when he judges everything}.

What did the Lord do to the angels who left their proper place?

The Lord put them in chains in darkness for judgment.

Jude 1:7ULT

⁷ as Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, having committed sexual immorality in the same manner {as} these, and having gone after other flesh, are being displayed {as} an example, suffering punishment of eternal fire.

UST

⁷ The same is true of {the people who lived in the cities of} Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities near them. They acted in a sexually immoral way in the same way as those angels did. They participated in all kinds of improper sexual acts. By causing these {angels and people} to suffer for eternity in the fire of hell, God is making them an example {of those who reject him}.

What did Sodom, Gomorrah, and the cities around them do?

They fornicated and pursued unnatural desires.

Jude 1:8ULT

⁸ Yet in the same way also, these, dreaming, indeed defile the flesh, but reject lordship and slander glorious ones.

UST

⁸ Similarly, these {false teachers} are dreamers who not only make their own bodies dirty by living immorally, but also reject the Lord's commands. They even insult God's glorious angels.

Like Sodom, Gomorrah, and the cities around them, what do the condemned and ungodly men do?

They pollute their bodies in their dreams, reject authority, and say evil things.

Jude 1:9ULT

⁹ But Michael the archangel, when disputing with the devil, was arguing about the body of Moses; he did not dare to bring a judgment of slander {against him}. Rather, he said, "May the Lord rebuke you!"

UST

⁹ Even the archangel Michael was not so bold as to speak slanderous accusations against Satan when he argued with him concerning the dead body of Moses. Instead, he {merely} said, "May the Lord reprove you!"

What did the archangel Michael say to the devil?

The archangel Michael said, "May the Lord rebuke you."

Jude 1:10ULT

¹⁰ But these ones indeed slander what they do not understand; but what they understand by instinct as the unreasoning animals, by these things they are being destroyed.

UST

¹⁰ By contrast, these {false teachers} speak evil words about spiritual things that they do not understand. They are just like animals that cannot think rationally. The things that they are naturally able to understand are destroying them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Jude 1:11ULT

¹¹ Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain and have abandoned themselves to the error of Balaam {for} wages, and in the rebellion of Korah they perished.

UST

¹¹ How sad it is for them! They act like Cain, {who murdered his brother}. They have dedicated themselves to committing the same sin that Balaam committed in order to get money. God will certainly destroy them like he destroyed Korah and those who rebelled {against Moses with him}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Jude 1:12ULT

¹² These ones are the ones in your love feasts—hidden reefs—fearlessly feasting with {you}, shepherding themselves; waterless clouds, carried along by winds; fruitless autumn trees—having died twice, having been uprooted,

UST

¹² These people are shamelessly eating with you. At your fellowship meals they are like rocks hidden under the water that ships crash against. They only take care of themselves. They are {useless,} like clouds that the wind carries away before they can give rain. They are {useless,} like trees that don't bear fruit at harvest time. {They are like trees} that will die twice because God will uproot them.

For whom do the condemned and ungodly men shamelessly care?

They shamelessly care for themselves.

Jude 1:13ULT

¹³ wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shameful deeds; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of darkness has been kept to eternity.

UST

¹³ They are {uncontrollable,} like the sea's thrashing waves. They display their disgraceful acts just like the waves bring up foam. {They are like} stars that do not stay where they should in the sky. God is reserving the dark gloom {of hell} for them forever.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Jude 1:14ULT

¹⁴ Now also Enoch, seventh from Adam, prophesied about these ones, saying, "Behold! The Lord came with myriads of his holy ones

UST

¹⁴ Even Enoch, the seventh person in the line of people who descended from Adam, spoke about these false teachers when he said: "Listen carefully to this: The Lord will certainly come with a countless number of his holy {angels}.

Enoch was which place in line from Adam?

Enoch was the seventh in line from Adam.

Jude 1:15ULT

¹⁵ to do judgment against everyone and to rebuke every soul concerning all their works of ungodliness, which they did in an ungodly way, and concerning all the harsh things which ungodly sinners spoke against him."

UST

¹⁵ {They will come} to judge everyone and rebuke everyone for all their ungodly deeds that they have done in ungodly ways, and for all the harsh insults that these people, who sin and dishonor God, spoke against Jesus."

Upon whom will the Lord execute judgment?

The Lord will execute judgment upon all people.

Jude 1:16ULT

¹⁶ These ones are murmurers, complainers, going according to their lusts, and their mouth speaks boastful things, admiring faces for the sake of advantage.

UST

¹⁶ These {false teachers} grumble {to themselves} and complain {to others}. They live according to their sinful desires and brag about themselves. They flatter people in order to get what they want {from them}.

Who are the ungodly men who will be convicted?

Grumblers, complainers, those who go after their evil desires, loud boasters, and those who praise for personal advantage are the ungodly men who will be convicted.

Jude 1:17ULT

¹⁷ But you, beloved ones, remember the words that have been spoken beforehand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ,

UST

¹⁷ But you {fellow believers} whom I love, remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus the Messiah said long ago.

Who spoke words in the past about mockers?

The apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ spoke words in the past about mockers.

Jude 1:18ULT

¹⁸ that they said to you, "In the last time there will be mockers going according to their own lusts of ungodliness."

UST

¹⁸ {Remember} that they told you, "In the last days {before Jesus returns,} there will be people who mock {the true things that God has told us}. {They will} live according to their own sinful desires that dishonor God."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Jude 1:19ULT

¹⁹ These are the ones causing divisions, soulish, not having the Spirit.

UST

¹⁹ These {mockers} are the people who are making believers angry with each other. {They live according to their} natural instincts. The {Holy} Spirit does not dwell within them.

What is true of the mockers who go after the own ungodly lusts, who cause divisions and are sensual?

They do not have the Holy Spirit.

Jude 1:20ULT

²⁰ But you, beloved ones, building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit,

UST

²⁰ However, you {fellow believers} whom I love, by increasing your trust in God and by praying with the Holy Spirit's help,

How were the beloved building themselves up and praying?

The beloved were building themselves up in their most holy faith, and praying in the Holy Spirit.

Jude 1:21ULT

²¹ keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.

UST

²¹ keep living in a way that enables you to experience God's love. {Do this} while expecting the merciful return of our Lord Jesus the Messiah, {which will result in} living eternally {with him}.

What were the beloved to keep themselves in and look for?

The beloved were to keep themselves in and look for the love of God and the mercy of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Jude 1:22ULT

²² And indeed, have mercy on {some} who are doubting,

UST

²² And be merciful to those who are confused {about what they should believe}.

Who were the beloved supposed to save? (vv22-23)

The beloved were supposed to save those with a garment spotted by the flesh, and those in the fire.

Jude 1:23ULT

²³ but save {others}, snatching from fire; and have mercy on {others} with fear, hating even the garment having been defiled by the flesh.

UST

²³ But rescue other people urgently, as if you are pulling them out of the fire of hell. And be merciful to some other people, but be cautious with them, as if just touching their clothing could make you sinful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Jude 1:24ULT

²⁴ Now to the one being able to keep you without stumbling and to cause {you} to stand before his glory blameless, in exultation,

UST

²⁴ God is able to prevent you from returning to a sinful life. {He is also able} to take you without sin into his glorious presence. {You will stand there} with great joy.

What was God their Savior, through Jesus Christ their Lord, able to do? (vv24-25)

God was able to keep them from stumbling and place them before the presence of his glory without blemish.

Jude 1:25ULT

²⁵ to the only God our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord, {be} glory, majesty, power, and authority, before all the age and now and to all eternity. Amen!

1:5 ^[1]

UST

²⁵ There is only one God. He has saved us as a result of what our Lord Jesus the Messiah {did for us}. I pray that everyone will recognize that God is glorious, majestic, powerful, and rules with great authority. {He was like that} before time began. {He is like that} today, and {he will remain like that} forever! May it truly be so!

What things should be given to the only God our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord?

To the only God our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord be glory, majesty, power, and authority.

When did God have glory?

God had glory before all time, now, and forevermore.

Revelation

Revelation 1

Revelation 1:1

ULT

¹ The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him to show to his servants what must happen soon. And he signified, sending through his angel to his servant John,

UST

¹ {This book is about} things that God revealed to Jesus the Messiah. These things are just about to happen. God revealed them to Jesus so that he could tell the people who believe in him about them. Jesus shared these things by sending his angel {to show them} to {me,} John, a man who serves him faithfully.

Who gave this revelation, to whom did he give it, and to whom was he supposed to show it?

The revelation of Jesus Christ came from God, and is being shown to his servants.

When must the events of the revelation happen?

The events of the revelation must happen soon.

Revelation 1:2

ULT

² who attested the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, as much as he saw.

UST

² I, John, am reporting {to you} everything that I saw concerning this message from God that Jesus the Messiah revealed to me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 1:3ULT

³ Blessed {are} the one reading and the ones hearing the words of this prophecy and keeping the things having been written in it, for the time {is} near.

UST

³ How happy is the person who reads this book of prophecy {for others to hear}, and how happy are all who hear it and obey what this prophecy says, because these events will happen soon.

Who will be blessed by this book?

The one who reads aloud, listens to, and keeps what has been written in this book will be blessed.

Revelation 1:4ULT

⁴ John, to the seven churches in Asia: Grace to you and peace from the one being and the one having been and the one coming and from the seven spirits who {are} before his throne,

UST

⁴ I, John, am writing this letter to you seven groups of believers in the province of Asia. May God continue to be kind to you and make you peaceful. God exists, he has always existed, and he will come {and judge everyone} in the future. May the seven spirits who are in front of the throne of God also continue to be kind to you and make you peaceful.

Who wrote this book, and to whom did he write?

John wrote this book, and he wrote it to the seven churches in Asia.

Revelation 1:5ULT

⁵ and from Jesus Christ, "the faithful witness," "the firstborn" from the dead and "the ruler of the kings of the earth." To the one loving us and having released us from our sins by his blood

UST

⁵ May Jesus the Messiah also continue to be kind to you and make you peaceful. He has reliably told us the message from God. He is the first one whom God caused to become alive again after he had died. He is the one who rules the kings of the world. Because he loves us, he shed his blood for us when he died on the cross, and as a result, God has forgiven our sins.

What three titles does John give to Jesus Christ?

John gives Jesus Christ these titles: the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

Revelation 1:6ULT

⁶ and he has made us a kingdom, priests to God and his Father—to him {be} the glory and the power to the ages. Amen.

UST

⁶ Jesus is the one who has caused us to become people over whose lives God rules. He has also made us priests who serve God, who is the Father of Jesus. May people glorify Jesus and acknowledge him as their ruler throughout eternity. May it be so!

What has Jesus made believers?

Jesus has made believers a kingdom and priests for his God and Father.

Revelation 1:7ULT

⁷ “Behold, he is coming with the clouds,” and “every eye will see him, even those who pierced him,” and all the tribes of the earth “will mourn because of him.” Yes, Amen.

UST

⁷ Pay attention! Jesus is going to come back from heaven through the sky. Everyone will see him, including those who killed him by nailing him to a cross. When they see him coming, every people group in the world will grieve {in sorrow for their sins}. May it be just like that!

Who will see Jesus when he comes?

Every eye, that is, every person, will see Jesus when he comes, including those who pierced him.

Revelation 1:8ULT

⁸ “I am the alpha and the omega,” says the Lord God, “the one being and the one having been and the one coming, the Ruler of All.” ^[1]

UST

⁸ The Lord God says: “I am the one who began all things. I am the one who will cause all things to come to an end. I am the one who exists, who has always existed, and who will come {and judge everyone} in the future. I am the one who rules over everything and everyone.”

How does the Lord God describe himself?

The Lord God describes himself as the alpha and the omega, the one who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Ruler of All.

Revelation 1:9ULT

⁹ I, John, your brother and partner in the suffering and kingdom and endurance {that are} in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

UST

⁹ I, John, believe in Jesus as you do. Like you, I am patiently enduring the troubles that everyone experiences whose life Jesus rules. {The Roman government had put} me {in exile} on the island of Patmos because I was telling people God's message about who Jesus is.

Why was John on the island of Patmos?

John was on the island of Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

Revelation 1:10ULT

¹⁰ I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet,

UST

¹⁰ It was a Sunday, the day {on which believers gather to worship because God made Jesus alive again on that day}. The Holy Spirit inspired me so that I could see and hear things in a vision. I heard someone speaking behind me. His voice was as loud as the blast of a horn.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 1:11ULT

¹¹ saying, "Write what you see on a scroll and send it to the seven churches—to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea."

UST

¹¹ {The person speaking} said {to me}, "Write what you see on a scroll. Send what you have written to seven groups of believers. {Send it to the believers} in the cities of Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."

What did the loud voice behind John tell him to do?

The loud voice told John to write what he saw on a scroll and send it to the seven churches.

Revelation 1:12ULT

¹² And I turned around to see the voice that was speaking with me, and having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands,

UST

¹² {When I heard this voice,} I turned my head to see who was speaking to me. When I turned, I saw seven golden lamp holders.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 1:13ULT

¹³ and in the middle of the lampstands {one} like a son of man, wearing a foot-length robe and a golden sash wrapped around {his} chest.

UST

¹³ In the midst of the lamp holders I saw someone who looked like a human being. He wore a robe that reached down to his feet. He also wore a band of golden fabric across his chest.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 1:14ULT

¹⁴ Now his head and hair {were} white as wool—white as snow—and his eyes {were} like a flame of fire,

UST

¹⁴ The hair on his head was gleaming like white wool or like white snow. His eyes were {bright} like a fiery flame.

John saw a man behind him. What kind of hair and eyes did the man have?

The man had hair as white as wool or snow and eyes like a flame of fire.

Revelation 1:15ULT

¹⁵ and his feet {were} like bronze as having been refined in a furnace, and his voice {was} like the sound of many waters,

UST

¹⁵ His feet shone like bronze that the heat of a furnace had refined. {When he spoke,} his resonant voice was like the noise of a great river of rushing water.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 1:16ULT

¹⁶ and having seven stars in his right hand and a sharp, double-edged sword coming out of his mouth, and his face as the sun shines in its strength.

UST

¹⁶ {The one who looked like a human} was holding seven stars in his right hand. A sword with two sharp edges was extending from his mouth. His face shone as brightly as the sun shines during the middle of the day.

What was in the right hand of the man, and what was coming out of his mouth?

The man had seven stars in his right hand, and a sharp, double-edged sword was coming out of his mouth.

Revelation 1:17ULT

¹⁷ And when I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man, but he placed his right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid! I am the first and the last

UST

¹⁷ When I saw him, I bowed down in front of him. I was so overcome that I could not move. But he put his right hand on me and said to me, "Do not be afraid! I am the one who began all things, and I am the one who will cause all things to end.

What did John do when he saw the man?

John fell at the man's feet like a dead man.

Revelation 1:18ULT

¹⁸ and the one living; and I became dead, but behold, I am living to the ages of the ages, and I have the keys of death and of Hades.

UST

¹⁸ I have been alive forever. When I came to earth, I died, but indeed I am now alive again for all eternity. I have the power to make anyone who has died become alive again.

What keys did the man say he had?

The man said he had the keys of death and of Hades.

Revelation 1:19ULT

¹⁹ Therefore, write what you have seen, and what is, and what is about to happen after these things.

UST

¹⁹ Therefore, write down this vision that you are seeing of me. I will reveal the truth to you about what is happening now and about what will happen in the future. I want you to write down those things as well.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 1:20ULT

²⁰ The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

1:8 ^[1]

UST

²⁰ I will explain the symbolic meaning of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden lamp holders. The seven stars represent the angels of the seven groups of believers. The seven lamp holders represent the seven groups of believers.

What was the meaning of the seven stars and the seven golden lampstands?

The seven stars were the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands were the seven churches.

Revelation 2

Revelation 2:1

ULT

¹ To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: 'The one holding the seven stars in his right hand, the one walking in the midst of the seven golden lampstands, says these {things}:

UST

¹ Write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Ephesus: 'I am the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand and who walks among the seven golden lamp holders. This is what I say to you:

To what angel is the next portion of the book written?

The next portion of the book is written to the angel of the church in Ephesus.

Revelation 2:2

ULT

² "I know your works and labor and your endurance and that you can not tolerate evil ones and {that} you have tested the ones calling themselves apostles but are not and you have found them {to be} false

UST

² "I am aware of all that you have done. {I am aware of how hard} you have worked {for me}. {I am aware of how} patiently you have endured {difficult times}. {I am also aware that} you do not accept wicked people. When people falsely claim to be genuine leaders, you prove that they are lying.

How has the church in Ephesus related to evil people, and what has it done regarding the ones who call themselves apostles?

The church in Ephesus has not put up with those who are evil and has tested the false prophets.

Revelation 2:3

ULT

³ and {that} you have endurance and have suffered because of my name and have not grown weary.

UST

³ {I am aware of} how patiently you have endured. {I am also aware that} you have suffered for my sake. {I am also aware that} you have not abandoned your faith in me {even though you have suffered}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 2:4ULT

⁴ But I have against you that you have abandoned your first love.

UST

⁴ Nevertheless, I must criticize you about something: You no longer love me as you did when you first believed in me.

What does Christ have against the church in Ephesus?

Christ has against the church in Ephesus that it has left behind its first love.

Revelation 2:5ULT

⁵ Therefore, remember from where you have fallen and repent and do the first works. But if not, I will come to you and I will remove your lampstand from its place—if you do not repent.

UST

⁵ Therefore, remember how you used to love me. Love me again the way you did at first. Now if you do not love me again in that way, I will judge you and I will not allow you to continue being a group of believers.

What does Christ say he will do if the church do not repent?

Christ says he will come and remove its lampstand from its place if the church does not repent.

Revelation 2:6ULT

⁶ But you have this, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

UST

⁶ However, I do praise you for something that you are doing well. You refuse to accept what the disciples of Nicolaus are doing. {Those disciples eat food that people have sacrificed to idols and they commit sexual sins.} I myself completely reject what they are doing.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 2:7ULT

⁷ Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. To the one conquering, I will grant to him to eat from the tree of life that is in the paradise of God.”

UST

⁷ Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers. I will permit anyone who is victorious to eat {fruit} from the tree that gives life. That tree is in the garden of God.”

What does Christ promise to those who conquer?

Christ promises to allow those who conquer to eat from the tree of life in the paradise of God.

Revelation 2:8ULT

⁸ And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: ‘The first and the last, who became dead but lived, says these things:

UST

⁸ Next, write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Smyrna: ‘I am the one who began all things and who will cause all things to end. I am also the one who died and became alive again. This is what I say to you:

To what angel is the next portion of the book written?

The next portion of the book is written to the angel of the church in Smyrna.

Revelation 2:9ULT

⁹ “I know your affliction and poverty—but you are rich—and the slander of the ones saying themselves to be Jews, but they are not, but {are} a synagogue of Satan.

UST

⁹ “I am aware that people have persecuted you. {I am aware that} you are poor, although you have everything you need spiritually. I am aware that} people are insulting you. Those people claim to be Jews, but they are not acting as if they truly belong to God. When they gather together, they help the devil {instead of serving God}.

What difficulties is the church in Smyrna facing?

The church in Smyrna is facing affliction, poverty, and slander.

Revelation 2:10ULT

¹⁰ Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw {some} of you into prison so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

UST

¹⁰ Those people are going to make you suffer. Do not be afraid, but watch out! The devil will soon lead them to put some of you in jail. The devil wants to show that you will abandon your faith in me if you suffer. You will have to suffer for ten days. But remain loyal to me even if you have to die. If you do, I will give you {everlasting} life as a reward.

What does Christ promise to those who are faithful until death?

Christ promises that he will give the crown of life to those who are faithful until death.

Revelation 2:11ULT

¹¹ Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. The one conquering will certainly not be hurt by the second death.”

UST

¹¹ Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers. Whoever is victorious will never die a second time.”

What does Christ say about the one conquering?

The one conquering will certainly not be hurt by the second death.

Revelation 2:12ULT

¹² And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write: ‘The one having the sharp, double-edged sword says these thing):

UST

¹² Next, write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Pergamum: ‘I am the one who has a sword with two sharp edges. This is what I say to you:

To what angel is the next portion of the book written?

The next portion of the book is written to the angel of the church in Pergamum.

Revelation 2:13ULT

¹³ "I know where you live, where the throne of Satan {is}, yet you hold my name and you did not deny my faith even in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan lives.

UST

¹³ "I am aware of where you live. {It is a place} where Satan controls people. {I am also aware that} you are very loyal to me. You did not abandon your faith in me even when people attacked {your fellow believer} Antipas. He told others about me, and he remained loyal to me. People killed him right in front of you, because Satan has such an influence in your city.

How does Christ describe the place where this church lives?

Christ describes this as a place where Satan's throne is.

What did the church in Pergamum do in the days when Antipas was killed?

The church in Pergamum did not deny its faith in Jesus even in the days when Antipas was killed.

Revelation 2:14ULT

¹⁴ But I have a few things against you, that you have there ones holding the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat idol-offerings and to be sexually immoral.

UST

¹⁴ Nevertheless, I must criticize you about a few things. Some people in your group firmly believe that they should do what {the ancient prophet} Balaam taught. It was Balaam who showed Balak{, the king of Moab,} how to tempt the people of Israel to sin. Balak led the Israelites to eat meat that people had sacrificed to idols. Balak also led the Israelites to commit sexual sins.

To what two teachings do some in the church in Pergamum hold tightly? (vv14-15)

Some in the church in Pergamum hold tightly to the teachings of Balaam and to the teachings of the Nicolaitans.

Revelation 2:15ULT

¹⁵ Thus you also have ones holding the teaching of the Nicolaitans similarly.

UST

¹⁵ Just as Balak followed Balaam's advice, some people in your group firmly believe that they may similarly do what the disciples of Nicolaus teach. {They eat food that people have sacrificed to idols and they commit sexual sins.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 2:16ULT

¹⁶ Repent, therefore! But if not, I will come to you quickly and wage war against them with the sword of my mouth.

UST

¹⁶ But what the disciples of Nicolaus teach is wrong. So everyone in your group must stop doing those things! Now if some of you do not stop, I will immediately judge those people. I will pronounce a sentence of judgment against them and punish them.

What does Christ warn he will do if those who hold to these false teachings do not repent?

Christ warns he will come and make war against them with the sword of his mouth.

Revelation 2:17ULT

¹⁷ Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. To the one conquering, I will give to him of the hidden manna, and I will give to him a white stone and on the stone a new name written that no one knows except the one receiving it.”

UST

¹⁷ Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers. To the one who is victorious I will award some special bread that I have hidden for him. I will also give him a white pebble upon which I have written a new name for him. No one will know what this name is except the one to whom I give it.”

What does Christ say he will give to the one conquering?

Christ promises that he will give the hidden manna and a white stone with a new name to the one conquering.

Revelation 2:18ULT

¹⁸ And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: ‘The Son of God, the one having his eyes like a flame of fire and his feet like bronze, says these things:

UST

¹⁸ Next, write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Thyatira: ‘I am the Son of God, whose eyes shine like a fiery flame and whose feet shine like bronze. This is what I say to you:

To what angel is the next portion of the book written?

The next portion of the book is written to the angel of the church in Thyatira.

Revelation 2:19ULT

¹⁹ "I know your works and love and faith and service and your endurance, and your last works {are} greater than the first.

UST

¹⁹ "I am aware of all that you are doing. {I am aware that} you love one another because you love me. {I am aware that} you are very loyal to me. {I am aware of how} you are serving me. {I am aware that} you are enduring patiently. {Finally, I am aware that} you are now doing more than you did when you first believed in me.

What good things does Christ know about regarding the church in Thyatira?

Christ knows about the works, love, faith, service, and patient endurance of the church in Thyatira and that its last works are greater than its first works.

Revelation 2:20ULT

²⁰ But I have against you that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, the one calling herself a prophetess, and she teaches and deceives my servants to be sexually immoral and to eat idol-offerings.

UST

²⁰ Nevertheless, I must criticize you about something. You tolerate a woman in your assembly {who is like that wicked queen in the Old Testament whose name was} Jezebel. She claims {falsely} that she teaches the truth from God. But in fact, by what she teaches, she is misleading people who believe in me. She is teaching them to commit sexual sins and to eat meat that other people have sacrificed to idols.

What does Christ have against the church in Thyatira?

Christ has against the church in Thyatira that it tolerates the immoral false prophetess Jezebel.

Revelation 2:21ULT

²¹ And I have given her time so that she might repent, but she is not willing to repent of her immorality.

UST

²¹ Although I have allowed her {sufficient} time to stop teaching these things, she refuses to stop. She continues to act immorally.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 2:22ULT

²² Behold! I will throw her onto a bed, and the ones committing adultery with her into great tribulation, if they do not repent of her deeds.

UST

²² Pay attention! I am going to punish her with a terrible sickness. I will also cause those who act immorally as she does to suffer greatly if they do not stop doing what she does

What does Christ warn he will do if those who commit adultery with Jezebel do not repent of her deeds?

Christ warns that he will throw these people into great tribulation if they do not repent.

Revelation 2:23ULT

²³ And I will strike her children with death, and all the churches will know that I am the one searching kidneys and hearts, and I will give to each of you according to your deeds.

UST

²³ And {as a judgment against her;} I will kill the children {she has had as a result of her sexual immorality}. Then all the groups of believers will recognize that I examine what everyone thinks and desires. I will punish or reward each one of you as you deserve.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 2:24ULT

²⁴ But I say to you, to the rest in Thyatira, to as many as do not hold this teaching, whoever has not known the deep things of Satan, as they call them: 'I do not put another burden on you,

UST

²⁴ But the rest of you believers in the city of Thyatira have not obeyed this woman's teachings. You have not taken part in what she calls the secret practices that Satan taught her. I have something to say to you as well. I am going to ask you to do just one thing.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 2:25ULT

²⁵ only hold what you have until I come.'

UST

²⁵ Just continue to obey the true teaching that you have received until I return.

What does Christ tell those who have not held to the teaching of Jezebel to do?

Christ tells them to hold on tightly to what they have until he comes.

Revelation 2:26ULT

²⁶ And the one conquering and the one keeping my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations.

UST

²⁶ To the one who is victorious, who continues to do what I command until he dies, I will give power to rule the people groups on earth.

What does Christ promise to the one conquering?

Christ promises to give authority over the nations to the one conquering.

Revelation 2:27ULT

²⁷ 'And he will rule them with an iron sceptre, as clay jars are shattered,'

UST

²⁷ Those to whom I give this authority will rule the people groups with irresistible power. They will destroy evildoers as completely as if they were smashing clay pots.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 2:28ULT

²⁸ as I also have received from my Father, and I will give to him the morning star.

UST

²⁸ {They will rule so powerfully because} I will share with them the authority that I myself have received from God my Father. I will also give them the assurance that God is beginning a wonderful new era.

What else does Christ promise to the one conquering?

Christ also promises to give the morning star to the one conquering.

Revelation 2:29ULT

²⁹ Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches.”

UST

²⁹ Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers.”

What does Christ say the one who has an ear should hear?

Christ says that the one who has an ear, that is, the one who is able to hear, should hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

Revelation 3

Revelation 3:1

ULT

¹ And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: 'The one having the seven spirits of God and the seven stars says these things: "I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead.

UST

¹ Write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Sardis: 'I am the one who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. I have these things to say to you: "I am aware of what you are doing. You have a reputation for being spiritually vigorous. However, you are not really acting out of zeal for me.

To what angel is the next portion of the book written?

The next portion of the book is written to the angel of the church in Sardis.

What is the reputation of the church in Sardis, but what is the truth about them?

The reputation of the church in Sardis is that it is alive, but the truth is that it is dead.

Revelation 3:2

ULT

² Becoming waking and strengthen the remainder that is about to die, for I have not found your works completed before my God.

UST

² Be careful! You are at risk of losing your devotion for me completely. Renew the devotion that you still have left. You have not yet done all that God knows you should have done.

What does Christ warn the church in Sardis to do?

Christ warns them to wake up and strengthen what remains.

Revelation 3:3

ULT

³ Remember, therefore, how you have received and heard, and be keeping and repent. But if you should not be awake, I will come like a thief and you will certainly not know at what hour I will come against you.

UST

³ So remember how eagerly you accepted God's instruction when you heard it. Be sorry for disobeying and start obeying again. If you are not careful to obey me, I will judge you when you are not expecting it. You will not know at what time I am going to punish you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 3:4ULT

⁴ But you have a few names in Sardis who have not stained their clothes, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy.

UST

⁴ Nevertheless, there are a few believers there in the city of Sardis who have not been doing what is wrong. They will live with me {forever} and be pure in every way. This is what they deserve.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 3:5ULT

⁵ The one conquering will be clothed thus in white garments, and I will certainly not wipe out his name from the Book of Life, but I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels.

UST

⁵ In this way I will completely purify the one who is victorious. I will make sure that his name always remains in the Book of Life. I will tell God my Father and his angels that I know him personally.

What does Christ promise to the one conquering?

Christ promises to clothe the one conquering in white, to keep his name in the book of life, and to confess his name before his Father and his angels.

Revelation 3:6ULT

⁶ Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches.”

UST

⁶ Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers.”

Revelation 3:7ULT

⁷ And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: 'The Holy One, the True One, the one having the key of David, the one opening and no one will shut and shutting and no one opens, says these things:

UST

⁷ Write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Philadelphia: 'I am the one who always does what is right. I am the one who always says what is true. Just as King David had authority to allow people to enter the ancient city of Jerusalem, so I have the authority to allow people to enter heaven. If I create an opportunity for someone, then no one can deny him that opportunity. If I deny an opportunity to someone, then no one can give him that opportunity. I have these things to say to you:

To what angel is the next portion of the book written?

The next portion of the book is written to the angel of the church in Philadelphia.

Revelation 3:8ULT

⁸ "I know your works (behold, I have put before you an opened door that no one is able to shut it), that you have little power, yet you have kept my word and you have not denied my name.

UST

⁸ "I know what you are doing. I know that although you are weak, you have obeyed my commands You have acknowledged that you believe in me. Be aware that I am giving you an opportunity that no one will be able to deny to you.

What has the church in Philadelphia done even though they have little strength?

The church in Philadelphia has kept Christ's word and has not denied his name.

Revelation 3:9ULT

⁹ Behold, I will give {those} of the synagogue of Satan, the ones saying themselves to be Jews, but they are not, rather, they are lying, behold, I will make them so that they will come and bow down before your feet, and they will know that I have loved you.

UST

⁹ Pay attention! Some people {are denying that you belong to me. Those people} claim to be Jews, but they are not acting the way people do who truly belong to God. When they gather together, they help the devil {instead of serving God}. Pay attention! I will make those people recognize that I love you. They will come and honor you greatly when they recognize this.

What will Christ make those of the synagogue of Satan do?

Christ will make those of the synagogue of Satan bow down before the feet of the believers.

Revelation 3:10ULT

¹⁰ Because you have kept my word of endurance, I will also keep you from the hour of testing being about to come upon the whole world to test the ones living on the earth.

UST

¹⁰ You obeyed me when I commanded you to endure suffering patiently. And so I will keep you safe during the time of trouble that all of humanity will soon experience. How people everywhere respond to this trouble will show what they are really like.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 3:11ULT

¹¹ I am coming quickly. Hold what you have so that no one may take your crown.

UST

¹¹ I am coming soon. So continue to believe in me. Do not let anyone cause you to lose the reward that God wants to give you.

What does Christ tell the church of Philadelphia to do since he is coming soon?

Christ tells them to hold fast to what they have so that no one may take away their crown.

Revelation 3:12ULT

¹² The one conquering, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will certainly not go outside anymore, and I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, the one coming down out of heaven from my God, and my new name.

UST

¹² I will make the one who is victorious secure, like a pillar in the temple of my God. He will remain in God's temple forever. I will write my God's name on him. I will also write on him the name of the city of my God. That city is the New Jerusalem. It will come down out of heaven from my God. I will also write my new name on the one who is victorious.

What does Christ promise to the one conquering?

Christ promises to make the one conquering a pillar in the temple of his God, and he promises to write on him the name of his God, the name of the city of his God, and his own new name.

What does Christ wish that the church in Laodicea was?

Christ wishes that the church in Laodicea was either cold or hot.

Revelation 3:16ULT

¹⁶ So, because you are lukewarm and neither hot nor cold, I am about to spew you out of my mouth.

UST

¹⁶ But you are just mediocre. You do not love me very much, but you still claim that you believe in me. That is disgusting, and because of it, I am going to reject you.

What is Christ about to do to the church in Laodicea, and why?

Christ is about to vomit the church in Laodicea out of his mouth because they are lukewarm.

Revelation 3:17ULT

¹⁷ For you say, 'I am rich and have become wealthy and have no need,' and you do not know that you are the miserable and pitiable and poor and blind and naked one.

UST

¹⁷ You keep bragging about how very rich you are. You do not realize that you are actually unhappy. You need someone to pity you. You are actually poor, blind, and lacking clothes.

What does the church in Laodicea say about itself?

The church in Laodicea says that it is rich and has become wealthy and is in need of nothing.

What does Christ say that the church in Laodicea does not know?

Christ says the church in Laodicea does not know that it is miserable, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked.

Revelation 3:18ULT

¹⁸ I advise you to buy from me gold refined by fire so that you might become rich and white garments so that you might clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness might not be shown and salve to anoint your eyes so that you might see.

UST

¹⁸ I advise you to get everything from me that you need, as if you were buying pure gold from me that would make you truly rich. Let me make you righteous, as if you were buying white garments from me so that you could be wearing clothes instead of being shamefully naked. Let me help you to understand the truth, as if you were buying eye salve from me to put on your sick eyes so that you could see.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 3:19ULT

¹⁹ I, as many as I love, rebuke and discipline. Therefore be zealous and repent.

Revelation 5:4ULT

⁴ And I was weeping much because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to read it.

UST

⁴ When I saw that no one anywhere was sufficiently worthy to open the scroll and read it, I wept bitterly. {I wept because I knew that what God had written was important, but I thought that no one would ever find out what he had written}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 5:5ULT

⁵ And one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Behold, the Lion from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered to open the scroll and its seven seals."

UST

⁵ But one of the elders said to me, "You do not need to weep! Here is the person we are looking for! He is the {person whom the prophets described as the} Lion from the tribe of Judah and as a branch that would grow from David's roots. He is victorious! Therefore, he is {sufficiently} worthy to break open the seven pieces of wax on the scroll and open the scroll!"

Who did the elder tell John was able to open the scroll and its seven seals?

The elder told John that the Lion from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, was able to open the scroll and its seven seals.

Revelation 5:6ULT

⁶ And I saw, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as having been slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent into all the earth.

UST

⁶ Then I saw that a lamb was standing by the throne. The four living beings and the elders surrounded him. He was alive, but he had marks that showed that others had once killed him violently. He had seven horns. He also had seven eyes. Those are the seven spirits of God that God sends throughout all the world.

Who was standing among the elders?

A Lamb, looking as though he had been killed, was standing among the elders.

What were the seven horns and seven eyes on the Lamb?

The seven horns and seven eyes were the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

Revelation 5:7ULT

⁷ And he came and took {the scroll} from the right hand of the one sitting on the throne.

UST

⁷ The Lamb came up to the throne, and the person who was sitting on the throne handed the scroll to him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 5:8ULT

⁸ And when he took the scroll, the four living creatures and the 24 elders fell before the Lamb, each one having a harp and golden bowls being full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

UST

⁸ As soon as {the Lamb} accepted the scroll, the four living beings and the 24 elders knelt down in front of the Lamb. The elders each held a harp and some golden bowls that contained incense. The incense symbolized the prayers of people who belong to God.

What were the gold bowls full of incense that the elders had?

The gold bowls full of incense were the prayers of the saints.

Revelation 5:9ULT

⁹ And they sing a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slaughtered and with your blood you bought {people} for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.

UST

⁹ The living beings and the elders sang a song that no one had ever sung before. They sang {to the Lamb}, "You deserve to receive this scroll and to break open its pieces of wax {so that you can read what it says}. {You deserve this} because when you gave up your life, you paid with your own blood to set people free from sin so that they could worship and obey God. You did this for people all over the world.

Why was the Lamb worthy to open the scroll?

The Lamb was worthy because he was slaughtered and with his blood he bought people for God from every tribe, language, people, and nation.

Revelation 5:10ULT

¹⁰ And you made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they will reign on the earth.”

UST

¹⁰ You have caused them to become people over whom our God rules and to become people who will lead others to worship God. They will be rulers of the people who live in the world.”

Where will these priests of God reign?

The priests of God will reign on the earth.

Revelation 5:11ULT

¹¹ And I looked and heard the sound of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders, and the number of them was myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands,

UST

¹¹ As I was seeing {these events}, I heard many angels singing. These angels surrounded the throne, the living beings, and the elders. There were millions of angels, so many that no one could count how many there were.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 5:12ULT

¹² saying in a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb having been slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing.”

UST

¹² The angels were singing loudly, “The Lamb who gave up his life deserves for everyone to honor, glorify, and bless him and acknowledge how powerful, wealthy, wise, and strong he is!”

What did the angels say the Lamb was worthy to receive?

The angels said the Lamb was worthy to receive power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and praise.

Revelation 5:13ULT

¹³ And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and on the sea and everything in them saying, "To the one sitting on the throne and to the Lamb {be} praise and honor and glory and power to the ages of the ages."

UST

¹³ Then I also heard every creature that exists in heaven, on the earth, underneath the earth, and in the sea—yes, every creature in all of those places—singing, "May everyone forever praise and honor and glorify the one sitting on the throne and the Lamb and acknowledge how powerful they are!"

Who said that the one on the throne and the Lamb should be praised to the ages of the ages (that is, forever)?

Every creature said that the one on the throne and the Lamb should be praised to the ages of the ages.

Revelation 5:14ULT

¹⁴ And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" and the elders fell down and worshiped. ^[1]
5:14 ^[1]

UST

¹⁴ When the millions of angels and every creature sang these things, the four living beings said, "So be it!" Then the elders knelt down on the ground in front of both God and the Lamb to worship them.

What did the elders do when they heard the four living creatures say "Amen"?

The elders fell down (that is, bowed down) and worshiped.

Revelation 6

Revelation 6:1

ULT

¹ And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, "Come!"

UST

¹ Then I saw the Lamb open the first of the seven pieces of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, I heard one of the four living beings say as loudly as a clap of thunder, "Come forth!"

What did John see the Lamb do with the scroll?

John saw the Lamb open one of the seven seals on the scroll.

Revelation 6:2

ULT

² And I looked and behold, a white horse, and the one sitting on it having a bow! And a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and that he might conquer.

UST

² Then I saw something remarkable: a white horse whose rider was holding a bow {and arrows}! God gave him a crown {to wear in recognition of the victories he was going to win}. The rider went out from heaven fully capable to fight and defeat God's enemies.

What did John see after the first seal was opened?

John saw a white horse whose rider went out conquering.

Revelation 6:3

ULT

³ And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!"

UST

³ Then the Lamb opened the second piece of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, I heard the second living being say, "Come forth!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 6:4ULT

⁴ And another horse, fiery red, came out! And to the one sitting on it, it was granted to him to take peace from the earth, and so that they will slaughter one another, and a great sword was given to him.

UST

⁴ Then another horse appeared. It was bright red. There was also a rider sitting on that horse. God gave the rider the power to cause wars on the earth. That way the world's people would kill each other. For this purpose, God gave the rider on the bright red horse a huge sword.

What did John see after the second seal was opened?

John saw a fiery red horse whose rider was allowed to take peace away from the earth.

Revelation 6:5ULT

⁵ And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come!" And I looked and behold, a black horse, and the one sitting on it having a balance in his hand.

UST

⁵ The Lamb then opened the third piece of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, I heard the third living being say, "Come forth!" I then saw something else remarkable: a black horse whose rider was holding a pair of balance scales!

What did John see after the third seal was opened?

John saw a black horse whose rider held a pair of scales in his hand.

Revelation 6:6ULT

⁶ And I heard {something} like a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix of wheat for a denarius and three choenices of barley for a denarius, but do not harm the oil and the wine."

UST

⁶ Then I heard a sound like a voice coming from among the four living beings. It said, "Make wheat so scarce that a person will have to work an entire day to earn enough money to buy one liter of it. Also make barley so scarce that a person will have to work an entire day to earn enough money to buy three liters of it. However, make sure that olive oil and wine remain so plentiful that their prices do not increase."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 6:7ULT

⁷ And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come!"

UST

⁷ The Lamb then opened the fourth piece of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, I next heard the fourth living being say, "Come forth!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 6:8ULT

⁸ And I looked, and behold, a pale horse! And the one sitting on it was named Death, and Hades was following after him. And authority was given to them over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword and with famine and with death and by the wild animals of the earth.

UST

⁸ I then saw something else remarkable: a horse that was pale because it was diseased and that had two riders. The name of the first rider was The One Who Causes People to Die. The name of the rider sitting behind him on the horse was The Place Where Dead People Go. God gave these riders the power to kill a quarter of all the people in the world. They could kill them by causing wars or famine or epidemics or by making wild animals come into populated areas and kill people.

What did John see after the fourth seal was opened?

John saw a pale horse whose rider was named Death.

Revelation 6:9ULT

⁹ And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of the ones having been slaughtered because of the word of God and because of the testimony that they were having.

UST

⁹ The Lamb then opened the fifth piece of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, I saw, at the base of an altar in heaven, the souls of people whom others had killed because they spoke God's message faithfully as reliable witnesses.

What did John see after the fifth seal was opened?

John saw the souls of those who had been killed because of the word of God and the testimony they held.

Revelation 6:10ULT

¹⁰ And they cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Until when, holy and true Ruler, do you not judge and avenge our blood from the ones living on the earth?"

UST

¹⁰ These souls called out {to God} loudly, "You, Master, always do what is right and decide what is right! So please condemn and punish the people on the earth who killed us!"

What did the souls under the altar want to know from God?

The souls wanted to know how long it would be until God avenged their blood.

Revelation 6:11ULT

¹¹ And a white robe was given to each of them, and it was said to them that they should wait yet a little time until should be completed both their fellow servants and their brothers {who} were going to be killed as they also {were}.

UST

¹¹ Then God gave each of them a white flowing robe. God told them to be patient a little longer, because there were others who were also going to die rather than deny their faith in Jesus. But as soon as all of them had died, God would punish the people who had killed them and had killed the people whose souls were now in heaven.

How long were the souls told they would have to wait?

The souls were told they would have to wait until the full number of fellow servants and brothers (that is, fellow believers) were killed.

Revelation 6:12ULT

¹² And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and a great earthquake happened, and the sun became black, like sackcloth {made} of hair, and the full moon became like blood,

UST

¹² Then I saw the Lamb open the sixth piece of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, the earth shook violently. The sun turned very dark, like mourning cloth woven from black goat hair. The moon was full and it became as red as blood.

What did John see after the sixth seal was opened? (vv12-13)

John saw an earthquake, the sun becoming black, the moon becoming like blood, and the stars falling to the earth.

Revelation 6:13ULT

¹³ and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its unseasonable fruit, being shaken by a great wind.

UST

¹³ Then the stars fell from the sky down to the earth. They fell just as figs left on a fig tree all fall off when the tree shakes in a very strong wind.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 6:14ULT

¹⁴ And the sky was split like a scroll being rolled up, and all the mountains and islands were removed from their places.

UST

¹⁴ The sky split open and rolled away in both directions, just as a scroll rolls away in both directions if it splits in two. All the mountains and islands also moved out of their places.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 6:15ULT

¹⁵ And the kings of the earth and the magnates and the chiliarchs and the rich and the powerful and every slave and free {person} hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains,

UST

¹⁵ Then all the people on earth, even kings, high-ranking officials, military officers, rich people, and influential individuals, hid within caves and mountain rocks.

What did John see the kings, generals, rich, powerful, and everyone else doing? (vv15-16)

John saw them hiding in caves and asking the rocks to fall on them and hide them.

Revelation 6:16

ULT

¹⁶ and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one sitting on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb,

UST

¹⁶ They told the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and cover us! That way God, who sits on the throne in heaven, will not be able to see us! And that way the Lamb will not be able to punish us!"

From what did the kings, generals, rich, powerful, and everyone else want to be hidden?

They wanted to be hidden from the one seated on the throne and from the anger of the Lamb.

Revelation 6:17

ULT

¹⁷ because the great day of their anger has come, and who is able to stand?"

UST

¹⁷ For today is the terrible day on which God and the Lamb will punish people who have done wrong, and we know that none of us are innocent!"

What day had come?

The great day of the anger of the one sitting on the throne and the Lamb had come.

Revelation 7

Revelation 7:1

ULT

¹ After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth so that wind would not blow on the land or on the sea or on any tree.

UST

¹ After these events I saw four angels standing on the earth. One was standing to the north of me, one to the east, one to the south, and one to the west. They were keeping the winds from those directions from blowing on the land or on the sea or against any tree.

What were the four angels standing on the four corners of the earth doing when John saw them?

The four angels were holding back the four winds of the earth.

Revelation 7:2

ULT

² And I saw another angel coming up from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God. And he cried in a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to them to harm the earth and the sea,

UST

² Then I saw another angel coming towards me from the east. This angel was holding a tool that would create the mark of the only true God. This angel called out loudly to the four angels whom God had allowed to keep the winds from blowing on the land and the sea.

What did the angel coming from the rising of the sun (that is, the east) say must be done before the earth, sea, and trees were harmed? (vv2-3)

The angel said that the servants of God must be sealed on their foreheads before the earth, sea, and trees were harmed.

Revelation 7:3

ULT

³ saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees until we might seal the servants of our God on their foreheads."

UST

³ The angel told {the other four angels}, "Wait, first we must mark the people who believe in and obey our God with a seal on their foreheads. Until then, do not keep the winds from blowing on the land or the sea or any tree."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 7:4ULT

⁴ And I heard the number of the ones having been sealed: 144 thousands, having been sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:

UST

⁴ {Then the angel and his fellow angels marked all of the people who believed in and obeyed God.} I heard someone say how many people they had marked. It was 144, 000 people from every tribe of Israel.

How many people were sealed and who were they?

144 thousands (that is, 144,000 people) were sealed, and they were from every tribe of the sons of Israel.

Revelation 7:5ULT

⁵ from the tribe of Judah, 12 thousands having been sealed; from the tribe of Reuben, 12 thousands; from the tribe of Gad, 12 thousands;

UST

⁵ The angels marked 12, 000 people from the tribe of Judah with a seal. {They also marked} 12, 000 people from the tribe of Reuben. From the tribe of Gad {they also marked} 12, 000 people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 7:9ULT

⁹ After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude that, to number it, no one was able, from every nation and tribe and people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, having been clothed in white robes, and palm branches {were} in their hands,

UST

⁹ After these events, I saw something remarkable: a huge crowd of people! There were so many people in the crowd that no one could count them. They came from every nation, tribe, and people group, and they spoke every language. They all stood in front of the throne, where the Lamb was. They all wore flowing white robes, and they were all holding palm branches.

What did John then see before the throne of God and in front of the Lamb?

John saw a great multitude from every nation, tribe, people, and language before the throne.

Revelation 7:10ULT

¹⁰ and they cry out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation {is} to our God, the one sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

UST

¹⁰ They were shouting loudly, "Our God, who rules over everything, has saved us! The Lamb has saved us!"

The great multitude called out that salvation belonged to someone. To whom did it belong?

Those before the throne called out that salvation belonged to God and to the Lamb.

Revelation 7:11ULT

¹¹ And all the angels had stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God,

UST

¹¹ Then all the angels stood around the throne, the elders, and the four living beings. The angels all knelt down in front of the throne with their faces on the ground and worshiped God.

What did the angels, elders, and living creatures do as they worshiped God?

They fell on their faces, that is, they lay down and put their faces on the ground, as they worshiped God.

Revelation 7:12ULT

¹² saying, "Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength {be} to our God, to the ages of the ages! Amen!"

UST

¹² The angels all said, "Yes, may it be so! We praise, glorify, thank, and honor you, our God, forever! We proclaim forever that you are wise, powerful, and strong! May it be so!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 7:13ULT

¹³ And one of the elders responded, saying to me, "These, the ones having been clothed in white robes, who are they, and where have they come from?"

UST

¹³ One of the elders then said to me, "I want to make sure you know who these people are who are wearing white flowing robes and where they have come from."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 7:14ULT

¹⁴ And I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones coming from the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

UST

¹⁴ I answered him, "Sir, I need you to tell me who they are." He then told me: "These are the people who remained faithful to Jesus during a time of great persecution. This showed that they have become pure from sin by trusting in Jesus, who shed his blood for them when he died on the cross.

Who did the elder say were the ones clothed in white robes before the throne?

The elder said they were the ones who had come out of the great tribulation.

How had the ones before the throne made their robes white?

They had made their robes white by washing them in the blood of the Lamb.

Revelation 7:15ULT

¹⁵ Because of this they are before the throne of God, and they worship him day and night in his temple. And the one sitting on the throne will tabernacle over them.

UST

¹⁵ Therefore, they remain in front of God's throne. They worship God inside his temple without stopping. God, the one who rules from the throne in heaven, will protect them.

What did the elder say God would do for those who were clothed in white robes? (vv15-16)

God would spread his tent over them so they would not be hungry or thirsty or burned by the sun anymore.

Revelation 7:16ULT

¹⁶ They will not hunger anymore, nor will they thirst anymore, nor will the sun fall on them at all, nor any heat,

UST

¹⁶ God will make sure that they always have enough food to eat. God will also make sure that they always have enough to drink. The rays of the sun will never again burn them. The heat from the sun will never again exhaust them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 7:17

ULT

¹⁷ because the Lamb at the midst of the throne will shepherd them and guide them to springs of the waters of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

UST

¹⁷ This is because the Lamb who is by the throne will care for them just as a shepherd cares for his sheep. The Lamb will enable them to receive everlasting life, as if they were drinking from springs where fresh, pure water flows. God will help them to stop crying and be joyful.”

What did the elder say the Lamb would do for those who are clothed in white robes?

The Lamb will shepherd them and guide them to springs of living water.

Revelation 8

Revelation 8:1

Revelation 9:3

ULT

³ And locusts came from the smoke onto the earth, and power was given to them as scorpions of the earth have power.

UST

³ Then locusts came out of the smoke and started swarming the earth. God gave these locusts the power to sting people just as scorpions sting people.

What did God tell the locusts from the pit to do? (vv3-4)

God told the locusts not to damage the earth but only the people who did not have the seal of God.

Revelation 9:4ULT

⁴ And it was told to them that they should not harm the grass of the earth or any green plant or any tree, if not the men who did not have the seal of God on {their} foreheads.

UST

⁴ God told the locusts that they should not eat up all the grass on the ground and all the plants and all the leaves on the trees {as locusts usually do}. God told the locusts just to sting the people who did not have the mark on their foreheads that showed they belonged to God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 9:5ULT

⁵ And it was given to them that they should not kill them, but that they would be tormented for five months and their torment {would be} like the torment of a scorpion when it might strike a man.

UST

⁵ God did not allow the locusts to kill those people. Instead, the locusts kept torturing people for five months. The pain those people felt was like the pain that a scorpion causes when it stings someone.

What plagues killed a third of humanity?

The plagues of fire, smoke, and sulfur from the mouths of the horses killed a third of humanity.

Revelation 9:19ULT

¹⁹ For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails, for their tails {are} like snakes, having heads, and with them they injure.

UST

¹⁹ But the power of the horses was also in their tails, as well as in their mouths. Their tails were like snakes, and they had heads that bit people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 9:20ULT

²⁰ And the rest of men, the ones not killed in these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, so that they will not worship demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which are able neither to see nor to hear nor to walk.

UST

²⁰ But there were still people whom the plagues of fire and smoke and burning sulfur did not kill. Those people did not stop doing sinful things. They also did not stop worshiping demons and idols that they had made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood. The people did not stop worshiping the idols even though they were lifeless statues that could not help people.

How did the people not killed in the plagues respond?

The people not killed in the plagues did not repent of their works, that is, they did not stop worshiping demons and idols.

Revelation 9:21ULT

²¹ And they did not repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

UST

²¹ They also did not stop murdering other people, practicing sorcery, acting in sexually immoral ways, and stealing things.

Revelation 13

Revelation 13:1

ULT

¹ And I saw a beast coming up from the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on its horns {were} ten crowns, and on its heads {was} a blasphemous name. ^[1]

UST

¹ Then I saw a beast come up out of the ocean. It had ten horns and seven heads. On each of its horns there was a royal crown. On each of its heads there was a name that insulted God.

From where did the beast come that John saw?

The beast that John saw came up from the sea.

Revelation 13:2

ULT

² And the beast that I saw was like a leopard and its feet {were} as of a bear and its mouth {was} as the mouth of a lion, and the dragon gave to it his power and his throne and great authority.

UST

² This beast was like a leopard, but its feet were like the feet of a bear. Its mouth was like the mouth of a lion. The dragon made the beast very powerful. He also gave him the supreme right to rule over people as their king.

What did the dragon give to the beast?

The dragon gave the beast his power, his throne, and great authority.

Revelation 13:3

ULT

³ And one of its heads {was} as if it had been slain unto death, but its wound of death had been healed. And the whole earth was astonished after the beast,

UST

³ One of the heads of the beast looked as if someone had wounded it so that it had died. But that wound had healed. As a result, all the people of the earth marveled at the beast and obeyed it.

Why was the whole earth astonished?

The whole earth was astonished because the beast had a wound of death (a fatal wound) that had been healed.

Revelation 13:4ULT

⁴ and they worshiped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who {is} like the beast, and who is able to war with it?"

UST

⁴ They worshiped the dragon because he had given the beast authority to rule over them. They also worshiped the beast. They said, "No one is as powerful as the beast! No one could ever fight against it!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 13:5ULT

⁵ And to it was given a mouth speaking great {things} and blasphemies, and authority was given to it to act for 42 months.

UST

⁵ The dragon enabled the beast to speak proudly and to insult God. The dragon also enabled it to rule the people on earth. But God would only allow the beast to rule for 42 months.

What did the beast say with the mouth it was given? (vv5-6)

The beast spoke great (proud) things and blasphemies against God, his name, his tabernacle, and those living in heaven.

Revelation 13:6ULT

⁶ And it opened its mouth unto blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name and his tabernacle, the ones tabernacling in heaven.

UST

⁶ When the beast spoke, it insulted God. It said that God was not really like what people believed him to be like. The beast also insulted the people in heaven among whom God lives.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 13:7ULT

⁷ And to it was granted to make war with the saints and to conquer them, and authority was given to it over every tribe and people and language and nation.

UST

⁷ The dragon enabled the beast to fight against God's people and conquer them. The dragon also gave the beast the right to rule over people no matter what tribe they came from or what group they belonged to or what language they spoke or where they lived.

What was the beast allowed to do against the saints?

The beast was allowed to make war against the saints and to conquer them.

Revelation 13:8ULT

⁸ And all the ones living on the earth will worship it, of whom his name has not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb having been slain from the foundation of the world.

UST

⁸ The names of some of the people living on earth do not appear in the Book of Life. Those people will worship the beast. The Book of Life belongs to the Lamb. The Lamb gave up his life at the beginning of the world in order to become the Savior.

Who will not worship the beast?

Anyone whose name is written in the Book of Life will not worship the beast.

Revelation 13:9ULT

⁹ If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

UST

⁹ Everyone who wants to understand must listen carefully to this message from God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 13:10ULT

¹⁰ If anyone {is} for captivity, he departs; if anyone will be killed by the sword, it is necessary for him to be killed by the sword. Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints.

UST

¹⁰ If anyone's enemies are going to capture him, they will capture him. If anyone's enemies are going to kill him with a sword, they will kill him with a sword. So God's people must endure suffering and remain faithful to him.

What qualities does John say the saints must have?

John says that the saints must have endurance and faith.

Revelation 13:11ULT

¹¹ And I saw another beast coming up from the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb but it was speaking like a dragon.

UST

¹¹ Then I saw another beast come up from the earth. It had two small horns on its head as a sheep has. But its voice sounded like a dragon's voice.

From where did the other beast come that John saw?

The other beast that John saw came up out of the earth.

What kind of horns and voice did the other beast have?

The other beast had horns like a lamb but its voice sounded like a dragon's voice (it was speaking like a dragon).

Revelation 13:12ULT

¹² And it exercises all the authority of the first beast before it, and it makes the earth and the ones living on it that they will worship the first beast, of whom his wound of death had been healed.

UST

¹² This beast from the earth carries out all the orders of the beast from the sea. It requires the people who live on the earth to worship the beast from the sea. That is the beast that almost died but whose wound healed.

The other beast caused those who live on the earth to do something. What was it?

The other beast caused those who live on the earth to worship the first beast.

Revelation 13:13ULT

¹³ And it does great signs, so that it might even cause fire to come down from heaven to the earth before men.

UST

¹³ The beast from the earth also did amazing miracles. It even caused fire to fall from the sky onto the earth while people watched.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 13:14ULT

¹⁴ And it deceives the ones living on the earth through the signs that have been granted to it to do before the beast, telling the ones living on the earth to make an image to the beast that has the wound of the sword and has lived.

UST

¹⁴ The dragon gave the beast from the earth the power to do these miracles on behalf of the beast from the sea. The beast from the earth used the miracles to deceive the people who live on the earth. It told them to make an idol that looked like the beast from the sea. That was the beast that survived a sword wound that seemed to kill it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 13:15ULT

¹⁵ And it was granted to it to give breath to the image of the beast so that the image of the beast might even speak and might cause whoever does not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

UST

¹⁵ The dragon gave the beast from the earth the power to make that idol live. Then the idol that looked like the beast from the sea was able to speak. The beast from the earth then commanded that anyone who refused to worship the idol would be killed.

What did the other beast do to whoever did not worship the image of the beast?

The other beast caused whoever did not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

Revelation 13:16ULT

¹⁶ And it causes everyone, the small and the great and the rich and the poor and the free and the slave, that they might give to them a mark on their right hand or on their forehead,

UST

¹⁶ The beast from the earth also required each person to have a mark on his right hand or on his forehead. This requirement applied to important people and unimportant people. It applied to people who were rich and people who were poor. It applied to free people and to slaves. It applied to everyone!

What did the other beast cause everyone to receive?

The other beast caused everyone to receive a mark on the right hand or on the forehead.

Revelation 13:17ULT

¹⁷ and that no one would be able to buy or to sell except the one having the mark, the name of the beast or the number of its name.

UST

¹⁷ Then the beast from the earth ordered that no one could buy or sell anything if he did not have this mark. This mark was the name of the beast from the sea or the number that stood for its name.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 13:18ULT

¹⁸ Here is wisdom: The one having understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast. For it is the number of a man, and its number is 666.

13:1 ^[1]

UST

¹⁸ You must think wisely about this: Anyone who understands things well can figure out the identity of the beast from the sea. That is because the number that stands for its name actually represents the name of a man. That number is 666.

What is the number of the beast?

The number of the beast is 666.

Revelation 14

Revelation 14:1

ULT

¹ And I looked and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him {were} 144 thousands having his name and the name of his Father written on their foreheads.

UST

¹ But then I saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion in Jerusalem. With him were 144, 000 people. He had written his name and his Father's name on their foreheads.

Whom did John see standing on Mount Zion?

John saw the Lamb and 144 thousands (144,000 people) standing on Mount Zion.

Revelation 14:2

ULT

² And I heard a sound from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of great thunder, and the sound that I heard {was} like harpists harping on their harps.

UST

² I also heard a sound from heaven. It was as loud as the sound of a huge waterfall or of mighty thunder. It also sounded like many people playing on harps.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 14:3

ULT

³ And they sing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders, and no one was able to learn the song except the 144 thousands having been bought from the earth.

UST

³ This sound was of the people I saw singing a new song. They were standing in front of the throne and the four living creatures and the elders. The Lamb had saved these 144, 000 people from among all the people on the earth. Only they could learn that song.

Who was able to learn the new song that was sung before the throne?

Only the 144,000 people who had been bought from the earth were able to learn the new song.

Revelation 14:4ULT

⁴ These are they who have not been defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones following the Lamb wherever he goes. These have been bought from among men as first fruits for God and for the Lamb,

UST

⁴ Those 144,000 people are spiritually pure, as virgins are morally pure. They have not made themselves impure by worshiping any false god. They are the ones who accompany Jesus, the one who is like a lamb, wherever he goes. They represent all those whom he has saved so far from among the people of the earth. Those who have believed in Jesus will share their faith and lead many others to believe in God and Jesus.

Who have been bought as first fruits for God and for the Lamb? (vv4-5)

The 144,000 blameless people have been bought as first fruits to God and to the Lamb.

Revelation 14:5ULT

⁵ and no lie has been found in their mouth, for they are blameless. ^[1]

UST

⁵ These people never denied Jesus. They always lived pure lives.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 14:6ULT

⁶ And I saw another angel flying in midair, having the eternal gospel to proclaim to the ones living on the earth, even to every nation and tribe and language and people,

UST

⁶ Then I saw another angel flying through the sky. He was bringing God's eternal good news from heaven so that he could proclaim it to the people who live on earth. He will proclaim it to every nation, to every tribe, to speakers of every language, and to every people group.

To whom did the angel give the eternal message of good news?

The angel gave the eternal message of good news to every nation, tribe, language, and people on the earth.

Revelation 14:7ULT

⁷ saying in a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship the one having made the heaven and the earth and the sea and the springs of water."

UST

⁷ He said in a loud voice, "Honor God and praise him because it is now time for him to judge everyone! Worship him because he is the one who created heaven and earth and the ocean and the fresh water."

What did the angel tell those the ones living on the earth to do?

The angel told them to fear God and to give him glory.

What hour (time) did the angel say had come?

The angel said the hour of God's judgment had come.

Revelation 14:8ULT

⁸ And another, a second, followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen has Babylon the Great, who caused all the nations to drink from the wine of the passion of her immorality!"

UST

⁸ And then another angel came after that one. This angel said, "The very evil city of Babylon has now become a complete ruin! Babylon forced the people of every nation to be unfaithful to God by worshipping idols."

What did the second angel say had happened?

The second angel said that Babylon the Great had fallen.

Revelation 14:9ULT

⁹ And another angel, a third, followed them, saying in a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand,

UST

⁹ Yet another angel came afterward. This angel said in a loud voice, "If people worship the beast and its image or allow someone to put its mark on their foreheads or on their hands,

Revelation 14:10ULT

¹⁰ he will also drink from the wine of the wrath of God having been poured undiluted into the cup of his anger, and he will be tormented with fire and sulfur before the holy angels and before the Lamb.

UST

¹⁰ God will duly punish them. They will stagger from the punishment as if they had drunk strong wine. He will torment them in burning sulfur as his holy angels and the Lamb are watching.

What did the third angel say would happen to anyone who worshiped the beast and received his mark?

The third angel said that those who worshiped the beast and received his mark would be tormented with fire and sulfur.

Revelation 14:11ULT

¹¹ And the smoke of their torment goes up to the ages of the ages, and they have no rest day and night, the ones worshiping the beast and his image and if anyone receives the mark of his name.

UST

¹¹ The smoke from the fire that torments them will rise forever. God will torment them all the time without stopping. This is what will happen to the people who worship the beast and its image or who allow someone to write its name on them."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 14:12ULT

¹² Here is the endurance of the saints, the ones keeping the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus."

UST

¹² God's people are those who obey what God commands and who trust in Jesus. They must continue to do these things faithfully {because those who disobey God and deny Jesus will experience these torments}.

What quality did John say the saints should have?

John said that the saints should have endurance.

Revelation 14:13ULT

¹³ And I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write, 'Blessed {are} the dead dying in the Lord from now on.'" "Yes," says the Spirit, "so they will rest from their labors, for their deeds follow with them."

UST

¹³ Then I heard someone speaking from heaven and saying, "Write this: How fortunate from now on are those who die as faithful believers in Jesus." The Holy Spirit says, "Yes, after they die, they will no longer have to endure suffering. Instead, it will be clear that they were doing the right things."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 14:14ULT

¹⁴ And I looked and behold, a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud one like a son of man, having a golden crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand.

UST

¹⁴ Then I saw something else very significant. I saw a white cloud, and someone was sitting on the cloud who looked like a human being. He was wearing a golden crown on his head. He held a sharp sickle in his hand.

Whom did John see seated on a white cloud?

John saw one like a son of man seated on a white cloud.

Revelation 14:15ULT

¹⁵ And another angel came out of the temple, crying out in a loud voice to the one sitting on the cloud: "Extend your sickle and reap, because the time to reap has come, since the harvest of the earth has been ripened."

UST

¹⁵ Still another angel came out of the temple in heaven. In a loud voice, he said to the one who was sitting on the cloud, "The grain on the earth is ripe. So this is the time to reap it. So use your sickle to reap the grain."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 14:16ULT

¹⁶ And the one sitting on the cloud swung his sickle upon the earth, and the earth was harvested.

UST

¹⁶ Then the person who looked like a human being and who was sitting on the cloud used his sickle to harvest all of the grain on the earth.

What did the one sitting on the cloud do?

The one sitting on the cloud swung his sickle and harvested the earth.

Revelation 14:17ULT

¹⁷ And another angel came out from the temple in heaven, also having a sharp sickle himself.

UST

¹⁷ Another angel then came out of the heavenly sanctuary. This angel was also holding a sharp sickle.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 14:18ULT

¹⁸ And another angel {came} from the altar, the one having authority over the fire, and he shouted in a loud voice to the one having the sharp sickle, saying, "Send out your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the grapevine of the earth, for their grapes have ripened."

UST

¹⁸ One more angel came from the altar. He is the one who takes care of the fire of the altar. He said in a loud voice to the angel who was holding the sickle, "The grapes on the earth are ripe! So use your sickle to cut the bunches of grapes off of the earth's grapevines. Then collect those bunches of grapes."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 14:19ULT

¹⁹ And the angel swung his sickle to the earth and harvested the grapevine of the earth, and he threw {the grapes} into the great winepress of the wrath of God.

UST

¹⁹ So the angel used his sickle to harvest the grapes. Then he threw the grapes into the huge winepress that represents the place where God will punish people for what they have done wrong.

What did the angel with the sickle do?

The angel with the sickle harvested the grapevine of the earth and threw the grapes into the great winepress of the wrath of God.

Revelation 14:20ULT

²⁰ And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood came out from the winepress up to the bridles of the horses for 1,600 stadia.

14:5 ^[1]

UST

²⁰ God trampled the grapes in the winepress outside the city. When he did, blood poured out of the winepress! It flowed in such quantity that it formed a stream that was a meter and a half deep and extended for three hundred kilometers.

What came out from the winepress when it was trampled?

Blood came out from the winepress when it was trampled.

Revelation 15

Revelation 15:1

ULT

¹ And I saw another great and marvelous sign in heaven: seven angels having seven final plagues, for with them the wrath of God was finished.

UST

¹ Then something else very significant appeared in the sky. I saw seven angels. God had given them the duty to punish rebellious people in seven different ways. This is the last time that God will punish people this way, because through these punishments he will have given people on earth all of the punishment that they deserve.

What did the seven angels have whom John saw?

The seven angels had seven final plagues.

Revelation 15:2

ULT

² Then I saw as it were a sea of glass having been mixed with fire and the ones being victorious over the beast and over his image and over the number of his name standing on the sea of glass having the harps of God.

UST

² I also saw a great flat area of glass that was sparkling with light. I also saw the people who had overcome the beast by not worshipping it or its image and by not allowing anyone to mark them with the number that represents the beast's name. They were standing on the large flat area of glass. They were holding harps that God had given them.

Who was standing by the sea?

The ones being victorious over the beast and his image and the number of his name were standing by the sea.

Revelation 15:3ULT

³ And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous {are} your deeds, Lord God, Ruler of All. Righteous and true {are} your ways, King of the Ages. [1]"

UST

³ They were singing a song such as God's servant Moses sang long ago. It was the same kind of song that the Lamb now sings. They sang, "Lord God, who rules over everything, all that you do is very marvelous! You always act entirely righteously. You rule as King forever!"

Whose song were those standing by the sea singing?

Those standing by the sea were singing the song of Moses and the song of the Lamb.

How were God's ways described in the song?

God's ways were described as righteous and true.

Revelation 15:4ULT

⁴ Who will certainly not fear {you}, Lord, and glorify your name? For {you} alone {are} holy. For all the nations will come and worship before you, because your righteous deeds have been manifested."

UST

⁴ O Lord, everyone will fear you and honor you because you alone are holy. Yes, people from every group will come and bow down to you in worship because you have shown that you have judged everyone in the right way."

According to the song, who will come and worship God?

All nations will come and worship God.

Revelation 15:5ULT

⁵ And after these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven had been opened.

UST

⁵ Then, after that, I saw that the doors of the temple in heaven were open. That heavenly temple was like the tent on earth that had held the sacred chest.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 15:6ULT

⁶ And the seven angels having the seven plagues came out from the temple, having been clothed with clean, bright linen and with golden sashes having been wrapped around {their} chests.

UST

⁶ The seven angels whose duty it was to punish rebellious people in seven different ways came out of the temple. The angels were wearing clean, white linen garments. They were also wearing bands of golden fabric around their chests.

Who then came out from the temple?

The seven angels having the seven plagues then came out from the temple.

Revelation 15:7ULT

⁷ And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls being full of the wrath of the God living to the ages of the ages.

UST

⁷ One of the four living creatures gave each of the seven angels a golden bowl. Inside each bowl was a different kind of punishment for people who had done wrong. The angels would administer these punishments on behalf of God, who lives forever and ever.

What did one of the four living creatures give to the seven angels?

One of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven bowls full of the wrath of God.

Revelation 15:8ULT

⁸ And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

15:3 ^[1]

UST

⁸ Then smoke that expressed the presence of the glorious and all-powerful God filled the temple. {The smoke remained there while the angels were administering the plagues.} Only after the seven angels finished punishing the people of the earth in seven different ways could anyone enter the temple again.

Until when could no one enter the temple?

No one could enter the temple until the seven plagues were completed.

Revelation 16

Revelation 16:1

ULT

¹ And I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God onto the earth."

UST

¹ Next I heard someone in the temple speak in a loud voice to the angels who had the seven bowls. He told them, "Go from here and pour out what you have in your seven bowls onto the earth. This is how God will punish people for their sins."

What did the voice tell the seven angels to do?

The voice told the seven angels to go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of God's wrath onto the earth.

Revelation 16:2

ULT

² And the first went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and a bad and harmful sore happened on the men having the mark of the beast and the ones worshiping its image.

UST

² So the first angel went and poured out what he had in his bowl onto the earth. As a result, terrible sores broke out on the people who had allowed the beast's servants to write the beast's name on them. These were the people who had worshiped the beast's image.

What happened when the first angel poured out his bowl?

The people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped its image got bad sores.

Revelation 16:3

ULT

³ And the second poured out his bowl into the sea and it became blood as of a corpse, and every living soul in the sea died.

UST

³ Then the second angel poured out what he had in his bowl on the ocean. As a result, the water of the sea turned into blood. That blood was decayed and stinky like the blood of a dead person. Every creature that lived in the ocean died.

What happened when the second angel poured out his bowl?

The sea became like the blood of a dead person.

Revelation 16:4ULT

⁴ And the third poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and it became blood.

UST

⁴ Then the third angel poured out what he had in his bowl upon the earth's rivers and springs. As a result, the water in them turned into blood.

What happened when the third angel poured out his bowl?

The rivers and springs of water became blood.

Revelation 16:5ULT

⁵ And I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous, the one being and the one who was, the Holy One, because you have judged these." ^[1]

UST

⁵ Then I heard the angel who was in charge of those waters say to God, "O God, you exist and have always existed. You are supremely holy. You are a fair judge of people."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 16:6ULT

⁶ Because they poured out the blood of the saints and prophets, you have also given blood to them to drink; they are worthy."

UST

⁶ The people who rebelled against you murdered your holy people and the prophets. So you are just in punishing them by giving them blood to drink."

Why was it true and just that God gave these people blood to drink?

It was true and just because these people had poured out the blood of God's saints and prophets.

Revelation 16:7ULT

⁷ And I heard the altar saying, "Yes, Lord God, Ruler of All, your judgments {are} true and righteous."

UST

⁷ Then I heard the altar answer, "Yes, Lord God, you who rule over everything, you punish people completely fairly."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

⁸ And the fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was granted to it to scorch men with fire.

UST

⁸ Then the fourth angel poured out what he had in his bowl on the sun. As a result, the sun became so hot that it burned people very badly.

What happened when the fourth angel poured out his bowl?

The sun scorched people with fire.

Revelation 16:9ULT

⁹ And men were scorched a great scorch and they blasphemed the name of the God having authority over these plagues, but they did not repent to give him glory.

UST

⁹ Because the sun burned people so badly, they said evil things about God because he had the power to punish them in these ways. But they still refused to stop doing wrong things and they still refused to praise him.

How did the people respond to these plagues?

The people did not repent to give God glory.

Revelation 16:10ULT

¹⁰ And the fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom became darkened. And they were chewing their tongues from the pain,

UST

¹⁰ Then the fifth angel poured out what he had in his bowl on the throne of the beast. As a result, it became dark where the beast ruled. {Because it was like night all the time, the people whom the beast ruled could feel the pain of their terrible sores even more.} So they were biting their tongues because of this pain.

What happened when the fifth angel poured out his bowl?

The kingdom of the beast became darkened.

Revelation 16:11ULT

¹¹ and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pain and because of their sores, but they did not repent of their deeds.

UST

¹¹ They also said evil things about God who rules in heaven because their sores were so painful. But they refused to stop doing wrong things.

Revelation 16:21ULT

²¹ And great hail, about a talent in weight, comes down from heaven upon men, and men blasphemed God because of the plague of hail, because that plague is exceedingly great.

16:5 ^[1]

UST

²¹ Then huge hailstones, each weighing 33 kilograms, fell from the sky onto people. Then people said evil things about God because he had punished them in this terrible way with those huge, heavy hailstones.

How did the people respond to the plague of hail?

The people blasphemed God.

Revelation 17

Revelation 17:1

ULT

¹ And one of the seven angels holding the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute sitting on many waters,

UST

¹ One of the seven angels who had the bowls came over to me. He said, "Come with me. I want to show you how God will punish the evil prostitute whom you saw sitting near a great river.

What did the angel say he would show John?

The angel said he would show John the judgment of the great prostitute.

Revelation 17:2

ULT

² with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality and the ones living {on} the earth were intoxicated from the wine of her sexual immorality."

UST

² The kings of the earth have worshiped the idols she wanted them to worship. The people they rule have also worshiped those idols. It was as if they had gotten drunk on wine that she gave them."

Revelation 17:3

ULT

³ And he carried me away in the Spirit to a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast being full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns.

UST

³ Then the Holy Spirit inspired me so that I could see and hear things in a vision. The angel carried me away to a desolate area. There I saw a woman who was riding on a red beast. The beast had written names all over itself. They were names that insulted God. The beast had seven heads and ten horns.

On what was the woman sitting?

The woman was sitting on a scarlet beast that had seven heads and ten horns.

Revelation 17:4ULT

⁴ And the woman was clothed in purple and scarlet and adorned with gold and precious stone and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup being full of abominations and the impurities of her sexual immorality,

UST

⁴ Now the woman was wearing purple and red clothes. She had gold jewelry with precious stones and pearls. She held a golden cup in her hand. That cup was full of something to drink that stands for the awful things she does when she commits sexual immorality.

What was in the cup which the woman held in her hand?

The cup was full of abominations and the impurities of her sexual immorality.

Revelation 17:5ULT

⁵ and on her forehead had been written a name, a mystery: Babylon the Great, the Mother of Prostitutes and of the Abominations of the Earth.

UST

⁵ And there was a name in writing on her forehead. The name had a secret meaning. That name was: The Great Babylon, the Mother of Prostitutes and of the Immoral Things in the World.

What was the woman's name?

The woman's name was "Babylon the Great, the Mother of Prostitutes and of the Abominations of the Earth."

Revelation 17:6ULT

⁶ And I saw the woman being drunk from the blood of the saints and from the blood of the witnesses of Jesus and, having seen her, I wondered a great wonder.

UST

⁶ I saw that the woman had become drunk because she had drunk the blood of God's people. Those people had suffered for proclaiming the truth about Jesus. When I saw her, that astonished me completely.

With what was the woman drunk?

The woman was drunk with the blood of the saints and witnesses for Jesus.

Revelation 17:7ULT

⁷ But the angel said to me, "Why are you wondering? I will tell to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast carrying her having the seven heads and the ten horns.

UST

⁷ The angel said to me, "This should not astonish you. I will explain to you the hidden meaning of the woman and of the beast on which she rides. That beast has seven heads and ten horns.

Revelation 17:8ULT

⁸ The beast that you saw was and is not but is about to come up from the abyss, and it is going to destruction, and the ones living on the earth whose names have not been written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world will wonder, seeing the beast that was and is not but will come.

UST

⁸ The beast that you saw lived previously. Now he is no longer alive. But he is about to come back up from the deep, dark pit. Eventually God will destroy him. But this beast will appear again after having lived previously and then dying. Seeing him will astonish the people on the earth whose names God did not write in the Book of Life before he created the world.

From where did the beast come on which the woman sat?

The beast came up from the abyss.

To where was the beast going?

The beast was going to destruction.

Revelation 17:9ULT

⁹ Here {is} the mind having wisdom: The seven heads are seven hills where the woman is sitting on them, and they are seven kings;

UST

⁹ People need to think wisely to understand this: The seven heads of the beast that the woman is riding represent seven hills. Those are the seven hills of the city that the woman represents. The heads also represent seven rulers.

What were the seven heads of the beast? (vv9-10)

The seven heads were seven hills on which the woman was seated, and they were also seven kings.

Revelation 17:10ULT

¹⁰ the five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come, and when he comes, it is necessary for him to remain a little.

UST

¹⁰ Five of those rulers have died. One is still alive. The seventh ruler has not yet come. And when he comes, he will rule for only a short time.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 17:11ULT

¹¹ And the beast that was and is not is itself also an eighth, but it is from the seven and is going to destruction.

UST

¹¹ The beast that lived previously and then was not alive will be an eighth ruler. He is actually one of those seven rulers. God will certainly destroy him.

To where was the beast going?

The beast was going to destruction.

Revelation 17:12ULT

¹² And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they are receiving authority as kings with the beast for one hour.

UST

¹² Now the ten horns that you saw represent ten rulers who have not yet begun to rule. But they will rule people together with the beast, though only for a short time.

What were the ten horns of the beast?

The ten horns were ten kings.

Revelation 17:13ULT

¹³ These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast.

UST

¹³ Those rulers will all agree to do the same thing. As a result, they will give the beast their power to rule.

What will the kings and the beast do when they are of one mind? (vv13-14)

When they are of one mind, they will make war against the Lamb.

Revelation 17:14ULT

¹⁴ They will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will conquer them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings and the ones with him {are} called and chosen and faithful.”

UST

¹⁴ The rulers and the beast will fight against the Lamb. He will defeat them because he is the Lord who rules over all other lords and the King who rules over all other kings. The people who are with him are the ones whom God has chosen and called to himself and who keep serving him faithfully.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 17:15ULT

¹⁵ And he says to me, “The waters that you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages.

UST

¹⁵ Then the angel said to me, “The waters that you saw in the city where the prostitute sits represent a large number of people from many different backgrounds.

What were the waters where the prostitute was sitting?

The waters were peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages.

Revelation 17:16ULT

¹⁶ And the ten horns that you saw and the beast, they will hate the prostitute and they will make her desolated and naked and they will consume her flesh and they will burn her completely with fire,

UST

¹⁶ And the ten horns that you saw represent rulers. They and the beast will hate the prostitute. So they will plunder the city and leave nothing in it. Then they will destroy the city the way a wild animal devours another animal. They will burn down the city completely.

What would the kings and the beast do to the woman?

They would make the woman desolated and naked, consume her flesh, and burn her completely with fire.

Revelation 17:17ULT

¹⁷ for God has put into their hearts to do his purpose and to do one purpose and to give their kingdom to the beast until the words of God will be fulfilled.

UST

¹⁷ They will do that because God has caused them to decide to do what he wants them to do. As a result, they will all agree together to let the beast have their power to rule until God has accomplished what he said.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 17:18ULT

¹⁸ And the woman whom you saw is the great city having a kingdom over the kings of the earth."

UST

¹⁸ And the prostitute that you saw represents the very evil city whose leaders rule over the other rulers in the world."

What was the woman that John saw?

The woman that John saw was the great city that has a kingdom over the kings of the earth.

Revelation 18

Revelation 18:1

ULT

¹ After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his glory.

UST

¹ After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven. God had given great authority to this angel. The angel was shining so brightly that he lit up the earth.

What announcement did the angel with great authority make? (vv1-2)

The angel announced that Babylon the Great had fallen.

Revelation 18:2

ULT

² And he cried out in a mighty voice, saying, "Babylon the Great has fallen! And she has become a habitation of demons and a hold of every unclean spirit and a hold of every unclean and detested bird. ^[1]

UST

² The angel shouted very loudly, "God is about to destroy the evil city of Babylon completely. {People will no longer live in the ruins of the city.} All kinds of evil spirits will live there. All kinds of disgusting scavenger birds will also live there.

Revelation 18:3

ULT

³ For all the nations have drunk from the wine of her immoral passion and the kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality with her and the merchants of the earth have become rich from the power of her luxury."

UST

³ God is going to destroy Babylon because that evil city influenced many people groups to devote themselves to idol worship. Babylon influenced the rulers of those groups, and they made their people worship idols. Babylon also set an example of living in luxury. This made people in other places want to live in the same way. Those who sold luxury goods made a lot of money selling the goods to those people."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 18:4ULT

⁴ And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out from her, my people, so that you might not share in her sins and so that you might not receive from her plagues.

UST

⁴ Then I heard someone else speak from heaven. He said, "My people, run away from that evil city of Babylon! If you stay there, you may sin as the people there do. And if you sin as they do, I will punish you in the same way that I will punish them.

What did the voice from heaven tell God's people to do?

The voice told God's people to come out from Babylon in order not share in her sins.

Revelation 18:5ULT

⁵ For her sins have been heaped as far as heaven, and God has remembered her offenses.

UST

⁵ Run away because the people of that evil city have sinned very greatly and God is now going to punish them for what they have done."

Revelation 18:6ULT

⁶ Give back to her even as she has given, and double doubles {to her} according to her deeds; in the cup that she mixed, mix double for her.

UST

⁶ {The voice from heaven told the angels whom God had assigned to punish Babylon,} "Punish the people of that city just as much as they harmed other people. In fact, cause them to suffer twice as much as they caused other people to suffer.

What amount of payment did God give back to Babylon for what she had done?

God paid back Babylon double for what she had done.

Revelation 18:7ULT

⁷ As much as she glorified herself and lived in luxury, give her just as much torture and grief. For she says in her heart, 'I sit {as} a queen and I am not a widow and I will certainly not see mourning.'

UST

⁷ The people of the city of Babylon honored themselves. They indulged in pleasures. To the same extent that they did that, torment them and cause them to grieve. Do that because they were confident that they would always rule other people. They were confident that they could provide themselves with everything they needed. They were confident that nothing bad would ever happen to them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 18:8ULT

⁸ Because of this in one day her plagues will come: death and mourning and famine, and she will be consumed by fire, for the Lord God judging her {is} mighty."

UST

⁸ Because the people of Babylon are so wicked, terrible things will happen to them all at once. Some will die and others will mourn for them. People will be hungry because they will have no food. The city will burn up completely. The Lord God is able to punish her in these ways because he is mighty."

What plagues will come on Babylon in one day?

Death, mourning, and famine will come on Babylon in one day, and she will be consumed with fire.

Revelation 18:9ULT

⁹ And the kings of the earth, the ones having committed sexual immorality and having lived in luxury with her, will weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning,

UST

⁹ The rulers of the peoples who live on earth worshiped idols with the people of Babylon. They indulged in pleasures with the people of Babylon. So they will mourn greatly for the city when they see it burning up.

How did the kings and merchants of the earth respond when they saw Babylon's judgment?

When the kings and merchants of the earth saw Babylon's judgment, they wept and wailed over her.

Why will the kings, merchants and ship's captains stand at a distance from Babylon at her time of judgment? (vv9-10)

They will stand at a distance because they are afraid of her torment.

Revelation 18:10ULT

¹⁰ standing from afar because of the fear of her torment, saying, "Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come."

UST

UST

¹⁵ Jesus had a sharp sword extending from his mouth. He will use it to defeat the rebellious people groups. He himself will rule them so powerfully that no one will be able to resist him. He will destroy his enemies as if they were grapes that he was crushing in a winepress. He will do this for God, who rules over everything and will punish his enemies thoroughly because of their sins.

What does the Word of God, the rider on the white horse, use to strike down the nations?

The Word of God, the rider on the white horse, uses the sharp sword that goes out of his mouth to strike down the nations.

Revelation 19:16ULT

¹⁶ And he has a name written on {his} robe and on his thigh: King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

UST

¹⁶ A title appeared on his cloak at his thigh: "This is the King who rules over all other kings and the Lord who rules over all other lords."

What name is written on the Word of God's robe and thigh?

The name written on his robe and thigh is King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

Revelation 19:17ULT

¹⁷ And I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried out in a loud voice, saying to all the birds flying in midheaven, "Come, be gathered together for the great supper of God,

UST

¹⁷ Then I saw an angel standing in the light of the sun. He called loudly to all the flesh-eating birds flying high in the sky, "Come and gather for the large feast that God is providing for you!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 19:18ULT

¹⁸ so that you might eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of chiliarchs and the flesh of the mighty and the flesh of horses and of the ones sitting on them and the flesh of all, both of free and of slaves and of small and of great."

UST

¹⁸ Come and eat the flesh of God's enemies who will die in this battle! Eat the flesh of kings, of army commanders, of people who fought powerfully, of horses and their riders, and the flesh of many other kinds of people."

What were the birds flying overhead called to eat at the great supper?

The birds were called to eat the flesh of kings, chiliarchs (commanders), mighty warriors, horses and their riders, and all kinds of people.

Revelation 19:19ULT

¹⁹ And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies having been gathered to make war with the one sitting on the horse and with his army.

UST

¹⁹ Then I saw the beast and the kings of earth with their armies. They had gathered together to fight against the rider on the horse and his army.

What did the beast and the kings of the earth gather to do?

They gathered to make war with the one sitting on the white horse and his army.

Revelation 19:20ULT

²⁰ And the beast was captured and with him the false prophet having performed signs before him, by which he deceived the ones having received the mark of the beast and the ones worshiping his image. The two were thrown living into the lake of fire burning with sulfur.

UST

²⁰ But the rider on the white horse captured the beast and the false prophet. The false prophet is the one who had performed miracles in the beast's presence. By doing that he had deceived the people who had accepted the beast's mark on their foreheads and who had worshiped its image. Then God threw the beast and the false prophet alive into the fiery lake of burning sulfur.

What happened to the beast and the false prophet?

The beast and the false prophet were both thrown alive into lake of fire burning with sulfur.

Revelation 19:21ULT

²¹ And the rest were killed by the sword of the one sitting on the horse, coming out from his mouth, and all the birds were gorged with their flesh.

UST

²¹ And the rider on the horse killed the rest of their armies with his sword, the one that extended from his mouth. Birds came and ate as much as they wanted of the flesh of the people and horses that he had killed.

What happened to the rest of those who fought against the one sitting on the horse?

The rest were killed by the sword coming out of the mouth of the one sitting on the horse.

Revelation 20

Revelation 20:1

ULT

¹ And I saw an angel coming down from heaven having the key to the abyss and a great chain in his hand.

UST

¹ Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven. He had the key to the deep, dark pit and he was carrying a large chain in his hand.

What did the angel coming down from heaven have in his hand?

The angel had in his hand the key to the abyss and a great chain.

Revelation 20:2

ULT

² And he seized the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years.

UST

² The angel seized the dragon. That dragon is the ancient serpent—the devil, that is, Satan. The angel bound him with the chain. That chain would hold him for a thousand years.

How long would Satan remain bound? (vv2-3)

Satan would remain bound for a thousand years.

Revelation 20:3ULT

³ And he threw him into the abyss and shut it and sealed it over him so that he would not deceive the nations anymore until the thousand years were ended. After that, it is necessary for him to be released for a short time.

UST

³ The angel threw him into the deep, dark pit. He shut the door of the pit, locked it, and sealed it to prevent anyone from opening it. He did this so that Satan would no longer deceive the many people groups until after those thousand years. At that time, God will release Satan for a short time.

What did the angel do with Satan?

The angel threw Satan into the bottomless pit.

What would Satan not be able to do while he was bound?

Satan would not be able to deceive the nations while he was bound.

Revelation 20:4ULT

⁴ And I saw thrones, and they sat on them and judgment was given to them, both the souls of the ones having been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and for the word of God and those who did not worship the beast or his image and did not receive the mark on the forehead or on their hand. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

UST

⁴ Then I saw thrones on which people were sitting. God made those people judges. I also saw the souls of other people whose enemies had killed them by cutting their heads off. Their enemies did that because they had spoken the truth from God about Jesus. I also saw the souls of other people whose enemies had not killed them but who had refused to worship the beast or its image. They had not allowed the beast's servants to put the beast's mark on them, either on their foreheads or on their hands. They all became alive again and they ruled with the Messiah during those thousand years.

What happened to those who had refused to receive the mark of the beast?

Those who had refused to receive the mark of the beast came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

Revelation 20:5ULT

⁵ (The rest of the dead did not live until the thousand years were ended.) This {is} the first resurrection.

UST

⁵ These were the people who lived again the first time that God caused dead people to live again. The rest of the people who had died did not live again until after those thousand years.

When would the rest of the dead come to life?

The rest of the dead would come to life when the thousand years were ended.

Revelation 20:6ULT

⁶ Blessed and holy {is} the one having a part in the first resurrection! Over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and they will reign with him for a thousand years.

UST

⁶ God will be pleased with those who live again this first time. Yes, God will consider them to belong to him in a special way. They will not die a second time. Instead, they will be priests who serve God and the Messiah. They will rule with the Messiah during those thousand years.

What would those who took part in the first resurrection do?

Those who took part in the first resurrection would be priests of God and Christ and would reign with him for a thousand years.

Revelation 20:7ULT

⁷ But when the thousand years are ended, Satan will be released from his prison,

UST

⁷ At the end of the thousand years, God will release Satan from the deep, dark pit.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 20:8ULT

⁸ and he will go out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle, of whom their number {will be} like the sand of the sea.

UST

⁸ Satan will go out to deceive the rebellious people groups all over the earth. {These are the nations that the prophet Ezekiel called} Gog and Magog. Satan will gather them to fight against God's people. There will be so many of them fighting against God's people that no one will be able to count them, just as no one can count the grains of sand on the ocean shore.

What will Satan do at the end of the thousand years?

At the end of the thousand years, Satan will be released to go out to deceive the nations.

Revelation 20:9ULT

⁹ And they went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the encampment of the saints and the beloved city, but fire came down from heaven and devoured them.

UST

⁹ They will march from many places on the earth. They will surround the army of God's people where it is in battle formation. That will be at Jerusalem, the city that God loves. But God will send fire down from heaven and it will burn up all of his enemies.

What happened when the camp of the saints was surrounded?

When the camp of the saints was surrounded, fire came down from heaven and devoured Gog and Magog.

Revelation 20:10ULT

¹⁰ And the devil deceiving them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur where the beast and the false prophet {were}, and they will be tormented day and night to the ages of the ages.

UST

¹⁰ Then God will throw the devil, who had deceived those people, into the lake of burning sulfur. This is also where God had thrown the beast and the false prophet. As a result, they will continually suffer severely forever.

What was done with the devil at this time?

The devil was thrown into the lake of fire to be tormented forever.

Revelation 20:11ULT

¹¹ And I saw a great white throne and the one sitting on it, from whose face earth and heaven fled, and no place was found for them.

UST

¹¹ Then I saw a huge white throne on which God was sitting. {He was so fearsome that} the land and the sky disappeared completely when he appeared.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 20:12ULT

¹² And I saw the dead, both the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the {Book} of Life. And the dead were judged from the {things} written in the books, according to their deeds.

UST

¹² Then I saw people of all kinds who had died but who were now alive again standing in front of God's throne. God opened the books in which he records what people do. God also opened another book, the Book of Life. God writes in that book the names of people who have eternal life. God judged the people who had died and who were now alive again according to what they had done, which he had recorded in the books.

By what were the dead judged before the great white throne?

The dead were judged by what was recorded in the books, the result of what they had done.

Revelation 20:13ULT

¹³ And the sea gave up the dead in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead in them, and they were judged, each one, according to their deeds.

UST

¹³ The people whose bodies were in the sea became alive again, and the people whose bodies were in graves on the land also became alive again. {They all stood in front of God's throne, and} God judged each of them according to what each one had done.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 20:14

ULT

¹⁴ And Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire.

UST

¹⁴ Then God took the place where souls went after dying physically and threw that place itself into the burning lake. The burning lake is where people go when they die spiritually.

What is the second death?

The second death is the lake of fire.

Revelation 20:15

ULT

¹⁵ And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

UST

¹⁵ Then God saw whose names he had written in the book that lists the people who have eternal life. If someone's name was not in that book, God threw him into the burning lake.

What happened to all whose names were not found written in the Book of Life?

All whose names were not found written in the Book of Life were thrown into the lake of fire.

Revelation 21

Revelation 21:1

ULT

¹ And I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had gone away, and the sea was no more.

UST

¹ Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth. The first heaven and the first earth had disappeared, and the oceans no longer existed.

What had happened to the first heaven and earth?

The first heaven and earth had passed away.

What had replaced the first heaven and earth?

A new heaven and earth had replaced the first heaven and earth.

Revelation 21:2

ULT

² And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband.

UST

² I saw the city of Jerusalem, which is special to God, in a new form. It was coming down to earth from God in heaven. The city looked very beautiful, like a bride on her wedding day.

What came down from heaven?

The holy city, new Jerusalem, came down from heaven.

Revelation 21:3ULT

³ And I heard a great voice from the throne saying, "Behold! The tabernacle of God {is} with men, and he will tabernacle with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them. ^[1]"

UST

³ Then I heard a loud voice calling out from the throne of God. The voice said, "Listen to this! Now God will live right where people live! They will belong to him, and God himself will stay with them."

Where did the voice from the throne say that God would now dwell?

The voice said that God would now dwell with human beings.

Revelation 21:4ULT

⁴ And he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death will not be any longer, nor grieving, nor crying, nor pain. They will not be any longer; the first {things} have gone away."

UST

⁴ He will comfort them so that they are no longer sad. None of them will ever again die or mourn or cry or suffer pain. God has taken away those things, so they are gone forever."

What had now passed away?

Tears, death, grieving, crying, and pain had now passed away.

Revelation 21:5ULT

⁵ And the one sitting on the throne said, "Behold! I make all {things} new." And he says to me, "Write, for these words are trustworthy and true."

UST

⁵ Then God said from the throne, "Listen to this! I am now making everything new!" He also said to me, "Write these things that I have told you. You can be confident that I will certainly cause them to happen."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 21:6ULT

⁶ And he said to me, "It has happened! I {am} the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the one thirsting I will give freely from the spring of the water of life.

UST

⁶ He also said to me, "I have completed all these things! I am the one who began all things and the one who will cause all things to end. To everyone who wants it, I will freely give everlasting life, as if I were giving them a drink from a spring whose water keeps people alive.

By what name did the one seated on the throne call himself?

The one seated on the throne called himself the Alpha and the Omega.

Revelation 21:7ULT

⁷ The one conquering will inherit these {things}, and I will be his God, and he will be my son.

UST

⁷ I will give this to all who are victorious over Satan. And I will be their God, and they will be my children.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 21:8ULT

⁸ But for the cowardly and the unbelieving and the abhorred and murderers and fornicators and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their place {will be} in the lake burning with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

UST

⁸ But all the others will suffer in the lake of burning sulfur. That is what it means to die a second time. Those who are cowards will suffer this way. So will those who do not believe in me, those who do detestable things, those who murder people, those who sin sexually, those who practice witchcraft, those who worship idols, and all those who tell lies."

What will happen to the cowardly, unbelieving, and abhorred and to murderers, fornicators, sorcerers, idolaters, and liars?

Their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulfur.

Revelation 21:9ULT

⁹ And one of the seven angels holding the seven bowls being full of the seven last plagues came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."

UST

⁹ Then an angel came to me. He was one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls of the wine that caused the seven last ways of suffering. He said to me, "Come with me. I will show you the people who will live together with the Lamb forever!"

What is the bride, the wife of the Lamb? (vv9-10)

The bride, the wife of the Lamb, is the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

Revelation 21:10ULT

¹⁰ And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and he showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,

UST

¹⁰ Then the Holy Spirit inspired me so that I could see and hear things in a vision. The angel took me to the top of a very high mountain. There he showed me the city that is special to God, the new Jerusalem. It was coming down out of heaven from God.

¹⁴ Blessed {are} the ones washing their robes so that their authority over the tree of life will be and they may enter into the city by the gates. ^[1]

UST

¹⁴ God is very pleased with the people who stop living in wrong ways and start living in right ways. Because they do that, those people will be able to eat the fruit of the tree that enables people to live forever. They will be able to go through the gates into the holy city.

What blessings will those who wash their robes receive?

Those who wash their robes will be able to eat from the tree of life and enter the city by its gates.

Revelation 22:15ULT

¹⁵ Outside {are} dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters and everyone loving and doing falsehood.

UST

¹⁵ But others will not enter that city. This includes people who do wicked things, practice witchcraft, sin sexually, murder others, worship idols, or lie continually.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 22:16ULT

¹⁶ I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify these things to you concerning the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright morning star."

UST

¹⁶ I, Jesus, sent my angel to announce these things that will affect you groups of believers. Mysteriously, I am both the ancestor of King David and his descendant whom the prophets promised would come. I am the one who is like the bright morning star."

How does Jesus say he is related to David?

Jesus says he is the root and offspring of David.

Revelation 22:17ULT

¹⁷ And the Spirit and the Bride say, "Come!" And let the one hearing say, "Come!" And the one thirsting, let him come. The one desiring, let him take the water of life freely.

UST

¹⁷ The Holy Spirit and the people who belong to God say, "Come!" Whoever hears this should also say, "Come!" Everyone who wants everlasting life should receive it! God will give everlasting life as a free gift to everyone who desires it!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Revelation 22:18ULT

¹⁸ I testify to everyone hearing the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone might add to them, God will add to him the plagues written in this book.

UST

¹⁸ I, John, solemnly warn everyone who hears the message about what I have foretold in this book: If anyone adds anything to this message, God will punish him in the ways that this book tells about.

What will God do to anyone who adds to the words of the prophecy of this book?

God will add the plagues written in this book to anyone who adds to the words of its prophecy.

Revelation 22:19ULT

¹⁹ And if anyone might take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share from the tree of life and from the holy city written in this book. ^[2]

UST

¹⁹ And if anyone takes away any of the message about the things I have foretold in this book, God will take away that person's right to eat fruit from the tree that enables people to live forever. God will also take away that person's right to enter the new Jerusalem. I describe both these things in this book.

What will God do to anyone who takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy?

God will take away the share of the tree of life and the holy city from anyone who takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy.

Revelation 22:20ULT

²⁰ The one testifying these {things} says, "Yes! I am coming quickly." Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

UST

²⁰ Jesus, who says that all these things are true, says, "Certainly I am coming soon!" I, John, reply, "May it be so! Lord Jesus, come!"

What are Jesus' last words in this book?

Jesus' last words are, "Yes! I am coming quickly."

Revelation 22:21

ULT

²¹ The grace of the Lord Jesus {be} with the saints. Amen.

22:14 ^[1]

22:19 ^[2]

UST

²¹ I pray that our Lord Jesus will continue to act kindly to all of you who are God's people. May it be so!

What is the last word in this book?

The last word in this book is "Amen."
