Judges 9:35

ULT

35 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city, and Abimelech and the people who {were} with him arose from the ambush.

UST

35 {The next morning,} Gaal went out and stood at the city gate. {While he was standing there,} Abimelech and his soldiers came out of their hiding places and started coming toward him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 9:36

ULT

36 And Gaal saw the people and he said to Zebul, “Behold, a people {is} coming down from the tops of the hills!” But Zebul said to him, “The shadow of the hills, you {are} seeing as men.”

UST

36 When Gaal saw the soldiers, he said to Zebul, “Look! There is a group of people coming down from the hills!” But Zebul said, “You are just seeing the shadow that one hill casts on another as the sun gets higher in the sky. That dark shape is not a group of people. It only looks like one.”

How did Zebul describe the men Gaal saw coming down the hills?

Zebul said they were shadows of the hills.

ULT

37 And Gaal resumed to speak more and he said, “Behold, people {are} coming down from the navel of the land, and one company {is} coming along the way of the Oak of the Diviners.”

UST

37 But Gaal {kept watching and} spoke again. He said to Zebul, “Look! I do see groups of people coming down that central hill! I also see a group coming towards us along the road that goes past the Oak of the Diviners.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 9:38

ULT

38 Then Zebul said to him, “Where now {is} your mouth, {by} which you said, ‘Who {is} Abimelech, that we should serve him?’ {Is} this not the people that you despised? Indeed, go out now and fight with it.”

UST

38 Then Zebul said to Gaal, “Earlier you spoke boastfully. You said, ‘We should not allow Abimelech to rule over us!’ That is who you see coming: the army that you said you could easily defeat. So now that they are here, go out and fight them!”

What did Zebul tell Gaal to do?

Zebul told Gaal to go out and fight against Abimelech.

Judges 9:39

ULT

[39] So Gaal went out to the face of the lords of Shechem, and he fought with Abimelech.

UST

[39] So Gaal and his men went out of the city and fought against the army of Abimelech. The leaders of Shechem were watching {to see what would happen}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

ULT

45 And Abimelech fought with the city all of that day. And he captured the city, and he killed the people who {were} in it. Then he tore down the city and sowed it {with} salt.

UST

45 Abimelech and his soldiers fought against the people of Shechem all that day. When they finally conquered the city, they killed all the people who lived there. They tore down all of the buildings. Then they threw salt over the ruins to show that they never wanted anyone to live there again.

What did Abimelech do after he captured the city?

Abimelech killed the people, tore down the city, and spread salt over it.

Judges 9:46

ULT

46 And all of the lords of the tower of Shechem heard, and they entered into the citadel of the house of El-Berith.

UST

46 A group of soldiers lived in a fortress near Shechem that had a defensive tower. When their commanders heard what had happened, all of them went inside the fortress, which was also a temple of their god El-Berith.

Where did the leaders of the tower of Shechem enter?

The leaders of the tower of Shechem entered the citadel of the house of El-Berith.

Judges 9:47

ULT

47 And it was reported to Abimelech that all of the lords of the tower of Shechem had assembled themselves.

UST

47 Somebody told Abimelech that the commanders of the fortress near Shechem had all gone inside it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

ULT

48 So Abimelech went up Mount Zalmon, he and all of the people who {were} with him, and Abimelech took axes in his hand. And he cut a branch of the trees and lifted it and set {it} on his shoulder and said to the people who {were} with him, “What you have seen I have done, hurry, do like me.”

UST

48 So Abimelech and all of his soldiers went onto the slopes of {nearby} Mount Zalmon. They brought axes with them. Abimelech cut a large branch from a tree and put it on his shoulder. He told all of his soldiers, “Quickly, all of you cut branches as you just saw me do!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 9:49

ULT

49 So all the people also cut, a man a branch, and they went after Abimelech. And they set {them} against the citadel, and they burned the citadel upon them with fire. So all of the men of the tower of Shechem also died, about 1,000 men and women.

UST

49 So each one of the soldiers also cut a branch, {and they carried them down the mountain,} following Abimelech. They went to the fortress and piled the branches against its walls. Then they set the branches on fire. About 1,000 men and women were inside the tower near Shechem. The fire burned up the fortress and killed all of them too.

How did Abimelech kill all the leaders and people in the tower of Shechem?

Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, piled branches around the fortress and set it on fire, killing all the people in it.

Judges 9:50

ULT

50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez and encamped against Thebez, and he captured it.

UST

50 After that, Abimelech and his soldiers went to the town of Thebez{, whose people had also rebelled against him}. They surrounded it and conquered it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 9:51

ULT

51 But a strong tower was in the midst of the city, and all of the men and women and all of the lords of the city fled there. And they closed {it} behind them and went up onto the roof of the tower.

UST

51 But the people of that city had built a tower where they would be safe if someone attacked them. Many men and women from the city, including its leaders, ran to the tower. Once they were inside, they locked the door. Then they climbed up to the roof of the tower.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 9:52

ULT

52 Then Abimelech came to the tower and fought with it. And he came near to the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire.

UST

52 Abimelech and his soldiers came to the tower to try to kill the people who were in it. Abimelech went right up to the tower to start a fire that would burn it down.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 9:53

ULT

53 But one woman threw an upper millstone onto the head of Abimelech, and it crushed his skull.

UST

53 But when Abimelech came near the tower, a woman who was on the roof dropped a large grinding stone on his head. It cracked the bone of his skull.

When Abimelech came near the entrance of the tower of Thebez, what happened to him?

When Abimelech came near the entrance of the tower of Thebez, a woman on the roof dropped a millstone on his head and it crushed his skull.

ULT

54 Then he cried hastily to the young man bearing his armor and said to him, “Draw your sword and kill me, lest they say about me, ‘A woman killed him.’” So his young man stabbed him, and he died.

UST

54 The servant who was carrying Abimelech’s weapons was nearby. Abimelech quickly ordered him, “Pull out your sword and kill me with it! I do not want people to say about me, ‘A woman killed Abimelech.’” So the servant stabbed Abimelech with his sword, and that killed him.

Why did Abimelech tell his armor-bearer to draw his sword and kill him?

Abimelech told his armor-bearer to draw his sword and kill him so no one would say a women killed Abimelech.

Judges 9:55

ULT

55 And the men of Israel saw that Abimelech had died, and they went away, a man to his place.

UST

55 When the Israelite soldiers saw that Abimelech was dead, they all returned to their homes.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 9:56

ULT

56 So God turned back the evil of Abimelech, which he did to his father by killing his 70 brothers.

UST

56 In that way, God punished Abimelech for murdering all 70 of his brothers. When Abimelech did that, he did a wicked thing to his father.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 9:57

ULT

57 And all of the evil of the men of Shechem, God turned back upon their head, and the curse of Jotham, the son of Jerubbaal, came upon them.

UST

57 God also punished the people of Shechem for all the wicked things that they had done. Jotham son of Gideon had said that Abimelech would destroy them, and that is what happened.

Judges 10

Judges 10:1

ULT

1 Now after Abimelech, Tola, the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, arose to save Israel. And he {was} dwelling in Shamir, in the hill country of Ephraim.

UST

1 After Abimelech died, Tola, the son of Puah and grandson of Dodo became a leader. He rescued the Israelites from their enemies. He belonged to the tribe of Issachar. However, he lived in the town of Shamir in the hilly area where the descendants of Ephraim live.

Where was Shamir?

Shamir was in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges 10:2

ULT

2 And he judged Israel 23 years. Then he died and was buried in Shamir.

UST

2 Tola was the leader of the Israelites for 23 years. When he died, his family buried him in Shamir.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 10:3

ULT

3 And after him Jair the Gileadite arose. And he judged Israel 22 years.

UST

3 After Tola died, Jair from the region of Gilead became a leader. He was the leader of the Israelites for 22 years.

Judges 10:6

ULT

6 Then the sons of Israel resumed to do evil in the eyes of Yahweh. And they served the Baals and the Ashtoreths and the gods of Aram and the gods of Sidon and the gods of Moab and the gods of the sons of Ammon and the gods of the Philistines. And they forsook Yahweh and did not serve him.

UST

6 Once again the Israelites did things that Yahweh said were very wicked. They worshiped various idols that represented gods such as Baal. They also worshiped female fertility goddesses such as Ashtoreth. They also worshiped the gods that people worshiped in the countries of Aram and Moab and in the city of Sidon. And they worshiped the gods that the Ammonites and Philistines worshiped. But they did not worship Yahweh at all anymore.

Why did Yahweh burn with anger toward the people of Israel?

The people of Israel forsook Yahweh and no longer served him, so he became angry with Israel.

ULT

7 Then the nose of Yahweh burned against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the sons of Ammon.

UST

7 So Yahweh became very angry with the Israelites, and he allowed the Philistines and Ammonites to conquer them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 10:8

ULT

8 And they shattered and crushed the sons of Israel in that year. {For} 18 years, all the sons of Israel who {were} on the other side of the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which {is} in Gilead.

UST

8 For 18 years, the Amorites had already been oppressing all the people of Israel who lived in the area east of the Jordan River. That land formerly belonged to the Amorites. (People also call it Gilead.) But now they began to oppress all of the Israelites severely.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 10:9

ULT

9 Then the sons of Ammon crossed the Jordan to fight also with Judah and with Benjamin and with the house of Ephraim, and it narrowed to Israel greatly.

UST

9 The Ammonites crossed over the Jordan River and also fought against the people of the tribes of Judah, Benjamin, and Ephraim. They made the Israelites suffer terribly.

Why was Israel greatly distressed?

The Ammonites crossed over the Jordan to fight against the people of Judah, Benjamin, and Ephraim, so that Israel was greatly distressed.

ULT

10 Then the sons of Israel cried out to Yahweh, saying, “We have sinned against you, for we have forsaken our God and served the Baals.”

UST

10 So the Israelites prayed desperately to Yahweh. They said, “We have sinned against you. We have stopped worshiping you, and instead we have been worshiping idols representing false gods such as Baal.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 10:11

ULT

11 Then Yahweh said to the sons of Israel, “{Was it} not from the Egyptians and from the Amorite and from the sons of Ammon and from the Philistines

ULT

12 and the Sidonians and Amalek and Maon, {when} they oppressed you, that you cried out to me and I saved you from their hand?

UST

12 Sidonians, Amalekites, and Maonites were treating you badly. You prayed desperately to me, and I rescued you from them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 10:13

ULT

13 Yet you have forsaken me and served other gods. Therefore I will not continue to save you.

UST

13 But even after that, you stopped worshiping me. You worshiped other gods instead. So I am not going to keep rescuing you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 10:14

ULT

14 Go and cry out to the gods upon whom you have chosen. Let them save you in the time of your distress."

UST

14 See whether the gods you are worshiping can rescue you now that you are in trouble again!"

To whom did Yahweh tell the people of Israel to call out for help?

Yahweh told the people to call out to the gods that they had worshiped to show them that those gods could not save them.

Judges 10:15

ULT

15 But the sons of Israel said to Yahweh, "We have sinned. You do to us according to all of the good in your eyes. Only please deliver us this day."

UST

15 But the people of Israel said to Yahweh, "We confess that we have sinned. Punish us in whatever way you wish. But please rescue us now!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 10:16

ULT

16 And they removed the foreign gods from the midst of them, and they served Yahweh. And his soul wore out with the trouble of Israel.

UST

16 Then the Israelites threw away the idols that represented the foreign gods they had been worshiping. They worshiped Yahweh instead. Yahweh saw that they were suffering greatly. He felt compassion for them and decided to help them.

Why could Yahweh no longer bear the misery of Israel?

Israel removed the foreign gods from their midst and they worshiped Yahweh, so he had compassion on them.

Judges 10:17

ULT

17 Now the sons of Ammon were summoned, and they encamped in Gilead. So the sons of Israel gathered themselves, and they encamped at Mizpah.

UST

17 Ammonite soldiers gathered {to fight against the Israelites}. They set up their tents in the region of Gilead. So the Israelite soldiers gathered {to fight against them}. They set up their tents near the city of Mizpah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 10:18

ULT

18 Then the people, the leaders of Gilead, said, a man to his fellow, “Who {is} the man who will begin to fight with the sons of Ammon? He will be the head for all of the dwellers of Gilead.”

UST

18 The leaders of the people of Gilead said to each other, “Who will lead our attack against the Ammonite army? If someone will do that, we will make him the leader of everyone who lives in the region of Gilead.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11

Judges 11:1

ULT

1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a warrior of valor, but he {was} the son of a whoring woman. Now Gilead had begotten Jephthah.

UST

1 There was a man from the region of Gilead whose name was Jephthah. He was a great soldier. But his mother was a prostitute. His father was a man whose name was Gilead.

Who were Jephthah's parents?

Jephthah was the son of a prostitute and Gilead.

Judges 11:2

ULT

2 And the wife of Gilead bore sons to him, and the sons of the wife grew up, and they drove out Jephthah and said to him, “You will not inherit in the house of our father, for you are the son of another woman.”

UST

2 Gilead also had a legal wife who gave birth to several sons. When they became adults, they forced Jephthah to leave. They told him, “You are not the son of our father’s legal wife, so you have no right to inherit any of his property.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:3

ULT

3 So Jephthah fled from the face of his brothers, and he dwelled in the land of Tob. And worthless men collected themselves to Jephthah, and they went out with him.

UST

3 So Jephthah ran away from his brothers. He settled in the region of Tob. He attracted a group of lawless men, and they went out raiding together.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

ULT

4 Now it happened after some days that the sons of Ammon fought with Israel.

UST

4 Some time later, the soldiers of the Ammon people group attacked the people of Israel.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:5

ULT

5 And it happened, when the sons of Ammon fought with Israel, that the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.

UST

5 The Israelites needed someone to lead their soldiers to fight against the Ammonites. So the leaders of the region of Gilead went to the land of Tob. They wanted to bring Jephthah back {to be their commander}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:6

ULT

6 And they said to Jephthah, “Come, and you shall be a commander for us so we may fight with the sons of Ammon.”

UST

6 They said to him, “Come back with us and lead our army. That way we will be able to defeat the Ammonite army.”

Why did the elders of Gilead go to bring Jephthah back from the land of Tob?

The elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah back from the land of Tob so he would be their commander in their fight against the Ammonites.

Judges 11:7

ULT

7 But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “Do you not hate me, since you drove me from the house of my father? So why have you come to me now, when trouble {is} to you?”

UST

7 But Jephthah told the leaders of Gilead, “You rejected me! You let my brothers force me to leave home {without any inheritance}! So you should not come and expect me to help you now that you are in trouble.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

ULT

8 Then the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “Therefore we have now returned to you. So you shall come with us and fight with the sons of Ammon, and you shall be for us the head of all of the dwellers of Gilead.”

UST

8 The leaders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “That is exactly why we are coming to you now{, because we are in trouble}. Come back with us and lead our soldiers against the Ammonite army. If you do, we will make you the leader over everyone who lives in Gilead.”

Why did the elders of Gilead come to Jephthah?

The elders of Gilead came to Jephthah because they wanted him to come with them to fight the Ammonites and be their leader.

Judges 11:9

ULT

9 Then Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “If you have brought me back to fight with the sons of Ammon and Yahweh gives them over to my face, I will be the head for you.”

UST

9 Jephthah answered them, “So if I go back to Gilead with you to fight against the army of Ammon, and if Yahweh helps us to defeat them, then I will be your leader.”

If the elders of Gideon brought Jephthah home again to fight against the soldiers of Ammon, and if Yahweh gave them victory over them, what would happen to Jephthah?

If the elders of Gideon brought Jephthah home again to fight against the soldiers of Ammon, and if Yahweh gave them victory over them, Jephthah would be their leader.

Judges 11:10

ULT

10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “May Yahweh be hearing {the things} between us if not, according to your word, thus we do!”

UST

10 The leaders of Gilead told Jephthah, “We swear that we will do what you have just described. Yahweh is a witness of the promises we are making to you. May he punish us if we do not keep those promises!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:11

ULT

11 So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people set him over them as head and as commander. And Jephthah spoke all of his words to the face of Yahweh at Mizpah.

UST

11 So Jephthah went with the leaders back to Gilead. {In a religious gathering} at Mizpah, Jephthah repeated to Yahweh the terms of the agreement they had made. Then the people appointed him to be their leader and the commander of their army.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:12

ULT

12 Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, “What to me and to you, that you have come against me to fight in my land?”

UST

12 Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites. They asked the king, “What have we done to make you angry, so that your army has invaded our land to fight against us?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:13

ULT

13 And the king of the sons of Ammon said to the messengers of Jephthah, “Because Israel took my land in his coming up from Egypt, from the Arnon and to the Jabbok and to the Jordan. So now return them in peace.”

UST

13 The Ammonite king replied to Jephthah’s messengers, “I am invading because you Israelites took our land when you came here from Egypt. You took all of our land east of the Jordan River, from the Arnon River in the south to the Jabbok River in the north. So now give it back to us without a fight.”

Why did the people of Ammon come to fight to take the land of Israel?

The people of Ammon came to take the land of Israel because they claimed that when Israel came up out of Egypt, Israel seized the land of Ammon.

Judges 11:14

ULT

14 Then Jephthah resumed and sent messengers again to the king of the sons of Ammon,

UST

14 But Jephthah sent his messengers back to the Ammonite king.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:15

Judges 11:16

ULT

16 But in their coming up from Egypt, Israel went through the wilderness to the Sea of Reeds, and he came to Kadesh.

UST

16 Here is what actually happened. When the Israelite people came out of Egypt, they walked through the desert to the Sea of Reeds. From there they traveled to the town of Kadesh {at the border of the region of Edom}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:17

ULT

17 Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, “Please may I pass through your land.” But the king of Edom did not listen. And he also sent to the king of Moab, but he did not consent. So Israel dwelled in Kadesh.

UST

17 From there the Israelites sent messengers to the king of the Edomites. They asked him, “Please allow us to walk across your land.” But the king of the Edomites refused. When they sent the same message to the king of the Moabites, he also refused to allow them to go through his land. So the Israelites stayed at Kadesh for a long time.

Who was not willing to let Israel pass?

The king of Edom and the king of Moab were not willing to let Israel pass.

Judges 11:18

ULT

18 Then he went through the wilderness and circled the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and he went from the rising of the sun to the land of Moab. And they encamped on the other side of the Arnon, but they did not enter within the border of Moab, for the Arnon {was} the border of Moab.

UST

18 Then the Israelites went into the desert and walked outside the borders of Edom and Moab. They stayed to the east of Moab, and they did not set up their camp until they were north of the Arnon River. That means that they never went into the territory of Moab, since the Arnon River is the {northern} border of Moab.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:19

ULT

19 Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon, the king of the Amorite, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, “Please, may we pass through your land to my place?”

UST

19 Then the leaders of Israel sent a message to the king of the Amorites. His name was Sihon. He ruled in the city of Heshbon. They asked him, “Please allow us Israelite people to cross through your land so we may go into the land that is ours.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:20

ULT

20 But Sihon did not trust Israel passing through his border. So Sihon assembled all of his people, and they encamped at Jahaz, and he fought with Israel.

UST

20 But Sihon thought that if he allowed the Israelites to come into his land, they would try to conquer it. So he gathered his whole army. His soldiers set up their tents at the town of Jahaz. From there, they attacked the Israelite people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:21

ULT

21 Then Yahweh, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all of his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them. So Israel possessed all of the land of the Amorite inhabiting that land.

UST

21 But Yahweh, the God of Israel, made the Israelite army stronger than the army of Sihon. So the Israelites destroyed that enemy army. Then they took possession of all the land where those Amorites had lived.

Who gave Israel victory over Sihon?

Yahweh, the God of Israel, gave Israel victory over Sihon.

Judges 11:22

ULT

22 And they possessed all of the border of the Amorite, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

UST

22 Yes, the Israelites took all the land that belonged to those Amorites. It extended from the Arnon River in the south to the Jabbok River in the north, and from the desert in the east to the Jordan River in the west.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:23

ULT

23 And now, Yahweh, the God of Israel, has dispossessed the Amorite from the face of his people Israel. So will you possess it?

UST

23 So it was Yahweh, the God of Israel, who forced the Amorites to leave the land in which they were living. Yahweh allowed the Israelites to live there instead. So you cannot claim that land as if it belonged to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:24

ULT

24 What Chemosh your god causes you to possess, will you not possess it? And all of what Yahweh our God has dispossessed from our face, we will possess it.

UST

24 You have the right to live in any land that your god Chemosh may give to you. But Yahweh our God forced others to leave this entire land so that we could live in it. And we are going to keep living in it!

Judges 11:25

ULT

25 And now, being better, are you being better than Balak, the son of Zippor, the king of Moab? Contending, did he contend with Israel, or fighting, did he fight with them?

UST

25 You are not greater than Balak son of Zippor, the king of Moab. He never disputed that this land now belonged to the Israelites. He never fought against the Israelites to try to take the land from them{, even though it once belonged to the Moabites and Ammonites}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:26

ULT

26 In the dwelling of Israel in Heshbon and in its daughters and in Aroer and in its daughters and in all of the cities that {are} upon the banks of the Arnon, 300 years, why then did you not deliver during that time?

UST

26 The Israelites have been living for the past 300 years in the city of Heshbon and the town of Aroer and in the villages around them. They have also been living in settlements along the Arnon River. But during all of that time, you Ammonites have not tried to capture those areas for yourselves.

For how long did Israel live in Heshbon and its villages and in Aroer and its villages and in all the cities that are along the banks of the Arnon?

Israel lived for 300 years in Heshbon and Aroer and their villages as well as in all the cities that are along the banks of the Arnon.

ULT

27 So I have not sinned against you, but you are doing me wrong by fighting with me. Yahweh, the judge, will judge today between the sons of Israel and between the sons of Ammon.'"

UST

27 So we Israelites have not harmed you {by taking any land from you}. But you Ammonites are doing something bad to us by attacking us {to try to conquer our land}. Yahweh {our God} makes sure that people treat each other properly. If we fight, he will enable our Israelite army to defeat your Ammonite army, because we have done what is right and you are doing what is wrong.'"

Judges 11:29

ULT

29 Then the Spirit of Yahweh was upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and he passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed through {to} the sons of Ammon.

UST

29 Then the Spirit of Yahweh gave Jephthah special strength and courage. He went through the region of Gilead and through the area east of the Jordan River where the tribe of Manasseh lived {to enlist men for his army}. He brought all those soldiers to the city of Mizpah in Gilead{, where some of the Israelites had already gathered}. From there, they would go to fight against the Ammonites.

Judges 11:31

ULT

31 then it shall be, the one coming out, whoever comes out of the doors of my house to greet me in my returning in peace from the sons of Ammon, that he will be to Yahweh, and I will offer him {as} a burnt offering.”

UST

31 when I return safely from defeating the Ammonites, then I will devote to you the first person who comes out of my house to greet me. I will sacrifice that person by burning him up completely on an altar.”

If Yahweh gave Jephthah victory over the people of Ammon, what did Jephthah vow to do?

If Yahweh gave Jephthah victory over the people of Ammon, Jephthah would offer up as a burnt offering whoever came out of the doors of his house to greet him.

ULT

32 Then Jephthah passed through to the sons of Ammon to fight with them, and Yahweh gave them into his hand.

UST

32 Then Jephthah and his soldiers went from Mizpah to attack the Ammonites. Yahweh enabled his army to defeat them.

When Jephthah passed through to the people of Ammon to fight against them, who gave him the victory?

When Jephthah passed through to the people of Ammon to fight against them, Yahweh gave him victory.

Judges 11:33

ULT

33 And he struck them from Aroer and to your coming {to} Minnith, twenty cities, and to Abel Keramim, a very great slaughter. So the sons of Ammon were subdued from the face of the sons of Israel.

UST

33 Jephthah and his men defeated the Ammonites at the town of Aroer. Then they pursued them all the way to the area around the city of Minnith. They destroyed 20 settlements, as far as the city of Abel Keramim. The Israelites killed a very great number of Ammonites. After that the Ammonites could no longer oppose the Israelites.

Judges 11:34

ULT

34 Then Jephthah came to Mizpah, to his house, and behold, his daughter was coming out to greet him with timbrels and with dances. And except her alone, {there was} not to him a son or daughter apart from her.

UST

34 When Jephthah returned to his home in Mizpah, his daughter was the first one to come out of the house to meet him. She was joyfully playing a tambourine and dancing. Since he had no other sons or daughters, she was his only child.

How many children did Jephthah have?

Jephthah had only one child, this daughter.

ULT

35 And it happened, as he saw her, that he tore his garments and said, “Alas, my daughter! Causing to bow, you have caused me to bow, and you are among the ones troubling me! For I have opened my mouth to Yahweh, and I am not able to turn back.”

UST

35 When Jephthah saw his daughter, he tore his clothes to show that he was very sad about what he thought he had to do. He said to her, “Oh, no! My daughter, you have made me terribly distressed {by being the first one to greet me}. You are troubling me just as the Ammonites did. I made a solemn promise to Yahweh {to sacrifice the first person who came out of my house}, and I have to do what I promised.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:36

ULT

36 But she said to him, “My father, you have opened your mouth to Yahweh. Do to me according to what came forth from your mouth, after what Yahweh has done for you: vengeances against your enemies, against the sons of Ammon.”

UST

36 His daughter said, “Father, you made a solemn promise to Yahweh. So you must do to me what you promised, because you said that you would do that if Yahweh helped you to defeat your enemies, the Ammonites.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:37

ULT

37 Then she said to her father, “May this thing be done for me. Refrain from me two months so I may go, and I will go down upon the hills and weep upon my virginity, I and my companions.”

UST

37 But then she asked him, “Please do something for me first. Do not offer me as a sacrifice right away. Let me go into the hills and wander around with my friends for two months. Let me grieve with them the fact that I will never get married and have children.”

What did Jephthah’s daughter want to do before he did everything he had promised?

She wanted him to leave her alone for two months, that she could go down to the hills and grieve over her virginity.

Judges 11:38

ULT

38 And he said, “Go.” Then he sent her away {for} two months. And she went, she and her companions, and she wept upon her virginity on the hills.

UST

38 Jephthah told her, “You may go.” And he let her leave for two months. So she and her friends wandered in the hills, and they all cried for her because she would never get married and have children.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 11:39

ULT

39 And it happened at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he did to her his vow that he had vowed. And she had not known a man. And it became a custom in Israel.

UST

39 After two months, she returned to her father Jephthah, and he did to her what he had solemnly promised. So his daughter never married. Because of that, the Israelites now have a custom.

What did Jephthah do with his daughter?

He did what he had promised in the vow he had made.

Judges 11:40

ULT

40 From days to days the daughters of Israel go to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in the year.

UST

40 The young Israelite women go into the hills for four days each year. There they sadly remember what happened to the daughter of Jephthah from the region of Gilead.

Judges 12

Judges 12:1

ULT

1 And a man of Ephraim was summoned, and he crossed over northward. And they said to Jephthah, “Why did you cross over to fight with the sons of Ammon but did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house over you with fire.”

UST

1 The men of the tribe of Ephraim got ready for battle. They crossed the Jordan River and went northeast to where Jephthah was. They said to Jephthah, “You should not have gone to fight the Ammonites without asking us to help you. We will burn down your house with you inside it!”

What did the men of Ephraim want to do to Jephthah’s house because he did not call them to go with him?

The men of Ephraim wanted to burn Jephthah’s house down because he did not call them to go with him to fight against the people of Ammon.

Judges 12:2

ULT

2 And Jephthah said to them, “I was a man of strife, I and my people and the sons of Ammon, exceedingly. And I summoned you, but you did not save me from their hand.

UST

2 Jephthah replied to them, “My people and I were in a big fight with the Ammonites. I called for you to help me against them, but you did not come.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 12:3

ULT

3 And I saw that you {were} not a savior, and I put my life in my palm and crossed over against the sons of Ammon, and Yahweh gave them into my hand. So why have you come up to me this day to fight with me?”

UST

3 When I saw that you would not help me, I risked my own life and led my men against the Ammonites. Yahweh helped me defeat them. So you should not have come to fight against me today!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 12:4

ULT

4 And Jephthah assembled all of the men of Gilead and fought with Ephraim. And the men of Gilead struck Ephraim because they said, “You, Gilead, {are} fugitives of Ephraim in the midst of Ephraim, in the midst of Manasseh.”

UST

4 The Ephraimites insulted the Gileadites. They said, “You Gileadites are just runaway people from Ephraim. You live between Ephraim and Manasseh.” {Because the Ephraimites insulted them,} Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead. They fought against the men of Ephraim and defeated them.

Why did the men of Gilead attack the men of Ephraim?

The men of Gilead attacked the men of Ephraim because Ephraimites said the Gileadites were fugitives from Ephraim.

Judges 12:5

ULT

5 And Gilead captured the fords of the Jordan to Ephraim. And it happened, when the fugitives of Ephraim said, “Let me cross over,” then the men of Gilead said to him, “{Are} you an Ephraimite?” If he said, “No,”

UST

5 The men of Gilead blocked the places where people could cross the Jordan River. They did this to stop the Ephraimites from escaping. Some of the soldiers from Ephraim tried to cross the river. The men of Gilead asked everyone who wanted to cross, “Are you from the tribe of Ephraim?” If a man said “No,”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 12:6

ULT

6 then they said to him, “Please say ‘Shibboleth.’” And he said “Sibboleth,” for he was not able to pronounce {it} correctly. Then they seized him and slaughtered him at the fords of the Jordan. And at that time 42,000 from Ephraim fell.

UST

6 the men of Gilead would tell him, “Say the word ‘Shibboleth.’” The Ephraimites could not pronounce that word correctly. They would say “Sibboleth” instead. When they said that, the men of Gilead knew they were from Ephraim. Then they would catch them and kill them at the river crossing. At that time they killed 42,000 people from the tribe of Ephraim.

How did the men of Gilead test if a man was from Ephraim?

They would tell him to say “Shibboleth.” And if he said, “Sibboleth,” (for the Ephraimites could not pronounce the word correctly), the Gileadites would seize him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan.

Judges 13:5

ULT

5 For behold, you will conceive and bear a son. And a razor will not go up on his head, for the boy will be a Nazirite of God from the womb. And he will begin to save Israel from the hand of the Philistines."

UST

5 You must do this because you are going to become pregnant and have a son {who must not drink or eat these things}. You must dedicate him to God as a Nazirite as soon as you give birth to him. Therefore you must never cut his hair. He will begin to stop the Philistines from ruling the Israelites."

Why was no razor to come onto the child's head?

No razor was to come onto his head, for the child was to be a Nazirite to God.

Judges 13:6

ULT

6 And the woman came and said to her husband, saying, "A man of God came to me, and his appearance {was} like the appearance of the angel of God, very awesome. And I did not ask him from where he {was}, and he did not declare his name to me.

UST

6 The woman ran and told her husband, "A man from God came to me. He looked like an angel from God. Looking at him made me afraid. I did not ask where he came from, and he did not tell me his name.

What did the man of God look like?

The man of God looked like an angel of God.

Judges 13:7

ULT

7 And he said to me, ‘Behold, you will conceive and bear a son. And now, do not drink wine or beer, and do not eat any unclean {thing}, for the boy will be a Nazirite of God from the womb until the day of his death.’”

UST

7 But he told me, ‘Pay attention to this. You will become pregnant and have a son. From now until he is born, do not drink any wine or beer. Do not eat any food that God has said is unclean. You must do this because you are to dedicate your son to God as a Nazirite as soon as you give birth to him. He must continue to be a Nazirite for his entire life.’”

Judges 14:11

ULT

11 And it happened, in their seeing him, that they took 30 companions, and they were with him.

UST

11 The family of the woman saw that Samson had not brought any other young men with him. So they had 30 of their own young men accompany him at the feast.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 14:12

ULT

12 And Samson said to them, “Please let me put a riddle to you. If declaring, you declare it to me {during} the seven days of the feast and you find {it}, then I will give to you 30 linen garments and 30 changes of clothes.

UST

12 Samson said to them, “Let me tell you a riddle. If you can answer it during the seven days of the feast, I will give you 30 linen garments and 30 changes of clothes.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 14:13

ULT

13 But if you are not able to declare {it} to me, then you will give to me 30 linen garments and 30 changes of clothes.” And they said to him, “Put your riddle and we will hear it.”

UST

13 But if you can not answer it, then you must give me 30 linen garments and 30 changes of clothes.” They told him, “{We agree.} Tell us your riddle, and we will try to solve it.”

What would Samson get if the 30 companions could not answer his riddle?

Samson would get 30 linen robes and 30 changes of clothes if the 30 companions could not answer his riddle.

Judges 14:14

ULT

14 So he said to them, “From the eater came forth food, and from the strong came forth sweet.” And they were not able to declare the riddle {for} three days.

UST

14 He said to them, “Something to eat came out of something that eats. Something sweet came out of something strong.” They tried for three days to solve the riddle, but they could not.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 14:15

ULT

15 And it happened on the seventh day that they said to the wife of Samson, “Entice your husband that he may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn you and the house of your father with fire. Did you invite us to dispossess us? {Is it} not {so}?”

UST

15 On the last day of the feast, they said to Samson’s bride, “Get the answer to the riddle for us from your bridegroom. If you do not, we will burn you and your family to death. We did not come to this feast to become poor!”

What would happen to Samson’s wife if she did not entice her husband to get the answer to the riddle?

If Samson’s wife did not entice her husband to get the answer to the riddle, the 30 companions would burn up her and her father’s house.

ULT

16 And the wife of Samson wept on him, and she said, “You only hate me, and you do not love me! You have put a riddle to the sons of my people, but you have not declared {it} to me.” And he said to her, “Behold, to my father and to my mother I have not declared {it}, so will I tell {it} to you?”

UST

16 So Samson’s bride went to him and started crying. She shouted, “You hate me! You do not love me! You told a riddle to my relatives, but you did not tell me the answer.” Samson said to her, “I have not even told the answer to my parents. So I am not going to tell you.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 14:17

ULT

17 And she wept on him {for} the seven days {during} which the feast was to them. And it happened on the seventh day that he declared {it} to her, for she had pressed him. And she declared the riddle to the sons of her people.

UST

17 But she kept crying for the rest of the feast. Finally, as it was about to end, he told her the answer to the riddle because she had kept bothering him. She went and told the answer to the Philistine young men.

For how long did Samson’s wife cry in order to get the answer to the riddle?

She cried for the seven days that the feast lasted.

ULT

18 And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day, before the sun came in, “What {is} sweeter than honey? And what {is} stronger than a lion?” And he said to them, “If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found my riddle.”

UST

18 Before sunset on the last day of the feast, the Philistine guests said to Samson, “The sweet thing was honey, and the strong thing was a lion!” Samson said to them, “You must have gotten the answer from my bride! Otherwise, you could not have solved my riddle!”

Judges 15

Judges 15:1

ULT

1 And it happened after some days, in the days of the harvest of wheat, that Samson visited his wife with a kid of goats. And he said, “I will go in to my wife, to the chamber.” But her father would not allow him to go in.

UST

1 Some time later, during the wheat harvest, Samson visited the woman he was supposed to marry. He brought a young goat as a gift. He told her father that he wanted to sleep with her {to make their marriage official}. But her father would not let him do that.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 15:2

ULT

2 And her father said, “Saying, I said that hating, you hated her, so I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister better than she? Please let her be to you instead of her.”

UST

2 Her father told him, “I honestly thought that you hated her. So I had her marry the young man who was your helper at the wedding feast. But her younger sister is even prettier. You can marry her instead.”

When Samson went to visit his wife, why did her father not allow him to go in?

The father thought Samson hated his wife, so had already given her to one of Samson’s companions.

Judges 15:3

ULT

3 And Samson said to them, “This time I will be blameless regarding the Philistines when I do harm to them.”

UST

3 Samson refused, and he said to everyone who was listening, “Now I have a good reason to hurt the Philistines!”

Judges 15:4

ULT

4 And Samson went and caught 300 foxes, and he took torches, and he turned tail to tail, and he put one torch between two of the tails, in the middle.

UST

4 Then Samson went out into the fields and caught 300 foxes. He tied their tails together in pairs. He got some torches, and he put a torch between each pair of tails.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 15:5

ULT

5 And he kindled fire in the torches and sent {them} into the {standing} grain of the Philistines, and he burned from stack and to {standing} grain, and to grove of olive tree.

UST

5 He lit the torches and let the foxes run through the Philistines' fields. The fire burned the grain they had harvested and the grain that was still in the fields. It also burned their olive trees.

How did Samson retaliate after finding out his wife had been given to another?

Samson retaliated by catching 300 foxes, tying torches to them, and letting them go in the Philistines' grain.

Judges 15:6

ULT

6 And the Philistines said, "Who has done this?" And they said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and gave her to his companion." And the Philistines went up and burned her and her father with fire.

UST

6 The Philistine leaders asked, "Who did this?" Someone told them, "Samson did it. He was supposed to marry the daughter of a man who lived in the town of Timnah. But that man had his daughter marry Samson's best man instead." In revenge, the Philistines went and killed Samson's fiancée and her father by burning them.

When the Philistines were told that Samson burned their fields, what did they do?

When the Philistines were told that Samson burned their fields, they burned his wife and her father.

Judges 15:7

ULT

7 And Samson said to them, “If you have done like this, then if I avenge against you, then afterward I will stop.”

UST

7 Samson found out that they had done that. He told them, “Because you killed my bride and her father, I am going to avenge their deaths. But I will do no more than that.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 15:8

ULT

8 Then he struck them leg on thigh, a great striking. And he went down and stayed in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 15:10

ULT

10 And the men of Judah said, “Why have you come up against us?” And they said, “We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him just as he has done to us.”

UST

10 The men of Judah asked them, “Why have you come to fight us?” The Philistines answered, “We have come to capture Samson. He killed many of us, and so we are going to kill him.”

Why did the Philistines come up to attack Judah?

The Philistines came up to attack Judah so they could capture Samson in order to kill him as he had killed so many of them.

Judges 15:11

ULT

11 Then 3,000 men from Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and they said to Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines are ruling over us? So what is this you have done to us?” And he said to them, “Just as they did to me, so I have done to them.”

UST

11 Then 3,000 men from Judah went to the cave in the rock of Etam where Samson was hiding. They said to Samson, “The Philistines rule over us. You should have known not to upset them. You have caused much trouble for us.” Samson answered, “They killed my fiancée and her father, so I killed some of them.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 15:12

ULT

12 And they said to him, “We have come down to bind you, to give you into the hand of the Philistines.” And Samson said to them, “Swear to me that you will not strike me yourselves.”

UST

12 The men of Judah told Samson, “We have come to tie you up. We are going to give you to the Philistines.” Samson said to them, “Promise me that you will not kill me yourselves.”

When the men of Judah came to tie up Samson, what did he make them swear?

When the men of Judah came to tie up Samson, he made them swear that they would not kill him themselves.

Judges 15:13

ULT

13 And they spoke to him, saying, “No, but binding, we will bind you and we will give you into their hand, but putting to death, we will not put you to death.” Then they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

UST

13 They answered, “We will only tie you up and give you to the Philistines. We will not kill you.” So they tied him with two new ropes and led him away from the rock.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 15:14

ULT

14 He came to Lehi, and the Philistines shouted to meet him. Then the Spirit of Yahweh rushed on him, and the ropes that {were} on his arms became like flax that they burn with fire, and his bonds melted from on his hands.

UST

14 When Samson came to the town of Lehi, the Philistines came toward him shouting. Then the Spirit of Yahweh gave Samson great strength. His arms became so strong that he was able to break the rope around them as if it were weak thread. He also easily broke the rope that was around his hands.

Judges 15:15

ULT

15 And he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and he stretched out his hand and took it, and with it he struck 1,000 men.

UST

15 Then Samson saw a donkey’s jawbone lying on the ground. It was new, so it was hard. He picked it up and used it to kill 1,000 men.

With what did Samson kill 1,000 men?

Samson killed 1,000 men with a fresh jawbone of a donkey.

Judges 15:16

ULT

16 And Samson said, “With the jawbone of a donkey, a heap, two heaps, with the jawbone of a donkey I have struck 1,000 men.”

UST

16 Then Samson made up this poem: “With a donkey’s jawbone, I have made piles of bodies. With a donkey’s jawbone, I have killed 1,000 men.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 15:17

ULT

17 And it happened in his finishing to speak, that he threw the jawbone from his hand, so he called that place Ramath Lehi.

UST

17 After Samson finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone. He named that place Ramath Lehi.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 15:18

ULT

18 But he was very thirsty, so he called to Yahweh and said, “You have given this great salvation by the hand of your servant, and now shall I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?”

UST

18 Samson was very thirsty. He called out to Yahweh, “You have given me this great victory. But now I am afraid that I will die of thirst. Then the Philistines, who do not worship you, will take my body and treat it shamefully!”

After Samson killed 1,000 men with a fresh jawbone of a donkey, how did he think he would die?

After Samson killed 1,000 men with a fresh jawbone of a donkey, he thought he would die of thirst.

Judges 15:19

ULT

19 Then God split open the hollow place that {is} in Lehi, and water came out from it. And he drank and his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore, he called its name En-Hakkore, which {is} in Lehi to this day.

UST

19 Then God split open a hollow place in Lehi. Water came out of it. When Samson drank some of that water, he felt strong again. So he named that spring En Hakkore. It is still in Lehi today.

How did Samson get water?

God split open the hollow place at Lehi, and water came out.

Judges 15:20

ULT

20 And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines 20 years.

Judges 16:2

ULT

2 {And it was told} to the Gazites, saying, “Samson has come here.” So they encircled and they lay in ambush for him all of the night at the gate of the city. And they kept themselves quiet all of the night, saying, “At the light of the morning, then we will kill him.”

UST

2 People told the leaders of the Gazites, “Samson has come inside our city!” So the leaders sent men to surround the place where Samson was. They waited there secretly all night. The leaders also put guards at the city gate. But they did not try to capture Samson that night. They decided that once day came, {they would be able to see clearly} to catch him and kill him.

When did the Gazites plan to kill Samson?

The Gazites planned to kill Samson at daylight.

Judges 16:3

ULT

3 Now Samson lay down until the middle of the night, but he arose in the middle of the night, and he seized the doors of the gate of the city and the two doorposts. And he pulled them up with the bar, and he put them on his shoulders, and he brought them up to the head of the hill that is at the face of Hebron.

UST

3 But Samson did not stay where he was all night. At midnight, he got up. He went to the city gate {to leave the city, but he found that it was barred shut}. So he lifted the entire gate up out of the ground, the doors and their posts and the bar. He carried all of this on his shoulders uphill {for many miles,} all the way to the top of the hill near the town of Hebron.

How did Samson escape Gaza?

Samson took hold of the city gate and its two posts, and he pulled them up out of the ground, bar and all.

Judges 16:4

ULT

4 Now it happened afterward that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek, and her name {was} Delilah.

UST

4 Later Samson fell in love with a woman who lived in the Valley of Sorek. Her name was Delilah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:5

ULT

5 And the lords of the Philistines came up to her and they said to her, “Entice him and see in what his great strength {is} and in what we shall overcome him, that we may bind him to humble him. And we ourselves will give to you, a man, 1,100 silver.”

UST

5 The Philistine leaders came to her and said, “See if you can get Samson to tell you what makes him so strong. See if you can find out how we can capture him and tie him up so that he cannot get away. If you do that, each of us will give you 1,100 pieces of silver.”

If Delilah enticed Samson to tell her the secret of his strength, what would the leaders of the Philistines give her?

If Delilah enticed Samson to tell her the secret of his strength, each of the Philistine leaders would give her 1,100 pieces of silver.

Judges 16:6

ULT

6 So Delilah said to Samson, “Please declare to me in what {is} your great strength and in what you may be bound to humble you.”

UST

6 So Delilah told Samson, “I want you to explain to me what makes you so strong. Tell me how anyone could ever tie you up to capture you.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:7

ULT

7 And Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven fresh cords that have not been dried, then I will weaken and I will be like one of man.”

UST

7 Samson replied, “If someone ties me with seven new bowstrings, ones that are not dry yet, I will have only the strength of an ordinary person.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:8

ULT

8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh cords that had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

UST

8 So {Delilah told this to the Philistine leaders, and} they brought her seven new bowstrings. {When Samson fell asleep,} she used them to tie him up.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:9

ULT

9 Now the ambush {was} staying for her in the room. And she said to him, “The Philistines {are} upon you, Samson!” But he broke the cords just as a string of flax is broken in its touching fire. So his strength was not known.

UST

9 Some men were hiding in one of the other rooms in her house {to capture Samson when they were sure that the bowstrings would restrain him}. Delilah called out, “Samson! The Philistines have come here to capture you!” But Samson {woke up and} snapped the bowstrings as easily as fire burns through string. So the Philistines did not find out what made Samson so strong.

When Delilah told Samson the Philistines were upon him, what did he do?

When Delilah told Samson the Philistines were upon him, he broke the cords with which he was tied.

Judges 16:10

ULT

10 And Delilah said to Samson, “Behold, you have deceived me and spoken lies to me. Now please declare to me in what you may be bound.”

UST

10 Then Delilah said to Samson, “Now listen, you made up a story to trick me! Now tell me how someone can really tie you up securely.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:11

ULT

11 And he said to her, “If binding, they bind me with new ropes with which work has not been done, then I will weaken and I will be like one of man.”

UST

11 Samson replied, “If someone actually ties me up with new ropes, ones that no one has used for anything else, then I will have only the strength of an ordinary person.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:12

ULT

12 So Delilah took new ropes, and she bound him with them. And she said to him, “The Philistines {are} upon you, Samson!” And the ambush {was} staying in the room. But he broke them from upon his arms like thread.

UST

12 So Delilah {once again told the Philistine leaders what Samson had said. She} got some new ropes, and she had men hide in one of the rooms in her house. {When Samson fell asleep,} she tied him up with the ropes. Then she called out, “Samson! The Philistines have come to capture you!” But Samson {woke up and} snapped the ropes off his arms as easily as if they had been threads.

When Samson tore off the new ropes from his arms, where were the men lying in wait?

When Samson tore off the new ropes from his arms, the men were waiting in one of the rooms of the house.

Judges 16:13

ULT

13 Then Delilah said to Samson, “Up to now you have deceived me and spoken lies to me. Declare to me in what you may be bound!” So he said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my head with the warp.”

UST

13 Then Delilah told Samson, “You made up another story to trick me! Now tell me how someone can really tie you up securely.” Samson replied, “You have a loom here with threads going in one direction. If you weave the seven braids of my hair into those threads in the other direction, {as if you were making fabric,} then I will have only the strength of an ordinary person.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:14

ULT

14 So she drove with the peg, and she said to him, “The Philistines {are} upon you, Samson!” But he awoke from his sleep and pulled the peg {from} the weaving and the warp.

UST

14 So Delilah {once again told the Philistine leaders what Samson had said, and she had men hide in one of the rooms in her house. Then she} used a shuttle to weave the seven braids of Samson’s hair in and out of the threads she had on her loom. Then she called out, “Samson! The Philistines have come to capture you!” When Samson woke up, his hair was still in the shuttle. But he pulled it right out of the threads on the loom.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:15

ULT

15 Then she said to him, “How do you say, ‘I love you,’ yet your heart {is} not with me? These three times you have deceived me and you have not declared to me in what {is} your great strength.”

UST

15 After this, Delilah said to him, “You say that you love me, but I do not believe that you do, because you have not told me the truth about yourself. You have tricked me three times and you have not really told me what makes you so strong!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:16

ULT

16 And it happened that she pressed him with her words all of the days and she urged him, and his soul wore out to death.

UST

16 Day after day she nagged him relentlessly to tell her his secret. He felt as if he was going to die from her nagging.

How much did Delilah beg Samson to tell her his secret?

She begged him so much that he wished he would die.

Judges 16:17

ULT

17 So he declared to her all of his heart, and he said to her, “A razor has not gone up on my head, for I {have been} a Nazirite of God from the womb of my mother. If I were shaved, then my strength would turn from me, and I would weaken and I would be like all of man.”

UST

17 So finally Samson told her the whole truth. He told her, “My parents dedicated me to God as a Nazirite on the day I was born. Because of that, no one has ever cut my hair. If someone did shave the hair off my head, then I would lose my great strength. I would have only the strength of an ordinary person.”

Why had Samson never cut the hair on his head?

Samson had never cut the hair on his head, for he had been a Nazirite of God from his mother’s womb.

Judges 16:18

ULT

18 Then Delilah saw that he had declared to her all of his heart. So she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, “Come up one time, for he has declared to me all of his heart.” Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and they brought up the silver in their hand.

UST

18 Delilah realized that this time he had told her the whole truth. So she sent someone to get the Philistine leaders. She told them, “Come back one more time, because Samson has finally told me the secret of his strength.” So the Philistine leaders came back to her house and brought the money they had promised to give her.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:19

ULT

19 And she put him to sleep on her knees, and she called to a man, and she shaved the seven locks of his head, and she began to humble him, and his strength turned from upon him.

UST

19 Then she got Samson to fall deeply asleep. Then she called one of the Philistine men to come and cut off Samson's hair. This would enable the Philistines to capture him, because he would lose his great strength.

How was Delilah able to subdue Samson?

Delilah was able to subdue him when the locks of his head were shaven off, for his strength left him.

Judges 16:20

ULT

20 And she said, "The Philistines {are} upon you, Samson!" And he woke from his sleep, and he said, "I will go out like time upon time, and I will shake myself." But he himself did not know that Yahweh had turned from upon him.

UST

20 Then she called out, "Samson! The Philistines have come to capture you!" He woke up and thought, "I will be able to do whatever I need to do to get away from them, just as I did the other times!" But he did not realize that Yahweh was no longer helping him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:21

ULT

21 And the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes. And they brought him down to Gaza and they bound him with bronze fetters. And he was grinding in the house of prisoners.

UST

21 Instead, the Philistine men captured him. They blinded him by gouging out both of his eyes {so that he could no longer attack any of them}. Then they took him to Gaza. They put him in prison there and put bronze chains on him {so he could not escape}. They made him turn a large millstone to grind grain every day.

What work did the Philistines make Samson do?

The Philistines made Samson turn the millstone to grind grain in the prison.

Judges 16:22

ULT

22 But the hair of his head began to grow after it had been shaved.

UST

22 But his hair started to grow again after the man had cut it.

Judges 16:23

ULT

23 Now the lords of the Philistines gathered themselves to sacrifice a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and for celebration, for they said, “Our god has given into our hand Samson, our enemies.”

UST

23 Then the Philistine leaders had a big celebration. They offered many sacrifices to their god Dagon. They praised him, saying, “Our god has enabled us to capture Samson, who did so many things to harm us!”

Why did the leaders of the Philistines gather together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god?

The leaders of the Philistines had a celebration to offer sacrifices to Dagon their god because they said he had conquered Samson.

Judges 16:24

ULT

24 And the people saw him, and they praised their god, for they said, “Our god has given into our hand our enemy and the devastator of our land, and who multiplied our slain.”

UST

24 When the other people at the festival saw Samson, they also praised their god Dagon, saying, “Samson harmed us greatly. He killed many of our soldiers and ruined many of our crops, but our god Dagon has enabled us to capture him!”

Judges 16:25

ULT

25 And it happened, when their heart {was} good, that they said, “Call for Samson, that he may make us laugh.” So they called for Samson from the house of prisoners, and he caused laughter to their faces. And they made him stand between the columns.

UST

25 The people drank a lot of wine and began to become drunk. Then they shouted, “Get Samson out of the prison! Bring him here so we can ridicule him!” So they brought Samson from the prison and made him stand {in the center of the temple,} between the pillars that supported the roof. The people ridiculed him.

Judges 16:26

ULT

26 And Samson said to the young man holding onto his hand, “Let me rest. Let me feel the columns upon which the house is set so I may support myself on them.”

UST

26 Samson said to the servant who was leading him by the hand {because he was blind}, “I want to rest. Place my hands against the two pillars that support the roof so that I can lean against them.”

Who helped Samson touch the columns on which the building rested?

The young man leading Samson by the hand led him so he could touch the columns which supported the building.

ULT

27 Now the house was full {of} men and women, and all of the lords of the Philistines {were} there, and on the roof {were} about 3, 000 men and women, watching to laughing of Samson.

UST

27 All the Philistine leaders were in the temple, along with a great crowd of men and women. There were about 3, 000 people on the roof, looking at Samson and ridiculing him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:28

ULT

28 Then Samson called to Yahweh and he said, “Lord Yahweh, please remember me, and please strengthen me only this time, O God, so I may avenge myself {with} one vengeance against the Philistines for my two eyes.”

UST

28 Samson prayed to Yahweh and said, “Lord Yahweh, please think about me again! Please, God, give me strength just once more so that I can take revenge on the Philistines for gouging out my eyes!”

Why did Samson want God to strengthen him?

Samson wanted God to strengthen him so that he could have revenge in one blow on the Philistines for taking his two eyes.

Judges 16:29

ULT

29 And Samson grasped the two columns of the center upon which the house was set, and he leaned himself against them, one on his right and one on his left.

UST

29 Then Samson put his right hand on one of the central pillars of the temple, and he put his left hand on the other one. He pushed hard against both pillars.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 16:30

ULT

30 Then Samson said, “My soul shall die with the Philistines!” And he stretched out with his strength, and the house fell on the lords and on all of the people who {were} in it. So the ones dying whom he killed at his death were more than those he killed in his life.

UST

30 Then Samson shouted, “I am going to kill all these Philistines, even though I have to die myself!” He pushed on the pillars as hard as he could, and he broke them and the temple collapsed. This killed the Philistine leaders and all the other people who were in the temple. So Samson killed more people when he died than he had killed while he was alive.

How many people did Samson kill when the building fell?

Samson killed more at his death than those he had killed during his life.

Judges 16:31

ULT

31 Then his brothers and all of the house of his father went down. And they lifted him and they went up and they buried him between Zorah and between Eshtaol in the burial place of Manoah, his father. And he had judged Israel 20 years.

UST

31 Later his brothers and other relatives traveled from Zorah to Gaza to get his body. They took it back home and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol, at the place where people had previously buried his father Manoah. Samson had led Israel for 20 years.

Judges 17:2

ULT

[2] And he said to his mother, “The 1,100 silver that was taken from you, and you swore, and also you spoke in my ears, behold, the silver {is} with me. I myself took it.” His mother said, “Blessed {be} my son by Yahweh!”

UST

[2] One day he said to his mother, “Someone stole 1, 100 pieces of silver from your house. I heard you ask Yahweh to make bad things happen to whoever did that. I confess that I took that silver, and I still have it.” His mother replied, “My son, may Yahweh do good things for you {because you admitted this}!”

What did Micah steal?

Micah stole 1,100 pieces of silver from his mother.

Judges 17:3

ULT

[3] And he returned the 1, 100 silver to his mother, and his mother said, “Consecrating, I consecrate the silver to Yahweh, from my hand to my son to make an idol and a molded image. And now, I return it to you.”

UST

[3] Micah gave the 1,100 pieces of silver back to his mother. Then she said, “I am dedicating some of this silver to Yahweh. I am giving it to you, my son, so that you can have someone mold a figure from it. I will give you enough silver to do that.”

For what did Micah’s mother set apart the silver?

Micah's mother said she had dedicated the silver to Yahweh, for her son to make an idol.

Judges 17:4

ULT

4 And he returned the silver to his mother, and his mother took 200 silver and she gave it to a refiner. And he made it {into} an idol and a molded image, and it was in the house of Micah.

UST

4 When Micah gave the silver pieces back to his mother, she took 200 of them and gave them to a metal worker. That man made a molded figure with the silver. Then he gave the figure to Micah. Micah kept it in his home.

Judges 17:7

ULT

7 Now there was a young man from Bethlehem {in} Judah, from the clan of Judah. Now he was a Levite, and he was sojourning there.

UST

7 There was a young man who had been living in the town of Bethlehem where people from the tribe of Judah live. He belonged to the tribe of Levi, but he had been living temporarily in the territory that Joshua had assigned to the tribe of Judah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 17:8

ULT

8 And the man went from the city, from Bethlehem {in} Judah, to sojourn in where he might find. And he entered the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, to make his way.

UST

8 Then he left Bethlehem to look for another place to live. As he was looking, he came to Micah's house in the hilly area that belongs to the tribe of Ephraim.

Why did the Levite leave Bethlehem?

The Levite left Bethlehem to go and find a place to live.

Judges 17:9

ULT

9 And Micah said to him, "From where have you come?" And he said to him, "I {am} a Levite from Bethlehem {in} Judah, and I am going to sojourn in where I may find."

UST

9 Micah asked him, "Where are you from?" He replied, "I have come from Bethlehem in the territory of Judah. I belong to the tribe of Levi, and I am looking for a new place to live for a while."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 17:10

ULT

10 And Micah said to him, "Stay with me and be to me for a father and for a priest, and I myself will give to you ten silver for the days, and a set of garments and your sustenance." So the Levite went {in}.

UST

10 Micah told him, "You may live in my house with me. You can advise me and be my priest. Each year I will give to you ten pieces of silver and some new clothes. I will also provide food for you." So the Levite stayed there.

What did Micah ask the Levite to be to him?

Micah asked the Levite to live with him and be an adviser and a priest to him.

Judges 17:11

ULT

11 And the Levite was willing to stay with the man, and the young man became to him like one from his sons.

UST

11 The Levite agreed to live with Micah. He became like one of his own sons.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 17:12

ULT

12 And Micah filled the hand of the Levite, and the young man was to him for a priest, and he was in the house of Micah.

UST

12 Micah appointed the Levite to be his priest, and he lived on Micah's property.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 17:13

ULT

13 Then Micah said, "Now I know that Yahweh will be good to me, because the Levite is to me for a priest."

UST

13 Then Micah said, "Now I know that Yahweh will do good things for me, because I have a Levite as my priest."

Why did Micah think Yahweh would be good to him?

Micah thought Yahweh would be good to him because he had a Levite as his priest.

Judges 18

Judges 18:1

ULT

1 In those days a king {was} not in Israel. Now in those days, the tribe of the Danite {was} seeking for itself an inheritance to dwell, for one had not fallen to it up to that day in the midst of the tribes of Israel for an inheritance.

UST

1 At that time the Israelites had no king. And at that time people of the tribe of Dan wanted more land where they could live. The other Israelite tribes had been able to occupy the territories that their leaders had assigned to them. But the tribe of Dan had not yet been able to occupy all of their territory.

Why were the descendants of Dan looking for a territory in which to live?

The descendants of Dan were looking for a territory in which to live because they had not been able to occupy all of the territory that had been assigned to them.

Judges 18:2

ULT

2 And the sons of Dan sent from their clan five men, men from their borders, sons of valor from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy on the land and to examine it. And they said to them, “Go, examine the land.” And they entered the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and they lodged there.

UST

2 So the Danites chose five strong soldiers from their tribe to look carefully for more land where they could live. These men lived in the part of their territory that the tribe had been able to occupy, in the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol. When the tribe sent them out to explore the land, the men went to the hilly area where the people of the tribe of Ephraim live. They stayed overnight in the area where Micah lived.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:3

ULT

3 They {were} near the house of Micah, and they recognized the voice of the young man, the Levite. So they turned aside there and said to him, “Who brought you here? And what {are} you doing in this {place}? And what {is} to you here?”

UST

3 Since they were close to his house, they could hear the people there talking. They recognized from the way he spoke that the young Levite was from the southern part of Israel, as they were. So they went and asked him, “How did you come here? What are your duties here? How do you support yourself?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:4

ULT

4 And he said to them, “Like this and like this Micah has done for me: now he has hired me, and I am to him for a priest.”

UST

4 He answered, “Let me explain exactly what Micah has done for me. He has given me the job of being his priest.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:5

ULT

5 And they said to him, “Please inquire of God that we may know, will our way prosper, upon which we {are} going?”

UST

5 So they said to him, “Please ask God to tell us whether we will succeed in what we are trying to do on this journey.”

What did the people of Dan want the Levite to ask God?

The people of Dan wanted the Levite to ask God if they would succeed in what they were trying to do.

Judges 18:6

ULT

6 And the priest said to them, “Go in peace, your way upon which you are going is before Yahweh.”

UST

6 The young man replied, “You should not worry. Yahweh will make you successful in what you are trying to do on your journey.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:7

ULT

7 So the five men went, and they came {to} Laish. And they saw the people who {were} in the midst of it dwelling in security, according to the manner of the Sidonians, reposing and being secure. And no one possessing restraint {was} humiliating {for} a thing in the land. And they {were} far from the Sidonians, and no thing {was} to them with man.

UST

7 Then the five men left. They came to the city of Laish, and they saw that the people there were not warlike. Instead, they engaged in trading, as the people of the city of Sidon do. The people there thought that they were safe. No ruler was controlling them. Their city was far from Sidon, and they were not part of a defensive league of cities.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:8

ULT

8 So they came to their brothers {in} Zorah and Eshtaol. And their brothers said to them, “What you?”

UST

8 When those five men returned to their tribe in Zorah and Eshtaol, the other Danites asked them “What do you have to report?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:9

ULT

9 And they said, “Arise, and let us go up against them! For we have seen the land, and behold, {it is} very good. And {are} you being silent? May you not slacken yourselves to go to enter to possess the land!

UST

9 They replied, “We have found some land, and we can assure you that it is very good. So we should go and attack the people who live there. We should not stay here and do nothing. We should go right away and take possession of that land!

What did the five men from Dan want to do with the land of Laish?

The five men from Dan wanted to take possession of the land so their people could live there.

Judges 18:10

ULT

10 When you go, you will come to a people being secure, and the land is broad {at} two hands. For God has given it into your hand, a place where no lack {is} there of any thing that {is} on the earth.”

UST

10 When you get there, you will find that the people there are not expecting anyone to attack them. There is plenty of land, and it has everything that we will need. {We should certainly go there,} because God will enable us to conquer that land.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:11

ULT

11 So they journeyed from there, from the clan of the Danite, from Zorah and Eshtaol, 600 men girded {with} weapons of war.

UST

11 So 600 men from the tribe of Dan left Zorah and Eshtaol. They brought their weapons with them {so they could attack the people of Laish}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:12

ULT

12 And they went up and camped at Kiriath Jearim in Judah. Upon this they call that place Mahaneh Dan to this day. Behold, {it is} beside Kiriath Jearim.

UST

12 On their way, they set up their tents near the city of Kiriath Jearim in the area where the tribe of Judah lives. That is why people call the area west of Kiriath Jearim Mahaneh Dan. People still call it that now.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:13

ULT

13 And they passed over from there {to} the hill country of Ephraim, and they came to the house of Micah.

UST

13 From there, they went to the hilly area where the people of the tribe of Ephraim live. And they arrived at Micah’s house.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:14

ULT

14 Then the five men having gone to spy on the land of Laish answered and said to their brothers, “Do you know that in these houses {are} an ephod and teraphim and an idol and a molded image? And now, consider what you shall do.”

UST

14 The five men who had explored the land near Laish said to their fellow Danites, “We want to inform you that in one of these houses, there is a sacred vest, several household idols, and a silver molded figure. Think about the advantages of having those things for ourselves.”

What did the five men say was in the houses of Laish?

The five men said that in the houses of Laish there were a sacred vest, household idols, and a silver molded figure.

Judges 18:15

ULT

15 So they turned aside there, and they entered into the house of the young man, the Levite, at the house of Micah, and they asked of him concerning peace.

UST

15 So they interrupted their journey and went to the house on Micah’s property where the young Levite lived. They told him they hoped he was doing well.

Judges 18:16

ULT

16 Now the 600 men girded with weapons of war who {were} from the sons of Dan had stationed themselves at the entrance of the gate.

UST

16 The 600 soldiers from the tribe of Dan stood outside the gate to the compound, holding their weapons.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:17

ULT

17 And the five men having gone to spy on the land came up. They entered there. They took the idol and the ephod and the teraphim and the molded image. And the priest {was} stationing himself at the entrance of the gate with the 600 men girded {with} weapons of war.

UST

17 The five men who had explored the land went into the house where Micah himself lived. They took the sacred vest, the household idols, and the silver molded figure. They made the priest go out and stand outside the gate with the 600 soldiers who were holding weapons.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:18

ULT

18 And these entered the house of Micah and took the idol, the ephod and the teraphim and the molded image. And the priest said to them, “What {are} you doing?”

UST

18 He saw them bringing out the sacred vest, the household idols, and the silver molded figure from Micah’s house. The priest told them it was wrong to take those things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:19

ULT

19 And they said to him, “Be quiet! Put your hand over your mouth and come with us and be to us for a father and for a priest. {Is} the good your being a priest for the house of one man or your being a priest for a tribe and for a clan in Israel?”

UST

19 They replied, “Do not object. Just come quietly with us and advise us and be our priest. It is certainly better for you to be the priest for a whole tribe of Israelites than to stay here and be the priest just for one man’s family and servants.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:20

ULT

20 And the heart of the priest was good, and he took the ephod and the teraphim and the idol, and he went in the midst of the people.

UST

20 The priest liked what they were suggesting. So he took the sacred vest, the household idols, and the silver molded figure and he left with the Danites.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:21

ULT

21 And they turned and they went. And they put the children and the livestock and the wealth to their faces.

UST

21 When they left, the soldiers had their children and cattle walk in front of them. They also had the animals that were carrying their baggage{, including the items they had taken from Micah,} walk in front of them. {That was to protect them from an attack from the rear.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:22

ULT

22 They themselves had gone far from the house of Micah, and the men who {were} in the houses that were near the house of Micah assembled themselves, and they overtook the sons of Dan.

UST

22 Micah gathered together the men who lived near him and they formed an army. Although the Danites had gotten some distance away by the time they started pursuing them, they were able to catch up with them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:23

ULT

23 And they called to the sons of Dan, and they turned their faces and they said to Micah, “What to you, that you have assembled yourself?”

UST

23 Micah and his men shouted at the men of the tribe of Dan. They turned around and asked Micah, “Why have you come after us with this army?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:24

ULT

24 And he said, “My gods, which I made, you took, and the priest, and you went. And what {is} still to me? So what is this, you say to me, ‘What to you’?”

UST

24 Micah replied, “You took away my own silver idols and my priest! Those were the things I valued the most. So you should not be asking me why I have come after you with an army.”

Why was Micah angry?

Micah was angry because the Danites stole the idols he had made and his priest and they were leaving.

Judges 18:25

ULT

25 And sons of Dan said to him, “You should not make your voice heard among us, lest men bitter of soul strike you and you gather your soul and the soul of your house.”

UST

25 The men from the tribe of Dan replied, “You had better not say anything further about this to us. Otherwise some of our men will become angry and attack you, and they would kill you and your relatives and servants!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:26

ULT

26 And the sons of Dan went on their way, for Micah perceived that they were stronger than him. And he turned and returned to his house.

UST

26 Then the men from the tribe of Dan continued walking. Micah realized that those soldiers would defeat him and his neighbors if they fought. So he turned around and went home.

Why did Micah turn and go back to his house?

When Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

ULT

27 But they themselves took what Micah had made and the priest who was to him. And they came to Laish, to a people reposing and being secure. And they struck them to the mouth of the sword, and they burned the city with fire.

UST

27 The men of the tribe of Dan kept Micah's household idols and his priest, and they continued traveling to Laish. They attacked the people who were living there, who had thought that they were safe. They killed all of them, and then they burned everything in the city.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:28

ULT

28 And there was not a deliverer, for it was far from Sidon and no thing {was} to them with man. Now it {was} in the valley that {is} to Beth Rehob. And they built the city, and they dwelled in it.

UST

28 There was no group of people to rescue the people of Laish. The city was far from Sidon, so the people who lived there could not help them. And the people of Laish had no other allies. (Laish was in a valley near the town of Beth Rehob.) The people of the tribe of Dan rebuilt the city and lived there themselves.

Why was there no one to rescue the people of Laish?

There was no one to rescue the people of Laish because it was a long way from Sidon and they had no other allies.

ULT

29 And they called the name of the city Dan, by the name of their father Dan, who was born to Israel. However, Laish {was} the name of the city at the first.

UST

29 They gave a new name to the city. They called it Dan, in honor of their ancestor whose name was Dan. He was one of Israel's sons. But previously the name of the city had been Laish.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 18:30

ULT

30 And the sons of Dan raised up the idol for themselves. And Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests for the tribe of the Danite until the day of the exile of the land.

UST

30 The people of the tribe of Dan began to worship the silver molded figure that had belonged to Micah. They appointed Jonathan son of Gershom, the grandson of Moses, to be their priest. His descendants continued to be their priests until the Assyrians captured the Israelites who lived in that area and took them away to other countries.

Who were the priests for the tribe of the Danites?

Jonathan, the son of Gershom, (the grandson of Moses) and his sons were priests for the tribe of Dan.

Judges 18:31

ULT

31 So they set up for themselves the idol of Micah that he had made, all of the days of the being of the house of God at Shiloh.

UST

31 Even though the sacred tent was in Shiloh at this time {and Israelites were supposed to worship there}, the people of the tribe of Dan worshiped the silver molded figure that had belonged to Micah.

Judges 19:3

ULT

3 And her husband arose and went after her to speak to her heart to cause her to return. And his young man {was} with him, and a pair of donkeys. And she brought him into the house of her father, and the father of the young woman saw him, and he was glad to meet him.

UST

3 Then her husband went to Bethlehem to try to persuade her to live with him again. He brought his servant and two donkeys with him. When he arrived at her father's house, she invited him to come in. When her father saw him, he was happy that he had come.

Where did the Levite's concubine bring him?

The concubine brought the Levite into the house of her father.

Judges 19:4

ULT

4 And his father-in-law, the father of the young woman, prevailed upon him, and he stayed with him three days. And they ate and they drank and they lodged there.

Judges 19:9

ULT

9 And the man arose to go, he and his concubine and his young man. But his father-in-law, the father of the young woman, said to him, “Behold, please, the day has subsided toward evening. Please lodge. Behold the declining of the day. Lodge here, and may your heart be good. Then you shall get up early tomorrow to your road, and you shall go to your tent.”

UST

9 Then the Levite got up to leave with his wife and his servant. But the woman’s father said, “Please do not leave. See how the sun is getting lower in the sky. See how dark it is getting already. You should stay here tonight and have a good time. Then you can leave on your journey tomorrow morning and get all the way home {in one day}.”

What did the Levite’s father-in-law ask him to do again on the fifth day?

His father-in-law asked him to stay another night and have a good time.

Judges 19:10

ULT

10 But the man was not willing to lodge, so he arose and he went. And he came to before Jebus (it {is} Jerusalem). Now with him {was} the pair of donkeys, saddled, and his concubine {was} with him.

UST

10 But the Levite did not want to stay for another night. So he put saddles on his two donkeys and left with his wife {and his servant}. They traveled as far as the city of Jebus, which people now call Jerusalem.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 19:11

ULT

11 They {were} beside Jebus, and the day had gone down greatly. So the young man said to his master, “Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusite, and we shall lodge in it.”

UST

11 It was late in the afternoon by the time they got to Jebus. So the servant said to his master, “I know that the Jebusites live in this city, but I think we need to stop and stay here for the night.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 19:12

ULT

12 But his master said to him, “We shall not turn aside into a city of a foreigner, where none from the sons of Israel {are} here. But we shall cross over to Gibeah.”

UST

12 But his master told him, “No, it would not be good for us to stay here where foreign people live. There are no Israelite people here. We should go on to the city of Gibeah.”

Why did the Levite not want to spend the night in Jebus?

The Levite did not want to stay in a city where there were no other Israelites.

Judges 19:13

ULT

13 And he said to his young man, “Come, and let us approach to one of the places, and we shall lodge in Gibeah or in Ramah.”

UST

13 He told his servant, “Instead of staying here, we can go a little farther to a city where Israelites live. We could stay for the night in either Gibeah or Ramah.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 19:14

ULT

14 So they crossed over and they went. And the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which {is} to Benjamin.

UST

14 So they continued walking. By the time they reached Gibeah, where people from the tribe of Benjamin live, the sun was setting.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 19:15

ULT

15 So they turned aside there to enter to lodge in Gibeah. And they entered and they sat down in the open area of the city, but no one was receiving them into the house to lodge.

UST

15 So they stopped there in Gibeah to stay for the night. They went into the public square of that city and sat down {as travelers did who were hoping that someone would give them a place to stay}. But no one who went through the square invited them to stay in his house for the night.

Why did the Levite and his servant sit down in the city square?

They sat down in the city square, for no one had offered them a place to stay for the night.

Judges 19:16

ULT

16 Then behold, an old man coming from his work, from the field in the evening. And the man {was} from the hill country of Ephraim, and he {was} sojourning in Gibeah. But the men of the place {were} Benjaminite.

UST

16 But then an old man came by. He had been out working in the fields all day. He was from the hilly area where the people of the tribe of Ephraim live. But at that time, he was living in Gibeah. He did not belong to the tribe of Benjamin as most of the people there did.

From what tribe were the men living in Gibeah?

The men living in Gibeah were from the tribe of Benjamin.

Judges 19:17

ULT

17 And he lifted his eyes, and he saw the traveling man in the open area of the city. And the old man said, “Where are you going and from where are you coming?”

UST

17 When he saw the Levite in the open area, he realized that he was traveling and did not have a place to stay in that city. So the old man asked him, “Where have you come from? And where are you going?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 19:18

ULT

18 He said to him, “We {are} crossing over from Bethlehem {in} Judah to the flanks of the hill country of Ephraim. I {am} from there, and I went to Bethlehem {in} Judah, and I {am} going {to} the house of Yahweh. But there is not a man receiving me into the house.

UST

18 The Levite replied, “We are returning from Bethlehem in Judah to my home in the hilly area where the people of the tribe of Ephraim live. I went from there to Bethlehem. However, before we return to my home, we are going to the sacred tent {in Shiloh}. No one here has invited us to stay in their house tonight.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 19:19

ULT

19 But there is even straw and even fodder for our donkeys, and there is even bread and wine for me and for your maidservant and for the young man with your servants. {There is} no need of anything.”

UST

19 {But wanting to be polite and not wanting to impose, the Levite continued,} “However, we have straw and grain to feed our donkeys. And I and my wife and our servant have bread and wine to eat and drink. So we do not need anything else.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 19:20

ULT

20 But the old man said, “Peace to you! Surely all of your need {is} upon me. Surely you must not lodge in the open area.”

UST

20 The old man said, “I will take care of you. I will provide you with a place to stay. I do not want you to have to spend the night in the open square.”

What did the old man warn the Levite not to do?

The old man warned the Levite not to spend the night in the open square.

Judges 19:21

ULT

21 So he brought him into his house, and he mixed for the donkeys, and they washed their feet, and they ate and they drank.

UST

21 Then the old man took them to his house. He gave food to their donkeys. He gave the man and the woman and the servant water so they could wash the dust from the road off their feet. Then the old man served them a meal.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 19:22

ULT

22 They were making their heart good, but behold, men of the city, men of sons of wickedness, encircled themselves {around} the house, pounding {repeatedly} on the door. And they spoke to the old man, the master of the house, saying, “Bring out the man who came to your house, that we may know him.”

UST

22 While they were having a good time together, a group of very wicked men from that city surrounded the house and started to bang on the door. They shouted to the old man whose house it was, “Bring out the man who has come to your house! We are all going to rape him!”

Why did the wicked men of the city want the old man to bring out the man who was staying in his house?

The wicked men of the city wanted the old man to bring out the man who came was staying in his house so they could have sex with him.

Judges 19:23

ULT

23 But the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, “No, my brothers, please do not act wickedly! After that this man has come into my house, you must not do this outrage!

UST

23 The old man whose house it was went outside to talk to them. He told them, “Please do not commit such a crime against this man! We are all members of the same community. I have offered this man shelter and safety in my home. You should {respect that and} not do such a terrible thing to him!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 19:24

ULT

24 Behold, my virgin daughter and his concubine. Please let me bring them out, and you may humble them and do to them the good in your eyes. But to this man do not do this thing of outrage!”

UST

24 Listen, I have an unmarried daughter living with me in my home. This man’s wife is also here. I will bring them out to you, and you can have sex with them and do whatever you want to them. But do not do such a terrible thing to this man!”

Who did the old man offer to the wicked men in place of the Levite?

The old man offered them his virgin daughter and the Levite’s concubine.

Judges 19:25

ULT

25 But the men did not consent to listen to him. So the man seized his concubine and made her go out to them outside. And they knew her and they abused her all of the night until the morning. Then they let her go at the rising of the dawn.

UST

25 But the men did not agree to do what he had said. So the man pushed his wife outside the house where those men were. They forced her to have sex with them. They abused her all night long. At dawn, they finally let her go.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 19:26

ULT

26 And the woman came at the turning of the morning, and she fell down at the entrance of the house of the man where her master was there, until the light.

UST

26 The sun was rising when the woman got back to the old man’s house, where her husband was staying. But she collapsed at the doorway and remained there until it became light.

What happened at dawn?

At dawn the wicked men let the concubine go. She came and she fell down at the door of the man’s house where her master was, and she lay there until it was light.

Judges 19:27

ULT

27 And her master arose in the morning, and he opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way. And behold, the woman, his concubine, fallen {at} the entrance of the house, and her hands {were} on the threshold.

UST

27 That morning, her husband got up and unlocked the doors and left the house to continue his journey. But he saw his wife lying there at the doorway of the house. Her hands were on the doorsill.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 19:28

ULT

28 And he said to her, “Arise, and let us go.” But {there was} no answering, so he took her on the donkey, and the man arose and went to his place.

UST

28 He said to her, “Come on, we can go now.” But she did not answer{, because she was dead}. He put her body on one of the donkeys, and he {and his servant} traveled back to his home.

What did the Levite do when his concubine did not answer him?

When the Levite’s concubine did not answer him, he put her body on the donkey and set out for home.

Judges 19:29

ULT

29 And he came to his house, and he took a knife, and he seized his concubine, and he cut her to her bones, into 12 pieces, and he sent her into all of the border of Israel.

UST

29 When he arrived at his home, he took a knife and cut his wife’s body into twelve pieces. Then he sent one piece into the territory of each of the tribes of Israel{, along with a messenger to tell what had happened}.

What did the Levite do to his concubine’s body?

The Levite cut her up into twelve pieces and sent the pieces to each of the tribes throughout Israel.

Judges 19:30

ULT

30 And it happened, everyone was seeing, and he said, “Like this has not been done and has not been seen from the day of the coming up of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt up to this day. Set for yourselves upon it! Take counsel, and speak!”

UST

30 Then everyone who saw a piece of the body {and heard the message} said, “Nothing like this has happened since our ancestors came here from Egypt! No one has heard of such a terrible thing! We all need to think carefully about this, and people should say what they think we should do in response.”

Judges 20

Judges 20:1

ULT

1 Then all of the sons of Israel came forth, and the congregation was assembled as one man, from Dan and unto Beersheba and the land of Gilead, to Yahweh at Mizpah.

UST

1 Then many people from throughout Israel traveled to Mizpah so they could meet together there and talk about what to do. They came from as far north as the city of Dan and from as far south as the city of Beersheba. They also came from the region of Gilead east of the Jordan River. They asked Yahweh to be present with them and guide their discussion.

Who gathered together before Yahweh at Mizpah?

All the people from Dan to Beersheba, including the land of Gilead, gathered together before Yahweh at Mizpah.

Judges 20:2

ULT

2 And the cornerstones of all of the people, all of the tribes of Israel, stationed themselves within the assembly of the people of God, 400, 000, a man, a footsoldier drawing the sword.

UST

2 The leaders who had come from various tribes of Israel met together with all the other Israelite people. There were 400,000 men there who had learned how to fight well on foot with a sword.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

ULT

3 Now the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up {to} Mizpah. And the sons of Israel said, “Say how this evil has been done.”

UST

3 The people of the tribe of Benjamin heard that the other Israelites were meeting in Mizpah. But no one from the tribe of Benjamin joined them there. The other Israelites who had gathered asked to hear how this horrible crime had happened.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:4

ULT

4 So the man, the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered and said, “To Gibeah that {is} to Benjamin I came, I and my concubine, to lodge.”

UST

4 The Levite whose wife the men of Gibeah had murdered spoke up. He said, “My wife and I were traveling, and we needed a place to stay for the night. We went to the city whose name is Gibeah that is in the territory of the tribe of Benjamin.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:5

ULT

5 And the lords of Gibeah arose against me, and they encircled the house at night against me. Me, they intended to kill, but my concubine, they humbled, and she died.

UST

5 That evening, a gang of men who seem to be able to do whatever they want in that city surrounded the house where we were staying. They wanted to rape me, and they would have killed me afterwards. {I know that because} they raped my wife all night so that she died.

What did the Levite say the men of Gibeah did to him?

The Levite said the men of Gibeah surrounded the house in order to abuse and kill him.

Judges 20:6

ULT

6 And I took back my concubine, and I cut her up, and I sent her into every field of the inheritance of Israel, because they have done lewdness and outrage in Israel.

UST

6 I took her body home and cut it into pieces. Then I sent one piece into the territory of each of the tribes of Israel. I did that because I wanted you all to know about this terrible, wicked thing that those men did right here in Israel.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:7

ULT

7 Behold, all of you sons of Israel, give to yourselves a word and advice here."

UST

7 So now, all you Israelites, talk together here and decide what you should do about this!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:8

ULT

8 And all of the people arose as one man, saying, "We will not go back, a man to his tent, and we will not return, a man to his house!

UST

8 Then all the people stood up together {to show how resolved they were} and said, "None of us will go back to where we live {until we make sure that those men will be punished}!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:9

ULT

9 And now this {is} the thing that we should do to Gibeah, against it by lot.

UST

9 This is what we must do to the people of Gibeah. First, we will cast lots to choose an army of soldiers to attack them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:10

ULT

10 Now we will take ten men of a hundred from all of the tribes of Israel, and a hundred from a thousand, and a thousand from a myriad, to get provision for the people, to do at their coming to Gibeah in Benjamin according to all of the outrage that it did in Israel."

UST

10 Then, we will have one tenth of our people get supplies for those soldiers. That way they will have what they need to go to Gibeah in the territory of Benjamin and punish the people who are responsible for doing this terrible thing in the land of Israel."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:11

ULT

11 So every man of Israel was gathered against the city as one man, associates.

UST

11 And all the Israelite people agreed that they had to punish the people of Gibeah. They would all work together to do that.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

ULT

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men into all of the tribes of Benjamin, saying, “What is this evil that has been done among you?

UST

12 The assembly of Israelites also agreed to send messengers throughout the tribe of Benjamin. They told these messengers to say, “Some of your men have done a very wicked thing in your territory!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:13

ULT

13 And now, give over the men, the sons of wickedness, who {are} in Gibeah, that we may kill them so that we may burn up evil from Israel.” But they were not willing, Benjamin, to listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel.

UST

13 Those wicked men live in the city of Gibeah. Surrender them to us so that we can execute them. That way we can get rid of the influence that the wicked thing they did is having on the people of Israel.” But the people of the tribe of Benjamin refused to surrender the men as the other Israelites had demanded.

Why did the tribes of Israel tell Benjamin to give them those wicked men of Gibeah?

The tribes of Israel told Benjamin to give them those wicked men of Gibeah, so they might put them to death in order to completely remove this evil from Israel.

Judges 20:14

ULT

14 Then the sons of Benjamin gathered themselves from the cities to Gibeah, to come out to battle with the sons of Israel.

UST

14 The men who lived in other cities in the territory of Benjamin gathered at Gibeah to defend it against the other Israelites when they attacked.

Why did the people of Benjamin come together at Gibeah?

The people of Benjamin came together at Gibeah to defend it against the people of Israel.

Judges 20:15

ULT

15 And the sons of Benjamin mobilized themselves on that day from the cities, 26,000 men drawing the sword, besides 700 chosen men from the dwellers of Gibeah {who} mobilized themselves.

UST

15 When they did that, a total of 26,000 fighting men came from those cities to fight. Another 700 skilled warriors who lived in Gibeah joined them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

UST

38 The main group of Israelite soldiers {knew when to stop fleeing and turn around and attack because they} had arranged for the soldiers who were hiding to give them a signal. They told them to {set the city on fire once they had entered it so that} a great cloud of smoke would rise from it into the sky.

What was the signal between the soldiers of Israel and the men hiding in secret?

The arranged signal between the soldiers of Israel and the men hiding in secret was that a great cloud of smoke would rise up out of the city.

Judges 20:39

ULT

39 when the men of Israel retreated from the battle. And Benjamin began to strike, the slain among the men of Israel {were} about 30 men. For they said, “Surely being beaten, he {is} being beaten to our faces, as {in} the first battle.”

UST

39 That was why the main group of Israelite soldiers had fled from the battle. They wanted the soldiers from the tribe of Benjamin to think that they were winning the battle, just as they had before. The soldiers from Benjamin were able to kill about 30 Israelite soldiers.

Judges 20:40

ULT

40 But the signal began to go up from the city, a column of smoke, and Benjamin turned after it, and behold, the whole of the city had gone up to the heavens.

UST

40 But then a cloud of smoke began to rise up from the city because the Israelite soldiers who had been hiding were setting fires as a signal. The soldiers from the tribe of Benjamin turned around and saw a great cloud of smoke going up into the sky because fires were burning throughout the city.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:41

ULT

41 And a man of Israel turned, and a man of Benjamin was alarmed, for he saw that harm had touched upon him.

UST

41 The main group of Israelite men also saw the smoke, and so they turned around {and began to attack the Benjaminites}. The soldiers from the tribe of Benjamin became very afraid, because they realized that they were going to be badly defeated.

Judges 20:42

ULT

42 So they turned to the face of the men of Israel to the way of the wilderness, but the battle overtook him, and {those} who {were} from the cities {were} destroying him in the midst of him.

UST

42 So the soldiers from the tribe of Benjamin tried to run away toward the desolate area outside the city to escape from the Israelite soldiers. But they were not able to escape, because the rest of the Israelite soldiers were coming at them from the other direction. They were caught between the two groups.

Why could the men of Benjamin not escape?

The men of Benjamin ran away from the soldiers of Israel, trying to escape into the wilderness, but they were caught between the two groups of Israelites.

Judges 20:43

ULT

43 They surrounded Benjamin, they caused to pursue, {with} ease they trampled him unto before Gibeah, from the rising of the sun.

UST

43 The Israelite soldiers surrounded many of the soldiers from the tribe of Benjamin, chasing them into an area east of Gibeah. The Israelite soldiers easily killed many of them there.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:44

ULT

44 And they fell from Benjamin, 18,000 men, all of them men of valor.

UST

44 The Israelites killed 18,000 soldiers from the tribe of Benjamin who were all great warriors.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:45

ULT

45 And they turned and fled to the wilderness, to the rock of Rimmon. And they gleaned along the pathways 5,000 men. And they pursued closely after him unto Gidom, and they struck from him 2,000 men.

UST

45 Those who were still alive tried to run to the rock of Rimmon in a desolate area {where they could protect themselves}. But the Israelite soldiers killed 5,000 more soldiers from the tribe of Benjamin on the roads as they were trying to run away. The Israelites chased other soldiers from the tribe of Benjamin who were fleeing towards the city of Gidom. The Israelites killed 2,000 of them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:46

ULT

46 So on that day all of the fallen ones from Benjamin were 25, 000 men drawing the sword, all of them men of valor.

UST

46 Altogether 25,000 soldiers from the tribe of Benjamin who had learned how to fight well with a sword died that day. They were all great warriors.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 20:47

ULT

47 But 600 men turned and fled to the wilderness, to the rock of Rimmon, and they stayed at the rock of Rimmon four months.

UST

47 But 600 soldiers from the tribe of Benjamin escaped into a desolate area. They got safely to the rock of Rimmon, and they stayed there for four months.

How many soldiers of Benjamin turned and fled to the wilderness?

Six hundred men were able to escape to the wilderness.

Judges 20:48

ULT

48 Then the men of Israel returned to the sons of Benjamin, and they struck them to the mouth of the sword, from a city of entirety to cattle to everything found. Also, all of the cities found, they sent into fire.

UST

48 Then the Israelite soldiers went throughout the territory that belonged to the tribe of Benjamin and slaughtered everyone. They killed all the people in each city. They also killed all the animals and destroyed everything else that was in those cities. They also burned all of the cities in that territory to the ground.

Judges 21

Judges 21:1

ULT

1 Now a man of Israel had sworn at Mizpah, saying, “A man from us shall not give his daughter to Benjamin for a wife.”

UST

1 (When the Israelites gathered at Mizpah before they started to fight the tribe of Benjamin, all of the men made a solemn promise. They had declared, “None of us will ever allow one of our daughters to marry a man from the tribe of Benjamin!”)

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:2

ULT

2 And the people came {to} Bethel, and they sat there until the evening to the face of God. And they lifted their voice and wept a great weeping.

UST

2 {After destroying the people, animals, and property throughout the territory of Benjamin,} the Israelites went to Bethel where God’s sacred tent was. They sat down and wept very loudly and sadly all day.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:3

ULT

3 And they said, “Why, Yahweh, God of Israel, should this be in Israel, to be missing today one tribe from Israel?”

UST

3 They kept saying, “Yahweh, you are the God of us Israelite people. But one of our Israelite tribes does not exist anymore! This should not have happened to us!”

Why did the men of Israel say that one of their tribes might not exist anymore?

The men of Israel worried that the Benjaminite tribe would no longer exist since they had promised to not allow their daughters to marry a Benjaminite so the remaining men would not have women to marry.

Judges 21:4

ULT

4 And it happened the next day that the people arose early and built an altar there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

UST

4 Early the next morning, the people built an altar at Bethel. The priests made sacrifices for them that they burned completely on the altar, and they also made fellowship sacrifices.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:5

ULT

5 And the sons of Israel said, “Who {is it} who did not go up with the assembly from all of the tribes of Israel to Yahweh?” For a great oath had been regarding whoever did not go up to Yahweh {at} Mizpah, saying, “Dying, he shall be caused to die.”

UST

5 Then the Israelites started asking whether the people of any city in one of the tribes of Israel had not come when they met to ask Yahweh for guidance. They were asking this because they had all sworn very solemnly that they would kill any group that did not come when they met with Yahweh at Mizpah.

Who would certainly be put to death?

Anyone who did not come when they met with Yahweh at Mizpah would certainly be put to death.

Judges 21:6

ULT

6 And the sons of Israel repented themselves toward Benjamin, his brother. And they said, “Today one tribe has been hewn from Israel.

UST

6 The Israelites {were asking about this because they} felt sorry for their fellow Israelites from the tribe of Benjamin. They said, “Now one of our Israelite tribes no longer exists.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:7

ULT

7 What shall we do for them, for the remaining ones, for a wife, since we ourselves have sworn to Yahweh not to give to them from our daughters for a wife?”

UST

7 Let us think about what we can do to make sure that the surviving men from the tribe of Benjamin have wives. {This is a difficult problem, because} all of us here made a solemn promise to Yahweh that we would not allow any of our daughters to marry a man from the tribe of Benjamin.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:8

ULT

8 And they said, “Who {is} the one from the tribes of Israel who did not go up to Yahweh {at} Mizpah?” And behold, a man had not come to the camp from Jabesh Gilead for the assembly.

UST

8 That is why the people were asking whether the people from any city in one of the tribes of Israel had not sent anyone to Mizpah when the Israelites met with Yahweh there. They thought they recalled that no one had come from the city of Jabesh Gilead to the meeting at Mizpah.

Which of the cities did not come to meet with Yahweh at Mizpah?

No one from the city of Jabesh Gilead had come to meet with Yahweh at Mizpah.

Judges 21:9

ULT

9 And the people counted themselves, and behold, a man {was} not there from the dwellers of Jabesh Gilead.

UST

9 So they checked everyone who was there in Bethel, and they found that no one who lived in the city of Jabesh Gilead was there. {This seemed to prove that none of them had come to Mizpah.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:10

ULT

10 So the congregation sent 12,000 men there from the sons of the army and they commanded them, saying, “Go, and you shall strike the dwellers of Jabesh Gilead to the mouth of the sword, even the women and the children.

UST

10 So all the Israelites chose 12,000 experienced soldiers and gave them orders to go and kill all of the people who lived in Jabesh Gilead, including the women and the children.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:11

ULT

11 And this {is} the thing that you shall do: every male and every woman having known the lying of a male, you shall devote.”

UST

11 They told those soldiers: “This is what we want you to do: kill all of the men in Jabesh Gilead. You must also kill every married woman. {But do not kill the unmarried women.}”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:12

ULT

12 And they found among the dwellers of Jabesh Gilead 400 young women, a virgin who had not known a man by the lying of a male, and they brought them to the camp {at} Shiloh, which was in the land of Canaan.

UST

12 {So those soldiers went to Jabesh Gilead and killed all the men, married women, and children.} But in that city they found 400 young women there who had never been married. So they brought them to Shiloh{, where they had all gone by then}. That city was across the river from the region where the city of Jabesh Gilead was.

Who did the men take from those living in Jabesh Gilead?

The men took 400 young women who had never slept with a man from those living in Jabesh Gilead.

Judges 21:13

ULT

13 And all of the congregation sent and spoke to the sons of Benjamin who {were} at the rock of Rimmon, and they called out peace to them.

UST

13 Then all the Israelites who had gathered sent a message to the men from the tribe of Benjamin who had gone to the rock of Rimmon {where they could protect themselves}. The Israelites said that they would not try to kill them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:14

ULT

14 So Benjamin returned at that time, and they gave to them the women who were alive from the women of Jabesh Gilead. But they did not find enough for them.

UST

14 So the Benjaminites then came back from the rock of Rimmon. The Israelites allowed them to marry the young women from Jabesh Gilead whom they had not killed. But {there were only 400 women.} That was not enough women for those 600 men.

What was the problem when the Benjaminites were given the women of Jabesh Gilead?

When the Benjaminites were given the women of Jabesh Gilead, there were not enough women for all of them to marry.

Judges 21:15

ULT

15 And the people repented itself for Benjamin, for Yahweh had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

UST

15 So the Israelites still felt sorry for the men of the tribe of Benjamin. It seemed that one of the Israelite tribes would not exist any more because Yahweh had told the other Israelites to fight against that tribe.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:16

ULT

16 So the elders of the congregation said, “What shall we do for wives for the remaining ones, since a woman has been destroyed from Benjamin?”

UST

16 The Israelite leaders said, “We have killed all the women of the tribe of Benjamin. So where can we get women to be wives of the men who are still alive?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:17

ULT

17 And they said, “A possession of the escapee of Benjamin, so a tribe will not be wiped out from Israel.

UST

17 They continued, “These surviving Benjaminites must have wives {who will give birth to children so that their family lines can continue}. Otherwise, the tribe of Benjamin will no longer exist in Israel.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:18

ULT

18 But we ourselves are not able to give wives to them from our daughters, because the sons of Israel have sworn, saying, ‘Cursed {is} the one giving a wife to Benjamin.’”

UST

18 But we Israelites all solemnly asked Yahweh to curse anyone who gave one of his daughters to any man of the tribe of Benjamin as a wife. So we cannot allow our daughters to marry these men.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:19

ULT

19 So they said, “Behold, a feast of Yahweh {is} at Shiloh from days to days.” (That {is} from the north to Bethel, from the rising of the sun to the road going up from Bethel {to} Shechem and from the south to Lebonah.)

UST

19 Then they had an idea. They remembered, “Every year there is a festival to honor Yahweh at Shiloh.” (That city is north of Bethel and east of the road that extends from Bethel to Shechem. It is south of the city of Lebonah.)

Where was Shiloh?

Shiloh was north of Bethel, east of the road that went up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah.

Judges 21:20

ULT

20 So they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, “Go and lie in ambush in the vineyards.

UST

20 So the Israelite leaders told the surviving men of the tribe of Benjamin {who did not yet have wives}, “When it is the time for that festival, go to Shiloh and hide in the vineyards around the city.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:21

ULT

21 And you shall look, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then you shall come out from the vineyards, and you shall catch for yourselves a man his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and you shall go {to} the land of Benjamin.

UST

21 Keep watching for the young women to come out of Shiloh to dance. When they come out, run out from the vineyards. Each of you men can seize one of the young women of Shiloh. Then you can all return to your homes in the territory of Benjamin with those women as your wives.

When were the Benjaminites to each rush out of the vineyards and grab a wife from the young women of Shiloh?

When the young women from Shiloh came out to dance, each Benjaminite was to rush out of the vineyards and grab a young woman as his wife.

Judges 21:22

ULT

22 And it will happen, when their fathers or their brothers come to contend with us, that we will say to them, ‘Grant us them, for we did not take, a man his wife, in the battle. For you have not given to them at {this} time, {that} you should be guilty.’”

UST

22 If their fathers or brothers come to us and demand that you give the women back, we will say to them, ‘Please allow us to give your young women to the men of Benjamin as wives. Do this because, when we fought them, we did not leave any women alive who could be their wives. And you are not giving your young women now to the men from the tribe of Benjamin as wives. They stole them. So you will not be guilty of breaking the oath that we all swore not to give any of our daughters as a wife to any of them.’”

Why would the men of Shiloh not be guilty of breaking their oath?

The men of Shiloh were told that they had not broken their oath since they had not given their daughters to the Benjaminites as wives but instead, the young women had been stolen.

Judges 21:23

ULT

23 And the sons of Benjamin did thus, and they carried away wives for their number from the ones dancing, whom they caught. And they went and returned to their inheritance, and they built the cities and dwelled in them.

UST

23 So that is what the men of the tribe of Benjamin did. They went to Shiloh at the time of the festival. When the young women came out of the city to dance, each man grabbed one of them and took her away and married her. Then they took their wives back to the land that the Israelite leaders had assigned to them. They rebuilt their cities that the other Israelites had burned down, and they lived there.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:24

ULT

24 Then the sons of Israel disbursed themselves from there at that time, a man to his tribe and to his clan, and they went away from there, a man to his inheritance.

UST

24 Then the other Israelites left Shiloh and all went back to where their families and tribes lived. They returned to the areas that the Israelite leaders had assigned to their tribes.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Judges 21:25

ULT

25 In those days a king {was} not in Israel. A man did the right in his eyes.

UST

25 At that time, Israel did not have a king, and everyone did what they thought they should do.

How did everyone live in those days when Israel had no king?

Everyone did what he thought was right in his own eyes.

Ruth

Ruth 1

Ruth 1:1

ULT

1 Now it happened in the days of the ruling of the judges that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man from Bethlehem of Judah went to live in the fields of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons.

UST

1 During the time that judges ruled {Israel}, there was a famine in that country. A man from the town of Bethlehem in the region of Judah {in the country of Israel} left there and went to live for a while in the country of Moab. His wife and his two sons went with him.

During what period of time in Jewish history did the story of Ruth occur?

It occurred in the days when the judges ruled.

Why did Elimelek move to Moab with his family?

He moved because there was a famine in the land of Judah.

Ruth 1:2

ULT

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion, Ephrathites from Bethlehem of Judah. So they traveled to the fields of Moab and lived there.

UST

2 The man's name was Elimelech and his wife's name was Naomi. The names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. All of them were part of the clan of Ephrathah, from Bethlehem in Judah. They came to the land of Moab and stayed there.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 1:3

ULT

3 Then Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died. And she was left, she and her two sons.

UST

3 Then Naomi's husband, Elimelech, died, and Naomi had only her two sons with her.

What happened to Elimelek in Moab?

He died, leaving Naomi a widow.

Ruth 1:4

ULT

4 And they took wives for themselves from the women of Moab; the name of the first woman was Orpah, and the name of the second woman was Ruth. And they lived there for about ten years.

UST

4 {Eventually,} the sons married women from Moab. The name of one woman was Orpah, and the name of the other woman was Ruth. But after Naomi and her sons had lived in Moab for about ten years,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 1:5

ULT

5 And the two of them, Mahlon and Kilion, also died, and the woman was left without her two children or her husband.

UST

5 Mahlon and Kilion also died. So then Naomi was alone without her husband or her two sons.

What happened to Naomi's children in Moab?

They died, leaving behind two daughters-in-law for Naomi.

Ruth 1:6

ULT

6 Then she arose, she and her daughters-in-law, and she returned from the fields of Moab, for she had heard in a field of Moab that Yahweh had visited his people, giving them bread.

UST

6 {One day} while Naomi was in Moab, she heard someone say that Yahweh had helped his people {in Israel} and that now they had plenty of food. So she got ready to return {to Bethlehem} with her daughters-in-law.

Why did Naomi decide to return to Judah?

She heard that Yahweh had given the people of Judah food.

Ruth 1:7

ULT

7 So she went out from the place where she had been {living} there, and her two daughters-in-law {were} with her. And they traveled on the road to return to the land of Judah.

UST

7 She and her two daughters-in-law left the place where she had been living and they started to walk along the road back to Judah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 1:8

ULT

8 Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, “Go, return, each woman to the house of her mother. May Yahweh act with you in covenant faithfulness as you have acted with the dead and with me.

UST

8 Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, “Each of you should turn around and go back to live with your mother. I am asking Yahweh to be as faithful to you as you have been to your dead husbands and to me.

Where did Naomi want her two daughters-in-law to go?

She wanted them to return to their mothers’ houses.

Ruth 1:9

ULT

9 May Yahweh grant to you that you shall find rest, each woman in the house of her husband.” Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and cried.

UST

9 I am asking Yahweh to allow each of you to have another husband with whom you will have a secure home.” Then she kissed each of them, and they cried aloud.

What did Naomi want her two daughters-in-law to find?

She wanted them to find other husbands.

Ruth 1:10

ULT

10 But they said to her, “Rather, we will return with you to your people.”

UST

10 They each said, “No! We will return with you to your relatives.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 1:11

ULT

11 But Naomi said, “Turn back, my daughters! Why would you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb, that they may become husbands for you?

UST

11 But Naomi said, “No, my daughters. Return home. It will not do any good for you to come with me! It is not possible for me to have more sons who could become your husbands.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 1:12

ULT

12 Turn back, my daughters, go! For I am too old to belong to a husband. If I said I have hope, and if I belonged to a husband even tonight, and even if I would give birth to sons,

UST

12 You should go back, my daughters. It is too late for me to have another husband. Even if I thought that I could have another husband, and was married even tonight and had more sons,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 1:13

ULT

13 would you therefore wait until the time when they are grown? Would you for this reason keep yourselves from belonging to a husband? No, my daughters! For it is exceedingly bitter for me, more than for you, that the hand of Yahweh has gone out against me."

UST

13 you would not wait until they grew up! You could not remain unmarried until then! No, my daughters, Yahweh has done very bad things to me, causing me to grieve very much. But your lives do not need to be as bad as mine."

Who did Naomi believe was the source of her trouble?

She believed that Yahweh was against her.

Ruth 1:14

ULT

14 Then they lifted up their voices and cried again. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

UST

14 Then Ruth and Orpah cried loudly again. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law {goodbye and left}, but Ruth stayed with Naomi.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 1:15

ULT

15 Then she said, "Behold, your sister-in-law has turned back to her people and to her god. Go back after your sister-in-law."

UST

15 Naomi said to her, "Look! Your sister-in-law is going back to her relatives and to the god that she worshiped {previously}! Go back with her!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 1:16

ULT

16 But Ruth said, “Do not press me to forsake you, to turn back from behind you. For to where you go, I will go, and in where you stay, I will stay. Your people {are} my people, and your God {is} my God.

UST

16 But Ruth replied, “No! Please do not insist that I abandon you and stop taking care of you! Wherever you travel, I will travel too. Wherever you live, I will live too. Your relatives will be my relatives, and I will worship the God whom you worship.

When Ruth stayed with Naomi, what promise did Ruth make to Naomi?

She said, “For I will go to the place where you go, and I will stay in the place where you stay. Your people are my people, and your God is my God.”

Ruth 1:17

ULT

17 In the place where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May Yahweh do thus to me, and thus may he add, if death separates between me and between you.”

UST

17 Wherever you die, there I will die, and they will bury me there. May Yahweh punish me severely if I leave you even after we die.”

How long did Ruth say she would remain with Naomi?

She said she would remain with Naomi until they died. She said, "In the place where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May Yahweh do thus to me, and thus may he add, if death separates between me and between you."

Ruth 1:18

ULT

18 Then she saw that she was determined to go with her, and she refrained from speaking to her.

UST

18 When Naomi realized that Ruth had firmly resolved to go with her, Naomi stopped urging Ruth to return home.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 1:19

ULT

19 So the two of them traveled until they came to Bethlehem. And it happened, as they were entering Bethlehem, the entire town was agitated on account of them. And the women said, “Is this Naomi?”

UST

19 So the two women continued walking until they came to the town of Bethlehem. When they arrived in Bethlehem, many people in the town began talking loudly about them. Many women of the town exclaimed, “It is hard to believe that this is Naomi!”

To which town did Naomi return?

She returned to Bethlehem.

Ruth 1:20

ULT

20 But she said to them, “Do not call me Naomi. Call me Mara, for the Almighty has acted exceedingly bitterly to me.

UST

20 Naomi said to them, “You should not call me Naomi anymore, since it means ‘pleasant.’ Instead, call me Mara, because it means ‘bitter.’ God Almighty has made my life very bitter.

What name did Naomi want to be called and why?

She asked to be called “Mara” (which means “bitter”), because she believed that Yahweh had dealt bitterly with her.

Ruth 1:21

ULT

21 As for me, I went out full, but Yahweh has brought me back empty. Why would you call me Naomi? But as for Yahweh, he has testified against me, and the Almighty has done evil to me.”

UST

21 When I left, I had everything I could want, but Yahweh has brought me back with nothing. Do not call me Naomi. Yahweh has opposed me. Almighty God has treated me badly.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 1:22

ULT

22 So Naomi returned, with Ruth the Moabite woman her daughter-in-law, with her, the woman who returned from the fields of Moab. And they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of the harvest of barley.

UST

22 So that is how Naomi returned home along with her daughter-in-law Ruth, the woman from Moab. When they arrived in Bethlehem, it was the season for people there to begin harvesting their crops of barley.

What time of the year did Naomi and Ruth arrive in Bethlehem?

They arrived at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Ruth 2

Ruth 2:1

ULT

1 Now Naomi had a relative of her husband, a man of great worth from the clan of Elimelech. And his name {was} Boaz. [1]

UST

1 There was a man {there} who was a relative of Naomi's {dead} husband, Elimelech. He was rich and important, and a member of the same clan to which Elimelech belonged. The man's name was Boaz.

What was the relationship between Boaz and Naomi's dead husband?

Boaz was a relative of Naomi's husband.

Ruth 2:2

ULT

2 And Ruth, the Moabite woman, said to Naomi, "Please, I want to go to the field and glean heads of grain after the one in whose eyes I find favor." And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."

UST

2 Ruth (the woman from Moab) said to Naomi, "Let me go to the fields and pick up the grain that the harvesters leave behind. I will go behind any harvester who allows me to do so." Naomi replied, "Go ahead, my daughter."

As Ruth went out to glean for the first time, who did Ruth say she would follow while gleaning grain?

She would follow anyone in whose eyes she found favor.

Ruth 2:3

ULT

3 So she left and went to glean in the field after the reapers. And her chance chanced upon the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelek.

UST

3 So Ruth went. When she got to the fields, she followed the harvesters and picked up grain. The part of the field that she was working in just happened to belong to Boaz, Elimelek's relative.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 2:4

ULT

4 Then behold, Boaz coming from Bethlehem! And he said to the reapers, “Yahweh be with you.” And they said to him, “May Yahweh bless you.”

UST

4 Just then, Boaz arrived from Bethlehem! He greeted the harvesters, “May Yahweh be with you!” They replied, “May Yahweh bless you!”

What greeting did Boaz give to his workers?

He said, “Yahweh be with you.”

Ruth 2:5

ULT

5 Then Boaz said to his servant who was set over the reapers, “Who does this young woman belong to?”

UST

5 Then Boaz {saw Ruth, and} asked his foreman, “Who is that young woman related to?”

What did Boaz want to know about Ruth?

He wanted to know to whom she belonged.

Ruth 2:6

ULT

6 Then the servant who was set over the reapers answered and said, “She is a young Moabite woman, the woman who came back with Naomi from the land of Moab.

UST

6 The foreman replied, “She is the young woman from Moab who accompanied Naomi when she returned from there.

Ruth 2:7

ULT

7 And she said, ‘Please let me glean and gather among the bundles of grain after the reapers.’ And she came and has continued from then, in the morning, until now. This is her resting in the house a little.” [2]

UST

7 The woman said to me, ‘Please let me pick up the grain that the men who are harvesting leave behind.’ {I allowed her to do so.} She has worked since early this morning until recently, when she rested for a short time under the shelter.”

Ruth 2:8

ULT

8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, “Will you not listen, my daughter? Do not go to glean in another field, and do not even go away from here, but thusly stick closely to my young female workers.

UST

8 Then Boaz {walked over to where Ruth was and} said to Ruth, “Young lady, please listen to me. You do not need to go to any other field or anywhere else to gather grain. You should stay right here with my servant girls.

What instructions did Boaz give Ruth concerning her gleaning?

He told Ruth not to leave his field, but to stay and work in his field with his female workers.

Ruth 2:9

ULT

9 Keep your eyes on the field where they are reaping and follow behind them. Have I not instructed the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the waterpots and drink from what the young men draw.”

UST

9 Watch where the men are harvesting and follow along behind my servant girls. I have told the men {who are harvesting} not to molest you. Whenever you are thirsty, go and get some water to drink from the jars that the men have filled.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 2:10

ULT

10 Then she fell on her face and bowed down to the ground and said to him, “Why have I found favor in your eyes that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?”

UST

10 Then she knelt before him {in respect} with her forehead touching the ground. She exclaimed, “Why are you being so kind to me? I did not think that you would pay any attention to me, since I am a foreigner!”

After receiving the favorable instructions, what question did Ruth ask Boaz?

She asked Boaz why she had found favor in his sight.

Ruth 2:11

ULT

11 Then Boaz answered and said to her, “It has been fully reported to me everything that you have done with your mother-in-law after the death of your husband. You left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and you came to a people whom you did not know the day before yesterday.

UST

11 Boaz replied, “People have told me everything that you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband died. They told me that you left your parents and your homeland, and that you came here to live among people whom you did not know previously.

What good report had Boaz heard about Ruth?

He had heard that Ruth had left her home to follow Naomi.

Ruth 2:12

ULT

12 May Yahweh reward your work, and may your full wages come from Yahweh, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge.”

UST

12 I pray that Yahweh will fully repay you for what you have done. Yes, may Yahweh, the God of Israel, the one whom you are trusting to protect you, reward you in full.”

Under whose wings did Boaz say Ruth had found refuge?

He said that Ruth had found refuge under Yahweh’s wings.

Ruth 2:13

ULT

13 Then she said, “May I find favor in your eyes, my lord, since you have comforted me, and since you have spoken to the heart of your female servant. But as for me, I am not even like one of your female servants.”

UST

13 She replied, “Sir, I hope I will continue to please you. You have comforted me by speaking so kindly to me, your servant, and yet I am not even {worthy to be} one of your servant girls!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 2:14

ULT

14 Then, at the time of the meal, Boaz said to her, “Come here and eat from the bread, and dip your piece in the vinegar.” So she sat beside the reapers, and he offered to her some roasted grain. And she ate and she was satisfied, and she had some left over.

UST

14 When it was time to eat, Boaz said to Ruth, “Come over here {and get some food}. Take some of this bread and dip it in the vinegar and eat it.” So she {came and} sat down with the harvesters. Then he gave her some roasted grain. She ate all {the food} that she wanted and had some left over.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 2:15

ULT

15 Then she got up to glean. Then Boaz commanded his young men, saying, “Let her glean even among the bundles, and do not shame her.

UST

15 After she stood up to go back to work, Boaz ordered his workers, “Even if she gathers some grain near the bundles of grain {that you have cut}, do not tell her to stop doing that.

What additional favor did Boaz show to Ruth when they returned to work after mealtime?

He allowed Ruth to glean among the bundles.

Ruth 2:16

ULT

16 Even be sure to pull some out from the bundles for her and leave it for her to glean, and do not rebuke her!”

UST

16 Even more than that, I want you to pull out some stalks of grain from the bundles and leave them {on the ground} for her to pick up—and do not scold her.”

What did Boaz tell his workers to do for Ruth?

He commanded the reapers to pull out grain for Ruth from the bundles.

Ruth 2:17

ULT

17 So she gleaned in the field until the evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

UST

17 So Ruth gathered grain in the field until evening. Then she threshed the barley that she had gathered{, to separate the kernels from the stalks}. The barley kernels were enough to fill a large basket.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 2:18

ULT

18 And she lifted it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Then she took out and gave to her what she had left over after she was satisfied.

UST

18 She carried it back to town and showed her mother-in-law how much she had gathered. Ruth also gave her mother-in-law the roasted grain that she had left over after she had eaten all that she had wanted {at lunchtime}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 2:19

ULT

19 Then her mother-in-law said to her, “Where did you glean today and where did you work? May the one who noticed you be blessed.” Then she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked. And she said, “The name of the man with whom I worked today {is} Boaz.”

UST

19 Her mother-in-law asked her, “Where did you gather all this grain today? In whose field did you work? I pray that God will bless the man who was so kind to you.” Then Ruth told her about the person with whom she had worked. She said, “The name of the man who owns the field where I worked today is Boaz.”

When Naomi saw the large amount of grain that Ruth brought back, what question did she ask Ruth?

She asked where Ruth had gleaned that day.

Ruth 2:20

ULT

20 Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed by Yahweh, who has not forsaken his covenant faithfulness with the living and with the dead.” Naomi also said to her, “That man is close to us. He is one of our kinsman-redeemers.”

UST

20 Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May Yahweh bless him! Yahweh has continued to act faithfully toward {us} who are still living, and to {our husbands} who have died.” Then Naomi said, “That man is a close relative {of Elimelek}. In fact, he is one of those responsible for taking care of our family.”

What blessing did Naomi wish for Boaz when she heard that Boaz had helped Ruth?

She said, “May he be blessed by Yahweh”

Ruth 2:21

ULT

21 Then Ruth the Moabite woman said, “In addition, he said to me, ‘You should keep close by the servants who belong to me until the time when they have finished all of the harvest that belongs to me.’”

UST

21 Then Ruth, the woman from Moab, said, “He also told me to stay with his workers until they are done bringing in all his grain from the field.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 2:22

ULT

22 Then Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young female workers, so that they do not harm you in any other field.”

UST

22 Naomi replied to her daughter-in-law Ruth, “My daughter, it will be good for you to go {to his field} with his servant girls, because if you go to someone else’s field, someone might assault you.”

Why did Naomi think it was good for Ruth to work with Boaz’s women workers?

By doing that, Ruth would not come to harm in any other field.

Ruth 2:23

ULT

23 So she stayed close by the young female workers of Boaz to glean until the harvest of barley and the harvest of wheat were finished. And she lived with her mother-in-law.
2:1 [1]
2:7 [2]

UST

23 So Ruth worked alongside of Boaz’s servant girls. She gathered heads of grain until the workers had finished harvesting both the barley and the wheat. {During that time,} she continued to live with Naomi.

What did Ruth do during the rest of the barley harvest?

She gleaned with Boaz’s workers and lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3

Ruth 3:1

ULT

1 Then Naomi, her mother-in-law, said to her, “My daughter, shall I not seek a resting place for you, that will be good for you?

UST

1 One day, Naomi said to Ruth, “My daughter, I want to arrange for you to have a secure home with a good husband.

What did Naomi say her desire was for Ruth?

She desired that Ruth have a place of rest, meaning to have a person who would treat her well.

Ruth 3:2

ULT

2 So now, is not Boaz our relative, the one with whose young female workers you have been working? Behold, he will be winnowing barley at the threshing floor tonight.

UST

2 Now, you have been working with Boaz’s servant girls. As you know, he is a close relative of ours. So listen carefully. Tonight he will be at the place where they thresh the barley. He will be separating the grain from the chaff.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 3:3

ULT

3 Now wash yourself and anoint yourself and put on your cloak, and go down to the threshing floor. Do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. [1]

UST

3 Bathe yourself and put on some perfume. Put on your full outer cloak. Then go down to the place where they thresh the grain. But do not let him know that you are there until he has finished his {evening} meal.

What did Naomi tell Ruth to do before going down to the threshing floor?

She told her to wash and anoint herself and to put on her cloak.

Ruth 3:4

ULT

4 And let it be, when he lies down, know the exact place where he is lying. Then go and uncover his feet and lie down. Then he, himself, will tell you what you should do.”

UST

4 When he lies down {to sleep}, pay attention to where he lies down. Then go {over to him}, uncover his feet, and lie down {there}. {When he wakes up,} he will be the one to tell you what to do {next}.”

What was Ruth to do when she went to where Boaz was sleeping?

She was to uncover his feet and to lie down there.

Ruth 3:5

ULT

5 And she said to her, “Everything that you say, I will do.”

UST

5 Ruth replied, “I will do everything that you have told me to do.”

What was Ruth’s attitude toward Naomi’s instructions?

She said she would do everything Naomi told her to do.

Ruth 3:6

ULT

6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to everything that her mother-in-law had instructed her.

UST

6 So she went down to the place where people thresh the grain. There she did everything that her mother-in-law had told her to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 3:7

ULT

7 And Boaz ate and drank, and his heart was good, and he went to lie down at the end of the pile of grain. Then she came secretly and uncovered his feet and lay down.

UST

7 {This is what happened:} When Boaz finished eating and drinking, he was feeling good. He went over to the far end of the grain pile, lay down there{, and went to sleep}. Then Ruth stealthily approached him. She took the covering off his feet and lay down {there}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 3:8

ULT

8 Then it happened in the middle of the night that the man was startled and turned over. And behold, a woman was lying at his feet!

UST

8 In the middle of the night, he woke up suddenly. He sat up and was amazed to find a woman lying at his feet!

At midnight, what was Boaz startled to find?

He was startled to find that a woman lay at his feet!

Ruth 3:9

ULT

9 And he said, “Who are you?” Then she said, “I am Ruth, your female servant. So spread the edge of your cloak over your female servant, for you are a kinsman-redeemer.”

UST

9 He asked her, “Who are you?” She replied, “I am your servant, Ruth. Since you are the one responsible for my dead husband’s family, please make me secure by marrying me.”

What was Ruth’s request to Boaz?

She asked Boaz to spread his cloak over her, for he was a kinsman-redeemer.

Ruth 3:10

ULT

10 Then he said, “Blessed be you by Yahweh, my daughter! You have made your covenant faithfulness better at the end than at the beginning by not going after the young men, either poor or rich.

UST

10 Boaz replied, “May Yahweh bless you, my dear! Previously, you were very faithful to your mother-in-law, but you are acting even more faithfully now by not chasing after a young man to marry, whether rich or poor.

Why did Boaz ask a blessing from Yahweh for Ruth?

Boaz blessed Ruth because she had come to Boaz, her kinsman-redeemer, rather than pursuing younger men.

Ruth 3:11

ULT

11 So now, my daughter, do not be afraid! Everything that you say, I will do for you; for the whole gate of my people knows that you are a woman of worth.

UST

11 Now, my dear, I will do everything that you asked. Do not be afraid, because everyone in this town knows that you are an honorable woman.

What did Boaz say he would do about Ruth’s request?

He said that he would do all that she asked.

Ruth 3:12

ULT

12 And now, it is indeed true that I am a kinsman-redeemer, but there is also a kinsman-redeemer nearer than I.

UST

12 However, while it is true that I am one of Elimelek’s close relatives and, therefore, could be responsible {for you and Naomi}, there is another man who is a closer relative than I am. {He is the one who is actually responsible for you.}

What obstacle prevented Boaz from immediately performing the part of a kinsman for Ruth?

There was another kinsman-redeemer nearer in relationship than Boaz.

Ruth 3:13

ULT

13 Stay here tonight. And when it is morning, if he will redeem you, good, let him redeem. But if he does not want to redeem you, then I will redeem you myself, as Yahweh lives. Lie down until morning.”

UST

13 You stay here for the rest of the night. Tomorrow morning I will tell this man about you. If he says that he will take care of you, fine, he can marry you. But if he is unwilling to take care of you, I solemnly promise that, as surely as Yahweh lives, I will marry you and take care of you myself. So stay here until it is morning.”

How was Boaz going to determine who would act as kinsman for Ruth?

If the nearest kinsman-redeemer was willing to redeem Ruth, then Boaz would let him do that. But if he was not willing, then Boaz would be the kinsman-redeemer.

Ruth 3:14

ULT

14 So she lay at his feet until the morning, but she got up before a man could recognize his friend. And he said, “Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.”

UST

14 Then Boaz added, “It would be best if no one knew that a woman came here.” So she lay at his feet until early morning and got up {to leave} before {it was light enough that} people would be able to recognize her.

Why did Ruth leave the threshing floor early before anyone could recognize her?

Boaz did not want people to know that she had been with him overnight at the threshing floor.

Ruth 3:15

ULT

15 Then he said, “Bring the cloak that is on you and hold it.” So she held it. And he measured six of barley and put it on her. Then he went into the city. [2]

UST

15 Then Boaz said to her, “Bring your shawl over here and hold it out.” When she did that, he poured a generous amount of barley into it and put it on her back. Then he went into town.

What gift did Boaz give Ruth before she left the threshing floor?

He gave her six large measures of barley.

Ruth 3:16

ULT

16 Then she came to her mother-in-law, and she said, “Who are you, my daughter?” Then she told her everything that the man had done for her.

UST

16 When Ruth arrived home, her mother-in-law asked her, “How did things turn out for you, my daughter?” Then Ruth told her all that Boaz had said and done for her.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 3:17

ULT

17 And she said, “He gave to me these six of barley, for he said, ‘You must not go empty to your mother-in-law.’”

UST

17 She also said to Naomi, “He gave me all this barley, saying, ‘I do not want you to return to your mother-in-law with nothing.’”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 3:18

ULT

18 Then she said, “Sit, my daughter, until the time when you know how the matter falls. For the man will not rest unless he has finished this matter today.”
3:3 [1]
3:15 [2]

UST

18 Then Naomi said, “My daughter, just wait here until we see what happens. That man will work hard on this matter until he has resolved it today.”

Naomi was sure that Boaz would resolve the issue by what time?

He would resolve it by the end of that same day.

Ruth 4

Ruth 4:1

ULT

[1] Now Boaz had gone up to the gate and sat down there. And behold, the kinsman-redeemer was passing by, the same man about whom Boaz had spoken earlier. And he said, “Turn aside and sit down here, a certain person.” So he turned aside and sat down.

UST

[1] Meanwhile, Boaz went up to {the place inside} the town gate {where people conducted their official business}. He sat down there. Just as he had hoped, the man responsible for Naomi’s family came along, the man whom Boaz had mentioned earlier. Boaz called out to him by name and said, “Come over here and sit down.” So the man came over and sat down.

Where did Boaz go to resolve the issue of who would be the kinsman-redeemer for Ruth?

He went to the gate of the city.

Ruth 4:2

ULT

[2] Then he took ten men from the elders of the city and said, “Sit down here.” So they sat down.

UST

[2] Boaz then gathered ten of the older, well-respected men from the town and said {to them}, “Please sit here {so you can witness our business}.” So they sat down.

Who did Boaz ask to sit as witnesses?

He asked ten men who were from the elders of the city.

Ruth 4:3

ULT

[3] Then he said to the kinsman-redeemer, “Naomi, the woman who has returned from the fields of Moab, is selling the portion of the field that belonged to our brother Elimelek.

UST

[3] Then Boaz said to the man responsible for Naomi’s family, “The part of the field that belonged to our relative Elimelek is for sale. Naomi, who recently returned from Moab, is selling it.

What did Boaz first speak about to the other kinsman?

He told him that Naomi was selling the piece of land that had been owned by Elimelek.

Ruth 4:4

ULT

4 Now as for me, I said that I should uncover your ear, saying, ‘Buy!’ in the presence of those who are sitting here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem {it}, redeem {it}. But if you will not redeem {it}, then tell me so that I may know, for there is no one to redeem {it} besides you, and I am after you.” Then he said, “I will redeem {it} myself.” [1][2]

UST

4 I thought that I should tell you {about it} and suggest that you buy {the field} while the people who are sitting here are listening, including these leaders of our people. If you want to buy it back into the family, then do so. But if you do not want to buy it back, then let me know, because you are the closest relative to Elimelek, and I am next after you.” The man replied, “No, I will buy it!”

What did Boaz suggest the other kinsman do about the parcel of land?

Boaz suggested that the other kinsman could redeem it.

What was the other kinsman’s answer?

He said he would redeem it.

Ruth 4:5

ULT

5 Then Boaz said, “On the day of your buying the field from the hand of Naomi, you also acquire Ruth the Moabite woman, the wife of the dead, in order to raise up the name of the dead over his inheritance.” [3]

UST

5 Then Boaz told him, “When you buy the land from Naomi, you will also need to marry Ruth, our deceased relative’s widow from Moab, in order that she may have a son who will inherit the property and who will continue Elimelek’s family line.”

About what additional requirement did Boaz then tell the other kinsman?

He told him that he would also have to marry Ruth in order to raise up the name of the dead man over his inheritance.

Ruth 4:6

ULT

6 Then the kinsman-redeemer said, “I am not able to redeem it for myself lest I damage my own inheritance. You redeem for yourself my right of redemption, for I am not able to redeem it.”

UST

6 Then the nearer relative said, “Then I cannot buy it back myself. If I did that, I would ruin my own son’s inheritance. You may be responsible for the land and the woman instead of me. I cannot do it.”

What was the other kinsman’s answer when he learned that he would have to marry Ruth?

He said he could not redeem the land.

Why did the other kinsman say he could not be the redeemer?

He said that it would damage his own inheritance.

Ruth 4:7

ULT

7 Now this, formerly in Israel, concerning redemption and concerning exchange, to confirm any matter: a man took off his sandal and gave {it} to his friend. So this {was} the form of legal agreement in Israel.

UST

7 (At that time in Israel, people had a different way of redeeming {land} or exchanging {goods between them}. In order to make these matters legally binding, one man would take off one of his sandals and give it to the other man. That was the way people in Israel made final what they had agreed to do.)

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 4:8

ULT

8 So the kinsman-redeemer said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself,” and he took off his sandal.

UST

8 So after the relative said to Boaz, “You buy the field yourself,” he took off one of his sandals {and gave it to Boaz}.

What did the other kinsman do to show that he agreed that Boaz should be the redeemer?

He took off his sandal and gave it to him in front of witnesses.

Ruth 4:9

ULT

9 Then Boaz said to the elders and to all the people, “You are witnesses today that I am buying from the hand of Naomi everything that belonged to Elimelek and everything that belonged to Kilion and Mahlon.

UST

9 Then Boaz said to the respected men and to all the other people who were there, “Today you have all seen that I have bought from Naomi all the property that belonged to Elimelek, Kilion, and Mahlon.

What was the first agreement that Boaz said the elders witnessed?

They witnessed that Boaz bought all the land that had belonged to Elimelek.

Ruth 4:10

ULT

10 And also Ruth, the Moabite woman, the widow of Mahlon, I am acquiring as my wife, in order to raise up the name of the dead over his inheritance, so that the name of the dead will not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place. Today you are witnesses!”

UST

10 I am also taking Ruth, Mahlon’s widow from Moab, to be my wife. This is in order that she may give birth to a son. Everyone will consider this son to be a descendant of Elimelek. This son will inherit the property and carry on Elimelek’s family name among his relatives and here in his hometown. Today you have seen and heard these things and can speak of them to anyone who asks about them.”

What was the second agreement that Boaz said the elders had witnessed?

They had witnessed that Boaz acquired Ruth as his wife.

Ruth 4:11

ULT

11 And all the people who were in the gate and the elders said, “{We are} witnesses! May Yahweh make this woman who is coming into your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built up the house of Israel. Prosper in Ephrathah and be renowned in Bethlehem!

UST

11 All the respected men, and the others who were sitting at the town gate, agreed, and they said, “Yes, we have seen and heard. We pray that Yahweh will allow this woman, who will be coming into your home, to be like Rachel and Leah, the two who bore our ancestors and started our people, Israel. May you become great in the clan of Ephrathah and famous here in Bethlehem!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 4:12

ULT

12 And may your house become like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, from the seed that Yahweh gives you from this young woman.”

UST

12 We pray that your family will be like the family of your ancestor Perez, son of Judah and Tamar, because of the many descendants that Yahweh will give to you and this young woman.”

What blessing did the people desire for Boaz?

They desired that Yahweh would give him offspring through Ruth, just as Tamar bore a son to Judah.

Ruth 4:13

ULT

13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife, and he went in to her. Then Yahweh gave her conception, and she bore a son.

UST

13 So Boaz married Ruth and had sexual relations with her. Yahweh enabled her to become pregnant, and she gave birth to a son.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 4:14

ULT

14 Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be Yahweh, who has not left you today without a kinsman-redeemer. May his name be renowned in Israel!

UST

14 The women of Bethlehem said to Naomi, “Praise Yahweh for giving you a man to preserve your family today. We pray to Yahweh that people throughout Israel will greatly respect him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ruth 4:15

ULT

15 Now he will be for you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age. For your daughter-in-law, who loves you, has borne him—she who is better to you than seven sons.”

UST

15 Your daughter-in-law, who loves you and who has been better to you than if you had seven sons, has given birth to him. Therefore, he will make you feel young again, and he will take care of you when you become old.”

Why did the women say that Ruth was better for Naomi than seven sons?

They said this because of Ruth's love for Naomi, and because Ruth had given birth to a grandson for Naomi.

Ruth 4:16

ULT

16 And Naomi took the child and put him on her lap, and she became his nurse.

UST

16 Then Naomi picked up the baby and held him closely and became a second mother to him.

What was Naomi’s relationship with Ruth’s son?

Naomi became his nurse or caregiver.

Ruth 4:17

ULT

17 So the neighbor women called out a name for him, saying, “A son has been born to Naomi.” And they called his name Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

UST

17 The women who were living nearby said, “It is as though Naomi now has a son!” They named him Obed. Later, Obed became the father of Jesse, who became the father of {King} David.

What was Ruth’s son’s name?

His name was Obed.

Of whom was Obed the father and grandfather?

Obed was the father of Jesse and the grandfather of David.

Ruth 4:18

ULT

18 Now these are the generations of Perez: Perez fathered Hezron;

UST

18 Here is a list of the descendants of Perez: Perez's son was Hezron.

1 Samuel

1 Samuel 1

1 Samuel 1:1

ULT

1 Now {there} was a man from Ramathaim Zophim, from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name {was} Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

UST

1 There was a man whose name was Elkanah who lived in the town of Ramathaim Zophim. That town was in the hilly area where the people of the tribe of Ephraim live. His father was Jeroham, his grandfather was Elihu, his great-grandfather was Tohu, and his great-great-grandfather was Zuph. Elkanah belonged to the tribe of Ephraim.

Who were the two wives of Elkanah? (vv1-2)

The wives of Elkanah were Hannah and Peninnah.

1 Samuel 1:2

ULT

2 And two wives {were} to him. The name of the one {was} Hannah, and the name of the second {was} Peninnah. And children were to Peninnah, but to Hannah children {were} not.

UST

2 Elkanah had two wives. Their names were Hannah and Peninnah. Now Peninnah had several children, but Hannah had no children.

How many children did Hannah have at that time?

At that time Hannah had no children.

1 Samuel 1:3

ULT

3 And that man went up from his city from days to days to worship and to sacrifice to Yahweh of Armies in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests to Yahweh, {were} there.

UST

3 Once every year Elkanah went with his family from Ramah to the city of Shiloh. He would go there to worship Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, and offer sacrifices to him. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were serving Yahweh as priests there {with their father}.

1 Samuel 1:4

ULT

4 And it was the day, and Elkanah sacrificed, and he gave portions to Peninnah his wife and to all of her sons and her daughters.

UST

4 Every year when Elkanah offered sacrifices, he would give servings of meat to Peninnah and to each of her children.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 1:5

ULT

5 But to Hannah he gave one portion {for} two faces, for he loved Hannah but Yahweh had shut her womb,

UST

5 But he would serve Hannah twice as much meat because he loved her very much even though Yahweh had not allowed her to give birth to children.

Why did Elkanah give twice as much meat to Hannah?

He gave a double portion to Hannah because he loved her.

1 Samuel 1:6

ULT

6 but her adversary also provoked her {with} provocation in order to make her thunder, because Yahweh had shut up her womb.

UST

6 But Elkanah's other wife, Peninnah, would try to make Hannah upset. She would remind her that Yahweh had not allowed her to give birth to any children.

Why did Hannah's adversary provoke her?

She provoked Hannah in order to make her upset, because Yahweh had closed her womb.

1 Samuel 1:7

ULT

7 And thus he did year by year; according to her going up to the house of Yahweh, thus she would provoke her. And she wept and did not eat.

UST

7 Every year when the family went to Yahweh's sacred tent, Peninnah would make Hannah so upset that Hannah cried and would not eat.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 1:8

ULT

8 And Elkanah, her husband, said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart bad? {Am} I not better for you than ten sons?"

UST

8 Then her husband Elkanah would say to her, "Hannah, you should not be crying. You should eat something. You do not need to be sad. You have me as your loving husband, and that is better than having ten sons {but an unhappy marriage}."

1 Samuel 1:9

ULT

9 And Hannah arose after eating and after drinking in Shiloh. (Now Eli the priest was sitting on a seat by the doorpost of the temple of Yahweh.)

UST

9 One year, after the family had finished eating and drinking at Shiloh, Hannah went over to Yahweh's sacred tent to pray. Eli the priest was sitting on a chair by the doorway of the sacred tent {so he could see and speak with the people who came in and out}.

What did Hannah do because she was so sorrowful about not having children? (vv9-10)

She went to the house of Yahweh, and she cried very sorrowfully as she prayed to Yahweh.

1 Samuel 1:10

ULT

10 And she {was} bitter of soul, and she prayed to Yahweh, and weeping, she wept.

UST

10 Hannah was very upset, and so she cried very sorrowfully as she prayed to Yahweh.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 1:11

ULT

11 And she vowed a vow, and she said, "Yahweh of Armies, if looking, you will look on the affliction of your female servant and remember me and not forget your female servant and give to your female servant a seed of men, then I will give him to Yahweh all of the days of his life, and a razor will not go up on his head."

UST

11 Hannah made a solemn promise. She said, "Yahweh, you command the heavenly armies{, so you are powerful enough to do anything}. I am a woman who serves you devotedly. Please consider how unhappy I am. Please do something to help me. Allow me to give birth to a son. If you do that, then I will dedicate him to you for as long as he lives. And {to show that we have dedicated him,} we will never cut his hair."

What did Hannah vow to Yahweh?

Hannah vowed that if Yahweh would give her a son, she would give him to Yahweh and they would never cut his hair.

1 Samuel 1:12

ULT

12 And it happened, as she made much to pray to the face of Yahweh, that Eli was watching her mouth.

UST

12 Hannah prayed to Yahweh for a long time. As she prayed, Eli noticed that her lips were moving.

Because Hannah was speaking to Yahweh from her heart, what did Eli the priest think about her actions? (vv12-14)

Eli saw Hannah's lips moving but did not hear her voice, so he thought she was drunk.

1 Samuel 1:13

ULT

13 Now Hannah, she was speaking in her heart. Only her lips were moving, and her voice was not heard. So Eli considered her to {be} drunk.

UST

13 But Hannah was just praying silently. She was not speaking out loud. So Eli thought that she was drunk.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 1:14

ULT

14 And Eli said to her, "Until when will you make yourself drunk? Remove your wine from you!"

UST

14 He said to her, "You should not be getting drunk! Get rid of the wine you have been drinking!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 1:15

ULT

15 And Hannah answered and said, "No, my lord, a woman sorrowful of spirit {am} I. And wine and beer I have not drunk, but I have been pouring out my soul to the face of Yahweh.

UST

15 Hannah replied, "Sir, I am not drunk, I am just very sad. I have not been drinking any wine or beer. I have been praying and telling Yahweh how I feel and what I want him to do for me.

What did Hannah assure Eli she was doing? (vv15-16)

Hannah assured Eli that she was not drunk but was talking to Yahweh because someone made her feel very badly.

1 Samuel 1:16

ULT

16 Do not give your female servant to the face of a daughter of wickedness. For from the abundance of my complaint and my provocation I have been speaking until now."

UST

16 Do not think that I am a bad woman. Someone has made me feel very badly, so I have a lot to talk to Yahweh about. That is all I have been doing."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 1:17

ULT

17 And Eli answered and said, "Go in peace. And may the God of Israel grant your request that you requested from him."

UST

17 Eli replied, "I wish that things may go well for you. I hope that God, whom we Israelite people worship, may give you what you have asked of him."

What did Eli say to Hannah that caused her to go on her way, eat, and no longer feel sad? (vv17-18)

Eli told her to go in peace and said that he hoped the God of Israel would grant her request.

1 Samuel 1:18

ULT

18 And she said, "May your maidservant find favor in your eyes." And the woman went on her way, and she ate. And her face was no longer to her.

UST

18 She replied, "Please continue to hope and pray that good things will happen to me." Then she returned to her family, and she ate the meal that her husband had served to her. She was not sad anymore.

1 Samuel 1:19

ULT

19 And they arose early in the morning and worshiped to the face of Yahweh. Then they returned and came to their house in Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and Yahweh remembered her.

UST

19 Early the next morning, Elkanah and his family got up and worshiped Yahweh again. After that, they returned to their home at Ramah. Then Elkanah had sexual relations with his wife Hannah, and Yahweh answered her prayer.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 1:20

ULT

20 And it happened, in the turning of the days, that Hannah conceived and bore a son. And she called his name Samuel, for “I requested him from Yahweh.”

UST

20 She became pregnant, and nine months later she gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel. That name expressed in her language that Yahweh had answered her prayer for a son.

When Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son, what did she name him?

Hannah named her son Samuel because she had requested him from Yahweh.

1 Samuel 1:21

ULT

21 And the man Elkanah and all of his house went up to sacrifice to Yahweh the sacrifice of the days and his vow.

UST

21 The next year, Elkanah went to Shiloh with his family to offer to Yahweh the kind of sacrifice he made each year. He also went to make a special offering that he had promised to make.

Why did Hannah not go with her husband to the house of Yahweh for the yearly sacrifice? (vv21-23)

She did not go because she was waiting until her son was weaned.

1 Samuel 1:22

ULT

22 But Hannah did not go up. For she said to her husband, “Until the boy is weaned, then I will bring him. And he will be seen at the face of Yahweh and dwell there forever.”

UST

22 But Hannah did not go with them. She told her husband, “I want to keep the baby here until I have weaned him. After that, I will take him to Shiloh and present him to Yahweh. He will stay there for the rest of his life.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 1:23

ULT

23 And Elkanah her husband said to her, “Do the good in your eyes. Stay until you have weaned him. Only may Yahweh raise up his word.” And the woman stayed and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

UST

23 Elkanah told her, “Do what you think is best. Stay here until you have weaned him. And may Yahweh bless this boy as his priest Eli wished he would.” So Hannah stayed at home and nursed Samuel until she had weaned him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 1:24

ULT

24 And she brought him up with her when she had weaned him, with three bulls and one ephah {of} flour and a skin of wine. And she brought him {to} the house of Yahweh {at} Shiloh. (Now the boy was a boy.)

UST

24 After she weaned him, even though Samuel was still very young, she took him to Yahweh’s sacred tent at Shiloh. She also brought three bulls{, one for an offering that the priests would burn completely and the other two for festive meals that the family and others would share}. She also brought about twenty liters of flour and a large container of wine {because the law of Moses required people to offer that amount of flour and wine with sacrifices}.

What offerings did Hannah bring with her when she brought her son to the house of Yahweh? (vv24-25)

Hannah brought three bulls, an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine.

1 Samuel 1:25

ULT

25 And they slaughtered the bull, and they brought the boy to Eli.

UST

25 Elkanah and Hannah slaughtered the bull {so that the priests could offer it to Yahweh on the altar}. Then they brought their son to Eli.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 1:26

ULT

26 And she said, “Please, my lord! The life of your soul, my lord, I {am} the woman having stationed herself with you in this {place} to pray to Yahweh.

UST

26 Then Hannah said to him, “Sir, please listen to me. I swear by your own life, sir, that what I am saying is true. I am the woman who was praying to Yahweh as I stood here beside you.

What did Hannah present to Yahweh? (vv26-28)

Hannah presented her son to Yahweh for as long as he would live.

1 Samuel 1:27

ULT

27 For this boy I prayed, and Yahweh gave to me my request that I requested from him.

UST

27 I prayed that I would have a son, and Yahweh answered my prayer. Here he is!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 1:28

ULT

28 And also I have granted him to Yahweh; all of the days that he is, he {is} granted to Yahweh.” And he worshiped Yahweh there.

UST

28 So now I am presenting him to Yahweh. He will belong to Yahweh as long as he lives.” Then Elkanah and his family worshiped Yahweh there.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 2

1 Samuel 2:1

ULT

1 And Hannah prayed and said, “My heart rejoices in Yahweh, my horn is high in Yahweh. My mouth {is} wide against my enemies, for I rejoice in your salvation.

UST

1 Then Hannah prayed. She said, “In my inner being I am so happy about what you, Yahweh, have done! I am strong because I belong to you. I laugh at my enemies because I am celebrating the way that you, Yahweh, have helped me.

Why did Hannah laugh at her enemies?

Hannah laughed because she rejoiced in Yahweh’s salvation.

1 Samuel 2:2

ULT

2 None {is} holy like Yahweh. Indeed, {there is} none besides you, and {there is} no rock like our God.

UST

2 No one else is holy as you are, Yahweh. You are the only real God. You, our God, are the only one who can protect us as if you were a huge rock that we could stand atop and be safe from danger.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 2:3

ULT

3 May you not multiply, may you {not} speak, haughty, haughty! Let the arrogant go out from your mouth. For Yahweh {is} a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.

UST

3 {You people who oppose God,} stop making so many boasts! Yahweh is a God who knows everything, and he will evaluate what each person does. So do not speak so arrogantly!

Why does Hannah say that people should not boast or speak arrogantly?

People should not boast or speak arrogantly because Yahweh is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.

1 Samuel 2:4

ULT

4 The bow of the mighty are broken, but the stumbling ones gird on strength.

UST

4 Yahweh, you destroy the weapons of mighty soldiers, but you give strength to those who totter because they are so weak.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 2:5

ULT

5 The satisfied hire themselves out for bread, but the hungry cease. Even the barren bears seven, but the plenteous of sons languishes.

UST

5 Many people who previously had plenty to eat now have to work for other people to earn money to buy food, but many who were always hungry are not hungry anymore. Women who could not have any children before have now given birth to many children, but women who had many children before are not able to have any more.

In Hannah's song, who is the one who is unable to have more children?

The woman who had many children before is not able to have any more.

1 Samuel 2:6

ULT

6 Yahweh makes die and makes alive, causing to go down to Sheol and causing to come up.

UST

6 You, Yahweh, cause some people to die, and you cause other people to live. It seems that some people will soon go to where dead people go, but you make them healthy again.

Who decides death and life, or who goes down to Sheol or is raised up?

Yahweh is the one who decides death and life, and who causes people to go down to Sheol or to come up from there.

1 Samuel 2:7

ULT

[7] Yahweh is making poor and making rich, bringing down yet bringing up.

UST

[7] Yahweh, you cause some people to be poor, but you cause others to become rich. You humble some people, but you honor other people.

Who makes people poor or rich?

Yahweh makes people poor, and he makes them rich.

1 Samuel 2:8

ULT

[8] Raising the poor from the dust, he lifts up the needy from the trash heap to make {them} sit with nobles, and he makes them inherit a seat of honor. For the pillars of the earth {are} to Yahweh, and he has set the world on them.

UST

[8] Needy people often do not have homes, but Yahweh gives those poor people places to live in. People then treat them respectfully, and they even sit with community leaders. After all, it was Yahweh who created a place on which the world itself rests.

Who raises up the poor and lifts the needy to sit in a seat of honor?

Yahweh raises them up to sit in a seat of honor.

1 Samuel 2:9

ULT

[9] He will keep the feet of his faithful ones, but the wicked will be silenced in darkness. For not by strength does a man prevail.

UST

[9] You protect from harm people who are loyal to you, but you cause wicked people to die and go to the dark place where dead people go. People do not defeat their enemies by their own strength.

Who does Hannah say will protect the feet of his faithful people and silence the wicked in darkness?

Hannah says that Yahweh will guard the feet of his faithful people and will silence the wicked.

1 Samuel 2:10

ULT

10 {By} Yahweh, the ones opposing him will be shattered. He will make thunder against him in the heavens. Yahweh will judge the ends of the earth. And he will give strength to his king and lift up the horn of his anointed one.”

UST

10 Yahweh, you will break into pieces those who fight against you. You will come powerfully to punish them. You, Yahweh, will judge people everywhere. When you choose a king for us Israelites, you will make him strong. Yes, when you have a leader anoint someone as our king, you will make him powerful.”

Who will judge the ends of the earth and give strength to his king?

Yahweh will judge the ends of the earth and give strength to his king.

1 Samuel 2:11

ULT

11 Then Elkanah went to Ramah, to his house. And the boy was serving Yahweh at the face of Eli the priest.

UST

11 After that, Elkanah and his family returned to their home in Ramah. But Samuel, who was still a little boy, stayed at the sacred tent to work with Eli the priest to help the people worship Yahweh.

What child served Yahweh in the presence of Eli the priest?

Samuel served Yahweh in the presence of Eli the priest.

1 Samuel 2:12

ULT

12 Now the sons of Eli {were} sons of wickedness. They did not know Yahweh.

UST

12 Eli’s two sons {were priests like their father, but they} did very bad things. That was because they did not respect Yahweh.

Whose sons were wicked men who did not know Yahweh?

Eli the priest’s sons did very bad things.

1 Samuel 2:13

ULT

13 Now the custom of the priests with the people {was}, {when} any man was sacrificing a sacrifice, that the servant of the priest would come at the boiling of the meat, and a fork {with} three prongs {was} in his hand,

UST

13 This is how they treated the people. A family would bring an animal to sacrifice to Yahweh. While the people were still boiling the meat, Eli's sons would send one of their servants over to them. The servant would be holding a large, three-pronged fork.

What was the custom of the priests with the people at the time of sacrifice? (vv13-14)

The custom was for the priest's servant to come with a three-pronged fork while the meat was boiling and take whatever the fork brought up for the priest.

ULT

14 and he would thrust {it} into the pan or into the kettle or into the cauldron or into the pot. All that the fork brought up, the priest would take with him. Thus they did to all of Israel, {to} the ones coming there at Shiloh.

UST

14 The servant would stick the fork into whatever container the people were using to boil the meat. He would use the fork to pull out whatever meat he could. He would then take that meat back to Eli's sons {, even though this was more than the law said the priests could have}. That was how they treated all of the Israelites who brought animals to sacrifice at the sacred tent in Shiloh.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 2:15

ULT

15 Also, before they burned the fat, the servant of the priest would come, and he would say to the man sacrificing, "Give meat to the priest to roast, and he will not take boiled meat from you, but surely raw."

UST

15 Also, before the people cut off the fat so the priests could burn it, the servant of Eli's sons would come over to them. The servant would tell the people who were preparing the sacrifice, "Give me some meat now to take to the priest for him to roast! He wants raw meat. He will not accept boiled meat."

What evil thing did Eli's sons have their servant do? (vv15-16)

They had their servant demand raw meat for the priest before the fat was burned as an offering to Yahweh, and had him take it by force if the person refused.

1 Samuel 2:16

ULT

16 And the man would say to him, “Burning, let them burn the fat as the day, then take for yourself what your soul desires.” But he would say, “No, but you shall give now, and if not, I will take by force.”

UST

16 The people would say to the servant, “We will give you as much meat as you want, if you will only have the priests cut off the fat and burn it first.” But the servant would answer, “No, give it to me now{, before anyone has burned the fat}. If you do not give some raw meat to me, I will take some from you forcibly!”

1 Samuel 2:17

ULT

17 So the sin of the young men {was} very great at the face of Yahweh. For the men disdained the offering of Yahweh.

UST

17 Eli’s sons were committing a very serious sin that offended Yahweh personally. They were treating very disrespectfully the offerings that people were bringing to Yahweh.

Why was the sin of Eli’s sons so great?

Their sin was great before Yahweh because the men were treating very disrespectfully the offerings that people were bringing to Yahweh

1 Samuel 2:18

ULT

18 Now Samuel was serving at the face of Yahweh, a boy girded {with} an ephod of linen.

UST

18 As for Samuel, who was still a young boy, he continued to do work for Yahweh. He wore a little linen apron {that showed he was a helper at the sacred tent}.

What would Samuel’s mother make for him from year to year to clothe him? (vv18-19)

She would make him a small robe each year.

1 Samuel 2:19

ULT

19 And his mother would make a small robe for him, and she would bring {it} to him from days to days, in her coming up with her husband to sacrifice the sacrifice of the days.

UST

19 Each year his mother made a new little robe for him. She took it to him when she went to Shiloh with her husband to offer their annual sacrifice.

1 Samuel 2:20

ULT

20 And Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and would say, “May Yahweh give seed to you from this woman in place of the request that one requested of Yahweh.” And they would go to his place.

UST

20 Then Eli would ask God to do good things for Elkanah and his wife. He would say to Elkanah, “I hope that Yahweh will enable your wife to give birth to other children, since she brought the child here whom she asked Yahweh to give her.” Then Elkanah and his family would return to their home.

How would Eli bless Elkanah and his wife?

Eli blessed them by asking Yahweh to give them more children from Hannah.

1 Samuel 2:21

ULT

21 For Yahweh visited Hannah, and she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew with Yahweh.

UST

21 And Yahweh helped Hannah to have three more sons and two daughters. {She raised them at home,} while Samuel {stayed in Shiloh and} grew up while doing work for Yahweh in his sacred tent.

What was Yahweh’s response to Eli’s prayer for Samuel’s parents to have more children?

Yahweh helped Hannah, and she bore three more sons and two daughters.

1 Samuel 2:22

ULT

22 Now Eli was very old. And he heard all that his sons were doing to all of Israel and that they were lying with the women serving {at} the entrance of the tent of meeting.

UST

22 Eli became very old. He heard about all the bad things that his sons were doing to the Israelite people. He heard that they were having sexual relations with the women who stayed near the sacred tent so they could help with the work there.

1 Samuel 2:23

ULT

23 And he said to them, “Why do you do like these things, that I am hearing evil things of you from all of these people?

UST

23 He said to them, “It is terrible that you are doing such things! You are causing many people to complain to me about the wicked things you are doing.”

What did Eli say to his sons when he heard evil reports about them? (vv23-24)

Eli told his sons that the report he was hearing from Yahweh’s people about their evil deeds was not good. He told them to stop doing what they were doing.

1 Samuel 2:24

ULT

24 No, my sons! For the report {is} not good that I am hearing the people of Yahweh passing on.

UST

24 My sons, stop it! The people who worship Yahweh have been giving me accounts of your bad behavior!

1 Samuel 2:25

ULT

25 If a man sins against a man, then God will intercede for him, but if a man sins against Yahweh, who will intercede for him?" But they would not listen to the voice of their father, for Yahweh desired to make them die.

UST

25 Suppose one person does something wrong to another person. Then God can act as a referee between them. But suppose a person does something wrong to Yahweh. Then no one can act as a referee between him and Yahweh!" But Eli's sons would not stop what they were doing, even though their father had commanded them to stop. This was because Yahweh had decided that they had already done so many wicked things that they deserved to die.

Why did Eli's sons not listen to his voice?

Eli's sons did not listen to his voice because Yahweh desired to make them die.

1 Samuel 2:26

ULT

26 But the boy Samuel was going and growing and {was} good both with Yahweh and also with men.

UST

26 Samuel, however, continued to grow up, and the things that boy did pleased Yahweh and other people.

Who grew up and was good in the sight of Yahweh and also with men?

Samuel grew up and was good in the sight of Yahweh and with men.

1 Samuel 2:27

ULT

27 And a man of God came to Eli and said to him, "Thus says Yahweh, 'Revealing myself, did I {not} reveal myself to the house of your father in their being in Egypt, to the house of Pharaoh?

UST

27 One day, a prophet came to Eli and spoke a message to him on behalf of Yahweh. He said, "You know that I appeared to your ancestor Aaron when your whole family were slaves of the king of Egypt.

Who told Eli that Yahweh chose Eli's ancestors out of all the tribes of Israel to be Yahweh's priest? (vv27-28)

A man of God told Eli that Yahweh had chosen his ancestors.

1 Samuel 2:28

ULT

28 And I chose him from all of the tribes of Israel for myself for a priest, to go up on my altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod to my face. And I gave to the house of your father all of the gifts of the sons of Israel.

UST

28 From all the tribes of the Israelite people, I chose him and his male descendants to be my priests. I appointed them to offer sacrifices on my altar, to burn incense, and to wear sacred aprons as they worked for me. I allowed them to have as their own food some of the meat from the animals that the Israelite people brought as sacrifices.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 2:29

ULT

29 Why do you kick at my sacrifice and at my offering that I commanded {for} the Dwelling and honor your sons more than me by the fattening of yourselves from the first of every offering of Israel, of my people?

UST

29 But you and your sons are treating with great disrespect the sacrifices and offerings that I commanded the people to bring to my sacred tent! You are letting your sons do what they want instead of making sure that all of you do what I want. You have all been getting fat from eating the best parts of all the sacrifices that my Israelite people have been bringing to me!'

How had Eli and his sons scorned Yahweh's sacrifices and offerings?

They scorned the sacrifices and offerings by honoring his sons above Yahweh and fattening themselves on the best parts of offerings.

1 Samuel 2:30

ULT

30 'Therefore'—the declaration of Yahweh, the God of Israel—'saying, I said your house and the house of your father would walk about to my face forever. But now'—the declaration of Yahweh—'profane to me! For the ones honoring me, I will honor, but the ones disdaining me, they will despise.

UST

30 Therefore, this is what Yahweh, the God whom we Israelites worship, declares: 'I definitely promised that your family would continually serve me as priests, since you are descendants of Aaron. But now,' he declares, 'I will certainly not allow you to continue to be priests. I will honor people who honor me, but I will disgrace people who treat me disrespectfully.

1 Samuel 2:33

ULT

33 But I will not cut off a man to you from near my altar, to make your eyes fail and to make your soul grieve. And all of the increase of your house will die {as} men.

UST

33 I will allow some of your descendants to survive and continue to serve at my altar. But they will be so sad about what happens to the sacred tent that their eyes will get very tired from crying. And all of your descendants will die while they are still young.

What did Yahweh tell Eli would happen to the men in his family?

Yahweh told Eli that all the men born in his family would die young.

1 Samuel 2:34

ULT

34 And this {is} the sign for you that will come to the two of your sons, to Hophni and Phinehas: in one day the two of them will die.

UST

34 And your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, will both die on the same day. That will prove to you that everything I have told you will happen.

What did Yahweh say would be a sign to Eli that his prophecy would come true?

The sign would be that both of his sons would die on the same day.

1 Samuel 2:35

ULT

35 And I will raise up for myself a faithful priest. He will do just as {is} in my heart and in my soul. And I will build for him an established house, and he will walk about to the face of my anointed all of the days.

UST

35 I have chosen another man to be my priest. He is someone who will serve me faithfully. He will do everything I want. I will make sure that he has descendants who will be priests. He will continually be a helper to the king whom I will appoint.

Who will walk before Yahweh's faithful priest always?

Yahweh has chosen another man who will serve him faithfully and continually be a helper to the king whom Yahweh will appoint.

1 Samuel 2:36

ULT

36 And it will happen that every remaining one in your house will come to bow down to him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and he will say, "Please assign me to one of the priestly positions to eat a piece of bread.""

UST

36 All of your descendants who remain alive will have to go to that priest and ask him to give them money and food. They will have to ask him to allow them to work with the other priests so that they can earn money to buy food."

Why will everyone left in Eli's family come and bow down to the faithful priest?

They will ask him to allow them to work with the other priests so that they can have food to eat.

1 Samuel 3

1 Samuel 3:1

ULT

1 Now the boy Samuel was serving Yahweh to the face of Eli. And the word of Yahweh was rare in those days; vision {was} not spread.

UST

1 While he was still a boy, Samuel was working for Yahweh while Eli supervised him. At that time, Yahweh did not often speak messages to people, and Yahweh did not often give visions to people.

1 Samuel 3:2

ULT

2 And it happened in that day that Eli was lying down in his place. Now his eyes had begun {to be} dim; he was not able to see.

UST

2 By that time Eli's eyes were very weak; he was almost blind. One night he was sleeping in his room.

What was Samuel's reply when he heard Yahweh call to him as he was lying down? (vv2-4)

Samuel replied that he was ready to do whatever you ask.

1 Samuel 3:3

ULT

3 And the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of Yahweh, where the Box of God was there.

UST

3 Samuel was sleeping in the sacred tent of Yahweh, where the sacred chest was. The lamp there was still burning.

1 Samuel 3:4

ULT

4 And Yahweh called to Samuel. And he said, “Behold me.”

UST

4 Just then Yahweh called out to Samuel. Samuel replied, “I am ready to do whatever you ask!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 3:5

ULT

5 And he ran to Eli and said, “Behold me, for you called to me.” But he said, “I did not call. Go back, lie down.” So he went and lay down.

UST

5 Then he got up and ran to Eli. He told him, “I have come because you called me. I am ready to do whatever you ask.” But Eli replied, “No, I did not call you. Go back to bed.” So Samuel went and lay down again.

What did Eli tell Samuel to do when Samuel ran to him?

Eli said that he did not call Samuel and told him to go lie down again.

1 Samuel 3:6

ULT

6 And Yahweh resumed calling Samuel again. And Samuel arose and went to Eli and said, “Behold me, for you called to me.” But he said, “I did not call, my son. Go back, lie down.”

UST

6 Then Yahweh called out to Samuel again. So Samuel got up once more and went to Eli. He said, “I have come because you called me. I am ready to do whatever you ask.” But Eli said, “No, dear boy, I did not call you. Go back and lie down.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 3:7

ULT

7 (Now Samuel did not yet know Yahweh, for the word of Yahweh had not yet been revealed to him.)

UST

7 {Samuel did not realize that it was Yahweh who was speaking to him because} he had not yet become personally acquainted with Yahweh. That was because Yahweh had not previously spoken to him to reveal something to him.

What had not yet been revealed to Samuel?

The word of Yahweh had not yet been revealed to Samuel.

1 Samuel 3:8

ULT

8 And Yahweh resumed calling Samuel for a third {time}. And he arose and went to Eli and said, “Behold me, for you called to me.” Then Eli understood that Yahweh was calling to the boy.

UST

8 After he lay down again, Yahweh called out to Samuel yet again. So Samuel got up yet again and went to Eli. He said, “I have come because you called me. I am ready to do whatever you ask.” Then Eli realized that it was Yahweh who had been calling Samuel.

What did Eli realize after the third time that Samuel came to him?

Eli realized that it was Yahweh who had been calling Samuel.

1 Samuel 3:9

ULT

9 And Eli said to Samuel, “Go, lie down. And it will happen that, if he calls to you, then you shall say, ‘Speak, Yahweh, for your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

UST

9 So Eli told Samuel, “Go and lie down again. If the same person calls you again, say, ‘I am ready to obey you, Yahweh, so please tell me what you want me to do.’” So Samuel went back to bed and lay down.

What did Eli tell Samuel to say if he was called again?

Eli told Samuel to say that Yahweh should speak, because his servant was listening.

1 Samuel 3:10

ULT

10 And Yahweh came and stationed himself and called as time upon time, “Samuel, Samuel!” And Samuel said, “Speak, for your servant is listening.”

UST

10 Then Yahweh came and stood and called as he had done the other times, “Samuel! Samuel!” Then Samuel said, “Please tell me what you want me to do, because I am ready to obey you.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 3:11

ULT

11 And Yahweh said to Samuel, “Behold, I am doing a thing in Israel that everyone hearing it, the two of his ears will tingle.

UST

11 Then Yahweh said to Samuel, “Listen carefully! I am about to do something here in Israel that will shock everyone who hears about it.

What did Yahweh say would happen to the ears of everyone when they heard what he was going to do?

Yahweh said that the ears of everyone who heard it would tingle.

1 Samuel 3:12

ULT

12 In that day I will raise up against Eli all of what I have spoken against his house, beginning and ending.

UST

12 There will soon be a time when I punish Eli and his family. I will do to them everything that I said I would do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 3:13

ULT

13 Now I have declared to him that I am judging his house forever for the iniquity that he knew. For his sons have been cursing themselves, but he has not restrained them.

UST

13 Eli's sons have been doing things that are so wicked that they deserve severe punishment. Eli knows they have been doing those things. But he has not disciplined them. So I told him that I would punish all future generations of his family.

What had Eli's sons brought upon themselves?

Eli's sons had brought a curse upon themselves.

1 Samuel 3:14

ULT

14 And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli, 'If forever the iniquity of the house of Eli will cover itself by sacrifice or by offering!'"

UST

14 That is why I solemnly told Eli's family, 'Even if you give me sacrifices or offerings, I will still consider you guilty of your sin and punish you for it.'"

What would never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering?

The iniquity of Eli's house would never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering.

1 Samuel 3:15

ULT

15 And Samuel lay until the morning, then he opened the doors of the house of Yahweh. But Samuel was afraid of telling the vision to Eli.

UST

15 Samuel stayed in bed until it became light. Then he got up and opened the doors of the building {as usual}. He was too afraid to tell Eli what Yahweh had said to him when he appeared to him.

What was Samuel afraid to do in the morning after he opened the doors of the house of Yahweh?

He was afraid to tell Eli about the vision.

1 Samuel 3:16

ULT

16 But Eli called Samuel and said, “Samuel, my son.” And he said, “Behold me.”

UST

16 But Eli called him and said, “Samuel, my dear boy{, please come here.}” Samuel {came and} told him, “I am ready to do whatever you ask.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 3:17

ULT

17 And he said, “What {was} the word that he spoke to you? Please do not hide {it} from me. Thus may God do to you, and thus may he add, if you hide from me a word from all of the word that he spoke to you.”

UST

17 Eli asked him, “What did Yahweh say to you? Please tell me honestly. If you do not tell me everything that he said to you, may God do those things and even worse things to you!”

What did Samuel do after Eli told him that he must not hide from him the words that Yahweh had spoken? (vv17-18)

Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him.

1 Samuel 3:18

ULT

18 So Samuel declared to him all of the words, and he did not hide {anything} from him. And he said, “It {is} Yahweh. May he do the good in his eyes.”

UST

18 So Samuel told him everything that Yahweh had said to him, without leaving anything out. Then Eli said, “{Since} it was Yahweh {who said this, I must accept it}. I am willing for him to do whatever he considers to be best.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 3:19

ULT

19 And Samuel grew, and Yahweh was with him, and he did not cause {anything} from all of his words to fall to the ground.

UST

19 As Samuel grew up, Yahweh helped him. He told Samuel accurately what he was going to do, so that everything Samuel predicted happened.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 3:20

ULT

20 So all of Israel, from Dan and unto Beersheba, knew that Samuel was established as a prophet of Yahweh.

UST

20 As a result, all the people of Israel, from the northern end of the country to the southern end, realized that Samuel was a prophet who truly spoke for Yahweh.

What did all Israel from Dan to Beersheba know about Samuel?

All Israel knew that Samuel was established as a prophet of Yahweh.

1 Samuel 3:21

ULT

21 And Yahweh continued to appear in Shiloh. For Yahweh revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of Yahweh.

UST

21 Yahweh kept appearing {to Samuel} in Shiloh. Samuel would see Yahweh speaking messages to him in visions.

1 Samuel 4

1 Samuel 4:1

ULT

1 And the word of Samuel was to all of Israel. Now Israel went out to meet the Philistines for battle. And they camped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines camped at Aphek.

UST

1 Samuel told all the people of Israel the messages that God gave him. At that time the Israelite army went to fight against the army of the Philistine people. The Israelite army set up their tents at the place that people would later call Ebenezer. The Philistine army set up their tents near the city of Aphek.

What was the result of the battle between Israel and the Philistines? (vv1-2)

Israel was defeated by the Philistines.

1 Samuel 4:2

ULT

2 And the Philistines arrayed to meet Israel, and the battle spread, and Israel was struck to the face of the Philistines. And they struck in the array in the field about 4,000 men.

UST

2 The Philistine army formed a battle line, and the Israelites came and fought with them. In a great battle, the Philistines defeated the Israelites. In combat, they killed about 4,000 of the soldiers in their battle line.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 4:3

ULT

3 And the people came into the camp, and the elders of Israel said, “Why did Yahweh strike us today to the face of the Philistines? Let us take for ourselves from Shiloh the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh, and it will come in our midst, and it will save us from the palm of our enemies.”

UST

3 When the remaining Israelite soldiers returned to their camp, the Israelite elders asked, “Why did Yahweh allow the Philistine army to defeat us today? {It must have been because we did not bring the sacred chest into battle with us.} We should bring the sacred chest here from Shiloh. That way we can bring it with us when we go into battle again, and it will keep our enemies from defeating us!”

What did the elders of Israel decide to do so that they could be saved from the power of their enemies?

The elders decided to bring the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh from Shiloh to be with them.

1 Samuel 4:4

ULT

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, and they carried from there the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh of Armies, sitter on the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, {were} there with the Box of the Covenant of God.

UST

4 So the soldiers sent some men to Shiloh, and those men brought back the sacred chest of Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies. There were statues of winged creatures on top of the chest, and those statues were like a throne for Yahweh. Eli's two sons Hophni and Phinehas traveled with the sacred chest to the Israelite military camp.

Who was with the Box of the Covenant of God?

The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the Box of the Covenant.

1 Samuel 4:5

ULT

5 And it happened at the coming of the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh into the camp that all of Israel shouted a great shout, and the earth resounded.

UST

5 When they saw the men bringing the sacred chest into their camp, the Israelite soldiers {were so happy that they} shouted loudly. The sound of their shout echoed throughout the land.

What did the Philistines wonder when they heard the great shout from the people of Israel? (vv5-6)

The Philistines wondered about the meaning of the great shout in the camp of the Hebrews.

1 Samuel 4:6

ULT

6 And the Philistines heard the sound of the shout, and they said, "What {is} the sound of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews?" Then they learned that the Box of Yahweh had come into the camp.

UST

6 The Philistines heard this sound and asked, "What are the soldiers in the Hebrew camp shouting about?" Someone told them that {they were shouting because} men had brought the sacred chest of Yahweh into their camp.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 4:7

ULT

7 And the Philistines feared, for they said, “A god has come into the camp!” And they said, “Woe to us! For it was not like this yesterday {or} the third day!

UST

7 They said, “A god has come into their camp {to help them fight against us}!” This made them very afraid. They said, “We are in big trouble now! Nothing like this has ever happened before!

Who did the Philistines say had come into the camp of the Hebrews?

The Philistines said that a god had come into the camp.

1 Samuel 4:8

ULT

8 Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are they, the gods having struck the Egyptians with every plague in the wilderness.

UST

8 We certainly are in big trouble! The gods of the Israelites are very strong, and it will be difficult to overcome their power. It was the gods of the Israelites who made the Egyptians suffer from many plagues in the barren land outside their country.

With what did the Philistines say that the gods of Israel had struck the Egyptians in the wilderness?

They said that the gods had struck the Egyptians with every kind of plague.

1 Samuel 4:9

ULT

9 Strengthen yourselves and be men, Philistines, lest you serve for the Hebrews, just as they have served for you. So be men and fight!”

UST

9 You Philistine soldiers must be very brave! If you do not fight bravely, {the Hebrews will defeat you and} you will become their slaves, just as they have been your slaves! So fight bravely!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 4:10

ULT

10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was struck and fled, a man to his tent. And it was a very great striking, for 30,000 foot soldiers from Israel fell.

UST

10 So the Philistine soldiers fought {very hard}, and they defeated the Israelite soldiers so badly that they all fled from the battle and ran back to their military camp. The Philistines won a big victory and killed 30,000 of the Israelite soldiers.

What happened to the two sons of Eli when the Box of God was taken Israel was struck and fled? (vv10-11)

The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

1 Samuel 4:11

ULT

11 And the Box of God was taken, and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

UST

11 The Philistines captured the sacred chest, and they killed Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 4:12

ULT

12 And a man of Benjamin ran from the array and entered Shiloh on that day. And his clothes were torn, and earth was on his head.

UST

12 On that same day, a man from the tribe of Benjamin arrived at Shiloh. He had run {with news} from the place where the armies were fighting. He had torn his clothes and thrown dirt on his head {to show that he was very sad}.

What did the whole city do when the man from the battle line entered the city and told the news? (vv12-13)

When the man told the news, the whole city cried out.

1 Samuel 4:13

ULT

13 And he came, and behold, Eli was sitting on a seat at the side of the road, watching, for his heart {was} afraid concerning the Box of God. And the man came into the city to report, and all of the city cried out.

UST

13 Eli was very anxious to know whether anything bad had happened to God's sacred chest. So he was sitting on a seat next to the road waiting for any messengers who might come with news of the battle. When the man arrived and told what had happened, the people of the city started to cry loudly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 4:14

ULT

14 And Eli heard the sound of the outcry, and he said, "What {is} the sound of this tumult?" And the man hurried and came and reported to Eli.

UST

14 Eli heard the noise and asked, "Why are people making all this noise?" So the messenger ran over to Eli and told him what had happened.

What question did Eli ask when he heard the noise of the outcry?

Eli asked what the sound of the tumult meant.

1 Samuel 4:15

ULT

15 Now Eli {was} a son of 98 years. And his eyes had set, and he was not able to see.

UST

15 At that time, Eli was 98 years old, and he had become completely blind.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 4:16

ULT

16 And the man said to Eli, “I {am} the one coming from the array, and I myself fled from the array today.” And he said, “What was the event, my son?”

UST

16 The messenger said to Eli, “I am the messenger who has come from where the armies were fighting. I ran from the battle lines earlier today.” Eli asked, “What happened, young man?”

What did the man tell Eli had happened to his sons and to the Box of God when Israel was defeated? (vv16-17)

The man told Eli that his two sons were dead and the Box of God had been taken.

1 Samuel 4:17

ULT

17 And the one bringing news answered and said, “Israel fled to the face of the Philistines. And also a great slaughter has been among the people. And also the two of your sons, Hophni and Phinehas, have died, and the Box of God has been taken.”

UST

17 The messenger responded, “The Philistines defeated our army. They killed a great many of our soldiers, and the others ran away. The Philistines killed your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas. They also captured God’s sacred chest.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 4:18

ULT

18 And it happened, in his mentioning of the Box of God, that he fell backward from upon the seat at the side of the gate. And his neck was broken, and he died, for the man {was} old and heavy. And he had judged Israel 40 years.

UST

18 As soon as Eli heard what had happened to the sacred chest, he fell backward off his seat beside the city gate. Because he was very old and very fat, he broke his neck when he fell, and that killed him. He had led the Israelite people for 40 years.

What was the injury that killed Eli when he fell over backward from his seat by the side of the gate?

Eli broke his neck and he died.

ULT

19 Now his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, {was} pregnant, {about} to give birth. And she heard the report about the Box of God being taken and {that} her father-in-law had died and her husband. And she knelt down and gave birth, for her pangs turned themselves upon her.

UST

19 The wife of Eli's son Phinehas was pregnant, and it was almost time for her to give birth to her baby. When she heard the news that the Philistines had captured God's sacred chest and that her husband and her father-in-law had died, her labor pains suddenly began. She crouched down and gave birth.

What happened when Phinehas's pregnant wife heard that the Box of God was captured and her father-in-law and husband were dead?

Phinehas's wife knelt down and gave birth because her labor pains suddenly began.

1 Samuel 4:20

ULT

20 And about the time of her dying, then the ones standing over her said, "Do not fear, for you have borne a son." But she did not answer, for she did not set her heart.

UST

20 {But the birth was so difficult that it caused her to die.} As she was dying, the women who were helping her tried to encourage her. They said to her, "Be brave! You have given birth to a son!" But this did not matter to her, so she said nothing in reply.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 4:21

ULT

21 And she called the boy Ichabod, saying, "The glory has departed from Israel," about the Box of God being taken and about her father-in-law and her husband.

UST

21 She named the boy Ichabod. She said, "There is no glory anymore in Israel." She was talking about how the Philistines had captured God's sacred chest and how her husband and her father-in-law had died.

What name did Phinehas's wife give to the baby and why did she give him that name? (vv21-22)

She named the baby Ichabod, saying that the glory had departed from Israel because the Box of God had been taken.

1 Samuel 4:22

ULT

22 Now she said “the glory has departed from Israel” because the Box of God had been taken.

UST

22 She said that there was no glory anymore in Israel because the Philistines had captured God’s sacred chest. {And then she died.}

1 Samuel 5

1 Samuel 5:1

ULT

1 Now the Philistines had taken the Box of God and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.

UST

1 When the Philistine soldiers captured God's sacred chest, they took it from the area of Ebenezer{, where they had fought the Israelites,} to their city of Ashdod.

In what position did the people find the idol Dagon the next day after the Philistines brought the Box of God into Dagon's house? (vv1-3)

Dagon was found fallen face down on the ground before the Box of Yahweh.

1 Samuel 5:2

ULT

2 And the Philistines took the Box of God and caused it to enter the house of Dagon. And they placed it beside Dagon.

UST

2 They carried it into the temple of their god Dagon and placed it alongside a statue of Dagon.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 5:3

ULT

3 And the Ashdodites arose early on the next day, and behold, Dagon was fallen on his face to the ground to the face of the Box of Yahweh. And they took Dagon and returned him to his place.

UST

3 The next morning, when the people of Ashdod first got up, they {went into the temple and} saw that the statue was lying face down on the ground in front of Yahweh's sacred chest! So they picked up the statue of Dagon and put it back in its usual place.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 5:4

ULT

4 And they arose early in the morning on the next day, and behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground to the face of the Box of Yahweh. And the head of Dagon and the two of the palms of his hands were cut off, on the threshold. Only Dagon was left on him.

UST

4 But when they first got up the following morning, they saw that it was once again lying face down on the ground in front of Yahweh's sacred chest. And the statue no longer had its head or hands. Those were lying in the doorway. All it had left was its body.

What remained of the idol Dagon the next morning after they had set him back in his place?

Only the body of Dagon remained; his head and hands were lying cut off in the doorway.

1 Samuel 5:5

ULT

5 (Therefore the priests of Dagon and all of the ones entering the house of Dagon do not tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.)

UST

5 That is the reason why, ever since that time, the priests of Dagon and everyone else who enters the temple of Dagon in Ashdod do not step on the doorway {where the hands and head of Dagon were lying}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 5:6

ULT

6 And the hand of Yahweh was heavy on the Ashdodites, and he devastated them and struck them with tumors, Ashdod and its borders.

UST

6 Then Yahweh made the people of Ashdod suffer greatly. A plague {of mice} destroyed their crops, and many people in the city and in the surrounding region got unhealthy growths on their skin.

Why did the men of Ashdod say that the Box of the God of Israel should not stay with them? (vv6-7)

They said it should not stay because the hand of their God was severe against them and against their god Dagon.

1 Samuel 5:7

ULT

7 And the men of Ashdod saw that {it was} thus, and they said, “The Box of the God of Israel should not stay with us, for his hand is severe against us and against Dagon our god.”

UST

7 When the people of Ashdod saw what was happening, they cried out, “The god of the Israelites is severely punishing us and our god Dagon. So we cannot keep his sacred chest here!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 5:8

ULT

8 So they sent and gathered all of the lords of the Philistines to them, and they said, “What shall we do with the Box of the God of Israel?” And they said, “Let the Box of the God of Israel go around {to} Gath.” So they brought around the Box of the God of Israel.

UST

8 They summoned the five rulers of the Philistines and asked them, “What should we do with the sacred chest of the God of the Israelites?” The rulers replied, “Send the sacred chest to the city of Gath.” So they moved it to Gath.

To what place did the Philistines move the Box of the God of Israel?

The Philistines moved the Box to Gath.

1 Samuel 5:9

ULT

9 And it happened after they brought it around that the hand of Yahweh was on the city, a very great tumult. And he struck the men of the city from small and unto great. And tumors broke out on them.

UST

9 But when they took the sacred chest to Gath, Yahweh made the people of that city suffer as well. This caused very great distress. Throughout the city, people of all ages died, and many others got unhealthy skin growths.

With what did Yahweh strike the men of the city of Gath?

Yahweh struck them with tumors.

1 Samuel 5:10

ULT

10 So they sent the Box of God {to} Ekron. And it happened as the Box of God entered Ekron that the Ekronites cried out, saying, “They have brought around to me the Box of the God of Israel to kill me and my people!”

UST

10 So the people of Gath moved the sacred chest to the city of Ekron. But when some men from Gath carried the sacred chest into Ekron, the people there protested. They told the men, “You are going to cause us and our families to die by bringing the sacred chest of the god of the Israelites here!”

What did the people of Ekron say the Box of the God of Israel would do to them?

They said that it would kill them and their people.

1 Samuel 5:11

ULT

11 And they sent and gathered all of the lords of the Philistines, and they said, “Send away the Box of the God of Israel that it may return to its place, and it will not kill me and my people!” For there was a tumult of death in all of the city. The hand of God {was} very heavy there.

UST

11 So the people of Ekron also summoned the Philistine rulers. When they came, the people said to them, “Send this sacred chest of the god of the Israelites back to its own place! Otherwise, it will cause us and our families to die!” There was great distress throughout the city because so many people were dying. God was punishing them very severely.

To what place did the people of Ekron ask the rulers to send the Box?

They asked that the Box be sent back to its own place.

1 Samuel 5:12

ULT

12 And the men who did not die were struck with tumors. And the cry of the city went up to the heavens.

UST

12 Some of the people in Ekron had already died, and the rest of the people were suffering badly because of unhealthy growths on their skin. The people of the city were wailing so loudly that other people far away could hear them.

To what place did the cry of the city go?

The cry of the city went up to the heavens.

1 Samuel 6

1 Samuel 6:1

ULT

1 And the Box of Yahweh was in the field of the Philistines seven months.

UST

1 The people of Philistia kept Yahweh's sacred chest in their area for seven months.

For how long was the Box of Yahweh in the Philistines' country?

The Box was in the country of the Philistines for seven months.

1 Samuel 6:2

ULT

2 And the Philistines called to the priests and to the diviners, saying, "What should we do with the Box of Yahweh? Cause us to know with what we should send it to its place."

UST

2 Then they summoned their priests and their fortunetellers. They asked them, "We want to know how we should treat the sacred chest of Yahweh. Tell us what gift we should send with it back to its own land."

Who did the Philistines call to ask for advice on how the Box of Yahweh should be sent back to its own country?

They called for the priests and the diviners to tell them how to send the Box back.

ULT

3 And they said, "If you are sending away the Box of the God of Israel, do not send it away empty, but returning, return to him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why his hand has not turned from you."

UST

3 Those men replied, "Since you are going to return the sacred chest of Israel's God, you must send a gift with it to show him that you are sorry for taking it. If you do that and your unhealthy skin growths go away, you will know for sure that it was Israel's God who was making you suffer, because you took his sacred chest."

What did the priests and diviners tell the Philistine people to send as a guilt offering to the God of Israel? (vv3-4)

They told the Philistines to send five gold tumors and five gold mice.

1 Samuel 6:4

ULT

4 And they said, “What {is} the guilt offering that we should return to him?” And they said, “From the number of the lords of the Philistines, five tumors of gold and five mice of gold, for one plague was to all of them and to your lords.

UST

4 The people of Philistia asked, “What kind of gift should we send?” Those men replied, “Since you people and your five rulers have suffered in the same ways, send the same number of gifts as the number of your rulers. Make five gold models of the unhealthy growths on your skin and five gold models of mice.

1 Samuel 6:5

ULT

5 And you shall make images of your tumors and images of your mice, the ones destroying the land, and you shall give glory to the God of Israel. Perhaps he will lighten his hand from upon you and from upon your gods and from upon your land.

UST

5 Make models that represent the unhealthy skin growths and the mice that have been devouring your crops. Make them in order to honor the God of the Israelite people. If you do that, perhaps he will stop punishing you, your gods, and your land.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 6:6

ULT

6 And why do you make your heart heavy, just as the Egyptians and Pharaoh made their heart heavy? When he dealt severely with them, did they not send them away, and they went?

UST

6 Do not be stubborn as Pharaoh and the Egyptians were. Remember that Yahweh finally made them suffer more than they could bear, and that they then allowed the Israelites to leave their land.

Why did the priests and diviners say the people should not be stubborn like the Egyptians and Pharaoh were?

Because when God dealt severely with the Egyptians and Pharaoh, they had to let Israel go.

1 Samuel 6:7

ULT

7 And now, take and make a new cart, and two nursing cows upon which a yoke has not gone up. And you shall harness the cows to the cart, but you shall return their calves from behind them to the house.

UST

7 So this is what we advise you to do. Build a brand-new cart. Then get two cows that have very recently given birth to calves. They must be cows on which no one has ever put a yoke. Hitch those cows to the new cart. But keep their calves from following them by putting them securely in their pens.

What animals did the priests and diviners tell the Philistines to tie to the cart for the Box of Yahweh?

They told the Philistines to hitch two nursing cows to the cart.

1 Samuel 6:8

ULT

8 And you shall take the Box of Yahweh and put it into the cart, and you shall set the objects of gold that you are returning to him {as} a guilt offering in a box by its side. And you shall send it away, that it may go.

UST

8 Put their God's sacred chest on the cart along with the gold models you are sending to him. Put them in a small box alongside the sacred chest. These gold objects will be an offering to acknowledge to the God of the Israelites that he was right to punish you for taking his sacred chest. Then send the cows down the road and let them go wherever they want.

1 Samuel 6:9

ULT

9 And you shall look; if it goes up the way of its border, {to} Beth Shemesh, he has done this great harm to us. But if not, then we will know that his hand has not touched us; it has happened to us {by} chance."

UST

9 Then watch the cart as the cows pull it. If they pull it back into the territory of the Israelites, to the town of Beth Shemesh, then we will know that it was their God who caused these terrible plagues to afflict us. But if the cows do not pull the cart there, then we will know that the God of the Israelites has not been punishing us for taking his sacred chest. We will know that it was just a coincidence that we got unhealthy skin growths and mice ate our crops at the same time."

How would the Philistines know that it was Yahweh who had done this great harm to them?

The Philistines would know it was Yahweh if the cows pulling the cart went on their own to Beth Shemesh.

1 Samuel 6:10

ULT

10 And the men did thus, for they took two nursing cows, and they harnessed them to the cart, but they shut up their calves in the house.

UST

10 So the people did what the priests and diviners told them to do. They got two cows that had just had calves and were nursing them. They hitched them to a new cart that they made. But they put those calves securely in their pens.

Where did the nursing cows go with the cart carrying the Box and the gold mice and tumors? (vv10-12)

The cows went straight in the direction of Beth Shemesh.

1 Samuel 6:11

ULT

11 And they set the Box of Yahweh in the cart and the box and the mice of gold and the images of their tumors.

UST

11 Then they put Yahweh's sacred chest in the cart along with a box containing the gold models they had made of the mice and the skin growths.

1 Samuel 6:12

ULT

12 And the cows went straight in the way on the way of Beth Shemesh. They went in one path, going and lowing, and they did not turn {to} the right or {to} the left. And the lords of the Philistines were going after them unto the border of Beth Shemesh.

UST

12 Then the cows started walking, and they went straight down the road that led to Beth Shemesh. {Even though no one had ever yoked them before,} they did not pull in different directions. They were mooing the whole time {because they were distressed about their calves,} but they kept going forward down the road. The five rulers of the Philistine cities followed the cows until they reached the outskirts of Beth Shemesh.

1 Samuel 6:13

ULT

13 Now Beth Shemesh was harvesting the harvest of wheat in the valley. And they lifted up their eyes, and they saw the Box, and they rejoiced to see {it}.

UST

13 At that time, the people of Beth Shemesh were harvesting wheat in the valley outside their city. When the cows came along the road, they looked up and saw the sacred chest on the cart the cows were pulling. They were extremely happy when they saw it.

What were the people of Beth Shemesh doing when they lifted up their eyes and saw the Box?

They were harvesting their wheat in the valley.

1 Samuel 6:14

ULT

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua the Bethshemite, and it stood still there. Now a great stone was there. And they broke up the wood of the cart, and they offered the cows {as} a burnt offering to Yahweh.

UST

14-15 The cows pulled the cart into the field of a man whose name was Joshua who lived in Beth Shemesh. They stopped alongside a large rock. Several men from the tribe of Levi lifted from the cart the sacred chest and the box next to it that contained the gold models. They put all those things on the large rock. Then the people smashed the cart and kindled a fire with the wood from it. They slaughtered the cows and burned their bodies on the fire completely as an offering to Yahweh. That day the people of Beth Shemesh offered to Yahweh many sacrifices that they completely burned and many other sacrifices.

What did the people of Beth Shemesh do with the cows that had pulled the cart?

They offered the cows as a burnt offering to Yahweh.

1 Samuel 6:15

ULT

15 Now the Levites had taken down the Box of Yahweh and the box that {was} with it, in which were the objects of gold, and they had set {them} on the great stone. And the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices on that day to Yahweh.

UST

14-15 The cows pulled the cart into the field of a man whose name was Joshua who lived in Beth Shemesh. They stopped alongside a large rock. Several men from the tribe of Levi lifted from the cart the sacred chest and the box next to it that contained the gold models. They put all those things on the large rock. Then the people smashed the cart and kindled a fire with the wood from it. They slaughtered the cows and burned their bodies on the fire completely as an offering to Yahweh. That day the people of Beth Shemesh offered to Yahweh many sacrifices that they completely burned and many other sacrifices.

Who took down the Box of Yahweh and the box that was with it?

The Levites took down the Box of Yahweh and the box that was with it.

1 Samuel 6:16

ULT

16 And the five lords of the Philistines saw, and they returned {to} Ekron on that day.

UST

16 The five rulers of the Philistines watched the Israelites do these things. Then they returned to Ekron on that same day.

What did the five rulers of the Philistines do when they saw what had happened?

They returned that day to Ekron.

1 Samuel 6:17

ULT

17 And these {are} the tumors of gold that the Philistines returned {as} a guilt offering to Yahweh: for Ashdod, one; for Gaza, one; for Ashkelon, one; for Gath, one; for Ekron, one.

UST

17 The Philistines had sent five gold models of skin growths as an offering to Yahweh to acknowledge that he was right to punish them for taking his sacred chest. The five gold models represented the people of their five cities: Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron.

What did the numbers of gold tumors and gold mice represent? (vv17-18)

The five gold tumors represented the people of their five cities, and the gold mice represented all the Philistine cities belonging to those rulers.

1 Samuel 6:18

ULT

18 And the mice of gold {were} from the number of all of the cities of the Philistines {that were} to the five lords, from the city of fortification and to the village of the countryside and to the great Abel, on which they rested the Box of Yahweh. {It is} in the field of Joshua the Bethshemite to this day.

UST

18 The five gold models of mice were gifts from the people of the five cities that the five Philistine leaders rule. This included the people who lived in those cities and those who lived in the surrounding towns, all the way to {the border between Philistia and Israel that} the large rock {at Beth Shemesh marked}. People would later give that rock the name Abel. Men from the tribe of Levi placed the sacred chest on top of that rock. It is still there in the field that belonged to the man whose name was Joshua who lived in Beth Shemesh.

1 Samuel 6:19

ULT

19 But he struck among the men of Beth Shemesh because they looked into the Box of Yahweh. And he struck among the people 70 men, 50, 000 men. And the people mourned because Yahweh had struck a great striking among the people.

UST

19 But some of the people who lived in Beth Shemesh looked into Yahweh's sacred chest. Because of that, Yahweh caused 50,070 of them to die. The others who lived there mourned greatly because Yahweh had killed so many of those people.

Why did Yahweh strike some of the men of Beth Shemesh?

Yahweh struck them because they looked into his Box.

1 Samuel 6:20

ULT

20 And the men of Beth Shemesh said, "Who is able to stand to the face of Yahweh, this holy God? And to whom will he go up from upon us?"

UST

20 Then the people who lived in Beth Shemesh said, "Since Yahweh is such a holy God, he will eventually kill all of us {to punish us for being sinful} if his sacred chest remains here! We must send his sacred chest to the people who live in some other place!"

1 Samuel 6:21

ULT

21 And they sent messengers to the dwellers of Kiriath Jearim, saying, “The Philistines have returned the Box of Yahweh. Come down and bring it up to you.”

UST

21 They sent messengers to the people who lived in the city of Kiriath Jearim. They told them, “The people of Philistia have sent Yahweh’s sacred chest back to us. Come here and take it to your city.”

What did the messengers from Beth Shemesh ask the people of Kiriath Jearim to do?

The messengers asked the people of Kiriath Jearim to come and take the Box of Yahweh to their city.

1 Samuel 7:1

ULT

1 And the men of Kiriath Jearim came and lifted up the Box of Yahweh and brought it to the house of Abinadab on the hill. And they consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the Box of Yahweh.

UST

1 When the men of Kiriath Jearim received the message, they came to Beth Shemesh and took the sacred chest of Yahweh. They took it to the house of a man whose name was Abinadab. He lived on a hill. They gave Abinadab's son Eleazar the special duty of taking care of the chest.

What did the men of Kiriath Jearim do to Abinadab's son, Eleazar, so that he could take care of the Box of Yahweh?

They consecrated him to keep the Box of Yahweh.

1 Samuel 7:2

ULT

2 And it happened from the day of the dwelling of the Box in Kiriath Jearim that the days were many, and they were 20 years. And all of the house of Israel lamented after Yahweh.

UST

2 The sacred chest remained in Kiriath Jearim for a long time, for 20 years. During that time, the Israelite people were very sorry that Yahweh was not helping them anymore.

What did all the house of Israel do during the twenty years that the Box remained in Kiriath Jearim?

During that time, the Israelite people were very sorry that Yahweh was not helping them anymore.

1 Samuel 7:3

ULT

3 And Samuel spoke to all of the house of Israel, saying “If with all of your heart you are returning to Yahweh, remove the gods of the foreigner and the Ashtoreths from your midst and direct your heart toward Yahweh and serve him alone, and he will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines.”

UST

3 Then Samuel said to all the Israelite people, “If you truly want Yahweh to be your God again, you must get rid of the idols you have that represent foreign gods. You must also get rid of the statues you have that represent the goddess Ashtoreth. You must resolve to worship only Yahweh. If you do that, he will enable you to stop the Philistines from oppressing you.”

What did Samuel tell the people of Israel that they needed to remove from among them for Yahweh to rescue them from the Philistines? (vv3-4)

Samuel told them that they needed to remove the foreign gods and the Ashtoreths from among them and serve Yahweh only.

1 Samuel 7:4

ULT

4 And the sons of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtoreths, and they served Yahweh alone.

UST

4 So the Israelites got rid of all their statues of the gods Baal and Ashtoreth, and they began to worship only Yahweh.

1 Samuel 7:5

ULT

5 And Samuel said, “Gather all of Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray for you to Yahweh.”

UST

5 Then Samuel told them, “I want you Israelites to assemble at Mizpah. I will pray to Yahweh for you there.”

What did the people of Israel admit that they had done when they gathered at Mizpah? (vv5-6)

They admitted that they had sinned against Yahweh.

1 Samuel 7:6

ULT

6 And they gathered at Mizpah, and they drew water and poured {it} to the face of Yahweh. And they fasted on that day, and they said there, “We have sinned against Yahweh.” And Samuel judged the sons of Israel at Mizpah.

UST

6 So the Israelites assembled at Mizpah. They got water from a well and poured it out on the ground in Yahweh’s presence. They did not eat any food on that day. They confessed that they had sinned against Yahweh. There at Mizpah Samuel settled disputes among the Israelites and made sure that they were obeying Yahweh.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 7:7

ULT

7 And the Philistines heard that the sons of Israel had gathered themselves at Mizpah, and the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And the sons of Israel heard, and they feared from the face of the Philistines.

UST

7 When the Philistines learned that the Israelite people had assembled at Mizpah, their rulers led their armies to attack the Israelites. When the Israelites learned that the Philistines were approaching them to attack them, they became very afraid.

Why did the people of Israel ask Samuel to call out to Yahweh for them? (vv7-8)

They were afraid because they heard that the rulers of the Philistines were coming to attack them.

1 Samuel 7:8

ULT

8 And the sons of Israel said to Samuel, “Do not cease from crying out for us to Yahweh our God, and may he save us from the hand of the Philistines!”

UST

8 They told Samuel, “Please keep on praying to Yahweh our God for us so that he will rescue us from the Philistine army!”

1 Samuel 7:9

ULT

9 And Samuel took a lamb of milk, and he offered it, a whole burnt offering to Yahweh. And Samuel cried out to Yahweh for Israel, and Yahweh answered him.

UST

9 So Samuel took a young lamb that was still nursing, and he killed it and offered it to Yahweh as a sacrifice by burning it up entirely on the altar. Then he pleaded with Yahweh to help the Israelites, and Yahweh did what he asked.

What did Yahweh do when Samuel offered a lamb as a burnt offering and cried out to him?

Yahweh answered Samuel.

1 Samuel 7:10

ULT

10 And Samuel was offering the burnt offering, and the Philistines approached for battle with Israel. And Yahweh thundered with a great sound on that day against the Philistines, and he panicked them, and they were struck to the face of Israel.

UST

10 While Samuel was still burning the lamb as an offering, the Philistine army came near to attack the Israelites. But Yahweh caused it to thunder very loudly. The soldiers in the Philistine army became so frightened that they could no longer fight effectively. So the Israelite soldiers were able to defeat them completely.

What did Yahweh do that threw the Philistines into confusion as they drew near to attack Israel?

Yahweh thundered with a great sound on that day against the Philistines.

1 Samuel 7:11

ULT

11 For the men of Israel went out from Mizpah, and they pursued the Philistines, and they struck them unto below Beth Kar.

UST

11 The Israelite men rushed out of Mizpah and killed many Philistine soldiers who were trying to run away. They chased them all the way to the bottom of the hill on which people had built the town of Beth Kar.

1 Samuel 7:12

ULT

12 And Samuel took a stone and set {it} up between Mizpah and between Shen. And he called its name Ebenezer, for he said, “Unto here has Yahweh helped us.”

UST

12 After the battle, Samuel got a large stone and set it up between the city of Mizpah and the rocky cliff of Shen. He named the stone Ebenezer. He said, “Yahweh has helped us to defeat our enemies this far.”

What did Samuel set up between Mizpah and Shen as a remembrance that Yahweh had helped them?

Samuel took a stone and set it up.

1 Samuel 7:13

ULT

13 So the Philistines were subdued, and they did not resume again to enter into the border of Israel. And the hand of Yahweh was against the Philistines all of the days of Samuel.

UST

13 So the Israelites defeated the Philistines, and they stopped invading the land of Israel. During the time that Samuel was alive, Yahweh kept powerfully helping the Israelites defend themselves against the Philistines.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 7:14

ULT

14 And the cities that the Philistines had taken from Israel returned to Israel, from Ekron and unto Gath, and Israel delivered their border from the hand of the Philistines. And peace was between Israel and between the Amorite.

UST

14 The Philistines had previously captured some towns that belonged to the Israelites. But the Israelite army was now able to recapture those towns. They were around the Philistine cities of Ekron and Gath. The Israelites recaptured the whole area right up to the limits of those cities. The Amorites also did not attack the Israelites during this time.

What happened to the towns that the Philistines had taken from Israel?

They were recaptured by Israel.

1 Samuel 7:15

ULT

15 And Samuel judged Israel all of the days of his life.

UST

15 Samuel continued to be the leader of the Israelite people until he died.

What did Samuel do as he went on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, Mizpah, and back to Ramah? (vv15-16)

Samuel judged Israel in all these places.

1 Samuel 7:16

ULT

16 And he went according to year by year and went around Bethel and Gilgal and Mizpah, and he judged Israel {in} all of those places.

UST

16 Every year Samuel traveled around to the cities of Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah. In those cities, he listened to disputes between people and settled them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 7:17

ULT

17 And his return was to Ramah, for his house was there, and there he judged Israel. And he built an altar there to Yahweh.

UST

17 After he settled disputes in each of those cities, he would return to Ramah, where he lived. He also listened to people's disputes there and settled them. He built an altar at Ramah {so that he could offer sacrifices to Yahweh}.

1 Samuel 8

1 Samuel 8:1

ULT

1 And it happened, when Samuel had aged, that he appointed his sons judges of Israel.

UST

1 When Samuel became old, he appointed his sons to lead the people of Israel.

In what ways did Samuel's two sons, who were judges, not walk in the ways of their father? (vv1-3)

They were not honest like their father. They accepted bribes, and they did not make honest decisions about people's disputes.

1 Samuel 8:2

ULT

2 And the name of his firstborn son was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah, judges in Beersheba.

UST

2 Samuel had two sons. Joel was his older son and Abijah was his younger son. They settled people's disputes in the town of Beersheba.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 8:3

ULT

3 But his sons did not walk in his ways, for they turned aside after dishonest gain, and they took a bribe, and they turned aside justice.

UST

3 But Joel and Abijah were not honest like their father. They only wanted to get a lot of money. They accepted bribes, and they did not make honest decisions about people's disputes.

1 Samuel 8:4

ULT

4 And all of the elders of Israel gathered together, and they came to Samuel at Ramah.

UST

4 Finally, the Israelite leaders met in the town of Ramah to discuss the matter with Samuel.

What request did the elders of Israel make of Samuel? (vv4-5)

They asked Samuel to appoint a king to judge them, like all the other nations.

1 Samuel 8:5

ULT

5 And they said to him, “Behold, you yourself have aged, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now appoint for us a king to judge us, like all of the nations.”

UST

5 The leaders said to Samuel, “Now listen! You are now old, and your sons are not honest like you. So give us a king to rule over us, like the kings that other countries have!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 8:6

ULT

6 And the thing was bad in the eyes of Samuel when they said, “Give to us a king to judge us.” So Samuel prayed to Yahweh.

UST

6 Samuel thought it was wrong for them to ask him to give them a king to rule them. So he prayed to Yahweh about it.

What did Samuel do when he was displeased by the elders’ request to give them a king?

Samuel prayed to Yahweh.

1 Samuel 8:7

ULT

7 And Yahweh said to Samuel, “Listen to the voice of the people according to all that they have said to you. For they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from reigning over them.

UST

7 Yahweh answered him, “Do everything that these leaders have asked you to do. But recognize that by asking for a king, they are not really refusing to have your family continue to lead them. They are actually refusing to have me continue to be their king.

Why did Yahweh tell Samuel to listen to the voice of the people?

Yahweh told Samuel to listen because the people were not rejecting Samuel, but they were rejecting Yahweh from reigning over them.

1 Samuel 8:8

ULT

8 According to all of the deeds that they have done from the day I brought them up from Egypt and to this day, that they have forsaken me and served other gods, thus they are doing also to you.

UST

8 This is just like what they have been doing ever since I brought them out of Egypt. They have rejected me and worshiped other gods. Now they are also rejecting you in the same way.

What warning did Yahweh tell Samuel to give to the people of Israel? (vv8-9)

Yahweh told Samuel to warn the people about the way the king would rule over them.

1 Samuel 8:9

ULT

9 And now, listen to their voice, only that warning, you shall warn them and declare to them the custom of the king who will reign over them.”

UST

9 So this is what I want you to do. Appoint a king for them as they have asked. But warn them clearly and explain to them what privileges this king will claim for himself!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 8:10

ULT

10 And Samuel told all of the words of Yahweh to the people requesting a king from him.

UST

10 So Samuel told the Israelite leaders who were asking him for a king what Yahweh had told him.

For what did Samuel warn the people that a king would take their sons? (vv10-12)

Samuel warned that the king would take their sons to be officers and soldiers, to plow his fields and harvest his crops, and to make weapons of war.

1 Samuel 8:11

ULT

11 And he said, “This will be the custom of the king who will reign over you. He will take your sons and appoint {them} for himself in his chariot and among his horsemen, and they will run to the face of his chariot.

UST

11 He said, “If a king rules over you, this is what he will do to you. He will force many of your sons to serve in his army as chariot drivers or as soldiers on horseback. He will make a large group of your sons run in front of his chariot.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 8:12

ULT

12 And {he will} appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and to plow his plowing, and to harvest his harvest, and to make the implements of his war and the implements of his chariot.

UST

12 He will make some of your sons officers who will command groups of a thousand soldiers or groups of fifty soldiers. But he will force others to plow his fields and then later harvest his crops. He will force still others to make military weapons and equipment for his chariots.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 8:13

ULT

13 And he will take your daughters for perfumers and for cooks and for bakers.

UST

13 The king will also make some of your daughters work for him. They will have to make perfumes and cook food and bake bread for him.

How did Samuel warn the people about what a king would do with their daughters and property? (vv13-15)

Samuel warned that the king would take their daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers, and he would take the best of their fields and vineyards and olive groves to give to his attendants.

1 Samuel 8:14

ULT

14 And your fields and your vineyards and your olive trees, the best {ones}, he will take and give to his servants.

UST

14 He will seize your best fields and vineyards and olive groves so that he can give them to his attendants.

1 Samuel 8:15

ULT

15 And your seeds and your vintages, he will tithe and give to his officials and to his servants.

UST

15 The king will take one tenth of the grain and wine that you produce and distribute it among his own officers and attendants.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 8:16

ULT

16 And your {male} servants and your maidservants and your young men, the best {ones}, and your donkeys, he will take and use for his work.

UST

16 He will also claim your best male and female servants and the strong young men in your household and make them work for him. He will also take your donkeys and use them to carry loads for him.

How did Samuel warn the people about what a king would do with their servants and animals? (vv16-17)

Samuel warned that the king would take their servants, the best of their young men and donkeys, and a tenth of their flocks, and the people would become his servants.

1 Samuel 8:17

ULT

17 Your flock, he will tithe, and you yourselves will be to him for servants.

UST

17 He will take one tenth of your sheep and goats. It will be as if you are his slaves.

1 Samuel 8:18

ULT

18 And you will cry out on that day from to the face of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, but Yahweh will not answer you on that day.”

UST

18 When all of this happens, you will complain loudly about the king whom you yourselves have chosen. But when that happens, Yahweh will make you keep serving the king you are complaining about.”

What did Samuel warn would happen when the people cried out because of the king they had chosen?

Samuel said that Yahweh would not answer them on that day.

1 Samuel 8:19

ULT

19 But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel. And they said, “No! But surely a king will be over us.

UST

19 But despite everything Samuel told them, the people stubbornly insisted that they did not want any ruler other than a king.

How did the people of Israel respond to the warnings from Samuel? (vv19-20)

The people refused to listen and said they wanted a king over them so they could be like the other nations.

1 Samuel 8:20

ULT

20 And we ourselves shall also be like all of the nations. And our king shall judge us and go out to our face and fight our battles.”

UST

20 They told him, “We want to be like the other nations. We want a king to rule us and to lead our soldiers to fight against our enemies.”

1 Samuel 8:21

ULT

21 And Samuel heard all of the words of the people, and he spoke them in the ears of Yahweh.

UST

21 When Samuel heard everything that the people had said, he repeated it to Yahweh for him to hear.

What was Yahweh’s response when Samuel repeated the people’s words to him? (vv21-22)

Yahweh told Samuel to listen to their voice and appoint a king for them.

1 Samuel 8:22

ULT

22 And Yahweh said to Samuel, “Listen to their voice, and you shall make a king reign over them.” And Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Go, a man to his city.”

UST

22 Yahweh answered him, “Do what they are asking you to do. Appoint someone to be their king.” So Samuel told the Israelite elders that they could all go home, because he would arrange for them to have a king.

1 Samuel 9

1 Samuel 9:1

ULT

1 Now {there} was a man from Benjamin, and his name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bekorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a man, a Benjaminite, mighty of valor.

UST

1 Now there was a rich and influential man whose name was Kish. He belonged to the tribe of Benjamin. Kish was the son of Abiel, the grandson of Zeror, the great-grandson of Bekorath, and the great-great-grandson of Aphiah. Kish lived within the territory of the tribe of Benjamin.

What were the outstanding physical features of Saul, the son of Kish? (vv1-2)

Saul was a handsome young man who was taller than any of the other people from his shoulders upward.

1 Samuel 9:2

ULT

2 And a son was to him, and his name {was} Saul, a youth and good, and no man from the sons of Israel {was} better than him. From his shoulder and upward {he was} taller than all of the people.

UST

2 Kish had a son whose name was Saul. He was a handsome young man. In fact, he was one of the most attractive Israelite young men. He was also much taller than most other men.

1 Samuel 9:3

ULT

3 Now the female donkeys of Kish, the father of Saul, became lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, “Please take one of the servants with you and arise, go seek the female donkeys.”

UST

3 Saul’s father Kish owned some female donkeys, and one day they wandered off. So Kish told Saul, “Take one of the servants with you and go and look for those donkeys.”

What was the outcome when Kish asked his son Saul to go and look for their lost donkeys? (vv3-4)

Saul took one of the servants and passed through many places without finding them.

1 Samuel 9:4

ULT

4 And he passed through the hill country of Ephraim, and he passed through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find {them}. And they passed through the land of Shaalim, but nothing. And he passed through the land of the Benjaminite, but they did not find {them}.

UST

4 So Saul did that. He took a servant, and they walked through the hilly area where the descendants of Ephraim lived, and then they went through the regions of Shalishah and Shaalim, and then they went through all the region belonging to the tribe of Benjamin, but they could not find the donkeys.

1 Samuel 9:5

ULT

5 They came into the land of Zuph, and Saul said to his servant who was with him, “Come, and let us return, lest my father cease from the female donkeys and become concerned about us.”

UST

5 Finally, they came to the region of Zuph. Then Saul said to the servant, “We should go back home. If we do not do that, my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and start worrying about us.”

What did Saul tell his servant they should do when they came to the land of Zuph?

Saul told his servant that they should go back so his father would not stop being concerned about the donkeys and become concerned about them.

1 Samuel 9:6

ULT

6 And he said to him, “Behold, please, a man of God {is} in this city, and the man is honored. All that he speaks, coming, it comes. Now let us go there. Perhaps he will declare to us our way on which we have gone.”

UST

6 But the servant told Saul, “I have another idea. Please listen to it. One of God’s prophets lives in this city. People respect him very much because everything he predicts comes true. Let us go and speak with him. Perhaps he can tell us where we should go to find the donkeys.”

What different idea did the servant present to Saul?

The servant suggested they should go to a man of God in the city who might tell them the way they should go.

1 Samuel 9:7

ULT

7 And Saul said to his servant, “Now behold, we shall go, but what shall we bring to the man? For the bread has gone from our sacks and {there is} no gift to bring to the man of God. What {is} with us?”

UST

7 Saul replied to the servant, “I agree that we should go and speak with him, but what can we give him as a gift? We have no more food in our sacks, and I do not know of something else we could give him. Do we have anything else with us?”

What did the servant have to give to the man of God so he would tell them which way to go? (vv7-8)

The servant had a fourth of a shekel of silver to give to the man of God.

1 Samuel 9:8

ULT

8 And the servant resumed to answer Saul, and he said, “Behold, one fourth of a shekel of silver has been found in my hand. And I will give {it} to the man of God, and he will declare to us our way.”

UST

8 In response, the servant told Saul, “Actually, I do have a small piece of silver that I can give to the prophet. {That way we can speak with him} and he will tell us where we should go to find the donkeys.”

1 Samuel 9:9

ULT

9 (Previously in Israel, a man said thus in his going to seek God: “Come, and let us go to the seer.” For the prophet today was called the seer previously.)

UST

9-11 Saul told his servant, “That is a good idea. Let us go and speak with him.” So they went to the city where the prophet lived. As they were going up the hill into the city, they met some young women who were coming out of the city to get some water from a well. They asked the women, “Is the seer currently in the city?” (They said that because at that time, when people in Israel wanted a message from God, they would say, “Let us go and speak with the seer.” They used the term “seer” to refer to the same kind of person whom people now call a “prophet.”)

What did Saul and his servant ask the young women who were coming out to draw water? (vv9-11)

Saul and his servant asked if the seer was in the city.

1 Samuel 9:10

ULT

10 And Saul said to his servant, “Your word is good. Come, let us go.” And they went to the city where the man of God was there.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 9:11

ULT

11 They were going up on the ascent of the city, and they found young women going out to draw water. And they said to them, “Is the seer in this {place}?”

UST

9-11 Saul told his servant, “That is a good idea. Let us go and speak with him.” So they went to the city where the prophet lived. As they were going up the hill into the city, they met some young women who were coming out of the city to get some water from a well. They asked the women, “Is the seer currently in the city?” (They said that because at that time, when people in Israel wanted a message from God, they would say, “Let us go and speak with the seer.” They used the term “seer” to refer to the same kind of person whom people now call a “prophet.”)

1 Samuel 9:12

ULT

12 And they answered them and said, “He is, behold, to your face. Hurry now, for he has come to the city today because the sacrifice of the day {is} to the people at the high place.

UST

12 The women replied, “Yes, he is in the city. In fact, he is just ahead of you. If you walk fast, you will catch up with him. He came back to the city this very day because the people will be gathering today on the hill to worship God, and he is going to bless the sacrifice of the animal that will provide the meat for this festival.

Why was the seer coming to the city on that day? (vv12-13)

The seer was coming to the city because the people were having a sacrifice at the high place, and he would bless the sacrifice.

1 Samuel 9:13

ULT

13 In your entering the city, thus you will find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, for he himself will bless the sacrifice; after this, the invited {ones} will eat. And now, go up, for him, according to today you will find him.”

UST

13 You should find him just inside the city. He will not have gone up the hill yet to take part in the festival, because {first the people will prepare the feast, and then} he will come and bless the sacrifice. The guests will only start eating after he does that. So if you hurry, you will find him there right now.”

1 Samuel 9:14

ULT

14 So they went up {to} the city. They were entering into the midst of the city, and behold, Samuel was coming out to meet them to go up {to} the high place.

UST

14 So Saul and the servant went to the city. As they were on their way in, amazingly, Samuel was coming from the opposite direction and met them. He was on his way to the hill where the people were going to hold their festival.

1 Samuel 9:15

ULT

15 Now Yahweh had uncovered the ear of Samuel one day before the coming of Saul, saying:

UST

15 On the previous day, Yahweh had told Samuel,

What did Yahweh reveal to Samuel about Saul’s role in Israel? (vv15-16)

Yahweh told Samuel that he was to anoint Saul as ruler over Israel, and Saul would save Yahweh’s people from the hand of the Philistines.

1 Samuel 9:16

ULT

16 “About {this} time tomorrow I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him as ruler over my people Israel. And he will save my people from the hand of the Philistines. For I have seen my people, for its cry has come to me.”

UST

16 “I will arrange for a man to arrive here at this time tomorrow from the land where the descendants of Benjamin live. I want you to pour olive oil on his head to show that I have chosen him to be the leader of my Israelite people. I have listened to them as they have called out to me for help, and I have seen how they are suffering. This man will rescue my people from the control of the Philistines.”

1 Samuel 9:17

ULT

17 And Samuel saw Saul, and Yahweh answered him, “Behold the man {about} whom I spoke to you! This {one} will restrain my people.”

UST

17 When Samuel saw Saul, Yahweh said to him, “This is the man I told you about yesterday! He is the one who will rule my people!”

What invitation did Samuel give to Saul after he revealed that he was the seer Saul was seeking? (vv17-19)

Samuel invited Saul to go up and eat with him at the high place.

1 Samuel 9:18

ULT

18 And Saul approached Samuel in the midst of the gate. And he said, “Please declare to me, where {is} this, the house of the seer?”

UST

18 As Saul was going in the city gate and Samuel was coming out of it, Saul went over to Samuel {without realizing who he was} and asked him, “Would you please tell me where the house of the seer is?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 9:19

ULT

19 And Samuel answered Saul and said, “I {am} the seer. Go up to my face to the high place, and you shall eat with me today. And I will send you away in the morning, and I will declare to you all that {is} in your heart.

UST

19 Samuel replied, “I am the seer. Now go ahead of me with your servant to the hill where the people are going to hold their festival. Both of you will be my guests today at the feast. Tomorrow morning I will tell you everything you want to know, and then I will send you home.

1 Samuel 9:20

ULT

20 Now as for the female donkeys to you having become lost today, three days, do not set your heart to them, for they have been found. Now to whom is all of the desire of Israel? {Is it} not to you and to all of the house of your father?”

UST

20 Also, do not worry anymore about those donkeys of yours that wandered away a couple of days ago. Someone has found them. But let us consider that the Israelites are looking for a king. You are the king they are looking for. You and your extended family will rule the Israelites.

How did Samuel surprise Saul with what he told him? (vv20-21)

Samuel told him that all the desire of Israel was for him and his father’s house, even though Saul was from the least clan of the smallest tribe.

1 Samuel 9:21

ULT

21 And Saul answered and said, “{Am} I not a Benjamite, from the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and {is not} my clan the least of all of the clans of the tribe of Benjamin? So why have you spoken to me according to this word?”

UST

21 Saul replied, “I am from the tribe of Benjamin, which is the smallest of all the Israelite tribes! Beyond that, my clan is the least important clan in that tribe! So I do not understand why you have spoken to me about becoming the king of Israel.”

1 Samuel 9:22

ULT

22 But Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them to the room. And he gave to them a place at the head of the invited {ones}. (Now they {were} about 30 men.)

UST

22 But {even though Saul had objected}, Samuel brought Saul and his servant into the large room where the feast would be. About 30 people were guests at the feast, but Samuel had Saul and his servant sit in the seats where the most important guests would sit.

1 Samuel 9:23

ULT

23 And Samuel said to the cook, “Give the portion that I gave to you, {about} which I said to you, ‘Set it with you.’”

UST

23 Then Samuel told the cook, “Serve {my guest here} the special piece of meat that I gave you and that I told you to set aside.”

What did Samuel tell the cook to serve to Saul? (vv23-24)

Samuel told the cook to serve Saul the thigh portion that had been set aside for him for the appointed time.

1 Samuel 9:24

ULT

24 And the cook lifted the thigh and the {thing} on it, and he set {it} to the face of Saul. And he said, “Behold, the reserved {thing} is set to your face. Eat, for {it has been} kept for you for the appointed time, saying, ‘I have invited the people.’” So Saul ate with Samuel on that day.

UST

24 So the cook brought the leg he had set aside, with its adjoining meat, and he served it to Saul. Samuel said to Saul, “We have just served you the special portion that we set aside for you. Please go ahead and start eating it. When I told the cook that I had invited people to this feast, I also told him to save this portion of the meat so that you could have it when you came.” So Saul ate the festive meal that day as Samuel’s guest.

1 Samuel 9:25

ULT

25 And they came down from the high place {to} the city. And he spoke with Saul on the roof.

UST

25 After they finished eating, they returned to the city. Then Samuel took Saul up onto the flat roof of his house and talked with him there.

What did Samuel say to Saul from the roof in the morning? (vv25-26)

Samuel told Saul to get up so he could send him on his way.

1 Samuel 9:26

ULT

26 And they arose early. And it happened, as the dawn came up, that Samuel called to Saul on the roof, saying, “Arise, and I will send you away.” And Saul arose, and the two of them went out, he and Samuel, to the outside.

UST

26 Saul slept that night in a sheltered bed on the roof. Early the next morning, as the sun was rising, Samuel called up to him, “Get up! It is time for me to send you back home.” Once Saul had gotten up, he and Samuel left the house together.

1 Samuel 9:27

ULT

27 They were going down to the end of the city, and Samuel said to Saul, “Speak to the servant, that he may pass on to our face” (and he passed on), “but you, stand according to today, and I will make you hear the word of God.”

UST

27 When they got to the edge of the city, Samuel told Saul to send his servant on ahead of them. After the servant left, Samuel said to Saul, “I want you to stay here for a few minutes so that I can give you a message I have received from God for you.”

Why did Samuel tell Saul to stand still for a while on the outskirts of the city?

Samuel told Saul to stand still so Samuel could tell him the word of God.

1 Samuel 10

1 Samuel 10:1

ULT

1 And Samuel took a flask of oil and poured {it} on his head, and he kissed him. And he said, "{Is it} not that Yahweh has anointed you as ruler over his inheritance?

UST

1 Then Samuel took a small jar of olive oil and poured some of it on Saul's head. Then he kissed Saul {on the cheek}. He told him, "I am doing this because Yahweh has chosen you to be the leader of his Israelite people.

Why did Samuel pour a flask of oil on Saul's head and kiss him?

He did this because Yahweh had anointed Saul to be a ruler over his inheritance.

1 Samuel 10:2

ULT

2 In your going today from with me, then you will find two men near the tomb of Rachel in the border of Benjamin in Zelzah. And they will say to you, 'The female donkeys that you went to seek have been found. And behold, your father has abandoned the matters of the female donkeys and has become concerned about you, saying, "What shall I do about my son?"'

UST

2 When you leave here today and start to return home, you will meet two men near Rachel's tomb near the town of Zelzah in the territory of the tribe of Benjamin. They will say to you, 'Someone has found the donkeys that you were looking for. But now your father is more worried about you. He is saying that he is concerned that you have become lost yourself, and he does not know how to find you.'

What future event did Samuel share with Saul?

Samuel told Saul that he would find two men near Rachel's tomb who would tell him that the donkeys had been found.

1 Samuel 10:3

ULT

3 And you will go on from there and farther, and you will come to the oak of Tabor. And three men going up to God {at} Bethel will find you there, one carrying three young goats and one carrying three loaves of bread and one carrying a skin of wine.

UST

3 After leaving Zelzah and continuing your journey, you will arrive at the large oak tree near the town of Tabor. There you will see three men coming toward you. They will be on their way to worship God at Bethel. One of them will be leading three young goats. Another one will be carrying three loaves of bread. The last one will be carrying a container of wine.

What did Samuel tell Saul would happen when he came to the oak of Tabor? (vv3-4)

Three men going up to God at Bethel would meet him and give him two loaves of bread, which he should take.

1 Samuel 10:4

ULT

4 And they will ask about you regarding peace, and they will give to you two {loaves of} bread, and you shall take {them} from their hand.

UST

4 They will ask how you are doing, and then they will offer you two of the loaves of bread. Accept them.

1 Samuel 10:5

ULT

5 After this you will come {to} Gibeah of God, where the garrisons of the Philistines {are} there. And it will happen, in your coming there {to} the city, that you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place. And to their face {will be} a harp and a tambourine and a flute and a lyre. And they will be prophesying.

UST

5 Finally you will get {back home} to the city of Gibeah where there is a hill on which people worship God and where there is also a camp where Philistine soldiers stay. As you enter the city, you will meet a group of prophets. They will be coming down from the place of worship that is on top of the hill. Prophets playing music on harps, tambourines, flutes, and lyres will be leading them. The prophets will be speaking and singing as God inspires them.

What did Samuel tell Saul would happen when he came to Gibeah of God? (vv5-6)

The Spirit of Yahweh would rush upon him, he would prophesy with a group of prophets, and he would be changed into a different man.

1 Samuel 10:6

ULT

6 And the Spirit of Yahweh will rush upon you, and you will prophesy with them. And you will be changed into another man.

UST

6 When you meet them, the Spirit of Yahweh will powerfully influence you, and you too will speak and sing as God inspires you. This will affect you so much that you will become like a different person.

1 Samuel 10:7

ULT

7 And let it be, when these signs come to you, do for yourself what your hand finds, for God is with you.

UST

7 After these things happen, God will be helping you, so do what you think is the right thing to do in each situation.

What instructions did Samuel give to Saul for later? (vv7-8)

Samuel told Saul to go down to Gilgal and wait seven days for Samuel to come and offer sacrifices.

1 Samuel 10:8

ULT

8 But go down to my face {to} Gilgal. And behold, I will be coming down to you to offer burnt offerings, to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings. May you wait seven days until my coming to you, and I will make known to you what you shall do."

UST

8 But I would like you to meet me at the city of Gilgal. Listen carefully. I will come there and offer some sacrifices that I will burn completely and other sacrifices for a festive meal that we will share. Wait one week for me to arrive. When I come, I will tell you what other things you should do."

1 Samuel 10:9

ULT

9 And it happened, as he turned his shoulder to go from with Samuel, that God changed to him another heart. And all of these signs came on that day.

UST

9 Just as Saul started to walk away from Samuel, God changed Saul's inner being. And all the things that Samuel had predicted happened that same day.

What happened when Saul turned his back to leave Samuel?

When Saul turned to leave, God changed Saul's inner being.

1 Samuel 10:10

ULT

10 And they came there to Gibeah, and behold, a group of prophets met him. And the Spirit of God rushed upon him, and he prophesied in their midst.

UST

10 When Saul and his servant arrived at Gibeah, right away they met a group of prophets. God's Spirit influenced Saul powerfully, and he began to speak and sing as the prophets were also doing.

1 Samuel 10:11

ULT

11 And it happened that every {one} knowing him from yesterday and the third day saw, and behold, {he was} prophesying with the prophets, and the people said, a man to his neighbor, "What {is} this {that} has happened to the son of Kish? {Is} Saul also among the prophets?"

UST

11 The people who had known Saul previously were surprised to see that he was speaking and singing as the prophets were doing. They said to each other, "How has this happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul really one of the prophets?"

Why did people wonder if Saul was one of the prophets? (vv11-13)

They saw him prophesying with the prophets and wondered how this had happened to the son of Kish.

1 Samuel 10:12

ULT

12 And a man from there answered and said, “And who {is} their father?” Therefore it became a proverb, “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

UST

12 One of the men who lived there replied, “These other men did not become prophets because of who their fathers were.” And that is why, {when a person achieves something that people would not have expected based on his background,} people say, “Is Saul really one of the prophets?”

1 Samuel 10:14

ULT

14 And the uncle of Saul said to him and to his servant, “Where did you go?” And he said, “To seek the female donkeys. And we saw that {they were} not, so we came to Samuel.”

UST

14 When Saul’s uncle saw him there, he asked him and his servant, “Where have you been?” Saul replied, “We went to look for the donkeys. When we could not find them, we went to ask Samuel if he could tell us where they were.”

What did Saul tell his uncle when he was asked where he had gone?

Saul told his uncle that when he and his servant could not find the donkeys, they went to Samuel.

1 Samuel 10:15

ULT

15 And the uncle of Saul said, “Please declare to me what Samuel said to you.”

UST

15 Saul’s uncle asked, “What did Samuel tell you?”

What did Saul not tell his uncle about what Samuel had said to him? (vv15-16)

Saul did not tell his uncle about the matter of the kingship.

1 Samuel 10:16

ULT

16 And Saul said to his uncle, “Declaring, he declared to us that the female donkeys had been found.” But he did not declare to him the word of the kingship that Samuel had said.

UST

16 Saul answered, “He assured us that someone had found the donkeys.” But Saul did not tell his uncle what Samuel had said to him about becoming the king of Israel.

1 Samuel 10:17

ULT

17 And Samuel summoned the people to Yahweh at Mizpah.

UST

17 Then Samuel told the people of Israel to gather at Mizpah to hear a message from Yahweh.

Why did Yahweh say that Israel had rejected him? (vv17-19)

Israel had rejected Yahweh because they had asked for a king to be set over them.

1 Samuel 10:18

ULT

18 And he said to the sons of Israel, “Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: ‘I myself brought up Israel from Egypt. And I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all of the kingdoms oppressing you.’

1 Samuel 10:24

ULT

24 And Samuel said to all of the people, “Do you see upon whom Yahweh has chosen? For {there is} no one like him among all of the people!” And all of the people shouted and said, “May the king live!”

UST

24 Then Samuel said to all the people there, “This is the king whom Yahweh has chosen for you. Certainly he is taller and stronger than any other Israelite!” All the people shouted, “May God keep this king alive!”

What did Samuel say about the man whom Yahweh had chosen?

Samuel said that there was no one like Saul among all the people.

1 Samuel 10:25

ULT

25 And Samuel spoke to the people the custom of the kingship, and he wrote {it} in a book, and he made {it} rest to the face of Yahweh. And Samuel sent away all of the people, a man to his house.

UST

25 Then Samuel told the people what the responsibilities of the king would be and what responsibilities they would have toward him. He wrote all those things in a scroll. He placed the scroll for safekeeping in a location where people worshiped Yahweh. Then Samuel sent all the people home.

How were the customs of the kingship established and preserved?

Samuel told the people the customs of the kingship, wrote them in a book, and placed the book before Yahweh.

1 Samuel 10:26

ULT

26 And Saul also went to his house at Gibeah. And with him went the mighty whom God had touched upon their hearts.

UST

27 But some bad men said, “A man like him will not be able to save us from our enemies!” They did not think he would make a good king, and they refused to give him any gifts {to show that they would be loyal to him}. But {even though Saul knew about their insult,} he said nothing about it at the time.

How did some wicked men show their dislike for Saul?

Some wicked men despised Saul and did not bring him a gift.

1 Samuel 11

1 Samuel 11:1

ULT

1 Now Nahash the Ammonite came up and camped against Jabesh Gilead. And all of the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Cut a covenant for us, and we will serve you.”

UST

1 Then Nahash king of the Ammonites led his army to attack the city of Jabesh in the region of Gilead. The leaders of the people who lived in that city went to speak with Nahash. They told him, “We want to make a peace treaty with you. We are all willing to become your subjects.”

What was the response of Nahash the Ammonite to the request for a covenant from the men of Jabesh? (vv1-2)

He said he would make a covenant with them if he could gouge out all their right eyes and bring disgrace on Israel.

1 Samuel 11:2

ULT

2 And Nahash the Ammonite said to them, “By this I will cut for you, in the gouging of every right eye of you. And I will set it {as} a disgrace against all of Israel.”

UST

2 Nahash replied, “I will make a peace treaty with you on one condition. You must allow my soldiers to gouge out your right eyes. This will bring shame on all the Israelites {because it will show that they were not able to defend you}.”

1 Samuel 11:3

ULT

3 And the elders of Jabesh said to him, “Leave us alone seven days, and let us send messengers through all of the border of Israel. And if {there is} no one saving us, then we will go out to you.”

UST

3 The leaders of Jabesh replied, “Please do not attack us for the next seven days. During that time, we will send messengers throughout the land of Israel {to ask for help}. If no one comes to help us, then we will surrender to you.”

How did the elders of Jabesh respond to Nahash’s proposal?

They asked for seven days to send messengers throughout Israel to see if anyone would save them.

1 Samuel 11:4

ULT

4 And the messengers came {to} Gibeah of Saul, and they spoke the words in the ears of the people. And all of the people lifted up their voice and wept.

UST

4 {Nahash agreed, and} the messengers went {throughout Israel, including to} to Gibeah, the city where Saul lived, and they told the people there about the situation. Everyone started to cry loudly.

Why were the people in Saul's town of Gibeah weeping? (vv4-5)

They were weeping because they had heard the words of the men from Jabesh.

1 Samuel 11:5

ULT

5 And behold, Saul was coming behind the oxen from the field. And Saul said, "What {is} to the people, that they are weeping?" And they recounted to him the words of the men of Jabesh.

UST

5 Just then Saul returned home. He had been plowing his field with his oxen. {He heard the noise and} he asked, "Why are all the people crying so loudly?" Then someone told him what the messengers from Jabesh had reported.

1 Samuel 11:6

ULT

6 And the Spirit of God rushed upon Saul in his hearing these words. And his nose burned greatly.

UST

6 Then God's Spirit influenced Saul powerfully. He became extremely angry when he heard what Nahash wanted to do.

How did Saul respond to the threat against Jabesh? (vv6-8)

The Spirit of God rushed upon him, he became very angry, and he persuaded the men of Israel and Judah to fight.

1 Samuel 11:7

ULT

7 And he took a pair of cattle and cut it into pieces, and he sent through all of the border of Israel by the hand of the messengers, saying, “Whoever is not going out behind Saul and behind Samuel, thus shall be done to his oxen.” And the fear of Yahweh fell on the people, and they went out as one man.

UST

7 Saul took two of his oxen and killed them and cut them into pieces. Then he sent messengers carrying those pieces throughout the land of Israel to tell people this message: “Saul says that if anyone refuses to come with him and Samuel to fight against the Ammonite army, he will cut that person’s oxen into pieces, just as he has cut these oxen into pieces!” The men of Israel realized that Yahweh wanted them to go and fight the Ammonites and that Yahweh would be angry with them and punish them if they did not. So the Israelite men all agreed to fight.

1 Samuel 11:8

ULT

8 And he mustered them at Bezek. And the sons of Israel were 300, 000, and the men of Judah {were} 30, 000.

UST

8 Saul assembled his army at the city of Bezek. When he counted the troops, he learned that there were 30, 000 soldiers there from the tribe of Judah and 300, 000 soldiers from the other Israelite tribes.

1 Samuel 11:9

ULT

9 And they said to the messengers having come, “Thus you shall say to the men of Jabesh Gilead, ‘Tomorrow deliverance will be for you, at the heat of the sun.’” And the messengers went and declared {this} to the men of Jabesh, and they rejoiced.

UST

9 So Saul and Samuel sent the messengers back to the people at Jabesh Gilead to tell them, “We will come and rescue you tomorrow by the middle of the morning.” The messengers went and told this to the people of Jabesh. They became very happy when they heard this news.

What message did the messengers bring back to the men of Jabesh?

They told the men of Jabesh that they would have deliverance the next day by the time the sun was hot.

1 Samuel 11:10

ULT

10 And the men of Jabesh said, “Tomorrow we will go out to you. And you may do to us according to all of the good in your eyes.”

UST

10 Then the leaders of Jabesh told Nahash, “We will surrender to you tomorrow, and then you can do to us whatever you want.”

What did the men of Jabesh say to Nahash the Ammonite?

They told Nahash that they would come out to him the next day, and he could do to them whatever seemed good to him.

1 Samuel 11:11

ULT

11 And it happened on the next day that Saul put the people {into} three companies. And they came into the midst of the camp during the watch of the morning, and they struck Ammon until the heat of the day. And it happened that the {ones} being left scattered, and two among them were not left together.

UST

11 That night Saul divided his troops into three groups. They marched all night and arrived at the city before the sun rose the next morning. They attacked the camp of the Ammonite soldiers {from three different directions}. By noontime they had killed most of them. Those who survived ran away, and none of them regrouped to continue fighting.

What was the outcome of the battle between Israel and the Ammonites?

The people of Israel attacked and defeated the Ammonites, and the survivors were totally scattered.

1 Samuel 11:12

ULT

12 And the people said to Samuel, “Who {are} the {ones} having said, ‘Shall Saul reign over us?’ Give the men, that we may make them die.”

UST

12 Then the soldiers said to Samuel, “Now who were those men who said that they did not want Saul to be our king? Bring them here so that we can kill them!”

Why did Saul say that none of the men who opposed him would be put to death? (vv12-13)

Saul said no one would be put to death, because that day Yahweh had brought deliverance to Israel.

1 Samuel 11:13

ULT

13 But Saul said, “A man shall not be made to die on this day. For today Yahweh has done deliverance in Israel.”

UST

13 But Saul replied, “No, we are not going to execute anyone today, because on this day Yahweh has saved us Israelite people from our enemies. {This is a day to rejoice, not to kill anyone.}”

1 Samuel 11:14

ULT

14 And Samuel said to the people, “Come, and let us go {to} Gilgal, and let us renew the kingship there.”

UST

14 Then Samuel said to the people, “Let us all go to Gilgal, and there we will proclaim again that Saul is our king.”

Why did Samuel, Saul, and all the people of Israel go to Gilgal? (vv14-15)

They went to Gilgal to renew the kingship, make Saul king before Yahweh, and sacrifice peace offerings.

1 Samuel 11:15

ULT

15 And all of the people went {to} Gilgal, and there they caused Saul to reign to the face of Yahweh at Gilgal. And there they sacrificed sacrifices, peace offerings, to the face of Yahweh. And Saul and all of the men of Israel rejoiced there unto abundance.

UST

15 So they went to Gilgal. In that place where people worshiped Yahweh and considered that he was present, they proclaimed again that Saul was their king. Then they offered sacrifices there to show Yahweh how grateful they were for his help. And Saul and all the other Israelite people at the gathering were very happy.

1 Samuel 12:3

ULT

3 Behold me! Testify against me before Yahweh and before his anointed. The ox of whom have I taken, or the donkey of whom have I taken, or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed, or from the hand of whom have I taken a bribe and I veiled my eyes with it? And I will restore {it} to you.”

UST

3 If I have wronged anyone, tell me now while I stand before you. Do that while Yahweh is listening and while the king whom he has chosen is listening. Have I stolen an ox or donkey from anyone during all those years? Have I cheated anyone? Have I treated anyone badly? Have I accepted a bribe from anyone in exchange for ignoring the wrong things he was doing? If I have done any of these things, tell me, and I will repay anything I took.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 12:4

ULT

4 And they said, “You have not defrauded us, and you have not oppressed us, and you have not taken anything from the hand of a man.”

UST

4 They replied, “No, you have never cheated anyone or oppressed anyone or accepted a bribe from anyone.”

What did the people of Israel say when Samuel asked if he had ever wronged them? (vv4-5)

The people of Israel told Samuel he had not defrauded or oppressed them or taken anything from anyone.

1 Samuel 12:5

ULT

5 And he said to them, “Yahweh {is} a witness against you, and his anointed {is} a witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand.” And he said, “Witness.”

UST

5 Then Samuel told them, “Yahweh has heard you say this, and the king whom he has chosen has also heard you say this just now. You agree that I have not taken anything from anyone. {So you must also agree that they may punish anyone who later claims differently.}” The Israelites replied, “We acknowledge that Yahweh and the king have heard us say this {and that they may punish anyone who later claims differently}!”

1 Samuel 12:6

ULT

6 And Samuel said to the people, “{It was} Yahweh who made Moses and Aaron and who brought up your fathers from the land of Egypt.

UST

6 Samuel then told them, “Yahweh was the one who appointed Moses and Aaron to lead our ancestors. He is the one who rescued our ancestors from slavery in Egypt.

Why did Samuel tell the people of Israel to present themselves before Yahweh? (vv6-7)

He told them to present themselves so he could make the case against them that they should not have asked for a king instead of trusting Yahweh to rescue them.

1 Samuel 12:7

ULT

7 And now, station yourselves and let me be judged with you to the face of Yahweh with all of the righteousness of Yahweh that he has done with you and with your fathers.

UST

7 Now while Yahweh is listening, stand there as defendants while I make the case that you should not have asked for a king instead of trusting Yahweh to rescue you. I will do that by reminding you of all the times when Yahweh rescued you and your ancestors.

1 Samuel 12:8

ULT

8 When Jacob had entered Egypt and your fathers cried out to Yahweh, then Yahweh sent Moses and Aaron, and they brought out your fathers from Egypt and they made them dwell in this place.

UST

8 When the Egyptians forced the Israelites to serve them as slaves, our ancestors pleaded with Yahweh to help them. Yahweh sent Moses and Aaron to rescue them from slavery and to bring them to this land, where they settled.

What did God do to the ancestors of Israel after they forgot Yahweh their God? (vv8-9)

Yahweh sold them into the hand of Sisera, the Philistines, and the king of Moab, who all fought against them.

1 Samuel 12:9

ULT

9 But they forgot Yahweh their God. So he sold them into the hand of Sisera, the commander of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab. And they fought with them.

UST

9 But our ancestors stopped being loyal to Yahweh as their God. So he allowed Sisera to defeat them. Sisera was the commander of the army of King Jabin, who ruled from the city of Hazor. Yahweh also allowed the armies of the Philistines and of the king of Moab to defeat our ancestors.

1 Samuel 12:10

ULT

10 Then they cried out to Yahweh and said, ‘We have sinned, for we have forsaken Yahweh and have served the Baals and the Ashtoreths. And now, deliver us from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you.’

UST

10 Then our ancestors pleaded with Yahweh to help them. They admitted, ‘Yahweh, we have sinned by forsaking you. We have worshiped idols that represent the god Baal and the goddess Ashtoreth. But if you rescue us from our enemies, we will worship you alone.’

What did Yahweh do after Israel’s ancestors cried out to him and asked to be rescued from their enemies? (vv10-11)

Yahweh sent Jerubbaal, Bedan, Jephthah, and Samuel to rescue them.

1 Samuel 12:11

ULT

11 So Yahweh sent Jerubbaal and Bedan and Jephthah and Samuel. And he delivered you from the hand of your enemies from all around, and you dwelled in security.

UST

11 So Yahweh sent men such as Jerubbaal, Bedan, Jephthah, and me. We rescued you from the control of the enemies that surrounded you. As a result, you were able to live safely in this land again.

1 Samuel 12:12

ULT

12 But you saw that Nahash, the king of the sons of Ammon, was coming against you, and you said to me, ‘No, but a king shall reign over us,’ though Yahweh your God {was} your king.

UST

12 But when you saw that King Nahash of Ammon had come with his army to attack you, you were afraid. So you came to me and said, ‘Now we want a {warrior} king to lead us.’ You said that even though Yahweh your God was already your king!

What did Samuel remind the people of Israel that they had requested? (vv12-13)

Samuel reminded the people that they had wanted a king to reign over them, even though Yahweh their God was their king.

1 Samuel 12:13

ULT

13 But now, behold the king whom you have chosen, whom you have requested. And behold, Yahweh has given a king over you.

UST

13 Nevertheless, Yahweh has now appointed a king for you. So look, here is the king you wanted and asked for.

1 Samuel 12:14

ULT

14 If you fear Yahweh and serve him and listen to his voice and do not rebel against the mouth of Yahweh, then you will be, both you and the king who reigns over you, after Yahweh your God.

UST

14 If you respect Yahweh and worship him as your God, and if you do what he tells you to do and not disobey what he says, then Yahweh your God will protect you and your king from your enemies.

What choice did Samuel present to the people of Israel? (vv14-15)

They could fear Yahweh and serve him, or they could rebel against his command and his hand would be against them.

1 Samuel 12:15

ULT

15 But if you do not listen to the voice of Yahweh and you rebel against the mouth of Yahweh, then the hand of Yahweh will be against you and against your fathers.

UST

15 But if you do not do what Yahweh tells you to do and you disobey what he says, then he will help your enemies to defeat you, just as he did to our ancestors.

1 Samuel 12:16

ULT

16 Even now station yourselves and see this great thing that Yahweh is doing before your eyes.

UST

16 Now stand here quietly and look at the great thing that Yahweh is about to do while you watch.

What did Samuel challenge the people of Israel to do?

Samuel challenged the people to stand and see the great thing Yahweh is doing before their eyes.

1 Samuel 12:17

ULT

17 {Is it} not the harvest of wheat today? I will call to Yahweh, and he will give thunder and rain. And know and see that your evil that you have done is great in the eyes of Yahweh, to request a king for yourselves."

UST

17 It is currently the time when you harvest your wheat crop {and ordinarily there is no rain}. But I will ask Yahweh to send a thunderstorm and make it rain. When you see that, you will realize that Yahweh considers that you have done a very wicked thing by requesting a king of your own."

What did Samuel ask Yahweh to send so that the people would know the extent of their wickedness? (vv17-18)

He asked Yahweh to send thunder and rain during the wheat harvest.

1 Samuel 12:18

ULT

18 Then Samuel called upon Yahweh, and Yahweh gave thunder and rain on that day. And all of the people greatly feared Yahweh and Samuel.

UST

18 Then Samuel prayed to Yahweh, and Yahweh caused a thunderstorm to happen right then. This made all the people very afraid of Yahweh and of Samuel.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 12:19

ULT

19 And all of the people said to Samuel, “Pray for your servants to Yahweh your God, that we may not die. For we have added evil onto all of our sins by the requesting of a king for ourselves.”

UST

19 They cried out to Samuel, “We have sinned further {against Yahweh} by wickedly asking for a king of our own! So pray for us and ask Yahweh, the God you represent, not to kill us for doing that!”

How did Samuel respond when the people of Israel realized their sin? (vv19-20)

Samuel told the people not to be afraid, but to serve Yahweh with all their heart and not turn aside.

1 Samuel 12:20

ULT

20 And Samuel said to the people, “Do not fear. You, you have done all of this evil, but do not turn aside from after Yahweh, but serve Yahweh with all of your heart.

UST

20 Samuel told them, “Do not be afraid! You have done this evil thing just as I described, but do not stop living the way Yahweh wants you to live. Instead, serve Yahweh with complete commitment.

1 Samuel 12:22

ULT

22 For Yahweh will not forsake his people, because of his great name. For Yahweh was pleased to make you into a people for himself.

UST

22 Yahweh wants everyone in the world to know what a faithful God he is. So he will not abandon us after he gladly chose us to be his own people.

What message of comfort did Samuel give to the people of Israel?

Samuel comforted the people by telling them that Yahweh would not forsake them, because of his great name.

1 Samuel 12:23

ULT

23 Also, {for} me, profane to me from sinning against Yahweh by ceasing to pray for you! And I will instruct you in the good and straight way.

UST

23 For my part, you can be sure that I will keep praying for you. If I did not, I would be sinning against Yahweh. I will also continue to teach you what the right things are to do.

What did Samuel promise to do for Israel?

He promised to continue to pray for them and to instruct them in the good and right way.

1 Samuel 12:24

ULT

24 But fear Yahweh and serve him in faithfulness with all of your heart. For see what he has made great with you!

UST

24 But you must honor Yahweh and serve him genuinely with complete commitment. Bear in mind all the great things that he has done for you.

What did Samuel challenge the people of Israel to do?

Samuel told them to fear Yahweh and serve him faithfully with all their heart, considering the great things he had done for them.

1 Samuel 12:25

1 Samuel 13:2

ULT

2 And Saul chose for himself 3,000 from Israel. And 2,000 were with Saul in Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, and 1,000 were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. And the rest of the people, he sent away, a man to his tent.

UST

2 {After returning from defeating the Ammonites at Jabesh Gilead,} Saul chose 3,000 of the Israelite men who had fought them to become a regular army. He sent the other men back home. Of the soldiers Saul chose, 2,000 stayed with him at Michmash and in the hilly area near the city of Bethel. The other 1,000 stayed with {his son} Jonathan at the city of Gibeah within the territory of the tribe of Benjamin.

What did Saul do with the soldiers he did not choose to be with him?

Saul sent the rest of the soldiers home to their own tents.

1 Samuel 13:3

ULT

3 And Jonathan struck the garrison of the Philistines that {was} at Geba, and the Philistines heard. And Saul blew upon a shofar in all of the land, saying, “Let the Hebrews hear!”

UST

3 Jonathan and the men who were with him attacked the Philistine soldiers who had camped at Geba. The Philistine rulers heard what they did {and planned to attack in response}. Saul {expected this and} sent messengers to blow horns throughout Israel and tell the people what was happening.

How did Israel make itself stink among the Philistines? (vv3-4)

They made themselves stink among the Philistines because Jonathan had struck the garrison of the Philistines at Geba.

1 Samuel 13:4

ULT

4 And all of Israel heard, saying, “Saul has struck the garrison of the Philistines, and now Israel has made itself stink among the Philistines.” And the people were summoned after Saul {to} Gilgal.

UST

4 The other Israelites heard the news that Saul’s army had attacked a camp of Philistine soldiers and that this had made the Philistines very angry with the Israelites. The messengers told the rest of the fighting men to join Saul and his soldiers at Gilgal.

1 Samuel 13:5

ULT

5 And the Philistines gathered themselves to fight with Israel: 30,000 chariots and 6,000 horsemen and people like the sand that is on the shore of the sea for abundance. And they went up and camped at Michmash, east of Beth Aven.

UST

5 Then the Philistines mobilized their army to attack the Israelites. The Philistines had 3,000 chariots and 6,000 soldiers on horseback. They seemed to have too many footsoldiers to count, like the grains of sand on the seashore. The Philistines came and set up their tents near the city of Michmash, to the east of Beth Aven.

How did the Philistines respond to the attack by Jonathan?

They gathered 30,000 chariots, 6,000 horsemen, and people as numerous as the sand on the seashore to fight against Israel.

1 Samuel 13:6

ULT

6 And a man of Israel saw that it was narrow to him, for the people were distressed. And the people hid themselves in caves and in thickets and in cliffs and in pits and in cisterns.

UST

6 The Israelite soldiers realized that they were in a very dangerous situation because the Philistines would be able to attack them from there and harm them greatly. So many of them {fled and} hid in caves or bushes or climbed up onto high rocks or hid in ditches or holes in the ground.

How did the men of Israel react to the forces of the Philistines? (vv6-7)

They were distressed, so they hid in caves, thickets, cliffs, pits, and cisterns, and some fled across the Jordan.

1 Samuel 13:7

ULT

7 And Hebrews crossed the Jordan {to} the land of Gad and Gilead. But Saul, he {was} still at Gilgal, and all of the people trembled after him.

UST

7 Some of them crossed the Jordan River and went to the area where the descendants of Gad lived and to the region of Gilead. But Saul stayed at Gilgal. All the soldiers who were with him were shaking because they were so afraid.

1 Samuel 13:8

ULT

8 And he waited seven days to the appointed time that Samuel. But Samuel did not come {to} Gilgal, and the people were scattering from beside him.

UST

8 Samuel had told Saul to wait seven days for him to come and offer sacrifices, and so he did. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal during that time, and meanwhile many of the soldiers in Saul's remaining army were leaving him and running away.

What did Saul do when Samuel did not come to Gilgal after seven days? (vv8-10)

Saul offered the burnt offering himself.

1 Samuel 13:9

ULT

9 So Saul said, "Bring the burnt offering and the peace offerings to me." And he offered the burnt offering.

UST

9 So Saul told the soldiers, "Bring me an animal that I can burn completely on the altar {to express our complete dedication to Yahweh}. Also bring me animals that we can sacrifice {and whose meat we can share at a meal to celebrate and thank Yahweh for the victory we expect he will enable us to win}." So his soldiers brought him these animals, and he burned the first one completely on the altar.

1 Samuel 13:11

ULT

11 And Samuel said, “What have you done?” And Saul said, “When I saw that the people had scattered from beside me, and you, you had not come by the appointed time of days, and the Philistines were gathering at Michmash,

UST

11 Samuel {saw what Saul had done, and he} said to Saul, “You should not have sacrificed that animal yourself!” Saul replied, “I saw that my soldiers were leaving me and running away. You did not come here by the time you said you would come. Meanwhile, the Philistines had mobilized their army at Michmash {and were threatening us dangerously}.

What excuse did Saul give Samuel for not waiting for him to offer the sacrifices? (vv11-12)

He said he saw that the Philistine army was going to attack, and he had not yet asked Yahweh to help Israel, so he forced himself to offer the burnt offering.

1 Samuel 13:12

ULT

12 then I said, ‘Now the Philistines will come down against me {at} Gilgal, but I have not entreated the face of Yahweh.’ So I forced myself, and I offered the burnt offering.”

UST

12 So I thought, ‘Soon the Philistine army will attack us here at Gilgal, but I have not yet asked Yahweh to help us.’ So I felt it was necessary to offer the burnt offering myself.”

1 Samuel 13:13

ULT

13 And Samuel said to Saul, “You have acted foolishly! You have not kept the command of Yahweh your God that he commanded you. For now Yahweh would have established your kingdom over Israel forever.

UST

13 Samuel told Saul, “That was a very foolish thing to do! You did not obey what Yahweh, your God, commanded about sacrifices. If you had obeyed him, Yahweh would have allowed you and your descendants to rule Israel for a long time.

How did Samuel rebuke Saul?

Samuel told Saul that he had acted foolishly by not keeping the command that Yahweh gave him.

What did Samuel say would be the consequences of Saul’s disobedience? (vv13-14)

Because Saul did not obey Yahweh’s command, none of his descendants will become king. Instead, Yahweh has found someone else who will do what he wants him to do, and he will make that person the next king of Israel.

1 Samuel 13:14

ULT

14 But now your kingdom will not stand. Yahweh has sought for himself a man according to his heart, and Yahweh has commanded him to {be} ruler over his people, for you have not kept what Yahweh commanded you.”

UST

14 But now, after you die, none of your descendants will become king. That is because you have not obeyed what Yahweh told you to do, Yahweh has found someone else who will do what he wants him to do. He has decided to make that person the next king of Israel.”

1 Samuel 13:17

ULT

17 And the destroyer went out from the camp of the Philistines, three companies. One company turned to the way of Ophrah, to the land of Shual,

UST

17 The Philistines sent out three groups of soldiers to make raids on Israelite towns. One group went north toward the city of Ophrah in the region of Shual.

What strategy did the Philistines use against the people of Israel?

The Philistines sent out soldiers in three groups to attack different Israelite towns.

1 Samuel 13:18

ULT

18 and one company turned the way of Beth Horon, and one company turned the way of the border looking down upon the Valley of Zeboim, toward the wilderness.

UST

18 Another group went west towards the city of Beth Horon. The third group went east toward the area above the Zeboim Valley, beyond which there is a desolate area.

1 Samuel 13:19

ULT

19 Now a blacksmith was not found in all of the land of Israel. For the Philistines had said, “Lest the Hebrews make a sword or a spear.”

UST

19 The Philistines did not want the Israelites (whom they called Hebrews) to be able to make any swords or spears. So they did not allow any Israelites to be metalworkers.

What problem did the Israelites face in their fight against the Philistines?

There were no blacksmiths in all the land of Israel, so they could not make swords or spears.

1 Samuel 13:20

ULT

20 And all of Israel went down {to} the Philistines, a man to sharpen his plow blade and his pick and his axe and his sickle.

UST

20 As a result, whenever the Israelites needed someone to sharpen their plow blades, picks, axes, or sickles, they had to bring them to a Philistine man who could sharpen them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 13:21

ULT

21 And the charge was a pim for plowshares and for picks and for a three-fork and for axes and for straightening the goad.

UST

21 The Israelites had to pay about eight grams of silver to get such a man to sharpen their plow blades, picks, forks with three prongs, or sickles or to straighten the goads they used to drive their oxen.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 13:22

ULT

22 So it was on the day of battle that a sword or spear {was} not found in the hand of any of the people who {were} with Saul and with Jonathan, but one was found for Saul and for his son Jonathan.

UST

22 As a result, none of the 600 men who were with Saul and Jonathan had swords or spears that they could use to fight the Philistines. Only Saul and Jonathan, his son, had swords and spears.

How were the soldiers of Israel hindered on the day of battle?

None of the people with Saul and Jonathan had a sword or spear in their hand.

1 Samuel 13:23

ULT

23 Now a garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

UST

23 The Philistines sent some of their soldiers to guard the mountain pass outside Michmash.

1 Samuel 14

1 Samuel 14:1

ULT

1 And it happened one day that Jonathan, the son of Saul, said to the young man, the carrier of his equipment, “Come, and let us cross over to the garrison of the Philistines that {is} across from here.” But he did not declare {this} to his father.

UST

1 One day, Saul’s son Jonathan said to the young man who carried his weapons, “I want to attack the Philistine soldiers who are staying on the other side of the valley from us, and I want you to help me do that.” But Jonathan did not tell his father what he wanted to do.

What secret plan did Jonathan, the son of Saul, have?

Jonathan planned to cross over to the Philistines’ garrison, but he did not tell his father.

1 Samuel 14:2

ULT

2 Now Saul was staying at the edge of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree that {is} in Migron. And the people who {were} with him {were} about 600 men

UST

2 Saul was staying in the outskirts of the city of Gibeah, under the pomegranate tree in the neighborhood of Migron. He had about 600 soldiers with him.

What did the six hundred men with Saul not know? (vv2-3)

They did not know that Jonathan had gone.

1 Samuel 14:4

ULT

4 Now within the passes that Jonathan sought to pass through to the garrison of the Philistines {were} the tooth of a rock on the side from that and the tooth of a rock on the side from this. And the name of the one {was} Bozez, and the name of the {other} one {was} Seneh.

UST

4 Jonathan recognized a route that he and the young man could follow to cross through the valley that was between them and the Philistine army. But they would have to climb over a huge rock when they first went into the valley, and they would have to climb over another huge rock as they came out of it. People called one of the rocks Bozez, and they called the other rock Seneh.

1 Samuel 14:6

ULT

6 And Jonathan said to the young man, the carrier of his equipment, “Come, and let us cross over to the garrison of these uncircumcised! Perhaps Yahweh will act for us, for {there is} no hindrance to Yahweh to save by many or by few.”

UST

6 Jonathan said to the young man who carried his weapons, “Come with me. We will go to where those pagans have set up their tents. Perhaps Yahweh will help us. It does not matter to him that there are only two of us, rather than many soldiers. Yahweh can still enable us to defeat them.”

What proposal did Jonathan present to his young armor-bearer?

Jonathan proposed that they cross over to the garrison of the uncircumcised, because perhaps Yahweh would act for them.

1 Samuel 14:7

ULT

7 And the carrier of his equipment said to him, “Do all that {is} in your heart. Turn yourself; behold me, with you according to your heart.”

UST

7 The young man who was carrying Jonathan’s weapons said, “Go ahead and do what you are planning. Go across the valley, and I will come with you and help you do what you want to do.”

What was the armor-bearer’s response to the proposal?

Jonathan’s armor-bearer told him to do all that was in his heart and that he was with him and would help him in all that he wanted to do.

1 Samuel 14:8

ULT

8 And Jonathan said, “Behold, we will be crossing over to the men, and we will reveal ourselves to them.

UST

8 Then Jonathan said, “Very well then, come with me. As we are crossing the valley to where the Philistine army is, we will allow their soldiers to see us.

What would be the sign to Jonathan and his armor-bearer that Yahweh had given the Philistines into their hand? (vv8-10)

If the Philistines told them to come up to them, that would be the sign.

1 Samuel 14:9

ULT

9 If thus they say to us, ‘Wait until we reach you,’ then we will stand under us, and we will not go up to them.

UST

9 If they {see us and} call out to us, ‘You two stay there until we come down to you,’ we will stay where we are and not try to climb up and fight them.

1 Samuel 14:11

ULT

11 And the two of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, “Behold, Hebrews are coming out from the holes where they have hidden themselves there.”

UST

11 While the two of them were crossing the valley, the Philistine soldiers noticed them coming. They said to each other, “Look! Some Hebrews are crawling out of the holes in which they were hiding!”

What did Jonathan say to his armor-bearer after the Philistines told them to come up? (vv11-12)

He told his armor-bearer to follow him because Yahweh had given the Philistines into the hand of Israel.

1 Samuel 14:12

ULT

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and the carrier of his equipment and said, “Come up to us, and let us make you know a thing.” And Jonathan said to the carrier of his equipment, “Come up after me, for Yahweh has given them into the hand of Israel.”

UST

12 Then some Philistine soldiers called out to Jonathan and the young man who carried his weapons, “Come up here, and we will show you how real soldiers fight!” Jonathan said to the young man who was with him, “{Because they said that,} now we know that Yahweh is going to help us to defeat them! So let us climb up and fight them. I will go first.”

1 Samuel 14:13

ULT

13 And Jonathan went up on his hands and on his feet, and the carrier of his equipment {was} behind him. And they fell to the face of Jonathan, and the carrier of his equipment was killing behind him.

UST

13 So Jonathan climbed up out of the valley to the Philistine camp. He had to use both his hands and his feet because the ground was so steep. The young man climbed up after him. When Jonathan got to the top, he fought all the Philistine soldiers who approached him, and he killed them. The young man followed Jonathan into the camp of the Philistines, and he also fought and killed their soldiers.

What was the result of the attack that Jonathan and his armor-bearer made on the Philistine garrison? (vv13-14)

Jonathan and his armor-bearer killed about twenty men.

1 Samuel 14:14

ULT

14 And the first striking that Jonathan and the carrier of his equipment struck was about 20 men {in} about half of a furrow {of} a yoke of a field.

UST

14 In this initial attack, the two of them killed about 20 soldiers as they advanced about 30 meters into the Philistine camp.

1 Samuel 14:15

ULT

15 And {there} was trembling in the camp in the field and among all of the people. The garrison and the destroyer, even they trembled. And the earth quaked, and it became a trembling of God.

UST

15 This made the other Philistine soldiers in that camp panic. {When they ran back to the main camp at Michmash and described what happened}, the soldiers in the main camp also panicked. {When those soldiers told} soldiers in other camps and the groups of soldiers who were making raids, they also panicked. Then God caused the ground to shake, and all of them became even more afraid.

ULT

16 And the watchmen {who were} to Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and behold, the multitude was being melted and went, even here.

UST

16 Saul's soldiers in the city of Gibeah in the territory of Benjamin included lookouts. {When they heard the noise in the Philistine camp,} they looked to see what was happening. They saw that the Philistine army was dispersing and that its soldiers were running away in all directions.

What did Saul do when his watchmen saw the Philistine army dispersing? (vv16-17)

Saul had the people counted to see who was missing, and they discovered it was Jonathan and his armor-bearer.

1 Samuel 14:17

ULT

17 And Saul said to the people who {were} with him, "Muster, please, and see who has gone from with us." And they mustered, and behold, {there was} no Jonathan or the carrier of his equipment.

UST

17 {Saul realized that some of his soldiers must have attacked the Philistine army.} So he told his officers, "Check to see which of our soldiers are not here." So they checked, and they found that Jonathan and the young man who carried his weapons were not there.

1 Samuel 14:18

ULT

18 And Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring near the Box of God." For the Box of God was with the sons of Israel on that day.

UST

18 Now the Israelite army had the sacred chest with it at that time. So Saul told Ahijah the priest, "Bring the sacred chest here {so that I can use it to consult Yahweh}."

Why did Saul tell Ahijah the priest to bring the Box of God to him? (vv18-19)

Saul wanted to inquire of God, but he stopped because the tumult in the Philistine camp was increasing.

1 Samuel 14:19

ULT

19 And it happened, while Saul spoke to the priest, that the tumult that {was} in the camp of the Philistines, that going, it went and became great. And Saul said to the priest, “Withdraw your hand.”

UST

19 But while Saul was still talking to Ahijah, the noise coming from the Philistine camp kept getting louder. So Saul told him, “Stop what you are doing.”

1 Samuel 14:21

ULT

21 Now some Hebrews were to the Philistines according to yesterday and the third day who had gone up with them into the camp all around. But even they {became} to be with Israel who {was} with Saul and Jonathan.

UST

21 Some of the Hebrew soldiers had earlier deserted their army and joined the Philistine army. They were in different areas throughout the Philistine camp. But now those men helped Saul and Jonathan and the other Israelite soldiers fight against the Philistines.

Who rejoined the Israelites who had remained with Saul and Jonathan?

The Hebrews who had previously deserted to the Philistines in their camp rejoined the Israelites. Now those men helped Saul and Jonathan and the other Israelite soldiers fight against the Philistines.

1 Samuel 14:22

ULT

22 And all of the men of Israel having hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled, and they pursued after them, they too, in the battle.

UST

22 Some other Israelite soldiers had also deserted and hidden in the hilly area where the tribe of Ephraim lived. But when they heard that the Philistine soldiers were running away, they came and joined the other Israelite soldiers and also chased the Philistine soldiers.

ULT

23 And Yahweh saved Israel on that day. And the battle passed over Beth Aven.

UST

23 So Yahweh rescued the Israelites on that day. The Israelite soldiers chased the Philistines all the way to the city of Beth Aven and beyond it.

Who saved Israel that day?

Yahweh saved Israel that day.

1 Samuel 14:24

ULT

24 But the men of Israel were distressed on that day, for Saul had adjured the people, saying, “Cursed {is} the man who eats bread until the evening and I have taken vengeance on my enemies.” So all of the people had not tasted bread.

UST

24 But {the Israelites did not win as great a victory as they could have, because} the Israelite soldiers became weak {from hunger} that day. That was because Saul had made the soldiers swear something. He had made them all say, “May Yahweh make bad things happen to any of us who eats any food before this evening, before we get revenge on our enemies!” So none of the Israelite soldiers ate any food{, and this made them weak}.

What caused the men of Israel to be distressed and faint?

Saul had put the people under an oath, cursing any man who ate food before evening.

1 Samuel 14:25

ULT

25 And the whole land came into a forest, and honey was on the face of the ground.

UST

25 {As} the Israelite troops {kept pursuing the Philistines, they} went into a forest where bees had made honeycombs in the trees. Honey from those combs was flowing onto the ground.

1 Samuel 14:26

ULT

26 And the people came into the forest, and behold, the flowing of honey! But no one was reaching his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath.

UST

26 When the Israelite troops came into that forest, they saw the honey flowing. But because they were afraid of the curse that Saul had shouted out, none of them ate any of the honey.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 14:27

ULT

27 But Jonathan had not heard when his father adjured the people. So he extended the end of the staff that {was} in his hand, and he dipped it into a comb of honey. And he returned his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened.

UST

27 But {because he had left the camp early that morning,} Jonathan did not know that his father had made the soldiers swear that they would not eat any food before evening. So when he saw a honeycomb in a tree, he reached out with the end of the spear he was holding and collected some honey. He ate that honey, and it was evident from his appearance that afterward he felt stronger.

How did Jonathan unknowingly break the oath?

Jonathan, who had not heard the oath, ate some honey from a honeycomb.

1 Samuel 14:28

ULT

28 And a man from the people answered and said, “Adjuring, your father adjured the people, saying, ‘Cursed {is} the man who eats bread today.’ So the people are faint.”

UST

28 But one of the Israelite soldiers saw him eating the honey and said to him, “Your father made all the soldiers swear not to eat any food today. So {none of us has eaten anything, and as a result} we soldiers are weak.”

1 Samuel 14:29

ULT

29 And Jonathan said, “My father has troubled the land. See, please, that my eyes have brightened because I have tasted a little of this honey.

UST

29 Jonathan exclaimed, “My father has made things more difficult for the soldiers in our army! You can tell from my appearance that I feel stronger after eating some of this honey.

How was Jonathan critical of the oath his father had made? (vv29-30)

Jonathan said that if the people had been allowed to eat from the plunder of their enemies, the slaughter among the Philistines would have been greater.

1 Samuel 14:30

ULT

30 How much more that if eating, the people had eaten today from the plunder of their enemies that they found! For now the striking against the Philistines has not been great.”

1 Samuel 14:32

ULT

32 And the people swooped down upon the plunder, and they took flock and herd and sons of the herd, and they slaughtered {them} on the ground. And the people ate with the blood.

UST

32 The Israelites had captured many sheep and cattle, including their calves, that the Philistine soldiers had abandoned. {Because they were extremely hungry,} they acted like wild birds gobbling up the carcass of an animal. They butchered some of those animals right on the ground, and they ate the meat without first draining the blood from the animals.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 14:33

ULT

33 Then they declared to Saul, saying, “Behold, the people are sinning against Yahweh by eating with the blood!” And he said, “You have acted unfaithfully. Roll a great stone to me today.”

UST

33 One of the soldiers told Saul, “Look! The soldiers are eating meat that still has blood in it. Yahweh told us not to do that, so they are sinning!” Saul told all the soldiers, “You are breaking a law that Yahweh gave us when he made his agreement with us! Roll a large stone over here right now!”

How did the people of Israel sin against Yahweh after their battle against the Philistines? (vv33-34)

The people ate meat with the blood still in it.

1 Samuel 14:34

ULT

34 And Saul said, “Disperse among the people and say to them, ‘Bring to me, a man his ox and a man his sheep, and slaughter {them} here and eat. But you shall not sin against Yahweh by eating with the blood.’” And all of the people brought, a man his ox by his hand that night, and they slaughtered {them} there.

UST

34 {Some soldiers rolled over a large stone, and then} Saul told his officers, “Go around and tell all of our soldiers that each of them must bring any ox or sheep that they wish to eat here where I am. Each one must slaughter it on this large stone {and drain the blood. Then} he can eat the meat. They must not sin against Yahweh by eating meat from an animal without draining its blood.” So that evening each of the soldiers led the animals they wanted to eat over to the great stone, and there they slaughtered them {and drained the blood before eating them}.

1 Samuel 14:36

ULT

36 And Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines {by} night, and let us plunder them until the light of morning. And let us not leave a man among them.” And they said, “Do all of the good in your eyes.” But the priest said, “Let us draw near to God here.”

UST

36 Then Saul said to the Israelite soldiers, “We should chase the Philistine soldiers tonight. We can attack them all night long. We will not allow any of them to escape alive.” The Israelite soldiers answered, “We will do whatever you think is the best thing for us to do.” But Ahijah the priest said, “We should ask God what he wants us to.”

1 Samuel 14:37

ULT

37 And Saul inquired of God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you give them into the hand of Israel?” But he did not answer him on that day.

UST

37 So {with Ahijah’s help,} Saul asked God, “Should we keep chasing the Philistine soldiers? Will you enable us Israelites to defeat them?” But God did not answer Saul when he asked this.

What did Saul believe was the reason why he did not receive an answer when he inquired of God? (vv37-38)

Saul believed that God did not answer him on that day because someone had sinned.

1 Samuel 14:38

ULT

38 Then Saul said, “Come near here, all of the cornerstones of the people! And know and see by what this sin has happened today.

UST

38 Then Saul summoned all the leaders of his army. He said to them, “{Since God has not answered me,} we must carefully investigate how someone committed a sin today.

How did Saul say he would deal with the sin that had been committed? (vv38-39)

He said that the person who committed the sin would surely die, even if it was his son Jonathan.

1 Samuel 14:39

ULT

39 For, the life of Yahweh, the one having saved Israel, that {even} if it is by Jonathan my son, that dying, he shall die.” But {there was} no one answering him from all of the people.

1 Samuel 14:41

ULT

41 Then Saul said to Yahweh, the God of Israel, “Give a perfect {one}!” And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people went out.

UST

41 Then Saul prayed to Yahweh as the God whom the Israelites worshiped, “Please use this lot to show who has sinned.” Then the priest threw a lot, and it indicated that either Jonathan or Saul had sinned, not one of the other Israelite soldiers.

How was it determined that Jonathan was the person who had sinned? (vv41-42)

The priest threw a lot, and it indicated that either Jonathan or Saul had sinned, not one of the other Israelite soldiers. He threw the lot again, and the lot indicated that Jonathan had sinned.

1 Samuel 14:42

ULT

42 And Saul said, “Cause it to fall between me and between Jonathan my son.” And Jonathan was taken.

UST

42 Then Saul told the priest, “Throw the lot again to indicate which of us has sinned.” So he did, and the lot indicated that Jonathan had sinned.

1 Samuel 14:45

ULT

45 But the people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die, who has done this great salvation in Israel? Profane! The life of Yahweh, if from the hair of his head should fall to the ground! For he has done with God this day.” So the people redeemed Jonathan, and he did not die.

UST

45 But the Israelite soldiers said to Saul, “Jonathan has led all us Israelites to this great victory! So you must not execute him! That would be very wrong! Since Jonathan led us to this great victory by depending on God’s help, we swear by Yahweh that we will not allow you to harm him in any way.” By saying that, the Israelite soldiers persuaded Saul not to execute Jonathan.

How was Jonathan saved from death?

The people redeemed Jonathan and would not allow him to die because he had brought about a great salvation for Israel.

47 Now Saul had taken the kingship over Israel. And he fought with all of his enemies all around, with Moab and with the sons of Ammon and with Edom and with the kings of Zobah and with the Philistines. And upon all where he turned, he inflicted punishment.

UST

47 After Saul became the king of Israel, he fought against its enemies on every side. He fought against Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. Wherever the Israelite army fought, they badly defeated their enemies.

How did Saul lead Israel as their king? (vv47-48)

Saul fought against all his enemies on every side and rescued Israel from the hands of those who plundered them.

1 Samuel 14:48

ULT

48 And he did valor, and he struck Amalek. And he delivered Israel from the hand of its plunderers.

1 Samuel 14:52

ULT

52 And the battle was strong against the Philistines all of the days of Saul. When Saul saw any man, a warrior, or any son of valor, then he gathered him to himself.

UST

52 For the whole time that Saul was alive, his army had to fight hard against the Philistine army. So whenever Saul saw a skillful soldier or a strong man, he forced him to join his army.

1 Samuel 15:2

ULT

2 Thus says Yahweh of Armies, ‘I observed what Amalek did to Israel when he set against him in the way in his coming up from Egypt.

UST

2 Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, has declared this: ‘I am going to punish the descendants of Amalek for attacking the Israelite people when the Israelites left Egypt.

Why did Yahweh want Saul to attack and completely destroy Amalek? (vv2-3)

Yahweh wanted to punish Amalek for what he had done to Israel when he opposed them on the way up from Egypt.

1 Samuel 15:3

ULT

3 Now go and strike Amalek and devote all that {is} to him, and do not have compassion on him, but kill from man to woman, from child and to infant, from ox and to sheep, from camel and to donkey.’”

UST

3 So now go with your army and attack the Amalekites. Destroy all of the people and all of their possessions. Do not spare any of the people. Kill them all, even if they are women or young children {who cannot fight against you}. Do not spare any of the animals, even if you could use them for carrying things or for plowing or for wool and milk.’”

1 Samuel 15:5

ULT

5 Then Saul came to the city of Amalek, and he lay in ambush in the wadi.

UST

5 Then Saul led his army to the main city in which the Amalekites lived. The army hid in a valley so that they could attack them suddenly.

Why did Saul tell the Kenites to depart from the Amalekites? (vv5-7)

He warned the Kenites to move away because they had shown kindness to the people of Israel when they came up from Egypt. He did not want to kill them when he killed the Amalekites.

1 Samuel 15:6

ULT

6 And Saul said to the Kenite, “Go, depart, go down from the midst of the Amalekite, lest I remove you with him. For you, you did kindness with all of the sons of Israel in their coming up from Egypt.” And the Kenite departed from the midst of Amalek.

UST

6 But first Saul sent a message to the Kenites, who lived in that area. He told them, “Move away right now from where the Amalekites live. You acted kindly toward our Israelite ancestors when they left Egypt, and so we do not want to kill you when we kill them.” When the Kenites heard that, they immediately left the area where the Amalekites lived.

1 Samuel 15:8

ULT

8 Now he seized Agag, the king of Amalek, alive, but he devoted all of the people to the mouth of the sword.

UST

8 Saul's army killed all of those Amalekites as Yahweh had commanded. However, Saul told the soldiers not to kill Agag, the king of the Amalekites.

How did Saul disobey the directions that Yahweh had given to him? (vv8-9)

Saul spared King Agag and the best of the sheep, cattle, and lambs, and was not willing to devote them to destruction as Yahweh had commanded.

1 Samuel 15:9

ULT

9 But Saul and the people had compassion on Agag and on the best of the sheep and the cattle and the second ones and on the lambs and on all of the good, and they were not willing to devote them. But all of the despised and weakened property, they devoted it.

UST

9 So Saul and his soldiers spared Agag. They also spared the best animals in the Amalekites' flocks and herds. They looked for special animals and ones that would taste delicious. They kept animals like that and only destroyed animals that they considered to be worthless.

1 Samuel 15:10

ULT

10 And the word of Yahweh was to Samuel, saying,

UST

10 Then Yahweh said to Samuel,

Why did Yahweh regret that he had made Saul king? (vv10-11)

Yahweh regretted making Saul king because Saul had turned from following him and was no longer obedient to him.

1 Samuel 15:11

ULT

11 “I regret that I have made Saul reign as king, for he has turned from after me and has not raised up my words.” And it was hot to Samuel, and he cried out to Yahweh all of the night.

UST

11 “Saul has not done what I told him to do, and that shows that he is no longer obedient to me. As a result, I am sorry that I appointed Saul to be your king.” But when Samuel heard this, he became very upset. He prayed hard to Yahweh all that night to try to get him to change his mind.

1 Samuel 15:12

ULT

12 And Samuel arose early in the morning to meet Saul. And it was declared to Samuel, saying, “Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he was setting up a hand for himself, then he turned and passed on and went down {to} Gilgal.”

UST

12 Samuel got started early the next morning so that he could go and speak with Saul. Someone told Samuel, “Saul went to the city of Carmel. He did that to set up a monument in his own honor. Then he left there and went to Gilgal.”

What lie did Saul tell Samuel? (vv12-13)

Saul told Samuel that he had obeyed what Yahweh told him to do.

1 Samuel 15:13

ULT

13 And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, “{May} you {be} blessed by Yahweh! I have raised up the word of Yahweh.”

UST

13 When Samuel {arrived at Gilgal} and approached Saul, Saul said, “May Yahweh bless you! I have obeyed what Yahweh told me to do.”

14 And Samuel said, “Then what {is} this sound of a flock in my ears? And the sound of cattle that I am hearing?”

UST

14 But Samuel replied, “If that is true, then I should not be hearing sheep bleating or cattle mooing, but I am!”

How did Samuel respond to the lie that Saul had told him?

Samuel asked about the bleating of sheep and the lowing of cattle that he was hearing.

1 Samuel 15:15

ULT

15 And Saul said, “They have brought them from the Amalekite. For the people had compassion on the best of the flock and the cattle, to sacrifice {them} to Yahweh your God. But the remainder, we devoted.”

UST

15 Saul replied, “The soldiers wanted to save the best sheep and cattle so they could offer them as sacrifices to Yahweh, your God. So they took these animals from the Amalekites and brought them here. But we completely destroyed all the other animals that the Amalekites had.”

What excuse did Saul give to Samuel to explain his disobedience?

He said the people had spared the best of the sheep and cattle so they could sacrifice them to Yahweh.

1 Samuel 15:16

ULT

16 And Samuel said to Saul, “Stop, and let me declare to you what Yahweh spoke to me this night.” And he said to him, “Speak.”

UST

16 Samuel said to Saul, “Stop talking! Allow me to tell you what Yahweh said to me last night.” Saul replied, “Tell me what he said.”

17 And Samuel said, “{Is it} not, if you {were} small in your eyes, you {are} the head of the tribes of Israel? For Yahweh has anointed you as king over Israel.

UST

17 Samuel said, “Previously you did not think that you were important. But Yahweh appointed you to be the king of Israel, so now you have become the leader of all the tribes of Israel.

How did Samuel rebuke Saul? (vv17-19)

He told Saul that Yahweh had sent him to devote the sinners, the Amalekites, to destruction, but instead he had swooped down on the plunder and done evil.

1 Samuel 15:18

ULT

18 And Yahweh sent you on your way, and he said, ‘Go, and you shall devote the sinners, Amalek. And you shall fight with him until the finishing of them.’

UST

18 And Yahweh sent you to do something for him. He told you, ‘Go and get rid of all those Amalekites who sinned against me. Attack them and kill all of them.’

19 So you should have done what Yahweh told you to do! You should not have greedily taken for yourself what the Amalekites had {instead of destroying it}! You have done something that Yahweh considers to be evil."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 15:20

ULT

20 But Saul said to Samuel that, "I have listened to the voice of Yahweh, and I have gone on the way that Yahweh sent me. And I have brought Agag, the king of Amalek, and I have devoted Amalek.

UST

20 Saul replied to Samuel, "But I did do what Yahweh sent me to do! While it is true that I brought back the Amalekite king Agag, I and my soldiers killed all the other Amalekites!

What excuse did Saul repeat to Samuel? (vv20-21)

Saul insisted that he had obeyed, but that the people brought back the best of the plunder to sacrifice to Yahweh at Gilgal.

1 Samuel 15:21

ULT

21 And the people took from the plunder sheep and cattle, the first of the devoted thing, to sacrifice to Yahweh your God at Gilgal."

UST

21 And my men brought back only the best of the sheep and cattle and other things so that we could sacrifice them to Yahweh your God once we got here to Gilgal."

1 Samuel 15:22

ULT

22 And Samuel said, “{Is} the delight of Yahweh in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in listening to the voice of Yahweh? Behold, listening {is} better than sacrifice, to pay attention than the fat of rams.

UST

22 But Samuel replied, “It pleases Yahweh more when people do what he tells them to do than when they completely burn animals as sacrifices to him and offer him other kinds of sacrifices. It is much better to obey Yahweh than to offer sacrifices to him. It is better to pay attention to what he says {and do it} than to burn the fat of rams as a sacrifice to him.

What was Samuel’s response to Saul? (vv22-23)

Samuel said that to obey is better than sacrifice, and that rebellion is as the sin of divination, and because Saul rejected Yahweh’s word, Yahweh rejected him as king.

1 Samuel 15:23

ULT

23 For rebellion {is} the sin of divination, and to insist {is} iniquity and teraphim. Because you have rejected the word of Yahweh, he has rejected you from {being} king.”

UST

23 To rebel against God is as sinful as doing sorcery, and stubbornly resisting his correction is as sinful as worshiping idols. You have disobeyed what Yahweh told you to do, and as a result, he has decided that you will no longer be king.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 15:24

ULT

24 And Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned. For I have crossed over the mouth of Yahweh and your words, because I feared the people and listened to their voice.

UST

24 Then Saul said to Samuel, “I admit that I have sinned. I disobeyed what you told me Yahweh had commanded. I did that because I was afraid of what the soldiers would do to me if I did not give them what they wanted.

What reason did Saul give Samuel for his sin?

Saul said he had disobeyed Yahweh’s command because he was afraid of the people, and so he listened to their voice.

1 Samuel 15:25

ULT

25 But now, please take away my sin and return with me so I may worship Yahweh.”

UST

25 But please forgive me for sinning. Come back with me {and sacrifice some of these animals yourself} so that I can worship Yahweh.”

What declaration did Samuel give to Saul from Yahweh? (vv25-26)

Samuel said that Yahweh had rejected Saul from being king over Israel because Saul had rejected the word of Yahweh.

1 Samuel 15:26

ULT

26 But Samuel said to Saul, “I will not return with you. For you have rejected the word of Yahweh, so Yahweh has rejected you from {being} king over Israel.”

UST

26 But Samuel replied, “No, I will not go back with you. You have chosen to disobey what Yahweh commanded you to do. So he has decided that you will no longer be the king of Israel.

27 And Samuel turned to go, but he seized the edge of his robe, and it was torn.

UST

27 Then Samuel turned to leave, Saul tried to stop him by grabbing the edge of his robe, and when he did that, he tore off a piece of it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 15:28

ULT

28 And Samuel said to him, “Yahweh has torn the kingdom of Israel from upon you today, and he has given it to your fellow, {one} better than you.

UST

28 Samuel said to him, “{You have taken this piece away from my robe, and in the same way,} Yahweh has now taken the kingship of Israel away from you. He is going to make another Israelite king instead of you. That other Israelite is a better man than you are.

To whom was Yahweh going to give the kingdom of Israel?

Samuel told Saul that Yahweh was going to give the kingdom to one of Saul’s neighbors, an Israelite who was a better man than Saul.

1 Samuel 15:29

ULT

29 For indeed the Glory of Israel does not lie and does not change his mind. For he {is} not a man, to change his mind.”

UST

29 You can be sure of this because when the glorious God whom the Israelite people worship says something, he means it and he will not change his mind about it. Humans sometimes change their minds, but God does not do that, because he is not a human.”

32 And Samuel said, “Bring Agag, the king of Amalek, to me.” And Agag went to him {in} bonds. And Agag said, “Surely the bitterness of death has turned aside.”

UST

32 Then Samuel said, “Bring the Amalekite king Agag to me.” So they brought Agag to him. They had tied him up as a prisoner. Agag was thinking, “{Now that Samuel is here,} I am sure that the Israelites are not going to execute me painfully.”

What did Samuel do to finish the task that Saul had not done? (vv32-33)

Samuel hacked King Agag to pieces before Yahweh.

1 Samuel 15:33

ULT

33 But Samuel said, “Just as your sword has made women childless, so your mother will be childless among women.” And Samuel hacked Agag to pieces to the face of Yahweh at Gilgal.

UST

33 But Samuel said to him, “You have led armies that have killed the sons of many women with their swords. So now your mother will no longer have a son as other women do.” Then Samuel chopped Agag into pieces with his sword. He did that at Gilgal, where the Israelites worshiped Yahweh.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 16

1 Samuel 16:1

ULT

1 And Yahweh said to Samuel, “Until when will you be mourning for Saul, since I myself have rejected him from {being} king over Israel? Fill your horn {with} oil and go. I am sending you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have seen among his sons a king for me.”

UST

1 Finally, Yahweh said to Samuel, “You know that I have decided not to allow Saul to continue to be the king of Israel. So you should not keep feeling sad for him. I have recognized that one of the sons of the man whose name is Jesse who lives in the town of Bethlehem will make a good king. So I am sending you there {to pour oil on the head of that son to show this}. Now put some olive oil in a small container and go there.”

Why did Yahweh tell Samuel to stop mourning for Saul?

Yahweh told him to stop because he had rejected Saul from being king over Israel.

1 Samuel 16:2

ULT

2 But Samuel said, “How shall I go? If Saul hears, then he will kill me.” So Yahweh said, “Take a heifer of cattle in your hand and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh.’

UST

2 But Samuel said, “I am afraid to go. If Saul hears that I have appointed someone else to be king, he will kill me.” Yahweh answered, “Take with you a female cow that has not yet given birth, and tell the people of Bethlehem that you have come to offer it as a sacrifice to me.

What did Samuel fear would happen if Saul heard he was going to Bethlehem?

He feared that Saul would kill him.

1 Samuel 16:3

ULT

3 And invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I myself will make you know what you shall do. And you shall anoint for me whom I say to you."

UST

3 Invite Jesse to come to the sacrifice. {When he comes,} I will show you what to do. I will tell you which of his sons I have chosen to be the king, and I want you to pour the olive oil on his head {to indicate that I have chosen him to be the king}."

How did Yahweh say that Samuel would know whom to anoint?

Yahweh told Samuel that he would show him what to do and that Samuel should anoint the one Yahweh told him to anoint.

1 Samuel 16:4

ULT

4 And Samuel did what Yahweh had spoken, and he came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city trembled to meet him, and they said, "{Is} your coming {in} peace?"

UST

4 Samuel did what Yahweh told him to do. He went to Bethlehem. When the town leaders saw him coming, they were very afraid. One of them asked him, "Have you come here to speak peacefully with us?"

How did the elders of Bethlehem act when Samuel arrived?

They came trembling to meet him and asked if his coming was in peace.

1 Samuel 16:5

ULT

5 And he said, "{In} peace. I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." And he consecrated Jesse and his sons, and he invited them to the sacrifice.

UST

5 Samuel replied, "Yes. I have come peacefully, to make a sacrifice to Yahweh. {Wash your bodies and your clothes in order to} devote yourselves to Yahweh in a special way, and then come with me to where we will offer this cow as a sacrifice." Then Samuel invited Jesse and his sons to come to the sacrifice as well, and he helped them prepare themselves to participate.

1 Samuel 16:6

ULT

6 And it happened, in their coming, that he saw Eliab and said, “Surely his anointed one {is} before Yahweh.”

UST

6 When Jesse and his sons arrived at the place where Samuel was going to offer the sacrifice, Samuel looked at {Jesse’s oldest son} Eliab, and thought, “This must be the man whom Yahweh wants me to anoint as the next king!”

What did Samuel think when he looked at Eliab?

He thought that surely Yahweh’s anointed one was standing before him.

1 Samuel 16:7

ULT

7 But Yahweh said to Samuel, “Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, for I have rejected him. For not what man sees, for man looks at the eyes, but Yahweh looks at the heart.”

UST

7 But Yahweh said to Samuel, “Yes, Eliab is handsome and very tall, but this should not impress you, since he is not the one I have chosen. I do not evaluate people as humans do. Humans evaluate people by their appearances, but I evaluate people by their character.”

How did Yahweh explain that he does not see as a human sees?

Yahweh said that a human looks on the outward appearance, but Yahweh looks on the heart.

1 Samuel 16:8

ULT

8 Then Jesse called for Abinadab and made him pass over to the face of Samuel, but he said, “Yahweh has also not chosen this {one}.”

1 Samuel 16:10

ULT

10 And Jesse made seven of his sons pass over to the face of Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, “Yahweh has not chosen among these.”

UST

10 Similarly, Jesse told the other four of his sons who were present to come and walk past Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, “Yahweh has not chosen any of these sons of yours.”

What did Samuel say to Jesse after seven of his sons passed before him?

Samuel said that Yahweh had not chosen any of them.

1 Samuel 16:11

ULT

11 So Samuel said to Jesse, “Are your young men complete?” And he said, “The youngest still remains, but behold, he is tending among the flock.” And Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and get him, for we will not go around until he comes here.”

UST

11 Then Samuel asked Jesse, “Are these all of your sons?” Jesse replied, “My youngest son is not here. That is because he is out in the pasture taking care of the sheep.” Samuel told Jesse, “We will only sit down to eat once he has joined us. So send someone to bring him here.”

Where was Jesse’s youngest son before Samuel called for him?

The youngest son was out in the pasture tending the flock of sheep.

1 Samuel 16:12

ULT

12 So he sent and brought him. Now he {was} ruddy, with beautiful eyes and a good appearance. And Yahweh said, “Arise, anoint him, for this {is} he.”

UST

12 So Jesse sent someone to get David and bring him there. When David arrived, Samuel saw that he was a healthy, handsome young man with beautiful eyes. Then Yahweh said, “This is the one whom I have chosen. So anoint him to be king.”

1 Samuel 16:13

ULT

13 And Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the Spirit of Yahweh rushed upon David from that day and onward. And Samuel arose and went to Ramah.

UST

13 So as David stood there with his {older} brothers around him, Samuel took the container of oil that he had brought and poured some of it on David’s head {to indicate that Yahweh had chosen him to be the next king}. Immediately the Spirit of Yahweh began to influence David powerfully, and the Spirit continued to influence him from then on. {After they had shared a meal together with the meat from the heifer}, Samuel left and went back home to Ramah.

What happened to David after Samuel anointed him?

The Spirit of Yahweh rushed upon David from that day forward.

1 Samuel 16:14

ULT

14 Now the Spirit of Yahweh turned from with Saul, and a bad spirit from with Yahweh terrified him.

UST

14 But Yahweh’s Spirit no longer influenced Saul. Instead, Yahweh sent a troubling spirit that made Saul afraid.

What spirit troubled Saul after the Spirit of Yahweh had turned away from him?

A bad spirit from Yahweh terrified him.

1 Samuel 16:15

ULT

15 And the servants of Saul said to him, “ “Behold, please, a bad spirit from God is terrifying you.

UST

15 His servants said to him, “It is evident that God has now sent a troubling spirit that is making you afraid.

ULT

16 May our master please say to your servants to your face, ‘Seek a man knowing playing upon the lyre.’ And it will happen, when the bad spirit from God is upon you, that he will play by his hand, and it will be good for you.”

UST

16 So we suggest that you allow us, your servants here, to search for a man who plays the harp well. He can play the harp whenever that troubling spirit bothers you. Then you will calm down.”

What did Saul’s servants suggest a skillful player on the lyre could do for him?

When the bad spirit was on Saul, the person would play the lyre, and would calm down.

1 Samuel 16:17

ULT

17 And Saul said to his servants, “Please look for a man for me being good at playing, and bring him to me.”

19 So Saul sent messengers to Jesse. And he said, “Send to me David your son, who {is} with the flock.”

UST

19 So Saul sent some messengers to Jesse. He told them to say to Jesse, “Send your son David to me, the one who takes care of your sheep.”

Which of Jesse’s sons did Saul ask to have sent to him?

Saul asked Jesse to send his son David, who was with the flock.

1 Samuel 16:20

ULT

20 So Jesse took a donkey, bread, and a skin of wine and one kid of goats, and he sent {them} by the hand of David his son to Saul.

UST

20 {When the messengers came and asked Jesse to send his son David to Saul, he agreed.} Jesse got some loaves of bread, a container of wine, and a young goat. He put them on a donkey that would carry them, and he gave them to David to take to Saul as a present.

1 Samuel 16:21

ULT

21 And David came to Saul, and he stood to his face. And he loved him greatly, and he became to him a carrier of equipment.

UST

21 Then David went to Saul and started to work for him. Saul liked David very much, and he became the man who carried Saul’s weapons when Saul went to fight in battles.

What assignment did Saul give David because he loved him greatly?

Saul made David his armor-bearer.

1 Samuel 16:22

ULT

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, “Please let David stand to my face, for he has found favor in my eyes.”

UST

22 Then Saul sent messengers to say to Jesse, “I am very pleased with David. So please let him stay here and work for me.” {And Jesse agreed.}

1 Samuel 17:25

ULT

25 And the men of Israel said, “Have you seen this man coming up? Indeed {he is} coming up to taunt Israel! And it will be, the man who strikes him, the king will make him wealthy {with} great wealth, and he will give his daughter to him, and he will make the house of his father free in Israel.”

UST

25 The soldiers were saying to each other, “See how this man defiantly approaches us! And hear how he mocks us Israelite soldiers! The king has said that he will give a huge reward to whoever kills this man. He also says that he will allow that man to marry his daughter, and that he will no longer require that man’s family to pay taxes or do unpaid work for the Israelite kingdom.”

What would the king do for the man who killed Goliath?

The king would enrich the man with great wealth, give him his daughter in marriage, and no longer require that man’s family to pay taxes or do unpaid work for the Israelite kingdom.

1 Samuel 17:26

ULT

26 And David spoke to the men standing with him, saying, “What will be done for the man who strikes this Philistine and turns away the disgrace from upon Israel? For who {is} this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should taunt the arrays of the living God?”

UST

26 David talked with some of the men who were standing near him. He said, “This Philistine is a mere pagan. He should not be mocking soldiers who worship the only true God. Please confirm for me what the king will give to the soldier who kills this Philistine and stops him from shaming us Israelites.”

What did David say the man who killed the Philistine would take away from Israel?

The man who killed the Philistine would turn away the disgrace from Israel.

1 Samuel 17:27

ULT

27 And the people spoke to him like this word, saying, “Thus it will be done for the man who strikes him.”

UST

27 Those men told him the same thing that the other men had said about what the king would do for anyone who killed Goliath.

1 Samuel 17:28

ULT

28 Now Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men. And the nose of Eliab burned against David, and he said, “Why {is} this, you have come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I myself know your presumption and the evil of your heart, for you have come down in order to see the battle!”

UST

28 But when David’s oldest brother Eliab heard David talking to the men, he became very angry with him. He said to David, “You should not have come here! You are supposed to be watching our father’s small flock of sheep, but I imagine you left them alone in a desolate pastureland. I know you think you have a right to be here, but you do not. You do not have good motives. You came because you want to watch the battle!”

What did Eliab accuse David of having in his heart?

Eliab accused David of presumption and evil in his heart, saying David's motive for coming was to watch the battle.

1 Samuel 18:5

ULT

5 And David went out. In all that Saul sent him, he succeeded. And Saul set him over the men of war. And he was good in the eyes of all of the people and also in the eyes of the servants of Saul.

UST

5 David then fought battles as Saul directed him. Whatever Saul told him to do, David did it very successfully. As a result, Saul appointed David as a commander in the army. The people of Israel, and especially the ones who served Saul directly, admired David greatly.

Over whom did Saul set David?

Saul set him over the men of war.

1 Samuel 18:6

ULT

6 And it happened, when they came, when David returned from striking the Philistine, that the women came out from all of the cities of Israel to sing and the dances to meet Saul the king with tambourines, with joy, and with triples.

UST

6 One time, David and the troops he was commanding defeated a Philistine army and killed many of its soldiers. Then he returned to Israel with the rest of the Israelite army. Women came out from many Israelite cities and towns to greet King Saul {and all the soldiers}. They were singing and dancing very happily, and they were playing tambourines and lyres.

1 Samuel 18:7

ULT

7 And the women celebrating sang and said, “Saul has struck his thousands, and David his myriads.”

UST

7 To celebrate, the women sang this song: “Saul has killed thousands of enemy soldiers, And David has killed tens of thousands of them!”

What had the singers’ song ascribed to David that displeased Saul? (vv7-8)

They ascribed to David myriads, but they had ascribed only thousands to Saul.

1 Samuel 18:8

ULT

8 And it burned greatly to Saul, and this thing was bad in his eyes. And he said, “They have given myriads to David, but to me they have given thousands. And only the kingship is yet for him!”

UST

8 When Saul heard the women singing that, he did not like it at all. He became very angry. He said to himself, “They are saying that David has killed tens of thousands of enemy soldiers. But they are only saying that I have killed thousands of them. The only greater honor they could give him would be to make him the king instead of me!”

1 Samuel 18:9

ULT

9 And it happened that Saul was eyeing David from that day and beyond.

UST

9 From that time on, Saul watched David very closely {because he was suspicious that David would try to become king}.

1 Samuel 18:10

ULT

10 And it happened on the next day that a bad spirit from God rushed upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house. And David was playing by his hand, as day by day. And a spear {was} in the hand of Saul.

UST

10 The next day, a troubling spirit that God sent suddenly began to affect Saul. He began to act like a crazy person inside his house. David was playing the lyre for him, as he often did. Saul was holding his royal spear.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 18:11

ULT

11 And Saul hurled the spear, and he said, “I will strike David, and into the wall!” But David turned from his face two times.

UST

11 Saul thought, “I can throw my spear so hard at David that it will go through him into the wall behind him and pin him there!” Saul threw his spear at David twice, but David jumped aside both times.

What did Saul think as he threw the spear at David?

Saul thought that he would strike David and pin him to the wall.

1 Samuel 18:12

ULT

12 And Saul was afraid from the face of David. For Yahweh was with him, but he had turned from with Saul.

UST

12 Saul realized that Yahweh was no longer helping him. He realized that Yahweh was now helping David. This made Saul afraid of David.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 18:13

ULT

13 So Saul removed him from with him and made him a commander of a thousand for himself. And he went out and came in to the face of the people.

UST

13 So Saul tried to make sure that David would not be near him. He made David the commander of a thousand of his soldiers. Then David had to lead those soldiers out on military campaigns.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 18:14

ULT

14 And David was succeeding in all of his ways, for Yahweh {was} with him.

UST

14 But Yahweh helped David, so David won all of the battles that he fought.

Why did David succeed in all his ways?

David succeeded because Yahweh was with him.

1 Samuel 18:15

ULT

15 And Saul saw that he was succeeding greatly. And he dreaded from his face.

UST

15 When Saul heard how successful David and his soldiers were, he became very afraid even to be in the same place as David.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 18:16

ULT

16 But all of Israel and Judah were loving David, for he was going out and coming in to their face.

UST

16 But because David was leading their soldiers very successfully in battles, all the people of Israel and of Judah loved David.

1 Samuel 18:17

ULT

17 And Saul said to David, “Behold my older daughter Merab. I will give her to you for a wife. Only be for me a son of valor and fight the battles of Yahweh.” And Saul said, “Let not my hand be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him.”

UST

17 One day Saul said to David, “I want to talk to you about my older daughter Merab. I will allow you to marry her if you serve me bravely by fighting battles for Yahweh {against the Philistines}.” Saul said that because he thought, “I will not try to kill David myself. I will have the Philistines kill him.”

What did Saul hope would happen to David if he fought the Philistines?

Saul hoped the Philistines would kill David.

1 Samuel 18:18

ULT

18 But David said to Saul, “Who {am} I, and what {is} my family, the clan of my father in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?”

UST

18 But David said to Saul, “I do not have the standing to become your son-in-law. I am not a very important person, and I come from a family that does not belong to an important Israelite clan.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 18:19

ULT

19 And it happened, at the time to give Merab, the daughter of Saul to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite for a wife.

UST

19 So at the time when Saul would have allowed David to marry his daughter Merab, instead he allowed a different man to marry her. This man was from the town of Meholah and his name was Adriel.

1 Samuel 18:20

ULT

20 But Michal, the daughter of Saul, loved David. And they declared to Saul, and the thing was right in his eyes.

UST

20 However, Saul's other daughter, Michal, fell in love with David. When someone told Saul about that, he was pleased.

What did Saul think his daughter Michal would be for David if Saul gave her to him? (vv20-21)

Saul thought she could be a snare for David.

1 Samuel 18:21

ULT

21 And Saul said, "I will give her to him, that she may be a snare for him and the hand of the Philistines may be against him." So Saul said to David for a second {time}, "You may make yourself a son-in-law of mine today."

UST

21 Saul thought, "I will promise to give Michal to him as his wife, but I will do that in order to trap him. {I will make him fight dangerously against the Philistines in order to marry her,} and this will enable the Philistines to kill him." So Saul told David once again that he could become his son-in-law right away.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 18:22

ULT

22 And Saul commanded his servants, “Speak to David in secrecy, saying, ‘Behold, the king delights in you, and all of his servants love you. And now, make yourself a son-in-law of the king.’”

UST

22 Saul told his servants, “Talk to David privately and tell him, ‘Listen, the king is pleased with you. All of us who serve him love you. So we think that you should marry Michal and become the king’s son-in-law.’”

How did Saul command his servants to speak with David about becoming the king’s son-in-law?

He commanded his servants to speak with David privately.

1 Samuel 18:23

ULT

23 And the servants of Saul spoke these words in the ears of David. And David said, “Does it seem light in your eyes to make oneself a son-in-law of the king? And I {am} a poor man, and I am lightly esteemed.”

UST

23 So they said those things to David. But David replied, “It would be a great honor for anyone to become the king’s son-in-law. But {I do not think that I should do that, because} I am only a poor and insignificant man.”

Why did David think he was not worthy to be the king’s son-in-law?

He said he was a poor and insignificant man.

1 Samuel 18:24

ULT

24 And the servants of Saul declared to him, saying, “Like these words David spoke.”

UST

24 Saul’s servants came back and told him what David had said.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 18:25

ULT

25 And Saul said, “Thus you shall say to David, ‘{There is} no desire to the king for a bride-price except for a hundred foreskins of Philistines, to be avenged against the enemies of the king.’” (Now Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.)

UST

25 Saul replied, “Go and tell David, ‘The king does not want you to pay him a large amount of money in order to marry Michal. All he wants you to do is kill a hundred Philistine soldiers and bring back their foreskins. In that way, he will get revenge on his enemies.’” But what Saul really wanted was for the Philistines to kill David while he was trying to kill them.

What was the only bride-price the king desired from David?

The king desired one hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

1 Samuel 18:26

ULT

26 And his servants declared these words to David, and the thing was right in the eyes of David, to make himself son-in-law of the king. And the days were not full,

UST

26 When the servants told that to David, he was very pleased that he could become the king’s son-in-law by doing that. Saul gave David a time limit. Within that time,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 18:27

ULT

27 and David arose and went, he and his men, and he struck two hundred men among the Philistines. And David brought their foreskins, and they filled them to the king, to make himself son-in-law of the king. And Saul gave Michal, his daughter, to him for a wife.

UST

27 David and his men went into battle and killed two hundred Philistine soldiers. He brought back their foreskins. Saul’s officials counted them all while Saul was watching. This proved that David had done what Saul had required for him to become his son-in-law. So Saul allowed David to marry his daughter Michal.

What did David and his men do that exceeded the king’s requested bride-price?

David and his men struck two hundred Philistines and brought their foreskins to the king.

1 Samuel 18:28

ULT

28 And Saul saw and knew that Yahweh {was} with David and {that} Michal, the daughter of Saul, loved him,

UST

28 But when Saul realized that Yahweh was helping David and that his own daughter Michal truly loved David,

1 Samuel 18:30

ULT

30 And the commanders of the Philistines came out, and it happened that, whenever they came out, David was more successful than all of the servants of Saul, and his name became greatly precious.

UST

30 The Philistine commanders kept leading their armies to fight against the Israelites, but every time they fought, David and his soldiers were more successful than any of Saul's other army commanders. As a result, David earned an excellent reputation.

How great was David's success, so that he earned an excellent reputation?

David was more successful than any of Saul's other army commanders.

1 Samuel 19

1 Samuel 19:1

ULT

1 And Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all of his servants to kill David. But Jonathan, the son of Saul, delighted greatly in David,

UST

1 Then Saul urged all his officers and his son Jonathan to kill David. But Jonathan liked David very much.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 19:2

ULT

2 so Jonathan declared to David, saying, “Saul my father is seeking to kill you. And now, please guard yourself in the morning and stay in a secret place and hide yourself.

UST

2 So he warned David, “My father Saul is looking for a way to kill you. So please be very careful. Tomorrow morning, find a place to hide {in the field} and do not come out {unless I tell you it is safe}.

Why did Jonathan tell David to be on his guard and hide himself?

Jonathan told him to be very careful because his father was seeking to kill David.

1 Samuel 19:3

ULT

3 And I myself will go out and stand at the hand of my father in the field where you {are} there, and I myself will speak about you to my father, and I will see what, and I will declare to you.”

UST

3 I will ask my father to go out with me into the field where you are hiding. While we are there, I will talk to him about you. I will find out what he intends to do to you. Then I will tell you everything I learn.” {So David did what Jonathan told him to do.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 19:4

ULT

4 And Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father, and he said to him, “May the king not sin against his servant, against David, for he has not sinned against you, but surely his deeds {have been} very good for you.

UST

4 The next morning, Jonathan spoke with his father Saul {in the field}. He said many good things about David. He told his father, “Please do not do anything to harm David, who serves you faithfully. That would be a sin. David has never done anything to harm you. Everything he has done has helped you very much.

What did Jonathan tell Saul that David’s deeds had been for him?

Jonathan told Saul that David’s deeds had been very good for him.

1 Samuel 19:5

ULT

5 And he put his life in his palm and struck the Philistine, and Yahweh made a great salvation for all of Israel. You saw and rejoiced. So why would you sin against innocent blood by killing David without cause?”

UST

5 He risked his life when he fought against Goliath, the great soldier of the Philistine army. By enabling David to kill him, Yahweh won a great victory for all the people of Israel. You were very happy when you saw that. There is no reason for you to kill David. You should not do that. It would be sinning by killing an innocent man.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 19:6

ULT

6 And Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan, and Saul swore, “The life of Yahweh, he shall not be killed”

UST

6 What Jonathan said persuaded Saul. Saul swore by Yahweh that he would not kill David.

What did Saul swear after listening to Jonathan?

Saul swore that as Yahweh lives, David would not be killed.

1 Samuel 19:7

ULT

7 And Jonathan called to David, and Jonathan declared to him all of these words. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was to his face as yesterday and the third day.

UST

7 {Then Saul left, and} Jonathan called to David {to come out of his hiding place}. Jonathan told him that Saul had sworn he would not kill him. Then Jonathan brought David back to Saul, and David served Saul personally as he had done before.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 19:8

ULT

8 And there resumed to be war, and David went out and fought with the Philistines, and he struck a great striking against them, and they fled from his face.

UST

8 But then the Philistines attacked the Israelites again. David led his soldiers to fight against the Philistine army. David's soldiers killed many of the Philistine soldiers, and as a result, the rest of the Philistine army ran away.

What happened when David again went out and fought with the Philistines?

David's soldiers killed many of the Philistine soldiers, and as a result, the rest of the Philistine army ran away.

1 Samuel 19:9

ULT

9 And a bad spirit from Yahweh came upon Saul, and he was sitting in his house, and his spear {was} in his hand, and David was playing by hand.

UST

9 {This made Saul very jealous again. As a result,} one day when Saul was sitting in his house, the troubling spirit that Yahweh had sent began to distress him again. Saul was holding his royal spear, and David was playing the harp for him.

1 Samuel 19:11

ULT

11 And Saul sent messengers to the house of David to watch him and to kill him in the morning. And Michal his wife declared to David, saying, “If you are not rescuing your life tonight, tomorrow you will be being killed.”

UST

11 Then Saul sent some soldiers to David’s house. He told them to see whether David was in the house and to kill him when he left the house the following morning. But David’s wife Michal {knew about this and} warned him. She told him, “In order to save your life, you must run away tonight. If you do not do that, some soldiers will kill you tomorrow!”

Why did Saul send messengers to David’s house to watch him?

Saul wanted them to kill David in the morning.

1 Samuel 19:12

ULT

12 And Michal lowered David through the window. And he went and fled and rescued himself.

UST

12 Then she lowered David out a window {since the soldiers were watching the door}, and he escaped by running away from the house.

How did Michal help David to flee and escape?

Michal lowered David out a window since soldiers were watching the door.

1 Samuel 19:13

ULT

13 And Michal took the teraphim and put {it} on the bed. And she put a weaving of goats at its head, and she covered {it} with clothing.

UST

13 Then Michal took a large statue that was in the house and put it in the bed. She covered it with David's cloak {as if he were sleeping under his cloak as a blanket}, and she put some goat's hair around the head of the statue {to make it look like a human head}.

1 Samuel 19:14

ULT

14 And Saul sent messengers to take David. But she said, "He {is} sick."

UST

14 {The soldiers did not see David leaving the house in the morning, so they reported that to Saul.} Saul then sent soldiers to {enter the house and} bring David back to him. But {when they came to the door,} Michal told them that David was {so} sick {that he could not get out of bed}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 19:15

ULT

15 So Saul sent messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed to kill him."

UST

15 {When the soldiers reported that,} Saul told them to enter David's house and see whether he was really sick. He told them, "{If you have to,} pick up the whole bed he is lying on and use that to carry him back here to me. That way I can kill him!"

What did Saul plan to do when he ordered his messengers to bring David to him in the bed?

Saul planned to kill him.

1 Samuel 19:16

ULT

16 And the messengers came, and behold, the teraphim {was} on the bed, and the weaving of goats {was} at its head.

UST

16 But when those soldiers entered David's house, they found that there was only a statue in his bed, with goat's hair around its head.

What did Michal use at the head of the idol in the bed to make it look like David?

She put a weaving of goats' hair at its head.

1 Samuel 19:17

ULT

17 And Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy go, so that he rescued himself?" And Michal said to Saul, "He himself said to me, 'Let me go. Why should I kill you?'"

UST

17 {When they reported that to Saul, he summoned Michal to come to him.} Saul said to her, "Why did you trick me like that? You allowed my enemy to escape!" Michal replied to Saul, "David told me that if I did not let him escape, he would kill me! {So I had to let him escape.}"

1 Samuel 19:18

ULT

18 Now David fled and rescued himself, and he came to Samuel in Ramah, and he declared to him all that Saul had done to him. And he went, and Samuel, and they stayed in Naioth.

UST

18 After David had escaped from Saul, he went to Samuel, who was at his home in Ramah. He told Samuel everything that Saul had done to try to kill him. Then David and Samuel went to Naioth, which was nearby, and they stayed there.

When David fled and escaped, to whom did he go in Ramah?

David went to Samuel in Ramah.

1 Samuel 19:19

ULT

19 And it was declared to Saul, saying, “Behold, David {is} in Naioth in Ramah.”

UST

19 Someone told Saul that David was in Naioth near the city of Ramah.

1 Samuel 19:20

ULT

20 And Saul sent messengers to take David. And one saw a group of prophets prophesying, and Samuel was standing, having stationed himself over them. And the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.

UST

20 So Saul sent some soldiers to capture David. {When those soldiers arrived in Ramah,} they met some prophets who were speaking and singing as God inspired them. Samuel was there as their leader. The Spirit of God influenced the soldiers whom Saul had sent, and they began to speak and sing themselves {instead of trying to capture David}.

What happened to Saul’s messengers when they saw the group of prophets?

The Spirit of God came on them, and they also prophesied.

1 Samuel 19:21

ULT

21 And they declared {this} to Saul, and he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul added and sent messengers a third {time}, and they also prophesied.

UST

21 When Saul heard about that, he sent another group of soldiers to capture David. {But when those soldiers met those prophets, the Spirit of God influenced them too,} and they also sang and spoke {instead of trying to capture David}. {When Saul heard about that,} he sent one more group of soldiers to capture David. But the same thing happened to them.

After sending messengers two more times, what did Saul do? (vv21-22)

Saul himself went to Ramah.

1 Samuel 19:22

ULT

22 So he went, he also, to Ramah, and he came to the great cistern that {is} in Seku. And he asked and said, “Where {are} Samuel and David?” And one said, “Behold, in Naioth in Ramah.”

UST

22 Finally Saul himself went to Ramah. He went to the big well at the place that people call Seku, and he asked {the people who had gathered there to draw water}, “Where are Samuel and David?” The people replied, “You will find them at Naioth, near Ramah.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 19:23

ULT

23 So he went thence, to Naioth in Ramah, and the Spirit of God came upon him, him also, and going, he went, and he prophesied until he entered into Naioth in Ramah.

UST

23 So Saul started walking toward Ramah to go to Naioth. While he was still on his way there, the Spirit of God influenced him as well, and he spoke and sang all the way to Naioth near Ramah.

1 Samuel 19:24

ULT

24 And he also stripped off his clothes, and he also prophesied to the face of Samuel. And he lay naked all of that day and all of the night. Therefore they said, “{Is} Saul also among the prophets?”

UST

24 There he also took off his outer clothes, and he spoke and sang in front of Samuel. He lay on the ground uncovered all day and all night. That is the reason why{, when people see someone doing something unexpected,} they say, “Is Saul also a prophet?”

How long did Saul lie naked before Samuel?

He lay naked all that day and all that night.

1 Samuel 20

1 Samuel 20:1

ULT

1 And David fled from Naioth in Ramah. And he came and said to the face of Jonathan, “What have I done? What {is} my iniquity? And what {is} my sin to the face of your father, that {he is} seeking my life?”

UST

1 David ran away from Naioth. He went to meet with Jonathan and told him, “I have done nothing wrong. I have not harmed your father. Nevertheless, he is trying to kill me!”

1 Samuel 20:2

ULT

2 And he said to him, “Profane! You will not die. Behold, my father does not do a great thing or a small thing and not uncover my ear. So why would my father hide this thing from me? {There is} not this!”

UST

2 Jonathan replied, “My father is not going to kill you! I would not let that happen. Besides, he always tells me before he does anything of any kind. So he would not fail to tell me if he were planning to kill you. What you are saying cannot be true.”

What did Jonathan say his father did not do without telling him?

He said that his father did nothing either great or small without revealing it to him.

1 Samuel 20:3

ULT

3 And David swore besides and said, “Knowing, your father knows that I have found favor in your eyes. So he said, ‘May Jonathan not know this, lest he be grieved.’ But indeed, the life of Yahweh, and the life of your soul, surely like a step {is} between me and between death!”

UST

3 Then David solemnly declared this to Jonathan: “Your father knows very well that you and I are very good friends, so he says to himself, ‘I will not tell Jonathan what I am going to do. If I tell Jonathan, he will be upset, and then he will tell David.’ But I swear by Yahweh and I swear by your own life that your father is just about to kill me.”

How close did David say he was to death?

He said that there was only a step between him and death.

1 Samuel 20:4

ULT

5 And David said to Jonathan, “Behold, the new moon {is} tomorrow, and sitting, I should sit with the king to eat. But you shall let me go, and I shall hide myself in the field until the third evening.

UST

5 David replied, “Here is what you can do for me. Tomorrow the king will host a feast to celebrate the start of a new month. I always sit with the king at such festivals. But this time, allow me not to attend. Instead, I will hide in the field, and I will stay there until the evening of the day after tomorrow.

What did David ask Jonathan to let him do until the third evening?

David asked to hide in the field until the third evening.

1 Samuel 20:6

ULT

6 If missing, your father misses me, then you shall say, ‘Asking, David asked from me to run {to} Bethlehem, his city, for the sacrifice of days {is} there for all of the clan.’

UST

6 If your father asks why I am not there at the festival, this is what you should tell him: ‘All of David’s relatives gather once a year to sacrifice an animal {and eat a meal from the meat at which they praise and thank Yahweh}. He asked permission from me to make a brief visit to Bethlehem so that he could eat that meal with his family.’

What reason did David tell Jonathan to give Saul if Saul missed him?

He was to tell Saul that David had asked make a brief visit to his city, Bethlehem, for the yearly sacrifice for his whole clan.

1 Samuel 20:7

ULT

7 If thus he says, ‘Good,’ peace {is} to your servant. But if burning, it burns to him, know that harm has completed from with him.

UST

7 If your father says, ‘Very well’, then I know I will be safe. But if he becomes extremely angry, you can be sure that he definitely intends to kill me.

1 Samuel 20:8

ULT

8 Then you shall do covenant faithfulness with your servant. For you have brought your servant into a covenant of Yahweh with you. But if there is iniquity in me, kill me yourself. For why this, that should you bring me to your father?”

UST

8 If that is true, then you must protect me. You indicated you would do that when you promised, with Yahweh as your witness, that you and I would always be good friends. But if I deserve to die for something very wrong that I have done, then you should kill me yourself. You do not need to make your father kill me.”

Why did David ask Jonathan to deal faithfully with him?

David asked this because Jonathan had brought him into a covenant of Yahweh.

1 Samuel 20:9

ULT

9 And Jonathan said, “Profane to you! For if knowing, I know that harm has completed from with my father to come upon you, then will I not declare it to you?”

1 Samuel 20:11

ULT

11 And Jonathan said to David, “Come, and let us go out {to} the field.” And the two of them went out to the field.

UST

11 Jonathan replied, “{We need to go somewhere where we can speak more privately.} Please come with me out to the field.” So they went together out into the field.

Where did Jonathan ask David to go so they could talk?

He asked David to go with him out into the field so they could speak privately.

1 Samuel 20:12

ULT

12 And Jonathan said to David, “{By} Yahweh, the God of Israel, that I will examine my father around this time tomorrow, the third day. And behold, {if} good {is} to David, then will I not then send to you and uncover your ear?

UST

12 There Jonathan said to David, “I swear by Yahweh, the God whom we Israelites worship, that by this time tomorrow or the next day, I will find out from my father whether he intends to kill you. If he does not intend to kill you, I will certainly send a message to you to inform you of that.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 20:13

ULT

13 Thus may Yahweh do to Jonathan, and thus may he add: if harm upon you is good to my father, then I will uncover your ear and send you away so you may go in peace. And may Yahweh be with you just as he was with my father.

UST

13 But if he is planning to kill you, I hope that Yahweh will punish me very severely if I do not tell you in advance and help you flee so that you get away safely. Yahweh helped my father when he became king, and I hope that Yahweh will help you in the same way.

Why did Jonathan want to make his father’s intentions known to David?

Jonathan promised to reveal his father’s intentions so that David flee.

1 Samuel 20:14

ULT

14 And if I am not still alive, then you shall not do the covenant faithfulness of Yahweh with me, so I do not die,

UST

14 While Yahweh was listening, we swore an oath that we would always be friends. So I know you will not kill me when you become king. But suppose I have already died when you become king. Then our oath would not apply to me personally.

1 Samuel 20:15

ULT

15 but you shall not cut off your covenant faithfulness from with my house forever, not even when Yahweh cuts off the enemies of David, a man from upon the face of the ground.”

UST

15 Instead, please never stop acting kindly toward my family, even after Yahweh has killed all your enemies everywhere on earth.”

1 Samuel 20:16

ULT

16 And Jonathan cut with the house of David, “And may Yahweh seek from the hand of the enemies of David!”

UST

16 Then Jonathan and David made a solemn agreement that applied to David’s descendants as well. They agreed that if David or his descendants ever killed Jonathan’s descendants, then they wanted Yahweh to punish David and his descendants by killing them.

How did Jonathan know that David would keep his promise that he would not harm Jonathan's descendants? (vv16-17)

Jonathan knew that David would keep that promise because David loved Jonathan as much as he loved himself.

1 Samuel 20:17

ULT

17 And Jonathan added to make David swear by his love for him, for he loved him {like} the loving of his soul.

UST

17 Then Jonathan also had David swear by the love he had for Jonathan {that he would not harm his descendants. Jonathan knew that David would keep that promise} because David loved Jonathan as much as he loved himself.

1 Samuel 20:21

ULT

21 And behold, I will send a boy, ‘Go find the arrows.’ If saying, I say to the boy, ‘Behold, the arrows {are} from you, and hither, get them,’ then come, for peace {is} for you and there is no matter, the life of Yahweh.

UST

21 Then I will tell a boy to go and get the arrows. You may hear me call out to him, ‘You have gone too far, the arrows are behind you, turn around and pick them up!’ I swear by Yahweh that if you hear me say that, then it is safe for you to return. You are in no danger.

Whom did Jonathan say he would send to find the arrows he shot?

He said he would send a boy to find the arrows.

1 Samuel 20:22

ULT

22 But if I say thus to the boy, ‘Behold, the arrows {are} from you, and beyond,’ go, for Yahweh has sent you away.

UST

22 But you might also hear me call out to the boy, ‘The arrows are still past you, keep going!’ If you hear me say that, you will know that you must leave immediately. Yahweh wants you to go away {so that you will be safe}.

1 Samuel 20:24

ULT

24 And David hid himself in the field, and it was the new moon, and the king sat down at the food to eat.

UST

24 So David went and hid in the field. When the festival of the new moon started, King Saul came to the table for the feast.

When the festival of the new moon came, what did the king do?

The king came to the table for the feast.

1 Samuel 20:25

ULT

25 And the king sat on his seat, as time by time, on the seat {by} the wall. And Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by the side of Saul. And the place of David was missing.

UST

25 He sat where he usually sat, in the place of honor {at the end of the table} close to the wall. Jonathan gave up his seat next to Saul so that Abner, the army commander, could sit next to him. But David was absent. He was not sitting in his usual seat.

1 Samuel 20:26

ULT

26 But Saul did not say anything on that day, for he said, “It {is} an accident. He {is} not clean, surely not clean.”

UST

26 At the time Saul did not say anything {about David being absent}, because he was thinking, “Something must have happened that caused David to become ritually unclean so that he cannot attend this religious festival today.”

What did Saul think might have happened to David to make him absent from the feast?

Saul thought it was an accident and that David was not ritually clean.

1 Samuel 20:27

ULT

27 And it happened on the next day of the new moon, the second, that the place of David was missing. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, “Why has the son of Jesse not come, both yesterday and today, to the food?”

UST

27 But the next day, when David was not sitting at the place where he usually sat, Saul asked Jonathan, “Why has that son of Jesse not been here to eat with us either yesterday or today?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 20:28

ULT

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, “Asking, David asked from me to Bethlehem.

UST

28 Jonathan replied, “David urgently requested permission from me to go to Bethlehem.

1 Samuel 20:29

ULT

29 And he said, ‘Please let me go. For the sacrifice of our clan {is} in the city, and my brother himself has commanded me. And now, if I have found favor in your eyes, may I please go away, and may I see my brothers.’ Therefore he has not come to the table of the king.”

UST

29 He told me, ‘Our family is going to offer a sacrifice in Bethlehem, and my oldest brother has insisted that I be there. So please let me go. I hope that you think well enough of me to permit that, since I would like to go and visit with my older brothers.’ {I allowed David to go, and} that is the reason why he is not here eating with you.”

Why did Jonathan say David had to attend his family’s sacrifice?

He said David’s brother had commanded him to be there.

1 Samuel 20:30

ULT

30 And the nose of Saul burned against Jonathan, and he said to him, “Son of one perverting herself in rebellion! Do I not know that you are choosing the son of Jesse to your shame and to the shame of the nakedness of your mother?

UST

30 Saul became furious with Jonathan. He said to him, “Your mother must have been unfaithful to me{, because no real son of mine would have done that}! It is no secret to me that you have promised always to be friends with that son of Jesse. But by being his friend, you are shaming yourself by showing that your mother must have had sexual relations with some other man who is your actual father.

What did Saul call his son Jonathan in his burning anger?

He called him the son a mother who must have been unfaithful to Saul, because no real son of his would have done that.

1 Samuel 20:31

ULT

31 For all of the days that the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you will not be established, nor your kingdom. And now, send and take him to me, for he {is} a son of death.”

UST

31 I can assure you that as long as Jesse’s son is living, you will never become king. No, you will never rule this kingdom! So now send someone to get David and bring him to me, because I must execute him!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 20:32

ULT

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father and said to him, “Why should he be killed? What has he done?”

UST

32 Jonathan insisted to his father, “David has done nothing wrong! So you should not execute him!”

1 Samuel 20:33

ULT

33 And Saul hurled the spear at him to strike him. And Jonathan knew that it had completed from with his father to kill David.

UST

33 Then Saul {became so angry that he} threw his spear at Jonathan to try to kill him. {But the spear did not hit him.} So Jonathan knew that his father really did want to kill David.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 20:34

ULT

34 And Jonathan arose from the table with burning of nose. And he did not eat bread on the second day of the new moon, for he was grieved for David, because his father had dishonored him.

UST

34 This made Jonathan very angry, and he left the room. On that second day of the festival, he refused to eat anything. His father had said unfairly that David was not loyal to him, and that made Jonathan offended for David's sake.

Why was Jonathan grieved for David?

He was grieved for David because his father had dishonored him, saying unfairly that David was not loyal to him.

1 Samuel 20:35

ULT

35 And it happened in the morning that Jonathan went out {to} the field to the appointment with David, and a small boy {was} with him.

UST

35 The next morning Jonathan went out to the field {to give a message to David} as he had agreed that he would do. He took a young boy with him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 20:36

ULT

36 And he said to his boy, “Run, please find the arrows that I am shooting.” The boy ran, and he shot the arrow to pass over him.

UST

36 Jonathan told the boy, “Run out into the field so that you can find the arrows that I shoot.” The boy started running, and Jonathan shot an arrow over the boy {so that it would land on the ground far ahead of him}.

Where did Jonathan shoot an arrow as the boy ran?

Jonathan shot an arrow over the boy so that it would land on the ground far ahead of him.

1 Samuel 20:37

ULT

37 And the boy came to the place of the arrow that Jonathan had shot, but Jonathan called after the boy and said, “{Is} not the arrow from you, and beyond?”

UST

37 The boy ran to the place where the arrow hit the ground, but Jonathan shouted out to him, “The arrow is farther away!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 20:38

ULT

38 And Jonathan called after the boy, “Quickly, hurry! Do not stay!” And the boy of Jonathan picked up the arrows and came to his master.

UST

1 Samuel 20:42

ULT

42 And Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, because we, the two of us, have sworn in the name of Yahweh, saying, ‘Yahweh is between me and between you, and between my seed and between your seed, forever.’” And he arose and went, and Jonathan entered the city.

UST

42 Jonathan said to David, “I am letting you go safely, because we made a promise to each other with Yahweh as our witness. We asked Yahweh to make sure that we would always help each other and that our descendants would never hurt each other.” Then David finally left, and Jonathan went back into the city of Gibeah.

What did Jonathan do after David left?

Jonathan went back into the city of Gibeah.

1 Samuel 21

1 Samuel 21:1

ULT

1 And David came {to} Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech trembled to meet David, and he said to him, “Why {are} you by yourself and no man {is} with you?”

UST

1 David fled from there and went to the city of Nob. Ahimelech, the high priest, was there with the sacred chest. Ahimelech shook with fear when he saw David coming. He asked David, “Why have you not brought any soldiers with you?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 21:2

ULT

2 And David said to Ahimelech the priest, “The king has commanded me {regarding} a matter and has said to me, ‘May a man not know anything {about} the matter {for} which I am sending you and {about} which I have commanded you.’ And I have informed the young men about a certain unnamed place.

UST

2 David {did not tell him the truth. He} told Ahimelech, “I have come on a special mission from the king. I am alone because he told me that no one should find out about what he sent me to do. But I will have soldiers with me. I have told them to meet me at a specific place, but I must not say where that is.

What did David say the king had told him to let no one know?

He said the king had commanded him to let no one know anything about what the king sent him to do.

1 Samuel 21:3

ULT

3 And now, what is there under your hand? Give five {loaves of} bread into my hand, or the {thing} being found.”

UST

3 Please tell me, do you have any food here that you could give me? Could you give me five loaves of bread, or whatever other food might be here?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 21:4

ULT

4 And the priest answered David and said, “{There is} no common bread toward under my hand, but there is holy bread. If the young men have only kept themselves from women.”

UST

4 Ahimelech told David, “There is no ordinary bread here, but I have some of the sacred bread that we put on the table in the sacred tent. I will give your men that bread to eat if they have not recently become ceremonially unclean by having sexual relations with women.”

What did the priest tell David about the bread he had?

The priest said that there was no common bread, but there was holy bread, if the young men not recently become ceremonially unclean by having sexual relations with women.

1 Samuel 21:5

ULT

5 And David answered the priest and said to him, “Surely a woman has been kept from us as yesterday and the third day in my going out. If the vessels of the men have been holy when it {was} a common journey, then indeed that it will be holy today with the vessels!”

UST

5 David replied, “As I have always done in the past when I have led my soldiers on a mission, I have not allowed them to become ceremonially unclean by having sexual relations before they left. They have remained ceremonially clean even on ordinary missions. So you can be sure that they have remained ceremonially clean for this special mission.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 21:6

ULT

6 So the priest gave to him the holy. For no bread was there except the bread of the face having been removed from to the face of Yahweh to put hot bread on the day of its being taken away.

UST

6 Now the only bread that the priest had available was some bread that the priests had put on the table in Yahweh’s presence in the sacred tent. They had later removed that bread to replace it with fresh bread. So the priest gave David several loaves of it.

From where had the bread of the Presence been taken?

The bread of the Presence had been taken from the table in Yahweh’s presence in the sacred tent.

1 Samuel 21:7

ULT

7 Now a man {was} there from the servants of Saul on that day. He was detained to the face of Yahweh. And his name {was} Doeg the Edomite, the chief of the herders who {were} to Saul.

UST

7 On that day a man who worked for Saul was at the sacred tent. His name was Doeg. He was an Edomite. King Saul had made him the supervisor of all of his shepherds. Doeg needed to stay at the sacred tent until he had fulfilled a religious duty. {He saw what Ahimelech did to help David.}

What was the work of Doeg the Edomite, who was there that day and saw what Ahimelech did to hel David?

Doeg the Edomite was the chief of the herders who worked for Saul.

1 Samuel 21:8

ULT

8 And David said to Ahimelech, “And is there not here under your hand a spear or a sword? For both my sword and also my weapons I did not take in my hand, because the matter of the king was being urged.”

UST

8 David asked Ahimelech, “Do you have a spear or a sword here that you could give me? The king commanded me to leave right away on this mission, so I did not even have time to get any weapons.”

Why did David say he had no weapons with him?

He said that he had not brought any weapons because the king’s matter was so urgent that he did not have time to get any weapons.

1 Samuel 21:9

ULT

9 And the priest said, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you struck in the Valley of Elah, behold, it {is} wrapped in a cloak behind the ephod. If you would take it for yourself, take, for no other except it {is} in this {place}.” And David said, “{There is} none like it. Give {it} to me.”

UST

9 Ahimelech replied, “The only sword I have here is the sword that belonged to Goliath, that great Philistine soldier. You killed him in the Valley of Elah. You will find that sword behind the sacred apron in the sacred tent. It has a cloth around it. If you want it, you may take it.” David replied, “There is certainly no other sword that is as good as that one! Please give it to me.”

1 Samuel 21:10

ULT

10 And David arose and fled on that day from the face of Saul. And he came to Achish, the king of Gath.

UST

10 {So Ahimelech gave it to him, and} David left that same day so that Saul would not capture him. He ran away to the Philistine city of Gath. He offered to work for Achish, the king of that city.

From whom was David fleeing when he went to Achish, the king of Gath?

He was fleeing that day from Saul.

1 Samuel 21:11

ULT

11 But the servants of Achish said to him, "{Is} not this David the king of the land? Do they not sing about this {one} in the dances, saying, 'Saul has struck his thousands, and David his myriads'?"

UST

11 But the officers of King Achish {did not approve of David's coming. They} said to King Achish, "This man David is the king of Israel! The women in Israel sing about him as they dance, "Saul has killed thousands of enemy soldiers, And David has killed tens of thousands of them!"

1 Samuel 21:13

ULT

13 So he changed his behavior in their eyes, and he acted insane in their hand. And he made marks on the doors of the gate, and he caused his saliva to go down to his beard.

UST

13 So whenever he was with those officers or the king, he acted differently. For as long as he was in Gath, where they could harm him, he pretended that he was insane. {When he was waiting in the court outside the palace,} he would scratch all over the gate {that led into the palace}. He also drooled so much that saliva ran down onto his beard.

What did David pretend to be when he changed his behavior before Achish and his servants?

He pretended to be insane whenever he was with the officers or the king.

1 Samuel 21:14

ULT

14 And Achish said to his servants, “Behold, you see a man raving. Why did you bring him to me?

UST

14 Then King Achish said to his men, “Look at this man! He is acting crazy! You should not have brought him to me!

What did Achish ask his servants when he saw that David was acting as if he was insane?

He asked them why they had brought a raving man to him.

1 Samuel 21:15

ULT

15 Am I lacking ravers, that you have brought this {one} to rave near me? Should this {one} enter into my house?”

UST

15 I already have enough crazy people around me! You do not need to bring me any more! I do not want this man to serve me in my palace.”

1 Samuel 22:2

ULT

2 And they gathered themselves to him, every man of distress and every man for whom {was} a creditor and every man bitter of soul. And he became a commander over them. And they {were} with him, about 400 men.

UST

2 Then other men joined him. Some were in trouble. Others had debts they could not pay. Still others came because they did not like what was happening in Israel with Saul as king. David became their commander. Eventually he had an army of 400 men.

Who gathered with David at the cave of Adullam?

Everyone who was in distress, in debt, or who did not like what was happening in Israel with Saul as king.

1 Samuel 22:3

ULT

3 And David went from there {to} Mizpah of Moab. And he said to the king of Moab, “Please let my father and my mother come out {and be} with you until when I know what God will do for me.”

UST

3 Later David and his men left there and went to the city of Mizpah in the land of Moab. There David asked the king of Moab, “Please allow my father and mother to live here with you until I know what God is going to do for me.”

How long did David’s father and mother stay with the king of Moab? (vv3-4)

They stayed with the king the whole time that David was in the stronghold.

1 Samuel 22:4

ULT

4 And he led them to the face of the king of Moab. And they stayed with him all of the days of David being in the stronghold.

UST

4 {The king agreed,} so David brought his parents to Moab, where the king would protect them. David and his men found a safe place to hide in Moab. His parents stayed with the king for as long as he was there.

6 And Saul heard that David had become known, and the men who {were} with him. Now Saul was sitting in Gibeah under the tamarisk tree on the height, and his spear {was} in his hand, and all of his servants had stationed themselves beside him.

UST

6 Saul learned that people knew that David and his men had returned to Judah. One day Saul was sitting underneath the tamarisk tree on a hill in the city of Gibeah. He was holding his royal spear, and his officials were standing around him.

Who did Saul hear had been discovered?

He heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered.

1 Samuel 22:7

ULT

7 And Saul said to his servants having stationed themselves beside him, “Listen now, Benjaminite! Will the son of Jesse give fields and vineyards even to all of you? Will he make all of you commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?

UST

7 He shouted to them as they stood around him, “You men of the tribe of Benjamin, listen to me! Do not think that the son of Jesse will give all of you fields and vineyards if he becomes your king! Do not think that he will appoint all of you as generals and captains in his army!

1 Samuel 22:8

ULT

8 For all of you have conspired against me! And {there was} no uncovering my ear when my son cut with the son of Jesse. And {there was} no grieving from you for me or uncovering my ear that my son had raised up my servant against me to lie in ambush as this day.”

UST

8 {You seem to think that, and} that is why you have all conspired against me. Not one of you informed me that my own son had promised always to be friends with that son of Jesse! Not one of you felt sorry for me or told me that my son had encouraged my own servant to revolt against me! At this very moment he is hiding somewhere, hoping to surprise me and kill me!”

What did Saul accuse his servants of not revealing to him?

Saul said that none of his servants had revealed to him that his own son had made a covenant with David or had incited David against him.

1 Samuel 22:9

ULT

9 And Doeg the Edomite answered (now he had stationed himself beside the servants of Saul) and said, “I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub.

13 And Saul said to him, “Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, by your giving to him bread and a sword and inquiring of God for him, to rise up against me, to lie in ambush, as this day?”

UST

13 Saul said, “You are conspiring against me with that son of Jesse! You gave him some bread and a sword, and you asked God to tell him what he should do. You helped him to revolt against me, and at this very moment he is hiding somewhere, hoping to surprise me and kill me!”

What did Saul say Ahimelech did for the son of Jesse besides giving him bread and a sword?

Saul said that Ahimelech had inquired of God for him.

1 Samuel 22:14

ULT

14 And Ahimelech answered the king and said, “Now who among all of your servants is being faithful like David, and the son-in-law of the king, and commander over your bodyguard, and being honored in your house?

UST

14 Ahimelech replied, “{I do not understand why you are saying that, because} no one else who serves you is more loyal to you than David! He is your son-in-law and the captain of your bodyguards. The people in your household respect him very much.

1 Samuel 22:15

ULT

15 Did I begin to inquire of God for him today? Profane to me! May the king not set a word against his servant, against all of the house of my father. For your servant does not know about any of this matter, small or great.”

UST

15 I have asked God on previous occasions to tell David what he wanted him to do. I would never help anyone revolt against you! So please do not accuse me or any of my relatives of being disloyal to you. I do not know anything about what you are talking about.”

1 Samuel 22:17

ULT

17 And the king said to the runners having stationed themselves beside him, “Turn and kill the priests of Yahweh, because their hand {is} also with David, and because they knew that he was fleeing but they did not uncover my ear.” But the servants of the king were not willing to stretch out their hand to attack the priests of Yahweh.

UST

17 Then Saul commanded his bodyguards, who were standing around him, “These priests of Yahweh are conspiring with David against me! They knew that David was trying to run away from me, but they did not tell me! So I want you to kill them right away!” But Saul’s bodyguards refused to kill Yahweh’s priests.

What were the servants of King Saul not willing to do?

They were not willing to attack the priests of Yahweh.

1 Samuel 22:18

ULT

18 So the king said to Doeg, “You turn and attack the priests!” So Doeg the Edomite turned and he himself attacked the priests. And on that day he killed 85 men wearing a linen ephod.

UST

18 Then Saul said to Doeg, “You kill them!” So Doeg, that man who was an Edomite, did what Saul commanded and attacked the priests. He killed 85 men that day. Those men were wearing sacred aprons because they were priests.

Whom did Doeg kill with the sword in Nob, the city of the priests? (vv18-19)

He killed men and women, children and infants, and oxen, donkeys, and sheep.

1 Samuel 22:19

ULT

19 And Nob, the city of the priests, he struck to the mouth of the sword, from man and to woman, from child and to infant, and ox and donkey and sheep, to the mouth of the sword.

UST

19 Then Doeg went to kill all the other people of Nob, the city where the priests lived. He killed all the men, women, children, babies, cattle, donkeys, and sheep who were there.

1 Samuel 22:20

ULT

20 But a son of one to Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, escaped, and his name {was} Abiathar. And he fled after David.

UST

20 However, one of Ahimelech's sons escaped. His name was Abiathar. He ran away and joined David and the men who were with him.

Where did Abiathar go when he escaped the killing?

Abiathar ran away and joined David.

1 Samuel 22:21

ULT

21 And Abiathar declared to David that Saul had killed the priests of Yahweh.

UST

21 He told David that Saul had commanded Doeg to kill Yahweh's priests.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 22:22

ULT

22 And David said to Abiathar, “I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite {was} there, that declaring, he would declare to Saul. I myself have turned against every soul of the house of your father!

UST

22 Then David said to him, “That man from the Edomites, Doeg, was there at Nob on the day when I was there. I knew that he would surely tell Saul that your father helped me. So it is my fault that your father and all of his family are dead.

For what did David tell Abiathar he was responsible?

David said that the death of every person in Abiathar’s father’s house was his fault.

1 Samuel 22:23

ULT

23 Stay with me, do not be afraid. For {he} who seeks my life seeks your life. Surely protection {for} you {is} with me.”

UST

23 The man who wants to kill you also wants to kill me, so stay with me and do not be afraid. You you will be safe if you stay with me.”

1 Samuel 23

1 Samuel 23:1

ULT

1 And they declared to David, saying, “Behold, the Philistines are fighting with Keilah, and they are plundering the threshing floors!”

UST

1 One day messengers came and told David, “We have important news! The Philistine army is attacking the town of Keilah! They are stealing the grain from where the people are threshing it!”

About what did David inquire of Yahweh when he heard the Philistines were robbing the threshing floors at Keilah? (vv1-2)

David asked Yahweh if he should go and strike the Philistines.

1 Samuel 23:2

ULT

2 And David inquired of Yahweh, saying, “Shall I go and strike these Philistines?” And Yahweh said to David, “Go and strike the Philistines and save Keilah.”

UST

2 So David asked Yahweh, “Should I lead my men to fight against these Philistine soldiers?” Yahweh told David, “Yes, go and attack them and rescue the people of Keilah.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 23:3

ULT

3 But the men of David said to him, “Behold, we {are} afraid here in Judah. And much more if we go to Keilah against the arrays of the Philistines!”

UST

3 But David’s men said to him, “Listen, we are afraid here in Judah that Saul might attack us. We will be even more afraid if we go to Keilah where we know the Philistine army is!”

Why did David inquire of Yahweh again about the Philistines? (vv3-4)

David’s men told him they were afraid even in Judah, and would be much more afraid to go to Keilah against the Philistine armies.

1 Samuel 23:4

ULT

4 So David added yet to inquire of Yahweh. And Yahweh answered him and said, “Arise, go down to Keilah, for I am giving the Philistines into your hand.”

UST

4 So David asked Yahweh again if they should go to Keilah. Yahweh answered, “I will enable you to defeat the Philistines. So yes, go to Keilah {and rescue the people there}.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 23:5

ULT

5 And David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines. And he drove off their livestock and struck a great striking against them. And David saved the dwellers of Keilah.

UST

5 So David and his men went to Keilah and fought against the Philistines. They killed many of their soldiers and captured many of their cattle. In that way David and his men rescued the people of Keilah.

What was the outcome when David and his men fought with the Philistines?

David struck the Philistines with a great blow, drove off their livestock, and saved the people of Keilah.

1 Samuel 23:6

ULT

6 And it happened that when Abiathar, the son of Ahimelech, fled to David {at} Keilah, an ephod came down in his hand.

UST

6 David was at Keilah when Abiathar son of Ahimelech ran away to join him. Abiathar brought a sacred apron with him {that he could use to ask what God someone should do}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 23:7

ULT

7 And it was declared to Saul that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, “God has delivered him into my hand. For he has enclosed himself by entering into a city of doors and a bar.”

UST

7 Someone told Saul that David was at Keilah. Saul said, “God is enabling me to capture him! David has trapped himself in that city, because a wall surrounds it, and I can get its people to lock the gates to keep David from leaving.”

Why did Saul think he could capture David and his men in Keilah? (vv7-8)

Saul thought God had delivered David into his hand because David had shut himself in a city that had gates and bars and locks to keep David from leaving.

1 Samuel 23:8

ULT

8 And Saul made all of the people hear for battle, to go down {to} Keilah, to besiege against David and against his men.

UST

8 So Saul gathered his whole army so that they could go to Keilah and surround it. Saul wanted to force the people of the city to surrender David and his men to him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 23:9

ULT

9 But David knew that Saul was devising harm against him. And he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring near the ephod.”

UST

9 But David found out that Saul was preparing to capture him with his army. So he told Abiathar the priest, “Bring the sacred apron here {so we can use it to consult Yahweh}.”

After David knew that Saul was plotting harm against him, what did David say to Abiathar the priest?

David told Abiathar the priest to bring the ephod so they could use it to consult Yahweh.

1 Samuel 23:10

ULT

10 And David said, “Yahweh, God of Israel, hearing, your servant has heard that Saul is seeking to come to Keilah, to destroy the city because of me.

UST

10 {So when Abiathar brought it,} David prayed, “Yahweh, God of us Israelites, I have heard reliably that Saul is planning to come here to Keilah with his army. He will destroy the city if he has to in order to capture me.

What did David ask Yahweh concerning Saul and the men of Keilah? (vv10-11)

David asked if Saul would come down to Keilah and if the leaders of Keilah would surrender him into Saul’s hand.

1 Samuel 23:11

ULT

11 Will the lords of Keilah enclose me in his hand? Will Saul come down, just as your servant has heard? Yahweh, the God of Israel, please declare to your servant.” And Yahweh said, “He will come down.”

UST

11 Will Saul actually come here to Keilah, as people have reported to me? Will the leaders of Keilah let Saul capture me? Yahweh, God of us Israelites, please tell me!” {By means of the stones in the sacred apron,} Yahweh replied, “Yes, Saul will come here.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 23:12

ULT

12 And David said, “Will the lords of Keilah enclose me and my men in the hand of Saul?” And Yahweh said, “They will enclose.”

UST

12 Then David asked, “{If we stay here,} will the leaders of Keilah let Saul’s army capture me and my men?” Yahweh replied, “Yes, they will.”

What was Yahweh’s reply to David concerning the men of Keilah?

Yahweh told David that the men of Keilah would surrender him to Saul.

1 Samuel 23:13

ULT

13 So David and his men, about 600 men, arose and went out from Keilah. And they went about in wherever they could go about. And it was declared to Saul that David had escaped from Keilah, so he ceased to go out.

UST

13 So David and his men left Keilah. By this time, he had 600 men with him. They continued to move around from one place to another, wherever they thought that Saul would not find them. And when Saul found out that David had gotten away from Keilah, he did not go there.

Why did Saul stop his pursuit of David at Keilah? (vv13-14)

Saul was told that David had left Keilah, so he stopped his pursuit.

1 Samuel 23:14

ULT

14 And David stayed in the wilderness, in the strongholds, and he stayed in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him all of the days, but God did not give him into his hand.

UST

14 After this, David and his men stayed in hiding places in the desert and in the hills of the desolate area that people call Ziph. Saul kept trying to find out where David was, but God enabled David to hide where Saul could not find him.

1 Samuel 23:15

ULT

15 And David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. Now David {was} in the wilderness of Ziph, in the forest.

UST

15 At one point, David and his men were hiding in the forest of Horesh in the desolate area of Ziph. David knew that Saul was trying to find out where he was so that he could kill him.

How did Jonathan, Saul's son, help David in the wilderness of Ziph? (vv15-16)

He went to David and reassured him that he could trust God to protect him.

1 Samuel 23:16

ULT

16 And Jonathan, the son of Saul, arose and went to David in the forest. And he strengthened his hand in God.

UST

16 But Saul's son Jonathan went to David in the forest. He helped him feel brave again by reassuring him that he could trust God to protect him.

1 Samuel 23:18

ULT

18 And the two of them cut a covenant to the face of Yahweh. And David stayed in the forest, and Jonathan went to his house.

UST

18 Then, with Yahweh as their witness, David and Jonathan repeated their solemn promise always to be loyal to each other. Then Jonathan went home, and David stayed in the forest.

Before Jonathan went home, what did he and David do in the forest?

With Yahweh as their witness, David and Jonathan repeated their solemn promise to be loyal to each other.

1 Samuel 23:19

ULT

19 And Ziphites went up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is not David hiding himself among us in strongholds in the forest on the hill of Hakilah, which {is} from the south of Jeshimon?

UST

19 Then people who lived in the region of Ziph went to Gibeah to speak with Saul. They told him, "David and his men are hiding in our region! They are hiding in places in the forest on the hill of Hakilah, south of the desolate area that people call Jeshimon.

1 Samuel 23:25

ULT

25 And Saul and his men went to seek. And they declared to David, and he went down {to} a crag and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. And Saul heard, and he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

UST

25 Saul and his soldiers went to search for David, but someone told David that they were coming. So he and his men went farther south to stay on a rocky hill in the area of Maon. Saul found out about that, and he and his men chased David and his men farther into that desolate area.

Why did David and his men go to the wilderness of Maon?

Someone told David that Saul and his men went to search for David so he and his men went farther south to the wilderness of Maon.

1 Samuel 23:26

ULT

26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men {were} on that side of the mountain. And it happened that David was hastening himself to go from the face of Saul, and Saul and his men were encircling upon David and upon his men to capture them.

UST

26 David and his men were on one side of the hill, and Saul and his soldiers were on the other side. David and his men were hurrying to get away, because Saul and his soldiers were rushing around the other side of the hill to try to surround them and capture them.

What happened as Saul and his men were surrounding David and his men? (vv26-27)

A messenger came to Saul and told him that the Philistines had made a raid against the land.

1 Samuel 23:27

ULT

27 And a messenger came to Saul, saying, “Hurry and go, for the Philistines have raided against the land.”

UST

27 But then a messenger came to Saul and said to him, “Come quickly! The Philistine army is attacking the people in our land!”

1 Samuel 23:28

ULT

28 And Saul returned from pursuing after David, and he went to meet the Philistines. Therefore they called that place Sela Hammahlekoth.

UST

28 So Saul stopped pursuing David. Instead, he and his soldiers went to fight against the Philistine army. That is the reason why people call that place Sela Hammahlekoth.

What was Saul’s response to this news?

Saul returned from pursuing David and went to meet the Philistines.

1 Samuel 23:29

ULT

29 And David went up from there and stayed in the strongholds of En Gedi.

UST

29 David and his men also left that place, and they went to the area of Engedi, where there were many places where they could hide safely.

1 Samuel 24:1

ULT

1 And it happened, when Saul returned from after the Philistines, that they declared to him, saying, “Behold, David {is} in the wilderness of En Gedi.”

UST

1 After Saul and his soldiers returned home from fighting against the Philistine army, someone reported to Saul that David and his men had gone into the desolate area near En Gedi.

What did Saul do when he heard that David was in the wilderness of En Gedi? (vv1-2)

He took three thousand chosen men and went there to seek David and his men.

1 Samuel 24:2

ULT

2 And Saul took 3,000 men, chosen from all of Israel. And he went to seek David and his men on the face of the cliffs of the wild goats.

UST

2 When Saul heard that, he chose 3,000 of the best soldiers he could find anywhere in Israel. They went to search for David and his men among the {caves in the} rocky cliffs in that area. Those cliffs were so steep that only wild goats lived on them.

1 Samuel 24:3

ULT

3 And he came to some pens of sheep on the way, and a cave {was} there. And Saul entered to cover his feet. Now David and his men were staying in the recesses of the cave.

UST

3 As they searched, they came to a place where shepherds had built enclosures for their sheep in front of the entrances to caves. Saul went into one of the caves to use it as a toilet. He did not realize that David and his men were hiding farther inside that same cave.

What did David do to Saul in the cave instead of killing him? (vv3-4)

David secretly cut off the edge of Saul’s robe.

1 Samuel 24:4

ULT

4 And the men of David said to him, “Behold, today {is} what Yahweh said to you, ‘Behold, I am giving your enemy into your hand, and you will do to him just as is good in your eyes.’” And David arose and cut off the edge of the robe that {was} to Saul, in secrecy.

UST

4 David’s men {saw Saul and} whispered to him, “Yahweh told you that he would put your enemy in a position where you could do anything you wanted to him. Look! He has done that right now!” So David crept quietly toward the entrance of the cave, and he cut off a piece of Saul’s robe.

1 Samuel 24:5

ULT

5 And it happened after this that the heart of David struck him because he had cut off the edge that {was} to Saul.

UST

5 David then he returned to his men. But he felt guilty for having cut off a piece of Saul’s robe.

Why did David not allow his men to attack Saul? (vv5-7)

David’s heart struck him, and he said he would not stretch out his hand against his master, because he was the anointed of Yahweh.

1 Samuel 24:6

ULT

6 And he said to his men, “Profane to me from Yahweh if I have done this thing to my master, to the anointed one of Yahweh, to stretch out my hand against him. For he {is} the anointed one of Yahweh.”

UST

6 David told his men, “Yahweh is very displeased with me for doing that to my master, the man Yahweh appointed as king! Because Yahweh chose him to be the king, I should not have done anything hostile to him.”

1 Samuel 24:8

ULT

8 And David arose after this and came out from the cave. And he called out after Saul, saying, “My master the king!” And Saul looked behind him, and David bowed, nostrils to the ground, and prostrated himself.

UST

8 David then came out of the cave and shouted to Saul, “King Saul, my lord!” Saul turned around and looked, and David humbly bowed down with his face touching the ground.

When David left the cave after Saul, how did he show respect to Saul?

David called out to Saul as his master the king, and then he bowed with his face to the ground.

1 Samuel 24:9

ULT

9 And David said to Saul, “Why do you listen to the words of a man, saying, ‘Behold, David is seeking your harm’?

1 Samuel 24:10

ULT

10 Behold, your eyes have seen this day that Yahweh gave you into my hand today in the cave. And one said to slay you, but it had compassion on you. And I said, 'I will not stretch out my hand against my master, for he {is} the anointed one of Yahweh.'

UST

10 Today you can clearly recognize that {what they say is not true.} Today Yahweh brought you into this cave, where I could have killed you. Some of my men told me that I should do that. But I spared your life. I told them that I would not harm you, my master, because you are the king whom Yahweh appointed.

How did David prove to Saul that he did not want to harm him? (vv10-11)

David showed Saul the edge of his robe that he had cut off, proving he had been close enough to kill him, but did not.

1 Samuel 24:11

ULT

11 And see, my father, even see the edge of your robe in my hand! For when I cut off the edge of your robe, I did not kill you. Know and see that no evil or transgression {is} in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, but you are hunting my life, to take it.

UST

11 Your majesty, look carefully at this piece of your robe that I am holding! I cut it from your robe, and that shows that I could have killed you, but I did not. From this you should understand that I am not wickedly planning to harm you. I have not done anything wrong to you, but you have been searching for me so that you can kill me.

1 Samuel 24:16

ULT

16 And it happened, as David finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, “{Is} this your voice, my son David?” And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

UST

16 When David finished saying this to Saul, Saul called back to him and said, “Is that really you speaking to me, David my son?” Then he cried loudly.

What was Saul’s response to David?

He asked if it was David’s voice, called him his son, then lifted up his voice and wept.

1 Samuel 24:17

ULT

17 And he said to David, “You {are} more righteous than I. For you did good to me, but I did evil to you.

UST

17 He told David, “You are a better person than I am. I tried to do something very bad to you, but you did something very good to me.

Why did Saul say that David was more righteous than he was? (vv17-18)

David had repaid Saul with good even though Saul had done evil to David.

1 Samuel 24:18

ULT

18 For you have declared today that you have done good with me, that Yahweh enclosed me in your hand, but you did not kill me.

ULT

3 And the name of the man {was} Nabal, and the name of his wife {was} Abigail. Now the woman {was} good of insight and beautiful of appearance. But the man {was} harsh and evil of deeds, and he {was} a Calebite.

UST

3 This man's name was Nabal. He was a descendant of Caleb. His wife Abigail was a wise and beautiful woman, but Nabal himself was very cruel. He treated people very unkindly.

What kind of man was Nabal in his dealings?

He was harsh and evil in his deeds.

What was Nabal's wife Abigail like?

She had good insight and was beautiful in appearance.

1 Samuel 25:4

ULT

4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep.

UST

4 One day while David and his men were in the desolate area nearby, someone told him that Nabal's workers were cutting the wool off his sheep.

Whom did David send to greet Nabal while he was shearing his sheep? (vv4-5)

David sent ten young men to greet Nabal.

1 Samuel 25:5

ULT

5 And David sent ten young men. And David said to the young men, "Go up {to} Carmel, and you shall go to Nabal, and you shall ask him in my name regarding peace.

UST

5 So David decided to send ten of his soldiers {to ask Nabal respectfully for some of the food from the celebration he was hosting while they were cutting off the wool}. He told them, "Go to Carmel and visit Nabal and greet him warmly for me.

1 Samuel 25:7

ULT

7 And now, I have heard that shearers {are} to you. Now the shepherds who {are} to you have been with us. We have not hurt them, and anything to them has not been missing all of the days of their being in Carmel.

UST

7 I have a small request. People have told me that you now have workers cutting the wool from your sheep. My soldiers and I were in the same area where your shepherds were tending those sheep. But the whole time they were with us near Carmel, we did not harm them, and we did not steal any sheep from them.

Why did David think that Nabal would be generous to him and his men?

David's men had not harmed Nabal's shepherds, and nothing of theirs was missing while they were near David's men.

1 Samuel 25:8

ULT

8 Ask your young men, and they will declare to you. So let the young men find favor in your eyes, for we have come on a good day. Please give whatever your hand finds to your servants and to your son, to David.'"

UST

8 You can ask your own servants about this, and they will tell you that it is true. We have come here at a time when you are celebrating, so I ask you please to be generous to us and send back with these men something from the feast that you have prepared for this occasion. David regards you respectfully as a benefactor.'"

What did David's young men ask Nabal to give them?

They asked Nabal to please send back with them something from the feast that he prepared for this occasion.

1 Samuel 25:9

ULT

9 So the young men of David came, and they spoke to Nabal according to all of these words in the name of David. Then they ceased.

UST

9 So David's men went to Carmel and told Nabal everything that David had told them to say for him. Then they waited for Nabal to reply.

What was Nabal's response to David's young men? (vv9-11)

Nabal spoke of disrespectfully of David, implying that he was a runaway slave wandering the countryside, and he said he would not give any of his food and water to them.

1 Samuel 25:10

ULT

10 And Nabal answered the servants of David and said, “Who {is} David? And who {is} the son of Jesse? Today servants are many {who} are breaking themselves away, a man from the face of his master.

UST

10 But Nabal replied, “This David, this son of Jesse, does not deserve to receive anything from me! There are many slaves who are running away from their masters at the present time{, and he is just one of them}.

1 Samuel 25:13

ULT

13 And David said to his men, “Strap on, a man his sword.” And they strapped on, a man his sword. And David also strapped on his sword. And about 400 men went up behind David, and 200 stayed with the equipment.

UST

13 When he heard this, David told his men, “{We are going to kill Nabal!} Each of you, fasten on your swords!” So they did, and David fastened on his own sword. Then 400 of the men went with David to Carmel, while 200 of them stayed behind to guard their supplies.

What did David tell his men to do when he heard Nabal’s response?

David ordered his men to strap on their swords.

1 Samuel 25:14

ULT

14 But one young man from the young men declared to Abigail, the wife of Nabal, saying, “Behold, David sent messengers from the wilderness to bless our master, but he screamed at them.

UST

14 One of Nabal’s servants {found out what David and his men were planning to do, so he} went to Nabal’s wife Abigail and told her, “Please listen. David sent some messengers here to speak politely with our master Nabal, but he only yelled at them.

When one of the young men spoke to Abigail, how did he say that David and his men had treated Nabal’s shepherds? (vv14-15)

He said the men were very kind to them and did not harm them or steal anything from them.

1 Samuel 25:15

ULT

15 But the men {were} very good to us. And we were not hurt, and we did not miss anything all of the days when we went about with them in our being in the field.

17 And now, know and see what you shall do, for harm has completed against our master and against all of his house. And he {is} a son of wickedness from speaking to him."

UST

17 So please consider this situation and think of something that you can do about it. David has already decided to hurt our master and all of us in his household. Nabal is a very bad man, so he will not listen to anyone who tries to tell him what he should do."

Why did the young man go to Abigail instead of to Nabal?

He said that Nabal is such a wicked man that he will not listen to anyone who tries to tell him what he should do.

1 Samuel 25:18

ULT

18 And Abigail hurried and took 200 {loaves of} bread and two skins of wine and five prepared sheep and five seahs of roasted grain and 100 bunches of raisins and 200 cakes of figs. And she put them on donkeys.

UST

18 When Abigail heard that, she very quickly gathered 200 loaves of bread, two leather bags full of wine, the meat from five sheep, nearly 40 liters of roasted grain, 100 packs of raisins, and 200 packs of dried figs. She put all those things on donkeys.

What did Abigail do after hearing about her husband's response? (vv18-19)

Abigail hurriedly gathered provisions, put them on donkeys, and told her young men to go ahead of her, taking them to David, but she did not tell Nabal.

1 Samuel 25:19

ULT

19 And she said to her young men, “Pass over to my face. Behold me, I will come after you.” But to her husband Nabal she did not declare.

UST

19 Then she told her servants, “{Bring these things to David as fast as you can.} Do not wait for me. I will follow you as quickly as I can.” But she did not tell her husband what she was doing.

20 Abigail was riding on her donkey, and she was coming down the slope of a hill. Just then David and his men were coming down the slope of an opposite hill. So they met at the bottom.

Whom did Abigail meet as she rode her donkey down the mountain?

David and his men were coming down to meet her, and she encountered them.

1 Samuel 25:21

ULT

21 Now David had said, “Surely for a lie I kept all that {was} to this {one} in the wilderness, and not anything was missed from all that {was} to him. For he has returned evil to me for good.

UST

21 David had been saying to his men, “It was useless for us to protect that man and all his possessions here in this desolate area. We did not steal anything that belonged to him. In return for our good actions toward him, he has acted badly toward us!

What had David said he planned to do after protecting Nabal’s possessions in vain? (vv21-22)

David had said that by morning he would kill Nabal and every male person in his household.

1 Samuel 25:22

ULT

22 Thus may God do to the enemies of David, and thus may he add, if I let remain until the morning any pissing against the wall who {are} to him!”

23 And Abigail saw David, and she hurried and got down from upon the donkey. And she fell to the face of David on her face and prostrated herself {on} the ground.

UST

23 When Abigail saw David, she quickly got down from her donkey and bowed respectfully before him with her face touching the ground.

What did Abigail do when she met David? (vv23-24)

Abigail hurriedly got down from her donkey, respectfully bowed to the ground before David, accepted the blame for the way he was mistreated, and asked to speak to him.

1 Samuel 25:24

ULT

24 And she fell at his feet and said, “On me myself, my master, {be} the iniquity. Now please let your maidservant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your maidservant.

1 Samuel 25:25

ULT

25 May my master please not set his heart to this man of wickedness, upon Nabal, for as {is} his name, so {is} he. Nabal {is} his name, and foolishness {is} with him. But I, your maidservant, did not see the young men of my master, whom you sent.

UST

25 Please do not pay any attention to how this bad man Nabal has insulted you. His name suits him perfectly. His name means “fool,” and he surely is foolish. Now I did not see the messengers you sent to him. {If I had, I would certainly have given them plenty of food from our feast.}

What did Abigail hope to prevent by speaking to David? (vv25-26)

She hoped to keep David from killing many people himself instead of relying on Yahweh to protect him.

1 Samuel 25:26

ULT

26 And now, my master, the life of Yahweh, and the life of your soul, {it is} Yahweh who has restrained you from entering into bloodshed and your hand saving for yourself. And now, may your enemies and the ones seeking harm against my master be like Nabal.

UST

27 And now, may this blessing that your maidservant has caused to come to my master be given to the young men going about at the feet of my master.

UST

27 {You have received} the food that I sent on ahead of me. It is a present for you and for the men who are with you.

What did Abigail ask David to do with the blessing she brought? (vv27-28)

Abigail asked that the blessing be given to the young men who followed David and that he would forgive her transgression.

1 Samuel 25:28

ULT

28 Please lift off the transgression of your maidservant. For making, Yahweh will make for my master an established house, because my master is fighting the battles of Yahweh. And evil will not be found in you from your days.

UST

28 So please forgive this offense, for which I consider myself responsible. Because you have been fighting against Yahweh's enemies, he will certainly make you king of Israel and then allow many of your descendants to become king after you. So please do not do anything terrible that you will regret for as long as you live.

Who did Abigail say would make David to be king?

Abigail said that Yahweh would make David king of Israel and then allow many of his descendants to become king after him. because he was fighting the battles of Yahweh.

1 Samuel 25:29

ULT

29 If a man arises to pursue you and to seek your life, then the life of my master will be bound in the bundle of the living by Yahweh your God. But the life of your enemies, he will sling it away in the midst of the pocket of a sling.

UST

29 Even if someone searches for you to try to kill you, Yahweh your God will make sure that you stay alive, as if he had wrapped you up securely for protection. He will make your enemies die instead. They will die as swiftly as a stone flies that someone hurls from a sling.

Who does Abigail say will sling away the lives of David's enemies?

She says that Yahweh, David's God, will sling them away as swiftly as a stone flies from the pocket of a sling.

32 And David said to Abigail, “May Yahweh, the God of Israel, be blessed, who sent you this day to meet me.

UST

32 David replied to Abigail, “I thank Yahweh, the God whom we Israelites worship, for sending you to speak with me today.

Whom did David say had sent Abigail to meet him?

David said that Yahweh, the God of Israel, had sent Abigail.

1 Samuel 25:33

ULT

33 And blessed be your discernment, and blessed be {you} who have kept me this day from entering into bloodshed and my hand saving for myself!

UST

33 I thank him for your wisdom, and I thank him that you kept me today from killing many people myself instead of relying on Yahweh to protect me.

Why did David say that Abigail and her discernment were blessed?

Because Abigail had kept him that day from entering into bloodshed and from saving himself with his own hand.

1 Samuel 25:34

ULT

34 For indeed, the life of Yahweh, the God of Israel, who has retrained me from harming you, that lest you had hurried and come to meet me, that if one pissing against the wall had been left to Nabal until the light of the morning!"

1 Samuel 25:36

ULT

36 And Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, a feast {was} to him in his house like the feast of a king. And the heart of Nabal was good within him, and he {was} drunk to abundance. So she did not declare to him a thing small or great until the light of the morning.

UST

36 When Abigail returned home to Nabal, she found that he was having a big celebration such as kings have. He was feeling very happy, and he had gotten very drunk. So Abigail did not say anything at all to him that night {about her meeting with David}.

Why did Abigail not say anything to Nabal when she returned from seeing David?

Nabal was holding a feast like a king's feast and was very drunk.

1 Samuel 25:37

ULT

37 And it happened in the morning, when the wine had gone out from Nabal, that his wife declared to him these things. And his heart died in the midst of him, and he became a stone.

UST

37 The next morning, when Nabal was no longer drunk, his wife told him how David and his men had been just about to kill him and all the other men in the household. He became so distressed that he had a stroke and could no longer move.

What happened to Nabal in the morning when Abigail told him what had happened? (vv37-38)

He had a stroke and could no longer move; about ten days later, Yahweh struck Nabal and he died.

1 Samuel 25:38

ULT

38 And it was about ten days, and Yahweh struck Nabal and he died.

UST

38 About ten days later Yahweh caused something further to happen to Nabal so that he died.

4 For David sent spies, so he knew as a confirmed {thing} Saul had come.

UST

4 He learned that by sending out some spies. They came back and told him that Saul had in fact come to their area.

How did David know that Saul was coming after him into the wilderness?

David sent out spies and learned for certain that Saul had come.

1 Samuel 26:5

ULT

5 And David arose and came to the place where Saul had camped there. And David saw the place where Saul lay there, and Abner, the son of Ner, the commander of his army. And Saul lay within the wagon-track, and the people were camped around him.

UST

5 David decided to go at night and look at the place where {the spies told him} Saul's army had set up its tents. From a distance, he could see where Saul and his army commander, Abner, were sleeping. Saul was sleeping inside a barricade that the soldiers had made with the wagons in which they had brought their supplies. The rest of the army was sleeping all around Saul.

Where did David go after learning that Saul had come?

David arose and went to the place where Saul had camped.

1 Samuel 26:6

ULT

6 And David answered and said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul, to the camp?" And Abishai said, "I, I will go down with you."

UST

6 When David saw this, he spoke with two of his men who were with him. These men were Ahimelech, who was from the Hittite people group, and Abishai, who was the son of Zeruiah and the brother of Joab. David asked them, "Which of you will go with me down into the camp where Saul is sleeping?" Abishai replied, "I will go with you."

What did Abishai want to do when he and David saw Saul sleeping inside the camp? (vv6-8)

Abishai wanted to strike Saul with his own spear and pin him to the earth.

1 Samuel 26:7

ULT

7 And David and Abishai came to the people {at} night. And behold, Saul was lying asleep in the wagon-track, and his spear was pressed into the ground by his head. And Abner and the people were lying around him.

1 Samuel 26:12

ULT

12 And David took the spear and the jug of water from the head of Saul, and they went for themselves. And none was seeing, and none was knowing, and none was awakening, for all of them were sleeping, because a deep sleep of Yahweh had fallen on them.

UST

12 So David took the spear and the jug that were near Saul’s head. Then he and Abishai left. Yahweh had made Saul and his soldiers very sleepy, so they were all asleep during this time. So no one woke up and saw them or knew what they were doing.

1 Samuel 26:13

ULT

13 And David passed over {to} the other side, and he stood on the head of a hill at a distance. Great {was} the place between them.

UST

13 David and Abishai went across a valley and climbed up high on a hill opposite Hakilah. They were far away from Saul's camp.

Where did David go after he left Saul's camp?

He went across a valley and stood on the top of the hill far away from Saul's camp.

1 Samuel 26:14

ULT

14 And David called to the people and to Abner, the son of Ner, saying, "Will you not answer, Abner?" And Abner answered and said, "Who {are} you {who} call to the king?"

UST

14 Then David shouted in the direction of Saul's army. He shouted to Abner, "I want to speak with you, Abner!" Abner replied "Who are you? You should not be waking up the king by calling out like this!"

1 Samuel 26:15

ULT

15 And David said to Abner, "{Are} you not a man? And who {is} like you in Israel? So why did you not watch over your master the king? For one of the people came to destroy the king, your master.

UST

15 David replied, "You are a better soldier than any other man in Israel. So you should have protected the king whom you serve. Someone came into your camp tonight, and he could have killed your king.

Why did David say Abner, the man who was to watch over Saul, deserved to die? (vv15-16)

He said Abner deserved to die because he did not watch over his master, the anointed of Yahweh.

1 Samuel 26:16

ULT

16 This thing that you have done {is} not good. The life of Yahweh, that you {are} sons of death who did not watch over your master, over the anointed one of Yahweh. And now, see, where {are} the spear of the king and the jug of water that {were} by his head?”

UST

16 You have failed in your duties as soldiers. I swear by Yahweh that someone should punish you and your men by executing you! You have not protected your master, whom Yahweh appointed to be the king. Here is proof that someone came into your camp tonight: the royal spear and the water jug that were close to the king’s head are now missing!”

1 Samuel 26:17

ULT

17 And Saul recognized the voice of David and said, “{Is} this your voice, my son David?” And David said, “My voice, my lord the king.”

UST

17 Saul {woke up and recognized} David by his voice. He called out, “Is that really you speaking to me, David my son?” David replied, “Yes, your majesty, I am the one speaking.”

What question did David ask Saul? (vv17-18)

David asked why his master was pursuing David, his servant, and what evil he had done.

1 Samuel 26:18

ULT

18 And he said, “Why {is} this, my master pursuing after his servant? For what have I done, and what evil {is} in my hand?

UST

18 Then David added, “Sir, there is no reason for you to be chasing me. I have done nothing at all to harm you!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 26:19

ULT

19 And now, may my lord the king please hear the words of his servant. If Yahweh has incited you against me, may he smell an offering. But if sons of man, may they be cursed to the face of Yahweh. For they have driven me out today from joining myself with the inheritance of Yahweh, saying, ‘Go, serve other gods.’

UST

19 Your majesty, please listen to me! If Yahweh {is punishing me for sinning} by causing you to want to harm me, I hope he will accept a guilt offering from me {and forgive me}. But if it is people who have caused you to be angry with me, then I hope Yahweh will make bad things happen to them! {If people have convinced you to want to harm me,} they are now forcing me to leave this land that Yahweh has given to the Israelites. By making me leave Israel, it is as if they are telling me to live somewhere else where the people worship different gods!

What did David say should happen to the people who had caused Saul to be angry with him?

David said that they should be cursed before Yahweh because they had driven him out from the inheritance of Yahweh.

1 Samuel 26:20

ULT

20 And now, do not let my blood fall to the earth from before the face of Yahweh. For the king of Israel has come out to seek one flea, just as one pursues a partridge in the mountains.”

UST

20 Now do not force me to die away from the land where Yahweh is present in a special way. I am as unimportant as a single flea, so you, the king, do not need to be chasing me! That makes no more sense than chasing one bird into the mountains when many birds of that kind live in nearby fields.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 26:21

ULT

21 And Saul said, “I have sinned! Return, my son David! For I will not harm you again, for my life was precious in your eyes this day. Behold, I have acted foolishly and have strayed very greatly!”

UST

21 Then Saul said, “David, my son, I have sinned {by trying to kill you}. Please come back home. Today you considered my life to be very valuable, so you did not kill me. So I will not try to harm you anymore. I recognize that I have foolishly made a very big mistake.”

What did Saul say to David?

Saul said that he had sinned, had acted foolishly, and would not harm David anymore. He asked David to come back home.

1 Samuel 26:22

ULT

22 And David answered and said, “Behold the spear of the king! Now let one of the young men pass over and take it.

UST

22 David replied, “Look, here is your spear! Send one of your young men over here to get it.

What did David tell Saul to do about his spear?

He told Saul to send one of his young men over to get it.

1 Samuel 26:23

ULT

23 And may Yahweh return to a man his righteousness and his faithfulness, for Yahweh gave you into {my} hand today, but I was not willing to stretch out my hand against the anointed one of Yahweh.

UST

23 Yahweh gave me the opportunity to kill you today, but I refused to do that, because you are the one whom Yahweh has appointed to be the king. When people treat others right and are loyal to them {as I have just done for you}, may Yahweh treat them the same way.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 26:24

ULT

24 And behold, just as your life was great in my eyes this day, so may my life be great in the eyes of Yahweh, and may he deliver me from all distress.”

UST

24 Just as I considered your life to be valuable {and spared it} today, I hope that Yahweh will consider my life to be valuable and rescue me from every danger.”

What did David say about the value of both of their lives?

David said that just as Saul’s life was great in his eyes that day, he hoped that Yahweh could consider his own life to be great and rescue him from every danger.\n

1 Samuel 26:25

ULT

25 And Saul said to David, “Blessed be you, my son David! Both doing, you will do, and also being able, you will be able.” And David went to his way, and Saul returned to his place.

UST

25 Then Saul said to David, “My son David, I want Yahweh to do good things for you. I know that you will do great things very successfully.” Then David left that place, and Saul went back home.

1 Samuel 27

1 Samuel 27:1

ULT

1 And David said to his heart, “Now I will be swept away one day by the hand of Saul. {There is} no good for me except escaping, I should escape to the land of the Philistines. And Saul will despair of me to seek me again in all of the border of Israel, and I will escape from his hand.”

UST

1 But David thought, “Some day Saul will capture me and kill me {if I stay here in Israel}. So the best thing that I can do is certainly to flee to the region of Philistia. If I do that, Saul will stop searching for me here in Israel, and I will be safe from him.”

Why did David think that he needed to escape into the land of the Philistines?

David felt that otherwise Saul would capture him and kill him.

1 Samuel 27:2

ULT

2 And David arose and passed over, he and 600 men who {were} with him, to Achish. the son of Maok, the king of Gath.

UST

2 So David and his 600 men left Israel and went to the city of Gath {in the region of Philistia}. Achish son of Maok was the king of that city.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 27:3

ULT

3 And David dwelled with Achish in Gath, he and his men, a man and his house, David and the two of his wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the Carmelitess, the wife of Nabal.

UST

3 Achish agreed that David and his men could live in Gath. So all of the men brought their families there. David brought his two wives with him, Ahinoam from Jezreel and Abigail, Nabal’s widow, from Carmel.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 27:4

ULT

4 And it was declared to Saul that David had fled {to} Gath, and he did not add to seek him more.

UST

4 When Saul learned that David had gone to live in Gath, he stopped pursuing him.

What made Saul no longer seek for David?

Saul heard that David had fled to Gath.

1 Samuel 27:5

ULT

5 And David said to Achish, “Please, if I have found favor in your eyes, may they give to me a place in one of the cities of the field, and let me dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the city of the kingship with you?”

UST

5 One day David said to Achish, “If you are pleased with us, give us a place to live in one of the small villages in the countryside. We do not have to live here in the royal city with you.”

What did David ask for and receive from Achish the Philistine? (vv5-6)

David asked for a place to live in one of the villages in the countryside, and Achish gave him Ziklag.

1 Samuel 27:6

ULT

6 So on that day Achish gave to him Ziklag. (Therefore Ziklag is to the kings of Judah to this day.)

UST

6 Achish {agreed and} gave David the town of Ziklag at that time. (As a result, Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah ever since.)

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 27:7

ULT

7 And the number of the days that David dwelled in the field of the Philistines was days and four months.

UST

7 David and his men lived in the region of Philistia for a total of 16 months.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 27:8

ULT

8 And David and his men went up and raided against the Geshurite and the Girzite and the Amalekite (for they were dwelling in the land, that from ancient times) in your going to Shur and to the land of Egypt.

UST

8 While they were living there, David and his men attacked communities of the Geshurites, Girzites, and Amalekites. To do that, they went as far south as the region of Shur near the border of Egypt. The people in those communities had lived in that area for a very long time.

What did David and his men do when they raided the Geshurites, Girzites, and Amalekites? (vv8-9)

They struck the land, did not let a man or woman live, and took the sheep, cattle, donkeys, camels, and garments.

1 Samuel 27:9

ULT

9 And David struck the land and did not let a man or a woman live. And he took sheep and cattle and donkeys and camels and garments. And he returned and came to Achish.

UST

9 Whenever David's men attacked these communities, they killed all of the people who lived in them. Then they took their sheep and cattle and donkeys and camels and clothes. They brought those things back home with them, and David would go to talk with Achish.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 27:10

ULT

10 And Achish said, "Have you not raided today?" And David said, "Against the Negev of Judah" or "against the Negev of the Jerahmeelite" or "against the Negev of the Kenite."

UST

10 Each time Achish would ask David, "Where did you go raiding today?" David would {lie to him and} sometimes say that he and his men had attacked the people who lived in the Negev within the territory of Judah. Other times, he would say that they had attacked the Jerahmeelites who lived in the Negev. And at other times, he would say that they had attacked the Kenites who lived in the Negev.

Where did David tell Achish he had raided?

David would say that he had raided the south of Judah, or the south of the Jerahmeelites, or the south of the Kenites.

1 Samuel 27:11

ULT

11 Now David did not let a man or a woman live to bring {to} Gath, saying, “Lest they declare about us, saying, ‘Thus did David do.’” And this {was} his custom all of the days that he dwelled in the field of the Philistines.

UST

11 David’s men never brought anyone alive back to Gath. David thought, “If we do not kill everyone, some of them will tell Achish the truth about what we really did.” David did that the whole time that he and his men lived in the region of Philistia.

From the raids, why did David not bring anyone alive back to Gath?

David did this so that they would not be able to tell Achish the truth about he had really done.

1 Samuel 27:12

ULT

12 And Achish trusted in David, saying, “Stinking, he stinks among his people in Israel, so he will be to me for a servant forever.”

UST

12 Achish believed what David told him, and he thought, “Because of what David has done, his own people, the Israelites, must now hate him very much. So he will always have to stay here and serve me.”

Why did Achish trust David?

Achish believed what David told him and thought that David had made himself to be hated among his own people so that he would always have to stay and serve Achish.

1 Samuel 28

1 Samuel 28:1

ULT

1 And it happened in those days that the Philistines gathered their camps for war, to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, “Knowing, you know that you shall go out with me into the camp, you and your men.”

UST

1 During the time when David was living near Gath, the people of Philistia gathered their army to attack the Israelites. King Achish told David, “You must understand that you and your men have to join my men to attack the Israelites.”

What did Achish want David and his men to do when the Philistines gathered to fight Israel? (vv1-2)

Achish wanted David and his men to go out with him into the camp for battle.

1 Samuel 28:2

ULT

2 And David said to Achish, “Therefore you yourself will know what your servant will do.” And Achish said to David, “Therefore I am appointing you the keeper of my head all of the days.”

UST

2 David replied, “We will go with you, and then you will see for yourself how well we will fight for you!” Achish told him, “Very well, I will make you my personal bodyguard from now on.”

1 Samuel 28:3

ULT

3 Now Samuel had died, and all of Israel had mourned for him, and they had buried him in Ramah, even in his city. And Saul had removed the ritual pits and the familiar spirits from the land.

UST

3 By this time, Samuel had died, and the Israelite people had mourned for him. Then they had buried him in Ramah, his hometown. Also, before this, Saul had forbidden anyone in Israel to try to contact people who had died or to try to talk to spirits that could tell them things that people otherwise could not know.

Whom had Saul removed from the land after Samuel’s death?

Saul had removed those who consulted with ritual pits and familiar spirits from the land.

1 Samuel 28:4

ULT

4 And the Philistines gathered and came and camped at Shunem. And Saul gathered all of Israel, and they camped at Gilboa.

UST

4 The Philistines assembled their troops and marched into Israel and set up their tents near the city of Shunem. Saul gathered the Israelite army, and they set up their tents at Gilboa.

Where did the Philistines and the Israelites set up their camps to fight?

The Philistines camped at Shunem, and Israel camped at Gilboa.

1 Samuel 28:5

ULT

5 And Saul saw the camp of the Philistines. And he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.

UST

5 When Saul saw how many Philistine soldiers had come to attack the Israelites, he became so afraid that his heart pounded.

Why did Saul search for a woman who was a mistress of a ritual pit? (vv5-7)

Saul was very afraid of the Philistine army, and Yahweh did not answer him by dreams, Urim, or prophets, so Saul sought a women who owns a pit that she uses to contact people who have died.

1 Samuel 28:6

ULT

6 And Saul inquired of Yahweh, but Yahweh did not answer him, either by dreams or by the Urim or by prophets.

UST

6 Saul asked Yahweh to help him know how he should fight against the Philistines, but Yahweh did not answer him. He did not give Saul any special dream. The priest got no answer for him by drawing a stone from his sacred pouch. Yahweh did not give any prophet a message for Saul.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 28:7

ULT

7 So Saul said to his servants, “Seek for me a woman of a mistress of a ritual pit so I may go to her and inquire of her.” And his servants said to him, “Behold, a woman of a mistress of a ritual pit {is} in Endor.”

UST

7 Then Saul told his officials, “Find for me a woman who owns a pit that she uses to contact people who have died. That way I can go to her and ask her to contact a dead person who can give me advice.” One of his officials replied, “There is a woman in the town of Endor who owns that kind of pit.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 28:8

ULT

8 And Saul disguised himself and put on other garments, and he went, he and two of the men with him. And they came to the woman {at} night. And he said, “Please divine for me with the ritual pit and bring up for me whom I say to you.”

UST

8 So that the woman would not know he was the king, Saul took off his royal robes and put on ordinary clothes. Then he and two of his men went during the night to speak with that woman. Saul told her, “I will tell you the name of a dead person. I want you to use your pit to cause that person’s spirit to appear so that I can speak with him.”

What was the woman afraid of when the disguised Saul went to talk to her? (vv8-9)

She was afraid that he was setting a trap for her life, because Saul had cut off those who try to contact people who have died or to try to talk to spirits.

1 Samuel 28:9

ULT

9 But the woman said to him, “Behold, you yourself know what Saul has done, that he has cut off the ritual pits and the familiar spirits from the land. So why are you setting a trap against my life, to cause me to die?”

UST

9 But the woman replied, “Certainly you know what Saul has done. He has forbidden anyone in Israel to try to contact people who have died or to try to talk to spirits that can tell them things that people otherwise cannot know. You should not be putting me in danger by asking me to do this. People would execute me if they found out that I had done it.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 28:10

ULT

10 But Saul swore to her by Yahweh, saying, “The life of Yahweh, if punishment shall meet you for this thing!”

UST

10 In response, Saul made her a sacred promise. He said, “I swear by Yahweh, if you do what I ask, no one will punish you.”

What did Saul promise the woman?

Saul swore by Yahweh that no one would punish if she did what he asked.

1 Samuel 28:11

ULT

11 So the woman said, “Whom shall I bring up for you?” And he said, “Bring up Samuel for me.”

UST

11 So the woman asked, “Whom do you want me to make appear?” Saul replied, “Make Samuel appear.”

How did the woman know that the man who asked her to bring up Samuel was Saul? (vv11-12)

When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice and said to Saul that he had deceived her.

1 Samuel 28:12

ULT

12 And the woman saw Samuel, and she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Saul, saying, “Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!”

UST

12 {So she did that. But} when the woman saw Samuel, she screamed. She said, “You have tricked me! You are Saul! {You will execute me for doing this!}”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 28:13

ULT

13 And the king said to her, “Do not fear. But what have you seen?” And the woman said to Saul, “I have seen a god coming up from the earth.”

UST

13 Saul said to her, “Do not be afraid{, I am not going to execute you}. But tell me what you see.” The woman said, “I see a spirit being coming up out of the ground.”

What did the woman say Samuel looked like? (vv13-14)

The woman said she saw an old man wearing a robe.

1 Samuel 28:14

ULT

14 And he said to her, “What {is} his appearance?” And she said, “An old man is coming up, and he is wearing a robe.” And Saul knew that it {was} Samuel, and he bowed, nostrils to the ground, and he prostrated himself.

UST

14 Saul said, “What does he look like?” The woman replied, “An old man wearing a robe is appearing.” Then Saul knew that it was Samuel. To honor him, Saul humbly bowed down with his face touching the ground.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 28:15

ULT

15 And Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me to bring me up?” And Saul said, “It is very narrow to me, for the Philistines are fighting with me. And God has turned aside from with me, and he does not answer me anymore, either by the hand of prophets or by dreams, so I have called to you to let me know what I should do.”

UST

15 Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you bothered me by bringing me back to earth from the place where dead people go?” Saul said, “I am in great danger. The Philistine army is about to attack my army, but God is no longer helping me. He no longer tells me what I should do by giving a message for me to any prophet or by giving me a dream. That is why wanted to speak with you. I want you tell me what I should do!”

Why did Saul say he had brought up Samuel?

Saul said that he was in great danger but God was no longer helping him, so he wanted Samuel to tell him what he should do.

1 Samuel 28:16

ULT

16 And Samuel said, “And why do you ask me, since Yahweh has turned aside from with you and has become your enemy?

UST

16 Samuel said, “Since Yahweh himself is no longer helping you and has become your enemy, you should not ask me what you should do!

What did Samuel say Yahweh had done with Saul’s kingdom? (vv16-17)

Yahweh had torn Saul’s kingdom from his hand and had given it to his fellow, to David.

1 Samuel 28:17

ULT

17 Now Yahweh has done for himself just as he spoke by my hand. For Yahweh has torn the kingdom from your hand and has given it to your fellow, to David.

UST

17 He had me prophesy earlier about what he would do, and now Yahweh is doing just what I said. He has decided that you will no longer be the king of Israel. Another Israelite will be the king instead of you—David.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 28:18

ULT

18 Because you did not listen to the voice of Yahweh and you did not do the burning of his nose against Amalek, therefore Yahweh has done this thing to you this day.

UST

18 The Amalekites made Yahweh very angry. He told you to punish them for him by destroying them completely. But you did not obey him. That is why he is now not telling you how to fight against the Philistines.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 28:19

ULT

19 And Yahweh will also give Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons {will be} with me. Yahweh will also give the camp of Israel into the hand of the Philistines."

UST

19 Yahweh will also enable the Philistine army to defeat you and all the other Israelite soldiers. By tomorrow you and your sons will be with me in the place where dead people go. Yes, Yahweh will enable the Philistine army to defeat the entire Israelite army."

What did Samuel say would happen to Saul and his sons the next day?

He said that the next day, Saul and his sons would be with him in death.

1 Samuel 28:20

ULT

20 And Saul hurried and fell, the fullness of his height to the ground, for he feared greatly from the words of Samuel. Also strength was not in him, for he had not eaten bread all of the day and all of the night.

UST

20 {After Samuel said that, he disappeared.} Saul had been standing up, but he immediately fell flat on the ground. He was very afraid because of what Samuel had told him. He was also very weak because he had not eaten anything all that day and night.

1 Samuel 28:21

ULT

21 And the woman came to Saul, and she saw that he was very frightened, And she said to him, "Behold, your maidservant has listened to your voice, and I have put my life in my palm, for I heard the words that you spoke to me.

UST

21 The woman came over to Saul and saw how very scared he was. She said to him, "Listen to me! I have done what you asked me to do. Because I did that, you could tell someone to execute me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 28:22

ULT

22 And now, please listen, even you, to the voice of your maidservant, and let me set to your face a piece of bread, and eat. And strength will be in you when you go in the way."

UST

22 Since I did what you asked, please now do what I ask. Please let me serve you some food to eat. That way you will get enough strength back to return to your army."

What did the woman and Saul's servants urge him to do?

They urged him to eat a piece of bread to have strength to go on his way.

1 Samuel 28:23

ULT

23 But he refused and said, "I will not eat." But his servants urged him, and also the woman, and he listened to their voice. And he arose from the ground and sat on the bed.

UST

23 But Saul refused. He said, "No, I will not eat anything." But the men who had come with Saul urged him to eat something, and the woman did too, and finally he agreed. He got up from the ground and sat on a couch against the wall.

1 Samuel 28:24

ULT

24 Now to the woman {was} a calf of the stall in the house, and she hurried and slaughtered it. And she took flour and kneaded and baked it {as} unleavened bread.

UST

24 The woman kept a calf in a stall near her house. She quickly slaughtered it and cooked it. She also took some flour and mixed it with olive oil and baked it, without adding any leaven, to make a flat loaf of bread.

What did the woman prepare for Saul and his servants to eat? (vv24-25)

She killed a fatted calf from the stall of her house, and she baked unleavened bread for them to eat.

1 Samuel 28:25

ULT

25 And she brought it to the face of Saul and to the face of his servants, and they ate. And they arose and went in that night.

UST

25 She served the food to Saul and his men, and they ate it. Then, that same night, they got up and left.

1 Samuel 29:3

ULT

3 And the lords of the Philistines said, “What {are} these Hebrews?” And Achish said to the lords of the Philistines, “{Is} this not David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or these years? And I have not found anything in him from the day of his falling to this day.”

UST

3 But {on the way to the battlefield} the Philistine rulers asked, “These Hebrews should not be here, marching with us to battle!” Achish replied, “Their leader is David. He previously served King Saul of Israel, but now he has been living near me for more than a year. During all the time since he left Saul, he has been completely loyal to me.”

How did Achish defend the presence of David on the battlefield to the Philistine rulers?

Achish said that in the year that David had been living near him, David had been completely loyal to him.

1 Samuel 29:4

ULT

4 But the lords of the Philistines were angry with him. And the lords of the Philistines said to him, “Make the man return, that he may return to his place that you assigned him there. For he shall not go down with us into the battle, so he does not become an adversary for us in the battle. For by what shall this {one} make himself acceptable to his master? {Is it} not by the heads of these men?

UST

4 But the Philistine rulers became angry with Achish. They said to him, “You must send David and his men back to the city that you gave him! We do not want him to go with us into the battle. If he goes with us, we will have an enemy within our own army! He would make Saul happy with him again by killing our own soldiers!

What were the commanders of the Philistines afraid that David would do during the battle?

They feared that David would become an adversary to them in the battle by turning against them.

1 Samuel 29:5

ULT

5 {Is} this not David, of whom they sing in the dances, saying, ‘Saul has struck his thousands, and David his myriads’?”

UST

5 Do not forget that David is the one about whom the Israelite women sing as they dance. They sing, ‘Saul has killed thousands of our enemies, but David has killed tens of thousands of them!’”

1 Samuel 29:6

ULT

6 So Achish called to David and said to him, “The life of Yahweh, that you {are} upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the camp {is} good in my eyes, for I have not found evil in you from the day of your coming to me to this day. But in the eyes of the lords you {are} not good.

UST

6 So Achish summoned David, and said to him, “I swear by Yahweh that I know I can trust you. I would like very much for you to fight with me in the army. Since the day that you came to me, you have been completely loyal to me. But the other rulers do not trust you.

What did Achish tell David to do because the commanders of the Philistines did not approve of him? (vv6-7)

He told David to return and go in peace.

1 Samuel 29:7

ULT

7 And now, return and go in peace, so you do not do evil in the eyes of the lords of the Philistines."

UST

7 So you and your men must go back home. I am not sending you away as an enemy, but as a friend. But the other rulers of the Philistines do not want you to remain with the army."

1 Samuel 29:9

ULT

9 And Achish answered and said to David, "I know that you {are} good in my eyes like an angel of God. Nevertheless, the lords of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us into the battle.'

UST

9 Achish replied, "I know I can trust you as much as I would trust an angel from God. But the Philistine commanders have said, 'We will not allow David and his men to go with us into the battle.'

What was Achish's final decision about David?

Achish said that David was good in his eyes like an angel of God, but the commanders had said David must not go up with them to the battle.

1 Samuel 29:10

ULT

10 And now, arise early in the morning with the servants of your master who came with you. And you shall arise early in the morning, when light {is} to you, and go."

UST

10 So you and the other Israelite men who came to me with you must leave early tomorrow morning. Get up as soon as it becomes light and leave."

What did Achish tell David to do in the morning?

He told David and his men to rise early in the morning and go away as soon as it was light.

1 Samuel 29:11

ULT

11 So David arose early, he and his men, to go in the morning to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up {to} Jezreel.

UST

11 So David and his men got up early the following morning and returned to the area where the Philistine people lived. But the Philistine army marched on towards the city of Jezreel.

1 Samuel 30

1 Samuel 30:1

ULT

1 And it happened, when David and his men came {to} Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekite had raided against the Negev and against Ziklag, and they had struck Ziklag and burned it with fire.

UST

1 David and his men got back to Ziklag after marching for two whole days and part of another day. When they arrived, they discovered that the Amalekites, who had been raiding towns in the southern Judean wilderness, had also raided Ziklag. When the Amalekites had attacked Ziklag, they had burned down all the buildings.

What did David and his men find had happened to Ziklag while they were away? (vv1-2)

The Amalekites had raided Ziklag, burned it with fire, and taken captive all the women who were in it.

1 Samuel 30:2

ULT

2 And they had taken captive the women who {were} in it, from small and to great. They had not caused a man to die, but they had led {them} away and gone to their way.

UST

2 But they had not killed anyone. Instead, they had captured all the wives and children of David's men. They had taken them with them when they left.

1 Samuel 30:3

ULT

3 And David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burned with fire! And their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive.

UST

3 When David and his men arrived at Ziklag, they saw that the Amalekites had burned down the city and that they had captured and taken away their wives and children.

How did David and his men react to what they found in Ziklag? (vv3-4)

They lifted up their voices and wept until they had no more strength to weep.

1 Samuel 30:4

ULT

4 And David and the people who {were} with him lifted up their voices and wept until that no strength {was} in them to weep.

UST

4 David and his men cried very loudly until they became so weak that they could not cry any more.

1 Samuel 30:5

ULT

5 And the two wives of David had been taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the Carmelitess, the wife of Nabal.

UST

5 David's two wives were among the women whom the Amalekites had captured. They were Ahinoam from Jezreel and Abigail, Nabal's widow, from Carmel.

Why was David greatly distressed? (vv5-6)

His two wives had been taken captive, and the people were talking about killing David by stoning him.

1 Samuel 30:6

ULT

6 And it was very narrow to David, for the people said to stone him, for the soul of all of the people {was} bitter, a man for his sons and for his daughters. But David strengthened himself in Yahweh his God.

UST

6 David's men were very angry that the Amalekites had taken away their {wives and} children. They were talking about killing David by throwing stones at him. So David was in great danger. But he asked Yahweh his God to help him, and Yahweh made him strong.

1 Samuel 30:8

ULT

8 And David inquired of Yahweh, saying, “Shall I pursue after this band? Will I overtake it?” And he said to him, “Pursue, for overtaking, you will overtake, and delivering, you will deliver.”

UST

8 Then David asked Yahweh, “Should I and my men pursue the men who took our families? Will we be able to catch up with them?” Yahweh answered David {by means of the stones in the sacred apron}: “Yes, pursue them. Yes, you will catch up with them. Yes, you will be able to rescue your families.”

What did David ask Yahweh?

David asked Yahweh if he should pursue the band of raiders and if he would overtake them.

What was Yahweh’s answer to David?

Yahweh told him to pursue the men who took their families, for he would catch up with them and be able to rescue their families.

1 Samuel 30:9

ULT

9 So David went, he and the 600 men who {were} with him, and they came to the wadi of Besor. And the ones left behind stayed.

UST

9 So David and the 600 men who were with him set out from Ziklag {in pursuit of the Amalekites}. When they came to the Besor Ravine, some of men stayed there {with their supplies}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

1 Samuel 30:10

ULT

10 So David pursued, he and 400 men, but 200 men stayed who were too exhausted to pass over the wadi of Besor.

UST

10 There were 200 of those men. They stayed there at the ravine because they were too tired to cross it. But David and the other 400 men continued to pursue {the Amalekites who had captured their families}.

What happened to two hundred of David’s men at the wadi of Besor?

They were too exhausted to cross the wadi, so they stayed behind.

1 Samuel 30:11

ULT

11 And they found a man, an Egyptian, in the field, and they took him to David. And they gave bread to him, and he ate, and they had him drink water.

UST

11 Some of David's men happened to find an Egyptian man who was lying in a field. They picked him up and carried him to David. They gave the man some water to drink and some food to eat.

What was wrong with the Egyptian man that David and his men found in the field? (vv11-12)

He had not eaten bread or drunk any water for three days and three nights.

1 Samuel 30:12

ULT

12 And they gave to him a piece of a fig cake and two raisin clusters, and he ate, and his spirit returned to him. For he had not eaten bread and had not drunk water three days and three nights.

UST

12 They also gave him part of a fig cake and two packs of raisins. The man had not had anything to eat or drink since two days before, but after he ate and drank, he felt refreshed.

1 Samuel 30:13

ULT

13 And David said to him, "To whom {are} you? And where from this {are} you?" And he said, "I {am} an Egyptian young man, the slave of a man of the Amalekite. But my master abandoned me the third day because I became sick.

UST

13 David asked him, "Who is your master? And where do you come from?" He replied, "I am a youth from Egypt. I am a slave of an Amalekite man. But I became sick{, and it was difficult for me to keep traveling with the raiding band}. So the day before yesterday, my master left me here.

Why had the Egyptian slave's Amalekite master abandoned him?

His master abandoned him because he became sick three days earlier and it was difficult for him to keep traveling with the raiding band.

1 Samuel 30:15

ULT

15 And David said to him, "Will you bring me down to this band?" And he said, "Swear to me by God, if you will cause me to die and if you will enclose me in the hand of my master, and I will bring you down to this band."

UST

15 David asked him, "Can you lead us to this group of raiders?" He replied, "Swear to me by God that you will not kill me or give me back to my master. If you promise that, I will take you to them."

What did the Egyptian require before he would lead David to the raiding party?

He made David swear by God that he would not kill him or deliver him into the hand of his master.

1 Samuel 30:16

ULT

16 And he brought him down, and behold, they were spread out over the face of all of the land, eating and drinking and celebrating for all of the great plunder that they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

UST

16 {David agreed, so} the Egyptian man led David and his men to where the Amalekites were. Those men had captured many things from the regions of Philistia and Judah, and they had spread out around their camp eating and drinking and celebrating.

What were the raiders doing when David attacked them? (vv16-17)

They were spread out over the land, eating, drinking, and celebrating because of all the great plunder they had taken.

1 Samuel 30:17

ULT

17 And David struck them from twilight and until the evening of the next day of them. And a man did not escape from them except 400 men, young men who rode on camels and fled.

UST

17 David and his men slaughtered them from sunset that day until the evening of the next day. There were 400 young men who rode away on camels in order to escape, but none of the other Amalekites escaped.

1 Samuel 30:22

ULT

22 But all of the evil and wicked men from the men who had gone with David answered and said, “Because they did not go with us, we will not give to them from the plunder that we have rescued except a man, his wife and his sons, that they may lead away and go.”

UST

22 But some of the men who had gone with David were bad men and troublemakers. They said, “These 200 men did not go with us. So we will not give them any of the things that we recovered. We will just allow each of them to take his wife and children and go back to his home.”

Why did the evil and wicked men not want to share the recovered plunder with those who stayed behind?

They said those who stayed behind did not go with them.

1 Samuel 30:23

ULT

23 But David said, “You shall not do thus, my brothers, with what Yahweh has given to us. For he has kept us and given the band having come against us into our hand.

UST

23 David replied, “No, my friends, that would not be right. Yahweh protected us and enabled us to defeat the enemies who attacked our city. So what we captured from them was really something that Yahweh gave to us{, and we do not have a right to keep it to ourselves}.

Why did David tell the men they should all share alike? (vv23-24)

He said Yahweh had given them what they had and had given the raiders into their hand, so the share of the one who went to battle should be the same as the one who stayed with the equipment.

1 Samuel 30:24

ULT

24 Now who will listen to you regarding this matter? For as {is} the portion of the one having gone down into battle, so {shall be} the portion of the one having stayed with the equipment. They shall take portions together.”

UST

24 None of the rest of us will agree with you about this. Here is what I have decided. The men who stayed here with our supplies will get the same amount as the men who fought in the battle. They will all receive the same amount.”

2 Samuel 1:8

ULT

8 And he said to me, ‘Who {are} you?’ And I said to him, ‘I {am} an Amalekite.’

UST

8 He asked me, ‘Who are you?’ I replied, ‘I am an Amalekite.’

What did the young man say Saul asked him to do?

The young man said Saul asked him to stand over him and kill him.

2 Samuel 1:9

ULT

9 And he said to me, ‘Please stand over me and kill me, for agony has seized me, for my life {is} still whole in me.’

UST

9 Then he said to me, ‘I can no longer fight, because I am in such pain from my many wounds. But those wounds will not kill me. So please use one of the weapons here to kill me yourself.’

Why did Saul ask the young Amalekite man to kill him?

Saul asked the young Amalekite man to kill him because great agony had seized him, but his life was still in him.

2 Samuel 1:10

ULT

10 So I stood over him and killed him, for I knew that he would not live after his having fallen. And I took the crown that {was} on his head and the band that {was} on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord.”

UST

10 I knew that the Philistines would soon come and kill him, so he was not going to live anyway. So I used one of the weapons there to kill him. Then I took the crown he had been wearing and his armband. Here they are for you to see, sir.”

After the young man killed Saul, what did he take from Saul?

The young man took the crown that was on Saul’s head and the band that was on his arm.

2 Samuel 1:11

ULT

11 And David seized his clothes and tore them, and also all of the men who {were} with him.

UST

11 Then David took hold of his clothing and ripped it {to show how sad he was} All the men who were with him ripped their clothes as well.

What did David and his men do when they heard about the deaths of Saul and Jonathan? (vv11-12)

David and his men tore their clothes, and they mourned, wept, and fasted until evening.

2 Samuel 1:12

ULT

12 And they mourned and wept and fasted until the evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son and for the people of Yahweh and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

UST

12 They felt very sad, and they cried. They did not eat anything for the rest of that day. This was to honor and remember Saul and his son Jonathan and all of the Israelite soldiers whom the Philistines had killed in the battle. They were also very sorry for all of the Israelite people{, who had lost their king and many of their men and much of their territory}.

For whom else were David and his men mourning?

David and his men also mourned for the people of Yahweh and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

2 Samuel 1:13

ULT

13 And David said to the young man declaring to him, “Where from this {are} you?” And he said, “I {am} the son of a man, a foreigner, an Amalekite.”

UST

13 But then David asked the young man who had told him about the battle, “Where do you come from?” He replied, “I come from an Amalekite family, but we are living here in Israel.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 1:14

ULT

14 And David said to him, “How did you not fear to stretch out your hand to destroy the anointed of Yahweh?”

UST

14 David told him, “You should have respected Saul as the man whom Yahweh chose to be the king of Israel and not dared to kill him!”

Why did David have the young Amalekite man killed? (vv14-15)

David had the young Amalekite man killed because the man’s own words testified that he had killed Yahweh’s anointed.

2 Samuel 1:15

ULT

15 And David called to one of the young men, and he said, “Approach, attack him!” And he struck him, and he died.

UST

15 Then David summoned one of his soldiers and told him, “Come over here and kill this man!” So the soldier came over and killed him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 1:16

ULT

16 And David said to him, “Your blood {is} on your head, for your mouth answered against you, saying, ‘I myself killed the anointed of Yahweh.’”

UST

16 David said to the Amalekite, “You yourself said, ‘I killed the man whom Yahweh appointed to be the king.’ So you admitted that you were guilty and deserved to die!”

Why did David have the young Amalekite man killed?

David had the young Amalekite man killed because the man’s own words testified that he had killed Yahweh’s anointed.

2 Samuel 1:17

ULT

17 Then David lamented this lamentation for Saul and for Jonathan his son.

UST

17 Then David composed a sad song about Saul and Jonathan.

Where is the funeral song that David sang for Saul and Jonathan written? (vv17-18)

The song is written in the Book of Jashar.

2 Samuel 1:18

ULT

18 And he said to teach the sons of Judah “The Bow.” Behold, it is written in the Book of Jashar:

UST

18 He called this song “The Bow.” {When David became the king of Judah shortly afterward,} he told his officials to teach this song to the people of Judah. You can find the words in the Book of Jashar{. These are the words to the song}:

2 Samuel 1:19

ULT

19 “The splendor of Israel {is} slain on your high places! How the mighty have fallen!

UST

19 “You Israelite people, the Philistines have pursued your great warriors even onto the mountains and killed them there! It is very sad that these strong soldiers have died!

What was slain on Israel’s high places?

The splendor of Israel was slain there.

2 Samuel 1:20

ULT

20 May they not declare {it} in Gath, may they not proclaim {it} in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

UST

20 Do not let anyone who lives in cities such as Gath and Ashkelon find out about this! Otherwise, the women among the pagan Philistines will have victory celebrations.

Why did David not want the news of the defeat proclaimed in Gath or Ashkelon?

He did not want the daughters of the Philistines to rejoice or triumph.

2 Samuel 1:21

ULT

21 Mountains in Gilboa, {may} not dew and {may} not rain {be} upon you, nor fields of offerings, for there the shield of the mighty was loathed, the shield of Saul, not anointed with oil.

UST

21 The shield of Saul, that mighty king, remains on the ground on Mount Gilboa. No one is caring for it by rubbing it with olive oil. So I hope there will never be rain or dew there again {so that the shield does not rust}. I hope that there is so little rain that the fields do not even produce the small amount of grain that someone would bring as an offering.

Where does the shield of the Saul, the mighty king, remain?

The shield of the mighty king remains on ground on Mount Gilboa.

2 Samuel 1:22

ULT

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn itself back, and the sword of Saul did not return empty.

UST

22 When Jonathan shot arrows from his bow at enemy soldiers, the arrows struck them so that they bled and died. When Saul stabbed strong men with his sword, he wounded them so deeply that they died.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 1:23

ULT

23 Saul and Jonathan {were} being loved and delightful in their lives, and in their death they were not separated. They were swifter than eagles, they were mightier than lions.

UST

23 People loved Saul and Jonathan. They delighted many people during their lives. And they died fighting together against their enemies. They were warriors who could run fast, as eagles fly fast, and who were strong, as lions are strong.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 1:24

ULT

24 Daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, the one having clothed you {in} scarlet with delights, the one having put an ornament of gold on your clothing.

UST

24 You women in Israel should mourn for Saul. He made Israel a safe and prosperous place in which you had beautiful scarlet clothes and expensive jewelry and gold ornaments to wear.

What did Saul do for the daughters of Israel?

He made Israel a safe and prosperous place in which they had beautiful scarlet clothes and expensive jewelry and gold ornaments to wear.

2 Samuel 1:25

ULT

25 How the mighty have fallen in the midst of battle! Jonathan {is} slain on your high places.

UST

25 It is very sad that Jonathan, that strong soldier, has died while fighting a war! The Philistines pursued him even onto a mountain and killed him there.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 1:26

ULT

26 It is narrow to me concerning you, my brother Jonathan! You were very pleasant to me. Your love was more wonderful to me than the love of women.

UST

26 Jonathan, my dear friend, I grieve for you. You were very dear to me. You loved me in a wonderful way. It was much better than the fleeting feelings of romance that men and women have for each other.

How did David describe his love for Jonathan?

David said Jonathan's love for him was more wonderful than the love of women.

2 Samuel 1:27

ULT

27 How the mighty have fallen and the weapons of war have perished!”

UST

27 It is very sad that these strong soldiers have died. Saul and Jonathan are not using their sword and bow anymore.”

2 Samuel 2

2 Samuel 2:1

ULT

1 And it happened after this that David inquired of Yahweh, saying, “Shall I go up into one of the cities of Judah?” And Yahweh said to him, “Go up.” And David said, “Where shall I go up?” And he said, “To Hebron.”

UST

1 Sometime after that, David asked Yahweh, “Should I return to Judah and live in one of the cities there?” Yahweh replied, “Yes, return to Judah.” Then David asked, “To which city should I go?” Yahweh replied, “You should go to Hebron.”

What did David ask Yahweh, and what was the reply?

David asked if he should go up to one of the cities of Judah, and Yahweh told him to go up.

When David inquired further, to which city did Yahweh tell David to go?

Yahweh told David to go to Hebron.

2 Samuel 2:2

ULT

2 So David went up there, and also the two of his wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail, the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

UST

2 So David went to Hebron. He brought his two wives with him. They were Ahinoam, who was from the city of Jezreel, and Abigail, who was from the city of Carmel. She had been married to Nabal before he died.

Who went up with David to Hebron? (vv2-3)

David went up to Hebron with his two wives, Ahinoam and Abigail, and all his men and their families.

2 Samuel 2:3

ULT

3 And his men who {were} with him, David brought up, a man and his house. And they dwelled in the cities of Hebron.

UST

3 David also brought the men who had been with him, together with their families. They all settled in the city of Hebron and in the surrounding towns and villages.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:4

ULT

4 And the men of Judah came, and they anointed David there as king over the house of Judah. And they declared to David, saying, "{It was} the men of Jabesh Gilead who buried Saul."

UST

4 Then the men who were the leaders of the tribe of Judah came to Hebron. One of them poured olive oil on David's head to show they were appointing him to be the king of the tribe of Judah. Someone told David how soldiers from the city of Jabesh in the region of Gilead had recaptured Saul's body {from the wall of Beth Shan} and how the people of that city had buried his body honorably.

What did the men of Judah do when they came to David?

The men of Judah came and anointed David as king over the house of Judah.

2 Samuel 2:5

ULT

5 And David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead, and he said to them, "Blessed {are} you by Yahweh, that you have done this kindness with your master, with Saul, and have buried him.

UST

5 So David sent messengers to the people who lived in that city. He told the messengers to tell them, "I hope that Yahweh will do good things for you because you buried Saul's body honorably. By doing that, you treated Saul with the loyalty that he deserved as your king.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:6

ULT

6 And now, may Yahweh do kindness and faithfulness with you. And I myself will also do this good with you because you have done this thing.

UST

6 So this is what I hope will happen. I hope that Yahweh will be just as loyal to you all the time. And I will personally do good things for you because of the good way you treated Saul.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:7

ULT

7 And now, may your hands be strong, and be sons of valor, for your master Saul has died, and also the house of Judah has anointed me as king over them."

UST

7 Now this is what I hope you will do. Even though Saul, who was your king, has died, do not become discouraged. Instead, continue to fight bravely against the Philistines. The people of the tribe of Judah have appointed me to be their king{, and I will lead their army to come and help you as soon as I can}."

2 Samuel 2:8

ULT

8 But Abner, the son of Ner, the commander of the army that {was} to Saul, took Ishbosheth, the son of Saul, and brought him over {to} Mahanaim.

UST

8 But instead, Abner son of Ner, who had been Saul's army commander, brought Ishbosheth son of Saul across the Jordan River to the city of Mahanaim.

Who was Abner?

Abner was the son of Ner and the commander of Saul's army.

What did Abner do with Ishbosheth, the son of Saul? (vv8-9)

Abner took Ishbosheth to Mahanaim and made him king of all the territory that would later be the northern kingdom of Israel.

2 Samuel 2:9

ULT

9 And he made him rule over Gilead and over the Ashurite and over Jezreel and over Ephraim and over Benjamin and over Israel, all of it.

UST

9 So that Ishbosheth could rule over it, Abner steadily reconquered the territory that the Philistines had captured from the Israelites. Ishbosheth first ruled the region of Gilead east of the Jordan River, which the Philistines had not captured. Abner then reconquered the territory west of the Jordan River and north of the Valley of Jezreel, where the people of tribes such as Asher lived. Abner then reconquered the Valley of Jezreel itself. He then reconquered the territory west of the Jordan River and south of the Valley of Jezreel, where the people of tribes such as Ephraim lived. Abner was able to reconquer that territory all the way south to the territory of the tribe of Benjamin. That made Ishbosheth the king of all the territory that would later be the northern kingdom of Israel{after it divided from the southern kingdom of Judah}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:10

ULT

10 Ishbosheth, the son of Saul, {was} a son of 40 years when he became king over Israel, and he reigned two years. Nevertheless, the house of Judah were behind David.

UST

10 Ishbosheth son of Saul was 40 years old when he started to rule over the Israelite people. He ruled them for two years. But David was the king of the people of the tribe of Judah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:11

ULT

11 And the number of the days that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

UST

11 David ruled them for seven and a half years while he was living in Hebron.

How long was David king in Hebron over the house of Judah?

David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah for seven years and six months.

2 Samuel 2:12

ULT

12 Now Abner, the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth, the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

UST

12 One day Abner son of Ner led some soldiers from the army of Isbosheth son of Saul across the Jordan River from Mahanaim to the city of Gibeon.

Where did Joab's men and Abner's men meet? (vv12-13)

They met near the large pool of Gibeon, staying on opposite sides of the pool.

2 Samuel 2:13

ULT

13 And Joab, the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David went out and encountered them together by the pool of Gibeon. And they sat down, these by the pool on this {side} and these by the pool on that {side}.

UST

13 Joab son of Zeruiah led a group of David's soldiers from Hebron to Gibeon. They found Abner and his soldiers near the large pool of water there. Joab had his soldiers stay on one side of the pool and sit down. Abner had his soldiers sit down on the other side.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:14

ULT

14 Then Abner said to Joab, "May the young men now arise and play to our faces." And Joab said, "May they arise."

UST

14 Then Abner said to Joab, "Let us have some of our soldiers fight each other while the rest of us watch!" Joab replied, "Yes, let us do that!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:15

ULT

15 So they arose and crossed over, 12 by number to Benjamin and to Ishbosheth, the son of Saul, and 12 from the servants of David.

UST

15 So Abner chose 12 men from his own tribe of Benjamin to fight on behalf of Ishbosheth son of Saul. They went over to the other side of the pool and fought against 12 soldiers whom Joab chose to fight on behalf of David.

How many young men fought before Joab and Abner?

Twelve men from Benjamin for Ishbosheth and twelve men from David's soldiers fought.

2 Samuel 2:16

ULT

16 And they seized, a man his fellow by the head, and his sword in the side of his fellow, and they fell together. So one called that place Helkath Hazzurim, which {is} in Gibeon.

UST

16 Each soldier grabbed the man he was fighting against by the hair. That enabled him to thrust his dagger into that man's side. The result was that these 24 soldiers all killed each other. That is why people now call the place near Gibeon where they fought Helkath Hazzurim.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:17

ULT

17 And the battle was severe to extremity on that day. And Abner and the men of Israel were struck to the face of the servants of David.

UST

17 Then the two whole groups of soldiers started fighting each other. It was a very fierce battle. But as they fought, David's soldiers defeated Abner and the soldiers from the other tribes of Israel.

Who won the battle that day?

The soldiers of David defeated Abner and the soldiers from the other tribes of Israel.

2 Samuel 2:18

ULT

18 Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab and Abishai and Asahel. And Asahel {was} light on his feet, like one of the gazelles that {are} in the field.

UST

18 Joab, Abishai, and Asahel, Zeruiah's three sons, were in that battle. Asahel was able to run very fast, the way wild gazelles run very fast.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:19

ULT

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner, and he did not turn aside to go to the right or to the left from after Abner.

UST

19 When Abner fled from the battle, Asahel chased him. No matter which way Abner went to try to escape, Asahel kept following him.

Which son of Zeruiah pursued Abner?

Asahel pursued Abner.

2 Samuel 2:20

ULT

20 And Abner turned behind him, and he said, “{Is} this you, Asahel?” And he said, “{It is} I.”

UST

20 Abner looked behind him to see who was chasing him. He called out, “Is that you, Asahel?” Asahel answered, “Yes, it is!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:21

ULT

21 And Abner said to him, “Turn aside for yourself to your right or to your left and seize for yourself one of the young men and take for yourself his spoil.” But Asahel was not willing to turn from behind him.

UST

21 Abner shouted back, “Chase somebody else! Try to catch one of the younger soldiers and defeat him and take his armor.” But Asahel would not stop chasing Abner.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:22

ULT

22 And Abner continued still, saying to Asahel, “Turn aside for yourself from behind me. Why should I strike you to the ground? Then how would I lift my face to Joab your brother?”

UST

22 So Abner shouted at him again, “Stop chasing me! Do not make me fight you, because I would kill you. Then I could never again have a peaceful relationship with your brother Joab, because he would want to get revenge against me.”

How did Abner try to convince Asahel to stop pursuing him?

Abner warned Asahel that if he had to strike him down, he could never again have a peaceful relationship with Asahel's brother Joab.

2 Samuel 2:23

ULT

23 But he refused to turn aside, so Abner struck him with the back end of the spear in the stomach, and the spear came out from his back. And he fell there, and he died under him. And it happened, every one coming to the place where Asahel fell there and died, that they stood.

UST

23 But Asahel refused to stop chasing Abner. So Abner let Asahel nearly catch him, then he suddenly stopped and swung the butt end of his spear into Asahel’s stomach as he was still running fast toward him. The force was so great that the end of the spear went right through Asahel’s stomach and came out his back. Asahel was wounded so badly that he fell down and died right there. When other soldiers came to the place where Asahel’s dead body was lying in the roadway, they all stopped and stood there.

What happened to Asahel when he refused to stop pursuing Abner?

Abner struck him in the stomach with the butt end of his spear, and the spear went right through his stomach and came out of his back, so Asahel fell and died there.

2 Samuel 2:24

ULT

24 But Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner, and the sun was coming in, and they themselves came to the hill of Ammah, which {is} on the face of Giah, the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

UST

24 But when Joab and Abishai saw what had happened, they ran off in pursuit of Abner. At sunset they came to the hill of Ammah, which is near the town of Giah along the road that leads into the desolate area near Gibeon.

To what location did Joab and Abishai pursue Abner?

Joab and Abishai pursued Abner to the hill of Ammah, which is near Giah on the way to the wilderness of Gibeon.

2 Samuel 2:25

ULT

25 Now the sons of Benjamin had gathered themselves behind Abner, and they had become one troop. And they stood on the head of one hill.

UST

25 The soldiers who had come with Abner were from the tribe of Benjamin. He had regrouped them into a line of battle on the top of that hill.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:26

ULT

26 And Abner called to Joab and said, “Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter at the last? So until when will you not say to the people to turn from after their brothers?”

UST

26 Then Abner called out to Joab, “We should not continue this deadly battle any longer! You must realize that if we continue fighting, many people will suffer great harm. We are all Israelites, so please tell your soldiers right now to stop chasing us!”

What did Abner say to stop Joab from pursuing him? (vv26-27)

Abner called out to Joab that they should not continue this deadly battle any longer. He told Joab to realize that if they continue fighting, many people will suffer great harm. He said that they are all Israelites, and asked Joab to please tell his soldiers right now to stop chasing Abner and his soldiers.

2 Samuel 2:27

ULT

27 And Joab said, “The life of God, that if you had not spoken, that then from the morning the people would have taken itself up, a man from after his brother.”

UST

27 Joab replied, “Even if you had not said that, I would certainly have told my soldiers tonight to stop chasing their fellow Israelites. I swear by God that this is true.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 2:28

ULT

28 Then Joab blew on the shofar, and all of the people stood, and they did not still pursue after Israel, and they did not still continue to fight.

UST

28 Then Joab blew a long, loud note on a ram’s horn to signal that his soldiers should stop fighting. So all his men stopped where they were and no longer pursued the soldiers from the other tribes of Israel. That was the end of that battle.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

7 And a concubine {was} to Saul, and her name {was} Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And he said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to the concubine of my father?"

UST

7 Saul had a secondary wife whose name was Rizpah. Aiah was her father. One day Ishbosheth accused Abner of having sexual relations with her.

What did Ishbosheth accuse Abner of doing? (vv7-8)

Ishbosheth accused Abner of doing something wrong by having sexual relations with his father Saul's concubine.

2 Samuel 3:8

ULT

8 And it burned greatly to Abner concerning the words of Ishbosheth. And he said, "{Am} I the head of a dog that {is} to Judah? Today I am doing kindness with the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and I have not delivered you into the hand of David. Yet today you charge against me the iniquity of a woman!

UST

8 Abner became very angry about what Ishbosheth said to him. He said to Ishbosheth, "I am not some disloyal person from the tribe of Judah! From the beginning I have been loyal to Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends. And I have kept David's army from defeating you. So you should not be accusing me now of doing something wrong with this woman!

2 Samuel 3:9

ULT

9 Thus may God do to Abner, and thus may he add to him, if, according to what Yahweh has sworn to David, that thus I will do for him,

UST

9-10 Yahweh solemnly promised David that he would make him the next king instead of one of Saul's descendants. He promised to make David the ruler not just of the tribe of Judah but also of all the other tribes of Israel. He promised that David would rule all the territory extending from the city of Dan far in the north to the city of Beersheba far in the south. I am going to make that happen! If I do not, may God take away my position and my possessions and do even worse things to me."

After Ishbosheth's accusation, what did Abner swear he would do? (vv9-10)

Abner swore that he would transfer the kingdom from Saul's house to David and establish David's throne over all Israel and Judah.

2 Samuel 3:10

2 Samuel 3:13

ULT

13 And he said, “Good, I, I will cut a covenant with you. Only one thing I am asking from you, saying, ‘You shall not see my face unless you bring Michal, the daughter of Saul, to my face when you come to see my face.’”

UST

13 David told the messengers to tell Abner. “All right, I am willing to make an agreement with you. But there is one thing you must do. Otherwise, I will not meet with you so that we can make that agreement in person. When you come to meet with me, you must bring my wife Michal, Saul’s daughter, to me.”

What was David’s one condition for making a covenant with Abner?

Abner had to bring his wife Michal, Saul’s daughter, when he came to see David.

2 Samuel 3:14

ULT

14 And David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, the son of Saul, saying, “Give {me} my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself with 100 foreskins of Philistines.”

UST

14 {Abner agreed to get Michal for David.} So David sent messengers to Ishbosheth to tell him, “I killed 100 Philistine soldiers and cut off their foreskins to give to Saul to pay for Michal to be my wife. So now, give her back to me!”

What price had David paid for Michal to be his wife?

David had paid the price of 100 Philistine foreskins for Michal.

2 Samuel 3:15

ULT

15 And Ishbosheth sent and took her from with {her} husband, from with Paltiel, the son of Laish.

UST

15 Saul had taken Michal away from David and given her to Paltiel son of Laish. But Ishbosheth sent some men to take Michal away from Paltiel.

2 Samuel 3:17

ULT

17 Now the word of Abner had been with the elders of Israel, saying, “Both yesterday and the third day you were seeking David as king over you.

UST

17 {Before going to see David,} Abner had sent messengers to the Israelite leaders to tell them, “I know that for a long time you have wanted David to be your king.

What did Abner tell the elders of Israel to do? (vv17-18)

Abner told the elders to make David their king, since Yahweh spoke about David, saying that by the hand of his servant David my servant, he would save his people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all of their enemies

2 Samuel 3:18

ULT

18 And now, do {it}, for Yahweh spoke about David, saying, ‘By the hand of David my servant, I will save my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all of their enemies.’”

UST

18 So this is what you should do. Make him your king now. Keep in mind that Yahweh spoke of David as someone who served him well. Remember that he said he would use David to rescue us Israelites, his people, from the Philistines and all the other enemies who would oppress us.”

2 Samuel 3:20

ULT

20 And Abner came to David {in} Hebron, and with him {were} 20 men. And David made a feast for Abner and for the men who {were} with him.

UST

20 Abner respectfully brought 20 of his soldiers with him when he went to see David at Hebron. David served a feast to all of them.

What did David do for Abner when Abner and his twenty men arrived in Hebron?

David made a feast for Abner and his men.

2 Samuel 3:21

ULT

21 Then Abner said to David, “Let me arise and go and gather to my lord the king all of Israel so they may cut a covenant with you so you may reign over all that your soul desires.” And David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

UST

21 After they had eaten, Abner said to David, “Sir, I know that you have wanted to be the king of all the Israelites. Let me now go and get leaders from all the tribes of Israel and bring them here so they can make an agreement with you to be their king.” David agreed, and he allowed Abner and his men to leave safely.

What did Abner tell David he planned to do?

Abner said he would gather all of Israel to David so they could make a covenant with him, and so David could reign over all that he desired.

2 Samuel 3:22

ULT

22 And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from a raid, and they brought much plunder with them. But Abner, he {was} not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away and he had gone in peace.

UST

22 While Abner was visiting with David, Joab was leading David’s soldiers to attack some of their enemies. They defeated those enemies and captured many valuable possessions. When they brought what they had captured back to Hebron, Abner was no longer there, since David had already sent him away safely.

2 Samuel 3:23

ULT

23 And Joab and all of the army that {was} with him came, and they declared to Joab, saying, “Abner, the son of Ner, came to the king, and he sent him away, and he went in peace.”

UST

23 When Joab and the soldiers who were with him arrived, someone told Joab that Abner had come there and talked with the king and that the king had allowed Abner to leave safely.

How did David and Abner part ways?

David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

2 Samuel 3:24

ULT

24 And Joab came to the king, and he said, “What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you! Why {is} this, you have sent him away, and going, he has gone?

UST

24 So Joab went to the king and said, “You should not have done that! Listen to me! You had Abner, the commander of your enemy’s army, right here where you could have made him your prisoner. But instead, you allowed him to leave, and now he has gotten away!

2 Samuel 3:27

ULT

27 And Abner returned {to} Hebron, and Joab turned him aside to the middle of the gate to speak with him in quiet. And he struck him there {in} the stomach, and he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

UST

27 When Abner returned to Hebron, Joab pretended he wanted to speak with him privately. He led him into the shaded area between the inner and outer gate in the city wall. But there he stabbed Abner in the stomach and killed him. Joab did that to get revenge against Abner for killing his brother Asahel.

What did Joab do after he had Abner brought back to Hebron?

To avenge the death of his brother Asahel, Joab took Abner aside to the middle of the gate and struck him in the stomach, and he died.

2 Samuel 3:28

ULT

28 And David heard after this, and he said, “I and my kingdom {are} innocent from with Yahweh forever from the blood of Abner, the son of Ner.

UST

28 David later found out what had happened. He said, “I was not involved in any way in the murder of Abner son of Ner. So may Yahweh never punish me or any of my descendants who are kings after me for his death.

2 Samuel 3:29

ULT

29 May it writhe on the head of Joab and to all of the house of his father, and may not be cut off from the house of Joab one discharging or one stricken with leprosy or one holding onto a staff or one falling by the sword or a destitute of bread.”

UST

29 May Yahweh punish Joab and his relatives instead. I hope that there will always be someone in his family who has sores or who is a leper or who cannot walk without a crutch or who dies in battle or who does not have enough food to eat!”

Why did David curse Joab for murdering Abner? (vv29-30)

Joab and Abishai his brother had murdered Abner because he had killed Asahel their brother at Gibeon in the battle. They should not have taken revenge.

After Joab killed Abner, what curse did David pronounce on Joab’s family?

David pronounced a curse that the guilt for Abner’s blood would be on Joab and his father’s house forever. He asked that there will always be someone in Joab's family who has sores or who is a leper or who cannot walk without a crutch or who dies in battle or who does not have enough food to eat.

2 Samuel 3:30

2 Samuel 3:35

ULT

35 Then all of the people came to make David eat bread while {it was} still day, but David swore, saying, “Thus may God do to me, and thus may he add, that if to the face of the coming in of the sun I taste bread or any of a thing.”

UST

35 Later that day some people came and invited David to join in the customary funeral meal. But David refused {since he wanted to go without eating to show how sad he was that Abner had died}. He said, “I swear that I will not even taste any kind of food for the rest of this day {on which we buried Abner}! If I do, I hope that God will make very bad things happen to me.”

What did David swear when the people urged him to eat?

David swore an oath that he would not taste bread or anything else for the rest of this day.

2 Samuel 3:36

ULT

36 And all of the people noticed, and it was good in their eyes, as everything that the king did was good in the eyes of all of the people.

UST

36 Everyone who was present at the funeral saw what David did, and it pleased them, just as other things that King David had done had pleased the people he ruled.

2 Samuel 5:23

ULT

23 And David inquired of Yahweh, and he said, “You shall not go up. Go around to behind them, and you shall come to them from opposite the balsam trees.

UST

23 So David asked Yahweh again what he should do. Yahweh replied, “Do not attack their battle lines directly. Tell your soldiers to go around them and attack them from the back. Come through the grove of balsam trees.

When the Philistines came up a second time, how did Yahweh tell David to attack them?

Yahweh told David not to go up to attack them from the front, but to circle around behind them and attack from opposite the balsam trees.

2 Samuel 5:24

ULT

24 And it will be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall act determinedly, for then Yahweh will go out to your face to strike the camp of the Philistines.”

UST

24 You will hear the sound of an army marching in the tops of the balsam trees. When you do, you will know that I am going ahead of you to enable your army to defeat the Philistine army. So when you hear that sound, attack them right away.”

What sound did Yahweh tell David to listen for before attacking the Philistines?

Yahweh told David to attack when he heard the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees.

2 Samuel 5:25

ULT

25 And David did thus, just as Yahweh commanded him. And he struck the Philistines from Geba to your coming {to} Gezer.

UST

25 So David did what Yahweh told him to do. His soldiers defeated the Philistine soldiers and chased them from the city of Geba all the way west to the city of Gezer.

What was David’s response to Yahweh’s command?

David did just as Yahweh had commanded him.

What was the outcome of this battle against the Philistines?

David's soldiers defeated the Philistine soldiers and chased them from the city of Geba all the way west to the city of Gezer.

2 Samuel 6

2 Samuel 6:1

ULT

1 And David again gathered all of the chosen in Israel, 30,000.

UST

1 After this, David assembled all of his best soldiers once again. There were 30,000 of them.

Why did David gather all the chosen men of Israel? (vv1-2)

David gathered the chosen men of Israel to bring up the Box of God from Baalah of Judah.

2 Samuel 6:2

ULT

2 And David arose and went, and all of the people who {were} with him, from Baalah of Judah to bring up from there the Box of God, whose name is called {by} the name of Yahweh of Armies, dweller of the cherubim upon it.

UST

2 He led them to the city of Baalah in Judah so that they could bring the sacred chest from there to Jerusalem. People call that chest "The Box of Yahweh, the Commander of the Heavenly Armies." Yahweh himself is invisibly present between the statues of the winged creatures on top of it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 6:3

ULT

3 And they mounted the Box of God on a new cart, and they bore it from the house of Abinadab, which {was} on the hill. And Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were guiding the new cart.

UST

3 They went to the hilltop house of Abinadab. They used a new cart to carry the chest from there. Two oxen were pulling the cart, and Abinadab's two sons Uzzah and Ahio were guiding them.

On what did they set the Box of God?

They set the Box of God on a new cart pulled by two oxen.

Who was guiding the new cart?

Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were guiding the new cart.

2 Samuel 6:4

ULT

4 And they bore it from the house of Abinadab, which {was} on the hill, with the Box of God, and Ahio was walking to the face of the Box.

UST

UST

5 David and his soldiers and a large crowd of other Israelites were singing and dancing in Yahweh's presence. People were playing musical instruments to accompany the singing and dancing, including wooden instruments, harps, lyres, tambourines, rattles, and cymbals.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 6:6

ULT

6 And they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, and Uzzah reached out to the Box of God and held it, for the oxen stumbled.

UST

6 But when they came to the place in the area of Nacon where people threshed grain, the oxen tripped. {Because that made the cart tilt so that the sacred chest might have fallen off of it,} Uzzah put his hand on the sacred chest to steady it.

What happened at the threshing floor of Nacon?

The oxen stumbled, and Uzzah reached out to steady the Box of God.

2 Samuel 6:7

ULT

7 And the nose of Yahweh burned against Uzzah, and God struck him there for the fault. And he died there by the Box of God.

UST

7 Yahweh immediately became very angry with Uzzah for touching the chest. God killed him right there next to it.

What did God do in response to Uzzah's action?

God became angry and struck Uzzah for his fault, and Uzzah died there by the Box of God.

2 Samuel 6:8

ULT

8 And it burned to David because Yahweh had broken out an outbreak against Uzzah. And he called that place Perez Uzzah, to this day.

UST

8 David became angry because Yahweh had punished Uzzah. David called that place Perez Uzzah, and that has been its name ever since.

How did David feel about what Yahweh had done to Uzzah? (vv8-9)

David was angry because Yahweh had broken out against Uzzah. Then David became afraid of Yahweh, and he said that it was too dangerous for him to try to bring the sacred chest to where he lived in Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 6:9

ULT

9 And David feared Yahweh on that day, and he said, "How shall the Box of Yahweh come to me?"

UST

9 Then David became afraid of {what else} Yahweh {might do to punish them}, and he said, "It is too dangerous for me to try to bring the sacred chest to where I live in Jerusalem!"

2 Samuel 6:10

ULT

10 And David was not willing to bring to himself the Box of Yahweh to the City of David. So David turned it aside {to} the house of Obed Edom the Gittite.

UST

10 So David decided not to bring the sacred chest to the City of David where he lived. Instead, he had the people take it into a house that was there by the road. A man whose name was Obed Edom the Gittite lived in that house.

What did David do with the Box of God after Uzzah died? (vv10-11)

David decided not to bring the sacred chest to the City of David. Instead, he had the people take it into the house of Obed Edom, there by the road.

2 Samuel 6:11

ULT

11 And the Box of Yahweh remained {in} the house of Obed Edom the Gittite three months. And Yahweh blessed Obed Edom and all of his house.

UST

11 The sacred chest stayed in the house of Obed Edom for the next three months. During that time, Yahweh made good things happen for him and his whole family.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 6:12

ULT

12 And it was declared to King David, saying, “Yahweh has blessed the house of Obed Edom and all who {are} to him for the sake of the Box of God.” So David went, and he brought up the Box of God from the house of Obed Edom {to} the City of David with joy.

UST

12 After that time, people told King David, “Because Obed Edom is taking care of the sacred chest, Yahweh is making good things happen for his family and all of his servants!” When David heard that, he {gathered many of the Levites and} went to Obed Edom’s house. Together they very joyfully brought the sacred chest from there to the City of David.

Why did David bring the Box of God from Obed Edom’s house to the City of David?

David brought it because he was told that Yahweh had blessed the house of Obed Edom because of the Box of God.

2 Samuel 6:13

ULT

13 And it happened, when the carriers of the Box of Yahweh had stepped six steps, that he sacrificed an ox and a fatling.

UST

13 On the way, once the Levites who were carrying the sacred chest had taken their first six steps, David had them stop. Right at that place, David killed a bull and a fat calf and offered them to Yahweh as sacrifices.

2 Samuel 6:16

ULT

16 and the Box of Yahweh was entering the City of David. But Michal, the daughter of Saul, looked down through a window, and she saw King David leaping and dancing to the face of Yahweh, and she despised him in her heart.

UST

16 While they were bringing the sacred chest into the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul{, his wife, was on an upper floor of her house. She} looked through a window down onto the street. She saw {her husband} King David leaping and whirling to honor Yahweh. That made her feel disgusted with him {because she did not think a king should dress and act that way}.

What was Michal's response when she saw King David leaping and dancing before Yahweh?

When Michal saw King David leaping and dancing before Yahweh, she despised him in her heart.

2 Samuel 6:17

ULT

17 And they brought the Box of Yahweh, and they set it in its place in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it. And David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings to the face of Yahweh.

UST

17 David had put up a tent for the sacred chest, and the Levites carried the sacred chest into it and set it up there. Then David made some offerings to Yahweh that he completely burned on an altar. He made other offerings whose meat the people could share at a meal to celebrate this happy occasion.

After the Box of Yahweh was set in its place, what offerings did David make to Yahweh?

David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings to Yahweh.

2 Samuel 6:18

ULT

18 And David finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, and he blessed the people in the name of Yahweh of Armies.

UST

18 When David finished offering those sacrifices, he asked Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, to do good things for the people.

2 Samuel 6:19

ULT

19 And he distributed to all of the people, to all of the multitude of Israel, to man and to woman, to a man one cake of bread and one date cake and one raisin cake. And all of the people went, a man to his house.

UST

19 Then he gave special gifts of food to all the Israelites who had come for the celebration. To each man and woman he gave a loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake. Then they all returned to their homes.

What did David distribute to all the people?

He distributed a cake of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake to each person.

2 Samuel 6:20

ULT

20 Then David returned to bless his house. And Michal, the daughter of Saul, came out to meet David, and she said, “How the king of Israel honored himself today, who uncovered himself today to the eyes of the female servants of his servants, as uncovering himself, one of the worthless uncovers himself!”

UST

20 Then David went home to ask Yahweh to do good things for his family. {His wife} Michal daughter of Saul came out to meet him. She told him, “As the king of Israel, you should not have acted so disgracefully today! You took off almost all of your clothes, and you let the female servants of your officials see you that way! Only immoral men take off their clothes in public as you did.”

What did Michal say to David when he returned home?

She sarcastically asked how the king of Israel had honored himself by uncovering himself before the eyes of his servants’ female servants, like a worthless person.

2 Samuel 6:21

ULT

21 But David said to Michal, “To the face of Yahweh, who chose me instead of your father and instead of all of his house to appoint me leader over the people of Yahweh, over Israel, yes, I celebrated to the face of Yahweh!

UST

21 David replied to Michal, “I danced in that simple way in order to honor Yahweh! He chose me instead of your father or any member of his family to be the king of the Israelite people, who belong to him. I was celebrating to honor Yahweh!

What was David’s response to Michal’s rebuke? (vv21-22)

David said that he celebrated before Yahweh, who chose him as leader. He said he would humble himself even more, and that the female servants would honor him.

2 Samuel 6:22

ULT

22 And I will humble myself more than this, and I will be lowly in my eyes. But with the female servants {about} whom you spoke, with them, I will be honored."

UST

22 And so I am willing to act even more humbly than that. I will do things that seem undignified. But those female servants you were talking about will respect me {as a king who serves Yahweh devotedly}!"

UST

20 Yahweh my Lord, I am not able to say anything further to you. But you know me so well that you know what I would say if I could say it.

After hearing the prophecy, what did David say about Yahweh?

David said that Yahweh knew his servant so well.

2 Samuel 7:21

ULT

21 For the sake of your word and according to your heart, you have done all this greatness, to make your servant know {this}.

UST

21 You are going to do a wonderful thing {and make my descendants kings after me}. You are going to do this because you promised to make me a king, and because it is what you really want to do. It was also wonderful for you to tell me about this now.

Why did David say Yahweh had done this great thing and revealed it to him?

David said Yahweh had done it for the sake of his word and according to his own heart.

2 Samuel 7:22

ULT

22 Therefore, you are great, my Lord Yahweh, for {there is} none like you and {there is} no God except you, in all that we have heard with our ears.

2 Samuel 7:23

ULT

23 And who {is} like your people, like Israel, the one nation on earth whose God went to redeem for himself as a people and to make for himself a name and to do greatness for you and {things} being feared for your land, from the face of your people whom you redeemed for yourself from Egypt, nations and its gods?

UST

23 No other nation in the world is like us, your Israelite people. None of the gods that other people groups worship rescued them so that those people would belong to them. You rescued us from being slaves in Egypt. You also rescued us from enemy nations {here in Canaan} that thought their gods would enable them to defeat us. You did miracles to enable us to settle in this land. Because of the powerful things you have done, people throughout the world now respect you.

Why did God go to redeem Israel?

God redeemed Israel to make them a people for himself and to make a name for himself.

2 Samuel 7:24

ULT

24 And you established for yourself your people Israel as a people for yourself to forever. And you yourself, Yahweh, became God to them.

UST

24 You caused us Israelites to be your people forever, and you, Yahweh, have become our God!

25 And now, Yahweh God, the word that you have spoken concerning your servant and concerning his house, raise up to forever, and do just as you have spoken.

UST

25 Yahweh, my God, you have promised to do wonderful things for me and my descendants. So please do make those things you said happen always.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 7:26

ULT

26 And may your name be great to forever, saying, 'Yahweh of Armies {is} God over Israel,' and the house of your servant David will be established to your face.

UST

26 When that happens, you will become famous forever. People will exclaim, 'Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, is the God who rules Israel!' And you will make sure that a descendant of mine will always rule the Israelites.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 7:27

ULT

27 For you, Yahweh of Armies, {are} the God of Israel. You have uncovered the ear of your servant, saying, ‘I will build a house for you.’ Therefore, your servant has found his heart to pray this prayer to you.

UST

27 I am confident that you will do this, because you, Yahweh, have chosen us Israelites to be your people. You have revealed to me that you will make some of my descendants kings. For that reason, I have been bold enough to pray like this to you.

Why did David say he had been bold enough to pray like this to Yahweh?

David said he found the heart to pray because Yahweh had revealed that he would build a house for David.

2 Samuel 7:28

ULT

28 And now, my Lord Yahweh, you {are} he, the God, so your words are true. And you have spoken concerning this good your servant.

UST

28 So now, Yahweh my Lord, because you are God, we can trust that you will do what you promise. You have promised to do these good things to me.

What did David say about Yahweh’s words?

David said that Yahweh’s words are true.

2 Samuel 7:29

ULT

29 And now, take pleasure and bless the house of your servant to be to your face forever. For you, my Lord Yahweh, you have spoken and from your blessing the house of your servant will be blessed forever.”

UST

29 So now I pray that it will please you to do good things for my descendants. Please enable them to keep ruling your Israelite people. Yahweh my Lord, you have promised these things, and so I know that you will always keep doing good things for my descendants.”

What did David ask Yahweh to do?

David asked Yahweh to be pleased to bless his house so that it would continue forever before him.

2 Samuel 8

2 Samuel 8:1

ULT

1 And it happened after this, that David struck the Philistines, and he subdued them. And David took Metheg Ammah from the hand of the Philistines.

UST

2 Samuel 9

2 Samuel 9:1

ULT

1 And David said, “{Is it} that there is still {one} who remains to the house of Saul, that I may do covenant faithfulness with him for the sake of Jonathan?”

UST

1 One day David asked some of his officials, “Are there any descendants of Saul still living? I promised Jonathan that I would act kindly toward his family, and I would like to do that if I can.”

Why did David want to show covenant faithfulness to anyone left in Saul’s house?

David wanted to show covenant faithfulness for the sake of Jonathan.

2 Samuel 9:2

ULT

2 Now to the house of Saul {was} a servant, and his name {was} Ziba. And they called him to David. And the king said to him, “{Are} you Ziba?” And he said, “Your servant.”

UST

2 They told him that Saul’s family had a household official whose name was Ziba. So David sent messengers to summon Ziba. When he arrived, King David asked him, “Are you Ziba?” He replied, “Yes, your Majesty, I am.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 9:3

ULT

3 And the king said, “{Is there} no longer a man to the house of Saul, that I may do with him the covenant faithfulness of God?” And Ziba said to the king, “A son {is} still to Jonathan, lame of feet.”

UST

3 Then King David asked him, “Is there anyone still alive in Saul’s family toward whom I can act kindly, as I promised God that I would do?” Ziba replied, “Yes, there is one son of Jonathan who is still alive. But he is not able to walk.”

How did Ziba answer the king when he was asked if anyone was left in Saul’s house?

Ziba told the king that one son of Jonathan was still alive but not able to walk.

2 Samuel 9:4

ULT

4 And the king said to him, “Where {is} he?” And Ziba said to the king, “Behold, he {is at} the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lo-Debar.”

2 Samuel 10:1

ULT

1 And it happened after this that the king of the sons of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in place of him.

UST

1 Sometime later, Nahash, the king of the Ammonites, died. His son Hanun became the next Ammonite king.

Who became king of the Ammonites after the former king died?

Hanun his son became the new king.

2 Samuel 10:2

ULT

2 And David said, “I will do kindness with Hanun the son of Nahash, just as his father did kindness with me.” And David sent by the hand of his servants to console him concerning his father. And the servants of David entered the land of the sons of Ammon.

UST

2 David thought to himself, “Nahash was kind to me, so I will be kind to his son Hanun.” So David sent some of his officials to tell Hanun that David was sorry that Hanun’s father had died. When those messengers arrived in the land of Ammon,

How did David show kindness to Hanun?

David sent his servants to console Hanun concerning the death of his father.

2 Samuel 10:3

ULT

3 And the commanders of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun their master, “In your eyes, is David honoring your father, since he has sent consolers to you? {Is it} not in order to explore the city and to spy on it and to overthrow it {that} David has sent his servants to you?”

UST

3 the Ammonite military leaders said to King Hanun, “You should not think that when David sent these men to tell you he is sorry that your father died, he did that to honor your father. He sent them here to look around the city to determine how his army can conquer us!”

What did the Ammonite commanders say about David’s show of kindness to Hanun?

The commanders told Hanun that David had sent his servants to explore the city in order to spy on it and overthrow it.

2 Samuel 10:4

ULT

4 So Hanun took the servants of David, and he shaved half of their beard, and he cut their garments in the middle, to their buttocks, and he sent them away.

UST

4 {Hanun believed what they said.} So he commanded some of his soldiers to seize David’s officials and {insult them by} shaving off one side of their beards. UST

1 The following spring, at the time when kings usually led their armies to fight against their enemies, David sent out his commander Joab with his officers and the rest of the Israelite army. They fought the Ammonites and severely defeated them. Then they surrounded Rabbah{, their capital city,} and tried to capture it. But David himself stayed in Jerusalem.

When did kings normally go out to war?

Kings normally went out to war at the return of the year, in the spring.

Where was King David at this time?

David sent out his commander Joab with his officers and the rest of the Israelite army, but David himself stayed in Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 11:2

ULT

2 And it happened, at the time of the evening, that David arose from his bed and walked about on the roof of the house of the king. And from the roof he saw a woman bathing. And the woman {was} very good of appearance.

UST

2 Late one afternoon, after David had finished sleeping during the heat of the day, he got up and walked around on the flat roof of his palace. From there, he could look down and see a woman who was bathing in the enclosed courtyard of her house. The woman was very beautiful.

Who did David see one evening when he was walking on the roof of his palace? (vv2-3)

David saw a very beautiful woman bathing, and her name was Bathsheba.

2 Samuel 11:3

ULT

3 And David sent and inquired about the woman. And one said, “Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?”

UST

3 David sent someone to find out who she was. He returned and told David, “That woman is Bathsheba daughter of Eliam. She is the wife of Uriah the Hittite.”

Who was Bathsheba’s husband?

Bathsheba’s husband was Uriah the Hittite.

2 Samuel 11:4

ULT

4 And David sent messengers, and he took her. And she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she had been sanctifying herself from her uncleanness.) And she returned to her house.

UST

4 But David sent messengers to get her anyway. They brought her to David, and he had sexual relations with her. (She had just finished performing the rituals to make herself pure after her menstrual period.) Then Bathsheba went back home.

What did David do with Bathsheba? (vv4-5)

David sent for her, he had sexual relations with her, and she became pregnant.

2 Samuel 11:5

ULT

5 And the woman became pregnant, and she sent and declared to David, and she said, “I {am} pregnant.”

UST

5 Later, she realized that she was going to have a child. So she sent a messenger to tell David this news.

2 Samuel 11:6

ULT

6 And David sent to Joab, “Send Uriah the Hittite to me.” So Joab sent Uriah to David.

UST

6 So David sent a message to Joab. He said, “Tell Uriah the Hittite to come back to Jerusalem so that I can speak with him.” So Joab sent Uriah to go and speak with David.

After David found out Bathsheba was pregnant, what did he do?

He told Joab to send Uriah the Hittite to him.

2 Samuel 11:7

ULT

7 And Uriah came to him, and David asked about the welfare of Joab and about the welfare of the people and about the welfare of the war.

UST

7 When he arrived, David asked whether Joab was well, whether the other soldiers were well, and whether the Israelites were doing well fighting the war.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 11:8

ULT

8 And David said to Uriah, “Go down to your house, and wash your feet.” And Uriah went out from the house of the king, and a gift {from} the king went out after him.

UST

8 Then David told Uriah, “Now go home and relax for a while.” So Uriah left, and David sent someone to bring some special food to Uriah for him to enjoy.

When Uriah came to David, what did David try to get him to do?

David tried to get Uriah to go down to his house and relax for a while.

2 Samuel 11:9

ULT

9 But Uriah lay down {at} the entrance of the house of the king with all of the servants of his master, and he did not go down to his house.

UST

9 But Uriah did not go home. Instead, he slept at the palace entrance with the palace guards.

What did Uriah do after David told him to go to his house?

Uriah did not go to his house, but instead slept at the entrance of the king's house with all the servants of his master.

2 Samuel 11:10

ULT

10 And they declared to David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house." And David said to Uriah, "Are you not coming from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

UST

10 The next morning, someone told David that Uriah had not gone to his house that night. So David summoned him again. He asked him, "Why did you not go home and relax last night? You needed to rest after walking so far to get here."

2 Samuel 11:11

ULT

11 And Uriah said to David, "The Box and Israel and Judah are dwelling in tents, and my master Joab and the servants of my master {are} camping on the face of the field. And I, shall I go to my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? Your life, and the life of your soul, I will not do this thing!"

UST

11 Uriah replied, "The soldiers of Israel and Judah are camping in the open fields. Even our commander Joab and his officers are sleeping in tents like the rest of us. We brought the sacred chest with us, and it is also in a tent. {As a soldier who is part of this military campaign,} it would not be right for me to go to my home, enjoy food and drink, and have sexual relations with my wife. I swear by your life that I would never do such a thing!"

Why did Uriah say he would not go to his own house?

Uriah said he would never go to his house to eat, drink, and lie with his wife while the Box, Israel, and Judah were dwelling in tents, and Joab and his men were camping in the open field.

2 Samuel 11:12

ULT

12 And David said to Uriah, “Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will send you back.” So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem on that day and into the next day.

UST

12 Then David said to Uriah, “Stay here another day, and I will let you return to the battle tomorrow.” So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and that night.

2 Samuel 11:14

ULT

14 And it happened in the morning that David wrote a letter to Joab, and he sent {it} by the hand of Uriah.

UST

14 David {found out that Uriah had not gone home, so} the next morning he wrote a letter to Joab and gave it to Uriah to bring to him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 11:15

ULT

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, “Put Uriah in the front of the face of the strongest battle, and turn them back from behind him so he will be struck and die.”

UST

15 In the letter, he wrote, “Put Uriah in the front line at the place where he will be in the greatest danger. Then command the soldiers who are supporting him to retreat. That way our enemies will wound him so badly that he will die.”

What did David’s letter to Joab say?

The letter said to put Uriah in the front of the strongest battle and then to retreat from him so he would be struck and die.

2 Samuel 11:16

ULT

16 And it happened, when Joab looked at the city, that he put Uriah in the place where he knew that men of valor {were} there.

UST

16 {When Joab got the letter,} he carefully observed the city’s defenses. He found a place where the Ammonites had put many of their best soldiers. So he put Uriah in the front line there.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 11:17

ULT

17 And the men of the city came out, and they fought with Joab, and some of the people from the servants of David fell. And Uriah the Hittite also died.

UST

17 The Ammonite soldiers came out from that part of the city and fought with Joab’s soldiers. They killed several of David’s soldiers. Uriah was one of the soldiers they killed.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 11:18

ULT

18 And Joab sent, and he declared to David all of the things of the battle.

UST

18 Then Joab sent a messenger to bring David news about what had happened in the battle.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 11:19

ULT

19 And he commanded the messenger, saying, “When you have finished to speak to the king all of the things of the battle,

UST

19 He told the messenger, “Tell David the news about what happened in the battle. Once you finish telling him,

What did Joab think might happen when his messenger brought news of the war to David? (vv19-20)

Joab thought David might become angry because he had allowed the Ammonites to kill some of his soldiers..

2 Samuel 11:20

ULT

20 it will be, if the heat of the king rises and he says to you, ‘Why did you draw near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

UST

20 David may become angry {because we allowed the Ammonites to kill some of our soldiers}. He may tell you, ‘Your soldiers should not have gone so close to the city to fight! You should have known that the Ammonite soldiers would shoot arrows at you from the top of the city wall!

What news did Joab think David might be angry about?

Joab thought David might be angry that soldiers got so close to the city to fight because the Ammonite soldiers would shoot arrows at them from the top of the city wall.

2 Samuel 11:21

ULT

21 Who struck Abimelech, the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman throw a piece of a millstone onto him from the wall, and he died in Thebez? Why did you draw near to the wall?’ then you shall say, ‘Your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.’”

UST

21 You must remember how Abimelech son of Jerubbesheth died! A woman who lived in Thebez threw a heavy millstone onto him from the top of a tower, and that killed him. So our troops should not have gone near the city wall!’ If the king says this, then tell him that his soldier Uriah the Hittite also died in the battle.”

What did Joab tell the messenger to say if David got angry?

Joab told the messenger to say that his servant Uriah the Hittite was also dead.

2 Samuel 11:22

ULT

22 So the messenger went, and he came and declared to David all that Joab had sent him {to say}.

UST

22 So the messenger went and told David everything that Joab had told him to say.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 11:23

ULT

23 And the messenger said to David that “the men became strong against us and they came out against us {to} the field, but we were against them to the entrance of the gate.

UST

23 The messenger said to David, “The Ammonite soldiers organized an attack against us. They came out of the city to fight against us in the fields. We were able to force them to retreat right back to the city.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 11:24

ULT

24 And the shooters shot at your servants from the wall, and some of the servants of the king died, and also your servant Uriah the Hittite died.”

UST

24 But then their archers shot arrows at us from the top of the city wall. They killed some of your soldiers, and Uriah the Hittite was one of the soldiers they killed.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 11:25

ULT

25 And David said to the messenger, “Thus you shall say to Joab, ‘May this matter not be bad in your eyes, for like this and like this the sword devours. Strengthen your battle against the city and destroy it.’ So strengthen him.”

UST

25 David said to the messenger, “Go back to Joab and tell him, ‘Do not feel badly about what happened, because no one ever knows who might die in a battle. Make an even stronger attack against the city and conquer it.’ Encourage Joab by telling him those things.”

What did David tell the messenger to say to Joab?

David told the messenger to encourage Joab by telling him to not feel badly since no one ever knows who might die in a battle. David advised him to strengthen his battle against the city and destroy it.

2 Samuel 11:26

ULT

26 And the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her man had died. And she lamented for her husband.

UST

26 When Uriah’s wife Bathsheba heard that her husband had died, she mourned for him.

What did Uriah’s wife do when she heard that her husband was dead?

When she heard her husband was dead, she mourned for him.

2 Samuel 11:27

ULT

27 And the mourning passed, and David sent and gathered her to his house, and she became a wife to him, and she bore a son to him. But the thing that David had done was bad in the eyes of Yahweh.

UST

27 After her time of mourning ended, David sent messengers to bring her to the palace, and he married her. She later gave birth to a son whose father was David. But Yahweh was very displeased with what David had done.

What happened to Bathsheba?

After her mourning passed, David sent for her, and she became his wife, and she bore him a son.

Who was displeased with what David had done?

Yahweh was very displeased with what David had done.

2 Samuel 12

2 Samuel 12:1

ULT

1 And Yahweh sent Nathan to David. And he came to him, and he said to him, “Two men were in one city, one rich and one poor.

UST

1 Yahweh told the prophet Nathan what David had done, and he sent Nathan to correct David. Nathan came and told him a story {to help him recognize that he had done was very wrong}. He said, “Once there were two men in a certain city. One man was rich and the other was poor.

Why did Nathan go to David?

Nathan went to David because Yahweh sent him.

What was Nathan’s story about? (vv1-3)

The story was about a rich man with many flocks and herds and a poor man who had only one little ewe lamb that was like a daughter to him.

2 Samuel 12:2

ULT

2 To the rich {one} was flock and herd very greatly.

UST

2 The rich man owned a lot of sheep and cattle.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 12:3

ULT

3 But to the poor {man} {was} not anything except one little ewe that he had bought. And he nourished it, and it grew up together with him and with his sons. It would eat from his morsel, and it would drink from his cup, and it would lie down in his lap. And it was like a daughter to him.

UST

3 But the poor man had only one little female lamb, which he had bought. He raised the lamb, and it grew up with his own children. He would give the lamb some of his own food and let it drink from his cup. He let the lamb sleep as he held it next to him. The lamb was like a daughter to him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 12:4

ULT

4 Now a traveler came to the rich man, and he spared to take from his flock or from his herd to prepare for the wayfarer having come to him, but he took the ewe of the poor man, and he prepared it for the man having come to him."

UST

4 One day a visitor came to see the rich man. The rich man did not want to take one of his own sheep or cattle and kill it to prepare a meal for his guest. Instead, he sent men to take the poor man's lamb. Then he had someone kill it and prepare it as a meal for his guest."

What did the rich man do with the poor man's lamb?

When a traveler came to the rich man, he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it as a meal for his guest.

2 Samuel 12:5

ULT

5 And the nose of David burned greatly against the man, and he said to Nathan, "The life of Yahweh, that the man having done this {is} a son of death!

UST

5 When David heard that, he became very angry with the rich man. He told Nathan, "I swear by Yahweh that I want to execute the man who did that!

What was David's reaction to Nathan's story?

David was very angry and said that he wanted to execute the man who did that.

2 Samuel 12:6

ULT

6 Now he shall restore the ewe fourfold because he did this thing and because he did not spare."

UST

6 {I cannot actually execute him, but at least} he must pay back four lambs to the poor man for so cruelly taking his one lamb."

2 Samuel 12:7

ULT

7 And Nathan said to David, “You {are} the man. Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: ‘I, I anointed you as king over Israel, and I, I delivered you from the hand of Saul.

UST

7 Nathan said to David, “You have acted like the man I told you about. Now this is what Yahweh, the God whom we Israelites worship, says to you: ‘I was the one who chose you to be the king of Israel. When Saul was trying to kill you, I was the one who rescued you.

What did Nathan tell David after David reacted in anger?

Nathan told David, “You are the man.”

2 Samuel 12:8

ULT

8 And I gave to you the house of your master, and the wives of your master into your lap, and I gave to you the house of Israel and Judah. And if {this had been} little, then I would have added to you like them and like them.

UST

8 I gave you all of his property. I let you marry the women who had been his wives and concubines. I made you king over Israel and Judah. And if you had told me that you were not content with all that I had given you, I would have given you even more!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 12:9

ULT

9 Why have you despised the word of Yahweh to do evil in my eyes? You struck Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and you took his wife for yourself as a wife, and you murdered him with the sword of the sons of Ammon.

UST

9 But you have not taken seriously what I commanded {when I said that my people must not commit adultery or murder}. You have done things that I consider to be very evil! You arranged for Uriah the Hittite to die in battle, and after the Ammonite soldiers killed him, then you took his wife as your own wife!

What did Yahweh say David had done?

Yahweh said David had struck Uriah the Hittite with the sword, had taken his wife to be his own wife, and had murdered him with the sword of the Ammonites. Yahweh said that David did not take seriously what he commanded when he said that his people must not commit adultery or murder. David did things that Yahweh considers to be very evil!

2 Samuel 12:10

ULT

10 And now, the sword will not turn away from your house to forever, because you despised me and took the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be a wife for you.'

UST

10 You did not respect me. Instead you took Uriah's wife to be your wife. As a result, people in your family will constantly be killing each other.'

What did Yahweh say would happen because David despised him and took Uriah's wife? (vv10-11)

Yahweh said that he would make someone from David's own family cause disaster for him. Yahweh would take David's wives away from him and give them to that person instead. He will have sexual relations with them in public.

2 Samuel 12:11

ULT

11 Thus says Yahweh, 'Behold me, raising up harm against you from your house. And I will take your wives to your eyes, and I will give {them} to your neighbor. And he will lie with your wives to the eyes of this sun.

UST

11 This is what Yahweh says to you: 'I am going to make someone from your own family cause disaster for you. I will take your wives away from you and give them to that person instead. He will have sexual relations with them in public. And you will know about it.

2 Samuel 12:13

ULT

13 And David said to Nathan, “I have sinned against Yahweh.” And Nathan said to David, “Yahweh has also taken away your sin. You will not die.

UST

13 David replied, “I have sinned against Yahweh.” Nathan said to David, “Yahweh has forgiven you for sinning. He is not going to punish you by killing you for committing this sin.

After he confessed his sin, what did Nathan say would happen to David?

Nathan told David that Yahweh had taken away his sin and that he would not die.

2 Samuel 12:14

ULT

14 Nevertheless, because spurning, you have spurned the enemies of Yahweh with this thing, also the son born to you dying, will die.”

UST

14 But you have shown great contempt for Yahweh by doing this. So the son you have just had is going to die.”

What did Nathan say would happen to the son born to David?

Nathan said that because David had shown great contempt for Yahweh by doing this., the son born to him would surely die.

2 Samuel 12:15

ULT

15 Then Nathan went to his home. And Yahweh struck the child whom the wife of Uriah had borne to David, and he became sick.

UST

15 Then Nathan went home. Uriah’s wife had given birth to a baby boy who was David’s son. Yahweh caused him to become very sick.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 12:16

ULT

16 And David sought God on behalf of the boy. And David fasted a fast, and he went in and lodged and lay on the ground.

UST

16 So David prayed to God that the child would not die. {To show how concerned he was,} he ate very little food. He also did not sleep in his bed at night. Instead, he slept on the floor of his room.

What did David do when the child was very sick? (vv16-17)

David prayed to God that the child would not die, fasted, and went in and slept on the floor of his room.

2 Samuel 12:17

ULT

17 And the elders of his house arose upon him to make him arise from the ground, but he was not willing, and he would not eat bread with them.

UST

17 His most senior servants came and urged him to get up off the floor. But he refused to get up, and he refused to eat any meals with them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 12:18

ULT

18 And it happened on the seventh day that the child died, and the servants of David were afraid to declare to him that the child had died, for they said, “Behold, while the child was living, we spoke to him, but he did not listen to our voice. So how shall we say to him, ‘The child has died’? For he will do harm.”

UST

18 After a week, the baby died. David’s servants were afraid to tell him that. They said to each other, “Consider that while the baby was still alive, we encouraged him to take better care of himself, but he refused. Now if we tell him that the baby has died, he may do something to hurt himself!”

When did the child die?

The child died on the seventh day.

2 Samuel 12:19

ULT

19 And David saw that his servants were whispering together, and David realized that the child had died. So David said to his servants, “Has the child died?” And they said, “He has died.”

UST

19 David saw that his servants were whispering something to each other. He recognized that the baby must have died. So he asked them, “Is the baby dead?” They replied, “Yes, he is dead.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 12:20

ULT

20 Then David arose from the ground, and he washed, and he anointed {himself}, and he changed his clothes, and he entered the house of Yahweh, and he prostrated himself. Then he went to his house, and he asked, and they set out bread for him, and he ate.

UST

20 Then David got up from the floor. He bathed himself, put olive oil on his hair and skin, and put on different clothes. Then he went to Yahweh’s sacred tent and worshiped him there. After that, he came home. He asked his servants to bring him some food, and when they did, he ate it.

What did David do once he knew the child was dead?

David arose from the ground, washed and anointed himself, changed his clothes, and went to the house of Yahweh and prostrated himself. Then he asked his servants for food and he ate it.

2 Samuel 12:21

ULT

21 And his servants said to him, “What {is} this thing that you have done? For the sake of the living child you fasted and wept, but when the child died, you arose and ate bread.”

UST

21 Then his servants said to him, “We do not understand why you have done this! While the baby was still alive, you cried for him and refused to eat. But now that the baby has died, you have gotten up and eaten some food!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 12:22

ULT

22 And he said, “When yet the child {was} alive, I fasted and wept, for I said, ‘Who knows? Yahweh may be gracious to me, and the child may live.’

UST

22 He replied, “While the baby was still alive, I ate little food and wept because I thought, ‘Perhaps Yahweh will be merciful to me and allow the baby to live.’

2 Samuel 12:23

ULT

23 But now, he is dead. Why {is} this, {that} I should fast? Am I able to bring him back again? I am going to him, but he, he will not return to me.”

UST

23 But now that the baby is dead, there is no reason for me to go without food anymore. I cannot bring him back to me. Someday I will go to where he is, but he will not return to me.”

Why did David stop fasting after the child died?

David reasoned that there was no reason to fast since he could not bring the child back again.

2 Samuel 12:24

ULT

24 And David consoled Bathsheba his wife, and he came to her and lay with her. And she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And Yahweh loved him.

UST

24 Then David comforted his wife, Bathsheba. He had sexual relations with her, and she became pregnant again and gave birth to another son. David named this boy Solomon. Yahweh loved that little boy.

2 Samuel 12:28

ULT

28 And now, gather the rest of the people and encamp against the city and capture it, lest I myself capture the city and my name be called to it.

UST

28 Now assemble all the rest of our soldiers. Come and attack the fortress that is on higher ground and capture it. If you do not do that, my soldiers will capture the fortress, and then people will give the whole city a new name, The City of Joab."

Why did Joab tell David to gather the rest of the army and capture the city?

Joab did not want to capture the city himself, because if he did, it would renamed to honor him and not King David.

2 Samuel 12:29

ULT

29 So David gathered all of the people, and he went to Rabbah. And he fought with it, and he captured it.

UST

29 So David assembled the rest of the Israelite soldiers. They went to Rabbah and attacked it, and they captured it.

ULT

1 And it happened after this that to Absalom, the son of David, {was} a beautiful sister, and her name {was} Tamar, and Amnon, the son of David, loved her.

UST

1 After this, the trouble that Nathan had announced began in David's family. David's son Absalom had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar. Another of David's sons, Amnon, wanted to have sexual relations with her.

To whom was Amnon, the son of David, attracted?

Amnon loved his beautiful half-sister Tamar, who was the sister of Absalom.

2 Samuel 13:2

ULT

2 And it narrowed to Amnon, so that he made himself sick over Tamar his sister. For she {was} a virgin, so it was difficult in the eyes of Amnon to do anything to her.

UST

2 He wanted so badly to have sexual relations with his half-sister Tamar that he felt sick. But because she was an unmarried young woman{, she lived separately from the men in the palace, so} Amnon thought he would never have a relationship with her.

2 Samuel 13:4

ULT

4 And he said to him, “Why {are} you so weak, son of the king, by morning, by morning? Will you not declare to me?” And Amnon said to him, “I am loving Tamar, the sister of Absalom my brother.”

UST

4 One day Jonadab said to Amnon, “Even though you are the king’s son, every day {when I see you,} you seem depressed. Please tell me why.” Amnon replied, “I feel sexual desire toward Tamar, the sister of my half-brother Absalom.”

How did Amnon respond when Jonadab asked him why he was so weak?

Amnon told Jonadab that he loved Tamar, his brother Absalom’s sister.

2 Samuel 13:5

ULT

5 And Jonadab said to him, “Lie down on your bed and pretend to be sick. And your father will come to see you, and you shall say to him, ‘Please let Tamar my sister come and let her serve me bread, and let her make the food to my eyes so that I may see, and I will eat from her hand.’”

UST

5 Jonadab said to him, “Lie down on your bed and pretend that you are sick. Your father will come to visit you. {Tell him that you do not feel like eating anything, but you might eat} if someone prepared food while you were watching so you could see what the person was doing and if the person then served you the food directly. Suggest that you half-sister Tamar could come and do this for you.”

2 Samuel 13:6

ULT

6 So Amnon lay down, and he pretended to be sick. And the king came to see him, and Amnon said to the king, “Please let Tamar my sister come, and let her make to my eyes a couple of pancakes, and I will eat from her hand.”

UST

6 So Amnon lay down and pretended that he was sick. When King David came to visit him, Amnon told him, “{I might eat something if} someone made a couple of pancakes for me while I was watching and then served them to me directly. Please allow my half-sister Tamar to come and do that for me.”

What did Amnon do to get to see Tamar?

Amnon pretended to be sick, and when David came to see him, he asked David to let Tamar come and make food for him so he could eat from her hand.

2 Samuel 13:7

ULT

7 So David sent to Tamar at the house, saying, “Please go {to} the house of Amnon your brother and make food for him.”

UST

7 So David sent a message to Tamar in the palace. He told her, “Amnon your half-brother {is sick, so} please go to his house and prepare some food for him {so that he will eat}.”

2 Samuel 13:11

ULT

11 And she brought {them} near to him to eat, and he seized her, and he said to her, “Come, lie with me, my sister.”

UST

11 But when she brought them close for him to eat them, he grabbed her and told her, “I want to have sex with you!”

What did Amnon do when Tamar came to feed him?

When Tamar came to feed him, he seized her and told her to come and lie with him.

2 Samuel 13:12

ULT

12 And she said to him, “No, my brother, do not humble me, for it is not done thus in Israel. Do not do this wickedness!

UST

12 She replied, “No, do not force me to have sex with you! Israelites should not do things like that. You are my half-brother! So do not commit this crime against me!

What did Amnon do when Tamar begged him not to force her? (vv12-14)

He refused to do what she said he should do. He was stronger than she was, so he forcibly had sexual relations with her.

2 Samuel 13:13

ULT

13 And I, where would I bring my shame? And you, you would be like one of the wicked {ones} in Israel. And now, please, speak to the king, for he would not withhold me from you.”

UST

13 If you did, I would always have shame afterwards. And as for you, you would be acting like the Israelite men who do wrong things without regard for God. So I plead with you, ask the king {to allow you to marry me}. I am sure he would agree to let me become your wife.”

2 Samuel 13:15

ULT

15 Then Amnon hated her {with} very great hatred, so that the hatred {with} which he hated her {was} greater than the love {with} which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, “Arise, go.”

UST

15 Afterwards, Amnon felt great hatred toward her. He hated her much more than he had desired her. He told her, “Now I want you to leave!”

How did Amnon feel toward Tamar after he raped her?

Amnon hated her with a very great hatred that was greater than the love with which he had loved her.

What did Amnon command Tamar to do?

Amnon commanded Tamar to leave.

2 Samuel 13:16

ULT

16 But she said to him, “No, because this great evil, to send me away, than the other that you did to me.” But he was not willing to listen to her.

UST

16 But she told him, “No! You should not send me away. That would be very wrong. It would be worse than what you just did to me!” But again he refused to do what she said he should do.

2 Samuel 13:17

ULT

17 And he called his young man, the one attending him, and he said, “Now send this {one} away from me outside, and lock the door behind her.”

UST

17 Instead, he summoned his personal servant and told him, “Take this woman outside, away from me, and lock the door so that she cannot come in again!”

What did Amnon order his servant to do?

He ordered his servant to send Tamar outside and to lock the door behind her.

2 Samuel 13:18

ULT

18 Now a long robe {was} on her, for thus the virgin daughters of the king dressed {in} garments. And the one attending him brought her outside, and he locked the door behind her.

UST

18 So the servant put her outside and locked the door so that she could not come in again. Now Tamar was wearing a long robe. That was the clothing that the unmarried daughters of the king customarily wore at that time.

2 Samuel 13:19

ULT

19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and she tore the long robe that {was} on her, and she put her hand on her head, and she went, going and she cried out.

UST

19 But {to show how distressed she was,} Tamar put ashes on her head. She tore the long robe that she was wearing. She also placed her hand on her head. As she went away, she kept screaming.

What did Tamar do after she was put out of Amnon’s room?

Tamar tore the long robe that she was wearing. She put ashes on her head, and she put her hand on her head. As she went away, she kept screaming.

2 Samuel 13:20

ULT

20 And Absalom her brother said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? And now, my sister, keep silent, he {is} your brother. Do not set your heart to this matter.” And Tamar dwelled and was desolate {in} the house of Absalom her brother.

UST

20 Her brother Absalom {saw her and} said to her, “Did your half-brother Amnon force you to have sex with him? Please, my sister, do not tell anyone. He is your half-brother. Do not let this bother you.” Then Tamar went to live in Absalom’s house, and she never got married.

2 Samuel 13:21

ULT

21 And King David heard all of these things, and it burned to him greatly.

UST

21 When King David learned what had happened, it made him very angry {but he did not do anything about it}.

What was King David’s response when he heard about these things?

When King David heard all these things, it made him very angry, but he did nothing about it.

2 Samuel 13:22

ULT

22 But Absalom did not speak with Amnon to evil or to good, for Absalom hated Amnon for the reason that he had humbled Tamar his sister.

UST

22 Absalom hated Amnon because he had forcibly had sexual relations with his sister Tamar. But he did not say anything to Amnon about this{, because he did not want Amnon to suspect that he wanted to kill him}.

How did Absalom feel toward Amnon after he raped Tamar?

Absalom hated Amnon because he had humbled his sister Tamar.

2 Samuel 13:23

ULT

23 And it happened after two years of days that shearers were to Absalom in Baal Hazor, which {is} near Ephraim. And Absalom called to all of the sons of the king.

UST

23 However, two years later, Absalom hired men to cut the wool off his sheep at Baal Hazor, where he lived. That place is near the tribal land of Ephraim. He was going to host a celebration when they finished cutting the wool off the sheep, and Absalom invited all the king's sons to come to the celebration.

Whom did Absalom invite to visit him at Baal Hazor? (vv23-24)

Absalom invited the king and all the king's sons to visit him.

2 Samuel 13:24

ULT

24 And Absalom went to the king, and he said, "Behold, please, shearers {are} to your servant. May the king and his servants please go with your servant."

UST

24 Absalom went to King David and said to him, "Sir, I have workers shearing my sheep {and we are going to celebrate when they finish}. Please come with your officials to celebrate with us!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 13:25

ULT

25 And the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, please let not all of us go, and let us not be heavy to you." Then he urged him, but he was not willing to go, but he blessed him.

UST

25 But the king replied, "No, my son, it would not be good for all of us to come. That would be too great an expense for you." Absalom kept inviting him, but King David finally refused. Instead, he said that he hoped that God would make them happy while they celebrated.

What did the king say in response to Absalom's invitation?

The king said they should not all go because they would be a heavy burden to Absalom.

2 Samuel 13:26

ULT

26 And Absalom said, “If not, may Amnon my brother please go with us.” And the king said to him, “Why should he go with you?”

UST

26 Then Absalom said, “If you will not come, please send my half-brother Amnon {the crown prince} with us {as your representative}.” But the king replied, “You do not need to invite him to the celebration either.”

What did David say when Absalom asked him to let Amnon go with them?

But the king replied, “You do not need to invite him to the celebration either.”

2 Samuel 13:27

ULT

27 But Absalom urged him, so he sent Amnon and all of the sons of the king with him.

UST

27 But Absalom insisted, and finally King David agreed to let Amnon go with Absalom. He sent all of his other sons with him.

Who went with Absalom?

Absalom urged David, so he sent Amnon and all the king’s sons with him.

2 Samuel 13:28

ULT

28 And Absalom commanded his young men, saying, “See, now, when Amnon {is} good of heart with wine, and I say to you, ‘Strike Amnon!’ then you shall kill him. Do not fear. {Is it} not that I, I have commanded you? Be courageous and be sons of valor.”

UST

28 At the celebration, Absalom told his servants, “Pay attention to these instructions. Once Amnon has become a bit drunk from the wine, I will shout out, ‘Kill Amnon!’ When I say that, you must kill him. Do not be afraid. You will be doing this only because I told you to do it. So be very brave {and do it}!”

What did Absalom command his servants to do to Amnon?

Absalom commanded his servants to kill Amnon when Amnon began to be drunk with wine.

2 Samuel 13:29

ULT

29 And the young men of Absalom did to Amnon just as Absalom had commanded. And all of the sons of the king arose, and they rode, a man on his mule, and they fled.

UST

29 So Absalom's servants did what Absalom told them to do. They killed Amnon. When the rest of David's sons saw what had happened, they left the celebration. They got onto their mules and escaped by riding away fast.

What did the king's sons do after Absalom's servants killed Amnon?

All the king's sons arose, and they got onto their mules and escaped by riding away fast.

2 Samuel 13:30

ULT

30 And it happened, they {were} on the road, and the report came to David, saying, "Absalom has struck all of the sons of the king, and not one of them is left."

UST

30 While they were still on their way home, someone {who had fled when the servants first killed Amnon} rushed back and reported {incorrectly} to David, "Absalom has killed all of your other sons! None of them is still alive!"

What was the first news David heard about the incident?

The first report to David said that Absalom had killed all the king's sons and not one was still alive.

2 Samuel 13:31

ULT

31 And the king arose, and he tore his clothes, and he lay on the ground, and all of his servants were standing, torn of clothes.

UST

31 When King David heard this, he got up from his throne, tore his clothes, and then lay down on the ground {to show how sad he was}. His officials also tore their clothes, and they stood around him {to show their sympathy}.

2 Samuel 13:32

ULT

32 But Jonadab, the son of Shimeah the brother of David, answered and said, “May my lord not say, ‘All of the young men, the sons of the king, have been killed,’ for Amnon alone has died. For it was placed on the mouth of Absalom from the day of his humbling Tamar his sister.

UST

32 But Jonadab, the son of David’s brother Shimeah, said, “Your Majesty, please do not believe that Absalom has killed all your sons. I am sure that only Amnon is dead. I say this because Absalom has wanted to kill him ever since the day that Amnon raped his sister Tamar.

What did Jonadab say had happened and why?

Jonadab said that only Amnon is dead. Absalom has been determined to kill him ever since the day that Amnon raped his sister Tamar..

2 Samuel 13:33

ULT

33 And now, may my lord the king not put the matter to his heart, saying, ‘All of the sons of the king have died,’ for only Amnon has died.”

UST

33 So, your Majesty, please do not let the thought that all your sons may be dead cause you great distress. I am sure that only Amnon is dead.”

2 Samuel 13:37

ULT

37 But Absalom fled, and he went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son all of the days.

UST

37 Absalom fled {for safety} to the kingdom of Geshur, where {his grandfather} Talmai son of Ammihud was the king. King David mourned continually for his son Amnon.

Where did Absalom go after having Amnon killed?

Absalom fled to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur.

2 Samuel 13:38

ULT

38 And Absalom fled, and he went {to} Geshur, and he was there three years.

UST

38 When Absalom fled to the kingdom of Geshur, he stayed there for three years.

How long was Absalom in Geshur?

Absalom was in Geshur for three years.

2 Samuel 13:39

ULT

39 And it ceased, David the king to go out against Absalom, for he was comforted concerning Amnon, that he had died.

UST

39 King David had intended to attack Absalom {to capture him and punish him for killing Amnon}. But by the end of those three years, David was not grieving as severely that Amnon had died, so he no longer planned to attack Absalom.

What did King David intend to do?

King David had intended to attack Absalom and punish him for killing Amnon.

2 Samuel 14

2 Samuel 14:1

ULT

1 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah knew that the heart of the king {was} against Absalom.

UST

1 But Joab recognized that the king was still angry with Absalom.

What did Joab do when he knew the king's heart was against Absalom? (vv1-2)

Joab sent to Tekoa and brought a wise woman from there to act as if she had been in mourning for a long time.

2 Samuel 14:2

ULT

2 And Joab sent {to} Tekoa, and he brought a wise woman from there. And he said to her, "Please mourn, and please put on clothes of mourning. And you shall not anoint {yourself} {with} oil, but you shall be like this woman mourning many days for one having died."

UST

2 So Joab sent someone to the city of Tekoa to bring to him a woman who was very clever. When she arrived, Joab said to her, "I want you to look very sad, as if you are grieving because someone you love has died. Put on the clothes that people wear who are mourning. Do not put any olive oil on your hair or skin. Act as if you are a woman who has been mourning for a long time for someone who has died.

What did Joab want the wise woman to do? (vv2-3)

Joab wanted the wise woman to pretend to be a mourner and to go speak to the king the words Joab told her to say.

2 Samuel 14:3

ULT

3 And you shall come to the king, and you shall speak to him according to this word." And Joab put the words in her mouth.

UST

3 Then go to King David and tell him what I tell you to say." Then Joab told her what to say.

2 Samuel 14:5

ULT

5 And the king said to her, “What {is} to you?” And she said, “Truly I {am} a woman, a widow, for my husband has died.

UST

5 The king replied, “What is your problem?” She replied, “Sadly I am a widow. My husband died some time ago.

When the wise woman went to the king, whom did she say she was?

The wise woman told the king she was a widow.

2 Samuel 14:6

ULT

6 And to your maidservant {were} two sons. But the two of them fought in the field, and {there was} no deliverer between them. And the one struck him, the one, and he killed him.

UST

6 I had two sons. But one day they quarreled with each other while they were working out in the field. There was no one to separate them, and one of them hit the other one so hard that he killed him.

What did the wise woman tell the king her two sons had done?

She told the king that her two sons fought in a field, and one struck the other and killed him.

2 Samuel 14:7

ULT

7 And behold, all of the clan has arisen against your maidservant, and they have said, ‘Give the one having struck his brother, and we will kill him for the life of his brother whom he slew, and let us destroy the heir also.’ And they would quench my coal that remains, without leaving to my husband a name or remnant on the face of the ground.”

UST

7 Now, all of my extended family has come to me and insisted that I surrender to them my son who is still alive. They want to kill him to punish him for killing his brother. But if they do that, I will not have any son to inherit my late husband’s land {and the family will take it}. My son is the only relative I have left. If they kill him, my husband will have no living descendants to preserve our family’s name.”

What did the wise woman tell the king she was afraid would happen to her remaining son?

She said she was afraid the whole clan would kill her remaining son, destroying her heir and leaving no descendants to preserve her family’s name.

2 Samuel 14:8

ULT

8 And the king said to the woman, “Go to your house, and I, I will command concerning you.”

UST

8 Then the king said to the woman, “I will forbid anyone to punish your surviving son by killing him. So you may go back home {without appealing any further}.”

2 Samuel 14:9

ULT

9 And the Tekoite woman said to the king, “On me, my lord the king, {be} the iniquity, and on the house of my father, and {may} the king and his throne {be} innocent.”

UST

9 The woman from Tekoa replied to the king, “Your Majesty, {let me reassure you that} if my son actually is guilty of murder and deserves to die, then I will accept the blame and expect Yahweh to punish me and my family. May Yahweh not punish you or the kingdom of Israel because you have said that no one should kill my surviving son.”

10 The king said to her, “If anyone continues to demand that you surrender your surviving son for execution, bring that person to me. I will make sure that he never causes you trouble again.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 14:11

ULT

11 And she said, “May the king please remember Yahweh your God, from the increasing of the avenger of blood to destroy. Then they will not destroy my son.” And he said, “The life of Yahweh, if from the hair of your son should fall to the ground!”

UST

11 Then the woman said, “Your Majesty, please swear by Yahweh your God that you will do this. That way the relative who would be responsible to kill my son if he had actually murdered his brother will not kill him and cause someone further to die in my family.” David replied, “I swear by Yahweh that I will not allow anyone to hurt your son at all.”

Why did the wise woman ask the king to remember Yahweh his God?

She asked the king to remember Yahweh so that the avenger of blood would not destroy her son.

Who did the king swear by when he told the woman that not one hair of her son would fall to the ground?

The king swore by the life of Yahweh.

2 Samuel 14:12

ULT

12 And the woman said, “May your maidservant please speak a word to my lord the king.” And he said, “Speak.”

UST

12 Then the woman said, “Your Majesty, please allow me to say one more thing to you.” He replied, “Speak!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 14:13

ULT

13 And the woman said, “Then why have you devised like this against the people of God? For from speaking this word, the king {is} like the guilty, in that the king has not brought back his banished one.

UST

13 The woman said, “You have been acting badly toward God’s people. Based on the judgment you have just given, you have been doing the wrong thing. {Since you take circumstances into account when judging cases of manslaughter,} you should allow your son Absalom{, our crown prince,} to return home.

Why did the woman say the king had been doing the wrong thing?

The woman said the king was acting badly because he had not brought back his own banished son.

2 Samuel 14:14

ULT

14 For dying, we will die, and like water spilled on the ground that is not gathered. But God does not take away life, but he devises devices so that the banished will not be banished from him.

UST

14 Consider that all of us are going to die. Like water that no one can pick up from the ground once someone has spilled it, death is permanent {so you should reconcile with Absalom while you are both still alive}. And it is not God who makes people die {even to punish them when they have done wrong things}. Instead, God forgives people who have sinned against him so that they can once more be in a good relationship with him.

What did the woman say God does instead of taking away life?

She said that God forgives people who have sinned against him so that they can once more be in a good relationship with him.\n

2 Samuel 14:15

ULT

15 “And now that I have come to speak this word to my lord the king, {it is} because the people have frightened me. And your maidservant said, ‘Let me now speak to the king. Perhaps the king will do the word of his female servant.

UST

15 I came to appeal to you, Your Majesty, because I was very afraid that the members of my extended family would kill my son. I said to myself, ‘I will go and talk to the king, and maybe he will do what I ask him to do.

Why did the woman say she came to speak to the king? (vv15-16)

She said she came because the people had frightened her, and she hoped the king would listen and deliver her.

2 Samuel 14:16

ULT

16 For the king will listen to deliver his female servant from the palm of the man {who is} to destroy me and my son together from the inheritance of God.'

UST

16 Perhaps he will listen to me and save my son from the man who is trying to kill him. If that man kills my son, I might die too {without his support}. Then we would both no longer be a part of the Israelite community.'

2 Samuel 14:17

ULT

17 Then your maidservant said, 'Now the word of my lord the king will be for rest, because like an angel of God, so {is} my lord the king, to understand good and evil.' And may Yahweh your God be with you!'"

UST

17 And I decided, 'What the king says will comfort me, because he is like an angel of God. He knows how to determine what is right and what is wrong.' I pray that Yahweh your God will help you."

What did the woman say about the king?

She said that what the king says will comfort her, because he is like an angel of God, and he knows how to determine what is right and what is wrong.

2 Samuel 14:18

ULT

18 And the king answered and said to the woman, "Now do not hide from me a thing that I am asking you." And the woman said, "May my lord the king please speak."

UST

18 In response King David told the woman, "I am going to ask you about something, and I want you to tell me the whole truth about it." The woman replied, "Go ahead and ask, Your Majesty{, and I will answer truthfully}."

2 Samuel 14:19

ULT

19 And the king said, “{Is} the hand of Joab with you in all of this?” And the woman answered and said, “The life of your soul, my lord the king, if there is turning to the right or turning to the left from all that my lord the king has spoken. For your servant Joab, he, he commanded me, and he, he put all of these words in the mouth of your maidservant.

UST

19 The king said, “Did Joab arrange for you to do all this?” She replied, “I swear by your life, Your Majesty, that it is not possible to say otherwise than you have said! Yes, it was in fact Joab who told me to come here, and he was the one who told me what to say.

What did the king ask the woman?

The king asked the woman if Joab arranged for her to do all this.

2 Samuel 14:20

ULT

20 In order to turn the face of the matter, your servant Joab did this thing. But my master {is} wise like the wisdom of an angel of God, to know everything that {is} in the land.”

UST

20 Joab did that to try to get you to feel differently about this matter. But Your Majesty, you seem to be as wise as one of God’s angels. You know what is happening throughout your kingdom{, and that is how you knew that Joab sent me here}.”

Why did Joab have the woman go to the king?

Joab did that to try to get David to feel differently about this matter.

2 Samuel 14:21

ULT

21 And the king said to Joab, “Behold, I will now do this thing. So go, bring back the young man Absalom.”

UST

21 Then King David had his servants bring Joab to him. David told Joab, “Listen! I have decided to do what you want. So you may go and get that young man Absalom and bring him back here to Jerusalem.”

ULT

24 Now the king had said, “He may return to his house, but my face he shall not see.” So Absalom returned to his house, but the face of the king he did not see.

UST

24 But King David had said that while Absalom could live in his own house again, he could not come and speak with him. So Absalom lived in his own house, but he did not go and speak with the king.

What instructions did the king give about Absalom?

The king said that Absalom could return to his own house but could go and speak with the king.

2 Samuel 14:25

ULT

25 Now {there} was not a handsome man like Absalom in all of Israel to praise greatly. From the sole of his foot and to his pate, no blemish was on him.

UST

25 Now people throughout Israel praised Absalom for being a very handsome man. He did not seem to have any flaws in any part of his body.

What was notable about Absalom's appearance? (vv25-26)

He was so handsome that people throughout Israel praised Absalom for being a very handsome man. He did not seem to have any flaws in any part of his body. His hair was long, thick, and heavy.

2 Samuel 14:26

ULT

26 And when he shaved his head (and it was at the end of years to years that he would shave, because {it was} heavy on him, so he would shave it) and he weighed the hair of his head, 200 shekels by the stone of the king.

UST

26 Absalom wore his hair long and only cut it once a year when it became too heavy on his head. When he cut his hair, he would weigh it, and {because it was so thick} it always weighed nearly a kilogram.

2 Samuel 14:30

ULT

30 So he said to his servants, "See, the property of Joab {is} to my hand, and barley {is} to him there. Go and burn it with fire." So the servants of Absalom burned the property with fire.

UST

30 Then Absalom told his servants, "Here is what I want you to do. Joab owns a piece of land next to my land, and he has barley growing there. Go over and start a fire there to burn up the barley." So Absalom's servants went over and started a fire, and it burned up all the barley.

What did Absalom tell his servants to do after Joab refused to come to him?

Absalom told his servants to go and burn Joab's barley field with fire.

2 Samuel 14:31

ULT

31 And Joab arose, and he came to Absalom, to the house, and he said to him, “Why did your servants burn with fire the property that {is} to me?”

UST

31 Joab {realized who must have started the fire, so he} went to Absalom’s house and demanded to know, “Why did your servants burn up the barley that was growing on my piece of land?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 14:32

ULT

32 And Absalom said to Joab, “Behold, I sent to you, saying, ‘Come here, that I may send you to the king, saying, “Why have I come from Geshur? {It would be} better for me {if} I {were} still there.”’ And now, let me see the face of the king, but if iniquity is in me, then let him kill me.”

UST

32 Absalom replied, “I had them do that because when I sent messengers to ask you to come and speak with me, you refused. I wanted you to go to the king and tell him on my behalf that it seemed useless for me to have come here from Geshur and that I thought it would have been better for me to stay there. Now please get the king to allow me to come and speak with him. Tell him that if he is keeping me away to punish me for doing something wrong, he can go ahead and execute me!”

What did Absalom want Joab to do?

Absalom wanted Joab to go to the king and ask why he had come from Geshur, and to say that he wanted to come and speak with him.

2 Samuel 14:33

ULT

33 So Joab came to the king, and he declared to him. And he called to Absalom, and he came to the king, and he prostrated himself to him on his nose to the ground to the face of the king. And the king kissed Absalom.

UST

33 So Joab went to the king and told him what Absalom had said. Then the king sent messengers to bring Absalom to the royal court. Absalom came to the king and, to honor him, he knelt down in front of him with his face touching the ground. Then the king {indicated that Absalom could get up, and he} kissed Absalom on the cheek to show that he was no longer hostile to him.

What did the king do when Absalom bowed before him?

The king kissed Absalom on the cheek to show that he was no longer hostile to him.

2 Samuel 15:1

ULT

1 And it happened after this that Absalom made for himself a chariot and horses and 50 men running to his face.

UST

1 Soon afterwards, Absalom got a chariot and horses to pull it. He hired 50 men to run in front of him while he was riding around Jerusalem in the chariot.

What did Absalom prepare for himself?

Absalom prepared a chariot and horses for himself.

Who ran before Absalom's chariot?

He hired fifty men to run in front of his chariot.

2 Samuel 15:2

ULT

2 And Absalom would arise early, and he would stand at the hand of the way of the gate. And it happened, {when} any man to whom was a dispute came to the king for judgment, then Absalom would call to him, and he would say, "Where from this city {are} you?" And he would say, "Your servant {is} from one of the tribes of Israel."

UST

2 And Absalom would also go and stand by the city gate starting early each morning. When a person came toward the gate so they could go into the city and ask the king to decide a case for him, Absalom would call out to him. He would ask what city he was from. Then the person would tell him what {city and} tribe he was from.

Whom would Absalom call to as he stood by the gate?

Absalom would call to any man who had a dispute and was coming to the king for judgment.

2 Samuel 15:3

ULT

3 Then Absalom would say to him, “See, your matter {is} good and right, but there is not a hearer for you from with the king.”

UST

3 Then Absalom would {ask the person about his case} and tell him, “It certainly seems to me that you deserve to win your case. But the king {is not able to decide everyone’s case, and he} has not appointed anyone else to judge cases for people like you.”

What would Absalom say about the cases of the men who came for judgment?

Absalom would say to them that their matter was good and right, but the king is not able to decide everyone’s case, and he has not appointed anyone else to judge cases for people like you.

2 Samuel 15:4

ULT

4 And Absalom would say, “Who will appoint me a judge in the land, that every person to whom was a dispute and a judgment would come to me, and I would do him justice?”

UST

4 Absalom would then add, “I should really be a judge for all the Israelites. That way anyone who had a legal case could come to me, and I would decide it fairly.”

Why did Absalom say he wished he were a judge in the land?

Absalom said he wished he were a judge so that every person with a dispute could come to him and he would give them justice.

2 Samuel 15:5

ULT

5 And it happened, when a man approached to prostrate himself to him, that he would stretch out his hand and take hold of him and kiss him.

UST

5 And whenever anyone approached Absalom and started to bow respectfully in front of him, Absalom would reach out and hold him up and kiss him on the cheek.

What did Absalom do when a man approached to prostrate himself?

Absalom would stretch out his hand, hold the man up, and kiss him on the cheek.

2 Samuel 15:6

ULT

6 And Absalom acted according to this matter for all of Israel who came to the king for judgment. And Absalom stole the heart of the men of Israel.

UST

6 Absalom acted this way toward every Israelite who came to King David to ask him to judge a case. As a result, the Israelites began to wish that Absalom were their king instead of David.

What did Absalom steal from the men of Israel?

Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. The Israelites began to wish that Absalom were their king instead of David.

2 Samuel 15:7

ULT

7 And it happened at the end of 40 years that Absalom said to the king, “Please may I go, and may I fulfill in Hebron my vow that I vowed to Yahweh.

UST

7 After four years, Absalom went to King David and said, “I made a promise to Yahweh. Please allow me to go to the city of Hebron so that I can do what I promised.

What reason did Absalom give the king for needing to go to Hebron?

Absalom said he had to go to Hebron to fulfill a vow he had made to Yahweh.

2 Samuel 15:8

ULT

8 For your servant vowed a vow when I was living in Geshur in Aram, saying, ‘If bringing back, Yahweh brings me back {to} Jerusalem, then I will serve Yahweh.”

UST

8 I ask this because when I was living in Geshur, in Aram, I promised Yahweh that if he made it possible for me to return to Jerusalem, then I would worship him in Hebron {and thank him publicly}.”

2 Samuel 15:10

ULT

10 Then Absalom sent spies among all of the tribes of Israel, saying, “When you hear the sound of the shofar, then you shall say, ‘Absalom reigns in Hebron!’”

UST

10 But while he was there, he secretly sent messengers throughout the territory of all the tribes of Israel. The messengers told people, “When you hear the sound of people blowing rams’ horns, shout, ‘Absalom has become the king at Hebron!’”

What did the spies that Absalom sent throughout Israel say?

The spies said that when people heard the sound of the shofar, they should say that Absalom has become the king at Hebron.

2 Samuel 15:11

ULT

11 Now 200 men from Jerusalem had gone with Absalom, called and walking in their innocence, and they did not know any of the matter.

UST

11 There were 200 men who came from Jerusalem to Hebron with Absalom. But they came because he had invited them to the feast he was going to host there. They were not part of his conspiracy. They knew nothing about what he was planning to do.

Did the two hundred men who went with Absalom to Hebron know of his plans?

No, the two hundred men came because he had invited them to the feast he was going to host there. They were not part of his conspiracy. They knew nothing about what he was planning to do.

2 Samuel 15:12

ULT

12 And Absalom sent {for} Ahithophel the Gilonite, the counselor of David, from his city, from Giloh, while he sacrificed the sacrifices. And it happened, the conspiracy {became} strong, and the people were going and many with Absalom.

UST

12 King David had an advisor whose name was Ahithophel the Gilohite. While Absalom was offering sacrifices at Hebron, he sent messengers to bring Ahithophel from his home in the city of Giloh. Many other people also came and joined Absalom {in his rebellion against David}.

2 Samuel 16:2

ULT

2 And the king said to Ziba, "What {are} these to you?" And Ziba said, "The donkeys {are} for the house of the king to ride, and the bread and the summer fruit {are for} the young men to eat, and the wine {is for} the faint in the wilderness to drink."

UST

2 The king said to Ziba, "What is all this for?" Ziba replied, "The donkeys are for your family to ride on. The bread and the fruit are for your soldiers to eat. And the wine is for anyone to drink who becomes tired in this desolate area."

2 Samuel 16:3

ULT

3 And the king said, “And where {is} the son of your master?” And Ziba said to the king, “Behold, he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, ‘Today, the house of Israel will return the kingdom of my father to me.’”

UST

3 The king said, “Where is Mephibosheth, the grandson of your former master Saul?” Ziba answered, “You should know that he has remained in Jerusalem, because he thinks that now the Israelites will allow him to rule their kingdom as his grandfather Saul did.”

According to Ziba, why did Mephibosheth stay in Jerusalem?

Ziba said Mephibosheth stayed because he said that the house of Israel would return the kingdom of his father to him that day.

2 Samuel 16:4

ULT

4 And the king said to Ziba, “Behold, to you {is} all that {was} to Mephibosheth.” And Ziba said, “I prostrate myself. May I find favor in your eyes, my lord the king.”

UST

4 The king said to Ziba, “In that case, everything that belonged to Mephibosheth is now yours.” Ziba replied, “Your Majesty, I will humbly serve you. I hope that you will always be pleased with me.”

What did the king say now belonged to Ziba?

The king told Ziba that all that belonged to Mephibosheth was now his.

2 Samuel 16:5

ULT

5 And King David came to Bahurim. And behold, a man from the clan of the house of Saul was coming out from there, and his name {was} Shimei, the son of Gera. {He} was coming out, coming out and cursing.

UST

5 When King David and those with him arrived at the city of Bahurim, a man whose name was Shimei unexpectedly came out of his house to meet him. Shimei’s father was Gera. They were members of the same clan that Saul’s family belonged to. Shimei kept cursing David as he approached.

What did Shimei do to David and all the king’s officials? (vv5-6)

Shimei came out cursing, and he threw stones at David and all the servants of King David.

2 Samuel 16:6

ULT

6 And he stoned David with stones and all of the servants of King David, and all of the people and all of the mighty {were} on his right and on his left.

UST

6 Then he threw stones at David and his officials. David's soldiers and bodyguards surrounded David {to try to protect him from the stones}.

ULT

7 And thus Shimei said in his cursing, "Get out, get out, man of blood, man of wickedness!

UST

7 Shimei cursed David and said to him, "Go away and never come back, you murderer, you scoundrel!

What did Shimei call David? (vv7-8)

Shimei called David a man of blood and a man of wickedness.

2 Samuel 16:8

ULT

8 Yahweh has brought back upon you all of the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you are king, and Yahweh has given the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. And behold you in your evil, for you {are} a man of blood."

UST

8 Yahweh is punishing you for killing so many people who were Saul's relatives and supporters. You took Saul's place as king, and now Yahweh is making your son Absalom take your place as king. You are getting what you deserve for killing so many people!"

2 Samuel 16:11

ULT

11 And David said to Abishai and to all of his servants, “Behold, my son, who came out from my belly, is seeking my life. And how much more that now a Benjaminite! Leave him alone and let him curse, if Yahweh has spoken to him.

UST

11 Then David said to Abishai and to all his officials, “You know that my very own son is trying to kill me. So it is not surprising that this man from the tribe of Benjamin also wants me to die. Just ignore him and let him curse me if Yahweh has told him to do that.

2 Samuel 16:12

ULT

12 Perhaps Yahweh will look at my affliction, and Yahweh will return good to me in place of his cursing this day.”

UST

12 Perhaps Yahweh will see how much trouble I am having and decide to make good things happen to me instead of the curses that this man is shouting at me today.”

What did David hope Yahweh would do in response to Shimei’s cursing?

David hoped that Yahweh would look at his affliction and return good to him in place of the cursing.

2 Samuel 16:13

ULT

13 So David and his men walked on the road, and Shimei was walking on the side of the hill beside him, walking and he cursed, and he stoned with stones beside him, and he dusted with dust.

UST

13 So David and those who were with him continued walking along the road. Shimei walked along the hillside next to the road, and as he walked along next to them, he kept cursing David and throwing stones and dirt at him.

2 Samuel 16:16

ULT

16 And it happened, when Hushai the Archite, the friend of David, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, “May the king live! May the king live!”

UST

16 Then David’s friend Hushai came to Absalom and said, “May you, the king, live a long time!”

When Absalom came to Jerusalem, what did Hushai say to him?

Hushai said to Absalom, “May the king live! May the king live!”

2 Samuel 16:17

ULT

17 And Absalom said to Hushai, "{Is} this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

UST

17 Absalom said to Hushai, "You have been a loyal friend of my father David for a long time. So I do not understand why you did not leave Jerusalem with him."

2 Samuel 16:18

ULT

18 And Hushai said to Absalom, "No, but whom Yahweh has chosen, and this people, and every man of Israel, to him I will be, and with him I will stay.

UST

18 Hushai replied, "Yahweh has chosen you to be the king. So have all these people here, and so have all the other Israelites. So I will now be loyal to you and stay here in Jerusalem with you.

To whom did Hushai tell Absalom he would belong?

Hushai told Absalom that he would belong to the one whom Yahweh, the people, and every man of Israel had chosen.

2 Samuel 16:19

2 Samuel 16:21

ULT

21 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Go in to the concubines of your father whom he left to keep the house, and all of Israel will hear that you have made yourself stink with your father, and the hands of all who {are} with you will become strong.”

UST

21 Ahithophel replied, “Your father left some of his secondary wives in the palace to take care of it. I advise you to have sexual relations with them. When people throughout Israel hear that you have done that, they will realize that you will never be able to reconcile with your father. Then all of the Israelites who are supporting you will fight hard to make sure that you defeat him.”

What did Ahithophel advise Absalom to do?

Ahithophel advised Absalom to go in to his father’s concubines whom David had left to keep the house.

2 Samuel 16:22

ULT

22 So they spread a tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom went in to the concubines of his father to the eyes of all of Israel.

UST

22 So they set up a tent for Absalom on the roof of the palace. Then Absalom had sexual relations in the tent with each of his father’s secondary wives, one at a time. The Israelites in Jerusalem could see Absalom’s officials bringing each secondary wife into the tent, and they could see Absalom going into the tent afterwards to have sexual relations with each one.

2 Samuel 16:23

ULT

23 Now the counsel of Ahithophel that he counseled in those days {was} just as if one inquired of the word of God. Thus {was} all of the counsel of Ahithophel, both to David and to Absalom.

UST

23 In those days, people did what Ahithophel recommended just as if God himself had recommended it. That was how David had regarded what Ahithophel recommended, and Absalom regarded it in that same way.

How was Ahithophel’s counsel viewed?

The counsel of Ahithophel was viewed as if God himself had recommended it.

2 Samuel 17

2 Samuel 17:1

ULT

1 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Please let me choose 12,000 men, and let me arise and pursue after David tonight.

UST

1 Then Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Please allow me to pick 12,000 of our best soldiers so that I can lead them tonight to chase David.

What did Ahithophel advise Absalom and all the elders of Israel about how he should attack David? (vv1-4)

Ahithophel’s advice was to let him lead a large army carry out a surprise attack on David that night, when he was weary and weak, kill only David, and bring back all the rest of the people for Absalom to rule.\n\n\n\n

2 Samuel 17:2

ULT

2 And I will come upon him, and he {will be} weary and weak of hands, and I will make him tremble, and all of the people who {are} with him will flee. And I will strike the king alone.

UST

2 When we catch up to him, he will be tired from traveling and physically weak. When our soldiers appear, this will terrify him. The other people who are with him will run away {and not fight against us}. We will only need to kill the king.

5 But Absalom said, “Please also call to Hushai the Archite, and let us hear what {is} in his mouth, even he.”

UST

5 But then Absalom said, “Ask Hushai to come and speak to us as well. We should find out whether he recommends anything different that we should consider.”

What was Hushai’s opinion of Ahithophel’s plan? (vv5-7)

Hushai said that the counsel Ahithophel had given on this occasion was not good.

2 Samuel 17:6

ULT

6 And Hushai came to Absalom, and Absalom spoke to him, saying, “According to this word, Ahithophel has spoken. Shall we do his word? If not, you speak.”

UST

6 When Hushai arrived, Absalom told him what Ahithophel had suggested. Then he asked Hushai, “What do you think we should do? If you do not think that we should do what Ahithophel advises, then tell us what you think we should do instead.”

2 Samuel 17:8

ULT

8 And Hushai said, “You, you know your father and his men, that they {are} warriors and they {are} bitter of soul, like a bear bereaved in the field. And your father {is} a man of war, so he will not lodge with the people.”

UST

8 He continued, “You know that your father and the men who are with him are elite soldiers. You know that they must be very angry, like a wild mother bear whose cubs someone has stolen from her. Furthermore, your father has fought in many battles{, so he knows what he should do now}. He will not spend the night with the crowd of people who left Jerusalem with him.

2 Samuel 17:9

ULT

9 Behold, he has now hidden himself in one of the pits or in one of the places. And it will be, when {some} among them fall in the beginning, the hearer will hear and say, ‘A slaughter has happened among the people who {are} behind Absalom.’

UST

9 Right now he is probably already hiding in a cave or in some other safe place. If Ahithophel leads soldiers out to attack David’s soldiers, David’s soldiers will certainly kill some of them at the start of the battle. When people hear about that, they will say, ‘David’s soldiers are slaughtering Absalom’s soldiers!’

Why did Hushai say the plan was not good? (vv9-10)

Hushai said that David and his very brave warriors were probably in a safe place, and David’s soldiers will certainly kill some of Ahithophel's soldiers at the start of the battle. When people hear about that, they will say that David’s soldiers are slaughtering Absalom’s soldiers! Then your other soldiers, even if they are as fearless as lions, will become very afraid.

2 Samuel 17:10

ULT

10 And even he, a son of valor whose heart {is} like the heart of a lion, melting, he will melt, because all of Israel knows that your father {is} a warrior and {they} who {are} with him {are} sons of valor.

UST

10 Then your other soldiers, even if they are as fierce as lions, will become very afraid. After all, everyone in Israel knows that your father is a great soldier and that the soldiers who are with him are very brave.

2 Samuel 17:11

ULT

11 Therefore I counsel, being gathered, all of Israel shall be gathered to you, from Dan and to Beersheba, like the sand that {is} by the sea for multitude. And your face shall be going into the battle.

UST

11 So this is what I recommend. You should really summon the entire Israelite army. Have the solders come here even if they live as far away as Dan {in the far north} or Beersheba {in the far south}. You will have too many soldiers to count, like the grains of sand on the seashore. {Wait until they come, and then} you yourself should lead the army into battle.

What did Hushai advise Absalom to do? (vv11-12)

Hushai advised Absalom to gather all of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and for Absalom himself to go into the battle. He said that this great army would overwhelm David's smaller army and none of them would survive.

2 Samuel 17:12

ULT

12 And we will come upon him in one of the places where he may be found there, and we {will be} upon him just as the dew falls upon the ground. And not even one will be left of him or of any of the men who {are} with him.

UST

12 We will find your father, wherever he is, and our great army will overwhelm his smaller army, just as dew covers the entire ground. Neither he nor any of the soldiers who are with him will survive.

2 Samuel 17:14

ULT

14 And Absalom and all of the men of Israel said, “The counsel of Hushai the Archite {is} better than the counsel of Ahithophel.” For Yahweh had appointed to break up the good counsel of Ahithophel for the sake of Yahweh bringing harm to Absalom.

UST

14 Absalom and the other Israelite leaders who were with him decided, “What Hushai suggests is better than what Ahithophel suggested.” Yahweh led them not to accept Ahithophel’s advice, which actually would have been better for Absalom. As a result, Yahweh caused a great defeat for Absalom.

How did Absalom and the men of Israel respond to Hushai’s advice?

They said the counsel of Hushai was better than the counsel of Ahithophel and they decided to do what Hushai suggested.

2 Samuel 17:15

ULT

15 Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar, the priests, “Like this and like this Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel, but like this and like this I, I have counseled.

UST

15 Then Hushai {went secretly and} told the two priests, Zadok and Abiathar, what both he and Ahithophel had suggested to Absalom and the Israelite leaders.

2 Samuel 17:16

ULT

16 And now, send quickly and declare to David, saying, ‘Do not lodge tonight at the fords of the wilderness, but also crossing over, cross over, lest the king be swallowed and all of the people who {are} with him.’”

UST

16 Then he said to them, “{There is still a risk that Absalom might decide to do what Ahithophel suggested, so} send a message quickly to David. Tell him not to stay overnight at the place where people can walk across the Jordan River. Instead, he and his soldiers must cross the Jordan River immediately. Otherwise, Absalom and his army may come and kill them.”

What message did Hushai send to David?

The message was that David should not stay at the place where people can walk across the Jordan River but should cross over immediately, because otherwise, Absalom and his army may come and kill them.

2 Samuel 17:17

ULT

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En Rogel, and a maidservant would go and declare to them, and they, they would go and declare to King David, for they were not able to be seen entering the city.

UST

17 The priests' two sons, Jonathan and Ahimaaz, were staying near En Rogel{, outside Jerusalem}. They did not dare to enter the city{, because if someone saw them, he would report it to Absalom}. Instead, they had arranged for a woman who served the two priests to come and report to them what was happening. They would then go and report it to King David.

How was information relayed to King David?

A maidservant of the two priests would go and declare news to Jonathan and Ahimaaz, and they would go and declare it to King David.

2 Samuel 17:18

ULT

18 But a young man saw them, and he declared to Absalom. So the two of them went {in} haste, and they came to the house of a man in Bahurim, and to him {was} a well in his courtyard, and they went down there.

UST

18 But a young man saw them at En Rogel, and he went and reported this to Absalom. {They knew the young man had recognized them,} so both of them left quickly and went to the house of a man who lived in the city of Bahurim. That man had a well in his courtyard, and he let Jonathan and Ahimaaz go down into the well to hide.

What did Jonathan and Ahimaaz do when a young man saw them and told Absalom?

The two of them went quickly to the house of a man in Bahurim and went down into a well in his courtyard.

2 Samuel 17:19

ULT

19 And the woman took and stretched out a covering over the face of the well, and she spread grain over it, so the matter was not known.

UST

19 The man's wife took a cloth and covered the opening of the well. Then she scattered grain on top of it {to make it look as if this was the place where she dried the grain in the sun}. As a result, it was not evident that there was a well beneath the cloth.

How were the two men helped? (vv19-20)

The man's wife spread a covering over the well and spread grain on it, and when Absalom's servants asked where the men were, she told them they had crossed the brook.

2 Samuel 17:20

ULT

20 And the servants of Absalom came to the woman {at} the house, and they said, “Where {are} Ahimaaz and Jonathan?” And the woman said to them, “They crossed over the brook of waters.” And they sought, but they did not find, so they returned {to} Jerusalem.

UST

20 Some of Absalom’s soldiers learned in what direction the two men had gone. So they went {in that direction} and came to the house {where they were hiding}. They asked the wife, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?” She replied, “They went across that stream over there.” So the soldiers went in that direction and searched for them. But they could not find them, so they went back to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 17:21

ULT

21 And it happened after they went that they came up from the well, and they went and declared to King David. And they said to David, “Arise and cross over the waters in haste, for according to this Ahithophel has counseled against you.”

UST

21 After the soldiers had gone, the two men came out of the well and went and reported to King David. They told him, “Ahithophel has encouraged Absalom to attack you immediately. So you must get all these people across the Jordan River quickly!”

After Absalom’s men left, what did the two men do? (vv21-22)

They came up from the well, went and reported the news to King David, and told him to get all these people across the Jordan River quickly.

2 Samuel 17:22

ULT

22 So David and all of the people who {were} with him arose and crossed the Jordan until the light of dawn, until not one was missing who had not crossed the Jordan.

UST

22 So David and all his soldiers quickly started to cross the Jordan River, and by the next morning they had all crossed to the other side.

2 Samuel 17:23

ULT

23 And Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not done, and he saddled his donkey, and he arose and went to his house, to his city, and he commanded about his house, and he hanged himself, and he died. And he was buried in the grave of his father.

UST

23 When Ahithophel realized that Absalom was not going to do what he had recommended, {he knew that David would defeat Absalom, so} he put a saddle on his donkey and returned home to his own city. He gave to his family instructions about what to do with his possessions, and then he hanged himself {because he knew that otherwise David would kill him as a traitor}. People buried his body in the same tomb where people had buried his father.

What did Ahithophel do when he saw that his counsel was not followed?

Ahithophel saddled his donkey, went to his house, gave to his family instructions about what to do with his possessions, and then he hanged himself because he knew that otherwise David would kill him as a traitor.

27 And it happened, when David came to Mahanaim, that Shobi, the son of Nahash, from Rabbah of the sons of Ammon and Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lo Debar and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,

UST

27 When David and his soldiers arrived at Mahanaim, Shobi son of Nahash from the Ammonite city of Rabbah, Machir son of Ammiel from the city of Lo Debar, and Barzillai from the city of Rogelim in Gilead came to them.

How were David and his people cared for in the wilderness? (vv27-29)

Shobi, Machir, and Barzillai brought beds, basins, pottery, and all kinds of food for David and the people with him to eat.

2 Samuel 17:28

ULT

28 beds and basins and vessels of the potter and wheat and barley and flour and roasted grain and beans and lentils and roasted beans

UST

28 They brought mats for them to sleep on and bowls and clay pots that they could use to prepare and serve food. They also brought wheat and barley, as raw grains, as flour, and as roasted grains. They also brought beans and lentils, some raw and some roasted.

2 Samuel 18:2

ULT

2 And David sent out the people, a third in the hand of Joab and a third in the hand of Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, and a third in the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, “Going out, I will go out, I too, with you.”

UST

2 David then sent the soldiers out in three divisions. Joab commanded one division, Joab’s brother Abishai commanded a second division, and Ittai from Gath commanded the third division. Before they left, David told the soldiers, “I will go with you personally into the battle.”

What did King David tell the army?

King David told the army that he would also go out with them himself.

2 Samuel 18:3

ULT

3 But the people said, “You shall not go out, for if fleeing, we flee, they will not set a heart to us. Even if half of us die, they will not set a heart to us. For now {there are} ten thousand like us. And now, {it is} better that you be help for us from the city.”

UST

3 But his soldiers said, “No, we will not permit you to come into the battle with us. Even if they defeat us so that we all run away, they will not care about us. Or even if they kill half of us, they will not care about that either. There are ten thousand soldiers like us{, but only one king like you}. So it would be better for you to stay here inside the city of Mahanaim. You can receive reports of the battle and send soldiers to where we need them, and you can keep the city secure as a place to which we can retreat if we need to.”

What was the response from the men in the army to King David? (vv3-4)

The men told King David not to go out, because he was worth ten thousand of them, and it was better for him to be ready to help them from the city.

2 Samuel 18:4

ULT

4 And the king said to them, “What is good in your eyes, I will do.” And the king stood at the hand of the gate, and all of the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.

UST

4 The king replied to them, “Very well, I will do whatever seems best to you.” So he stood beside the city gate and observed while his soldiers marched out in their groups of hundreds and thousands.

2 Samuel 18:5

ULT

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, “Gently for me with the young man, with Absalom.” And all of the people heard when the king commanded all of the commanders about the matter of Absalom.

UST

5 As they were leaving, the king ordered Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, “For my sake, do not harm that young man Absalom!” All the soldiers heard David give this order about Absalom to his three main commanders.

What instructions did the king give his commanders about Absalom?

The king told the commanders not to harm the young man Absalom for his sake.

2 Samuel 18:6

ULT

6 And the people went out {to} the field to meet Israel, and the battle was in the Forest of Ephraim.

UST

6 So David's soldiers went out to fight against the Israelite soldiers who were supporting Absalom. They fought a battle in the Forest of Ephraim.

What was the outcome of the battle in the Forest of Ephraim? (vv6-8)

The people of Israel were struck down before the servants of David, and more of Absalom's soldiers died because of accidents in the forest than the number of them whom David's soldiers killed in the battle.

2 Samuel 18:7

ULT

7 And the people of Israel were struck there to the face of the servants of David. And the striking there was great on that day, 20,000.

UST

7 David's soldiers won the battle there against Absalom's soldiers. They badly defeated them that day. They killed 20,000 of them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 18:8

ULT

8 And the battle was scattered there over the face of all of the land. And the forest made more to consume among the people than what the sword consumed on that day.

UST

8 The battle broke up into small skirmishes all over that area. The number of Absalom's soldiers who died that day because of accidents in the forest was greater than the number of them whom David's soldiers killed in the battle.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 18:9

ULT

9 And Absalom was met to the face of the servants of David. Now Absalom was riding on the mule, and the mule came under the branches of a great oak tree, and his head was caught in the oak tree, and he was put between the heavens and between the earth, and the mule that {was} under him passed on.

UST

9 In the forest, Absalom suddenly noticed that some of David's soldiers were near him. Absalom was riding on the mule {that the Israelite king rode}. {To get away from David's soldiers, he made the mule run away, and} the mule ran under the thick branches of a large oak tree. Absalom's head got caught in the branches. The mule he was riding kept going, and that left Absalom dangling in the air.

What happened to Absalom when the mule he was riding ran under the thick branhes of a large oak tree?

Absalom's head was caught in the oak tree. The mule kept going, and that left Absalom dangling in the air.

2 Samuel 18:10

ULT

10 And one man saw, and he declared to Joab, and he said, "Behold, I saw Absalom hung on an oak tree."

UST

10 One of David's soldiers saw what happened. He went and told Joab, "Listen, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree!"

Why was Joab upset with the man who saw Absalom? (vv10-11)

Joab was upset because the man did not kill Absalom immediately.

2 Samuel 18:11

ULT

11 And Joab said to the man declaring to him, "And behold, you saw, so why did you not strike him there to the ground? For {it was} to me to give to you ten silver and one belt."

UST

11 Joab said to the man, "Listen, when you saw him hanging there, you should have killed him immediately! If you had killed him, I would have rewarded you with ten pieces of silver and a soldier's belt!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 18:12

ULT

12 And the man said to Joab, “Even if I were weighing on my palm a thousand silver, I would not stretch out my hand against the son of the king. For in our ears the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, ‘Guard who {is} upon the young man Absalom.’

UST

12 The man replied to Joab, “Even if you gave me a thousand pieces of silver, I would not do anything to harm the king’s son. I say this because we all heard the king command you and Abishai and Ittai, ‘For my sake, keep any soldier from hurting that young man Absalom!’

Why did the man refuse to kill Absalom? (vv12-13)

He refused because he had heard the king command his commanders to keep from hurting the young man Absalom.

2 Samuel 18:13

ULT

13 Otherwise I would have done wrong against my life, for every matter is not hidden from the king, and you, you would have stationed yourself from before {me}.”

UST

13 If I had killed Absalom, I would have put my own life in danger. {The king would have heard about it, since} the king hears about everything. You would not have protected me by saying I was obeying your orders{, and the king would have executed me}.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 18:14

ULT

14 And Joab said, “I will not wait thus to your face.” And he took three spears in his palm, and he thrust them into the heart of Absalom, he still {being} alive in the heart of the oak tree.

UST

14 Joab said, “I am not going to stay here and speak with you any longer!” Then he got three spears and went to where Absalom was. Absalom was still alive, dangling from the branches of the oak tree. Joab thrust the spears into Absalom’s chest.

What did Joab do to Absalom?

Joab took three spears and thrust them into the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the oak tree.

2 Samuel 18:15

ULT

15 And ten young men, carriers of the weapons of Joab, surrounded {him}. And they struck Absalom, and they killed him.

UST

15 Then ten young men who carried Joab's weapons gathered around Absalom, and they stabbed him repeatedly to finish killing him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 18:16

ULT

16 Then Joab blew on the shofar, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel, for Joab restrained the people.

UST

16 Then Joab blew on his ram's horn to signal to his soldiers that they should stop fighting. So his soldiers stopped chasing Absalom's soldiers and came back {to their camp}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 18:17

ULT

17 And they took Absalom, and they threw him into a great pit in the forest, and they set up a very great heap of stones over him. And all of Israel fled, a man to his tent.

UST

17 They took Absalom's body and threw it into a huge pit in the forest. They covered it with a huge pile of stones. Meanwhile, all the remaining Israelite soldiers who had been supporting Absalom ran away back to their own homes.

What was done with Absalom's body?

They threw Absalom's body into a great pit in the forest and set up a very great heap of stones over him.

2 Samuel 18:18

ULT

18 Now while he was living, Absalom had taken and set up for himself a pillar, which {was} in the Valley of the King. For he said, "{There is} no son to me in order to make {people} remember my name." And he called the pillar according to his name, and it is called the Hand of Absalom to this day.

UST

18 (Absalom had no sons to preserve his family name {because his sons had died while they were still young}. So while Absalom was alive, he had built a monument in the Valley of Kings {near Jerusalem}. He thought that if he did that, people would remember him. He named the monument after himself, and people still call it Absalom's Monument.)

Why had Absalom set up a pillar for himself in the Valley of the King while he was alive?

Absalom set up a pillar to make his name remembered, because he said he had no son to make people remember his name.

2 Samuel 18:19

ULT

19 And Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok, said, "Please let me run and let me bring news {to} the king, for Yahweh has judged him out of the hand of his enemies."

UST

19 Ahimaaz son of Zadok said to Joab, "Allow me to run to King David and tell him the good news. I want to do this because Yahweh has shown that he wants David to remain as king, because he enabled his soldiers to defeat his enemies!"

Why did Joab tell Ahimaaz not to run to the king with the news? (vv19-20)

Joab told him not to bring the news that day because the king's son was dead.

2 Samuel 18:20

ULT

20 But Joab said to him, "You {are} not a man of news this day, but you will bring news another day. But this day you will not bring news, because the son of the king is dead."

UST

20 But Joab said to him, "No, I will not allow you to run and tell this news to the king today. Some other day you may do that, but not today. I do not want you to bring to the king the news that his son is dead."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 18:21

ULT

21 Then Joab said to the Cushite, “Go, declare to the king what you have seen.” And the Cushite prostrated himself to Joab, then he ran.

UST

21 Then Joab said to the man from Ethiopia who ran carrying messages for him, “You go and tell the king what you have seen.” So that man bowed respectfully to Joab {to show that he would obey} and started to run.

Why did Ahimaaz still run and tell David the news? (vv21-23)

Ahimaaz insisted on running after the Cushite, even though Joab told him there was no reward for the news, so Joab told him to go.

2 Samuel 18:22

ULT

22 And again Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok, resumed and said to Joab, “But whatever may be, please let me run, I too, after the Cushite.” And Joab said, “Why {is} this, you running, my son, when for you {there is} no news finding?”

UST

22 Then Ahimaaz said again to Joab, “However the king might respond to the news, even though your servant from Ethiopia has already left, please allow me to run too.” Joab replied, “My boy, you should not want to do that! You will not receive any reward for your news!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 18:23

ULT

23 “But whatever may be, let me run.” And he said to him, “Run.” And Ahimaaz ran the way of the plain, and he passed the Cushite.

UST

23 But Ahimaaz replied, “However the king might respond to the news, I want to go.” So Joab said, “Very well, then, go.” Ahimaaz ran on the flat ground through which the Jordan River flows and arrived where David was before the man from Ethiopia did {because he had run through hills and forests}.

2 Samuel 18:24

ULT

24 Now David was sitting between the two gates, and the watcher went to the roof of the gate, on the wall, and he lifted his eyes, and he saw, and behold, a man running by himself.

UST

24 David was sitting in the area between the inner and outer gate in the city wall. A watchman went up on top of the city wall and stood on the roof over the gates. As he was looking around, he suddenly noticed a lone runner.

What did the king think when the watcher reported a lone runner? (vv24-25)

The king said that if the man was by himself, that indicates that he is bringing news.

2 Samuel 18:25

ULT

25 And the watcher called and declared to the king. And the king said, “If {he is} by himself, news {is} in his mouth.” And he came, coming and near.

UST

25 The watchman called down and reported this to King David. David said, “If he is alone, that indicates that he is coming to tell us news.” The man who was running continued to come closer.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 18:26

ULT

26 And the watcher saw another man running, and the watcher called to the gatekeeper and said, “Behold, a man running by himself.” And the king said, “This {one} is also bringing news.”

UST

26 Then the watchman saw another man running. So he called down to those below, “I see another man running alone!” And King David said, “He is also coming to tell us some news.”

What did the king think when the watcher reported another lone runner?

The king said that this one was also bringing news.

2 Samuel 18:27

ULT

27 And the watcher said, “I am seeing the running of the first like the running of Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok.” And the king said, “This {is} a good man, and he comes with good news.”

UST

27 The watchman said, “The first man seems to be Ahimaaz son of Zadok. He is running the way Ahimaaz runs.” The king said, “He must be coming to tell us good news, because Joab would not have sent someone like him to tell us bad news.”

What did the king think when the watcher identified the first runner as Ahimaaz?

The king said that he was a good man and came with good news.

2 Samuel 18:28

ULT

28 And Ahimaaz called and said to the king, “Peace!” And he prostrated himself to the king with his nose to the ground. And he said, “Blessed be Yahweh your God, who has enclosed the men who lifted their hand against my lord the king.”

UST

28 When Ahimaaz got close enough, he called out to King David, “All is well!” When he arrived, he knelt down in front of him with his face on the ground to show respect. Then he said, “Your Majesty, praise Yahweh your God, who made your soldiers defeat the men who were rebelling against you!”

What news did Ahimaaz bring to the king?

Ahimaaz told the king that Yahweh had defeated the men who had lifted their hand against the king.

2 Samuel 18:29

ULT

29 And the king said, “{Is} peace to the young man, to Absalom?” And Ahimaaz said, “I saw a great tumult when Joab sent the servant of the king and your servant, but I do not know what.”

UST

29 King David asked, “Is the young man Absalom safe?” Ahimaaz {did not want to answer that question, so he} replied, “When Joab sent the man from Ethiopia and me to bring news to you, I saw that there was a lot of confusion, but I do not know what it was about.”

How did Ahimaaz answer when the king asked about Absalom?

Ahimaaz said he saw a great tumult but did not know what it was about.

2 Samuel 18:30

ULT

[30] And the king said, “Turn aside, station yourself thus.” And he turned aside, and he stood.

UST

[30] So the king said, “Stand over there and wait.” So Ahimaaz stepped aside and stood nearby.

2 Samuel 18:32

ULT

[32] And the king said to the Cushite, “{Is} peace to the young man, to Absalom?” And the Cushite said, “May the enemies of my lord the king and all who arise against you for harm be like the young man.”

UST

[32] The king said to him, “Is the young man Absalom safe?” The man from Ethiopia replied, “Sir, I wish that what happened to him would happen to all of your enemies and to anyone who violently rebels against you!”

What was the Cushite’s answer when the king asked about Absalom?

The Cushite said that he wished that what happened to Absalom would happen to all of David's enemies and to anyone who rebels against him.

2 Samuel 18:33

ULT

33 And the king trembled, and he went up to the upper room of the gate, and he wept. And thus he said as he went: “My son Absalom! My son, my son, Absalom! Who will give my dying myself in place of you? Absalom, my son, my son!”

UST

33 {Realizing that he meant that Absalom was dead,} David became extremely distressed. He went up to the room above the gateway and cried. As he was going up, he kept crying out, “O, my son Absalom! O, my dear son Absalom, I wish that I had died instead of you, Absalom, my dear son!”

How did the king respond to the news of his son’s death?

The king trembled, went up to the upper room of the gate, and wept, wishing he had died in place of his son.

2 Samuel 19

2 Samuel 19:1

ULT

1 And it was declared to Joab, “Behold, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom.”

UST

1 Someone told Joab that the king was crying because he was so sad that Absalom had died.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 19:2

ULT

2 And the victory on that day became mourning for all of the people, for the people heard on that day, saying, “The king is grieved because of his son.”

UST

2 All of David’s soldiers heard that he was unhappy that their army had killed Absalom. So even though they had won the battle against Absalom’s soldiers, they could not celebrate that day.

Why did the victory that day turn into mourning for all the people?

The victory turned into mourning because the people heard that the king was grieved because of his son.

2 Samuel 19:3

ULT

3 And the people stole away on that day to enter the city, as ashamed people steal away when they flee in battle.

UST

3 The soldiers came back into the city quietly that day, the way soldiers do so that no one will find out that they have run away from a battle.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 19:4

ULT

4 And the king covered his face, and the king cried out {with} a loud voice, “My son Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son!”

UST

4 The king covered his face {with part of his cloak}, and he kept crying loudly, “O, my son Absalom! Absalom, my dear son!”

What was the king’s cry?

The king cried, “My son Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19:5

ULT

5 And Joab came to the king, {to} the house, and he said, “Today you have shamed the faces of all of your servants, the ones having rescued your life today and the life of your sons and your daughters and the life of your wives and the life of your concubines,

UST

5 Joab went to the house where the king was and told him, “Today your soldiers saved your life and the lives of your sons and daughters and wives and secondary wives. But you are making them feel shame for what they did!

2 Samuel 19:6

ULT

6 by loving the ones hating you and by hating the ones loving you. For you have declared today that the commanders and servants {are} nothing to you. For I know today that if Absalom {were} alive and all of us were dead today, that then {it would be} right in your eyes.

UST

6 You seem to love those who hate you and hate those who love you! It is as if you have said that you do not care about your own commanders and your soldiers. I can see that if Absalom were still alive and all of us were dead today, you would like that better.

What did Joab say would have pleased the king?

Joab said that he could see that if Absalom were still alive and all of David's men were dead today, David would like that better.

2 Samuel 19:7

ULT

7 But now, arise, go out and speak to the heart of your servants, for I swear by Yahweh, if you are not going out, if a man will lodge with you tonight, and this {will be} more trouble for you than all of the trouble that has come on you from your youth until now."

UST

7 So now you must go out and thank your soldiers for what they did. I swear by Yahweh that if you do not do that, they will all have abandoned you by tomorrow morning. Then you will be in more trouble than you have already had in your entire life!"

What did Joab tell the king would happen if he did not go out and speak to his servants?

Joab swore by Yahweh that if the king did not go out, all his soldiers wil have abandoned him by tomorrow morning.

2 Samuel 19:8

ULT

8 So the king arose and sat in the gate. And they declared to all of the people, saying, "Behold, the king is sitting in the gate." And all of the people came to the face of the king. But Israel had fled, a man to his tent.

UST

8 So the king went and sat at the city gate. People told the soldiers, "Look, the king is sitting at the gate!" So the soldiers came and gathered around him{, and he thanked them}. Meanwhile, all the remaining Israelite soldiers who had been supporting Absalom had run away back to their own homes.

When did all the people come before the king?

All the people came before the king after they were told that the king was sitting in the gate.

2 Samuel 19:9

ULT

9 And it happened, all of the people were contending in all of the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us from the palm of our enemies, and he, he rescued us from the palm of the Philistines. But now he has fled from the land, away from Absalom.

UST

9 Then people throughout the territory of Israel began to argue with each other about what they should do. Some of them said, "King David led our armies to defeat the Philistines and the other enemies who were oppressing us. But then he left Israel in order to escape from Absalom!

What were the people in the tribes of Israel arguing about? (vv9-11)

The people were arguing about what they should do now that Absalom was dead and David had left Israel to escape from Absalom.

2 Samuel 19:10

ULT

10 But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in the battle. And now, why are you being silent about bringing back the king?”

UST

10 We appointed Absalom to be our king, but he died in the battle against David’s soldiers. So we should do something to bring King David back!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 19:11

ULT

11 And King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar, the priests, saying, “Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, ‘Why are you the last to bring back the king to his house? For the word of all of Israel has come to the king, to his house.

UST

11 {King David learned what the people were saying,} so he sent the two priests, Zadok and Abiathar, to say to the leaders of Judah, “The king says that he has heard that the Israelite people want him to be king again. He says that you should not be the last ones to bring him back to his palace.

Whom did King David send to speak to the elders of Judah?

David sent Zadok and Abiathar the priests to speak to the elders of Judah.

2 Samuel 19:12

ULT

12 You {are} my brothers. You {are} my bone and my flesh. So why are you last to bring back the king?’

UST

12 He says that you are his relatives. You and he have the same ancestor. So you should not be the last ones to bring him back!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 19:13

ULT

13 And to Amasa you shall say, '{Are} you not my bone and my flesh? Thus may God do to me, and thus may he add, if you are not the commander of the army to my face all of the years in place of Joab.'"

UST

13 He also told them to say to Amasa, "You are one of my relatives. I swear that I am going to make you my army commander from now on instead of Joab. If I do not do that, then may God not make me the king again."

Whom did David say would be the commander of his army in place of Joab?

David said Amasa would be the commander of the army in place of Joab.

2 Samuel 19:14

ULT

14 And he inclined the heart of every man of Judah as one man. And they sent to the king, "Return, you and all of your servants."

UST

14 After David sent that message to them, the people of Judah agreed that he should be their king again. So they sent him a message that said, "We would like you and all your officials to come back."

ULT

23 And the king said to Shimei, “You shall not die.” And the king swore to him.

UST

23 Then King David told Shimei, “I promise that I will not execute you,” and he swore an oath that he would not execute him.

What did the king say to Shimei after Abishai said Shimei should be put to death?

The king told Shimei that he would not die, and he swore an oath to him.

2 Samuel 19:24

ULT

24 And Mephibosheth, the son of Saul, came down to meet the king. And he had not done his feet, and he had not done his mustache, and he had not washed his clothes from the day the king went up to the day that he came in peace.

UST

24 Mephibosheth, Saul’s grandson, also came to the Jordan River to welcome King David back. {To show his grief,} Mephibosheth had not cut his toenails or trimmed his mustache or washed his clothes from the time that the king left Jerusalem up to the time when he returned safely.

How did Mephibosheth look when he came to meet the king?

Mephibosheth had not cared for his feet, trimmed his mustache, or washed his clothes from the day the king went away.

2 Samuel 19:25

ULT

25 And it happened that he came {from} Jerusalem to meet the king. And the king said to him, “Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?”

UST

25 When he arrived from Jerusalem to welcome King David, he said to him, “Mephibosheth, why did you not go with me?”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 19:26

ULT

26 And he said, “My lord the king, my servant deceived me, for your servant said, ‘Let me saddle a donkey for myself, and let me ride on it, and let me go with the king.’ For your servant {is} lame.

UST

26 He replied, “Your Majesty, {when I heard that you were leaving Jerusalem,} I told my servant Ziba, ‘Saddle my donkey so that I can ride on it and go with the king.’ But he deceived me {and left without me. I could not follow him,} because I am crippled.

What reason did Mephibosheth give for not going with the king?

Mephibosheth told the king that his servant, Ziba, had deceived him and left without him, and Mephibosheth could not follow him because he was crippled.

2 Samuel 19:27

ULT

27 And he slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king {is} like an angel of God, so do the good in your eyes.

UST

27 He lied to you about me. But your Majesty, you are as wise as one of God’s angels. So do whatever seems right to you.

What else did Mephibosheth say Ziba had done to him?

Mephibosheth said Ziba had lied about him to the king.

2 Samuel 19:28

ULT

28 For all of the house of my father was nothing except men of death to my lord the king, but you set your servant among the eaters at your table. So what right is there still for me to cry out more to the king?”

UST

28 I consider that all of my grandfather’s family expected that you would execute us. But instead, you allowed me to eat my meals with your household! So I certainly do not have the right to ask you for anything further.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 19:29

ULT

29 And the king said to him, “Why do you still speak your words? I have said, ‘You and Ziba shall divide the field.’”

UST

29 King David replied, “You do not need to say anything more. I have decided that you and Ziba will equally divide the land {that belonged to your grandfather Saul}.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 19:30

ULT

30 And Mephibosheth said to the king, “Let him even take the whole, after that my lord the king has come in peace to his house.”

UST

30 Mephibosheth replied to the king, “Your Majesty, Ziba may have all of the land. All that matters to me is that you have returned safely.”

How did Mephibosheth reply when the king said he and Ziba should divide the field?

Mephibosheth told the king to let Ziba take the whole field, because all that mattered to him was that the king had returned safely.

2 Samuel 19:31

ULT

31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim. And he crossed the Jordan with the king to send him {across} the Jordan.

UST

31 Barzillai the Gileadite had come down to the Jordan River from his home in Rogelim to escort the king across the river.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 19:32

ULT

32 Now Barzillai had aged greatly, a son of 80 years. And he, he had sustained the king in his stay in Mahanaim, for he {was} a very great man.

UST

32 By this time Barzillai was elderly. He was 80 years old. But he was such a wealthy man that he had been able to provide all of the food that the king and his soldiers needed while they were at Mahanaim.

What had Barzillai done for the king?

Barzillai had provided all of the food that the king and his soldiers needed while they were at Mahanaim.

2 Samuel 19:33

ULT

33 And the king said to Barzillai, “You, cross over with me, and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem.”

UST

33 The king said to Barzillai, “Come across the Jordan River with me to Jerusalem, and I will take care of you there.”

2 Samuel 19:34

ULT

34 But Barzillai said to the king, “How many {will be} the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king {to} Jerusalem?

UST

34 But Barzillai replied, “I do not have many more years to live. So there is no reason for me to go with you to Jerusalem.

Why did Barzillai say he should not go to Jerusalem with the king? (vv34-35)

Barzillai said he was too old, could no longer taste what he ate or drank, could not hear singers, and would be a burden to the king.

2 Samuel 19:35

ULT

35 I {am} a son of 80 years today. Do I know between good to bad? Or does your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Or do I still hear the voice of the {male} singers or the {female} singers? So why should your servant become a further burden to my lord the king?”

UST

35 I am now 80 years old. I do not know what is enjoyable and what is not enjoyable. I cannot enjoy what I eat and what I drink. I cannot hear anymore the voices of men and women as they sing. You would have to make difficult arrangements for me. I do not want you to have to do that.

2 Samuel 19:36

ULT

36 According to a little your servant will go across the Jordan with the king. But why will the king reward me this reward?

UST

36 I will cross the Jordan River with you and walk a short distance with you toward Jerusalem. But you do not need to entertain me there in your royal court.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 19:37

ULT

37 Please let your servant return, and let me die in my city by the grave of my father and my mother. But behold your servant Chimham. Let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what {is} good in your eyes."

UST

37 Instead, please allow me to return to my home. That is where I want to die, near my parents' grave {so people can bury me there}. But here is my son Chimham. Your Majesty, please allow him to go with you and serve you, and do for him whatever seems right to you."

What did Barzillai request of the king?

Barzillai asked to return to his own city to die, but he asked the king to take his servant Chimham and do for him what was good in the king's eyes.

2 Samuel 19:38

ULT

38 And the king said, "Chimham shall cross over with me, and I, I shall do for him the good in your eyes. And all that you choose upon me, I shall do for you."

UST

38 The king replied, "Very well, Chimham may cross the river with me, and I will do for him whatever seems good to you. And I will also do for you whatever you want me to do."

2 Samuel 19:39

ULT

39 And all of the people crossed the Jordan, and the king crossed. And the king kissed Barzillai, and he blessed him, and he returned to his place.

UST

39 Then the leaders of Judah and the people who had been with David honored him by leading the way across the Jordan River. David followed them across. He kissed Barzillai {on the cheek to show his affection and gratitude} and asked God to do good things for him. Then Barzillai returned to his home.

2 Samuel 19:40

ULT

40 And the king passed on to Gilgal, and Chimham passed on with him. And all of the people of Judah brought the king over, and also half of the people of Israel.

UST

40 But Chimham stayed with King David as he continued on to Gilgal. Now the leaders of the tribe of Judah had escorted David across the Jordan River. But only some of the leaders of the other tribes arrived in time to do that with them{, since the leaders of Judah did not wait for them}.

Who crossed over to Gilgal with the king?

Chimham, all the people of Judah, and also half the people of Israel crossed over to Gilgal with the king.

2 Samuel 19:41

ULT

41 And behold, all of the men of Israel were coming to the king, and they said to the king, “Why did our brothers, the men of Judah, steal you away and bring the king and his house across the Jordan and all of the men of David with him?”

UST

41 Then, when the rest of the Israelite leaders arrived, they complained to David, “It was not fair for our fellow Israelites, those leaders from the tribe of Judah, to take you away from us! We all wanted to escort you and your family and your soldiers across the Jordan River. But they did that without waiting for us!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 19:42

ULT

42 And each man of Judah answered to a man of Israel, “Because the king {is} near to me. And why this, it burns to you about this matter? Eating, have we eaten from the king? Or being taken, has it been taken for us?”

UST

42 The leaders from Judah told the leaders of the other tribes, “We escorted the king because he is from our tribe of Judah. You should not be angry about this. The king never paid for our food, and he never gave us any gifts.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 19:43

ULT

43 And a man of Israel answered a man of Judah, and he said, “Ten hands {are} to me in the king, and also in David, I more than you. So why have you despised me? Was not my word first, to bring back my king to me?” But the word of a man of Judah was harsher than the word of a man of Israel.

UST

43 The men of the other Israelite tribes replied, “We represent ten of the tribes that the Israelite king rules, and you represent only one. So you should not have treated us with disrespect {by bringing the king back across the Jordan River without us}. We were the first ones to talk about bringing David back to Jerusalem to be our king again.” But the leaders of Judah angrily disagreed with the leaders of the other tribes of Israel.

Why did the men of Israel say they had more right to David than the men of Judah?

The men of Israel said they had more right to David because they represented ten tribes that were related to the king. The men of Judah represented only one tribe. Also, the people of Judah had started the rebellion against David.

Whose words were harsher, the men of Judah or the men of Israel?

The word of the men of Judah was harsher than the word of the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 20

2 Samuel 20:1

ULT

1 And a man of wickedness was met there, and his name {was} Sheba, the son of Bichri, a man of Benjamin. And he blew on a shofar, and he said, “{There} is no portion to us in David, and no inheritance {is} to us in the son of Jesse. A man to his tents, Israel!”

UST

1 There was a man there at Gilgal whose name was Sheba. He was the son of Bichri. He was a man who often caused trouble. He came from the tribe of Benjamin. He blew a ram’s horn and called out, “David, that son of Jesse, does not belong to us at all! So, my fellow Israelites, let us return to our homes!”

Why was Sheba called a man of wickedness?

He was called a man of wickedness because he blew a shofar and told the men of Israel to return home; he said David did not belong to them at all.

2 Samuel 20:2

ULT

2 And all of the men of Israel went up from after David {to} after Sheba, the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah clung to their king from the Jordan and to Jerusalem.

UST

2 Then the leaders of the Israelite tribes decided not to escort David back to Jerusalem. Instead, they did what Sheba had said {and returned to their homes}. But the leaders of the tribe of Judah remained with David. They still wanted him to be their king. So they escorted him from near the Jordan River back to the city of Jerusalem.

How was the response of the men of Judah to Sheba different from the men of Israel?

The men of Judah clung to their king, but the men of Israel did what Sheba had said and returned to their homes.

2 Samuel 20:3

ULT

3 And David came to his house {in} Jerusalem, and the king took the ten concubine wives whom he had left to keep the house, and he put them {in} a house of keeping, and he sustained them, but he did not go in to them. And they were confined until the day of their death, a widowhood of life.

UST

3 When David arrived at the palace in Jerusalem, he took the ten secondary wives whom he had left there to take care of the palace and put them in another residence where someone guarded them. David provided what they needed, but he never had sexual relations with them again. It was as if they were widows, even though their husband was still alive. They had to stay in that residence until they died.

How did David's relationship with his ten concubines change?

He put them in another residence where someone guarded them. They had to stay in that house until they died. David provided what they needed, but he never had sexual relations with them again.

2 Samuel 20:4

ULT

4 And the king said to Amasa, "Call up the men of Judah to me, three days. And you, stand here."

UST

4 Then King David told Amasa, "Summon the soldiers of the tribe of Judah to come here by the day after tomorrow. You must be here also{, ready to lead them into battle}."

What did the king tell Amasa to do? (vv4-5)

The king told Amasa to call up the men of Judah within three days and to be there himself.

2 Samuel 20:5

ULT

5 And Amasa went to call up Judah, but he delayed beyond the appointment that he had appointed him.

UST

5 So Amasa went to summon the Judean soldiers. But he did not return within the time that David had specified.

2 Samuel 20:6

ULT

6 And David said to Abishai, “Now Sheba, the son of Bichri, will harm us more than Absalom. You, take the servants of your lord and pursue after him, lest he find fortified cities for himself and remove our eyes.”

UST

6 Then David told Abishai, “{If we do not capture him quickly,} Sheba son of Bichri will hurt us even more than Absalom did. So I want you to take the soldiers who are already here with me and go to capture him. If you do not do that, we will no longer know where he is going. That would allow him and his soldiers to go into cities that have walls {and then it would be difficult to defeat them}.”

How did David respond when Amasa was delayed? (vv6-7)

David told Abishai to take the soldiers already here and go to capture him. If not, we will no longer know where his is going, and the delay would allow him and his soldiers to go into fortified cities.

2 Samuel 20:7

ULT

7 And the men of Joab and the Cherethites and the Pelethites and all of the warriors went out after him. And they went out from Jerusalem to pursue after Sheba, the son of Bichri.

UST

7 So Abishai led those soldiers out of Jerusalem to pursue Sheba. They included Joab’s personal guard, the king’s elite bodyguards, and the men who had been David’s army when he was in Gath.

2 Samuel 20:9

ULT

9 And Joab said to Amasa, “Peace {to} you, my brother?” And the right hand of Joab held onto the beard of Amasa to kiss him.

UST

9 Joab said to Amasa, “Hello, cousin! Are you doing well?” Then Joab grabbed Amasa’s beard with his right hand so that he could kiss him {on the cheek as a friendly greeting}.

What did Joab do when he greeted Amasa? (vv9-10)

As Joab held Amasa’s beard with his right hand to kiss him, he struck him in the stomach with the sword in his left hand.

2 Samuel 20:10

ULT

10 But Amasa did not guard himself against the sword that {was} in the hand of Joab. And he struck him with it in the stomach, and his intestines poured out to the ground, and he did not do again to him, and he died. And Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba, the son of Bichri.

UST

10 Amasa did not think that Joab would hurt him with the sword he was holding in his hand. But Joab thrust it into Amasa’s belly, and his insides spilled out onto the ground. Amasa eventually died from this wound. Joab did not stab him again. Then Joab and his brother Abishai {and the soldiers they were leading} left and continued to pursue Sheba.

2 Samuel 20:11

ULT

11 And a man from the young men of Joab stood beside him, and he said, “Whoever delights in Joab and whoever {is} to David, after Joab!”

UST

11 One of the young men who carried Joab’s weapons stayed next to Amasa’s body. He called out {to the Judean soldiers}, “Everyone who wants Joab to be our commander and who wants David to be our king, go with Joab {to capture Sheba}!”

What did one of Joab’s men do after Joab stabbed Amasa? (vv11-13)

He stood by Amasa and called for those who delighted in Joab and David to follow Joab, and then he removed Amasa’s body from the road into a field so the soldiers would not stop to look.

2 Samuel 20:12

ULT

12 Now Amasa was rolling himself in blood in the midst of the road. And the man saw that all of the people stood. So he removed Amasa from the road {to} a field, and he threw a garment over him, because he saw everyone coming to him, that he stood.

UST

12 Amasa {had fallen onto the road, and} he was rocking back and forth and bleeding severely {as he lay slowly dying}. Joab's soldier saw that the Judean soldiers were all stopping when they came to where Amasa was. So he dragged him off the road into a field and threw a cloth over him.

2 Samuel 20:14

ULT

14 And he passed through all of the tribes of Israel to Abel and Beth Maacah. And all of the Berites, now they gathered themselves, and they also came after him.

UST

14 Sheba fled north through the whole length of the territory of Israel and finally came to the city of Abel Beth Maacah. The soldiers of the Berites had formed their army and had also come north with Sheba as their commander.

What did Joab and his men do when they found Sheba in Abel Beth Maacah? (vv14-15)

They besieged him in the city built a dirt ramp up against the outer wall of the city to batter and collapse the city wall.

2 Samuel 20:15

ULT

15 And they came, and they besieged against him in Abel Beth Maacah. And they poured out a mound against the city, and it stood against the rampart. And all of the people who {were} with Joab were destroying to make the wall fall.

UST

15 Joab and the soldiers he was commanding {found out that Sheba had gone there, so they} went there and surrounded the city. They built a dirt ramp up against the outer wall of the city. Then they started battering the wall to try to make it collapse.

2 Samuel 20:18

ULT

18 So she spoke, saying, “Speaking, they spoke in former {times}, saying, ‘Inquiring, they shall inquire at Abel,’ and thus they ended.

UST

18 She said, “For a long time people have said, ‘When people have problems, they ought to ask the people who live in the city of Abel what they should do.’ By getting good advice here, they have solved their problems.

How did the wise woman describe the residents of her city of Abel to Joab? (vv18-19)

She described the residents as peaceful and loyal Israelites.

2 Samuel 20:19

ULT

19 I {am} pacified and faithful {ones} of Israel. You are seeking to kill a city and a mother in Israel. Why will you devour the inheritance of Yahweh?”

UST

19 We who live in this city are peaceful and loyal Israelites. But you are trying to destroy our city. Many towns and villages in this area depend on us. You should not be trying to destroy a community that belongs to Yahweh!”

What did the woman ask Joab?

The woman asked Joab why he would try to destroy an Israelite community.

2 Samuel 20:20

ULT

20 And Joab answered and said, “Profane, profane to me if I should devour or if I should destroy!

UST

20 Joab replied, “I certainly do not want to destroy your city at all!

What condition did Joab give the woman for withdrawing from the city? (vv20-21)

Joab said that if they would give him Sheba, who is rebelling against King David, he would go away from the city.

2 Samuel 20:21

ULT

21 The matter {is} not thus, but a man from the hill country of Ephraim—Sheba, the son of Bichri, is his name —has lifted his hand against the king, against David. Give him alone, and let me go from the city." And the woman said to Joab, "Behold, his head will be thrown to you over the wall."

UST

21 That is not what we want to do. But Sheba son of Bichri, a man from the hilly area where the people of the tribe of Ephraim live, is rebelling against King David. If you surrender only him to us, then we will go away from this city." The woman replied to Joab, "We agree. We will cut off his head and throw it over the wall to you."

How did the people of the city respond to Joab's condition? (vv21-22)

The woman came to the people in her wisdom, and they cut off the head of Sheba and threw it to Joab.

2 Samuel 20:22

ULT

22 And the woman came to all of the people in her wisdom, and they cut off the head of Sheba, the son of Bichri, and they threw {it} to Joab. And he blew on the shofar, and they dispersed from the city, a man to his tent. And Joab returned {to} Jerusalem, to the king.

UST

22 Then this woman went to the leaders of the city and told them what she had said to Joab. {They agreed, and} they cut off Sheba's head and threw it over the wall to Joab. Then Joab blew his ram's horn {to signal that his soldiers should stop fighting}. They left that city and returned to their homes. Joab returned to Jerusalem and told King David what had happened.

2 Samuel 21

2 Samuel 21:1

ULT

1 Now {there} was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year. And David sought the face of Yahweh, and Yahweh said, “To Saul and to the house {is} blood, because he killed the Gibeonites.”

UST

1 During the time when David ruled, there was a famine in Israel continously for three years. David asked Yahweh why this was happening. Yahweh told him, “{There is a famine to show that} you need to punish Saul’s family because Saul killed so many people from the Gibeonite group.”

Why was there a famine in the land for three years? (vv1-2)

There was a famine because of the bloodguilt on Saul and his house. The Israelites had solemnly promised that they would not kill them, but Saul had tried to kill all of them because he wanted the people of Judah and Israel to be the only ones living in that land.

2 Samuel 21:2

ULT

2 And the king called to the Gibeonites, and he spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites {were} not from the sons of Israel. Rather, they {were} from the remnant of the Amorite. And the sons of Israel had sworn to them, but Saul sought to strike them when he was jealous for the sons of Israel and Judah.)

UST

2 So the king asked the leaders of Gibeon to come and speak with him. (The people of Gibeon were not Israelites. They were instead an Amorite people group that had survived {when the Israelites invaded the land of Canaan and killed the rest of the Amorites}. The Israelites had solemnly promised that they would not kill them. But Saul had tried to kill all of them because he eagerly wanted the people of Israel and Judah to be the only ones living in that land.

Why did King David want to make atonement to the Gibeonites? (vv2-3)

David wanted to make atonement so that they ask Yahweh to do good things for us Israelites again.

2 Samuel 21:3

ULT

3 And David said to the Gibeonites, “What shall I do for you, and with what shall I atone, then bless the inheritance of Yahweh?”

UST

3 David said to the Gibeonite leaders, “What can I do to make up for what Saul did to your people so that you would then ask Yahweh to do good things for us Israelites again?”

2 Samuel 21:4

ULT

4 And the Gibeonites said to him, “{There is} no silver or gold for us with Saul or with his house. And {there is} not for us a man to kill in Israel.” And he said, “What are you saying I shall do for you?”

UST

4 They replied, “You cannot make up for what Saul did to us by having his family pay us any amount of money. And we do not have the right to kill any Israelites.” So David asked, “So what are you asking me to do for you?”

What did David agree to do to atone for the injustice done to the Gibeonites?

David agreed to do whatever the Gibeonites asked him to do.

2 Samuel 21:5

ULT

5 And they said to the king, “The man who ended us and who intended against us {that} we should be destroyed from stationing ourselves in all of the border of Israel,

UST

5 They replied, “That man Saul wanted to destroy us so that none of us would live anywhere in Israel. And he killed many of us.

What did the Gibeonites request from David to atone for Saul’s actions? (vv5-6)

They requested that seven men from Saul’s sons be given to them so they could hang them before Yahweh at Gibeah.

2 Samuel 21:6

ULT

6 let seven men from his sons be given to us, and we will hang them before Yahweh at Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of Yahweh." And the king said, "I, I will give."

UST

6 Give us seven of Saul's descendants {and allow us to execute them}. We will {kill them and} hang up their bodies in public so that Yahweh can see that we have punished Saul's family for what he did. We will do this in the city of Gibeah where Saul lived. Yahweh chose him to be the king of Israel {and he should have protected us}." The king replied, "Very well, I will give them to you {so that you can execute them}."

7 Now the king had compassion on Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the oath of Yahweh that {was} between them, between David and between Jonathan, the son of Saul.

UST

7 The king did not give Saul's grandson Mephibosheth to them. He was Jonathan's son, and David and Jonathan had made a solemn promise that they would never harm each other's descendants. They had sworn by Yahweh that they would keep that promise.

How did David respond to the Gibeonites' request? (vv7-9)

David spared Mephibosheth but gave them the two sons of Rizpah and the five sons of Michal, and the Gibeonites hanged them on the hill.

2 Samuel 21:8

ULT

8 But the king took two of the sons of Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth, and five of the sons of Michal, the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel, the son of Barzillai the Meholathite.

UST

8 Instead, he took two sons whom Rizpah daughter of Aiah, had borne to Saul {as his secondary wife}. Their names were Armoni and Mephibosheth. David also took five of the sons of Merab, Saul's daughter. Merab's husband was Adriel son of Barzillai. He was from the city of Meholah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 21:9

ULT

9 And he gave them into the hand of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill to the face of Yahweh, and the seven of them fell together. And they, they were killed in the days of the harvest, in the first {days}, at the beginning of the harvest of barley.

UST

9 David gave these men to the people of Gibeon {to execute}. They took those seven men to Gibeon and killed them and hanged their bodies up on the hill in that city. That was where people worshiped Yahweh and considered him to be present. The Gibeonites killed those seven men at the same time. Those men died at the beginning of the time of year when people harvest their grain, beginning with barley.

2 Samuel 21:10

ULT

10 And Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, took sackcloth, and she spread it for herself against a rock, from the beginning of the harvest until water was poured on them from the heavens. And she did not allow a bird of the heavens to rest on them by day or a beast of the field by night.

UST

10 Then Rizpah took some rough cloth and hung it from a rock {near the bodies} so she could sit under it and have shade from the sun. She stayed there from the time that people started to harvest barley until the autumn rains began. She did not allow any birds to come near the corpses during the day, and she did not allow any wild animals to come near them during the night.

What did Rizpah do to express her grief for her sons? (vv10-11)

She did not allow any birds to come near the corpses during the day, and she did not allow any animals to come near them during the night from the time that people started to harvest barley until the autumn rains began.

2 Samuel 21:11

ULT

11 And it was declared to David what Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

UST

11 Someone told David what Rizpah daughter of Aiah, Saul's secondary wife, had done.

2 Samuel 21:12

ULT

12 And David went, and he took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the lords of Jabesh Gilead, who had stolen them from the open area of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them there on the day the Philistines struck Saul at Gilboa.

UST

12 So he went {with some of his servants} to Jabesh Gilead, where the leaders of that city allowed him to take the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan. The soldiers from that city had gone stealthily at night and taken their bones from the plaza in the city of Beth Shan. That was where Philistine soldiers had hung them on the day when they had killed Saul {and Jonathan} on Mount Gilboa.

From whom did David take the bones of Saul and Jonathan?

David took the bones of Saul and Jonathan from the leaders of the city of Jabesh Gilead.

2 Samuel 21:13

ULT

13 And he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son, and they gathered the bones of the hanged ones.

UST

13 David {and his servants} took the bones of Saul and Jonathan. Some other servants also took the bones of the seven men whom the Gibeonites had hanged.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 21:14

ULT

14 And they buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the land of Benjamin, in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father. And they did all that the king commanded. And God was entreated for the land after this.

UST

14 David's servants went to the tomb of Saul's father Kish, in the city of Zela in the land of the tribe of Benjamin. There they buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan {and the bones of the men whom the Gibeonites had hanged}. In this way, they did all that the king had commanded them to do. After the Gibeonites punished Saul's family for what he had done, God answered the Israelites' prayers for their land {and caused the famine to end}.

2 Samuel 21:15

ULT

15 Now war was to the Philistines again with Israel. And David went down, and his servants with him, and they fought the Philistines. And David wearied.

UST

15 Later the Philistine army began to fight again against the army of Israel. David went with his soldiers to fight them. During the battle, David became tired.

How did Abishai rescue David when he was weary? (vv15-17)

When David was weary, Abishai helped him by striking and killing the Philistine giant Ishbi Benob, who had intended to kill David.

2 Samuel 21:16

ULT

16 And Ishbi Benob, who {was} among the children of Rapha, and the weight of his spear {was} 300 {shekels} of bronze in weight, and he was girded {with} a new {weapon}, and he said to strike David.

UST

16 One of the Philistine soldiers in the battle was a man whose name was Ishbi Benob. He was a giant as his ancestors had been. He carried a bronze spear that weighed almost three and a half kilograms. He also had a dangerous weapon. It seemed to him that he was going to be able to kill David.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 21:17

ULT

17 But Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, helped him, and he struck the Philistine, and he killed him. Then the men of David adjured him, saying, “You shall not go out with us to battle anymore, so you do not extinguish the lamp of Israel.”

UST

17 But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to help David. He attacked the giant and killed him. Then David’s soldiers made David promise that he would not go with them into a battle again. They said that if enemy soldiers killed him in battle, Israel would no longer have him as king to guide them.

Why did David’s men insist that he no longer go into battle with them?

They said that if enemy soldiers killed him in battle, Israel would no longer have him as king to guide them.

2 Samuel 21:18

ULT

18 And it happened after this that {there} was a battle again with the Philistines, at Gob. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite struck Saph, who {was} among the children of Rapha.

UST

18 Later, the Israelite soldiers fought another battle with the Philistines. This happened near Gob. During the battle, Sibbecai, from the clan of Hushah, killed Saph, who was a giant as his ancestors had been.

2 Samuel 21:20

ULT

20 And {there} was battle again at Gath, and {there} was a man of stature, and the digits of his hands and the digits of his feet {were} six and six, 24 {in} number. And he also was born to Rapha.

UST

20 Later, there was another battle near Gath. One of the Philistine soldiers was very tall. He had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. He was a giant as his ancestors had been.

Whom did David and his servants kill in Gath? (vv20-22)

They killed four giants who were born to Rapha in Gath.

2 Samuel 21:21

ULT

21 And he taunted Israel, and Jonathan, the son of Shimeah, the brother of David, struck him.

UST

21 He challenged any Israelite soldier to fight him in single combat. David's older brother Shimeah had a son whose name was Jonathan. Jonathan accepted the challenge, fought this Philistine soldier, and killed him.

2 Samuel 22

2 Samuel 22:1

ULT

1 And David spoke to Yahweh the words of this song on the day Yahweh delivered him from the palm of all of his enemies and from the palm of Saul.

UST

1 After Yahweh had rescued David from Saul and his other enemies, David sang a song to Yahweh.

When did David sing the song that Yahweh was his rock? (vv1-2)

David sang the song on the day Yahweh delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.

2 Samuel 22:2

ULT

2 And he said, “Yahweh {is} my rock and my stronghold and my deliverer, mine.

UST

2 This is what he sang: “Yahweh, you are like a huge rock or fortress {where I can go to be safe}. I can be confident that you will rescue me when I am in trouble.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 22:3

ULT

3 God of my rock, I take refuge in him, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge, my savior, you save me from violence.

UST

3 Yahweh, you protect me. I am as safe as I would be if I were hiding on top of a cliff. It is as if you are a shield that defends me. You are the powerful God who saves me. You are like a high place where I find refuge. You save me from those who act violently toward me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 22:4

ULT

4 {To} the one being praised I call, {to} Yahweh, and I am saved from my enemies.

UST

4 You deserve for people to praise you, Yahweh. When I cry to you {for help}, you rescue me from my enemies.

When David calls on Yahweh, what does he say that Yahweh does?

David says when he calls on Yahweh, he is saved from his enemies.

2 Samuel 22:5

ULT

5 For the waves of death surrounded me, the torrents of wickedness terrified me.

UST

5 {Someone was trying to kill me, and} I was in such danger of dying that it was as if a huge wave was crashing over me. His wicked plans against me were like floodwaters that were carrying me away, and this made me very afraid.

What did David feel like when he was surrounded by his enemies? (vv5-6)

David felt like the waves of death and the cords of Sheol surrounded him.

2 Samuel 22:6

ULT

6 The cords of Sheol surrounded me, the snares of death confronted me.

UST

6 I did not think I could escape going to the place where dead people go. It was as if that place had wrapped ropes around me and was pulling me down into it. It was as if the only direction I could walk was right into a trap where I would surely die.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 22:7

ULT

7 In my distress I called {to} Yahweh, and to my God I called. And he heard my voice from his temple, and my cry {was} in his ears.

UST

7 But when I was very distressed, I cried out to you, Yahweh my God. From your temple in heaven you could hear me calling, and you listened to my prayer.

How did David respond to his distressing circumstances?

In his distress, David called to Yahweh, and Yahweh heard his voice from his temple.

2 Samuel 22:8

ULT

8 Then the earth shook and trembled. The foundations of the heavens quaked and shook themselves, because it burned to him.

UST

8 It made you so angry {that someone was trying to kill me, and you responded so powerfully,} that it was as if there was a great earthquake. It seemed as if the sky itself was shaking.

What happened because God was angry? (vv8-9)

The earth shook and trembled, smoke went up from his nose, and a stream of fire was flowing out from his mouth to burn up everything in its path,

2 Samuel 22:9

ULT

9 Smoke went up from his nose, and fire from his mouth devoured. Coals from him burned.

UST

9 {Your power was so great that} it was as if there was a volcano from which smoke was rising, a stream of fire was flowing out that burned up everything in its path, and hot coals were flying into the air that started fires where they landed.

2 Samuel 23:3

ULT

3 The God of Israel spoke to me, the Rock of Israel said, 'A righteous one ruling over man {is} ruling {in} the fear of God,

UST

3 The God whom we Israelite people worship has spoken. The one who protects us Israelites said to me, 'Kings who rule fairly over people have great respect for me.

What did the God of Israel say to David? (vv3-4)

The God of Israel said that a righteous one ruling over man in the fear of God is like the light of morning when the sun rises.

2 Samuel 23:4

ULT

4 and {is} like the light of morning, {when} the sun rises, a morning {with} no clouds, {like} grass from the earth from brightness after rain.'

UST

4 They are like the light that appears at dawn when the sun rises on a cloudless morning. The sunshine causes grass to sprout after the rain ends.

2 Samuel 23:5

ULT

5 For {is} not my house thus with God? For he has made a covenant with me forever, ordered in everything and secured. For all my salvation and every desire, surely will he not make {it} sprout?

UST

5 And that is how God will surely bless my family, since he made a covenant with me that will last forever. He prepared that covenant carefully and guaranteed it. He will certainly act to help me and make the things happen that I truly want.

2 Samuel 23:6

ULT

6 But the wicked, all of them, {will be} like a thorn thrown away because they do not take in the hand.

UST

6 But God will remove all the people who disrespect him, just as people throw away thorns that hurt their hands when they try to pick them up.

Why will the wicked be like a thorn thrown away? (vv6-7)

God will remove people who disrespect him, just as people throw away thorns that hurt their hands when they try to pick them up.

2 Samuel 23:7

ULT

7 But the man {who} touches them will be filled {with} iron or the wood of a spear. And burning, they will be burned in the fire in place.”

UST

7 Someone who wants to get rid of thornbushes does not grab them. Instead, he uses an iron shovel or a wooden stick to dig them out. Then he burns them right there.”

2 Samuel 23:9

ULT

9 And after him {was} Eleazar the son of Dodo, the son of Ahohi, among the three warriors with David. When they taunted the Philistines, they had gathered themselves there for battle, and the men of Israel went up,

UST

9 The next of David’s very greatest warriors was Eleazar son of Dodo, son of Ahohi. The Philistine army invaded Israel, and the Israelite army came to fight them. The {Philistines were winning the battle, so the} other Israelite soldiers retreated.

How did Eleazar defeat the Philistines? (vv9-10)

When other Israelites retreated in fear, Eleazar arose and struck the Philistines until his hand cramped and he could not let go of his sword, Yahweh won a great victory for the Israelites on that day..

2 Samuel 23:10

ULT

10 he, he arose and struck the Philistines until his hand tired and his hand clung to the sword. And Yahweh did great salvation on that day, and the people returned after him only to plunder.

UST

10 but Eleazar fought even harder against the Philistine soldiers until he had almost no strength left. He had held his sword so hard for so long that his hand cramped and he could not let go of his sword. Yahweh won a great victory for the Israelites on that day. The other Israelite soldiers only came back to the battlefield to take the armor from the Philistines whom Eleazar had killed.

2 Samuel 23:11

ULT

11 And after him {was} Shammah, the son of Agee the Hararite. Now the Philistines gathered themselves to Lehi, and a portion of the field there was full {of} lentils, and the people fled from the face of the Philistines.

UST

11 The next of David's very greatest warriors was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. Once the Philistine army invaded Israel and came to the city of Lehi, where there was a field of ripe lentils {that they wanted to steal}. The other Israelite soldiers ran away from the Philistine troops.

What did Shammah defend against the Philistines? (vv11-12)

When other Israelite soldiers ran away from the battle, Shammah stationed himself in the middle of the field full of ripe lentils and fought and killed the Philistines, who wanted to steal the lentils. And so Yahweh won a great victory for the Israelites.

2 Samuel 23:12

ULT

12 But he stationed himself in the midst of the portion, and he delivered it, and he struck the Philistines. And Yahweh did great salvation.

UST

12 But Shammah stood in the middle of the field. He fought and killed Philistine soldiers {so that they could not steal the lentils}. And so Yahweh won a great victory for the Israelites.

2 Samuel 23:13

ULT

13 And three from the head Thirty went down, and they came to the harvest, to David, to the cave of Adullam. And a troop of Philistines was camping in the Valley of the Raphaites.

UST

13 At the time when David was staying in the cave of Adullam, three other men who were among his 30 greatest warriors came to help him. It was summer. A group of Philistine soldiers had set up their tents in the Valley of the Raphaites.

2 Samuel 23:15

ULT

15 And David desired, and he said, “Who will give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem that {is} at the gate?”

UST

15 One day David felt very thirsty. He said, “If only someone would bring me some water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!”

What did the three mighty warriors do when they heard David express his desire for water from the well of Bethlehem? (vv15-16)

The three warriors broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well, and brought it to David.

2 Samuel 23:16

ULT

16 And the three warriors broke through the camp of the Philistines, and they drew water from the well of Bethlehem that {is} at the gate. And they carried {it} away and brought {it} to David. But he was not willing to drink it, and he poured it out to Yahweh.

UST

16 So these three of his greatest warriors fought their way through the camp of Philistine soldiers at Bethlehem. They drew some water from the well there and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out on the ground {as an offering} to Yahweh.

Why did David refuse to drink the water from the well of Bethlehem? (vv16-17)

David said it would not be right to drink it because he said that would be like drinking the blood of these men who were willing to die to get it for him.

2 Samuel 23:17

ULT

17 And he said, “Profane to me, Yahweh, from my doing this, the blood of the men having gone with their lives!” And he was not willing to drink it. These {things} the three warriors did.

UST

17 He said, “Yahweh, it would certainly not be right for me to drink this water! That would be like drinking the blood of these men who were willing to die to get it for me!” So he refused to drink it. That was one of the things that those three of his greatest warriors did.

2 Samuel 23:18

ULT

18 And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, he {was} the head of the three, and he was lifting his spear against 300, slain. And to him {was} a name among the Three.

UST

18 Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab’s younger brother, was the leader of those three of David’s greatest soldiers. He once fought against 300 enemy soldiers and killed them all. As a result, he became famous like the three very greatest soldiers.

For what was Abishai known? (vv18-19)

He once fought against 300 enemy soldiers and killed them all. As a result, he became famous like the three very greatest soldiers.

2 Samuel 23:19

ULT

19 {Is it not} that he was the most honored of the three? And he became to them a commander. But he did not come to the Three.

UST

19 He was the most famous of those three of David's greatest soldiers, and he became their leader, although the three very greatest warriors were even more famous.

2 Samuel 23:20

ULT

20 And Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, {was} a son of a man of valor, many deeds, from Kabzeel. He, he struck the two Ariel of Moab. And he, he went down and struck a lion in the midst of the pit on a day of snow.

UST

20 Benaiah son of Jehoiada from the city of Kabzeel was another of David's greatest soldiers. He won many great victories. He killed two of the best warriors in the Moabite army in single combat. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion there.

How did Benaiah kill a huge Egyptian soldier? (vv20-21)

Benaiah went down against the Egyptian with a staff, seized the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

2 Samuel 23:21

ULT

21 And he himself struck a man of Egypt, a man of appearance. Now in the hand of the Egyptian {was} a spear, and he went down against him with a staff. But he seized the spear from the hand of the Egyptian, and he killed him with his spear.

UST

21 He also killed a huge Egyptian soldier. That soldier had a spear as a weapon. Benaiah had only a thick wooden rod. But he attacked the soldier and pulled the spear out of his hand. Then he killed him with his own spear.

2 Samuel 24:1

ULT

1 And the nose of Yahweh added to burn against Israel, and he incited David against them, saying, “Go, count Israel and Judah.”

UST

1 Yahweh was angry with the Israelite people again, and he led David to do something that caused trouble for them. David caused that trouble by saying, “Find out how many soldiers Israel and Judah have.”

What did David ask Joab to do? (vv1-2)

David asked Joab to go through all the tribes of Israel and count the men who could fight as soldiers.

2 Samuel 24:2

ULT

2 And the king said to Joab, the commander of the army that {was} with him, “Go about, please, among all of the tribes of Israel, from Dan and to Beersheba, and muster the people, that I may know the number of the people.”

UST

2 King David said to Joab, the commander of his regular army, “I want you to go with your officers through the territories of all the tribes of Israel, from Dan {in the far north} to Beersheba {in the far south}, and count the men who can fight as soldiers. That way I will know how many Israelite men we have who can fight as soldiers in the army.”

Why was Joab reluctant to count the people? (vv2-4)

Joab did not understand why David wanted to count the people, and he did not think it was a good idea to count how many soldiers they had.

2 Samuel 24:3

ULT

3 And Joab said to the king, “Now may Yahweh your God add to the people like them and like them a hundred times, and may the eyes of my lord the king be seeing. But my lord the king, why does he delight in this matter?”

UST

3 But Joab replied to the king, “Your Majesty, I hope that Yahweh our God will give us Israelites a hundred times more soldiers than we have now. I hope that you will see this happen {in your own lifetime}. But I do not think it is a good idea to count how many soldiers we have.”

2 Samuel 24:8

ULT

8 So they went about in all of the land. And they came, at the end of nine months and twenty days, {to} Jerusalem.

UST

8 It took them nine months and 20 days to finish going throughout the land {and counting the people}. After that, they returned to Jerusalem.

How long did it take for Joab to go throughout all the land and return to Jerusalem?

It took nine months and twenty days for Joab to go throughout all the land and return to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 24:9

ULT

9 And Joab gave the number of the mustering of the people to the king. And Israel was 800,000 men of valor drawing the sword, and the men of Judah {were} 500,000 men.

UST

9 They reported to King David the number of men that they had counted. There were 800,000 men in Israel and 500,000 men in Judah who were fit to serve as soldiers in the army.

How many fighting men did Joab count?

They reported to David that there were 800,000 men in Israel and 500,000 men in Judah who were fit to serve as soldiers in the army.

2 Samuel 24:10

ULT

10 But the heart of David struck him after this, he had counted the people. And David said to Yahweh, “I have sinned greatly {by} what I have done. But now, Yahweh, please take away the iniquity of your servant, for I have acted very foolishly.”

UST

10 But after David’s officers had counted the fighting men of Israel, David felt very badly that he had told them to do that. He confessed to Yahweh, “When I ordered them to do that, I committed a very serious sin. Please forgive me. But now, Yahweh, I admit that what I did was very foolish.”

Why did David feel very badly after he had counted the people?

David realized that he had committed a very serious sin, confessed it to Yahweh, and asked Yahweh to forgive him for his foolish act..

2 Samuel 24:11

ULT

11 And David arose in the morning, and the word of Yahweh was to Gad, the prophet, a seer of David, saying,

UST

11 When David got up the next morning, Yahweh gave a message to the prophet Gad. He was a man who helped David know what God wanted him to do. Gad said to David,

What message did Yahweh give to David through the prophet Gad? (vv11-12)

Yahweh told David that he must choose one of three punishments.

2 Samuel 24:12

ULT

12 "Go, and you shall say to David, 'Thus says Yahweh, "Three I am lifting over you. Choose for yourself one from them, and I will do {it} to you."'"

UST

12 "Go and tell David that I say he must choose one of three punishments that I will describe. I will punish him with the one that he chooses."

2 Samuel 24:13

ULT

13 And Gad came to David, and he declared to him. Then he said to him, "Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land, or three months of your fleeing to the face of your enemies and he is pursuing you, or three days of plague being in your land? Now, know and see what word I shall return {to} the one having sent me."

UST

13 So Gad went to David and told him that Yahweh had said he would need to choose one of three punishments. He then told David, "You can choose for there to be seven years of famine in Israel. You can choose for your enemies to keep defeating you so badly over the course of three months that your army keeps running away from them. Or you can choose for there to be a plague here in Israel for three days. I will go back and tell Yahweh your answer. So think carefully about what you will choose."

What three choices of punishment did God give to David?

God offered a choice of seven years of famine, three months of fleeing from his enemies, or three days of plague in the land.

2 Samuel 24:14

ULT

14 And David said to Gad, “Great distress {is} to me. Please, let us fall into the hand of Yahweh, for his mercies {are} many, but into the hand of man, do not let me fall.”

UST

14 David said to Gad, “All those are very terrible things for me to choose between! But let Yahweh be the one to punish me {with a plague}, since he is very merciful. Do not let humans be the ones to punish me.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

2 Samuel 24:15

ULT

15 And Yahweh caused a plague in Israel from the morning and until the time of appointment. And from the people, from Dan and to Beersheba, 70,000 men died.

UST

15 So Yahweh sent a plague on the Israelite people. It started that morning and continued for three days. Throughout the territory of Israel there were 70,000 Israelites who died because of the plague.

Why did not more than 70,000 people die in the plague? (vv15-16)

Yahweh grieved about punishing any more people, and told the angel to lower his hand.

2 Samuel 24:16

ULT

16 And the angel stretched out his hand {against} Jerusalem to destroy it, but Yahweh relented concerning the harm. And he said to the angel, the destroyer among the many people, “Now lower your hand.” And the angel of Yahweh was near the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

UST

16 Then the angel who had killed all those people lifted his hand toward the city of Jerusalem in order to cause a plague that would kill many of the people who lived there. But Yahweh grieved about punishing any more people, and said to the angel “Put your hand back down {and do not cause a plague in Jerusalem}!” When Yahweh said that, his angel was standing near the place where Araunah the Jebusite threshed grain.

2 Samuel 24:17

ULT

17 And David spoke to Yahweh when he saw the angel, the striker among the people, and he said, “Behold, I, I have sinned, and I, I have committed iniquity. But these sheep, what have they done? Please, let your hand be against me and against the house of my father.”

UST

17 When David saw the angel who was causing the people to become sick and die, he spoke to Yahweh. He said, “Truly, I am the one who has committed the sin. I have done a very wicked thing, but these people are as innocent as sheep. They have certainly not done anything that is wrong. So you should punish me and my family, not these people!”

What did David request of Yahweh when he saw the angel?

David said that he had sinned, and he asked that Yahweh’s hand be against him and his father’s house, not against the people.

2 Samuel 24:18

ULT

18 And Gad came to David on that day, and he said to him, “Go up, set up an altar for Yahweh on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.”

UST

18 That day Gad came to David and told him, “Go to the place where Araunah the Jebusite threshes grain and build an altar to worship Yahweh there.”

What did Gad the prophet tell David to do? (vv18-20)

Gad told David to go up and set up an altar for Yahweh on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

2 Samuel 24:19

ULT

19 So David went up according to the word of Gad, just as Yahweh had commanded.

UST

19 So David did what Gad told him to do, which was what Yahweh had commanded, and he went there.

2 Samuel 24:21

ULT

21 And Araunah said, “Why has my lord the king come to his servant?” And David said, “To buy from you the threshing floor to build an altar for Yahweh, that the plague may be restrained from against the people.”

UST

21 Araunah said, “Your Majesty, may I ask why you have come to me?” David replied, “I have come to buy this ground where you thresh grain. That way I can build an altar here to Yahweh{and offer sacrifices on it} so that he will stop the plague that has been killing so many Israelites.”

What was David’s purpose for going to Araunah?

David wanted to buy the threshing floor to build an altar for Yahweh so that he will stop the plague that has been killing so many Israelites.

2 Samuel 24:22

ULT

22 And Araunah said to David, “May my lord the king take and offer up the good in his eyes. See, the oxen for the burnt offering and the threshing instruments and the equipment of the oxen for wood.

UST

22 Araunah replied to David, “Your Majesty, please offer to Yahweh whatever you wish. You may take the oxen that you see here and use them for an offering that you burn completely on the altar. And you may take their yokes and the boards that I use for the threshing, which you also see here, and you may use them for the wood that you will burn.

2 Samuel 24:24

ULT

24 And the king said to Araunah, "No, but buying, I will buy {it} from you for a price. For I will not offer to Yahweh my God burnt offerings for nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for silver, 50 shekels.

UST

24 But the king said to Araunah, "No, I will not accept these things as a gift. I will pay you for them. I will not take things that have cost me nothing and burn them completely on an altar as offerings to Yahweh." So David paid 50 shekels of silver to Araunah for the oxen and the ground.

Why did David insist on buying Araunah's threshing floor for a price?

David insisted on buying it because he would not offer to Yahweh burnt offerings that cost him nothing.

2 Samuel 24:25

ULT

25 And David built an altar there for Yahweh, and he offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And Yahweh was entreated for the land, and the plague was restrained from against Israel.

UST

25 Then David built an altar there to Yahweh. He burned the oxen completely on the altar as an offering. He also offered fellowship sacrifices. Then Yahweh answered David's prayers for the people of his land, and he ended the plague that had been killing so many Israelites.

How did David stop the plague in Israel?

David built an altar for Yahweh and he offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. Then Yahweh answered David's prayers, and he ended the plague that had been killing so many Israelites.

1 Now in year one of Cyrus, the king of Persia, in order to accomplish the word of Yahweh from the mouth of Jeremiah, Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Cyrus, the king of Persia. So he caused a sound to pass throughout all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying:

UST

1 During the first year after Cyrus, king of Persia, {conquered the kingdom of Babylon,} Yahweh motivated Cyrus to write a message. Yahweh did this in order to fulfill a prophecy that Jeremiah had spoken. Cyrus sent messengers throughout his empire with copies of the message and he ordered them to proclaim it as they went. This is what they proclaimed:

Ezra 1:2

ULT

2 "Thus says Cyrus, the king of Persia: Yahweh, the God of heaven, has given to me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he himself has appointed me to build for him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

UST

2 "I, King Cyrus, rule the Persian Empire, and I say this: Yahweh, the God who is in heaven, has made me ruler over the great kingdoms of this part of the world. Now he has assigned me to {make sure that his people} build a temple for him in {the city of} Jerusalem in {the province of} Judah.

Who did Yahweh appoint to build for him a house in Jerusalem?

Yahweh appointed Cyrus to build for him a house in Jerusalem.

Ezra 1:3

ULT

3 Whoever among you is from all his people, may his God be with him, and may he go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and may he build the house of Yahweh, the God of Israel. He is the God who is in Jerusalem.

UST

3 All you people who belong to God may go up to Jerusalem in Judah to rebuild this temple for Yahweh. He is the God who is in Jerusalem, the God whom the people of Israel worship. And may God give you success!

Ezra 1:4

ULT

4 And every one who is remaining in all of the places where he is sojourning there, let the men of his place lift him with silver and with gold, and with goods and with livestock, along with the freewill offering for the house of God, which is in Jerusalem."

UST

4 There are other people who are living around the Israelites in the places where the Israelites have been living since their ancestors were exiled here. Those people must contribute silver and gold to the Israelites who go. They must also give to the Israelites animals and {any} supplies {that they might need}. They should also give them other gifts that they can use to help build the temple of God in Jerusalem."

Who would provide silver and gold and goods and livestock for the Jewish people who were returning to Jerusalem to rebuild the temple?

The Jewish people returning to Jerusalem to rebuild the temple were to be provided silver and gold and goods and livestock by the Jewish men who had been living in the same region.

Ezra 1:5

ULT

5 Then the heads of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, that is, all whose spirit God had stirred up, arose to go up to build the house of Yahweh, which is in Jerusalem.

UST

5 Then God motivated some of the priests and Levites and {some of} the clan leaders from {the tribes of} Judah and Benjamin to return to Jerusalem. Those whom God motivated got ready to return to Jerusalem and build the temple for him there.

Ezra 1:7

ULT

7 And the king Cyrus brought out the vessels of the house of Yahweh that Nebuchadnezzar had brought out from Jerusalem and had put in the house of his gods.

UST

7 King Cyrus also commanded {his servants} to bring out the valuable things that King Nebuchadnezzar{'s soldiers} had taken from the temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem and had put in the temples of their gods {in Babylon}.

Where had Nebuchadnezzar put the objects belonging to Yahweh's house?

Nebuchadnezzar had put the objects belonging to Yahweh's house in the house of his own gods.

Ezra 1:8

ULT

8 And Cyrus, the king of Persia, brought them out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer. And he counted them out to Sheshbazzar, the ruler of Judah.

UST

8 {Specifically,} King Cyrus of Persia commanded Mithredath, his treasurer, {to command his servants} to bring out all of these items and to give each one of them to Sheshbazzar, the leader of {the group that was going to return to} Judah.

Ezra 3:2

ULT

2 Then arose Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brothers, and they built the altar of the God of Israel to offer up burnt up offerings on it as is written in the law of Moses, the man of God.

UST

2 Then Joshua son of Jehozadak and his fellow priests and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and his associates all began to rebuild the altar of the God of Israel. They did that so that they could sacrifice burnt offerings on it. They wanted to follow what the prophet Moses had written in the laws that God had given to him.

What did Jeshua, the priests, and Zerubbabel and his brothers rise up to do?

They rose up to build the altar of the God of Israel so that burnt offerings could be offered on it.

Ezra 3:3

ULT

3 And they set up the altar on its foundation, for dread was on them because of the peoples of the lands. Then they offered up on it burnt up offerings to Yahweh, burnt up offerings at the morning and at the evening.

UST

3 Even though they were afraid of the people who were already living in that area, they rebuilt the altar at the same place where the previous altar had been. They began to offer sacrifices to Yahweh on it every morning and every evening.

How often did Jeshua and the priests and Zerubbabel and his brothers offer burnt offerings to Yahweh?

They offered burnt offerings to Yahweh in the morning and in the evening.

Ezra 3:4

ULT

4 Then they performed the Festival of Huts as is written, with a burnt up offering day by day, by number according to the ordinance of the matter of the day, on its day.

UST

4 {Fifteen days after they started to offer these sacrifices,} the people celebrated the Festival of Shelters. {Moses had commanded them to do this in the decrees that God had given to him.} Each day the priests offered the sacrifices that were required for that day.

Ezra 3:7

ULT

7 And they gave silver to the masons and to the carpenters, and food, and drink, and oil to the Sidonians and to the Tyrians, to bring trees of cedar from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the permission of Cyrus, the king of Persia, given to them.

UST

7 So the {leaders of the} Israelites hired stone-cutters and carpenters {to do the construction work}. They also bought logs of cedar trees from the people of {the cities of} Tyre and Sidon. To pay for the logs, the Israelites sent grain, wine, and olive oil to those people. Since King Cyrus had said that the Israelites could buy these things, the people of Tyre and Sidon {agreed. They} brought the logs down from the mountains in Lebanon {to the Mediterranean seacoast} and then floated them along the coast to {the city of} Joppa. {Then they brought the logs inland from Joppa up to Jerusalem.}

Who gave permission for cedar trees to be sent from Lebanon to Joppa by sea?

Cyrus, king of Persia, gave permission for cedar trees to be sent from Lebanon to Joppa by sea.

Ezra 3:8

ULT

8 Then in the second year of their coming to the house of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all the ones who came from captivity to Jerusalem began, and they appointed the Levites from a son of 20 years and above to act as overseers for the work of the house of Yahweh.

UST

8 The Israelites started to rebuild the temple in the second month of the second year after they had returned to Jerusalem. Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, Joshua the son of Jozadak, their fellow leaders the priests and the Levites, and all the people who had come from where their enemies had taken them to Jerusalem supported this project. The leaders assigned the Levites who were twenty years old and older to supervise this work of rebuilding the temple for Yahweh.

When did the work begin?

The work began in the second month of the second year after the Israelites came to the house of God in Jerusalem.

Ezra 3:9

ULT

9 And Jeshua, his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, stood as one to act as overseers for the ones doing the work at the house of God, the sons of Henadad, their sons, and their brothers the Levites. [1]

UST

9 Jeshua, his sons, and his other relatives, and Kadmiel and his sons together helped to supervise those who were doing the work on the temple. They were all descendants of Judah. The sons and grandsons of Henadad along with the rest of their fellow Levites {joined in the work}.

Ezra 3:10

ULT

10 Then the ones who were building laid the foundation of the temple of Yahweh. And they caused to stand the clothed priests with the trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with the cymbals, to praise Yahweh in accordance with the hands of David, the king of Israel.

UST

10 When the builders finished laying the foundation of the temple of Yahweh, the priests and the Levites did what King David had told Asaph and the other musicians to do {many years previously} in order to praise Yahweh. The priests put on their robes and stood in their places, blowing their trumpets. Then the Levites who were descendants of Asaph clashed their cymbals.

Ezra 3:11

ULT

11 Then they sang in response, praising and giving thanks to Yahweh: “For he is good, for his covenant faithfulness to Israel is to eternity!” And all the people shouted a great shout in praise to Yahweh because the foundation of the house of Yahweh had been laid.

UST

11 Then the Levites praised Yahweh and thanked him by singing this song about him: “He is very good to us! He will continue to be faithful and kind to us Israelites {and he will love us} forever.” Then all the people shouted loudly. They praised Yahweh because they had finished laying the foundation of his temple.

How did all the people respond after the temple’s foundations had been laid?

All the people shouted a great shout in praise to Yahweh because the temple’s foundation had been laid.

Ezra 3:12

ULT

12 But many from the priests and the Levites, and the heads of the fathers, the old men who had seen the first house, at the founding of this house in their eyes, were weeping with a loud voice. Yet many with a shout, with joy, were lifting up a voice.

UST

12 Many of the old priests, Levites, and leaders of families remembered seeing the first temple. They cried aloud when they saw the workers lay the foundation of this temple {because they thought that this temple would not be as big or as beautiful as the first temple}. But the other people shouted joyfully in loud voices.

How did the people who had seen the first temple respond after seeing the foundation of the second temple?

They wept with a loud voice.

Ezra 3:13

ULT

13 So the people could not differentiate the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the weeping of the people. For the people were shouting a great shout, and the sound was heard as far as from a remote place. 3:9 [1]

UST

13 Since the shouting was so loud, no one could tell the difference between the people who were shouting joyfully and the people who were crying sorrowfully. All the noise was so loud that even people far away could hear it.

Ezra 4:1

ULT

1 Now the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the exile were building a temple for Yahweh, the God of Israel.

UST

1 The enemies of {the people of the tribes of} Judah and Benjamin learned that the Israelites who had returned from Babylon were rebuilding the temple for Yahweh, the God whom the people of Israel worship.

What did the enemies of Judah and Benjamin hear that the people who had been exiled were doing?

The enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the people who had been exiled were building a temple for Yahweh, the God of Israel.

Ezra 4:2

ULT

2 So they came to Zerubbabel and to the heads of the fathers and they said to them, “Let us build with you, for, like you, we seek your God and to him we have been sacrificing since the days of Esarhaddon, the king of Assyria, the one who caused us to come up here.”

UST

2 So they approached Zerubbabel the governor and the other clan leaders and {deceptively} said to them, “We want to help you to build the temple. After all, we also worship your God. We have been offering sacrifices to him since the time that Esarhaddon, the king of Assyria, brought us here.”

For how long did the enemies of Judah and Benjamin say that they themselves had been sacrificing to Yahweh?

Judah and Benjamin’s enemies said that they themselves had been sacrificing to Yahweh since the days of Esarhaddon, the king of Assyria.

Ezra 4:3

ULT

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of the fathers of Israel said to them, “It is not for you and for us to build a house for our God, but we ourselves together will build for Yahweh, the God of Israel, just as the king Cyrus, the king of Persia, has commanded us.”

UST

3 But Zerubbabel, Joshua, and the other Jewish clan leaders replied, “We will not allow you to help us build a temple for our God. No, we alone will build it for Yahweh, the God whom Israel worships, because that is what King Cyrus of Persia told us to do.”

4 And it happened that the people of the land were making the hands of the people of Judah weak, and making them afraid to build,

UST

4 Then the people who had been living in that land {before the Israelites returned there} started doing things to make the Jews discouraged and afraid to continue building {the temple}.

What were the people of the land doing to the people of Judah? (vv4-5)

The people of the land were making the hands of the people of Judah weak, and making them afraid to build, and hiring counselors against them to frustrate their plans.

Ezra 4:5

ULT

5 and hiring counselors against them to frustrate their plans all the days of Cyrus, the king of Persia, and until the reign of Darius, the king of Persia.

10 so that they may be offering sweet-smelling sacrifices to the God of heaven and praying for the life of the king and his sons.

UST

10 When you do that, they will be able to offer sacrifices that please the God who is in heaven, and they will be able to pray that God will bless me and my sons.

Why did Cyrus say that he wanted the Jews to be given whatever they needed for building the house of God?

Cyrus said he wanted the Jews to be given whatever they needed to build the house of God so that the Jews could offer sweet-smelling sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

Ezra 6:11

ULT

11 And from me is set a decree that, for any man who changes this edict, a beam shall be pulled from his house, and, being erect, he shall be impaled on it. And his house shall be made a rubbish heap on account of this.

UST

11 This is what I command about anyone who disobeys this decree. My soldiers will pull a beam from his house {and sharpen one end of it}. Then they will bury the other end of the beam in the ground so that it stands upright. Then they will pick that person up and ram his body onto the {sharpened} beam. Then they will completely destroy that person's house until only a pile of rubble is left, because he disobeyed me.

What did Darius decree must happen to the person who changes the edict?

Darius decreed that a beam must be pulled from the person's house and the beam placed upright and the person who had changed the edict be impaled on the beam and their house be made into a rubbish heap.

Ezra 6:12

ULT

12 And may the God who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who stretches out his hand to change, to destroy that house of God which is in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have set a decree. Let it be done diligently."

UST

12 God himself has chosen that city of Jerusalem as the place where people will honor him. May he get rid of any king or any nation that tries to change this decree or destroy that temple in Jerusalem! I, Darius, make this decree. You must completely obey it."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 6:13

ULT

13 Then Tattenai, the governor of Beyond-the-River, Shethar-Bozenai, and their companions did thus diligently, according to what Darius the king had sent.

UST

13 Tattenai, the governor of the province west of the Euphrates River, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates {read the message from King Darius and} immediately obeyed what the message from King Darius commanded them to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 6:14

ULT

14 And the elders of the Jews were building and prospering by the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and completed by the decree of the God of Israel and by the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes, the king of Persia.

UST

14 So the Jewish leaders continued to progress in their work of rebuilding {the temple}. The messages that the prophets Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo preached encouraged them greatly. The people worked until they completed {the temple}, just as their God had commanded them to do, and just as the Persian kings Cyrus and Darius had decreed, and as the Persian king Artaxerxes {would decree later}.

How did Haggai and Zechariah assist the Jewish elders in the work of rebuilding the temple?

Haggai and Zechariah prophesied and this helped the elders of the Jews prosper in their work of rebuilding the temple.

Ezra 6:15

ULT

15 And this house was done by day three of the month of Adar, which was year six of the reign of Darius the king.

UST

15 The people finished building this temple on the third day of the month of Adar, during the sixth year that King Darius ruled {the kingdom of Persia}.

When was the work of rebuilding the temple completed?

The work of rebuilding the temple was completed on day three of the month of Adar in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

Ezra 6:16

ULT

16 And the sons of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the sons of the exile performed the dedication of this house of God with joy.

UST

16 Then the people of Israel, {that is,} the priests, the Levites, and everyone else who had returned from Babylonia, joyfully dedicated this temple to God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 6:17

ULT

17 And they offered for the dedication of this house of God 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and 12 bucks of goats for a sin offering for all Israel, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

UST

17 During the ceremony to dedicate this temple to God, they sacrificed 100 young bulls, 200 rams, and 400 lambs. They also sacrificed 12 male goats as an offering so that God would forgive the sins of all the people, because that was how many tribes there were in Israel.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 6:18

ULT

18 And they caused the priests to stand in their divisions, and the Levites in their sections, for the service of the God who is in Jerusalem, according to the writing of the book of Moses.

UST

18 Then the Jewish leaders divided the priests and Levites into groups that would take turns serving in the temple of God in Jerusalem. They did this according to what Moses had written {many years previously} in the law.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 6:19

ULT

19 So the sons of the exile performed the Passover on day 14 of the first month.

UST

19 On the fourteenth day of the first month, the Jews who had returned from Babylonia celebrated the Passover Festival.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 6:20

ULT

20 For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves as one, all of them were pure. And they slaughtered the Passover for all the sons of the exile, and for their brothers, the priests, and for themselves.

UST

20 {To qualify themselves for offering the sacrifices,} all the priests and Levites had already purified themselves by performing the proper rituals. Then they slaughtered the lambs for the benefit of everyone who had returned from Babylonia, for the other priests, and for themselves.

For whom did the priests and Levites slaughter the Passover lamb?

The priests and Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the sons of the exile, and for their brothers, the priests, and for themselves.

Ezra 6:21

ULT

21 And the sons of Israel ate, the ones who had returned from the exile and every one who separated himself to them from the uncleanness of the nations of the land in order to seek Yahweh, the God of Israel.

UST

21 All of the Israelite people celebrated the Passover. This included the Israelites who had returned from Babylonia and the people who had separated themselves from the people of the area around them who worshiped other gods. They separated themselves from those people and joined the Israelites so that they could worship Yahweh, the God whom the Israelite people worshiped.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 6:22

ULT

22 Then they performed the Festival of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy, because Yahweh had caused them to be joyful, and had caused the heart of the king of Assyria to turn toward them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

UST

22 Then for the next seven days, they joyfully celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread. They were joyful because Yahweh had caused the king of Assyria to be favorable to them. As a result, the king had helped them to rebuild the temple of God, the God whom Israel worshiped.

Why did the Jews joyfully celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread?

The Jews joyfully celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread because Yahweh had caused them to be joyful, and had caused the heart of the king of Assyria to turn toward them, to strengthen their hands in their work of rebuilding the house of God.

Ezra 7:6

ULT

6 this Ezra went up from Babylon, and he was a skilled scribe in the law of Moses that Yahweh, the God of Israel, had given. And the king granted to him all his request according to the hand of Yahweh his God upon him.

UST

6 This man Ezra knew the laws of Moses very well. Those were the laws that Yahweh had given to the people who worship him, the Israelite people. {Ezra asked the king for many things and} the king gave Ezra everything that he asked for because Yahweh, the God whom Ezra worshiped, caused all of it to go well for him. Then Ezra traveled from Babylon {to Jerusalem}.

What was Ezra's occupation?

He was a skilled scribe in the law of Moses.

Ezra 7:7

ULT

7 And some from the sons of Israel and from the priests, and the Levites, and the ones who sang, and the gatekeepers, and the temple servants went up to Jerusalem in year seven of Artaxerxes the king.

UST

7 Many Israelite people came with Ezra to Jerusalem, including some priests, some Levites, some musicians, some gatekeepers, and some {of the descendants of} men who worked in the temple. That was during the seventh year that Artaxerxes was the king of Persia.

Ezra 7:9

ULT

9 For on the first of the first month was the beginning of the ascent from Babylon. And on the first of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

UST

9 Consider this: They started out from Babylon on the first day of the first month. They arrived safely in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month of that year. God certainly acted very kindly toward them.

Why did Ezra arrive in Jerusalem safely after a long journey from Babylon?

Ezra arrived in Jerusalem safely after a long journey from Babylon because the good hand of his God was on him.

Ezra 7:10

ULT

10 For Ezra had made his heart firm to seek the law of Yahweh, and to do it, and to teach statute and ordinance in Israel.

UST

10 {God made Ezra's journey successful} because Ezra had devoted himself to studying the laws of Yahweh and understanding how to obey them. He had also devoted himself to teach everything in those laws to the Israelite people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 7:13

ULT

13 from me is set a decree that everyone in my kingdom who freely offers to go to Jerusalem with you, from the people 'Israel' and its priests and the Levites, may go.

UST

13 I am commanding that any of the Israelite people in my kingdom may go with you to Jerusalem if they want to go. That includes priests and Levites.

Who was allowed to go to Jerusalem with Ezra?

King Artaxerxes made a decree that everyone in his kingdom who freely offered to go to Jerusalem with Ezra from the people Israel and from the priests and Levites could go with Ezra.

Ezra 7:14

ULT

14 Because it was sent from before the king and his seven counselors to inquire about Judah and about Jerusalem by the law of your God which is in your hand,

UST

14 I, the king, and my seven advisors are sending you to investigate whether the people of Judah and Jerusalem are following the law of your God that you carry.

Why did the king and his seven counselors send the Israelites back to Jerusalem?

The king and his seven counselors sent the Israelites back to Jerusalem to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem and to bring the silver and gold that the king and his counselors had freely offered and to bring all the silver and gold that they found in all the province of Babylon, along with the freewill offerings of the people and the priests.

Ezra 7:15

ULT

15 and to bring silver and gold that the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,

UST

15 We are also telling you to take with you the silver and gold that I and my advisors will give to you. We give it freely to the God of Israel who has a temple in Jerusalem.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 7:16

ULT

16 with all the silver and the gold that you find in all the province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and the priests who freely give for the house of God, which is in Jerusalem:

UST

16 You should also take any silver and gold that {the people in} the entire province of Babylonia may give to you. Add that to the money that the Israelite people and the priests freely give for you to use at the temple of their God in Jerusalem.

Why did the king and his seven counselors send the Israelites back to Jerusalem?

The king and his seven counselors sent the Israelites back to Jerusalem to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem and to bring the silver and gold that the king and his counselors had freely offered and to bring all the silver and gold that they found in all the province of Babylon, along with the freewill offerings of the people and the priests.

Ezra 7:17

ULT

17 therefore, diligently you shall buy with this money bulls, rams, lambs, and their grain offerings and their drink offerings; and you shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God, which is in Jerusalem.

UST

17 Then carefully use this money to buy the bulls, rams, and lambs that the priests will burn on the altar of the temple of your God in Jerusalem. Also buy the grain and wine that go with these offerings.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 7:18

ULT

18 And you may do whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, according to the will of your God.

UST

18 If there is any silver or gold left over {after you buy all of those things}, you and your companions may use it to buy whatever you think that your God wants you to buy.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 7:19

ULT

19 And the vessels that were given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.

UST

19 We have also given to you some {valuable} containers for the priests to use in the temple of your God. Take all of them to your God in Jerusalem.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 7:20

ULT

20 And the rest of what is needed for the house of your God that falls to you to give, you may give from the house of the treasures of the king.

UST

20 If you need to supply any other things for the temple of your God, I permit you to get the money {to pay for those things} from the royal treasury.

How were the Jews to pay for additional things they might need for the house of God?

King Artaxerxes decreed that the Jews should take anything else that they needed for the house of their God from Artaxerxes' treasury.

Ezra 7:21

ULT

21 And from me myself, Artaxerxes the king, is set a decree for all the treasurers who are in Beyond-the-River: that all that Ezra (the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven) may ask of you, let it be done diligently;

UST

21 And I, King Artaxerxes, personally command this to all the treasurers in the province west of the Euphrates River: Ezra is a priest who has carefully studied the laws of the God who is in heaven. If there is anything that he requests, give it to him quickly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 7:22

ULT

22 as much as 100 silver kikkars, and as much as 100 cors of wheat, and as much as 100 baths of wine, and as much as 100 baths of oil, and salt which is not written.

UST

22 Give him up to three and one-third metric tons of silver, up to 500 bushels of wheat, up to two and one-fifth kiloliters of wine, up to the same amount of olive oil, and all the salt that he requests.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 7:23

ULT

23 Everything that is from the decree of the God of heaven shall be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons?

UST

23 Be sure that you provide everything that the God who is in heaven requires for his temple. We certainly do not want this God to be angry with me or with my descendants{, who will later be kings, because I did not provide what he required}.

Why did Artaxerxes say that the treasurers should do exactly what the God of Heaven decreed regarding the temple?

King Artaxerxes said that the treasurers should do exactly what the God of Heaven decreed regarding the temple so that God's wrath would not come against the kingdom of Artaxerxes and his sons.

Ezra 7:24

ULT

24 And to you is made known that there is no authority to set tax, tribute, or custom upon all the priests, and the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, the temple servants, and the servants of that house of God.

UST

24 By means of this letter, I also prohibit you from collecting tax payments of any kind from any of the priests, Levites, musicians, gatekeepers, or any men who work in the temple. They are exempt from taxes {because} they serve in the temple of this God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 7:25

ULT

25 And as for you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges who may judge all the people who are in Beyond-the-River, all who know the laws of your God. And you shall teach those who do not know.

UST

25 Now I will address you, Ezra. The God whom you worship has made you wise. Therefore, I want you to appoint men who can settle disputes between people and interpret God's laws for all {of the Jews} in the province west of the Euphrates River. They must do this for all of those who know the laws of this God, and all of you must teach God's laws to those who do not know them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 7:26

ULT

26 And everyone who will not do the law of your God and the law of the king, judgment shall be exacted from him diligently, whether for death, whether for banishment, whether for confiscation of goods, or for imprisonment."

UST

26 {You and the men whom you appoint} must make sure to severely punish everyone who does not obey my law or the law of the God whom you worship. You may decide whether to execute them or to send them out of the country or to take away all of their property or to put them in prison."

What did King Artaxerxes decree should be done to every person who did not obey the law of Ezra's God and the law of the king?

Artaxerxes decreed that whoever would not obey the law of Ezra's God and the law of the king should be punished diligently, either by death, or banishment, or confiscation of goods, or by imprisonment.

Ezra 7:27

ULT

27 Blessed be Yahweh, the God of our fathers, who gave according to this in the heart of the king, to glorify the house of Yahweh, which is in Jerusalem,

UST

27 {When I, Ezra, read this letter, I said,} “Praise Yahweh, the God whom our ancestors worshiped! He has caused the king to want to honor his temple in Jerusalem.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 7:28

ULT

28 and caused covenant faithfulness to extend to me before the face of the king, and his counselors, and before all the mighty officials of the king. And as for me, I gained strength according to the hand of Yahweh my God upon me, and I gathered from Israel heads to go up with me.

UST

28 God also acted very kindly to me by causing the king and his advisors and all of his powerful officials to want to help me. When I saw how Yahweh, the God whom I worship, was making all of my plans succeed, I boldly asked some of the Israelite leaders to go {to Jerusalem} with me.”

What caused Ezra to be strengthened?

Ezra was strengthened because he realized that the hand of Yahweh his God was on him to help him.

Ezra 8:15

ULT

15 And I gathered them to the river, the one that goes to Ahava, and we encamped there three days. And I examined the people and the priests, but I did not find there any from the sons of Levi.

UST

15 {This is an account of how we traveled to Jerusalem.} I gathered together all of these Israelites at the canal that goes from Babylon to Ahava. We set up our tents and stayed there for three days. {During that time} I interviewed the people and the priests and discovered that there were no Levites among us.

When Ezra examined the people and the priests by the river that flowed to Ahava, what could Ezra not find?

When Ezra examined the people and the priests by the river that flowed to Ahava, he could not find any descendants of Levi.

Ezra 8:16

ULT

16 Then I sent for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, the heads; and for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

UST

16 So I summoned Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, {another man named} Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, who were all leaders of the people. I also summoned Joiarib and {a third man named} Elnathan, who were wise.

22 For I was ashamed to ask from the king an army and horsemen to help us from an enemy on the way. For we had spoken to the king, saying, “The hand of our God is for good upon all those who seek him, but his might and his nose are against all those who forsake him.”

UST

22 Previously we had told the king that our God takes care of all those who truly trust in him, but that he powerfully punishes everyone who refuses to obey him. So I would have been ashamed to ask the king to send soldiers and men riding on horses to protect us from our enemies while we were traveling along the road.

Why did Ezra not ask the king for an army or horsemen to protect the Jews against their enemies as they traveled to Jerusalem?

Ezra did not ask the king for an army or horsemen to protect the Jews against their enemies as they traveled because he was ashamed to ask since the Jews had told the king that the hand of their God is for good upon all those who seek him, and that God’s might and nose are against all who forsake him.

Ezra 8:23

ULT

23 So we fasted and sought from our God concerning this, and he was entreated by us.

UST

23 So we abstained from eating food and we asked our God to protect us. We prayed to him, and he answered our prayer.

Ezra 8:24

ULT

24 Then I separated 12 from the leaders of the priests to Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and with them ten from their brothers.

UST

24 I chose 12 of the leaders of the priests and brought them together with Sherebiah and Hashabiah and ten of the other Levites.

Ezra 8:25

ULT

25 And I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the offering of the house of our God that the king, and his counselors, and his officials, and all Israel (the ones who were found) had offered.

UST

25 I assigned to each of them a portion of the gifts of silver and gold and the other valuable items {to transport to Jerusalem}. These were the items that the king and his advisors and other officials, and the Israelite people who were living in Babylonia, had contributed for the temple of our God.

Ezra 8:26

ULT

26 And I weighed out to their hand 650 kikkars of silver, and vessels of silver of 100 kikkars, 100 kikkars of gold,

UST

26 As I gave these various items to those men, I weighed each of the items. This was the total: about 21 and one half metric tons of silver, items made from silver that altogether weighed three and one third metric tons, three and one third metric tons of gold,

Ezra 8:27

ULT

27 and 20 bowls of gold of 1000 darics, and two good, gleaming vessels of bronze, precious as gold.

UST

27 20 gold bowls that altogether weighed about eight and one-half kilograms, and two items made of beautiful polished bronze that were as valuable as ones made of gold.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 8:28

ULT

28 And I said to them, “You are holy to Yahweh, and the vessels are holy. And the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to Yahweh, the God of your fathers.

UST

28 I said to those priests and Levites, ‘I have set you apart from the others to serve Yahweh in a special way. The people have also set apart these valuable things for only him. The people also gave the silver and the gold voluntarily as an offering to Yahweh, the God whom our ancestors worshiped.

Ezra 8:29

ULT

29 Watch and keep until you weigh them out before the face of the leaders of the priests and the Levites and the leaders of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of Yahweh.”

UST

29 So guard them carefully. When we arrive in Jerusalem, weigh them out where the leading priests and Levites and the other leaders of the Israelite clans can see them. {They will then put them} in the storerooms in the temple of Yahweh.’

How long were the twelve men to watch over the gold and silver?

The twelve men were to watch over the gold and silver until they weighed them out before the face of the leaders of the priests and the Levites and the leaders of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of Yahweh.

Ezra 8:30

ULT

30 So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, to the house of our God.

UST

30 So these priests and Levites said that they would be responsible to transport all of the {gifts of} silver and gold and other valuable items to the temple of our God in Jerusalem.

Ezra 8:31

ULT

31 Then we set out from the river Ahava on day 12 of the first month to go to Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the palm of the enemy and ambush on the way.

UST

31 On the twelfth day of the first month, we left the Ahava Canal and started to travel to Jerusalem. Our God took care of us, and while we traveled, he prevented any enemies from attacking or robbing us.

How did Ezra say that God's hand was upon him and the rest of the Jews as they traveled to Jerusalem?

Ezra said that the hand of God was on him and his fellow Jews in that God protected them from the hand of their enemies and from ambush as they traveled to Jerusalem.

Ezra 8:32

ULT

32 So we came to Jerusalem, and we stayed there three days.

UST

32 After we arrived in Jerusalem, we rested for three days.

Ezra 8:33

ULT

33 And on the fourth day, the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed out: in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth, the son of Uriah, the priest, and with him was Eleazar, the son of Phinehas (and with them were Jozabad, the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah, the son of Binnui, the Levites);

UST

33 Then on the fourth day we went to the temple of our God. There the priests and Levites weighed out the silver and gold and the other items and gave them to the leaders there. The leaders there were two priests, Meremoth the son of Uriah and Eleazar the son of Phinehas, and two Levites, Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui.

Ezra 8:35

ULT

35 The ones who had come from the captivity, the sons of the exile, offered burnt up offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs, 12 male goats of a sin offering. The whole was a burnt up offering to Yahweh.

UST

35 The Babylonian soldiers had captured our ancestors and taken them away to Babylon, but now we who are their descendants have safely returned {to Israel}. So we offered sacrifices of burnt offerings to our God: 12 bulls, {one} for {each of the 12 tribes of} the Israelite people, 96 rams, and 77 lambs. We also sacrificed 12 male goats to atone for the sins {that all of the Israelite people had committed}. We offered all of these sacrifices to Yahweh by putting them on the fire {of the altar}.

36 And they gave the laws of the king to the satraps of the king and the governors of Beyond-the-River. And they lifted the people and the house of God.
8:5 [1]
8:10 [2]

UST

36 Some of us who had returned from Babylonia took the letter that the king had given to us to the governors of the king's provinces and to the officials of the province west of the Euphrates River. {After they read the letter,} they did what the king commanded for us {Israelite} people and for the temple of God."

To whom were the king's decrees given?

The king's decrees were given to the satraps of the king and the governors of Beyond-the-River.

Ezra 9

Ezra 9:1

ULT

1 Now as soon as these things were finished, the leaders came to me, saying, “The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands according to their abominations, of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, the Ammonite, the Moabite, the Egyptian, and the Amorite.

UST

1 “After that, {some of} the {Jewish} leaders came to me and said, ‘Many Israelites and {even some} priests and Levites have not kept themselves from doing what the other people who are living in this land do. They are doing the same disgusting things that those people do. Those people are from the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 9:2

ULT

2 For they have lifted from their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so they have mixed the seed of holiness with the peoples of the lands. And the hand of the leaders and the rulers has been first in this unfaithfulness.”

UST

2 Specifically, some Israelite men have married women from these groups, and they have allowed their sons to do the same thing. So they are making us, God’s sacred people, to be no longer distinct from the other groups that live here. In fact, some of our leaders and officials have been the first ones to betray God in this way!’

In what way did the people of Israel not separate themselves from the people of other lands?

The people of Israel did not separate themselves from the people of other lands in that they married non-Israelites and allowed their sons to marry non-Israelites.

Ezra 9:3

ULT

3 And as soon as I heard this matter, I tore my garment and my robe. And I pulled out some from the hair of my head and my beard, and I sat down appalled.

UST

3 When I heard that, {I was so sad and angry that} I tore my clothes and my robe. I even pulled out some hair from my head and my beard. Then I sat down. I was very dismayed.

How did Ezra respond to the people's unfaithfulness?

Ezra tore his garment and his robe and pulled out some of the hair of his head and beard, and sat down appalled.

Ezra 9:4

ULT

4 And all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel on account of the unfaithfulness of the exiles were gathered to me. And I was sitting appalled until the offering of the evening.

UST

4 Many of the Jews still respected God's commandment {not to marry foreign women}, and they were upset and afraid because some of those who had returned from Babylonia had disobeyed it. They gathered around me as I sat there dismayed until the time of the evening sacrifice.

5 When it was time to offer the evening sacrifice, I stopped sitting there, silently showing how ashamed and sad I felt. Still wearing those torn clothes, I got on my knees and opened my hands {in prayer} to Yahweh, my God,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 9:6

ULT

6 And I said, “My God, I am ashamed and humiliated to raise my face to you, my God. For our iniquities have multiplied to above the head, and our guilt has grown up as far as to the heavens.

UST

6 and this is what I prayed: ‘God, I belong to you. Yet I am very ashamed even to approach you in prayer. This is because the sins that we Israelites have committed are very bad. It is as though our sins are so many that they have risen up in a heap that is higher than our heads. We are so guilty for committing those sins that it is as though the heap of them has risen all the way up to you in heaven.

Why was Ezra too ashamed and disgraced to raise his face to Yahweh?

Ezra was too ashamed and disgraced to raise his face to Yahweh because his people’s iniquity and guilt were great.

Ezra 9:7

ULT

7 From the days of our fathers until this day we are in great guilt. And in our iniquities, we ourselves, our kings, and our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands by sword, by captivity, and by plunder, and by shame of face, as this day.

UST

7 Since the time of our ancestors until now, we{, the Jewish people,} have been very guilty of sinning {against you}. That is the reason why you, God, allowed {the armies of} the kings of other lands to do whatever they wanted to do with our people and with our kings and our priests. They killed {many of} them, they captured {many of} them, they robbed {many of} them, and they caused them all to be disgraced, just as we are today.

Ezra 9:8

ULT

8 But now, according to a little moment, favor has come from with Yahweh our God to leave for us survivors and to give to us a peg in his holy place, for our God to brighten our eyes and to give us a little reviving in our slavery.

UST

8 But for just a little while now, Yahweh our God, you have been kind to us. You have allowed some of us to survive. You have given us a secure home in your sacred place. You have made us joyful and given us some freedom, even though the Persian king is still our master.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 9:9

ULT

9 For we are slaves, yet our God has not forsaken us in our slavery. But he has extended to us covenant faithfulness before the face of the kings of Persia to give to us reviving, to raise up the house of our God and to cause its ruins to stand, and to give to us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

UST

9 Yes, we are like slaves, but even so, you have not abandoned us. Instead, you have caused the kings of Persia to act very kindly toward us. They have given us some freedom and allowed us to rebuild your temple, which had been destroyed. They have allowed us to live safely here in the province of Judah and the city of Jerusalem.

What did God extend to the Jewish people in their effort to build God's house?

God extended covenant faithfulness to the Jewish people in their effort to build his house.

Ezra 9:10

ULT

10 So now, our God, what can we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments,

UST

10 Our God, there is nothing that we can say now to defend ourselves after all {of the sinful things that we have done}. We have continued to disobey your commands.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 9:11

ULT

11 which you commanded by the hand of your servants, the prophets, saying, 'The land that you are entering to possess is a land of impurity by the impurity of the peoples of the lands, by their abominations that have filled it from mouth to mouth with their uncleanness.

UST

11 They are the commands that you gave to your servants, the prophets, to tell to us. They told us that it was as though the land that we would occupy was a filthy land because the people who live there do disgusting things. They said that those people continually do shameful things, making it seem like the land is full of filth from one end to the other.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 9:12

ULT

12 So now, neither give your daughters to their sons nor lift their daughters for your sons, nor shall you seek their peace or their good until eternity, so that you may be strong and eat the good things of the land and cause your sons to inherit it until eternity.’

UST

12 {They said,} “Therefore do not allow your daughters to marry their sons! Do not allow your sons to marry their daughters! Do not ever try to cause things to go well for those people! If you obey these instructions, your nation will be strong. You will enjoy the good crops that grow on the land, and the land will belong to your descendants forever.”

Why did God not want the Israelites to intermarry with the people of the land?

God did not want the Israelites to intermarry with the people of the land because the people had made the land impure by their impure behavior and by doing things that were an abomination to God.

Ezra 9:13

ULT

13 Yet after all that has come upon us because of our evil deeds and because of our great guilt (although you, our God, you have restrained it to lower than our iniquities, and you have given to us a survival such as this),

UST

13 But you punished us because we became very guilty for doing wicked things. Still, you, our God, have not punished us as much as we deserve for you to punish us. I say this because you have allowed this group of us to survive.

What did God hold back?

God held himself back from fully judging the Jewish people as their sins deserved and he graciously allowed them to return to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple.

Ezra 9:14

ULT

14 should we return to breaking your commandments and to intermarrying with the peoples of these abominations? Would you not be angry with us as far as completion, so that there is neither remnant nor survivors?

UST

14 However, some of us are again disobeying your commands. Some of us have married women from the people groups that do those detestable things. If we continue to do that, you will be so angry with us that you will destroy us completely, leaving none of us to survive!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 9:15

ULT

15 Yahweh, the God of Israel, you are righteous, for we are left as survivors, as this day. Behold us, before your face in our guilt, for there is none to stand before your face on account of this.”

UST

15 Yahweh, God of Israel, you always do the right thing! Because of that, you have continually allowed some of us to survive, just as you have done with this group now. But we acknowledge that we are guilty of disobeying you and so because of what we have done, we do not deserve even to pray to you.’”

Ezra 10

Ezra 10:1

ULT

1 And when Ezra prayed, and when he confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the face of the house of God, an extremely great assembly from Israel, men and women and children, gathered to him. Indeed the people wept an abundant weeping.

UST

1 Ezra prostrated himself on the ground in front of the temple as he cried and prayed {to God}. He was confessing {to God the sins that the people had committed}. While he was doing that, a very large crowd of Israelites gathered around him, consisting of men, women, and children. They all cried very, very much {because they had sinned against God}.

What did Ezra do as he prayed and confessed?

As Ezra prayed and confessed, he wept and threw himself down before God's house.

Ezra 10:2

ULT

2 Then Shecaniah, the son of Jehiel, from the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, "We ourselves have acted unfaithfully against our God and have caused foreign women from the peoples of the land to dwell. But now, there is hope for Israel concerning this.

UST

2 Then Shecaniah, the son of Jehiel from the clan of Elam, spoke. He said this to Ezra: "We have disobeyed our God. Some of us have married women who are not Israelites. They come from the other people groups that live around us. But we can still hope {that Yahweh will be merciful to} us Israelite people.

Ezra 10:3

ULT

3 So now, let us cut a covenant with our God to cause all the women to go out, and the ones who were born from them, by the counsel of my lord and the ones who tremble at the commandment of our God. And let it be done according to the law.

UST

3 Here is what I suggest. We should do what God told us to do in his laws. We should make an agreement with our God that we will divorce our foreign wives and send them away with their children. We will do everything according to what you, sir, and the others who greatly respect what our God has commanded, tell us to do.

What covenant did Shekaniah say the Israelites should make?

Shekaniah said that they should make a covenant with their God to send away all the foreign women and their children.

Ezra 10:4

ULT

4 Arise, for the matter is on you, and we are with you. Be strong and do."

UST

4 Since you are our leader, get going, and be courageous, and do {what is necessary to fix this problem}. We will do whatever you say."

Ezra 10:5

ULT

5 And Ezra arose and caused the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel to swear an oath to do according to this word. So they swore an oath.

UST

5 So Ezra acted {to fix the problem}. He demanded that all of the Israelite people, including the leaders of the priests and the Levites, solemnly declare that they would do what Shekaniah said that they should do. So they all solemnly promised {to do that}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 10:6

ULT

6 And Ezra rose up from before the face of the house of God, and he went to the chamber of Jehohanan, the son of Eliashib. And he went there. He did not eat bread and he did not drink water, but was mourning on account of the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

UST

6 Then Ezra went away from in front of the temple and went to the room where Jehohanan the grandson of Eliashib lived. Ezra continued to grieve because some of the Israelites who had returned from Babylonia had not faithfully obeyed God's laws. So while he was there, he did not eat or drink anything.

Why did Ezra not eat any bread or drink any water?

Ezra did not eat any bread or drink any water because he was mourning the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

Ezra 10:7

ULT

7 And they caused a sound to pass throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the sons of the exile to gather to Jerusalem.

UST

7 Then the leaders sent a message to all the people in the province of Judan and the city of Jerusalem. They told them that all the Jews who had returned from Babylonia had to come to Jerusalem immediately.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Ezra 10:8

ULT

8 And for all who did not come in three days according to the counsel of the leaders and the elders, all his property would be devoted to the ban. And he himself would be separated from the assembly of the exiles.

UST

8 The leaders announced the following penalties for anyone who did not arrive within three days. They would take away all the property belonging to that person, and they would banish that person from the community of Israelites.

What was to happen to any Israelite who did not come to Jerusalem within three days?

Any Israelite who did not come to Jerusalem within three days was to have all his property devoted to the ban and was to be separated from the assembly of the exiles.

Ezra 10:9

ULT

9 So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered to Jerusalem in three days. It was the ninth month, on 20 in the month. And all the people sat in the open place of the house of God, trembling on account of the matter and because of the rains.

UST

9 So within three days, by the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the men from the tribes of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem. They were sitting in the courtyard in front of the temple. They were trembling because it was raining hard and {because they were worried that they would be punished} for what they had done.

What two things caused the people who stood in the open place of God's house to tremble?

All the people who stood in the open place of God's house trembled on account of the matter and because of the rains.

Ezra 10:10

ULT

10 And Ezra the priest rose up and said to them, "You yourselves have acted unfaithfully and have caused foreign wives to dwell, to add to the guilt of Israel.

UST

10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "Some of you have sinned very badly {against God}. Specifically, you have married women who are not Israelites. By doing that, you have made us Israelite people more guilty than we were before.

Ezra 10:13

ULT

13 However, the people are many, and the time is rain showers and there is no strength to stand in the outdoors. And the work is neither for one day nor for two, for we have done much to rebel in this matter.

UST

13 {Then one of them said,} “But we are a very large group, and it is raining hard. We cannot continue to stand outside in this rain. Also, since many of us have committed this sin, it will take a long time to make things right again.

Why did the Israelites want more time to send away the foreign women?

The Israelites wanted more time to send away the foreign women because the people were many, they had done much to rebel in this matter, and therefore, it would take them more than a day or two to complete the process. It was the rainy season, and they did not have the strength needed to stand in the outdoors to complete the process.

Ezra 10:14

ULT

14 Let our leaders stand for all the assembly. And let all who are in our cities, the ones who have caused foreign women to dwell, come at appointed times, and with them the elders of city by city and its magistrates, until the burning of the nose of our God is turned back from us as far as it concerns this matter.”

UST

14 So please allow our leaders to decide what we should all do. Tell everyone in each city who has married a woman who is not an Israelite to come at a time that you decide. They should each come with the elders and judges from their own city. If we do that, our God will stop being angry with us because of what we have done.”

Ezra 10:16

ULT

16 So the sons of the exile did thus, and men (the heads of the fathers by the house of their fathers, and all of them by names) were separated to Ezra the priest. And they sat down on day one of the tenth month to seek out the matter.

UST

16 But {they were the only ones who opposed the plan; all of} the others who had returned from Babylonia said that they would do it. So Ezra the priest chose men who were leaders from each of the clans and wrote down their names. On the first day of the tenth month these men met to investigate the matter.

17 And they finished with all the men, the ones who had caused foreign women to dwell, by day one of the first month.

UST

17 By the first day of the first month {of the next year} they had finished determining which men had married women who were not Israelites.

How long did it take to search out the matter of Israelite men who had taken foreign women as wives?

It took from day one of the tenth month until day one of the first month of the following year to search out the matter fully.

Ezra 10:18

ULT

18 And some were found from the sons of the priests who had caused foreign women to dwell: from the sons of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah.

UST

18 They determined that some of the descendants of the priests had married foreign women. These included some descendants of Joshua the son of Jozadak and of his brothers. Their names were Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

Ezra 10:19

ULT

19 So they gave their hand to cause their wives to go out, and, being guilty ones, a ram of the flock for their guilt.

UST

19 They solemnly promised to divorce their wives and they each offered a ram as a sacrifice to atone for their sins.

What did the Israelite men who were guilty of taking foreign women as wives do?

The guilty Israelite men promised to send away their foreign wives, and they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt.

Nehemiah

Nehemiah 1

Nehemiah 1:1

ULT

1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah: And it happened in the month of Kislev, in year 20, that I myself was in Susa the citadel.

UST

1 I am Nehemiah, son of Hacaliah. {I am writing this account.} My story begins in the month of Kislev during the twentieth year of the reign of King Artaxerxes {over the Persian Empire}. I was in the capital city of Susa.

Who wrote the book of Nehemiah?

Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah wrote the book of Nehemiah.

When did Nehemiah ask Hanani and some people from Judah about the Jews who had escaped, the remnant of the Jews who were there, and about Jerusalem? (vv1-2)

He asked them in the month Kislev, in the twentieth year.

Nehemiah 1:2

ULT

2 And Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and men from Judah. And I asked them about the Jews who escaped, who were left behind from the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

UST

2 Hanani, one of my brothers, came to see me, along with some other people from the province of Judah. I asked them about the Jews who had escaped and remained in Judah {many years earlier} when soldiers had forced many Jews to go {to Babylon}. I also asked about {the condition of} the city of Jerusalem.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 1:3

ULT

3 And they said to me, “The ones left behind, who were left behind from the captivity there in the province, are in great evil and in reproach. And the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire.”

UST

3 They said to me, “The Jews who escaped the exile and remained in the province of Judah are in a desperate situation. {The Babylonian soldiers} broke down the wall of Jerusalem {to get into the city}, and {they} burned down all of its gates. The people {living there} are defenseless.”

What did Hanani and some people from Judah reply?

They replied that those who remained in the province were in great evil and reproach because Jerusalem’s wall was broken down and its gates were burned with fire.

Nehemiah 1:4

ULT

4 And it happened that, when I heard these words, I sat down and wept, and I mourned for days. And I was fasting and praying before the face of the God of heaven.

UST

4 When I heard about these things, I sat down and cried. I could not stop mourning for days. I went without food, and I prayed to the God who is in heaven.

What did Nehemiah do when he heard about the condition of Jerusalem?

He sat down and wept, and he mourned for days. He also fasted and prayed.

What did Nehemiah request while praying before the God of heaven?

Nehemiah requested that Yahweh would listen to his prayer. Nehemiah requested that Yahweh would remember the word he commanded Moses, promising to gather the scattered Israelites if they returned to him and kept his commandments. Nehemiah requested that Yahweh would give him success and grant him mercy.

Nehemiah 1:5

ULT

5 And I said, “Ah! Yahweh, the God of heaven, the great and fearsome God, who keeps the covenant and covenant faithfulness to those who love him and to those who keep his commandments:

UST

5 I said, “O Yahweh, you are the God who is in heaven. You are the great and awesome God. You always keep your promises faithfully to those who love you and obey your commandments.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 1:6

ULT

6 Please let your ear be attentive and your eyes opened to listen to the prayer of your servant that I am praying before your face today, day and night, on account of the sons of Israel, your servants. And I am confessing on account of the sins of the sons of Israel that we have sinned against you. Even I and the house of my father, we have sinned.

UST

6 Now please pay careful attention and listen to my prayer that I am praying to you now, as I have been constantly, for the people of Israel, your chosen people. I must confess the sins that we, the people of Israel, have committed against you. Both I and my family have also sinned.

What did Nehemiah confess while praying before the God of heaven? (vv6-7)

Nehemiah confessed the sins of the people of Israel and his own sins and the sins of his family. Nehemiah said they had acted very corruptly against Yahweh and had not kept the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments that Yahweh had commanded Moses.

Nehemiah 1:7

ULT

7 With extreme corruption we have acted corruptly against you. And we have not kept the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments that you commanded Moses your servant.

UST

7 We have acted very wickedly toward you. {Many years ago} you gave us your Law through your servant Moses. But we have not obeyed your Law.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 1:8

ULT

8 Please remember the word that you commanded Moses your servant, saying, ‘If you yourselves act unfaithfully, I myself will scatter you among the peoples.

UST

8 Please call to mind the promise that you made to your servant Moses. You told him, ‘If you Israelites do not obey my commandments, I will take you from your land and make you live among the other nations.

What did Nehemiah request while praying before the God of heaven? (vv8-11)

Nehemiah requested that Yahweh would listen to his prayer. Nehemiah requested that Yahweh would remember the word he commanded Moses, promising to gather the scattered Israelites if they returned to him and kept his commandments. Nehemiah requested that Yahweh would give him success and grant him mercy.

Nehemiah 1:9

ULT

9 But if you return to me and keep my commandments and do them, although your banished ones are at the extremity of heaven, from there I will gather them and bring them to the place where I have chosen to cause my name to dwell there.'

UST

9 But if you become loyal to me again and start obeying my commandments once more, then I will bring you back to {your homeland of Judah}. That is the place {from} which I chose to start making myself famous throughout the world. I will do this no matter how far you have been taken away.'

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 1:10

ULT

10 And they are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great power and by your strong hand.

UST

10 We are your chosen people, whom you rescued {from slavery in Egypt}. {You did that easily because} you are so very powerful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 1:11

ULT

11 Ah! My Lord, please let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants, the ones who delight to fear your name. And please cause your servant to succeed today, and give him mercies before the face of this man." Now as for me, I was a cupbearer for the king.

UST

11 O my Lord, please pay careful attention to my prayer and to the prayers of {my fellow Israelites}. We are eager to honor you. Please grant that the king {will agree to the request that I hope to make soon}." At that time, I was {an important official who served the wine at} the king's {table}.

To whom did Nehemiah serve as cupbearer?

Nehemiah served as cupbearer to the king.

Nehemiah 2

Nehemiah 2:1

ULT

1 And it happened that, in the month of Nisan, in year 20 of Artaxerxes the king, wine was before his face. And I lifted the wine, and I gave it to the king, and I was not unpleasant before his face.

UST

1 I prayed like this for four months. Then one day in the month of Nisan, still in the twentieth year of the reign of Artaxerxes, something happened. {When it was time to serve} the wine, I took some and gave it to the king. I had never before looked sad in his presence.

At what date did Nehemiah, when he was sad, give wine to the king?

Nehemiah gave wine to the king in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes.

Nehemiah 2:2

ULT

2 And the king said to me, “Why is your face unpleasant? Now as for you, you are not sick. This is nothing except unpleasantness of heart.” And I was extremely much afraid.

UST

2 {No one was supposed to look unhappy in the king’s presence. But the king noticed that I did look sad.} So he asked me, “Why are you sad? I can tell that you are not sick. You must be unhappy about something.” This made me very afraid.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:3

ULT

3 And I said to the king, “May the king live to eternity! Why should not my face be unpleasant, when the city, the house of the graves of my fathers, is desolate, and its gates have been consumed by fire.”

UST

3 I replied to the king, “Your Majesty, I hope you will live {a very long time}! {I am sorry, but I cannot help being sad.} I am sad because the city of Jerusalem, the place where my ancestors are buried, lies in ruins. {Our enemies} have burned down its gates.”

Why was Nehemiah sad?

He was sad because Jerusalem, the city of the graves of his fathers, was desolate and its gates had been consumed by fire.

Nehemiah 2:4

ULT

4 And the king said to me, “For what is this you are seeking?” And I prayed to the God of heaven.

UST

4 The king replied to me, “What do you want {me to do for you}?” {Before I answered him}, I prayed to the God who is in heaven.

When the king asked what Nehemiah wanted him to do, what did Nehemiah do?

Nehemiah prayed to the God of heaven.

What did Nehemiah want the king to give him permission to do? (vv4-5)

Nehemiah wanted permission from the king to go to Judah to rebuild the city.

Nehemiah 2:5

ULT

5 And I said to the king, “If it is good to the king, and if your servant is good before your face, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of the graves of my fathers, and I will build it.”

UST

5 Then I replied to the king, “If it seems like a good {idea} to you, and if you are pleased with me, then {please} allow me to go to Judah, to Jerusalem. {I would like} to {help my people} rebuild the city where my ancestors are buried.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:6

ULT

6 And the king said to me, with the queen sitting beside him, “Until when will be your journey? And when will you return?” And it was good before the face of the king, and he sent me, and I gave to him a time.

UST

6 {I was able to speak freely because this was a private meal,} with the queen sitting next to the king. The king asked me, “How long would you be away?” I told him how long I would be gone. That was acceptable to him, and he gave me permission to go. So I told him what day {I wanted to leave}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:7

ULT

7 And I said to the king, “If it is good to the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of Beyond-the-River, that they will bring me across as far as where I enter into Judah;

UST

7 I also said to the king, “If it seems like a good {idea} to you, {please} give me letters {that I can show} to the governors of {the province} Beyond the River. In these letters, {please tell them} to give me {safe} passage through their province to Judah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:8

ULT

8 and a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the forest that belongs to the king, that he will give to me timbers to lay the beams of the gates of the citadel, which is for the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house into which I will enter.” And the king gave to me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

UST

8 {Please} also {write} a letter {for me} to Asaph, the man who takes care of your royal forest {in that area}. {Please tell} him to give me timber to make the beams to support the gates of the fortress that is near the temple. {Please} also {tell him to give me timber} for the city wall and for the house that I will live in.” God was with me and helping me, and so the king agreed to {all of} my {requests}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:9

ULT

9 And I came to the governors of Beyond-the-River, and I gave to them the letters of the king. And the king sent with me officers of the army and horsemen.

UST

9 {When I left to travel to Judah,} the king sent along some army officers and soldiers riding on horses {to protect me}. When I reached {the province} Beyond the River, I went {to see} its governors. I showed them the letters the king had given me, {and they gave me safe passage}.

When the king sent Nehemiah with officers of the army and horsemen, why were Sanballat and Tobiah displeased? (vv9-10)

Sanballat and Tobiah were displeased that someone had come who wanted to seek good for the people of Israel.

Nehemiah 2:10

ULT

10 And Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah, the servant, the Ammonite, heard. And it was evil to them, a great evil, that someone had come to seek good for the sons of Israel.

UST

10 {One of the people I showed my letters to was} Sanballat the Horonite. {He was the governor of Samaria, the area right next to Judah.} He and his deputy, Tobiah the Ammonite, became very upset when they learned that someone had come to help the people of Israel. {They did not want to see Judah become strong again, because that would be a threat to Samaria.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:11

ULT

11 And I came to Jerusalem, and I was there three days.

UST

11 But I made it {safely} to Jerusalem {despite their opposition}. I stayed there for three days,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:12

ULT

12 And I arose in the night, myself and a few men with me, and I did not tell anyone what my God had been giving to my heart to do for Jerusalem. Now there was no animal with me except the animal upon which I was riding.

UST

12 I did not say {publicly} what God was leading me to do for Jerusalem. Instead, I got up {secretly} in the night {to inspect the city walls}. I brought {only} a few other men with me. {So that we could work quietly,} the only animal I brought with me was the one that I was riding.

When Nehemiah arose in the night, who did he tell what God had put into his heart to do for Jerusalem?

At that time, Nehemiah did not tell anyone what his God had put into his heart to do for Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 2:13

ULT

13 And I went out at the gate of the valley at night, even to the face of the spring of the dragon, and to the gate of dung. And I was looking intently at the walls of Jerusalem, seeing that they were broken down, and its gates had been consumed by fire. [1]

UST

13 That night we went out through the Valley Gate and went past the Dragon Well to the Rubbish Gate. We made a careful inspection of the walls of Jerusalem. We {noted where our enemies} had broken down the walls, and {where} they had burned up the wooden gates.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:14

ULT

14 And I crossed to the gate of the spring and to the pool of the king, but there was no place for the animal under me to pass.

UST

14 Then we came to the Fountain Gate and the Royal Pool. {The opening there was so narrow that} the animal I was riding could not get through.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:15

ULT

15 And I was going up by the wadi at night, and I was looking intently at the wall. And I turned back, and I came in at the gate of the valley, and I returned.

UST

15 So we followed {the path of} the {Kidron} Brook, {even though} it was night. {From there} we were able to look {up} at the wall {and see its condition}. {This route} brought us back {to where we started}. We re-entered {the city} through the Valley Gate, and I went back {home without being seen}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:16

ULT

16 Now the prefects did not know where I had gone or what I was doing. And until this time I had not yet told the Jews, or the priests, or the nobles, or the prefects, or the rest of the doers of the work.

UST

16 The city officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing. To that point I had not said {anything about it} to the Jewish leaders, the priests, the leading citizens, or the city officials. {I had not approached} anyone {about} doing the work {of rebuilding the walls}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:17

ULT

17 And I said to them, “You see the evil that we are in, that Jerusalem is desolate and its gates have been burned by fire. Come, and let us build the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be a reproach.”

UST

17 {But} now I said to them, “You see what a desperate situation we are in. You see that Jerusalem lies in ruins, and {our enemies} have burned down its gates. {We need to} do something {about this!} {I challenge all of you to} join me in rebuilding the wall of Jerusalem. Then we will not have to feel ashamed any more.”

When Nehemiah told the rulers, the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the rest who did the work that the good hand of his God was on him and about the words the king had spoken to him, what did they say and do? (vv17-18)

They said that they would rise and build, and they strengthened their hands for the good work.

Nehemiah 2:18

ULT

18 And I declared to them the hand of my God, that it was good upon me, and also the words of the king that he had spoken to me. And they said, “We will rise up and build.” And they strengthened their hands for good.

UST

18 Then I told them how God had been with me and had been helping me. I also told them how the king had given me permission to come. {When they heard this,} they said, “Let’s get going and start building!” They encouraged one another {and committed themselves} to the project.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 2:19

ULT

19 And Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah, the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian heard, and they mocked us, and they despised us. And they said, “What is this thing that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?”

UST

19 Then Sanballat the Horonite, his deputy Tobiah the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian heard {that we had started to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem}. They ridiculed us mercilessly. They said, “What you are doing is not going to amount to anything! {But} you should not be rebelling against the king {like that}!”

How did Nehemiah respond to Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem when they heard about the work, and mocked and ridiculed the workers? (vv19-20)

Nehemiah responded by saying that God would give them success, that they were God’s servants, and that Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem had no share, no right, and no memorial in Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 2:20

ULT

20 And I returned them a word, and I said to them: “The God of heaven, he will cause us to succeed, and we ourselves, his servants, will rise up and build. But for you there is neither share nor right nor memorial in Jerusalem.”
2:13 [1]

UST

20 But I answered them {firmly}. I said, “The God who is in heaven is the one who will enable us to complete this project. We are his chosen people. We are going to start rebuilding. But you have absolutely nothing to do with what happens in Jerusalem.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3

Nehemiah 3:1

ULT

1 And Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the gate of sheep. They themselves consecrated it and erected its doors. And they consecrated it as far as the tower of the hundred and as far as the tower of Hananel.

UST

1 {These are the names of the people who helped to rebuild the wall around Jerusalem.} Eliashib the Supreme Priest and his fellow priests began by rebuilding the Sheep Gate. They dedicated this gate {to God, as a symbolic way of dedicating the entire wall.} Then they set the doors of the Sheep Gate in place. They rebuilt the wall as far as the Tower of 100 Soldiers and {beyond that} to the Tower of Hananel. Then they dedicated that part of the wall {to God} as well.

Who built and consecrated the Sheep Gate?

Eliashib built and consecrated the Sheep Gate along with his brothers, the priests.

Nehemiah 3:2

ULT

2 And the men of Jericho built at his hand. And Zaccur the son of Imri built at his hand.

UST

2 Next to them, people from Jericho rebuilt {part of the wall}. Next to them, Zaccur, the son of Imri, rebuilt {part of the wall}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:3

ULT

3 And the sons of Hassenaah built the gate of fish. They themselves laid its beams and erected its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

UST

3 The sons of Hassenaah rebuilt the Fish Gate. They framed it with {wooden} beams, they set its doors in place, and they installed bolts and bars {for locking the gate}.

Who built the Fish Gate?

The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate.

Nehemiah 3:4

ULT

4 And Meremoth, the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, strengthened at their hand. And Meshullam, the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel, strengthened at their hand. And Zadok the son of Baana strengthened at their hand.

UST

4 Next to them, Meremoth, the son of Uriah and grandson of Hakkoz, repaired {part of the wall}. Next to him, Meshullam, the son of Berekiah and grandson of Meshezabel, repaired {part of the wall}. Next to him, Zadok the son of Baana repaired {part of the wall}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:5

ULT

5 And the Tekoites strengthened at their hand, but their nobles did not bring their necks to the service of their lords.

UST

5 Next to him, some people from Tekoa repaired {part of the wall}. But the leading citizens of Tekoa were too proud to do the work that the leaders {of Judah had asked them to do}.

Whose nobles refused to do the work ordered by their lords?

The nobles of the Tekoites refused to do the work.

Nehemiah 3:6

ULT

6 And Joiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah, strengthened the gate of old. They themselves laid its beams and erected its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

UST

6 Joiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah, repaired the Old Gate. They framed it with {wooden} beams, they set its doors in place, and they installed bolts and bars {for locking the gate}.

Who repaired the Old Gate?

Joiada and Meshullam repaired the Old Gate.

Nehemiah 3:7

ULT

7 And Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, men of Gibeon and the Mizpah, strengthened at their hand, to the seat of authority of the governor of Beyond-the-River.

UST

7 Next to them, Melatiah from {the city of} Gibeon, Jadon from {the town of} Meronoth, and other men from Gibeon and from the {city of} Mizpah repaired {part of the wall}. They repaired it as far as the residence of the governor of {the province} Beyond the River.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:8

ULT

8 Uzziel, the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths, strengthened at his hand. And Hananiah, a son of the perfumers, strengthened at his hand. And they restored Jerusalem as far as the broad wall.

UST

8 Next to them, Uzziel the son of Harhaiah repaired {part of the wall}. He was one of the goldsmiths, {the workers who made jewelry and other objects from gold}. Next to him, Hananiah repaired {part of the wall}. He was one of the workers who made perfumes. They rebuilt the wall of Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

Who repaired Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall?

Uzziel and Hananiah repaired that portion of Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 3:9

ULT

9 And Rephaiah, the son of Hur, the administrator for half of the district of Jerusalem, strengthened at their hand.

UST

9 Next to them, Rephaiah the son of Hur repaired {part of the wall}. Rephaiah ruled half of the district of Jerusalem.

Who repaired another section along with the Tower of Ovens?

Malkijah (the son of Harim) and Hasshub repaired another section and the Tower of Ovens.

Nehemiah 3:12

ULT

12 And Shallum, the son of Hallohesh, the administrator for half of the district of Jerusalem, strengthened at his hand, he and his daughters.

UST

12 Next to them, Shallum the son of Hallohesh repaired {part of the wall}. Shallum ruled the {other} half of the district of Jerusalem. His daughers worked with him on the repairs.

Who helped Shallum repair the walls?

His daughters helped him.

Nehemiah 3:13

ULT

13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah strengthened the gate of the valley. They themselves built it and erected its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and a thousand cubits of the wall as far as the gate of dung.

UST

13 Hanun and some people from {the city of} Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They rebuilt the gate, they set its doors in place, and they installed bolts and bars {for locking the gate}. They also repaired 1500 feet of the wall, as far as the Rubbish Gate.

Who repaired the Valley Gate as far as the Dung Gate?

Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate and the entire portion of wall between the Valley Gate and the Dung Gate.

Nehemiah 3:14

ULT

14 And Malkijah, the son of Recab, the administrator for the district of Beth-Hakkerem, strengthened the gate of dung. He himself was building it and erecting its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

UST

14 Malkijah. the son of Rechab, repaired the Rubbish Gate. Malkijah ruled the district of Beth-Hakkerem. He rebuilt the gate, he set its doors in place, and he installed bolts and bars {for locking the gate}.

Who repaired the Dung Gate?

Malkijah (the son of Recab) repaired the Dung Gate.

Nehemiah 3:15

ULT

15 And Shallun, the son of Kol-Hozeh, the administrator for the district of the Mizpah, strengthened the gate of the spring. He himself was building it and covering it and erecting its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and the wall of the pool of Shelach at the garden of the king even as far as the stairs descending from the city of David. [1]

UST

15 Shallun the son of Kol-Hozeh repaired the Fountain Gate. Shallun ruled the district of Mizpah. He rebuilt the gate and put a roof over it, he set its doors in place, and he installed bolts and bars {for locking the gate}. Near the Pool of Siloam he also repaired the wall next to the royal garden, as far as the steps that went down from the City of David.

Who repaired the Fountain Gate and the wall of the Pool of Siloam?

Shallun repaired the Fountain Gate and the wall of the Pool of Siloam.

Nehemiah 3:16

ULT

16 After him, Nehemiah, the son of Azbuk, the administrator for half of the district of Beth-Zur, strengthened as far as in front of the graves of David, and as far as the pool that was made, and as far as the house of the mighty men.

UST

16 Next to him, Nehemiah the son of Azbuk repaired {the wall} as far as the place opposite the tombs in {the City of} David, to the reservoir that the people had made and the army barracks. Nehemiah ruled half of the district of Beth-Zur.

Who repaired from the place across from the tombs of David to the house of the mighty men?

Nehemiah the son of Azbuk repaired that section.

Nehemiah 3:17

ULT

17 After him, the Levites strengthened: Rehum the son of Bani; at his hand, Hashabiah, the administrator for half of the district of Keilah, strengthened for his district;

UST

17 Next to him, some Levites repaired {parts of the wall}. One of them was Rehum the son of Bani. Next to them, Hashabiah, who ruled half of the district of Keilah, repaired {a section of the wall} on behalf of the people of his district.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:18

ULT

18 after him, their brothers strengthened, Binnui, the son of Henadad, the administrator for half of the district of Keilah.

UST

18 {Some other Levites} repaired the next {section of the wall}. Next to them, Binnui the son of Henadad, who ruled the other half of the district of Keilah, repaired {more of the wall}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:19

ULT

19 And at his hand, Ezer, the son of Jeshua, the administrator for the Mizpah, was strengthening a second section opposite the ascent to the armory at the angle.

UST

19 Next to him, Ezer the son of Jeshua repaired another section {of the wall}. Ezer ruled the {city of} Mizpah. {He started} from a place in front of the steps that went up to the building for storing weapons, {and he finished} at the place where the wall bends slightly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:20

ULT

20 After him, Baruch the son of Zabbai burned, and strengthened a second section from the angle as far as the opening of the house of Eliashib the high priest. [2]

UST

20 Next to him, Baruch the son of Zabbai repaired another section with great enthusiasm, from the bend in the wall as far as the door of the house of Eliashib the Supreme Priest.

Who repaired from the angle to the door of the house of Elisahib the high priest?

Baruch repaired it.

Nehemiah 3:21

ULT

21 After him, Meremoth, the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, strengthened a second section, from the opening of the house of Eliashib even as far as the end of the house of Eliashib.

UST

21 Next to him, Meremoth, the son of Uriah and grandson of Hakkoz, repaired another section, from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of that house.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:22

ULT

22 And after him, the priests, the men of the valley, strengthened.

UST

22 Next to him, some priests from the area around {Jerusalem} repaired {a section of the wall}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:23

ULT

23 After him, Benjamin and Hasshub strengthened in front of their house. After him, Azariah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, strengthened beside his house.

UST

23 Next to them, Benjamin and Hasshub repaired {a section} opposite their house. Azariah, the son of Maaseiah and grandson of Ananiah, repaired the next {section}, beside his house.

Which section of the wall did Benjamin and Hasshub repair?

They repaired the section in front of their own house.

Nehemiah 3:24

ULT

24 After him: Binnui the son of Henadad strengthened a second section from the house of Azariah as far as the angle and as far as the corner;

UST

24 Next to him, Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah to the bend in the wall as far as the bulwark.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:25

ULT

25 Palal the son of Uzai, from opposite the angle and the tower projecting from the upper house of the king which is by the court of the guard; after him, Pedaiah the son of Parosh.

UST

25 {Next to him,} Palal the son of Uzai {repaired a section}. He began at the place opposite the bend in the wall {where} the watchtower is taller than the upper palace that King {Solomon built}. That is near the courtyard where the guards live. Next to him, Pedaiah the son of Parosh {repaired a section}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:26

ULT

26 And the Nethinim were dwelling in the Ophel, as far as in front of the gate of water to the east and the projecting tower.

UST

26 The temple servants who lived on Ophel {Hill} {repaired the wall} as far as the eastern side of the Water Gate, {where there is} a tall tower.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:27

ULT

27 After him, the Tekoites strengthened a second section from in front of the high projecting tower even as far as the wall of the Ophel.

UST

27 Next to them, the people from Tekoa repaired another section, from opposite the very tall watchtower as far as the wall at Ophel {Hill}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:28

ULT

28 The priests strengthened from above the gate of horses, a man to the front of his house.

UST

28 A group of priests repaired {the wall} starting at the Horse Gate. Each one repaired {the section} in front of his own house.

Who did the repairs on the section above the Horse Gate?

The priests repaired that section. Each of the priests repaired in front of his own house.

Nehemiah 3:29

ULT

29 After him, Zadok the son of Immer strengthened in front of his house. And after him, Shemaiah, the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the gate of the east, strengthened.

UST

29 Next to them, Zadok the son of Immer repaired {the section} in front of his house. Then Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, who was the gatekeeper at the East Gate, repaired the next {section}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:30

ULT

30 After him, Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, with Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, strengthened a second section. After him, Meshullam the son of Berechiah strengthened in front of his chamber. [3]

UST

30 Next to him, Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. Next to them, Meshullam the son of Berechiah repaired {the section} opposite the rooms {where} he {lived}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:31

ULT

31 After him, Malkijah, a son of the goldsmiths, strengthened as far as the house of the Nethinim and the merchants in front of the gate of mustering, even as far as the upper chamber of the corner. [4]

UST

31 Malkijah, who was {another} one of the goldsmiths, repaired the next {section}, as far as the building used by the temple servants and the merchants. That building was opposite the Appointment Gate. He {rebuilt the wall} as far as the upper apartments {of this building}, which were on the corner.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 3:32

ULT

32 And the goldsmiths and the merchants strengthened between the upper chamber of the corner to the gate of sheep.
3:15 [1]
3:20 [2]
3:30 [3]
3:31 [4]

UST

32 Some of the {other} goldsmiths, along with some merchants, repaired {the last section of the wall} from the corner apartments to the Sheep Gate.

Who repaired the wall between the upper changes of the corner and the Sheep Gate?

The goldsmiths and the merchants repaired that section.

Nehemiah 4

Nehemiah 4:1

ULT

1 And it happened that, when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, it burned him, and he was very angry. And he mocked at the Jews.

UST

1 When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the {city} wall, he became furious, and he mocked the Jews.

Who mocked the Jews when they heard the Jews were building the wall? (vv1-3)

Sanballat and Tobiah mocked the Jews.

Nehemiah 4:2

ULT

2 And he spoke before the face of his brothers and the army of Samaria, and he said, “What are the feeble Jews doing? Will they restore for themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a day? Will they bring to life the stones from piles of dust, when they have been burned?”

UST

2 He spoke to the {other provincial} officials and army officers. He said, “These weak Jews will not be able to accomplish anything! They will never restore {the city! Their God} will not help them. They do not realize what a long time it would take to repair {that wall. The only way} they can get stones {is} by pulling them out of rubbish heaps. And {the Babylonians} burned {the city, so those} stones are probably weak {anyway}.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:3

ULT

3 And Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him. And he said, “Yes, if a fox goes up on what they are building, then he would break down their wall of stones!”

UST

3 Tobiah the Ammonite was standing beside Sanballat. He made fun of the Jews by saying, “Right! The wall that they are building {is so weak} that if a fox walked across the top {of it}, it would fall down!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:4

ULT

4 Hear, our God, that we are a contempt, and cause their taunts to return on their heads! And give them for plunder in a land of captivity.

UST

4 {When I heard about what they were saying, I prayed to God and said,} "O our God, listen {to the way} they are mocking us! Make {them fail in their attempts to stop us,} so that {other} people will mock them! Allow their enemies to capture them and force them to go to a foreign land!

Why did Nehemiah ask God not to cover over the iniquity of Sanballat and Tobiah? (vv4-6)

Nehemiah asked God not to cover their iniquity because they had contempt for the Jews and provoked the builders to anger.

Nehemiah 4:5

ULT

5 And do not cover over their iniquity, and do not wipe out their sin from before your face, for they have provoked anger before the front of the builders.

UST

5 {They are guilty, and they have sinned against you.} Do not take away their guilt, and do not ignore their sin! {I am asking this} because they are also causing others to be angry at the people who are rebuilding the wall!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:6

ULT

6 So we built the wall, and all the wall was joined together up to half of it. And the heart of the people was for working.

UST

6 But we kept building the wall, {and after some time,} we finished the wall around the whole city to about half the necessary height. Everyone was determined to accomplish this.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:7

ULT

7 And it happened that, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the health of the walls of Jerusalem was going up and the breaks were beginning to be closed, it burned them extremely.

UST

7 But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the men from {the land of} Arabia, the men from {the nation of} Ammon, and the men from {the city of} Ashdod heard that we were continuing to repair the wall of Jerusalem and to fill in the gaps, they became furious.

When Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites came to fight against Jerusalem, what did the builders and people do? (vv7-9)

They prayed to their God and set a guard as protection.

Nehemiah 4:8

ULT

8 And all of them together conspired to come to fight against Jerusalem and to make confusion for it.

UST

8 All of them together made a plan to come and fight against the people of Jerusalem. They wanted to make the people inside the city confused {and divided}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:9

ULT

9 And we prayed to our God. And we set up a guard on account of them, by day and by night against their faces.

UST

9 But we prayed to our God {to protect us}, and we stationed lookouts {on the walls} at all times to watch out for them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:10

ULT

10 And Judah said, “The strength of the burden-bearers is failing, and there is much rubble. And as for us, we are not able to build the wall.”

UST

10 Then the people of Judah started saying, “The people who are carrying {the stones} are getting worn out. There is too much rubbish. We are not going to be able to {finish} rebuilding the wall.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:11

ULT

11 And our adversaries said, “They will not know, and they will not see until when we come into their midst and kill them. And we will cause the work to stop.”

UST

11 Then our enemies {started} saying, “Before {the Jews} know we are coming, we will rush {down} on them and kill them and stop their work {on the wall}!”’

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:12

ULT

12 And it happened that, when the Jews dwelling beside them came, they said to us ten times, “From all the places where you turn, they are on us!” [1]

UST

12 And when some of the Jews who lived near {our enemies} came {to Jerusalem}, they pleaded with us repeatedly, “Let {our men} return {home so} they {can defend} us!”

What did Nehemiah do after the Jews warned him of the schemes being made against them? (vv12-14)

After learning of the schemes against them, Nehemiah positioned people in the lowest parts of the wall, in the bare areas. He positioned each family with their weapons. Nehemiah told the people to not be afraid of their enemies, but to remember the great and fearsome Lord and to fight for their families and homes.

Nehemiah 4:13

ULT

13 And I stationed from the lowest of places behind the wall, in the bare places; and I stationed the people by families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

UST

13 But I put {guards} behind the wall at the places where it was low or where there were gaps. I also had people from each family group stand {guard} with their swords, spears, and bows and arrows.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:14

ULT

14 And I looked, and I rose up, and I said to the nobles, and to the prefects, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of their faces. Remember my great and fearsome Lord! And fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses.”

UST

14 After I had inspected {everything}, I summoned the leading citizens and the city officials and many of the other people, and I said to them, “Do not be afraid of our enemies! The Lord is great and awesome, {so} think about {what he can do}. And fight to {protect} your families, your sons and daughters, your wives, and your homes!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:15

ULT

15 And it happened that, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had frustrated their counsels, all of us returned to the wall, a man to his work.

UST

15 When our enemies learned that we had found out about {their plan}, they realized that God had kept them {from launching a surprise attack}. {They decided not to attack us.} So we all went back to {working on} the wall. Each person continued doing {the same} work {as before}.

What did the enemies hear?

They heard that the workers knew their plans and that God had frustrated their plans.

Nehemiah 4:16

ULT

16 And it happened that, from that day, half of my young men were doing the work, and half of them were grasping, even the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the breastplates. And the officials were behind all the house of Judah.

UST

16 But after that, {only} half of my servants worked {on the wall}. The other half of them {stood guard} armed with spears, shields, bows and arrows, and metal armor. Officers {stood} behind the workers and guards {to encourage everyone and to give orders in case there was an attack}.

What were the young men doing?

Half of them were working on rebuilding the wall and half of them were holding their weapons and armor.

Nehemiah 4:17

ULT

17 Those who were building the wall, and those who were carrying burdens, the loaders, they were doing the work with one of his hands and one grasping weaponry.

UST

17 Those who were building the wall and those who carried the heavy loads {always} had their weapons with them {so that they would be prepared to fight off an attack}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:18

ULT

18 And the builders: a man girded his sword to his loins and built. And the one who blew the ram's horn was beside me.

UST

18 Each builder worked with his sword strapped to his side. {I stationed} someone next to me who would blow a ram's horn {if we needed a signal}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:19

ULT

19 And I said to the nobles and to the prefects and to the rest of the people, “The work is great and vast, and we are separated on the wall, a man far from his brother.

UST

19 Then I said to the leading citizens, the city officials, and many of the other people, “We are working over a very wide area, and we are far apart from each other along the wall.

What reason did Nehemiah give for sounding the ram’s horn as a signal to fight? (vv19-20)

Nehemiah explained that the workers were separated on the wall, far from one another.

Nehemiah 4:20

ULT

20 At the place where you hear the sound of the ram’s horn, you shall gather to us there. Our God will fight for us.”

UST

20 But wherever you hear {the man} sounding the ram’s horn, gather around us at that place. Our God will fight for us!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:21

ULT

21 So we were doing the work. And half of them were grasping spears from the rising of the dawn until the coming out of the stars.

UST

21 So we continued to work {on rebuilding the wall}. Half of the men {served as guards} and kept their weapons ready at {all} times.

Why did some people not go to their homes to sleep? Why did some people not change their clothes? (vv21-23)

Some people did not go to their homes or change their clothes so that they could spend the night in the middle of Jerusalem, being a guard during the night and a worker in the day.

Nehemiah 4:22

ULT

22 Also, at that time I said to the people, “Let a man and his young man lodge the night in the midst of Jerusalem, and they will be for us by night a guard and by day a worker.”

UST

22 At that time, I also said to the people, “Each {worker} and his servant must spend the night inside Jerusalem {and not go home if they live outside the city}. {That way} the city will have plenty of defenders {even} at night, and they can {still} work {on the wall} during the daytime.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 4:23

ULT

23 And neither I, nor my brothers, nor my young men, nor the men of the guard who were behind me, none of us stripped off our clothes, or a man his weapon at the water. [2]
4:12 [1]
4:23 [2]

UST

23 {During that time} none of us took off our clothes. I did not, and my brothers, my servants, and my personal bodyguard did not. Each of us {always had} our weapons {with us}, {even when we were washing ourselves}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 5

Nehemiah 5:1

ULT

1 And there was a great outcry of the people and their wives against their brothers, the Jews.

UST

1 {Around this same time,} many of the men and their wives complained bitterly about what their fellow Jews were doing to them.

Why did the men and women raise a great outcry against their fellow Jews? (vv1-5)

They raised an outcry because some of them had to mortgage their property in order to get grain, some of them had to put their children in bondage as slaves, and some of them had to borrow silver in order to pay the kings taxes on their fields and vineyards.

Nehemiah 5:2

ULT

2 And there were those who said, “Our sons and our daughters, we are many. And let us take grain, so we can eat, and we can live.”

UST

2 Some of them began, “We have many children. We need to get {a lot of} food to feed them {all}.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 5:3

ULT

3 And there were those who said, “We are mortgaging our fields and our vineyards and our houses so we can get grain during the famine.”

UST

3 Others added, “We have had to promise to give someone our fields, vineyards, and houses if we do not pay back the money {he} has loaned us. We had {to borrow the money} to buy food during this time when food is scarce.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 5:4

ULT

4 And there were those who said, “We have borrowed silver for the tribute of the king on our fields and our vineyards.

UST

4 Still others said, “We have had to borrow money to {pay} the taxes that the king {commanded us to pay} on our fields and our vineyards.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 5:5

ULT

5 And now, our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our sons are as their sons. And behold, we are putting our sons and our daughters into bondage as slaves. There are those even of our daughters who have been put into bondage, and there is nothing to God in our hand, for our fields and our vineyards belong to others.”

UST

5 {This is how bad things have gotten.} We are selling our children into slavery. In fact, we have even sold some of our daughters. Our creditors took the fields and vineyards {we pledged as security for loans}, so there was nothing {else} we could do. But we are Jews, just like the people who are doing these things to us!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 5:6

ULT

6 And it burned me extremely when I heard their outcry and these words.

UST

6 I got very angry when I heard these things that they were complaining about.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 5:7

ULT

7 And my heart reigned over me, and I contended with the nobles and with the prefects. And I said to them, “You are lending interest, a man against his brother!” And I put forth a great assembly against them.

UST

7 I thought hard about what to do. Then I brought charges against the leading citizens and the city officials. I called together a large group of people {to hear} the charges against them. I told these leaders, “You are charging interest {on loans} to your fellow Jews. {You know that is forbidden in the Law of Moses}.”

What did Nehemiah do when he heard the outcry of the Jewish men and women against their fellow Jews?

He contended with the nobles and with the prefects and said to them, “You are lending interest, a man against his brother!” And he put forth a great assembly against them.

Nehemiah 5:8

ULT

8 And I said to them, “We ourselves, according to our ability, have bought back our brothers, the Jews, the ones who were sold to the nations. But even you yourselves are selling your brothers, and they are being bought back by us!” Then they were silent, and they did not find a word.

UST

8 I said to them, “Whenever our fellow Jews have had to sell themselves into slavery to people from {other} nations, to {the best of} our ability we have been buying them back. But you are actually selling your fellow Jews into slavery to get back the money they owe you. These are some of the very people we have been buying back!” They knew that these charges were true, so there was absolutely nothing they could say in response.

Although the men and women were buying back from slavery their Jewish brothers who had been sold to the nations, what were the nobles and the prefects doing?

They were selling their brothers and sisters, who were then being bought back by other Jewish men and women.

Nehemiah 5:9

ULT

9 And I said, “This thing that you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies? [1]

UST

9 Then I said to them, “What you are doing is wrong! You certainly ought to obey God and do what is right! Otherwise, our enemies will mock us even more.

Why did Nehemiah command the nobles and the prefects to return the property they taken from the people? (vv9-11)

He commanded them to do that because what they were doing was not good.

Nehemiah 5:10

ULT

10 Also, even I, my brothers, and my young men are lending against them silver and grain. Please, let us forsake this interest!

UST

10 I myself, my relatives, and my servants have been lending money and grain {to anyone in need without charging interest}. All of us should stop charging interest on loans.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 5:11

ULT

11 Please, even today, return to them their fields, their vineyards, their olive orchards, and their houses, and a hundred of the silver and the grain, the new wine, and the oil that you are lending against them.”

UST

11 Give them back their fields, vineyards, olive orchards, and houses. Do it right away! And pay back the 12% annual {interest you have been collecting} on the money, grain, wine, and olive oil that you have lent them.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 5:12

ULT

12 And they said, “We will return, and we will seek nothing from them. Thus we will do according to what you say.” And I called the priests, and I caused them to swear to do according to this word.

UST

12 These leaders replied, “Yes, we will do what you say. We will give back {their fields, vineyards, olive orchards, and houses}. And we will stop {charging} them {interest}.” Then I called the priests, and I made the leaders swear {to God in front of them} that they would do what they had promised.

How did the nobles and the prefects respond to Nehemiah’s command? (vv12-13)

They said they would return what they had taken, that they would not take anything more, and that they would do as Nehemiah commanded.

Nehemiah 5:13

ULT

13 Also, I shook out my bosom, and I said, “Thus may God shake out from his house and from his labor every man who does not cause this word to stand. And thus may he be shaken out and emptied.” And all the assembly said, “Amen!” And they praised Yahweh, and the people did according to this word.

UST

13 I also shook out the folds of my robe and said to them, “In this same way, may God fling anyone who does not keep this oath away from everything he owns. Yes, may that person lose everything!” Then everyone who was there said, “We agree!” And they praised Yahweh. After that none of the Jews took houses or fields to guarantee loans, and none of them charged interest any more.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 5:14

ULT

14 Also, from the day that he appointed me to be their governor in the land of Judah, from year 20 even until year 32 of Artaxerxes the king, twelve years, I myself did not eat the bread of the governor, nor did my brothers.

UST

14 Here is something else I did to help the people. Artaxerxes, the king {of Persia}, had appointed me to be the governor of {the province of} Judah during the twentieth year {of his reign}. During the twelve years from the time that he appointed me until the thirty-second year of his reign, I did not accept the governor’s food allowance, and {I did not use it to feed} my relatives. {I knew that the people were poor and could not afford to pay for it.}

Why did neither Nehemiah nor his brothers take the food provided for the governor during the 12 years he was Judah’s governor? (vv14-15)

He did not do so because he feared God, and because the former governors had laid heavy burdens on the people.

Nehemiah 5:15

ULT

15 But the former governors who were before my face had been heavy on the people, and they took from them bread and wine, after forty silver shekels. Also, their young men had acted dominantly over the people. But I myself did not do thus, from the face of the fear of God.

UST

15 The governors before me had made life very difficult for the people. They had demanded that the people supply them with bread and wine and forty silver shekels every day. Even their servants oppressed the people. But I respected and honored God, and so I did not oppress them.

Nehemiah 5:16

ULT

16 Yes, also I held fast to the work of this wall, and we did not buy a field. And all my young men were gathered there for the work.

UST

16 I devoted myself to the work of {rebuilding} the wall. {My relatives and I} did not buy any property, {even though we could have gotten it cheaply because the poor were so desperate}. I also assigned all of my servants to work {on the wall}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 5:17

ULT

17 Now the Jews and the prefects were 150 men at my table, with the ones coming to us from the nations that were around us.

UST

17 {As governor,} I {was responsible for} feeding 150 Jewish leaders and city officials. I also entertained {Jewish} visitors who came from nearby countries.

Who ate at Nehemiah's table?

Those who ate at Nehemiah's table were the Jews and the prefects, 150 men, and also those who came to Nehemiah from among the nations who were around them.

Nehemiah 5:18

ULT

18 And what was made for one day was one bull, six choice sheep, and birds were made for me, and between ten days all kinds of wine in abundance. So with this I did not seek the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy on this people.

UST

18 Each day {I told my servants} to prepare {for us} one ox, six good sheep, and various kinds of poultry. I paid for these myself. Every ten days I also brought in an abundant supply of various kinds of wine. But {I knew that} the people were struggling to survive, and so {I paid for all of these things at my own expense}. I did not accept the governor's food allowance.

Nehemiah 5:19

ULT

19 Remember me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.
5:9 [1]

UST

19 My God, think of me, and reward me for all the good that I have done for the people of Judah.

Why did Nehemiah ask God to call him to mind for good?

Nehemiah asked God to do this because of all that he (Nehemiah) had done for the people.

Nehemiah 6

Nehemiah 6:1

ULT

1 And it happened, when it was heard by Sanballat and Tobiah, and by Geshem the Arabian, and by the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall and a break was not remaining in it (although until that time I had not set up the doors in the gates),

UST

1 Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arabian, and our other enemies learned that we had finished rebuilding the wall, and that there were now no more gaps in it. (However, we had not yet put the doors in the gates.)

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 6:2

ULT

2 that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, “Come, and let us appoint a time to meet together among the villages in the valley of Ono.” And they were thinking to do evil to me.

UST

2 So Sanballat and Geshem sent me {a message that} said, “We want to arrange to meet with you in one of the villages in the plain of Ono.” But {I knew that they were saying this because} they wanted to harm me.

When Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem asked Nehemiah to meet with them in the plain of Ono, what was their intention?

Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem intended to do evil to Nehemiah.

Nehemiah 6:3

ULT

3 And I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work, and I am not able to go down. Why should the work stop while I abandon it and go down to you?”

UST

3 So I sent messengers to tell them, “The work I am doing {here} is very important. I am not able to travel {while it is going on}. There is no reason for me to stop the work and leave it so that I can meet with you.”

How did Nehemiah respond to the requests of their enemies?

Nehemiah sent messengers to them saying, “I am doing a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?”

Nehemiah 6:4

ULT

4 And they sent to me according to this word four times, and I turned them back according to this word.

UST

4 They sent me the same message four times, and {each time} I refused them for this same reason.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 6:5

ULT

5 Then Sanballat sent his young man to me a fifth time according to this word, and an opened letter was in his hand.

UST

5 Then Sanballat sent one of his servants to me bringing the same request for a fifth time. This time the message was written, but it was not sealed. Sanballat {left the letter unsealed so that others would find out what it said, because he wanted to pressure me to meet with him}.

How did Nehemiah respond to Sanballat's fifth message?

Nehemiah responded by saying that Sanballat had invented the reports in his own heart.

What did Sanballat say in his fifth message? (vv5-6)

He said that all the nations had reported that Nehemiah and the Jews were planning to rebel, and the king would certainly hear these reports.

Nehemiah 6:6

ULT

6 In it was written, "It is heard among the nations, and Gashmu is saying, that you and the Jews are thinking to rebel, therefore you are building the wall. And you are becoming a king over them, according to these words.

UST

6 The letter said, "{The people in} the countries {around us} are saying, and Geshem confirms {that it is true}, that you and the Jewish people are planning to rebel {against King Artaxerxes}. That is why you are rebuilding the wall. {They are also} saying that you intend to become the king of the Jews yourself.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 6:7

ULT

7 And also, you have set up prophets to call out concerning you in Jerusalem, saying, ‘A king is in Judah!’ And now, it will be heard by the king according to these words. So now, come, and let us consult together.”

UST

7 {These people are} also {saying that} you have appointed prophets to make a proclamation about you in Jerusalem. They are saying, ‘The Jews {now} have a king {of their own}!’ King Artaxerxes will certainly hear these reports, {and when he does, he will be very angry with you}. So we really should meet together and talk {about this}.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 6:8

ULT

8 And I sent to him, saying, “No such thing has been done according to these words that you are saying, but you are inventing them out of your own heart.”

UST

8 I sent {a message} back to him saying, “None of these things that you are saying are true. You are just making them up yourself.”

How did Nehemiah respond to Sanballat’s fifth message?

Nehemiah responded by saying Sanballat had invented the reports in his own heart.

What did Nehemiah pray when he realized that Sanballat and Jews’ enemies were trying to make the work stop and the Jews afraid? (vv8-9)

Nehemiah prayed that God would strengthen his hands.

Nehemiah 6:9

ULT

9 For all of them were frightening us, saying, “Their hands will drop from the work, and it will not be done.” So now, strengthen my hands.

UST

9 I knew that they were all {just trying to} frighten us. They thought, “{The Jews will become so afraid that} they will stop working {on the wall}, and they will never finish {rebuilding it}.” So {I prayed, “O God,} give me courage.{”}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 6:10

ULT

10 Now as for me, I entered the house of Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, and he was confined. And he said, “Let us appoint a time to meet in the house of God, in the midst of the temple. And let us shut the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you. Yes, at night they are coming to kill you.”

UST

10 {Around this time} I went to visit Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah and grandson of Mehetabel. {I went to see him in his home, because} he was not leaving {his house}. He was a priest, and he was trying to show that it was not safe for Jewish leaders to go out in public. He told me, “{We are not safe even here.} We need to go into the temple and lock the doors, because people are trying to kill you. One night they are going to come and kill you.”

Why did Nehemiah refuse to meet Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, in the temple? (vv10-11)

Nehemiah refused because he thought a man like himself should neither run away to save his own life nor hide in the temple.

Nehemiah 6:11

ULT

11 And I said, “Should a man such as I run away? And who, such as I, is it that could go in to the temple and live? I will not go in!”

UST

11 I responded, “I am not the kind of man who would run away! Besides, I am the governor, {and everyone knows me,} so I could not save my life by {trying to} hide in the temple. I refuse to do it!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 6:12

ULT

12 And I recognized, and behold, God had not sent him. But he spoke the prophecy against me, for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

UST

12 All of a sudden I realized that God had not given Shemaiah a prophetic message for me. Instead, he was saying these things because Tobiah and Sanballat had paid him {to say them}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 6:13

ULT

13 For this purpose he was hired, so that I would be afraid, and I would do thus and sin. And it might become an evil name to them, so that they could reproach me.

UST

13 {They} had paid him the money specifically to {say things that} would scare me. They were hoping they could make me sin {by abandoning my responsibilities and hiding in the temple}. {If I had done that,} they would have ruined my reputation and discredited me.

What would have happened if Nehemiah had gone into the temple?

He would have sinned and given himself a bad name, and Sanballat and Tobiah might have reproached him.

Nehemiah 6:14

ULT

14 My God, remember Tobiah, and Sanballat according to these deeds of his, and also Noadiah the prophetess, and the rest of the prophets who are frightening me.

UST

14 {So I prayed,} "My God, treat Tobiah and Sanballat the way they deserve for what they have done. Do the same for the female prophet Noadiah and all the other prophets who are {trying to} make me afraid."

What did Nehemiah pray the second time?

He prayed God would remember Tobiah, and Sanballat according to their deeds, as well as the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets who were trying to frighten Nehemiah.

Nehemiah 6:15

ULT

15 And the wall was finished on 25 of Elul, on day 52.

UST

15 We finished {rebuilding} the wall on the twenty-fifth {day} of the month of Elul, after {working on it} for 52 days.

Why did Nehemiah's enemies become afraid and fall in their own esteem when the wall was finished? (vv15-16)

They became afraid because they knew the work was done with the help of the Jews' God.

Nehemiah 6:16

ULT

16 And it happened that, when all our enemies heard, all the nations that were around us were afraid, and they fell extremely in their eyes. And they knew that this work was done by our God.

UST

16 When all of our enemies learned that we had completed the rebuilding in such a short time, they realized that our God must have helped {us}. This made the people in the countries around us lose all of their confidence.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 6:17

ULT

17 Also, in those days, the nobles of Judah were multiplying their letters going to Tobiah, and those belonging to Tobiah were coming to them.

UST

17 During this time, the leading citizens of Judah were writing many letters to Tobiah {to give him information about me}, and he was sending letters back to them {with instructions}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 6:18

ULT

18 For many in Judah were masters of oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah. And Jehohanan his son had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

UST

18 Tobiah was married to the daughter of {a powerful and influential member of the community,} Shecaniah the son of Arah. His son Jehohanan was married to the daughter of {another powerful and influential man,} Meshullam the son of Berechiah. And so, for those reasons, many people in Judah had sworn oaths to {be loyal to} Tobiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 6:19

ULT

19 Also, they were saying his good deeds before my face, and they were taking out my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

UST

19 {The people who were loyal to Tobiah} would also {come and} tell me what good things he was doing, and then they would report to him everything I said {in response}. Tobiah also sent me many letters to try to make me afraid.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 7

Nehemiah 7:1

ULT

1 And it happened that, when the wall was built and I had set up the doors, the gatekeepers and the ones who sang and the Levites were appointed.

UST

1 Once we had finished rebuilding the wall and we had put the doors in the gates, we assigned the gatekeepers and singers and Levites to their tasks.

When did Nehemiah give his brother Hanani charge over Jerusalem? (vv1-2)

Nehemiah gave Hanani charge of Jerusalem after he (Nehemiah) had finished the wall, set up the doors, and appointed the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites.

Nehemiah 7:2

ULT

2 And I gave Hanani, my brother, and Hananiah, the official for the citadel, charge over Jerusalem. For he was according to a faithful man, and he feared God more than many.

UST

2 I appointed two men to {help me} govern Jerusalem, my brother Hanani and Hananiah, the commander of the fortress {in Jerusalem}. I appointed Hananiah because he was trustworthy, and because he showed God more reverence and respect than most people do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 7:3

ULT

3 And I said to them, “Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun becomes hot. And while they are still standing, let them shut the doors, and they must bar them. And set up watches for those who dwell in Jerusalem, a man in his watch, and a man in front of his house.”

UST

3 I told them, “Do not open the gates of Jerusalem until broad daylight. {That way we will be able to see anything our enemies are doing.} Have the gatekeepers close {the gates} and put the bars across the doors while they are still guarding {the gates before they go home for the night}.” I also told them, “Have the men who live in Jerusalem take turns keeping watch in their own neighborhoods.”

When were the gates of Jerusalem supposed to be opened?

The gates were supposed to be opened when the sun became hot.

Nehemiah 7:4

ULT

4 Now the city was wide on two hands and great, and the people were few in the midst of it. And there were no built houses.

UST

4 The city of Jerusalem covered a large area, but {at that time} not many people lived in the city, and they had not yet built houses {for themselves}.

Although the city was wide and large, were there people and houses within it?

There were few people within the city, and no built houses.

Nehemiah 7:5

ULT

5 And my God gave to my heart, and I gathered together the nobles and the prefects and the people to be enrolled by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy for the ones who came up at the first. And I found written in it:

UST

5 So {as a first step towards filling Jerusalem with people again}, God led me to gather together the leading citizens and the city officials and the other people {living in the city} to register them according to their family histories. I also found a book containing the records of the first group of people who had returned {to Jerusalem} from the exile. This is what those records said.

What did God put into Nehemiah's heart to do?

God put into Nehemiah's heart to gather together the nobles, the prefects, and the people to be enrolled by genealogy.

Nehemiah 7:6

ULT

6 "These are the sons of the province, the ones who went up from the captivity of the exiles, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon exiled. And they returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, a man to his city,

UST

6 "These are {the names of} the people from Judah who returned home from exile. Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had taken {their ancestors} away {to Babylon}. But they returned to Jerusalem and to {other places in} Judah. They returned to the {same} towns where their {ancestors had lived}.

Nehemiah 7:64

ULT

64 These ones sought their record among the ones who were enrolled by genealogy, but it was not found. And they were desecrated from the priesthood.

UST

64 These {priests} searched the records that contained the names of the Israelite ancestors, but they could not find the names of their families. {They did not qualify to be priests because they could not trace their family history,} so they were not allowed to have {the rights and duties of} priests.

What was done concerning the priests who could not find their genealogical records? What did the Tirshatha restrict them from doing?

The priests who could not find their genealogical records were desecrated from the priesthood. The Tirshatha said that they should not be allowed to eat the holy food from the sacrifices until a priest stood with Urim and Thummim.

Nehemiah 7:65

ULT

65 And the Tirshatha said to them that they must not eat from the holiest holy food until the priest stood with Urim and Thummim.

UST

65 The governor told them that they must not eat any of the share of food taken from the sacrifices and kept for the priests. They would have to wait until the priest {in charge of the temple} had begun his duties and could ask {God} what to do {about this situation}.

What was done concerning the priests who could not find their genealogical records? What did the Tirshatha restrict them from doing?

The priests who could not find their genealogical records were desecrated from the priesthood. The Tirshatha said they should not be allowed to eat the priest’s share of food from the sacrifices.

When might the priests who could not prove their genealogy be included in the priesthood again?

They might be included when there was a priest to stand with Urim and Thummim.

Nehemiah 7:66

ULT

66 All the assembly, as one, was 42, 360:

UST

66 Altogether, 42360 people {returned to Judea}.

How many people were counted in the enrollment of the assembly?

The whole assembly was counted to be 42,360 people.

Nehemiah 7:70

ULT

70 And some from the extremity of the heads of the fathers gave to the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasury 1,000 gold darics, 50 basins, 530 tunics of priests.

UST

70 Some of the leaders of the ancestral clans gave {gifts} for the work {of rebuilding the temple}. The governor gave into the treasury more than 8 kilograms of gold, 50 bowls {to be used in the temple}, and 530 robes for the priests.

Who gave gifts for the work? (vv70-72)

Some of the heads of ancestors' families gave gifts, as did both the Tirshatha and the rest of the people.

Nehemiah 7:71

ULT

71 And some from the heads of the fathers gave to the treasury of the work 20,000 gold darics and 2, 200 silver minas.

UST

71 Some of the leaders of the ancestral clans also gave into the {temple} treasury for the work {of rebuilding the temple a total of} 153 kilograms of gold, and 1460 kilograms of silver.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 7:72

Nehemiah 7:73

ULT

73 And the priests, and the Levites, and the gatekeepers, and the ones who sang, and some from the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel dwelt in their cities. And the seventh month came, and the sons of Israel were in their cities.

7:43 [1]

7:68 [2]

UST

73 So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the {temple} workers, and many ordinary people {started to} live in the {towns and} cities {of Judea where} their {ancestors had lived}. All these people were Israelites. By the seventh month {all of} the Israelites had gone to their cities and had started living in them.

When did the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants, and people live in their cities?

They lived in their cities by the seventh month.

Nehemiah 8

Nehemiah 8:1

ULT

1 And all the people gathered as one man to the open area that is before the face of the gate of water. And they said to Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which Yahweh had commanded Israel.

UST

1 A huge crowd of people gathered together in the plaza that was near the Water Gate. They asked Ezra the scribe to bring out the scroll of the law that Moses {had written down}, and which Yahweh had given to the people of Israel {for them to obey its rules and commands}.

Why did the people gather together on the first day of the seventh month, and every day until the end of the feast? (vv1-2)

The people gathered together to listen to the book of the law.

Nehemiah 8:2

ULT

2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the face of the assembly of both men and women and all who were understanding to hear, on day one of the seventh month.

UST

2 Ezra the priest, {who served God by offering sacrifices in the temple,} brought out the law {and presented it} before all the people, to both men and women, and {children} who were old enough to understand what he read. He did this on the first day of the seventh month {of that year}.

Who gathered together to listen to the book of the law? (vv2-3)

Men, women, and anyone who could understand gathered to listen to it.

Nehemiah 8:3

ULT

3 And he read it aloud before the face of the open area that is before the face of the gate of water, from the light until the middle of the day, in front of the men and the women, and the ones who were understanding. And the ears of all the people listened to the book of the law.

UST

3 So he read aloud from the book in the plaza that was near the Water Gate throughout the whole morning. He read it in front of all the people, both men and women and {children} who {were old enough} to understand what he read. And all the people listened carefully to the laws that were written {on the scroll}.

Why did the people gather together on the first day of the seventh month, and every day until the end of the feast?

The people gathered together to listen to the book of the law of Moses.

Nehemiah 8:4

ULT

4 And Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood that they had made for the purpose. And beside him stood: Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and from his left, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malkijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, Meshullam.

UST

4 Ezra the scribe stood on top of a {high} wooden platform that the people had built for this purpose. At his right side stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah. At his left side stood Pedaiah, Mishael, Malkijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 8:5

ULT

5 And Ezra opened the book before the eyes of all the people, for he was higher than all the people. And as soon as he opened it, all the people stood.

UST

5 Ezra {stood on the platform} above all the people so that everyone could see him. He opened the scroll, and as he did that all the people stood up.

Who read from the book of the law?

Ezra and the Levites read from the book of the law.

Nehemiah 8:6

ULT

6 And Ezra blessed Yahweh the great God. And all the people answered, “Amen! Amen!” with their hands uplifted. And they knelt and prostrated themselves to Yahweh, nostrils to the ground.

UST

6 Then Ezra praised Yahweh, the great God, and all the people lifted up their hands {to show that they were praying with him}. {At the end of his prayer} they said, “We agree!” Then they all bowed down with their faces touching the ground, and they worshiped Yahweh.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 8:7

ULT

7 And Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites were causing the people to understand the law. And the people were in their place.

UST

7 Then Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, who were all Levites, explained the meaning of the laws {of Moses} to the people who were standing there.

Who read from the book of the law? (vv7-8)

Ezra and the Levites read from the book of the law.

Why did the Levites read carefully and set the interpretation of the book of the law? (vv7-8)

They did those things so that the people could understand the reading.

Nehemiah 8:8

ULT

8 And they read aloud carefully from the book, from the law of God, and set the interpretation. And they understood the reading. [1]

UST

8 They read clearly from the scroll of the law of God, and they explained what it meant, so that the people understood what {Ezra and the others} were reading.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 8:9

ULT

9 And Nehemiah, who was the Tirshatha, and Ezra, the priest, the scribe, and the Levites who were causing the people to understand, said to all the people: “Today is holy; it belongs to Yahweh your God. Do not mourn and do not weep.” For all the people were weeping after they heard the words of the law.

UST

9 Then the people began to cry from sadness when they heard what the law said. So Nehemiah (who was the governor), Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were explaining the meaning to the people, said to all the people, “Today is a festival day on which you are supposed to worship Yahweh your God. Do not mourn or cry!”

Why did Nehemiah, Ezra, and the Levites command all of the people to celebrate with great joy and not to mourn, weep, or grieve? (vv9-10)

They commanded the people to celebrate and not to mourn, weep, or grieve because the day was holy to Yahweh their God and because the joy of Yahweh was their strength.

Nehemiah 8:10

ULT

10 And he said to them, “Go, eat the fat and drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared, for today is holy, belonging to our Lord. And do not grieve, for, the joy of Yahweh, it is your strength.”

UST

10 Then Nehemiah said to them, “{Now} go home, eat some good food, and drink something sweet. And share some of it with those who are not able to afford {rich food and drink}, because today is a holy day set apart {to worship} our Lord. So do not grieve, because the joy that Yahweh gives will strengthen you.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 8:11

ULT

11 And the Levites caused all the people to be silent, saying, “Hush, for today is holy. And do not grieve.”

UST

11 The Levites also told the people {who were crying} to stop, saying, “Today is a holy day! So, shhh. Do not grieve.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 8:12

ULT

12 And all the people went to eat and to drink and to send away portions and to make a great rejoicing, for they understood the words that had been made known to them.

UST

12 So all the people went {home} to eat and drink and share what they had. And they were very happy, because they understood {the meaning of} the words that {Ezra had read and} the others had explained to them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 8:13

ULT

13 And on the second day, the heads of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites were gathered to Ezra the scribe, even to give attention to the words of the law.

UST

13 On the next day, the clan leaders of all the people and the priests and the Levites met together with Ezra the scribe. They wanted {to study} carefully what was written in the law {that Yahweh had given to Moses}. They wanted to understand it {better}.

What insight did the leaders of the ancestors' families, the priests, and the Levites gain when they came together to learn from Ezra? (vv13-14)

They learned that Yahweh had commanded the people of Israel to live in tents during the festival of the seventh month.

Nehemiah 8:14

ULT

14 And they found written in the law that Yahweh commanded by the hand of Moses: that the sons of Israel should live in huts during the feast in the seventh month;

UST

14 They learned that the law said that Yahweh had told Moses to command the Israelite people to live in shelters during a festival in the seventh month. {This was so that they would remember that their ancestors had lived in shelters when they walked in the wilderness after leaving Egypt.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 8:15

ULT

15 and that they should cause others to hear and cause a sound to pass throughout all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, “Go out to the mountain, and bring branches of olive, and branches of oil trees, and branches of myrtle, and branches of palms, and branches of leafy trees, to make huts, as it is written.”

UST

15 {They} also {learned} that they should publicly proclaim, in all their towns and in Jerusalem, that the people should go into the hills and cut branches. These should be from olive trees, wild olive trees, myrtle trees, palm trees, and shade trees. They must bring these branches and make shelters {to live in during the festival}. That was what the scroll instructed.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 8:16

ULT

16 And the people went out and brought and made huts for themselves, a man on his roof, and in their courtyards, and in the courtyards of the house of God, and in the open area of the gate of water, and in the open area of the gate of Ephraim.

UST

16 So the people went out {of the towns and cut branches} and brought {them} to make shelters for themselves. They built shelters on the {flat} roofs {of their houses}, in their courtyards, in the courtyards of the temple, in the plaza near the Water Gate, and in the plaza near the Ephraim Gate.

Where did the people make their huts to celebrate the festival?

The people made their huts on their own roofs, in their courtyards, in the courts of the house of God, in the open place by the Water Gate, and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim.

Nehemiah 8:17

ULT

17 And all the assembly, the ones who returned from the captivity, made huts, and they dwelt in the huts. For the sons of Israel had not done thus from the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day. And there was extremely great rejoicing.

UST

17 All of the Israelite people who had returned from Babylon built shelters and lived in them {for one week}. Now the Israelite people had never celebrated {that festival} like this since Joshua the son of Nun {led them into this territory}. This was the {first} time they were doing it. And the people were very happy.

Where did the people make their huts to celebrate the feast?

The people made their huts on their own roofs, in their courtyards, in the courts of the house of God, in the open place by the Water Gate, and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim.

When was the last time the people of Israel had obeyed the command of Yahweh to celebrate the feast?

The last time the feast had been celebrated was in the days of Joshua the son of Nun.

Nehemiah 8:18

ULT

18 And he read aloud from the book of the law of God, day by day, from the first day to the last day. And they made a seven-days feast, and on the eighth day an assembly, according to the ordinance.
8:8 [1]

UST

18 Every day during that week {Ezra} read aloud {to the people} from the scroll of the law of God. They celebrated the festival for seven days. On the eighth day, they called for all the people to come together {so they could hold a ceremony to bring the festival to an end}. That was what the scroll instructed.

Why did the people gather together on the first day of the seventh month, and every day until the end of the feast?

The people gathered together to listen to the book of the law.

Nehemiah 9

Nehemiah 9:1

ULT

1 And on day 24 of this month the sons of Israel were gathered in fasting and in sackcloth, and dust was upon them.

UST

1 Two days later, the Israelite people gathered together again. {To show that they were sorry for their sins,} they went without food, they wore {clothes made from} rough cloth, and they put dirt on their {heads}.

In general, what were the people of Israel doing as they gathered together on the twenty-fourth day of the same month? (vv1-2)

The people of Israel were fasting, wearing sackcloth, and putting dust on their heads. The Israelites separated themselves from all the foreigners, and they stood and confessed their own sins and the sins of their ancestors.

Nehemiah 9:2

ULT

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all the sons of a foreigner. And they stood, and they confessed concerning their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.

UST

2 The descendants of Israel separated themselves away from all the descendants of foreigners. They stood there and confessed their own sins and the wicked things their ancestors had done.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:3

ULT

3 And they rose up in their place, and they read aloud the book of the law of Yahweh their God a fourth of the day, and a fourth of the day were confessing and prostrating themselves to Yahweh their God.

UST

3 They stood in place and {listened to someone} read from the scroll of the law of Yahweh their God for three hours. Then for another three hours they confessed their sins and bowed down and worshiped Yahweh their God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:4

ULT

4 And Jeshua rose up on the stairs of the Levites, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, Kenani. And they cried out with a loud voice to Yahweh their God.

UST

4 {Some of} the Levites stood up on the stairs, including Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, another {man} named Bani, and Kenani. And they cried out {sorrowfully} in a loud voice to Yahweh their God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:5

ULT

5 And the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, Pethahiah, said: “Rise up! Bless Yahweh your God from eternity to eternity! And may they bless your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

UST

5 Then some Levites spoke. They were named Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah. They said, “Stand up and praise Yahweh your God, who has always {lived} and will {live} forever! Yahweh, we praise your glorious name! Your name is more important than everything else that is good and wonderful!

What did the people say about Yahweh? (vv5-6)

The people said he alone was Yahweh. The people said that Yahweh had made the heavens, the heavens of the heavens, the earth, the seas, and all that was in them. The people said that Yahweh gave life to everything.

Nehemiah 9:6

ULT

6 You alone are he, Yahweh: you yourself made the heavens, the heavens of the heavens and all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them; and you cause all of them to live; and the host of the heavens prostrates themselves to you. [1][2]

UST

6 You are Yahweh, and no one else. You made the heavens that are above everything, and all that lives in the heavens {above the earth}. You made the earth and everything that is on it, and you made the seas and everything that is in them. You are the one who causes all living things to be alive. Everything that {lives} in the heavens {above the earth} worships you.

Nehemiah 9:7

ULT

7 You are he, Yahweh, the God who chose Abram. Also, you brought him out from Ur of the Chaldees. Also, you made his name ‘Abraham.’

UST

7 You are Yahweh! You are the God who chose Abram and brought him out of {the city of} Ur, where the Chaldean people {lived}. You changed his name to Abraham.

What else did the people say of Yahweh concerning Abram? (vv7-8)

The people said that Yahweh had chosen Abram, changed his name to Abraham, found his heart faithful, and made the covenant with him to give his descendants the land.

Nehemiah 9:8

ULT

8 Also, you found his heart faithful before your face: and cut with him the covenant, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give to his seed; and you have caused your words to stand, for you are righteous.

UST

8 You saw that he was faithful to you in his inner being. You made a promise to him {pledged with blood}, promising that you would give a land {to him} and to his descendants. This was the land where the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, and the Girgashites {lived}. And you did what you promised, because you {always} do what is right.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:9

ULT

9 And you saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and you heard their cry at the sea of reeds.

UST

9 You saw how {the Egyptians} mistreated our ancestors in Egypt. You heard them cry out {to you for help} when they were beside the Red Sea.

How did the people say that Yahweh kept his promise to them? (vv9-10)

The people told how Yahweh brought their forefathers out of Egypt, showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh and his people, and saved their forefathers at the Red Sea.

Nehemiah 9:10

ULT

10 And you gave signs and wonders to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all the people of his land, because you knew that they were acting presumptuously toward them. And you made for yourself a name, as it is this day.

UST

10 You knew that {the leaders of Egypt} were treating {our ancestors} very arrogantly. So you performed miracles for Pharaoh and his officials and all the people of Egypt. {These proved you are the true God.} You made yourself famous, and you are still famous!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:11

ULT

11 And you split open the sea before their face, and they passed through the midst of the sea on the dry land. And you cast their pursuers into the depths, like a stone in mighty waters.

UST

11 You divided the sea in front of {your people Israel}, and they {walked} through the middle of the sea on dry land. But you drowned {the soldiers of the Egyptian army} under the waters. They sank as a stone sinks in deep water!

What did the people say that Yahweh did for the Israelites at the Red Sea?

Yahweh parted the sea so they could pass through on dry ground, and then he brought the sea back onto those that were pursuing them.

Nehemiah 9:12

ULT

12 And you led them with a pillar of cloud by day, and with a pillar of fire by night to shine for them on the way in which they should go.

UST

12 During the day you led {your people} by a cloud {that looked like a huge} pillar. At night you led them by a fire {that looked like a huge} pillar. It shone on the path in front of them to show them where they should walk.

What other ways did they say Yahweh took care of the Israelites? (vv12-13)

Yahweh led them by a pillar of cloud during the day and a pillar of fire during the night. Also, Yahweh gave them his ten commandments at Mount Sinai.

Nehemiah 9:13

ULT

13 And you came down on the mountain of Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. And you gave to them just judgments and laws of truth, good statutes and commandments.

UST

13 When {our ancestors} were at Sinai Mountain, you appeared to them and spoke to them from heaven. You gave them honest instructions and trustworthy laws. You gave them good rules and commands.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:14

ULT

14 And you made known to them your holy sabbath. And you charged them with commandments, and statutes, and a law, by the hand of Moses your servant.

UST

14 You taught them about your Sabbath {day of rest}. It is set apart {from the other days of the week}. You gave commands and rules and laws for the people by your servant Moses.

What else did the people say Yahweh provided to their forefathers? (vv14-15)

Yahweh made his holy Sabbath known to them, gave them bread from heaven, water from a rock, and told them to possess the land he had promised them.

Nehemiah 9:15

ULT

15 And you gave to them bread from heaven for their hunger, and you brought out for them water from a rock for their thirst. And you said to them to go in to possess the land that you had raised your hand to give to them.

UST

15 When they were hungry, you gave them bread from heaven. When they were thirsty, you gave them water from a rock. You told them to go and take the land {of Canaan}, which you had promised with a vow to give them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:16

ULT

16 But they and our fathers, they acted presumptuously. And they stiffened their neck and did not listen to your commandments.

UST

16 But our ancestors were proud and stubborn. They refused to obey what you commanded them {to do}.

How did the Israelites and their ancestors act toward God? (vv16-17)

The Israelites were disrespectful and stubborn. They refused to listen, rebelled, and appointed a leader to return them to their slavery.

Why did God not abandon the Israelites when they were disrespectful, stubborn, rebellious, and disobedient? (vv16-17)

God did not abandon the Israelites because he is a God who is full of forgiveness, gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, and abounding in covenant faithfulness.

Nehemiah 9:17

ULT

17 And they refused to hear, and they did not remember your wonderful deeds that you performed with them. And they stiffened their neck and in their rebellion chose a head in order to return to their servitude. But you are a God of forgiveness, gracious and compassionate, long of nostrils and abounding in covenant faithfulness, and you did not forsake them.

UST

17 They refused to obey you. They did not consider all the miracles that you had performed for them. They became stubborn and rebelled against you. They appointed a leader to take {them} back {to Egypt}, where they would be slaves {again}! But you are a God who forgives us. You act kindly and mercifully {toward us}. You do not become angry quickly. Instead, you faithfully love {us} very much. So you did not leave {our ancestors} alone {in the desert}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:18

ULT

18 Even when they made for themselves a calf image and said, ‘This is your God who brought you up from Egypt,’ and they performed great blasphemies,

UST

18 Indeed {you did not leave them alone}, even though they made an idol for themselves {that resembled} a calf. They said {about the idol}, ‘This is our god, who brought us up out of Egypt.’ By doing that they insulted you greatly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:19

ULT

19 still you, in your great mercies, did not forsake them in the wilderness. He did not take away the pillar of cloud from over them by day to lead them on the way, nor the pillar of fire by night to shine for them and on the way in which they should go.

UST

19 But because you always act mercifully, you did not leave them alone in the desert. During the daytime, the cloud {that looked like a huge} pillar above them continued to lead them in the way {you wanted them to go}. And during the night, the fire {that looked like a huge} pillar shone on the path in front of them to show them where to walk.

Nehemiah 9:20

ULT

20 And you gave your good spirit to give them insight. And you did not withhold your manna from their mouth, and you gave them water for their thirst.

UST

20 You gave them your good Spirit to instruct them. You continued to give them manna when they were hungry, and you gave them water when they were thirsty.

How did the people say God provided for their forefathers for forty years in the wilderness?

Yahweh gave his good Spirit to instruct them. Yahweh gave them food and water; also, their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not swell.

Nehemiah 9:21

ULT

21 And you sustained them forty years in the wilderness; they did not lack. Their clothes did not wear out, and their feet did not swell.

UST

21 For forty years you took care of them in the desert. During all that time, they had everything they needed. Their clothes did not wear out. Their feet did not swell up, {even though they were continually walking}.

How did the people say God provided for their forefathers for forty years in the wilderness?

Yahweh gave his Spirit to instruct them. He provided food and water; their clothes did not wear out, and their feet did not swell.

Nehemiah 9:22

ULT

22 And you gave to them kingdoms and peoples, and you allocated to them as far as the corners. And they took possession of the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og, the king of Bashan.

UST

22 You helped {our ancestors} to defeat {the armies of great} kings {who ruled} many people. {By doing that,} you allowed {our ancestors} to settle in every part {of this land}. They took over the land that King Sihon ruled from {the city of} Heshbon and the land that King Og ruled in the Bashan {area}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:23

ULT

23 And you multiplied their sons like the stars of the heavens. And you brought them to the land that you said to their fathers to enter in order to possess it.

UST

23 You gave so many children to {our ancestors} that they were like the stars {in the sky}. You brought them into this land, which you had told their parents to enter and take for themselves {so that they could live there}.

What did the people say happened after their forefathers were in the wilderness? (vv23-24)

The people said that Yahweh multiplied their families, told them to go in and possess the land he had promised them, and subdued the Canaanites.

Nehemiah 9:24

ULT

24 And the sons went in and possessed the land, and before their face you subdued the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites. And you gave them into their hands, and their kings, and the peoples of the land, to do with them according to their will.

UST

24 Their children went in and took the land. You enabled them to defeat the people who were living there. They were {the descendants of} Canaan. You enabled them to conquer their kings and all the people who {lived} there. They were able to do whatever they wanted to those people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:25

ULT

25 And they captured fortified cities and fat ground. And they possessed houses full of all good things, hewn cisterns, vineyards, and olive orchards, and food trees in abundance. And they ate and were satisfied and grew fat and reveled in your great goodness.

UST

25 {Our ancestors} captured cities that had walls around them. They took possession of fertile fields. They took possession of houses that were already full of all kinds of good things, and wells that someone had already dug. They took possession of many vineyards and groves of olive trees and fruit trees. They ate all that they wanted and became fat. They enjoyed {all} the many good things you did {for them}.

How did the Israelites live after taking possession of the land God had promised them?

The Israelites took the land. They ate and were satisfied and grew fat. They reveled in God's great goodness.

Nehemiah 9:26

ULT

26 And they disobeyed and rebelled against you, and they cast your law behind their back. And they killed your prophets, who testified against them in order to bring them back to you. And they performed great blasphemies.

UST

26 But they turned against you. They rejected your law. They killed the prophets who warned them that they should return to {obeying} you. They {said and} did very evil things {against you}.

What did the people say Yahweh did to their forefathers and ancestors after they became disobedient and rebelled against him? (vv26-27)

Yahweh handed them over to their enemies, who made them suffer.

Nehemiah 9:27

ULT

27 And you gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they harassed them. And in the time of their distress they cried out to you, and you yourself heard from heaven. And, according to your many mercies, you gave to them saviors, and they saved them from the hand of their adversaries.

UST

27 So you allowed their enemies to defeat them. But when their enemies caused them to suffer, they called out to you. You heard them from heaven, and because you are very merciful, you sent them people to help them. Those {leaders} rescued them from their enemies.

When the Israelites cried out to God, what did God do for them because of his great mercies?

God rescued them from their enemies many times.

Nehemiah 9:28

ULT

28 And after rest belonged to them, they returned to doing evil before your face. And you left them to the hand of their enemies, and they oppressed them. And they returned and cried out to you, and you yourself heard from heaven and delivered them many times according to your mercies.

UST

28 But when there was {a time of} peace {again}, {our ancestors} again did evil things that you {hated}. So you allowed their enemies to conquer {them} and rule over them. But {whenever} they returned to you and cried out to you again {to help them}, you heard them from heaven. You rescued them many times, because you {always} act mercifully.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:29

ULT

29 And you testified against them to bring them back to your law. But as for them, they acted presumptuously and did not listen to your commandments. And, concerning your judgments, they sinned against them, which, if a person does, then he will live by them. And they gave a stubborn shoulder, and stiffened their neck, and did not hear.

UST

29 You warned them that they should return to {obeying} your laws {again}. But they became proud {and stubborn}. They would not listen to your commands. They sinned by disobeying your decrees, even though a person lives by obeying them. They purposely ignored what you commanded them to do. They became stubborn and refused to obey.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:30

ULT

30 And you continued with them many years, and you testified against them with your spirit by the hand of your prophets, but they did not give an ear. And you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

UST

30 You were patient with them for a long time. You warned them by {the messages} your Spirit gave to your prophets. But they did not listen {to those messages}. So again you allowed {the armies} of the nations nearby to defeat them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:31

ULT

31 But, in your many mercies, you did not make a complete end of them, and you did not forsake them. For you are a gracious and merciful God.

UST

31 But because you act very mercifully, you did not destroy them completely. You never left them alone. Yes, you are a very gracious and merciful God!

Nehemiah 9:32

ULT

32 So now, our God, the great, mighty, and fearsome God, who keeps the covenant and covenant faithfulness, do not let all the hardship be little before your face, that has found us, our kings, our leaders, and our priests, and our prophets, and our fathers, and all your people from the days of the kings of Assyria until this day.

UST

32 Our God, you are great and mighty and awesome! You {always} fulfill {your} promises and {always} faithfully love {us}! So now {we are praying}: Do not ignore all our difficulties. Consider all the troubles that our kings, our leaders, our priests, our prophets, our ancestors, and all of your people have experienced. We have been experiencing these troubles since {the armies of} the kings of Assyria {conquered us} until now. We are still experiencing them today.

Nehemiah 9:33

ULT

33 And you are righteous concerning all that has come upon us. For you have acted faithfully; but as for us, we have acted wickedly.

UST

33 {We know that} you have acted fairly in {letting} all these things happen to us. Yes, you have treated {us} as {we} deserve. But we have done evil things.

Nehemiah 9:34

ULT

34 And our kings, our leaders, our priests, and our fathers have not done your law. And they have not attended to your commandments or to your testimonies that you testified against them.

UST

34 {In the past,} our kings, our leaders, our priests and our {other} ancestors did not obey your laws. They did not listen to your commands or the warnings that you gave them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:35

ULT

35 And as for them, they did not serve you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave to them, and in the wide and fat land that you gave before their face. And they did not turn away from their evil deeds.

UST

35 They had their own kings. They {enjoyed} the many good things that you provided in this large and fertile land that you gave them. But {even then,} they did not serve you. They would not stop doing evil things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:36

ULT

36 Behold us today; we are servants. And the land that you gave to our fathers, to eat its fruit and its goodness; behold us, we are servants in it!

UST

36 Consider our situation! Today we {live like} slaves here in this land that you gave to our ancestors. You gave them this land so that they could enjoy all the good things that grow here. But consider us now! We are {like} slaves on this land.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 9:37

ULT

37 And its great produce belongs to the kings whom you have given to be over us in our sins, and to be ruling over our bodies and over our livestock, according to their will. And we are in great distress.

UST

37 The kings whom you have allowed to rule over us are enjoying {all} the good things that grow here. This is because we have sinned. They rule over our bodies and our cattle. They do whatever they please. We feel great distress.

Why did the rich yield from the Israelite's land go to the kings God had set over them?

The rich yield of the land went to their kings because of the Israelite's sins.

Why were the Israelites in great distress?

The Israelites were in great distress because their kings ruled over their bodies and their livestock as the kings pleased.

Nehemiah 9:38

ULT

38 And in all of this, we are cutting a faithful covenant, and writing even on a sealed document our leaders, our Levites, our priests."
9:6 [1]
9:6 [2]

UST

38 Because of all this, we {the Israelite people} are making a solemn agreement. We are writing it on a scroll. We will write down {the names of} our leaders, our Levites, and our priests. Then we will seal the scroll."

What did the Israelites do because of their great distress?

The Israelites made a firm covenant in writing with Yahweh.

Whose names were written on the sealed covenant?

The names of the Israelites' leader, Levites, and priests were written on the sealed covenant.

Nehemiah 10

Nehemiah 10:1

28 And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the ones who sing, the Nethinim, and all the ones who were separating themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons and their daughters, all who were knowing, being able to understand,

UST

28 The rest of the people {joined in this solemn agreement. This included} the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, and the {temple} workers. {It also included} everyone who agreed only to worship and obey the God of Israel, along with their wives and their sons and daughters who were {old enough} to understand what they were {doing}.

Who pledged themselves to the law of God that was given to Moses? (vv28-29)

Those that pledged themselves were the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and all the others who bound themselves to God's law.

Nehemiah 10:29

ULT

29 were clinging to their brothers, their nobles, and were entering into a curse and into an oath: to walk in the law of God, which was given by the hand of Moses the servant of God; and to keep and to do all the commandments of Yahweh our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes;

UST

29 They {all} joined with their leaders, who were important people, and together they all made a solemn agreement to obey {all} the laws that God had given by Moses his servant. They agreed that they would strictly obey everything that Yahweh our God had commanded, yes, {all of} his instructions.

30 and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, and we would not take their daughters for our sons;

UST

30 This is what {they promised to do}: "We will not give our daughters {in marriage} to people {who live} in this land {who do not worship Yahweh}. We will not allow our sons to marry their daughters.

What promises did they make to God? (vv30-31)

They promised not to give their daughters to or let their sons take daughters from the people from whom they had separated. They promised not to buy any goods on the Sabbath, or any holy day. They promised they would let their fields rest every seventh year.

Nehemiah 10:31

ULT

31 and, on the sabbath or on a holy day, we would not take from the peoples of the land, the ones bringing goods and all kinds of grain to sell on the day of the sabbath; and we would leave alone the seventh year and interest of every hand.

UST

31 People from other groups {who live} in this land might bring merchandise and all kinds of food to sell on Sabbath days. But we will not buy anything from them on a Sabbath {day} or any other sacred day. Every seventh year, we will let {the fields} rest {and not plant any crops. That same year} we will not make anyone pay back {anything they owe} to another person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 10:32

ULT

32 Also, we caused to stand for us commandments to give over us a third of a shekel in a year for the service of the house of our God:

UST

32 We each also agreed to a pledge that {every} year we would pay 4 grams of silver for the {supplies} needed for the temple.

What commands did they accept? (vv32-33)

They would give money, bread, grain, and provide for all the offerings and feasts each year for the service of the house of God.

Nehemiah 10:33

ULT

33 for the bread in rows and the continual offering, and for the continual burnt offering, the sabbaths, the new moons, for the appointed times, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to cover over for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.

UST

33 {Here is a list of those supplies.} The {sacred} bread that is placed {before God}. The grain that is {burned on the altar} each day. {The animals that} are completely burned up {on the altar} each day. The sacred offerings for the Sabbath days and for celebrating each new moon and other {festivals} that {God} told {us to celebrate}. {Other} offerings that are dedicated {to God}. {The animals} to be sacrificed to atone for the sins of the Israelite people. Anything else {that is needed} for the work of {taking care of} the temple.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 10:34

ULT

34 And we cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people: concerning the offering of pieces of wood, to bring them to the house of our God, for the house of our fathers at the appointed times year by year, for burning on the altar of Yahweh our God as written in the law;

UST

34 We have cast lots to determine when each clan of the priests, the Levites, and {the rest of} the people will bring an offering of wood to the temple. Each clan will do this at an appointed time every year. {The Levites will use} the wood to burn {the sacrifices} on the altar that belongs to Yahweh our God. He commanded this in the law {he gave through Moses}.

Why did the priests, the Levites, and the people cast lots for the wood offering?

This would select which family would bring the wood into the house of God at selected times each year.

Nehemiah 10:35

ULT

35 and to bring the firstfruits of our soil and the firstfruits of all the fruit of every tree, year by year, to the house of Yahweh;

UST

35 We will also bring {an offering} to the temple every year from the first {grain} that we {harvest} and from all the first fruit that {grows on} all our trees.

What did they promise to bring to the house of Yahweh?

They promised to bring the firstfruits of the harvests as well as the firstborn of their sons and their livestock.

Nehemiah 10:36

ULT

36 and the firstborns of our sons and our livestock, as written in the law, even the firstborns of our herds and our flocks, to bring them to the house of our God, to the priests, the ones who minister in the house of our God.

UST

36 We will also do something else that God commanded. We will bring our firstborn sons to the temple {for dedication}, and our firstborn calves and lambs and goats {as sacrifices}, to the priests who minister in the temple.

What did they promise to bring to the house of Yahweh?

They promised to bring the firstfruits of their harvests and the firstborn of their sons and their livestock.

Nehemiah 10:37

ULT

37 And we will bring: the first of our dough and our offerings, and the fruit of every tree, wine, and oil, for the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and a tithe of our soil for the Levites. And they, the Levites, will be the ones receiving tithes in all the cities of our labor.

UST

37 We will also bring supplies to the priests that {they} can store in the temple. These will include the first grain that we {harvest}, the first flour we {make}, the first fruit from all {our} trees, and the first wine and olive oil {that we produce}. We will also bring 10 percent of our harvest to the Levites. We will allow them to collect this 10 percent right in all the towns where we work.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 10:38

ULT

38 And a priest who is a son of Aaron will be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes. And the Levites will bring a tithe of the tithe to the house of our God, to the chambers of the house of the treasury.

UST

38 A priest, one of the descendants of Aaron, will be with the Levites {and supervise} them when they collect that 10 percent. Then the Levites must bring 10 percent of what they have received to the temple. {The priests will put it} in the storerooms and it will support {them}.

Who had to be with the Levites when the Levites received the tithes?

A priest who was a descendant of Aaron had to be with the Levites.

Nehemiah 10:39

ULT

39 For the sons of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring to the chambers the offerings of grain, wine, and oil. And there shall be the vessels for the sanctuary, and the priests, the ones who are ministering, and the gatekeepers, and the ones who sing. And we shall not neglect the house of our God.
10:19 [1]

UST

39 That is how it will work. The Israelites and the Levites will bring their offerings of grain, wine, and olive oil to those storerooms. That is where {the priests} will store the equipment for the temple. And that is where {they will keep the food supplies} for the priests, the gatekeepers, and the singers who are serving at that time. We promise that we will keep taking care of the temple."

Where did the people of Israel and descendants of Levi bring the contributions of the harvest?

They brought the contributions to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary were kept.

Nehemiah 11

Nehemiah 11:1

ULT

1 And the leaders of the people dwelt in Jerusalem. And the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine hands were in the cities.

UST

1 So the {Israelite} leaders settled in Jerusalem {with their families}. The rest of the people cast lots to select one family out of ten to live in Jerusalem. That was the city set apart {for God}. The remaining nine families lived in the {other} towns.

Who lived in the holy city of Jerusalem?

The leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem, and the rest of the people cast lots to see which one person out of ten people would live there.

Nehemiah 12:42

ULT

42 and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malkijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the ones who sang made themselves heard, with Jezrahiah the overseer.

UST

42 {Others who were blowing trumpets} included Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang with Jezrahiah who was their leader.

Who directed the singers?

The singers sang with Jezrahiah as overseer.

Nehemiah 12:43

ULT

43 And on that day they sacrificed great sacrifices, and they rejoiced, for God had made them glad with great rejoicing. Yes, even the women and the children rejoiced, so the rejoicing of Jerusalem was heard from far away.

UST

43 The people offered many sacrifices that day. They {all} rejoiced because God had made them very happy. The women and the children rejoiced along with the men, so the sound of the celebration in Jerusalem was so loud that people far away could hear it.

Why did they offer great sacrifices that day, and rejoice?

They offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced, because God had made them rejoice with great rejoicing.

Nehemiah 12:44

ULT

44 And on that day men were appointed over the chambers for the storehouses, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and for the Levites. For Judah rejoiced over the priests and over the Levites, the ones who were standing.

UST

44 On that day {we} appointed men to be in charge of the storerooms. That was where {the priests} kept the money and the food and the grain and the tithes. {The people} brought these things from the fields near the cities into the storerooms for the priests and the Levites, as Moses had commanded in the law. {The people of} Judah did all this because they were so happy about the priests and the Levites serving {in the temple}.

Who was assigned to work the fields near the towns?

The men who were appointed to be in charge of the storerooms were assigned to work the fields near the towns.

Nehemiah 12:45

ULT

45 And they kept the service watch of their God and the service watch of purification, also the ones who sang and the gatekeepers, according to the commandment of David and Solomon his son.

UST

45 The priests and the Levites served God by performing rituals to purify things. The singers and the gatekeepers also {did their work} as King David and his son Solomon had declared they should.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 12:46

ULT

46 For in the days of David and Asaph, from ancient time there was a head of the ones who sang, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. [2]

UST

46 {We did all this} because that was how it was in the days of old, when David was {king} and Asaph was {in charge of the temple musicians}. There was someone to lead the singers, and they sang songs to praise and thank God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 12:47

ULT

47 And in the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah, all Israel was giving the portions of the ones who sang and the gatekeepers, as a daily matter in its day. And they were consecrating for the Levites, and the Levites were consecrating for the sons of Aaron.

12:14 [1]

12:46 [2]

UST

47 During the time when Zerubbabel was {the governor}, the people all contributed the food that the singers and temple gatekeepers needed each day. They did the same during the time when Nehemiah was {the governor}. They gave a tenth {of their crops} to the Levites, and the Levites gave a tenth {of that} to the priests, who were descendants of Aaron, {the first Supreme Priest}.

When did all Israel give the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers?

In the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah, all Israel gave the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers.

Nehemiah 13

Nehemiah 13:1

ULT

1 On that day it was read in the book of Moses, in the ears of the people, and it was found written in it, that no Ammonite or Moabite shall enter into the assembly of God until eternity.

UST

1 Then someone read out loud to the people from a scroll {that contained the law that God gave to} Moses. They learned that the {law} said that no Ammonites or Moabites should ever join the {Israelite} people {when they gathered together to worship God}.

Why should an Ammonite and a Moabite not come into the assembly of God, forever? (vv1-2)

An Ammonite and a Moabite should not come into the assembly of God forever because they had not come to the people of Israel with bread and water, but had hired Balaam to curse Israel.

Nehemiah 13:2

ULT

2 For they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and with water. And he hired Balaam against them to curse them, but our God overturned the curse to a blessing.

UST

2 {The law said this} because {the people of Ammon and the people of Moab} did not give any food or water to the Israelites {while they were traveling through their areas after leaving Egypt}. Instead, they paid Balaam to get him to curse the Israelites. But our God turned that attempt to curse Israel into a blessing.

Nehemiah 13:3

ULT

3 And it happened that, as soon as they heard the law, they separated all the mixed company from Israel.

UST

3 So the people obeyed that law. They sent away all the people whose ancestors had come from other countries.

Nehemiah 13:4

ULT

4 Now, before the face of this, Eliashib the priest, nearly-related to Tobiah, was being put in the chamber of the house of our God.

UST

4 When he became the {Supreme} Priest, Eliashib got control of the storerooms in the temple. Now he was related to Tobiah.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:5

ULT

5 And he made for him a great chamber, and there previously they were putting offerings: the frankincense; and the vessels; and the tithes of the grain, the wine, and the oil, the commandment for the Levites, and the ones who sang, and the gatekeepers; and the offerings of the priests.

UST

5 He allowed {Tobiah} to have a large room in which the priests used to store supplies. These included the grain offerings and the incense, the equipment for the temple, and the tithes of grain and wine and olive oil. {God} had commanded {the people to bring} these to the Levites, the singers, and the gatekeepers. This room had also held the offerings for the priests.

What did Eliashib prepare for Tobiah?

Eliashib prepared for Tobiah a large storeroom.

Nehemiah 13:6

ULT

6 And during all this I was not in Jerusalem. For I had gone to the king in year 32 of Artaxerxes, the king of Babylon. And at an end of days I requested leave from the king.

UST

6 During that time I was not in Jerusalem, because in the thirty-second year that Artaxerxes was the king of Babylonia, I had gone back {to report to the king what I had been doing}. After I had been there a while, I asked the king to allow me to return {to Jerusalem}.

Where did Nehemiah go in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes?

In the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes, Nehemiah returned from Jerusalem to the king.

Nehemiah 13:7

ULT

7 And I came to Jerusalem. And I noticed the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah by making for him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

UST

7 When I arrived in Jerusalem, I discovered the evil thing that Eliashib had done for Tobiah by allowing him to use this room in the temple area.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:8

ULT

8 And it was extremely evil to me, and I cast out all the things of the house of Tobiah from the storeroom to the outside.

UST

8 That grieved me very much. I threw everything that belonged to Tobiah out of that room.

Why did Nehemiah throw all the household articles of Tobiah out of the storeroom?

Nehemiah threw all the household articles of Tobiah out of the storeroom because Nehemiah thought it was very wrong for Tobiah to be staying there.

Nehemiah 13:9

ULT

9 And I spoke, and they purified the chambers. And I returned to there the vessels of the house of God, with the offering and the incense.

UST

9 Then I commanded {the priests to perform a ritual to cleanse} that room and make it pure again. I also {ordered} the equipment for the temple and the grain offerings and incense {to be} put back in that room {where they belonged}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:10

ULT

10 And I knew that the portions of the Levites had not been given, and the Levites and the ones who sang, who did the work, had fled, a man to his field.

UST

10 I also learned that the singers and the other Levites who were responsible for the {temple} services had left Jerusalem. They had returned to their own fields because the people had stopped giving them {10 percent of their} harvests, {since Tobiah had occupied the storeroom}.

Why did the Levites and singers hurry to leave the temple?

Because the people were no longer faithfully supporting God's work by giving portions to the Levites, and therefore the Levites left the temple as did the singers.

Nehemiah 13:11

ULT

11 And I contended with the prefects, and I said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them and caused them to stand at their stations.

UST

11 So I rebuked the city officials. I told them, "You have neglected {the work of} the temple!" Then I brought {the Levites and the singers} back to the temple and told them to do their work {again}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:12

ULT

12 And all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, and the wine, and the oil to the treasuries.

UST

12 Then all {the people of} Judah started bringing their tithes of grain, wine, and olive oil to the {temple} storerooms {once again}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:13

ULT

13 And I appointed treasurers over the treasuries: Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah from the Levites; and at their hand was Hanan, the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah. For they were considered faithful, and it was for them to apportion to their brothers.

UST

13 I appointed some {men} to be in charge of the storerooms. They were Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah the Levite. I also appointed Hanan the son of Zaccur and grandson of Mattaniah to assist them. I appointed these {men} because {everyone} knew that they were trustworthy and would distribute {the offerings fairly} to their associates.

Who was counted as trustworthy?

Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, Pedaiah, and Hanan were counted as trustworthy.

Nehemiah 13:14

ULT

14 Remember me, my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my faithful kindness that I have done for the house of my God and for its service watches.

UST

14 "My God, please bless me for this. Yes, bless me for the good things that I have done for your temple and for the temple services!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:15

ULT

15 In those days I saw in Judah ones treading winepresses on the sabbath, and ones bringing in grain-heaps, and ones loading onto donkeys, yes, even wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of loads, and ones bringing to Jerusalem on the day of the sabbath. And I protested on the day of their selling provisions.

UST

15 During that time, I saw {some people} in Judea {who were working} on the Sabbath day. Some were pressing grapes to make wine. Others were taking their grain and loading it on donkeys. Others were also loading {bags of} wine, baskets of grapes, figs, and many other things onto donkeys and bringing them into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. I warned them not to sell {food to the people of Judea} on {Sabbath} days.

When were people in Judah treading winepresses?

People in Judah were treading winepresses on the Sabbath.

Nehemiah 13:16

ULT

16 And the Tyrians who dwelt in it were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and were selling them on the sabbath to the sons of Judah, even in Jerusalem.

UST

16 I also saw some people from {the city of} Tyre who were living there in {Jerusalem} bringing fish and other things into Jerusalem to sell to the people of Judah on the Sabbath day.

What did men from Tyre do on the Sabbath?

Men from Tyre brought in fish and all kinds of goods, and they sold them on the Sabbath to the people of Judah and in the city.

Nehemiah 13:17

ULT

17 And I contended with the nobles of Judah. And I said to them, “What is this evil thing that you are doing, and profaning the day of the sabbath?

UST

17 So I rebuked the Jewish leading citizens. I said to them, “This is a very evil thing that you are doing! You are making the Sabbath day into something {God never wanted} it to be.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:18

ULT

18 Did not your fathers do thus, and our God brought all this evil on us and on this city? And you are increasing wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.”

UST

18 You know that your ancestors did these same things, and God {punished} our nation {by} bringing great trouble to this city! But {now} you too are breaking {the laws} for the Sabbath day. You are going to cause {God} to be angry with {the nation of} Israel {again}. {He will punish us} even more!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:19

ULT

19 And it happened that, when the gates of Jerusalem grew dark before the face of the sabbath, I spoke, and the doors were shut, and I said that they should not open them until after the sabbath. And I caused some from my young men to stand at the gates; a load could not enter on the day of the sabbath.

UST

19 So I commanded {the gatekeepers} to shut the doors of the gates of the city when it started to get dark on Friday evening. I commanded them not to open the gates until Saturday evening. I also stationed some of my men at the gates {so they would make sure that} no one brought things to sell into {the city in between those times}, on the Sabbath day.

How did Nehemiah prevent people from coming into Jerusalem on the Sabbath?

As soon as it became dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, Nehemiah commanded that the doors be shut and that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. He stationed some of his servants at the gates so no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day.

Nehemiah 13:20

ULT

20 And the ones who traded and the ones who sold all kinds of goods to sell lodged outside of Jerusalem a time or two.

UST

20 One or two times traders and merchants selling all kinds of things camped outside the city on the night {before the Sabbath day}. {They were hoping} to sell {something the next day}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:21

ULT

21 And I testified against them, and I said to them, “Why are you lodging in front of the wall? If you repeat, I will stretch out a hand on you!” From that time, they did not come on the sabbath.

UST

21 I warned them. I said to them, “It is useless for you to camp here outside the walls on Friday night. If you do this again, I will arrest you by force!” After that, they did not come on Sabbath days.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:22

ULT

22 And I said to the Levites that they should purify themselves and come keep the gates to consecrate the day of the sabbath. Remember me concerning this also, my God, and have pity on me according to the greatness of your covenant faithfulness.

UST

22 I also commanded the Levites to {perform a ritual to} purify themselves and then {take up stations} to guard the city gates. I wanted them to ensure that Sabbath days were kept holy {by not allowing merchants to enter the city on that holy day}. “My God, please bless me for doing this too! And be kind to me, because your kindness is so great.”

Who came and guarded the gates to sanctify the Sabbath day?

The Levites came and guarded the gates to sanctify the Sabbath day.

Nehemiah 13:23

ULT

23 In those days I also saw Jews who had given a dwelling to Ashdodite, Ammonite, and Moabite women.

UST

23 During that time, I also learned that many of the Jewish men had married women from {the city of} Ashdod, and from the Ammonites and Moabites.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:24

ULT

24 And their sons, half were speaking Ashdodite, and none of them were knowing to speak Hebrew, but according to the tongue of people group by people group.

UST

24 So half of their children spoke a foreign language, and they did not know how to speak Hebrew. They spoke whatever language {their} foreign {parent spoke}.

What did half the children speak?

Half the children spoke the language of Ashdod, and they could not speak the language of Judah, but only the language of one of the other peoples.

Nehemiah 13:25

ULT

25 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck some of their men, and pulled out their hair. And I caused them to swear an oath by God: “If you give your daughters to their sons, or if you lift from their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves!

UST

25 So I rebuked those men. I {asked God} to curse them. I struck some of them {with my fists}. I pulled out their hair. Then I forced them to make a solemn promise, knowing that God was listening. I made them promise that they would {never} again allow their daughters to marry foreign men. I also made them promise that they and their sons would not marry foreign women.

How did Nehemiah confront the Jews who married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab?

Nehemiah confronted them, and he cursed them, and he hit some of them and pulled out their hair.

Nehemiah 13:26

ULT

26 Did not Solomon, the king of Israel, sin concerning these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him: and he was beloved by his God, and God gave him as king over all Israel. The foreign women caused even him to sin.

UST

26 {I said to them,} “You know that Solomon, the king of Israel, sinned as a result of {marrying foreign women who worshiped idols}! You know that he was greater than any of the kings of other nations. God loved him, and God set him as the king over all {the people of} Israel. But his foreign wives caused even him to sin!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:27

ULT

27 Should we then listen to you, to do all this great evil, to act unfaithfully toward our God and give a dwelling to foreign women?” [1]

UST

27 {I am grieved} to hear this about you! You have married foreign wives {who worship idols}. You have commited a great sin against our God!”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:28

ULT

28 And one from the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. And I caused him to flee from beside me.

UST

28 A man who was a son of Joiada and a grandson of Eliashib the Supreme Priest had married the daughter of {our enemy} Sanballat the Horonite. So I forced this man to leave {Jerusalem}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:29

ULT

29 Remember them, my God, on account of the defiling of the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

UST

29 "My God, these {men} have brought shame to the priesthood. {They have broken} the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites. Punish them as they deserve!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:30

ULT

30 And I purified them from everything foreign. And I caused the service watches to stand: for the priests and for the Levites, a man in his work;

UST

30 I took away everything from {the priests} that came from other nations and religions. I also established regulations for the priests and for the Levites {so they would know} what work each of them was supposed to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Nehemiah 13:31

ULT

31 and for the offering of pieces of wood at the appointed times; and for the firstfruits. Remember me, my God, for good.
13:27 [1]

UST

31 {I} also {arranged} for the people to bring their offerings of wood at the set times {to burn on the altar}, and to bring the first part of what they harvested {of each crop during the year}. “My God, please consider that I {have done all these things}, and bless me {for doing them}.”

How did Nehemiah want God to remember him?

Nehemiah wanted God to remember him for good.

Esther

Esther 1

Esther 1:1

ULT

1 Now it happened in the days of Ahasuerus (he was Ahasuerus, the one who ruled from India even as far as Ethiopia, 127 provinces);

UST

1 This {is the story of something that} happened during the time that {a king named} Ahasuerus ruled {the land of Persia}. The empire of this King Ahasuerus had 127 provinces and included all of the territory between India {in the east} and Ethiopia {in the west}.

Over how much territory did Ahasuerus reign?

Ahasuerus ruled from India even as far as Ethiopia, 127 provinces.

Esther 1:2

ULT

2 in those days, as the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his royalty, which was in Susa the citadel:

UST

2 At that time King Ahasuerus was ruling his empire from Susa, the capital city {of Persia}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Esther 1:3

ULT

3 in year three of his reign, he made a feast for all his officials and his administrators, the army of Persia and Media, the noblemen, and the officials of the provinces before his face,

UST

3 During the third year that Ahasuerus ruled his empire, he hosted a feast for all of his officials and for every important person who worked for him. He also invited the officers who served in the {combined} army of {the kingdoms of} Persia and Media, the wealthy landowners, and the officials of the provinces. The king was present in person {to host the feast}.

Who was in the king's presence?

The officials of the provinces were "before his face," meaning that they were in the king's presence.

Esther 1:4

ULT

4 when he displayed the wealth of the glory of his kingdom and the splendor of the beauty of his greatness for many days, 180 days.

UST

4 Ahasuerus entertained his guests fabulously because he wanted to demonstrate that his empire was extremely wealthy and that he was a very rich and powerful king. {The feast lasted} for six months.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Esther 1:5

ULT

5 And when those days were fulfilled, the king made a feast for all the people who were found in Susa the citadel, from the greatest even to the least, for seven days, in the courtyard of the garden of the palace of the king.

UST

5 At the end of those six months, {after that feast was over,} the king hosted a {second} feast. This feast was for all of the people in the royal stronghold in Susa, including both rich and poor. He held this feast in the courtyard of his palace garden. It lasted for a whole week.

For whom did the king give the feast that lasted seven days?

The king made a feast for all the people who were found in Susa the citadel, from the greatest even to the least.

Esther 1:6

ULT

6 Linens cotton and blue were hanging by cords of byssus and purple on rings of silver and pillars of marble. Couches of gold and silver were on the pavement of porphyry and alabaster and pearl and precious stone.

UST

6 {In the courtyard,} white and blue curtains were hanging from white and purple cords attached to silver rings on marble pillars. The guests reclined on couches made of gold and silver. These were set on a mosaic floor that was made of red marble, white marble, and pearl bordered with black marble.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Esther 1:7

ULT

7 And the serving was in vessels of gold, with vessels differing from other vessels, and the wine of royalty was abundant according to the hand of the king.

UST

7 The attendants served wine in golden cups. {The king was so rich that he had a great many of these cups,} and no two of them were alike. The king had the attendants serve great amounts of his own royal wine to the guests.

Why was there much royal wine?

The wine of royalty was abundant according to the hand of the king. And the drinking was according to the law, “There is no compulsion.”

Esther 1:8

ULT

8 And the drinking was according to the law “There is no compulsion,” for thus the king had established for every overseer of his house to do according to the desire of man by man.

UST

8 Ahasuerus gave his guests a special privilege. He made the attendants who served the wine follow this rule: “No one has to drink if they do not want to.” All the guests could drink as little or as much as they wanted.

What were the king’s orders to all the overseers of his palace?

And the drinking was according to the law, “There is no compulsion,” for thus the king had established for every overseer of his house, to do according to the desire of man by man.

Esther 1:9

ULT

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast of women in the palace of royalty that belonged to the king Ahasuerus.

UST

9 {While the king was entertaining the men in the courtyard,} Queen Vashti, {his wife,} was hosting a feast for the women. She hosted it inside the royal palace where King Ahasuerus lived.

Esther 1:10

ULT

10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was pleased by the wine, he said to Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha and Abagtha, Zethar and Karkas (the seven eunuchs who served before the face of the king Ahasuerus),

UST

10 On the seventh day, when King Ahasuerus was feeling good from drinking wine, he called the seven {castrated} guardians who served him personally. (Their names were Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Karkas.)

What did the king tell the seven officials who served before him?

To bring Vashti the queen before the king in a crown of royalty in order to show the people and the officials her beauty.

Esther 1:11

ULT

11 to bring Vashti the queen to the face of the king in a crown of royalty in order to show the people and the officials her beauty, for she was pleasing of appearance.

UST

11 Queen Vashti was a very beautiful woman. Ahasuerus wanted the people and officials who served in the royal court to see how beautiful she was. So the king told his seven personal servants to bring Queen Vashti to him. He told them to have her wear her royal crown.

What did the king tell the seven officials who served before him?

The king said to bring Vashti the queen to the face of the king in a crown of royalty in order to show the people and the officials her beauty.

Esther 1:12

ULT

12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the word of the king that was by the hand of the eunuchs. Then the king became very angry, and his rage burned within him.

UST

12 But when the guardians came and told Queen Vashti what the king had commanded, she refused to come. {The guardians reported this to the king, and} the king became very enraged.

Why did the king become very angry?

The king became very angry because the queen Vashti refused to come at the word of the king that was by the hand of the eunuchs.

Esther 1:13

ULT

13 Then the king said to the wise men, who were knowers of the times (for thus was the manner of the king before the face of all those who were knowers of law and judgment,

UST

13 It was the habit of the king to consult with certain advisors who knew the law and could make good decisions. So he spoke to those advisors, who knew the right way to do things.

With whom did the king confer?

The king consulted with the wise men, who were knowers of the times.

Esther 1:14

ULT

14 and the ones near to him were Karshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Mersena, Memukan, seven officials of Persia and Media who were seers of the face of the king, the ones who sat first in the kingdom):

UST

14 The advisors whom the king relied on most were Karshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memukan. These seven officials were from various places in {the kingdoms of} Persia and Media. They advised the king personally. They were the most powerful officials in the empire.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Esther 1:15

ULT

15 "According to law, what is to be done with the queen Vashti on account of this, that she did not perform the command of the king Ahasuerus by the hand of the eunuchs?"

UST

15 The king said to them, "I sent those guardians to Queen Vashti with a command, but she did not obey me. According to the law, what should we do with her?"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Esther 1:16

ULT

16 And Memukan replied before the face of the king and the officials, “Not toward the king alone has Vashti the queen done wrong, but toward all the officials and toward all the peoples who are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

UST

16 Then Memukan answered the king, {speaking loud enough that} both he and his officials could hear. He said, “Queen Vashti has done wrong, and not only against the king. She has also done wrong against all the officials and people groups in all the provinces that King Ahasuerus rules!

According to Memucan, against whom did Vashti do wrong?

Vashti the queen did wrong not only toward the king alone, but toward all the officials and toward all the people who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

Esther 1:17

ULT

17 For the matter of the queen will go out to all the women in order to make their husbands despised in their eyes when they say, ‘The king Ahasuerus said to bring Vashti the queen before his face, but she did not come.’

UST

17 This is what will happen. Women all over the empire will hear about what the queen did. They will say, ‘King Ahasuerus commanded his servants to bring Queen Vashti to him, but she did not come! {So if even the queen can disobey the king, why should I have to obey my husband?}’ Then women will stop respecting their husbands.

What did Memukan say the women of Persia and Media would do?

Memukan said that what the queen did would become known to all the women in the kingdom of king Ahasuerus and that when the women of the kingdom found out what the queen had done they would despise their own husbands and say, “King Ahasuerus commanded his servants to bring Queen Vashti to him, but she did not come!”

Esther 1:18

ULT

18 Now this day, the noblewomen of Persia and Media who have heard the matter of the queen will speak to all the officials of the king. And there will be contempt and wrath enough!

UST

18 Even today, the leading women of Persia and Media will hear what the queen did. They will start to disobey {their husbands, even though they are} officials of the king. They will treat them with disrespect, and this will make their husbands angry with them. That will be bad enough by itself, {even if the news does not spread any farther}.

What did Memucan say the noble women of Persia and Media would do before the end of that very day?

For the matter of the queen will go out to all the women, in order to make their husbands despised in their eyes when they say, ‘The king Ahasuerus said to bring Vashti the queen before him, but she did not come.’ Now this day, the noblewomen of Persia and Media who have heard the matter of the queen will speak to all the officials of the king; and there will be contempt and wrath enough!

Esther 1:19

ULT

19 If it is good to the king, let a decree of royalty go out from before his face, and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media (which do not pass away) that Vashti shall never come before the face of the king Ahasuerus. And let the king give her royalty to her female neighbor, the woman who is better than she.

UST

19 If it pleases you {to do so}, O king, you should personally issue a royal decree and have scribes add it to the laws of Persia and Media, which no one can change. {This decree should say} that Vashti can never come into your presence again. Then you should choose a different woman to be your queen, one who will obey you.

To whom would the king give Vashti’s position as queen?

The king would give his position to her female neighbor, the woman who is better than she.

Esther 1:20

ULT

20 And the decree of the king will be heard that he will make for all his kingdom, though it is great. Then all the women will give honor to their husbands, from the greatest to the least.”

UST

20 That way, even though your empire is very large, everyone in it will hear about your decree {and know that if any wife disobeys her husband, he can banish and divorce her just as you did to Vashti.} Then all the women will respect and obey their husbands. This will be true of every husband in the empire.”

Esther 1:22

ULT

22 And he sent letters to all the provinces of the king, to province by province according to its own writing, and to people by people according to its own tongue: that every man should be ruling in his house and speaking according to the tongue of his people.

UST

22 The king sent letters to every province in his empire. He wrote to every province using its own alphabet and to each people group in its own language. The letters said that men should be the masters over their wives and children. They also said that a husband should be able to give orders to his wife in his own native language {and that she should understand and obey}.

What did the king order?

The king sent letters that every man should be ruling in his house and speaking according to the tongue of his people.

Esther 2:2

ULT

2 And the young men of the king who served him said, “Let them seek for the king young women who are virgins and pleasing of appearance.

UST

2 So some of the young men who attended the king said to him, “{Your majesty, you should get a new wife} for yourself. You could tell your servants to look for young virgins who are very beautiful.

What did the king’s young men recommend?

The king’s young men recommended that they seek for the king young women who were virgins and pleasing of appearance.

Esther 2:3

ULT

3 And let the king appoint administrators in all the provinces of his kingdom. Then let them gather every young woman who is a virgin and pleasing of appearance to Susa the citadel, to the house of women into the hand of Hegai (the eunuch of the king who is overseer of the women). Then give their ointments.

UST

3 Also, you could assign officers in each province of your empire to bring every virgin who is very beautiful here to your capital city of Susa. They could stay in the harem for virgins under the custody of Hegai, the {castrated} royal guardian who takes care of the young women who live there. He could arrange for them to receive beauty treatments.

Under whose care would the virgins be put?

The virgins would be put into the hand of Hegai, the eunuch of the king who is overseer of the women. This means Hegai was the one who was responsible to take care of the virgins.

Esther 2:4

ULT

4 And let the young woman who is pleasing in the eyes of the king become queen instead of Vashti.” And the word was pleasing in the eyes of the king, so he did thus.

UST

4 Then you could decide which young woman you liked the best, and you could make her queen instead of Vashti.” The king liked what they suggested, so he did it.

UST

6 Many years earlier, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had taken Kish away from Jerusalem and brought him to Babylon along with many other captives. Nebuchadnezzar took them away from Jerusalem at the same time that he took King Jeconiah of Judah away from Jerusalem and brought him to Babylon.

Who had taken Kish from Jerusalem?

Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, had taken Kish from Jerusalem.

Esther 2:7

ULT

7 And he was fostering Hadassah (she is Esther), the daughter of his uncle, because there was not for her a father or a mother. Now the young woman was beautiful of form and pleasing of appearance. And at the death of her father and her mother, Mordecai had taken her for him as a daughter.

UST

7 Now Mordecai was taking care of his cousin, who was an orphan. Her {Hebrew} name was Hadassah, and her {Persian} name was Esther. When her father and mother died, Mordecai had adopted her as his own daughter. Esther was now a young woman, and she was exceptionally attractive.

What was Esther's other name?

Esther's other name was Hadassah.

How was Esther related to Mordecai?

Esther was the daughter of Mordecai's uncle.

Esther 2:8

ULT

8 And it happened that, when the decree of the king and his law were heard, and when many young women were gathered to Susa the citadel into the hand of Hegai, Esther was taken to the palace of the king, into the hand of Hegai (who was overseer of the women).

UST

8 And so this is what happened: Messengers went {throughout the empire} and proclaimed the new law that the king had spoken. At the same time, the officers {whom the king had appointed in each province} brought many {beautiful} young women to the capital city of Susa and put them under the custody of Hegai. He was the man who took care of the young women {who lived in the harem for virgins}. {Because Esther was exceptionally attractive,} the officers also brought her to the king's palace and put her under the custody of Hegai.

Esther 2:9

ULT

9 And the young woman was pleasing in his eyes, and she lifted kindness before his face. And he quickly gave her ointments, gave her portions of food, and gave her seven young women chosen from the house of the king. And he transferred her and her young women to the best of the house of women.

UST

9 Hegai was very impressed with Esther, and he treated her favorably. He quickly arranged for Esther to receive her beauty treatments and her allotment of food. He also chose seven female servants from the king's palace and assigned them to be her personal attendants. He also moved Esther and her attendants to the best rooms in the harem for virgins.

With what did Hegai provide Esther?

Hegai quickly gave her ointments, portions of food, and seven young women chosen from the house of the king.

Esther 2:10

ULT

10 Esther had not declared her people or her ancestry, for Mordecai had laid a charge upon her that she should not tell it.

UST

10 Mordecai had warned Esther that she should not tell anyone what people group she was from. So she did not tell anyone that she was a Jew or who her relatives were.

Why had Esther not told anyone who her people or relatives were?

Esther had not declared her people or her ancestry, for Mordecai had laid a charge upon her that she should not tell it.

Esther 2:11

ULT

11 And always, day by day, Mordecai was walking about before the face of the courtyard of the house of women in order to know the peace of Esther and what was being done with her.

UST

11 Mordecai wanted to know how Esther was doing and what was happening to her. So each and every day, he would walk around in front of the courtyard of the harem for virgins. That way he could ask people who were going in and out of the harem how she was doing.

Esther 2:12

ULT

12 Now when the turn came for young woman by young woman to go to the king Ahasuerus, it was after her 12 months, according to the law of women. For thus the days of their beautification would be fulfilled: six months by oil of myrrh, then six months by perfumes and by the ointments of women.

UST

12 Each young woman in the harem, one at a time, was going to {have sexual relations with} King Ahasuerus {and become one of his concubines}. But before her turn came, each woman received a full year of beauty treatments, using techniques that had been developed for women {in Persia}. This is how the beauty treatments were completed: For the first six months, {a woman's attendants would rub her body every day} with olive oil mixed with myrrh. For the next six months, {her attendants would rub her body every day} with perfumes and lotions designed for women.

Esther 2:13

ULT

13 Then at this, the young woman would go to the king. Anything that she said would be given to her, to go with her from the house of women to the house of the king.

UST

13 This is the way that they would prepare a young woman to go {and have sexual relations} with the king {and become one of his concubines}. She could take whatever clothing and jewelry she wanted from the harem for virgins and wear them when she went to the king's palace.

When a young woman went to the king, what was given to her?

Anything that she said would be given to her.

Esther 2:14

ULT

14 In the evening she would go, and in the morning she would return to the second house of women, into the hand of Shaashgaz (the eunuch of the king who was overseer of the concubines). She would not go to the king again unless the king had delighted in her and she was called by name.

UST

14 The king's servants would bring her {to the king's private rooms} in the evening. The next morning, they would bring her to the other harem, the one for concubines. There a man named Shaashgaz would take charge of her, because he was the {castrated} royal guardian who took care of the concubines. {The young woman would live there for the rest of her life.} She would not go and see the king again unless he asked for her by name because he had enjoyed being with her.

When would a girl return to the king?

She would not go to the king again unless the king had delighted in her and she was called by name.

Esther 2:15

ULT

15 Now when the turn of Esther (the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for him as a daughter) came to go to the king, she did not seek anything except what Hegai (the eunuch of the king who was overseer of the women) said. And Esther was a lifter of favor in the eyes of everyone who saw her.

UST

15 Eventually, {the evening came when} it was the turn for Esther, whom Mordecai had adopted as his daughter, to go to the king. She was the daughter of Abihail, Mordecai's uncle. When Esther went to the king, she only asked for what Hegai, the royal guardian in charge of the harem for virgins, recommended that she should wear. Everyone who saw Esther was very impressed with her.

For what did Esther ask?

She did not ask for anything except what Hegai, the eunuch of the king who was overseer of the women, said.

Esther 2:16

ULT

16 And Esther was taken to the king Ahasuerus, to the palace of his royalty, in the tenth month (which is the month of Tebeth), in year seven of his reign.

UST

16 The king's servants brought Esther to King Ahasuerus in his royal palace during the tenth month of the year (the month of Tebeth), in the seventh year of his reign {as king of Persia}.

When was Esther taken to King Ahasuerus?

So Esther was taken to the king Ahasuerus, to the house of his royalty, in the tenth month (which is the month of Tebeth), in the seventh year of his reign.

Esther 2:17

ULT

17 And the king loved Esther more than all the women and she lifted favor and kindness before his face more than all the virgins. And he set a crown of royalty on her head, and he made her queen instead of Vashti.

UST

17 The king loved Esther more than any of the other women. He treated her more kindly and more favorably than any of the other young women {who had become his concubines}. So King Ahasuerus put a royal crown on her head, and he made her the queen instead of Vashti.

Why did the king set the royal crown on Esther's head and make her queen?

And the king loved Esther more than all the women, and she lifted favor and kindness before his face more than all the virgins. So he set a crown of royalty on her head, and he made her queen instead of Vashti.

Esther 2:18

ULT

18 And the king made a great feast for all his officials and his servants, the feast of Esther. And he made a holiday for the provinces, and he gave gifts according to the hand of the king.

UST

18 Then the king hosted a great feast and invited all of his officials and servants. It was a feast to celebrate Esther {becoming the queen}. He proclaimed that this would be a time to celebrate for people in all of the provinces of his empire {when they would not have to pay taxes}, and he generously gave gifts {to people}.

Esther 2:21

ULT

21 In those days, when Mordecai was sitting at the gate of the king, Bigthan and Teresh (two eunuchs of the king who were guardians of the doorway) became angry; and they sought to stretch out a hand against the king Ahasuerus.

UST

21 During that time, when Mordecai was {doing his work} at the king's gate, two of the king's guards who protected the doorway {to the king's private rooms} became angry {with the king}. They planned to assassinate King Ahasuerus. Their names were Bigthan and Teresh.

What did Bigthan and Teresh seek to do to King Ahasuerus?

Bigthan and Teresh, two eunuchs of the king who were guardians of the doorway, became angry. And they sought to stretch out a hand to the king Ahasuerus.

Esther 2:22

ULT

22 And the matter was made known to Mordecai, and he declared it to Esther the queen. And Esther spoke to the king in the name of Mordecai.

Esther 3:2

ULT

2 And all the servants of the king who were at the gate of the king were bowing down and prostrating themselves to Haman, for thus the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai would neither bow down nor would he prostrate himself.

UST

2 The king {wanted to show that he had given Haman an important position. So he} commanded all of his other servants who were at the king's gate to bow down all the way to the ground to honor Haman {whenever he walked by}. But Mordecai refused to bow down to Haman, {because as a Jew he would not worship anyone except Yahweh}.

Who were kneeling and prostrating themselves to Haman?

All the servants of the king were at the gate of the king and were bowing down and prostrating themselves to Haman.

Esther 3:3

ULT

3 And the servants of the king who were at the gate of the king said to Mordecai, "Why are you trespassing the command of the king?"

UST

3 The other servants at the king's gate {saw that Mordecai refused to bow down, and they} asked him, "Why are you disobeying the king's command?"

Esther 3:6

ULT

6 And it was despised in his eyes to stretch out a hand against Mordecai alone, for they had told him the people of Mordecai. And Haman sought to annihilate all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who were in all the kingdom of Ahasuerus.

UST

6 The other servants told Haman that {Mordecai was not bowing down to him because} Mordecai was a Jew. So Haman decided it would not be enough just to kill Mordecai alone. Haman decided that he would try to kill all the Jews in the entire empire of Ahasuerus.

Who did Haman want to kill?

Haman sought to annihilate all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who were in all the kingdom of Ahasuerus.

Esther 3:7

ULT

7 In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in year 12 of the king Ahasuerus, a Pur (which is “the lot”) was cast before the face of Haman from day to day and from month to month: the twelfth, which is the month of Adar.

UST

7 So Haman had his servants cast a Pur (that is, a lot) while he watched {to determine the best month and the best day of the month to kill the Jews}. They did that in the first month, the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year that Ahasuerus reigned {as king of Persia}. The lot selected the twelfth month of that year, the month of Adar, {as the time for Haman to carry out his plan}.

8 And Haman said to the king Ahasuerus, “He has one people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom. And their laws are different from every people, and the laws of the king they do not obey. And there is no profit to the king to leave them untouched.

UST

8 Then Haman went to King Ahasuerus and said, “Your Majesty, there is a certain group of people who live among the other peoples in your empire. They are in every province. They have their own set of laws, and so they do not obey your laws. It is not good for you to allow them to live in your empire.

When they threw lots, what month did they chose?

In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of the king Ahasuerus, a Pur (which is “the lot”) was cast before the face of Haman from day to day and from month to month: the twelfth, which is the month of Adar.

7 Mordecai told Hathak everything that Haman was planning to do {to the Jews}. He even told him how much money Haman said the king would get for his treasuries {if the king commanded people} to kill all of the Jews.

What did Mordecai report to Hathak?

And Mordecai reported to him all that had happened to him, and the exact amount of silver that Haman had said to weigh out into the treasuries of the king, against the Jews, to destroy them.

Esther 4:8

ULT

8 Also he gave to him a copy of the writing of the law that had been given in Susa to annihilate them, in order to show Esther and to inform her and to lay a charge upon her to go to the king to implore his favor and to seek from before his face concerning her people.

UST

8 Mordecai also gave Hathak a copy of the letter that the heralds had read out loud in Susa and that said that people must kill all of the Jews. He told Hathak to show the letter to Esther so that she would know exactly what it said. He also told him to urge her to go to the king personally and to beg him desperately to save her people from destruction.

Why did Mordecai give Hathak a copy of the decree that was issued in Susa for the Jews' destruction?

Also he gave to him a copy of the writing of the law that had been given in Susa to annihilate them, in order to show Esther, and to inform her, and to lay a charge upon her to go to the king to implore his favor and to plead from before his face concerning her people.

11 "All the servants of the king and the people of the provinces of the king are knowing that for any man or woman who goes to the king, to the inner court, who has not been called, his law is one: to cause to die, apart from when the king holds out to him the scepter of gold; then he will live. But as for me, I have not been called to come to the king these 30 days."

UST

11 "There is a law {about going to the king} that applies to {everyone in the kingdom}, both men and women. If anyone goes into the inner courtyard of the palace, {where the king can see them}, and the king has not summoned them, that person will die. Only if the king holds out his golden scepter to them, then they will live. Everyone in the whole empire knows this law. {So I cannot go and speak to the king as you have requested.} The king has not called for me in over a month, {and if I go without being summoned, I could be put to death}."

What happened if any man or woman went to the king inside the inner courtyard without being summoned?

The law was that any man or woman would die who went to the king inside the inner court without first being called unless the king held out to him or her the scepter of gold, in which case the person was allowed to live.

Esther 4:16

ULT

16 “Go, gather all the Jews who are found in Susa. And fast on account of me, neither eating nor drinking for three days, both night and day. Also, I myself and my young female attendants will fast likewise. Then, in such circumstances, I will go to the king, which is not according to the law. And if I perish, I perish.”

UST

16 “Gather together all the Jews who live here in Susa and tell them to fast and pray for my sake. Tell them to not eat or drink anything for three days and three nights. My female attendants and I will also fast in the same way. At the end of the three days, I will go to {talk to} the king, even though doing that is against the law. I will do that even if it costs me my life.”

What did Esther tell Mordecai to do?

Go, gather all the Jews who are found in Susa. And fast on account of me, neither eating nor drinking for three days, both night and day. Also, I myself and my young female attendants will fast likewise. Then, in such circumstances, I will go to the king, which is not according to the law; and if I perish, I perish.

Esther 4:17

ULT

17 And Mordecai went and did according to the whole charge that Esther had laid upon him.

UST

17 So {after Hathach told this to} Mordecai, he went and did everything that Esther had told him to do.

Esther 5

Esther 5:1

ULT

1 And it happened on the third day that Esther put on royalty and stood in the inner court of the palace of the king, opposite to the house of the king. Now the king was sitting on the throne of his royalty in the palace of royalty opposite to the entrance of the palace.

UST

1 Three days later, Esther {and her servants prepared a grand banquet. Then she} put on her royal robes, and she {went and} stood in the inner courtyard of the palace, across from the king's house. He was in the royal palace, sitting on the royal throne and facing the entrance of the room.

Where was the inner courtyard of the king's palace?

The inner courtyard of the king's palace was opposite to the house of the king.

Esther 5:2

ULT

2 And it happened that, as soon as the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she lifted favor in his eyes. And the king held out to Esther the scepter of gold that was in his hand, so Esther approached and touched the head of the scepter.

UST

2 As soon as the king noticed Queen Esther standing there in the courtyard, he was very pleased to see her. So he held out his golden scepter to her, {to show that she could safely approach him}. So Esther came up {to the throne} and touched the top of the scepter.

When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, why did he hold out to her the golden scepter?

As soon as the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she lifted favor in his eyes.

Esther 5:3

ULT

3 And the king said to her, "What is to you, Esther the queen? And what is your request? As much as half of the kingdom, and let it be given to you."

UST

3 Then the king asked her, "Why have you come here, Queen Esther? What do you want? {Tell me, and} I will give you anything you ask for, no matter how great it is."

Esther 5:4

ULT

4 And Esther said, “If it is good to the king, let the king come with Haman today to the banquet that I have made for him.”

UST

4 Esther replied, “If it pleases you, O king, please come with Haman today to the banquet that I have prepared for you.”

What did Esther request from the king?

If it is good to the king, let the king come with Haman today to the banquet that I have made for him.

Esther 5:5

ULT

5 And the king said, “Bring Haman quickly in order to do the word of Esther.” And the king came with Haman to the banquet that Esther had made.

UST

5 The king said to his servants, “{Go and} get Haman and bring him quickly so that we can do what Esther has asked us to do!” So the king and Haman went to the banquet that Esther {and her servants} had prepared {for them}.

ULT

8 if I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it is good to the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king come with Haman to the banquet that I will make for them, and tomorrow I will do according to the word of the king."

UST

8 if you are pleased with me, and if you are pleased, O king, to give me what I want, please come with Haman to {another} banquet that I will prepare for you tomorrow. I will answer your question then."

What did Esther request from the king the second time?

If I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it is good to the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king come with Haman to the banquet which I will make for them, and tomorrow I will do according to the word of the king.

Esther 5:9

ULT

9 And Haman went out that day joyful and pleased of heart. But as soon as Haman saw Mordecai at the gate of the king, that he neither rose up nor trembled from him, then Haman was filled with rage on account of Mordecai.

UST

9 Haman was feeling very happy as he left {the banquet that day}. But then he saw Mordecai sitting at the king's gate. Mordecai did not stand up to show respect for Haman or tremble fearfully in front of him. This made Haman furious with Mordecai.

Esther 5:11

ULT

11 And Haman recounted to them the glory of his wealth and the multitude of his sons and all about how the king had made him great and how he had lifted him over the officials and administrators of the king.

UST

11 and he boasted to them about how rich he was and about how many sons he had. {He} also {boasted} about how the king had promoted him many times and given him a position above all of his other officials and administrators.

What did Haman recount to his family?

Then Haman recounted to them the glory of his wealth and the multitude of his sons and all about how the king had made him great and how he had lifted him over the officials and administrators of the king.

Esther 5:12

ULT

12 And Haman said, “In addition, Esther the queen did not bring anyone with the king to the banquet that she had made except me. And also for tomorrow, I am called by her with the king.

UST

12 Then Haman added, “And that is not all! I was the only one Queen Esther invited to come with the king to a banquet that she prepared {for us today}. And she has also invited only me {to attend another banquet} with the king tomorrow.”

13 But all of this is not equal for me to every time that I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the gate of the king.”

UST

13 Then Haman said, “But I still cannot be happy as long as I keep seeing that Jew, Mordecai, sitting there at the king’s gate {and refusing to honor me}.”

What did Haman feel was more important to him than being invited to the banquets?

But all of this is not equal for me to every time that I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the gate of the king.

Esther 5:14

ULT

14 And Zeresh his wife, with all of his friends, said to him, “Let them make a pole 50 cubits high. And in the morning speak to the king, and let them hang Mordecai on it. Then go with the king to the banquet joyful.” And the word was good before the face of Haman, and he made the pole.

UST

14 So Haman’s wife Zeresh and his friends who were there suggested, “Have your servants set up a pole 25 meters high. Then tomorrow morning speak to the king and tell him that you want to hang Mordecai on it. Then {once you have executed Mordecai,} you can go to the banquet with the king in a good mood.” Haman thought that this was a good plan, so he {told his servants to} set up the pole.

What did Zeresh tell Haman to make? Why?

Let them make a tree fifty cubits high. And in the morning speak to the king, and let them hang Mordecai on it.

Esther 6

Esther 6:1

ULT

1 That night the sleep of the king fled away. And he said to bring the book of records of the events of days, and they were being called out before the face of the king.

UST

1 That night the king was unable to sleep. So he told {the young men who attended him} to bring in the royal chronicles. One {of the young men got the chronicles and} began to read them out loud to the king.

Why did the king command servants to bring the records of the events of his reign?

That night the sleep of the king fled away. And he said to bring the book of records of the events of days.

Esther 6:2

ULT

2 And it was found written that Mordecai had told about Bigthana and Teresh, two of the eunuchs of the king who were from the guardians of the doorway, that they had sought to stretch out a hand against the king Ahasuerus.

UST

2 The chronicles said that Bigthan and Teresh, two of the royal guardians who protected the doorway {to the king's private quarters}, had planned to assassinate King Ahasuerus. The chronicles also said that Mordecai {had discovered their plot and} had let the king know about it. {By doing that, Mordecai saved the king's life.}

What was found written in the book of records that was read to the king?

It was found written that Mordecai had reported that Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the door, had conspired to kill the King.

Esther 6:3

ULT

3 And the king said, “What honor or greatness was done for Mordecai on account of this?” And the young men of the king who served him said, “Not a thing has been done with him.”

UST

3 Then the king asked, “In what great way did I honor Mordecai for saving my life?” The young men who attended him replied, “No one did anything for him.”

What had been done to give honor or recognition to Mordecai for telling the king about Bigthana and Teresh?

Nothing had been done to give honor or recognition to Mordecai for telling the king about Bigthana and Teresh.

Esther 6:4

ULT

4 And the king asked, “Who is in the court?” Now Haman had come into the outer court of the house of the king to say to the king to hang Mordecai on the pole that he had prepared for him.

UST

4 At that moment, Haman entered the outer courtyard of the king’s house. He had come to tell the king that he wanted to hang Mordecai on the pole that he had set up for Mordecai. The king {wanted to consult someone about the best way to honor Mordecai, so he} asked, “Who is out in the courtyard?”

6 And Haman came, and the king said to him, “What is one to do for the man in whose honor the king is delighted?” Then Haman said in his heart, “For whom would the king delight to do honor more than me?”

UST

6 When Haman came in, the king asked him, “What should I do for the man whom I would really like to honor?” Haman thought to himself, “Certainly I am the person whom the king would like to honor more than anyone else!”

When the king asked Haman what should be done for the man whom the king takes pleasure in honoring, about whom did Haman think the king was talking?

Then Haman said in his heart, “For whom would the king delight to do honor more than me?”

8 let them bring a garment of royalty with which the king has clothed himself, and a horse on which the king has ridden and which has been given a crown of royalty for its head.

UST

8 tell your servants to bring one of your own royal robes that you have already worn yourself. Have them also bring a horse that you have already ridden yourself and put a royal crown on its head {to show that it belongs to you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Esther 6:9

ULT

9 And give this garment and this horse into the hand of a man from the most noble officials of the king. And let them clothe the man whom the king delights to honor, and cause him to ride on the horse in the open square of the city, and proclaim before his face, 'Thus shall it be done for the man whom the king delights to honor!'"

UST

9 Then, {on your behalf,} have one of your most noble officials present the man with the robe and the horse. Have your servants clothe the man whom you really want to honor {with the robe}. Have them seat that man on the horse and then lead the horse through the public square of the city. Have them shout out {to everyone} in front of them, 'The king is doing this because he really wants to honor this man!'"

Who would dress the man whom the king takes pleasure in honoring, and lead him on the horse through the city streets?

A man from the most noble officials of the king would do these things.

Esther 6:10

ULT

10 And the king said to Haman, "Hurry, take the garment and the horse, according to how you have spoken, and do thus for Mordecai the Jew, the man who sits at the gate of the king. Do not allow a word to fall of all that you have spoken."

UST

10 The king {liked this plan, so he} replied to Haman, "Go quickly! Take the robe and the horse and do what you have just described for Mordecai the Jew. He {is one of my servants who} sits by the gate to the palace. Make sure that you do absolutely everything that you have said."

Esther 6:11

ULT

11 And Haman took the garment and the horse, and he clothed Mordecai and caused him to ride in the open place of the city and called out before his face, "Thus shall it be done for the man whom the king delights to honor!"

UST

11 So Haman {did what the king commanded. He} got the robe and the horse. He put the robe on Mordecai, seated him on the horse, and then led the horse through the public square of the city. As he did, he shouted out to everyone in front of him, "The king is doing this because he really wants to honor this man!"

Who dressed Mordecai and led him on the horse through the city streets?

So Haman took the garment and the horse, and he clothed Mordecai and paraded him in the open square of the city, and called out before his face, "Thus shall it be done for the man in whose honor the king is delighted!"

Esther 6:12

ULT

12 And Mordecai returned to the gate of the king, but Haman hurried to his house, mourning with a covering of head.

UST

12 Then Mordecai went back to {his place at} the king's gate. But Haman hurried to his house, covering {his} head {because he felt so} humiliated.

Esther 6:13

ULT

13 And Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and to all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordecai, before whose face you have begun to fall, is from the seed of the Jews, then you will not prevail against him, but you will surely fall before his face."

UST

13 Haman {gathered} all his friends {together once again. He} told them and his wife Zeresh everything that had happened to him {that day. Some of his friends were also} his advisors{, and they} and his wife Zeresh told him, "Mordecai has begun to defeat you. Since he is one of the Jewish people, you will not win against him. Instead, he will certainly defeat you."

About what did Haman's wise men and his wife warn him?

If Mordecai, before whose face you have begun to fall, is from the seed of the Jews, then you will not prevail against him, but you will surely fall before his face.

3 And Esther the queen answered and said, “If I have found favor in your eyes, O king, and if it is good to the king, let my life be given to me at my petition and my people at my request.

UST

3 Then Queen Esther replied, “If you are pleased with me, O king, I hope you will be willing to do what I ask. Please allow me to live, and please save my people. That is what I am asking for.

What did Esther ask from King Ahasuerus?

Let my life be given to me at my petition, and my people at my request.

Esther 7:4

ULT

4 For we have been sold, I and my people, for annihilation, for slaughter, and for destruction. Now if we had been sold as slaves and female servants, I would have kept silent, because the distress would not have been equal to a burden of the king."

UST

4 {I am appealing to you} because someone has turned my people and me over {to our enemies}, and they are going to destroy us completely. If someone had sold the men and {even} the women to be slaves, I would not have said anything about that to you, because that would not have been important enough to bother you, the king, with that."

What did Esther say she would have done if her people had only been sold into slavery?

Now if we had been sold as slaves and female servants, I would have kept silent.

Esther 7:5

ULT

5 And the king Ahasuerus spoke and said to Esther the queen, "Who is he, this man? Where is this man, he whose heart is full to do thus?"

Esther 7:6

ULT

6 Esther answered, "A man, an adversary, and an enemy—this evil Haman!" Then Haman was terrified from before the face of the king and the queen.

UST

6 Esther responded, "The man who is our bitter enemy is this evil man Haman!" This made Haman terrified to be in the presence of the king and the queen.

Who did Esther describe as an "adversary" and "enemy?"

A man, an adversary, and an enemy is this evil Haman!

Esther 7:7

ULT

7 And the king rose up in his rage from the banquet of wine to the garden of the palace. But Haman remained in order to seek for his life from Esther the queen, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king.

UST

7 The king became so angry that he got up and left the banquet of wine. He went {outside} into the palace garden {to decide what to do}. But Haman stayed {inside} to beg Queen Esther to save his life because he recognized that the king wanted to execute him.

What did Haman do when the king got up in a rage from the banquet of wine?

Haman remained in order to beg for his life from Esther the queen.

Esther 7:8

ULT

8 Now when the king returned from the garden of the palace to the house of the banquet of wine, Haman was fallen on the couch on which Esther was. And the king said, “Is it also to subdue the queen with me in the house?” The word was going out from the mouth of the king when they covered the face of Haman.

UST

8 {As he was pleading for his life,} Haman knelt down very close to Esther as she was {reclining} on a {banqueting} couch. When the king returned from the palace garden to the room where they had been drinking wine, {he saw this}. The king exclaimed, “He is even trying to rape the queen in my presence and in my own house!” As soon as the king said this, {some of his servants} covered Haman’s face {as a sign that he would be executed}.

After Haman fell on the couch where Esther was, what did the king think Haman was doing?

The king thought Haman was trying to subdue the queen with me. This means that he thought Haman was trying to rape her.

Esther 7:9

ULT

9 And Harbona, one from the eunuchs before the face of the king, said, “Also, behold, the pole that Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, is standing at the house of Haman 50 cubits high.” And the king said, “Hang him on it.”

UST

9 Then Harbona, who was one of the guardians who served the king personally, said, “O king! Haman has also set up a pole twenty-five meters high at his house because he wants to hang Mordecai on it. But Mordecai saved your life.” The king said, “Hang Haman on it!”

Where did the king say to hang Haman?

The king said to hang Haman on the tree that Haman made for Mordecai, which was standing at the house of Haman 50 cubits high.

Esther 7:10

ULT

10 And they hanged Haman on the pole that he had prepared for Mordecai, and the rage of the king subsided.

UST

10 So they hung Haman on the pole that he had set up for Mordecai. Then the king stopped being so angry.

Esther 8

Esther 8:1

ULT

1 On that day, the king Ahasuerus gave to Esther the queen the house of Haman, the adversary of the Jews. And Mordecai came before the face of the king because Esther told what he was to her.

UST

1 That same day, King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther all the property that had belonged to Haman. He had been the enemy of the Jews. Esther told the king that Mordecai was {her cousin and that he had been like a father} to her. When he learned that, {the king summoned} Mordecai to come to him.

Why did Mordecai begin to serve before the king?

And Mordecai came before the face of the king, because Esther told what he was to her.

Esther 8:2

ULT

2 And the king removed his signet ring, which he had caused to pass from Haman, and he gave it to Mordecai. And Esther placed Mordecai over the house of Haman.

UST

2 {When the king sentenced Haman to death,} the king took back from Haman the ring that had the king's official seal on it {and the king was wearing it again.} The king now took the ring off and gave it to Mordecai, {to show that Mordecai would have the power to act with the king's authority.} Esther also put Mordecai in charge of all the property that had belonged to Haman.

Why was Mordecai in charge of Haman's estate?

And Esther placed Mordecai over the house of Haman.

Esther 8:3

ULT

3 And Esther repeated her action, and she spoke before the face of the king. She fell before the face of his feet and wept and implored favor from him to take away the evil of Haman the Agagite and his plot that he had plotted against the Jews.

4 And the king held out to Esther the scepter of gold, so Esther rose up and stood before the face of the king.

UST

4 The king held out his golden scepter toward Esther, so she got up {off the floor} and stood facing the king.

What did the king do so that Esther could arise and stand before him?

And the king held out to Esther the scepter of gold, so Esther rose up and stood before the face of the king.

Esther 8:5

ULT

5 And she said, “If it is good to the king, and if I have found favor before his face, and the word is proper before the face of the king, and I am good in his eyes, let it be written to bring back the letters, the plot of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the provinces of the king.

UST

5 Then Esther said, “Your majesty, if you think that it is the right thing to do, and if you are pleased with me, please write a new letter revoking the letters that Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, sent out. His letters said to destroy all the Jews everywhere in your empire.

What letters had Haman written?

Haman had written letters to destroy the Jews who were in all of the provinces of the king.

Esther 8:6

ULT

6 For how could I bear to see the evil that my people would find? And how could I bear seeing the destruction of my kindred?”

UST

6 {I am asking this} because I cannot bear to see the terrible thing that is about to happen to my people. They are my kindred. I cannot bear to see people destroy them.”

Esther 8:8

ULT

8 So, in the name of the king, you write for the Jews as is good in your eyes, and seal it with the signet ring of the king. For there is none to take back a writing that has been written in the name of the king and has been sealed with the signet ring of the king.”

UST

8 {You also know that} no one can revoke a letter that has my name and my official seal on it, {such as the letter that Haman wrote}. So this is what you should do. Write {a new letter} to help the Jews, as you think best. {I give you permission to} put my name on it and to seal {the letter} with the ring that has my official seal on it.”

Why did Esther need to write another decree for the Jews in the name of the king?

Esther needed to write another decree because there was none to take back a writing that had been written in the name of the king and had been sealed with the signet ring of the king.

Esther 8:9

ULT

9 And the scribes of the king were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third of it. And according to all that Mordecai commanded, it was written to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and officials of the provinces that were from India even as far as Ethiopia: 127 provinces, province by province according to its writing, and people by people according to its tongue, and to the Jews according to their writing and according to their tongue.

UST

9 So the king sent for his scribes. {They came and} they wrote a letter saying everything that Mordecai told them {to write}. {They wrote this letter} on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan, {in the twelfth year that Ahasuerus reigned as king of Persia}. The letter addressed the Jews {in the empire}, but they also sent {copies of the letter} to the royal officials, and to the governors and leaders in each province. The empire {of Ahasuerus} had 127 provinces, extending all the way from India {in the east} to Ethiopia {in the west}. The scribes wrote to {people in} every province using its own alphabet and to each people group in its own language. They wrote {especially} to the Jews, in their alphabet and in their own language.

When were the king's scribes called?

So the scribes of the king were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third of it.

Esther 8:10

Esther 8:11

ULT

11 that the king gave to the Jews who were in every city, city by city: to gather and to stand for their life, to annihilate, and to slaughter, and to destroy any strength of a people or province that would attack them, children and women, and plunder their spoil;

UST

11 {Each copy of the letter said} that the king permits the Jews throughout the empire to join together and to fight to protect themselves. {The king's letter} also {permits them} to completely destroy any group of armed men from any people or province who would attack them. {The letter} also {permits them} to kill the women and children {of those who would attack them}, and to take the possessions of the people {whom they kill}.

What did the king give the Jews permission to do?

The king gave the Jews in every city the legal right to gather together and defend their lives, to annihilate and to slaughter and to destroy any group of a people or province that would attack them including their women and children and women, and to plunder their spoil.

17 In every province by province and in every city by city, any place where the word of the king and his law came, there was joy and rejoicing for the Jews, a feast and a good day. And many from the peoples of the land became Jews because dread of the Jews had fallen upon them.

UST

17 In every single province and in every single city, wherever {the couriers} brought the letter announcing the king's decree, the Jews rejoiced greatly and had big celebrations. Many people from other groups in the empire became very afraid of the Jews, so they became Jews themselves.

Why did many from among the variety of peoples of the land become Jews?

Many from the peoples of the land became Jews because dread of the Jews had fallen upon them.

ULT

1 Now in month 12, which is the month of Adar, on day 13 of it, when the word of the king and his law had reached the time to be done, on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to dominate them: but being overturned, it happened that the Jews themselves dominated those who hated them.

UST

1 On the thirteenth day of the twelfth month {of that year}, the month of Adar, it was time for everyone to do what the letters from the king said that he had decreed for them to do. The enemies of the Jews had expected to destroy the Jews on that day. But just the opposite happened. Instead, it was the Jews who destroyed their enemies.

12 And the king said to Esther the queen, “In Susa the citadel the Jews have slaughtered and destroyed 500 men, with the ten sons of Haman. In the rest of the provinces of the king, what have they done? Now what is your petition? And it will be given to you. And what is your request? Again, and it will be done.”

UST

12 So the king said to Queen Esther, “Here in the capital city of Susa the Jews have killed 500 men, including the ten sons of Haman. In the rest of my empire, they must have killed many more than that! So, what else do you want? Tell me, and I will do it for you. I will do whatever you ask, so please tell me what you want.”

Who did the Jews kill?

In Susa the citadel the Jews have slaughtered and destroyed five hundred men, with the ten sons of Haman.

15 And so on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, the Jews who {lived} in Susa joined together again and killed 300 {more} men in Susa. But {once again} they did not take the things that belonged to those men.

How many men did the Jews kill on the fourteenth day of the month Adar?

So the Jews who were in Susa assembled themselves also on day 14 of the month of Adar, and they killed 300 men in Susa.

Esther 9:16

ULT

16 And the rest of the Jews who were in the provinces of the king assembled themselves and stood for their lives, and they rested from their enemies, and they slaughtered 75,000 of those who hated them. But they did not stretch out their hand to the plunder.

UST

16 The Jews who {lived} in the other parts of the empire, who had joined together to fight for their lives {on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar}, had defeated their enemies and killed 75,000 of them {on that day}. But they did not take the things that had belonged to their enemies.

UST

17 {After defeating their enemies} on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, they rested on the fourteenth day. They devoted the fourteenth day as a day to celebrate joyfully.

What did the rest of the Jews who were in the provinces of the king do on the fourteenth day of the month Adar?

On the fourteenth day of the month of Adar they made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

Esther 9:18

ULT

18 But the Jews who were in Susa assembled themselves on the thirteenth of it and on the fourteenth of it. And they rested on the fifteenth of it, and they made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

UST

18 But the Jews who {lived} in Susa joined together {to fight against their enemies} on both the thirteenth and fourteenth days of the month {of Adar}. They rested on the fifteenth day. They devoted that day to celebrating joyfully.

Why do the Jews in Susa observe the fifteenth day of the month Adar as a day of gladness and feasting?

But the Jews who were in Susa assembled themselves on the thirteenth of it and on the fourteenth of it. And they rested on the fifteenth of it, and they made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

Esther 9:19

ULT

19 Therefore, the Jews, the ones of the open country, the ones who dwell in the cities of the open areas, make day 14 of the month of Adar for rejoicing and for feasting and a good day and for the sending of gifts, a man to his friend.

UST

19 That is why the Jews who live in rural villages observe this holiday on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar {rather than on the fifteenth day}. They do this by celebrating joyfully and by giving gifts to one another.

What do the Jews of the open country, the ones who dwell in the cities of the open areas, do on day 14 of the month of Adar?

They make day 14 of the month of Adar a day for rejoicing and for feasting and a good day, and for the sending of gifts, a man to his friend.

Esther 9:20

ULT

20 And Mordecai wrote these things. And he sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, the near ones and the far ones,

UST

20 Mordecai wrote down everything that had happened. Then he sent letters to all the Jews throughout the empire, everywhere that they lived.

How often did Mordecai obligate the Jews to keep the fourteenth and the fifteenth day of Adar? (vv20-21)

Mordecai obligated the Jews to keep the fourteenth and fifteenth days of Adar “every year by year,” meaning every single year.

Esther 9:21

UST

22 because those were the days when the Jews rested and no longer had to fight their enemies. That was the month when everything had changed for them. They had been deeply distressed {because their enemies were going to destroy them}. But then they became very happy {after they were safe from all their enemies}. {So Mordecai told them} to observe those days with joyful celebration and by giving gifts to one another. {Mordecai} also {told them that} they should help the poor on those days.

24 For Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the adversary of all the Jews, had plotted concerning the Jews to annihilate them. And he had cast a Pur (which is “the lot”) to vex them and to destroy them.

UST

24 {They would celebrate those days to remember} how Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had tried to destroy them. He had thrown a Pur (that is, a lot) {to find out what would be the best day} to attack the Jews and destroy them completely.

What does Pur mean?

The name Pur means “the lot.”

Esther 9:25

ULT

25 But when she came to the face of the king, he said with the letter, “Let his evil plot that he plotted concerning the Jews return on his head, and let them hang him and his sons on the pole.”

UST

25 {They would also remember how Esther dared to} come before the king {even though he did not summon her}. Then the king {allowed Mordecai to} send a letter {throughout the empire} saying that the king would make Haman’s evil plan to destroy the Jews happen to Haman instead. The king also ordered his servants to hang Haman on a wooden pole. When the Jews in Susa killed his ten sons, the king had his servants hang their bodies, as well.

28 And these days are remembered and are made in every generation by generation, family by family, province by province, and city by city. And these days of Purim will not pass away from the midst of the Jews, and their remembrance will not come to an end from their seed.

UST

28 So that is why every Jewish family in every generation {since} has celebrated these days as holidays, everywhere they have lived. The Jewish community and its descendants will always faithfully observe this festival of Purim.

Why would the Jews and their descendants never cease to faithfully observe these days of Purim?

So these days are remembered and are made in every generation by generation, family by family, province by province, and city by city. And these days of Purim will not pass away from the midst of the Jews, and their remembrance will not come to an end from their seed.

Esther 9:29

3 Mordecai the Jew was able to do so much because he was the most powerful person in the empire after King Ahasuerus. He was also a leader among his own people. All of his fellow Jews respected him. He worked {hard} to make sure that the Jews would always prosper.

What was the rank of Mordecai the Jew?

Mordecai the Jew was second to the King Ahasuerus.

Why was Mordecai great among the Jews and popular with his many Jewish brothers?

For Mordecai the Jew was second to the King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and favored by the multitude of his brothers, seeking good for his people and speaking peace to all its seed.

5 And it happened that when the days of the feast had gone around, Job sent and consecrated them. He arose early in the morning and offered burnt offerings {according to} the number of all of them. For Job said, "Perhaps my sons have sinned and blessed God in their hearts." Thus Job did all the days.

UST

5 After all of the sons had each held a feast, Job would gather his children together. He would ask Yahweh to cleanse them from any action they might have committed during their feasting that would have made them unacceptable to him. He would get up early in the morning, kill animals, and burn them on the altar {as sacrifices}, one for each {of his children}. {For} Job {always said}, "Perhaps my children have sinned by saying something evil about God in their thoughts. {If they have, I need to ask God to forgive them.}" Job did this after each time his sons had all hosted feasts.

After Job's sons held feasts with their brothers and sisters in their houses, what would Job do?

Job would consecrate them to God, offer burnt offerings, and pray for them.

Job 1:20

ULT

20 And Job arose and tore his robe and shaved his head and fell to the ground and prostrated himself.

UST

20 Then Job stood up and tore his robe and shaved his head {because he was very sad}. Then he lay down on the ground to worship God.

What did Job do after he got all these messages?

Job tore his robe, shaved his head, lay facedown on the ground, and worshiped God.

Job 1:21

ULT

21 And he said, "Naked I came from the womb of my mother, and naked I will return there. Yahweh gave, and Yahweh has taken. May the name of Yahweh be blessed."

UST

21 He said, "When I was born, I was wearing no clothes. When I die, I will not take any clothes with me. It is Yahweh who gave me everything that I possessed, and it is Yahweh who has taken it all away. I find no fault with Yahweh.

What did Job say about his condition after these events?

He said he came naked from his mother's womb, and he would return naked.

What did Job say that Yahweh had done to him?

Yahweh gave, and Yahweh has taken away.

Job 1:22

ULT

22 In all of this, Job did not sin and he did not ascribe impropriety to God.

UST

22 So in spite of all the things that had happened to him, Job did not sin by saying that what God had done was wrong.

How did Job show that he was not a foolish man?

Job did not sin, nor did he foolishly accuse God.

Job 2

Job 2:1

ULT

1 And it was the day, and the sons of God came to present themselves to Yahweh, and the adversary also came in their midst to present himself to Yahweh.

UST

1 On another day, the angels came again and gathered together in front of Yahweh. Satan also came again.

Who came with the sons of God when they presented themselves before Yahweh?

Satan also came and presented himself.

Job 2:2

ULT

2 And Yahweh said to the adversary, “From where have you come?” And the adversary answered Yahweh and said, “From wandering on the earth and from going back and forth on it.”

UST

2 Yahweh asked Satan, “Where have you come from {this time}?” Satan replied, “I have come from the earth, where I was traveling around {to see what was happening}.”

What did Satan tell Yahweh that he had been doing?

He said he was going to and fro on the earth, and walking back and forth on it.

Job 2:3

ULT

3 And Yahweh said to the adversary, “Have you set your heart on my servant Job? For there is not like him on the earth, a blameless and righteous man, fearful of God and turning from evil. And still he is holding firmly to his integrity, although you incited me against him, to devour him for nothing.”

UST

3 Yahweh asked Satan, “Have you noticed that Job continues to worship me? I mention him again because no one else on earth has such complete integrity as he does. He respects me, and so he refuses to do anything evil. He still does this even though you persuaded me to {permit you to} attack him for no reason.”

How did Yahweh say that Job continued to do after Satan’s attacks?

Job held fast to his integrity.

Job 2:4

ULT

4 And the adversary answered Yahweh and said, “Skin for skin! Indeed, all that {is} to a man, he will give for his life.

UST

4 Satan replied to Yahweh, “Job still worships you because he is glad you destroyed his herds and family rather than destroying him. People will give up everything they have in order to save their own lives.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 2:5

ULT

5 However, just stretch out your hand and touch upon his bones and upon his flesh, if he will not bless you to your face.”

UST

5 But if you harm his body, he will certainly curse you in front of everyone!”

What does Satan want to do to Job now so that Job will curse God?

Satan wants to touch Job’s bones and his body to hurt him.

Job 2:6

ULT

6 And Yahweh said to the adversary, “Behold him in your hand; only spare his life.”

UST

6 Yahweh replied to Satan, “All right, I permit you to harm his body. But you must leave him alive.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 2:7

ULT

7 And the adversary went away from the face of Yahweh, and he struck Job with bad boils from the sole of his foot to his pate.

UST

7 Satan {agreed and he} left. He went and caused Job to suffer from very painful boils all over his body.

How did Satan afflict Job’s body?

He afflicted Job with severe boils from the sole of his foot to the top of his head.

Job 2:8

ULT

[8] And he took for himself a shard to scrape himself with it, and he was sitting in the midst of the ash pile.

UST

[8] Job took a piece of broken pottery and scraped the boils on his skin. He sat down in a pile of ashes {outside the city}.

What did Job do to deal with the pain of his affliction?

He took a potshard and scraped himself as he sat in ashes.

Job 2:9

ULT

[9] And his wife said to him, “{Are} you still holding firmly to your integrity? Bless God and die.”

UST

[9] His wife said to him, “You should not still be loyal to God! You should curse God and then go ahead and die.”

What did Job’s wife want him to do?

Job’s wife wanted him to curse God and die.

Job 2:10

ULT

[10] But he said to her, “Like the speaking of the foolish one, you are speaking. Indeed, will we receive the good from God and not receive the bad?” In all of this, Job did not sin with his lips.

UST

[10] But Job replied, “You are talking the way people talk who do not know God. We should be willing to receive whatever God sends us.” So in spite of all the things that had happened to him, Job did not sin by saying that what God had done was wrong.

What accusation did Job make to his wife?

He accused her of thinking they should receive good at the hand of God but not evil.

Job 2:11

ULT

11 And the three friends of Job heard {that} all this evil had come on him, and they each came from his place, Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite, and they gathered together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him.

UST

11 Job had some good and wise friends. One of them was Eliphaz from the town of Teman. Another was Bildad, who was a Shuhite. A third friend was Zophar from the town of Naamah. These men heard about the terrible things that had happened to Job. So they each left their homes and went together to visit Job to comfort him sincerely.

What did Job's three friends do when they heard what happened to Job?

They came to mourn with him and comfort him.

Job 2:12

ULT

12 And they raised their eyes from afar and they did not recognize him, and they raised their voice and wept, and they each tore his robe, and they threw dust heavenward upon their heads.

UST

12 But when they saw Job from a distance, they almost did not recognize him. They wailed loudly, they all tore their clothing, and they threw dust into the air that settled on their heads. {They did these things to demonstrate how sorry they were for Job.}

How did the three friends of Job show their grief when they saw him? (vv12-13)

They raised their voices and wept, tore their robes, threw dust on their heads, and sat on the ground in silence for seven days and nights.

Job 2:13

ULT

13 And they sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights, and {there was} no speaking a word to him, for they saw that {his} grief was very great.

UST

13 Then they sat on the ground with Job for seven days. {During that time} none of them said anything to him, out of respect for how greatly he was suffering.

Job 3:3

ULT

3 "May the day on which I was born perish, and the night {that} said, 'A boy has been conceived.'

UST

3 "I wish that the day of my birth had never existed! {I feel the same way about} the night when my mother conceived me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 3:4

ULT

4 That day—may it be dark! May God not seek it from above, and may light not shine upon it.

UST

4 I wish that there would only be darkness on that day {so that it would not even be a day}. I wish that God in heaven would not care about that day and so not make the sun shine on it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 3:5

ULT

5 May darkness and a dark shadow claim it; may a cloud dwell over it; may the blacknesses of the day terrify it.

UST

5 I wish that that day were only darkness, with clouds blocking out the sunlight and many other things also making it very dark.

What does Job want to claim the day he was born?

He wants that day to be claimed by darkness and the shadow of death.

Job 3:6

ULT

6 That night—may gloom take it! May it not rejoice among the days of the year; into the number of the months may it not come.

UST

6 I wish that the moon and stars would not shine on the night when my mother conceived me. I wish that the day of my birth was not part of any month. Indeed, I wish that it was not a day in the year at all.

What does Job want to seize the night he was conceived?

Job wants that night to be seized by gloom.

Job 3:7

ULT

7 Behold: That night—may it be barren! May a joyful shout not come into it.

UST

7 I mean it—I wish that no mother would ever again bear a child on that date. I wish that no one would ever again rejoice {over a child's birth} on that date.

Job 3:9

ULT

[9] May the stars of its twilight be dark; may it wait for light but {there be} none, and may it not see the eyelids of the dawn,

UST

[9] I wish that the stars that shone early in the morning of that day would never shine again. I wish that it would never become light on that day. I wish that not even the first rays of the rising sun would appear on that day.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 3:10

ULT

[10] because it did not close the doors of my womb and hide trouble from my eyes.

UST

[10] I wish that day did not exist, because my mother gave birth to me on that day, and because I became alive, I have now experienced all these terrible things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 3:11

ULT

[11] Why did I not die from the womb, come out of the belly and expire?

UST

[11] I wish that I had died right after my mother gave birth to me! I wish I had stopped breathing after being alive for only a short time!

What did Job wish had happened when he came out of the womb?

He wishes he had died at birth.

Job 3:12

ULT

[12] Why did knees welcome me, and why breasts, that I should suck?

UST

[12] I wish that my mother had never held me on her lap and nursed me!

Job 3:13

ULT

13 For now I had lain down and was reposing, I had slept, then it was being rest to me

UST

13 If I had died shortly after my mother gave birth to me, I would now be resting peacefully among all the other people who had died.

What does Job say he would be doing now if he had died at birth? (vv13-14)

He would be sleeping and at rest with kings and counselors of the earth.

Job 3:14

ULT

14 with kings and counselors of the earth, the ones having built monuments for themselves,

UST

14 {I would be resting} with great kings and their advisers. They built beautiful tombs on spacious grounds {and are now resting in them}.

Job 3:18

ULT

18 Captives relax together; they do not hear the voice of a taskmaster.

UST

18 Those who were prisoners all rest peacefully {after they die}. They no longer have slave drivers ordering them around.

From what are prisoners and servants released in death? (vv18-19)

The prisoner is released from the voice of the slave driver, and the servant is free from his master.

Job 3:19

ULT

19 Small and great {are} there the same, and a servant {is} free from his master.

UST

19 Everyone, whether rich or poor, goes to the realm of the dead. Those who were slaves no longer have to obey their masters.

Job 3:20

ULT

20 Why is light given to the miserable, and life to the bitter in soul,

UST

20 God should not allow those who are suffering greatly like me to continue to remain alive! God should not allow those who are very miserable to live!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 3:21

ULT

21 the ones longing for death, but {it is} not to them, and they dig for it more than for hidden treasure,

UST

21 They long to die, but they do not die. They desire to die more than people desire to find buried treasure.

To whom does Job say that death will not come?

It does not come to the one who longs for death and who searches for it more than those who search for hidden treasure.

Job 3:22

ULT

22 the ones rejoicing unto gladness, and they celebrate when they find a grave,

Job 4:3

ULT

3 Behold, you have instructed many, you have strengthened weak hands.

UST

3 You yourself have given good advice to many people. You have encouraged people who were discouraged.

What good things does Eliphaz say Job has done for others?

Job had instructed many and strengthened weak hands.

Job 4:4

ULT

4 Your words have upheld the one stumbling, and buckling knees you have strengthened.

UST

4 When people were struggling, you were able to say the right thing to help them. You enabled them to be brave again.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 4:5

ULT

5 But now it comes to you and you tire; it touches you and you panic.

UST

5 But now that you yourself are suffering, you have become discouraged. You are not facing your troubles bravely {as you have helped others to do}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 4:6

ULT

6 {Is} not your fear your confidence, your hope, even the integrity of your ways?

UST

6 You should be confident because you honor God. You should be hopeful because you conduct yourself with integrity.

What does Eliphaz say is Job's confidence and hope in time of trouble?

Job's fear of God is his confidence, and the integrity of his ways is his hope.

Job 4:7

ULT

7 Remember, now: Who, he {being} innocent, has perished? And when were the righteous destroyed?

UST

7 Think about this: God does not destroy people who are innocent! No, God never kills people who are doing what is right!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 4:8

ULT

8 According to what I have seen, the ones plowing misery and sowing trouble reap it.

UST

8 I know from experience that this is true: When people plan to do bad things to others, those bad things happen to them instead.

Who perishes by the breath of God and his anger? (vv8-9)

Those who plow misery and sow trouble perish and cease to exist.

Job 4:9

ULT

[9] By the breath of God they perish, and by the blast of his nose they cease {to be}.

UST

[9] God becomes very angry with them {because of the wrong things they plan to do}, and so God commands that they will die, and they do die.

Job 5:2

ULT

2 For indignation kills the foolish, and resentment kills the one being simple.

UST

2 People who do not respect God get angry with God {instead of considering how they have sinned}. Naïve people resent God {when they do not get what they think they deserve}. {Their anger and resentment lead them to disobey God, so that} God punishes them severely and even kills them. So respect God and do not be naïve!

What does Eliphaz say will happen to a foolish and simple man?

Indignation kills the foolish man, and resentment kills the simple one.

Job 5:3

22 You will laugh at destruction and at famine, and you will not fear the beast of the earth.

UST

22 You will not worry about things like that or about not having enough to eat. You will not be afraid that wild animals will hurt you,

At what will the man whom God corrects laugh?

He will laugh at destruction and famine.

Job 5:23

ULT

23 For with the stones of the field {will be} your covenant, and the beast of the field will be made peaceable to you.

UST

23 because you will be confident that those wild animals will not attack you. You will not have big rocks in your fields that make plowing difficult.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 5:24

ULT

24 You will know that your tent {is in} peace; you will visit your sheepfold and you will not miss {anything}.

UST

24 You will know that things will go well for you in your home. When you check on your animals, you will see that they are all there.

What will the man whom God corrects find when he visits his sheepfold?

He will find that nothing will be missing.

Job 5:25

ULT

25 And you will know that your seed {will be} great and your offspring, like the grass of the earth.

UST

25 You will be certain that you will have many descendants. They will be as numerous as blades of grass.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 5:26

ULT

26 You will come to the grave in old age, like the lifting of a stack of grain in its time.

UST

26 You will live a long life, like grain that grows to become fully ripe before it is harvested.

How long will the man whom God corrects live?

He will come to his grave at a full age.

Job 5:27

ULT

27 Behold this: We have examined it, thus it {is}; listen to it and know {it} for yourself.”

UST

27 I can assure you that my friends and I have thought carefully about these things. We know that they are true, so please pay careful attention to what I have said! You also will realize that it is true.”

Job 6:2

ULT

2 “If only my anguish, being weighed, were weighed, and my calamity lay in the balances together {with it}!

UST

2 “If I could put all my troubles and misery on a scale and weigh them,

How does Job describe his anguish and his calamity? (vv2-3)

If his anguish and calamity were weighed, they would be heavier than the sand of the seas.

Job 6:3

ULT

3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas; therefore my words raved.

UST

3 they would certainly be heavier than all the sand along the ocean shores. That is why I spoke very rashly about the day when I was born.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:4

ULT

4 For the arrows of the Almighty are in me, whose poison my spirit is drinking; the terrors of God array themselves against me.

UST

4 It is as if Almighty God had shot me with arrows. It is as if those arrows had poison on their tips and that poison had gone into my spirit. The things that God has done to me are like soldiers lined up to attack me.

What has the Almighty done to Job with his arrows?

His arrows are in Job, and Job's spirit drinks up the poison.

Job 6:5

ULT

5 Does a wild donkey bray over grass? If an ox bellows over its fodder?

UST

5 Just as a wild donkey does not complain by braying when it has plenty of grass to eat, and an ox does not complain by bellowing when it has food to eat, I would not complain if you were really helping me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:6

ULT

6 Will the unsavory be eaten without salt? If there is taste in the white of an egg?

UST

6 People use salt to help them eat food that has little taste. People do that with the white of an egg, for example. I have been saying how I feel in order to help me deal with my situation.

What food does Job say has no taste?

He says the white of an egg does not have any taste.

Job 6:7

ULT

7 My soul has refused to touch; they {are} like disease {in} my food.

UST

7 But regarding food itself, I actually do not want to eat at all, because my troubles are making me too upset to eat.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:8

ULT

8 Who will grant that my request may come? And may God grant my longing

UST

8 I wish that God would do for me what I have asked of him:

What one request does Job long for God to grant him? (vv8-9)

He wants God to crush him and cut him loose from his life.

Job 6:9

ULT

9 and may God be willing and may he crush me, may he loose his hand and cut me off!

UST

9 I wish that God would agree to let me die! God is certainly able to end my life.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:10

ULT

10 Yet may it still be my consolation— indeed, let me exult in pain, may he not spare— that I have not concealed the sayings of the Holy One.

UST

10 If he did that, I would be comforted: I would know that in spite of the unrelenting pain I had suffered, I would still always have obeyed God's commands.

What is Job's consolation?

His consolation is that he has not have denied the words of the Holy One.

Job 6:11

ULT

11 What {is} my strength, that I should wait? And what {is} my end, that I should prolong my life?

UST

11 I do not have the strength to endure until these troubles are over. I have nothing to look forward to, so I do not want to live any longer!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:12

ULT

12 If my strength {is} the strength of stones? If my flesh {is} bronze?

UST

12 I am not strong like stone, my body is not sturdy like bronze, so I will not be able to endure these troubles for a long time.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:13

ULT

13 If my help {is} not in me, and initiative has been taken away from me?

UST

13 I am no longer able to help myself. My troubles are keeping me from doing that.

What has been taken away from Job?

Initiative has been taken away from him.

Job 6:14

ULT

14 To the despairing, covenant faithfulness from his friend, and the fear of the Almighty he forsakes.

UST

14 When a man has many troubles, his friends should be kind to him, even if he stops honoring Almighty God.

To whom should a friend show faithfulness?

A friend should show faithfulness to the despairing person.

Job 6:15

ULT

15 My brothers have dealt treacherously like a wadi, like a channel of wadis they pass away,

UST

15 But you, my friends, have not helped me. You are like streams in the wilderness that travelers cannot depend on, because they leave their channels empty in the dry season.

How does Job compare his brothers to a desert streambed? (vv15-17)

They have dealt treacherously like a wadi: they disappear in the dry season.

Job 6:16

ULT

16 the ones being dark from ice over it, it hides itself with snow.

UST

16 These streams are full of water when the melting ice and snow make them overflow,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:17

ULT

17 In the time they dry up, they are annihilated; in their being hot, they are exterminated from their place.

UST

17 but when the dry season comes, there is no water flowing in those streams, and the channels dry up.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:18

ULT

18 Caravans turn themselves aside from their way; they go up into wasteland and they perish.

UST

18 Merchant caravans turn off the road to search for water. {However, there is no water in those stream beds, so} the merchants die in the desert.

What happened to the caravans when they looked for water in these streams? (vv18-20)

They wandered into barren land and then perished. They were disappointed and deceived.

Job 6:19

ULT

19 Caravans from Tema looked; processions of Sheba hoped in them.

UST

19 The men in those caravans searched for some water because they were sure that they would find some.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:20

ULT

20 They were ashamed, because they had been confident; they went as far as it and they were confounded.

UST

20 They were very disappointed, because they had been sure that they would find water. They traveled a long distance to the stream bed, but there was no water in it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:21

ULT

21 For now you are nothing; you see a terror and you fear.

UST

21 Similarly, you three have not helped me at all! You have seen that terrible things have happened to me, and you are not helping me, because you are afraid that God might do similar things to you.

Why were Job's friends nothing to him?

They saw his dreadful situation and were afraid, so they did not help him.

Job 6:22

ULT

22 {Is it} that I said, 'Give me {something}'? Or, 'Make a gift to me from your wealth'?

UST

22 {After I lost all my wealth,} I did not ask any of you to give me money. I did not plead with any of you to spend some of your money to help me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:23

ULT

23 Or, 'Save me from the hand of the enemy'? Or, 'From the hand of the oppressors rescue me'?

UST

23 I never asked any of you to rescue me from my enemies. No, I did not ask you to save me from people who were oppressing me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:24

ULT

24 Teach me, and I will be silent, and how I have strayed, make me understand.

UST

24 Answer me now, and then I will be quiet; tell me what wrong things I have done!

What does Job say he will do if his friends would teach him?

He will be silent.

Job 6:25

ULT

25 How words of uprightness are forceful! But what does correcting from you correct?

UST

25 I would be willing to listen to what you had to say, even if it were painful, as long as it was helpful. But though you are trying to correct me, you are not really helping me at all.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:26

ULT

26 Do you think to correct my words, and to the wind the words of one despairing?

UST

26 I am a man who has nothing to hope for, but you try to correct me, and you think what I say is as useless as the wind!

What does Job say his friends plan to do with his words?

They plan to correct his words and ignore what he has said.

Job 6:27

ULT

27 Indeed, you cast {lots} for the fatherless, and you haggle over your friend.

UST

27 In fact, you are treating me as callously as if you were gambling for an orphan or arguing over the price of a friend you were selling into slavery!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:28

ULT

28 But now, be willing, look at me, and if I would lie to your faces!

UST

28 Please look at me! I will not lie while I am talking straight to you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 6:29

ULT

29 Please turn, let injustice not be; yes, turn, my righteousness {is} yet in it.

UST

29 Please stop saying that I have sinned! Stop criticizing me unfairly! You should realize that I have not done anything wrong.

Why does Job say his friends should relent in their attacks on him?

Job's cause is just.

Job 6:30

ULT

30 Is there injustice on my tongue? If my mouth does not discern iniquity?

UST

30 You must not think that I am lying! I know what is right to say and what is wrong to say.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7

Job 7:1

ULT

1 {Is} not hardship to a man on earth? And {are not} his days like the days of a hireling?

UST

1 "Life is very difficult for all of us on this earth! Like manual laborers, our days are long and hard.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:2

ULT

2 As a slave longs for shade, and as a hireling awaits his wages,

UST

2 We are like slaves who keep wanting to be in the cool of evening. We are like workers who have to wait to be paid.

To what does Job compare his months of misery and trouble-filled nights? (vv2-3)

He compares them to a slave desiring relief from heat, or a hired man looking for his wages.

Job 7:3

ULT

3 so I have been caused to inherit months of futility, and they have appointed nights of trouble to me.

UST

3 Like a slave, I am enduring a time when it feels useless to be alive. I have been experiencing many miserable nights.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:4

ULT

4 When I lie down, I say, 'When will I get up?' But the night extends, and I am full of tossings until dawn.

UST

4 When I go to bed I say, 'I hope I will be able to sleep for a long time!' But I never really get to sleep. I am restless right through to the morning.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:5

ULT

5 My flesh wears the worm and the clod of dust; my skin breaks and festers.

UST

5 My body is covered with maggots and dirt; pus oozes out of my open sores.

What covers Job's flesh?

Worms and clods of dust, open sores and infection cover his flesh.

Job 7:6

ULT

6 My days are swifter than a shuttle, and they end without hope.

UST

6 I am running out of days faster than a shuttle releases yarn into a loom, and I have no reason to hope that my life will end well.

What image does Job use to describe the speed of his days?

His days pass more swiftly than a weaver's shuttle.

Job 7:7

ULT

7 Remember that my life {is} a breath; my eye will not return to see good.

UST

7 God, remember that my life will soon end. {I do not think that} I will ever be happy again.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:8

ULT

8 The eye of the one seeing me will not regard me; your eyes {will be} on me, but I will not exist.

UST

8 God, you see me now, but {after I die,} you will not see me anymore. You may look for me then, but {you will not find me, because} I will not exist.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:9

ULT

9 A cloud disappears and goes away; so the one descending to Sheol does not ascend.

UST

9 Just as a cloud never appears in the sky again once it fades, so when people die and go to the place where dead people are, they never return to earth.

To what does Job compare the man who goes down to Sheol?

He is like a cloud that is consumed and vanishes away.

Job 7:10

ULT

10 He will not return again to his house, and his place will not know him again.

UST

10 They never return and live in their houses again.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:11

ULT

11 Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the distress of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

UST

11 So I will say everything I want to say. I will speak because I am so upset. I will complain because I am so bitter.

In what way will Job speak and complain?

He will speak in the anguish of his spirit and complain in the bitterness of his soul.

Job 7:12

ULT

12 {Am} I the sea or the sea monster, that you will set a guard over me?

UST

12 God, you do not need to watch what I am doing so closely! I am not a dangerous sea monster!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:13

ULT

13 When I say, ‘My couch will comfort me, my bed will take away my complaint,’

UST

13 Sometimes I think that if I could just go to sleep, I would stop suffering; my pain would be less while I was sleeping.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:14

ULT

14 then you scare me with dreams and you terrify me through visions,

UST

14 But then you make me have terrible nightmares!

What does God do to Job when Job goes to bed?

God scares him with dreams and terrifies him through visions.

Job 7:15

ULT

15 and my soul chooses strangling, death, rather than my bones.

UST

15 And I wish someone would kill me by choking me so that I would not have to stay alive {and suffer so much}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:16

ULT

16 I loathe; I will not live forever. Cease from me, for my days {are} vapor.

UST

16 I hate being alive {and suffering so much}! I do not want to live any longer! Stop afflicting me, because I will only be alive for a short time.

Why did Job want God to leave him alone?

Job said his days are useless.

Job 7:17

ULT

17 What is man, that you will magnify him and that you will set your heart on him,

UST

17 We human beings are not very important! You should not think that we are so important that you need to pay attention to what we do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:18

ULT

18 and you will visit him in the mornings and you will test him in the moments?

UST

18 You do not need to check every morning to see what we are doing! You do not need to evaluate us at every moment!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:19

ULT

19 For how long will you not look away from me? Will you not slacken until I swallow my saliva?

UST

19 I wish you would stop watching me and leave me alone for at least a little while!

What does Job ask God to let him alone long enough to do?

He asks to be left alone long enough to swallow his own saliva.

Job 7:20

ULT

20 {If} I have sinned, what have I done to you, the one watching man? Why have you made me a target for you? Indeed, am I a burden to myself?

UST

20 You watch me constantly, but if I sin, that certainly does not harm you! I feel as if I am your target and that you are shooting at me! You act as if I am bothering you all the time!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 7:21

ULT

21 Why will you not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity? For now I will lie down in the dust, and you will seek me diligently, but I will not exist.”

UST

21 If I have done wrong things, you could just forgive me. I am going to die soon. When I do, then if you decide you want us to be friends, it will be too late, because I will be dead.”

What does Job think God will not do?

Job thinks God will not pardon his transgression and take away his iniquity.

Job 8

Job 8:1

ULT

1 And Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

UST

1 Then Bildad, Job's friend who was a Shuhite, responded to Job. He said,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 8:2

ULT

2 "Until when will you say these things, and the words of your mouth {be} a mighty wind?

UST

2 "Job, you should not continue to talk like this. You are saying a lot of things, but they are not sensible.

To what did Bildad compare the words of Job's mouth?

He compared them to a mighty wind.

Job 8:3

ULT

3 Does God pervert justice? Or does the Almighty pervert righteousness?

UST

3 God always does things fairly. Yes, Shaddai always does what is right.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 8:4

ULT

4 If your children sinned against him, then he put them in the hand of their sins.

UST

4 Your children sinned against God. This is evident, because God has punished them for the evil things they did.

How did Bildad say he knew that Job's children sinned?

He said he knew this because God had punished them for their sins.

Job 8:5

ULT

5 If you seek diligently for God, and to the Almighty you appeal,

UST

5 But as for you, you should pray to God. Yes, you should ask Shaddai to help you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 8:6

ULT

6 if you {are} pure and upright, surely now he will rouse himself for you and restore the habitation of your righteousness.

UST

6 If you are genuinely good, then God will certainly do something good for you. He will give you back the abundant prosperity that good people have.

How does Bildad say that God would bless Job if Job were pure and upright?

God would reward Job by restoring his former home and wealth.

Job 8:7

ULT

7 Though your beginning was small, yet your end will increase greatly.

UST

7 God would make you so wealthy later in life that it would seem as if you were not very prosperous before!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 8:8

ULT

8 For inquire now of the former generations and consider the finding of their fathers.

UST

8 You should really consider the wise teachings of the people who lived before us. Yes, you should think about what our ancestors learned about life.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 8:9

ULT

9 For we {are} of yesterday and we do not know, for our days on earth {are} a shadow.

UST

9 I advise you to consider the wisdom of our ancestors because we have only been alive for a short time and we know very little. This is because our time here on the earth is very short, like a shadow that appears briefly and then goes away.

To what does Bildad compare our days on earth?

He says they are a shadow.

Job 8:10

ULT

10 Will they not teach you? They will speak to you, and from their hearts they will bring forth words.

UST

10 But if you consider the wisdom of our ancestors, you will learn useful things. Indeed, you will learn very profound things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 8:11

ULT

11 Does papyrus grow without a marsh? Does a reed grow without waters?

UST

11 Papyrus certainly does not grow away from marshland. No, reeds certainly cannot grow where there is no water.

What do papyrus and reeds require in order to grow?

Papyrus requires a marsh, and reeds need water to grow.

Job 8:12

ULT

12 It {is} still in its greenness, it is not cut down, but it withers before any {other} plant.

UST

12 If their water dries up while they are blossoming, they wither, while plants that do have water keep flourishing.

Job 8:13

ULT

13 Thus {are} the paths of all the ones forgetting God, and the hope of the godless will perish,

UST

13 People who do not pay attention to God are like those reeds. Such people hope for good things, but they do not get them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 8:14

ULT

14 whose confidence snaps and whose trust {is} the house of a spider.

UST

14 Godless people confidently expect good things to happen to them, but those things do not happen. Godless people trust certain other people to help them, but those others prove unreliable.

To what does Bildad compare the trust of godless men?

Their trust is as fragile as a spider's web.

Job 8:15

ULT

15 He leans himself against his house and it does not stand; he takes hold of it, but it does not arise.

UST

15 Godless people think they are secure because they are wealthy, but ultimately they can not rely on their wealth for security. When they begin to fail despite their wealth, they try to preserve their status, but they fail anyway.

Job 8:16

ULT

16 It {is} lush to the face of the sun, and its shoots go out over its garden.

UST

16 Godless people are like plants that formerly flourished in abundant sunshine, whose branches once spread out over the ground.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 8:17

ULT

17 Its roots are wrapped around a heap; it looks for a house of rocks.

UST

17 Godless people are like plants whose roots once twisted securely around piles of stones and clung tightly to rocks.

What do the roots do that represent a person that forgets God?

The roots are wrapped around heaps of stone and look for good places among the rocks.

Job 8:18

ULT

18 When one destroys it from its place, then it will deny him, 'I did not see you.'

UST

18 But a person can still pull a plant completely out of the ground even if it is that healthy and securely rooted. Then it will be as if the plant was never there in the first place. People who do not pay attention to God will perish just as completely.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 8:19

ULT

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and from the dust other {plants} will sprout.

UST

19 So people who do not pay attention to God will be sad in the end. Other people will come and take their places.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 8:20

ULT

20 Behold, God will not reject the innocent, but he will not hold the hand of evildoers.

UST

20 So I tell you, Job, that God will help you if you do what is right. But God will not help you if you do what is wrong.

How does God treat the innocent man and the evildoers differently?

He will not cast away an innocent man, but will not take the hand of evildoers.

Job 8:21

ULT

21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, your lips with shouting.

UST

21 God can still make you happy, yes, very happy.

With what will God fill the mouth and lips of the innocent man?

He will fill his mouth with laughter and his lips with shouting.

Job 8:22

Job 9:13

ULT

13 God will not turn aside his nose; the helpers of Rahab bow beneath him.

UST

13 God would continue to be angry {even if someone tried to calm him down}. {No one can oppose him;} he {even} defeated the forces of Rahab, the great sea monster.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:14

ULT

14 Indeed that I will answer him, choose words with him!—

UST

14 So I could hardly think of the right words to say in order to argue a case against God!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:15

ULT

15 whom, if I were righteous, I would not answer; I would plead to my judge for mercy.

UST

15 Even if I were innocent, I would not be able to argue a case against him. All I could do would be to ask God, as my judge, to be merciful to me.

Even if Job were righteous, how would he need to address God?

Job could not answer him, but could only plead for mercy.

Job 9:16

ULT

16 If I called and he answered me, I would not believe that he was giving ear to my voice,

UST

16 Even if he agreed to hear my case, I would not believe that he was genuinely considering my arguments.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:17

ULT

17 who would break me with a tempest and multiply my wounds for nothing.

UST

17 He keeps causing troubles that batter me. He hurts me many times for no good reason.

Why does Job believe God has multiple his wounds?

Job believed God multiplied his wounds without cause.

Job 9:18

ULT

18 He does not allow me to cause my breath to return, for he fills me with bitterness.

UST

18 He causes me to suffer all the time. It is as if he will not even let me get my breath again {before he causes the next disaster}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:19

ULT

19 If to strength, behold, {he is} mighty! And if to justice, who will summon him?

UST

19 Suppose I did make a case against him. And suppose the winner would be the one who was stronger. Then he would win, because he is far stronger than I am. And it would not matter who was right, since no one could make him obey what a judge decided.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:20

ULT

20 If I were righteous, my mouth would condemn me; {if} I {were} blameless, yet it would convict me.

UST

20 Even though I was innocent, he would find grounds in what I said to punish me. Even though I had not done anything wrong, he would still decide, based on what I said, that I was guilty.

Is it possible for Job to be righteous and perfect?

No, even then, his mouth would condemn him and prove him guilty.

Job 9:21

ULT

21 I {am} blameless. I do not know my soul; I loathe my life.

UST

21 I have not done anything wrong, {but that does not matter anymore because} I do not care what happens to me. I do not care whether I live or die.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:22

ULT

22 It {is} one; therefore I have said, 'The blameless and the wicked, he is destroying.'

UST

22 God punishes everyone the same way. As I have been saying, God destroys everyone whether they have done wrong or not.

Does Job think God treats righteous and wicked people differently?

He says God destroys both perfect people and wicked people together.

Job 9:23

ULT

23 When a scourge suddenly kills, he mocks the despair of the innocent {ones}.

UST

23 When people experience disaster and it causes them to die suddenly, God laughs when he sees them suffer, even if they are innocent.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:24

ULT

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked. He covers the faces of its judges. If not, then who {is} it?

UST

24 God has allowed wicked people to control what happens to everyone else. It is as though God has caused judges not to be able to judge fairly. If it is not God who has done that, who, then, has done it?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:25

ULT

25 And my days are swifter than a runner, they flee. They do not see good.

UST

25 I am approaching the end of my life more quickly than a messenger runs to bring news. it is as if the days of my life are running away from me. Good things do not happen to me.

To what three things does Job compare the speed of his days? (vv25-26)

They are swifter than a running messenger, they are as fast as reed boats, and as fast as the swooping eagle.

Job 9:26

ULT

26 They glide with boats of papyrus, as an eagle pounces on food.

UST

26 My life is going by very rapidly, as fast as a sailing boat made from reeds, as fast as an eagle swooping down to seize an animal.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:27

ULT

27 If I said, 'Let me forget my complaint, let me change my face, let me be cheerful,'

UST

27 If I decide that I will just forget what I am complaining about, if I decide to stop looking sad and try to be cheerful,

Why did Job say it would be in vain to forget about his complaints? (vv27-29)

God would not consider him innocent, but Job would be condemned.

Job 9:28

ULT

28 I would fear all my sorrows; I know that you would not acquit me.

UST

28 I still become afraid again because I know that God does not consider me innocent and so I think that he will punish me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:29

ULT

29 I am wicked; why, then, would I toil in vain?

UST

29 He will condemn me anyway, so why should I keep trying in vain to defend myself?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:30

ULT

30 If I washed myself with water of snow and cleansed my hands with lye,

UST

30 If I washed my body with pure water from melted snow and cleansed my hands with strong soap {to show how innocent I am},

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:31

ULT

31 then you would plunge me into a ditch, and my clothes would abhor me.

UST

31 God would just throw me into a filthy pit {to show how guilty he considers me to be}. My body would become so dirty that it would be as if my own clothes did not want to be on it!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:32

ULT

32 For I would not be answering a man like me, we would {not} be coming together into judgment.

UST

32 God is not a human, as I am, so I could not refute him to prove that I am innocent if we went together to have a trial in a courtroom.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 9:33

ULT

33 There would be no judge between us who would lay his hand upon the two of us,

UST

33 There is no one to mediate, no one who has authority over both of us.

What does Job say that no judge would be able to do?

No judge would lay his hand on both Job and God.

Job 9:34

ULT

34 who would turn from upon me his rod, and his terror, may it not frighten me.

UST

34 There is no one who could keep God from causing me to suffer, who could keep God from doing terrifying things that frighten me.

What does Job say no other judge could do?

There is no other judge who can take God's rod from Job, or keep God's terror from frightening Job.

Job 9:35

ULT

35 I would speak and I would not fear him. But I {am} not thus with me.

UST

35 {If someone could protect me and judge between us,} I would declare that I am innocent without being afraid of God. But I can not do that now.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 10

Job 10:1

ULT

1 My soul is weary of my life; I will abandon my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

UST

1 I am tired of living, so I will freely express everything I want to complain about {without worrying about what God will do to me}. Yes, I will say exactly how unhappy I am.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 10:2

ULT

2 I will say to God, 'Do not condemn me; cause me to know for what you are accusing me.

UST

2 I will say to God, 'If you are going to punish me, you should tell me what I have done wrong!'

Why does Job want God to show him instead of merely condemning him?

He wants God to show Job why he accuses him.

Job 10:3

ULT

3 Is it good to you that you will oppress {me}, that you will despise the work of your hands, but on the plans of the wicked you shine?

UST

3 You seem to think that it is all right to harm me and to abandon me, whom you created. But at the same time, you seem pleased to allow wicked people to do the things that they plan to do!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 10:4

ULT

4 {Are} eyes of flesh to you? If you see according to the seeing of a man?

UST

4 Certainly you know and understand more than what people can see with their eyes! {So you should understand my true motives and know that I am innocent.}

What kind of eyes does Job ask God if he has?

Job asks him if he has eyes of flesh and sees like a man sees.

Job 10:5

ULT

5 {Are} your days like the days of a man? If your years {are} like the days of a man,

UST

5 You do not live for only a short time as people do!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 10:6

ULT

6 that you seek for my iniquity and for my sin you search,

UST

6 So you do not need to act as if you would run out of time if you did not discover all of my sins right away!

For what does Job say that God seeks and searches?

God inquires after Job's iniquity and searches after his sin.

Job 10:7

ULT

7 above your knowledge that I am not wicked and there is no one rescuing {me} from your hand?

UST

7 {You do not need to work hard to discover any sins that I may have committed, because} you know that I am not guilty. And there is no one who could help me get away from you {if you decided you should punish me}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 10:8

ULT

[8] Your hands formed me and made me entirely round about, yet you are destroying me.

UST

[8] You personally created every single part of me. So it is not right for you to destroy someone whom you created yourself.

What had God's hands done for Job?

They had framed and fashioned Job, yet they are destroying him.

Job 10:9

ULT

[9] Remember, please, that you made me like clay, and will you turn me into dust?

UST

[9] Please recall how you made me! You molded me the way people mold objects out of clay. If you destroy me, I will crumble into dust {and you will lose your marvelous creative work}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 10:10

ULT

[10] Have you not poured me like milk and caused me to curdle like cheese?

UST

[10] You made me through a careful process, the way people carefully make cheese out of milk.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 10:11

ULT

[11] You have clothed me with skin and flesh and you have knit me together with bones and tendons.

UST

[11] You attached my bones together with tendons, and then you covered them with flesh inside my skin.

With what did God clothe Job?

He clothed him with skin and flesh.

Job 10:12

ULT

12 You made life and covenant faithfulness alongside me, and your visitation has guarded my spirit.

UST

12 You are the one who made me alive. {It seemed that} you were faithfully taking care of me. {It seemed that} you were protecting me.

What has God granted to Job?

God granted him life and covenant faithfulness.

Job 10:13

ULT

13 But in your heart you hid these things (I know that this {was} with you):

UST

13 But you kept secret what you were planning to do to me. I am certain that you were planning to do these things to me!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 10:14

ULT

14 If I sinned, then you would notice me, and you would not acquit me of my iniquity.

UST

14 You were watching me to see if I would sin so that you could punish me for sinning.

What would God do if Job sinned?

God will notice his sin, and not acquit him of his iniquity.

Job 10:15

ULT

15 If I am wicked, woe to me! And {if} I am righteous, I will not lift my head. {I am} full of disgrace. Yes, see my affliction!

UST

15 If I am a wicked man, then I hope that terrible things will happen to me. But even if I am a good man, I must still act ashamed because you are punishing me as if I had sinned.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 10:16

ULT

16 And should it arise, you would stalk me like a lion, and you would return, you would distinguish yourself against me.

UST

16 If I did act like the good man that I am, you would {conclude that you should punish me further and you would} hunt for me the way a lion hunts for some animal to kill. {When you caught me,} you would do even more things to harm me greatly.

What would God do to Job if Job's head were lifted up?

God would hunt him down like a lion.

Job 10:17

ULT

17 You would renew your witnesses against me and you would increase your anger against me; changes and an army {are} with me.

UST

17 You would claim that I had committed even more sins. You would become even more angry with me. You would keep punishing me in new ways.

Who would God bring against Job?

God would bring new witnesses against him.

Job 10:18

ULT

18 So why did you bring me out from the womb? Would that I had expired and an eye had not seen me!

UST

18 God, you should not have allowed my mother to give birth to me! I wish that I had died at birth! Yes, I wish that my parents had never shown me to anyone.

What does Job wish had happened to him?

He wishes he had died and that no eye had ever seen him.

Job 10:19

ULT

19 Would that I had been as though I had not existed! Would that I had been brought from the womb to the grave!

UST

19 I wish that I had never even existed! I wish that I had died at birth so that people had buried me right away.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 10:20

ULT

20 {Are} my days not few? So cease and put from me, and let me smile a little.

UST

20 I am not going to live very much longer! So please leave me alone and let me have a little peace.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 10:21

ULT

21 before I go—and do not return— to the land of darkness and deep darkness,

UST

21 {Let me have some peace now because} soon I will go to the place from which I will never return. In that place {where dead people go} it is always gloomy. Yes, it is very dark.

Where is Job going, from which he will not return?

He is going to the land of darkness.

Job 10:22

ULT

22 the land of obscurity like the gloom of dark shadow and no order, and it shines like gloom.'"

UST

22 Yes, in that place it is very dark, the way it is in deep shadow. Things are very chaotic there. Even the small light that is there is like darkness.'"

Job 11

Job 11:1

ULT

1 And Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,

UST

1 Then Zophar, Job's friend from the town of Naamah, responded to Job. He said,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:2

ULT

2 "The multitude of words, will it not be answered? Or if a man of lips will be justified?

UST

2 "I would like to respond to the long speech that you have just given. You talk a lot about how innocent you are, but that does not mean that you truly are innocent.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:3

ULT

3 Will your boastings make people silent? Or will you mock and no one {is} shaming?

UST

3 You have boasted that you are innocent, and I need to talk back in response. You have said disrespectful things about God. I need to tell you that you should be ashamed!

What did Zophar think Job had done to their teaching?

He thought Job had mocked his friends' teaching.

Job 11:4

ULT

4 For you have said, 'My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in your eyes.'

UST

4 I need to correct you because you have told God, 'I believe the right things, and you know that I have done the right things.'

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:5

ULT

5 But who will give God to speak and open his lips against you

UST

5 If only God would speak and say something to correct you!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:6

ULT

6 and declare to you the secrets of wisdom? For {it is} double to understanding. And know that God is forgetting for you {some} of your iniquity.

UST

6 If only God would tell you the secrets that he knows because he is so wise! {You need to realize that} God knows far more than you do. If you could understand as God does, you would realize that God is punishing you less than you deserve!

What does Zophar say that God has demanded from Job?

He said God has demanded less from Job than his iniquity deserved.

Job 11:7

ULT

7 Will you find God by searching? If unto perfection you will find the Almighty?

UST

7 You will never be able to understand God by thinking hard about him. No, you will never be able to find out everything about Shaddai.

Does Zophar think that Job could possibly understand God? (vv7-9)

Zophar thinks that it is impossible because God is as high as the heavens, deeper than Sheol, longer than the earth, and wider than the sea.

Job 11:8

ULT

8 The height of the heavens! What will you do? Deeper than Sheol! What will you know?

UST

8 God's wisdom is so much greater than ours, it is as if it is higher than the sky. So there is nothing you can do to understand it all. It is as if God's wisdom is deeper below the earth than the place where dead people go. So it is impossible for you to know it all.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:9

ULT

9 Its measure {is} longer than the earth and wider than the sea.

UST

9 There is so much to know about God that it is as if that knowledge is longer than the earth and wider than the ocean.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:10

ULT

10 If he comes and imprisons and assembles, then who will turn him back?

UST

10 If God wants to arrest you and put you on trial, no one can stop him from doing that.

Does Zophar think that it is possible for anyone to stop God? (vv10-11)

It is impossible to stop God because he knows false people and punishes iniquity.

Job 11:11

ULT

11 For he knows people of worthlessness, and will he see iniquity and not notice it?

UST

11 {God is a trustworthy judge} because he knows which people have bad character. When God sees people doing wicked things, he punishes them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:12

ULT

12 But an empty man will get a heart and the colt of a wild donkey will be born to a man.

UST

12 Some people simply have no understanding. They will become wise when humans start having wild donkeys as babies{—that is, never!}

When does Zophar say foolish people will have understanding?

They will have understanding when the colt of a wild donkey will be born to a man, meaning never!

Job 11:13

ULT

13 If you prepare your heart and stretch out your hands to him;

UST

13 Job, I urge you to repent humbly and pray sincerely to God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:14

ULT

14 if iniquity {is} in your hand, put it far away, and do not let unrighteousness dwell in your tents;

UST

14 If you have been doing evil things, stop doing them. If you do nothing wrong in any part of your life,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:15

ULT

15 for then you will lift your face without blemish, and you will be established and you will not fear;

UST

15 then you will be able to act as a person who is not ashamed of anything. You will be strong, and you will not be afraid of anything.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:16

ULT

16 for you will forget trouble; as waters pass by, you will remember {it}.

UST

16 You will not be afraid, because you will forget all the bad things that happened to you. They will all be gone, like the water that flows away down a river.

What does Zophar say would happen to Job's misery if he truly puts away his iniquity?

Job would forget his misery and remember it only like waters that have flowed away.

Job 11:17

ULT

17 And life will arise more than noon; darkness will become like dawn.

UST

17 Your life will be happy again. It will be as if the sun were shining on you as brightly as it shines at mid-day. You have had many troubles, but they will end, just as night ends when the sun rises.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:18

ULT

18 You will be confident, because there is hope, and you will look around, you will lie down in safety.

UST

18 You will feel safe because you will be confident that good things will happen to you. You will think about your life and realize that you can go to bed and sleep peacefully.

Why would Job be secure if he put away his iniquity?

He would be secure because there would be hope.

Job 11:19

ULT

19 Yes, you will recline and no one {will be} making {you} afraid, and many will stroke your face.

UST

19 You will lie down to sleep and nothing will scare you. Many people will come and ask you to be kind to them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 11:20

ULT

20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail, and escape will perish from them, and their hope {will be} an expiration of breath.”

UST

20 But God will punish wicked people by making them die. They will not be able to escape from God’s punishment. They will hope to live, but they will die anyway.”

What does Zophar say will be the hope of wicked people?

He says that their hope will be an expiration of breath, meaning that they can only hope to die.

Job 12

Job 12:1

ULT

1 And Job answered and said,

UST

1 Then Job replied to Zophar and the others. He said,

Job 12:2

ULT

2 “Truly, then, you {are} the people, and wisdom will die with you.

UST

2 “You are speaking as if you were the people to whom everyone should listen. You seem to believe that you are the only wise people who are now alive.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 12:3

ULT

3 A heart {is} also to me, like you. I {am} not falling below you. And with whom {are} not such {things} as these?

UST

3 But I have as much good sense as you do. I am just as wise as you are. People certainly know, in general, the things that you have said.

How does Job compare himself to his friends?

He says he also has understanding and is not inferior to them.

Job 12:4

ULT

4 I, the one calling on God and he answered him, have become laughter to his neighbor: just, blameless—laughter!

UST

4 Before, when I prayed to God for help, God would help me. But now{, because God is not helping me in my suffering,} other people laugh at me. I am righteous and I honor God, but they laugh at me!

What do Job's neighbors think of him now?

They laugh at him.

Job 12:5

ULT

5 In the thought of the secure {there is} contempt for misfortune, prepared for the ones slipping of foot.

UST

5 People like you who have no troubles think that others are suffering because of their sins. You think that God is punishing us and that is why we are suffering.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 12:6

ULT

6 The tents of robbers prosper, and securities {are} to the provokers of God, to {the one} who carries God in his hand.

UST

6 Meanwhile, bandits get rich by robbing people. Those who defiantly disobey God live peacefully. Such people believe that God cannot stop them from doing what they want to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 12:7

ULT

7 But now ask the beasts, and one will teach you, the birds of the heavens, and one will declare to you.

UST

7 But if the wild animals could speak, and if you asked them {what they know about God}, they would tell you {that God is responsible when someone suffers as I am suffering}. If the birds could speak, and if you asked them {the same question}, they would tell you {the same thing}.

Who does Job think could teach his friends? (vv7-8)

The beasts, the birds, the earth, and the fish of the sea could teach his friends.

Job 12:8

ULT

8 Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you, and the fish of the sea will recount to you.

UST

8 If the ground could talk, and if you asked it about God, or if fish could talk and you asked them, they too would tell you that God is responsible when people suffer.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 12:9

ULT

9 Which of all these does not know that the hand of Yahweh has done this?—

UST

9 All of them certainly know that it is Yahweh himself who has caused me to suffer.

What do all of the animals know?

They know that the hand of Yahweh has given them life.

Job 12:10

ULT

10 in whose hand {is} the life of every living thing and the breath of all flesh of man.

UST

10 He controls whether all living creatures live or die, including whether any person dies or continues to live.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 12:11

ULT

11 Does not the ear test words and the palate taste the food {that is} to it?

UST

11 We decide whether our food is good or bad by tasting it. In the same way, we think carefully about what we hear people say in order to decide whether it is good or bad advice. {I have listened carefully to you, and I have decided that you are giving me bad advice!}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 12:12

ULT

12 With the aged {is} wisdom, and in length of days {is} understanding.

UST

12 Older people have usually become wise. Because they have lived a long time, they have learned many things.

What does Job say about aged men and understanding?

Wisdom and understanding come as people grow old.

Job 12:13

ULT

13 With him {are} wisdom and might; to him {are} counsel and understanding.

UST

13 God himself is wise and very powerful. He has good sense and he understands everything.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 12:14

ULT

14 Behold, he breaks down and it is not rebuilt; he closes upon a man and it is not opened.

UST

14 Indeed, if God tears something down, no one can build it back up again. If God puts someone in prison, no one can enable that person to escape.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 12:15

ULT

15 Behold, he withholds the waters and they dry up, and he sends them out and they overthrow the land.

UST

15 Yes, God is so powerful that if he prevents rain from falling, then the water on the earth dries up. If God causes a lot of rain to fall, then water floods onto the land.

What does God do with the waters?

He with holds them and they dry up, and he sends them out and they overwhelm the land.

Job 12:16

ULT

16 With him {are} strength and prudence; to him {are} the one straying and the one causing to stray.

UST

16 God is the one who is truly strong and wise. He does not let anyone get away with doing wrong or with convincing others to do wrong.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 12:17

ULT

17 {He is} the one leading counselors away naked, and judges he makes foolish.

UST

17 {God is so powerful that} he can remove royal advisors from their positions, and he can cause judges to become fools.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 12:18

ULT

18 He removes the bond of kings and he wraps a cloth around their loins,

UST

18 God can take away the ruling authority that kings have and make those kings become slaves instead.

What does God take from kings?

He takes off the chain of authority from them.

Job 12:19

ULT

19 the one leading priests away naked, and the incumbent ones, he overthrows;

UST

19 God can remove priests from their positions and take the power away from those who have long ruled others.

Job 12:20

ULT

20 the one removing the lip {that is} to the ones being trusted, and the discernment of the elders he takes away;

UST

20 God can cause trusted counselors not to know what to say, and he can cause wise elders no longer to have good sense.

What does Job say about what God does to the trustworthy and the elders?

He can remove the speech of the trustworthy and take away the understanding of elders.

Job 12:21

ULT

21 the one pouring contempt on nobles, and the belt of the mighty ones he loosens;

UST

21 God can cause princes to lose the respect of others, and he can cause those who are powerful to become weak.

Job 12:22

ULT

22 the one revealing deep things out of darkness, and he brings dark shadow into the light;

UST

22 God can enable people to understand things that are very difficult to understand.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 12:23

ULT

23 the one magnifying nations, and he destroys them; the one enlarging nations, and he exiles them;

UST

23 God causes some nations to become very great, but later he destroys them. God enables some nations to enlarge their territory greatly, but later he allows others to conquer them and take their people away as prisoners.

What does Job say about God does to nations?

He makes them strong or destroys them, and enlarges them or leads them along as prisoners.

Job 12:24

ULT

24 the one removing a heart from the leaders of the people of the earth, and he causes them to wander in a wasteland {with} no path.

UST

24 He causes some human rulers to become foolish. As a result, they try one thing after another without success, as if they were lost in a desert without roads.

What happens to the leaders of the people of the earth when God takes away their understanding?

He causes them them to wander in a wilderness where there is no path.

Job 12:25

ULT

25 They grope in darkness and not in light; he makes them wander like a drunkard.

UST

25 It is as if they were trying to feel their way in complete darkness. It is as if they were staggering around drunk.”

Job 13

Job 13:1

ULT

1 Behold, my eye has seen all; my ear has heard and understood it.

UST

1 "I can assure you, my friends, that I already know everything that you have been telling me. Yes, I have heard and understood all that you have said.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:2

ULT

2 As you know, I also know. I {am} not falling below you.

UST

2 I know everything that you know. I do not know less than you do.

How does Job say his knowledge compares to that of his friends?

Job says that he knows the same as they know, and he is not inferior to them.

Job 13:3

ULT

3 But I will speak with the Almighty, and to plead with God I desire.

UST

3 But I would like to speak with Almighty God{, not with you}. I would like to convince him {that I am innocent}.

Who would Job like to talk to instead of his friends and why?

He would rather speak to the Almighty because Job wants to reason with God.

Job 13:4

ULT

4 But you {are} plasterers of a lie; all of you {are} healers of no value.

UST

4 As for you, you are telling so many lies about me that other people can hardly recognize what I am really like. Your advice is so worthless that you are all like doctors who sell people useless medicine.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:5

ULT

5 Who will give {that} being silent, you will be silent? And it will be to you for wisdom.

UST

5 I wish that you would just stop talking. Then you would really seem to be wise!

What does Job say about wanting his friends to be silent?

He says that the silence of his friends would be wisdom.

Job 13:6

ULT

6 Please hear my reasoning and heed the pleadings of my lips.

UST

6 Please pay attention to what I am telling you!

What does Job want his friends to hear?

He wants them to listen to his reasoning and the pleading of his lips.

Job 13:7

ULT

7 Will you speak unrighteously for God, and will you talk deceitfully for him?

UST

7 You are speaking on God's behalf, but you are not telling the truth! You are speaking deceptively, but you think that you are helping God!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:8

ULT

[8] Will you lift his face? Or will you plead for God?

UST

[8] You are not being fair to me. Instead, you are acting as if you are God's lawyers defending him in court!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:9

ULT

[9] {Is it} good that he will examine you? Or will you deceive him as deceiving a man?

UST

[9] If God investigates what you are doing, he will find that you are doing wrong. No, you can not deceive him as you might deceive a human being!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:10

ULT

[10] Reproving, he would reprove you if in secret you were lifting faces.

UST

[10] God would certainly rebuke you when he discovered that you were pretending to be fair but were actually being unfair.

Would God approve if Job's friends were showing favoritism?

No, he would strongly reprove them if they showed favoritism.

Job 13:11

ULT

[11] {Would} not his majesty terrify you and the dread of him fall on you?

UST

[11] He would certainly bring the full force of his power against you. That would make you very afraid of him!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:12

ULT

12 Your maxims {are} proverbs of ashes; your defenses are defenses of clay.

UST

12 You are quoting traditional sayings, but they have no value in my situation. Your arguments in support of your position are very easy for someone to refute.

What does Job think about his friends' sayings and defenses?

He says their sayings are proverbs made of ashes, and their defenses are made of clay.

Job 13:13

ULT

13 Be silent from me and let me speak, and let come upon me what {will}.

UST

13 So stop talking to me. Allow me to speak. I do not care what God does to me as a result of what I say.

What does Job ask his friends to do so that he may speak?

Job asks them to hold their peace and let him speak.

Job 13:14

ULT

14 Why do I take my flesh in my teeth and put my life in my hands?

UST

14 I will be risking my life. I will be taking the chance that God will execute me for what I say. But I have good reason to do that.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:15

ULT

15 Behold, he kills me, I will hope in him; I will surely defend my ways to his face.

UST

15 Indeed, God might kill me {for starting to argue a case against him}, but I hope that he {would still judge me fairly after I die}. So I am going to defend my behavior to him in person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:16

ULT

16 Even this {will be} for salvation to me: that the godless will not enter to his face.

UST

16 I believe that arguing a case against God will actually help convince God that I am innocent. After all, no wicked person would dare to approach God personally."

Why does Job think that he would be acquitted?

He does not come before God like a godless man.

Job 13:17

ULT

17 Hearing, hear my word, and {may} my declaration {be} in your ears.

UST

17 "God, listen very carefully to what I say. Pay attention to me as I speak.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:18

ULT

18 Behold now, I have prepared my defense; I know that I am righteous.

UST

18 Please pay careful attention because I will be defending myself by telling you things I have thought carefully about. I have examined myself, and I am convinced that I am innocent.

What has Job set in order?

He has set his defense in order.

Job 13:19

ULT

19 Who {is} he {who} will contend with me? For then I will be silent and expire.

UST

19 I do not believe that anyone could prove that what I am going to say is false. If I knew that it was false, I would not argue this case. I would accept dying {as my fair punishment}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:20

ULT

20 Only two {things} do not do to me, then I will not hide myself from your face:

UST

20 However, I must ask you to stop doing two things to me. Then I will be able to speak with you in person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:21

ULT

21 Withdraw your hand from upon me, and {with} your fear do not terrify me.

UST

21 The first thing I ask is that you stop punishing me. The second thing I ask is that you stop scaring me.

What does Job want God to withdraw from him?

Job wants God to withdraw his oppressive hand from Job and stop terrifying him.

Job 13:22

ULT

22 And call, and I will answer, or I will speak, and answer me.

UST

22 {If you agree to stop punishing me and stop scaring me, then} go ahead and start questioning me, and I will respond. Or allow me to question you first, and then you respond to my questions.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:23

ULT

23 How many iniquities and sins {are} to me? Make me know my transgression and my sin.

UST

23 Tell me what I have done that is wrong. Tell me what sins I have committed. Show me how I have disobeyed you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:24

ULT

24 Why do you hide your face and consider me an enemy to you?

UST

24 I do not understand why you are avoiding me. I do not understand why you are treating me like your enemy.

Who does God treat Job like?

He treats Job like his enemy.

Job 13:25

ULT

25 Will you terrify a driven leaf? Or will you pursue dry stubble?

UST

25 I am as insignificant as a leaf that the wind blows, so you do not need to punish me {as if I were a dangerous criminal}. I am as unimportant as a bit of dry chaff, so you do not need to chase me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:26

ULT

26 For you write bitter things against me, and you make me inherit the iniquities of my youth,

UST

26 {From the way I am suffering, it appears that you are punishing me because} you consider that I have done terrible things. It seems that you are punishing me even for the wrong things I did when I was young {and I did not know any better}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:27

ULT

27 and you put my feet in shackles, and you watch all of my paths; you engrave around the soles of my feet.

UST

27 It seems as if {you are judging me too strictly, as if} you had put chains on my feet {to keep me from going anywhere}. It feels as if you are watching everything that I do very closely. It is as if you will only let me do a few specific things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 13:28

ULT

28 And he decays like a rotten thing, like a garment—a moth has eaten it.

UST

28 {But you do not need to watch me so closely.} I am a mere human being with a body that is as fragile as rotten wood that is falling apart, as fragile a piece of cloth that the larvae of moths are eating.

What useless things does Job say he is like?

He is like a rotten thing that wastes away, like a garment that moths have eaten.

Job 14

Job 14:1

ULT

[1] Man, born of woman— few of days and full of trouble!

UST

[1] Human beings live only a short time, and during that time they experience much trouble.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:2

ULT

[2] Like a flower, he comes forth and withers, and like a shadow, he flees and does not stand.

UST

[2] People live brief lives, like flowers that appear quickly but then wither and fall to the ground. Yes, people's lives are temporary, like shadows that appear only for a short time.

How does Job say man is like a flower?

Man sprouts from the ground like a flower, and then withers.

Job 14:3

ULT

[3] Even on such do you open your eye, and do you bring me into judgment with you?

UST

[3] God, you do not need to watch fragile humans so carefully. You do not need to judge everything that I do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:4

ULT

[4] Who will bring clean from unclean? Not one!

UST

[4] No one can make something that is acceptable to God out of something that is not acceptable to him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:5

ULT

5 Since his days are determined, the number of his months {is} with you; you have set his limit and he will not pass {it},

UST

5 You have decided how many days each human life will last. Yes, you have decided how many months each person will live. No one can live any longer than the time you have decided. Because this is true,

Who decides the lifespan of man?

God has determined his days and the number of his months.

Job 14:6

ULT

6 look away from him, that he may desist until he fulfills his day like a hireling.

UST

6 please stop watching people so closely. Give them relief so that they can live out their brief lives in peace.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:7

ULT

7 For there is hope for a tree if it is cut down, that it will sprout again and its stalk will not cease.

UST

7 Now even after people cut a tree down, it is possible for it to start growing again and make new branches.

What does Job say about a tree that has been cut down?

There can be hope for a tree that has been cut down, for it can sprout again.

Job 14:8

ULT

8 Though its root grows old in the earth and its stump dies in the ground,

UST

8 Its roots in the ground may be very old, and its stump may be decaying,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:9

ULT

9 from the scent of waters it will bud and make a branch like a plant.

UST

9 but when rain falls on it, it may revive and send up shoots just as a young plant does.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:10

ULT

10 But a man dies, and a man weakens and expires, and where {is} he?

UST

10 But even the strongest people die. They grow weak and stop breathing, and then they are gone forever.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:11

ULT

11 Waters disappear from a lake and a river dwindles and dries up,

UST

11 Just as water evaporates from a lake, and just as a riverbed dries up,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:12

ULT

12 and a man lies down and does not arise. Until the heavens {are} no more, they will not awake and they will not be roused from their sleep.

UST

12 so people die and do not become alive again. Until the heavens do not exist any longer, people who die will not come back to life. No, no one will be able to make them alive again.

Does Job say a man can live again?

He says that that people do not rise up again, and will not be roused out of their sleep.

Job 14:13

ULT

13 Who will give {that} you will conceal me in Sheol, {that} you will hide me until the turning of your nose, {that} you will set a limit for me and remember me?

UST

13 I wish that you, God, would put me safely in the place where dead people go and forget about me. That way I would not suffer any more until you were no longer angry with me. I wish that you would decide how much time I need to spend there and then come and rescue me from that place.

Where does Job wish would God would hide him?

Job wants God to hide him away in Sheol, away from troubles.

Job 14:14

ULT

14 If a man dies, will he live? All the days of my hardship I will wait until the coming of my change.

UST

14 I do not believe that we humans live again after we die. If I knew that I would live again, I would wait patiently throughout this difficult life. I would know that after I died, things would become different for me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:15

ULT

15 You would call, and I would answer you. You would desire the work of your hands.

UST

15 {After I had been in the place where dead people go for the time you had determined,} you would call for me, and I would answer you. You would be eager to see me, one of the creatures that you had made.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:16

ULT

16 For then you would number my steps; you would not watch over my sin.

UST

16 Yes, then you would protect me wherever I went, and you would not be watching to see whether I sinned or not.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:17

ULT

17 My transgression {would be} sealed in a bag, and you would plaster over my iniquity.

UST

17 You would forgive the things I had done wrong. Yes, it would be as if I had not done them at all.

How would God treat Job's transgression and iniquity if God's wrath were finished?

God would seal up Job's transgression in a bag, and cover up Job's iniquity.

Job 14:18

ULT

18 However, a falling mountain crumbles, and a rock moves from its place,

UST

18 But just as mountains erode away and rocks tumble down slopes,

Job 14:19

ULT

19 waters wear down stones, its flooding washes away the dust of the earth, and you destroy the hope of man.

UST

19 just as water wears away stones and floods wash away soil, so you make all people die, even though they hope to keep living.

What amazing thing can water do over time?

Water can wear down stones.

Job 14:20

ULT

20 You forever overpower him, and he goes away; changing his face, you send him away.

UST

20 You make us age the whole time we are living, and then we die. Yes, you make our faces show that we are old and about to die, and then you make us go to the place where dead people go.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 14:21

ULT

21 His sons achieve honor and he does not know, or they become insignificant and he does not perceive them.

UST

21 When we die, we do not know whether our children will grow up and do things that will cause other people to honor them. If they do shameful things instead, we do not know that either.

What kinds of things does a dead man not know about his sons (his children)?

If they achieve honor or become insignificant, he does not know it.

Job 14:22

ULT

22 Only his flesh grieves for him, and {only} his soul mourns for him.”

UST

22 When we die, we feel sorry for ourselves, but no one else feels sorry for us. Yes, we grieve for ourselves, but no one else grieves for us.”

Job 15:4

ULT

4 Indeed, you destroy fear, and you diminish devotion to the face of God,

UST

4 You are actually encouraging others not to respect God. Yes, you are discouraging people from honoring him.

How does Eliphaz think that Job's statements dishonored God?

He thinks Job destroys fear and diminishes devotion to God.

Job 15:5

ULT

5 for your iniquity teaches your mouth, and you choose the tongue of the crafty.

UST

5 You are wicked, and that is why you say what you do. You are talking in the way that deceptive people talk.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 15:6

ULT

6 Your mouth condemns you, and not I, and your lips testify against you.

UST

6 Everything that you say shows that God should punish you. It is not necessary for me to prove that.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 15:7

ULT

7 Were you born the first man, and to the face of the hills were you formed?

UST

7 {You should not think that you know so much} You were not the first person whom God created. God did not make you when he first formed the world.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 15:8

ULT

[8] Do you hear the counsel of God? Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

UST

[8] You do not listen as God makes his plans. You should not think that you are the only person who is wise.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 15:9

ULT

[9] What do you know, and we do not know? {What} do you understand, and it {is} not with us?

UST

[9] We know everything that you know. We understand everything that you understand.

Does Eliphaz think that Job knows something that the other friends do not know?

He does not think that Job knows what they do not know, or that he understands they do not understand.

Job 15:10

ULT

[10] Both the gray-haired and the aged {are} with us, greater than your father {in} days.

UST

[10] My friends and I are saying the same things that old, wise people say, people who were born before your father was.

Which people does Eliphaz say agree with Job's friends?

The gray-headed and very aged men who are older than Job's father are with Eliphaz and his friends.

Job 15:11

ULT

[11] {Are} the consolations of God too small for you, or a word in gentleness to you?

UST

[11] God wants to comfort you and speak gently to you, but you do not appreciate that.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 15:12

ULT

12 Why does your heart carry you away and why do your eyes flash,

UST

12 You should not be allowing yourself to become so emotional. No, you should not be allowing yourself to lose your temper.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 15:13

ULT

13 that you turn your spirit against God and bring out words from your mouth?

UST

13 You have become angry with God, and so you are saying harsh things against him.

What does Eliphaz think Job has done?

He thinks Job has turned his spirit against God.

Job 15:14

ULT

14 What {is} man, that he should be pure, or that one born of a woman should be righteous?

UST

14 No human being can be sinless. No one on this earth can be completely righteous.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 15:15

ULT

15 Behold, he does not trust in his holy ones, and the heavens are not clean in his eyes;

UST

15 God does not even trust his own angels {to do the right thing every time}. He does not consider the heavens to be completely pure.

How does God view his holy ones and the heavens?

He puts no trust even in his holy ones, and the heavens are not clean in his sight.

Job 15:16

ULT

16 indeed that the abominable and the corrupted, a man drinking iniquity like water!

UST

16 So God certainly does not consider people to be pure who commit terrible wrongs, who do evil deeds as often as they drink water.

Job 15:17

ULT

17 I will show you; listen to me, and what I have seen, let me also recount,

UST

17 Job, I want to explain {why you are experiencing so much suffering}. Please listen to me. I have learned many things, and I want to explain them to you.

From whom did Eliphaz get the things he will announce to Job? (vv17-18)

The things he has seen are things that wise men passed down from their fathers, and things that ancestors did not hide.

Job 15:18

ULT

18 what the wise have declared— and not hidden—from their fathers.

UST

18 These are things that wise people have passed down from their ancestors. These wise people have declared all these things openly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 15:19

ULT

19 To them alone the land was given, and no stranger passed in their midst.

UST

19 God gave the land {of Edom} exclusively to my wise ancestors. No one came from another country and caused them to think wrongly about God.

Job 15:20

ULT

20 All of the days of the wicked, he is writhing, and the number of years, they are reserved for the oppressor.

UST

20 Wicked people suffer great pain the whole time that they are alive. God has determined that this will happen constantly to those who oppress others.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 15:21

ULT

21 The sound of terrors {is} in his ears; in prosperity the destroyer comes upon him.

UST

21 Wicked people constantly experience terrible things. They may become wealthy, but they will lose that wealth.

When will the destroyer come upon the wicked man?

The destroyer will come upon him while he is in his prosperity.

Job 15:22

ULT

22 He does not believe to return from darkness, and he is selected for the sword.

UST

22 Wicked people lose hope that their troubles will ever end. They are always afraid that they are going to die violently.

What waits for the wicked man?

The sword waits for the wicked man.

Job 15:23

ULT

23 He {is} wandering for bread—'Where {is it}?' He knows that the day of darkness {is} prepared at hand.

UST

23 They have to go and search for food to eat. They do not know where to find it. They know that they will certainly experience disasters soon.

ULT

28 And he lives {in} ruined cities, {in} houses that no one dwells in, which are ready {to be} heaps.

UST

28 Wicked people have to live in cities that others have deserted. They live in homes that others have abandoned. Those homes are about to collapse into a pile of ruins.

What will happen to the cities and houses of the wicked man?

They are ready to become heaps.

Job 15:29

ULT

29 He will not be rich, and his wealth will not stand, and their possessions will not spread over the land.

UST

29 Few wicked people become rich, and those who do become rich do not stay rich for very long. No, they do not acquire great wealth.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 15:30

ULT

30 He will not depart from darkness; a flame will dry up his shoots, and he will depart at the breath of his mouth.

UST

30 Wicked people will always be in trouble. They will be like trees whose branches burn up. When God gives the command, they will die.

What will cause the wicked to go away?

He will go away at the breath of God's mouth.

Job 15:31

ULT

31 Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself; for emptiness will be his recompense.

UST

31 Wicked people are often foolish and want to get things that are actually worthless. In the end, all they have are those worthless things.

What reward will the wicked man have for trusting in worthless things?

Emptiness will be his reward.

Job 15:32

ULT

32 When {it is} not his day, it will be fulfilled, and his branch will not be green.

UST

1 Then Job replied to Eliphaz and the others. He said,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:2

ULT

2 "I have heard many such things; all of you {are} comforters of trouble.

UST

2 "I have heard many things like that before. All of you, instead of helping me, are only causing me to feel more miserable.

What did Job say about the comfort offered by his friends? (vv2-3)

Job said they were making him more miserable with their endless, useless words.

Job 16:3

ULT

3 {Is there} an end to words of wind? Or what compels you that you answer?

UST

3 I wish that you would stop saying these things that are not helping me. Eliphaz, I do not understand why you feel that you must keep replying to me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:4

ULT

4 I also would speak like you if your souls were where my soul is. I would join words together against you and I would shake my head at you.

UST

4 I could say the same things that you are saying if you were the ones suffering instead of me. I could make great speeches to criticize you, and I could shake my head at you {to ridicule you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:5

ULT

5 I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips would relieve {you}.

UST

5 I would think that I was encouraging you by what I said. Yes, I would think that I was relieving you by speaking with you

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:6

ULT

6 If I speak, my pain is not relieved, but {if} I refrain, what goes from me?

UST

6 But as it is, if I talk, I continue to suffer just as much, and if I do not talk, that does not reduce my suffering either.

How does Job's speaking affect his grief?

If he speaks, his grief is not lessened, and if he keeps from speaking, he is not helped.

Job 16:7

ULT

7 But now he has exhausted me; you have devastated my whole family,

UST

7 But now {I will speak to God}. God, you have taken away all my strength, and you have killed all of my children.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:8

ULT

8 and you have shriveled me— it has become a witness, and my leanness rises up against me, it testifies against my face.

UST

8 You have made me sick, and I have lost a lot of weight, and people think that shows that I am a sinner. They see how thin I am, and they think that proves that I am guilty.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:9

ULT

9 In his nose, he has torn {me} and he has attacked me; he gnashes his teeth against me. My enemy sharpens his eyes against me.

UST

9 God is so angry with me that he has attacked me and hurt me. Now he is moving his teeth back and forth because he is still so angry with me. He is watching me closely {to see how he can attack me again}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:10

ULT

10 They have gaped at me with their mouth; in reproach they have struck my cheek; they have gathered themselves together against me.

UST

10 People look at me with their mouths wide open in order to humiliate me. They hit me in the face because they think I have done wrong. They crowd around me to threaten me.

How are other people treating Job as God attacks him?

They gape at Job with open mouth, hit him reproachfully on the cheek, and gathered together against him.

Job 16:11

ULT

11 God delivers me to sinners, and into the hands of the wicked he throws me.

UST

11 God has allowed people who do not honor him to mistreat me. He has allowed wicked people to do whatever they want to me.

To whom has God given Job?

God handed him over to the ungodly and threw him into the hands of wicked people.

Job 16:12

ULT

12 I was tranquil, but he has shattered me, and he has seized my neck and shaken me to pieces. And he has set me up as a target for him;

UST

12 Previously, I was living peacefully, but then God caused great trouble for me. It is as if he grabbed my neck and shook me to pieces. It is as if he set me up as a target

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:13

ULT

13 his archers have surrounded me. He pierces my kidneys and he does not spare; he pours my bile on the ground.

UST

13 and people were surrounding me and shooting arrows at me. It is as if those arrows cut open my kidneys and caused the gall from my liver to spill onto the ground. God is not having any mercy on me at all!

How has God injured Job?

He has pierced Job's kidneys and poured out his bile on the ground.

Job 16:14

ULT

14 He breaches me, breach upon the face of breach; he runs against me like a warrior.

UST

14 It is as if I were a wall that God was breaking down in many places. It is as if God were rushing at me like a soldier who was attacking his enemy.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:15

ULT

15 I have sewn sackcloth on my skin, and I have thrust my horn into the dust.

UST

15 {I am grieving so deeply that} it is as if I have sewn rough mourning cloth right onto my skin! I feel weak and humiliated.

What has Job done to his skin to show his grief?

He has sewn sackcloth on his skin.

Job 16:16

ULT

16 My face is red with weeping, and on my eyelids {is} a dark shadow,

UST

16 My face is red because I have cried so much. I have dark circles around my eyes because I have not been sleeping well.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:17

ULT

17 although violence {is} not in my hands and my prayer {is} pure.

UST

17 All this has happened to me even though I have not violently harmed anyone and even though I pray sincerely to God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:18

ULT

18 Earth, do not conceal my blood, and may {there} not be a {hiding} place for my cry.

UST

18 I feel as if I am the victim of a violent crime, and I want people to show concern about what has happened to me. I do not want anyone to stop me while I am demanding that God act justly toward me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:19

ULT

19 Even now, behold, my witness {is} in the heavens, and my advocate {is} in the heights.

UST

19 But even now, I know that there is someone in heaven who will testify for me. He will confirm that what I have done is right.

Who is Job's witness and able to vouch for Job?

Job's witness is in heaven, and the one who is for him is on high.

Job 16:20

ULT

20 My intercessors {are} my friends; my eye weeps to God.

UST

20 This person in heaven is my friend, and he will plead with God for me. {At the same time, I will also plead with God so earnestly} that I will weep.

Who does Job turn to as his friends scoff at him?

Job pours out his tears to God.

Job 16:21

ULT

21 And he will argue for a man with God, and a son of man for his neighbor.

UST

21 My friend will plead with God for me in heaven the same way one person pleads for another person here on earth.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 16:22

ULT

22 For years of number will come, and I will go {on} a path, I will not return.

UST

22 {I want God to treat me justly now, while there is still time,} because within a few years I will die.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 17

Job 17:1

ULT

[1] My spirit is destroyed, my days are extinguished; graves {are} for me.

UST

[1] My time to live is almost over. I have no strength left. I am just about to die.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 17:2

ULT

[2] If {there are} not mockers with me? And on their provocations my eye lingers.

UST

[2] The people who are around me are continually making fun of me. I have to watch them taunt me.

What must Job always see?

He must always see the provocation of the mockers who are with him.

Job 17:3

ULT

[3] Please set down, be surety for me with you. Who {is} he {who} will strike himself to my hand?

UST

[3] "God, even though you would be trying my case, please also guarantee to yourself that I will appear in court and behave as a defendant should. There is certainly no one else who will do that for me.

What pledge does Job want God to make to Job?

He wants God to pledge himself to be a guarantee for Job.

Job 17:4

ULT

4 For you have hidden their hearts away from understanding; therefore you will not exalt {them}.

UST

4 My friends will not vouch for me, because you have prevented them from understanding that I am innocent. Nevertheless, you will not prove them right by declaring me guilty.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 17:5

ULT

5 He {who} denounces friends for a reward, even the eyes of his sons will fail.

UST

5 {I know that you will treat me justly because you make sure that people act justly. {For example,} you punish people who give false testimony against their neighbors in exchange for a bribe. You make their whole families suffer if they do that.

Whose evil deed will cause the eyes of his children to fail?

The one who denounces his friends for a reward will cause the eyes of his children to fail.

Job 17:6

ULT

6 But he has made me a saying of the peoples, and I have become a spitting in the face,

UST

6 But because God is punishing me, people use my name to mean someone who was formerly prosperous but who experienced disaster because he was wicked. People even spit in my face {to insult me}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 17:7

ULT

7 and my eye is dim from sorrow, and my members {are} like a shadow, all of them.

UST

7 Because I am very sad, it has become hard for me to see. My whole body has become so thin that it is as if I am not even here.

What has happened to Job's eye and his body because of sorrow?

His eye is dim and all his body parts are as thin a shadow.

Job 17:8

ULT

[8] The upright wonder at this, and the innocent rouses himself against the godless.

UST

[8] When people who are truly righteous see what has happened to me, it shocks them. It makes them want to punish people who really disobey God.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 17:9

ULT

[9] And the righteous will hold his way, and the clean of hands will add strength.

UST

[9] Those who are truly righteous will continue to do what is right, and those who are innocent will continue to become stronger.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 17:10

ULT

[10] But all of them, may you return, and come now, but I will not find a wise {person} among you.

UST

[10] But as for you friends of mine, we could continue talking, but I do not think that I will conclude that even one of you is wise.

Does Job think that he can find a wise man among his friends?

Job knows that he will not find a wise man among them.

Job 17:11

ULT

[11] My days have passed, my plans are broken, the desires of my heart.

UST

[11] My time to live has almost ended. I have not been able to do the things that I planned to do. I can no longer hope that the things I most desired will happen.

Does Job have plans for the future?

Job's plans are over, as are the wishes of his heart.

Job 17:12

ULT

12 They change night into day. Light is near from the face of darkness.

UST

12 My friends say that the troubles I am experiencing are actually a good thing {because God is using the troubles to correct me}. My friends say that because my troubles have become so bad, that means they must nearly be over.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 17:13

ULT

13 If I hope for Sheol {as} my house, {if} in the darkness I have spread out my bed,

UST

13 Suppose the only home I could hope to have was the place where dead people go. Suppose I were going to stay in that dark place.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 17:14

ULT

14 {if} I call to the pit, 'You {are} my father,' to the worm, 'My mother' or 'My sister,'

UST

14 Suppose I considered the grave to be my family home, and suppose I considered the worms that live in graves to be my family.

What has become Job's father, mother, and sister?

The pit has become his father, and the worm is his mother and sister.

Job 17:15

ULT

15 where then {would be} my hope? And my hope, who would see it?

UST

15 Then that would show that I truly do not have good things to hope for. Everyone would recognize that I was not really hoping for anything.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 17:16

ULT

16 Will they descend to the bars of Sheol? If {our} rest {will be} together in the dust?”

UST

16 It would be as if everything I hoped for were going to the place where dead people go. Yes, it would be as if people were burying the things I have hoped for with me in a grave.”

ULT

3 Why are we regarded as beasts, {as if} we are stupid in your eyes?

UST

3 You seem to think that we are as stupid as cattle.

How did Bildad think Job viewed his friends?

Bildad thought Job regarded them as beasts and thought they were stupid.

Job 18:4

ULT

4 The one tearing himself in his nose— will the earth be forsaken for your sake, or will the rock move from its place?

UST

4 But by being so angry, you are only hurting yourself. You seem to think that everyone should abandon the earth because life on earth is no longer worth living for anyone after what has happened to you. You seem to think that there should be a great earthquake {as a sign of what an awful thing has happened to you}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 18:5

ULT

5 Indeed, the light of the wicked goes out; the flame of his fire will not shine.

UST

5 But actually, what has happened to you is not momentous. Wicked people are bound to lose their prosperity. They will not continue to enjoy happiness.

What will happen to the light of the wicked person?

His light goes out; the flame of his fire will not shine.

Job 18:6

ULT

6 The light in his tent will be dark, and his lamp will go out above him.

UST

6 It will be as if the light went out in the tent in which they were living, so that they could not enjoy living there.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 18:7

ULT

7 The steps of his strength will shorten, and his plan will cast him down.

UST

7 Wicked people become weaker {because of the troubles they cause for themselves}. They try to take advantage of other people, but they hurt themselves instead.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 18:8

ULT

8 For he will be cast into a net by his feet, and he will wander into a pitfall.

UST

8 Yes, it is as if they walk into a net that they do not realize is there or fall into a pit that someone has concealed as a trap.

What will throw the wicked man into a net?

He will be thrown into a net by his own feet, and he will walk into a pitfall.

Job 18:9

ULT

[9] A snare will seize {him} by the heel; a trap will hold onto him.

UST

[9] It is as if their feet get caught in a trap that does not let them go.

What will catch the wicked man? (vv9-10)

He will be caught by a trap, a snare, and a noose.

Job 18:10

ULT

[10] His rope is hidden in the ground, and his trap for him {on} the path.

UST

[10] It is as if a loop of rope that someone has hidden on the ground springs up and seizes them when they walk onto it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 18:11

ULT

[11] Terrors on every side will frighten him, and they will chase him at his feet.

UST

Job 18:14

ULT

14 He is pulled from his tent, his safety, and one marches him to the king of terrors.

UST

14 They have a secure life, but it ends suddenly. They die without being able to do anything to save their lives.

Where will the wicked man no longer live?

He will no longer live in his tent but will be unable to save himself.

Job 18:15

ULT

15 One will dwell in his tent, {which is} not to him; sulfur is scattered upon his home.

UST

15 Then all of their possessions will belong to other people. Wicked people will have nothing left, as if God had burned up everything they had by making burning stones fall on it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 18:16

ULT

16 Below, his roots dry up, and above, his branch withers.

UST

16 They will be lifeless, like trees whose roots have dried up and whose branches have all withered.

What image does Bildad use to describe what will happen to the wicked man?

He describes the wicked man as a tree whose roots will dry up beneath the ground, and whose branch will wither above.

Job 18:17

ULT

17 His memory will perish from the earth, and no name {will be} to him upon the face of the land.

UST

17 No one on the earth will remember them anymore. No, no one anywhere in the world will recall what they were like.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

What does Job ask his friends to stop doing to him?

Job asks his friends to stop hurting him and discouraging him.

Job 19:3

ULT

3 These ten times you have reproached me; you are not ashamed, you mistreat me.

UST

3 You have insulted me repeatedly. You should be ashamed for speaking so harshly to me!

How many times have Job’s friends reproached him?

They have reproached him ten times.

Job 19:4

ULT

4 And even {if} truly I have erred, my error remains with me.

UST

4 Even if it were true that I had done wrong, that would be my concern, not yours!

Whose concern should it be if Job had erred?

Job says the error should be his own concern.

Job 19:5

ULT

5 If truly you will exalt yourselves above me and plead my disgrace against me,

UST

5 If you truly think that you are better than I am, and if you are claiming that I must be guilty because I am suffering,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 19:6

ULT

6 then know that God has wronged me, and his net has closed around me.

UST

6 you should realize that it is God who has caused me to suffer. It is as if he had a net and caught me in it, like an animal he wanted to trap.

How does Job say God has treated him?

Job says God has done wrong to Job and caught him in God's net.

Job 19:7

ULT

7 Behold, I cry, ‘Violence!’ but I am not answered; I call for help, but {there is} no justice.

UST

7 Listen to me: I protest that God is punishing me unfairly, but no one agrees with me. I cry for help, but no one, not even God, treats me fairly.

What happens when Job calls out for help because he has been wronged?

He is not answered and there is no justice.

Job 19:8

ULT

8 He has walled up my way and I do not pass, and he has set darkness upon my paths.

UST

8 It is as if God has blocked my road so that I can not go anywhere. It is as if God has forced me to try to find my way in total darkness.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

How have Job's former friends treated him?

His former friends have turned against him.

Job 19:20

ULT

20 My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped with the skin of my teeth.

UST

20 I have become so thin that my bones are visible beneath my skin; I am barely alive.

How does Job survive?

He survives only with the skin of his teeth.

Job 19:21

ULT

21 Pity me, pity me, you my friends, for the hand of God has touched me.

UST

21 I plead with you, my three friends, pity me because God is making me suffer greatly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 19:22

ULT

22 Why do you pursue me as God {would}? And will you not be satisfied with my flesh?

UST

22 You should not be making me suffer as well, as if you were God and had to punish sin. You seem to think that you need to keep accusing me of doing things wrong!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 19:23

ULT

23 Who will give {that} now my words will be written down? Who will give {that} they will be inscribed on a scroll?

UST

23 I wish that someone would now write what I have been saying in a book {so that people could read it}.

What does Job want to happen to his words? (vv23-24)

He wants them to be written down and inscribed in a book, or engraved with pen and lead in the rock forever.

Job 19:24

ULT

24 With a stylus of iron and {with} lead may they be engraved on a rock forever!

UST

24 {Or else,} I wish that someone would carve what I have said onto a rock with a chisel and highlight it with lead so that people could always read it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 20:7

ULT

7 he will perish forever like his dung. The ones having seen him will say, ‘Where {is he}?’

UST

7 but they will disappear forever like refuse that people throw away. People who knew them will wonder where they have gone.

How will the wicked man perish?

He will perish permanently, like garbage disappears.

Job 20:8

ULT

8 He will fly away like a dream, and they will not find him, and he will be chased away like a vision of the night.

UST

8 They will disappear the way a dream ends abruptly when a person wakes up. They will no longer exist. Yes, they will vanish just like the dreams that people have at night.

How will the wicked man go away?

He will fly away like a dream, and be chased away like a vision of the night.

Job 20:9

ULT

[9] The eye {that} saw him will not continue, and his place will no longer observe him.

UST

[9] Those who once saw those wicked people will never see them again. Those wicked people will no longer live where they once lived.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 20:10

ULT

[10] His children will recompense the poor, and his hands will return his wealth.

UST

[10] They will have to return the valuable things that they stole from poor people. If they die before they can do that, their children will have to do it.

What will the wicked man's children do?

His children will apologize to poor people.

Job 20:11

ULT

[11] His bones are full of vigor, but it will lie down with him in the dust.

UST

[11] Wicked people will die before they grow old and others will bury them in the ground.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 20:12

ULT

[12] Although wickedness is sweet in his mouth, he hides it under his tongue,

UST

[12] For wicked people, doing wrong things is like having sweet food in their mouths that they want to continue tasting.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 20:13

ULT

13 he has pity on it and does not forsake it but keeps it in the midst of his palate,

UST

13 They do not want to stop doing wrong things, as if those things were delicious food that they enjoyed eating.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 20:14

ULT

14 his food changes in his bowels; {it becomes} the bitterness of asps inside him.

UST

14 {But they will regret doing those wrong things.} They will feel like people who eat what they should not eat and get a badly upset stomach that feels as if it is full of poison.

What happens to wickedness inside the wicked man?

It will cause the food in his intestines to turn bitter, and will becomes like the poison of asps inside him.

Job 20:15

ULT

15 He swallows wealth, but he will vomit it; God will expel it from his belly.

UST

15 Wicked people try to get as much money as they can but they do not keep it, just as people who eat too much throw up the food that they ate. God makes sure that they lose their wealth.

What will happen to the riches that the wicked man swallows down?

He will vomit them up again.

Job 20:16

ULT

16 He will suck the poison of asps; the tongue of the viper will kill him.

UST

16 A person who does evil deeds will die as a result, as certainly as the bite of a poisonous snake kills a person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 20:17

ULT

17 He will not enjoy the streams, the rivers of torrents of honey and butter.

UST

17 A wicked person will not experience the abundant blessings that flow like a stream from God.

What will the wicked man not live to enjoy?

He will not live to enjoy the blessings that flow from God.

Job 20:18

ULT

18 He will return {his} gain and will not consume {it}, and he will not have enjoyment according to the wealth of his commerce.

UST

18 Wicked people will have to give back the things that they acquired dishonestly. They will not be able to continue using those things. They will not have the opportunity to enjoy the things they got by doing business,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 20:19

ULT

19 For he has oppressed, he has forsaken the poor; he has seized a house and he did not build it.

UST

19 because they oppressed poor people and refused to help them, and they took other people's houses by cheating them.

Why will the wicked man not rejoice?

He has oppressed and neglected the poor people, and has violently taken away houses that he did not build.

Job 20:20

ULT

20 Because he has not known satisfaction in his belly, he will not rescue {any} desired {thing} of his.

UST

20 No matter how much they got, they still remained greedy, and as a result, they lost the things that they enjoyed having.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 20:21

ULT

21 There is no remnant for his eating; therefore his prosperity does not endure.

UST

21 When they finish eating their food, there is never anything left over, because they greedily eat it all. That is why they do not remain wealthy.

Why will the prosperity of the wicked man not be permanent?

It will not be permanent because there is nothing left that he did not devour.

Job 20:22

ULT

22 In the filling of his wealth it will become narrow to him; every hand of the troubling will come against him.

UST

22 While they are still very wealthy, they will suddenly experience trouble. Many people will be hostile to them and hurt them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 20:23

ULT

23 He will be {about} to fill his belly, he will send the burning of his nose against him, and he will rain {it} upon him in his eating.

UST

23 Even as wicked people are enjoying luxuries, God will show that he is very angry with them. He will punish them with great suffering, even as they are indulging themselves.

What will God do to the wicked man who is about to fill his belly?

God will rain down the fierceness of his wrath on him while he is eating.

Job 20:24

ULT

24 He flees from a weapon of iron, a bow of bronze pierces him.

UST

24 Even as they are trying to escape from smaller punishments, they will experience greater punishments.

What will happen when the wicked man flees from the iron weapon?

A bow of bronze will shoot him.

Job 20:25

ULT

25 He pulls, and it comes out of his back, and the gleaming goes out of his liver. Terrors {are} upon him!

UST

25 It will be as if God had shot an arrow through a wicked person's body and he had to pull it out of his back. But the shiny point of the arrow would have cut a gash in his liver, and he would know that he was going to die.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 20:26

ULT

26 All darkness is hidden for his treasured {things}; a fire not blown will devour him; it will consume the remnant in his tent.

UST

26 God has decided that he will destroy the valuable possessions that wicked people have. It will be as if a fire that God starts will burn them up. Yes, God will destroy every last thing that they have in their homes.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 20:27

ULT

27 The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will raise itself up against him.

UST

27 The sins that those wicked people have committed will become apparent. If the sky could speak, it would tell all the wrong things it saw them do. If the earth could speak, it would also be a witness against them.

What will the heavens and the earth do against the wicked man?

The heavens will reveal his iniquity and the earth will be a witness against him.

Job 20:28

ULT

28 The wealth of his house will depart, flowing away on the day of his nose.

UST

28 On the day when God punishes people, he will take away all the possessions of wicked people. It will be as if a flood had washed them away.

What will happen to the wicked man on the day of God's wrath?

The wealth of his house will vanish and his goods will flow away.

Job 20:29

ULT

29 This {is} the portion of the wicked man from God, and the heritage of his appointment from God."

UST

29 That is what God will do to wicked people. That is what God has decreed will happen to them."

Job 21:3

ULT

3 Tolerate me and I will speak, and after I have spoken, you may mock.

UST

3 Be patient with me, and allow me to speak. Then, after I have finished speaking, you can continue to make fun of me if you wish{, although I hope you will not}.

What does Job think his friends will do after he has spoken?

He thinks they will continue to mock him.

Job 21:4

ULT

4 As for me, {is} my complaint to a man? And if, why may my breath not be short?

UST

4 I am not protesting to people about my suffering, I am protesting to God! And so it is certainly acceptable for me to be impatient!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:5

ULT

5 Look at me and wonder, and lay the hand upon the mouth.

UST

5 If you consider my situation, it will shock you. That should make you put your hands over your mouths {and say no more}!

How will people respond when they look at Job?

They will be astonished and lay their hands upon their mouths.

Job 21:6

ULT

6 For when I remember, then I am terrified, and trembling seizes my flesh.

UST

6 When I think about what has happened to me, I am frightened and my entire body shakes.

What happens to Job when he thinks about his sufferings?

He is terrified; his flesh trembles.

Job 21:7

ULT

7 Why do the wicked live, grow old, and become mighty {in} power?

UST

7 I do not understand why wicked people live long lives and become very powerful.

What does Job ask about wicked people?

Job asks why do they continue to live, become old, and grow mighty in power?

Job 21:8

ULT

8 Their seed is established with them to their faces, and their descendants to their eyes.

UST

8 They live to see their children grow up and start their own households nearby.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:9

ULT

[9] Their houses {are} peace, without fear, and the rod of God {is} not upon them.

UST

[9] Wicked people live safely in their homes without being afraid. God does not punish them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:10

ULT

[10] His bull breeds and it does not fail; his cow calves and it does not miscarry.

UST

[10] Their bulls mate with their cows successfully. Their cows give birth to calves. They do not miscarry.

What happens to the bull and the cow of the wicked?

The bull does not fail to breed and the cow does not lose her calf prematurely.

Job 21:11

ULT

[11] They send out their babes like a flock, and their children dance.

UST

[11] Wicked people are able to send their young children outside to play {without worrying about what will happen to them}. Their children dance playfully.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:12

ULT

[12] They lift up the tambourine and the harp, and they rejoice to the sound of the flute.

UST

[12] The children play tambourines and lyres {as they sing}, and they also play flutes happily.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:13

ULT

13 They spend their days in prosperity, and they go down {to} Sheol in a moment.

UST

13 Wicked people enjoy having good things while they are alive, and then they die peacefully and go to the place where dead people go.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:14

ULT

14 They say to God, ‘Turn away from us, for we do not desire knowledge of your ways.

UST

14 While they are alive, they say to God, ‘Leave us alone; we do not care about how you want us to live our lives!’

What do the wicked say to God?

They tell God to depart from them, for they do not wish any knowledge of his ways.

Job 21:15

ULT

15 Who {is} the Almighty, that we should serve him? And how will we profit, that we should pray to him?’

UST

15 Those wicked people also say, ‘It does not matter whether we worship Shaddai. We would not get any advantage by praying to him.’

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:16

ULT

16 Behold, their prosperity {is} not in their hand! {May} the counsel of the wicked {be} far from me!

UST

16 Wicked people wrongly think that they have become prosperous because of what they have done. I want to think completely differently from the way they think.

How does Job respond to the advice of wicked people?

He wants nothing to do with their advice.

Job 21:17

ULT

17 How often does the lamp of the wicked go out, or does their calamity come upon them? {How often,} in his nose, does he distribute pains?

UST

17 It often happens that wicked people die without experiencing any disasters. I do not think that God actually becomes angry with them and punishes them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:18

ULT

18 {How often} are they like stubble to the face of the wind or like chaff that a storm carries away?

UST

18 God does not destroy them like straw that the wind blows away. It is never as if a whirlwind carries them off.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:19

ULT

19 'God lays up his guilt for his sons.' Let him repay to him, and he will know!

UST

19 You say, 'When people have committed sins, God remembers and punishes their children for those sins.' I say that God should punish the people who sin, not their children. That way sinners will know that God is punishing them for their own sins.

Who does Job want to pay for the guilt of the wicked person?

Job wants the wicked person to pay for his guilt, and not his children, so that he would know his guilt.

Job 21:20

ULT

20 Let his eyes see his destruction, and from the wrath of the Almighty let him drink.

UST

20 Wicked people should have the experience of God destroying them. They should know what it is like for Shaddai to punish them in his wrath.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:21

ULT

21 For what {is} his interest in his house after him when the number of his months is cut off?

UST

21 After all, once wicked people die, they are no longer concerned for their families who are still alive.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:22

ULT

22 Will one teach knowledge to God, since he judges the ones being high?

UST

22 Since God judges everyone, even those who are in heaven, no one can teach him anything.

Can anyone teach God knowledge?

No, for he judges even those who are high.

Job 21:23

ULT

23 This one dies in the bone of his perfection; all of him {is} tranquil and secure.

UST

23 Some people die while they are still very healthy. They die when their lives are peaceful and they are not afraid that bad things will happen to them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

ULT

24 His pails are full of milk, and the marrow of his bones is moistened.

UST

24 Their bodies are fat. Their bones are strong.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:25

ULT

25 But that one dies in the soul of bitterness, and he has not eaten the good.

UST

25 Other people are very miserable when they die. They die before good things have happened to them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:26

ULT

26 They lie down alike in the dust, and the worm covers over them.

UST

26 Both kinds of people die, and other people bury them. Their bodies all decompose. {Everyone dies, so it is clear that dying is not always the punishment for being wicked.}

What happens to both the man who dies in full strength and the one who dies in bitterness of soul?

They both lie down alike in the dust and the worms cover them both.

Job 21:27

ULT

27 Behold, I know your thoughts and the notions you wrest against me.

UST

27 Listen, I know what you three are thinking about me. You are wrongly applying to me things that are true about wicked people.

What does Job know about his friends' thoughts and ways?

He knows their thoughts and the ways in which they wrong him.

Job 21:28

ULT

28 For you say, 'Where {is} the house of the tyrant? Where {is} the tent of the habitation of the wicked?'

UST

28 I know you are wrong because you say, 'God does not allow evil rulers to keep living! God does not allow wicked people to keep living!'

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:29

ULT

[29] Have you not asked travelers of the way? Or do you not acknowledge their signs,

UST

[29] If you want to know what life on earth is really like, you should ask people who travel much {and see many things}. You will have to admit that the things they see and describe show what life is really like.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:30

ULT

[30] that the wicked is spared in the day of calamity; in the day of wrath they are brought forth?

UST

[30] {Travelers will report} that wicked people do not suffer when there are great disasters. {They will report} that wicked people escape from God's punishment.

What have traveling people seen happen to the wicked man?

They have seen that the wicked man is kept from the day of calamity, and that he is led away from the day of wrath.

Job 21:31

ULT

[31] Who will denounce his way to his face? And what he has done, who will repay to him?

UST

[31] No one dares to accuse wicked people openly of doing wrong. No one punishes them for the evil things they have done.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:32

ULT

[32] Indeed, he will be brought forth to the grave, and one will watch over the burial mound.

UST

[32] When wicked people die, others carry their bodies to their graves in a solemn procession. Then people guard their graves to protect them.

What will men do for the tomb of the wicked man?

Men will keep watch over his tomb.

Job 21:33

ULT

33 The clods of the torrent will be sweet to him, and every man will extend after him, and to his face there is not numbering.

UST

33 It would please wicked people to see how others build mounds over their graves to honor them. It would also please them to see how many people take part in their funeral processions. Many people walk in front of their bodies and many others walk behind them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 21:34

ULT

34 So how do you comfort me in vain? And falsehood is left in your answers!”

UST

34 Since all of this is true about wicked people, what you have been telling me does not make sense, and it has not comforted me. You have been trying to answer me by telling me things that are not true!”

With what does Job say Zophar was trying to comfort him?

Job says Zophar was trying to comfort him with things that are not true.

Job 22

Job 22:1

ULT

Job 22:2

ULT

2 "Can a man be useful to God? For the one being wise is useful to himself.

UST

2 "No one can do anything to benefit God! No, people can only do things to benefit themselves, and only if they are wise.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 22:3

ULT

3 {Is it} pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous? Or if {it is} gain that you perfect your ways?

UST

3 It does not give Shaddai any extra pleasure if you live in the way you are supposed to live anyway. It does not make him better off if you improve the way you are living.

What does Eliphaz ask Job if his righteousness can do for the Almighty?

He asks if it brings any pleasure to the Almighty if Job is righteous.

Job 22:4

ULT

4 For your fear does he rebuke you, enter into judgment with you?

UST

4 God would not be punishing you in this way if you truly honored him. God would not judge you to be guilty for doing that.

How does Eliphaz mock Job's reverence for God?

He mockingly says that God would not punish Job if Job had truly been righteous.

Job 22:5

ULT

5 Is not your wickedness great? And there is no end to your iniquities!

UST

5 No, God must be punishing you because you are very wicked. You must have done a great number of evil things.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 22:6

ULT

6 For you have bound your brother {with a pledge} without cause, and you have stripped off the clothing of the naked.

UST

6 You must have unfairly forced poor people to give you things to guarantee that they would pay money back to you. You must have taken the cloaks that they needed to keep them warm.

What does Eliphaz accuse Job of doing to the naked?

He says that Job has stripped the naked of their clothing.

Job 22:7

ULT

7 You have not quenched the weary with water, and from the hungry you have withheld bread.

UST

When Job takes pleasure in the Almighty, he will lift up his face to God.

Job 22:27

ULT

27 You will pray to him, and he will hear you, and your vows you will pay.

UST

27 When you pray to God, he will do what you ask him to do. You will have many things to praise God for.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 22:28

ULT

28 And you will decree a word and it will stand for you, and on your paths light will shine.

UST

28 The things that you decide to do will be successful. It will be as if a light were shining on the road in front of you so that you knew just where to walk.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 22:29

ULT

29 When they cast down and you say, ‘Lifting up!’ then he will save the lowered of eyes.

UST

29 People may cause great difficulties for you. But when you pray and humbly ask God to help you, he will save you.

What does God do for the humble?

God saves those who are humble.

Job 22:30

ULT

30 He will rescue the not-innocent, indeed, he will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands.”

UST

30 God will even help people who have done wrong things if you pray for them. God will answer your prayer because you will not have done wrong things.”

Job 23

Job 23:1

ULT

1 And Job answered and said,

UST

1 Then Job replied to Eliphaz and the others. He said,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 23:2

ULT

2 "Even today my complaint is bitter; my hand is heavy upon my groaning.

UST

2 "I must still complain about many distressing things. There is much more that I could have protested about.

Is Job finished protesting?

No. Job said that there is much more he could protest about.

Job 23:3

ULT

3 Who will give {that} I knew and I would find him? I would come to his place!

UST

3 I wish that I knew where I could find God. {If I knew that,} I would go to the place where he lives.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 23:4

ULT

4 I would set forth my case to his face, and I would fill my mouth with arguments.

UST

4 I would present much evidence to God that I am innocent. I would offer many arguments to prove that.

What would Job do before God if he could find him?

He would lay his case in order before God and fill his mouth with arguments.

Job 23:5

ULT

5 I would know the words he would answer me, and I would perceive what he would say to me.

UST

5 That way I would know what God would say in reply to everything I would say to him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 23:6

ULT

6 Would he argue against me in the greatness of power? No, he would only set upon me.

UST

6 He would not use his great power to defeat me. He would listen to me fairly.

Does Job think God would argue against him in the greatness of God's power if he could stand before him?

No, he thinks God would listen to him fairly.

Job 23:7

ULT

7 There the upright is arguing with him, and I would escape forever the one judging me.

UST

7 I am an honest man, so if I met with God personally, I would be able to discuss things with him reasonably. {If we could do that,} he would declare that I am innocent. After that, he would not punish me again as if I had sinned.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 23:8

ULT

8 Behold, I go to the east, but he is not there, and to the west, but I do not perceive him;

UST

8 {But I do not know where to find God.} If I went to the east, he would not be there. If I went to the west, I would not see him there.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 23:9

ULT

9 in his working in the north, I do not behold {him}; he turns to the south, but I do not see {him}.

UST

9 He makes natural things happen beautifully in the north, but no one there sees him doing those things. He must also go to the south, but no one sees him there either.

What does Job say God is doing in the south?

Job says in the south, God hides himself so that no one can see what he does there.

Job 23:10

ULT

10 Nevertheless, he knows the way {that is} with me; he has tested me, I have come out like gold.

UST

10 Still, he knows how I have conducted my life. When he has finished testing me, he will see that I am as pure as gold whose impurities fire has burned out.

What result does Job expect from God's testing him?

When God has tested Job, he will come out like gold.

Job 23:11

ULT

11 My foot has held onto his step; I have kept {to} his way and I have not turned aside.

UST

11 I have lived faithfully in the manner that God wants people to live. I have not stopped living that way.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 23:12

ULT

12 I have not departed from the commandment of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my portion.

UST

12 I have always obeyed the commandments that he has given. I would rather go without food than disobey what God has told us to do.

What has Job done with the words of God's mouth?

Job has treasured up in his heart the words of God's mouth.

Job 23:13

ULT

13 But he {is} of one, and who will turn him back? For his soul desires, and he does.

UST

13 But God seems to have made up his mind that I am a sinner, and no one can make God change his mind. Whatever he wants to do, he does.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 23:14

ULT

14 For he will carry out my decree, and many like these {are} with him.

UST

14 So it seems that God will keep on punishing me until I die. If my present troubles do not kill me, I am sure that God will cause many more troubles for me!

What will God carry out for Job?

God will carry out his decrees for Job.

Job 23:15

ULT

15 Therefore, I am terrified from his face; I consider, and I am afraid of him.

UST

15 So the thought of coming into his presence greatly frightens me. When I think about what he can do, that makes me very afraid of him.

How does Job feel when he thinks about God?

When Job thinks about him, he is afraid of him.

Job 23:16

ULT

16 For God has softened my heart, and the Almighty has terrified me.

UST

16 I am afraid because I am no longer brave after what God has done to me. Shaddai has made me very frightened.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 23:17

ULT

17 For I was not cut off from the face of the darkness, and from my face gloom covers.

UST

17 I have lived to experience terrible things, and that is why I am so frightened. I can only imagine that the future will be just as bad as the present.

What covers Job's face?

The thick darkness covers Job's face.

Job 24

Job 24:1

ULT

1 Why are times not set by the Almighty? And {why} do the ones knowing him not see his days?

UST

1 Shaddai should set times when he judges evil people. The people who obey God never seem to see him judge evil people.

What times does Job think are not set by the Almighty?

Job asks why times for judging the wicked are not set by the Almighty.

Job 24:2

ULT

2 They remove boundary markers; they seize the flock and pasture {it}.

UST

2 Some evil people remove boundary markers so that they can steal other people's land. Some evil people steal other people's sheep and put them in with their own sheep.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 24:3

ULT

3 The donkey of the fatherless they lead away; they take in pledge the ox of the widow.

UST

3 Some evil people take away donkeys that belong to children who have no fathers to protect them. They make loans to widows, and then they take oxen that belong to them to guarantee that the widows will pay back the money. {But without the oxen, the widows cannot grow crops, so they cannot repay the loans, and the evil people keep the oxen.}

What do the wicked do to the donkey of the fatherless?

They drive away the donkey of the fatherless.

Job 24:4

ULT

4 They turn the needy from the way; the poor of the land are hidden together.

UST

4 Poor people do not want evil people to know where they are, so they do not walk on the main roads. Poor people stay in hiding places in order to avoid evil people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 24:5

ULT

5 Behold, {like} wild donkeys in the wilderness they go out in their work, searching for food; the Arabah {is} to him bread for their children.

UST

5 In fact, poor people have to search in the desert plain for food to feed their children, as if they were wild donkeys.

What do the poor hope the Arabah will provide?

They hope the Arabah will provide them food for their children.

Job 24:6

ULT

6 They gather his fodder in the field, and the vineyard of the wicked they glean.

UST

6 The poor people pick up leftover grain in other people's fields. They gather leftover grapes from vineyards that evil people own.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 24:7

ULT

7 They lie naked all night without a garment, and there is no covering in the cold.

UST

7 During the night they do not have thick garments to cover their bodies, so they are not able to stay warm.

What do the poor lack in the cold?

They have no covering in the cold.

Job 24:8

ULT

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and from {being} without shelter, they hug the rock.

UST

8 {Poor people have no homes, so} when rain showers come from the mountains, they get very wet. They have to huddle under rock ledges to shelter themselves from the rain.

What do the poor embrace for lack of shelter?

They embrace a rock for lack of shelter.

Job 24:9

ULT

9 They snatch the fatherless from the breast, and upon the poor they bind {a pledge}.

UST

9 Some evil people even take babies away from their mothers while they are nursing! They take the babies as a guarantee that their mothers will repay money that they have lent them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 24:10

ULT

10 They go about naked, without clothing, and, hungry, they carry a sheaf.

UST

10 Poor people do not have adequate clothing. They also do not have adequate food, even though they carry around bundles of grain because they work to bring in other people's harvests.

What do the poor do for others even though they go hungry?

Even though they go hungry, they carry others' sheaves of grain.

Job 24:11

ULT

11 Within their walls they press oil; they tread their winepresses, but they thirst.

UST

11 Evil people hire poor people to make oil from olives that grow on olive trees on their property. The evil people also hire poor people to tread on grapes that grow on their vines to make juice for wine. But they do not allow the poor people to drink any of the wine when they are thirsty.

What do the poor do for others even though they suffer thirst?

They tread the wicked men's winepresses, but they suffer thirst.

Job 24:12

ULT

12 From the city, men groan and the soul of the wounded cries out, but God does not ascribe impropriety.

UST

12 In the cities, poor people groan because they are suffering. People whom evil people have wounded cry out to God for help. But God does not seem to care about what the evil people are doing to them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 24:13

ULT

13 They are among the ones rebelling {against} the light; they do not regard its ways, and they do not stay in its paths.

UST

13 These evil people are like others who do not obey God. They do not try to understand what God wants or to do it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 24:14

ULT

14 At light the murderer arises; he kills the poor and the needy, and he is like a thief in the night.

UST

14 Murderers go out in the dim light of morning so they can kill vulnerable people {without being caught}. They are like thieves who steal things in the dark of night {in order to avoid being caught}.

What is the murderer like in the night?

In the night, the murderer is like a thief.

Job 24:15

ULT

15 And the eye of the adulterer watches {for} twilight, saying, 'No eye will perceive me,' and he puts a cover {over} {his} face.

UST

15 Men who want to commit adultery watch for evening to come. They say, 'I am going to make sure that no one recognizes me,' and they disguise themselves.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 24:16

ULT

16 One digs {into} houses in the darkness; by day they shut themselves up; they do not know the light.

UST

16 During the night, robbers find ways to get into other people's houses and steal things. But during the day, they stay in their own homes. They do not like being out where it is light.

Why do the wicked shut themselves up in daytime?

The wicked do not care for the light.

Job 24:17

ULT

17 For together, morning for them {is} deep darkness, for one regards the terrors of thick darkness.

UST

17 These evil people all stay at home during the day because morning is as scary for them as the dark of night is for other people. They stay up at night because they like being awake at night when things happen that terrify others.

With what terrors are the wicked comfortable?

They are comfortable with the terrors of the thick darkness.

Job 24:18

ULT

18 He {is} swift on the face of the waters; their portion of the land is cursed; one does not turn {to} the way of their vineyards.

UST

18 However, those wicked people will not live long lives. God will keep anything from growing on the land that they own. No one will go and work in their vineyards.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 24:19

ULT

19 Drought and heat strip away the waters of snow; Sheol, {those who} have sinned.

UST

19 Just as water from melting snow dries up when it is hot and there is no rain, those evil people will go to the place where dead people go.

Who does Sheol consume?

Sheol consumes those who have sinned.

Job 24:20

ULT

20 The womb will forget him, the worm will dine on him, until he is not remembered and wickedness is broken like a tree,

UST

20 When they die, maggots will eat their corpses, and no one will remember them. Even their mothers will forget about them! Those wicked people will be like trees that fall down and rot.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 24:21

ULT

21 the one devouring the barren, who has not borne, and he does not do good {to} the widow.

UST

21 Those evil people mistreat women who do not have children to care for them. Those evil people never help widows.

Who does the wicked one devour?

The wicked one devours the barren women who have not born children.

Job 24:22

ULT

22 But he drags away the mighty by his power; he arises and he does not believe in life.

UST

22 But God, by his power, gets rid of people who hurt others because they are stronger than those others. When it is clear that God is going to punish those evil people, they know that they are going to die.

Who does God drag away?

God drags away the mighty by his power.

Job 24:23

ULT

23 He gives him security and he is supported, but his eyes are on their ways.

UST

23 God allows them to think that they are secure, and so they do not worry, but God is carefully watching how they live.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 24:24

ULT

24 They are exalted a little, then there is not to them; indeed, they are brought low; like all, they are gathered and, like the tops of ears of grain, they are cut off.

UST

24 Those evil people may prosper for a little while, but suddenly they will be gone. God will show that they were not greater than others. God will make them die like all other people. Then they will be like stalks of grain that farmers have cut off.

What will happen to the mighty in a little while?

In only a little while, the mighty will be gone.

Job 24:25

ULT

25 And if not, then who will falsify me and make my word nothing?”

UST

25 What I have said is certainly true. Now that I have explained it, there is no one who can show that I am a liar and prove me wrong.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 25

Job 25:1

ULT

1 And Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

UST

1 Then Bildad, Job's friend who was a Shuhite, responded to Job. He said,

Job 25:2

ULT

2 "Dominion and fear {are} with him, the one making peace in his heights.

UST

2 "God is very powerful. Everyone should honor him greatly. God causes everything to be orderly high up in heaven.

Where does God make order?

God makes order in his high places of heaven.

Job 25:3

ULT

3 Is there a number to his troops? And upon whom does his light not arise?

UST

3 No one can count all the stars in the sky. When the sun rises, it shines on everyone.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 25:4

ULT

4 So how will a man be righteous with God? Or how will one born of a woman be pure?

UST

4 Since God is so great, no person can be righteous compared with him. No human being is innocent by his standards.

Of whom does Bildad ask can they be clean and acceptable to God?

He asks if one who is born of a woman can be clean and acceptable to God.

Job 25:5

ULT

5 Behold, even the moon does not shine and the stars are not pure in his eyes.

UST

5 Consider this: God is so glorious that he does not even consider the full moon to be bright! Even the white light of the stars does not seem pure to him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 25:6

ULT

6 Indeed that a man, a worm, or a son of man, a grub!”

UST

6 So God would certainly not consider mortal humans to be pure!”

To what does Bildad compare a son of man?

He says that a son of man is a grub.

Job 26

Job 26:1

ULT

1 And Job answered and said,

UST

1 Then Job replied to Bildad and the others. He said,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 26:2

ULT

2 “How you have helped {the one} without power! You have saved the arm of no strength!

UST

2 “I am struggling, but you have not really helped me. I am not able to overcome my difficulties, but you have not rescued me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 26:3

ULT

3 How you have advised {one} without wisdom! Insight in abundance, you have made known!

UST

3 I need good advice, but you have not given me any. You have said many things, but they have not been helpful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 26:4

ULT

4 With whom did you declare words? And the breath of whom came out from you?

UST

4 I suppose you think that God helped you tell me important things. But God was not really speaking through you.

Whose words does Job say Bildad is speaking?

Job says Bildad is not speaking God's words, but his own.

Job 26:5

ULT

5 The Raphaites tremble from below the waters and the ones inhabiting them.

UST

5 {Let me tell you how great God really is.} The spirits of dead people tremble with fear at God. They are deep in the earth, below the waters where the sea creatures live.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 26:6

ULT

6 Sheol {is} naked before him, and {there is} no covering to Abaddon,

UST

6 God knows all about those who are in the place where dead people go. Nothing prevents God from seeing what is there.

What has no covering before God?

Sheol itself has no covering against God.

Job 26:7

ULT

7 the one stretching out the north over nothingness, hanging the earth upon nothing;

UST

7 God created the dome of the sky to make an orderly world. God created the dry land where previously there was nowhere for people to live.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 26:8

ULT

8 the one binding the waters in his clouds, but the cloud is not torn under them;

UST

8 God uses clouds as containers for rainwater, and he prevents that water from bursting the clouds.

Where does God bind up the waters?

He binds up the waters in his thick clouds.

Job 26:9

ULT

[9] the one covering the face of the full moon, spreading his cloud upon it.

UST

[9] God can make clouds so thick that even the bright moon cannot shine through them.

What does God spread on the face of the moon?

He encloses the face of the moon and spreads his cloud on it.

Job 26:10

ULT

[10] He has circled a limit on the face of the waters unto the boundary of light with darkness.

UST

[10] God has set the horizon in place as the outer edge of the oceans. The horizon is at the place where the sky meets the earth.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 26:11

ULT

[11] The pillars of the heavens tremble and marvel at his rebuke.

UST

[11] Sometimes even the mountains that hold up the sky shake, as if God were scolding them and they were afraid.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 26:12

ULT

[12] He calmed the sea with his power, and by his understanding he shattered Rahab.

UST

[12] God used his power to restrain the oceans; by his skill he destroyed Rahab, the huge sea monster.

What did God calm with his power?

He calmed the sea with his power.

Job 26:13

ULT

13 By his breath the skies {become} clearness; his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.

UST

13 God can make the sky clear by blowing away the clouds. {God brings order everywhere in creation} by overcoming the forces of chaos.

By what did God clear the heavens of storms?

By his breath, he cleared the heavens of storms.

Job 26:14

ULT

14 Behold, these are the edges of his ways, and how small a word we hear of him! And the thunder of his power, who will understand?

UST

14 But I have described only a little bit of what God does. It is as if we can only hear someone whisper about him. When we hear mighty thunder, we realize that God is far too great for us to understand.

How much of God's ways are people able to see?

People can see only the edges of God's ways.

Job 27

Job 27:1

ULT

1 And Job continued to take up his discourse, and he said,

UST

1 Job kept speaking to his three friends. He said,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 27:2

ULT

2 "{As} God lives, {who} has taken away my justice, the Almighty, {who} has made my life bitter,

UST

2 "I will promise you something as surely as God exists, even though he has treated me unfairly. I will promise you something as surely as Shaddai exists, even though he has made my life so unpleasant.

What does Job say God has taken away from him?

God has taken away his justice.

Job 27:3

ULT

3 that, any of my life still {being} in me, and breath from God {being} in my nose,

UST

3 I will insist on it for as long as I am alive. Yes, for as long as I am still breathing, I will insist on it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 27:4

ULT

4 if my lips speak wickedness, or my tongue, if it utters deceit!

UST

4 I promise that I will not say the wrong thing! I promise that I will not say anything to deceive anyone!

What does Job vow his lips will not speak?

Job vows that surely his lips will not speak wickedness or deceit.

Job 27:5

ULT

5 Sacrilege to me if I justify you! Until I expire, I will not turn my integrity away from me.

UST

5 And so I will never say that what you three have said about me is true. Until the day that I die, I will insist that I have been living as God wants people to live.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 27:6

ULT

6 I grasp my righteousness and I will not let it go; my heart will not reproach {me} from my days.

UST

6 I will insist that I am innocent. I will never say anything different. That way, for as long as I live, I will not feel badly about saying something that was not true.

How long will Job's thoughts not reproach him?

His thoughts will not reproach him so long as he lives.

Job 27:7

ULT

7 May my enemy be like the wicked, and the one rising up against me like the unrighteous!

UST

7 I want to be just the opposite of an evil person. I want to disagree with the way anyone who is a bad person is living.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 27:8

ULT

8 For what {is} the hope of the godless when he cuts {him} off, when God takes away his life?

UST

8 I want to be the opposite of an evil person because when God decides it is time for that person to die, he can only expect that God will then punish him for the wrong things that he has done.

What does Job say God does when he cuts off a godless man's life?

When God cuts off his life, God will punish him for the wrong things that he has done.

Job 27:9

ULT

[9] Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him?

UST

[9] When evil people are in trouble, God does not rescue them when they pray for help.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 27:10

ULT

[10] If he will delight himself in the Almighty? Will he call {to} God in every time?

UST

[10] Evil people are not happy about what Shaddai does. They do not speak with God in prayer in good times as well as in bad times.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 27:11

ULT

[11] I will teach you about the hand of God; what {is} with the Almighty I will not conceal.

UST

[11] I need to teach you three something about how God actually deals with the people of this world.

What does Job say he will not conceal of the Almighty?

Job said that he would not conceal the hand of the Almighty.

Job 27:12

ULT

[12] Behold, you have seen {this} yourselves, all of you; why then do you vainly speak this vanity?

UST

[12] You three have certainly seen for yourselves how God treats people. So you should not have been telling me things that have made so little sense.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 27:13

ULT

13 This {is} the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, they receive {it} from the Almighty:

UST

13 I will tell you how God punishes evil people. This is what Shaddai does to those who mistreat others:

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 27:14

ULT

14 If his children multiply, {it is} for the sword, and his offspring will not have enough bread.

UST

14 Even if they have many children, those children will die in wars, or they will die because they do not have enough food to eat.

Of what will the wicked man's offspring not have enough?

His offspring will never have enough food.

Job 27:15

ULT

15 His survivor will be buried in death, and his widows will not lament.

UST

15 Any children who are still alive after their evil parents die will perish from diseases. Not even the wife of an evil man will mourn for him if he dies.

What will the wicked man's widow not do for him?

His widow will make no lament for him.

Job 27:16

ULT

16 If he heaps up silver like the dust and he piles up clothing like clay mounds,

UST

16 Sometimes evil people accumulate a large amount of money and they acquire many valuable articles of clothing.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 27:17

ULT

17 he piles up, but the righteous clothes himself and the innocent receives silver.

UST

17 But even if evil people become rich, they will die, and then righteous people will get their clothes. Honest people will get their money and share it with one another.

What will happen to the silver of the wicked man?

The innocent will divide up his silver among themselves.

Job 27:18

ULT

18 He builds his house as a moth {does}, and like a hut {that} a guard makes.

UST

18 The houses that they build are as weak as spider webs. Their houses are flimsy, like the huts that watchmen live in while they guard people's fields.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 27:19

ULT

19 He lies down rich, but he does not continue; he opens his eyes and there is not to him.

UST

19 God makes evil people lose their money. It is as if they are rich when they go to bed one night, but the next morning they wake up to find that their money is all gone.

What does the wicked man see when he opens his eyes after he lies down rich?

He opens his eyes, and everything is gone.

Job 27:20

ULT

20 Terrors overwhelm him like waters; a storm carries him away in the night.

UST

20 When evil people realize that God is punishing them, they become very afraid, as if those fears were water in which they were drowning. God soon destroys the evil people, as if a whirlwind carried them away in the night.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 27:21

ULT

21 The east wind takes him away, and he leaves; indeed, it blasts him from his place.

UST

21 It is as if a windstorm from the desert picks them up and carries them away from their homes. No one ever sees them again.

What does the east wind do as it carries the wicked man away?

The east wind carries him away, and it sweeps him out of his place.

Job 27:22

ULT

22 And it hurls {itself} upon him and does not pity; fleeing, he flees from its hand.

UST

22 It is as if a wind like that blows steadily against them while they are running away, trying to escape from its force.

What does the wicked man try to do when the east wind does not stop?

He tries to flee out of its power.

Job 27:23

ULT

23 It claps its hands at him and hisses at him from his place.

UST

23 It is as if such a wind were clapping its hands at them to mock them. It is as if such a wind blew them out of their houses and stayed there laughing at them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 29:16

ULT

16 I {was} a father to the needy, and the case {that} I did not know, I examined it.

UST

16 I protected poor people the way a father protects his children. In the courts, I defended even people who were strangers to me.

What had Job done even for the person he did not know?

He would examine the case even of one whom he did not know.

Job 29:17

ULT

17 And I broke the jaws of the unrighteous, and I made the prey drop from his teeth.

UST

17 I made wicked people stop oppressing others. It was as if I were breaking the jaws of a wild animal to make it drop its victim from its teeth.

Who would Job pluck from the teeth of the unrighteous?

He plucked the victim out from between the teeth of the unrighteous.

Job 29:18

ULT

18 And I said, 'I will expire in my nest, and I will multiply days like sand.

UST

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 29:23

ULT

23 And they waited for me as {for} rain, and they opened their mouth {as} for the latter rain.

UST

23 They were as eager to hear me speak as farmers are for it to rain. They listened to me with great appreciation, just as the ground seems to welcome the rain that falls in the spring.

What did men wait to drink in like rain from Job?

They opened their mouth wide to drink in his words as they would for the latter rain.

Job 29:24

ULT

24 I smiled on them {when} they did not believe, and they did not cause the light of my face to fall.

UST

24 I helped people who felt discouraged. I remained cheerful even as I helped them deal with difficult situations.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 29:25

ULT

25 I chose their way and I sat as a chief, and I dwelt like a king in an army, as when one comforts mourners.

UST

25 As their leader, I decided what things would be good for them to do. They respected me, just as soldiers respect the king who commands their army. I was kind and sympathetic, like someone who comforts people who are mourning.

To what does Job compare himself at a funeral?

He say that he is like one who comforts mourners at a funeral.

Job 30

Job 30:1

ULT

1 But now the fewer in days than me laugh at me, whose fathers I disdained to put with the dogs of my flock.

UST

1 “But now, men who are younger than I am make fun of me. They are men whose fathers I would not even have hired to help my dogs guard my sheep!

Who has nothing but mockery for Job?

Those who are younger than Job have nothing but mockery for him.

Job 30:2

ULT

Job 31:5

ULT

5 If I have walked with falsehood or my foot has hurried to deceit—

UST

5 I solemnly declare that I have not lied to others and that I have not tried to deceive others.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:6

ULT

6 let him weigh me in balances of righteousness, and God will know my integrity—

UST

6 I only ask God to judge me fairly. If he does that, he will find that I am innocent.

What does Job ask to be done so that God would know his integrity?

He asks to be weighed in an even balance, so that God would know his integrity.

Job 31:7

ULT

7 if my step has turned aside from the way, or my heart has gone after my eyes, or a spot has stuck to my hands,

UST

7 I solemnly declare that I have continually acted properly. I have not seen wrong things to do and then done them. I am not guilty of committing sin.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:8

ULT

[8] let me sow and may another eat, or may my crops be uprooted!

UST

[8] If I have been lustful or deceptive, I hope that when I plant seeds, someone else will harvest the crops and eat them. Or may someone uproot the crops that are growing in my fields!

What does Job ask to happen to the harvest if he has turned out of the right way?

He says to let the harvest be uprooted out of his field.

Job 31:9

ULT

[9] If my heart has been opened by a woman and I have lurked at the door of my neighbor,

UST

[9] I solemnly declare that I have not been attracted to another man's wife. I have not made secret arrangements with a woman to have sexual relations with her while her husband was away.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:10

ULT

[10] may my wife grind for another, and may others bow down upon her.

UST

[10] If I have done that, I hope that my own wife will be attracted to another man and that she will have sexual relations with him.

What does Job say should be the judgement if he was attracted to another woman?

Job says to let his wife grind grain for another man.

Job 31:11

ULT

[11] For that {would be} lewdness, and it would be iniquity of judges.

UST

[11] If I had sexual relations with another man's wife, that would be a terrible sin. If I were caught and her husband brought me to court, the judges would certainly decide to punish me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:12

ULT

12 For it {is} a fire, it consumes unto Abaddon, and it would uproot all of my harvest.

UST

12 {I would have to pay a fine that would cost me everything I owned.} It would be as if a fire had burned everything I had right to the ground. It would be as if someone pulled out all the crops that were growing in my fields.

What kind of fire does Job say this crime is like?

Job says that it is like a fire that consumes everything.

Job 31:13

ULT

13 If I disdained the justice of my male servant or my female servant in their case against me,

UST

13 I solemnly declare that when my male or female servants complained to me about something, I took their complaint seriously and made sure that I treated them fairly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:14

ULT

14 then what would I do if God arose? Or if he visited, how would I answer him?

UST

14 I knew that if I did not treat my servants fairly, I could not expect God to be merciful to me when he judged me. If God came to help my servants, I could offer no excuse for the way I had treated them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:15

ULT

15 Did not the one making me in the belly make him? And did {not} one fashion us in the womb?

UST

15 {I am no different from my servants, so I have no right to mistreat them.} The same God created each one of us.

What did God do for both the servants and for Job?

God made and molded them all in the womb.

Job 31:16

ULT

16 If I have withheld from the desire of the poor, or I have made the eyes of the widow fail,

UST

16-18 I solemnly declare that from the time that I was young, I have taken care of orphans and I have protected widows. I have not failed to provide poor people with the things that they needed. I have not caused widows to lose hope. I have not eaten all of my food by myself and not shared it with orphans.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:17

ULT

17 or I have eaten my morsel alone and the fatherless did not eat from it—

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:18

ULT

18 for from my youth he has grown up with me as a father, and from the belly of my mother I have guided her.

UST

16-18 I solemnly declare that from the time that I was young, I have taken care of orphans and I have protected widows. I have not failed to provide poor people with the things that they needed. I have not caused widows to lose hope. I have not eaten all of my food by myself and not shared it with orphans.

How does Job say he has treated the orphan from his youth?

He says the orphan grew up with him as with a father.

Job 31:19

ULT

19 If I have seen one perishing from lack of clothing or {that} there was not a covering for the needy,

UST

19 I solemnly declare that I provided clothes for poor people when I saw that they were suffering from lack of clothing. I have provided warm outer garments for needy people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:20

ULT

20 if his loins have not blessed me and he has {not} warmed himself from the wool of my sheep,

UST

20 I gave them warm clothes that my servants had woven from the wool of my sheep. The poor people thanked me for helping them.

What should be offered to warm the needy with no clothing?

They should have been warmed with the wool of his sheep.

Job 31:21

ULT

21 if I have shaken my hand against the fatherless because I saw my help at the gate,

UST

21 I solemnly declare that I never threatened an orphan who brought a case against me in the public square. Even if I knew that the other elders would favor me, I made sure that the orphan received fair treatment.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:22

ULT

22 may my upper arm fall from the shoulder blade; yes, may my arm be broken from its socket!

UST

22 If I have neglected poor people or oppressed orphans, may the arm {that I did not use to help them but used instead to threaten them} fall right out of its socket!

What part of his body does Job say should come off if he has failed to have compassion?

Job says to let his upper arm fall from the shoulder blade.

Job 31:23

ULT

23 For the destruction of God {was} a dread to me, and from his majesty, I was not able.

UST

23 I have not done wrong things such as I have been describing, because I respect God and I know that he punishes sin. I would not sin against such a majestic God!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:24

ULT

24 If I have made gold my hope and I have said to fine gold, ‘My confidence’;

UST

24 I solemnly declare that I have not depended on wealth as a source of security and power.

What could people say to fine gold?

They could say to fine gold, “You are my confidence.”

Job 31:25

ULT

25 if I have rejoiced because my wealth {was} great and because my hand had acquired much!

UST

25 I solemnly declare that I did not think that I was better than other people because I had many possessions and because I had become very rich.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:26

ULT

26 If I have seen the light when it shone or the moon walking {in} splendor,

UST

26 I solemnly declare that I never looked at the sun when it was shining or at the beautiful moon

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:27

ULT

27 and my heart opened in secret and my hand kissed my mouth,

UST

27 and made a gesture to worship them. I never wanted to do that.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:28

ULT

28 this also {would be} iniquity of judges, for I would have denied God above.

UST

28 If I had worshiped the sun or the moon and people found out that I had, the judges would certainly decide to punish me for that too, because I would have been worshiping a false god instead of the true God.

Who would Job be denying if he worshiped the sun or moon?

If he worshiped them, he would have denied the God who is above.

Job 31:29

ULT

29 If I have rejoiced at the destruction of one hating me or lifted myself up because evil found him!

UST

29-30 I solemnly declare that I have not been glad when my enemies have suffered misfortunes. I have not thought that I was better than they were when they experienced disasters. I have not sinned by praying that God would curse people who hated me and cause them to die.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:30

ULT

30 For I have not caused my palate to sin by asking {for} his life with a curse.

UST

29-30 I solemnly declare that I have not been glad when my enemies have suffered misfortunes. I have not thought that I was better than they were when they experienced disasters. I have not sinned by praying that God would curse people who hated me and cause them to die.

How has Job not suffered his mouth to sin?

Job has not suffered his mouth to sin by asking for the life of those who hate him with a curse.

Job 31:31

ULT

31 If the men of my tent have not said, ‘Who will give one {who} has not been satisfied from his flesh?’!

UST

31-32 I solemnly declare that I have invited travelers to stay in my house. Visitors have not had to sleep in the streets. My servants talk about how I give food to anyone who needs it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:32

ULT

32 The sojourner has not stayed overnight in the outdoors; I have opened my doors to the traveler.

UST

31-32 I solemnly declare that I have invited travelers to stay in my house. Visitors have not had to sleep in the streets. My servants talk about how I give food to anyone who needs it.

What had Job always done for the traveler?

He had always opened his doors to the traveler.

Job 31:33

ULT

33 If, like man, I have concealed my sins by hiding my guilt in my chest,

UST

33 I know that people generally try to hide their sins. But I solemnly declare that I have not done that.

How does Job say mankind has hidden his sins?

Job says mankind hides sins by hiding his guilt in his chest.

Job 31:34

ULT

34 because I feared the great multitude and the contempt of the clans terrified me, and I kept silent, I did not go out the door!

UST

34 I did not let fear of what people would say about me or think of me keep me from admitting that I had done wrong and making amends.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:35

ULT

35 Who will give to me one hearing me? Behold, my mark! May the Almighty answer me! And the scroll that the man of my case has written?

UST

35 I wish that I had someone who would judge my case against God! I hereby declare that all that I have just said is true. Now I wish that Shaddai would state his case. I would like to see his written statement of charges against me.

What does Job want to have that his opponent has written?

Job desired to have the indictment that his opponent had written.

Job 31:36

ULT

36 If I would not bear it on my shoulder? I would bind it to me {as} crowns!

UST

36 If Shaddai wrote out his charges against me, I would not be ashamed, because I know that I am innocent. I would display the charges publicly{, because they would actually list what I had not done}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:37

ULT

37 I would declare to him an account of my steps; I would approach him like a noble.

UST

37 I would explain to God in detail how I was innocent of each charge. I would approach him as a ruler would: without being afraid.

How would Job go up to his opponent if he had their indictment?

He would go up to him as a confident prince.

Job 31:38

ULT

38 If my soil cries out against me and its furrows weep together,

UST

38 I solemnly declare that I have not defrauded the people who farm my land. They have no reason to cry out for justice against me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:39

ULT

39 if I have eaten its yield without silver or caused the breath of its masters to expire,

UST

39 I solemnly declare that I have taken only a fair share of the crops that people have grown on my land. I have made sure that the people who grew crops on my land kept enough of them to feed their families.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 31:40

ULT

40 may a thorn grow instead of wheat and a weed instead of barley!" The words of Job have ended.

UST

40 If I have cheated the people who farm my land, then I wish that thorns would grow in my fields instead of wheat. I wish that bad weeds would grow there instead of barley!" After this, Job said nothing further to defend himself to his three friends.

If Job has caused landowners to lose their lives, what does he call to grow instead of crops?

Job said to let thorns grow instead of wheat and weeds instead of barley.

Job 32

Job 32:1

ULT

1 And the three of these men ceased from answering Job, because he {was} righteous in his eyes.

UST

1 Then Job's three friends stopped replying to him, because Job was confident that he was innocent.

What did Job's three friends do when they could not convince Job that he had done anything wrong?

They stopped answering Job.

Job 32:2

ULT

2 Then the nose burned of Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, from the clan of Ram. His nose burned against Job upon him declaring himself righteous rather than God.

UST

2 Then a man named Elihu{, who had been listening as Job spoke with his friends,} became very angry with Job. Elihu was the son of Barakel. He was a Buzite and he belonged to the clan of Ram. He became angry because Job continued to claim that he was innocent and that God had been wrong to punish him.

What emotion was kindled in Elihu when Job continued to justify himself rather than God?

Elihu's anger was kindled against Job.

Job 32:3

ULT

3 And against the three of his friends his nose burned upon that they had not found an answer but they had declared Job wrong.

UST

3 Elihu also became angry with Job's three friends. He became angry because they had insisted that Job must have done many things that were wrong, but they had not been able to prove any of their accusations.

Why was Elihu angry with Job's three friends? (vv3-5)

Elihu was angry with Job's friends because they had not been able to answer Job but they had still declared that he was wrong.

Job 32:4

ULT

4 Now Elihu had awaited Job with words, because they {were} older in days than he {was}.

UST

4 Now Elihu was much younger than Job's three friends. That was why he had let them speak to Job first.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 32:5

ULT

5 But Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouths of the three of the men, and his nose burned.

UST

5 But when Elihu realized that the three men had nothing more to say to Job, he became very angry.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 32:6

ULT

6 And Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite answered and said, "I {am} young in days and you {are} aged. Upon that, I was timid and I was afraid of telling you my knowledge.

UST

6 This is what Elihu said. (He was the son of Barakel. He was a Buzite.) "I am young, and you all are much older than I am. So I was hesitant. I was afraid to tell you what I was thinking.

Why was Elihu timid and afraid to tell Job and his friends what he was thinking? (vv6-7)

Elihu was young and the others were all very old and should be able to teach wisdom.

Job 32:7

ULT

7 I said, 'Let days speak, and let a multitude of years teach wisdom.'

UST

7 I said to myself, 'I should let the people who are older speak. Older people should be able to explain how to understand things wisely.'

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 32:8

ULT

[8] Nevertheless, a spirit, it {is} in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.

UST

[8] However, even as I was saying that, I felt the Spirit of God stirring within me. Yes, I felt Shaddai inspiring me so that I could understand.

Who does Elihu say gives understanding to man?

The breath of the Almighty gives man understanding.

Job 32:9

ULT

[9] The great are not wise, and the aged do {not} understand justice.

UST

[9] Humble people can also be wise. Younger people can also recognize the right thing to do.

Why does Elihu say the others should listen to him and allow him to declare what he knows? (vv9-10)

It is not only the great who are wise, and it not the aged alone who understand justice.

Job 32:10

ULT

[10] Therefore I say, ‘Listen to me; I also will declare my knowledge.’

UST

[10] So now I want to ask you, ‘Please listen to me. Let me too say what I have been thinking.’

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 32:11

ULT

11 Behold, I waited for your words; I listened to your reasonings while you searched {for} words.

UST

11 Now I let the three of you speak first. I waited while you thought carefully about what you should say, and I listened to your arguments.

What were Job's friends not able to do even though Elihu waited for them to speak, and paid attention carefully? (vv11-12)

Job's friends were not able to prove Job wrong or respond to his words.

Job 32:12

ULT

12 Indeed, I paid attention to you, but behold, there was no one proving Job wrong, {not one} of you answering his words,

UST

12 I paid careful attention to what you were saying. But in the end, none of you was able to prove that what Job said was wrong. None of you could respond to his arguments.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 32:13

ULT

13 lest you say, 'We have found wisdom!' Let God refute him, not man.

UST

13 So do not tell yourselves, 'We have discovered what is wise!' It is God who must show Job that he is wrong. Someone relying on human thinking will not be able to do that.

Who does Elihu say must refute Job when the three friends, who thought they were wise, were not able to do that?

It is God who must refute Job.

Job 32:14

ULT

14 Now he has not arrayed words against me, and I will not answer him with your words.

UST

14 You were angry with Job, and so you have not answered him well. But Job has said nothing to make me angry, so I will not answer him the way you have.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 32:15

ULT

15 They are dismayed; they do not answer any longer; words have gone from them.

UST

15 The three of you are just sitting there in a daze, not saying anything more, because you cannot think of what to say to Job.

What does Elihu decide to do because the three friends were dumbfounded and could not answer Job? (vv15-16)

Elihu decided that because the friends had not a word more to say, he will not wait any longer.

Job 32:16

ULT

16 Shall I wait because they are not speaking, because they stand, they answer no more?

UST

16 And since you are not speaking, since you have stopped answering Job, I do not feel that I need to wait any longer before speaking to Job myself.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 32:17

ULT

17 I also will answer {on} my part; I also will declare my knowledge.

UST

17 So now I too will respond to Job. I will share my view of his situation.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 32:18

ULT

18 For I am full of words; the spirit in my belly compels me.

UST

18 I must speak, because I have plenty to say, and something inside me is forcing me to say it.

What is it that compels Elihu to share his knowledge with Job?

The spirit compels Elihu to share his knowledge.

Job 32:19

ULT

19 Behold, my belly {is} like wine {that} has no vent; like new wineskins, it is bursting open.

UST

19 I feel as if I am a container of wine that is stretching more and more and that will soon burst because of the fermentation.

What does Elihu say he is feeling like within his breast?

He says his breast feels like wine in new wineskins that are ready to burst.

Job 32:20

ULT

20 I will speak and refresh myself; I will open my lips and answer.

UST

20 I must speak, and then I will be able to rest from the effort of restraining myself from speaking. So I will now say something in reply to all of you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 32:21

ULT

21 Now let me not lift the face of a man, and let me not give a title to a man.

UST

21 I will not favor either Job or you his friends. I will not try to flatter anyone.

What does Elihu say his Maker would do to him if he were to speak and give honorific titles to any man? (vv21-22)

Elihu says that his Maker would soon take him away.

Job 32:22

ULT

22 For I do not know giving titles; my Maker would soon take me away.

UST

22 Indeed, I have not gotten into the habit of flattering people, because I believe that if I did that, God would quickly destroy me.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33

Job 33:1

ULT

[1] But now, Job, please hear my words; yes, listen to all of my words.

UST

[1] So now, Job, I ask you to listen carefully to everything that I am going to say.

Why does Elihu beg Job to listen to the words he will speak? (vv1-3)

Elihu begs Job to listen because he will speak from the uprightness of his heart.

Job 33:2

ULT

[2] Behold, I have now opened my mouth; my tongue has spoken on my palate.

UST

[2] I am ready to speak to you and tell you what I think.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33:3

ULT

[3] My words {are} {from} the uprightness of my heart, and my lips speak pure knowledge.

UST

[3] What I say will express my sincere feelings of concern for you. I will only tell you what is genuinely true.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33:4

ULT

[4] The Spirit of God made me; yes, the breath of the Almighty enlivened me.

UST

[4] You can trust me as someone whom God's Spirit created. You can trust me as someone whom Shaddai made alive.

Who has made Elihu and what has given him life?

The Spirit of God made Elihu and the Almighty gave him life.

Job 33:5

ULT

5 If you can, answer me; array to my face; station yourself.

UST

5 {Once I have spoken,} respond to me if you can. Think carefully about how you will reply to me.

What does Elihu ask Job to do if Job could answer Elihu?

He asks Job to set his words in order and stand up before Elihu.

Job 33:6

ULT

6 Behold, I am for God according to your mouth. I too have been formed from clay;

UST

6 Now you wanted God to answer you, and I will do that for him. But I am human, just like you,

What reason does Elihu give that Job should not be afraid of him or feel pressure from Elihu? (vv6-7)

Elihu tells Job that they are the same in God's sight and were both formed out of the clay.

Job 33:7

ULT

7 behold, my fear will not terrify you, and my pressure will not be heavy on you.

UST

7 so you do not need to be afraid of me. I will not speak to you harshly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33:8

ULT

8 Indeed, you have spoken in my ears, and I have heard the sound of the words.

UST

8 I listened carefully to you as you spoke, and this is what I heard you say:

What had Elihu heard Job saying? (vv8-9)

Elihu heard Job saying that he was clean, without transgression, innocent and there was no sin in him.

Job 33:9

ULT

9 ‘I {am} pure, without transgression; I {am} innocent, and iniquity {is} not to me.

UST

9 ‘I am righteous. I have not committed any sins. I am innocent. I have not done things that are wrong.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33:10

ULT

10 Behold, he finds occasions against me; he considers me an enemy to him.

UST

10 Nevertheless, God looks for excuses to punish me. He treats me as if I were his enemy.

Who does Job blame for finding opportunities to attack him, and for regarding him as an enemy?

Job blames God for doing these things.

Job 33:11

ULT

11 He puts my feet in shackles; he watches all of my paths.’

UST

11 He judges me by very strict standards. He closely observes everything that I do.’

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33:12

ULT

12 Behold, {in} this you are not right. I will answer you, for God is greater than man.

UST

12 However, what you have said is incorrect. I will explain why. {You do not realize what God is actually doing, since} it is beyond human understanding.

How does Elihu say God compares to man?

Elihu says God is greater than man.

Job 33:13

ULT

13 Why do you contend against him, that he does not answer any of one's words?

UST

13 You should not be protesting that God does not respond to what anyone says.

Why does Elihu say it is useless to struggle against God?

God does not have to account for any of his doings.

Job 33:14

ULT

14 For God speaks once—yes, twice; one does not perceive it.

UST

14 God actually does speak to people in various ways. People just do not realize how he is doing that.

How does Elihu say that God speaks to man? (vv14-15)

God speaks in a dream and in a vision during the night while men are sleeping.

Job 33:15

ULT

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, in the falling of deep sleep upon men, in slumbers upon a bed,

UST

15 Sometimes God speaks to people at night in dreams and visions when they are sound asleep in bed.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33:16

ULT

16 then he opens the ear of men and seals their correction [1]

UST

16 God reveals things to people at those times. He shows them that they need to change the way that they have been living.

Why does God open the ears of men and frighten them with threats? (vv16-17)

God does this in order to pull man back from sinful purposes and keep pride from him.

Job 33:17

ULT

17 to bring a man back from {his} doing and to conceal pride from a man.

UST

17 God speaks in that way to get people to stop doing evil deeds. God wants to prevent people from sinning because they have become proud.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33:18

ULT

18 He spares his soul from the pit and his life from crossing over by a weapon.

UST

18 In this way, God prevents people from dying. Otherwise, someone might kill them violently.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33:19

ULT

19 He is also chastened with pain on his bed and the contention of his bones {is} continual.

UST

19 God also corrects people by making them so ill that they have to lie in bed. They feel constant agony in their bodies.

What does Elihu say is the reason that man has pain on his bed, agony in his bones, and no desire for food or delicacies? (vv19-20)

Elihu says that this is because man is being punished.

Job 33:20

ULT

20 so his life abhors bread, and his soul food of desire.

UST

20 They feel so sick that they do not want to eat anything, not even their favorite foods.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33:21

ULT

21 His flesh wastes from sight, and his bones, not seen, are exposed,

UST

21 They lose so much weight that there appears to be no flesh between their skin and their bones.

What does Elihu say happens to a man who is being punished by God? (vv21-22)

A man's flesh is consumed, his bones stick out and his soul draws close to the pit.

Job 33:22

ULT

22 and his soul draws near to the pit, and his life to the ones causing death.

UST

22 They become so sick that they are about to die. The angels who cause people to die start coming to get them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33:23

ULT

23 If there is an angel for him, an interpreter, one of a thousand, to declare to a man his uprightness,

UST

23 However, sometimes a special kind of angel may come to a person and tell him on behalf of God how he can change the way that he has been living so that he will not die.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 33:24

ULT

24 and he is gracious to him and says, 'Redeem him from going down to the pit, I have found a ransom,'

UST

24 {If the person changes the way that he has been living,} then God will forgive him. God will tell the angels who cause people to die, 'Do not cause this person to die! I can see that I should allow him to live, because now he will do what is right.'

What could an angel mediator say to God to save a person from going down to the pit?

The angel could say to God, "I have found a ransom for him."

Job 33:25

ULT

25 his flesh becomes fresher than {in} childhood; it returns to the days of his youth.

UST

25 When that happens, the person will become healthy again and his skin will appear as fresh as the skin of a child. He will be as strong again as he was when he was young.

What will happen to the flesh of the person who is saved from going down to the pit?

His flesh will become fresher than a child's.

Job 33:26

ULT

26 He will pray to God, and he will accept him, and he will see his face with joy, and he will restore to the man his righteousness.

UST

26 Then God will once again treat him as a righteous person. He will pray to God, and God will answer his prayer. He will come into God's presence joyfully.

Job 34:4

ULT

4 Let us choose justice for ourselves; let us know among ourselves what is good.

UST

4 I would like all of us to decide together who is right, Job or his friends. I would like us to find out together what is a good way to understand his situation.

What does Elihu want others to choose and discover for themselves?

Elihu wants them to choose what is just and discover what is good.

Job 34:5

ULT

5 For Job has said, 'I am righteous, but God has taken away my justice.

UST

5 We need to consider this carefully together because Job has said, 'I am innocent, but God has not judged me fairly.'

What does Job say that God has taken away from him even though he is righteous?

Job says that God has taken away his justice.

Job 34:6

ULT

6 Would I lie about my justice? My arrow is incurable, without transgression.'

UST

6 Job has said he would not lie about whether he has done what is right. He has spoken as if God had shot him with an arrow and wounded him so badly that he will die, even though he is innocent.

Job 34:10

ULT

[10] Therefore, men of heart, listen to me: Sacrilege to God from wickedness, and the Almighty from iniquity!

UST

[10] So, all of you who understand things well, listen to me! God would never consider doing anything that was wicked! No, Shaddai would never consider doing anything that was wrong!

What does Elihu tell the men of understanding that God does not do? (vv10-12)

God does not do wickedness, commit sin, or pervert justice.

Job 34:11

ULT

[11] For the deed of a man he repays to him, and according to the path of a man, he causes it to find him.

UST

[11] We can be confident that God treats people fairly because we can see that he rewards or punishes people properly for what they have done. God gives people what they deserve for the manner in which they have lived.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 34:12

ULT

12 Indeed, God truly does not act wickedly, and the Almighty does not pervert justice.

UST

12 No, God never does anything wicked. Shaddai always treats people fairly.

Job 34:16

ULT

16 But if understanding, hear this; listen to the sound of my words.

UST

16 So, Job, if you truly want to understand, then listen carefully to what I am about to say.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 34:17

ULT

17 Will one hating justice indeed govern? Or if you will condemn the Righteous {One}, the Mighty {One},

UST

17 God could certainly not hate what is right and still rule the world. So you really cannot say that God, who is righteous and powerful, has done something wrong.

Who does Elihu's question imply that Job is condemning?

He implies Job is condemning God, who is righteous and mighty.

Job 34:18

ULT

18 the one saying 'Worthless!' to a king, 'Wicked!' {to} nobles,

ULT

19 who does not lift the faces of princes and does not acknowledge the rich to the face of the poor, for all of them {are} the work of his hands.

UST

19 God does not treat rulers better than he treats other people. God does not treat rich people more respectfully than he treats poor people. After all, God created all people.

Who does Elihu say are the works of God's hands?

All people, rich and poor, are the work of God's hands.

Job 34:20

ULT

20 {In} a moment they die, and {in} the middle of the night people are shaken and they pass, and they take away the mighty, not by a hand.

UST

20 If people use their power to oppress others, God punishes them by killing them. Those people are not expecting to have troubles and die, and humans do not kill them, but God kills them very quickly.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 34:21

ULT

21 For his eyes {are} upon the ways of a man, and he sees all of his steps.

UST

21 God punishes oppressive people because he sees everything that people do. God is aware of each individual action that a person does.

What does Elihu say that God sees.

Elihu says that God sees a person's ways and all his steps.

Job 34:22

ULT

22 There is no darkness and there is no deep darkness for the doers of iniquity to be hidden there.

Job 34:24

ULT

24 He shatters the mighty {with} no investigation, and he establishes others instead of them.

UST

24 God does not need to investigate what people have done. He knows whether important people have done wrong, and he destroys them if they have. He then appoints others to take their places.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 34:25

ULT

25 Because he regards their deeds, he overthrows {them} in the night, and they are crushed.

UST

25 Because he already knows what they have done, he removes them quickly and gets rid of them.

What does God do in the night to mighty men whose ways and deeds he knows?

God overthrows them in the night and they are destroyed.

Job 34:26

ULT

26 He strikes them for their wickednesses in the place of the ones seeing,

UST

26 God kills them because of the wicked things that they have done. Many people see him do it.

What will God do to those who do wicked deeds like criminals and make the cry of the poor come to him?

God will kill them in the open sight of others.

Job 34:27

ULT

27 that because they turned from after him and they did not consider any of his ways,

UST

27 God kills them because they stopped doing what he wanted them to do and did not pay attention to his commands.

Job 34:33

ULT

33 from with you will he repay it? Since you despise, then you will choose and not I. So what you know, speak.

UST

33 If a person said that to God, do you think that God would continue to punish him? Now you have been saying that God does not treat people fairly, so it is important for you to decide what you think God would do. I will not suggest the answer myself. We would like to hear you say what you think about this.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 34:34

ULT

34 Men of heart will say to me, and a man of wisdom hearing me,

UST

34 {But unfortunately, I believe that} when people who have good sense and people who are wise hear my question and your answer, they will say to me,

What will men of understanding say about Job? (vv34-35)

They will say that Job speaks without knowledge and understanding.

Job 34:35

ULT

35 ‘Job does not speak with knowledge, and his words {are} not with understanding.’

UST

35 ‘Job is speaking ignorantly. What he says does not make sense.’

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 34:36

ULT

36 If only Job were tested to the end upon {his} answers among men of iniquity.

UST

36 It would be good if God put Job on trial and investigated every last detail of his case. God should do that because Job has been speaking just as wicked people speak.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 34:37

ULT

37 For he adds transgression to his sin; he claps among us, and he multiplies his words against God.”

UST

37 God should put Job on trial because in addition to sinning, he is saying that God does not treat people fairly. Knowing that we were watching, he clapped his hands to insult God. He has made long speeches to say that God has punished him unjustly.”

What does Elihu say Job is adding to his sin because of his talking like wicked men?

He says that Job is adding transgression to his sin.

Job 35

Job 35:1

ULT

1 And Elihu answered and said,

UST

1 Then Elihu continued to speak, and he said,

How does Elihu imply Job compares himself to God? (vv1-2)

Elihu implies that Job thinks he is innocent, and that he is more righteous than God.

Job 35:2

ULT

2 “Do you consider this to {be} justice? You say, ‘I am more righteous than God’!

UST

2 “Job, it is not right for you to say that you have been doing what is right but God has been doing what is wrong.

Job 35:5

ULT

5 Observe the heavens and see, and look, the clouds soar above you.

UST

5 Job, look up at the sky. See how high the clouds are above you! {God is far higher than that!}

What does Elihu tell Job and his friends to look up and see?

Elihu tells them to look up and see the sky.

Job 35:6

ULT

6 If you sin, what do you accomplish against him? Or {if} your transgressions multiply, what do you do to him?

UST

6 So if you sin, that does not harm God at all. Even if you do many wrong things, that does not hurt him.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 35:7

ULT

7 If you are righteous, what do you give to him, or what does he receive from your hand?

UST

7 On the other hand, if you do what is right, that does not make God better off. No, you are not giving God something that he does not already have.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 35:8

ULT

8 Your wickedness {is} to a man like you, and your righteousness {is} to a son of man.

UST

8 The only ones who suffer if you are wicked are other people. The only ones you might help by being good are other humans.

What effect could Job's wickedness or his rightousness have on another man?

Job's wickedness could hurt a man and his righteousness could benefit another human.

Job 35:9

ULT

9 From the multitude of oppressions they make a cry; they shout from the arm of the mighty.

UST

9 People call for others to help them because of the many things that wicked people do that make them suffer. They call for help because of the things that powerful people do to oppress them.

Why do people cry out for help from the arms of mighty men?

They cry out for help because of the many acts of oppression done to them by others who are more powerful than they are..

Job 35:10

ULT

10 But one does not say, ‘Where is God my Maker, the one giving songs in the night,

UST

10 But people do not ask God, their Creator, to help them. People do not expect God to enable them to sing joyful songs because he has rescued them.

What things does Elihu say that God can do for people even though no one acknowledges it? (vv10-11)

God teaches us and makes us wise.

Job 35:11

ULT

11 the one teaching us more than the beasts of the earth, making us wiser than the birds of the heavens?’

UST

11 People do not realize that God wants to teach them how to live wisely. God does that for people, not for wild animals or for the birds in the sky.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 35:12

ULT

12 There they cry out, but he does not answer from the face of the pride of evil {ones}.

UST

12 Even when people do pray to God for help, God does not answer them, because they arrogantly continue to do what is wrong.

Why does Elihu say that God does not give an answer when people cry out to him?

Elihu says that God does not give an answer when people cry out but proudly continue in sin.

Job 35:13

ULT

13 Surely God does not hear vanity, and the Almighty does not regard it.

UST

13 God, the Almighty One, does not respond at all when people pray but do not really mean what they are saying.

What will God certainly not hear?

He will certainly not hear prayers that lack sincerity.

Job 35:14

ULT

14 How much less that you say you do not see him, the case {is} to his face, and you are waiting for him,

UST

14 You are telling God that you have made your case against him but that you are still waiting for him to answer your accusations. You are saying that God has not been helping you. Since you say those things, you should certainly not expect God to respond to you!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 35:15

ULT

15 and now that {in} his nose, he does not visit, and he does not take much notice of transgression!

Job 36:11

ULT

[11] If they hear and serve {him}, they will complete their days in good and their years in pleasantness.

UST

[11] If they obey him and once again live as he wishes, they will prosper and be happy for as long as they live.

What will happen to those who listen to God and worship him?

They will spend their days in prosperity and their years in contentment.

Job 36:12

ULT

[12] But if they do not hear, they will cross over by a weapon, and they will expire as without knowledge.

UST

[12] But if they do not obey him, they will die violently because they did not seek to understand how God wanted them to live.

What will happen to the people who do not listen to God?

They will perish by the sword and die because they have no knowledge.

Job 36:13

ULT

13 And the godless of heart keep the nose; they do not cry out when he binds them.

UST

13 People who do not respect God continue to be angry with God. They do not ask God to help them even when they are suffering because of their sins.

What happens to godless people who keep their anger and do not cry out to God for help? (vv13-14)

They die in their youth and their lives end in disgrace.

Job 36:14

ULT

14 Their soul dies in youth, and their life {is} among the cultic prostitutes.

UST

14 They can only make a living in a dishonorable way, and they die while they are still young.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 36:15

ULT

15 He delivers the afflicted by his affliction, and he opens their ear by oppression.

UST

15 God actually uses suffering to keep people from perishing because of their sins. By making them suffer, he causes them to listen to what he is telling them.

How does Elihu say God uses affliction and oppression? (vv15-16)

God uses suffering to keep people from perishing because of their sins.

Job 36:16

ULT

16 And indeed, he has drawn you from the mouth of distress {to} a broad place {with} no constriction under it, and the setting of your table he has filled {with} fatness.

UST

16 Job, I believe that God wants to bring you out of your troubles and allow you to live without distress. He wants you to be happy and prosperous.

What does Elihu say that God would like to do for Job?

God would like to draw Job out of his distress and into a place of happiness and prosperity.

Job 36:17

ULT

17 But you are full of the judgment of the wicked; judgment and justice take hold.

UST

17 However, you are still saying bad things about God the way a wicked person would. That is why God is punishing you so severely.

What has filled Job?

He is full of the judgment on the wicked.

Job 36:18

ULT

18 For wrath, lest it entice you into clapping, and the greatness of a ransom will not deliver you.

UST

18 You are angry with God, but do not let that lead you to say disrespectful things about God. If you did that, God would not accept even a very large bribe to pardon you.

What things could lead Job to deception and turn him aside from justice?

Anger with God could lead Job to deception, and a great bribe would not buy his pardon.

Job 36:19

ULT

19 Will he esteem your riches? Not gold or all of the strengths of wealth!

UST

19 God would not want your money and so pardon you. He would not take gold or a great deal of money as a bribe.

What things will not be able to help Job out of his distress?

Job's wealth and the force of his strength will not help him out of his distress.

Job 36:20

Job 36:25

ULT

25 Every man has looked upon it; man has regarded from afar.

UST

25 Everyone has seen what God has done, but even so, people only understand it a little.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 36:26

ULT

26 Behold, God {is} great, but we do not know {him}; the number of his years, indeed, {there is} no searching.

UST

26 How great God is! We are not able to understand how great he is, and we are not able to determine how old he is.

What is it about God that we cannot calculate?

We cannot calculate the number of his years.

Job 36:27

ULT

27 For he draws up the drops of water; they distill {as} rain into his stream,

UST

27 Indeed, God draws water up from the earth and puts it in clouds and causes it to become rain.

How does God cause rain to fall? (vv27-28)

He draws up the drops of water and puts it in clouds which pour rain down and drop it in abundance on mankind.

Job 36:28

ULT

28 which the clouds pour down; they drop upon man {in} abundance.

UST

28 This rain pours down from the clouds and abundant showers fall on the earth, where people live.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 36:29

ULT

29 Indeed, if one will understand the spread of the cloud, the thunder from his booth?

UST

29 No one can really understand how the clouds spread across the sky or how it thunders in the sky where God lives.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 36:30

ULT

30 Behold, he spreads his lightning upon it, and he covers the roots of the sea.

UST

30 See how God causes lightning to flash all around him! The lightning is so bright that it lights up even the deep ocean.

Why does Elihu say that God spreads lightning and covers the sea with darkness? (vv30-31)

He spreads lightning around himself and covers the sea with darkness in order to judge people and give food in abundance.

Job 36:31

ULT

31 For by them he judges the peoples; he gives food in abundance.

UST

31 Because his storms are so great, God uses them to punish wicked people. But he also uses the rain from these storms to provide abundant food for righteous people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 36:32

ULT

32 He covers over his hands {with} lightning and he enjoins upon it against the mark.

UST

32 It is as if God picks up lightning in his hands and sends it to strike where he wants it to.

What tells people and cattle of the coming storm? (vv32-33)

The thunder tells people and cattle of the coming storm.

Job 36:33

ULT

33 He declares his shout about it; the cattle also about the thing arising.

UST

33 God makes thunder to announce that there will be a storm. We also know that a storm is coming when we hear cattle making extra noise.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37

Job 37:1

ULT

[1] Indeed, my heart trembles at this, and it leaps from its place.

UST

[1] My heart really pounds when I think about that! I feel as if it is jumping around inside me.

What makes Elihu's heart tremble? (vv1-2)

The noise of God's voice and the sound of his roar causes Elihu's heart to tremble.

Job 37:2

ULT

[2] Hearing, hear the roar of his voice and the sound {that} comes from his mouth!

UST

[2] Listen, all of you, to the thunder! It is as if God is roaring!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37:3

ULT

[3] He lets it loose under all of the heavens, and his lightning to the edges of the earth.

UST

[3] God makes such loud thunder that people can hear it throughout the land. God makes such bright lighting that people can see it from far away.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37:4

ULT

[4] A voice roars after it; he thunders with the voice of his majesty, and he does not restrain them when his voice is heard.

UST

[4] After lightning flashes, we hear thunder, which sounds like God speaking very loudly. Then, after the thunder, God makes more lightning.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37:5

ULT

5 God thunders marvelously with his voice, doing great {things} and we do not know.

UST

5 When we hear thunder, it is as if God is shouting in an amazing way. God does things that are too wonderful for us to understand.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37:6

ULT

6 For he says to the snow, 'Be {on} the earth,' and {to} the shower of rain, {to} the shower of rains, 'Strength!'

UST

6 For example, God can cause snow to cover the ground, and when he tells a rain shower to rain even harder, it becomes a downpour.

What does God tell the snow and the rain to do?

He tells the snow to fall to the earth, and the rain to become a great shower of rain.

Job 37:7

ULT

7 He seals the hand of every man for the knowing of all of men of his making.

UST

7 When God makes it rain so hard, everyone has to stop working outside. This shows all people, whom he has made, what great things he is able to do.

Why does God stop the hand of every man from working?

God stops them so that all people may see his deeds.

Job 37:8

ULT

[8] And the beast goes into {its} den and remains in its lairs.

UST

[8] When it rains, the animals go into their hiding places and they stay there until the rain stops.

For what reason do the beasts go into hiding and stay in their dens? (vv8-9)

They hide and stay in their dens because of the storms that come.

Job 37:9

ULT

[9] The storm comes from the chamber, and the cold from the north winds.

UST

[9] Storms come from the place where they start, and cold winds come from the north.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37:10

ULT

[10] From the breath of God ice is made, and the breadth of the waters {is} in narrowness.

UST

[10] In the winter, cold winds turn water into ice. The water in lakes freezes solid.

What is given by the breath of God?

By the breath of God ice is given.

Job 37:11

ULT

[11] Indeed, he loads the cloud with moisture; he scatters the cloud of his lightning.

UST

[11] God truly fills the clouds with water droplets. He makes lightning flash from many clouds.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37:12

ULT

12 And it is turning itself around by his counsels for them doing all of what he commands them above the face of the habitation of the earth.

UST

12 He causes the clouds to move around over the places where people live so that they can accomplish everything that he wants them to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37:13

ULT

13 If to the rod, if to his earth, if to kindness, he causes it to find it.

UST

13 God may send storms to punish people. God may send storms to water the land that he made. God may send storms to help people by providing rain to make their crops grow. God makes all of these things happen.

For what reasons does God give guidance to the clouds and cause them to do whatever he commands?

He makes this happen sometimes for correction, sometimes to water his land, and sometimes to provide rain for crops to feed people.

Job 37:14

ULT

14 Do hear this, Job; stand and consider the marvelous {things} of God.

UST

14 Job, listen to what I am saying. Just think about the wonderful things that God does.

About what does Elihu want Job to stop and think?

He wants Job to stop and think about God’s marvelous deeds.

Job 37:15

ULT

15 Do you know of the placing of God upon them, and his cloud causes lightning to flash?

UST

15 Are you able to explain how God arranges the clouds in the sky and makes lightning flash down from them?

What happens when God forces his will on the clouds?

God makes lightning bolts flash in the clouds.

Job 37:16

ULT

16 Do you know about the balancing of the cloud, the wonders of the perfect in knowledges?

UST

16 Are you able to explain how God is able to make clouds float in the sky? Can you understand all of the wonderful things that God does? God understands everything completely!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37:17

ULT

17 {You} whose garments {are} hot in the quieting of the earth from the south,

UST

17 Are you able to explain how God can bring in stifling air from the desert and make it so hot that you cannot stay cool if you wear clothes?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37:18

ULT

18 will you hammer out the sky with him, strong as a cast mirror?

UST

18 Are you able to explain how God made the sky so that it would stay firmly in place above the earth?

What image does Elihu use to describe the sky?

He says the sky is as strong as a mirror of cast metal.

Job 37:19

ULT

19 Teach us what we shall say to him; we can not array, from the face of darkness.

UST

19 I doubt that you could tell us what to say to God. People do not know enough to be able to defend themselves if they spoke with God.

Why does Elihu say that he and others cannot lay out their arguments before God?

They cannot lay out their arguments before God because of the darkness of their minds.

Job 37:20

ULT

20 Shall it be recounted to him that I would speak? If a man spoke, that he would be swallowed up?

UST

20 I would not dare tell God that I needed to speak with him! If I did that, then he might destroy me!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37:21

ULT

21 And now, they do not look at the bright light that {is} in the skies when the wind has passed through and cleansed them.

UST

21 You know that people can not look directly at the sun when it shines brightly in the sky after the wind has blown the clouds away.

What is it that people cannot look at when the sky is clear?

People cannot look at the sun when it is bright in the sky.

Job 37:22

ULT

22 Out of the north comes gold; around God {is} awesome majesty.

UST

22 When God appears, he has glittering light all around him. His glory is so bright that it makes us afraid. {So if we cannot even look at the sun, how could we look at God?}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 37:23

ULT

23 The Almighty, we do not find him! {He is} great {in} power, and he does not oppress justice and an abundance of righteousness.

UST

23 Shaddai has very great power, and we do not know how to get near to him. He always acts righteously, and he never mistreats anyone.

What does Elihu say that the Almighty does not do to people?

The Almighty does not mistreat people, acting unjustly.

Job 37:24

ULT

24 Therefore, fear him, men. He does not regard any of the wise of heart.”

UST

24 That is why everyone should have great respect for him. Any people who think that they are wise do not impress him.”

To whom does Elihu say that the Almighty does not pay attention?

The Almighty does not pay attention to those who are wise in their own minds.

Job 38

Job 38:1

ULT

1 And Yahweh answered Job from the storm and said,

UST

1 Then Yahweh spoke to Job from inside the storm that had been approaching. He said to him,

Out of what did Yahweh speak to Job?

Yahweh spoke to Job out of a fierce storm.

Job 38:2

ULT

2 “Who {is} this, darkening counsel by words without knowledge?

UST

2 “You have been speaking ignorantly, and as a result, you have been making it harder for people to understand my actions.

By what means did someone darken counsel?

By speaking without knowledge, Job made it harder for people to understand God's actions.

Job 38:3

ULT

3 Now gird up your loins like a man, and I will question you and you will inform me.

UST

3 I am going to ask you some questions, so get ready to answer them directly.

What does Yahweh tell Job he must do when Yahweh questions him?

Job must gird up his loins like a man and answer Yahweh’s questions.

Job 38:4

ULT

4 Where were you in my founding of the earth? Declare, if you know understanding.

UST

4 Where were you when I began to create the earth? Since you claim to know so much, tell me how I did that.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:5

ULT

5 Who set its measurements? If you know! Or who stretched a line over it?

UST

5 Who decided how large the earth would be? Who made sure that it was the right size? If you know as much as you claim, you ought to be able to tell me that.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:6

ULT

6 On what were its foundations sunk? Or who laid its cornerstone,

UST

6-7 What keeps the earth from collapsing? Who made sure that everything on the earth would be in the right position? The earth was so beautiful when I made it that it was as if the first stars all sang a song to celebrate it. All of the angels gave a great cheer when they saw the earth.

What sang together and who shouted for joy when Yahweh laid the cornerstone of the earth? (vv6-7)

The morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy when the cornerstone of the earth was laid.

Job 38:7

ULT

7 in the singing together of the stars of the morning, and all the sons of God shouted?

UST

6-7 What keeps the earth from collapsing? Who made sure that everything on the earth would be in the right position? The earth was so beautiful when I made it that it was as if the first stars all sang a song to celebrate it. All of the angels gave a great cheer when they saw the earth.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:8

ULT

[8] And {who} enclosed the sea with doors in its issuing from the womb, {when} it came out,

UST

[8] When I made the land, the sea could have flowed over it. Who prevented the sea from flooding the earth?

To what does Yahweh compare the sea bursting out after it was shut up with doors?

God compares the sea bursting out of doors to coming out of the womb.

Job 38:9

ULT

[9] in my making the cloud its clothing and thick darkness its swaddling bands?

UST

[9] Now the clouds in the sky float over the sea as if they were its clothing. Night and day happen at sea just as they do on land.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:10

ULT

[10] And I broke upon it my boundary, and I set a bar and doors,

UST

[10] I decided how much of the area under the sky the sea would cover. I made barriers at the shore of the sea to keep it off the land.

What did Yahweh put in place to mark out the boundary of the sea so that it could come only so far and no farther? (vv10-11)

Yahweh put in place bars and doors to mark a boundary for the sea.

Job 38:11

ULT

[11] and I said, 'Unto here you will come, but you will not continue, and here one has set for the pride of your waves.'

UST

[11] I proclaimed that the sea could only come up so far on the shore and not come any farther. I said that its great waves could only flow up to a certain place on the land.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:12

ULT

12 From your days, have you commanded the morning? Have you caused the dawn to know its place,

UST

12 Job, have you ever commanded a day to begin? Have you told the sun where it needed to rise on a certain day?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:13

ULT

13 for taking hold of the edges of the earth, and the wicked are shaken from it?

UST

13 When day comes, wicked people all around the world stop doing the bad things they do at night when no one can see them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:14

ULT

14 It is changed like clay {under} a seal, and they stand out like a garment.

UST

14 In the light of day, people can see the hills and valleys on earth clearly. The earth seems to take shape the way clay takes shape when people press a seal onto it or the way folds form in clothing.

How is the earth changed in appearance like clay changes under a seal?

The light of dawn changes the earth so that all things on it stand out clearly, like the folds of a piece of clothing seen in the light.

Job 38:15

ULT

15 And from the wicked, their light is withheld, and their high arm is broken.

UST

15 When daylight comes, wicked people do not have the darkness that they like. They are no longer able to hurt other people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:16

ULT

16 Have you gone to the springs of the sea? Or have you walked around in the recesses of the deep?

UST

16 Job, have you traveled to the springs at the bottom of the sea? Have you gone and seen what is at the very bottom of the oceans?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:17

ULT

17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you? Or have you seen the gates of deep darkness?

UST

17 Has someone shown you how to get to the place where dead people are? Do you know where the entrance to that dark place is?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:18

ULT

18 Have you given attention to the breadths of the earth? Declare, if you know all of it.

UST

18 Do you know how big the earth is? Tell me, if you know all these things!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:19

ULT

19 Where {is} this, the way {to where} light dwells, and darkness, where {is} this, its place,

UST

19 Do you know how to get to the place where light comes from? Do you know where darkness comes from?

What does Yahweh say to mock Job about his lack of knowledge about the way to the resting place of light and darkness? (vv19-21)

Yahweh mocks Job by saying that undoubtedly Job should know about this because he was born then and the number of his days is so large.

Job 38:20

ULT

20 that you would take it to its territory, and that you would perceive the paths of its house?

UST

20 Would you know how to get to those places so that you could bring light and darkness to them?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:21

ULT

21 You know, for you were born then, and the number of your days {is} many!

UST

21 If you had been alive when I created the world, then you would know the answers to these questions. But you are not that old, so you certainly do not know the answers.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:22

ULT

22 Have you entered into the storehouses of the snow, or have you seen the storehouses of the hail,

UST

22 Have you gone into the place where I keep snow, or have you visited the place where I keep hail?

For what reason does Yahweh say he has kept storehouses for the snow and the hail? (vv22-23)

Yahweh has kept these storehouses for times of trouble and for a day of battle and war.

Job 38:23

ULT

23 which I keep for a time of trouble, for a day of battle and war?

UST

23 I keep snow and hail so that I can use them to defeat one of the armies when people are fighting wars.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:24

ULT

24 Where {is} this, the way {to where} the light is distributed, the east wind scatters over the earth?

UST

24 Would you know how to get to the place where the sun should rise each morning? Would you know where the east wind should begin to blow over the earth?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:25

ULT

25 Who cut a channel for the downpour, or a way for the lightning of the thunder,

UST

25 Could you make rain fall in a certain place? Could you make a rainstorm go in a certain direction

Why does Yahweh cause it to rain on the wilderness in which there is no person? (vv25-27)

He causes it to rain in order to meet the needs of the barren and lonely regions and to make the tender grass sprout up.

Job 38:26

ULT

26 to cause rain upon a land {where} no man {is}, a wilderness {with} no man in it,

UST

26 so that it would rain out in the desert, in a place where no one lives?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:27

ULT

27 to satisfy the waste and the desolation, and to cause the shoot of the grass to sprout?

UST

27 Would you be able to send rain there to water those barren areas where nothing has grown, so that grass would begin to grow again?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:28

ULT

UST

[28] Do you even know where rain comes from? Do you know how dew forms on the ground overnight?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:29

ULT

[29] From whose womb does ice come? And the frost of the skies, who bears it?

UST

[29] Do you know how water becomes ice in the winter? Do you know why dew turns into the frost that covers the ground in the winter?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:30

ULT

[30] As {under} stone, the waters hide themselves, and the face of the deep freezes.

UST

[30] Do you know why the surface of lakes freezes in the winter? You cannot see the water below the surface; it is as if there is a layer of stone on top of it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:31

ULT

[31] Will you tie the bands of the Pleiades, or loose the cords of Orion?

UST

[31] Can you make stars cluster together, as they do in the cluster you call the Pleiades? Can you make stars move apart so that they no longer make constellations such as the one you call Orion?

What does Yahweh ask Job if he can do to Pleiades and Orion?

He asks Job if he can tie the bands on the Pleiades or undo the cords of Orion.

Job 38:32

ULT

32 Will you bring out Mazzaroth in its time? Or will you guide the Bear with its sons?

UST

32 Can you make the constellations of stars appear in the sky at the right time of the year? Can you make the Big Dipper with its handle appear in the right place in the sky?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:33

ULT

33 Do you know the statutes of the skies? If you will establish its rule over the earth?

UST

33 Do you know how the sun, moon, and stars should move through the sky? Do you know how they should provide heat and light on the earth?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:34

ULT

34 Will you raise your voice to the cloud and an abundance of waters will cover you?

UST

34 Could you shout an order up to a cloud to make it pour rain down on you?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:35

ULT

35 Will you send out lightning bolts and they will go, and they will say to you, ‘Behold, us’?

UST

35 Can you tell flashes of lightning to strike wherever you want? Would the lightning do what you commanded?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:36

ULT

36 Who has put wisdom in the clouds, or who has given understanding to the mist?

UST

36 Can you determine where it should be cloudy and where it should be sunny?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

ULT

39 Will you hunt prey for a lioness or satisfy the life of {her} cubs

UST

39-40 Suppose a lioness and her cubs were crouching in their den or hiding in some bushes, waiting for some animal to pass by that they could kill. Could you make an animal go by that the lioness could kill so that she and her cubs could eat the meat and not be hungry anymore?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 38:40

ULT

[40] when they crouch in their dens, {when} they lie in wait in a shelter for an ambush?

UST

[39-40] Suppose a lioness and her cubs were crouching in their den or hiding in some bushes, waiting for some animal to pass by that they could kill. Could you make an animal go by that the lioness could kill so that she and her cubs could eat the meat and not be hungry anymore?

Where do the young lion cubs wait for their food?

They crouch in their dens and shelter in hiding to lie in wait.

Job 38:41

ULT

[41] Who provides to the raven its food when its children cry out to God, {when} they stagger without food?

UST

[41] Suppose some baby ravens in a nest were chirping loudly because they were hungry. Suppose they had not eaten in so long that they had become weak. Could you provide a dead animal whose meat the raven could bring home to its baby birds?

Why do the young ones of the ravens stagger about?

They stagger about for lack of food.

Job 39

Job 39:1

ULT

1 Do you know the time of the bearing of the goats of the rock? Will you watch the fawning of the does?

UST

4 The young animals grow up in the open fields. Once they are strong enough to leave their mothers, they do not return to them again.

What happens to the young deer after they grow up in the open fields?

They go out and do not come back again.

Job 39:5

ULT

5 Who set the wild donkey free? And who untied the ropes of the donkey,

UST

5 Do you know why some donkeys wander around wild? Do you know why they are not still working for people?

What has Yahweh made the house of the wild donkey? (vv5-6)

Yahweh has made the Arabah the house of the wild donkey.

Job 39:6

ULT

6 whose house I have made the Arabah, and his habitations the salt land?

UST

6 I have given them a home in the desert plain. They are able to live in places where much grass does not grow.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:7

ULT

7 It laughs at the commotion of the city; the shouts of the driver it does not hear.

UST

7 These wild donkeys do not like the noise in the cities. In the desert, they do not have to listen to the shouts of those who used to force them to work.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:8

ULT

8 It ranges the mountains {as} its pasture, and it seeks after every green thing.

UST

8 They wander over the hills to find food. They look for any plant that they can eat.

Where does the wild donkey find food?

He roams over the mountains where he looks for every green plant to eat.

Job 39:9

ULT

[9] Will the wild ox consent to serve you? If it will lodge by your manger?

UST

[9] There are also oxen that are wild. You could not get one of those to work for you! It would not stay penned up at night by the place where you put food for your animals!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:10

ULT

[10] Will you bind a wild ox in a furrow {with} its rope? If it will harrow the valleys after you?

UST

[10] You could not make a wild ox pull a plow so that it would dig furrows in your fields.

What does Yahweh ask Job to make the wild ox do with a rope?

He asks Job if, with a rope, he can make the wild ox plow the furrows or harrow the valleys for him.

Job 39:11

ULT

[11] Will you trust in it because its strength is great? Will you leave your labor to it?

UST

[11] Even though a wild ox is very strong, you could not depend on it to do difficult farm work.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:12

ULT

[12] Will you depend on it, that it will bring in your seed and gather {it} {to} your threshing floor?

UST

[12] A wild ox would not help you to grow more crops than you could grow by yourself.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:13

ULT

13 The wing of ostriches flaps vigorously. If {it is} a kind feather and plumage?

UST

13 Now think about ostriches. They run very fast, flapping their wings as they go. But they do not take good care of their offspring.

What does the ostrich flap proudly?

The ostrich flaps its wings proudly as it runs fast.

Job 39:14

ULT

14 For it leaves its eggs on the earth, and it warms them in the dust,

UST

14 Female ostriches are bad mothers, because lay their eggs and leave them on the ground. The eggs do stay warm in the sand.

What does the ostrich do with her eggs?

She leaves her eggs on the earth, and lets them keep warm in the dust.

Job 39:15

ULT

15 and it forgets that a foot might crush it and a beast of the field might trample it.

UST

15 But this is still not a good thing to do. Some wild animal could step on the eggs and crush them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:16

ULT

16 It treats its sons harshly, as if not to it; vain {is} its labor, without fear,

UST

16 Ostriches do not care well for their chicks. They act as if the chicks do not belong to them. They do not seem to be concerned that their chicks might die and they would have laid their eggs for nothing.

Why does the ostrich not fear that her labor might have been in vain?

Yahweh has deprived her of wisdom and not given her any understanding.

Job 39:17

ULT

17 because God has caused it to forget wisdom, and he has not given understanding to it.

UST

17 Ostriches act this way because I did not give them good instincts. I did not enable them to understand how they should care for their eggs and chicks.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:18

ULT

18 As for the time it lifts itself on high, it laughs at the horse and at its rider.

UST

18 However, ostriches are still awesome birds. When they run, they can easily run faster than horses!

What does Yahweh say the ostrich does when she runs?

She laughs in scorn at the horse and its rider.

Job 39:19

ULT

19 Have you given strength to the horse? Have you clothed its neck {with} a mane?

UST

19 But I made horses to be very strong. I put beautiful flowing manes on their necks.

What clothes the neck of the horse?

A flowing mane clothes its neck.

Job 39:20

ULT

20 Have you made it jump like a locust? The majesty of its snorting is terrifying!

UST

20 I enabled them to leap through the air as if they were locusts. They snort so loudly that they cause people to be afraid.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:21

ULT

21 They paw in the valley, and it rejoices in strength; it goes out to meet the weaponry.

UST

21 As horses prepare to rush into battle, they paw the ground, showing off their great strength.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:22

ULT

22 It laughs at fear and it is not frightened, and it does not turn back from the face of the sword.

UST

22 Horses seem to disregard danger as they go bravely into battle. They do not run away when enemy soldiers attack them.

How does the horse react to the sword?

He does not turn back from the sword.

Job 39:23

ULT

23 The quiver rattles upon him, the flashing of the spear and the javelin.

UST

23 As horses run into battle, the quivers containing their riders' arrows rattle against their sides. The spears and javelins that they are carrying flash in the sunlight.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:24

ULT

24 With shaking and rage it swallows the ground, and it does not stand still when {there is} the sound of the horn.

UST

24 Horses rush into battle as soon as an officer blows a horn to signal that the army should advance. The horses run very quickly, and they speedily reach the enemy lines.

What can the horse not do at the sound of the trumpet?

It cannot stand in one place.

Job 39:25

ULT

25 In the abundance of the horn, it says, ‘Aha!’ And it smells the battle from far away, the thunder of the princes and the battle-cry.

UST

25 When they hear someone blow the battle horn, horses neigh excitedly. They can smell a battle even from a distance. They hear commanders shouting orders to their soldiers {and they know the battle will begin soon}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:26

ULT

26 By your wisdom does the hawk soar, does it stretch its wings toward the south?

UST

26 Now think about birds that hunt small animals and other birds. Do you know how hawks are able to stay in the air as if they were floating? Do you know how they sense when it is time to fly to a warmer place for the winter?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:27

ULT

[27] If at your mouth the eagle mounts up and that its nest is high?

UST

[27] I gave eagles the ability to fly high up into the cliffs and build their nests there.

Where does the eagle make his nest and his home? (vv27-28)

He makes his nest in high places, and his home on the peaks of the crags.

Job 39:28

ULT

[28] It dwells and lodges {on} a crag, on the peak of a crag and a stronghold.

UST

[28] Eagles live on cliffs. They are safe among the high, pointed rocks there because no animals can get to them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:29

ULT

[29] From there it seeks food; its eyes look to from afar.

UST

[29] From that great height, eagles look for animals that they can kill and eat. They can see animals that are far away.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 39:30

ULT

[30] And its eaglets suck up blood, and at where the slain {are}, there it is.”

UST

[30] Eagles kill small animals and bring them back to their nests to feed their chicks. Eagles also go and eat dead bodies that they see lying on the ground.”

Job 40

Job 40:1

ULT

1 And Yahweh answered Job and said,

UST

1 Yahweh continued to speak to Job. He said,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:2

ULT

2 "{Is} a reprover to contend with the Almighty? The one correcting God, let him answer it!"

UST

2 "Do you still think I am wrong and want to keep arguing with me? If you want to keep criticizing me, then answer the questions I have asked you!"

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:3

ULT

3 And Job answered Yahweh and said,

UST

3 But Job replied to Yahweh,

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:4

ULT

4 "Behold, I am slight; how shall I answer you? I put my hand over my mouth.

UST

4 "Now I realize how insignificant I am. I am not able to answer your questions. I will not say anything in response to them.

How did Job do to show that he was too insignificant to answer Yahweh?

Job put his hand over his mouth.

Job 40:5

ULT

5 I spoke once, but I will not answer, and twice, but I will not continue."

UST

5 I have already said more than I should have said. So now I will say nothing more."

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:6

ULT

6 And Yahweh answered Job from the storm and said,

UST

6 Then Yahweh again spoke to Job from inside the storm. He said,

From what did Yahweh answer Job?

Yahweh answered Job from out of a fierce storm.

Job 40:7

ULT

7 "Now gird up your loins like a man! I will question you, and you will inform me.

UST

7 "I am going to ask you some more questions, so get ready to answer them directly.

What did Yahweh tell Job to do to prepare to answer Yahweh?

He told Job to gird up his loins like a man.

Job 40:8

ULT

8 Would you actually annul my judgment? Would you condemn me so that you may be right?

UST

8 Do you still want to govern the universe instead of me? Do you still want to insist that I am doing things wrong and that you would do them right?

Why did Yahweh say that Job was condemning Yahweh?

He said Job condemned Yahweh so that Job could claim he was right.

Job 40:9

ULT

[9] Or if like God an arm {is} to you? Or like him will you thunder with a voice?

UST

[9] Do you have the same amount of power as I do? Does your voice sound as loud as thunder, as mine does?

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:10

ULT

[10] Then adorn yourself {in} majesty and greatness, and clothe yourself {in} glory and splendor.

UST

[10] If you want to govern the universe, you must show that you are dignified and noble. You must show that your character is glorious and beautiful.

With what does Yahweh challenge Job to clothe himself?

He challenges Job to cloth himself with glory, splendor, greatness and majesty.

Job 40:11

ULT

[11] Scatter the outbursts of your nose, and look at every proud one and bring him down.

UST

[11] You must express holy wrath against the people who deserve it. You must recognize which people are being sinfully arrogant and take them out of important positions.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:12

ULT

[12] Look at every proud one and subdue him, and trample the wicked under them.

UST

[12] Yes, you must not allow arrogant people to remain in important positions. Destroy wicked people quickly!

What does Yahweh tell Job to do to the wicked people?

Yahweh tells Job to trample them down where they stand.

Job 40:13

ULT

13 Hide them in the dust together; cover their faces in the hidden {place}.

UST

13 Punish all of them by killing them. Then send them to the place where dead people go.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:14

ULT

14 And then I will praise you, because your right hand can save you.

UST

14 If you did that, I would congratulate you and admit that you could save yourself by your own ability.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:15

ULT

15 Now behold Behemoth, which I made with you; it eats grass like an ox.

UST

15 {But to show you how insignificant you really are,} I want you to think about a great animal that I created, Behemoth. I made you, and I also made it. Even though this great beast has the size and strength to hunt and kill other animals, it eats plants as oxen do.

What does the Behemoth eat?

He eats grass like an ox.

Job 40:16

ULT

16 Now behold, its strength {is} in his loins, and its power {is} in the muscles of his belly.

UST

16 Think about how strong the legs of Behemoth are! And the muscles in its belly are very powerful.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:17

ULT

17 It bends its tail like a cedar; the sinews of its thighs are intertwined.

UST

17 Behemoth can make its tail as stiff as the branch of a cedar tree and hold it up in the air. It has very strong legs.

What is the tail of the Behemoth like?

His tail is like a cedar.

Job 40:18

ULT

18 Its bones {are} tubes of bronze; its legs {are} like bars of iron.

UST

18 Its thigh bones are so strong that they are like tubes made of bronze. Its legs are so strong that they are like bars made of iron.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:19

ULT

19 It {is} the first of the ways of God. Its Maker has brought near its sword.

UST

19 Behemoth is one of the strongest animals that I made. I gave it sharp tusks so that it could cut down plants and eat them.

What is one of the strongest animals God made?

God says the Behemoth is the first of the ways of God, meaning first in strength.

Job 40:20

ULT

20 For the hills provide food for it, and all of the beasts of the field play there.

UST

20 It needs those tusks because it comes out of the river where it lives in order to eat the plants that grow nearby. But other animals do not have to be afraid of it, so those animals do not run away or hide.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:21

ULT

21 It lies beneath lotus trees, in the covering of the reed and the marsh.

UST

21 Behemoth lies under the trees that grow near the river where it lives. It sometimes shelters in the tall reeds that grow in the swamps of the river.

Where does the Behemoth lie?

He lies under the lotus plants in the shelter of the reeds.

Job 40:22

ULT

22 The lotus trees cover it {with} their shade; the willows of the river surround it.

UST

22 Behemoth stays in the shade of trees that grow near the river. It stays in the midst of the trees that grow near the water.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 40:23

ULT

23 Behold, a river will overflow, it does not tremble; it is confident, if the Jordan should surge to its mouth.

UST

23 Even when the river in which it lives become strong and turbulent, this does not disturb Behemoth. It does not mind even if the level of the water in the river rises very high.

What does the Behemoth think when the river floods and the Jordan surges?

He does not tremble and he is confident.

Job 40:24

ULT

24 Will one capture it with its eyes? Will one pierce {its} nose with cords?

UST

24 No one could capture Behemoth even if he could get close enough to stand right in front of it. No one can make Behemoth a tame animal.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41

Job 41:1

ULT

[1] Will you draw out Leviathan with a hook? Or will you tie its tongue with a rope?

UST

[1] {And now I want you to think about another great animal that I created, Leviathan.} You cannot catch Leviathan with a fishhook, and you cannot tie rope around its jaws to hold them closed!

With what does Yahweh ask Job if he can draw out Leviathan?

Yahweh asks Job if he can draw out Leviathan with a fishhook.

Job 41:2

ULT

[2] Will you put a rope into its nose, or will you pierce its jaw with a hook?

UST

[2] You cannot hook its jaws to catch it and then put cords through its nose to control it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:3

ULT

[3] Will it multiply supplications to you? If it will speak tender {things} to you?

UST

[3] Leviathan would certainly not plead with you to act mercifully toward it! It would not use sweet talk to try to get you not to harm it!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:4

ULT

[4] Will it cut a covenant with you? Will you take it for a servant forever?

UST

[4] Leviathan would certainly not make an agreement to work for you as your slave for as long as it lived!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:5

ULT

5 Will you play with it as {with} a bird? Or will you tie it for your girls?

UST

5 You could not turn it into a pet, as people do with birds! You could not put a leash around its neck so that the young women in your household could take it for walks!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:6

ULT

6 Will partners bargain over it? Will they divide it among merchants?

UST

6 People who work together to catch fish could never catch Leviathan and then decide what share of it belonged to each of them. They would never get the chance to cut Leviathan into pieces and then sell its meat!

What does God ask Job might happen if the fishermen were to catch Leviathan?

He asks Job if the fishermen would bargain for Leviathan or divide him up to trade among the merchants.

Job 41:7

ULT

7 Can you fill its hide with harpoons or its head with spears of fish?

UST

7 People cannot throw harpoons hard enough at Leviathan to pierce its hide! People cannot throw fishing spears into its head!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:8

ULT

8 Put your hand on it; remember the battle; do not continue!

UST

8 If you try to fight with Leviathan, it will give you a battle that you will never forget! You will never try to do that again!

What will happen if a person puts his hand on Leviathan?

It someone puts his hand on the Leviathan just once, he will remember the battle and do it no more.

Job 41:9

ULT

9 Behold, his hope is deceived; is one {not} cast down even at its appearance?

UST

9 It is useless even to hope to subdue Leviathan. Just the sight of it is enough to make a person become so afraid that he falls down.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:10

ULT

10 {One is} not fierce, that he will awaken it. Then who {is} he {who} will stand to my face?

UST

10 No one is so foolhardy that he would wake up Leviathan if it were sleeping. {It would angrily attack him.} Since that is true, it is even more foolhardy to challenge me{, as you have done}.

Since no one is fierce enough to dare stir Leviathan up, can anyone stand before Yahweh?

No one dares to stir Leviathan up, so there is no one who can stand before Yahweh.

Job 41:11

ULT

11 Who has anticipated me and I shall repay? Beneath all of the skies, it {is} to me.

UST

11 {Even if people are righteous,} they have not done anything for me that obligates me to make only good things happen to them. Everything in the created world belongs to me{, so no one can give me anything that I have to repay.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:12

ULT

12 I will not keep silent {about} its limbs or the matter of its strengths or the beauty of its form.

UST

12 And now I want to speak to you further. {You said that you wanted to wake up Leviathan! As I said, that would be very foolish.} It has agile legs and great strength and a graceful shape.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:13

ULT

13 Who has removed the face of its clothing? Into the double of its bridle, who has entered?

UST

13 It has a tough hide that no one can strip off. It has powerful jaws.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:14

ULT

14 The doors of its face, who has opened? Around its teeth {is} terror!

UST

14 Those jaws have terrible teeth in them! No one can pry them open when they are closed{, and no one can release them when they bite onto something.}

How else does Yahweh describe Leviathan's mouth?

He says it is the doors of his face, ringed with teeth, which are a terror.

Job 41:15

ULT

15 Rows of shields {are its} pride, shut together {with} a tight seal.

UST

15 It has rows of scales on its back with no gaps between them.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:16

ULT

16 One with one, they are close, and air does not come between them.

UST

16 Those scales are so close together that it seems as if not even air can get between them.

How close are the scales on the back of Leviathan?

One is so near to another that no air can come between them.

Job 41:17

ULT

17 A man with his brother, they are joined together; they clasp themselves and they do not separate themselves.

UST

17 Those scales join very closely to each other and they do not pull apart.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:18

ULT

18 Light flashes from its snortings, and its eyes {are} like the eyelids of the dawn.

UST

18 When Leviathan makes a loud sound, fire comes out of its mouth as well as noise. It has bright, scary eyes that seem to glow with fire.

How does Yahweh say Leviathan's eyes are like?

His eyes are like eyelids of the dawn, bright and glowing.

Job 41:19

ULT

19 Flames come from its mouth; sparks of fire leap out!

UST

19 When it breathes, it shoots out flames and fiery sparks.

What comes out of Leviathan's mouth?

Out of Leviathan's mouth go flames and fiery sparks.

Job 41:20

ULT

20 From its nostrils goes smoke like a blown pot and a reed.

UST

20 Smoke pours out of its nostrils the way steam pours out of a pot of boiling water over a hot fire.

What is the smoke from Leviathan's nostrils like?

It is like a boiling pot on a fire that has been fanned to be very hot.

Job 41:21

ULT

21 Its breath kindles coals, and a flame goes out from its mouth.

UST

21 Flames shoot out from its mouth, so when it breathes on wood, the wood catches fire.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:22

ULT

22 Strength lodges in its neck, and fear leaps up to its face.

UST

22 Its neck is very strong. Wherever it goes, it makes people very afraid.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:23

ULT

23 The folds of its flesh join together; they are firm on it, they will not be moved.

UST

23 Leviathan does not have a soft belly as other animals do. Scales wrap around its belly and hold it tightly to its body.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:24

ULT

24 Its heart is hard like stone; yes, it is hard like a lower millstone.

UST

24 It does not feel any compassion, any more than a stone would feel compassion or the lower millstone on which people grind grain would feel compassion.

What is Leviathan's heart like?

His heart is as hard as a lower millstone.

Job 41:25

ULT

25 At its rising, the mighty fear; from its thrashings, they withdraw.

UST

25 When Leviathan rises up out of the ocean, the bravest people become terrified. When sailors see it churning up the water, they sail away as fast as they can.

What do the mighty do when Leviathan raises himself up?

They become afraid and draw back.

Job 41:26

ULT

26 The sword reaching it does not stand; the spear, the dart, the javelin.

UST

26 People cannot injure it with swords. They cannot injure it with spears, arrows, or other weapons that have sharp points, either.

What happens when a sword, spear, arrow or any pointed weapon strikes Leviathan?

They do nothing to him.

Job 41:27

ULT

27 It regards iron as straw, bronze as rotten wood.

UST

27 An iron weapon could not hurt it any more than straw could. A bronze weapon could not hurt it any more than a weapon made of rotten wood.

What does Leviathan think of iron and bronze?

He thinks of iron as if it were straw and bronze as if it were rotten wood.

Job 41:28

ULT

28 The son of the bow does not make it flee; with it, the stones of the sling are turned into chaff.

UST

28 Shooting arrows at it does not cause it to flee. Hurling stones at it from a sling is like hurling bits of chaff at it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:29

ULT

29 Clubs are regarded as chaff, and it laughs at the rattling of a spear.

UST

29 A club that someone might use against it would not hurt it any more than chaff would. It can ignore any spear that someone might throw at it.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:30

ULT

30 Beneath it are points of a shard; it spreads {like} a threshing sledge upon the mud.

UST

30 Scales as sharp as broken pieces of pottery cover its belly. When it drags itself through the mud, these scales tear up the ground.

What kind of trail does Leviathan leave?

He leaves a spreading trail in the mud as if he were a threshing sledge.

Job 41:31

ULT

31 It makes the deep boil like a pot; it makes the sea like an ointment pot.

UST

31 As it swims through the deep water of the ocean, it churns it into foam, as if it were boiling water or ointment that someone was stirring.

What does he make the deep to do?

He makes the deep to foam up like a boiling pot of water.

Job 41:32

ULT

32 It makes a path shine behind it; one considers the deep {to be} white-haired.

UST

32 As it swims through the water, it creates a glistening wake. The churning water is like white hair on top of the deep sea.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 41:33

ULT

33 Upon the dust there is not its equal, the one made without fear.

UST

33 There is nothing in the world like Leviathan. I created it in such a way that it would not be afraid of anything.

Why does Leviathan have no equal on earth?

He s has been made to live without fear.

Job 41:34

ULT

34 It sees all of the high; it {is} king over all of the sons of pride.”

UST

34 Nothing else scares it, no matter how powerful that thing may be. It is greater than the greatest of other creatures.”

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 42

Job 42:1

ULT

1 And Job answered Yahweh and said,

UST

1 Then Job replied to Yahweh. He said,

Job 42:2

ULT

2 "I know that you are able {to do} everything, and no plan is withheld from you.

UST

2 "Now I realize that you can do anything you want. No one can stop you from doing what you want to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 42:3

ULT

3 'Who is this, concealing counsel without knowledge?' Therefore I have declared, but I did not understand, {things} too wonderful for me, and I did not know.

UST

3 You told me that I had been speaking ignorantly, and that as a result, I was making it harder for people to understand your actions. I will admit that I was speaking about things that I did not understand. Those things were very amazing, and I did not really know what I was talking about.

What did Job acknowledge that he had spoken?

He had spoken things that he did not understand, things too difficult for him to understand, which he did not know about.

Job 42:4

ULT

4 ‘Listen, now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you will inform me.’

UST

4 You told me that I should listen and let you talk because you were going to ask me some questions. You wanted me to try to answer them. {But I will admit that I am not able to answer the questions you asked.}

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 42:5

ULT

5 With the hearing of my ear I had heard {about} you, but now my eye sees you.

UST

5 I had previously heard many things about you. But now I have actually seen you!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 42:6

ULT

6 Therefore I despise, and I repent in dust and ashes.”

UST

6 Therefore I am ashamed of myself for what I said. I am sitting in dust and ashes to show that I am sorry for what I said.”

How did Job respond to Yahweh after seeing him with his eye?

Job despised himself and repented in dust and ashes.

Job 42:7

ULT

7 And it happened, after Yahweh had spoken these words to Job, that Yahweh said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My nose burns against you and against the two of your friends, for you have not spoken about me what is right as my servant Job {has}.

UST

7 When Yahweh had finished speaking with Job, he spoke to Eliphaz, Job’s friend from the town of Teman. He said, “I am very angry with you and your two friends. I am angry because you did not say true things about me the way Job did. He serves me faithfully.

What did Yahweh say that Eliphaz and his two friends had done wrong?

They had not said right things about Yahweh, as Job had done.

Job 42:8

ULT

8 So now take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. And Job my servant will pray for you; I will surely lift his face, lest I deal with you {according to your} folly. For you have not said what is right about me like my servant Job.”

UST

8 So now you must bring seven young bulls and seven rams to Job, that man who serves me faithfully. While he is with you, kill these animals and burn them as a sacrifice for yourselves. Then Job will pray for you, and I will do what he asks me to do for you. I will not punish you for speaking foolishly about me. You deserve for me to punish you because you did not say the right things about me as Job did. He serves me faithfully.”

What did Yahweh tell Eliphaz to give as an offering?

He told Eliphaz to take seven bulls and seven rams to offer for themselves as a burnt offering.

Whose prayer did Yahweh say he would accept?

Yahweh said he would accept Job’s prayer.

Job 42:9

ULT

9 And Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite {and} Zophar the Naamathite went and did as Yahweh had spoken to them, and Yahweh lifted the face of Job.

UST

9 So Eliphaz, Job’s friend from the town of Teman; Bildad, Job’s friend from the Shuhite people group; and Zophar, Job’s friend from the town of Naamah, did what Yahweh had commanded them to do. Then Job prayed for his friends, and Yahweh forgave them as Job asked him to do.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Job 42:10

ULT

10 And Yahweh turned the captivity of Job when he prayed for his friends, and Yahweh added {to} all that {was} to Job to double.

UST

10 After Job had prayed for his three friends, Yahweh healed him and made him wealthy again. Yahweh gave him twice as much wealth as he had before.

What happened after Job prayed for his friends?

Yahweh restored his fortunes and gave him twice what he had possessed before.

Job 42:11

ULT

11 And all of his brothers and all of his sisters and all of the ones knowing him before came to him, and they ate bread with him in his house. And they consoled him and comforted him for all of the troubles that Yahweh had brought upon him, and they each gave one kesitah to him and each {gave} one earring of gold.

UST

11 Then Job's family and friends came to his house and had a feast with him. All of his brothers and sisters came, and all of his former acquaintances also came. They cheered him up now that all of the troubles were over that Yahweh had allowed to happen to him. Each of them gave Job a valuable piece of silver and a gold earring.

What did every person give to Job when they came to comfort him?

14 What adulterous women say is {as dangerous as} a deep hole {that men could fall into}; those with whom Yahweh is angry will suffer from it.

How dangerous is what an adulterous woman says?

What an adulterous woman says is as dangerous as a deep hole that men could fall into.\n

Proverbs 22:15

ULT

15 Folly is bound up in the heart of a boy; the rod of discipline will cause it to be far away from him.

UST

15 Children naturally think foolishly, but physically disciplining them will teach them to stop being foolish.

What drives foolishness from a child?

The rod of discipline drives foolishness from a child.

Proverbs 22:16

ULT

16 One oppressing a lowly {one} to increase for him, one giving to the rich, surely {will be} to lack.

UST

16 People who oppress poor people in order to make more money for themselves or who give things to rich people {in order to become rich} will only become poor.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 22:17

ULT

17 Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise ones, and you must set your heart to my knowledge!

UST

17 Listen carefully to what wise people have said; consider carefully what I am teaching you!

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 22:18

ULT

18 For {it will be} pleasant if you keep them in your inner parts, they are ready together on your lips.

UST

18 {Do this} because if you remember these sayings and if you are always ready to repeat them {to others}, then you will be glad.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 22:19

ULT

19 {For} your trust to be in Yahweh, I have caused you to know today, even you.

UST

19 I am teaching these sayings to you—yes, you—right now so that you will trust Yahweh.

In whom should a person trust?

A person should trust in Yahweh.

Proverbs 22:22

ULT

22 Do not rob a lowly {one} because he {is} a lowly {one}, and do not crush an afflicted {one} at the gate.

UST

22 Do not steal from poor people just because they are poor; and do not oppress suffering people in court.

What must not be done to the poor and suffering?

Do not steal from the poor and do not oppress suffering people.

Proverbs 22:23

ULT

23 For Yahweh will plead their dispute, and he will plunder of life those who plunder them.

UST

23 {Do not do these things} because Yahweh will defend those poor people when you dispute with them, and he will kill the people who stole from them.

What will Yahweh do to those who rob the poor?

Yahweh will kill the people who stole from them.

Proverbs 22:24

ULT

24 Do not befriend an owner of nose, and do not go {with} a man of heat,

UST

24 Do not become friends with angry people. Indeed, do not associate with people who easily become angry.

Why must a person not associate with people who easily become angry? (vv24-25)

A person must not associate with someone who easily becomes angry because he will learn to act like them and endanger himself.

Proverbs 22:25

ULT

25 lest you learn his paths and you take a snare for your life.

UST

25 {If you do so,} then you will act like them, and you will endanger yourself like an animal caught in a trap.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 22:26

ULT

26 Do not be among those who clasp a palm, among those who pledge for loans.

UST

26 Stay away from those people who agree to pay loans for others. {Indeed, stay away from those people} who guarantee to pay the loans of others.

What might a person take from someone who cannot pay back a loan? (vv26-27)

A person could take even their bed if they cannot repay the loan.

Proverbs 22:27

ULT

27 If there is nothing to you to make payment, why should he take away your bed from under you?

UST

27 {Because} if you cannot pay back {the loan}, {then} the person to whom you owe money will surely take away even your own bed {in order to pay back the loan}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 22:28

ULT

28 Do not move the ancient boundary that your fathers made.

UST

28 Do not cheat people by moving the stones that their ancestors placed long ago to mark the boundaries of their land.

What must not be moved?

The ancient boundary stone set by their ancestors must not be moved.

Proverbs 22:29

ULT

29 You see a skilled man in his work. He will station himself before the face of kings; he will not station himself before the face of obscure ones.
22:20 [1]

UST

29 Consider this: People who work skillfully will serve kings rather than serving unknown people.

UST

3 Do not crave the {expensive} food that the ruler has because that ruler is using that food to deceive you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 23:4

ULT

[4] Do not weary yourself to gain riches; from your understanding, cease.

UST

[4] Do not work so much that you exhaust yourself in order to become rich. Be understanding enough to stop doing so.

A wise person knows when to stop doing what?

A wise person knows when to stop working too hard to try to become rich.

Proverbs 23:5

ULT

[5] Will you cause your eyes to fly to it, but it is not there? For making, it will make wings for itself; like an eagle, it will fly {into} the sky.

UST

[5] As soon as you look at that wealth, it will surely be gone! {This is} because wealth certainly disappears quickly as if it had wings and flew off into the sky like a fast bird.

How does wealth compare to a bird?

Both wealth and a bird can quickly disappear.

Proverbs 23:6

ULT

[6] Do not eat the bread of {one} evil of eye, and do not desire his delicious morsels.

UST

Proverbs 25:6

ULT

6 Do not honor yourself to the face of the king, and in the place of the great ones do not stand.

UST

6 Do not promote yourself in front of kings, and do not pretend to be great.

What is better than standing in the place designated for the great? (vv6-7)

Waiting for the king tell you to come up here is better than standing in the place designated for the great and being told to sit farther away from the king.

Proverbs 25:7

ULT

7 For, better to say to you, “Come up here,” than to humiliate you to the face of a noble, whom your eyes have seen.

UST

7 {Do not do so} because it is better if someone invites you to sit in a place that is closer {to the king}, than for someone to embarrass you in front of a royal official whom you have seen {by telling you to sit farther away from the king}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 25:8

ULT

8 Do not go out hastily to dispute, or else what will you do in its end when your neighbor humiliates you?

UST

8 Do not plead your case too quickly against someone you know. If you do, then you will not know what to do when that person {wins the case and} embarrasses you!

If you have witnessed something concerning your neighbor, why should you not be quick to bring it to trial?

You should not plead your case too quickly because your neighbor may win the case and embarrass you.

Proverbs 25:9

ULT

9 Dispute your dispute {with} your neighbor and the secret of another do not uncover,

UST

9 If you do indeed plead your case against someone you know, {settle it between yourselves and} do not tell {others} any secret about that person.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 25:21

ULT

21 If one who hates you {is} hungry, cause him to eat bread, and if thirsty, cause him to drink water;

UST

21 Feed your enemies if they are hungry; give them something to drink if they are thirsty.

What should you do for your enemy?

You should give your enemy food to eat and water to drink if they are hungry or thirsty.

Proverbs 25:22

ULT

22 for you are heaping embers on his head, and Yahweh will repay to you.

UST

22 {Do so} because by doing so you {will shame them, as if you} were pouring burning coals on top of them, and Yahweh will reward you {for doing so}.

What will Yahweh do for the one who gives his enemy food and drink?

Yahweh will reward the one who gives his enemy food and drink.

Proverbs 25:23

ULT

23 The wind of the north brings forth rain, and indignant faces, a tongue of secrecy.

UST

23 When wind blows from the north, that produces rain. {Similarly,} when people tell the secrets {of others}, {that produces} angry people.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 25:24

ULT

24 Better to dwell on the corner of a roof than {with} a wife of quarrels and a house of companionship.

UST

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 25:27

ULT

27 To eat much honey {is} not good, also the searching out {of} their honor, honor.

UST

27 {As} it is not good to eat too much honey; {so it is not} honorable to try to make people honor you.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 25:28

ULT

28 A breached city without a wall {is} a man who has no restraint for his spirit.

UST

28 People who cannot control themselves are {as defenseless as} a city that an army has broken into and knocked down its walls.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 26

Proverbs 26:1

ULT

[1] Like the snow in the summer and like the rain in the harvest, so honor {is} not suitable for a stupid one.

UST

[1] Honoring foolish people is just as inappropriate as snow {falling} in {hot} summer and rain {falling} during the time to harvest crops.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 26:2

ULT

[2] Like the bird for fluttering, like the swallow for flying, so a curse without cause does not come.

UST

[2] Just as a bird will fly by {and not land on you}, so a curse will not harm you if you are innocent.

What does not harm you?

A curse will not harm you if you are innocent.

Proverbs 26:3

ULT

[3] A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of stupid ones.

UST

[3] As people must whip horses and bridle donkeys {in order to guide them}, so people must physically punish foolish people {in order to guide them}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 26:4

ULT

4 Do not answer a stupid one according to his folly, lest you yourself also become like him.

UST

4 Do not reply to foolish people according to their foolish way of thinking. If you do, then you also will be foolish.

What will happen to you if you reply to foolish people according to their foolish way of thinking?

If you do, then you also will be foolish.

Proverbs 26:5

ULT

5 Answer a stupid one according to his folly, lest he become wise in his eyes.

UST

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 26:9

ULT

9 A thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard, and a proverb in the mouth of stupid ones.

UST

9 A drunken person picks up a thorn {and it will hurt someone}, {in the same way} a foolish person says a proverb {that can only be harmful}.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 26:10

ULT

10 An archer piercing everyone, so {is} one hiring a stupid {one} and hiring passersby.

UST

10 People who employ foolish people or random strangers are {as dangerous} as someone who randomly shoots arrows at people.

One who employs a fool is like what?

One who employs a fool is like an archer who randomly shoots arrows at people.

Proverbs 26:11

ULT

11 Like a dog returning to its vomit {is} a stupid {one} who repeats his folly.

UST

11 Foolish people who do the same foolish thing over and over again are like dogs that eat what they have vomited up.

Why is a fool like a dog who returns to his vomit?

A fool is like a dog who returns to his vomit because a fool does the same foolish thing over and over again.

Proverbs 26:12

ULT

12 You see a man wise in his eyes. {There is more} hope for a stupid {one} than for him.

UST

12 Consider this: Foolish people are more likely to learn than people who {wrongly} think that they are {already} wise.

(There are no questions for this verse.)

Proverbs 26:13

ULT

13 A lazy {one} says, “A young lion {is} on the road! A lion {is} between the open areas!”

UST
