Deuteronomy 22:21

ULT	UST
then they shall bring out the girl to the door of the house of her father; and the men of her city shall stone her with stones, and she shall die, because she has done a disgraceful thing in Israel, to commit fornication {in} the house of her father; and you shall remove the evil from among you.	they must take that young woman to the door of her father's house. Then the men of that city must execute her by throwing stones at her. They must do that because she has done something in Israel that is very disgraceful, by sleeping with some man while she was still living in her father's house. By executing her like that, you will make sure no one from among you does this evil action.

ULT	UST
If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall die, even the two of them, the man lying with the woman and the woman; and you shall remove the evil from Israel.	If someone catches a man having sex with another man's wife, you must execute both of them, the man and the woman. By doing that, you will make sure no one from Israel does this evil action.

What must happen if a man is found lying with a woman married to another man?

Both the man and the woman must be put to death to make sure no one else from Israel does this evil action.

Deuteronomy 22:23

ULT	UST
If {there} is a virgin girl, engaged to a man, and {another} man finds her in the city and lies with her,	Suppose in some town a man sees a young woman who is engaged to another man and has sex with her.

Why are the people of Israel instructed to stone to death both a girl who is engaged to a man and another man if they are found lying together? (22:23-24)

They are instructed to stone both of them because the girl did not cry out and the man defiled the one who is engaged to be the wife of a fellow Israelite.

Deuteronomy 22:24

ULT	UST
then you shall take both of them to the gate of that city, and stone them with stones, and they shall die—the girl, on account of the matter that she did not cry out in the city, and the man, on account of the matter that he humiliated the wife of his neighbor—and you shall remove the evil from among you.	You must take both of them to the gate of that town. There you must execute them both by throwing stones at them. You must execute the young woman because she did not shout for help even though she was in the town. You must execute the man because he has defiled someone who was supposed to be someone else's wife. By doing that, you will make sure no one among you does this evil action.

And if the man finds the engaged girl in the field, and the man seizes her and lies with her, then only the man who lies with her shall die.	But suppose out in the open countryside a man meets a young woman who is engaged to be married, and he forces her to have sex with him. If that happens, you must execute only that man who forced her to have sex.

What must happen if the man forces the engaged girl to lie with him when they are out in a field? (22:25-27)

If this happens out in a field, then the man must die, but nothing must be done to the girl because he found her out in the open countryside and even though she cried out, there was no one there to rescue her.

Deuteronomy 22:26

ULT	UST
But to the girl you shall not do a thing; there is no sin of death in the girl. For as a man rises up against his neighbor and murders him, the life, thus {is} this matter.	You must not punish the young woman, because she did not do anything to die for. Why are Ammonites and Moabites not allowed to enter the assembly of Yahweh? (23:3-4)

They are not allowed to enter because they did not provide the Israelites with food and water when the Israelites came out of Egypt, and because they hired Balaam to curse the Israelites.

Deuteronomy 23:4

ULT	UST
on account of the matter that they did not meet you with bread and with water on the road when you had come out from Egypt, and that he hired against you Balaam, the son of Beor, from Pethor {in} Aram Naharaim, to curse you.	One reason for this is that their leaders refused to give you food and water when they were traveling from the nation of Egypt {to the region of Canaan}. Likewise, do not despise people from Egypt, because they treated your ancestors well when they first lived in Egypt.

Why should they not detest the Edomites and Egyptians?

They are not to detest the Edomites because they are considered relatives of the Israelites as they are descendants of Isaac. The Egyptians should not be detested because the Israelites once lived as foreigners in Egypt.

Why were male and female cultic prostitutes not allowed among the Israelites, and why were their earnings not allowed to be brought as a vow into Yahweh's house? (23:17-18)

These practices and the earnings from them are considered an abomination to Yahweh.

Yahweh expects you to do what you promised, and if you do not do it, you will be sinning.

How important is it for an Israelite to fulfill a vow made to Yahweh? (23:21-23)

Yahweh does not allow for the first husband who sent her away to take her again to be his wife.

Deuteronomy 24:4
