So the Jews said to the one healed, "It is the Sabbath and not permitted for you to carry your bed."	Because {it was the Jewish day for rest}, the Jewish leaders said to the man whom Jesus had healed, "Today is a day for rest. You are not allowed to carry your mat {on this day, because it is work}."

Why did it upset the Jewish leaders when they saw the sick man walking with his bed (mat)?

It upset them because it was a Sabbath, and they said the man was not permitted to carry his mat on the Sabbath.

John 5:11

ULT	UST
But he replied to them, "The one having made me healthy, that one said to me, 'Pick up your bed and walk.'"	The man whom Jesus had healed answered them, "The man who healed me told me to pick up the mat {that I had been lying on} and walk."

Jesus told them, "My Father is working even now, and I, too, work."

ULT	UST
Because of this, therefore, the Jews sought even more to kill him, because he not only was breaking the Sabbath, but also was calling God his own Father, making himself equal to God.	As a consequence {of him saying this}, the Jewish leaders were trying to kill Jesus even more {than they had tried before}. {They wanted to kill him} because he was not only disobeying their rules for the day for rest but also because he was claiming that he was equal with God by saying that God was his own Father.

Why did Jesus' statement to the Jewish leaders make them want to kill Jesus?

This happened because Jesus not only broke the Sabbath (in their minds), but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God.

I am able to do nothing from myself. Just as I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous because I do not seek my own will but the will of the one having sent me.	*I can do nothing on my own. But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart, you are storing up for yourself wrath on the day of wrath and of the revelation of the righteous judgment of God,	Instead, because you are stubborn and refuse to repent, you are causing God to punish you even more severely. {This will happen} when God punishes {sinners} and reveals how justly he judges.

For circumcision indeed benefits if you practice the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.	{You Jews who have sinned will be judged} because, being circumcised {only} benefits you if you obey the laws {God gave you}. However, if you disobey those laws, being circumcised does not benefit you at all.

How does Paul say a Jewish person's circumcision can become uncircumcision?

Paul says that a Jewish person's circumcision can become uncircumcision if that person is a violator of the law.

ULT	UST
If, then, the uncircumcision keeps the requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be considered as circumcision?	So then, if uncircumcised people obey what God requires in the laws {he gave the Jews}, God will regard those uncircumcised people as being circumcised.

How does Paul say that a Gentile person's uncircumcision can be considered circumcision?

What then {is} the advantage of the Jew, or what {is} the benefit of the circumcision?	{You Jews might say,} "{If what you have said is true,} then surely being a Jew is not advantageous! Surely being circumcised is not beneficial at all!"

What is first of all among the advantages of the Jew? (3:1-2)

First of all among the advantages of the Jew is that they were entrusted with revelation from God.

Romans 3:2

ULT	UST
Great in every way! For indeed first, that they were entrusted with the sayings of God.	{Then I would say,} "{Being a Jew benefits a person} in many ways!" {This is} certainly {true} because, first of all, God trusted the Jews with preserving what he had said {in the Scriptures}.

This is what {David meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "The result {of my sin} is that people will acknowledge that you{, God,} are right when you speak and victorious when people {try to} judge you."*

Even though every man is a liar, what is God found to be?

Even though every man is a liar, God is found to be true.

ULT	UST
But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? God {is} not unrighteous for imposing his wrath, {is he}? (This is exactly what some people say falsely about me and claim that I say. It is right {for God} to condemn people {who speak and act} this way!)*

What comes on those who say, "Let us do evil, that good may come"?

Judgment comes on those who say, "Let us do evil, that good may come."

For the promise to Abraham or to his seed that he would be heir of the world {was} not through the law but through the righteousness of faith.	{This is true} because {when} God promised Abraham and those who descend from him that the {whole} world would belong to him, {God did not promise this} because {Abraham obeyed} the laws {God gave the Jews}. Rather, {God promised this} because God had made {Abraham} righteous because Abraham trusted {in him}.

What promise was given to Abraham and his descendants through the righteousness of faith?

It was promised to Abraham and his descendants that they would be heirs of the world.

ULT	UST
For if the heirs {are} from the law, the faith has been emptied, and the promise has been nullified.	*{This is true} because, if people could inherit {what God promised Abraham} by obeying the laws {he gave the Jews}, {then} trusting {in God} would become useless! What would be true if the promise to Abraham had come through the law?

If the promise had come through the law, then faith would be empty and the promise not true.

Romans 4:15

God considers {Abraham to be our spiritual ancestor}. Abraham trusted God. {God is the one} who causes dead people to become alive {again}. He also commands things that do not exist {to exist}, then they exist.*

What two things does Paul say God does?

Paul says that God gives life to the dead and calls things that do not exist into existence.

As a result, he became the {spiritual} ancestor for numerous people groups. {This happened} just as God had promised {him} {in the Scriptures}: "The people who descend from you will become as numerous {as the stars in the sky}."*

What outward circumstances made it difficult for Abraham to believe God's promise that he would be the father of many nations? (4:18-19)

When God made the promise to Abraham, Abraham was about a hundred years old and Sarah's womb was dead.

How did Abraham respond to God's promise even with these outward circumstances?

Abraham confidently trusted God and did not hesitate in unbelief.

ULT	UST
And not weakening in the faith, he considered his own body as already being dead (being about a hundred years old)—and the deadness of the womb of Sarah.	Abraham thought that his body was too old to produce children. (He was almost 100 years old!) {He also thought} that {his wife} Sarah was unable to become pregnant {because she never had been able to do so before}. {Nevertheless,} Abraham kept on trusting {God}.

Now it was not written only for his sake, "It was credited to him,"	Yet, when {Moses} wrote {in the Scriptures}, "God considered how Abraham trusted {him}," {these words} not only refer to Abraham.

For whom was the account of Abraham written? (4:23-24)

The account of Abraham was written for his benefit and also for our benefit.

What are three things that suffering produces? (5:3-4)

Suffering produces endurance, character, and hope.

Romans 5:4

But God demonstrates his own love toward us, in that, we still being sinners, Christ died for us.	However, God shows his own love towards we {believers} by this fact: while we were still sinful, {Jesus} the Messiah died for our benefit!

How does God demonstrate his love toward us?

God demonstrates his love toward us, because while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 5:9

For this reason, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and through sin, death, so also death spread to all men, because of which all sinned.	So then, sin started existing in the world because one man sinned, and {living things started} to die because he sinned. In the same way, everyone started dying as well, because everyone sins.

What happened because of one man's sin?

Because of the sin of one man, sin entered into the world, death entered through sin, and death spread to all people.

Romans 5:13

ULT	UST
For until law, sin was in the world, but sin is not charged, {there} being no law.	*Indeed, people throughout the world sinned before {God gave his} laws {to the Jews}. Nevertheless, death ruled from Adam until Moses, even over the ones not having sinned in the likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is a pattern of the one coming.	However, everyone died from {the time of the first man} Adam until {the time of} Moses. Even those people died who did not sin by violating the same command God gave to Adam. Adam is like the person who would come {later}.

Who was the one man through whom sin entered the world?

Adam was the one man through whom sin entered the world.

ULT	UST
But not like the trespass, so also {is} the gracious gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gift by grace that {is} of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many!	But what God has kindly given {us} is not the same as how Adam rejected {God's command}. In fact, it is true that many people died because the one man {Adam} rejected {God's command}. {But} how kind God is and that which God kindly gives through the one man Jesus the Messiah extend to many people {and are} much greater!

How is God's free gift different than Adam's sins?

By Adam's sin many died, but the grace of God and his free gift through Christ abounds to many.

ULT	UST
And the gift {is} not as through one who sinned. For indeed, the judgment from one, to condemnation, but the gracious gift from many trespasses, to justification.	Yet, what God gives is not like {what happened} because the one man {Adam} sinned. {This is true} because, in fact, God judged {everyone} after the sinful thing {that Adam did}, which resulted in God condemning {everyone}. By contrast, what God kindly gave {people} after they rejected {his commands} many {times} resulted in God making them righteous.

What resulted from Adam's sin, and what resulted from God's free gift?

The judgment of condemnation resulted from Adam's sin, but justification resulted from God's free gift.

ULT	UST
For if, by the trespass of the one, death ruled through the one, how much more will the ones receiving the abundance of the grace and the gift of the righteousness rule in life through the one, Jesus Christ.	Indeed, since everyone died because the one man {Adam} rejected {God's command}, it is even more certain that those {people} who accept how abundantly kind God is and {are those people whom} he makes righteous will live in control {of themselves}. {This will happen} because of {what} Jesus the Messiah {has done}.

What ruled from Adam's sin, and what ruled through God's gift of righteousness?

Death ruled from Adam's sin, and those who receive God's gift rule through the life of Jesus Christ.

ULT	UST
So then, as through one trespass to all men {led} to condemnation, so also through one righteous act to all men {led} to justification of life.	Therefore, in the way that God condemned everyone because {Adam} rejected {God's command}, in the same way, God makes everyone righteous, which results in {them} living eternally, because of the righteous act that {Jesus} did.

ULT	UST
For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one will the many be made righteous ones.	Indeed, in the same way that people became sinful because the one man {Adam} disobeyed {God}, in the same way many people will become righteous because the one man {Jesus} obeyed {God}.

What were many made through Adam's disobedience, and what will many be made through the obedience of Christ?

Many were made sinners through Adam's disobedience, and many will be made righteous through the obedience of Christ.

Romans 5:20

ULT	UST
Now the law slipped in so that the trespass might increase. But where the sin increased, the grace abounded even more	Yet {God} added {his} laws in order that people might reject {his commands} even more. Nevertheless, whenever people began to sin even more, then even more God showed how kind he is!

Why did the law come in alongside?

The law came alongside in order that the trespass might increase.

What abounded more than the trespass?

God’s grace abounded more than the trespass.

ULT	UST
so that just as sin ruled in death, so also grace might rule through righteousness to everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord.	*{This happened} so that God could be gracious to people by making them righteous. We were buried, then, with him through the baptism into his death so that just as Christ was raised from dead ones through the glory of the Father, so also we in newness of life might walk.	So, by being baptized as if we died with {the Messiah}, it is like God buried us {in the tomb} with {Jesus}. {This is so} in order that, just as God the Father's glorious power caused the Messiah to become alive again after he had died, in the same way, we too can live a new way of living.

What should believers do since Christ was raised from the dead?

Believers should walk in newness of life.

What function does the law perform?

The law makes sin known.

Is the law sin?

No, the law is not sin.

Romans 7:8

Therefore, did what {is} good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, in order that it might be shown {to be} sin through what {is} good, producing death in me so that through the commandment, sin might become sinful beyond measure.	So, {God's laws}, which are good, surely did not cause me to die {spiritually}! Of course not! Rather, living sinfully did so. {This happened} so that {God's} good {laws} would reveal how sinful it is to live sinfully. {This also happened} so that what God commands would reveal that living sinfully is utterly sinful.

What does Paul say sin does to him?

Paul says that sin, through the law, brings about death in him.

Romans 7:14

O man, who indeed are you, the one answering against God? The one molded will not say to the one having molded {it}, "Why did you make me this way?" will it?	{Then I would say,} "You {mere} human! You who argue with God are truly not worthy {to do so}! Who God has made surely must not say to God who made him, 'You should not have made me to be like this!'"

What is Paul's reply to those who would question if God is righteous because he finds fault in men?

Paul replies, "Who are you who answers against God?"

But {what} if God, willing to demonstrate his wrath and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction;	Now, {you should surely not argue with God} because he very patiently endured those people whom he would punish {and} had prepared to destroy {eternally}. {He endured them} because he wanted to show how angry he is and to reveal how powerful he is.

What did God do with those prepared for destruction?

God endured with much patience those prepared for destruction.

What did God do with those prepared for glory?

God made known to them the riches of his glory.

From which peoples has God called those on whom he is having mercy?

God has called from both Jews and Gentiles those on whom he is having mercy.

What then will we say? That the Gentiles, who are not pursuing righteousness, obtained righteousness, but righteousness that {is} by faith.	{Since these things are true}, we should surely say that {although} the nations are not trying to be righteous, {they} became righteous. {However,} they became righteous by trusting {God}.

How did the Gentiles, who were not pursuing righteousness, attain it?

The Gentiles attained it through the righteousness by faith.

ULT	UST
But Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, did not attain {it} through the law.	By contrast, {the people of} Israel tried to obey the laws {God gave them} in order to become righteous. {But} they could not become righteous by {obeying} those laws.

Romans 9:32

Why? Because {it was} not by faith, but as by works. They stumbled over the stone of stumbling,	The reason why {the people of Israel could not become righteous} is that they did not {try to become righteous} by trusting {God}. Instead, they tried to become righteous by working {for it}. {Because of this} {the Messiah offended them when he came. It is as if the Messiah is} a stone that causes them to trip.

Over what did the Israelites stumble? (9:32-33)

The Israelites stumbled over the stone of stumbling and the rock of offense.

Why did Israel, although pursuing a law of righteousness, not arrive at it?

Israel did not arrive at it because they pursued it by works, and not by faith.

Romans 9:33

What happens to those who do not stumble, but believe?

Those who do not stumble, but believe, will not be ashamed.

Brothers, the good pleasure of my heart and my prayer to God {is} on behalf of them for salvation.	My fellow believers, I strongly desire {that God will save the Israelites}. I also pray for him {to save} them!

What is Paul's desire for his brothers, the Israelites?

Paul's desire is for the Israelites' salvation.

Romans 10:2

ULT	UST
For not knowing about the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit themselves to the righteousness of God.	{This is} because they are not aware of how God makes people righteous, and they try to make themselves righteous. {This is why} they refuse to subject themselves to the way God makes people righteous.

What are the Israelites seeking to establish?

The Israelites are seeking to establish their own righteousness.

Of what do the Israelites not know?

The Israelites do not know of God's righteousness.

ULT	UST
For Christ {is} the completion of the law for righteousness for everyone who believes.	{They were wrong to try to make themselves righteous}, because {Jesus} the Messiah has ended the laws {that God gave the Jews}. {Christ did this} in order for God to make righteous anyone who trusts {in Jesus}.

What has Christ done with respect to the law?

Christ is the fulfillment of the law for righteousness for everyone who believes.

Romans 10:5

For Moses writes {about} the righteousness that {is} from the law: "The man having done these things will live by it."	Indeed, this is what Moses wrote {in the Scriptures} about being righteous by {obeying} the laws {God gave the Jews}: "The person who obeys {all} {God's} laws {perfectly} will live {eternally} by doing so."

But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart.” This is the word of faith, which we proclaim.	However, {Moses also} said this {in the Scriptures} {about people becoming righteous by trusting in God}, “You can easily know what God said. You can proclaim it and know it personally.” This refers to what God said about trusting {in him}. {This is what} we {believers in the Messiah} keep announcing.

Where is the word of faith which Paul is proclaiming?

The word of faith is near, in the mouth and in the heart.

ULT	UST
For if with your mouth you confess, “Jesus {is} Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from dead ones, you will be saved.	{What we keep announcing is} that God will save {any of} you who verbally acknowledges that Jesus is the Lord {over all things} and {personally} trusts that God made Jesus become alive again after he had died.

What does Paul say a person does to be saved?

Paul says a person must acknowledge with the mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in the heart that God raised him from the dead.

Romans 10:10

For "all, whoever calls on the name of the Lord, will be saved."	Indeed, {Joel wrote in the Scriptures,} "God will save all people who call out to the Lord {to save them}."

Everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved.

ULT	UST
How then would they call on {him} in whom they have not believed? And how would they believe in {him} whom they have not heard? And how would they hear without someone preaching?	So, people certainly will not call out {for the Lord Jesus to save them} {if} they do not trust {in him}. And people certainly will not trust {in Jesus} {if} they have not heard {about him}. And people certainly will not hear {about Jesus} {if} someone does not proclaim {to them who he is}.

What does Paul say is the series of steps which brings the good news to a person, so he can call on the name of the Lord? (10:14-15)

Paul says that first a preacher is sent and the good news is heard and believed so that a person can call on the name of the Lord.

ULT	UST
And how would they preach, unless they would be sent? Just as it is written, “How beautiful {are} the feet of the ones proclaiming good news {of} good things!”	And certainly people would not proclaim {to other people who Jesus is} unless someone sends them out! This is what {Isaiah meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, “It is a beautiful thing when people go and declare {to other people} the good news about good things!”

So this faith {is} by hearing, and this hearing through the word of Christ.	So then, {a person can only} trust {in Jesus} by hearing {about him}. And {a person can only} hear {about Jesus} through {hearing} the message {that is about} the Messiah.

What is heard which brings faith?

The word of Christ is heard, which brings faith.

Romans 10:18

ULT	UST
But I say, “Did they certainly not hear?” Yes, indeed. “Their sound went out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.”	However, this is what I say, “The Jews most definitely heard {the message}!” It is a fact. {As David wrote in the Scriptures,} “{The heavenly bodies are like witnesses and} everyone throughout the entire world could hear what they said.”

Did Israel hear the gospel?

Yes, Israel heard the gospel.

ULT	UST
But I say, “Did Israel certainly not know?” First Moses says, “I myself will provoke you to jealousy by a non-nation; by means of a senseless nation, I will provoke you to anger.”	This is also what I say, “{The people of} Israel most definitely understood {the message}!” {God} first said through Moses {in the Scriptures}, “I will {personally} make you envious and angry by {using} a nation that does not {belong to me} and does not {even} know {me}.”

How did God say he would provoke Israel to jealousy?

God said he would provoke Israel to jealousy by appearing a nation that had not known him.

ULT	UST
Now Isaiah is very bold, and he says, “I was found by the ones not seeking me; I appeared to the ones not asking for me.”	Moreover, {God} quite boldly declared through Isaiah {in the Scriptures}, “I revealed myself to those {non-Jewish people} who were not interested in knowing me and did not {even} ask about me.”

What did God find when he reached out to Israel?

When God reached out to Israel, he found a disobedient and resistant people.

I say then, God did not reject his people, did he? May it never be! In the same way, then, at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.	So, similarly, at this time some faithful Israelites also remain. {This is} because God has graciously chosen them {to remain}.

Does Paul say if there are any faithful Israelites remaining, and if so, how have they been preserved?

Paul says that there is a remnant remaining that has been preserved because of the choice of grace.

Romans 11:6

ULT	UST
But if by grace, {it is} no longer by works. Otherwise this grace becomes no longer grace.	Yet because {God chooses his people} based on how gracious he is, {God} does not {choose his people} based on what they do. {If God chose people based on what they do,} then how gracious he is would not {really} be gracious.

What then? Instead, those whom God {graciously} chose {from them} became righteous. But God made stubborn those people of Israel whom he did not {graciously} choose.*

Who among the Israelites obtained salvation, and what happened to the rest?

The chosen among the Israelites obtained salvation, and the rest were hardened.

What did the spirit of dullness given by God do to those who received it?

The spirit of dullness made their eyes unable to see and their ears unable to hear.

Rather, God saves non-Jewish people because the Jewish people disobeyed {him}. This happened in order for God to make the Jewish people envious {of non-Jewish people who know him}.*

What good has happened because of Israel’s refusal to receive the gospel?

Salvation has come to the Gentiles.

What effect will the salvation of the Gentiles have on the Israelites?

The salvation of the Gentiles will provoke the Israelites to jealousy.

God can graft back into the olive tree natural branches that do not continue in their unbelief.

ULT	UST
For since in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God was pleased to save the ones believing through the foolishness of the preaching.	Here is how {God has done this}. Just as God wisely chose, unbelievers did not get to know God by means of their wise thinking. So, God decided to rescue those who have faith {in the Messiah} by means of the foolish message that believers proclaim.

Why did it please God to save those who believe through the foolishness of preaching?

It pleased God to do this because the world in its wisdom did not know God.

For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God {is} stronger than men.	{This is} because what God does that seems foolish is wiser than {anything that} humans {do}, and what God does that seems weak is stronger than {anything that} humans {do}.

1 Corinthians 1:26

ULT	UST
For consider your calling, brothers, that not many {were} wise according to the flesh, not many {were} powerful, {and} not many {were} of noble birth.	For {proof that this is so,} think about the fact that God chose you {the way you are}, fellow believers. From a human perspective, most of you did not think wisely, do powerful deeds, {or} belong to important families.

How many who were wise by human standards or powerful or of noble birth did God call?

God did not call many who were like that.

1 Corinthians 1:27

ULT	UST
But God chose the foolish things of the world in order that he might shame the wise, and God chose the weak things of the world in order that he might shame the strong,	Rather, God decided to use what seems foolish to humans to humble those who think wisely. God decided to use what seems weak to humans to humble those people and things that act powerfully.

Why did God choose the foolish things of the world and what is weak in the world?

He did this to shame the wise and to shame what is strong.

1 Corinthians 1:28

ULT	UST
and God chose the base things and the despised things of the world, {and} the {things that} are not, in order that he might bring to nothing the {things that} are,	God decided to use what seems unimportant to people and what people look down on. {It is as if} these things do not {even} exist, {but God decided to use them} to make the things that everyone knows about insignificant.

What did God do so that no one would have reason to boast before him? (1:28-29)

God chose what is low and despised in the world and even things that are regarded as nothing.

By working through the Messiah, God has made us wise. He has declared us innocent, chosen us to be his own people, and delivered us {from evil powers}.*

Why were the believers in Christ Jesus?

They were in Christ Jesus because of what God did.

What did Christ Jesus become for us?

He became for us wisdom from God—our righteousness, holiness, and redemption.

1 Corinthians 1:31

If we are going to boast, in whom should we boast?

Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.

And I, brothers, having come to you, did not come with superiority of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery of God.	My fellow believers, I also {acted according to this pattern} when I visited you and told you about what God has now revealed to us. I did not speak in more powerful ways than others do. I did not argue in wiser ways than others do.

In what manner did Paul come to the Corinthians when he proclaimed the mystery of God?

Paul did not come with elegant speech or wisdom when he proclaimed the mystery of God.

1 Corinthians 2:2

Paul decided to know nothing except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

Instead, I proved that God's Spirit works powerfully {through me when I shared my message}.*

Why was Paul's word and his proclamation done with the demonstration of the Spirit and of power rather than with persuasive words of wisdom? (2:4-5)

This was so that their faith might not be in the wisdom of humans, but in the power of God.

1 Corinthians 2:5

God concealed these things {until now}, although he had already decided to do them before he created anything. {He has done all of this} so that he might honor us.*

What wisdom did Paul and those with him speak?

They spoke God's wisdom hidden in mystery–the hidden wisdom that God predestined before the ages for our glory.

1 Corinthians 2:8

which none of the rulers of this age understood, for if they had understood {it}, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.	The people who rule right now did not know about these wise things. {You can tell that} they did not know, because they killed our glorious Lord on the cross.

If the rulers of Paul's time had known God's wisdom, what would they not have done?

If those rulers had known God's wisdom, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

For God revealed them to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the deep things of God.	God has made these things known to us by the {power of God's} Spirit. {God works by the power of his Spirit} because God's Spirit explores all people and things. He even explores things about God that are very difficult to understand.

How did Paul and those with him know God's wisdom?

God revealed those things to them through the Spirit.

ULT	UST
For who among men knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man {that is} within him? So also, no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God.	{You can tell that God's Spirit explores everything about God,} because everyone knows that only each human being understands everything about himself or herself. In the same way, only God's Spirit understands everything about God.

Who knows the deep things of God?

Only the Spirit of God knows the deep things of God.

ULT	UST
But we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit from God, so that we might know the things freely given to us by God.	We did indeed receive the Spirit who comes from God. We did not receive a spirit that belongs to the current world. {We received God's Spirit} in order that we might understand everything that God has done for us.

What is one reason that Paul and those with him received the Spirit who is from God?

They received the Spirit who is from God so that they might know the things freely given to them by God.

ULT	UST
And we speak these things not in words taught by human wisdom but in those taught by the Spirit, combining spiritual things with spiritual words.	*These are the very things that we also talk about. But the natural person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he is not able to understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.	Now, people who do not have God's Spirit reject the things that God's Spirit gives and teaches. {They reject these things,} because they think that they are foolish. They cannot know about {the things that God's Spirit gives and teaches,} because only people who have God's Spirit can judge rightly about them.

Why cannot the unspiritual person receive or know the things that belong to the Spirit of God?

The unspiritual person cannot receive them because they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them because they are spiritually discerned.

1 Corinthians 2:15

ULT	UST

Whose mind did Paul say the ones who believed in Jesus have?

Paul said they have the mind of Christ.

Some of you are jealous of each other, and some of you are fighting with each other. When you do these things, it proves that you are people who think only in human ways and who act only in human ways.*

Why did Paul say the Corinthian believers were still fleshly?

Paul said they were still fleshly because jealousy and strife existed among them.

ULT	UST
For when one says, “I am of Paul,” and another, “I am of Apollos,” are you not men?	*Further, some of you are claiming that you belong to Paul’s group, for example, or that you belong to Apollos’s group. Who then is Apollos? And who is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to each one.	You need to realize that Apollos and I, Paul, are just people who serve {the Messiah}. Each of us does what the Lord has assigned us to do. When we told you about the Messiah, you trusted in him{, not in us}.

Who were Paul and Apollos to the Corinthians?

They were servants through whom the Corinthians came to believe in Christ.

ULT	UST
I planted, Apollos watered, but God caused {it} to grow.	{God assigned} me to proclaim the good news to you first. I was like someone who plants seeds. {God assigned} Apollos to proclaim even more about the good news to you. He was like someone who waters the seeds {so that they grow}. However, God himself enabled you to believe in and understand the good news. In the same way, he is the one who makes the plants grow.

So then, neither the one planting nor the one watering is anything, but God {is} the one causing the growth.	You can see that the person who first proclaims the good news to people is not important. Instead, it is God who is important, because he enables people to believe in and understand the good news. In the same way, he is important because he causes the plants to grow.

Who gives the growth?

God gives the growth.

1 Corinthians 3:8

ULT	UST
Now the one planting and the one watering are one, and each will receive his own wages according to his own labor.	In fact, the person who first proclaims the good news to people and the person who proclaims more about the good news to people have the same goal. They are like other builders who construct a house on top of that foundation. In the end, all the people who proclaim more about the good news should make sure that they proclaim it correctly. They should be like builders who construct a house the right way on top of a foundation.

for no one is able to lay a foundation other than the one being laid, that is, Jesus Christ.	No one can put a foundation in the ground if another person has already put it in the ground. So also, no one else can first proclaim the good news to you, because I already did that. What I proclaimed to you is {what} Jesus the Messiah {accomplished}. This message about Jesus is like the foundation of a house.

What will happen to the work of someone who builds on the foundation of Jesus Christ? (3:11-13)

His work will be revealed in daylight and in fire.

What is the foundation?

Jesus Christ is the foundation.

ULT	UST
Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw,	*Builders can use many different building materials when they construct a house on its foundation. They can use {more durable materials like} gold, silver, and jewels, {and less durable materials like} lumber, grass, and straw. the work of each one will become evident, for the day will display {it}; for it is revealed in fire, and the fire itself will test of what sort is the work of each one.	On the day when the Messiah returns to judge everyone, he will reveal what kind of work each person has done. The quality of the materials that builders use to construct a building becomes clear when the building catches on fire. In a similar way, a judgment like fire will occur on the day when the Messiah returns. This judgment will show the quality of what those who proclaim more about the gospel have taught.

What will the fire do to a person’s work?

The fire will test the work, revealing the quality of what each one has done.

ULT	UST
If anyone’s work that he built will remain, he will receive a reward;	Any builders who constructed a building that survives a fire gain honor and money. In the same way, God will honor and reward all those who teach more about the good news in a way that God accepts when he judges everyone.

What will a person receive if their work survives the fire?

That person will receive a reward.

ULT	UST
if anyone's work will be burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as though through fire.	Any builders who constructed a building that fire consumes lose respect and money. However, the builders do not die in the fire, but they escape from the flames. In the same way, when he judges everyone, God will not honor or reward all those who teach more about the good news in a way that God does not accept. However, God will still accept these teachers despite the wrong things that they have taught.

What will happen to the person whose work is burned up?

That person will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, as though escaping through fire.

1 Corinthians 3:16

Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and the Spirit of God lives in you?	You need to remember that you are like God's temple in Jerusalem {because God is present among you like he was present in the temple}. You need to remember that you are like a house in which God's Spirit lives {because he is always present with you}.

Who are we and what lives in us as believers in Jesus Christ?

We are God's temple, and the Spirit of God lives in us.

ULT	UST
If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy that {person}. For the temple of God is holy, which you are.	God will act against any person who acts against his temple. This is because God's temple belongs to him alone. {Since} you are like God's temple{, God will act against any person who acts against you}.

What will happen if anyone destroys God's temple?

God will destroy the person who destroys God's temple.

1 Corinthians 3:18

ULT	UST
Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a "fool," that he may become wise.	Do not believe what is not true about yourselves. You who consider yourselves to be wise according to human standards should become foolish {according to human standards}. In this way, you will {really} become wise people.

What does Paul say to him who thinks he is wise in this age?

Paul says, "…let him become a "fool," that he may become wise."

ULT	UST
For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their craftiness."	{I speak these words} because the things that humans consider to be wise are things that God considers to be foolish. {You know that this is true} because the author of the book of Job wrote, "God is the one who disrupts the clever schemes that wise people plan."

The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise are futile.

ULT	UST
So then, let no one boast in men. For all things are yours,	Therefore, none of you should boast about {how you follow other} humans. {I say this} because you have everything{, so boasting about following other humans is foolish}.

Why does Paul tell the Corinthian believers to stop boasting about people? (3:21-23)

He told them to stop boasting, “For all things are yours,” and because, “… you are Christ’s, and Christ is God’s”.

In this manner let a man regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.	I want people to think of us {who proclaim the good news} as those who serve the Messiah and who are in charge of proclaiming what God has now revealed to us.

How did Paul say the Corinthians should regard Paul and his companions?

The Corinthians should regard them as servants of Christ and stewards of the hidden truths of God.

ULT	UST
In this case, it is required in the stewards that one may be found faithful.	Whenever a leader puts another person in charge, the leader requires that person to do his or her tasks faithfully. {In the same way, God requires that we who proclaim the good news do our task faithfully.}

What is one of the requirements for a steward?

Stewards must be found faithful.

1 Corinthians 4:3

For I am aware of nothing against myself, but I am not justified by this; but the one judging me is the Lord.	In fact, I do not know about anything I have done wrong. However, what I know about myself does not prove that I have acted faithfully. Rather, it is the Lord who will decide {whether I have acted faithfully or not}.

Who does Paul say is his judge?

Paul says the Lord judges him.

1 Corinthians 4:5

ULT	UST
Therefore, do not judge anything before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the hearts. And then the praise from God will come to each one.	So then, you should not finally decide about anything until the Lord comes back {to judge everyone and everything}. He will make clear what is now hidden, and he will show everyone what each person desires and plans. At that time, God will praise each person {who has acted faithfully}.

What will the Lord do when he comes?

He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the hearts.

ULT	UST
Now, these things, brothers, I applied to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that through us you might learn this: "Not beyond what is written," so that no one would be puffed up in favor of the one against the other.	My fellow believers, I have talked in this way about myself and Apollos for your benefit. I want you to learn from our example that you should act only in ways that fit with what the authors of the Scriptures wrote. Then, nobody will speak great things about one leader and bad things about another leader.

Why did Paul apply these principles to himself and to Apollos?

Paul did it for the sake of the Corinthian believers so they might learn the meaning of the saying, "Not beyond what is written," so that none of them would think in favor of one against the other.

ULT	UST
For who makes you superior? And what do you have that you did not receive? And if indeed you received {it}, why do you boast as if you did not receive {it}?	Nobody has set you apart {from every other believer}. In fact, God has given to you every good thing that you have. Since these things are gifts from God, you should not say proudly that you yourself earned them.

Indeed, I wish that you really were ruling with him, in order that we {who proclaim the good news} could be ruling with you.*

Why does Paul wish the Corinthian believers did reign?

Paul wishes they did reign so that Paul and his companions could be reigning with them.

ULT	UST
For I think God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as sentenced to death. For we have become a spectacle to the world—both to angels and to men.	Rather {than thinking that we rule with Christ now}, I consider us apostles to be those whom God has appointed to suffer humiliation and to die. We {seem to} be people who do not have power or influence, but {you think that} you do have these things. {You think that} people praise you, but those people shame us.

What are three ways Paul contrasts himself and his companions with the Corinthian believers?

Paul says, "We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we are held in dishonor."

1 Corinthians 4:11

ULT	UST
Up to the present hour we are both hungry and thirsty and are poorly clothed and are brutally beaten and are homeless	*Even now {as I write this letter to you}, we {whom Christ has sent} have often not had enough food or drink. How did Paul describe the physical condition of the apostles?

Paul said they were hungry and thirsty, poorly clothed, brutally beaten and homeless.

How did Paul and his companions respond when they were mistreated? (4:12-13)

When they were attacked, they blessed. When they were persecuted, they endured it. When they were slandered, they spoke with kindness.

being slandered, we comfort. We have become as the scum of the world, the refuse of all things, even until now.	*When people say bad things about us, we say encouraging words to them. Why did Paul write these things to the Corinthian believers?

He wrote them to correct them as his beloved children.

ULT	UST
For if you would have myriads of guardians in Christ, yet {you would} not {have} many fathers; for I fathered you in Christ Jesus through the gospel.	When I first preached the good news to you, and God united you to Jesus the Messiah, I became your spiritual father. So, even if you had a million teachers who helped you to live in union with the Messiah, I would still be the only spiritual father you have.

1 Corinthians 4:16

ULT	UST
Therefore, I urge you, become imitators of me.	Because {I am your spiritual father}, I plead with you to imitate how I live.

Who does Paul tell the Corinthian believers to imitate?

Paul tells them to imitate himself.

ULT	UST
Because of this I sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways {that are} in Christ Jesus, just as I teach everywhere in every church.	Because {I want you to imitate me}, I had Timothy visit you. He is like my own child, and I love him. He faithfully {serves the Messiah} as one whom God has united to the Lord. He will teach you again about how I behave as one whom God has united to the Messiah Jesus. I instruct every church in every place {that I visit} to behave in these ways.

Of what was it that Paul sent Timothy to the Corinthian believers to remind them?

Paul sent Timothy to Corinth to remind the believers there of Paul's ways in Christ.

1 Corinthians 4:18

ULT	UST
Now some have been puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.	Some of you are saying great things about yourselves. These people act as if I were not about to visit you.

How were some of the Corinthian believers acting?

Some of them were arrogant, acting as though Paul was not coming to them.

ULT	UST
But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not merely the word of the ones having been puffed up, but their power.	However, I will visit you very soon, as long as the Lord wants {me to do so}. I already know what these people who say great things about themselves claim. {When I visit you}, I will learn whether they are actually powerful or not.

ULT	UST
For the kingdom of God {is} not in word but in power.	{I will do this} because God's kingdom functions by God working powerfully through people, not by people saying great things.

In what does the kingdom of God consist?

The kingdom of God consists in power.

ULT	UST
What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod or with love and a spirit of gentleness?	When you choose how you will respond to what I am saying, you are also choosing how I will act {when I visit}. When I visit you, I can either harshly discipline you {because you did not listen}, or I can act gently and lovingly {because you did listen}.

ULT	UST
It is actually reported {that there is} sexual immorality among you, and such immorality which {is} not even among the Gentiles—that someone has his father's wife.	I have learned that you are in fact allowing people from your group to have improper sex. Even those who do not worship God do not allow some of the things that you allow. {The worst thing that I have learned is} that a man from your group is having sex with his stepmother.

What report did Paul hear about the church at Corinth?

Paul heard that there was sexual immorality there. One of them was sleeping with his father's wife.

ULT	UST
And you are puffed up, and you did not mourn instead, so that the one having done this deed might be removed from among you.	{Despite this,} you still say great things about yourselves instead of lamenting {that sin}. {You should have lamented} with the goal of expelling the man who committed this sexual sin.

What did Paul say must be done to that person who sinned with his father's wife?

The one who sinned with his father's wife must be removed from among them.

ULT	UST
For even I, being absent in the body but being present in the spirit, have already passed judgment on the one having done such a thing, as if being present.	{You should expel him} because I have already declared the man who did this evil thing to be guilty. Although I am not with you physically, I think about you and care about you. {Therefore, when I declare this man to be guilty, it is as valid} as if I were with you.

ULT	UST
You and my spirit, having been assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, with the power of our Lord Jesus,	When you gather together, and I am thinking of you, we represent our Lord Jesus the Messiah. {When you gather in this way, you should punish this man} as our Lord Jesus authorizes you to do.

How and why was that person who sinned with his father's wife to be removed? (5:4-5)

When the church at Corinth gathered together in the name of the Lord Jesus, they were to hand the sinning man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit might be saved on the day of the Lord.

ULT	UST
hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.	You should expel this man so that Satan rules over him. That will destroy his sinful parts, and then God will save him when the Lord returns.

ULT	UST
Your boasting {is} not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole loaf?	Saying great things about yourselves is not the right thing to do. Surely you realize that one person doing evil things is like fermented dough. Even a little fermented dough makes a whole lump of dough fermented, and even one person doing evil things makes the whole church guilty.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
Clean out the old yeast so that you may be new dough, just as you are unleavened bread. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has also been sacrificed.	Just as Jews remove the yeast from their houses {during the Passover festival}, so you should remove anyone who does evil things from your group. Then, you will be free of sin, just like fresh, unleavened dough is free of yeast. In fact, you live in a time that is like the festival of Passover. {This is because} the Messiah has died for you, just like the lamb that Jews sacrifice during the Passover festival represents how God delivered them.

(There are no questions for this verse)

1 Corinthians 5:8

ULT	UST
So then, we should celebrate the festival, not with old yeast, nor with yeast of evil and wickedness, but with unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.	Since {the Messiah has died for us}, let us act as if we were participating in the festival of Passover and remove the old leaven. We should get rid of the leaven, which stands for doing what is evil and wicked. Instead, we should eat unfermented bread, which stands for doing what is honest and trustworthy.

To what does Paul compare bad behavior and wickedness?

Paul compares them to yeast.

What does Paul use as a metaphor for sincerity and truth?

Paul uses unleavened bread as a metaphor for sincerity and truth.

1 Corinthians 5:9

ULT	UST
I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—	In the letter {that I sent to you before this one}, I told you not to keep company with people who act in sexually improper ways.

With whom did Paul tell the Corinthian believers not to associate?

Paul wrote to them not to associate with sexually immoral people.

1 Corinthians 5:10

by no means the immoral people of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out from the world.	{I did} not {mean that you should} entirely {disassociate} with unbelieving people who act in sexually immoral ways, or with people who want more than they need or who cheat others, or with people who worship false gods. To avoid these kinds of people, you would need to get away from the entire world. {That is not what I have commanded you to do.}

Did Paul mean for them not to associate with any sexually immoral people?

Paul did not mean the immoral people of this world. You would have to go out of the world to stay away from them.

ULT	UST
But now I wrote to you not to associate with any so-called brother {who} is sexually immoral or greedy or an idolater or verbally abusive or a drunkard or a swindler. Do not even eat with such a person.	Now, in this letter, I am telling you not to keep company with any person whom you call a fellow believer who is acting sinfully. This includes having improper sex, wanting more than one needs, worshiping other gods, abusing others with words, getting drunk, and cheating others. Do not have meals with a person who does any of these things.

With whom did Paul mean for the Corinthian believers not to associate?

He meant for them not to associate with anyone who is called a brother or sister in Christ and who is sexually immoral, greedy, verbally abusive, a drunkard, a swindler, or an idolater.

1 Corinthians 5:12

ULT	UST
For what to me to judge the ones outside? Do you not judge the ones inside?	{I want you to act in this way only with fellow believers,} because {you and} I do not need to decide whether someone who is not part of our group is guilty or innocent. Rather, you need to focus on deciding whether people who are part of your group are guilty or innocent.

Who are the believers supposed to judge?

They are supposed to judge those inside the church.

ULT	UST
But God judgesthe ones outside. “Remove the evil from among yourselves.”	{Do not worry about people who are not part of your group because} God is the one who decides whether they are guilty or innocent. {You should focus on people who are part of your group because the scripture says,} “You must get rid of any evil person who is part of your group!”

Who judges those outside the church?

God judges those who are on the outside.

1 Corinthians 6

ULT	UST
Do any of you dare, having a dispute with another, to go to court before the unrighteous, and not before the saints?	When someone from your group quarrels with another person from your group, you should never settle the quarrel {in a public court} in front of people who do not believe. Rather, {you should settle the quarrel in private} among the people whom God has set apart for himself.

What does Paul say the saints at Corinth should be able to judge? (6:1-3)

Paul says they should be able to judge disputes between saints concerning the matters of this life.

ULT	UST
Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy of the smallest cases?	Surely you know that the people whom God has set apart for himself will decide whether all things and people that God has created are guilty or innocent. Since you will decide whether all these things and people are guilty or innocent, you can surely decide about small quarrels {within your group}.

Who will the saints judge? (6:2-3)

The saints will judge the world and the angels.

ULT	UST
Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more, matters of this life?	You need to realize that we will decide whether angels are innocent or guilty. {Since we will do that,} we are certainly able to decide about disputes related to our current lives.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
So then, if you have legal disputes about things of this life, why do you appoint as judges these ones of no account in the church?	Therefore, whenever you quarrel with one another concerning your current lives, you should not choose people who are not part of your group of believers to decide who is guilty or innocent.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
I speak to your shame. {Is it} thus that there is not any wise {man} among you who will be able to discern between his brothers?	I include what I have just said in order to make you feel ashamed. Surely there are people in your group who are wise enough to be able to decide about disputes among fellow believers.

(There are no questions for this verse)

1 Corinthians 6:6

ULT	UST
But brother goes to court against brother, and this before unbelievers?	But instead, some believers among you accuse other believers in a legal court, and people who do not believe settle the dispute.

How are the Corinthian Christians handling their disputes with one another?

One believer goes to court against another believer, and that case is placed before a judge who is an unbeliever.

ULT	UST
This, therefore, is indeed already a complete defeat for you, since you have lawsuits among yourselves. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated?	Because you have disputes with each other, you have already completely failed to follow Jesus. Rather {than failing in this way}, you should instead forgive fellow believers when they harm or defraud you.

What does the fact that there are disputes among the Corinthian Christians indicate?

It indicates that this is a defeat for them.

1 Corinthians 6:8

ULT	UST
But you do wrong and cheat, and this to your brothers!	Rather {than forgiving others}, however, you have harmed and defrauded {other people}. In fact, {you have done} these things to fellow believers!

ULT	UST
Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor practicing homosexuals	{I am shocked that you do these things} even though you realize that people who harm others will not participate in God's kingdom. Do not believe anyone who tells you something else. Anyone who has improper sex or who worships other gods or who has sex with a married person or who participates in sexual acts with a person of the same gender or who initiates sexual acts with a person of the same gender

Who will not inherit the kingdom of God? (6:9-10)

The unrighteous: the sexually immoral, idolaters, adulterers, male prostitutes, those who practice homosexuality, thieves, the greedy, drunkards, slanderers, and swindlers will not inherit the kingdom of God.

1 Corinthians 6:10

ULT	UST
nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God.	or who steals from others or who wants more than he or she needs or who gets drunk or who abuses others with words or who cheats others will not participate in God's kingdom.

ULT	UST
And that {is what} some of you were. But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.	Some of you used to behave in these ways. However, now God has cleansed you, he has made you holy, and he has declared you to be innocent. {You experience these things} because the Lord Jesus the Messiah and the Holy Spirit work powerfully {to give them to you}.

What happened to the Corinthian believers who previously practiced unrighteousness?

They were cleansed and made holy, made right with God in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

1 Corinthians 6:12

ULT	UST
“Everything is lawful for me,” but not everything is beneficial. “Everything is lawful for me,” but I will not be mastered by anything.	{Some of you say,} “I can do anything and not become guilty.” However, {I say that} some things are not helpful {to anybody}. {Again, some of you say,} “I can do anything and not become guilty.” However, {I say that} I will not serve anything that will make me its slave.

What does Paul say that he will not allow to master him?

Paul says he will not be mastered by anything.

ULT	UST
“Food {is} for the stomach, and the stomach for food,” but God will do away with both this and those. Now the body {is} not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord and the Lord for the body.	{Some of you say,} “Food exists for a person’s stomach to digest it, and a person’s stomach exists to digest food.” Indeed, {I also say that} God will make food and stomachs unimportant. {While it is true that food exists for a person’s stomach,} the human body does not exist for a person to have improper sex with it. Instead, {the human body} exists to serve the Lord, and the Lord has worked to save the human body.

ULT	UST
Now God indeed raised the Lord and will also raise up us by his power.	In fact, God made the Lord alive again, and he will work powerfully to make us also alive again.

ULT	UST
Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Therefore, having taken away the members of Christ, should I make {them} members of a prostitute? May it never be!	Surely you know that your bodies belong to the Messiah, just as if you were his body parts. Because of that, you should not take your body back and then give it to a prostitute, so that your body belongs to her, just as if you were her body parts. Never do that!

The bodies of believers are members of what?

Their bodies are members of Christ.

Should believers join themselves to prostitutes?

No. May it never be!

1 Corinthians 6:16

ULT	UST
Or do you not know that the one being joined to the prostitute is one body? For it says, "The two will become as one flesh."	Surely you know that a man who has sex with a prostitute unites himself to her as closely as if they shared the same body. {You should know this} because the scripture says, "The {man and the woman, although} two people, will become {like} one person."

What happens when someone joins himself to a prostitute?

The two will become as one flesh.

ULT	UST
But the one being joined to the Lord is one spirit.	In a similar way, any people who unite themselves to the Lord become spiritually one {with the Lord}.

What happens when someone joins himself to the Lord?

He becomes one spirit with him.

1 Corinthians 6:18

ULT	UST
Flee from sexual immorality! Every sin that a man might commit is outside the body, but the one being sexually immoral sins against his own body.	Intentionally avoid having improper sex. When people sin, they usually do so without directly hurting their bodies. However, when people have improper sex, they do hurt their own bodies.

Who do people sin against when they are sexually immoral?

They sin against their own bodies when they are sexually immoral.

ULT	UST
Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit in you, whom you have from God? And you are not your own,	Surely you know that God has given the Holy Spirit to you. Therefore, your bodies are like temples for the Holy Spirit, since he unites himself to you {like how a god unites himself to his temple}. Because of that, you do not belong to yourselves.

Why should believers glorify God with their bodies? (6:19-20)

They should glorify God with their bodies because their bodies are a temple of the Holy Spirit and because they were bought with a price.

ULT	UST
for you were bought with a price. Therefore, glorify God in your body.	{Rather, you belong to God, since the Messiah died for you. When he died for you,} it was as if God paid money to buy you. Because {you belong to God}, you must honor him whenever you do anything with your body.

But because of immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.	On the other hand, people often desire to have sex, even improper sex. Because of that, a husband should stay married to his own wife, and a wife should stay married to her own husband.

Why should each man have his own wife and each woman have her own husband?

Because of temptations for many immoral acts, each man should have his own wife and each wife should have her own husband.

ULT	UST
Let the husband give to the wife the duty and likewise the wife also to the husband.	Husbands should regularly have sex with their wives. Similarly, wives should regularly have sex with their husbands.

The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband {does}. And likewise, the husband also does not have authority over his own body, but the wife {does}.	Wives' bodies belong to their husbands, not to themselves. Similarly, husbands' bodies belong to their wives, not to themselves.

Does a wife or husband have authority over their own body?

No. A husband has authority over his wife's body, and likewise, the wife has authority over her husband's body.

ULT	UST
Do not deprive each other, except by mutual agreement for a season, so that you may devote {yourselves} to prayer, and then be together again, so that Satan might not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.	You should only stop having sex regularly when both of you agree to do so for a brief time. You should only do this when you want to focus on praying to God, and you should soon resume having sex regularly. If you do not do this quickly, Satan will use how you desire to have sex to entice you to do what is wrong.

When is it appropriate for a husband and a wife to deprive one another sexually?

It is appropriate if both husband and wife mutually agree and set a specific period of time, so that they may devote themselves to prayer.

1 Corinthians 7:6

ULT	UST
But I say this as a concession, not as a command.	I do not command you {to stop having sex regularly in order to focus on praying}. Rather, I am only allowing you {to do so}.

However, God gives each person his or her own way to live. Some {people live in} one way, while other people {live in} another way.*

Now to the unmarried and to the widows I say that {it is} good if they remain as I also am.	Here I am speaking to people who have not married and to women whose husbands have died. The best thing {for these people} is to stay {unmarried} like I do.

What does Paul say is good for the widows and people who are unmarried to do?

Paul says it is good for them to remain unmarried, as he is.

ULT	UST
But if they do not have self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to burn.	However, some people will struggle to control how they desire to have sex. These people should get married, because that is a better choice than constantly desiring to have sex.

In what situation should the unmarried and widows get married?

They should get married if they burn with passion and cannot exercise self-control.

1 Corinthians 7:10

ULT	UST
Now to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—a wife is not to be separated from her husband	Here I am speaking what the Lord himself said to people who have gotten married. I require the wives to stay with their husbands.

What command does the Lord give to those who are married? (7:10-11)

The wife should not separate from her husband. If she does separate from her husband, she should remain unmarried or be reconciled to him. Also, the husband should not divorce his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:11

ULT	UST
(but even if she might be separated, let her remain unmarried, or let her be reconciled to the husband), and a husband is not to divorce a wife.	Now whenever they do not stay with their husbands, they should not marry again, or they should go back to their husbands. Further, husbands should stay with their wives.

ULT	UST
But to the rest I say—I, not the Lord—if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she agrees to live with him, let him not divorce her.	Now to the rest {of you who have a spouse who is not a believer}, the Lord did not speak about this, so I am speaking what I myself command. Some fellow believers have unbelieving wives, and the wives may wish to stay with their believing husbands. In this situation, the husbands should stay with their wives.

Should a believing husband or wife divorce his or her unbelieving spouse? (7:12-13)

If the unbelieving husband or wife is content to live with their spouse, the believing spouse should not divorce the unbeliever.

1 Corinthians 7:13

ULT	UST
And if any woman has an unbelieving husband, and he agrees to live with her, let her not divorce the husband.	Similarly, some fellow believers have unbelieving husbands, and the husbands may wish to stay with their believing wives. In this situation, the wives should stay with their husbands.

ULT	UST
For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through the brother. Otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy.	{You should remain with an unbelieving husband or wife,} because God considers the unbelieving husband to be an acceptable spouse for the believing wife. Similarly, God considers the unbelieving wife to be an acceptable spouse for the believing husband. Because of this, God treats the children in this situation just like he treats the children of two believing parents. If what I have said were not true, God would treat the children in this situation just like he treats the children of two unbelieving parents.

ULT	UST
But if the unbeliever departs, let him go. In such cases, the brother or the sister is not bound, but God has called us to peace.	On the other hand, some unbelieving husbands or wives may want to leave their believing spouses. In this situation, the believing spouses should allow them to leave. The believing spouses do not have to stay with their unbelieving husbands or wives. {In any situation like this, remember that} God requires us to be peaceful people.

What should a believer do if their unbelieving partner departs?

The believer is to let the unbelieving partner go.

1 Corinthians 7:16

ULT	UST
For how do you know, woman, whether you will save the husband? Or how do you know, man, whether you will save the wife?	{You should allow an unbelieving spouse to leave} because each wife does not know whether she can help her husband to believe in Jesus. Each husband also does not know whether he can help his wife to believe in Jesus.

However, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each one, thus let him walk. And in this way I direct in all the churches.	In general, all people need to behave in ways that fit with what the Lord has appointed them to do and with how God requires them to act. I require people to follow this teaching in every group of believers {that I visit}.

What rule did Paul set in all the churches?

The rule was: Let each one live the life the Lord has assigned them, and to which God called them.

1 Corinthians 7:18

ULT	UST
Was anyone called, having been circumcised? Let him not be uncircumcised. Was anyone called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised.	There are some people whom others circumcised before they believed in Jesus. These people should not try to become uncircumcised again. There are other people whom others did not circumcise before they believed in Jesus. These people should not try to become circumcised.

What counsel did Paul give to the uncircumcised and to the circumcised?

Paul said the uncircumcised should not become circumcised and the circumcised should not try to remove the marks of their circumcision.

ULT	UST
Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but observance of the commandments of God.	Whether a person has had someone circumcise them or not does not matter {to us or to God}. On the other hand, doing what God requires of us {does matter to us and to God}.

Were you called {as} a slave? Let it not be a concern to you. But if indeed you are able to become free, then take advantage of {it}.	Some people were slaves when they believed in Jesus. These people should not worry about being slaves. On the other hand, they should make use of any chance they have to become free.

What did Paul say about slaves? (7:21-23)

If they were a slave when God called them, do not be concerned about it, but if they can become free, they should do so. Even if they were slaves, they are the Lord's freeman. They should not become the slaves of men.

1 Corinthians 7:22

ULT	UST
For the one having been called in the Lord {as} a slave is a freedman of the Lord. Likewise, the one having been called as a freeman is a slave of Christ.	*{Do not worry about your social position,} because the Lord considers all people who were slaves when they believed in him to be free people now. Why did Paul think it was good for a man who had never married to remain unmarried, as Paul was?

Paul thought that, because of the impending crisis, it was good for a man to remain unmarried.

1 Corinthians 7:27

ULT	UST
Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife.	Some people have gotten engaged. They should not separate. Other people have never gotten engaged. They should not try to become engaged.

What should believers do if they are bound to a woman by a vow of marriage?

They should not seek freedom from their vow to marry the woman.

1 Corinthians 7:28

ULT	UST
But if indeed you would marry, you have not sinned; and if the virgin would marry, she has not sinned. But the ones of such kind will have distress in the flesh, and I want to spare you {from this}.	However, a single man or woman who gets married does not sin. I only advise you against getting married because people who get married will experience troubles while they live.

Why does Paul say to those who are free from a wife and those who are unmarried, “Do not seek a wife”?

He said this because he wanted to spare them from the many kinds of trouble that those who marry will have while living.

1 Corinthians 7:29

ULT	UST
But this I say, brothers: The time is shortened, so that from now on, even the ones having wives should be as having none;	My fellow believers, what I am about to tell you {is important}. The end times are not far away. Therefore, until then, each man who has a wife should live like a man who does not have a wife.

and the ones using the world, as not using it; for the present form of this world is passing away.	Each person who utilizes worldly things should live like a person who does not utilize these things. {You should act in these ways} because God will soon abolish the worldly way of doing things.

Why should those who deal with the world act as though they had no dealings with it?

They should act that way because the system of this world is coming to an end.

1 Corinthians 7:32

ULT	UST
But I would like you to be free from concern. The unmarried {man} is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he might please the Lord.	I want you to care about few things. Single men care about what they can do to serve the Lord.

But the married {man} is concerned about the things of the world, how to please the wife, and he is divided. And the unmarried woman or the virgin	On the other hand, married men care about worldly things, particularly how they can serve their wives. Because of this, they care about two different things{: serving their wives and serving the Lord}. Single women and women who have never gotten married

Why is it hard for those Christians who are married to be undivided in their devotion to the Lord? (7:33-34)

It is hard because a believing husband or wife is concerned about the things of the world, how to please his wife or her husband.

is concerned about the things of the Lord, so that she might be holy both in the body and in the spirit. But the one having been married is concerned about the things of the world, how she might please the husband.	care about what they can do to serve the Lord. Their goal is to be completely holy. On the other hand, married women care about worldly things, particularly how they can serve their husbands.

Now I say this for your own benefit, not in order to put any constraint on you, but toward what {is} appropriate and devoted to the Lord without any distraction.	*I have said these things because I think they are helpful for you. But if anyone thinks he is acting improperly toward his virgin—if she is beyond the age of marriage and it must be so—he should do what he wants. He is not sinning; let them marry.	In some cases, an engaged man may consider that he might act in sexually improper ways with his fiancée. Further, his fiancée may be fully mature and ready to have sex. In these cases, here is what to do: the man should marry his fiancé. He does not sin {when he does this}, and the two of them should get married.

But he who stands firm in his heart, not under compulsion, but having authority over his own will, and he has decided this in his own heart—to keep his own virgin—he will do well.	In other cases, an engaged man may have made up his mind, and no person or thing has forced him {not to marry}. He can control what he desires, and he has decided for himself {not to marry}. In this case, he can rightly choose not to marry his fiancée.

So then, the one marrying his own virgin does well, and the one not marrying will do even better.	In the end, any man who gets married to his fiancée does a good thing. Further, any man who does not get married {to his fiancée} does a better thing.

Who does better than the one who marries his fiancée?

The one who chooses not to marry will do even better.

ULT	UST
A wife is bound for as long as her husband lives. But if the husband dies, she is free to marry whomever she wishes, but only in the Lord.	Wives must stay married to their husbands unless their husbands die. Then, they may marry any believing man whom they want to marry.

For how long is a woman bound to her husband?

She is bound to her husband for as long as he lives.

If a believing woman's husband dies, whom may she marry?

She may marry whomever she wishes, but only one who is in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:40

ULT	UST
Yet according to my judgment she would be happier if she would remain as she is. Now about the things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.	I am now moving on to speak about meat that someone has offered to another god. All of us {who believe} do know {what is true about other gods. However,} knowing {what is true often} makes people proud. It is loving others that really helps other believers.

What subject does Paul begin to address in this chapter?

Paul addresses the subject of food sacrificed to idols.

What results do knowledge and love cause?

Knowledge makes one proud, but love builds up.

So then, about the eating of the things sacrificed to idols: We know that an idol in the world {is} nothing and that {there is} no God except one.	Now {I will go back to speaking} about whether to eat meat that someone has offered to another god. We {who believe in God} understand that other gods do not really exist. In fact, {we understand} that the only god is the one God.

Is an idol equal to God?

No. An idol in this world is nothing, and there is no God but one.

1 Corinthians 8:5

ULT	UST
For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, just as there are many "gods" and many "lords,"	It is true that there are many things that are in heaven or on earth that people call "gods." In this way, many "gods" and "lords" exist.

yet for us {there is} one God the Father, from whom {are} all things and for whom we {are}, and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all {things are}, and through whom we {are}.	However, we {who believe} acknowledge one God, who is the Father. He created everything, and we exist to honor him. We also acknowledge one Lord, who is Jesus the Messiah. He created everything with the Father, and we exist by means of what he does {for us}.

Who is the one God?

There is only one God the Father. From him are all things, and we live for him.

Who is the one Lord?

There is one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all things exist, and through whom we exist.

1 Corinthians 8:7

ULT	UST
However, this knowledge {is} not in everyone. Instead, some, {being} in the custom of the idols until now, eat things as sacrificed to idols, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.	However, some people do not fully understand {what I have said}. They used to worship other gods in the past, and they incompletely understand what is right and wrong. When they eat meat that someone has offered to another god, they feel guilty.

What happens when some who practiced idol worship eat food as if it had been sacrificed to an idol?

Their conscience is corrupted because it is weak.

1 Corinthians 8:8

ULT	UST
But food will not bring us near to God; neither are we made to lack if we do not eat, nor do we abound if we eat.	Now food does not connect us with God. Those who do not eat {certain foods} do not miss out {on anything from God}. Also, those who do eat {certain foods} do not receive something extra {from God}.

Does the food we eat make us better or worse to God?

Food will not recommend us to God. We are not worse if we do not eat, nor better if we do eat it.

1 Corinthians 8:9

ULT	UST
But take care lest this authority of yours might become a stumbling block for the weak.	However, you need to be careful about how you live if you know {that food is not significant}. How you live should not cause someone who incompletely understands what is right and wrong to struggle {to follow Jesus}.

Of what should we be careful that our freedom does not become?

We should be careful that our freedom does not become a reason for someone who is weak in faith to stumble.

1 Corinthians 8:10

ULT	UST
For if someone might see the one having knowledge reclining to eat in an idol's temple, will his conscience, being weak, not be built up so as to eat the things sacrificed to idols?	{You need to be careful} because fellow believers might observe a believer who knows {what is true about other gods} sitting down to eat {meat} in another god's temple. Those fellow believers, who incompletely understand what is right and wrong, will become confident that they also can eat meat that someone has offered to another god.

1 Corinthians 8:11

ULT	UST
So the one being weak, the brother for whom Christ died, is destroyed through your knowledge.	As a result, by acting based on what you know {is true about other gods}, you harm others who incompletely understand what is right and wrong. These are fellow believers, and the Messiah died for them.

Who do we sin against when we knowingly cause a brother or sister in Christ to stumble because of their weak conscience? (8:11-12)

We sin against the brother or sister that we caused to stumble, and we sin against Christ.

What can happen to a brother or sister with a weak conscience if those with an understanding of the true nature of idols are not careful in using their freedom?

A brother or sister with a weak conscience can be destroyed.

1 Corinthians 8:12

ULT	UST
And thus sinning against your brothers and wounding their weak consciences, you sin against Christ.	When you act in these ways, you sin against fellow believers by leading them, who incompletely understand what is right and wrong, to do what they think is wrong. {When do you this,} you sin against the Messiah too.

1 Corinthians 8:13

ULT	UST
Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will certainly not ever eat meat, so that I might not cause my brother to stumble.	Consequently, in cases where what I eat would lead a fellow believer to sin, I will never ever eat meat again{, whether someone has offered it to another god or not}. This way, I do not lead any of my fellow believers to sin.

What does Paul say he will do if food causes his brother or sister to stumble?

Paul says if his food causes his brother or sister to stumble, he will never eat meat again.

Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord?	I am not bound {to eat only certain foods}. Our Lord Jesus sent me to represent him, and I have seen him {with my own eyes}. God has united us to the Lord, and I have worked hard for you because of that.

What proof did Paul offer that he was an apostle? (9:1-2)

Paul says that because the Corinthian believers were his workmanship in the Lord, they themselves were proof of Paul's apostleship in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 9:2

ULT	UST
If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you. For you are the proof of my apostleship in the Lord.	Other people may not think that the Messiah sent me to represent him, but you do know that. {You know that} because you proved that the Messiah sent me when God united you to the Lord.

Do we certainly not have a right to eat and to drink?	Barnabas and I certainly can require you to send us food and drink.

Paul said they had the right to eat and drink and the right to take along with them a wife who is a believer.

ULT	UST
Do we certainly not have a right to take along a believing wife, even as the rest of the apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?	We certainly can travel around with a wife who believes in the Messiah. No farmers plant vines and then do not eat what the vines produce. No shepherds take care of sheep and then do not drink the milk that they produce.

What examples did Paul give of those who receive benefits or pay from their work?

Paul mentions soldiers, one who plants a vineyard, and one who tends a flock as examples of those who receive benefits or pay from their work.

God is not primarily interested in oxen{, however}.*

What example from the law of Moses did Paul give to support the idea of receiving benefits or pay from one's work?

To support his argument, Paul quoted the command, "Do not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the grain."

1 Corinthians 9:10

Rather, we choose to go without things so that we will not keep the good news about the Messiah from spreading.*

Why did Paul and his companions not claim their right to material benefits from the Corinthians?

Paul and his companions did not claim this right so they would not cause any hindrance to the gospel of Christ.

The Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living from the gospel.

What did Paul say he could not boast about, and why could not he boast about it?

Paul said he could not boast about preaching the gospel, because he had to preach the gospel.

Why did Paul enslave himself to all people?

Paul enslaved himself to all people in order to gain more people to God.

Who did Paul become like in order to win Jews?

Paul became like a Jew in order to win Jews.

How did Paul say to run?

Paul said to run to win the prize.

The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing of the body of Christ?	When we drink the wine that we bless in the Lord's Supper, we together connect ourselves with the Messiah's blood. When we eat the bread, we together connect ourselves with the Messiah's body.

What is the cup of blessing the believers bless, and what is the bread they break?

The cup is a sharing in the blood of Christ. The bread is a sharing in the body of Christ.

1 Corinthians 10:17

ULT	UST
Because {there is} one bread, we the many {are} one body; for we all partake from the one bread.	We use one loaf of bread {in the Lord's Supper}, and we all together eat pieces of that one loaf. Because we do this, we join ourselves together like we all make up one body.

Look at Israel according to the flesh; are not the ones eating the sacrifices partakers of the altar?	*Take the people of Israel as an example. Rather, that what the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. But I do not want you to be partakers with the demons!	However, {you should know} that when those who do not worship God offer sacrifices, they are offering them to evil spiritual beings, not to God. I want you to avoid connecting yourselves with evil spiritual beings.

Since Paul did not want the Corinthian believers to be participants with demons, what does he tell them they cannot do? (10:20-21)

Paul tells them they cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons, and they cannot have fellowship at the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

To whom do the Gentile pagans offer their sacrifices?

They offer these things to demons and not to God.

ULT	UST
You are not able to drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You are not able to partake of the table of the Lord and of the table of demons.	*You cannot drink wine that belongs to the Lord and also wine that belongs to evil spiritual beings. What do we risk if we as believers of the Lord also participate with demons?

We risk provoking the Lord to jealousy.

1 Corinthians 10:23

When this happens, you can eat all the food that they serve you. You do not need to find out {where it came from} so that you know whether it is right or wrong {to eat it}.*

You should eat whatever is set before you without asking questions of conscience.

In this situation, you should not eat the food. {You should act in this way} to benefit the person who told you {about the food} and because of knowing what is right and wrong.*

If your unbelieving host tells you the food you are about to eat came from a pagan sacrifice, why should you not eat it? (10:28-29)

For the sake of the person who informed you and for the sake of the other person's conscience, you should not eat it.

1 Corinthians 10:29

Give no offense either to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God,	Do not behave in ways that discourage Jewish people, non-Jewish people, or fellow believers from trusting the Messiah.

Why should we give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God? (10:32-33)

We should give no offense to them so that they may be saved.

For what did Paul praise the Corinthian believers?

Paul praised them for remembering him in everything and for holding fast to the traditions just as he delivered them to the Corinthians.

ULT	UST
Now I want you to understand that Christ is the head of every man, and the man {is} the head of a woman, and God {is} the head of Christ.	I am telling you that each man comes from the Messiah. A wife comes from her husband. Finally, the Messiah comes from God.

Who is the head of Christ?

God is the head of Christ.

Who is the head of man?

Christ is the head of every man.

Who is the head of a woman?

A man is the head of a woman.

ULT	UST
Every man praying or prophesying, having something on his head, dishonors his head.	Men might cover their heads when they pray or proclaim what God says. Those who do this shame the person they come from: {the Messiah}.

What happens when a man prays with his head covered?

He dishonors his head if he prays with his head covered.

ULT	UST
But every woman praying or prophesying with her head uncovered dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as having been shaved.	Now women might bare their heads when they pray or proclaim what God says. Those who do this shame the people they come from: {their husbands}. {You can tell that this is true,} because a woman who bares her head is like a woman whose hair someone has shaved off.

What happens when a woman prays with her head uncovered?

Any woman who prays with her head uncovered dishonors her head.

ULT	UST
For if a woman does not cover her head, let her hair also be cut off. But if {it is} disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or to be shaved, let her cover her head.	In fact, someone should cut short the hair of any woman who bares her head. Since people shame a woman who has short hair, women should not bare their heads.

He should not have his head covered because his is the image and glory of God.

1 Corinthians 11:8

For whom was the woman created?

The woman was created for the man.

ULT	UST

Why are the woman and the man both dependent on each other? (11:11-12)

The woman comes from the man, and the man comes from the woman.

ULT	UST
For even as the woman {is} from the man, so also the man {is} through the woman, but all {things are} from God.	*In fact, while the woman {Eve} did come from the man {Adam}, men only exist because women give birth to them. Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man might have long hair, it is a disgrace for him,	You can learn from observing the way things are that it is dishonorable for men to have long hair.

What does Paul say that nature teaches us about long hair for men and women? (11:14-15)

Paul says that nature shows it is a disgrace for men to have long hair and a glory for a woman to have long hair.

ULT	UST
but if a woman might have long hair, it is glory for her? For the long hair has been given to her as a covering.	However, {you can also learn from observing the way things are} that it is honorable for women to have long hair. {This is} because God has given women their long hair, which functions to cover {their heads}.

Why must there be factions among the Corinthian Christians?

There must be factions among them so that those who are approved may be recognized among them.

1 Corinthians 11:20

What was happening when the Corinthian church came together to eat?

When they ate, each one ate his own food before the others had their meal. One was hungry, and another became drunk.

During that night, Jesus picked up a loaf of bread.*

What did the Lord say when he took the cup after the supper?

He said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

ULT	UST
For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he would come.	This means that, until the Lord comes back, whenever {you participate in the Lord's Supper by} eating this bread and drinking {wine from} this cup, you announce that the Lord has died.

What are you doing every time you eat this bread and drink this cup?

You are proclaiming the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:27

ULT	UST
Whoever, therefore, might eat the bread or might drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and of the blood of the Lord.	So then, some people, while participating in the Lord's Supper, might eat the bread or drink {wine from} the cup in a way that dishonors {the Messiah}. God will hold them responsible for {how they have acted against} the Lord's body and blood.

Why should a person not eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner?

Doing so makes you guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 11:28

ULT	UST
But let a man examine himself, and in this way let him eat from the bread, and let him drink from the cup.	To avoid that, believers should carefully consider how they are behaving. Then, they can eat the bread and drink {wine} from the cup.

How those people eat and drink {during the Lord's Supper} will result in God punishing them.*

What happens to the person who eats the bread or drinks the cup without discerning?

Doing so, that person eats and drinks judgment to himself.

On the contrary, the members of the body appearing to be weaker are much more essential;	Rather, what is true is that the body parts that we consider to be the delicate ones are actually necessary.

Can we do without the members of the body that appear to be less honorable?

No. The members of the body that appear to be less honorable are essential.

ULT	UST
and those of the body which we think to be less honorable, we bestow them greater honor; and our unpresentable members have more dignity;	Further, we more highly value the body parts that we think of as less valuable. We treat our indecent body parts more decently,

but our presentable members do not have need. But God has combined the body together, giving more honor to the one lacking {it}	but we do not treat our decent body parts in any special way. In the end, God is the one who put all the body parts together into one body, and he makes the less valuable parts more valuable.

What has God done for the members of the body, including those that are less honorable?

God has joined all the members together, and he gave more honor to those that lacked it.

ULT	UST
so that there may be no division within the body, but that the members should care for one another the same.	{God did this} in order that the body would not split up into different parts. Instead, the body parts work together and do not privilege one body part over other body parts.

Why did God give more honor to the members of the body that lacked it?

He did this so there may be no division within the body, but that the members should care for one another with the same affection.

1 Corinthians 12:26

ULT	UST

And God has indeed appointed some in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helps, administration, {and} various kinds of tongues.	In line with that, God has specially empowered the people who worship him. First, some people are those whom God has sent to represent the Messiah. Second, some people proclaim what God says. Third, some people teach other believers. Further, some people do powerful things. Others can heal others, help other believers, guide the group of believers, or speak unknown languages.

Who has God appointed in the church?

In the church God has appointed first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, those who do powerful deeds, gifts of healing, those who provide helps, administrators, and those who speak various kinds of tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:29

But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And now, I show you a more excellent way.	Now I want you to eagerly seek the most beneficial gifts. Next, I will tell you about the very best thing you can do.

He tells them to seek the greater gifts.

What does Paul say he will show the Corinthian Christians?

He says he will show them a more excellent way.

ULT	UST
If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but I do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.	Imagine that I could speak many human and angelic languages, but I did not love others. I would be {able to make much noise,} like a loud metal instrument{, but I would not be helping anyone}.

What would Paul become if he spoke with tongues of men and of angels but did not have love?

He would become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

ULT	UST
And if I have prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains, but I do not have love, I am nothing.	Again, imagine that I could proclaim what God says, that I could comprehend and know everything, and that I believed so much that I could make mountains change places. But imagine further that I did not love others. Because of that, nothing else matters.

What would Paul be if he had the gift of prophecy, understood all hidden truths and knowledge and had great faith, but did not have love?

Without love, he would be nothing.

ULT	UST
And if I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body, so that I might boast, but I do not have love, I gain nothing.	Yet again, imagine that I gifted everything I owned {to people who needed food}, and that I did not protect my own body, with the result that people would honor me. But imagine further that I did not love others. {Because I did not love others}, none of those things that I did help me at all.

How could Paul still gain nothing if he gave away all his possessions and handed over his body?

If he did not have love, he would gain nothing even though he did all these other things.

ULT	UST
Love is patient {and} is kind; love does not envy; love does not boast; it is not puffed up.	Those who love others wait patiently and act graciously. They do not wish that others would lose the good things that they have. They do not say great things about themselves or act like they are great.

What are some of the characteristics of love? (13:5-7)

Love is patient and kind; it does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It is not self serving, not easily angered, nor does it keep a count of wrongs. It does not rejoice in unrighteousness but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, has confidence concerning all things, and endures all things.

However, someday people will no longer proclaim what God says. Someday, people will stop speaking unknown languages. Someday, people will no longer know special things.*

What are some things that will pass away or cease? (13:8-10)

Prophecies, knowledge and that which is incomplete will pass away and tongues will cease.

What will never fail?

Love never fails.

We made decisions as children make decisions. But when we grew up, we stopped acting as children do.*

What did Paul say he did when he became an adult?

Paul said when he became an adult he put away childish things.

What three things will remain, and which of the three is the greatest?

Faith, hope, and love will remain. The greatest of these is love.

Pursue love, but be zealous for the spiritual gifts, but especially that you might prophesy.	You should seek to love others always. Also, you should eagerly seek that the Holy Spirit specially empowers you, particularly that you might be able to proclaim what God says.

For which spiritual gift did Paul say we should be especially zealous?

Paul said we should be especially zealous to prophesy.

ULT	UST
For the one speaking in a tongue does not speak to men, but to God; for no one understands, but he speaks mysteries in spirit.	{You should desire this} because people who talk in unknown languages are talking with God, not with other people. {This is} because no one knows what they are saying. Rather, they say secret things as the Holy Spirit empowers them.

To whom is one speaking when he speaks in a tongue?

He is speaking not to people but to God.

ULT	UST
But the one prophesying speaks to men for building up and encouragement and consolation.	On the other hand, those who proclaim what God says do talk to other people. They help other believers become stronger, urge other believers to act in proper ways, and comfort other believers.

Who does the one prophesying build up, and who does the one speaking in tongues build up? (14:3-4)

The one who prophesies builds up the people, but the one who speaks in tongues builds up himself.

ULT	UST
The one speaking in a tongue builds up himself, but the one prophesying builds up the church.	People who talk in unknown languages help themselves become stronger. On the other hand, people who proclaim what God says help the group of believers become stronger.

What I want even more, however, is that you might proclaim what God says. Proclaiming what God says is more important and helpful than talking in unknown languages. Even lifeless things giving sounds—whether flute or harp—if they would not give different sounds, how will the thing being played on the flute or the thing being played on the harp be known?	Even things that are not alive but that we use to make sounds {illustrate what I am saying}. {When someone plays} a flute or a harp, the instrument must make various distinct sounds. Otherwise, no one would understand what a person plays on the flute or the harp, {since all the sounds would be the same}.

To what does Paul compare speech which one can not understand? (14:7-9)

He compares it to instruments like the flute or harp if they do not make distinctive sounds, and also to a trumpet played with an uncertain sound.

1 Corinthians 14:8

ULT	UST
For indeed, if a trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle?	Further, suppose that a trumpet did not make clear sounds {when a person used it to warn others}. No one would know that they needed to get ready to fight the enemy.

What does Paul say the Corinthian believers should be zealous to do?

He says they should be zealous to abound in gifts for building up the church.

1 Corinthians 14:13

ULT	UST
So let the one speaking in a tongue pray that he might interpret.	Therefore, those who talk in unknown languages should ask God to enable them to explain {what they are saying}.

For what should the one who speaks in a tongue pray?

He should pray that he may interpret.

ULT	UST
If I would pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.	When I{, for example,} pray {to God} in an unknown language, only part of me is praying since I am not thinking about what I am saying.

What did Paul say his spirit and mind did when he prayed in a tongue?

Paul said if he prayed in a tongue, his spirit prayed, but his mind was unfruitful.

ULT	UST
What then is it? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing with my spirit, and I will also sing with my mind.	Therefore, here is what {you and I should do}. We should sing {to God} not only with just some parts of us but also by thinking about what we are singing.

How did Paul say he was going to pray and sing?

Paul said he was going to pray and sing not only with his spirit but also with his mind.

1 Corinthians 14:16

What did Paul say he had rather do than speak 10,000 words in a tongue?

Paul said he had rather speak five words with his understanding so that he might instruct others.

So then, the tongues are for a sign, not to the ones believing, but to the unbelievers; but prophecy {is} not to the unbelievers, but to the ones believing.	Therefore, talking in unknown languages signifies that God judges people who do not believe {in the Messiah}, not people who do believe {in the Messiah}. On the other hand, proclaiming what God says {signifies that God acts kindly toward} people who believe {in the Messiah}, not toward people who do not believe {in the Messiah}.

To whom are tongues and prophesying a sign?

Tongues are a sign to unbelievers, and prophesying is a sign for believers.

What is Paul’s instruction for those who speak in tongues when believers come together? (14:27-28)

1 Corinthians 15:8

ULT	UST
Now last of all, he was seen by me also, as if to a child born at the wrong time.	Finally, after he appeared to all of them, he appeared to me also. So, {because I became one whom Jesus sent to represent him after everyone else}, I am like a baby that was born in an unusual way.

ULT	UST
For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.	In fact, I am less significant and honorable than every other person whom the Messiah sent to represent him. Indeed, since I tried to destroy those who believe in the Messiah, I do not deserve it when others call me one whom the Messiah sent to represent him.

Why did Paul say he was the least of the apostles?

He said this because he persecuted the church of God.

1 Corinthians 15:10

ULT	UST
But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace that {was} in me was not in vain. Instead, I labored harder than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God with me.	However, God graciously made me one whom the Messiah sent to represent him. Further, what he has given me has resulted in great things. In fact, I worked harder than all the other {ones whom the Messiah sent to represent him}. Of course, it was not really I {who worked so hard}. Instead, it was God graciously working through me {who did so much}.

ULT	UST
Now if Christ is proclaimed, that he was raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?	Because all believers say that God made the Messiah alive again, no one in your group should be claiming that people who have died will not live again.

What did Paul imply that some of the Corinthians believers were saying about resurrection?

He implied that some of them were saying there was no resurrection from the dead.

ULT	UST
But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Christ has been raised;	Suppose {that it were true} that people who have died will not live again. {In that case,} God did not make the Messiah alive again.

If there is no resurrection from the dead, what does Paul say must also be true? (15:13-14)

Paul says that if there is no resurrection, then even Christ has not been raised from the dead, and the preaching of Paul and others like him is in vain, and the faith of the Corinthians is also in vain.

1 Corinthians 15:14

but if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching {is} in vain, and your faith {is} in vain.	Suppose {that it is true} that God did not make the Messiah alive again. In that case, it was for no reason that we proclaimed {the good news} and you believed it.

But also, we are found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified concerning God that he raised Christ, whom he has not raised, if then the dead are not raised.	Further, we would be people who tell lies about God, because we declared before God that he made the Messiah alive again when he really did not. This would all be true were God not to make those who have died alive again.

1 Corinthians 15:18

ULT	UST
Then also the ones having fallen asleep in Christ perished.	In that case again, the believers who have died will never live again.

If Christ has not been raised, what happened to those who have died in Christ?

They have perished.

ULT	UST
If only in this life we have hope in Christ, of all people we are most pitiful.	Suppose that we can confidently expect the Messiah {to help us} only before we die. {In that case,} all people should feel sorry for us more than {they feel sorry} for anyone else.

What does Paul say is true if only in this life we have confidence for the future in Christ?

If this is so, Paul says that of all people, we are most to be pitied.

ULT	UST
But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of the ones having fallen asleep.	But here is what is true: God has made the Messiah alive again, and he is the first of those who have died {whom God will make alive again}.

What does Paul call Christ?

He calls Christ “the first fruits of those who have died.”

1 Corinthians 15:21

ULT	UST
For since death {is} by a man, by a man also resurrection of the dead.	{You can tell that this is true,} because people die through what the one man {Adam} did. So also people who have died will live again through what the one man {Jesus} did.

1 Corinthians 15:22

ULT	UST
For even as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.	What I mean is that, just as all people end up dying because God united them to Adam, in the same way all {believers} will live again because God unites them to the Messiah.

When will those who belong to Christ be made alive? (15:22-23)

This will happen when Christ comes.

Who was the man by whom death came into the world, and who was the man by whom all will be made alive?

Adam brought death into the world, and by Christ all will be made alive.

ULT	UST
But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; then at his coming, the ones of Christ.	Now, all people {who will live again} do so in turn: first the Messiah and then those who belong to the Messiah when he comes {back again}.

1 Corinthians 15:24

ULT	UST
Then {will be} the end, when he hands over the kingdom to the God and Father, when he has abolished all rule and all authority and power.	After that, what everything that God has created is waiting for {will happen}. At that time, the Messiah will get rid of everyone and everything that rules and governs and controls. Then, he will present God, {who is our} Father, with the kingdom {so that God rules over everything}.

What will happen at the end?

Christ will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, when he has abolished all rule and authority and power.

1 Corinthians 15:25

ULT	UST
For he must reign until he has put all the enemies under his feet.	Here is how {that works}: God has decided that the Messiah will rule until whenever he has conquered all those who oppose him.

How long must Christ reign?

He must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

1 Corinthians 15:26

ULT	UST
The last enemy to be abolished: death.	The last thing that opposes Christ that he will get rid of is that people die.

What is the last enemy to be destroyed?

Death is the last enemy to be destroyed.

1 Corinthians 15:27

ULT	UST
For “he has put everything under his feet.” But when it says, “he has put everything,” {it is} clear that the one having put everything in subjection to him {is} excepted.	Now, {David wrote,} “he made him conquer everything that opposes him.” Of course, “everything” does not include God, who is the one who “made him conquer everything.”

Who is not included when it says, “he has put everything under his feet”?

God, the one who put everything in subjection to the Son (himself) is not included as being in subjection (to the Son).

1 Corinthians 15:28

ULT	UST
Now when all the things have been subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one having subjected all the things to him, so that God might be all in all.	So, after he has conquered everything, then God the Son will submit to the one who made him conquer everything. In this way, God will conquer and rule all things.

What will the Son do so that God the Father may be all in all?

The Son himself will be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him.

1 Corinthians 15:29

ULT	UST
Otherwise, what will the ones being baptized for the dead do? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them?	Now, consider people who baptize others to help those who are dead. Further, suppose again that God never makes people who have died alive again. {In that case,} there is no reason for people to baptize others to help those who have died.

ULT	UST
What {is} the profit to me, according to men, if I fought wild beasts at Ephesus? If the dead are not raised, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."	Suppose that I was thinking about merely human things while I struggled against those who opposed me when I visited the city of Ephesus. {In that case, struggling against them} does not benefit me at all. Suppose again that God does not make people who have died alive again. {In that case,} we should {do what many people say to do}: eat {food}, and drink {wine}, because we will die very soon.

What did Paul declare they might as well do if the dead are not raised?

Paul declared, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."

1 Corinthians 15:33

Be sober, as is right! And do not keep sinning. For some have no knowledge of God—I say this to your shame.	I want you to start acting alertly and properly. You should not keep doing what is wrong. {I command these things} because some people in your group do not know God. I say that in order to make you feel ashamed

What does Paul command the Corinthians to do?

He commands them be sober, live righteously, and to not keep sinning.

What does Paul say to the shame of the Corinthians?

He said some of them have no knowledge of God.

1 Corinthians 15:35

ULT	UST
But someone will say, “How are the dead raised, and with what kind of body do they come?”	Now a person may ask about the way in which the people who have died live again and about what form they will take.

To what does Paul compare the resurrection of the dead? (15:35-38)

He compares it to a seed that is sown.

ULT	UST
You foolish one! What you sow is not caused to live unless it dies.	{If you do not know the answers to those questions,} you are not thinking clearly! {Just think about this:} a seed that you put in the ground must die before it can grow.

What must happen to a seed before it starts to grow?

It must die.

1 Corinthians 15:37

ULT	UST
And what you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a bare seed—perhaps wheat or something else.	{Speaking about} a seed that you put in the ground, {you know that} it is not in the form of the plant. Rather, it is just the seed. This is true whether {we are speaking about} wheat or some other crop.

Does the bare seed that is sown resemble the body (plant) that comes from the seed?

No, what you sow does not resemble the body that will be.

ULT	UST
But God gives it a body just as he desires, and to each of the seeds, its own body.	Indeed, God makes seeds grow into the forms that he chooses, and each kind of seed has a specific form {into which it grows}.

Not all flesh {is} the same flesh. Instead, {there is} one {flesh} of men, and another flesh of animals, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish.	The physical parts of different living beings vary. For example, humans, mammals, birds, and fish all have different kinds of physical parts.

Is all flesh the same?

No. Not all flesh is the same, The flesh of human beings, animals, birds and fish are all different from one another.

1 Corinthians 15:40

ULT	UST
{There are} also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the glory of the heavenly {is} one, and that of the earthly {is} another.	Some things exist in heaven, and other things exist on earth. The forms of things in heaven are glorious in one way, while the forms of things on earth are glorious in another way.

Are there other types of bodies?

There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies.

ULT	UST
{There is} one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars. For star differs from star in glory.	{Further,} the sun, moon, and stars are glorious in different ways. In fact, each star is glorious in its own specific way.

Do the sun, moon, and stars all share the same glory?

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon and another glory of the stars, and one star differs from another star in glory.

1 Corinthians 15:42

ULT	UST
So also {is} the resurrection of the dead. {What} is sown in decay is raised in immortality.	Here is the way {all that applies to how} people who have died live again. People put a decaying body into the ground, but God makes it alive again so that it can never die.

How are our perishable bodies sown? (15:42-44)

They are sown in decay, in dishonor, and weakness.

What is our condition when we are raised from the dead? (15:42-44)

What is raised is an imperishable spiritual body; it is raised in glory and power.

ULT	UST
It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power.	People put a body that receives no respect into the ground, but God makes it alive again so that everyone respects it. People put a frail body into the ground, but God makes it alive again so that it is strong.

1 Corinthians 15:44

It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. Just as some bodies belong to this world, so some bodies belong to the world that God will renew.*

So also it is written, “The first man Adam became a living soul.” The last Adam {is} a life-giving spirit.	{You can tell that this is true} because Moses wrote, “God made the first human, Adam, as a living being who belonged to this world.” {On the other hand, Jesus, who is like} another Adam, now belongs to the world that God will renew and gives life to others.

What did the first man Adam become?

He became a living soul.

What did the last Adam become?

He became a life-giving spirit.

ULT	UST
But the spiritual {is} not first, but the natural, then the spiritual.	Now {the first Adam’s} body that belongs to this world existed first, and only after that does {the last Adam’s body} exist that belongs to the world that God will renew.

From where did the first man and the second man come?

The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:48

And just as we have borne the image of the earthly, let us also bearthe image of the heavenly.	Our bodies currently are like {Adam's body} that belongs to this world. In the same way, we should live in such a way that our bodies will eventually be like {Jesus' body,} which belongs to the world that God will renew.

Whose image have we borne and whose image will we bear?

Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:50

ULT	UST
Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood are not able to inherit the kingdom of God. Neither does the perishable inherit the imperishable.	Listen to this, my fellow believers: human bodies as they currently exist cannot participate in God's kingdom that lasts forever, since they fall apart and die.

What cannot inherit the kingdom of God?

Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God.

ULT	UST
Behold! I tell you a mystery: We will not all fall asleep, but we will all be changed—	Pay attention! I am going to tell you something that God has now revealed. Not all of us will die, but God will transform all of us.

What will happen to all of us?

We will all be changed.

1 Corinthians 15:52

ULT	UST
in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For a trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.	{He will transform us} in one moment, as fast as a person blinks an eye. {This will happen} when {an angel blows} the trumpet that signals that this world is ending. When {an angel} blows that trumpet, God will make those who have died live again so that they can never die, and he will transform everyone who still lives.

When and how fast will we be changed?

When the last trumpet sounds, we will be change in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye.

1 Corinthians 15:53

But the sting of death {is} sin, and the power of sin {is} the law.	People die because sin causes them to die, and that happens because the law specifies dying as the penalty for sin.

What is the sting of death and what is the power of sin?

The sting of death is sin and the power of sin is the law.

ULT	UST
But thanks {be} to God, the one giving us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!	However, I praise God because he has enabled us to conquer {how we sin and die}. {He has done this} by means of what our Lord, Jesus the Messiah, has done.

Therefore, my beloved brothers, become steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.	So then, fellow believers whom I love, firmly believe {what you know is true}. Consistently serve the Lord more and more. {You should do these things} because you know that what you do {to serve the Lord} will result in great things, since God has united you to the Lord.

What reason does Paul give for telling the Corinthian brothers and sisters to be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord?

He tells them to do this because they know that their work in the Lord is not in vain.

That way, I will not need to collect money when I visit you.*

the one comforting us in all our affliction so that we are able to comfort the ones in every affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.	God comforts us whenever we suffer. He does that so that we can comfort others who are suffering in any way. God enables us to comfort them in the very same way as he comforts us.

He comforts us so that we are able to comfort those who are in affliction, with the same comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

ULT	UST
For just as the sufferings of Christ abound toward us, in the same way also our comfort abounds through Christ.	You see, the Messiah suffered a lot for us, and now we continue to suffer as the Messiah did because we belong to him. But now the Messiah also comforts us in the same abundant amount.

ULT	UST
But if we are afflicted, {it is} for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, {it is} for your comfort {which} you are experiencing in endurance of the same sufferings that we ourselves also suffer.	So whenever people cause us to suffer, it is so that God may comfort you and protect you spiritually. Whenever God comforts us, it is so that he may also comfort you. God does this as you patiently endure when people cause you to suffer just as people cause us to suffer.

ULT	UST
For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning the tribulation having happened to us in Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond our ability, so that we despaired even of life.	For example, fellow believers, we want you to know about the bad things that happened to us in the province of Asia. They were so difficult that we felt that we could not endure them. We felt certain that we were going to die.

ULT	UST
Indeed, we ourselves have had within ourselves the sentence of death so that we would not be having become confident in ourselves, but in God, the one raising the dead,	We felt like a person feels when he has heard a judge say, "I condemn you to die." But God allowed us to feel that way so that we would learn to not rely on ourselves but, instead, to rely on God. He causes people who have died to live again.

The sentence of death caused them to not put their trust in themselves, but instead to trust in God.

ULT	UST
who rescued us from so great a death, and he will rescue {us}—on whom we have set our hope that he will rescue {us} yet again,	*Even though it seemed to us that we would certainly die, God rescued us from the people who wanted to kill us, and he will continue to rescue us {from similar people}. For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that we conducted ourselves in the world in holinessand sincerity of God, and not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God, and more abundantly toward you.	We are proud that we can honestly say that we have behaved toward all people in a holy and sincere way, as God has enabled us to do. We do not behave in the way that unbelievers think is wise. Instead, God graciously guides us, especially {as we interact} with you.

Of what did Paul say that he and his companions were proud?

ULT	UST
For we write no other {things} to you but than what you read or also understand, but I hope that you will understand to the end—	*To see this, look at my letters. just as you also understood us in part—so that we are your boasting, just as you also {are} ours, on the day of our Lord Jesus.	just as you partially understand us {already}. Then when our Lord Jesus returns, you will be just as proud of us as we will be proud of you.

ULT	UST
And with this confidence, I was intending to come to you before so that you might have a second grace,	Because I was confident that you were proud of me, I planned to visit you once on my way to the province of Macedonia, and then to visit you again as I returned from there. In that way, you would benefit twice from having me with you. Also, you could help supply what I would need to go from your city to the province of Judea. (vv15-16)

Therefore, intending this, I did not then act in fickleness, did I? That does not mean that I changed my plan lightly. I do not make or change my plans according to what I might desire at the time. I do not say, "Yes, I will do that" and then quickly say, "No, I will not do it."*

ULT	UST
For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, the one having been proclaimed among you by us—by me and Silvanus and Timothy—was not "Yes" and "No," but it has been "Yes" in him.	I and Silvanus and Timothy taught you about the Son of God, Jesus the Messiah. {You know that} he would never say, "Yes" if what he meant was, "No." Because of who he is, our message about him has also remained consistent and dependable.

2 Corinthians 1:20

ULT	UST
For as many as {are} the promises of God, {they are} "Yes" in him. Therefore, also through him the "Amen" {is} through us to God for his glory.	Because of Jesus, we can rely on all of the promises of God. Jesus fulfills them all. Therefore, Jesus is also the one who enables us to say, "Yes, it is true" when we praise God.

He gave the Spirit as a down payment or guarantee of what he would later give us.

ULT	UST
Now I invoke God as a witness upon my soul that sparing you, I have not yet come to Corinth.	So now I will tell you why I changed my mind and did not visit you again as I intended to do. May God strike me dead if I am lying, but he knows that what I am telling you is true. The reason that I did not return to Corinth was so that I might not grieve you by having to speak to you severely about the wrong things that you have done.

Why did Paul not come to Corinth?

He did not come to Corinth so that he might spare them.

ULT	UST
Not that we lord it over your faith, but we are fellow workers for your joy, for you stand firm in the faith.	When I say that, I do not mean that we are your masters who give you orders about what to believe and do. Instead, everything that we tell you {about living for God} is so that you will be joyful. We do not need to command you, because God himself tells you what to believe and do.

What did Paul say he and Timothy were and were not doing with the Corinthian church?

Paul said they were not trying to control what their faith should be, but they were working with the Corinthian church for their joy.

2 Corinthians 2

2 Corinthians 2:1

ULT	UST
For I decided this for myself, not to come to you again in sorrow.	{I have not visited you} because I have chosen to avoid visiting you if it hurts you and me like it did last time {I visited you}.

Paul was avoiding coming to the Corinthian church in sorrow.

2 Corinthians 2:2

ULT	UST
For if I myself grieve you, then who {is} the one cheering me up except the one being grieved by me?	{I chose not to visit you again} because, when I hurt you, I have hurt the only people who can make me glad.

(There are no questions for this verse)

2 Corinthians 2:3

ULT	UST
And I wrote this same thing so that, having come, I might not have sorrow from {those in} whom it is necessary for me to rejoice, having become confident in all of you that my joy is {the joy} of all of you.	I already wrote {in my previous letter} what I am now saying {to you}. {I wrote those things} so that, when I next visited you, you would not hurt me, and I would be glad about you as I should. {I wrote those things because} I was sure about all of you that you would be glad when I was glad.

Why did Paul write as he did in his previous epistle to the Corinthian church?

He wrote as he did so that when he came to them he might not be hurt by those who should have made him rejoice.

ULT	UST
For I wrote to you out of much tribulation and anguish of heart, through many tears, not so that you would be grieved, but so that you might know the love that I have more abundantly for you.	I suffered greatly and hurt inside when I wrote {that previous letter} to you. In fact, I wept {while I wrote it}. {I sent it to you} so that you would realize how much I care for you. I did not intend to hurt you.

Why did Paul write this letter to the Corinthian church?

He wrote to them so that they would know the depth of the love that he had for them.

ULT	UST
But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved {only} me, but in part—in order that I might not burden all of you.	However, the person who has hurt others did not really hurt me. Rather, that person hurt some {of you}. {I use the word "some"} so that I do not include all of you {as those whom that person hurt}.

2 Corinthians 2:6

ULT	UST
This punishment on such a {person} by the majority {is} sufficient,	Most of you together have disciplined that person. {You do not need to do} anything more.

What did Paul say the Corinthian saints should now do for the one they punished? (2:6-7)

Paul said they should forgive and comfort that person.

ULT	UST
so that, on the contrary, you should rather forgive and comfort {him} {so that} such a {person} might not be overwhelmed in his excessive sorrow.	So then, instead {of disciplining that person}, you should now forgive and encourage that person. Otherwise, the person will become very sad and give up.

Why did Paul say the Corinthian saints should forgive and comfort the one they had punished?

This was so that the one they had punished would not be overwhelmed by too much sorrow.

2 Corinthians 2:8

ULT	UST
So I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.	Therefore, I encourage you to show publicly that you care for that person.

ULT	UST
Indeed, I also wrote for this reason: so that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in all things.	Another reason for which I wrote {that previous letter} was in order that I could find out for sure if you would do everything that I asked {you to do}.

What is another reason Paul wrote to the Corinthian church?

Paul wrote to them to test them and to find out whether they were obedient in everything.

ULT	UST
Now to whomever you forgive anything, I also {forgive}—for indeed, the one I have forgiven (if I have forgiven anything) {is} for your sake in the presence of Christ	In the end, when you forgive any person for anything, I too forgive that person. In fact, I have forgiven {that person} for what {that person did}, even though it was basically nothing. {I did that} to help you, as the Messiah desires.

so that we would not be taken advantage of by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his schemes.	{We should forgive others} so that Satan will not control us. Indeed, we know all about his plans {to control us}.

Why was it important for the Corinthian church to know that whoever they had forgiven was also forgiven by Paul and in the presence of Christ?

This was so that Satan would not trick them.

2 Corinthians 2:12

ULT	UST
Now having come to Troas and a door for the gospel of Christ having been opened to me in the Lord,	{To return to how I traveled,} when I arrived in the city of Troas, the Lord Jesus made it possible for me to proclaim the good news about the Messiah effectively.

2 Corinthians 2:13

ULT	UST
I had no relief in my spirit, as I did not find my brother Titus there. So having said farewell to them, I went on to Macedonia.	However, since my fellow believer Titus was not {in the city of Troas}, I continued to be anxious about {what happened when he visited you}. Therefore, I said goodbye to the believers there and left to travel to the region of Macedonia.

Why did Paul have no peace of mind when he went to the city of Troas?

He had no peace of mind because he could not find his brother Titus in Troas.

ULT	UST
But thanks {be} to God, always leading us in triumphal procession in Christ and making known through us the aroma of the knowledge of him in every place.	Now we praise God! {He is the one} who, because he has united us to the Messiah, continually includes us as he conquers {his enemies}. Further, he uses us to reveal to people in many places what God is like.

What did God do through Paul and his companions? (2:14-15)

Through Paul and his companions God spread the sweet aroma of the knowledge of Christ everywhere.

ULT	UST
For we are a fragrance of Christ to God among the ones being saved and among the ones perishing—	In fact, we are like a pleasant smell that comes from Christ and that pleases God. {We are like this smell} when we are with people whom God is rescuing and when we are with people who are passing away.

2 Corinthians 2:16

to the ones, indeed, an aroma from death to death, but to the {others}, an aroma from life to life. And for these things, who {is} sufficient?	Those {who are passing away think that we are like} a smell that comes from a dead body and that causes people to die. On the other hand, those {whom God is rescuing think that we are like} a smell that comes from a living thing and that causes people to live. No one can perfectly {proclaim the good news in that way}!

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
For we are not like the many peddling the word of God; but as from sincerity, but as from God, we speak in the presence of God in Christ.	{You can tell that we do not do so perfectly} because we do not sell the message that God has given us for money, like many other people do. Rather, we only want to serve God, not to gain something. Indeed, {we proclaim the good news} because that is what God sent us {to do}. So, as those whom God has united to the Messiah, we proclaim {the good news} to please God{, not people}.

How did Paul say that he and his companions were different from many people who sold the word of God for profit?

Paul and his companions were different in that they spoke with purity of motives, as sent from God, speaking in Christ in the presence of God.

2 Corinthians 3

2 Corinthians 3:1

ULT	UST
Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or we do not need, like some, letters of recommendation to you or from you, do we?	We are not going to prove to you a second time that we are trustworthy. As you know, you do not need to write or receive a note that proves that we are trustworthy, even though {you might need to do those things} for other people.

(There are no questions for this verse)

2 Corinthians 3:2

ULT	UST
You yourselves are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men,	It is you all who function like a note {that proves that we are trustworthy}. When we care for each other, all people realize that we are trustworthy, just as if they read {a note from you}.

What letter of recommendation did Paul and his companions have?

The saints at Corinth were their letter of recommendation, known and read by all people.

ULT	UST
making known that you are a letter of Christ having been administered by us, not written with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of hearts of flesh.	Everyone knows that you are like a note that the Messiah wrote and that we delivered. {The Messiah} did not write {this note} on stone slabs using dye. Rather, {it is as if he wrote it} inside you by working through the Holy Spirit, {who is} the only real God.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
Now we have such confidence through Christ toward God.	I say those things because we are sure about {what} God {thinks of us}. {We are sure} because the Messiah makes {us sure}.

What was the confidence that Paul and his companions had in God through Christ? (3:4-5)

Their confidence was not in their own competence, but in the adequacy that God provided them.

ULT	UST
Not that we are sufficient from ourselves to consider anything as from ourselves. Instead, our sufficiency {is} from God,	Of course, we cannot {proclaim the good news} well on our own, and we do not think that anything we do well is because of us. Rather, God enables us {to proclaim the good news} well.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
who indeed made us competent {as} servants of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit makes alive.	He has also enabled us to act on behalf of the new agreement. The Holy Spirit gives {this new agreement}, so it is not just words that someone wrote down. {This is important} because {people who rely on} the Holy Spirit will live, but {people who rely on} words that someone wrote down will die.

What was the basis of the new covenant of which God had qualified Paul and his companions to be servants?

The new covenant was based on the Spirit, who gives life, not the letter, which kills.

ULT	UST
Now if the ministry of this death—engraved in letters on stones—came in glory, so that the sons of Israel were not able to look intently at the face of Moses because of the fading glory of his face,	Further, when Moses acted on behalf of {the old agreement that condemned people} to die, God carved the words {of the agreement} onto stone slabs. What Moses did was glorious enough that the Israelites could not gaze at his face afterwards because it {reflected how} glorious {God is}, although that would eventually go away.

Why could the people of Israel not look directly at Moses' face?

They could not look directly at his face because of the glory of his face, a glory that was fading.

2 Corinthians 3:8

ULT	UST
how will the ministry of the Spirit not be with much more glory?	So then, when people act on behalf of {the new agreement that gives} the Holy Spirit, that is even more glorious.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
For if the ministry of this condemnation {had} glory, the ministry of this righteousness abounds much more in glory!	Indeed, when Moses acted on behalf of {the old agreement that led to God} condemning people, it was glorious. So then, when people act on behalf of {the new agreement that leads to people becoming} righteous, it is even more glorious!

Which will have more glory, the ministry of condemnation or the service of righteousness?

The ministry of righteousness abounds much more in glory.

2 Corinthians 3:10

ULT	UST
For indeed, {what} had been glorified is not glorified in this part, because of the surpassing glory.	In fact, the glorious {old agreement} does not look glorious at all because of how glorious {the new agreement} is.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
For if {what} is fading away {came} with glory, much more {what} remains {will come} with glory!	Indeed, {the old agreement} that is going away was glorious. So then, {the new agreement} that will last forever is even more glorious!

and not like Moses putting a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel would not look intently at the end of {what} was fading away.	{We are} not like Moses, who wore a cloth that hid his face. That way, the Israelites could not gaze at how his face stopped reflecting how glorious God is.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
But their minds were hardened, for until the present day, the same veil remains at the reading of the old covenant, not being lifted, because in Christ it is fading away.	In fact, the Israelites did not understand {what God revealed}. Indeed, even now, when someone reads {the Scriptures that contain} the old agreement, {it is as if} the cloth that Moses wore keeps people from understanding {it}. That is because no one can understand {these Scriptures} until God unites them to the Messiah.

How can Israel's mind be opened and the veil removed from their hearts?

Only when Israel turns to the Lord Christ are their minds opened and the veil lifted away.

ULT	UST
But until today, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart,	Indeed, even now, when someone reads the Law of Moses, it is as if that cloth keeps people from understanding it.

What is the problem which remains today for the people of Israel whenever the old covenant of Moses is read?

Their problem is that their minds are closed and a veil lies over their hearts.

2 Corinthians 3:16

ULT	UST
but whenever one might turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away.	However, when people begin to trust the Lord {God}, God enables them to understand {the Law of Moses}, just as if he removed that cloth.

How can Israel's mind be opened and the veil removed from their hearts?

Only when Israel turns to the Lord Christ are their minds opened and the veil lifted away.

ULT	UST
Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord {is}, {there is} freedom.	When I speak of the Lord {God}, I mean the Holy Spirit. It is the Holy Spirit who enables {people to understand the Scriptures}.

What is present with the Spirit of the Lord?

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

2 Corinthians 3:18

ULT	UST
Now we all, with unveiled face reflecting the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.	So, all of us {who believe} show how glorious the Lord {God} is, and {we do so} without a cloth covering our faces. God is changing us so that we are like {the Messiah}. In this way, the glorious Lord, who is the Holy Spirit, makes us glorious.

Into what are all those who are seeing the glory of the Lord being transformed?

They are being transformed into the same glorious likeness from one degree of glory into another.

2 Corinthians 4

2 Corinthians 4:1

ULT	UST
Therefore, having this ministry, just as we received mercy, we do not become discouraged.	Because of those things, and because God mercifully enabled us to act on behalf of {the new agreement}, we do not give up.

Why did Paul and his companions not become discouraged?

They did not become discouraged because of the ministry they had and because they had received mercy.

ULT	UST
Instead, we have rejected the shameful hidden things, not walking in craftiness, nor distorting the word of God, but by the manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience before God.	Rather, we refuse to do anything that we would hide because it is disgraceful. We do not try to deceive others, and we do not change the message from God. Instead, we proclaim the true {message}, and we prove to everyone that God considers us trustworthy.

What were the ways that Paul and his companions had renounced?

They had renounced the ways that are shameful and hidden. They did not live by craftiness and did not mishandle the word of God.

How did Paul and those like him recommend themselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God?

They did this by presenting the truth.

ULT	UST
But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to the ones perishing,	In fact, the only people who do not understood the good news that we proclaim are people who are passing away.

To whom is the gospel veiled?

It is veiled to those who are perishing.

ULT	UST
to whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, so that the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, does not appear {to them}.	Satan, who rules the world right now, has kept these people who do not believe from understanding. That way, the good news about the glorious Messiah, who shows what God is like, does not change them.

Why is the gospel veiled to those who are perishing?

It is veiled because the god of this world has blinded their unbelieving minds so they are not able to see the light of the gospel.

2 Corinthians 4:5

ULT	UST
For we do not proclaim ourselves, but the Lord Christ Jesus, and ourselves {as} your servants for Jesus' sake.	{I say that the good news is about the Messiah} because we do not tell other people about ourselves. Rather, {we tell them} about Jesus the Messiah, the Lord, and about how we serve you because of him.

2 Corinthians 4:6

ULT	UST
For God {is} the one who said, "From darkness a light will shine," who shined in our hearts for the illumination of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.	{We do that} because it is God who spoke these words: "What is dark will become bright." He has enabled us to understand what is true about how glorious he is, just as if he had shined a light on us. {God has revealed this} in Jesus the Messiah.

2 Corinthians 4:7

ULT	UST
But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that the surpassing greatness of the power might be from God and not from us;	We experience and proclaim these wonderful things, but we ourselves are weak and worthless. That way, {it is clear that} God causes these things to be so powerful, not we.

Why did Paul and his companions have this treasure in jars of clay?

They had this treasure in jars of clay so that it would be clear that the exceedingly great power belongs to God and not to them.

2 Corinthians 4:8

ULT	UST
in every {side} being pressed in, but not being crushed; being perplexed, but not despairing;	{We experience} many {difficult things}. People persecute us, but they do not overcome us. We are not sure what to do, but we do not give up.

ULT	UST
always carrying around in the body the dying of Jesus so that the life of Jesus also might be revealed in our body;	We continually suffer physically, like Jesus did. That way, God will make us live again, just like he made Jesus live again.

Why did Paul and his companions carry in their bodies the death of Jesus?

They carried the death of Jesus in their bodies so that the life of Jesus might also be shown in their bodies.

2 Corinthians 4:11

ULT	UST
for we being alive are always being handed over to death for the sake of Jesus so that also the life of Jesus might be revealed in our mortal flesh.	Indeed, while we are living, God allows us to suffer continually because of Jesus. That way, even though we will die, God will make us live again, just like he made Jesus live again.

2 Corinthians 4:12

So then, death works in us, but life in you.	As you can see, God allows us to suffer, but he will make you live.

ULT	UST
But having the same spirit of the faith according to {what} has been written: "I believed; therefore I spoke," we also believe; therefore we also speak,	Now we are those who trust {God}, just like the person who wrote {in the psalm}, "I trusted {God}, so I spoke." We too trust {God}, so we too speak.

2 Corinthians 4:14

ULT	UST
knowing that the one having raised Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and will present {us} with you.	{We do that because} we realize that God made Jesus alive again, so he will also make us alive again. Then we will be with Jesus and with you before God.

Who will be raised and brought into the presence of him who raised the Lord Jesus?

Paul and his companions as well as the Corinthian saints will be brought into the presence of him who raised the Lord Jesus.

ULT	UST
For all these {things are} for your sake so that the grace, having increased through more and more {people}, may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.	We do each of those things to help you. That way, God will act graciously to more people. Then, people will thank God more, which honors God.

What will happen as a result of grace spreading to many people?

As grace is spread to many people, thanksgiving will increase to the glory of God.

2 Corinthians 4:16

ULT	UST
So we do not become discouraged. Rather, even if our outer man is decaying, yet our inner {man} is being renewed day {by} day.	Therefore, we do not give up. Instead, even though the part of us that people can see is perishing, every day God is strengthening the part of us that people cannot see.

Why did Paul and his companions not become discouraged? (4:16-18)

They did not become discouraged because inwardly they were being renewed day by day. Also, their momentary, light affliction was preparing them for an eternal weight of glory that exceeds all measurement. Lastly, they were watching for unseen eternal things.

Why did Paul and his companions have reason to become discouraged?

They had reason to become discouraged because, outwardly, they were decaying.

ULT	UST
For our momentary, light affliction is producing in us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison.	{We do not give up,} because when we suffer in temporary and unimportant ways, that will cause us to become glorious forever and in important ways, ways that we cannot even imagine.

2 Corinthians 4:18

ULT	UST
We are not watching the things being seen, but the things not being seen. For the things being seen {are} temporary, but the things not being seen {are} eternal.	So, we pay attention to what we do not see rather than to what we see. {That is} because what we do not see will last forever, but what we see will pass away.

2 Corinthians 5

ULT	UST
For we know that if our earthly house of this tent is torn down, we have a building from God, an eternal house in the heavens, not made with hands.	Indeed, we realize that the bodies we have on this earth will die. They are like tents that people destroy. However, God will give us new bodies that will live forever. They will be like buildings that God creates in the heavenly places.

What did Paul say we still have if our earthly dwelling is destroyed?

Paul said we have a building from God, a house not made by human hands, but an eternal house, in the heavens.

ULT	UST
For indeed, in this {house} we groan, longing to be fully clothed with our dwelling {that is} from heaven,	In fact, we mourn how we live in these bodies. We want God to give us new bodies, just as if he was putting new clothes on us. {These new bodies will be like} buildings {that God gives us} from heaven.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
and if indeed having clothed ourselves, we will not be found naked.	Whenever we receive our new bodies, they will be like clothes that keep us from being naked.

ULT	UST
For indeed, we, the ones being in this tent, groan, being burdened, because of which we do not want to be unclothed, but to be fully clothed so that the mortal may be swallowed up by the life.	Even further, while we have these bodies that are like tents, we mourn, and these bodies make living difficult. Because of that, it is not that we want to be without bodies, which would be like having no clothes. Rather, {we want} to receive new bodies, which will be like putting on new clothes. That way, we will live forever instead of expecting to die.

Why did Paul say that we groan while we are in this tent?

Paul said this because while in this tent, we are burdened and want to be clothed so that what is mortal may be absorbed by life.

ULT	UST
Now the one having prepared us for this very thing {is} God, the one having given us the down payment of the Spirit.	God is the one who makes us ready for these new bodies. He gave the Holy Spirit to us, which shows that he will also give us everything else that he has promised.

What did God give to us as a pledge of what is to come?

God gave us the Spirit as a pledge of what is to come.

ULT	UST
Therefore, always being courageous and knowing that being at home in the body, we are away from the Lord—	So then, we are confident at all times {about what God will give us}. Also, we realize that while we have these bodies, we are not with the Lord {Jesus}.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
for we walk by faith, not by sight.	Indeed, we act as we do because we trust {the Lord Jesus}, not because we see {him}.

2 Corinthians 5:8

ULT	UST
Now we are confident and think it good rather to be away from the body and to be at home with the Lord.	As I said, we are confident {about what God will give us}. Also, we would choose instead to be without our bodies and with the Lord {Jesus}.

Would Paul rather be in the body or at home with the Lord?

Paul said, “We would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.”

2 Corinthians 5:9

ULT	UST
And therefore we aspire, whether being at home or being away, to be well-pleasing to him.	So then, we strive to please the Lord Jesus whether we are with him or not.

What was Paul’s goal?

Paul made it his goal to please the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:10

ULT	UST
For it is necessary for us all to be revealed before the judgment seat of Christ so that each one may receive back the {things done} through the body, with regard to what things he did, whether good or bad.	{We do that} because all of us will have to appear before the Messiah and he will decide whether each one of us has done what is right or what is wrong. Then, he will give us what we deserve in proportion to what we did while we had these bodies.

Why did Paul make it his goal to please the Lord?

Paul made this his goal because we all must appear before the judgment seat of Christ to receive what is due for the things done in the body, whether for good or for bad.

ULT	UST
Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men. But we are clearly known by God, and I hope also to be clearly known in your consciences.	So then, because we experience what it means to fear the Lord {Jesus}, we convince others {to fear him also}. God knows {that we are trustworthy}, and I want you also to know {that we are trustworthy}.

Why did Paul and his companions persuade people?

They persuaded people because they knew the fear of the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:12

ULT	UST
We are not again commending ourselves to you, but are giving you an opportunity of boasting on our behalf, so that you may have {an answer} for the ones boasting in appearance and not in heart.	We are not proving to you a second time that we are trustworthy. Rather, we are enabling you to say great things about us. That way, you can respond to anybody who says great things about how people appear on the outside and not about who those people really are on the inside.

Paul said they were not again recommending themselves to the Corinthian saints. What were they doing?

They were giving the Corinthian saints a reason to be proud of them, so that the Corinthian saints might have an answer for those who boasted about appearances but not about what was in the heart.

2 Corinthians 5:13

ULT	UST
For if we are out of our mind, {it is} for God; if we are of sound mind, {it is} for you.	So, when we seem crazy, we are serving God. When we seem to think normally, we are serving you.

ULT	UST
For the love of Christ controls us, having judged this: that one died for the sake of all; therefore, all died.	{Those things are true} because the Messiah loves us, and that directs us {to act in certain ways}. Here is how we think about it: one person{, the Messiah,} died to rescue all people. Because of that, {it is as if} all people died.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
And he died for all so that the ones living should live no longer for themselves, but for the one having died for them and having been raised.	Further, {this is why} he died to rescue all people: that way, those who live spiritually will not do whatever they want anymore. Instead, {they will do} what the Messiah wants, since he died to rescue them and God made him alive again.

Since Christ died for all, what should those who live do?

They should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised.

2 Corinthians 5:16

ULT	UST
Therefore, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh. Even if we regarded Christ according to the flesh, yet now we no longer regard him {that way}.	Because of all that, we do not think about anyone in merely human ways any longer. Indeed, although at one time we thought about the Messiah in merely human ways, we do not think about him in those ways any longer.

By what standards do the saints no longer judge anyone?

The saints no longer judge anyone by human standards.

ULT	UST
Therefore, if anyone {is} in Christ, {he is} a new creation. The old things passed away; behold, new things have come.	So then, whenever God unites people to the Messiah, he makes them new people. What they used to be has disappeared. Look, what they are now is something new!

What happens to anyone who is in Christ?

He is a new creation. The old things have passed away; new things have come.

2 Corinthians 5:18

ULT	UST
Now all these things {are} from God, the one having reconciled us to himself through Christ and having given us the ministry of this reconciliation,	God is the one who gives us every one of these things. By working through the Messiah, he has enabled us to be with him. Further, God empowers us to act so that others can also be with him.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
namely, that God in Christ was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and having placed in us the word of reconciliation.	Here is how that works: God works through Christ to enable every person to be with him. In doing so, he forgives people for what they have done wrong. Further, he commissions us to tell others about how they can be with God.

When God through Christ reconciles people to himself, what does God do for them?

God does not count their sinful acts against them, and he entrusts to them the message of reconciliation.

ULT	UST
Therefore, we are ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God is appealing through us: We implore {you} on behalf of Christ: "Be reconciled to God!"	Because {God has commissioned us}, we represent the Messiah. So, God encourages others through us. We speak for the Messiah when we ask you {to believe the good news so that} you can be with God.

As appointed representatives of Christ, what is the plea of Paul and his companions to the Corinthians?

Their plea to the Corinthians is to be reconciled to God for the sake of Christ!

ULT	UST
The one not having known sin he made sin for us, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.	Jesus did not sin. {Despite that,} for our sake God treated him as if he had sinned. As a result, God makes us righteous by uniting us to Jesus.

Why did God make Christ become the sacrifice for our sin?

God did this so that in Christ we might become the righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 6

ULT	UST
Now working together with {him}, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain—	As those who serve with God, we encourage you to accept fully what God has graciously done {for you}, so that it changes {how you live}.

What did Paul and his companions beg the Corinthians not to do?

They begged the Corinthians not to receive the grace of God to no effect.

ULT	UST
for he says, "At an acceptable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I helped you." Behold, now {is} a favorable time. Look, now {is} a day of salvation.	{You should do that} because God says {in the scripture}: "When I considered it to be the right time, I heard you {and acted}. Indeed, when I was rescuing {people}, I assisted you." Right now is when God considers it to be the best time! Indeed, right now is when God is rescuing {people}!

When is the favorable time? When is the day of salvation?

Now is the favorable time. Now is the day of salvation.

ULT	UST
Giving no cause for offense in anything so that our ministry might not be blamed,	We avoid doing anything that might offend others. That way, no one can criticize how we serve {God}.

Why did Paul and his companions not place a stumbling block in front of anyone?

They did not put a stumbling block in front of anyone, for they did not want their ministry to be blamed.

ULT	UST
instead, we commend ourselves in everything as servants of God; in much endurance, in tribulations, in hardships, in distresses,	Rather, we prove that we are trustworthy in every way while we serve God. We always persevere when people hurt and persecute us.

What are some of the things that Paul and his companions endured? (6:4-5)

They endured affliction, distress, hardship, beatings, imprisonments, riots, hard work, sleepless nights and hunger.

What did the actions of Paul and his companions prove?

Their actions proved they were God's servants.

ULT	UST
in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in hard labors, in sleeplessness {nights}, in hungers,	{We persevere} when people strike us, put us in jail, and stir up crowds against us. {We persevere} when we work hard, do not sleep much, and go hungry.

Even though Paul and his companions were truthful, of what were they accused?

They were accused of being deceitful.

2 Corinthians 6:9

Our mouth has been opened toward you, Corinthians; our heart has been opened wide.	Fellow believers in the city of Corinth, we have told you what is true, and we care for you greatly.

What exchange does Paul wish to make with the Corinthians? (6:11-13)

Paul said his heart was wide open to the Corinthians and, in fair exchange, Paul wanted the Corinthians saints to open their hearts wide to Paul and his companions.

Do not be yoked together with unbelievers, for what partnership {does} righteousness and lawlessness {have}? Or what fellowship {does} light {have} with darkness?	Do not join in with people who do not trust {the Messiah}. {I say that} because what is right and what is wrong have nothing in common. Further, what is good shares nothing with what is evil.

What reasons does Paul give as to why the Corinthian saints should not be tied together with unbelievers? (6:14-16)

Paul gives the following reasons: What association does righteousness have with lawlessness? Does light have fellowship with darkness? Can Christ agree with Beliar? What share does a believer have together with an unbeliever? Can there be agreement between the temple of God and idols?

2 Corinthians 6:15

ULT	UST
And what harmony {does} Christ {have} with Beliar? Or what share {does} a believer {have} with an unbeliever?	The Messiah does not agree {about anything} with the devil Beliar. Further, people who trust {the Messiah} do not belong with people who do not trust {the Messiah}.

In fact, it is as if we {who believe} were the only real God's temple. {You can tell that we are God's temple} because God spoke {these words in the Scriptures}: "I will be with my people. Indeed, I will not leave them. They will consider me to be their God and I will consider them to be my people."*

What does the Lord say he will do for those who will, "Come out from among them and be set apart, and touch no unclean thing…"? (6:17-18)

The Lord says he will welcome them. He will be a Father to them and they will be his sons and daughters.

2 Corinthians 6:18

ULT	UST

Therefore, beloved, having these promises, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.	So then, {fellow believers} whom I love, because God has promised these things to us, we should get rid of everything that defiles us on the outside and on the inside. We should become completely holy as we fear God.

Of what does Paul say we are supposed to cleanse ourselves?

We are supposed to cleanse ourselves of everything that makes us unclean in body and spirit.

2 Corinthians 7:2

ULT	UST
Make room for us! We wronged no one; we ruined no one; we took advantage of no one.	{We ask you to} care for us! We have not hurt, cheated, or destroyed anyone.

What did Paul want the Corinthian saints to do for himself and his companions?

Paul wanted them to, “Make room for us!”

2 Corinthians 7:3

ULT	UST
I do not speak for your condemnation; for I have already said that you are in our hearts to die together and to live together.	I am not saying these things to blame you. In fact, as I have already written {in this letter}, we care for you greatly, no matter what happens.

What words of encouragement did Paul have for the Corinthian saints? (7:3-4)

Paul told the Corinthian saints they were in his and his companion’s hearts, to die together and to live together. Paul also told them he had great confidence in them and was proud of them.

ULT	UST
Great {is} my confidence in you; great {is} my boasting on your behalf. I have been filled with encouragement. But God, the one comforting the humble, comforted us by the arrival of Titus,	However, God encourages people who feel discouraged. He encouraged us by having Titus join {us}.

What comfort did God give to Paul and his companions when they came to Macedonia and were troubled in every way–conflicts on the outside and fears on the inside? (7:6-7)

God comforted them by the arrival of Titus, by the report of the comfort Titus had received from the Corinthian saints, and by the Corinthian's great affection and their sorrow and deep concern for Paul.

ULT	UST
and not only by his arrival, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted by you, reporting to us your longing, your mourning, {and} your zeal for my sake, so that I was caused to rejoice even more.	{God encouraged us} partly by having Titus join {us}, but even more by how what you did encourages Titus. He has told us that you want {to see me}, that you are sorry {for what you did}, and that you strive to honor me. Because of those things, I rejoiced more {than I did before}.

2 Corinthians 7:8

ULT	UST
For even if I grieved you in the letter, I do not regret {it}. Even if I was regretting {it} (I seethat that letter grieved you, if only for an hour),	I am not sorry {that I wrote the previous letter}, even though I hurt you with what I wrote. In fact, the only reason I would be sorry {that I wrote it} is that I know that the letter hurt you, although only for a little while.

What did Paul's previous letter produce in the Corinthian saints? (7:8-9)

The Corinthian saints experienced grief unto repentance in response to Paul's previous letter.

ULT	UST
now I rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to {the point of} repentance. For you were grieved with respect to God, so that you would not suffer loss in anything through us.	However, now {that Titus has told us about you,} I am very happy. {I am happy} not because I hurt you. Rather, {I am happy} because when I hurt you, you became sorry {for what you did} and stopped {doing it}. In fact, you felt hurt in a way that honors God. So, we have not deprived you of anything good.

What did Godly sadness produce in the Corinthian saints?

Sadness brought about repentance in them.

2 Corinthians 7:10

ULT	UST
For the sorrow with respect to God works repentance towards salvation without regret. But the sorrow of the world produces death.	{That is} because, when people feel hurt in a way that honors God, it causes them to be sorry {for what they did} and stop {doing it}. They are not sorry {that they felt hurt}, because {God uses how they feel} to rescue them. However, when people feel hurt in the way that most people do, {how they feel} eventually causes them to die.

ULT	UST
For behold how much earnestness this same thing produced in you, to be made sorrowful with respect to God: what defense, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, {and} what vindication! In everything you proved yourselves to be pure in this matter.	As for you, when you felt hurt in this way that honors God, it certainly caused you to be very eager {to do what is right}. You argued that you were not guilty. You were upset {about what had happened}. You feared {what might happen}. You wanted {to see us}. You strove to honor {us}. You punished {the person who had done what was wrong}. By doing all {those things}, you have shown that you have done what is right in response to what happened.

ULT	UST
So even though I wrote to you, {it was} not for the sake of the one having done wrong, nor for the sake of the one having suffered wrong, but so that your earnestness which {is} on our behalf might be revealed to you before God.	So then, when I sent {the previous letter} to you, I was not primarily dealing with the person who did what was wrong. Also, I was not primarily dealing with the person whom he hurt. Rather, I intended to show you how eager you are {to act rightly} toward us and that God approves {of this}.

Why did Paul say he wrote his previous letter to the Corinthian saints?

Paul said he wrote so that the earnestness of the Corinthians saints for Paul and his companions should be made known to the Corinthian saints in the sight of God.

2 Corinthians 7:13

ULT	UST
Because of this we have been encouraged. Now in addition to our own encouragement, we rejoiced even more abundantly at the joy of Titus, because his spirit had been refreshed by all of you.	Since you responded in these ways, you have encouraged us. In fact, although you did encourage us, we are even more happy about how you made Titus happy. {You did that} when you all comforted and strengthened him.

Why was Titus joyful?

He was joyful because his spirit was refreshed by all the Corinthian saints.

ULT	UST
For if I had boasted anything to him about you, I was not ashamed, but as we spoke everything to you in truth, in the same way also our boasting became the truth to Titus.	{We were this happy} because you did not disgrace me after I had said great things about you to Titus. Instead, Titus found out that the great things we said about you were actually true. {This is} just like how everything we told you was also true.

ULT	UST
And his affections towards you are more abundant, remembering the obedience of all of you, how you received him with fear and trembling.	Titus recalls how you all obeyed us, particularly how you feared him when he arrived. {Because of that,} he cares about you even more now.

Why did Titus' affection for the Corinthian saints grow even greater?

Titus' affection for the Corinthian saints grew even greater as he remembered the obedience of all the Corinthian saints as they welcomed him with fear and trembling.

2 Corinthians 7:16

ULT	UST
I rejoice that in everything I am confident in you.	I am happy that I am completely sure that you {are doing what is right}.

2 Corinthians 8

ULT	UST
Now we make known to you, brothers, the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia,	My fellow believers, we want to tell you about what God has graciously enabled the groups of believers {here} in Macedonia province to do.

What did Paul want the Corinthian brothers and sisters to know?

Paul wanted them to know about the grace of God that was given to the churches of Macedonia.

ULT	UST
that during a severe trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity.	Even though they suffered very much, which tested {how they would respond}, they were extremely generous. They were very joyful {as they did this}, even though they had very little.

What did the churches of Macedonia do during a great test of affliction, and even though were extremely poor?

They produced great riches of generosity.

ULT	UST
For I testify that {they gave} according to their ability, and beyond their ability, of their own accord,	In fact, I can tell you that {they offered} as much as they could afford, and even more than they could afford. They were the ones who chose to do this.

2 Corinthians 8:4

ULT	UST
with much urging they pleaded with us {for} the favor and the fellowship of this ministry {that is} to the saints.	They were very insistent when they urged us to accept {what they were giving}. They wanted to share in serving God's people.

2 Corinthians 8:5

ULT	UST
And not as we hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord and then to us, by the will of God.	Further, they did even more than what we had expected. They dedicated themselves primarily to {serving} the Lord {Jesus} and then also to {serving} us. {That is} just what God wants.

2 Corinthians 8:6

ULT	UST
So we urged Titus that, just as he began, in the same way he would also complete for you this grace as well.	Because of that, we encouraged Titus to finish accepting what you are giving, especially since he had already started {doing so}.

What did Paul urge Titus to do?

Paul urged Titus to bring to completion this act of grace on the part of the Corinthian saints.

2 Corinthians 8:7

ULT	UST
But even as you abound in everything, in faith and in speech and in knowledge and in all earnestness and in the love from us in you,so also you should abound in this act of grace.	As for you, you are already doing well in so many ways. {This includes} how you trust {God}, what you say, how much you know, how you are always eager {to do what is right}, and how much we love you. So, you should also do well in giving {money for fellow believers}.

In what else did the Corinthian believers abound?

They abounded in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in their love for Paul.

2 Corinthians 8:8

ULT	UST
I say this not according to a command, but also proving the genuineness of your love through the earnestness of others.	I am not ordering you {to give money}. Rather, I want to show that you really care {for fellow believers} by comparing {what you do} with how other people are always eager {to give money}.

(There are no questions for this verse)

2 Corinthians 8:9

ULT	UST
For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that he became poor for your sake {though} being rich so that by the poverty of that one, you might become rich.	{You should be eager to give money} because you realize that our Lord, Jesus the Messiah, kindly gave up everything he had to help you. {He did that even though} he had very many things. He wanted to give you many things by himself giving up what he had.

2 Corinthians 8:10

ULT	UST
And I give my opinion in this, for this is profitable for you, who not only began to do this a year ago, but also to desire {to do it}.	I am telling you what I think about giving money, because hearing what I think helps you. Last year, you both wanted to and did start {giving money}.

(There are no questions for this verse)

2 Corinthians 8:11

ULT	UST
But now also complete {what you began} to do, so that just as {there was} the readiness of the desire, so also {there may be} the completion from what you have.	Right now, you should finish what you started. That way, what you finish doing matches what you eagerly wanted {to do}, {which is to give some} of what you have.

(There are no questions for this verse)

2 Corinthians 8:12

ULT	UST
For if the readiness is already there, {it is} fully acceptable according to whatever one might have, not according to what he does not have.	Now God approves of {what people give} based on what they have, not based on what they do not have. {This is true} as long as they are eager {to give}.

What does Paul say is a good and acceptable thing?

Paul says it is a good and acceptable thing for the Corinthian saints to have a readiness to do that work.

ULT	UST
For {this is} not so that {there is} relief for others {but} tribulation for you, but out of equality.	So, it is not that I want you to suffer while other believers do well. Rather, I want {believers to share what they have} equally.

Does Paul want this task to be done so others may be relieved and the Corinthian saints may be burdened? (8:13-14)

No. Paul said the Corinthians' abundance at that current time would supply what they (the other saints) needed, and so that their abundance might also supply the Corinthian saints' need, and so that there might be fairness.

2 Corinthians 8:14

ULT	UST
At the present time, your abundance {is} for the lack of those ones, so that also the abundance of those ones may be for your need, so that there may be equality,	Right now, how much you have can help people who do not have much. Then, when those people have much and you have little, they can help you. That way, believers share {what they have} equally.

2 Corinthians 8:15

just as it is written: "The one {gathering} much did not have too much, and the one {gathering} little did not have too little."	{We want it to be} like what someone wrote {when God powerfully gave food to the Israelites}: "The people who had much did not have more than they needed. The people who had little did not have less than they needed."

2 Corinthians 8:16

ULT	UST
But thanks {be} to God, the one placing the same earnestness on your behalf into the heart of Titus.	We thank God for causing Titus to be eager {to care} for you, just like we are.

What did Titus do after God put into his heart the same earnest care that Paul had for the Corinthian saints? (8:16-17)

Titus accepted Paul's appeal, and being very earnest about it, he came to the Corinthian saints of his own free will.

2 Corinthians 8:17

ULT	UST
For he not only accepted our appeal, but being very eager, he has gone to you of his own accord.	Indeed, he is visiting you partly because he listened to us urging him {to do so}. Mostly, however, {he is visiting you} because he is so eager {to care for you} that he himself chose {to visit you}.

2 Corinthians 8:18

ULT	UST
Now we have sent together with him the brother of whom is the praise throughout all of the churches in the gospel,	We have chosen a fellow believer to go with Titus. Many groups of believers commend him {because of what he does} for the sake of the good news.

2 Corinthians 8:19

ULT	UST
And not only this, but he also was chosen by the churches as our traveling companion, along with this grace that is being administered by us to the glory of the Lord, and {to show} our readiness;	More than that, the groups of believers selected him to travel with me. He is helping us as we work to accept {money for the believers in Jerusalem}. {Accepting this money} honors the Lord {God} and demonstrates how eager we are {to care for fellow believers}.

2 Corinthians 8:20

ULT	UST
avoiding this, that no one might blame us concerning this generosity being administered by us.	So, we are doing what we can to keep others from criticizing us for what we do {with this money} that people have generously given.

What was Paul careful to avoid in his actions concerning this act of generosity?

Paul was careful to avoid giving anyone reason to complain about his actions.

ULT	UST
For we consider beforehand {what is} good, not only before the Lord, but also before men.	As you can see, before {we started to collect this money}, we planned how to do it well. {We considered} what the Lord {God} thinks, but we also {considered} what other people think.

ULT	UST
Now we sent our brother with them, whom we proved in many ways, {and} often being eager. But now he is even more eager {because of his} great confidence that {he has} in you.	We have chosen another fellow believer to go with Titus and the other man {I have been speaking about}. We have tested him and know for sure that he is eager {to serve God}. In fact, because he is very confident that you {will do what is right}, right now he is particularly eager {to serve with you}.

2 Corinthians 8:23

ULT	UST
As for Titus, {he is} my partner and fellow worker for you. As {for} our brothers, {they are} messengers of the churches, a glory of Christ.	{I recommend these men.} Titus joins me {in what I do} and works with me to help you. The groups of believers send the other two fellow believers, and they honor the Messiah.

ULT	UST
Therefore, prove to them to the faces of the churches the proof of your love and of our boasting about you.	So then, show these three men and also the groups of believers that you really do care {for fellow believers} and that the great things we say about you really are true.

What did Paul tell the Corinthian saints to do concerning the brothers that were sent to them by the other churches?

Paul told the Corinthian church to show them their love and to show them why Paul had boasted about the Corinthian church among the other churches.

2 Corinthians 9

2 Corinthians 9:1

ULT	UST
For concerning the ministry {that is} to the saints, it is excessive for me to write to you.	Really, though, I do not need to say anything to you about how we are serving God's people {in Jerusalem}.

About what does Paul say it is not necessary to write to the Corinthian saints?

Paul says it is no necessary to write to them concerning the ministry for the saints.

ULT	UST
For I know your readiness, {of} which I boast to the Macedonians concerning you, that Achaia has been ready since last year, and your zeal stirred up most {of them}.	{That is} because I recognize how eager you are {to give}. In fact, I say great things about you to the believers in Macedonia province. {I tell them} that you believers in Achaia province were already preparing {to give} last year. How eager you were {to give} has encouraged most of them {to give also}.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
But I sent the brothers so that our boasting which {is} about you might not be futile in this matter {and} so that you might be ready, as I was saying.	However, {although we know that you are eager}, we have chosen these {three} fellow believers to visit you to make sure that the great things we say about how you are eager {to give} prove true. {They are visiting you} so that you can finish preparing {to give} and in this way match what I have told {the Macedonians about you}.

Why did Paul send the brothers to Corinth?

He sent the brothers so that his boasting about the Corinthian saints might not be futile, and so that the Corinthian saints would be ready, as Paul said they would be.

ULT	UST
Otherwise, if Macedonians might come with me and might find you unprepared, we would be ashamed—not to mention you—by this situation.	On the other hand, {think about what would happen} were some believers from Macedonia province to visit you with me and discover that you had not finished preparing {to give}. How you had acted would shame even us, and {it would} most definitely {shame} you.

Why did Paul think it necessary to urge the brothers to go to the Corinthian saints and make arrangements in advance for the gift the Corinthians had promised? (9:4-5)

Paul thought is necessary so that Paul and his companions would not be put to shame in case any Macedonians came with Paul and found the Corinthians unprepared. Paul wanted the Corinthians to be ready with the gift as one freely offered and not because the Corinthians were forced to give it.

2 Corinthians 9:5

ULT	UST
So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers that they should go to you beforehand and prepare in advance this promised blessing of yours, to be ready in this way as a blessing and not as something forced.	Because of that, I decided that I needed to ask these {three} fellow believers to visit you before {I do} and help you with what you said you would give. That way, you will have already prepared what you are giving, and {you will offer it} because you want to and not because we are making you do it.

ULT	UST
Now this {I say}: the one sowing sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one sowing in blessings will also reap in blessings.	Here is an example {that illustrates how you should give}. When farmers plant only a few seeds, they harvest only a little food. When farmers plant many seeds, they harvest much food. Much like that, when you help other people, someone will help you in return.

What example does Paul use to explain why believers should give generously?

Paul says that people who sow only a little will reap only a little, but those who sow generously will also reap generously.

2 Corinthians 9:7

ULT	UST
{Let} each one {give} just as he has decided beforehand in his heart, not from sorrow or from compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.	Each of you should choose for yourself {how much to give}. Do not {choose how much to give} because you feel hurt or because you have to. {I say that} because God cares for people who give gladly.

How is each one to give?

Each one is to give as he has planned in his heart—not out of compelling obligation or so as to have sorrow when he gives.

2 Corinthians 9:8

ULT	UST
And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in everything, always, having all sufficiency, you may abound in every good work.	God can graciously give you more than you need. That way, because you always have everything you need in every situation, you can always do everything that is right.

2 Corinthians 9:9

ULT	UST
Just as it is written: "He distributed {alms}, he gave to the poor, his righteousness endures to eternity."	{You can tell that is true} because someone wrote {about this kind of person} in the Scriptures, "They give to many people. Yes, they help those who have very little. They will do what is right forever."

2 Corinthians 9:10

ULT	UST
Now the one supplying seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed and will increase the fruits of your righteousness,	God provides the seeds for the one who plants them, and {he provides} food for people to eat. So, he will also provide what you need and give you more of it. Further, when you do what is right, he will use that to accomplish good things.

What was the one who provides seed for the sower and bread for food going to do for the Corinthian saints? (9:10-11)

That one was going to supply and multiply their seed for sowing and increase the harvest of their righteousness. They were going to be enriched in every way so they could be generous.

2 Corinthians 9:11

ULT	UST
in every way being enriched for all generosity, which produces thanksgiving to God through us,	God consistently gives you more than you need so that you can always generously {give to others}. When you give generously and we send your gifts {to fellow believers}, they thank God.

2 Corinthians 9:12

ULT	UST
because the ministry of this service not only is fully supplying the needs of the saints but is also abounding with many thanksgivings to God.	In fact, when you serve God's people {in Jerusalem} by giving {to them}, it provides what they need. Even more, though, it causes them to thank God very much.

2 Corinthians 9:13

ULT	UST
Through the proof of this ministry, they are glorifying God on the basis of the obedience of your confession to the gospel of Christ and the generosity of the fellowship toward them and toward everyone,	You prove yourselves by serving God's people {in Jerusalem}. So then, they will honor God because you actually do what the good news about the Messiah requires, {which is the same good news} that you say you believe. {They will honor God} also because you generously share {what you have} with them and with all {believers}.

For what reason were the saints in Jerusalem glorifying God?

They were glorifying God because of the Corinthians' obedience to their confession of the gospel of Christ and because of the generosity of the Corinthians' gift.

2 Corinthians 9:14

ULT	UST
and in their prayer on your behalf, longing for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you.	Further, they will want {to see} you as they pray for you, since you give very graciously as God enables you to.

Why did the other saints long for the Corinthian saints as they prayed for them?

They longed for them because of the exceedingly great grace of God that was upon the Corinthians.

ULT	UST

Now I, Paul, myself—who {am} meek {when} face to face among you, but being absent, am bold toward you—appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ.	Now I {will speak about} myself, Paul. I am humbly and reasonably urging you {to do what is right}, just like the Messiah {was humble and reasonable}. {Some people say that} when I was with you in person, I was gentle with you, but now, when I am away, I am forceful with you.

ULT	UST
Now I am pleading that, being present, {I will} not {need} to be bold with the confidence with which I plan to be courageous against some of the ones regarding us as walking according to the flesh.	I do intend to be forceful when I boldly act against these people who think that I and those {who serve} with me act in merely human ways. So, I ask you {to do what is right} so that I will not need to be forceful with you too when I visit you.

What did Paul beg of the Corinthian saints?

Paul begged of them that when he was present with them, he would not have to be bold with self-confidence.

For what occasion did Paul think he would have to be bold with self-confidence?

Paul thought he would have to be bold with self-confidence when he opposed those who supposed that Paul and his companions were living according to the flesh.

2 Corinthians 10:3

ULT	UST
For {though} walking in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh.	In fact, although we act as humans, we do not defend ourselves in merely human ways.

For the weapons of our warfare {are} not fleshly, but {are} powerful to God for the tearing down of strongholds, tearing down strategies	In fact, what we use to defend ourselves is not what humans normally use. Rather, God empowers {what we use to defend ourselves} so that we can defeat what other people powerfully argue.

When Paul and his companions waged war, what kind of weapons did they not use?

Paul and his companions did not use fleshly weapons when they waged war.

What did the weapons that Paul used have the power to do?

The weapons Paul used had divine power to destroy strongholds.

2 Corinthians 10:5

Look at the things according to appearance. If anyone is confident in himself that he is of Christ, let him consider this again concerning himself: that just as he {is} of Christ, so also {are} we.	*Think about what is obvious. 2 Corinthians 10:8

For even if I might boast somewhat excessively about our authority, which the Lord gave for building up and not for your tearing down, I will not be ashamed,	Indeed, I do not disgrace myself when I say many great things about how the Lord {Jesus} has empowered us to represent him. {He did that} so that we could encourage and help you {to trust God more}, not so that we could discourage you {from trusting God}.

For what reason did the Lord give Paul and his companions authority?

The Lord gave Paul and his companions authority so they could build up the Corinthian saints and not destroy them.

2 Corinthians 10:9

so that I would not seem as if to terrify you through my letters.	So, {you can tell that} I am not trying to scare you when I send {forceful} letters to you.

For {someone} says, "Indeed, his letters {are} weighty and forceful, but his bodily presence {is} weak, and his speech is despised."	{I write that} because some people say {about me}, "He sends severe and powerful letters to us, but he is feeble and speaks very poorly when he is with us."

What were some people saying about Paul and his letters?

Some were saying Paul's letters were serious and powerful, but physically he was weak and his speech was not worth listening to.

2 Corinthians 10:11

ULT	UST
Let such {a person} consider this, that such as we are in our word through letters being absent, such {we are} also in our deed being present.	People who say those things need to realize that what we write in our letters {to you} when we are not with you is also how we act when we are with you.

What did Paul say to those who thought he was much different in person than his letters indicated?

Paul said that what he said by letter when he was away would be the same as he would do when he was there with the Corinthians saints.

2 Corinthians 10:12

ULT	UST
For we do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of the ones commending themselves. But these—measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves with themselves—do not understand.	We are too humble to say that we are as good as people {you know} who say that they are trustworthy. Those people are foolish. {When they say that they are great,} they are looking only at themselves.

What did those who praised themselves do to show they had no insight?

They showed they had no insight because they measured themselves by one another and compared themselves with each other.

ULT	UST
We, however, will not boast to the immeasurable things, but according to the measure of the limit that God has assigned to us, a measure that reached even as far as you.	In contrast, we do not say great things about ourselves beyond what we actually do. Rather, {we say great things about ourselves} that match with what God has given us to do. That includes what we do whenever we are with you.

What were the limits of Paul's boasting?

Paul said his boasting would stay in the area that God had assigned to them, even reaching as far as the Corinthians. Paul said they would not boast about the labor of others, about the work being done in another's area.

2 Corinthians 10:14

ULT	UST
For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we did not reach to you, for we came even as far as you with the gospel of Christ,	In fact, only if we had not actually visited you would {what God has given us to do} not include you. In fact, we confidently expect that God will give us even more to do with you. {That will happen} when you trust {God} more.

What were the specific limits of Paul's boasting? (10:15-16)

Paul said their boasting would stay in the area that God had assigned to them, even reaching as far as the Corinthians. Paul said they would not boast about the labor of others, about the work being done in another's area.

2 Corinthians 10:16

ULT	UST

For that one commending himself is not approved, but whom the Lord commends.	{Everyone should do that} because the Lord {Jesus} recommends those whom he says are trustworthy, not those who say that about themselves.

2 Corinthians 11:1

ULT	UST
I wish that you would bear with me in a little bit of foolishness, but you are indeed bearing with me!	{Next,} I hope that you will be patient with me as I say a few things {that I consider} foolish. I know that you are patient with me!

2 Corinthians 11:2

ULT	UST
For I am jealous {for} you with a godly jealousy, for I joined you to one husband, to present {you} {as} a pure virgin to Christ.	{I will say foolish things} because I am protective of you as God is protective of you. In fact, when I told you the good news, I was like a father who promised to give you to a man as his wife. Just like this father wants his daughter to be with only this one man, so I want you to trust only in the Messiah.

Why did Paul have a godly jealousy for the Corinthian saints?

He was jealous for them because he had promised them in marriage to one husband, to present them as pure virgins for Christ.

ULT	UST
But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds might be corrupted from the sincerity and the purity {that are} to Christ.	However, I fear that someone {will trick you}, just as Satan cleverly tricked Eve{, the first woman}. {I fear that such a person} will ruin how you think in ways that are completely loyal to the Messiah.

What was Paul afraid of concerning the Corinthian saints?

Paul was afraid their thoughts might be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ.

ULT	UST
For if indeed one coming proclaims another Jesus whom we did not proclaim, or you receive a different spirit which you did not receive or a different gospel which you did not accept, you are bearing with {it} well!	{I fear for you} because {I know that} people visit you and tell you about Jesus, but it is not the same Jesus we told you about. Others offer you a spirit, but it is not the Holy Spirit that we offered to you. Others proclaim good news to you, but it is not the same good news that you first believed. Despite that, you are very patient {when people tell you about these things}.

What did the Corinthian saints tolerate?

They tolerated someone coming and proclaiming another Jesus, a different gospel than the one Paul and his companions preached.

2 Corinthians 11:5

ULT	UST
Or did I commit a sin, humbling myself so that you yourselves might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you without payment?	You know that I did not sin against you when I did not ask you to pay me for proclaiming to you the good news from God. {By doing that,} I made myself less important to make you more important.

How did Paul preach the gospel to the Corinthians?

Paul preached the gospel freely to the Corinthians.

2 Corinthians 11:8

ULT	UST
I robbed other churches, having accepted a wage for the ministry {to} you.	{In fact,} I received money from other groups of believers. I accepted their money so that I could serve you.

How did Paul “rob” other churches?

He “robbed” them by accepting support from them so he could serve the Corinthians.

ULT	UST
And being present with you—and having lacked—I did not burden anyone. For the brothers having come from Macedonia completely met my need, and in everything I kept and will {continue to} keep myself {from being} a burden to you.	*Further, when I was with you, I did not have everything that I needed. Galatians 1:6

ULT	UST
I am amazed that you are turning away so quickly to a different gospel from the one having called you in the grace of Christ,	I am very disappointed that so soon after you trusted in the Messiah you are turning away from God. God chose you to be in a relationship that is based on the kindness of the Messiah. I am also disappointed that so soon you are believing a different message which some say is "good news."

With what is Paul amazed with the church in Galatia?

Paul is amazed that they are turning so quickly to a different gospel.

Galatians 1:7

ULT	UST
which is not another, except there are certain ones causing you trouble and wanting to pervert the gospel of Christ.	Their message is not a true message. What is happening is that certain persons are confusing your minds. They are desiring to change the good news about the Messiah and are creating another message.

How many true gospels are there?

There is only one true gospel, the gospel of Christ.

ULT	UST
But even if we or an angel from heaven might proclaim to you a gospel other than the one we proclaimed to you, let him be cursed.	But even if we apostles or an angel from heaven would tell you a message that is different from the good news that we told you before, I appeal to God that he would punish such a person forever.

What does Paul say should happen to anyone proclaiming a different gospel than the gospel of Christ? (1:8-9)

Paul says anyone proclaiming a different gospel should be cursed.

ULT	UST
As we have said before, and now I say again, "If anyone proclaims to you a gospel other than the one you received, let him be cursed."	As we told you previously, so now I tell you this once more: Someone is telling you what he says is good news, but it is a message that is different from the good news that I gave you. So I appeal to God that he eternally condemn that person.

Galatians 1:10

ULT	UST
For am I now trying to persuade men, or God? Or am I seeking to please men? If I were still pleasing men, I would not be a servant of Christ.	I said that because I do not desire that people approve me, contrary to what some people have said about me. It is God whom I desire to approve me. Specifically, I do not say and do things just to please people. If it were still people whom I was trying to please, then I would not be one who willingly and completely serves the Messiah.

Servants of Christ must seek the approval of whom first?

Servants of Christ must seek the approval of God first.

Galatians 1:11

ULT	UST
For I make known to you, brothers, that the gospel having been proclaimed by me is not according to man.	My fellow believers, I want you to know that the message about the Messiah that I proclaim to people is not one that some person created.

Galatians 1:12

ULT	UST
For neither I did receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but by revelation of Jesus Christ.	I was not given this good news by a human being, and no human being taught it to me. Instead, it was God who revealed Jesus the Messiah to me.

How did Paul receive the knowledge of the gospel of Christ?

Paul received the gospel of Christ by revelation from Jesus Christ directly to himself.

Galatians 1:13

ULT	UST
For you have heard about my former manner of life in Judaism, that I was persecuting the church of God beyond measure, and I was destroying it.	People have told you how I used to behave when I practiced the Jewish religion. They told you that I continually did very harmful things to the groups of believers belonging to God, and they told you that I tried to get rid of those people.

What was Paul doing in his life before he received the revelation of the gospel of Christ? (1:13-14)

Paul was following Judaism zealously, persecuting the church of God and destroying it.

ULT	UST
And I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of the same age among my race, being far more zealous for the traditions of my fathers.	I was practicing the Jewish religion more thoroughly than many other Jews who were my age were practicing it. I was also trying much more enthusiastically to get others to obey the traditions that my ancestors kept.

Galatians 1:15

ULT	UST
But when the one having set me apart from the womb of my mother and having called {me} through his grace was pleased	Nevertheless, before I was born God selected me for a special task and he kindly chose me. When God thought that it was good,

When did God choose Paul to be his apostle?

God was pleased to choose Paul from his mother’s womb to be his apostle.

ULT	UST
to reveal his Son in me, so that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood,	he showed me who his Son really is. He did this so that I would tell others the good news about his Son in regions where the non-Jews live. But I did not immediately go to any human beings in order to gain an understanding of that message.

For what purpose did God choose Paul as his apostle?

God chose Paul as his apostle so that Paul would proclaim Christ among the Gentiles.

ULT	UST
nor did I go up to Jerusalem to the ones {being} apostles before me. Instead, I went to Arabia and again returned to Damascus.	I also did not immediately leave Damascus and go to Jerusalem {for that purpose} to those who were representatives of Jesus before I was. Rather, I went away into the region of Arabia{, a desert area}. Later I returned once more to the city of Damascus.

Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and I stayed with him fifteen days.	Then three years after {God revealed this good news to me,} I went up to the city of Jerusalem in order that I might meet Peter. {But} I remained with him for {only} fifteen days.

Where did Paul finally meet some of the other apostles? (1:18-19)

Finally, Paul went to Jerusalem and met the apostles Cephas and James.

Galatians 1:19

ULT	UST
But I did not see any of the other apostles except James, the brother of the Lord.	I also saw James, the brother and representative of our Lord Jesus, but I did not see any other representatives of Jesus.

Now I was unknown by face to the churches of Judea {that are} in Christ.	At that time people in the Christian congregations who were in the province of Judea still had not met me personally

What were the churches in Judea hearing about Paul? (1:22-23)

The churches in Judea were hearing that Paul, who once persecuted the church, was now proclaiming the faith.

ULT	UST
But they were only hearing, "The one formerly persecuting us is now proclaiming the faith which he formerly was destroying,"	They only heard others say about me repeatedly, "Paul, the one who in the past was doing harmful things to us, is now telling the same message which we believe and which formerly he was trying to cause people to stop believing!"

Then after 14 years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, also taking Titus along with {me}.	After fourteen years passed, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas. I also took Titus.

What did Paul do when he went up to Jerusalem after 14 years? (2:1-2)

Paul spoke privately to the leaders of the church, explaining to them the gospel that he was proclaiming.

Galatians 2:2

ULT	UST
Now I went up according to a revelation and set before them the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, but privately to the ones seeming to be important, lest I might run—or had run—in vain.	I went up there because of what God revealed to me. {It was not because someone asked me to come.} I told people the content of the good news that I preach to non-Jews. But I spoke privately to those whom your new teachers highly respect so that what I was doing and what I had done might not become useless. That could have happened if people rejected my message because they thought that I was teaching falsely, {which could have happened if the leaders in Jerusalem would have disagreed with my message}.

Galatians 2:3

ULT	UST
But not even Titus, the one with me, being a Greek, was forced to be circumcised.	But those leaders did not even require Titus, who was with me and was an uncircumcised Gentile, to be circumcised.

What was Titus, a Gentile, not required to do?

Titus was not required to be circumcised.

ULT	UST
But it was because of the secretly brought in false brothers, who came in secretly to spy on our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus so that they will enslave us,	But this problem occurred because {some people demanded that Titus be circumcised} after they had successfully pretended that they were fellow believers and associated with the true believers. They associated with the true believers in order that they might observe closely what we do because we are free from having to obey all the Jewish laws and rituals because of our close relationship with the Messiah Jesus. Those people wanted to make us like slaves of those rituals {by convincing us that we cannot trust the Messiah solely but that we must also obey all the Jewish laws and rituals}.

What did the false brothers desire to do?

The false brothers desired to make Paul and his companions slaves to the law.

ULT	UST
we did not even yield in submission to them for an hour, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with you.	But not even briefly did we do what they wanted regarding circumcision. We resisted them in order that you might continue to have, and benefit from, the true, correct, and unmodified good news.

Galatians 2:6

ULT	UST
But from the ones seeming to be something (what sort they were formerly matters nothing to me; God does not accept the face of man)—for, the ones seeming important added nothing to me.	The leaders in Jerusalem, whom your new teachers respect, did not add anything to what I proclaim. And I would add that what status those leaders had did not influence me, because God does not favor important and powerful persons more than others.

Did the leaders of the church in Jerusalem change Paul's message?

No, they added nothing to Paul's message.

ULT	UST
But on the contrary, having seen that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcision, just as Peter to the circumcision	Instead {of those leaders adding to the content of the message that I tell people,} they understood that God had given me the good news so that I might proclaim it to the non-Jews, just like God had given the good news to Peter so that he might tell it to those who are Jews.

To whom was Paul primarily sent to proclaim the gospel? (2:7-8)

Paul was primarily sent to the uncircumcised, the Gentiles, to proclaim the gospel.

To whom was Peter primarily sent to proclaim the gospel? (2:7-8)

Peter was primarily sent to the circumcised, the Jews, to proclaim the gospel.

ULT	UST
(for the one having worked in Peter for apostleship to the circumcision also worked in me to the Gentiles),	That is, just like God had authorized and empowered Peter in order that he might be a representative of Jesus to take God's message to the Jews, he also had authorized and empowered me in order that I might be a representative of Jesus to take God's message to the non-Jews.

and having understood the grace having been given to me, James and Cephas and John, the ones seeming to be pillars, gave the right hand of fellowship to Barnabas and me, so that we to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision,	Those leaders knew that God had kindly given to me this special mission. So James, Peter, and John, the ones whom your new teachers respect because they are leaders of the believers, shook hands with us to show that they agreed that Barnabas and I are serving the Lord just like they are, and that we are preaching the same message that they are preaching. They also agreed that we are the ones whom God was sending to tell his message to non-Jews, but that God is sending them to tell his message to Jews.

How did the leaders in Jerusalem show their approval of Paul's ministry?

The leaders in Jerusalem gave Paul and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship to show their approval.

ULT	UST
only that we should continue to remember the poor, this same thing that I was also eager to do.	They only urged us to still remember to help the poor among the fellow believers who live in Jerusalem. That is exactly what I have been eager to do.

Galatians 2:11

ULT	UST
But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned.	But later, Peter became guilty of doing wrong things. This happened while he was visiting us in the city of Antioch. So I confronted him directly about those things.

What error did Peter make when he came to Antioch? (2:11-12)

Peter stopped eating with the Gentiles, because he feared the men who had been circumcised.

ULT	UST
For before certain ones came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles. But when they came, he was withdrawing and was separating himself, being afraid of the ones from the circumcision.	This is what happened: Peter had been eating with the non-Jewish believers there. But then some men came who were from {the group of Jewish believers in Jerusalem that} James {was leading}. These men said that believers should keep the Jewish laws. Peter was afraid of what people who want Jewish believers to keep the Jewish laws might do, and so he began to withdraw from the non-Jews and eat with only the Jewish believers.

And the rest of the Jews also joined with him, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy.	Also, the other Jewish believers who were in Antioch acted in a way that they knew was not right, along with Peter{, when they separated themselves from the non-Jewish believers}. The result was that {they convinced} even Barnabas to stop associating with the non-Jewish believers!

Galatians 2:14

ULT	UST
But when I saw that they were not walking correctly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of all {of them}, "If you, being a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?	I had realized that they were not acting forthrightly and in a manner that was consistent with the correct facts and teachings of the good news about the Messiah. {So when all the fellow believers had come together,} I told Peter {the following:} "Although you are a Jew, you often conduct yourself like non-Jews do by disregarding Jewish laws about food. When you are among non-Jews, you do not customarily conduct yourself at all like Jews do. So, now it is wrong that you are causing non-Jews to think that they must obey all the Jewish rituals and customs!

What did Paul ask Cephas in front of everyone?

Paul asked Cephas how he could force Gentiles to live like Jews when Cephas was living like a Gentile.

Galatians 2:15

ULT	UST
We {are} Jews by birth, and not sinners from the Gentiles;	We were born as Jews. {We were} not {born} as non-Jews. We Jews have always considered non-Jews to be 'sinners' because they do not obey the Jewish rituals and laws.

but knowing that no man is justified by works of the law except through faith in Jesus Christ, we also believed in Christ Jesus so that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law. For by works of the law not any flesh will be justified.	But we Jewish believers now know that it is not because some person obeys those things {that God commanded} in the laws {he gave the Jews} that God makes a person righteous. {God makes a person righteous} only if that person trusts in the Messiah Jesus. So even we Jews have trusted the Messiah Jesus. {We did that} so God would declare us good in his sight, because we trust the Messiah, and not because we try to obey the laws that God gave to Moses. We did that because God has said that he will not declare anyone good in his sight just because they obey those laws.

Paul said that no one is justified by what?

Paul said that no one is justified by the works of the law.

How is a person justified before God?

A person is justified before God by faith in Christ Jesus.

ULT	UST
But if, seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves were also found {to be} sinners, {is} Christ then a minister of sin? May it never be!	Furthermore, because we {Jewish believers} desired that God would make us righteous because of our relationship with the Messiah, it means that we ourselves, like non-Jews {whom we called sinners,} also disobeyed the laws and rituals that God gave Moses. But we certainly cannot conclude that it is the Messiah who causes us to sin. No, the Messiah certainly does not cause anyone to sin.

Galatians 2:18

ULT	UST
For if I again rebuild those things which I destroyed, I prove myself to be a transgressor.	If I again believed that God would make me righteous because of my obeying the laws that he gave to Moses, I would be like a man who rebuilds an old building that he had torn down. If I did that I would show that I was guilty of acting wrongly.

If someone returns to trying to follow the law after having faith in Christ, what does Paul say he has actually become?

Paul says he shows himself actually to be a law breaker.

Galatians 2:19

ULT	UST
For I, through the law, died to the law so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ,	I realized that God would not regard me as righteous because I tried to obey the laws that he gave to Moses. So I have decided not to respond to what those laws demand, just like a dead person does not respond to anything. {I decided to do this} so that I may now live to serve God. It is as though I was with the Messiah when he died on the cross.

and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. And that which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith that {is in} the Son of God, the one having loved me and having given himself for me.	My old way of living ended since I began believing in the Messiah. No longer am I directing the way I behave as I did before {I believed in the Messiah}. Now the Messiah is directing how I behave. And whatever I do now while I live in my earthly body, I do it by trusting in God's Son. He is the one who loved me and offered himself as a sacrifice for me.

Who did Paul say now lived in him?

Paul said that Christ now lived in him.

What does Paul say the Son of God did for him?

Paul says the Son of God loved him and gave himself for Paul.

ULT	UST
I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness {is} through the law, then Christ died for nothing!”	*I am not rejecting as useless what God kindly did for me{, as my opponents are doing}. I want to learn only this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by hearing of faith?	{So,} I want to tell you this one thing: God did not give you his Holy Spirit because you obeyed the laws that he gave Moses. Surely you must know that the reason he gave you his Holy Spirit is because when you heard the good news about the Messiah you believed it.

Galatians 3:3

ULT	UST
Are you so foolish? Having begun by Spirit, are you now finishing by flesh?	*You are acting very foolishly! You first became Christians because God's Spirit enabled you. Galatians 3:4

ULT	UST
Have you experienced so many things for nothing—if indeed it was really for nothing?	*{Keep in mind that if} what God has done for you {was because of your obeying the laws that God gave to Moses and not because of trusting in the Messiah then} you suffered many things needlessly! Therefore, the one providing the Spirit to you and working miracles among you, {is it} by works of the law, or by hearing of faith?	So then, when God now generously gives to you his Spirit and performs mighty deeds among you, it is not because you obey the laws that God gave to Moses? Surely you know it is because when you heard the good news about the Messiah you believed it!

Galatians 3:6

ULT	UST
Just as Abraham "believed God and it was credited to him as righteousness,"	{What you have experienced is} just as {Moses had written in the scriptures about Abraham. He wrote that} Abraham trusted God, and {as a result,} God considered Abraham as being righteous.

How was Abraham considered righteous before God?

Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.

Galatians 3:7

ULT	UST
know, then, that the ones by faith, these are sons of Abraham.	You must realize, therefore, that it is those who trust in what the Messiah has done who are like Abraham's descendants {because they trust in God as Abraham did}.

Who are the sons of Abraham?

Those who believe God are the sons of Abraham.

ULT	UST
And the Scripture, having foreseen that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, "In you all the nations will be blessed."	Furthermore, God planned beforehand that it was when non-Jews trusted him that he would consider them righteous. Moses wrote in the Scriptures this good message that God told Abraham: "Through you, I will bless people in all nations."

The scripture foresaw that the Gentiles would be justified in what way?

The scripture foresaw that the Gentiles would be justified by faith.

ULT	UST
So then, the ones by faith are blessed along with the believing Abraham.	So, we can conclude that it is those who trust in what the Messiah has done whom God blesses along with Abraham, the one who trusted him {long ago}.

ULT	UST
For as many as are of works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed {is} everyone who does not abide by all the things written in the Book of the Law to do them."	That is, God will eternally punish all those who mistakenly think that God will consider them righteous as a result of their trying to obey the laws that God gave to Moses. What Moses wrote in the Scriptures is that God will eternally punish everyone who does not continuously and completely obey all the laws that God instructed him to write in the Book of the Law.

Those who rely on the works of the law to be justified are under what?

Those who rely on the works of the law to be justified are under a curse.

ULT	UST
Now, that no one is justified before God by the law {is} clear, because "The righteous will live by faith."	God does not regard any person as righteous as a result of their trying to obey the laws that he gave to Moses. This is evident since {the Scriptures say}, "Every righteous person lives {spiritually} as a result of their trusting {God}."

How many people have been justified by God through the works of the law?

No one has been justified through the works of the law.

ULT	UST
Now the law is not by faith, but, "The one doing these things will live in them."	But when God gave his laws to the Jews, he did not make them dependent upon a person believing in him. Instead {God said that} it is those who obey {all} God's laws, continuously and completely, who will live through obeying them.

Galatians 3:13

ULT	UST
Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse on behalf of us—for it is written, "Cursed {is} everyone hanging on a tree"—	Even though we humans have not continuously and completely obeyed God's laws, the Messiah rescued us from God punishing us eternally. The Messiah rescued us by his being the one God condemned instead of God condemning us. What Moses wrote in the Scriptures shows that this is true. He wrote, "God has cursed anyone whom people have executed {for his crimes} by hanging his body on a tree."

Why did Christ redeem us by becoming a curse for us? (3:13-14)

Christ redeemed us by becoming a curse for us so that the blessing upon Abraham might come to the Gentiles.

ULT	UST
so that the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, so that through faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.	{The Messiah rescued us} in order that as a result of what he has done, God might bless the non-Jews, in a way similar to the way God blessed Abraham. The reason for this is that as a result of our trusting in the Messiah, we all might receive the Holy Spirit whom God promised to give to us.

Galatians 3:15

ULT	UST
Brothers, I speak according to man. Nevertheless, no one sets aside or adds to a covenant established by man.	My fellow believers, I will now illustrate by referring to human relationships. After two people have signed an agreement, no one can reject it or add to it.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, "and to seeds," as to many, but as to one, "and to your seed," who is Christ.	God declared to Abraham and his descendant that he was promising to give blessings to Abraham. The words that God spoke were not "and your descendants." He was not referring to many persons. Instead, he was referring to one person, who is the Messiah, because the words that God spoke were, "and your descendant."

Who was the "descendant" that was spoken of in the promise to Abraham?

The "descendant" spoken of in the promise to Abraham was Christ.

Galatians 3:17

ULT	UST
Now I say this: The law, having come after 430 years, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God to nullify the promise.	This is what I am saying: God established an agreement with Abraham that the laws which he gave to the Jews 430 years later could not cancel.

Did the coming of the Jewish law 430 years after Abraham void the promise God made to Abraham?

No, the law did not void the promise made to Abraham.

ULT	UST
For if the inheritance {is} from the law, {it is} no longer from promise. But God has graciously given {it} to Abraham through a promise.	I want you to know that if it is because we obey the laws God gave to the Jews that he gives to us what he has promised to give to us, then he would not be giving it because he had promised to do so. However, God kindly gave to Abraham what he had promised to give to him, just because God had promised that he would give it to him. {Similarly,} it is not because we obey God's laws that God kindly gives to us what he has promised to give to us.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
Why, then, the law? It was added because of transgressions, having been put into effect through angels by the hand of a mediator until the seed would come to whom the promise had been made.	So, if someone should ask, "Why did God later give his laws to Moses?" I would reply that it was in order that people might realize how sinful they were. Those laws were valid until Jesus came. He was the descendant that God was referring to when he made the promises to Abraham. God gave his laws to Moses by God's causing angels to speak to him. Moses was the mediator, the one who told the laws to the people.

Why then was there the law?

The law came because of transgressions until Abraham's descendant came.

Galatians 3:20

ULT	UST
Now a mediator is not for one, but God is one.	Now, when a mediator functions, one person is not speaking with another directly; but God himself made his promises directly to Abraham.

Galatians 3:21

ULT	UST
Therefore {is} the law against the promises? May it never be! For if a law was given being able to make alive, {then} truly righteousness would have come by the law.	If someone should ask, "When God gave his laws to Moses long after he told Abraham what he was promising to give to him, was he changing his mind?" {I would reply that} God certainly did not change his mind when he did that! If God had given a law that could enable people to live {eternally and spiritually}, then it certainly would be because of people obeying that law that God would consider people righteous.

Galatians 3:22

ULT	UST
But the Scripture imprisoned all things under sin so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to the ones believing.	But, {in fact, it is impossible for the law to enable people to live eternally or spiritually.} Instead, the law given in the Scriptures caused all people to be unable to escape being punished for their sins, just like people in prison are unable to escape. {God did that} in order that he might give what he promised to those who trust Jesus Christ, just because they trust him.

What did the law in scripture imprison everyone under?

The law in scripture imprisoned everyone under sin.

ULT	UST
Now before the faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the faith about to be revealed.	Before God revealed the good news about trusting in the Messiah, the laws that God gave to Moses were confining us, as a prisoner in jail is confined. This happened until the time we might believe the good news concerning the Messiah, the good news that God was about to reveal {and now has}.

How are we released from the imprisonment of the law? (3:23-26)

We are released from the imprisonment of the law by faith in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:24

ULT	UST
So the law became our guardian until Christ, so that we might be justified by faith.	Like a father supervises his immature child by appointing a servant to take care of that child, God was supervising us by his laws until the Messiah {came}. {He did this} in order that he might now declare us righteous in his sight {only} because we trust in the Messiah.

Galatians 3:25

ULT	UST
But faith having come, we are no longer under a guardian.	But now that God has revealed the message about trusting in the Messiah, the laws that God gave to Moses no longer supervise us.

Galatians 3:26

ULT	UST
For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.	Now all of you {Jews and non-Jews} are {as though you are} God's children because you trust in the Messiah Jesus. You are {now} in close spiritual union with the Messiah Jesus {because you believe in Him}.

Galatians 3:27

ULT	UST
For as many as have been baptized into Christ put on Christ.	That is, you who {began a relationship with the Messiah when you} were baptized identified yourselves with Christ.

Who has been clothed in Christ?

All who have been baptized into Christ have been clothed in Christ.

ULT	UST
There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.	If you believe in the Messiah, it does not matter to God if you are Jews or non-Jews; slaves or ones who are not slaves; males or females, because all of you are as one sort of person because of your relationship with the Messiah Jesus.

What different kinds of persons are made one in Christ Jesus?

Jews, Greeks, slaves, free, male, and female are all made one in Christ Jesus.

ULT	UST
Now if you {are} of Christ, then you are seed of Abraham, heirs according to promise.	Furthermore, since you belong to the Messiah, you are {like} Abraham's descendants because you trust God as Abraham did, and you will possess what God promised Abraham.

Galatians 4

Galatians 4:1

ULT	UST
Now I say, for as much time as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, being master of all.	Now, I will further discuss children and heirs. An heir is a person who will later possess and control all that his father has. But as long as that heir is a child, others control him, with the result that he is just like a slave.

How does the heir of an estate live while he is a child? (4:1-2)

The heir lives like a slave under guardians and trustees until the time set by his father.

Galatians 4:2

ULT	UST
But he is under guardians and stewards until the date appointed by his father.	Until the day that his father has {previously} determined, other persons supervise the child and manage his property.

Galatians 4:3

ULT	UST
So also, when we were children, we were being enslaved under the elemental principles of the world.	Likewise, when we were spiritually immature {because we did not yet believe in the Messiah}, we submitted to the rules that everyone in this world lives by. Those rules controlled us like masters control their slaves.

Galatians 4:4

ULT	UST
But when the fullness of time came, God sent forth his Son, having been born from a woman, having been born under the law,	But exactly at the time that God had previously determined, he sent Jesus his Son, into the world. {Jesus was} born to a human mother, and he had to obey the laws that God gave to Moses.

What did God do at the right time in history? (4:4-5)

At the right time, God sent forth his Son to redeem those under the law.

ULT	UST
in order that he might redeem the ones under the law, so that we might receive the adoption as sons.	God sent Jesus to rescue us who had to obey God's laws he gave to Moses from being condemned for not obeying these laws. God did this so that we might all receive from him the status of being his children.

How did God bring children who were under the law into his family?

God adopted as sons the children who were under the law.

Galatians 4:6

ULT	UST
And because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father."	Furthermore, God sent the Spirit to live in our inner beings because we are now in such a close relationship with God it is as though we are his children. It is his Spirit who enables us to fervently call out {to God}, "Father, Father!"

What does God send forth into the hearts of his children?

God sends forth the Spirit of his Son into the hearts of his children.

ULT	UST
So then, you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, also an heir through God.	So, because of what God has done, no longer is each of you like a slave. Instead, each of you is like a child of God. Furthermore, since each of you is now like God's child, God has also made each of you his heir, one to whom he will give all that he has promised.

Galatians 4:8

ULT	UST
But at that time, not having known God, you were enslaved to the ones by nature not being gods.	When you did not have a relationship with God, you served gods that really did not exist. You were like slaves at that time, because you were in spiritual bondage.

Before we know God, to whom are we slaves?

Before we know God, we are slaves to the spirits that rule the world, who are not gods at all.

ULT	UST
But now, having come to know God, or rather, having come to be known by God, how are you turning again to the weak and worthless elemental principles to which once more you want to be enslaved again?	But now you have come to intimately know God. Perhaps it would be better to say that now God intimately knows each of you. So now you are acting foolishly! You are again believing that by obeying rules and rites you will benefit spiritually! Those rules are ineffective and inadequate! You are wanting to obey them again like slaves obey their masters.

As he sees the Galatians turning back, what does Paul fear for them? (4:9-11)

Paul fears that the Galatians will become slaves again, and that he has labored in vain over them.

Paul was perplexed that the Galatians were returning to what?

Paul was perplexed that the Galatians were returning again to the ruling spirits of the world.

Galatians 4:10

You observe days and months and seasons and years!	You non-Jews are carefully practicing Jewish rules and rituals regarding what you should do on Jewish special days and at special times in certain months, seasons, and years.

ULT	UST
I beg you, brothers, become as I am, because I also {became} as you {are}. You did me no harm.	My fellow believers, I strongly urge you that you do as I do. {Stop thinking that you have to obey the Jewish rules and ceremonial laws prescribed by the law of Moses.} When I was with you, I did not obey all the Jewish rules and ceremonial laws, just like you did not obey them. At that time you treated me entirely as you should have.

Galatians 4:13

ULT	UST
Now you know that because of a weakness of the flesh I proclaimed the gospel to you previously.	You remember that I originally told you the good news because I was physically weak {and was recovering}. Because of the opportunity which that sickness provided I was able to tell you the good news.

When Paul first came to the Galatians, what problem did he have?

When Paul first came to the Galatians, he had a physical illness.

ULT	UST
And you did not despise your trial in my flesh nor reject me, but you welcomed me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus.	Although you might have treated me contemptuously because of my physical malady, you did not treat me contemptuously or reject me. Instead, you welcomed me like you would welcome an angel that came from God. You welcomed me like you would welcome the Messiah Jesus himself!

Despite Paul’s problem, how did the Galatians receive him?

Despite Paul’s problem, the Galatians received Paul as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus.

Galatians 4:15

ULT	UST
Where, then, {is} your blessing? For I testify to you that, if possible, having torn out your eyes, you would have given {them} to me.	I am disappointed that you have forgotten that then you declared that you were pleased with me. I know for certain that you would have done anything to help me.

Galatians 4:16

ULT	UST
So then, speaking truth to you, have I become your enemy?	So I am very disappointed that you now act as though I have become hostile to you because I have kept speaking the true message about the Messiah to you.

Galatians 4:17

ULT	UST
They are zealous for you, not rightly, but they desire to separate you so that you would be zealous for them.	Those who are insisting on obeying the Jewish laws are eagerly showing interest in you, but they are not doing this because they have good motives. They are doing this because they want you not to associate with me and others who teach what is true about the Messiah. They desire that instead of you associating with us, you will eagerly show interest in them, not in us.

Who are the false teachers in Galatia trying to separate?

The false teachers are trying to separate the Galatians from Paul.

ULT	UST
But {it is} good to be zealous for good at all times and not only when I am present with you.	But, it is an honorable thing to eagerly desire to do the right things at all times. I would like you to eagerly desire to do the right things, both when I am with you and when I am absent.

Galatians 4:19

ULT	UST
My children, with whom I am in labor again until Christ would be formed in you—	You who are like my children, once again I am very concerned about you, and I will continue to be concerned about you until you become like the Messiah in your thinking and in your conduct.

ULT	UST
but I am desiring to be present with you now and to change my tone, because I am perplexed about you.	But I do wish that I could be with you now and that I might talk more gently with you, because right now I do not know what to do about you.

Under what are the false teachers trying to put the Galatians? (4:20-21)

The false teachers are trying to put the Galatians back under the law.

ULT	UST
Tell me, you desiring to be under the law, do you not listen to the law?	Some of you desire to obey all the laws that God gave Moses. I say that you should consider the implications of what Moses wrote in the Scriptures.

Galatians 4:22

ULT	UST
For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave girl and one by the free woman.	He wrote that Abraham became the father of two sons. His female slave, Hagar, bore one son, and his wife Sarah, who was not a slave, bore the other.

From which two kinds of women did Abraham have two sons?

Abraham had two sons, one from a slave woman and one from a free woman.

ULT	UST
And the one was born from the slave girl according to flesh, but the {other}, from the free woman, through promise.	Also, the sons differed. Ishmael, the son born by Hagar, the female slave, was conceived naturally. But Isaac, the son born by Sarah, his wife who was not a slave, was conceived miraculously because God intervened in order to fulfill what he had promised Abraham.

Galatians 4:24

ULT	UST
These things are being spoken as an allegory, for they are two covenants. One {is} from Mount Sinai, giving birth to slavery; this is Hagar.	I am telling you this as an illustration. These two women symbolize two agreements. God made the first agreement, which involved obeying the laws that God gave to Moses at Mount Sinai. Because that agreement forces those who accept it to keep obeying all its rules, it is like a slave mother who gives birth to slaves. So Hagar, the female slave, symbolizes this agreement.

(There are no questions for this verse)

Galatians 4:25

ULT	UST
Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.	Also Hagar symbolizes the agreement, with its laws and rituals, that God gave to Moses on Mount Sinai, in the land of Arabia. Hagar also symbolizes the Jewish religion. The Jewish religion is like a slave mother, and those who practice the Jewish religion are like slave children because they all must obey the laws that God gave to Moses.

ULT	UST
But the Jerusalem above is free, which is our mother.	But there is a heavenly Jerusalem, and because we belong to the heavenly Jerusalem, it is like a mother to all of us {who believe in the Messiah}. Those who belong to the heavenly Jerusalem are free from having to obey the laws of Moses and free from being condemned for failing to obey those laws.

Who is the symbolic mother of Paul and the believing Galatians?

The Jerusalem above, the free woman, is the symbolic mother of Paul and the believing Galatians.

ULT	UST
For it is written, "Rejoice, you barren woman, the one not giving birth; break forth and shout, you {who are} not suffering the pains of childbirth; because the children of the desolate one {are} many more than of the one having a husband."	Our new city will have more people than those who live in Jerusalem now. It will be just like Isaiah foretold {about the people whom he expected would come back to Jerusalem from exile}. {He expected that they would be more numerous than those who were taken into exile.} He wrote: You who live in Jerusalem, you will rejoice! Now you have no children, like a barren woman who does not give birth to children! But some day you will shout joyfully, as loudly as you can, even though now you are few in number, like a woman who cannot give birth to children, and you feel deserted. You will be very happy because you will have many children who will come to you. Those children will be more than the children any woman with a husband could have borne.

ULT	UST
Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.	Now, my fellow believers, you have become children of God because God has fulfilled what he promised to Abraham. You are like Isaac{, who was born because God fulfilled what he promised to give Abraham}.

Are believers in Christ children of the flesh or children of the promise?

Believers in Christ are children of the promise.

ULT	UST
But just as then, the one having been born according to flesh was persecuting the one according to Spirit, so {it} also {is} now.	Also, long ago Abraham's son Ishmael, the one who was conceived naturally, caused trouble for Abraham's son Isaac, who was conceived supernaturally. Similarly, now those who think that we must obey the laws that God gave to Moses in order that God will save us are causing trouble for those who are trusting Abraham's descendant, the Messiah.

Who persecutes the children of the promise?

The children of the flesh persecute the children of the promise.

Galatians 4:30

ULT	UST
But what does the scripture say? "Cast out the slave girl and her son. For the son of the slave girl will certainly not inherit with the son of the free woman."	But Moses wrote these words in a scripture passage in Genesis: "The son of the woman who was not a slave will inherit what his father owns. The female slave's son will certainly not inherit those things. So send away from this place the female slave and her son!"

With whom do the children of the slave woman not inherit?

The children of the slave woman do not inherit along with the children of the free woman.

ULT	UST
Therefore, brothers, we are not children of a slave girl, but of the free woman.	My fellow believers, Hagar symbolizes the laws that God gave to Moses. But we are not those who must obey all the laws that God gave to Moses. So we are not the female slave Hagar's spiritual descendants. But Sarah's descendants are those who were born as a result of God fulfilling what he promised to Abraham. So we are the spiritual descendants of Sarah, the woman who was not a slave.

Are believers in Christ children of the slave woman or children of the free woman?

Believers in Christ are children of the free woman.

Galatians 5

Galatians 5:1

ULT	UST
For freedom Christ set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not again be subjected to a yoke of slavery.	The Messiah freed us {believers} {from having to obey the laws God gave the Jews} in order that we would not have to obey {them}. So continue to be steadfastly committed {to the Lord}. Do not let anyone force you to obey {those laws} again as if you were slaves {to those laws}.

For what purpose has Christ set us free?

For freedom Christ has set us free.

Galatians 5:2

ULT	UST
Behold, I, Paul, say to you that if you would be circumcised, Christ will benefit you nothing.	I am Paul. Pay attention to what I am telling you! If you let anyone circumcise you, what the Messiah has done for you will not help you at all!

What did Paul warn the Galatians would happen if they became circumcised?

Paul said that if the Galatians became circumcised, Christ would not benefit them in any way.

Galatians 5:3

ULT	UST
Now I testify again to every man being circumcised that he is obligated to do the whole law.	Once again I solemnly declare to every man who has someone circumcise him, that he must obey all of the laws {God gave the Jews} {in order to be righteous}.

Galatians 5:4

ULT	UST
For through the Spirit, by faith, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness.	{This is so} because we {believers} are confidently expecting by trusting {in Jesus} that God will make us righteous. The Holy Spirit enables us {to do this}.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is capable of anything, but {only} faith working through love.	{This is so} because {when} God has united {us} with the Messiah Jesus, whether people are circumcised or not is not important. Rather, only whether we trust {in the Messiah} is important. We show we trust {in the Messiah} by loving others.

As opposed to circumcision and uncircumcised, what is the only thing that means anything in Christ Jesus?

In Christ Jesus, only faith working through love means anything.

Galatians 5:7

ULT	UST

ULT	UST
I am confident in you in the Lord that you will think nothing otherwise. But the one troubling you will bear the judgment, whoever he may be.	Because God has united {us} with the Lord {Jesus}, I am certain that you will believe only {what I have told you}. By contrast, God will certainly punish everyone who is confusing you {about these things}, whoever they are.

Of what is Paul confident regarding the one who has confused the Galatians about the gospel?

Paul is confident that the one who has confused the Galatians about the gospel will bear God's judgment.

ULT	UST
But brothers, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the stumbling block of the cross has been removed.	Fellow believers, as for me, were I to still declare that men must have someone circumcise them {in order to be righteous}, surely no one would still be persecuting me! {This is because} declaring that would abolish how offensive {Jesus dying on} the cross is.

Paul says that proclaiming circumcision does what?

Paul says that in proclaiming circumcision, the stumbling block of the cross would be destroyed.

ULT	UST
I wish the ones disturbing you will even castrate themselves!	O that those who are upsetting you would just castrate themselves!

Galatians 5:13

ULT	UST
For you have been called to freedom, brothers, only not the freedom for an opportunity for the flesh; rather, through love serve one another.	Fellow believers, God has called you to free you {from having to obey the laws God gave the Jews}. But he did not free you {from those laws} so you could sin. Instead {of sinning}, serve each other by loving {each other}!

Now I say, walk by the Spirit and you would certainly not fulfill desires of the flesh.	I am telling you to let the Holy Spirit lead you. {If you do that,} you will definitely not do what your {sinful} selves want to do.

How can believers not fulfill the lust of the flesh?

Believers can live by the Spirit, and thus, not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

ULT	UST
For the flesh desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh. For these oppose each other, so that you are not doing these things that you would desire.	{This is} because your sinful selves {want to do what} is contrary to what the Holy Spirit {wants to do}. Also, {what} the Holy Spirit {wants to do is contrary to what} your sinful selves {want to do}. {This is} because they are always against each other. The result is that you do not {always} do the {good} things that you {truly} want to do.

But let each one examine his own work, and then he will have reason to boast in himself alone and not in someone else.	Instead, each of you should constantly evaluate what you do. {Only} then might you be able to rightly boast about {what} you {have done} on your own instead {of wrongly boasting} about {what} someone else {has done}.

Hebrews 3:12

ULT	UST
Watch out, brothers, so that there will not be in any of you a wicked heart of unbelief, in the falling away from the living God.	Fellow believers, pay attention! Make sure that none of you think in evil and unbelieving ways that would lead you to become disloyal to the only real God.

Of what are the brothers warned to be careful?

Hebrews 3:13

ULT	UST
Instead, exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," so that no one among you is hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.	Rather, you should encourage each other {to be loyal to God} daily, during every day that we call "this day." That way, none of you sin and thus deceive yourselves, which would make you unable to obey God.

What are the brothers to do in order to avoid being hardened by the deceitfulness of sin?

The brothers are to encourage one another daily.

ULT	UST
For we have become sharers of Christ, if indeed we hold firm the beginning of our confidence until the end,	{You should encourage each other,} because we share {in everything} with the Messiah. {That is true} as long as we persist in trusting him, from when we began to do so until we die.

As partners of Christ, what must believers do?

As partners of Christ, believers must firmly hold their confidence in him from the beginning to the end.

ULT	UST
while it is said, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."	{You should encourage each other} while the Holy Spirit says, "This day, when you hear God speak {to you}, do not stubbornly disobey him. {That is what your ancestors did} when they rebelled against God."

ULT	UST
And with whom was he very angry for 40 years? {Was it} not with the ones having sinned, whose corpses fell in the wilderness?	You know that it was God's people, who did what was wrong, with whom God was angry for a period of 40 years. They died in the wild places.

Hebrews 3:19

ULT	UST
And we see that they were not able to enter, because of unbelief.	So, we can tell that they could not participate {in how God rests} because they did not trust {in him}.

Why were the disobedient Israelites not able to enter God’s rest?

Hebrews 4

Hebrews 4:1

ULT	UST
Therefore, let us be afraid lest {while} there remains a promise to enter into his rest, any of you might seem to have failed {to attain it}.	So, {we can tell that} God still promises that his people will participate in how he rests. Because of that, we need to make sure that every one of you really receives {what God has promised}.

Hebrews 4:2

ULT	UST
For we also are having good news proclaimed {to us} just as to them also. But the message of the hearing did not benefit them, not having been joined in faith with the ones having heard {it}.	{We need to make sure of this,} because we heard the good news just like they did. However, because they were not among those people who believed in what they heard, what they heard did not help them.

The believers and the Israelites had both heard the good news about God's rest.

Why did the good news not benefit the Israelites?

The good news did not benefit the Israelites because they did not join in faith with those who believed it.

ULT	UST
For we, the ones having believed enter into rest, just as he said, "As I swore in my wrath, '...if they will enter into my rest!'" although his works were finished from the foundation of the world.	{That is} because {only} we who believe {in the good news} participate in how God rests, {but those who do not believe do not participate in it}. As the Holy Spirit says, "So then, because he was angry with them, he solemnly declared, 'They will never participate in how I rest!'" {God said this} even though he stopped working {and rested} after he created the world.

When did God finish his created works and then rest? (4:3-4)

God finished his created works at the beginning of the world and then rested on the seventh day.

Who are the ones who enter God's rest?

Those who have believed enter God's rest.

ULT	UST
For he has somewhere spoken thus about the seventh {day}: "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works."	{You know that God rested} because of what the Holy Spirit says elsewhere about the seventh {day of the week}. {He says,} "Then, when {it was} the seventh day {of the week}, God finished working {to create everything}, and he rested."

ULT	UST
And again in this {passage}, "...if they will enter into my rest!"	But {note} again {what God says about the Israelite ancestors} in the words that I already quoted: "They will never participate in how I rest!"

What did God say about the Israelites and his rest? (4:5-6)

God said that the Israelites would not enter his rest.

Hebrews 4:6

ULT	UST
Therefore, since it remains {for} some to enter into it, and the ones previously having had the good news proclaimed {to them} did not enter because of their disobedience,	So then, the Israelite ancestors who heard the good news in the past did not obey God, and so they did not participate in how God rests. However, God still wants some people to participate in how he rests.

he again sets a certain day, calling it "Today," speaking through David after so much time, just as it has already been said, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts."	*{Because of that,} the Holy Spirit once more picked a time {when we can participate in how God rests}. {That time is} what we call "this day." {He did this} when he spoke through David a long time after {the Israelite ancestors disobeyed}. For if Joshua gave them rest, he would not have spoken about another day after these things.	So, the Holy Spirit refers to a different day {when God's people can participate in how God rests} that comes after the day {when Joshua led the Israelite ancestors into the land that God had promised them}. This means that {when Joshua did that,} he did not help them participate in how God rests.

A Sabbath rest is still reserved for God's people.

ULT	UST
For the one having entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, just as God {did} from his own {works}.	In fact, the people who participate in how God rests also finish what they are doing and rest. {They do this} just like God finished {creating everything} and rested.

A person who enters God's rest also rests from what?

A person who enters God's rest also rests from his works.

ULT	UST
Therefore, let us be eager to enter into that rest so that no one might fall into the same example of this disobedience.	Because of all that, we should focus on participating in how God rests. That way, none {of us} disobeys {God} like the Israelite ancestors did.

Why should believers be eager to enter God's rest?

Believers should be eager to enter God's rest so that they do not fall into disobedience as the Israelites did.

ULT	UST
For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.	{You need to pay attention to these things,} because what God speaks {is like a person who} lives and does things, including discerning what people think and plan. {It does that as if it were} a sword with two very sharp edges that could cut apart people's bones from their tendons and that could divide up people's inner lives.

Hebrews 4:14

ULT	UST
Therefore, having a great high priest {who} has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us firmly hold to our confession.	So, a powerful ruling priest works for us, one who ascended through the heavens. He is Jesus, God's Son. Because of that, we need to persist in believing what we say we believe.

Who serves as the great high priest for believers?

Jesus, the Son of God, serves as the great high priest for believers.

ULT	UST
For we do not have a high priest {who} is not able to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one having been tempted according to all things, according to our likeness, {yet} without sin.	Now the ruling priest who works for us can very well understand how weak we are. In fact, he experienced many times how doing what is wrong seems to be good, just like we do. However, he never sinned.

Why does Jesus feel sympathy for the weaknesses of believers?

Jesus feels sympathy for the weaknesses of believers because he was in all ways tempted.

How many times did Jesus sin?

Jesus never sinned. Jesus was without sin.

ULT	UST
Let us then approach with confidence to the throne of grace so that we may receive mercy and find grace for timely help.	So then, we should boldly go closer to God, who rules graciously. That way, he will act mercifully and kindly toward us when we need him to help us.

Hebrews 5

ULT	UST
For every high priest, being taken from among men on the behalf of men, is appointed {in} the things related to God so that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins;	When God appoints a person to be a ruling priest, he selects that person from a group of people in order to serve God for that group. The ruling priest then presents {to God} what people give or sacrifice to take away sins.

ULT	UST
being able to deal gently with the ones being ignorant and being deceived, because he also is subject to weakness.	{Every ruling priest} is weak. Because of that, he can act patiently toward those who do not know much about God and toward those who believe and do what is wrong.

(There are no questions for this verse)

Hebrews 5:3

ULT	UST
And because of this, he is obligated, just as for the people, so also for himself, to offer {sacrifices} for sins.	Further, because {each ruling priest is weak}, God requires him to present a sacrifice to take away his own sins, just like {he presents sacrifices} to take away {the sins of} the rest of the people {of Israel}.

In addition to the people, for whom does the high priest also present sacrifices?

The high priest also presents sacrifices for his own sins.

ULT	UST
And no one takes this honor for himself, but {only} being called by God, just as also Aaron {was}.	Now people cannot decide to become honorable ruling priests on their own. Rather, God chooses {each person who will be a ruling priest}, just like {he chose} Aaron{, the first ruling priest}.

How does a man receive the honor of being a high priest of God?

A man must be called by God to be a high priest of God.

ULT	UST
In the same way also, Christ did not glorify himself to become a high priest. Instead, the one having spoken to him {said}, "You are my Son; today I have fathered you."	*Similarly, the Messiah too did not decide to become a glorious ruling priest on his own. God declared Christ to be a high priest.

Hebrews 5:6

ULT	UST

He did this because God could rescue him when he died. Because he honored God, God listened to him {and made him alive again}.*

Why was Christ heard by God when he prayed?

ULT	UST
For even though by this time you ought to be teachers, you again have need of someone to teach you the elementary principles of the oracles of God, and you have become ones having a need of milk, not solid food!	{You have believed in the Messiah} for long enough that you should be teaching others {about God}. Instead, though, someone still has to teach you simple things about what God says. You are like babies who have to drink milk rather than being like adults who eat food.

(There are no questions for this verse)

Hebrews 5:13

ULT	UST
For anyone partaking of milk {is} inexperienced {with the} message of righteousness, because he is an infant.	All people who know very little about what is right {and what is wrong} are like people who drink only milk. In fact, they are like babies.

Hebrews 5:14

ULT	UST
But this solid food is for the mature ones, having through habit trained their senses for distinguishing both {what is} good and {what is} evil.	On the other hand, people who know much about God are {like adults who eat} food. These people have consistently practiced how to recognize and then distinguish between what is right and what is wrong.

ULT	UST
And indeed here mortal men receive tithes, but there he is testified about that he lives on.	In Moses' law, we learn about how priests receive one tenth {of what the rest of the Israelites earn or grow}, but these priests all die. In the story about Melchizedek, we learn that he {also received one tenth of what Abraham took from his enemies}, but he continues to live.

Hebrews 7:9

ULT	UST
And, so to speak, Levi, the one collecting tithes, also had paid a tithe through Abraham,	In fact, in a way, Levi {and the priests from his clan} gave one tenth {of what they had to Melchizedek} when Abraham {gave him one tenth}. {This is true even though} they are the ones who receive one tenth {from what the Israelites have}.

In what way did Levi himself also pay tithes to Melchizedek? (7:9-10)

Levi also paid tithes to Melchizedek, because Levi was of the seed of Abraham, and Abraham paid tithes to Melchizedek.

ULT	UST
because he was still in the loin of his father when Melchizedek met him.	{What I have said makes sense} because Levi {had not yet been born} and was{, in a way,} still inside Abraham, his great-grandfather, when he and Melchizedek met together.

ULT	UST
If indeed then, perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people had been given {the law}), what further need {was there} for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek and to not be said {to be} according to the order of Aaron?	Now God made the law that he gave to the Israelites depend on having the descendants of Levi serve as priests. So, suppose that people could become what God wanted them to be through what these priests did to serve God. {In that case,} God would never have appointed another priest to serve in the way that Melchizedek was a priest instead of in the way that Aaron was a priest. {However, God did appoint this kind of priest.}

Hebrews 7:12

ULT	UST
For {when} the priesthood is changed, from necessity a change of the law also takes place.	{You can tell that God made the law depend on having the descendants of Levi serve as priests,} because the law must change whenever the way that people serve as priests changes.

What must also be changed when the priesthood changes?

The law must be changed when the priesthood changes.

Hebrews 7:13

ULT	UST
For he about whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar.	{You can tell that God has changed how people serve as priests,} because Jesus, whom God has called {a priest}, is not one of the descendants of Levi but is a descendant of one of Levi's brothers. No descendant of this man has served as a priest.

Hebrews 7:14

ULT	UST
For {it is} obvious that our Lord has sprung up from Judah, a tribe in regard to which Moses said nothing concerning priests.	In fact, we all know that our Lord {Jesus} is a descendant of {Levi's brother} Judah, and Moses did not write down anything about descendants of Judah serving as priests.

From which tribe did Jesus descend, and had this tribe served before at the altar as priests?

Jesus descended from the tribe of Judah, which had never before served at the altar as priests.

ULT	UST
And this is still even more obvious if another priest emerges according to the likeness of Melchizedek,	Further, {you can tell} even more clearly {that God has changed how people serve as priests,} since God has appointed a different kind of priest{, Jesus,} who serves God like Melchizedek did.

ULT	UST
who has become {a priest} not according to a law of a fleshly command, but according to the power of an indestructible life.	He serves as a priest because nothing can keep him from living, which makes him a powerful {priest}. {As this kind of priest,} he does not depend on what God commanded in Moses' law about how human priests {are descendants of Levi}.

On what basis did Jesus become a priest after the order of Melchizedek?

Jesus became a priest after the order of Melchizedek based on the power of an indestructible life.

ULT	UST
For it is being testified: "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."	{You can tell that this is true about him}, because God the Father said {to him}: "You will never stop being a priest in the same way that Melchizedek was a priest."

ULT	UST
For on the one hand, there is an annulment of the former commandment because it {is} weak and useless	What this means is that God withdrew what he had first commanded {about priests}. {He did this because} that way of doing things was ineffective.

What has been set aside because it is weak and useless? (7:18-19)

The former commandment, the Law, has been set aside because it is weak and useless.

ULT	UST
(for the law perfected nothing), and on the other hand {is} the introduction of a better hope, through which we come near to God.	{That way was ineffective} because people could not become what God wanted them to be by doing what God previously commanded. Now what this also means is that God provided something better for us to confidently expect. When we confidently expect this, we go closer to God.

Hebrews 7:20

ULT	UST
And by as much as not without swearing an oath,—for indeed they without swearing an oath are become priests,	Now God did not guarantee what he said when he made some of the descendants of Levi to be priests. However, he did guarantee what he said {when he made} the Messiah {to be a priest}. Here is what God said to him: "The Lord has guaranteed what he says, and he will not do something else: 'You will never stop being a priest!'" However, he did guarantee what he said {when he made} the Messiah {to be a priest}. Here is what God said to him: "The Lord has guaranteed what he says, and he will not do something else: 'You will never stop being a priest!'" So, just as {Jesus serves as a greater priest because} God guaranteed what he said {when he made him a priest}, (vv20-21)

Hebrews 7:22

and according to so much more, Jesus has become a guarantor of a better covenant.	so also there is a better agreement, which Jesus guarantees.

Of what is Jesus the guarantee?

Jesus is the guarantee of a better covenant.

ULT	UST
And the ones, on the one hand, having become priests are many, since by death they are prevented {from} continuing,	Further, each one {of the descendants of Levi} died and so could not continue {to serve as a priest}. Because of that, there have been many {descendants of Levi} who have served as priests.

Hebrews 7:26

ULT	UST
For such a high priest was indeed suitable for us: holy, innocent, pure, separated from the sinners, and having become higher than the heavens;	*Jesus is exactly the kind of ruling priest that we need. ULT	UST who does not have each day a need, even as the high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first on behalf of his own sins {and} then {on behalf of} those of the people, for he did this, having offered himself once and never again.	Now each {descendant of Levi who serves as a} ruling priest has to present sacrifices {to God} every day. First, he presents a sacrifice to take away his own sins, and after that he presents a sacrifice to take away the sins of the rest of the Israelites. However, Jesus {took away everyone's sins} when he presented himself {as a sacrifice} one time, so he does not need {to present many sacrifices}.

What offering did Jesus make for the sins of the people?

Jesus offered up himself once for the sins of the people.

ULT	UST
For the law appoints {as} high priests men having weakness, but the word of the swearing of an oath, which {came} after the law, {appoints} a Son, having been made perfect forever.	In the end, God commanded through Moses that some people should serve as priests, but these priests are weak {and die}. In contrast, when God guaranteed what he said, which he did after he had commanded {those things through Moses}, he enabled his Son {to serve} always as the most effective {priest}.

How is Jesus different from the priests who were appointed through the Law?

The priests who were appointed through the Law were weak, but Jesus has been made perfect forever.

Hebrews 8

Hebrews 8:1

ULT	UST
Now the point concerning the things being said {is this}: We have such a high priest who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,	Here is the main idea that I am writing about: a ruling priest like the one I have described is serving for us. He has gone to be with God {the Father} in the heavenly places, and he has begun to rule.

Where is the believers' high priest sitting?

The believers' high priest is sitting at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens.

Where is the true tabernacle?

The true tabernacle is in the heavens.

ULT	UST
For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, because of which {it is} necessary also for this one to have something that he might offer.	Now God makes people ruling priests so that they can present sacrifices. Because {that is what ruling priests do}, Jesus too needed to present a sacrifice.

What is necessary for every priest to have?

Every priest must have something to offer.

ULT	UST
Now if indeed he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, {since} there are the ones offering the gifts according to the law;	So, because the priests {who are descendants of Levi already} present sacrifices {on earth} as God commanded, Jesus would not be serving as a priest were he on earth {right now}.

Where were the priests who offered gifts according to the Law?

The priests who offered gifts according to the Law were on the earth.

ULT	UST
who serve an example and a shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses had been warned, being about to complete the tabernacle, for he says, "See that you will make everything according to the type that was shown to you on the mountain."	Those priests do what God requires {in a sanctuary that} models the heavenly {sanctuary}. {You can tell that this is true,} because God revealed it to Moses when Moses was going to have the Israelites construct the sacred tent. {At that time,} God spoke to him, "Make sure that everything {about the sacred tent} matches the original {sanctuary} that I revealed to you {when you were with me} on Mount Sinai!"

ULT	UST
But now he has obtained a far superior ministry, in as much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been legislated on better promises.	But here is what is true {about Jesus}: he serves in a much better way {than the descendants of Levi do}. In the same way, the agreement that God has made with his people through Jesus is greater {than the agreement that God made with the Israelites}. That is because God promised greater things when he made this new agreement.

Why does Christ have a superior priestly ministry?

Christ has a superior priestly ministry because he is the mediator of a better covenant, established on better promises.

ULT	UST
For if that first {covenant} would have been faultless, no place would have been sought {for} a second one.	Now {you can tell that} the agreement that God made with the Israelites was not perfect, because God chose to make another agreement.

In the sacred chest, {they put} a gold container with manna inside{, the food that God gave the Israelites while they lived in the desert}. {They also put in it} Aaron's staff that God caused to produce leaves. {They also put in it} the stone slabs {on which Moses wrote the most important parts} of the agreement with God.*

He has to take blood {from an animal with him}, which he presents {to God} to take away his own {sins} and the sins that the rest of the Israelites committed by accident.*

which {is} a parable for the present time, according to which both gifts and sacrifices are being offered, not being able according to the conscience to perfect the worshiper,	*This {first section of the earthly sacred tent} figuratively describes the time in which those Israelites lived. ULT	UST
But Christ, having come as a high priest of the good things having come into existence, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by human hands, that is, not of this creation;	*In contrast, when the Messiah began to serve as a ruling priest, {he gave us} the good things that we now have. and not by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered into the holy {places} once and never again, having himself obtained eternal redemption.	Then, when he went into the {heavenly} Most Holy Place only one time, he did not present blood from animals that someone sacrificed{, like the priests who are descendants of Levi do}. Instead, he presented his own blood and freed {his people} from their sins forever.

how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse yourconscience from dead works to serve the living God!	{Since that is true,} what the Messiah does with his blood cleanses people much more! He presented himself as a perfect sacrifice to God, and the Spirit who lives forever enabled him to do so. He cleanses the inside of you all, removing what you do that accomplishes nothing and enabling you to do what the only real God requires.

What does Christ’s blood do for the believer?

Christ’s blood cleanses the believer’s conscience from dead deeds to serve the living God.

ULT	UST
And for this reason, he is a mediator of a new covenant, so that, a death having happened for redemption of the transgressions {related} to the first covenant, the ones called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.	Because {the Messiah cleanses the inside of people}, God has made a new agreement through him. That way, God gives to those whom he chose what he promised that they would receive forever. {That can happen because Jesus} died to free {his people} from what they did wrong when they disobeyed the agreement that God made with Israel.

Of what is Christ the mediator?

Christ is the mediator of a new covenant.

ULT	UST
For where {there is} a covenant, {there is} a necessity for the death of the one having covenanted {it} to be proven.	Now when someone sets up a will, {which is a type of agreement,} that person needs to die before the will becomes effective.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
For a covenant {is} in force on the basis of the dead, because it never has force when the one covenanting {it} lives.	In fact, every will is valid only because of a dead person. {That is} because a will is not effective while the person who set it up is alive.

What is required in order for a will to be in force?

A death is required in order for a will to be in force.

ULT	UST
So not even the first {covenant} had been inaugurated without blood.	Much like that, God definitely required {the Israelites to use} blood when he made the agreement with them.

Hebrews 9:22

ULT	UST
And according to the law, almost everything is cleansed with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.	Further, God commanded in Moses’ law that the priests should use blood almost every time they cleansed {people or things}. In fact, God does not forgive anyone unless a priest presents blood {from an animal that someone has sacrificed}.

What cannot happen without the shedding of blood?

Without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.

ULT	UST
Therefore {it is} necessary on the one hand {for} the examples of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these, but on the other hand, the heavenly things themselves, with better sacrifices than these,	So then, the priests had to sacrifice animals to purify the {earthly} copy of the heavenly {Most Holy Place}. Much like that, {Jesus had to} present an even greater offering {to purify} the heavenly {Most Holy Place} itself.

for Christ did not enter into holy {places} made with hands—copies of the true ones—but into heaven itself, to be made visible now in the presence of God on our behalf,	{When he presented that offering,} the Messiah went into the highest heaven, where he reveals himself right now before God to help us. He did not go into a Most Holy Place that humans have made, which is a model of the most real Most Holy Place.

Where does Christ now appear on our behalf?

Christ now appears in heaven itself, in the presence of God, on our behalf.

Hebrews 9:25

and not in order to offer himself many times, even as the high priest enters into the holy {places} each year with blood {that is} not his own;	*Further, he {went into the highest heaven} to present himself as an offering only once. since it was necessary for him to suffer many times from the foundation of the world. But now he has been revealed once at the end of the ages for the annulment of sin through the sacrifice of himself.	{If Jesus had actually needed to present himself as an offering more than once,} then he would have needed to die very often since the time when God created everything. But here is what is true {about Jesus}: during this final time period, he presented himself one time only as an offering to make sin powerless.

How many times must Christ offer himself to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself?

Christ offers himself one time, at the end of the ages, to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

Hebrews 9:27

After every person dies, they face the judgment.

Hebrews 9:28

ULT	UST
so also, Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many {people}, will appear for a second time, apart from sin, for salvation to the ones eagerly waiting {for} him.	Much like that, the Messiah presented himself one time only as an offering to take away many people's sins. Then, he will come again {to earth}, not {to take away} sins, but to rescue his people, who are persistently expecting him.

For what purpose will Christ appear a second time?

Christ will appear a second time for the salvation of those who wait eagerly for him.

Hebrews 10

ULT	UST
For the law, having a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the image itself of those things—is never able to make perfect the ones approaching with the same sacrifices that they continually bring every year.	The law {that God gave through Moses} is not itself one of the wonderful things that God will give to his people. Rather, it only points to those wonderful things. So, even though the people who go closer to God always present offerings year after year, doing so never enables them to be what God wants them to be.

What is the law as compared to the realities in Christ?

The law is only a shadow of the realities in Christ.

James 1:17

ULT	UST
Every good present and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change or shadow of turning.	Every truly good and perfect gift comes from God the Father, who is in heaven. He created the sun, moon, and stars. But God does not change the way shadows change, appearing and disappearing. God never changes. He is always good!

What comes down from the Father of lights?

Every good gift and every perfect gift comes down from the Father of lights.

ULT	UST
Having willed, he gave birth to us by the word of truth, for us to be something like a firstfruits of his creatures.	God became our spiritual father when we trusted in his true message. That was what he wanted to do. So now believers in Jesus have become the first people to experience the kind of relationship with God that many more people will have in the future.

By what means did God choose to give us life?

God chose to give us life by the word of truth.

James 1:19

ULT	UST
Know, my beloved brothers: But let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger.	My fellow believers whom I love, I want you to know that every one of you should listen patiently {to what others have to say}. You should speak {your own thoughts} carefully. You should control your anger,

James 1:21

ULT	UST
Therefore, having laid aside all filth and abundance of wickedness, in humility receive the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.	So stop doing all kinds of evil. Without resisting proudly, do what God has told you to do. God will help you to remember and understand it. This will show that you belong to God.

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 1:22

ULT	UST
But be doers of the word and not only hearers, deluding yourselves.	It is important to what God commands, do not just listen to it. People who only listen to it and do not obey it are fooling themselves {into thinking that this will save them}.

How does James say that we can deceive ourselves?

James says that we can deceive ourselves by hearing the word and not doing it.

James 1:23

ULT	UST
For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man beholding the face of his birth in a mirror.	Now some people hear God's message, but they do not do what it says. Those people are like someone who looks at his face in a mirror.

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 1:24

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 1:25

ULT	UST
But the one having gazed into the perfect law of freedom and having continued, not having become a hearer of forgetfulness, but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in his doing.	But other people consider God's message carefully. It is perfect and it enables people to do voluntarily {what God wants them to do}. If these people remember what they have heard and continue to do what God tells them to do, then God will bless them because of what they do.

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 1:26

ULT	UST
If anyone thinks to be religious, not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his heart, the religion of that one {is} worthless.	Some people think that they worship God properly, but they say bad things. Those people are wrong in what they are thinking. God is not impressed with our worship activities if we continually say bad things.

What must be controlled in order for us to be truly religious?

The tongue must be controlled in order for us to be truly religious.

ULT	UST
Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to look upon orphans and widows in their distress, to keep oneself unstained by the world.	{One of the things that God has told us to do is} to take care of orphans and widows who suffer hardship. People who do that truly worship God, who is our Father. People are also truly worshiping God if they do not think or act immorally like others who do not obey God. God approves of people who do these things.

What is pure and undefiled religion before God?

Pure and undefiled religion before God is to visit the fatherless and widows, and to protect ourselves from the world's corruption.

and you look at the one wearing the splendid clothing and say, "You sit here well," and to the poor one you say, "You stand there," or, "Sit by my footstool,"	*And suppose that you show special attention to the one dressed in fine clothes. What have the believers become because of their favoritism?

They have become judges of evil thoughts.

James 2:5

ULT	UST
Listen, my beloved brothers, did not God choose the poor in the world {to be} rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to the ones loving him?	*Listen to me, my fellow believers whom I love. James says the rich have been oppressing the brothers and blaspheming God's name.

ULT	UST
Do they not blaspheme the good name that has been called upon you?	And they are the ones who insult you because you are Christians!

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 2:8

ULT	UST
If, however, you fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You will love your neighbor as yourself," you do well.	{So you should not treat rich people better than poor people.} Instead, you should obey the commandment that Jesus said was so important. It is from the law of Moses: "Love your neighbor as you love yourself." If you show love to everyone equally, you will be doing what is right.

What is the royal law of the scriptures?

The royal law is, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

James 2:9

ULT	UST
But if you favor, you are committing sin, convicted by the law as transgressors.	But if you honor some people more than others, you are doing wrong. And {because you are not doing what God has commanded,} God will say that you have broken his law.

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 2:10

Whoever breaks one point of God's law is guilty of breaking all the law.

ULT	UST
For the one having said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." If, then, you do not commit adultery but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.	For example, God said, "Do not commit adultery," but he also said, "Do not murder anyone." So if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder someone, then you have become a person who disobeys God's laws.

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 2:12

ULT	UST
Thus speak and thus act, as ones who are going to be judged by means of the law of freedom.	{Always} speak and act towards others knowing that God will judge you based on the commandment he gave us {to love others}. When we follow that commandment, we obey God freely.

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 2:13

ULT	UST
For the judgment {is} merciless to the ones not having done mercy. Mercy boasts against judgment.	You should speak and act in this way because when God judges us, he will not act mercifully toward those who have not acted mercifully toward others. But if we are merciful to others, then we can expect that God will be merciful to us when he judges us.

Judgment without mercy comes to those who have not shown mercy.

James 2:14

ULT	UST
What {would be} the profit, my brothers, if someone would say he has faith, but he does not have works? That faith is not able to save him, is it?	*My fellow believers, some people say, "I believe in the Lord Jesus the Messiah," but they do not do loving things. What they say will do them no good. James 2:16 and someone of you said to them, “Go in peace, warm yourself and be satisfied,” but you did not give them the necessary things of the body, what {would be} the profit?	And suppose one of you says to them, “Do not worry, get warm, and have the food you need.” But suppose that you then do not give them any clothing or food. Then that will be no help to them!

Does it help a poor person if we tell them to be warmed and filled, but do not give them anything?

No, it does not help a poor person if we do not give them anything to warm or feed them.

James 2:17

ULT	UST

What is faith by itself, if it has no works?

Faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

James 2:18

ULT	UST
But someone will say, “You have faith, and I have works.” Show me your faith without the works, and I will show you my faith from the works.	But someone might say {to you} that you have faith, while I have works. {He might claim that a person can express his religion through either faith or works and that he does not need to have both.} {But I would say in response that you cannot} show me your faith without works. I{, on the other hand,} can show you my faith by my works.

How does James say we must show our faith?

James says we must show our faith by our works.

James 2:19

ULT	UST
You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and they tremble.	*{Let me illustrate how believing in God without doing what God wants you to do cannot save you.} You believe that there is only one true God. What do demons and those who claim to have faith both believe?

Those who claim to have faith and demons both believe there is one God.

ULT	UST

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 2:21

ULT	UST
Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar?	*{Here is the proof.} Abraham, from whom we are descended, showed that he was willing to offer his son Isaac {to God} as a sacrifice {if God wanted him to do that}. And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness," and he was called a friend of God.	*That was how the scripture came true that says, "Because Abraham truly trusted in God, God viewed him as someone who did what was right." (There are no questions for this verse)

James 2:25

ULT	UST
And similarly was not Rahab the prostitute also justified from works, having welcomed the messengers and having sent them away by another road?	*Just as he did for Abraham, God also considered Rahab to be righteous because of what she did. How did Rahab demonstrate her faith by her works?

Rahab demonstrated her faith by her works when she welcomed the messengers and sent them away by another road.

James 2:26

ULT	UST
For just as the body without the spirit is dead, thus also the faith without works is dead.	*All of this illustrates an important truth. James 3

James 3:1

ULT	UST

Why does James say that not many should become teachers?

Not many should become teachers because they will receive greater judgment.

James 3:2

ULT	UST
For we all stumble much. If anyone does not stumble in word, he {is} a perfect man, able to bridle even the whole body.	{I will tell you why most of you should not become teachers.} All of us often do things that are wrong. But if anyone is able to avoid saying things that are wrong, he has become the person God intends him to be. He will be able to control all of his actions as well.

Now if we put the bits into the mouths of the horses for them to obey us, we also turn their whole body.	To illustrate, we can put a small metal bar into the mouth of a horse and use it to make the horse go where we want it to go. When we do that, we can direct the horse's large body {just by means of that small device}.

What little thing is able to steer a large ship where the pilot wants it to go?

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 3:6

ULT	UST
The tongue {represents} also a fire, the world of unrighteousness. The tongue is placed among our members, the thing staining the whole body and setting the course of existence on fire, and it is set on fire by Gehenna.	Just as a fire burns a forest, when we say bad things, we hurt many people. {What we say reveals that} there is much evil within us. When we say bad things, this contaminates all that we think and do. It can ruin our whole life. It is Satan himself who influences us to speak what is evil.

ULT	UST

With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse the men, the ones having come into being according to the likeness of God.	We use speech to praise {God, who is} our Lord and Father. But we also use speech to say that we want bad things to happen to people. {That is very wrong, because} God made people like himself.

What two ways to people treat God and men with their tongues?

With a single tongue, they bless God and curse men.

James 3:10

ULT	UST
Out from the same mouth come blessing and cursing. It is not fitting, my brothers, {for} these things to happen thus.	Someone may use his speech to praise God. But then he will use that same speech to wish that bad things would happen to people. My fellow believers, this should not happen!

ULT	UST
The spring does not gush the sweet and the bitter from the same opening, does it?	Surely good-tasting water and bad-tasting water do not come from the same source!

What two things can a spring not provide?

One spring cannot provide both sweet and bitter water.

James 3:12

ULT	UST
A fig tree is not able to make olives, is it, my brothers, or a grapevine, figs? Nor salty to make sweet water.	My fellow believers, a fig tree cannot produce olives. And a grapevine cannot produce figs. Nor can a salty source produce good water. {Similarly, we should speak only what is good, and we should not speak what is evil.}

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 3:15

ULT	UST
This is not the wisdom coming down from above, but {it is} earthly, soulish, demonic.	People who are envious and selfish are not wise as God wants them to be. Such a person also makes peace with others. He is kind to them and gets along with them well. He is generous to people who do not deserve it, and he does practical things to help others. He does not favor one person over another, and he does not pretend to be something that he is not.

ULT	UST
From where {are} wars and from where {are} battles among you? {Are they} not from there, from your lusts, the ones fighting in your members?	*I will tell you why you are fighting among yourselves and quarreling with each other. ULT	UST
You covet, and you do not have. You kill and envy, and you are not able to obtain. You battle and war. You do not have because you do not ask.	You desire to have things, but you do not get {them}. This makes you bitterly resent the people who do have them. But you {still} do not get {what you want}, so you quarrel and fight {with others}. If you pray {to God} instead {for the things you desire}, then God will give you {what you truly need}.

James 4:3

ULT	UST
You ask and you do not receive, because you ask badly, so that you may spend on your lusts.	But even when you do ask God for things, he does not give them to you, because you are asking with bad motives. You are asking for things just so that you can use them to enjoy yourselves in wrong ways.

James 4:4

ULT	UST
You adulteresses! Do you not know that the friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wants to be a friend of the world is made an enemy of God.	*You are being disloyal to God {by not obeying him}! A person who decides to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

James 4:5

ULT	UST
Or do you think that the scripture says vainly, "The Spirit whom he caused to live in us longs with jealousy"?	You must realize that God has purposely told us about this in the Scriptures. There he teaches us that the Spirit he placed in us yearns for us to live our lives in ways that please him.

James 4:6

ULT	UST
But he gives greater grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but he gives grace to the humble."	If we are living in ways that do not please God, he is very kind to us. {He will help us live differently if we humbly admit that we have been doing wrong.} That is why this teaching is in the Bible: "God does not help those who are proud, but he does help those who are humble."

But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge.	*My fellow believers, stop accusing one another of doing wrong. Anyone who accuses and condemns a fellow believer is really accusing and condemning God's commandment {that we should love one another}. James 5:3

Your gold and silver have been tarnished, and their rust will be for a testimony against you and it will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up in the last days.	Your gold and silver are worthless, as though they were corroded. {When God judges you,} this worthless wealth of yours will be evidence that you are guilty {of being greedy}. Just as rust and fire destroy things, God will severely punish you. You should not have been trying to get richer and richer knowing that Jesus was going to return. {When he returns, your riches will be worthless.}

The rich have hoarded their treasure.

ULT	UST
Behold, the pay of the workers who have reaped your fields, which has been withheld from you, is crying out, and the cries of the ones harvesting have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.	*Think about what you have done. You did not pay the wages you promised to the workers who harvested your fields. These unpaid wages show how unfair you were to these workers. How have these rich treated their workers?

These rich have not paid their workers.

James 5:5

ULT	UST
You have lived luxuriously on the earth and have lived self-indulgently. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.	*You have bought all the luxuries you wanted for yourselves. ULT	UST
You have condemned, you have killed the righteous. He does not resist you.	*You have arranged for others to condemn honest people. How have these rich treated the righteous man?

These rich have condemned and killed the righteous man.

ULT	UST
Therefore, wait patiently, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer awaits the valuable fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early {rain} and the late {rain}.	So, my fellow believers, {even though rich people cause you to suffer,} be patient until Jesus the Messiah comes back. Remember that when farmers plant a field, they have to wait for their valuable crops to grow. They have to wait patiently for the rain that comes at the planting season and for more rain that comes just before the harvest season. {This rain is necessary for the crops to grow and mature so that the farmers can harvest them.}

ULT	UST
Take an example, brothers, of the suffering and the patience of the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord.	*My fellow believers, as an example {of how to be patient}, consider the prophets whom the Lord God sent long ago to speak his messages. Behold, we call blessed the ones having endured. You have heard of the endurance of Job, and you have seen the end of the Lord, that the Lord is greatly compassionate and merciful.	Consider how, when people are able to endure suffering {patiently and faithfully}, we say that God has blessed them. {One example of this is the man named} Job. You know about him {from the Scriptures}. You know that he suffered many things patiently. You also know that God planned {to do good things through what Job suffered}. And from that you can tell that God is very caring and kind.

What positive character trait did Job demonstrate?

Job demonstrated endurance.

ULT	UST
But before all, my brothers, do not swear, neither {by} the heaven nor {by} the earth, nor {by} any other oath. But let your "Yes" be "Yes" and your "No," "No," so that you may not fall under judgment.	Now this, my fellow believers, is something very important for you to realize. You must never take an oath by calling on heaven or the earth or anything else to guarantee a promise that you make. All you need to say is "Yes" or "No." God will judge you {if you go beyond that and make an oath but then do not keep your promise}.

They should put olive oil on him {to help him recover} and, with the Lord's authority, pray.*

What should those who are sick do?

And if he may have committed sins, it will be forgiven to him.	When these leaders pray to God in faith, God will answer that prayer and heal the person who is sick. The Lord will restore his health. If that person has sinned, God will forgive him {for those sins}.

(There are no questions for this verse)

James 5:16

ULT	UST
Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another so that you may be healed. A working prayer of the righteous is very strong.	*Because the Lord is able to heal the sick and to forgive sins, admit to each other the sinful things you have done and pray for each other. When he prayed again, the heaven gave rain and the earth produced fruit.

James 5:19

ULT	UST

1 Peter 2:21

ULT	UST
For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered on your behalf, leaving an example for you so that you might follow in his footsteps	{God favors this} because he has called you to suffer while doing what is good. {He has called you to this} because the Messiah also suffered for your sake in order to be an example for you with the purpose that you would imitate what he did.

Why were the servants called to suffer for doing good? (2:21-23)

Because Christ suffered for them, leaving an example for them, and gave himself to the one who judges justly.

God has healed you because people wounded the Messiah.*

He carried their sins so that they might have no more part in sin, but instead live for righteousness, and because they were healed by his bruises.

1 Peter 2:25

ULT	UST

After they all had been wandering away like lost sheep, to whom did they return?

They all returned to the shepherd and guardian of their souls.

Similarly, wives, be subjected to your own husbands so that even if some are being disobedient to the word, they will be won without a word through the behavior of their wives,	In a similar way, you women {who are believers}, submit to your husbands. {Do this} in order that you may persuade any husbands who do not believe the message {about the Messiah} to become believers without you saying anything to them.

Be sympathetic {toward each other}. Love each other as fellow believers. Act compassionately {toward each other}. Be humble.*

Why did Peter instruct all of the foreigners, the chosen ones, to be likeminded and to continue to bless? (3:8-9)

Because they were all called to do so, that they might inherit a blessing.

ULT	UST
not paying back evil in exchange for evil or insult in exchange for insult, but on the contrary, blessing, because to this you were called so that you might inherit a blessing.	*When people do evil things to you or insult you, do not do the same to them. ULT	UST
For Christ also suffered once for sins—righteous on behalf of unrighteous—so that he might bring you to God, having indeed been killed in flesh, but having been made alive in spirit,	{This is true} because the Messiah also suffered. {He suffered} one time for the sake of {other people's} sins. He was a righteous person {who died} for the benefit of unrighteous people. {He died} in order to enable you to be with God. Although people killed him, God's Spirit caused him to become alive again.

Why did Christ suffer once for sins?

Christ suffered once so that he would bring Peter and the believers to God.

Instead, it shows that we are asking God to assure us that he has forgiven our sins. {This baptism saves you} by means of God having caused Jesus the Messiah to become alive again.*

What kind of baptism saves the believer?

The baptism that saves the believer is not the washing with water, but the appeal of a good conscience to God through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

ULT	UST
For he in whom these things are not present is blind, nearsighted, having received forgetfulness of the cleansing of his past sins.	{Do these things,} because a person who does not do these things {is not aware that these things are important.} {This person is like} a blind person {who cannot see what is around him,} {or like} a nearsighted person {who can only see things that are close to him.} {This person has even} forgotten that God has forgiven him for the sinful things {he did} in the past.

What has the spiritually blind person forgotten?

He has forgotten the cleansing from his old sins.

ULT	UST
Therefore, brothers, be even more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for doing these things, you will certainly not ever stumble.	Consequently, you fellow believers, make even more effort to make sure that God has chosen you to be his people. If you do these things I have just told you about, then you will absolutely never become separated from God.

If the brothers did their best to make their calling and election sure, what would happen? (1:10-11)

They would not stumble, and an entrance would be granted to them into the eternal kingdom of their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

ULT	UST
For in this way will be richly provided to you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.	{This is true} because, {by your doing} thus, God will wholeheartedly allow you to enter into the place where our Lord and Savior Jesus the Messiah will rule {his people} forever.

Therefore, I will always remind you about these things, although you have known {them} and have been established in the present truth.	Consequently, {because these things are so important,} I am always prepared to keep on reminding you about these things. {I will remind you} even though you already know {them} and are firmly convinced of the true teaching that you now have.

Why did Peter think it was right for him to remind the brothers of these things? (1:12-14)

Because their Lord Jesus Christ had shown him that he would soon remove his tent.

2 Peter 1:13

ULT	UST
But I think {it is} right, as long as I am in this tent, to arouse you in remembrance,	Nevertheless, I consider it to be right for me to keep reminding you {about these things} as long as I am alive.

2 Peter 1:16

ULT	UST
For we did not make known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ {by} having followed cleverly invented myths, but {by} having become eyewitnesses of the majesty of that one.	{I will do this} because, when we apostles told you that our Lord Jesus the Messiah is coming back in power {some day}, we were not basing {what we told you} on stories that we had cleverly made up. On the contrary, {we told you} what we saw with our own eyes, the divinely majestic Jesus.

What did those who were eyewitnesses of Jesus' majesty see? (1:16-17)

They saw that he received honor and glory from God the Father.

ULT	UST
For he has received honor and glory from God the Father, such a voice having been brought to him by the Majestic Glory: "This is my Son, my Beloved, in whom I myself am well pleased."	{I can say we were eyewitnesses} because {we were there when} God the Father honored him and glorified him, {when Jesus heard} a voice from the majestically glorious God. {And the voice said,} "This is my Son, whom I love very much. I am very pleased with him."

And we have the very certain prophetic word, to which you do well to pay attention, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day might dawn and the morning star might rise in your hearts,	And we have what the prophets wrote {previously}, {which is} absolutely reliable. Pay attention to what they wrote, because it is like a lamp that is shining in a dark place {that helps people see where they are going}. {That light} will shine until the day {of the return of the Messiah} dawns and {Jesus}, the star that appears before the morning, gives your minds greater understanding.

How can we be certain that the prophetic word is sure? (1:19-21)

Because written prophecy does not come from the reasoning of the prophet, nor any prophecy from the will of man, but by men carried along by the Holy Spirit who spoke from God.

2 Peter 1:20

ULT	UST
knowing this first, that every prophecy of scripture does not come from one's own interpretation.	Above all, you should know that no prophet could interpret {his prophecy} by his own imagination.

2 Peter 1:21

ULT	UST
For no prophecy was ever brought by the will of man, but men being carried along by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.	{This is true} because no one ever prophesied a {true} prophecy according to what a human wanted. On the contrary, those who spoke {prophecies} from God did so by the Holy Spirit guiding them.

Now false prophets were also among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will bring in heresies of destruction, and denying the master who bought them, bringing swift destruction on themselves.	But people who falsely proclaimed {messages from God} were also amidst the Israelites. In the same way there will also be people who teach false {messages} amidst you. They will introduce opinions {that will result in} eternal condemnation. They will even reject their owner, {Jesus,} who redeemed them. {As a result of this,} God will soon condemn them {for eternity}.

What will false teachers do with deceptive words? (2:1-3)

False teachers greedily make a profit off of the brothers.

What will false teachers secretly bring to the believers?

False teachers will bring destructive heresies to the believers.

What will come upon the false teachers?

False teachers will bring swift destruction upon themselves.

2 Peter 2:2

For if God did not spare angels who had sinned, but, in chains of darkness throwing down to Tartarus, he handed over those being kept for judgment;	{This judgment is certain} because God did not let the angels who acted sinfully remain unpunished. On the contrary, he threw them into hell {where they are} chained in darkness. God imprisoned {these sinful angels} there and is holding them there in order to judge them.

Who did God not spare? (2:4-6)

God did not spare the angels who sinned, the ancient world, and the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah.

ULT	UST
and he did not spare the ancient world, but protected the eighth, Noah, a preacher of righteousness, having brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly ones;	And God did not let {the people who lived in} the world long ago remain unpunished. However, he preserved eight people, including Noah, who was a righteous herald, when he destroyed by a flood the ungodly {people who lived in the} world {at that time}.

Who did God preserve in the Flood?

God preserved Noah with seven others.

And {the Lord also knows how} to keep those who do unrighteous deeds {ready} {in order} to punish them at the time when he judges.*

What did God show by not sparing some and preserving others?

God's actions showed that the Lord knows how to rescue the godly men and how to keep the unrighteous men in custody.

How bold {they are}! They do whatever they wish! They are not even afraid to insult God's glorious angels.*

Who were the glorious ones the ungodly men were unafraid to blaspheme? (2:10-11)

The glorious one were angels, who do not bring insulting judgments against men to the Lord.

ULT	UST
whereas angels, being greater in strength and power, do not bring an insulting judgment against them in the presence of the Lord.	But {God's} angels, {even though} they are much more powerful than these people, do not accuse glorious beings in an insulting manner in front of God!

The false teachers entice unstable souls.

A mute donkey speaking in a human voice stopped Balaam.

2 Peter 2:16

To what is a man a slave?

A man is a slave to whatever overcomes him.

2 Peter 2:20

For if, having escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, but, having been entangled again, they have been overcome by these things, for them the last things have become worse than the first things.	And if they have stopped doing the things that defile sinful human society by knowing the one who rules over us and saves us, Jesus the Messiah, but those {defiling things} {began to} control them again, {then} their situation is worse now than {it was} at first.

For those who escape the wickedness of the world through the knowledge of Jesus Christ and then return to them, what would be better? (2:20-21)

What would be better is for them not to have known the way of righteousness.

ULT	UST
For it was better for them not to know the way of righteousness than, having known {it}, to turn away from the holy commandment that has been delivered to them.	{This is because} it would have been better for them if they had never learned how to live in the way that pleases God than to learn {this way} and reject {God's} holy commands that {the apostles} taught them.

Mockers would question the promise of Jesus' return and say that all things remain the same since the beginning of creation.

Some people think {that this is so}. On the contrary, God is being patient with you, because he does not want any of you to be punished eternally. Rather, he wants everyone to repent.*

Why was the Lord patient towards the beloved?

Because he desires that they not perish, but have time for all to repent.

2 Peter 3:10

1 John 4:15

ULT	UST
Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him and he in God.	So God continues to share life with those who say the truth about Jesus. They say, "Jesus is the Son of God." And so they continue to share life with God.

The person who remains in God confess that Jesus is the Son of God.

And we have known and believed the love that God has in us. God is love, and the one remaining in love remains in God, and God remains in him.	*We have experienced how God loves us and we believe that he loves us. ULT	UST
In this, love has been perfected with us so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment because, just as that one is, we also are in this world.	When we continue to share life with God, then God has achieved his purpose in loving us. As a result, when the time comes for God to judge us, we will be confident {that he will not condemn us}. This is because we are {loving others as we live} in this world just as Jesus is.

What attitude will the love of God cause us to have on the day of judgment?

The love of God will cause us to have confidence on the day of judgment.

ULT	UST
Fear is not in love, but perfect love throws fear outside, because fear has punishment. So the one fearing has not been perfected in love.	We will not be afraid {of God} if we truly love him, because those who love {God} completely cannot be afraid {of him}. We would be afraid only if we thought that he would punish us. So those who are afraid {of God} have not completely understood how much he loves them, and they are not loving {God} completely.

How are we able to love?

We love because God first loved us.

ULT	UST
If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar. For the one not loving his brother, whom he has seen, is not able to love God, whom he has not seen.	People are lying if they say that they love God but they also hate a fellow believer. After all, we can see our fellow believers. But we have not seen God. So those who do not love one of their fellow believers certainly cannot be loving God, {because it is much easier to love someone whom you can see than someone whom you cannot see}.

If someone hates his brother, what relationship does he have with God?

Someone who hates his brother is not able to love God.

ULT	UST

Now, whoever loves anyone who is a father {certainly} loves his child also. {So if we believe in Jesus, then we love God, and therefore we should also love his spiritual children, our fellow believers.}*

1 John 5:3

ULT	UST
For this is the love of God, that we should keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome.	I am saying this because what loving God really means is that we do what he commands us to do. And it is not difficult to do what he commands us to do.

How do we demonstrate that we love God?

We demonstrate that we love God when we keep his commandments.

ULT	UST
For everyone who has been begotten from God triumphs over the world. And this is the triumph that has triumphed over the world, our faith.	Here is the reason why it is not difficult for us to do what God commands. All of us who have become God's spiritual children have been able to refuse to do what unbelievers want us to do. There is one reason why we are stronger than everything that is against God. It is because we trust in Jesus.

What is the victory that has overcome the world?

Faith is the victory that has overcome the world.

ULT	UST
But who is the one triumphing over the world if not the one believing that Jesus is the Son of God?	I will tell you who is stronger than everything that is against God: It is anyone who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

1 John 5:6

ULT	UST
This is the one having come by water and blood: Jesus Christ—not in water alone, but in water and in blood. And the Spirit is the one testifying, because the Spirit is truth.	Jesus the Messiah is the one who came {to earth from God}, experiencing both {the} water {of his baptism} and {the} blood {of his death on the cross}. God showed that he had truly sent Jesus not only {when John baptized Jesus} in water, but also when Jesus' blood flowed from his body {when he died}. And God's Spirit declares {truthfully that Jesus the Messiah did these things}, because the Spirit is completely truthful.

By what two things did Jesus Christ come?

Jesus Christ came by water and by blood.

1 John 5:7

the Spirit and the water and the blood, and the three are unto the one.	{Those three ways are:} what God's Spirit tells us, what happened {when John baptized Jesus} in water, and what happened when {Jesus'} blood flowed {from his body when he died on the cross}. These three things all tell us the same thing{, that Jesus came from God}.

What three things testify about Jesus Christ?

The Spirit, the water, and the blood all testify about Jesus Christ.

ULT	UST
If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater. For this is the testimony of God, that he has testified about his Son.	We rely on what people tell us when we have to decide about something. But we can certainly rely much more on what God tells us. So let me tell you what God has told us about who his Son is.

(There are no questions for this verse)

ULT	UST
The one believing in the Son of God has the testimony in him. The one not believing God has made him a liar because he has not believed in the testimony that God has testified about his Son.	{First, however, let me say that} those who trust in the Son of God already know that what God says about him is true. But those who do not believe what God says are calling him a liar because they have refused to believe what God has testified about his Son.

What has God given us in his Son?

God has given us everlasting life in his Son.

ULT	UST
The one having the Son has life. The one not having the Son of God does not have life.	Those who share life with God's Son {Jesus} have begun to live forever {with God}. Those who do not share life with God's Son have not begun to live forever.

1 John 5:15

ULT	UST
And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we may request, we know that we have the requests that we have requested from him.	Since we know that God wants to give us whatever we ask of him, {if it is what he desires,} then we also know that God is already giving us what we ask of him.

ULT	UST
If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not toward death, he will ask, and he will give him life, for the ones sinning not toward death. There is a sin toward death; I am not saying that he should pray about that.	For example, suppose someone sees one of his fellow believers sinning in a way that would not separate him from God eternally. Then he should ask {God to restore the one who is sinning}. If he does that, then God will bring that person back into spiritual life with himself. However, I am saying this only about people who are sinning in a way that would not separate them from God eternally. There is sin that causes people to separate from God eternally. I am not saying that you should pray for people who are sinning in that way.

What should a believer do when he sees his brother committing a sin not to death?

A believer who sees his brother committing a sin not to death should pray that God will give his brother life.

This is the true God and eternal life.	*We also know that the Son of God has come among us and has made it possible for us to understand {what is true}. He did this so that we can truly know the genuine God. And we are sharing life with the genuine God, {that is,} with his Son, Jesus the Messiah.
