Isaiah

Chapter 1

¹The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, that he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, {and} Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

²Hear, heavens, and give ear, earth; for Yahweh has spoken:

“Children I have raised and brought up, but they have rebelled against me.

⁴Woe! Sinful nation, people heavy with iniquity, seed of evildoers, sons who act corruptly!

They have abandoned Yahweh, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they have estranged themselves from him.

⁵Why should you still be beaten, should you continue to rebel?

The whole head is sick, the whole heart is weak.

⁶From the sole of the foot to the head {there is} no health in it;

{but} bruises, and sores, and fresh wounds;

they have not been pressed out, and they have not been bandaged, and they have not been softened with oil.

⁷Your land {is} a desolation; your cities {are} burned with fire;

your field—in front of you strangers are devouring it;

a desolation as the overthrowing of strangers.

like a shed in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.

⁹If Yahweh of hosts had not left for us a few survivors, we would have been like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah.

¹⁰Hear the word of Yahweh, rulers of Sodom;

listen to the law of our God, people of Gomorrah:

“I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fatted beasts;

and in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats I do not delight.

12When you come to appear before me, who has required this of you, to trample my courts?

13Do not continue to bring an offering of worthlessness; incense is an abomination to me;
new moon and Sabbath and calling of assemblies—I cannot endure iniquity with a festive assembly.

14My soul hates your new moons and your appointed feasts;
they are a burden to me; I have become weary with carrying.

15So when you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you;
even though you multiply prayer, I will not listen;
your hands are full of blood.

16Wash, cleanse yourselves;
remove the evil of your deeds from before my eyes;
stop doing evil;

17Learn to do good;
seek justice, correct the oppressor,^[1] give justice to the fatherless, contend for the widow.”

18“Come now, and let us argue together,” says Yahweh; “though your sins are like scarlet, they will be white like snow;
though they are red like crimson, they will be like wool.

19If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the good of the land, 20but if you refuse and rebel, by the sword you will be devoured,” for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken.

21How the faithful city has become a prostitute!
She who was full of justice—righteousness lodged in her,
but now murderers.

23Your princes {are} rebels and companions of thieves;
everyone loves bribes and runs after payoffs.
They do not defend the fatherless, and the legal plea of the widow does not come before them.

24Therefore this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel:
“Woe! I will take vengeance against my adversaries, and avenge myself against my enemies;

25I will turn my hand against you, refine away your dross as with lye, and take away all your dross.

²⁷Zion will be redeemed by justice, and her repentant ones by righteousness.

²⁹“For they will be ashamed of the sacred oak trees that you desired, and you will be embarrassed by the gardens that you have chosen.

1:17 ^[1], some versions have .

Chapter 2

¹The things that Isaiah son of Amoz perceived in a vision, concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

²It will be in the last days
{that} the mountain of Yahweh’s house will be established as the highest of the mountains, and it will be raised up above the hills, and all the nations will flow to it.

³Many peoples will come and say, “Come, let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the house of the God of Jacob, so he may teach us some of his ways, and we may walk in his paths.”
For out of Zion will go the law, and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem.

⁴He will judge between the nations and will render decisions for many peoples;
they will hammer their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they train for war any longer.

⁵House of Jacob, come, and let us walk in the light of Yahweh.

⁶For you have abandoned your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled with customs from the east and they practice divination like the Philistines, and they shake hands with sons of foreigners.

⁷Their land is full of silver and gold, and is there no limit to their wealth; their land also is full of horses, nor is there limit to their chariots.

⁸Their land also is full of idols;
they worship the craftsmanship of their own hands, things that their own fingers have made.

¹⁰Go into the rocky places and hide in the ground from the terror of Yahweh and from the glory of his majesty.

¹¹The lofty gaze of man will be brought low, and the pride of men will be brought down, and Yahweh alone will be exalted on that day.

¹²For there will be a day of Yahweh of hosts against everyone who is proud and raised up, and against everyone who is arrogant—and he will be {brought} down—

¹³and against all the cedars of Lebanon {that are} high and lifted up, and against all the oaks of Bashan.

¹⁴That day of Yahweh of hosts will be against all the high mountains, and against all the hills {that are} lifted up,

¹⁵and against every high tower, and against every impregnable wall, ¹⁶and against all the ships of Tarshish, and against all beautiful sailing vessels.

¹⁷The pride of man will be brought low, and the haughtiness of men will fall;
Yahweh alone will be exalted on that day.

¹⁸The idols will completely pass away.

¹⁹Men will go into the caves of the rocks and the holes of the ground, from the terror of Yahweh, and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

²⁰On that day people will throw away their idols of silver and of gold that they have made for themselves to worship—they will throw them away to the moles and bats.

²¹The people will go into the crevices in the rocks and into the clefts of the {ragged} rocks, from the terror of Yahweh and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

²²Stop trusting in man, whose life-breath {is} in his nostrils, for what does he amount to?

Chapter 3

¹See, the Lord Yahweh of hosts is about to take away from Jerusalem and from Judah support and staff: the whole supply of bread and the whole supply of water, 2the mighty man and the warrior, the judge and the prophet, the one who practices divination and the elder, 3the captain of fifty and the respected citizen, the counselor, the expert craftsman and the skillful enchanter.

4“I will place mere youths as their leaders, and the young will rule over them.
5The people will be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbor;
the child will insult the elderly, and the degraded will challenge the honorable.
6A man will even take hold of his brother in his father’s house
{and say}, ‘You have a coat; be our ruler, and {let} this ruin {be} in your hands.’
7On that day he will shout and say,
‘I will not be a healer; I have no bread or clothing.
You will not make me ruler of the people.’” 8For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen, because their speech and their actions {are} against Yahweh, defying the eyes of his glory.
9The look on their faces witnesses against them; and they tell of their sin like Sodom; they do not hide {it.}
Woe to them! For they have completed a catastrophe for themselves.
10Tell the righteous person that it will be well, for they will eat the fruit of their deeds.
11Woe to the wicked! It will go badly for him, for the recompense of his hands will be done to him.
12My people—children are their oppressors, and women rule over them.
My people, those who guide you lead {you} astray and confuse the direction of your path.
13Yahweh stands up for an accusation; he is standing to accuse the people.
14Yahweh will come with judgment against the elders of his people and their leaders:
“You have ruined the vineyard; the plunder from the poor {is} in your houses.
15Why do you crush my people and grind the faces of the poor?”
This is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts.
16Yahweh says that because the daughters of Zion are proud, they walk with their necks extended, with flirting eyes, walking with tiny steps as they go, making tinkling sounds from bracelets on their ankles.
17Therefore the Lord will form scabs on the heads of the daughters of Zion, and Yahweh will make them bald.
18On that day the Lord will remove their beautiful ankle jewelry, head bands, the crescent ornaments,

¹⁹the ear pendants, the bracelets, and the veils;

²¹He will remove the rings and the nose jewels;

instead of well-arranged hair, baldness; and instead of a robe, a covering of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty.

²⁵Your men will fall by the sword, and your strong men will fall in war.

²⁶Jerusalem's gates will lament and mourn; and she will be alone and sit upon the ground.

Chapter 4

¹On that day seven women will take hold of one man and say,

"Our own food we will eat, our own clothing we will wear.

But let us take your name to remove our shame."

²On that day the branch of Yahweh will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be tasty and delightful for those survivors in Israel.

³It will happen that {the one who is} left in Zion and the one who remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who is written down as living in Jerusalem.

⁴This will happen when the Lord will have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and will have cleansed the blood stains from Jerusalem's midst, by means of the spirit of judgment and the spirit of flaming fire.

⁵Then over the whole site of Mount Zion and over her place of assembly,

Yahweh will create cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night;

it {will be} a canopy over all the glory.

⁶It will be a shelter for shade in the daytime from the heat, and a refuge and a cover from the storm and rain.

Chapter 5

¹Let me sing for my well beloved, a song of my beloved about his vineyard.

My well beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

²He spaded it, removed the stones, and planted it with an excellent kind of vine.

He built a tower in the middle of it, and also built a winepress.

He waited for {it} to produce grapes, but it only produced wild grapes.

³So now, inhabitant of Jerusalem and man of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.

⁴What more could have been done for my vineyard, that I have not done for it?

When I looked for {it} to produce grapes, why did it produce wild grapes?

⁵Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will remove the hedge,

I will turn it into a pasture, I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled down.

⁶I will lay it waste, and it will not be pruned nor hoed. Instead, briars and thorns will spring up.

I will also command the clouds not to rain on it.

⁷For the vineyard of Yahweh of hosts {is} the house of Israel, and the man of Judah his pleasant planting;

he waited for justice, but instead, there was killing; for righteousness, but, instead, a shout {for help}.

⁸Woe to those who join house to house, who join field to field, until no room remains, and you alone remain in the land!

⁹Yahweh of hosts {told} me, many houses will be empty, even great and impressive ones, without any inhabitant.

¹⁰For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only one bath, and one homer of seed will yield only an ephah.

¹¹Woe to those who rise up early in the morning to obtain strong drink, those who linger late into the night {until} wine inflames them.

¹²They banquet with harp, lute, tambourine, flute, and wine, but they do not recognize the work of Yahweh, nor have they considered the doings of his hands.

¹³Therefore my people have gone into captivity for lack of understanding; their honored leaders go hungry, and their common people have nothing to drink.

¹⁴Therefore Sheol has made its appetite greater and has opened its mouth very wide;

their elite, the people, their leaders, and the revelers and those who are happy among them, descend into Sheol.

¹⁵Man will be forced to bend down, and mankind will be humbled; the eyes of the lofty will be cast down.

¹⁷Then the sheep will feed as in their own pasture, and in the ruins, lambs will graze as foreigners.^[1]

¹⁹Woe to those who say, "Let God hurry, let him act quickly, so we can see {it} happen; and let the plans of the Holy One of Israel come, so that we may know them."

²⁰Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who represent darkness as light, and light as darkness;

who represent bitter as sweet, and sweet as bitter!

²³who acquit the wicked for payment, and deprive the innocent of his rights!

²⁴Therefore as the tongue of fire devours stubble, and as the dry grass goes down in flame, so their root will rot, and their blossom will blow away like dust.

This will happen because they have rejected the law of Yahweh of hosts, and because they have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

²⁵Therefore the anger of Yahweh is kindled against his people. He has reached out with his hand against them and has punished them.

The mountains tremble, and their corpses are like garbage in the streets.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand [is] still stretched out.

²⁶He will lift up a signal flag for far away nations and will whistle for those at the end of the earth.

Look, they will come speedily and promptly.

²⁷None tire or stumble among them; none slumbers or sleeps.

Nor are their belts loose, or the thongs of their sandals broken.

²⁸Their arrows {are} sharp and all their bows are bent; their horses' hooves are like flint, and their chariot wheels like storms.

²⁹Their roaring {will be} like a lion; they will roar like young lions.

They will growl and seize the prey and drag {it} away, with none to rescue.

³⁰On that day they will roar against the prey as the sea roars.

If {anyone} looks over the land, he will see darkness and suffering; even the light will be made dark by the clouds.

5:17 ^[1] .

Chapter 6

¹In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne; he was high and elevated, and the hem of his {robe} filled the temple. ²Above him were the seraphim; {each} one had six wings; with two each covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³Each {one} called to another and said,

“Holy, holy, holy, {is} Yahweh of hosts! The whole earth {is} full of his glory.”

⁵Then I said,

“Woe {is} me! For I am doomed because I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, because my eyes have seen the King, Yahweh, Yahweh of hosts!”

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me; he had a glowing coal in his hand, that he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. ⁷He touched my mouth {with it} and said,

“See, this has touched your lips; your guilt has been taken away, and your sin atoned for.”

⁸I heard the voice of the Lord say, “Whom shall I send; who will go for us?” Then I said, “Here I {am;} send me.”

⁹He said, “Go and tell this people,

‘Listen, but do not understand; see, but do not perceive.’

¹⁰Make the heart of this people insensitive, and their ears dull, and blind their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and then turn and be healed.” ¹¹Then I said, “Lord, how long?” He answered, “Until cities crash into ruins and are without inhabitants, and the houses are without people, and the land falls into a desolate waste, ¹²and until Yahweh has sent the people far away, and the solitude of the land is great.

¹³Even if a tenth of the people remain in it, it {will} again {be} destroyed;

as a terebinth or an oak is cut down and whose trunk {remains}, the holy seed {is in} its stump.”

Chapter 7

¹During the days of Ahaz son of Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but they could not prevail against it. ²It was reported to the house of David that Aram was allied with Ephraim. His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest shake in the wind.^[1]

³Then Yahweh said to Isaiah, “Go out with your son Shear-Jashub to meet Ahaz at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the road to Launderer’s Field. ⁴Tell him, ‘Be careful, remain calm, do not be afraid or intimidated by these two smoldering firebrands, by the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram, and of Pekah son of Remaliah. ⁵Aram, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have planned evil against you; they have said, ⁶“Let us attack Judah and terrify her, and let us break into her and set up our king there, the son of Tabeel.”

⁷The Lord Yahweh says, “It will not take place; it will not happen, ⁸because the head of Aram {is} Damascus, and the head of Damascus {is} Rezin.

Within sixty-five years, Ephraim will be shattered and will no longer be a people.

⁹The head of Ephraim {is} Samaria, and the head of Samaria {is} Remaliah’s son.

If you do not remain firm in faith, surely you will not remain secure.”””

¹⁰The Lord spoke again to Ahaz,^[2] ¹¹“Ask a sign of Yahweh your God; ask for it in the depths or in the height above.” ¹²But Ahaz said, “I will not ask, nor will I test Yahweh.” ¹³So Isaiah replied, “Listen, house of David. {Is it} not enough for you people to test the patience of people? Must you also test the patience of my God? ¹⁴Therefore the Lord himself will give you people a sign: See, the young woman will conceive, bear a son, and will call his name Immanuel.^[3] ¹⁵He will eat curds and honey when he knows to refuse the evil and choose the good. ¹⁶For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be desolate. ¹⁷Yahweh will bring on you, on your people, and on your father’s house days unlike any since Ephraim seceded from Judah—he will bring on you the king of Assyria.”

¹⁸At that time

Yahweh will whistle for a fly from the distant streams of Egypt, and for a bee from the land of Assyria.

¹⁹They will all come and settle down into all the gorges, into the clefts of the rocks, on all the thornbushes, and onto all the pastures.

²⁰At that time the Lord will shave with a razor that was hired beyond the Euphrates River—the king of Assyria—the head and the hair of the legs; it will also sweep away the beard.

²¹On that day, a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep,

²²and because of the abundance of milk which they shall give, he will eat curds, for everyone left in the land will eat curds and honey.

²³At that time, where there were a thousand vines {worth} a thousand silver {shekels}, there will be nothing but briars and thorns.

²⁴Men will go there to hunt with bows, because all the land will be briars and thorns.

²⁵They will stay away from all the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, for fear of the briars and thorns;

but it will be a place where cattle and sheep graze.

Chapter 8

¹Yahweh said to me, "Take a large tablet and write on it, 'Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.' ²I will summon faithful witnesses to attest for me, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah." ³I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then Yahweh said to me, "Call his name Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz. ⁴For before the child knows to cry, 'My father,' and, 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria."

⁵Yahweh spoke to me again,

⁶"Because this people has refused the gentle waters of Shiloah, and is happy over Rezin and Remaliah's son,

⁷therefore the Lord is about to bring up on them the waters of the River, mighty and many, the king of Assyria and all his glory.

It will come up over all its channels and overflow its banks.

⁸The River will sweep onward into Judah, flooding and passing on, until it reaches to your neck.

Its outstretched wings will fill the breadth of your land, Immanuel."

⁹You peoples will be broken to pieces. Listen, all you distant countries:

arm yourselves for war and be broken in pieces; arm yourselves and be broken in pieces.

¹⁰Form a plan, but it will not be carried out; issue the command, but it will not be carried out, for God {is} with us. ¹¹Yahweh spoke to me, with his strong hand upon me, and warned me not to walk in the way of this people.

¹²Do not call conspiracy anything that this people calls conspiracy, you will not fear what they fear, and do not be terrified.

¹³It is Yahweh of hosts whom you will honor as holy; he is the one you must fear, and he is the one you must dread.

¹⁴He will become a sanctuary;

but he will be a stone of striking, and a rock of stumbling—for both the houses of Israel, and he will be a trap and a snare to the people of Jerusalem.

¹⁵Many will stumble over it and fall and be broken, and be ensnared and captured.

¹⁶Bind up my testimony, seal the official record, and give it to my disciples.

¹⁷I will wait for Yahweh, who hides his face from the house of Jacob; I will trust in him.

¹⁸See, I and the sons whom Yahweh has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yahweh of hosts, who lives on Mount Zion.

¹⁹They will say to you, "Consult with those who speak with the dead and with spirits," the ones who chirp and mutter incantations. But should a people not consult their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? ²⁰To the law and to the testimony! If they do not say such things, it is because they have no light of dawn.

²¹They will pass through the land greatly distressed and hungry. When they are hungry, they will become angry and curse their king and their God, as they turn their faces upward.

²²They will look at the earth and see distress, darkness, and oppressive gloom. {They will be} driven into a land of darkness.

Chapter 9

¹The gloom {will be} dispelled from her who {was} in anguish.

In an earlier time he humiliated

the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the later time he will make it glorious, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

²The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;

those who have lived in the land of the shadow of death, the light has shone on them.^[1] ³You have multiplied the nation; you have increased their joy.

They rejoice before you like the joy at harvest time, as {men} rejoice when they divide the plunder.

the rod of his oppressor, you have shattered as on the day of Midian.

⁵For every boot treading in the tumult and the garments rolled in blood will be burned, fuel for the fire.

⁶For to us a child has been born, to us a son has been given;

and the rule will be on his shoulder;

Mighty God, Everlasting Father,

Prince of Peace.

⁷Of the increase of {his} government and of peace {there will be} no end, as he rules on the throne of David, and over his kingdom, to establish it and sustain it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and for evermore.

The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will do this.

⁸The Lord sent a word against Jacob, and it fell on Israel.

⁹All the people will know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and with an arrogant heart,

¹⁰"The bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with chiseled stone; the sycamores have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place."

¹¹Therefore Yahweh will raise up against him Rezin, his adversary, and will stir up his enemies, ¹²the Arameans on the east, and the Philistines on the west. They will devour Israel with open mouth.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand {is} still stretched out.

¹³Yet the people will not turn to him who struck them, nor will they seek Yahweh of hosts.

¹⁴Therefore Yahweh will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day.

¹⁵The leader and the noble man {are} the head; and the prophet that teaches lies {is} the tail.

¹⁷Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men nor will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows, since every one is godless and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks foolish things.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand is still stretched out.

¹⁸Wickedness burns like a fire; it devours the briars and thorns;

it even burns the thickets of the forest, which rise in a column of smoke.

¹⁹Through the fury of Yahweh of hosts the land is scorched, and the people are like fuel for the fire.

No man spares his brother.

Each will even eat the flesh of his own arm.^[2]

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand {is} still stretched out.

9:2 ^[1], some versions have .

9:20 ^[2], some versions have .

Chapter 10

¹Woe to those who enact unjust laws and write unfair decrees.

²They deprive the needy of justice, rob the poor of my people of their rights, plunder widows, and make the fatherless their prey!

³What will you do on judgment day when the destruction comes from far away?

To whom will you flee for help, and where will you leave your wealth?

⁴Nothing remains, and you crouch among the prisoners or fall among the killed.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand {is} still stretched out.

⁵Woe to the Assyrian, the club of my anger, the rod by whom I wield my fury!

⁶I send him against an arrogant nation and against the people who bear my overflowing wrath.

I order him to take the spoil, to take the prey, and to trample them like mud in the streets.

⁷But this is not what he intends, nor does he think this way.

{It is} in his heart to destroy and eliminate many nations.

⁸For he says, "{Are} not all my princes kings?

⁹{Is} not Kalno like Carchemish?

{Is} not Hamath like Arpad? {Is} not Samaria like Damascus?

¹⁰As my hand has overcome idolatrous kingdoms, whose carved figures were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria, ¹¹just as I did to Samaria and her worthless idols, will I not also do the same to Jerusalem and to her idols?"

¹²When the Lord has finished his work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the speech of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and his prideful looks. ¹³For he says,

"By my strength and by my wisdom I acted. I have understanding, and I have removed the boundaries of the peoples. I have stolen their treasures, and like a bull I have brought down the inhabitants.

¹⁴My hand has seized, as from a nest, the wealth of nations, and as one gathers abandoned eggs, I gathered all the earth.

None fluttered their wings or opened their mouth or chirped."

¹⁵Will the ax boast about itself against the one who wields it?

Will the saw praise itself more than the one who cuts with it?

It is as if a rod could lift up those who raise it, {or} as if a wooden club could lift up a person.

¹⁶Therefore the Lord Yahweh of hosts will send emaciation among his elite warriors; and under his glory there will be kindled a burning like fire.

¹⁷The light of Israel will become a fire, and his Holy One a flame;

it will burn and devour his thorns and briars in one day.

¹⁸Yahweh will consume the glory of his forest and of his fruitful land, both soul and body;

it will be like when a sick man's life wastes away.

¹⁹The remnant of the trees of his forest will be so {few}, that a child could count them.

²¹A remnant of Jacob will return to the mighty God.

²³For the Lord Yahweh of hosts, is about to carry out the destruction determined throughout the land.

²⁴Therefore the Lord Yahweh of hosts says, "My people who live in Zion, do not fear the Assyrian. He will strike you with the rod and raise his staff against you, as the Egyptians did. ²⁵Do not fear him, for in a very short time my anger against you will end, and my anger will lead to his destruction."

²⁶Then Yahweh of hosts will wield a whip against them, as when he defeated Midian at the rock of Oreb. He will raise his rod over the sea and lift it up as he did in Egypt.

²⁷On that day, his burden is lifted from your shoulder and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke will be destroyed because of fatness.^[1]

²⁸The enemy has come to Aiath and has passed through Migron; at Michmash he has stored his provisions.

²⁹They have crossed over the pass and they lodge at Geba.

Ramah trembles and Gibeah of Saul has fled.

³⁰Cry aloud, daughter of Gallim! Give attention, Laishah!

You poor Anathoth!

³¹Madmenah is fleeing,

and the inhabitants of Gebim run for safety.

³²This very day he will halt at Nob and shake his fist at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

³³Behold, the Lord Yahweh of hosts will lop off the boughs with a terrifying crash; the tallest trees {will be} cut down, and the lofty will be brought low.

³⁴He will chop down the thickets of the forest with an ax, and Lebanon in his majesty will fall.

10:27 ^[1]. Other modern versions have . Here means the Assyrian king and his army.

Chapter 11

¹A shoot will sprout from the stump of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit.

²The Spirit of Yahweh will rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of instruction and might, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Yahweh.

³His delight will be the fear of the Lord;
he will not judge by what his eyes see, nor decide by what his ears hear.

⁴Instead, he will judge the poor with righteousness and decide fairly for the humble of the earth.
He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked.

⁵Righteousness will be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his hips.

⁶The wolf will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat, the calf, the young lion and the fattened calf, together. A little child will lead them.

⁷The cow and the bear will graze together, and their young will lie down together.
The lion will eat straw like the ox.

⁸A baby will play over the hole of the snake, and the weaned child will put his hand on the serpent's den.

⁹They will not hurt nor destroy on all my holy mountain;
for the earth will be full of knowledge of Yahweh, as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁰On that day, the root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples.
The nations will seek him out, and his resting place will be glorious.

¹¹On that day, the Lord will again extend his hand to recover the remnant of his people who remain in Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and the islands of the sea.

¹²He will set up a banner for the nations and will gather the outcasts of Israel and the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

¹³He will turn aside the envy of Ephraim, and hostilities of Judah will be cut off.
Ephraim will not envy Judah, and Judah will no longer be hostile to Ephraim.

¹⁴Instead they will swoop down on the Philistine hills on the west, and together they will plunder the people of the east.
They will attack Edom and Moab, and the people of Ammon will obey them.

¹⁵Yahweh will completely destroy the gulf of the Sea of Egypt.
With his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the Euphrates River and will divide it into seven streams, so it can be crossed over in sandals.

¹⁶There will be a highway for the remnant of his people that return from Assyria, as there was for Israel in their coming up from the land of Egypt.

Chapter 12

¹On that day you will say,

“I will give thanks to you, Yahweh. For though you were angry with me, your wrath has turned away, and you have comforted me.

²See, God {is} my salvation; I will trust and will not fear, for Yahweh, yes, Yahweh {is} my strength and song. He has become my salvation.”

³With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

⁴On that day you will say, “Give thanks to Yahweh and call upon his name; declare his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted.

⁶Cry aloud and shout for joy, you inhabitants of Zion, for great in your midst {is} the Holy One of Israel.”

Chapter 13

¹A declaration about Babylon, that Isaiah son of Amoz received:

²On the bare mountain set up a signal flag, cry aloud to them, wave your hand for them to go into the gates of the nobles.

³I have commanded my holy ones, yes, I have called my mighty men to execute my anger, even my proudly exulting ones.

⁴The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of many people!

The noise of a tumult of the kingdoms like many nations gathered together!

Yahweh of hosts is mustering the army for the battle.

⁵They come from a far country, from way over the horizon.

It is Yahweh with his instruments of judgment, to destroy the whole land.

⁷Therefore all hands hang limp, and every heart melts.

They will look in astonishment at one another; their faces {will be} aflame.

⁹See, the day of Yahweh comes with cruel wrath and overflowing anger, to make the land a desolation and to destroy the sinners from it.

¹⁰The stars of heaven and the constellations will not give their light.

The sun will be darkened even from dawn, and the moon will not shine.

¹¹I will punish the world for {its} evil and the wicked for their iniquity.

I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud and will bring down the arrogance of the ruthless.

¹²I will make men more rare than fine gold and mankind harder to find than the pure gold of Ophir.

¹³Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place, by the fury of Yahweh of hosts, and on the day of his fierce anger.

¹⁴Like a hunted gazelle or like a sheep with no shepherd, every man will turn toward his own people and will flee to his own land.

¹⁵Every one who is found will be killed, and every one who is captured will die by the sword.

¹⁶Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes.
Their houses will be plundered and their wives raped.

¹⁷Look, I am about to stir up the Medes to attack them, who will not be concerned about silver, nor do they delight in gold.

¹⁸{Their} bows will strike down the young men;
they will have no mercy on infants and they will not look with pity on children.

¹⁹Then Babylon, the most admired of kingdoms, the splendor of Chaldean pride, will be overthrown by God like Sodom and Gomorrah.

²⁰It will not be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.
The Arab will not pitch his tent there, nor will shepherds have their flocks rest there.

²¹But wild animals of the desert will lie there. Their houses will be full of owls; and ostriches and wild goats will skip about there.

²²Hyenas will cry in their fortresses, and jackals in the beautiful palaces. Her time {is} near, and her days will not be delayed.

Chapter 14

¹Yahweh will have compassion on Jacob; he will again choose Israel and restore them into their own land. Foreigners will join with them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob. ²The nations will bring them to their own place. Then the house of Israel will take them in the land of Yahweh as male and female servants. They will take captive those who had captured them, and they will rule over their oppressors.

³On the day that Yahweh gives you rest from your suffering and anguish, and from the hard labor which you were required to perform, ⁴you will sing this taunt song against the king of Babylon,

“How the oppressor has come to an end, the proud fury ended!^[1]”

⁶that struck the peoples in wrath with unceasing blows, that ruled the nations in anger, with an attack that was unrestrained.
⁷The whole earth is at rest {and} is quiet; they begin celebrating with singing.
⁸Even the cypress trees rejoice over you {with} the cedars of Lebanon;
{they say}, 'Since you are laid low, no woodcutter comes up to cut us down.'
⁹Sheol below is eager to meet {you} when you go there.
It arouses the dead for you, all the kings of the earth, making them rise up from their thrones, all the kings of the nations.
¹⁰They all will speak and say to you,
'You have become as weak as us. You have become like us.
¹¹Your pomp has been brought down to Sheol {with} the sound of your string instruments.
Maggots are spread under you, and worms cover you.'
¹²How you are fallen from heaven, daystar, son of the morning!
{How} you are cut down to the ground, you who conquered the nations!
¹³You had said in your heart, 'I will ascend into heaven,
I will exalt my throne above the stars of God, and I will sit on the mount of assembly, in the far reaches of the north.
¹⁴I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High God.'
¹⁵Yet you are now brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the pit.
¹⁶Those who see you will gaze at you {and} they will pay attention to you.
They will {say,} '{Is} this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms, ¹⁷who made the world like a wilderness, {who} overthrew its cities and did not let his prisoners go home?'
¹⁸All the kings of the nations, all of them lie down in honor, each one in his own tomb.
¹⁹But you are cast out of your grave like a branch thrown away.
The dead cover you {like} a garment, those pierced by the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit.
²⁰You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land {and} killed your people.
The offspring of evildoers will never be mentioned again."
²¹Prepare your slaughter for his children, for the iniquity of their ancestors, so they will not rise up and possess the earth and fill the whole world with cities.

²²“I will rise up against them”—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

“I will cut off from Babylon name, descendant, and posterity”—this is Yahweh’s declaration.

²³“I will also make her into a possession of owls, and into pools of water, and I will sweep her with the broom of destruction”—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

²⁴Yahweh of hosts has sworn,

“Surely, as I have intended, so it will come about;

and as I have purposed, {so} it will be:

²⁵I will break the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains trample him underfoot.

Then his yoke will be lifted from off them and his burden from off their shoulder.

²⁷For Yahweh of hosts has planned this; who will stop him? His hand {is} raised, and who will turn it back?

²⁸In the year that king Ahaz died this declaration came:

²⁹Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken.

For out of the serpent’s root will grow out an adder, and his offspring {will be} a fiery flying serpent.

³⁰The firstborn of the poor will graze their sheep in my pastures, and the needy will lie down in safety.

I will kill your root with famine that will put to death all your survivors.

³¹Howl, gate; cry, city; all of you will melt away, Philistia.

For out of the north comes a cloud of smoke, and there is no straggler in his ranks.

“Yahweh has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will find refuge.”

14:4 ^[1], some versions have , , , or .

Chapter 15

¹A declaration about Moab.

Indeed, in one night Ar of Moab is laid waste {and} destroyed;

indeed, in one night Kir of Moab is laid waste {and} destroyed.

²They have gone up to the temple, the people of Dibon went up to the heights to weep;

Moab laments over Nebo and over Medeba.

All their heads are shaved bare {and} all their beards are cut off.

³In their streets they wear sackcloth; on their housetops and in the square everyone wails, melting in tears.

⁴Heshbon and Elealeh call out for help; their sound is heard as far as Jahaz.

So the armed men of Moab call out for help; they tremble within themselves.

⁵My heart cries out for Moab; her fugitives {flee} to Zoar and to Eglath Shelishiyah.

They go up the ascent of Luhith weeping;

on the road to Horonaim they loudly wail over their destruction.

⁶The waters of Nimrim are a desolation;

the grass is withered;

the vegetation has dried up;

there is no more green grass.

⁷The abundance they have grown and stored they carry away over the brook of the poplars.

⁸The cry has gone around the territory of Moab;

the wailing as far as Eglaim and Beer Elim.

⁹For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; but I will bring even more upon Dimon.

A lion will attack those who escape from Moab and also those remaining in the land.

Chapter 16

¹Send rams to the ruler of the land from Selah in the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion.

²As wandering birds, as a scattered nest,

³"Give instruction, execute justice; provide some shade like night in the middle of the day;

hide the fugitives; do not betray the fugitives.

⁴Let them live among you, the refugees from Moab;

be a hiding place for them from the destroyer."

For the oppression will stop, and destruction will cease, those who trample will disappear from the land.

⁵A throne will be established in covenant faithfulness; and one from David's tent will faithfully sit there.
He will judge as he seeks justice and does righteousness.

⁶We have heard of Moab's pride, his arrogance, his boasting, and his anger. {But} his boastings are empty words.

⁷So Moab wails for Moab—they all wail! Mourn, you who are utterly destroyed, for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth.

⁸The fields of Heshbon have dried up as well as the vines of Sibmah.

The rulers of the nations have trampled the choice vines that reached to Jazer and spread into the desert.

Its shoots spread abroad; they went over to the sea.

⁹Indeed I will weep along with Jazer for the vineyard of Sibmah.

I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh.

For on your fields of summer fruits and harvest I have ended the shouts of joy.

¹⁰Gladness and joy are taken away from the fruit tree groves; and there is no singing, or shouts in the vineyards.
No one treads out wine in the presses, for I have put an end to the shouts of the one who treads.

¹¹So my heart sighs like a harp for Moab, and my inward being for Kir Hareseth.

¹²When Moab wears himself out on the high place and enters his temple to pray, his prayers will accomplish nothing.

¹³This {is} the word that Yahweh spoke concerning Moab previously. ¹⁴Again Yahweh speaks, "Within three years, the glory of Moab will disappear; in spite of his many people, the remnant {will be} very few and insignificant."

Chapter 17

¹A declaration about Damascus.

²The cities of Aroer {will be} abandoned.

They will be places for flocks to lie down, and no one will frighten {them}.

³Fortified cities will disappear from Ephraim, the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Aram—they will be like the glory of the people of Israel—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

⁴It will come about on that day

{that} the glory of Jacob will become thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean.

⁵It will be as when a harvester gathers the standing grain, and his arm reaps the heads of grain.

It will be as when one glean heads of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.

⁶Gleanings will be left, however, as when the olive tree is shaken:

two {or} three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four {or} five in the highest branches of a fruitful tree—this is the declaration of Yahweh, the God of Israel.

⁷On that day men will look toward their Maker, and their eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel.

⁸They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands, nor will they look to what their fingers have made, the Asherah poles or the sun images.

⁹On that day their strong cities will be like the abandoned wooded slopes on the hill summits, that were forsaken because of the people of Israel and that will become a desolation.

¹⁰For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have ignored the rock of your strength.

So you plant pleasant plants, and set out vine branches received from a stranger, ¹¹on the day you plant and hedge and cultivate. Soon your seed will grow, {but} the harvest {will} fail on a day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

¹²Woe! The uproar of many peoples, that roar like the roaring of the seas, and the rushing of nations, {that} rush like the rushing of mighty waters!

¹³The nations will roar like the rushing of many waters, but he will rebuke them and they will flee far away, they will be chased before the wind like chaff on the mountains, and like weeds whirling before a storm.

¹⁴In the evening, see, terror! Before the morning they will be gone!

This {is} the portion of those who loot us, the lot of those who rob us.

Chapter 18

¹Woe to the land of the {rustling} of wings, which {is} along the rivers of Cush;

²who send ambassadors by the sea, in vessels of papyrus on the waters.

Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people feared far and near, a nation strong and trampling down, whose land the rivers divide.

³All you inhabitants of the world and you who live on the earth, when a signal is lifted up on the mountains, look; and when the trumpet is blown, listen.

⁴This is what Yahweh said to me, "I will quietly observe from my home, like the simmering heat in sunshine, like a cloud of mist in the heat of harvest.

⁵Before the harvest, when the blossoming is over, and the flower is ripening into a grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, {and} he will cut down and take away the spreading branches.

⁶They will be left together for the birds of the mountains and for the animals of the earth.

The birds will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them.”

⁷At that time tribute will be brought to Yahweh of hosts from a people tall and smooth, from a people feared far and near, a nation strong and trampling down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of Yahweh of hosts, to Mount Zion.

Chapter 19

¹A declaration about Egypt.

See, Yahweh rides on a swift cloud and is coming to Egypt;

the idols of Egypt quake before him, and the hearts of the Egyptians melt within themselves.

²“I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians: A man will fight against his brother, and a man against his neighbor; city will be against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

³The spirit of Egypt will be weakened from within. I will destroy his advice, though they sought the advice of idols, dead men’s spirits, mediums, and spiritualists.

⁴I will give the Egyptians into the hand of a harsh master, and a strong king will rule over them— this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts.”

⁵The waters of the sea will dry up, and the river will dry up and become empty.

⁷The reeds along the Nile, at the mouth of the Nile, and every sown field beside the Nile will become parched, will be driven away, and will be no more.

⁸The fishermen will wail and mourn, and all who cast a hook into the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will grieve.

⁹The workers in combed flax and those who weave white cloth will turn pale.

¹⁰The cloth workers of Egypt will be crushed; all who work for hire will be grieved within themselves.

¹¹The princes of Zoan {are} completely foolish. The advice of the wisest advisors of Pharaoh has become senseless. How can you say to Pharaoh, “I {am} the son of wise men, a son of ancient kings?”

¹²Where then {are} your wise men?

Let them tell you and make known what Yahweh of hosts plans concerning Egypt.

¹³The princes of Zoan have become fools, the princes of Memphis are deceived; they have made Egypt go astray, {who are} the cornerstones of her tribes.^[1] and they have led Egypt astray in all she does, like a drunk staggering in his vomit.

¹⁴Yahweh has mixed a spirit of distortion into her midst,

¹⁵There is nothing anyone can do for Egypt, whether head or tail, palm branch or reed. ¹⁶In that day, the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the upraised hand of Yahweh of hosts that he raises over them. ¹⁷The land of Judah will become a cause of staggering to Egypt. Whenever anyone reminds them of her, they will be afraid, because of the plan of Yahweh, that he is planning against them. ¹⁸In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to Yahweh of hosts. One of these will be called The City of the Sun.^[2]

¹⁹In that day there will be an altar to Yahweh in the middle of the land of Egypt, and a stone pillar at the border to Yahweh. ²⁰It will be as a sign and a witness to Yahweh of hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry to Yahweh because of oppressors, he will send them a savior and a defender, and he will deliver them. ²¹Yahweh will become known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will acknowledge Yahweh on that day. They will worship with sacrifices and offerings, and will make vows to Yahweh and fulfill {them}. ²²Yahweh will afflict Egypt, afflicting and healing. They will return to Yahweh; he will hear their prayer and will heal {them}.

²³In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come to Egypt, and the Egyptian to Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians. ²⁴In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth; ²⁵Yahweh of hosts will bless them and say, "Blessed {be} Egypt, my people; Assyria, the work of my hands; and Israel, my inheritance."

19:13 ^[1], some versions have , the Hebrew name for the same city in Egypt.

19:18 ^[2], which probably refers to the Egyptian city of Heliopolis, some ancient and modern versions have .

Chapter 20

¹In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, he fought against Ashdod and took it. ²At that time Yahweh spoke by Isaiah son of Amoz and said, "Go and remove the sackcloth from your waist, and take your sandals off your feet." He did so, walking naked and barefoot. ³Yahweh said, "Just as my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years, it is a sign and an omen concerning Egypt and concerning Cush— ⁴in this way the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt, and the exiles of Cush, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. ⁵They will be dismayed and ashamed, because of Cush their hope and of Egypt their glory. ⁶The inhabitants of these coasts will say on that day, 'Indeed, this {was} our source of hope, where we fled for help to be rescued from the king of Assyria, and now, how can we escape?'"

Chapter 21

¹A declaration about the desert by the sea.

Like stormwinds sweeping through the Negev it comes passing through from the wilderness, from a terrible land.

²A distressing vision has been given to me:

the treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys.

Go up and attack, Elam; besiege, Media;

I will stop all her groaning.

³Therefore my loins are filled with pain;

pains like the pains of a woman in labor have taken hold of me;

I am bowed down by {what I} heard; I am disturbed by {what I} saw.

⁴My heart pounds; I shake with fear.

Twilight was my desire, but it brought me terror.

⁵They prepare the table, they spread rugs and eat and drink; arise, princes, anoint your shields with oil.

⁶For this is what the Lord said to me,

“Go, post a watchman; he must report what he sees.

⁷When he sees a chariot, a pair of horsemen, riders on donkeys, and riders on camels, then he must pay attention and be very alert.”

⁸The watchman cries out,^[1]

“Lord, on the watchtower I stand all day, every day, and at my post I stand all night long.”

⁹Here comes a chariot {with} a man and a pair of horsemen.

He calls out, “Babylon has fallen, fallen, and all the carved figures of its gods are broken to the ground.”

¹⁰My threshed and winnowed ones, children of my threshing floor!

What I have heard from Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

¹¹A declaration about Dumah.

One calls to me from Seir,

¹²The watchman said, “The morning comes and also the night.

If you want to ask, then ask; and come back again.”

¹³A declaration about Arabia.

In the wilderness of Arabia you spend the night, you caravans of Dedanites.

¹⁴Bring water for the thirsty;

inhabitants of the land of Tema, meet the fugitives with bread.

¹⁵For they have fled from the sword, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the weight of war. ¹⁶For this is what the Lord said to me, "Within a year, as a laborer hired for a year would see it, all the glory of Kedar will end. ¹⁷Only a few of the archers, the warriors of Kedar will remain," for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has spoken.

21:8 ^[1], some older versions have .

¹A declaration about the Valley of Vision:

What is the reason that you have all gone up to the housetops?

²Is it so you may hear a city full of noises, a town full of revelry?

Your dead {were} not killed with the sword, and they did not die in battle.

³All your rulers fled away together, but they were captured without using a bow; all of them were captured together, though they had fled far away.

⁴Therefore I said, "Do not look at me, I will weep bitterly; do not try to comfort me concerning the destruction of the daughter of my people."

⁵For {there is} a day of tumult, treading down, and confusion for the Lord Yahweh of hosts, in the Valley of Vision, a breaking down of the walls, and people crying out to the mountains.

⁶Elam takes up the quiver, with chariots of men {and} horsemen, and Kir lays the shield bare.

⁷It will come about {that} your choicest valleys will be full of chariots, and the horsemen will take their positions at the gate.

⁸He took away the protection of Judah;

and you looked in that day to the weapons in the Palace of the Forest.

⁹You saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many, and you collected the water of the lower pool.

¹¹You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool.

But you did not consider the city's maker, who had planned it long ago.

¹²The Lord Yahweh of hosts called on that day for weeping, for mourning, for shaved heads, and the wearing of sackcloth.

¹³But look, instead, celebration and gladness, killing cattle and slaughtering sheep, eating meat and drinking wine; let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die.

¹⁴This was revealed in my ears by Yahweh of hosts:

“Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you, even when you die,” says the Lord Yahweh of hosts.

¹⁵The Lord Yahweh of hosts, says this, “Go to this administrator, to Shebna, who {is} over the house, {and say},

¹⁸He will surely wind you round and round, and toss you like a ball into a vast country.

There you will die, and there your glorious chariots will be; you {will be} the shame of your master’s house!

¹⁹“I will thrust you from your office and from your station. You will be pulled down.

²⁰It will come about on that day that I will call my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah.

²¹I will clothe him with your tunic and put on him your sash, and I will transfer your authority into his hand.

He will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.

²²I will place the key of the house of David on his shoulder;

he will open, and none will shut; he will shut, and none will open.

²³I will fasten him, a peg in a secure place, and he will become a seat of glory for his father’s house.

²⁴They will hang on him all the glory of his father’s house, the offspring and descendants, every small container from the cups to all the jugs. ²⁵On that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—the peg driven in a firm place will give way, break off, and fall, and the weight that was on it will be cut off—for Yahweh has spoken.

Chapter 23

¹A declaration about Tyre:

Howl, you ships of Tarshish; for there is neither home nor harbor;

from the land of Cyprus it has been revealed to them.^[1]

²Be silent, you inhabitants of the coast; the merchant of Sidon, who travels over the sea, has filled you.^[2]

³Upon the great waters was the grain of Shihor,

the harvest of the Nile was her produce;

and it became the commerce of the nations.

⁴Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the mighty one of the sea. He says,
 "I have not labored nor given birth, {nor} have I raised young men nor brought up young women."

⁶Cross over to Tarshish; wail, you inhabitants of the coast.

⁷Has this happened to you, the joyful {city,} whose origin {is} from ancient times, whose feet carried her far away to foreign places to settle?

⁸Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants {are} princes, whose traders {are} the honored ones of the earth?

⁹Yahweh of hosts has planned it to dishonor her pride and all her glory, to shame all her honored ones of the earth.

¹⁰Plow your land, as one plows the Nile, daughter of Tarshish. {There is} no longer a marketplace in Tyre.^[3]

¹¹Yahweh has reached out with his hand over the sea, and he has shaken the kingdoms;
 he has given a command concerning Phoenicia, to destroy the strongholds.

¹²He said, "You will not rejoice again, oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon; arise, pass over to Cyprus; but neither there you will have rest."

¹³See the land of the Chaldeans. This people has ceased to be; the Assyrians have made it a wilderness for wild animals.

They set up their siege towers; they demolished its palaces; they made it a heap of ruins.

¹⁴Howl, you ships of Tarshish; for your refuge has been destroyed. ¹⁵In that day, Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, like the days of a king. After the end of seventy years there will happen in Tyre something like in the song of the prostitute.

¹⁶Take a harp, go about the city, you forgotten prostitute; play it well, sing many songs, so that you may be remembered. ¹⁷It will come about that after seventy years, Yahweh will help Tyre, and she will start making money again by doing the work of a prostitute, and she will offer her services to all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸Her profits and earnings will be set apart to Yahweh. They will not be stored up or kept in the treasury, for her profits will be given to those who live in Yahweh's presence and will be used to supply them with abundant food and so they can have the best quality clothing.

Chapter 24

¹Look, Yahweh is about to empty the earth, to devastate it, mar its surface, and scatter its inhabitants.

²It will come about that, as with the people, so with the priest;
as with the servant, so with his master;
as with the maid, so with her mistress;
as with the buyer, so with the seller;
as with the creditor, so with the debtor;
as with the receiver of interest, so with the giver of interest.

³The earth will be completely devastated and completely stripped;
for Yahweh has spoken this word.

⁴The earth dries up and withers, the world shrivels up {and} fades away, the prominent people of the earth waste away.

⁵The earth is polluted by its inhabitants because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant.

The inhabitants of the earth burn up, and few people {are} left.

⁸The happy sound of the tambourines stops, and the revelry of those who rejoice;
the joy of the lyre ceases.

⁹They no longer drink wine and sing, and the beer is bitter to those who drink it.

¹¹{There is} a crying in the streets because of the wine;
all joy is darkened, the gladness of the land has disappeared.

¹²In the city is left a desolation, and the gate is broken into a ruin.

¹³For this is how {it will be} on the whole earth among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten, as the gleanings when the grape harvest is done.

¹⁴They will lift up their voices and shout the majesty of Yahweh, and will joyfully shout from the sea.

¹⁵Therefore in the east glorify Yahweh, and in the isles of the sea give glory to the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel.

¹⁶From the farthest part of the earth we have heard songs, "Glory to the righteous one!"

But I said, "I have wasted away, I have wasted away, woe is me!

The treacherous have dealt treacherously;

yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously."

¹⁷Terror, the pit, and the snare {are} upon you, inhabitants of the earth.

¹⁸He who flees from the sound of terror will fall into the pit, and he who comes up out of the middle of the pit will be caught in the snare.

The windows of the heavens will be opened, and the foundations of the earth will shake.

¹⁹The earth will be completely broken, the earth ripped apart;

the earth will be violently shaken.

²⁰The earth will stagger like a drunken man and it will sway back and forth like a hut.

Its sin will be heavy on it and it will fall and never rise again.

²¹On that day Yahweh will punish the host of the heaven in the heavens, and the kings of the earth on the earth.

²²They will be gathered together, prisoners in a pit, and will be shut up in a prison;

and after many days they will be punished.

²³Then the moon will be ashamed, and the sun disgraced, for Yahweh of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before his elders in glory.

Chapter 25

¹Yahweh, you {are} my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful {things,} things planned long ago, in perfect faithfulness.

²For you have made the city a heap, a fortified city, a ruin, and a fortress of strangers into no city.

³Therefore a strong people will glorify you; a city of ruthless nations will fear you.

⁴For you have been a place of safety for the one who is poor, a shelter for the one who is needy in his distress—

a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat.

When the breath of the ruthless was like a storm {against} a wall, ⁵and like heat in a dry land, you subdued the noise of foreigners, as the heat is subdued by the shade of a cloud, so the song of the ruthless ones is answered.

⁶On this mountain Yahweh of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of fat things, of choice wines, of tender meats, a feast on the lees.

⁷He will destroy on this mountain the covering over all peoples, the web woven over all the nations.

⁸He will swallow up death forever, and the Lord Yahweh will wipe away tears from off all faces;
the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Yahweh has spoken it.

⁹It will be said on that day, "Look, this {is} our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us.
This {is} Yahweh; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

¹⁰For on this mountain the hand of Yahweh will rest; and Moab will be trampled down in his place, even as straw is trampled down in a pit filled with manure.

¹¹They will spread their hands in the midst of it, as a swimmer spreads his hands to swim.
But Yahweh will bring down their pride in spite of the skill of their hands.

¹²Your high fortress walls he will bring down to the ground, to the dust.

Chapter 26

¹In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

We have a strong city; {God} has made salvation its walls and ramparts.

²Open the gates, that the righteous nation that keeps faith may enter in.

³The mind {that} {is} stayed {on you}, you will keep {him} in {perfect} peace, for he trusts in you.

⁴Trust in Yahweh forever; for in Yah, Yahweh, {is} an everlasting rock.

⁵For he will bring down those who live proudly; the fortified city he will lay low, he will lay low to the ground; he will level it to the dust.

⁶It will be trampled down by the feet of the poor {and} the treading of the needy.

⁷The path of the righteous {is} level, Righteous One; the path of the righteous you make straight.

⁸Yes, in the path of your judgments, Yahweh, we wait for you;
your name and your reputation are our desire.

⁹I have longed for you in the night; yes, my spirit within me seeks you earnestly.

For when your judgments come on the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn about righteousness.

¹⁰Let favor be shown to the wicked one, {but} he will not learn righteousness. In the land of uprightness he acts wickedly and does not see the majesty of Yahweh.

¹¹Yahweh, your hand is lifted up, but they do not notice.

But they will see your zeal for the people and be put to shame, because fire of your adversaries will devour them.

¹²Yahweh, you will bring about peace for us; for indeed, you have also accomplished all our works for us.

¹³Yahweh our God, other masters besides you have ruled over us; {but} we praise your name alone.

¹⁴{They are} dead, they will not live; {they are} deceased, they will not arise.

Indeed, you came in judgment and destroyed them, and made every memory of them to perish.

¹⁵You have increased the nation, Yahweh, you have increased the nation; you are honored; you have extended all the borders of the land.

¹⁷As a pregnant {woman} nears the time for her to give birth, when she is in pain and cries out in her labor pains, so we have been before you, Lord.

¹⁸We have been pregnant, we have been in labor, but it is as if we have only given birth to wind. We have not brought salvation to the earth, and the inhabitants of the world have not fallen.

¹⁹Your dead will live; their dead bodies will arise. Awake and sing for joy, you who live in the dust; for your dew is the dew of light, and the earth will bring forth its dead.

²⁰Go, my people, enter into your rooms and shut your doors behind you; hide for a little while, until the indignation has passed by.

²¹For, look, Yahweh is about to come out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity;

the earth will uncover her bloodshed, and will no longer conceal her slain.

26:16 ^[1]

Chapter 27

¹On that day Yahweh with his hard, great and fierce sword will punish Leviathan the slithering serpent, Leviathan the squirming serpent, and he will kill the monster that {is} in the sea.

²In that day: A vineyard of wine, sing of it.

³"I, Yahweh, am its protector; I water it every moment.

I guard it night and day so no one will hurt it.

⁴I am not angry, Oh, that there were briers {and} thorns!

In battle I would march against them; I would burn them all together;

⁵unless they grasp my protection {and} make peace with me; let them make peace with me.

⁶In the coming day, Jacob will take root; Israel will blossom and bud; and they will fill the surface of the ground with fruit."

⁷Has Yahweh attacked Jacob and {Israel} as he attacked those nations who attacked them? Have Jacob and Israel been killed as in the slaughter of those nations that were killed by them?

⁸In exact measure you have contended, sending Jacob and Israel away; he drove them away with his fierce breath in the day of the east wind.^[1]

⁹So in this way, the iniquity of Jacob will be atoned for, for this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin:

when he will make all the altar stones as chalk and crushed to pieces, and no Asherah poles or incense altars will remain standing.

¹⁰For the fortified city is desolate, the habitation is deserted and forsaken like the wilderness.

There a calf feeds, and there he lies down and consumes its branches.

¹¹When the boughs are withered, they will be broken off. Women will come {and} make fires with them, for this is not a people of understanding.

Therefore their Maker will not have compassion on them, and he who made them will not be merciful to them.

¹²It will come about on that day

{that} Yahweh will thresh from the Euphrates River to the Wadi of Egypt and you, the people of Israel, will be gathered together one by one.

¹³On that day a great trumpet will be blown;

and the perishing ones in the land of Assyria will come, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, they will worship Yahweh on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

27:8 ^[1], many modern versions have an idea similar to .

Chapter 28

¹Woe to the proud garland crown that {is} worn by each of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of its glorious beauty, the garland that {is} set on the head of the lush Valley of those who are overcome with wine!

²Behold, the Lord sends one who is mighty and strong; like a storm of hail and a destructive windstorm, like a driving rain and overflowing waters;

and he will throw each garland crown down to the ground.

⁴The fading flower of his glorious beauty, that is on the head of the rich valley, will be as the first ripe fig before the summer, that, when someone sees it, while it is yet in his hand, he gulps it down.

⁵In that day Yahweh of hosts will become a beautiful crown and a diadem of beauty for the remainder of his people,

⁷But even these reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink.

The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink, and they are swallowed up by wine.

They stagger with strong drink, staggering in vision and reeling in decision.

⁸Truly, all tables are covered with vomit, so that there {is} no {clean} place.

⁹To whom will he teach knowledge, and to whom will he explain the message?

To those who are weaned from milk or to those {just} taken from the breasts?

¹⁰For it is command upon command, command upon command; rule upon rule, rule upon rule;
here a little, there a little.

¹¹Indeed, with mocking lips and a foreign tongue he will speak to this people.

¹²In the past he said to them "This {is} the rest, give rest to him who is weary;
and this {is} the refreshing," but they would not listen.

¹³So the word of Yahweh will be to them command upon command, command upon command; rule upon rule, rule upon rule;
here a little, there a little;
so that they may go and fall backward, and be broken, ensnared, and captured.

¹⁴So listen to the word of Yahweh, you who mock, you who rule over this people who {are} in Jerusalem.

¹⁵This will happen because you said, "We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol we have reached an agreement. So when the overwhelming whip passes through, it will not reach us.

For we have made a lie our refuge, and taken shelter in falsehood."

¹⁶Therefore the Lord Yahweh says,

"See, I will lay in Zion a foundation stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation. He who believes will not be ashamed.

¹⁷I will make justice the measuring stick, and righteousness the plumbline.

Hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the floodwaters will overwhelm the hiding place.

¹⁸Your covenant with death will be dissolved, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand.

When the raging flood passes through, you will be overwhelmed by it.

¹⁹Whenever it passes through, it will overwhelm you, and morning by morning it will pass through and by day and night it will come.

When the message is understood, it will cause terror.

²⁰For the bed is too short for a man to stretch out {on}, and the blanket too narrow for him to wrap himself {in}.”

²¹Yahweh will rise up as {on} Mount Perazim; he will rouse himself as in the Valley of Gibeon to do his work, his strange work, and perform his strange deed.

²²Now therefore do not mock, or your bonds will be tightened.

I have heard from the Lord Yahweh of hosts, a decree of destruction on the earth.

²⁴Does a farmer who plows all day to sow, only plow the ground? Does he continually break up and harrow the field?

²⁵When he has prepared the ground, does he not scatter caraway seed, sow the cumin, put in the wheat in rows and the barley in the right place, and the spelt at its edges?^[1]

²⁶His God instructs him; he teaches him wisely.

²⁷Moreover, the caraway seed is not threshed with a sledge, nor is a cartwheel rolled over the cumin;

but caraway is beaten with a stick, and cumin with a rod.

²⁸Grain is ground for bread but not too finely, and though the wheels of his cart and his horses scatter it, his horses do not crush it.

²⁹This too comes from Yahweh of hosts,

{who} is wonderful in instruction {and} excellent in wisdom.

28:25 ^[1] and , because these expressions are uncertain in Hebrew.

Chapter 29

¹Woe to Ariel, Ariel, the city {where} David encamped!

Add year to year; let the festivals come round.

²But I will besiege Ariel, and she will be mourning and lamenting; and she will be to me like Ariel.

³I will encamp against you in a circle and will lay siege against you with a palisade, and I will raise siege works against you.

⁴You will be brought down and will speak from the ground; your speech will be low from the dust.
Your voice will sound like a spirit that speaks from the ground, and out of the dust your speech will whisper.

⁵The great number of your invaders will become like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones as chaff that passes away.

It will happen suddenly, in an instant.

⁶Yahweh of hosts will come to you with thunder, earthquake, great noise, {with} strong winds and violent storm, and the flames of a devouring fire.

⁷It will be like a dream, a vision of the night:
A horde of all the nations will fight against Ariel and her stronghold. They will attack her and her fortifications to press upon her.

⁸It will be like when a hungry man dreams he is eating, but when he awakes, his stomach is empty.
It will be like when a thirsty man dreams that he is drinking, but he when he awakes, {he is} fainting, with his thirst not quenched.

Yes, so will be the great number of nations that fights against Mount Zion.

⁹Astonish yourselves and be astonished; blind yourselves and be blind!
Be drunk, but not with wine; stagger, but not with beer.

¹⁰For Yahweh has poured out on you the spirit of deep sleep.

He has closed your eyes, the prophets, and has covered your heads, the seers. ¹¹All revelation has become to you as the words of a book that is sealed, which {men} might give to one who is learned, saying, "Read this." He also says, "I cannot, for it {is} sealed." ¹²If the book is given to one who cannot read, saying, "Read this," he says, "I cannot read."

¹³The Lord said, "This people comes close to me with their mouths and honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.
Their honor for me is only a commandment of men that has been taught.

¹⁴Therefore, see, I will proceed to do a marvelous thing among this people, wonder after wonder.
The wisdom of their wise {men} will perish, and the understanding of their prudent {men} will disappear."

¹⁵Woe to those who deeply hide their plans from Yahweh, and whose deeds are in darkness. They say, "Who sees us, and who knows us?"

¹⁶You turn things upside down! Should the potter be considered like clay, so that the thing that is made should say about him who made it, "He did not make me," or the thing formed say about him who formed it, "He does not understand"?

¹⁷In just a little while,

Lebanon will be turned into a field, and the field will become a forest.

¹⁸On that day the deaf will hear the words of a book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of the {deep} darkness.

¹⁹The oppressed will again rejoice in Yahweh, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

²⁰For the ruthless will cease, and the scoffer will vanish. All those who love to do evil will be eliminated,

²¹who by a word make a man out to be an offender. They lay a snare for him who seeks justice at the gate and put the righteous down with empty {lies}.

²²Therefore this is what Yahweh says concerning the house of Jacob—Yahweh, who redeemed Abraham,

"Jacob will no longer be ashamed, nor will his face be pale.

²³But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, they will make my name holy.

They will make holy the name of the Holy One of Jacob and they will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

²⁴Those who err in spirit will gain understanding, and complainers will learn knowledge."

"They make plans, but not from me; they make alliances with other nations, but they were not directed by my Spirit, so they add sin to sin.

²They set out to go down into Egypt, but have not asked for my direction.

They seek protection from Pharaoh and take refuge in the shadow of Egypt.

³Therefore Pharaoh's protection will be your shame, and the refuge in Egypt's shade, {your} humiliation,

⁴although their princes are at Zoan, and their messengers have come to Hanes.

⁵They will all be ashamed because of a people {who} cannot help them,

{who} are neither help nor aid, but a shame, and even a disgrace."

⁶A declaration about the beasts of the Negev:

Through the land of trouble and danger, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches on the backs of donkeys, and their treasures on the camels' humps, to a people {who} cannot help them.

⁷For Egypt's help is worthless;
therefore I have called her Rahab, who sits still.

⁸Now go, write it in their presence on a tablet, and inscribe it on a scroll, that it may be preserved for the time to come as a testimony.

⁹For these {are} a rebellious people, lying children, children {who} will not hear the instruction of Yahweh.

¹⁰They say to the seers, "Do not see;"
and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy the truth to us; speak flattering words to us, prophesy illusions. ¹¹Turn aside from the way, stray off the path;
cause the Holy One of Israel to cease speaking before our face."

¹²Therefore the Holy One of Israel says, "Because you reject this word and trust in oppression and deceit and lean on it,

¹³so this sin will be to you like a broken part ready to fall, like a bulge in a high wall whose fall will happen suddenly, in an instant."

¹⁴He will break it as a potter's vessel is broken; he will not spare it, so that there will not be found among its pieces a shard with which to scrape fire from the hearth, or to scoop up water out of the cistern.

¹⁵For this is what the Lord Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel says,
"In returning and resting you will be saved; in quietness and in trust will be your strength.
But you were not willing.

¹⁶You said, 'No,
for we will flee on horses,' so you will flee;
and, 'We will ride upon swift {horses},' so those who pursue you will be swift.

¹⁷One thousand {will flee} at the threat of one;
at the threat of five you will flee until your remnant will be like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, or like a flag on a hill."

¹⁸Yet Yahweh is waiting to be gracious to you, therefore he is ready to show you mercy.

For Yahweh {is} a God of justice; blessed {are} all those who wait for him.

¹⁹For a people will live in Zion, in Jerusalem, and you will weep no more.

He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry. When he hears it, he will answer you.

²⁰{Though} Yahweh gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, even so, your teacher will not hide himself anymore, but you will see your teacher with your own eyes.

²¹Your ears will hear a word behind you saying,

“This {is} the way, walk in it,” when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.

²²You will desecrate your carved figures overlaid with silver and your gold cast figures.

You will throw them away like a menstrual rag. You will say to them, “Get out of here.”

²³He will give the rain for your seed when you sow the ground, and bread with abundance from the ground, and the crops will be abundant.

In that day your cattle will graze in broad pastures.

²⁴The oxen and the donkeys, who plow the ground, will eat seasoned feed that has been winnowed with a shovel and a fork.

²⁵On every high mountain and on every high hill, there will be flowing brooks {and} streams of waters, in the day of the great slaughter when the towers fall.

²⁶The light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the sunlight of seven days.

Yahweh will bind up the breaking of his people and heal the bruises of his wounding them.

²⁷Look, the name of Yahweh comes from a distant place, burning {with} his anger and in dense smoke.

His lips are full of fury, and his tongue is like a devouring fire.

²⁸His breath is like an overflowing torrent that reaches up to the middle of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction. His breath {is} a bridle in the jaws of the peoples to cause {them} to wander away.

²⁹You will have a song as in the night {when} a holy feast is observed, and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to the mountain of Yahweh, to the Rock of Israel.

³⁰Yahweh will make the splendor of his voice heard and show the motion of his arm in storming anger and flames of fire, with windstorm, rainstorm, and hailstones.

³²Every stroke of the appointed rod that Yahweh will lay on them will be accompanied with the music of tambourines and harps as he battles and fights with them.

³³For a place of burning {was} prepared long ago. Indeed, it is prepared for the king, and God has made it deep and wide.

The pile {is} ready with a fire and much wood.

The breath of Yahweh, like a stream of brimstone, will set it on fire.

Chapter 31

¹Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help {and} lean on horses, and trust in chariots (for {they are} many) and in horsemen (for they are countless).

But they are not concerned about the Holy One of Israel, nor do they seek Yahweh!

²Yet he {is} wise, and he will bring disaster and will not retract his words.

He will arise against the evil house and against the helpers of those who commit sin.

³Egypt {is} a man and not God, their horses flesh and not spirit.

When Yahweh reaches out with his hand, both the one who helps will stumble, and the one who is helped will fall; both will perish together.

⁴This is what Yahweh says to me,

“As a lion, even a young lion, growls over its torn prey, when a group of shepherds is called out against it, but it does not tremble at their voices, nor creep away from their sound;

thus Yahweh of hosts will descend to fight on Mount Zion, on that hill.

⁵Like birds in flight, so Yahweh of hosts will protect Jerusalem;

he will protect and rescue as he passes over it and preserves {it}.

⁶Return {to him} from whom you have deeply turned away, people of Israel. ⁷For in that day each one will get rid of his idols of silver and his idols of gold that your own hands have sinfully made.

⁸Assyria will fall by the sword; a sword not wielded by man will consume him.

He will flee from the sword, and his young men will be forced to do hard labor.

⁹They will lose all confidence because of terror, and his princes will be afraid at the sight of Yahweh’s battle flag—this is Yahweh’s declaration—whose fire {is} in Zion and whose firepot {is} in Jerusalem.”

Chapter 32

¹Look, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice.

²Each one will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a land of weariness.

³Then the eyes of those who see will not be dim, and the ears of those who hear will hear attentively.

⁴The rash will think carefully with understanding, and the stutterer will speak distinctly and with ease.

⁶For the fool speaks folly, and his heart plans evil and godless actions, and he speaks wrongly against Yahweh.

He makes the hungry empty, and the thirsty he causes to lack drink.

⁷The deceiver's methods {are} evil. He devises wicked schemes to ruin the poor with lies, even when the poor say what is right.

⁸But the honorable man makes honorable plans; and because of his honorable actions he will stand.

⁹Rise up, you women who are at ease, and listen to my voice;

you carefree daughters, listen to me.

¹⁰For in a little more than a year your confidence will be broken, you carefree women, for the grape harvest will fail, the ingathering will not come.

¹¹Tremble, you {women} who are at ease; be troubled, you confident ones; take off your fine clothes and make yourselves bare; put on sackcloth around {your} waists.

¹²You will wail for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vines.

¹³The land of my people will be overgrown with thorns {and} briers, even in all the once joyful houses {in} the city of revelry.

¹⁴For the palace will be forsaken, the crowded city will be deserted;

the hill and the watchtower will become caves forever,

a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks;

¹⁵until the Spirit is poured on us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is considered as a forest.

¹⁶Then justice will reside in the wilderness; and righteousness will live in the fruitful field.

¹⁸My people will live in a peaceful habitation, in secure homes, and in quiet resting places.

¹⁹But even if it hails and the forest is destroyed, and the city is completely annihilated, ²⁰you who sow beside all the streams {will be} blessed, you who send out your ox and donkey to graze.

Chapter 33

¹Woe to you, destroyer who {has} not {been} destroyed!

Woe to the betrayer whom they have not betrayed!

When you stop destroying, you will be destroyed.

When you stop betraying, they will betray you.

²Yahweh, be gracious to us; we wait for you;

be our arm every morning, our salvation in the time of trouble.

³At the loud noise the peoples flee; when you arise, the nations are scattered.

⁴Your spoil is gathered {as} the locusts gather; as locusts leap, men leap on it.

⁶He will be the stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of Yahweh is his treasure.

⁷Look, their envoys cry in the streets; the diplomats hoping for peace weep bitterly.

⁸The highways are deserted; there are no more travelers.

Covenants are broken, witnesses are despised, and mankind is not respected.^[1]

⁹The land mourns {and} withers away; Lebanon is ashamed {and} withers away;^[2]

Sharon is like a desert plain; and Bashan and Carmel shake off {their leaves}.

¹⁰"Now will I arise," says Yahweh; "now I will be lifted up; now I will be elevated.

¹¹You conceive chaff, and you give birth to stubble; your breath is a fire that will consume you.

¹²The peoples will be burned to lime, {as} thornbushes are cut down and are burned.

¹³You {who are} far away, hear what I have done; and, you {who are} near, acknowledge my might."

¹⁴The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling has seized the godless ones.

Who among us can sojourn with a raging fire? Who among us can sojourn with everlasting burnings?

¹⁵He who walks righteously and speaks honestly; who despises the gain of oppression, who shakes his hand so that it will not accept a bribe, who stops his ears from hearing about bloodshed, and who shuts his eyes from looking on evil—

¹⁶this is the man who will dwell on the heights, his {place} of defense {will be} the fortress among the cliffs, his food will be given, and his water {will be} in steady supply.

¹⁷Your eyes will see the king in his beauty; they will see a land off in the distance.

¹⁸Your heart will recall the terror; where {is} the scribe, where {is} he who weighed the money? Where {is} he who counted the towers?

¹⁹You will no longer see the defiant people, a people of a strange language {that you} {do} not understand.

²⁰Look at Zion, the city of our feasts; your eyes will see Jerusalem as a quiet habitation, a tent {that} will not be removed, whose stakes will never be pulled up nor will any of its cords be broken.

²¹Instead, Yahweh in majesty {will be} with us, in a place of broad rivers {and} streams.

No warship with oars will travel it, and no large ships will sail by.

²²For Yahweh {is} our judge, Yahweh {is} our lawgiver, Yahweh {is} our king; he will save us.

²³Your riggings are slack; they cannot hold the mast in place; they cannot spread the sail; when the great spoil is divided, even the lame will drag off the spoil.

²⁴The inhabitants will not say, "I am sick;" the people who live there {will be} forgiven for {their} iniquity.

33:9 ^[2] .

Chapter 34

¹Come near, you nations, and listen; pay attention, you people!

The earth and all that fills it must listen, the world, and all {things} that come from it.

²For Yahweh is angry with all the nations, and furious against all their armies; he has completely destroyed them, he has handed them over to the slaughter.

³The bodies of their dead will be thrown out. The stench of the dead bodies will be everywhere; and the mountains will soak up their blood.

⁴All the stars of the sky will fade away, and the sky will be rolled up like a scroll; and all their stars will fade away, as the leaf fades from off the vine, and as the overripe figs from the fig tree.

⁵For when my sword will have drunk its fill in heaven;
look, it will now come down on Edom, on the people I am setting apart for destruction.

⁶The sword of Yahweh is dripping with blood and covered with fat, dripping with the blood of lambs and goats, covered with the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For Yahweh has a sacrifice in Bozrah and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

⁷Wild oxen will fall with them, and young bulls with the older ones.

Their land will be drunk with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

⁸For {it will be} a day of vengeance for Yahweh and a year when he will pay them back for the cause of Zion.

⁹The streams of Edom will be turned into pitch, her dust into sulfur, and her land will become burning pitch.

¹⁰It will burn night and day; its smoke will rise forever; from generation to generation it will be a wasteland; no one will pass through it forever and ever.

¹¹But wild birds and animals will live there; the owl and the raven will make their nest in it.
He will stretch over it the measuring line of ruin and the plumbline of destruction.

¹²Her nobles will have nothing left to call a kingdom, and all her princes {will be} nothing.

¹³Thorns will overgrow her palaces, nettles and thistles her fortresses.
It will be a habitation of jackals, a place for ostriches.

¹⁴The wild animals and the hyenas will meet there, and the wild goats will cry to one another.
Nocturnal animals will settle there and find for themselves a place of rest.

¹⁵Owls will make nests, lay and hatch their {eggs}, hatch and protect their young.
Yes, there hawks will gather, each one with its mate.

¹⁶Search through the scroll of Yahweh; not one of these will be missing.
None will lack for a mate; for his mouth has commanded it, and his spirit has gathered them.

¹⁷He has cast lots for their places, and his hand has measured it out for them by a cord.
They will possess it forever; from generation to generation they will live there.

Chapter 35

¹The wilderness and the Arabah will be glad; and the desert will rejoice and blossom.
Like the rose,

²it will blossom abundantly and rejoice with joy and singing;
the glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the splendor of Carmel and Sharon; they will see the glory of Yahweh, the splendor of our God.

³Strengthen the weak hands, and steady the knees that shake.

⁴Say to those {with a} fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear!
Look, your God will come {with} vengeance, {with} the recompense of God. He will come and save you."

⁵Then the eyes of the blind will see, and the ears of the deaf will hear.

⁶Then the lame man will leap like a deer, and the mute tongue will sing, for water breaks out in the Arabah, and streams in the wilderness.

⁷The burning sand will become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; in the habitation of jackals, where they once lay, {will be} grass with reeds and rushes.

⁸A highway will be there called The Holy Way.

The unclean will not travel it. But it will be for him who walks in it.

No fool will go on it.

⁹No lion will be there, no ferocious beast will be on it; they will not be found there, but the redeemed will walk there.

¹⁰The ransomed of Yahweh will return and come with singing to Zion, and everlasting joy will be on their heads; gladness and joy will overtake them; sorrow and sighing will flee away.

Chapter 36

⁴The chief commander said to them, "Tell Hezekiah that the great king, the king of Assyria, says, 'What is the source of your confidence? ⁵You speak only useless words, saying there is counsel and strength for war. Now in whom are you trusting? Who has given you courage to rebel against me? ⁶Look, you are trusting in Egypt, that splintered reed that you use as a walking staff, but if a man leans on it, it will stick into his hand and pierce it. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt {is} to anyone who trusts in him. ⁷But if you say to me, "We are trusting in Yahweh our God," {is} not he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, "You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem"? ⁸Now therefore, I want to make you a good offer from my master the king of Assyria. I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to find riders for them. ⁹How could you resist even one captain of the least of my master's servants? You have put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen! ¹⁰Now then, have I traveled up here without Yahweh to fight against this land and destroy it? Yahweh said to me, "Attack this land and destroy it."'"

¹¹Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, and Shebna, and Joah said to the chief commander, "Please speak to your servants in the Aramean language, Aramaic, for we understand {it}. Do not speak with us in the language of Judah in the ears of the people who are on the wall." ¹²But the chief commander said, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, who will have to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"

¹³Then the chief commander stood and shouted in a loud voice in the Jews' language, saying, "Listen to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. ¹⁴The king says, 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to rescue you. ¹⁵Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh, saying, "Yahweh will surely rescue us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.”” ¹⁶Do not listen to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: ‘Make {peace} with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and from his own fig tree, and drink from the water in his own cistern. ¹⁷You will do this until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.’ ¹⁸Do not let Hezekiah mislead you, saying, ‘Yahweh will rescue us.’ Has any of the gods of the peoples rescued them from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹Where {are} the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where {are} the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they rescued Samaria from my power? ²⁰Among all the gods of these lands, is there any god who has rescued his land from my power, as if Yahweh could save Jerusalem from my power?”

²¹But the people remained silent and did not respond, for the king’s order was, “Do not answer him.” ²²Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who {was} over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with {their} clothes torn, and reported to him the words of the chief commander.

Chapter 37

¹It came about that when King Hezekiah heard {their report}, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yahweh. ²He sent Eliakim, who {was} over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, all covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet. ³They said to him, “Hezekiah says, ‘This day {is} a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace, like when a child is ready to be born, but the mother {has} no strength to give birth to her child. ⁴It may be Yahweh your God will hear the words of the chief commander, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Now lift up {your} prayer for the remnant that is still here.’”

⁸Then the chief commander returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had gone away from Lachish. ⁹Then Sennacherib heard that Tirhakah king of Cush and Egypt had mobilized to fight against him, so he sent messengers again to Hezekiah with a message: ¹⁰“Say to Hezekiah, king of Judah, ‘Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, “Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.” ¹¹See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them completely. So will you be rescued? ¹²Have the gods of the nations rescued them, the nations that my fathers destroyed: Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Tel Assar? ¹³Where {is} the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the cities of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?”

¹⁴Hezekiah received this letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the house of Yahweh and spread it before him. ¹⁵Hezekiah prayed to Yahweh: ¹⁶“Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, you who sit above the cherubim, you are God alone over all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁷Turn your ear, Yahweh, and listen. Open your eyes, Yahweh, and see, and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God. ¹⁸It is true, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the nations and their lands. ¹⁹They have put their gods into the fire, for they {were} not gods but the work of men’s hands, just wood and stone. So the Assyrians have destroyed them. ²⁰So now, Yahweh our God, save us from his power, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you {are} Yahweh alone.”

²¹Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah, saying, “Yahweh, the God of Israel says, ‘Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²²this {is} the word that Yahweh has spoken about him:

“The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and laughs you to scorn;

the daughter of Jerusalem shakes {her} head at you.

²³Whom have you defied and insulted? Against whom have you exalted {your} voice and lifted up your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel.

²⁴By your servants you have defied the Lord and have said, 'With the multitude of my chariots I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the highest elevations of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and choice cypress trees there, and I will enter into its farthest high places, its most fruitful forest.

²⁵I have dug wells and drunk water;^[1]
I dried up all the rivers of Egypt under the soles of my feet.'

²⁶Have you not heard how I determined it long ago and worked it out in ancient times? Now I am bringing it to pass. You are here to reduce impregnable cities {into} heaps of ruins.

²⁷Their inhabitants, of little strength, are shattered and ashamed. They are plants in the field, green grass, the grass on the roof or in the field, before the east wind.

²⁹Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose, and my bit in your mouth; I will turn you back the way you came."

³⁰This {will be} the sign for you:

This year you will eat what grows wild, and in the second year what grows from that. But in the third year you must plant and harvest, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

³¹The remnant of the house of Judah that survives will again take root and bear fruit.

³²For from Jerusalem a remnant will come out; from Mount Zion survivors will come. The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will do this.'"

³³Therefore Yahweh says this about the king of Assyria:

"He will not come into this city and he will not shoot an arrow here.

He will not come before it with shield or build up a siege ramp against it.

³⁴The way by which he came will be the same way he will leave; he will not enter this city—this is Yahweh's declaration.

³⁵For I will defend this city and rescue it, for my own sake and for David my servant's sake." ³⁶Then the angel of Yahweh went out and attacked the camp of the Assyrians, putting to death 185,000 soldiers. When {the men} arose early in the morning, dead bodies lay everywhere. ³⁷So Sennacherib king of Assyria left Israel and went {home} and stayed in Nineveh. ³⁸Later, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisrok his god, his sons Adrammelek and Sharezer killed him with the sword. Then they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

¹In those days Hezekiah was sick to the point of dying. So Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet, came to him, and said to him, "Yahweh says, 'Set your house in order; for you will die, not live.'" ²Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Yahweh. ³He said, "Please, Yahweh, call to mind how I have faithfully walked before you with my whole heart, and how I have done {what was} good in your sight." Then Hezekiah wept loudly. ⁴Then the word of Yahweh came to Isaiah, saying, ⁵"Go and say to Hezekiah, the leader of my people, 'This is what Yahweh, the God of David your ancestor, says: I have heard your prayer, and I have seen your tears. See, I am about to add fifteen years to your life. ⁶Then I will rescue you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city. ⁷This will be the sign to you from Yahweh, that I will do what I have promised. ⁸Look, I will cause the shadow on the stairs of Ahaz to go back ten steps.'" So the shadow went back ten steps of the stairs on which it had advanced.

⁹This was the written prayer of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and then recovered:

¹⁰"I said that halfway through my life

I will go through the gates of Sheol; I am sent there for the rest of my years.

¹¹I said that I will no longer see Yahweh, Yahweh in the land of the living;

I will no longer look on mankind or the inhabitants of the world.^[1]

¹²My life is removed and carried away from me like a shepherd's tent;

I have rolled up my life like a weaver; you are cutting me off from the loom;

between day and night you are ending my life.

¹³I cried out^[2] until the morning;

like a lion he breaks all my bones.

Between day and night you are ending my life.

¹⁴Like a swallow I chirp; I coo like a dove;

my eyes grow tired {with} {looking} upward. Lord, I am oppressed; help me.

¹⁵What shall I say? He has both spoken to me, and has done {it};

I will walk slowly all my years because I am overcome with grief.

¹⁶Lord, the sufferings you send are good for me; may my life be given back to me;

you have restored my life and health.

¹⁷{It was} for {my} benefit that I experienced such grief.

You have {rescued} me from the pit of destruction;

for you have thrown all my sins behind your back.

¹⁸For Sheol does not thank you; death does not praise you;
those who go down into the pit do not hope in your trustworthiness.

¹⁹The living person, the living person, he is the one who gives you thanks, as I {do} this day;
a father makes known to children your trustworthiness.

²⁰Yahweh {is about} to save me, and we will celebrate with music
all the days of our lives in the house of Yahweh.”

²¹Now Isaiah had said, “Let them take a lump of figs and put {it} on the boil, and he will recover.” ²²Hezekiah also had said, “What {will be} the sign that I should go up to the house of Yahweh?”

38:11 ^[1] : (that is, brief existence).

38:13 ^[2] or .

Chapter 39

¹At that time Marduk-Baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick and had recovered. ²Hezekiah was pleased by these things; he showed the messengers his storehouse of valuable things—the silver, the gold, the spices and precious oil, the storehouse of his weapons, and all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his kingdom, that Hezekiah did not show them. ³Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, “What did these men say to you? Where did they come from?” Hezekiah said, “They came to me from the distant country of Babylon.” ⁴Isaiah asked, “What have they seen in your house?” Hezekiah answered, “They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing among my valuable things that I have not shown them.” ⁵Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Listen to the word of Yahweh of hosts: ⁶Look, the days are about to come when everything in your palace, the things that your ancestors stored away until this present day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says Yahweh. ⁷The sons born from you, whom you yourself have fathered—they will take them away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.” ⁸Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of Yahweh that you have spoken {is} good.” For he thought, “There will be peace and stability in my days.”

Chapter 40

¹“Comfort, comfort my people,” says your God.

²“Speak tenderly to Jerusalem; and proclaim to her that her warfare has ended, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received double from Yahweh’s hand for all her sins.”

³A voice cries out,

“In the wilderness prepare the way of Yahweh; make straight in the Arabah a highway for our God.”^[1]

⁴Every valley will be lifted up, and every mountain and hill will be leveled;
and the rugged land will be made level, and the rough places a plain;

⁵and the glory of Yahweh will be revealed, and all people will see {it} together; for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.

⁶A voice says, "Cry." Another answers, "What should I cry?"

"All flesh {is} grass, and all their covenant faithfulness {is} like the flower of the field.

⁷The grass withers and the flower wilts when the breath of Yahweh blows on it; surely humanity {is} grass.

⁸The grass withers, the flower wilts, but the word of our God will stand forever."

⁹Go up on a high mountain, Zion, bearer of good news.^[2]

Shout out loud, Jerusalem. You who bring good news, {raise your voice}, do not be afraid.^[3]

Say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!"

¹⁰Look, the Lord Yahweh comes as a victorious warrior, and his strong arm rules for him.

See, his reward is with him, and those he has rescued go before him.

¹¹He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather in his arm the lambs, and carry {them} close to his heart,

{and} will gently lead the ewes nursing their young.

¹²Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, measured the sky with the span of his hand, held the dust of the earth in a basket, weighed the mountains in scales, or the hills in a balance?

¹³Who has comprehended the mind of Yahweh, or instructed him {as} his counselor?

¹⁴{From whom} did he ever receive instruction? Who taught him the correct way to do things, and taught him knowledge, or showed to him the way of understanding?

¹⁵Look, the nations {are} like a drop in a bucket, and are regarded like the dust on the scales;

see, he weighs the isles as a speck.

¹⁶Lebanon {is} not sufficient fuel, nor its wild animals sufficient for a burnt offering.

¹⁷All the nations {are} insufficient before him; they are regarded by him as nothing.

¹⁹An idol! A craftsman casts it: The goldsmith overlays it with gold and forges silver chains for it.

²⁰To make an offering one chooses a wood {that} will not rot;

he seeks a skillful artisan to make an idol {that} will not fall over.

²¹Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning?

Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

²²He is the one who sits above the horizon of the earth; and the inhabitants {are} like grasshoppers before him.

He stretches out the heavens like a curtain and spreads them out as a tent to live in.

²³He reduces rulers to nothing and makes the rulers of the earth insignificant.

²⁴They are barely planted, barely sown, their stem has barely taken root in the earth, when he blows upon them and they wither, and the wind carries them away like straw.

²⁵“To whom then will you compare me, {whom} do I resemble?” says the Holy One.

²⁶Look up at the sky! Who has created all these stars?

He leads out {their} {formations} and calls them all by name.

By the greatness of his might and by the strength of {his} power, not one is missing.

²⁷Why do you say, Jacob, and declare, Israel,

“My way is hidden from Yahweh, and my God is not concerned about my vindication”?

²⁸Have you not known? Have you not heard?

The everlasting God, Yahweh, the Creator of the ends of the earth, does not get tired or weary; there is no limit to his understanding.

²⁹He gives strength {to the tired}; and to the weak he gives renewed energy.

³⁰Even young people become tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall:

³¹but those who wait for Yahweh will renew {their} strength; they will soar with wings like eagles;
they will run and not be weary; they will walk and not faint.

¹“Listen before me in silence, you coastlands; let the nations renew {their} strength;
let them come near and speak; let us come near together to argue a dispute.

²Who has stirred up one from the east, calling him in righteousness to his service?

He hands nations over to him and helps {him} subdue kings.

He turns {them} to dust with his sword, like windblown stubble with his bow.

³He pursues them {and} passes by safely, by a swift path {that} his feet scarcely touch.

⁴Who has performed and accomplished {these deeds}? Who has summoned the generations from the beginning?
I, Yahweh, the first, and with the last ones, I {am} he.

⁵The isles have seen and are afraid; the ends of the earth tremble;
they approach and come.

⁶Everyone helps his neighbor, and every one says to one another, 'Be encouraged.'

⁷So the carpenter {encourages} the goldsmith, and he who works with the hammer encourages him who works with an anvil, saying of the welding, 'It {is} good.' They fasten it with nails {so} it will not topple over.

⁸But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham my friend,

⁹{you} whom I am bringing back from the ends of the earth, and whom I called from the far away places, and to whom I said, 'You {are} my servant;' I have chosen you and not rejected you. ¹⁰Do not fear, for I {am} with you. Do not be anxious, for I {am} your God.

I will strengthen you, and I will help you, and I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

¹¹See, they will be ashamed and disgraced, all who have been angry with you;
they will be as nothing and will perish, those who oppose you.

¹²You will seek and will not find those who contended with you;
those who warred against you will be like nothing, absolutely nothing.

¹³For I, Yahweh your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Do not fear; I am helping you.'

¹⁴Do not fear, Jacob you worm, and you men of Israel;

I will help you—this is Yahweh's declaration, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵Look, I am making you like a sharp threshing sledge, new and two-edged;
you will thresh the mountains and crush them; you will make the hills like chaff.

¹⁶You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away; the wind will scatter them.

You will rejoice in Yahweh, you will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁷The oppressed and needy look for water, but {there is} none, and their tongues are parched for thirst;
I, Yahweh, will respond to their prayers; {I}, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

¹⁸I will make streams to flow down the slopes, and springs in the middle of the valleys;
I will make the desert into a pool of water, and the dry land into springs of water.

¹⁹In the wilderness I will set the cedar, the acacia, and the myrtle, and the olive tree.

I will set the cypress in the desert plain, {with} the pines and the cypress box trees.

²⁰I will do this so that the people may see, recognize, and understand together, that the hand of Yahweh has done this, that the Holy One of Israel has created it.

²¹“Present your case,” says Yahweh,

“present your best {arguments} for your idols,” says the King of Jacob.

²²Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well.

Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they {were} fulfilled.

²³Tell things about the future, that we may know if you {are} gods; do something good or evil, that we may be frightened and impressed.

²⁴See, you idols {are} nothing and your deeds {are} nothing; {the one} {who} chooses you {is} detestable.

²⁵I have raised up one from the north, and he comes; from the sun’s rising I summon him who calls on my name, and he will trample the rulers like mud, like a potter who is treading on the clay.

²⁶Who announced this from the beginning, that we might know? Before this time, that we may say, “{He is} right”? Indeed none of them decreed it, yes, none heard you say anything.

²⁷{I} first {said} to Zion, “Look here they are;” I sent a herald to Jerusalem.

²⁸When I look, {there is} no one, not one among them who can give good advice, who, when I ask, can answer a word.

²⁹Look, all of them {are} nothing, and their deeds {are} nothing; their cast metal figures {are} wind and emptiness.

Chapter 42

¹Behold, my servant, whom I uphold; my chosen one, in him I take delight.

I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring justice to the nations.

²He will not cry out nor shout, nor make {his voice} heard in the streets.

⁵This is what God Yahweh says—the one who created the heavens and stretched them out, the one who made the earth and all that it produces, the one who gives breath to the people on it and life to those who live on it:

⁶"I, Yahweh, have called you in righteousness and will hold your hand.

I will keep you and set you as a covenant for the people, as a light for the Gentiles,

⁷to open the eyes of the blind, to release the prisoners from the dungeon, and from the house of confinement those who sit in darkness.

⁸I {am} Yahweh, that {is} my name;

and my glory I will not share with another nor my praise with carved idols.

⁹See, the previous things came to pass, now I am about to declare new events.

Before they begin to occur I will tell you about them."

¹⁰Sing to Yahweh a new song, {and} his praise from the end of the earth;

you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it, the coastlands, and those who live there.

¹¹Let the desert and the cities {cry out}, {the villages} where Kedar lives, shout for joy!

Let the inhabitants of Sela sing; let them shout from the mountaintops.

¹²Let them give glory to Yahweh and declare his praise in the coastlands.

¹³Yahweh will go out as a warrior; as a man of war he will stir up {his} zeal.

He will shout, yes, he will roar his battle cries; he will show his enemies his power.

¹⁴I have kept quiet for a long time; I have been still and restrained myself;

{now} I will cry out like a woman in labor; I will gasp and pant.

¹⁵I will lay waste mountains and hills and dry up all their vegetation; and I will turn the rivers into islands and will dry up the marshes.

¹⁶I will bring the blind by a way that they do not know; in paths that they do not know I will lead them.

I will turn the darkness into light before them, and make the crooked places straight.

These things I will do, and I will not abandon them.

¹⁷They will be turned back, they will be completely put to shame, those who trust in carved figures, who say to cast metal figures, "You {are} our gods."

¹⁸Listen, you deaf; and look, you blind, that you may see.

¹⁹Who {is} blind but my servant? Or deaf like my messenger I send?

{Who} {is} as blind as my covenant partner, or blind as Yahweh's servant?

²⁰You see many things, but do not comprehend; ears are open, but no one hears.

²¹It pleased Yahweh to praise {his justice} and to make his law glorious.

²²But this {is} a people robbed and plundered;

they are all trapped in pits, held captive in prisons;
 they have become a plunder with no one to rescue them, and no one says, "Bring them back!"

²³Who among you will listen to this? {Who} will listen and hear in the future?

²⁴Who gave Jacob over to the robber, and Israel to the looters?

Was it not Yahweh, against whom we have sinned, in whose ways they refused to walk, and whose law they refused to obey?

²⁵Therefore he poured out on them his fierce anger and the violence of war,
 Its flames encircled them, yet they did not understand;
 it consumed them, but they did not take {it} to heart.

Chapter 43

¹But now this is what Yahweh says, he who created you, Jacob, and he who formed you, Israel:

"Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you; I have called {you} by your name, you {are} mine.

²When you pass through the waters, I {will be} with you; and through the rivers, they will not overwhelm you.
 When you walk through the fire you will not be burned, and the flames will not destroy you.

³For I {am} Yahweh your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.

I have given Egypt as your ransom, Cush and Seba in exchange for you.

⁴Since you are precious and special in my sight, I love you;
 therefore I will give people in exchange for you, and other peoples in exchange for your life.

⁵Do not be afraid, for I {am} with you;
 I will bring your offspring from the east, and gather you from the west.

⁶I will say to the north, 'Hand them over;' and to the south, 'Do not hold any back;'
 Bring my sons from afar, and my daughters from the remote regions of the earth, ⁷everyone who is called by my name, whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed, yes, whom I have made.

⁸Bring out the people who are blind, even though they have eyes, and the deaf, even though they have ears.

⁹All the nations gather together, and the peoples assemble.
 Who among them could have declared this and announced to us earlier events?
 Let them bring their witnesses to prove themselves right, let them listen and affirm, {'It is} true.'

¹⁰You {are} my witnesses," declares Yahweh, "and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe in me, and understand that I am he.

Before me there was no god formed, and there will be none after me.

¹¹I, I {am} Yahweh, and there is no savior but me.

¹²I have declared, saved, and proclaimed, and there is no other {god} among you.

You {are} my witnesses," declares Yahweh, "I {am} God.

¹³From this day on I am he, and no one can rescue anyone from my hand. I act, and who can turn it back?"

¹⁴This is what Yahweh says, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:

"For your sake I send to Babylon and lead them all down as fugitives, turning the Babylonians' expressions of joy into songs of lamentation.

¹⁵I {am} Yahweh, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King."

¹⁶This is what Yahweh says (who opened a way through the sea and a path in the mighty waters, ¹⁷who led out the chariot and horse, the army and the mighty host. They fell down together; they will never rise again; they are extinguished, quenched like a burning wick.)

¹⁸"Do not think about these former things, nor consider the things of long ago.

¹⁹Look, I am about to do a new thing; now it begins to happen; do you not perceive it?

I will make a road in the desert {and} streams of water in the wilderness.

²⁰The wild animals of the field will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches, because I give water in the wilderness, {and} rivers in the desert, for my chosen people to drink,

²¹this people whom I formed for myself, that they might recount my praises.

²²But you have not called on me, Jacob; you have become tired of me, Israel.

²³You have not brought me any of your sheep as burnt offerings, or honored me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with grain offerings, nor wearied you with demands for incense.

²⁴You have bought me no sweet-smelling cane with money, neither have you poured out to me the fat of your sacrifices;

but you have burdened me with your sins, you have wearied me with your evil deeds.

²⁵I, yes, I, {am} he who blots out your offenses for my own sake; and I will not call to mind your sins any longer.

²⁷Your first father sinned, and your leaders have transgressed against me.

²⁸Therefore I will defile the holy officials; I will hand Jacob over to complete destruction, and Israel to abusive humiliation.”

Chapter 44

¹Now listen, Jacob my servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen:

²This is what Yahweh says, he who made you and formed you in the womb and {who} will help you: “Do not fear, Jacob my servant; and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.

³For I will pour water on the thirsty ground, and flowing streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit on your offspring, and my blessing on your children.

⁴They will spring up among the grass, like willows by the streams of water.

⁶This is what Yahweh says—the King of Israel and his Redeemer, Yahweh of hosts: “I {am} the first, and I {am} the last; and {there is} no God but me.

⁷Who is like me? Let him announce it and explain to me the events that occurred since I established my ancient people, and let them declare the events to come.

⁸Do not fear or be afraid. Have I not declared to you long ago, and announced {it}? You {are} my witnesses: Is there any God besides me? {There is} no other Rock; I know of none.”

⁹All who fashion idols are nothing; the things they delight in {are} worthless; their witnesses cannot see or know anything, and they will be put to shame.

¹⁰Who would form a god or cast an idol that is worthless?

¹²The smith works with his tools, forming it, working over the coals. He shapes it with hammers and works it with his strong arm.

He is hungry, and his strength wanes; he {drinks} no water and becomes faint.

¹³The carpenter measures the wood with a line, and marks it with a stylus. He shapes it with {his} tools and marks it out with a compass.

He shapes it after the figure of a man, like an attractive human, so it may stay in a house.

¹⁴He cuts down cedars, or chooses a cypress tree or an oak tree.

He picks for himself trees in the forest. He plants a fir tree and the rain makes it grow.

¹⁵Then a man uses {it} for a fire and warms himself. Yes, he kindles a fire and bakes bread.

Then he makes from {it} a god and bows down to {it}; he makes an idol and bows down to {it}.

¹⁶He burns part of the wood for the fire, roasting his meat over it. He eats and is satisfied.

He warms {himself} and says, "Ah, I am warm, I have seen the fire."

¹⁷With the rest of the wood he makes a god, his carved image; he bows down to it and reverences it, and prays to it saying, "Rescue me, for you {are} my god."

¹⁸They do not know, nor do they understand, for their eyes are blind and cannot see, and their hearts cannot perceive.

¹⁹No one thinks, nor do they comprehend and say,

"I have burned part of the wood in the fire; yes, I have also baked bread upon its coals. I have roasted meat over its coals and eaten.

Now should I make the other part of the wood into something disgusting to worship? Should I bow down to a block of wood?"

²⁰It is as if he were eating ashes; his deceived heart misleads him. He cannot rescue himself, nor does he say, "This thing in my right hand {is} a false god."

²¹Think about these things, Jacob, and Israel, for you are my servant:

I have formed you; you are my servant: Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

²²I have blotted out, like a {thick} cloud, your rebellious deeds, and like a cloud, your sins; return to me, for I have redeemed you.

²³Sing, you heavens, for Yahweh has done {this}; shout, you depths of the earth.

Break out into singing, you mountains, you forest with every tree in it; for Yahweh has redeemed Jacob, and will show his glory in Israel.

²⁴This is what Yahweh says, your Redeemer, he who formed you from the womb:

"I {am Yahweh,} who made {everything}, who alone stretched out the heavens, who alone fashioned the earth.

²⁵I who frustrate the omens of the empty talkers and who disgrace those who read omens;

I who overturn the wisdom of the wise and make their advice foolish.

²⁶I, Yahweh, who confirmed the words of his servant and brings to pass the predictions of his messengers, who says of Jerusalem, 'She will be inhabited,' and of the towns of Judah, 'They will be built again, and I will raise up their ruins';

²⁷who says to the deep sea, 'Be dry, and I will dry up your currents.'

²⁸Yahweh is the one who says of Cyrus, '{He is} my shepherd, he will do my every wish; he will decree about Jerusalem, 'She will be rebuilt,' and about the temple, 'Let its foundations be laid.'"

Chapter 45

¹This is what Yahweh says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I hold, in order to subdue nations before him, to disarm kings, and to open the doors before him, so that gates remain open:

²"I will go before you and level the mountains;
I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut in pieces their iron bars, ³and I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches hidden away, that you may know that it is I, Yahweh, who call you by your name, I, the God of Israel.

⁴For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel my chosen,
I have called you by your name, giving you a title of honor, though you have not known me.

⁵I am Yahweh, and there is no other; there is no God but me.

I will arm you for battle, though you have not known me;

⁶that people may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that {there is} no god but me:

I {am} Yahweh, and {there is} no other.

⁷I form the light and create darkness;

I bring peace and create disaster; I am Yahweh, who does all these things.

⁸You heavens, rain down from above! Let the skies rain down righteousness.

Let the earth absorb it, that salvation may sprout up, and righteousness spring up together with it. I, Yahweh, have created them both.

⁹Woe to anyone who argues with the one who formed him, to him who is like any other earthen pot among all the earthen pots in the ground!

Does the clay say to the potter, 'What are you making?' or 'Your work has no handles on it?'

¹⁰Woe to him who {says} to a father, 'What are you fathering?' or to a woman, 'What are you giving birth to?'

¹¹This is what Yahweh says, the Holy One of Israel, his Maker:

'Why do you ask questions about what I will do for my children? Do you tell me what to do concerning the work of my hands?'

¹²I made the earth and created man on it.

It was my hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded all the stars to appear.

¹³I stirred Cyrus up in righteousness, and I will smooth out all his paths.

He will build my city; he will let my exiled people go home, and not for price nor bribe,'" says Yahweh of hosts.

¹⁴This is what Yahweh says,

“The earnings of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush with the Sabeans, men of tall stature, will be brought to you. They will be yours. They will follow after you, coming in chains.

They will bow down to you and plead with you {saying,}

‘Surely God {is} with you, and {there is} no other except him.’”

¹⁵Truly you {are} a God who hides yourself, God of Israel, Savior.

¹⁶They will all be ashamed and disgraced together; those {who} {carve} idols will walk in humiliation.

¹⁷{But} Israel will be saved by Yahweh with an everlasting salvation; you will never again be ashamed or humiliated.

¹⁸This is what Yahweh says, who created the heavens, the true God who created the earth and made it, who established it.

He created it, not as a waste, but designed it to be inhabited:

“I {am} Yahweh, and {there is} no other.

¹⁹I have not spoken in private, in some hidden place;

I did not say to Jacob’s descendants, ‘Seek me in vain!’

I am Yahweh, who speaks sincerely; I declare the {things} that are right.

²⁰Assemble yourselves and come! Gather together, you {refugees} from among the nations!

They have no knowledge, those who carry carved images and pray to gods {that} cannot save.

²¹Come close and declare it to me, bring {the} {evidence}! Let them conspire together.

Who has shown this from long ago? {Who} announced it?

Was it not I, Yahweh? {There is} no God except me, a just God and a Savior; {there is} no one besides me.

²²Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth;

for I {am} God, and {there is} no other.

²³By myself I swear, speaking my just decree, and it will not turn back:

‘To me every knee will bend, every tongue will swear.

²⁴They will say of me, “In Yahweh alone are salvation and strength.””

They will all be ashamed who are angry at him.

²⁵In Yahweh all the descendants of Israel will be justified; they will take pride in him.

Chapter 46

¹Bel bows down, Nebo stoops; their idols are carried by animals and beasts of burden. These idols that you carry {are} a heavy burden for weary {animals}.

²Together they bend low, kneel down; they cannot rescue the images, and they themselves have gone off into captivity.

³Listen to me, house of Jacob, all the remnant of the house of Israel, who have been carried {by me} from before your birth, carried from the womb.

⁴Even to {your} old age I {am} he, and until your hair is gray I will carry {you}.
I made you and I will bear you; I will carry {you} and I will rescue you.

⁵To whom will you compare me? Who do you think I resemble, so that we may be compared?

⁶People pour out gold from the bag and weigh silver on the scale.
They hire a metalsmith, and he makes it into a god; they bow down and worship it.

⁷They lift it on their shoulder and carry it; they set it in its place, and it stands in its place and does not move from it.

{They} cry out to it, but it cannot answer nor save anyone from his trouble.

⁸Think about these things; never ignore them, you rebels!

⁹Think about the earlier things, those of times past, for I {am} God, and {there is} no other, {I am} God, and {there is} no one like me.

¹⁰I announce the end from the beginning, and beforehand {what} has not {yet} happened;
I say, "My plan will happen, and I will do as I desire."

¹¹I call a bird of prey from the east, the man of my choice from a distant land;
yes, I have spoken; I will also accomplish it; I have purposed, I will also do it.

¹²Listen to me, you stubborn people, who {are} far from doing what is right.

¹³I am bringing my righteousness near; it is not far away, and my salvation does not wait;
and I will give salvation to Zion and my beauty to Israel.

Chapter 47

¹Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Chaldeans.
You will no longer be called dainty and delicate.

²Take the millstone and grind flour; remove your veil, strip off your flowing robe, uncover your legs, cross the streams.

³Your nakedness will be uncovered, yes, your shame will be seen:

I will take vengeance and will not spare a man.

⁴Our Redeemer, Yahweh of hosts {is} his name, the Holy One of Israel.

⁵Sit in silence and go into darkness, daughter of the Chaldeans;
for you will no longer be called queen of kingdoms.

⁶I was angry with my people; I defiled my heritage and gave them over into your hand, but you showed them no mercy;
you placed a very heavy yoke on the old people.

⁷You said, "I will rule forever as sovereign queen."
You did not take these {things} to heart, nor did you consider how they would turn out.

⁸So now hear this, {you who} love pleasure and sit securely;
you who say in your heart, "I {exist}, and there is no one else like me;
I will never sit as a widow, nor will I ever experience loss of children."

⁹But these two {things} will come to you in a moment in one day:
the loss of children and widowhood; in full force they will come on you, despite your sorceries and your many incantations and amulets.

¹⁰You have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, "No one sees me"; your wisdom and your knowledge lead you astray, but you say in your heart, "I {exist}, and {there is} no one else {like me}."

¹¹Disaster will overcome you; you will not be able to drive it away with your incantations.
Destruction will fall on you; you will not be able to ward it off.
Calamity will strike you suddenly, before you know it.

¹²Persist in casting your spells and your many sorceries {which} you have faithfully recited since your childhood;
perhaps you will be successful, perhaps you will scare away disaster.

¹³You are tired out with your many consultations; let those men stand up and save you—those who chart the heavens and look at the stars, those who declare the new moons—let them save you from what will happen to you.

¹⁴See, they will become like stubble. The fire will burn them up.
They will not save themselves from the hand of the flame.
There are no coals to warm them and no fire for them to sit {by}!

¹⁵This is what they have become to you—those with whom you have worked, and you have bought and sold with them since your youth—they wandered about each one in his own direction; there is no one who can rescue you.”

Chapter 48

¹Hear this, house of Jacob, who are called by the name Israel, and have come from the sperm of Judah;
you who swear by the name of Yahweh and invoke the God of Israel, {but} not sincerely nor in a righteous manner.

²For they call themselves people of the holy city and trust in the God of Israel. Yahweh of hosts {is} his name.

³“I have declared the things from long ago; they came out from my mouth, and I made them known;
then suddenly I did {them}, and they came to pass.

⁴Because I knew that you {were} obstinate, your neck muscles tight as iron, and your forehead like bronze, ⁵therefore I declared {these things} to you beforehand; before they happened I informed you, so you could not say, ‘My idol has done them,’ or ‘My carved figure and my cast metal figure has ordained these things.’

⁶You heard about these things; look at all this evidence; and you, will you not admit what I said is true? From now on, I am showing you new things, hidden things that you have not known.

⁷Now, and not from previously, they come into being, and before today you have not heard about them, so you will not be able to say, ‘Yes, I knew about them.’

⁸You never heard; you did not know; these things were not unfolded to your ears beforehand.
For I knew that you have been very deceitful, and that you have been a rebel from birth.

⁹For the sake of my name I will defer my anger, and {for} my honor I will hold back from destroying you.

¹⁰Look, I refined you, but not as silver; I have purified you in the furnace of affliction.

¹¹For my own sake, for my own sake I will act; for how can I allow {my name} to be profaned?
I will not give my glory to anyone else.

¹²Listen to me, Jacob, and Israel, whom I called:
I {am} he; I {am} the first, I also {am} the last.

¹³Yes, my hand laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens;

{when} I call to them, they stand up together.

¹⁴Assemble yourselves, all of you, and listen! Who among you has announced these {things}?

Yahweh's ally {will} accomplish his purpose against Babylon. He will carry out Yahweh's will {against} the Chaldeans.

¹⁵I, I have spoken, yes, I have summoned him, I have brought him, and he will succeed.

¹⁶Come near to me, listen to this:

From the beginning I have not spoken in secret; when it happens, I {am} there."

Now the Lord Yahweh has sent me, and his Spirit.

¹⁷This is what Yahweh, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says,

"I {am} Yahweh your God, who teaches you how to succeed, who leads you by the way that you should go.

¹⁸If only you had obeyed my commandments!

Then your peace and prosperity would have flowed like a river, and your salvation like the waves of the sea.

¹⁹Your descendants would have been as numerous as the sand, and the children from your womb as numerous as the grains of sand; their name would not have been cut off nor blotted out from before me.

²⁰Come out from Babylon! Flee from the Chaldeans!

With the sound of a ringing cry announce it! Make this known, make it go out to the ends of the earth!

Say, 'Yahweh has redeemed his servant Jacob.'

²¹They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts;

he made the water to flow out of the rock for them;

he split open the rock, and the waters gushed out.

²²{There is} no peace for the wicked—says Yahweh."

Chapter 49

¹Listen to me, you coastlands! Now give me your attention, you distant peoples.

Yahweh has called me from birth by name, when my mother brought me into the world.

²He has made my mouth like a sharp sword; he hid me in the shadow of his hand;

he has made me into a polished arrow; in his quiver he has hidden me.

³He said to me, "You {are} my servant, Israel, through whom I show my glory."

⁴But I replied, "Though I thought I have labored in vain, I have spent my energy for nothing, yet my justice {is} with Yahweh, and my reward is with my God."

⁵Now Yahweh has spoken—he who formed me from birth {to be} his servant, to restore Jacob again to himself, so that Israel would be gathered to him, for I am honored in the eyes of Yahweh, and my God has become my strength—

⁶and he says, “It is too small a thing for you to be my servant to reestablish the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the survivors of Israel. I will make you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be my salvation to the ends of the earth.”

⁷This is what Yahweh says, the Redeemer of Israel, their Holy One, to the one whose life is despised, hated by the nations, and a slave of rulers, “Kings will see you and arise, and princes will see you and bow down, because of Yahweh who is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

⁸This is what Yahweh says,
“At a time I decide to show my favor I will answer you, and in a day of salvation I will help you;
I will protect you, and give you as a covenant for the people, to rebuild the land, to reassign the desolate inheritance.

⁹You will say to the prisoners, ‘Come out;’ to those in dark dungeons, ‘Show yourselves.’
They will graze along the roads, and on all the bare slopes {will be} their pasture.

¹⁰They will not be hungry or thirsty; nor will the heat or sun beat on them, for he who has mercy on them will lead them; he will guide them to springs of water.

¹¹Then I will make all my mountains into a road, and make my highways level.”

¹³Sing, heavens, and be joyful, earth; break into singing, you mountains!
For Yahweh comforts his people, and will have compassion on his afflicted.

¹⁴But Zion said, “Yahweh has forsaken me, and the Lord has forgotten me.”

¹⁵“Can a woman forget her baby, nursing at her breast, so she does not have compassion on the son she has borne?

Yes, they may forget, but I will not forget you.

¹⁶Look, I have inscribed your name on my palms; your walls {are} continually before me.

¹⁷Your children are hurrying back, while those who destroyed you are going away.

¹⁸Look around and see, they are all gathering {and} coming to you.

As surely {as} I live—this is Yahweh’s declaration—you will surely wear them like jewelry, and you will put them on like a bride.

¹⁹Though you were a waste and desolate, a land that was in ruins, now you will be too small for the inhabitants, and those who devoured you will be far away.

²⁰The children born during the time of your bereavement will say in your hearing,
‘The place {is} too cramped for us, make room for us, so we may live here.’

²¹Then you will ask yourself, ‘Who has borne these children for me?

I was bereaved and barren, exiled and divorced. Who has raised these children?

Look, I was left all alone; where did these come from?’”

²²This is what the Lord Yahweh says,

“Look, I will raise my hand to the nations; I will raise my signal flag to the peoples.

They will bring your sons in {their} arms and carry your daughters on {their} shoulders.

²³Kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursemaids;

they will bow down to you with {their} faces to the earth and lick the dust of your feet;

and you will know that I {am} Yahweh; those who wait for me will not be put to shame.”

²⁴Can the spoils be taken from the warrior, or captives be rescued from the fierce?^[1]

²⁵But this is what Yahweh says,

“Yes, the captives will be taken away from the warrior, and spoils will be rescued;

for I will oppose your adversary and save your children.

²⁶I will feed your oppressors with their own flesh; and they will get drunk on their own blood, as if it were wine.

Then all mankind will know that I, Yahweh, {am} your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

49:24 ^[1], the Hebrew text has , but most modern versions correct it to .

Chapter 50

¹This is what Yahweh says,

“Where {is} the certificate of divorce with which I divorced your mother?

To {which} of my creditors did I sell you?

Look, you were sold because of your sins, and because of your rebellion, your mother was sent away.

²{Why} did I come but {there was} no one there? {Why} did I call but no one answered?

Was my hand too short to ransom you? {Was there} no power in me to rescue you?

Look, at my rebuke I dry up the sea; I make the rivers a desert; their fish die for lack of water and rot.

⁴The Lord Yahweh has given me a tongue as one of those who are taught, so that I speak a sustaining word to the weary one;

he wakes me morning by morning; he awakens my ear to hear like those who are taught.

⁵The Lord Yahweh has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, nor did I turn away backward.

⁶I gave my back to those who beat {me}, and my cheeks to those who plucked out my beard;
I did not hide my face from acts of shame and spitting.

⁷For the Lord Yahweh will help me; therefore I am not disgraced;
so I have made my face like flint, for I know that I will not be put to shame.

⁸{He} who will justify me {is} close by. Who will oppose me? Let us stand and confront one another.
Who {is} my accuser? Let him come near to me.

⁹See, the Lord Yahweh will help me. {Who} will declare me guilty?
See, they will all wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

¹⁰Who among you fears Yahweh? Who obeys the voice of his servant?
Who walks in deep darkness without light?
He should trust in the name of Yahweh and lean on his God.

¹¹Look, all you who light fires, who equip {yourselves} with torches:
walk in the light of your fire and in the flames that you have ignited.
This is what you have received from me: You will lie down in a place of pain.

Chapter 51

¹Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek Yahweh:
look at the rock {from which} you were chiseled and to the quarry {from which} you were cut.

²Look at Abraham, your father, and to Sarah, who bore you; for {when} he was a {lone} individual,
I called him. I blessed him and made him many.

³Yes, Yahweh will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places; her wilderness he made like Eden, and her desert plains beside the Jordan River valley like the garden of Yahweh;
joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving, and the sound of singing.

⁴"Be attentive to me, my people; and listen to me, my people!
For I will issue a decree, and I will make my justice to be a light for the nations.

⁵My righteousness is near; my salvation will go out, and my arm will judge the nations;
the coastlands will wait for me; for my arm they will eagerly wait.

⁶Lift up your eyes to the sky, and look at the earth beneath, for the heavens will vanish away like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and its inhabitants will die like flies.

But my salvation will continue forever, and my righteousness will never stop working.

⁷Listen to me, you who know what is right, you people who {have} my law in your heart:
Do not fear the insults of men, nor be disheartened by their abuse.

⁸For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool; but my righteousness will be forever, and my salvation to all generations.”

⁹Awake, awake, clothe yourself with strength, arm of Yahweh.
Awake as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times.

Is it not you who crushed Rahab, you who pierced the monster?

¹⁰Did you not dry up the sea, the waters of the great deep, and make the depths of the sea into a way for the redeemed to pass through?

¹¹The ransomed of Yahweh will return and come to Zion with cries of joy and with gladness forever on their heads; and gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and mourning will flee away.

¹²“I, I, {am} he who comforts you.
Why {are} you afraid of men, {who} will die, the sons of mankind, {who} are made like grass?

¹³Why have you forgotten Yahweh your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth? You are in constant dread every day because of the hot fury of the oppressor when {he} {decides} to destroy. Where {is} the fury of the oppressor?

¹⁴The one who is bent down, Yahweh will hurry to release; he will not die and go down to the pit, nor will he lack bread.

¹⁵For I {am} Yahweh your God, who churns up the sea so that its waves roar—Yahweh of hosts {is} his name.

¹⁶I have placed my words in your mouth, and I have covered you in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, lay the foundations of the earth, and say to Zion, ‘You {are} my people.’”

¹⁷Awake, awake, stand up, Jerusalem, you who have drunk out of the hand of Yahweh from the bowl of his anger;
you who have drunk out of the bowl, down to the dregs from the cup of staggering.

¹⁸{There is} no one among all the sons she has born to guide her;
{there is} no one among all the sons that she has raised to take her by the hand.

¹⁹These two {troubles} happened to you—who will grieve with you?—

desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword. {Who} will comfort you?^[1]

²⁰Your sons have fainted; they lie at every street corner, like an antelope in a net; they are filled with the anger of Yahweh, the rebuke of your God.

²¹But now hear this, you oppressed one and drunken one, but not drunk with wine:

²²Your Lord Yahweh, your God, {who} pleads the cause of his people, says this,

“See, I have taken the cup of staggering from your hand—

the bowl, which is the cup of my anger—so that you will not drink it again.

²³I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, those who have said to you, ‘Lie down, that we may walk over you’; you made your back like the ground and like the street for them to walk on.”

Chapter 52

¹Awake, awake, put on your strength, Zion; put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, holy city;
for never again will the uncircumcised or the unclean enter you.

²Shake yourself off from the dust; arise and sit, Jerusalem; take off the chain from your neck, captive, daughter of Zion.

³For this is what Yahweh says, “You were sold for nothing, and you will be redeemed without money.”

⁴For this is what the Lord Yahweh says, “In the beginning my people went down to live temporarily in Egypt; and Assyria has oppressed them for no good {reason.}

⁵Now what do I have here—this is Yahweh’s declaration—seeing that my people are taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them mock—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and my name {is} blasphemed continually all day long.^[1]

⁶Therefore my people will know my name;
{they will know} in that day that I {am} the one who says, “Yes, {it is} I!”

⁷How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the messenger who brings good news, who announces peace, who bears good tidings, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, “Your God reigns!”

⁸Listen, your watchmen raise {their} voices, together they shout for joy, for they will see, every eye of theirs, Yahweh’s return to Zion.

⁹Break out into joyful singing together, you ruins of Jerusalem;
for Yahweh has comforted his people; he has redeemed Jerusalem.

¹⁰Yahweh has bared his holy arm in the sight of all the nations;
all the earth will see the salvation of our God.

¹¹Leave, leave, go out from there; touch nothing unclean;
leave from her midst; purify yourselves, you who carry the vessels of Yahweh.

¹²For you will not go out in a rush, nor will you leave in a panic;
for Yahweh will go before you; and the God of Israel {will be} your rearguard.

¹³Look, my servant will act wisely;
he will be high and lifted up, and he will be exalted.

¹⁴As many were horrified at you—his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any man, and his form no longer looked like anything human.

¹⁵Even so, my servant will sprinkle many nations and kings will shut their mouths because of him.
For that which they had not been told, they will see, and that which they had not heard, they will understand.

52:5 ^[1], some versions identify a different Hebrew word meaning .

Chapter 53

¹Who has believed what they heard from us, and to whom has the arm of Yahweh been revealed?

²For he grew up before Yahweh like a sapling, and like a sprout out of parched earth;
he had no remarkable appearance or splendor; when we saw him, {there was} no beauty to attract us.

³He was despised and rejected by people; a man of sorrows, and one familiar with pain.
Like one from whom men hide their faces, he was despised; and we considered him insignificant.

⁴But surely he has borne our sicknesses and carried our sorrows;
yet we thought he was being punished by God, struck by God, and afflicted.

⁵But he was pierced because of our rebellious deeds; he was crushed because of our sins.
The punishment for our peace was on him, and with his wounds we are healed.

⁶We all like sheep have gone astray; we have each turned to his own way, and Yahweh has placed on him the iniquity of us all.

⁷He was oppressed; yet when he humbled himself, he did not open his mouth;
as a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

⁸By coercion and judgment he was condemned; who from that generation thought anymore about him?
But he was cut off from the land of the living; because of the offenses of my people the penalty was put on him.

⁹They placed his grave with the criminals, with a rich man in his death, although he had done no violence, nor {had there been any} deceit in his mouth.

¹⁰Yet it was Yahweh's will to crush him and make {him} ill. When he makes his life an offering for sin, he will see {his} offspring, he will prolong {his} days, and Yahweh's purpose will be accomplished through him.

¹¹After the suffering of his life, he will see light {and} be satisfied by his knowledge.^[1]

My righteous servant will justify many; he will bear their iniquities.^[2]

¹²Therefore will I give him his portion among the multitudes, and he will divide the spoils with the many, because he exposed himself to death and was numbered with the transgressors.

He bore the sin of many and made intercession for the transgressors.

Chapter 54

¹"Sing, you barren woman, you {who} have not given birth; break into joyful singing and cry aloud, you {who} have never been in birth labor.

For the children of the desolate one {are} more than the children of the married woman," says Yahweh.

²"Make your tent larger and spread your tent curtains farther out, unsparingly; lengthen your ropes and strengthen your stakes.

³For you will spread out to the right hand and to the left,
and your descendants will conquer nations and resettle desolate cities.

⁴Do not fear for you will not be ashamed, nor be discouraged for you will not be disgraced;
you will forget the shame of your youth and the disgrace of your abandonment. ⁵For your Maker {is} your husband; Yahweh of hosts is his name.

The Holy One of Israel {is} your Redeemer; he is called the God of the whole earth.

⁶For Yahweh has called you back as a wife abandoned and grieved in spirit, like a woman married young and rejected," says your God.

⁷"For a short time I abandoned you, but with great compassion I will gather you.

⁸In a flood of anger I hid my face from you momentarily;
but with everlasting covenant faithfulness I will have mercy on you—says Yahweh, the one who rescues you.

⁹For this is like the waters of Noah to me:

as I swore that the waters of Noah would never again pass over the earth, so have I sworn that I will not be angry with you or rebuke you.

¹⁰Though the mountains may fall and the hills be shaken, yet my steadfast love will not turn away from you, nor will my covenant of peace be shaken—says Yahweh, who has mercy on you.

¹¹Afflicted one, storm-driven {and} uncomforted one, look, I will set your pavement in turquoise, and lay your foundations with sapphires.

¹²I will make your pinnacles of rubies and your gates of sparkling stones, and your outer wall of beautiful stones.

¹³Then all your children {will be} taught by Yahweh;
and the peace of your children {will be} great.

¹⁴In righteousness you will be established, and you will be far from oppression, for you will not fear; and from terror, for it will not come near to you.

¹⁵Look, if anyone stirs up trouble, it will not be from me; anyone who stirs up trouble with you will fall in defeat.

¹⁶See, I have created the craftsman, who blows the burning coals and forges weapons as his work, and I have created the destroyer to destroy.

¹⁷No weapon that is formed against you will succeed; and you will condemn everyone who accuses you.

This {is} the heritage of the servants of Yahweh, and their vindication from me—this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 55

¹"Come, everyone who is thirsty, come to the water, and you who have no money, come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost.

²Why do you weigh out silver for {what is} not bread, and why do you labor for {what} does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to me and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in fatness.

³Turn your ears and come to me! Listen, that you may live!
I will make an everlasting covenant with you—my reliable, faithful love that I promised to David.

⁴Look, I have placed him {as} a witness to the nations, as a leader and commander to the peoples.

⁵Look, you will call to a nation that you did not know; and a nation that did not know you will run to you because of Yahweh your God, the Holy One of Israel, who has glorified you."

⁶Seek Yahweh while he may be found; call on him while he is nearby.

⁷Let the wicked leave his path, and the man of sin his thoughts.

Let him return to Yahweh, and he will pity him, and to our God, who will abundantly forgive him.

⁸“For my thoughts {are} not your thoughts, nor {are} your ways my ways—this is Yahweh’s declaration—

⁹for {as} the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

¹⁰For as the rain and snow come down from heaven and do not return there unless they saturate the earth and make it produce and sprout and give seed to the farmer who sows and bread to the eater, ¹¹so also my word will be that goes from my mouth—it will not return to me empty, but it will achieve {the purpose} for which I sent it.

¹²For you will go out in joy and be led along peacefully;

the mountains and the hills will break out in joyful shouts before you, and all the trees of the fields will clap {their} hands.

¹³Instead of the thornbushes, the cypress will grow; and instead of the brier, the myrtle tree will grow, and it will be for Yahweh, for his name, as an everlasting sign that will not be cut off.”

Chapter 56

¹This is what Yahweh says, “Observe what is right, do what is just;

for my salvation {is} near, and my righteousness is about to be revealed.

²Blessed {is} the man {that} does this, and {who} holds it tightly.

He observes the Sabbath, not defiling it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

“Yahweh will certainly exclude me from his people.”

The eunuch should not say, “See, I {am} a dry tree.”

⁴For this is what Yahweh says, “To the eunuchs who observe my Sabbaths and choose what pleases me, and hold fast my covenant, ⁵to them I will set up in my house and within my walls a monument that is better than having sons and of daughters.

I will give them an everlasting monument that will never be cut off.

⁶Also foreigners who join themselves to Yahweh—to serve him, and who love the name of Yahweh, to worship him, every one who observes the Sabbath and who keeps from defiling it, and who holds fast my covenant—

⁷I will bring to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices {will be} accepted on my altar.

For my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations,

⁸this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh, who gathers the outcasts of Israel—
I will still gather {others} in addition to them.”

¹⁰All their watchmen {are} blind, they do not understand.

They {are} all silent dogs who cannot bark.

They dream, and lying down they love to sleep.

¹¹The dogs have big appetites; they can never get enough;

Tomorrow will be like today, a day great beyond measure.”

Chapter 57

¹The righteous perish, but no one considers it, and the people of covenant faithfulness are gathered away, but no one understands that the righteous is gathered away from the evil.

they rest in their beds, those who walk {in} their uprightness.

children of the adulterer and the woman who has prostituted herself.

Against whom are you opening the mouth {and} sticking out the tongue?
{Are} you not children of rebellion, children of deceit?

⁵You heat yourselves up sleeping together under the oaks, under every green tree, you who kill your children in the dry riverbeds, under the rocky overhangs.

⁶Among the smooth {things} of the river valley {are} the things that have been assigned to you. They {are} the object of your devotion.

You pour out your drink offering to them and raise up a grain offering. In these things should I take pleasure?

⁷You prepared your bed on a high mountain;
you also went up there to offer sacrifices.

⁸Behind the door and the doorposts you set up your symbols;
you deserted me, made yourselves naked, and went up; you made your bed wide.
You made {a covenant} with them; you loved their beds; you saw {their} private parts.

⁹You went to Molech with oil; you multiplied perfumes.^[1]
You send your ambassadors far away; you went down to Sheol.

¹⁰You were tired from your long journey, {but} you never said, "It is hopeless."
You found life in your hand; therefore you did not weaken.

¹¹"Whom are you worried about? Whom do you fear so much that has caused you to act so deceitfully, so much that you would not remember me or think about me?
{Because} I was silent for so long, you are no longer afraid of me.

¹²I will proclaim all your righteous acts and tell all that you have done, but they will not help you.

¹³When you cry out, let your collection {of idols} rescue you.
Instead the wind will carry {them} all away, a breath will carry them all away.
Yet he who takes refuge in me will inherit the land and will take possession of my holy mountain.

¹⁴He will say,
'Build, build! Clear a way! Remove all the stumbling blocks from the path of my people!'"

¹⁵For this is what the high and elevated One says, who lives eternally, whose name {is} holy,
"I live in the exalted and holy {place}, with him also {that} is of a crushed and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble ones, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

¹⁶For I will not accuse forever, nor will I be angry forever, for then man's spirit would faint before me, the lives {that} I have made.

¹⁷Because of the sin of his violent gain, I was angry, and I punished him; I hid my face and was angry, but he went backward in the way of his heart.

¹⁸I have seen his ways,
but I will heal him. I will lead him and comfort and console those who mourn for him, ¹⁹and I create the fruit of the lips. Peace, peace, to {those who are} far off and to {those who are near}—says Yahweh—I will heal them.

²¹{There is} no peace for the wicked one—says God.”

57:9 ^[1], some versions have .

Confront my people with their rebellion, and the house of Jacob with their sins.

²Yet they seek me daily and delight in the knowledge of my ways, like a nation that practiced righteousness and did not abandon the law of their God.

They ask me for righteous judgments; they take pleasure in the thought of God coming near.

³‘Why have we fasted,’ {they say,} ‘but you do not see it? {Why} have we humbled ourselves, but you do not notice?’

Look, on the day of your fast you find your own pleasure and oppress all your laborers.

⁴Look, you fast to quarrel and fight, and to hit with your fist of wickedness;

{you do} not fast today to make your voice heard above.

⁵{Is this} really the kind of fast that I would want: A day for anybody to humble himself, for him to bow down his head like a reed, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under himself?

Do you really call this a fast, a day that pleases Yahweh?

⁶{Is} not this the fast that I choose:

To release wicked bonds, to undo the ropes of the yoke, to set the crushed ones free, and to break every yoke?

⁷{Is it} not to break your bread with the hungry and to bring the poor and homeless into your house?”

When you see someone naked, you should clothe him; and you should not hide yourself from your own relatives.

⁸Then your light would be broken open like the sunrise, and your healing would quickly sprout up; your righteousness would go before you, and the glory of Yahweh would be your rearguard.

⁹Then you would call, and Yahweh would answer; you would cry out for help, and he would say, “Here I {am.}”

If you take away from among yourselves the yoke, the accusing finger, and the speech of wickedness,

¹⁰{if} you yourselves provide for the hungry and satisfy the need of the distressed;

then your light will rise in the darkness, and your darkness will {be} like the noonday.

¹¹Then Yahweh will lead you continually and satisfy you in regions where there is no water, and he will strengthen your bones. You will be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.

¹²Some of you will rebuild the ancient ruins; you will raise up the ruins of many generations; you will be called “The repairer of the wall,” “The restorer of streets to live on.”

¹³Suppose that you turn back your feet from traveling on the Sabbath day, and {from} doing your own pleasure on my holy {day}.

Suppose that you call the Sabbath a delight, and that you call the matters of Yahweh holy and honored.

Suppose that you honor the Sabbath by leaving your own business, and by not finding your own pleasure and by not speaking {your own} words.

¹⁴“Then you will find delight in Yahweh; and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth; I will feed you from the inheritance of Jacob your father—for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken.”

Chapter 59

¹Look, Yahweh’s hand is not so short that it cannot save; nor his ear so dull, that it cannot hear.

²Your sinful acts, however, have separated you from your God, and your sins have made him hide {his} face from you and from hearing you.

³For your hands are stained with blood and your fingers with sin. Your lips speak lies and your tongue speaks maliciously.

⁶Their webs cannot be used for garments, nor can they cover themselves with their works. Their works {are} works of sin, and deeds of violence are in their hands.

⁷Their feet run to evil, and they run to pour out innocent blood. Their thoughts {are} thoughts of sin; violence destruction {are} their roads.

⁸The way of peace they do not know, and {there is} no justice in their paths. They have made crooked paths; whoever travels these paths does not know peace.

⁹Therefore justice is far from us, nor does righteousness reach us. We wait for light, but see darkness; we look for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

¹⁰We grope for the wall like the blind, like those who cannot see. We stumble at noonday as in the twilight; among the strong we are like dead men.

¹¹We growl like bears and moan like doves;

we wait for justice, but {there is} none; for rescue, but it is far from us.

¹²For our many transgressions are before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions {are} with us, and we know our sins.

¹³We have rebelled, denying Yahweh and turning away from following our God.
We have spoken extortion and turning aside, conceived complaining from the heart and words of lying.

¹⁴Justice is driven back, and righteousness stands far off; for truth stumbles in the public square, and right cannot come.

¹⁵Trustworthiness has gone away, and he {who} turns away from evil makes himself a victim.
Yahweh saw {it} and was displeased that {there was} no justice.

¹⁶He saw that {there was} no man, and wondered that {there was} no one to intervene.
Therefore his own arm brought salvation for him, and his righteousness sustained him.

He clothed himself with garments of vengeance and wore zeal as a mantle.

¹⁹So they will fear the name of Yahweh from the west, and his glory from the sun's rising; for he will come as a rushing stream, driven by the breath of Yahweh.

²⁰"A redeemer will come to Zion and to those who turn from their rebellious deeds in Jacob—this is Yahweh's declaration. ²¹As for me, this is my covenant with them—says Yahweh—my spirit who is upon you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, will not leave your mouth, or go out of the mouth of your children, or go out of the mouth of your children's children—says Yahweh—from this time and forever."

Chapter 60

¹Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of Yahweh has risen on you.

²Though darkness will cover the earth, and thick darkness the nations;
yet Yahweh will arise upon you, and his glory will be seen on you.

³Nations will come to your light, and kings to your bright light that is rising.

⁴Look all around and see. They all gather themselves together and come to you.
Your sons will come from far, and your daughters will be carried in their arms.

⁵Then you will look and be radiant, and your heart shall rejoice and overflow, because the abundance of the sea will be poured out to you, the wealth of the nations will come to you.

⁶Camel caravans will cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah;
all of them will come from Sheba;

they will bring gold and frankincense, and will sing the praises of Yahweh.

⁷All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth will serve your needs; they will be acceptable offerings on my altar; and I will glorify my glorious house.

⁹The coastlands look for me, and the ships of Tarshish {lead}, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of Yahweh your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has honored you.

¹⁰Sons of foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you; though in my wrath I punished you, yet in my favor I will have compassion on you.

¹¹Your gates also will remain open continually; they will not be shut day or night, so that the wealth of the nations may be brought, with their kings being led.

¹²Indeed, nations and kingdoms that will not serve you will perish; {those} nations will be completely destroyed.

¹³The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the cypress tree, the fir, and the cypress box tree together, to beautify my sanctuary; and I will glorify the place of my feet.

¹⁴They will come to you to bow down, the sons of those who humbled you; they will bow at your feet;
they will call you The City of Yahweh, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵Instead of you remaining abandoned and hated, with no one passing through {you},
I will make you a thing of pride forever, a joy from generation to generation.

¹⁶You will also drink the milk of the nations, and will nurse at the breast of kings;

you will know that I, Yahweh, {am} your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. ¹⁷Instead of bronze I will bring gold, instead of iron I will bring silver;

instead of wood, bronze, and instead of stones, iron. I will appoint peace as your governors, and justice your rulers.

¹⁸Violence will no longer be heard in your land, or devastation nor shattering within your borders;
but you will call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.

¹⁹The sun will no longer be your light by day, nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you;
but Yahweh will be your everlasting light, and your God your glory.

²⁰Your sun will no longer set, nor will your moon withdraw and disappear; for Yahweh will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning will be ended.

²¹All your people {will be} righteous; they will take possession of the land for all time, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

²²The little one shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation;
I, Yahweh, will swiftly accomplish these things when the time comes.

Chapter 61

¹The Spirit of the Lord Yahweh {is} on me, because Yahweh has anointed me to proclaim good news to the afflicted. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison for {those who are} bound.

²He has sent me to proclaim the year of Yahweh's favor, the day of vengeance of our God, and to comfort all who mourn.

³He has sent me—to give to those who mourn in Zion—to give them a turban instead of ashes, oil of joy instead of mourning, a mantle of praise in place of a spirit of dullness, to call them oaks of righteousness, the planting of Yahweh, that he may be glorified.

⁴They will rebuild the ancient ruins; they will restore the former desolations.
They will restore the ruined cities, the desolations from many former generations.

⁵Foreigners will stand and feed your flocks, and sons of foreigners {will work} your fields and vineyards.

⁶You will be called the priests of Yahweh; they will call you servants of our God.
You will eat the wealth of the nations, and you will boast in their riches.

⁷{Instead of} your shame {you will have} double; and instead of dishonor they will rejoice over their share.
So they will have a double share of their land; everlasting joy will be theirs.

⁸For I, Yahweh, love justice, and I hate robbery and violent injustice.
I will faithfully repay them, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

⁹Their descendants will be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples.
All who see them will acknowledge them, that they {are} the people {whom} Yahweh has blessed.

¹⁰I will greatly rejoice in Yahweh; in my God I will be very glad.
For he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has clothed me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom adorns {himself} with a turban, and as a bride adorns {herself} with her jewels.

¹¹For as the earth produces its sprouting plants, and as the garden makes its planting grow, so the Lord Yahweh will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up in front of all the nations.

Chapter 62

¹For Zion's sake I will not be silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her righteousness proceeds brightly, and her salvation as a burning torch.

²The nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory.

You will be called by a new name that Yahweh will choose.

³You will also be a crown of beauty in the hand of Yahweh, and a turban of kingship in the hand of your God.

⁴It will no more be said of you, "Abandoned"; nor of your land any longer will it be said, "Desolate."

Indeed, you will be called "My delight is in her," and your land "Married," for Yahweh delights in you, and your land will be married.

⁵Truly, {as} a young man marries a young woman, {so} your sons will marry you, and {as} a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, your God will rejoice over you.

⁶I have put watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem;

they are not silent day or night.

You who keep reminding Yahweh, do not pause.

⁷Do not allow him to rest until he reestablishes

Jerusalem and makes it a praise on earth.

⁸Yahweh has sworn by his right hand and by the arm of his strength,

"Surely I will no longer give your grain {as} food for your enemies.

Foreigners will not drink your new wine, for which you have worked.

and those who pick the grapes will drink the wine in the courts of my holy sanctuary."

Build it, build the highway! Gather out the stones!

Raise up a signal flag for the nations!

¹¹Look, Yahweh announces to the ends of the earth,

"Say to the daughter of Zion: Look, your Savior is coming!

See, his reward {is} with him, and his recompense is going before him."

¹²They will call you, "The holy people; the redeemed of Yahweh," and you will be called "Sought after; a city not abandoned."

Chapter 63

¹Who {is} this {who comes} from Edom, clothed in red from Bozrah?

{Who is} he in royal clothing, marching confidently because of his great strength?

It is I, speaking righteousness and powerfully able to save.

³I have trodden grapes in the winepress alone, and no one from the nations joined me.

I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my fury.

Their blood is spattered on my clothes and stained all my clothes.

⁴For I looked forward to the day of vengeance, and the year for my redemption had arrived.

⁵I looked, and {there was} no one to help. I wondered that {there was} none to help, but my own arm brought victory for me, and my strong anger drove me on.

⁶I trampled down the peoples in my anger and made them drunk in my wrath, and I poured out their blood on the earth.

⁷I will tell of the acts of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness, the praiseworthy deeds of Yahweh.

I will tell of all that Yahweh has done for us, {and} of his great goodness to the house of Israel.

This compassion he has shown us because of his mercy, and with many deeds of covenant faithfulness.

⁸For he said, "For certain they {are} my people, children {who} are not disloyal."

He became their Savior.

⁹Through all their suffering, he suffered too, and the angel from his presence saved them.

In his love and mercy he saved them, and he lifted them up and carried them through all the ancient times.

¹⁰But they rebelled and grieved his Holy Spirit.

So he became their enemy {and} fought against them.

¹¹His people thought about the ancient times of Moses.

{They said}, "Where {is} God, who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock?

Where {is} God, who put his Holy Spirit among them?

and divided the water before them, to make an everlasting name for himself?

¹³Where is God, who led them through the deep water? Like a horse running on flat land, they did not stumble.

¹⁴As the cattle that go down into the valley, the Spirit of Yahweh gave them rest.

So you led your people, to make yourself a name of praise.

¹⁵Look down from heaven and take notice from your holy and glorious habitation.

Where {are} your zeal and your mighty acts?

¹⁶For you {are} our father, though Abraham does not know us, and Israel does not recognize us, you, Yahweh, {are} our father. 'Our Redeemer' {has been} your name from ancient times.

¹⁷Yahweh, why do you make us wander from your ways {and} harden our hearts, so we do not obey you?

Return for your servants' sake, the tribes of your inheritance.

¹⁹We have become {like} those over whom you never ruled, like those who were never called by your name."

Chapter 64

Oh, that your name would be known by your adversaries, that the nations would tremble at your presence!

³Previously, when you did marvelous things that we had not expected, you came down, and the mountains trembled at your presence.

⁴Since ancient times no one has heard or perceived, nor eye seen any God besides you, who does things for him who waits for him.

⁵You come to help those who rejoice in doing what is right, those {who} call to mind your ways and obey them.

You were angry when we sinned. In your ways we will always be rescued.

⁶For we have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds {are} like a menstrual rag.

We have all withered like leaves; our iniquities, like the wind, carry us away.

⁷{There are} none who calls on your name, who makes an effort to take hold of you.

For you have hidden your face from us and made us waste away in the hand of our iniquities.

⁸Yet, Yahweh, you {are} our father;

we {are} the clay. You {are} our potter; and we all {are} the work of your hand.

⁹Be not too angry, Yahweh, nor always call to mind against us our sins.

Please look at us all, your people.

¹⁰Your holy cities have become a wilderness;

Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

¹¹Our holy and beautiful temple, where our fathers praised you, has been destroyed by fire, and all that was so dear is in ruins.

¹²How can you still hold back, Yahweh? How can you remain silent and continue to humiliate us?"

Chapter 65

¹"I was ready to be sought out by {those who} did not ask; I was ready to be found by {those who} did not seek.

I said, 'Here I am! Here I am!' to a nation that did not call on my name.

²I have spread out my hands all day to a stubborn people, who walk in a way {that is} not good, who have walked after their own thoughts and plans!

³They are a people who continually offend me, offering sacrifices in gardens, and burning incense on brick tiles.

and eat pork with the broth of foul meat in their dishes.

⁵They say, 'Stand away, do not come near to me, for I am holier than you.'
These things {are} smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all day long.

⁶Look, {it is} written before me:

I will not keep quiet, for I will pay them back; I will repay them into their laps, ⁷for their sins and the sins of their fathers together," says Yahweh.

"I will repay them for burning incense on the mountains and for mocking me on the hills.

I will therefore measure out their past deeds into their laps."

when {one} says, 'Do not ruin it, for there is good in it,'

this is what I will do for my servants' sake: I will not ruin them all.

⁹I will bring descendants from Jacob, and from Judah ones who will possess my mountains.

My chosen ones will possess the land, and my servants will live there.

¹⁰Sharon will become a pasture for the flocks, and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds, for my people who seek me.

¹¹But you who abandon Yahweh, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune, and fill wine glasses of mixed wine for Destiny.

¹²I will appoint you for the sword, and you will all bow down to the slaughter, because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen.

But you did what was evil in my sight and chose to do what displeases me.”

¹³This is what the Lord Yahweh says,

“Look, my servants will eat, but you will be hungry; look, my servants will drink, but you will be thirsty;

look, my servants will rejoice, but you will be put to shame.

¹⁴Look, my servants will shout with joy because of gladness of heart, but you will cry because of the pain of the heart, and will wail because of the crushing of the spirit.

¹⁵You will leave behind your name as a curse for my chosen ones to speak; I, the Lord Yahweh, will kill you;

I will call my servants by another name.

¹⁶Whoever pronounces a blessing on the earth will be blessed by me, the God of truth.

Whoever takes an oath on the earth will swear by me, the God of truth, because the former troubles will be forgotten, for they will be hidden from my eyes.

¹⁷For see, I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things will not be remembered or be brought to mind.

¹⁸But you will be glad and rejoice forever in what I am about to create. See, I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and her people {as} a delight.

¹⁹I will rejoice over Jerusalem and be glad over my people; weeping and cries of distress will no longer be heard in her.

²⁰Never again will an infant {live} there {only a few} days;

nor will an old man die before his time.

One who dies at one hundred years old will be considered a young person.

Anyone who fails to reach the age of one hundred years old will {be} considered cursed.

²¹They will build houses and inhabit {them}, and they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

²²No longer will they build a house and another live in it; they will not plant, and another eat; for as the days of trees {will be} the days of my people. My chosen will fully outlive the work of their hands.

²³They will not labor in vain, nor give birth to dismay.

For they are the children of those blessed by Yahweh, and their descendants with them.

²⁴Before they call, I will answer; and while they are still speaking, I will hear.

²⁵The wolf and the lamb will graze together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox;
but dust {will be} the serpent's food.
They will no longer hurt nor destroy on all my holy mountain," says Yahweh.

Chapter 66

¹This is what Yahweh says,

"Heaven {is} my throne, and the earth {is} my footstool. Where then {is} the house you will build for me? Where {is} the place where I may rest?

²My hand has made all these things; that is how these things came to be—this is Yahweh's declaration.

This is the man of whom I approve, the broken and contrite in spirit, and who trembles at my word.

³He who slaughters an ox {also} murders a man; he who sacrifices a lamb {also} breaks a dog's neck;
he who offers a grain offering offers swine's blood; he who offers a memorial of incense {also} blesses wickedness.
They have chosen their own ways, and they take pleasure in their abominations.

⁴In the same way I will choose their own punishment; I will bring on them what they fear, because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, no one listened.
They did what was evil in my sight, and chose to do {what} displeases me."

⁵Hear the word of Yahweh, you who tremble at his word,
"Your brothers who hate and exclude you for my name's sake have said,
'May Yahweh be glorified, then we will see your joy,' but they will be put to shame.

⁶A sound of battle tumult comes from the city, a sound from the temple, the sound of Yahweh paying back his enemies.

before pain is upon her, she gave birth to a {son.}

⁸Who has heard of such a thing? Who has seen such things?
Will a land be born in one day? Can a nation be established in one moment?

Yet as soon as Zion goes into labor, she gives birth to her children. ⁹Do I bring a baby to the birth opening and not permit the child to be born?—asks Yahweh.

Or do I bring a child to the moment of delivery and then hold it back?—asks your God."

¹⁰Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her, all you who mourned over her!

¹¹For you will nurse and be satisfied; with her breasts you will be comforted;

for you will drink them to the full and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12This is what Yahweh says,

and the riches of the nations like an overflowing stream.

You will nurse at {her} side, be carried in {her} arms, and be dandled on {her} knees.

13As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you, and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.”

14You will see {this}, and your heart will rejoice, and your bones will sprout like the tender grass.

The hand of Yahweh will be made known to his servants, but he will show {his} anger against his enemies.

15For look, Yahweh is coming with fire, and his chariots are coming like the windstorm to bring the heat of his anger and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16For Yahweh executes judgment on mankind by fire and with his sword. Those killed by Yahweh will be many.

17They consecrate themselves and make themselves pure, {so they may} enter the gardens, following the one in the middle of those who eat the flesh of pig and abominable things like mice.^[1]

18For I {know} their deeds and their thoughts. The time is coming when I will gather all nations and languages.

They will come and will see my glory.^[2] 19I will set a sign among them. Then I will send survivors from them to the nations: {To} Tarshish, Put, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal, Javan, and {to} the distant coastlands where they have not heard about me nor seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory among the nations. 20They will bring back all your brothers out of all the nations, as an offering to Yahweh. They will come on horses, and in chariots, in wagons, on mules, and on camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem—says Yahweh. For the people of Israel will bring a grain offering in a clean vessel into the house of Yahweh.

21Some of these I will even choose as priests {and} Levites—says Yahweh.

22For just as the new heavens and the new earth that I will make will remain before me—this is Yahweh’s declaration—so your descendants will remain, and your name will remain.

23From one month to the next, and from one Sabbath to the next, all people will come to bow down to me—says Yahweh.

24They will go out and see the dead bodies of the men who have rebelled against me, for the worms that eat them will not die, and the fire that consumes them will not be quenched;
