unfoldingWord® Literal Text-English an unrestricted literal version of the Bible intended for translation into any language as a tool for use by Bible translators

Overview

The ULT began as an open-licensed adaptation of The American Standard Version . It has since undergone a careful comparison to the original biblical languages, using the best tools that are available to modern scholarship, and made to reflect the forms of those languages as far as English grammar and understanding will allow. The ULT is thus intended to provide a ‘form-centric’ rendering of the biblical text from the original biblical languages (Biblical Hebrew, Biblical Aramaic, and Koiné Greek) into English. This increases a translator’s understanding of the lexical and grammatical composition of the biblical text by adhering closely to the grammatical (i.e. parts of speech) and syntactic (i.e. word order) structures of the original languages. For translators who do not speak English, we intend to translate the ULT into the other major languages of the world.

Viewing

To read or print the ULT, see the latest published version of the ULT project on Door43 at https://door43.org/u/Door43-Catalog/en_ult/. (Any ongoing development may be seen at https://door43.org/u/unfoldingWord/en_ult/.)

Introducing the ULT

The ULT (unfoldingWord® Literal Text) is a form-centric (and thus “literal”) version of the Bible in English. It is intended to be used alongside the UST (unfoldingWord® Simplified Text) and other translation resources to give English-speaking mother-tongue translators (MTTs) a more complete understanding of the messages communicated in the Bible. The purpose of the ULT text is to allow a Bible translator who does not have reading knowledge of the original biblical languages (Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek) to “see” the grammatical forms of those languages. Therefore, the goal of the ULT text as a translation resource is to copy the Original Language (OrigL) form as much as possible yet still be understandable in English or other Gateway Language (GL). For MTTs who cannot read the OrigL text, the ULT provides a sense of how these messages of the Bible were communicated in the OrigL. It is anticipated that the ULT and other resources will be translated from English into the world’s GLs so that MTTs worldwide can use them as a set of resources for making accurate translations of the Bible into their own languages.

The ULT stands in the range of literalness somewhere between a very literally translated user Bible (such as the New American Standard Bible [NASB]) and an English interlinear text. An English interlinear text is designed to render OrigL words into their individual and basic (“literal”) English meanings without regard to understandability of the overall English text. On the other hand, a very literally translated user Bible tries to adhere as closely as possible to the OrigL but must sometimes compromise in favor of English idiom and expression in order for the text to be both grammatically correct and readily understood. The ULT negotiates a path between these two kinds of texts. For example, the ULT reproduces the OrigL idioms even when they are not English idioms, relying on a translation note to explain the meaning. In that way, the translator can see the original expression, and also the meaning. The ULT does not substitute English idioms or expressions. However, if an OrigL grammatical form would give the wrong meaning or no meaning at all, the ULT will use the English form in that case so that the ULT can also meet the demand of reasonable understandability in English.

Retaining Original Forms and Structures

The unfoldingWord® Literal Text (ULT) is designed to be used as a tool for Bible translation in conjunction with the unfoldingWord® Simplified Text (UST) which can be viewed at https://git.door43.org/Door43-Catalog/en_ust, the unfoldingWord® Translation Words (UTW) at https://git.door43.org/Door43-Catalog/en_tw, and the unfoldingWord® Translation Notes (UTN) at https://git.door43.org/Door43-Catalog/en_tn. It is not an end-user Bible, which seeks to transform all of the structures of the original biblical languages into those that are natural and idiomatic in the target language. Instead, unlike the UST and unlike an end-user Bible, the ULT is designed to reflect the forms of the source languages, so that the MTT can see what they are. By using the ULT, the MTT can “look through” it to see how the original Bible expressed the biblical ideas.

Therefore, the editors of the ULT have retained the grammatical and syntactic structures of the original as much as the target language (English or other Gateway Language) will reasonably allow. If the original structure is ungrammatical in the target language, then it has been changed into a structure that is grammatical in the target language. It does no good to have a translation that a MTT using this tool cannot understand. But as much as the target language will allow, the structures of the original have been retained while translating the ULT. For English, it is often possible to retain nouns as nouns, verbs as verbs, etc., but their order in the original sentence often has needed to be changed.

In addition to the grammatical forms, the ULT has also retained the idioms and the figures of speech found in the original languages so that the MTT can consider them and use them if they communicate the right thing in his target language (i.e. a minority or Other Language [OL], not Gateway Language). If these aspects of the original language text are changed in the English version (or other Gateway Language translation) of the ULT, then the OL translator will never see them. Furthermore, their accompanying explanations (found in the unfoldingWord® Translation Notes) will not make sense.

The ULT and the UST are designed to be complementary tools for use by an OL translator. These tools are made to be as useful as possible, which means that the ULT retains original language structures that would not always be retained in an end-user Bible. Therefore, you must understand that the ULT will often lack naturalness (and sometimes also lack clarity) because it aims to reproduce the original language structures and figures of speech that the GL may not normally use. However, in places where the ULT lacks clarity, there will be BOTH a Translation Note to explain the meaning of the structure for the OL translator AND a clear rendering of the original meaning in the UST. Together, the UTN and the UST will provide the meaning of the text wherever that meaning is in doubt in the ULT. In this way, the various tools work together to provide an OL translator with more complete information about both the form and the meaning of the biblical text as written in the original languages.

One specific way in which the ULT and UST are complementary tools concerns the selection of meaning in the original language texts. There are many instances in the biblical text where the meaning of a word or phrase in the original languages is ambiguous. In those cases, the ULT should retain the ambiguity of meaning, if possible. In contrast, the UST should select the most probable meaning and express that meaning according to its own translation method. NOTE: Where the meaning of the original language is linguistically ambiguous but seems clear from the context, the ULT has often selected that meaning.

Further information

Further details about translation decisions in the ULT can be seen at https://git.door43.org/Door43-Catalog/en_ult#overview.

Alignment of the ULT with the Original Languages

The words and phrases of the ULT have been manually aligned with the original Hebrew or Greek words that they were translated from. Because this is a literal translation, the alignments are largely one-to-one (compared to the UST which has much more complex alignments). The alignment information is stored within custom z-aln fields in the USFM source files. Alignments can be viewed graphically in the translationCore checking program downloadable from <https://www.translationcore.com/>, and in translationCore Create and translationCore Study apps.

Ongoing Development

Development of the ULT is ongoing and although the bulk of the work has now been completed, consistency checking within the ULT and detailed checks against the original languages are still in early stages, especially for Old Testament books other than Ruth, Ezra, Esther, Obadiah, and Jonah. Any suggested improvements can be passed to the ULT team via the Issues page at https://git.door43.org/unfoldingWord/en_ult/issues.

Genesis

Chapter 1

¹In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. ²Now the earth was formless and empty, and darkness was over the surface of the deep waters, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters. ³Then God said, "Let there be light." And there was light. ⁴And God saw the light, that it was good. Then God separated between the light and the darkness. ⁵And God called the light " Day," and the darkness he called "Night." Then there was evening, and there was morning, one day.

⁶Then God said, " Let there be an expanse in the middle of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." ⁷So God made the expanse and separated between the waters that were under the expanse and the waters that were above the expanse. And it was so. ⁸And God called the expanse "Heavens." Then there was evening, and there was morning, the second day.

⁹Then God said, " Let the waters under the heavens be gathered to one place, and let the dry ground appear." And it was so. ¹⁰And God called the dry ground "Land," and the gathered waters he called " Seas." And God saw that it was good.

¹¹Then God said, "Let the land sprout vegetation on the earth, plants that yield seeds and fruit trees that bear fruit according to their kinds that have their seeds inside them." And it was so: ¹²So the land produced vegetation, plants that yield seeds, each according to its kind, and trees that bear fruit that has its seeds inside it, each according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. ¹³Then there was evening, and there was morning, the third day.

²⁰Then God said, "Let the waters swarm with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the face of the expanse of the sky." ²¹So God created the great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, which the waters swarm with, each according to its kind, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. ²²Then God blessed them by saying, " Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth." ²³Then there was evening, and there was morning, the fifth day.

²⁴Then God said, "Let the land produce living creatures, each according to its kind, livestock, and creatures that crawl and living creatures of the earth, each according to its kind." And it was so. ²⁵So God made the living creatures of the earth, each according to its kind, and the livestock according to their kind, and every creature that crawls on the ground according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

²⁶Then God said, " Let us make mankind in our image, according to our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over the livestock, and over all the earth, and over every moving creature that moves on the earth." ²⁷Then God created mankind in his own image. In the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

²⁸Then God blessed them and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it. And rule over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over every living creature that moves on the earth."

²⁹Then God said, " Behold, I have given to you every plant that yields seeds that is on the surface of the whole earth, and every tree that bears fruit that yields seeds inside it. They will be yours for food. ³⁰And to every living creature of the earth, and to every bird of the sky, and to every creature that moves on the earth that has the breath of life in it, I have given every green plant for food." And it was so.

³¹Then God saw everything that he had made, and behold it was very good. Then there was evening, and there was morning, the sixth day.

Chapter 2

¹So the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their hosts. ²And by the seventh day God had finished his work that he had done, so he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had done. ³Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because on it he rested from all his work of creating that God had done.

⁴These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day when Yahweh God made the earth and the heavens. ⁵Now every shrub of the fields had not yet appeared on the earth, and every plant of the fields had not yet sprung up, because Yahweh God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to work the ground. ⁶But mist came up from the earth and watered the entire surface of the ground. ⁷Then Yahweh God formed the man out of dust from the ground, and he breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.

⁸Now Yahweh God had planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed.

⁹And Yahweh God had made every tree to grow from the ground that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, including the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

¹⁰And a river went out from Eden to water the garden, and from there it divided and became four headwaters.

¹¹The name of the first is the Pishon. It winds through the entire land of Havilah, where there is gold. ¹²And the gold of that land is good. Bdellium and onyx stones are also there. ¹³And the name of the second river is the Gihon. It winds through the entire land of Cush. ¹⁴And the name of the third river is the Tigris. It goes east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

¹⁸Then Yahweh God said, " It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable helper for him." ¹⁹Now Yahweh God had formed from the ground every living creature of the fields and every bird of the sky. So he brought them to the man to see what he would call each one, and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. ²⁰And the man gave names to all the livestock and to the birds of the sky and to all the living creatures of the fields, but a suitable helper was not found for the man.

²¹So Yahweh God caused a deep sleep to fall on the man, and while he was sleeping, then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. ²²Then Yahweh God made the rib which he had taken from the man into a woman, and he brought her to the man. ²³And the man said,

"This one now has bones from my bones and flesh from my flesh!

She will be called 'woman', because it was from a man that she was taken."

²⁴For that reason a man will leave his father and his mother, and he will cling to his wife, and they will become one flesh.

²⁵Now both the man and his wife were naked, but they were not ashamed.

Chapter 3

¹Now the serpent was more crafty than all the living creatures of the fields that Yahweh God had made. And he said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree of the garden'?" ²Then the woman said to the serpent, " We may eat from the fruit of the trees of the garden, ³except from the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden. God said, 'You must not eat from it and you must not touch it, or else you will die!' " ⁴But the serpent said to the woman, "You will not surely die. ⁵For God knows that on the day you eat from it, then your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God in knowing good and evil." ⁶And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable for gaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it. Then she also gave some to her husband with her, and he ate it. ⁷Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made aprons for themselves.

⁸Then they heard the sound of Yahweh God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, but the man and his wife hid from the presence of Yahweh God among the trees of the garden. ⁹So Yahweh God called to the man and said to him, " Where are you?" ¹⁰And he said, "I heard your sound in the garden, but I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid." ¹¹Then he said, " Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?" ¹²Then the man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate it." ¹³Then Yahweh God said to the woman, " What is this you have done?" And the woman said, "The serpent deceived me, so I ate it."

¹⁴Then Yahweh God said to the serpent,

" Because you have done this,
you are cursed above all the livestock and above all the living creatures of the fields!
You will move on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life.

¹⁵I will also put hostility between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring.
He will strike you on the head, and you will strike him on the heel."

¹⁶To the woman he said,
"I will greatly multiply your pain and your childbearing;
in pain you will bear children.
Yet your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you."

¹⁷Then he said to Adam,
" Since you listened to the voice of your wife and you ate from the tree that I commanded you by saying, 'You must not eat from it,' the ground is cursed because of you;

by painful toil you will eat from it all the days of your life.

¹⁸And it will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the fields.

¹⁹By the sweat of your brow you will eat bread, until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken.
For you are dust, and to dust you will return."

²⁰Then the man called the name of his wife Eve, because she was the mother of all living people. ²¹Then Yahweh God made garments from animal skins for Adam and his wife, and he clothed them.

²²Then Yahweh God said, "Behold! The man has become like one of us in knowing good and evil. And now he must not be allowed to reach out his hands and also take fruit from the tree of life and eat it and live forever!" ²³So Yahweh God sent him out of the garden of Eden to work the ground which he had been taken from. ²⁴And after he drove the man out, then he placed on the east side of the garden of Eden cherubim angels and a flaming sword that was turning in every direction to guard the way to the tree of life.

Chapter 4

¹Then the man knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain. And she said, "I have obtained a man with Yahweh!" ²Then she continued on to bear his brother Abel. Now Abel became a keeper of flocks, and Cain became a worker of the ground. ³And it happened in the course of days that Cain brought some of the fruit of the ground as an offering to Yahweh. ⁴And Abel also brought some of the firstborn of his flocks, and some of their fat. And Yahweh looked favorably on Abel and his offering. ⁵However he did not look favorably on Cain and his offering. So Cain burned with intense anger and his face fell. ⁶Then Yahweh said to Cain, "Why are you burning with anger? And why is your face fallen? ⁷If you do right, will you not be accepted? But if you do not do right, sin is crouching at the door, and its desire is for you, but you must rule over it."

⁹Then Yahweh said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" And he replied, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?" ¹⁰Then he said, "What have you done?! The voice of your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground! ¹¹So now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. ¹²When you work the ground, it will not continue to yield its strength for you. You will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth."

¹³Then Cain said to Yahweh, "My punishment is greater than I can bear. ¹⁴Behold! Today you are driving me from the surface of the ground, and I will be hidden from your presence and I will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and it will be everyone who finds me will kill me!" ¹⁵Then Yahweh replied to him, "For that reason, anyone who kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times over!" Then Yahweh put a mark on Cain so that everyone who found him would not kill him. ¹⁶Then Cain went away from the presence of Yahweh and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

¹⁷Then Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he was building a city, so he called the name of the city after the name of his son Enoch. ¹⁸Then to Enoch was born Irad. Then Irad fathered Mehujael, then Mehujael fathered Methushael, then Methushael fathered Lamech.

¹⁹Then Lamech took two wives for himself. The name of the one was Adah, and the name of the second was Zillah.

²⁰And Adah bore Jabal. He was the father of those who live in tents and own livestock. ²¹And the name of his brother was Jubal. He was the father of all who play harps and flutes.

²²And Zillah also bore Tubal Cain, who forged all kinds of tools out of bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal Cain was Naamah.

²³And Lamech said to his wives,

" Adah and Zillah, listen to my voice. Wives of Lamech, hear my words:

For I killed a man for my wound, even a young man for my bruise.

²⁴If Cain is avenged seven times, then Lamech is avenged seventy-seven times!"

²⁵Then Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son, and she called his name Seth, because she said, "God has appointed for me another offspring in place of Abel, since Cain killed him." ²⁶And to Seth also a son was born, and he called his name Enosh.

Then people began to call on the name of Yahweh.

Chapter 5

¹This is the written account of the generations of Adam: On the day God created mankind, he made them in the likeness of God. ²He created them male and female, and he blessed them and called their name "mankind," on the day they were created.

³And Adam lived 130 years, then he fathered a son in his own likeness, according to his image, and he called his name Seth. ⁴And Adam's days after he fathered Seth were 800 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

⁵So all Adam's days that he lived were 930 years, then he died.

⁶And Seth lived 105 years, then he fathered Enosh. ⁷Then after he fathered Enosh, Seth lived 807 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ⁸So all Seth's days were 912 years, then he died.

⁹And Enosh lived 90 years, then he fathered Kenan. ¹⁰Then after he fathered Kenan, Enosh lived 807 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ¹¹So all Enosh's days were 905 years, then he died.

¹²And Kenan lived 70 years, then he fathered Mahalalel. ¹³Then after he fathered Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ¹⁴So all Kenan's days were 910 years, then he died.

¹⁵And Mahalalel lived 65 years, then he fathered Jared. ¹⁶Then after he fathered Jared, Mahalalel lived 830 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ¹⁷So all Mahalalel's days were 895 years, then he died.

¹⁸And Jared lived 162 years, then he fathered Enoch. ¹⁹Then after he fathered Enoch, Jared lived 800 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ²⁰So all Jared's days were 962 years, then he died.

²¹And Enoch lived 65 years, then he fathered Methuselah. ²²Then after he fathered Methuselah, Enoch walked with God 300 more years, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ²³So all Enoch's days were 365 years. ²⁴And Enoch walked with God, then he was not there, because God took him away.

²⁵And Methuselah lived 187 years, then he fathered Lamech. ²⁶Then after he fathered Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ²⁷So all Methuselah's days were 969 years, then he died.

²⁸And Lamech lived 182 years, then he fathered a son, ²⁹and he called his name Noah, because he said, "This son will comfort us from our labors and from the toil of our hands because of the ground which Yahweh has cursed."

³⁰Then after he fathered Noah, Lamech lived 595 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters. ³¹So all Lamech's days were 777 years, then he died.

³²And Noah was a son of 500 years, then Noah fathered Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Chapter 6

¹Now it happened when mankind began to multiply on the surface of the earth and daughters were born to them, ²then the sons of God saw the daughters of mankind that they were beautiful, so they took wives for themselves from any of them that they chose. ³Then Yahweh said, "My Spirit will not strive with mankind forever, because they are indeed flesh. So their days will be 120 years."

⁵And Yahweh saw that the wickedness of mankind was great on the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of their hearts was only evil all day long. ⁶So Yahweh was sorry that he had made mankind on the earth, and he was grieved in his heart. ⁷Then Yahweh said, "I will wipe away mankind whom I created off the surface of the ground--both mankind and animals, and creatures that crawl and the birds of the sky--because I am sorry that I made them." ⁸But Noah found favor in the eyes of Yahweh.

⁹These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a righteous man. He was without blemish in his generation. Noah walked with God. ¹⁰And Noah fathered three sons: Shem, Ham and Japheth. ¹¹Now the earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. ¹²And God saw the earth and behold it was corrupt, because all flesh on the earth had corrupted their ways. ¹³So God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before me, because the earth is filled with violence because of them, so behold, I will destroy them with the earth. ¹⁴Make an ark for yourself out of gopher wood. Make the ark with rooms, and cover it inside and outside with pitch. ¹⁵And this is how you must make it: the length of the ark must be 300 cubits, its width 50 cubits and its height 30 cubits. ¹⁶Make a roof for the ark and finish the walls of it to within one cubit from the roof. And put the door of the ark in its side. Make a lower, a second and a third deck. ¹⁷And behold, I am bringing floodwaters on the earth to destroy all flesh that has the breath of life in it from under the heavens. Everything that is on the earth will die! ¹⁸But I will establish my covenant with you, so you must go into the ark — you and your sons and your wife and the wives of your sons with you. ¹⁹And from every living creature, from all flesh, you must bring two from each kind into the ark to keep alive with you. They must be male and female. ²⁰From the birds according to their kinds, and from the animals according to their kinds, from every creature that moves on the ground according to its kind, two from every kind will come to you to keep alive. ²¹And you must take with you some of every food that is eaten and store it with you, and it will be food for you and for them." ²²So Noah did that; according to all that God had commanded him, so he did.

¹Then Yahweh said to Noah, "Go into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen that you are righteous before me in this generation. ²Take with you seven male and female pairs of every clean animal, and a male and female pair of every animal that is not clean, ³also seven male and female pairs of every bird of the sky, to keep their offspring alive on the surface of the whole earth, ⁴because in seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe away every living thing that I have made off the surface of the ground." ⁵Then Noah did all that Yahweh had commanded him.

¹⁰So it was after the seven days, then the waters of the flood came on the earth. ¹¹In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the springs of the great deep burst open, and the windows of the heavens were opened, ¹²so that the rain fell on the earth forty days and forty nights. ¹³On that same day Noah and Shem, and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and the wife of Noah and the three wives of his sons with them, went into the ark, ¹⁴they and every living creature according to its kind, and every livestock according to its kind, and every creature that moves on the earth according to its kind, and every bird according to its kind, every bird of every wing. ¹⁵So pairs of all flesh that have the breath of life in them went to Noah into the ark. ¹⁶And those that went in were male and female from all flesh; they went in just as God had commanded him. Then Yahweh shut him in.

¹⁷Then the flood came on the earth for forty days, and the waters increased and lifted the ark so that it rose up off the earth. ¹⁸So the waters rose and increased greatly on the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the waters. ¹⁹And the waters rose very greatly on the earth, so that all the high mountains that were under the entire heavens were covered. ²⁰The waters rose fifteen cubits above them, so that the mountains were covered. ²¹Then all flesh that moved on the earth died, including the birds, and the livestock, and the living creatures, and all the creatures that swarm on the earth, and all mankind. ²²Everything that had the breath of the spirit of life in its nostrils, everything that lived on dry land, died. ²³So he wiped away every living thing that was on the surface of the ground, including mankind and livestock and creatures that crawl and also the birds of the sky. They were wiped off the earth, and only Noah was left and those who were with him in the ark.

²⁴And the waters prevailed over the earth for 150 days.

¹But God remembered Noah and all the living creatures and all the livestock that were with him in the ark. So God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided. ²And the springs of the deep and the windows of the heavens were closed, and the rain from the heavens was stopped. ³Then the waters receded steadily from the earth, and at the end of the 150 days the waters had decreased, ⁴so that in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested on the mountains of Ararat. ⁵Then the waters continued to decrease until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first of the month, the tops of the mountains could be seen.

⁶Then it happened at the end of forty days that Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made, ⁷and he sent out a raven, and it kept flying out and returning until the waters dried up from the earth. ⁸Then he sent out a dove from him to see if the waters had subsided from the surface of the ground. ⁹But the dove did not find a resting place for the sole of its feet, so it returned to him in the ark, because the waters were over the surface of the entire earth. And he reached out his hand and took it and brought it to him into the ark. ¹⁰Then he waited another seven days and again sent out the dove from the ark. ¹¹Then the dove returned to him in the evening, and behold there was a freshly picked olive leaf in its beak. So Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth. ¹²Then he waited another seven days, and he sent out the dove, but it did not return to him again.

¹³So it happened in the 601st year, in the first month, on the first of the month, the waters were drying up from the earth. Then Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked around, and behold the surface of the ground was becoming dry. ¹⁴Then in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the land was dry.

¹⁵Then God said to Noah, saying, ¹⁶"Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and the wives of your sons with you. ¹⁷Bring out with you every living creature that is with you, all flesh, including the birds and the livestock and every creature that moves on the earth, so that they will abound on the earth and be fruitful and multiply over the earth." ¹⁸Then Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and the wives of his sons with him. ¹⁹Every living thing, every crawling thing and every bird, everything that moves on the earth went out of the ark by their families.

²⁰Then Noah built an altar to Yahweh, and he took from every clean animal and from every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. ²¹And Yahweh smelled the pleasant aroma, and Yahweh said in his heart, "Never again will I curse the ground because of mankind, though the inclination of mankind's hearts is evil from their youth. And never again will I destroy every living thing as I have done.

²²While all of the days of the earth continue, seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night will not cease."

Chapter 9

¹Then God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth. ²And the fear of you and the dread of you will be on every living creature of the earth, including on every bird of the sky, on everything that moves on the ground, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hand. ³Every moving creature that lives will be food for you. Just as the green plants, I give you everything. ⁴But you must not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood. ⁵And surely I will demand your blood for your lives. From the hand of every living creature I will demand it. Also, from the hand of mankind--from the hand of a man regarding his brother--I will demand the life of the man.

⁶The one shedding the blood of a man, by mankind his blood must be shed, because in the image of God he made mankind.

⁷" And you, be fruitful and multiply. Abound on the earth and multiply on it. "

¹²Then God said, "This is the sign of the covenant that I am making between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for generations forever: ¹³I have set my rainbow in the clouds, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth. ¹⁴And it will be when I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow is seen in the clouds, ¹⁵then I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature among all flesh, that never again will waters become a flood to destroy all flesh. ¹⁶So the rainbow will be in the clouds, and I will see it to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature, with all flesh that is on the earth."

¹⁷Then God said to Noah, "That is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

¹⁸And the sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, and Ham and Japheth; and Ham, he was the father of Canaan. ¹⁹Those three were the sons of Noah, and from them the whole earth was overspread.

²⁴Then Noah woke up from his wine, and he learned what his youngest son had done to him, ²⁵and he said, "Cursed be Canaan!
He will be a slave of slaves for his brothers." ²⁶Then he said, "Praised be Yahweh, the God of Shem!
And may Canaan be a slave for him.
²⁷May God enlarge Japheth, and may he live in Shem's tents.
And may Canaan be a slave for him."
²⁸And after the flood, Noah lived 350 years. ²⁹So all the days of Noah were 950 years, then he died.

Chapter 10

¹Now these are the generations of Noah's sons Shem, Ham and Japheth; and sons were born to them after the flood.

²The sons of Japheth were Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

³And the sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

⁴And the sons of Javan were Elishah and Tarshish, the Kittim and the Dodanim.

⁵From those the coastland peoples spread out into their lands, each with its own language, according to their clans, in their nations.

⁶And the sons of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put and Canaan.

⁷And the sons of Cush were Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabteca. And the sons of Raamah were Sheba, and Dedan. ⁸Cush also fathered Nimrod, who began to be mighty on the earth. ⁹He was a mighty hunter before Yahweh. For that reason it is said, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before Yahweh." ¹⁰And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Akkad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. ¹¹From that land he went to Asshur and he built Nineveh, and Rehoboth-Ir and Calah, ¹²and Resen, between Nineveh and Calah, which is the great city.

¹³And Mizraim fathered the Ludim, and the Anamim, and the Lehabim, and the Naphtuhim, ¹⁴and the Pathrusim, and the Casluhim (whom the Philistim came from), and the Capthorim.

¹⁵And Canaan fathered Sidon his firstborn, then Heth, ¹⁶and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, and the Girgashites, ¹⁷and the Hivites, and the Arkites, and the Sinites ¹⁸and the Arvadites, and the Zemarites, and the Hamathites. And afterward the clans of the Canaanites scattered, ¹⁹so the borders of the Canaanites were from Sidon then you go toward Gerar as far as Gaza, then you go to Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

²⁰Those are the sons of Ham according to their clans, according to their languages, in their lands, in their nations.

²¹And sons were also born to Shem; he was the father of all the sons of Eber and the brother of Japheth the elder.

²²The sons of Shem were Elam, and Asshur, and Arpachshad, and Lud, and Aram.

²³And the sons of Aram were Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

²⁴And Arpachshad fathered Shelah, then Shelah fathered Eber. ²⁵Then two sons were born to Eber: the name of the one was Peleg, because in his days the earth was divided. And the name of his brother was Joktan. ²⁶And Joktan fathered Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, ²⁷and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, ²⁸and Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba, ²⁹and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. All those were the sons of Joktan. ³⁰And their dwelling was from Mesha, then you go to Sephar, the mountains of the east.

³¹Those are the sons of Shem according to their clans, according to their languages, in their lands, according to their nations.

³²Those are the clans of the sons of Noah, according to their generations, in their nations. And from those the nations spread out on the earth after the flood.

Chapter 11

¹Now the whole earth was one language and the same words. ²And it happened as they migrated from the east, then they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. ³Then they said to each other, "Come, let us make bricks and bake them with fire." And they had bricks for stones, and they had tar for mortar. ⁴Then they said, "Come, let us build a city for ourselves and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, so that we are not scattered over the face of the whole earth."

⁵Then Yahweh came down to see the city and the tower that the sons of mankind had built, ⁶and Yahweh said, "Behold, they are one people and they all have one language, so this is what they have begun to do, and now everything that they plan to do will not be withheld from them. ⁷Come, let us go down and there confuse their language, so that they will not understand each other's language." ⁸Then Yahweh scattered them from there over the face of the whole earth, and they stopped building the city. ⁹For that reason they called its name Babel, because there Yahweh confused the language of the whole earth, and from there Yahweh scattered them over the face of the whole earth.

¹⁰These are the generations of Shem:

Shem was the son of 100 years, then he fathered Arpachshad two years after the flood. ¹¹Then after he fathered Arpachshad, Shem lived 500 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

¹²And Arpachshad lived 35 years, then he fathered Shelah. ¹³Then after he fathered Shelah, Arpachshad lived 403 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

¹⁴And Shelah lived 30 years, then he fathered Eber. ¹⁵Then after he fathered Eber, Shelah lived 403 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

¹⁶And Eber lived 34 years, then he fathered Peleg. ¹⁷Then after he fathered Peleg, Eber lived 430 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

¹⁸And Peleg lived 30 years, then he fathered Reu. ¹⁹Then after he fathered Reu, Peleg lived 209 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

²⁰And Reu lived 32 years, then he fathered Serug. ²¹Then after he fathered Serug, Reu lived 207 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

²²And Serug lived 30 years, then he fathered Nahor. ²³Then after he fathered Nahor, Serug lived 200 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

²⁴And Nahor lived 29 years, then he fathered Terah. ²⁵Then after he fathered Terah, Nahor lived 119 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

²⁶And Terah lived 70 years, then he fathered Abram, Nahor and Haran.

²⁷Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah fathered Abram, Nahor and Haran; and Haran fathered Lot.

²⁸Later Haran died in the presence of Terah his father, in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Kasdim. ²⁹Then Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah. ³⁰But Sarai was barren; she did not have a child.

³¹Then Terah took his son Abram and Lot, Haran's son, his son's son, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, the wife of his son Abram, and they went out together from Ur of the Kasdim to go to the land of Canaan. But they came to Haran, and they settled there. ³²And when Terah's days were 205 years, then Terah died in Haran.

Chapter 12

¹Then Yahweh said to Abram, "You yourself must go from your country and from your relatives and from your father's house, to the land that I will show you. ²And I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you, and I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. ³And I will bless those who bless you, but whoever curses you I will curse. And through you, all the families of the earth will be blessed."

⁴Then Abram went, just as Yahweh had told him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was the son of 75 years when he set out from Haran. ⁵And Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot the son of his brother, and all their possessions that they had accumulated and the people whom they had acquired in Haran, and they set out to go to the land of Canaan. And when they came to the land of Canaan, ⁶then Abram passed through the land as far as the place of Shechem, to the terebinth tree of Moreh. And the Canaanites were in the land at that time. ⁷Then Yahweh appeared to Abram and said, "I will give this land to your offspring." So he built an altar there to Yahweh, who had appeared to him.

⁸Then from there he went on to the mountains to the east of Bethel and pitched his tents, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. And there he built an altar to Yahweh, and he called on the name of Yahweh. ⁹Then Abram set out and continued to travel toward the Negev.

¹⁰Then there was a famine in the land, so Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there because the famine was severe in the land. ¹¹And it happened that as he was about to enter Egypt, then he said to Sarai his wife, "Behold now, I know that you are a woman beautiful in appearance. ¹²So it will happen when the Egyptians see you, then they will say, 'This is his wife!' and they will kill me but let you live. ¹³Please say that you are my sister, so that it will go well for me for your sake and my life will live because of you."

¹⁴Then it happened, when Abram came into Egypt, then the Egyptians saw the woman that she was very beautiful.

¹⁵And when the officials of Pharaoh saw her, then they praised her to Pharaoh, and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. ¹⁶Then he treated Abram well for her sake, so that he had sheep and cattle, and male donkeys, and male slaves and female slaves, and female donkeys and camels.

¹⁷But Yahweh struck Pharaoh and his house with great plagues on account of Sarai the wife of Abram. ¹⁸So Pharaoh called for Abram and said, "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife? ¹⁹Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her to me as a wife? Now then, behold your wife. Take her and go!" ²⁰Then Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him, and they sent him away and his wife and everything that belonged to him.

¹Then Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, he and his wife and everything that belonged to him, and Lot with him. ²And Abram was very wealthy in livestock, in silver and in gold. ³Then from the Negev he went on his journey as far as Bethel, to the place where his tents had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, ⁴to the place of the altar that he had made there at first, and there Abram called on the name of Yahweh.

⁵Now Lot, who was traveling with Abram, also had sheep and cattle and tents. ⁶But the land could not support them while they stayed together, because their possessions were great so that they were not able to stay together. ⁷Then there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. And the Canaanites and the Perizzites were living in the land at that time.

⁸So Abram said to Lot, "Please do not let there be strife between me and you, or between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, because we are men, brothers. ⁹Is not the whole land before you? Please separate from me. If you go to the left, then I will go right, or if you go to the right, then I will go left."

¹⁴Then Yahweh said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, "Lift your eyes now from the place where you are there, and look to the north, and to the south, and to the east and to the west, ¹⁵because all the land that you see, I will give to you and to your offspring forever. ¹⁶And I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, which if anyone were able to count the dust of the earth, your offspring could also be counted. ¹⁷Get up and walk through the land, through its length and through its width, because I am giving it to you." ¹⁸So Abram moved his tents and went and settled near the terebinth trees of Mamre that were near Hebron, and there he built an altar to Yahweh.

¹³Then someone who escaped came and reported to Abram the Hebrew. And he was living by the terebinth trees of Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol and the brother of Aner, and they were owners of a covenant with Abram. ¹⁴And when Abram heard that his relative had been taken captive, then he led out his 318 trained men who had been born in his house, and he pursued his enemies as far as Dan. ¹⁵Then he divided against them during the night, he and his servants, and struck them and pursued them to Hobah, which is north of Damascus. ¹⁶And he brought back all the possessions, and he also brought back his relative Lot and his possessions, and also the women and the other people.

¹⁷Then the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Shaveh Valley, which is the King's Valley, after he returned from striking Kedorlaomer and the kings who were with him. ¹⁸Then Melchizedek the king of Salem brought out bread and wine. And he was a priest to God Most High, ¹⁹and he blessed him and said, "May Abram be blessed by God Most High, the Possessor of heaven and earth! ²⁰And praised be God Most High, who delivered your enemies into your hand!" Then he gave to him a tenth of everything. ²¹Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give to me the people, but the possessions take for yourself." ²²But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have raised my hand to Yahweh, God Most High, the Possessor of heaven and earth, ²³that I will not take from a thread even to a sandal strap, and I will not take from anything that belongs to you, so that you will not say, 'I made Abram rich.' ²⁴I will take nothing, except what the young men have eaten and the share of the other men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol and Mamre. Let them take their share."

Chapter 15

¹After those things, the word of Yahweh came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not be afraid, Abram! I am a shield for you, your reward will be very great." ²But Abram said, "My Lord, Yahweh, what will you give to me, since I go childless, and the son of the inheritance of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" ³Then Abram said, "Behold, you have not given a child to me, so that behold, a servant of my house will inherit what is mine!" ⁴Then behold, the word of Yahweh came to him, saying, "That man will not be your heir, but rather a son who comes from your bowels, he will be your heir." ⁵Then he brought him outside and said, "Look now at the heavens and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So will your offspring be."

¹²Then it happened, the sun was setting and a deep sleep fell on Abram, and behold, terror, great darkness fell on him. ¹³Then he said to Abram, "Know for certain that your offspring will be strangers in a land * that is not theirs, and they will serve them, and * they will oppress them 400 years. ¹⁴But also, the nation that they serve I will judge, and after that they will come out with great possessions. ¹⁵And you, you will go to your fathers in peace; you will be buried at a good old age. ¹⁶Then in the fourth generation they will come back here, because the sin of the Amorites will not be complete until then."

¹⁷Then it happened, the sun went down and darkness came, and behold, there was a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch that passed between those pieces. ¹⁸On that day Yahweh cut a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your offspring I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates River, ¹⁹the land of the Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites, ²⁰and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaim, ²¹and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites and the Jebusites."

Chapter 16

¹Now Sarai, the wife of Abram, had not born children for him, but she had an Egyptian maidservant, and her name was Hagar. ²So Sarai said to Abram, "Behold, Yahweh has prevented me from bearing children. Please go to my maidservant. Perhaps I can be built up from her." And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. ³So Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar, her Egyptian maidservant, at the end of ten years that Abram had lived in the land of Canaan, and gave her to Abram her husband as a wife for him. ⁴Then he went to Hagar and she conceived. And she saw that she had conceived, and her mistress was despised in her eyes.

⁵Then Sarai said to Abram, "My wrong is on you! I myself put my maidservant into your arms, but she sees that she has conceived, and I am despised in her eyes! May Yahweh judge between me and you!" ⁶Then Abram said to Sarai, "Behold, your maidservant is in your hand. Do to her what is good in your eyes."

Then Sarai mistreated her, and she fled from her presence. ⁷Then an angel of Yahweh found her at a spring of water in the wilderness, at the spring beside the road of Shur. ⁸And he said, "Hagar, maidservant of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?" And she said, "I am fleeing from the face of my mistress Sarai." ⁹Then the angel of Yahweh said to her, "Return to your mistress and submit under her hands."

¹⁰Then the angel of Yahweh said to her, "I will greatly increase your offspring, so that they can not be counted because of their abundance."

¹¹Then the angel of Yahweh said to her, "Behold, you are pregnant, and you will bear a son, and you must call his name Ishmael, because Yahweh has listened to your misery. ¹²And he will be a wild donkey of a man, his hand against everyone, and everyone's hand against him, and he will live in the face of all of his brothers."

¹³Then she called the name of Yahweh who had spoken to her, "You are El Roi," because she said, "Have I really seen here the back of the One who sees me?" ¹⁴For that reason they call the well Beer Lahai Roi. Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

¹⁵Then Hagar bore a son for Abram, and Abram called the name of his son whom Hagar bore Ishmael. ¹⁶And Abram was a son of 86 years when Hagar bore Ishmael for Abram.

Chapter 17

³Then Abram fell on his face, and God spoke with him saying, ⁴"I, behold, my covenant with you is that you will be the father of a multitude of nations. ⁵So your name will not be called Abram any more, rather your name will be Abraham, because I have made you the father of a multitude of nations. ⁶So I will make you very, very fruitful, and I will make you into nations, and kings will come from you. ⁷And I will establish my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you throughout their generations as an eternal covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you. ⁸And I will give to you and to your offspring after you the land of your sojournings, all the land of Canaan, as an eternal possession, and I will be God to them."

⁹Then God said to Abraham, "And you, you must keep my covenant, you and your offspring after you throughout their generations. ¹⁰This is my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you which you must keep: Every male among you must be circumcised. ¹¹Indeed you must be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and you. ¹²So a son of eight days must be circumcised, every male among you throughout your generations, those born in your house and those bought with money from any sons of foreigners, who are not your offspring. ¹³They must surely be circumcised, whether those born in your house or those bought with your money. So my covenant will be in your flesh as an eternal covenant. ¹⁴And as for an uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, indeed that person must be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant."

¹⁵Then God said to Abraham, " Sarai your wife, do not call her name Sarai, rather her name will be Sarah. ¹⁶And I will bless her, and I will also give to you a son from her. Indeed I will bless her and she will become nations; kings of peoples will come from her."

¹⁷Then Abraham fell on his face, and he laughed and said in his heart, "Will a child be born to a son of 100 years? And will Sarah who is a daughter of 90 years bear a child?" ¹⁸Then Abraham said to God, " If only Ishmael might live before your face!" ¹⁹Then God said, "No, Sarah your wife will bear a son for you, and you must call his name Isaac. And I will establish my covenant with him as an eternal covenant for his offspring after him.

²⁰" And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I will bless him and I will make him fruitful and will multiply him very greatly. He will father twelve rulers, and I will make him into a great nation. ²¹However, my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear for you by this time in the next year." ²²Then he finished speaking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

²³Then Abraham took Ishmael his son and all those born of his house and all those bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins on that very day, just as God had told him. ²⁴And Abraham was a son of 99 years when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, ²⁵and Ishmael his son was a son of thirteen years when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁶On that very day Abraham was circumcised, and Ishmael his son. ²⁷And all the males of his house, those born of his house and those bought with money from sons of foreigners, were circumcised with him.

¹Then Yahweh appeared to him by the terebinth trees of Mamre, and he was sitting at the entrance of the tent in the heat of the day. ²And he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing nearby him. And when he saw them, then he ran from the entrance of the tent to meet them. Then he bowed to the ground, ³and he said, "My lords, if I have found favor in your eyes, please do not pass by your servant. ⁴Please let a little water be brought, then you can wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. ⁵And I will bring a morsel of bread, then you can refresh your hearts before you go away, since you have come to your servant." And they said, " Very well, do as you have said."

⁷Then Abraham ran to the herd and selected a tender and choice calf. Then he gave it to a servant and he hurried to prepare it. ⁸Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and he set it before them. Then he stood by them under the tree and they ate.

⁹Then they said to him, " Where is Sarah your wife?" And he said, "Behold, in the tent." ¹⁰Then he said, " I will surely return to you at the time of life, and behold your wife Sarah will have a son." Now Sarah was listening at the entrance of the tent, and it was behind him. ¹¹And Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in days; the way of women had ceased to be with Sarah. ¹²So Sarah laughed within herself and said, "After I am worn out, will I have pleasure? And my lord is old!" ¹³But Yahweh said to Abraham, " Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Will I really bear a child when I am old?' ¹⁴Is anything too hard for Yahweh? At the appointed time I will return to you, at the time of life, and Sarah will have a son." ¹⁵But Sarah denied it by saying, "I did not laugh," because she was afraid. But he said, " No, but you did laugh. "

¹⁶Then the men got up from there and looked down toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to send them off. ¹⁷And Yahweh said, " Should I hide from Abraham what I am doing? ¹⁸And Abraham will surely become a great and mighty nation, and in him all the nations of the earth will be blessed. ¹⁹For I have known him so that he will command his children and his house after him, and they will keep the way of Yahweh by doing righteousness and justice, so that Yahweh will bring about for Abraham what he said to him."

²⁰Then Yahweh said, "Because the outcry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great and because their sin is very grievous, ²¹I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to its outcry that has come to me. And if not, I will know."

²²Then the men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, and Abraham was still standing before Yahweh. ²³Then Abraham approached him and said, "Will you really sweep away the righteous with the wicked? ²⁴Suppose there are 50 righteous in the city? Will you really sweep away and not spare the place for the sake of the 50 righteous who are in it? ²⁵Far be it from you to do something like that, killing the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous are like the wicked! Far be it from you! Will not the One who judges all the earth do justice?" ²⁶Then Yahweh said, "If I find in Sodom 50 righteous in the city, then I will spare the whole place for their sake."

²⁷Then Abraham spoke up and said, "Behold please, I have taken it upon myself to speak to my Lord, although I am dust and ashes. ²⁸Suppose the 50 righteous lack five? Will you destroy the whole city because of five?" And he said, "I will not destroy it, if I find 45 there."

²⁹Then he continued again to speak to him and said, "Suppose 40 are found there?" And he said, "I will not do it for the sake of the 40."

³⁰Then he said, "Please do not let my Lord be angry, and let me speak: Suppose 30 are found there?" And he said, "I will not do it, if I find 30 there."

³¹Then he said, "Behold please, I have taken it upon myself to speak to my Lord: Suppose 20 are found there?" And he said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of the 20."

³²Then he said, "Please do not let my Lord be angry, and let me speak just once more: Suppose ten are found there?" And he said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of the ten." ³³Then Yahweh left as soon as he finished speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

Chapter 19

¹Then the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. And Lot saw them, and he got up to meet them and bowed his face to the ground. ²Then he said, "Behold please, my lords. Please turn aside to the house of your servant and spend the night, and wash your feet, then you can get up early and go on your way." But they said, "No, rather we will spend the night in the street." ³But he urged them strongly, so that they turned aside with him and entered into his house. Then he prepared a feast for them, and he baked unleavened bread, and they ate. ⁴Before they lay down, then the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, from the young and to the old, all the people from the edges. ⁵Then they called to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we can know them!" ⁶Then Lot went out to them at the entrance and shut the door behind him, ⁷and he said, "Please, my brothers, do not do evil! ⁸Behold please, I have two daughters who have not known a man. Please let me bring them out to you, and you do to them as is good in your eyes. But do not do anything to these men, because for that reason they have come under the shadow of my rafters." ⁹But they said, "Get back!" Then they said, "This one came to sojourn, and now he is judging us! We will treat you worse than them!" Then they pressed hard against the man Lot and came near to break down the door. ¹⁰But the men reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house to them and shut the door. ¹¹Then they struck the men who were at the entrance of the house with blindness, from the small and to the great, so that they became weary trying to find the door.

¹²Then the men said to Lot, "Who else is here with you? Sons-in-law and your sons and your daughters and anyone who is with you in the city, take them out from this place, ¹³because we are destroying this place. For their outcry before Yahweh is great, so Yahweh has sent us to destroy it." ¹⁴Then Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law who were to take his daughters, and he said, "Get up, get out of this place, because Yahweh is destroying the city!" But it seemed like he was joking in the eyes of his sons-in-law. ¹⁵Then when the dawn came, the angels urged Lot by saying, "Get up, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, so that you are not swept away in the punishment of the city." ¹⁶But he lingered, so the men grabbed his hand and the hand of his wife and the hands of his two daughters, because of Yahweh's mercy for him, and brought him out and set him outside the city. ¹⁷And it happened when they had brought them out to the outside, then he said, "Flee for your life! Do not look behind you, and do not stop anywhere in the plain! Escape to the mountains, so that you are not swept away!" ¹⁸Then Lot said to them, "Please, no, my lords! ¹⁹Behold please, your servant has found favor in your eyes, and you have magnified your mercy that you have shown to me by saving my life. But I am not able to escape to the mountains because the disaster will overtake me and I will die. ²⁰Behold please, that town there is near to flee to, and it is a little one. Please let me escape there. Isn't it a little one? Then my life will live." ²¹Then he said to him, "Behold, I have also lifted up your face concerning this thing, so I will not overthrow the town that you are talking about. ²²Hurry up, escape there, because I am not able to do a thing until you go there." For that reason he called the name of the town Zoar.

²³The sun rose over the land and Lot came to Zoar. ²⁴Then Yahweh rained down on Sodom and Gomorrah brimstone and fire from Yahweh out of the heavens, ²⁵and he overthrew those cities and the entire plain, including all the inhabitants of the cities and the vegetation of the ground. ²⁶But his wife from behind him looked back and she became a pillar of salt.

²⁷Abraham got up early in the morning and went to the place where he had stood before Yahweh, ²⁸and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the surface of the land of the plain, and he looked and behold, smoke was rising from the land like smoke from a furnace.

²⁹So it was when God destroyed the cities of the plain that God remembered Abraham, and he sent Lot out of the middle of the overthrow when he overthrew the cities which Lot had lived in.

³⁰Then Lot went up from Zoar and settled in the mountains, and his two daughters were with him, because he was afraid to settle in Zoar. So he lived in a cave, he and his two daughters. ³¹Then the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old and there is not a man on the earth to come to us as is the way of all the earth. ³²Come on, let us get our father to drink wine, then let us lie with him, so that we will give life to offspring through our father." ³³So they got their father to drink wine on that night, and the firstborn went and lay with her father, but he did not know when she lay down or when she got up. ³⁴Then it happened on the next day that the firstborn said to the younger, "Behold, last night I lay with my father. Let us get him to drink wine again tonight, then you go lie with him, so that we will give life to offspring through our father." ³⁵So on that night also they got their father to drink wine. Then the younger went and lay with him, but he did not know when she lay down or when she got up. ³⁶So both of the daughters of Lot became pregnant from their father. ³⁷Then the firstborn bore a son, and she called his name Moab. He is the father of the Moabites to this day. ³⁸Then the younger, she also bore a son, and she called his name Ben-Ammi. He is the father of the sons of Ammon to this day.

¹Then Abraham traveled from there to the land of the Negev, and he settled between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar. ²And Abraham said about Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." So Abimelech the king of Gerar sent for Sarah and took her. ³But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night and said to him, "Behold, you are dead because of the woman whom you have taken, because she is married to a husband!" ⁴Now Abimelech had not gone near to her, so he said, "My Lord, will you kill a nation even though it is righteous? ⁵Did not he himself say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she herself also said, 'He is my brother'. I did this in the integrity of my heart and in the innocence of my hands!" ⁶Then God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you did this, and indeed I kept you from sinning against me. For that reason I did not allow you to touch her. ⁷So now you must return the wife of the man, because he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you will live. But if you do not return her, know that you will surely die, you and all who belong to you!"

⁸So Abimelech got up early in the morning and called for all of his servants, and he told all those things in their ears, and the men were very afraid. ⁹Then Abimelech called for Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you so that you brought a great sin on me and on my kingdom? You have done deeds to me that should not be done!" ¹⁰Then Abimelech said to Abraham, "What were you looking for when you did this thing?" ¹¹And Abraham answered, "Because I said, 'Surely there is no fear of God in this place, so they will kill me because of my wife.' ¹²And also she truly is my sister, the daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife. ¹³And it happened when God caused me to wander from the house of my father, then I said to her, 'This is your kindness that you can do for me: At every place where we go, say about me, "He is my brother."' " ¹⁴Then Abimelech brought flocks and herds and men slaves and women slaves and gave them to Abraham, and he returned Sarah his wife to him. ¹⁵Then Abimelech said, "Behold, my land is before your face. Settle wherever is good in your eyes." ¹⁶And to Sarah he said, "Behold, I am giving 1,000 shekels of silver to your brother. Behold, that is for you a covering of the eyes before all who are with you, so that you are vindicated for everything." ¹⁷Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his slave women, so that they bore children, ¹⁸because Yahweh had completely closed up every womb in the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, the wife of Abraham.

¹Then Yahweh visited Sarah just as he had said, and Yahweh did for Sarah just as he had said, ²so that Sarah conceived and bore a son for Abraham in his old age, at the appointed time which God had told him. ³And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore for him, Isaac. ⁴And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac, a son of eight days, just as God had commanded him.

⁵And Abraham was a son of 100 years when Isaac his son was born to him. ⁶And Sarah said, "God has brought laughter to me! Everyone who hears will laugh with me!" ⁷And she said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have born a son in his old age!"

⁸Then the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day Isaac was weaned. ⁹And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had born for Abraham, was mocking, ¹⁰so she said to Abraham, "Drive away that slave woman and her son, because the son of that slave woman will not inherit with my son, with Isaac!" ¹¹And the matter was very distressing in the eyes of Abraham on account of his son. ¹²But God said to Abraham, "Do not be distressed in your eyes because of the boy and because of your slave woman. All that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice, because in Isaac offspring will be called yours. ¹³And I will also make the son of the slave woman into a nation, because he is your offspring."

¹⁷And God heard the voice of the boy, so the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, "What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid, because God has listened to the voice of the boy where he is there. ¹⁸Get up, lift the boy and hold on to him with your hand, because I will make him into a great nation." ¹⁹Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. So she went and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink.

²⁰And God was with the boy. And he grew up, and he lived in the wilderness and he became a bow shooter. ²¹And while he was living in the wilderness of Paran, then his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

²²And it happened at that time that Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, said to Abraham saying, "God is with you in all that you do. ²³So now swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me or with my children or with my descendants. According to the kindness that I have done to you, do to me and to the land which you are sojourning in." ²⁴And Abraham said, "I swear."

²⁵Then Abraham complained to Abimelech on account of the well of water that the servants of Abimelech had seized. ²⁶Then Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this thing. And also you did not tell me, and also I have not heard about it until today."

²⁷Then Abraham took sheep and cattle, and he gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them cut a covenant.

²⁸Then Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs from the flock by themselves. ²⁹So Abimelech said to Abraham, "What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs that you have set apart by themselves?" ³⁰And he said, "Because you must accept the seven ewe lambs from my hand, so that it can be a witness for me that I dug this well." ³¹For that reason he called that place Beersheba, because there the two of them swore an oath.

³²So they cut the covenant at Beersheba. Then Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, got up and returned to the land of the Philistines. ³³Then he planted a tamarisk tree at Beersheba, and there he called on the name of Yahweh, the Eternal God. ³⁴Then Abraham sojourned in the land of the Philistines many days.

¹Then it happened after those things that God tested Abraham. And he said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Behold me." ²Then he said, "Please take your son, your only son whom you love, Isaac, and go yourself to the land of Moriah and sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I will tell to you."

³So Abraham got up early in the morning and saddled his donkey. And he took two of his young men with him and Isaac his son, and he cut wood for the burnt offering. Then he got up and left for the place that God had told to him. ⁴On the third day Abraham lifted his eyes and he saw the place from a distance. ⁵Then Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here by yourselves with the donkey, and I and the boy will go over there and bow down, then we will come back to you."

⁶Then Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and put it on Isaac his son, and he took in his hands the fire and the knife. Then the two of them went on together, ⁷and Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father?" And he said, "Behold me, my son." Then he said, "Behold the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?" ⁸And Abraham said, "God will see for himself the lamb for the burnt offering, my son." Then the two of them went on together.

⁹Then they came to the place that God had told to him, and Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood. Then he bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. ¹⁰Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. ¹¹But an angel of Yahweh called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham! Abraham!" And he said, "Behold me." ¹²Then he said, "Do not reach out your hand against the boy! And do not do anything to him, because now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me."

¹³Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and behold a ram was behind him, caught in the thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son. ¹⁴So Abraham called the name of that place "Yahweh-Yireh," as it is said to this day, "On the mountain of Yahweh it will be seen."

¹⁵Then the angel of Yahweh called to Abraham a second time from heaven ¹⁶and said, "I swear by myself, a declaration of Yahweh, that it is because you have done this thing and have not withheld your son, your only son, ¹⁷that I will greatly bless you, and I will greatly multiply your offspring as the stars of the heavens and as the sand that is on the shore of the sea, and your offspring will possess the gates of their enemies, ¹⁸and through your Offspring all the nations of the earth will be blessed, because you listened to my voice."

¹⁹Then Abraham returned to his young men, and they got up and went together to Beersheba. And Abraham stayed at Beersheba.

²⁰Then it happened after those things that it was told to Abraham saying, "Behold, Milcah, she too, has born sons for Nahor your brother: ²¹Uz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, ²²and Kesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel." ²³And Bethuel fathered Rebekah. Those are the eight sons Milcah bore for Nahor, the brother of Abraham. ²⁴And his concubine, and her name was Reumah, and she also bore Tebah, and Gaham, and Tahash and Maacah.

Chapter 23

⁷Then Abraham got up and bowed before the people of the land, before the sons of Heth, ⁸and he said to them, saying, "If it is your will to bury my dead from before me, listen to me and intercede for me with Ephron, the son of Zohar, ⁹so that he will give to me the cave of Machpelah, which belongs to him, which is at the end of his field. For full price let him give it to me among you as property for a burial place." ¹⁰Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth, so Ephron the Hittite responded to Abraham in the ears of the sons of Heth, for everyone who had come to the gate of his city, by saying, ¹¹" No, my lord. Listen to me: I give to you the field, and I give to you the cave that is in it. I give it to you before the eyes of the sons of my people. Bury your dead."

¹²Then Abraham bowed before the people of the land, ¹³and he spoke to Ephron in the ears of the people of the land, saying, "Rather if you would, please listen to me. I will give the price of the field. Take it from me, then I will bury my dead there." ¹⁴Then Ephron answered Abraham by saying to him, ¹⁵" My lord, listen to me. Land worth 400 shekels of silver-between me and you, what is that? So bury your dead." ¹⁶So Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed out to Ephron the price that he had mentioned in the ears of the sons of Heth, 400 shekels of silver, the currency among the merchants.

¹⁷So the field of Ephron that was in Machpelah which was before Mamre, the field and the cave that was in it, and every tree that was in the field that was within all of its surrounding borders, was deeded ¹⁸to Abraham as his possession before the eyes of the sons of Heth, before everyone who had come to the gate of his city. ¹⁹Then after that, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre, that is, Hebron, in the land of Canaan. ²⁰So the field and the cave that was in it were deeded to Abraham as property for a burial place from the sons of Heth.

¹Now Abraham was old, advanced in days, and Yahweh had blessed Abraham in everything. ²Then Abraham said to the oldest servant of his house who was in charge of everything that belonged to him, "Please put your hand under my thigh, ³and I will have you swear by Yahweh, the God of the heavens and the God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites whom I am living among, ⁴but you will go to my country and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son, for Isaac."

⁵Then the servant said to him, "Suppose the woman is not willing to come with me to this land? Should I take your son back to the country that you came from?" ⁶Then Abraham said to him, "Be sure that you do not take my son back there. ⁷Yahweh, the God of the heavens, who took me from the house of my father and from the land of my relatives and who spoke to me and who swore to me saying, 'To your offspring I will give this land,' he will send his angel before you, and you will take a wife for my son from there. ⁸But if the woman is not willing to come with you, then you are clear from this oath of mine. Only do not take my son back there!"

⁹Then the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.

¹⁰Then the servant took ten camels from the camels of his master and left, and all kinds of good things from his master were in his hand, and he got up and went to Aram Naharaim, to the city of Nahor. ¹¹Then he made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at evening time, at the time the women who draw water come out.

¹²Then he said, "Yahweh, God of my master Abraham, please cause it to happen before me today that you show kindness toward my master Abraham. ¹³Behold, I am standing by this spring of water, and the daughters of the people of the city are coming out to draw water. ¹⁴And let it be that the young woman whom I say to her, 'Please let down your jar so that I may drink,' and she says, 'Drink and I will also water your camels,' let her be the one you have appointed for your servant, for Isaac. And by her I will know that you have shown kindness toward my master."

¹⁵Then it happened before he had finished speaking, then behold Rebekah was coming out, who was born to Bethuel, the son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, the brother of Abraham. And her water jar was on her shoulder.

¹⁷Then the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me drink a little water from your jar." ¹⁸And she said, "Drink, my lord." Then she hurried and lowered her jar to her hands and gave him a drink. ¹⁹And after she finished giving him a drink, then she said, "I will also draw water for your camels until they have finished drinking." ²⁰Then she hurried and emptied her jar into the trough, and ran back to the well to draw water, and she drew water for all his camels. ²¹And the man watched her silently to know whether Yahweh had made his journey succeed or not.

³²So the man went to the house. Then he unloaded the camels and gave straw and fodder to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. ³³Then food was set before him to eat, but he said, "I will not eat until I have spoken my words." So he said, "Speak."

and donkeys. ³⁶And Sarah, the wife of my master, bore a son for my master after her old age, and he has given to him everything that belongs to him. ³⁷And my master made me swear by saying, 'You must not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites whose land I am living in, ³⁸but rather you must go to the house of my father, and to my clan, and take a wife for my son.' ³⁹Then I said to my master, 'Suppose the woman will not come with me?' ⁴⁰And he said to me, 'Yahweh, whom I walk before, will send his angel with you and make your journey succeed, so that you will take a wife for my son from my clan, and from the house of my father. ⁴¹Then you will be clear from my oath when you go to my clan. And if they will not give her to you, then you will be clear from my oath.'

⁴²" Then today I came to the spring, and I said, 'Yahweh, God of my master Abraham, if it is your will, please make my journey succeed that I have come on. ⁴³Behold, I am standing by this spring of water. And let it be that the young woman who comes out to draw water and I say to her, "Please give me a little water to drink from your jar," ⁴⁴and she says to me, " Both you drink and I will also draw water for your camels," let her be the wife whom Yahweh has chosen for the son of my master.'

⁴⁵"Before I had finished speaking in my heart, then behold Rebekah was coming out and her jar was on her shoulder, and she went down to the spring and drew water. Then I said to her, 'Please give me a drink.' ⁴⁶And she hurried and lowered her jar from her and said, 'Drink and I will also water your camels.' So I drank, and she also watered the camels. ⁴⁷Then I asked her and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, a son of Nahor whom Milcah bore for him.' Then I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her arms, ⁴⁸and I bowed down and prostrated myself before Yahweh and I praised Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, who led me on the right way to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son. ⁴⁹And now if it is your will to show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me, and if not, tell me, so that I will turn to the right or to the left."

⁵⁰Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, " The thing has come from Yahweh; we are not able to tell you bad or good. ⁵¹Behold, Rebekah is before you. Take her and go, and let her be the wife of the son of your master, as Yahweh has spoken." ⁵²Then it happened, when the servant of Abraham heard their words, then he bowed down to the ground before Yahweh. ⁵³Then the servant brought out jewelry of silver and jewelry of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah, and he gave valuable things to her brother and to her mother.

⁵⁴Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and lodged. Then in the morning they got up, and he said, "Send me to my master." ⁵⁵But her brother and her mother said, " Let the young woman stay with us a few days, at least ten. After that she will go." ⁵⁶But he said to them, "Do not detain me, since Yahweh has made my journey succeed. Send me off so that I will go to my master." ⁵⁷Then they said, " Let's call for the young woman and ask her mouth."

⁵⁸So they called for Rebekah and said to her, "Will you go with this man?" And she said, " I will go." ⁵⁹Then they sent off Rebekah their sister and her nurse and the servant of Abraham and his men. ⁶⁰And they blessed Rebekah and said to her,

"Our sister, may you become thousands of myriads, and may your offspring possess the gates of those who hate them!" ⁶¹Then Rebekah got up and her maids, and they mounted the camels and went with the man. So the servant took Rebekah and left.

⁶²Meanwhile Isaac came from going to Beer Lahai Roi, and he was living in the land of the Negev. ⁶³And Isaac went to meditate in the field as it was turning toward evening, and he lifted his eyes and saw that behold, camels were coming. ⁶⁴And Rebekah lifted her eyes and saw Isaac. Then she dismounted from the camel, ⁶⁵and she said to the servant, " Who is that man in the field who is coming to meet us?" And the servant said, "He is my master." So she took the veil and covered herself.

⁶⁶Then the servant reported to Isaac all the things that he had done. ⁶⁷Then Isaac brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother, and he took Rebekah, and she became a wife to him. And Isaac loved her and he was comforted after his mother.

¹Then Abraham added and took a wife, and her name was Keturah. ²And she bore for him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. ³And Jokshan fathered Sheba and Dedan. And the descendants of Dedan were the Asshurim, and the Letushim, and the Leummim. ⁴And the sons of Midian were Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abida, and Eldaah. All of those were the descendants of Keturah.

⁵And Abraham gave everything that belonged to him to Isaac. ⁶And to the sons of the concubines who belonged to Abraham, Abraham gave gifts, and while he was still alive he sent them eastward to the land of Kedem, away from Isaac his son.

¹²Now these are the generations of Ishmael the son of Abraham, whom Hagar the Egyptian, the maidservant of Sarah, had born for Abraham. ¹³And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names according to their births: the firstborn of Ishmael was Nebaioth, then Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, ¹⁴and Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa, ¹⁵Hadad, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedermah. ¹⁶Those were the sons of Ishmael, and those are their names by their settlements and by their camps, twelve rulers according to their tribes. ¹⁷And these are the years of the life of Ishmael: 137 years. Then he exhaled and died, and was gathered to his people. ¹⁸And they settled from Havilah to Shur that is near Egypt as you go toward Asshur. He fell in the face of all his brothers.

¹⁹And these are the generations of Isaac the son of Abraham: Abraham fathered Isaac, ²⁰then Isaac was a son of 40 years when he took Rebekah for himself as a wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan Aram, the sister of Laban the Aramean. ²¹And Isaac entreated Yahweh on behalf of his wife because she was barren. So Yahweh was entreated by him, and Rebekah his wife conceived. ²²And the children struggled against each other inside her, so she said, "Why is this so? Why am I like this?" And she went to inquire of Yahweh. ²³And Yahweh said to her,

"Two nations are inside your womb, and two peoples will be divided from inside your womb.

And one people will be stronger than the other people, and the older will serve the younger."

²⁴Then her days were fulfilled to deliver, and behold, twins were inside her womb. ²⁵And the first came out red, all of him was like a garment of hair, so they called his name Esau. ²⁶Then after that, his brother came out and his hand was grabbing on to the heel of Esau, so he called his name Jacob. And Isaac was a son of 60 years when she bore them.

²⁷Then the boys grew up, and Esau became a man who knew hunting, a man of the field, and Jacob was a quiet man who stayed among the tents. ²⁸And Isaac loved Esau, because he liked game meat in his mouth, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

²⁹Now Jacob was cooking stew, and Esau came in from the field and he was exhausted. ³⁰Then Esau said to Jacob, "Please let me devour some of that very red stuff because I am exhausted!" For that reason they called his name Edom. ³¹But Jacob said, "On this day sell your birthright to me." ³²And Esau said, "Behold, I am about to die! So for what use is that to me, a birthright?" ³³But Jacob said, "Swear to me on this day!" So he swore to him and sold his birthright to Jacob. ³⁴Then Jacob gave to Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank, and got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.

Chapter 26

¹Then there was a famine in the land, besides the earlier famine that was in the days of Abraham. So Isaac went to Abimelech the king of the Philistines in Gerar. ²Then Yahweh appeared to him and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land that I tell you. ³Sojourn in this land and I will be with you and I will bless you. For I will give to you and to your offspring all these lands, and I will confirm the oath that I swore to Abraham your father: ⁴that I will multiply your offspring as the stars of the heavens, and I will give to your offspring all these lands, and through your Offspring all the nations of the earth will be blessed, ⁵because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my requirements, my commands, my decrees and my laws."

⁶So Isaac stayed in Gerar. ⁷Then the men of the place asked about his wife, and he said, " She is my sister," because he was afraid to say, "She is my wife." He thought, " The men of the place might kill me on account of Rebekah because she is beautiful in appearance." ⁸Then it happened when the days had been long for him there, then Abimelech the king of the Philistines looked down from a window and saw that behold, Isaac was laughing with Rebekah his wife. ⁹So Abimelech called for Isaac and said, "Behold she is really your wife! So how could you say, 'She is my sister?'" And Isaac said to him, " Because I said, 'I might die because of her.' " ¹⁰Then Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us!" ¹¹Then Abimelech ordered all the people by saying, " Whoever touches this man or his wife will surely be killed!"

¹²Then Isaac sowed seeds in that land, and in that year he acquired a hundredfold, and Yahweh blessed him. ¹³And the man became great, and he continued to become even greater until he was exceedingly great. ¹⁴And he had possession of flocks and possession of herds and many servants. So the Philistines envied him, ¹⁵and the Philistines stopped up all the wells that the servants of his father had dug in the days of Abraham his father and filled them with dirt.

²³Then from there he went up to Beersheba. ²⁴And Yahweh appeared to him during that night and said, " I am the God of Abraham your father. Do not be afraid, because I am with you. And I will bless you and I will multiply your offspring for the sake of Abraham my servant." ²⁵Then he built an altar there and he called on the name of Yahweh. And he pitched his tents there, and the servants of Isaac dug a well there.

²⁶Then Abimelech came to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his friend and Phicol the commander of his army. ²⁷And Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me and you sent me away from you?" ²⁸And they said, " We have clearly seen that Yahweh has been with you, so we said, 'There should be an oath between us' — between us and you. So let us cut a covenant with you, ²⁹that you will not do evil against us, just as we did not touch you, and just as we did only good to you and sent you away in peace. Now you are blessed by Yahweh."

³⁰Then he made a feast for them, and they ate and drank. ³¹Then they got up early in the morning and swore to each other. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left from him in peace.

³²Then it happened on that day, the servants of Isaac came and told him about the matter of the well that they had been digging and said to him, "We have found water!" ³³So he called it Shebah. For that reason the name of the city is Beersheba to this day.

³⁴And Esau was a son of 40 years, and he took a wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite. ³⁵And they were a grief of mind to Isaac and Rebekah.

¹Then it happened, when Isaac was old and his eyes were too dim to see, then he called Esau his older son and said to him, "My son." And he said to him, "Behold me." ²Then he said, "Behold please, I am old; I do not know the day of my death. ³So now, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out in the field and hunt game for me. ⁴Then prepare tasty food for me such as I love, and bring it to me so I can eat it, so that my soul can bless you before I die."

¹¹Then Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, but I am a smooth man. ¹²Suppose my father touches me? Then I will be in his eyes as a deceiver, and I will bring a curse on me and not a blessing." ¹³But his mother said to him, "Let your curse be on me, my son. Just listen to my voice and go get them for me." ¹⁴So he went and got them and brought them to his mother. Then his mother prepared tasty food such as his father loved. ¹⁵Then Rebekah took the best clothes of Esau her older son that were with her in the house and put them on Jacob her younger son. ¹⁶And she put the skins of the kid goats over his hands and over the smooth part of his neck.

¹⁷Then she gave the tasty food and the bread that she had made into her son Jacob's hands, ¹⁸and he went to his father and said, "My father." And he said, "Behold me. Who are you, my son?" ¹⁹Then Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau, your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please get up, sit and eat some of my game, so that your soul will bless me." ²⁰Then Isaac said to his son, "How is this you were quick to find it, my son?" And he said, "Because Yahweh your God caused it to happen before me."

²¹Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come close, so that I can touch you, my son, and know whether you are really my son Esau or not." ²²So Jacob went close to Isaac his father, and he touched him and said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau." ²³So he did not recognize him because his hands were hairy like the hands of Esau his brother, and he was about to bless him. ²⁴But he said, "Are you really my son Esau?" And he said, "I am." ²⁵Then he said, "Bring the food to me, and I will eat some of my son's game, so that my soul will bless you." Then he brought it to him and he ate, and he brought wine to him and he drank.

²⁶Then Isaac his father said to him, "Please come close and kiss me, my son." ²⁷So he went close and kissed him. And he smelled the smell of his clothes, so he blessed him and said,

"See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that Yahweh has blessed!

²⁸And may God give to you from the dew of the heavens and from the fatness of the earth, and an abundance of grain and wine.

²⁹May peoples serve you, and may nations bow down to you.

Be master over your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you.

May those who curse you be cursed, and may those who bless you be blessed."

³⁰Then it happened just as Isaac finished blessing Jacob, and it happened scarcely had Jacob just left from the presence of Isaac his father when Esau his brother came in from his hunt. ³¹Then he too prepared tasty food, and he brought it to his father and said to his father, "Let my father get up and eat from his son's game, so that your soul can bless me." ³²But Isaac his father said to him, "Who are you?" And he said, "I am your son, your firstborn Esau." ³³Then Isaac trembled a very great tremble and he said, "Then who was it that hunted game and brought it to me? And I ate from it all just before you came, and I blessed him. Indeed he will be blessed." ³⁴When Esau heard the words of his father, then he cried out a great and exceedingly bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me, me too, my father!" ³⁵And he said, "Your brother came in deceit and took your blessing." ³⁶Then he said, "Is it because his name is called Jacob that he has defrauded me these two times? He took my birthright, and behold now he has taken my blessing!"

Then he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?" ³⁷But Isaac responded and said to Esau, "Behold, I have made him master over you, and I have given all his brothers to him as servants. And I have sustained him with grain and wine. So then, what can I do for you, my son?" ³⁸But Esau said to his father, "Is there one blessing that you have, my father? Bless me, me too, my father!" Then Esau lifted his voice and sobbed. ³⁹Then Isaac his father responded and said to him,

"Behold, your dwelling will be away from the fatness of the earth and away from the dew of heaven from above.

⁴⁰And you will live by your sword, and you will serve your brother.

But when you become restless, then you will break his yoke off of your neck."

⁴¹Then Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing that his father had blessed him with, and Esau said in his heart, "The days of the mourning of my father are near, then I will kill Jacob my brother." ⁴²But the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah, so she sent and called for Jacob her younger son and said to him, "Behold, Esau your brother is consoling himself about you, planning to kill you. ⁴³So now, my son, listen to my voice and get up, flee for yourself to Laban my brother in Haran! ⁴⁴And stay with him for a few days until the fury of your brother turns away, ⁴⁵until the anger of your brother turns away from you and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send and get you from there. Why should I also lose both of you in one day?"

⁴⁶Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am disgusted with my life because of the daughters of Heth! If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth like these, from daughters of the land, what would life be to me?"

Chapter 28

¹Then Isaac called for Jacob and blessed him, and commanded him and said to him, "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan. ²Get up, go to Paddan Aram, to the home of Bethuel the father of your mother, and take a wife for yourself from there, from the daughters of Laban the brother of your mother. ³And may God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you so that you become as a multitude of peoples. ⁴And may he give the blessing of Abraham to you, to you and to your offspring with you, so that you possess the land of your sojournings, which God gave to Abraham." ⁵Then Isaac sent Jacob, and he went to Paddan Aram, to Laban, the son of Bethuel the Aramean and the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

⁶Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Paddan Aram to take a wife for himself from there, and that when he blessed him, then he commanded him, saying, "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan!" ⁷and that Jacob listened to his father and to his mother and went to Paddan Aram. ⁸Then Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan were displeasing in the eyes of Isaac his father. ⁹So Esau went to Ishmael and he took as a wife Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth, in addition to his wives who belonged to him.

¹⁸Then in the morning Jacob got up early, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and stood it up as a pillar, and he poured oil on its top. ¹⁹And he called the name of that place Bethel, even though Luz had been the name of the town at first.

²⁰Then Jacob vowed a vow by saying, "If God will be with me and watch over me on this road that I am walking on and he gives to me bread to eat and clothes to wear, ²¹and I return in peace to the home of my father, then Yahweh will be God to me, ²²and this stone that I have stood up as a pillar will be the house of God, and all that you give to me I will tithe a tenth to you."

¹Then Jacob lifted his feet and went to the land of the sons of the east. ²And he looked and behold, a well was in the field, and behold, three flocks of sheep were lying there near it, because from that well the flocks were watered, and the stone over the mouth of the well was large. ³And all the flocks would be gathered there, then they would roll the stone from over the mouth of the well and water the sheep. Then they would return the stone to its place over the mouth of the well.

⁴Then Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where are you from?" And they said, "We are from Haran." ⁵Then he said to them, "Do you know Laban the grandson of Nahor?" And they said, "We know him." ⁶Then he said to them, "Are things well for him?" And they said, "Things are well. And behold, Rachel his daughter is coming with the sheep." ⁷Then he said, "Behold, the day is still large. It is not time for the livestock to be gathered. Water the sheep, and go pasture them." ⁸But they said, "We can't until all the flocks are gathered and they roll the stone from over the mouth of the well. Then we will water the sheep."

⁹He was still talking with them, then Rachel came with the sheep that belonged to her father, because she was tending them. ¹⁰Then it happened, when Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, then Jacob went over and rolled the stone from over the mouth of the well, and watered the sheep of Laban his mother's brother. ¹¹Then Jacob kissed Rachel and lifted his voice and cried.

¹²Then Jacob told Rachel that he was a relative of her father and that he was a son of Rebekah. Then she ran and told her father.

¹³And it happened, when Laban heard the news about Jacob the son of his sister, then he ran to meet him. Then he hugged him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Then he told Laban all these things, ¹⁴and Laban said to him, "You are indeed my bone and my flesh!"

Then he stayed with him a month of days. ¹⁵Then Laban said to Jacob, " Because you are my relative, should you then serve me for nothing? Tell me, what are your wages?" ¹⁶Now Laban had two daughters. The name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. ¹⁷And the eyes of Leah were delicate, but Rachel was lovely of form and beautiful of appearance. ¹⁸And Jacob loved Rachel, so he said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter." ¹⁹And Laban said, " It is better for me to give her to you than for me to give her to another man. Stay with me." ²⁰So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, but in his eyes they were like a few days because of his love for her.

²¹Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, because my days are completed, then I will go to her." ²²Then Laban gathered all the people of the place and made a feast. ²³But it happened in the evening that he took Leah his daughter and brought her to him, and he went to her. ²⁴And Laban gave to her Zilpah his maidservant, to Leah his daughter, to be a maidservant.

²⁵Then it happened in the morning that behold she was Leah! So he said to Laban, " What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served with you? So for what reason have you deceived me?" ²⁶But Laban said, "It is not done so in our place to give the younger before the firstborn. ²⁷Fulfill the seven days of this daughter, then we will also give you this one for service that you will serve with me for another seven years."

²⁸So Jacob did so, and he fulfilled that daughter's week. Then he gave to him Rachel his daughter as a wife for him. ²⁹And Laban gave Bilhah his maidservant to Rachel his daughter as a maidservant for her. ³⁰Then he also went to Rachel, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. And he served him for another seven years.

³¹Now Yahweh saw that Leah was hated, so he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren. ³²Then Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben, because she said, " Because Yahweh has looked on my misery, surely now my husband will love me."

³³Then she conceived again and bore a son, and she said, "Because Yahweh heard that I am hated, then he gave to me this son also." So she called his name Simeon.

³⁴Then she conceived again and bore a son, and she said, " This time now my husband will be joined to me, because I have born three sons for him." For that reason he called his name Levi.

³⁵Then she conceived again and bore a son, and she said, "This time I will praise Yahweh." For that reason she called his name Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

¹Now Rachel saw that she was not bearing children for Jacob, so Rachel envied her sister, and she said to Jacob, "Give me children, and if not, I will die!" ²And Jacob's anger burned against Rachel, and he said, " Am I in the place of God, who has kept the fruit of the womb from you?" ³Then she said, "Behold my servant woman Bilhah. Go to her, so that she will bear children on my knees, and I also will be built up from her." ⁴And she gave to him Bilhah her maidservant as a wife, and Jacob went to her.

⁵Then Bilhah conceived and bore a son for Jacob, ⁶and Rachel said, " God has vindicated me, and indeed, he has listened to my voice and given to me a son!" For that reason she called his name Dan.

⁷Then Bilhah the maidservant of Rachel conceived again and bore a second son for Jacob. ⁸So Rachel said, * "With mighty wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister. Indeed I have prevailed!" And she called his name Naphtali.

⁹Now Leah saw that she had ceased from bearing children, so she took Zilpah her maidservant and gave her to Jacob as a wife. ¹⁰Then Zilpah the maidservant of Leah bore a son for Jacob, ¹¹and Leah said, " What good fortune!" So she called his name Gad.

¹²Then Zilpah the maidservant of Leah bore a second son for Jacob, ¹³and Leah said, "How blessed I am! For women will call me blessed." So she called his name Asher.

¹⁴Then in the days of the wheat harvest, Reuben went out and found mandrakes in the field, and he brought them to Leah his mother. Then Rachel said to Leah, " Please give to me some of your son's mandrakes." ¹⁵But she said to her, "Is it a small matter you have taken my husband? And would you also take my son's mandrakes?" Then Rachel said, " Therefore he may lie with you for the night for your son's mandrakes."

¹⁶Then Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must come to me, because I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he lay with her during that night, ¹⁷and God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore a fifth son for Jacob. ¹⁸Then Leah said, " God has given me my reward because I gave my maidservant to my husband." So she called his name Issachar.

¹⁹Then Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son for Jacob. ²⁰And Leah said, "God has presented me a good present. This time my husband will honor me because I have born six sons for him." So she called his name Zebulun.

²¹Then later she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah.

²²Then God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb. ²³Then she conceived and bore a son, and she said, " God has taken away my disgrace!" ²⁴And she called his name Joseph, saying, "May Yahweh add another son to me."

²⁷Then Laban said to him, "Please stay, if I have found favor in your eyes. I have learned by divination that Yahweh has blessed me because of you." ²⁸Then he said, " Name your wages to me, and I will give them." ²⁹And he said to him, "You yourself know how I have served you and how your livestock have been with me. ³⁰For there was little that was yours before me, and it has prospered to abundance, and Yahweh has blessed you at my feet. But now, when will I also do something for my household?"

³¹Then he said, " What should I give to you?" And Jacob said, "Do not give anything to me. If you will do this thing for me, I will continue tending your flocks watching over them: ³²I will pass through all your flocks today to remove from there every speckled and spotted lamb and every dark-colored lamb among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled young among the goats. And that will be my wages. ³³So my righteousness will testify for me in future days when you go over my wages in front of you: any that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and dark-colored among the sheep, it was stolen if it is with me."

³⁴And Laban said, " Behold, let it be according to your word." ³⁵Then on that day he removed the male goats that were streaked and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, any that had white on it, and all the dark-colored ones among the lambs. Then he gave them into the hand of his sons, ³⁶and he put a three-day journey between himself and Jacob. And Jacob was tending the rest of Laban's flocks.

³⁷Then Jacob took for himself fresh-cut branches of poplar and almond and plane trees, and peeled white stripes in them, exposing the white that was inside the branches. ³⁸Then he put the branches that he had peeled in the troughs, in the water troughs where the flocks came to drink, in front of the flocks. And they were in heat when they came to drink,³⁹ and the flocks would mate by the branches, and the flocks would bear streaked, speckled and spotted young.⁴⁰ Then Jacob set apart the lambs, and he made the faces of the flocks look at the streaked and all the dark-colored animals in the flocks of Laban. And he put flocks for himself by themselves, and he did not put them with the flocks of Laban.

⁴¹So it happened whenever the strong animals were in heat, then Jacob put the branches in the troughs before the eyes of the flocks so that they would mate by the branches.⁴² But when the animals were weak, he did not put them in. So it was the weak ones went to Laban, and the strong ones to Jacob,⁴³ so that the man prospered very greatly, and he owned large flocks, and maidservants and menservants, and camels and donkeys.

¹Now Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons, that they said, "Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and it is from our father's possessions that he has gotten all this wealth."² Jacob saw the look on Laban's face. He saw that his attitude toward him had changed.³ Then Yahweh said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you."⁴ Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field to his flock⁵ and said to them, "I see your father's attitude toward me has changed, but the God of my father has been with me.⁶ You know that it is with all my strength that I have served your father.⁷ Your father has deceived me and changed my wages ten times, but God has not permitted him to hurt me.⁸ If he said, 'The speckled animals will be your wages,' then all the flock bore speckled young. If he said, 'The striped will be your wages,' then the whole flock bore striped young.⁹ In this way God has taken away the livestock of your father and given them to me.¹⁰ Once at the time of breeding season, I saw in a dream the male goats that were mating with the flock. The male goats were striped, speckled, and spotted.¹¹ The angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob.' I said, 'Here I am.'¹² He said, 'Lift up your eyes and see all the male goats that are breeding with the flock. They are striped, speckled, and spotted, for I have seen everything that Laban is doing to you.¹³ I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar, where you made a vow to me. Now rise up and leave this land and return to the land of your birth.'" ¹⁴Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, "Is there any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? ¹⁵Are we not treated by him as foreigners? For he has sold us and has also completely devoured our money.¹⁶ For all the riches that God has taken away from our father are now ours and our children's. Now then, whatever God has said to you, do it."

^[1] ²⁶Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done, that you deceived me and carried away my daughters like prisoners of war? ²⁷Why did you flee secretly and trick me and did not tell me? I would have sent you away with celebration and with songs, with tambourine and with harps.²⁸ You did not allow me to kiss my grandsons and my daughters good bye. Now you have done foolishly.²⁹ It is in my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night and said, 'Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.'³⁰ Now you have gone away because you longed to return to your father's house. But why did you steal my gods?" ³¹Jacob answered and said to Laban, "Because I was afraid and thought that you would take your daughters from me by force I left secretly.³² Whoever has stolen your gods will not continue to live. In the presence of our relatives, identify whatever with me is yours and take it." For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

³³Laban went into Jacob's tent, into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two female servants, but he did not find them. He went out of Leah's tent and entered into Rachel's tent. ³⁴Now Rachel had taken the household gods, put them in a camel's saddle, and sat upon them. Laban searched the whole tent, but did not find them. ³⁵She said to her father, "Do not be angry, my master, that I cannot stand up before you, for I am having my period." So he searched but did not find his household gods.

³⁶Jacob was angry and argued with Laban. He said to him, "What is my offense? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued after me? ³⁷For you have searched all my possessions. What have you found of all your household goods? Set them here before our relatives, so that they may judge between us two. ³⁸For twenty years I have been with you. Your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried, nor have I eaten any rams from your flocks. ³⁹What was torn by beasts I did not bring to you. Instead, I bore the loss of it. You always made me pay for every missing animal, whether stolen by day or stolen by night. ⁴⁰There I was; in the day the heat consumed me, and the frost by night; and I went without sleep. ⁴¹These twenty years I have been in your household. I worked for you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock. You have changed my wages ten times. ⁴²Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the one Isaac fears, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my oppression and how hard I worked, and he rebuked you last night."

⁴³Laban answered and said to Jacob, "The daughters are my daughters, the grandchildren are my grandchildren, and the flocks are my flocks. All that you see is mine. But what can I do today to these my daughters, or to their children whom they have borne? ⁴⁴So now, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it be for a witness between you and me." ⁴⁵So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar. ⁴⁶Jacob said to his relatives, "Gather stones." So they took stones and made a pile. Then they ate there by the pile. ⁴⁷Laban called it Jegar Saha Dutha, but Jacob called it Galeed. ⁴⁸Laban said, "This pile is a witness between me and you today." Therefore its name was called Galeed. ⁴⁹It is also called Mizpah, because Laban said, "May Yahweh watch between you and me, when we are out of sight one from another. ⁵⁰If you mistreat my daughters, or if you take any wives besides my daughters, although no one else is with us, see, God is witness between you and me." ⁵¹Laban said to Jacob, "Look at this pile, and look at the pillar, which I have set between you and me. ⁵²This pile is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I will not pass beyond this pile to you, and that you will not pass beyond this pile and this pillar to me, to do harm. ⁵³May the God of Abraham, and the god of Nahor, the gods of their father, judge between us." Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac. ⁵⁴Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain and called his relatives to eat a meal. They ate and spent the entire night on the mountain. ⁵⁵Early in the morning Laban got up, kissed his grandsons and his daughters and blessed them. Then Laban left and returned home.

¹Jacob also went on his way, and the angels of God met him. ²When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is God's camp," so he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

³Jacob sent messengers on ahead of him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, in the region of Edom. ⁴He commanded them, saying, "This is what you will say to my master Esau: This is what your servant Jacob says: 'I have been staying with Laban, and have delayed my return until now. ⁵I have oxen, donkeys, and flocks, male servants, and female servants. I have sent this message to my master, so that I may find favor in your eyes.'" ⁶The messengers returned to Jacob and said, "We went to your brother Esau. He is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him." ⁷Then Jacob was very afraid and upset. So he divided the people who were with him into two camps, and also the flocks, the herds, and the camels. ⁸He said, "If Esau comes to one camp and attacks it, then the camp that is left will escape." ⁹Jacob said, "God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, Yahweh, who said to me, 'Return to your country and to your kindred, and I will prosper you,' ¹⁰I am not worthy of all your acts of covenant faithfulness and of all the trustworthiness that you have done for your servant. For with only my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I have become two camps. ¹¹Please rescue me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, for I am afraid of him, that he will come and attack me and the mothers with the children. ¹²But you said, 'I will certainly make you prosper. I will make your descendants like the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for their number.'"

¹³Jacob stayed there that night. He took some of what he had with him as a gift for Esau, his brother: ¹⁴two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, ¹⁵thirty milking camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys. ¹⁶These he gave into the hand of his servants, every herd by itself. He said to his servants, "Go on ahead of me and put a space between each of the herds." ¹⁷He instructed the first servant, saying, "When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, 'To whom do you belong? Where are you going? Whose animals are these that are in front of you?' ¹⁸Then you will say, 'They are your servant Jacob's. They are a gift sent to my master Esau. See, he is also coming after us.'" ¹⁹Jacob also gave instructions to the second group, the third, and all the men who followed the herds. He said, "You will say the same thing to Esau when you meet him. ²⁰You must also say, 'Your servant Jacob is coming after us.'" For he thought, "I will appease him with the gifts that I am sending ahead of me. Then later, when I will see him, perhaps he will receive me." ²¹So the gifts went on ahead of him. He himself stayed that night in the camp.

²²Jacob got up during the night, and he took his two wives, his two women servants, and his eleven sons. He sent them across the ford of the Jabbok. ²³In this way he sent them across the stream along with all his possessions. ²⁴Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. ²⁵When the man saw that he could not defeat him, he struck Jacob's hip. Jacob's hip was dislocated as he wrestled with him. ²⁶The man said, "Let me go, for the dawn is breaking." Jacob said, "I will not let you go unless you bless me." ²⁷The man said to him, "What is your name?" Jacob said, "Jacob." ²⁸The man said, "Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel. For you have struggled with God and with men and have prevailed." ²⁹Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." He said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" Then he blessed him there. ³⁰Jacob called the name of the place Peniel for he said, "I have seen God face to face, and my life is delivered." ³¹The sun rose on Jacob as he passed Peniel. He was limping because of his hip. ³²That is why to this day the people of Israel do not eat the ligaments of the hip which are at the hip joint, because the man injured those ligaments while dislocating Jacob's hip.

¹Jacob looked up and, behold, Esau was coming, and with him were four hundred men. Jacob divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two female servants. ²Then he put the female servants and their children in front, followed by Leah and her children, and followed by Rachel and Joseph last of all. ³He himself went on ahead of them. He bowed toward the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. ⁴Esau ran to meet him, embraced him, hugged his neck, and kissed him. Then they wept. ⁵When Esau looked up, he saw the women and the children. He said, "Who are these people with you?" Jacob said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant." ⁶Then the female servants came forward with their children, and they bowed down. ⁷Next Leah also and her children came forward and bowed down. Finally Joseph and Rachel came forward and bowed down. ⁸Esau said, "What do you mean by all these groups that I met?" Jacob said, "To find favor in the sight of my master." ⁹Esau said, "I have enough, my brother. Keep what you have for yourself." ¹⁰Jacob said, "No, please, if I have found favor in your eyes, then accept my gift from my hand, for indeed, I have seen your face, and it is like seeing the face of God, and you have accepted me. ¹¹Please accept my gift that was brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough." Thus Jacob urged him, and Esau accepted it. ¹²Then Esau said, "Let us be on our way. I will go before you." ¹³Jacob said to him, "My master knows that the children are young, and that the sheep and the cattle are nursing their young. If they are driven hard even one day, all the animals will die. ¹⁴Please let my master go on ahead of his servant. I will travel more slowly, at the pace of the livestock that are before me, and at the pace of the children, until I come to my master in Seir." ¹⁵Esau said, "Let me leave with you some of my men who are with me." But Jacob said, "Why do that? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord." ¹⁶So Esau that day started on his way back to Seir. ¹⁷Jacob traveled to Succoth, built himself a house, and made shelters for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.

¹Now Dinah, Leah's daughter whom she bore to Jacob, went out to meet the young women of the land. ²Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her. He took her and lay with her, and he humiliated her. ³He was drawn to Dinah, the daughter of Jacob. He loved the young woman and spoke tenderly to her. ⁴Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, "Get this young woman for me as a wife." ⁵Now Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter. His sons were with his livestock in the field, so Jacob held his peace until they came. ⁶Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him. ⁷The sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard of the matter. The men were offended. They were very angry because he had disgraced Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, for such a thing should not have been done. ⁸Hamor spoke with them, saying, "My son Shechem loves your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife. ⁹Intermarry with us, give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves. ¹⁰You will live with us, and the land will be open to you to live and trade in, and to acquire property." ¹¹Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you tell me I will give. ¹²Ask me for as great a bride price and gift as you will, and I will give whatever you say to me, but give me the young woman as a wife." ¹³The sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father with deceit, because Shechem had defiled Dinah their sister. ¹⁴They said to them, "We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to anyone who is uncircumcised; for that would be a disgrace to us. ¹⁵Only on this condition will we agree with you: If you will become circumcised as we are, if every male among you is circumcised. ¹⁶Then will we give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to ourselves, and we will live with you and become one people. ¹⁷But if you do not listen to us and become circumcised, then we will take our sister and we will leave."

¹⁸Their words pleased Hamor and his son Shechem. ¹⁹The young man did not delay to do what they said, because he delighted in Jacob's daughter, and because he was the most honored person in all his father's household. ²⁰Hamor and Shechem his son went to the gate of their city and spoke with the men of their city, saying, ²¹"These men are at peace with us, so let them live in the land and trade in it for, really, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters as wives, and let us give them our daughters. ²²Only on this condition will the men agree to live with us and become one people: If every male among us is circumcised, as they are circumcised. ²³Will not their livestock and their property—all their animals be ours? So let us agree with them, and they will live among us." ²⁴All the men of the city listened to Hamor and Shechem, his son. Every male was circumcised. ²⁵On the third day, when they were still in pain, two of the sons of Jacob (Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers), each took his sword and they attacked the city that was certain of its security, and they killed all the males. ²⁶They killed Hamor and his son Shechem with the edge of the sword. They took Dinah from Shechem's house and went away. ²⁷The other sons of Jacob came to the dead bodies and looted the city, because the people had defiled their sister. ²⁸They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys, and everything in the city and in the surrounding fields with ²⁹all their wealth. All their children and their wives, they captured. They even took everything that was in the houses. ³⁰Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me, to make me stink to the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am few in number. If they gather themselves together against me and attack me, then I will be destroyed, I and my household." ³¹But Simeon and Levi said, "Should Shechem have dealt with our sister as with a prostitute?"

¹God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel, and stay there. Build an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from Esau your brother." ²Then Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, and change your clothes. ³Then let us depart and go up to Bethel. I will build an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and has been with me wherever I have gone." ⁴So they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods that were in their hand, and the rings that were in their ears. Jacob buried them under the oak that was near Shechem. ⁵As they traveled, God made panic to fall on the cities that were around them, so those people did not pursue the sons of Jacob. ⁶So Jacob arrived at Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him. ⁷He built an altar there and called the place El Bethel, because there God had revealed himself to him, when he was fleeing from his brother. ⁸Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died. She was buried down from Bethel under the oak tree, so it was called Allon Bakuth.

⁹When Jacob came from Paddan Aram, God appeared to him again and blessed him. ¹⁰God said to him, "Your name is Jacob, but your name will no longer be called Jacob. Your name will be Israel." So God called his name Israel. ¹¹God said to him, "I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations will come from you, and kings will be among your descendants. ¹²The land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give to you. To your descendants after you I also give the land." ¹³God went up from him in the place where he spoke with him. ¹⁴Jacob set up a pillar in the place where God had spoken to him, a pillar of stone. He poured out a drink offering over it and poured oil on it. ¹⁵Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him, Bethel.

¹⁶They journeyed on from Bethel. While they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel went into labor. She had hard labor. ¹⁷While she was in hardest labor, the midwife said to her, "Do not be afraid, for now you will have another son." ¹⁸As she was dying, with her dying breath she named him Ben-Oni, but his father called him Benjamin. ¹⁹Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem). ²⁰Jacob set up a pillar upon her grave. It is the marker of Rachel's grave to this day. ²¹Israel traveled on and pitched his tent beyond the watchtower of the flock. ²²While Israel was living in that land, Reuben lay with Bilhah his father's concubine, and Israel heard of it.

Now Jacob had twelve sons. ²³His sons by Leah were Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun. ²⁴His sons by Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁵His sons by Bilhah, Rachel's female servant, were Dan and Naphtali. ²⁶The sons of Zilpah, Leah's female servant, were Gad and Asher. All these were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddan Aram. ²⁷Jacob came to Isaac, his father, in Mamre in Kiriath Arba (the same as Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had lived.

²⁸Isaac lived for one hundred eighty years. ²⁹Isaac breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his ancestors, an old man full of days. Esau and Jacob, his sons, buried him.

Chapter 36

¹These were the descendants of Esau (also called Edom). ²Esau took his wives from the Canaanites. These were his wives: Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite; Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, the granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite; ³and Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebaioth. ⁴Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, and Basemath bore Reuel. ⁵Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These were the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan. ⁶Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the members of his household, his livestock—all his animals, and all his possessions, which he had gathered in the land of Canaan, and went into a land away from his brother Jacob. ⁷He did this because their possessions were too many for them to stay together. The land where they had settled could not support them because of their livestock. ⁸So Esau, also known as Edom, settled in the hill country of Seir.

⁹These were the descendants of Esau, the ancestor of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir. ¹⁰These were the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz son of Adah, the wife of Esau; Reuel son of Basemath, the wife of Esau. ¹¹The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz. ¹²Timna, a concubine of Eliphaz, Esau's son, bore Amalek. These were the grandsons of Adah, Esau's wife. ¹³These were the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the grandsons of Basemath, Esau's wife. ¹⁴These were the sons of Oholibamah, Esau's wife, who was the daughter of Anah and the granddaughter of Zibeon. She bore to Esau Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

¹⁵These were the clans among Esau's descendants: the descendants of Eliphaz, the firstborn of Esau: Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, ¹⁶Korah, Gatam, and Amalek. These were the clans descended from Eliphaz in the land of Edom. They were the grandsons of Adah. ¹⁷These were the clans from Reuel, Esau's son: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, Mizzah. These were the clans descended from Reuel in the land of Edom. They were the grandsons of Basemath, Esau's wife. ¹⁸These were the clans of Oholibamah, Esau's wife: Jeush, Jalam, Korah. These are the clans that descended from Esau's wife Oholibamah, daughter of Anah. ¹⁹These were the sons of Esau (who was known as Edom), and these were their chiefs.

²⁰These were the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, ²¹Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the clans of the Horites, the inhabitants of Seir in the land of Edom. ²²The sons of Lotan were Hori and Heman, and Timna was Lotan's sister. ²³These were the sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam. ²⁴These were the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. This is Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness, as he was pasturing donkeys of Zibeon his father. ²⁵These were the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah. ²⁶These were the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran. ²⁷These were the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan. ²⁸These were the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran. ²⁹These were the clans of the Horites: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, and Anah, ³⁰Dishon, Ezer, Dishan: These were clans of the Horites, according to their clan lists in the land of Seir.

³¹These were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the Israelites: ³²Bela son of Beor, reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah. ³³When Bela died, then Jobab son of Zerah of Bozrah, reigned in his place. ³⁴When Jobab died, Husham who was of the land of the Temanites, reigned in his place. ³⁵When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad who defeated the Midianites in the land of Moab, reigned in his place. The name of his city was Avith. ³⁶When Hadad died, then Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place. ³⁷When Samlah died, then Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his place. ³⁸When Shaul died, then Baal-Hanan son of Akbor reigned in his place. ³⁹When Baal-Hanan son of Akbor, died, then Hadar reigned in his place. The name of his city was Pau. His wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the granddaughter of Me Zahab.

⁴⁰These were the names of the heads of clans from Esau's descendants, according to their clans and their regions, by their names: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, ⁴¹Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, ⁴²Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, ⁴³Magdiel, and Iram. These were the clan heads of Edom, according to their settlements in the land they possessed. This was Esau, the father of the Edomites.

¹Jacob lived in the land where his father was staying, in the land of Canaan. ²These were the events concerning Jacob. Joseph, who was a young man seventeen years old, was guarding the flock with his brothers. He was with the sons of Bilhah and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. Joseph brought an unfavorable report about them to their father. ³Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons because he was the son of his old age. He made him a beautiful garment. ⁴His brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers. They hated him and would not speak kindly to him.

⁵Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told his brothers about it. They hated him even more. ⁶He said to them, "Please listen to this dream which I dreamed. ⁷Behold, we were tying bundles of grain in the field and behold, my bundle rose and stood upright, and behold, your bundles came around and bowed down to my bundle." ⁸His brothers said to him, "Will you really reign over us? Will you actually rule over us?" They hated him even more for his dreams and for his words. ⁹He dreamed another dream and told it to his brothers. He said, "Look, I have dreamed another dream: The sun and the moon and eleven stars bowed down to me." ¹⁰He told it to his father just as to his brothers, and his father rebuked him. He said to him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come to bow down to the ground to you?" ¹¹His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

¹²His brothers went to tend their father's flock in Shechem. ¹³Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers tending the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." Joseph said to him, "I am ready." ¹⁴He said to him, "Go now, see whether it is well with your brothers and well with the flock, and bring me word." So Jacob sent him out of the Valley of Hebron, and Joseph went to Shechem. ¹⁵A certain man found Joseph. Behold, Joseph was wandering in a field. The man asked him, "What do you seek?" ¹⁶Joseph said, "I am seeking my brothers. Tell me, please, where they are tending the flock." ¹⁷The man said, "They left this place, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.

¹⁸They saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, they plotted against him to kill him. ¹⁹His brothers said to one another, "Look, this dreamer is approaching. ²⁰Come now, therefore, let us kill him and cast him into one of the pits. We will say, 'A wild animal has devoured him.' We will see what will become of his dreams." ²¹Reuben heard it and rescued him from their hand. He said, "Let us not take his life." ²²Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but lay no hand upon him"—that he might rescue him out of their hand to bring him back to his father. ²³It came about that when Joseph reached his brothers, they stripped him of his beautiful garment. ²⁴They took him and threw him into the pit. The pit was empty with no water in it.

²⁵They sat down to eat bread. They lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing spices and balm and myrrh. They were traveling to carry them down to Egypt. ²⁶Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother and cover up his blood? ²⁷Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands upon him. For he is our brother, our flesh." His brothers listened to him. ²⁸The Midianite merchants passed by. His brothers drew Joseph up and lifted him up out of the pit. They sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. The Ishmaelites carried Joseph into Egypt.

²⁹Reuben returned to the pit, and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit. He tore his clothes. ³⁰He returned to his brothers and said, "The boy is not there! And I, where can I go?" ³¹They slaughtered a goat and then took Joseph's garment and dipped it into the blood. ³²Then they brought it to their father and said, "We found this. Please see whether it is your son's clothing or not." ³³Jacob recognized it and said, "It is my son's clothing. A wild animal has devoured him. Joseph has certainly been torn to pieces." ³⁴Jacob tore his garments and put sackcloth upon his loins. He mourned for his son many days. ³⁵All his sons and daughters rose up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. He said, "Indeed I will go down to Sheol mourning for my son." His father wept for him. ³⁶The Midianites sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the bodyguard.

¹It came about at that time that Judah left his brothers and stayed with a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. ²He met there a daughter of a Canaanite man whose name was Shua. He took her and he went in to her. ³She became pregnant and had a son. He was named Er. ⁴She became pregnant again and had a son. She called his name Onan. ⁵She again had a son and called his name Shelah. It was at Kezib where she gave birth to him. ⁶Judah found a wife for Er, his firstborn. Her name was Tamar. ⁷Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Yahweh. Yahweh killed him. ⁸Judah said to Onan, "Go in to your brother's wife. Do the duty of a brother-in-law to her, and raise up a child for your brother." ⁹Onan knew that the child would not be his. Whenever he went in to his brother's wife, he spilled the semen on the ground so he would not have a child for his brother. ¹⁰What he did was evil in the sight of Yahweh. Yahweh killed him also. ¹¹Then Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow in your father's house until Shelah, my son, grows up." For he feared, "He might also die, just like his brothers." Tamar left and lived in her father's house.

¹²After a long time, Shua's daughter, the wife of Judah, died. Judah was comforted and went up to his sheepshearers at Timnah, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite. ¹³Tamar was told, "Look, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep." ¹⁴She took off the clothing of her widowhood and covered herself with her veil and wrapped herself. She sat in the gate of Enaim, which is by the road to Timnah. For she saw that Shelah had grown up but she had not been given to him as a wife. ¹⁵When Judah saw her he thought that she was a prostitute because she had covered her face. ¹⁶He went to her by the road and said, "Come, please let me lie with you"—for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law—and she said, "What will you give me so you can lie with me?" ¹⁷He said, "I will send you a young goat from the flock." She said, "Will you give me a pledge until you send it?" ¹⁸He said, "What pledge can I give you?" She replied, "Your seal and cord, and the staff that is in your hand." He gave them to her and he went in to her, and she became pregnant by him. ¹⁹She got up and went away. She took off her veil and put on the clothing of her widowhood. ²⁰Judah sent the young goat by his friend the Adullamite in order that he might receive the pledge back from the woman's hand, but he did not find her. ²¹Then the Adullamite asked the men of the place, "Where is the cultic prostitute who was at Enaim by the road?" They said, "There has not been a cultic prostitute here." ²²He returned to Judah and said, "I did not find her. Also, the men of the place said, 'There has not been a cultic prostitute here.'" ²³Judah said, "Let her keep the things, that we not be put to shame. Indeed, I sent this young goat, but you did not find her."

²⁴It came about after about three months that it was told to Judah, "Tamar your daughter-in-law has committed prostitution, and indeed, she is pregnant by it." Judah said, "Bring her here and let her be burned." ²⁵When she was brought out, she sent to her father-in-law a message, "By the man who owns these I am pregnant." She said, "Determine please whose these are, the seal and cords and staff." ²⁶Judah recognized them and said, "She is more righteous than I am, since I did not give her as a wife to Shelah, my son." He did not lie with her again. ²⁷It came about at the time for her to give birth that, behold, twins were in her womb. ²⁸It came about as she was giving birth one put out a hand, and the midwife took a scarlet thread and tied it on his hand and said, "This one came out first." ²⁹But then he drew back his hand, and, behold, his brother came out first. The midwife said, "How you have broken out!" So he was named Perez. ³⁰Then his brother came out, who had the scarlet thread upon his hand, and he was named Zerah.

¹Joseph was brought down to Egypt. Potiphar, an official of Pharaoh who was captain of the guard and an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaelites, who had brought him down there. ²Yahweh was with Joseph and he became a prosperous man. He lived in the house of his Egyptian master. ³His master saw that Yahweh was with him and that Yahweh prospered everything that he did. ⁴Joseph found favor in his sight. He served Potiphar. Potiphar made Joseph manager over his house, and everything that he possessed, he put under his care. ⁵It came about from the time that he made him manager over his house and over everything he possessed, that Yahweh blessed the Egyptian's house because of Joseph. The blessing of Yahweh was on everything that Potiphar had in the house and in the field. ⁶Potiphar put everything that he had under Joseph's care. He did not have to think about anything except the food that he ate. Now Joseph was handsome and attractive. ⁷It came about after this that his master's wife cast her eyes on Joseph and said, "Lie with me." ⁸But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Look, my master does not pay attention to what I do in the house, and he has put everything that he owns under my care. ⁹No one is greater in this house than I am. He has not kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?" ¹⁰She spoke to Joseph day after day, but he refused to lie with her or to be with her. ¹¹It came about one day that he went into the house to do his work. None of the men of the house were there in the house. ¹²She caught him by his clothes and said, "Lie with me." He left his clothing in her hand, fled, and went outside. ¹³It came about, when she saw that he had left his clothing in her hand and had fled outside, ¹⁴that she called to the men of her house and told them, "See, Potiphar has brought in a Hebrew to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I screamed. ¹⁵It came about when he heard me scream, that he left his clothing with me, fled, and went outside." ¹⁶She set his clothing next to her until his master came home. ¹⁷She told him this explanation, “The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us, came in to mock me. ¹⁸It came about that when I screamed, he left his clothing with me and fled outside.”

¹⁹It came about that, when his master heard the explanation his wife told him, “This is what your servant did to me,” he became very angry. ²⁰Joseph’s master took him and put him in prison, the place where the king’s prisoners were confined. He was there in the prison. ²¹But Yahweh was with Joseph and showed covenant faithfulness to him. He gave him favor in the sight of the prison warden. ²²The prison warden gave into Joseph’s hand all the prisoners who were in the prison. Whatever they did there, Joseph was in charge of it. ²³The prison warden did not worry about anything that was in his hand, because Yahweh was with him. Whatever he did, Yahweh prospered.

⁹The chief of the cupbearers told his dream to Joseph. He said to him, “In my dream, behold, a vine was in front of me. ¹⁰In the vine were three branches. As it budded, its blossoms came out and the clusters of grapes ripened. ¹¹Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand. I took the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh’s cup, and I placed the cup into Pharaoh’s hand.” ¹²Joseph said to him, “This is the interpretation of it. The three branches are three days. ¹³Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your office. You will put Pharaoh’s cup into his hand, just as when you were his cupbearer. ¹⁴But think of me when it goes well with you, and please show kindness to me. Mention me to Pharaoh and bring me out of this prison. ¹⁵For indeed I was abducted out of the land of the Hebrews. Here also have I done nothing that they should put me in this dungeon.”

¹⁶When the chief of the bakers saw that the interpretation was favorable, he said to Joseph, “I also had a dream, and, behold, three baskets of bread were on my head. ¹⁷In the top basket there were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds ate them out of the basket on my head.” ¹⁸Joseph answered and said, “This is the interpretation. The three baskets are three days. ¹⁹Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head from you and will hang you on a tree. The birds will eat your flesh off you.” ²⁰It came about on the third day that it was Pharaoh’s birthday. He made a feast for all his servants. He lifted up the head of the chief of the cupbearers and the head of the chief of the bakers, among his servants. ²¹He restored the chief of the cupbearers to his responsibility, and he put the cup into Pharaoh’s hand again. ²²But he hanged the chief of the bakers, just as Joseph had interpreted to them. ²³Yet the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot about him.

¹It came about at the end of two full years that Pharaoh had a dream. Behold, he stood by the Nile. ²Behold, seven cows came up out of the Nile, desirable and fat, and they grazed in the reeds. ³Behold, seven other cows came up after them out of the Nile, undesirable and thin. They stood by the other cows on the bank of the river. ⁴Then the undesirable and thin cows ate the seven desirable and fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up. ⁵Then he slept and dreamed a second time. Behold, seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, wholesome and good. ⁶Behold, seven heads, thin and scorched by the east wind, sprouted up after them. ⁷The thin heads swallowed up the seven wholesome and full heads. Pharaoh woke up, and, behold, it was a dream. ⁸It came about in the morning that his spirit was troubled. He sent and called for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

⁹Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, "Today I am thinking about my offenses. ¹⁰Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, the chief baker and me. ¹¹We dreamed a dream the same night, he and I. We dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. ¹²There was with us there a young Hebrew man, a servant of the captain of the guard. We told him and he interpreted for us our dreams. He interpreted for each of us according to his dream. ¹³It came about as he interpreted for us, so it happened. Pharaoh restored me to my post, but the other one he hanged."

¹⁴Then Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph. They quickly took him out of the dungeon. He shaved himself, changed his clothes, and came in to Pharaoh. ¹⁵Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I had a dream, but there is no interpreter for it. But I have heard about you, that when you hear a dream you can interpret it." ¹⁶Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, "It is not in me. God will answer Pharaoh with favor." ¹⁷Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, "In my dream, behold, I stood on the bank of the Nile. ¹⁸Behold, seven cows came up out of the Nile, fat and desirable, and they grazed among the reeds. ¹⁹Behold, seven other cows came up after them, weak, very undesirable, and thin. I never saw in all the land of Egypt such undesirableness like them. ²⁰The thin and undesirable cows ate up the first seven fat cows. ²¹When they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them, for they were still as undesirable as before. Then I awoke. ²²I looked in my dream, and, behold, seven heads came up upon one stalk, full and good. ²³Behold, seven more heads—withered, thin, and scorched by the east wind—sprang up after them. ²⁴The thin heads swallowed up the seven good heads. I told these dreams to the magicians, but there was none that could explain it to me."

²⁵Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are the same. What God is about to do, he has declared to Pharaoh. ²⁶The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads are seven years. The dreams are the same. ²⁷The seven thin and undesirable cows that came up after them are seven years, and also the seven thin heads scorched by the east wind will be seven years of famine. ²⁸That is the thing which I spoke to Pharaoh. What God is about to do he has revealed to Pharaoh. ²⁹Look, seven years of great abundance will come throughout all the land of Egypt. ³⁰Seven years of famine will come after them, and all the abundance will be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine will devastate the land. ³¹The abundance will not be remembered in the land because of the famine that will follow, for it will be very severe. ³²That the dream was repeated to Pharaoh is because the matter has been established by God, and God will soon do it. ³³Now let Pharaoh look for a man discerning and wise, and put him over the land of Egypt. ³⁴Let Pharaoh appoint officials over the land, and let them take a fifth of the crops of Egypt in the seven abundant years. ³⁵Let them gather all the food of these good years that are coming and store up grain under the authority of Pharaoh, for food to be used in the cities. They should preserve it. ³⁶The food will be a supply for the land for the seven years of famine which will be in the land of Egypt. In this way the land will not be devastated by the famine."

³⁷This advice was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants. ³⁸Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find such a man as this, in whom is the Spirit of God?" ³⁹So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has shown you all this, there is none so discerning and wise as you. ⁴⁰You will be over my house, and according to your word will all my people be ruled. Only in the throne will I be greater than you." ⁴¹Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have put you over all the land of Egypt." ⁴²Pharaoh took off his signet ring from his hand and put it upon Joseph's hand. He clothed him with clothes of fine linen, and put a gold chain on his neck. ⁴³He had him ride in the second chariot which he possessed. Men shouted before him, "Bend the knee." Pharaoh put him over all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁴Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and apart from you, no man will lift his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt." ⁴⁵Pharaoh called Joseph's name "Zaphenath-Paneah." He gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphara priest of On, as a wife. Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

⁴⁶Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁷In the seven bountiful years the land produced abundantly. ⁴⁸He gathered up all the food of the seven years that was in the land of Egypt and put the food in the cities. He put into each city the food from the fields that surrounded it. ⁴⁹Joseph stored up grain like the sand of the sea, so much that he stopped counting, because it was beyond counting. ⁵⁰Joseph had two sons before the years of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphra priest of On, bore to him. ⁵¹Joseph called the name of his firstborn Manasseh, for he said, "God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father's household." ⁵²He called the name of the second son Ephraim, for he said, "God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction." ⁵³The seven years of abundance that was in the land of Egypt came to an end. ⁵⁴The seven years of famine began, as Joseph had said. There was famine in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was food. ⁵⁵When all the land of Egypt was famished, the people loudly called on Pharaoh for food. Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph and do what he says." ⁵⁶The famine was over all the face of the whole land. Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold to the Egyptians. The famine was severe in the land of Egypt. ⁵⁷All the earth was coming to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

¹Now Jacob became aware that there was grain in Egypt. He said to his sons, "Why do you look at one another?" ²He said, "See here, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy for us from there so we may live and not die." ³Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. ⁴But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers, for he said, "I fear that harm might come to him." ⁵The sons of Israel came to buy among those who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. ⁶Now Joseph was the governor over the land. He was the one who sold to all the people of the land. Joseph's brothers came and bowed down to him with their faces to the ground. ⁷Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he disguised himself to them and spoke harshly with them. He said to them, "Where have you come from?" They said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food." ⁸Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him. ⁹Then Joseph remembered the dreams he had dreamed about them, and he said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the undefended parts of the land." ¹⁰They said to him, "No, my master. Your servants have come to buy food." ¹¹We are all one man's sons. We are honest men. Your servants are not spies." ¹²He said to them, "No, you have come to see the undefended parts of the land." ¹³They said, "We your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan. See, the youngest is this day with our father, and one brother is no longer alive." ¹⁴Joseph said to them, "It is what I said to you; you are spies. ¹⁵By this you will be tested. By the life of Pharaoh, you will not leave here, unless your youngest brother comes here. ¹⁶Send one of yourselves and let him get your brother. You will remain in prison, that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you. Or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies." ¹⁷He put them all in custody for three days.

trembling to one another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?" ²⁹They went to Jacob, their father in the land of Canaan and told him all that had happened to them. They said, ³⁰"The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly with us and thought that we were spies in the land. ³¹We said to him, 'We are honest men. We are not spies. ³²We are twelve brothers, sons of our father. One is no longer alive, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.' ³³The man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'By this I will know that you are honest men. Leave one of your brothers with me, take grain for the famine in your houses, and go your way. ³⁴Bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. Then I will release your brother to you, and you will trade in the land."

³⁵It came about as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bag of silver was in his sack. When they and their father saw their bags of silver, they were afraid. ³⁶Jacob their father said to them, "You have bereaved me of my children. Joseph is no longer alive, Simeon is gone, and you will take Benjamin away. All these things are against me." ³⁷Reuben spoke to his father, saying, "You may kill my two sons if I do not bring Benjamin back to you. Put him in my hands, and I will bring him to you again." ³⁸Jacob said, "My son will not go down with you. For his brother is dead and he alone is left. If harm comes to him on the road in which you go, then you will bring down my gray hair with sorrow to Sheol."

¹The famine was severe in the land. ²It came about when they had eaten the grain that they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, "Go again; buy us some food." ³Judah told him, "The man solemnly warned us, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.' ⁴If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food. ⁵But if you do not send him, we will not go down. For the man said to us, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.'" ⁶Israel said, "Why did you treat me so badly by telling the man that you had another brother?" ⁷They said, "The man asked details about us and our family. He said, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?' We answered him according to these questions. How could we have known that he would say, 'Bring your brother down?'" ⁸Judah said to Israel his father, "Send the boy with me. We will rise and go that we may live and not die, both we, you, and also our children. ⁹I will be a guarantee for him. You will hold me responsible. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever. ¹⁰For if we had not delayed, surely by now we would have come back here a second time." ¹¹Their father Israel said to them, "If it be so, now do this. Take some of the best products of the land in your bags. Carry down to the man a gift—some balm and honey, spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds. ¹²Take double money in your hand. The money that was returned in the opening of your sacks, carry again in your hand. Perhaps it was a mistake. ¹³Take also your brother. Rise and go again to the man. ¹⁴May God Almighty give you mercy before the man, so that he may release to you your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved." ¹⁵The men took this gift, and in their hand they took double the amount of money, along with Benjamin. They got up and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

¹⁶When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, "Bring the men into the house, slaughter an animal and prepare it, for the men will eat with me at noon." ¹⁷The steward did as Joseph said. He brought the men to Joseph's house. ¹⁸The men were afraid because they were brought to Joseph's house. They said, "It is because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time we were brought in, that he may seek an opportunity against us. He might arrest us and take us as slaves, and take our donkeys." ¹⁹They approached the steward of Joseph's house, and they spoke to him at the door of the house, ²⁰saying, "My master, we came down the first time to buy food. ²¹It came about, when we reached the lodging place, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the opening of his sack, our money in full weight. We have brought it back in our hands. ²²Other money we have also brought down in our hand to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks." ²³The steward said, "Peace be to you, do not fear. Your God and the God of your father must have put your money in your sacks. I received your money." The steward then brought Simeon out to them. ²⁴The steward took the men into Joseph's house. He gave them water, and they washed their feet. He gave feed to their donkeys. ²⁵They prepared the gifts for Joseph's coming at noon, for they had heard that they would eat there.

²⁶When Joseph came home, they brought the gifts which were in their hand into the house, and bowed down before him to the ground. ²⁷He asked them about their welfare and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?" ²⁸They said, "Your servant our father is well. He is still alive." They prostrated themselves and bowed down. ²⁹When he lifted up his eyes he saw Benjamin his brother, his mother's son, and he said, "Is this your youngest brother of whom you spoke to me?" Then he said, "May God be gracious to you, my son." ³⁰Joseph hurried to go out of the room, for he was deeply moved about his brother. He sought somewhere to weep. He went to his room and wept there. ³¹He washed his face and came out. He controlled himself, saying, "Serve the food." ³²The servants served Joseph by himself and the brothers by themselves. The Egyptians there ate with him by themselves because the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is detestable to the Egyptians. ³³The brothers sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth. The men were astonished together. ³⁴Joseph sent portions to them from the food in front of him. But Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of his brothers. They drank and were merry with him.

¹Joseph commanded the steward of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's opening. ²Put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's opening of the youngest, and also his money for the grain." The steward did as Joseph had said. ³The morning dawned, and the men were sent away, they and their donkeys. ⁴When they were out of the city but were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Get up, follow after the men, and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you returned evil for good? ⁵Is this not the cup from which my master drinks, and the cup that he uses for divination? You have done evil, this thing that you have done.'" ⁶The steward overtook them and spoke these words to them. ⁷They said to him, "Why does my master speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they would do such a thing. ⁸Look, the money that we found in our sacks' openings, we brought again to you out of the land of Canaan. How then could we steal out of your master's house silver or gold? ⁹With whomever of your servants it is found, let him die, and we also will be my master's slaves." ¹⁰The steward said, "Now also let it be according to your words. He with whom the cup is found will be my slave, and you others will be innocent." ¹¹Then each man hurried and brought his sack down to the ground, and each man opened his sack. ¹²The steward searched. He began with the oldest and finished with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack. ¹³Then they tore their clothes. Each man loaded his donkey and returned to the city.

¹⁵Joseph said to them, "What is this that you have done? Do you not know that a man like me practices divination?"

¹⁶Judah said, "What can we say to my master? What can we speak? Or how can we justify ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Look, we are my master's slaves, both we and he also in whose hand the cup was found." ¹⁷Joseph said, "Far be it from me that I should do so. The man in whose hand the cup was found, that person will be my slave, but as for you others, go up in peace to your father."

¹⁸Then Judah came near to him and said, "My master, please let your servant speak a word in my master's ears, and do not let your anger burn against your servant, for you are just like Pharaoh. ¹⁹My master asked his servants, saying, 'Do you have a father or a brother?' ²⁰We said to my master, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one. But his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him.' ²¹Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me that I may see him.' ²²After that, we said to my master, 'The boy cannot leave his father. For if he should leave his father his father would die.' ²³Then you said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.' ²⁴Then it came about when we went up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my master. ²⁵Our father said, 'Go again, buy us some food.' ²⁶Then we said, 'We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then will we go down, for we will not be able to see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.' ²⁷Your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons. ²⁸One of them went out from me and I said, "Surely he is torn in pieces, and I have not seen him since." ²⁹Now if you also take this one from me, and harm comes to him, you will bring down my gray hair with sorrow to Sheol.' ³⁰Now, therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, since his life is bound up in the boy's life, ³¹it will come about, when he sees the boy is not with us, he will die. Your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant our father with sorrow to Sheol. ³²For your servant became a guarantee for the boy to my father and said, 'If I do not bring him to you, then I will bear the guilt to my father forever.' ³³Now therefore, please let your servant stay instead of the boy as slave to my master, and let the boy go up with his brothers. ³⁴For how can I go up to my father if the boy is not with me? I am afraid to see the evil that would come on my father."

¹Then Joseph could not control himself before all the servants who stood by him. He said loudly, "Everyone must leave me." So no servant stood by him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers. ²He wept loudly, the Egyptians heard it, and the house of Pharaoh heard of it. ³Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" His brothers could not answer him, for they were shocked in his presence. ⁴Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Come near to me, please." They came near. He said, "I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. ⁵Do not be grieved or angry with yourselves that you sold me here, for God sent me ahead of you to preserve life. ⁶For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. ⁷God sent me ahead of you to preserve you as a remnant in the earth, and to keep you alive by a great deliverance. ⁸So now it was not you who sent me here but God, and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, master of all his house, and ruler of all the land of Egypt. ⁹Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, 'This is what your son Joseph says, "God has made me master of all Egypt. Come down to me, do not delay. ¹⁰You will live in the land of Goshen, and you will be near me, you and your children and your children's children, and your flocks and your herds, and all that you have. ¹¹I will provide for you there, for there are still five years of famine, so that you do not come to poverty, you, your household, and all that you have.'" ¹²Look, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you. ¹³You will tell my father about all my honor in Egypt and of all that you have seen. You will hurry and bring my father down here." ¹⁴He hugged his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck. ¹⁵He kissed all his brothers and wept over them. After that his brothers talked with him.

¹⁶The news of the matter was told in Pharaoh's house: "Joseph's brothers have come." It pleased Pharaoh and his servants very much. ¹⁷Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and go to the land of Canaan. ¹⁸Get your father and your households and come to me. I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.' ¹⁹Now you are commanded, 'Do this, take carts out of the land of Egypt for your children and for your wives. Get your father and come. ²⁰Do not be concerned about your possessions, for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.'"

²¹The sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them carts, according to the command of Pharaoh, and gave them provisions for the journey. ²²To all of them he gave each man changes of clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothing. ²³For his father he sent this: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt; and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and other supplies for his father for the journey. ²⁴So he sent his brothers away and they left. He said to them, "See that you do not quarrel on the journey." ²⁵They went up out of Egypt and came to the land of Canaan, to Jacob their father. ²⁶They told him saying "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt." His heart was astonished, for he could not believe what they told him. ²⁷They told him all the words of Joseph that he had said to them. When Jacob saw the carts that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived. ²⁸Israel said, "It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

¹Israel made his journey with all that he had and went to Beersheba. There he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. ²God spoke to Israel in a vision at night, saying, "Jacob, Jacob." He said, "Here I am." ³He said, "I am God, the God of your father. Do not fear to go down to Egypt, for there I will make you a great nation. ⁴I will go down with you into Egypt, and I will surely bring you up again and Joseph will close your eyes with his own hand." ⁵Jacob rose up from Beersheba. The sons of Israel transported Jacob their father, their children, and their wives, in the carts that Pharaoh had sent to carry him. ⁶They took their livestock and their possessions that they had accumulated in the land of Canaan. They came into Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him. ⁷He brought with him to Egypt his sons and his sons' sons, his daughters and his sons' daughters, and all his descendants.

⁸These were the names of the children of Israel who came to Egypt: Jacob and his sons, Reuben, Jacob's firstborn; ⁹the sons of Reuben, Hanok, Pallu, Hezron, and Karmi; ¹⁰the sons of Simeon, Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman; ¹¹and the sons of Levi, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ¹²The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah, (but Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul. ¹³The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah, Lob, and Shimron; ¹⁴The sons of Zebulun were Sered, Elon, and Jahleel ¹⁵These were the sons of Leah whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan Aram, along with his daughter Dinah. His sons and his daughters numbered thirty-three. ¹⁶The sons of Gad were Zephon, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli. ¹⁷The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah; and Serah was their sister. The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malkiel ¹⁸These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban had given to Leah his daughter. These sons she bore to Jacob—sixteen in all. ¹⁹The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁰In Egypt Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph by Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On. ²¹The sons of Benjamin were Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard. ²²These were the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob—fourteen in all. ²³The son of Dan was Hushim. ²⁴The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem. ²⁵These were the sons born to Jacob by Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter—seven in all. ²⁶All those who went to Egypt with Jacob, who were his descendants, not counting Jacob's sons' wives, were sixty-six in all. ²⁷With the two sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt, the members of his family who went to Egypt were seventy in all.

²⁸Jacob sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph to show the way before him to Goshen, and they came to the land of Goshen. ²⁹Joseph prepared his chariot and went up to meet Israel his father in Goshen. He saw him, hugged his neck, and wept on his neck a long time. ³⁰Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive." ³¹Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's house, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh, saying, 'My brothers and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. ³²The men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock. They have brought their flocks, their herds, and all that they have.' ³³It will come about, when Pharaoh calls you and asks, 'What is your occupation?' ³⁴that you should say, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth until now, both we, and our forefathers.' Do this so that you may live in the land of Goshen, for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

¹Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, "My father and my brothers, their flocks, their herds, and all that they own, have arrived from the land of Canaan. See, they are in the land of Goshen." ²He took five of his brothers and introduced them to Pharaoh. ³Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" They said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, as our ancestors." ⁴Then they said to Pharaoh, "We come as temporary residents in the land. There is no pasture for your servants' flocks, because the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. So now, please let your servants live in the land of Goshen." ⁵Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. ⁶The land of Egypt is before you. Settle your father and your brothers in the best region, the land of Goshen. If you know any capable men among them, put them in charge of my livestock." ⁷Then

Joseph brought in Jacob his father and presented him to Pharaoh. Jacob blessed Pharaoh. ⁸Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How long have you lived?" ⁹Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The years of my travels are a hundred and thirty. The years of my life have been few and painful. They have not been as long as those of my ancestors." ¹⁰Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from his presence. ¹¹Then Joseph settled his father and his brothers. He gave them a territory in the land of Egypt, the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. ¹²Joseph provided food for his father, his brothers, and all his father's household, according to the number of their dependents.

¹³Now there was no food in all the land; for the famine was severe. The land of Egypt and the land of Canaan wasted away because of the famine. ¹⁴Joseph gathered all the money that was in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, by selling grain to the inhabitants. Then Joseph brought the money to Pharaoh's palace. ¹⁵When all the money of the lands of Egypt and Canaan was spent, all the Egyptians came to Joseph saying, "Give us food! Why should we die in your presence because our money is gone?" ¹⁶Joseph said, "If your money is gone, bring your livestock and I will give you food in exchange for your livestock." ¹⁷So they brought their livestock to Joseph. Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses, for the flocks, for the herds, and for the donkeys. He fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock that year. ¹⁸When that year was ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, "We will not hide from my master that our money is all gone, and the herds of cattle are my master's. There is nothing left in the sight of my master, except our bodies and our land. ¹⁹Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed that we may live and not die, and that the land may not become desolate."

²⁰So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh. For every Egyptian sold his field, because the famine was very severe. In this way, the land became Pharaoh's. ²¹As for the people, he made them slaves from one end of Egypt's border to the other end. ²²It was only the land of the priests that Joseph did not buy, because the priests were given an allowance. They ate from the allotment which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore they did not sell their land. ²³Then Joseph said to the people, "See, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Now here is seed for you, and you will plant the land. ²⁴At the harvest, you must give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four parts will be your own, for seed of the field and for food for your households and your children." ²⁵They said, "You have saved our lives. May we find favor in your eyes. We will be Pharaoh's servants." ²⁶So Joseph made it a statute which is in effect in the land of Egypt to this day, that one-fifth belongs to Pharaoh. Only the land of the priests did not become Pharaoh's.

²⁷So Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen. His people gained possessions there. They were fruitful and multiplied greatly. ²⁸Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, so the years of Jacob's life were one hundred forty-seven years. ²⁹When the time approached for Israel to die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, put your hand under my thigh, and show me faithfulness and trustworthiness. Please do not bury me in Egypt. ³⁰When I sleep with my fathers, you will carry me out of Egypt and bury me in my forefathers' burial place." Joseph said, "I will do as you have said." ³¹Israel said, "Swear to me," and Joseph swore to him. Then Israel bowed down at the head of his bed.

¹It came about after these things, that one said to Joseph, "Look, your father is sick." So he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. ²When Jacob was told, "Look, your son Joseph has arrived to see you," Israel gathered strength and sat up in bed. ³Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan. He blessed me ⁴and said to me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you. I will make of you an assembly of nations. I will give this land to your descendants as an everlasting possession.' ⁵Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, they are mine. Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are mine. ⁶The children you have after them will be yours; they will be listed under the names of their brothers in their inheritance. ⁷But as for me, when I came from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died in the land of Canaan on the way, while there was still some distance to go to Ephrath. I buried her there on the way to Ephrath" (that is, Bethlehem).

⁸When Israel saw Joseph's sons, he said, "Whose are these?" ⁹Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me here." Israel said, "Bring them to me, that I may bless them." ¹⁰Now Israel's eyes were failing because of his age, so he could not see. So Joseph brought them near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them. ¹¹Israel said to Joseph, "I never expected to see your face again, but God has even allowed me to see your children." ¹²Joseph brought them out from between Israel's knees, and then he bowed with his face to the earth. ¹³Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them close to him. ¹⁴Israel reached out with his right hand and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head. He crossed his hands, for Manasseh was the firstborn. ¹⁵Israel blessed Joseph, saying,

"The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked,
the God who has cared for me to this day,

¹⁶the angel who has protected me from all harm, may he bless these boys.

May my name be named in them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac.

May they grow into a multitude on the earth."

¹⁷When Joseph saw his father place his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him. He took his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. ¹⁸Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father; for this is the firstborn. Put your right hand upon his head." ¹⁹His father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know. He also will become a people, and he also will be great. Yet his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a multitude of nations." ²⁰Israel blessed them that day with these words,

"The people of Israel will pronounce blessings by your names saying,

'May God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh.'"

In this way, Israel put Ephraim before Manasseh. ²¹Israel said to Joseph, "See, I am about to die, but God will be with you, and will bring you back to the land of your fathers. ²²To you, as one who is above your brothers, I give to you the mountain slope that I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow."

Chapter 49

¹Then Jacob called for his sons, and said:

"Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you what will happen to you in the future.

²Assemble yourselves and listen, you sons of Jacob.

Listen to Israel, your father.

³Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might,
and the beginning of my strength, outstanding in dignity, and outstanding in power.

⁴Uncontrollable as rushing water, you will not have the preeminence, because you went up to your father's bed.

Then you defiled it; you went up to my couch.

⁵Simeon and Levi are brothers.

Weapons of violence are their swords.

⁶O my soul, do not come into their council;

do not join in their meetings, for my heart has too much honor for that.

For in their anger they killed men.

It was for pleasure that they hamstringed oxen.

⁷May their anger be cursed, for it was fierce—and their fury, for it was cruel.

I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.

⁸Judah, your brothers will praise you.

Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies.

Your father's sons will bow down before you.

⁹Judah is a lion's cub. My son, you have gone up from your victims.

He stooped down, he crouched like a lion, like a lioness.

Who would dare to awaken him?

¹⁰The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until Shiloh comes. The nations will obey him.

¹¹Binding his donkey to the vine, and his donkey's colt to the choice vine,

he has washed his garments in wine, and his robe in the blood of grapes.

¹²His eyes will be as dark as wine, and his teeth as white as milk.

¹³Zebulun will live by the shore of the sea.

He will be a harbor for ships, and his border will extend to Sidon.

¹⁴Issachar is a strong donkey, lying down between the sheepfolds.

¹⁵He sees a good resting place and the pleasant land.
He will bend his shoulder to the burden and become a servant for the task.

¹⁶Dan will judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

¹⁷Dan will be a snake beside the road, a poisonous snake in the path that bites the horse's heels, so that his rider falls backward.

¹⁸I wait for your salvation, Yahweh.

¹⁹Gad—raiders will attack him, but he will attack them at their heels.

²⁰Asher's food will be rich, and he will provide royal delicacies.

²¹Naphtali is a doe let loose;
he will have beautiful fawns.

²²Joseph is a fruitful bough, a fruitful bough near a spring, whose branches climb over the wall.

²³The archers will attack him and shoot at him and harass him.

²⁴But his bow will remain steady, and his hands will be skillful because of the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, because of the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel.

²⁵The God of your father will help you and the Almighty God will bless you with blessings of the sky above, blessings of the deep that lies beneath, and blessings of the breasts and womb.

²⁶The blessings of your father are greater than the blessings of the ancient mountains or the desirable things of the ancient hills.
May they be on the head of Joseph, even upon the crown of the head of the prince of his brothers.

²⁷Benjamin is a hungry wolf.
In the morning he will devour the prey, and in the evening he will divide the plunder.”

²⁸These are the twelve tribes of Israel. This is what their father said to them when he blessed them. Each one he blessed with an appropriate blessing. ²⁹Then he instructed them and said to them, “I am about to go to my people. Bury me with my forefathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, ³⁰in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is near Mamre in the land of Canaan, the field that Abraham bought for a burial place from Ephron the Hittite. ³¹There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah. ³²The field and the cave that is in it were purchased from the people of Heth.” ³³When Jacob finished these instructions to his sons, he pulled his feet into the bed, breathed his last, and went to his people.

¹Then Joseph was so distressed that he collapsed on the face of his father, and he wept over him, and he kissed him. ²Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel. ³They took forty days, for that was the full time for embalming. The Egyptians wept for him seventy days.

⁴When the days of weeping were over, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, “If now I have found favor in your eyes, please speak to Pharaoh, saying, ⁵My father made me swear, saying, “See, I am about to die. Bury me in my tomb that I dug for myself in the land of Canaan. There you will bury me.” Now let me go up and bury my father, and then I will return.” ⁶Pharaoh answered, “Go and bury your father, as he made you swear.” ⁷Joseph went up to bury his father. All the officials of Pharaoh went with him—the elders of his household, all the senior officials of the land of Egypt, ⁸with all Joseph’s household and his brothers, and his father’s household. But their children, their flocks, and their herds were left in the land of Goshen. ⁹Chariots and horsemen also went with him. It was a very large group of people. ¹⁰When they came to the threshing floor of Atad on the other side of the Jordan, they mourned with very great and grievous sorrow. There Joseph made a seven-day mourning for his father. ¹¹When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, “This is a very sad occasion for the Egyptians.” That is why the place was called Abel Mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan. ¹²So his sons did for Jacob just as he had instructed them. ¹³His sons carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre. Abraham had bought the cave with the field for a burial place. He had bought it from Ephron the Hittite. ¹⁴After he had buried his father, Joseph returned into Egypt, he, along with his brothers, and all who had accompanied him to bury his father.

¹⁵When Joseph’s brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, “What if Joseph holds on to anger against us and wants to repay us in full for all the evil we did to him?” ¹⁶So they commanded the presence of Joseph, saying, “Your father gave instructions before he died, saying, ¹⁷Tell Joseph this, “Please forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin when they did evil to you.” Now please forgive the servants of the God of your father.” Joseph wept when they spoke to him. ¹⁸His brothers also went and lay facedown before him. They said, “See, we are your servants.” ¹⁹But Joseph answered them, “Do not be afraid. Am I in the place of God? ²⁰As for you, you meant to harm me, but God meant it for good, to preserve the lives of many people, as you see today. ²¹So now do not be afraid. I will provide for you and your little children.” He comforted them in this way and spoke kindly to their hearts.

²²Joseph lived in Egypt, together with his father’s family. He lived one hundred ten years. ²³Joseph saw Ephraim’s children to the third generation. He also saw the children of Machir son of Manasseh, who were placed on the knees of Joseph. ²⁴Joseph said to his brothers, “I am about to die; but God will surely come to you and lead you up out of this land to the land which he swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.” ²⁵Then Joseph made the people of Israel swear an oath. He said, “God will surely come to you. At that time you must carry up my bones from here.” ²⁶So Joseph died, 110 years old. They embalmed him and he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

Chapter 1

¹And these are the names of the sons of Israel, the ones who came to Egypt. They came in with Jacob, a man and his house: ²Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, ³Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, ⁴Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. ⁵And all the lives, going out of the loins of Jacob, were 70 lives. And Joseph was in Egypt. ⁶And Joseph and all his brothers and all that generation died. ⁷And the sons of Israel were fruitful and propagated and multiplied and were mighty, with great greatness; and the land was filled with them.

⁸And a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. ⁹And he said to his people, "Behold, the people of the sons of Israel are many and mighty compared to us. ¹⁰Come, let us act wisely towards him; lest he multiplies, and it happens that a battle occurs, and he even adds himself onto the ones hating us, and he fights with us, and he leaves from the land." ¹¹And they set over him overseers of labor gangs in order to afflict him by their burdens. And he built Pithom and Rameses, cities of storage for Pharaoh. ¹²And insofar as they afflicted him, thus he multiplied and thus he spread out. And they felt a sickening dread from the face of the sons of Israel. ¹³And the Egyptians enslaved the sons of Israel with rigor. ¹⁴And they embittered their lives by hard slavery, by mortar and by bricks, and by all kinds of slave labor in the fields; all their work with which they worked for them was with rigor.

¹⁵And the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the second was Puah. ¹⁶And he said, "When you assist the Hebrew women as midwives and you see on the birth stool, if he is a son, then you shall cause him to die; but if she is a daughter, then she shall live." ¹⁷But the midwives feared God and did not do according to what the king of Egypt spoke to them; and they let the sons live. ¹⁸And the king of Egypt called out to the midwives, and he said to them, "Why have you done this thing, and let the sons live?"

¹⁹And the midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and, before the midwife comes to them, they have given birth." ²⁰And God caused good to the midwives. And the people multiplied and became very mighty. ²¹And it came about, since the midwives feared God, that he made houses for them.

²²And Pharaoh commanded to all of his people, saying, "You shall throw every new-born son into the river, but every daughter you shall let live."

Chapter 2

¹And a man from the house of Levi went and took a daughter of Levi. ²And the woman conceived, and she birthed a son. And she saw him, that he was good, and she hid him three months. ³And she was not able to hide him still, and she took for him an ark of papyrus reeds and she daubed it with bitumen and with pitch. And she placed the child in it, and she placed it in the reeds along the shore of the river. ⁴And his sister stationed herself at a distance to know what would be done to him.

⁵And a daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash at the river, and her young women were walking along the hand of the river. And she saw the ark in the middle of the reeds, and she sent her slave woman, and she took it ⁶and opened, and she saw him, the child; and behold, a crying boy. And she had compassion on him, and she said, "This one is from the children of the Hebrews."

⁷And his sister said to the daughter of Pharaoh, "Should I go and call for you a nursing woman from the Hebrews? And she could cause the child to nurse for you."

⁸And the daughter of Pharaoh said to her, "Go." And the girl went and called the mother of the child. ⁹And the daughter of Pharaoh said to her, "Take this child and cause him to nurse for me, and I shall give your wages." And the woman took the child and caused him to nurse. ¹⁰And the child grew older, and she brought him to the daughter of Pharaoh, and he became as a son to her. And she called his name Moses and she said, "For out of the water I drew him."

¹¹And it happened in those days that Moses had grown up and went out to his brothers, and he saw their burdens. And he saw an Egyptian man striking a Hebrew man from his brothers. ¹²And he turned this way and that way, and he saw that there was no man, and he struck the Egyptian, and he hid him in the sand. ¹³And he went out the second day, and behold, two Hebrew men were fighting. And he said to the guilty one, "Why are you striking your companion?"

¹⁴And he said, "Who set you as the ruler man and judge over us? Are you saying to kill me like you killed the Egyptian?"

And Moses feared and said, "Certainly the thing is known." ¹⁵And Pharaoh heard this thing, and he sought to kill Moses. And Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh.

And he dwelt in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well. ¹⁶And the priest of Midian had seven daughters. And they came and drew and filled up the troughs to cause the flock of their father to drink water. ¹⁷And the men who were shepherding came and drove them away, but Moses arose and saved them and caused their flock to drink water.

¹⁸And they came to Reuel their father, and he said, "Why have you hurried coming today?"

¹⁹And they said, "An Egyptian man rescued us from the hand of the men who were shepherding. And he even drew especially for us and caused the flock to drink water."

²⁰And he said to his daughters, "And where is he? What is this? You left the man? Call him and he shall eat bread!"

²¹And Moses was willing to dwell with the man, and he gave Zipporah his daughter to Moses. ²²And she birthed a son, and he called his name Gershom; for he said, "I have become a foreigner in a foreign land."

²³And it happened in these many days. And the king of Egypt died. And the sons of Israel groaned from the slavery. And they cried out, and their plea ascended to God from their slavery. ²⁴And God heard their groaning; and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. ²⁵And God saw the sons of Israel, and God knew.

Chapter 3

¹And Moses was shepherding the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. And he led the flock beyond the wilderness, and he came to the mountain of God-to Horeb. ²And the angel of Yahweh appeared to him in a flame of fire from the middle of a bush. And he looked, and behold, the bush was burning in the fire, but the bush was not being consumed. ³And Moses said, "Let me turn aside and see this great sight! Why does the bush not burn up?"

⁴And Yahweh saw that he had turned aside in order to look, and God called to him from the middle of the bush, and he said, "Moses, Moses."

And he said, "Behold me!"

⁵And he said, "You must not come close to here. Take your sandals off from on your feet, for the place on which you are standing, it is holy ground." ⁶And he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid from staring toward God. ⁷And Yahweh said,

"I have certainly seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt. And I have heard their cries from the faces of those who oppress him. I surely know his anguish. ⁸And I have come down to deliver him from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring him up from that land to a good and wide land, to a land flowing with milk and honey; to the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. ⁹And now, behold, the cry of the sons of Israel has come to me. And moreover, I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians are oppressing them. ¹⁰And now go, and I shall send you to Pharaoh. And bring out my people, the sons of Israel, from Egypt."

¹¹And Moses said to God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt?"

¹²And he said, "I shall certainly be with you, and this will be the sign for you that I have sent you: when you bring the people out from Egypt you all will serve God on this mountain."

¹³And Moses said to God, "Behold, I am about to go to the sons of Israel, and I will say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you.' And they will say to me, 'What is his name?' what should I say to them?"

¹⁴And God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." And he said, "You shall speak this way to the sons of Israel, 'I AM sent me to you.'" ¹⁵And God also said to Moses, "You shall speak this way to the sons of Israel: 'Yahweh, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, sent me to you. This is my name forever, and this is my memorial from generation to generation.'

¹⁶Go and gather the elders of Israel, and say to them, 'Yahweh, the God of your fathers, appeared to me--the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob--to say, "I have certainly attended to you and what is being done to you in Egypt, ¹⁷and I said, 'I will bring you up from affliction in Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey.'" ¹⁸And they will listen to your voice.

And you and the elders of Israel will go to the king of Egypt, and you all will say to him, 'Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. And now please let us go a journey of three days into the wilderness, and let us sacrifice to Yahweh, our God.' ¹⁹And I know that the king of Egypt will not permit you to go; and not with a strong hand.

²⁰And I shall send out my hand and I shall strike Egypt with all my wonders, which I shall do within him. And after that, he will send you out.

²¹And I shall give this people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians, and it will be that when you go, you will not go empty. ²²And a woman will ask from her neighbor and from one sojourning in her house for items of silver, and items of gold, and clothing. And you will put them on your sons and on your daughters. And you will plunder the Egyptians."

Chapter 4

¹And Moses answered and said, "But look, they will not believe me, and they will not listen to my voice; for they will say, 'Yahweh has not appeared to you.'"

²And Yahweh said to him, "What is that in your hand?"

And he said, "A staff."

³And he said, "Throw it to the ground." And he threw it to the ground, and it became a snake. And Moses fled from its face. ⁴And Yahweh said to Moses, "Reach out your hand and take it by its tail"--and he reached out his hand and he caught it to him, and it became a staff in his palm-- ⁵"in order to cause them to believe that Yahweh appeared to you; the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."

⁶And Yahweh also said to him, "Put your hand in your bosom." And he put his hand in his bosom. And he brought it out, and behold, his hand was being struck with a skin disease like snow. ⁷And he said, "Return your hand into your bosom." And he returned his hand into his bosom; and he brought it out from his bosom, and behold, it was restored like his flesh.

⁸"And it will be, if they do not believe you, and they do not listen to the voice of the first sign, then they will believe the voice of the following sign. ⁹And it will be, if they do not believe even these two signs, and they do not listen to your voice, then you shall take from the water of the river and you shall pour it on the dry land. And it will happen, the water which you take from the river, that it will become blood on the dry land."

¹⁰And Moses said to Yahweh, "Oh my Lord, I am not a man of words; not since yesterday, nor since three days ago, nor since you spoke to your servant. For I am heavy of mouth and heavy of tongue."

¹¹And Yahweh said to him, "Who put a mouth in mankind; or who makes a mute or a deaf or a seeing or a blind? Is it not I, Yahweh? ¹²And now go! And I shall be with your mouth, and I shall teach you what you will speak."

¹⁴And the nose of Yahweh burned at Moses, and he said, "Is not Aaron, the Levite, your brother? I know that he can speak well. And even more, behold, he is coming to meet you, and he will see you and he will be glad in his heart.

¹⁵And you shall speak to him, and you shall put the words in his mouth. And I am with your mouth and with his mouth, and I will teach you both what you should do. ¹⁶And he will speak to the people for you. So it will be, he will be like a mouth for you, and you will be like God to him. ¹⁷And you shall take in your hand this staff, with which you will do the signs."

¹⁸And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law and he said to him, "Please let me go and let me return to my brothers who are in Egypt and see whether they are still alive."

And Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."

¹⁹And Yahweh said to Moses in Midian, "Go! Return to Egypt! For all the men who were seeking your life are dead."

²⁰And Moses took his wife and his sons and caused them ride on a donkey, and he returned towards the land of Egypt. And Moses took the staff of God in his hand. ²¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "While you are going to return to Egypt, see all the miracles that I put in your hand, and do them before the face of Pharaoh. But as for me, I shall strengthen his heart, and he will not let the people go. ²²And say to Pharaoh, 'Thus says Yahweh: "Israel is my son, my firstborn, ²³and I said to you, 'Let my son go that he may serve me.' But you have refused to let him go. Behold, I shall kill your son, your firstborn.'"

²⁴And it happened on the road, in the lodging-place, that he encountered Yahweh, and he sought to kill him. ²⁵And Zipporah took a flint and she cut off the foreskin of her son, and she touched it to his feet, and she said, "Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me." ²⁶And he relented from him. That was when she said, "bridegroom of blood" because of the circumcision.

²⁷And Yahweh said to Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." And he went, and he met him at the mountain of God, and he kissed him. ²⁸And Moses told Aaron all the words of Yahweh that he had sent him, and all the signs that he commanded him.

²⁹And Moses and Aaron went; and they gathered all of the elders of the sons of Israel. ³⁰And Aaron spoke all of the words that Yahweh had spoken to Moses. And he did the signs before the eyes of the people. ³¹and the people believed. And they heard that Yahweh had attended to the sons of Israel and that he had seen their affliction, and they bowed and prostrated themselves.

Chapter 5

¹And afterward, Moses and Aaron went in and said to Pharaoh, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: 'Let my people go, and they shall celebrate me in the wilderness.'"

²And Pharaoh said, "Who is Yahweh that I should listen to his voice to let Israel go? I do not know Yahweh; and moreover, I shall not let Israel go."

³And they said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please, let us go a journey of three days into the wilderness, and let us sacrifice to Yahweh our God lest he come upon us with the plague or with the sword."

⁵And Pharaoh said, "Behold, the people of the land are now many, and you have caused them to rest from their burdens." ⁶And on that day, Pharaoh ordered the taskmasters among the people and officers, saying, ⁷"Do not continue to give straw to the people to make bricks as yesterday and the day before yesterday. They shall go and gather straw for themselves. ⁸But you shall put on them the quota of the bricks which they were making yesterday and the day before yesterday; do not diminish from it. For they are idle, therefore they are crying, saying, 'Let us go, let us sacrifice to our God.' ⁹Let the slavery be heavy on the men so they shall do it, and shall not gaze at words of lies."

¹⁰And the taskmasters of the people and officers went out and said to the people saying, "Thus says Pharaoh: 'I am not giving straw to you. ¹¹You go and get your own straw from wherever you might find it, for there will be no reducing of things from your slavery.'" ¹²So the people dispersed throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. ¹³Now the taskmasters were hastening them, saying, "Finish your work, the task of day by day, as when there was straw." ¹⁴And the officers of the sons of Israel, whom the taskmasters of Pharaoh had put over them, were beaten, saying, "Why have you not finished your required brick making like yesterday and the day before yesterday, neither yesterday nor today?"

¹⁵And the officers of the sons of Israel came in and cried to Pharaoh, saying, "Why are you doing this to your servants? ¹⁶No straw is being given to your servants. And they are saying to us, 'Make bricks!' And behold, your servants are beaten but it is the sin of your people."

¹⁷And he said, "You are lazy! Lazy! That is why you are saying, 'Let us go sacrifice to Yahweh.' ¹⁸And now go! Work! And straw will not be given to you, but you will give the set amount of bricks."

¹⁹And the officers of the sons of Israel saw themselves in distress regarding the saying, "You shall not reduce the day-by-day task from your bricks." ²⁰And they met Moses and Aaron, who were waiting to meet them when they came out from Pharaoh. ²¹And they said to them, "May Yahweh look on you and judge; for you have caused our scent to stink in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants, to give a sword into their hand to kill us."

²²And Moses went back to Yahweh and said, "My Lord, why have you afflicted this people? Was this why you sent me? ²³And since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has afflicted this people. And you have certainly not rescued your people."

Chapter 6

¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: for by a strong hand he will let them go; and by a strong hand he will drive them out of his land."

²And God spoke to Moses and said to him, "I am Yahweh ³and I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as El Shaddai; but by my name Yahweh I was not known to them. ⁴And moreover, I established my covenant with them, to give to them the land of Canaan, the land of their sojourning, in which they sojourned. ⁵And moreover, I have heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered my covenant.

⁶Therefore, say to the sons of Israel, 'I am Yahweh. And I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rescue you from their slavery. And I will redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments. ⁷And I will take you to myself as a people, and I will be to you as God. And you will know that I am Yahweh your God, the one bringing you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. ⁸And I will bring you to the land that I raised my hand to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. And I will give it to you as a possession. I am Yahweh.'"

⁹And Moses spoke in this way to the sons of Israel, but they did not listen to Moses because of shortness of spirit and because of hard slavery.

¹⁰And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹¹"Go speak to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, that he should let the sons of Israel go from his land."

¹²And Moses spoke before the face of Yahweh, saying, "Behold, the sons of Israel have not listened to me, so how will Pharaoh listen to me? And I have uncircumcised lips."

¹³And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and he gave them a command to the sons of Israel and to Pharaoh, king of Egypt: to bring the sons of Israel out from the land of Egypt.

¹⁴These were the heads of the houses of their fathers:

The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Hanok, and Pallu, Hezron, and Karmi. These were the clans of Reuben.

¹⁵And the sons of Simeon were Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jakin, and Zohar, and Shaul—the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon.

¹⁶And these are the names of the sons of Levi, from their genealogy: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi were 137 years. ¹⁷The sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimei, according to their clans. ¹⁸And the sons of Kohath were Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath were 133 years. ¹⁹And the sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of the Levites, according to their genealogy.

²⁰And Amram took Jochebed, his aunt, as a wife for himself. And she bore him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram were 137 years.

²¹And the sons of Izhar were Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri. ²²And the sons of Uzziel were Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Sithri.

²³And Aaron took Elisheba, the daughter of Amminadab, the sister of Nahshon, as a wife for himself. And she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

²⁶It was Aaron and Moses to whom Yahweh said, "Bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, by their hosts." ²⁷They were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt. It was Moses and Aaron.

²⁸And it happened on a day that Yahweh spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt. ²⁹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, "I am Yahweh. Speak to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, everything that I speak to you."

³⁰But Moses said to the face of Yahweh, "Behold, I have uncircumcised lips so how will Pharaoh listen to me?"

Chapter 7

¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Look, I have made you God to Pharaoh and your brother Aaron will be your prophet.

²You shall say everything that I will command you. And your brother Aaron shall speak to Pharaoh that he should let the sons of Israel go from his land. ³But I will harden the heart of Pharaoh, and I will multiply my signs and my miracles in the land of Egypt. ⁴And Pharaoh will not listen to you, so I will put my hand on Egypt and will bring out my armies, my people, the sons of Israel, from the land of Egypt with great judgments. ⁵And the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh when I stretch out my hand over Egypt to bring the sons of Israel out from their midst."

⁶And Moses and Aaron did, they did just as Yahweh commanded them. ⁷And Moses was a son of 80 years and Aaron was a son of 83 years when they were speaking to Pharaoh.

⁸And Yahweh said to Moses and to Aaron saying, ⁹"For Pharaoh will speak to you, saying, 'Create a miracle yourself,' and you shall say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and throw it down before the face of Pharaoh, let it become a serpent.'"

¹⁴And Yahweh said to Moses, "The heart of Pharaoh is heavy; he has refused to let the people go. ¹⁵Go to Pharaoh. Behold, in the morning he goes out to the water, so station yourself to meet him on the edge of the river. And take in your hand the staff that turned into a snake. ¹⁶And say to him, 'Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you to say, "Let my people go, and they will serve me in the wilderness. And behold, until now, you have not listened." ¹⁷Thus says Yahweh: "By this you will know that I am Yahweh. Behold, I am about to strike against the waters that are in the river with the staff that is in my hand, and they will turn to blood. ¹⁸And the fish that are in the river will die, and the river will stink. And the Egyptians will exhaust themselves to drink water from the river.'"

¹⁹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt; over their streams, over their canals, and over their pools, and over every reservoir of their water, and it will become blood.' And there will be blood in all the land of Egypt, and in containers of wood and in containers of stone."

²⁰And Moses and Aaron did so, just as Yahweh commanded. And he raised the staff, and he struck the water that was in the river, in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants. And all the water that was in the river turned to blood. ²¹And the fish that were in the river died, and the river stank, so the Egyptians were not able to drink water from the river. And the blood was in all the land of Egypt. ²²And the magicians of Egypt did the same with their magic. And the heart of Pharaoh was strong, and he did not listen to them, just as Yahweh had spoken. ²³And Pharaoh turned around and went into his house. And he did not set his heart even to this. ²⁴And all the Egyptians dug water to drink around the river, for they were not able to drink from the waters of the river.

²⁵And seven days were filled after Yahweh struck the river.

¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and you shall say to him, 'Thus says Yahweh: "Let my people go and they shall serve me. ²And if you refuse to let go, behold! I am about to strike all your territory with frogs. ³And frogs will swarm the river. And they will climb, and they will go into your house, and in the room of your bed, and on your bed, and into the house of your servants, and among your people, and in your ovens, and in your bread making bowls, ⁴and the frogs will climb on you, and on your people, and on all your servants.”

⁵And Yahweh said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Reach out your hand with your staff over the canals, over the streams, and over the pools, and cause the frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.’” ⁶And Aaron reached out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frog came up and covered the land of Egypt. ⁷And the magicians did likewise with their magic; and they brought up frogs over the land of Egypt.

⁸And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron and he said, “Pray to Yahweh that he may take away the frogs from me and from my people. And I will let the people go, and they may sacrifice to Yahweh.”

⁹And Moses said to Pharaoh, “Glorify yourself over me: when shall I pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, to cause to cut off the frogs from you and from your houses? They will be left in the river only.”

¹⁰And he said, “Tomorrow.”

And he said, “Just as you say. So that you will know that there is no one like Yahweh, our God. ¹¹And the frogs will withdraw from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people. They will be left in the river only.”

¹²And Moses and Aaron went out from being with Pharaoh. And Moses cried out to Yahweh concerning the matter of the frogs that he had set on Pharaoh. ¹³And Yahweh did according to the word of Moses: and the frogs died off from the houses, from the courts, and from the fields. ¹⁴And they gathered them into many piles, and the land stank. ¹⁵And Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, and he caused his heart to be heavy and he did not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said.

¹⁶And Yahweh said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the ground, and it will become lice in all the land of Egypt.’” ¹⁷And they did so: and Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and he struck the dust of the ground, and it became lice on man and on beast. All the dust of the ground was lice in all the land of Egypt. ¹⁸And the magicians did so with their magic to bring out lice, but they were not able. And there were lice on man and beast.

¹⁹And the magicians said to Pharaoh, “It is the finger of God.” And the heart of Pharaoh was strong, and he did not listen to them, just as Yahweh said.

²⁰And Yahweh said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and station yourself before the face of Pharaoh. Behold, he goes out to the waters. And you shall say to him, ‘Thus says Yahweh: “Let my people go and they will serve me.

²¹Surely if you do not immediately send my people out, behold me! I am about to send the swarm at you, and at your servants, and at your people, and into your houses. And the houses of Egypt will be full of the swarm, and even the ground which they are on. ²²And in that day, I will distinguish the land of Goshen, on which my people dwell, so that the swarm will not be there, in order that you may know that I am Yahweh in the middle of the land.

²³And I will put redemption between my people and between your people. This sign will happen tomorrow.”

²⁴And Yahweh did so, and a heavy swarm came to the house of Pharaoh and the houses of his servants and all the land of Egypt. The land was ruined from the face of the swarm.

²⁵And Pharaoh called to Moses and to Aaron and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God in the land.”

²⁶And Moses said, “It would not be right to do so, because we will sacrifice an abomination of the Egyptians to Yahweh our God. Look, we would sacrifice an abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and would they not stone us? ²⁷We must travel a journey of three days into the wilderness, and we will sacrifice to Yahweh our God, just as he is saying to us.”

²⁸And Pharaoh said, “I will let you go and sacrifice to Yahweh your God in the wilderness; only you may certainly not go very far. Pray for me.”

²⁹And Moses said, "Behold, I am about to go out from with you. And I shall pray to Yahweh, and he will withdraw the swarm from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow. Only may Pharaoh not continue to deceive in order to fail to let the people go to sacrifice to Yahweh." ³⁰And Moses went out from with Pharaoh and prayed to Yahweh. ³¹And Yahweh did according to the word of Moses; and he withdrew the swarm from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. Not one remained. ³²And Pharaoh caused his heart to be heavy at this time also, and he did not let the people go.

Chapter 9

¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh and speak to him: 'Thus says Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews: "Let my people go and they shall serve me. ²Surely if you are unwilling to let go, but are still holding on to them, ³behold! The hand of Yahweh is about to be on your livestock, which are in the field: on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the cattle, and on the flock; an exceedingly heavy plague. ⁴And Yahweh will distinguish between the livestock of Israel and between the livestock of Egypt. And no thing will die from any of the sons of Israel.'"

⁵And Yahweh set an appointment, saying, "Tomorrow Yahweh will do this thing in the land." ⁶And Yahweh did this thing the next day, and all of the livestock of Egypt died. But from the livestock of the sons of Israel not one died.

⁷And Pharaoh sent, and behold, not even one of the livestock of Israel had died. But the heart of Pharaoh was heavy, and he did not let the people go.

⁸And Yahweh said to Moses and to Aaron, "Take to you a fullness of both your hands of ash of a furnace. And Moses shall sprinkle it toward heaven before the eyes of Pharaoh. ⁹And it will become powder over all the land of Egypt. And it will become boils, bursting blisters, on man and on beast in all the land of Egypt." ¹⁰And they took ash of a furnace, and they stood before the face of Pharaoh. And Moses sprinkled it toward the heavens, and it became boils, bursting blisters, on man and on beast. ¹¹And the magicians were not able to stand before the face of Moses because of the face of the boils. Because boils were on the magicians and on all of Egypt. ¹²But Yahweh strengthened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said to Moses.

¹³And Yahweh said to Moses, "Rise early in the morning, and stand before the face of Pharaoh, and say to him, 'Thus says Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews: "Let my people go, and they shall serve me. ¹⁴For this time I am about to send all my plagues to your heart, and on your servants, and on your people, in order that you may know that there is nothing like me in all the earth. ¹⁵For now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with a plague, and you would have been destroyed from the land. ¹⁶However, for this reason I appointed you: in order to show you my power, and in order to proclaim my name in all the earth. ¹⁷You are still exalting yourself against my people by failing to let them go. ¹⁸Behold me! I am about to cause extremely heavy hail to rain tomorrow at this time, which there has never been anything like in Egypt from the day it was founded until now. ¹⁹And now send and bring to safety your livestock and all that is yours in the field; and the hail will come down on every man and beast that is found in the field, and was not gathered to the house, and they will die.'"

²⁰The fearers of the word of Yahweh from the servants of Pharaoh made their slaves and their livestock run to the houses, ²¹but whoever did not set his heart to the word of Yahweh left his slaves and his livestock in the field.

²²And Yahweh said to Moses, "Reach out your hand toward the heavens and there will be hail in all the land of Egypt, on man, and on beast, and on every plant of the field in the land of Egypt."

²³And Moses stretched his staff to the heavens, and Yahweh gave thunder and hail, and fire darted to the land. And Yahweh rained hail on the land of Egypt. ²⁴And there was hail and fire coming in the middle of the very heavy hail such as had never been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. ²⁵And the hail hit everything in the land of Egypt, everything which was in the field, from man to beast. And the hail struck every plant of the field, and it broke every tree of the field. ²⁶Only in the land of Goshen, where the sons of Israel were, there was no hail.

²⁷And Pharaoh sent, and he called for Moses and for Aaron. And he said to them, "I have sinned this time. Yahweh is righteous, and I and my people are guilty. ²⁸Pray to Yahweh, for the thunder of God and hail are too much. And I will let you go, and you will not continue to stay."

²⁹And Moses said to him, "As I leave the city, I will spread my palms to Yahweh. The thunder will cease, and the hail will not continue, so that you may know that the earth belongs to Yahweh. ³⁰But you and your servants, I know that you are not yet afraid of the face of Yahweh God."

³³And Moses left the city from being with Pharaoh, and he spread his palms to Yahweh; and the thunder and hail ceased; and the rain was not poured on the earth. ³⁴And Pharaoh saw that the rain, and hail, and thunder ceased; and he added to his sin, and he caused his heart to be heavy, he and his servants. ³⁵And the heart of Pharaoh was strong, and he did not let the sons of Israel go, just as Yahweh had said by the hand of Moses.

¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, for I have made his heart and the heart of his servants heavy, in order to perform these my signs in his midst, ²and so that you may proclaim in the ears of your son, and the son of your son that I toyed with Egypt, and my signs which I performed among them; and you will know that I am Yahweh."

³And Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and said to him, "Thus says Yahweh, God of the Hebrews: 'Until when will you refuse to be humble from my face? Let my people go, and they will serve me. ⁴For if you refuse to let my people go, behold me, I am about to bring locust within your borders tomorrow. ⁵And it will cover the sight of the land, and none will be able to see the land. And it will devour the remnant of whatever escaped, of whatever is left to you from the hail. And it will devour every tree growing for you from the field. ⁶And they will fill your houses, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians, which your fathers had never seen, nor the fathers of your fathers, from the day they came to be on the earth until this day.'" And he turned around and left from being with Pharaoh.

⁷And the servants of Pharaoh said to him, "Until when will this be a trap to us? Let the men go and they will serve Yahweh their God. Do you not understand yet that Egypt has perished?"

⁸And Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "Go serve Yahweh your God. Who and who shall go?"

⁹And Moses said, "We shall go with our young and with our old. We shall go with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and our herds because the festival of Yahweh is for us."

¹⁰And he said to them, "May Yahweh be with you in the same way as I will let you and your children go. See, for evil is before your faces! ¹¹Not so! You may go, the men, and serve Yahweh, because this is what you are seeking." And he drove them from the face of Pharaoh.

¹²And Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt with the locust, and let it rise up over the land of Egypt; and let it devour all of the plants of the land, everything which the hail had spared."

¹³And Moses reached out his staff over the land of Egypt, and Yahweh drove an east wind over the land all that day and all night. The morning was, and the east wind had brought the locust. ¹⁴And the locust rose up over all the land of Egypt and came to rest everywhere within the borders of Egypt. They were extremely numerous. Never before was there such locust like it, and nothing will be like it after. ¹⁵And it covered the sight of all of the land, and the land was dark. And it devoured all of the plants of the land and all of the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. And not any of the greenery remained, in a tree or in a plant of the field, in all of the land of Egypt.

¹⁶And Pharaoh hurried to call for Moses and for Aaron and said, "I have sinned against Yahweh your God and against you. ¹⁷And now, please bear my sin, just this once, and pray to Yahweh your God and let him take this death only away from me."

¹⁸And he went out from being with Pharaoh, and he prayed to Yahweh. ¹⁹And Yahweh turned a very strong sea wind; and it carried away the locust, and it drove it into the sea of reeds; not one locust remained in all of the territory of Egypt. ²⁰And Yahweh strengthened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not let the sons of Israel go.

²¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the heavens, and let it become dark over the land of Egypt; and darkness will feel." ²²And Moses stretched out his hand above the heavens, and dark darkness was in all of the land of Egypt for three days. ²³No man could see his brother; and no man rose from his place for three days. But for all the sons of Israel, there was light in their dwelling-places.

²⁴And Pharaoh called to Moses, and he said, "Go serve Yahweh. Only, your flocks and your herds must remain behind; however, your children will go with you."

²⁵And Moses said, "Also you, you must give in our hands sacrifices and burnt offerings, and we will do to Yahweh our God. ²⁶And even our livestock shall go with us. Not a hoof shall be left behind, for we shall take from them to serve Yahweh our God. And as for us, we will not know with what we must serve Yahweh until we arrive there."

²⁷And Yahweh strengthened the heart of Pharaoh, and he would not agree to let them go. ²⁸And Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me! Watch yourself; you shall not again see my face; because in the day of your seeing my face, you shall die."

²⁹And Moses said, "Just as you say, I will not ever see your face again."

Chapter 11

¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "One more plague I will bring on Pharaoh and on Egypt. After that he will let you go from here. As soon as he lets go, he will certainly drive you completely away from here. ²Speak now in the ears of the people; and let them ask, a man from his neighbor and a woman from her neighbor, items of silver and items of gold. ³And Yahweh gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians. Furthermore, the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the eyes of the servants of Pharaoh and in the eyes of the people.

⁴And Moses said, "Thus says Yahweh: 'About the middle of the night I will go out in the midst of Egypt, ⁵and every firstborn in the land of Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sits on his throne, to the firstborn of the slave girl who is behind the mill; and every firstborn of a beast. ⁶And there will be a great cry in all the land of Egypt, which nothing like it has ever happened, and nothing like it will happen again. ⁷But to each of the sons of Israel, a dog will not sharpen his tongue, from man to beast; so that you will know that Yahweh distinguishes between Egypt and between Israel.' ⁸And all your servants, these will come down to me and they will bow to me, saying, 'Go, you and all the people who are at your feet!' And after that I will go out." And he went out from Pharaoh with burning of the nose.

⁹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Pharaoh will not listen to you, in order to multiply my miracles in the land of Egypt."

¹⁰And Moses and Aaron did all these miracles before the face of Pharaoh. But Yahweh strengthened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not let the sons of Israel go from his land.

Chapter 12

¹And Yahweh said to Moses and to Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, ²“This month is to you the head of the months. It is the first to you of the months of the year. ³Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, ‘On the tenth of this month they shall take to themselves, each man, a lamb to the house of the fathers: a lamb to a house. ⁴And if the household is too few for having a lamb, then he and his neighbor near to his house by the number of people shall take the lamb; according to the eating of the mouth of each man you shall calculate it. ⁵Your lamb shall be complete, male, the son of a year. You may take from the sheep or from the goats. ⁶And it shall be to you to reserve until the fourteenth day of this month. And all the assembly of the congregation of Israel shall slaughter it between the evenings. ⁷And they shall take from the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. ⁸And they shall eat the flesh that night, roast of fire; and they shall eat unleavened bread over bitter herbs. ⁹You shall not eat from it raw or boiled from boiling in water. But instead, roasted of fire, its head with its legs and with its internal organs. ¹⁰And you shall not cause to remain anything from it until morning; and you shall burn in the fire what remains from it until morning. ¹¹And this is how you shall eat it: belts fastened on your waist, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it with haste. It is the Passover to Yahweh.

¹⁴And this day shall become a memorial for you; and you shall celebrate it as a festival to Yahweh; for your generations—a statute you shall celebrate forever. ¹⁵You shall eat unleavened bread for seven days. Yes—on the first day you shall remove yeast from your houses, because anyone who eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel. ¹⁶And on the first day an assembly of holiness and on the seventh day an assembly of holiness shall be for you. All work shall not be done in these, except what each person eats, that alone may be done by you.

¹⁷And you shall keep the Unleavened Bread, because on this very day I will have brought out your hosts from the land of Egypt. And you shall keep this day throughout your generations, a statute forever. ¹⁸In the first month, on the fourteenth day in the evening you shall eat unleavened bread until the twenty-first day of the month in the evening. ¹⁹For seven days, no yeast shall be found in your houses. Because anyone who eats yeasted bread, that person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel—among the sojourner or among the native of the land. ²⁰You shall not eat any yeast. In all of your dwelling places, you shall eat unleavened bread.”

²¹And Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and he said to them, “Proceed and take a lamb for yourself, according to your families, and slaughter the Passover. ²²And you shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin and apply to the lintel and to both the doorposts from the blood that is in the basin. And you, not a man shall go out from the door of his house until morning. ²³And Yahweh will pass through to strike the Egyptians. And he will see the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, and Yahweh will pass over the door and will not permit the causer of destruction to enter into your houses to strike.

²⁴And you shall keep this thing as a statute for you and for your sons until eternity. ²⁵And so it will happen, as you enter into the land that Yahweh will give to you, just as he said, then you shall keep this service. ²⁶And it will happen, when your sons are saying to you, ‘What is this service to you?’ ²⁷then you shall say, ‘It is the sacrifice of Passover to Yahweh, who passed over the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt in striking the Egyptians. And he rescued our households.’” And the people bowed their heads and prostrated themselves. ²⁸And the sons of Israel went and did; as Yahweh had commanded Moses and Aaron so they did.

²⁹And so it happened, in the middle of the night, and Yahweh struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh sitting on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the house of the pit, and all the firstborn of beasts. ³⁰And Pharaoh got up in the night—he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians. And there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not someone dead.

³¹And he called for Moses and for Aaron in the night and said, “Get up, get out from among my people, both you and also the sons of Israel. And go, serve Yahweh, as you have said. ³²Also take your flocks, also your herds as you have said; and go, and also bless me.”

³³And the Egyptians strengthened the people, hurrying to let them go from the land, for they said, “We are all dying.” ³⁴And the people carried his dough before it developed leaven. Their bread-making bowls were wrapped in their clothes on their shoulders. ³⁵And the sons of Israel did according to the word of Moses. And they asked from the Egyptians items of silver and items of gold and clothing. ³⁶And Yahweh gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians. And they made the request, and they plundered the Egyptians.

⁴⁰And the residence of the sons of Israel, during which they resided in Egypt, was 430 years. ⁴¹And so it was, at the end of 430 years, it was on that very day all of the hosts of Yahweh went out from the land of Egypt. ⁴²It was a night of observing for Yahweh to bring them out from the land of Egypt. This night, it is for all the sons of Israel to observe for Yahweh throughout their generations.

⁴³And Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, “This is the statute of the Passover: Any son of foreignness shall not eat it. ⁴⁴But any slave of a man, a purchase of silver, if you circumcised him, then he may eat it. ⁴⁵An outsider or a hireling shall not eat it. ⁴⁶It shall be eaten in one house. You shall not bring from the house from the flesh to the outside, and you shall not break its bone. ⁴⁷All the congregation of Israel shall do it.

⁴⁸And if a sojourner is sojourning with you, and keeps the Passover to Yahweh, all his males shall be circumcised. And then he may draw near to keep it, and he will become like a native of the land. And any uncircumcised person shall not eat it. ⁴⁹One law shall be for the native and for the sojourner sojourning among you.”

⁵⁰And all of the sons of Israel did—just as Yahweh commanded Moses and Aaron—so they did. ⁵¹And so it was, in that very day, Yahweh brought the sons of Israel out from the land of Egypt by their hosts.

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Set apart to me all the firstborn, openers of every womb among the sons of Israel, among man and among beast, he is mine.”

³And Moses said to the people, “Remember this day, that you went out from Egypt, from the house of slavery; because by a strong hand Yahweh brought you out from here. And no yeast may be eaten. ⁴Today you are going out, in the month of Aviv. ⁵And it will be that Yahweh will bring you to the land of the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite; which he swore to your fathers to give to you, a land flowing with milk and honey— and you shall serve this service in this month. ⁶Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread; and on the seventh day {there shall be} a festival to Yahweh. ⁷Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days; and leavened bread may not be seen among you. And yeast may not be seen among you within any of your borders.

⁸And you shall tell your son on that day, saying, ‘This is because of what Yahweh did for me when I came out from Egypt.’ ⁹And it shall be a sign for you on your hand, and a memorial between your eyes, so that the law of Yahweh may be in your mouth, for with a strong hand Yahweh brought you out from Egypt. ¹⁰And you shall keep this statute at its appointed time from days to days.

¹¹And it will be, when Yahweh brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to you and to your fathers, and he gives it to you, ¹²then cause to pass over to Yahweh all the openers of the womb; and all the openers of the litter of beasts that are yours. The males are for Yahweh. ¹³And every opener of a donkey you shall ransom with a lamb. And if you do not ransom it, then you shall break his neck. And all the firstborn of men among your sons, you shall ransom.

¹⁴And so it will be, when your son asks you later saying, 'What is this?' then you shall say to him, 'With a strong hand Yahweh brought us out from Egypt, from the house of slaves.' ¹⁵And so it was, that when Pharaoh was hard to let us go, then Yahweh struck all of the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of man and to the firstborn of beast. That is why I sacrifice to Yahweh all the openers of the womb—the males—and I ransom all of the firstborn of my sons.' ¹⁶And it shall be a sign on your hand and a headband between your eyes, for with a strong hand Yahweh brought us out from Egypt."

¹⁷And so it was, when Pharaoh let the people go, that God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although it was nearby. For God said, "Lest the people repent when they see war and return to Egypt." ¹⁸And God caused the people to turn to the way of the wilderness, to the sea of reeds. And the sons of Israel went up from the land of Egypt by fives.

¹⁹And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had certainly caused the sons of Israel to vow, saying, "God will certainly attend to you, and you shall bring my bones up with you from here."

²⁰And they journeyed from Succoth, and they camped at Etham on the edge of the wilderness. ²¹And Yahweh went before their faces by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them on the way; and by night in a pillar of fire to be light to them, to go by day or by night. ²²He did not withdraw the daytime pillar of cloud or the nighttime pillar of fire from the face of the people.

Chapter 14

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²"Say to the sons of Israel that they should turn and camp before the face of Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, before the face of Baal Zephon. You are to camp by the sea opposite it.

³And Pharaoh will say about the sons of Israel, 'They are confused in the land. The wilderness has closed in on them.' ⁴And I will strengthen the heart of Pharaoh, and he will pursue after them. And I will be glorified because of Pharaoh and because of all his army. And the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh." And they did so.

⁵And the king of Egypt was told that the people fled, and the heart of Pharaoh and his servants was turned to the people. And they said, "What is this we did that we released Israel from our slavery?" ⁶And he hitched his chariot and took his people with him. ⁷And he took 600 chosen chariots, and all of the chariots of Egypt, and third men were on all of them. ⁸And Yahweh strengthened the heart of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he pursued after the sons of Israel; and the sons of Israel were going out with a high hand. ⁹And the Egyptians pursued after them. And all of the horses of the chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army overtook them camping above the sea; above Pi Hahiroth before the face of Baal Zephon.

¹⁰And Pharaoh approached, and the sons of Israel lifted their eyes and, behold! the Egyptians started after them, and they were extremely afraid. And the sons of Israel cried to Yahweh. ¹¹And they said to Moses, "Is it because there were not any graves in Egypt, that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What is this you have done to us, to bring us out from Egypt? ¹²Is this not the word that we spoke to you in Egypt saying, 'Cease from us and let us serve the Egyptians'? Because serving the Egyptians is better to us than dying in the wilderness."

¹³And Moses said to the people, "You must not fear! Stand still and see the salvation of Yahweh, that he will do for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today you will not repeat seeing again until eternity. ¹⁴Yahweh himself will fight for you. As for you, you will be silent."

¹⁵And Yahweh said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to me? Speak to the sons of Israel and let them start moving. ¹⁶As for you—raise your staff and reach out your hand over the sea and split it. And the sons of Israel will enter into the midst of the sea on dry ground. ¹⁷And behold me: I will strengthen the heart of the Egyptians, and they will enter after them. And I will be glorified because of Pharaoh and because of all his army, because of his chariots, and because of his horsemen. ¹⁸And the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh when I am glorified because of Pharaoh, because of his chariots, and because of his horsemen."

¹⁹And the angel of God moved, who traveled before the face of the camp of Israel and went behind them. And the pillar of cloud moved from before their face and stood behind them. ²⁰And it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. And it became a cloud, and darkness, and it lit up the night, and one did not come near to the other all night. ²¹And Moses reached out his hand over the sea. And Yahweh drove the sea by a strong east wind all night and made the sea into dry land. And the waters were divided. ²²And the sons of Israel entered the middle of the sea on dry ground. And the waters were a wall for them on their right and on their left.

²³And the Egyptians pursued, and entered after them—every horse of Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen—into the middle of the sea. ²⁴And so it was, in the watch of the morning, Yahweh looked down on the camp of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and cloud. And he confused the camp of the Egyptians. ²⁵And he caused the wheels of their chariots to turn aside and caused them to drive heavily. And the Egyptians said, "Let us run from the face of Israel, for Yahweh is fighting for them against Egypt."

²⁶And Yahweh said to Moses, "Reach out your hand over the sea, and the waters will return on the Egyptians, on his chariots, and on his horsemen." ²⁷And Moses reached out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned before the face of the morning to its normal place. And the Egyptians fled before its impact; and Yahweh shook off the Egyptians in the middle of the sea. ²⁸And the waters returned, and they covered the chariots and the horsemen, even the entire army of Pharaoh that entered after them into the sea. Not even one of them remained.

²⁹And the sons of Israel walked on dry land in the middle of the sea. And the waters were a wall for them on their right and on their left. ³⁰And Yahweh saved Israel that day from the hand of Egypt, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the shore of the sea. ³¹And Israel saw the great hand that Yahweh used against the Egyptians, and the people feared Yahweh, and they believed in Yahweh, and in his servant Moses.

Chapter 15

¹Then Moses and the sons of Israel sang this song to Yahweh. And they said, saying,

"Let me sing to Yahweh, for he has triumphantly triumphed;

the horse and the one riding it he threw into the sea.

²Yah is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.

This is my God, and I will glorify him,

the God of my father, and I will exalt him.

³Yahweh is a man of war;

Yahweh is his name.

⁴He threw the chariots of Pharaoh and his army into the sea.

And his chosen officers sank in the sea of reeds.

⁵The deeps cover them;

they descended into the depths like a stone.

⁶Your right hand, Yahweh, is majestic in power;

your right hand, Yahweh, shatters the enemy.

⁷And in the abundance of your majesty you overthrow those who rise up against you.

You send out your heat, it devours them like stubble.

⁸And by the breath of your nostrils the waters were piled up;

the flowing waters were stood upright like a heap;

the deeps thickened in the heart of the sea.

⁹The enemy said,

'I will pursue,

I will overtake,

I will share out the plunder;

my soul will be satisfied in them,

I will empty my sword,

my hand will dispossess them.'

¹⁰You blew with your wind; the sea covered them;

they sank like lead in the majestic waters.

¹¹Who is like you among the gods Yahweh?

Who is like you, majestic in holiness, feared in praises, doing miracles?

¹²You reached out your right hand, and the earth swallows them.

¹³In your covenant faithfulness, you led this people you redeemed.

In your strength, you guided them to the home of your holiness.

¹⁴The peoples heard: they shake;

anguish seized the inhabitants of Philistia.

¹⁵Then the chiefs of Edom panicked; trembling seizes the leaders of Moab;

all the inhabitants of Canaan melted away.

¹⁶Terror and dread fall on them.

By the greatness of your arm, they are still as a stone until your people pass by, Yahweh—until this people you acquired pass by.

¹⁷You will bring them, and you will plant them on the mountain of your possession, the place, Yahweh, that you made for your dwelling, the holy place, my Lord, that your hands built.

¹⁸Yahweh will reign forever and ever.”

²²And Moses caused Israel to set out from the sea of reeds. And they went out into the wilderness of Shur. And they traveled for three days into the wilderness, and they found no water. ²³And they came to Marah, and they were not able to drink the waters of Marah because they were bitter. So he called its name Marah. ²⁴And the people murmured against Moses saying, “What can we drink?” ²⁵And he cried out to Yahweh, and Yahweh showed him a tree. And he threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There he gave him a statute and an ordinance, and there he tested him. ²⁶And he said, “If you carefully listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, and you do what is right in his eyes, and you give ear to his commands and you keep all of his laws, all of the diseases that I put on the Egyptians I shall not put on you, for I am Yahweh your healer.”

²⁷And they came to Elim, and there there was 12 springs of water and 70 palm trees. And they camped there by the water.

Chapter 16

¹And they journeyed on from Elim, and all of the congregation of the sons of Israel entered into the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departure from the land of Egypt. ²And all the congregation of the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness. ³And the sons of Israel said to them, “If only we had died by the hand of Yahweh in the land of Egypt, sitting by a pot of meat, eating bread to the full. For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

⁶And Moses and Aaron said to all of the sons of Israel, “At evening you will know that Yahweh brought you out from the land of Egypt. ⁷In the morning you will see the glory of Yahweh in his hearing your murmurings against Yahweh. And who are we that you murmur against us?” ⁸And Moses said, “So Yahweh gives you meat to eat in the evening and bread in the morning to satiation; Yahweh is hearing your murmurings that you murmur against him. And what are we? Not against us is your mumuring, but against Yahweh.”

⁹And Moses said to Aaron, "Say to all of the congregation of the sons of Israel, 'Approach the face of Yahweh, for he has heard your murmurings.'" ¹⁰And so it was, as Aaron spoke to all of the congregation of the sons of Israel, that they turned toward the wilderness, and behold! the glory of Yahweh appeared in the cloud!

¹¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹²"I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel. Speak to them saying, 'Between the evenings you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be satisfied with bread. And you will know that I am Yahweh your God.'"

¹³And so it was, in the evening quail came up and covered the camp. And in the morning the dew was lying round about the camp. ¹⁴And the lying dew went up; and behold! on the face of the wilderness were thin flakes, thin like frost on the ground. ¹⁵And the sons of Israel saw it, and they said each man to his brother, "What is it?" Because they did not know what it was.

And Moses said to them, "It is the bread that Yahweh has given you to eat. ¹⁶This is the thing that Yahweh has commanded: 'Gather from it each according to the mouths of his eating; an omer for each person up to the number of your people, each shall take for those in his tent.'" ¹⁷And the sons of Israel did so. And they gathered much, or little, ¹⁸and they measured it by omer. And there was no extra for those with much, and no lack for those with little. Each man gathered according to what he needed to eat.

¹⁹And Moses said to them, "No one shall save any of it until morning." ²⁰But they did not listen to Moses. And men reserved some of it until morning, and it bred worms, and it stank. And Moses became angry with them. ²¹And they gathered it morning by morning, each man according to the mouths of his eating. And the sun became hot, and it melted.

²²And so it was, on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each person. And all the leaders of the community came and told Moses. ²³And he said to them, "This is what Yahweh spoke: 'Tomorrow is a rest, a holy Sabbath to Yahweh. What you are baking-bake! and what you are cooking-cook! And all of the leftovers cause to rest, for preservation for yourselves until morning.'"

²⁴And they left it until morning, as Moses had instructed. And it did not become foul, and no worms were in it.

²⁵And Moses said, "Eat it today, for it is Sabbath, a day for Yahweh, a day you will not find it in the fields. ²⁶You shall gather it for six days, and on the seventh day, Sabbath, there will be none of it."

²⁷And so it was, on the seventh day, some of the people went out to gather, but they found none. ²⁸And Yahweh said to Moses, "Until what time will you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws? ²⁹Look! For Yahweh has given you the Sabbath. So on the sixth day he is giving you bread for two days. Each one stay where he is; a man shall not be going out from his place on the seventh day." ³⁰And the people rested on the seventh day.

³¹And the house of Israel called its name "manna." And it was like coriander seed, white, and its taste was like wafers with honey. ³²And Moses said, "This is the procedure that Yahweh has commanded: 'A full omer of it for preservation for your descendants so that they can see the bread which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out from the land of Egypt.'"

³³And Moses said to Aaron, "Take one pot and put there a full omer of manna. Put it before the face of Yahweh, for preservation for your descendants." ³⁴Just as Yahweh commanded to Moses, so Aaron put it before the face of the Covenant, for preservation. ³⁵And the sons of Israel ate manna forty years, until they came to inhabited land. They ate manna until they came to the borders of the land of Canaan. ³⁶(And an omer, it is a tenth of an ephah.)

Chapter 17

¹And all the community of the sons of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, journeying at the mouth of Yahweh. And they camped at Rephidim, and there was no water for the people to drink. ²And the people quarreled with Moses and they said, "Give us water to drink."

And Moses said to them, "Why are you quarreling with me? Why do you test Yahweh?"

³And the people were thirsty for water there, and the people murmured against Moses. And he said, "Is this why you brought us up from Egypt? To kill me, and my sons, and my cattle, with thirst?"

⁴And Moses cried out to Yahweh, saying, "What should I do for this people? A little longer and they will stone me."

⁵And Yahweh said to Moses, "Pass before the face of the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel, and your staff, the one with which you struck the river, take in your hand; and go. ⁶Behold me! I will stand before your face there on the rock at Horeb, and you will strike on the rock. And water will come from it, and the people will drink." And Moses did so in the eyes of the elders of Israel. ⁷And he called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, for the conflict of the sons of Israel, and for their testing of Yahweh by saying, "Is Yahweh among us or not?"

⁸And Amalek came and fought with Israel at Rephidim. ⁹And Moses said to Joshua, "Choose men for us and go out. Fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will be stationed on top of the hill, and the staff of God will be in my hand." ¹⁰And Joshua did as Moses said to him, to fight Amalek.

And Moses, Aaron, and Hur climbed up to the top of the hill. ¹¹And so it was, when Moses raised his hand, then Israel would be winning; and when he set his hand down, then Amalek would be winning. ¹²And the hands of Moses became heavy; and they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. And Aaron and Hur held his hands up, one from this, and one from that. And so his hands were steady until the sun went down. ¹³And Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

¹⁴And Yahweh said to Moses, "Write this memory in the book and put it in the ears of Joshua, because I will certainly blot out the memory of Amalek from under the skies." ¹⁵And Moses built an altar and he called its name "Yahweh is my banner." ¹⁶And he said, "Because a hand was against the throne of Yah, war is to Yahweh against Amalek from generation to generation."

Chapter 18

¹And Jethro, the priest of Midian, father-in-law of Moses, heard all that God had done for Moses and for Israel his people; that Yahweh brought Israel out from Egypt. ²And Jethro, father-in-law of Moses, took Zipporah, wife of Moses, after he had sent her back, ³and her two sons; one of whose names was Gershom, for he had said, "I have been a sojourner in a foreign land." ⁴And the name of the other was Eliezer, for "The God of my father was my helper. And he rescued me from the sword of Pharaoh."

⁵And Jethro, the father-in-law of Moses, came, and his sons and his wife, to Moses, to the wilderness where he was camping, at the mountain of God. ⁶And he said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you, and your wife, and her two sons with her." ⁷And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and he bowed down and kissed him. And they asked, each man his friend, of their welfare, and they went into the tent. ⁸And Moses related to his father-in-law all that Yahweh had done to Pharaoh and to Egypt on account of Israel, all the hardship that found them along the way, and of Yahweh rescuing them.

⁹And Jethro rejoiced over all the good that Yahweh had done for Israel, whom he rescued from the hand of Egypt. ¹⁰And Jethro said, "Bless Yahweh, who rescued you out of the hand of Egypt and out of the hand of Pharaoh; who rescued the people from under the hand of Egypt. ¹¹Now I know that Yahweh is greater than all the gods, because of the matter which they were arrogant against them." ¹²And Jethro, the father-in-law of Moses, took a burnt offering and sacrifices to God. And Aaron came, and all of the elders of Israel, to eat bread before the face of God with the father-in-law of Moses.

¹³And so it happened the next day, that Moses sat down to judge the people. And the people stood around Moses from morning until evening. ¹⁴And the father-in-law of Moses was watching all that he did for the people, and he said, "What is this thing that you are doing with the people? For what purpose do you sit alone, and all the people position themselves next to you from morning until evening?"

¹⁵And Moses said to his father-in-law that, "The people come to me to inquire of God. ¹⁶When a situation comes up among them, someone comes to me. And I judge between a man and his associate, and I help them understand the statutes of God and his laws."

¹⁷And the father-in-law of Moses said to him, "The thing which you are doing is not good. ¹⁸You will certainly wear yourself out, both you and also these people who are with you, because the thing is too heavy for you. You are not able to do it alone. ¹⁹Now, listen to my voice. I will advise you, and God will be with you. You be before God for the people, and you should bring their disputes to God yourself. ²⁰And you should teach them the statutes and the laws. And you should cause them to know the way they should walk in and the work that they should do. ²¹And you yourself should search out from all of the people men of ability, fearers of God, men of faithfulness, haters of dishonest profit. And you should appoint over them: leaders of thousands, leaders of hundreds, leaders of fifties, and leaders of tens. ²²And they will judge the people at all times. And so it will be, every great situation they will bring to you, and every small situation they will judge themselves. And lighten from on you! And they will carry alongside you. ²³If you do this thing, and God instructs you, then you will be able to endure; and furthermore, all of this people will go to its place in peace."

²⁴And Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law and did everything that he had said. ²⁵And Moses chose men of ability from all Israel, and he appointed them heads over the people, leaders of thousands, leaders of hundreds, leaders of fifties, and leaders of tens. ²⁶And they judged the people at all times. They brought the difficult situations to Moses, and they judged each small situation themselves.

²⁷And Moses let his father-in-law go, and he went into his own land.

¹In the third month from the people of Israel exiting the land of Egypt, on the same day, they entered the wilderness of Sinai. ²And they departed from Rephidim; and they entered the wilderness of Sinai, and they camped in the wilderness. And Israel camped there in front of the mountain.

³And Moses went up to God, and Yahweh called to him from the mountain saying, "Thus you shall speak to the house of Jacob, and you shall tell the sons of Israel: ⁴You yourselves saw what I did to the Egyptians, how I carried you on the wings of eagles and brought you to myself. ⁵And now, if you listen intently to my voice; and keep my covenant; then you will be my possession from among all peoples. For all the earth is mine ⁶and you yourselves will be my kingdom of priests and holy nation.' These are the words that you shall speak to the sons of Israel."

⁷And Moses came and summoned the elders of the people. And he set before their faces all these words that Yahweh had commanded him. ⁸And all the people responded together and they said, "We will do everything that Yahweh has said." And Moses brought the words of the people back to Yahweh.

⁹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Look, I will come to you in a thick cloud so that the people may hear when I speak with you and may also trust in you forever." And Moses told the words of the people to Yahweh.

¹⁰And Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to the people and make them holy today and tomorrow; and have them wash their clothing. ¹¹So they will be prepared for the third day; for on the third day Yahweh will come down to Mount Sinai before the eyes of all the people. ¹²And you shall set boundaries for the people all around, saying, 'Watch yourselves climbing on the mountain or touching on its edge. Every mountain toucher shall certainly be killed.

¹³No hand shall touch that one. Instead, he shall be stoned or he shall be shot. Whether animal or human, he shall not live.' At the prolonged sound of the horn, they shall ascend on the mountain."

¹⁴And Moses went down from the mountain to the people. And he made the people holy, and they washed their clothing. ¹⁵And he said to the people, "Be prepared by the third day; you shall not come near to a woman."

¹⁶And it happened on the third day, when it was the morning, there were thunder and lightning and a heavy cloud on the mountain, and an extremely strong horn sound. And all the people who were in the camp were trembling.

²⁰And Yahweh descended on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain, and Yahweh called Moses to the top of the mountain. And Moses ascended. ²¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Go down and warn the people lest they break through to Yahweh to see and many from them fall. ²²And furthermore, the priests, the ones who come near to Yahweh, they shall make themselves holy lest Yahweh bursts out against them."

²³And Moses said to Yahweh, "The people are not able to come up on Mount Sinai, for you yourself warned us, saying: 'Set boundaries on the mountain and set it apart.'"

²⁴And Yahweh said to him, "Go, climb down. And you shall come back up, you and Aaron with you; and the priests and the people shall not break through to come up to Yahweh, lest he burst out against them." ²⁵And Moses went down to the people and he spoke to them.

Chapter 20

¹God spoke all these words saying: ²"I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery. ³There shall not be to you other gods above my face.

⁸Remember the Sabbath day, to set it apart to me. ⁹Six days you may labor and do all your work, ¹⁰but the seventh day is a Sabbath for Yahweh your God. You shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter; your male servant, or your female servant; or your cattle, or the foreigner who is within your gates. ¹¹For in six days Yahweh made the heavens and earth, the sea, and everything that is in them, and rested on the seventh day. Therefore Yahweh blessed the Sabbath day and set it apart.

¹²Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long on the land that Yahweh your God is giving you.

¹³You shall not murder.

¹⁴You shall not commit adultery.

¹⁵You shall not steal.

¹⁶You shall not testify false testimony against your neighbor.

¹⁸All the people were seeing the thundering and the lightning and the sound of the horn and the mountain smoking. And the people saw it, and they trembled, and they stood from a distance. ¹⁹They said to Moses, "You speak to us and let us listen! But do not let God speak to us lest we die."

²⁰And Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid, for God has come to test you so that the fear of him may be on your faces, and so that you do not sin."

²¹So the people stood far off, and Moses approached toward the thick darkness where God was.

²²And Yahweh said to Moses, "You shall speak thus to the sons of Israel: 'You yourselves have seen that I have talked with you from heaven. ²³You shall not make alongside me—you shall not make gods of silver or gods of gold for yourselves. ²⁴You shall make an altar of earth for me, and you shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings, and peace offerings, sheep, and oxen. In every place where I cause my name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you. ²⁵And if you make me an altar of stones, you shall not build them of cut stones, for causing your tool to move over it will defile it. ²⁶And you shall not go up to my altar on steps, so that your nakedness is not exposed over it.'

Chapter 21

¹And these are the ordinances that you shall set before their faces:

²If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve for six years, and in the seventh year he shall go free without paying anything. ³If he came by himself, he shall go free by himself; if he is the husband of a wife, then his wife shall go free with him. ⁴If his master gave him a wife and she bore him sons or daughters, the wife and her children are her master's, and he must go out by himself. ⁵But if the servant plainly says, "I love my master, my wife, and my children; I shall not go out free," ⁶then his master shall bring him to God. He shall bring him to a door or to a doorpost, and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl. Then he shall serve him forever.

⁷And if a man sells his daughter as a female servant, she shall not go out as the male servants go out. ⁸If she is bad in the eyes of her master, who has appointed her for himself, then he shall cause her to be ransomed. He has no authority to sell her to a foreign people, since he has acted treacherously with her. ⁹And if he appoints her for his son, he shall act toward her according to the custom of daughters. ¹⁰If he takes another to himself, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, or her marital rights. ¹¹But if he does not provide these three things to her, then she can go free without silver.

¹²Whoever strikes a man and he dies, he shall surely be put to death; ¹³but if he did not lie in wait, but God let it happen by his hand, then I will appoint a place for you where he can flee. ¹⁴If a man willfully acts against his neighbor to kill him with cunning, then you shall take him from my altar for execution.

¹⁵Whoever hits his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

¹⁶Whoever steals a man—whether he sells him, or he is found in his hand—he shall surely be put to death.

¹⁷Whoever acts contemptuously towards his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

¹⁸If men fight and a man hits his neighbor with a stone or with his fist, and he does not die but falls to bed; ¹⁹if he rises and walks about in the outdoors on his staff, then the striker is free. He only shall pay for his sitting and for his complete healing.

²⁰And if a man hits his male servant or his female servant with a staff and he dies under his hand, he shall certainly be avenged. ²¹However, if he stands a day or two, he shall not be avenged, for he is his silver.

²²And if men fight together and strike a pregnant woman and her children come out, but there is no serious injury, then he shall surely be fined as the husband of the woman puts on him, and he shall give according to the judges.

²³But if there is serious injury, then you shall give a life for a life, ²⁴an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot, ²⁵a burn for a burn, a wound for a wound, or a bruise for a bruise.

²⁶And if a man hits the eye of his male servant or the eye of his female servant and destroys it, he shall let him go free in compensation for his eye. ²⁷And if he knocks out a tooth of his male servant or a tooth of his female servant, he shall let him go free as compensation for the tooth.

²⁸And if an ox gores a man or a woman and he dies, the ox shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox is innocent. ²⁹But if the ox had a habit of goring in the past, and its owner was warned but did not keep it in, and it kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and its owner also shall be put to death.

³⁰If a ransom is imposed on him, he shall give the ransom of his life, according to all that is imposed on him. ³¹If it gores a son or it gores a daughter, it shall be done to him according to this ordinance. ³²If the ox gores a male servant or a female servant, he shall give thirty silver shekels to the master, and the ox shall be stoned.

³³And if a man opens a cistern, or if a man digs a cistern and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls there, ³⁴the owner of the pit shall compensate. He shall cause silver to return to its owner, and the dead animal shall become his.

³⁵And if the ox of a man strikes the ox of another and it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide its silver, and they shall also divide the dead ox. ³⁶If it was known that the ox had a habit of goring in the past, and its owner has not kept it in, he shall surely compensate ox for ox, and the dead animal shall become his own.

¹If a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he shall compensate five cattle for the ox, and four sheep for the sheep.

²If a thief is found while breaking in, and he is struck and he dies, there is no blood-guilt for him. ³But if the sun has risen on him, there is blood-guilt for him. must shall restitution. If he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. ⁴If the stolen thing is actually found alive in his hand, from an ox, to a donkey, to a sheep, he shall compensate double.

⁵If a man causes his livestock to graze a field or vineyard and lets it go, and it grazes in the field of another, he shall compensate from the best of his field and from the best of his vineyard.

⁶If a fire breaks out and spreads in thorns and stacked grain or the standing grain or a field is consumed, the fire starter shall surely compensate.

⁷If a man gives silver or goods to his neighbor for safe keeping, and if it is stolen from the house of the man, if the thief is found he shall compensate double. ⁸If the thief is not found, then the owner of the house shall be brought to God, whether or not he has stretched out his hand against the property of his neighbor. ⁹Concerning every matter of transgression, concerning an ox, concerning a donkey, concerning a sheep, concerning clothing, concerning every lost property about which someone says, "Surely this is it," the matter of both parties shall come to God. Whomever God declares guilty shall compensate his neighbor double.

¹⁰If a man gives to his neighbor a donkey, or an ox, or a sheep, or any animal to keep, and it dies or is hurt or is carried away without a witness, ¹¹there shall be an oath of Yahweh between both of them, whether or not he stretched out his hand against the property of his neighbor. Its owner must accept, and he shall not compensate.

¹²But if it was truly stolen from him, he shall compensate its owner. ¹³If it was truly torn, he shall bring it as evidence. He shall not compensate for what was torn.

¹⁴If a man borrows from his neighbor and it is injured or dies without the owner with it, he shall surely compensate. ¹⁵If its owner was with it, he shall not compensate; if it was for hire, it came for its hiring fee.

¹⁶If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged, and if he lies with her, he shall surely pay her bride price to make her his wife. ¹⁷If her father completely refuses to give her to him, he shall weigh out silver equal to the bride price of virgins.

¹⁸You shall not allow a sorceress to live.

¹⁹Any liar with an animal shall surely be put to death.

²⁰A sacrificer to the gods except to Yahweh alone shall be completely destroyed.

²¹You shall not wrong a sojourner and you shall not oppress him, for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt.

²²You shall not afflict any widow or fatherless child. ²³If you actually afflict them, and if they actually cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry; ²⁴and my nose will burn, and I will kill you with the sword; your wives will become widows, and your sons will become fatherless.

²⁵If you lend silver to my people, the poor with you, you shall not be like a creditor to him—you shall not put interest on him. ²⁶If you actually take the clothing of your neighbor in pledge, you shall return it to him before the sun goes down, ²⁷for it is his only covering; it is his clothing for his skin. In what will he lie down? And it will be when he cries to me, that I will hear him, for I am gracious.

²⁸You shall not act contemptuously towards God, and you shall not curse a ruler of your people. ²⁹You shall not hold back from your full harvest or your presses.

You shall give the firstborn of your sons to me. ³⁰You shall do the same to your ox and to your sheep. Seven days it will be with its mother, on the eighth day you shall give it to me.

³¹And you shall be men of holiness to me. And you shall not eat animal-torn-in-the-field meat. You shall throw it to the dogs.

Chapter 23

¹You shall not take up a report of emptiness. You shall not put your hand with the wicked to be a witness of violence. ²You shall not follow a crowd into evil, nor shall you testify on legal matters to turn aside behind the crowd that turns aside. ³And you shall not favor the poor in his lawsuit.

⁴If you meet the ox of your enemy or his donkey going astray, you shall certainly bring it back to him. ⁵If you see the donkey of someone who hates you fallen to the ground under its load, you shall refrain from leaving him. You shall surely release it with him.

⁶You shall not turn aside justice for your poor in his lawsuit. ⁷You shall be far from a word of deception, and you shall not kill the innocent or righteous, for I will not justify the wicked. ⁸And you shall not take a bribe, for the bribe blinds the clear-sighted, and it perverts the words of the righteous.

⁹And you shall not oppress a foreigner, since you yourself know the soul of the foreigner, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

¹⁰And six years you shall sow your land and gather its produce. ¹¹But the seventh you shall let it drop and leave it alone, and the poor of your people shall eat. And the living things of the field shall eat the remainder. You shall do thus to your vineyard and to your olive orchard.

¹²Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest so that your ox and your donkey may rest and the son of your female slave and the sojourner may be refreshed.

¹³You shall take heed to everything that I have said to you. You shall not mention the names of other gods, nor let them be heard on your mouth.

¹⁴You shall celebrate me three times every year:

¹⁵You shall keep the Festival of Unleavened Bread. You shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, at the appointed time, the month of Aviv, for in it you came out from Egypt. And you shall not appear at my face empty-handed.

¹⁶And the Festival of the Harvest: the firstfruits of your labors which you sowed in the field.

And the Festival of the Gathering: in the exiting of the year, in your gathering of your labors from the field.

¹⁷Three times in a year, all your males shall appear to the face of the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁸You shall not sacrifice the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, and the fat of my festival shall not remain all night until morning. ¹⁹You shall bring the first of the firstfruits of your ground to the house of Yahweh your God. You shall not boil a young goat in the milk of its mother.

²⁵And you shall serve Yahweh your God, and he will bless your bread and your water. And I will remove sickness from among you. ²⁶There will not be a miscarriage or barren in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days.

²⁷I will send my terror before your face and I will confuse all of the people into whom you will go and I will give the back of the neck of all of your enemies to you. ²⁸And I will send the hornet before your face and it will drive out the Hivites, Canaanites, and the Hittites from before your face. ²⁹I will not drive them out from before your face in one year lest the land become desolate, and the animals of the field become too many for you. ³⁰I will drive them out little by little from before your face until you become fruitful and possess the land. ³¹And I will set your borders from the sea of reeds to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the River. For I will give the inhabitants of the land into your hand. And you will drive them out from before your faces.

³²You shall not make a covenant with them or with their gods. ³³They shall not live in your land, lest they cause you to sin against me; for you will serve their gods, surely it will become a snare for you."

¹And he said to Moses, "Come up to Yahweh—you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu and seventy from the elders of Israel, and you shall bow down from a distance. ²And Moses alone shall come near to Yahweh, and they shall not come near, and the people shall not come up with him."

³And Moses went and recounted to the people all of the words of Yahweh and all of the ordinances. And all of the people answered with one voice and said, "We will do all the things that Yahweh has spoken." ⁴And Moses wrote all of the words of Yahweh. And he rose early in the morning and built an altar at the bottom of the mountain and twelve stone pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel. ⁵He sent the young men of the sons of Israel and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of bulls to Yahweh. ⁶And Moses took half of the blood and put it into basins and sprinkled half of the blood onto the altar. ⁷And he took the book of the Covenant and read it aloud in the ears of the people. And they said, "We will do and hear all that Yahweh has spoken."

⁸And Moses took the blood and sprinkled it onto the people. And he said, "Behold! the blood of the covenant that Yahweh has cut with you according to all of these words."

⁹And Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy from the elders of Israel went up. ¹⁰And they saw the God of Israel. And under his feet was like tile made of sapphire, and its substance was as the sky in purity. ¹¹And he did not send out his hand to the leaders of the sons of Israel. And they saw God, and they ate and drank.

¹²And Yahweh said to Moses, "Come up to me to the mountain and be there. And I will give you the tablets of stone and the law and the commandments that I have written to teach them."

¹³And Moses and his servant Joshua got up and Moses went up to the mountain of God. ¹⁴And he had said to the elders, "Wait for us in this place until we return to you. And behold! Aaron and Hur are with you—Whoever is a master of words may come near to them."

¹⁵And Moses went up to the mountain, and a cloud covered the mountain. ¹⁶And the glory of Yahweh settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day he called to Moses from within the cloud. ¹⁷And the appearance of the glory of Yahweh was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the sons of Israel. ¹⁸And Moses entered the middle of the cloud and went up to the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Chapter 25

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses saying, ²"Speak to the sons of Israel and they shall take a contribution for me. You shall take my contribution from every man whose heart incites him. ³And these are the contributions that you shall receive from them: gold, and silver, and bronze; ⁴and blue, and purple, and worm of scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair; ⁵and reddened hides of rams, and hides of sea-cows, and wood of acacias; ⁶oil for the light; spices for the oil of anointing and for the incense of fragrance; ⁷stones of onyx and precious stones for settings for the ephod and for the breastpiece.

⁸And they shall make a sanctuary for me and I shall live in their midst. ⁹According to all that I am about to show you—the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all of its utensils—and thus you shall make it.

¹⁰And they shall make a box of wood of acacias—its length: two cubits and a half; and its width: one cubit and a half; and its height: one cubit and a half. ¹¹And you shall overlay it {with} pure gold, inside and outside you shall overlay it, and you shall make on it a border of gold around {it}. ¹²And you shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put them on its four feet: two rings on its one side, and two rings on its second side. ¹³And you shall make poles of wood of acacias and overlay them {with} gold. ¹⁴And you shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the box, to carry the box with them. ¹⁵The poles shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not be removed from it. ¹⁶And you shall put into the box the Testimony that I give to you.

¹⁷And you shall make an atonement lid of pure gold—its length: two cubits and a half; and its width: a cubit and a half. ¹⁸And you shall make two gold cherubim, you shall make them of hammered work from the two ends of the atonement lid. ¹⁹And make one cherub from this end, and one cherub from this end. You shall make the cherubim from the atonement lid on its two ends. ²⁰And the cherubim shall be spreading out their wings upward, covering over the atonement lid with their wings and their faces shall each be towards his brother. The faces of the cherubim shall be towards the atonement lid. ²¹And you shall put the atonement lid on the box from above, and you shall put into the box the Testimony that I give to you. ²²And I will meet with you there and I will speak with you all that I will command you for the sons of Israel from above the atonement lid, from between the two cherubim which are above the Box of the Testimony.

²³And you shall make a table from wood of acacias. Its length: two cubits, and its width: a cubit, and its height: a cubit and a half. ²⁴And you shall overlay it {with} pure gold, and you shall make for it a border of gold around {it}. ²⁵And you shall make a rim for it, a handbreadth all around, and you shall make a border of gold around its rim. ²⁶And you shall make four rings of gold for it and put the rings on the four corners, where its four legs are. ²⁷The rings shall be close to the rim to house the poles to carry the table. ²⁸And you shall make the poles {out of} wood of acacias and cover them {with} gold. And the table shall be carried with them. ²⁹And you shall make its plates, and its pans, and its pitchers, and its bowls with which it will be poured out. You shall make them from pure gold. ³⁰And you shall continually put the bread of faces on the table before my face.

³¹And you shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand—its base and its shaft—shall be made of hammered work. Its cups, its buds, and its blossoms shall be from it. ³²And six branches shall be going out from its sides—three branches of the lampstand from the one side, and three branches of the lampstand from the second side. ³³Three cups, shaped like almond blossoms, shall be on the one branch, a bulb and a blossom; and three cups, shaped like almond blossoms, shall be on the one branch, a bulb and a blossom; thus for the six branches going out from the lampstand. ³⁴And on the lampstand there shall be four cups shaped like almond blossoms {with} its bulbs and its blossoms, ³⁵And a bulb will be under two of the branches from it, and a bulb will be under two of the branches from it, and a bulb will be under two of the branches from it—for all six branches extending out from the lampstand. ³⁶Their bulbs and their branches from it shall all be one piece of hammered work of pure gold. ³⁷And you shall make its seven lamps—and it will hold up its lamps and it will make light on the side of its face— ³⁸and its tongs and its trays of pure gold. ³⁹He shall make it, all these items, from a talent of pure gold.

⁴⁰See and make by the pattern that you are being shown on the mountain.

Chapter 26

⁷And you shall make curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle. You shall make 11 of these curtains. ⁸The length of each curtain shall be 30 cubits, and the width of each curtain shall be four cubits. The 11 curtains shall be the same size. ⁹And you shall join five curtains to each other and six curtains to each other. And you shall double over the sixth curtain at the front of the face of the tent. ¹⁰And you shall make 50 loops on the edge of the one end curtain in the joined set, and 50 loops on the edge of the curtain in the second joined set. ¹¹And you shall make 50 clasps of bronze and put the clasps in the loops and join them and the tent will be one. ¹²And the remaining excess curtain of the tent, the half curtain remaining, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle. ¹³And a cubit from this side and a cubit from that side, the excess of the length of the curtains of the tent shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, from this side and from that side to cover it. ¹⁴And you shall make a covering for the tent of reddened hides of rams, and a covering of hides of sea-cows above that.

¹⁵And you shall make upright frames for the tabernacle from wood of acacias. ¹⁶The length of a frame shall be ten cubits, and the width of one frame shall be a cubit and a half of a cubit. ¹⁷There shall be two tenons in each frame for joining a woman to her sister. Thus you shall make all of the frames of the tabernacle. ¹⁸And you shall make the frames for the tabernacle: 20 frames for the south side. ¹⁹And you shall make 40 bases of silver under the 20 frames: two bases under one frame for its two tenons, and two bases under one frame for its two tenons. ²⁰And for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side: 20 frames ²¹and their 40 silver bases: two bases under one frame, and two bases under one frame. ²²And you shall make six frames for the back side of the tabernacle, towards the west. ²³And you shall make two frames for the back corners of the tabernacle. ²⁴And they shall be a pair at the bottom, and they shall be completely together at the top to one ring. Thus it shall be for both, the two shall be the corners. ²⁵And there shall be eight frames and their silver bases, 16 bases: two bases under one frame and two bases under one frame.

³¹And you shall make a curtain of blue, and purple, and worm of scarlet, and of twisted fine linen; the work of a skillful workman, he shall make cherubim. ³²And you shall hang it on four pillars of acacia wood covered with gold and their hooks of gold on four bases of silver. ³³And you shall hang the curtain under the clasps, and you shall bring the Box of the Testimony there inside the curtain. And the curtain shall separate for you between the holy and the holy of holies. ³⁴And you shall put the atonement lid on the Box of the Testimony in the holy of holies. ³⁵And you shall put the table outside the curtain and the lampstand opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle. And put the table on the north side.

¹And you shall make the altar of wood of acacias, five cubits long and five cubits wide. The altar shall be square and three cubits high. ²And you shall make its horns on its four corners, its horns will be part of it. And you shall overlay it with bronze. ³And you shall make its pots for fatty ashes, and its shovels, and its basins, and its meat forks, and its trays. You shall make all its utensils with bronze. ⁴And you shall make a grate for it, a work of a network of bronze. And you shall make four rings of bronze on the network, on its four corners. ⁵And you shall put it under the ledge of the altar below, and the network shall be up to the middle of the altar. ⁶And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of wood of acacias, and you shall overlay them with bronze. ⁷And its poles shall be put into the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar when carrying it. ⁸You shall make it hollow, of planks. Just as he showed you on the mountain, so they shall do.

⁹And you shall make the courtyard of the tabernacle. There shall be curtains of fine twisted linen on the south side of the courtyard; one side shall be 100 cubits long, ¹⁰with its 20 pillars, and their 20 bronze bases; the hooks of the pillars and their rings of silver. ¹¹And thus for the north side, the length of the curtains: 100 long, and its 20 posts, 20 bases of bronze, hooks of the pillars, and rings of silver. ¹²And the width of the courtyard, on the west side, shall have a curtain 50 cubits long with its ten pillars and ten bases. ¹³And the width of the courtyard, on the east side, shall be 50 cubits. ¹⁴The curtains for the side {shall be} fifteen cubits {with} their three pillars and their three bases. ¹⁵The curtains for the second side shall be fifteen with their three posts and their three bases. ¹⁶And the gate of the courtyard shall be a curtain 20 cubits wide of blue, and purple, and worm of scarlet, and of twisted fine linen—the work of an embroiderer—with its four pillars and its four bases. ¹⁷All the pillars of the courtyard shall be filleted around with silver, and their silver hooks, and their bases of bronze. ¹⁸The length of the courtyard shall be 100 cubits, and the width 50, and the height five cubits with fine twined linen, and bases of bronze. ¹⁹All of the equipment of the tabernacle for all of its service, and all of its tent pegs and all of the pegs of the courtyard shall be bronze.

²⁰And you shall command the sons of Israel and they shall bring pure pressed oil of olive to you for the lamp, to cause the lamp to burn continually. ²¹In the tent of meeting, outside the curtain inside of which is the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall arrange it before the face of Yahweh, from evening to morning. This is an eternal statute throughout the generations of the sons of Israel.

¹And you, bring Aaron your brother and his sons with him near to you from among the sons of Israel to be priests for me—Aaron and Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar the sons of Aaron! ²And you shall make for Aaron your brother clothes of holiness for glory and for splendor. ³And you, you shall speak to all of the wise of heart, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, and they shall make the clothes of Aaron to set him apart to be a priest for me. ⁴And these are the clothes that they shall make: a breastpiece, and an ephod, and a robe, and a tunic of woven work, a turban, and a sash. And they shall make clothes of holiness for your brother Aaron and for his sons to be priests for me. ⁵And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and worm of scarlet, and fine linen.

⁹And you shall take two stones of onyx and you shall engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel, ¹⁰six of their names on one stone, and the six remaining names on the second stone, according to their genealogies. ¹¹You shall engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel—the work of a craftsman of stone, the engravings of a signet. You shall make them surrounded with ornamental settings of gold. ¹²And you shall put the two stones on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as stones of reminder for the sons of Israel. And Aaron shall carry their names before the face of Yahweh on his two shoulders for a reminder. ¹³And you shall make ornamental settings of gold ¹⁴and two twisted chains of pure gold, you shall make them as a work of rope, and you shall attach the chains of the rope to the ornamental settings.

²²And you shall make twisted chains on the breastpiece, as a work of rope—pure gold. ²³And you shall make two rings of gold for the breastpiece and you shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastpiece. ²⁴And you shall attach the two chains of gold to the rings on the two ends of the breastpiece. ²⁵And you shall attach two of the ends of the two chains to the two ornamental settings. And you shall attach those to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of its face. ²⁶And you shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them on the two ends of the breastpiece, on the edge which is toward the inner side of the ephod. ²⁷And you shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them on the two shoulder pieces of the ephod on the bottom of the front of its face, close to its joining above the skillfully-crafted waistband of the ephod. ²⁸And they shall tie the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue to be on the finely-crafted waistband of the ephod, so the breastpiece shall not become detached from on the ephod.

²⁹And Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel in the breastpiece of judgment over his heart when he goes into the holy place as a reminder before the face of Yahweh continually. ³⁰And you shall put the Urim and the Thummim in the breastpiece of judgment, and they shall be over the heart of Aaron when he goes in before the face of Yahweh. And Aaron shall bear the judgment of the sons of Israel over his heart before the face of Yahweh continually.

³⁹And you shall weave the tunic with fine linen, and you shall make a turban of fine linen. And you shall make a sash, the work of an embroiderer. ⁴⁰And for the sons of Aaron you shall make tunics, and you shall make sashes for them, and you shall make headbands for them for glory and for splendor. ⁴¹And you shall clothe them, your brother Aaron and his sons with him. And you shall anoint them and you shall fill their hand and you shall set them apart to be priests to me.

⁴²And make for them undergarments of linen to cover the flesh of nakedness—they shall be from the waist to the thighs. ⁴³And they shall be on Aaron and on his sons at their entering into the tent of meeting or at their drawing near to the alter to serve in the holy place. And they shall not bear iniquity and die.

This is a statute forever for him and for his offspring after him.

Chapter 29

¹And this is the thing that you shall do to them to set them apart to be priests to me. Take one bull, a son of the herd, and two unblemished rams, ²and unleavened bread, and unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers rubbed with oil. Make them with fine flour of wheat. ³And you shall put them into one basket, and you shall bring them near in the basket, and the bull and the two rams. ⁴And you shall bring Aaron and his sons near to the entrance of the tent of meeting. And you shall wash them with water. ⁵And you shall take the garments and you shall clothe Aaron with the tunic, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastpiece, and you shall fasten the ephod to him with the finely-woven waistband of the ephod. ⁶And you shall set the turban on his head and put the crown of holiness on the turban. ⁷And you shall take the oil of anointing and pour it on his head and anoint him. ⁸And you shall bring his sons and clothe them with tunics. ⁹And you shall wrap them—Aaron and his sons—with the sash and bind headbands to them. And the priesthood will be to them as a statute forever. And you shall fill the hand of Aaron and the hand of his sons.

¹⁰And you shall bring the bull to the face of the tent of meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull. ¹¹And you shall slaughter the bull before the face of Yahweh at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ¹²And you shall take from the blood of the bull and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and you shall pour out all of the blood on the base of the altar. ¹³And you shall take all of the fat covering the entrails, and the lobe above the liver and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and cause them to become smoke on the altar. ¹⁴But you shall burn the flesh of the bull and its skin and its dung in the fire outside of the camp. It is a purification offering.

¹⁵And you shall take one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram, ¹⁶and you shall slaughter the ram. And you shall take its blood and sprinkle it all around on the altar. ¹⁷And you shall cut the ram into pieces and wash its entrails and its legs and put them on its pieces and on its head, ¹⁸and cause all of the ram to become smoke on the altar. It is a burnt offering to Yahweh. It is an appeasing, aromatic, fire offering to Yahweh.

¹⁹And you shall take the second ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram, ²⁰and you shall slaughter the ram and take some of its blood. And you shall put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and on the tip of the right ear of his sons, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the great toe of their right foot. And you shall sprinkle the blood all around on the altar. ²¹And you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the oil of anointing, and sprinkle it on Aaron, and on his garments, and on his sons, and on the garments of his sons along with him. And he will be set apart, and his garments, and his sons, and the garments of his sons along with him.

²²And you shall take the fat from the ram, and the fat tail, and the fat covering the entrails, and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and the right thigh—for this is a ram of consecration— ²³and one round loaf of bread, and one cake of bread of oil, and one wafer from the basket of unleavened bread that is before the face of Yahweh. ²⁴And you shall put all these on the palms of Aaron and on the palms of his sons and you shall raise them as a raised offering before the face of Yahweh. ²⁵And you shall take them from their hands and cause them to become smoke on the altar above the burnt offering to be an aroma of appeasing before the face of Yahweh, it is a fire offering to Yahweh. ²⁶And you shall take the breast from the ram of consecration that is for Aaron and raise it for a raised offering before the face of Yahweh, and it will be your share. ²⁷And from the ram of consecration which is for Aaron and which is for his sons you shall set apart the breast of the raised offering that was raised and the thigh of the contribution that was contributed. ²⁸And it shall belong to Aaron and to his sons—as an eternal requirement—for it is an offering from the sons of Israel. And it shall be an offering from the sons of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, their offerings to Yahweh.

³⁵And thus you shall do to Aaron and to his sons according to all that I have commanded you: you shall fill their hand seven days. ³⁶And you shall offer a bull of purification for atonement daily and you shall purify the altar by making atonement for it. And you shall anoint it to set it apart. ³⁷You shall make atonement for the altar seven days and set it apart. And the altar will be holy of holies. Whatever touches the altar will be set apart.

⁴²It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations, at the entrance to the tent of meeting before the face of Yahweh, there where I will meet with you to speak to you there. ⁴³And I will meet with the sons of Israel there and it will be set apart by my glory. ⁴⁴And I will set apart the tent of meeting and the altar. And I will set apart Aaron and his sons to be priests to me. ⁴⁵And I will live among the sons of Israel and will be their God. ⁴⁶And they will know that I am Yahweh their God, who brought them out from the land of Egypt to live among them. I am Yahweh their God.

¹And you shall make an altar, a place of burning of incense. You shall make it with wood of acacias, ²Its length shall be one cubit and its width shall be one cubit. It shall be square, and its height shall be two cubits. Its horns {shall be} part of it. ³And you shall overlay it with pure gold—its top and all around its sides and its horns—and you shall make for it a border of gold around it. ⁴And you shall make two rings of gold for it under its border on its two sides. You shall make them on its two sides. They will be housings for the poles for carrying it with. ⁵And you shall make the poles of wood of acacias, and you shall overlay them with gold. ⁶And you shall place it before the face of the curtain that is over the Box of the Testimony. It shall be before the face of the atonement lid that is over the Testimony, where I will meet with you.

¹¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹²“When you lift up the head of the sons of Israel to count them, then each man shall give the ransom of his life to Yahweh when counting them. And there will not be a plague among them when counting them. ¹³Every passer over to the counted ones shall give this: half of a shekel, according to the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel is 20 gerahs). The half shekel is an offering to Yahweh. ¹⁴Every passer over to the counted ones, from a son of 20 years and up, shall give the contribution of Yahweh. ¹⁵The rich shall not increase and the poor shall not decrease from the half shekel for giving the contribution of Yahweh to cover over your lives. ¹⁶And you shall take the silver of ransoms from the sons of Israel and you shall give it to the work of the tent of meeting. And it shall be as a reminder for the sons of Israel before the face of Yahweh, to cover over your lives.”

¹⁷And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁸“And you shall make a basin of bronze and its base of bronze for washing. And you shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it. ¹⁹And Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet in it. ²⁰When they go into the tent of meeting they shall wash with water and they will not die. Also when they go near to the altar to serve by causing a fire offering to Yahweh to smoke ²¹then they shall wash their hands and their feet and they will not die. And this shall be a statue forever for them, for him and his offspring throughout their generations.”

³⁰And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons and set them apart to be priests to me. ³¹And you shall speak to the sons of Israel saying, 'This will be my oil of anointment of holiness throughout your generations. ³²It shall not be poured on the body of a man, and you shall not make anything like it with its formula. It is holy, it shall be holy to you. ³³A man that mixes its like or that puts any of it on a stranger shall be cut off from his people.'

³⁴And Yahweh said to Moses, "Take to yourself spices—stacte, and onycha, and galbanum—spices and pure frankincense. They shall each be in equal amounts. ³⁵And you shall make it into incense, an ointment, the work of an ointment mixer: salted, pure, holy. ³⁶And you shall pulverize some of it until pulverized. And you shall put some of it before the face of the testimony in the tent of meeting, where I will meet with you. It will be holy of holies to you. ³⁷And the incense that you will make, you shall not make any with its formula for yourselves. It must be holy to Yahweh for you. ³⁸A man that makes its like to smell it shall be cut off from his people."

Chapter 31

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses saying, ²"See, I have called by name Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, from the tribe of Judah. ³And I have filled him with the spirit of God, with skill, and with understanding, and with knowledge, and with all kinds of craftsmanship, ⁴to design designs, to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze; ⁵and in carving of precious stones for setting and in carving of wood—to do all kinds of craftsmanship. ⁶And behold! I have given Oholiab son of Ahisamak, from the tribe of Dan with him. And I have put skill into the hearts of all of the skilled of heart and they shall make all that I have commanded you: ⁷the tent of meeting, and the box of the testimony, and the atonement lid that is on it, and all of the furniture of the tent— ⁸the table and its utensils, and the pure lampstand and all its equipment, and the altar of incense, ⁹and the altar of burnt offerings and all its equipment, and the basin and its base— ¹⁰and the finely-woven clothing, and the clothing of holiness, for Aaron the priest and the clothing of his sons to {be} priests, ¹¹and the oil of anointing and the incense of fragrance for the sanctuary. They shall make according to all that I have commanded you."

¹²And Yahweh said to Moses saying, ¹³"And you, speak to the sons of Israel saying: 'Surely you shall keep my Sabbaths, for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations so that you may know that I am Yahweh who sets you apart. ¹⁴And you shall keep the Sabbath, for it is holy to you.' The profaner of it shall surely be put to death, for every worker of work on it—that person—shall be cut off from his people. ¹⁵Work shall be done six days, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of Sabbath, holy to Yahweh. Every worker of work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put to death. ¹⁶And the sons of Israel shall keep the Sabbath to celebrate the Sabbath throughout their generations. A covenant of eternity ¹⁷is between me and the sons of Israel. It is a sign forever, for in six days Yahweh made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed."

¹⁸And as he finished speaking with him on the mountain of Sinai, he gave to Moses the two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone, written by the finger of God.

¹And the people saw that Moses delayed in coming down from the mountain, and the people gathered themselves around Aaron and said to him, "Arise, make gods for us that shall go before our faces, for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him."

²And Aaron said to them, "Tear off the rings of gold that are on the ears of your wives, your sons and your daughters, and bring them to me." ³And all the people tore the rings of gold off themselves that were on their ears and brought them to Aaron. ⁴And he took it from their hand and fashioned it with a tool and he made a calf of molten metal. And they said, "These are your gods, Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt." ⁵And Aaron saw, and he built an altar before the face of it and Aaron proclaimed and said, "Tomorrow will be a festival to Yahweh.”⁶And they arose early the next day and offered burnt offerings and brought peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and to drink, and got up to play.

⁷And Yahweh spoke to Moses, “Go! Descend! For your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. ⁸They have quickly turned from the way that I commanded them. They have made a calf of molten metal for themselves and have bowed before it and sacrificed to it. And they have said, ‘These are your gods, Israel, that brought you up from the land of Egypt.’”⁹And Yahweh said to Moses, “I have seen this people and behold! it is a people hard of neck. ¹⁰So now, leave me alone! And let my nose burn against them, and I will destroy them. And I will make you into a great nation.”

¹¹But Moses entreated the face of Yahweh his God. And he said, “Yahweh, why does your nose burn against your people whom you have brought out from the land of Egypt with great power and with a strong hand? ¹²Why should the Egyptians say, saying, ‘He brought them out with evil intent, to kill them in the mountains and to destroy them from on the face of the ground?’ Turn from your burning nose and repent from the evil to your people. ¹³Remember Abraham and Isaac and Israel, your servants that you swore to them by yourself and spoke to them, ‘I will cause your descendants to increase as the stars of the heavens, and I will give to your descendants all this land of which I have spoken. And they will inherit it forever.’”¹⁴Then Yahweh repented from the evil that he had spoken to do to his people.

¹⁵And Moses turned and went down from the mountain, and the two tablets of the testimony {were} in his hand. The tablets were written on both their sides, on this {side} and on that {side} they were written. ¹⁶And the tablets, they {were} the work of God. And the writing, it {was} the writing of God, {it} was engraved on the tablets.

¹⁷And Joshua heard the noise of the people in its shouting, and he said to Moses, “{There is} the noise of war in the camp.”

¹⁸But Moses said,

“There is not the sound of singing of strength, and there is not the sound of singing of weakness, the sound of singing I am hearing.”

¹⁹And it happened as he approached to the camp and he saw the calf and dancing. And the nose of Moses burned. And he threw the tablets from his hands and shattered them under the mountain. ²⁰And he took the calf that they had made, and burned {it} in the fire, and ground {it} until it was fine, and scattered {it} on the face of the water, and caused the sons of Israel to drink {it}.

²¹And Moses said to Aaron, “What did this people do to you, that you have brought a great sin on them?”

²²And Aaron said, “Do not let {your} nose burn, my lord. You know the people, that it {is/was} in evil. ²³And they said to me, ‘Make for us a god that will go before our faces. As for this Moses, the man that brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.’ ²⁴And I said to them, ‘Whoever has gold, take it off yourself.’ And they gave {it} to me and I threw it in the fire and this calf came out.”

²⁵And Moses saw the people, that it was let loose, for Aaron had let it loose, to mockery by the risers-up against them. ²⁶And Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, “Who {is} for Yahweh, to me!” And all of the sons of Levi gathered themselves to him. ²⁷And he said to them, “Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: ‘Each man put his sword on his side. Pass through and return from gate to gate in the camp, and kill each his brother, and each his companion, and each his neighbor.’”²⁸And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And on that day about 3,000 men from the people fell. ²⁹And Moses said, “Fill your hand for Yahweh today! For a man {was} against his son and against his brother and to give a blessing over you today.”

³⁰And it happened the next day that Moses said to the people, "You have sinned a great sin. And now I will go up to Yahweh. Perhaps I can atone for your sin." ³¹And Moses returned to Yahweh and said, "Oh, this people has sinned a great sin and made themselves gods of gold. ³²But now, if you forgive their sin; but if not, please blot me out of your book that you have written."

³³But Yahweh said to Moses, "Whoever that sinned against me, I will blot him out from my book. ³⁴So now go, lead the people to where I have spoken to you! Behold, my angel will go before your face. But on the day I visit them, then I will visit their sin on them."

³⁵And Yahweh plagued the people on account that they had made the calf (that Aaron made).

Chapter 33

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, "Go, arise from here, you and the people whom you have brought up from the land of Egypt to the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your seed.' ²And I will send an angel before your face, and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, Hivites, and the Jebusites. ³{Go} to a land flowing {with} milk and honey, but I will not go up in your midst, because you {are} a people hard of neck, lest I destroy you on the way."

⁴And the people heard this evil word, and they mourned, and each one did not put his ornaments on him. ⁵And Yahweh {had} said to Moses, "Say to the sons of Israel, 'You are a people hard of neck. {If} I went up among you {for} one moment, then I {would} destroy you. And now, take your ornaments down from on you and I will know what I will do to you.'" ⁶And the sons of Israel stripped themselves {of} their ornaments from Mount Horeb.

¹²And Moses said to Yahweh, "See, you {have been} saying to me, 'Take this people up,' but you have not caused me to know whom you will send with me. And you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my eyes.' ¹³And now please if I have found favor in your eyes, please cause me to know your ways and I will know you so that I can find favor in your eyes. And see that this nation is your people."

¹⁴And he said, "My face will go and I will cause rest for you."

¹⁵And he said to him, "If your face {is} not going, do not take us up from here. ¹⁶And in what then will it be known that I have found favor in your eyes, I and your people? {Is it} not in your going with us? And I and your people shall be distinct from all of the people that {are} on the face of the earth."

¹⁷And Yahweh said to Moses, "I will also do this thing that you have spoken, for you have found favor in my eyes, and I know you by name."

¹⁸And he said, "Please show me your glory."

¹⁹And he said, "I myself will cause all my goodness to pass over above your face, and I will proclaim in the name of Yahweh before your face: and I will favor whom I will favor, and I will be compassionate to whom I will be compassionate." ²⁰But he said, "You are not able to see my face, for mankind can not see me and live." ²¹And

Yahweh said, "Behold, a place with me, and you shall station yourself on the rock. ²²And it will happen, while my glory passes over, that I will put you in a crevice of the rock and my hand will cover over you until I have passed over. ²³Then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back, but my face will not be seen."

Chapter 34

¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Carve for yourself two tablets of stone like the first. And I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets that you broke. ²And be ready by morning and in the morning come up to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to me on the top of mountain. ³And a man shall not come up with you and also let a man not be seen on all of the mountain. Also let not the flocks and the herds graze to the front of that mountain." ⁴And he carved two tablets of stone like the first, and Moses got up early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai as Yahweh had commanded him. And he took the two tablets of stone in his hand.

⁵And Yahweh came down in the cloud and stood with him there and he pronounced in the name of Yahweh. ⁶And Yahweh passed over above his face and proclaimed, "Yahweh, Yahweh, a God compassionate and gracious, long of nostril, and abounding in covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness, ⁷keeping covenant faithfulness to thousands, forgiving iniquity, transgression, and sin. But acquitting he will not acquit, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the sons and on the sons of the sons, on the third and on the fourth."

⁸And Moses hurried and bowed to the ground and prostrated himself. ⁹And he said, "Please, if I have found favor in your eyes, my Lord, may my Lord please go among us, for this {is} a people hard of neck. And forgive our iniquity and our sin, and inherit us."

¹⁰And he said, "Behold, I am about to cut a covenant before all of your people, I will do wonders that have not been created in all of the earth and in all of the nations. And all of the people that you are in the midst of will see the work of Yahweh, for it {is} fear-filling what I {am} doing with you. ¹¹Keep for yourself what I am commanding today. Behold I am about to drive out from before your face the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

¹⁷Do not make for yourselves gods of molten metal.

¹⁸You shall keep the Festival of Unleavened Bread. You shall eat unleavened bread seven days, which I commanded you, at the appointed time, the month of Aviv, for in the month of Aviv you came out from Egypt.

²¹Six days you shall labor, but on the seventh day you shall rest. In plowing time and in harvest time, you shall rest.

²²And you shall keep for yourself the Festival of Weeks {with} the first-fruits of the harvest of the wheat, and the Festival of the Gathering at the turning of the year. ²³Three times in a year, all your males shall appear before the face of the Lord Yahweh, God of Israel. ²⁴For I will drive out nations before your face and expand your borders. And a man will not desire your land when you go up to appear before the face of Yahweh your God three times in a year.

²⁵You shall not slaughter the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, and the sacrifice of the Festival of the Passover shall not remain all night to the morning.

²⁶You shall bring the first of the first-fruits of your ground to the house of Yahweh your God.

You shall not boil a young goat in the milk of its mother.”

²⁷And Yahweh said to Moses, “Write these words for yourself, for over the mouth of these words I have cut a covenant with you and with Israel.” ²⁸And he was there with Yahweh 40 days and 40 nights; bread he did not eat and water he did not drink. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten words.

³⁴And whenever Moses went before the face of Yahweh to speak with him, he would remove the veil until he came out. And he would come out, and he would speak to the sons of Israel what he had been commanded. ³⁵And the sons of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of the face of Moses shone. And Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with him.

¹And Moses assembled all the congregation of the sons of Israel and said to them, “These are the things that Yahweh has commanded you to do. ²Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day {there} shall be for you a holy Sabbath of rest to Yahweh. Every doer of work on it shall be put to death. ³You shall not kindle a fire in any of your dwellings on the days of the Sabbath.”

⁴And Moses said to all of the congregation of the sons of Israel saying, “This {is} the thing that Yahweh commanded, saying, ⁵Take from with you a contribution for Yahweh, every{one} willing of his heart. Let him bring the contribution of Yahweh—gold, and silver, and bronze, ⁶and blue, and purple, and worm of scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair; ⁷and reddened hides of rams, and hides of sea-cows, and wood of acacias; ⁸and oil for the light; and spices for the oil of anointing and for the incense of fragrance; ⁹and stones of onyx and precious stones for settings for the ephod and for the breastpiece.

¹⁰And all of the wise of heart among you shall come and make all that Yahweh has commanded— ¹¹the tabernacle, its tent, and its covering, its clasps, and its frames, its bars, its pillars, and its bases; ¹²the Box and its poles, the atonement lid, and the curtain of covering, ¹³the table and its poles, and all of its equipment, and the bread of the faces; ¹⁴and the lampstand of the light, and its utensils, and its lamps, and the oil of the light; ¹⁵and the altar of incense and its poles, and the oil of anointing and the incense of fragrance, and the curtain of the entrance for the entrance of the tabernacle, ¹⁶the altar of the burnt offering and the grate of bronze that {is} for it, its poles and all of its utensils, the basin and its base, ¹⁷the curtains of the courtyard, its pillars and bases, and the curtain of the gate of the courtyard; ¹⁸the tent pegs of the tabernacle, and the pegs of the courtyard, and their ropes, ¹⁹finely-woven clothing for serving in the holy place, the clothing of holiness for Aaron the priest and the clothing of his sons, to {be} priests.”

²⁰And all of the congregation of the sons of Israel went away from before the face of Moses. ²¹And every man whose heart lifted him came. And all whose spirit impelled him brought the contribution of Yahweh for the work of the tent of meeting, and for all of its service, and for the clothing of holiness. ²²And men along with women came, all impelled of heart. They brought brooches, and earrings, and rings, and ornaments, all of the things of gold. And every man that raised {did} as a raised offering of gold to Yahweh. ²³And every man with whom was found blue, and purple, and worm of scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and reddened ram skins, and hides of sea-cows brought {them}. ²⁴All of the presenters {of} a contribution of silver and of bronze brought the contribution of Yahweh, and all with whom wood of acacias was found for all the work of the service brought {it}. ²⁵And every woman skilled of heart spun with her hands and they brought the spun items, the blue, and the purple, the worm of scarlet, and the fine linen. ²⁶All the women with skill whose hearts lifted them spun goats' hair. ²⁷And the leaders brought the onyx stones and precious stones of setting for the ephod and for the breastpiece, ²⁸and spice and the oil for light, and for the oil of anointing, and for the incense of fragrance. ²⁹The sons of Israel brought a freewill offering to Yahweh, every man and woman whose heart impelled them to bring {something} for all of the work which Yahweh had commanded {them} to do by the hand of Moses.

³⁰And Moses said to the sons of Israel, "See, Yahweh has called by name on Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, from the tribe of Judah. ³¹And he has filled him with the spirit of God, with skill, and with understanding, and with knowledge, and with all kinds of craftsmanship, ³²and to design designs, to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, ³³and in carving of precious stones for setting and in carving of wood—to do all kinds of craftsmanship of invention, ³⁴and he has put in his heart to teach, he and Oholiab the son of Ahisamak, from the tribe of Dan. ³⁵He has filled them {with} skill of heart to do all of the work of a craftsman and of a skillful workman and of an embroiderer in the blue, and in the purple, and in the worm of scarlet, and in the fine linen, and of a weaver. {They are} doers of all work and designers of design.

¹And Bezalel and Oholiab and every man skilled of heart to whom Yahweh has given skill and understanding to know {how} to do all of the work of the service of the holy place shall do according to all that Yahweh has commanded."

²And Moses called to Bezalel and to Oholiab and to every man skilled of heart in whose heart Yahweh had put skill, all whose heart lifted him to come near to the work to do it, ³and they took from before the face of Moses all of the contributions that the sons of Israel had brought for doing the work of the service of the holy place. And they continually brought a freewill offering to him in the morning in the morning. ⁴So all the skilled doing all the work of the holy place came, every single man from the work that they were doing ⁵and they said to Moses saying, "The people {are} bringing much more than enough for the service of the work that Yahweh has commanded {us} to do." ⁶And Moses commanded and they caused a sound to pass through in the camp saying, "A man and a woman shall not make any more work for the contribution of the holy place." And the people were restrained from bringing. ⁷And the work was sufficient for doing all their work and there was excess.

⁸And every skilled of heart among the doers of the work made the tabernacle with ten curtains: twisted fine linen, and blue, and purple, and worm of scarlet; cherubim—the work of a skilled craftsman he made them. ⁹The length of each curtain {was} 28 cubits and the width of each curtain {was} four cubits. All of the curtains {were} one size. ¹⁰And five of the curtains were joined each to another, and five of the curtains were joined each to another. ¹¹And he made loops of blue on the edge of the first curtain from the edge in the set. And he did thus along the edge of the end curtain in the second set. ¹²He made 50 loops on the first curtain, and he made 50 loops on the end of the curtain which is in the second set. The loops were opposite one to one. ¹³And he made 50 clasps of gold and joined the curtains one to one with the clasps and the tabernacle was one.

¹⁴And he made curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle. He made 11 of these curtains. ¹⁵The length of each curtain {was} 30 cubits, and the width of each curtain {was} four cubits. The 11 curtains {were} the same size. ¹⁶And he joined five curtains to each other and six curtains to each other. ¹⁷And he made 50 loops on the edge of the end curtain in the joined set, and he made 50 loops on the edge of the curtain in the second joined set. ¹⁸And he made 50 clasps of bronze to join the tent to be one. ¹⁹And he made a covering for the tent of reddened hides of rams, and a covering of hides of sea-cows above that.

²⁰And he made upright frames for the tabernacle from wood of acacias. ²¹The length of a frame {was} ten cubits, and the width of one frame {was} a cubit and a half of a cubit. ²²{There were} two tenons in each frame for joining one to one. Thus he made all of the frames of the tabernacle. ²³And he made the frames for the tabernacle: 20 frames for the south side. ²⁴And he made 40 bases of silver under the 20 frames: two bases under one frame for its two tenons, and two bases under one frame for its two tenons. ²⁵And for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made 20 frames ²⁶and their 40 silver bases: two bases under one frame, and two bases under one frame. ²⁷And he made six frames for the back side of the tabernacle, towards the west. ²⁸And he made two frames for the back corners of the tabernacle. ²⁹And they were a pair at the bottom, and they were completely together at the top to one ring. Thus he did for both as the two corners. ³⁰And there were eight frames and their silver bases, 16 bases: two bases, two bases under one frame.

³⁵And he made a curtain of blue, and purple, and worm of scarlet, and of twisted fine linen; the work of a skillful workman, he made cherubim. ³⁶And he made for it four pillars of acacia wood, and he covered them {with} gold and their hooks with gold. And he cast for them four bases of silver. ³⁷And he made a curtain for the entrance of the tent: of blue, and purple, and worm of scarlet, and of twisted fine linen—the work of an embroiderer— ³⁸and its five pillars and their hooks. And he covered their tops and their rings {with} gold. And their five bases {were} bronze.

¹And Bezalel made the box of wood of acacias—its length: two cubits and a half; and its width: one cubit and a half; and its height: one cubit and a half. ²And he overlaid it {with} pure gold, inside and outside, and for it he made a border of gold around {it}. ³And he cast four rings of gold for it on its four feet: two rings on its one side, and two rings on its second side. ⁴And he made poles of wood of acacias and overlaid them {with} gold. ⁵And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the box, to carry the box. ⁶And he made an atonement lid of pure gold—its length: two cubits and a half; and its width: a cubit and a half. ⁷And he made two gold cherubim, he made them of hammered work from the two ends of the atonement lid. ⁸One cherub {was} from this end, and one cherub from this end. He made the cherubim from the atonement lid from its two ends. ⁹And the cherubim were spreading out their wings upward, covering over the atonement lid with their wings and their faces {were} each towards his brother. The faces of the cherubim were towards the atonement lid.

¹⁷And he made the lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand—its base and its shaft—were made of hammered work. Its cups, its buds, and its blossoms were from it. ¹⁸And six branches were going out from its sides—three branches of the lampstand from the one side, and three branches of the lampstand from the second side. ¹⁹Three cups, shaped like almond blossoms, {were} on the one branch, a bulb and a blossom; and three cups, shaped like almond blossoms, were on the one branch, a bulb and a blossom; thus for the six branches going out from the lampstand. ²⁰And on the lampstand {there were} four cups shaped like almond blossoms {with} its bulbs and its blossoms, ²¹And a bulb {was} under two of the branches from it, and a bulb {was} under two of the branches from it, and a bulb {was} under two of the branches from it—for all six branches extending out from it. ²²Their bulbs and their branches from it were all one piece of hammered work of pure gold. ²³And he made its seven lamps, and its trays, and its trays of pure gold. ²⁴He made it and all its items from a talent of pure gold.

²⁵And he made the altar of incense of wood of acacias. Its length {was} one cubit, and its width one cubit. It {was} square, and its height {was} two cubits. Its horns were part of it. ²⁶And he overlaid it {with} pure gold—its top and all around its sides and its horns—and he made for it a border of gold around {it}. ²⁷And he made two rings of gold for it under its border on its two sides, on its two sides; for housings for the poles for carrying it with them. ²⁸And he made the poles of wood of acacias, and he overlaid them {with} gold. ²⁹And he made the oil of anointment of holiness and the pure incense of fragrance, the work of an ointment maker.

¹And he made the altar of the burnt offering of wood of acacias. Its length {was} five cubits and its breadth {was} five cubits—a square—and its height {was} three cubits. ²And he made its horns on its four corners, its horns were part of it. And he overlaid it {with} bronze. ³And he made all of the equipment of the altar—the pots, and the shovels, and the basins, the meat forks, and the firepans. He made all of its equipment {with} bronze. ⁴And he made a grate for the altar, a work of a network of bronze under its ledge, from below to its middle. ⁵And he cast four rings on the four ends for the grate of bronze, as holders for the poles. ⁶And he made the poles of wood of acacias, and overlaid them {with} bronze. ⁷And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, to carry it with them. He made it hollow, of planks.

⁹And he made the courtyard. For the south side, the curtains of the courtyard {were} 100 cubits of fine twisted linen, ¹⁰{with} their 20 pillars, and their 20 bronze bases; the hooks of the pillars and their rings of silver. ¹¹And for the north side, 100 cubits {with} their 20 pillars, and their 20 bases of bronze. The hooks of the pillars, and their rings {were} of silver. ¹²And the curtains for the side of the west {were} 50 cubits, with their ten pillars and their ten bases. The hooks of the pillars and rings {were} of silver. ¹³And for the east side fifty cubits. ¹⁴The curtains to the side {were} fifteen cubits {with} their three pillars and their three bases. ¹⁵And for the second side from this, and from this to the gate of the courtyard, the curtains {were} 15 cubits {with} their three pillars and their three bases. ¹⁶All of the curtains of the courtyard all around {were} fine twisted linen. ¹⁷And the bases for the pillars {were} bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their rings {were} silver, and the plating of their tops {was} silver. And all of the pillars of the courtyard {were} filleted {with} silver. ¹⁸And the curtain of the gate of the courtyard {was the} work of an embroiderer—blue, and purple, and worm of scarlet, and twisted fine linen—and the length {was} 20 cubits and the height in width {was} five cubits just as the curtains of the courtyard, ¹⁹with their four pillars and their four bases {which were} bronze, and their hooks {which were} silver, and the plating of their tops and its rings {which were} silver. ²⁰And all the tent pegs for the tabernacle and for the courtyard all around {were} bronze.

²⁴All the gold used for the work, in all the work of the sanctuary—it was the gold from the raised offering—{was} 29 talents and 730 shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary. ²⁵And the silver of the counted of the congregation {was} 100 talents and 1,775 shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary, ²⁶a beka for a head (half a shekel), by the shekel of the sanctuary, from every passer over to the counted ones from a son of 20 years and older—from 603,550. ²⁷And 100 talents of silver were cast for the bases of the sanctuary and the bases of the curtain—100 bases for the 100 talents, a talent for a base. ²⁸And he made hooks for the pillars with the 1,775. And he overlaid their tops and filleted them. ²⁹And the bronze of the raised offering {was} 70 talents and 2,400 shekels. ³⁰And with it he made the bases of the entrance of the tent of meeting, and the altar of bronze, and its grate of bronze, and all the equipment of the altar, ³¹and the bases of the surrounding courtyard, and the bases of the entrance of the courtyard, and all of the tent pegs of the tabernacle, and all of the tent pegs of the surrounding courtyard.

¹And from the blue, and the purple, and the worm of scarlet, they made finely-woven clothes for service in the holy place. And they made the clothes of holiness which {were} for Aaron, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

¹⁵And they made twisted chains on the breastpiece, as a work of rope—pure gold. ¹⁶And they made two ornamental settings of gold and two rings of gold and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastpiece. ¹⁷And they attached the two chains of gold to the rings on the two ends of the breastpiece. ¹⁸And they attached two of the ends of the two chains to the two ornamental settings. And they attached those to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of its face. ¹⁹And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastpiece, on the edge which is toward the inner side of the ephod. ²⁰And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two shoulder pieces of the ephod on the bottom of the front of its face, close to its joining above the skillfully-crafted waistband of the ephod. ²¹And they tied the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue to be on the finely-crafted waistband of the ephod, so the breastpiece could not become detached from on the ephod just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

²²And he made the robe of the ephod entirely of blue, the work of a weaver. ²³The opening of the robe {was} in the middle of it like an opening of a garment. The edge for its opening was all around so that it could not tear. ²⁴On the bottom hem of the robe, they made pomegranates of twisted blue, purple, and scarlet yarn. ²⁵And they made bells of pure gold, and they put the bells between the pomegranates all around on the bottom edge of the robe, between the pomegranates— ²⁶a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate—all around on the hem of the robe, for serving just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

³²And all the service of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, was finished. And the sons of Israel did according to all that Yahweh had commanded Moses, thus they did. ³³And they brought the tabernacle to Moses—the tent and all its equipment, and its clasps, and its frames, and its bars, and its pillars, and its bases, ³⁴and the covering of reddened hides of rams, and the covering of hides of sea-cows, and the curtain of covering, ³⁵the Box of the Testimony, and the poles, and the atonement lid, ³⁶the table with all of its equipment, and the bread of the faces, ³⁷the pure lampstand with its lamps, lamps of the row, and all its accessories, and the oil of the light, ³⁸and the altar of gold, and the oil of anointing, and the incense of fragrance, and the curtain of the entrance of the tent, ³⁹the altar of bronze and the grate of bronze that {is} for it, its poles and all of its utensils, the basin and its base, ⁴⁰the curtains of the courtyard, its pillars and bases, and the curtain of the gate of the courtyard, its ropes, and its tent pegs, and all the items of the service of the tabernacle for the tent of meeting, ⁴¹finely-woven clothing for serving in the holy place, the clothing of holiness for Aaron the priest and the clothing of his sons, to {be} priests. ⁴²Thus the sons of Israel did all the work according to all that Yahweh had commanded Moses. ⁴³And Moses saw all of the work, and behold! they had done it. Just as Yahweh had commanded, thus they had done. And Moses blessed them.

¹Then Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²"On the first day of the first month of the new year you must set up the tabernacle, the tent of meeting. ³You must place the ark of the testimony in it, and you must shield the ark with the curtain. ⁴You must bring in the table and set in order the things that belong on it. Then you must bring in the lampstand and set up the lamps. ⁵You must put the golden incense altar before the ark of the testimony, and you must put the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle. ⁶You must put the altar for burnt offerings in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the tent of meeting. ⁷You must put the large basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and you must put water in it. ⁸You must set up the courtyard around it, and you must hang up the curtain at the courtyard entrance. ⁹You must take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and everything that is in it. You must set it apart and all its furnishings to me; then it will be holy. ¹⁰You must anoint the altar for burnt offerings and all its utensils. You must set apart the altar to me and it will become very holy to me. ¹¹You must anoint the bronze basin and its base and set it apart to me. ¹²You are to bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting and you must wash them with water. ¹³You are to clothe Aaron with the garments that are set apart to me, anoint him and set him apart so that he may serve as my priest. ¹⁴You are to bring his sons and clothe them with coats. ¹⁵You must anoint them as you anointed their father so that they may serve me as priests. Their anointing will make for them a permanent priesthood throughout their people's generations." ¹⁶This is what Moses did; he followed all that Yahweh had commanded him. He did all these things.

¹⁷So the tabernacle was set up on the first day of the first month in the second year. ¹⁸Moses set up the tabernacle, put its bases in place, set up its frames, attached its bars, and set up its pillars and posts. ¹⁹He spread the covering over the tabernacle and put tent over it, as Yahweh had commanded him. ²⁰He took the covenant decrees and put them into the ark. He also placed the poles on the ark and put the atonement lid on it. ²¹He brought the ark into the tabernacle. He set up the curtain for it to shield the ark of the testimony, as Yahweh had commanded him. ²²He put the table into the tent of meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the curtain. ²³He placed the bread in order on the table before Yahweh, as Yahweh had commanded him. ²⁴He put the lampstand into the tent of meeting, across from the table, on the south side of the tabernacle. ²⁵He lit the lamps before Yahweh, as Yahweh had commanded him. ²⁶He put the golden incense altar into the tent of meeting in front of the curtain. ²⁷He burned fragrant incense on it, as Yahweh had commanded him. ²⁸He hung the curtain at the tabernacle entrance. ²⁹He put the altar for the burnt offering at the entrance to the tabernacle, the tent of meeting. He offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering, as Yahweh had commanded him. ³⁰He placed the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and he put water in it for washing. ³¹Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and their feet from the basin ³²whenever they would go into the tent of meeting and whenever they would go up to the altar. They washed themselves, as Yahweh had commanded Moses. ³³Moses set up the courtyard around the tabernacle and the altar. He set up the curtain at the courtyard entrance. In this way, Moses finished the work.

³⁴Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and Yahweh's glory filled the tabernacle. ³⁵Moses was not able to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud had settled on it, and because Yahweh's glory filled the tabernacle. ³⁶Whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the people of Israel would set out on their journey. ³⁷But if the cloud did not rise up from the tabernacle, then the people would not travel. They would stay until the day that it was lifted up. ³⁸For Yahweh's cloud was over the tabernacle by day, and his fire was over it by night, in plain view of all the people of Israel throughout their journey.

Leviticus

Chapter 1

¹And Yahweh called to Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying, ²“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When a man among you offers an offering to Yahweh, from the livestock, either from the herd or from the flock you must offer your offering.

¹⁰And if his offering is from the flock, from the sheep or from the goats, as a burnt offering, he must offer a male without blemish. ¹¹And he must slaughter it on the side of the altar northward before the face of Yahweh. And the sons of Aaron, the priests, will sprinkle its blood on every side of the altar. ¹²And he is to cut it into its pieces with its head and its fat. And the priest must place them on the wood that is on the fire that is on the altar. ¹³And he must wash with water the inner parts and the legs. And the priest will offer everything, and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to Yahweh.

¹⁴And if his offering to Yahweh is to be a burnt offering of birds, then he must offer his offering from the turtledoves or from the sons of the pigeon. ¹⁵And the priest must bring it to the altar and wring off its head, and burn it on the altar. And its blood must be drained out on the side of the altar. ¹⁶And he must remove its crop with its plumage, and throw it beside the altar on the east side, in the place for the ashes. ¹⁷And he must tear it open by its wings; he must not divide it into two parts. And the priest will burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to Yahweh.

¹And when a person brings a grain offering to Yahweh, his offering must be fine flour. And he will pour oil on it and put incense on it. ²And he will bring it to the sons of Aaron, the priests, and take out from it his handful of its fine flour and of its oil with all its incense. And the priest will burn its memorial portion on the altar as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to Yahweh. ³And what is left of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and to his sons. It is the holiest holy thing from the offerings made by fire to Yahweh.

⁴And when you offer a grain offering that is baked in an oven, it must be cakes of fine flour without yeast mixed with oil or wafers without yeast spread with oil. ⁵And if your offering is a grain offering made on the griddle, it must be of fine flour without yeast that is mixed with oil. ⁶You are to divide it into pieces and pour oil on it. This is a grain offering. ⁷And if your offering is a grain offering cooked in a pan, it must be made of fine flour with oil. ⁸And you must bring the grain offering that is made from these things to Yahweh. And it will be presented to the priest, and he will bring it to the altar. ⁹And the priest will take from the grain offering its memorial portion, and he will burn it on the altar. It is an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to Yahweh. ¹⁰And what is left of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and to his sons. It is the holiest holy thing from the offerings made by fire to Yahweh.

¹Every grain offering that you offer to Yahweh must not be made with yeast. For you must not burn any leaven or any honey with it as an offering made by fire to Yahweh. ¹²You will offer them to Yahweh as an offering of firstfruits, but on the altar they will not ascend as a sweet aroma. ¹³And every offering of your grain offerings you must season with salt. And you must never allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be missing from your grain offering. With all your offerings you must offer salt.

¹⁴And if you offer a grain offering of firstfruits to Yahweh, you must offer a grain offering of your firstfruits that is fresh grain roasted with fire, crushed new grain. ¹⁵And you must put oil on it and you must put incense on it. This is a grain offering. ¹⁶And the priest will burn as its memorial portion some of its crushed grain and some of its oil with all its incense. This is an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

¹And if a sacrifice of peace offering is his offering, if he is offering from the herd, whether male or female, he must offer it without blemish before the face of Yahweh. ²And he will lay his hand on the head of his offering and he will slaughter it at the door of the tent of meeting. And the sons of Aaron, the priests, will sprinkle the blood on every side of the altar. ³And he will offer from the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire to Yahweh: the fat covering the inner parts and all the fat that is on the inner parts, ⁴and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them which is by the loins, and the lobe on the liver which he will remove with the kidneys. ⁵And the sons of Aaron will burn it on the altar with the burnt offering that is on the wood that is on the fire. It is an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to Yahweh.

⁶And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering to Yahweh is from the flock; male or female, he must offer it without blemish. ⁷If he offers a lamb for his offering, then he must offer it before the face of Yahweh. ⁸And he will lay his hand on the head of his sacrifice and slaughter it before the tent of meeting. And the sons of Aaron will sprinkle its blood on every side of the altar. ⁹And he will offer from the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire to Yahweh: its fat, the entire fat tail which he will remove near the backbone, and the fat covering the inner parts and all the fat that is on the inner parts, ¹⁰and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the lobe on the liver which he will remove with the kidneys. ¹¹And the priest will burn it on the altar as food, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

¹²And if a goat is his offering, then he will offer it before the face of Yahweh. ¹³And he must lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before the face of the tent of meeting. And the sons of Aaron will sprinkle its blood on every side of the altar. ¹⁴And he will offer from it his offering as an offering made by fire to Yahweh: the fat covering the inner parts and all the fat that is on the inner parts, ¹⁵and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the lobe on the liver which he will remove with the kidneys. ¹⁶And the priest will burn them on the altar as food, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma. All the fat belongs to Yahweh. ¹⁷It will be a permanent statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings: you must not eat any fat or any blood."

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²"Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'When a person sins by mistake in any of the commands of Yahweh, about what must not be done, and does any of one them, ³if the anointed priest sins so as to bring guilt on the people, then he will offer for his sin which he has sinned a bull, a son of the herd, without blemish to Yahweh as a sin offering. ⁴And he must bring the bull to the entrance of the tent of meeting before the face of Yahweh. And he must lay his hand on the head of the bull and slaughter the bull before the face of Yahweh. ⁵And the anointed priest will take some of the blood of the bull and bring it to the tent of meeting. ⁶And the priest will dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the face of Yahweh, at the face of the curtain of the holy place. ⁷And the priest will put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense before the face of Yahweh, which is in the tent of meeting. And he will pour out all the blood of the bull at the base of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ⁸And all the fat of the bull of the sin offering he will remove from it: the fat covering over the inner parts and all the fat that is on the inner parts, ⁹and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the lobe on the liver which he will remove with the kidneys— ¹⁰just as it is removed from the ox of the sacrifice of the peace offering. And the priest will burn them on the altar of the burnt offering. ¹¹And the skin of the bull and all its flesh, with its head and with its legs and its inner parts and its dung— ¹²all of the bull—he will bring out to the outside of the camp to a clean place, to the heap of the ash, and he will burn it on wood with fire. It will be burned on the heap of the ash.

¹³And if the whole congregation of Israel strays unintentionally and the matter is concealed from the eyes of the assembly and they do one thing from all the commands of Yahweh which are not to be done and they become guilty, ¹⁴and the sin which they have sinned against it becomes known, then the assembly must offer a bull, a son of the herd, for a sin offering. And they must bring it before the face of the tent of meeting. ¹⁵And the elders of the congregation will lay their hands on the head of the bull before the face of Yahweh. And the bull will be slaughtered before the face of Yahweh. ¹⁶And the anointed priest will bring some of the blood of the bull to the tent of meeting. ¹⁷And the priest will dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the face of Yahweh, at the face of the curtain. ¹⁸And he will put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before the face of Yahweh, which is in the tent of meeting. And he will pour out all the blood at the base of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ¹⁹And all its fat he will remove from it and burn on the altar. ²⁰And he must do with the bull just as he did with the bull of the sin offering, thus he will do with it. And the priest will make atonement for them, and it will be forgiven them. ²¹And he will bring out the bull to the outside of the camp and he will burn it just as he burned the first bull. This is the sin offering of the assembly.

²²When a ruler sins and does by mistake one thing from all the commands of Yahweh his God that should not be done, and he becomes guilty, ²³or his sin by which he has sinned is made known to him, then he must bring as his offering a buck of the goats, a male without blemish. ²⁴And he will lay his hand on the head of the goat and slaughter it in the place where he slaughters the burnt offering before the face of Yahweh. This is a sin offering. ²⁵And the priest will take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of the burnt offering. And he will pour out its blood at the base of the altar of the burnt offering. ²⁶And he will burn all the fat on the altar, just like the fat of the sacrifice of the peace offerings. And the priest will make atonement for him concerning his sin, and it will be forgiven him.

²⁷And if any person from the people of the land sins by mistake, doing one thing from the commands of Yahweh that must not be done, and he becomes guilty, ²⁸or his sin which he sinned is made known to him, then he will bring for his offering a doe of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin that he has sinned. ²⁹And he will lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter the sin offering at the place of the burnt offering. ³⁰And the priest will take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of the burnt offering. And he will pour out all its blood at the base of the altar. ³¹And he will remove all the fat, just as the fat is removed from on the sacrifice of the peace offerings. And the priest will burn it on the altar as a sweet aroma to Yahweh. And the priest will make atonement for him, and it will be forgiven him.

³²And if he brings a lamb as his offering for a sin offering, he will bring a female without blemish. ³³And he will lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it for a sin offering at the place where he slaughters the burnt offering. ³⁴And the priest will take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of the burnt offering. And he will pour out all its blood at the base of the altar. ³⁵And he will remove all the fat, just as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offerings. And the priest will burn them on the altar on top of the offerings of Yahweh made by fire. And the priest will make atonement for him for his sin that he has sinned, and it will be forgiven him.

¹And when a person sins in that he hears the utterance of a curse and he is a witness, whether he has seen or known of it, if he does not tell, then he will bear his iniquity. ²Or if a person touches any unclean thing, whether it be the carcass of an unclean wild animal or the carcass of unclean livestock or the carcass of an unclean creeping animal, and it is concealed from him, then he is unclean and guilty. ³Or if he touches the uncleanness of a human, of all his uncleanness that one becomes unclean by, and it is concealed from him but he comes to know of it, then he will be guilty. ⁴Or if a person swears rashly with his lips to do evil, or to do good, anything that a man swears rashly, and it is concealed from him but he comes to know of it, then he will be guilty, in any of these things. ⁵And it will be that when someone is guilty in one of these things, he must confess that in which he has sinned. ⁶And he must bring his guilt offering to Yahweh for his sin that he has sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb, or a doe of the goats, for a sin offering. And the priest will make atonement for him concerning his sin.

⁷And if his hand does not touch enough small livestock, then he can bring as his guilt offering because he sinned two turtledoves or two sons of the pigeon to Yahweh, one for a sin offering and one for a burnt offering. ⁸And he must bring them to the priest, and he will offer that which is for the sin offering first. And he will wring off its head from the front of its neck, but he will not sever it. ⁹And he will sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar. And the rest of the blood he will drain out at the base of the altar. This is the sin offering. ¹⁰And he must make a burnt offering of the second one, according to the regulation. And the priest will make atonement for him for his sin that he sinned, and it will be forgiven for him.

¹¹And if his hand cannot touch two turtledoves or two sons of the pigeon, then he must bring as his sacrifice because he sinned a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering. He must not put oil on it nor put incense on it, for it is a sin offering. ¹²And he must bring it to the priest, and the priest will take from it his handful as its memorial portion. And he will burn it on the altar, on top of the offerings made by fire to Yahweh. This is the sin offering. ¹³And the priest will make atonement for him, for his sin that he sinned from one of these, and it will be forgiven for him. And it will belong to the priest, as with the grain offering.”

¹⁴And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁵“If a person acts unfaithfully and sins by mistake with the holy things of Yahweh, then he must bring his guilt offering to Yahweh, a ram without blemish from the flock with your valuation of silver shekels, in the shekel of the holy place, as a guilt offering. ¹⁶And for what he sinned in connection with the holy thing he must make restitution, and one-fifth of it he must add to it and give it to the priest. And the priest will make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and it will be forgiven for him.

¹⁷And if a person sins and does one thing from all the commands of Yahweh that must not be done, and he does not know, then he is guilty and must bear his iniquity. ¹⁸And he must bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation, as a guilt offering. And the priest will make atonement for him concerning his mistake which he made unintentionally and did not know it, and it will be forgiven for him. ¹⁹It is a guilt offering. He is certainly guilty to Yahweh.”

Chapter 6

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“If a person sins and acts unfaithfully against Yahweh and deceives his fellow citizen, in a deposit or in a pledge of hand or by theft, or if he has oppressed his fellow citizen, ³or he has found something lost and lies about it, or he swears falsely, according to one of all the things which mankind does to sin thereby, ⁴and it happened that he has sinned and is guilty, then he must give back the robbed thing that he stole or the extorted thing that he extorted, or the deposit which was entrusted to him, or the lost thing that he had found; ⁵or from all that he has sworn about falsely, he must restore it in full and he must add one-fifth its value to it. He must give it to whom it belongs on the day of his guilt offering. ⁶And he must bring his guilt offering to Yahweh, a ram without blemish from the flock with your estimate of its value, as a guilt offering to the priest. ⁷And

⁸And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ⁹“Command Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the burnt offering: The burnt offering itself must be on the hearth on the altar all the night until the morning. And the fire of the altar will be kept burning on it. ¹⁰And the priest will put on his linen robe and he will put on his linen underclothes over his body. And he will pick up the ashes, which is the burnt offering the fire has consumed on the altar. And he will put it beside the altar. ¹¹And he will take off his garments and put on other garments. And he will bring out the ash to the outside of the camp, to a clean place. ¹²And the fire on the altar will be kept burning on it. It must not go out, and the priest will kindle wood on it in the morning by the morning. And he will arrange the burnt offering on it, and he will burn on it the fat of the peace offerings. ¹³Fire must be kept burning on the altar continually. It must not go out.

¹⁴And this is the law of the grain offering. The sons of Aaron will offer it before the face of Yahweh at the face of the altar. ¹⁵And he will take up from it his handful of the fine flour of the grain offering and of the oil and all the incense which is on the grain offering. And he will burn it on the altar as a sweet aroma, its memorial portion to Yahweh. ¹⁶And Aaron and his sons will eat what is left from it. It must be eaten without yeast in a holy place. They will eat it in the courtyard of the tent of meeting. ¹⁷It must not be baked with yeast. I have given it as their part from my offerings made by fire. It is the holiest holy thing, like the sin offering and like the guilt offering. ¹⁸Every male from the sons of Aaron may eat it as a permanent statute throughout your generations, from the offerings of Yahweh made by fire. All that touches them will become holy.”

¹⁹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁰“This is the offering of Aaron and his sons, which they will offer to Yahweh on the day when he is anointed: a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour as a continual grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening. ²¹It will be made with oil on a griddle. When it is well-mixed, you will bring it. In baked pieces you will offer the grain offering as a sweet aroma to Yahweh. ²²And the anointed priest that comes after him from among his sons will offer it. As a permanent statute it shall be completely burned up to Yahweh. ²³And all of the grain offering of the priest will be completely burned up. It must not be eaten.”

²⁴And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁵“Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the sin offering: in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered the sin offering must be slaughtered before the face of Yahweh. It is the holiest holy thing. ²⁶The priest who offers it as a sin offering will eat it. It must be eaten in a holy place, in the courtyard of the tent of meeting. ²⁷All that touches its meat will become holy. And if some of the blood is sprinkled on the garment, you must clean where it was sprinkled on it in a holy place. ²⁸And the pot of clay in which it is boiled must be broken. And if it is boiled in a pot of bronze, then it must be scrubbed and rinsed in water. ²⁹Every male among the priests may eat it. It is the holiest holy thing. ³⁰And any sin offering from which some of its blood was brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the holy place must not be eaten. It must be burned in the fire.

Chapter 7

¹And this is the law of the guilt offering. It is the holiest holy thing. ²In the place where they slaughter the burnt offering they must slaughter the guilt offering. And they must sprinkle its blood on every side of the altar. ³And all its fat will be offered from it: the fat tail and the fat covering the inner parts, ⁴and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the lobe on the liver which he will remove with the kidneys. ⁵And the priest must burn them on the altar as an offering made by fire to Yahweh. It is a guilt offering. ⁶Every male among the priests may eat it. It must be eaten in a holy place. It is the holiest holy thing. ⁷The sin offering is like the guilt offering. The law is the same for them. The priest who makes atonement with it; it will belong to him. ⁸As for the priest who offers a burnt offering of a man, the hide of the burnt offering that he offered will belong to the priest. It will belong to him. ⁹And every grain offering that is baked in an oven, and everything cooked in a frying pan or on a griddle will belong to the priest who offers it. It will belong to him. ¹⁰And every grain offering, mixed with oil or dry, will be for all the sons of Aaron, to each as to his brother.

¹¹And this is the law of the sacrifice of the peace offerings which they will offer to Yahweh. ¹²If one offers it for thanksgiving, then he must offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving cakes without yeast mixed with oil and wafers without yeast smeared with oil and well-mixed cakes of fine flour mixed with oil. ¹³With the cakes he must offer bread with yeast as his offering, in addition to the thanksgiving sacrifice of his peace offerings. ¹⁴And he will offer from it one from each offering as a gift to Yahweh. It will belong to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings. It will belong to him.

¹⁵And the meat of the thanksgiving sacrifice of the peace offerings must be eaten on the day of his offering. He must not leave any of it until morning. ¹⁶And if the sacrifice of his offering is for a vow or for a freewill offering, it may be eaten on the day he offers his sacrifice. And the next day whatever remains of it may be eaten. ¹⁷And what is left from the meat of the sacrifice must be burned in the fire on the third day. ¹⁸And if any of the meat of the sacrifice of his peace offerings to be eaten is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted. It will not be credited to the one who offered it. It will be a disgusting thing, and the person who eats some of it will carry his iniquity.

²²And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²³“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘You must not eat any of the fat of an ox or a sheep or a goat. ²⁴And the fat of a carcass or the fat of an animal torn by wild animals may be used for any other use, but you must certainly not eat it. ²⁵If anyone eats fat from the animal which he has offered part of it as a sacrifice made by fire to Yahweh, then the person who ate it must be cut off from his people. ²⁶And you must not eat any blood in any of your dwellings, whether of a bird or of a land animal. ²⁷Any person who eats any blood, that person must be cut off from his people.”

²⁸And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁹“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to Yahweh must bring his offering to Yahweh from the sacrifice of his peace offerings. ³⁰His hands must bring an offering made by fire to Yahweh: the fat with the breast. He must bring the breast to wave it as a wave offering before the face of Yahweh. ³¹And the priest must burn the fat on the altar, and the breast will be for Aaron and for his sons. ³²And the right thigh you must give as a gift to the priest from the sacrifices of your peace offerings. ³³The one from the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings and the fat will have for him the right thigh as a share. ³⁴For I have taken from the sons of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, the breast of the wave offering, and the thigh that is the gift. And I have given them to Aaron the priest and his sons as a permanent statute among the sons of Israel.

³⁵This is the share of Aaron and the share of his sons from the offerings made by fire to Yahweh, on the day when he offered them as priests to Yahweh, ³⁶which Yahweh commanded to give them on the day of his anointing them from the people of Israel. It will be a permanent statute throughout their generations.

³⁷This is the law of the burnt offering, of the grain offering, and of the sin offering, and of the guilt offering, and of the consecration offering, and of the sacrifice of the peace offerings, ³⁸which Yahweh commanded Moses on Mount Sinai on the day he commanded the sons of Israel to offer their offerings to Yahweh in the wilderness of Sinai.”

Chapter 8

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the oil of anointing, and the bull of the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread. ³And bring together all the assembly at the entrance of the tent of meeting.” ⁴And Moses did as Yahweh commanded him, and the assembly came together at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ⁵And Moses said to the assembly, “This is the thing that Yahweh has commanded to be done.”

¹⁰And Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it. And he set them apart. ¹¹And he sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the washbasin and its base, to set them apart. ¹²And he poured some of the anointing oil on the head of Aaron and anointed him to set him apart. ¹³And Moses brought near the sons of Aaron and clothed them with tunics, and girded them with sashes, and bound headbands on them, as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

¹⁴And Moses brought the bull of the sin offering. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering. ¹⁵And Moses slaughtered it, and he took the blood and put it all around on the horns of the altar with his finger. And he purified the altar and poured out the blood at the base of the altar. And he set it apart to make atonement upon it. ¹⁶And he took all the fat that was on the inner parts, the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and Moses burned it on the altar. ¹⁷And the bull and its hide and its flesh and its dung he burned in the fire outside the camp, as Yahweh had commanded him.

¹⁸And he brought near the ram of the burnt offering. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. ¹⁹And Moses slaughtered it and sprinkled the blood against every side of the altar. ²⁰And Moses cut the ram into its pieces and burned the head and the pieces and the suet. ²¹And the inner parts and the legs he washed with water. And Moses burned all of the ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering, a sweet aroma. It was an offering made by fire to Yahweh as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

²²And he brought near the second ram, the ram of consecration. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. ²³And Moses slaughtered it and took some of its blood and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. ²⁴And he brought near the sons of Aaron. And Moses put some of the blood on the tip of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot. And Moses sprinkled the blood against every side of the altar. ²⁵And he took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the inner parts, and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh. ²⁶And from the basket of bread without yeast that was before the face of Yahweh he took one cake without yeast, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat and on the right thigh. ²⁷And he put it all in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons and waved them before the face of Yahweh as a wave offering. ²⁸And Moses took them from off their hands and burned them on the altar for the burnt offering. They were a consecration offering, a sweet aroma. It was an offering made by fire to Yahweh. ²⁹And Moses took the breast and waved it as a wave offering to the face of Yahweh. It was the share for Moses from the ram of consecration, as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

³⁰And Moses took some of the oil of anointing and some of the blood that was on the altar and he sprinkled these on Aaron, on his clothes, and on his sons, and on the clothes of his sons with him. And he set apart Aaron, his clothes, and his sons and the clothes of his sons with him.

³¹And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, “Boil the meat at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and there you will eat it and the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I commanded, saying, ‘Aaron and his sons will eat it.’”

³²And what is left of the meat and of the bread you must burn in the fire. ³³And you must not go out from the entrance of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the day of the fulfillment of the days of your consecration, because for seven days he will fill your hands. ³⁴As has been done this day, Yahweh has commanded to be done to make atonement for you. ³⁵And at the entrance of the tent of meeting you will stay day and night for seven days. And you will keep the command of Yahweh, and you will not die, because this is what I have been commanded.”
³⁶And Aaron and his sons did all the things which Yahweh had commanded by the hand of Moses.

Chapter 9

¹Now it was that on the eighth day Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel. ²And he said to Aaron, “Take for yourself a calf, a son of the herd, for a sin offering, and a ram without blemish for a burnt offering, and offer them before the face of Yahweh. ³And to the sons of Israel you must speak, saying, ‘Take a buck of the goats for a sin offering and a calf and a lamb, sons of the year without blemish, for a burnt offering, ⁴and an ox and a ram for peace offerings to sacrifice before the face of Yahweh, and a grain offering mixed with oil, because today Yahweh will appear to you.’” ⁵And they brought what Moses commanded to the entrance of the tent of meeting. And all the assembly came near and stood before the face of Yahweh. ⁶And Moses said, “This is the thing that Yahweh commanded you to do, so the glory of Yahweh may appear to you.” ⁷And Moses said to Aaron, “Come near to the altar and offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people. And offer the sacrifice of the people and make atonement for them, as Yahweh has commanded.”

¹²And he slaughtered the burnt offering. And the sons of Aaron brought to him the blood, and he sprinkled it against every side of the altar. ¹³And they brought to him the burnt offering in its pieces, with the head, and he burned them on the altar. ¹⁴And he washed the inner parts and the legs and burned them on top of the burnt offering on the altar.

¹⁵And he offered the offering of the people. And he took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people and he slaughtered it and offered it for sin, like the first one. ¹⁶And he offered the burnt offering and did it according to the ordinance. ¹⁷And he presented the grain offering. And he filled his hand with it and burned it on the altar, along with the burnt offering of the morning.

¹⁸And he slaughtered the ox and the ram, the sacrifice of the peace offerings, which was for the people. And the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him and he sprinkled it against every side of the altar. ¹⁹As for the fat portions from the bull and from the ram, the fat tail, and the fat covering the inner parts, and the kidneys, and the lobe of the liver, ²⁰they then put the fat portions on the breasts, and he burned the fat portions on the altar. ²¹And the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved as a wave offering before the face of Yahweh, as Moses had commanded.

²²And Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them. And he came down from offering the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings. ²³And Moses and Aaron came into the tent of meeting, and they went out and blessed the people. And the glory of Yahweh appeared to all the people. ²⁴And fire came out from before the face of Yahweh and consumed the burnt offering and the fat portions on the altar. And all the people saw and shouted and fell upon their faces.

Chapter 10

¹And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, a man took his censer, and they put fire in it and they put incense on it. And they offered before the face of Yahweh unfamiliar fire that he had not commanded them. ²And fire went out from before the face of Yahweh and it devoured them. And they died before the face of Yahweh. ³And Moses said to Aaron, "This is what Yahweh spoke, saying,

'Among those who come near me I will show myself as set apart. And on the faces of all the people I will be glorified.'

And Aaron was silent. ⁴And Moses called to Mishael and to Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron. And he said to them, "Come near and carry your brothers from the face of the holy place to the outside of the camp." ⁵And they came near and carried them by their tunics to the outside of the camp, as Moses had instructed. ⁶And Moses said to Aaron and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, his sons, "Do not let your heads be unbound, and do not tear your clothes, and you will not die, and he does not become angry against all the assembly. But your brothers, all of the house of Israel, may weep for the burning that Yahweh burned. ⁷And you must not go out from the entrance of the tent of meeting, or else you will die, for the oil of anointing of Yahweh is on you." And they acted according to the instructions of Moses.

⁸And Yahweh spoke to Aaron, saying, ⁹"Do not drink wine or intoxicating drink, you, or your sons with you, when you go into the tent of meeting, and you will not die. It is a permanent statute throughout your generations, ¹⁰so to distinguish between the set apart and the common, and between the unclean and the clean, ¹¹so that you may teach the sons of Israel all the statutes that Yahweh has spoken to them by the hand of Moses."

¹²And Moses spoke to Aaron and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, his remaining sons, "Take the grain offering, the remains from the offerings made by fire to Yahweh, and eat it without yeast beside the altar, for it is the holiest holy thing. ¹³And you must eat it in a holy place, because it is your share and the share of your sons from the offerings made by fire to Yahweh, for thus I have been commanded. ¹⁴And the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the gift, you must eat in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you, for they are given as your share and the share of your sons from the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the sons of Israel. ¹⁵The thigh of the gift and the breast of the wave offering, in addition to the fat portions of the offerings made by fire, they must bring to wave as a wave offering before the face of Yahweh. And it will belong to you and to your sons with you as a share forever, as Yahweh has commanded."

¹⁶And the goat of the sin offering Moses searched carefully for, but behold, it had burned up! And he was angry with Eleazar and with Ithamar, the remaining sons of Aaron; saying, ¹⁷"Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, since it is the holiest holy thing, and it he has given to you to take away the iniquity of the assembly, to make atonement for them before the face of Yahweh? ¹⁸Look, its blood was not brought to the inner holy place. You should certainly have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded!" ¹⁹And Aaron spoke to Moses, "Look, today they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the face of Yahweh, and such things as these have happened to me. If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been pleasing in the eyes of Yahweh?" ²⁰And Moses heard and it was good in his eyes.

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them, ²"Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'These are the living things which you may eat among all the animals that are on the earth. ³Any one that divides the hoof, and splits the cleft hoof, one that chews the cud among the animals—it you may eat. ⁴However, these you must not eat among those that chew the cud or among those that divide the hoof: the camel because it is one that chews the cud but is not one that divides the hoof—it is unclean to you. ⁵And the rock badger, because it is one that chews the cud but the hoof is not divided—it is unclean to you. ⁶And the rabbit, because it is one that chews the cud, but the hoof is not divided—it is unclean to you. ⁷And the pig, because it is one that divides the hoof and one that splits the cleft hoof, but it does not chew the cud—it is unclean to you. ⁸You must not eat of their meat, and you must not touch their carcasses. They are unclean to you.

⁹This you may eat from all that are in the water: all that have fins and scales in the water, in the seas and in the rivers, them you may eat. ¹⁰But all that do not have fins and scales in the seas and in the rivers, among every swarm of the water and among all the living creatures that are in the water, they are detestable to you. ¹¹And they must be detestable to you. You must not eat of their meat, and you must detest their carcasses. ¹²All that does not have fins and scales in the water—it is detestable to you.

¹³And these you must detest among the birds and must not eat—they are detestable: the eagle, and the vulture, and the black vulture, ¹⁴and the kite, and the falcon of any kind, ¹⁵every raven of any kind, ¹⁶and the ostrich, and the owl, and the seagull, and the hawk of any kind, ¹⁷and the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl, ¹⁸and the white owl, and the pelican, and the osprey, ¹⁹and the stork, the heron of any kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.

²⁰Every flying insect that walks on all fours—it is detestable to you. ²¹Only this you may eat from all the flying insects that walk on all fours: what has jointed legs above its feet with which to hop on the ground. ²²These among them you may eat: the locust of any kind, and the bald locust of any kind, and the cricket of any kind, and the grasshopper of any kind. ²³But every flying insect that has four legs—it is detestable to you, ²⁴and by these you will make yourself unclean. Any one who touches their carcasses will be unclean until the evening. ²⁵And any one who lifts up their carcasses must wash his clothes and will be unclean until the evening.

²⁶As for every animal which is one that divides the hoof but is not one that splits the cleft hoof, or is not one that chews the cud, they are unclean to you. Any one who touches them will be unclean. ²⁷As for any one that walks on its paws among all the animals that walk on all fours, they are unclean to you. Any one who touches their carcasses will be unclean until the evening. ²⁸And the one who lifts up their carcasses must wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening. These are unclean to you.

²⁹And these are unclean to you among the swarming things that swarm on the ground: the weasel, and the mouse, and the large lizard of any kind, ³⁰and the gecko, and the monitor lizard, and the lizard, and the skink, and the chameleon. ³¹These are unclean to you among all the swarming things. Any one who touches them when they are dead will be unclean until the evening. ³²And anything which upon one of them falls when they are dead will be unclean, whether any wood vessel, or a garment, or leather, or sackcloth—any object with which work is done must be put in water and be unclean until the evening. Then it will be clean. ³³As for any vessel of clay that one of them falls into, all that is inside it will become unclean, and you must destroy it. ³⁴Any food that may be eaten which such water comes on is unclean. And any liquid that may be drunk from any such vessel is unclean. ³⁵And all that something from one of their carcasses falls on becomes unclean; an oven or stove must be broken to pieces. They are unclean and they must remain unclean to you. ³⁶However, a spring or cistern for collecting water will be clean; but one who touches their carcass is unclean. ³⁷And if something from their carcass falls upon any seed for planting which will be planted, it is clean. ³⁸And if water is put on seed and something from their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

³⁹And if one from the animals that are for you to eat dies, the one who touches the carcass will be unclean until the evening. ⁴⁰And the one who eats from its carcass must wash his clothes and he will be unclean until the evening. And the one who lifts up its carcass will wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

⁴¹And every swarming thing that swarms on the ground, it is detestable and must not be eaten. ⁴²All that crawls on a belly, and all that walks on all fours, as well as all that has many feet—any swarming thing that swarms on the ground—you must not eat them for they are detestable. ⁴³You must not make yourselves detestable with any swarming thing that swarms. And you must not make yourselves unclean with them, and become unclean by them. ⁴⁴For I am Yahweh your God. And you must keep yourselves holy, and be holy ones, because I am holy. You must not make yourselves unclean with any swarming thing that crawls on the ground. ⁴⁵For I am Yahweh, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, to be your God. So you must be holy ones, for I am holy.

⁴⁶This is the law of the animals, and the birds, and every living creature that swarms in the water, and of every creature that crawls on the ground, ⁴⁷to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the living thing that may be eaten and the living thing that may not be eaten.”

Chapter 12

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If a woman bears seed and gives birth to a male child, then she will be unclean for seven days, as at the time of the bleeding of her menstruation she is unclean. ³And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin must be circumcised. ⁴And 30 days and 3 days she will stay in the blood of her purification. Any holy thing she must not touch and into the holy place she must not go until the days of her purification are completed. ⁵And if she gives birth to a female child, then she will be unclean for two weeks, as with her menstruation. And 60 days and 6 days she will stay in the blood of her purification.

⁶And when the days of her purification are completed, for a son or for a daughter, she must bring a lamb, a son of its year, as a burnt offering, and a son of a pigeon or turtledove as a sin offering, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to the priest. ⁷And he will offer it before the face of Yahweh and make atonement for her. And she will be cleansed from the flow of her blood. This is the law for a woman who gives birth to a male or a female child. ⁸And if her hand does not find enough for a lamb, then she must take two turtledoves or two sons of the pigeon, one as a burnt offering and one as a sin offering. And the priest will make atonement for her. Then she will be clean.”

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²“When a human has on the skin of his body a swelling or scab or a bright spot, and it becomes an infection of skin disease on the skin of his body, then he must be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons, the priests. ³And the priest will look at the infection on the skin of the body. If the hair in the infection has turned white, and if the disease appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is an infection of skin disease. And the priest will look at him and will pronounce him unclean. ⁴And if the bright spot is white, it is on the skin of his body, and the appearance of it is not deeper than the skin, and its hair has not turned white, then the priest must isolate the infected person for seven days. ⁵And the priest must look at him on the seventh day, and if the skin disease has stayed unchanged in his eyes and the skin disease has not spread on the skin, then the priest must isolate him for seven days again. ⁶And the priest will look at him again on the seventh day, and if the infection has faded and the infection has not spread on the skin, then the priest will pronounce him clean. It is a rash, and he must wash his clothes, and then he will be clean. ⁷And if the rash has spread further on the skin after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, then he must show himself again to the priest. ⁸And the priest will look, and if the rash has spread on the skin, then the priest must pronounce him unclean. It is a skin disease.

²⁴Or when the body has a burn from fire on its skin and the raw flesh of the burn has become a reddish-white or white spot, ²⁵then the priest will look at it. And if the hair has turned white in that spot, and it appears to be deeper than the skin, then it is a skin disease that has broken out in the burn. And the priest must pronounce him unclean. It is an infection of skin disease. ²⁶And if the priest looks at it and if there is no white hair in the spot, and it is not deeper than the skin but it has faded, then the priest must isolate him for seven days. ²⁷And the priest must look at him on the seventh day. If it has spread further in the skin, then the priest must pronounce him unclean. It is an infection of skin disease. ²⁸And if the bright spot stays in its place and has not spread in the skin but it has faded, then it is the swelling of the burn. And the priest must pronounce him clean, for it is the scar of the burn.

²⁹And if a man or woman has an infection on him, on the head or in the beard, ³⁰then the priest must look at the infected person. And if it appears to be deeper than the skin, and on it is yellow, thin hair, then the priest must pronounce him unclean. It is an itch. It is a skin disease of the head or the beard. ³¹And if the priest looks at the itching infection and if it does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest will isolate the person with the itching infection for seven days. ³²And the priest will look at the infection on the seventh day. And if the itch has not spread and there is no yellow hair on it, and there is no appearance of the itch deeper than the skin, ³³then he shave himself, but the itchy area must not be shaved. And the priest must isolate the itching person for seven days again. ³⁴And the priest will look at the itch on the seventh day. And if the itch has not spread on the skin and it appears to not be deeper than the skin, then the priest must pronounce him clean. And he must wash his clothes, and he will be clean. ³⁵And if the itch has spread further in the skin after he pronounced him clean, ³⁶then the priest must look at him. And if the itch has spread on the skin, the priest does not need to seek for yellow hair. He is unclean. ³⁷And if in his eyes the itch has stayed unchanged and black hair has grown in it, the itch has healed. He is clean, and the priest will pronounce him clean.

³⁸And if a man or a woman has on the skin of their body bright spots, white bright spots, ³⁹then the priest must look. And if the bright spots on the skin of their body are a dull white, it is a rash that has broken out on the skin. He is clean.

⁴⁵As for the one with a skin disease who has the infection on him, his garments must be torn and his head must be unbound, and he must cover over the moustache, and he must call out, 'Unclean, unclean.' ⁴⁶All the days that the infection is on him he will be unclean. He is unclean. He must live alone, his dwelling must be outside the camp.

⁴⁷As for the garment, when it has in it the infection of skin disease, in a garment of wool or in a garment of linen, ⁴⁸or in warp or in woof of linen or wool, or in leather or in anything made with leather— ⁴⁹if the infection is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the leather, or in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, then it is an infection of skin disease. And it must be shown to the priest. ⁵⁰And the priest must look at the infection and he must isolate the infected thing for seven days. ⁵¹And he must look at the infection on the seventh day. If the infection has spread in the garment or in the warp or in the woof, or in the leather (whatever the work for which the leather is used), then the infection is a malignant skin disease. It is unclean. ⁵²And he must burn the garment, or the warp or the woof, in wool or in linen, or any article of leather, whatever has in it the infection, for it is a malignant skin disease. In the fire it must be burned up.

⁵³And if the priest looks, and behold, the infection has not spread in the garment or in the warp, or in the woof, or in any article of leather, ⁵⁴then the priest will command and they will wash that in which was the infection. And he must isolate it for seven days again. ⁵⁵And the priest will look at the infection after being washed. And if the infection has not changed its appearance, and the infection has not spread, it is unclean. In the fire you must burn it. It is an eaten away hole in its back or in its front.

⁵⁶And if the priest looks, and behold, the infection has faded after it was washed, then he must tear it out from the garment or from the leather, or from the warp or from the woof. ⁵⁷And if it still appears in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, it is spreading. In the fire you must burn it, the thing in which is the infection. ⁵⁸As for the garment or the warp or the woof, or any article of leather that you washed and the infection was removed from them, it must be washed a second time, and it will be clean.

⁵⁹This is the law of the infection of skin disease of the garment of wool or linen, or the warp or the woof, or any article of leather, for pronouncing it clean or for pronouncing it unclean."

Chapter 14

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²"This will be the law for the one with skin disease on the day of his cleansing. And he must be brought to the priest. ³And the priest will go out to the outside of the camp and the priest will look. And if the infection of skin disease has healed in the one with skin disease, ⁴then the priest will command and he must take for the one who is being cleansed two live, clean birds, and cedar wood, and crimson yarn, and hyssop. ⁵And the priest will command and he will slaughter one bird in a vessel of clay over fresh water. ⁶As for the live bird, he will take it and the cedar wood, and the crimson yarn and the hyssop, and he will dip them, and the live bird, in the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over the fresh water. ⁷And he will sprinkle on the one who is to be cleansed from the skin disease seven times, and he will pronounce him clean. And he will release the living bird toward the face of the field. ⁸And the one who is being cleansed will wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe in the water, and then he will be clean. And afterward he will come into the camp, and he will dwell outside his tent seven days. ⁹And it will be that on the seventh day he must shave off all his hair: his head, and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he must shave off. And he must wash his clothes and bathe his body in the water. And he will be clean.

¹⁰And on the eighth day he must take two male lambs without blemish, and one female lamb a year old without blemish, and three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering mixed with oil, and one log of oil. ¹¹And the priest who pronounces one clean will set the person who is to be cleansed, and those things, before the face of Yahweh at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ¹²And the priest will take one male lamb and offer it as a guilt offering, with the log of oil. And he will wave them as a wave offering before the face of Yahweh. ¹³And he must slaughter the male lamb in the place where he slaughters the sin offering and the burnt offerings, in the holy place. For like the sin offering, so the guilt offering, it belongs to the priest. It is the holiest holy thing. ¹⁴And the priest will take some of the blood of the guilt offering and the priest will put it on the tip of the right ear of the one who is being cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. ¹⁵And the priest will take some of the log of oil and pour it on the left palm of the priest. ¹⁶And the priest will dip his right finger in the oil that is on his left palm, and sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before the face of Yahweh. ¹⁷And the priest will put some of the rest of the oil that is on his palm on the tip of the right ear of the person being cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot—on top of the blood of the guilt offering. ¹⁸As for the rest of the oil that is on the palm of the priest, he will put it on the head of the person being cleansed. And the priest will make atonement for him before the face of Yahweh. ¹⁹And the priest will offer the sin offering and make atonement for the one being cleansed from his uncleanness. And afterward he will slaughter the burnt offering. ²⁰And the priest will offer up the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. And the priest will make atonement for him, and he will be clean.

²¹And if he is poor and his hand is not reaching, then he may take one male lamb as a guilt offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, and one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and a log of oil, ²²and two turtledoves or two sons of the pigeon, which his hand can reach. And one will be a sin offering and one a burnt offering. ²³And on the eighth day he must bring them for his cleansing to the priest, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, before the face of Yahweh. ²⁴And the priest will take the male lamb for the guilt offering and the log of oil. And the priest will wave them as a wave offering before the face of Yahweh. ²⁵And he must slaughter the male lamb for the guilt offering. And the priest will take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of the one being cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. ²⁶And the priest will pour some of the oil on the left palm of the priest. ²⁷And the priest will sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is on his left palm seven times before the face of Yahweh. ²⁸And the priest will put some of the oil that is on his palm on the tip of the right ear of the one being cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot—on the place of the blood of the guilt offering. ²⁹And the rest of the oil that is on the palm of the priest, he will put it on the head of the one being cleansed, to make atonement for him before the face of Yahweh. ³⁰And he must offer one from the turtledoves or from the sons of the pigeon, from what his hand could reach— ³¹whatever his hand could reach, one as a sin offering and one as a burnt offering, with the grain offering. And the priest will make atonement for the one being cleansed before the face of Yahweh. ³²This is the law for someone in whom is an infection of skin disease, whose hand is not able to reach for his cleansing.”

³³And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ³⁴“When you have come into the land of Canaan which I gave to you as a possession, and I put an infection of skin disease in a house in the land of your possession, ³⁵then he to whom the house belongs must come and tell the priest, saying, ‘There seems to me to be something like an infection in the house.’ ³⁶And the priest will command and they will empty the house before the priest comes to see the infection, so that all that is in the house will not be made unclean. And afterward the priest must come to see the house. ³⁷And he must look at the infection and if the infection in the walls of the house is greenish or reddish depressions and it appears to be deeper than the wall, ³⁸then the priest will go out of the house to the entrance of the house and close the house seven days. ³⁹And the priest will return on the seventh day and he will look and if the infection has spread in the walls of the house. ⁴⁰And the priest will command and they will take out the stones which have the infection on them and throw them to the outside of the city, to an unclean place. ⁴¹And he will have the house scraped from around the house. And they must pour out the dirt that they scraped off at the outside of the city, at an unclean place. ⁴²And they must take other stones and put them in the place of the stones, and take other dirt and plaster the house.

⁴³And if the infection returns and breaks out in the house after the stones have been pulled out and after the house has been scraped off and after the plastering, ⁴⁴then the priest must come and look. And if the infection has spread in the house, then it is a malignant infection in the house. It is unclean. ⁴⁵And the house must be torn down: its stones and its timber and all the plaster of the house. And he must take it away to the outside of the city, to an unclean place. ⁴⁶And the one who goes into the house during any of the days he has closed it will be unclean until the evening. ⁴⁷And the one who slept in the house must wash his clothes. And the one who ate in the house must wash his clothes.

⁴⁸And if the priest comes again and looks, and behold, the infection has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest will pronounce the house clean, because the infection has healed. ⁴⁹And he must take two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet yarn, and hyssop to cleanse the house. ⁵⁰And he will slaughter one bird in a vessel of clay over fresh water. ⁵¹And he will take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet yarn, and the live bird, and dip them in the blood of the bird that was slaughtered, and in the fresh water, and sprinkle on the house seven times. ⁵²And he will cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and with the fresh water, and with the live bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet yarn. ⁵³And he will release the live bird to the outside of the city, to the face of the field. And he will make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.

⁵⁴This is the law for every infection of skin disease and for an itch, ⁵⁵and for the skin disease of clothing and for the house, ⁵⁶and for swelling, and for a rash, and for a bright spot, ⁵⁷to teach when it is unclean or when it is clean. This is the law for skin disease."

Chapter 15

¹⁶And if a man has an emission of seed go out from him, then he must bathe his whole body in water. And he will be unclean until the evening. ¹⁷And any garment and any leather on which there is an emission of seed must be washed in water. And it will be unclean until the evening. ¹⁸And if a man lies with a woman and there is an emission of seed, then they must bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

¹⁹And when a woman has a fluid discharge, and blood is her fluid discharge in her body, for seven days she will be in her menstruation. And any one who touches her will be unclean until the evening. ²⁰And anything that she lies on during her menstruation will be unclean. And anything that she sits on will be unclean. ²¹And any one who touches her bed must wash his clothes and bathe in water. And he will be unclean until the evening. ²²And any one who touches any thing that she sits on must wash his clothes and bathe in water. And he will be unclean until the evening. ²³And if it is on the bed or on a thing which she sits on, when he touches it, he will be unclean until the evening. ²⁴And if a man actually lies with her so that her menstrual impurity is on him, then he will be unclean for seven days; and every bed on which he lies will be unclean.

²⁵And if a woman has a discharge of her blood that flows for many days when it is not the time of her menstruation, or if she discharges beyond her menstruation, all the days of the discharge of her uncleanness will be as the days of her menstruation. She is unclean. ²⁶Every bed on which she lies all the days of her discharge will be to her just like the bed of her menstruation. And any thing which she sits on will be unclean, just like the uncleanness of her menstruation. ²⁷And any one who touches them will be unclean; so he must wash his clothes and bathe in water, and he will be unclean until the evening. ²⁸And if she is cleansed from her discharge, then she will count for herself seven days, and after that she will be clean. ²⁹And on the eighth day she will take for herself two turtledoves or two sons of the pigeon and bring them to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

³⁰And the priest will offer one as a sin offering and one as a burnt offering. And the priest will make atonement for her before the face of Yahweh because of her unclean fluid discharge.

³¹And you must separate the sons of Israel from their uncleanness, and they will not die by their uncleanness, by their defiling my dwelling place that is in their midst.

³²This is the law for the one who has a fluid discharge, and for whoever has an emission of seed go out from him by which to become unclean, ³³and for the one who is sick in her menstruation, and for the one who discharges his bodily fluid, whether male or female, and for a man who lies with an unclean woman.”

Chapter 16

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they had come near to the face of Yahweh and died. ²And Yahweh said to Moses, “Speak to Aaron your brother that he must not come at any time into the holy place inside the curtain, to the face of the atonement lid that is on the Box, so he does not die. For I appear in the cloud over the atonement lid. ³In this manner Aaron must come into the holy place: with a bull, a son of the herd, for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. ⁴He must put on the holy linen tunic, and the linen undergarments must be on his body, and he must tie the linen sash and wrap the linen turban—they are the holy garments. And he must bathe his body in water and then dress himself with them. ⁵And from the assembly of the sons of Israel he must take two bucks of the goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering.

¹¹And Aaron must offer the bull of the sin offering, which will be for himself. And he will make atonement for himself and for his house. And he must slaughter the bull of the sin offering which is for himself. ¹²And he must take a full censer of coals of fire from on the altar from before the face of Yahweh, and his two hands full of finely ground fragrant incense, and bring them inside the curtain. ¹³And he must put the incense on the fire before the face of Yahweh. And the cloud of the incense will cover the atonement lid which is over the Testimony, and he will not die. ¹⁴And he must take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle it with his finger on the face of the atonement lid, on the east side. And before the face of the atonement lid he must sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.

¹⁵And he must slaughter the goat of the sin offering that is for the people and bring its blood to inside the curtain. And he must do with the blood just as he did with the blood of the bull. And he must sprinkle it on the atonement lid and before the face of the atonement lid. ¹⁶And he must make atonement for the holy place because of the uncleanness of the sons of Israel, and because of their rebellion, for all their sins. And thus he must do this for the tent of meeting that dwells with them in the midst of their uncleanness. ¹⁷And any human must not be in the tent of meeting when he enters to make atonement in the holy place until he comes out and has made atonement for himself and for his house, and for all the assembly of Israel. ¹⁸And he must go out to the altar that is before the face of Yahweh and make atonement for it. And he must take some of the blood of the bull and some of the blood of the goat and put it all around on the horns of the altar. ¹⁹And he must sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times. And he will cleanse it and set it apart from the uncleanness of the sons of Israel.

²³And Aaron must go into the tent of meeting and take off the linen garments that he had put on when he came to the holy place, and he must leave them there. ²⁴And he must bathe his body in water in a holy place, and put on his garments. And he must go out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people. And he will make atonement for himself and for the people. ²⁵And the fat of the sin offering he must burn on the altar. ²⁶And the one who sent away the goat as a goat that departs must wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; and after that he may come into the camp. ²⁷And the bull of the sin offering and the goat of the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, must be brought out to the outside of the camp. Then they must burn in the fire their hides, and their flesh, and their dung. ²⁸And the one who burns them must wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; and after that he may come into the camp.

²⁹And it will be a permanent statute for you, in the seventh month on the tenth day of the month, you must humble yourselves and must not do any work, the native born and the sojourner who sojourns among you; ³⁰for on this day atonement will be made for you, to cleanse you from all your sins. Before the face of Yahweh you will be clean. ³¹It is a sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you must humble yourselves. It is a permanent statute.

³²And the priest must make atonement, he who anoints him and who fills his hand to be priest in place of his father, and he must put on the linen garments, the holy garments. ³³And he must make atonement for the holiest holy place. And he must make atonement for the tent of meeting and the altar. And he must make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly. ³⁴This will be for you a permanent statute, to make atonement for the sons of Israel because of all their sins, once in the year." And he did just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

Chapter 17

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²"Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel; and say to them this thing that Yahweh has commanded, saying, ³Any man from the house of Israel who slaughters an ox, or a lamb, or a goat in the camp, or who slaughters it outside of the camp, ⁴but he does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to offer as an offering to Yahweh before the face of the dwelling of Yahweh—blood is reckoned to that man. He has shed blood, and that man must be cut off from among his people. ⁵This is so that the sons of Israel will bring their sacrifices that they are sacrificing on the face of the field and bring them to Yahweh at the entrance of the tent of meeting, to the priest, and sacrifice the sacrifices of peace offerings to Yahweh with them. ⁶And the priest will sprinkle the blood on the altar of Yahweh at the entrance of the tent of meeting. And he will burn the fat for a sweet aroma for Yahweh. ⁷And they must no longer sacrifice their sacrifices to goat idols, whom they prostitute themselves after. This will be a permanent statute for them throughout their generations.'

⁸And you must say to them, 'Any man from the house of Israel, or from the sojourners who sojourn among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice ⁹and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting in order to offer it to Yahweh, that man must be cut off from his people.

¹⁰And any man from the house of Israel, or from the sojourners sojourning among them, who eats any blood, I will set my face against that person who eats the blood and I will cut him off from among his people. ¹¹For the life of the flesh is in its blood, and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your lives. For it is the blood with the life that atones. ¹²Therefore I said to the sons of Israel every person among you must not eat blood. And the sojourner who sojourns among you must not eat blood. ¹³And any man from the sons of Israel, or from the sojourners sojourning among them, who hunts a wild game animal or bird that may be eaten, must pour out its blood and cover it with dirt.

¹⁴For the life of all flesh is its blood, it is with its life. And I have said to the sons of Israel, "You must not eat the blood of any flesh. For the life of all flesh—it is its blood. All who eat it must be cut off." ¹⁵And any person who eats an animal that has died or that has been torn by wild animals, among the native born or among the sojourners, he must wash his clothes and bathe in water, and he will be unclean until the evening. And he will be clean. ¹⁶And if he does not wash or his body he does not bathe, then he must carry his iniquity."

Chapter 18

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²"Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'I am Yahweh your God. ³Like the doings of the land of Egypt, in which you dwelled, you must not do. And like the doings of the land of Canaan which I am bringing you to, you must not do. You must not walk in their statutes. ⁴My laws you must do, and my statutes you must keep, so that you walk in them. I am Yahweh your God. ⁵And you must keep my statutes and my laws. The person who does them will live because of them. I am Yahweh.

⁶Any man must not come near to any relative of his body to uncover nakedness. I am Yahweh. ⁷The nakedness of your father and the nakedness of your mother you must not uncover. She is your mother, you must not uncover her nakedness. ⁸The nakedness of the wife of your father you must not uncover. It is the nakedness of your father. ⁹The nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father or the daughter of your mother, born at home or born outside, you must not uncover their nakedness. ¹⁰The nakedness of your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, you must not uncover their nakedness, for they are your nakedness. ¹¹The nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, the offspring of your father, she is your sister. You must not uncover her nakedness. ¹²The nakedness of your father's sister you must not uncover. She is your father's relative. ¹³The nakedness of your mother's sister you must not uncover, because she is your mother's relative. ¹⁴The nakedness of your father's brother you must not uncover, to his wife you must not come near. She is your aunt. ¹⁵The nakedness of your daughter-in-law you must not uncover. She is your son's wife. You must not uncover her nakedness. ¹⁶The nakedness of your brother's wife you must not uncover. That is your brother's nakedness. ¹⁷The nakedness of a woman and her daughter you must not uncover. Her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter you must not take to uncover her nakedness. They are relatives. It is wickedness. ¹⁸And a woman with her sister you must not take as a rival to uncover her nakedness in addition to her while she is alive.

¹⁹And you must not come near to a woman in the impurity of her uncleanness, to uncover her nakedness. ²⁰And you must not give your emission of seed to your neighbor's wife, to become unclean with her. ²¹And you must not give any of your children to cause to pass over to Molech. And you must not profane the name of your God. I am Yahweh. ²²And you must not lie with a male as one lies with a woman. That is detestable. ²³And with any animal you must not lie to become unclean by it. And a woman must not stand before the face of an animal to lie down with it. That is perversion.

²⁴Do not make yourselves unclean in any of these ways, for in all these ways the nations that I will drive out from before your face have become unclean. ²⁵And the land became unclean, so I punished its sin upon it. And the land vomited out its inhabitants. ²⁶And you yourselves must keep my statutes and my laws. And you must not do any of these detestable things, neither the native-born nor the sojourner who sojourns among you ²⁷(for all these detestable things the men of the land have done, those who were before you, and the land has become unclean), ²⁸so the land does not vomit you out after you have made it unclean, just as it vomited out the nation that was before you. ²⁹Indeed, anyone who does any of these detestable things, the people who do such things will be cut off from among their people. ³⁰And you must keep my obligation not to do any of the detestable customs which were done before you, and not make yourselves unclean by them. I am Yahweh your God."

Chapter 19

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Speak to all the assembly of the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘You must be set apart ones, for I, Yahweh your God, am set apart. ³A man must revere his mother and his father, and you must keep my sabbaths. I am Yahweh your God. ⁴Do not turn to worthless idols, and do not make for yourselves gods out of metal. I am Yahweh your God.

⁵And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh, you must sacrifice it for your acceptance. ⁶On the day of your sacrifice it must be eaten, or on the next day, and what is left until the third day must be burned up in the fire. ⁷And if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is unclean meat. It will not be accepted. ⁸And the one who eats it must carry his iniquity because he has profaned the holy thing of Yahweh, and that person must be cut off from his people.

⁹And when you harvest the harvest of your land, you must not completely harvest the edge of your field, and you must not gather the gleanings of your harvest. ¹⁰And you must not glean your vineyard, and you must not gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard. You must leave them for the poor and for the sojourner. I am Yahweh your God.

¹¹You must not steal and you must not deceive and you must not lie, a man with his fellow citizen. ¹²And you must not swear by my name falsely and profane the name of your God. I am Yahweh.

¹³You must not oppress your neighbor and you must not rob. The wages of a hired worker must not stay all night with you until morning.

¹⁴You must not curse the deaf and you must not put a stumbling block before the face of the blind. And you must fear your God. I am Yahweh.

¹⁵You must not do injustice in judgment. You must not lift up the face of the poor, and you must not give preference to the face of the great. In justice you must judge your neighbor.

¹⁶You must not walk around as a slanderer among your people. You must not stand against the blood of your neighbor. I am Yahweh.

¹⁷You must not hate your brother in your heart. You must surely rebuke your fellow citizen and not incur sin because of him.

¹⁸You must not take vengeance and you must not hold a grudge against the sons of your people, and you must love your neighbor as yourself. I am Yahweh.

¹⁹You must keep my statutes. You must not breed together your livestock of two different kinds. Your field you must not sow with two different kinds of seed, and a garment of two different kinds of material you must not put on you.

²⁰And if a man lies with a woman so there is emission of seed and she is a slave who is promised to a man, and she has not been ransomed at all or freedom has not been given to her, there must be punishment. They must not be put to death because she was not free.

²¹And he must bring his guilt offering to Yahweh to the entrance of the tent of meeting—a ram as a guilt offering.

²²And the priest will make atonement for him with the ram for the guilt offering before the face of Yahweh, for the sin that he has sinned. And it will be forgiven him for his sin which he has sinned.

²³And when you come into the land and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you must regard its fruit as being uncircumcised in its foreskin. Three years it will be uncircumcised for you. It must not be eaten. ²⁴And in the fourth year all of its fruit will be holy, offerings of praise to Yahweh. ²⁵And in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, to increase its yield for you. I am Yahweh your God.

²⁶You must not eat anything with the blood. You must not practice divination, and you must not interpret signs.

²⁷You must not round off the corners of your heads and you must not shave off the edge of your beard.

²⁸And you must not make a cut on your body for the dead and you must not make on yourselves a mark of a tattoo. I am Yahweh.

²⁹Do not profane your daughter by causing her to be a prostitute, and the land will not fall to prostitution and the land become full of wickedness. ³⁰My sabbaths you must keep and my holy place you must fear. I am Yahweh.

³¹Do not turn to the necromancers or to the soothsayers. Do not seek to become unclean by them. I am Yahweh your God.

³²From the face of the gray-haired person you must rise and you must show respect in the face of an old person. You must fear your God. I am Yahweh.

³³And if a sojourner sojourns among you in your land, you must not oppress him. ³⁴Like the native-born among you must be to you the sojourner who sojourns with you. And you must love him as yourself, because you were sojourners in the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.

³⁵You must not do injustice in judgment, in measurement of length, in weight, or in quantity. ³⁶Just scales, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin you must have. I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt. ³⁷And you must keep all my statutes and all my laws, and you must do them. I am Yahweh.”

Chapter 20

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²And say to the sons of Israel, ‘Any man among the sons of Israel, or among the sojourners who sojourn in Israel who gives any of his offspring to Molech, must certainly be put to death. The people of the land must stone him with stones. ³And I also will set my face against that man and I will cut him off from among his people. For he has given his offspring to Molech, so as to make my holy place unclean and to profane my holy name. ⁴And if the people of the land cause their eyes to be hidden at all from that man when he gives his offspring to Molech, so as to not put him to death, ⁵then I myself will set my face against that man and his clan. And I will cut him off and all the ones who prostitute themselves after him, by prostituting themselves after Molech, from the midst of their people.

⁶And the person who turns to the necromancers or to the soothsayers so as to prostitute themselves after them, I will set my face against that person. And I will cut him off from among his people. ⁷So make yourselves holy and be holy ones, because I am Yahweh your God.^[1]

⁸And you must keep my statutes and do them. I am Yahweh who makes you holy.

⁹If there is any man who curses his father or his mother, he must surely be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother, his blood is on him.

¹⁰And if a man commits adultery with a man’s wife, that is, he commits adultery with his neighbor’s wife, the adulterer and the adulteress must certainly be put to death.

¹¹And if a man lies with his father’s wife, he uncovers his father’s nakedness. Both of them must certainly be put to death. Their blood is on them. ¹²And if a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them must certainly be put to death. They have committed perversion; their blood is on them.

¹³And if a man lies with a male as one lies with a woman, both of them have done a detestable thing. They must surely be put to death; their blood is on them.

¹⁴And if a man takes a wife and her mother, this is wickedness. In the fire they must be burned, he and they, and there will not be wickedness among you.

¹⁵And if a man lies with an animal, he must surely be put to death, and you must kill the animal.

¹⁶And if a woman comes near to any animal to lie with it, then you must kill the woman and the animal. They must certainly be put to death; their blood is on them.

¹⁷And if a man takes his sister, a daughter of his father or a daughter of his mother, and he sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness, it is a shameful thing, and they must be cut off in the eyes of the sons of their people. He has uncovered the nakedness of his sister. He must bear his iniquity.

¹⁸And if a man lies with a menstruating woman and has uncovered her nakedness, he has exposed her flow and she has uncovered the flow of her blood. And both of them must be cut off from among their people.

¹⁹And the nakedness of your mother's sister, or your father's sister, you must not uncover because he would expose his relative. They must bear their iniquity.

²⁰And if a man lies with his aunt, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness. They will bear their sin; they will die childless.

²¹And if a man takes his brother's wife, that is disgraceful. He has uncovered the nakedness of his brother; they will be childless.

²²And you must keep all my statutes and all my judgments, and you must do them, and the land which I am bringing you there to dwell in will not vomit you out.

²³And you must not walk in the statutes of the nations that I will drive out from before your face. For they have done all these things, and I detest them.

²⁴And I said to you, "You will possess their land and I will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am Yahweh your God, who has separated you from the peoples. ²⁵And you must distinguish between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean. And you must not make yourselves detestable by an animal or by a bird or by anything that crawls on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

²⁶And you must be holy ones for me, because I, Yahweh, am holy, and I have separated you from the peoples to be mine.

²⁷And if there is among them a man or woman necromancer or soothsayer, they must certainly be put to death. They must stone them with stones. Their blood is on them."

20:7 ^[1] .

¹And Yahweh said to Moses: "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them, 'For a dead person he must not make himself unclean among his people. ²But if for his relative close to him—for his mother, or for his father, or for his son, or for his daughter, or for his brother, ³or for his virgin sister who is close to him since she has no husband, for her he may make himself unclean. ⁴He must not make himself unclean as a husband among his people, to profane himself.

⁵They must not shave a bald patch on their heads and they must not shave off the corner of their beard, and they must not cut a cut in their flesh. ⁶They must be holy ones to their God and they must not profane the name of their God. For they are offering Yahweh's offerings made by fire, the bread of their God, so they must be holy. ⁷He must not take a woman who is a prostitute or profaned. And he must not take a woman divorced from her husband. For he is holy to his God.

⁸And you will make him holy, for he is the one who offers the bread of your God. He must be holy for you, because I, Yahweh who makes you holy, am holy.

⁹And a daughter of any priest who profanes herself by becoming a prostitute, she is profaning her father. In the fire she must be burned.

¹⁰And the great priest among his brothers, who has had the oil of anointing poured upon his head and has had his hand filled to wear the garments, he must not let his head be unbound and he must not tear his clothes. ¹¹And he must not go near any dead person, for his father or for his mother. He must not make himself unclean. ¹²And he must not leave from the holy place and he must not profane the holy place of his God. For the dedication of the oil of the anointing of his God is upon him. I am Yahweh.

¹³And he must take a wife in her virginity. ¹⁴A widow, or a divorced woman, or a profaned prostitute—these he must not take. But rather, a virgin from his people he must take as a wife. ¹⁵And he will not profane his offspring among his people. For I am Yahweh who makes him holy.”

¹⁶And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁷“Speak to Aaron, saying, ‘A man from your offspring throughout their generations who has a defect in him must not come near to offer food to his God. ¹⁸For any man who has in him a defect must not come near: a man blind or lame or who has a slit nose or who is deformed, ¹⁹or a man who has a broken foot or a broken hand, ²⁰or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or one with a defect in his eye or eczema or scabs or a crushed testicle. ²¹Any man who has in him a defect among the offspring of Aaron the priest must not approach to offer Yahweh’s offerings made by fire. A defect is in him. He must not approach to offer the bread of his God. ²²The food of his God, some of the holiest holy things and some of the holy things, he may eat. ²³However, he must not go into the curtain and he must not approach to the altar. For a defect is in him and he must not profane my holy place. For I am Yahweh who makes them holy.” ²⁴And Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel.

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Say to Aaron and to his sons that they must deal respectfully with the holy things of the sons of Israel, which they dedicate to me. And they must not profane my holy name. I am Yahweh.

³Say to them, ‘Throughout your generations any man from all your seed who comes near to the holy things that the sons of Israel have made holy to Yahweh and his uncleanness is upon him, that person must be cut off from before my face. I am Yahweh.

⁴Any man from the seed of Aaron who is one with a skin disease or a fluid discharge, he must not eat of the holy things until he becomes clean. And the one who touches anything unclean of a corpse, or a man who has go out from him an emission of seed, ⁵or a man who touches any swarming thing that makes him unclean, or a person who makes him unclean, whatever his uncleanness— ⁶the person who touches it will be unclean until the evening. And he must not eat from the holy things, unless he has bathed his body in water.

⁷And when the sun has set, then he will be clean. And afterward he may eat from the holy things, because it is his food. ⁸He must not eat an animal found dead or killed by wild animals, to become unclean by it. I am Yahweh.

⁹And they must keep my obligations, and they will not bear sin because of it and die by it, because they profaned it. I am Yahweh who makes them holy.

¹⁰And any stranger may not eat the holy thing. A foreign guest of the priest or a hired worker may not eat the holy thing. ¹¹And if a priest buys a person as property with his silver—he may eat it, and a descendant of his house, they may eat his food.

¹²And if a priest's daughter becomes the wife of a stranger, she may not eat the contributions of the holy things.

¹³And if the daughter of a priest becomes a widow, or divorced, and there is no offspring for her, and she returns to her father's house as in her youth, she may eat from the food of her father. And any stranger may not eat it.

¹⁴And if a man eats a holy thing by mistake, then he must add its fifth on it and give the holy thing to the priest.

¹⁵And they must not profane the holy things of the sons of Israel that they lifted up to Yahweh, ¹⁶and cause themselves to bear the guilt of the guilt offering by their eating their holy things. For I am Yahweh who makes them holy."

¹⁷And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁸"Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel, and say to them, 'Any man from the house of Israel, or from the sojourners in Israel, who offers his offering, for any of their vows or for any of their freewill offerings, which they present to Yahweh as a burnt offering, ¹⁹for your acceptance, it must be a male without blemish from the cattle, from the sheep, or from the goats. ²⁰Anything that has a blemish on it you must not offer, because it will not be acceptable for you.

²¹And when a man offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering from the herd or from the flock, it must be unblemished to be accepted. There must not be any defect in it. ²²The blind, or disabled, or maimed, or that have warts, or eczema, or scabs—these you must not offer to Yahweh. And you must not give from them an offering made by fire on the altar to Yahweh. ²³An ox or a lamb that is deformed or stunted—it you may offer as a freewill offering, but for a vow it will not be accepted.

²⁴One that is bruised, or crushed, or torn, or has cut testicles you must not offer to Yahweh, and in your land you must not do so. ²⁵And from the hand of the son of a foreigner you must not offer the food of your God from any of these because their deformity is in them and a defect is in them. They will not be accepted for you."

²⁶And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁷"When an ox or a sheep or a goat is born, it must remain seven days with its mother. And from the eighth day and beyond, it may be accepted as an offering, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

²⁸And an ox or a sheep, it and its young you must not slaughter on the same day. ²⁹And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanks to Yahweh, you must sacrifice it for your acceptance. ³⁰On that day it must be eaten, you must not leave part of it until morning. I am Yahweh.

³¹And you must keep my commandments and you must do them. I am Yahweh.

³²And you must not profane my holy name. I must be treated as holy in the midst of the sons of Israel. I am Yahweh who sets you apart, ³³who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am Yahweh."

Chapter 23

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²"Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, 'These are the appointed times of Yahweh, which you must proclaim as holy assemblies. They are my appointed times. ³Six days work will be done, and on the seventh day is a sabbath of solemn rest, a holy assembly. You must not do any work. It is a sabbath for Yahweh in all your dwellings.

⁹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰"Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'When you have come into the land that I am giving to you, and you harvest its harvest, then you must bring a sheaf of the first of your harvest to the priest. ¹¹And he will wave the sheaf before the face of Yahweh to be accepted for you. On the day after the sabbath the priest must wave it. ¹²And you must offer, on the day when you wave the sheaf, a male lamb, one year old, without blemish as a burnt offering to Yahweh. ¹³And its grain offering must be two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as an offering made by fire to Yahweh, a sweet aroma, and its drink offering, a fourth of a hin of wine. ¹⁴And bread, and roasted grain and fresh grain you must not eat until this very day, until your offering of the offering of your God. It is a permanent statute throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

¹⁵And you will count for yourselves from the day after the sabbath—from the day of your bringing the sheaf of the wave offering—there will be seven full sabbaths. ¹⁶Until the day after the seventh sabbath you must count 50 days. And you must offer an offering of new grain to Yahweh. ¹⁷From your dwellings you must bring bread for a wave offering. They must be two loaves of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour. They must be baked with yeast as firstfruits to Yahweh. ¹⁸And you must offer with the bread seven male lambs without defects, sons of the year, and one bull, a son of the herd, and two rams. They must be a burnt offering to Yahweh, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma for Yahweh. ¹⁹And you must offer one buck of the goats for a sin offering, and two male lambs, sons of the year, for a sacrifice of peace offerings. ²⁰And the priest must wave them with the bread of the firstfruits wave offering before the face of Yahweh with the two lambs. They will be set apart to Yahweh for the priest. ²¹And you must make a proclamation on that very day. There will be a holy assembly for you. You must not do any work of labor. It is a permanent statute in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

²³And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁴”Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘In the seventh month, on day one of the month there will be for you a solemn rest, a memorial by trumpet blast, a holy assembly. ²⁵You must not do any work of labor, and you must offer a sacrifice made by fire to Yahweh.” ²⁶And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁷”Surely on day 10 of this seventh month it is the Day of Atonement. It will be a holy assembly for you, and you must humble yourselves and offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh. ²⁸And you must not do any work on that very day because it is the Day of Atonement, to make atonement for yourselves before the face of Yahweh your God. ²⁹If there is any person who does not humble himself on that very day, then he must be cut off from his people. ³⁰And any person who does any work on that very day, I will destroy that person from among his people. ³¹You must not do any work. It is a permanent statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings. ³²It is a sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you must humble yourselves on day nine of the month in the evening. From evening until evening you are to observe your sabbath.”

³³And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ³⁴”Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘On day 15 of the seventh month this is the Festival of Huts for seven days to Yahweh. ³⁵On the first day there must be a holy assembly. You must not do any work of labor. ³⁶Seven days you must offer a sacrifice made by fire to Yahweh. On the eighth day there must be a holy assembly for you, and you must offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh. It is a solemn assembly. You must not do any work of labor. ³⁷These are the appointed times of Yahweh, which you must proclaim as holy assemblies to offer a sacrifice made by fire to Yahweh, a burnt offering and a grain offering, sacrifices and drink offerings, each day’s matter on its day, ³⁸apart from the sabbaths of Yahweh, and apart from your gifts, and apart from all your vows, and apart from all your freewill offerings that you give to Yahweh.

³⁹Surely on day 15 of the seventh month when you have gathered the produce of the land, you must celebrate a festival of Yahweh for seven days, on the first day a solemn rest, and on the eighth day a solemn rest. ⁴⁰And you must take for yourselves on the first day the fruit of the majestic trees, branches of palm trees, and branches of leafy trees, and willows of the stream. And you will rejoice before the face of Yahweh your God seven days. ⁴¹And you must celebrate it as a festival for Yahweh seven days in the year. It is a permanent statute throughout your generations in the seventh month you must celebrate it. ⁴²In the huts you must live for seven days. All the native-born in Israel must live in the huts, ⁴³so that your generations may know that I made the sons of Israel live in the huts when I brought them from the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.” ⁴⁴And Moses announced the appointed times of Yahweh to the sons of Israel.

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Command the sons of Israel and they will bring to you pure beaten oil of the olive for the light, so the lamp may burn continually. ³Outside the curtain of the testimony in the tent of meeting, Aaron must keep it in order, from evening until morning, before the face of Yahweh continually. It is a permanent statute throughout your generations. ⁴On the pure gold lampstand he must keep the lamps in order before the face of Yahweh continually.

⁵And you must take fine flour and bake 12 cakes with it. There must be two-tenths of an ephah in one cake. ⁶And you must set them in two rows, six in a row, on the pure gold table before the face of Yahweh. ⁷And you must put on the row pure incense and it will be a memorial portion for the bread, an offering made by fire to Yahweh. ⁸On the day of the sabbath, every sabbath, he must keep it in order before the face of Yahweh continually. It is from the sons of Israel as an eternal covenant. ⁹And it will be for Aaron and for his sons, and they must eat it in a holy place. For it is a holiest holy thing for him, from Yahweh’s offerings made by fire, a perpetual portion.” ¹⁰Now the son of an Israelite woman, who was also the son of an Egyptian man, went out in the midst of the sons of Israel. And the son of the Israelite woman and an Israelite man fought in the camp. ¹¹And the son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name and cursed, and they brought him to Moses. (Now his mother’s name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.) ¹²And they caused him to remain in the guard-post until it would be made clear to them what was in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh.

¹³And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁴“Bring out the one who has cursed to the outside of the camp. And all the hearers must lay their hands on his head, and all the assembly must stone him. ¹⁵And speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If any man curses his God, then he must bear his sin. ¹⁶And he who blasphemes the name of Yahweh must surely be put to death. All the assembly must certainly stone him, as the sojourner so the native-born. When he blasphemes the Name, he must be put to death. ¹⁷And if a man strikes dead any human being, he must certainly be put to death. ¹⁸And he who strikes dead the life of an animal must repay it, life in place of life. ¹⁹And if a man gives an injury to his fellow citizen, as he has done so it will be done to him: ²⁰fracture in place of fracture, eye in place of eye, tooth in place of tooth. As he gave an injury to a human, so it must be given to him. ²¹And he who strikes dead an animal must repay it. And he who strikes dead a human must be put to death. ²²There must be one law for you, as the sojourner so will be the native-born. For I am Yahweh your God.” ²³And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and they brought the one who had cursed to the outside of the camp. And they stoned him with stones, and the sons of Israel did as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying, ²“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you come to the land that I am giving to you, then the land must keep a sabbath, a sabbath for Yahweh. ³Six years you must plant your field, and six years you must prune your vineyard and gather its produce. ⁴And in the seventh year, there must be a sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a sabbath for Yahweh. You must not plant your field and you must not prune your vineyard. ⁵You must not harvest the second growth of your harvest and you must not gather the grapes of your unpruned vines. It will be a year of solemn rest for the land. ⁶And the sabbath of the land will be for you, as food for you, and for your male slave, and for your female slave, and for your hired servant, and for the foreign resident who is sojourning with you, ⁷and for your livestock and for the wild animal that is in your land, all its yield will be for eating.

¹³In this Year of Jubilee you must return a man to his property. ¹⁴And if you sell something sold to your fellow citizen or buy from the hand of your fellow citizen, a man must not oppress his brother. ¹⁵According to the number of years after the jubilee you must buy from your fellow citizen. According to the number of years of yield he must sell to you. ¹⁶According to the multitude of the years you must increase its purchase price, but according to the fewness of the years you must decrease its purchase price, because of the number of yields he is selling to you. ¹⁷And you must not oppress, a man his fellow citizen. And you must fear your God, for I am Yahweh your God.

¹⁸And you must do my statutes, and my laws you must keep and do them. And you will dwell on the land securely. ¹⁹And the land will give its fruit, and you will eat to satisfaction and dwell securely on it. ²⁰And if you say, "What will we eat in the seventh year? Look, we cannot plant and we cannot gather our yield." ²¹Then I will command my blessing for you in the sixth year, and it will produce yield for three years. ²²And you will plant in the eighth year and you will eat from the old yield until the ninth year, until its yield comes in you will eat the old. ²³And the land must not be sold for perpetuity, for the land belongs to me. For you are sojourners and temporary residents with me. ²⁴And in all the land of your possession you must give redemption for the land. ²⁵If your brother becomes poor and sells some of his property, then his redeemer nearest to him may come and redeem the things sold of his brother. ²⁶And if a man does not have a redeemer for it, but his hand produces and he finds enough for its redemption, ²⁷then he may calculate the years of its sale and return the balance to the man whom he sold it to. And he may return to his property. ²⁸And if his hand does not find enough to get it back for himself, then his sold things will remain in the hand of he who bought it until the Year of Jubilee. And it will go out in the Jubilee and he will return to his property.

²⁹And if a man sells a residential house of a walled city, then his right of redemption will be until the completion of the year of its sale. It will be the days of his right of redemption. ³⁰And if it is not redeemed for him up to the fulfilling of an entire year, then the house which is in the city which has its wall will belong in perpetuity to him who bought it and to his descendants. It will not go out in the Jubilee. ³¹And the houses of the villages that have no wall around them will be considered as the field of the land. There will be redemption for it, and in the Jubilee it will go out. ³²As for the cities of the Levites, the houses of the cities of their possession, the right of redemption is permanent for the Levites. ³³And whatever is from the Levites he may redeem, and a sold house or a city of his possession will go out in the Jubilee. For the houses of the cities of the Levites—it is their possession among the sons of Israel. ³⁴And the field of the pastureland of their cities must not be sold because it is their permanent possession.

³⁹And if your brother with you becomes poor and is sold to you, you must not make him work the work of a slave. ⁴⁰Like a hired worker, like a temporary resident, he must be with you. Until the Year of Jubilee he will serve with you. ⁴¹And he will go away from you, he and his sons with him, and he will return to his clan. And he will return to the possession of his fathers. ⁴²For they are my servants, them which I brought out of the land of Egypt. They will not be sold in a slave sale. ⁴³You must not rule over him with ruthlessness, and you must fear your God. ⁴⁴As for your male slave and your female slave who you have for yourself, from the nations that surround you, from them you may acquire a male slave or a female slave. ⁴⁵And also from the sons of the sojourners who are dwelling with you, from them you may acquire, and from their clans who are with you, who have given birth in your land—they may become your property. ⁴⁶And you may bequeath them to your sons after you, to inherit as a possession, you may let them work permanently. But as for your brothers, the sons of Israel, a man with his brother, you must not rule over him with ruthlessness.

⁴⁷And if the hand of a sojourner or a temporary resident with you has produced, and your brother with you becomes poor and is sold to a sojourner, a temporary resident with you, or to a descendant of a clan of a sojourner, ⁴⁸after he has been sold, there will be redemption for him. One of his brothers may redeem him, ⁴⁹or his uncle, or the son of his uncle may redeem him; or a relative of his flesh from his clan may redeem him. Or, if his hand has produced, then he may redeem himself. ⁵⁰And he will calculate with his buyer from the year he was sold to him until the Year of Jubilee, and the silver of his sale must be according to the number of years; like the days of a hired worker it will be with him. ⁵¹If there are still many of the years, according to them he must pay back his redemption from the silver of his purchase. ⁵²And if a few of the years until the Year of Jubilee are left, then he must calculate for him according to his years. He must pay back his redemption. ⁵³Like a hired worker year by year he will be with him. He must not rule over him with ruthlessness in your eyes. ⁵⁴And if he is not redeemed by these, then he must go out in the Year of Jubilee, he and his sons with him. ⁵⁵For to me the sons of Israel are servants. They are my servants, them which I brought out of the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.”

¹“You must not make for yourselves idols. And a carved figure or a stone pillar you must not lift up for yourselves, and a stone sculpture you must not put in your land to bow down in front of it. For I am Yahweh your God. ²My sabbaths you must keep and my holy place you must fear. I am Yahweh.

³If you walk in my statutes and keep my commandments and do them, ⁴then I will give your rain in its season. And the land will give its yield, and the tree of the field will give its fruit. ⁵And your threshing season will reach the grape harvest, and the grape harvest will reach the planting season. And you will eat your bread to satisfaction and dwell securely in your land. ⁶And I will give peace in the land. And you will lie down and there will be nothing that makes one afraid. And I will remove the harmful animals from the land, and the sword will not pass through your land. ⁷And you will pursue those who are hostile to you, and they will fall before your face by the sword. ⁸And five from you will pursue a hundred, and a hundred from you will pursue ten thousand. And those who are hostile to you will fall before your face by the sword. ⁹And I will turn to you and make you fruitful and multiply you. And I will establish my covenant with you. ¹⁰And you will eat the old that has grown old and the old you will bring out from the face of the new. ¹¹And I will put my holy place in the midst of you, and my spirit will not detest you. ¹²And I will walk in the midst of you and I will be your God, and you will be my people. ¹³I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, from being their slaves. And I broke the bars of your yoke and made you to walk upright.

¹⁴And if you will not listen to me, and will not do all these commandments, ¹⁵and if you reject my statutes and if your spirit detests my laws, so as to not do all my commandments, so that you break my covenant— ¹⁶then surely I will do this to you: I will inflict terror on you, consumption and fever that destroys the eyes and drains away life. And you will sow your seed for nothing, because those who are hostile to you will eat it. ¹⁷And I will set my face against you, and you will be defeated in the face of those who are hostile to you. And those who hate you will rule over you; and you will flee, though there is not one who chases you. ¹⁸And if up to these you do not listen to me, then I will continue to discipline you seven times for your sins. ¹⁹And I will break the pride of your power. And I will make your sky like iron and your land like bronze. ²⁰And your strength will be used up for nothing, because your land will not give its yield. And the tree of the land will not give its fruit.

²¹And if you walk against me in opposition and are not willing to listen to me, then I will add upon you a plague seven times, according to your sins. ²²And I will send forth among you animals of the field, and they will make you childless, and destroy your livestock, and make you few in number. And your roads will become deserted.

²³And if in spite of these things you do not accept my discipline and you walk against me in opposition, ²⁴then I will also walk, I myself, against you in opposition. And I will strike you, even I myself, seven times because of your sins. ²⁵And I will bring a sword upon you that will avenge with the vengeance of the covenant, and you will be gathered into your cities. And I will send a plague in the midst of you, and you will be given into the hand of the one who is hostile. ²⁶When I break the staff of your bread, then ten women will bake your bread in one oven. And they will distribute your bread by weight, and you will eat but not be satisfied.

²⁷And if in spite of this you do not listen to me, and you walk against me in opposition, ²⁸then I will walk against you in the wrath of opposition. And I will discipline you, even I, seven times for your sins. ²⁹And you will eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters you will eat. ³⁰And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your incense altars, and put your corpses on the corpses of your idols, and I myself will abhor you. ³¹And I will lay your cities in ruins and make your holy places desolate. And I will not smell your sweet aromas. ³²And I myself will make the land desolate, and those who are hostile to you who dwell in it will be shocked at it. ³³And I will scatter you among the nations, and I will unsheathe a sword behind you. And your land will be desolate, and your cities will be ruined.

³⁴Then the land will enjoy its sabbaths all the days of its desolation while you are in the land of those who are hostile to you. Then the land will rest and enjoy its sabbaths. ³⁵All the days of its desolation it will rest what it did not rest on your sabbaths when you lived on it.

³⁶As for the ones who are remaining among you, I will bring despair into their hearts in the land of those who are hostile to them, and the sound of a windblown leaf will chase them. And they will flee as one fleeing from a sword, and you will fall though there is not one who chases. ³⁷And you will stumble, each over his brother, as from the face of a sword, though there is not one who chases. And you will have no power to stand to the face of those who are hostile to you. ³⁸And you will perish among the nations, and the land of those who are hostile to you will devour you. ³⁹And the ones who are remaining among you will rot in their iniquity, in the lands of those who are hostile to you. And also in the iniquities of their fathers they will rot with them.

⁴⁰And if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, in their unfaithfulness which they acted unfaithfully against me, and also that they walked against me in opposition— ⁴¹also I myself went against them in opposition and I brought them into the land of those who are hostile to them—if then their uncircumcised hearts become humbled, and then they pay for their iniquity, ⁴²then I will remember my covenant with Jacob. And also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham I will remember. And I will remember the land. ⁴³And the land was abandoned by them, and it will rejoice with its sabbaths while being desolate without them. And they themselves will pay for their iniquity because they rejected my judgments and their spirit detested my statutes. ⁴⁴And despite even this, when they are in the land of those who are hostile to them, I will not reject them, and I will not detest them so as to destroy them, to break my covenant with them. For I am Yahweh their God. ⁴⁵And I will remember for their sake the covenant with their ancestors, them whom I brought out from the land of Egypt in the eyes of the nations, to be their God. I am Yahweh."

⁴⁶These are the statutes, and the judgments, and the instructions that Yahweh made between himself and between the sons of Israel at Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²"Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'If a man vows a vow according to your valuation of persons to Yahweh, ³then your valuation will be for a male from a son of 20 years and up to a son of 60 years and your valuation must be 50 shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the holy place. ⁴And if she is a female, then your valuation must be 30 shekels. ⁵And if from a son of five years and up to a son of 20 years, then your valuation for the male must be 20 shekels, and for the female ten shekels. ⁶And if from a son of a month and up to a son of five years, then your valuation for the male must be five shekels of silver, and for the female your valuation of three shekels of silver. ⁷And if from a son of 60 years and up, if a male, then your valuation must be 15 shekels, and for the female ten shekels. ⁸And if he is poorer than your valuation, then he must present himself to the face of the priest, and the priest will value him. According to what the hand of the one making the vow produces the priest will value him.

⁹And if it is an animal from which they offer an offering to Yahweh, all that he gives from them to Yahweh will be set apart. ¹⁰He must not replace it and he must not exchange it, a good one for a bad one or a bad for a good. And if he exchanges at all an animal for an animal, then it will be and the exchanged one will be set apart. ¹¹And if any animal is unclean from which an offering must not be offered to Yahweh, then he must present the animal to the face of the priest. ¹²And the priest will set its value as either good or bad. According to the valuation of you, the priest, thus will it be. ¹³And if he ever redeems it, then he must add its fifth in addition to your valuation.

¹⁴And when a man sets apart his house as a holy thing to Yahweh, then the priest will set its value as either good or bad. As the priest values it, so it will stand. ¹⁵And if the one who set it apart redeems his house, then he must add a fifth of the silver of your valuation to it, and it will belong to him.

¹⁶And if a man sets apart part of the field of his property to Yahweh, then your valuation will be in proportion to its seed—a homer of barley seed for 50 shekels of silver. ¹⁷If he sets apart his field during the Year of Jubilee, according to your valuation it will stand. ¹⁸And if he sets apart his field after the Jubilee, then the priest must calculate for it the silver according to the years remaining until the Year of Jubilee, and it must be reduced from your valuation. ¹⁹And if he who set it apart ever redeems the field, then he must add a fifth of the silver of your valuation to it, and it will belong to him. ²⁰And if he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it cannot be redeemed again. ²¹And the field will be, when it goes out in the Jubilee, a holy thing to Yahweh, like the field that has been dedicated by ban. It will belong to the priest as his property. ²²And if he sets apart to Yahweh a field of his acquisition that is not part of the field of his property, ²³then the priest will calculate for him the amount of your valuation up to the Year of Jubilee, and the man must give your valuation on that day as a holy thing to Yahweh. ²⁴In the Year of Jubilee, the field will return to whom he bought it from, to whom belongs the possession of the land. ²⁵And all your valuations must be by the shekel of the holy place; 20 gerahs must be the shekel.

²⁸Surely any dedicated thing that a man dedicates to Yahweh, from all that belongs to him, from human or animal, or from the field of his property, must not be sold and must not be redeemed. Every dedicated thing, it is the holiest holy thing to Yahweh. ²⁹Every dedicated one who is dedicated from mankind must not be ransomed. He must surely be put to death.

³⁰And all the tithe of the land, from the seed of the land and from the fruit of the tree, belongs to Yahweh. It is holy to Yahweh. ³¹And if a man ever redeems some of his tenth, he must add its fifth in addition to it. ³²As for every tenth of the herd or the flock, anything that passes under the rod, the tenth must be set apart to Yahweh. ³³He must not seek to distinguish between good and bad, and he must not exchange it. And if he exchanges it at all, then it will be and its substitute will be set apart. It must not be redeemed.”

³⁴These are the commandments that Yahweh commanded Moses for the sons of Israel at Mount Sinai.

Numbers

Chapter 1

¹Then Yahweh spoke to Moses in the tent of meeting in the wilderness of Sinai on 1 of the second month in the second year of their going out from the land of Egypt, saying, ²"Lift up the heads of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers, by the number of names, every male according to their skulls, ³from a son of 20 years and upward, every one who goes out to war in Israel. You and Aaron must count them according to their armies. ⁴And with you will be a man, a man of the tribe. He will be the head man of the house of his fathers. ⁵And these are the names of the men who will stand with you:

Of Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur,

⁶of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai;

⁷of Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab;

⁸of Issachar, Nethanel the son of Zuar;

⁹of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon;

¹⁰of the sons of Joseph: of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur;

¹¹of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni;

¹²of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai;

¹³of Asher, Pagiel the son of Okran;

¹⁴of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel;

¹⁵of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan."

²⁶Of the sons of Judah, their generations according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers, by the number of the names, from a son of 20 years and upward, every one who goes out to war, ²⁷their counted ones of the tribe of Judah were 74,600.

²⁸Of the sons of Issachar, their generations according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers, by the number of the names, from a son of 20 years and upward, every one who goes out to war, ²⁹their counted ones of the tribe of Issachar were 54,400.

³⁰Of the sons of Zebulun, their generations according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers, by the number of the names, from a son of 20 years and upward, every one who goes out to war, ³¹their counted ones of the tribe of Zebulun were 57,400.

³²Of the sons of Joseph: of the sons of Ephraim, their generations according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers, by the number of the names, from a son of 20 years and upward, every one who goes out to war, ³³their counted ones of the tribe of Ephraim were 40,500.

³⁴Of the sons of Manasseh, their generations according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers, by the number of the names, from a son of 20 years and upward, every one who goes out to war, ³⁵their counted ones of the tribe of Manasseh were 32,200.

³⁶Of the sons of Benjamin, their generations according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers, by the number of the names, from a son of 20 years and upward, every one who goes out to war, ³⁷their counted ones of the tribe of Benjamin were 35,400.

³⁸Of the sons of Dan, their generations according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers, by the number of the names, from a son of 20 years and upward, every one who goes out to war, ³⁹their counted ones of the tribe of Dan were 62,700.

⁴⁰Of the sons of Asher, their generations according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers, by the number of the names, from a son of 20 years and upward, every one who goes out to war, ⁴¹their counted ones of the tribe of Asher were 41,500.

⁴⁴These were the counted ones, whom Moses and Aaron had counted, and the leaders of Israel, 12 men, they were one man for the house of his fathers. ⁴⁵And they were all the counted ones of the sons of Israel according to the house of their fathers, from a son of 20 years and upward, every one who goes out to war in Israel. ⁴⁶And all the counted ones were 603,550.

⁴⁷And the Levites according to the tribe of their father were not counted in the midst of them. ⁴⁸And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ⁴⁹“Only the tribe of Levi you must not count. And you must not lift up their heads in the midst of the sons of Israel. ⁵⁰And you, appoint the Levites over the dwelling of the testimony and over all its vessels and over all that belongs to it. They themselves must carry the dwelling and all its vessels, and they themselves must serve it. And they must camp around the dwelling. ⁵¹And when the dwelling sets out, the Levites must take it down. And when the dwelling camps, the Levites must raise it up. And the stranger who comes near must be put to death. ⁵²And the sons of Israel will camp, a man at his camp, and a man at his banner, according to their armies.

⁵³And the Levites must camp around the dwelling of the testimony and wrath will not be upon the congregation of the sons of Israel. And the Levites must keep the keeping of the dwelling of the testimony.” ⁵⁴And the sons of Israel did according to all that Yahweh commanded Moses, so they did.

Chapter 2

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²“The sons of Israel will camp, a man at his banner, with the sign of the house of their fathers. They will camp away from the front, around the tent of meeting. ³And the ones camping to the east, to the sunrise, will be the banner of the camp of Judah according to their armies. And the leader of the sons of Judah is Nahshon the son of Amminadab. ⁴And his army and their counted ones are 74,600. ⁵And the ones camping beside him are the tribe of Issachar. And the leader of the sons of Issachar is Nethanel the son of Zuar. ⁶And his army and his counted ones are 54,400. ⁷The tribe of Zebulun: and the leader of the sons of Zebulun is Eliab the son of Helon. ⁸And his army and his counted ones are 57,400. ⁹All the counted ones of the camp of Judah are 186,400 according to their armies. They will set out first.

¹⁷And the tent of meeting will set out from the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps. As they came so will they set out, a man on his hand, according to their banners.

¹⁸The banner of the camp of Ephraim according to their armies will be to the west. And the leader of the sons of Ephraim is Elishama the son of Ammihud. ¹⁹And his army and their counted ones are 40,500. ²⁰And beside him is the tribe of Manasseh. And the leader of the sons of Manasseh is Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. ²¹And his army and their counted ones are 32,200. ²²And the tribe of Benjamin: and the leader of the sons of Benjamin is Abidan the son of Gideoni. ²³And his army and their counted ones are 35,400. ²⁴All the counted ones of the camp of Ephraim are 108,100 according to their armies. And they will set out third.

²⁵The banner of the camp of Dan will be to the north according to their armies. And the leader of the sons of Dan is Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. ²⁶And his army and their counted ones are 62,700. ²⁷And the ones camping beside him will be the tribe of Asher. And the leader of the sons of Asher is Pagiel the son of Okran. ²⁸And his army and their counted ones are 41,500. ²⁹And the tribe of Naphtali: and the leader of the sons of Naphtali is Ahira the son of Enan. ³⁰And his army and their counted ones are 53,400. ³¹All the counted ones of the camp of Dan are 157,600. They will set out last, according to their banners.”

³²These are the counted ones of the sons of Israel according to the houses of their fathers. All the counted ones of the camps according to their armies are 603,550. ³³And they did not count the Levites in the midst of the sons of Israel, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. ³⁴And the sons of Israel did according to all that Yahweh commanded Moses. So they camped according to their banners and so they set out, a man according to his clans, in accordance with the house of his fathers.

Chapter 3

¹And these are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day Yahweh spoke with Moses on the mountain of Sinai. ²And these are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ³These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests, the ones who were anointed, whose hand he filled to serve as priest. ⁴And Nadab died and Abihu before the face of Yahweh when they offered unfamiliar fire before the face of Yahweh in the wilderness of Sinai. And sons were not belonging to them. And Eleazar served as priest and Ithamar with the face of Aaron their father.

⁵And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶“Bring near the tribe of Levi and stand it before the face of Aaron the priest. And they shall serve him. ⁷And they shall keep his keeping and the keeping of all the congregation before the face of the tent of meeting, to serve the service of the dwelling. ⁸And they shall keep all the vessels of the tent of meeting and the keeping of the sons of Israel, to serve the service of the dwelling. ⁹And you shall give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons. They are given, given to him from with the sons of Israel. ¹⁰And you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall keep their priesthood. And the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.”

¹¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹²“And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel instead of every firstborn, the opener of the womb from the sons of Israel. And the Levites are for me. ¹³For every firstborn belongs to me. In the day of my striking down every firstborn in the land of Egypt I set apart for me every firstborn in Israel, from human up to livestock. They are for me. I am Yahweh.”

¹⁴And Yahweh spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, ¹⁵“Count the sons of Levi according to the house of their fathers, according to their clans. You shall count them, every male from a son of a month and upward.” ¹⁶And Moses counted them in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh, just as he was commanded. ¹⁷And these were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. ¹⁸And these are the names of the sons of Gershon according to their clans: Libni and Shimei. ¹⁹And the sons of Kohath according to their clans were Amram and Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. ²⁰And the sons of Merari according to their clans were Mahli and Mushi. These are they, the clans of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.

²⁷And of Kohath were the clan of the Amramite, and the clan of the Izharite, and the clan of the Hebronite, and the clan of the Uzzielite. These are they, the clans of the Kohathite. ²⁸By the number of every male from a son of a month and upward, 8,600 were the keepers of the keeping of the holy place. ²⁹The clans of the sons of Kohath were to camp on the side of the dwelling, to the south. ³⁰And the leader of the house of the father of the clans of the Kohathite was Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. ³¹And their duty was the box, and the table, and the lampstand, and the altar, and the vessels of the holy place with which they serve, and the covering, and all its service. ³²And the leader of the leaders of the Levites was Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, the oversight of the keepers of the keeping of the holy place.

³⁸And the ones camping before the face of the dwelling to the east, before the face of the tent of meeting toward the sunrise were to be Moses and Aaron and his sons, the keepers of the keeping of the holy place, according to the keeping of the sons of Israel. And the stranger who comes near shall be put to death. ³⁹All the counted ones of the Levites whom Moses and Aaron counted in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh, according to their clans, every male from a son of a month and upward, were 22,000.

⁴⁰And Yahweh said to Moses, "Count every firstborn male of the sons of Israel from a son of a month and upward. And lift up the number of their names. ⁴¹And you shall take the Levites for me—I am Yahweh—instead of all the firstborn of the sons of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the livestock of the sons of Israel." ⁴²And Moses counted all the firstborn of the sons of Israel, just as Yahweh had commanded him. ⁴³And it happened that every firstborn male by the number of the names from a son of a month and upward, according to their counted ones, was 22,273.

⁴⁴And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ⁴⁵"Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock (and the Levites shall belong to me—I am Yahweh), ⁴⁶and the ransoms of the 273, the ones in excess over the Levites from the firstborn of the sons of Israel. ⁴⁷And you shall take five, five shekels for the skull. You shall take by the shekel of the holy place, 20 gerahs is the shekel. ⁴⁸And you shall give the silver to Aaron and to his sons, the ransom of the ones in excess among them. ⁴⁹And Moses took the silver of the ransom from with the ones in excess over the ransomed ones of the Levites. ⁵⁰From with the firstborn of the sons of Israel he took the silver: 1,365 by the shekel of the holy place. ⁵¹And Moses gave the silver of the ransom to Aaron and to his sons in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²"Lift up the head of the sons of Kohath from the midst of the sons of Levi, according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers, ³from a son of 30 years and upward, and up to a son of 50 years, all who come to the company to do work in the tent of meeting. ⁴This is the service of the sons of Kohath in the tent of meeting, the holy thing of the holy things. ⁵And Aaron and his sons shall come when the camp sets out. And they shall take down the curtain of the covering and with it they shall cover the box of the testimony. ⁶And they shall put upon it a cover of the skin of the porpoise. And they shall spread a cloth entirely of blue above. And they shall place its poles. ⁷And over the table of the face they shall spread a cloth of blue. And they shall put on it the dishes and the pans and the sacrificial bowls and the jars of the drink offering. And the bread of continuity shall be on it. ⁸And they shall spread on them a cloth of the worms of scarlet. And they shall cover it with a covering of the skin of the porpoise. And they shall place its poles. ⁹And they shall take a cloth of blue and cover the lampstand of the light source, and its lamps, and its snuffers, and its trays, and all the vessels of its oil with which they serve it. ¹⁰And they shall put it and all its vessels into the covering of the skin of the porpoise. And they shall put it on the carrying bar. ¹¹And upon the altar of gold they shall spread a cloth of blue. And they shall cover it with a covering of the skin of the porpoise. And they shall place its poles. ¹²And they shall take all the implements of the service with which they serve in the holy place and they shall put them into a cloth of blue. And they shall cover them with a covering of the skin of the porpoise. And they shall put it on the carrying bar. ¹³And they shall remove the fatty ashes from the altar and they shall spread on it a cloth of purple. ¹⁴And they shall put on it all its implements with which they serve on it: the trays, the meat forks, and the shovels, and the bowls—all the implements of the altar. And they shall spread on it a covering of the skin of the porpoise. And they shall place its poles. ¹⁵And Aaron and his sons shall finish to cover the holy place and all the implements of the holy place when the camp sets out. And afterward the sons of Kohath shall come to carry them, and they shall not touch the holy thing and die. These are the load of the sons of Kohath in the tent of meeting. ¹⁶And the oversight of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest is the oil of the light source, and the incense of the spices, and the grain offering of the continuity, and the oil of the anointment, the oversight of all the dwelling and all that is in it, with the holy place and with its implements."

²¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²²“Lift up the head of the sons of Gershon, even them, according to the house of their fathers, according to their clans. ²³You shall count them from a son of 30 years and upward, up to a son of 50 years, every one who comes to serve service, to work work in the tent of meeting. ²⁴This is the work of the clans of the Gershonite, for working and for a load. ²⁵And they shall carry the curtains of the dwelling and the tent of meeting, its covering, the covering of porpoise which is on it above, and the covering of the opening of the tent of meeting, ²⁶and the hangings of the courtyard, and the covering of the opening of the gate of the courtyard that is beside the dwelling and beside the altar all around, and their ropes, and all the implements of their work, and all that is to be done for them. And they shall work. ²⁷In accordance with the mouth of Aaron and his sons will be all the work of the sons of the Gershonite, according to all their load, and according to all their work. And you shall appoint for them by duty all their load. ²⁸This is the work of the clans of the sons of the Gershonite in the tent of meeting and their duty in the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

²⁹You shall count them, the sons of Merari according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers. ³⁰You shall count them from a son of 30 years and upward, and up to a son of 50 years, every one who comes to the company, to serve the service of the tent of meeting. ³¹And this is the duty of their load according to all their service in the tent of meeting: the boards of the dwelling, and its bars, and its pillars, and its bases, ³²and the pillars of the courtyard all around, and their bases, and their pegs, and their ropes, for all their implements and for all their work. And by names you shall appoint the implements of the duty of their load. ³³This is the service of the clans of the sons of Merari for all their service in the tent of meeting, by the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

³⁸And the counted ones of the sons of Gershon, according to their clans and according to the house of their fathers, ³⁹from a son of 30 years and upward, and up to a son of 50 years, every one who comes to the company for service in the tent of meeting. ⁴⁰And their counted ones according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers were 2,630. ⁴¹These were the counted ones of the clans of the sons of Gershon, every one who serves in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron had counted in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh.

⁴²And the counted ones of the clans of the sons of Merari, according to their clans, according to the house of their fathers, ⁴³from a son of 30 years and upward, and up to a son of 50 years, every one who comes to the company for service in the tent of meeting. ⁴⁴And their counted ones according to their clans were 3,200. ⁴⁵These are the counted ones of the clans of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron had counted in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh by the hand of Moses, ⁴⁶all the counted ones whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel had counted, the Levites according to their clans and according to the house of their fathers, ⁴⁷from a son of 30 years and upward, and up to a son of 50 years, every one who comes to serve the service of service and the service of load in the tent of meeting. ⁴⁸And their counted ones were 8,580. ⁴⁹In accordance with the mouth of Yahweh he counted them by the hand of Moses, man by man in accordance with his work and in accordance with his load, and his numbered ones that Yahweh had commanded Moses.

Chapter 5

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Command the sons of Israel and they shall send away from the camp every one with an infectious skin disease, and every one who flows, and every one unclean by a dead person. ³From male up to female you shall send, to the outside of the camp you shall send them. And they shall not defile their camp, because I am dwelling in the midst of them." ⁴And the sons of Israel did so. And they sent them to the outside of the camp. Thus the sons of Israel did just as Yahweh had spoken to Moses.

⁵And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶"Speak to the sons of Israel: 'When a man or woman does from any of the sins of the human to act unfaithfully in unfaithfulness against Yahweh, then that person has done wrong. ⁷And they shall confess their sin that they did. And he shall return his price of wrongdoing by its head and he shall add its fifth in addition to it. And he shall give to whom he has done wrong to. ⁸And if there is not a redeemer for the man to return the price of wrongdoing to him, the price of wrongdoing will be returned to Yahweh, to the priest, apart from the ram of the atonement with which he shall make atonement for him. ⁹And every contribution of all the holy things of the sons of Israel that they offer to the priest, it shall belong to him. ¹⁰And a man, his holy things shall belong to him; what a man gives to the priest shall belong to him.'"

¹¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹²"Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'Man by man, if his wife turns aside and acts unfaithfully against him in unfaithfulness, ¹³and a man lies the lying of seed with her and it is concealed from the eyes of her husband, and it is hidden, and she herself is defiled, and there is no witness against her, and she herself has not been caught, ¹⁴and a spirit of jealousy passes over upon him and he is jealous of his wife and she herself is defiled, or a spirit of jealousy comes over upon him and he is jealous of his wife but she herself is not defiled; ¹⁵then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. And he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth of the ephah of the flour of barley. He shall not pour oil upon it and he shall not put frankincense upon it, for it is a grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering of remembrance, one that causes iniquity to be remembered.

¹⁶And the priest shall bring her near. And he shall stand her before the face of Yahweh. ¹⁷And the priest shall take the holy water in the vessel of clay. And the priest shall take some of the dust that is on the floor of the dwelling. And he shall put it into the water. ¹⁸And the priest shall stand the woman before the face of Yahweh. And he shall unbind the head of the woman. And he shall put upon her palm the grain offering of remembrance. It is the grain offering of jealousy. And in the hand of the priest shall be the water of bitterness that brings a curse. ¹⁹And the priest shall make her swear and he shall say to the woman, "If a man has not lain with you, and if you have not turned aside to uncleanness under your husband, you will be free from this water of bitterness that brings a curse. ²⁰But if you have turned aside under your husband, and if you are defiled and a man apart from your husband has given his lying with you," ²¹(and the priest shall make the woman swear with an oath of the curse). And the priest shall say to the woman, "Yahweh will make you into a curse and into an oath in the midst of your people when Yahweh makes your thigh fall away and your abdomen swell. ²²And this water that brings a curse will enter in your inward parts to cause swelling of the abdomen and to cause falling away of your thigh." And the woman shall say, "Truly, truly."

²³And the priest shall write these curses in the book and he shall wipe it off into the water of bitterness. ²⁴And he shall cause the woman to drink the water of bitterness that brings a curse. And the water that brings a curse of bitterness will enter in her. ²⁵And the priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy from the hand of the woman. And he shall wave the grain offering before the face of Yahweh and he shall bring it near to the altar. ²⁶And the priest shall grasp from the grain offering its memorial portion and he shall burn it up at the altar. And after he shall make the woman drink the water. ²⁷And he shall make her drink the water. And it will be that if she is defiled and has acted unfaithfully in unfaithfulness with her husband, then the water that brings a curse of bitterness will enter in her and her abdomen will swell and her thigh will fall away. And the woman will become a curse in the midst of her people. ²⁸And if the woman is not defiled then she herself is clean. And she will be free and she will be sown with seed.

²⁹This is the law of jealousy, when a woman turns aside under her husband and is defiled. ³⁰or a man, when a spirit of jealousy passes over upon him and he is jealous of his wife. And he shall stand the woman before the face of Yahweh. And the priest shall do all this law to her. ³¹And the man will be free from iniquity. And this woman will carry her iniquity."

Chapter 6

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When a man or a woman does something extraordinary by vowing the vow of a separate one to separate to Yahweh, ³he shall separate from wine and intoxicating drink. He shall not drink the vinegar of wine and the vinegar of intoxicating drink. And he shall not drink any of the juice of grapes. And he shall not eat moist and dried grapes. ⁴All the days of his separation he shall not eat from all that is made from the vine of the wine, from seeds and up to skin.

⁵All the days of the vow of his separation a razor shall not pass over his head. Until the fulfilling of the days that he has separated to Yahweh he shall be holy, the locks of the hair of his head shall grow long.

⁹And if one who is dead dies near him in suddenness suddenly and he defiles the head of his separation, then he shall shave his head on the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day he shall shave it ¹⁰And on the eighth day he shall bring two of the turtedoves or two of the sons of the dove to the priest, to the opening of the tent of meeting. ¹¹And the priest shall make one for a sin offering and one for a burnt up offering. And he shall make atonement for him because he sinned on account of the person. And he shall make his head holy on that day. ¹²And he shall separate to Yahweh the days of his separation. And he shall bring a male lamb, a son of his year, for a guilt offering. And the first days shall fall because his separation was defiled.

¹³And this is the law of the separate one. On a day fulfilling the days of his separation he shall bring him to the opening of the tent of meeting. ¹⁴And he shall offer his offering to Yahweh, one male lamb without defect, a son of his year, for a burnt up offering, and one female lamb without defect, a daughter of her year, for a sin offering, and one ram without defect for peace offerings, ¹⁵and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with the oil, and wafers of unleavened bread smeared with the oil and their grain offering and their drink offerings. ¹⁶And the priest shall offer before the face of Yahweh and he shall make his sin offering and his burnt up offering. ¹⁷And he shall make the ram a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh with the basket of the unleavened bread. And the priest shall make his grain offering and his drink offering. ¹⁸And the separate one shall shave the head of his separation at the opening of the tent of meeting. And he shall take the hair of the head of his separation. And he shall put it on the fire that is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. ¹⁹And the priest shall take the boiled shoulder from the ram and one cake of unleavened bread from the basket and one wafer of unleavened bread. And he shall put them on the palms of the separate one after his shaving his separation. ²⁰And the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the face of Yahweh. It is a holy thing to the priest with the breast of the wave offering and with the thigh of the contribution. And after the separate one may drink wine.

²¹This is the law of the separate one who vows his offering to Yahweh for his separation, apart from what his hand reaches. According to the mouth of his vow that he vowed, so he shall do in accordance with the law of his separation.”

²²And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²³“Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘Thus you shall bless the sons of Israel, saying to them, ²⁴“May Yahweh bless you and keep you.

²⁵May Yahweh cause his face to shine to you and may he be gracious to you.

²⁶May Yahweh lift up his face to you and may he set peace for you.”

²⁷And they shall set my name upon the sons of Israel and I shall bless them.”

Chapter 7

¹And it happened on the day Moses finished erecting the dwelling that he anointed it and made it holy, and all its vessels and the altar and all its vessels. And he anointed them and made them holy. ²And the leaders of Israel, the heads of the house of their fathers, made an offering. They were the leaders of the tribes. They were the ones standing over the counted ones. ³And they brought their offering before the face of Yahweh, six covered carts and 12 cattle, a cart for two of the leaders and an ox for one. And they offered them before the face of the dwelling. ⁴And Yahweh said to Moses, saying, ⁵"Take from with them and they shall be for serving the service of the tent of meeting. And you shall give them to the Levites, a man according to the mouth of his service." ⁶And Moses took the carts and the cattle. And he gave them to the Levites. ⁷He gave two of the carts and four of the cattle to the sons of Gershon, according to the mouth of their service. ⁸And he gave four of the carts and eight of the cattle to the sons of Merari, according to the mouth of their service, by the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. ⁹But he did not give to the sons of Kohath, for the service of the holy place was on them, they carried on the shoulder. ¹⁰And the leaders offered the dedication of the altar on the day it was anointed. And the leaders offered their offering before the face of the altar. ¹¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "One leader for the day, one leader for the day, shall they offer their offering for the dedication of the altar."

²⁴On the third day, the leader of the sons of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon, ²⁵his offering was one silver dish, its weight was 130, one silver bowl of 70 shekels by the shekel of the holy place, the two of them were full of fine flour mixed with the oil for a grain offering, ²⁶one pan of ten gold full of incense, ²⁷one bull, a son of cattle, one ram, one male lamb, a son of his year, for a burnt up offering, ²⁸one buck of the goats for a sin offering, ²⁹and for the sacrifice of the peace offerings: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs, sons of a year. This was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

³⁰On the fourth day, the leader of the sons of Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur, ³¹his offering was one silver dish, its weight was 130, one silver bowl of 70 shekels by the shekel of the holy place, the two of them were full of fine flour mixed with the oil for a grain offering, ³²one pan of ten gold full of incense, ³³one bull, a son of cattle, one ram, one male lamb, a son of his year, for a burnt up offering, ³⁴one buck of the goats for a sin offering, ³⁵and for the sacrifice of the peace offerings: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs, sons of a year. This was the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

³⁶On the fifth day, the leader of the sons of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, ³⁷his offering was one silver dish, its weight was 130, one silver bowl of 70 shekels by the shekel of the holy place, the two of them were full of fine flour mixed with the oil for a grain offering, ³⁸one pan of ten gold full of incense, ³⁹one bull, a son of cattle, one ram, one male lamb, a son of his year, for a burnt up offering, ⁴⁰one buck of the goats for a sin offering, ⁴¹and for the sacrifice of the peace offerings: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs, sons of a year. This was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

⁴²On the sixth day, the leader of the sons of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel, ⁴³his offering was one silver dish, its weight was 130, one silver bowl of 70 shekels by the shekel of the holy place, the two of them were full of fine flour mixed with the oil for a grain offering, ⁴⁴one pan of ten gold full of incense, ⁴⁵one bull, a son of cattle, one ram, one male lamb, a son of his year, for a burnt up offering, ⁴⁶one buck of the goats for a sin offering, ⁴⁷and for the sacrifice of the peace offerings: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs, sons of a year. This was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

⁴⁸On the seventh day, the leader of the sons of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud, ⁴⁹his offering was one silver dish, its weight was 130, one silver bowl of 70 shekels by the shekel of the holy place, the two of them were full of fine flour mixed with the oil for a grain offering, ⁵⁰one pan of ten gold full of incense, ⁵¹one bull, a son of cattle, one ram, one male lamb, a son of his year, for a burnt up offering, ⁵²one buck of the goats for a sin offering, ⁵³and for the sacrifice of the peace offerings: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs, sons of a year. This was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

⁵⁴On the eighth day, the leader of the sons of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, ⁵⁵his offering was one silver dish, its weight was 130, one silver bowl of 70 shekels by the shekel of the holy place, the two of them were full of fine flour mixed with the oil for a grain offering, ⁵⁶one pan of ten gold full of incense, ⁵⁷one bull, a son of cattle, one ram, one male lamb, a son of his year, for a burnt up offering, ⁵⁸one buck of the goats for a sin offering, ⁵⁹and for the sacrifice of the peace offerings: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs, sons of a year. This was the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

⁶⁰On the ninth day, the leader of the sons of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni, ⁶¹his offering was one silver dish, its weight was 130, one silver bowl of 70 shekels by the shekel of the holy place, the two of them were full of fine flour mixed with the oil for a grain offering, ⁶²one pan of ten gold full of incense, ⁶³one bull, a son of cattle, one ram, one male lamb, a son of his year, for a burnt up offering, ⁶⁴one buck of the goats for a sin offering, ⁶⁵and for the sacrifice of the peace offerings: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs, sons of a year. This was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

⁷²On the day of the eleventh day, the leader of the sons of Asher, Pagiel the son of Okran, ⁷³his offering was one silver dish, its weight was 130, one silver bowl of 70 shekels by the shekel of the holy place, the two of them were full of fine flour mixed with the oil for a grain offering, ⁷⁴one pan of ten gold full of incense, ⁷⁵one bull, a son of cattle, one ram, one male lamb, a son of his year, for a burnt up offering, ⁷⁶one buck of the goats for a sin offering, ⁷⁷and for the sacrifice of the peace offerings: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs, sons of a year. This was the offering of Pagiel the son of Okran.

⁷⁸On the day of the twelfth day, the leader of the sons of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan, ⁷⁹his offering was one silver dish, its weight was 130, one silver bowl of 70 shekels by the shekel of the holy place, the two of them were full of fine flour mixed with the oil for a grain offering, ⁸⁰one pan of ten gold full of incense, ⁸¹one bull, a son of cattle, one ram, one male lamb, a son of his year, for a burnt up offering, ⁸²one buck of the goats for a sin offering, ⁸³and for the sacrifice of the peace offerings: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs, sons of a year. This was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

⁸⁴This is the dedication of the altar on the day it was anointed from with the leaders of Israel: 12 dishes of silver, 12 bowls of silver, 12 pans of gold. ⁸⁵One silver bowl was 130 and one bowl was 70. All the silver of the vessels was 2,400 by the shekel of the holy place. ⁸⁶The pans of gold were 12, full of incense. The pan was ten by ten by the shekel of the holy place. All the gold of the pans was 120. ⁸⁷All the cattle for the burnt up offering were 12 bulls, 12 rams, 12 male lambs, sons of a year, and their grain offering. And 12 bucks of the goats were for a sin offering.

⁸⁸And all the cattle of the sacrifice of the peace offerings were 24 bulls, 60 rams, 60 male goats, 60 male lambs, sons of a year. This is the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.

⁸⁹And when Moses entered into the tent of meeting to speak with him, then he heard the voice speaking to him from above the atonement lid that is on the box of the testimony, from between the two cherubim. And he spoke to him.

Chapter 8

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Speak to Aaron and say to him, ‘When you lift up the lamps to the front of the face of the lampstand, the seven lamps shall give light.’” ³And Aaron did so. To the front of the face of the lampstand he lifted up its lamps, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. ⁴And this is the work of the lampstand, a hammered gold work. It was a hammered work up to its base, up to its blossom. According to the appearance that Yahweh showed Moses, so he made the lampstand.

⁵And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶“Take the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel and make them clean. ⁷And thus you shall do to them to make them clean: Sprinkle on them the water of the sin offering. And they shall pass a razor over all their body, and they shall wash their garments, and they shall make themselves clean. ⁸And they shall take a bull, a son of cattle, and its grain offering of fine flour mixed with the oil. And you shall take a second bull, a son of cattle, for a sin offering. ⁹And you shall bring the Levites near before the face of the tent of meeting. And you shall assemble all the congregation of the sons of Israel. ¹⁰And you shall bring the Levites near before the face of Yahweh. And the sons of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites. ¹¹And Aaron shall wave the Levites as a wave offering before the face of Yahweh from with the sons of Israel. And they shall be for serving the service of Yahweh. ¹²And the Levites shall lay their hands on the head of the bulls. And make the one as a sin offering and the one as a burnt offering to Yahweh, to make atonement for the Levites. ¹³And you shall stand the Levites before the face of Aaron and before the face of his sons. And you shall wave them as a wave offering to Yahweh.

¹⁴And you shall separate the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel. And the Levites shall be for me. ¹⁵And afterwards the Levites shall enter to serve the tent of meeting. And you shall make them clean and you shall wave them as a wave offering. ¹⁶For they are given, given to me from the midst of the sons of Israel. Instead of the opener of every womb, the firstborn of all from the sons of Israel, I have taken them for myself. ¹⁷For every firstborn among the sons of Israel, among the human and among the livestock, belongs to me. On the day of my striking every firstborn in the land of Egypt I set them apart for me. ¹⁸And I have taken the Levites instead of every firstborn among the sons of Israel. ¹⁹And I have given the Levites as given ones to Aaron and to his sons, from the midst of the sons of Israel, to serve the service of the sons of Israel in the tent of meeting, and to make atonement for the sons of Israel. And there shall be no plague among the sons of Israel at the coming of the sons of Israel to the holy place.”

²⁰And Moses and Aaron and all the assembly of the sons of Israel did to the Levites, according to all that Yahweh had commanded Moses for the Levites, so the sons of Israel did to them. ²¹And the Levites purified themselves of sin and they washed their garments and Aaron waved them as a wave offering before the face of Yahweh. And Aaron made atonement for them to make them clean. ²²And afterward the Levites entered to serve their service in the tent of meeting before the face of Aaron and before the face of his sons, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so he did to them.

²³And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁴“This is what is for the Levites. From a son of 25 years and above he shall enter to serve service in the work of the tent of meeting. ²⁵And from a son of 50 years he shall return from the service of the work and he shall not work more. ²⁶And he shall serve his brothers in the tent of meeting to keep duty but work he shall not work. Thus you shall do for the Levites in their duties.”

Chapter 9

⁹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If a man, a man is unclean by a body or is on a distant road, for you or for your generations, then he may do the Passover to Yahweh, ¹¹in the second month on day 14 between the evenings, they shall do it. With unleavened bread and bitter herbs they shall eat it. ¹²They shall not leave some of it until morning. And a bone, they shall not break it. According to every statute of the Passover they shall do it. ¹³And the man, he who is clean and is not on a road but ceases to do the Passover, and that person shall be cut off from his people because he did not offer the offering of Yahweh at its appointed time. That man shall carry his sin. ¹⁴And if a sojourner sojourns with you and does the Passover to Yahweh, according to the statute of the Passover and according to its ordinance, so he shall do. One statute shall be for you and for the sojourner and for the native of the land.”

¹⁵And on the day of raising up the dwelling the cloud covered the dwelling of the tent of the testimony and in the evening it was above the dwelling like the appearance of fire until morning. ¹⁶So it was continually. The cloud covered it and the appearance of fire at night. ¹⁷And according to the mouth the cloud was lifted from above the tent, then afterward the sons of Israel set out. And in the place there where the cloud dwelled, there the sons of Israel camped. ¹⁸In accordance with the mouth of Yahweh the sons of Israel set out, and in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh they camped. They camped all the days that the cloud dwelled above the dwelling. ¹⁹And when the cloud prolonged above the dwelling many days, then the sons of Israel kept the keeping of Yahweh and did not set out. ²⁰And it was when the cloud was days of number above the dwelling, they camped in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh and they set out in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh. ²¹And it was when the cloud was from evening until morning and the cloud was taken up in the morning then they set out, or in the daytime and night, and the cloud was taken up then they set out. ²²Whether two days or a month or days, when the cloud prolonged above the dwelling to dwell above it, the sons of Israel camped and did not set out. And when it was taken up they set out. ²³They camped in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh and they set out in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh. They kept the keeping of Yahweh in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh by the hand of Moses.

Chapter 10

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Make for you two trumpets of silver. You shall make them hammered work. And they shall be for you for the calling of the congregation and for pulling up the camps. ³And they shall blow them and they shall congregate themselves to you, all the congregation, to the opening of the tent of meeting. ⁴And if they blow one, then the leaders, the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall congregate themselves to you. ⁵And you shall blow a blast and the camps camping to the east shall set out. ⁶And you shall blow a second blast and the camps camping to the south shall set out. They shall blow a blast for their setting out. ⁷And when assembling the assembly you shall blow but you shall not blast. ⁸And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets And it shall be for you for a statute forever, for your generations. ⁹And when you enter battle in your land against the opponents who oppose you, then you shall blast the trumpets. And you shall be remembered before the face of Yahweh your God, and you shall be saved from your enemies. ¹⁰And on a day of your joy and at your appointed times and at the heads of your months, then you shall blow the trumpets with your burnt up offerings and with the sacrifices of your peace offerings. And it will be for you for a memorial before the face of your God. I am Yahweh your God.

¹¹And it happened that in the second year, in the second month, on 20 in the month, the cloud was taken up from above the dwelling of the testimony. ¹²And the sons of Israel set out from the wilderness of Sinai according to their tribes. And the cloud dwelled in the wilderness of Paran. ¹³And they set out at the first in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh by the hand of Moses. ¹⁴And the banner of the camp of the sons of Judah set out at the first according to their armies. And over his army was Nahson the son of Amminadab. ¹⁵And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Issachar was Nethanel the son of Zuar. ¹⁶And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon. ¹⁷And the dwelling was taken down. And the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, the lifters of the dwelling, set out. ¹⁸And the banner of the tribe of Reuben set out according to their armies. And over his company was Elizur the son of Shedeur. ¹⁹And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. ²⁰And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

²⁹And Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, the father-in-law of Moses, "We are about to set out to the place that Yahweh said, 'I shall give it to you.' Go with us and we will do good to you. For Yahweh has spoken good for Israel." ³⁰And he said to him, "I will not go, but I will go to my land and to my family." ³¹And he said, "Please do not leave us! Because you know our camping in the wilderness and you could be for eyes for us." ³²And it will happen that if you go with us, then it will happen that that good which Yahweh shall do good with us even we will do good to you."

³³And they set out from the mountain of Yahweh a road of three days. And the box of the covenant of Yahweh was setting out before the face of them a road of three days, to seek out for them a resting place. ³⁴And the cloud of Yahweh was over them by day when they set out from the camp.

³⁵And it happened when the box set out that Moses said, "Rise up, Yahweh, and your enemies will be scattered, and those who hate you will flee from your face." ³⁶And when it rested, he said, "Return, Yahweh, to the multitudes of the thousands of Israel."

Chapter 11

¹And when the people were complaining it was evil in the ears of Yahweh. And Yahweh heard and his nose burned. And the fire of Yahweh burned among them and it ate at the end of the camp. ²And the people cried out to Moses. And Moses prayed to Yahweh and the fire sank. ³And the name of that place was called Taberah, for the fire of Yahweh burned among them.

like the eye of bdellium. ⁸The people went around and picked up and ground with the handmill or crushed with the mortar and boiled in the pot and made it cakes. And its taste was like the taste of the delicacy of the oil. ⁹And when the dew came down on the camp at night, the manna came down on it. ¹⁰And Moses heard the people weeping according to its clans, a man to the opening of his tent. And the nose of Yahweh burned exceedingly and it was evil in the eyes of Moses. ¹¹And Moses said to Yahweh, "Why do you do evil to your servant? And why have I not found favor in your eyes, by putting the burden of all this people on me? ¹²Did I conceive all of this people? Did I give birth to him so that you could say to me, 'Carry him in your bosom just as the one who nourishes carries the one who sucks over the ground that you have sworn to his fathers?' ¹³From where is meat for me to give to all of this people? For they weep beside me, saying, 'Give to us meat and let us eat.' ¹⁴I am not able by myself to carry all of this people, for they are heavier than me. ¹⁵And if you are going to do thus to me, please slay me quickly, if I have found favor in your eyes. And do not let me look on my evil."

¹⁶And Yahweh said to Moses, "Gather for me 70 men from the elders of Israel whom you know, so that they will be elders of the people and its officers. And take them to the tent of meeting and they shall station themselves there with you. ¹⁷And I will come down and speak with you there. And I will withdraw some of the spirit that is on you and put it on them. And they will carry with you the burden of the people. And you will not carry by yourself. ¹⁸And to the people you shall say, 'Make yourselves holy for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat. For you have wept in the ears of Yahweh, saying, "Who will let us eat meat? For it was good for us in Egypt." And Yahweh will give to you meat, and you will eat. ¹⁹You will eat not one day, and not two days, and not five days, and not ten days, and not twenty days, ²⁰until a month of days, until when it goes out from your nose. And it shall be for disgust for you, because that you rejected Yahweh who is in the midst of you. And you wept before his face, saying, "Why this—we went out from Egypt?"' ²¹And Moses said, "The people are 600,000 on foot who I am in the midst of, and you have said, 'I shall give to them meat and they shall eat a month of days.' ²²Shall flock and herd be slaughtered for them then one find for them? If all the fish of the sea were gathered for them then one will find for them." ²³And Yahweh said to Moses, "Is the hand of Yahweh short? Now you will see whether my word will happen to you or not."

²⁴And Moses went out and he spoke to the people the words of Yahweh. And he gathered 70 men from the elders of the people. And he had them stand round about the tent. ²⁵And Yahweh came down in the cloud and he spoke to him. And he withdrew some of the spirit that was on him and he put it on 70 men, the elders. And it happened when the spirit rested on them that they prophesied but did not again.

²⁶And two of the men were left in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad and the name of the second was Medad. And the spirit rested on them and they were among the written down ones but they had not gone out to the tent. And they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷And the young man ran and reported to Moses, and he said, Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp." ²⁸And Joshua the son of Nun, the server of Moses from his youth, responded and said, "My master Moses, restrain them." ²⁹And Moses said to him, "Are you being jealous for me? And if only he would make all the people of Yahweh prophets, that Yahweh would put his Spirit on them!" ³⁰And Moses withdrew to the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

³²And the people rose all that day and all the night and all the day of the next day, and they gathered the quail. The one who did little gathered ten homers. And they spread out for them, spreading out round about the camp. ³³The meat was still between their teeth before it was chewed, and the nose of Yahweh burned against the people. And Yahweh struck the people an exceedingly great blow. ³⁴And he called the name of that place Kibroth Hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had desired. ³⁵From Kibroth Hattaavah the people set out to Hazereth. Then they were in Hazereth.

¹And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses on account of the Cushite wife that he had taken because he had taken a Cushite wife. ²And they said, "Has Yahweh really only spoken with Moses? Has he not spoken also with us?" And Yahweh heard. ³(And the man Moses was exceedingly humble, more than every human who was on the face of the ground.)

⁴And Yahweh said immediately to Moses and to Aaron and to Miriam, "The three of you go out to the tent of meeting." And the three of them went out. ⁵And Yahweh came down in a column of cloud. And he stood at the opening of the tent. And he called Aaron and Miriam and the two of them went out. ⁶And he said, "Hear now my words! If one is your prophet, I, Yahweh will make myself known to him in the vision. I will speak with him in the dream.

⁷Not so my servant Moses. He is trustworthy in all my house.

⁸I speak with him mouth to mouth and with appearance and not with riddles. And he looks at the form of Yahweh. And why are you not afraid to speak against my servant, against Moses?"

⁹And the nose of Yahweh burned against them and he went. ¹⁰And the cloud departed from over the tent. And behold, Miriam was with a skin disease, like the snow. And Aaron turned to Miriam, and behold, she was with a skin disease. ¹¹And Aaron said to Moses, "Please, my master, please do not put upon us sin which we did foolishly and which we sinned. ¹²Please do not let her be like the dead one who when he comes out from the womb of his mother and half of his flesh is eaten." ¹³And Moses cried out to Yahweh, saying, "God, please, please heal her!" ¹⁴And Yahweh said to Moses, "If her father surely spit in her face, would she not be humiliated seven days? She shall be shut up seven days from outside of the camp and afterward she may be brought in." ¹⁵And Miriam was shut up from outside of the camp seven days. And the people did not set out until the bringing in of Miriam.

¹⁶And after the people set out from Hazeroth. And they camped in the wilderness of Paran.

Chapter 13

²¹And they went up and they explored the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, to enter Hamath. ²²And they went up through the Negev and they came to Hebron. And Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, those born of the Anak, were there. (And Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan of Egypt.) ²³And they came to the wadi of Eschol. And from there they cut a branch and one cluster of grapes. And they carried it by the pole with two men, and some of the pomegranates, and some of the figs. ²⁴He called that place the wadi of Eshkol, on account of the cluster that the sons of Israel cut from there.

²⁵And they returned from exploring the land at the end of 40 days. ²⁶And they went and they came to Moses and to Aaron and to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran at Kadesh. And they brought back them and all the congregation word. And they showed them the fruit of the land. ²⁷And they recounted to him. And they said, "We entered into the land where you sent us. And it is certainly flowing with milk and honey. And this is its fruit. ²⁸However, the people who dwell in the land are fierce. And the cities are fortified very large. And also we saw those born of the Anak there. ²⁹Amalek is dwelling in the land of the Negev. And the Hittite, and the Jebusite, and the Amorite is dwelling in the hill country. And the Canaanite is dwelling beside the sea and beside the hand of the Jordan."

³⁰And Caleb hushed the people near Moses. And he said, "We will certainly go up and take possession of it, for we are certainly able to prevail over it." ³¹And the men who went up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people because he is stronger than us." ³²And they caused an evil report of the land, it that they had explored, to go out to the sons of Israel, saying, "The land in which we passed through to explore it, it is a land that eats those who dwell in it. And all the people whom we saw in the midst of it were men of size. ³³And there we saw the Nephilim, the sons of Anak from the Nephilim. And we were like grasshoppers in our eyes, and so we were in their eyes."

¹And all the congregation lifted up and gave their voice. And the people wept in that night. ²And all the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron. And all the congregation said to them, "If only we had died in the land of Egypt, or if only we had died in this wilderness! ³And why is Yahweh bringing us to this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and our children will be for plunder. Is it not good for us to return to Egypt?"

⁴And they said, a man to his brother, "Let us set a head and let us return to Egypt." ⁵And Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before the face of all the assembly of the congregation of the sons of Israel. ⁶And Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, from the ones who explored the land, tore their garments. ⁷And they spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, "The land in which we passed through to explore it is a very exceedingly good land. ⁸If Yahweh delights in us, then he will bring us into this land. And he will give it to us, a land that is flowing with milk and honey. ⁹Only you must not rebel against Yahweh and you must not fear the people of the land, for they are our food. He has turned their shadow from over them and Yahweh is with us. You must not fear them!" ¹⁰And all the congregation said to stone them with stones. But the glory of Yahweh appeared in the tent of meeting to all the sons of Israel.

¹¹And Yahweh said to Moses, "Until when will this people spurn me? And until when will they not trust in me, despite all the signs that I have done in the midst of them? ¹²I will strike him down with the plague and I will disinherit him. And I will make you into a nation greater and more numerous than them."

¹³And Moses said to Yahweh, "And the Egyptians have heard that you brought this people up with your power from the midst of him. ¹⁴And they have said to those dwelling in this land. They have heard that you, Yahweh, are in the midst of this people, that you, Yahweh, have been seen eye by eye, and your cloud is standing over them, and in a column of cloud you are going before their face by day and in a column of fire at night. ¹⁵If you kill this people like one man, then the nations will say that they heard hearing of you, saying, ¹⁶'Because Yahweh was not able to bring this people into the land that he swore to them, so he slaughtered them in the wilderness.' ¹⁷And now, please let

²⁰And Yahweh said, "I have forgiven according to your word. ²¹But truly, I live, and all the earth will be filled with the glory of Yahweh. ²²For all the men who have seen my glory and my signs that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and they tested me this ten times and have not listened to my voice, ²³if they see the land that I have sworn to their fathers...and all those who spurn me will not see it. ²⁴But my servant Caleb, because another spirit is with him and he was fully after me, I will bring him into the land that he will come to there. And his seed will inherit it. ²⁵(And the Amalekite and the Canaanite was dwelling in the valley.) Tomorrow turn and set out for yourselves to the wilderness, the way of the Sea of Reeds."

²⁶And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²⁷"Until when must I listen to this evil congregation, they who are murmuring against me the murmurings of the sons of Israel, they who are murmuring against me? ²⁸Say to them, 'I live,' the declaration of Yahweh, 'surely just as you have spoken in my ears, so I will do to you. ²⁹In this wilderness your corpses will fall and all your counted ones according to all your number, from a son of 20 years and upward, who have murmured against me. ³⁰If you enter into the land that I have lifted up my hand to make you dwell in...except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun. ³¹And your children who you said would be for plunder, and I will bring them and they will know the land, it that you have rejected. ³²And you, your corpses will fall in this wilderness. ³³And your sons will be those who herd in the wilderness 40 years. And they will carry your fornications until the finishing of your corpses in the wilderness. ³⁴By the number of the days that you explored the land, 40 days, a day for the year, a day for the year, you will carry your iniquities 40 years. And you will know my opposition. ³⁵I, Yahweh, have spoken. Surely I will do this to all this evil congregation, the ones who have congregated themselves against me. In this wilderness they will finish and there they will die."

³⁹And Moses spoke these words to all the sons of Israel. And the people mourned exceedingly. ⁴⁰And they rose early in the morning and went up to the head of the mountain, saying, "Here we are, and we will go up to the place that Yahweh has said, for we have sinned." ⁴¹And Moses said, "Why this—are you passing over the mouth of Yahweh? And it will not succeed. ⁴²You must not go up because Yahweh is not in the midst of you, that you not be struck down before the face of your enemies. ⁴³For the Amalekite and the Canaanite are there before your face and you will fall by the sword. For therefore you have turned from after Yahweh, and Yahweh will not be with you." ⁴⁴And they presumed to go up to the head of the mountain, but the box of the covenant of Yahweh and Moses did not depart from the midst of the camp. ⁴⁵And the Amalekite and the Canaanite who dwelled on that mountain, came down. And they smote them and beat them to pieces as far as the Hormah.

Chapter 15

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²"Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'When you enter into the land of your dwellings, which I am giving to you, ³then you shall make an offering made by fire to Yahweh, a burnt up offering or a sacrifice, to do an extraordinary vow or with a voluntary offering, or at your appointed times, to make an aroma of soothing for Yahweh from the herd or from the flock. ⁴And the one who is offering shall offer his offering to Yahweh, a grain offering, a tenth of fine flour mixed with a fourth of the hin of oil. ⁵And wine for the drink offering, a fourth of the hin, you shall make with the burnt up offering or for the sacrifice, for the one male lamb. ⁶Or for the ram you shall make a grain offering, two tenths fine flour mixed with a third of the hin of oil. ⁷And wine for the drink offering, a third of the hin, you shall offer as an aroma of soothing for Yahweh. ⁸And when you make a son of cattle a burnt up offering or a sacrifice, to do an extraordinary vow or peace offerings to Yahweh, ⁹then you shall offer with the son of the cattle a grain offering, three tenths fine flour mixed with a half of the hin of the oil, ¹⁰and you shall offer a half of the hin of wine for the drink offering; an offering made by fire, an aroma of soothing for Yahweh.

¹¹Thus it shall be done for the one ox or for the one ram, or for the small livestock among the male lambs or among the goats. ¹²According to the number that you do, thus you shall do for the one according to their number.

¹³Every native shall do these things thus for offering an offering made by fire, an aroma of soothing for Yahweh.

¹⁴And if a sojourner sojourns with you, or whoever is in the midst of you for your generations, and he makes an offering made by fire, an aroma of soothing for Yahweh, just as you shall do so he shall do. ¹⁵The assembly statute is one for you and for the sojourner, the one who is sojourning, a statute of eternity for your generations. As you, so the sojourner shall be before the face of Yahweh. ¹⁶One instruction and one ordinance shall be for you and for the sojourner, the one who is sojourning with you.”

¹⁷And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁸“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you enter into the land there which I am bringing you, ¹⁹and it shall be that when you eat from the bread of the land, you shall raise a raised offering to Yahweh. ²⁰The first of your dough shall be a cake you shall raise as a raised offering. Like a raised offering of the threshing floor, so you shall raise it. ²¹From the first of your dough you shall give a raised offering to Yahweh for your generations.

²²And when you stray and do not do all these commandments that Yahweh has spoken to Moses, ²³all that Yahweh has commanded to you by the hand of Moses, from the day that Yahweh commanded and beyond for your generations, ²⁴and it shall be that if it was done as unintentional sin away from the eyes of the congregation, then all the congregation shall make a bull, one son of cattle, for a burnt up offering, for an aroma of soothing for Yahweh, and its grain offering and its drink offering according to the ordinance, and one buck of the goats for a sin offering. ²⁵And the priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and it shall be forgiven for them. For it was an unintentional sin and they have brought their offering, an offering made by fire, to Yahweh, and their sin offering before the face of Yahweh for their unintentional sin. ²⁶And it shall be forgiven for all the congregation of the sons of Israel and for the sojourner, the one who is sojourning in the midst of them, because of all the people with unintentional sin.

³²And the sons of Israel were in the wilderness. And they found a man gathering pieces of wood on the day of the Sabbath. ³³And the ones who found him gathering pieces of wood brought him near to Moses and to Aaron and to all the congregation. ³⁴And they made him rest in the keeping place because it had not been declared what should be done to him. ³⁵And Yahweh said to Moses, “The man shall certainly die, all the congregation stoning him with the stones from the outside of the camp.” ³⁶And all the congregation brought him out to the outside of the camp. And they stoned him with the stones and he died, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

be holy ones for your God. ⁴¹I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, to become a God for you. I am Yahweh your God."

Chapter 16

¹And Korah the son of Izhar the son of Kohath the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, the sons of Reuben, took men. ²And they rose up before the face of Moses, and men from the sons of Israel, 250 leaders of the congregation, the called ones of the appointed meeting, men of name. ³And they assembled against Moses and against Aaron. And they said to them, "It is much for you! For all of the congregation, all of them, are holy and Yahweh is in their midst. And why do you lift up yourselves above the assembly of Yahweh?"

¹²And Moses sent to call for Dathan and for Abiram, the sons of Eliab. And they said, "We will not go up. ¹³Is it a small thing that you have brought us up from a land flowing with milk and honey, to make us die in the wilderness? But you have made yourself ruler over us, even to make yourself ruler! ¹⁴Moreover, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, or given to us an inheritance of field or vineyard. Will you gouge out the eyes of these men? We will not go up."

¹⁵And it burned exceedingly for Moses and he said to Yahweh, "Do not turn to their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them. And I have not harmed one of them." ¹⁶And Moses said to Korah, "You and all your congregation be before the face of Yahweh, you, and they, and Aaron, tomorrow. ¹⁷And take, a man, his censer and put incense on them. And bring before the face of Yahweh, a man his censer, 250 censers. And you and Aaron, a man his censer." ¹⁸And they took a man his censer, and they put fire on it, and set incense on it. And they stood at the opening of the tent of meeting with Moses and Aaron. ¹⁹And Korah assembled all the congregation against them at the opening of the tent of meeting. And the glory of Yahweh appeared to all the congregation.

²⁰And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²¹"Separate yourselves from the midst of this congregation and I shall finish them in a moment." ²²And they fell on their faces and said, "God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, will one man sin and you become furious against all the congregation?" ²³And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁴"Speak to the congregation, saying, 'Get yourselves up from around the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.'"

²⁵And Moses rose and went to Dathan and Abiram. And the elders of Israel went after him. ²⁶And he spoke to the congregation, saying, "Now turn from beside the tents of these wicked men and do not touch anything that belongs to them, lest you be swept away by all their sins." ²⁷And they got themselves up from beside the dwelling of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, from all around. And Dathan and Abiram went out, standing at the opening of their tents with their wives and their sons and their little children. ²⁸And Moses said, "By this you will know that Yahweh has sent me to do all these deeds, that they are not from my heart: ²⁹If these ones die like the death of every man and the appointment of every man is appointed to them, Yahweh has not sent me. ³⁰But if Yahweh creates a creation and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them and all that belongs to them and they go down alive to Sheol, then you will know that these men have spurned Yahweh."

³¹And it happened when he finished speaking all these words that the ground that was under them split open.

³²And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and their houses and every man who belonged to Korah and all the property. ³³And they went down to Sheol alive, they and all that belonged to them. And the earth covered over them and they perished from the midst of the assembly. ³⁴And all Israel who was surrounding them fled from their sound, for they said, "Lest the earth swallow us!" ³⁵And fire went out from with Yahweh. And it ate the 250 men offering the incense.

³⁹And Eleazar the priest took the censers of bronze that the burned ones had offered and they hammered them as a plating for the altar, ⁴⁰a reminder for the sons of Israel, so that an unfamiliar man, he who is not from the seed of Aaron, shall not come near to burn incense before the face of Yahweh. And he shall not be like Korah and his congregation, just as Yahweh spoke by the hand of Moses to him.

⁴¹And all the congregation of the sons of Israel grumbled against Moses and against Aaron from the next day, saying, "You yourselves killed the people of Yahweh!" ⁴²And it happened when the congregation assembled against Moses and against Aaron that they turned to the tent of meeting. And behold, the cloud covered it and the glory of Yahweh was seen. ⁴³And Moses and Aaron came to the face of the tent of meeting. ⁴⁴And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ⁴⁵"Get yourselves up from the midst of this congregation and I shall finish them in a moment. And they fell on their faces. ⁴⁶And Moses said to Aaron, "Take the censer and put fire on it from on the altar and set incense. And go quickly into the congregation and make atonement for them, because the wrath has gone out from before the face of Yahweh. The plague has begun." ⁴⁷And Aaron took just as Moses said and ran into the midst of the assembly. And behold, the plague had begun among the people. And he put the incense and made atonement for the people. ⁴⁸And he stood between the ones who died and the ones who lived. And the plague was stopped. ⁴⁹And the ones who died by the plague were 14,700, apart from the ones who died on account of the matter of Korah. ⁵⁰And Aaron returned to Moses, to the opening of the tent of meeting. And the plague was stopped.

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²"Speak to the sons of Israel and take a staff from with them, a staff for the house of a father, from with all their leaders for the house of their fathers, 12 staffs. You shall write a man his name on his staff. ³And you shall write the name of Aaron on the staff of Levi, for one staff is for the head of the house of their fathers. ⁴And you shall rest them in the tent of meeting, before the face of the testimony, there where I meet with you. ⁵And it will happen that the man, him whom I choose, his staff will bud. And I will make the grumbings of the sons of Israel that they are grumbling against you cease from against me." ⁶And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel and all their leaders gave to him a staff for one leader, a staff for one leader, for the house of their fathers, 12 staffs. And the staff of Aaron was in the midst of their staffs. ⁷And Moses rested the staffs before the face of Yahweh in the tent of testimony.

¹²And the sons of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, "Look, we will expire! We will perish! All of us will perish! ¹³All who come near, who come near to the dwelling of Yahweh die. Will we be finished by expiring?"

Chapter 18

¹And Yahweh said to Aaron, "You and your sons and the house of your father with you shall bear the iniquity of the holy place. And you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood. ²And also bring with you your brothers, the staff of Levi, the tribe of your father, and they shall be joined to you and serve you. And you and your sons with you shall be before the face of the tent of the testimony. ³And they shall keep your keeping and the keeping of all of the tent. However, they shall not come near to the vessels of the holy place or to the altar, and they will not die, both them and you. ⁴And they shall be joined to you and shall keep the keeping of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent. And a stranger shall not come near to you. ⁵And you shall keep the keeping of the holy place and the keeping of the altar. And there shall not again be fury against the sons of Israel. ⁶And I, behold, I have taken your brothers the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel as a gift for you, ones given to Yahweh to serve the service of the tent of meeting. ⁷And you and your sons with you shall keep your priesthood for all the things of the altar and for the inside of the curtain. And you shall serve. I have given your priesthood as a gift of service. And a stranger who comes near shall be put to death.

⁸And Yahweh spoke to Aaron, "And I, behold, I have given to you the keeping of my contribution, of all the holy things of the sons of Israel I have given them to you for a portion and to your sons for a statute of eternity. ⁹This will belong to you from the holiest holy thing from the fire: every offering of theirs, of every grain offering of theirs and of every sin offering of theirs and of every guilt offering of theirs which they return to me, a holiest holy thing it is for you and for your sons. ¹⁰You shall eat it as a holiest holy thing. Every male shall eat it. It is holy for you. ¹¹And this belongs to you: the contribution of their gift, of all the wave offerings of the sons of Israel, I have given them to you and to your sons and to your daughters with you for a statute of eternity. Every clean one in your house shall eat it. ¹²All the fat of fresh oil and all the fat of new wine and grain, their firstfruits which they will give to Yahweh, I have given them to you. ¹³The firstfruits of all that is in the land which they will bring to Yahweh will belong to you. Every clean one in your house shall eat it. ¹⁴Every dedicated thing in Israel will belong to you. ¹⁵Every opener of the womb of all flesh that they offer to Yahweh, among mankind and among livestock, will belong to you. But you shall surely redeem the firstborn of mankind, and you shall redeem the firstborn of the unclean livestock. ¹⁶And his redeemed ones from a son of a month you shall redeem by your valuation, five silver shekels by the shekel of the holy place, it is 20 gerahs. ¹⁷But the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall throw their blood on the altar and you shall make their fat smoke as an offering made by fire for an aroma of soothing for Yahweh. ¹⁸And their flesh will belong to you like the breast of the wave offering or like the right thigh it will belong to you. ¹⁹All the contributions of the holy things which the sons of Israel lift up to Yahweh, I have given to you and to your sons and to your daughters with you for a statute of eternity. It is an eternal covenant of salt before the face of Yahweh for you and for your seed with you." ²⁰And Yahweh said to Aaron, "You shall not inherit in their land and a portion in their midst shall not belong to you. I am your portion and your inheritance in the midst of the sons of Israel.

²¹And to the sons of Levi, behold, I have given every tenth in Israel for an inheritance in exchange for their service which they are serving, the service of the tent of meeting. ²²And the sons of Israel shall not again come near to the tent of meeting to bear sin to die. ²³And the Levite, he shall serve the service of the tent of meeting and they shall bear their iniquity. It is a statute of eternity for your generations and in the midst of the sons of Israel you shall not inherit an inheritance. ²⁴For I have given to the Levites for an inheritance the tenth of the sons of Israel which they lift up to Yahweh as a contribution. Therefore I have said to them, 'You shall not inherit an inheritance in the midst of the sons of Israel.'

²⁵And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁶"And speak to the Levites and say to them, 'When you take from with the sons of Israel the tenth that I have given to you from with them as your inheritance, then you shall lift up from it a contribution of Yahweh, a tenth from the tenth. ²⁷And it shall be reckoned to you as your contribution like the grain from the threshing floor and like the fullness from the winepress. ²⁸Thus you shall lift up, also you, the contribution of Yahweh from all your tenths which you took from with the sons of Israel. And you shall give from it the contribution of Yahweh to Aaron the priest. ²⁹From all your gifts you shall lift up all of the contribution of Yahweh, from all its fat, its holy part from it. ³⁰And you shall say to them, 'When you lift up its fat from it, then it shall be reckoned to the Levites like the product of the threshing floor and like the product of the winepress. ³¹And you shall eat it in every place, you and your house, because it is a wage for you in exchange for your service in the tent of meeting. ³²And you shall not bear sin on account of it when you lift up its fat from it. And the holy things of the sons of Israel you shall not defile and not die.'" ¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²"This is the statute of the law which Yahweh has commanded, saying, 'Speak to the sons of Israel and they shall bring to you an unblemished red heifer in which there is no defect, on which a yoke has not gone up. ³And you shall give it to Eleazar the priest. And he shall bring it out to the outside of the camp and shall slaughter it before his face. ⁴And Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and shall sprinkle some of its blood to opposite the face of the tent of meeting seven times. ⁵And he shall burn the heifer before his eyes. He shall burn its skin and its flesh, and its blood with its dung. ⁶And the priest shall take wood of cedar, and hyssop, and scarlet material of a worm, and throw into the midst of the burning of the heifer. ⁷And the priest shall wash his garments and bathe his flesh in the water and afterward he shall enter into the camp. And the priest shall be unclean until the evening. ⁸And the one who burned it shall wash his garments in the water and bathe his flesh in the water. And he shall be unclean until the evening. ⁹And a clean man shall gather the ashes of the heifer and rest them in a clean place outside of the camp. And it shall be for the congregation of the sons of Israel to keep for the water of purification. It is a sin offering. ¹⁰And the one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his garments and be unclean until the evening. And it shall be for the sons of Israel and for the sojourner who sojourns in their midst for a statute of eternity.

Chapter 19

¹¹The one who touches a dead body of any human life will be unclean seven days. ¹²He shall purify himself with it on the third day and on the seventh day he will be clean. And if he does not purify himself on the third day then on the seventh day he will not be clean. ¹³Every one who touches a dead body, a human person who has died, and does not purify himself makes the dwelling of Yahweh unclean. And that person shall be cut off from Israel. Because the water of purification was not sprinkled on him, he will be unclean, his uncleanness is still on him.

¹⁴This is the law of a man who dies in a tent: Every one who enters into the tent and everyone who is in the tent will be unclean seven days. ¹⁵And every opened vessel on which there is no fastened cover, it is unclean. ¹⁶And all who touch one pierced of the sword or a dead body or a bone of a human or a grave on the face of the field will be unclean seven days. ¹⁷And they shall take for the unclean one some of the ashes of the burning of the sin offering. And he shall put living water with it into a vessel. ¹⁸And a clean man shall take and dip hyssop in the water. And he shall sprinkle on the tent and on all the vessels and on the lives who were there, and on the one who touched the bone, or the pierced one, or the dead body, or the grave. ¹⁹And the clean one shall sprinkle on the unclean one on the third day and on the seventh day. And he shall purify him on the seventh day. And he shall wash his garments and bathe in the water and he will be unclean until the evening.

²⁰And a man who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly because he has made the holy place of Yahweh unclean. He has not thrown on himself the water of purification. He is unclean. ²¹And it shall be for them for a statute of eternity, and the one who sprinkles the water of purification shall wash his garments and the one who touches the water of purification will be unclean until the evening. ²²And all who touch him, the unclean one, will be unclean. And the person who touches will be unclean until the evening."

¹And the sons of Israel, all the congregation, entered the wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed at Kadesh. And Miriam died there and was buried there.

¹⁴And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, "Thus says your brother Israel: you yourself know all the hardship that we found. ¹⁵And our fathers went down to Egypt and we dwelled in Egypt many days. And the Egyptians did evil to us and to our fathers. ¹⁶And we cried out to Yahweh and he heard our voice and sent a messenger and brought us out from Egypt. And behold, we are in Kadesh, the city of the end of your border. ¹⁷Please let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or vineyard, and will we not drink the water of a well. We will go on the road of the king. We will not turn right or left until we have passed through your border." ¹⁸And Edom said to him, "You may not pass through me, lest I go out to meet you with the sword." ¹⁹And the sons of Israel said to him, "We will go on the highway. And if we drink your water, me or my livestock, then we will give their value. Only, there is no matter, let me pass through with my feet." ²⁰And he said, "You may not pass through." And Edom came out to meet him with a heavy people and a strong hand. ²¹And Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory. And Israel turned from near him.

²²And the sons of Israel, all the congregation, set out from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor. ²³And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron at Mount Hor, near the border of the land of Edom, saying, ²⁴"Aaron will be gathered to his people, because he will not enter into the land that I have given to the sons of Israel because you rebelled against my mouth before the waters of Meribah. ²⁵Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up Mount Hor. ²⁶And strip Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son. And Aaron shall be gathered and die there." ²⁷And Moses did just as Yahweh had commanded. And they went up to Mount Hor before the eyes of all the congregation. ²⁸And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son. And Aaron died there on the head of the mountain. And Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. ²⁹And all the congregation saw that Aaron had expired. And all the house of Israel bewailed Aaron 30 days.

¹And the Canaanite king of Arad, who dwelled in the Negev, heard that Israel had come by the road of the Atharim. And he fought against Israel and took captive some of them as captives. ²And Israel vowed a vow to Yahweh and said, "If you surely give this people into my hand, then I will dedicate their cities by ban." ³And Yahweh listened to the voice of Israel and gave the Canaanites. And he dedicated them and their cities by ban. And he called the name of the place Hormah.

⁴And they set out from Mount Hor by the road of the Sea of Reeds to go around the land of Edom. And the soul of the people was short on the road. ⁵And the people spoke against God and against Moses: "Why did you bring us up from Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, and there is no water, and our soul detests the worthless bread." ⁶And Yahweh sent snakes, fiery ones, among the people and they bit the people. And many people from Israel died. ⁷And the people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned because we have spoken against Yahweh and against you. Pray to Yahweh and may he remove from on us the snake." And Moses prayed on behalf of the people. ⁸And Yahweh said to Moses, "Make for yourself a snake and set it on a pole. And it will happen that any of the bitten will see it and live." ⁹And Moses made a snake of bronze and he set it on the pole. And it happened that if the snake bit a man then he looked to the snake of bronze and he lived.

¹⁰And the sons of Israel set out and camped at Oboth. ¹¹And they set out from Oboth and camped at Iye Abarim in the wilderness that is on the face of Moab from the rising of the sun. ¹²From there they set out and camped at the wadi of Zered. ¹³From there they set out and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that goes out from the border of the Amorite, because the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorite. ¹⁴Therefore it says in the book of the Wars of Yahweh,

"...Waheb in Suphah, and the wadis of the Arnon, ¹⁵and the slope of the wadis that spreads out to the dwelling of Ar and it leans to the border of Moab."

¹⁶And from there to Beer. It is the well where Yahweh said to Moses, "Gather the people and I will give water to them."

¹⁷Then Israel sang this song:

"Rise up, well!

Sing for it,

¹⁸the well leaders dug,

the noblemen of the people dug it, with a decreer's staff and their staffs."

And from the wilderness to Mattanah, ¹⁹and from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, ²⁰and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the field of Moab, the head of the Pisgah, and is looking down on the face of the wasteland.

²¹And Israel sent messengers to Sihon the king of the Amorite, saying, ²²"Let us pass through your land. We will not turn into a field or into a vineyard. We will not drink the water of a well. We will go by the road of the king until we have passed through your border." ²³And Sihon did not give Israel passage through his boundary. And Sihon gathered all his people and went out to the wilderness to meet Israel. And he came to Jahaz and fought with Israel. ²⁴And Israel struck him by the mouth of the sword and took possession of his land from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok, as far as the sons of Ammon, because the border of the sons of Ammon was fortified. ²⁵And Israel took all these cities. And Israel dwelled in all the cities of the Amorite in Heshbon and in all its daughters. ²⁶For Heshbon, it was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorite. And he had fought with the previous king of Moab and had taken all his land from his hand as far as the Arnon. ²⁷Therefore the speakers of proverbs say,

"Come to Heshbon.

Let the city of Sihon be built and established.

²⁸For fire went out from Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon.

It ate Ar of Moab,
the lords of the high places of Arnon.

²⁹Woe to you, Moab!

You have perished, people of Chemosh.

He has given his sons to be escapees and his daughters into the captivity of Sihon the king of the Amorites.

³⁰And we have shot them. Heshbon has perished as far as Dibon.

And we have made devastation as far as Nophah, which is as far as Medeba."

³¹And Israel dwelled in the land of the Amorites. ³²And Moses sent to spy out Jazer and they captured her daughters. And they dispossessed the Amorites who were there.

³³And they turned and went up the road of the Bashan. And Og the king of the Bashan went out to meet them, he and all his people, to the battle at Edrei. ³⁴And Yahweh said to Moses, "Do not fear him, because I have given into your hand him, and all his people, and his land. And you shall do to him just as you did to Sihon the king of the Amorite, who dwelled in Heshbon." ³⁵And they struck him and his sons and all his people until they had left no survivor for him. And they took possession of his land.

Chapter 22

¹And the sons of Israel set out and camped in the plains of Moab, from the other side of the Jordan at Jericho.

²And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorite. ³And Moab was extremely terrified because of the face of the people, because they were numerous. And Moab was sick with terror because of the face of the sons of Israel. ⁴And Moab said to the elders of Midian, "Now the assembly will lick up all that is around us like an ox licks up the green of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was the king of Moab at that time. ⁵And he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor at Pethor, which is near the River, the land of the sons of his people, to summon him, saying, "Behold, a people went out from Egypt. Behold, he has covered the eye of the land and he is dwelling opposite me. ⁶And now please go curse this people for me because they are more numerous than I. Perhaps I will be able to strike them and drive them out from the land. For I know whom you bless will be blessed and whom you curse will be cursed.

⁷And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian went and divination fees were in their hand. And they came to Balaam and spoke to him the words of Balak. ⁸And he said to them, "Lodge here tonight and I will bring you back a word, just as Yahweh speaks to me." And the leaders of Moab stayed with Balaam. ⁹And God came to Balaam and said, "Who are these men with you?" ¹⁰And Balaam said to God, "Balak the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, has sent to me. ¹¹Behold, the people who have come out from Egypt and have covered the eye of the land! Now go curse them for me. Perhaps I will be able to fight them and drive them out." ¹²And God said to Balaam, "You shall not go with them. You shall not curse the people because they are blessed." ¹³And Balaam rose in the morning and said to the leaders of Balak, "Go to your land because Yahweh has refused to grant me to go with you." ¹⁴And the leaders of Moab rose and came to Balak. And they said, "Balaam refused to come with us."

¹⁵And Balak added again and sent many leaders and they were more honored than these. ¹⁶And they came to Balaam and said to him, "Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, 'Please do not refrain from coming to me. ¹⁷For I will very greatly honor you and I will do all that you say to me. And please go curse this people for me.'" ¹⁸And Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, "If Balak gives to me his house full of silver and gold, I will not be able to go beyond the mouth of Yahweh my God to do small or big. ¹⁹And now, you also please stay in this place tonight. And may I know what Yahweh will add to speak with me." ²⁰And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, "If the men have come to summon you, rise and go with them. And only the word that I speak to you, it you shall do."

²¹And Balaam rose in the morning and saddled his female donkey, and went with the leaders of Moab. ²²And the nose of God burned because he was going. And the angel of Yahweh stationed himself in the road as an adversary to him. And he was riding on his female donkey and two of his servants were with him. ²³And the female donkey saw the angel of Yahweh stationed in the road and his drawn sword was in his hand. And the female donkey turned aside from the road and went in the field. And Balaam struck the female donkey to turn her to the road. ²⁴And the angel of Yahweh stood in the narrow pass of the vineyards, a wall on this side and a wall on that side. ²⁵And the female donkey saw the angel of Yahweh and she pressed herself to the wall. And she pressed the foot of Balaam to the wall. And he struck her again. ²⁶And the angel of Yahweh passed on again and stood in a narrow place where there was no road to turn right or left. ²⁷And the female donkey saw the angel of Yahweh and lay down under Balaam. And the nose of Balaam burned and he struck the female donkey with the staff. ²⁸And Yahweh opened the mouth of the female donkey. And she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you that you struck me these three times?" ²⁹And Balaam said to the female donkey, "Because you acted mockingly with me! If only there was a sword in my hand! Surely I would slay you!" ³⁰And the female donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your female donkey on which you have ridden from your continuance until this day? Have I ever been accustomed to doing thus to you?" And he said, "No."

³¹And Yahweh uncovered the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of Yahweh stationed in the road and his drawn sword in his hand. And he bowed and bowed down his nose. ³²And the angel of Yahweh said to him, "On account of what have you struck your female donkey these three times? Behold, I myself have gone out as an adversary because your way has been perverse in front of me. ³³And the female donkey saw me and turned aside before my face these three times. If she had not turned aside from me, surely now even you I would have slain and kept her alive." ³⁴And Balaam said to the angel of Yahweh, "I have sinned, because I did not know that you were stationed to meet me in the road. And now, if it is evil in your eyes, I will return to me." ³⁵And the angel of Yahweh said to Balaam, "Go with the men. And only the word that I speak to you, it you must speak." And Balaam went with the leaders of Balak.

³⁶And Balak heard that Balaam had come. And he went out to meet him at a city of Moab, that is near the border of the Arnon, which is at the end of the border. ³⁷And Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not indeed send to you to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Am I truly not able to honor you?" ³⁸And Balaam said to Balak, "Behold, I have come to you. Am I now at all able to speak anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, it will I speak." ³⁹And Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath Huzoth. ⁴⁰And Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep and sent to Balaam and to the leaders who were with him.

⁴¹And it happened in the morning that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to the high place of Baal. And from there he saw the edge of the people.

Chapter 23

¹And Balaam said to Balak, "Build for me in this place seven altars and prepare for me in this place seven bulls and seven rams." ²And Balak did just as Balaam had said. And Balak and Balaam offered up a bull and a ram on the altar. ³And Balaam said to Balak, "Station yourself beside your burnt up offering and I will go. Perhaps Yahweh will be met to meet me. And I will declare to you the word of what he shows me." And he went to a bare high place. ⁴And God met with Balaam and he said to him, "I have arranged seven altars and offered up a bull and a ram on the altar." ⁵And Yahweh put a word in the mouth of Balaam and said, "Return to Balak and speak thus." ⁶And he returned to him, and behold, he was stationed beside his burnt up offering, he and all the leaders of Moab. ⁷And he lifted up his oracle and said,

"Balak has led me from Aram,

the king of Moab from the mountains of the east.

'Go curse Jacob for me, and go denounce Israel.'

⁸How can I curse? God has not cursed.

And how can I denounce? Yahweh has not denounced.

⁹For from the head of the rocks I see him.

And from the hills I look at him.

Behold, the people dwells by itself and it does not reckon itself among the nations.

¹⁰Who can count the dust of Jacob or number the fourth part of Israel?

Let my life die the death of the upright ones, and let my end be like his!"

¹³And Balak said to him, "Please go with me to another place from which you can see him. You will only see his edge and you will not see all of him. And you will curse him for me from there." ¹⁴And he took him to the field of Zophim, to the head of the Pisgah. And he built seven altars and offered up a bull and a ram on the altar. ¹⁵Then he said to Balak, "Station yourself here beside your burnt offering, and I will be met with there." ¹⁶And Yahweh met with Balaam and put a word in his mouth. And he said, "Return to Balak and thus you shall speak." ¹⁷And he came to him, and behold, he was stationed beside his altar and the leaders of Moab were with him. And Balak said to him, "What did Yahweh speak?" ¹⁸And he lifted up his oracle and said,

"Rise up, Balak, and listen.

Give ear to me, son of Zippor.

¹⁹God is not a man, that he would lie,

Or a son of mankind, that he would change his mind.

Has he said and not done,

Or spoken and not made it arise? ²⁰Behold, I have received to bless.

And he has blessed, and I can not turn it back.

²¹He has not looked at hardship in Jacob and he has not seen trouble in Israel.

Yahweh his God is with him, and the shout of the king is with him. ²²God is bringing them out from Egypt like the horns of a wild ox for him.

²³For there is no omen against Jacob, and no divination against Israel.

At this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel,

'What God has done!'

²⁴Look, a people rises like a lioness, and like a lion he lifts himself up.

He will not lie down until he eats prey and drinks the blood of the pierced ones."

²⁵And Balak said to Balaam, "Even do not curse him at all, also do not bless him at all!" ²⁶And Balaam answered and said to Balak, "Did I not speak to you, saying, 'All that Yahweh speaks, it I must do?'" ²⁷And Balak said to Balaam, "Come now, I will take you to another place. Perhaps it will be right in the eyes of God and you will curse him for me from there." ²⁸And Balak took Balaam to the head of the Peor, looking down on the face of the wasteland.

²⁹And Balaam said to Balak, "Build for me in this place seven altars and prepare for me in this place seven bulls and seven rams." ³⁰And Balak did just as Balaam had said. And he offered up a bull and a ram on the altar.

Chapter 24

¹And Balaam saw that it was good in the eyes of Yahweh to bless Israel. And he did not go as time by time to meet omens. And he set his face to the wilderness. ²And Balaam lifted up his eyes and he saw Israel dwelling according to its tribes. And the Spirit of God was on him. ³And he lifted up his discourse and said,

"The declaration of Balaam the son of Beor,

and the declaration of the man opened of eye,

⁴the declaration of the hearer of the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty,

falling down and opened of eyes:

⁵How good are your tents, Jacob, your dwellings, Israel!

⁶Like wadis they spread out, like gardens beside a river,
like aloes Yahweh has planted, like cedars beside water.

⁷Water will flow from his buckets, and his seed with much water.
And his king will be higher than Agag, and his kingdom will lift itself up.

⁸God is bringing him out from Egypt,
like the horns of a wild ox for him.
He will eat the nations, his enemies.
And he will break their bones.
And he will strike his arrows.

⁹He crouched, he lay down like a lion, and like a lioness. Who will get him up?
Those who bless you are blessed;
and those who curse you are cursed."

¹⁰And the nose of Balak burned toward Balaam and he struck his palms. And Balak said to Balaam, "I called you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have repeatedly blessed these three times! ¹¹And now, flee for yourself to your place. I said I would honor you greatly, and behold, Yahweh has held you back from honor." ¹²And Balaam said to Balak, "Did I not also speak to the messengers that you sent to me, saying. ¹³If Balak gives to me his house full of silver and gold, I will not be able to go beyond the mouth of Yahweh to do good or evil from my heart; what Yahweh speaks, it I must speak?" ¹⁴And now, behold I am about to go to my people. Come, I will advise you what this people will do to your people in the future days." ¹⁵And he lifted up his discourse and said,

"The declaration of Balaam the son of Beor,
and the declaration of the man opened of eye,

¹⁶the declaration of the hearer of the words of God, and the knower of the knowledge of the Most High,
he sees the vision of the Almighty,
falling down and opened of eyes:

¹⁷I will see him, but not now.
I will look at him, but not near.
A star has marched from Jacob, and a rod has risen from Israel.

And he will strike the sides of Moab and destroy all the sons of Seth.

¹⁸And Edom will become a possession, and Seir will become a possession, his enemies.

And Israel will act strongly.

¹⁹And he will rule from Jacob, and he will destroy the survivor from a city."

²⁰And he saw Amalek and lifted up his discourse, and said,

"The first of the nations is Amalek, and his end will be up to destruction."

²¹And he saw the Kenite, and he lifted up his discourse, and said,

"Your dwelling is permanent, and your nest is set in the cliff.

²²But the Kenite will be for burning.

Until when will Assyria take you captive?"

²³And he lifted up his discourse and said,

"Woe! Who can live apart from God establishing him?"

²⁴And ships will be from the hand of Kittim, and they will afflict Asshur and will afflict Eber, and he, too, will be up to destruction."

²⁵And Balaam got up, and went, and returned to his place. And Balak also went on his way.

Chapter 25

¹And Israel dwelled in Shittim, and the people began to prostitute themselves with the daughters of Moab, ²And they called the people to the sacrifices of their gods. And the people ate and they worshipped their gods. ³And Israel bound himself to Baal of Peor. And the nose of Yahweh burned against Israel. ⁴And Yahweh said to Moses, "Take all the heads of the people and hang them up before Yahweh in front of the sun. And the burning of the nose of Yahweh may turn back from Israel." ⁵And Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Slay a man his men, the ones who bound themselves to Baal of Peor:"

⁶And behold, a man from the sons of Israel came and brought near to his brothers the Midianite woman, before the eyes of Moses and before the eyes of all the congregation of the sons of Israel. And they were weeping at the opening of the tent of meeting. ⁷And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saw and rose up from the midst of the congregation, and took a spear in his hand. ⁸And he came after the man of Israel into the domed tent, and he pierced the two of them, the man of Israel and the woman in her stomach. And the plague was stopped from on the sons of Israel. ⁹And the ones who died by the plague were 24,000.

¹⁰And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹¹“Phinehas the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, has turned my heat from on the sons of Israel by his being zealous with my zeal in the midst of them. And I will not make an end of the sons of Israel in my zeal. ¹²Therefore say, ‘Behold, I am giving to him my covenant of peace. ¹³And it will be a covenant of a priesthood of eternity for him and for his seed after him, because he was zealous for his God and he made atonement for the sons of Israel.”

¹⁴And the name of the man of Israel, the struck down one who was struck down with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, the leader of a house of a father of the Simeonites. ¹⁵And the name of the woman, the struck down Midianite woman, was Kozbi the daughter of Zur, who was the head of a tribe of a house of a father in Midian.

¹⁶And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁷“Vex the Midianites and you shall strike them down. ¹⁸For they were vexing you by their deceitfulness when they deceived you over the matter of Peor and over the matter of Kosbi the daughter of the leader of Midian, their sister, the one struck down on the plague day over the matter of Peor.”

Chapter 26

¹And it happened after the plague that Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying, ²“Lift up the heads of all the congregation of the sons of Israel from a son of 20 years and upward according to the house of their fathers, all who go out to war in Israel.” ³And Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab beside the Jordan at Jericho, saying, ⁴“From a son of 20 years and upward, just as Yahweh commanded Moses and the sons of Israel, the ones who came out from the land of Egypt.”

⁵Reuben was the firstborn of Israel. The sons of Reuben: Hanok, the clan of the Hanokite; of Pallu, the clan of the Palluite; ⁶of Hezron, the clan of the Hezronite; of Karmi, the clan of the Karmite. ⁷These were the clans of the Reubenite. And their counted ones were 43,730. ⁸And the son of Pallu was Eliab. ⁹And the sons of Eliab were Nemuel and Dathan and Abiram. This is Dathan and Abiram, the called ones of the congregation, who rebelled against Moses and against Aaron with the congregation of Korah when they rebelled against Yahweh. ¹⁰And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and Korah when the congregation died, when the fire ate 250 men, and they became a sign. ¹¹And the sons of Korah did not die.

¹²The sons of Simeon according to their clans: of Nemuel, the clan of the Nemuelite; of Jamin, the clan of the Jaminite; of Jakin, the clan of the Jakinite; ¹³of Zerah, the clan of the Zerahite; of Shaul, the clan of the Shaulite.

¹⁴These were the clans of the Simeonite, 22,200.

¹⁹The sons of Judah were Er and Onan, and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. ²⁰And the sons of Judah according to their clans were:

of Shelah, the clan of the Shelanite;

of Perez, the clan of the Perezite;

of Zerah, the clan of the Zerahite. ²¹And the sons of Perez were:

of Hezron, the clan of the Hezronite;

of Hamul, the clan of the Hamulite. ²²These were the clans of Judah according to their counted ones, 76,500.

²³The sons of Issachar according to their clans:

Tola, the clan of the Tolaite; of Puah, the clan of the Puite; ²⁴of Jashub, the clan of the Jashubite; of Shimron, the clan of the Shimronite. ²⁵These were the clans of Issachar according to their counted ones, 64,300.

²⁶The sons of Zebulun according to their clans:

of Sered, the clan of the Seredite;

of Elon, the clan of the Elonite;

of Jahleel, the clan of the Jahleelite. ²⁷These were the clans of the Zebulunite according to their counted ones, 60,500.

²⁸The sons of Joseph according to their clans were Manasseh and Ephraim. ²⁹The sons of Manasseh:

of Makir, the clan of the Makirite (and Makir fathered Gilead); of Gilead, the clan of the Gileadite. ³⁰These were the sons of Gilead:

Iezer, the clan of the Iezerite;

of Helek, the clan of the Helekite;

³¹and Asriel, the clan of the Asrielite;

and Shechem, the clan of the Shechemite;

³²and Shemida, the clan of the Shemidaite; and Hephher, the clan of the Hephherite. ³³And there were no sons for Zelophehad the son of Hephher, but daughters. And the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milkah, and Tirzah. ³⁴These were the clans of Manasseh and their counted ones, 52,700.

³⁵These were the sons of Ephraim according to their clans:

of Shuthelah, the clan of the Shuthelahite;

of Beker, the clan of the Bekerite; of Tahan, the clan of the Tahanite. ³⁶And these were the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the clan of the Eranite. ³⁷These were the clans of the sons of Ephraim according to their counted ones, 32,500. These were the sons of Joseph according to their clans.

³⁸The sons of Benjamin according to their clans:

of Bela, the clan of the Belaite;

of Ashbel, the clan of the Ashbelite;

of Ahiram, the clan of the Ahiramite;

³⁹of Shephupham, the clan of the Shuphamite; of Hupham, the clan of the Huphamite.

⁴⁰And the sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: the clan of the Ardite; of Naaman, the clan of the Naamite. ⁴¹These were the sons of Benjamin according to their clans. And their counted ones were 45,600.

⁴²These were the sons of Dan according to their clans: of Shuham, the clan of the Shuhamite. These were the clans of Dan according to their clans. ⁴³All the clans of the Shuhamite according to their counted ones were 64,400.

⁴⁴The sons of Asher according to their clans:

of Imnah, the clan of the Imnite;

of Ishvi, the clan of the Ishvite;

of Beriah, the clan of the Beriite.

⁴⁵The sons of Beriah:

of Heber, the clan of the Heberite;

of Malkiel, the clan of the Malkielite.

⁴⁶And the name of the daughter of Asher was Serah. ⁴⁷These were the clans of the sons of Asher according to their counted ones, 53,400.

⁴⁸The sons of Naphtali according to their clans:

of Jahzeel, the clan of the Jahzeelite;

of Guni, the clan of the Gunite;

⁴⁹of Jezer, the clan of the Jezerite; of Shillem, the clan of the Shillemite.

⁵⁰These were the clans of Naphtali according to their clans. And their counted ones were 45,400.

⁵¹These were the counted ones of the sons of Israel: 601,730.

⁵²And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ⁵³"The land shall be apportioned to these ones as an inheritance by the number of the names. ⁵⁴To the numerous you shall increase his inheritance, and to the small you shall lessen his inheritance. His inheritance shall be given, a man according to the mouth of his counted ones. ⁵⁵Surely the land shall be apportioned by lots. They shall inherit according to the names of the tribes of their fathers. ⁵⁶His inheritance shall be apportioned in accordance with the mouth of the lot, between the numerous and the small."

⁵⁷And these were the counted ones of the Levite according to their clans:

of Gershon, the clan of the Gershonite;

of Kohath, the clan of the Kohathite;

of Merari, the clan of the Merarite.

⁵⁸These were the clans of the Levite:

the clan of the Libnite,

the clan of the Hebronite,

the clan of the Mahlite,

the clan of the Mushite,

the clan of the Korahite.

And Kohath fathered Amram. ⁵⁹And the name of the wife of Amram was Jochebed, a daughter of Levi, she who was born to Levi in Egypt. And she bore to Amram Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam their sister. ⁶⁰And to Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ⁶¹And Nadab and Abihu died when they offered unfamiliar fire before the face of Yahweh. ⁶²And their counted ones were 23,000, every male from a son of a month and upward. But they were not counted in the midst of the sons of Israel because an inheritance in the midst of the sons of Israel was not given to them.

⁶³These are the counted ones of Moses and Eleazar the priest when they counted the sons of Israel in the plains of Moab beside the Jordan at Jericho. ⁶⁴And among these there was not a man from the counted ones of Moses and Aaron the priest when they counted the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. ⁶⁵For Yahweh had said to them, "You shall surely die in the wilderness and a man shall not remain from them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun."

¹And the daughters of Zelophehad the son of Hopher the son of Gilead the son of Machir the son of Manasseh, of the clans of Manasseh the son of Joseph came near. And these were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milkah, and Tirzah. ²And they stood before the face of Moses, and before the face of Eleazar the priest, and before the face of the leaders, and all the congregation at the opening of the tent of meeting, saying, ³"Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the midst of the congregation who assembled against Yahweh with the congregation of Korah. But he died in his sin and there were no sons for him. ⁴Why should the name of our father be withdrawn from the midst of his clan because there is no son for him? Give to us a possession in the midst of the brothers of our father." ⁵And Moses brought near their case before the face of Yahweh.

¹²And Yahweh said to Moses, "Go up to this mountain of Abarim, and see the land that I have given to the sons of Israel. ¹³And you shall see it and be gathered to your people, also you, just as Aaron your brother was gathered. ¹⁴because in the wilderness of Zin, in the quarrel of the congregation, you rebelled against my mouth to regard me as holy at the waters before their eyes" These are the waters of Meribah Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

¹⁵And Moses spoke to Yahweh, saying, ¹⁶"May Yahweh, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation, ¹⁷who will go out before the face of them and who will come before the face of them and who will take them out and who will bring them in, and the congregation of Yahweh will not be like sheep that have no shepherd for them." ¹⁸And Yahweh said to Moses, "Take for yourself Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is a spirit, and lay your hand on him. ¹⁹And you shall stand him before the face of Eleazar the priest and before the face of all the congregation. And you shall command him before their eyes. ²⁰And you shall give some of your authority on him, so that all the congregation of the sons of Israel will hear. ²¹And he shall stand before the face of Eleazar the priest. And he shall ask for him by the judgment of the Urim before the face of Yahweh. In accordance with his mouth he shall go out and in accordance with his mouth he shall come in, he and all the sons of Israel with him and all the congregation." ²²And Moses did just as Yahweh had commanded him. And he took Joshua and stood him before the face of Eleazar the priest and before the face of all the congregation. ²³And he laid his hands on him and he commanded him, just as Yahweh had spoken by the hand of Moses.

Chapter 28

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Command the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘You shall be careful to offer to me at its appointed time my offering, my food for my offerings made by fire, an aroma of my soothing.’ ³And you shall say to them, ‘This is the offering made by fire that you shall offer to Yahweh: unblemished male lambs, sons of a year, two for the day, a burnt up offering continually. ⁴One male lamb you shall do in the morning, and the second male lamb you shall do between the evenings, ⁵and the tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with the fourth of a hin of beaten oil. ⁶It is a burnt up offering of continuity, the one done at Mount Sinai for an aroma of soothing, an offering made by fire to Yahweh. ⁷And its drink offering shall be the fourth of a hin for one male lamb. You shall pour out in the holy place a drink offering of intoxicating drink to Yahweh. ⁸And you shall do the second male lamb between the evenings. You shall do like the grain offering of the morning and its drink offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma of soothing to Yahweh.

¹¹And at the heads of your months, you shall offer a burnt up offering to Yahweh: two bulls, sons of cattle, and one ram, seven male lambs, sons of a year, unblemished; ¹²and three-tenths fine flour as a grain offering mixed with the oil for one bull, and two-tenths fine flour as a grain offering mixed with the oil for the one ram, ¹³and a tenth, a tenth fine flour as a grain offering mixed with the oil for one male lamb. It is a burnt up offering, an aroma of soothing, an offering made by fire to Yahweh. ¹⁴And their drink offerings shall be half of a hin of wine for the bull, and a third of a hin for the ram, and a fourth of a hin for the male lamb. This shall be the burnt up offering of the month by its month for the months of the year. ¹⁵And one buck of the goats shall be done as a sin offering to Yahweh, in addition to the burnt up offering of the continuity and its drink offering.

¹⁶And in the first month, on day 14 of the month is the Passover of Yahweh. ¹⁷And on day 15 of this month shall be a feast. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. ¹⁸On the first day shall be a convocation of holiness. You shall not do any work of labor. ¹⁹And you shall offer an offering made by fire, a burnt up offering to Yahweh: two bulls, sons of cattle, and one ram, and seven male lambs, sons of a year. They shall be unblemished for you. ²⁰And their grain offering: you shall do fine flour mixed with the oil, three-tenths for the bull and two-tenths for the ram. ²¹A tenth, a tenth you shall do for one male lamb of the seven male lambs, ²²and one male goat as the sin offering to make atonement for yourselves. ²³You shall do these apart from the burnt up offering of the morning, which is for the burnt up offering of the continuity. ²⁴You shall do like these for the day, seven days, the food of the offering made by fire, an aroma of soothing to Yahweh. It shall be done in addition to the burnt up offering of the continuity and its drink offering. ²⁵And on the seventh day there shall be a convocation of holiness for you. You shall not do any work of labor.

²⁶And on the day of the firstfruits, when you offer the new grain offering to Yahweh in your festival of weeks, there shall be a convocation of holiness for you. You shall not do any work of labor. ²⁷And you shall offer a burnt up offering as an aroma of soothing to Yahweh: two bulls, sons of cattle, one ram, seven male lambs, sons of a year, ²⁸And their grain offering shall be fine flour mixed with the oil, three-tenths for one bull, two-tenths for the one ram, ²⁹a tenth, a tenth for one male lamb of the seven of the male lambs, ³⁰one buck of the goats to make atonement for yourselves. ³¹You shall do apart from the burnt up offering of the continuity and its grain offering. They shall be unblemished for you and their drink offerings.”

¹And in the seventh month, on the first of the month, there shall be a convocation of holiness for you. You shall not do any work of labor. It shall be a day of horn blowing for you. ²And you shall do a burnt up offering for an aroma of soothing to Yahweh: one bull, a son of cattle, one ram, seven male lambs, sons of a year, unblemished. ³And their grain offering shall be fine flour mixed with the oil, three-tenths for the bull, two-tenths for the ram, ⁴and one-tenth for one male lamb of the seven male lambs. ⁵And one buck of the goats shall be a sin offering to make atonement for yourselves. ⁶It is apart from the burnt up offering of the month and its grain offering, and the burnt up offering of the continuity and its grain offering, and their drink offerings according to their ordinance, for an aroma of soothing, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

⁷And on the tenth of this seventh month there shall be a convocation of holiness for you. And you shall afflict your lives. You shall not do any work. ⁸And you shall offer a burnt up offering to Yahweh, an aroma of soothing: one bull, a son of cattle, one ram, seven male lambs, sons of a year. They shall be unblemished for you. ⁹And their grain offering shall be fine flour mixed with the oil, three-tenths for the bull, two-tenths for the one ram, ¹⁰a tenth, a tenth for the one male lamb, for the seven male lambs. ¹¹One buck of the goats shall be a sin offering, apart from the sin offering of the atonement and the burnt up offering of the continuity and its grain offering and their drink offerings.

¹²And on day 15 of the seventh month there shall be for you a convocation of holiness. You shall not do any work of labor, and you shall feast a feast to Yahweh seven days. ¹³And you shall offer a burnt up offering, a sacrifice made by fire, an aroma of soothing to Yahweh, 13 bulls, sons of cattle, two rams, 14 male lambs, sons of a year. They shall be unblemished. ¹⁴And their grain offering shall be fine flour mixed with the oil, three-tenths for one bull for the 13 bulls, two-tenths for one ram for the two rams, ¹⁵and a tenth, a tenth for one male lamb for the 14 male lambs. ¹⁶And one buck of the goats shall be a sin offering, apart from the burnt up offering of the continuity, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

³⁵On the eighth day an assembly shall be for you. You shall not do any work of labor. ³⁶And you shall offer a burnt up offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma of soothing to Yahweh: one bull, one ram, seven male lambs, sons of a year, unblemished. ³⁷Their grain offering and their drink offerings, for the bull, for the ram, and for the male lambs, shall be by their number according to the ordinance, ³⁸and one male goat of the sin offering apart from the burnt up offering of the continuity and its grain offering and its drink offering.

³⁹You shall do these for Yahweh at your appointed times, apart from your vows and your voluntary offerings, for your burnt up offerings, and for your grain offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings."

⁴⁰And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel according to all that Yahweh had commanded Moses.

Chapter 30

¹And Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the sons of Israel, saying, "This is the word that Yahweh has commanded: ²When a man vows a vow to Yahweh, or swears an oath to bind a binding vow on his life, he shall not profane his word. He shall do according to all that came out from his mouth. ³And if a woman vows a vow to Yahweh and binds a binding vow in the house of her father, in her youth, ⁴and her father hears her vow and her binding vow that she bound on her life and her father is silent to her, then all her vows shall stand and every binding vow that she has bound on her life shall stand. ⁵And if her father forbids her on the day of his hearing, any of her vows and her binding vows that she bound on her life shall not stand. And Yahweh will forgive her because her father forbade her. ⁶And if she ever belongs to a man and her vows are on her, or thoughtless speech of her lips that she has bound is on her life, ⁷and her husband hears on the day of his hearing and is silent to her, then her vows shall stand, and her binding vows that she bound on her life shall stand. ⁸And if her husband forbids her on the day of his hearing, then he breaks her vow which is on her and the thoughtless speech of her lips that she bound on her life. And Yahweh will forgive her. ⁹And the vow of a widow and a cast out woman, all that she binds on her life shall stand on her. ¹⁰And if she vowed or bound a binding vow on her life by an oath in the house of her husband, ¹¹and her husband hears and is silent to her, he does not forbid her, then all her vows shall stand, and every binding vow that she bound on her life shall stand. ¹²And if her husband ever breaks them on the day of his hearing, all that went out of her lips for her vows and for the binding vow of her life shall not stand. Her husband has broken them and Yahweh will forgive her. ¹³Every vow and every oath of a binding vow to afflict her life, her husband may make it stand and her husband may break it. ¹⁴And if her husband is wholly silent to her from day to day, then he will make all her vows or all her binding vows which are on her stand. He made them stand because he was silent to her on the day of his hearing. ¹⁵And if he ever breaks them after his hearing, then he will bear her iniquity." ¹⁶These are the statutes that Yahweh commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between a father and his daughter in her youth in the house of her father.

Chapter 31

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²"Take vengeance, the vengeance of the sons of Israel, from with the Midianites. Afterward you shall be gathered to your people." ³And Moses spoke to the people, saying, "Equip yourselves, some of the men with you, for the war. And they will be against Midian to give the vengeance of Yahweh on Midian. ⁴You shall send to the war for all the tribes of Israel, a thousand for a tribe, a thousand for a tribe." ⁵And a thousand for a tribe were provided from the thousands of Israel, 12,000 equipped for battle. ⁶And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand for a tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the war. And the vessels of holiness and the blasting trumpets were in his hand. ⁷And they waged war against Midian, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. And they slew every male. ⁸And they slew the kings of Midian with their pierced ones: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. And they slew Balaam the son of Beor by the sword. ⁹And the sons of Israel took captive the women of Midian and their children. And they plundered all their animals, and all their livestock, and all their wealth. ¹⁰And they burned with the fire all their cities with their dwellings and all their encampments. ¹¹And they took all the spoil and all the booty of human and of animal. ¹²And they brought to Moses and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the sons of Israel, the captives and the booty and the spoil to the camp at the plains of Moab which are beside the Jordan at Jericho.

¹³And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation went out to meet them at the outside of the camp. ¹⁴And Moses was furious with the appointed ones of the army, the leaders of the thousands and the leaders of the hundreds, the ones coming from the battle of the war. ¹⁵And Moses said to them, "Have you let every woman live? ¹⁶Look, these were by the word of Balaam for the sons of Israel to commit unfaithfulness against Yahweh concerning the matter of Peor, and the plague was among the congregation of Yahweh. ¹⁷And now, slay every male among the children and slay every woman who has known a man by the bed of a male. ¹⁸And keep alive for yourselves every child among the women who has not known the bed of a male. ¹⁹And you, camp outside of the camp seven days, all who have slain a person and all who have touched a pierced one. Purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captives. ²⁰And you shall purify every garment and every vessel of skin and every work of goats, and every vessel of wood."

²¹And Eleazar the priest said to the men of the army who had gone to the battle, "This is a statute of the law that Yahweh has commanded Moses: ²²Only the gold, and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead, ²³every thing that can come through the fire you shall pass through the fire, and it will become clean. However, it must be purified with the water of purification. And all that can not come through the fire you shall pass through the water. ²⁴And you shall wash your garments on the seventh day, and you will be clean. And afterward you may enter into the camp."

²⁵And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁶"Lift up the head of the booty of the captives, of human and of animal. You, and Eleazar the priest, and the heads of the fathers of the congregation. ²⁷And you shall divide the booty between the wielders of the war who went out to the battle, and all the congregation. ²⁸And you shall raise a tax for Yahweh from with the men of the war who went out to the battle, one life from 500, from human and from cattle, and from the donkeys, and from the flock. ²⁹You shall take from half of them and give the contribution of Yahweh to Eleazar the priest. ³⁰And from the half of the sons of Israel you shall take one taken from the 50, from human, from cattle, from the donkeys, and from the flock, from every animal, and you shall give them to the Levites, the keepers of the keeping of the dwelling of Yahweh." ³¹And Moses and Eleazar the priest did just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

⁴⁸And the appointed ones who were for the thousands of the army, the leaders of the thousands and the leaders of the hundreds, came near to Moses. ⁴⁹And they said to Moses, "Your servants have lifted up the heads of the men of the war who were in our hand, and not a man from us is missing. ⁵⁰And we have offered the offering of Yahweh, a man what he found of the objects of gold, armlet, and bracelet, signet ring, earring, and ornament, to make atonement for our lives before the face of Yahweh." ⁵¹And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from with them, every object of craft. ⁵²And all the gold of the contribution which they raised to Yahweh from with the leaders of the thousands and from with the leaders of the hundreds was 16,750 shekels. ⁵³The men of the army had plundered, a man for himself. ⁵⁴And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from with the leaders of the thousands and the hundreds. And they brought it to the tent of meeting, a memorial for the sons of Israel before the face of Yahweh.

¹And the livestock of the sons of Reuben and of the sons of Gad was great, very numerous. And they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, and behold, the place was a place of livestock. ²And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben came and said to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying, ³"Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Sebam, and Nebo, and Beon ⁴are the land that Yahweh struck before the face of the congregation of Israel. It is a land of livestock and livestock belongs to your servants." ⁵And they said, "If we have found favor in your eyes, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Do not make us cross over the Jordan."

¹⁶And they came near to him and said, "Here we will build walls of the flock for our livestock and cities for our children. ¹⁷And we ourselves will be equipped for war, hurrying before the face of the sons of Israel until when we have brought them into their place. And our children will dwell in the cities of the fortification because of the face of those who dwell in the land. ¹⁸We will not return to our houses until the sons of Israel get an inheritance for themselves, a man his inheritance. ¹⁹For we will not inherit with them from across of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance came to us from beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise."

²⁰And Moses said to them, "If you do this thing, if you equip yourselves before the face of Yahweh for the war, ²¹then every man equipped for war shall cross over the Jordan for you before the face of Yahweh, until he has dispossessed his enemy from his face ²²and the land is subdued before the face of Yahweh, then afterward you may return. And you will be free of obligation from Yahweh and from Israel. And this land will be for you for a possession before the face of Yahweh. ²³And if you do not do so, behold, you will have sinned against Yahweh. And know that your sin will find you. ²⁴Build for yourselves cities for your children and walls for your livestock. And you shall do what has gone out from your mouth." ²⁵And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, "Your servants will do just as my master is commanding. ²⁶Our children, our wives, our livestock, and all our animals will be there in the cities of the Gilead. ²⁷And your servants will cross over, every man equipped for war of the army, before the face of Yahweh for the war, just as my master has spoken."

³³And Moses gave to them, to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon the king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og the king of the Bashan, the land of its cities with the borders of the cities of the surrounding land. ³⁴And the sons of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, ³⁵and Atroth Shophan, and Jazer, and Jogbehah, ³⁶and Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran, the cities of fortification and the walls of the flock. ³⁷And the sons of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kiriathaim, ³⁸and Nebo, and Baal Meon (names were changed) and Sibmah. And they called the names of the cities that they built by names. ³⁹And the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and captured it and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it. ⁴⁰And Moses gave the Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he dwelled in it. ⁴¹And Jair the son of Manasseh went and captured their tent villages. And he called them Havvoth Jair. ⁴²And Nobah went and captured Kenath and its daughters. And he called it Nobah, by his name.

¹These are the journeys of the sons of Israel who went out from the land of Egypt according to their tribes by the hand of Moses and Aaron. ²And Moses wrote down their departure points according to their tribes in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh. And these are their journeys according to their departure points. ³And they set out from Rameses on the first month, on day 15 of the first month, from the day after the Passover the sons of Israel went out with a raised hand before the eyes of all the Egyptians. ⁴And the Egyptians were burying those whom Yahweh had struck down, all the firstborn. And Yahweh enacted judgment against their gods.

⁵And the sons of Israel set out from Rameses and camped at Succoth. ⁶And they set out from Succoth and camped at Etham, which is at the edge of the wilderness. ⁷And they set out from Etham and turned back to Pi Hahiroth, which is on the face of Baal Zephon. And they camped before the face of Migdol. ⁸And they set out from the face of Hahiroth and passed through the midst of the sea to the wilderness. And they went a distance of three days in the wilderness of Etham and camped at Marah. ⁹And they set out from Marah and camped at Elim. And at Elim were 12 springs of water and 70 palm trees. And they camped there. ¹⁰And they set out from Elim and camped beside the Sea of Reeds. ¹¹And they set out from the Sea of Reeds and camped in the wilderness of Sin. ¹²And they set out from the wilderness of Sin and camped at Dophkah. ¹³And they set out from Dophkah and camped at Alush. ¹⁴And they set out from Alush and camped at Rephidim, and there was no water there for the people to drink. ¹⁵And they set out from Rephidim and camped in the wilderness of Sinai. ¹⁶And they set out from the wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth Hattaavah. ¹⁷And they set out from Kibroth Hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth. ¹⁸And they set out from Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah. ¹⁹And they set out from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon Perez. ²⁰And they set out from Rimmon Perez and camped at Libnah. ²¹And they set out from Libnah and camped at Rissah. ²²And they set out from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah. ²³And they set out from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher. ²⁴And they set out from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah. ²⁵And they set out from Haradah and camped at Makheloth. ²⁶And they set out from Makheloth and camped at Tahath. ²⁷And they set out from Tahath and camped at Terah. ²⁸And they set out from Terah and camped at Mithkah. ²⁹And they set out from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah. ³⁰And they set out from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth. ³¹And they set out from Moseroth and camped at Bene Jaakan. ³²And they set out from Bene Jaakan and camped at Hor Haggidgad. ³³And they set out from Hor Haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah. ³⁴And they set out from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah. ³⁵And they set out from Abronah and camped at Ezion Geber. ³⁶And they set out from Ezion Geber and camped in the wilderness of Zin (it is Kadesh). ³⁷And they set out from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, at the edge of the land of Edom.

³⁸And Aaron the priest went up to Mount Hor in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh and died there in the fortieth year of the going out of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on 1 of the month.

³⁹And Aaron was a son of 123 years when he died at Mount Hor.

⁴⁰And the Canaanite, the king of Arad (and he was dwelling in the Negev in the land of Canaan), heard when the sons of Israel came.

⁴¹And they set out from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah. ⁴²And they set out from Zalmonah and camped at Punon. ⁴³And they set out from Punon and camped at Oboth. ⁴⁴And they set out from Oboth and camped at Iye Abarim, on the border of Moab. ⁴⁵And they set out from Iye and camped at Dibon Gad. ⁴⁶And they set out from Dibon Gad and camped at Almon Diblathaim. ⁴⁷And they set out from Almon Diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, before the face of Nebo. ⁴⁸And they set out from the mountains of Abarim and camped in the plains of Moab beside the Jordan at Jericho. ⁴⁹And they camped beside the Jordan, from Beth Jeshimoth to Abel Shittim in the plains of Moab.

⁵⁰And Yahweh spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab beside the Jordan at Jericho, saying, ⁵¹“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you cross over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, ⁵²then you shall dispossess all those who dwell in the land from your face. And you shall destroy all their carved figures, and you shall destroy all the figures of their molten metal, and you shall destroy all their high places. ⁵³And you shall take possession of the land and dwell in it, because I have given the land to you to possess it. ⁵⁴And you shall inherit for yourselves the land by lot, according to your clans. You shall increase his inheritance for the numerous, and you shall decrease his inheritance for the few. To there where the lot goes out for him, to him it will belong. According to the tribes of your fathers you shall inherit for yourselves. ⁵⁵And if you do not dispossess those who dwell in the land from your face, then whom you leave from them will be as thorns in your eyes and as pricks in your sides. And they shall vex you on the land that you are about to dwell in. ⁵⁶And it will happen that I will do to you just as I had intended to do to them.”

¹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Command the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you enter into the land of Canaan, this is the land that has fallen to you as an inheritance, the land of Canaan and its borders, ³and the corner of the south will be for you from the wilderness of Zin beside the hands of Edom. And the border of the south will be for you from the end of the Sea of Salt eastward. ⁴And the border will turn for you from the south to the ascent of Akrabbim and cross over to Zin. And its outer limits will be from the south to Kadesh Barnea. And it will go out to Hazar Addar and cross over to Azmon. ⁵And the border will turn from Azmon toward the wadi of Egypt and its outer limits will be to the sea.

⁶And the border of the west, it will be for you the Great Sea and the border. This will be for you the border of the west.

⁷And this will be for you the border of the north, from the Great Sea you shall mark out for you to Mount Hor.

⁸From Mount Hor you shall mark out to Lebo Hamath, and the outer limits of the border will be to Zedad. ⁹And the border will go out to Ziphron and its outer limits will be at Hazar Enan. This will be for you the border of the north.

¹³And Moses commanded the sons of Israel, saying, "This is the land, it which you will inherit for yourselves by lot, which Yahweh has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half of the tribe. ¹⁴For the tribe of the sons of the Reubenites according to the house of their fathers and the tribe of the sons of the Gadites according to the house of their fathers have taken, and the half of the tribe of Manasseh has taken their inheritance. ¹⁵The two tribes and the half of the tribe have taken their inheritance from beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise."

¹⁶And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁷"These are the names of the men who will divide the land for you as an inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun. ¹⁸And you shall take one leader, one leader from a tribe to divide the land as an inheritance. ¹⁹And these are the names of the men:

of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

²⁰and of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud;

²¹of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Kislou;

²²and of the tribe of the sons of Dan a leader, Bukki the son of Jogli;

²³of the sons of Joseph, of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh a leader, Hanniel the son of Ephod;

²⁴and of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim a leader, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan;

²⁵and of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun a leader, Elizaphan the son of Parnak;

²⁶and of the tribe of the sons of Issachar a leader, Paltiel the son of Azzan;

²⁷and of the tribe of the sons of Asher a leader, Ahihud the son of Shelomi;

²⁸and of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali a leader, Pedahel the son of Ammihud."

²⁹These are whom Yahweh commanded to divide an inheritance for the sons of Israel in the land of Canaan.

Chapter 35

⁹And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰"Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'When you cross over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, ¹¹then you shall choose for yourselves cities, they will be cities of refuge for you. And the one who kills, the one who struck down a person by mistake, shall flee to there. ¹²And the cities will be for you for refuge from the avenger. And the one who kills will not die until he stands before the face of the congregation for the judgment. ¹³And the cities that you shall give shall be six cities of refuge for you. ¹⁴You shall give three cities from beyond the Jordan. And you shall give three cities in the land of Canaan. They shall be cities of refuge. ¹⁵For the sons of Israel, and for the sojourner, and for the temporary dweller in your midst, these six cities shall be for refuge to flee to, every one who has struck down a person by mistake.

¹⁶And if he struck him down with an object of iron and he died, he is one who murders. The one who murders shall certainly be put to death. ¹⁷And if he struck him down with a stone in hand by which one could die and he died, he is one who murders. The one who murders shall certainly be put to death. ¹⁸Or if he struck him down with an object of wood in hand by which one could die and he died, he is one who murders. The one who murders shall certainly be put to death. ¹⁹The avenger of blood, he shall put the one who murders to death. When he meets him, he shall put him to death. ²⁰And if with hatred he pushes him or throws something at him by lying in wait and he dies, ²¹or if with hostility he strikes him down with his hand and he dies, you shall certainly put to death the one who strikes down; he is one who murders. The avenger of blood shall put to death the one who murders when he meets him.

²²And if with suddenness without hostility he pushes him or throws any object at him without lying in wait, ²³or if with any stone by which one could die without seeing he drops it on him and he dies, and he was not an enemy to him and was not seeking his harm, ²⁴then the congregation shall judge between the one who struck down and the avenger of blood in accordance with these judgments. ²⁵And the congregation shall rescue the one who kills from the hand of the avenger of blood. And the congregation shall bring him back into the city of his refuge to which he had fled. And he shall dwell in it until the death of the great priest, him whom he anointed with the oil of holiness. ²⁶And if the one who kills ever goes out of the border of the city of his refuge to which he has fled, ²⁷and the avenger of blood finds him outside the border of the city of his refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the one who kills, there will be no blood against him. ²⁸For in the city of his refuge he must dwell until the death of the great priest, and after the death of the great priest the one who kills may return to the land of his possession.

²⁹And these shall be for you as a statute of judgment for your generations, in all your dwellings. ³⁰Every one who strikes down a person, according to the mouth of witnesses he must kill the one who kills. And one witness shall not testify against a person to put to death. ³¹And you shall not take a ransom for the life of one who kills, he who is guilty to die, because he shall certainly be put to death. ³²And you shall not take a ransom for the one who flees into the city of his refuge, to return to dwell in the land until the death of the priest. ³³And you shall not pollute the land which you are in because the blood itself pollutes the land. And atonement cannot be made for the land for the blood that is poured out on it except by the blood of the one who poured it out. ³⁴And you shall not defile the land which you are dwelling in, which I am dwelling in the midst of, because I, Yahweh, am dwelling in the midst of the sons of Israel.”

¹And the heads of the fathers of the clans of the sons of Gilead the son of Machir the son of Manasseh from the clans of the sons of Joseph came near and spoke before the face of Moses and before the face of the leaders, the heads of the fathers of the sons of Israel. ²And they said, “Yahweh commanded my master to give the land as an inheritance by lot to the sons of Israel. And my master was commanded by Yahweh to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters. ³And they will become wives for one from the sons of the tribes of the sons of Israel. And their inheritance will be withdrawn from the inheritance of our fathers, and it will be added onto the inheritance of the tribe that they belong to. And it will be withdrawn from the lot of our inheritance. ⁴And when it will be the Jubilee for the sons of Israel, then their inheritance will be added onto the inheritance of the tribe which they belong to. And their inheritance will be withdrawn from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.”

⁵And Moses commanded the sons of Israel in accordance with the mouth of Yahweh, saying, “What the tribe of the sons of Joseph is speaking is right. ⁶This is the word that Yahweh commands to the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, ‘They may become wives of the good one in their eyes, only they must become wives of the clan of the tribe of their father. ⁷And an inheritance of the sons of Israel shall not go around from tribe to tribe, but a man of the sons of Israel shall cling to the inheritance of the tribe of his father. ⁸And every daughter who possesses an inheritance from the tribes of the sons of Israel shall become a wife for one from the clan of the tribe of her father, so that the sons of Israel will have a possession, a man the inheritance of his fathers. ⁹And an inheritance shall not go around from a tribe to another tribe, but each tribe of the sons of Israel shall cling to his inheritance.”

¹⁰Just as Yahweh commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad. ¹¹And Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milkah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, became wives for the sons of their uncles. ¹²They became wives from the clans of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph. And their inheritance was with the tribe of the clan of their father.

¹³These are the commands and the judgments that Yahweh commanded by the hand of Moses to the sons of Israel in the plains of Moab beside the Jordan at Jericho.

Deuteronomy

Chapter 1

¹These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain of the Jordan River valley over against Suph, between Paran, Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab. ²It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh Barnea. ³It happened in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spoke to the people of Israel all that Yahweh commanded him concerning them. ⁴This was after they attacked Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth at Edrei. ⁵Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses began to announce these instructions, saying, ⁶"Yahweh our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, 'You have lived long enough in this hill country. ⁷Turn and take your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites and to all their dwellings in the plain of the Jordan River valley, in the hill country, in the lowland, in the Negev, and by the seashore—the land of the Canaanites, and in Lebanon as far as the great river, the Euphrates. ⁸Look, I have given the land before you; go in and possess the land that Yahweh swore to your fathers—to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob—to give to them and to their descendants after them.'

⁹I spoke to you at that time, saying, 'I am not able to carry you myself alone. ¹⁰Yahweh your God has multiplied you, and, look, you are today as the multitude of the stars of heaven. ¹¹May Yahweh, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times as many as you are, and bless you, just as he told you! ¹²But how can I myself alone carry your loads, your burdens, and your disputes? ¹³Nominate for yourselves men who are wise, understanding, and of good repute from each of your tribes, and I will make them heads over you.' ¹⁴You answered me and said, 'The thing that you have spoken is good for us to do.' ¹⁵So I took the heads of your tribes—men who are wise and of good repute—and gave them as heads over you, captains of thousands, captains of hundreds, captains of fifties, captains of tens, and officers, for each of your tribes. ¹⁶And, I commanded your judges at that time, saying, 'Listen to your brothers, and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and the foreigner who is with him. ¹⁷You will not show partiality to anyone in the judgment; you will hear the small and the great alike. You will not turn aside from the face of a man, for the judgment belongs to God himself. And the word which is too heavy for you, you will bring to me, and I will hear it.' ¹⁸So I commanded you at that time all the things that you should do.

¹⁹Then we journeyed away from Horeb and went through all that great and terrible wilderness that you saw on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as Yahweh our God had commanded us; and we came to Kadesh Barnea.

²⁰And I said to you, 'You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which Yahweh our God is giving to us.

²¹Look, Yahweh your God has set the land before you; go up, take possession, as Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has spoken to you; do not be afraid, neither be discouraged.' ²²Every one of you came to me and said, 'Let us send men ahead of us, so that they may search out the land for us, and bring us word about the way by which we go up into it, and about the cities to which we will come.' ²³This word was good in my eyes, so I took from among you twelve men, one man for {each} tribe. ²⁴They turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshkol, and scouted it. ²⁵They took with their hands {some} of the fruit of the land and brought {it} down to us. They also returned to us with a word and said, '{It is} a good land that Yahweh our God is giving to us.'

²⁶But your fathers did not go up, and you provoked the mouth of Yahweh your God. ²⁷And you grumbled in your tents and said, "In Yahweh's hatred against us he brought us out of the land of Egypt, in order to give us into the hand of the Amorites to destroy us. ²⁸Where {can} we go? Our brothers have made our heart to melt, saying, 'Those people {are} greater and taller than we are; their cities are great and {are} fortified up to the sky; moreover, we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.'" ²⁹Then I said to you, 'Do not be terrified, neither be afraid of them. ³⁰Yahweh your God, who walks before you, he himself will fight for you, like everything that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes, ³¹and also in the wilderness, where you have seen how Yahweh your God carried you, as a man carries his son, all along the way which you went until you came to this place.' ³²Yet in spite of this word you did not believe Yahweh your God, ³³who went before you on the way to find a place for you to make camp, in fire by night and in a cloud by day.

³⁴Yahweh heard the sound of your words and was angry; he swore and said, ³⁵'Surely not one of these men of this evil generation will see the good land that I swore to give to your ancestors, ³⁶save Caleb son of Jephunneh; he will see it. To him I will give the land that he has stepped on, and to his children, because he has wholly followed Yahweh.' ³⁷Also Yahweh was angry with me because of you, saying, 'You also will not go in there; ³⁸Joshua son of Nun, who stands before you, he will go in there; encourage him, for he will lead Israel to inherit it. ³⁹Moreover, your little children, the ones you said would be victims, who today have no knowledge of good or evil—they will go in there. To them I will give it, and they will possess it. ⁴⁰But {as for} you, turn and take your journey into the wilderness along the way to the Sea of Reeds.'

⁴¹Then you answered and said to me, 'We have sinned against Yahweh; we will go up and fight, and we will follow all that Yahweh our God has commanded us to do.' Every man among you put on his weapons of war, and you were ready to attack the hill country. ⁴²Yahweh said to me, 'Say to them, "Do not attack and do not fight, for I will not be with you, and you will be defeated by your enemies.' ⁴³I spoke to you in this way, but you did not listen. You rebelled against the commandment of Yahweh; you were arrogant and attacked the hill country. ⁴⁴But the Amorites, who lived in that hill country, came out against you and chased you like bees, and struck you down in Seir, as far as Hormah. ⁴⁵You returned and wept before Yahweh; but Yahweh did not listen to your voice, nor did he pay attention to you. ⁴⁶So you stayed in Kadesh many days, all the days that you stayed {there}.

¹Then we turned and took our journey into the wilderness by the way to the Sea of Reeds, as Yahweh had spoken to me; we went around Mount Seir for many days. ²Yahweh spoke to me, saying, ³'You have gone around this mountain long enough; turn northward. ⁴Command the people, saying, "You {are to} pass through the border of your brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir; they will be afraid of you. Therefore be careful ⁵not to fight with them, for I will not give you {any} of their land, no, not even enough for the sole of a foot to step on; for I have given Mount Seir to Esau {as} a possession. ⁶You will purchase food from them for money, so that you may eat; you will also buy water from them for money, so that you may drink. ⁷For Yahweh your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand; he has known your walking through this great wilderness. For these forty years Yahweh your God {has been} with you, and you have lacked nothing.'" ⁸So we passed by our brothers, the descendants of Esau who live in Seir, away from the Arabah road, from Elath and from Ezion Geber. Then we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab. ⁹Yahweh said to me, 'Do not trouble Moab, and do not fight with them in battle. For I will not give you his land for your own possession, because I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot, for their possession.' ¹⁰{The Emmites lived there previously, a people as great, as many, and as tall as the Anakim; ¹¹these also are considered to be the Rephaim, like the Anakim; but the Moabites call them the Emmites. ¹²The Horites also lived in Seir previously, but the descendants of Esau succeeded them. They destroyed them from before them and lived in their place, like Israel did to the land of his possession that Yahweh gave to them.) ¹³"Now rise up and go over the brook Zered.' So we went over the brook Zered. ¹⁴Now the days from when we came from Kadesh Barnea until we crossed the brook Zered, were thirty-eight years. It {was} by that time that all that generation of the men fit for fighting were gone from the people, as Yahweh had sworn to them. ¹⁵Moreover, the hand of Yahweh was against that generation in order to destroy them from the people until they were gone.

Zamzummim—²¹a people as great, as many, and as tall as the Anakim. But Yahweh destroyed them before the Ammonites, and they succeeded them and lived in their place. ²²This Yahweh also did for the people of Esau, who live in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites from before them, and the descendants of Esau succeeded them and have lived in their place even until today. ²³As for the Avvites who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and settled in their place.) ²⁴“Now rise up, go on your journey, and pass over the Valley of the Arnon; look, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to possess {it}, and fight with him in battle. ²⁵Today I will begin to put the fear and terror of you on the peoples that are under the whole sky; they will hear news about you and will tremble and be in anguish because of you.’

²⁶I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon, king of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying, ²⁷‘Let me pass through your land; I will go along the highway; I will turn neither to the right hand nor to the left. ²⁸You will sell me food for money, so that I may eat; give me water for money, so that I may drink; only let me pass through on my feet; ²⁹as the descendants of Esau who live in Seir, and as the Moabites who live in Ar, did for me; until I pass over the Jordan into the land that Yahweh our God is giving us.’ ³⁰But Sihon, king of Heshbon, would not let us pass by him; for Yahweh your God had hardened his mind and made his heart obstinate, that he might defeat him by your might, which he has now done today. ³¹Yahweh said to me, ‘Look, I have begun to deliver up Sihon and his land before you; begin to possess {it}, in order that you may inherit his land.’ ³²Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz. ³³Yahweh our God gave him over to us and we defeated him and his sons and all his people. ³⁴We took all his cities at that time and completely destroyed every city—men and the women and the little ones; we left no survivor. ³⁵Only the cattle we took as spoils for ourselves, along with the spoil of the cities that we had taken. ³⁶From Aroer, which {is} on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, and {from} the city that {is} in the valley, all the way to Gilead, there was not a city too high for us. Yahweh our God gave them into our hands. ³⁷It was only to the land of the descendants of Ammon that you did not go, as well as all the side of the Jabbok River, and the cities of the hill country—wherever Yahweh our God had forbidden us to go.

¹Then we turned and went up the way to Bashan. Og, the king of Bashan, came and attacked us, he and all his people, to fight at Edrei. ²Yahweh said to me, ‘Do not fear him; for I have given you victory over him and have put all his people and his land under your control. You will do to him as you did to Sihon, king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.’ ³So Yahweh our God also gave us victory over Og the king of Bashan, and all his people were put under our control. We struck them down until not one of his people remained. ⁴We took all his cities at that time. There was not one of the sixty cities that we did not take from them—all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. ⁵These were all cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars; this was besides very many unwalled villages. ⁶We completely destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, completely destroying every city—men and the women and the little ones. ⁷But all the cattle and the spoil of the cities, we took as spoils for ourselves. ⁸At that time we took the land out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan, from the Valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon ⁹(Mount Hermon is called Sirion by the Sidonians, and the Amorites call it Senir) ¹⁰and all the cities of the plain, all Gilead, and all Bashan, all the way to Salekah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.” ¹¹(For of the remnant of the Rephaim, only Og king of Bashan had remained. Look! His bed {was} a bed of iron. Was it not in Rabbah, where the descendants of Ammon live? It was nine cubits long and four cubits wide, the way people measure.)

the Arnon—the middle of the valley is the territory's border—and to the Jabbok River, which is the border with the descendants of Ammon. ¹⁷Another of its borders is also the plain of the Jordan River valley, from Kinnereth to the Sea of the Arabah (that is, the Salt Sea) to the slopes of Mount Pisgah eastward.

¹⁸I commanded you at that time, saying, 'Yahweh your God has given you this land to possess it; you, all the men of war, will pass over armed before your brothers, the people of Israel. ¹⁹But your wives, your little ones, and your cattle (I know that you have much cattle), will stay in your cities that I have given you, ²⁰until Yahweh gives rest to your brothers, as he has to you, until they also possess the land that Yahweh your God is giving them beyond the Jordan; then will you return, every man of you, to your own property that I have given you.' ²¹I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, 'Your eyes have seen all that Yahweh your God has done to these two kings; Yahweh will do the same to all the kingdoms where you go over. ²²You will not fear them, for Yahweh your God is the one who will fight for you.'

²³I implored Yahweh at that time, saying, ²⁴'O Lord Yahweh, you have begun to show your servant your greatness and your strong hand; for what god is there in heaven or in earth that can do the same works as you have done, and the same mighty acts? ²⁵Let me go over, I beg you, and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that good hill country, and also Lebanon.' ²⁶But Yahweh was angry with me because of you; he did not listen to me. Yahweh said to me, 'Let this be enough for you—speak no more to me about this matter: ²⁷go up to the top of Pisgah and lift up your eyes westward, northward, southward, and eastward; look with your eyes, for you will not go over the Jordan. ²⁸Instead, instruct Joshua and encourage and strengthen him, for he will go over before this people, and he will cause them to inherit the land that you will see.' ²⁹So we stayed in the valley opposite Beth Peor.

¹Now therefore, Israel, listen to the statutes and the judgments that I am about to teach you, to do them so that you may live and go in and possess the land that Yahweh, the God of your fathers, is giving you. ²You will not add to the words that I command you, neither will you diminish them, so that you may keep the commandments of Yahweh your God that I am commanding you. ³Your eyes have seen what Yahweh did because of Baal Peor; for all the men who walked after the Baal of Peor, Yahweh your God has destroyed them from among you. ⁴But you who clung to Yahweh your God {are} alive today, every one of you. ⁵Look, I have taught you statutes and judgments, as Yahweh my God had commanded me, that you should do so in the midst of the land which you are going into in order to possess it. ⁶So, keep them and do {them}; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who may hear about all these statutes and may say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.' ⁷For what other great nation {is} there that has a god {so} near to them, as Yahweh our God is whenever we call upon him? ⁸And, what other great nation {is} there that has statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law that I am giving before you today?

⁹Only carefully guard yourself and vigilantly guard your inner being, lest you forget the words which your eyes have seen, lest they leave your mind all the days of your life. Rather, make them known to your children and your children's children. ¹⁰On the day that you stood before Yahweh your God at Horeb, when Yahweh said to me, 'Assemble for me the people, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.' ¹¹You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain. The mountain burned with fire to the heart of heaven, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness. ¹²Yahweh spoke to you out of the middle of the fire; you heard the voice with its words, but you saw no form; you {only} heard a voice. ¹³He declared to you his covenant that he commanded you to perform, the Ten Commandments. He wrote them on two tablets of stone. ¹⁴Yahweh commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and rules, so that you might do them in the land that you are crossing over to take possession of it.

that flies in the heavens, ¹⁸the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, or the likeness of any fish that {is} in the water under the earth. ¹⁹You shall not lift your eyes up to the heavens and look at the sun, the moon, or the stars—all the host of the heavens—and be drawn away to worship them and adore them—those things of which Yahweh your God has given a share all the peoples under the whole sky. ²⁰But Yahweh has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be to him a people of his own inheritance, as you are today. ²¹Yahweh was angry with me because of you; he swore that I should not go over the Jordan, and that I should not go into that good land, the land that Yahweh your God is giving to you as an inheritance. ²²Instead, I must die in this land; I must not go over the Jordan; but you will go over and possess that good land. ²³Pay attention to yourselves, so that you do not forget the covenant of Yahweh your God, which he made with you, and make for yourselves a carved image in the form of anything that Yahweh your God has forbidden you to make. ²⁴For Yahweh your God is a devouring fire, a jealous God.

²⁵When you beget children and children's children, and when you will have been in the land for a long time, and if you corrupt yourselves and make a carved figure in the form of anything, and do what is evil in the sight of Yahweh your God, to provoke him to anger— ²⁶I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that you will soon utterly perish from off the land that you are going over the Jordan to possess; you will not prolong {your} days in it, but you will be completely destroyed. ²⁷Yahweh will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations, where Yahweh will lead you away. ²⁸There you will serve other gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, hear, eat, nor smell. ²⁹But from there you will seek Yahweh your God, and you will find {him}, when you search after him with all your heart and with all your soul. ³⁰When you are in distress, and when all these things will have come on you, in those later days you will return to Yahweh your God and listen to his voice. ³¹For Yahweh your God {is} a merciful God; he will not fail you nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers that he swore to them.

³²Ask now about the days that are past, which were before your time, since the day that God created man on the earth, {ask} from one end of heaven to the other, whether there has been {anything} so great as this, or has anything like it {ever} been heard? ³³Did ever a people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live? ³⁴Or has God ever attempted to go and take for himself a nation from the midst of {another} nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, as everything that Yahweh your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? ³⁵To you these things were shown, so that you might know that Yahweh is God, and that there is no one else besides him. ³⁶Out of heaven he made you to hear his voice, so that he might instruct you; on earth he made you see his great fire; you heard his words out of the midst of the fire. ³⁷Because he loved your fathers, he chose their descendants after them, and brought you out of Egypt with his presence, with his great power; ³⁸in order to drive out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land as an inheritance, as today. ³⁹Know therefore today, and lay it on your heart, that Yahweh is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; {there is} no one else. ⁴⁰You will keep his statutes and his commandments that I command you today, that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and that you may prolong {your} days in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you forever."

⁴¹Then Moses selected three cities on the east side of the Jordan, ⁴²so that anyone might flee to one of them if he killed another person accidentally, without being his enemy previously. By fleeing to one of these cities, he might survive. ⁴³They were: Bezer in the wilderness, the plain country, for the Reubenites; Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites.

⁴⁴This is the law that Moses placed before the people of Israel; ⁴⁵these {are} the covenant decrees, laws, and other decrees that he spoke to the people of Israel when they came out of Egypt, ⁴⁶when they were east of the Jordan, in the valley opposite Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who had lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the people of Israel had defeated when they came out of Egypt. ⁴⁷They took his land as a possession, and the land of Og king of Bashan—these, the two kings of the Amorites, who {were} beyond the Jordan toward the east. ⁴⁸This territory went from Aroer, on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, to Mount Siyon (or Mount Hermon), ⁴⁹and included all of the plain of the Jordan River valley, eastward beyond the Jordan, to the Sea of the Arabah, to the slopes of Mount Pisgah.

Chapter 5

¹Moses called to all Israel and said to them, “Listen, Israel, to the statutes and the decrees that I will speak in your ears today, that you may learn them and keep them. ²Yahweh our God made a covenant with us at Horeb. ³Yahweh did not make this covenant with our ancestors, but with us, all of us alive here today. ⁴Yahweh spoke with you face to face on the mount out of the middle of the fire ⁵(I stood between Yahweh and you at that time, to reveal to you his word; for you were afraid because of the fire, and you did not go up the mountain). Yahweh said, ⁶I {am} Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

⁷You will have no other gods before me.

⁸You will not make for yourself a carved figure nor any likeness {of anything} that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that {is} in the water below. ⁹You will not bow down to them or serve them, for I, Yahweh your God, {am} a jealous God. I punish the ancestors’ wickedness by bringing punishment on the children, to the third and fourth {generation} of those who hate me, ¹⁰and showing covenant faithfulness to thousands, to those who love me and keep my commandments.

¹²Observe the Sabbath day to keep it holy, as Yahweh your God commanded you. ¹³For six days you will labor and do all your work; ¹⁴but the seventh day {is} a Sabbath to Yahweh your God. On it you will not do any work—not you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your cattle, nor any foreigner who is within your gates. This is so that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you. ¹⁵You will call to mind that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and Yahweh your God brought you out from there by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm. Therefore Yahweh your God has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

¹⁶Honor your father and your mother, as Yahweh your God has commanded you to do, that you may live a long time in the land that Yahweh your God gives you, and so that it may go well with you.

¹⁷You will not murder.

¹⁸You will not commit adultery.

¹⁹You will not steal.

²⁰You will not give false witness against your neighbor.

²¹You will not covet your neighbor’s wife, you will not covet your neighbor’s house, his field, or his male servant, or his female servant, his ox, or his donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.’

²²These words Yahweh spoke in a loud voice to all your assembly on the mountain out of the middle of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness; he did not add any more words. He wrote them down on two tablets of stone and gave them to me. ²³It came about, when you heard the voice out of the middle of the darkness, while the mountain was burning, that you came near to me—all your elders and the heads of your tribes. ²⁴You said, ‘Look, Yahweh our God has shown us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the middle of the fire; we have seen today that when God speaks with people, they can live. ²⁵But why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of Yahweh our God any longer, we will die. ²⁶For who besides us is there among all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speak out of the middle of the fire and lived, as we have done? ²⁷As for you, you should go and listen to everything that Yahweh our God says; repeat to us everything that Yahweh our God says to you; we will listen to it and obey it.'

²⁸Yahweh heard your words when you spoke to me. He said to me, 'I have heard the words of this people, what they said to you. What they said was good. ²⁹Oh, that there were such a heart in them, that they would honor me and always keep all my commandments, that it might go well with them and with their children forever! ³⁰Go say to them, "Return to your tents." ³¹But as for you, stand here by me, and I will tell you all the commandments, the statutes, and the decrees that you will teach them, so that they may keep them in the land that I will give them to possess.' ³²You will keep, therefore, what Yahweh your God has commanded you; you will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. ³³You will walk in all the ways that Yahweh your God has commanded you, so that you may live, and so {that it may} go well with you, and {that} you may prolong {your} days in the land that you will possess.

¹Now, {these are} the commandments, statutes, and decrees that Yahweh your God has commanded to teach you, so that you might keep {them} in the land that you are going over there to possess; ²so that you might fear Yahweh your God, so as to keep all his statutes and his commandments that I am commanding you—you, your sons, and your sons' sons, all the days of your lives, so that your days may be prolonged. ³Therefore listen, Israel, and keep so as to do, so that it may go well for you, so that you may greatly multiply —just as Yahweh, the God of your fathers said to you—in a land flowing with milk and honey,.

¹⁰Then, it will come to pass, when Yahweh your God brings you into the land that he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to you, with large and good cities that you did not build, ¹¹and houses full of every good thing that you did not gather, and hewn cisterns that you did not dig, and vineyards and olive trees that you did not plant, you will eat and be satisfied— ¹²Guard yourselves, lest you forget Yahweh, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. ¹³Yahweh your God you must fear, and him you must serve, and by his name you must swear. ¹⁴You must not go after other gods, the gods of the peoples who are all around you— ¹⁵for Yahweh your God in the midst of you is a jealous God—if you do, the anger of Yahweh your God will be kindled against you and he will destroy you from the surface of the earth.

¹⁶You will not test Yahweh your God as you tested {him} at Massah. ¹⁷You will diligently keep the commandments of Yahweh your God, his solemn commands, and his statutes, that he has commanded you. ¹⁸You will do what is right and good in the sight of Yahweh, that it may go well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land that Yahweh swore to your fathers, ¹⁹to drive out all your enemies from before you, as Yahweh has said.

²⁰When your son asks you in time to come, saying, 'What are the covenant decrees, the statutes, and the other decrees that Yahweh our God commanded you?' ²¹then you will say to your son, 'We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt; Yahweh brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand, ²²and he displayed signs and wonders, great and severe, on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his house, before our eyes; ²³and he brought us out from there, so that he might bring us in, to give us the land that he swore to our fathers. ²⁴Yahweh commanded us to always keep all these statutes, to fear Yahweh our God for our good, so that he might keep us alive, as we are today. ²⁵If we keep all these commands before Yahweh our God, as he has commanded us, this will be our righteousness.'

¹When Yahweh your God brings you into the land that you go to possess, he will drive out many nations before you—the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites—seven nations greater and mightier than you. ²It is Yahweh your God who gives them over to you when you defeat them, and then you must completely destroy them. You will make no covenant with them, and show them no mercy.

⁶For you are a nation that is set apart to Yahweh your God. He has chosen you to be a people for him to possess, more than all the other peoples that are on the face of the earth. ⁷Yahweh did not set his love upon you or choose you because you were more in number than any people—for you {were} the fewest of all peoples—⁸but because he loves you, and he wished to keep the oath that he had sworn to your fathers. This is why Yahweh has brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. ⁹Therefore know that Yahweh your God—he {is} God, the faithful God, who keeps covenants and faithfulness for a thousand generations with those who love him and keep his commandments, ¹⁰but repays those who hate him to their face, to destroy them; he will not be lenient on whoever hates him; he will repay him to his face. ¹¹You will therefore keep the commandments, the statutes, and the decrees that I command you today, so that you will do them.

¹²If you listen to these decrees, and keep and do them, it will happen that Yahweh your God will keep with you the covenant and the faithfulness that he swore to your fathers. ¹³He will love you, bless you, and multiply you; he will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground, your grain, your new wine, and your oil, the multiplication of your cattle and the young of your flocks, in the land that he swore to your fathers to give you.

¹⁴You will be blessed more than all other peoples; there will not be a childless {male} or a barren {female} among you or among your cattle. ¹⁵Yahweh will take away from you all sickness; none of the evil diseases of Egypt that you have known will he put on you, but he will put them on all those who hate you. ¹⁶You will consume all the peoples whom Yahweh your God will give over to you, and your eye will not pity them. You will not worship their gods, for that {will be} a trap for you.

¹⁷If you say in your heart, 'These nations are more numerous than I; how can I dispossess them?'—¹⁸do not be afraid of them; you will call to mind what Yahweh your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt; ¹⁹the great sufferings that your eyes saw, the signs, the wonders, the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm by which Yahweh your God brought you out. Yahweh your God will do the same to all the peoples whom you fear. ²⁰Moreover, Yahweh your God will send the hornet among them, until those who are left and who hide themselves from you perish from your presence. ²¹You will not be frightened at them, for Yahweh your God {is} among you, a great and fearsome God. ²²Yahweh your God will drive out those nations before you little by little. You will not defeat them all at once, or the wild animals would become very many around you. ²³But Yahweh your God will give you victory over them when you meet them in battle; he will greatly confuse them until they are destroyed. ²⁴He will put their kings under your power, and you will make their name perish from under heaven. No one will be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them. ²⁵You will burn the carved figures of their gods—do not covet the silver or the gold {that} covers them and take {it} for yourself, because if you do, you will become trapped by it—for it is an abomination to Yahweh your God. ²⁶You will not bring any abomination into your house and start to worship it. You will utterly detest and abhor it, for it {is} set apart for destruction.

¹You must keep all the commands that I am giving you today, so that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that Yahweh swore to your fathers. ²You will call to mind all the ways that Yahweh your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, in order that he might humble you, that he might test you to know what {was} in your heart, as to whether you would keep his commandments or not. ³He humbled you, and made you hunger, and fed you with manna, which you had not known and which your fathers had not known. He did that to make you know that it is not by bread alone that people live; rather, it is by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of Yahweh that people live. ⁴Your clothing did not wear out and fall off you, and your feet did not swell up during those forty years. ⁵You will think about in your heart, how, as a man disciplines his son, {so} Yahweh your God disciplines you. ⁶You will keep the commandments of Yahweh your God, so that you might walk in his ways and honor him. ⁷For Yahweh your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, flowing out into valleys and among hills; ⁸a land of wheat and barley, of vines, fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of olive trees and honey. ⁹It is a land in which you will eat bread without lack, and where you will not go without anything; a land whose stones {are} made of iron, and out of whose hills you may dig copper. ¹⁰You will eat and be full, and you will bless Yahweh your God for the good land that he has given you.

¹¹Be careful that you do not forget Yahweh your God, by failing to keep his commandments and his rules and statutes that I am commanding you today. ¹²Otherwise, {when} you eat and are full, and when you build good houses and live in them, your heart will be lifted up. ¹³Be careful {when} your herds and flocks multiply and when your silver and gold increase, and all that you have is multiplied, ¹⁴then your heart becomes lifted up and you forget Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. ¹⁵Do not forget him who led you through the great and terrifying wilderness, with its fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty ground where there was no water, who brought you water out of the rock of flint. ¹⁶He fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors had never known, so that he might humble you and test you, to do you good in the end, ¹⁷but you may say in your heart, 'My power and the might of my hand acquired all this wealth.' ¹⁸But you will call to mind Yahweh your God, for it is he who gives you the power to get wealth; that he may establish his covenant that he swore to your fathers, as it is today. ¹⁹It will happen that, if you will forget Yahweh your God and walk after other gods, worship them, and reverence them, I testify against you today that you will surely perish. ²⁰Like the nations that Yahweh is making to perish before you, so will you perish, because you would not listen to the voice of Yahweh your God.

¹Hear, Israel; you {are} about to cross over the Jordan today, to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourself, and cities that are great and fortified up to heaven, ²a people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom you know, and {of whom} you have heard {people say}, 'Who can stand before the sons of Anak?' ³Know therefore today that Yahweh your God {is} he who goes over before you {like} a devouring fire; he will destroy them, and he will subdue them before you; so will you drive them out and make them to perish quickly, as Yahweh has said to you. ⁴Do not say in your heart, after Yahweh your God has thrust them out from before you, '{It was} because of my righteousness that Yahweh has brought me in to possess this land,' for {it was} because of the wickedness of these nations {that} Yahweh is driving them out from before you. ⁵{It is} not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart {that} you are going in to possess their land, but it is because of the wickedness of these nations {that} your God is driving them out from before you, and so that he may make come true the word that he swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

⁶Know therefore, that Yahweh your God is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness, for you {are} a stubborn people. ⁷Remember and do not forget how you provoked Yahweh your God to anger in the wilderness; from the day that you left the land of Egypt until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against Yahweh. ⁸Also at Horeb you provoked Yahweh to anger, and Yahweh was angry {enough} with you to destroy you. ⁹When I went up the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant that Yahweh made with you, I stayed on the mountain for forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water. ¹⁰Yahweh gave to me the two tablets of stone written with his finger; on them was written everything just like all the words that Yahweh announced to you on the mountain out of the middle of the fire on the day of the assembly. ¹¹It happened at the end of those forty days and forty nights that Yahweh gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant. ¹²Yahweh said to me, 'Arise, go down quickly from here, for your people, whom you brought out of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. They have quickly turned aside out of the path that I commanded them. They have made for themselves a cast figure.' ¹³Furthermore, Yahweh spoke to me and said, 'I have seen this people; {they} are a stubborn people. ¹⁴Let me alone, so that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven, and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.' ¹⁵So I turned around and came down the mountain, and the mountain was burning. The two tablets of the covenant {were} in my hands. ¹⁶I looked, and behold, you had sinned against Yahweh your God. You had molded for yourselves a calf. You had quickly turned aside out of the path that Yahweh had commanded you. ¹⁷I took the two tablets and threw them out of my hands. I broke them before your eyes. ¹⁸Again I lay facedown before Yahweh for forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin that you had committed, in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, so as to provoke him to anger. ¹⁹For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which Yahweh was angry enough against you to destroy you. But Yahweh listened to me that time also. ²⁰Yahweh was very angry with Aaron so as to destroy him; I prayed for Aaron also at the same time. ²¹I took your sin, the calf that you had made, and burned it, beat it, and ground it very small, until it was as fine as dust. I threw its dust into the stream that came down from the mountain.

²²At Taberah, at Massah, and at Kibroth Hattaavah, you provoked Yahweh to wrath. ²³When Yahweh sent you from Kadesh Barnea and said, 'Go up and take possession of the land that I have given you,' then you rebelled against the commandment of Yahweh your God, and you did not believe or listen to his voice. ²⁴You have been rebellious against Yahweh from the day that I knew you.

²⁵So I lay facedown before Yahweh those forty days and forty nights, because he had said that he would destroy you. ²⁶I prayed to Yahweh and said, 'O Lord Yahweh, do not destroy your people or your inheritance whom you have redeemed through your greatness, which you have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. ²⁷Call to mind your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look at the stubbornness of this people, nor at their wickedness, nor at their sin, ²⁸so that the land from where you brought us should say, "Because Yahweh was not able to bring them into the land that he promised to them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness." ²⁹Yet they {are} your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out by your great strength and by the display of your power.'

Chapter 10

¹At that time Yahweh said to me, 'Carve two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to me on the mountain, and make an ark of wood. ²I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets that you broke, and you will put them in the ark.' ³So I made an ark of acacia wood, and I carved two tablets of stone like the first, and I went up the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand. ⁴He wrote on the tablets, like the first writing, the Ten Commandments which Yahweh had spoken to you on the mountain out of the middle of the fire on the day of the assembly; then Yahweh gave them to me. ⁵I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark that I had made; there they are, as Yahweh commanded me." ⁶(The people of Israel journeyed from Beeroth Bene Jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; Eleazar, his son, served in the priest's office in his place. ⁷From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of streams of water. ⁸At that time Yahweh chose the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, to stand before Yahweh to serve him, and to bless people in his name, as today. ⁹Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance of land with his brothers; Yahweh is his inheritance, as Yahweh your God spoke to him.) ¹⁰"I stayed on the mountain as at the first time, forty days and forty nights. Yahweh listened to me that time also; Yahweh did not wish to destroy you.

¹¹Yahweh said to me, 'Arise, go before the people to lead them on their journey; they will go in and possess the land that I swore to their ancestors to give to them.'

¹²Now, Israel, what does Yahweh your God require of you, except to fear Yahweh your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, and to worship Yahweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul, ¹³to keep the commandments of Yahweh, and his statutes, which I am commanding you today for your own good? ¹⁴Behold, to Yahweh your God belongs heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth, with all that is in them. ¹⁵Only Yahweh took pleasure in your fathers so as to love them, and he chose you, their descendants, after them, more than any of the other peoples, as he does today. ¹⁶Therefore circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and be stubborn no longer. ¹⁷For Yahweh your God, he is God of gods and Lord of masters, the great God, the mighty one and the fearsome one, who favors no one and takes no bribes. ¹⁸He executes justice for the fatherless and widow, and he shows love for the foreigner by giving him food and clothing. ¹⁹Therefore love the foreigner; for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. ²⁰You will fear Yahweh your God; him will you worship. To him you must cling, and by his name will you swear. ²¹He {is} your praise, and he {is} your God, who has done for you these great and fearsome things, which your eyes have seen. ²²Your fathers went down into Egypt as seventy persons; now Yahweh your God has made you as many as the stars of the heavens.

¹Therefore you will love Yahweh your God and always keep his instructions, his statutes, his decrees, and his commandments. ²Notice that {I am} not {speaking} to your children, who have not known nor have they seen the punishment of Yahweh your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, or his outstretched arm, ³the signs and deeds that he did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and to all his land. ⁴Neither did they see what he did to the army of Egypt, to their horses, or to their chariots, how he made the water of the Sea of Reeds overwhelm them as they pursued after you, and {how} Yahweh has destroyed them until today, ⁵or what he did for you in the wilderness until you came to this place. ⁶They had not seen what Yahweh had done to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab son of Reuben, how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, their households, their tents, and every living thing that followed them, in the middle of all Israel. ⁷But your eyes have seen all the great works of Yahweh that he did.

¹³It will happen, if you will listen diligently to my commandments that I command you today, to love Yahweh your God and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, ¹⁴that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the former rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, your new wine, and your oil. ¹⁵I will give grass in your fields for your cattle, and you will eat and be full. ¹⁶Pay attention to yourselves so that your heart is not deceived, and you turn aside and worship other gods and bow down to them; ¹⁷so that the anger of Yahweh is not kindled against you; and so that he does not shut up the heavens so that there will be no rain, and the land will not yield its fruit, and so that you perish quickly from off the good land that Yahweh is giving you.

¹⁸Therefore lay up these words of mine in your heart and soul, bind them as a sign on your hand, and let them be as frontlets between your eyes. ¹⁹You will teach them to your children and talk about them when you sit in your house, when you walk on the road, when you lie down, and when you get up. ²⁰You will write them on the doorposts of your house and on your city gates, ²¹that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land that Yahweh swore to your ancestors to give them for as long as the heavens are above the earth. ²²For if you diligently keep all these commandments that I am commanding you, so as to do them, to love Yahweh your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cling to him, ²³then Yahweh will drive out all these nations from before you, and you will dispossess nations larger and mightier than yourselves. ²⁴Every place where the sole of your foot will tread will be yours; from the wilderness to Lebanon, from the river, the Euphrates River, to the western sea will be your border. ²⁵No man will be able to stand before you. Yahweh your God will lay the fear of you and the terror of you upon all the land that you tread on, as he has said to you.

²⁶Look, I set before you today a blessing and a curse: ²⁷the blessing, if you obey the commandments of Yahweh your God that I command you today, ²⁸and the curse, if you do not obey the commandments of Yahweh your God, but turn aside from the way that I command you today, to go after other gods that you have not known. ²⁹It will happen, when Yahweh your God brings you into the land which you go to possess, that you will set the blessing on Mount Gerizim, and the curse on Mount Ebal. ³⁰{Are} they not beyond the Jordan, west of the western road, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah, over against Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh? ³¹For you are to cross over the Jordan to go in to possess the land that Yahweh your God is giving you, and you will possess it and live in it. ³²You will keep all the statutes and the decrees that I set before you today.

¹These {are} the statutes and the decrees that you will keep in the land that Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess, all the days that you live on the earth. ²You will surely destroy all the places where the nations that you will dispossess worshiped their gods, on the high mountains, on the hills, and under every green tree. ³You must break down their altars, dash in pieces their stone pillars, and burn their Asherah poles. You must cut down the carved figures of their gods and destroy their name out of that place. ⁴You will not worship Yahweh your God like that. ⁵But to the place that Yahweh your God will choose out of all your tribes to put his name, that will be the place where he lives, and it is there that you will go. ⁶It is there that you will bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, and the offerings presented by your hand, your offerings for vows, your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks. ⁷It is there that you will eat before Yahweh your God and rejoice about everything that you have put your hand to, you and your households, where Yahweh your God has blessed you. ⁸You will not do all the things that we are doing here today; now everyone is doing whatever {is} right in his own eyes; ⁹for you have not yet come to the rest, to the inheritance that Yahweh your God is giving you.

¹⁵However, you may kill and eat animals within all your gates, as you wish, receiving the blessing of Yahweh your God for all that he has given you; the unclean and the clean persons both may eat of it, animals such as the gazelle and the deer. ¹⁶But you will not eat the blood; you will pour it out on the earth like water. ¹⁷You may not eat within your gates from the tithe of your grain, your new wine, your oil, or the firstborn of your herd or flock; and you may not eat any of the meat you sacrifice along with any of your vows that you make, nor that of your freewill offerings, nor that of the offering you present with your hand. ¹⁸Instead, you will eat them before Yahweh your God in the place that Yahweh your God will choose—you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, and the Levite who {is} within your gates; you will rejoice before Yahweh your God about everything to which you put your hand. ¹⁹Pay attention to yourself so that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live on your land.

²⁰When Yahweh your God enlarges your borders, as he has promised you, and you say, 'I will eat flesh,' because of your desire to eat meat, you may eat meat, as your soul desires. ²¹If the place that Yahweh your God chooses to put his name is too far from you, then you will kill some of your herd and your flock that Yahweh has given you, as I have commanded you; you may eat within your gates, as your soul desires. ²²Like the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you will eat of it; the unclean and the clean persons may eat of it alike. ²³Only be sure that you do not consume the blood, for the blood is the life; you will not eat the life with the meat. ²⁴You will not eat it; you will pour it out on the earth like water. ²⁵You will not eat it, so that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, when you will do {what is} right in the eyes of Yahweh. ²⁶But the things that belong to Yahweh that you have and the offerings for your vows—you will take these and go to the place that Yahweh chooses. ²⁷There you will offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of Yahweh your God; the blood of your sacrifices will be poured out on the altar of Yahweh your God, and you will eat the flesh. ²⁸Observe and listen to all these words that I command you, that it may go well with you and with your children after you forever, when you do what is good and right in the eyes of Yahweh your God.

²⁹When Yahweh your God cuts off the nations from before you, when you go in to dispossess them, and you dispossess them, and live in their land, ³⁰pay attention to yourself that you are not trapped into following them, after they are destroyed from before you—trapped into investigating their gods, into asking, 'How do these nations worship their gods? I will do the same.' ³¹You must not worship Yahweh your God in that way, for everything that is an abomination to Yahweh, things that he hates—they have done these with their gods; they even burn their sons and their daughters in fire for their gods.

³²Whatever I command you, observe it. Do not add to it or take away from it.

¹If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams, and if he gives you a sign or a wonder, ²and if the sign or the wonder comes about, of which he spoke to you and said, 'Let us go after other gods, that you have not known, and let us worship them,' ³do not listen to the words of that prophet, or to that dreamer of dreams; for Yahweh your God is testing you to know whether you love Yahweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁴You will walk after Yahweh your God, honor him, keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and you will worship him and cling to him. ⁵That prophet or that dreamer of dreams will be put to death, because he has spoken rebellion against Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and who redeemed you out of the house of bondage. That prophet wants to draw you out of the way in which Yahweh your God commanded you to walk. So put away the evil from among you.

¹²If you hear anyone say about one of your cities, that Yahweh your God gives you to live in: ¹³Some wicked fellows have gone out from among you and have drawn away the inhabitants of their city and said, 'Let us go and worship other gods that you have not known.' ¹⁴Then you will examine the evidence, make search, and investigate it thoroughly. When you discover that it is true {and} certain {that} such an abominable thing has been done among you, then you will take action. ¹⁵You will surely attack the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, completely destroy it and all the people who are in it, along with its livestock, with the edge of the sword. ¹⁶You will gather all the spoil from it into the middle of its street and will burn the city, as well as all its spoil—for Yahweh your God. The city will be a heap of ruins forever; it must never be built again. ¹⁷None of those things set apart for destruction must stick in your hand. This must be the case, so that Yahweh will turn from the fierceness of his anger, show you mercy, have compassion on you, and make you increase in numbers, as he has sworn to your fathers. ¹⁸He will do this because you are listening to the voice of Yahweh your God, to keep all his commandments that I am commanding you today, to do that which is right in the eyes of Yahweh your God.

Chapter 14

¹You {are} the people of Yahweh your God. Do not cut yourselves, nor shave any part of your face for the dead.

²For you {are} a nation that is set apart to Yahweh your God, and Yahweh has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, more than all peoples that are on the surface of the earth.

³You must not eat any abominable thing. ⁴These are the animals that you may eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat, ⁵the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, and ibex, and the antelope, and the mountain sheep. ⁶You may eat any animals that parts the hoof, that is, that has the hoof divided in two, {and that} chews the cud.

⁷Nevertheless, you must not eat some animals that chew the cud or that have the hoof divided in two: the camel, the rabbit, and the rock badger; because they chew the cud but do not part the hoof, {they are} unclean to you.

⁸The pig is unclean to you as well because he parts the hoof but does not chew the cud; he is unclean to you. Do not eat pig meat, and do not touch their carcasses.

⁹Of these things that {are} in water you may eat: whatever has fins and scales; ¹⁰but whatever has no fins and scales you must not eat; they {are} unclean to you.

¹¹All clean birds you may eat. ¹²But these are the birds that you must not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey, ¹³the red kite and black kite, any kind of falcon. ¹⁴You must not eat any kind of raven, ¹⁵and the ostrich, and the night hawk, the sea gull, any kind of hawk, ¹⁶the little owl, the great owl, the white owl, ¹⁷the pelican, the osprey, the cormorant. ¹⁸You must not eat the stork, any kind of heron, the hoopoe, and the bat. ¹⁹All winged, swarming things are unclean to you; they must not be eaten. ²⁰You may eat all clean flying things.

²¹You must not eat of anything that dies {of itself}; you may give it to the foreigner who {is} within your towns, that he may eat it; or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you {are} a nation that is set apart to Yahweh your God. You must not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

²²You must surely tithe all the yield of your seed, that which comes out from the field year after year. ²³You must eat before Yahweh your God, in the place that he will choose as his sanctuary, the tithe of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and your flock; that you may learn to always honor Yahweh your God. ²⁴If the journey is too long for you so that you are not able to carry it, because the place that Yahweh your God will choose as his sanctuary is too far from you, then, when Yahweh God blesses you, ²⁵you will convert the offering into money, tie up the money in your hand, and go to the place that Yahweh your God will choose.

²⁸At the end of every three years you will present all the tithe of your produce in the same year, and you will store {it} up within your gates; ²⁹and the Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the foreigner, and the fatherless, and the widow who {are} within your gates, will come and eat and be satisfied. Do this so that Yahweh your God may bless you in all the work of your hand that you do.

Chapter 15

¹At the end of {every} seven years, you must cancel debts. ²This is the manner of the release: Every creditor will cancel that which he has lent to his neighbor; he will not demand {it} from his neighbor or his brother because Yahweh's cancellation of debts has been proclaimed. ³From a foreigner you may demand it; but whatever of yours is with your brother your hand must release. ⁴However, there should be no poor among you (for Yahweh will surely bless you in the land that he gives you {as} an inheritance to possess), ⁵if only you diligently listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, to keep all these commandments that I am commanding you today. ⁶For Yahweh your God will bless you, as he promised you; you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow; you will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you.

¹²If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you for six years, then in the seventh year you must let him go free from you. ¹³When you let him go free from you, you must not let him go empty-handed. ¹⁴You must liberally provide for him out of your flock, out of your threshing floor, and out of your winepress. As Yahweh your God has blessed you, you must give to him. ¹⁵You must remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and that Yahweh your God redeemed you; therefore I am commanding you today to do this. ¹⁶It will happen that if he says to you, 'I will not go away from you,' because he loves you and your house, and because he is well off with you, ¹⁷then you must take an awl and thrust {it} through his ear to a door, and he will be your servant for life. You must do the same with your female servant. ¹⁸It must not seem difficult for you to let him go free from you, because he has served you for six years and given twice the value of a hired person. Yahweh your God will bless you in all that you do.

¹⁹All the firstborn males in your herd and your flock you must set apart to Yahweh your God. You will do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock. ²⁰You must eat the firstborn before Yahweh your God year by year in the place that Yahweh will choose, you and your household. ²¹If it has any blemish—for example, {if it is} lame or blind, {or has} any blemish whatever—you must not sacrifice it to Yahweh your God. ²²You will eat {it} within your gates; the unclean and the clean persons alike must eat it, as you would eat a gazelle or a deer. ²³Only you must not eat its blood; you must pour its blood out on the ground like water.

¹Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to Yahweh your God, for in the month of Aviv Yahweh your God brought you out of Egypt by night. ²You will sacrifice the Passover to Yahweh your God with some of the flock and the herd in the place that Yahweh will choose as his sanctuary. ³You will eat no leavened bread with it; seven days will you eat unleavened bread with it, the bread of affliction; for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste. Do this all the days of your life so that you may call to mind the day when you came out of the land of Egypt. ⁴No yeast must be seen among you within all your borders during seven days; nor must {any} of the meat that you sacrifice in the evening on the first day remain until the morning. ⁵You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your city gates that Yahweh your God is giving you. ⁶Instead, sacrifice at the place that Yahweh your God will choose as his sanctuary. There you will perform the sacrifice of the Passover in the evening at the going down of the sun, at the time of year that you came out of Egypt. ⁷You must roast it and eat {it} at the place that Yahweh your God will choose; in the morning you will turn and go to your tents. ⁸For six days you will eat unleavened bread; on the seventh day there {will be} a solemn assembly for Yahweh your God; on that day you must do no work.

⁹You will count seven weeks for yourselves; from {the time} you begin {to put} the sickle to the standing grain you must start counting seven weeks. ¹⁰You must keep the Festival of Weeks for Yahweh your God with the contribution of a freewill offering from your hand that you will give, according as Yahweh your God has blessed you. ¹¹You will rejoice before Yahweh your God—you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, the Levite who {is} within your city gates, and the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow who {are} among you, at the place that Yahweh your God will choose for his sanctuary. ¹²You will call to mind that you were a slave in Egypt; you must observe and do these statutes.

¹³You must keep the Festival of Shelters for seven days after you have gathered in the harvest from your threshing floor and from your winepress. ¹⁴You will rejoice during your festival—you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, the Levite, and the foreigner, and the fatherless and the widow who {are} within your gates. ¹⁵For seven days you must observe the festival for Yahweh your God at the place that Yahweh will choose, because Yahweh your God will bless you in all your harvest and all the work of your hands, and you must be completely joyful. ¹⁶Three times in a year all your males must appear before Yahweh your God at the place that he will choose: at the Festival of Unleavened Bread, at the Festival of Weeks, and at the Festival of Shelters. No one will appear before Yahweh empty-handed; ¹⁷instead, every man {will give} as he is able, that you might know the blessing that Yahweh your God has given to you.

¹⁸You must make judges and officers within all your city gates that Yahweh your God is giving you; they will be taken from each of your tribes, and they must judge the people with righteous judgment. ¹⁹You must not take justice away by force; you must not show partiality nor take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and perverts the words of the righteous. ²⁰You must follow after justice, after justice alone, so that you may live and inherit the land that Yahweh your God is giving you.

²¹You must not set up for yourselves an Asherah, any sort of pole, beside the altar of Yahweh your God that you will make for yourself. ²²Neither must you set up for yourself any sacred stone pillar, which Yahweh your God hates.

Chapter 17

¹You must not sacrifice to Yahweh your God an ox or a sheep in which is any blemish or anything bad, for that would be an abomination to Yahweh your God.

²If there is found among you, within any of your city gates that Yahweh your God is giving you, any man or woman who does what is evil in the sight of Yahweh your God and transgresses his covenant, ³anyone who has gone and worshiped other gods and bowed down to them, either the sun, the moon, or any of the host of heaven—nothing that I have commanded— ⁴and if you are told about this, or if you have heard {of it}, then you must make a careful investigation. If {it is} true {and} certain that such an abomination has been done in Israel, this is what you should do. ⁵You must bring that man or woman, who has done this evil thing, to your city gates, that very man or woman, and you must stone that person to death. ⁶At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, will he who must die be put to death; but at the mouth of only one witness he must not be put to death. ⁷The hand of the witnesses must be the first to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people; and you will remove the evil from among you.

⁸If a matter arises that is too hard for you to judge—perhaps a question of murder or accidental death, of one person's right and another person's right, or a question of one kind of harm done, or another kind of matter, matters of controversy within your city gates—then you must go up to the place that Yahweh your God will choose as his sanctuary. ⁹You must go to the priests, the descendants of Levi, and to the judge who will be serving at that time; you will seek their advice, and they will give you the verdict. ¹⁰Then you must do according to what they order you to do, at the place Yahweh will choose. Be careful to do all that they teach you. ¹¹Follow the law they teach you, and do according to the decisions they give you. Do not turn aside from what they tell you, {to} the right hand or {to} the left. ¹²Anyone who acts arrogantly, in not listening to the priest who is standing to serve before Yahweh your God, or in not listening to the judge—that man will die; you will put away the evil from Israel. ¹³All the people must hear and fear, and act arrogantly no more.

¹⁴When you have come to the land that Yahweh your God gives you, and when you take possession of it and begin to live in it, and then you say, 'I will set a king over myself, like all the nations that {are} round about me,' ¹⁵then you must surely set as king over yourself someone whom Yahweh your God will choose. You must set as king over yourself someone from among your brothers. You may not put a foreigner, who is not your brother, over yourself. ¹⁶But he must not multiply horses for himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt so that he may multiply horses, for Yahweh had said to you, 'You will never return that way again.' ¹⁷He must not take many wives for himself, so that his heart does not turn away. He must not accumulate large amounts of silver and gold.

¹⁸When he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he must write for himself in a scroll a copy of this law, from the law that is before the priests, who are Levites. ¹⁹The scroll must be with him, and he must read in it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to honor Yahweh his God, so as to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to observe them. ²⁰He must do this so that his heart is not lifted up above his brothers, and so that he does not turn away from the commandments, {to} the right hand or {to} the left; for the purpose that he may prolong {his} days in his kingdom, he and his children, among Israel.

Chapter 18

¹The priests, who are Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, will have no portion nor inheritance with Israel; they must eat the offerings of Yahweh made by fire as their inheritance. ²They must have no inheritance among their brothers; Yahweh is their inheritance, as he said to them. ³This is the share given to the priests, given to them from the people who offer a sacrifice, whether {it be} an oxen or a sheep: the shoulder, the two cheeks, and the inner parts. ⁴The firstfruits of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you must give him. ⁵For Yahweh your God has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to serve in the name of Yahweh, him and his sons forever.

⁶If a Levite comes from any of your towns out of all Israel from where he is living, and desires with all his soul to come to the place Yahweh will choose, ⁷then he must serve in the name of Yahweh his God as all his brothers the Levites {do}, who stand there before Yahweh. ⁸They must have similar portions to eat, besides of what comes of the sale of his family's inheritance.

⁹When you have come into the land that Yahweh your God is giving you, you must not learn to observe the abominations of those nations. ¹⁰There must not be found among you {anyone} who sacrifices his son or his daughter in the fire, anyone who uses divination or tells fortunes, or reads signs found in a cup, or engages in witchcraft, ¹¹any charmer, anyone who conjurs up spirits, {or} one who casts spells, or who talks with spirits of the dead. ¹²For whoever does these things is an abomination to Yahweh; it is because of these abominations that Yahweh your God is driving them out from before you. ¹³You must be blameless before Yahweh your God. ¹⁴For these nations that you will dispossess listen to those who practice sorcery and divination; but as for you, Yahweh your God has not allowed you to do so.

¹⁵Yahweh your God will raise up for you a prophet from among you, one of your brothers, like me. You must listen to him. ¹⁶This is what you asked from Yahweh your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, saying, 'Let us not hear again the voice of Yahweh our God, nor see this great fire anymore, or we will die.'

¹⁷Yahweh said to me, 'What they have said is good. ¹⁸I will raise up a prophet for them from among their brothers, just like you. I will put my words in his mouth, and he will speak to them all that I command him. ¹⁹It will happen that if anyone does not listen to the words of mine that he speaks in my name, I will require {it} of him.

²⁰But the prophet who speaks a word arrogantly in my name, a word that I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that very prophet must die.' ²¹This is what you must say in your heart: 'How will we recognize a message that Yahweh has not spoken?' ²²You will recognize a message that Yahweh has spoken when a prophet speaks in the name of Yahweh. If that thing does not occur nor happen, then that is something that Yahweh has not spoken and the prophet has spoken it arrogantly, and you must not be afraid of him.

Chapter 19

¹When Yahweh your God cuts off the nations, those whose land Yahweh your God is giving you, and when you come after them and live in their cities and houses, ²you must select three cities for yourself in the middle of your land that Yahweh your God is giving you to possess. ³You must build a road and divide the borders of your land into three parts, the land that Yahweh your God is causing you to inherit, so that everyone who kills another person may flee there.

¹¹But if anyone hates his neighbor, lies in wait for him, rises up against him, and mortally wounds him so that he dies, and if he then flees into one of these cities— ¹²then the elders of his city must send and bring him back from there, and turn him over into the hand of the responsible relative, so that he may die. ¹³Your eye must not pity him; instead, you must eradicate {the bloodguilt} from Israel, that it may go well with you.

¹⁴You must not remove your neighbor's landmark that they set in place a long time ago, in your inheritance that you will inherit, in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you to possess.

¹⁵One sole witness must not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any matter that he sins; at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, must any matter be confirmed. ¹⁶Suppose that an unrighteous witness rises up against any man to testify against him of wrongdoing. ¹⁷Then both men, the ones between whom the controversy exists, must stand before Yahweh, before the priests and the judges who serve in those days. ¹⁸The judges must make diligent inquiries; see, {if} the witness is a false witness and has testified falsely against his brother, ¹⁹then must you do to him, as he had wished to do to his brother; and you will remove the evil from among you. ²⁰Then those who remain will hear and fear, and will from then on commit no longer any such evil among you. ²¹Your eyes must not pity; life will pay for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

¹When you march out to battle against your enemies, and see horses, chariots, {and} a people more numerous than you, you must not be afraid of them; for Yahweh your God {is} with you, he who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. ²When you are about to enter into battle, the priest must approach and speak to the people. ³He must say to them, 'Listen, Israel, you are going to battle against your enemies. Do not let your hearts faint. Do not fear or tremble. Do not be afraid of them. ⁴For Yahweh your God {is} the one who is going with you to fight for you against your enemies and to save you.' ⁵The officers must speak to the people and say, 'What man {is} there who has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, so that he does not die in battle and another man dedicates it. ⁶Is there anyone who has planted a vineyard and has not enjoyed its fruit? Let him go home, so he will not die in battle and another man enjoy its fruit. ⁷What man {is} there who is engaged to marry a woman but has not yet married her? Let him go home so that he does not die in battle and another man marries her.' ⁸The officers must speak further to the people and say, 'What man is there {who is} fearful or fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, so that his brother's heart does not melt like his own heart.' ⁹When the officers have finished speaking to the people, they must appoint commanders over them.

¹⁰When you march up to attack a city, make those people {an offer of} peace. ¹¹If they accept your offer and open their gates to you, all the people {who are} found in it must become forced labor for you and must serve you. ¹²But if it makes no offer of peace to you, but instead makes war against you, then you must besiege it, ¹³and when Yahweh your God gives you victory and puts them under your control, you must kill every man in the town. ¹⁴But the women, the little ones, the cattle, and everything that is in the city, and all its spoil, you will take as booty for yourself. You will consume the booty of your enemies, whom Yahweh your God has given to you. ¹⁵You must act in this way toward all the cities {that are} very far from you, cities that are not of the cities of these following nations. ¹⁶In the cities of these peoples that Yahweh your God is giving you {as} an inheritance, you must save alive nothing that breathes. ¹⁷Instead, you must completely destroy them: the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, as Yahweh your God has commanded you. ¹⁸Do this so that they do not teach you to act in any of their abominable ways, as they have done with their gods. If you do, you will sin against Yahweh your God.

¹⁹When you will besiege a city for a long time, as you wage war against it to capture it, you must not destroy its trees by wielding an ax against them. For you may eat from them, so you must not cut them down. For is the tree of the field a man whom you should besiege? ²⁰Only the trees that you know are not trees for food, you may destroy and cut down; you will build siege works against the city that makes war with you, until it falls.

¹If someone is found killed in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you to possess, lying in the field, {and} it is not known who has attacked him; ²then your elders and your judges must go out, and they must measure to the cities that are around him who has been killed. ³Then the elders of the town nearest to the dead man's body must take a heifer from the herd, one that has never been put to work, {and} that has not borne the yoke. ⁴Then they must lead the heifer down to a valley with running water, a valley that has been neither plowed nor sown, and there in the valley they must break the heifer's neck. ⁵The priests, descendants of Levi, must come forward, for Yahweh your God has chosen them to serve him and give blessing in the name of Yahweh and to decide every case of dispute and assault by their word. ⁶All the elders of the city that is the nearest to the killed {man} must wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley; ⁷and they must answer to the case and say, 'Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen {it}.' ⁸Forgive, Yahweh, your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, and do not put {guilt} for innocent bloodshed in the midst of your people Israel.' Then the bloodshed will be forgiven them. ⁹In this way you will put away the innocent blood from your midst, when you do {what is} right in the eyes of Yahweh.

¹⁵If a man has two wives and one is loved and the other is hated, and they have both borne him children—both the beloved wife and the hated wife—if the firstborn son is of her that is hated, ¹⁶then on the day that the man causes his sons to inherit what he possesses, he may not make the son of the beloved wife the firstborn before the son of the hated wife, the son who {is} actually the firstborn. ¹⁷Instead, he must acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the hated wife, by giving him a double portion of all that he possesses; for that son {is} the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn belongs to him.

²²If a man has committed a sin worthy of death and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree, ²³then his body must not remain all night on the tree. Instead, you must surely bury him the same day; for whoever is hanged {is} cursed by God. Obey this commandment so that you do not defile the land that Yahweh your God is giving you {as} an inheritance.

Chapter 22

¹You must not watch your fellow Israelite’s ox or his sheep go astray and hide yourself from them; you must surely bring them back to him. ²If your fellow Israelite is not near to you, or if you do not know him, then you must bring the animal home to your house, and it must be with you until he looks for it, and then you must restore it to him. ³You must do the same with his donkey; you must do the same with his garment; you must do the same with every lost thing of your fellow Israelite’s, anything that he has lost and you have found; you must not hide yourself. ⁴You must not see your fellow Israelite’s donkey or his ox fallen down in the road and hide yourself from them; you must surely help him to lift it up again.

⁶If a bird’s nest happens to be in front of you on the road, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs in it, and the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, you must not take the mother along with the young. ⁷You must surely let the mother go, but the young you may take for yourself. Obey this command so that it may go well with you, and {that} you may prolong {your} days.

⁸When you build a new house, then you must make a railing for your roof so that you do not bring blood on your house if anyone falls from there.

⁹You must not plant your vineyard with two kinds of seed, so that the whole harvest is not confiscated by the holy place, the seed that you have sown and the yield of the vineyard. ¹⁰You must not plow with an ox and a donkey together. ¹¹You must not wear fabric made of wool and linen together.

¹²You must make yourself fringes on the four corners of the cloak with which you clothe {yourself}.

¹³Suppose a man takes a wife, and he goes in to her, and then hates her, ¹⁴and then accuses her of shameful things and puts a bad reputation on her, and says, 'I took this woman, but when I came near to her, I {found} no proof of virginity in her.' ¹⁵Then the father and mother of the girl must take proof of her virginity to the elders at the city gate. ¹⁶The girl's father must say to the elders, 'I gave my daughter to this man as a wife, and he hates her. ¹⁷See, he has accused her of shameful things and said, "I did not find in your daughter the proof of virginity." But here is the proof of my daughter's virginity.' Then they will spread the garment out before the elders of the city. ¹⁸The elders of that city must take that man and punish him; ¹⁹and they must fine him one hundred {shekels} of silver, and give them to the father of the girl, because the man has caused a bad reputation for a virgin of Israel. She must be his wife; he may not send her away during all his days. ²⁰But if this thing is true, that the proof of virginity was not found in the girl, ²¹then they must bring out the girl to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city must stone her to death with stones, because she has committed a disgraceful action in Israel, to act as a harlot in her father's house; and you will remove the evil from among you.

²²If a man is found lying with a woman {who is} married to another man, then they must both die, the man who was lying with the woman and the woman herself; and you will remove the evil from among you.

²³If there is a girl who is a virgin, engaged to a man, and another man finds her in the city and lies with her, ²⁴take both of them to the city gate, and stone them to death. You must stone the girl, because she did not cry out, even though she was in the city. You must stone the man, because he violated his neighbor's wife; and you will remove the evil from among you.

²⁵But if the man finds the engaged girl in the field, and if he seizes her and lies with her, then only the man who lies with her must die. ²⁶But to the girl you must do nothing; {there is} no sin {worthy} of death in the girl. For this case is like when a man attacks his neighbor and kills him. ²⁷For he found her in the field; the engaged girl cried out, {but there} was no one to save her.

²⁸If a man finds a girl {who is} a virgin but who is not engaged, and if he seizes her and lies with her, and if they are discovered, ²⁹then the man who lay with her must give fifty {shekels} of silver to the girl's father, and she must become his wife, because he has violated her. He may not send her away during all his days.

³⁰A man must not take his father's wife as his own; he must not take away his father's marriage rights.

Chapter 23

¹No man injured by crushing or cutting off may enter the assembly of Yahweh.

²No illegitimate child may belong to the assembly of Yahweh; as far as to the tenth generation of his {descendants}, none of them may belong to the assembly of Yahweh.

³An Ammonite or a Moabite may not belong to the assembly of Yahweh; as far as to the tenth generation of his {descendants}, none of them may belong to the assembly of Yahweh. ⁴This is because they did not meet you with bread and with water on the road when you had come out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam son of Beor from Pethor in Aram Naharaim, to curse you. ⁵But Yahweh your God would not listen to Balaam; instead, Yahweh your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because Yahweh your God loved you. ⁶You must never seek their peace or prosperity, during all your days.

⁷You must not detest an Edomite, for he {is} your brother; you must not abhor an Egyptian, because you were a foreigner in his land. ⁸The descendants of the third generation that are born to them may belong to the assembly of Yahweh.

⁹When you march out as an army against your enemies, then you must keep yourselves from every evil thing. ¹⁰If there is among you any man who is unclean because of what happened to him at night, then he must go out of the army's camp; he must not come back into the camp. ¹¹When evening comes, he must bathe himself in water; when the sun goes down, he will come back inside the camp. ¹²You must have a place also outside the camp to which you will go; ¹³and you will have something among your tools to dig with; when you squat down to relieve yourself, you must dig with it and then put back the earth and cover up what has come out from you. ¹⁴For Yahweh your God walks in the midst of your camp to give you victory and to give your enemies into your hand. Therefore your camp must be holy, so that he may not see any unclean thing among you and turn away from you.

¹⁷There must be no cultic prostitute among any of the daughters of Israel, neither must there be a cultic prostitute among the sons of Israel. ¹⁸You must not bring the wages of a prostitute or the wages of a dog into the house of Yahweh your God for any vow; for both {these are} abominations to Yahweh your God.

¹⁹You must not lend on interest to your fellow Israelite—interest of money, interest of food, or the interest of anything that is lent on interest. ²⁰To a foreigner you may lend on interest; but to your fellow Israelite you must not lend on interest, so that Yahweh your God may bless you in all that you put your hand to, in the land which you are going in to possess.

²¹When you make a vow to Yahweh your God, you must not be slow in fulfilling it, for Yahweh your God will surely require it of you; it would be sin for you not to fulfill it. ²²But if you will refrain from making a vow, it will be no sin for you. ²³That which has gone out from your lips you must observe and do; according as you have vowed to Yahweh your God, anything that you have freely promised with your mouth.

²⁴When you go into your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat as many grapes as you desire, but do not put {any} in your basket. ²⁵When you go into your neighbor's ripe grain, you may pluck the heads of grain with your hand, but do not put a sickle to your neighbor's ripe grain.

¹When a man takes a wife and marries her, if she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some unsuitable thing in her, then he must write her a certificate of divorce, put {it} into her hand, and send her out of his house.

²When she has gone out of his house, she may go and be another man's {wife}. ³{If} the second husband hates her and writes her a certificate of divorce, puts {it} into her hand, and sends her out of his house; or if the second husband dies, the man who took her to be his wife— ⁴{then} her former husband, the one who had first sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after she has become impure; for that would be an abomination to Yahweh. You must not cause the land to become guilty, the land that Yahweh your God is giving you {as} an inheritance.

⁵When a man takes a new wife, he will not go to war with the army, neither may he be commanded to go on any forced duty; he will be free to be at home for one year and will cheer his wife whom he has taken.

⁶No man may take a mill or an upper millstone as a pledge, for that would be taking a person's life as a pledge.

⁷If a man is found kidnapping any of his brothers from among the people of Israel, and treats him as a slave and sells him, that thief must die; and you will remove the evil from among you.

⁸Take heed regarding any plague of leprosy, so that you carefully observe and follow every instruction given to you which the priests, the Levites, teach you; as I commanded them, so you will act. ⁹Call to mind what Yahweh your God did to Miriam as you were coming out of Egypt.

¹⁰When you make your neighbor any kind of loan, you must not go into his house to fetch his pledge. ¹¹You will stand outside, and the man to whom you have lent will bring the pledge outside to you. ¹²If he is a poor man, you must not lie down to sleep with his pledge in your possession. ¹³You must surely restore to him the pledge by the time the sun goes down, so that he may sleep in his cloak and bless you; it will be righteousness for you before Yahweh your God.

¹⁴You must not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether he is of your fellow Israelites, or of the foreigners who are in your land within your city gates; ¹⁵Each day you must give him his wage; the sun must not go down on this unsettled matter, for he is poor and is counting on it. Do this so that he does not cry out against you to Yahweh, and so that it not be a sin that you have committed.

¹⁶The parents must not be put to death for {their} children, neither must the children be put to death for {their} parents. Instead, everyone must be put to death for his own sin.

¹⁷You must not use force to take away the justice that is due the foreigner or the fatherless, nor take the widow's cloak as a pledge. ¹⁸Instead, you must call to mind that you were a slave in Egypt, and that Yahweh your God rescued you from there. Therefore I instruct you to obey this command.

¹⁹When you reap your harvest in your field, and if you have forgotten an omer of grain in the field, you must not go back to get it; it must be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, or for the widow, so that Yahweh your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. ²⁰When you shake your olive tree, you must not go over the branches again; it will be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, or for the widow. ²¹When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you must not glean {it} again. What is left over will be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow. ²²You must call to mind that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I instruct you to obey this command.

¹If there is a dispute between men and they go to court, and {the judges} judge them, then they will acquit the righteous and condemn the wicked. ²If the guilty man deserves to be beaten, then the judge will make him lie down and be beaten in his presence with the ordered number of blows, as was his crime. ³The judge may give him forty blows, but he may not exceed that number; for if he should exceed that number and beat him with many more blows, then your fellow Israelite would be humiliated before your eyes.

⁴You must not muzzle the ox when he treads out "the grain".

⁵If brothers live together and one of them dies, not having any son, then the wife of the dead man must not be {married} off to someone else outside {the family}. Instead, her husband's brother shall go in to her and take her to himself as a wife, and do the duty of a husband's brother to her. ⁶This is so that the firstborn that she bears will succeed in the name of that man's dead brother, so that his name will not perish from Israel. ⁷But if the man does not wish to take his brother's wife for himself, then his brother's wife must go up to the gate to the elders and say, 'My husband's brother refuses to raise up for his brother a name in Israel; he will not perform the duty of a husband's brother to me.' ⁸Then the elders of his city must call him and speak to him. But suppose that he insists and says, 'I do not wish to take her.' ⁹Then his brother's wife must come up to him in the presence of the elders, take off his sandal from his foot, and spit in his face. She must answer him and say, 'This is what is done to the man who does not build up his brother's house.' ¹⁰His name will be called in Israel, 'The house of him whose sandal has been taken off.'

¹³You must not have in your bag different weights, a large and a small. ¹⁴You must not have in your house different measures, a large and a small. ¹⁵A perfect and just weight you must have; a perfect and just measure you must have, so that your days may be long in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you. ¹⁶For all who do such {things}, all that act unrighteously, {are} an abomination to Yahweh your God.

¹⁷Call to mind what Amalek did to you on the road as you came out of Egypt, ¹⁸how he met you on the road and attacked those of you at the rear, all who {were} feeble in your rear, when you were faint and weary; he did not honor God. ¹⁹Therefore, when Yahweh your God has given you rest from all your enemies round about, in the land that Yahweh your God is giving you to possess {as} an inheritance, you must not forget {that} you must blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

¹When you have come into the land that Yahweh your God is giving you {as} an inheritance, and when you possess it and live in it, ²then you must take some of the first of all the harvest of the land that you have brought in from the land that Yahweh your God is giving you. You must put {it} in a basket and go to the place that Yahweh your God will choose as his sanctuary. ³You must go to the priest who will be serving in those days and say to him, 'I acknowledge today to Yahweh your God that I have come to the land that Yahweh swore to our ancestors to give us.' ⁴The priest must take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of Yahweh your God. ⁵You must say before Yahweh your God, 'My ancestor {was} a wandering Aramean. He went down into Egypt and stayed there, and his people were few in number. There he became a great, mighty, and populous nation. ⁶The Egyptians treated us badly and afflicted us. They made us do the work of slaves. ⁷We cried out to Yahweh, the God of our fathers, and he heard our voice and saw our affliction, our labor, and our oppression. ⁸Yahweh brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, with great fearsomeness, with signs, and with wonders; ⁹and he has brought us to this place and has given us this land, a land that flows with milk and honey. ¹⁰Now look, I have brought the first of the harvest of the land that you, Yahweh, have given me.' You must set it down before Yahweh your God and worship before him; ¹¹and you must rejoice in all the good that Yahweh your God has done for you, for your house—you, and the Levite, and the foreigner who {is} among you.

¹²When you have finished giving all the tithe of your harvest in the third year, that is, the year of tithing, then you must give it to the Levite, to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, so that they may eat within your city gates and be filled. ¹³You must say before Yahweh your God, 'I have brought out of {my} house the things that belong to Yahweh, and have given them to the Levite, to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all your commandments that you have given me. I have not transgressed any of your commandments, neither have I forgotten them. ¹⁴I have not eaten {any} of it in my mourning, nor have I put it somewhere else when I was impure, nor have I given {any} of it in honor of the dead. I have listened to the voice of Yahweh my God; I have obeyed everything you have commanded me to do. ¹⁵Look down from the holy place where you live, from heaven, and bless your people Israel, and the land that you have given us, as you had sworn to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.'

¹⁶Today Yahweh your God is commanding you to obey these statutes and decrees; you will therefore keep them and do them with all your heart and with all your soul. ¹⁷You have declared today that Yahweh is your God, and that you will walk in his ways and keep his statutes, his commandments, and his decrees, and that you will listen to his voice. ¹⁸Today Yahweh has declared that you are a people who are his own possession, as he had promised you, and that {you} are to keep all his commandments, ¹⁹and he will set you high above all the other nations that he has made, and you will receive praise, fame, and honor. You will be a people that is set apart to Yahweh your God, just as he said."

¹Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people and said, "Keep all the commandments that I command you today. ²On the day when you will pass over the Jordan to the land that Yahweh your God is giving you, you must set up some large stones and plaster them with plaster. ³You must write on them all the words of this law when you have passed over; that you may go into the land that Yahweh your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as Yahweh, the God of your ancestors, has promised you. ⁴When you have passed over the Jordan, set up these stones that I am commanding you about today, on Mount Ebal, and plaster them with plaster. ⁵There you must build an altar to Yahweh your God, an altar of stones; but you must raise no iron {tool} to work the stones. ⁶You must build the altar of Yahweh your God of unworked stones; you must offer burnt offerings on it to Yahweh your God, ⁷and you will sacrifice fellowship offerings and will eat there; you will rejoice before Yahweh your God. ⁸You will write on the stones all the words of this law very plainly."

⁹Moses and the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel and said, "Be silent and listen, Israel: Today you have become the people of Yahweh your God. ¹⁰You must therefore obey the voice of Yahweh your God and obey his commandments and statutes that I am commanding you today."

¹¹Moses commanded the people the same day and said, ¹²"These tribes must stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people after you have passed over the Jordan: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. ¹³These are the tribes that must stand on Mount Ebal to pronounce curses: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. ¹⁴The Levites will answer and say to all the men of Israel in a loud voice:

¹⁵'May the man be cursed who makes a carved or cast figure, an abomination to Yahweh, the work of the hands of a craftsman, and who sets it up in secret.' Then all the people must answer and say, 'Amen.'

¹⁶'May the man be cursed who dishonors his father or his mother.' Then all the people must say, 'Amen.'

¹⁷'May the man be cursed who removes his neighbor's landmark.' Then all the people must say, 'Amen.'

¹⁸'May the man be cursed who makes the blind to wander away from the road.' Then all the people must say, 'Amen.'

¹⁹'May the man be cursed who uses force to take away the justice due to a foreigner, fatherless, or widow.' Then all the people must say, 'Amen.'

²⁰'May the man be cursed who lies with his father's wife, because he has taken away his father's rights.' Then all the people must say, 'Amen.'

²¹'May the man be cursed who lies with any kind of beast.' Then all the people must say, 'Amen.'

²²'May the man be cursed who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father, or with the daughter of his mother.' Then all the people must say, 'Amen.'

²³'May the man be cursed who lies with his mother-in-law.' Then all the people must say, 'Amen.'

²⁴'May the man be cursed who kills his neighbor secretly.' Then all the people must say, 'Amen.'

²⁵'May the man be cursed who takes a bribe to kill an innocent person.' Then all the people must say, 'Amen.'

²⁶'May the man be cursed who does not confirm the words of this law, that he will obey them.' Then all the people must say, 'Amen.'

Chapter 28

¹If you listen carefully to the voice of Yahweh your God so as to keep all his commandments that I am commanding you today, Yahweh your God will set you above all the other nations of the earth. ²All these blessings will come on you and overtake you, if you listen to the voice of Yahweh your God. ³Blessed will you be in the city, and blessed will you be in the field. ⁴Blessed {will be} the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your beasts, the increase of your cattle, and the young of your flock. ⁵Blessed {will be} your basket and your kneading trough. ⁶Blessed {will you be} when you come in, and blessed {will you be} when you go out.

¹⁵But if you do not listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, so as to keep all his commandments and his statutes that I am commanding you today, then all these curses will come on you and overtake you. ¹⁶Cursed {will you be} in the city, and cursed {will you be} in the field. ¹⁷Cursed {will be} your basket and your kneading trough. ¹⁸Cursed {will be} the fruit of your body, the fruit of your ground, the increase of your cattle, and the young of your flock. ¹⁹Cursed {will you be} when you come in, and cursed {will you be} when you go out.

²⁵Yahweh will cause you to be struck down before your enemies; you will go out one way against them but will flee before them seven ways. You will be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth. ²⁶Your dead body will be food to all the birds of the heavens and to the beasts of the earth; there will be no one to frighten {them} away. ²⁷Yahweh will attack you with the boils of Egypt and with ulcers, scurvy, and itch, from which you cannot be healed. ²⁸Yahweh will attack you with madness, with blindness, and with mental confusion. ²⁹You will grope about at noonday like the blind grope in the darkness, and you will not prosper in your ways; you will be always oppressed and robbed, and there will be no one to {save} you. ³⁰You will become engaged to a woman, but another man will seize her and rape her. You will build a house but not live in it; you will plant a vineyard but not enjoy its fruit. ³¹Your ox {will be} slain before your eyes, but you will not eat its meat; your donkey will be forcibly taken away from before you and will not be restored to you. Your sheep {will be} given to your enemies, and you will have no one to aid you. ³²Your sons and your daughters {will be} given to other peoples; your eyes will look for them the entire day, but will fail with longing for them. There will be no strength in your hand. ³³The harvest of your land and of all your labors—a nation that you do not know will eat it up; you will always be oppressed and crushed, ³⁴so that you will become insane by what you have to see happen. ³⁵Yahweh will attack you in the knees and legs with severe boils from which you cannot be cured, from the bottom of your feet to the top of your head.

³⁶Yahweh will take you and the king whom you will place over yourself to a nation that you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors; there you will worship other gods of wood and stone. ³⁷You will become a source of horror, a proverb, and a byword, among all the peoples where Yahweh will lead you away. ³⁸You will take much seed out into the field, but will gather little seed in, for the locusts will consume it. ³⁹You will plant vineyards and cultivate {them}, but you will neither drink any {of} the wine, nor even gather in the {grapes}, for worms will eat them. ⁴⁰You will have olive trees within all your territory, but you will not rub any of the oil on {yourself}, for your olive trees will drop their fruit. ⁴¹You will have sons and daughters, but they will not remain yours, for they will go into captivity. ⁴²All your trees and the fruit of your ground—the locusts will take them over. ⁴³The foreigner who {is} among you will rise up above you higher and higher; you yourself will come down lower and lower. ⁴⁴He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him; he will be the head, and you will be the tail. ⁴⁵All these curses will come on you and will pursue and overtake you until you are destroyed. This will happen because you did not listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, so as to keep his commandments and his regulations that he commanded you. ⁴⁶These curses will be on you as signs and wonders, and on your descendants forever.

⁴⁷Because you did not worship Yahweh your God with joyfulness and gladness of heart when you were in prosperity, ⁴⁸therefore will you serve the enemies that Yahweh will send against you; you will serve them in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in poverty. He will put a yoke of iron on your neck until he destroys you. ⁴⁹Yahweh will bring a nation against you from far away, from the ends of the earth, like an eagle flies to its victim, a nation whose language you do not understand; ⁵⁰a nation with a fierce face that does not respect the aged and does not show favor to the young. ⁵¹They will eat the young of your cattle and the fruit of your land until you are destroyed. They will leave for you no grain, new wine, or oil, no young of your cattle or of your flock, until they have caused you to perish. ⁵²They will besiege you in all your city gates, until your high and fortified walls come down everywhere in your land, walls in which you had trusted. They will besiege you within all your city gates throughout all the land that Yahweh your God had given you. ⁵³You will eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, whom Yahweh your God gave you, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemies will put upon you. ⁵⁴The man who is tender and very delicate among you—he will be envious of his brother and his own dear wife, and of whatever children he has left. ⁵⁵So he will not give to any of them the flesh of his own children that he is going to eat, because he will have nothing left for himself in the siege and in the distress which your enemy will put upon you within all your city gates. ⁵⁶The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to put the bottom of her foot on the ground for delicateness and tenderness—she will be envious of her own dear husband, of her son, and of her daughter, ⁵⁷and of her own newborn that comes out from between her legs, and of the children whom she will bear. She will eat them in private for lack of anything else, during the siege and in the distress which your enemy will put upon you within your city gates.

⁵⁸If you do not keep all the words of this law that are written in this book, so as to honor this glorious and fearful name, Yahweh your God, ⁵⁹then Yahweh will make your plagues terrible, and those of your descendants; they will be great plagues, of long duration, and severe diseases, of long duration. ⁶⁰He will bring on you again all the diseases of Egypt that you were afraid of; they will cling to you. ⁶¹Also every sickness and plague that {is} not written in the book of this law, those also Yahweh will bring on you until you are destroyed. ⁶²You will be left few in number, although you were like the stars of the heavens in number, because you did not listen to the voice of Yahweh your God. ⁶³As Yahweh once rejoiced over you in doing you good, and in multiplying you, so he will rejoice over you in making you perish and in destroying you. You will be plucked off the land that you are going into to possess. ⁶⁴Yahweh will scatter you among all peoples from the one end of the earth to the other end of the earth; there you will worship other gods that you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors, gods of wood and stone. ⁶⁵Among these nations will you find no ease, and there will be no rest for the bottoms of your feet; instead, Yahweh will give you there a trembling heart, failing eyes, and a soul that mourns. ⁶⁶Your life will hang in doubt before you; you will fear every night and day and will have no certainty at all in your life. ⁶⁷In the morning you will say, 'I wish {it were} evening!' and in the evening you will say, 'I wish it were morning!' because of the fear in your hearts and the things your eyes will have to see. ⁶⁸Yahweh will bring you into Egypt again by ships, by the route about which I had said to you, 'You will not see Egypt again.' There you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will purchase {you}."

¹These {are} the words that Yahweh commanded Moses to tell the people of Israel in the land of Moab, words that were added to the covenant that he had made with them at Horeb.

²Moses called to all Israel and said to them, “You have seen everything that Yahweh did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his servants, and to all his land— ³the great sufferings that your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders. ⁴But until today Yahweh has not given you a heart to know, eyes to see, or ears to hear. ⁵I have led you for forty years in the wilderness; your clothes did not wear out on you, and your sandals did not wear out on your feet. ⁶You did not eat any bread, and you did not drink any wine or other alcoholic drinks, so that you might know that I {am} Yahweh your God. ⁷When you came to this place, Sihon, the king of Heshbon, and Og, the king of Bashan, came out against us to fight, and we struck them down. ⁸We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh. ⁹Therefore keep the words of this covenant and do them, so that you may prosper in everything that you do.

¹⁰You stand today, all of you, before Yahweh your God; your chiefs, your tribes, your elders, and your officers—all the men of Israel, ¹¹your little ones, your wives, and the foreigner who {is} among you in your camp, from him who cuts your wood to him who draws your water. ¹²You are here in order to enter into the covenant of Yahweh your God and into the oath that Yahweh your God is making with you today, ¹³so that he may make you today into a people for himself, and {that} he may be God for you, as he spoke to you, and as he swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

¹⁶You know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed. ¹⁷You have seen their disgusting idols made of wood and stone, silver and gold, that {were} among them. ¹⁸Make sure there is not among you any man, woman, clan, or tribe whose heart is turning away today from Yahweh our God, so as to go worship the gods of those nations. Make sure there is not among you any root that produces gall and wormwood. ¹⁹When that person hears the words of this curse, he will bless himself in his heart and say, ‘I will have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart.’ This would destroy the wet together with the dry. ²⁰Yahweh will not pardon him, but instead, the anger of Yahweh and his jealousy will smolder against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book will come on him, and Yahweh will blot out his name from under heaven. ²¹Yahweh will set him apart for disaster out of all the tribes of Israel, in keeping with all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law.

²²The generation to come, your children who will rise up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a distant land, will speak when they see the plagues on this land and the diseases with which Yahweh has made it sick— ²³and when they see that the whole land has become sulfur and burning salt, where nothing {is} sown or bears fruit, where no vegetation grows, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboyim, that Yahweh destroyed in his anger and wrath— ²⁴they will say together with all the other nations, ‘Why has Yahweh done this to this land? What {does} the heat of this great anger {mean}?’ ²⁵Then {people} will say, ‘It is because they abandoned the covenant of Yahweh, the God of their ancestors, that he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt, ²⁶and because they went and served other gods and bowed down to them, gods that they had not known and that he had not given to them. ²⁷Therefore the anger of Yahweh has been kindled against this land, so as to bring on it all the curses that are written in this book. ²⁸Yahweh has uprooted them from their land in anger, in wrath, and in great fury, and has thrown them into another land, as today.’ ²⁹The secret matters belong alone to Yahweh our God; but the {things that are} revealed {belong} forever to us and to our descendants, so that {we} may do all the words of this law.

¹When it comes to pass that all these things have come on you—the blessings and the curses that I have set before you—and when you bring them back to your mind among all the other nations where Yahweh your God has driven you, ²and when you return to Yahweh your God and listen to his voice, following all that I am commanding you today—you and your children—with all your heart and with all your soul, ³then Yahweh your God will reverse your captivity and have compassion on you, and he will return and gather you from all the peoples where Yahweh your God has scattered you. ⁴If {any} of your exiled people are in the farthest {places} under the heavens, from there Yahweh your God will gather you, and from there he will bring you. ⁵Yahweh your God will bring you into the land that your forefathers possessed, and you will possess it again; he will do you good and will multiply you more than he did your forefathers. ⁶Yahweh your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, so you will love Yahweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you may live. ⁷Yahweh your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, those who persecuted you. ⁸You will return and obey the voice of Yahweh, and you will do all his commandments that I am commanding you today. ⁹Yahweh your God will make you abundant in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your ground, for prosperity; for Yahweh will again rejoice over you for prosperity, as he rejoiced over your fathers. ¹⁰He will do this if you will obey the voice of Yahweh your God, so as to keep his commandments and regulations that are written in this book of the law, if you turn to Yahweh your God with all your heart and all your soul.

¹⁵See, today I have placed before you life and good, death and evil. ¹⁶If you obey the decrees of Yahweh your God, in which I am commanding you today to love Yahweh your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments, his regulations, and his statutes, you will live and multiply, and Yahweh your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. ¹⁷But if your heart turns away, and you do not listen but instead are drawn away and bow down to other gods and worship them, ¹⁸then I announce to you today that you will surely perish; you will not prolong {your} days in the land that you are passing over the Jordan to go into and possess. ¹⁹I call heaven and earth to witness against you today {that} I have set before you life and death, the blessings and the curses; therefore choose life so that you may live, you and your descendants. ²⁰Do this so as to love Yahweh your God, to obey his voice, and to cling to him. For he {is} your life and the length of your days; do this so that you may live in the land that Yahweh swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them."

¹Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. ²He said to them, "I am now one hundred twenty years old; I can no more go out and come in; Yahweh has said to me, 'You will not go over this Jordan.' ³Yahweh your God, he will go over before you; he will destroy these nations from before you, and you will dispossess them. Joshua, he will go over before you, as Yahweh has spoken. ⁴Yahweh will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, which he destroyed. ⁵Yahweh will give you victory over them when you meet them in battle, and you will do to them all that I commanded you. ⁶Be strong and of good courage, fear not, and do not be afraid of them; for Yahweh your God, he it is who goes with you; he will not fail you nor forsake you." ⁷Moses called to Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and of good courage, for you will go with this people into the land that Yahweh has sworn to their ancestors to give them; you will cause them to inherit it. ⁸Yahweh, he it is who goes before you; he will be with you; he will not fail you nor abandon you; do not be afraid, do not be discouraged."

¹⁴Yahweh said to Moses, "Look, the day is coming when you must die; call Joshua and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, so that I may give him a command." Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tent of meeting. ¹⁵Yahweh appeared in the tent in a pillar of cloud; the pillar of cloud stood over the door of the tent. ¹⁶Yahweh said to Moses, "Look, you will sleep with your fathers; this people will rise up and act like a prostitute going after the strange gods that are among them in the land where they are going. They will forsake me and break my covenant that I have made with them. ¹⁷Then, on that day, my anger will be kindled against them and I will abandon them. I will hide my face from them and they will be devoured. Many disasters and troubles will find them so that they will say on that day, 'Have these disasters not come upon us because our God is not in our midst?' ¹⁸I will surely hide my face from them on that day because of all the evil that they will have done, because they have turned to other gods. ¹⁹Now therefore write this song for yourselves and teach it to the people of Israel. Put it in their mouths, so that this song may be a witness for me against the people of Israel. ²⁰For when I will have brought them into the land that I swore to give to their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey, and when they have eaten and become satisfied and fat, then they will turn to other gods and they will serve them and they will despise me and they will break my covenant. ²¹When many evils and troubles come upon this people, this song will testify before them as a witness (for it will not be forgotten from the mouths of their descendants). For I know the plans that they are forming today, even before I have brought them into the land that I promised them." ²²So Moses wrote this song the same day and taught it to the people of Israel. ²³Yahweh gave Joshua son of Nun a command and said, "Be strong and of good courage; for you will bring the people of Israel into the land that I swore to them, and I will be with you."

²⁴It happened that when Moses had finished writing the words of this law in a book, ²⁵that he commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and he said, ²⁶"Take this book of the law and put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of Yahweh your God, so that it may be there as a witness against you. ²⁷For I know your rebellion and your stiff neck; look, while I am still alive with you even today, you have been rebellious against Yahweh; how much more after my death? ²⁸Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, so that I may speak these words in their ears and call heaven and earth to witness against them. ²⁹For I know that after my death you will utterly corrupt yourselves and turn aside out of the path that I have commanded you; disaster will come on you in the following days. This will happen because you will do what is evil in the sight of Yahweh, so as to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands."

³⁰Moses recited in the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song until they were finished.

Chapter 32

¹Give ear, you heavens, and let me speak.

Let the earth listen to the words of my mouth.

²Let my teaching drop down like the rain, let my speech distill like the dew, like the gentle rain on the tender grass, and like the showers on the plants.

³For I will proclaim the name of Yahweh, and ascribe greatness to our God.

⁴The Rock, his work {is} perfect; for all his paths are just.

He is the faithful God, without iniquity.

He is just and upright.

⁵They have acted corruptly against him.

{They are} not his children. It is their disgrace.

They are a perverted and crooked generation.

⁶Do you reward Yahweh in this way, you foolish and senseless people?

{Is} he not your father, the one {who} has created you?

He made you and established you.

⁷Call to mind the days of ancient times, think about the years of many ages past.

Ask your father and he will show you, your elders and they will tell you.

⁸When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance—when he divided all of mankind, and he set the boundaries of the peoples, as he also fixed the number of their gods.

⁹For Yahweh's portion {is} his people;

Jacob {is} his apportioned inheritance.

¹⁰He found him in a desert land, and in the barren and howling wilderness;

he shielded him and cared for him, he guarded him as the apple of his eye.

¹¹As an eagle that guards her nest and flutters over her young,

Yahweh spread out his wings and took them, and carried them on his pinions.

¹²Yahweh alone led him;

no foreign god {was} with him.

¹³He made him ride on high places of the land, and he fed him the fruits of the field;

he nourished him with honey from the rock, and oil from the flinty crag.

¹⁴He ate butter from the herd and drank milk from the flock, with fat of lambs,

rams of Bashan and goats, with the finest of the wheat—and you drank foaming wine made from the juice of grapes.

¹⁵But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked—you grew fat, you were too fat, and you had eaten your fill—he abandoned the God {who} made him, and he rejected the Rock of his salvation.

¹⁶They made Yahweh jealous by their strange {gods};

with their abominations they angered him.

¹⁷They sacrificed to demons, which are not God—

{gods} they had not known,

{gods} that recently appeared, gods your fathers did not fear.

¹⁸You have deserted the Rock, who became your father, and you forgot the God {who} gave you birth.

¹⁹Yahweh saw this and he rejected {them,} because his sons and his daughters provoked him so.

²⁰"I will hide my face from them," he said,

"and I will see what their end {will be};

for they are a perverse generation, children who {are} unfaithful.

²¹They have made me jealous by {what} is not god and angered me by their worthless things.

I will make them envious by {those who are} not a people;

by a foolish nation I will make them angry.

²²For a fire is kindled by my anger and is burning to the lowest Sheol;

it is devouring the earth and its harvest;

it is setting on fire the foundations of the mountains.

²³I will heap disasters on them;

I will shoot all my arrows at them;

²⁴{They will be} wasted by hunger and devoured by burning heat and bitter destruction;

I will send on them the teeth of wild animals, with the poison of things that crawl in the dust.

²⁵Outside the sword will bereave, and in the bedrooms terror will do so.

It will destroy both young man and virgin,

the nursing baby, and the man of gray hairs.

²⁶I said that I would scatter them far away, that I would make the memory of them to cease from among mankind.

²⁷Were it not that I feared the provocation of the enemy, and that their enemies would judge mistakenly, and that they would say, 'Our hand {is} exalted,'

I would have done all this.

²⁸For Israel is a nation devoid of wisdom, and {there is} no understanding in them.

²⁹Oh, {that} they were wise, {that} they understood this, that they would consider their coming fate!

³⁰How could one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, and Yahweh had given them up?

³¹For our enemies' rock {is} not like our Rock, just as even our enemies admit.

³²For their vine comes from the vine of Sodom, and from the fields of Gomorrah;
their grapes {are} grapes of poison;
their clusters {are} bitter.

³³Their wine {is} the poison of serpents and the cruel venom of asps.

³⁴Is not this plan secretly kept by me, sealed up among my treasures?

³⁵Vengeance is mine to give, and recompense, at the time when their foot slips;
for the day of disaster for them {is} near,
and the things that are to come on them will hurry to happen."

³⁶For Yahweh will give justice to his people, and he will pity his servants.
He will see that {their} power is gone, and no one remains, either slaves or free people.

³⁷Then he will say, "Where {are} their gods, the rock in whom they took refuge?—

³⁸The gods who ate the fat of their sacrifices {and} drank the wine of their drink offerings?
Let them rise up and help you;
let them be your protection.

³⁹See now that I, {even} I, {am} God, and that there is no god besides me;
I kill, and I make alive;
I wound, and I heal, and {there is} no one who can save you from my might.

⁴⁰For I lift up my hand to heaven and say, '{As} I live forever, I will act.

⁴¹When I sharpen my glittering sword, and when my hand begins to bring justice,
I will render vengeance on my enemies, and I will pay back those who hate me.

⁴²I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword will devour flesh with the blood of the killed and the captives, and from the heads of the leaders of the enemy.”

⁴³Rejoice, you nations, {with} God's people, for he will avenge the blood of his servants;
he will render vengeance on his enemies, and he will make atonement for his land, for his people.

⁴⁴Moses came and recited all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, and Joshua son of Nun. ⁴⁵Then Moses finished reciting all these words to all Israel. ⁴⁶He said to them, “Fix your mind on all the words that I have witnessed to you today, so that you may command your children to keep them, all the words of this law. ⁴⁷For this is no trivial matter for you, because it {is} your life, and through this thing you will prolong {your} days in the land that you are going over the Jordan to possess.”

⁴⁸Yahweh spoke to Moses on that same day and said, ⁴⁹“Go up into this range of the mountains of Abarim, up Mount Nebo, which {is} in the land of Moab, opposite Jericho. You will look at the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the people of Israel as their possession. ⁵⁰You will die on the mountain that you go up, and you will be gathered to your people, as Aaron your fellow Israelite died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people. ⁵¹This will happen because you were unfaithful to me among the people of Israel at the waters of Meribah in Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because you did not treat me with honor and respect among the people of Israel. ⁵²For you will see the land before you, but you will not go there, into the land that I am giving to the people of Israel.”

Chapter 33

¹This {is} the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the people of Israel before his death. ²He said:

Yahweh came from Sinai and rose from Seir upon them.
He shined out from Mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of holy ones.
In his right hand were flashes of lightning.

³Indeed, he loves the peoples;
all his holy ones are in your hand, and they bowed down at your feet;

they received your words.

⁴Moses commanded us a law,
an inheritance for the assembly of Jacob.

⁵Then there was a king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people had gathered,
all the tribes of Israel together.

⁶Let Reuben live and not die, but may his men be few.

⁷This is the blessing for Judah. Moses said:

Listen, Yahweh, to the voice of Judah, and bring him to his people again.

Fight for him;
be a help against his enemies.

⁸About Levi, Moses said:

Your Thummim and your Urim belong to your faithful one,
the one whom you tested at Massah, with whom you struggled at the waters of Meribah.

⁹The man who said about his father and mother, "I have not seen them."

Neither did he acknowledge his brothers, nor did he take account of his own children.

For he guarded your word and kept your covenant.

¹⁰He teaches Jacob your decrees and Israel your law.

He will put incense before you and whole burnt offerings on your altar.

¹¹Bless, Yahweh, his possessions, and accept the work of his hands.

Shatter the loins of those who rise up against him, and those of the people who hate him, so that they do not rise up again.

¹²About Benjamin, Moses said:

The one loved by Yahweh lives in security beside him;
Yahweh shields him all the day long,
and he lives between Yahweh's arms.

13About Joseph, Moses said:

May his land be blessed by Yahweh with the precious things of heaven, with the dew, and with the deep that lies beneath.

14May his land be blessed with the precious things of the harvest of the sun, with the precious things of the produce of the months,

15with the finest things of the ancient mountains, and with the precious things of the everlasting hills.

16May his land be blessed with the precious things of the earth and its abundance, and with the good will of him who was in the bush.

Let {the blessing} come on the head of Joseph, and on the top of the head of him {who was} prince over his brothers.

17The firstborn of an ox, majestic is he, and his horns are the horns of a wild ox.

With them he will push the peoples, all of them, to the ends of the earth.

These {are} the ten thousands of Ephraim;
these {are} the thousands of Manasseh.

18About Zebulun, Moses said:

Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and you, Issachar, in your tents.

19They will call the peoples {to} the mountains.

There will they offer sacrifices of righteousness.

For they will suck the abundance of the seas, and from the sand on the seashore.

20About Gad, Moses said:

Blessed be he who enlarges Gad.

He will live there like a lioness, and he will tear off an arm or a head.

²¹He provided the best {part} for himself, for there was the leader's portion of land reserved.
He came {with} the heads of the people.
He carried out the justice of Yahweh and his decrees with Israel.

²²About Dan, Moses said:

Dan {is} a lion cub that leaps out from Bashan.

²³About Naphtali, Moses said:

Naphtali, satisfied with favor, and full of the blessing of Yahweh, take possession of the land to the west and south.

²⁴About Asher, Moses said:

Blessed be Asher more than the other sons;
let him be acceptable to his brothers, and let him dip his foot in olive oil.

²⁵May your city bars be iron and bronze;

as long as will be your days, {so} long will your security {be}.

²⁶{There is} no one like God, Jeshurun—the upright one,

{who} rides through the heavens to your help, and in his majesty on the clouds.

²⁷The eternal God {is} a refuge, and underneath {are} the everlasting arms.

He thrust out the enemy from before you,

and he said, "Destroy!"

²⁸Israel dwelt in safety.

Jacob's spring was secure in a land of grain and new wine;

indeed, let his heavens drop dew on him.

²⁹Your blessings are many, Israel!

Who is like you, a people saved by Yahweh,

the shield of your help,
and the sword of your majesty?
Your enemies will come trembling to you;
you will trample down their high places.

Chapter 34

¹Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho. There Yahweh showed him all the land of Gilead as far as Dan, ²and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, to the western sea, ³and the Negev, and the plain of the Valley of Jericho, the City of Palms, as far as Zoar. ⁴Yahweh said to him, "This is the land that I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have allowed you to look at {it} with your eyes, but you will not go over there."

⁵So Moses the servant of Yahweh, died there in the land of Moab, as the word of Yahweh promised. ⁶Yahweh buried him in the valley in the land of Moab opposite Beth Peor, but no one knows where his grave is to this day.

⁹Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him. The people of Israel listened to him and did what Yahweh had commanded Moses. ¹⁰There has not arisen a prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom Yahweh knew face to face. ¹¹There has never been any prophet like him in all the signs and wonders that Yahweh sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land. ¹²There has never been any prophet like him in all the great, fearsome deeds that Moses did in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

Chapter 1

¹Now it happened after the death of Moses the servant of Yahweh, that Yahweh spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, saying, ²"Moses, my servant, is dead. So now, rise, cross over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land that I am about to give to them, to the sons of Israel. ³Every place on which the sole of your foot will tread, I give it to you just as I spoke to Moses. ⁴From the wilderness and this Lebanon and as far as the great river, the Euphrates River, all the land of the Hittites, and as far as the great sea, the going of the sun, will be your boundary. ⁵A man will not station himself against your face all the days of your life. I will be with you just as I was with Moses. I will not abandon you and I will not leave you. ⁶Be strong and be courageous, for you yourself will cause this people to inherit the land that I swore to their fathers to give to them. ⁷Only be strong and be very courageous, watching to do according to all the law that Moses, my servant, commanded you. Do not turn aside from it right or left, so that you may be wise in every place where you go. ⁸This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth and you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you will watch to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your ways prosperous and then you will be wise. ⁹Have I not commanded you? Be strong and be courageous! Do not tremble and do not be dismayed. For Yahweh your God is with you in every place where you go."

¹²And to the Reubenite and to the Gadite and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh, Joshua spoke, saying, ¹³"Remember the word that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, saying, 'Yahweh your God is about to give rest to you and he will give to you this land.' ¹⁴Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock will stay in the land that Moses gave to you on the other side of the Jordan. But you, you shall cross over before the face of your brothers arrayed for battle, all the mighty men of the army, and shall help them ¹⁵until when Yahweh gives rest to your brothers as you, and they, they also, possess the land that Yahweh your God is about to give to them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession and shall possess it, which Moses the servant of Yahweh gave to you on the other side of the Jordan, the rising place of the sun." ¹⁶And they answered Joshua, saying, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and to every place where you send us we will go. ¹⁷As in everything that we listened to Moses so we will listen to you. But Yahweh your God will be with you, just as he was with Moses. ¹⁸Every man who rebels against your mouth and will not hear your words for all that you command him will be put to death. Only be strong and be courageous."

Chapter 2

¹And Joshua the son of Nun secretly sent from the Shittim two men, spies, saying, "Go, see the land and Jericho." And they went and entered the house of a woman, a prostitute, and her name was Rahab, and they lay down there. ²And it was said to the king of Jericho, saying, "Behold, men have come here tonight from the sons of Israel to search the land." ³And the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men, the ones coming to you, who came to your house, because they have come to search all the land." ⁴And the woman took the two men and hid them. And she said, "Indeed, the men came to me and I did not know from where they were. ⁵And the gate was to shut at the darkness and the men went out. I do not know to where the men went. Pursue after them quickly for you will overtake them." ⁶(Now she had brought them up to the roof and had hidden them in the flaxes of the stalk arranged by her on the roof.) ⁷And the men pursued after them on the road of the Jordan to the fords. And they had shut the gate after when the pursuers had gone out after them.

⁸Now before they had laid down she went up to them on the roof. ⁹And she said to the men, "I know that Yahweh has given to you the land and that dread of you has fallen on us and that all who dwell in the land have melted from your face. ¹⁰For we have heard that Yahweh dried up the water of the Sea of Reeds from before your face when you went out from Egypt, and what you did to two of the kings of the Amorite who were on the other side of the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, them whom you completely destroyed. ¹¹And we have heard and our hearts have melted and the spirit in a man no longer stands from your face. For Yahweh your God, he is God in the heavens above and on the earth below. ¹²And now, please swear to me by Yahweh because I am doing kindness with you, that you also will do kindness with the house of my father and will give to me a sign of truth, ¹³and you will keep alive my father and my mother and my brothers and my sisters and all who belong to them. And you will rescue our lives from death." ¹⁴And the men said to her, "Our lives in place of yours to death! If you do not tell this matter of ours, then it will happen when Yahweh gives to us the land that we will do kindness and faithfulness with you."

¹⁵And she lowered them down by a rope out through the window because her house was in the side of the wall, and she was dwelling in the wall. ¹⁶And she said to them, "Go to the mountain lest the ones pursuing meet you. And hide there three days until the ones pursuing have returned. And after you may go to your way." ¹⁷And the men said to her, "We will be innocent from this oath of yours which you have caused us to swear: ¹⁸Behold, we are about to come into the land! You shall tie this cord of thread of crimson in the window by which you lowered us down, and your father and your mother and your brothers and all the house of your father you shall gather to you at the house. ¹⁹And it will be that anyone who goes out from the doors of your house to the outside, his blood will be on his head and we will be innocent. But anyone who is with you in the house, his blood will be on our heads if a hand should be on him. ²⁰And if you tell this matter of ours, then we will be innocent from the oath of yours which you caused us to swear." ²¹And she said, "According to your words, so be it." And she sent them away and they went. And she tied the cord of crimson in the window.

²²And they went and came to the mountain and they stayed there three days until the pursuers had returned. And the ones pursuing searched in all the road and did not find them. ²³And the two men returned and went down from the mountain and crossed over and came to Joshua the son of Nun. And they recounted to him all that was finding them. ²⁴And they said to Joshua, "Truly Yahweh has given all the land into our hand. And also all those who dwell in the land are melting away from our face."

Chapter 3

¹And Joshua got up early in the morning and they set out from the Shittim. And they came as far as the Jordan, he and all the sons of Israel, and they stayed overnight there before they crossed over. ²And it happened at the end of three days, that the officers passed through the midst of the camp. ³And they commanded the people, saying, "As soon as you see the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh your God and the priests, the Levites, lifting it, then you yourselves shall set out from your place and shall go after it. ⁴But a distance shall be between you and it of about 2,000 cubits in measurement. Do not come near to it, so that you will know the way in which you should go, since you have not passed over by the way from yesterday or the day before.

⁷And Yahweh said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to make you great in the eyes of all Israel who will know that just as I was with Moses, I am with you. ⁸And as for you, you shall command the priests who lift the Box of the Covenant, saying, 'As soon as you come as far as the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand in the Jordan.'"

⁹And Joshua said to the sons of Israel, "Come near to here and hear the words of Yahweh your God." ¹⁰And Joshua said, "By this you will know that the living God is in your midst and will surely dispossess from your face the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Hivite and the Perizzite and the Girgashite and the Amorite and the Jebusite.

¹¹Behold, the Box of the Covenant of the Lord of all the earth is about to cross over before your face in the Jordan.

¹²And now, take for yourselves 12 men from the tribes of Israel, one man, one man for the tribe. ¹³And it will happen as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests who lift the Box of Yahweh the Lord of all the earth rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, the waters going down from above. And they will stand as one heap."

¹⁴And it happened when the people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan, that the priests lifting the Box of the Covenant were before the face of the people. ¹⁵And as soon as those lifting the Box came as far as the Jordan then the feet of the priests lifting the Box were dipped in the edge of the water. (Now the Jordan was full over all its banks all the days of the harvest.) ¹⁶Then the waters going down from above stood. They rose up as one heap at a great distance away, at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan, and those going down to the sea of the Arabah, the Sea of Salt, were completely cut off. (Now the people crossed over opposite Jericho.) ¹⁷So the priests lifting the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh stood firmly on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan. And all Israel was crossing over on dry ground until when all the nation had finished crossing over the Jordan.

Chapter 4

¹And it happened just as all the nation finished crossing over the Jordan that Yahweh spoke to Joshua, saying,

²"Take 12 men for yourselves from the people, one man, one man from a tribe. ³And command them saying: 'Lift up for yourselves 12 stones from here, from the midst of the Jordan, from the firm standing place of the feet of the priests. And you shall bring them over with you and you shall rest them in the lodging place in which you will lodge tonight.'"

⁴And Joshua called out to the 12 men whom he had appointed from the sons of Israel, one man, one man from a tribe. ⁵And Joshua said to them, "Cross over before the face of the Box of Yahweh your God into the midst of the Jordan. And lift up for yourselves, one stone a man upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, ⁶so that this will be a sign in your midst. When your sons ask tomorrow, saying, 'What are these stones to you?' ⁷Then you will say to them, 'When the waters of the Jordan were cut off from the face of the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh, when it crossed over in the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off.' And these stones will be for a memorial for the sons of Israel until eternity."

⁸And the sons of Israel did thus, just as Joshua commanded. And they lifted up 12 stones from the midst of the Jordan, just as Yahweh said to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel. And they brought them over with them to the lodging place and they rested them there. ⁹And Joshua set up 12 stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place of the standing place of the feet of the priests who carried the Box of the Covenant. And they are there until this day. ¹⁰And the priests who carried the Box stood in the midst of the Jordan until every thing that Yahweh commanded Joshua to speak to the people was finished, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. And the people hurried and crossed over. ¹¹And it happened just as all the people had finished crossing over, that the Box of Yahweh with the priests crossed over before the face of the people. ¹²And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half of the tribe of Manasseh, armed men, crossed over before the face of the sons of Israel, just as Moses had spoken to them. ¹³About 40,000 men equipped for war of the army crossed over before the face of Yahweh to the plains of Jericho for the battle.

¹⁴On that day Yahweh made Joshua great in the eyes of all Israel. And they feared him just as they had feared Moses all the days of his life.

¹⁵And Yahweh spoke to Joshua, saying, ¹⁶"Command the priests who carry the Box of the Testimony and they shall come up from the Jordan." ¹⁷And Joshua commanded the priests, saying, "Come up from the Jordan." ¹⁸And it happened that when the priests carrying the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh came up from the midst of the Jordan, the soles of the feet of the priests were drawn out to dry ground, then the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and went over all its banks, as yesterday and three days ago.

¹⁹Now the people came up from the Jordan on ten of the first month. And they camped at the Gilgal, at the end of the sunrise of Jericho. ²⁰And Joshua set up in the Gilgal these 12 stones that they had taken from the Jordan. ²¹And he spoke to the sons of Israel, saying, "When your sons ask their fathers tomorrow, saying, 'What are these stones?' ²²then you shall cause your sons to know, saying, 'Israel crossed over this Jordan on dry ground.' ²³For Yahweh your God dried up the waters of the Jordan from your face until you crossed over, just as Yahweh your God did to the Sea of Reeds, which he dried up before us until we crossed over, ²⁴so that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of Yahweh, that it is mighty, so that you will fear Yahweh your God all the days."

Chapter 5

¹And it happened that when all the kings of the Amorite who were on the other side of the Jordan toward the sea, and all the kings of the Canaanite who were beside the sea, heard that Yahweh had dried up the waters of the Jordan from the face of the sons of Israel until they had crossed over, then their heart melted, and there was no longer a spirit in them from the face of the sons of Israel.^[1]

²At that time Yahweh said to Joshua, "Make for yourself knives of flint and return, circumcise the sons of Israel a second time." ³And Joshua made for himself knives of flint. And he circumcised the sons of Israel at the hill of the foreskins. ⁴And this is the reason that Joshua circumcised: All the people who had gone out from Egypt, the males, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness on the way, when they had gone out from Egypt. ⁵For all the people who went out were circumcised, but all the people who were born in the wilderness on the way as they went out from Egypt had not been circumcised. ⁶For the sons of Israel had walked in the wilderness 40 years, until the finishing of all the nation of the men of war who had gone out from Egypt, who had not listened to the voice of Yahweh, to whom Yahweh had sworn to not let them see the land that Yahweh had sworn to their fathers to give to us, a land flowing with milk and honey. ⁷And he raised up their sons instead of them, them Joshua circumcised. For they were uncircumcised because they had not circumcised them on the way. ⁸And it happened just as all the nation had finished being circumcised, that they stayed under them in the camp until their recovering. ⁹And Yahweh said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the disgrace of Egypt from on you." And the name of that place is called Gilgal until this day.

¹³And it happened when Joshua was in Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man was standing in front of him and his drawn sword was in his hand. And Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you for us or for our enemies?" ¹⁴And he said, "No, but I, the leader of the army of Yahweh, now I have come. And Joshua fell on his face to the ground and bowed down. And he said to him, "What is my lord going to speak to his servant?" ¹⁵And the leader of the army of Yahweh said to Joshua, "Slip off your sandal from on your foot, because the place on which you are standing, it is holy." And Joshua did thus.

¹And Jericho was shut and shut up from the face of the sons of Israel. There was no going out and there was no coming in. ²And Yahweh said to Joshua, "See, I have given Jericho into your hand, and its king, the mighty ones of the army. ³And you shall go around the city, all the men of war, going around the city one time. Thus you shall do six days. ⁴And seven priests shall lift seven horns of rams before the face of the Box. And on the seventh day you shall go around the city seven times and the priests shall blow with the horns. ⁵And it will happen that when sounding a blast with the horn of the ram, as soon as you hear the sound of the horn, all the people shall shout a great shout. And the wall of the city will fall under itself and the people will go up, a man straight in front of him."

⁶And Joshua the son of Nun called to the priests and said to them, "Lift the Box of the Covenant, and seven priests shall lift seven horns of rams before the face of the Box of Yahweh." ⁷And he said to the people, "Pass over and go around the city, and the men equipped for war will pass over before the face of the Box of Yahweh." ⁸And it happened that, as soon as Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying seven horns of rams before the face of Yahweh passed over and blew with the horns. And the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh was going behind them. ⁹And the men equipped for war were walking before the face of the priests, blowing the horns. And the rear guard were walking behind the Box, walking and blowing with the horns. ¹⁰And Joshua commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout and you shall not make your voice heard, and a word shall not go out from your mouth until the day I say to you, 'Shout!' Then you shall shout." ¹¹And he brought the Box of Yahweh around the city, circling one time. And they entered the camp and they stayed the night in the camp.

¹⁵And it happened on the seventh day that they got up early as soon as the dawn had risen, and they went around the city according to this manner seven times. Only on that day they went around the city seven times. ¹⁶And it happened that on the seventh time, the priests blew with the horns. And Joshua said to the people, "Shout, for Yahweh has given to you the city! ¹⁷And the city, it and all that is in it, is a banned thing for Yahweh. Only Rahab the prostitute will live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers whom we sent. ¹⁸But only you, keep from the banned thing, lest you put under the ban and take from the banned thing and make the camp of Israel into a banned thing and trouble it. ¹⁹And all the silver and gold and objects of bronze and iron, it is a holy thing for Yahweh. It shall enter the storehouse of Yahweh." ²⁰And the people shouted and they blew with the horns. And it happened as soon as the people heard the sound of the horn, that the people shouted with a great shout. And the wall fell under itself, and the people went up to the city, a man straight in front of him, and they captured the city. ²¹And they completely destroyed all that was in the city by the mouth of the sword, from man and as far as woman, from young and as far as old, and as far as ox and sheep and donkey.

²²And Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, "Enter the house of the woman, the prostitute, and bring out from there the woman and all who belong to her, just as you swore to her." ²³And the young men, the ones who had spied, entered and brought out Rahab and her father and her mother and her brothers and all who belonged to her. And they brought out all her relatives and rested them outside the camp of Israel. ²⁴And they burned with fire the city and all that was in it. Only the silver and the gold and the objects of bronze and iron they gave to the storehouse of the house of Yahweh. ²⁵And Joshua kept alive Rahab the prostitute and the house of her father and all who belonged to her. And she has dwelt in the midst of Israel to this day because she hid the messengers whom Joshua had sent to spy on Jericho.

²⁶And Joshua made them take an oath at that time, saying, "Cursed is the man before the face of Yahweh who rises up and builds this city, Jericho. With his firstborn he will found it and with his youngest he will set up its doors."

²⁷And Yahweh was with Joshua. And the report of him was in all the land.

Chapter 7

¹And the sons of Israel were unfaithful in unfaithfulness with the banned thing. And Achan the son of Karmi the son of Zabdi the son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, took from the banned thing. And the nose of Yahweh burned against the sons of Israel.

⁶And Joshua tore his garments and fell on his face to the earth before the face of the Box of Yahweh until the evening, he and the elders of Israel. And they caused dust to go up on their heads. ⁷And Joshua said, "Ah, my Lord Yahweh! Why at all did you bring this people across the Jordan to give us into the hand of the Amorite, to cause us to perish? And if only we had been content and had stayed on the other side of the Jordan! ⁸Please, my Lord! What can I say, after Israel has turned the back of the neck before the face of its enemies? ⁹And the Canaanite and all those who dwell in the land will hear and will surround us and cut off our name from the earth. And what will you do for your great name?"

¹⁰And Yahweh said to Joshua, "Get yourself up! Why is this—you are falling on your face? ¹¹Israel has sinned and also passed over my covenant, which I commanded them, and also taken from the banned thing and also stolen and also deceived and also placed among their things. ¹²And the sons of Israel were not able to stand before the face of their enemies. They turned the back of the neck before the face of their enemies because they have become a banned thing. I will not be with you again if you do not destroy the banned thing from your midst. ¹³Get up! Consecrate the people and you shall say, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, because thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, "A banned thing is in your midst, Israel. You will not be able to stand before the face of your enemies until you remove the banned thing from your midst." ¹⁴And you shall be brought near in the morning by your tribes. And it will happen that the tribe that Yahweh catches shall come near by the clans. And the clan that Yahweh catches shall come near by the houses. And the house that Yahweh catches shall come near by the men. ¹⁵And it will happen that the one who is caught with the banned thing shall be burned with the fire, he and all that belongs to him, because he has crossed over the covenant of Yahweh, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel."

¹⁶And Joshua got up early in the morning and brought Israel near by its tribes. And the tribe of Judah was caught. ¹⁷And he brought near the clans of Judah and the clan of the Zerahite was caught. And he brought near the clan of the Zerahite by the men and Zabdi was caught. ¹⁸And he brought near his house by the men and Achan the son of Karmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, was caught. ¹⁹And Joshua said to Achan, "My son, now give glory to Yahweh the God of Israel and give thanks to him. And tell me now what you have done. Do not hide it from me." ²⁰And Achan answered Joshua and said, "Truly, I have sinned against Yahweh the God of Israel. And like this and like this I did: ²¹And I saw among the spoil one good coat of Shinar and 200 shekels silver and one tongue-shaped piece of gold (50 shekels was its weight). And I desired them and took them. And behold, they are hidden in the earth in the midst of my tent and the silver is under it."

²²And Joshua sent messengers and they ran to the tent. And behold, it was hidden in his tent and the silver was under it. ²³And they took them from the midst of the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the sons of Israel. And they poured them out before the face of Yahweh. ²⁴And Joshua took Achan the son of Zerah and the silver and the coat and the tongue-shaped piece of gold and his sons and his daughters and his ox and his donkey and his sheep and his tent and all that was for him, and all Israel with him. And they brought them to the Valley of Trouble. ²⁵And Joshua said, "Why have you troubled us? Yahweh will trouble you on this day." And all Israel stoned him with stone. And they burned them with the fire and they stoned them with the stones. ²⁶And they raised up over him a great pile of stones until this day. And Yahweh turned from the burning of his nose. Therefore the name of that place is called the Valley of Trouble until this day.

Chapter 8

¹And Yahweh said to Joshua, "Do not fear and do not be dismayed. Take with you all the people of war and rise, go up to the Ai. See, I have given into your hand the king of the Ai and his people and his city and his land. ²And you shall do to the Ai and its king just as you have done to Jericho and its king, except you will plunder its spoil and its livestock for yourselves. Set for yourselves an ambush against the city from behind it."

¹⁰And Joshua got up early in the morning and mustered the people. And he and the elders of Israel went up before the face of the people to the Ai. ¹¹And all the people of war who were with him went up and approached and came before the city. And they camped from north of the Ai and the valley was between them and the Ai. ¹²And he took about 5,000 men. And he set them in ambush between Bethel and the Ai, from west of the city. ¹³And the people set all the camp that was from north of the city and its rear guard from west of the city. And Joshua went in that night into the midst of the valley. ¹⁴And it happened that as soon as the king of the Ai saw, then the men of the city hurried and got up early and went out to meet Israel for the battle, he and all his people, at an appointed place before the face of the Arabah. Now he did not know that an ambush was against him from behind the city. ¹⁵And Joshua and all Israel let themselves be struck before the face of them. And they fled the way of the wilderness. ¹⁶And all the people who were in the city were summoned to pursue after them. And they pursued after Joshua and were drawn away from the city. ¹⁷And there was not a man left in the Ai or Bethel who had not pursued after Israel. And they left the city open and they pursued after Israel.

¹⁸And Yahweh said to Joshua, "Stretch out with the javelin that is in your hand toward the Ai, because I will give it into your hand." And Joshua stretched out with the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. ¹⁹And the ambush rose quickly from its place and they ran when he stretched out his hand. And they entered the city and captured it and hurried and kindled the city with fire. ²⁰And the men of the Ai turned behind them and looked, and behold, the smoke of the city went up to the heavens! And it was not in their hands to flee here or there. And the people who had fled to the wilderness turned around toward the pursuers. ²¹And Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city, and that the smoke of the city went up. And they turned back and struck down the men of the Ai. ²²And these came out from the city to meet them and they were in the midst of Israel, these from here and these from there. And they struck them down until he left no survivor or refugee of them. ²³And they seized the king of the Ai alive. And they brought him near to Joshua.

²⁴And it happened when Israel had finished slaying all those who dwelled in the Ai in the field in the wilderness in which they pursued them, and all of them had fallen by the mouth of the sword until they were finished, that all Israel returned to the Ai and struck it with the mouth of the sword. ²⁵And it happened that all the ones who fell on that day, from man and as far as woman, were 12,000, all the men of the Ai. ²⁶And Joshua did not turn back his hand which he had stretched out with the javelin, until when he had completely destroyed all those who dwelled in the Ai. ²⁷Israel plundered for themselves only the livestock and the spoil of that city, according to the word of Yahweh which he had commanded Joshua. ²⁸And Joshua burned the Ai. And he made it a mound of eternity, a desolation until this day. ²⁹And he hanged the king of the Ai on a tree until the time of the evening. And when the sun was going, Joshua commanded and they brought down his corpse from the tree and threw it at the opening of the gate of the city and raised over it a great pile of stones until this day.

³⁰Then Joshua built an altar to Yahweh the God of Israel on Mount Ebal. ³¹It was just as Moses the servant of Yahweh had commanded the sons of Israel, as written in the book of the law of Moses: "An altar of whole stones, over which no one has wielded an iron tool." And they offered up on it burnt up offerings to Yahweh and sacrificed peace offerings. ³²And there on the stones he wrote a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote before the face of the sons of Israel. ³³And all Israel and its elders and officers and its judges were standing from here and from there at the Box in front of the priests and the Levites who carried the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh, like the foreigner so the native, half of them toward the front of Mount Gerizim and half of them toward the front of Mount Ebal. It was just as Moses the servant of Yahweh had commanded to bless the people of Israel at the first. ³⁴And afterward, he read all the words of the law, the blessings and the curses, according to all that is written in the book of the law. ³⁵There was not a word from all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read in front of all the assembly of Israel and the women and the children and the sojourners who are going in the midst of them.

¹And it happened that as soon as all the kings heard it who were on the other side of the Jordan, in the hill country, and in the lowlands and in all the coast of the great sea toward the front of the Lebanon (the Hittite and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite), ²then they gathered themselves together as one mouth to fight against Joshua and against Israel.

¹⁶And it happened from the end of three days after when they had cut a covenant for them, that they heard that they were near to them and they were dwelling among them. ¹⁷And the sons of Israel set out and came to their cities on the third day. And their cities were Gibeon and Kephirah and Beeroth and Kiriath Jearim. ¹⁸And the sons of Israel did not strike them down because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by Yahweh the God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the leaders. ¹⁹And all the leaders said to all the congregation, "We ourselves have sworn to them by Yahweh the God of Israel. And now we are not able to touch them. ²⁰We will do this to them and let them live. And wrath will not be on us on account of the oath which we swore to them."

²¹And the leaders said to them, "Let them live." And they became cutters of trees and drawers of water for all the congregation, just as the leaders had spoken to them.

²²And Joshua called to them and spoke to them, saying, "Why did you deceive us, saying, 'We are very far from you,' but you are dwelling among us? ²³And now you are cursed. And a slave will not be cut off from you, and cutters of trees and drawers of water for the house of my God." ²⁴And they answered Joshua and said, "Because it was clearly told to your servants that Yahweh your God commanded his servant Moses to give to you all the land and to destroy all those who dwell in the land from before your face. And we were very afraid for our lives because of your face, so we did this thing. ²⁵And now, behold, we are in your hand. Do to us as is good and as is right in your eyes to do." ²⁶And he did thus to them. And he rescued them from the hand of the sons of Israel and they did not slay them. ²⁷And on that day Joshua made them cutters of trees and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of Yahweh, until this day, in the place that he would choose.

¹And it happened that as soon as Adoni-Zedek the king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured the Ai and had completely destroyed it (just as he had done to Jericho and to its king, so he had done to the Ai and to its king), and that those who dwelled in Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them, ²then they were very afraid because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the cities of the kingdom, and because it was greater than the Ai, and all its men were mighty ones. ³And Adoni-Zedek the king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham the king of Hebron and to Piram the king of Jarmuth and to Japhia the king of Lachish and to Debir the king of Eglon, saying, ⁴"Come up to me and help me. And let us strike Gibeon. For it has made peace with Joshua and with the sons of Israel."

⁵And the five kings of the Amorites gathered and went up: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon—they and all their camps. And they camped against Gibeon and fought against it. ⁶And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua, to the camp at the Gilgal, saying, "Do not let your hand drop from your servants. Come up to us quickly and save us and help us because all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the hill country have gathered against us." ⁷And Joshua went up from the Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him and all the mighty ones of the army.

⁸And Yahweh said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid from them, for they are given into your hand. Not a man from them will stand before you." ⁹And Joshua came to them suddenly, all the night he went up from the Gilgal. ¹⁰And Yahweh confused them before the face of Israel and struck them down with a great blow in Gibeon. And he pursued them on the road going up to Beth Horon and he struck them down as far as Azekah and as far as Makkedah. ¹¹And it happened when they fled from the face of Israel, they were on the slope of Beth Horon, that Yahweh threw large stones on them from the heavens as far as Azekah and they died. There were more who died by the stones of hail than the sons of Israel slew with the sword.

¹²Then Joshua spoke to Yahweh on the day Yahweh gave the Amorites before the face of the sons of Israel. And he said before the eyes of Israel,

"Sun, be still in Gibeon, and moon, in the Valley of Aijalon."

¹³And the sun was still and the moon stood until the nation took vengeance on its enemies.

Is it not written in the Book of the Upright?

"And the sun stood in the middle of the heavens, and it did not hurry to go for about a whole day.^[1] ¹⁴And there has been no day like this before the face of it or after it, when Yahweh listened to the voice of a man. For Yahweh fought for Israel. ¹⁵And Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at the Gilgal.

¹⁶And these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in the cave in Makkedah. ¹⁷And it was told to Joshua, saying, "The five kings have been found hidden in the cave in Makkedah." ¹⁸And Joshua said, "Roll large stones to the mouth of the cave and assign men beside it to guard them. ¹⁹But you, do not stay! Chase after your enemies and strike their rear. Do not allow them to enter into their cities for Yahweh your God has given them into your hand." ²⁰And it happened as soon as Joshua and the sons of Israel finished striking them down with a very great blow until they had finished, that the escapees escaped from them and entered into the cities of fortification. ²¹And all the people returned in peace to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah. No man sharpened his tongue against the sons of Israel.

²²And Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave. And bring out to me these five kings from the cave." ²³And they did so and brought out to him these five kings from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon. ²⁴And it happened as soon as they brought out these kings to Joshua, that Joshua called to every man of Israel and said to the commanders of the men of war, the ones who had gone with him, "Come near. Set your feet on the necks of these kings." So they came near and set their feet on their necks. ²⁵And Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid and do not be dismayed. Be strong and be courageous, for thus Yahweh will do to all your enemies, they whom you are about to fight." ²⁶And Joshua struck them down afterward and he put them to death and hanged them on five trees. And they were hanging on the trees until the evening. ²⁷And it happened that at the time of the going of the sun Joshua commanded and they brought them down from on the trees and threw them into the cave there where they were hidden. And they set large stones over the mouth of the cave until this same day.

²⁸And Joshua captured Makkedah on that day. And he struck down it and its king by the mouth of the sword. He completely destroyed them and all the life that was in it; he did not leave a survivor. And he did to the king of Makkedah just as he had done to the king of Jericho.

²⁹And Joshua and all Israel with him passed over from Makkedah to Libnah. And he fought against Libnah. ³⁰And Yahweh also gave it and its king into the hand of Israel, and he struck it down with the mouth of the sword and all the life that was in it; he did not leave a survivor in it. And he did to its king just as he had done to the king of Jericho.

³¹And Joshua and all Israel with him passed over from Libnah to Lachish. And he camped against it and fought against it. ³²And Yahweh gave Lachish into the hand of Israel and he captured it on the second day. And he struck it down by the mouth of the sword and all the life that was in it like all that he had done to Libnah.

³³Then Horam the king of Gezer went up to help Lachish. And Joshua struck him and his people down until he left no survivor for him. ³⁴And Joshua and all Israel with him passed over from Lachish to Eglon. And they camped against it and fought against it. ³⁵And they captured it on that day and struck it down by the mouth of the sword. And he completely destroyed all the life that was in it on that day like all that he had done to Lachish.

³⁶And Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron. And they fought against it. ³⁷And they captured it and struck it down by the mouth of the sword and its king and all its cities and all the life that was in it. He did not leave a survivor, like all that he had done to Eglon. And he completely destroyed it and all the life that was in it.

³⁸And Joshua and all Israel with him turned to Debir. And he fought against it. ³⁹And they captured it and its king and all its cities and struck them down by the mouth of the sword and completely destroyed all the life that was in it; he did not leave a survivor. Just as he had done to Hebron, thus he did to Debir and to its king, and just as he had done to Libnah and to its king.

⁴⁰And Joshua struck down all the land: the hill country, and the Negev, and the lowlands, and the slopes, and all their kings. He did not leave a survivor. And he completely destroyed every breathing thing, just as Yahweh the God of Israel had commanded. ⁴¹And Joshua struck them down from Kadesh Barnea and as far as Gaza and all the land of Goshen and as far as Gibeon. ⁴²And Joshua captured all these kings and their land at one time. For Yahweh the God of Israel fought for Israel. ⁴³And Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at the Gilgal.

¹⁶And Joshua took all this land: the hill country, and all the Negev, and all the land of Goshen, and the lowlands, and the Arabah, and the hill country of Israel, and its lowlands; ¹⁷from Mount Halak the ascent to Seir, and as far as Baal Gad in the valley of the Lebanon below Mount Hermon. And he captured all their kings and struck them down and put them to death. ¹⁸Joshua made war with all these kings many days. ¹⁹There was not a city that made peace with the sons of Israel except the Hivites who dwelled in Gibeon. They took all in battle. ²⁰For it was from Yahweh to harden their heart to meet battle with Israel in order to completely destroy them, so that there would not be favor for them. But it was in order to annihilate them just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

²¹And Joshua came at that time and cut off the Anakites from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel. Joshua completely destroyed them with their cities. ²²No Anakites were left in the land of the sons of Israel, except they remained in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod. ²³And Joshua took all the land, according to all that Yahweh had spoken to Moses, and Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their portions by their tribes. And the land was at rest from war.

¹And these are the kings of the land, whom the sons of Israel struck down and dispossessed of their land on the other side of the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the wadi of Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah toward sunrise:

²Sihon the king of the Amorites, who dwelled in Heshbon, who ruled from Aroer, which is on the lip of the wadi of Arnon and the middle of the wadi, and half of the Gilead and up to the Jabbok wadi, the border of the sons of Ammon, ³and the Arabah to the Sea of Kinnereth toward sunrise, and to the Sea of the Arabah (the Sea of Salt) toward sunrise, the road to Beth Jeshimoth, and from the south below the slopes of the Pisgah.

⁷And these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the sons of Israel struck down on the other side of the Jordan, to the west, from Baal Gad in the valley of the Lebanon, and to Mount Halak, which ascends toward Seir. And Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their portions, ⁸in the hill country, and in the lowlands, and in the Arabah, and in the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the Negev—the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite: ⁹the king of Jericho, one; the king of the Ai, which is from the side of Bethel, one; ¹⁰the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one; ¹¹the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one; ¹²the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one; ¹³the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one; ¹⁴the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one; ¹⁵the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one; ¹⁶the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one; ¹⁷the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hopher, one; ¹⁸the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one; ¹⁹the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one; ²⁰the king of Shimron Meron, one; the king of Akshaph, one; ²¹the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one; ²²the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam of Carmel, one; ²³the king of Dor of Naphoth Dor, one; the king of the Nations of Gilgal, one; ²⁴and the king of Tirzah, one. All the kings were 31.

¹Now Joshua was old and had come in the days. And Yahweh said to him, “You are old and have come in the days and very much land remains to take possession of. ²This is the remaining land: all the territories of the Philistine, and all of the Geshurite, ³from Shihor, which is on the face of Egypt, and as far as the border of Ekron to the north (it is counted as Canaanite), the five rulers of the Philistines, the Gazite, and the Ashdodite, the Ashkelonite, the Gathite, and the Ekronite, and the Avvites; ⁴from the south, all the land of the Canaanite, and a cave that is for the Sidonians, as far as Aphek, as far as the border of the Amorite; ⁵and the land of the Gebalite, and all the Lebanon toward the rising of the sun, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon as far as Lebo Hamath. ⁶All those who dwell in the hill country from the Lebanon as far as Misrephoth Maim, all the Sidonians, I myself will dispossess them from the face of the sons of Israel. Only you shall cause it to fall to Israel as an inheritance, just as I commanded you.

⁷And now apportion this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half of the tribe of Manasseh.”

⁸With him the Reubenite and the Gadite had taken their inheritance that Moses gave to them on the other side of the Jordan toward sunrise, just as Moses the servant of Yahweh had given to them: ⁹from Aroer, which is on the lip of the wadi of Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the wadi, and all the plateau of Medeba to Dibon; ¹⁰and all the cities of Sihon the king of the Amorite, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the sons of Ammon; ¹¹and the Gilead, and the territory of the Geshurite and the Maacathite, and all Mount Hermon, and all the Bashan as far as Salekah; ¹²all the kingdom of Og in the Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he remained from the remnant of the Rephaites) and Moses struck them down and dispossessed them. ¹³But the sons of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurite and the Maacathite. And Geshur and Maacath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day. ¹⁴Only to the tribe of Levi he did not give an inheritance. The offerings made by fire to Yahweh the God of Israel, they are his inheritance, just as he spoke to him.

¹⁵And Moses gave to the tribe of the sons of Reuben, according to their clans. ¹⁶And the territory for them was from Aroer, which is on the lip of the wadi of Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the wadi, and all the plateau beside Medeba, ¹⁷Heshbon and all its cities that are in the plateau, Dibon, and Bamoth Baal, and Beth Baal Meon, ¹⁸and Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath, ¹⁹and Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth Shahaar on the hill of the valley, ²⁰and Beth Peor, and the slopes of the Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth, ²¹and all the cities of the plateau, and all the kingdom of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses had struck down, he and the leaders of Midian: Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba (the princes of Sihon who had dwelled in the land). ²²And the sons of Israel slew with the sword Balaam the son of Beor, the diviner, with their pierced ones. ²³And it happened that the border of the sons of Reuben was the Jordan and the border. This is the inheritance of the sons of Reuben according to their clans—the cities and their villages.

²⁴And Moses gave to the tribe of Gad, to the sons of Gad according to their clans. ²⁵And the territory for them was Jazer and all the cities of the Gilead and half of the land of the sons of Ammon, as far as Aroer, which is on the face of Rabbah, ²⁶and from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir, ²⁷and in the valley, Beth Haram, and Beth Nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, and the rest of the kingdom of Sihon the king of Heshbon, with the Jordan and the border, as far as the end of the Sea of Kinnereth, beyond the Jordan toward sunrise. ²⁸This is the inheritance of the sons of Gad according to their clans—the cities and their villages.

³³But Moses did not give an inheritance to the tribe of the Levite. Yahweh the God of Israel, he is their inheritance, just as he spoke to them.

Chapter 14

¹And these are what the sons of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel gave them as an inheritance. ²Their inheritance was by lot for the nine tribes and the half of the tribe, just as Yahweh had commanded by the hand of Moses. ³For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half of the tribe from the other side of the Jordan. But to the Levites he had not given an inheritance in the midst of them. ⁴For the sons of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. And they did not give a portion to the Levites in the land, but rather cities to dwell in, and their pasturelands for their livestock and for their property. ⁵Just as Yahweh had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did. And they apportioned the land.

⁶And the sons of Judah came near to Joshua in the Gilgal, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You yourself know the word which Yahweh spoke to Moses the man of God on account of me and on account of you at Kadesh Barnea. ⁷I was a son of 40 years when Moses the servant of Yahweh sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land. And I brought back word to him just as was in my heart. ⁸And my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt. But I was fully after Yahweh my God. ⁹And Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely the land on which your foot has trodden will be for an inheritance for you and for your sons until eternity.

For you were fully after Yahweh my God.¹⁰ And now, behold! Yahweh has kept me alive these 45 years, just as he spoke, from when Yahweh spoke this word to Moses, when Israel walked in the wilderness. And now, behold! Today I am a son of 85 years.¹¹ I am still as strong today just as on the day Moses sent me. As my strength was then, so my strength is now, for war, and for going out, and for coming in.¹² And now, give to me this hill country of which Yahweh spoke on that day. For you yourself heard on that day that the Anakites were there and great fortified cities. Perhaps Yahweh will be with me and I will dispossess them, just as Yahweh has spoken.”

¹³And Joshua blessed him and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.¹⁴ Therefore, Hebron belongs to Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite for an inheritance until this day, because he was fully after Yahweh the God of Israel.¹⁵ (And the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriath Arba. He was a great man among the Anakites.) And the land was at rest from war.

Chapter 15

¹And the lot for the tribe of the sons of Judah, according to their clans, was to the border of Edom, from the wilderness of Zin in the Negev, from the end of the south.² And the border of the south for them was from the end of the Sea of Salt, from the tongue turning to the south.³ And it went out to the south to the Ascent of Scorpions and passed over to Zin, and went up from the south to Kadesh Barnea, and passed over to Hebron, and went up to Addar, and went around to the Karka.⁴ And it passed over to Azmon, and went out the wadi of Egypt, and the exits of the border were at the sea. This will be for you the border of the south.⁵ And the border of the east was the Sea of Salt, as far as the end of the Jordan. And the border to the side of the north was from the tongue of the sea from the end of the Jordan.⁶ And the border went up to Beth Hoglah and passed over from the north to Beth Arabah. And the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.⁷ And the border went up to Debir from the Valley of Trouble, and to the north, turning to the Gilgal, which is in front of the ascent of Adummim, which is from the south of the wadi. And the border passed over to the waters of En Shemesh and its exits are at En Rogel.⁸ And the border went up the valley of Ben Hinnom to the shoulder of the Jebusites from the south (it is Jerusalem). And the border went up to the head of the hill that is on the face of the valley of Hinnom, to the west, which is at the end of the valley of the Rephaites to the north.⁹ And the border turned from the head of the hill to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of Mount Ephron. And the border turned to Baalah (it is Kiriath Jearim).¹⁰ And the border went around from Baalah to the west to Mount Seir, and passed over to the shoulder of Mount Jearim from the north (it is Kesalon), and went down to Beth Shemesh, and passed over to Timnah.¹¹ And the border went out to the shoulder of Ekron to the north. And the border turned toward Shikkeron and passed over to Mount Baalah, and went out to Jabneel. And the exits of the border were at the sea.¹² And the border of the west was the great sea and the border. This is the border of the sons of Judah all around, according to their clans.

¹³And to Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a portion in the midst of the sons of Judah according to the mouth of Yahweh to Joshua: Kiriath Arba (the father of the Anak), it is Hebron.¹⁴ And Caleb dispossessed from there the three sons of the Anak: Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai, the children of the Anak.¹⁵ And he went up from there against those dwelling in Debir. And the name of Debir was formerly Kiriath Sepher.¹⁶ And Caleb said, “Whoever strikes down Kiriath Sepher and captures it, I will give to him Aksah my daughter for a wife.”¹⁷ And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, captured it. And he gave to him Aksah his daughter for a wife.¹⁸ And it happened when she came to him, that she incited him to ask for a field from with her father. And she got down from on the donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What is for you?”¹⁹ And she said, “Give to me a blessing. Because you have given me the land of the Negev, then you must give to me springs of water.” And he gave to her the upper springs and lower springs.

²⁰This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Judah, according to their clans:²¹ And the cities were at the end of the tribe of the sons of Judah, toward the border of Edom in the Negev: Kabzeel and Eder and Jagur²² and Kinah and Dimonah and Adadah²³ and Kedesh and Hazor and Ithnan,²⁴ Ziph and Telem and Bealoth²⁵ and Hazor Hadattah and Kerioth Hebron (it is Hazor),²⁶ Amam and Shema and Moladah²⁷ and Hazar Gaddah and Heshmon and Beth Pelet²⁸ and Hazar Shual and Beersheba and Biziothiah,²⁹ Baalah and Iyim and Ezem³⁰ and Eltolad and Kesil and Hormah ³¹and Ziklag and Madmannah and Sansannah ³²and Lebaoth and Shilhim and Ain and Rimmon. All the cities were 29 and their villages.

³³In the lowlands: Eshtaol and Zorah and Ashnah ³⁴and Zanoah and En Gannim, Tappuah and the Enam, ³⁵Jarmuth and Adullam, Sokoh and Azekah ³⁶and Shaaraim and Adithaim and the Gederah and Gederothaim; 14 cities and their villages. ³⁷Zenan and Hadashah and Migdalgad ³⁸and Dilean and the Mizpah and Joktheel, ³⁹Lachish and Bozkath and Eglon ⁴⁰and Kabbon and Lahmas and Kitlish ⁴¹and Gederoth, Beth Dagon and Naamah and Makkedah; 16 cities and their villages.

⁴²Libnah and Ether and Ashan ⁴³and Iphtah and Ashnah and Nezib ⁴⁴and Keilah and Akzib and Maresha; nine cities and their villages. ⁴⁵Ekron, and its daughters and its villages; ⁴⁶from Ekron and to the sea, all that were on the hand of Ashdod and their villages. ⁴⁷Ashdod and its towns and its villages, Gaza and its towns and its villages, as far as the wadi of Egypt and the great sea and the border.

⁴⁸And in the hill country: Shamir and Jattir and Sokoh ⁴⁹and Dannah and Kiriath Sannah (it is Debir) ⁵⁰and Anab and Eshtemoh and Anim ⁵¹and Goshen and Holon and Giloh; 11 cities and their villages. ⁵²Arab and Dumah and Eshan ⁵³and Janim and Beth Tappuah and Aphekah ⁵⁴and Humtah and Kiriath Arba (it is Hebron) and Zior; nine cities and their villages.

⁵⁵Maon, Carmel and Ziph and Juttah ⁵⁶and Jezreel and Jokdeam and Zanoah, ⁵⁷the Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities and their villages. ⁵⁸Halhul, Beth Zur and Gedor ⁵⁹and Maarath and Beth Anoth and Eltekon; six cities and their villages. ⁶⁰Kiriath Baal (it is Kiriath Jearim) and the Rabbah; two cities and their villages.

⁶¹In the wilderness: Beth Arabah, Middin and Secacah ⁶²and Nibshan and the City of Salt and En Gedi; six cities and their villages.

⁶³And the Jebusites who dwelled in Jerusalem, the sons of Judah were not able to dispossess them, so the Jebusites have dwelled with the sons of Judah in Jerusalem until this day.

Chapter 16

¹And the lot for the sons of Joseph went out from the Jordan at Jericho, to the waters of Jericho toward sunrise, the wilderness going up from Jericho in the hill country of Bethel. ²And it went out from Bethel to Luz and passed over to the border of the Arkites at Ataroth. ³And it went down to the west to the border of the Japhletite, as far as the border of Lower Beth Horon, and as far as Gezer, and its exits were at the sea.

⁴And the sons of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, received an inheritance. ⁵And the border of the sons of Ephraim was according to their clans. And the border of their inheritance toward sunrise was Ataroth Addar as far as Upper Beth Horon, ⁶And the border went out to the sea, the Mikmethath from the north, and the border went around toward sunrise at Taanath Shiloh and passed by it from the sunrise to Janoah. ⁷And it went down from Janoah to Ataroth and Naarah and reached Jericho and came out at the Jordan. ⁸From Tappuah the border went to the west to the wadi of Kanah and its exits were at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim, according to their clans, ⁹and the cities that were set apart for the sons of Ephraim in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Manasseh, all the cities and their villages. ¹⁰And they did not dispossess the Canaanite who dwelled in Gezer, so the Canaanite has dwelled within Ephraim until this day, and he has become a forced laborer who serves.

¹And the lot was for the tribe of Manasseh (because he was the firstborn of Joseph), for Makir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of the Gilead. And the Gilead and the Bashan were given to him because he himself was a man of war. ²And it was for the remaining sons of Manasseh, according to their clans, for the sons of Abiezer and for the sons of Helek and for the sons of Asriel and for the sons of Shechem and for the sons of Hephher and for the sons of Shemida. These were the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the males according to their clans. ³And for Zelophehad the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, there were no sons for him, but rather daughters. And these were the names of his daughters: Mahlah and Noah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirzah. ⁴And they came near before the face of Eleazar the priest and before the face of Joshua the son of Nun and before the face of the leaders, saying, "Yahweh commanded Moses to give to us an inheritance in the midst of our brothers." And he gave to them an inheritance according to the mouth of Yahweh in the midst of the brothers of their father. ⁵And ten measured portions of Manasseh fell, apart from the land of the Gilead and the Bashan, which were from the other side of the Jordan. ⁶For the daughters of Manasseh inherited an inheritance in the midst of his sons. And the land of the Gilead was for the remaining sons of Manasseh.

⁷And the border of Manasseh was from Asher to the Mikmethath, which is on the face of Shechem. And the border went to the right to those dwelling at the spring of Tappuah. ⁸(The land of Tappuah was for Manasseh. And Tappuah at the border of Manasseh was for the sons of Ephraim.) ⁹And the border went down to the wadi of Kanah, to the south of the wadi. These cities were for Ephraim in the midst of the cities of Manasseh. And the border of Manasseh was from north of the wadi, and its exits were at the sea. ¹⁰To the south was for Ephraim, and to the north was for Manasseh, and the sea was its border. And it meets with Asher from the north and with Issachar from the sunrise. ¹¹And for Manasseh in Issachar and in Asher was Beth Shan and its daughters and Ibleam and its daughters and those who dwelled in Dor and its daughters and those who dwelled in En Dor and its daughters and those who dwelled in Taanach and its daughters and those who dwelled in Megiddo and its daughters, the three of Napheth. ¹²And the sons of Manasseh were not able to take possession of these cities. And the Canaanite was determined to dwell in this land. ¹³And it happened when the sons of Israel were strong, that they put the Canaanite to forced labor. And they did not completely dispossess them.

¹⁴And the sons of Joseph spoke with Joshua, saying, "Why have you given to me one lot and one measured portion as an inheritance, and I am a numerous people, Yahweh has blessed me until up to now?" ¹⁵And Joshua said to them, "If you are a numerous people, go up for yourself to the forest and clear for yourself there in the land of the Perizzite and the Rephaites. For the hill country of Ephraim is narrow for you." ¹⁶And the sons of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us, and the chariot of iron is with every Canaanite who dwells in the land of the valley, for those who are in Beth Shan and its daughters and those who are in the valley of Jezreel." ¹⁷And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, "You are a numerous people and great power is for you. There will not be one lot for you. ¹⁸But the hill country will be for you, though it is a forest, and you will clear it and its exits will be for you. For you will dispossess the Canaanite, though the chariot of iron is for him, though he is strong."

Chapter 18

¹And all the congregation of the sons of Israel assembled at Shiloh and placed the Tent of Meeting there. And the land was subdued before their face. ²And seven tribes remained among the sons of Israel that had not apportioned their inheritance. ³And Joshua said to the sons of Israel, "Until when will you be showing yourselves slack to enter to possess the land that Yahweh the God of your fathers has given to you? ⁴Provide for yourselves three men according to the tribe. And I will send them out and they will rise and walk about in the land and write it down according to the mouth of their inheritance and come to me. ⁵And they will apportion it among themselves for seven portions. Judah will stand on its border from the south, and the house of Joseph will stand on their border from the north. ⁶And you will write down the land in seven portions and bring them here to me. And I will throw a lot for you here before the face of Yahweh our God. ⁷But there is no portion within you for the Levites because the priesthood of Yahweh is their inheritance. And Gad and Reuben and the half of the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance from the other side of the Jordan toward sunrise, which Moses the servant of Yahweh gave to them."

¹¹And the lot of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin according to their clans went up. And the border of their lot went out between the sons of Judah and the sons of Joseph. ¹²And the border for them was to the side to the north from the Jordan. And the border went up to the shoulder of Jericho from the north and went up in the hill country to the west. And its exits were at the wilderness of Beth Aven. ¹³And the border passed over from there toward Luz, to the shoulder of Luz to the south (it is Bethel). And the border went down to Ataroth Addar, beside the mountain that is from south of Lower Beth Horon. ¹⁴And the border turned and went around at the side of the west toward the south, from the mountain that is on the face of Beth Horon to the south. And its exits were at Kiriath Baal (it is Kiriath Jearim, a city of the sons of Judah). This was the side of the west. ¹⁵And the side to the south was from the end of Kiriath Jearim. And the border went out to the west and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah. ¹⁶And the border then went down to the end of the mountain that is on the face of the valley of Ben Hinnom, which is in the valley of the Rephaites to the north. And it went down the valley of Hinnom to the shoulder of the Jebusite to the south and went down En Rogel. ¹⁷Then it turned northward and went out to En Shemesh and went out to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim. Then it went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. ¹⁸And it passed over to the shoulder of the front of the Arabah to the north and went down to the Arabah. ¹⁹And the border passed over to the shoulder of Beth Hoglah to the north. And the exits of the border were at the tongue of the Sea of Salt to the north, at the end of the Jordan to the south. This was the border of the south. ²⁰And the Jordan borders it to the side toward the east. This was the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, according to its borders all around, according to their clans.

²¹And the cities of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, according to their clans, were: Jericho and Beth Hoglah and the valley of Keziz ²²and Beth Arabah and Zemaraim and Bethel ²³and the Avvim, and the Parah, and Ophrah, ²⁴and Kephrah Ammoni and the Ophni and Geba; 12 cities and their villages. ²⁵Gibeon and the Ramah and Beeroth ²⁶and the Mizpah and the Kephirah and the Mozah ²⁷and Rekem and Irpeel and Taralah ²⁸and Zelah, Haeleph, and the Jebusite (it is Jerusalem), Gibeah, Kiriath; 14 cities and their villages. This was the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin according to their clans.

¹And the second lot went out for Simeon, for the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their clans. And their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Judah. ²And with their inheritance for them was Beersheba and Sheba and Moladah ³and Hazar Shual and Balah and Ezem ⁴and Eltolad and Bethul and Hormah ⁵and Ziklag and Beth Markaboth and Hazar Susah ⁶and Beth Lebaoth and Sharuhin; 13 cities and their villages. ⁷Ain, Rimmon and Ether and Ashan; four cities and their villages ⁸and all the villages that were around these cities as far as Baalath Beer (Ramah of the Negev). This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their clans. ⁹Some of the measured portion of the sons of Judah was the inheritance of the sons of Simeon. For the portion of the sons of Judah was greater than them, so the sons of Simeon inherited in the midst of their inheritance.

¹⁵and Kattath and Nahalal and Shimron and Idalah and Bethlehem; 12 cities and their villages. ¹⁶This was the inheritance of the sons of Zebulun according to their clans—these cities and their villages.

¹⁷The fourth lot went out for Issachar, for the sons of Issachar according to their clans. ¹⁸And their border was toward Jezreel and the Chesulloth and Shunem ¹⁹and Hapharaim and Shion and Anaharath ²⁰and the Rabbith and Kishion and Ebez ²¹and Remeth and En Gannim and En Haddah and Beth Pазzez. ²²And the border met with Tabor, and Shahazumah and Beth Shemesh. And the exits of their border were at the Jordan; 16 cities and their villages. ²³This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Issachar according to their clans—their cities and their villages.

²⁴And the fifth lot went out for the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their clans. ²⁵And their border was Helkath and Hali and Beten and Akshaph ²⁶and Allammelek and Amad and Mishall. And it met with Carmel toward the sea and with Shihor Libnath. ²⁷And it turned back toward the rising of the sun to Beth Dagon and it met with Zebulun and with the valley of Iptah El to the north, Beth Emek, and Neiel. And it went out to Kabul from the left ²⁸and Abdon and Rehob and Hammon and Kanah, as far as Great Sidon. ²⁹And the border turned back to the Ramah and up to the city of fortification of Tyre. And the border turned back to Hosah, and its exits were to the sea, from the measured portion of Akzib ³⁰and Ummah and Aphek and Rehob; 22 cities and their villages. ³¹This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their clans—these cities and their villages.

⁴⁹And they finished inheriting the land according to its borders. And the sons of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun in the midst of them. ⁵⁰In accordance with the mouth of Yahweh they gave to him the city that he asked for: Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. And he built the city and dwelled in it.

⁵¹These are the inheritances that Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel apportioned as an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the face of Yahweh at the opening of the tent of meeting. And they finished from apportioning the land.

Chapter 20

¹And Yahweh spoke to Joshua, saying, ²“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘Give for yourselves the cities of refuge, which I spoke about to you by the hand of Moses, ³so that the one who kills, who strikes down a person by mistake without knowledge, may flee to there. And they will be for you as a refuge from the avenger of blood. ⁴And he shall flee into one from these cities and stand at the opening of the gate of the city and speak his words in the ears of the elders of that city. And they shall gather him into the city to themselves and give to him a place and he shall dwelt with them. ⁵And if the avenger of blood pursues after him, then they shall not deliver the one who kills into his hand. For without knowledge he struck down his neighbor and he was not hating him from yesterday and three days ago. ⁶And he shall dwell in that city until he stands before the face of the congregation for judgment, until the death of he who is the great priest in those days. Then the one who kills may return and enter into his city and into his house, into the city that he fled from.”

⁷And they set apart Kedesh in the Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and Kiriath Arba (it is Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. ⁸And from the other side of the Jordan, to Jericho toward the sunrise, they gave Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau from the tribe of Reuben and Ramoth in the Gilead from the tribe of Gad and Golan in the Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh. ⁹These were the cities of appointment for all the sons of Israel and for the sojourner who sojourned in the midst of them, so that all who struck down a person by mistake could flee to there and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stood before the face of the assembly.

Chapter 21

¹And the heads of the fathers of the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest and to Joshua the son of Nun and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel. ²And they spoke to them in Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, “Yahweh commanded by the hand of Moses to give to us cities to dwell in, with their pasturelands for our livestock.” ³And the sons of Israel gave these cities and their pasturelands to the Levites from their inheritance, according to the mouth of Yahweh. ⁴And the lot went out for the clans of the Kohathites. And there were 13 cities by the lot for the sons of Aaron the priest (from the Levites) from the tribe of Judah and from the tribe of the Simeonite and from the tribe of Benjamin.

⁵And for the remaining sons of Kohath were ten cities by the lot from the clans of the tribes of Ephraim and from the tribe of Dan and from the half of the tribe of Manasseh.

⁶And for the sons of Gershon were 13 cities by the lot from the clans of the tribe of Issachar and from the tribe of Asher and from the tribe of Naphtali and from the half of the tribe of Manasseh in the Bashan.

⁷For the sons of Merari according to their clans were 12 cities from the tribe of Reuben and from the tribe of Gad and from the tribe of Zebulun. ⁸And the sons of Israel gave to the Levites by the lot these cities and their pasturelands, just as Yahweh had commanded by the hand of Moses.

¹³And to the sons of Aaron the priest they gave a city of refuge of the one who kills, Hebron and its pasturelands and Libnah and its pasturelands ¹⁴and Jattir and its pasturelands and Eshtemoa and its pasturelands ¹⁵and Holon and its pasturelands and Debir and its pasturelands ¹⁶and Ain and its pasturelands and Jutta and its pasturelands and Beth Shemesh and its pasturelands; nine cities from with the two of these tribes.

¹⁷And from the tribe of Benjamin were Gibeon and its pasturelands, Geba and its pasturelands, ¹⁸Anathoth and its pasturelands, and Almon and its pasturelands; four cities. ¹⁹All the cities of the sons of Aaron, the priests, were 13 cities and their pasturelands.

²⁰And for the clans of the sons of Kohath, the Levites, the remaining ones from the sons of Kohath, were the cities of their lot from the tribe of Ephraim. ²¹And they gave to them a city of refuge of the one who kills, Shechem and its pasturelands in the hill country of Ephraim and Gezer and its pasturelands ²²and Kibzaim and its pasturelands and Beth Horon and its pasturelands; four cities.

²³And from the tribe of Dan were Eltekeh and its pasturelands, Gibbethon and its pasturelands, ²⁴Aijalon and its pasturelands, Gath Rimmon and its pasturelands; four cities.

²⁵And from the half of the tribe of Manasseh were Taanach and its pasturelands and Gath Rimmon and its pasturelands; two cities. ²⁶All the ten cities and their pasturelands were for the remaining clans of the sons of Kohath.

²⁷And for the sons of Gershon from the clans of the Levites, from the half of the tribe of Manasseh was a city of refuge of the one who kills, Golan in the Bashan and its pasturelands, and Be Eshterah and its pasturelands; two cities.

²⁸And from the tribe of Issachar were Kishion and its pasturelands, Daberath and its pasturelands, ²⁹Jarmuth and its pasturelands, En Gannim and its pasturelands; four cities.

³⁰And from the tribe of Asher were Mishal and its pasturelands, Abdon and its pasturelands, ³¹Helkath and its pasturelands, and Rehob and its pasturelands; four cities.

³²And from the tribe of Naphtali were a city of refuge of the one who killed, Kedesh in the Galilee and its pasturelands and Hammoth Dor and its pasturelands and Kartan and its pasturelands; three cities. ³³All the cities of the Gershonites according to their clans were 13 cities and their pasturelands.

³⁴And for the clans of the sons of Merari, the remaining Levites, from with the tribe of Zebulun were Jokneam and its pasturelands, Kartah and its pasturelands, ³⁵Dimnah and its pasturelands, Nahalal and its pasturelands; four cities. ³⁶And from the tribe of Reuben were Bezer and its pasturelands and Jahaz and its pasturelands, ³⁷Kedemoth and its pasturelands and Mephaath and its pasturelands; four cities.

³⁸And from the tribe of Gad were a city of refuge of the one who killed, Ramoth in the Gilead and its pasturelands and Mahanaim and its pasturelands, ³⁹Heshbon and its pasturelands, Jazer and its pasturelands; all of the cities were four. ⁴⁰All the cities for the sons of Merari according to their clans, the remaining ones from the clans of the Levites, were 12 cities by their lot.

⁴¹All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the sons of Israel were 48 cities and their pasturelands. ⁴²These cities were city by city, and its pasturelands were around it. It was so for all these cities.

⁴³And Yahweh gave to Israel all the land that he had sworn to give to their fathers. And they possessed it and dwelled in it. ⁴⁴And Yahweh gave rest to them from all around, according to all that he had sworn to their fathers. And a man did not stand against their face from all their enemies. Yahweh gave all their enemies into their hand.

⁴⁵A word did not fall from every good word that Yahweh had spoken to the house of Israel. The whole came to be.

Chapter 22

¹Then Joshua called to the Reubenite and to the Gadite and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh. ²And he said to them, "You yourselves have kept all that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you. And you have listened to my voice according to all that I have commanded you. ³You have not forsaken your brothers this many days, until this day. And you have kept the keeping of the commandments of Yahweh your God. ⁴And now Yahweh your God has given rest to your brothers, just as he spoke to them. And now, turn and go for yourselves to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of Yahweh gave to you on the other side of the Jordan. ⁵Only watch exceedingly to do the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, to love Yahweh your God and to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments and to cling to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your self." ⁶And Joshua blessed them. And he sent them away and they went to their tents.

¹⁰And they entered into the territories of the Jordan that are in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half of the tribe of Manasseh built there an altar beside the Jordan—an altar large of appearance. ¹¹And the sons of Israel heard, saying, "Behold, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half of the tribe of Manasseh have built the altar at the front of the land of Canaan, at the territories of the Jordan, at the side of the sons of Israel." ¹²And the sons of Israel heard and all the congregation of the sons of Israel assembled at Shiloh to go up for war against them.

¹³And the sons of Israel sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh, into the land of the Gilead. ¹⁴And ten leaders were with him, one leader by one leader of the house of the father of all the tribes of Israel. And they were each a man of the head of the house of their fathers of the thousands of Israel. ¹⁵And they came to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh, into the land of the Gilead. And they spoke with them, saying, ¹⁶"Thus says all the congregation of Yahweh, 'What is this unfaithfulness that you have done unfaithfully against the God of Israel, to turn today from after Yahweh when you built for yourselves an altar today for your rebelling against Yahweh? ¹⁷Was the iniquity of Peor little for us, it from which we have not purified ourselves until this day? And there was a plague among the congregation of Yahweh. ¹⁸But as for you, you are turning from after Yahweh today! And it will happen that you yourselves will rebel against Yahweh today and tomorrow he will be furious toward all the congregation of Israel. ¹⁹However, if the land of your possession is defiled, cross over for yourselves into the land of the possession of Yahweh, there where the dwelling of Yahweh dwells, and take possession in the midst of us. But do not rebel against Yahweh and do not rebel against us by your building an altar for yourselves apart from the altar of Yahweh our God. ²⁰Did not Achan the son of Zerah act unfaithfully in unfaithfulness with the banned thing and wrath was on all the congregation of Israel? And he did not perish as one man in his iniquity.'"

²¹And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half of the tribe of Manasseh answered and spoke with the heads of the thousands of Israel: ²²"Yahweh is God of gods! Yahweh is God of gods! He knows, and as for Israel, let it know! If it was in rebellion or if in unfaithfulness against Yahweh, do not save us this day! ²³If it was to build an altar for ourselves to turn from after Yahweh, or if to offer on it burnt up offerings or grain offerings or if to make on it the sacrifices of peace offerings, Yahweh himself will seek out. ²⁴But no! Because of anxiety from a matter we did this, saying, 'Tomorrow your sons might say to our sons, saying, "What is for you and for Yahweh, the God of Israel? ²⁵And Yahweh has given a border between us and between you sons of Reuben and sons of Gad, the Jordan. There is no portion for you in Yahweh.'" And your sons might make our sons cease so that they are not fearing Yahweh. ²⁶And we said, 'Let us now prepare for ourselves to build the altar, not for a burnt up offering and not for a sacrifice. ²⁷But it will be a witness between us and between you and between our generations after us, to serve the service of Yahweh before his face, with our burnt up offerings and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings. And your sons will not say to our sons tomorrow, "There is no portion for you in Yahweh.'" ²⁸And we said, 'And it will happen if they speak to us or to our generations of tomorrow, that we will say, "See the copy of the altar of Yahweh, which our fathers made, not for a burnt up offering and not for a sacrifice, but it is a witness between us and between you.'" ²⁹May it be far from us for us to rebel against Yahweh, and turn today from after Yahweh to build an altar for a burnt up offering, for a grain offering, or for a sacrifice, apart from the altar of Yahweh our God that is before the face of his dwelling!'"

³⁰And Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the congregation and the heads of the thousands of Israel who were with him heard the words that the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the sons of Manasseh spoke. And it was good in their eyes. ³¹And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Manasseh, "Today we know that Yahweh is in the midst of us, that you have not acted unfaithfully in this unfaithfulness against Yahweh. Therefore you have rescued the sons of Israel from the hand of Yahweh." ³²And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from with the sons of Reuben and from with the sons of Gad, from the land of the Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel. And they brought them back a word. ³³And the word was good in the eyes of the sons of Israel. And the sons of Israel blessed God and did not speak of going up against them for war to destroy the land in which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad were dwelling. ³⁴And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad called the altar "Truly it is a witness between us that Yahweh is God."

Chapter 23

¹And it happened from many days afterward, when Yahweh had given rest to Israel from all their enemies from all around, that Joshua was old, he came into the days. ²And Joshua called for all Israel, for its elders and for its heads and for its judges and for its officers. And he said to them, "I am old, I have come into the days. ³But as for you, you have seen all that Yahweh your God has done to all these nations from your face. For Yahweh your God, he is the one who fights for you. ⁴See, I have caused to fall for you these remaining nations as an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan and all the nations that I cut off and the great sea, from the going of the sun. ⁵And Yahweh your God, he will push them from your face and will dispossess them from before your face. And you will possess their land, just as Yahweh your God spoke to you. ⁶And you shall be very strong to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, to not turn aside from it right or left, ⁷to not go among these nations, these remaining ones with you. And by the name of their gods you shall not mention and not swear. And you shall not serve them and not bow down to them. ⁸But rather to Yahweh your God you shall cling, just as you have done until this day. ⁹And Yahweh has dispossessed great and numerous nations from your face. And as for you, a man has not stood against your face until this day. ¹⁰One man from you pursues a thousand. For Yahweh is your God. He is the one who fights for you, just as he has spoken to you. ¹¹And you shall keep yourselves exceedingly for your selves, to love Yahweh your God. ¹²For if you ever turn back and cling to the remainder of these nations, these remaining ones with you, and you intermarry with them and you go among them and they among you, ¹³you shall know assuredly that Yahweh your God will not continue to dispossess these nations from before your face. And they will be to you as a trap and as a snare and as a whip on your sides and as thorns in your eyes, until you perish from on this good ground that Yahweh your God has given to you.

¹⁴And behold, today I am about to go the way of all the earth. And you know with all your heart and with all your soul that not one word has fallen from all the good words that Yahweh your God spoke concerning you. The whole has come to you, not one word from it has fallen. ¹⁵And it will happen that just as all the good word that Yahweh your God spoke to you has come upon you, so Yahweh will bring upon you all the evil word until he has destroyed you from this good ground that Yahweh your God has given to you. ¹⁶When you pass over the covenant of Yahweh your God that he commanded you and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then the nose of Yahweh will burn against you. And you will quickly perish from the good land that he has given to you."

¹And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem. And he called for the elders of Israel, and for its heads, and for its judges, and for its officers. And they presented themselves before the face of God. ²And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, 'Your fathers dwelled beyond the river from long ago—Terah the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor. And they served other gods. ³And I took your father Abraham from beyond the river and brought him into all the land of Canaan. And I multiplied his seed and gave to him Isaac. ⁴And I gave Jacob and Esau to Isaac. And I gave to Esau the hill country of Seir to possess it. And Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt. ⁵And I sent Moses and Aaron, and I struck Egypt just as I did within it. And afterward I brought you out. ⁶And I brought your fathers out from Egypt, and you came to the sea. And Egypt chased after your fathers with chariot and horsemen to the sea of reeds. ⁷And they cried out to Yahweh, and he put darkness between you and the Egyptians. And he brought the sea over him and covered him. And Your eyes saw what I did against Egypt. And you dwelled in the wilderness many days. ⁸And I brought you to the land of the Amorite, the ones who dwelled on the other side of the Jordan, and they fought with you. And I gave them into your hand, and you possessed their land, and I destroyed them from before your face. ⁹And Balak the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, got up and fought against Israel. And he sent and called for Balaam the son of Beor to curse you. ¹⁰And I was not willing to listen to Balaam. And he blessed you repeatedly, and I rescued you from his hand. ¹¹And you crossed over the Jordan and came to Jericho. And the men of Jericho, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Girgashite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, fought against you. And I gave them into your hand. ¹²And I sent the hornet before your face and it drove them out from before your face—two kings of the Amorite. It was not by your sword and not by your bow. ¹³And I gave to you a land for which you did not labor, and cities that you did not build and you dwell in them. You are eating vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant.'

¹⁴And now, you shall fear Yahweh and serve him with completeness and with faithfulness. And you shall remove the gods that your fathers served beyond the river and in Egypt, and serve Yahweh. ¹⁵But if it is evil in your eyes to serve Yahweh, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were beyond the river, or the gods of the Amorite in whose land you are dwelling. But as for me and my house, we will serve Yahweh."

¹⁶And the people answered and said, "Far be it for us from leaving Yahweh to serve other gods! ¹⁷For Yahweh is our God, he is the one who brought us and our fathers up from the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery, and who did these great signs before our eyes. And he kept us in all the way in which we went, and among all the peoples among whom we passed. ¹⁸And Yahweh drove out from our face all the peoples, even the Amorite who dwelled in the land. We too, we will serve Yahweh because he is our God."

¹⁹And Joshua said to the people, "You will not be able to serve Yahweh because he is a holy God. He is a jealous God, he will not lift your transgressions and your sins. ²⁰If you forsake Yahweh and serve the gods of the foreigner, then he will turn and do harm to you and finish you, after he has done good to you." ²¹And the people said to Joshua, "No, but we will serve Yahweh." ²²And Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you yourselves have chosen for yourselves Yahweh, to serve him." And they said, "Witnesses." ²³And now, remove the gods of the foreigner that are among you. And bend your heart to Yahweh the God of Israel." ²⁴And the people said to Joshua, "We will serve Yahweh our God, and we will listen to his voice." ²⁵And Joshua cut a covenant for the people on that day. And he set for them a statute and a judgment in Shechem. ²⁶And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God. And he took a large stone and set it up there beneath the oak tree that was at the Holy Place of Yahweh.

²⁷And Joshua said to all the people, "Behold, this stone will be for a witness against us, because it has heard all the words of Yahweh which he spoke to us. And it will be for a witness against you, lest you act deceptively against your God." ²⁸And Joshua sent the people away, a man to his inheritance.

²⁹And it happened after these things that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Yahweh, died, a son of 110 years. ³⁰And they buried him in the border of his inheritance, in Timnath Serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, from the north of Mount Gaash. ³¹And Israel served Yahweh all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who lengthened days after Joshua, and who knew every deed of Yahweh that he had done for Israel.

³²And the bones of Joseph, which the sons of Israel brought up from Egypt, they buried in Shechem, in the portion of the field that Jacob had bought from with the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, with a hundred pieces of money. And it became an inheritance for the sons of Joseph. ³³And Eleazar the son of Aaron died. And they buried him in Gibeah of Phinehas his son, which had been given to him in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

Chapter 1

¹Now it happened that after the death of Joshua, the sons of Israel asked Yahweh, saying, "Who will go up for us first against the Canaanite, to fight him?" ²Yahweh answered, "Judah will go up, Behold, I have given the land into his hand." ³Then Judah said to Simeon, his brother, "Go up with me into my allotted territory, and let us fight together against the Canaanite. I will fight likewise myself, with you in your allotted territory." So Simeon went with him. ⁴Judah went up, and Yahweh gave the Canaanite and the Perizzite into their hand. They smote ten thousand men at Bezek. ⁵They found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and they fought against him. They smote the Canaanite and the Perizzite. ⁶Then Adoni-Bezek fled, but they pursued after him. They seized him, and they chopped off the thumbs of his hands and the big toes of his feet. ⁷Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy kings with the thumbs of their hands and the big toes of their feet chopped off were gathering scraps of food beneath my table. Just as I have done, so God has repaid to me." Then they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

¹¹He went from there to those living in Debir; the name of Debir before was Kiriath Sepher. ¹²Then Caleb said, "Whoever will smite Kiriath Sepher and capture it, I will give him Aksah, my daughter, for a wife." ¹³Othniel, the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb younger than him, captured it, so he gave him Aksah his daughter for a wife. ¹⁴Now it happened that at her coming she incited him to ask for a field from her father. She descended from atop the donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What can I do for you?" ¹⁵Then she said to him, "Give me a blessing. Although you have given me the land of the Negev, you shall also me springs of waters." So Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

¹⁶The sons of the Kenite, the father-in-law of Moses, went up from the city of palm trees with the sons of Judah, to the wilderness of Judah, which is in the south country of Arad. So he went and he dwelt with the people. ¹⁷Then Judah went with Simeon his brother and they smote the Canaanite dwelling in Zephath. So they devoted it to destruction and they called the name of the city Hormah. ¹⁸Judah also captured Gaza and the territory of it, Ashkelon and the territory of it, and Ekron and the territory of it. ¹⁹Now it happened that Yahweh was with Judah and he took possession of the hill country, but he did not dispossess those dwelling in the valley because of their chariotry of iron. ²⁰They gave Hebron to Caleb just as Moses had directed, and he dispossessed from there the three sons of the Anak. ²¹But the Jebusite dwelling in Jerusalem, the sons of Benjamin did not dispossess. So the Jebusite have dwelt with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem until this day.

²²Likewise, the house of Joseph went up against Bethel, even they, and Yahweh was with them. ²³The house of Joseph sent out spies to assess Bethel; the name of the city before was Luz. ²⁴The observers saw a man going out from the city, and they said to him, "Show us, please, the entrance of the city, and we will extend kindness to you." ²⁵So he showed them the entrance of the city, and then they smote the city with the mouth of the sword, but they let the man and all his family go free. ²⁶Then the man went to the land of the Hittites and he built a city. He called its name Luz, which is its name until this day.

²⁷But Manasseh did not take possession of Beth Shan and its daughters, or Taanach and its daughters, or the one dwelling in Dor and its daughters, or those dwelling in Ibleam and its daughters, or those dwelling in Megiddo and its daughters, because the Canaanite had resolved to dwell in that land. ²⁸Now it happened that when Israel became strong, he imposed tribute upon the Canaanite, but he did not take possession of him.

²⁹Neither did Ephraim dispossess the Canaanite who dwelled in Gezer, so the Canaanite dwelled in Gezer in the midst of him.

³⁰Zebulun did not dispossess those dwelling in Kitron, or those dwelling in Nahalol, so the Canaanite dwelled in his midst. But they were subject to tribute.

³¹Asher did not dispossess those dwelling in Akko, or those dwelling in Sidon, or Ahlab, or Akzib, or Helbah, or Aphek, or Rehob. ³²So the Asherite dwelled in the midst of the Canaanite who dwelled in the land, because he did not dispossess him.

³³Naphtali did not dispossess those dwelling in Beth Shemesh, or those dwelling in Beth Anath. So he dwelled in the midst of the Canaanite who dwelled in the land. However, those dwelling in Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath were subject to tribute to them.

³⁴The Amorite pressed the sons of Dan to the hill country, for he did not permit him to go down into the valley.

³⁵The Amorite resolved to dwell at Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim, but the hand of the house of Joseph became heavy and they were subject to tribute. ³⁶The border of the Amorite was from the ascent of Akrabbim, from the cliff and upward.

Chapter 2

¹The messenger of Yahweh went up from the region of Gilgal to the region of Bokim, and said, "I am leading you up from Egypt, and I have brought you to the land that I have sworn to your fathers. I have said, 'I will not break my covenant with you for eternity. ²You must not cut a covenant with those dwelling in this land. Their altars you must surely tear down.' But you have not heeded my voice. What is this you have done? ³Furthermore, I have said, 'I will not drive them out from before you, but they will be against you as adversaries, and their gods will be against you as a snare.'" ⁴Now it happened that when the messenger of Yahweh spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, the people lifted up their voice and wept. ⁵So they called the name of that place Bokim, and they offered a sacrifice there to Yahweh.

¹¹The sons of Israel did the wickedness in the sight of Yahweh and they served the Baals. ¹²Thus they forsook Yahweh, the God of their fathers, the One Who brought them out of the land of Egypt. They went after other gods from the gods of the people groups who were around them, and they bowed down to them. They provoked Yahweh to anger. ¹³They forsook Yahweh and they served the Baal and the Ashtoreths. ¹⁴Then the anger of Yahweh burned against Israel, so he gave them into the hand of plunderers, and they plundered them. He surrendered them into the hand of their enemies from all around, so that they were not able any longer to stand before their enemies. ¹⁵In every way, whenever they went out the hand of Yahweh was against them for calamity, just as Yahweh had spoken and just as Yahweh had sworn to them. Thus he pressed them exceedingly.

¹⁶Then Yahweh raised up judges, and they saved them from the hand of their plunderers. ¹⁷Even to their judges they would not listen. For they pursued adulterously after other gods and they bowed down to them. They turned away quickly from the way that their fathers had walked. They did not do likewise to heed the commands of Yahweh. ¹⁸When Yahweh raised up judges for them, Yahweh would be with the judges and he would save them from the hand of their enemies all of the days of the judges. For Yahweh would become remorseful on account of their groaning from the presence of those tormenting them and oppressing them. ¹⁹Now it would happen that at the death of the judge, they would turn back and behave corruptly more than their fathers, walking after other gods to serve them and to bow down to them. They did not drop any of their evil deeds or their shameless behavior. ²⁰As a result the anger of Yahweh burned against Israel, and he said, "In that this nation transgressed my covenant that I had commanded their fathers, but they have not heeded my voice, ²¹I also will not continue to drive out anyone out of their presence from the nations that Joshua left when he died. ²²in order to test Israel by them, whether they are observing the way of Yahweh, walking in them just as their fathers observed, or not." ²³So Yahweh allowed those nations to stay, not dispossessing them hastily and he did not give them into the hand of Joshua.

¹Now those nations which Yahweh allowed to remain in order to test Israel by them, all who had not known any of the wars of Canaan, ²only for the sake of the generations of the sons of Israel knowing, to teach them warfare, only who formerly had not experienced them, ³the five governors of the Philistines, and all of the Canaanite, the Sidonian, and the Hivite dwelling in the mountain of Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon as far as Lebo Hamath. ⁴They were to test Israel by them, to know whether they would heed the commandments of Yahweh, which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. ⁵So the sons of Israel settled in the midst of the Canaanite, the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite. ⁶Then their daughters they took for themselves as wives, and their daughters they gave to their sons, and they served their gods.

¹²Then the sons of Israel started again to do this evil in the eyes of Yahweh. So Yahweh strengthened Eglon, the king of Moab against Israel, because they did this evil in the eyes of Yahweh. ¹³Then he mobilized to himself the sons of Ammon and Amalek and he went and attacked Israel, and they took possession of the city of the palm trees. ¹⁴So the sons of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

¹⁵When the sons of Israel cried out to Yahweh, Yahweh raised up for them a deliverer, Ehud, the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a man impeded in his right hand. The sons of Israel sent tribute by his hand to Eglon, the king of Moab. ¹⁶Then Ehud made for himself a sword and it had two edges, a span was its length. He bound it on from beneath his clothing on his right thigh. ¹⁷Then he bought the tribute near to Eglon, the king of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man. ¹⁸Now it happened that when he had completed bringing over the tribute, he sent away the people, the bearers of the tribute. ¹⁹But he himself turned back from the quarries which were near the Gilgal, and he said, "I have a private message for you, O king." He said, "Silence!" So all those who were standing around him went out from around him. ²⁰So Ehud came to him. Now he was sitting in the roof chamber in the coolness, which was for him alone. Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you," and he rose up from upon the seat. ²¹Then Ehud stretched out his left hand and took the sword from upon his right thigh, and he thrust it into his belly. ²²Also the handle went in following the blade, and the fat closed up over the handle because he did not pull the sword out of his belly. Then he proceeded to the vestibule, ²³and Ehud went out to the porch and he closed the doors of the roof chamber behind him and locked them.

²⁴After he had gone out, his servants came. They inspected and behold, the doors of the roof chamber were locked. So they said, "Surely he is covering his feet in the chamber in the coolness." ²⁵They waited until it was inappropriate, but behold, he was not opening the doors of the roof chamber. So they took the key and they opened them, and behold, their majestic lord had fallen to the floor, dead.

²⁶Meanwhile Ehud had escaped during their tarrying and he passed beyond the quarries, then he fled to Seirah.

²⁷Now it happened that at his coming in, he blew on the shofar in the hill country of Ephraim. Then the sons of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he was before them. ²⁸Then he said to them, "Follow after me, for Yahweh has given your enemies, Moab, into your hand." So they went down after him and they captured the fords of the Jordan opposite Moab. Thus they did not allow anyone to cross over. ²⁹So they routed Moab at that time, about ten thousand men. All were robust and all were men of strength, but not anyone escaped. ³⁰Moab was subdued on that day under the hand of Israel, and the land was tranquil eighty years.

³¹After him was Shamgar, the son of Anath, and he smote Philistines, 600 men with a cattle prod. Thus he also delivered Israel.

Chapter 4

¹Then the sons of Israel resumed once again to do this evil in the eyes of Yahweh, after Ehud died. ²So Yahweh handed them over into the hand of Jabin, the king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. Now the commander of his army was Sisera, and he was residing in Harosheth Haggoyim. ³Then the sons of Israel cried out to Yahweh, because he had nine hundred chariots of iron and he oppressed the sons of Israel with severe might twenty years.

⁴Now Deborah was a woman, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth. She was judging Israel at that time. ⁵She would sit beneath the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the sons of Israel came up to her for justice. ⁶She sent and called for Barak, the son of Abinoam, from Kedesh Naphtali. She said to him, "Has Yahweh, the God of Israel, not commanded: 'Go and draft at Mount Tabor, and you shall take with you ten thousand men from the sons of Naphtali and from the sons of Zebulun?' ⁷I will draw out Sisera, the commander of the army of Jabin, to you along the Kishon River, and his chariot and his multitude, and I will give him into your hand'." ⁸Barak replied to her, "If you will go with me, I will go, but if you will not go with me, I will not go." ⁹She declared, "I will indeed go with you, for naught, since it will not be your honor on the way which you are going, but with a hand of a woman Yahweh will give over Sisera." Then Deborah rose up and she went with Barak to Kedesh. ¹⁰Then Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh. He went up, ten thousand men were at his feet, and Deborah went up with him.

¹²When they reported to Sisera that Barak, the son of Abinoam, had gone up to Mount Tabor, ¹³Sisera summoned all of his chariotry, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all of the people who were with him, from Harosheth Haggoyim to the Kishon River. ¹⁴Then Deborah directed to Barak, "Arise! For this day when Yahweh has given Sisera into your hand, has not Yahweh gone forth before you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor along with ten thousand men beside him. ¹⁵Yahweh dismayed Sisera and all of the chariotry and all of the army with an edge of a sword before Barak. So Sisera dismounted from atop the chariot and fled away on his feet. ¹⁶But Barak pursued after the chariotry and after the army as far as Harosheth Haggoyim, and the entire army of Sisera fell by an edge of a sword, not even one remained.

¹⁷However Sisera had fled on his feet to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. ¹⁸Jael went out to meet Sisera and she said to him, "Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me. Do not fear." So he turned to her, into the tent, and she concealed him with the coverlet. ¹⁹He requested of her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." So she opened the leather bag of milk and gave him drink, and then she covered him. ²⁰Then he directed her, "Stand at the entrance of the tent. It shall be if anyone should come and ask you and say, 'Is there anyone here?', then you shall say 'There is not'." ²¹Then Jael, the wife of Heber, took the peg of the tent and she put the hammer in her hand. She came to him in the silence, and she drove the peg into his temple and pounded down to the ground. For he had been soundly sleeping and weary, instead he died. ²²Then, behold, Barak was pursuing Sisera, and Jael went out to meet him and she said to him, "Come, and let me show you the man whom you are seeking." So he came to her, and behold, Sisera had fallen dead, and the peg was in his temple.

²³So on that day God vanquished Jabin, the king of Canaan, before the sons of Israel. ²⁴Thus the hand of the sons of Israel had gone on becoming increasingly severe against Jabin, the king of Canaan, up to the point that they had destroyed Jabin, the king of Caanan.

Chapter 5

¹So Deborah sang with Barak, the son of Abinoam, on that day, saying:

²"When long hair flowed freely in Israel, as people enlisted themselves willingly, everyone bless Yahweh!

³Hear, O kings! Give ear, O rulers! I, unto Yahweh, even I, I will sing, I will make music unto Yahweh, the God of Israel.

⁴Yahweh, because of your going forth out of Seir, because of your marching out of the open land of Edom,
the earth quaked, the heavens also dripped, also the dark clouds dripped down water.

⁵Mountains flowed because of the presence of Yahweh, this Sinai, because of the presence of Yahweh, the God of Israel.

⁶In the days of Shamgar, the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, main roads were abandoned, and walkers of footpaths would walk crooked paths.

⁷Rural people ceased to be in Israel, they ceased to be until when I arose, Deborah, when I arose, a mother in Israel!

⁸When he chose new gods,
then there was fighting at the city gates, neither shield nor spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.

⁹My heart is alongside those pledging order in Israel, those freely enlisting themselves among the people.
Everyone bless Yahweh!

¹⁰Riding on white donkeys,
sitting on carpets,
or walking along a road, sing of this,

¹¹louder than the sound of those distributing water from watering places.

There they continuously celebrate the righteous deeds of Yahweh, the righteous actions of his rural people in Israel.

Then the people of Yahweh went down to the gates.

¹²Awake, awake, Deborah!

Awake, awake, utter a song!

Arise, Barak, and lead away captive your prisoner, the son of Abinoam.

¹³Then a survivor prevails over nobles, the people of Yahweh prevail at my side against the warriors.

¹⁴From Ephraim, their root was against Amalek;
after you, Benjamin, among your peoples.
From Machir those with resolve came down, and from Zebulun those who wield the scepter of a scribe.

¹⁵My princes in Issachar were with Deborah; and Issachar was also with Barak into a plain he was sent out on his feet.
Among the divisions of Reuben
there were great resolutions of heart.

¹⁶Why did you sit among the campfires, in order to hear signaling for flocks?
As for the divisions of Reuben
there were great resolutions of heart.

¹⁷Gilead settled in the region beyond the Jordan;
but Dan, why does he sojourn on ships?
Asher dwelt at the coast of the seas and he resides along his harbors.

¹⁸Zebulun was a people willfully scorning its soul even to death, also Naphtali on the elevated places of the battlefield.

¹⁹Kings came, they did battle;
at that time the kings of Canaan did battle at Taanach along the waters of Megiddo.
Plunder of silver they did not take.

²⁰From the heavens the stars did battle, from their courses they did battle against Sisera.

²¹The Kishon River swept them away, the ancient river, the Kishon River.

Tread on, O my soul, in strength!

²²Then hooves of a horse beat down, from rushing, the rushing of his valiant ones.

²³'Curse Meroz!' said the messenger of Yahweh.
'You shall surely curse those dwelling in it, because they did not come to the aid of Yahweh—to the aid of Yahweh against the mighty men.'

²⁴Jael is most blessed of women, the wife of Heber, the Kenite, out of women in the tent she is blessed.

²⁵Water he requested, milk she gave, in a bowl suitable for nobles, she brought curdled milk.

²⁶They reached out, her hand to the tent peg, and her right hand to a hammer of workmen;
she struck Sisera, she shattered his head.
She struck through and she pierced his temple.

²⁷Between her feet, he bowed, he fell, he lay down.
Between her feet he bowed, he fell;
at the place where he bowed, there he fell violently destroyed.

²⁸Through the window she had looked down and lamented, the mother of Sisera through the lattice window.
'Why has his chariot delayed in coming?
Why are the hoofbeats of his chariots late?'

²⁹The wisest of her princesses answered, yet she continued her utterance to herself:

³⁰Are they not finding, are they dividing up spoil, a maiden, two maidens for every warrior, spoil of dyed fabrics for Sisera, spoil of dyed fabrics, embroidered, dyed fabric embroidered on both sides for the necks as spoil?

³¹So may all of your enemies perish, Yahweh!

But may those who love him be as the coming forth of the sun in its strength."

Then the land was tranquil forty years.

Chapter 6

¹The sons of Israel did this evil in the eyes of Yahweh, so Yahweh gave them over into the hand of Midian seven years. ²Then the hand of Midian prevailed over Israel. On account of the presence of Midian, the sons of Israel made the dens for themselves which were in the mountains, the caves, and the strongholds. ³Now it would happen whenever Israel sowed, that Midian and Amalek would come up, even sons of the east would come up against him. ⁴They encamped around them and they ruined the produce of the land as far as your coming into Gaza. As a result means of sustaining life would not remain in Israel, neither sheep, nor cattle, nor donkey. ⁵When they and their livestock would come up, along with their tents, they would come up as an abundance of a locust swarm because of the multitude. Of them and of their camels there was no counting thus they came into the land in order to destroy it. ⁶Israel was severely impoverished because of the presence of Midian, so the sons of Israel cried out to Yahweh.

¹¹Now the messenger of Yahweh came and sat beneath the oak which was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash, the Abiezrite. Meanwhile Gideon, his son, was threshing out wheat at the winepress in order to hide from the presence of Midian. ¹²Then the messenger of Yahweh appeared to him and declared to him, "Yahweh is with you, O warrior of valor!" ¹³Gideon said to him, "With me, my lord? If Yahweh is with us, then why has all of this come to us? Where are all of his miraculous workings that our fathers recounted to us, saying, 'Did not Yahweh bring us up out of Egypt?' But now Yahweh has forsaken us and given us over into the grasp of Midian." ¹⁴Then Yahweh turned to him and said, "Go in this strength of yours and you shall deliver Israel from the grasp of Midian. Have I not sent you?" ¹⁵Then he replied to him, "Please, my lord! In what manner will I deliver Israel? See, my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the most insignificant in the house of my father." ¹⁶Then Yahweh said to him, "Because I will be with you, indeed you shall destroy Midian as one man." ¹⁷He replied to him, "If indeed I have found favor in your eyes, then perform a sign for me that it is you speaking to me. ¹⁸Please, do not depart from this place, until my coming to you then I will bring out my offering and I will set it before you." So he said, "Myself, I will stay until your returning."

¹⁹Then Gideon went and he prepared a young goat and from an ephah of flour, unleavened bread. He placed the meat in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot and brought them out to him to beneath the oak tree, and he presented them. ²⁰Then the messenger of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread and place them on this rock, and pour out the broth," and he did so. ²¹Then the messenger of Yahweh stretched out the edge of the staff that was in his hand. He touched the meat and the unleavened bread; the fire went up out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. Then the messenger of Yahweh went away out of his sight. ²²When Gideon saw that he was the messenger of Yahweh, Gideon lamented, "Alas, O my Lord Yahweh, for because of this I have seen the messenger of Yahweh face to face!" ²³But Yahweh replied to him, "Peace be unto you! Do not be afraid, you will not die." ²⁴So Gideon built an altar there to Yahweh and he named it Yahweh is Peace. To this day it still stands at Ophrah of the Abiezerite.

²⁵Now it happened on that night that Yahweh said to him, "Take the young bull that belongs to your father, and the second bull seven years old, break into pieces the altar of Baal that belongs to your father, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it. ²⁶You shall build an altar to Yahweh your God on the top of this place of refuge in the usual arrangement. Then you shall take the second bull and you shall offer a whole burnt offering, on the wood pieces from the Asherah that you shall cut down." ²⁷So Gideon took ten men out of his servants and did just as Yahweh had instructed to him. Now it happened that because he was afraid of the household of his father and the men of the city to do it by day, he did it by night.

²⁸When the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was torn down, the Asherah that was beside it had been cut down, and the second bull had been offered on the altar that had been built. ²⁹As a result each man said to his neighbor, "Who has done this thing?" When they inquired and searched, they said, "Gideon, the son of Joash has done this thing." ³⁰Then the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring out your son so that he may die, because he tore down the altar of Baal, and because he cut down the Asherah that was beside it." ³¹Joash said to all who stood against him, "Will you really contend on behalf of Baal? Will you really help him? Whoever contends for him, he will be put to death while it is still the morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself when someone tears down his altar." ³²Therefore on that day he called him "Jerub Baal," saying, "May the Baal contend against him," because he had torn down his altar.

³³Now all of Midian, Amalek, and the sons of the east assembled themselves together, and they crossed over and they camped in the Valley of Jezreel. ³⁴But the Spirit of Yahweh clothed Gideon. As a result he blew the shofar, thus he summoned Abiezer after him. ³⁵Then he sent messengers in all of Manasseh, and he summoned him also after him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they went up to meet them.

³⁶Then Gideon said to the true God, "If it is you delivering Israel by my hand, just as you have spoken, ³⁷Look, I am putting this fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If dew shall be upon the fleece, only it, but on all of the ground it is dry, then I will know that you will deliver Israel by my hand, just as you have spoken." ³⁸Now it happened afterwards that he rose early on the next day, and he pressed the fleece together. He wrung out dew from the fleece, the amount that fills the basin with water. ³⁹Then Gideon said to the true God, "Do not let your anger burn against me, but may I speak only this time. May I please test only this time with the fleece? May it be, I pray, dry on the fleece, only it, but on all of the ground may there be dew." ⁴⁰So God did this during that night. It was dry on the fleece, only it, but on all of the ground there was dew.

Chapter 7

²Yahweh said to Gideon, "Too many are the people who are with you for my giving Midian into their hand, lest Israel get glory themselves over me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.' ³Now therefore, announce in the ears of the people saying, 'Whoever is afraid and trembling, let him return and depart from Mount Gilead.'" So twenty-two thousand of the people turned back, but ten thousand remained.

⁴Then Yahweh said to Gideon, "Still the people are too numerous. Bring them down to the water, and I will further refine them for you there. So it will be whoever I will say to you, 'This one will go with you,' he will go with you. But anyone of whom I will say to you, 'This one will not go with you,' he will not go." ⁵So he brought the people down to the water, and Yahweh said to Gideon, "Anyone who laps up with his tongue from the water, just as would lap the dog, you shall set him apart, likewise anyone who kneels down on his knees to drink." ⁶Now it happened that the number of those who lapped with their hand to their mouth was three hundred men, but all of the rest of the people knelt down on their knees to drink water. ⁷Then Yahweh said to Gideon, "With the three hundred men those who lapped, I will deliver you and I will give Midian over into your hand. So let the other people go back each one to his own place." ⁸Then the people took provision into their hand and their shofars but the other men of Israel he sent away, each man to his tents, except for the three hundred of the men he retained. Now the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

⁹Now it happened during that night Yahweh said to him, "Arise! Go down into the camp, for I have given him over into your hand. ¹⁰But if you are afraid to go down, go down, you and Purah your armor bearer to the camp, ¹¹and you shall hear what they are speaking, and afterwards your hands will be encouraged and you shall go down against the camp." So he went down, he and Purah his armor bearer, to the edge of the fifty who were in the camp. ¹²Now Midian, Amalek, and all of the sons of the east were lying down in the valley, as a locust swarm in abundance. As far as their camels they were innumerable, as the sand that is along the edge of the sea in abundance. ¹³Gideon came, and look, a man was telling a dream to his neighbor. He said, "Look! I have dreamed a dream, and look, a round loaf of barley bread was tumbling into the camp of Midian. It came as far as the tent, and struck it so that it fell and turned it upside down, so that the tent collapsed." ¹⁴His neighbor answered and said, "There is nothing else this can be if not the sword of Gideon, the son of Joash, the man of Israel. The true God has given Midian into his hand and all of the camp."

¹⁵Now it happened when Gideon heard the narration of the dream and its interpretation, that he bowed down in worship. He returned to the camp of Israel and said, "Rise up! For Yahweh has given the camp of Midian into your hand." ¹⁶Then he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put shofars into the hand of all of them as well as empty jars, with torches inside of the jars. ¹⁷He said to them, "You shall look to me and thus you shall do. Watch! When I am coming along the edge of the camp, it shall be just as I do, thus you must do. ¹⁸When I blow the shofar, I and everyone who is with me, then you shall blow the shofars, also you around all of the camp. Then you shall shout, 'For Yahweh and for Gideon!'"

¹⁹So Gideon and one hundred men who were with him came to the edge of the camp, at the beginning of the middle nightwatch. They had only just stationed the guards, when they blew the shofars and they shattered the jars that were in their hand. ²⁰Then the three companies blew the shofars and they broke the jars. They held the torches in their left hand and the shofars in their right hand to blow. They shouted out, "A sword for Yahweh and for Gideon." ²¹Each man stood in his place around the camp and all of the camp ran. They shouted and fled away. ²²When they blew the three hundred shofars, Yahweh set the sword of each man against his comrade and against all of the camp. As a result the army fled as far as Beth Shittah toward Zererah, as far as the edge of Abel Meholah, towards Tabbath. ²³Then the men of Israel from Naphtali, and from Asher, and from all of Manasseh were summoned, and they pursued after Midian.

²⁴Also Gideon sent messengers throughout all of the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Go down opposite Midian and seize before them the waters, as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan." Thus all of the men of Ephraim were summoned and they captured the waters, as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan. ²⁵They captured the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and they killed Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued after Midian, and they brought the head of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, from across the Jordan.

Chapter 8

¹The men of Ephraim said to him, "What is this thing you have done to us, not summoning us when you went to fight against Midian?" Then they complained forcefully against him. ²He said to them, "What have I done now according to you? Are not the grape gleanings from Ephraim better than the grape harvest of Abiezer? ³God has given over the princes of Midian into your hand, Oreb and Zeeb! So what was I able to do compared to you?" Then their spirit concerning him abated when he was speaking this word.

⁴Then Gideon came to the Jordan, crossing over, he and the three hundred men who were with him. They were weary, yet they continued pursuing. ⁵Then he said to the men of Succoth, "Please give round loaves of bread to the people who are at my feet, for they are weary, yet I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.”

⁶The princes of Succoth replied, “Is the palm of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand that we should give bread to your army?” ⁷So Gideon declared, “Assuredly when Yahweh has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will thresh your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and briers.” ⁸Then he went up from there to Peniel and also spoke to them in this manner, but the men of Peniel answered him just as the men of Succoth had answered. ⁹So he declared also to the men of Peniel saying, “When I return in peace, I will tear down this tower.”

¹⁸Next he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, “What sort were the men who you killed at Tabor?” They replied, “As you are, so were they. Each one was as the form of the sons of the king.” ¹⁹So he said, “They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As Yahweh lives, if only you had let them live, I would not have killed you.” ²⁰Then he said to Jether his firstborn, “Arise, kill them!” But the young man did not pull out his sword because he was afraid, for he was still a youth. ²¹Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Arise yourself and fall upon us! Truly like a man with his own power.” So Gideon rose up and he killed Zebah and Zalmunna. He also took the crescent-shaped ornaments that were on the necks of their camels.

²²Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, “Rule over us, both you and your son, and even the son of your son, because you have delivered us out of the hand of Midian.” ²³But Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you myself, neither will my son rule over you. Yahweh will rule over you.” ²⁴Then Gideon said to them, “Let me ask a request of you, that each man give me the earring from his spoil.” For they had earrings of gold because they were Ishmaelites. ²⁵They replied, “We will surely give them.” So they spread out the garment and each man threw the earring from his spoil onto there. ²⁶Now the weight of the earrings of gold that he requested was one thousand seven hundred pieces of gold, besides that of the crescent-shaped ornaments, the pendants, the dyed purple garments that were upon the kings of Midian, and besides that of the collars that were around the necks of their camels. ²⁷Then Gideon made it into an ephod and placed it in his city, in Ophrah, and all of Israel pursued adulterously after it there. It became as a snare for Gideon and for his house. ²⁸So Midian was subdued before the sons of Israel and they did not continue to raise up their heads. So the land was tranquil forty years during the days of Gideon.

²⁹Jerubbaal, the son of Joash, went and lived in his house. ³⁰Now Gideon had seventy sons coming forth from his loins, for he had many wives. ³¹His concubine, who was in Shechem, even she bore him a son, and he made his name Abimelech. ³²Gideon, the son of Joash, died at a good old age and he was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, at Ophrah of the Abiezerite.

³³Now it happened that when Gideon had died, the sons of Israel turned back again and pursued adulterously after the Baals. They made Baal-Berith for themselves as a god. ³⁴The sons of Israel did not remember Yahweh, their God, the one who had delivered them from the hand of all of their enemies all around. ³⁵They did not show lasting loyalty with the house of Jerubbaal, Gideon, in accordance with all of the good that he did within Israel.

Chapter 9

¹Now Abimelech, the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to the brothers of his mother and he spoke to them and to all of the family of the house of the father of his mother saying, ²"Please speak in the ears of all of the citizens of Shechem, 'What is better for you, seventy men ruling over you, all of the sons of Jerubbaal, or one man ruling over you? Remember that I am your bone and your flesh.'" ³The brothers of his mother spoke all of these things on his behalf in the ears of all of the citizens of Shechem, and their heart turned aside after Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother." ⁴Then they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of Baal Berith, and Abimelech hired with them unprincipled and undisciplined men, so they went after him. ⁵Then he went to the house of his father at Ophrah, and he killed his brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men upon one stone. But Jotham was left, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, for he had hidden himself. ⁶Then all of the prominent citizens of Shechem and all of Beth Millo assembled themselves and they went and installed Abimelech as king beside an oak tree near the standing pillar that was in Shechem.

⁷When they told Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim. He lifted up his voice and cried out and said to them, "Listen to me, citizens of Shechem, so God will listen to you. ⁸Once the trees went about in order to anoint a king over themselves. So they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us.' ⁹But the olive tree replied to them, 'Have I stopped producing my fatness, when by me they honor gods and men, that I should go to wave over the trees?' ¹⁰So the trees said to the fig tree, 'You come! Reign over us.' ¹¹But the fig tree said to them, 'Have I stopped producing my sweetness and my good fruit, that I should go to wave over the trees?' ¹²Then the trees said to the vine, 'You come! Reign over us.' ¹³Then the vine said to them, 'Have I stopped producing my new wine, which cheers gods and man, that I should go to wave over the trees?' ¹⁴Then all of the trees said to the thornbush, 'You come, reign over us.' ¹⁵The thornbush said to the trees, 'If in truth you are anointing me as king over you, come, seek refuge in my shade. But if not, may fire go forth from the thornbush and consume the cedars of Lebanon.' ¹⁶Therefore, now if in truth and in integrity you have acted when you installed Abimelech as king, and if you have done well concerning Jerubbaal and with his household, and if according to the deed of his hands you have done to him, ¹⁷that my father fought on your behalf, and threw aside his life even out front, when he delivered you out of the hand of Midian, ¹⁸but today you have risen up against the house of my father and have killed his sons, seventy men, upon one stone. Then you have installed Abimelech, the son of his female servant, as king over the citizens of Shechem, because he is your brother. ¹⁹Now if you have acted in truth and in integrity with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, rejoice about Abimelech, and he himself will also rejoice about you. ²⁰But if not, fire shall come forth from Abimelech and it shall consume the citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo. Fire shall also come forth from the citizens of Shechem and from Beth Millo and it shall consume Abimelech." ²¹Then Jotham fled away and escaped, and he went to Beer. He settled there away from the presence of Abimelech, his brother.

²²Now Abimelech ruled over Israel three years. ²³Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and between the citizens of Shechem so that the citizens of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech, ²⁴by revisiting the violent treatment of the seventy sons of Jerubbaal and by putting their blood upon Abimelech their brother, who had killed them, and upon the citizens of Shechem who strengthened his hands to kill his brothers. ²⁵So the citizens of Shechem positioned men in ambush after him along the tops of the hills. They robbed everyone who would pass by them along the road, and it was reported to Abimelech.

²⁶Then Gaal, the son of Ebed came along with his brothers and they went over to Shechem. The citizens of Shechem trusted him. ²⁷They went out into the field and they picked grapes from their vineyards, and they pressed them. They celebrated harvest festivals and they went into the house of their gods, then they ate and they drank, and they cursed Abimelech. ²⁸Then Gaal, the son of Ebed, said, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal and Zebul his deputy? Serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem. Why should we serve him, ourselves? ²⁹Who will give this people into my hand? Then I would depose Abimelech. He said to Abimelech, 'Enlarge your army and come forth.'" and look, they are inciting the city against you. ³²Therefore, now, rise up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in ambush in the field. ³³Then it shall happen, in the morning, at the rising of the sun, you shall set out early and you shall spread out in an attack against the city. Watch, when he and the people who are with him are coming out to you, then you do to him just as your hand finds occasion."

³⁰When Zebul, the prince of the city, heard the words of Gaal, the son of Ebed, his anger burned. ³¹So he sent messengers to Abimelech in secret, saying, "Look, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers are coming to Shechem,

³⁴So Abimelech and all of the people who were with him rose up by night, and they set up an ambush against Shechem. They were four units. ³⁵Gaal, the son of Ebed, went out and he stood in the entrance of the gate of the city. Then Abimelech and the people who were with him rose up from the ambush. ³⁶When Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, "Look, a group of people is coming down from the tops of the hills!" Zebul said to him, "You are seeing the shadow of the hills as men." ³⁷Again, Gaal continued to speak and said, "Look, groups of people are coming down from beside the summit of the land, and one unit is coming from the way of the oak of the diviners." ³⁸Then Zebul said to him, "Where then is your mouth, with which you said, 'Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?' Is this not the people who you regard it with contempt? Indeed, go out now and fight against him." ³⁹So Gaal went out before the citizens of Shechem, and he fought against Abimelech. ⁴⁰Abimelech pursued him, and he fled from his presence. Many fell fatally wounded as far as the entrance of the city gate.

⁴¹Then Abimelech settled in Arumah. Zebul drove Gaal and his brothers away from dwelling in Shechem. ⁴²Now it happened that the next day the people went out into the field, and they reported it to Abimelech. ⁴³So he took the people, and he split up into three units. Then he waited in ambush in the field. When he saw and look, the people were going out of the city, then he rose up against them and he killed them. ⁴⁴Abimelech and the units that were with him spread out and they stood at the entrance of the gate of the city. But two units spread out against everyone who was in the field and they killed them. ⁴⁵Abimelech fought against the city all that day. He captured the city, and he killed the people who were in it. Then he tore down the city and scattered salt on it.

⁴⁶When all the lords of the tower of Shechem heard, they went into the citadel of the house of El-Berith. ⁴⁷Then it was reported to Abimelech that all the lords of the tower of Shechem had assembled themselves. ⁴⁸So Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people who were with him. Abimelech took the proper ax in his hand and cut off a branch from the trees. He lifted it and set it upon his shoulder and said to the people who were with him, "Whatsoever you have seen that I have done, hurry, do the same as me." ⁴⁹So all the people also each cut off a branch and they went after Abimelech. Then they piled them on top of the underground chamber, thus on account of them they burned the underground chamber with fire. As a result all the distinguished people in the tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

⁵⁰Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and he set up camp around Thebez and he captured it. ⁵¹But there was a strong tower in the midst of the city, so all of the men and the women and all the prominent citizens of the city fled to there. They closed it up behind themselves and they went up on the roof of the tower. ⁵²Then Abimelech came towards the tower and he fought against it, and he approached as far as the entrance of the tower in order to burn it with fire. ⁵³But one woman threw down an upper millstone onto the head of Abimelech and it crushed his skull. ⁵⁴Then he cried out hurriedly to the young man bearing his armor, and he said to him, "Draw out your sword and put me to death, lest they will say about me, 'A woman killed him.'" So his young man stabbed him so that he died. ⁵⁵When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech had died, they went each to his own place. ⁵⁶Thus God avenged the evil of Abimelech that he did to his father by killing his seventy brothers. ⁵⁷All the evil of the men of Shechem God caused to return back upon their own heads and on them came the curse of Jotham, the son of Jerubbaal.

Chapter 10

¹Now after Abimelech, Tola, the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, arose in order to deliver Israel. He settled in Shamir, in the hill country of Ephraim. ²He judged Israel twenty-three years. He died and was buried in Shamir.

³Then arose after him Jair the Gileadite. He judged Israel twenty-two years. ⁴Now he had thirty sons, riding on thirty donkeys. There were thirty cities for them, they call them Havvoth Jair to this day, that are in the land of the Gilead. ⁵Then Jair died and he was buried in Kamon.

¹⁰Then the sons of Israel cried out to Yahweh, saying, "We have sinned against you, because we have forsaken our God and we have served the Baals." ¹¹Then Yahweh said to the sons of Israel, "Was it not from the Egyptians, from the Amorite, from the sons of Ammon, from the Philistines, ¹²the Sidonians and Amalek and Maon, when they oppressed you that you cried out to me, and I delivered you from their hand? ¹³Yet you have abandoned me and you have served other gods. Therefore, I will not continue to deliver you. ¹⁴Go and cry out to the gods that you have chosen for yourselves. They should deliver you at the time of your distress." ¹⁵Then the sons of Israel said to Yahweh, "We have sinned. You do to us according to all that is good in your eyes. Only rescue us please this day." ¹⁶They removed the foreign gods from their midst and they worshiped Yahweh. Then His soul became dismayed with the suffering of Israel.

¹⁷Now the sons of Ammon were summoned and they encamped in Gilead. So the sons of Israel gathered together and they encamped at Mizpah. ¹⁸Then the people, the princes of Gilead each said to his fellow man, "Who is the man who will begin to fight against the sons of Ammon? He will become the leader over all who are residing in Gilead."

Chapter 11

¹Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a warrior of strength, but he was the son of a woman committing fornication. Gilead begat Jephthah. ²The wife of Gilead also gave birth to his sons. When the sons of the wife grew up, they drove out Jephthah and they said to him, "You will not inherit from the house of our father since a son of another woman are you." ³So Jephthah fled from the presence of his brothers and he settled in the land of Tob. Unprincipled men associated around Jephthah and they went about with him.

⁴Now it happened after some days that the sons of Ammon fought with Israel. ⁵It was when the sons of Ammon fought with Israel, that the elders of Gilead went to summon Jephthah from the land of Tob. ⁶Then they said to Jephthah, "Come and you will be for us as commander so we may fight against the sons of Ammon." ⁷But Jephthah replied to the elders of Gilead, "Do you yourselves not hate me since you drove me out of the house of my father? Why have you come to me now when you have trouble?" ⁸Then the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Rightly, now we have turned back to you; so come with us and fight against the sons of Ammon, and you will become commander for us over all residing in Gilead." ⁹Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me back to fight against the sons of Ammon, and Yahweh gives them over before me, I will actually be your leader?" ¹⁰Then the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Yahweh will be a witness between us, surely according to your word, thus we will do!" ¹¹So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people set him as commander and leader over themselves. Jephthah spoke all his words before Yahweh in the Mizpah.

¹²Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, "What has happened with respect to me and to you, that you have come against me to fight over my land?" ¹³The king of the sons of Ammon responded to the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel seized my land at his going up out of Egypt, from Arnon up to the Jabbok, and over to the Jordan. Now return them in peace.” ¹⁴Then Jephthah continued again and sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, ¹⁵and he said to him, “Thus Jephthah said: Israel did not take the land of Moab or the land of the sons of Ammon. ¹⁶However in their coming up from Egypt, Israel went through the wilderness as far as the Sea of Reeds and he came to Kadesh. ¹⁷When Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, ‘Please may I pass through your land,’ the king of Edom would not listen. He likewise sent to the king of Moab, but he was not willing. So Israel stayed at Kadesh. ¹⁸Then he went through the wilderness and turned away from the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and he went to the place of the rising of the sun for the land of Moab. They camped on the other side of the Arnon, but they did not go within the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab. ¹⁹Israel sent messengers to Sihon, the king of the Amorite, the king of Heshbon. Israel said to him, ‘Please, let us pass through your land as far as my place.’ ²⁰But Sihon did not trust Israel passing through within his border. So Sihon assembled all of his people together and they camped at Jahaz, and he fought with Israel. ²¹Then Yahweh, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all of his people over into the hand of Israel and they defeated them. Thus Israel possessed all of the land of the Amorite inhabiting that region. ²²They possessed everything within the territory of the Amorite, from the Arnon to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness as far as the Jordan. ²³Since therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, has expelled the Amorite out of the presence of his people Israel, will you indeed possess it? ²⁴Will you not take possession if Chemosh, your god, allows you to possess it? So all that Yahweh our God has dispossessed before us, we will possess it. ²⁵Now are you really better than Balak, the son of Zippor, the king of Moab? Did he dare contend with Israel or did he ever wage war against them? ²⁶While Israel resided three hundred years in Heshbon and in its villages, and in Aroer and in its villages, and in all the cities that are along the banks of the Arnon—why then did you not repossess during that time? ²⁷I have not sinned against you, but you are doing wrong in dealing with me by fighting against me. Yahweh, the judge, will decide today between the sons of Israel and between the sons of Ammon.” ²⁸But the king of the sons of Ammon did not listen to the words of Jephthah that he had sent to him.

²⁹Then the Spirit of Yahweh came on Jephthah, and he passed through the Gilead and Manasseh, and he passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed through the sons of Ammon. ³⁰Jephthah vowed a vow to Yahweh and said, “If you truly give the sons of Ammon into my hand, ³¹then it shall be the one who comes out, whoever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the sons of Ammon, that he will belong to Yahweh, and I will offer him up as a whole burnt offering.” ³²So Jephthah passed through to the sons of Ammon to fight against them, and Yahweh gave them into his hand. ³³Then he attacked them from Aroer and as far as your coming in to Minnith, twenty cities, and up to Abel Keramim, an exceedingly great slaughter. So the sons of Ammon were subdued by the presence of the sons of Israel.

³⁴Jephthah came into the Mizpah area, to his house, and look, his daughter was coming out to meet him with tambourines and with dancing. However, she was an only child; he did not have a son or daughter apart from her. ³⁵Now it happened when he saw her that he tore his garments and he said, “Alas, my daughter! Indeed, you have made me bow in grief, and you are among those who cause me pain! For I have opened my mouth to Yahweh and I am not able to turn back.” ³⁶Then she said to him, “My father, you have opened your mouth to Yahweh. Do to me according to what came forth from your mouth, after what Yahweh has done for you: complete vengeance against your enemies, against the sons of Ammon.” ³⁷She said to her father, “Let this thing be done for me. Release me for two months, so I may go away and I will fall prostrate on the hills and I will weep on account of my virginity, I and my companions.” ³⁸He replied, “Go.” Then he sent her away for two months. She went, she and her companions, and she wept on account of her virginity on the hills. ³⁹Now it happened at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he carried out his vow with respect to her that he had vowed. She did not know a man, and it became a custom in Israel. ⁴⁰From time to time the daughters of Israel went to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite for four days during the year.

¹Now the men of Ephraim were summoned and they passed northward and they said to Jephthah, “Why did you pass through in order to fight against the sons of Ammon but you did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down over you with fire.”²Jephthah said to them, “A man in exceedingly great dispute I have been, I and my people and the sons of Ammon. When I summoned you, you did not rescue me from their hand.³When I saw that you were not coming to assist, I put my life in my own hand. I passed through to the sons of Ammon, and Yahweh gave them over into my hand. Now why have you come up to me to fight against me this day?”⁴Then Jephthah assembled all of the men of Gilead and he fought Ephraim. The men of Gilead struck Ephraim because they had said, “Fugitives of Ephraim are you, O people of Gilead, in the midst of Ephraim, in the midst of Manasseh.”⁵Gilead captured the crossing places of the Jordan along Ephraim. It happened when any of the survivors of Ephraim would say, “May I cross over,” that the men of Gilead would say to him, “Are you an Ephraimite?” If he said, “No,”⁶then they would say to him, “Please say: Shibboleth.” But if he said “Sibboleth,” for he was not prepared to pronounce it correctly, they would seize him and they would slaughter him at the crossing places of the Jordan. Forty-two thousand from Ephraim fell at that time.

⁷Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and he was buried among the cities of Gilead.

⁸Then after him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel.⁹Now he had thirty sons. He sent away thirty daughters to the outside, and he brought in thirty daughters for his sons from the outside. He judged Israel seven years.¹⁰Then Ibzan died and he was buried in Bethlehem.¹¹After him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. He judged Israel ten years.¹²Then Elon the Zebulunite died and he was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

¹³After him, Abdon, the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.¹⁴Now he had forty sons and thirty sons of sons, who rode on seventy young male donkeys. He judged Israel eight years.¹⁵Then Abdon, the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and he was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekite.

⁸Then Manoah prayed to Yahweh and he said, “Oh please, my Lord, please let the man of God who you sent come again to us so that he may instruct us about what we must do for the boy who is to be born.”⁹The true God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the messenger of God came to the woman again when she was sitting in the field. But Manoah her husband was not with her.¹⁰So the woman hurried and she ran and she reported to her husband, and she said to him, “Look! The man has appeared to me who came to me that day!”¹¹So Manoah rose up and he went after his wife. When he came to the man, he said to him, “Are you the man who spoke to this woman?” He replied, “I am.”¹²Then Manoah said, “Now may your words come to pass. What will be the protocol for the boy, and his work?”¹³The messenger of Yahweh replied to Manoah, “Because of all that I have said to the woman, she must take heed herself.¹⁴From anything that comes forth from the vine of the wine, she must not consume. She must not drink wine or strong drink, and anything unclean she must not eat. Everything that I have commanded her, she must do.”

¹⁵Then Manoah said to the messenger of Yahweh, "Please let us detain you, so that we may prepare a young kid from the goats on account of your presence." ¹⁶The angel of Yahweh replied to Manoah, "Even if you would detain me, I will not eat your bread. But if you would prepare a burnt offering for Yahweh, you may offer it." For Manoah did not know that he was the messenger of Yahweh. ¹⁷Then Manoah said to the messenger of Yahweh, "What is your name, that when your words come to pass we may honor you?" ¹⁸The messenger of Yahweh replied to him, "Why is this, you are asking about my name, but it is incomprehensible!" ¹⁹Manoah took the young kid from the goats and the offering and he brought up a sacrifice upon the rock to Yahweh. Meanwhile he was about to perform an act causing wonder while Manoah and his wife were watching. ²⁰Now it happened when the flame went up from upon the altar towards the heavens, that the messenger of Yahweh went up in the flame of the altar while Manoah and his wife were watching. As a result they fell on their faces to the ground.

²¹But the messenger of Yahweh did not continue to appear any longer to Manoah or to his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was the messenger of Yahweh. ²²Manoah said to his wife, "Surely we will die, because we have seen God!" ²³But his wife replied to him, "If Yahweh had desired to kill us, he would not have taken from our hand the whole burnt offering and the offering. He would not have shown us all these things, and at this time would he have not allowed us to hear about this." ²⁴The woman gave birth to a son, and she called his name Samson. The boy grew up and Yahweh blessed him. ²⁵Now the Spirit of Yahweh began to tap him in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and between Eshtaol.

¹Samson went down to Timnah, and he saw a woman in Timnah, from the daughters of the Philistines. ²Then he went back up and he reported to his father and to his mother, and he said, "I saw a woman in Timnah, among the daughters of the Philistines. So now take her for me for a wife." ³His father and his mother replied to him, "Is there not a woman among the daughters of your relatives, or among all of my people, that you are going to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" Samson said to his father, "Take her for me, because she is right in my eyes." ⁴But his father and his mother did not know that this matter was from Yahweh, for he was seeking an opportunity against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel.

⁵Then Samson went down along with his father and his mother to Timnah. They came as far as the vineyards of Timnah, and look, a young lion among the lions was roaring when encountering him. ⁶The Spirit of Yahweh rushed upon him, and he tore it to pieces like butchering a young goat. There was not anything in his hand, but he did not disclose to his father or to his mother what he had done. ⁷Then he went down and he spoke to the woman, and she seemed right in the eyes of Samson. ⁸Then he returned after some days to take her. He turned aside to look for the carcass of the lion, and look, there was a swarm of bees in the dead body of the lion and honey. ⁹He scraped it into the palms of his hands and he went along, walking and eating as he went to his father and to his mother. He even gave some to them so that they ate, but he did not disclose to them that he had scooped the honey out of the dead body of the lion.

¹⁰Then his father went down to the woman, and there Samson prepared a drinking feast, because so would do the young men. ¹¹Now it happened when they saw him, that they brought thirty close friends and they were with him. ¹²Samson said to them, "Let me propose to you a riddle. If indeed you explain it to me during the seven days of the drinking feast, and truly you have found out, then I will give to you thirty linen outer garments and thirty changes of clothes. ¹³But if you are not able to provide an explanation to me, then you must yourselves give to me thirty linen outer garments and thirty changes of clothes." They said to him, "Set forth your riddle, so we may hear it." ¹⁴He said to them, and from a strong one came forth sweetness."

"From the eater came forth food;

But they were not able to explain the riddle in three days.

¹⁵Now it happened on the seventh day that they said to the wife of Samson, "Entice your husband so he may reveal to us the riddle, lest we burn you and the house of your father with fire. Have you invited us in order to dispossess us or not?" ¹⁶Then the wife of Samson wept beside him and she said, "Surely you hate me! You do not love me! You have put forth a riddle to the sons of my people, but you have not informed me." He said to her, "Look, I have not informed my father or my mother, should I inform you?" ¹⁷She continued to weep beside him during the seven days that they had the drinking feast. Now it happened on the seventh day that he informed her because she pressed him, with the result that she revealed the riddle to the sons of her people. ¹⁸Then the men of the city said to him before the sun went down on the seventh day, and what is stronger than a lion?"

"What is sweeter than honey?

So he said to them,

"If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle."

¹⁹Then the Spirit of Yahweh rushed upon him. He went down to Ashkelon and he struck down thirty of their men. He took their spoil, and he gave the changes of clothes from the riddle. His anger blazed, and he went up to the house of his father. ²⁰Then the wife of Samson came to be the wife of his close friend, who associated with him.

Chapter 15

¹Now it happened after some days, during the days of the harvest of wheat, that Samson visited his wife with a kid from the goats. for he said, "I will go in to my wife, to the inner room." But her father did not allow him to go in.

²Her father said, "Truly I said that surely you hated her, so I gave her to your close friend. Is not her younger sister better than she? Please may she be yours in her place." ³Samson said to them, "This time I am blameless concerning the Philistines when I am inflicting calamity against them." ⁴Then Samson went and captured three hundred foxes and he made them turn tail to tail. He took torches, and he set one torch between two of the tails in the middle. ⁵He kindled fire in the torches, he let them loose into the standing grain of the Philistines. As a result he burned both the stack of sheaves and also the standing grain, even a vineyard, and olive orchard. ⁶So the Philistines said, "Who has done this?", and they replied "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and he gave her to his close friend." As a result the Philistines went up and they burned her and her father with fire. ⁷Samson said to them, "Since you have actually acted like this, surely I have avenged myself against you, and afterwards, I will stop." ⁸He struck them on the lower leg as well as the thigh, a great slaughter. Then he went down and he remained in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

⁹But the Philistines went up and they encamped in Judah and they had spread themselves out in Lehi. ¹⁰Now the men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" They replied, "We have come up in order to bind Samson, to do to him just as he has done to us." ¹¹Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and they said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines are ruling over us? What is this you have done to us?" He replied to them, "Just as they have done to me, so I have done to them." ¹²They replied to him, "We have come down to bind you in order to give you over into the hand of the Philistines." But Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not instead attack me yourselves." ¹³They replied to him saying, "No, however surely we will bind you and we will give you over into their hand. But truly we will not kill you." Then they bound him with two new ropes and they brought him up from the rock.

¹⁴He had come as far as Lehi, and then the Philistines shouted as they encountered him. Then the Spirit of Yahweh rushed upon him. The ropes which were on his arms became as flax stalks which they had burned in fire, so his bands were loosed from upon his hands. ¹⁵He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and he stretched forth his hand and he took it and he slaughtered a thousand men with it. ¹⁶Then Samson said,

"With the jawbone of the donkey, one heap, two heaps, with the jawbone of the donkey I have slaughtered a thousand men."

¹⁷Now it happened when he finished speaking that he hurled the jawbone out of his hand, and he named that place Ramath Lehi. ¹⁸Then he was very thirsty and cried out to Yahweh and he said, "You Yourself have given this great victory into the hand of Your servant. But now must I die with this thirst so that I will fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?" ¹⁹So God split open the hollow place that is at Lehi and water came out of it. When he drank, his spirit returned so that he revived. Therefore he called the name of it En Hakkore, which is in Lehi to this day. ²⁰Thus he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

Chapter 16

¹Now Samson went to Gaza and he saw a woman there, a harlot, and he went in to her. ²Thus the Gazites were saying, "Samson has come here." So they encircled and they laid in wait for him all the night at the gate of the city. They kept themselves quiet all the night, saying, "At the light of the morning, then we will kill him." ³Samson lay down until the middle of the night. Then he arose in the middle of the night and he seized the doors of the gate of the city and the two doorposts. He pulled them up along with the bolt, he hoisted them upon his shoulders, and he brought them up to the top of the hill which is in front of Hebron.

⁴Now it happened after this that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek. Her name was Delilah. ⁵The governors of the Philistines came up to her, and they said to her, "Make him open up. See by what means is his great strength, and how we can prevail over him, so that we may bind him in order to weaken him. Then we will each give you one thousand one hundred silver pieces." ⁶So Delilah said to Samson, "Please, tell me by what means is your great strength, and how can you be bound in order to weaken you?" ⁷Samson replied to her, "If they would bind me with seven fresh cords that have not been dried, then I would become weak and I would be just as one of the other men." ⁸Then the governors of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh cords that had not been dried, and she tied him up with them. ⁹Now she had the ambush group staying in the room when she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he tore the cords to shreds just as a wick of flax fiber is torn to shreds when it draws in fire. So his strength did not become known.

¹⁰As a result Delilah said to Samson, "Look, you have deceived me and you have spoken lies to me. Now tell me, please, by what means you can be bound." ¹¹He replied to her, "If in fact they would bind me with new cords with which work has not been done with them, I would become weak and I would be just as one of the other men." ¹²So Delilah took new cords and she bound him with them. She said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" with the ambush group staying in the room. But he flicked them off from upon his arms like they were thread.

¹³Then Delilah said to Samson, "Until now you have dealt deceitfully with me and you have spoken lies to me. Reveal to me in what manner you may be bound." So he said to her, "If you would only weave seven of the locks of hair from my head with the loom." ¹⁴She fastened them together with a pin, and she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" However he woke from his sleep and he pulled out the pin from the weaving and the warp of the loom.

¹⁵Then she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' yet your heart is not with me? You have dealt deceitfully with me these three times and you have not revealed to me by what means is your great strength." ¹⁶Now it happened that she pressured him with her speech throughout the day. She also continually pressed him so that his soul was vexed to death. ¹⁷So he told her everything in his heart and he said to her, "A razor has never gone up upon my head, because I have been a Nazirite to God from the womb of my mother. If I would be completely shaved, then my strength would leave me, and I would become weak. I would be just as any of the other men."

¹⁸When Delilah perceived that he had told her everything in his heart, she sent and she called to the governors of the Philistines, saying, "Come up one more time, for he has told me everything in his heart." Then the rulers of the Philistines came up to her, and they brought the silver in their hand. ¹⁹Then she made him fall asleep on her knees and she called to the man while she shaved off the seven locks from his head. Thus she had begun to weaken him, and his strength departed from upon him. ²⁰Then she said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" He woke up from his sleep and he said, "I will escape like time after time and I will shake myself loose." But he did not know that Yahweh had departed from upon him. ²¹The Philistines seized him and they gouged out his eyes. They brought him down to Gaza and they bound him with a pair of bronze fetters. Now it happened that he was grinding at the house of the prisoners. ²²However, the hair on his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.

²³The governors of the Philistines assembled themselves together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and for a celebration. They said, "Our god has given Samson into our hand, our great enemy." ²⁴When the people saw him, they praised their god, for they said, "Our god has given our enemy into our hand, the devastator of our land, who heaped up our slain ones." ²⁵Now it happened when their heart was merry, that they said, "Call for Samson, that he may make us laugh." So they called for Samson from the house of the prisoners and he caused laughter in front of them. They had made him stand between the columns. ²⁶Samson said to the young man who was holding onto his hand, "Let me rest! Let me touch the columns, those which the building is situated upon them, so that I may support myself on them." ²⁷Now the building was full of the men and the women, and situated there were all of the governors of the Philistines. On the roof there were about three thousand men and women, who were watching while Samson was entertaining.

²⁸Then Samson called out to Yahweh and he said, "My Lord Yahweh, remember me, please! Strengthen me please, just this time, O God, so that I may avenge myself by one act of vengeance on the Philistines because of my two eyes." ²⁹Samson took hold of the two center columns on which the building was situated on them. He leaned himself against them, one in his right hand, and one in his left. ³⁰Then Samson said, "My soul will die with the Philistines!" He stretched out with his strength and the building fell on the governors and on all of the people who were in it. So the ones who died that he killed at his death were more than those he killed during his life. ³¹Then his brothers and all the house of his father went down. They carried him, as they went back up. They buried him between Zorah and between Eshtaol in the burial place of Manoah, his father. He had judged Israel twenty years.

¹Now there was a man from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Micah. ²He said to his mother, "The one thousand one hundred silver pieces that were taken from you, about which you swore a curse, and moreover you uttered it in my ears—look! The silver is with me. I took it myself." His mother said, "Blessed is my son by Yahweh!" ³Then he brought back the one thousand one hundred silver pieces to his mother and his mother said, "I had entirely consecrated the silver to Yahweh, from my hand to my son in order to make an idol and a cast image. So now, I will return it back to you." ⁴Even so he restored the silver to his mother, his mother took two hundred silver pieces and she gave them to the refiner. He made it into an idol and a cast image, and so it was in the house of Micah. ⁵Now the man Micah he had a house of gods. He made an ephod and family idols, and he even filled the hand of one of his sons so he was as a priest for him. ⁶In those days there was not a king in Israel. Each man would do whatever was right in his eyes.

⁷Now there was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah, from the family of Judah, and he was a Levite. He was sojourning there. ⁸The man went out of the city, from Bethlehem in Judah to sojourn in whatever place he might find. He came to the hill country of Ephraim as far as the house of Micah as he made his way. ⁹Micah said to him, "Where have you come from?" He replied to him, "I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to sojourn in whatever place I might find." ¹⁰Micah said to him, "Stay with me, and be as a father and as a priest to me. I myself will give to you ten silver pieces for the days, and provision of garments and your sustenance." So the Levite went in. ¹¹So the Levite was willing to stay with the man, and the young man became to him as one of his sons. ¹²Micah filled the hand of the Levite, and the young man became as a priest for him. So it was in the house of Micah. ¹³Then Micah said, "Now I know that Yahweh will cause success for me, because I have this Levite as a priest."

¹In those days there was not a king in Israel. Now in those days the tribe of the Danite was looking for a territory for itself to settle, because up to that day one had not fallen to it among the tribes of Israel for an inheritance. ²The sons of Dan sent five men from their family, from their members men, sons of valor from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to scout out the land on foot, and to examine it thoroughly. They said to them, "Go! Search out the land thoroughly." They came to the hill country of Ephraim, as far as the house of Micah, and they spent the night there. ³They were among the house of Micah and they recognized the voice of the young Levite man. So they turned aside there and they said to him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What do you have here?" ⁴He replied to them, "Like this and like this Micah has done for me; he has hired me and I am to him as a priest." ⁵They said to him, "Inquire, please, of God, that we may know whether our journey will have success, which we are going on it." ⁶The priest said to them, "Go in peace, before Yahweh is your journey which you are going on it."

⁷Then the five men left and they came to Laish. They saw the people who were in the midst of it were living in safety as the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure. There was no one causing them shame in any way in the land. Possessing restraint, they were far away from the Sidonians and there was no interaction for them with anyone. ⁸Then they went to their brothers in Zorah and Eshtaol. Their brothers said to them, "How are you?" ⁹They responded, "Get up at once that we may go up against them! For we have seen the land and look, it is exceedingly good. Yet you are keeping still. You must not be sluggish to go to enter in to possess the land. ¹⁰When you go, you will come to a people living securely, and the land is spacious on both hands! For God has given it into your hands, a place where there is not a lack of any thing that is on the earth."

¹⁴Then the five men who had gone to scout out the land of Laish on foot responded to their brothers and they said, "Do you know that there are in these houses an ephod, family idols, a carved image, and a cast image? So now, consider what you will do." ¹⁵So they turned in there and they came to the house of the young man, the Levite, at the house of Micah, and they asked about his welfare. ¹⁶Now six hundred men who were from the sons of Dan, the ones who were girded in their weapons of war, were stationed at the entrance of the gate. ¹⁷The five men who had gone to scout out the land by foot went up, they came there. They took the carved image, the ephod, the family idols, and the cast image, while the priest was standing at the entrance of the gate along with the six hundred men who were girded with the weapons of war. ¹⁸When these came into the house of Micah, and they took the carved image, the ephod, the family idols, and the cast image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?" ¹⁹They said to him, "Be quiet! Put your hand over your mouth and come with us, and be for us as a father and as a priest. Is it better your being a priest for the house of one man, or your being a priest for a tribe and for a family in Israel?" ²⁰The heart of the priest was agreeable, so he took the ephod, the family idols, and the carved image, and he went in the midst of the people.

²¹Then they turned and they went away. They put the little children, the cattle, and the property of value in front of themselves. ²²They had gone a great distance from the house of Micah, when the men who were in the houses which were near the house of Micah were called together, and they overtook the sons of Dan. ²³They called to the sons of Dan. They turned their faces around and they said to Micah, "What has happened to you that you have assembled together?" ²⁴He replied, "You took my gods that I made, and the priest, and you left. What do I have any longer? So how is it you can say to me, 'What has happened to you?'" ²⁵The sons of Dan responded to him, "You should not make your voice heard among us, lest some men fierce in temperment will come with hostility against you, with the result that you would reap the destruction of your soul and the soul of your household." ²⁶So the sons of Dan went their way since Micah perceived that they were stronger than him. He turned back and he returned to his house.

²⁷Now they had taken what Micah had made, and the priest who was his, and they came to Laish, to a people living undisturbed and feeling secure. They slaughtered them with the mouth of the sword and they burned the city with fire. ²⁸There was not a deliverer because it was far from Sidon, and there was no involvement for them with any man. It was in the valley that is near Beth Rehob. They rebuilt the city and they lived in it. ²⁹They called the name of the city Dan, in honor of the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel. However Laish was the name of the city at the first. ³⁰The sons of Dan raised up the carved image for themselves. Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manesseh, he along with his sons were priests for the tribe of the Danite until the day of the exile of the land. ³¹So they set up for themselves the carved image belonging to Micah that he had made, all the days of the house of the true God being at Shiloh.

¹Now it happened in those days, when there was no king over Israel, that there was a man, a Levite, sojourning in the remotest parts of the hill country of Ephraim. He took for himself a woman, a concubine, from Bethlehem in Judah. ²However, his concubine played the harlot against him and she went away from being with him to the house of her father, to Bethlehem in Judah. She was there for a period of days, four months. ³Then her husband rose up and he went after her, to speak to her heart, in order to persuade to return to him. His young man was with him, and a team of donkeys. She brought him into the house of her father, and when the father of the young woman saw him, he was glad to meet him. ⁴His father-in-law, the father of the young woman, prevailed against him so he stayed with him three days. They ate and they drank, and they spent the night there. ⁵Now it happened on the fourth day that they got up early in the morning and he rose up to go, however the father of the young woman said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen your heart with a piece of bread, then afterwards you shall go." ⁶So the two of them sat down and they ate together, and they drank. Then the father of the young woman said to the man, "Please be willing and spend the night and your heart will be glad." ⁷Then the man rose up in order to leave, however his father-in-law urged him. So he stayed and he spent the night there. ⁸He got up early in the morning on the fifth day in order to leave, but the father of the young woman said, "Please strengthen your heart." So they lingered until the turning aside of the day, and the two of them ate. ⁹When the man rose up to go, he and his concubine and his young man, his father-in-law, the father of the young woman said to him, "Look, please, the day has drawn toward evening. Please stay the night. See, the day is declining. Spend the night here and your heart will be glad. Then make an early start tomorrow for your journey and go to your tent."

¹⁰But the man was not willing to spend the night. So he got up and he left. He came as far as the region opposite Jebus, that is Jerusalem. Now with him was a team of donkeys equipped for riding, and also his concubine was with him. ¹¹They were near Jebus, and the daylight had greatly diminished. So the young man said to his master, "Come, please, we should turn aside into this city of the Jebusite so we can spend the night in it." ¹²However his master said to him, "We will not turn aside into a city of a foreigner, where there are none here from the sons of Israel. Instead we will pass by until reaching Gibeah." ¹³Then he said to his young man, "Come, let us draw near to one of these places, and we will spend the night in either Gibeah or in Ramah." ¹⁴So they passed by and they went on. But the sun went down with regard to them in proximity to the region of Gibeah, which belonged to Benjamin. ¹⁵As a result they turned aside there to come in to spend the night in the Gibeah area. They came in and they sat down in the open plaza of the city, but no one was receiving them into the house to spend the night.

¹⁶Now, look, an old man was coming from his work, from the field at the evening. The man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was sojourning in the Gibeah area. But the men of the place were Benjamite. ¹⁷He raised his eyes and he saw the traveling man in the open plaza of the city. Then the old man said, "Where are you going and from where are you coming?" ¹⁸He said to him, "We are passing through from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim. I am from there. I went to Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to the house of Yahweh. However there is no one receiving me into the house. ¹⁹Moreover, there is straw, also fodder for our donkeys. There is even bread and wine for me and for your maidservant, and for the young man with your servants. There is no lack of anything." ²⁰The old man said, "Peace to you! Surely all of your need is upon me. Only you must not spend the night in the open plaza.” ²¹So he brought him into his house and he poured out feed for the donkeys. They washed their feet and they ate and they drank.

²²They were making their heart glad, but look, the men of the city, men of sons of wickedness, had encircled themselves around the house, pounding repeatedly on the door. They said to the old man, the master of the house, saying, “Bring out the man who came to your house, so we will know him.” ²³The man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, “No, my brothers, please you must not act wickedly! Seeing that this man has come into my house, you must not do this disgraceful thing! ²⁴Here is my virgin daughter and his concubine. Please let me bring them out so you can violate them and do to them what is good in your eyes. But to this man do not do this wicked thing!” ²⁵But the men were not willing to listen to him, so the man seized his concubine and made her go forth to them who were outside. They knew her and they abused her the whole night until the morning. Then they sent her away at the rising of the dawn. ²⁶The woman came at the changing of the morning and she fell down at the entrance of the house of the man where her master was there, until the daylight.

²⁷Her master rose up in the morning and he opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way. But look, the woman, his concubine had fallen at the entrance of the house, and her hands were on the threshold. ²⁸He said to her, “Get up and let us go!” But there was no answering, so he took her on the donkey. Thus the man rose up and he went to his place. ²⁹When he came to his house, he took the knife, and he seized his concubine, and he cut her in pieces to her bones, into twelve pieces, and he sent her into all of the territory of Israel. ³⁰Now it would happen, everyone who saw it said, “Nothing has happened and never has been seen anything like this from the day of the coming up of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt until this day. Consider about it for yourselves! Make a plan and speak up!”

¹Then all of the sons of Israel came forth, and the company was assembled as one man, from Dan and as far as Beersheba and the land of Gilead, before Yahweh at Mizpah. ²The leaders of all of the people, of all of the tribes of Israel, stationed themselves among the company of the people of the true God, four hundred thousand, each a footsoldier wielding a sword. ³Now the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to Mizpah. Then the sons of Israel said, “Explain how this wicked thing has been brought about.” ⁴So the Levite man, the husband of the woman who had been murdered, answered. He said, “I came, myself and my concubine, to the Gibeah region that belongs to Benjamin, to spend the night. ⁵The citizens of the Gibeah region rose up against me. They surrounded the house at night because of me. They intended to kill me. Instead they assaulted my concubine so that she died. ⁶I took back my concubine and cut her in pieces, and I sent her out into every territory of the inheritance of Israel, because they have committed a heinous crime and a disgrace in Israel. ⁷Look, all of you sons of Israel, decide for yourselves advice and a plan here.”

⁸All of the people rose up as one man, saying, “We will not go back, each one to his tent, and we will not return, each one to his house! ⁹Instead now this is the thing that we should do to the Gibeah region, against it by lot. ¹⁰We will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and one hundred of a thousand, and one thousand of ten thousand, to get provision for the people, in order to do at their coming to Gibeah in Benjamin, according to all the disgrace that it committed in Israel.” ¹¹So every man of Israel was assembled against the city, as one man, united companions.

¹²The tribes of Israel sent men into all the tribes of Benjamin, saying, “What is this wickedness that has been done among you? ¹³Therefore, now, give over the men, the sons of worthlessness, who are in the region of Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and thus we may incinerate evil out of Israel.” But they were not willing, Benjamin, to heed the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel. ¹⁴Then the sons of Benjamin assembled themselves out of the cities to the region of Gibeah, coming out to the battle against the sons of Israel. ¹⁵The sons of Benjamin mobilized together from the cities on that day twenty-six thousand men wielding a sword. In addition, out of the inhabitants of the Gibeah region seven hundred chosen men had been mobilized. ¹⁶Among all of these people were seven hundred chosen men, impeded in his right hand, each of whom could sling with a stone at a specific hair and he would not miss.

¹⁷The men of Israel, besides Benjamin, mustered up for themselves four hundred thousand men wielding a sword, all of whom were men of war. ¹⁸Then they arose and they went up to Bethel. The sons of Israel asked God and they said, "Who should go up for us at the beginning to the battle with the sons of Benjamin?" Yahweh directed, "It shall be Judah at the beginning."

¹⁹So the sons of Israel arose in the morning and they encamped near the region of Gibeah. ²⁰The men of Israel went forth to the battle against Benjamin. The men of Israel set themselves up for a battle against those in Gibeah. ²¹But the sons of Benjamin came forth out of the Gibeah region, and they struck down among Israel twenty-two thousand men to the ground on that day. ²²However the people, the men of Israel, strengthened themselves and they continued to set up for battle at the place where they had set up there on the first day. ²³Then the sons of Israel went up and they wept before Yahweh until evening. They asked Yahweh, saying, "Should I continue to attack, to the battle against the sons of Benjamin, my brother?" Yahweh replied, "Go up against him!"

²⁴So the sons of Israel drew near to the sons of Benjamin on the second day. ²⁵Benjamin came forth to confront them from the Gibeah region on the second day, and against the sons of Israel they struck down to the ground another eighteen thousand men. All of these were wielders of a sword. ²⁶Then the sons of Israel and all the people went up and they came to Bethel. They wept, and they sat there before Yahweh. They fasted on that day until the evening, then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Yahweh. ²⁷The sons of Israel asked Yahweh, for the ark of the covenant of the true God was there in those days, ²⁸when Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, was serving before it in those days, saying, "Should I continue to go forth to the battle once more against the sons of Benjamin, my brother, or should I stop?" Yahweh said, "Go up, for tomorrow I will give him into your hand."

²⁹So Israel set groups in ambush around the Gibeah region on all sides. ³⁰The sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day, and they set up for battle against the Gibeah region as was time after time. ³¹The sons of Benjamin went forth to confront the people. They were lured away from the city, and they began to strike down some of the people. About thirty men of Israel were slain as was the other time on the roads, of which one went up to Bethel, and one went to the Gibeah region through the field. ³²Then the sons of Benjamin said, "They have been defeated before us, just as at the first." But the sons of Israel said, "Let us flee so that we will draw him away from the city to the roads." ³³Then every man of Israel rose up out of his place and they set up battle lines at Baal Tamar. The one hiding in ambush of Israel burst forth out of his place from Maareh Gibeah. ³⁴Ten thousand men, chosen out of all Israel came out in the sight of the Gibeah region, and the battle was heavy. But they did not know that this calamity was coming near to them. ³⁵Thus Yahweh defeated Benjamin before Israel. The sons of Israel destroyed Benjamin on that day, twenty five thousand one hundred men, everyone of those were wielding a sword.

³⁶So the sons of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. The men of Israel had given a place to Benjamin, because they were confident in the group hiding in ambush that they had placed around the Gibeah region. ³⁷Then the group hiding in ambush hurried and they spread out around the Gibeah region. The group hiding in ambush marched out and it struck all of the city with the edge of the sword. ³⁸Now there was the prearranged plan for the men of Israel on behalf of the group hiding in ambush: load up so that they would send the rising column of the smoke up out of the city, ³⁹when the men of Israel retreated from the battle. Then Benjamin began to attack, among the men of Israel about thirty men were slain. For they said, "Surely he is absolutely defeated before us, as in the first battle." ⁴⁰But when the signal began to rise up out of the city, a pillar of smoke, then Benjamin retreated away from it. Indeed, look, the entirety of the city had gone up to the heavens. ⁴¹Then the men of Israel turned back. Each man of Benjamin was horrified, for he saw that the calamity had come upon them. ⁴²So they retreated before the men of Israel to the way of the wilderness, but the fighting overtook him. Meanwhile those coming out from the cities were destroying him in the very midst of him. ⁴³They surrounded Benjamin, they put him to flight. With ease they trampled him down as far as opposite the Gibeah region, in the direction of the rising sun. ⁴⁴They fell from Benjamin, eighteen thousand men, all of these were men of valor. ⁴⁵Then they turned and they fled to the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon. They gleaned along the pathways five thousand men. They pursued closely after him as far as Gidom, and they struck down from him two thousand more men. ⁴⁶So it happened that all of the fallen ones of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand men wielding a sword, on that day. All of these were men of valor. ⁴⁷But six hundred men turned back and they fled to the wilderness, toward the rock of Rimmon. They stayed at the rock of Rimmon four months. ⁴⁸Then the men of Israel returned to the sons of Benjamin. They struck them down with the edge of the sword, even a city in entirety, including cattle as well as everything that was found. Also all of the cities that were found, they set on fire.

¹Now each man of Israel bound himself by an oath at Mizpah, saying, "Everyone of us shall not give his daughter to Benjamin for a wife." ²Then the people came to Bethel and they sat there until the evening before the true God. They lifted up their voices and they wept, a loud weeping. ³They said, "Why, O Yahweh, God of Israel, has this happened to Israel, to be missing today one tribe from Israel?" ⁴Now it happened the next day that the people rose up early and they built an altar there and they offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings. ⁵The sons of Israel said, "Who is it that did not go up with the assembly out of all the tribes of Israel to Yahweh?" For the great oath was against whoever did not go up to Yahweh at Mizpah, saying, "Surely he must be put to death." ⁶The sons of Israel were moved to pity towards Benjamin, his brother. They said, "Today one tribe has been hewn down from Israel. ⁷What can we do for them, for the ones remaining, for a wife, since we have put ourselves under an oath to Yahweh to not give to them from our daughters for a wife?"

¹³The entire assembly reached out and they spoke to the sons of Benjamin who were at the rock of Rimmon, and they proclaimed peace to them. ¹⁴Benjamin returned at that time and they gave to them the women who were alive from the women of Jabesh Gilead. But they had not found sufficient for them. ¹⁵Now the people were sorry for Benjamin, because Yahweh had made a breach between the tribes of Israel.

¹⁶Then the elders of the assembly said, "How can we provide wives for the remaining ones, since women from Benjamin have been exterminated?" ¹⁷They said, "There must be an inheritance for the escaped remnant of Benjamin, so that a tribe is not blotted out from Israel. ¹⁸But we are not able to give them wives from our daughters, because the sons of Israel are bound to an oath, saying, 'Cursed is anyone who gives a wife to Benjamin.'" ¹⁹So they said, "Look, there is a feast for Yahweh from time to time at Shiloh, which is on the north of Bethel, to the direction of the rising of the sun on the road that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah." ²⁰They instructed the sons of Benjamin, saying, "Go and wait in hiding in the vineyards. ²¹You must watch, and look when the daughters of Shilo are coming forth to dance in the dances, then you come forth out of the vineyards. You will catch for yourselves, each one his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and then you can go back to the land of Benjamin. ²²It will happen, when their fathers or their brothers come out to argue with us, that we will say to them, 'Give them freely to us, because we did not take for each man his wife in the battle. Since you did not give them at that time, you would be guilty.'" ²³The sons of Benjamin did so. They carried off wives sufficient for their number from the ones who were dancing, who they snatched away. Then they went and they returned to their inheritance. They rebuilt the cities and they lived in them. ²⁴Then the sons of Israel disbursed themselves from there at that time, each one to his tribe and to his family. Thus they went away from there each one to his inheritance.

²⁵In those days there was not a king in Israel. Each one would do what was right in his own eyes.

Ruth

Chapter 1

¹Now it happened in the days of the ruling of the judges that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man from Bethlehem of Judah went to live in the fields of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons. ²And the name of the man was Elimelek, and the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. All of them were Ephrathites from Bethlehem of Judah. So they traveled to the fields of Moab and lived there.

⁶Then she and her daughters-in-law arose to return from the fields of Moab, for she had heard in a field of Moab that Yahweh had visited his people, giving them bread. ⁷So she went out from the place where she had been living, and her two daughters-in-law were with her. And they traveled down the road to return to the land of Judah.

⁸Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return, each woman to the house of her mother. May Yahweh act with you in covenant faithfulness as you have acted with the dead and with me. ⁹May Yahweh grant to you that you shall find rest, each woman in the house of her husband." Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and cried.

¹⁰But they said to her, "Rather, we will return with you to your people."

¹¹But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters! Why would you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb, that they may become husbands for you? ¹²Turn back, my daughters, go! For I am too old to belong to a husband. If I said I have hope, and if I belonged to a husband even tonight, and even if I would give birth to sons, ¹³would you therefore wait until the time when they are grown? Would you for this reason keep yourselves from belonging to a husband? No, my daughters! For it is exceedingly bitter for me, more than for you, that the hand of Yahweh has gone out against me."

¹⁴Then they lifted up their voices and cried again. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

¹⁵Then she said, "Look, your sister-in-law has turned back to her people and to her gods. Go back after your sister-in-law."

¹⁶But Ruth said, "Do not press me to forsake you or to turn back from following you. For I will go to the place where you go, and I will stay in the place where you stay. Your people are my people, and your God is my God. ¹⁷In the place where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May Yahweh do thus to me, and thus may he add, if death separates between me and between you."

¹⁸Then she saw that she was determined to go with her, and she refrained from speaking to her.

¹⁹So the two of them traveled until they came to Bethlehem. And it happened that, as soon as they came to Bethlehem, the entire town was very excited on account of them. And the women said, "Is this Naomi?"

²⁰But she said to them, "Do not call me Naomi. Call me Mara, for the Almighty has acted exceedingly bitterly to me.

²¹As for me, I went out full, but Yahweh has brought me back empty. Why would you call me Naomi? But as for Yahweh, he has testified against me, and the Almighty has done evil to me."

²²So Naomi returned, with Ruth the Moabite woman her daughter-in-law, with her, the woman who returned from the fields of Moab. And they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of the harvest of barley.

Chapter 2

¹Now Naomi had a relative of her husband, a man of great worth from the clan of Elimelek. And his name was Boaz.^[1]

²And Ruth, the Moabite woman, said to Naomi, "Please, I want to go to the field and glean heads of grain after the one in whose eyes I find favor."

And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."

³So she left and went to glean in the field after the reapers. And by chance, she came to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelek.

⁴Then behold, Boaz coming from Bethlehem! And he said to the reapers, "Yahweh be with you."

And they said to him, "May Yahweh bless you."

⁵Then Boaz said to his servant who was set over the reapers, "Who does this young woman belong to?"

⁶Then the servant who was set over the reapers answered and said, "She is a young Moabite woman, the woman who came back with Naomi from the land of Moab. ⁷And she said, 'Please let me glean and gather among the bundles of grain after the reapers.' And she came and has continued from then, in the morning, until now. This is her resting in the house a little."^[2]

⁸Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Will you not listen to me, my daughter? Do not go to glean in another field, and do not even go away from here. But do this: stick closely to my young female workers. ⁹Keep your eyes on the field where they are reaping and follow behind them. Have I not instructed the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the waterpots and drink from what the young men draw."

¹⁰Then she fell on her face and bowed down to the ground and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your eyes that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?"

¹¹Then Boaz answered and said to her, "Everything that you have done with your mother-in-law after the death of your husband has been fully reported to me. You left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and you came to a people whom you did not know the day before yesterday. ¹²May Yahweh reward your work, and may your full wages come from Yahweh, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge."

¹³Then she said, "May I find favor in your eyes, my lord, since you have comforted me, and since you have spoken to the heart of your female servant. But as for me, I am not even like one of your female servants."

¹⁴Then, at the time of the meal, Boaz said to her, "Come here, and eat from the bread, and dip your piece in the vinegar." So she sat beside the reapers, and he offered to her some roasted grain. And she ate, and she was satisfied, and she had some left over. ¹⁵Then she got up to glean. Then Boaz commanded his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the bundles, and do not shame her. ¹⁶Even be sure to pull some out from the bundles for her and leave it for her to glean, and do not rebuke her!"

¹⁷So she gleaned in the field until the evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley. ¹⁸And she lifted it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Then she took out what she had left over after she was satisfied, and she gave it to her.

¹⁹Then her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you glean today, and where did you work? May the one who noticed you be blessed."

Then she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked. And she said, "The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz."

²⁰Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May he be blessed by Yahweh, who has not forsaken his covenant faithfulness both with the living and with the dead." Naomi also said to her, "That man is closely related to us. He is one of our kinsman-redeemers."

²¹Then Ruth the Moabite woman said, "In addition, he said to me, 'You should keep close by the servants who belong to me until the time when they have finished all of the harvest that belongs to me.'"

²²Then Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young female workers, so that they do not harm you in any other field."

²³So she stayed close by the young female workers of Boaz to glean until the harvest of barley and the harvest of wheat were finished. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

2:1 ^[1]

2:7 ^[2]

Chapter 3

¹Then Naomi, her mother-in-law, said to her, "My daughter, should I not seek a resting place for you, that will be good for you? ²So now, is not Boaz our relative, the one with whose young female workers you have been working? Look, he will be winnowing barley at the threshing floor tonight. ³Now wash yourself, and anoint yourself, and put on your cloak, and go down to the threshing floor. Do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.^[1] ⁴And let it be that when he lies down, you know the exact place where he is lying. Then go and uncover his feet, and lie down. Then he, himself, will tell you what you should do."

⁵And she said to her, "Everything that you say, I will do."

⁶So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to everything that her mother-in-law had instructed her. ⁷And Boaz ate and drank, and his heart was good, and he went to lie down at the end of the pile of grain. Then she came secretly, and uncovered his feet, and lay down. ⁸Then it happened in the middle of the night that the man was startled and turned over. And behold, a woman was lying at his feet!

⁹And he said, "Who are you?"

Then she said, "I am Ruth, your female servant. And you can spread the edge of your cloak over your female servant, for you are a kinsman-redeemer."

¹⁰Then he said, "Blessed be you by Yahweh, my daughter! You have made your covenant faithfulness better at the end than at the beginning by not going after the young men, either poor or rich. ¹¹So now, my daughter, do not be afraid! Everything that you say, I will do for you; for the whole gate of my people knows that you are a woman of worth. ¹²And now, it is indeed true that I am a kinsman-redeemer, but there is a kinsman-redeemer even nearer than I. ¹³Stay here tonight. And when it is morning, if he will redeem you, good, let him redeem you. But if he does not want to redeem you, then I will redeem you myself, as Yahweh lives. Lie down until morning."

¹⁴So she lay at his feet until the morning, but she got up before a man could recognize his friend. And he said, "Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor."

¹⁵Then he said, "Bring the cloak that is on you, and hold it." So she held it. And he measured six measures of barley and put it on her. Then he went into the city.^[2]

¹⁶Then she came to her mother-in-law, and she said, "Who are you, my daughter?" Then she told her everything that the man had done for her.

¹⁷And she said, "He gave to me these six measures of barley, for he said, 'You must not go empty to your mother-in-law.'"

¹⁸Then she said, "Sit, my daughter, until the time when you know how the matter falls. For the man will not rest unless he has finished this matter today."

3:3 ^[1]

3:15 ^[2]

Chapter 4

¹Now Boaz had gone up to the gate and sat down there. And behold, the kinsman-redeemer was passing by, the same man about whom Boaz had spoken earlier. And he said, "Turn aside and sit down here, a certain someone." So he turned aside and sat down. ²Then he took ten men from the elders of the city and said, "Sit down here." So they sat down.

³Then he said to the kinsman-redeemer, "Naomi, the woman who has returned from the fields of Moab, is selling the portion of the field that belonged to our brother Elimelek. ⁴Now as for me, I said that I should uncover your ear, saying, 'Buy it,' in the presence of those who are sitting here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it. But if you will not redeem it, then tell me so that I may know, for there is no one to redeem it besides you, and I am after you."

Then he said, "I will redeem it myself."^{[1][2]}

⁶Then the kinsman-redeemer said, "I am not able to redeem it for myself without damaging my own inheritance. You redeem for yourself my right of redemption, for I am not able to redeem it." ⁷Now, in earlier times in Israel, this is how any matter was confirmed concerning redemption and concerning the exchange of goods: a man took off his sandal and gave it to his friend. So this was the form of legal agreement in Israel. ⁸So the kinsman-redeemer said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself," and he took off his sandal.

⁹Then Boaz said to the elders and to all the people, "You are witnesses today that I am buying from the hand of Naomi everything that belonged to Elimelek and everything that belonged to Kilion and Mahlon. ¹⁰And Ruth, the Moabite woman, the widow of Mahlon, I am also acquiring as my wife, in order to raise up the name of the dead man over his inheritance, so that the name of the dead man will not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place. Today you are witnesses!"

¹¹And all the people who were in the gate and the elders said, "We are witnesses. May Yahweh make this woman who is coming into your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built up the house of Israel. Achieve honor in Ephrathah, and be renowned in Bethlehem! ¹²And may your house become like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, from the offspring that Yahweh gives you from this young woman."

¹³So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife, and he went in to her. Then Yahweh gave her conception, and she bore a son.

¹⁴Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be Yahweh, who has not left you today without a kinsman-redeemer. May his name be renowned in Israel! ¹⁵Now he will be for you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age. For your daughter-in-law, who loves you, has borne him—she who is better to you than seven sons."

16And Naomi took the child and put him on her lap, and she became his nurse. 17So the neighbor women called out a name for him, saying, "A son has been born to Naomi." And they called his name Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18Now these are the generations of Perez: Perez fathered Hezron; 19and Hezron fathered Ram; and Ram fathered Amminadab; 20and Amminadab fathered Nahshon; and Nahshon fathered Salmon; 21and Salmon fathered Boaz; and Boaz fathered Obed; 22and Obed fathered Jesse; and Jesse fathered David.

Chapter 1

¹Now there was one man from the Ramathaim, the Zuphites, from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.^[1] ²And for him were two wives: the name of the first was Hannah and the name of the second was Peninnah. And it happened that for Peninnah were children, but for Hannah there were no children. ³And that man went up from his city from days to days to worship and to sacrifice to Yahweh of hosts in Shiloh. And the two of the sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests of Yahweh, were there. ⁴And it happened the day when Elkanah sacrificed that he gave portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and her daughters. ⁵But to Hannah he would give one portion of two faces, for he loved Hannah. (Now Yahweh had shut her womb.) ⁶And her rival would provoke her, even with provocation in order to cause her to thunder, because Yahweh had shut up her womb. ⁷And thus it would be year by year, as often as she went up in the house of Yahweh, thus she would provoke her. And she would weep and would not eat. ⁸And Elkanah her husband would say to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart displeased? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

⁹And Hannah got up after eating and after drinking in Shiloh. (Now Eli the priest was sitting upon the seat by the doorway to the temple of Yahweh.) ¹⁰And she was bitter of spirit, and she prayed to Yahweh and wept abundantly. ¹¹And she vowed a vow and said, "Yahweh of hosts, if you will indeed look on the affliction of your female servant and remember me, and not forget your female servant, and give to your female servant a seed of men, then I will give him to Yahweh all the days of his life, and a razor will not go up on his head."

¹²And it happened when she increased to pray before the face of Yahweh that Eli was watching her mouth. ¹³Now Hannah, she was speaking to her heart, only her lips were quivering and her voice was not heard. So Eli thought of her as drunk. ¹⁴And Eli said to her, "Until when will you make yourself drunk? Remove your wine from with you!" ¹⁵And Hannah answered and said, "No, my master, a woman difficult of spirit am I. And wine and intoxicating drink I have not drunk, but I have been pouring out my soul before the face of Yahweh. ¹⁶Do not give your female servant to the face of a daughter of worthlessness. For I have been speaking from the abundance of my complaint and my provocation until now." ¹⁷And Eli answered and said, "Go in peace. And may the God of Israel grant your request that you requested from with him." ¹⁸And she said, "May your female servant find favor in your eyes." And the woman went to her way and she ate. And her face was no longer against her.

²¹And the man Elkanah and all his house went up to sacrifice to Yahweh the sacrifice of the days and his vow. ²²But Hannah did not go up. For she had said to her husband, "Until the boy is weaned, then I will bring him. And he will appear with the face of Yahweh and dwell there until eternity." ²³And Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do the good thing in your eyes. Stay until you have weaned him. Only, may Yahweh raise up his word." And the woman stayed and nursed her son until she weaned him. ²⁴And she brought him up with her when she had weaned him, with three bulls and one ephah of flour and a skin of wine. And she brought him to the house of Yahweh in Shiloh. (Now the boy was a boy.) ²⁵And they slaughtered the bull. And they brought the boy to Eli. ²⁶And she said, "Please, my master! As your spirit is alive, my master! I am the woman who was standing with you at here to pray to Yahweh. ²⁷For this boy I prayed and Yahweh gave to me my request which I had requested from with him. ²⁸And also I have lent him to Yahweh all the days that he is lent to Yahweh." And he worshiped Yahweh there.

1:1 ^[1] but it is understood that really refers to the region in which the clan descended from Zuph resided.

Chapter 2

¹And Hannah prayed and said,

“My heart exults in Yahweh.

My horn is exalted in Yahweh.

My mouth is wide against my enemies.

For I rejoice in your salvation.

²There is no one holy like Yahweh.

Indeed, there is no one besides you.

And there is no rock like our God.

³Do not speak so much very proudly!

Let arrogance go out from your mouth.

For Yahweh is a God of knowledge.

And by him actions are weighed.

⁴Mighty men are shattered of bow.

But those who stumble gird on strength.

⁵The satisfied ones hired themselves out for bread, but the hungry ones cease.

Even the barren woman bears seven,

but the woman of many sons languishes.

⁶Yahweh puts to death and brings to life, brings down to Sheol and brings up.

⁷Yahweh makes poor and makes rich, makes low, but also lifts up.

⁸Raising the lowly from the dust, he lifts up the needy from the trash heap to make sit with nobles and causes them to inherit the seat of honor.

For the pillars of the earth are for Yahweh and he has set the world on them.

⁹He will keep the feet of his loyal ones, but the wicked ones will be silenced in the darkness.

For not by strength does a man prevail.

¹⁰By Yahweh the ones who oppose him will be shattered.

He makes thunder against him in the heavens.

Yahweh will judge the ends of the earth.

And he will give strength to his king and lift up the horn of his anointed one."

¹¹And Elkanah went to the Ramah, to his house. And the boy was serving Yahweh with the face of Eli the priest.

¹²Now the sons of Eli were sons of worthlessness. They did not know Yahweh. ¹³And the custom of the priests with the people was: when any man was sacrificing a sacrifice, then the servant of the priest would come with a fork of three prongs in his hand as soon as the meat was boiling. ¹⁴And he would stick it into the pan, or into the kettle, or into the cauldron, or into the pot. All that the fork brought up the priest would take with him. Thus they did to all Israel, the ones who came there at Shiloh. ¹⁵Also, before they burned the fat, the servant of the priest would come, and he would say to the man who was sacrificing, "Give meat to roast for the priest. And he will not take boiled meat from you, but only living." ¹⁶And the man would say to him, "Let them burn the fat completely as the day, then take for yourself what your self desires," And he would say, "No, rather now you will give it; and if not, I will take it by force." ¹⁷And the sin of the young men was very great with the face of Yahweh. For the men spurned the offering of Yahweh.

¹⁸And Samuel was serving with the face of Yahweh, a boy girded with an ephod of linen. ¹⁹And his mother would make a small robe for him and she would bring it to him from days to days, when she came up with her husband to sacrifice the sacrifice of the days. ²⁰And Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and would say, "May Yahweh set seed from this woman for you in place of the request that he requested to Yahweh." And they would go to his place.

²¹Because Yahweh visited Hannah, she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew with Yahweh.

²²Now Eli was very old. And he heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel and that they were lying with the women who were serving at the opening of the Tent of Meeting. ²³And he said to them, "Why do you do like these things that I am hearing, your evil things, from with all these people? ²⁴No, my sons! For the report is not good that I am hearing the people of Yahweh passing on. ²⁵If a man sins against a man, then God will mediate for him; but if a man sins against Yahweh, who will intercede for him?" And they would not listen to the voice of their father, for Yahweh desired to put them to death. ²⁶Now the boy Samuel was going and growing, and good, both with Yahweh and also with men.

²⁷And a man of God came to Eli and said to him, "Thus says Yahweh, 'Did I clearly reveal myself to the house of your father, when they were in Egypt for the house of Pharaoh? ²⁸And I chose him from all the tribes of Israel to be for me for a priest, to bring up on my altar, to burn incense, to carry an ephod before my face. And I gave to the house of your father all the offerings made by fire of the sons of Israel. ²⁹Why do you kick at my sacrifice and at my offering that I commanded for the Dwelling, and honor your sons more than me by fattening yourselves from the first of every offering of Israel, of my people?' ³⁰Therefore, this is the declaration of Yahweh the God of Israel: 'I indeed said your house and the house of your father would walk about before my face until eternity.' But now this is the declaration of Yahweh: 'Far be it for me! For I will honor those who honor me, but those who despise me will be slighted. ³¹Behold, the days are coming when I will cut off your arm and the arm of the house of your father from there being an old man in your house. ³²And you will see the distress of the Dwelling, in all that he will do good with Israel. And there will not be an old man in your house all the days. ³³But I will not cut off a man from near my altar for you, to cause your eyes to fail and to cause your spirit to grieve. But all the increase of your house will die as men. ³⁴And this is the sign for you that will come to the two of your sons, to Hophni and Phinehas: in one day the two of them will die. ³⁵And I will raise up for myself a priest who is faithful. He will do just as is in my heart and in my self. And I will build for him a house that is faithful; and he will walk before the face of my anointed one all the days. ³⁶And it will happen that all the ones who remain in your house will come to bow down to him for a payment of silver and a round loaf of bread. And he will say, "Please assign me to one of the priestly positions to eat a bit of bread."

Chapter 3

¹Now the boy Samuel was serving Yahweh before the face of Eli. And the word of Yahweh was rare in those days; there was no widespread vision. ²And it happened in that day, that Eli was lying down in his place. And his eyes had begun to be dim; he was not able to see. ³And before the lamp of God had gone out Samuel was lying down in the temple of Yahweh, there where the Box of God was.

⁴And Yahweh called to Samuel. And he said, "Here I am." ⁵And he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called to me." And he said, "I did not call. Go back, lie down." And he went and lay down. ⁶And Yahweh did again call again, "Samuel." And Samuel rose and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called to me." And he said, "I did not call, my son. Go back, lie down." ⁷(Now it was before Samuel knew Yahweh, and before the word of Yahweh had been revealed to him.) ⁸And Yahweh did again call Samuel at the third time. And he rose and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called to me." And Eli understood that Yahweh was calling to the boy. ⁹And Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down. And it will happen that, if he calls to you, then you shall say, 'Speak, Yahweh, for your servant is listening.'" And Samuel went and lay down in his place. ¹⁰And Yahweh came and stationed himself and called as time on time, "Samuel, Samuel." And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

¹¹And Yahweh said to Samuel, "Behold, I am about to do a thing in Israel that everyone who hears it, the two of his ears will tingle. ¹²In that day I will raise against Eli all that I have spoken against his house, beginning and ending. ¹³And I have told him that I am about to judge his house until eternity because of the iniquity that he knew. For his sons were cursing against themselves and he did not rebuke them. ¹⁴And therefore, I have sworn to the house of Eli: The iniquity of the house of Eli will not be covered by sacrifice or by offering until eternity." ¹⁵And Samuel lay down until the morning, and he opened the doors of the house of Yahweh. And Samuel was afraid of telling the vision to Eli. ¹⁶And Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son." And he said, "Here I am." ¹⁷And he said, "What is the word that he spoke to you? Do not hide it from me! Thus may God do to you and thus may he add, if you hide from me a word of all the word that he spoke to you." ¹⁸And Samuel told him all the words, and did not hide it from him. And he said, "It is Yahweh. May he do the good in his eyes."

¹⁹And Samuel grew. And Yahweh was with him and he did not cause any of his words to fall to the ground. ²⁰And all Israel from Dan and as far as Beersheba knew that Samuel was faithful as a prophet of Yahweh. ²¹And Yahweh continued to appear in Shiloh. For Yahweh revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of Yahweh.

Chapter 4

¹And the word of Samuel was to all Israel.

And Israel went out to meet the Philistines for the battle. And they camped at Ebenezer and the Philistines camped at Aphek. ²And the Philistines lined up to meet Israel and the battle spread and Israel was defeated before the face of the Philistines. And they struck down about 4,000 men in the battle line in the field.^[1] ³And the people came into the camp and the elders of Israel said, "Why did Yahweh strike us today before the face of the Philistines? Let us take for ourselves the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh from Shiloh. And it will come in our midst and it will save us from the palm of our enemies." ⁴And the people sent to Shiloh and from there they lifted the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh of hosts, who sits on the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the Box of the Covenant of God.

⁵And it happened as soon as the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh came into the camp, that all Israel shouted a great shout. And the earth resounded. ⁶And the Philistines heard the sound of the shout, and they said, "What is the sound of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews?" Then they knew that the Box of Yahweh had come into the camp. ⁷And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, "A god has come into the camp." And they said, "Woe to us! For it was not like this yesterday and three days ago! ⁸Woe to us! Who will rescue us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are they: the gods who struck the Egyptians with every plague in the wilderness. ⁹Strengthen yourselves and become men, Philistines, lest you serve for the Hebrews, just as they have served for you. Now become men and fight!" ¹⁰And the Philistines fought, and Israel was struck and fled, a man to his tent, and it was a very great blow. And 30,000 foot soldiers from Israel fell. ¹¹And the Box of God was taken. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

¹²And a man of Benjamin ran from the battle line and came to Shiloh on that day. And his clothing was torn and earth was on his head. ¹³And he came, and behold, Eli was sitting on the seat at the hand of the road watching because his heart was trembling concerning the Box of God. Now the man came to report in the city, and all the city cried out. ¹⁴And Eli heard the sound of the outcry, and he said, "What is the sound of this tumult?" And the man hurried and came and reported to Eli. ¹⁵Now Eli was a son of 98 years. And his eyes were set and he was not able to see. ¹⁶And the man said to Eli, "I am the one who has come from the battle line. As for me, I fled from the battle line today." And he said, "What was the matter, my son?" ¹⁷And the one who brought news answered and said, "Israel fled before the face of the Philistines. And also, there has been a great blow among the people. And also, the two of your sons, Hophni and Phinehas, died, and the Box of God was taken." ¹⁸And it happened, as soon as he mentioned the Box of God, that he fell backward from on the seat beside the hand of the gate. And his neck was broken and he died, because the man was old and heavy. And he had judged Israel 40 years.

¹⁹Now his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant, about to give birth. And she heard the news about the Box of God being taken and that her father-in-law and her husband died. And she knelt down and gave birth, for her pains had turned on her. ²⁰And about the time of her dying, the women who stood over her said, "Do not be afraid, for you have given birth to a son." But she did not answer and did not put her heart. ²¹And she called the boy Ichabod, saying, "The glory has departed from Israel!" about the Box of God being taken, and about her father-in-law and her husband. ²²And she said, "The glory has departed from Israel, because the Box of God has been taken."

Chapter 5

¹Now the Philistines had taken the Box of God. And they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. ²And the Philistines took the Box of God, and brought it to the house of Dagon. And they placed it beside Dagon. ³And the Ashdodites rose early on the next day, and behold, Dagon had fallen to his face to the ground before the face of the Box of Yahweh! And they took Dagon and returned him to his place. ⁴And they rose early in the morning on the next day, and behold, Dagon had fallen to his face to the ground before the face of the Box of Yahweh! And the head of Dagon and the two of the palms of his hands were cut off, on the threshold. Only Dagon was left on him.

⁶And the hand of Yahweh was heavy on the Ashdodites and he devastated them. And he struck them with tumors, Ashdod and its territories. ⁷And the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, and they said, "The Box of the God of Israel should not stay with us because his hand is hard on us and on Dagon our god." ⁸And they sent and gathered all of the rulers of the Philistines to them. And they said, "What should we do with the Box of the God of Israel?" And they said, "Let the Box of the God of Israel be brought around to Gath." And they brought around the Box of the God of Israel.

⁹And it happened after they brought it around, that the hand of Yahweh was on the city, a very great tumult. And he struck the men of the city from small and as far as great. And tumors broke out to them. ¹⁰And they sent the Box of God to Ekron. And it happened as soon as the Box of God entered Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, "They have brought around to me the Box of the God of Israel to put me and my people to death!" ¹¹And they sent and gathered all the rulers of the Philistines. And they said, "Send away the Box of the God of Israel, and let it return to its place, and it will not put me and my people to death." For there was a tumult of death in all the city. The hand of God was very heavy there. ¹²And the men who did not die were struck with the tumors. And the cry of the city went up to the heavens.

¹And the Box of Yahweh was in the field of the Philistines seven months. ²And the Philistines called to the priests and to the ones who practice divination, saying, "What should we do for the Box of Yahweh? Make known to us with what we should send it away to its place." ³And they said, "If you are about to send away the Box of the God of Israel, do not send it away empty, but surely return to him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why his hand has not turned aside from you." ⁴And they said, "What is the guilt offering that we should return to him?" And they said, "Five tumors of gold and five mice of gold, from the number of the rulers of the Philistines, for one plague was for all of them and for your rulers. ⁵And you shall make images of your tumors and images of your mice, the ones destroying the land, and you shall give glory to the God of Israel. Perhaps he will lighten his hand from on you and from on your gods and from on your land. ⁶And why do you make heavy your heart, just as the Egyptians and Pharaoh made their heart heavy? When he dealt severely with them, did they not send them away and they went? ⁷So now, take and make one new cart with two nursing cows on which a yoke has not gone up. And tie the cows to the cart and return their sons from behind them to the house. ⁸And take the Box of Yahweh and put it into the cart, and set the objects of gold that you are returning to him as a guilt offering in the box by its side. And send it away and it will go. ⁹And look; if it goes up the way of its own territory, Beth Shemesh, he has done this great evil to us. But if not, then we will know that his hand did not strike us. It happened to us by chance."

¹⁰And the men did thus, and they took two nursing cows, and tied them to the cart. But they shut up their sons in the house. ¹¹And they set the Box of Yahweh into the cart with the box and the mice of gold and the images of their tumors. ¹²And the cows went straight in the way, on the road of Beth Shemesh. They went in one highway, going and lowing, and they did not turn aside right or left. And the rulers of the Philistines were going after them as far as the border of Beth Shemesh. ¹³Now Beth Shemesh was reaping the harvest of wheat in the valley. And they lifted up their eyes and saw the Box, and they rejoiced to see it. ¹⁴And the cart came into the field of Joshua the Bethshemite and stood there, and a large stone was there. And they split the wood pieces of the cart, and offered up the cows as a burnt up offering to Yahweh.

¹⁵And the Levites brought down the Box of Yahweh and the box that was with it, in which was the objects of gold, and they set them on the large stone. And the men of Beth Shemesh offered up burnt up offerings and sacrificed sacrifices on that day to Yahweh. ¹⁶And the five rulers of the Philistines saw and returned to Ekron on that day.

¹⁷And these are the tumors of gold which the Philistines returned as a guilt offering to Yahweh: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron. ¹⁸And the mice of gold were from the number of all the cities of the Philistines of the five rulers, from the cities of fortification and as far as the villages of the open country, and as far as the great Abel on which they rested the Box of Yahweh. It is in the field of Joshua the Bethshemite until this day. ¹⁹And he struck among the men of Beth Shemesh because they had looked in the Box of Yahweh. And he struck 50,070 men among the people. And the people mourned because Yahweh had stricken a great blow among the people.^[1] ²⁰And the men of Beth Shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before the face of Yahweh, this holy God? And to whom will he go up from on us?" ²¹And they sent messengers to those dwelling in Kiriath Jearim, saying, "The Philistines have returned the Box of Yahweh; come down and bring it up to you."

6:19 ^[1], a few later copies and modern versions have, .

Chapter 7

¹And the men of Kiriath Jearim came and lifted up the Box of Yahweh, and brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill. And they consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the Box of Yahweh.

²And it happened from the day of the dwelling of the Box in Kiriath Jearim, that the days were numerous, and they were 20 years. And all the house of Israel lamented after Yahweh. ³And Samuel said to all the house of Israel, saying "If you are going to return to Yahweh with all your heart, remove the gods of the foreigner and the Ashtoreths from your midst. And make firm your heart to Yahweh, and serve him alone, then he will rescue you from the hand of the Philistines." ⁴And the sons of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtoreths. And they served Yahweh alone.

⁵And Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to the Mizpah. And I will pray for you to Yahweh." ⁶And they gathered at the Mizpah, and drew water and poured it out before the face of Yahweh. And they fasted on that day and said there, "We have sinned against Yahweh." And Samuel judged the sons of Israel in the Mizpah. ⁷And the Philistines heard that the sons of Israel had gathered at the Mizpah, and the rulers of the Philistines went up against Israel. And the sons of Israel heard, and they were afraid because of the face of the Philistines. ⁸And the sons of Israel said to Samuel, "Do not be silent from us, from crying out to Yahweh our God! And may he save us from the hand of the Philistines." ⁹And Samuel took one lamb of milk and he offered it up, a whole burnt up offering to Yahweh. And Samuel cried out to Yahweh for Israel, and Yahweh answered him. ¹⁰(Now Samuel was offering up the burnt up offering, and the Philistines approached for the battle with Israel.) And Yahweh thundered with a great sound on that day against the Philistines and confused them, and they were struck before the face of Israel. ¹¹And the men of Israel went out from the Mizpah, and they pursued the Philistines and struck them down as far as below Beth Kar.

¹²And Samuel took one stone and set it between the Mizpah and the Shen. And he called its name Ebenezer, and he said, "As far as here Yahweh has helped us." ¹³And the Philistines were subdued and did not do again to enter the border of Israel. And the hand of Yahweh was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. ¹⁴And the cities that the Philistines had taken from with Israel were returned to Israel, from Ekron and as far as Gath. And Israel rescued their territory from the hand of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

¹⁵And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. ¹⁶And he went as often as year by year and went around Bethel, and the Gilgal, and the Mizpah. And he judged Israel, all these places. ¹⁷And his returning place was the Ramah, because his house was there; and there he judged Israel. And he built an altar there to Yahweh.

Chapter 8

¹And it happened when Samuel was old, that he appointed his sons judges of Israel. ²And the name of his firstborn son was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah. They were judges in Beersheba. ³But his sons did not walk in his ways, and they reached out after dishonest gain. And they took a bribe and perverted justice.

⁴And all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at the Ramah. ⁵And they said to him, "Behold, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now appoint for us a king to judge us like all the nations."

⁶And the matter was evil in the eyes of Samuel when they said, "Give to us a king to judge us." And Samuel prayed to Yahweh.

⁷And Yahweh said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people according to all that they say to you. For they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from reigning over them. ⁸Like all the deeds that they have done from the day I brought them up from Egypt and until this day, they have forsaken me and served other gods. So they are doing also to you. ⁹And now, listen to their voice. However, solemnly warn them and tell them the custom of the king who will rule over them."

¹⁰And Samuel said all the words of Yahweh to the people who were requesting a king from him. ¹¹And he said, "This will be the custom of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them for himself in his chariots and among his horsemen, and they will run before the face of his chariot; ¹²and appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and to plow his plowing, and to harvest his harvest, and to make the implements of his warfare and the implements of his chariot. ¹³And he will take your daughters for perfumers and for cooks and for bakers. ¹⁴And your fields and your vineyards and your olive orchards, the good ones, he will take and give to his servants. ¹⁵And he will take a tenth of your seeds and your vineyards, and give to his officials and to his servants. ¹⁶And your male servants and your female servants and your young men, the good ones, and your donkeys he will take and make for his work. ¹⁷He will take a tenth of your flock. And you yourselves will be for him for servants. ¹⁸And on that day you will cry out from before the face of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves. But Yahweh will not answer you on that day." ¹⁹And the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel. And they said, "No! But a king will be over us. ²⁰And we also, we will be like all the nations. And our king will judge us and go out before our face and fight our battles." ²¹And Samuel heard all the words of the people. And he spoke them in the ears of Yahweh. ²²And Yahweh said to Samuel, "Listen to their voice and cause a king to reign for them." And Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Go, a man to his city."

Chapter 9

¹And there was a man from Benjamin and his name was Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bekorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a man of a Yaminite, a mighty one of strength. ²And for him was a son and his name was Saul, a young man and good. And there was no man from the sons of Israel better than him. From his shoulder and upward he was taller than all the people. ³Now the female donkeys of Kish, the father of Saul, were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, "Take now one from the servants with you, and rise, go seek the female donkeys." ⁴And he passed through the hill country of Ephraim and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. And they passed through the land of Shaalim, but there was nothing. And he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them.

⁵They themselves entered in the land of Zuph, and Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, let us return, lest my father cease about the female donkeys and worry about us." ⁶And he said to him, "Behold, please, a man of God is in this city, and the man is honored; all that he speaks certainly comes. Let us go there now. Perhaps he will tell us our way on which we have gone." ⁷And Saul said to his servant, "Now behold, we will go, but what will we bring to the man? For the bread is gone from our vessels and there is no gift to bring to the man of God. What is with us?" ⁸And the servant added to answer Saul, and he said, "Behold, one-fourth of a shekel of silver has been found in my hand. And I will give it to the man of God and he will tell us our way." ⁹(Before in Israel, a man said thus when he went to seek God, "Come and let us go to the seer." For the prophet today was called the seer before.) ¹⁰And Saul said to his servant, "Your word is good. Come, let us go." And they went to the city there where the man of God was. ¹¹They were going up on the ascent to the city, and they themselves found young women going out to draw water. And they said to them, "Is the seer in this place?" ¹²And they answered them, and said, "There is, behold, before your face. Hurry now, for today he has come to the city, because the sacrifice of the day is for the people at the high place. ¹³As soon as you enter the city then you will find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he himself will bless the sacrifice; afterwards the ones who are called will eat. So now go up, for, as for him, you will find him as soon as today." ¹⁴And they went up to the city. They were entering in the midst of the city, and behold, Samuel was going out to meet them to go up to the high place.

¹⁵Now Yahweh had uncovered the ear of Samuel one day before the coming of Saul, saying: ¹⁶"About this time tomorrow I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be ruler over my people Israel. And he will save my people from the hand of the Philistines. For I have seen my people, for its cry has come to me." ¹⁷And Samuel saw Saul, and Yahweh answered him, "Behold, the man whom I said to you! This one will restrain my people." ¹⁸And Saul approached Samuel in the midst of the gate. And he said, "Please tell me, where is the house of the seer?" ¹⁹And Samuel answered Saul and said, "I am the seer. Go up before my face to the high place, and you will eat with me today. And I will send you away in the morning, and I will tell you all that is in your heart. ²⁰As for your female donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not set your heart to them, for they have been found. Now for whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not for you and for all the house of your father?" ²¹And Saul answered and said, "Am I not a Benjamite, from the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and my clan the least from all the clans of the tribe of Benjamin? Yet why have you spoken to me like this word?"

²²And Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them to the room. And he gave to them a place at the head of the ones who had been called. (Now they were about 30 men.) ²³And Samuel said to the cook, "Give the portion which I gave to you, of which I said to you, 'Set it with you.'" ²⁴And the cook lifted the thigh and what was on it and set it before the face of Saul. And he said, "Behold, what has been left over is set before your face. Eat, because it has been kept for you for the appointed time, saying, 'I have called the people.'" And Saul ate with Samuel on that day.

²⁵And they came down from the high place to the city. And he spoke with Saul on the roof. ²⁶And they rose early. And it happened as soon as the dawn went up that Samuel called to Saul on the roof, saying, "Get up and I will send you away." And Saul got up, and the two of them went out, he and Samuel, to the outside. ²⁷They were going down to the end of the city, and Samuel said to Saul, "Speak to the servant so he may pass on before our face," and he passed on. "But you stand now, and I will cause you to hear the word of God."

Chapter 10

¹And Samuel took a flask of oil, and poured it on his head, and kissed him. And he said, "Is it not Yahweh who has anointed you to be ruler over his inheritance? ²When you go today from with me, then you will find two men near the tomb of Rachel in the territory of Benjamin in Zelzah. And they will say to you, 'The female donkeys that you went to seek have been found. And behold, your father has stopped the matter of the female donkeys and is worried about you, saying, "What should I do about my son?"' ³And you will go on from there and further, and you will come as far as the oak of Tabor. And you will find three men there going up to God at Bethel, one carrying three young goats, and one carrying three round loaves of bread, and one carrying a skin of wine. ⁴And they will ask about you with respect to well-being and give to you two bread loaves, and you will take from their hand. ⁵Afterward you will come to the hill of God, there where the garrisons of the Philistines are. And it will happen as soon as you come there to the city, that you will meet a group of prophets going down from the high place. And before their face will be a harp and a tambourine and a flute and a lyre. And they will be prophesying. ⁶And the spirit of Yahweh will rush on you, and you will prophesy with them. And you will be changed into another man. ⁷And it will happen that when these signs come to you, do for yourself what your hand finds, for God is with you. ⁸And go down before my face to the Gilgal. And behold, I will come down to you to offer up burnt up offerings, to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings. Wait seven days until my coming to you and I will make known to you what you shall do." ⁹And it happened as soon as he turned his shoulder to go from with Samuel, that God turned for him another heart. And all these signs came on that day.

¹⁰And they came there to the hill, and behold, a group of prophets met him. And the spirit of God rushed on him and he prophesied in their midst. ¹¹And it happened that every one who knew him from yesterday and three days ago saw, and behold, he prophesied with the prophets! And the people said, a man to his neighbor, "What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?" ¹²And a man from there answered and said, "And who is their father?" Therefore, it became a proverb, "Is Saul also among the prophets?" ¹³And he finished from prophesying, and he came to the high place. ¹⁴And the uncle of Saul said to him and to his servant, "Where did you go?" And he said, "To seek the female donkeys. And we saw that there was nothing, and we went to Samuel." ¹⁵And the uncle of Saul said, "Please tell me what Samuel said to you." ¹⁶And Saul said to his uncle, "He told us indeed that the female donkeys had been found." But he did not tell him the word of the kingship, which Samuel had said.

¹⁷And Samuel called together the people to Yahweh at the Mizpah. ¹⁸And he said to the sons of Israel, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: 'I myself brought up Israel from Egypt. And I rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians, and from the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you.' ¹⁹But you today have rejected your God, him who saves you from all your calamities and your distresses. And you have said to him, 'Rather set a king over us.' And now station yourselves before the face of Yahweh according to your tribes and according to your thousands." ²⁰And Samuel brought near all the tribes of Israel. And the tribe of Benjamin was taken. ²¹And he brought near the tribe of Benjamin according to its clans, and the clan of the Matrites was taken. And Saul the son of Kish was taken and they sought him, but he was not found. ²²And they asked of Yahweh again, "Has a man come here yet?" And Yahweh said, "Behold, he has hidden himself with the things." ²³And they ran and took him from there. And he stationed himself in the midst of the people. And he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. ²⁴And Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see him whom Yahweh has chosen? Indeed there is no one like him among all the people!" And all the people saw and said, "May the king live!"

²⁵And Samuel spoke to the people the ordinance of the kingship, and he wrote it in the book, and rested it before the face of Yahweh. And Samuel sent away all the people, a man to his house. ²⁶And Saul also went to his house at Gibeah. And with him went the mighty whose hearts God had touched. ²⁷But the sons of worthlessness said, "How can this one save us?" And they despised him and did not bring to him a gift. But he was like one being silent.

Chapter 11

¹And Nahash the Ammonite went up and camped against Jabesh Gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Cut a covenant for us, and we will serve you." ²And Nahash the Ammonite said to them, "By this will I cut for you, by gouging out for you every right eye. And I will set it as a disgrace against all Israel." ³And the elders of Jabesh said to him, "Leave us alone seven days, so that we may send messengers through all the territory of Israel. And if there is no one to save us, then we will go out to you." ⁴And the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul, and they spoke the words in the ears of the people. And all the people lifted up their voice and wept.

⁵And behold, Saul was coming behind the cattle from the field. And Saul said, "What is for the people that they are weeping?" And they recounted to him the words of the men of Jabesh. ⁶And the Spirit of God rushed on Saul when he heard these words. And his nose burned exceedingly. ⁷And he took a pair of cattle, and cut it into pieces, and sent away through all the territory of Israel by the hand of the messengers, saying, "Whoever is not coming out behind Saul and behind Samuel, thus will be done to his cattle." And the dread of Yahweh fell on the people, and they went out as one man. ⁸And he mustered them at Bezek. And the sons of Israel were 300,000, and the men of Judah were 30,000. ⁹And they said to the messengers who had come, "Thus you will say to the men of Jabesh Gilead, 'Tomorrow deliverance will be for you, at the heat of the sun.'" And the messengers went and told the men of Jabesh, and they rejoiced. ¹⁰And the men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will go out to you. And you may do to us according to all the good in your eyes."

¹¹And it happened from the next day that Saul set the people in three heads. And they came into the midst of the camp at the watch of the morning, and they struck down Ammon until the heat of the day. And it happened that the remaining ones were scattered, and two among them did not remain together. ¹²And the people said to Samuel, "Who are those who said, 'Will Saul reign over us?' Give the men, and we will put them to death." ¹³And Saul said, "A man shall not be put to death on this day. For today Yahweh has done a deliverance in Israel."

¹⁴And Samuel said to the people, "Come, and let us go to the Gilgal. And let us renew the kingship there." ¹⁵And all the people went to the Gilgal and caused Saul to reign there before the face of Yahweh in the Gilgal. And there they sacrificed sacrifices, peace offerings, before the face of Yahweh. And there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced up to abundance.

Chapter 12

¹And Samuel said to all Israel, "Behold, I have listened to your voice, according to all that you said to me. And I have caused a king to reign over you. ²And now, behold the king is walking about before your face. And as for me, I am old and gray; and my sons, behold they are with you. And I myself have walked about before your face from my youth until this day. ³Here I am! Testify against me in front of Yahweh and in front of his anointed one. Whose ox have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed or from whose hand have I taken a bribe so that I hid my eyes with it? And I will restore to you." ⁴And they said, "You have not defrauded us, and have not oppressed us, and have not taken anything from the hand of a man." ⁵And he said to them, "Yahweh is a witness against you, and his anointed one is a witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand." And he said, "Witness."

⁶And Samuel said to the people, "It is Yahweh who made Moses and Aaron, and who brought up your fathers from the land of Egypt. ⁷And now, station yourselves so that I may be judged with you before the face of Yahweh with all the righteous deeds of Yahweh, which he did with you and with your fathers. ⁸When Jacob came to Egypt, and your fathers cried out to Yahweh, then Yahweh sent Moses and Aaron, and they brought out your fathers from Egypt and they caused them to dwell in this place. ⁹And they forgot Yahweh their God. And he sold them into the hand of Sisera, the commander of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab. And they fought against them. ¹⁰And they cried out to Yahweh and said, 'We have sinned, because we have forsaken Yahweh and have served the Baals and the Ashtoreths. And now rescue us from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you.' ¹¹And Yahweh sent Jerub Baal and Bedan and Jephthah and Samuel. And he rescued you from the hand of your enemies from all around you, and you dwelled securely. ¹²And you saw that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon came against you, and you said to me, 'No! Rather a king will reign over us.' But Yahweh your God was your king. ¹³And now, behold the king whom you have chosen, whom you have requested! And behold, Yahweh has given a king over you! ¹⁴If you fear Yahweh and serve him and listen to his voice and do not rebel against the mouth of Yahweh, then both you and the king who reigns over you will be after Yahweh your God. ¹⁵But if you do not listen to the voice of Yahweh, and you rebel against the mouth of Yahweh, then the hand of Yahweh will be against you and against your fathers. ¹⁶Even now station yourselves and see this great thing that Yahweh is about to do before your eyes. ¹⁷Is it not the harvest of wheat today? I will call to Yahweh, and he will give thunder and rain. And know and see that your evil is great, which you have done in the eyes of Yahweh, by requesting a king for yourselves."

¹⁸And Samuel called to Yahweh, and Yahweh gave thunder and rain on that day. And all the people greatly feared Yahweh and Samuel. ¹⁹And all the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to Yahweh your God, so that we may not die. For we have added evil onto all our sins by requesting a king for ourselves."

²⁰And Samuel said to the people, "Do not fear. You yourselves have done all this evil. Only do not turn aside from after Yahweh, but serve Yahweh with all your heart. ²¹And do not turn aside! For it is after the empty thing that does not profit and does not rescue, because they are emptiness. ²²For Yahweh will not leave his people, for the sake of his great name. For Yahweh was pleased to make you into a people for himself. ²³Also me, far be it for me from sinning against Yahweh by ceasing to pray for you. And I will instruct you in the good and straight way. ²⁴Only fear Yahweh and serve him in faithfulness with all your heart. Indeed, see what he has made great with you! ²⁵But if you continually do evil, both you and your king will be carried away."

Chapter 13

¹Saul was a son of a year when he reigned. And he reigned over Israel two years.^[1] ²And Saul chose for himself 3,000 from Israel. And 2,000 were with Saul in Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, and 1,000 were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. And the rest of the people he sent away, a man to his tent. ³And Jonathan struck down the garrison of the Philistines that was at Geba and the Philistines heard. And Saul blew with the horn in all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!" ⁴And all Israel heard, saying, "Saul struck down the garrison of the Philistines, and also Israel has become a stench among the Philistines." And the people were called together after Saul at the Gilgal.

⁵And the Philistines gathered to fight against Israel: 30,000 chariots and 6,000 horsemen and a people like the sand that is on the shore of the sea with respect to abundance. And they went up and camped at Michmash, east of Beth Aven. ⁶And the men of Israel saw that it was narrow for them, for the people were hard-pressed. And the people hid themselves in the caves and in the thornbushes and in the cliffs and in the underground chambers and in the pits. ⁷And Hebrews crossed over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. But Saul was still at the Gilgal and all the people trembled after him.

⁸And he waited seven days to the appointed time when Samuel would be there, but Samuel did not come to the Gilgal. And the people scattered from beside him. ⁹And Saul said, "Bring near to me the burnt up offering and the peace offerings." And he offered up the burnt up offering. ¹⁰And it happened as soon as he finished offering up the burnt up offering that, behold, Samuel came! And Saul went out to meet him to bless him. ¹¹And Samuel said, "What have you done?" And Saul said, "When I saw that the people scattered from beside me, and you, you did not come by the appointed time of days, and the Philistines were gathering at Michmash, ¹²then I said, 'Now the Philistines will come down against me at the Gilgal, and I have not appeased the face of Yahweh.' So I forced myself and offered up the burnt up offering." ¹³And Samuel said to Saul, "You have acted foolishly! You have not kept the command of Yahweh your God that he commanded you. For then Yahweh would have established your reign over Israel until eternity. ¹⁴But now your reign will not stand. Yahweh has sought for himself a man according to his heart, and Yahweh has commanded him to be leader over his people, for you did not keep what Yahweh commanded you."

¹⁵And Samuel rose and went up from the Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul mustered the people who were found with him, about 600 men. ¹⁶Now Saul and Jonathan his son and the people who were found with him were staying in Geba of Benjamin. And the Philistines camped at Michmash. ¹⁷And destroyers went out from the camp of the Philistines, three heads. One head turned to the way of Ophrah, to the land of Shual. ¹⁸And one head turned the way of Beth Horon. And one head turned the way of the border that looks down over the valley of Zeboyim, toward the wilderness.

¹⁹Now a blacksmith could not be found in all the land of Israel. For the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make sword or spear." ²⁰And all Israel used to go down to the Philistines, a man to sharpen his plow and his mattock and his axe and his sickle. ²¹And the charge was a pim for the plowshares and for the mattocks and for three picks and for the axes and for straightening the goads. ²²And it happened on the day of battle that a sword or spear was not found in the hands of any of the people who were with Saul and with Jonathan, but was found for Saul and for his son Jonathan. ²³And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

¹⁷And Saul said to the people who were with him, "Muster now and see who has gone from with us." And they mustered, and behold, there was no Jonathan or the one who carried his equipment! ¹⁸And Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring near the Box of God." For on that day the Box of God was with the sons of Israel. ¹⁹And it happened while Saul spoke to the priest, that the tumult that was in the camp of the Philistines was going continually and increasingly. And Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand." ²⁰And Saul and all the people who were with him were called together and came to the battle. And behold, the sword of a man was against his companion, a very great confusion. ²¹Now some Hebrews were for the Philistines according to yesterday and three days ago, who had gone up with them into the camp all around. But even they were to be with Israel, who were with Saul and Jonathan. ²²And all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines fled, and they also pursued after them in the battle. ²³And Yahweh saved Israel on that day. And the battle passed over Beth Aven.

²⁴And the men of Israel were hard-pressed on that day. And Saul had made the people swear, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats food until the evening and I take vengeance from my enemies." So all the people had not tasted food. ²⁵And all the land entered into the forest. And honey was on the face of the field. ²⁶And the people entered into the forest, and behold, the flowing of honey! But no one reached his hand to his mouth for the people feared the oath. ²⁷But Jonathan had not heard when his father had made the people swear. And he extended the end of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it in the honeycomb of the honey. And he returned his hand to his mouth and his eyes became bright. ²⁸And a man from the people answered and said, "Your father surely made the people swear, saying, 'Cursed is the man who eats food today.' So the people are faint." ²⁹And Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land. See now that my eyes have become bright because I tasted a little of this honey. ³⁰How much more if the people had eaten freely today from the plunder of their enemies that they found? For now the blow has not been great among the Philistines."

³⁶And Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them until the light of morning. And let us not leave a man among them." And they said, "Do all the good in your eyes." And the priest said, "Let us draw near to God here." ³⁷And Saul asked of God, "Should I go down after the Philistines? Will you give them into the hand of Israel?" But he did not answer him on that day. ³⁸And Saul said, "Come near here, all the corners of the people! And know and see by what this sin has happened today. ³⁹For, as Yahweh is alive, the one who saves Israel, even if it is by Jonathan my son, indeed he will surely die." But there was no one answering him from all the people. ⁴⁰And he said to all Israel, "You will be on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on one side." And the people said to Saul, "Do the good in your eyes." ⁴¹And Saul said to Yahweh the God of Israel, "Give a perfect one!" And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people went out. ⁴²And Saul said, "Cause it to fall between me and Jonathan my son." And Jonathan was taken.

⁴³And Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done." And Jonathan told him and said, "Indeed I tasted a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand. Here I am; I will die." ⁴⁴And Saul said, "May God do so and may he add so, for you shall surely die, Jonathan." ⁴⁵And the people said to Saul, "Should Jonathan die, who has made this great salvation in Israel? Far from it! As Yahweh is alive, a hair of his head will not fall to the ground! For he has worked with God this day." And the people ransomed Jonathan and he did not die.

⁴⁶And Saul went up from after the Philistines. And the Philistines went to their place. ⁴⁷Now Saul had taken the kingship over Israel. And he fought against all his enemies all around: against Moab and against the sons of Ammon and against Edom and against the kings of Zobah and against the Philistines. And he inflicted punishment against everywhere he turned. ⁴⁸And he acted strongly and struck down the Amalekites. And he rescued Israel from the hand of those who plundered it.

⁴⁹Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan and Ishvi and Malki-Shua. As for the names of the two of his daughters: the name of the firstborn was Merab and the name of the younger was Michal. ⁵⁰The name of the wife of Saul was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner the son of Ner the uncle of Saul. ⁵¹And Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel. ⁵²And the battle was strong against the Philistines all the days of Saul. When Saul saw any man of might, or any son of strength, then he gathered him to himself.

Chapter 15

¹And Samuel said to Saul, "Yahweh sent me to anoint you as king over his people, over Israel. And now, listen to the voice of the words of Yahweh. ²Thus says Yahweh of hosts, 'I have noted what Amalek did to Israel when he set against him on the way when he came up from Egypt. ³Now go and strike down Amalek and completely destroy all that is for him, and do not have compassion on him. But put to death from man as far as woman, from child and as far as infant, from ox and as far as sheep, from camel and as far as donkey.'"

¹⁰And the word of Yahweh was to Samuel, saying, ¹¹"I regret that I have caused Saul to reign as king, for he has turned from after me and has not raised up my words." And it was hot for Samuel, and he cried out to Yahweh all the night. ¹²And Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul. And it was told to Samuel, saying, "Saul came to the Carmel, and behold, he is setting up a monument for himself! And he turned around and passed over and went down to the Gilgal." ¹³And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, "Blessed are you by Yahweh! I have raised up the word of Yahweh." ¹⁴And Samuel said, "And what is the sound of this flock in my ears? And the sound of the cattle that I am hearing?" ¹⁵And Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekite. For the people had compassion on the best of the sheep and the cattle, in order to sacrifice to Yahweh your God. But the excess we have completely destroyed." ¹⁶And Samuel said to Saul, "Stop, and let me tell you what Yahweh spoke to me at night." And he said to him, "Speak!"

¹⁷And Samuel said, "Although you are small in your own eyes, are you not the head of the tribes of Israel? And Yahweh anointed you as king over Israel. ¹⁸And Yahweh sent you on your way. And he said, 'Go and completely destroy the sinners, Amalek. And fight against them until they have finished them.' ¹⁹And why did you not listen to the voice of Yahweh? But you rushed with shouting on the spoil and you did evil in the eyes of Yahweh."

²⁰And Saul said to Samuel, "I have listened to the voice of Yahweh, and have gone on the way that Yahweh sent me. And I have brought Agag the king of Amalek and have completely destroyed Amalek. ²¹And the people took from the spoil sheep and cattle, the first of the banned thing, to sacrifice to Yahweh your God at the Gilgal." ²²And Samuel said, "Is the delight of Yahweh in burnt up offerings and sacrifices, as in listening to the voice of Yahweh? Behold, listening is better than sacrifice, paying attention is more than the fat of rams. ²³For rebellion is the sin of divination, and to display pushing is iniquity and idols. Because you have rejected the word of Yahweh, he has rejected you from being king."

²⁴And Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned! For I have passed over the mouth of Yahweh and your words, because I feared the people and listened to their voice. ²⁵And now, please lift up my sin. And return with me so I may worship Yahweh." ²⁶And Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you. For you have rejected the word of Yahweh, and Yahweh has rejected you from being king over Israel." ²⁷And Samuel turned around to go. And he grabbed the edge of his robe, and it was torn. ²⁸And Samuel said to him, "Yahweh has torn the kingdom of Israel from on you today. And he has given it to your companion, the better one than you. ²⁹And also, the Perpetual One of Israel will not act falsely and will not change his mind. For he is not a man, changing his mind." ³⁰And he said, "I have sinned! Now please honor me in front of the elders of my people and in front of Israel. And return with me, so I may worship Yahweh your God." ³¹And Samuel returned behind Saul. And Saul worshiped Yahweh.

³²And Samuel said, "Bring near to me Agag the king of Amalek." And Agag went to him in bonds. And Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death has turned aside." ³³And Samuel said, "Just as your sword has made women childless, so will your mother be made childless among women." And Samuel hacked Agag to pieces before the face of Yahweh at the Gilgal.

³⁴And Samuel went to the Ramah. And Saul went up to his house at Gibeah of Saul. ³⁵And Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, but Samuel mourned for Saul. And Yahweh regretted that he had caused Saul to reign over Israel.

15:9 ^[1]

¹And Yahweh said to Samuel, "Until when will you be mourning for Saul, while I myself have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have seen among his sons a king for me." ²And Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears, then he will slay me." And Yahweh said, "Take a heifer of the cattle in your hand and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh.' ³And call for Jesse at the sacrifice, and I myself will show you what you shall do. And you shall anoint for me whom I say to you." ⁴And Samuel did what Yahweh had spoken and he came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city trembled to meet him and said, "Are you coming in peace?" ⁵And he said, "In peace; I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." And he consecrated Jesse and his sons and called them to the sacrifice. ⁶And it happened when they came, that he saw Eliab. And he said, "Surely in front of Yahweh is his anointed one." ⁷And Yahweh said to Samuel, "Do not look on his outward appearance or on the height of his stature because I have rejected him. For it is not what the man sees, for the man sees by the eyes, but Yahweh sees to the heart." ⁸And Jesse called for Abinadab and made him pass over before the face of Samuel. And he said, "Also Yahweh has not chosen this one." ⁹And Jesse made Shammah pass over. And he said, "Also Yahweh has not chosen this one." ¹⁰And Jesse made seven of his sons pass over before the face of Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, "Yahweh has not chosen among these." ¹¹And Samuel said to Jesse, "Are your young men complete?" And he said, "The youngest one still remains, and behold, he is tending among the flock." And Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and get him, for we will not turn around until he comes here." ¹²And he sent and brought him. (Now he was ruddy with beautiful eyes and a good appearance.) And Yahweh said, "Rise, anoint him, for this is he." ¹³And Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the middle of his brothers. And the Spirit of Yahweh rushed on David from that day and onward. And Samuel rose and went to the Ramah.

¹⁴Now the Spirit of Yahweh turned aside from with Saul, and a spirit of evil from with Yahweh terrified him. ¹⁵And the servants of Saul said to him, "Behold, an evil spirit of God is terrifying you." ¹⁶Let our master please say to your servants before your face, "Seek a man who knows how to play on the lyre. And it will happen that when the evil spirit of God is on you, then he will play by his hand and it will be good for you." ¹⁷And Saul said to his servants, "See now for me a man who is good at playing and bring him to me." ¹⁸And one from the young men answered and said, "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, knowing how to play and mighty of strength and a man of war and discerning of word and a man of appearance. And Yahweh is with him." ¹⁹And Saul sent messengers to Jesse. And he said, "Send to me David your son, who is with the flock." ²⁰And Jesse took a donkey, bread, and a skin of wine, and one kid of the goats, and he sent them by the hand of David his son to Saul. ²¹And David came to Saul and he stood before his face. And he loved him greatly, and he became for him one who carried the equipment. ²²And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Let David now stand before my face, for he has found favor in my eyes." ²³And it happened that whenever the spirit of God was on Saul, then David took the lyre and played by his hand. And it would be relief for Saul and good for him, and the spirit of evil would turn aside from on him.

Chapter 17

¹And the Philistines gathered their camps for the battle. And they were gathered at Sokoh, which is of Judah. And they camped between Sokoh and Azekah in Ephes Dammim. ²And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered and they camped in the valley of Elah. And they arranged for battle to meet the Philistines. ³Now the Philistines were standing on this mountain, and Israel was standing on that mountain. And the valley was between them. ⁴And a man of the space between came out from the camp of the Philistines, Goliath was his name, from Gath. His height was six cubits and a span. ⁵And a helmet of bronze was on his head and he was wearing body armor of scales. And the weight of the body armor was 5,000 shekels of bronze. ⁶And shin guards of bronze were on his legs. And a javelin of bronze was between his shoulders. ⁷And the wood of his spear was like the beam of those who weave. And the point of his spear was 600 iron shekels. And the one who carried his shield was going before his face. ⁸And he stood and called out to the ranks of Israel, and he said to them, "Why have you come out to arrange for battle? Am not I a Philistine, and you, servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves and let him come down to me. ⁹If he is able to fight with me and strike me down, then we will become servants for you. But if I prevail against him and strike him down, then you will become servants for us and you will serve us." ¹⁰And the Philistine said, "I myself taunt the ranks of Israel this day. Give to me a man so we may fight together." ¹¹And Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine. And they were dismayed and feared greatly.

¹²Now David was the son of this Ephrathite man from Bethlehem in Judah, and his name was Jesse. And eight sons were for him. And the man was old in the days of Saul, coming among men. ¹³And the oldest three of the sons of Jesse had gone, they went after Saul to the battle. And the names of the three of his sons who went into the battle were Eliab the firstborn and his second Abinadab and the third Shammah. ¹⁴Now David, he was the youngest. And the three oldest ones had gone after Saul. ¹⁵But David was going and returning from with Saul to tend the flock of his father at Bethlehem. ¹⁶And the Philistine came near at early morning and at evening. And he stationed himself 40 days.

¹⁷And Jesse said to David his son, "Take now to your brothers an ephah of this roasted grain and ten loaves of this bread, and bring quickly to the camp, to your brothers. ¹⁸And bring these ten cuts of cheese to the commander of the thousand. And observe your brothers with respect to well-being and take their pledge. ¹⁹Now Saul and they and all the men of Israel are in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines." ²⁰And David rose early in the morning and left the flock with one who keeps. And he carried and went, just as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the entrenchment and the army was going out to the battle line and they shouted in the battle. ²¹And Israel and the Philistines arranged, battle line to meet battle line. ²²And David left the equipment from on him on the hand of one who keeps the equipment, and he ran to the battle line. And he came and asked his brothers with respect to well-being. ²³And he was speaking with them, and behold, the man of the between space was coming up, Goliath the Philistine was his name, from Gath, from the ranks of the Philistines, and he spoke like these words. And David heard. ²⁴And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, they fled from his face and feared greatly. ²⁵And the men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who is coming up? Surely he is coming up to taunt Israel! And it will happen that the king will make rich with great wealth the man who strikes him down, and he will give his daughter to him, and he will make the house of his father free in Israel." ²⁶And David said to the men who were standing with him, saying, "What will be done for the man who strikes down this Philistine and removes the disgrace from on Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should taunt the ranks of the living God?" ²⁷And the people said to him like this word, saying, "Thus it will be done for the man who strikes him down."

²⁸And Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men. And the nose of Eliab burned against David, and he said, "Why is this—you came down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I myself know your presumptuousness and the evil of your heart, for you have come down in order to see the battle!" ²⁹And David said, "What have I done now? Was it not a word?" ³⁰And he turned around from beside him toward the front of another and spoke like this word. And the people returned a word to him like the first word.

³¹And they heard the words that David spoke. And they told before the face of Saul, and he took him. ³²And David said to Saul, "Do not let the heart of a man fall on himself. Your servant will go and fight with this Philistine." ³³And Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him. For you are a boy, but he a man of war from his youth." ³⁴And David said to Saul, "Your servant has been tending for his father among the flock. And the lion or the bear has come and has carried a sheep from the flock. ³⁵And I have gone out after it and struck it and rescued from its mouth. If it rose against me, then I would grasp its jaw and strike it down and put it to death. ³⁶Your servant has struck down both the lion and the bear. And this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, for he has taunted the ranks of the living God." ³⁷And David said, "Yahweh who has rescued me from the hand of the lion and from the hand of the bear, he will rescue me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go, and Yahweh be with you." ³⁸And Saul clothed David with his garments and put a helmet of bronze on his head. And he clothed him with body armor. ³⁹And David strapped on his sword over his garments and he undertook to walk because he had not trained. And David said to Saul, "I am not able to walk with these, for I have not trained." And David removed them from on him. ⁴⁰And he took his staff in his hand and chose for himself five smooth stones from the wadi, and he put them in the bag of the shepherds that belonged to him, even in the pouch, and his sling was in his hand. And he came near to the Philistine. ⁴¹And the Philistine came, coming on and near to David. And the man who carried the shield was before his face. ⁴²And the Philistine looked and saw David, and he despised him, for he was a boy, and ruddy with a beautiful appearance. ⁴³And the Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you are coming to me with staves?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. ⁴⁴And the Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and let me give your flesh to the bird of the heavens and to the beast of the field."

⁴⁵And David said to the Philistine, "You are coming to me with sword and with spear and with javelin. But I am coming to you in the name of Yahweh of hosts, the God of the ranks of Israel, whom you have taunted. ⁴⁶This day Yahweh will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and remove your head from on you. And this day I will give the corpse of the army of the Philistines to the bird of the heavens and to the living thing of the earth. And all the earth will know that there is a God for Israel. ⁴⁷And all this assembly will know that Yahweh does not save by sword or by spear. For the battle belongs to Yahweh, and he will give you into our hand."

⁴⁸And it happened when the Philistine rose and went and came near to meet David, that David hurried and ran to the battle line to meet the Philistine. ⁴⁹And David sent his hand into his bag, and took a stone from there, and slung. And it struck the Philistine on his forehead. And the stone sank into his forehead and he fell on his face to the ground.

⁵⁰And David was stronger than the Philistine with the sling and with the stone. And he struck down the Philistine and put him to death. (Now there was no sword in the hand of David.) ⁵¹And David ran and stood over the Philistine and took his sword and drew it from its sheath and put him to death and cut off his head with it. And the Philistines saw that their strong man was dead and they fled. ⁵²And the men of Israel and Judah rose and they shouted and pursued the Philistines as far as your coming to the valley and as far as the gates of Ekron. And the pierced ones of the Philistines fell on the way of Shaaraim and as far as Gath and as far as Ekron. ⁵³And the sons of Israel returned from burning after the Philistines. And they plundered their camp. ⁵⁴And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem. And he set his equipment in his tent.

⁵⁵Now as soon as Saul saw David going out to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner the commander of the army, "This boy is the son of whom, Abner?" And Abner said, "As your self is alive, king, if I know!" ⁵⁶And the king said, "You ask the son of whom is this boy." ⁵⁷And as soon as David returned from striking down the Philistine, then Abner took him and brought him before the face of Saul. And the head of the Philistine was in his hand. ⁵⁸And Saul said to him, "The son of whom are you, boy?" And David said, "The son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

Chapter 18

¹And it happened as soon as he finished speaking to Saul, that the self of Jonathan was bound to the self of David. And Jonathan loved him like his own self. ²And Saul took him on that day. And he did not give him to return to the house of his father. ³And Jonathan cut a covenant with David because he loved him like his own self. ⁴And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and he gave it to David, and his garments and even to his sword and even to his bow and even to his belt. ⁵And David went out, he succeeded at wherever Saul sent him. And Saul set him over the men of war. And he was good in the eyes of all the people and also in the eyes of the servants of Saul.

⁶And it happened when they came, when David returned from striking down the Philistine, that the women came out from all the cities of Israel to sing with the dancing ones, to meet Saul the king, with tambourines, with joy, and with three-stringed instruments. ⁷And the women sang who were playing, and said:

"Saul has struck down his thousands,

and David his ten thousands."

⁸And it burned greatly for Saul, and this thing was evil in his eyes. And he said, "They have given to David ten thousands, but to me they have given the thousands. And only the kingship is yet for him!" ⁹And it happened that Saul looked at David with suspicion from that day and onward.

¹⁰And it happened from the next day that an evil spirit of God rushed on Saul and he prophesied in the midst of the house. And David was playing by his hand, as day by day. And the spear was in the hand of Saul. ¹¹And Saul hurled the spear, and he said, "I will strike David, even into the wall!" But David turned around from his face two times.

¹²And Saul was afraid from before the face of David. For Yahweh was with him but had turned aside from with Saul.

¹³And Saul removed him from with him and set him as a commander of a thousand for himself. And he went out and came in before the face of the people.

¹⁴And David was succeeding in all his ways. And Yahweh was with him. ¹⁵And Saul saw that he was succeeding greatly. And he dreaded his face. ¹⁶But all Israel and Judah were loving David, for he was going out and coming in before their face.

¹⁷And Saul said to David, "Behold, my oldest daughter Merab. I will give her to you for a wife. Only become for me a son of strength and fight the battles of Yahweh." And Saul said, "Let not my hand be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him." ¹⁸And David said to Saul, "Who am I, and who are my relatives of the clan of my father in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?" ¹⁹And it happened at the time to give Merab the daughter of Saul to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite for a wife. ²⁰And Michal the daughter of Saul loved David. And they told Saul and the matter was right in his eyes. ²¹And Saul said, "I will give her to him and may she become a snare for him and may the hand of the Philistines be against him." And Saul said to David a second time, "You will be a son-in-law of mine today." ²²And Saul commanded his servants, "Speak to David in secrecy, saying, 'Behold, the king delights in you and all his servants love you. And now, become a son-in-law of the king.'" ²³And the servants of Saul spoke these words in the ears of David. And David said, "Is it insignificant in your eyes to be a son-in-law of the king? And I am a poor man and lightly esteemed." ²⁴And the servants of Saul told him, saying, "Like these words David spoke."

²⁸And Saul saw and he knew that Yahweh was with David and Michal the daughter of Saul loved him. ²⁹And Saul added to be more afraid from the face of David. And Saul was being hostile to David all the days. ³⁰And the commanders of the Philistines came out. And it happened that as often as they came out, David was more successful than all the servants of Saul and his name became greatly esteemed.

Chapter 19

¹And Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants to put David to death. But Jonathan the son of Saul delighted greatly in David. ²And Jonathan told David, saying, "Saul my father is seeking to put you to death. And now, please be on guard in the morning and stay in the hiding place and hide yourself. ³As for me, I will go out and stand by the hand of my father in the field there where you are, and I myself will speak of you to my father. And I will see whatever and I will tell you."

⁴And Jonathan spoke good of David to Saul his father and said to him, "Do not let the king sin against his servant, against David. For he has not sinned against you and indeed his deeds were very good for you. ⁵And he set his life in his palm and struck down the Philistine. And Yahweh made a great salvation for all Israel. You saw and rejoiced. And why would you sin against innocent blood by putting David to death without cause?" ⁶And Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan. And Saul swore, "As Yahweh is alive, he shall not be put to death!" ⁷And Jonathan called out to David, and Jonathan told him all these words. And Jonathan brought David to Saul and he was before his face as yesterday and three days ago.

⁸And there was war again. And David went out and fought with the Philistines and struck them a great blow. And they fled from his face. ⁹And an evil spirit of Yahweh was on Saul and he was sitting in his house and his spear was in his hand. And David was playing by hand. ¹⁰And Saul sought to strike into David with the spear, even into the wall, but he escaped from the face of Saul, and he struck the spear into the wall. And David fled and slipped away on that night.

¹¹And Saul sent messengers to the house of David to watch him and to put him to death in the morning. And Michal his wife told David, saying, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be put to death." ¹²And Michal lowered David out through the window. And he went and fled and slipped away. ¹³And Michal took the household idol and put it on the bed. And she put a quilt of the goats at the place of its head. And she covered it with the clothes. ¹⁴And Saul sent messengers to take David. And she said, "He is sick."

¹⁵And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed to put him to death." ¹⁶And the messengers came, and behold, the household idol was on the bed! And the quilt of the goats was at the place of its head. ¹⁷And Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me like so and sent away my enemy, so that he slipped away?" And Michal said to Saul, "He himself said to me, 'Send me away. Why should I put you to death?'"

¹⁸Now David fled and slipped away and came to Samuel in the Ramah and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth. ¹⁹And it was told to Saul, saying, "Behold, David is in Naioth in the Ramah." ²⁰And Saul sent messengers to take David. And they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel was standing, stationed over them. And the Spirit of God was on the messengers of Saul and they also prophesied. ²¹And they told Saul and he sent other messengers and they also prophesied. And Saul did again and sent messengers a third time, and they also prophesied. ²²And he went, he also, to the Ramah and came as far as the great cistern that is in Seku. And he asked and said, "Where are Samuel and David?" And one said, "Behold, in Naioth in the Ramah." ²³And he went there to Naioth in the Ramah. And the Spirit of God was on him, him also, and he went along and he prophesied until he entered in Naioth in the Ramah. ²⁴And he also stripped off his clothes and he also prophesied before the face of Samuel. And he lay naked all that day and all the night. Therefore they said, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

Chapter 20

⁵And David said to Jonathan, "Behold, the new moon is tomorrow, and surely I should sit with the king to eat. But you shall send me away and I will hide myself in the field until the third evening. ⁶If your father misses me at all, then you shall say, 'David earnestly asked from me to run to Bethlehem, his city, for the sacrifice of the days is there for all the clan.' ⁷If thus he says, 'Good,' peace is for your servant. But if it burns intensely for him, know that the evil is completed from with him. ⁸And you shall do covenant faithfulness with your servant. For you have brought your servant into a covenant of Yahweh with you. But if there is iniquity in me, put me to death yourself. And why should you bring me as far as your father?" ⁹And Jonathan said, "Far be it for you! For if I ever know that the evil has been completed from with my father to come on you, then will I not tell it to you?" ¹⁰And David said to Jonathan, "Who will tell me if what your father answers you is harsh?" ¹¹And Jonathan said to David, "Come and let us go out to the field." And the two of them went out to the field.

¹²And Jonathan said to David, "By Yahweh the God of Israel, surely I will sound out my father around this time tomorrow, or the third. If behold, good is to David, then will I not then send to you and uncover your ear? ¹³Thus may Yahweh do to Jonathan and thus may he add if the evil on you is good to my father and I do not uncover your ear and send you away, so you may go in peace! And may Yahweh be with you just as he was with my father. ¹⁴And if I am still alive, then you will do the covenant faithfulness of Yahweh with me, and I will not die. ¹⁵And you shall not cut off your covenant faithfulness from with my house until eternity, not even when Yahweh cuts off the enemies of David, a man from on the face of the ground." ¹⁶And Jonathan cut with the house of David, "And may Yahweh seek from the hand of the enemies of David!" ¹⁷And Jonathan caused David to swear again because he loved him. For he loved him like the loving of his self.

¹⁸And Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon. And you will be missed because your seat will be missing.

¹⁹And the third day you shall go down greatly and come to the place there where you hid yourself on the day of the deed. And you shall stay beside the stone Ezel. ²⁰And as for me, I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as sending forth for me to a target. ²¹And behold, I will send the boy, 'Go find the arrows.' If I say clearly to the boy, 'Behold, the arrows are on this side from you; take them,' then come; for peace is for you and there is no matter, as Yahweh is alive. ²²But if I say thus to the boy, 'Behold, the arrows are beyond from you,' go, for Yahweh has sent you away. ²³As for the word which I and you have spoken, behold, Yahweh is between me and you until eternity."

²⁴And David hid himself in the field. And it was the new moon, and the king sat at the food to eat. ²⁵And the king sat on his seat, as time by time, on the seat by the wall. And Jonathan rose, and Abner sat by the side of Saul. And the place of David was missing. ²⁶And Saul did not speak anything on that day, for he said, "It is an accident. He is not clean, surely not clean." ²⁷And it happened on the next day of the new moon, the second, that the place of David was missing. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to the food both yesterday and today?" ²⁸And Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked from with me as far as Bethlehem. ²⁹And he said, 'Please send me away. For the sacrifice of our clan is in the city, and he, my brother, has commanded me. And now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me slip away and let me see my brothers.' Therefore he has not come to the table of the king."

³⁰And the nose of Saul burned against Jonathan, and he said to him, "Son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you are choosing the son of Jesse to your shame, and to the shame of the nakedness of your mother?

³¹For all the days that the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you and your kingdom will not be established. And now, send and take him to me, for he is a son of death." ³²And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and he said to him, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?" ³³And Saul hurled the spear at him to strike him down. And Jonathan knew that it was completed from with his father to put David to death. ³⁴And Jonathan rose from with the table with a burning nose. And he did not eat food on the second day of the new moon, for he was grieved for David, because his father had dishonored him.

³⁵And it happened in the morning, that Jonathan went out to the field to the appointment with David. And a small boy was with him. ³⁶And he said to his boy, "Run, find now the arrows that I am about to shoot." The boy ran and he shot the arrow to pass over him. ³⁷And the boy came as far as the place of the arrow that Jonathan had shot. And Jonathan called after the boy and said, "Is not the arrow beyond from you?" ³⁸And Jonathan called after the boy, "Quickly hurry! Do not stay!" And the boy of Jonathan picked up the arrows and came to his master. ³⁹Now the boy did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew the matter. ⁴⁰And Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy who was for him. And he said to him, "Go, bring to the city." ⁴¹The boy went, and David rose from beside the south, and fell before his face to the ground, and bowed three times. And they kissed, a man with his companion. And they wept, a man with his companion, until David did the most. ⁴²And Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, because we, the two of us, have sworn in the name of Yahweh, saying, 'Yahweh is between me and you, and between my seed and your seed until eternity.'" And he rose and went, and Jonathan came to the city. ^[3]

Chapter 21

¹And David came to Nob to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech trembled to meet David and said to him, "Why are you by yourself and there is no man with you?" ^[1] ²And David said to Ahimelech the priest, "The king has commanded me with a matter and has said to me, 'Do not let a man know anything about the matter which I am sending you, and which I have commanded you.' And I have caused the young men to know about a certain place, a certain one. ³And now what is there under your hand? Give five bread loaves into my hand, or the found thing."

⁴And the priest answered David and said, "There is no common bread toward under my hand. But there is the holy bread, if the young men have kept themselves only from women." ⁵And David answered the priest and said to him, "Surely a woman has been kept away with respect to us as yesterday and three days ago, as whenever I have gone out. And the vessels of the men have been holy, even though it was a common journey. And how much more today will it be holy with the vessels!" ⁶And the priest gave to him the holy thing. For bread was not there except the bread of the face, which was removed from before the face of Yahweh, in order to put hot bread on the day it was taken away.

⁷Now a man from the servants of Saul was there on that day, he was detained before the face of Yahweh. And his name was Doeg the Edomite, a powerful one of the herders who were for Saul.

⁸And David said to Ahimelech, "Now is there not here under your hand a spear or sword? For both my sword and my weapons I did not take in my hand, because the matter of the king was urgent." ⁹And the priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you struck down in the valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapped in the cloak behind the ephod. If you want to take it for yourself, take, for there is no other except it in this place." And David said, "There is none like it. Give it to me."

¹⁰And David rose and fled on that day from the face of Saul. And he came to Achish the king of Gath. ¹¹And the servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing with respect to this one in the dances, saying,

'Saul has struck down his thousands,

and David his ten thousands?'"

¹²And David put these words in his heart and was very afraid from the face of Achish the king of Gath. ¹³And he changed his behavior in their eyes and pretended to be insane in their hand. And he made marks on the doors of the gate and caused his saliva to go down to his beard. ¹⁴And Achish said to his servants, "Behold, you see a man being insane. Why did you bring him to me? ¹⁵Do I lack insane men, so that you have brought this one to be insane near me? Should this one enter into my house?"

21:1 ^[1]

¹And David went from there and slipped away to the cave of Adullam. And his brothers and all the house of his father heard, and they went down there to him. ²And they gathered to him: every man of distress, and every man for whom was a creditor, and every man bitter of spirit. And he became commander over them. And they were with him, about 400 men. ³And David went from there to Mizpah of Moab. And he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and my mother go out with you until when I know what God will do for me." ⁴And he led them into the face of the king of Moab. And they stayed with him all the days of David being in the stronghold. ⁵And Gad the prophet said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold. Go and come for yourself to the land of Judah." And David went and came to the forest of Hereth.

⁶And Saul heard that David was known, and the men who were with him. Now Saul was sitting in the Gibeah under the tamarisk tree on the height, and his spear was in his hand, and all his servants were stationed beside him. ⁷And Saul said to his servants who were stationed beside him, "Listen now, Benjaminites! Will the son of Jesse give fields and vineyards even to all of you? Will he make all of you commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?

⁸For all of you have conspired against me! And there was no uncovering my ear when my son cut with the son of Jesse. And there was no grieving from you for me or uncovering my ear that my son has raised up my servant against me to lie in ambush as this day." ⁹And Doeg the Edomite answered (now he was stationed beside the servants of Saul) and said, "I saw the son of Jesse. He came to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. ¹⁰And he inquired of Yahweh for him, and he gave provisions to him. And he gave to him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

¹¹And the king sent to call Ahimelech the son of Ahitub the priest and all the house of his father, the priests who were in Nob. And all of them came to the king. ¹²And Saul said, "Listen now, son of Ahitub." And he said, "Here I am, my master." ¹³And Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, by your giving to him bread, and a sword, and inquiring of God for him, to rise up against me, to lie in ambush, as this day?"

¹⁴And Ahimelech answered the king and said, "Now who among all your servants is faithful like David, the son-in-law of the king, and commander over your guards, and is honored in your house? ¹⁵Did I begin to inquire of God for him today? Far be it for me! Do not let the king set a word against his servant, against all the house of my father. For your servant does not know of any of this, small matter or great." ¹⁶And the king said, "You will surely die, Ahimelech, you and all the house of your father!" ¹⁷And the king said to the ones who run, the ones who were stationed beside him, "Turn around and put to death the priests of Yahweh, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he was fleeing, but did not uncover my ear." But the servants of the king were not willing to send forth their hand to attack the priests of Yahweh.

¹⁸And the king said to Doeg, "You turn around and attack the priests!" And Doeg the Edomite turned around and he himself attacked the priests. And on that day he put to death 85 men who carried the linen ephod. ¹⁹And Nob, the city of the priests, he struck down by the mouth of the sword, from man and as far as woman, from child and as far as infant, and ox and donkey and sheep by the mouth of the sword. ²⁰And one son of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub slipped away, and his name was Abiathar. And he fled after David. ²¹And Abiathar told David that Saul had slain the priests of Yahweh. ²²And David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I myself have turned around against all the life of the house of your father! ²³Stay with me, do not be afraid. For who seeks my life seeks your life. Surely you will be kept safe with me."

¹And they told David, saying, "Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and they are plundering the threshing floors." ²And David inquired of Yahweh, saying, "Should I go and strike these Philistines?" And Yahweh said to David, "Go and strike the Philistines and save Keilah." ³And the men of David said to him, "Behold, we are afraid here in Judah. And the more so if we go to Keilah against the ranks of the Philistines!" ⁴And David did yet again inquire of Yahweh. And Yahweh answered him and said, "Rise, go down to Keilah, for I am about to give the Philistines into your hand." ⁵And David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines. And he drove off their livestock and struck them a great blow. And David saved those who dwelled in Keilah.

⁶And it happened that when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah an ephod came down in his hand. ⁷And it was told to Saul that David had gone to Keilah. And Saul said, "God has alienated him into my hand. For he has shut himself in by entering into a city of doors and a bar." ⁸And Saul caused all the people to hear for the battle, to go down to Keilah, to lay siege against David and against his men. ⁹And David knew that Saul was plotting evil against him. And he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring near the ephod." ¹⁰And David said, "Yahweh, the God of Israel, your servant has certainly heard that Saul is seeking to come to Keilah, to destroy the city because of me. ¹¹Will the masters of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down, just as your servant has heard? Yahweh, the God of Israel, please tell your servant." And Yahweh said, "He will come down." ¹²And David said, "Will the masters of Keilah deliver me and my men up into the hand of Saul?" And Yahweh said, "They will deliver up." ¹³And David and his men, about 600 men, rose and went out from Keilah, and they walked about in wherever they could walk about. And it was told to Saul that David had slipped away from Keilah, and he stopped going out. ¹⁴And David stayed in the wilderness in the strongholds, and he stayed in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him all the days, but God did not give him into his hand.

¹⁵And David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. Now David was in the wilderness of Ziph in the wood.

¹⁶And Jonathan the son of Saul rose and went to David at the wood. And he strengthened his hand in God. ¹⁷And he said to him, "Do not be afraid, for the hand of Saul my father will not find you. As for you, you will reign over Israel, but I will be as second to you. And even Saul my father knows so." ¹⁸And the two of them cut a covenant before the face of Yahweh. And David stayed in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

¹⁹And Ziphites went up to Saul at the Gibeah, saying, "Is not David hiding himself among us in the strongholds in the wood, on the hill of the Hakilah, which is south of the Jeshimon?" ²⁰And now, the king, according to all the desire of your soul to come down, come down! And it is for us to deliver him up into the hand of the king." ²¹And Saul said, "May you be blessed by Yahweh. For you have had compassion on me. ²²Go now, confirm again, and know, and see his place where his foot is. Who has seen him there? For one has said to me, 'He is very crafty.' ²³And see and know of all the hiding places there where he hides himself. And return to me with certain information, and I will go with you. And it will happen that if there is he in the land, then I will search for him in all the thousands of Judah."

²⁴And they rose and went to Ziph before the face of Saul. Now David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah, to the south of the Jeshimon. ²⁵And Saul and his men went to seek. And they told David, and he went down to the crag and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. And Saul heard and pursued after David from the wilderness of Maon. ²⁶And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men were on that side of the mountain. And it happened that David was hurrying away to go from the face of Saul. And Saul and his men were circling in on David and on his men to capture them. ²⁷And a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Hurry and go, for the Philistines have raided against the land." ²⁸And Saul returned from pursuing after David and went to meet the Philistines. Therefore they called that place the crag of the divisions. ²⁹And David went up from there and stayed in the strongholds of Engedi.^[1]

¹And it happened when Saul returned from after the Philistines, that they told him, saying, "Behold, David is in the wilderness of Engedi."^[1] ²And Saul took 3,000 men chosen from all Israel. And he went to seek David and his men on the face of the rocks of the wild goats. ³And he came to the pens of the sheep on the way, and a cave was there. And Saul entered to cover his feet. Now David and his men were sitting in the innermost part of the cave. ⁴And the men of David said to him, "Behold, today is what Yahweh said to you, 'Behold, I am about to give your enemy into your hand, and you will do to him as is good in your eyes.'" And David rose and cut off the edge of the robe which belonged to Saul in secrecy. ⁵And it happened after thus that the heart of David struck him because he had cut off the edge, which belonged to Saul. ⁶And he said to his men, "Far be it for me from Yahweh if I do this thing to my master, to the anointed one of Yahweh, to stretch out my hand against him. For he is the anointed one of Yahweh." ⁷And David divided his men with the words and did not give them to rise against Saul. And Saul rose from the cave and went in the way.

⁸And David rose after thus and went out from the cave. And he called out behind Saul, saying, "My master the king!" And Saul looked behind him, and David bowed, nostrils to the ground, and he bowed down. ⁹And David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of a man, saying, 'Behold, David is seeking your harm?' ¹⁰Behold, this day your eyes have seen that Yahweh gave you into my hand today in the cave. And some said to slay you, but it looked on you with compassion. And I said, 'I will not stretch out my hand against my master, for he is the anointed one of Yahweh.' ¹¹And see, my father, even see the edge of your robe in my hand! For when I cut off the edge of your robe I did not slay you. Know and see that there is no evil or transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, and you are lying in wait to take my life. ¹²May Yahweh judge between you and me, and may Yahweh avenge me against you, but my hand will not be against you. ¹³As the proverb of the ancients says, 'From the wicked ones goes out wickedness.' But my hand will not be against you. ¹⁴After whom does the king of Israel come out? After whom are you pursuing? After a dead dog? After one flea? ¹⁵And may Yahweh become judge and judge between me and you. And may he see and argue my case and judge me out of your hand."

¹⁶And it happened as soon as David had finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And Saul lifted up his voice and wept. ¹⁷And he said to David, "You are more righteous than I. For you did good to me, but I did evil to you. ¹⁸And you have declared today that you have done good with me, that Yahweh delivered me into your hand but you did not slay me. ¹⁹And if a man finds his enemy, will he send him away on the good way? And may Yahweh reward you with good in return for what you have done for me this day. ²⁰And now, behold, I know that you will surely reign and the kingdom of Israel will rise in your hand. ²¹And now, swear to me by Yahweh, that you will not cut off my seed after me, and that you will not destroy my name from the house of my father." ²²And David swore to Saul. And Saul went to his house, and David and his men went up on the stronghold.

¹And Samuel died, and all Israel gathered and mourned for him, and they buried him in his house in the Ramah. And David rose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

⁹And the young men of David came, and they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David. And they rested. ¹⁰And Nabal answered the servants of David. And he said, "Who is David? And who is the son of Jesse? Today there are many servants who are breaking away, a man from the face of his master. ¹¹And should I take my bread and my water and my slaughtered thing that I have slaughtered for my ones who shear, and give it to men whom I do not know where they are from?" ¹²And the young men of David turned to their way. And they returned and came and told him according to all these words. ¹³And David said to his men, "Strap on a man his sword." And they strapped on, a man his sword. And David also strapped on his sword. And about 400 men went up behind David, and 200 stayed with the things.

¹⁴But one young man from the young men told Abigail the wife of Nabal, saying, "Behold, David sent messengers from the wilderness to bless our master, and he screamed at them. ¹⁵But the men were very good to us. And we were not harmed and did not miss anything all the days of our going about with them when we were in the field. ¹⁶They were a wall for us both night and day, all the days of our being with them tending the sheep. ¹⁷And now know and see what you should do, for evil is determined against our master and against all his house. And he is a son of worthlessness from speaking to him."

¹⁸And Abigail hurried and took 200 bread loaves and two skins of wine and five prepared sheep and five seah of roasted grain and 100 bunches of raisins and 200 cakes of figs. And she put them on the donkeys. ¹⁹And she said to her young men, "Pass over before my face. Behold, I will come behind you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal. ²⁰And she was riding on the donkey and going down in the cover of the mountain, and behold, David and his men were coming down to meet her! And she encountered them. ²¹Now David had said, "Surely for a lie have I kept all that is for this one in the wilderness, and not anything was missed from all that is for him. And he has returned to me evil in place of good. ²²Thus may God do to the enemies of David and thus may he add, if I leave over until the morning any who are for him who urinate against the wall!"

²³And Abigail saw David, and she hurried and got down from on the donkey. And fell before the face of David on her face and bowed down to the ground. ²⁴And she fell on his feet and said, "On me myself, my master, be the iniquity. Please let your female servant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your female servant. ²⁵Please do not let my master set his heart against this man of worthlessness, against Nabal, for as his name is, so he is. Nabal is his name, and senselessness is with him. But I your female servant did not see the young men of my master, whom you sent. ²⁶And now, my master, as Yahweh is alive, and as your spirit is alive, it is Yahweh who has withheld you from entering into bloodshed and your hand saving for yourself. And now may your enemies and the ones who seek evil against my master be like Nabal. ²⁷And now let this blessing that your female servant has brought to my master be given to the young men, the ones going about at the feet of my master. ²⁸Please lift up the transgression of your female servant! For Yahweh will certainly make my master a sure house, because my master is fighting the battles of Yahweh. And evil will not be found in you from your days. ²⁹If a man rises up to pursue you and to seek your life, then the life of my master will be bound in the bundle of the living ones by Yahweh your God. And he will sling away the life of your enemies in the midst of the palm of the sling. ³⁰And it will happen that when Yahweh does for my master according to all the good that he spoke concerning you, and has appointed you for a ruler over Israel, ³¹then this will not become an obstacle for you or a stumbling block of heart for my master, or as the pouring out of blood without cause, or as my master saving himself. And Yahweh will do good for my master, and you will remember your female servant."

³⁶And Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, for him was a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And the heart of Nabal was good with him and he was drunk to abundance. And she did not tell him a thing small or great until the light of the morning. ³⁷And it happened in the morning, when the wine had gone out from Nabal, that his wife told him these things. And his heart died in his inner part and he became a stone. ³⁸And it was about ten days then Yahweh struck Nabal and he died.

³⁹And David heard that Nabal had died, and he said, "Blessed be Yahweh, who has argued the case of my reproach from the hand of Nabal and has withheld his servant from evil. And Yahweh has returned the evil of Nabal on his head." And David sent and spoke with Abigail, to take her for himself for a wife. ⁴⁰And the servants of David came to Abigail at the Carmel. And they spoke to her, saying, "David has sent us to you to take you for him for a wife."

⁴¹And she rose and bowed down, nostrils to the earth, and she said, "Behold, your female servant is as a slave woman for washing the feet of the servants of my master." ⁴²And Abigail hurried and rose and rode on the donkey, and five of her servant girls were going to her feet. And she went behind the messengers of David and became a wife for him. ⁴³And David took Ahinoam from Jezreel. And the two of them both became wives for him.

⁴⁴Now Saul had given Michal his daughter, the wife of David, to Paltiel the son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

Chapter 26

¹And the Ziphites came to Saul at the Gibeah, saying, "Is not David hiding himself in the hill of the Hakilah, on the face of the Jeshimon?" ²And Saul rose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, and with him were 3,000 men, chosen ones of Israel, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. ³And Saul camped in the hill of the Hakilah, which is on the face of the Jeshimon, by the road. But David was staying in the wilderness and he saw that Saul was coming after him to the wilderness. ⁴And David sent spies and he knew that Saul had certainly come. ⁵And David rose and came to the place there where Saul had camped. And David saw the place there where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army. And Saul lay in the entrenchment, and the people were camped around him.

⁶And David answered and said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul, to the camp?" And Abishai said, "I! I will go down with you." ⁷And David and Abishai came to the people at night. And behold, Saul lie asleep in the entrenchment, and his spear was pressed into the ground at the place of his head. And Abner and the people were lying around him. ⁸And Abishai said to David, "Today God has delivered your enemy into your hand. And now please let me strike him with the spear even into the earth one time. And I will not do it again to him." ⁹And David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him. For who has stretched out his hand against the anointed one of Yahweh and been innocent?" ¹⁰And David said, "As Yahweh is alive, surely Yahweh will strike him, or his day will come and he will die, or he will go down into the battle and be swept away. ¹¹Far be it for me from Yahweh to stretch out my hand against the anointed one of Yahweh. And now, please take the spear that is at the place of his head and the jug of water, and let us go for ourselves." ¹²And David took the spear and the jug of water from the place of the head of Saul, and they went for themselves. And there was no one who saw, and there was no one who knew, and there was no one who awoke, for all of them were sleeping, because a deep sleep of Yahweh had fallen on them.

¹³And David passed over to the other side and stood on the head of the mountain from a distance. Great was the distance between them. ¹⁴And David called out to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Will you not answer, Abner?" And Abner answered and said, "Who are you who calls out to the king?" ¹⁵And David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? But why did you not watch over your master the king? For one of the people came to destroy the king your master. ¹⁶This thing that you have done is not good. As Yahweh is alive, surely sons of death are you who did not watch over your master, over the anointed one of Yahweh. And now see, where is the spear of the king and the jar of water that was at the place of his head?"

¹⁷And Saul recognized the voice of David and said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And David said, "It is my voice, my master the king." ¹⁸And he said, "Why is my master pursuing after his servant? For what have I done? And what evil is in my hand? ¹⁹And now, please hear, my master the king, the words of his servant. If Yahweh has incited you against me, may he smell an offering; but if the sons of the man, cursed be them before the face of Yahweh. For they have today driven me out from joining oneself with the inheritance of Yahweh, saying, 'Go serve other gods.' ²⁰And now, do not let my blood fall to the earth from in front of the face of Yahweh. For the king of Israel has come out to seek one flea just as one pursues the partridge in the mountains."

²¹And Saul said, "I have sinned! Return, my son David! For I will not do evil to you again, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Behold, I have acted foolishly and have gone very much astray!" ²²And David answered and said, "Behold, the spear of the king! And let one of the young men pass over and take it. ²³And may Yahweh return to the man his righteousness and his faithfulness; because Yahweh gave you into a hand today, but I was not willing to stretch out my hand against the anointed one of Yahweh. ²⁴And behold, just as your life was great in my eyes this day, so may my life be great in the eyes of Yahweh, and may he rescue me from all distress." ²⁵And Saul said to David, "Blessed be you, my son David! You will certainly both do and also you will certainly be able." And David went to his way, and Saul returned to his place.

Chapter 27

¹And David said to his heart, "Now I will be swept away one day by the hand of Saul. There is no good thing for me, but I will certainly slip away to the land of the Philistines. And Saul will despair of me, of seeking me again in all the territory of Israel, and I will slip away from his hand." ²And David rose and passed over, he and 600 men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maok, the king of Gath. ³And David dwelled with Achish in Gath, he and his men, a man and his house, David and the two of his wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite woman and Abigail the Carmelite woman, the wife of Nabal. ⁴And it was told to Saul that David had fled to Gath. And he did not again seek him more.

⁵And David said to Achish, "If I have found favor in your eyes, let them give to me a place in one of the cities of the field, and I may dwell there. And why should your servant dwell in the city of the kingship with you?" ⁶And on that day Achish gave to him Ziklag. Therefore Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah until this day.

⁷And the number of the days that David dwelled in the field of the Philistines was days and four months. ⁸And David and his men went up and raided against the Geshurites and the Girzites and the Amalekites. For they were dwelling in the land, which is from ancient times, as you go to Shur, and as far as the land of Egypt. ^[1] ⁹And David struck the land and did not let a man or a woman live. And he took sheep and cattle and donkeys and camels and garments. And he returned and came to Achish. ¹⁰And Achish said, "Against whom did you raid today?" And David said, "Against the south of Judah and against the south of the Jerahmeelite and against the south of the Kenite."

¹¹Now David did not let a man or a woman live to bring to Gath, saying, "Lest they tell about us, saying, 'Thus did David.'" And thus was his custom all the days that he dwelled in the field of the Philistines. ¹²And Achish trusted in David, saying, "He certainly stinks among his people in Israel, and he will become an eternal servant for me."

27:8 ^[1] which is found in some ancient Hebrew manuscripts, some modern versions have which is found in the margin of some Hebrew manuscripts.

Chapter 28

¹And it happened in those days that the Philistines gathered their camps for the war to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, "You certainly know that you will go out with me in the camp, you and your men." ²And David said to Achish, "Therefore, you yourself will know what your servant can do." And Achish said to David, "Therefore, I will appoint you the keeper of my head all the days."

³Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him and had buried him in the Ramah, even in his city. And Saul had removed the necromancers and the ones with familiar spirits from the land. ⁴And the Philistines gathered and came and camped at Shunem. And Saul gathered all Israel, and they camped at the Gilboa. ⁵And Saul saw the camp of the Philistines. And he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. ⁶And Saul inquired of Yahweh, but Yahweh did not answer him—neither by the dreams, nor by the Urim, nor by the prophets. ⁷And Saul said to his servants, "Seek for me a woman of a mistress of necromancy, so I may go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "Behold, a woman of a mistress of necromancy is in Endor."

⁸And Saul disguised himself, and put on other clothes, and went, he and two of the men with him. And they came to the woman at night. And he said, "Please practice divination for me with a spirit of the dead, and bring up for me whom I say to you." ⁹And the woman said to him, "Behold, you yourself know what Saul has done, that he has cut off the necromancers and the ones with a familiar spirit from the land. And why are you setting a trap against my life, to put me to death?" ¹⁰And Saul swore to her by Yahweh, saying, "As Yahweh is alive, no punishment will meet you by this matter." ¹¹And the woman said, "Whom will I bring up for you?" And he said, "Bring up Samuel for me." ¹²And the woman saw Samuel and cried out with a loud voice. And the woman said to Saul, saying, "Why did you deceive me? And you are Saul!" ¹³And the king said to her, "Do not be afraid, but what did you see?" And the woman said to Saul, "I saw gods going up from the earth." ¹⁴And he said to her, "What is his appearance?" And she said, "An old man is coming up and he is wrapped in a robe." And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed, nostrils to the ground, and he bowed down.

¹⁵And Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" And Saul said, "It is very narrow for me, and the Philistines are about to fight against me. And God has turned aside from on me and does not answer me anymore, neither by the hand of the prophets, nor by the dreams, so I have called to you, to cause me to know what I will do."

²⁰And Saul immediately fell with the fullness of his height to the ground and was very afraid from the words of Samuel. Also strength was not in him, for he had not eaten bread all the day and all the night. ²¹And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was very terrified, And she said to him, "Behold, your female servant has listened to your voice and I have put my life in my palm and have heard the words that you have spoken to me. ²²And now, please listen, even you, to the voice of your female servant, and let me set a bit of bread before your face and eat. And strength will be in you when you go in the way." ²³And he refused and said, "I will not eat." But his servants and also the woman, urged him, and he listened to their voice. And he rose from the ground and sat on the bed. ²⁴Now a calf of the stall belonged to the woman in the house, and she hurried and sacrificed it. And she took flour and kneaded and baked it to unleavened bread. ²⁵And she brought it near before the face of Saul and before the face of his servants, and they ate. And they rose and went in that night.

¹And the Philistines gathered all their camp at Aphek. And Israel was camping at the spring that is in Jezreel. ²And the rulers of the Philistines were passing over by hundreds and by thousands. And David and his men were passing over in the rear with Achish. ³And the commanders of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews?" And Achish said to the commanders of the Philistines, "Is this not David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days or these years, and I have not found anything in him from the day of his falling until this day?"

⁴And the commanders of the Philistines were furious against him. And the commanders of the Philistines said to him, "Make the man return, that he may return to his place there where you assigned him. And he will not go down with us in the battle, and he will not become an adversary for us in the battle. And by what could this one make himself acceptable to his master? Is it not by the heads of these men? ⁵Is this not David of whom they sang in the dances, saying,

'Saul has struck down his thousands,
and David his ten thousands?'"

⁶And Achish called to David and said to him, "As Yahweh is alive, surely you are upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the camp is good in my eyes, for I have not found evil in you from the day of your coming to me until this day. But in the eyes of the rulers you are not good. ⁷And now return and go in peace, so you do not do evil in the eyes of the rulers of the Philistines."

⁸And David said to Achish, "But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant from the day when I was before your face until this day, that I may not come and fight against the enemies of my master the king?" ⁹And Achish answered and said to David, "I know that you are good in my eyes like a messenger of God. Nevertheless, the commanders of the Philistines have said, 'He must not go up with us in the battle.' ¹⁰And now rise early in the morning with the servants of your master who came with you. And you shall rise early in the morning with light for you and go." ¹¹And David rose early, he and his men, to go in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

Chapter 30

¹And it happened, when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had raided against the Negev and against Ziklag. And they had struck Ziklag and had burned it with fire. ²And they had taken captive the women who were in it, from small and as far as great. They had not put a man to death, but had led them away and went to their way. ³And David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burned with fire! And their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive. ⁴And David and the people who were with him lifted up their voices and wept until there was no strength in them to weep. ⁵And the two of the wives of David had been taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelite woman and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. ⁶And it was very narrow for David, for the people said to stone him, for the spirit of all the people was bitter, a man for his sons and for his daughters. And David strengthened himself in Yahweh, his God.

⁷And David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Please bring near to me the ephod." And Abiathar brought near to David the ephod. ⁸And David inquired of Yahweh, saying, "If I pursue after this troop, will I overtake it?" And he said to him, "Pursue, for you will certainly overtake and you will certainly rescue." ⁹And David went, he and the 600 men who were with him, and they came as far as the wadi of the Besor. And the ones who were left behind stayed. ¹⁰And David pursued, he and 400 men. And 200 men stayed, who were too exhausted to pass over the wadi of the Besor.

¹¹And they found an Egyptian man in the field and took him to David. And they gave to him bread, and he ate. And they caused him to drink water. ¹²And they gave to him a slice of a fig cake and two raisin clusters, and he ate and his spirit returned to him. For he had not eaten bread and had not drunk water three days and three nights.

¹⁶And he brought him down, and behold, they were spread out over the face of all the land, eating and drinking and celebrating because of all the great spoil that they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah. ¹⁷And David struck them down from the twilight and until the evening of their next day. And a man did not slip away from them except for 400 men, young men who rode on the camels and fled. ¹⁸And David rescued all that Amalek had taken. And David rescued the two of his wives. ¹⁹And it was not missing for them from small and as far as great and as far as sons and daughters and from spoil and as far as all that they had taken for themselves. David brought back everything. ²⁰And David took all the sheep and the cattle. They drove before the face of that livestock, and said, "This is the spoil of David."

²¹And David came to the 200 men who had been too exhausted to go behind David, and they had caused them to stay at the wadi of the Besor. And they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him. And David came near the people and asked them with respect to well-being. ²²And all the evil and worthless men from the men who had gone with David answered and said, "Because they did not go with us, we will not give to them from the spoil that we have rescued, except a man his wife and his sons, that they may lead away and go." ²³And David said, "You shall not do so, my brothers, with what Yahweh has given to us. And he has kept us and given into our hand the troop who came against us. ²⁴And who will listen to you with respect to this matter? For as is the portion of the one who went down in the battle, so shall be the portion of the one who stayed with the things. They shall be apportioned together." ²⁵And it happened from that day and beyond, that he set it for a statute and for a custom for Israel, until this day.

²⁶And David came to Ziklag and sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his companions, saying, "Behold, a blessing for you: some of the spoil of the enemies of Yahweh." ²⁷It was for he who was in Bethel and for he who was in Ramoth of the South and for he who was in Jattir ²⁸and for he who was in Aroer and for he who was in Siphmoth and for he who was in Eshtemoa ²⁹and for he who was in Rakal and for he who was in the cities of the Jerahmeelite and for he who was in the cities of the Kenite ³⁰and for he who was in Hormah and for he who was in Bor Ashan and for he who was in Athak ³¹and for he who was in Hebron and for all the places there where David walked about, he and his men.

Chapter 31

¹Now the Philistines were fighting against Israel. And the men of Israel fled from before the face of the Philistines and they fell pierced on Mount Gilboa. ²And the Philistines stuck close to Saul and his sons. And the Philistines struck down Jonathan and Abinadab and Malki-Shua, the sons of Saul. ³And the battle was heavy against Saul and the archers, the men with the bow, found him. And he writhed in pain greatly because of the archers. ⁴And Saul said to the one who carried his equipment, "Draw out your sword and pierce me through with it, lest these uncircumcised ones come and pierce me through and deal severely with me." But the one who carried his equipment was not willing, for he was very afraid. And Saul took the sword and fell on it. ⁵And the one who carried his equipment saw that Saul had died. And he fell, he also, on his sword and died with him. ⁶And Saul died and the three of his sons and the one who carried his equipment, even all his men together on that day. ⁷And the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley and who were on the other side of the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled, and that Saul and his sons had died. And they left their cities and fled. And the Philistines came and dwelled in them.

⁸And it happened from the next day, that the Philistines came to strip the pierced ones. And they found Saul and the three of his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹And they cut off his head and stripped off his equipment. And they sent into the land of the Philistines all around to bring news to the house of their idols and to the people. ¹⁰And they put his equipment in the house of the Ashtoreths. And they thrust his corpse on the wall of Beth Shan. ¹¹And those who dwelled in Jabesh Gilead heard about it, what the Philistines had done to Saul. ¹²And all the men of strength rose and went all the night and took the corpse of Saul and the corpses of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan. And they went to Jabesh and burned them there. ¹³And they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh. And they fasted seven days.

Chapter 1

¹And it happened after the death of Saul, and David returned from attacking the Amalekites, that David remained in Ziklag two days. ²And it happened on the third day, that behold, a man came from the camp, from with Saul, and his clothes were torn and dirt was on his head. And it happened when he came to David that he fell to the ground and prostrated himself. ³And David said to him, "Where are you coming from?" And he said to him, "I escaped from the camp of Israel." ⁴And David said to him, "What is the matter? Tell to me please." And He said that, "The people have fled from the battle, and also many from the people have fallen and died, and Saul and Jonathan his son are also dead." ⁵And David said to the young man, the one who was reporting to him, "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?" ⁶And the young man, the one who was reporting to him, said, "Certainly I happened to be in the mountain of Gilboa, and behold, Saul was leaning on his spear, and behold, the chariots and the masters of the horses clung to him. ⁷And Saul turned behind him and saw me. And he called out to me, and I said, 'Here I am.' ⁸And he said to me, 'Who are you?' And I said to him, 'I am an Amalekite.' ⁹And he said to me, 'Now stand over me and kill me, for agony has grasped me, because my life is still wholly in me.' ¹⁰So I stood over him and killed him, because I knew that he would not live after his fall. And I took the crown that was on his head and the band that was on his arm, and I brought them here to my lord."

¹¹And David seized his clothes and tore them, and also all the men who were with him. ¹²And they mourned and wept and fasted until the evening for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the army of Yahweh, and for the house of Israel because they had fallen by the sword. ¹³And David said to the young man, the one who was reporting to him, "Where are you from?" And he said, "I am a son of a man, a foreigner, an Amalekite." ¹⁴And David said to him, "How were you not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy the anointed one of Yahweh?" ¹⁵And David called out to one of the young men and said, "Come near, fall upon him." And he struck him, and he died. ¹⁶And David said to him, "Your blood is on your head because your mouth has testified against you saying, 'I myself killed the anointed one of Yahweh.'"

¹⁷Then David sang this funeral song for Saul and for Jonathan his son. ¹⁸And he said to teach the sons of Judah the bow, behold, which has been written in the Book of the Upright.^[1]

¹⁹"The beauty of Israel is slain on your high places!

How the mighty have fallen!

²⁰Do not tell it in Gath, do not announce it in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised exult.

²¹Mountains in Gilboa, let there not be dew and let there not be rain on you,

nor fields that give contributions, for there the shield of the mighty was defiled.

The shield of Saul is not anointed with oil.

²²From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty,

 the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, and the sword of Saul did not return empty.

²³Saul and Jonathan, the ones who were loved and the delightful ones in their life, and in their death they were not separated.

They were swifter than eagles, they were mightier than lions.

²⁴Daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, the one who clothed you in scarlet, with luxuries,
 the one who put ornaments of gold on your clothing.

²⁵How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle!
 Jonathan is slain on your high places.

²⁶It is distressing to me concerning you, my brother Jonathan.
 You were very pleasant to me.
 Your love for me was wonderful, more than the love of women.

²⁷How the mighty have fallen, and the weapons of war perished!"

1:18 ^[1]

Chapter 2

¹And it happened after this that David asked of Yahweh saying, "Should I go up into one of the cities of Judah?" And Yahweh said to him, "Go up." Then David said, "Where should I go?" And he said, "To Hebron." ²So David went up there and with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail, the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. ³And David brought up his men who were with him, each man with his household, and they lived in the cities of Hebron,. ⁴And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David as king over the house of Judah.

And they told to David saying, "The men of Jabesh Gilead, who buried Saul." ⁵So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead and said to them, "Blessed are you by Yahweh, because you did this kindness with your master, with Saul, and have buried him. ⁶And now may Yahweh do to you kindness and faithfulness. And also I will do for you this good because you have done this thing. ⁷So now, let your hands be strong; and be as sons of might for Saul your master is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me for king over them."

⁸And Abner son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, took Ishbosheth son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim. ⁹And he made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. ¹⁰Ishbosheth son of Saul, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah was behind David. ¹¹And the number of the days that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

¹²And Abner son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. ¹³And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down together, these by the pool on this side, and these by the pool on this side. ¹⁴And Abner said to Joab, "Now let the young men arise and compete before us." And Joab said, "Let them arise." ¹⁵Then they arose and passed by, by number, twelve for Benjamin and Ishbosheth son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David. ¹⁶And each man grasped his opponent by the head and his sword into the side of his opponent, and they fell down together. Therefore that place was called "Helkath Hazzurim," or "Field of Swords," which is in Gibeon. ¹⁷And the battle was very severe that day and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated before the servants of David.

¹⁸The three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel. Asahel was swift on his feet like one of the gazelles which are in the field. ¹⁹And Asahel pursued after Abner, and he turned not aside by going to the right or to the left from after Abner. ²⁰Then Abner looked behind him and said, "Is that you Asahel?" And he answered, "It is I." ²¹And Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right or to your left, and seize for you from one of the young men, and take for you his belongings." But Asahel was not willing to turn aside from behind him. ²²And Abner said again to Asahel, "You turn aside from behind me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I lift up my face towards Joab, your brother?" ²³But he refused to turn aside, and so Abner struck him in the stomach with the back of the spear, so that the spear came out from his back. And he fell there, and died on the spot. And it happened that all the ones coming to the place where Asahel fell there and died, they stood.

²⁴But Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner. And when the sun was going down, they came to the hill of Ammah, which is on the front of Giah by the road to the wilderness of Gibeon. ²⁵And the sons of Benjamin gathered themselves behind Abner, and they were as one band, and they stood on the top of the hill as one. ²⁶Then Abner called to Joab and said, "Must the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the end? And until when will it be that you not tell to the people to turn from after their brothers?" ²⁷And Joab said, "As God lives, if you had not spoken, surely then the people would have pulled back, a man from after his brother, until the morning!" ²⁸So Joab blew on the trumpet, and all the people stood and did not pursue after Israel anymore, and they did not continue to fight anymore. ²⁹And Abner and his men went all that night through the Arabah. And they crossed the Jordan and they walked all the morning, and they came to Mahanaim.

³⁰And Joab returned from after Abner, and he assembled all the people, and were missing Asahel and nineteen men from the servants of David. ³¹But the servants of David struck down from Benjamin, from the men of Abner, 360 men they killed. ³²And they took up Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Bethlehem. Joab and his men walked all of the night, and it became light on them at Hebron.

Chapter 3

¹And the war was long between the house of Saul and between the house of David. And David was progressing stronger and stronger, but the house of Saul was progressing weaker and weaker.

²And sons were born to David in Hebron. And his firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess. ³And his second, Kileab, by Abigail, the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. And the third, Absalom, was son of Maacah, daughter of Talmi, king of Geshur. ⁴And the fourth was Adonijah, son of Haggith. And the fifth was Shephatiah, son of Abital. ⁵And the sixth Ithream, by Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

⁶And it happened during the war between the house of Saul and between the house of David that Abner was strengthening himself in the house of Saul. ⁷And Saul had a concubine, and her name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And he said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?" ⁸And Abner was very angry at the words of Ishbosheth and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I do covenant faithfulness with the house of Saul, your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, by not delivering you into the hand of David. And today you call me to account concerning a fault with this woman? ⁹So may God do to Abner, and so more also to him, if as has sworn Yahweh to David, that so I do for him, ¹⁰to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Beersheba." ¹¹And he was not able to answer Abner another word, because of his fear of him.

¹²And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf saying, "Whose land is this? Cut your covenant with me, and behold my hand is with you, to bring over all of Israel to you." ¹³And he said, "Good, I will cut a covenant with you. Only one thing I require from you, that is, that you will not see my face unless to my face you bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face." ¹⁴Then David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saul's son, saying, "Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself with one hundred Philistine foreskins." ¹⁵And Ishbosheth sent and took her from with her husband, from with Paltiel, son of Laish. ¹⁶And her husband walked with her, walking and weeping behind her to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, "walk back" and he returned back.

¹⁷And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel saying, "Yesterday and the day before, you were seeking to secure David for a king over you. ¹⁸And now do it, for Yahweh said concerning David saying, 'By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all their enemies.'" ¹⁹And Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin. And Abner also went to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that was good in the eyes of Israel and in the eyes of all of the house of Benjamin. ²⁰And Abner came to David in Hebron, and with him twenty men; and David had made a feast for Abner and for the men who were with him. ²¹And Abner said to David, "Let me arise, and let me go, and let me gather to my lord the king, all of Israel that they may cut a covenant with you, and you will reign over all that your soul desires." And David sent Abner away, and he left in peace.

²²And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought with them much plunder, but Abner was not with David in Hebron because he had sent him away and he had gone in peace. ²³And Joab and all the army which was with him arrived, and they told to Joab saying, "Abner son of Ner came to the king, and he let him go, and he went in peace." ²⁴And Joab came to the king and said, "What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you! Why is this you have let him go, and he went and is surely gone? ²⁵You know that Abner son of Ner came to deceive you and to know your going out and your coming in and to know all which you are doing?" ²⁶And Joab went out from with David and he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the cistern of Sirah, but David did not know.

²⁷And Abner returned to Hebron, and Joab took him aside into the middle of the gate to speak with him in the quietness. There Joab stabbed him in the stomach, and he died for the blood of Asahel, his brother. ²⁸And afterward, David heard this, and he said, "I and my kingdom are forever innocent before Yahweh of the blood of Abner son of Ner. ²⁹Let the guilt of Abner's death fall on the head of Joab and on all his father's house. May there never fail to be in the family of Joab someone who has a flowing sore or skin disease or who is lame and must walk with a staff or who is killed by the sword or who goes without food." ³⁰So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in battle.

³¹David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, "Tear your clothes, put on sackcloth, and mourn before Abner's body." Now King David walked behind the body in the funeral procession. ³²They buried Abner in Hebron. The king wept and cried loudly at the tomb of Abner, and all the people also wept. ³³The king lamented for Abner and sang,

"Should Abner die as a fool dies?

³⁴Your hands were not bound.

Your feet were not shackled.

As a man falls before the sons of injustice, so you have fallen."

Once more all the people wept over him. ³⁵All the people came to make David eat while it was still day, but David swore, "May God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun goes down." ³⁶All the people took notice of David's grief, and it pleased them, as whatever the king did pleased them. ³⁷So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not the king's desire to kill Abner son of Ner. ³⁸The king said to his servants, "Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel? ³⁹Now I am weak today, though I am an anointed king. These men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too brutal for me. May Yahweh repay the evildoer by punishing him for his wickedness, as he deserves."

Chapter 4

¹When Ishbosheth, Saul's son, heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands became weak, and all Israel was troubled. ²Now Saul's son had two men who were captains of groups of soldiers. The name of one was Baanah and the other Recab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite of the people of Benjamin (for Beeroth is also considered part of Benjamin, ³and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have been living there until this very time).

⁴Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was crippled in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up to flee. But as she was running, Jonathan's son fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.

⁵So the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Recab and Baanah, traveled during the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, as he was resting at noon. ⁶Behold, the woman guarding the door had fallen asleep while sifting wheat, and Recab and Baanah, his brother, walked in quietly, stabbed Ishbosheth in the stomach, and then escaped. ⁷So after they entered the house, they attacked him and killed him as he was lying on his bed in his room. Then they cut off his head and carried it away, traveling on the road all night to the Arabah. ⁸They brought the head of Ishbosheth to David at Hebron, and they said to the king, "Look, this is the head of Ishbosheth son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life. Today Yahweh has avenged our master the king against Saul and his descendants." ⁹David answered Recab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite; he said to them, "As Yahweh lives, who delivered my life from every trouble, ¹⁰when someone told me, 'Look, Saul is dead,' thinking he was bringing good news, I seized him and killed him at Ziklag. That was the reward I gave him for his news. ¹¹How much more, when wicked men have killed an innocent person in his own house on his bed, should I not now require his blood from your hand, and remove you from the earth?" ¹²Then David gave orders to the young men, and they killed them and cut off their hands and feet and hung them up beside the pool at Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

¹Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, "Look, we are your flesh and bone. ²In the recent past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led the Israelite army. Yahweh said to you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become ruler over Israel.'" ³So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them before Yahweh. They anointed David king over Israel. ⁴David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. ⁵In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

⁶The king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land. They said to David, "You will not come here except to be turned away by the blind and the lame. David cannot come here." ⁷Nevertheless, David captured the stronghold of Zion, which now is the city of David. ⁸At that time David said, "Those who attack the Jebusites will have to go through the water shaft to reach the 'lame and the blind' who are David's enemies." That is why people say, "The 'blind and the lame' must not enter the palace." ⁹So David lived in the stronghold and called it the city of David. He fortified around it, from the terrace toward the inside. ¹⁰David became very powerful because Yahweh, the God of hosts, was with him.

¹¹Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, carpenters, and masons. They built a house for David. ¹²David knew that Yahweh had established him as king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

¹⁷Now when the Philistines heard that David had been anointed as king over Israel, they all went out looking for him. But David heard about it and went down to the stronghold. ¹⁸Now the Philistines had come and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁹Then David asked for help from Yahweh. He said, "Should I attack the Philistines? Will you give victory over them?" Yahweh said to David, "Attack, for I will certainly give you victory over the Philistines." ²⁰So David attacked at Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He commented, "Yahweh has burst through my enemies before me like a bursting flood of water." So the name of that place became Baal Perazim. ²¹The Philistines left their idols there, and David and his men carried them away.

²²Then the Philistines came up again and spread out once more in the Valley of Rephaim. ²³So David asked help from Yahweh again, and Yahweh said to him, "You must not attack their front, but rather circle around behind them and come on them through the balsam woods. ²⁴When you hear the sound of marching in the wind blowing through the balsam treetops, then attack with force. Do this because Yahweh will have gone out before you to attack the army of the Philistines." ²⁵So David did as Yahweh had commanded him. He killed Philistines from Geba all the way to Gezer.

Chapter 6

¹Now David again gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. ²David arose and went with all his men who were with him from Baalah in Judah to bring up from there the Box of the Covenant of God, which is called by the name of Yahweh of hosts, who sits enthroned over the cherubim. ³They set the Box of the Covenant of God on a new cart. They brought it out of Abinadab's house, which was on a hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were guiding the new cart. ⁴They brought the cart out of Abinadab's house on the hill with the Box of the Covenant of God on it. Ahio was walking in front of the ark. ⁵Then David and all the house of Israel began to play before Yahweh, celebrating with wooden instruments, harps, lyres, tambourines, rattles, and cymbals.

⁶When they came to the threshing floor of Nakon, the oxen stumbled, and Uzzah reached out with his hand to grab the Box of the Covenant of God, and he took hold of it. ⁷Then the anger of Yahweh burned against Uzzah. God attacked him there for his error. Uzzah died there by the Box of the Covenant of God. ⁸David was angry because Yahweh had attacked Uzzah, and he called the name of that place Perez Uzzah. That place is called Perez Uzzah to this day. ⁹David was afraid of Yahweh that day. He said, "How can the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh come to me?" ¹⁰So David was not willing to take the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh with him into the city of David. Instead, he put it aside in the house of Obed Edom the Gittite. ¹¹The Box of the Covenant of Yahweh remained in the house of Obed Edom the Gittite for three months. So Yahweh blessed him and all his household.

¹²Now King David was told, "Yahweh has blessed Obed Edom's house and everything that belongs to him because of the Box of the Covenant of God." So David went and brought up the Box of the Covenant of God from Obed Edom's house to the city of David with joy. ¹³When those who were carrying the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh had gone six steps, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened calf. ¹⁴David danced before Yahweh with all his might; he was wearing only a linen ephod. ¹⁵So David and all the house of Israel brought up the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh with shouting and the sound of trumpets.

¹⁶Now as the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh came into the city of David, Michal, the daughter of Saul, looked out the window. She saw King David leaping and dancing before Yahweh. Then she despised him in her heart. ¹⁷They brought in the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh and put it in its place, in the middle of the tent that David had set up for it. Then David offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before Yahweh. ¹⁸When David had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and the fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Yahweh of hosts. ¹⁹Then he distributed among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both to men and women, a loaf of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people left; each one returned to his own house.

²⁰Then David returned to bless his family. Michal, the daughter of Saul, came out to meet David and said, "How honored the king of Israel was today, who undressed himself today before the eyes of the slave girls among his servants, like one of the crude fellows who shamelessly undresses himself!" ²¹David responded to Michal, "I did that before Yahweh, who chose me above your father and above all his family, who appointed me leader over the people of Yahweh, over Israel. Before Yahweh I will be joyful! ²²I will be even more undignified than this, and I will be humiliated in my own eyes. But by these slave girls you have spoken about, I will be honored." ²³So Michal, the daughter of Saul, had no children to the day of her death.

¹It happened that after the king had settled in his house, and after Yahweh had given him rest from all his surrounding enemies, ²the king said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I am living in a house of cedar, but the Box of the Covenant of God is staying in the middle of a tent." ³Then Nathan said to the king, "Go, do what is in your heart, for Yahweh is with you." ⁴But that same night the word of Yahweh came to Nathan, saying: ⁵"Go and tell David my servant, 'This is what Yahweh says: Will you build me a house in which to live? ⁶For I have not lived in a house from the day that I brought up the people of Israel out of Egypt until this present day; instead, I have been moving about in a tent, a tabernacle. ⁷In all places where I have moved among all the people of Israel, did I ever say anything to any of Israel's leaders whom I appointed to shepherd my people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'" ⁸Now then, tell my servant David, 'This is what Yahweh of hosts says: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, so that you would be ruler over my people Israel. ⁹I have been with you wherever you went. I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name great, like the names of the great ones of the earth. ¹⁰I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them there, so that they may live in their own place and be troubled no more. No longer will wicked people oppress them, as they did before, ¹¹as they were doing from the days that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Now I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover, I, Yahweh declare to you that I will make you a house. ¹²When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up a descendant after you, one who will come out from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹³He will build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. ¹⁴I will be a father to him, and he will be my son. When he sins, I will discipline him with the rod of men and with the whipping of the sons of men. ¹⁵But my covenant faithfulness will not leave him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you. ¹⁶Your house and kingdom will be confirmed forever before you. Your throne will be established forever.'" ¹⁷Nathan spoke to David and reported to him all these words and the entire vision.

¹⁸Then David the king went in and sat before Yahweh and said, "Who am I, Lord Yahweh, and what is my family that you have brought me to this point? ¹⁹Now this was a small thing in your sight, Lord Yahweh. You have even spoken about your servant's family for a great while to come, and have shown me future generations, Lord Yahweh! ²⁰What more can I, David, say to you? You have known your servant, Lord Yahweh. ²¹For your word's sake, and to fulfill your own purpose, you have done this great thing and revealed it to your servant. ²²Therefore you are great, Lord Yahweh, for there is no one like you, and there is no God besides you, as we have heard with our own ears. ²³What nation is like your people Israel, the one nation on earth whom you, God, went and rescued for yourself? You did this so that they would become a people for yourself, to make a name for yourself, and to do great and fearful deeds for your land. You drove out nations and their gods from before your people, whom you rescued from Egypt. ²⁴You established Israel as your own people forever, and you, Yahweh, became their God. ²⁵So now, Yahweh God, may the promise that you made concerning your servant and his family be established forever.

Do as you have spoken. ²⁶May your name be forever great, so the people will say, 'Yahweh of hosts is the God of Israel,' while the house of me, David, your servant is established before you. ²⁷For you, Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, have revealed to your servant that you will build him a house. That is why I, your servant, have found courage to pray to you. ²⁸Now, Lord Yahweh, you are God, and your words are trustworthy, and you have made this good promise to your servant. ²⁹Now then, let it please you to bless the house of your servant, so that it may continue forever before you. For you, Lord Yahweh, have said these things, and with your blessing your servant's house will be blessed forever."

Chapter 8

¹After this it came about that David attacked the Philistines and defeated them. So David took Metheg Ammah from the control of the Philistines.

²Then he defeated Moab and measured their men with a line by making them lie down on the ground. He measured off two lines to put to death, and one full line to keep alive. So the Moabites became servants to David and began to pay him tribute.

³David then defeated Hadadezer son of Rehob, the king of Zobah, as Hadadezer was traveling to recover his rule by the Euphrates River. ⁴David captured from him 1700 chariots and 20000 footmen. David hamstringed all the chariot horses, but reserved enough of them for 100 chariots. ⁵When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed 22000 Aramean men. ⁶Then David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and the Arameans became servants to him and brought him tribute. Yahweh gave victory to David wherever he went. ⁷David took the golden shields that were on Hadadezer's servants and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸From Tebah and Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took very much bronze.

¹¹King David set aside these objects to Yahweh, together with the silver and gold from all the nations that he conquered— ¹²from Aram, Moab, the people of Ammon, the Philistines, and Amalek, along with all of the plundered goods of Hadadezer son of Rehob, the king of Zobah.

¹³David's name was well known when he returned from conquering the Arameans in the Valley of Salt, with their 18000 men. ¹⁴He placed garrisons throughout all of Edom, and all the Edomites became servants to him. Yahweh gave victory to David wherever he went.

¹⁵David reigned over all Israel, and he administered justice and righteousness to all his people. ¹⁶Joab son of Zeruah was the commander of the army, and Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder. ¹⁷Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests, and Seraiah was scribe. ¹⁸Benaiah son of Jehoiada was in charge of the Kerethites and Pelethites, and David's sons were the chief officials at the king's hand.^[1]

Chapter 9

¹David said, "Is there anyone left in Saul's family to whom I may show kindness for Jonathan's sake?" ²There was in Saul's family a servant whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David. The king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" He replied, "Yes. I am your servant." ³So the king said, "Is there anyone left of Saul's family to whom I may show the kindness of God?" Ziba replied to the king, "Jonathan still has a son, who is lame in his feet." ⁴The king said to him, "Where is he?" Ziba replied to the king, "Look, he is in the house of Machir son of Ammiel in Lo Debar." ⁵Then King David sent and had him brought out of the house of Machir son of Ammiel from Lo Debar. ⁶So Mephibosheth son of Jonathan son of Saul, came to David and bowed down his face to the floor in honor of David. David said, "Mephibosheth." He answered, "See, I am your servant!" ⁷David said to him, "Do not be afraid, for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's sake, and I will restore to you all the land of Saul your grandfather, and you will always eat bread at my table." ⁸Mephibosheth bowed and said, "What is your servant, that you should look on such a dead dog as I am?"

⁹Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "All that belonged to Saul and his family I have given to your master's grandson. ¹⁰You, your sons, and your servants must till the land for him and you must harvest the crops so that your master's grandson will have food to eat. For Mephibosheth, your master's grandson, must always eat at my table." Now Ziba had 15 sons and 20 servants. ¹¹Then Ziba said to the king, "Your servant will do all that my master the king commands his servant." The king added, "As for Mephibosheth he will eat at my table, as one of the king's sons." ¹²Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mika. All who lived in the house of Ziba were servants of Mephibosheth. ¹³So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, and he always ate at the king's table, though he was lame in both his feet.

¹It came about later that the king of the people of Ammon died, and that Hanun his son became king in his place.

²David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent his servants to comfort Hanun concerning his father. His servants entered the land of the people of Ammon. ³But the leaders of the people of Ammon said to Hanun their master, "Do you really think that David is honoring your father because he has sent men to comfort you? Has not David sent his servants to you to look at the city, to spy it out, in order to overthrow it?" ⁴So Hanun took David's servants, shaved off half their beards, cut off their garments up to their buttocks, and sent them away. ⁵When they explained this to David, he sent to meet with them, for the men were deeply ashamed. The king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown back, and then return."

⁹When Joab saw the battle lines facing him both in front and behind, he chose some of Israel's best fighters and arranged them against the Arameans. ¹⁰The rest of his people he put into the hand of Abishai his brother, and he arranged them against the sons of Ammon. ¹¹Joab said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you, Abishai, must rescue me. But if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and rescue you. ¹²Be strong, and let us show ourselves to be strong for our people and for the cities of our God, for Yahweh will do what is good for his purpose." ¹³So Joab and the soldiers of his army advanced to the battle against the Arameans, who were forced to flee before the army of Israel. ¹⁴When the sons of Ammon saw that the Arameans had fled, they also fled from Abishai and went back into the city. Then Joab returned from the people of Ammon and went back to Jerusalem.

¹⁵When the Arameans saw that they were being defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together again.

¹⁶Then Hadarezer sent for Aramean troops from beyond the Euphrates River. They came to Helam, and Shobak, the commander of Hadarezer's army, went before them. ¹⁷When David was told this, he gathered all Israel together, crossed the Jordan, and arrived at Helam. The Arameans arranged themselves in battle lines against David and fought him. ¹⁸The Arameans fled from Israel, and David killed 700 of their men in chariots and 40000 horsemen. Shobak the commander of their army was wounded and died there. ¹⁹When all the kings who were servants of Hadarezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and became their subjects. So the Arameans were afraid to help the people of Ammon anymore.

Chapter 11

¹It came about in the springtime, at the time when kings normally go to war, that David sent out Joab, his servants, and all the army of Israel. They destroyed the sons of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed in Jerusalem.

²So it came about one evening that David got up from his bed and walked on the roof of his palace. From there he saw a woman who was bathing, and the woman was very beautiful to look at. ³So David sent and he inquired about the woman. Someone said, "Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, and is she not the wife of Uriah the Hittite?" ⁴David sent messengers and took her; she came in to him, and he lay with her (for she had just purified herself from menstruation). Then she returned to her house. ⁵The woman conceived, and she sent and told David; she said, "I am pregnant."

⁶Then David sent to Joab saying, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." So Joab sent Uriah to David. ⁷When Uriah arrived, David asked him how Joab was, how the army was doing, and how the war was going. ⁸David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." So Uriah left the king's palace, and the king sent a gift for Uriah after he left. ⁹But Uriah slept at the door of the king's palace with all the servants of his master, and he did not go down to his house. ¹⁰When they told David, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Have you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?" ¹¹Uriah answered David, "The Box, and Israel and Judah are staying in tents, and my master Joab and my master's servants are camped in an open field. How then can I go into my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? As sure as you are alive, I will not do this." ¹²So David said to Uriah, "Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you leave." So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next day. ¹³When David called him, he ate and drank before him, and David made him drunk. At evening Uriah went out to sleep on his bed with the servants of his master; he did not go down to his house.

¹⁴So in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. ¹⁵David wrote in the letter saying, "Set Uriah at the very front of the most intense battle, and then withdraw from him, that he may be hit and killed." ¹⁶So as Joab watched the siege upon the city, he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew the strongest enemy soldiers would be fighting. ¹⁷When the men of the city went out and fought against Joab's army, some of the soldiers of David fell, and Uriah the Hittite was also killed there. ¹⁸When Joab sent word to David about everything concerning the war, ¹⁹he commanded the messenger, saying, "When you have finished telling all the things concerning the war to the king, ²⁰it may happen that the king will become angry, and he will say to you, 'Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall? ²¹Who killed Abimelech son of Jerub-Besheth? Did not a woman cast an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' Then you must answer, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.'"

²²So the messenger left and went to David and told him everything that Joab had sent him to say. ²³Then the messenger said to David, "The enemy were stronger than we were at first; they came out to us into the field, but we drove them back to the entrance of the gate. ²⁴Then their shooters shot at your soldiers from off the wall, and some of the king's servants were killed, and your servant Uriah the Hittite was killed, too." ²⁵Then David said to the messenger, "Say this to Joab, 'Do not let this displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Make your battle even stronger against the city, and overthrow it,' and encourage him."

²⁶So when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she lamented deeply for her husband.

²⁷When her sorrow passed, David sent and took her home to his palace, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But what David had done displeased Yahweh.

Chapter 12

¹Then Yahweh sent Nathan to David. He came to him and said, "There were once two men in a city. One man was rich and the other poor. ²The rich man had huge numbers of flocks and herds, ³but the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and fed and raised. It grew up together with him and with his children. The lamb even ate with him and drank from his own cup, and it slept in his arms and was like a daughter to him. ⁴One day a visitor came to the rich man, but the rich man was unwilling to take an animal from his own flocks and herds to provide food for the traveler. Instead he took the poor man's ewe lamb and cooked it for his visitor." ⁵David was hot with anger against the rich man, and he raged to Nathan, "As Yahweh lives, the man who has done this deserves to be put to death. ⁶He must pay back the lamb four times over because he did such a thing, and because he had no pity."

⁷Then Nathan said to David, "You are that man! Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I rescued you out of the hand of Saul. ⁸I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your arms. I also gave you the house of Israel and Judah. But if that had been too little, I would have given you many other things in addition. ⁹So why have you despised the commands of Yahweh, so as to do what is evil in his sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and have taken his wife to be your own wife. You killed him with the sword of the army of Ammon. ¹⁰So now the sword will never leave your house, because you have despised me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite as your wife.' ¹¹Yahweh says, 'Look, I will raise up disaster against you out of your own house. Before your own eyes, I will take your wives and give them to your neighbor, and he will lie with your wives in broad daylight. ¹²For you committed your sin secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, in the sunlight.'" ¹³Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against Yahweh." Nathan replied to David, "Yahweh also has passed over your sin. You will not be killed. ¹⁴However, because by this act you have despised Yahweh, the child who is born to you will surely die." ¹⁵Then Nathan left and went home.

Yahweh attacked the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and he was very sick. ¹⁶David then implored God for the boy. David fasted and went inside and lay all night on the floor. ¹⁷The elders of his house arose and stood beside him, to raise him up from the floor, but he would not get up, and he would not eat with them. ¹⁸It came about on the seventh day that the child died. David's servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "Look, while the child was still alive we spoke to him, and he did not listen to our voice. What might he do to himself if we tell him that the boy is dead?!" ¹⁹But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead. He said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" They answered, "He is dead." ²⁰Then David arose from the floor and washed himself, anointed himself, and changed his clothes. He went to the tabernacle of Yahweh and worshiped there, and then he came back to his own palace. When he asked for it, they set food before him, and he ate. ²¹Then his servants said to him, "Why have you done this? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive, but when the child died, you got up and ate." ²²David answered, "While the child was still alive I fasted and wept. I said, 'Who knows whether or not Yahweh will be gracious to me, that the child may live?' ²³But now he is dead, so why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me."

²⁴David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her and lay with her. Later she gave birth to a son, and the child was named Solomon. Yahweh loved him ²⁵and he sent word through Nathan the prophet to name him Jedidiah, because Yahweh loved him.

²⁶Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites, and he captured the royal city. ²⁷So Joab sent messengers to David and said, "I have fought against Rabbah, and I have taken the city's water supply. ²⁸Now therefore gather the rest of the army together and camp against the city and take it, because if I take the city, it will be named after me." ²⁹So David gathered all the army together and went to Rabbah; he fought against the city and captured it. ³⁰David took the crown from their king's head—it weighed a talent of gold, and there was a precious stone in it. The crown was placed on David's own head. Then he brought out the plunder of the city in large quantities. ³¹He brought out the people who were in the city and forced them to work with saws, iron picks, and axes; he also made them work at brick kilns. David required all the cities of the people of Ammon to do this labor. Then David and all the army returned to Jerusalem.

Chapter 13

¹It came about after this that Amnon son of David was very attracted to his beautiful half-sister Tamar, who was a full sister of Absalom, another of David's sons. ²Amnon was so frustrated that he became sick because of his sister Tamar. She was a virgin, and it seemed impossible to Amnon to do anything to her. ³But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab son of Shimeah, David's brother. Jonadab was a very shrewd man. ⁴Jonadab said to Amnon, "Why, son of the king, are you depressed every morning? Will you not tell me?" So Amnon answered him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister." ⁵Then Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be sick. When your father comes to see you, ask him, 'Would you please send my sister Tamar to give me something to eat and cook it before me, so that I may see it and eat it from her hand?'" ⁶So Amnon lay down and pretended to be sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please send my sister Tamar to make some food for my sickness in front of me so that I may eat from her hand."

⁷Then David sent word to Tamar at his palace, saying, "Go now to your brother Amnon's house and prepare food for him." ⁸So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house where he was lying down. She took dough and kneaded it and formed bread in his sight, and then she baked it. ⁹She took the pan and gave the bread to him, but he refused to eat. Then Amnon said to the others present, "Send everyone out, away from me." So everyone went out from him. ¹⁰So Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into my room that I may eat from your hand." So Tamar took the bread that she had made, and brought it into the room of Amnon her brother. ¹¹When she had brought the food to him, he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister." ¹²She answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me, for nothing like this should be done in Israel. Do not do this appalling thing! ¹³How could I be rid of my shame? What about you? You would be like one of the fools in Israel! Now, please speak to the king, for he would not keep me from you." ¹⁴However Amnon would not listen to her, and he was stronger than she was, and he overpowered her, and he lay with her.

¹⁵Then Amnon hated Tamar with extreme hatred. He hated her even more than he had desired her. Amnon said to her, "Get up and go." ¹⁶But she responded to him, "No! Because this great evil of making me leave is even worse than what you did to me!" But Amnon did not listen to her. ¹⁷Instead, he called his personal servant and said, "Take this woman away from me, and bolt the door after her." ¹⁸Then his servant brought her out and bolted the door after her. Tamar was wearing a very decorated robe because the king's daughters who were virgins dressed that way. ¹⁹Tamar put ashes on her head and tore her robe. She put her hands on her head and walked away, crying aloud as she went.

²⁰Absalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now keep quiet, my sister. He is your brother. Do not take this thing to heart." So Tamar remained alone in her brother Absalom's house. ²¹But when King David heard of all these things, he was very angry. ²²Absalom spoke neither evil nor good to Amnon, for Absalom hated him for what he had done to her and how he had disgraced his sister Tamar.

²³It came about after two full years that Absalom had sheep shearers working at Baal Hazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king's sons to visit there. ²⁴Absalom went to the king and said, "Look now, your servant has sheep shearers. Please, may the king and his servants go with me, your servant." ²⁵The king answered Absalom, "No, my son, all of us should not go because we would be a burden to you." Absalom begged the king, but he would not go, but he gave him his blessing. ²⁶Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." So the king said to him, "Why should Amnon go with you?" ²⁷Absalom pressed David, and so he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. ²⁸Absalom commanded his servants saying, "Pay attention. When Amnon begins to be affected by the wine, and when I say to you, 'Attack Amnon,' then kill him. Do not be afraid. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous and brave." ²⁹So Absalom's servants did to Amnon as he had commanded them. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man mounted his mule and fled.

³⁰So it came about, while they were on the road, that the news came to David saying, "Absalom has killed all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left." ³¹Then the king arose and tore his clothes, and lay on the floor; all his servants stood by with their clothes torn. ³²Jonadab son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered and said, "Let not my master believe that they have killed all the young men who are the king's sons, for Amnon only is dead. Absalom has planned this from the day that Amnon violated his sister Tamar. ³³So therefore let not my master the king take this report to heart, so as to believe that all the king's sons are dead, for Amnon only is dead."

³⁴Absalom fled away. A servant keeping watch raised his eyes and saw many people coming on the road on the hillside west of him. ³⁵Then Jonadab said to the king, "Look, the king's sons are coming. It is just as your servant said." ³⁶So it came about when he finished speaking, the king's sons arrived and raised their voices and wept. The king and all his servants also wept bitterly.

³⁷But Absalom fled and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. David mourned for his son every day. ³⁸So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, where he was for three years. ³⁹The mind of King David longed to go out to see Absalom, for he was comforted concerning Amnon and his death.

Chapter 14

¹Now Joab son of Zeruah perceived that the king's heart desired to see Absalom. ²So Joab sent word to Tekoa and had from there a wise woman brought to him. He said to her, "Please pretend you are a mourner and put on mourning clothes. Please do not anoint yourself with oil, but be like a woman who has mourned a long time for the dead. ³Then go to the king and speak to him about what I will describe." So Joab told her the words she was to say.

⁸So the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will command something to be done for you." ⁹The woman of Tekoa replied to the king, "My master, king, may the guilt be on me and on my father's family. The king and his throne are guiltless." ¹⁰The king replied, "Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he will not touch you anymore." ¹¹Then she said, "Please, may the king remember Yahweh your God, so that the avenger of blood will not destroy anyone further, so that they will not destroy my son." The king replied, "As Yahweh lives, not one hair of your son will fall to the ground."

¹²Then the woman said, "Please let your servant speak a further word to my master the king." He said, "Speak on." ¹³So the woman said, "Why then have you devised such a thing against the people of God? For in saying this thing, the king is like someone who is guilty, because the king has not brought back home again his banished son. ¹⁴For we all must die, and we are like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. But God will not take away life; instead, he finds a way for those who were driven away to be restored. ¹⁵Now then, seeing that I have come to speak this thing to my master the king, it is because the people have made me afraid. So your servant said to herself, 'I will now speak to the king. It may be that the king will perform the request of his servant. ¹⁶Perhaps the king will listen to me and deliver his servant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together, out of the inheritance God gave us.' ¹⁷Then your servant prayed, 'Please, may the word of my master the king give me relief, for as an angel of God, so is my master the king in telling good from evil.' May Yahweh your God be with you."

¹⁸Then the king answered and said to the woman, "Please do not hide from me anything that I will ask you." The woman replied, "Let my master the king now speak." ¹⁹The king said, "Is not the hand of Joab with you in all this?" The woman answered and said, "As you live, my master the king, no one can escape to the right hand or to the left from anything that my master the king has spoken. It was your servant Joab who commanded me and told me to say these things that your servant has spoken. ²⁰Your servant Joab has done this to change the course of what is happening. My master is wise, like the wisdom of an angel of God, and he knows everything that is happening in the land."

²¹So the king said to Joab, "Look now, I will do this thing. Go then, and bring the young man Absalom back." ²²So Joab lay facedown on the ground in honor and gratitude to the king. Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your eyes, my master, king, in that the king has performed the request of his servant." ²³So Joab arose, went to Geshur, and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem. ²⁴The king said, "He may return to his own house, but he may not see my face." So Absalom returned to his own house, but did not see the king's face.

²⁸Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem, without seeing the king's face. ²⁹Then Absalom sent word for Joab to send him to the king, but Joab would not come to him. So Absalom sent word a second time, but Joab still did not come. ³⁰So Absalom said to his servants, "See, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire." So Absalom's servants set the field on fire. ³¹Then Joab arose and came to Absalom at his house, and said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?" ³²Absalom answered Joab, "Look, I sent word to you saying, 'Come here so I may send you to the king to say, "Why did I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to still be there. Now therefore let me see the king's face, and if I am guilty, let him kill me.'" ³³So Joab went to the king and told him. When the king called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed low to the ground before the king, and the king kissed Absalom.

Chapter 15

¹It came about after this that Absalom prepared a chariot and horses for himself, with 50 men to run before him.

²Absalom would get up early and stand beside the road leading to the city gate. When any man had a dispute to come to the king for judgment, Absalom called to him and said, "From what city have you come?" Then the man would answer, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel." ³So Absalom would say to him, "Look, your case is good and right, but there is no one empowered by the king to hear your case." ⁴Absalom added, "I wish that I were made judge in the land, so that every man who had any dispute or cause might come to me, and I would bring him justice!" ⁵So it came about that when any man came to Absalom to honor him, Absalom would put out his hand and take hold of him and kiss him. ⁶Absalom acted in this way to all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

⁷It came about at the end of four years that Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go and pay a vow that I have made to Yahweh in Hebron. ⁸For your servant made a vow while I was living at Geshur in Aram, saying, 'If Yahweh will indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will worship Yahweh.'" ⁹So the king said to him, "Go in peace." So Absalom arose and went to Hebron. ¹⁰But then Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you must say, 'Absalom is king in Hebron.'" ¹¹With Absalom went 200 men from Jerusalem, who were invited. They went in their innocence, not knowing anything that Absalom had planned. ¹²While Absalom offered sacrifices, he sent for Ahithophel the Gilohite from his hometown of Giloh. He was David's counselor. Absalom's conspiracy was strong, for the people following Absalom were constantly increasing.

¹³A messenger came to David saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel are following after Absalom." ¹⁴So David said to all his servants who were with him in Jerusalem, "Arise and let us flee, or none of us will escape from Absalom. Prepare to leave immediately, or he will quickly overtake us, and he will bring down disaster on us and attack the city with the edge of the sword." ¹⁵The king's servants said to the king, "Look, your servants are ready to do whatever our master the king decides.” ¹⁶The king left and all his family after him, but the king left ten women, who were his slave wives, to keep the palace. ¹⁷After the king went out and all the people after him, they stopped at the last house. ¹⁸All his army marched with him, and before him went all the Kerethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites—600 men who had followed him from Gath.

¹⁹Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, “Why will you come with us? Return and stay with the king, for you are a foreigner and an exile. Return to your own place. ²⁰Since you just left yesterday, why should I make you wander all over with us? I do not even know where I am going. So return and take your fellow countrymen back. May loyalty and faithfulness go with you.” ²¹But Ittai answered the king and said, “As Yahweh lives, and as my master the king lives, surely in whatever place where my master the king goes, there also will your servant go, whether that means living or dying.” ²²So David said to Ittai, “Go ahead and continue with us.” So Ittai the Gittite marched with the king, along with all his men and all the families who were with him. ²³All the country wept with a loud voice as all the people passed by over the Kidron Valley, and as the king also himself crossed over. All the people traveled on the road toward the wilderness.

²⁴Even Zadok was present, along with all the Levites carrying the Box of the Covenant of God. They set the Box of God down, and then Abiathar joined them. They waited until all the people had passed by out of the city. ²⁵The king said to Zadok, “Carry the Box of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of Yahweh, he will bring me back here and show me again the Box and the place where he lives. ²⁶But if he says, ‘I am not pleased with you,’ look, here am I, let him do to me whatever seems good to him.” ²⁷The king also said to Zadok the priest, “Are you not a seer? Return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan son of Abiathar. ²⁸See, I will wait at the fords of the Arabah until word comes from you to inform me.” ²⁹So Zadok and Abiathar carried the Box of God back into Jerusalem, and they stayed there.

³⁰But David ascended barefoot and weeping up the Mount of Olives, and he had his head covered. Every man of the people who were with him covered his head, and they went up weeping as they walked. ³¹Someone told David saying, “Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom.” So David prayed, “O Yahweh, please turn Ahithophel’s advice into foolishness.” ³²It came about that when David arrived at the top of the road, where God used to be worshiped, Hushai the Arkite came to meet him with his coat torn and earth on his head. ³³David said to him, “If you travel with me, then you will be a burden to me. ³⁴But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, king, as I have been your father’s servant in time past, so will I now be your servant,’ then you will confuse Ahithophel’s advice for me. ³⁵Will you not have the priests Zadok and Abiathar with you? So whatever you hear in the king’s palace, you must tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. ³⁶See that they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok’s son, and Jonathan, Abiathar’s son. You must send to me by their hand everything that you hear.” ³⁷So Hushai, David’s friend, came into the city as Absalom arrived and entered into Jerusalem.

Chapter 16

¹When David had gone a short distance over the summit of the hill, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him with a couple of saddled donkeys; on them were 200 loaves of bread, 100 clusters of raisins, and 100 bunches of figs, and a skin of wine. ²The king said to Ziba, “Why did you bring these things?” Ziba replied, “The donkeys are for the king’s household to ride on, the bread and figs are for your men to eat, and the wine is for anyone who is faint in the wilderness to drink.” ³The king said, “Then where is your master’s grandson?” Ziba replied to the king, “Look, he has stayed behind in Jerusalem, for he said, ‘Today the house of Israel will restore my father’s kingdom to me.’” ⁴Then the king said to Ziba, “Look, all that belonged to Mephibosheth now belongs to you.” Ziba answered, “I bow in humility to you, my master, king. Let me find favor in your eyes.”

⁵When King David approached Bahurim, there came out from there a man from the clan of Saul, whose name was Shimei son of Gera. He came out cursing as he walked. ⁶He threw stones at David and at all of the king’s officials, in spite of the army and bodyguards who were on the king’s right and left. ⁷Shimei called out in cursing, “Go away, get out of here, you villain, you man of blood! ⁸Yahweh has repaid all of you for the blood you shed within the family of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. Yahweh has given the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. You have come to ruin because you are a man of blood."

⁹Then Abishai son of Zeruiah, said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my master the king? Please let me go over and take off his head." ¹⁰But the king said, "What have I to do with you, sons of Zeruiah? Perhaps he is cursing me because Yahweh has said to him, 'Curse David.' Who then could say to him, 'Why are you cursing the king?'" ¹¹So David said to Abishai and to all his servants, "Look, my son, who was born from my body, wants to take my life. How much more may this Benjamite now desire my ruin? Leave him alone and let him curse, for Yahweh has commanded him to do it. ¹²Perhaps Yahweh will look at the misery unleashed on me, and repay me with good for his cursing me today." ¹³So David and his men traveled on the road, while Shimei went beside him up on the hillside, cursing and throwing dust and stones at him as he went. ¹⁴Then the king and all the people who were with him became weary, and he rested when they stopped for the night.

¹⁵As for Absalom and all the men of Israel who were with him, they came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel was with him. ¹⁶It came about when Hushai the Arkite, David's friend, had come to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!" ¹⁷Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with him?" ¹⁸Hushai said to Absalom, "No! Instead, the one whom Yahweh and this people and all the men of Israel have chosen, that is the man to whom I will belong, and I will stay with him. ¹⁹Also, what man should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, I will serve in your presence."

²⁰Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give us your advice about what we should do." ²¹Ahithophel answered Absalom, "Go into your father's slave wives whom he has left to keep the palace, and all Israel will hear that you have become a stench to your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong." ²²So they spread for Absalom a tent on the top of the palace, and Absalom went in to his father's slave wives in the sight of all Israel. ²³Now the advice of Ahithophel that he gave in those days was as if a man heard from the mouth of God himself. That was how all of Ahithophel's advice was viewed by both David and Absalom.

Chapter 17

¹Then Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Now let me choose 12000 men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight. ²I will come on him while he is weary and weak and will surprise him with fear. The people who are with him will flee, and I will attack only the king. ³I will bring back all the people to you, like a bride coming to her husband, and all the people will be at peace under you." ⁴What Ahithophel said pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

⁵Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Arkite, too, and let us hear what he says." ⁶When Hushai had come to Absalom, Absalom explained to him what Ahithophel had said and then asked Hushai, "Should we do what Ahithophel has said? If not, tell us what you advise." ⁷So Hushai said to Absalom, "The advice that Ahithophel has given this time is not good." ⁸Hushai added, "You know your father and his men are strong warriors, and that they are bitter, and they are like a bear robbed of her cubs in a field. Your father is a man of war; he will not sleep with the army tonight. ⁹Look, right now he is probably hidden in some pit or in some other place. It will happen that when some of your men have been killed at the beginning of an attack, that whoever hears it will say, 'A slaughter has taken place among the soldiers who follow Absalom.'" ¹⁰Then even the bravest soldiers, whose hearts are like the heart of a lion, will be afraid because all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and that the men who are with him are very strong. ¹¹So I advise you that all Israel should be gathered together to you, from Dan to Beersheba, as numerous as the sands that are by the sea, and that you go to battle in person. ¹²Then we will come on him wherever he may be found, and we will cover him as the dew falls on the ground. We will not leave even one of his men, or him himself, alive. ¹³If he retreats into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city and we will drag it into the river, until there is no longer even a small stone found there." ¹⁴Then Absalom and the men of Israel said, "Hushai the Arkite's advice is better than Ahithophel's." Yahweh had ordained the rejection of Ahithophel's good advice in order to bring destruction on Absalom.

¹⁵Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, "Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel in such and such a way, but I have advised something else. ¹⁶Now then, go quickly and report to David; say to him, 'Do not camp tonight at the fords of the Arabah, but by all means cross over, or the king will be swallowed up along with all the people who are with him.'" ¹⁷Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at the spring of Rogel. A female servant used to go and inform them what they needed to know, for they could not risk being seen going into the city. When the message came, then they were to go and tell King David. ¹⁸But a young man saw them this time and told Absalom. So Jonathan and Ahimaaz went away quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his courtyard, into which they descended. ¹⁹The man's wife took the covering for the well and spread it over the well's opening, and tossed grain over it, so no one knew Jonathan and Ahimaaz were in the well. ²⁰Absalom's men came to the woman of the house and said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" The woman told them, "They have crossed over the river." So after they had looked around and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

²¹It came about after they had left that Jonathan and Ahimaaz came up out of the well. They went to report to King David; they said to him, "Get up and cross quickly over the water because Ahithophel has given such and such advice about you." ²²Then David arose and all the people who were with him, and they crossed over the Jordan. By morning daylight not one of them had failed to cross over the Jordan. ²³When Ahithophel saw that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and left. He went home to his own city, set his affairs in order, and hanged himself. In this way he died and was buried in the tomb of his father.

²⁴Then David came to Mahanaim. As for Absalom, he crossed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. ²⁵Absalom had set Amasa over the army instead of Joab. Amasa was the son of a man called Jether the Ishmaelite^[1], who went in to Abigail, who was the daughter of Nahash and sister of Zeruiah, the mother of Joab. ²⁶Then Israel and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.

²⁷It came about when David had come to Mahanaim, that Shobi son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, and Machir son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim, ²⁸brought sleeping mats and blankets, bowls and pots, and wheat, barley flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils, ²⁹honey, butter, sheep, and milk curds, so that David and the people with him could eat. These men had said, "The people are hungry, weary, and thirsty in the wilderness."

17:25 ^[1]

Chapter 18

¹David counted the soldiers who were with him and appointed captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. ²Then David sent out the army, one-third under the command of Joab, another third under the command of Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and still another third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. The king said to the army, "I will certainly go out with you myself, too." ³But the men said, "You must not go to battle, for if we flee away they will not care about us, or if half of us die they will not care. But you are worth 10000 of us! Therefore it is better that you be ready to help us from the city." ⁴So the king answered them, "I will do whatever seems best to you." The king stood by the city gate while all the army went out by hundreds and by thousands. ⁵The king commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man, with Absalom." All the people heard that the king had given the captains this command about Absalom.

⁶So the army went out into the countryside against Israel; the battle spread into the forest of Ephraim. ⁷The army of Israel was defeated there before the soldiers of David; there was a great slaughter there that day of 20000 men.

⁸The battle spread throughout the whole countryside, and more men were consumed by the forest than by the sword that day.

⁹Absalom happened to meet some of David's soldiers. Absalom was riding his mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a large oak tree, and his head was caught up in the tree branches. He was left dangling between the ground and the sky while the mule he was riding kept going. ¹⁰Someone saw this and told Joab, "Look, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree!" ¹¹Joab said to the man who told him about Absalom, "Look! You saw him! Why did you not strike him down to the ground? I would have given you ten silver shekels and a belt." ¹²The man replied to Joab, "Even if I received 1000 silver shekels, still I would not have reached out my hand against the king's son, because we all heard the king command you, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, 'No one must touch the young man Absalom.' ¹³If I had risked my life by a falsehood (and there is nothing hidden from the king), you would have abandoned me." ¹⁴Then Joab said, "I will not wait for you." So Joab took three javelins in his hand and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was still alive and hanging from the oak. ¹⁵Then ten young men who carried Joab's armor surrounded Absalom, attacked him, and killed him.

¹⁹Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, "Let me now run to the king with the good news, how Yahweh has rescued him from the hand of his enemies." ²⁰Joab answered him, "You will not be the bearer of news today; you must do it another day. Today you will bear no news because the king's son is dead." ²¹Then Joab said to a Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." The Cushite bowed down to Joab, and ran. ²²Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok said again to Joab, "Regardless of what may happen, please let me also run and follow the Cushite." Joab replied, "Why do you want to run, my son, seeing that you will have no reward for the news?" ²³"Whatever happens," said Ahimaaz, "I will run." So Joab answered him, "Run." Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and outran the Cushite.

²⁴Now David was sitting between the inner and outer gates. The watchman had gone up to the roof of the gate to the wall and raised his eyes. As he looked, he saw a man approaching, running alone. ²⁵The watchman shouted out and told the king. Then the king said, "If he is alone, there is news in his mouth." The runner came closer and neared the city. ²⁶Then the watchman noticed another man running, and the watchman called to the gatekeeper; he said, "Look, there is another man running alone." The king said, "He is also bringing news." ²⁷So the watchman said, "I think the running of the man in front is like the running of Ahimaaz son of Zadok." The king said, "He is a good man and is coming with good news."

²⁸Then Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, "All is well." He bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground and said, "Blessed be Yahweh your God! He has delivered the men who lifted up their hand against my master the king." ²⁹So the king replied, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent me, the king's servant, to you, king, I saw a great disturbance, but I did not know what it was." ³⁰Then the king said, "Turn aside and stand here." So Ahimaaz turned aside, and stood still.

³¹Immediately then the Cushite arrived and said, "There is good news for my master the king, for Yahweh has avenged you today from all who rose up against you." ³²Then the king said to the Cushite, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" The Cushite answered, "The enemies of my master the king, and all who rise up against you to do harm to you, should be as that young man is." ³³Then the king was deeply unnerved, and he went up to the room over the gate and wept. As he went he grieved, "My son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! I wish I had died instead of you, Absalom, my son, my son!"

Chapter 19

¹Joab was told, "Look, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom." ²So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the army, for the army heard it said that day, "The king is mourning for his son." ³The soldiers had to sneak quietly into the city that day, like people who are ashamed sneak away when they run from battle. ⁴The king covered his face and cried in a loud voice, "My son Absalom, Absalom, my son, my son!" ⁵Then Joab entered into the house to the king and said to him, "You have shamed the faces of all your soldiers today, who have saved your life today, and the lives of your sons and of your daughters, and the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines, ⁶because you love those who hate you, and you hate those who love you. For today you have shown that commanders and soldiers are nothing to you. Today I believe that if Absalom had lived, and we all had died, then that would have pleased you. ⁷Now therefore get up and go out and speak kindly to your soldiers, for I swear by Yahweh, if you do not go, not one man will remain with you tonight. That would be worse for you than all the disasters that have ever happened to you from your youth until now." ⁸So the king got up and sat in the city gate, and all the people were told, "Look, the king is sitting in the gate," and all the people came before the king.

So Israel fled, every man to his home. ⁹It happened that all the people were arguing with each other throughout all the tribes of Israel saying, "The king rescued us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines, but now he has run out of the land because of Absalom. ¹⁰Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. So why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?"

¹¹King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah saying, 'Why are you the last to bring the king back to his palace, since the talk of all Israel favors the king, to bring him back to his palace? ¹²You are my brothers, my flesh and bone. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?' ¹³Then say to Amasa, 'Are you not my flesh and my bone? God do so to me, and more also, if you are not captain of my army from now on in the place of Joab.'" ¹⁴So he won the hearts of all the men of Judah as one man. They sent to the king saying, "Return, you and all your men." ¹⁵So the king returned and came to the Jordan. Now the men of Judah came to Gilgal to go to meet the king and then to bring the king across the Jordan.

²¹But Abishai son of Zeruah answered and said, "Should not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed Yahweh's anointed?" ²²Then David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruah, that you should today be adversaries to me? Will any man be put to death today in Israel? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?" ²³So the king said to Shimei, "You will not die." So the king promised him with an oath.

²⁴Then Mephibosheth son of Saul came down to meet the king. He had not dressed his feet, or trimmed his beard, or washed his clothes from the day the king left until the day he came home in peace. ²⁵So when he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?" ²⁶He answered, "My master the king, my servant deceived me, for I said, 'I will saddle a donkey so I may ride on it and go with the king.' For your servant is lame. ²⁷My servant Ziba has slandered me, your servant, to my master the king. But my master the king is like an angel of God. Therefore, do what is good in your eyes. ²⁸For all my father's house were dead men before my master the king, but you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. What right therefore have I that I should still cry any more to the king?" ²⁹Then the king said to him, "Why explain anything further? I have decided that you and Ziba will divide the fields." ³⁰So Mephibosheth replied to the king, "Yes, let him take it all, since my master the king has come safely to his own home."

³¹Then Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim to cross over the Jordan with the king, and he accompanied the king over the Jordan. ³²Now Barzillai was a very old man, 80 years old. He had provided the king with provisions while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very wealthy man. ³³The king said to Barzillai, "Come over with me, and

I will provide for you to stay with me in Jerusalem.” ³⁴Barzillai replied to the king, “How many days are left in the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? ³⁵I am eighty years old. Can I distinguish between good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be a burden to my master the king? ³⁶Your servant would like to just go over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king repay me with such a reward? ³⁷Please let your servant return back home, so I may die in my own city by the grave of my father and my mother. But see, here is your servant Kimham. Let him cross over with my master the king, and do for him what seems good to you.” ³⁸The king answered, “Kimham will go over with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you, and whatever you desire from me, I will do that for you.” ³⁹Then all the people crossed the Jordan, and the king crossed over, and the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him. Then Barzillai returned to his own home.

⁴⁰So the king crossed over to Gilgal, and Kimham crossed over with him. All the army of Judah brought the king over, and also half the army of Israel. ⁴¹Soon all the men of Israel began to come to the king and say to the king, “Why have our brothers, the men of Judah, stolen you away and brought the king and his family over the Jordan, and all David’s men with him?” ⁴²So the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, “It is because the king is more closely related to us. Why then are you angry about this? Have we eaten anything that the king had to pay for? Has he given us any gifts?” ⁴³The men of Israel answered the men of Judah, “We have ten tribes related to the king, so we have even more right to David than you. Why then did you despise us? Was not our proposal to bring back our king the first to be heard?” But the words of the men of Judah were even more harsh than the words of the men of Israel.

Chapter 20

¹There also happened to be at the same place a troublemaker whose name was Sheba son of Bikri, a Benjamite. He blew the trumpet and said, “We have no part in David, neither have we any inheritance in the son of Jesse. Let every man go back to his home, Israel.” ²So all the men of Israel deserted David and followed Sheba son of Bikri. But the men of Judah followed closely their king, from the Jordan all the way to Jerusalem.

³When David came to his palace in Jerusalem, he took the ten concubines whom he had left to keep the palace, and he put them in a house under guard. He provided for their needs, but he did not lie with them any longer. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living as if they were widows.

⁴Then the king said to Amasa, “Call the men of Judah together within three days; you must be here, too.” ⁵So Amasa went to call Judah, but he was delayed beyond the time that the king had allotted for him. ⁶So David said to Abishai, “Now Sheba son of Bikri will do us more harm than Absalom did. Take your master’s servants, my soldiers, and pursue after him, or he will find fortified cities and escape out of our sight.” ⁷Then Joab’s men went out after him, along with the Kerethites and the Pelethites and all the mighty warriors. They left Jerusalem to pursue Sheba son of Bikri. ⁸When they were at the great stone which is at Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Joab was wearing the battle armor that he had put on, which included a belt around his waist with a sheathed sword fastened to it. As he walked forward, the sword fell out. ⁹So Joab said to Amasa, “Is it well with you, my cousin?” Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. ¹⁰Amasa did not notice the dagger that was in Joab’s left hand. Joab stabbed Amasa in the stomach and his bowels spilled out to the ground. Joab did not strike him again, and Amasa died.

So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba son of Bikri. ¹¹Then one of Joab’s men stood by Amasa, and the man said, “He who favors Joab, and he who is for David, let him follow Joab.” ¹²Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road. When the man saw that all the people stood still, he carried Amasa off of the road and into a field. He threw a garment over him because he saw that everyone who came by him stood still. ¹³After Amasa was taken off the road, all the men followed on after Joab in pursuit of Sheba son of Bikri.

¹⁴Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel Beth Maacah, and through all the land of the Bikrites, who gathered together and also pursued Sheba. ¹⁵They caught up with him and besieged him in Abel Beth Maacah.

They built up a siege ramp against the city against the wall. All the army who were with Joab battered the wall to knock it down. ¹⁶Then a wise woman cried out of the city, "Listen, please listen, Joab! Come near me so I may speak with you." ¹⁷So Joab came near to her, and the woman said, "Are you Joab?" He answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your servant." He answered, "I am listening." ¹⁸Then she spoke, "They used to say in old times, 'Surely seek advice at Abel,' and that advice would end the matter. ¹⁹We are a city that is one of the most peaceful and faithful in Israel. You are trying to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel. Why do you want to swallow up the inheritance of Yahweh?" ²⁰So Joab answered and said, "Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. ²¹That is not true. But a man from the hill country of Ephraim, named Sheba son of Bikri, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. Give up him alone, and I will withdraw from the city." The woman said to Joab, "His head will be thrown to you over the wall." ²²Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. They cut off the head of Sheba son of Bikri, and threw it out to Joab. Then he blew the trumpet and Joab's men left the city, every man to his home. Then Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

²³Now Joab was over all the army of Israel, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and over the Pelethites. ²⁴Adoniram was over the men who did forced labor, and Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the recorder. ²⁵Sheva was scribe and Zadok and Abiathar were priests. ²⁶Ira the Jairite was chief minister to David.

Chapter 21

¹There was a famine in David's time for three years in a row, and David sought the face of Yahweh. So Yahweh said, "This famine is on you because of Saul and his murderous family, because he put the Gibeonites to death." ²So the king called together the Gibeonites and spoke to them. Now the Gibeonites were not from the people of Israel; they were from what remained of the Amorites. The people of Israel had sworn not to kill them, but Saul tried to kill them all anyway in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah. ³So David said to the Gibeonites, "What should I do for you? How can I make atonement, so that you may bless the people of Yahweh, who are his inheritance?" ⁴The Gibeonites responded to him, "It is not a matter of silver or gold between us and Saul or his family. In the same way it is not for us to put to death any man in Israel." David replied, "What are you saying that I should do for you?" ⁵They answered the king, "The man who tried to kill us all, who schemed against us, so that we are now destroyed and have no place within the borders of Israel— ⁶let seven men from his descendants be handed over to us, and we will hang them before Yahweh in Gibeah of Saul, the one chosen by Yahweh." So the king said, "I will give them to you."

⁷But the king spared Mephibosheth son of Jonathan son of Saul, because of Yahweh's oath between them, between David and Jonathan son of Saul. ⁸But the king took the two sons of Rizpah daughter of Aiah, sons whom she bore to Saul—the two sons were named Armoni and Mephibosheth; and David also took the five sons of Merab^[1] daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite. ⁹He handed them over into the hands of the Gibeonites. They hanged them on the mountain before Yahweh, and they died all seven together. They were put to death during the time of harvest, during the first days at the beginning of barley harvest.

¹⁰Then Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the mountain beside the dead bodies, from the beginning of harvest until the rain poured down on them from the sky. She did not allow the birds of the sky to disturb the bodies by day or the wild animals by night. ¹¹It was told to David what Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

¹²So David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh Gilead, who had stolen them from the public square of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, after the Philistines had killed Saul in Gilboa. ¹³David took away from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son, and they gathered the bones of the seven men who had been hanged, as well. ¹⁴They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father. They performed all that the king commanded. After that God answered their prayers for the land.

¹⁵Then the Philistines went to war again with Israel. So David went down with his army and fought against the Philistines. David was overcome with battle fatigue. ¹⁶Ishbi-Benob, a descendant of the giants, whose bronze spear weighed 300 shekels, and who was armed with a new sword, intended to kill David. ¹⁷But Abishai son of Zeruiah rescued David, attacked the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, "You must not go to battle anymore with us, so that you do not put out the lamp of Israel."

¹⁸It came about after this that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob, when Sibbekai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was one of the descendants of the Rephaim.^[2] ¹⁹It came about again in a battle with the Philistines at Gob, that Elhanan son of Jair the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. ²⁰It came about in another battle at Gath that there was a man of great height who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, 24 in number. He also was descended from the Rephaim. ²¹When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimeah, David's brother, killed him. ²²These four were descendants of the Rephaim of Gath, and they were killed by the hand of David and by the hand of his soldiers.

Chapter 22

¹David sang to Yahweh the words of this song on the day that Yahweh rescued him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul. ²He said,

"Yahweh is my rock, my fortress, the one who rescues me.

³God is my rock. I take refuge in him.

He is my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold, and my refuge, the one who saves me from violence.

⁴I will call on Yahweh, who is worthy to be praised, and I will be saved from my enemies.

⁵For the waves of death surrounded me,
the rushing waters of destruction overwhelmed me.

⁶The cords of Sheol surrounded me;
the snares of death trapped me.

⁷In my distress I called to Yahweh;
I called to my God;
he heard my voice from his temple,
and my call for help went into his ears.

⁸Then the earth shook and trembled.
The foundations of the heavens were shaken and trembled, because God was angry.

⁹Smoke went up from out of his nostrils, and blazing fire came out of his mouth.

Coals were ignited by it.

10He opened the heavens and came down, and thick darkness was under his feet.

11He rode on a cherub and flew.

He was seen on the wings of the wind.^[1]

12He made darkness a tent around him, gathering heavy rain clouds in the skies.

13From the lightning before him coals of fire fell.

14Yahweh thundered from the heavens.

The Most High shouted.

15He shot arrows and scattered them—lightning bolts and dispersed them.

16Then the channels of the sea were seen;

the foundations of the world were laid bare at the rebuke of Yahweh, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

17He reached down from above; he took hold of me!

He pulled me out of the surging water.

18He rescued me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.

19They came against me on the day of my distress, but Yahweh was my support.

20He also brought me out to a wide open place.

He saved me because he was pleased with me.

21Yahweh has rewarded me according to my righteousness;

he has restored me according to the cleanness of my hands.

22For I have kept the ways of Yahweh and have not acted wickedly by turning from my God.

23For all his righteous decrees have been before me; as for his statutes, I have not turned away from them.

²⁴I have also been innocent before him, and I have kept myself from sin.

²⁵Therefore Yahweh has restored me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in his sight.

²⁶To the faithful one, you show yourself to be faithful; to a man who is blameless, you show yourself to be blameless.

²⁷With the pure you show yourself pure, but you are perverse to the twisted.

²⁸You save afflicted people, but your eyes are against the proud, and you bring them down.

²⁹For you are my lamp, Yahweh.
Yahweh lights up my darkness.

³⁰For by you I can run over a troop of men;
by my God I can leap over a wall.

³¹As for God, his way is perfect.
The word of Yahweh is pure.
He is a shield to everyone who takes refuge in him.

³²For who is God except Yahweh, and who is a rock except our God?

³³God is my refuge, and he leads the blameless person on his path.

³⁴He makes my feet swift like a deer and places me on the high hills.

³⁵He trains my hands for war, and my arms to bend a bow of bronze.

³⁶You have given me the shield of your salvation, and your favor has made me great.

³⁷You have made a wide place for my feet beneath me, so my feet have not slipped.

³⁸I pursued my enemies and destroyed them.

I did not turn back until they were destroyed.

³⁹I devoured them and smashed them; they cannot rise.

They have fallen under my feet.

⁴⁰You put strength on me like a belt for battle;

you put under me those who rise up against me.

⁴¹You gave me the back of my enemies' necks;

I annihilated those who hated me.

⁴²They cried for help, but no one saved them;

they cried out to Yahweh, but he did not answer them.

⁴³I beat them into fine pieces like dust on the ground,

I pulverized them and stamped on them like mud in the streets.

⁴⁴You also have rescued me from the disputes of my own people.

You have kept me as the head of nations.

A people that I have not known serves me.

⁴⁵Sons of foreigners were forced to bow to me.

As soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me.

⁴⁶The sons of foreigners faded away; they came trembling out of their strongholds.

⁴⁷Yahweh lives! May my rock be praised.

May God be exalted, the rock of my salvation.

⁴⁸This is the God who executes vengeance for me, the one who brings down peoples under me.

⁴⁹He sets me free from my enemies.

Indeed, you lifted me up above those who rose up against me.

You rescue me from violent men.

⁵⁰Therefore I will worship you, Yahweh, among the nations;

I will sing praises to your name.

⁵¹God gives great victory to his king, and he shows his covenant faithfulness to his anointed one, to David and to his descendants forever."

22:11 ^[1] .

Chapter 23

¹Now these are the last words of David, a declaration by David son of Jesse, a declaration by the man who was highly honored, the one anointed by the God of Jacob, the sweet psalmist of Israel.

²"The Spirit of Yahweh spoke by me, and his word was on my tongue.

³The God of Israel spoke, the Rock of Israel said to me, 'The one who rules righteously over men, who rules in the fear of God.

⁴He will be like the morning light when the sun rises, a morning without clouds, when the tender grass springs up from the earth through bright sunshine after rain.

⁵Indeed, is my family not like this before God? Has he not made an everlasting covenant with me, ordered and sure in every way? Does he not increase my salvation and fulfill my every desire?

⁶But the worthless will all be like thorns to be thrown away, because they cannot be gathered by one's hands.

⁷The man who touches them must use an iron tool or the shaft of a spear. They must be burned up where they lie."

⁸These are the names of David's mighty men: Jeshbaal the Hachmonite was the leader of the mighty men. He wielded his spear and killed 800 men on one occasion.^[1]

⁹After him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men. He was with David when they taunted the Philistines who had gathered together to do battle, and when the men of Israel had retreated.

¹⁰Eleazar stood and fought the Philistines until his hand became weary and his hand stiffened to the grip of his sword. Yahweh brought about a great victory that day. The army returned after Eleazar, only to strip the bodies.

¹¹After him was Shammah son of Agee, a Hararite. The Philistines gathered together where there was an area of a field full of lentils, and the army fled from them. ¹²But Shammah stood in the middle of the field and defended it. He killed the Philistines, and Yahweh brought about a great victory.

¹³Three of the thirty soldiers went down to David at harvest time, to the cave of Adullam. The army of the Philistines was camped in the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁴At that time David was in his stronghold, while the Philistines had established a garrison at Bethlehem. ¹⁵David was longing for water and said, "If only someone would give me water to drink from the well at Bethlehem, the well that is by the gate!" ¹⁶So these three mighty men broke through the army of the Philistines and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, the well at the gate. They took the water and brought it to David, but he refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out to Yahweh. ¹⁷Then he said, "Yahweh, far be it from me, that I should do this. Should I drink the blood of men who have risked their lives?" So he refused to drink it.

These things were done by the three mighty men.

¹⁸Abishai, brother of Joab and son of Zeruah, was captain over the three. He once fought with his spear against 300 men and killed them. He was often mentioned along with the three. ¹⁹Was he not even more famous than the three? He was made their captain. However, his fame did not equal the fame of the three most famous soldiers.

²⁰Benaiah from Kabzeel was the son of Jehoiada; he was a strong man who did mighty feats. He killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down into a pit and killed a lion while it was snowing. ²¹Then he killed a very large Egyptian man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but Benaiah fought against him with only a staff. He seized the spear out of the Egyptian's hand and then killed him with his own spear. ²²Benaiah son of Jehoiada did these feats, and he was named alongside the three mighty men. ²³He was more highly regarded than the thirty soldiers in general, but he was not regarded quite as highly as the three mighty men. Yet David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

²⁴The thirty included the following men: Asahel brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem, ²⁵Shammah the Harodite, Elikah the Harodite, ²⁶Helez the Paltite, Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, ²⁷Abiezer the Anathothite, Sibbekai^[2] the Hushathite, ²⁸Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite; ²⁹Heleb son of Baanah, the Netophathite, Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah of the Benjamites, ³⁰Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai of the valleys of Gaash. ³¹Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite, ³²Eliabha the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan, ³³Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam son of Sharar the Hararite, ³⁴Eliphelet son of Ahasbai the Maakathite, Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite, ³⁵Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite, ³⁶Igal son of Nathan from Zobah, Bani from the tribe of Gad, ³⁷Zekek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, armor bearer to Joab son of Zeruah, ³⁸Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, ³⁹Uriah the Hittite—37 in all.

Chapter 24

¹Again the anger of Yahweh was ignited against Israel, and he moved David against them saying, "Go, count Israel and Judah." ²The king said to Joab the commander of the army, who was with him, "Go, now, throughout all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and count all the people, so that I may know the total number of men fit for battle." ³Joab said to the king, "May Yahweh your God multiply the number of people a hundred times, and may the eyes of my master the king see it take place. But why does my master the king want this?" ⁴Nevertheless, the king's word was final against Joab and against the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders went out from the king's presence to count the people of Israel. ⁵They crossed over the Jordan and encamped near Aroer, south of the city in the valley. Then they traveled on through Gad to Jazer. ⁶They came to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim Hodshi, then on to Dan Jaan and around toward Sidon. ⁷They reached the stronghold of Tyre and all the cities of the Hivites and the Canaanites. Then they went out to the Negev in Judah at Beersheba. ⁸When they had gone throughout all the land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and 20 days. ⁹Then Joab reported the total of the count of the fighting men to the king. There were in Israel 800000 brave men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were 500000 men.

¹⁰Then David's heart afflicted him after he had counted the men. So he said to Yahweh, "I have greatly sinned by doing this. Now, please, Yahweh, take away your servant's guilt, for I have acted very foolishly." ¹¹When David rose up in the morning, the word of Yahweh came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, ¹²"Go say to David: 'This is what Yahweh says: "I am giving you three choices. Choose one of them for me to do to you.'"" ¹³So Gad went to David and said to him, "Will three years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months from your enemies while they pursue you? Or will there be three days of plague in your land? Now decide what answer I should return to him who sent me this message." ¹⁴Then David said to Gad, "I am in deep trouble. Let us fall into Yahweh's hands rather than into the hand of man, for his merciful actions are very great."

¹⁵So Yahweh sent a plague on Israel from the morning to a fixed time, and 70000 people died from Dan to Beersheba. ¹⁶When the angel reached out with his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, Yahweh changed his mind because of the harm it would cause, and he said to the angel who was destroying people, "Enough! Now draw back your hand." At that time the angel of Yahweh was standing at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. ¹⁷Then David spoke to Yahweh when he saw the angel who had attacked the people, and said, "Behold, I have sinned, and I have acted perversely. But these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand punish me and my father's family!"

¹⁸Then Gad came that day to David and said to him, "Go up and build an altar for Yahweh at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." ¹⁹So David went up as Gad instructed him to do, as Yahweh had commanded. ²⁰Araunah looked out and saw the king and his servants approaching. So Araunah went out and bowed to the king with his face to the ground. ²¹Then Araunah said, "Why has my master the king come to me, his servant?" David replied, "To buy your threshing floor, so I can build an altar for Yahweh, so that the plague may be removed from the people." ²²Araunah said to David, "Take it and offer it, my master the king. Do with it what is good in your sight. Look, here are oxen for the burnt offering and threshing sledges and ox yokes for the wood. ²³All this, my king, I, Araunah, will give to you." Then he said to the king, "May Yahweh your God accept you." ²⁴The king said to Araunah, "No, I insist on buying it at a price. I will not offer as a burnt offering to Yahweh, my God, anything that costs me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. ²⁵David built an altar for Yahweh there and offered on it burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. So Yahweh answered the prayer on behalf of the land, and the plague on Israel was confined.

1 Kings

⁵And Adonijah the son of Haggith lifted himself up, saying, "I, myself, will reign." And he made for himself a chariot and horsemen and 50 men who ran before his face. ⁶And his father did not pain him from his days, saying, "Why have you done so?" And also, he was very good of form and she had borne him after Absalom. ⁷And his words were with Joab the son of Zeruah and with Abiathar the priest. And they helped behind Adonijah. ⁸But Zadok the priest and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and Nathan the prophet and Shimei and Rei and the mighty men who were for David were not with Adonijah. ⁹And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and cattle and fatling near the stone of Zohelath, which is beside En Rogel. And he called all of his brothers, the sons of the king, and to all the men of Judah, the servants of the king. ¹⁰But he did not call Nathan the prophet and Benaiah and the mighty men and his brother Solomon.

¹¹And Nathan said to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns, and our master David does not know? ¹²And now, come, please let me advise you with advice, and slip away with your life and with the life of your son Solomon. ¹³Go and come to the king David, and you shall say to him, 'Have you not, my master the king, sworn to your female servant, saying, "Surely Solomon your son will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne?" And why does Adonijah reign?' ¹⁴Behold, while you are still speaking there with the king, then I myself will come in behind you and will fill your words."

¹⁵And Bathsheba came to the king at the room. (Now the king was very old and Abishag the Shunammite was attending the king.) ¹⁶And Bathsheba bowed and prostrated herself to the king. And the king said, "What is for you?" ¹⁷And she said to him, "My master, you yourself have sworn to your female servant by Yahweh your God, 'Surely Solomon your son will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne.' ¹⁸And now, behold, Adonijah reigns, and now, my master the king, you do not know. ¹⁹And he has sacrificed ox and fatling and sheep to abundance, and he has called to all the sons of the king and to Abiathar the priest and to Joab the commander of the army, but he has not called to Solomon your servant. ²⁰And you, my master the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to tell them who will sit on the throne of my master the king after him. ²¹And it will happen, as soon as my master the king lies down with his fathers, that I myself and my son Solomon will be sinners."

²²And behold, while she was still speaking with the king, then Nathan the prophet came. ²³And they told the king, saying, "Behold, Nathan the prophet." And he came before the face of the king, and he prostrated himself to the king with his nostrils to the ground. ²⁴And Nathan said, "My master the king, have you yourself said, 'Adonijah will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne?' ²⁵For he has gone down today and sacrificed ox and fatling and sheep to abundance, and he has called to all of the sons of the king and to the commanders of the army and to Abiathar the priest. And behold, they are eating and drinking before his face. And they say, 'Let the king Adonijah live!' ²⁶But as for me, I am your servant, and he has not called to Zadok the priest and to Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and to Solomon your servant. ²⁷Has this matter happened from with my master the king and you have not caused your servants to know who will sit on the throne of my master the king after him?"

²⁸And the king David answered and said, "Call to Bathsheba for me." And she came before the face of the king and she stood before the face of the king. ²⁹And the king swore and said, "As Yahweh is alive, who has ransomed my life from every distress. ³⁰For just as I have sworn to you by Yahweh the God of Israel, saying, 'Surely Solomon your son will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne in my place,' surely thus I will do this day." ³¹And Bathsheba bowed with nostrils to the ground and she prostrated herself before the king and she said, "May my master the king David live to eternity!"

³²And the king David said, "Call for me to Zadok the priest and to Nathan the prophet and to Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." And they came before the face of the king. ³³And the king said to them, "Take with you the servants of your master, and you shall cause Solomon my son to mount on the female mule that is for me and bring him down to Gihon. ³⁴And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet shall anoint him there as king over Israel. And you shall blow with the horn and you shall say, 'Let the king Solomon live!' ³⁵And you shall go up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne; and he will reign in my place. And I have commanded him to be leader over Israel and over Judah." ³⁶And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, "Truly! So has Yahweh the God of my master the king spoken. ³⁷Just as Yahweh has been with my master the king, so may he be with Solomon. And may he make his throne greater than the throne of my master the king David."

³⁸And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and the Kerethite and the Pelethite went down and they caused Solomon to mount on the female mule of the king David. And they brought him to Gihon. ³⁹And Zadok the priest took the horn of the oil from the tent and he anointed Solomon. And they blew with the horn, and all the people said, "Let the king Solomon live!" ⁴⁰And all the people went up after him. And the people were playing with the flutes and were rejoicing with great joy. And the earth was split by their sound.

⁴¹And Adonijah and all the called ones who were with him heard and they had finished eating. And Joab heard the sound of the horn, and he said, "Why is the sound of the city noisy?" ⁴²He was still speaking, and behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. And Adonijah said, "Come, for you are a man of strength and you will bring good news." ⁴³And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, "No, but our master the king David has caused Solomon to reign. ⁴⁴And the king has sent with him Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and the Kerethite and the Pelethite. And they caused him to mount on the female mule of the king. ⁴⁵And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him as king at Gihon, and they have come up from there rejoicing, and the city is in an uproar. This is the sound that you have heard. ⁴⁶And also, Solomon sits on the throne of the kingship. ⁴⁷And also, the servants of the king came to bless our master the king David, saying, 'May God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and may he make his throne greater than your throne.' And the king bowed down on the bed. ⁴⁸And also, thus said the king, 'Blessed be Yahweh the God of Israel, who has given one who sits on my throne today, and my eyes are seeing.'"

⁴⁹And all the called ones who were for Adonijah trembled and rose. And they went, a man to his way. ⁵⁰And Adonijah was afraid of the face of Solomon. And he rose and went and grasped the horns of the altar. ⁵¹And it was told to Solomon, saying, "Behold, Adonijah fears Solomon the king. And behold, he has grasped the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let Solomon the king swear to me as soon as today that he will not put to death his servant with the sword.'" ⁵²And Solomon said, "If he will be a son of strength, some of his hair will not fall to the ground. But if evil is found in him, then he will die." ⁵³And Solomon the king sent, and they brought him down from beside the altar. And he came and bowed down to Solomon the king. And Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

Chapter 2

¹And the days of David to die came near, and he commanded Solomon his son, saying, ²"I am about to go in the way of all the earth. And you shall be strong, and you shall become a man. ³And you shall keep the keeping of Yahweh your God to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, according to what is written in the law of Moses, so that you may do wisely all that you do and everywhere that you would turn there, ⁴so that Yahweh may cause his word to stand, which he spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your sons will keep their way, to walk before my face in truth with all their heart and with all their soul,' saying, 'a man for you will not be cut off from on the throne of Israel.' ⁵And also you yourself know what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, what he did to two of the commanders of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner and to Amasa the son of Jether: and he slew them. And he put the bloodshed of war in peace and he gave the bloodshed of war on his belt, which was on his loins, and on his sandal, which was on his feet. ⁶And you shall act according to your wisdom, and you shall not let his gray hair go down in peace to Sheol. ⁷And to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite do covenant faithfulness, and let them be among those who eat at your table. For so they came near to me when I fled from the face of Absalom your brother. ⁸And behold, with you is Shimei the son of Gera the Benjamite from Bahurim. And he himself cursed me with a grievous curse on the day of my going to Mahanaim. And he himself went down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by Yahweh, saying, 'I will not put you to death by the sword.' ⁹And now, do not leave him unpunished. For you are a wise man, and you know what you shall do to him. And you shall cause his gray hair to go down with blood to Sheol."

¹⁰And David lay down with his fathers and he was buried in the city of David. ¹¹And the days that David reigned over Israel were 40 years. In Hebron he reigned seven years and in Jerusalem he reigned 33 years. ¹²And Solomon sat on the throne of David his father. And his kingdom was firmly established.

¹³And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, "Is your coming peaceful?" And he said, "It is peaceful." ¹⁴And he said, "A word is for me to you." And she said, "Speak." ¹⁵And he said, "You yourself know that the kingship was for me, and all Israel had set their faces on me to reign. But the kingship turned around and became for my brother, for from Yahweh it was for him. ¹⁶And now, I am requesting one request from with you, do not turn back my face." And she said to him, "Speak." ¹⁷And he said, "Please speak to Solomon the king, for he will not turn back your face, that he may give to me Abishag the Shunammite for a wife." ¹⁸And Bathsheba said, "Good, I myself will speak concerning you to the king."

¹⁹And Bathsheba came to the king Solomon to speak to him concerning Adonijah. And the king rose to meet her and he bowed down to her and he sat on his throne. And he set a throne for the mother of the king, and she sat by his right hand. ²⁰And she said, "One small request I am requesting from with you, do not turn back my face." And the king said to her, "Request, my mother, for I will not turn back your face." ²¹And she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother for a wife." ²²And the king Solomon answered and said to his mother, "And why are you requesting Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Then request for him the kingship, for he is my brother, older than I, and for him and for Abiathar the priest and for Joab the son of Zeruiah!" ²³And the king Solomon swore by Yahweh, saying, "Thus may God do to me, and thus may he add, unless by his life Adonijah has spoken this word. ²⁴And now, as Yahweh is alive, who has established me and caused me to sit on the throne of David my father, and who has made for me a house just as he said, surely today Adonijah shall be put to death." ²⁵And the king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And he attacked him and he died.

²⁶And with respect to Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to Anathoth, to your fields. For you are a man of death, but I will not put you to death on this day, because you lifted the box of my Lord Yahweh before the face of David my father and because you were afflicted with all that my father was afflicted." ²⁷And Solomon drove Abiathar out from being a priest to Yahweh, to fulfill the word of Yahweh, which he had spoken concerning the house of Eli at Shiloh.

²⁸And the report came as far as Joab, for Joab had turned aside after Adonijah, but he had not turned aside after Absalom. And Joab fled to the tent of Yahweh and he took hold of the horns of the altar. ²⁹And it was told to the king Solomon that Joab had fled to the tent of Yahweh, and behold, he was beside the altar. And Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, attack him." ³⁰And Benaiah entered into the tent of Yahweh and he said to him, "Thus says the king, 'Come out!'" And he said, "No, for here I will die." And Benaiah brought back word to the king, saying, "Thus has spoken Joab and thus he answered me." ³¹And the king said to him, "Do just as he has spoken and attack him and bury him. And you will remove from on me and from on the house of my father the bloodshed without cause that Joab poured out. ³²And Yahweh will return his blood on his head, because he attacked two men more righteous and better than himself and he slew them with the sword, and my father David did not know: Abner the son of Ner, the commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, the commander of the army of Judah. ³³And their shed blood will return on the head of Joab and on the head of his seed to eternity. But for David and for his seed and for his house and for his throne will be peace until eternity from with Yahweh." ³⁴And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and attacked him and put him to death. And he was buried in his house in the wilderness. ³⁵And the king gave Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army. And Zadok the priest the king gave in place of Abiathar.

³⁶And the king sent and called for Shimei, and he said to him, "Build a house for yourself in Jerusalem and dwell there. And do not go out from there here or there. ³⁷And it will happen on the day when you go out and you pass over the wadi of Kidron, know surely that you will surely die. Your blood will be on your head." ³⁸And Shimei said to the king, "The word is good. Just as my master the king has spoken, thus your servant will do." And Shimei dwelled in Jerusalem many days.

³⁹And it happened from the end of three years that two of the slaves of Shimei fled to Achish the son of Maacah, the king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, "Behold, your slaves are in Gath." ⁴⁰And Shimei rose and saddled his donkey and went to Gath, to Achish, to seek his slaves. And Shimei went and brought back his slaves from Gath. ⁴¹And it was told to Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned. ⁴²And the king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, "Did I not cause you to swear by Yahweh and testify against you, saying, 'On the day when you go out and go here or there, surely know that you will surely die? And you said to me, 'The word I have heard is good.' ⁴³And why did you not keep the oath of Yahweh and the command that I commanded concerning you?" ⁴⁴And the king said to Shimei, "You yourself know all the evil that your heart knows, that you did to David my father. And Yahweh will return your evil on your head. ⁴⁵But the king Solomon will be blessed, and the throne of David will be established before the face of Yahweh until eternity." ⁴⁶And the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and attacked him, and he died.

And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

Chapter 3

¹And Solomon made himself the son-in-law of Pharaoh the king of Egypt. And he took the daughter of Pharaoh and he brought her into the city of David until his completing to build his house and the house of Yahweh and the wall of Jerusalem round about. ²Only the people were sacrificing at the high places because a house had not been built for the name of Yahweh until those days. ³And Solomon loved Yahweh by walking in the statutes of David his father, but at the high places he was sacrificing and burning incense.

⁴And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for it was the great high place. Solomon offered up a thousand burnt up offerings on that altar. ⁵At Gibeon Yahweh appeared to Solomon in a dream that night. And God said, "Request! What should I give to you?" ⁶And Solomon said, "You yourself have did great covenant faithfulness with your servant David, my father, because he walked before your face in faithfulness and in righteousness and in uprightness of heart with you. And you have kept for him this great covenant faithfulness and you have given to him a son sitting on his throne as it is this day. ⁷And now, Yahweh my God, you yourself have caused your servant to reign in place of David my father, but I am a young youth. I do not know going out or coming in. ⁸And your servant is in the midst of your people, whom you have chosen, a numerous people who can not be numbered and can not be counted because of abundance. ⁹And may you give to your servant a heart that hears to judge your people, to discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge your people, this heavy one?"

¹⁰And the thing was good in the eyes of the Lord, that Solomon had requested this thing. ¹¹And God said to him, "Because you have requested this thing and you have not requested for yourself many days, and you have not requested riches for yourself, and you have not requested the life of your enemies, but you requested for yourself discerning to hear justice, ¹²behold, I have done according to your word. Behold, I have given to you a wise and discerning heart, so that one has not been like you before your face, and after you will not rise one like you. ¹³And also what you have not requested I have given to you, both riches and honor, so that there will not be a man like you among the kings all of your days. ¹⁴And if you will walk in my ways to keep my statutes and my commandments, just as David your father walked, then I will lengthen your days.” ¹⁵And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream! And he entered Jerusalem and he stood before the face of the box of the covenant of the Lord. And he offered up burnt offerings and he made peace offerings. And he made a feast for all his servants.

¹⁶At that time two women, prostitutes, came to the king and they stood before his face. ¹⁷And the one woman said, “Please, my master, I and this woman dwell in one house, and I gave birth with her in the house. ¹⁸And it happened on the third day of my giving birth that this woman also gave birth. And we were together, there was no stranger with us in the house, only we two were in the house. ¹⁹And the son of this woman died at night, because she lay on him. ²⁰And she arose in the middle of the night and she took my son from my side, and your female servant was asleep. And she laid him in her bosom. And her son, the one who died, she laid in my bosom. ²¹And I rose in the morning to nurse my son, and behold, he was dead! And I considered diligently with respect to him in the morning, and behold, he was not my son, whom I had borne!” ²²And the other woman said, “No, but my son is the living one, and your son is the dead one.” And this one was saying, “No, but your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.” And they spoke before the face of the king.

²³And the king said, “This one says, ‘This is my son, the living one, and your son is the dead one,’ but this one says, ‘No, but your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.’” ²⁴And the king said, “Take a sword for me.” And they brought the sword before the face of the king. ²⁵And the king said, “Divide the living child into two pieces, and give the half to one and the half to the other.” ²⁶And the woman whose son was the living one said to the king, for her compassionate feelings for her son became warm. And she said, “Please, my master, give to her the living child, and you must certainly not put him to death!” But this one was saying, “Either for me or for you he will not be. Divide!” ²⁷And the king answered and said, “Give to her the living child, and you must certainly not put him to death. She is his mother.” ²⁸And all Israel heard the judgment that the king had judged, and they were afraid from the face of the king, because they saw that the wisdom of God was within him to do justice.

¹And King Solomon was king over all Israel. ²And these were the officials which were for him: Azariah the son of Zadok was the priest. ³Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, were scribes. Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder. ⁴And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army. And Zadok and Abiathar were priests. ⁵And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the stationed ones. And Zabud the son of Nathan was a priest, the friend of the king. ⁶And Ahishar was over the house. And Adoniram the son of Abda was over the forced labor.

⁷And for Solomon were 12 stationed ones over all Israel, and they sustained the king and his house. A month in the year it would be on one to sustain. ⁸And these were their names: Ben Hur in the hill country of Ephraim, ⁹Ben Deker in Makaz and in Shaalbim and Beth Shemesh and Elon Beth Hanan, ¹⁰Ben Hesus in the Arubboth (for him was Sokoh and all the land of Hephher), ¹¹Ben Abinadab was for all Naphoth Dor (Taphath, the daughter of Solomon, was for him for a wife), ¹²Baana the son of Ahilud in Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth Shan that is beside Zarethan from below Jezreel, from Beth Shan as far as Abel Meholah, as far as from the other side of Jokmeam, ¹³Ben Geber in Ramoth Gilead, for him were the villages of Jair the son of Manasseh that were in Gilead, for him was the region of Argob, which was in the Bashan—60 great cities with a wall and a gate bar of bronze; ¹⁴Ahinadab the son of Iddo in Mahanaim, ¹⁵Ahimaaz in Naphtali (he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon for a wife), ¹⁶Baana the son of Hushai in Asher and Bealoth, ¹⁷Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah in Issachar, ¹⁸Shimei the son of Ela in Benjamin, ¹⁹Geber the son of Uri in the land of Gilead, the land of Sihon, the king of the Amorite and Og, the king of the Bashan, and he was the one stationed one who was in the land.

²⁰Judah and Israel were numerous as the sand that is on the sea according to abundance. They were eating and drinking and rejoicing. ²¹And Solomon was ruling over all the kingdoms from the river to the land of the Philistines and as far as the border of Egypt, bringing tribute near and serving Solomon all the days of his life. ²²And the bread of Solomon for one day was 30 cors of fine flour and 60 cors of flour, ²³ten fat cattle and 20 pasture cattle and 100 sheep, apart from deer and gazelle and roebuck and fattened fowl. ²⁴For he had dominion over all beyond the river, from Tiphseh and as far as Gaza, over all the kings of beyond the river. And peace was for him from all his sides, from all around. ²⁵And Judah and Israel dwelled in safety, a man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan and as far as Beersheba, all the days of Solomon. ²⁶And there was for Solomon 40,000 stalls of horses for his chariotry and 12,000 horsemen. ²⁷And those stationed ones sustained the king Solomon and all the ones who came near to the table of the king Solomon, a man his month. They would not let anything be lacking. ²⁸And they brought the barley and the straw for the horses and for the steed to the place there where it should be, a man according to his regulation.

²⁹And God gave wisdom to Solomon and very much understanding and width of heart like the sand that is on the lip of the sea. ³⁰And the wisdom of Solomon was greater than the wisdom of all the sons of the east and than all the wisdom of Egypt. ³¹And he was wiser than every man, than Ethan the Ezrahite and Heman and Kalkol and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his name was in all the surrounding nations. ³²And he spoke 3,000 proverbs and his songs were 1,005. ³³And he spoke concerning the trees, from the cedar that is in the Lebanon and as far as the hyssop that comes out on the wall. And he spoke concerning the beast and concerning the bird and concerning the creeping thing and concerning the fish. ³⁴And they came from all the peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from with all the kings of the earth who had heard his wisdom.

Chapter 5

¹And Hiram the king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon when he heard that they had anointed him as king in place of his father, for Hiram was a one loved by David all the days. ²And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, ³“You yourself knew David my father, that he was not able to build a house for the name of Yahweh his God because of the face of the warfare that surrounded him, until Yahweh was giving them under the soles of his feet. ⁴But now, Yahweh my God has given rest to me from all around. There is no adversary and there is no evil occurrence. ⁵And behold I am saying to build a house for the name of Yahweh my God, just as Yahweh spoke to David my father, saying, ‘Your son, whom I will give in your place on your throne, he will build the house for my name.’ ⁶And now, command and let them cut for me cedars from the Lebanon and let my servants be with your servants and I will give to you the wage of your servants according to all that you say. For you yourself know that there is no man among us knowing how to cut trees like the Sidonians.”

⁷And it happened as soon as Hiram heard the words of Solomon that he rejoiced exceedingly. And he said, “Blessed be Yahweh today, who has given to David a wise son over this great people.” ⁸And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, “I have heard what you sent to me. I myself will do all your desire with the trees of cedar and with the trees of cypress. ⁹And my servants will bring down from the Lebanon to the sea, and I myself will set rafts on the sea as far as the place where you send for me. And I will break them up there and you yourself will lift. And you yourself will do my desire by giving the bread of my house.” ¹⁰And Hiram was giving to Solomon trees of cedar and trees of cypress, all of his desire. ¹¹And Solomon gave to Hiram 20,000 kors of wheat as food for his house and 20 kors of beaten oil. Thus Solomon would give to Hiram year by year. ¹²And Yahweh gave wisdom to Solomon, just as he spoke to him. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon and the two of them cut a covenant.

¹³And the king Solomon brought up forced labor from all Israel. And the forced labor was 30,000 men. ¹⁴And he sent them to Lebanon, 10,000 by the month in shifts. They were a month in the Lebanon, two months in his house. And Adoniram was over the forced labor. ¹⁵And there was for Solomon 70,000 who lift a burden and 80,000 who hew in the hill country, ¹⁶apart from the officials of the stationed ones of Solomon who were over the work, 3,300 were the ones having dominion over the people, the ones who were doing the work. ¹⁷And the king commanded and they removed large stones, precious stones to found the house, stones of hewing. ¹⁸And the builders of Solomon and the builders of Hiram and the Gebalites hewed and they prepared the trees and the stones to build the house.

¹And it happened in year 480 of the going out of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of the reigning of Solomon over Israel, in the month of Ziv (that is the second month), that he began to build the house of Yahweh. ²As for the house that the king Solomon built for Yahweh, 60 cubits was its length, and 20 its width, and 30 cubits its height. ³As for the porch on the face of the temple of the house, 20 cubits was its length, in accordance with the face of the width of the house; ten by the cubit was its width in accordance with the face of the house. ⁴And he made for the house windows with narrowed frames. ⁵And he built against the wall of the house a spread out place all around, the walls of the house all around, for the temple and for the inner room. And he made side rooms all around. ⁶The spread out place of the lowest level, five by the cubit was its width, and the middle level, six by the cubit was its width, and the third level, seven by the cubit was its width. For he gave ledges for the house all around the outside, so not to hold on to the walls of the house. ⁷As for the house while it was being built, it was built of finished stone of a quarry. And a hammer or the ax, any implement of iron, was not heard in the house while it was being built. ⁸The opening of the middle side room was to the shoulder of the house at the south, and by stairs they went up on the middle level, and from the middle level to the third level. ⁹And he built the house and he finished it. And he covered the house with beams and rows with the cedars. ¹⁰And he built the spread out place against all the house, five cubits was its height, and it held on to the house with the wood of cedar.

¹⁴And Solomon built the house and he finished it. ¹⁵And he built the walls of the house on the inside with sides of cedar. From the floor of the house up to the walls of the ceiling, he overlaid wood on the inside, and he overlaid the floor of the house with sides of cypress. ¹⁶And he built 20 cubits from the rear of the house with sides of cedar from the floor up to the walls. And he built for it on the inside as an inner room, as the holiest holy place. ¹⁷And 40 by the cubit was the house (that is the temple) before the face of it. ¹⁸And cedar was into inside the house, carving of gourds and opened ones of flowers. The whole was cedar, there was no stone seen. ¹⁹And he set up the inner room in the midst of the house on the inside for giving there the box of the covenant of Yahweh. ²⁰And before the face of the inner room, it was 20 cubits in length, and 20 cubits in width, and 20 cubits its height. And he overlaid it with pure gold and he overlaid an altar with cedar. ²¹And Solomon overlaid the house on the inside with pure gold. And he crossed chains of gold over the face of the inner room, and he overlaid it with gold. ²²And he overlaid all the house with gold until finishing all the house. And the whole of the altar that was for the inner room he overlaid with gold.

²³And he made in the inner room two cherubs of wood of oil; ten cubits was its height. ²⁴And five cubits was the wing of the one cherub and five cubits was the wing of the second cherub. It was ten cubits from the ends of its wings and as far as the ends of its wings. ²⁵And ten by the cubit was the second cherub, one size and one shape were for the two cherubs. ²⁶The height of the one cherub was ten by the cubit and so was the second cherub. ²⁷And he gave the cherubs in the midst of the inner house. And they spread out the wings of the cherubs and the wing of the one touched against the wall and the wing of the second cherub was touching against the second wall. And their wings were toward the middle of the house, touching wing to wing. ²⁸And he overlaid the cherubs with gold.

²⁹And he carved all the walls of the house round about with engravings of carvings of cherubs and palm trees and opened ones of flowers, from inside and to the outside. ³⁰And he overlaid the floor of the house with gold, for inside and for the outside. ³¹Also he made the opening of the inner room with doors of wood of oil; the pillar, doorposts, were a fifth part. ³²And the two of the doors were wood of oil, and he carved on them carvings of cherubs and palm trees and opened ones of flowers, and he overlaid them with gold. And he beat out the gold on the cherubs and on the palm trees. ³³And so he made for the opening of the temple doorposts of wood of oil from a fourth part. ³⁴And the two of the doors were wood of cypress, the two of the one door leaves were folding and the two of the second door curtains were folding. ³⁵And he carved cherubs and palm trees and opened ones of flowers. And he overlaid with gold made smooth on the engraving. ³⁶And he built the inner courtyard with three rows of hewn stone and a row of cut beams of cedar.

³⁷In the fourth year the house of Yahweh was founded, in the month of Ziv. ³⁸And in the year 11, in the month of Bul (it is the eighth month), the house was finished according to all his words and according to all his requirements. And he built it seven years.

Chapter 7

¹And Solomon built his house 13 years. And he finished all of his house. ²And he built the house of the forest of the Lebanon: 100 cubits was its length and 50 cubits was its width and 30 cubits was its height, with four rows of pillars of cedar and cut beams of cedar on the pillars. ³And it was covered with cedar from above over the sides that were on the 45 pillars, 15 was the row. ⁴And the window frames were three rows, and opening to opening were three occurrences. ⁵And all the openings and the doorposts were squared framework. And the front of an opening to an opening were three occurrences. ⁶And he made the porch of the pillars, 50 cubits was its length and 30 cubits was its width. And a porch was on their face and pillars and a roof were on their face. ⁷And he made the porch of the throne there where he would judge, the porch of judgment. And it was covered with cedar from the floor up to the floor. ⁸And his house there where he would dwell, the other courtyard, was from the house of the porch; it was like this work. And he would make a house for the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Solomon had taken, like this porch.

¹³And the king Solomon sent and took Hiram from Tyre. ¹⁴He was a son of a woman, a widow, from the tribe of Naphtali and his father was a man of Tyre, one who engraves bronze. And he was filled with the wisdom and the understanding and the knowledge in order to do all the work with bronze. And he came to the king Solomon and he did all his work. ¹⁵And he formed the two of the pillars bronze, 18 cubits was the height of the one pillar and a cord of 12 cubits surrounded the second pillar. ¹⁶And he made the two of the capitals to give on the heads of the pillars, casting of bronze. Five cubits was the height of the one capital and five cubits was the height of the second capital. ¹⁷Lattices, a work of lattice, twisted threads, a work of chains, were for the capitals which were on the head of the pillars. Seven were for the one capital and seven were for the second capital. ¹⁸And he made the pillars, and two rows all around on the one lattice to cover the capitals, which were on the head of the pomegranates, and he did so for the second capital. ¹⁹And the capitals, which were on the head of the pillars, were the work of a lily on the porch, four cubits. ²⁰And capitals were on the two pillars, also from above. from near the belly, which was to the opposite of the lattice. And the pomegranates were 200, rows all around on the second capital. ²¹And he raised up the pillars for the porch of the temple. And he raised up the right pillar and he called its name Jakin. And he raised up the left pillar and he called its name Boaz. ²²And on the head of the pillars was the work of a lily. And the work of the pillars was finished.

²³And he made the sea that was cast. It was ten by the cubit from its lip up to its lip, circular all around. And five by the cubit was its height and a cord of 30 cubits surrounded it all around. ²⁴And gourds were from underneath to its lip, surrounding it all around, ten by the cubit, encircling the sea all around. The gourds were two rows that were cast when it was cast. ²⁵It was standing over 12 cattle, three faces toward the north and three faces toward the west and three faces toward the south and three faces toward the east, and the sea was over them from above.

And all their hindquarters were toward the inside. ²⁶And its thickness was a handbreadth and its lip was like the work of the lip of a cup, the blossom of a lily. It contained 2,000 baths.

²⁷And he made the ten bronze stands. Four by the cubit was the length of the one stand and four by the cubit was its width and three by the cubit was its height. ²⁸And this was the work of the stand: rims were for them, and rims were between the joints. ²⁹And on the rims, which were between the joints, were lions, oxen, and cherubs. And on the joints was a pedestal from above and from below to the lions and the cattle were wreaths, work of descent.

³⁰And four wheels of bronze were for the one stand and axles of bronze and its four feet were shoulders for them, from the under part of the basin; the shoulders were cast from each side with wreaths. ³¹And its mouth on the inside of the capital and upward was by the cubit, and its mouth was round, the work of a pedestal, a cubit and a half of the cubit. And also on its mouth were carvings and their rims were squared, not circular. ³²And the four of the wheels were for the under part of the rims, and the hands of the wheels were with the stand. And the height of the one wheel was a cubit and a half of the cubit. ³³And the work of the wheels was like the work of the wheel of the chariot. Their hands and their rims and their spokes and their hubs, the whole thing was cast. ³⁴And four shoulders were to the four corners of the one stand, its shoulders were part of the stand. ³⁵And at the top of the stand, a half of the cubit was the height, circular all around. And on the head of the stand was its hands and its rims were part of it. ³⁶And he engraved on the planks of its hands and on its rims cherubs, lions, and palm trees according to the bare space of each, and wreaths were all around. ³⁷Like this he made the ten stands, one casting, one size, one shape was for all of them.

³⁸And he made ten bronze basins. The one basin contained 40 baths. The one basin was four by the cubit, one basin was on the one base for the ten stands. ³⁹And he gave the stands, five on the shoulder of the house from the right and five on the shoulder of the house from its left. And he gave the sea from the south shoulder of the house eastward, from in front of the south.

⁴⁰And Hiram made the basins and the shovels and the sprinkling bowls. And Hiram finished doing all the work that he did for the king Solomon for the house of Yahweh: ⁴¹two pillars, and the bowls of the capitals that were on the head of the two pillars, and the two latticeworks for covering the two bowls of the capitals that were on the head of the pillars, ⁴²and the 400 pomegranates for the two latticeworks, two rows of pomegranates for the one latticework to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the faces of the pillars, ⁴³and the ten stands, and the ten basins on the stands, ⁴⁴and the one sea and the 12 cattle under the sea, ⁴⁵and the pots and the shovels and the sprinkling bowls and all these vessels that Hiram made for the king Solomon, for the house of Yahweh, were polished bronze. ⁴⁶In the circular plain of the Jordan the king cast them in the compactness of the ground between Succoth and between Zarethan. ⁴⁷And Solomon caused all the vessels to rest because of very much abundance, the weight of the bronze had not been ascertained.

⁴⁸And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of Yahweh: the altar of gold and the table, which would have the bread of the face on it, was gold. ⁴⁹And the five lampstands from the south and five from the north, before the face of the inner room, were pure gold. And the blossom and the lamps and the snuffers were gold.

⁵⁰And the cups and the trimmers and the sprinkling bowls and the palms and the firepans were pure gold. And the sockets of the doors of the inner house, for the holiest holy place, for the doors of the house, for the temple, were gold.

⁵¹And all the work that the king Solomon did for the house of Yahweh was complete. And Solomon brought in the holy things of David, his father, the silver and the gold and the vessels he gave into the storerooms of the house of Yahweh.

Chapter 8

¹Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes, the lifted ones of the fathers of the sons of Israel, to the king Solomon at Jerusalem, to bring up the box of the covenant of Yahweh from the city of David (it is Zion). ²And all the men of Israel assembled to the king Solomon in the month of Ethanim at the feast (it is the seventh month). ³And all the elders of Israel came and the priests lifted the box. ⁴And they brought up the box of Yahweh and the tent of meeting and all the vessels of holiness that were in the tent. And the priests and the Levites brought them up. ⁵And the king Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, the ones who congregated to him, were with him before the face of the box, sacrificing sheep and cattle that could not be counted and could not be numbered because of abundance. ⁶And the priests brought the box of the covenant of Yahweh into its place, into the inner room of the house, into the holiest holy place, to beneath the wings of the cherubs. ⁷For the cherubs were spreading out wings toward the place of the box. And the cherubs covered over the box and over its poles from above. ⁸And the poles were made long and the heads of the poles were seen from the holy place on the face of the inner room, and they were not seen on the outside. And they are there until this day. ⁹There was nothing in the box except the two tablets of stone, which Moses caused to rest there at Horeb, where Yahweh cut with the sons of Israel when they went out from the land of Egypt. ¹⁰And it happened when the priests went out from the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of Yahweh. ¹¹And the priests were not able to stand to minister because of the face of the cloud, for the glory of Yahweh filled the house of Yahweh.

¹²Then Solomon said,

“Yahweh has said he would dwell in the dark cloud.

¹³Surely I have built a house of elevation for you, a place for your dwelling forever.” ¹⁴And the king turned his face around and he blessed all the assembly of Israel, and all the assembly of Israel was standing. ¹⁵And he said, “Blessed is Yahweh, the God of Israel, who spoke by his mouth with David my father, and fulfilled by his hand, saying, ¹⁶‘From the day when I brought out my people Israel from Egypt, I did not choose a city from all the tribes of Israel to build a house, so that my name would be there. But I chose David to be over my people Israel.’ ¹⁷And it was with the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹⁸But Yahweh said to David my father, ‘Because it was with your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart. ¹⁹However, you will not build the house, but rather your son, the one who comes out from your loins, he himself will build the house for my name.’ ²⁰And Yahweh has raised up his word that he had spoken. And I have risen up in the place of David my father, and I sit on the throne of Israel, just as Yahweh spoke. And I have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ²¹And I have set a place there for the box, where there is the covenant of Yahweh, which he cut with our fathers when he brought them out from the land of Egypt.”

²²And Solomon stood before the face of the altar of Yahweh, in front of all the assembly of Israel. And he spread out his palms to the heavens. ²³And he said, “Yahweh, the God of Israel, there is no God like you in the heavens from above or on the earth from below, keeping the covenant and the covenant faithfulness to your servants, the ones who walk before your face with all their heart; ²⁴which you have kept for your servant David my father, what you spoke to him. And you spoke with your mouth and with your hand you fulfilled, as this day. ²⁵And now, Yahweh, the God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father, what you spoke to him, saying, ‘A man will not be cut off for you from before my face, sitting on the throne of Israel, if only your sons will keep their way, to walk before my face, just as you have walked before my face.’ ²⁶And now, the God of Israel, please let your word be proven faithful, which you spoke to your servant David my father.

²⁷Indeed, would God really dwell on the earth? Behold, the heavens and the heavens of the heavens can not contain you, how much less this house that I have built! ²⁸Yet you will turn to the prayer of your servant and to his plea for favor, Yahweh my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer that your servant is praying before your face today: ²⁹that your eyes be opened to this house night and day, to the place where you have said, ‘My name will be there,’ to listen to the prayer that your servant will pray to this place. ³⁰And you will listen to the plea for favor of your servant and your people Israel that they will pray toward this place. And you, you will listen toward the place of your dwelling to the heavens. And you will hear and forgive ³¹a man who sins against his neighbor and lifts up against him a curse to curse him and a curse comes before the face of your altar in this house. ³²And you, you will hear in the heavens and act and judge your servants, by declaring as wicked a wicked one, to give his way on his head, and by declaring as righteous a righteous one, to give to him according to his righteousness.

³³When your people Israel are struck down before the face of an enemy because they have sinned against you, and they turn back to you and they confess your name and they pray and they plead for favor toward you in this house, ³⁴then you, you will hear in the heavens and you will forgive for the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the ground that you gave to their fathers.

³⁵When the heavens are restrained and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, and they pray toward this place and they confess your name and they turn back from their sin when you have afflicted them, ³⁶then you, you will hear in the heavens and forgive for the sin of your servants and your people Israel, for you direct the good way in which they will walk. And you will give rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.

³⁷If famine would be in the land, if there would be pestilence, if there would be blight, mildew, locust, grasshopper, if his enemy would make it narrow for him in the land of his gates, any plague, any sickness, ³⁸any prayer, any plea for favor that would be for any man, for any of your people Israel, who know, a man the plague of his heart, and he would spread out his palms toward this house, ³⁹then you, you will hear in the heavens, the place of your dwelling, and you will forgive and act and give to a man according to all his ways, because you know his heart. For you, you know, you alone, the heart of all the sons of mankind, ⁴⁰so that they may fear you all the days that they are alive on the face of the ground that you gave to our fathers.

⁴¹And also, to the foreigner, he who is not from among your people Israel, and he comes from a distant land on account of your name, ⁴²for they will hear of your great name and your strong hand and your extended arm, and he will come and pray toward this house, ⁴³you, you will hear in the heavens, the place of your dwelling, and you will act according to all that the foreigner has cried out to you, so that all the peoples of the earth will know your name to fear you, like your people Israel, and to know that your name has been called over this house that I have built.

⁴⁴If your people go out to battle against his enemy, by the way that you send them, and they pray to Yahweh, in the way of the city, it which you have chosen, and the house that I have built for your name, ⁴⁵then you will hear in the heavens their prayer and their plea for favor and you will do their justice.

⁴⁶If they sin against you (for there is no man who does not sin) and you are angry with them and you give them over before the face of an enemy and they took them captive as their captives to the land of the enemy, distant or near, ⁴⁷and they bring back to their heart in the land there where they have been taken captive, and they turn back and plead for favor to you in the land of those who took them captive, saying, 'We have sinned and we have done iniquity, we have acted wickedly,' ⁴⁸and they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies where they took them captive and they pray to you toward the way of their land, which you gave to their fathers, the city that you chose and the house that I have built for your name, ⁴⁹then you will hear their prayer in the heavens, the place of your dwelling, and their plea for favor, and you will do their justice. ⁵⁰And you will forgive your people who have sinned against you and all their transgressions that they have transgressed against you. And you will give them compassion before the face of those who took them captive and they will have compassion on them. ⁵¹For they are your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out from Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron, ⁵²for your eyes to be opened to the plea for favor of your servant and to the plea for favor of your people Israel, to listen to them in all their crying out to you. ⁵³For you yourself separated them for yourself as an inheritance from all the peoples of the earth, just as you spoke by the hand of Moses your servant when you brought out our fathers from Egypt, my Lord Yahweh."

⁵⁴And it happened that as soon as Solomon finishing to pray to Yahweh all this prayer and plea for favor, he rose from before the face of the altar of Yahweh, from bowing on his knees with his palms spread out toward the heavens. ⁵⁵And he stood and he blessed all the assembly of Israel with a great voice, saying, ⁵⁶"Blessed be Yahweh, who has given rest for his people Israel, according to all that he had spoken. One word did not fall from all his good word that he had spoken by the hand of Moses his servant. ⁵⁷May Yahweh our God be with us, just as he was with our fathers. May he not leave us and may he not forsake us, ⁵⁸inclining our heart to him, to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers. ⁵⁹And may these words of mine, which I have pleaded for favor before the face of Yahweh, be near to Yahweh our God by day and night, to do the justice of his servant and the justice of his people Israel, the word of day by its day, ⁶⁰so that all the peoples of the earth may know that Yahweh, he is the God, there is none besides! ⁶¹And may your heart be completely with Yahweh our God, by walking in his statutes and by keeping his commandments, as this day."

⁶²And the king and all Israel with him were sacrificing sacrifices before the face of Yahweh. ⁶³And Solomon sacrificed a sacrifice of peace offerings which he sacrificed to Yahweh: 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. And the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of Yahweh. ⁶⁴On that day the king set apart the middle of the courtyard that was before the face of the house of Yahweh, for he made there the burnt up offering and the grain offering and the fat pieces of the peace offerings because the altar of bronze that was before the face of Yahweh was too small to contain the burnt up offering and the grain offering and the fat pieces of the peace offerings. ⁶⁵And Solomon performed the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from Lebo Hamath as far as the wadi of Egypt, before the face of Yahweh our God seven days and seven days, 14 days. ⁶⁶On the eighth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the king and they went to their tents rejoicing and good of heart on account of all the goodness that Yahweh had done for David, his servant, and for Israel, his people.

¹And it happened as soon as Solomon finished building the house of Yahweh and the house of the king, and every desire of Solomon that he delighted to do, ²that Yahweh appeared to Solomon a second time, just as he had appeared to him at Gibeon. ³And Yahweh said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your plea for favor that you plead for favor before my face. I have set apart this house that you built, by setting my name there until eternity. And my eyes and my heart will be there all the days. ⁴And as for you, if you will walk before my face just as David your father walked with completeness of heart and with uprightness, by doing according to all that I have commanded you, if you keep my statutes and my judgments, ⁵then I will raise up the throne of your kingdom over Israel for eternity, just as I spoke to David your father, saying, 'A man for you will not be cut off from on the throne of Israel.' ⁶If you ever turn back, you or your sons, from after me and you do not keep my commandments, my statutes that I have given before your face, and you go and serve other gods and you bow down to them, ⁷then I will cut off Israel from on the face of the ground that I have given to them, and the house that I have set apart for my name, I will send away from on my face, and Israel will be for a proverb and for a taunt among all the peoples. ⁸And this house will be elevated, every one who passes by near it will be appalled and will hiss. And they will say, 'On what account did Yahweh do thus to this land and to this house?' ⁹And they will say, 'Because they forsook Yahweh their God, who brought their fathers out from the land of Egypt, and they held on to other gods and bowed down to them and served them. Therefore Yahweh brought on them all this evil.'" ¹⁰And it happened from the end of 20 years that Solomon had built the two houses, the house of Yahweh and the house of the king. ¹¹Hiram, the king of Tyre, had lifted Solomon with trees of cedar and with trees of cypress and with gold, according to all his delight. Then the king Solomon gave to Hiram 20 cities in the land of the Galilee. ¹²And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon had given to him, but they were not right in his eyes. ¹³And he said, "What are these cities that you have given to me, my brother?" And he called them the land of Kabul until this day. ¹⁴And Hiram sent to the king 120 kikkars of gold.

¹⁵Now this is the matter of the forced labor that the king Solomon brought up to build the house of Yahweh and his house and the Millo and the wall of Jerusalem and Hazor and Megiddo and Gezer. ¹⁶Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, had gone up and seized Gezer and he burned it with fire and he slew the Canaanite, the one who dwelled in the city. And he gave it as sending gifts to his daughter, the wife of Solomon. ¹⁷And Solomon built Gezer and lower Beth Horon ¹⁸and Baalath and Tadmor in the wilderness ¹⁹and all the cities of the storehouses that were for Solomon and the cities of the chariotry and the cities of the horsemen and the desire of Solomon, whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem and in the Lebanon and in all the land of his dominion. ²⁰All the people, the ones who were left over from the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, they who were not of the sons of Israel, ²¹their sons who were left over after them in the land, them whom the sons of Israel were not able to utterly destroy, Solomon brought them up for the forced labor of serving until this day. ²²But from the sons of Israel Solomon did not give a servant, for they were the men of warfare and his servants and his commanders and his third men and the commanders of his chariotry and his horsemen.

²³These were the commanders of the stationed ones who were over the work for Solomon, 550, the ones having dominion over the people, the ones doing the work.

²⁴As soon as the daughter of Pharaoh went up from the city of David to her house that he had built for her, then he built the Millo.

²⁵And Solomon offered up three times in the year burnt up offerings and peace offerings on the altar that he built for Yahweh, and he burned incense with it, which was before the face of Yahweh. And he completed the house.

²⁶And the king Solomon made a fleet in Ezion Geber, which is near Elath on the lip of the sea of reeds in the land of Edom. ²⁷And Hiram sent in the fleet his servants, men of ships who knew the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

²⁸And they came to Ophir and took from there gold, 420 kikkars. And they brought it to the king Solomon.

9:18 ^[1]

Chapter 10

¹Now the queen of Sheba heard the report of Solomon with respect to the name of Yahweh. And she came to test him with difficult questions. ²And she came to Jerusalem with very heavy strength, camels lifting spices and very much gold and precious stone. And she came to Solomon and spoke to him all that was with her heart. ³And Solomon told her all her matters. There was not a matter hidden from the king that he did not tell her. ⁴And the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon and the house that he had built ⁵and the food of his table and the seating of his servants and the service of his attendants and their apparel and his cupbearers and his burnt up offerings that he offered up at the house of Yahweh. And there was no more breath in her. ⁶And she said to the king, "True is the word that I heard in my land concerning your words and concerning your wisdom. ⁷And I did not believe the words until when I came and my eyes saw, and behold, the half was not told to me! You added wisdom and goodness to the report that I had heard. ⁸Happy are your men! Happy are these servants of yours, the ones who stand continually before your face, the ones who hear your wisdom!^[1] ⁹May Yahweh your God be blessed, who has delighted in you, to give you on the throne of Israel. Because Yahweh loves Israel for eternity, he set you as king to do justice and righteousness!" ¹⁰And she gave to the king 120 kikkars of gold and very many spices and precious stone. There has not come again like that spice with respect to abundance that the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹¹And also the fleet of Hiram, which lifted gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir very many trees of almug and precious stone. ¹²And the king made the trees of almug a support for the house of Yahweh and for the house of the king, and lyres and harps for the ones who sing. Such trees of almug had not come in and had not been seen until this day.

¹³And the king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she requested apart from what he gave to her according to the hand of the king Solomon. And she turned and went to her land, she and her servants.

¹⁴And the weight of the gold that came to Solomon in one year was 666 kikkars of gold, ¹⁵apart from the men of the ones who explore and from the merchandise of the ones who go about, and all the kings of the Arab and the governors of the land. ¹⁶And the king Solomon made 200 large beaten gold shields, 600 gold went up on one large shield, ¹⁷and 300 beaten gold shields, three gold minas went up on one shield. And the king gave them to the house of the forest of the Lebanon. ¹⁸And the king made a great ivory throne and he overlaid it with refined gold. ¹⁹There were six steps to the throne and a round head for the throne from behind it. And hands were from this side and from that side toward the place of the seat. And two lions were standing beside the hands. ²⁰And 12 lions were standing there on the six steps, from this side and from that side. It was not made so for any kingdoms. ²¹And all the vessels of the drink of the king Solomon were gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of the Lebanon were beaten gold. There was no silver, it was not thought to be anything in the days of Solomon. ²²For the fleet of Tarshish was for the king on the sea with the fleet of Hiram. One of three years the fleet of Tarshish would come lifting gold and silver, ivory pieces and apes and peacocks.

²³And the king Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth with respect to riches and with respect to wisdom. ²⁴And all the earth was seeking the face of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had given in his heart. ²⁵And they were bringing, a man his gift, vessels of silver and vessels of gold and garments and weapons and spices, horses and mules, a matter of year by year.

²⁶And Solomon gathered chariotry and horsemen. And there were for him 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen. And he lead them into the cities of the chariotry and with the king in Jerusalem. ²⁷And the king gave the silver in Jerusalem like the stones, and the cedars he gave like the sycamores that are in the lowlands with respect to abundance. ²⁸And the going out of the horses that were for Solomon was from Egypt and from Kue; the ones who go about for the king would take from Kue for a price. ²⁹And a chariot went up and went out from Egypt for 600 silver, and a horse for 150, and thus by their hand they brought out to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of Aram.

10:8 ^[1]. Many think that was misread as , because the Hebrew words are very similar.

Chapter 11

¹Now the king Solomon loved many foreign women, with the daughter of Pharaoh, Moabite women, Ammonite women, Edomite women, Sidonian women, Hittite women, ²from the nations that Yahweh had said to the sons of Israel, "You must not enter into them, and they must not enter into you. They will surely turn your heart after their gods." Solomon clung to them for love. ³And there were wives for him, 700 princesses, and 300 concubines. And his wives turned his heart. ⁴And it happened that by the time of the old age of Solomon his wives turned his heart after other gods. And his heart was not completely with Yahweh his God like the heart of David his father. ⁵And Solomon went after Ashtoreth, the god of the Sidonians, and after Milcom, the abomination of the Ammonites. ⁶And Solomon did the evil thing in the eyes of Yahweh and he did not remain fully after Yahweh like David his father. ⁷Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, on the hill that is on the face of Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the sons of Ammon. ⁸And thus he did for all his foreign wives, who were burning incense and sacrificing to their gods.

⁹And Yahweh became angry with Solomon, for his heart had turned from with Yahweh, the God of Israel, the one who had appeared to him two times. ¹⁰And had commanded to him concerning this thing, to not go after other gods. But he did not keep what Yahweh had commanded. ¹¹And Yahweh said to Solomon, "Because this is against you, that you have not kept my covenant and my statutes that I have commanded concerning you. Surely I will tear away the kingdom from with you and I will give it to your servant. ¹²However, in your days I will not do it for the sake of David, your father. From the hand of your son I will surely tear it away. ¹³Only I will not tear away all the kingdom. I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of David my servant, and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."

¹⁴And Yahweh raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite. He was from the seed of the king in Edom. ¹⁵And it had happened when David was with Edom, when Joab the commander of the army went up to bury the pierced ones, that he had struck down every male in Edom. ¹⁶For Joab and all Israel dwelled there six months until he had cut off every male in Edom. ¹⁷But Adad fled, he and Edomite men from the servants of his father with him, to enter Egypt. And Hadad was a little boy. ¹⁸And they rose up from Midian and entered Paran. And they took men with them from Paran and entered Egypt, to Pharaoh the king of Egypt. And he gave to him a house and he ordered bread for him and he gave land to him. ¹⁹And Hadad found much favor in the eyes of Pharaoh. And he gave to him a wife, the sister of his wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. ²⁰And the sister of Tahpenes bore for him Genubath, his son, and Tahpenes weaned him in the midst of the house of Pharaoh. And Genubath was in the house of Pharaoh in the midst of the sons of Pharaoh. ²¹And Hadad heard in Egypt that David had laid down with his fathers and that Joab, the commander of the army, had died. And Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Send me away, and I will go to my land." ²²And Pharaoh said to him, "But what are you lacking with me that, behold, you are seeking to go to your land?" And he said, "Nothing, but surely you must send me away."

²³And God raised up an adversary against him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from with Hadadezer, the king of Zobah, his master. ²⁴And he gathered men for himself and he became a commander of a raiding band when David slew them. And they went to Damascus and they dwelled in it and they reigned in Damascus. ²⁵And he was an adversary against Israel all the days of Solomon, and the evil that Hadad did. And he felt disgust against Israel and he reigned over Aram.

²⁶And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite from the Zeredah, and the name of his mother was Zeruah, a widow woman, was a servant of Solomon. And he raised a hand against the king. ²⁷Now this is the matter that he raised a hand against the king: Solomon had built the Millo, he had closed up the breach of the city of David his father. ²⁸And the man Jeroboam was mighty of strength. And Solomon saw the young man, that he was one who does work, and he appointed him for all the forced labor of the house of Joseph. ²⁹And it happened at that time that Jeroboam went out from Jerusalem, and the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the road. Now he was covering himself with a new cloak and the two of them were by themselves in the field. ³⁰And Ahijah seized the new cloak that was over him and he tore it into 12 pieces. ³¹And he said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces. For thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, 'Behold, I am about to tear away the kingdom from the hand of Solomon and I will give the ten tribes to you. ³²And one tribe will be for him, for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem (the city, it which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel), ³³because they have forsaken me and they have bowed down to Ashtoreth, the god of the Sidonians, to Chemosh, the god of Moab, and to Milcom, the god of the sons of Ammon. And they do not walk in my ways, to do the upright thing in my eyes, or my statutes or my judgments, like David his father. ³⁴But I will not take all of the kingdom from his hand. Rather, I will put him as a leader all the days of his life, for the sake of David my servant, he whom I have chosen, who kept my commandments and my statutes. ³⁵But I will take the kingship from the hand of his son and I will give it to you, ten of the tribes. ³⁶But to his son I will give one tribe so that there may be a lamp for David my servant all the days before my face in Jerusalem, the city that I have chosen for myself, to set my name there. ³⁷And I will take you, and you shall reign over all that your soul desires. And you shall be king over Israel. ³⁸And it shall be that if you hear all that I command you and you walk in my ways and you do the upright thing in my eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, just as David my servant did, then I will be with you and I will build for you an established house, just as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you. ³⁹And I will afflict the seed of David on account of this, only not all the days.'" ⁴⁰And Solomon sought to put Jeroboam to death. And Jeroboam rose up and he fled to Egypt, to Shishak, the king of Egypt. And he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

⁴¹And the remainder of the words of Solomon and all that he did and his wisdom are they not written on the book of the words of Solomon? ⁴²And the days that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel were 40 years. ⁴³And Solomon lay down with his fathers and he was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 12

¹And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to cause him to reign. ²And it happened as soon as Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard (now he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from the face of the king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelled in Egypt),^[1] ³that they sent and they called for him. And Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and they spoke to Rehoboam, saying, ⁴"Your father caused our yoke to be heavy. But you now, cause it to be lighter than the hard work of your father and than his heavy yoke that he gave on us, and we will serve you." ⁵And he said to them, "Go until three days, and return to me." And the people went.

⁶And the king Rehoboam consulted with the elders, who had been standing ones with the face of Solomon his father while he was alive, saying, "How are you advising to return this people a word?" ⁷And they spoke to him, saying, "If today you will be a servant to this people and you will serve them, and you will answer them and will speak good words to them, then they will be servants for you all the days." ⁸But he forsook the advice of the elders that they had advised him. And he consulted with the young men who had grown up with him, who were the ones standing before his face. ⁹And he said to them, "What word are you advising that we should return this people who spoke to me saying, 'Cause it to be lighter than the yoke that your father gave on us?'" ¹⁰And the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall say to this people who spoke to you saying, 'Your father caused our yoke to be heavy but you must cause it to be lighter than what is on us.' Thus you shall speak to them, 'My little one is thicker than the loins of my father. ¹¹And now, my father loaded on you a heavy yoke, but as for me, I will add onto your yoke. My father punished you with the whips, but as for me, I will punish you with the scorpions.'"

¹²And Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had spoken, saying, "Return to me on the third day." ¹³And the king answered the people harshly. And he forsook the advice of the elders who had advised him. ¹⁴And he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father caused your yoke to be heavy, but as for me, I will add onto your yoke. My father punished you with the whips, but as for me, I will punish you with the scorpions." ¹⁵And the king did not listen to the people, for the turn was from with Yahweh, so that he raised up his word, which Yahweh had spoken by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶And all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them, and the people returned the king a word, saying, "What portion is for us with David?

And there is not an inheritance with the son of Jesse!

To your tents, Israel!

Now see your house, David."

And Israel went to its tents. ¹⁷But as for the sons of Israel, the ones who dwelled in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. ¹⁸And the king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the forced labor, and all Israel stoned him with stone and he died. And the king Rehoboam strengthened himself to go up in the chariot to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹And Israel has rebelled against the house of David to this day. ²⁰And it happened as soon as all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, that they sent and called him to the congregation and they caused him to reign over all Israel. One was not after the house of David, except the tribe of Judah by itself.

²¹And Rehoboam entered Jerusalem and he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, 180,000 were chosen who make war, to fight against the house of Israel to return the kingship to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. ²²And the word of God was to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, ²³"Say to Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, the king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and the remainder of the people, saying, ²⁴Thus says Yahweh: You shall not go up and you shall not fight against your brothers, the sons of Israel. Return, a man to his house, for from with me this thing has been." And they heard the word of Yahweh and they turned back to go according to the word of Yahweh.

²⁵And Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and he dwelled in it. And he went out from there and he built Penuel. ²⁶And Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom will return to the house of David. ²⁷If this people goes up to make sacrifices in the house of Yahweh in Jerusalem, and the heart of this people will return to their master, to Rehoboam, the king of Judah. And they will slay me and will return to Rehoboam, the king of Judah." ²⁸And the king consulted and made two calves of gold. And he said to them, "Going up to Jerusalem is too much for you. Behold your gods, Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!" ²⁹And he set the one in Bethel and the one he gave in Dan. ³⁰And this thing became a sin, and the people went before the face of the one as far as Dan. ³¹And he made the house of high places. And he made priests from the ends of the people, who were not from the sons of Levi. ³²And Jeroboam made a feast in the eighth month, on the 15th day of the month, like the feast that was in Judah, and he offered up on the altar. Thus he did at Bethel to sacrifice to the calves that he had made. And he caused to stand at Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made. ³³And he offered up on the altar that he had made at Bethel, on the 15th day in the eighth month, in the month that he had devised by him alone. And he made a feast for the sons of Israel and he offered up on the altar to burn incense.

12:2 ^[1].

¹And behold, a man of God came from Judah with the word of Yahweh to Bethel. And Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense. ²And he cried out against the altar with the word of Yahweh and he said: "Altar! Altar! Thus says Yahweh, 'Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah shall be his name. And he shall sacrifice on you the priests of the high places, the ones who are burning incense on you. And the bones of a human shall be burned on you.'" ³And he gave a sign on that day, saying, "This is the sign that Yahweh has spoken: 'Behold, the altar shall be torn into pieces, and the ash that is on it shall be poured out.'" ⁴And it happened as soon as the king heard the word of the man of God that he had cried out against the altar at Bethel, that Jeroboam sent forth his hand from over the altar, saying, "Seize him!" And his hand that he had sent forth against him dried up and he was not able to return it to himself. ⁵And the altar was torn into pieces and the ash was poured out from the altar, according to the sign that the man of God had given by the word of Yahweh. ⁶And the king answered and said to the man of God, "Appease, please, the face of Yahweh your God and pray for me, so my hand may return to me." And the man of God appeased the face of Yahweh, and the hand of the king returned to him, and it became like at the first. ⁷And the king spoke to the man of God, "Come with me to the house and sustain yourself, and I will give to you a gift." ⁸And the man of God said to the king, "If you would give to me half of your house, I would not go with you, and I would not eat bread and I would not drink water in this place. ⁹For thus he has commanded me by the word of Yahweh, saying, 'You shall not eat bread and you shall not drink water and you shall not return by the road that you went.'" ¹⁰And he went by another road and he did not return by the road by which he had come to Bethel.

¹¹Now one old prophet was dwelling in Bethel, and his son came and he recounted to him all the news that the man of God had done that day in Bethel, the words that he had spoken to the king, and they recounted them to their father. ¹²And their father spoke to them, "Where is this, the road he went?" And his sons had seen the road that the man of God had gone when he came from Judah. ¹³And he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." And they saddled the donkey for him and he mounted on it. ¹⁴And he went after the man of God and he found him sitting under the oak tree. And he said to him, "Are you the man of God, who came from Judah?" And he said, "I am." ¹⁵And he said to him, "Go with me to the house and eat bread." ¹⁶And he said, "I am not able to return with you or to come with you. And I will not eat bread and will not drink water with you in this place. ¹⁷For a word was to me by the word of Yahweh, 'You shall not eat bread and you shall not drink water there. You shall not return to go by the road in which you went.'" ¹⁸And he said to him, "I also am a prophet like you, and a messenger spoke to me with the word of Yahweh, saying, 'Bring him back with you to your house, so he may eat bread and he may drink water.'" (He lied to him.) ¹⁹And he returned with him and he ate bread in his house and he drank water.

²⁰And it happened that they were sitting at the table. And the word of Yahweh was to the prophet who had brought him back. ²¹And he cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, saying, "Thus says Yahweh, 'Because you have been rebellious against the mouth of Yahweh and you have not kept the command that Yahweh your God had commanded you, ²²and you have returned and you have eaten bread and you have drunk water in the place where he spoke to you, 'You shall not eat bread and you shall not drink water,' your corpse shall not enter into the grave of your fathers.'" ²³And it happened after his eating bread and after his drinking, that he saddled the donkey for him, for the prophet whom he had brought back. ²⁴And he went and a lion found him in the road and it put him to death. And his corpse was thrown in the road and the donkey was standing beside it and the lion was standing beside the corpse. ²⁵And behold, men were passing by and they saw the corpse thrown in the road, and the lion standing beside the corpse. And they came and spoke in the city in which the old prophet was dwelling.

²⁶And the prophet who had brought him back from the road heard and he said, "He is the man of God who was rebellious against the mouth of Yahweh. And Yahweh gave him to the lion, and it tore him into pieces and put him to death according to the word of Yahweh that he had spoken to him." ²⁷And he spoke to his sons, saying, "Saddle the donkey for me." And they saddled it. ²⁸And he went and found the corpse thrown in the road and the donkey and the lion standing beside the corpse. The lion had not eaten the corpse and had not torn the donkey into pieces. ²⁹And the prophet lifted up the corpse of the man of God and he rested it on the donkey and he brought it back. And he entered into the city of the old prophet to wail and to bury him. ³⁰And he rested his corpse in his grave. And they wailed over him, "Alas, my brother!" ³¹And it happened after his burying him that he said to his sons, saying, "When I die, then you shall bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried. Beside his bones rest my bones. ³²For the word that he cried out by the word of Yahweh against the altar that is in Bethel and against all the houses of the high places that are in the cities of Samaria will certainly happen."

³³After this matter Jeroboam did not return from his evil way, but he returned and made from the ends of the people priests of the high places. The desiring one, he would fill his hand, and he would become one of the priests of the high places. ³⁴And by this thing it became the sin of the house of Jeroboam, both to efface and to annihilate from on the face of the ground.

¹At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick. ²And Jeroboam said to his wife, "Rise now and change yourself, so they will not know that you are the wife of Jeroboam. And you will go to Shiloh. Behold, Ahijah the prophet is there, he himself spoke concerning me as king over this people. ³And you will take in your hand ten bread loaves and cakes and a jar of honey and go to him. He himself will tell you what will happen to the boy." ⁴And the wife of Jeroboam did so. And she rose and went to Shiloh and she entered the house of Ahijah. (Now Ahijah was not able to see because his eyes stood because of his old age.) ⁵And Yahweh said to Ahijah, "Behold, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to seek a word from with you regarding her son, for he is sick. Like this and like that you shall speak to her. And it will happen as soon as she comes that she will be changing herself."

⁶And it happened as soon as Ahijah heard the sound of her feet entering in the opening that he said, "Enter, wife of Jeroboam. Why is this, you are changing yourself? Now I have been sent to you with a harsh thing. ⁷Go, say to Jeroboam, thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, 'Because I raised you up from the midst of the people and I gave you as a leader over my people Israel, ⁸and I tore the kingdom away from the house of David and I gave it to you, but you are not like my servant David, who kept my commandments and who walked after me with all his heart, to do only the upright thing in my eyes. ⁹And you have done evil by doing more than all who were before your face. And you went and made for yourself other gods and cast images to provoke me to anger and you have thrown me behind your back. ¹⁰Therefore, behold, I am about to bring evil to the house of Jeroboam, and I will cut off with respect to Jeroboam one who urinates against a wall, one who is restrained and one who is let free in Israel. And I will burn after the house of Jeroboam just as the dung burns until it is finished. ¹¹The one who dies with respect to Jeroboam in the city the dogs will eat, and the one who dies in the country the birds of the heavens will eat, for Yahweh has spoken.' ¹²And you, rise, go to your house. When your feet enter the city, then the child will die. ¹³And all Israel will wail for him and they will bury him. For this one by himself with respect to Jeroboam will enter into a grave, because in him a good thing was found for Yahweh, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. ¹⁴And Yahweh will raise up for himself a king over Israel who will cut off the house of Jeroboam this day, and what it will be even now! ¹⁵And Yahweh will strike Israel just as the reed sways in the waters, and he will uproot Israel from on this good ground that he gave to their fathers. And he will scatter them from the other side of the river, because they made their Asherahs, which provoked Yahweh to anger. ¹⁶And he will give Israel over on account of the sins of Jeroboam that he sinned and that he caused Israel to sin."

¹⁷And the wife of Jeroboam rose and went and came to Tirzah. She was entering at the threshold of the house and the boy died. ¹⁸And they buried him and all Israel wailed for him, according to the word of Yahweh that he spoke by the hand of his servant Ahijah the prophet.

¹⁹And the remainder of the matters of Jeroboam, that he fought and that he reigned, behold, they are written on the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel. ²⁰And the days that Jeroboam reigned were 22 years. And he layed down with his fathers and Nadab his son reigned in his place.

²¹Now Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was a son of 41 years when he reigned. And he reigned 17 years in Jerusalem, the city there where Yahweh chose to put his name from all the tribes of Israel. And the name of his mother was Naamah the Ammonite woman. ²²And Judah did the evil thing in the eyes of Yahweh. And they made him jealous more than all that their fathers did with their sins that they sinned. ²³And they, even they built for themselves high places and pillars and asherahs on every high hill and under every flourishing tree. ²⁴And also a cultic prostitute was in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations that Yahweh had dispossessed from before the face of the sons of Israel.

²⁹And the remainder of the matters of Rehoboam and all that he did, are they not written on the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? ³⁰And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days.

³¹And Rehoboam layed down with his fathers and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And the name of his mother was Naamah the Ammonite woman. And Abijam his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 15

¹Now in year 18 of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam reigned over Judah. ²Three years he reigned in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. ³And he walked in all the sins of his father that he had done before his face. And his heart was not completely with Yahweh his God like the heart of David his father. ⁴But for the sake of David, Yahweh his God gave to him a lamp in Jerusalem by raising up his son after him, and by causing Jerusalem to stand, ⁵because David had done the upright thing in the eyes of Yahweh and he had not turned from all that he had commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. ⁶And war was between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

⁷And the remainder of the matters of Abijam and all that he did, are they not written on the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? And war was between Abijah and Jeroboam. ⁸Then Abijam laid down with his fathers and they buried him in the city of David. And Asa his son reigned in his place.

⁹And in year 20 of Jeroboam the king of Israel, Asa reigned as the king of Judah. ¹⁰And he reigned 41 years in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. ¹¹And Asa did the upright thing in the eyes of Yahweh like David his father. ¹²And he caused the cultic prostitutes to pass over from the land. And he removed all the idols that his fathers had made. ¹³And also Maacah his mother he removed her from being queen-mother because she had made a horrid thing for the Asherah. And Asa cut down her horrid thing and he burned it in the wadi of Kidron. ¹⁴But they did not remove the high places. Nevertheless, the heart of Asa was completely with Yahweh all his days. ¹⁵And he brought the holy things of his father and his holy things for the house of Yahweh, silver and gold and vessels.

¹⁶And war was between Asa and Baasha the king of Israel, all their days. ¹⁷And Baasha the king of Israel went up against Judah and he built up the Ramah, so as not to give going out or coming in to Asa the king of Judah. ¹⁸And Asa took all the silver and the gold that was remaining in the storerooms of the house of Yahweh and the storerooms of the house of the king, and he gave them into the hand of his servants. And the king Asa sent them to Ben Hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, the king of Aram, the one who dwelled in Damascus, saying, ¹⁹“Let there be a covenant between me and you, between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with Baasha the king of Israel and he may go up from against me.” ²⁰And Ben Hadad listened to the king Asa and he sent the commanders of the strong ones who were for him against the cities of Israel. And he struck Ijon and Dan and Abel Beth Maacah and all Kinnereth, with all the land of Naphtali. ²¹And it happened as soon as Baasha heard, that he ceased from building up the Ramah and he dwelled in Tirzah. ²²And the king Asa caused all Judah to hear, There was no one free from obligation. And they lifted up the stones of the Ramah and its trees that Baasha had built. And with them the king Asa built Geba of Benjamin and the Mizpah.

²³And the remainder of all the matters of Asa and all his might and all that he did and the cities that he built, are they not written on the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? Only at the time of his old age did he become sick in his feet. ²⁴And Asa laid down with his fathers and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father. And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

²⁵And Nadab the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in year two of Asa the king of Judah. And he reigned over Israel two years. ²⁶And he did the evil thing in the eyes of Yahweh. And he walked in the way of his father and in his sin that he caused Israel to sin. ²⁷And Baasha the son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon, which is for the Philistines. And Nadab and all Israel were laying siege against Gibbethon. ²⁸And Baasha put him to death in year three of Asa the king of Judah. And he reigned in his place. ²⁹And it happened that as soon as he reigned, he struck down all the house of Jeroboam. He did not leave any breathing one of Jeroboam, until he had annihilated him according to the word of Yahweh, which he had spoken by the hand of his servant Ahijah the Shilonite, ³⁰on account of the sins of Jeroboam that he sinned and that he caused Israel to sin, by his anger that he provoked Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger.

³¹And the remainder of the matters of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written on the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? ³²And war was between Asa and Baasha the king of Israel all their days.

³³In year three of Asa the king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah reigned over all Israel in Tirzah 24 years. ³⁴And he did the evil thing in the eyes of Yahweh. And he walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin that he caused Israel to sin.

Chapter 16

¹And the word of Yahweh was to Jehu the son of Hanani, against Baasha, saying, ²“Because I raised you up from the dust and I gave you as leader over my people Israel, and you walked in the way of Jeroboam and caused my people Israel to sin, by provoking me to anger by their sins, ³behold, I am about to burn after Baasha and after his house. And I shall make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ⁴The one who dies of Baasha in the city the dogs shall eat. And the one who dies of him in the field the birds of the heavens shall eat.

⁵And the remainder of the matters of Baasha and what he did and his might, are they not written on the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? ⁶And Baasha laid down with his fathers and he was buried in Tirzah. And Elah his son reigned in his place. ⁷And also by the hand of Jehu the son of Hanani the prophet, the word of Yahweh was to Baasha and to his house, and against all the evil that he had done in the eyes of Yahweh, by provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, by being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he had struck him down.

⁸In the year of year 26 of Asa the king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha reigned over Israel in Tirzah, two years.

⁹And his servant Zimri, the commander of half of the chariotry, conspired against him. And he was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the house in Tirzah. ¹⁰And Zimri entered and he struck him down and he put him to death in year 27 of Asa the king of Judah. And he reigned in his place. ¹¹And it happened that when he reigned, as soon as he sat on his throne, he struck down all the house of Baasha. He did not leave of him one who urinates on a wall or his kinsmen or his friend. ¹²And Zimri annihilated all the house of Baasha according to the word of Yahweh that he spoke against Baasha by the hand of Jehu the prophet, ¹³concerning all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son which they had sinned, and because they caused Israel to sin, by provoking Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vapors. ¹⁴And the remainder of the matters of Elah and all that he did, are they not written on the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel?

¹⁵In the year of year 27 of Asa the king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. And the people were camping against Gibbethon, which was for the Philistines. ¹⁶And the people, the ones who camped, heard, saying, "Zimri has conspired and also has struck down the king!" And all Israel caused Omri, the commander of the army, to reign over Israel on that day in the camp. ¹⁷And Omri went up from Gibbethon and all Israel with him, and they laid siege against Tirzah. ¹⁸And it happened as soon as Zimri saw that the city had been seized, that he entered into the citadel of the house of the king. And he burned the house of the king over himself with fire and he died, ¹⁹on account of his sin that he had sinned by doing the evil thing in the eyes of Yahweh, by walking in the way of Jeroboam, and by his sin that he did by causing Israel to sin. ²⁰And the remainder of the matters of Zimri and his conspiracy that he conspired, are they not written on the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel?

²¹Then the people of Israel was divided by the half. Half of the people were behind Tibni the son of Ginath, to cause him to reign, but the other half were behind Omri. ²²And the people who were behind Omri became strong against the people who were behind Tibni the son of Ginath. And Tibni died and Omri reigned. ²³In the year of year 31 of Asa the king of Judah, Omri reigned over Israel 12 years. In Tirzah he reigned six years. ²⁴And he bought the hill Samaria from with Shemer for two kikkars silver. And he built the hill and he called the name of the city that he built Samaria, in accordance with the name of Shemer, the master of the hill. ²⁵And Omri did the evil thing in the eyes of Yahweh and he did more evil than all who were before him. ²⁶And he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins that he caused Israel to sin by provoking Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vapors. ²⁷And the remainder of the matters of Omri, what he did and his might that he did, are they not written on the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? ²⁸And Omri laid down with his fathers and he was buried in Samaria. And Ahab his son reigned in his place.

²⁹And Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in the year of year 38 of Asa the king of Judah. And Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria 22 years. ³⁰And Ahab the son of Omri did the evil thing in the eyes of Yahweh, more than all who were before his face. ³¹And it happened (was his walking in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat trivial?) that he took a wife, Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal the king of the Sidonians. And he went and served the Baal and he bowed down to him. ³²And he raised up an altar for the Baal at the house of the Baal that he had built in Samaria. ³³And Ahab made the Asherah and Ahab continued to act, to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger more than all the kings of Israel who were before his face. ³⁴In his days Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho. For Abiram his firstborn he founded it, and for Segub his younger one he set up its doors, according to the word of Yahweh that he spoke by the hand of Joshua the son of Nun.

¹And Elijah the Tishbite from the Tishbites of Gilead said to Ahab, "As Yahweh, the God of Israel is alive, before whose face I stand, there will not be dew or rain these years unless by the mouth of my word." ²And the word of Yahweh was to him, saying, ³“Go from this place and turn for yourself eastward. And you will be hidden at the wadi of Kerith, which is on the face of the Jordan. ⁴And it will happen that you shall drink from the wadi. And I have commanded the ravens to sustain you there.” ⁵And he went and did according to the word of Yahweh. And he went and dwelled at the wadi of Kerith, which is on the face of the Jordan. ⁶And the ravens were bringing bread and meat to him in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening. And he drank from the wadi. ⁷And it happened from the end of some days that the wadi dried up because rain was not in the land.

⁸And the word of Yahweh was to him, saying, ⁹“Rise, go to Zarephath, which is for Sidon, and you shall dwell there. Behold, I have commanded a woman, a widow, there to sustain you.” ¹⁰And he rose and went to Zarephath. And he entered into the opening of the city. And behold, there was a woman, a widow, gathering wood pieces. And he called to her and he said, “Please take to me a little water in the vessel and I will drink.” ¹¹As she went to take, and he called to her, and said, “Please take to me a bit of bread in your hand.” ¹²And she said, “As Yahweh your God is alive, there is not for me a bread cake, but only a fullness of a palm of flour in the jar and a little bit of oil in the jug. And behold, I am gathering two wood pieces and I will enter and I make it for me and for my son. And we will eat it and will die.” ¹³And Elijah said to her, “Do not fear. Come, do according to your word, only make for me from there a little bread cake at the first and bring it out to me. And make for you and for your son at the later time. ¹⁴For thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, ‘The jar of flour will not come to an end, and the jug of oil will not lack, until the day Yahweh gives rain on the face of the ground.’” ¹⁵And she went and did according to the word of Elijah. And she ate, he and she and her house for days. ¹⁶The jar of flour did not come to an end, and the jug of oil did not lack, according to the word of Yahweh, which he had spoken by the hand of Elijah.

¹⁷And it happened that after these things the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick, and his sickness became very strong until breath did not remain in him. ¹⁸And she said to Elijah, “What is to me and is to you, man of God, that you came to me to cause my iniquity to be remembered and to put my son to death?” ¹⁹And he said to her, “Give to me your son.” And he took him from her lap and he brought him up to the upper room there where he was dwelling, and he laid him down on his bed. ²⁰And he cried out to Yahweh and said, “Yahweh, my God, will you also cause evil on the widow with whom I am sojourning, by putting her son to death?” ²¹And he stretched himself out over the child three times. And he cried out to Yahweh and he said, “Yahweh, my God, please let the life of this child return on his inner part.” ²²And Yahweh heard the voice of Elijah. And the life of the child returned on his inner part, and he lived. ²³And Elijah took the child and he brought him down from the upper room to the house, and he gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, “See, your son lives.” ²⁴And the woman said to Elijah, “Now this I know, that you are a man of God. And the word of Yahweh in your mouth is truth.”

¹And it was many days and the word of Yahweh was to Elijah in the third year, saying, “Go, appear to Ahab and I will give rain on the face of the ground.” ²And Elijah went to appear to Ahab. (Now the famine was strong in Samaria.) ³And Ahab called to Obadiah, who was over the house. (Now Obadiah was one who feared Yahweh exceedingly.) ⁴And it had happened when Jezebel cut off the prophets of Yahweh, that Obadiah had taken 100 prophets and hid them, 50 men in the cave, and he sustained them with bread and water.) ⁵And Ahab said to Obadiah, “Go in the land to all the springs of water and to all the wadis. Perhaps we will find grass and we will keep alive a horse or a mule, and not cut off some of the livestock.” ⁶And they divided the land for themselves to pass through it. Ahab went in the one way by himself and Obadiah went in the one way by himself.

⁷And it happened that Obadiah was in the road, and behold, Elijah was to meet him. And he recognized him and fell on his face and said, “Is this you, my master Elijah?” ⁸And he said to him, “It is I. Go, say to your master, ‘Here is Elijah.’” ⁹And he said, “How have I sinned, that you are giving your servant over into the hand of Ahab, to put me to death? ¹⁰As Yahweh your God is alive, if there is a nation or a kingdom there where my master has not sent to seek you, and they said ‘he is not here,’ then he caused the kingdom or the nation to swear that it did not find you. ¹¹And now you are saying, ‘Go, say to your master, ‘Here is Elijah.’” ¹²And it will happen that I myself will go from with you, and the Spirit of Yahweh will lift you to where I will not know. And I will come to tell Ahab and he will not find you and he will slay me. And your servant has been fearing Yahweh from my youth. ¹³Has it not been told to my master, what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of Yahweh, and I hid from the prophets of Yahweh a hundred men, 50 by 50 men in the cave, and I sustained them with bread and water? ¹⁴And now you are saying, 'Go, say to your master, "Here is Elijah," ' and he will slay me." ¹⁵And Elijah said, "As Yahweh of hosts is alive, before whose face I stand, surely today I will appear to him."

¹⁶And Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and he told him. And Ahab went to meet Elijah. ¹⁷And it happened as soon as Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, "Are you this one who troubles Israel?" ¹⁸And he said, "I have not troubled Israel, but rather you and the house of your father, by your forsaking the commandments of Yahweh and going after the Baals. ¹⁹And now send, gather to me all Israel to the mountain of the Carmel, and the 450 prophets of the Baal and the 400 prophets of the Asherah, those who eat of the table of Jezebel."

²⁰And Ahab sent among all the sons of Israel and he gathered the prophets to the mountain of the Carmel. ²¹And Elijah came near to all the people and he said, "Until when will you be limping over the two opinions? If Yahweh is God, go after him, but if the Baal, go after him." And the people did not answer him a word. ²²And Elijah said to the people, "I myself remain a prophet of Yahweh by myself, but the prophets of the Baal are 450 men. ²³And let them give to us two bulls, and let them choose for themselves the one bull, and let them cut it into pieces. And let them set it on the wood pieces, but a fire they will not set. And as for me I will make the one bull that I will give on the wood pieces, but a fire I will not set. ²⁴And you will call on the name of your god, but as for me, I will call on the name of Yahweh. And it will happen that the God who answers with fire, he is God." And all the people answered and they said, "The thing is good."

²⁵And Elijah said to the prophets of the Baal, "Choose for yourselves the one bull and make it first, for you are the most abundant. And call on the name of your god, but a fire you will not set." ²⁶And they took the bull that he gave to them and they made, and they called on the name of the Baal from the morning and until the midday, saying, "The Baal, answer us!" But there was no voice and there was no answering. And they limped beside the altar that he had made. ²⁷And it happened at the midday that Elijah mocked them and he said, "Cry out with a great voice, for he is a god. Surely he is musing, or surely moving away for himself, or surely a way is for him. Perhaps he is asleep and he will wake up." ²⁸And they cried out with a great voice, and they cut themselves, according to their custom, with the swords and with the spears, until a pouring out of blood was on them. ²⁹And it happened as soon as the midday passed, that they prophesied until the offering up of the grain offering, but there was no voice and there was no answering and there was no attentiveness.

³⁰And Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." And all the people came near to him. And he repaired the torn down altar of Yahweh. ³¹And Elijah took 12 stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom was the word of Yahweh, saying, "Israel shall be your name." ³²And he built with the stones an altar in the name of Yahweh. And he made a trench like the house of two seahs of seed surrounding the altar. ³³And he arranged the wood pieces. And he cut the bull into pieces and he set it on the wood pieces. ³⁴And he said, "Fill four jars with water, and pour out on the burnt up offering and on the wood pieces." And he said "Do it a second time," and they did it a second time. And he said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time. ³⁵And the water went around the altar and even the trench he filled with water. ³⁶And it happened at the offering up of the grain offering, that Elijah the prophet came near and he said, "Yahweh, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known today that you are God in Israel, and I am your servant, and by your word I have done all these things. ³⁷Answer me, Yahweh! Answer me, that this people may know that you, Yahweh, are God, and you have turned around their heart backward." ³⁸And the fire of Yahweh fell and ate the burnt up offering and the wood pieces and the stones and the dust. And it licked up the water that was in the trench. ³⁹And all the people saw and they fell on their faces. And they said, "Yahweh, he is God! Yahweh, he is God!" ⁴⁰And Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of the Baal. Do not let a man from them slip away." And they seized them. And Elijah brought them down to the wadi Kishon and he slaughtered them there.

⁴¹And Elijah said to Ahab, "Get up, eat and drink, for there is the sound of the roar of the rain." ⁴²And Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the head of the Carmel, and he bent down toward the earth and he put his face between his knees. ⁴³And he said to his young man, "Go up, now, look toward the way of the sea." And he went up and he looked and he said, "There is not anything." And he said, "Return seven times." ⁴⁴And it happened at the seventh time that he said, "Behold, a small cloud like the palm of a man is going up from the sea." And he said, "Go up, say to Ahab, 'Harness and go down so the rain will not stop you.'" ⁴⁵And it happened until here and until there, that the heavens became dark with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel. ⁴⁶And the hand of Yahweh was to Elijah, and he girded up his loins and he ran before the face of Ahab as far as your coming into Jezreel.

Chapter 19

¹And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done and everthing, that he had slain all the prophets with the sword. ²And Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So may the gods do and so may they add, unless about this time tomorrow I will set your life as the life of one from them." ³And he saw and rose and went for his life and he came to Beersheba, which is for Judah. And he caused his young man to rest there. ⁴But as for him, he went a road of a day into the wilderness, and he came and sat under one broom shrub. And he requested with respect to his life to die, and he said, "Too much, now, Yahweh; take my life, for I am not better than my fathers." ⁵And he lay down and slept under one broom shrub. And behold this, an angel was touching him and he said to him, "Get up! Eat!" ⁶And he looked, and behold, at the place of his head was a bread cake of glowing coals and a jug of water. And he ate and drank and returned and lay down. ⁷And the angel of Yahweh returned a second time and he touched him and he said, "Get up! Eat! For the road will be too much for you." ⁸And he rose and ate and drank. And he went in the strength of that food 40 days and 40 nights as far as the mountain of God, Horeb.

⁹And he entered there into the cave, and he spent the night there. And behold, the word of Yahweh was to him and he said to him, "What is for you here, Elijah?" ¹⁰And he said, "I have been very zealous for Yahweh, the God of hosts, but the sons of Israel have forsaken your covenant, your altars they have torn down, and your prophets they have slain with the sword. And I am left, I by myself, and they seek my life, to take it." ¹¹And he said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the face of Yahweh, and behold, Yahweh is about to pass over!" And a great and strong wind was splitting the mountains and shattering rocks before the face of Yahweh. Yahweh was not in the wind. And after the wind was an earthquake. Yahweh was not in the earthquake. ¹²And after the earthquake was a fire. Yahweh was not in the fire. And after the fire was the voice of a thin whisper. ¹³And it happened as soon as Elijah heard, that he wrapped his face in his cloak. And he went out and stood at the opening of the cave. And behold, a voice was to him and it said, "What is for you here, Elijah?" ¹⁴And he said, "I have been very zealous for Yahweh, the God of hosts, but the sons of Israel have forsaken your covenant, your altars they have torn down, and your prophets they have slain with the sword. And I am left, I by myself, and they seek my life, to take it."

¹⁵And Yahweh said to him, "Go, return to your way toward the wilderness of Damascus. And you shall come and anoint Hazael as king over Aram. ¹⁶And you shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi as king over Israel. And you shall anoint Elisha the son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah as prophet in your place. ¹⁷And it will happen that the one who slips away from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will put to death. And the one who slips away from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will put to death. ¹⁸And I have left in Israel 7000 men, all the knees that have not bowed to the Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

¹⁹And he went from there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat. And he was plowing with 12 pairs before his face and he was with the 12th. And Elijah passed over to him and he threw his cloak on him. ²⁰And he left the cattle and he ran after Elijah and he said, "Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and let me go after you." And he said to him, "Go, return, for what have I done to you?" ²¹And he returned from after him. And he took the pair of cattle and he sacrificed it and with the implements of the cattle he boiled them, the meat. And he gave to the people and they ate. And he rose and went after Elijah and he attended him.

Chapter 20

¹Now Ben Hadad the king of Aram gathered all his strength and 32 kings with him, and horse and chariotry. And he went up and laid siege against Samaria and he fought against it. ²And he sent messengers to Ahab the king of Israel at the city. ³And he said to him, 'Thus says Ben Hadad, "Your silver and your gold, it is for me. And your wives and your sons, the good ones, they are for me."' ⁴And the king of Israel answered and said, "According to your word, my master the king, I and all that is for me is for you." ⁵And the messengers returned and said, "Thus says Ben Hadad, saying, 'Surely I sent to you, saying, your silver and your gold and your wives and your sons you will give to me, ⁶but rather around this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you, and they will search through your house and the houses of your servants. And it will happen that any precious thing of your eyes they will put in their hand and they will take.'"

⁷And the king of Israel called to all the elders of the land. And he said, "Please know and see that this one is seeking evil, for he has sent to me for my wives and for my sons and for my silver and for my gold, and I have not withheld from him." ⁸And all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen and do not consent." ⁹And he said to the messengers of Ben Hadad, "Say to my master the king, 'All that you sent to your servant at the first I will do, but this thing I am not able to do.'" And the messengers went and returned him word. ¹⁰And Ben Hadad sent to him and he said, "Thus may gods do to me and thus may they add, if the dust of Samaria will be sufficient for handfuls for all the people who will be at my feet!" ¹¹And the king of Israel answered and said, "Speak, 'one about to gird should not boast like one who is ungirding.'" ¹²And it happened at the hearing of this word as he was drinking, he and the kings in the huts, that he said to his servants, "Set up," and they set up against the city.

¹³And behold, one prophet came near to Ahab the king of Israel and he said, "Thus says Yahweh, 'Have you seen all of this great crowd? Behold, I am about to give it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am Yahweh.'"

¹⁴And Ahab said, "By whom?" And he said, "Thus says Yahweh, by the young men of the commanders of the provinces." And he said, "Who will tie up the battle?" And he said, "You." ¹⁵And he mustered the young men of the commanders of the provinces, and they were 232. And after them he mustered all the people, all the sons of Israel were 7,000.

¹⁶And they went out at the midday. And Ben Hadad was drinking drunk in the huts, he and the kings, 32 kings who helped him. ¹⁷And the young men of the commanders of the provinces went out at the first. And Ben Hadad sent and they told him, saying, "Men have gone out from Samaria." ¹⁸And he said, "If they have gone out for peace, seize them alive, and if they have gone out for war, alive seize them." ¹⁹And these went out from the city, the young men of the commanders of the provinces and the strength that was behind them. ²⁰But they struck down a man his man. And Aram fled and Israel pursued them. And Ben Hadad the king of Aram slipped away on a horse with horsemen. ²¹And the king of Israel went out and he struck down the horse and the chariot. And he struck Aram a great blow.

²²And the prophet came near to the king of Israel and he said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself, and know and see what you should do, because at the return of the year the king of Aram will be coming up against you." ²³And the servants of the king of Aram said to him, "Their gods are gods of the mountains. Therefore they were stronger than us. But indeed let us fight them in the plain, surely we will be stronger than them. ²⁴And do this thing: remove the kings, a man from his place, and set governors in their places. ²⁵And you should assign for yourself strength like the strength that fell from you, and a horse like the horse and a chariot like the chariot, and we will fight them in the plain. Surely will we be stronger than them." And he listened to their voice and did so.

²⁶And it happened at the return of the year, that Ben Hadad mustered Aram. And he went up to Aphek for the battle with Israel. ²⁷And the sons of Israel had been mustered and were sustained and they went to meet them. And the sons of Israel camped in front of them were like two little flocks of goats, and Aram filled the land. ²⁸And a man of God came near and said to the king of Israel, and he said, "Thus says Yahweh, 'Because Aram said "Yahweh is a god of mountains, but he is not a god of valleys," I shall give all of this great crowd into your hand, and you shall know that I am Yahweh.'" ²⁹And they camped, these opposite these, seven days. And it happened on the seventh day that the battle approached, and the sons of Israel struck down Aram, 100,000 on foot in one day.

³⁰And the ones who were left fled to Aphek, into the city, and the wall fell on 127,000 men, the ones who were left. And Ben Hadad fled and entered into the city, a room in a room.

³¹And his servants said to him, "Behold, please, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel, that they are kings of mercy. Please let us put sackcloth around our loins and ropes on our heads, and we will go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he may let your life live." ³²And they girded on sackcloth around their waists and ropes on their heads and they came to the king of Israel. And they said, "Your servant Ben Hadad says, 'Please let my life live.'" And he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother." ³³And the men sought an omen and they hurried and accepted whether it was from him. And they said, "Your brother is Ben Hadad." And he said, "Come, bring him!" And Ben Hadad went out to him, and he brought him up on the chariot. ³⁴And he said to him, "I will return the cities that my father took from with your father, and the outside you may set up for yourself in Damascus, just as my father set up in Samaria. As for me, by the covenant, I will send you away." And he cut a covenant for him and he sent him away.

³⁵And one man from the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor, "By the word of Yahweh, please strike me." But the man refused to strike him. ³⁶And he said to him, "Because you did not listen to the voice of Yahweh, behold, you are about to go from with me, and the lion will strike you down." And he went from beside him and the lion found him and struck him down. ³⁷And he found one man and said, "Please strike me." And the man struck him, striking and wounding. ³⁸And the prophet went and he stood for the king on the road. And he made himself unrecognizable with the covering over his eyes. ³⁹And it happened that the king was passing by and he himself cried out to the king. And he said, "Your servant went out in the middle of the battle, and behold, a man turned aside and he brought a man to me. And he said, 'Keep this man. If he is missing at all, then your life will be in place of his life or you must weigh a kikkar of silver.'" ⁴⁰And it happened that your servant was doing here and there, and he was not there." And the king of Israel said to him, "Thus is your judgment, you yourself have decided." ⁴¹And he hurried and removed the covering from over his eyes. And the king of Israel recognized him, that he was from the prophets. ⁴²And he said to him, "Thus says Yahweh, 'Because you have sent away a man of complete destruction from hand. And it will be your life in place of his life, and your people in place of his people.'" ⁴³And the king of Israel went to his house sullen and vexed, and he came to Samaria.

Chapter 21

¹Now it happened after these things that there was a vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which was in Jezreel, beside the palace of Ahab the king of Samaria. ²And Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give to me your vineyard, and it will be for me as a garden of herbage, because it is near beside my house. And let me give to you in its place a better vineyard than it. If it is good in your eyes, let me give to you silver of the price of this one." ³And Naboth said to Ahab, "Far be it for me from Yahweh, from my giving the inheritance of my fathers to you." ⁴And Ahab entered into his house sullen and vexed on account of the word that Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him. And he said, "I will not give to you the inheritance of my fathers." And he lay down on his bed, and he turned away his face and he did not eat bread.

⁵And Jezebel his wife came to him and she spoke to him, "What is this? Your spirit is sullen and you are not eating bread?" ⁶And he spoke to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and I said to him, 'Give your vineyard to me for silver, or if you are desiring, let me give a vineyard to you in its place.' And he said, 'I will not give my vineyard to you.'" ⁷And Jezebel his wife said to him, "You now, you do the kingship over Israel. Get up! Eat bread and let your heart be good! I myself will give to you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite." ⁸And she wrote letters in the name of Ahab, and she sealed them with his seal. And she sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, the ones who dwelled near Naboth. ⁹And she wrote in the letters, saying, "Call a fast and seat Naboth at the head the people. ¹⁰And seat two men, sons of worthlessness, in front of him and let them witness against him, saying, 'You cursed God and the king.' And take him out and stone him and let him die."

¹¹And the men of his city, the elders and the nobles, who were the ones dwelling in his city, did just as Jezebel had sent to them, just as was written in the letters that she had sent to them. ¹²They called a fast and they seated Naboth at the head of the people. ¹³And the two men, the sons of worthlessness, came and they sat in front of him, and the men of worthlessness witnessed against Naboth in front of the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king." And they brought him to the outside of the city and they stoned him with the stones and he died. ¹⁴And they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned and he has died." ¹⁵And it happened as soon as Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and had died, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Get up! Possess the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give to you for silver, for Naboth is not alive, but he has died!" ¹⁶And it happened as soon as Ahab heard that Naboth had died, that Ahab rose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite to possess it.

¹⁷And the word of Yahweh was to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ¹⁸"Get up! Go down to meet Ahab the king of Israel, who is in Samaria. Behold he is in the vineyard of Naboth, there where he has gone down to possess it. ¹⁹And you shall speak to him saying, 'Thus says Yahweh, "Have you murdered and also taken possession?" ' And you shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says Yahweh, "In a place where the dogs licked the blood of Naboth, the dogs will lick your blood, even you." ' " ²⁰And Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, my enemy?" And he said, "I have found, on account of you having sold yourself by doing the evil thing in the eyes of Yahweh. ²¹'Behold, I am about to bring evil on you and I will burn after you, and I will cut off with respect to Ahab one who urinates on a wall, and one who is restrained, and one who is let free in Israel. ²²And I will give over your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, on account of the anger that you have provoked to anger and you have caused Israel to sin.' ²³And also with respect to Jezebel Yahweh has spoken, saying, 'The dogs will eat Jezebel at the rampart of Jezreel.' ²⁴The one of Ahab who dies in the city, the dogs shall eat. And the one who dies in the field, the bird of the heavens shall eat." ²⁵Surely there was not one like Ahab, who sold himself by doing the evil thing in the eyes of Yahweh, he whom Jezebel his wife incited. ²⁶And he acted very abominably by walking after the idols, like all that the Amorite had done, whom Yahweh had dispossessed from the face of the sons of Israel.

²⁷And it happened as soon as Ahab heard these words, that he tore his garments and put sackcloth over his flesh and he fasted. And he lay down in the sackcloth and he walked softly. ²⁸And the word of Yahweh was to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ²⁹"Have you seen that Ahab has humbled himself from before my face? Because he has humbled himself from my face, I will not bring the evil thing in his days. In the days of his son I will bring the evil thing on his house."

Chapter 22

¹And they dwelled three years; there was no war between Aram and Israel. ²And it happened in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went down to the king of Israel. ³And the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that Ramoth Gilead is for us, but we are staying inactive from taking it from the hand of the king of Aram?" ⁴And he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to war at Ramoth Gilead?" And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Like me, like you. Like my people, like your people. Like my horses, like your horses."

⁵And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please seek the word of Yahweh at today." ⁶And the king of Israel gathered the prophets, about 400 men, and he said to them, "Should I go against Ramoth Gilead to war, or should I refrain?" And they said, "Go up, for my Lord will give into the hand of the king." ⁷And Jehoshaphat said, "Is there still no prophet of Yahweh here so we may seek from him?" ⁸And the king of Israel responded to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man for seeking Yahweh from him, but I myself hate him because he does not prophesy good on my account, but rather evil: Micaiah the son of Imlah." And Jehoshaphat said, "The king should not say so." ⁹And the king of Israel called to one eunuch. And he said, "Get quickly Micaiah the son of Imlah." ¹⁰Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting, a man on his throne, clothed with garments, by the threshing floor at the opening of the gate of Samaria. And all the prophets were prophesying before their faces. ¹¹And Zedekiah the son of Kenaanah made horns of iron for him, and he said, "Thus says Yahweh: 'With these you shall gore Aram until their finishing.”¹² And all the prophets were prophesying thus, saying, “Go up to Ramoth Gilead and be successful, and Yahweh will give into the hand of the king.”

¹³ And the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, “Behold, please, the words of the prophets as one mouth are good for the king. Please let your word be like the one word from them and speak good.”¹⁴ And Micaiah said, “As Yahweh is alive, surely what Yahweh will say to me, it I will speak.”¹⁵ And he came to the king, and the king said to him, “Micaiah, should we go to Ramoth Gilead to war, or should we refrain?” And he said to him, “Go up and be successful, and Yahweh will give into the hand of the king.”¹⁶ And the king said to him, “Up to how many times must I cause you to swear that you would not speak concerning me except truth in the name of Yahweh?”¹⁷ And he said, “I saw all Israel scattered to the mountains, like a flock when there is not a shepherd for them. And Yahweh said, ‘There are no masters for these. Let them return, a man to his house, in peace.’”¹⁸ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not say to you he would not prophesy good concerning me, but rather evil?”¹⁹ And he said, “Therefore hear the word of Yahweh: I saw Yahweh sitting on his throne, and all the host of the heavens standing beside him from his right and from his left.”²⁰ And Yahweh said, ‘Who will deceive Ahab, so he may go up and may fall at Ramoth Gilead?’ And this one said, “In this way,” and this one was saying, “In this way.”²¹ And the spirit went out, and he stood before the face of Yahweh. And he said, ‘I myself will deceive him.’ And Yahweh said to him, ‘By what means?’²² And he said, ‘I will go out and I will be a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all his prophets.’ And he said, ‘You may deceive and also you will be able. Go out and do so.’²³ And now, behold, Yahweh has given a spirit of falsehood into the mouth of all these prophets of yours. And Yahweh has spoken evil against you.”

²⁴ And Zedekiah the son of Kenaanah came near, and he struck Micaiah on the cheek. And he said, “How is this, the Spirit of Yahweh has passed over from with me to speak with you?”²⁵ And Micaiah said, “Behold, you are about to see on that day when you enter a room in a room to hide yourself.”²⁶ And the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah and return him to Amon, the commander of the city, and to Joash, the son of the king.”²⁷ And you shall say, ‘Thus says the king, “Put this one in the house of imprisonment and feed him bread of oppression and water of oppression, until my coming in peace.’”²⁸ And Micaiah said, “If indeed you return in peace, Yahweh has not spoken by me.” And he said, “Listen, peoples, all of them.”

²⁹ And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.³⁰ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will cause myself to be unrecognizable and come into the battle, but you wear your garments.” And the king of Israel caused himself to be unrecognizable and he came into the battle.³¹ Now the king of Aram had commanded the commanders of the chariotry, which were 32 for him, saying, “You shall not fight with a small one or with a great one, but rather with the king of Israel by himself.”³² And it happened as soon as the commanders of the chariotry saw Jehoshaphat, that they themselves said, “Surely he is the king of Israel.” And they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out.³³ And it happened as soon as the commanders of the chariotry saw that he was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from after him.³⁴ But a man drew with the bow in his innocence and he struck the king of Israel between the joints and the body armor. And he said to his charioteer, “Turn your hand and bring me out from the camp, for I am wounded.”³⁵ And the battle went up on that day and the king was being stood up in the chariot opposite Aram. And he died in the evening and the blood of the wound poured out to the bosom of the chariot.³⁶ Then the cry passed through in the camp about the going of the sun, saying, “A man to his city and a man to his land!”

³⁷ And the king died and came to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria.³⁸ And one rinsed the chariot beside the pool of Samaria. And the dogs licked his blood, and the prostitutes bathed, according to the word of Yahweh that he had spoken.³⁹ And the remainder of the matters of Ahab and all that he did, and the house of ivory that he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written on the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel?⁴⁰ And Ahab lay down with his fathers. And Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

⁴¹ And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa reigned over Judah in year four of Ahab the king of Israel.⁴² Jehoshaphat was a son of 35 years when he reigned, and he reigned 25 years in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.⁴³ And he walked in every way of Asa his father, he did not turn away from it, to do the upright thing in the eyes of Yahweh. However the high places they did not remove. The people were still sacrificing and burning incense at the high places. ⁴⁴And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

⁴⁵And the remainder of the matters of Jehoshaphat, and his mighty things that he did, and how he fought, are they not written on the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? ⁴⁶And the remainder of the cultic prostitutes who were left in the days of Asa his father, he burned from the land. ⁴⁷And there was not a king in Edom, a stationed one was king. ⁴⁸Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but he did not go because ships were broken at Ezion Geber. ⁴⁹Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat was not willing. ⁵⁰And Jehoshaphat lay down with his fathers and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father. And Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

⁵¹Ahaziah the son of Ahab reigned over Israel in Samaria in year 17 of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah. And he reigned over Israel two years. ⁵²And he did the evil thing in the eyes of Yahweh. And he walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. ⁵³And he served the Baal and he bowed down to him. And he provoked Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger, according to all that his father had done.

2 Kings

Chapter 1

⁵When the messengers returned to Ahaziah, he said to them, "Why have you returned?" ⁶They said to him, "A man came to meet us who said to us, 'Go back to the king who sent you, and say to him, "Yahweh says this: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you sent men to consult with Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not come down from the bed to which you have gone up; instead, you will certainly die.'" ⁷Ahaziah said to his messengers, "What sort of man was he, the one who came up to meet you and said these words to you?" ⁸They answered him, "He wore a garment made of hair and had a leather belt wrapped around his waist." So the king replied, "That is Elijah the Tishbite."

⁹Then the king sent a captain with fifty soldiers to Elijah. The captain went up to Elijah where he was sitting on the top of a hill. The captain spoke to him, "You, man of God, the king has said, 'Come down.'" ¹⁰Elijah answered and said to the captain, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." Then fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men. ¹¹Again King Ahaziah sent to Elijah another captain with fifty soldiers. This captain also said to Elijah, "You, man of God, the king says, 'Come down quickly.'" ¹²Elijah answered and said to them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." Again the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men. ¹³Yet again the king sent a third group of fifty warriors. This captain went up, fell on his knees before Elijah, and implored him and said to him, "You, man of God, I ask you, let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight. ¹⁴Indeed, fire came down from heaven and consumed the first two captains with their men, but now let my life be precious in your sight." ¹⁵The angel of Yahweh said to Elijah, "Go down with him. Do not be afraid of him." So Elijah arose and went down with him to the king. ¹⁶Later Elijah said to Ahaziah, "This is what Yahweh says, 'You have sent messengers to consult with Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron. Is it because there is no God in Israel from whom you can ask for information? So now, you will not come down from the bed where you have gone up; you will certainly die.'"

¹⁷So King Ahaziah died according to the word of Yahweh that Elijah had spoken. Joram began to reign in his place, in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, because Ahaziah had no son. ¹⁸As for the other matters concerning Ahaziah, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Israel?

Chapter 2

¹So it came about, when Yahweh was going to take up Elijah by a whirlwind into heaven, that Elijah left with Elisha from Gilgal. ²Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here, please, because Yahweh has sent me to Bethel." Elisha replied, "As Yahweh lives, and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel. ³The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from you today?" Elisha replied, "Yes, I know it, but do not talk about it." ⁴Elijah said to him, "Elisha, wait here, please, for Yahweh has sent me to Jericho." Then Elisha replied, "As Yahweh lives, and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went to Jericho. ⁵Then the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from you today?" Elisha answered, "Yes, I know it, but do not talk about it."⁶ Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, please, for Yahweh has sent me to the Jordan." Elisha replied, "As Yahweh lives, and as you live, I will not leave you." So the two went on.⁷ Later, fifty of the sons of the prophets stood opposite them at a distance while the two stood by the Jordan.⁸ Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up, and struck the water with it. The river divided on both sides so that the two of them walked over on dry ground.⁹ It came about, after they had crossed over, that Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask me what I should do for you before I am taken from you." Elisha replied, "Please let a double portion of your spirit come on me."¹⁰ Elijah answered, "You have asked for a difficult thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, this will happen for you, but if not, it will not happen."¹¹ As they still went on and talked, behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared, which separated the two men from each other, and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.¹² Elisha saw it and cried out, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and their horsemen!"

He saw Elijah no more, and he took hold of his own clothes and tore them into two pieces.¹³ He picked up Elijah's cloak that had fallen off him, and went back to stand by the bank of the Jordan.¹⁴ He struck the water with Elijah's cloak that had fallen and said, "Where is Yahweh, the God of Elijah?" When he had struck the waters, they divided on both sides and Elisha crossed over.

¹⁵When the sons of the prophets who were from Jericho saw him across from them, they said, "The spirit of Elijah does rest on Elisha!" So they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.¹⁶ They said to him, "See now, among your servants there are fifty strong men. Let them go, we ask, and look for your master, in case the Spirit of Yahweh has taken him up and thrown him onto some mountain or into some valley." Elisha answered, "No, do not send them."¹⁷ But when they urged Elisha until he was ashamed, he said, "Send them." Then they sent fifty men, and they looked for three days, but did not find him.¹⁸ They came back to Elisha, while he stayed at Jericho, and he said to them, "Did I not say to you, 'Do not go?'"

¹⁹The men of the city said to Elisha, "See, we beg of you, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my master can see, but the water is bad and the land is not fruitful."²⁰ Elisha replied, "Bring me a new bowl and put salt in it," so they brought it to him.²¹ Elisha went out to the spring of water and threw salt in it; then he said, "Yahweh says this, 'I have healed these waters. From this time on, there will be no more death or unfruitful land.'"²² So the waters were healed to this day, by the word which Elisha spoke.

²³Then Elisha went up from there to Bethel. As he was going up the road, young boys came out of the city and mocked him; they said to him, "Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!"²⁴ Elisha looked behind him and saw them; he called on Yahweh to curse them. Then two female bears came out of the woods and injured forty-two of the boys.²⁵ Then Elisha went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

Chapter 3

¹Now in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Joram son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned twelve years.² He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh, but not like his father and his mother; for he removed the sacred stone pillar of Baal that his father had made.³ Nevertheless he held on to the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin; he did not turn away from them.

⁴Now Mesha king of Moab bred sheep. He had to give to the king of Israel 100,000 lambs and the wool of 100,000 rams.⁵ But after Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.⁶ So King Joram left Samaria at that time to mobilize all Israel for war.⁷ He sent a message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me against Moab to battle?" Jehoshaphat replied, "I will go. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."⁸ Then he said, "By which way should we attack?" Jehoshaphat answered, "By way of the wilderness of Edom."⁹ So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. They wandered around for seven days, and then there was no water for the army or for the animals that followed them.¹⁰ So the king of Israel said, "What is this? Has Yahweh called three kings to give them into the hand of Moab?" ¹¹But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not here a prophet of Yahweh, that we may consult Yahweh by him?" One of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, "Elisha son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah." ¹²Jehoshaphat said, "The word of Yahweh is with him." So the king of Israel, Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.

¹³Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and mother." So the king of Israel said to him, "No, because Yahweh has called these three kings together to give them into the hand of Moab." ¹⁴Elisha replied, "As Yahweh of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely were it not for the fact that I honor the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not pay any attention to you, or even look at you. ¹⁵But now bring me a musician." Then it came to pass when the harpist played, the hand of Yahweh came upon Elisha. ¹⁶He said, "Yahweh says this, 'Make this dry river valley full of trenches.' ¹⁷For Yahweh says this, 'You will not see wind, neither will you see rain, but this river valley will be filled with water, and you will drink, you and your livestock and all your animals.' ¹⁸This is an easy thing in the sight of Yahweh. He will also give you victory over the Moabites. ¹⁹You will attack every fortified city and every good city, cut down every good tree, stop up all springs of water, and ruin every good piece of land with rocks." ²⁰So in the morning about the time of offering the sacrifice, there came water from the direction of Edom; the country was filled with water.

²¹Now when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armor, and they stood at the border. ²²They awakened early in the morning and the sun reflected on the water. When the Moabites saw the water opposite them, it looked as red as blood. ²³They exclaimed, "This is blood! The kings have certainly been destroyed, and they have killed each other! So now, Moab, let us go plunder them!" ²⁴When they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites surprised them and attacked the Moabites, who fled before them. The army of Israel drove the Moabites across the land, killing them. ²⁵They destroyed the cities, and on every good piece of land every man threw a rock until it was covered up. They stopped up every spring of water and chopped down all the good trees. Only Kir Hareseth was left with its rocks in place. But the soldiers armed with slings surrounded and attacked it. ²⁶When King Mesha of Moab saw that the battle was lost, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they failed. ²⁷Then he took his oldest son, who should have reigned after him, and offered him as a burnt offering upon the wall. So there was great anger against Israel, and the Israelite army left King Mesha and returned to their own land.

¹Now the wife of one of the sons of the prophets came crying to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared Yahweh. Now the creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves." ²So Elisha said to her, "What can I do for you? Tell me what do you have in the house?" She said, "Your servant has nothing in the house, except a pot of oil." ³Then Elisha said, "Go out to borrow jars from your neighbors, empty jars. Borrow as many as possible. ⁴Then you must go inside and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour oil into all those jars; set aside the jars that are full." ⁵So she left Elisha and shut the door behind her and her sons. They brought the jars to her, and she filled them with oil. ⁶When the vessels were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another jar." But he said to her, "There are no more jars." Then the oil stopped flowing. ⁷Then she came and told the man of God. He said, "Go, sell the oil; pay your debt, and live with your sons on the rest."

⁸One day Elisha walked to Shunem where an important woman lived; she urged him to eat food with her. So as often as Elisha passed by, he would stop there to eat. ⁹The woman said to her husband, "See, now I realize that this is a holy man of God who is always passing by. ¹⁰Let us make a little room on the roof for Elisha, and let us put in it a bed, a table, a seat, and a lamp. Then when he comes to us, he will stay there." ¹¹So when the day came again that Elisha stopped there, he stayed in the room and rested there. ¹²Elisha said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite." When he had called her, she stood before him. ¹³Elisha said to him, "Say to her, 'You have gone to all this trouble to care for us. What can be done for you? Can we speak for you to the king or to the army commander?" She answered, "I live among my own people." ¹⁴So Elisha said, "What can we do for her, then?" Gehazi answered, "Indeed, she has no son, and her husband is old." ¹⁵So Elisha answered, "Call her." When he had called her, she stood in the door. ¹⁶Elisha said, "At this time of year, in one year's time, you will be holding a son." She said, "No, my master and man of God, do not lie to your servant."

¹⁷But the woman conceived and gave birth to a son at the same time in the following year, as Elisha had said to her. ¹⁸When the child had grown, he went out one day to his father, who was with harvesters. ¹⁹He said to his father, "My head, my head." His father said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother." ²⁰When the servant had picked him up and brought the boy to his mother, the child sat on her knees until noon and then died. ²¹So the woman got up and laid the boy on the bed of the man of God, shut the door, and went out. ²²She called to her husband, and said, "Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys so that I may hurry to the man of God and then come back." ²³Her husband said, "Why do you want to go to him today? It is not a new moon nor a Sabbath." She replied, "It will be all right." ²⁴Then she saddled a donkey and said to her servant, "Drive on quickly; do not slow down for me unless I say so." ²⁵So she went and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel.

So when the man of God saw her in the distance, he said to Gehazi his servant, "Look, here comes the Shunammite woman." ²⁶Please run to meet her and say to her, "Is everything alright with you and with your husband and child?" She answered, "It is alright." ²⁷When she came to the man of God at the mountain, she caught hold of his feet. Gehazi came near to thrust her away but the man of God said, "Leave her alone, for she is very upset, and Yahweh has hidden the problem from me, and has told me nothing." ²⁸Then she said, "Did I ask you for a son, my master? Did I not say, 'Do not deceive me?'" ²⁹Then Elisha said to Gehazi, "Dress for travel and take my staff in your hand. Go to her home. If you meet any man, do not greet him, and if anyone greets you, do not answer him. Lay my staff on the child's face." ³⁰But the mother of the child said, "As Yahweh lives, and as you live, I will not leave you." So Elisha arose and followed her. ³¹Gehazi hurried on ahead of them and laid the staff on the child's face, but the child did not speak or hear. So then Gehazi returned to meet Elisha and told him saying, "The child has not awakened."

³²When Elisha arrived at the house, the child was dead and was still on the bed. ³³So Elisha went in and shut the door on the child and himself and prayed to Yahweh. ³⁴He went up and lay on the child; he put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. He stretched himself out on the boy, and the boy's body grew warm. ³⁵Then Elisha got up and walked around the room and again went up and stretched himself out on the boy. The child sneezed seven times and then opened his eyes! ³⁶So Elisha called Gehazi and said, "Call the Shunammite!" So he called her, and when she came into the room, Elisha said, "Pick up your son." ³⁷Then she lay facedown on the ground at his feet and bowed to the ground, and then picked up her son and went out.

³⁸Then Elisha came again to Gilgal. There was famine in the land, and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. He said to his servant, "Put the large pot on the fire and cook stew for the sons of the prophets." ³⁹One of them went out into a field to gather vegetables. He found a wild vine and gathered enough wild gourds to fill the fold of his robe. They cut them up and put them into the stew, but did not know what kind they were. ⁴⁰So they poured out the stew for the men to eat. Later, as they were eating, they cried out and said, "Man of God, there is death in the pot!" So they could not eat it anymore. ⁴¹But Elisha said, "Bring some flour." He threw it into the pot and said, "Pour it out for the people, so that they may eat." Then there was no longer anything hurtful in the pot.

⁴²A man came from Baal Shalishah to the man of God and brought twenty loaves of barley bread in his sack from the new harvest, and fresh ears of grain. He said, "Give this to the people so they can eat." ⁴³His servant said, "What, should I set this before a hundred men?" But Elisha said, "Give this to the people, so they can eat, because Yahweh says, 'They will eat and will have some left.'" ⁴⁴So his servant set it before them; they ate, and left some remaining, just as the word of Yahweh promised.

Chapter 5

¹Now Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great and honorable man in his master's view, because by him Yahweh had given victory to Aram. He was also a strong, courageous man, but he was a leper. ²The Arameans had gone out raiding in bands and had taken a little girl from the land of Israel. She served Naaman's wife. ³The girl said to her mistress, "I wish that my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would heal my master of his leprosy." ⁴So Naaman went in and told the king what the little girl from the land of Israel had said. ⁵So the king of Aram said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." Naaman left and took with him ten talents of silver, six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothes. ⁶He also took the letter to the king of Israel that said, "Now when this letter is brought to you, you will see that I have sent Naaman my servant to you, so that you may cure him of his leprosy." ⁷When the king of Israel had read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man wants me to cure a man of his leprosy? It seems he is seeking to start an argument with me."

⁸So when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent word to the king saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come now to me, and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel." ⁹So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariots and stood at the door of Elisha's house. ¹⁰Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and dip yourself into the Jordan seven times, and your flesh will be restored; you will be clean." ¹¹But Naaman was angry and went away and said, "Look, I thought he would surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of Yahweh his God, and wave his hand over the place and heal my leprosy. ¹²Are not Abanah and Parpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Can I not bathe in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage. ¹³Then Naaman's servants came near and spoke to him, "My father, if the prophet had commanded you do some difficult thing, would you not have done it? How much rather then, when he says to you to simply, 'Dip yourself and be clean?'" ¹⁴Then he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, obeying the instructions of the man of God. His flesh was restored again like the flesh of a little child, and he was healed.

¹⁵Naaman returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came and stood before him. He said, "Look, now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. So therefore, please take a gift from your servant." ¹⁶But Elisha replied, "As Yahweh lives, before whom I stand, I will receive nothing." Naaman urged Elisha to take a gift, but he refused. ¹⁷So Naaman said, "If not, then I ask you to let there be given to your servant two mule loads of earth, for from now on, your servant will offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to any god but Yahweh. ¹⁸In this one thing may Yahweh pardon your servant, that is, when my king goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, may Yahweh pardon your servant in this matter." ¹⁹Elisha said to him, "Go in peace." So Naaman left.

²⁰He had traveled only a short distance, when Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God said to himself, "Look, my master has spared this Naaman the Aramean by not receiving from his hands gifts that he brought. As Yahweh lives, I will run after him and receive something from him." ²¹So Gehazi followed after Naaman. When Naaman saw someone running after him, he jumped down from his chariot to meet him and said, "Is everything alright?" ²²Gehazi said, "Everything is alright. My master has sent me, saying, 'See, now there have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothes.'" ²³Naaman replied, "I am very happy to give you two talents." Naaman urged Gehazi and tied two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothes, and laid them on two of his servants, who carried the bags of silver before Gehazi. ²⁴When Gehazi came to the hill, he took the bags of silver from their hands and hid them in the house; he sent the men away, and they left. ²⁵When Gehazi went in and stood before his master, Elisha said to him, "Where have you come from, Gehazi?" He answered, "Your servant went nowhere." ²⁶Elisha said to Gehazi, "Was not my spirit with you when the man turned his chariot to meet you? Is this a time to accept money and clothes, olive orchards and vineyards, sheep and oxen, and male servants and female servants? ²⁷So the leprosy of Naaman will be on you and your descendants forever." So Gehazi went out from his presence, a leper as white as snow.

¹The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "The place where we live with you is too small for us all. ²Please let us go to the Jordan, and let every man cut down a tree there, and let us build us a place there where we may live." Elisha answered, "You may go ahead." ³One of them said, "Please go with your servants." Elisha answered, "I will go." ⁴So he went with them, and when they came to the Jordan, they began to cut down trees. ⁵But as one was chopping, the ax head fell into the water; he cried out and said, "Oh no, my master, it was borrowed!" ⁶So the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" The man showed Elisha the place. He then cut off a stick, threw it in the water, and made the iron float. ⁷Elisha said, "Pick it up." So the man reached out his hand and grabbed it.

⁸Now the king of Aram was waging war against Israel. He consulted with his servants, saying, "My camp will be in such and such a place." ⁹So the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Be careful not to pass that place, for the Arameans are going down there." ¹⁰The king of Israel sent a message to the place about which the man of God had spoken and warned him. More than once or twice, when the king went there, he was on his guard. ¹¹The king of Aram was enraged about these warnings, and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you not tell me who among us is for the king of Israel?" ¹²So one of his servants said, "No, my master, king, for Elisha the prophet in Israel tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your own bedroom!" ¹³The king replied, "Go and see where Elisha is so I may send men and capture him." It was told him, "See, he is in Dothan."

¹⁴So the king sent to Dothan horses, chariots, and a large army. They came by night and surrounded the city. ¹⁵When the servant of the man of God had risen early and gone outside, behold, a large army with horses and chariots surrounded the city. His servant said to him, "Oh, my master! What will we do?" ¹⁶Elisha answered, "Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them." ¹⁷Elisha prayed and said, "Yahweh, I beg that you will open his eyes that he may see." Then Yahweh opened the servant's eyes, and he saw. Behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire around Elisha! ¹⁸When the Arameans came down to him, Elisha prayed to Yahweh and said, "Strike these people blind, I ask you." So Yahweh made them blind, just as Elisha had asked. ¹⁹Then Elisha told the Arameans, "This is not the way, neither is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you are looking for." Then he led them to Samaria.

²⁰It came about that when they had come into Samaria, Elisha said, "Yahweh, open the eyes of these men that they may see." Yahweh opened their eyes and they saw, and behold, they were in the middle of the city of Samaria. ²¹The king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, "My father, should I kill them? Should I kill them?" ²²Elisha answered, "You must not kill them. Would you kill those whom you had taken captive with your sword and bow? Put bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master." ²³So the king prepared much food for them, and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went back to their master. Those bands of Aramean soldiers did not return for a long time into the land of Israel.

²⁴Later after this Ben Hadad king of Aram gathered all his army and attacked Samaria and besieged it. ²⁵So there was a great famine in Samaria. Behold, they besieged it until a donkey's head was sold for eighty pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver. ²⁶As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, saying, "Help, my master, king." ²⁷He said, "If Yahweh does not help you, how can I help you? Is there anything coming from the threshing floor or winepress?" ²⁸The king continued, "What is troubling you?" She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son so that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'" ²⁹So we boiled my son and ate him, and I said to her on the next day, "Give your son that we may eat him, but she has hidden her son." ³⁰So when the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes (now he was passing by on the wall), and the people looked and saw that he had sackcloth underneath, against his skin. ³¹Then he said, "May God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on him today."

³²But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a man from before him, but when the messenger came to Elisha, he said to the elders, "See how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door shut against him. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?" ³³While he was still talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him. The king had said, "Behold, this trouble comes from Yahweh. Why should I wait for Yahweh any longer?"

Chapter 7

¹Elisha said, "Hear the word of Yahweh. This is what Yahweh says: 'Tomorrow about this time a measure of fine flour will be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.'" ²Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, "See, even if Yahweh should make windows in heaven, can this thing happen?" Elisha replied, "See, you will watch it happen with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it."

⁹Then they said each other, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, but we are keeping quiet about it. If we wait until daybreak, punishment will overtake us. Now then, come, let us go and tell the king's household."

¹⁰So they went and called the gatekeepers of the city. They told them, saying, "We went to the camp of the Arameans, but there was no one there, not the sound of anyone, but there were the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were." ¹¹Then the gatekeepers shouted out the news, and then it was told inside the king's household. ¹²Then the king arose at night and said to his servants, "I will tell you now what the Arameans have done to us. They know that we are hungry, so they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the fields. They are saying, 'When they come out of the city, we will take them alive, and get into the city.'" ¹³One of the king's servants answered and said, "I beg you, let some men take five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city. They are like all the rest of the population of Israel who are left—most are now dead; let us send them and see." ¹⁴So they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the army of the Arameans, saying, "Go and see." ¹⁵They went after them to the Jordan, and all the road was full of clothes and equipment that the Arameans had cast away in their hurry. So the messengers returned and told the king.

¹⁶The people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, just as the word of Yahweh had said. ¹⁷The king had ordered the captain on whose hand he had leaned to be in charge of the gate, and the people trampled him down in the gateway. He died as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king had come down to him. ¹⁸So it happened as the man of God had said to the king, saying, "About this time in the gate of Samaria, two measures of barley will be available for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel." ¹⁹That captain had answered the man of God and said, "See, even if Yahweh should make windows in heaven, can this thing happen?" Elisha had said, "See, you will watch it happen with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it." ²⁰That is what exactly what happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

¹Now Elisha had spoken to the woman whose son he had restored to life. He said to her, "Arise, and go with your household, and stay wherever you can in another land, because Yahweh has called for a famine which will come on this land for seven years." ²So the woman arose and she obeyed the word of the man of God. She went with her household and lived in the land of the Philistines seven years. ³It came about at the end of seven years that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, and she went to the king to beg him for her house and for her land. ⁴Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, "Please tell me all the great things that Elisha has done." ⁵Then as he was telling the king how Elisha had restored to life the child who was dead, the very woman whose son he had restored to life came to beg the king for her house and land. Gehazi said, "My master, king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life." ⁶When the king asked the woman about her son, she explained it to him. So the king ordered a certain officer for her, saying, "Give back to her all that was hers and all the harvests of her fields since the day that she left the land until now."

⁷Elisha came to Damascus where Ben Hadad the king of Aram was sick. The king was told, "The man of God has come here." ⁸The king said to Hazael, "Take a gift in your hand and go meet the man of God, and consult with Yahweh through him, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'" ⁹So Hazael went to meet him and took a gift with him of every kind of good thing of Damascus, carried by forty camels. So Hazael came and stood before Elisha and said, "Your son Ben Hadad king of Aram has sent me to you, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'" ¹⁰Elisha said to him, "Go, say to Ben Hadad, 'You will surely recover,' but Yahweh has shown me that he will surely die." ¹¹Then Elisha stared at Hazael until he was ashamed, and the man of God wept. ¹²Hazael asked, "Why do you weep, my master?" He answered, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the people of Israel. You will set their strongholds on fire, and you will kill their young men with the sword, dash in pieces their little ones, and rip open their pregnant women." ¹³Hazael replied, "Who is your servant, that he should do this great thing? He is only a dog." Elisha answered, "Yahweh has shown me that you will be king over Aram." ¹⁴Then Hazael left Elisha and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" He answered, "He told me that you would certainly recover." ¹⁵Then the next day Hazael took the blanket and dipped it in water, and spread it on Ben Hadad's face so that he died. Then Hazael became king in his place.

¹⁶In the fifth year of Joram son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoram began to reign. He was the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. He began to reign when Jehoshaphat was king of Judah. ¹⁷Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem. ¹⁸Jehoram walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab was doing; for he had Ahab's daughter as his wife, and he did what was evil in Yahweh's sight. ¹⁹However, because of his servant David, Yahweh did not want to destroy Judah, since he had told him that he would always give him descendants.

²⁰In Jehoram's days, Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and they set a king over themselves. ²¹Then Jehoram crossed over to Zair with all his chariots. When the Edomites surrounded Jehoram, his chariot commanders rose up and attacked them during the night; but Jehoram's army ran away and went back to their homes. ²²So Edom has been in rebellion against the rule of Judah to this present day. Libnah also revolted at the same time. ²³As for the other matters concerning Jehoram, all that he did, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Judah? ²⁴Jehoram rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of David. Then Ahaziah his son became king in his place.

²⁵In the twelfth year of Joram son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, began to reign. ²⁶Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah; she was the daughter of Omri, king of Israel. ²⁷Ahaziah walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; he did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as the house of Ahab was doing, for Ahaziah was a son-in-law to the house of Ahab. ²⁸Ahaziah went with Joram son of Ahab, to fight against Hazael, king of Aram, at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram. ²⁹King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds that the Arameans had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab, because Joram had been wounded.

Chapter 9

¹Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, "Dress for travel, then take this little bottle of oil in your hand and go to Ramoth Gilead. ²When you arrive, look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi, and go in and make him arise up from among his companions, and conduct him to an inner chamber. ³Then take the bottle of oil and pour it on his head and say, 'Yahweh says this: "I have anointed you king over Israel.'" Then open the door, and run off; do not delay." ⁴So the young man, the young prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead. ⁵When he arrived, behold, the captains of the army were sitting. So the young prophet said, "I have come on an errand to you, captain." Jehu replied, "To which of us?" The young prophet answered, "To you, captain." ⁶So Jehu arose and went into the house, and the prophet poured the oil on his head and said to Jehu, "Yahweh, the God of Israel, says this: 'I have anointed you king over the people of Yahweh, over Israel. ⁷You must kill the family of Ahab your master, so that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of Yahweh, who were murdered by the hand of Jezebel. ⁸For the whole family of Ahab will perish, and I will cut off from Ahab every male child, whether he is a slave or a free person. ⁹I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah. ¹⁰The dogs will eat Jezebel in Jezreel, and there will be no one to bury her.'" Then the prophet opened the door and ran off.

¹¹Then Jehu came out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, "Is everything alright? Why did this mad fellow come to you?" Jehu answered them, "You know the man and the kinds of things he says." ¹²They said, "That is a lie. Tell us." Jehu answered, "He said this and that to me, and he also said, 'This is what Yahweh says: I have anointed you as king over Israel.'" ¹³Then each of them quickly took off his outer garment and put it under Jehu at the top of the steps. They blew the trumpet and said, "Jehu is king."

¹⁴In this way Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. Now Joram had been defending Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Aram, ¹⁵but King Joram had gone back to Jezreel to be healed of the wounds that the Arameans had given him, when he had fought against Hazael king of Aram.

Jehu said to the servants of Joram, "If this is your opinion, then let no one escape and go out of the city, in order to go tell this news in Jezreel." ¹⁶So Jehu rode in a chariot to Jezreel; for Joram was resting there. Now Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

¹⁷The watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw the company of Jehu as he came at a distance; he said, "I see a group of men coming." Joram said, "Take a horseman, and send him out to meet them; tell him to say, 'Are you coming in peace?'" ¹⁸So a man was sent on horseback to meet him; he said, "The king says this: 'Are you coming in peace?'" So Jehu said, "What have you to do with peace? Turn and ride behind me." Then the watchman told the king, "The messenger has met them, but he is not coming back." ¹⁹Then he sent out a second man on horseback, who came to them and said, "The king says this: 'Are you coming in peace?'" Jehu answered, "What have you to do with peace? Turn and ride behind me." ²⁰Again the watchman reported, "He has met them, but he is not coming back. For the way that the chariot is being driven is the way that Jehu son of Nimshi drives; he is driving wildly."

²¹So Joram said, "Get my chariot ready." They prepared his chariot, and Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah rode out, each in his chariot, to meet Jehu. They found him at the property of Naboth the Jezreelite. ²²When Joram saw Jehu, he said, "Are you coming in peace, Jehu?" He answered, "What peace is there, when the idolatrous acts of prostitution and witchcraft of your mother Jezebel are so many?" ²³So Joram turned his chariot and fled and said to Ahaziah, "There is treachery, Ahaziah." ²⁴Then Jehu drew his bow with his full strength and shot Joram between his shoulders; the arrow went through his heart, and he sank down in his chariot. ²⁵Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, "Pick him up and throw him in the field of Naboth the Jezreelite. Think about how when you and I rode together after Ahab his father, Yahweh placed this prophecy against him: ²⁶Yesterday I saw the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons—declares Yahweh—and I will surely make you pay for it on this field—declares Yahweh. Now then, pick him up and throw him on this field, according to the word of Yahweh."

²⁷When Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled up the road to Beth Haggan. But Jehu followed him, and said, "Kill him also in the chariot," and they shot him at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. Ahaziah fled to Megiddo and died there. ²⁸His servants carried his body in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David.

²⁹Now it was in the eleventh year of Joram son of Ahab that Ahaziah had begun to reign over Judah.

³⁰When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it, and she painted her eyes, arranged her hair, and looked out the window. ³¹As Jehu was entering the gate, she said to him, "Are you coming in peace, you Zimri, your master's murderer?" ³²Jehu looked up at the window and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" Then two or three eunuchs looked out. ³³So Jehu said, "Throw her down." So they threw Jezebel down, and some of her blood splattered on the wall and the horses, and Jehu trampled her underfoot. ³⁴When Jehu entered the palace, he ate and drank. Then he said, "See now to this cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king's daughter." ³⁵They went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull, the feet, and the palms of her hands. ³⁶So they came back and told Jehu. He said, "This is the word of Yahweh which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 'In the land at Jezreel the dogs will eat the flesh of Jezebel, ³⁷and the body of Jezebel will be like dung on the surface of the fields in the land at Jezreel, so that no one will be able to say, "This is Jezebel."'"

Chapter 10

¹Now Ahab had seventy descendants in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, including the elders and the guardians of Ahab's descendants, saying, ²"Your master's descendants are with you, and you also have chariots and horses and a fortified city and armor. So then, as soon as this letter comes to you, ³select the best and most deserving of your master's descendants and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's royal line." ⁴But they were terrified and said among themselves, "See, the two kings could not stand before Jehu. So how can we stand?" ⁵Then the man who was in charge of the palace, and the man who was over the city, and the elders also, and they who raised the children, sent word back to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants. We will do everything that you command us. We will not make any man king. Do what is good in your eyes." ⁶Then Jehu wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, "If you are on my side, and if you will listen to my voice, you must take the heads of the men of your master's descendants, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time." Now the king's descendants, seventy in number, were with the important men of the city, who were bringing them up. ⁷So when the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and killed them, seventy persons, put their heads in baskets, and sent them to Jehu in Jezreel. ⁸A messenger came to Jehu, saying, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons." So he said, "Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning." ⁹In the morning Jehu went out and stood, and said to all the people, "You are innocent. See, I plotted against my master and killed him, but who killed all these? ¹⁰Now you should certainly realize that no part of Yahweh's word, the word that he spoke concerning the family of Ahab, will fall to the ground, for Yahweh has done what he spoke about through his servant Elijah." ¹¹So Jehu killed all who remained in the family of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his important men, his close friends, and his priests, until none of them remained.

¹²Then Jehu arose and left; he went to Samaria. As he was arriving at Beth Eked of the shepherd, ¹³he met brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah. Jehu said to them, "Who are you?" They answered, "We are brothers of Ahaziah, and we are going down to greet the children of the king and the children of Queen Jezebel." ¹⁴Jehu said to his own men, "Take them alive." So they took them alive and killed them at the well of Beth Eked, all forty-two men. He did not leave any of them alive.

¹⁵When Jehu had left there, he met Jehonadab son of Recab coming to meet him. Jehu greeted him and said to him, "Is your heart with me, as my heart is with yours?" Jehonadab answered, "It is." Jehu said, "If it is, give me your hand." So he gave Jehu his hand, and Jehu took Jehonadab up with him into the chariot. ¹⁶Jehu said, "Come with me and see my zeal for Yahweh." So he had Jonadab ride along with him in his chariot. ¹⁷When he came to Samaria, Jehu killed all who remained from Ahab's descendants in Samaria, until he had destroyed Ahab's royal line, just as was told them before by the word of Yahweh, which he had spoken to Elijah.

¹⁸Then Jehu gathered all the people together and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu will serve him much. ¹⁹Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers, and all his priests. Let no one be left out, for I have a great sacrifice to offer to Baal. Whoever does not come will not live." But Jehu did this deceitfully, with the intent to kill the worshipers of Baal. ²⁰Jehu said, "Set a time to have an assembly for Baal." So they announced it. ²¹Then Jehu sent throughout all Israel and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. They came into the temple of Baal, and it was filled from one end to another. ²²Jehu said to the man who kept the priest's wardrobe, "Bring out robes for all the worshipers of Baal." So the man brought out robes to them. ²³So Jehu went with Jehonadab son of Recab into the house of Baal, and he said to the worshipers of Baal, "Search and make sure that there is no one here with you from the servants of Yahweh, but the worshipers of Baal alone." ²⁴Then they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had chosen eighty men who were standing outside, and he told them, "If any of the men whom I bring into your hands escapes, whoever lets that man escape, his life will be taken for the life of the one who escaped."

²⁵So then as soon as Jehu finished offering the burnt offering, he said to the guard and to the captains, "Go in and kill them. Let no one come out." So they killed them with the edge of the sword, and the guard and the captains threw them out and went into the inner room of the house of Baal. ²⁶They dragged out the stone pillars that were in the house of Baal, and they burned them. ²⁷Then they broke down the pillar of Baal, and destroyed the house of Baal and made it a latrine, which it is to this day. ²⁸That is how Jehu destroyed Baal worship from Israel.

²⁹But Jehu did not leave the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, by which he made Israel sin—that is, the worship of the golden calves in Bethel and Dan. ³⁰So Yahweh said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in executing what was right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation." ³¹But Jehu took no care to walk in the law of Yahweh, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam, by which he made Israel sin.

³²In those days Yahweh began to cut off regions from Israel, and Hazael defeated the Israelites at the borders of Israel, ³³from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the Valley of the Arnon, through Gilead to Bashan. ³⁴As for the other matters concerning Jehu, and all that he did, and all his power, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Israel? ³⁵Jehu slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in Samaria. Then Jehoahaz his son became king in his place. ³⁶The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

Chapter 11

¹Now when Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she arose and killed all the royal children. ²But Jehosheba, a daughter of King Jehoram and sister of Ahaziah, took Joash son of Ahaziah, and hid him away from among the king's sons who were killed, along with his nurse; she put them into a bedroom. They hid him from Athaliah so that he was not killed. ³He remained with her six years, hidden in the house of Yahweh, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

⁴In the seventh year, Jehoiada sent messages and brought the commanders of hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them to himself, into the temple of Yahweh. He made a covenant with them, and he made them swear an oath in the house of Yahweh. Then he showed them the king's son. ⁵He commanded them, saying, "This is what you must do. A third of you who come on the Sabbath will keep watch over the king's house, ⁶and a third will be at the Sur Gate, and a third at the gate behind the guardhouse." ⁷The two other groups who are not serving on the Sabbath, you must keep the watch over the house of Yahweh for the king. ⁸You must surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand. Whoever enters within your ranks, let him be killed. You must stay with the king when he goes out, and when he comes in.

⁹So the commanders of hundreds obeyed everything Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each one took his men, those who were to come in to serve on the Sabbath, and those who were to stop serving on that Sabbath; and they came to Jehoiada the priest. ¹⁰Then Jehoiada the priest gave the commanders of hundreds the spears and shields that belonged to King David and that were in the house of Yahweh. ¹¹So the guards stood, each man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side, near the altar and the temple, surrounding the king. ¹²Then Jehoiada brought out the king's son Joash, put the crown on him, and gave him the covenant decrees. Then they made him king and anointed him. They clapped their hands and said, "Long live the king!"

¹³When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people in the house of Yahweh.

¹⁴She looked, and, behold, the king was standing by the pillar, as the custom was, and the captains and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and shouted, "Treason! Treason!" ¹⁵Then Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders of hundreds who were over the army, saying, "Bring her out between the ranks. Anyone who follows her, kill him with the sword." For the priest had said, "Do not let her be killed in the house of Yahweh." ¹⁶So they seized her as she reached the place where the horses enter the palace grounds, and there she was killed.

¹⁷Then Jehoiada made a covenant between Yahweh and the king and people, that they should be Yahweh's people, and also between the king and the people. ¹⁸So all the people of the land went to the house of Baal and tore it down. They smashed Baal's altars and his idol figures to pieces, and they killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of those altars. Then Jehoiada the priest appointed guards over the temple of Yahweh. ¹⁹Jehoiada took with him the commanders of hundreds, the Carites, the guard, and all the people of the land, and together they brought down the king from the house of Yahweh and they went into the king's house, entering by way of the gate of the guards. Joash took his place on the royal throne. ²⁰So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet after Athaliah had been killed with the sword at the king's house.

²¹Joash was seven years old when he began to reign.

Chapter 12

¹In the seventh year of Jehu, the reign of Joash began; he reigned for forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah, of Beersheba. ²Joash did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh all the time, because Jehoiada the priest was instructing him. ³But the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

⁴Joash said to the priests, "All the money that is brought in as sacred offerings into the house of Yahweh, that money for which each person is assessed—whether it is the money collected in the census, or the money received from personal vows, or the money brought in by people motivated by Yahweh in their hearts to give— ⁵the priests should receive the money from one of their treasurers and repair whatever damage is found in the temple." ⁶But by the twenty-third year of King Joash, the priests had not repaired anything in the temple. ⁷Then King Joash called for Jehoiada the priest and for the other priests; he said to them, "Why have you not repaired anything in the temple? Now take no more money from your taxpayers, but take what has been collected for repairs of the temple and give it to those who can make the repairs." ⁸So the priests consented to take no more money from the people and not repair the temple themselves.

⁹Instead, Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of Yahweh. The priests who were guarding the temple entrance put into it all the money that was brought to the house of Yahweh. ¹⁰Whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest would come and put the money in bags and then count it, the money found in the temple of Yahweh. ¹¹They gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of men who took care of the temple of Yahweh. They paid it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked on the temple of Yahweh, ¹²and to the masons and the stonecutters, for buying timber and cutting stone to repair the temple of Yahweh, and for all that was needed to be paid to repair it. ¹³But the money that was brought into the house of Yahweh did not pay to make for it any silver cups, lamp trimmers, basins, trumpets, or any gold or silver furnishing. ¹⁴They gave this money to those who did the work of repairing the house of Yahweh. ¹⁵In addition, they did not require the money paid for repairs to be accounted for by the men who received it and paid it to the workmen, because these men were honest. ¹⁶But the money for the guilt offerings and the money for the sin offerings was not brought into the temple of Yahweh, because it belonged to the priests.

¹⁷Then Hazael king of Aram attacked and fought against Gath, and took it. Hazael then turned to attack Jerusalem.

¹⁸Joash king of Judah took all the things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had set apart, and what he had set apart, and all the gold that was found in the storerooms of the houses of Yahweh and of the king and he sent them to Hazael king of Aram. Then Hazael went away from Jerusalem.

¹⁹As for the other matters concerning Joash, all that he did, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Judah? ²⁰His servants arose and plotted together; they attacked Joash in Beth Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla. ²¹Jozabad^[1] son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad son of Shomer, his servants, attacked him, and he died. They buried Joash with his ancestors in the city of David, and Amaziah, his son, became king in his place.

Chapter 13

¹In the twenty-third year of Joash son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned seventeen years. ²He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh and followed the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin; and Jehoahaz did not turn away from them. ³The anger of Yahweh burned against Israel, and he gave them continually into the hand of Hazael king of Aram and into the hand of Ben Hadad son of Hazael. ⁴So Jehoahaz implored Yahweh, and Yahweh listened to him because he saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Aram was oppressing them. ⁵So Yahweh gave Israel a rescuer, and they escaped from the hand of the Arameans, and the people of Israel began to live in their homes as they had before. ⁶Nevertheless, they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin, and they continued in them; and the Asherah pole remained in Samaria. ⁷The Arameans left Jehoahaz with only fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen, for the king of Aram had destroyed them and made them like the chaff at threshing time. ⁸As for the other matters concerning Jehoahaz, and all that he did and his power, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Israel? ⁹So Jehoahaz slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in Samaria. Jehoash his son became king in his place.

¹⁴Now Elisha became sick with an illness by which he later died, so Jehoash the king of Israel came down to him and wept over him. He said, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and the horsemen are taking you away!"

¹⁵Elisha said to him, "Pick up a bow and some arrows," so Jehoash picked up a bow and some arrows. ¹⁶Elisha said to the king of Israel, "Put your hand on the bow," so he put his hand on it. Then Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands. ¹⁷Elisha said, "Open the window eastward," so he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot!", and he shot. Elisha said, "This is Yahweh's arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Aram, for you will attack the Arameans in Aphek until you have consumed them." ¹⁸Then Elisha said, "Take the arrows," so Jehoash took them. He said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground with them," and he struck the ground three times, then stopped. ¹⁹But the man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have hit the ground five or six times. Then you would have attacked Aram until you annihilated it, but now you will attack Aram only three times."

²⁰Then Elisha died, and they buried him. Now groups of Moabites invaded the land at the beginning of the year.

²¹As they were burying a certain man, they saw a group of Moabites, so they threw the body into Elisha's grave. As soon as the man touched Elisha's bones, he revived and stood up on his feet.

²²Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. ²³But Yahweh was gracious to Israel, and had compassion on them and concern for them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. So Yahweh did not destroy them, and he still has not driven them away from his presence. ²⁴Hazael king of Aram died, and Ben Hadad his son became king in his place. ²⁵Jehoash son of Jehoahaz took back from Ben Hadad son of Hazael the cities that had been taken from Jehoahaz his father by war. Jehoash attacked him three times, and he recovered those cities of Israel.

Chapter 14

¹In the second year of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, began to reign.

⁸Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us meet each other face to face in battle." ⁹But Jehoash the king of Israel sent messengers back to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "A thistle that was in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife,' but a wild beast in Lebanon walked by and trampled down the thistle. ¹⁰You have indeed attacked Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Take pride in your victory, but stay at home, for why should you cause yourself trouble and fall, both you and Judah with you?"

¹¹But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel attacked and he and Amaziah king of Judah met each other face to face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. ¹²Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled home. ¹³Jehoash king of Israel, captured Amaziah, king of Judah son of Jehoash son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh. He came to Jerusalem and tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits in distance. ¹⁴He took all the gold and silver, all the objects that were found in the house of Yahweh, and the valuable things in the king's palace, with hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

¹⁵As for the other matters concerning Jehoash, all that he did, his power, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Israel? ¹⁶Then Jehoash slept with his ancestors and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel, and Jeroboam, his son, became king in his place.

¹⁷Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

¹⁸As for the other matters concerning Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Judah? ¹⁹They made a conspiracy against Amaziah in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. He fled to Lachish, but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there. ²⁰They brought him back on horses, and he was buried with his ancestors in the city of David. ²¹All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. ²²It was Azariah who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah, after King Amaziah slept with his ancestors.

²³In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Jehoash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria; he reigned forty-one years. ²⁴He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh. He did not depart from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin. ²⁵He restored the border of Israel from Lebo Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah, following the commands of the word of Yahweh, the God of Israel, which he had spoken through his servant Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gath Hopher. ²⁶For Yahweh saw the suffering of Israel, that it was very bitter for everyone, both slave and free, and that there was no rescuer for Israel. ²⁷So Yahweh said that he would not blot out the name of Israel under heaven; instead, he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Jehoash.

²⁸As for the other matters concerning Jeroboam, all that he did, his power, how he waged war and recovered Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Israel? ²⁹Jeroboam slept with his ancestors, with the kings of Israel, and Zechariah his son became king in his place.

Chapter 15

¹In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah began to reign. ²Azariah was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jekoliah, and she was from Jerusalem. ³He did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh, just as his father Amaziah had done. ⁴However, the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense at the high places. ⁵Yahweh afflicted the king so that he was a leper to the day of his death and lived in a separate house. Jotham, the king's son, was over the household and ruled the people of the land. ⁶As for the other matters concerning Azariah, all that he did, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Judah? ⁷So Azariah slept with his ancestors; they buried him with his ancestors in the city of David. Jotham, his son, became king in his place.

⁸In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria for six months. ⁹He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as his fathers had done. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin. ¹⁰Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against Zechariah, attacked him in Ibleam, and killed him. Then he became king in his place. ¹¹As for the other matters concerning Zechariah, they are written in the book of the events of the kings of Israel. ¹²This was the word of Yahweh that he spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation." That is what happened.

¹³Shallum son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, and he reigned only one month in Samaria. ¹⁴Menahem son of Gadi went up from Tirzah to Samaria. There he attacked Shallum son of Jabesh, in Samaria. He killed him and became king in his place. ¹⁵As for the other matters concerning Shallum and the conspiracy that he formed, they are written in the book of the events of the kings of Israel. ¹⁶Then Menahem attacked Tiphshah and all who were there, and the borders around Tirzah, because they did not open up the city to him. So he attacked it, and he ripped open all the pregnant women in that village.^[1] ¹⁷In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi began to reign over Israel; he reigned ten years in Samaria. ¹⁸He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh. For his whole life, he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin. ¹⁹Then Pul the king of Assyria came against the land, and Menahem gave Pul one thousand talents of silver, so that Pul's support might be with him to strengthen the kingdom of Israel in his hand. ²⁰Menahem exacted this money from Israel by requiring each of the wealthy men to pay fifty shekels of silver to him to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back and did not stay there in the land. ²¹As for the other matters concerning Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Israel? ²²So Menahem slept with his ancestors, and Pekahiah his son became king in his place.

²³In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned two years. ²⁴He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh. He did not leave behind the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, by which he had caused Israel to sin. ²⁵Pekahiah had an officer named Pekah son of Remaliah, who conspired against him. Along with fifty men of Gilead, Pekah killed Pekahiah as well as Argob and Arieah in Samaria, in the citadel of the king's palace. Pekah killed Pekahiah and became king in his place. ²⁶As for the other matters concerning Pekahiah, all that he did, they are written in the book of the events of the kings of Israel.

²⁷In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned twenty years. ²⁸He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin.

²⁹In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, Galilee, and all the land of Naphtali. He carried away the people to Assyria. ³⁰So Hoshea son of Elah formed a conspiracy against Pekah son of Remaliah. He attacked him and killed him. Then he became king in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah. ³¹As for the other matters concerning Pekah, all that he did, they are written in the book of the events of the kings of Israel.

³²In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham son of Azariah, king of Judah began to reign. ³³He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah; she was the daughter of Zadok. ³⁴Jotham did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh. He followed the example of all his father Azariah had done. ³⁵However, the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense at the high places. Jotham built the upper gate of the house of Yahweh. ³⁶As for the other matters concerning Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Judah? ³⁷In those days Yahweh began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah son of Remaliah. ³⁸Jotham slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David, his ancestor. Then Ahaz, his son, became king in his place.

15:16 ^[1], one ancient version and some modern versions read, .

Chapter 16

¹In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham king of Judah, began to reign. ²Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the eyes of Yahweh his God, as David his ancestor had done. ³Instead, he walked in the way of the kings of Israel; indeed, he made his son pass through the fire, following the detestable practices of the nations, which Yahweh had driven out before the people of Israel. ⁴He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hilltops, and under every green tree.

⁵Then Rezin, king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to attack. They besieged Ahaz, but they could not conquer him. ⁶At that time, Rezin king of Aram recovered Elath for Aram and drove the men of Judah out of Elath. Then the Arameans came to Elath where they have lived to this day.

⁷So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the hand of the king of Aram and from the hand of the king of Israel, who have attacked me." ⁸So Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of Yahweh and among the treasures of the king's palace and he sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria. ⁹Then the king of Assyria listened to him, and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, conquered it and carried off its people as prisoners to Kir. He also killed Rezin the king of Aram.

¹⁰King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria. At Damascus he saw an altar. He sent to Uriah the priest a model of the altar and its pattern and the design for all the workmanship needed. ¹¹So Uriah the priest built an altar to be just like the plans that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus. He finished it before King Ahaz arrived back from Damascus. ¹²When the king came from Damascus he saw the altar; the king approached the altar and made offerings on it. ¹³He made his burnt offering and his grain offering, poured out his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his fellowship offerings on the altar. ¹⁴The bronze altar that was before Yahweh—he brought it from the front of the temple, from between his altar and the temple of Yahweh and put it on the north side of his altar. ¹⁵Then King Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, saying, “On the large altar burn the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering, and the king’s burnt offering and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their grain offering and their drink offerings. Sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice. But the bronze altar will be for me to consult for guidance.”

¹⁶Uriah the priest did just what King Ahaz commanded.

¹⁷Then King Ahaz removed the panels and the basins from the portable stands; he also took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it and put it on a stone pavement. ¹⁸He removed the covered walkway for the Sabbath that they had built at the temple, along with the king’s entry outside the temple of Yahweh, because of the king of Assyria. ¹⁹As for the other matters concerning Ahaz and what he did, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Judah? ²⁰Ahaz slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David. Hezekiah his son became king in his place.

Chapter 17

¹In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, the reign of Hoshea son of Elah began. He ruled in Samaria over Israel for nine years. ²He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him. ³Shalmaneser king of Assyria attacked him, and Hoshea became his servant and brought him tribute. ⁴Then the king of Assyria realized that Hoshea had been plotting against him, for Hoshea had sent messengers to So king of Egypt; also, he offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. So the king of Assyria shut him up and bound him in prison. ⁵Then the king of Assyria attacked throughout all the land, and attacked Samaria and besieged it for three years. ⁶In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria and carried Israel away to Assyria. He put them in Halah, at the Habor River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

¹¹There they burned incense in all the high places, as the nations had done, those whom Yahweh had carried away before them. The Israelites performed wicked things to provoke Yahweh to anger; ¹²they worshiped idols, about which Yahweh had said to them, “You will not do this thing.” ¹³Yet Yahweh had testified to Israel and to Judah by every prophet and every seer, saying, “Turn from your evil ways and keep my commandments and my statutes, and be careful to keep all the law I commanded your fathers, and that I sent to you by my servants the prophets.” ¹⁴But they would not listen; instead they were very stubborn like their fathers who did not trust in Yahweh their God.

¹⁵They rejected his statutes and the covenant that he had made with their ancestors, and the covenant decrees that he had given to them. They followed useless practices and they themselves became useless. They followed the pagan nations who were around them, those that Yahweh had commanded them not to imitate. ¹⁶They ignored all the commandments of Yahweh their God. They made cast metal figures of two calves to worship. They made an Asherah pole, and they worshiped all the stars of the heavens and Baal. ¹⁷They made their sons and daughters pass through the fire, they used divination and enchantments, they sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and they provoked him to anger. ¹⁸Therefore Yahweh was very angry with Israel and removed them out of his sight. There was no one left but the tribe of Judah alone.

¹⁹Even Judah did not keep the commandments of Yahweh their God, and they followed the practices that Israel had done. ²⁰So Yahweh rejected all the descendants of Israel; he afflicted them and gave them into the hand of those who would take the possession as spoil, until he had cast them out of his sight. ²¹He tore Israel from the royal line of David, and they made Jeroboam son of Nebat king. Jeroboam drove Israel away from following Yahweh and made them commit a great sin. ²²The people of Israel followed all the sins of Jeroboam and they did not depart from them, ²³so Yahweh removed Israel from his sight, as he had said through all his servants the prophets that he would. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria, and it is this way to this present day.

²⁴The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon and from Kuthah, and from Avva, and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria in place of the people of Israel. They took over Samaria and lived in its cities. ²⁵It happened at the beginning of their residence there that they did not honor Yahweh. So Yahweh sent lions among them which killed some of them. ²⁶So they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations that you have carried away and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the practices required by the god of the land. So he has sent lions among them, and, see, the lions are killing people there because they do not know the practices required by the god of the land."

²⁷Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Take one of the priests there whom you brought from there, and let him go and live there, and let him teach them the practices required by the god of the land." ²⁸So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel; he taught them how they should honor Yahweh. ²⁹Every ethnic group made gods of their own, and put them in the high places that the Samaritans had made—every ethnic group in the cities where they lived. ³⁰The people of Babylon made Succoth Benoth; the people of Kuthah made Nergal; the people of Hamath made Ashima; ³¹the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak. The Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelek and Anammelek, the gods of the Sepharvites. ³²They also honored Yahweh, and appointed from among themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the temples at the high places. ³³They honored Yahweh and also worshiped their own gods, in the customs of the nations from among whom they had been taken away.

³⁴To this day they persist in their old customs. They neither honor Yahweh, nor do they follow the statutes, decrees, the law, or the commandments that Yahweh gave to the people of Jacob—whom he named Israel— ³⁵and with whom Yahweh had made a covenant and commanded them, "You will not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor worship them, nor sacrifice to them. ³⁶But Yahweh, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and a raised arm, is the one you must honor; it is to him that you will prostrate yourselves, and it is to him that you will sacrifice. ³⁷The statutes and the decrees, the law and the commandments that he wrote for you, you will keep them forever. So you must not fear other gods, ³⁸and the covenant that I have made with you, you will not forget; neither will you honor other gods. ³⁹But Yahweh your God is who you will honor. He will rescue you from the might of your enemies." ⁴⁰They would not listen, because they continued to do what they had done in the past. ⁴¹So these nations feared Yahweh and they also worshiped their carved figures, and their children did the same—as did their children's children. They continue to do what their ancestors did, up to this day.

Chapter 18

¹Now in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz, king of Judah began to reign.

²He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah; she was the daughter of Zechariah. ³He did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh, following the example of all that David, his ancestor, had done. ⁴He removed the high places, destroyed the stone pillars, and cut down the Asherah poles. He broke to pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, because in those days the people of Israel were burning incense to it; it was called "Nehushtan." ⁵Hezekiah trusted in Yahweh, the God of Israel, so that after him there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among the kings who were before him. ⁶For he held on to Yahweh. He did not stop following him but kept his commandments, which Yahweh commanded Moses. ⁷So Yahweh was with Hezekiah, and wherever he went he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him. ⁸He attacked the Philistines to Gaza and the borders around, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city.

⁹In the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it. ¹⁰At the end of three years they took it, in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel; in this way Samaria was captured. ¹¹So the king of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria and put them in Halah, and at the Habor River in Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. ¹²He did this because they did not obey the voice of Yahweh their God, but they violated the terms of his covenant, all that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded. They refused to listen to it or do it.

¹³Then in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them. ¹⁴So Hezekiah king of Judah sent word to the king of Assyria, who was at Lachish, saying, "I have offended you. Withdraw from me. Whatever you put on me I will bear." The king of Assyria required Hezekiah king of Judah to pay three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. ¹⁵So Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of Yahweh and in the treasuries of the king's palace. ¹⁶Then Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of Yahweh and from the pillars that he had overlaid; he gave the gold to the king of Assyria. ¹⁷But the king of Assyria mobilized his great army, sending Tartan and Rabsaris and the chief commander from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They traveled up the roads and arrived outside Jerusalem. They approached the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway of the launderers' field, and stood by it. ¹⁸When they had called to King Hezekiah, Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, went out to meet them.

¹⁹So the chief commander said to them to tell Hezekiah what the great king, the king of Assyria, said: "What is the source of your confidence? ²⁰You speak only useless words, saying there are allies and strength for war. In whom are you trusting, that you should rebel against me? ²¹Look, you trust in the walking stick of this bruised reed of Egypt, but if a man leans on it, it will stick into his hand and pierce it. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt is to anyone who trusts in him. ²²But if you say to me, 'We are trusting in Yahweh our God,' is not he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem?' ²³Now therefore, I want to make you a good offer from my master the king of Assyria. I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to find riders for them. ²⁴How could you resist even one captain of the least of my master's servants? You have put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen! ²⁵Have I traveled up here without Yahweh to fight against this place and destroy it? Yahweh said to me, 'Attack this land and destroy it.'"

²⁶Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, and Shebna, and Joah said to the chief commander, "Please speak to your servants in the Aramaic language, for we understand it. Do not speak with us in the language of Judah in the ears of the people who are on the wall." ²⁷But the chief commander said to them, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, who will have to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?" ²⁸Then the chief commander stood and shouted in a loud voice in the Jews' language, saying, "Listen to the word of the great king, the king of Assyria. ²⁹The king says, 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to rescue you from my power. ³⁰Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh, saying, 'Yahweh will surely rescue us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'" ³¹Do not listen to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: 'Make peace with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and from his own fig tree, and drink from the water in his own cistern. ³²You will do this until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey, so that you may live and not die.' Do not listen to Hezekiah when he tries to persuade you, saying, 'Yahweh will rescue us.' ³³Has any of the gods of the peoples rescued them out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ³⁴Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? Have they rescued Samaria out of my hand? ³⁵Among all the gods of the lands, is there any god who has rescued his land from my power? How could Yahweh save Jerusalem from my might?"

³⁶But the people remained silent and did not respond, for the king had commanded, "Do not answer him." ³⁷Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household; Shebna the scribe; and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and reported to him the words of the chief commander.

Chapter 19

¹It came about that when King Hezekiah heard their report, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yahweh. ²He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, all covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet. ³They said to him, "Hezekiah says, 'This day is a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace, for the children have come to the time of birth, but there is no strength for them to be born. ⁴It may be that Yahweh your God will hear all the words of the chief commander, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Now lift up your prayer for the remnant that is still here.'" ⁵So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah, ⁶and Isaiah said to them, "Say to your master: 'Yahweh says, "Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have insulted me. ⁷Look, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear a certain report and go back to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'" ⁸Then the chief commander returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had gone away from Lachish. ⁹Then Sennacherib heard that Tirhakah king of Cush and Egypt had mobilized to fight against him, so he sent messengers again to Hezekiah with a message: ¹⁰"Say to Hezekiah king of Judah, 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem will not be given over into the hand of the king of Assyria.'" ¹¹See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them completely. So will you be rescued? ¹²Have the gods of the nations rescued them, the nations that my fathers destroyed: Gozan, Haran, Rezepth, and the people of Eden in Tel Assar? ¹³Where are the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the cities of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?"

¹⁴Hezekiah received this letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the house of Yahweh and spread it before him. ¹⁵Then Hezekiah prayed before Yahweh and said, "Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, you who sit above the cherubim, you are God alone over all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁶Turn your ear, Yahweh, and listen. Open your eyes, Yahweh, and see, and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God. ¹⁷Truly, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands. ¹⁸They have put their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but the work of men's hands, just wood and stone. So the Assyrians have destroyed them. ¹⁹Now then, Yahweh our God, save us, I implore you, from his power, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, Yahweh, are God alone."

²⁰Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah, saying, "Yahweh, the God of Israel says, 'Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard you. ²¹This is the word that Yahweh has spoken about him:

"The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and laughs you to scorn.

The daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at you.

²²Whom have you defied and insulted?

Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes in pride?

Against the Holy One of Israel!

²³By your messengers

you have defied the Lord, and have said,

'With the multitude of my chariots
I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the highest elevations of Lebanon.
I will cut down the tall cedars and the choice cypress trees there.
I will enter into its farthest parts, its most fruitful forest.

²⁴I have dug wells and have drunk foreign waters.
I dried up all the rivers of Egypt under the soles of my feet.'

²⁵Have you not heard how I determined it long ago,
and worked it out in ancient times?
Now I am bringing it to pass.
You are here to reduce impregnable cities into heaps of ruins.

²⁶Their inhabitants, of little strength, are shattered and ashamed.
They are plants in the field,
green grass,
the grass on the roof or in the field, burned before it has grown up.

²⁷But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in,
and your raging against me.

²⁸Because of your raging against me,
and because your arrogance has reached my ears,
I will put my hook in your nose,
and my bit in your mouth;
I will turn you back

the way you came.”

²⁹This will be the sign for you:

This year you will eat what grows wild, and in the second year what grows from that.

But in the third year you must plant and harvest, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

³⁰The remnant of the house of Judah that survives will again take root and bear fruit.

³¹For from Jerusalem a remnant will come out, from Mount Zion survivors will come. The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will do this. ³²Therefore Yahweh says this about the king of Assyria:

“He will not come into this city nor shoot an arrow here.

Neither will he come before it with shield or build up a siege ramp against it.

³³The way by which he came will be the same way he will leave;

he will not enter this city—

this is Yahweh’s declaration.”

³⁴For I will defend this city and rescue it, for my own sake and for my servant David’s sake.”

³⁵It came about that night that the angel of Yahweh went out and attacked the camp of the Assyrians, putting to death 185,000 soldiers. When the men arose early in the morning, dead bodies lay everywhere. ³⁶So Sennacherib king of Assyria left Israel and went home and stayed in Nineveh. ³⁷Later, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisrok his god, his sons Adrammelek and Sharezer killed him with the sword. Then they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son became king in his place.

Chapter 20

¹In those days Hezekiah was sick to the point of dying. So Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet came to him, and said to him, “Yahweh says, ‘Set your house in order; for you will die, and not live.’” ²Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Yahweh, saying, ³“Please, Yahweh, call to mind how I have faithfully walked before you with my whole heart, and how I have done what was good in your sight.” Then Hezekiah wept loudly. ⁴Before Isaiah had gone out into the middle courtyard, the word of Yahweh came to him, saying, ⁵“Turn back, and say to Hezekiah, the leader of my people, ‘This is what Yahweh, the God of David your ancestor, says: “I have heard your prayer, and I have seen your tears. I am about to heal you on the third day, and you will go up to the house of Yahweh. ⁶I will add fifteen years to your life, and I will rescue you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city for my own sake and for my servant David's sake." 7 So Isaiah said, "Take a lump of figs." They did so and put it on his boil, and he recovered.

8 Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What will be the sign that Yahweh will heal me, and that I should go up to the temple of Yahweh on the third day?" 9 Isaiah replied, "This will be the sign for you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do the thing that he has spoken. Shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?" 10 Hezekiah answered, "It is an easy thing for the shadow to go forward ten steps. No, let the shadow go backward ten steps." 11 So Isaiah the prophet cried out to Yahweh, and he brought the shadow ten steps backward, from where it had moved on the stairway of Ahaz.

12 At that time Marduk-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. 13 Hezekiah listened to those letters, and then showed the messengers all the palace and his valuable things, the silver, the gold, the spices and precious oil, and the storehouse of his weapons, and all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his kingdom, that Hezekiah did not show them. 14 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, "What did these men say to you? Where did they come from?" Hezekiah said, "They came from the distant country of Babylon." 15 Isaiah asked, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing among my valuable things that I have not shown them."

16 So Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Listen to the word of Yahweh: 17 Look, the days are about to come when everything in your palace, the things that your ancestors stored away until this present day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says Yahweh. 18 The sons born from you, whom you yourself have fathered—they will take them away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon." 19 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of Yahweh that you have spoken is good." For he thought, "Will there not be peace and stability in my days?" 20 As for the other matters concerning Hezekiah, and all his power, and how he constructed the pool and the conduit, and how he brought water into the city—are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Judah?

21 Hezekiah slept with his ancestors, and Manasseh his son became king in his place.

Chapter 21

1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. 2 He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh, like the disgusting things of the nations whom Yahweh had driven out before the people of Israel. 3 For he rebuilt the high places that Hezekiah his father had destroyed, and he built altars for Baal, made an Asherah pole, as Ahab king of Israel had done, and he bowed down to all the stars of heaven and worshiped them. 4 Manasseh built altars in the house of Yahweh, although Yahweh had commanded, "It is in Jerusalem that my name will be forever." 5 He built altars for all the stars of heaven in the two courtyards of the house of Yahweh. 6 He caused his son to pass through the fire, he performed sorcery and divination and consulted with those who talked with the dead and with those who talked with spirits. He did much evil in the sight of Yahweh, provoking him to anger. 7 The carved figure of Asherah that he had made, he placed it in the house of Yahweh. It was about this house that Yahweh had spoken to David and Solomon his son; he had said: "It is in this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, that I will put my name forever. 8 I will not cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land that I gave to their ancestors, if they will only be careful to obey all that I have commanded them, and to follow all the law that my servant Moses commanded them." 9 But the people did not listen, and Manasseh led them to do evil even more than the nations that Yahweh had destroyed before the people of Israel.

10 So Yahweh spoke by his servants the prophets, saying, 11 "Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these disgusting things, and has acted wickedly more than all that the Amorites who were before him did, and has also made Judah sin with his idols, 12 therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says this: Look, I am about to bring such evil on Jerusalem and Judah that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle. 13 I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line used against Samaria, and the plumb line used against the house of Ahab; I will wipe Jerusalem clean, as a man wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. ¹⁴I will throw off the remnant of my inheritance and give them into the hand of their enemies. They will become victims and plunder for all their enemies, ¹⁵because they have done what is evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their ancestors came out of Egypt, to this day."

¹⁶Moreover, Manasseh shed much innocent blood, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another with death. This was in addition to the sin by which he made Judah to sin, when they did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh. ¹⁷As for the other matters concerning Manasseh, all that he did, and the sin that he committed, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Judah? ¹⁸Manasseh slept with his ancestors and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza. Amon his son became king in his place.

¹⁹Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth; she was the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. ²⁰He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as Manasseh his father had done. ²¹Amon followed in all the way that his father had walked in and worshiped the idols that his father worshiped, and bowed down to them. ²²He abandoned Yahweh, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of Yahweh. ²³The servants of Amon conspired against him and put the king to death in his own house. ²⁴But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and they made Josiah his son king in his place. ²⁵As for the other matters concerning Amon that he did, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Judah? ²⁶The people buried him in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and Josiah his son became king in his place.

Chapter 22

¹Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah (she was the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath). ²He did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh. He walked in all the way of David his ancestor, and he did not turn away either to the right or to the left.

³It came about that in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of Yahweh, saying, ⁴"Go up to Hilkiyah the high priest and tell him to count the money that has been brought into the house of Yahweh, which the temple guards have gathered from the people. ⁵Let it be given into the hand of the workmen who are in charge of the house of Yahweh, and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of Yahweh, for them to make repairs to damage in the temple. ⁶Let them give money to the carpenters, the builders, and the masons, and also to buy timber and cut stone to repair the temple." ⁷But no accounting was required for the money that was given to them, because they handled it faithfully.

⁸Hilkiyah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the book of the law in the house of Yahweh." So Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. ⁹Shaphan went and took the book to the king, and also reported to him, saying, "Your servants have spent the money that was found in the temple and they have given it into the hand of the workmen who supervise the care for the house of Yahweh." ¹⁰Then Shaphan the scribe said to the king, "Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book." Then Shaphan read it to the king. ¹¹It came about that when the king had heard the words of the law, he tore his clothes. ¹²The king commanded Hilkiyah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Akbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah, his own servant, saying, ¹³"Go and consult with Yahweh for me, and for the people and for all Judah, because of the words of this book that has been found. For great is the anger of Yahweh that has been kindled against us because our ancestors have not listened to the words of this book so as to obey all that was written concerning us."

¹⁴So Hilkiyah the priest, Ahikam, Akbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter), and they spoke with her. ¹⁵She said to them, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'Tell the man who sent you to me, ¹⁶"This is what Yahweh says: 'See, I will bring disaster to this place and to its inhabitants, according to everything written in the book that the king of Judah has read. ¹⁷Because they have forsaken me and have burned incense to other gods, so that they might provoke me to anger with all the deeds they have committed—therefore my anger has been kindled against this place, and it will not be extinguished.”¹⁸ But to the king of Judah, who sent you to ask Yahweh’s will, this is what you will say to him: “Yahweh, the God of Israel says this: ‘About the words that you heard,¹⁹ because your heart was tender, and because you have humbled yourself before Yahweh, when you heard what I said against this place and its inhabitants, that they would become a desolation and a curse, and because you have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have listened to you—this is Yahweh’s declaration.²⁰ See, I will gather you to your ancestors, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster that I will bring upon this place.’” So the men took this message back to the king.

Chapter 23

¹So the king sent messengers who gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. ²Then the king went up to the house of Yahweh, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, prophets, and all the people, from small to great. He then read in their hearing all the words of the book of the Covenant that had been found in the house of Yahweh. ³The king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before Yahweh, to walk after Yahweh and to keep his commandments, his regulations, and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to confirm the words of this covenant that were written in this book. So all the people agreed to stand by the covenant.

⁴The king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, the priests under him, and the gatekeepers to bring out of the temple of Yahweh all the vessels that were made for Baal and Asherah, and for all the stars of heaven. He burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields in the Kidron Valley and carried their ashes to Bethel. ⁵He got rid of the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had chosen to burn incense at the high places in the cities of Judah and in the places around Jerusalem—those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun and the moon, to the planets, and to all the stars of heaven. ⁶He brought out the Asherah pole from the temple of Yahweh, outside Jerusalem to the Kidron Valley and burned it there. He beat it to dust and threw that dust onto the graves of the common people. ⁷He cleared out the rooms of the cultic prostitutes who were in the temple of Yahweh, where the women wove garments for Asherah. ⁸Josiah brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba. He destroyed the high places at the gates that were at the entrance to the gate of Joshua (the city governor), on the left side of the city gate. ⁹Although the priests of those high places were not allowed to serve at the altar of Yahweh in Jerusalem, they ate unleavened bread among their brothers. ¹⁰Josiah defiled Topheth, which is in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, so that no one might cause his son or his daughter to pass through the fire as a sacrifice to Molech. ¹¹He took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun. They had been in an area at the entrance to the temple of Yahweh, near the room of Nathan-Melek, the chamberlain. Josiah burned the chariots of the sun. ¹²Josiah the king destroyed the altars that were on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars that Manasseh had made in the two courts of the temple of Yahweh. Josiah smashed them into pieces and threw them into the Kidron Valley. ¹³The king ruined the high places east of Jerusalem, south of the mount of corruption that Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth, the detestable idol of the Sidonians; for Chemosh, the detestable idol of Moab; and for Molech, the detestable idol of the people of Ammon. ¹⁴He broke the stone pillars into pieces and cut down the Asherah poles and he filled those places with the bones of human beings.

¹⁵Josiah also completely destroyed the altar that was at Bethel and the high place that Jeroboam son of Nebat (the one who made Israel to sin) had constructed. He also burned that altar and the high place and beat it to dust. He also burned the Asherah pole. ¹⁶As Josiah looked over the area, he noticed the graves that were on the hillside. He sent men to take the bones from the graves; then he burned them on the altar, which defiled it. This was according to the word of Yahweh which the man of God had spoken, the man who spoke of these things beforehand. ¹⁷Then he said, “What monument is that I see?” The men of the city told him, “That is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and spoke about these things that you have just done against the altar of Bethel.” ¹⁸So Josiah said, “Let it alone. No one should move his bones.” So they let his bones alone, along with the bones of the prophet who had come from Samaria. ¹⁹Then Josiah removed all the houses on the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made, and that provoked Yahweh to anger. He did to them exactly what had been done at Bethel. ²⁰He slaughtered all the priests of the high places on the altars and he burned human bones on them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

²¹Then the king commanded all the people, saying, "Keep the Passover to Yahweh your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant." ²²Such a Passover celebration had never been held from the days of the judges who ruled Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel or Judah. ²³But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah this Passover of Yahweh was celebrated in Jerusalem.

²⁴Josiah also banished those who talked with the dead or with spirits. He also banished the fetishes, the idols, and all the disgusting things that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, so as to confirm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest had found in the house of Yahweh. ²⁵Before Josiah, there had been no king like him, who turned to Yahweh with all his heart, all his soul, and all his might, who followed all the law of Moses. Nor did any king like Josiah arise after him.

²⁶Nevertheless, Yahweh did not turn away from the burning of his fierce anger, which burned against Judah because of all that Manasseh had done to provoke him to anger. ²⁷So Yahweh said, "I will also remove Judah out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will throw away this city that I have chosen, Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, 'My name will be there.'"

²⁸As for the other matters concerning Josiah, everything that he did, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Judah? ²⁹In his days, Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt, went to fight against the king of Assyria at the Euphrates River. King Josiah went to meet Necho in battle, and Necho killed him at Megiddo. ³⁰Josiah's servants carried him dead in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own grave. Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in his father's place.

³¹Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal; she was the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ³²Jehoahaz did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh, like everything that his ancestors had done. ³³Pharaoh Necho put him in chains at Riblah in the land of Hamath, so that he might not reign in Jerusalem. Then Necho fined Judah one hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold. ³⁴Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz away to Egypt, and Jehoahaz died there. ³⁵Jehoiakim paid the silver and gold to Pharaoh. In order to meet the demand of Pharaoh, Jehoiakim taxed the land and he forced each man among the people of the land to pay him the silver and gold according to their assessments.

³⁶Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah; she was the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. ³⁷Jehoiakim did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh, just as his ancestors had done.

Chapter 24

¹In Jehoiakim's days, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked Judah; Jehoiakim became his servant for three years. Then Jehoiakim turned back and rebelled against Nebuchadnezzar. ²Yahweh sent against Jehoiakim bands of Chaldeans, Arameans, Moabites, and Ammonites; he sent them against Judah to destroy it. This was in conformity with the word of Yahweh that had been spoken through his servants the prophets. ³It was certainly at the mouth of Yahweh that this came on Judah, to remove them out of his sight, because of the sins of Manasseh, all that he did, ⁴and also because of the innocent blood that he shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood. Yahweh was not willing to pardon that. ⁵As for the other matters concerning Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the events of the kings of Judah? ⁶Jehoiakim slept with his ancestors, and Jehoiachin his son became king in his place. ⁷The king of Egypt did not attack any more out of his land, because the king of Babylon had conquered all the lands that had been controlled by the king of Egypt, from the brook of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

⁸Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta; she was the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. ⁹He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh; he did all that his father had done.

¹⁰At that time the army of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked Jerusalem and besieged the city.

¹¹Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to the city while his soldiers were besieging it, ¹²and Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, his mother, his servants, his princes, and his officers. The king of Babylon captured him in the eighth year of his own reign. ¹³Nebuchadnezzar took out from there all the valuable things in the house of Yahweh, and those in the king's palace. He cut into pieces all the golden objects that Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of Yahweh, as Yahweh had said would happen. ¹⁴He took into exile all Jerusalem, all the leaders, and all the fighting men, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths. No one was left except the poorest people in the land. ¹⁵Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin into exile at Babylon, as well as the king's mother, wives, officers, and the chief men of the land. He took them into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. ¹⁶All the fighting men, seven thousand in number, and one thousand craftsmen and blacksmiths, all of them fit for fighting—the king of Babylon brought these men into exile at Babylon. ¹⁷The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's father's brother, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

¹⁸Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal; she was the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. ¹⁹He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh; he did all that Jehoiakim had done. ²⁰Through Yahweh's anger, all these events happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he drove them out of his presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

¹It happened that in the ninth year of the reign of King Zedekiah, in the tenth month, and on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem. He camped opposite it, and they built a siege wall around it. ²So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah's reign. ³On the ninth day of the fourth month of that year, the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land. ⁴Then the city was broken into, and all the fighting men fled at night by the way of the gate between the two walls, by the king's garden, although the Chaldeans were all around the city. The king went in the direction of the Arabah. ⁵But the army of Chaldeans pursued King Zedekiah and overtook him in the plains of the Jordan River valley near Jericho. All his army was scattered away from him. ⁶They captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, where they passed sentence on him. ⁷As for Zedekiah's sons, they slaughtered them before his eyes. Then he put out his eyes, bound him in bronze chains, and brought him to Babylon.

⁸Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, a servant of the king of Babylon and commander of his bodyguards, came to Jerusalem. ⁹He burned the house of Yahweh, the king's palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem; also every important building in the city he burned. ¹⁰As for all the walls around Jerusalem, all the army of the Babylonians who were under the commander of the bodyguard destroyed them. ¹¹As for the rest of the people who were left in the city, those who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the remainder of the population—Nebuzaradan, the commander of the bodyguard, took them away into exile. ¹²But the commander of the bodyguard did leave some of the poorest of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

¹³As for the bronze pillars that were in the house of Yahweh, and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the house of Yahweh, the Chaldeans broke them into pieces and carried the bronze back to Babylon. ¹⁴The pots, shovels, lamp trimmers, spoons, and all the utensils of bronze with which the priests had served in the temple—the Chaldeans took them all away. ¹⁵The pots for removing ashes and the bowls that were made of gold, and those made of silver—the captain of the king's guard took them away as well. ¹⁶The two pillars, the sea, and the stands that Solomon had made for the house of Yahweh contained more bronze than could be weighed. ¹⁷The height of the first pillar was eighteen cubits, and a capital of bronze was on top of it. The capital was three cubits high, with latticework and pomegranates all around on the capital, all made of bronze. The other pillar and its latticework were the same as the first.

¹⁸The commander of the bodyguard took Seraiah the chief priest, together with Zephaniah, the second priest, and the three gatekeepers. ¹⁹From the city he took prisoner an officer who was in charge of soldiers, and five men of those who advised the king, who were still in the city. He also took prisoner the king's army officer responsible for drafting men into the army, along with sixty important men from the land who were in the city. ²⁰Then Nebuzaradan, the commander of the bodyguard, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²¹The king of Babylon put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. In this way, Judah went out of its land into exile.

²²As for the people who remained in the land of Judah, those whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, he put Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, in charge of them. ²³Now when all the commanders of the soldiers, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they went to Gedaliah at Mizpah. These men were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah son of the Maakathite—they and their men. ²⁴Gedaliah made an oath to them and to their men, and said to them, "Do not be afraid of the Chaldean officials. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you." ²⁵But it happened that in the seventh month Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, from the royal family, came with ten men and attacked Gedaliah. Gedaliah died, along with the men of Judah and the Babylonians who were with him at Mizpah. ²⁶Then all the people, from the least to the greatest, and the commanders of the soldiers, arose and went to Egypt, because they were afraid of the Babylonians.

²⁷It happened later in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, that Awel-Marduk king of Babylon released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison. This happened in the year that Awel-Marduk began to reign. ²⁸He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat more honorable than that of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. ²⁹Awel-Marduk removed Jehoiachin's prison clothes, and Jehoiachin ate regularly at the king's table for the rest of his life. ³⁰A regular food allowance was given to him every day for the rest of his life.

Chapter 4

¹The sons of Judah: Perez, Hezron, and Karmi, and Hur, and Shobal. ²And Reaiah the son of Shobal fathered Jahath. And Jahath fathered Ahumai and Lahad. These, the clans of the Zorathites. ³And these of the father Etam: Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash. And the name of their sister, Hazzelepuni. ⁴And Penuel, the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah; these, the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Bethlehem. ⁵And to Ashhur the father of Tekoa were two wives, Helah and Naarah. ⁶And Naarah bore to him Ahuzzam, and Hephher, and Temeni, and Haahashtari. These, the sons of Naarah. ⁷And the sons of Helah: Zereth, and Zohar, and Ethnan. ⁸And Koz fathered Anub and Hazzobebah. And the clans of Aharhel, the son of Harum. ⁹And Jabez was respected more than his brothers. And his mother called his name Jabez, saying, "Because I bore in pain." ¹⁰And Jabez called to the God of Israel, saying, "Oh that you would surely bless me, and would enlarge my territory, and your hand would be with me, and you would act not in accordance with harm, so that I might not be in pain!" And God brought about what he asked. ¹¹And Kelub, the brother of Shuhah, fathered Mehiri; he, the father of Eshton. ¹²And Eshton fathered Beth Rapha, and Paseah, and Tehinnah, the father of Ir Nahash.^[1] These, the men of Rekah. ¹³And the sons of Kenaz: Othniel and Seraiah. And the sons of Othniel: Hathath.^[2] ¹⁴And Meonothai fathered Ophrah, and Seraiah fathered Joab, the father of Ge-Harashim, for craftsmen they were. ¹⁵And the sons of Caleb, the son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah, and Naam. And the sons of Elah: Kenaz. ¹⁶And the sons of Jehallelel: Ziph, and Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel. ¹⁷And the sons of Ezra: Jether, and Mered, and Epher, and Jalon. And she conceived Miriam, and Shammai, and Ishbah, the father of Eshtemoa. ¹⁸And his Judahite wife bore Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. And these, the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took. ¹⁹And the sons of the wife of Hodiah, the sister of Naham, the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maakathite. ²⁰And the sons of Shimon: Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi: Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth. ²¹The sons of Shelah the son of Judah: Er the father of Lekah, and Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the clans of the house of the service of linen at Beth Ashbea, ²²and Jokim, and the men of Kozeba, and Joash and Saraph, who ruled in Moab and Jashubi Lehem. And the words are ancient. ²³These, the potters and inhabitants in Netaim and Gederah. With the king in his work, they lived there.

²⁴The sons of Simeon: Nemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul; ²⁵Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son. ²⁶And the sons of Mishma: Hammuel his son; Zakkur his son; Shimei his son. ²⁷And to Shimei, 16 sons and six daughters; but to his brothers, not many sons, and all their clan did not multiply like the sons of Judah. ²⁸And they lived in Beersheba, and Moladah, and Hazar Shual, ²⁹and in Bilhah, and in Ezem, and in Tolad, ³⁰and in Bethuel, and in Hormah, and in Ziklag, ³¹and in Beth Markaboth, and in Hazar Susim, and in Beth Biri, and in Shaaraim. These, their cities until the reign of David. ³²And their villages: Etam, and Ain, and Rimmon, and Token, and Ashan, five towns, ³³and all their villages which are around these towns as far as Baal. These, their settlements, and their genealogy was to them. ³⁴And Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah, ³⁵and Joel, and Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, ³⁶and Elioenai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshohaiah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimiel, and Benaiah, ³⁷and Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah. ³⁸These mentioned by name, leaders in their clans and the house of their fathers broke through into a multitude. ³⁹And they went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as to the east of the valley, to seek pasture for their flock. ⁴⁰And they found rich and good pasture, and the land was broad of hands, and quiet, and peaceful; for those from Ham had lived there before faces. ⁴¹And these, written by names, came in the days of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, and struck down their tents and the Meunites, who were found there. And they destroyed them completely to this day, and they lived in their place because pasture for their flock was there. ⁴²And from them, from the sons of Simeon, they went to Mount Seir, 500 men, and Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, their heads. ⁴³And they struck down the rest of the Amalekites who escaped, and they have lived there to this day.

¹And the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel; for he was the firstborn, but when he defiled the bed of his father, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel, and not recorded according to the birthright, ²though Judah was superior among his brothers, and a leader was from him, but the birthright was to Joseph— ³the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Hanok, and Pallu, Hezron, and Karmi. ⁴The sons of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, ⁵Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son, ⁶Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-Pileser, the king of Assyria, took into exile. He was a leader of the Reubenites. ⁷And his brothers by his clans in the genealogy of their generations: the head Jeiel, and Zechariah, ⁸and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel; he lived in Aroer, and as far as Nebo and Baal Meon, ⁹and to the east he lived as far as the entrance of the wilderness extending to the Euphrates River; for their livestock multiplied in the land of Gilead. ¹⁰And in the days of Saul, they made war with the Hagarites and they fell into their hand. And they lived in their tents over all the face of the east of Gilead.

¹¹And the sons of Gad lived opposite them in the land of Bashan as far as Salekah: ¹²Joel the head, and Shapham the second, and Janai, and Shaphat in Bashan. ¹³And their brothers, according to the house of their fathers: Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jakan, and Zia, and Eber, seven. ¹⁴These, the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshisha, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz. ¹⁵Ahi, the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, head of the house of their fathers. ¹⁶And they lived in Gilead, in Bashan, and in its daughters, and in all the pasturelands of Sharon as far as their borders. ¹⁷All of them were listed in the genealogies in the days of Jotham, the king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam, the king of Israel.

¹⁸The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh from sons of strength, men who carried shield and sword, and who bent the bow, and who were trained in battle, 44,760 who went out to war. ¹⁹And they made war with the Hagarites, and Jetur, and Naphish, and Nodab. ²⁰And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were given into their hand and all who were with them. For they cried out to God in the battle, and he granted their entreaty because they trusted in him. ²¹And they took captive their livestock: their camels 50,000, and sheep 250,000, and donkeys 2,000, and living people 100,000. ²²For many fell slain because the battle was from God. And they lived in their place until the exile.

²⁵And they acted faithlessly against the God of their fathers, and they acted like a harlot after the gods of the peoples of the land whom God had destroyed before their faces. ²⁶And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul, the king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath-Pileser, the king of Assyria. And he took them into exile, namely the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh. And he brought them to Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and the river of Gozan until this day.

Chapter 6

¹The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ²And the sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. ³And the sons of Amram: Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam. ³¹And these whom David set up over hands of song in the house of Yahweh, after the Box came to rest. ³²And they were the ones ministering to the face of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, with song until Solomon built the house of Yahweh in Jerusalem. And they stood according to their judgments over their service.

³³And these, the ones standing and their sons. From the sons of the Kohathites: Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel, ³⁴the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, ³⁵the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, ³⁶the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, ³⁷the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, ³⁸the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

³⁹And his brother Asaph who stood at his right hand, Asaph, the son of Berekiah, the son of Shimea, ⁴⁰the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malkijah, ⁴¹the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, ⁴²the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, ⁴³the son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi. ⁴⁴And the sons of Merari, their brothers, on the left: Ethan, the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluk, ⁴⁵the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, ⁴⁶the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, ⁴⁷the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

⁴⁸And their brothers, the Levites, were set to all the service of the tabernacle of the house of God. ⁴⁹And Aaron and his sons made sacrifices on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense for all the work of the Holy of Holies and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. ⁵⁰And these, the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, ⁵¹Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, ⁵²Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, ⁵³Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son. ⁵⁴And these, their dwellings according to their encampments in their borders. To the sons of Aaron, to the clans of the Kohathites, for to them was the lot. ⁵⁵And they gave to them Hebron in the land of Judah and its surrounding pasturelands, ⁵⁶but the field of the city and its villages, they gave to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh.

⁵⁷And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge: Hebron, and Libnah and its pasturelands, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa and its pasturelands, ⁵⁸and Hilez and its pasturelands, Debir and its pasturelands, ⁵⁹and Ashan and its pasturelands,^[2] and Beth Shemesh and its pasturelands. ⁶⁰And from the tribe of Benjamin: Geba and its pasturelands, and Alemeth and its pasturelands, and Anathoth and its pasturelands.

All their cities, 13 cities, among their clans.

⁶¹And to the sons of Kohath remaining from the clan of the tribe, from the half tribe, the half of Manasseh, by lot, ten cities. ⁶²And to the sons of Gershom, for their clans, from the tribe of Issachar and from the tribe of Asher and from the tribe of Naphtali and from the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, 13 cities. ⁶³To the sons of Merari, for their clans, from the tribe of Reuben and from the tribe of Gad and from the tribe of Zebulun, by lot, 12 cities. ⁶⁴And the sons of Israel gave to the Levites the cities and their pasturelands. ⁶⁵And they gave by lot from the tribe of the sons of Judah and from the tribe of the sons of Simeon and from the tribe of the sons of Benjamin these cities which they called them by names.

⁶⁶And from the clans of the sons of Kohath; and there were cities of their territory from the tribe of Ephraim. ⁶⁷And they gave to them the cities of refuge: Shechem and its pasturelands in the hill country of Ephraim, and Gezer and its pasturelands, ⁶⁸and Jokmeam and its pasturelands, and Beth Horon and its pasturelands, ⁶⁹and Aijalon and its pasturelands, and Gath Rimmon and its pasturelands. ⁷⁰And from the half tribe of Manasseh, Aner and its pasturelands, and Bileam and its pasturelands, for the clans of the sons of Kohath remaining.

Chapter 10

¹And the Philistines fought with Israel. And the men of Israel fled from the faces of the Philistines, and they fell slain on Mount Gilboa. ²And the Philistines pursued after Saul and after his sons. And the Philistines struck down Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malki-Shua, the sons of Saul. ³And the battle was heavy against Saul, and those who shoot with the bow found him, and he writhed in pain from the ones shooting. ⁴Then Saul said to the lifter of his equipment, "Draw your sword and pierce me with it, lest these uncircumcised will come and mistreat me." But the lifter of his equipment was not willing, for he feared greatly. And Saul took the sword, and he fell on it. ⁵And the lifter of his equipment saw that Saul had died, and he himself likewise fell on the sword, and he died. ⁶And Saul died, and his three sons. And all his house died together.

⁷And every man of Israel who was in the valley saw that they had fled, and that Saul and his sons had died. And they abandoned their cities, and they fled. And the Philistines came, and they lived in them. ⁸And it happened on the next day, and the Philistines came to strip the slain, and they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹And they stripped him, and they carried away his head and his armor. And they sent among the land of the Philistines all around to bring news to their idols and the people. ¹⁰And they put his armor in the house of their gods, and his head they fastened in the house of Dagon. ¹¹And all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines did to Saul, ¹²and all the men of strength rose, and they carried the corpse of Saul and the corpses of his sons. And they brought them to Jabesh. And they buried their bones under the large tree in Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.

¹³And Saul died because of his infidelity which he was unfaithful to Yahweh on account of the word of Yahweh which he did not keep, and also to ask a medium to seek, ¹⁴and he did not seek Yahweh, and he killed him. And he turned the kingdom to David, the son of Jesse.

Chapter 11

¹And all Israel gathered to David at Hebron, saying, "Look, your bones and your flesh are we. ²Even yesterday also the day before that, even when Saul was king, you were the one who brought out and the one who brought in Israel. And Yahweh your God said to you, 'You yourself will shepherd my people, Israel, and you yourself will be leader over my people Israel.'" ³And all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David cut with them a covenant at Hebron before the face of Yahweh. And they anointed David king over Israel according to the word of Yahweh by the hand of Samuel.

¹⁰And these, the heads of the mighty ones who belonged to David strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of Yahweh concerning Israel. ¹¹And these, the number of the mighty ones who belonged to David: Jashobeam, a son of a Hachmonite, the head of the officers^[1]. He swung his spear against 300, slain at one time. ¹²And after him, Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, he among the three mighty ones. ¹³He was with David at Pas Dammim, and the Philistines had assembled there for battle. And there was a portion of the field full of barley. And the people fled from the faces of the Philistines. ¹⁴And they took their stand in the midst of the portion. And they delivered it, and they struck down the Philistines. And Yahweh saved a great salvation.

¹⁵And three from the 30 heads went down to the rock to David, to the cave of Adullam. And the camp of the Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁶And David then was in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines then was in Bethlehem. ¹⁷And David desired, and he said, "Who will give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate?" ¹⁸And the three broke through the camp of the Philistines, and they drew water from the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate. And they carried, and they brought to David. But David was not willing to drink it, and he poured it out to Yahweh. ¹⁹And he said, "Far be it from me before my God from doing this! Do I drink the blood of these men with their lives? For with their lives they brought it." And he was not willing to drink it. These, the three mighty ones did.

²⁰And Abshai, the brother of Joab, he was the head of the Three. And he swung his spear against 300, slain. And to him a name among the Three. ²¹From the Three, in the second he was honored and he became to them a chief, but up to the Three he did not enter.

²²Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a man of strength, great deeds, from Kabzeel. He himself struck down the two of Ariel of Moab. And he himself went down, and he struck down the lion in the midst of the pit on the day of the snow. ²³And he himself struck down the man of Egypt, a man of stature, five cubits. And in the hand of the Egyptian, a spear like the beam of weavers, but he went down to him with a staff. And he seized the spear from the hand of the Egyptian, and he killed him with his spear. ²⁴These, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and to him a name among the three mighty ones. ²⁵From the 30, behold, he himself was honored, but to the three, he did not enter. And David set him over his bodyguard.

²⁶And the mighty ones of strength: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo from Bethlehem, ²⁷Shammoth the Hararite, Helez the Pelonite, ²⁸Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite, ²⁹Sibbekai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite, ³⁰Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite, ³¹Ithai the son of Ribai from Gibeah of the sons of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, ³²Hurai from the valleys of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite, ³³Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite, ³⁴the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shagee the Hararite, ³⁵Ahiam the son of Sakar the Hararite, Eliphai the son of Ur, ³⁶Hepher the Mekerathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, ³⁷Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai, ³⁸Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri, ³⁹Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the lifter of the equipment of Joab the son of Zeruiah, ⁴⁰Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, ⁴¹Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai, ⁴²Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a head of the Reubenites, and with him 30, ⁴³Hanan the son of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite, ⁴⁴Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, ⁴⁵Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite, ⁴⁶Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, ⁴⁷Eliel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

11:11 ^[1] or .

Chapter 12

⁸And from the Gadites they separated themselves to David at the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty in strength, men of the army for battle, ready with shield and spear, and faces of lions were their faces, and like gazelles on the hills to hasten. ⁹Ezer the head, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, ¹⁰Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, ¹¹Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, ¹²Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, ¹³Jeremiah the tenth, Makbannai the 11th. ¹⁴These from the sons of Gad, the heads of the army. One for 100, the least; and the greatest for 1,000. ¹⁵These, they who passed over the Jordan in the first month, and it was filling over all its banks, and caused to flee all the valleys, to the east and to the west.

¹⁶And from the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold to David. ¹⁷And David went out before their faces, and he answered, and he said to them: "If for peace you have come to me, to help me, my heart will be to you all for unity. But if to betray me to my adversaries, with no violence in my palms, may the God of our fathers see and rebuke." ¹⁸And the Spirit clothed Amasai, the head of the 30: "To you, O David, and with you, O Son of Jesse. Peace, peace to you and peace to the one who helps you, for your God has helped you." And David received them and placed them as the heads of the troop.

¹⁹And from Manasseh fell upon David when he went with the Philistines against Saul to battle. And they did not help them because by counsel the governors of the Philistines sent them away, saying, "By our heads he will fall to his lord, Saul." ²⁰In his going to Ziklag, they fell upon him from Manasseh: Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai, the heads of the thousands who were of Manasseh. ²¹And they helped with David against the troop, for mighty ones of strength, all of them, and they were chiefs in the army. ²²For at the time of day by day, they were coming to David to help him, until there was a great camp, like the camp of God.

²³And these, the numbers of the heads of those equipped for war. They came to David at Hebron to turn the kingdom of Saul to him according to the mouth of Yahweh. ²⁴The sons of Judah, those carrying shield and spear, 6,800, equipped for war. ²⁵From the sons of Simeon, mighty ones of strength for war, 7,100. ²⁶From the sons of Levi, 4,600. ²⁷And Jehoiada, the leader from Aaron, and with him, 3,700. ²⁸And Zadok, a young, mighty one of strength, and the house of his father, 22 chiefs. ²⁹And from the sons of Benjamin, the brothers of Saul, 3,000. And until then the majority of them were keeping the charge of the house of Saul. ³⁰And from the sons of Ephraim, 20,800 mighty ones of strength, men of names, according to the house of their fathers. ³¹And from the half tribe of Manasseh, 18,000 who were marked by names to come to make David king. ³²And from the sons of Issachar, those who knew understanding of the times to know what Israel should do, their heads, 200, and all their brothers according to their mouth. ³³From Zebulun, those going out for war, prepared for battle with all the weapons of battle, 50,000, and to help with no heart and a heart. ³⁴And from Naphtali, 1,000 chiefs, and with them with shield and spear, 37,000. ³⁵And from the Danites, prepared for battle, 28,600. ³⁶And from Asher those going out for war to prepare for battle, 40,000. ³⁷And from beyond the Jordan, from the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, with all the weapons of war for battle, 120,000.

³⁸All these men of battle, helpers of the battle line; with a whole heart, they came to Hebron to make David king over all Israel. And also all the rest of Israel was of one heart to make David king. ³⁹And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brothers had prepared for them. ⁴⁰And also, those near to them, as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing bread on donkeys, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen; food of flour, fig cakes, and raisins cakes, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep, in abundance, for joy was in Israel.

¹And David consulted with the chiefs of thousands and of hundreds, to every leader. ²And David said to all the assembly of Israel, "If to you all it is good, and from Yahweh our God, let us break out, let us send to our brothers who remain in all the regions of Israel, and with them the priests and the Levites in the cities of their pasturelands. And let them gather to us. ³And let us return the Box of our God to us, for we did not seek it in the days of Saul." ⁴And all the assembly said to do thus, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. ⁵And David assembled all Israel from Shihor of Egypt and as far as Lebo Hamath, to bring in the Box of God from Kiriath Jearim. ⁶And David went up and all Israel to Baalah, to Kiriath Jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the Box of God Yahweh who sits over the cherubim which is called by name. ⁷And they transported the Box of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab; and Uzzah and Ahio were driving the cart. ⁸And David and all Israel were celebrating before the face of God with all might, and with songs, and lyres, and harps, and tambourines, and cymbals, and trumpets.

⁹And they came to the threshing floor of Kidon, and Uzzah sent out his hand to grasp the Box for the oxen stumbled. ¹⁰And the anger of Yahweh burned against Uzzah, and He struck him down because he sent out his hand on the Box. And he died there before the face of God. ¹¹And David became angry because Yahweh broke out a breaking out against Uzzah. And he called that place Perez Uzzah until this day. ¹²And David feared God in that day, saying, "How will I bring to myself the Box of God?" ¹³And David did not remove the Box to himself, to the city of David, but he turned it to the house of Obed Edom the Gittite. ¹⁴And the Box of God dwelt with the house of Obed Edom in his house three months. And Yahweh blessed the house of Obed Edom and all that belonged to him.

Chapter 14

¹And Hiram the king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and wood of cedar, and craftsmen of a wall, and craftsmen of wood to build for him a house. ²And David knew that Yahweh had established him as king over Israel, that his kingdom was lifted upwards for the sake of his people Israel.

³And David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David fathered more sons and daughters. ⁴And these, the names of those born who were to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, ⁵and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpelet, ⁶and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, ⁷and Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

⁸Now the Philistines heard that David was anointed as king over all Israel, and all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard and went out before their faces. ⁹And the Philistines went, and they raided in the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁰Then David asked God, saying, "Should I go up against the Philistines? And will you give them into my hand?" And Yahweh said to him, "Go up and I will give them into your hand." ¹¹And they went up to Baal Perazim, and David struck them down there. And David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a breaking through of waters." Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim. ¹²And they abandoned their gods there, and David ordered, and they were burned with fire.

¹³And the Philistines acted yet again, and they raided in the valley. ¹⁴And David asked God again. And God said to him, "Do not go up after them; circle around from upon them and come at them in front of the balsam trees. ¹⁵And it shall be when you hear the sound of the marching in the heads of the balsam trees, at that time you shall go out in battle. For God has gone out before your face to strike down the camp of the Philistines." ¹⁶And David did just as God commanded him. And he struck down the camp of the Philistines, from Gibeon and as far as Gezer. ¹⁷And the name of David went out into all the lands, and Yahweh placed the fear of him on all the nations.

Chapter 15

¹And he made for himself houses in the city of David. And he prepared a place for the Box of God, and he stretched out a tent for it. ²Then David said, "No one shall carry the Box of God, but only the Levites. For them Yahweh chose to carry the Box of Yahweh and to minister for him forever." ³And David assembled all Israel to Jerusalem to bring up the Box of Yahweh to its place which he had prepared for it. ⁴And David gathered the sons of Aaron and the Levites. ⁵Of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief and his brothers, 120. ⁶Of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief and his brothers, 220. ⁷Of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief and his brothers, 130. ⁸Of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief and his brothers, 200. ⁹Of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief and his brothers, 80. ¹⁰Of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief and his brothers, 112. ¹¹And David called for Zadok and for Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab. ¹²And he said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers of the Levites. Consecrate yourselves, you and your brothers, and bring up the Box of Yahweh, the God of Israel, to where I prepared for it. ¹³Because at the first it was not you, Yahweh our God broke out against us, for we did not seek him according to the judgment." ¹⁴And the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the Box of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹⁵And the sons of Levi carried the Box of God just as Moses commanded, according to the word of Yahweh, on their shoulders with poles on them.

¹⁶And David said to the chiefs of the Levites to assign their brothers as the singers with instruments of song, harps, and lyres, and cymbals, playing to raise a sound of joy. ¹⁷And the Levites assigned Heman the son of Joel and from his brothers, Asaph the son of Berechiah, and from the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan the son of Kushaiah, ¹⁸and with them, their brothers of the second rank: Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed Edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers. ¹⁹And the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, with bronze cymbals to play. ²⁰And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah with harps, according to Alamothe. ²¹And Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed Edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah with lyres, according to the Sheminith to lead. ²²And Kenaniah, the chief of the Levites in lifting up, an instructor in lifting up, for he was one who understood. ²³And Berechiah and Elkanah, gatekeepers for the Box. ²⁴And Shebaniah, and Joshaphat, and Nethanel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, the ones to blow the trumpets before the face of the Box of God. And Obed Edom and Jehiah, gatekeepers for the Box.

²⁵And it happened David, and the elders of Israel, and the chiefs of thousands were going to bring up the Box of the covenant of Yahweh from the house of Obed Edom with joy. ²⁶And it happened when God helped the Levites carrying the Box of the covenant of Yahweh, and they slaughtered seven bulls and seven rams. ²⁷And David was clothed in a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites carrying the Box, and the singers, and Kenaniah, the chief of the lifting up of the singers. And on David, an ephod of linen. ²⁸And all Israel was bringing up the Box of the covenant of Yahweh with shouting of joy, and with a sound of a horn and with trumpets, and with cymbals, playing with harps and lyres.

²⁹And it happened the Box of the covenant of Yahweh was coming to the city of David, and Michal the daughter of Saul, looked down out of the window. And she saw the king, David, dancing and celebrating. And she despised him in her heart.

Chapter 16

¹And they brought in the Box of God and put it in the midst of the tent that David stretched out for it. And they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the face of God. ²And David finished bringing up the burnt offering and the peace offerings, and he blessed the people in the name of Yahweh. ³And he distributed to each person of Israel, from man and as far as woman, to each a loaf of bread, and a date cake, and a raisin cake.

⁴And he appointed before the face of the Box of Yahweh from the Levites as ones who minister, and to commemorate and to thank and to praise Yahweh, the God of Israel. ⁵Asaph the head, and second to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed Edom, and Jeiel, with instruments of harps and lyres, and Asaph with cymbals was playing, ⁶and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets regularly, before the face of the Box of the covenant of God.

⁷On that day then David first appointed to thank Yahweh by the hand of Asaph and his brothers.

⁸Give thanks to Yahweh, call on his name; make known among the peoples his deeds.

⁹Sing to him, make music to him;
tell of all his wonderful acts.

¹⁰Glory in his holy name;
let the heart of those who seek Yahweh rejoice.

¹¹Seek Yahweh and his strength;
seek his face continually.

¹²Remember his wonderful acts which he has done, his miracles and the judgments of his mouth,

¹³O seed of Israel his servant,
O sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.

¹⁴He is Yahweh, our God;
in all the earth are his judgments.

¹⁵Remember forever his covenant, the word he commanded for 1,000 generations,

¹⁶which he cut with Abraham, and his oath to Isaac.

¹⁷And he established it for Jacob as a statute, for Israel a covenant forever,

¹⁸saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan the allotment of your inheritance."

¹⁹When you all were few in number, insignificant, and sojourners in it,

²⁰and they walked back and forth from nation to nation, and from a kingdom to another people,

²¹he did not permit a person to oppress them;

and he rebuked kings on account of them.

²²"Do not strike my anointed ones, and against my prophets do not do evil."

²³Sing to Yahweh, all the earth; announce from day to day his salvation.

²⁴Recount among the nations his glory, among all the peoples his wonderful acts.

²⁵For great is Yahweh and to be praised much, and to be feared is he above all gods.

²⁶For all the gods of the peoples are worthless, but Yahweh, the heavens he made.

²⁷Splendor and majesty are before his face;

strength and joy in his place.

²⁸Ascribe to Yahweh, O clans of peoples, ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength!

²⁹Ascribe to Yahweh the glory of his name;

bring an offering and come before his face;

worship Yahweh in holy splendor.

³⁰Tremble from before his face, all the earth.

Indeed, the world is established; it cannot be shaken.

³¹Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth shout in exultation; and let them say among the nations, "Yahweh reigns."

³²Let the sea roar and that which fills it.

Let the field exult, and all that is in it.

³³Then the trees of the forest will shout for joy from before the face of Yahweh, for he is coming to judge the earth.

³⁴Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good, for forever is his loyal love.

³⁵And say, "Save us, God of our salvation, and gather us and deliver us from the nations, to give thanks to your holy name,

to boast in your praise.”

³⁶Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, from everlasting and as far as everlasting.

And all the people said, “Amen” and praised Yahweh.

³⁷And he left there before the face of the Box of the covenant of Yahweh Asaph and his brothers to minister before the face of the Box continually, according to the matter of the day in its day, ³⁸and Obed Edom and their brothers, 68, and Obed Edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, were gatekeepers, ³⁹and Zadok the priest and his brothers the priests before the face of the tabernacle of Yahweh at the high place which was in Gibeon ⁴⁰to bring up burnt offerings to Yahweh on the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that is written in the law of Yahweh, which he commanded to Israel. ⁴¹And with them, Heman and Jeduthun and the rest of those chosen who were marked by names to give thanks to Yahweh, for forever is his loyal love. ⁴²And with them, Heman and Jeduthun for those playing trumpets and cymbals and the instruments of song of God; and the sons of Jeduthun for the gate. ⁴³And all the people went, each to his house, and David turned around to bless his house.

Chapter 17

¹And it happened when David was living in his house, and David said to Nathan the prophet, “Behold, I am living in a house of cedars, but the Box of the covenant of Yahweh is under curtains.” ²And Nathan said to David, “All which is in your heart, do, for God is with you.” ³And it happened in that night, and the word of God came to Nathan, saying, ⁴“Go and say to David my servant, ‘Thus says Yahweh: You yourself shall not build for me a house in which to live, ⁵for I have not lived in a house from the day that I brought up Israel until this day, but I have been from tent to tent, and from a tabernacle. ⁶In all where I have walked back and forth among all Israel, what word did I speak to one of the judges of Israel whom I commanded to shepherd my people, saying, “Why have you all not built for me a house of cedars?”’” ⁷And now, thus you shall say to my servant, to David, ‘Thus says Yahweh of Hosts: I myself took you from the pasture, from behind sheep, to be a leader over my people Israel. ⁸And I have been with you in all where you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before your face, and I will make for you a name, like a name of the great ones who are on the earth. ⁹And I will set a place for my people Israel, and I will plant them, and they will settle on it, and they will not tremble again. And the sons of injustice will not continue to trouble them, just as at the first, ¹⁰and from the days that I commanded judges over my people Israel. And I will humble all your enemies. And I declare to you that a house Yahweh will build for you. ¹¹And it will be when your days are fulfilled, to walk with your fathers, then I will raise up your seed after you who will be from your sons, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹²He himself will build for me a house, and I will establish his throne as far as forever. ¹³I myself will be to him a father, and he himself will be to me a son. And my covenant faithfulness I will not take away from with him, as I took away from who was before your face. ¹⁴And I will set him up in my house and in my kingdom as far as forever, and his throne will be established as far as forever.”’” ¹⁵According to all these words and according to all this vision, thus Nathan spoke to David.

¹⁶Then the king David went in and sat before the face of Yahweh; and he said, “Who am I, Yahweh God, and what is my house, that you have brought me as far as here? ¹⁷And a small thing was this in your eyes, God, and you have spoken regarding the house of your servant from a distance; and you have seen me as an appearance of the man moving upwards, Yahweh God. ¹⁸What more can David still say to you about honoring your servant. And you, your servant you know. ¹⁹Yahweh, for the sake of your servant and according to your heart, you have done all this greatness to make known all the greatnesses. ²⁰Yahweh, there is none like you, and no God except you, in all which we have heard with our ears. ²¹And who is like your people Israel, one nation on the earth whom God went to ransom for himself a people, to set for you a name great and to be feared, to drive out nations from the faces of your people whom you ransomed from Egypt? ²²And you made your people Israel for yourself a people as far as forever, and you, Yahweh, became to them God. ²³And now, Yahweh, the word which you spoke concerning your servant and concerning his house, may it be confirmed as far as forever, and do just as you have spoken. ²⁴And may it be confirmed and may your name be great as far as forever, saying, 'Yahweh of Hosts, the God of Israel, is God to Israel,' and the house of David your servant established before your face. ²⁵For you, my God, have uncovered the ear of your servant to build for him a house; therefore your servant has found to pray before your face. ²⁶And now, Yahweh, you are God, and you have spoken concerning your servant this good. ²⁷And now, you have decided to bless the house of your servant, to be forever before your face. For you, Yahweh, have blessed, and it is blessed forever."

Chapter 18

¹And it happened after this that David struck down the Philistines, and he humbled them. And he took Gath and its daughters from the hand of the Philistines. ²And he struck down Moab, and the Moabites became servants to David, carriers of tribute.

³And David struck down Hadadezer, the king of Zobah Hamath, when he went to set up his hand at the Euphrates River. ⁴And David captured from him 1,000 chariots, and 7,000 horsemen, and 20,000 men on foot. And David hamstringed all the chariots, but spared from him 100 chariots.

⁵And Aram of Damascus came to help Hadadezer the king of Zobah, and David struck down of the Arameans 22,000 men. ⁶And David set up in Aram of Damascus, and Aram became servants to David, carriers of tribute. And Yahweh saved David in all where he went. ⁷And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and he brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸And from Tibhath and from Kun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much bronze. With it, Solomon made the sea of bronze and the pillars and bronze items.

⁹And Tou, the king of Hamath, heard that David struck down all the army of Hadadezer, the king of Zobah. ¹⁰And he sent Hadoram his son to King David to ask him for peace and to bless him because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him down, for a man of war Tou was with Hadadezer, and all the items of gold and silver and bronze. ¹¹Also these King David consecrated to Yahweh with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the nations: from Edom, and from Moab, and from the sons of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

¹²And Abishai the son of Zeruiah struck down Edom in the Valley of Salt, 18,000. ¹³And he set in Edom garrisons, and all Edom became servants to David. And Yahweh saved David in all where he went.

¹⁴And David reigned over all Israel. And it happened he was doing judgment and righteousness for all his people. ¹⁵And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, secretary. ¹⁶And Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, priests, and Shavsha, scribe. ¹⁷And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and the Pelethites, and the sons of David, the heads at the hand of the king.

Chapter 19

¹And it happened after this, and Nahash, the king of the sons of Ammon, died, and his son reigned in his place. ²And David said, "I will do loyal kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father did to me loyal kindness." And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And the servants of David came to the land of the sons of Ammon, to Hanun, to comfort him. ³And the chiefs of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun, "Is David honoring your father in your eyes because he sent to you comforters? Is it not for the sake of to explore and to overthrow and to spy the land his servants came to you?" ⁴And Hanun took the servants of David, and he shaved them, and he cut their garments in half, until the buttocks, and he sent them away. ⁵And they went, and they declared to David concerning the men. And he sent to meet them for the men were greatly humiliated. And the king said, "Stay in Jericho until when your beards grow, then return."

⁶And the sons of Ammon saw that they were a stench to David, and Hanun sent, and the sons of Ammon, 1,000 talents of silver to hire for themselves from Aram Naharaim, and from Aram Maacah, and from Zobah, chariots and horsemen. ⁷And they hired for themselves 32,000 chariots and the king of Maacah and his people. And they came, and they encamped before the face of Medeba. And the sons of Ammon assembled from their cities, and came to battle. ⁸And David heard, and he sent Joab and all the army of mighty ones. ⁹And the sons of Ammon came out, and they arrayed for battle at the entrance of the city. And the kings who came were by themselves in the field.

¹⁰And Joab saw that the face of the battle was to him faces and hindquarter, and he chose from all the choice ones among Israel, and he arrayed to meet Aram. ¹¹And the remainder of the people he placed in the hand of Abishai his brother, and they arrayed to meet the sons of Ammon. ¹²And he said, "If Aram is too strong for me, then you shall be to me for salvation. And if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will save you. ¹³Be strong, and let us strengthen ourselves on behalf of our people and on behalf of the cities of our God, and Yahweh, the good in his eyes, he will do." ¹⁴And Joab drew near, and the people who were with him, before the faces of Aram for battle. And they fled from his face. ¹⁵And the sons of Ammon saw that Aram fled, and these also fled from the face of Abishai his brother. And they came to the city and Joab came to Jerusalem.

¹⁶And Aram saw that they were defeated before the face of Israel. And they sent messengers, and they brought out Aram, who was beyond the river, and Shophak the chief of the army of Hadadezer before their faces. ¹⁷And it was told to David, and he gathered all Israel. And he passed over the Jordan, and he came to them. And he arrayed against them. And David arrayed to meet Aram for battle, and they fought with him. ¹⁸And Aram fled from before the face of Israel, and David killed from Aram 7,000 chariots and 40,000 men on foot. And Shophak the chief of the army, he killed. ¹⁹And the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated before the face of Israel, and they made peace with David, and they served him. And Aram was not willing to save the sons of Ammon again.

¹And it happened at the time of the turning of the year, at the time of the going out of kings, that Joab led out the army for war and he devastated the land of the sons of Ammon. And he came, and he besieged Rabbah. And David stayed in Jerusalem. And Joab struck down Rabbah, and he tore it down. ²And David took the crown of their king from on his head, and he found the weight was a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone. And it was on the head of David, and the plunder of the city he brought out, a very great amount. ³And the people who were in it, he brought out, and they sawed with saws and with sharp instruments of iron and with saws. And thus David did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

⁴And it happened after this that war arose at Gezer with the Philistines. Then Sibbekai the Hushathite struck down Sippai, from the descendants of the Rephaim, and they were humbled. ⁵And there was again war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair struck down Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite; and the wood of his spear was like a beam of a weaver. ⁶And there was again war in Gath. And there was a man of stature. And his digits were six and six, 24, and he also was born of Rapha. ⁷And he taunted Israel. And Jonathan the son of Shimea, the brother of David, struck him down. ⁸These were born to Rapha in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

Chapter 21

¹And an adversary stood against Israel, and he incited David to count Israel. ²And David said to Joab and to the chiefs of the people, "Go, count Israel from Beersheba and as far as Dan, and bring to me, that I may know their number." ³And Joab said, "May Yahweh add to his people like them 100 times. Are not, my lord the king, all of them servants to my lord? Why does my lord seek this? Why should it be guilt for Israel?" ⁴But the word of the king was strong against Joab. So Joab went out and walked back and forth in all Israel. Then he came to Jerusalem. ⁵And Joab gave the number of the numbering of the people to David. And all Israel was 1,100,000 men who drew the sword, and Judah, 470,000 men who drew the sword. ⁶But Levi and Benjamin he did not number in their midst, for the word of the king was abhorrent to Joab. ⁷And it was evil in the eyes of God concerning this word, and he struck Israel. ⁸And David said to God, "I have sinned greatly in that I have done this thing. And now please cause to pass the iniquity of your servant, for I have acted very foolishly."

⁹And Yahweh spoke to Gad, the seer of David, saying, ¹⁰"Go and speak to David, saying, 'Thus says Yahweh, three I am stretching over you; choose for yourself one from them, and I will act towards you.'" ¹¹And Gad came to David, and he said to him, "Thus says Yahweh, 'Take for yourself: ¹²either three years famine, or three months being swept away from the faces of your foes and overtaken by the sword of your enemies, or three days of the sword of Yahweh, even pestilence in the land and the angel of Yahweh destroying in all the territory of Israel.' And now, see; what word shall I bring back to the one who sent me?" ¹³And David said to Gad, "There is great distress to me! Please let me fall into the hand of Yahweh, for many are his great mercies, but into the hand of man, do not let me fall." ¹⁴And Yahweh gave a pestilence on Israel, and from Israel fell 70,000 men. ¹⁵And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy her. And when destroying, Yahweh saw, and he relented concerning the disaster. And he said to the angel who was destroying, "Enough! Now release your hand." And the angel of Yahweh was standing at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁶And David lifted his eyes and saw the angel of Yahweh standing between the earth and between the heavens and his sword drawn in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. And David fell, and the elders, covered in sackcloth, on their faces. ¹⁷And David said to God, "Was it not I myself who said to count the people? And it is I who sinned, and I have surely done evil, but these sheep, what have they done? Yahweh my God, please let your hand be against me and against the house of my father, but not on your people a plague."

¹⁸And the angel of Yahweh said to Gad to say to David that David should go up to raise an altar to Yahweh at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁹So David went up at the word of Gad who spoke in the name of Yahweh. ²⁰And Ornan turned, and he saw the angel. And four of his sons with him were hiding themselves. And Ornan was threshing wheat. ²¹And David came to Ornan. And Ornan looked, and he saw David. And he went out from the threshing floor, and he bowed down to David, face to the ground. ²²And David said to Ornan, "Give to me the place of the threshing floor, and I will build on it an altar to Yahweh. At the full price give it to me, so the plague may be restrained from against the people." ²³And Ornan said to David, "Take for yourself that my lord the king may do good in his eyes. See, I give the cattle for the burnt offerings and the threshing sledges for wood, and the wheat for the offering; all I give." ²⁴And King David said to Ornan, "No, for I will surely buy at the full price, for I will not lift up what is yours to Yahweh and offer a burnt offering without paying compensation." ²⁵And David gave to Ornan for the place 600 shekels of gold by weight. ²⁶And David built there an altar to Yahweh and he offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And he called to Yahweh, and he answered him with fire from the heavens on the altar of the burnt offering. ²⁷And Yahweh spoke to the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

²⁸At that time, when David saw that Yahweh had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. ²⁹And the tabernacle of Yahweh which Moses made in the wilderness and the altar of the burnt offering at that time were at the high place at Gibeon. ³⁰And David was not able to go to its face to seek God, for he was terrified from the faces of the sword of the angel of Yahweh.

Chapter 22

¹And David said, "This is the house of Yahweh God, and this is the altar for the burnt offering of Israel."

²And David said to gather the foreigners who were in the land of Israel. And he assigned stonemasons to hew out cut stones to build the house of God. ³And a large amount of iron for the nails for the doors of the gates and for braces, David prepared; and a large amount of bronze, there is no weighing. ⁴And trees of cedar without number, for the Sidonians and the Tyrians brought a large amount of cedar trees to David. ⁵And David said, "Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house to be built for Yahweh must be great for the sake of a name and for beauty in all the lands. I will now prepare for it." And David prepared a large amount before the face of his death.

⁶And he called for Solomon his son, and he commanded him to build a house for Yahweh, the God of Israel. ⁷And David said to Solomon, "My son, it was with my heart to build a house myself for the name of Yahweh my God. ⁸But the word of Yahweh was to me, saying, 'A large amount of blood you have shed and great wars you have made; you shall not build a house for my name because a large amount of blood you have shed on the ground before my face. ⁹Behold, a son is being born to you; he himself will be a man of rest. And I will give rest to him from all his enemies from all around. For Solomon will be his name, and peace and quietness I will give to Israel in his days. ¹⁰He himself will build a house for my name. And he himself will be to me a son, and I to him a father. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel as far as forever.' ¹¹Now, my son, may Yahweh be with you, and may you be successful and build a house of Yahweh your God, just as he spoke concerning you. ¹²Only may Yahweh give to you insight and understanding, and give you charge over Israel so that you may keep the law of Yahweh your God. ¹³Then you will succeed, if you are careful to do the statutes and the judgments which Yahweh commanded Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and courageous. Do not fear and do not be dismayed. ¹⁴Now, see, in my affliction, I have prepared for the house of Yahweh gold talents, 100,000, and silver, 1,000,000 talents, and for bronze and for iron, there is no weighing, for there is a large amount. And trees and stones I have prepared. And to them you will add. ¹⁵And with you is a large amount of doers of work: stonemasons, and craftsmen of stone and wood, and all wise in all work, ¹⁶for gold, for silver, and for bronze, and for iron; there is no numbering. Arise and work. And may Yahweh be with you."

¹⁷And David commanded all the chiefs of Israel to help Solomon his son, ¹⁸"Is not Yahweh your God with you all and given rest to you all from all around? For he has given into my hand the inhabitants of the land, and the land is subdued before the face of Yahweh and before the faces of his people. ¹⁹Now, give your heart and your life to seek Yahweh your God, and arise and build the sanctuary of Yahweh God to bring the Box of the covenant of Yahweh and the sacred items of God to the house to be built for the name of Yahweh."

Chapter 23

¹And David was old and was full of days, and he made Solomon his son king over Israel. ²And he gathered all the chiefs of Israel and the priests and the Levites. ³And the Levites were counted from sons of 30 years and upward and the numbering was by their heads, by males, 38,000. ⁴From these, to lead the work of the house of Yahweh, 24,000, and officers and judges, 6,000, ⁵and 4,000 gatekeepers and 4,000 praisers to Yahweh with the instruments which I made to praise." ⁶And David divided them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: of Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

⁷Of the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei. ⁸The sons of Ladan: the head Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three. ⁹The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, and Haziël, and Haran, three. These, the heads of the fathers of Ladan. ¹⁰And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, and Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These, the sons of Shimei, four. ¹¹And Jahath was the head, and Zizah the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, and they were to a house of a father for one group.

¹²The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four. ¹³The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. And Aaron was set apart for him to consecrate the most holy things, he and his sons until forever, to make sacrifices before the face of Yahweh to minister for him and to bless in his name until forever. ¹⁴And Moses, the man of God, his sons were called according to the tribe of Levi. ¹⁵The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer. ¹⁶The sons of Gershom: Shebuel the head. ¹⁷And the sons of Eliezer were Rehabiah the head, and there were not to Eliezer other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were many above that. ¹⁸The sons of Izhar: Shelomith the head. ¹⁹The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the head, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. ²⁰The sons of Uzziel: Micah the head, and Isshiah the second. ²¹The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish. ²²And Eleazar died and there were not to him sons, but only daughters. And the sons of Kish, their brothers, lifted them. ²³The sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth, three.

²⁴These were the sons of Levi according to the house of their fathers, heads of the fathers, by their appointments, in the numbering of names by their heads, the doer of the work of the service of the house of Yahweh; from the sons of 20 years and upward. ²⁵For David said, "Yahweh, the God of Israel, has given rest to his people. And he dwells in Jerusalem until forever. ²⁶And also, for the Levites, no longer to carry the tabernacle and all its items for its service." ²⁷For by the last words of David, they were numbering the sons of Levi, from the sons of 20 years and upward. ²⁸For their office was by the hand of the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of Yahweh over the courts, and over the chambers, and over the cleansing of all the sacred things, and the work of the service of the house of God. ²⁹And concerning the bread of the arrangement, and concerning the fine flour for the offering, and concerning the wafers of the unleavened bread, and concerning the pan, and concerning that which is mixed, and concerning all measure and size. ³⁰And to stand morning by morning to thank and to praise Yahweh, and thus in the evening. ³¹And concerning to offer all the burnt offerings to Yahweh for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, and for the appointed times in the numbering according to the judgment over them regularly before the face of Yahweh. ³²And they were to keep the charge of the tent of meeting and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brothers for the service of the house of Yahweh.

Chapter 24

¹And to the sons of Aaron, their division. The sons of Aaron: Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ²And Nadab died, as well as Abihu, before the face of their father, and sons were not to them. And Eleazar and Ithamar became priests. ³And David divided them, along with Zadok from the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech from the sons of Ithamar, according to their office in their service. ⁴And more sons of Eleazar were found for heads of men than the sons of Ithamar, and they divided them for the sons of Eleazar, heads of a house of the fathers, 16, and for the sons of Ithamar for the house of their fathers, eight. ⁵And they divided them by lots, these with these, for there were sacred chiefs and chiefs of God from the sons of Eleazar and in the sons of Ithamar. ⁶And Shemaiah the son of Nethanel the scribe from the Levites wrote them before the face of the king, and the chiefs, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers for the priests and for the Levites. One house of a father was picked for Eleazar, and one was picked for Ithamar.

⁷And the first lot went to Jehoiarib, to Jedaiah the second, ⁸to Harim the third, to Seorim the fourth, ⁹to Malkijah the fifth, to Mijamin the sixth, ¹⁰to Hakkoz the seventh, to Abijah the eighth, ¹¹to Jeshua the ninth, to Shecaniah the tenth, ¹²to Eliashib the 11th, to Jakim the 12th, ¹³to Huppah the 13th, to Jeshebeab the 14th, ¹⁴to Bilgah the 15th, to Immer the 16th, ¹⁵to Hezir the 17th, to Huppizez the 18th, ¹⁶to Pethahiah the 19th, to Jehezkel the 20th, ¹⁷to Jakin the 21st, to Gamul the 22nd, ¹⁸to Delaiah the 23rd, to Maaziah the 24th. ¹⁹These, their office for their service to come into the house of Yahweh, according to the judgments by the hand of Aaron their father, just as Yahweh the God of Israel commanded him.

²⁰And to the sons of Levi, the ones who are left, of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah. ²¹To Rehabiah, of the sons of Rehabiah, the head Ishijah. ²²To the Izharites, Shelomoth, of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath. ²³And the sons of Jeriah, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. ²⁴The sons of Uzziel, Micah, of the sons of Micah, Shamir. ²⁵The brother of Micah, Ishijah, of the sons of Ishijah, Zechariah. ²⁶The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Jaaziah: Beno. ²⁷The sons of Merari, of Jaaziah: Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri. ²⁸To Mahli, Eleazar, and not were to him sons. ²⁹To Kish, the sons of Kish, Jerahmeel. ³⁰And the sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These, the sons of the Levites, according to the house of their fathers. ³¹And these also cast lots just like their brothers, the sons of Aaron, before the face of King David, along with Zadok and Ahimelech and the heads of the fathers, for the priests and for the Levites; the fathers of the head just like his younger brother.

¹And David and the chiefs of the army divided for the service for the sons of Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun, the ones prophesying with harps, with lyres, and with cymbals. And the numbering of the men of work for their service was: ²Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asharelah,^[1] the sons of Asaph, under the hand of Asaph, who was prophesying under the hands of the king. ³Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, and Zeri,^[2] and Jeshaiiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, with the harp one prophesying, for giving thanks and to praise Yahweh. ⁴Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel,^[3] Shubael, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth. ⁵All these, the sons of Heman, the seer of the king by the words of God to lift up a horn. And God gave to Heman 14 sons and three daughters. ⁶All these, under the hands of their father in the song of the house of Yahweh, with cymbals, harps, and lyres for the service of the house of God under the hands of the king: Asaph, and Jeduthun, and Heman. ⁷And their numbering with their brothers who were taught the song of Yahweh, all the ones who understand, 288. ⁸And they cast lots for a charge, small and great alike, one who understands with a student.

⁹And the first lot went to Asaph, to Joseph; Gedaliah the second, he and his brothers and his sons, 12. ¹⁰The third Zaccur, his sons and his brothers, 12. ¹¹The fourth to Izri,^[4] his sons and his brothers, 12; ¹²The fifth Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers, 12. ¹³The sixth Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers, 12. ¹⁴The seventh Jesarelah,^[5] his sons and his brothers, 12. ¹⁵The eighth Jeshaiiah, his sons and his brothers, 12. ¹⁶The ninth Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers, 12. ¹⁷The tenth Shimei, his sons and his brothers, 12. ¹⁸The 11th Azarel,^[6] his sons and his brothers, 12. ¹⁹The 12th to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers, 12. ²⁰For the 13th Shubael, his sons and his brothers, 12. ²¹For the 14th Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers, 12. ²²For the 15th to Jerimoth, his sons and his brothers, 12. ²³For the 16th to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers, 12. ²⁴For the 17th to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers, 12. ²⁵For the 18th to Hanani, his sons and his brothers, 12. ²⁶For the 19th to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers, 12. ²⁷For the 20th to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers, 12. ²⁸For the 21st to Hothir, his sons and his brothers, 12. ²⁹For the 22nd to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers, 12. ³⁰For the 23rd to Mahazioth, his sons and his brothers, 12. ³¹For the 24th to Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brothers, 12.

Chapter 26

¹For the divisions of the gatekeepers: Of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, from the sons of Asaph^[1]. ²And to Meshelemiah^[2] sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediahel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, ³Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh. ⁴And to Obed Edom sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sakar the fourth, and Nethanel the fifth, ⁵Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth, for God blessed him. ⁶And to Shemaiah his son were born sons, rulers in the house of their fathers; for mighty ones of strength they were. ⁷The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad his brothers, sons of strength, Elihu and Semakiah. ⁸All these from the sons of Obed Edom. They and their sons and their brothers, men of strength with power for service, 62 of Obed Edom. ⁹And to Meshelemiah sons and brothers, sons of strength, 18. ¹⁰And to Hosah, from the sons of Merari, sons: Shimri the head, although he was not firstborn, and his father set him as head, ¹¹Hilkiah the second, Tabaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth. All the sons and brothers to Hosah, 13.

¹²To these divisions of the gatekeepers, to the head males a charge just like their brothers to minister in the house of Yahweh. ¹³And they cast lots, like small like great, according to the house of their fathers for gate and gate.

¹⁴And the lot fell to the east, to Shelemiah^[3] and Zechariah his son, an advisor with insight. And they cast lots and his lot went to the north. ¹⁵To Obed Edom to the south, and to his sons, the house of stores. ¹⁶To Shuppim and to Hosah, to the west with the gate of Shalleketh on the road that goes up; a guard alongside a guard. ¹⁷To the east six Levites, to the north per day four, to the south per day four, and to the stores two by two. ¹⁸At the colonnade to the west, four at the highway, two at the colonnade.^[4] ¹⁹These, the divisions of the gatekeepers for the sons of the Korahites and for the sons of Merari.

²⁰And the Levites, Ahijah over the treasuries of the house of God and of the treasuries of the sacred things. ²¹The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, the heads of the fathers, belonging to Ladan the Gershonite, Jehieli. ²²The sons of Jehieli: Zetham and Joel his brother, over the treasuries of the house of Yahweh. ²³Of the Amramites, of the Izharites, of the Hebronites, of the Uzzielites: ²⁴And Shubael the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, a leader over the treasuries, ²⁵and his brothers; to Eliezer, Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son. ²⁶This Shelomith and his brothers were over all the treasuries of the sacred things which David the king consecrated, and the heads of the fathers, of the chiefs of thousands and hundreds, and the chiefs of the army. ²⁷From battles and from plunder they consecrated to strengthen the house of Yahweh. ²⁸And all Samuel the seer consecrated, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah. All the sacred things were under the hand of Shelomith and his brothers.

²⁹Of the Izharites, Kenaniah and his sons to the work of the outside for Israel as officers and judges. ³⁰Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brothers, sons of strength, 1,700, over appointment of Israel from beyond the Jordan to the west for all the work of Yahweh and for the service of the king. ³¹Of the Hebronites, Jeriah the head of the Hebronites according to his generations of fathers. In the 40th year of the reign of David they were sought out and there were found among them mighty ones of strength in Jazer of Gilead, ³²and his brothers, sons of strength, 2,700 heads of the fathers. And David the king appointed them over the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter of God, and matter of the king.

Chapter 27

¹And the sons of Israel, for the numbering of the heads of the fathers and the chiefs of thousands and hundreds, and their officers of those who minister to the king for any matter of the divisions who come and go month by month for all months of the year, one division, 24,000. ²Over the first division for the first month, Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel, and over his division, 24,000. ³From the sons of Perez the head of all the chiefs of the armies for the first month. ⁴And over the division for the second month, Dodai the Ahohite and his division, and Mikloth the leader, and over his division, 24,000. ⁵The third chief of the army for the third month, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the head priest, and over his division, 24,000. ⁶This Benaiah the mighty one of the 30, and over the 30 and his division, Ammizabad his son. ⁷The fourth for the fourth month, Asahel brother of Joab and Zebadiah his son after him, and over his division, 24,000. ⁸The fifth for the fifth month, the chief Shamhuth the Izrahite, and over his division, 24,000. ⁹The sixth for the sixth month, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, and over his division, 24,000. ¹⁰The seventh for the seventh month, Helez the Pelonite, from the sons of Ephraim, and over his division, 24,000. ¹¹The eighth for the eighth month, Sibbekai the Hushathite, of the Zerahites, and over his division, 24,000. ¹²The ninth for the ninth month, Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjaminites, and over his division, 24,000. ¹³The tenth for the tenth month, Maharai the Netophahite, of the Zerahites, and over his division, 24,000. ¹⁴The 11th for the 11th month, Benaiah the Pirathonite, from the sons of Ephraim, and over his division, 24,000. ¹⁵The 12th for the 12th month, Heldai the Netophahite, of Othniel, and over his division, 24,000.

¹⁶And over the tribes of Israel: for the Reubenites, a leader, Eliezer the son of Zichri; for the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah; ¹⁷for the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; for Aaron, Zadok; ¹⁸for Judah, Elihu, from the brothers of David; for Issachar, Omri the son of Michael; ¹⁹for Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; for Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel; ²⁰for the sons of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; for the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiiah; ²¹for the half of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; for Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner; ²²for Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These, the chiefs of the tribes of Israel. ²³And David did not lift the numbering for sons of 20 years and downwards, because Yahweh said he would multiply Israel like the stars of the heavens. ²⁴Joab the son of Zeruiah began to count, but he did not finish. And there was among this wrath on Israel. And the number did not go up into the number of the matters of the days of King David.

²⁵And over the treasuries of the king, Azmaveth the son of Adiel. And over the treasuries in the field, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers, Jonathan the son of Uzziah. ²⁶And over the ones who do the work of the field, for the service of the ground, Ezri the son of Kelub. ²⁷And over the vineyards, Shimei the Ramathite. And over what is in the vineyards for the treasuries of the wine, Zabdi the Shiphmite. ²⁸And over the olive trees and the sycamore trees which were in the lowlands, Baal-Hanan the Gederite. And over the treasuries of the oil, Joash. ²⁹And over the herd pasturing in Sharon, Shitrai the Sharonite. And over the herd in the valleys, Shaphat the son of Adlai. ³⁰And over the camels, Obil the Ishmaelite. And over the female donkeys, Jehdeiah the Meronothite. ³¹And over the flock, Jaziz the Hagrite. All these, the chiefs of the property which belonged to King David.

³²And Jonathan, the uncle of David, an advisor, a man of understanding and a scribe, was he. And Jehiel the son of Hakmoni was with the sons of the king. ³³And Ahithophel, an advisor to the king, and Hushai the Arkite, friend to the king. ³⁴And after Ahithophel, Jehoiada the son of Benaiah and Abiathar. And the chief of the army of the king, Joab.

Chapter 28

¹And David called to assembly all the chiefs of Israel: the chiefs of the tribes, and the chiefs of the divisions who served the king, and the chiefs of the thousands, and the chiefs of the hundreds, and the chiefs of all the property and cattle belonging to the king and to his sons, with the high officials, and the mighty ones, and to all the mighty ones of strength, to Jerusalem. ²And David the king rose to his feet, and he said, "Hear me, my brothers and my people, I had in my heart to build a house of rest for the Box of the covenant of Yahweh and for the footstool of the feet of our God. And I have prepared to build. ³But God said to me, 'You will not build a house for my name, because a man of war you are and blood you have shed.' ⁴Yet Yahweh, the God of Israel, chose me from all of the house of my father to be king over Israel forever, for among Judah he chose for a leader, and in the house of Judah, the house of my father, and among the sons of my father, with me he was pleased to make king over all Israel. ⁵And from all my sons, for many sons Yahweh has given to me, and he chose Solomon my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of Yahweh over Israel. ⁶And he said to me, 'Solomon your son, he himself will build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him for myself for a son, and I myself will be to him for a father. ⁷And I will establish his kingdom until forever, if he is strong to do my commands and my judgments, like this day.' ⁸And now, in the eyes of all Israel, the assembly of Yahweh, and in the ears of our God, keep and seek all the commands of Yahweh your God in order that you all will possess the good land and you all will cause your sons after you to inherit until forever.

⁹And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father, and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing life, for all hearts Yahweh seeks and all purpose of thoughts understands. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you abandon him, he will reject you forever. ¹⁰See, now, that Yahweh has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong and act."

¹¹And David gave to Solomon his son the plan of the porch, and its houses, and its treasuries, and its upper rooms, and its inner rooms, and the house of the atonement lid, ¹²and the plan of all that was by the Spirit with him for the courts of the house of Yahweh, and for all the chambers all around, for the treasuries of the house of God and for the treasuries of the sacred things, ¹³and for the divisions of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of Yahweh, and for all the items of the service of the house of Yahweh, ¹⁴for gold by weight, for gold for all the items of service and service, for all the items of silver by weight, for all the items of service and service, ¹⁵and the weight for the gold lampstands and their gold lamps by weight of lampstand and lampstand and its lamps, and for the lampstands of silver by weight for the lampstand and its lamps, according to the service of lampstand and lampstand, ¹⁶and the gold weight for the tables of the arrangement, for the table and table, and silver for the tables of silver, ¹⁷and the forks and the bowls and the jugs of pure gold and for the basins of gold by weight for basin and basin, and for the basins of silver by weight, for basin and basin, ¹⁸and for the altar of incense, refined gold by weight, and for the plan of the chariot of the cherubim, gold, that spread out and cover over the Box of the covenant of Yahweh. ¹⁹The entirety in writing from the hand of Yahweh upon me, he instructed all of the works of the plan."

²⁰And David said to Solomon his son, "Be strong and be courageous and act. Do not fear and do not be dismayed for Yahweh God, my God, is with you. He will not leave you and he will not abandon you until all the work of the service of the house of Yahweh is finished. ²¹And behold, the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God, and with you in all the work will be every willing one with wisdom, for all the service, and the chiefs and all the people for all your ways."

Chapter 29

¹And King David said to all the assembly, "Solomon my son, alone God has chosen him, is young and tender, and the work is great; for not for man is the palace but for Yahweh God. ²And according to all my power I have provided for the house of my God, the gold for the gold, and the silver for the silver, and the bronze for the bronze, the iron for the iron, and the wood for the wood, stones of onyx and settings, stones of antimony and colorful things, and all the rare stones and alabaster stones, in abundance. ³And again, in my delighting in the house of my God, possessions belonging to me, gold and silver, I give to the house of my God, above all I have prepared for the sacred house: ⁴3,000 talents of gold from the gold of Ophir, and 7,000 talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses, ⁵gold for gold, and silver for silver, and for all the work by the hand of the craftsmen. And who offers freely to fill his hand today to Yahweh?"

⁶And the chiefs of the fathers offered freely as well as the chiefs of the tribes of Israel and the chiefs of thousands and hundreds, and the chiefs of the work of the king. ⁷And they gave for the service of the house of God gold, 5,000 talents and 10,000 darics, and silver, 10,000 talents, and bronze, 18,000 talents, and iron, 100,000 talents. ⁸And he who was found with it, stones, they gave to the treasury of the house of Yahweh, under the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. ⁹And the people rejoiced because they offered freely, for with a whole heart they offered freely to Yahweh. And also King David rejoiced with great joy.

¹⁰And David blessed Yahweh in the eyes of all the assembly. And David said, "Blessed are you, Yahweh, God of Israel, our father, from forever and until forever. ¹¹To you, Yahweh, the greatness, and the might, and the beauty, and the splendor, and the majesty; indeed, everything in the heavens and in the earth. To you, Yahweh, the kingdom and lifting yourself above all as head. ¹²And the riches and the glory from before your face, and you are ruling over all, and in your hand power and might, and in your hand to make great and to strengthen all. ¹³And now, our God, we are giving thanks to you and praising the name of your beauty. ¹⁴But who am I, and who are my people, that we should retain power to offer freely like this? For from you is everything, and from your hand we have given to you. ¹⁵For we are foreigners before your face and sojourners, like all our fathers, like the shadow are our days on the earth, and there is no hope. ¹⁶Yahweh our God, all this abundance that we have prepared in order to build for you a house for the name of your holiness, from your hand it is and for you is all. ¹⁷And I know, my God, that you examine the heart and in uprightness are pleased. I, in the uprightness of my heart, I have offered freely all these, and now your people are found here, I see with joy, to offer freely to you. ¹⁸Yahweh, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel—our fathers—keep this forever concerning the purpose of the thoughts of the heart of your people, and direct their hearts to you. ¹⁹And to Solomon my son, give a whole heart to keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, and to do all and to build the palace for which I have prepared.”

²⁰And David said to all the assembly, “Bless Yahweh your God.” And all the assembly blessed Yahweh, the God of their fathers. And they bowed down and paid homage to Yahweh and to the king. ²¹And they sacrificed to Yahweh sacrifices, and they offered burnt offerings to Yahweh on the day following that day, 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, 1,000 lambs, and their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. ²²And they ate and drank before the face of Yahweh that day with great joy.

And they made king a second time Solomon, the son of David, and they anointed for Yahweh for a leader and Zadok for priest. ²³And Solomon sat on the throne of Yahweh as king instead of David his father, and he succeeded. And all Israel listened to him.

²⁴And all the chiefs, and the mighty ones, and also all the sons of King David gave a hand under King Solomon.

²⁵And Yahweh made Solomon exceedingly great in the eyes of all Israel. And he bestowed on him majesty of a kingdom which has not been on any king before his face over Israel.

²⁶And David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. ²⁷And the days which he reigned over Israel, 40 years. In Hebron he reigned seven years, and in Jerusalem he reigned 33. ²⁸And he died at a good old age, full of days, riches, and glory. And Solomon his son reigned in his place. ²⁹And the matters of King David, the first things and the last things, behold, they are written in the words of Samuel the Seer, and in the words of Nathan the prophet, and in the words of Gad the prophet, ³⁰with all his reign and his might and the times which passed over on him, and on Israel, and on all the kingdoms of the lands.

2 Chronicles

Chapter 1

¹And Solomon the son of David strengthened himself over his kingdom, and Yahweh his God was with him and made him exceedingly great. ²And Solomon said to all Israel, to the chiefs of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every prince of all Israel, the heads of the fathers. ³And Solomon went and all the assembly with him to the high place that was at Gibeon, for there was the tent of meeting of God, which Moses the servant of Yahweh, had made in the wilderness. ⁴However, the Box of God David had brought up from Kiriath Jearim to where David prepared for it, for he pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem. ⁵And the bronze altar which Bezalel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, made was there before the tabernacle of Yahweh; and Solomon and the assembly sought him.^[1] ⁶And Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before Yahweh, which was at the tent of meeting, and he brought up on it 1,000 burnt offerings.

⁷In that night, God appeared to Solomon, and he said to him, "Ask what I should give to you." ⁸And Solomon said to God, "You yourself did with David my father great covenant faithfulness and have made me king in his place. ⁹Now, Yahweh God, may your word with David my father be confirmed, for you yourself have made me king over a people numerous as the dust of the earth. ¹⁰Now wisdom and knowledge give to me, and I will go out before this people, and I will come in, for who can judge this great people of yours?" ¹¹And God said to Solomon, "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked for wealth, riches, or glory, or the life of those who hate you, and also many days you did not ask, but you have asked for yourself wisdom and knowledge with which you will judge my people, which I made you king over them, ¹²wisdom and knowledge are given to you, and wealth, and riches, and glory I will give to you which were not thus to the kings who were before you, and after you will not be thus." ¹³And Solomon came from the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tent of meeting; and he was king over Israel.

¹⁴And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen, and there was to him 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen, and he placed them in the chariot cities, and with the king in Jerusalem. ¹⁵And the king made silver and gold in Jerusalem as the stones, and cedars he made as the sycamore trees that were in the lowlands in abundance. ¹⁶And the source of the horses which were to Solomon was from Egypt and from Kue; the traders of the king, they would take at a price from Kue. ¹⁷And they brought up and brought out from Egypt a chariot for 600 silver, and a horse for 150. And thus, according to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram, by their hands, they brought out.

¹And Solomon said to build a house for the name of Yahweh and a house for his kingdom. ²And Solomon counted 70,000 men as burden bearers, and 80,000 men as stonemasons in the hills, and directors over them 3,600. ³And Solomon sent to Hiram, the king of Tyre, saying, "Just as you did with David my father and sent to him cedars to build for himself a house to dwell in it. ⁴Behold, I am building a house for the name of Yahweh my God, to consecrate to him, to sacrifice before him spiced incense and the regular display, and burnt offerings in the morning and in the evening, on the Sabbaths and on the new moons, and the appointed times of Yahweh our God. Forever, this is over Israel. ⁵And the house that I am building will be great, for great is our God more than all gods. ⁶But who can keep strength to build for him a house, since the heavens and the heavens of the heavens do not contain him? And who am I that I would build for him a house, except to sacrifice before him? ⁷And now, send to me a wise man to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, and in iron, and in purple and crimson and violet, and one who knows how to engrave engravings; with the wise who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father prepared. ⁸And send to me trees of cedar, cypress, and algum from Lebanon, for I myself know that your servants know how to cut trees of Lebanon. And behold, my servants will be with your servants, ⁹in order to prepare for me trees in abundance, for the house which I am building will be great and marvelous. ¹⁰And behold, to the wood cutters, to the ones who cut the trees, I will give crushed wheat to your servants 20,000 cors, and barley 20,000 cors, and wine 20,000 baths, and oil 20,000 baths.”^[1]

¹¹And Hiram, the king of Tyre, said in a writing, and sent to Solomon: “Because Yahweh loves his people, he has placed you over them as king.” ¹²And Hiram said, “Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who made the heavens and the earth, who has given to David the king a son of wisdom, knowing insight and understanding, who will build a house for Yahweh and a house for his kingdom. ¹³And now, I have sent a wise man, knowing understanding, Hiram-Abi, ¹⁴a son of a woman from the daughters of Dan, and his father a man of Tyre, knowing to work in gold, and in silver, in bronze, in iron, in stones, and in trees, in purple, in violet, and in fine linen, and in crimson, and to engrave any engraving and to devise any device, which is given to him with your wise ones and the wise ones of my lord, David, your father. ¹⁵And now, the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my lord has said, let him send to his servants. ¹⁶And we ourselves will cut trees from Lebanon, according to all your need, and we will bring them to you by rafts by sea to Joppa, and you yourself will bring them up to Jerusalem.”

¹⁷And Solomon counted all the men, the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, after the census that David, his father, had counted them. And there were found 153,600. ¹⁸And he made from them 70,000 burden bearers, 80,000 stonemasons in the hills, and 3,600 directors to cause the people to work.

2:10 ^[1] .

Chapter 3

¹And Solomon began to build the house of Yahweh in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where he had appeared to David his father, where David prepared in the place at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ²And he began to build in the second month on the second, in the fourth year of his reign. ³And these were the founding of Solomon to build the house of God, the length in cubits by the former measure, 60 cubits, and the width 20 cubits. ⁴And the porch which is at the front, the length on the front of the width of the house, 20 cubits, and the height, 120. And he overlaid it from within with pure gold. ⁵and the great house he overlaid with cypress wood, and he overlaid it with pure gold, and he brought up on it palm trees and chains. ⁶And he overlaid the house with precious stones for beauty; and the gold was gold of Parvaim. ⁷And he overlaid the house, the beams, the thresholds, and its walls, and its doors with gold; and he engraved cherubim on the walls.

⁸And he made the house of the holy of holies; its length at the front of the width of the house, 20 cubits, and its width 20 cubits. And he overlaid it with pure gold, to 600 talents. ⁹And the weight of the nails was 50 shekels of gold and the upper rooms he overlaid with gold.

¹⁰And he made in the house of the holy of holies two cherubim, a work of casting; and he overlaid them with gold. ^[1] ¹¹And the wings of the cherubim, their length was 20 cubits, one wing was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house, and another wing five cubits, reaching to a wing of the other cherub. ¹²And the wing of the other cherub five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing five cubits, clinging to the wing of the other cherub. ¹³The wings of these cherubim spread out 20 cubits. And they were standing on their feet, and their faces toward the house. ¹⁴And he made the curtain of violet, and purple, and crimson and fine linen, and he brought up on it cherubim.

¹⁵And he made before the house two pillars, 35 cubits in length; and the capital which was on its head, five cubits.

¹⁶And he made chains in the inner sanctuary, and he placed on the head of the pillars; and he made 100 pomegranates and he placed on the chains. ¹⁷And he set up the pillars on the face of the temple, one on the right hand, and one on the left. And he called the name of the right, Jakin, and the name of the left, Boaz.

3:10 ^[1].

Chapter 4

¹And he made an altar of bronze, 20 cubits its length, and 20 cubits its width, and 10 cubits its height. ²And he made the Sea of cast metal, 10 by the cubit from its edge to its edge, round, all around, and 5 by the cubit its height; and a measuring string 30 by the cubit surrounding it all around. ³And a likeness of oxen was under it all around; all around, surrounding it, 10 cubits, encircling the Sea all around; two rows of the oxen, cast in its cast metal. ⁴Standing on 12 oxen, three turned to the north, and 3 turned to the west, and 3 turned to the south, and three turned to the east. And the Sea was on them above, and all their hindquarters to the house. ⁵And its thickness was a span, and its edge like a work of an edge of a cup, a bud of a lily, taking hold, 3000 baths it could contain. ⁶And he made 10 pots, and he placed five on the right and five on the left to wash in them; the work of the burnt offering, they will rinse in them. And the Sea for bathing for the priests in it.

And Hiram finished making the work that he made for King Solomon in the house of God: ¹²the two pillars, and the bowls, and the capitals on the head of the two pillars, and the two trellises to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the head of the pillars, ¹³and the 400 pomegranates for the two trellises, two rows of pomegranates for each trellis to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the face of the pillars. ¹⁴And the stands he made, and the pots he made on the stands, ¹⁵the one Sea, and the 12 oxen under it. ¹⁶And the tubs, and the shovels, and the forks, and all items Hiram-Abi made for King Solomon for the house of Yahweh of polished bronze.^[1] ¹⁷In the vicinity of the Jordan the king cast them, in the thick ground between Succoth and between Zeredathah. ¹⁸And Solomon made all these items in great abundance; indeed, the weight of the bronze was not sought out.

¹⁹And Solomon made all the items that were in the house of God, and the altar of gold, and the tables and on them the bread of the presence; ²⁰and the lampstands and their lamps for their burning according to the judgment before the inner sanctuary, fine gold; ²¹and the buds, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold, it was perfection of gold. ²²and the lamp trimmers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the censers of fine gold. And the entrance of the house, its inner doors into the Holy of Holies and the doors of the house, for the temple, gold.

Chapter 5

¹And all the work which Solomon did for the house of Yahweh was completed, and Solomon brought in the sacred things of David, his father; and the silver, and the gold, and all the items, he placed in the treasuries of the house of God.

²Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers of the sons of Israel to Jerusalem, to bring up the Box of the covenant of Yahweh from the city of David, that is, Zion. ³And all the men of Israel assembled to the king at the feast; it was the seventh month. ⁴And all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites carried the Box. ⁵And they brought up the Box, and the tent of meeting, and all the sacred items that were in the tent; the priests, the Levites, brought them up. ⁶And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel were gathering to him before the Box, sacrificing sheep and oxen which was not counted, and it was not numbered because of the abundance. ⁷And the priests brought in the Box of the covenant of Yahweh to its place, to the inner sanctuary of the house, to the holy of holies, to under the wings of the cherubim. ⁸And the cherubim were spreading out wings over the place of the Box. And the cherubim covered over the Box and over its poles from above. ⁹And the poles lengthened and the heads of the poles from the Box were seen at the front of the inner sanctuary, but they were not seen outside. And they are there until this day. ¹⁰There was nothing in the Box except the two tablets that Moses had placed at Horeb, which Yahweh cut with the sons of Israel in their going out from Egypt.

¹¹And it happened in the going out of the priests from the holy place that all the priests who were found consecrated themselves; there was no keeping to the divisions. ¹²And the Levites, the singers, all of them, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brothers, clothed in fine linen, with cymbals, and with harps and lyres, were standing to the east of the altar. And with them, 120 priests sounding with trumpets. ¹³And it happened, like one were the trumpeters and singers, to cause to hear one voice to praise and to give thanks to Yahweh. And when raising a voice with trumpets and with cymbals and with the items of the song, and when praising Yahweh: "For good, for forever is his covenant faithfulness." And the house filled with a cloud, the house of Yahweh. ¹⁴And the priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of Yahweh filled the house of God.

Chapter 6

¹Then Solomon said, "Yahweh has said he would dwell in thick darkness, ²but I have built a lofty house for you and a place for you to dwell forever." ³And the king turned his face, and he blessed all the assembly of Israel, and all the assembly of Israel was standing.

⁴And he said, "Blessed be Yahweh the God of Israel who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and with his hands he fulfilled, saying, ⁵From the day that I brought out my people from the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city from all the tribes of Israel to build a house, for my name to be there. And I did not choose a man to be leader over my people Israel. ⁶But I have chosen Jerusalem, for my name to be there, and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.' ⁷And it was with the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ⁸And Yahweh said to David my father, 'On account of what is with your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was with your heart. ⁹Only you yourself must not build the house; instead, your son who comes from your loins, he himself will build the house for my name.' ¹⁰And Yahweh has established his word that he spoke, and I have risen instead of David my father, and I sit on the throne of Israel, just as Yahweh spoke. And I have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹¹And I set there the Box, in which there is the covenant of Yahweh, which he cut with the sons of Israel."

¹²And he stood before the altar of Yahweh in front of all the assembly of Israel. And he spread out his hands, ¹³for Solomon made a platform of bronze, and he placed it in the midst of the court, five cubits its length, and five cubits its width, and three cubits its height. And he stood on it, and he knelt down on his knees in front of all the assembly of Israel, and he spread out his hands to the heavens. ¹⁴And he said, "Yahweh, God of Israel, there is not like you a god in the heavens or on the earth, one who keeps the covenant and covenant faithfulness to your servants, walking before you with all their heart; ¹⁵who kept for your servant David my father that which he spoke to him. And you spoke with your mouth and by your hand you have fulfilled, like this day. ¹⁶And now, Yahweh, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father that which you spoke to him saying, 'There will not be cut off for you a man from before me, sitting on the throne of Israel, only if your sons keep their ways to walk in my law, just as you walked before me.' ¹⁷And now, Yahweh, God of Israel, let your word be confirmed, which you spoke to your servant, to David.

¹⁸But will God indeed dwell with mankind on the earth? Behold, the heavens and the heavens of the heavens do not contain you—how much less this house that I have built! ¹⁹Yet turn to the prayer of your servant and to his supplication, Yahweh my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer that your servant is praying before you, ²⁰your eyes to be open to this house days and night, to the place where you said to put your name there, to listen to the prayer which your servant prays toward this place. ²¹And listen to the supplications of your servant and your people Israel when they pray toward this place, and you yourself hear from the place of your dwelling from the heavens, and hear and forgive.

²²If a man sins against his neighbor and is made by him to swear an oath, and brings an oath before your altar in this house, ²³then you yourself hear from the heavens, and act, and judge your servants, to bring back the wicked, to put his way on his head, and to make righteous the righteous, to give to him according to his righteousness.

²⁴And if your people Israel are struck down before an enemy because they have sinned against you, and they return, and they confess your name, and they pray, and they seek favor before you in this house, ²⁵then you yourself hear from the heavens and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the ground that you gave to them and to their fathers.

²⁶When the heavens are restrained and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, and they pray toward this place, and they confess your name, from their sin they turn for you afflict them, ²⁷then you yourself hear in the heavens and forgive the sin of your servants and your people Israel, for you teach them the good way in which they should walk in it. And give rain on your land, which you gave to your people for a possession.

²⁸Famine, if there is, in the land pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, locust or grasshopper, if there is indeed they suffer distress from their enemies in the land at the gates, any plague or any sickness, ²⁹any prayer, any supplication which is by any person or by all your people Israel which they know each his own plague and his own sorrow, and he spreads out his hands toward this house, ³⁰then you yourself hear from the heavens, your dwelling place, and forgive, and give to each according to all his ways; because you know his heart, for you yourself, only you, know the heart of the sons of mankind, ³¹in order that they may fear you, by walking in your ways all the days that they live on the face of the ground that you gave to our fathers.

³²And also to the foreigner who is not from your people Israel, and he comes from a distant land because of your great name, and your strong hand, and your outstretched arm, and they come and pray toward this house, ³³and you yourself hear from the heavens, from your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, like your people Israel, and to know that your name is called toward this house that I have built.

³⁴When your people go out to battle against their enemies in the way which you send them, and they pray to you toward the way of this city that you have chosen it and the house that I have built for your name, ³⁵then hear from the heavens their prayer, and their supplication, and do their judgment.

³⁶When they sin against you—for there is no person who does not sin—and you are angry with them and give them before an enemy, and their captors take them captive, to a land, distant or near, ³⁷and they turn back their heart in the land where they are captive there, and they turn and they seek favor from you in the land of their captivity, saying, 'We have sinned; we have committed iniquity, and we have done evil,' ³⁸and they turn to you with all their heart and with all their being in the land of their captivity, where they took them captive, and they pray toward the way of their land which you gave to their fathers, and the city that you chose, and toward the house that I have built for your name, ³⁹then hear from the heavens, from your dwelling place, their prayer and their supplication, and do their judgment, and forgive your people who sinned against you.

⁴⁰Now, my God, please let your eyes be open, and your ears attentive to the prayer of this place. ⁴¹And now arise, Yahweh God, to your resting place, you and the Box of your strength. Your priests, Yahweh God, may they be clothed in salvation, and your faithful ones rejoice in goodness. ⁴²Yahweh God, do not turn away the face of your anointed ones. Remember the covenant faithfulnesses of David your servant."

Chapter 7

¹And when Solomon finished praying, then the fire came down from the heavens and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of Yahweh filled the house. ²And the priests were not able to go into the house of Yahweh because the glory of Yahweh filled the house of Yahweh. ³And all the sons of Israel were seeing the fire come down and the glory of Yahweh on the house, and they bowed down their faces to the ground on the stone pavement, and they worshiped and gave thanks to Yahweh, "Truly he is good; truly his covenant faithfulness is forever."

⁴And the king and all the people were offering sacrifice before Yahweh. ⁵And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. And the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. ⁶And the priests at their posts were standing; and the Levites with instruments of song of Yahweh which David the king had made to give thanks to Yahweh, "For his covenant faithfulness is forever," when David praised by the hand of them. And the priests were trumpeting in front of them, and all Israel was standing. ⁷And Solomon consecrated the middle of the courtyard which is before the house of Yahweh. For he did there the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings because the bronze altar which Solomon made was not able to contain the burnt offerings, and the grain offering, and the fats.

⁸And Solomon did the feast at that time, seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from Lebo Hamath to the brook of Egypt. ⁹And they did on the eighth day an assembly, for the dedication of the altar they did, seven days, and the feast, seven days. ¹⁰And on the 23rd day of the seventh month, he sent away the people to their tents joyful and good of heart on account of the goodness which Yahweh did for David, and for Solomon, and for Israel his people.

¹¹And Solomon finished the house of Yahweh and the house of the king. And all that came into the heart of Solomon to do in the house of Yahweh and in his house, he succeeded. ¹²And Yahweh appeared to Solomon in the night, and he said to him, "I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this place for myself for a house of sacrifice. ¹³If I restrain the heavens and there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people, ¹⁴and my people, whom my name is called over them, humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn back from their evil ways, then I myself will hear from the heavens, and I will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land. ¹⁵Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayer of this place. ¹⁶And now I have chosen and I have consecrated this house for my name to be there until forever. And my eyes and my heart will be there all the days. ¹⁷And you, if you walk before me just as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and my statutes and my judgments you keep, ¹⁸then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, just as I cut with David your father, saying, 'There will not be cut off from you a man ruling in Israel.'

¹⁹But if you all turn yourselves, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I placed before you all, and walk and serve other gods and worship them, ²⁰then I will remove them from upon my ground which I gave to them. And this house which I consecrated for my name, I will cast out from before my face, and I will make it a proverb and a taunt among all the peoples. ²¹And this house which was exalted to all who pass by it will be devastated, and they will say, 'Why did Yahweh do thus to this land and to this house?' ²²And they will say, 'On account of which they forsook Yahweh, the God of their fathers who brought them out from the land of Egypt, and they laid hold of other gods and worshipped them and served them. On account of thus, he brought on them all this misery.'"

¹And it happened at the end of 20 years, in which Solomon built the house of Yahweh and his house, ²and the cities which Hiram gave to Solomon, Solomon built them. And he caused to dwell there the sons of Israel.

³And Solomon went to Hamathzobah and he prevailed over it. ⁴And he built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the cities of stores which he built in Hamath. ⁵And he built Beth Horon the Upper and Beth Horon the Lower, fortified cities with walls, doors, and a bar, ⁶and Baalath and all the cities of stores which were to Solomon, and all the cities of the chariots and the cities of the horsemen, and all the desire of Solomon which he desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his kingdom.

⁷All the people who were left from the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not from Israel, ⁸from their sons who were left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel had not brought to an end—and Solomon brought them up for forced laborers, until this day. ⁹But, from the sons of Israel which Solomon did not make to be laborers for his work, rather, they were men of battle, and chiefs of his officers, and chiefs of his chariots and his horsemen. ¹⁰and these, the chiefs of supervisors who were to King Solomon, 250 ruling over the people.

¹¹And the daughter of Pharaoh Solomon brought up from the city of David to the house that he built for her, for he said, "My wife must not dwell in the house of David, the king of Israel, because sacred are the places where the Box of Yahweh has come into them."

¹²Then Solomon brought up burnt offerings to Yahweh on the altar of Yahweh that he had built before the porch.

¹³And by the matter day by day to bring up, according to the commandment of Moses, for the Sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the appointed times three times in the year: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Booths.

¹⁴And he appointed according to the judgment of David his father the divisions of the priests over their service, and the Levites over their charge to praise and to minister in front of the priests, for the matter of the day in its day, and the gatekeepers in their divisions for gate and gate, for thus was the commandment of David, the man of God. ¹⁵And they did not turn from the commandment of the king regarding the priests and the Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasuries.

¹⁶And all the work of Solomon was completed, from the day of the foundation of the house of Yahweh and until its completion. Complete was the house of Yahweh.

¹⁷Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and to Eloth on the edge of the sea, in the land of Edom. ¹⁸And Hiram sent to him by the hand of his servants ships, and servants who knew the sea. And they came with the servants of Solomon to Ophir. And they took from there 450 talents of gold, and they brought to King Solomon.

Chapter 9

¹And the queen of Sheba heard the report of Solomon, and she came to test Solomon with difficult questions in Jerusalem with very great wealth and camels carrying spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stone. And she came to Solomon and spoke with him about all that was in her heart. ²And Solomon declared to her all her matters; and a matter was not concealed from Solomon which he did not declare to her. ³And the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon and the house that he built, ⁴and the food of his table, and the seating of his servants, and the standing of his ministers and their attire, and his cupbearers and their attire, and his burnt offering that he brought up to^[1] the house of Yahweh, and there was not still breath in her. ⁵And she said to the king, "True was the word that I heard in my land concerning your words and concerning your wisdom. ⁶But I did not believe their words until when I came, and my eyes saw. And behold, it was not told to me half of the greatness of your wisdom you have added on to the report that I heard. ⁷How blessed are your men! And how blessed are these servants of yours, who are standing before you continually and are hearing your wisdom.^[2] ⁸Let Yahweh your God be blessed, who delighted in you to place you on his throne, to be king for Yahweh your God, because your God loved Israel to establish them forever. And he has placed you over them to be king, to do justice and righteousness!"

¹³And the weight of the gold that came to Solomon in one year was 666 talents of gold, ¹⁴besides from the traveling men and the traders who brought in; and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land were bringing gold and silver to Solomon. ¹⁵And King Solomon made 200 large shields of beaten gold; 600 of beaten gold he brought up for one large shield. ¹⁶And 300 shields of beaten gold; 300 gold he brought up for one shield. And the king placed them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon. ¹⁷And the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold. ¹⁸And six steps to the throne, and a footstool with gold to the throne was fastened. And hands from this and from this on the place of the seat and two lions standing beside the hands. ¹⁹And 12 lions were standing there on six steps, from this and from this; it had not been done thus for any kingdom. ²⁰And all the vessels of drink of King Solomon were gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were refined gold. Nothing of silver; it was not thought in the days of Solomon for anything. ²¹For the ships belonging to the king went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram. Once every three years the ships of Tarshish would come carrying gold and silver, ivories, and apes and baboons.

²²And King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. ²³And all the kings of the earth were seeking the face of Solomon to hear his wisdom which God placed in his heart. ²⁴And they were bringing each his gift, items of silver and items of gold, and garments, armor, and spices, and horses and mules, a matter of year by year. ²⁵And there were to Solomon 4,000 stalls for horses and chariots, and 12,000 horsemen; and he placed them in chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. ²⁶And it happened he was ruling over all the kings from the River and until the land of the Philistines, and until the border of Egypt. ²⁷And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and the cedars he made as sycamore trees that were in the lowlands, in abundance. ²⁸And they were bringing out horses from Egypt to Solomon and from all the lands.

²⁹And the remainder of the matters of Solomon, the first things and the last things, are they not written in the words of Nathan the Prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the Seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? ³⁰And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel 40 years. ³¹And Solomon lied down with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam, his son, reigned in his place.

9:7 ^[2] , assuming that the text should read as in 1 Kings 10:8.

Chapter 10

¹And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for to Shechem all Israel had come to make him king. ²And it happened when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard, for he was in Egypt where he had fled from the face of King Solomon. And Jeroboam returned from Egypt. ³And they sent and they called to him, and Jeroboam and all Israel came. And they spoke to Rehoboam, saying, ⁴“Your father hardened our yoke. But now, lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke which he gave to us, and we will serve you.” ⁵And he said to them, “Yet three days and return to me.” And the people went.

⁶And King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had been standing before Solomon his father when he was alive, saying, “How do you all advise to bring back an answer to this people?” ⁷And they spoke to him, saying, “If you are good to this people and are favorable to them, and speak to them good words, then they will be for you servants all the days.” ⁸But he abandoned the advice of the elders who had advised him, and he consulted the young men who had grown with him, standing before him. ⁹And he said to them, “What do you all advise, that we may bring back an answer to this people who spoke to me, saying, ‘Lighten from the yoke that your father gave us?’” ¹⁰And the young men who had grown with him spoke, saying, “Thus you shall say to the people who spoke to you, saying ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you yourself lighten from on us.’ Thus you shall say to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than the loins of my father. ¹¹So now, my father loaded on you all a heavy yoke, but I myself will add to your yoke. My father rebuked you all with whips, but I with scorpions.’”

¹²And Jeroboam came and all the people to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king spoke saying, "Return to me on the third day." ¹³And the king answered them harshly. And King Rehoboam abandoned the advice of the elders. ¹⁴And he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "I will make heavy your yoke, and I myself will add to it. My father rebuked you all with whips, but I with scorpions."

¹⁵And the king did not listen to the people, because it was a turn of affairs from God, in order that Yahweh would establish his word that he spoke by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶And all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, and the people answered the king, saying, "What for us is a portion with David? And no inheritance with the son of Jesse. Each to your tents, Israel! Now, see your house, David." And all Israel went to his tents. ¹⁷But the sons of Israel dwelling in the cities of Judah, and Rehoboam reigned over them. ¹⁸And King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the forced labor, but the sons of Israel stoned him with stones and he died. And King Rehoboam strengthened himself to go up in the chariot to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹And Israel has rebelled against the house of David until this day.

Chapter 11

¹And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, and he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen who do battle, to fight against Israel, to bring back the kingdom to Rehoboam. ²But the word of Yahweh was to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, ³"Say to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, ⁴Thus says Yahweh, "Do not go up and do not fight with your brothers. Return, each to his house, for from with me, this thing is.'" And they listened to the words of Yahweh and returned from going against Jeroboam.

¹³And the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel presented themselves to him from all their territories. ¹⁴For the Levites left their open lands and their property. And they went to Judah and to Jerusalem, for Jeroboam and his sons rejected them from serving as priests to Yahweh. ¹⁵And he established for himself priests for the high places and for the goats and for the calves which he had made. ¹⁶And after them from all the tribes of Israel, the ones giving their heart to seek Yahweh, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Yahweh, the God of their fathers. ¹⁷And they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and they made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

¹⁸And Rehoboam took for himself a wife: Mahalath, the daughter of Jerimoth, the son of David, Abihail, the daughter of Eliab, the son of Jesse. ¹⁹And she bore to him sons: Jeush, and Shemariah, and Zaham. ²⁰And after her, he took Maacah, the daughter of Absalom; and she bore to him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith. ²¹And Rehoboam loved Maacah, the daughter of Absalom, more than all his wives and his concubines, for he lifted 18 wives and 60 concubines, and he fathered 28 sons and 60 daughters. ²²And Rehoboam appointed to be head Abijah the son of Maacah, to be leader among his brothers; for he caused to make him king. ²³And he dealt wisely, and he scattered all his sons to all the lands of Judah and Benjamin to all the fortified cities. And he gave to them provisions in abundance, and he asked for a multitude of wives.

¹And it happened when the reign of Rehoboam was established and when he had become strong, he abandoned the law of Yahweh—and all Israel with him. ²And it happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak, the king of Egypt, came up against Jerusalem, because they were unfaithful to Yahweh. ³With 1200 chariots, and 60,000 horsemen, and there was no number for the people who came with him from Egypt: Libyans, Sukkites, and Cushites. ⁴And he captured the fortified cities that belonged to Judah, and he came to Jerusalem. ⁵And Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the chiefs of Judah who had gathered to Jerusalem because of Shishak. And he said to them, “Thus says Yahweh: You all yourselves have abandoned me, and I myself have also abandoned you all into the hand of Shishak.” ⁶And the chiefs of Israel and the king humbled themselves. And they said, “Righteous is Yahweh.” ⁷And when Yahweh saw that they had humbled themselves, the word of Yahweh was to Shemaiah, saying, “They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them; and I will give to them like a little for escape, and my rage will not pour out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. ⁸Nevertheless, they will be to him for servants, and they will know my service and the service of the kingdoms of the lands.”

⁹And Shishak, the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took the treasures of the house of Yahweh and the treasures of the house of the king. Everything he took; and he took the shields of gold that Solomon had made.

¹⁰And King Rehoboam made in their place shields of bronze, and he appointed over the hand of the chiefs of the runners, the keepers of the entrance of the house of the king. ¹¹And it happened as often as the king came into the house of Yahweh, the runners came and carried them and brought them back to the chamber of the runners.

¹²And when he humbled himself, the anger of Yahweh turned from him, and did not destroy to completion. And also, in Judah there were good matters.

¹³And King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and he reigned. For a son of 41 years Rehoboam was in his reigning, and 17 years he reigned in Jerusalem, the city that Yahweh had chosen to put his name there from all the tribes of Israel. And the name of his mother, Naamah the Ammonitess. ¹⁴And he did evil, for he did not establish his heart to seek Yahweh.

¹⁵And the matters of Rehoboam, the first things and the last things, are they not written in the words of Shemaiah the prophet and Iddo the seer, according to genealogy? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days. ¹⁶And Rehoboam lied down with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David. And Abijah his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 13

¹In the 18th year of King Jeroboam, then Abijah reigned over Judah. ²Three years he reigned in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother, Macaiah, the daughter of Uriel from Gibeah. And war was between Abijah and between Jeroboam. ³And Abijah began the battle with an army of mighty ones of battle, 400,000 chosen men. And Jeroboam deployed against him in battle 800,000 chosen men, mighty ones of strength. ⁴And Abijah rose on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hills of Ephraim, and he said, “Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel! ⁵Is it not to you all to know that Yahweh, the God of Israel, gave the kingdom to David over Israel forever, to him and to his sons, a covenant of salt? ⁶But Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon, the son of David, arose, and he rebelled against his lord. ⁷And empty men, sons of wickedness, assembled about him, and they strengthened themselves over Rehoboam, the son of Solomon. And Rehoboam was young and tender of heart, and he did not strengthen himself before them. ⁸And now, you all are saying to strengthen self before the kingdom of Yahweh, by the hand of the sons of David, and you all are a great abundance, and with you all are calves of gold which Jeroboam made for you all for gods. ⁹Did you all not drive out the priests of Yahweh, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and make for yourselves priests like the peoples of the lands? Any who comes to fill his hand with a young bull, a son of a herd, and seven rams, and he will be a priest of what are not gods. ¹⁰But us, Yahweh is our God, and we have not abandoned him. And priests, are ministering to Yahweh, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, in the work. ¹¹And they are making sacrifices to Yahweh, burnt offerings, morning by morning and evening by evening, and spiced incense, and a line of bread on the pure table, and the gold lampstand and its lamps to burn evening by evening. For we are keeping the charge of Yahweh, our God, but you all yourselves have abandoned him. ¹²And behold, with us, at our head, is God, and his priests and the trumpets of shouting to raise a shout against you all. Sons of Israel, do not fight against Yahweh, the God of your fathers, for you will not succeed."

¹³But Jeroboam had caused to circle around an ambush to come from behind them; and they were before Judah, and the ambush from behind them. ¹⁴And Judah turned, and behold, to them was the battle before them and behind. And they cried out to Yahweh, and the priests were blowing trumpets. ¹⁵And the men of Judah raised a shout; and it happened when the men of Judah raised a shout, then God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶And the sons of Israel fled from before Judah, and God gave them into their hand. ¹⁷And Abijah and his people struck them a great striking, and they fell slain from Israel, 500,000 chosen men. ¹⁸And the sons of Israel were humbled at that time, and the sons of Judah were strong because they relied on Yahweh, the God of their fathers. ¹⁹And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam; and he captured from him cities: Bethel and its daughters, and Jeshanah and its daughters, and Ephron and its daughters. ²⁰And the strength of Jeroboam did not hold again in the days of Abijah; and Yahweh struck him down, and he died. ²¹And Abijah strengthened himself; and he lifted to himself 14 wives, and he fathered 22 sons and 16 daughters. ²²And the remainder of the matters of Abijah, and his ways, and his words are written in the writing of the prophet Iddo.

Chapter 14

¹And Abijah lied down with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And Asa, his son, reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet ten years. ²And Asa did the good and the right in the eyes of Yahweh his God. ³And he took away the foreign altars and the high places, and he shattered the pillars, and he cut to pieces the Asherim. ⁴And he said to Judah to seek Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. ⁵And he took away from all the cities of Judah the high places and the incense altars. And the kingdom was quiet before him. ⁶And he built fortified cities in Judah, for the land was quiet. And there was not with him war in these years, because Yahweh had given rest to him. ⁷And he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and let us surround with a wall, and towers, doors, and bars; still the land is before us because we have sought Yahweh our God. We have sought, and he has given rest to us all around." And they built, and they succeeded. ⁸And there was to Asa an army carrying large shield and spear; from Judah, 300,000. And from Benjamin, ones carrying shield and drawing bow, 280,000. All these were mighty ones of strength.

⁹And Zerah the Cushite came out against them with an army of 1,000 thousands and 300 chariots; and he came to Mareshah. ¹⁰And Asa went out before him, and they deployed for battle in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. ¹¹And Asa called to Yahweh his God and said, "Yahweh, it is nothing for you to help between many and one without strength. Help us, Yahweh our God, for on you we rely, and in your name we have come against this multitude. Yahweh, our God you are; do not let man prevail against you." ¹²And Yahweh struck down the Cushites before Asa and before Judah; and the Cushites fled. ¹³And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them until Gerar. And there fell from the Cushites so that there was none to them something living; for they were broken before Yahweh and before his camp. And they carried away very much plunder. ¹⁴And they struck all the cities around Gerar, for the dread of Yahweh was on them. And they plundered all the cities, for great spoils was in them. ¹⁵And also the tents of cattle they struck; and they took captive sheep in abundance, and camels, and they returned to Jerusalem.

¹And Azariah the son of Oded, on him came the Spirit of God. ²And he went out before Asa, and he said to him, "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: Yahweh is with you all, when you all are with him. And if you all seek him, he will be found by you all; but if you all abandon him, he will abandon you all. ³And many days were to Israel without the true God, and without a priest teaching, and without the law. ⁴But they turned in their distress to Yahweh, the God of Israel, and they sought him, and he was found by them. ⁵And in those times there was no peace for one going out, nor for one coming in; for great dismay was upon all the inhabitants of the lands. ⁶And they were beaten down, nation by nation, and city by city, for God confused them in all distress. ⁷But you all, be strong, and do not let your hands grow slack, for there is reward for your work."

⁸And when Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he strengthened himself and caused to pass away the abhorrences from all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and from the cities that he had captured from the hill country of Ephraim. And he restored the altar of Yahweh which was before the porch of Yahweh. ⁹And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the sojourners with them from Ephraim and Manasseh, and from Simeon; for they fell on him from Israel in abundance when they saw that Yahweh his God was with him. ¹⁰And they gathered at Jerusalem in the third month, in the 15th year of the reign of Asa. ¹¹And they sacrificed to Yahweh in that day from the plunder they brought: 700 oxen and 7,000 sheep. ¹²And they entered into a covenant to seek Yahweh, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their being. ¹³And any who does not seek Yahweh, the God of Israel, will be killed, whether small or great, whether man or woman. ¹⁴And they swore to Yahweh with a great voice, and with a shout, and with trumpets and with horns. ¹⁵And all Judah rejoiced about the oath, for with all their heart they swore, and with all their will they sought him, and he was found by them. And Yahweh gave rest to them all around.

¹⁶And also Maacah, the mother of King Asa, he took her away from being queen, because she made to Asherah an abominable image. And Asa cut down her abominable image, and crushed and burned at the brook Kidron. ¹⁷But the high places they did not take away from Israel. Nevertheless, the heart of Asa was undivided all his days. ¹⁸And he brought the sacred things of his father and his sacred things into the house of God, silver and gold and items. ¹⁹And war was not until the 35th year of the reign of Asa.

Chapter 16

¹In the 36th year of the reign of Asa, Baasha, the king of Israel, went up against Judah and built Ramah, so as to not allow one to go out or come in to Asa, the king of Judah. ²And Asa brought silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of Yahweh and the house of the king. And he sent to Ben Hadad, the king of Aram, who was dwelling in Damascus, saying, ³"A covenant between me and between you, and between my father and between your father. Behold, I have sent to you silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with Baasha, the king of Israel, and he will go up from against me." ⁴And Ben Hadad listened to King Asa and he sent the chiefs of the armies which belonged to him against the cities of Israel. And they struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel Maim^[1], and all the stores of the cities of Naphtali. ⁵And it happened when Baasha heard, then he ceased building Ramah, and he stopped his work. ⁶And King Asa took all Judah. And they carried away the stones of Ramah and its wood with which Baasha had been building, and he built with them Geba and Mizpah.

⁷And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa, the king of Judah, and he said to him, "Because you relied on the king of Aram, and you did not rely on Yahweh your God, therefore the army of the king of Aram escaped from your hand. ⁸Were not the Cushites and the Lubites an abundant army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on Yahweh, he gave them into your hand. ⁹For Yahweh, his eyes, are going quickly in all the earth to strengthen himself with their heart undivided to him. You have acted foolishly regarding this. For from now, there will be with you wars." ¹⁰And Asa was angry at the seer; and he put him in the house of the stocks, for in rage with him regarding this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

¹¹And behold, the matters of Asa, the first things and the last things, behold, they are written on the scroll of the kings of Judah and Israel. ¹²And Asa became sick in the 39th year of his reign, in his feet, until increasing his sickness. And yet, in his sickness, he did not seek Yahweh, but among the healers. ¹³And Asa lied down with his fathers, and he died in the 41st year of his reign. ¹⁴And they buried him in his graves, which he hollowed out for himself in the city of David. And they laid him on a bed which he filled with spices and kinds of mixtures with an ointment mixture of a work. And they burned for him a great burning until abundance.

16:4 ^[1]

Chapter 17

⁷And in the third year of his reign he sent his chiefs, Ben-Hail, and Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah. ⁸And with them the Levites: Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-Adonijah, the Levites; and with them, Elishama and Jehoram, the priests. ⁹And they taught in Judah, and with them, the scroll of the law of Yahweh. And they went around in all the cities of Judah, and they taught among the people.

¹⁰And the dread of Yahweh was on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, and they did not fight with Jehoshaphat. ¹¹And some of the Philistines were bringing to Jehoshaphat tribute, and a silver load. Also, the Arabians were bringing to him flocks, 7,700 rams and 7,700 goats. ¹²And it happened Jehoshaphat was walking and becoming increasingly great. And he built in Judah palaces and cities of stores. ¹³And much work was to him in the cities of Judah, and men of battle, mighty ones of strength in Jerusalem. ¹⁴And these were their mustering according to the house of their fathers: for Judah, chiefs of thousands, Adnah the chief, and with him mighty ones of strength, 300,000; ¹⁵and on his hand, Jehohanan the chief and with him 280,000; ¹⁶and on his hand Amasiah the son of Zichri, who freely offered himself to Yahweh, and with him 200,000 mighty ones of strength. ¹⁷And from Benjamin: a mighty one of strength, Eliada, and with him, ones armed with bow and shield, 200,000; ¹⁸and on his hand, Jehozabad and with him 180,000 equipped for war. ¹⁹These ministered to the king, besides those whom the king placed in the cities of fortification in all Judah.

17:3 ^[1], and some modern versions leave it out.

Chapter 18

¹And it was to Jehoshaphat wealth and glory in abundance; and he became son-in-law to Ahab. ²And he went down at the end of years to Ahab in Samaria, and Ahab sacrificed for him sheep and oxen in abundance and for the people who were with him. And he incited him to go up against Ramoth Gilead. ³And Ahab, the king of Israel, said to Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, "Will you go with me to Ramoth Gilead?" And he said to him, "Like me, like you, and like your people, my people, and with you in battle."

⁴And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please seek as the day the word of Yahweh." ⁵And the king of Israel gathered the prophets, 400 men. And he said to them, "Should we go against Ramoth Gilead in battle, or should I refrain?" And they said, "Go up, and God will give into the hand of the king." ⁶And Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not here another prophet of Yahweh, that we might seek from him?" ⁷And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Still one man to seek Yahweh from him. But I myself hate him for nothing does he prophesy about me that is good, but all his days evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imlah." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say thus." ⁸And the king of Israel called to one officer, and he said, "Hasten Micaiah the son of Imlah." ⁹And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting, each on his throne, clothed with robes. And they were sitting at a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying before them. ¹⁰And Zedekiah the son of Kenaanah made for himself horns of iron, and he said, "Thus says Yahweh: With these you will gore Aram until they are finished." ¹¹And all the prophets were prophesying thus, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and succeed. And Yahweh will give into the hand of the king."

¹²And the messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Behold, the words of the prophets, one mouth, good to the king. And please let your word be as one from them, and speak good." ¹³And Micaiah said, "As Yahweh lives, surely that which my God says, it I will speak." ¹⁴And he came to the king, and the king said to him, "Micaiah, should we go against Ramoth Gilead for battle, or should I refrain?" And he said, "Go up and succeed. And they will be given into your hand." ¹⁵And the king said to him, "How many times must I myself make you swear that you will speak not to me, only truth in the name of Yahweh?" ¹⁶And he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the hills, like sheep which do not have to them one who shepherds. And Yahweh said, 'No master to these; they will turn, each to his house in peace.'" ¹⁷And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not say to you, he will not prophesy about me good, but only evil?" ¹⁸And he said, "Therefore, hear the word of Yahweh: I saw Yahweh sitting on his throne and all the host of heaven standing on his right and his left. ¹⁹And Yahweh said, 'Who will entice Ahab, the king of Israel, so he will go up, and he will fall at Ramoth Gilead?' And this speaker said thus, and this speaker thus. ²⁰And the spirit went out, and he stood before Yahweh. And he said, 'I myself will entice him.' And Yahweh said to him, 'With what?' ²¹And he said, 'I will go out and I will become a spirit of deception in the mouth of all his prophets.' And he said, 'You will entice, and also you will be able. Go out and do thus.' ²²And now, behold, Yahweh placed a spirit of deception in the mouth of these your prophets, and Yahweh, he has spoken against you disaster."

²³And Zedekiah the son of Kenaanah, drew near, and he struck Micaiah on the cheek. And he said, "Where is this, the way the Spirit of Yahweh passed over from me to speak with you?" ²⁴And Micaiah said, "Behold, you will see on that day, when you go chamber by chamber to hide yourself." ²⁵And the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah and return him to Amon, the chief of the city, and to Joash, the son of the king, ²⁶and say, 'Thus says the king: Put this in the house of imprisonment and feed him bread of oppression and water of oppression, until my returning in peace.'" ²⁷And Micaiah said, "If you certainly return in peace, Yahweh did not speak with me." And he said, "Hear, O peoples, all of them!"

²⁸And the king of Israel went up, and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, against Ramoth Gilead. ²⁹And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into the battle, and now put on your garments." And the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into the battle. ³⁰And the king of Aram had commanded the chiefs of the chariots which were to him, saying, "Do not fight the small or the great, but with the king of Israel alone." ³¹And it happened when the chiefs of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, and they said, "It is the king of Israel." And they turned against him to fight. And Jehoshaphat cried out, and Yahweh helped him, and God incited them from him. ³²And it happened when the chiefs of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, and they turned back from after him. ³³And a man drew the bow in his innocence and struck the king of Israel between the joinings and between the armor. And he said to the charioteer, "Turn your hand and bring me out from the camp, for I have been seriously wounded." ³⁴And the battle went up that day, and the king of Israel was set up in the chariot opposite Aram until the evening. And he died at the time of the going of the sun.

Chapter 19

¹And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace, to Jerusalem. ²But Jehu, the son of Hanani the seer, went out to his face, and he said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should the wicked you help and the ones who hate Yahweh you love? And because of this, upon you is wrath from before Yahweh. ³However, good things have been found with you, for you removed the Asherah from the land, and you established your heart to seek God."

⁴And Jehoshaphat dwelt in Jerusalem. And he turned and he went out among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim. And he brought them back to Yahweh, the God of their fathers. ⁵And he appointed judges in the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, for city and city. ⁶And he said to the judges, "See what you all are doing. For not for man do you all judge but for Yahweh; and with you all in the matter of judgment. ⁷And now, let the dread of Yahweh be upon you all. Watch and act for there is not with Yahweh our God injustice or lifting of faces or taking a bribe."

⁸And also in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed from the Levites and the priests, and from the heads of fathers for Israel, for the judgment of Yahweh, and for dispute. And they returned to Jerusalem. ⁹And he commanded them, saying, "Thus you will do in the fear of Yahweh in trustworthiness and with a complete heart. ¹⁰And any dispute that comes to you all from your brothers, the ones dwelling in their cities, between blood to blood, between law to command, to statutes, and to judgments, and you all must caution them, so they will not be guilty to Yahweh, and there will be wrath on you all and on your brothers. Thus you will do, and you all will not be guilty. ¹¹And behold, Amariah the head priest is over you all for any matter of Yahweh. And Zebadiah, the son of Ishmael, is the leader of the house of Judah for any matter of the king. And officials of the Levites are before you all. Be strong and act! And let Yahweh be with the good!"

Chapter 20

¹And it happened after this, the sons of Moab and the sons of Ammon, and with them some Meunites came against Jehoshaphat for battle.^[1] ²And they came and told Jehoshaphat, saying, "A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, from Aram. And behold, they are in Hazezon Tamar," that is, Engedi.^[2] ³And he feared, and Jehoshaphat set his face to seek Yahweh. And he proclaimed a fast over all Judah. ⁴And Judah gathered to seek from Yahweh; also from all the cities of Judah, they came to seek Yahweh.

⁵And Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of Yahweh, before the new court.

⁶And he said, "Yahweh, the God of our fathers, are you not he, the God in the heavens? And you rule in all the kingdoms of the nations. And in your hand are power and might and none stands himself with you. ⁷Did you yourself our God not drive out the inhabitants of this land from before your people Israel, and give it to the seed of Abraham, the one who loved you, forever? ⁸And they have dwelled in it, and they built for you in it a sanctuary for your name, saying, ⁹If disaster comes on us—the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine—we will stand before this house, and before you for your name is in this house. And we will cry to you from our distress, and you will hear and deliver.^[3] ¹⁰And now behold the sons of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir whom you did not give to Israel to enter against them when they were coming from the land of Egypt, for they turned from against them, and they did not destroy them. ¹¹And behold they are repaying us, to come to drive us out from your possession which you caused us to possess. ¹²Our God, will you not judge them, for there is not in us strength before this great multitude coming against us. And we ourselves do not know what we should do, but on you are our eyes." ¹³And all Judah was standing before Yahweh, even their children, their wives, and their sons.

¹⁴And Jahaziel, the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite from the sons of Asaph, the Spirit of Yahweh was on him in the midst of the assembly. ¹⁵And he said, "Give attention, all Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat. Thus says Yahweh to you all, 'You yourselves, do not fear; and do not be dismayed from before this great multitude, for not to you all is the battle but to God.

¹⁶Tomorrow, go down against them. Behold, they are coming up by the Ascent of Ziz. And you will find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷Not to you all is it to fight in this. Station yourselves, stand and see the deliverance of Yahweh with you all, Judah and Jerusalem. Do not fear and do not be dismayed. Tomorrow, go out before them, and Yahweh is with you all.'" ¹⁸And Jehoshaphat bowed down, face to the earth. And all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before Yahweh to worship Yahweh. ¹⁹And the Levites, from the sons of the Kohathites and from the sons of the Korahites, stood up to praise Yahweh, the God of Israel, with a great voice upwards.

²⁰And they rose early in the morning, and they went out to the wilderness of Tekoa. And when they went, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Believe in Yahweh your God, and be confirmed. Believe in his prophets and succeed.” ²¹And he consulted with the people, and he appointed ones who sing to Yahweh and ones who praise the holy majesty as they went out before the equipped. And they were saying, “Give thanks to Yahweh, for his covenant faithfulness is forever.” ²²And at the time they began in cry of jubilation and praise, Yahweh placed ambushers against the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir who were coming to Judah. And they were struck. ²³And the sons of Ammon and Moab stood against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, to devote to destruction and to destroy. And when they finished with the inhabitants of Seir, they helped a man against his neighbor for destruction.

²⁴And Judah came to the watchtower of the wilderness, and they turned toward the multitude. And behold, corpses fallen to the earth! And there none who escaped. ²⁵And Jehoshaphat and his people came to plunder the spoils, and they found among them in abundance goods, and corpses, and precious items. And they took for themselves, so there was no carrying away. And there were three days of plundering the spoils, for it was great.^[4] ²⁶And on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Berakah. For there they blessed Yahweh. Therefore they called the name of that place “Valley of Berakah” until today. ²⁷And they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem and Jehoshaphat at their head, to return to Jerusalem with joy, for Yahweh had made them rejoice over their enemies. ²⁸And they came to Jerusalem with harps and with lyres and with trumpets to the house of Yahweh. ²⁹And the dread of God was on all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that Yahweh had fought with the enemies of Israel. ³⁰And the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was quiet, and his God gave rest to him all around.

³¹And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. The son of 35 years when he became king, and 25 years he reigned in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother, Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi. ³²And he walked in the way of his father Asa, and he did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the eyes of Yahweh. ³³However, the high places did not turn aside. And still the people did not establish their heart to the God of their fathers. ³⁴And the remainder of the matters of Jehoshaphat, the first things and the last things, behold, they are written in the words of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is taken up on the scroll of the kings of Israel.

³⁵And after this Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, allied himself with Ahaziah, the king of Israel; he made himself guilty in so doing. ³⁶And he allied himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish. And they made ships at Ezion Geber. ³⁷And Eliezer the son of Dodavahu from Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, “When you allied yourself with Ahaziah, Yahweh broke through your works.” And the ships were broken, and they were not able to go to Tarshish.

Chapter 21

¹And Jehoshaphat laid down with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram, his son, reigned in his place. ²And to him brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariahu, and Michael, and Shephatiah. All these, the sons of Jehoshaphat, the king of Israel. ³And their father gave to them many gifts of silver and of gold and of precious things with fortified cities in Judah. And the kingdom he gave to Jehoram for he was the firstborn. ⁴And Jehoram rose over the kingdom of his father and he strengthened himself. And he killed all his brothers with the sword, and also some of the chiefs of Israel. ⁵A son of 32 years Jehoram was when he became king, and eight years he reigned in Jerusalem. ⁶And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab did, for the daughter of Ahab was to him a wife, and he did evil in the eyes of Yahweh. ⁷But Yahweh was not willing to destroy the house of David on account of the covenant which he had cut with David; and just as he said to give to him a lamp and to his sons all the days.

⁸In his days, Edom rebelled from under the hand of Judah, and they caused to reign over themselves a king. ⁹And Jehoram passed over with his chiefs and all his chariots with him. And it happened he rose at night and he struck Edom surrounding him and the chiefs of the chariots. ¹⁰And Edom rebelled from under the hand of Judah until this day. Then Libnah rebelled at that time from under his hand, for he abandoned Yahweh, the God of his fathers.

¹¹Also, he himself made the high places in the hills of Judah, and he caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit adultery, and he drove Judah away. ¹²And a writing came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of David your father: 'Because you did not walk in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father and in the ways of Asa, the king of Judah, ¹³but you walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and he caused Judah to commit adultery and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, like the house of Ahab committed adultery, and also your brothers, the house of your father, the ones better than you, you have killed. ¹⁴Behold, Yahweh is striking a great striking among your people, and among your sons, and among your wives, and among all your goods, ¹⁵and you with many sicknesses, with a disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out from the sickness, days upon days."

¹⁶And Yahweh stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabians who were at the hand of the Cushites. ¹⁷And they came up against Judah, and they broke it up. And they captured all the goods that were found in the house of the king, and also his sons and his wives, and there was not left to him a son except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

¹⁸And after all this, Yahweh struck him in his intestines with a sickness for which there is no cure. ¹⁹And it happened from days to days, and at the time of the going out for the end of days, two, his intestines came out with his sickness, and he died with evil diseases. And his people did not make for him a burning like the burning of his fathers. ²⁰A son of 32 he was when he became king; and eight years he reigned in Jerusalem, and he went with no delight. And they buried him in the city of David, but not in the grave of the kings.

Chapter 22

¹And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place, for all the older the band had killed coming with the Arabians to the camp. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, reigned. ²A son of 42 years was Ahaziah when he became king, and one year he reigned in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri. ³Also he himself walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his advisor to do wickedly. ⁴And he did evil in the eyes of Yahweh, like the house of Ahab, for they themselves were to him advisors after the death of his father, for destruction to him. ⁵Also, with their counsel he walked, and he went with Jehoram the son of Ahab, the king of Israel, for battle against Hazael, the king of Aram, at Ramoth Gilead. And the Arameans struck Joram. ⁶And he returned to get healed in Jezreel because of the strikings that they struck him at Ramah when he fought Hazael, the king of Aram. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram, the son of Ahab, in Jezreel because he was wounded.

⁷And from God was the downfall of Ahaziah for going to Joram. And when he came, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom Yahweh anointed him to cut off the house of Ahab. ⁸And it happened when Jehu was judging on the house of Ahab, and he found the chiefs of Judah and the sons of the brothers of Ahaziah, ones ministering to Ahaziah, and he killed them. ⁹And he sought Ahaziah; and they captured him, and he was hiding himself in Samaria. And they brought him to Jehu, and they killed him. And they buried him, for they said, "The son of Jehoshaphat is he, who sought Yahweh with all his heart." And there was none belonging to the house of Ahaziah to retain power for the kingdom.

¹⁰And Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son died, and she arose, and she destroyed all the seed of the kingdom of the house of Judah. ¹¹But Jehoshabeath,^[1] the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and she stole him from the midst of the sons of the king who were being killed, and she placed him and his nurse in the room of beds. And Jehoshabeath the daughter of the king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoida the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah) hid him from the face of Athaliah, and she did not kill him. ¹²And he was with them in the house of God, hiding himself six years. And Athaliah was reigning over the land.

22:11 ^[1] Jehoshaba in some versions.

Chapter 23

¹And in the seventh year, Jehoiada strengthened himself and took the chiefs of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri with him into the covenant. ²And they went around in Judah, and they gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah and the heads of the fathers of Israel. And they came to Jerusalem. ³And all the assembly cut a covenant in the house of God with the king. And he said to them, "Behold, the son of the king will reign, just as Yahweh spoke concerning the sons of David. ⁴This is the thing that you must do: A third from you all who come in on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, will be gatekeepers at the threshold. ⁵And a third at the house of the king, and a third at the Gate of the Foundation. And all the people will be in the courts of the house of Yahweh. ⁶And do not let one enter the house of Yahweh, except the priests and the ministering ones from the Levites; they are entering for sacred are they. And all the people must keep the charge of Yahweh. ⁷And the Levites will surround the king all around, each and his weapon in his hand. And the one going into the house will be killed. And they will be with the king in his coming in and his going out."

⁸And the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each took his men, those coming in on the Sabbath, with those going out on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest did not release the divisions. ⁹And Jehoiada the priest gave to the chiefs of the hundreds the spears and the shields and the large shields which belonged to King David which were in the house of God. ¹⁰And he stationed all the people, and each, his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, at the altar and at the house, about the king all around. ¹¹And they brought out the son of the king, and they placed on him the crown and the testimony. And they made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him. And they said, "May the king live!"

¹²And Athaliah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king, and she came to the people at the house of Yahweh. ¹³And she looked, and, behold, the king was standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the chiefs and the trumpets were by the king. And all the people of the land were joyful and blowing trumpets, and the singers with the articles of the song and leading the praising. And Athaliah ripped to pieces her clothes, and she said, "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!" ¹⁴And Jehoiada the priest brought out the chiefs of the hundreds who were appointed over the army, and he said to them, "Bring her out to before the house of the ranks; and the one who goes after her, let him be killed with the sword." For the priest had said, "Do not kill her in the house of Yahweh." ¹⁵And they laid hands on her, and she went into the entrance of the Horse Gate of the house of the king. And they put her to death there.

¹⁶And Jehoiada cut a covenant between himself, and between all the people, and between the king, to become a people for Yahweh. ¹⁷And all the people entered the house of Baal, and they tore it down, and its altars and its images they smashed, and Mattan, the priest of Baal, they killed before the altars. ¹⁸And Jehoiada set the musterings of the house of Yahweh by the hand of the priests, the Levites whom David assigned over the house of Yahweh, to offer the burnt offerings of Yahweh, as is written in the law of Moses, with joy and with song, by the hands of David. ¹⁹And he stationed gatekeepers at the gates of the house of Yahweh, and unclean in any way did not enter. ²⁰And he took the chiefs of the hundreds, and the majestic ones, and the rulers among the people, and all the people of the land. And he brought down the king from the house of Yahweh; and they came into the midst of the Upper Gate of the house of the king, and they sat the king on the throne of the kingdom.^[1] ²¹And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. And Athaliah they put to death with the sword.

23:20 ^[1] .

¹A son of seven years was Joash when he became king; and 40 years he reigned in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Zibiah from Beersheba. ²And Joash did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh all the days of Jehoiada the priest. ³And Jehoiada lifted up for him two wives, and he fathered sons and daughters.

⁴And it happened after this, there was with the heart of Joash to restore the house of Yahweh. ⁵And he gathered the priests and the Levites, and he said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah and gather from all Israel enough money to make strong the house of your God year by year. And you all yourselves, hasten to the matter." But the Levites did not hasten. ⁶And the king called for Jehoiada the head, and he said to him, "Why did you not seek after the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the tribute of Moses, the servant of Yahweh, and of the assembly of Israel for the tent of the testimony?" ⁷For wicked Athaliah, her sons had broken into the house of God and also, all the sacred things of the house of Yahweh, they used for the Baals.

⁸And the king commanded, and they made one chest. And they placed it by the gate of the house of Yahweh outside. ⁹And they gave voice in Judah and in Jerusalem to bring in to Yahweh the tribute of Moses, the servant of God, over Israel in the wilderness. ¹⁰And all the chiefs and all the people rejoiced. And they brought in and they threw into the chest until completed. ¹¹And it happened at the time one brings in the chest to the oversight of the king by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was an abundance of money, then a scribe of the king would come, and the officer of the head priest. And they would empty the chest, and they would carry it, and they would return it to its place. Thus they did day by day, and they gathered money in abundance. ¹²And the king and Jehoiada gave it to the ones doing the work of the service of the house of Yahweh. And they were hiring stonemasons and craftsmen to restore the house of Yahweh, and also for craftsmen of iron and bronze to make strong the house of Yahweh. ¹³And the doers of the work did, and the restoration of the work went up by their hand. And they made stand the house of God according to its measurement, and they strengthened it. ¹⁴And when they finished, they brought in before the king and Jehoiada the remainder of the money. And they made items for the house of Yahweh, items of ministry and of burnt offerings and pans and items of gold and silver. And they were offering up burnt offerings at the house of Yahweh regularly all the days of Jehoiada.

¹⁵And Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died, a son of 130 years at his death. ¹⁶And they buried him in the city of David with the kings, because he did good in Israel and toward God and his house. ¹⁷And after the death of Jehoiada, the chiefs of Judah came and bowed down to the king. Then the king listened to them. ¹⁸And they abandoned the house of Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and they served the Asherim and the idols. And there was wrath on Judah and Jerusalem on account of this, their guilt. ¹⁹And he sent among them prophets to bring them back to Yahweh. And they testified against them, but they did not listen.

²⁰And the Spirit of God clothed Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest. And he stood above the people, and he said to them, "Thus says God: Why are you passing over the commands of Yahweh, and you do not prosper? Because you all abandoned Yahweh, then he has abandoned you all." ²¹But they conspired against him, and they stoned him with stones by the command of the king in the court of the house of Yahweh. ²²And King Joash did not remember the covenant faithfulness that Jehoiada, his father did with him, and he killed his son. And when he died, he said, "May Yahweh see and seek."

²⁵And when they went from him, for they left him with many wounds, his servants conspired against him on account of the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest. And they killed him on his bed, and he died. And they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the graves of the kings. ²⁶And these were the ones who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath, the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith, the Moabites. ²⁷And his sons, and many oracles against him, and the establishing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the exposition of the scroll of the Kings. And Amaziah his son became king in his place.

Chapter 25

¹A son of 25 years, Amaziah became king. And 29 years he reigned in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Jehoaddan from Jerusalem. ²And he did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh, only not with a complete heart. ³And it happened when the kingdom was strong upon him, then he killed his servants, the ones who struck down the king, his father. ⁴But their sons he did not put to death for as it is written in the law, in the scroll of Moses, whom Yahweh commanded saying, "Fathers must not die on account of their sons, and sons must not die on account of their fathers, but each for his sin, they must die."

⁵And Amaziah gathered Judah, and he appointed them according to the house of the fathers, for chiefs of thousands and for chiefs of hundreds for all of Judah and Benjamin. And he mustered them from a son of 20 years and upward. And he found them, 300,000 chosen, going out to war grasping spear and large shield. ⁶And he hired from Israel 100,000 mighty ones of strength for 100 talents of silver. ⁷But a man of God came to him, saying, "O King, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for Yahweh is not with Israel, all the sons of Ephraim. ⁸But if you go, act, be strong in battle; God will cause you to fall before the enemy, for there is power in God to help and to cause to fall." ⁹And Amaziah said to the man of God, "And what will we do with the 100 talents that I have given to the troop of Israel?" And the man of God said, "There is to Yahweh to give to you much more than this." ¹⁰And Amaziah separated them, the troop that had come to him from Ephraim to go to their place. And their anger burned greatly against Judah, and they returned to their place in the burning of anger. ¹¹And Amaziah, he strengthened himself, and he led out his people. And he went to the Valley of Salt. And he struck down the sons of Seir, 10,000. ¹²And 10,000 alive the sons of Judah took captive. And they brought them to the head of the cliff, and they threw them from the head of the cliff. And all of them were dashed to pieces. ¹³But the sons of the troop that Amaziah sent back from going with him to battle, and they raided against the cities of Judah from Samaria and until Beth Horon. And they struck down from them 3,000 and they plundered much plunder.

¹⁴And it happened after Amaziah had come from striking the Edomites, and he brought the gods of the sons of Seir, and set them up for himself to be gods. And before them he bowed down and to them he made sacrifices.

¹⁵And the anger of Yahweh burned against Amaziah. And he sent to him a prophet, and he said to him, "Why do you seek the gods of the people who did not deliver their people from your hand?" ¹⁶And it happened when he was speaking with him, and he said to him, "For a counselor to the king have we placed you? Stop yourself! Why should they strike you down?" And the prophet stopped. And he said, "I know that God has counselled to destroy you because you have done this and you did not listen to my counsel."

¹⁷And Amaziah, the king of Judah, took counsel and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us meet each other face to face." ¹⁸And Joash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah, the king of Judah, saying, "A bramble that was in Lebanon sent to a cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife,' but an animal passed over the field that was in Lebanon and trampled the bramble. ¹⁹You have said, Behold, you have struck down Edom, and your heart has lifted you to boast. Now, sit in your house. Why excite yourself in evil and fall, you and Judah with you?"

²⁰But Amaziah did not listen, because from God it was, in order to give them into the hand because they sought the gods of Edom. ²¹And Joash, the king of Israel, went up, and he and Amaziah, the king of Judah, looked at each other face to face at Beth Shemesh, which belonged to Judah. ²²And Judah was struck down before Israel, and each fled to his tent. ²³And Amaziah, the king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, Joash, the king of Israel, seized at Beth Shemesh. And he brought him to Jerusalem, and he broke through the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim until the gate of the Corner, 400 cubits. ²⁴And with all the gold and the silver and all the items that were found in the house of God with Obed Edom, and the treasures in the house of the king, and the sons of the hostages, he returned to Samaria.

²⁵And Amaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, lived after the death of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel, 15 years. ²⁶And the remainder of the matters of Amaziah, the first things and the last things, behold, are they not written on the scroll of the kings of Judah and Israel? ²⁷And from the time that Amaziah turned from after Yahweh, and they bound against him a conspiracy in Jerusalem. And he fled to Lachish. And they sent after him to Lachish, and they put him to death there. ²⁸And they carried him on horses, and they buried him with his fathers in a city of Judah.

Chapter 26

¹And all the people of Judah took Uzziah, and he was a son of 16 years. And they made him king in the place of his father Amaziah. ²He himself built Eloth, and he restored it to Judah after the lying down of the king with his fathers. ³A son of 16 years was Uzziah when he became king. And 52 years he reigned in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Jekoliah from Jerusalem. ⁴And he did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that Amaziah his father had done. ⁵And he was seeking God in the days of Zechariah, the one instructing to see God^[1]. And in the days of his seeking Yahweh, God caused him to prosper.

⁶And he went out, and he fought against the Philistines. And he broke through the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod. And he built cities in Ashdod and among the Philistines. ⁷And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who dwelled in Gurbaal, and the Meunites. ⁸And the Ammonites gave tribute to Uzziah. And his name went as far as the border of Egypt because he was becoming strong increasingly. ⁹And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, and at the Valley Gate, and at the Angle, and he made them strong. ¹⁰And he built towers in the wilderness, and he dug out many cisterns, for much cattle was to him, both in the lowlands and in the plains, and plowmen and vinedressers in the hills and in Carmel, for a lover of the ground he was. ¹¹And there was to Uzziah an army of doers of battle who went out for war according to the troop by the numbering of the mustering by the hand of Jeiel, the scribe, and Maaseiah, the official, under the hand of Hananiah, from the chiefs of the king. ¹²All the number of the heads of the fathers according to the mighty ones of strength, 2,600. ¹³And under their hand, an army of war 307,500 doers of battle with strength of power to help the king against the enemy. ¹⁴And Uzziah prepared for them—for all the army—shields, and spears, and helmets, and armor, and bows, and stones of slings. ¹⁵And he made in Jerusalem war machines, invention of an inventor, to be on the towers and on the corners to shoot arrows and great stones. And his name went out as far as a distance, for he did wondrously to be helped until when he was strong.

¹⁶But at his strength, his heart was high until destroying, and he acted unfaithfully against Yahweh, his God, and he went into the temple of Yahweh to sacrifice on the altar of incense. ¹⁷And Azariah, the priest, went in after him, and with him the priests of Yahweh, 80 sons of strength. ¹⁸And they stood against Uzziah the king, and they said to him, "Not for you, Uzziah, to sacrifice to Yahweh, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, the ones consecrated to sacrifice. Go out from the sanctuary, for you acted unfaithfully, and not for you for honor from Yahweh God." ¹⁹And Uzziah raged, and in his hand was a censer to sacrifice. And when he raged against the priests, and the leprosy, it appeared on his forehead before the priests in the house of Yahweh from beside the altar of incense. ²⁰And Azariah the head priest turned to him, and all the priests, and, behold, he was leprous on his forehead. And they hastened him from there. And also, he himself hastened to go out, for Yahweh afflicted him. ²¹And Uzziah the king was leprous until the day of his death. And he dwelled in the house of separation, being leprous, for he was cut off from the house of Yahweh. And Jotham his son was over the house of the king, judging the people of the land. ²²And the remainder of the matters of Uzziah, the first things and the last things, Isaiah, the son of Amoz, the prophet wrote. ²³And Uzziah laid down with his fathers. And they buried him with his fathers in the field of the grave that belonged to the kings, for they said, "Leprous is he." And Jotham his son became king in his place.

Chapter 27

¹A son of 25 years was Jotham when he became king. And 16 years he reigned in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok. ²And he did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that Uzziah his father did, except he did not go into the temple of Yahweh. And yet the people were acting corruptly. ³He himself built the upper gate of the house of Yahweh, and on the wall of Ophel he built in abundance. ⁴And cities he built in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers. ⁵And he himself fought with the king of the sons of Ammon, and he was strong over them. And the sons of Ammon gave to him in that year 100 talents of silver, 10,000 kors of wheat, and 10,000 barley. This the sons of Ammon brought back to him, and in the second year and the third. ⁶And Jotham strengthened himself for he established his ways before Yahweh his God. ⁷And the remainder of the matters of Jotham, and all his battles and his ways, behold, they are written on the scroll of the king of Israel and Judah. ⁸A son of 25 years he was when he became king; and 16 years he reigned in Jerusalem. ⁹And Jotham laid down with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 28

¹A son of 20 years was Ahaz when he became king, and 16 years he reigned in Jerusalem. And he did not do what was right in the eyes of Yahweh, like David his father. ²And he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel; and also metal images he made for the Baals. ³And he himself offered incense in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. And he caused his sons to burn in fire, according to the abominations of the nations that Yahweh drove away from before the sons of Israel. ⁴And he sacrificed and offered incense at the high places and on the hills and under every leafy tree.

⁵And Yahweh his God gave him into the hand of the king of Aram. And he struck him, and they took captive from him many captives. And they brought to Damascus. And also into the hand of the king of Israel he gave, and he struck him a great striking. ⁶And Pekah the son of Remaliah killed in Judah 120,000 in one day, all sons of strength, when they abandoned Yahweh the God of their fathers. ⁷And Zicri, a mighty one of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah, the son of the king, and Azrikam, the leader of the house, and Elkanah, the second of the king. ⁸And the sons of Israel took captive from their brothers 200,000 wives, sons, and daughters. And also much plunder they plundered from them. And they brought the plunder back to Samaria. ⁹And there, a prophet of Yahweh was, Oded his name. And he went out before the army coming to Samaria. And he said to them, "Behold, in wrath, Yahweh, the God of your fathers was against Judah; he gave them into your hand. But you all killed them in rage; up to the heavens it reached. ¹⁰And now the sons of Judah and Jerusalem you all are saying to subjugate as male slaves and as female slaves for yourselves. Are you surely not with wrongdoings of your own against Yahweh your God? ¹¹And now, hear me and bring back the captives whom you all took captive from your brothers. For the burning anger of Yahweh is upon you all." ¹²And men rose from the heads of the sons of Ephraim—Azariah the son of Jehohanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai—against the ones coming from the army. ¹³And they said to them, "Do not bring the captives here, for wrongdoing of Yahweh against us you all are saying to add upon our sins and upon our wrongdoings. For much is the guilt to us and the burning anger upon Israel." ¹⁴And the armed ones released the captives and the spoils before the chiefs and all the assembly. ¹⁵And the men who were marked by names rose and they grasped among the captives, and all their naked persons they clothed from the plunder. And they clothed them, and they gave them sandals. And they fed them, and they gave them drink. And they poured on them, and they led them on donkeys all who stumble. And they brought them to Jericho, the City of Palms, near their brothers. And they returned to Samaria.

¹⁶At that time, King Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him. ¹⁷And again the Edomites had come, and they struck Judah. And they took captive captives. ¹⁸And the Philistines had raided among the cities of the lowlands and the Negev of Judah. And they captured Beth Shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Soko and its daughters, and Timnah and its daughters, and Gimzo and its daughters. And they dwelled there. ¹⁹For Yahweh humbled Judah because of Ahaz, the king of Israel; for he caused to break loose in Judah and to act faithlessly in faithlessness against Yahweh. ²⁰And Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria, came against him. And he harassed him, and he did not strengthen him. ²¹For Ahaz divided up the house of Yahweh and the house of the king and the chiefs. And he gave to the king of Assyria, but it was not a help to him.

²²And in the time of his harassment, and he added to act faithlessly against Yahweh, this King Ahaz. ²³And he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, those striking him, and he said, "Because the gods of the kings of Aram, they were helping them, to them I will sacrifice, and they will help me." But they themselves were to him a cause to fall and to all Israel. ²⁴And Ahaz gathered the items of the house of God and cut up the items of the house of God. And he shut the doors of the house of Yahweh. And he made for himself altars in every corner in Jerusalem. ²⁵And in every city and city of Judah he made high places to make sacrifices to other gods. And he provoked to anger Yahweh, the God of his fathers. ²⁶And the remainder of his matters and all his ways, the first things and the last things, behold, they are written on the scroll of the kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷And Ahaz laid down with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, but they did not bring him to the graves of the kings of Israel. And Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 29

¹Hezekiah became king as a son of 25 years, and 29 years he reigned in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. ²And he did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh, like all that David his father did. ³He, in the first year of his reigning, in the first month, himself opened the doors of the house of Yahweh, and he made them strong. ⁴And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and he gathered them into the plaza to the east. ⁵And he said to them, "Hear me, Levites! Now, consecrate yourselves and consecrate the house of Yahweh, the God of your fathers, and bring out the defilement from the holy place. ⁶For our fathers acted unfaithfully, and they did evil in the eyes of Yahweh our God. And they have abandoned him. And they turned their faces from the tabernacle of Yahweh, and they turned the back. ⁷Also, they shut the doors of the porch. And they extinguished the lamps, and incense they did not offer and burnt offerings they did not offer in the holy place of the God of Israel. ⁸And the wrath of Yahweh was on Judah and Jerusalem. And he gave them to be a terror, to be a horror, and to be a hissing, just as you all are seeing with your eyes. ⁹And behold, our fathers fell by the sword, and our sons, and our daughters, and our wives are in captivity on account of this. ¹⁰Now with my heart to cut a covenant with Yahweh, the God of Israel, so that his burning anger may turn from us. ¹¹My sons, now, do not be negligent for you all Yahweh has chosen to stand before him, to minister to him, and to be to him ones ministering and ones offering sacrifices."

¹²And the Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, from the sons of the Kohathites; and from the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and from the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah; ¹³and from the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and from the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; ¹⁴and from the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and from the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. ¹⁵And they gathered their brothers, and they consecrated themselves, and they entered, according to the commandment of the king with the words of Yahweh, to cleanse the house of Yahweh. ¹⁶And the priests entered the inner part of the house of Yahweh to cleanse; and they brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Yahweh to the court of the house of Yahweh. And the Levites took to bring out to the brook Kidron outside. ¹⁷And they began on the first of the first month to consecrate. And on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of Yahweh, and they consecrated the house of Yahweh for eight days. And on the 16th day of the first month they finished. ¹⁸And they came within to Hezekiah, the king, and they said, "We have cleansed all the house of Yahweh, the altar of burnt offerings and all its items, and the table of the arrangement and all its items, ¹⁹and all the items which King Ahaz rejected in his reign in his unfaithfulness. We have prepared, and we have consecrated, and, behold, they are before the altar of Yahweh."

²⁰And Hezekiah the king rose early and gathered the chiefs of the city. And he went up to the house of Yahweh.

²¹And they brought seven bulls, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven male goats of female goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he said to the sons of Aaron, the priests, to cause to go up to the altar of Yahweh. ²²And they slaughtered the cattle, and the priests took the blood, and they scattered on the altar. And they slaughtered the rams, and they scattered the blood on the altar. And they slaughtered the lambs, and they scattered the blood on the altar. ²³And they brought near the goats of the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them. ²⁴And the priests slaughtered them, and they made a sin offering with their blood on the altar to atone for all Israel, because "For all Israel," the king said, "are the burnt offering and the sin offering."

²⁵And he stationed the Levites in the house of Yahweh with cymbals, with harps, and with lyres, according to the commandment of David and Gad, the seer of the king, and Nathan the prophet, for by the hand of Yahweh was the commandment by the hand of his prophets. ²⁶And the Levites stood with the instruments of David and the priests with the trumpets. ²⁷And Hezekiah said to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And at the time the burnt offering began, the song of Yahweh began and the trumpets, and by the hands of the instruments of David, the king of Israel. ²⁸And the whole assembly was worshipping, and the song was singing, and the trumpets were sounding, all until the burnt offering was finished.

²⁹And when the burnt offering was finished, the king bowed down and all who were found with him, and they worshiped. ³⁰And King Hezekiah said, and the chiefs, to the Levites to praise Yahweh according to the words of David and Asaph the seer. And they praised with joy, and they bowed down, and they worshiped.

³¹And Hezekiah answered, and he said, "You yourselves have filled your hand to Yahweh. Come near and bring in sacrifices and thanksgivings to the house of Yahweh." And the assembly brought in sacrifices and thanksgivings, and all inclined of heart, burnt offerings. ³²And the number of the burnt offering that the assembly brought in was 70 bulls, 100 rams, 200 lambs, for the burnt offering to Yahweh was all these. ³³And the consecrated were 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep. ³⁴Except the priests were too few and they were not able to skin all the burnt offerings, so their brothers, the Levites, made them strong until the work was finished, and until the priests consecrated themselves, for the Levites were right of heart to consecrate themselves more than the priests. ³⁵And also, there were burnt offerings in abundance with the fat of the peace offerings and with the drink offerings for the burnt offering. And the service of the house of Yahweh was established. ³⁶And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, over God having prepared for the people, for in suddenness the matter happened.

Chapter 30

¹And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and also letters he wrote to Ephraim and Manasseh to come to the house of Yahweh in Jerusalem to do a Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel. ²And the king consulted, and his chiefs, and all the assembly in Jerusalem, to do the Passover in the second month. ³for they were not able to do it at that time because the priests had not consecrated themselves sufficiently, and the people had not assembled to Jerusalem. ⁴And the matter was right in the eyes of the king and in the eyes of all the assembly. ⁵And they caused to stand a word to cause a voice to pass over among all Israel, from Beersheba and to Dan to come to do a Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel, in Jerusalem; for they had not in abundance done as was written. ⁶And runners went with letters from the hand of the king and his chiefs among all Israel and Judah and according to the command of the king, saying, "Sons of Israel, return to Yahweh, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the escaped remaining of you all from the palm of the kings of Assyria. ⁷And do not be like your fathers and your brothers, who acted unfaithfully against Yahweh, the God of their fathers. And he made them to be a horror, just as you all are seeing. ⁸Now, do not harden your neck like your fathers; give hand to Yahweh and come to his sanctuary which he has consecrated forever, and serve Yahweh your God, that he may turn from you all his burning anger. ⁹For in your turning back to Yahweh, your brothers and your sons will have mercies before their captors and return this land. For gracious and compassionate is Yahweh your God, and he will not turn away his face from you all, if you return to him."

themselves and came to Jerusalem. ¹²Also on Judah was the hand of God to give them one heart to do the command of the king and the chiefs by the word of Yahweh.

¹³And many people gathered in Jerusalem to do the Feast of the Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very abundant assembly. ¹⁴And they rose, and they took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the incense altars they took away, and they threw into the brook Kidron. ¹⁵And they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the 14th of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and they consecrated themselves, and they brought in the burnt offerings to the house of Yahweh. ¹⁶And they stood at their stations according to their judgment, according to the law of Moses, the man of God. The priests were scattering the blood from the hand of the Levites, ¹⁷for many were in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves. And the Levites were over the slaughtering of the Passover lambs for all were not clean to consecrate to Yahweh. ¹⁸For a multitude of the people, many from Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not purified themselves, but they ate the Passover, against what is written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May Yahweh who is good atone for ¹⁹everyone who prepares his heart to seek God, Yahweh, the God of his fathers, but not according to the purifying of the holy place." ²⁰And Yahweh listened to Hezekiah, and he healed the people. ²¹And the sons of Israel who were found in Jerusalem did the Feast of the Unleavened Bread seven days with great joy. And the Levites and the priests were praising Yahweh day by day, with instruments of might to Yahweh. ²²And Hezekiah spoke to the heart of all the Levites, who were insightful with good insight of Yahweh. And they ate the appointed seven days, sacrificing sacrifices of peace offerings and confessing to Yahweh, the God of their fathers.

²³And all the assembly consulted to do seven days after them, and they did seven days joyfully. ²⁴For Hezekiah the king of Judah contributed to the assembly 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep; and the chiefs contributed to the assembly 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep. And many priests consecrated themselves. ²⁵And they rejoiced, all the assembly of Judah and the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly who came from Israel, and the sojourners who came from the land of Israel and the inhabitants of Judah. ²⁶And there was great joy in Jerusalem, for from the days of Solomon the son of David, the king of Israel, there was not like this in Jerusalem. ²⁷And the priests, the Levites, rose, and they blessed the people. And their voice was heard, and their prayer came to his holy dwelling in the heavens.

¹And when all this was finished, all Israel who were to be found went out to the cities of Judah, and they shattered the pillars. And they cut to pieces the Asherim, and they tore down the high places and the altars from all Judah and Benjamin, and in Ephraim and Manasseh, until finished. And all the sons of Israel returned, each to his possession, to their cities.

²And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites according to their divisions, each according to the mouth of his service, for the priests and for the Levites for burnt offering and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise at the gates of the camp of Yahweh. ³And the portion of the king was from his property for burnt offerings, for the burnt offerings of the morning and the evening and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and for the new moons and for the appointed times, as is written in the law of Yahweh. ⁴And he said to the people, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, in order that they might be strong in the law of Yahweh. ⁵And when the word broke through, the sons of Israel gave in abundance firstfruits of grain, new wine, and oil, and honey, and all the produce of the field. And the tithe of all the abundance they brought in. ⁶And the sons of Israel and Judah, the inhabitants in the cities of Judah, also they, the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the tithe of sacred things consecrated to Yahweh their God, they brought in, and they gave heaps, heaps. ⁷In the third month, they began the heaps to establish, and in the seventh month they finished. ⁸And Hezekiah and the chiefs came, and they saw the heaps. And they blessed Yahweh and his people Israel. ⁹And Hezekiah sought the priests and the Levites about the heaps. ¹⁰And Azariah, the head priest, of the house of Zadok, said to him, and he said, "From the beginning of the bringing of the contribution to the house of Yahweh we ate, and were full and had left over in abundance, for Yahweh has blessed his people, and this abundance is left."

¹¹And Hezekiah said to prepare the chambers in the house of Yahweh, and they prepared. ¹²And they brought in the contribution and the tithe and the sacred things in faithfulness. And over them as a leader was Konaniah the Levite, and Shimei his brother, second. ¹³And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismakiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the hand of Konaniah and Shimei his brother, by the arrangement of Hezekiah, the king, and Azariah, the leader over the house of God. ¹⁴And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the gatekeeper to the east was over the free will offering of God, to give the contribution of Yahweh and the most holy things, ¹⁵and by his hand Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, and Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests in faithfulness to give to their brothers in divisions, like great, like small, ¹⁶regardless of their genealogy, to males from a son of three years and upward, to all who came into the house of Yahweh, by the matter of a day in its day, for their service by their charges according to their divisions,^[1] ¹⁷and the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers and the Levites from a son of 20 years and upward by their charges according to their divisions, ¹⁸and to the genealogy with all their children, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, to all the assembly, for in their faithfulness they were consecrating themselves in holiness. ¹⁹And for the sons of Aaron, the priests, in the fields of open land of their cities, in each city and city, were men who were marked by names to give portions to every male among the priests, and to all genealogically among the Levites.

²⁰And Hezekiah did like this in all Judah. And he did what is good, and what is right, and faithful before Yahweh his God. ²¹And in every deed that he began in the service of the house of God, and by the law, and by the commandment to seek his God, with all his heart he did and succeeded.

Chapter 32

¹After these things and faithfulness, Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, came. And he came into Judah. And he encamped against the fortified cities. And he said to capture them for himself. ²And Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and his face was to battle against Jerusalem. ³And he consulted with his chiefs and his mighty ones to stop up the waters of the springs that were outside the city; and they helped him. ⁴And many people gathered, and they stopped up all the springs and the stream that was flowing in the midst of the land, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find many waters?" ⁵And he strengthened himself. And he built all the broken wall, and he brought up the towers and the other outer wall. And he strengthened the Millo in the city of David. And he made weapons in abundance and shields.^[1] ⁶And he placed chiefs of battle over the people. And he gathered them to himself to the plaza at the city gate. And he spoke to their heart, saying, ⁷"Be strong and be courageous. Do not be afraid, and do not be dismayed from before the king of Assyria and from before all the multitude that is with him, for with us is one greater than with him. ⁸With him, an arm of flesh, but with us, Yahweh, our God, to help us and to fight our battles." And the people leaned on the words of Hezekiah, the king of Judah.

⁹After this, Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, sent his servants to Jerusalem (and he was by Lachish, and all his military strength was with him) to Hezekiah, the king of Judah, and to all Judah who was in Jerusalem, saying, ¹⁰"Thus says Sennacherib, the king of Assyria: On what are you all trusting and dwelling in siege in Jerusalem? ¹¹Is not Hezekiah misleading you all, to give you all to die by famine and by thirst, saying, 'Yahweh our God will deliver us from the palm of the king of Assyria?' ¹²Did not he, Hezekiah, take away his high places and his altars and he said to Judah and to Jerusalem, saying, 'Before one altar you all must worship, and on it you all must make sacrifice?' ¹³Do you all not know what I have done, I and my fathers, to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands surely able to deliver their land from my hand? ¹⁴Who is among all the gods of these nations whom my fathers devoted to destruction who is able to deliver his people from my hand, that your God is able to deliver you all from my hand? ¹⁵And now do not let Hezekiah deceive you all and do not let him mislead you all like this. And do not believe him for any god of any nation or kingdom has not been able to deliver his people from my hand or from the hand of my fathers. Also, indeed, your God will not deliver you all from my hand." ¹⁶And again his servants spoke against Yahweh God and against Hezekiah, his servant. ¹⁷And letters he wrote to taunt Yahweh, the God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, "Like the gods of the nations of the lands who did not deliver their people from my hand, thus the God of Hezekiah will not deliver his people from my hand." ¹⁸And they called in a great voice in Judean against the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them and to dismay them, in order that they might capture the city. ¹⁹And they spoke about the God of Jerusalem as against the gods of the peoples of the land, the work of the hands of man.

²⁰And Hezekiah, the king, prayed, and Isaiah the son of Amoz, the prophet, about this, and they cried out to the heavens. ²¹And Yahweh sent an angel, and he wiped out all the mighty ones of the army and leaders and chiefs in the camp of the king of Assyria. And he returned with shame on faces to his land. And he came to the house of his god, and some of the ones coming forth from his inward parts, there they caused him to fall by the sword. ²²And Yahweh saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all. And he gave them rest all around. ^[2] ²³And many were bringing gifts to Yahweh to Jerusalem and precious things to Hezekiah the king of Judah. And he was lifted up in the eyes of all the nations from after that.

²⁴In those days Hezekiah was sick unto death. And he prayed to Yahweh, and he spoke to him. And a sign he gave to him. ²⁵But according to the benefit to him Hezekiah did not return, for his heart was high. And there was on him wrath and on Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶And Hezekiah humbled himself from the height of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the wrath of Yahweh did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

²⁷And there was to Hezekiah very many riches and glory, and treasures he made for himself for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all desirable items, ²⁸and storehouses for produce of grain, and new wine, and oil, and stalls for all beasts and beasts, and flocks for the stalls. ²⁹And cities he made for himself and livestock of sheep and cattle in abundance, for God gave to him very much property. ^[3] ³⁰And this same Hezekiah stopped up the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon, and he directed them down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah succeeded in all his work. ³¹And thus, when the envoys of the chiefs of Babylon sent to him to seek the sign that was in the land, God left him to test him, to know all in his heart.

³²And the remainder of the matters of Hezekiah, and his covenant faithfulnesses, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah, the son of Amoz, the prophet, on the scroll of the kings of Judah and Israel. ³³And Hezekiah laid down with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the graves of the sons of David. And honor they did for him in his death, all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 33

¹A son of 12 years was Manasseh when he became king; and 55 years he reigned in Jerusalem. ²And he did what was evil in the eyes of Yahweh, like the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh had driven out from before the sons of Israel. ³And he turned and built the high places that Hezekiah his father had torn down, and he erected altars to the Baals, and he made Asheroth, and he bowed down to all the host of the heavens, and he served them. ⁴And he built altars in the house of Yahweh, about which Yahweh had said, "In Jerusalem, my name will be forever." ⁵And he built altars for all the host of the heavens in the two courts of the house of Yahweh. ⁶And he himself caused his sons to pass through the fire in the Valley of Ben Hinnom and he practiced soothsaying, and divination, and he practiced magic, and he dealt with mediums and spirits. He multiplied doing what was evil in the eyes of Yahweh to provoke him to anger. ⁷And he put the image of the idol which he made in the house of God of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will set my name forever. ⁸And I will not again remove the foot of Israel from upon the soil that I appointed for your fathers, only if they are careful to do all that I commanded them, all the law, and the statutes, and the judgments by the hand of Moses.”⁹ And Manasseh led astray Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to do evil more than the nations that Yahweh had exterminated from before the sons of Israel.

¹⁰And Yahweh spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they did not pay attention. ¹¹And Yahweh brought against them the chiefs of the army which belonged to the king of Assyria. And they captured Manasseh in chains, and they bound him in bronze, and they took him to Babylon. ¹²And when he was in distress, he entreated the face of Yahweh, his God, and he humbled himself much from before the God of his fathers. ¹³And he prayed to him; and he was entreated by him, and he heard his supplication, and he brought him back to Jerusalem to his kingdom. And Manasseh knew that Yahweh, he is God.

¹⁴And after this, he built an outer wall for the city of David, on the west of Gihon, in the valley, and at the entrance of the Fish Gate, and around the hill, and he made it very high. And he put chiefs of the army in all the fortified cities in Judah. ¹⁵And he took away the foreign gods, and the idol from the house of Yahweh, and all the altars that he built on the mountain of the house of Yahweh and in Jerusalem. And he threw them outside the city. ¹⁶And he built the altar of Yahweh, and he sacrificed on it sacrifices of peace offerings and thank offerings. And he said to Judah to serve Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹⁷However, the people were still sacrificing on the high places, only to Yahweh, their God.

¹⁸And the remainder of the matters of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers, those speaking to him in the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel, behold, they are on the words of the kings of Israel. ¹⁹And his prayer and how he was entreated by him, and all his sin, and his unfaithfulness, and the places where he built in them high places, and he raised Asherim and idols before he humbled himself—behold, they are written in the Words of Hozai.^[1] ²⁰And Manasseh laid down with his fathers, and they buried him in his house. And Amon, his son, became king in his place.

²¹A son of 22 years was Amon when he became king; and two years he reigned in Jerusalem. ²²And he did what was evil in the eyes of Yahweh, just as Manasseh, his father, had done. And to all the idols that Manasseh his father made, Amon sacrificed, and he served them. ²³And he did not humble himself from before Yahweh, as Manasseh his father humbled himself, for this Amon multiplied guilt. ²⁴And his servants conspired against him, and they put him to death in his house. ²⁵But the people of the land struck down all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah, his son, king in his place.

Chapter 34

¹A son of eight years was Josiah when he became king; and 31 years he reigned in Jerusalem. ²And he did what was right in the eyes of Yahweh, and he walked in the ways of David his father, and he did not turn to the right or to the left. ³And in the eighth year of his reigning, and he was still a youth, he began to seek the God of David, his father. And in the 12th year, he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherim, and the idols, and the metal images. ⁴And they tore down before him the altars of the Baals, and the incense altars which were above them he cut to pieces. And the Asherim and the idols and the metal images he shattered, and he crushed, and he scattered over the faces of the graves of those who sacrificed to them. ⁵And the bones of the priests he burned on their altars. And he cleansed Judah and Jerusalem, ⁶and in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, and until Naphtali, in the hills of their houses all around. ⁷And he tore down the altars, and the Asherim and the idols he beat to pieces to grinding, and all the incense altars he cut to pieces in all the land of Israel. And he returned to Jerusalem.

⁸And in the 18th year of his reigning, to cleanse the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah, the chief of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the secretary, to make strong the house of Yahweh his God. ⁹And they came to Hilkiyah, the great priest, and they gave the money that had been brought to the house of God, that the Levites gathered, the keepers of the threshold, from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰And they gave to the hand of the doer of the work, the ones appointed over the house of Yahweh. And they gave it to the doers of the work who were working on the house of Yahweh to repair and to make strong the house. ¹¹And they gave to the craftsmen and the builders to buy cut stone and woods for the braces, and to make beams for the houses that the kings of Judah had destroyed. ¹²And the men were working with faithfulness in the work. And over them were appointed Jahath, and Obadiah, the Levites from the sons of Merari, and Zechariah, and Meshullam, from the sons of the Kohathites, to direct, and the Levites, all who understand about the instruments of song. ¹³And over the burden bearers and directors for every doer of the work for service and service, and from the Levites, were scribes and officials and gatekeepers.

¹⁴And when they were bringing out the money that had been brought into the house of Yahweh, Hilkiah the priest found the scroll of the law of Yahweh by the hand of Moses. ¹⁵And Hilkiah answered, and he said to Shaphan the scribe, "The scroll of the law I have found in the house of Yahweh." And Hilkiah gave the scroll to Shaphan. ¹⁶And Shaphan brought the scroll to the king, and brought further to the king word, saying, "All that was given by the hand of your servants they are doing. ¹⁷And they poured out the money that was found in the house of Yahweh, and they gave it to the hand of those appointed and to the hand of the doers of the work." ¹⁸And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "A scroll Hilkiah the priest gave to me." And Shaphan read from it before the king. ¹⁹And it happened when the king heard the words of the law, and he tore his clothes. ²⁰And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah, the servant of the king, saying, ²¹"Go, seek Yahweh on behalf of me, and on behalf of the one who remains in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the scroll that has been found. For great is the rage of Yahweh that is poured out on us because our fathers have not kept the word of Yahweh to do like all that is written on this scroll."^[1]

²²And Hilkiah went, and those of the king, to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, the keeper of the garments. And she was dwelling in Jerusalem in the Second. And they spoke to her about this. ²³And she said to them, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: Say to the man who sent you all to me, ²⁴Thus says Yahweh: Behold, I am bringing disaster upon this place and upon its inhabitants all the curses written on the scroll that they read before the king of Judah, ²⁵because they abandoned me and burned incense to other gods in order to provoke me to anger in all the works of their hands. And my rage will pour out on this place, and it will not be quenched."^[2] ²⁶But to the king of Judah, the one who sent you all to seek Yahweh, thus you all shall say to him, 'Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel about the words that you heard: ²⁷because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard his words concerning this place and concerning its inhabitants, and you have humbled yourself before me, and you have torn your clothes, and you wept before me, and also I myself have heard—declares Yahweh— ²⁸behold, I myself will gather you to your fathers. And you will be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the disaster that I am bringing on this place and on its inhabitants.'" And they brought back word to the king.

²⁹And the king sent, and he gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰And the king went up to the house of Yahweh, and each man of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, from the great to the small. And he read in their ears all the words of the scroll of the covenant, the one that was found in the house of Yahweh. ³¹And the king stood in his place, and he cut the covenant before Yahweh, to walk after Yahweh, and to keep his commandments, and his testimony, and his statutes, with all his heart and with all his being, to do the words of the covenant that were written on this scroll. ³²And he made stand each one found in Jerusalem and Benjamin. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem acted according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. ³³And Josiah took away all the abominations from all the lands that belonged to the sons of Israel. And he caused to serve each one found in Israel, to serve Yahweh, their God. All his days, they did not turn away from after Yahweh, the God of their fathers.

Chapter 35

¹And Josiah did a Passover in Jerusalem to Yahweh. And they slaughtered the Passover on the 14th of the first month. ²And he appointed the priests over their charges, and he strengthened them for the service of the house of Yahweh. ³And he said to the Levites who are teaching all Israel, who are sacred to Yahweh, "Place the Holy Box in the house that Solomon, the son of David, the king of Israel built; not to you all a burden on your shoulder. Now serve Yahweh your God and his people Israel. ⁴And prepare by the house of your fathers, according to your divisions, by the writing of David, the king of Israel, and by the writing of Solomon, his son. ⁵And stand in the holy place, according to the division of the house of the fathers of your brothers, the sons of the people, and the portion of the house of a father of the Levites. ⁶And slaughter the Passover, and consecrate yourselves, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to the word of Yahweh by the hand of Moses."

¹⁰And the service was prepared, and the priests stood at their places, and the Levites by their divisions, according to the commandment of the king. ¹¹And they slaughtered the Passover, and the priests scattered from their hand, and the Levites were skinning. ¹²And they took away the burnt offering, in order to place them according to the divisions of the house of fathers, for the sons of the people to bring near to Yahweh according to what is written in the scroll of Moses. And thus for the oxen. ¹³And they cooked the Passover in fire according to the judgment. And the consecrated things they cooked in pots, and in kettles, and in pans, and they brought to all the sons of the people. ¹⁴And after they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were offering the burnt offering and the fat portions until night, and the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron. ¹⁵And the singers, the sons of Asaph, in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun, the seer of the king, and the gatekeepers for gate and gate. It was not for them to turn aside from their place because their brothers, the Levites, prepared for them.

¹⁶And all the service of Yahweh was prepared on that day to do the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of Yahweh, according to the commandment of King Josiah. ¹⁷And the sons of Israel who were found did the Passover at that time and the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days. ¹⁸And a Passover was not done like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet, and all the kings of Israel did not do like the Passover that Josiah did, and the priests and the Levites and all Judah and Israel who were found and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹In the 18th year of the reign of Josiah, this Passover was done.

²⁰After all this, when Josiah prepared the house, Necho, the king of Egypt, went up to fight against Carchemish near the Euphrates. And Josiah went out to meet him. ²¹And he sent to him messengers, saying, "What to me and to you, King of Judah? Not against you yourself today, but against the house of my battle. And God said for me to hurry. Stop yourself from God, who is with me, and let him not destroy you." ²²But Josiah did not turn his face from him, but, in order to fight with him, he disguised himself. And he did not listen to the words of Necho, the mouth of God. And he came to fight on the plain of Megiddo. ²³And the archers shot King Josiah, and the king said to his servants, "Cause me to pass over for I am badly wounded." ²⁴And his servants carried him away from the chariot, and they made him ride on the second chariot which belonged to him. And they brought him to Jerusalem. And he died, and he was buried in the graves of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem were mourning on account of Josiah. ²⁵And Jeremiah sang a dirge for Josiah, and all the male singers and the female singers said in their dirges about Josiah until today. And they placed for a statute over Israel; and behold, they are written in the Laments. ²⁶And the remainder of the matters of Josiah and his covenant faithfulnesses as is written in the law of Yahweh— ²⁷and his matters, the first things and the last things, behold, they are written in the scroll of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Chapter 36

¹And the people of the land took Jehoahaz, the son of Josiah, and they made him king in the place of his father in Jerusalem. ²A son of 23 years was Joahaz^[1] when he became king. And three months he reigned in Jerusalem. ³And the king of Egypt removed him at Jerusalem, and he imposed a fine on the land, 100 talents of silver and a talent of gold. ⁴And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem. And he turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Joahaz his brother Necho took, and he brought him to Egypt.

⁵A son of 25 years was Jehoiakim when he became king, and 11 years he reigned in Jerusalem. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Yahweh his God. ⁶Against him Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, came up, and he bound him with bronze to bring him to Babylon. ⁷and some of the items of the house of Yahweh Nebuchadnezzar brought to Babylon, and he placed them in his temple at Babylon. ⁸And the remainder of the matters of Jehoiakim, and the abominations that he did, and what was found against him, behold, they are written on the scroll of the kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin, his son, became king in his place.

⁹A son of eight years was Jehoiachin when he became king; and three months and ten days he reigned in Jerusalem. And he did what was evil in the eyes of Yahweh. ¹⁰And in the return of the year, King Nebuchadnezzar sent and he brought him to Babylon, with the desirable items of the house of Yahweh And he made Zedekiah, his brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹A son of 21 years was Zedekiah when he became king; and 11 years he reigned in Jerusalem. ¹²And he did what was evil in the eyes of Yahweh his God; he did not humble himself from before Jeremiah the prophet from the mouth of Yahweh. ¹³And also against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God, he rebelled. And he stiffened his neck, and he hardened his heart from turning to Yahweh, the God of Israel. ¹⁴Also, all the chiefs of the priests and the people multiplied doing acts of unfaithfulness like all the abominations of the nations. And they defiled the house of Yahweh which he had consecrated in Jerusalem. ¹⁵And Yahweh, the God of their fathers, sent to them by the hand of his messengers, rising early and sending, because he had compassion on his people and on his dwelling. ¹⁶But they were deriding the messengers of God, and despising his words, and mocking his prophets, until the wrath of Yahweh went up against his people, until there was no healing.

¹⁷And he brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, and he killed their young men with the sword in the house of their holy place, and he did not spare a young man or a virgin, old or aged. All he gave into his hand. ¹⁸All the items of the house of God, great things and small things, and the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the king and his chiefs—the entirety he brought to Babylon. ¹⁹And they burned the house of God, and they tore down the wall of Jerusalem; and all of its palaces they burned with fire, and all the precious objects, destroyed. ²⁰And the remaining from the sword he led into exile to Babylon, and they became to him and to his sons servants until the reign of the kingdom of Persia ²¹to fulfill the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land restored its Sabbaths. All the days of its being desolate, it kept to fulfill 70 years.

²²And in the first year of Cyrus, the king of Persia, to complete the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremiah. Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Cyrus, the king of Persia, and he caused voice to pass through all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying, ²³“Thus says Cyrus, the king of Persia: ‘All the kingdoms of the earth Yahweh, the God of the heavens, has given to me. And he himself has charged me to build for him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever is among you all from all his people, may Yahweh his God, be with him, and let him go up.’”

36:2 ^[1] Jehoahaz in 36:1.

Ezra

Chapter 1

¹Now in year one of Cyrus, the king of Persia, in order to accomplish the word of Yahweh from the mouth of Jeremiah, Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Cyrus, the king of Persia. So he caused a sound to pass throughout all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying: ²"Thus says Cyrus, the king of Persia: Yahweh, the God of heaven, has given to me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he himself has appointed me to build for him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. ³Whoever among you is from all his people, may his God be with him, and may he go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and may he build the house of Yahweh, the God of Israel. He is the God who is in Jerusalem. ⁴And every one who is remaining in all of the places where he is sojourning there, let the men of his place lift him with silver and with gold, and with goods and with livestock, along with the freewill offering for the house of God, which is in Jerusalem."

⁵Then the heads of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, that is, all whose spirit God had stirred up, arose to go up to build the house of Yahweh, which is in Jerusalem. ⁶And all those around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with livestock, and with precious gifts, apart from all that was freely offered. ⁷And the king Cyrus brought out the vessels of the house of Yahweh that Nebuchadnezzar had brought out from Jerusalem and had put in the house of his gods. ⁸And Cyrus, the king of Persia, brought them out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer. And he counted them out to Sheshbazzar, the ruler of Judah. ⁹And this was their number: 30 basins of gold, 1000 basins of silver, 29 knives, ¹⁰30 bowls of gold, 410 bowls of silver of a second kind, and 1000 other vessels. ¹¹All the vessels of gold and of silver were 5400. Sheshbazzar brought up all this with the going up of the exiles from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Chapter 2

¹Now these are the sons of the province, the ones who went up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, had exiled to Babylon. And they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, a man to his city; ²who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah. This is the number of the men of the people of Israel.

⁸The sons of Zattu were 945.

⁹The sons of Zakkai were 760.

¹⁰The sons of Bani were 642.

¹¹The sons of Bebai were 623.

¹²The sons of Azgad were 1, 222.

¹³The sons of Adonikam were 666.

¹⁴The sons of Bigvai were 2,056.

¹⁵The sons of Adin were 454.

¹⁶The sons of Ater, of Hezekiah were 98.

¹⁷The sons of Bezai were 323.

¹⁸The sons of Jorah were 112.

¹⁹The sons of Hashum were 223.

²⁰The sons of Gibbar were 95.

²¹The sons of Bethlehem were 123.

²²The men of Netophah were 56.

²³The men of Anathoth were 128.

²⁴The sons of Azmaveth were 42.

²⁵The sons of Kirjath-Arim, Kephirah, and Beeroth were 743.

²⁶The sons of the Ramah and Geba were 621.

²⁷The men of Michmas were 122.

²⁸The men of Bethel and the Ai were 223.

²⁹The sons of Nebo were 52.

³⁰The sons of Magbish were 156.

³¹The sons of the other Elam were 1, 254.

³²The sons of Harim were 320.

³³The sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono were 725.

³⁴The sons of Jericho were 345.

³⁵The sons of Senaah were 3, 630.

³⁶The priests: the sons of Jedaiah of the house of Jeshua were 973. ³⁷The sons of Immer were 1,052. ³⁸The sons of Pashhur were 1, 247. ³⁹The sons of Harim were 1,017.

⁴⁰The Levites: the sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodaviah, were 74.

⁴¹The singers: the sons of Asaph were 128.

⁴²The sons of the gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, and the sons of Shobai were 139 in all.

⁴³The temple servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁴the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon, ⁴⁵the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub, ⁴⁶the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shalmi, and the sons of Hanan, ⁴⁷the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah, ⁴⁸the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, ⁴⁹the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai, ⁵⁰the sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephusim, ⁵¹the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵²the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵³the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, ⁵⁴the sons of Neziah, and the sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁵The sons of the servants of Solomon: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Hassophereth, the sons of Peruda, ⁵⁶the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁷the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth Hazzebaim, and the sons of Ami. ⁵⁸All the temple servants and the sons of the servants of Solomon were 392.

⁵⁹And these were the ones who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer; but they were not able to tell the house of their fathers or their seed, whether they were from Israel. ⁶⁰The sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda were 652. ⁶¹And from the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah; the sons of Hakkoz; and the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, so he was called by their name. ⁶²These ones sought their record among the ones who were enrolled by genealogy, but they were not found. And they were desecrated from the priesthood. ⁶³And the Tirshatha said to them that they must not eat from the holiest holy food until a priest stood with Urim and with Thummim.

⁶⁴All the assembly, as one, was 42, 360: ⁶⁵apart from their male servants and their female servants, these were 7, 337; and for them were 200 men who sang and women who sang. ⁶⁶Their horses were 736. Their mules were 245. ⁶⁷Their camels were 435. Their donkeys were 6, 720.

⁶⁸And when some from the heads of the fathers came to the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem, they freely gave for the house of God to cause it to stand upon its place. ⁶⁹They gave according to their ability to the treasury of the work: 61000 gold darics, and 5000 silver minas, and 100 tunics of the priests.

⁷⁰So the priests, and the Levites, and some from the people, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the temple servants dwelt in their cities. So all Israel was in their cities.

Chapter 3

¹Then the seventh month came and the sons of Israel were in their cities. And the people were gathered together as one man to Jerusalem. ²Then arose Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brothers, and they built the altar of the God of Israel to offer up burnt up offerings on it as is written in the law of Moses, the man of God. ³And they set up the altar on its foundation, for dread was on them because of the peoples of the lands. Then they offered up on it burnt up offerings to Yahweh, burnt up offerings at the morning and at the evening. ⁴Then they performed the Festival of Huts as is written, with a burnt up offering day by day, by number according to the ordinance of the matter of the day, on its day. ⁵And after this was a continual burnt up offering, and for the new moons, and for all the consecrated appointed times of Yahweh, and for everyone who freely offered a freewill offering to Yahweh. ⁶From day one of the seventh month they began to offer up burnt up offerings to Yahweh, but the temple of Yahweh had not been founded. ⁷And they gave silver to the masons and to the carpenters, and food, and drink, and oil to the Sidonians and to the Tyrians, to bring trees of cedar from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the permission of Cyrus, the king of Persia, given to them.

⁸Then in the second year of their coming to the house of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all the ones who came from captivity to Jerusalem began, and they appointed the Levites from a son of 20 years and above to act as overseers for the work of the house of Yahweh. ⁹And Jeshua, his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, stood as one to act as overseers for the ones doing the work at the house of God, the sons of Henadad, their sons, and their brothers the Levites.^[1] ¹⁰Then the ones who were building laid the foundation of the temple of Yahweh. And they caused to stand the clothed priests with the trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with the cymbals, to praise Yahweh in accordance with the hands of David, the king of Israel. ¹¹Then they sang in response, praising and giving thanks to Yahweh: "For he is good, for his covenant faithfulness to Israel is to eternity!" And all the people shouted a great shout in praise to Yahweh because the foundation of the house of Yahweh had been laid. ¹²But many from the priests and the Levites, and the heads of the fathers, the old men who had seen the first house, at the founding of this house in their eyes, were weeping with a loud voice. Yet many with a shout, with joy, were lifting up a voice. ¹³So the people could not differentiate the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the weeping of the people. For the people were shouting a great shout, and the sound was heard as far as from a remote place.

3:9 ^[1]

Chapter 4

¹Now the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the exile were building a temple for Yahweh, the God of Israel. ²So they came to Zerubbabel and to the heads of the fathers and they said to them, "Let us build with you, for, like you, we seek your God and to him we have been sacrificing since the days of Esarhaddon, the king of Assyria, the one who caused us to come up here."

³But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of the fathers of Israel said to them, "It is not for you and for us to build a house for our God, but we ourselves together will build for Yahweh, the God of Israel, just as the king Cyrus, the king of Persia, has commanded us."

⁴And it happened that the people of the land were making the hands of the people of Judah weak, and making them afraid to build, ⁵and hiring counselors against them to frustrate their plans all the days of Cyrus, the king of Persia, and until the reign of Darius, the king of Persia.

⁶Now in the reign of Ahasuerus,^[1] in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against those who dwelled in Judah and Jerusalem.

⁷And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his companions wrote to Artaxerxes, the king of Persia, and the script of the letter was written in Aramaic and was interpreted in Aramaic.

⁸Rehum, a lord of decree, and Shimshai the scribe wrote one letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows:

⁹Then Rehum, a lord of decree, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the judges and the rulers, the officials, the Persians, the Erechites, the Babylonians, the Susaites (that is, the Elamites), ¹⁰and the rest of the nations whom Ashurbanipal the great and the noble caused to be exiled and caused them to dwell in the cities of Samaria, and the rest of Beyond-the-River. And now: ¹¹(This is a copy of the letter that they sent to him.)

"To Artaxerxes the king; your servants, men of Beyond-the-River; and now:

¹²let it be known to the king that the Jews who went up from near you have come to us at Jerusalem. Rebuilding the rebellious and evil city, they are completing the walls and repairing the foundations. ¹³Now let it be known to the king that if that city is built and the walls are completed, they will not give tax, tribute, or custom, and the revenue of the kings will suffer harm.

¹⁴Now, because we have eaten the salt of the palace, and it is not appropriate for us to see the nakedness of the king, on account of this we have sent and made known to the king, ¹⁵so that he may search in the book of the records of your fathers. And you will discover in the book of the records and learn that that city is a rebellious city and one that has caused harm to kings and provinces, and they have made revolt in its midst since the ancient days. On account of this, that city was destroyed. ¹⁶We are making known to the king that if that city is built and the walls are completed, because of this there will be no share for you in Beyond-the-River."

¹⁷The king sent the answer:

"To Rehum, a lord of decree, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and the rest of Beyond the River: Peace. And now:

¹⁸The letter that you sent to us has been carefully read aloud before me. ¹⁹So from me was set a decree, and they searched and discovered that that city since the ancient days has risen up against kings and rebellion and revolt have been made in it. ²⁰And mighty kings were over Jerusalem, even rulers over all of Beyond the River; and tax, tribute, and custom were paid to them.

²¹Now, set a decree to stop these men, so that city may not be rebuilt until the decree is set from me. ²²And be careful of negligence of action concerning this. Why should the damage increase to the harm of the kings?"

²³Then from when the copy of the letter of Artaxerxes the king was read aloud before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went in a hurry to Jerusalem against the Jews, and they stopped them by an arm and strength. ²⁴At that time the work of the house of God which is in Jerusalem stopped, and it was stopped until the second year of the reign of Darius, the king of Persia.

4:6 ^[1] .

Chapter 5

¹Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and in Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel who was over them. ²Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, arose and began to build the house of God which is in Jerusalem, and the prophets of God were with them, supporting them.

³At that time, Tattenai, the governor of Beyond-the-River, and Shethar-Bozenai, and their companions came to them and spoke to them thus, "Who set for you a decree to build this house and to complete this structure?"

⁴Then accordingly we said to them, "What are the names of the men who are building this building?"

⁵But the eye of God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not stop them until the report came to Darius and then they returned the letter concerning this matter.

⁶A copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor of Beyond-the-River, and Shethar-Bozenai and his companions, the officials who were in Beyond-the-River, sent to Darius the king. ⁷They sent a report to him and thus was written within it:

"To Darius the king: All peace.

⁸Let it be known to the king that we went to Judah, the province, to the house of the great God, and it is being built of large stones, and timber is being placed in the walls. And this work is being done diligently and is succeeding in their hand. ⁹Then we asked these elders, we said thus to them, 'Who set a decree for you to build this house and to complete this structure?' ¹⁰And also we asked of them their names, to let you know, so that we could write down the names of the men who were at their head.

¹¹And thus is the answer they returned us, saying, 'We are servants of him who is the God of heaven and earth, and we are building the house that was built many years before this, and a great king of Israel built it and completed it.

¹²However, because of this, that our fathers caused the God of heaven to be angry, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, and he destroyed this house and caused the people to be exiled to Babylon.

¹³But in year one of Cyrus, the king of Babylon, Cyrus the king set a decree to build this house of God. ¹⁴And also the vessels of the house of God, of gold and silver, that Nebuchadnezzar had taken out from the temple that was in Jerusalem and had brought them to the temple of Babylon—Cyrus the king took them out from the temple of Babylon and they were given to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had set as governor. ¹⁵Then he said to him, “Take away these vessels. Go deposit them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built on its place.” ¹⁶Then that Sheshbazzar came; he laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem. And from then even until now it is being built, but it is not complete.’

¹⁷And now, if it is good to the king, let a search be made in the house of the treasures of the king which is there in Babylon, if it is that a decree was set by Cyrus the king to build this house of God in Jerusalem. And let him send to us the will of the king concerning this.”

Chapter 6

¹Then Darius the king set a decree and they searched in the house of the books where the treasures had been deposited there in Babylon. ²And one scroll was found in the fortress at Ecbatana that is in the province of Media, and the record was written within it thusly:

³“In year one of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king set a decree about the house of God in Jerusalem:

‘Let the house be built, a place where sacrifices are sacrificed, and let its foundations be raised. Its height will be 60 cubits. Its width will be 60 cubits, ⁴with three layers of large stone and a layer of new timber. And let the cost be given from the house of the king. ⁵And also, the vessels of the house of God, of gold and silver, that Nebuchadnezzar had taken out from the temple that was in Jerusalem and had brought to Babylon, must be returned. And let each go to the temple that is in Jerusalem, to its place. So you must put them in the house of God.’”

⁶“Now Tattenai, the governor of Beyond-the-River, Shethar-Bozenai, and their companions, the officials who are in Beyond-the-River: be far away from there. ⁷Leave alone the work of that house of God. Let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build that house of God on its place. ⁸And from me is set a decree for what it is that you shall do with these elders of the Jews to build that house of God. And from the treasures of the king (that is, the tribute of Beyond-the-River) let the expense be given to those men diligently, so that it does not stop. ⁹And whatever is needed (whether sons of bulls, or rams, or lambs for burnt up offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, or oil, according to the command of the priests who are in Jerusalem), let it be given to them day by day (that is, without neglect), ¹⁰so that they may be offering sweet-smelling sacrifices to the God of heaven and praying for the life of the king and his sons.

¹¹And from me is set a decree that, for any man who changes this edict, a beam shall be pulled from his house, and, being erect, he shall be impaled on it. And his house shall be made a rubbish heap on account of this. ¹²And may the God who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who stretches out his hand to change, to destroy that house of God which is in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have set a decree. Let it be done diligently.”

¹³Then Tattenai, the governor of Beyond-the-River, Shethar-Bozenai, and their companions did thus diligently, according to what Darius the king had sent. ¹⁴And the elders of the Jews were building and prospering by the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and completed by the decree of the God of Israel and by the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes, the king of Persia. ¹⁵And this house was done by day three of the month of Adar, which was year six of the reign of Darius the king.

¹⁶And the sons of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the sons of the exile performed the dedication of this house of God with joy. ¹⁷And they offered for the dedication of this house of God 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and 12 bucks of goats for a sin offering for all Israel, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁸And they caused the priests to stand in their divisions, and the Levites in their sections, for the service of the God who is in Jerusalem, according to the writing of the book of Moses.

¹⁹So the sons of the exile performed the Passover on day 14 of the first month. ²⁰For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves as one, all of them were pure. And they slaughtered the Passover for all the sons of the exile, and for their brothers, the priests, and for themselves. ²¹And the sons of Israel ate, the ones who had returned from the exile and every one who separated himself to them from the uncleanness of the nations of the land in order to seek Yahweh, the God of Israel. ²²Then they performed the Festival of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy, because Yahweh had caused them to be joyful, and had caused the heart of the king of Assyria to turn toward them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

¹Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes, the king of Persia: Ezra (the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, ²the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, ³the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, ⁴the son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, ⁵the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the head priest), ⁶this Ezra went up from Babylon, and he was a skilled scribe in the law of Moses that Yahweh, the God of Israel, had given. And the king granted to him all his request according to the hand of Yahweh his God upon him.

⁷And some from the sons of Israel and from the priests, and the Levites, and the ones who sang, and the gatekeepers, and the temple servants went up to Jerusalem in year seven of Artaxerxes the king. ⁸And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. ⁹For on the first of the first month was the beginning of the ascent from Babylon. And on the first of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him. ¹⁰For Ezra had made his heart firm to seek the law of Yahweh, and to do it, and to teach statute and ordinance in Israel.

¹¹Now this is a copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, a scribe of the words of the commandments of Yahweh and his statutes for Israel:

¹²"Artaxerxes, the king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven: Peace. And now:

¹³from me is set a decree that everyone in my kingdom who freely offers to go to Jerusalem with you, from the people 'Israel' and its priests and the Levites, may go.

¹⁴Because it was sent from before the king and his seven counselors to inquire about Judah and about Jerusalem by the law of your God which is in your hand, ¹⁵and to bring silver and gold that the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, ¹⁶with all the silver and the gold that you find in all the province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and the priests who freely give for the house of God, which is in Jerusalem: ¹⁷therefore, diligently you shall buy with this money bulls, rams, lambs, and their grain offerings and their drink offerings; and you shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God, which is in Jerusalem. ¹⁸And you may do whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, according to the will of your God. ¹⁹And the vessels that were given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem. ²⁰And the rest of what is needed for the house of your God that falls to you to give, you may give from the house of the treasures of the king.

²¹And from me myself, Artaxerxes the king, is set a decree for all the treasurers who are in Beyond-the-River: that all that Ezra (the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven) may ask of you, let it be done diligently; ²²as much as 100 silver kikkars, and as much as 100 cors of wheat, and as much as 100 baths of wine, and as much as 100 baths of oil, and salt which is not written. ²³Everything that is from the decree of the God of heaven shall be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons?

²⁴And to you is made known that there is no authority to set tax, tribute, or custom upon all the priests, and the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, the temple servants, and the servants of that house of God. ²⁵And as for you,

Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges who may judge all the people who are in Beyond-the-River, all who know the laws of your God. And you shall teach those who do not know. ²⁶And everyone who will not do the law of your God and the law of the king, judgment shall be exacted from him diligently, whether for death, whether for banishment, whether for confiscation of goods, or for imprisonment."

²⁷Blessed be Yahweh, the God of our fathers, who gave according to this in the heart of the king, to glorify the house of Yahweh, which is in Jerusalem, ²⁸and caused covenant faithfulness to extend to me before the face of the king, and his counselors, and before all the mighty officials of the king. And as for me, I gained strength according to the hand of Yahweh my God upon me, and I gathered from Israel heads to go up with me.

Chapter 8

¹Now these are the heads of their fathers and their enrollment by genealogy, the ones who went up with me from Babylon in the reign of Artaxerxes the king:

²From the sons of Phinehas: Gershom.

From the sons of Ithamar: Daniel.

From the sons of David: Hattush,

³from the sons of Shecaniah.

From the sons of Parosh: Zechariah, and with him were 150 males enrolled by genealogy.

⁴From the sons of Pahath-Moab: Eliehoenai, the son of Zerahiah, and with him were 200 males.

⁵From the sons of ... Shecaniah the son of Jahaziel, and with him were 300 males.^[1]

⁶And from the sons of Adin: Ebed, the son of Jonathan, and with him were 50 males.

⁷And from the sons of Elam: Jeshaiiah, the son of Athaliah, and with him were 70 males.

⁸And from the sons of Shephatiah: Zebadiah, the son of Michael, and with him were 80 males.

⁹From the sons of Joab: Obadiah, the son of Jehiel, and with him were 218 males.

¹⁰And from the sons of ... Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah, and with him were 160 males.^[2]

¹¹And from the sons of Bebai: Zechariah, the son of Bebai, and with him were 28 males.

¹²And from the sons of Azgad: Johanan, the son of Hakkatan, and with him were 110 males.

¹³And from the last sons of Adonikam, and these were their names: Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and with them were 60 males.

¹⁴And from the sons of Bigvai: Uthai and Zaccur, and with him were 70 males.

¹⁵And I gathered them to the river, the one that goes to Ahava, and we encamped there three days. And I examined the people and the priests, but I did not find there any from the sons of Levi. ¹⁶Then I sent for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, the heads; and for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding. ¹⁷And I commanded them to go to Iddo, the head at the place Kasiphia. And I put in their mouth words to speak to Iddo and his brothers, the temple servants in the place Kasiphia, to bring to us those who minister for the house of our God.

¹⁸And according to the good hand of our God upon us, they brought to us: a man of insight from the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, even Sherebiah, and his sons and his brothers were 18; ¹⁹and Hashabiah, and with him, Jeshaiiah, from the sons of Merari, whose brothers and their sons were 20; ²⁰and 220 temple servants from the temple servants whom David with the officials had given for the service of the Levites. All of them were designated by names.

²¹Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river Ahava, to afflict ourselves before the face of our God to seek from him a straight way for us, and for our children, and for all our property. ²²For I was ashamed to ask from the king an army and horsemen to help us from an enemy on the way. For we had spoken to the king, saying, "The hand of our God is for good upon all those who seek him, but his might and his nose are against all those who forsake him." ²³So we fasted and sought from our God concerning this, and he was entreated by us.

²⁴Then I separated 12 from the leaders of the priests to Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and with them ten from their brothers. ²⁵And I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the offering of the house of our God that the king, and his counselors, and his officials, and all Israel (the ones who were found) had offered. ²⁶And I weighed out to their hand 650 kikkars of silver, and vessels of silver of 100 kikkars, 100 kikkars of gold, ²⁷and 20 bowls of gold of 1000 darics, and two good, gleaming vessels of bronze, precious as gold. ²⁸And I said to them, "You are holy to Yahweh, and the vessels are holy. And the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to Yahweh, the God of your fathers. ²⁹Watch and keep until you weigh them out before the face of the leaders of the priests and the Levites and the leaders of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of Yahweh."

³⁰So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, to the house of our God.

³¹Then we set out from the river Ahava on day 12 of the first month to go to Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the palm of the enemy and ambush on the way. ³²So we came to Jerusalem, and we stayed there three days. ³³And on the fourth day, the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed out: in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth, the son of Uriah, the priest, and with him was Eleazar, the son of Phinehas (and with them were Jozabad, the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah, the son of Binnui, the Levites); ³⁴by number and weight of everything. And all the weight was written at that time.

³⁵The ones who had come from the captivity, the sons of the exile, offered burnt up offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs, 12 male goats of a sin offering. The whole was a burnt up offering to Yahweh.

³⁶And they gave the laws of the king to the satraps of the king and the governors of Beyond-the-River. And they lifted the people and the house of God.

Chapter 9

¹Now as soon as these things were finished, the leaders came to me, saying, "The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands according to their abominations, of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, the Ammonite, the Moabite, the Egyptian, and the Amorite.

³And as soon as I heard this matter, I tore my garment and my robe. And I pulled out some from the hair of my head and my beard, and I sat down appalled. ⁴And all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel on account of the unfaithfulness of the exiles were gathered to me. And I was sitting appalled until the offering of the evening.

⁵And at the offering of the evening I arose from my humiliation, and when I tore my garment and my robe. And I knelt down on my knees, and spread out my palms to Yahweh my God. ⁶And I said, "My God, I am ashamed and humiliated to raise my face to you, my God. For our iniquities have multiplied to above the head, and our guilt has grown up as far as to the heavens. ⁷From the days of our fathers until this day we are in great guilt. And in our iniquities, we ourselves, our kings, and our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands by sword, by captivity, and by plunder, and by shame of face, as this day.

⁸But now, according to a little moment, favor has come from with Yahweh our God to leave for us survivors and to give to us a peg in his holy place, for our God to brighten our eyes and to give us a little reviving in our slavery. ⁹For we are slaves, yet our God has not forsaken us in our slavery. But he has extended to us covenant faithfulness before the face of the kings of Persia to give to us reviving, to raise up the house of our God and to cause its ruins to stand, and to give to us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

¹⁰So now, our God, what can we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments, ¹¹which you commanded by the hand of your servants, the prophets, saying, 'The land that you are entering to possess is a land of impurity by the impurity of the peoples of the lands, by their abominations that have filled it from mouth to mouth with their uncleanness. ¹²So now, neither give your daughters to their sons nor lift their daughters for your sons, nor shall you seek their peace or their good until eternity, so that you may be strong and eat the good things of the land and cause your sons to inherit it until eternity.'

¹³Yet after all that has come upon us because of our evil deeds and because of our great guilt (although you, our God, you have restrained it to lower than our iniquities, and you have given to us a survival such as this), ¹⁴should we return to breaking your commandments and to intermarrying with the peoples of these abominations? Would you not be angry with us as far as completion, so that there is neither remnant nor survivors?

¹⁵Yahweh, the God of Israel, you are righteous, for we are left as survivors, as this day. Behold us, before your face in our guilt, for there is none to stand before your face on account of this."

Chapter 10

¹And when Ezra prayed, and when he confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the face of the house of God, an extremely great assembly from Israel, men and women and children, gathered to him. Indeed the people wept an abundant weeping.

²Then Shekariah, the son of Jehiel, from the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, "We ourselves have acted unfaithfully against our God and have caused foreign women from the peoples of the land to dwell. But now, there is hope for Israel concerning this. ³So now, let us cut a covenant with our God to cause all the women to go out, and the ones who were born from them, by the counsel of my lord and the ones who tremble at the commandment of our God. And let it be done according to the law. ⁴Arise, for the matter is on you, and we are with you. Be strong and do."

⁵And Ezra arose and caused the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel to swear an oath to do according to this word. So they swore an oath. ⁶And Ezra rose up from before the face of the house of God, and he went to the chamber of Jehohanan, the son of Eliashib. And he went there. He did not eat bread and he did not drink water, but was mourning on account of the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

⁷And they caused a sound to pass throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the sons of the exile to gather to Jerusalem. ⁸And for all who did not come in three days according to the counsel of the leaders and the elders, all his property would be devoted to the ban. And he himself would be separated from the assembly of the exiles. ⁹So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered to Jerusalem in three days. It was the ninth month, on 20 in the month. And all the people sat in the open place of the house of God, trembling on account of the matter and because of the rains.

¹⁰And Ezra the priest rose up and said to them, "You yourselves have acted unfaithfully and have caused foreign wives to dwell, to add to the guilt of Israel. ¹¹But now, give praise to Yahweh, the God of your fathers, and do his will, and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women."

¹²Then all the assembly answered and said in a loud voice, "Thus, according to your word, it is on us to do.

¹³However, the people are many, and the time is rain showers and there is no strength to stand in the outdoors. And the work is neither for one day nor for two, for we have done much to rebel in this matter. ¹⁴Let our leaders stand for all the assembly. And let all who are in our cities, the ones who have caused foreign women to dwell, come at appointed times, and with them the elders of city by city and its magistrates, until the burning of the nose of our God is turned back from us as far as it concerns this matter."

¹⁵Only Jonathan, the son of Asahel, and Jahzeiah, the son of Tikvah, stood against this. And Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supported them. ¹⁶So the sons of the exile did thus, and men (the heads of the fathers by the house of their fathers, and all of them by names) were separated to Ezra the priest. And they sat down on day one of the tenth month to seek out the matter. ¹⁷And they finished with all the men, the ones who had caused foreign women to dwell, by day one of the first month.

¹⁸And some were found from the sons of the priests who had caused foreign women to dwell: from the sons of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. ¹⁹So they gave their hand to cause their wives to go out, and, being guilty ones, a ram of the flock for their guilt.

²⁰And from the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.

²¹And from the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uziah.

²²And from the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasa.

²³And from the Levites: Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (that is, Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

²⁴And from the singers: Eliashib. And from the gatekeepers: Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

²⁵And these were from Israel. From the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, and Izziah, and Malkijah, and Mijamin, and Eleazar, and Malkijah, and Benaiah.^[1]

²⁶And from the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elijah.

²⁷And from the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.

²⁸And from the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.

²⁹And from the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluk, and Adaijah, Jashub, and Sheal, Jeremoth.^[2] ³⁰And from the sons of Pahath-Moab: Adna, and Kelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, and Binnui, and Manasseh.

³¹And from the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malkijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³²Benjamin, Malluk, Shemariah.

³³From the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.

³⁴From the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, and Uel, ³⁵Benaiah, Bedeiah, Keluhi, ³⁶Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, ³⁷Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu, ³⁸and Bani, and Binnui, Shimei,^[3] ³⁹and Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaijah, ⁴⁰Maknadebai, Shashai, Sharai, ⁴¹Azarel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah, ⁴²Shallum, Amariah, Joseph.

⁴³From the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, and Joel, Benaiah.

⁴⁴All of these had lifted foreign women. And there were women among them, and they bore sons.^[4]

Nehemiah

Chapter 1

¹The words of Nehemiah the son of Hakaliah:

And it happened in the month of Kislev, in year 20, that I myself was in Susa the citadel. ²And Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and men from Judah. And I asked them about the Jews who escaped, who were left behind from the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

³And they said to me, "The ones left behind, who were left behind from the captivity there in the province, are in great evil and in reproach. And the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire."

⁴And it happened that, when I heard these words, I sat down and wept, and I mourned for days. And I was fasting and praying before the face of the God of heaven.

⁵And I said, "Ah! Yahweh, the God of heaven, the great and fearsome God, who keeps the covenant and covenant faithfulness to those who love him and to those who keep his commandments: ⁶Please let your ear be attentive and your eyes opened to listen to the prayer of your servant that I am praying before your face today, day and night, on account of the sons of Israel, your servants. And I am confessing on account of the sins of the sons of Israel that we have sinned against you. Even I and the house of my father, we have sinned. ⁷With extreme corruption we have acted corruptly against you. And we have not kept the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments that you commanded Moses your servant.

⁸Please remember the word that you commanded Moses your servant, saying, 'If you yourselves act unfaithfully, I myself will scatter you among the peoples. ⁹But if you return to me and keep my commandments and do them, although your banished ones are at the extremity of heaven, from there I will gather them and bring them to the place where I have chosen to cause my name to dwell there.'

¹⁰And they are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great power and by your strong hand.

¹¹Ah! My Lord, please let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants, the ones who delight to fear your name. And please cause your servant to succeed today, and give him mercies before the face of this man." Now as for me, I was a cupbearer for the king.

Chapter 2

¹And it happened that, in the month of Nisan, in year 20 of Artaxerxes the king, wine was before his face. And I lifted the wine, and I gave it to the king, and I was not unpleasant before his face.

²And the king said to me, "Why is your face unpleasant? Now as for you, you are not sick. This is nothing except unpleasantness of heart." And I was extremely much afraid.

³And I said to the king, "May the king live to eternity! Why should not my face be unpleasant, when the city, the house of the graves of my fathers, is desolate, and its gates have been consumed by fire."

⁴And the king said to me, "For what is this you are seeking?" And I prayed to the God of heaven.

⁵And I said to the king, "If it is good to the king, and if your servant is good before your face, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of the graves of my fathers, and I will build it."

⁶And the king said to me, with the queen sitting beside him, "Until when will be your journey? And when will you return?" And it was good before the face of the king, and he sent me, and I gave to him a time.

⁷And I said to the king, "If it is good to the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of Beyond-the-River, that they will bring me across as far as where I enter into Judah; ⁸and a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the forest that belongs to the king, that he will give to me timbers to lay the beams of the gates of the citadel, which is for the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house into which I will enter."

And the king gave to me, according to the good hand of my God upon me. ⁹And I came to the governors of Beyond-the-River, and I gave to them the letters of the king. And the king sent with me officers of the army and horsemen.

¹⁰And Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah, the servant, the Ammonite, heard. And it was evil to them, a great evil, that someone had come to seek good for the sons of Israel. ¹¹And I came to Jerusalem, and I was there three days.

¹²And I arose in the night, myself and a few men with me, and I did not tell anyone what my God had been giving to my heart to do for Jerusalem. Now there was no animal with me except the animal upon which I was riding.

¹³And I went out at the gate of the valley at night, even to the face of the spring of the dragon, and to the gate of dung. And I was looking intently at the walls of Jerusalem, seeing that they were broken down, and its gates had been consumed by fire.^[1] ¹⁴And I crossed to the gate of the spring and to the pool of the king, but there was no place for the animal under me to pass. ¹⁵And I was going up by the wadi at night, and I was looking intently at the wall. And I turned back, and I came in at the gate of the valley, and I returned.

¹⁶Now the prefects did not know where I had gone or what I was doing. And until this time I had not yet told the Jews, or the priests, or the nobles, or the prefects, or the rest of the doers of the work.

¹⁷And I said to them, "You see the evil that we are in, that Jerusalem is desolate and its gates have been burned by fire. Come, and let us build the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be a reproach." ¹⁸And I declared to them the hand of my God, that it was good upon me, and also the words of the king that he had spoken to me.

And they said, "We will rise up and build." And they strengthened their hands for good.

¹⁹And Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah, the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian heard, and they mocked us, and they despised us. And they said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

²⁰And I returned them a word, and I said to them: "The God of heaven, he will cause us to succeed, and we ourselves, his servants, will rise up and build. But for you there is neither share nor right nor memorial in Jerusalem."

2:13 ^[1]

Chapter 3

¹And Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the gate of sheep. They themselves consecrated it and erected its doors. And they consecrated it as far as the tower of the hundred and as far as the tower of Hananel. ²And the men of Jericho built at his hand.

And Zaccur the son of Imri built at his hand.

³And the sons of Hassenaah built the gate of fish. They themselves laid its beams and erected its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

⁴And Meremoth, the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, strengthened at their hand.

And Meshullam, the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel, strengthened at their hand.

And Zadok the son of Baana strengthened at their hand.

⁵And the Tekoites strengthened at their hand, but their nobles did not bring their necks to the service of their lords.

⁶And Joiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah, strengthened the gate of old. They themselves laid its beams and erected its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

⁷And Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, men of Gibeon and the Mizpah, strengthened at their hand, to the seat of authority of the governor of Beyond-the-River.

⁸Uzziel, the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths, strengthened at his hand.

And Hananiah, a son of the perfumers, strengthened at his hand. And they restored Jerusalem as far as the broad wall.

⁹And Rephaiah, the son of Hur, the administrator for half of the district of Jerusalem, strengthened at their hand.

¹⁰And Jedaiah the son of Harumaph strengthened at their hand, even in front of his house.

And Hattush the son of Hashabneiah strengthened at his hand.

¹¹Malkijah the son of Harim, and Hasshub the son of Pahath-Moab, strengthened a second section along with the tower of ovens.

¹²And Shallum, the son of Hallohesh, the administrator for half of the district of Jerusalem, strengthened at his hand, he and his daughters.

¹³Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah strengthened the gate of the valley. They themselves built it and erected its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and a thousand cubits of the wall as far as the gate of dung.

¹⁴And Malkijah, the son of Recab, the administrator for the district of Beth-Hakkerem, strengthened the gate of dung. He himself was building it and erecting its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

¹⁵And Shallun, the son of Kol-Hozeh, the administrator for the district of the Mizpah, strengthened the gate of the spring. He himself was building it and covering it and erecting its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and the wall of the pool of the Siloam at the garden of the king even as far as the stairs descending from the city of David.^[1]

¹⁶After him, Nehemiah, the son of Azbuk, the administrator for half of the district of Beth-Zur, strengthened as far as in front of the graves of David, and as far as the pool that was made, and as far as the house of the mighty men.

¹⁷After him, the Levites strengthened: Rehum the son of Bani; at his hand, Hashabiah, the administrator for half of the district of Keilah, strengthened for his district;

¹⁸after him, their brothers strengthened, Binnui, the son of Henadad, the administrator for half of the district of Keilah.

¹⁹And at his hand, Ezer, the son of Jeshua, the administrator for the Mizpah, was strengthening a second section opposite the ascent to the armory at the angle.

²⁰After him, Baruch the son of Zabbai burned, and strengthened a second section from the angle as far as the opening of the house of Eliashib the high priest.^[2]

²¹After him, Meremoth, the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, strengthened a second section, from the opening of the house of Eliashib even as far as the end of the house of Eliashib.

²²And after him, the priests, the men of the valley, strengthened.

²³After him, Benjamin and Hasshub strengthened in front of their house.

After him, Azariah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, strengthened beside his house.

²⁴After him: Binnui the son of Henadad strengthened a second section from the house of Azariah as far as the angle and as far as the corner; ²⁵Palal the son of Uzai, from opposite the angle and the tower projecting from the upper house of the king which is by the court of the guard; after him, Pedaiah the son of Parosh.

²⁶And the Nethinim were dwelling in the Ophel, as far as in front of the gate of water to the east and the projecting tower.

²⁷After him, the Tekoites strengthened a second section from in front of the high projecting tower even as far as the wall of the Ophel.

²⁸The priests strengthened from above the gate of horses, a man to the front of his house.

²⁹After him, Zadok the son of Immer strengthened in front of his house.

And after him, Shemaiah, the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the gate of the east, strengthened.

³⁰After him, Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, with Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, strengthened a second section.

After him, Meshullam the son of Berechiah strengthened in front of his chamber.^[3]

³¹After him, Malkijah, a son of the goldsmiths, strengthened as far as the house of the Nethinim and the merchants in front of the gate of mustering, even as far as the upper chamber of the corner.^[4]

³²And the goldsmiths and the merchants strengthened between the upper chamber of the corner to the gate of sheep.

Chapter 4

¹And it happened that, when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, it burned him, and he was very angry. And he mocked at the Jews.

²And he spoke before the face of his brothers and the army of Samaria, and he said, "What are the feeble Jews doing? Will they restore for themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a day? Will they bring to life the stones from piles of dust, when they have been burned?"

³And Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him. And he said, "Yes, if a fox goes up on what they are building, then he would break down their wall of stones!"

⁴Hear, our God, that we are a contempt, and cause their taunts to return on their heads! And give them for plunder in a land of captivity. ⁵And do not cover over their iniquity, and do not wipe out their sin from before your face, for they have provoked anger before the front of the builders.

⁶So we built the wall, and all the wall was joined together up to half of it. And the heart of the people was for working.

⁷And it happened that, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the health of the walls of Jerusalem was going up and the breaks were beginning to be closed, it burned them extremely. ⁸And all of them together conspired to come to fight against Jerusalem and to make confusion for it. ⁹And we prayed to our God. And we set up a guard on account of them, by day and by night against their faces.

¹⁰And Judah said,

“The strength of the burden-bearers is failing, and there is much rubble.

And as for us, we are not able to build the wall.”

¹¹And our adversaries said, “They will not know, and they will not see until when we come into their midst and kill them. And we will cause the work to stop.”

¹²And it happened that, when the Jews dwelling beside them came, they said to us ten times, “From all the places where you turn, they are on us!”^[1]

¹³And I stationed from the lowest of places behind the wall, in the bare places; and I stationed the people by families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. ¹⁴And I looked, and I rose up, and I said to the nobles, and to the prefects, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of their faces. Remember my great and fearsome Lord! And fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses.”

¹⁵And it happened that, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had frustrated their counsels, all of us returned to the wall, a man to his work. ¹⁶And it happened that, from that day, half of my young men were doing the work, and half of them were grasping, even the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the breastplates. And the officials were behind all the house of Judah. ¹⁷Those who were building the wall, and those who were carrying burdens, the loaders, they were doing the work with one of his hands and one grasping weaponry. ¹⁸And the builders: a man girded his sword to his loins and built. And the one who blew the ram’s horn was beside me.

¹⁹And I said to the nobles and to the prefects and to the rest of the people, “The work is great and vast, and we are separated on the wall, a man far from his brother. ²⁰At the place where you hear the sound of the ram’s horn, you shall gather to us there. Our God will fight for us.”

²¹So we were doing the work. And half of them were grasping spears from the rising of the dawn until the coming out of the stars. ²²Also, at that time I said to the people, “Let a man and his young man lodge the night in the midst of Jerusalem, and they will be for us by night a guard and by day a worker.” ²³And neither I, nor my brothers, nor my young men, nor the men of the guard who were behind me, none of us stripped off our clothes, or a man his weapon at the water.^[2]

4:23 ^[2]

Chapter 5

¹And there was a great outcry of the people and their wives against their brothers, the Jews.

²And there were those who said, “Our sons and our daughters, we are many. And let us take grain, so we can eat, and we can live.”

³And there were those who said, “We are mortgaging our fields and our vineyards and our houses so we can get grain during the famine.”

⁴And there were those who said, “We have borrowed silver for the tribute of the king on our fields and our vineyards. ⁵And now, our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our sons are as their sons. And behold, we are putting our sons and our daughters into bondage as slaves. There are those even of our daughters who have been put into bondage, and there is nothing to God in our hand, for our fields and our vineyards belong to others."

⁶And it burned me extremely when I heard their outcry and these words. ⁷And my heart reigned over me, and I contended with the nobles and with the prefects. And I said to them, "You are lending interest, a man against his brother!" And I put forth a great assembly against them.

⁸And I said to them, "We ourselves, according to our ability, have bought back our brothers, the Jews, the ones who were sold to the nations. But even you yourselves are selling your brothers, and they are being bought back by us!" Then they were silent, and they did not find a word.

⁹And I said, "This thing that you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies?^[1] ¹⁰Also, even I, my brothers, and my young men are lending against them silver and grain. Please, let us forsake this interest! ¹¹Please, even today, return to them their fields, their vineyards, their olive orchards, and their houses, and a hundred of the silver and the grain, the new wine, and the oil that you are lending against them."

¹²And they said, "We will return, and we will seek nothing from them. Thus we will do according to what you say." And I called the priests, and I caused them to swear to do according to this word.

¹³Also, I shook out my bosom, and I said, "Thus may God shake out from his house and from his labor every man who does not cause this word to stand. And thus may he be shaken out and emptied."

And all the assembly said, "Amen!" And they praised Yahweh, and the people did according to this word.

¹⁴Also, from the day that he appointed me to be their governor in the land of Judah, from year 20 even until year 32 of Artaxerxes the king, twelve years, I myself did not eat the bread of the governor, nor did my brothers. ¹⁵But the former governors who were before my face had been heavy on the people, and they took from them bread and wine, after forty silver shekels. Also, their young men had acted dominantly over the people. But I myself did not do thus, from the face of the fear of God. ¹⁶Yes, also I held fast to the work of this wall, and we did not buy a field. And all my young men were gathered there for the work.

¹⁷Now the Jews and the prefects were 150 men at my table, with the ones coming to us from the nations that were around us. ¹⁸And what was made for one day was one bull, six choice sheep, and birds were made for me, and between ten days all kinds of wine in abundance. So with this I did not seek the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy on this people.

¹⁹Remember me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

5:9 ^[1]

Chapter 6

¹And it happened, when it was heard by Sanballat and Tobiah, and by Geshem the Arabian, and by the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall and a break was not remaining in it (although until that time I had not set up the doors in the gates), ²that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come, and let us appoint a time to meet together among the villages in the valley of Ono." And they were thinking to do evil to me.

³And I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, and I am not able to go down. Why should the work stop while I abandon it and go down to you?"

⁴And they sent to me according to this word four times, and I turned them back according to this word.

⁵Then Sanballat sent his young man to me a fifth time according to this word, and an opened letter was in his hand. ⁶In it was written, "It is heard among the nations, and Gashmu is saying, that you and the Jews are thinking to rebel, therefore you are building the wall. And you are becoming a king over them, according to these words.

⁷And also, you have set up prophets to call out concerning you in Jerusalem, saying, 'A king is in Judah!' And now, it will be heard by the king according to these words. So now, come, and let us consult together."

⁸And I sent to him, saying, "No such thing has been done according to these words that you are saying, but you are inventing them out of your own heart."

⁹For all of them were frightening us, saying, "Their hands will drop from the work, and it will not be done." So now, strengthen my hands.

¹⁰Now as for me, I entered the house of Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, and he was confined. And he said, "Let us appoint a time to meet in the house of God, in the midst of the temple. And let us shut the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you. Yes, at night they are coming to kill you."

¹¹And I said, "Should a man such as I run away? And who, such as I, is it that could go in to the temple and live? I will not go in!"

¹²And I recognized, and behold, God had not sent him. But he spoke the prophecy against me, for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³For this purpose he was hired, so that I would be afraid, and I would do thus and sin. And it might become an evil name to them, so that they could reproach me.

¹⁴My God, remember Tobiah, and Sanballat according to these deeds of his, and also Noadiah the prophetess, and the rest of the prophets who are frightening me.

¹⁵And the wall was finished on 25 of Elul, on day 52. ¹⁶And it happened that, when all our enemies heard, all the nations that were around us were afraid, and they fell extremely in their eyes. And they knew that this work was done by our God. ¹⁷Also, in those days, the nobles of Judah were multiplying their letters going to Tobiah, and those belonging to Tobiah were coming to them. ¹⁸For many in Judah were masters of oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah. And Jehohanan his son had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. ¹⁹Also, they were saying his good deeds before my face, and they were taking out my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

Chapter 7

¹And it happened that, when the wall was built and I had set up the doors, the gatekeepers and the ones who sang and the Levites were appointed. ²And I gave Hanani, my brother, and Hananiah, the official for the citadel, charge over Jerusalem. For he was according to a faithful man, and he feared God more than many.

³And I said to them, "Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun becomes hot. And while they are still standing, let them shut the doors, and they must bar them. And set up watches for those who dwell in Jerusalem, a man in his watch, and a man in front of his house."

⁴Now the city was wide on two hands and great, and the people were few in the midst of it. And there were no built houses. ⁵And my God gave to my heart, and I gathered together the nobles and the prefects and the people to be enrolled by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy for the ones who came up at the first.

And I found written in it:

⁶"These are the sons of the province, the ones who went up from the captivity of the exiles, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon exiled. And they returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, a man to his city, ⁷the ones who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel:

- ⁸The sons of Parosh were 2, 172.
- ⁹The sons of Shephatiah were 372.
- ¹⁰The sons of Arah were 652.
- ¹¹The sons of Pahath-Moab, of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, were 2, 818.
- ¹²The sons of Elam were 1, 254.
- ¹³The sons of Zattu were 845.
- ¹⁴The sons of Zakkai were 760.
- ¹⁵The sons of Binnui were 648.
- ¹⁶The sons of Bebai were 628.
- ¹⁷The sons of Azgad were 2, 322.
- ¹⁸The sons of Adonikam were 667.
- ¹⁹The sons of Bigvai were 2,067.
- ²⁰The sons of Adin were 655.
- ²¹The sons of Ater, of Hezekiah, were 98.
- ²²The sons of Hashum were 328.
- ²³The sons of Bezai were 324.
- ²⁴The sons of Hariph were 112.
- ²⁵The sons of Gibeon were 95.
- ²⁶The men of Bethlehem and Netophah were 188.
- ²⁷The men of Anathoth were 128.
- ²⁸The men of Beth Azmaveth were 42.
- ²⁹The men of Kiriath Jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth were 743.
- ³⁰The men of Ramah and Geba were 621.
- ³¹The men of Michmas were 122.
- ³²The men of Bethel and Ai were 123.
- ³³The men of the other Nebo were 52.
- ³⁴The sons of the other Elam were 1, 254.
- ³⁵The sons of Harim were 320.
- ³⁶The sons of Jericho were 345.

³⁷The sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono were 721.

³⁸The sons of Senaah were 3, 930.

³⁹The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, were 973; ⁴⁰the sons of Immer were 1,052; ⁴¹the sons of Pashhur were 1, 247; ⁴²the sons of Harim were 1,017.

⁴³The Levites: the sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, of the sons to Hodevah, were 74.^[1]

⁴⁴The ones who sang: the sons of Asaph were 148.

⁴⁵The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, were 138.

⁴⁶The Nethinim were: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁷the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon, ⁴⁸the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Shalmal, ⁴⁹the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, ⁵⁰the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, ⁵¹the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, ⁵²the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephushesim, ⁵³the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵⁴the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵⁵the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, ⁵⁶the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁷The sons of the servants of Solomon were: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida, ⁵⁸the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁹the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth Hazzebaim, the sons of Amon.

⁶⁰All the Nethinim and the sons of the servants of Solomon were 392.

⁶¹And these are the ones who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer, but they were not able to tell the house of their fathers and their seed, whether they were from Israel.

⁶²The sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, were 642.

⁶³And from the priests: the sons of Habaiah; the sons of Hakkoz; the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and he was called by their name.

⁶⁴These ones sought their record among the ones who were enrolled by genealogy, but it was not found. And they were desecrated from the priesthood. ⁶⁵And the Tirshatha said to them that they must not eat from the holiest holy food until the priest stood with Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁶All the assembly, as one, was 42, 360: ⁶⁷apart from their male servants and their female servants, these were 7, 337; and for them, the men who sang and the women who sang were 245.

⁶⁸The horses were 736.

The mules were 245.^[2]

⁶⁹The camels were 435.

The donkeys were 6, 720.

⁷⁰And some from the extremity of the heads of the fathers gave to the work.

The Tirshatha gave to the treasury 1,000 gold darics, 50 basins, 530 tunics of priests.

⁷¹And some from the heads of the fathers gave to the treasury of the work 20,000 gold darics and 2, 200 silver minas.

⁷²And what the remnant of the people gave was 20,000 gold darics, and 2,000 silver minas, and 67 tunics of priests."

⁷³And the priests, and the Levites, and the gatekeepers, and the ones who sang, and some from the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel dwelt in their cities. And the seventh month came, and the sons of Israel were in their cities.

7:43 ^[1]

7:68 ^[2]

Chapter 8

¹And all the people gathered as one man to the open area that is before the face of the gate of water. And they said to Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which Yahweh had commanded Israel. ²And Ezra the priest brought the law before the face of the assembly of both men and women and all who were understanding to hear, on day one of the seventh month. ³And he read it aloud before the face of the open area that is before the face of the gate of water, from the light until the middle of the day, in front of the men and the women, and the ones who were understanding. And the ears of all the people listened to the book of the law. ⁴And Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood that they had made for the purpose. And beside him stood: Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and from his left, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malkijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, Meshullam. ⁵And Ezra opened the book before the eyes of all the people, for he was higher than all the people. And as soon as he opened it, all the people stood.

⁶And Ezra blessed Yahweh the great God. And all the people answered, "Amen! Amen!" with their hands uplifted. And they knelt and prostrated themselves to Yahweh, nostrils to the ground. ⁷And Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites were causing the people to understand the law. And the people were in their place. ⁸And they read aloud carefully from the book, from the law of God, and set the interpretation. And they understood the reading.^[1]

⁹And Nehemiah, who was the Tirshatha, and Ezra, the priest, the scribe, and the Levites who were causing the people to understand, said to all the people: "Today is holy; it belongs to Yahweh your God. Do not mourn and do not weep." For all the people were weeping after they heard the words of the law.

¹⁰And he said to them, "Go, eat the fat and drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared, for today is holy, belonging to our Lord. And do not grieve, for, the joy of Yahweh, it is your strength."

¹¹And the Levites caused all the people to be silent, saying, "Hush, for today is holy. And do not grieve."

¹²And all the people went to eat and to drink and to send away portions and to make a great rejoicing, for they understood the words that had been made known to them.

¹³And on the second day, the heads of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites were gathered to Ezra the scribe, even to give attention to the words of the law. ¹⁴And they found written in the law that Yahweh commanded by the hand of Moses: that the sons of Israel should live in huts during the feast in the seventh month; ¹⁵and that they should cause others to hear and cause a sound to pass throughout all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the mountain, and bring branches of olive, and branches of oil trees, and branches of myrtle, and branches of palms, and branches of leafy trees, to make huts, as it is written."

¹⁶And the people went out and brought and made huts for themselves, a man on his roof, and in their courtyards, and in the courtyards of the house of God, and in the open area of the gate of water, and in the open area of the gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷And all the assembly, the ones who returned from the captivity, made huts, and they dwelt in the huts. For the sons of Israel had not done thus from the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day. And there was extremely great rejoicing. ¹⁸And he read aloud from the book of the law of God, day by day, from the first day to the last day. And they made a seven-days feast, and on the eighth day an assembly, according to the ordinance.

8:8 ^[1]

Chapter 9

¹And on day 24 of this month the sons of Israel were gathered in fasting and in sackcloth, and dust was upon them. ²And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all the sons of a foreigner. And they stood, and they confessed concerning their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. ³And they rose up in their place, and they read aloud the book of the law of Yahweh their God a fourth of the day, and a fourth of the day were confessing and prostrating themselves to Yahweh their God.

⁴And Jeshua rose up on the stairs of the Levites, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, Kenani. And they cried out with a loud voice to Yahweh their God. ⁵And the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, Pethahiah, said:

“Rise up! Bless Yahweh your God from eternity to eternity! And may they bless your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶You alone are he, Yahweh: you yourself made the heavens, the heavens of the heavens and all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them; and you cause all of them to live; and the host of the heavens prostrates themselves to you.”^{[1][2]}

⁷You are he, Yahweh, the God who chose Abram. Also, you brought him out from Ur of the Chaldees. Also, you made his name ‘Abraham.’ ⁸Also, you found his heart faithful before your face: and cut with him the covenant, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give to his seed; and you have caused your words to stand, for you are righteous.

⁹And you saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and you heard their cry at the sea of reeds. ¹⁰And you gave signs and wonders to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all the people of his land, because you knew that they were acting presumptuously toward them. And you made for yourself a name, as it is this day. ¹¹And you split open the sea before their face, and they passed through the midst of the sea on the dry land. And you cast their pursuers into the depths, like a stone in mighty waters. ¹²And you led them with a pillar of cloud by day, and with a pillar of fire by night to shine for them on the way in which they should go. ¹³And you came down on the mountain of Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. And you gave to them just judgments and laws of truth, good statutes and commandments. ¹⁴And you made known to them your holy sabbath. And you charged them with commandments, and statutes, and a law, by the hand of Moses your servant. ¹⁵And you gave to them bread from heaven for their hunger, and you brought out for them water from a rock for their thirst. And you said to them to go in to possess the land that you had raised your hand to give to them.

¹⁶But they and our fathers, they acted presumptuously. And they stiffened their neck and did not listen to your commandments. ¹⁷And they refused to hear, and they did not remember your wonderful deeds that you performed with them. And they stiffened their neck and in their rebellion chose a head in order to return to their servitude. But you are a God of forgiveness, gracious and compassionate, long of nostrils and abounding in covenant faithfulness, and you did not forsake them. ¹⁸Even when they made for themselves a calf image and said, ‘This is your God who brought you up from Egypt,’ and they performed great blasphemies, ¹⁹still you, in your great mercies, did not forsake them in the wilderness. He did not take away the pillar of cloud from over them by day to lead them on the way, nor the pillar of fire by night to shine for them and on the way in which they should go. ²⁰And you gave your good spirit to give them insight. And you did not withhold your manna from their mouth, and you gave them water for their thirst. ²¹And you sustained them forty years in the wilderness; they did not lack. Their clothes did not wear out, and their feet did not swell. ²²And you gave to them kingdoms and peoples, and you allocated to them as far as the corners. And they took possession of the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og, the king of Bashan. ²³And you multiplied their sons like the stars of the heavens. And you brought them to the land that you said to their fathers to enter in order to possess it.

²⁴And the sons went in and possessed the land, and before their face you subdued the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites. And you gave them into their hands, and their kings, and the peoples of the land, to do with them according to their will. ²⁵And they captured fortified cities and fat ground. And they possessed houses full of all good things, hewn cisterns, vineyards, and olive orchards, and food trees in abundance. And they ate and were satisfied and grew fat and reveled in your great goodness.

²⁶And they disobeyed and rebelled against you, and they cast your law behind their back. And they killed your prophets, who testified against them in order to bring them back to you. And they performed great blasphemies.

²⁷And you gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they harassed them. And in the time of their distress they cried out to you, and you yourself heard from heaven. And, according to your many mercies, you gave to them saviors, and they saved them from the hand of their adversaries.

²⁸And after rest belonged to them, they returned to doing evil before your face. And you left them to the hand of their enemies, and they oppressed them. And they returned and cried out to you, and you yourself heard from heaven and delivered them many times according to your mercies. ²⁹And you testified against them to bring them back to your law. But as for them, they acted presumptuously and did not listen to your commandments. And, concerning your judgments, they sinned against them, which, if a person does, then he will live by them. And they gave a stubborn shoulder, and stiffened their neck, and did not hear.

³⁰And you continued with them many years, and you testified against them with your spirit by the hand of your prophets, but they did not give an ear. And you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. ³¹But, in your many mercies, you did not make a complete end of them, and you did not forsake them. For you are a gracious and merciful God.

³²So now, our God, the great, mighty, and fearsome God, who keeps the covenant and covenant faithfulness, do not let all the hardship be little before your face, that has found us, our kings, our leaders, and our priests, and our prophets, and our fathers, and all your people from the days of the kings of Assyria until this day. ³³And you are righteous concerning all that has come upon us. For you have acted faithfully; but as for us, we have acted wickedly. ³⁴And our kings, our leaders, our priests, and our fathers have not done your law. And they have not attended to your commandments or to your testimonies that you testified against them. ³⁵And as for them, they did not serve you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave to them, and in the wide and fat land that you gave before their face. And they did not turn away from their evil deeds.

³⁶Behold us today; we are servants. And the land that you gave to our fathers, to eat its fruit and its goodness; behold us, we are servants in it! ³⁷And its great produce belongs to the kings whom you have given to be over us in our sins, and to be ruling over our bodies and over our livestock, according to their will. And we are in great distress. ³⁸And in all of this, we are cutting a faithful covenant, and writing even on a sealed document our leaders, our Levites, our priests."

Chapter 10

¹And on the sealed documents were: Nehemiah, the Tirshatha, the son of Hakaliah, and Zedekiah, ²Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, ³Pashhur, Amariah, Malkijah, ⁴Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluk, ⁵Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, ⁶Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, ⁷Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, ⁸Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah. These were the priests.

⁹And the Levites were: even Jeshua, the son of Azaniah; Binnui, from the sons of Henadad; Kadmiel; ¹⁰also their brothers, Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, ¹¹Mika, Rehob, Hashabiah, ¹²Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, ¹³Hodiah, Bani, Beninu.

¹⁴The heads of the people were: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, ¹⁵Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, ¹⁶Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, ¹⁷Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur, ¹⁸Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai, ¹⁹Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, ^[1] ²⁰Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, ²¹Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, ²²Pelathiah, Hanan, Ananiah, ²³Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, ²⁴Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek, ²⁵Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, ²⁶Ahiah, Hanan, Anan, ²⁷Malluk, Harim, Baanah.

²⁸And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the ones who sing, the Nethinim, and all the ones who were separating themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons and their daughters, all who were knowing, being able to understand, ²⁹were clinging to their brothers, their nobles, and were entering into a curse and into an oath: to walk in the law of God, which was given by the hand of Moses the servant of God; and to keep and to do all the commandments of Yahweh our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes; ³⁰and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, and we would not take their daughters for our sons; ³¹and, on the sabbath or on a holy day, we would not take from the peoples of the land, the ones bringing goods and all kinds of grain to sell on the day of the sabbath; and we would leave alone the seventh year and interest of every hand. ³²Also, we caused to stand for us commandments to give over us a third of a shekel in a year for the service of the house of our God: ³³for the bread in rows and the continual offering, and for the continual burnt offering, the sabbaths, the new moons, for the appointed times, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to cover over for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.

³⁴And we cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people: concerning the offering of pieces of wood, to bring them to the house of our God, for the house of our fathers at the appointed times year by year, for burning on the altar of Yahweh our God as written in the law; ³⁵and to bring the firstfruits of our soil and the firstfruits of all the fruit of every tree, year by year, to the house of Yahweh; ³⁶and the firstborns of our sons and our livestock, as written in the law, even the firstborns of our herds and our flocks, to bring them to the house of our God, to the priests, the ones who minister in the house of our God. ³⁷And we will bring: the first of our dough and our offerings, and the fruit of every tree, wine, and oil, for the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and a tithe of our soil for the Levites. And they, the Levites, will be the ones receiving tithes in all the cities of our labor. ³⁸And a priest who is a son of Aaron will be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes. And the Levites will bring a tithe of the tithe to the house of our God, to the chambers of the house of the treasury. ³⁹For the sons of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring to the chambers the offerings of grain, wine, and oil. And there shall be the vessels for the sanctuary, and the priests, the ones who are ministering, and the gatekeepers, and the ones who sing. And we shall not neglect the house of our God.

10:19 ^[1]

Chapter 11

¹And the leaders of the people dwelt in Jerusalem. And the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine hands were in the cities. ²And the people blessed all the men, the ones who freely offered to dwell in Jerusalem.

³And these are the heads of the province who dwell in Jerusalem. And in the cities of Judah they dwelt, a man on his property, in their cities: Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinim, and the sons of the servants of Solomon.

⁴And some from the sons of Judah and from the sons of Benjamin dwelt in Jerusalem. Those from the sons of Judah were: Athaiah, the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, from the sons of Perez; ⁵and Maaseiah, the son of Baruch, the son of Kol-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, a son of the Shiloni.^[1] ⁶All the sons of Perez, the ones dwelling in Jerusalem, were 468 men of strength. ⁷And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu, the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah; ⁸and after him, Gabbai, Sallai, 928. ⁹And Joel the son of Zichri was the overseer for them. And Judah, the son of Hassenuah, was the second over the city.

¹⁰From the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib; Jakin; ¹¹Seraiah, the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the leader of the house of God; ¹²and their brothers, who were doing the work for the house, were 822; and Adaiah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah; ¹³and his brothers, the heads of fathers, were 242; and Amashsai, the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer; ¹⁴and their brothers, mighty men of strength, were 128. And Zabdiel the son of Haggadolim was overseer for them.^[2]

¹⁵And from the Levites: Shemaiah, the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; ¹⁶and Shabbethai and Jozabad, from the heads of the Levites, were over the work outside of the house of God; ¹⁷and Mattaniah, the son of Mika, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the head of the beginning who offered the thanksgiving prayer; and Bakbukiah, second from his brothers; and Abda, the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.^{[3][4]} ¹⁸All the Levites in the holy city were 284.

¹⁹And the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers, the ones who guarded at the gates, were 172.

²⁰And the rest of Israel, the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, a man in his inheritance. ²¹And the Nethinim were dwelling in the Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.

²²And the overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi, the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mika, from the sons of Asaph, the ones who sang, who were over the work of the house of God. ²³For the commandment of the king was upon them, that support for the ones who sang was a daily matter in its day. ²⁴And Pethahiah, the son of Meshezabel, from the sons of Zerach, the son of Judah, was at the hand of the king for every matter of the people.

²⁵And for the villages in their fields, some from the sons of Judah dwelt: in Kiriath Arba and its daughters; and in Dibon and its daughters; and in Jekabzeel and its villages; ²⁶and in Jeshua; and in Moladah; and in Beth-Palet; ²⁷and in Hazar-Shual; and in Beersheba and its daughters; ²⁸and in Ziklag; and Mekonah and its daughters; ²⁹and in En-Rimmon; and in Zorah; and in Jarmuth; ³⁰Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages; Lachish and its fields; Azekah and its daughters. And they encamped from Beersheba as far as the valley of Hinnom: ³¹and the sons of Benjamin from Geba, at Mikdash, and Aija, and Bethel and its daughters, ³²Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, ³³Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, ³⁴Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, ³⁵Lod, and Ono, the valley of the craftsmen; ³⁶and some from the Levites, who were divisions of Judah, in Benjamin.

Chapter 12

¹And these are the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, ²Amariah, Malluk, Hattush, ³Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, ⁴Iddo, Ginnethon, Abijah, ⁵Mijamin, Moadiah, Bilgah, ⁶Shemaiah and Joiarib, Jedaiah, ⁷Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, Jedaiah. These were the heads of the priests and their brothers in the days of Jeshua.

⁸And the Levites were: Jeshua; Binnui; Kadmiel; Sherebiah; Judah; Mattaniah, he and his brothers were over the thanksgiving songs; ⁹and Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, were opposite them in the service watches. ¹⁰And Jeshua fathered Joiakim; and Joiakim fathered Eliashib; and Eliashib, Joiada; ¹¹and Joiada fathered Jonathan; and Jonathan fathered Jaddua.

¹²And in the days of Joiakim priests were the heads of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah; ¹³of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan; ¹⁴of Malluk, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;^[1] ¹⁵of Harim, Adna; of Meremoth, Helkai; ¹⁶of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; ¹⁷of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai; ¹⁸of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan; ¹⁹of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; ²⁰of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber; ²¹of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

²²In the days of Eliashib, the Levites Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were written as heads of fathers: also the priests, during the reign of Darius the Persian.

²⁷And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought out the Levites from all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to perform the dedication with rejoicing, and with thanksgivings, and with song, cymbals, lyres, and harps. ²⁸And the sons of the ones who sang gathered themselves, both from the circle around Jerusalem and from the villages of the Netophati, ²⁹and from Beth-Gilgal and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth; for the ones who sang had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem. ³⁰And the priests and the Levites purified themselves. And they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. ³¹And I caused the officials of Judah to go up on top of the wall. And I caused to stand two great thanksgiving groups, and processions to the right hand on top of the wall toward the gate of dung. ³²And after them went Hoshai with half of the officials of Judah, ³³and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, ³⁴Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah. ³⁵And some from the sons of the priests had trumpets: Zechariah, the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph; ³⁶and his brothers, Shemaiah, and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel and Judah, Hanani, with the instruments of song of David, the man of God. And Ezra the scribe was before their face. ³⁷And by the gate of the spring and opposite them, they went up on the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall on top of the house of David and as far as the gate of water, east. ³⁸And the second thanksgiving group, the one proceeding to the opposite direction, and I after it, with half of the people on top of the wall, on top of the tower of ovens even as far as the broad wall, ³⁹and on top of the gate of Ephraim, and above the gate of old, and above the gate of fish and the tower of Hananel and the tower of the hundred, even as far as the gate of sheep: and they stood in the gate of the guard. ⁴⁰And the two thanksgiving groups stood at the house of God: also I, and half of the prefects with me; ⁴¹and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, Hananiah, with trumpets; ⁴²and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malkijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the ones who sang made themselves heard, with Jezrahiah the overseer. ⁴³And on that day they sacrificed great sacrifices, and they rejoiced, for God had made them glad with great rejoicing. Yes, even the women and the children rejoiced, so the rejoicing of Jerusalem was heard from far away.

⁴⁴And on that day men were appointed over the chambers for the storehouses, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and for the Levites. For Judah rejoiced over the priests and over the Levites, the ones who were standing. ⁴⁵And they kept the service watch of their God and the service watch of purification, also the ones who sang and the gatekeepers, according to the commandment of David and Solomon his son. ⁴⁶For in the days of David and Asaph, from ancient time there was a head of the ones who sang, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.^[2] ⁴⁷And in the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah, all Israel was giving the portions of the ones who sang and the gatekeepers, as a daily matter in its day. And they were consecrating for the Levites, and the Levites were consecrating for the sons of Aaron.

12:14 ^[1]

12:46 ^[2]

Chapter 13

¹On that day it was read in the book of Moses, in the ears of the people, and it was found written in it, that no Ammonite or Moabite shall enter into the assembly of God until eternity. ²For they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and with water. And he hired Balaam against them to curse them, but our God overturned the curse to a blessing. ³And it happened that, as soon as they heard the law, they separated all the mixed company from Israel.

⁴Now, before the face of this, Eliashib the priest, nearly-related to Tobiah, was being put in the chamber of the house of our God. ⁵And he made for him a great chamber, and there previously they were putting offerings: the frankincense; and the vessels; and the tithes of the grain, the wine, and the oil, the commandment for the Levites, and the ones who sang, and the gatekeepers; and the offerings of the priests. ⁶And during all this I was not in Jerusalem. For I had gone to the king in year 32 of Artaxerxes, the king of Babylon. And at an end of days I requested leave from the king.

⁷And I came to Jerusalem. And I understood about the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah by making for him a chamber in the courts of the house of God. ⁸And it was extremely evil to me, and I cast out all the things of the house of Tobiah from the storeroom to the outside. ⁹And I spoke, and they purified the chambers. And I returned to there the vessels of the house of God, with the offering and the incense.

¹⁰And I knew that the portions of the Levites had not been given, and the Levites and the ones who sang, who did the work, had fled, a man to his field. ¹¹And I contended with the prefects, and I said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them and caused them to stand at their stations. ¹²And all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, and the wine, and the oil to the treasuries. ¹³And I appointed treasurers over the treasuries: Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah from the Levites; and at their hand was Hanan, the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah. For they were considered faithful, and it was for them to apportion to their brothers.

¹⁴Remember me, my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my faithful kindness that I have done for the house of my God and for its service watches.

¹⁵In those days I saw in Judah ones treading winepresses on the sabbath, and ones bringing in grain-heaps, and ones loading onto donkeys, yes, even wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of loads, and ones bringing to Jerusalem on the day of the sabbath. And I protested on the day of their selling provisions. ¹⁶And the Tyrians who dwelt in it were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and were selling them on the sabbath to the sons of Judah, even in Jerusalem. ¹⁷And I contended with the nobles of Judah. And I said to them, "What is this evil thing that you are doing, and profaning the day of the sabbath? ¹⁸Did not your fathers do thus, and our God brought all this evil on us and on this city? And you are increasing wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath."

¹⁹And it happened that, when the gates of Jerusalem grew dark before the face of the sabbath, I spoke, and the doors were shut, and I said that they should not open them until after the sabbath. And I caused some from my young men to stand at the gates; a load could not enter on the day of the sabbath. ²⁰And the ones who traded and the ones who sold all kinds of goods to sell lodged outside of Jerusalem a time or two. ²¹And I testified against them, and I said to them, "Why are you lodging in front of the wall? If you repeat, I will stretch out a hand on you!" From that time, they did not come on the sabbath.

²²And I said to the Levites that they should purify themselves and come keep the gates to consecrate the day of the sabbath.

Remember me concerning this also, my God, and have pity on me according to the greatness of your covenant faithfulness.

²³In those days I also saw Jews who had given a dwelling to Ashdodite, Ammonite, and Moabite women. ²⁴And their sons, half were speaking Ashdodite, and none of them were knowing to speak Hebrew, but according to the tongue of people group by people group. ²⁵And I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck some of their men, and pulled out their hair. And I caused them to swear an oath by God: "If you give your daughters to their sons, or if you lift from their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves! ²⁶Did not Solomon, the king of Israel, sin concerning these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him: and he was beloved by his God, and God gave him as king over all Israel. The foreign women caused even him to sin. ²⁷Should we then listen to you, to do all this great evil, to act unfaithfully toward our God and give a dwelling to foreign women?"^[1]

²⁸And one from the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. And I caused him to flee from beside me.

²⁹Remember them, my God, on account of the defiling of the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

³⁰And I purified them from everything foreign. And I caused the service watches to stand: for the priests and for the Levites, a man in his work; ³¹and for the offering of pieces of wood at the appointed times; and for the firstfruits.

Remember me, my God, for good.

13:27 ^[1]

Esther

Chapter 1

¹Now it happened in the days of Ahasuerus (he was Ahasuerus, the one who ruled from India even as far as Ethiopia, 127 provinces); ²in those days, as the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his royalty, which was in Susa the citadel: ³in year three of his reign, he made a feast for all his officials and his administrators, the army of Persia and Media, the noblemen, and the officials of the provinces before his face, ⁴when he displayed the wealth of the glory of his kingdom and the splendor of the beauty of his greatness for many days, 180 days.

⁵And when those days were fulfilled, the king made a feast for all the people who were found in Susa the citadel, from the greatest even to the least, for seven days, in the courtyard of the garden of the palace of the king. ⁶Linens cotton and blue were hanging by cords of byssus and purple on rings of silver and pillars of marble. Couches of gold and silver were on the pavement of porphyry and alabaster and pearl and precious stone. ⁷And the serving was in vessels of gold, with vessels differing from other vessels, and the wine of royalty was abundant according to the hand of the king. ⁸And the drinking was according to the law "There is no compulsion," for thus the king had established for every overseer of his house to do according to the desire of man by man. ⁹Also Vashti the queen made a feast of women in the palace of royalty that belonged to the king Ahasuerus.

¹⁰On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was pleased by the wine, he said to Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha and Abagtha, Zethar and Karkas (the seven eunuchs who served before the face of the king Ahasuerus), ¹¹to bring Vashti the queen to the face of the king in a crown of royalty in order to show the people and the officials her beauty, for she was pleasing of appearance. ¹²But the queen Vashti refused to come at the word of the king that was by the hand of the eunuchs. Then the king became very angry, and his rage burned within him.

¹³Then the king said to the wise men, who were knowers of the times (for thus was the manner of the king before the face of all those who were knowers of law and judgment, ¹⁴and the ones near to him were Karshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Mersena, Memukan, seven officials of Persia and Media who were seers of the face of the king, the ones who sat first in the kingdom): ¹⁵"According to law, what is to be done with the queen Vashti on account of this, that she did not perform the command of the king Ahasuerus by the hand of the eunuchs?"

¹⁶And Memukan replied before the face of the king and the officials, "Not toward the king alone has Vashti the queen done wrong, but toward all the officials and toward all the peoples who are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. ¹⁷For the matter of the queen will go out to all the women in order to make their husbands despised in their eyes when they say, 'The king Ahasuerus said to bring Vashti the queen before his face, but she did not come.' ¹⁸Now this day, the noblewomen of Persia and Media who have heard the matter of the queen will speak to all the officials of the king. And there will be contempt and wrath enough! ¹⁹If it is good to the king, let a decree of royalty go out from before his face, and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media (which do not pass away) that Vashti shall never come before the face of the king Ahasuerus. And let the king give her royalty to her female neighbor, the woman who is better than she. ²⁰And the decree of the king will be heard that he will make for all his kingdom, though it is great. Then all the women will give honor to their husbands, from the greatest to the least."

²¹And the word seemed good in the eyes of the king and the officials. And the king acted according to the word of Memukan. ²²And he sent letters to all the provinces of the king, to province by province according to its own writing, and to people by people according to its own tongue: that every man should be ruling in his house and speaking according to the tongue of his people.

Chapter 2

¹After these things, when the rage of the king Ahasuerus subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done, and what had been decided concerning her. ²And the young men of the king who served him said, "Let them seek for the king young women who are virgins and pleasing of appearance. ³And let the king appoint administrators in all the provinces of his kingdom. Then let them gather every young woman who is a virgin and pleasing of appearance to Susa the citadel, to the house of women into the hand of Hegai (the eunuch of the king who is overseer of the women). Then give their ointments. ⁴And let the young woman who is pleasing in the eyes of the king become queen instead of Vashti." And the word was pleasing in the eyes of the king, so he did thus.

⁵A man, a Jew, was in Susa the citadel, and his name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish (a man, a Benjamite, ⁶who had been exiled from Jerusalem with the exiles who had been exiled along with Jeconiah, the king of Judah, who Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had exiled). ⁷And he was fostering Hadassah (she is Esther), the daughter of his uncle, because there was not for her a father or a mother. Now the young woman was beautiful of form and pleasing of appearance. And at the death of her father and her mother, Mordecai had taken her for him as a daughter. ⁸And it happened that, when the decree of the king and his law were heard, and when many young women were gathered to Susa the citadel into the hand of Hegai, Esther was taken to the palace of the king, into the hand of Hegai (who was overseer of the women). ⁹And the young woman was pleasing in his eyes, and she lifted kindness before his face. And he quickly gave her ointments, gave her portions of food, and gave her seven young women chosen from the house of the king. And he transferred her and her young women to the best of the house of women. ¹⁰Esther had not declared her people or her ancestry, for Mordecai had laid a charge upon her that she should not tell it. ¹¹And always, day by day, Mordecai was walking about before the face of the courtyard of the house of women in order to know the peace of Esther and what was being done with her.

¹²Now when the turn came for young woman by young woman to go to the king Ahasuerus, it was after her 12 months, according to the law of women. For thus the days of their beautification would be fulfilled: six months by oil of myrrh, then six months by perfumes and by the ointments of women. ¹³Then at this, the young woman would go to the king. Anything that she said would be given to her, to go with her from the house of women to the house of the king. ¹⁴In the evening she would go, and in the morning she would return to the second house of women, into the hand of Shaashgaz (the eunuch of the king who was overseer of the concubines). She would not go to the king again unless the king had delighted in her and she was called by name.

¹⁵Now when the turn of Esther (the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for him as a daughter) came to go to the king, she did not seek anything except what Hegai (the eunuch of the king who was overseer of the women) said. And Esther was a lifter of favor in the eyes of everyone who saw her. ¹⁶And Esther was taken to the king Ahasuerus, to the palace of his royalty, in the tenth month (which is the month of Tebeth), in year seven of his reign. ¹⁷And the king loved Esther more than all the women and she lifted favor and kindness before his face more than all the virgins. And he set a crown of royalty on her head, and he made her queen instead of Vashti. ¹⁸And the king made a great feast for all his officials and his servants, the feast of Esther. And he made a holiday for the provinces, and he gave gifts according to the hand of the king.

¹⁹Now when virgins were being gathered a second time, Mordecai was then sitting at the gate of the king. ²⁰Esther had not yet declared her ancestry (that is, her people), according to the charge that Mordecai had laid upon her. And Esther continued to do the command of Mordecai according to how she was with him in her fostering. ²¹In those days, when Mordecai was sitting at the gate of the king, Bigthan and Teresh (two eunuchs of the king who were guardians of the doorway) became angry; and they sought to stretch out a hand against the king Ahasuerus. ²²And the matter was made known to Mordecai, and he declared it to Esther the queen. And Esther spoke to the king in the name of Mordecai. ²³And the matter was sought out and was found out, and the two of them were hanged on a pole. And it was written in the book of the events of days before the face of the king.

Chapter 3

¹After these things, the king Ahasuerus made Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, great. And he lifted him up and placed his seat of authority from over all the officials who were with him. ²And all the servants of the king who were at the gate of the king were bowing down and prostrating themselves to Haman, for thus the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai would neither bow down nor would he prostrate himself. ³And the servants of the king who were at the gate of the king said to Mordecai, "Why are you trespassing the command of the king?" ⁴And it happened that, when they spoke to him day after day, he did not listen to them. So they told Haman to see if the words of Mordecai would stand, for he had told them that he was a Jew.^[1] ⁵And Haman saw that Mordecai would neither bow down nor prostrate himself to him. And Haman was filled with rage. ⁶And it was despised in his eyes to stretch out a hand against Mordecai alone, for they had told him the people of Mordecai. And Haman sought to annihilate all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who were in all the kingdom of Ahasuerus.

⁷In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in year 12 of the king Ahasuerus, a Pur (which is "the lot") was cast before the face of Haman from day to day and from month to month: the twelfth, which is the month of Adar. ⁸And Haman said to the king Ahasuerus, "He has one people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom. And their laws are different from every people, and the laws of the king they do not obey. And there is no profit to the king to leave them untouched. ⁹If it is good to the king, let it be written to destroy them, and I will weigh out 10,000 talents of silver into the hands of the doers of the work, to bring into the treasuries of the king." ¹⁰And the king removed his signet ring from on his hand, and he gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the adversary of the Jews. ¹¹And the king said to Haman, "The silver is given to you, and the people, to do with them as is good in your eyes."

¹²And the scribes of the king were called in the first month, on day 13 of it, and it was written according to all that Haman commanded: to the satraps of the king, and to the governors who were over province by province, and to the officials of people by people, province by province according to its writing, and people by people according to its tongue. In the name of the king Ahasuerus it was written, and it was sealed with the signet ring of the king.

¹³And letters were sent by the hand of runners to all of the provinces of the king, to annihilate, to slaughter, and to destroy all the Jews from young even to old, children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth of month 12 (which is the month of Adar), and to plunder their spoils. ¹⁴A copy of the writing, to be given as a law in every province by province, was uncovered for all the peoples to be ready for this day. ¹⁵The runners went out, hurrying by decree of the king, and the law was given in Susa the citadel. And the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was in confusion.

Chapter 4

¹Now when Mordecai knew about all that had been done, Mordecai tore his garments and put on sackcloth and ashes. And he went out into the midst of the city and cried out a great and bitter outcry. ²And he came only as far as before the face of the gate of the king because no one was to come into the gate of the king while wearing sackcloth. ³And in every province by province, any place where the decree of the king and his law reached, there was great mourning by the Jews, and fasting and weeping and lamenting; sackcloth and ashes were laid out by the multitudes. ⁴When the young female attendants of Esther came with her eunuchs and they told her, even the queen was seized with extreme fear. And she sent garments to clothe Mordecai and to take off his sackcloth from upon him, but he did not accept.

⁵And Esther called for Hathak, from the eunuchs of the king whom he had caused to stand before her face. She commanded him concerning Mordecai to know what this was and on account of what this was. ⁶And Hathak went out to Mordecai, to the open place of the city that was before the face of the gate of the king. ⁷And Mordecai reported to him all that had happened to him, and the exact amount of silver that Haman had said to weigh out into the treasuries of the king against the Jews to destroy them. ⁸Also he gave to him a copy of the writing of the law that had been given in Susa to annihilate them, in order to show Esther and to inform her and to lay a charge upon her to go to the king to implore his favor and to seek from before his face concerning her people. ⁹And Hathak went and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

¹⁰And Esther spoke to Hathak and commanded him to say to Mordecai: ¹¹"All the servants of the king and the people of the provinces of the king are knowing that for any man or woman who goes to the king, to the inner court, who has not been called, his law is one: to cause to die, apart from when the king holds out to him the scepter of gold; then he will live. But as for me, I have not been called to come to the king these 30 days." ¹²And they told to Mordecai the words of Esther.

¹³And Mordecai said to return to Esther: "Do not think to yourself to escape in the palace of the king, different from all the Jews. ¹⁴For if you indeed remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and the house of your father will perish. And who knows if you have arrived at royalty for such a time as this?"

¹⁵And Esther said to return to Mordecai: ¹⁶"Go, gather all the Jews who are found in Susa. And fast on account of me, neither eating nor drinking for three days, both night and day. Also, I myself and my young female attendants will fast likewise. Then, in such circumstances, I will go to the king, which is not according to the law. And if I perish, I perish." ¹⁷And Mordecai went and did according to the whole charge that Esther had laid upon him.

Chapter 5

¹And it happened on the third day that Esther put on royalty and stood in the inner court of the palace of the king, opposite to the house of the king. Now the king was sitting on the throne of his royalty in the palace of royalty opposite to the entrance of the palace. ²And it happened that, as soon as the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she lifted favor in his eyes. And the king held out to Esther the scepter of gold that was in his hand, so Esther approached and touched the head of the scepter.

³And the king said to her, "What is to you, Esther the queen? And what is your request? As much as half of the kingdom, and let it be given to you." ⁴And Esther said, "If it is good to the king, let the king come with Haman today to the banquet that I have made for him." ⁵And the king said, "Bring Haman quickly in order to do the word of Esther." And the king came with Haman to the banquet that Esther had made.

⁶And the king said to Esther during the banquet of wine, "What is your petition? And let it be given to you. And what is your request? As much as half of the kingdom, and let it be done." ⁷And Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request: ⁸if I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it is good to the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king come with Haman to the banquet that I will make for them, and tomorrow I will do according to the word of the king."

⁹And Haman went out that day joyful and pleased of heart. But as soon as Haman saw Mordecai at the gate of the king, that he neither rose up nor trembled from him, then Haman was filled with rage on account of Mordecai.

¹⁰But Haman restrained himself and went to his house. Then he sent and brought his friends and Zeresh his wife.

¹¹And Haman recounted to them the glory of his wealth and the multitude of his sons and all about how the king had made him great and how he had lifted him over the officials and administrators of the king. ¹²And Haman said, "In addition, Esther the queen did not bring anyone with the king to the banquet that she had made except me. And also for tomorrow, I am called by her with the king. ¹³But all of this is not equal for me to every time that I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the gate of the king." ¹⁴And Zeresh his wife, with all of his friends, said to him, "Let them make a pole 50 cubits high. And in the morning speak to the king, and let them hang Mordecai on it. Then go with the king to the banquet joyful." And the word was good before the face of Haman, and he made the pole.

Chapter 6

¹That night the sleep of the king fled away. And he said to bring the book of records of the events of days, and they were being called out before the face of the king. ²And it was found written that Mordecai had told about Bigthana and Teresh, two of the eunuchs of the king who were from the guardians of the doorway, that they had sought to stretch out a hand against the king Ahasuerus.

³And the king said, "What honor or greatness was done for Mordecai on account of this?" And the young men of the king who served him said, "Not a thing has been done with him." ⁴And the king asked, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come into the outer court of the house of the king to say to the king to hang Mordecai on the pole that he had prepared for him. ⁵And the young men of the king said to him, "Behold, Haman is standing in the courtyard." And the king said, "Let him come."

⁶And Haman came, and the king said to him, "What is one to do for the man in whose honor the king is delighted?" Then Haman said in his heart, "For whom would the king delight to do honor more than me?" ⁷And Haman said to the king, "For a man whom the king delights to honor: ⁸let them bring a garment of royalty with which the king has clothed himself, and a horse on which the king has ridden and which has been given a crown of royalty for its head. ⁹And give this garment and this horse into the hand of a man from the most noble officials of the king. And let them clothe the man whom the king delights to honor, and cause him to ride on the horse in the open square of the city, and proclaim before his face, 'Thus shall it be done for the man whom the king delights to honor!'" ¹⁰And the king said to Haman, "Hurry, take the garment and the horse, according to how you have spoken, and do thus for Mordecai the Jew, the man who sits at the gate of the king. Do not allow a word to fall of all that you have spoken."

¹¹And Haman took the garment and the horse, and he clothed Mordecai and caused him to ride in the open place of the city and called out before his face, "Thus shall it be done for the man whom the king delights to honor!"

¹²And Mordecai returned to the gate of the king, but Haman hurried to his house, mourning with a covering of head. ¹³And Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and to all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordecai, before whose face you have begun to fall, is from the seed of the Jews, then you will not prevail against him, but you will surely fall before his face." ¹⁴They were still speaking with him when the eunuchs of the king arrived. And they hurried to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had made.

Chapter 7

¹And the king came with Haman to drink with Esther the queen. ²And the king said to Esther again on the second day during the banquet of wine, "What is your petition, Esther the queen? And let it be given to you. And what is your request? As much as half of the kingdom, and let it be done." ³And Esther the queen answered and said, "If I have found favor in your eyes, O king, and if it is good to the king, let my life be given to me at my petition and my people at my request. ⁴For we have been sold, I and my people, for annihilation, for slaughter, and for destruction. Now if we had been sold as slaves and female servants, I would have kept silent, because the distress would not have been equal to a burden of the king."

⁵And the king Ahasuerus spoke and said to Esther the queen, "Who is he, this man? Where is this man, he whose heart is full to do thus?" ⁶Esther answered, "A man, an adversary, and an enemy—this evil Haman!" Then Haman was terrified from before the face of the king and the queen. ⁷And the king rose up in his rage from the banquet of wine to the garden of the palace. But Haman remained in order to seek for his life from Esther the queen, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king. ⁸Now when the king returned from the garden of the palace to the house of the banquet of wine, Haman was fallen on the couch on which Esther was. And the king said, "Is it also to subdue the queen with me in the house?" The word was going out from the mouth of the king when they covered the face of Haman.

⁹And Harbona, one from the eunuchs before the face of the king, said, "Also, behold, the pole that Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, is standing at the house of Haman 50 cubits high." And the king said, "Hang him on it." ¹⁰And they hanged Haman on the pole that he had prepared for Mordecai, and the rage of the king subsided.

Chapter 8

¹On that day, the king Ahasuerus gave to Esther the queen the house of Haman, the adversary of the Jews. And Mordecai came before the face of the king because Esther told what he was to her. ²And the king removed his signet ring, which he had caused to pass from Haman, and he gave it to Mordecai. And Esther placed Mordecai over the house of Haman.

³And Esther repeated her action, and she spoke before the face of the king. She fell before the face of his feet and wept and implored favor from him to take away the evil of Haman the Agagite and his plot that he had plotted against the Jews. ⁴And the king held out to Esther the scepter of gold, so Esther rose up and stood before the face of the king. ⁵And she said, "If it is good to the king, and if I have found favor before his face, and the word is proper before the face of the king, and I am good in his eyes, let it be written to bring back the letters, the plot of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the provinces of the king. ⁶For how could I bear to see the evil that my people would find? And how could I bear seeing the destruction of my kindred?"

⁷And the king Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, "Behold, I have given the house of Haman to Esther, and they have hanged him on the pole on account of this, that he stretched out his hand against the Jews. ⁸So, in the name of the king, you write for the Jews as is good in your eyes, and seal it with the signet ring of the king. For there is none to take back a writing that has been written in the name of the king and has been sealed with the signet ring of the king."

⁹And the scribes of the king were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third of it. And according to all that Mordecai commanded, it was written to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and officials of the provinces that were from India even as far as Ethiopia: 127 provinces, province by province according to its writing, and people by people according to its tongue, and to the Jews according to their writing and according to their tongue. ¹⁰And he wrote in the name of the king Ahasuerus, and he sealed with the signet ring of the king. And he sent letters (by the hand of runners on horses, riders of the royal pack horses, sons of the mares) ¹¹that the king gave to the Jews who were in every city, city by city: to gather and to stand for their life, to annihilate, and to slaughter, and to destroy any strength of a people or province that would attack them, children and women, and plunder their spoil; ¹²on one day in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth of month 12, which is the month of Adar. ¹³A copy of the writing was to be given as a law in every province by province, being uncovered for all the peoples, and for the Jews to be prepared for that day to take revenge from their enemies. ¹⁴The runners, the riders of the royal pack horses, went out hastened and hurried by the word of the king. And the law was given in Susa the citadel.

¹⁵And Mordecai went out from before the face of the king in a garment of royalty of blue and white, with a great crown of gold and a robe of fine linen and purple, and the city of Susa cheered and rejoiced. ¹⁶For the Jews there was light and joy and rejoicing and honor. ¹⁷In every province by province and in every city by city, any place where the word of the king and his law came, there was joy and rejoicing for the Jews, a feast and a good day. And many from the peoples of the land became Jews because dread of the Jews had fallen upon them.

¹Now in month 12, which is the month of Adar, on day 13 of it, when the word of the king and his law had reached the time to be done, on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to dominate them: but being overturned, it happened that the Jews themselves dominated those who hated them. ²The Jews assembled themselves in their cities in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus to stretch out a hand against those seeking their evil. But a man did not stand to their face, for sudden fear of them had fallen on all the peoples. ³And all the officials of the provinces, and the satraps and the governors and those doing the work that was for the king were lifting up the Jews, for dread of Mordecai had fallen on them. ⁴For Mordecai was great in the palace of the king, and the report of him was going out into all the provinces, for the man Mordecai was progressing and becoming great.

⁵And the Jews struck to all their enemies a strike of sword and slaughter and destruction. And they did to those who hated them according to their pleasure. ⁶And in Susa the citadel the Jews slaughtered and destroyed 500 men. ⁷And Parshandatha and Dalphon and Aspatha ⁸and Poratha and Adalia and Aridatha ⁹and Parmashta and Arisai and Aridai and Vaizatha, ¹⁰the ten sons of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the adversary of the Jews, they slaughtered. But they did not stretch out their hand to the plunder. ¹¹On that day, the report of the number of those who were killed in Susa the citadel came to the face of the king.

¹²And the king said to Esther the queen, "In Susa the citadel the Jews have slaughtered and destroyed 500 men, with the ten sons of Haman. In the rest of the provinces of the king, what have they done? Now what is your petition? And it will be given to you. And what is your request? Again, and it will be done." ¹³And Esther said, "If it is good to the king, let it be given also tomorrow to the Jews who are in Susa to do according to the law of today, and let the ten sons of Haman hang on the pole." ¹⁴And the king said for this to be done. And a law was given in Susa, and they hanged the ten sons of Haman. ¹⁵And the Jews who were in Susa assembled themselves also on day 14 of the month of Adar, and they killed 300 men in Susa. But they did not stretch out their hand to the plunder.

¹⁶And the rest of the Jews who were in the provinces of the king assembled themselves and stood for their lives, and they rested from their enemies, and they slaughtered 75,000 of those who hated them. But they did not stretch out their hand to the plunder. ¹⁷On day 13 of the month of Adar, then they rested. On the fourteenth of it, then they made it a day of feasting and rejoicing. ¹⁸But the Jews who were in Susa assembled themselves on the thirteenth of it and on the fourteenth of it. And they rested on the fifteenth of it, and they made it a day of feasting and rejoicing. ¹⁹Therefore, the Jews, the ones of the open country, the ones who dwell in the cities of the open areas, make day 14 of the month of Adar for rejoicing and for feasting and a good day and for the sending of gifts, a man to his friend.

²⁰And Mordecai wrote these things. And he sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, the near ones and the far ones, ²¹to set up for them to be making day 14 of the month of Adar and day 15 of it, every year by year, ²²as the days when the Jews rested on them from their enemies and as the month when it had turned for them from sorrow into joy and from mourning into a good day, in order to make them days of feasting and rejoicing and sending of gifts, a man to his friend and gifts to the needy. ²³And the Jews accepted what they had begun to do and what Mordecai had written to them.

²⁴For Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the adversary of all the Jews, had plotted concerning the Jews to annihilate them. And he had cast a Pur (which is "the lot") to vex them and to destroy them. ²⁵But when she came to the face of the king, he said with the letter, "Let his evil plot that he plotted concerning the Jews return on his head, and let them hang him and his sons on the pole." ²⁶Therefore, they called these days "Purim," on account of the name of Pur. Therefore, on account of all the words of this letter and what they had seen concerning this and what had come upon them, ²⁷the Jews set up and accepted for themselves and for their seed and for all those who unite themselves to them (and it will not pass away) to be making these two days according to their writing and according to their appointed time every year by year. ²⁸And these days are remembered and are made in every generation by generation, family by family, province by province, and city by city. And these days of Purim will not pass away from the midst of the Jews, and their remembrance will not come to an end from their seed.

²⁹And Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew wrote with all power to set up this second letter of Purim. ³⁰And he sent letters to all the Jews, to 127 provinces, the kingdom of Ahasuerus, words of peace and truth ³¹to set up these days of Purim at their appointed times according to what Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had set up for them and according to what they had set up concerning their lives and concerning their seed, the matters of the fasts and their outcry. ³²And the decree of Esther set up these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

Chapter 10

¹And the king Ahasuerus set a tribute on the land and the islands of the sea. ²And all the deeds of his power and his might, with the full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king had made him great, are they not written in the book of the events of days for the kings of Media and Persia? ³For Mordecai the Jew was second to the king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and favored by the multitude of his brothers, seeking good for his people and speaking peace to all its seed.

Job

Chapter 1

¹There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job; and Job was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned from evil. ²There were born to him seven sons and three daughters. ³He possessed seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred pairs of oxen, and five hundred donkeys and a great many servants. He was the man who was the greatest of all the people of the East. ⁴On each son's assigned day, he would give a feast in his house. They would send and call for their three sisters to eat and drink with them. ⁵When the days of the feast were over, Job would send for them and he would consecrate them. He would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings for each of his children, for he would say, "It may be that my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Job always did this.

⁶Then it was the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh. Satan also came with them. ⁷Yahweh said to Satan, "From where have you come?" Then Satan answered Yahweh and said, "From wandering on the earth, from going back and forth on it." ⁸Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and turns from evil." ⁹Then Satan answered Yahweh and said, "Does Job fear God without reason? ¹⁰Have you not put a barrier around him, around his house, and around all that is his from every side? You have blessed the deeds of his hands, and his cattle have burst forth in the land. ¹¹But now stretch out your hand and touch all that he has, and see if he does not curse you to your face." ¹²Yahweh said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your hand. Only against him himself do not stretch out your hand." Then Satan went away from the presence of Yahweh.

¹³It came about that on a certain day, his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house. ¹⁴A messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were feeding beside them. ¹⁵Then the Sabeans fell on them and took them away. As for the servants, they have struck them with the edge of the sword. I alone have escaped to tell you." ¹⁶While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The fire of God fell from the heavens and burned up the sheep and the servants. I alone have escaped to tell you." ¹⁷While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three groups, attacked the camels, and have taken them away. As for the servants, they have struck them with the edge of the sword. I alone have escaped to tell you." ¹⁸While he was yet speaking, another also came and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house. ¹⁹A strong wind came from the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house. It fell on the young people, and they died. I alone have escaped to tell you."

²⁰Then Job rose, tore his robe, shaved his head, lay facedown on the ground, and worshiped God. ²¹He said, "I was naked when I came out of my mother's womb, and I will be naked when I will return there. It is Yahweh who gave, and it is Yahweh who has taken away. May the name of Yahweh be blessed." ²²In all this matter, Job did not sin, nor did he accuse God of wrongdoing.

Chapter 2

¹Then it was the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh. Satan also came with them to present himself before Yahweh. ²Yahweh said to Satan, "From where have you come?" Then Satan answered Yahweh and said, "From wandering on the earth, from going back and forth on it." ³Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil. He still holds fast to his integrity, although you misled me against him, to destroy him without cause." ⁴Satan answered Yahweh and said, "Skin for skin, indeed; a man will give all he has for his life. ⁵But stretch out your hand now and touch his bones and his flesh, and see if he does not curse you to your face." ⁶Yahweh said to Satan, "See, he is in your hand; it is only his life that you must spare."

⁷Then Satan went away from the presence of Yahweh. He struck Job with painful boils from the sole of his feet to his head. ⁸Job took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself with, and he sat down in the middle of ashes. ⁹Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold fast to your integrity? Curse God and die." ¹⁰But he said to her, "You talk as a foolish woman talks. Should we receive the good from God and not receive the bad?" In all this matter, Job did not sin with his lips.

¹¹Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, each of them came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They set a time to come to mourn with him and to comfort him. ¹²When they lifted up their eyes at a distance, they did not recognize him. They raised their voices and wept; each tore his robe and threw dust into the air and upon his own head. ¹³Then they sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights. No one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

Chapter 3

¹After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day he was born.

²He said,

³"May the day on which I was born perish, the night that said, 'A boy has been conceived.'

⁴May that day be dark;
may not God from above call it to mind, neither may the sun shine on it.

⁵May darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own.
May a cloud live over it;
may everything that makes the day black truly terrify it.

⁶As for that night, may thick darkness seize it.
May it not rejoice among the days of the year;
may it not come into the number of the months.

⁷See, may that night be barren;
may no joyful voice come into it.

⁸May they curse that day,
those who know how to wake up Leviathan.

⁹May the stars of that day's dawn be dark.
May that day look for light, but find none;
neither may it see the eyelids of the dawn,

10because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb, and because it did not hide trouble from my eyes.

11Why did I not die when I came out from the womb?
Why did I not give up my spirit when my mother bore me?

12Why did her knees welcome me?
Why did her breasts receive me so that I should suck?

13For now I would have been lying down quietly.
I would have slept and been at rest

14with kings and counselors of the earth, who built up tombs for themselves that are now in ruins.

15Or I would have been lying with princes who once had gold, who had filled their houses with silver.

16Or perhaps I would have been stillborn, like infants that never see the light.

17There the wicked cease from trouble;
there the weary are at rest.

18There the prisoners are at ease together;
they do not hear the voice of the slave driver.

19Both small and great people are there;
the servant is free from his master there.

20Why is light given to him who is in misery?
Why is life given to the one who is bitter in soul,

21to one who longs for death without it coming;
to one who digs for death more than for hidden treasure?

22Why is light given to one who rejoices very much and is glad when he finds the grave?

23Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, a man whom God has hedged in?

24For my sighing happens instead of eating;
my groaning is poured out like water.

25For the thing that I feared has come on me;

what I was afraid of has come to me.

²⁶I am not at ease, I am not quiet, and I have no rest; trouble comes instead.”

Chapter 4

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

²If anyone tries to speak with you, will you be impatient?
But who can stop himself from speaking?

³See, you have instructed many;
you have strengthened weak hands.

⁴Your words have supported him who was falling;
you have made feeble knees firm.

⁵But now trouble has come to you, and you are weary;
it touches you, and you are troubled.

⁶Is not your fear your confidence, and the integrity of your ways your hope?

⁷Think about this, please: Who has ever perished when innocent?
Or when were the upright people ever cut off?

⁸According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow trouble reap it.

⁹By the breath of God they perish;
by the blast of his anger they are consumed.

¹⁰The roaring of the lion, the voice of the fierce lion, the teeth of the young lions—they are broken.

¹¹The old lion perishes for lack of victims;
the cubs of the lioness are scattered everywhere.

¹²Now a certain matter was secretly brought to me, and my ear received a whisper about it.

¹³Then came thoughts from visions in the night, when deep sleep falls on people.

¹⁴It was at night when fear and trembling came upon me, and all my bones shook.

¹⁵Then a spirit passed before my face, and the hair of my flesh stood up.

¹⁶The spirit stood still, but I could not discern its appearance.

A form was before my eyes;
there was silence, and I heard a voice that said,

¹⁷"Can a mortal man be more righteous than God?
Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

¹⁸See, if God puts no trust in his servants; if he accuses his angels of folly,

¹⁹how much more is this true of those who live in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust,
who are crushed sooner than a moth?

²⁰Between morning and evening they are destroyed;
they perish forever without anyone noticing them.

²¹Are not their tent cords plucked up among them?
They die; they die without wisdom.

Chapter 5

¹Call out now; is there anyone who will answer you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?

²For anger kills the foolish man;
jealousy kills the silly one.

³I have seen a foolish person taking root, but suddenly I cursed his home.

⁴His children are far from safety;
they are crushed in the city gate.
There is no one to rescue them.

⁵The hungry eat up their harvest;
they even take it from among the thorns.
The thirsty pant for their wealth.

⁶For difficulties do not come out from the soil;
neither does trouble sprout from the ground.

⁷Instead, mankind is born for trouble, just as sparks fly upward.

⁸But as for me, I would turn to God himself; to him I would commit my cause—

⁹he who does great and unsearchable things, marvelous things without number.

¹⁰He gives rain on the earth, and sends water on the fields.

¹¹He does this in order to set up on high those who are low;
to raise to safety those who mourn.

¹²He breaks the plans of the crafty people, so that their hands cannot achieve success.

¹³He traps wise people in their own crafty actions;
the plans of twisted people are hurried to their end.

¹⁴They encounter darkness in the daytime, and grope at noonday as if it were night.

¹⁵But he saves the poor person from the sword in their mouths and the needy person from the hand of mighty people.

¹⁶So the poor person has hope, and injustice shuts her own mouth.

¹⁷See, blessed is the man whom God corrects;
therefore, do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.

¹⁸For he wounds and then binds up;
he wounds and then his hands heal.

¹⁹He will rescue you out of six troubles;
indeed, in seven troubles, no evil will touch you.

²⁰In famine he will ransom you from death, and in war from the hands of the sword.

²¹You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue;

and you will not be afraid of destruction when it comes.

²²You will laugh at destruction and famine, and you will not be afraid of beasts of the earth.

²³For you will have a covenant with the stones in your field, and the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.

²⁴You will know that your tent is in safety;

you will visit your sheepfold and you will not miss anything.

²⁵You will also know that your seed will be great, that your offspring will be like the grass on the ground.

²⁶You will come to your grave at a full age, like a stack of grain bundles that goes up at its time.

²⁷See, we have examined this matter; it is like this;

listen to it, and know it for yourself."

Chapter 6

¹Then Job answered and said,

²"Oh, if only my anguish were weighed;

if only all my calamity were laid in the balance!

³For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas.

That is why my words were reckless.

⁴For the arrows of the Almighty are in me, my spirit drinks up the poison;

the terrors of God have arranged themselves in array against me.

⁵Does the wild donkey bray in despair when he has grass?

Or does the ox low in hunger when it has fodder?

⁶Can that which has no taste be eaten without salt?

Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

⁷I refuse to touch them;

they are like disgusting food to me.

⁸Oh, that I might have my request;

oh, that God would grant me the thing I long for:

⁹that it would please God to crush me once, that he would let loose his hand and cut me off from this life!

¹⁰May this still be my consolation—even if I exult in pain that does not lessen:
that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

¹¹What is my strength, that I should try to wait?
What is my end, that I should prolong my life?

¹²Is my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh made of bronze?

¹³Is it not true that I have no help in myself, and that wisdom has been driven out of me?

¹⁴To the person who is about to faint, faithfulness should be shown by his friend;
even to him who forsakes the fear of the Almighty.

¹⁵But my brothers have been as faithful to me as a desert streambed, as channels of water that pass away to nothing, ¹⁶which are darkened because of ice over them, and because of the snow that hides itself in them.

¹⁷When they thaw out, they vanish;
when it is hot, they melt out of their place.

¹⁸The caravans that travel by their way turn aside for water;
they wander into barren land and then perish.

¹⁹Caravans from Tema looked there, while companies of Sheba hoped in them.

²⁰They were disappointed because they had been confident of finding water.
They went there, but they were deceived.

²¹For now you friends are nothing to me;
you see my dreadful situation and are afraid.

²²Did I say to you, 'Give something to me' or, 'Offer me a gift from your wealth'

²³or, 'Save me from my adversary's hand' or, 'Ransom me from the hand of my oppressors'?

²⁴Teach me, and I will hold my peace;
make me understand where I have been wrong.

²⁵How painful are truthful words!
But your arguments, how do they actually rebuke me?

²⁶Do you plan to ignore my words, treating the words of a desperate man like the wind?

²⁷Indeed, you cast lots for a fatherless child, and haggle over your friend like merchandise.

²⁸Now, therefore, please look at me, for surely I would not lie to your face.

²⁹Relent, I beg you; let there be no injustice with you;
Indeed, relent, for my cause is just.

³⁰Is there evil on my tongue?
Cannot my mouth detect malicious things?

Chapter 7

¹Does not man have hard labor on earth?
Are not his days like the days of a hired man?

²Like a slave earnestly desires the shadows of evening, like a hired man looks for his wages—

³so I have been made to endure months of misery;
I have been given trouble-filled nights.

⁴When I lie down, I say to myself,
‘When will I get up and when will the night be gone?’
I am full of tossing to and fro until the day’s dawning.

⁵My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust;
the sores in my skin harden up and then dissolve and run afresh.

⁶My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle;
they pass without hope.

⁷God, call to mind that my life is only a breath;
my eye will no more see good.

⁸The eye of God, who sees me, will see me no more;
God's eyes will be on me, but I will not exist.

⁹As a cloud is consumed and vanishes away, so he who goes down to Sheol will come up no more.

¹⁰He will return no more to his house;
neither will his place know him again.

¹¹Therefore I will not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

¹²Am I the sea or a sea monster that you place a guard over me?

¹³When I say, 'My bed will comfort me, and my couch will ease my complaint,'

¹⁴then you scare me with dreams and terrify me through visions,

¹⁵so that I would choose strangling and death rather than preserving these bones of mine.

¹⁶I loathe my life; I would not wish to always be alive;
let me alone for my days are useless.

¹⁷What is man that you should pay attention to him, that you should set your mind on him,

¹⁸that you should observe him every morning and test him every moment?

¹⁹How long will it be before you look away from me, before you let me alone long enough for me to swallow down my own saliva?

²⁰Even if I have sinned, what would that do to you, you who watch men?
Why have you made a target of me, so that I am a burden for you?

²¹Why do you not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity?
For now will I lie down in the dust;
you will seek me carefully, but I will not exist."

Chapter 8

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

²"How long will you say these things?

How long will the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?

³Does God pervert justice?

Does the Almighty pervert righteousness?

⁴Your children have sinned against him;

we know this, for he gave them into the hand of their sins.

⁵But suppose you diligently sought God and presented your request to the Almighty.

⁶If you are pure and upright, then he would surely stir himself on your behalf and restore you to your rightful place.

⁷Even though your beginning was small, still your final condition would be much greater.

⁸Please ask the former generations, and give your attention to what our ancestors learned.

⁹(We were only born yesterday and know nothing because our days on earth are a shadow.)

¹⁰Will they not teach you and tell you?

Will they not speak words from their hearts?

¹¹Can papyrus grow without a marsh?

Can reeds grow without water?

¹²While they are still green and not cut down, they wither before any other plant.

¹³So also are the paths of all who forget God;

the hope of the godless will perish.

¹⁴His confidence will break apart, and his trust is as weak as a spider's web.

¹⁵He leans on his house, but it will not support him;

he takes hold of it, but it does not stand.

¹⁶Under the sun he is green, and his shoots go out over his entire garden.

¹⁷His roots are wrapped about the heaps of stone;
they look for good places among the rocks.

¹⁸But if this person is destroyed out of his place, then that place will deny him and say, 'I never saw you.'

¹⁹See, this is the "joy" of such a person's behavior;
other plants will sprout out of the same soil in his place.

²⁰See, God will not cast away an innocent man;
neither will he take the hand of evildoers.

²¹He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, your lips with shouting.

²²Those who hate you will be clothed with shame;
the tent of the wicked will be no more."

Chapter 9

¹Then Job answered and said,

²"I truly know that this is so.

But how can a person be in the right with God?

³If he wants to argue with God,
he cannot answer him once in a thousand times.

⁴God is wise in heart and mighty in strength; who has ever hardened himself against him and succeeded?—

⁵he who removes the mountains without warning anyone when he overturns them in his anger—

⁶he who shakes the earth out of its place and sets its supports trembling.

⁷It is the same God who tells the sun not to rise, and it does not,
and who covers up the stars,

⁸who by himself stretches out the heavens and tramples down the waves of the sea,

⁹who makes the Bear, Orion, the Pleiades, and the constellations of the south.

¹⁰He does great and unsearchable things, and wonderful things that cannot be counted.

¹¹See, he goes by me, and I do not see him;
he passes on also, but I do not perceive him.

¹²If he takes something away, who can stop him?
Who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'

¹³God will not withdraw his anger;
the helpers of Rahab bow beneath him.

¹⁴How much less could I answer him, could I choose words to reason with him?

¹⁵Even if I were righteous, I could not answer him;
I could only plead for mercy with my judge.

¹⁶Even if I called and he answered me,
I would not believe that he was listening to my voice.

¹⁷For he breaks me with a tempest and multiplies my wounds without cause.

¹⁸He does not allow me to regain my breath;
but he fills me with bitterness.

¹⁹If it is a matter of strength, behold, he is mighty!
If it is a matter of justice, who can summon him?

²⁰Though I am in the right, my own mouth would condemn me;
and though I am blameless, my words would prove me to be guilty.

²¹I am blameless, but I do not care any more about myself;
I despise my own life.

²²It makes no difference, which is why I say that he destroys blameless people and wicked people together.

²³When a whip suddenly kills,
he mocks the despair of the innocent.

²⁴The earth is given into the hand of wicked people;
God covers the faces of its judges.

If it is not he who does it, then who is it?

²⁵My days are swifter than a running messenger;
my days flee away; they see no good anywhere.

²⁶They are as fast as papyrus reed boats, and as fast as the eagle that swoops down on its victim.

²⁷If I said that I would forget about my complaints, that I would take off my sad face and be happy,

²⁸I would be afraid of all my sorrows because I know that you will not consider me innocent.

²⁹I will be condemned;
why, then, should I try in vain?

³⁰If I washed myself with snow water and made my hands ever so clean,

³¹God would plunge me in a ditch, and my own clothes would be disgusted with me.

³²For God is not a man, as I am, that I could answer him, that we could come together in court.

³³There is no judge between us who might lay his hand upon us both.

³⁴There is no other judge who could take God's rod off me, who could keep his terror from frightening me.

³⁵Then would I speak up and not fear him.
But as things are now, I cannot do that.

Chapter 10

¹I am weary of my life;
I will give free expression to my complaint;
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

²I will say to God, 'Do not merely condemn me;

show me why you accuse me.

³Is it good to you that you should oppress me, to despise the work of your hands while you smile on the plans of the wicked?

⁴Do you have eyes of flesh?

Do you see like a man sees?

⁵Are your days like the days of mankind or your years like the years of people,

⁶that you inquire after my iniquity and search after my sin,

⁷although you know I am not guilty and there is no one who can rescue me from your hand?

⁸Your hands have framed and fashioned me together round about, yet you are destroying me.

⁹Call to mind, I beg you, that you have fashioned me like clay;

will you bring me into dust again?

¹⁰Have you not poured me out like milk and curdled me like cheese?

¹¹You have clothed me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews.

¹²You have granted me life and covenant faithfulness;

your help has guarded my spirit.

¹³Yet these things you hid in your heart—

I know that this is what you were thinking:

¹⁴that if I sinned, you would notice it;

you would not acquit me of my iniquity.

¹⁵If I have acted wickedly, woe to me;

and even if I acted righteously,

I could not lift up my head,

since I am filled with disgrace—

see my affliction! ¹⁶If my head were lifted up,

you would stalk me like a lion;
and again you would show yourself with marvellous acts of power against me.

¹⁷You bring new witnesses against me and increase your anger against me;
you attack me with fresh armies.

¹⁸Why, then, have you brought me out of the womb?
I wish I had given up my spirit and that no eye had ever seen me.

¹⁹I would have been as though I had never existed;
I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.

²⁰Are not my days only a few? Stop then, let me alone, so that I may have a little rest

²¹before I go from where I will not return, to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death,

²²the land that is as dark as midnight, the land of the shadow of death, without any order, where the light is like midnight.”

Chapter 11

¹Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,

²“Should not such a multitude of words be answered?
Should this man, so full of talk, be believed?

³Should your boasting make others remain silent?
When you mock, will no one make you feel ashamed?

⁴For you say to God, ‘My beliefs are pure,
I am blameless in your eyes.’

⁵But, oh, that God would speak and open his lips against you;

⁶that he would show you the secrets of wisdom!
For he is great in understanding.

Know then that God demands from you less than your iniquity deserves.

⁷Can you understand God by searching for him?

Can you comprehend the Almighty perfectly?

⁸The matter is as high as heaven; what can you do?

It is deeper than Sheol; what can you know?

⁹Its measure is longer than the earth, and wider than the sea.

¹⁰If he passes through and shuts anyone up, if he calls anyone to judgment, then who can stop him?

¹¹For he knows false people;

when he sees iniquity, does he not notice it?

¹²But foolish people have no understanding;

they will get it when a wild donkey gives birth to a man.

¹³But suppose that you had set your heart right and had reached out with your hands toward God;

¹⁴suppose that iniquity were in your hand, but that then you put it far away from you, and did not let unrighteousness live in your tents.

¹⁵Then you would certainly lift up your face without a sign of shame;

indeed, you would be steadfast and would not fear.

¹⁶You would forget your misery;

you would remember it only like waters that have flowed away.

¹⁷Your life would be brighter than the noonday;

though there were darkness, it would become like the morning.

¹⁸You would be secure because there is hope;

indeed, you would find safety about you and would take your rest in safety.

¹⁹Also you would lie down in rest, and none would make you afraid; indeed, many would seek your favor.

²⁰But the eyes of wicked people will fail;

they will have no way to flee;

their only hope will be a last gasp of life."

Chapter 12

¹Then Job answered and said,

²No doubt you are the people;
wisdom will die with you.

³But I have understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.

Indeed, who does not know such things as these?

⁴I am something for my neighbor to laugh at—
I, one who called on God and who was answered by him!
I, a just and blameless man—I am now something to laugh at.

⁵In the thought of someone who is at ease, there is contempt for misfortune;
he thinks in a way that brings more misfortune to those whose foot is slipping.

⁶The tents of robbers prosper, and those who provoke God feel secure;
their own hands are their gods.

⁷But now ask the beasts, and they will teach you;
ask the birds of the heavens, and they will tell you.

⁸Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you;
the fish of the sea will declare to you.

⁹Which animal among all these does not know that the hand of Yahweh has done this?

¹⁰In his hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of all mankind.

¹¹Does not the ear test words just as the palate tastes its food?

¹²With aged men is wisdom;
in length of days is understanding.

¹³With God are wisdom and might;
he has counsel and understanding.

¹⁴See, he breaks down, and it cannot be built again;
if he imprisons someone, there can be no release.

¹⁵See, if he withholds the waters, they dry up;
and if he sends them out, they overwhelm the land.

¹⁶With him are strength and wisdom;
people who are deceived and the deceiver are both in his power.

¹⁷He leads counselors away barefoot in sorrow;
he turns judges into fools.

¹⁸He takes off the chain of authority from kings;
he wraps a cloth about their waists.

¹⁹He leads priests away barefoot in sorrow and overthrows mighty people.

²⁰He removes the speech of those who had been trusted and takes away the understanding of the elders.

²¹He pours contempt upon princes and unfastens the belt of strong people.

²²He reveals the deep things of darkness and brings deep shadows into the light.

²³He makes nations strong, and he also destroys them;
He enlarges nations, and he also leads them along as prisoners.

²⁴He takes away understanding from the leaders of the people of the earth;
he causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no path.

²⁵They grope in the dark without light;
he makes them stagger like a drunk man.

Chapter 13

¹See, my eye has seen all this;
my ear has heard and understood it.

²What you know, the same I also know;
I am not inferior to you.

³However, I would rather speak with the Almighty;
I wish to reason with God.

⁴But you whitewash the truth with lies;
you are all physicians of no value.

⁵Oh, that you would altogether hold your peace!

That would be your wisdom.

⁶Hear now my own reasoning;

listen to the pleading of my own lips.

⁷Will you speak unrighteously for God, and will you talk deceitfully for him?

⁸Will you show him partiality?

Will you argue the case for God?

⁹Will it be good for you when he searches you out?

Could you deceive him as you might deceive men?

¹⁰He would surely reprove you if in secret you showed partiality.

¹¹Will not his majesty terrify you, and the dread of him fall upon you?

¹²Your memorable sayings are proverbs made of ashes;

your defenses are defenses made of clay.

¹³Hold your peace, let me alone, so that I may speak, let come what may on me.

¹⁴I will take my own flesh in my teeth;

I will take my life in my hands.

¹⁵See, if he kills me, I will have no hope left;

nevertheless, I will defend my ways before him.

¹⁶This will be the reason for my deliverance, for no godless person would come before him.

¹⁷God, listen carefully to my speech;

let my declaration come to your ears.

¹⁸See now, I have set my defense in order;

I know that I am innocent.

¹⁹Who is the one who would argue against me in court?

If you came to do so, and if I were proved wrong, then I would be silent and give up my life.

²⁰God, do only two things for me, and then I will not hide myself from your face:

²¹withdraw your oppressive hand from me, and do not let your terrors make me afraid.

²²Then call me, and I will answer;
or let me speak to you, and you answer me.

²³How many are my iniquities and sins?
Let me know my transgression and my sin.

²⁴Why do you hide your face from me and treat me like your enemy?

²⁵Will you persecute a driven leaf?
Will you pursue dry stubble?

²⁶For you write down bitter things against me;
you make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.

²⁷You also put my feet in the stocks;
you closely watch all my paths;
you examine the ground where the soles of my feet have walked ²⁸although I am like a rotten thing that wastes away, like a garment that moths have eaten.

Chapter 14

¹Man, who is born of woman, lives only a few days and is full of trouble.

²He sprouts from the ground like a flower and is cut down;
he flees like a shadow and does not last.

³Do you look at any of these?
Do you bring me into judgment with you?

⁴Who can bring something clean out of something unclean? No one.

⁵Man's days are determined.
The number of his months is with you;
you have appointed his limits that he cannot pass.

⁶Look away from him that he may rest, so that he may enjoy his day like a hired man if he can do so.

⁷There can be hope for a tree;
if it is cut down, it might sprout again,
so that its tender stalk does not disappear.

⁸Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stump dies in the ground,

⁹yet even if it only smells water, it will bud and send out branches like a plant.

¹⁰But man dies; he becomes weak;
indeed, man stops breathing, and then where is he?

¹¹As water disappears from a lake, and as a river loses water and dries up,

¹²so people lie down and do not rise again.
Until the heavens are no more, they will not awake nor be roused out of their sleep.

¹³Oh, that you would hide me away in Sheol away from troubles, and that you would keep me in private until your wrath is over,
that you would set me a fixed time to stay there and then call me to mind!

¹⁴If a man dies, will he live again?
If so, I would wish to wait all my weary time there until my release should come.

¹⁵You would call, and I would answer you.
You would have a desire for the work of your hands.

¹⁶You would number and care for my footsteps;
you would not keep track of my sin.

¹⁷My transgression would be sealed up in a bag;
you would cover up my iniquity.

¹⁸But even mountains fall and come to nothing;
even rocks are moved out of their place;

¹⁹the waters wear down the stones;
their flooding washes away the dust of the earth.

Like this, you destroy the hope of man.

²⁰You always defeat him, and he passes away;
you change his face and send him away to die.

²¹If his sons are honored, he does not know it;
and if they are brought low, he does not see it.

²²He feels only the pain of his own body, and he mourns for himself.

Chapter 15

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

²“Should a wise man answer with useless knowledge and fill himself with the east wind?

³Should he reason with unprofitable talk or with speeches with which he can do no good?

⁴Indeed, you diminish respect for God;
you obstruct devotion to him,

⁵for your iniquity teaches your mouth;
you choose to have the tongue of a crafty man.

⁶Your own mouth condemns you, not mine;
indeed, your own lips testify against you.

⁷Are you the first man that was born?
Were you brought into existence before the hills?

⁸Have you heard the secret knowledge of God?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

⁹What do you know that we do not know?
What do you understand that is not also in us?

¹⁰With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men who are much older than your father.

¹¹Are the consolations of God too small for you,
the words that are gentle toward you?

¹²Why does your heart carry you away?
Why do your eyes flash,

¹³so that you turn your spirit against God and bring out such words from your mouth?

¹⁴What is man that he should be clean?
What is he who is born of a woman that he should be righteous?

¹⁵See, God puts no trust even in his holy ones;
indeed, the heavens are not clean in his sight;

¹⁶how much less clean is one who is abominable and corrupt, a man who drinks iniquity like water!

¹⁷I will show you; listen to me;
I will announce to you the things I have seen,

¹⁸the things that wise men have passed down from their fathers, the things that their ancestors did not hide.

¹⁹These were their ancestors, to whom alone the land was given, and among whom no stranger ever passed.

²⁰The wicked man twists in pain all his days, the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor to suffer.

²¹A sound of terrors is in his ears;
while he is in prosperity, the destroyer will come upon him.

²²He does not think that he will return out of darkness;
the sword waits for him.

²³He goes to various places for bread, saying, 'Where is it?'
He knows that the day of darkness is at hand.

²⁴Distress and anguish make him afraid;
they prevail against him, as a king ready for battle.

²⁵Because he has reached out with his hand against God and has behaved proudly against the Almighty,

²⁶this wicked man runs at God with a stiff neck, with a thick shield.

²⁷This is true, even though he has covered his face with his fat and gathered fat on his loins,

²⁸and has lived in desolate cities;

in houses which no man inhabits now and which were ready to become heaps.

²⁹He will not be rich; his wealth will not last and his possessions will not spread over the land.

³⁰He will not depart out of darkness;^[1] a flame will dry up his stalks;
at the breath of God's mouth he will go away.^[2]

³¹Let him not trust in useless things, deceiving himself; for uselessness will be his reward.

³²It will happen before his time should come to die;
his branch will not be green.

³³He will drop his unripe grapes like a grapevine;
he will cast off his flowers like the olive tree.

³⁴For the company of godless people will be barren;
fire will consume their tents of bribery.

³⁵They conceive mischief and give birth to iniquity; their womb conceives deceit."

15:30 ^[1], because they believe that this expression was mistakenly copied from 15:22.

15:30 ^[2], which some modern versions, including the ULT and UST, interpret as meaning the breath of God's mouth. However, other modern versions follow an ancient Greek reading, .

Chapter 16

¹Then Job answered and said,

²"I have heard many such things;
you are all miserable comforters.

³Will useless words ever have an end?

What is wrong with you that you answer like this?

⁴I also could speak as you do,

if you were in my place;

I could collect and join words together against you and shake my head at you in mockery.

⁵I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the quivering of my lips will bring you relief!

⁶If I speak, my grief is not lessened;
if I keep from speaking, how am I helped?

⁷But now, God, you have made me weary;
you have made all my family desolate.

⁸You have made me dry up, which itself is a witness against me;
the leanness of my body rises up against me,
and it testifies against my face.

⁹God has torn me in his wrath and persecuted me;
He grinds his teeth in rage;
my enemy fastens his eyes on me as he tears me apart.

¹⁰People have gaped with open mouth at me;
they have hit me reproachfully on the cheek;
they have gathered together against me.

¹¹God hands me over to ungodly people, and throws me into the hands of wicked people.

¹²I was at ease, and he broke me apart.
Indeed, he has taken me by the neck and dashed me to pieces;
he has also set me up as his target.

¹³His archers surround me all around;
God pierces my kidneys and does not spare me;
he pours out my bile on the ground.

¹⁴He smashes through my wall again and again;
he runs upon me like a warrior.

¹⁵I have sewn sackcloth on my skin;
I have thrust my horn into the ground.

¹⁶My face is red with weeping;
on my eyelids is the shadow of death

¹⁷although there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure.

¹⁸Earth, do not cover up my blood;

let my cry have no resting place.

¹⁹Even now, see, my witness is in heaven;

he who vouches for me is on high.

²⁰My friends scoff at me,

but my eye pours out tears to God.

²¹I ask for that witness in heaven to argue for this man with God as a man does with his neighbor!

²²For when a few years have passed,

I will go to a place from where I will not return.

Chapter 17

¹My spirit is consumed, and my days are over;

the grave is ready for me.

²Surely there are mockers with me;

my eye must always see their provocation.

³Give now a pledge, be a guarantee for me with yourself;

who else is there who will help me?

⁴For you, God, have kept their hearts from understanding;

therefore, you will not exalt them over me.

⁵He who denounces his friends for a reward, the eyes of his children will fail.

⁶But he has made me a byword of the people;

they spit in my face.

⁷My eye is also dim because of sorrow;

all my body parts are as thin as shadows.

⁸Upright men will be stunned by this;

the innocent man will stir himself up against godless men.

⁹The righteous man will keep to his way;

he who has clean hands will grow stronger and stronger.

¹⁰But as for you all, come on now;

I will not find a wise man among you.

¹¹My days are past; my plans are shattered, and so are the desires of my heart.^[1]

¹²These people, these mockers, change the night into day; light is near to darkness.

¹³If the only home I hope for is Sheol;
and if I have spread my couch in the darkness;

¹⁴and if I have said to the pit, 'You are my father,' and to the worm, 'You are my mother or my sister,'

¹⁵where then is my hope?

As for my hope, who can see any?

¹⁶Will hope go down with me to the gates of Sheol when we descend to the dust?"

Chapter 18

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

²"When will you stop your talk?

Consider, and afterwards we will speak.

³Why are we regarded as beasts, stupid in your sight?

⁴You who tear at yourself in your anger, should the earth be forsaken for you or should the rocks be removed out of their places?

⁵Indeed, the light of the wicked person will be put out;

the spark of his fire will not shine.

⁶The light will be dark in his tent; his lamp above him will be put out.

⁷The steps of his strength will be made short;

his own plans will cast him down.

⁸For he will be thrown into a net by his own feet;

he will walk into a pitfall.

⁹A trap will take him by the heel;

a snare will lay hold on him.

¹⁰A noose is hidden for him on the ground;
and a trap for him in the way.

¹¹Terrors will make him afraid on every side;
they will chase him at his heels.

¹²His wealth will turn into hunger, and calamity will be ready at his side.

¹³The parts of his body will be devoured;
indeed, the firstborn of death will devour his parts.

¹⁴He is torn from the safety of his tent and marched off to the king of terrors.

¹⁵People not his own will live in his tent after they see that sulfur is scattered within his home.

¹⁶His roots will be dried up beneath;
above will his branch be cut off.

¹⁷His memory will perish from the earth;
he will have no name in the street.

¹⁸He will be driven from light into darkness and be chased out of this world.

¹⁹He will have no son or son's son among his people, nor any remaining kinfolk where he had stayed.

²⁰Those who live in the west will be horrified at what happens to him one day;
those who live in the east will be frightened by it.

²¹Surely such are the homes of unrighteous people, the places of those who do not know God."

Chapter 19

¹Then Job answered and said,

²"How long will you make me suffer and break me into pieces with words?

³These ten times you have reproached me;

you are not ashamed that you have treated me harshly.

⁴If it is indeed true that I have erred, my error remains my own concern.

⁵If indeed you will exalt yourselves above me and use my humiliation against me,

⁶then you should know that God has done wrong to me and has caught me in his net.

⁷See, I cry out, "Violence!" but I get no answer.
I call out for help, but there is no justice.

⁸He has walled up my way so that I cannot pass, and he has set darkness in my path.

⁹He has stripped me of my glory, and he has taken the crown from my head.

¹⁰He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone;
he has pulled up my hope like a tree.

¹¹He has also kindled his wrath against me;
he regards me as one of his adversaries.

¹²His troops come on together; they cast up siege mounds against me and encamp around my tent.

¹³He has put my brothers far from me;
my acquaintances are wholly alienated from me.

¹⁴My kinsfolk have failed me;
my close friends have forgotten me.

¹⁵Those who once stayed as guests in my house and my female servants regard me as a stranger;
I am an alien in their sight.

¹⁶I call to my servant, but he gives me no answer although I entreat him with my mouth.

¹⁷My breath is offensive to my wife;
I am even disgusting to those who were born from my mother's womb.

¹⁸Even young children despise me;

if I rise to speak, they speak against me.

¹⁹All my familiar friends abhor me;

those whom I love have turned against me.

²⁰My bones cling to my skin and to my flesh;

I survive only by the skin of my teeth.

²¹Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, my friends, for the hand of God has touched me.

²²Why do you pursue me like God does?

Will you ever be satisfied with my flesh?

²³Oh, that my words were now written down!

Oh, that they were inscribed in a book!

²⁴Oh, that with an iron pen and lead they were engraved in the rock forever!

²⁵But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at last he will stand on the earth;

²⁶after my skin, that is, this body, is destroyed, then in my flesh I will see God.

²⁷I will see him with my own eyes—I, and not someone else.

My heart fails within me.

²⁸If you say, 'How we will persecute him!

The root of his troubles lies in him,'

²⁹then be afraid of the sword, because wrath brings the punishment of the sword, so that you may know there is a judgment."

Chapter 20

¹Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,

²"My thoughts make me answer quickly because of the worry that is in me.

³I hear a rebuke that dishonors me, but a spirit from my understanding answers me.

⁴Do you not know this fact from ancient times, when God placed man on earth:
⁵the triumph of a wicked man is short, and the joy of a godless man lasts only for a moment?
⁶Though his height reaches up to the heavens, and his head reaches to the clouds, ⁷yet such a person will perish permanently like his own feces;
those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'
⁸He will fly away like a dream and will not be found; indeed, he will be chased away like a vision of the night.
⁹The eye that saw him will see him no more;
his place will see him no longer.
¹⁰His children will apologize to poor people;
his hands will have to give back his wealth.
¹¹His bones are full of youthful strength, but it will lie down with him in the dust.
¹²Although wickedness is sweet in his mouth, although he hides it under his tongue, ¹³although he holds it there and does not let it go but keeps it still in his mouth—¹⁴the food in his intestines turns bitter; it becomes the poison of asps inside him.
¹⁵He swallows down riches, but he will vomit them up again;
God will cast them out of his stomach.
¹⁶He will suck the poison of asps;
the viper's tongue will kill him.
¹⁷He will not enjoy the streams,
the torrents of honey and butter.
¹⁸He will give back the fruit of his labor and will not be able to eat it;
he will not enjoy the wealth earned by his commerce.
¹⁹For he has oppressed and neglected poor people;

he has violently taken away houses that he did not build.

²⁰Because he has known no satisfaction himself, he will not be able to save anything in which he takes pleasure.

²¹There is nothing left that he did not devour; therefore his prosperity will not be permanent.

²²In the abundance of his wealth he will fall into trouble;
the hand of everyone who is in poverty will come against him.

²³When he is about to fill his stomach, God will throw the fierceness of his wrath on him;
God will rain it down on him while he is eating.

²⁴Although that man will flee from the iron weapon, a bow of bronze will shoot him.

²⁵He pulls it out of his back and the gleaming point comes out of his liver.
Terrors come over him.

²⁶Complete darkness is reserved for his treasures;
a fire not fanned will devour him;
it will consume what is left in his tent.

²⁷The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him as a witness.

²⁸The wealth of his house will vanish;
his goods will flow away on the day of God's wrath.

²⁹This is the wicked man's portion from God,
the heritage reserved for him by God."

Chapter 21

¹Then Job answered and said,

²"Listen carefully to my words, and let this be the comfort you offer to me.

³Put up with me, and I also will speak;
after I have spoken, mock on.

⁴As for me, is my complaint to a person?

Why should I not be impatient?

⁵Look at me and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

⁶When I think about my sufferings, I am terrified, and trembling seizes my body.

⁷Why do wicked people continue to live, become old, and grow mighty in power?

⁸Their descendants are established with them in their sight, and their offspring are established before their eyes.

⁹Their houses are safe from fear;
neither is the rod of God on them.

¹⁰Their bull breeds; it does not fail to do so;
their cow gives birth and does not lose her calf prematurely.

¹¹They send out their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

¹²They sing to the tambourine and harp and rejoice with the music of the flute.

¹³They spend their days in prosperity, and they go down quietly to Sheol.

¹⁴They say to God, 'Depart from us for we do not wish any knowledge of your ways.

¹⁵What is the Almighty, that we should worship him?
What advantage would we get if we prayed to him?'

¹⁶See, is not their prosperity in their own hands?
I have nothing to do with the advice of wicked people.

¹⁷How often is it that the lamp of wicked people is put out, or that their calamity comes upon them?
How often does it happen that God distributes sorrows to them in his anger?

¹⁸How often is it that they become like stubble before the wind or like chaff that the storm carries away?

¹⁹You say, 'God lays up one's guilt for his children to pay.'

Let him pay it himself, so that he might know his guilt.

²⁰Let his eyes see his own destruction, and let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

²¹For what does he care about his family after him when the number of his months is cut off?

²²Can anyone teach God knowledge since he judges even those who are high?

²³One man dies in his full strength, being completely quiet and at ease.

²⁴His body is full of milk, and the marrow of his bones is moist.

²⁵Another man dies in bitterness of soul, one who has never experienced anything good.

²⁶They lie down alike in the dust;
the worms cover them both.

²⁷See, I know your thoughts, and the ways in which you wish to wrong me.

²⁸For you say, 'Where now is the house of the prince?
Where is the tent in which the wicked man once lived?'

²⁹Have you never asked traveling people?
Do you not know the evidence they can tell,

³⁰that the wicked man is kept from the day of calamity, and that he is led away from the day of wrath?

³¹Who will condemn the wicked man's way to his face?
Who will repay him for what he has done?

³²Yet he will be borne to the grave;
men will keep watch over his tomb.

³³The clods of the valley will be sweet to him;
all people will follow after him,
as there were innumerable people before him.

³⁴How then do you comfort me with nonsense, since in your answers there is nothing but falsehood?"

Chapter 22

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

²"Can a man be useful to God?

Can a wise man be useful to him?

³Is it any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous?

Is it gain to him if you make your ways blameless?

⁴Is it because of your reverence for him that he rebukes you and takes you to judgment?

⁵Is not your wickedness great?

Is there no end to your iniquities?

⁶For you have demanded guarantee of a loan from your brother for no reason, and you have stripped away clothing from the naked.

⁷You have not given water to weary people to drink;
you have withheld bread from hungry people

⁸although you, a mighty man, possessed the earth, although you, an honored man, lived in it.

⁹You have sent widows away empty;
the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

¹⁰Therefore, snares are all around you, and sudden fear troubles you.

¹¹There is darkness, so that you cannot see;
an abundance of waters covers you.

¹²Is not God in the heights of heaven?
Look at the height of the stars, how high they are!

¹³You say, 'What does God know?
Can he judge through the thick darkness?

¹⁴Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he does not see us;
he walks on the vault of heaven.'

¹⁵Will you keep the old way that wicked men have walked—16those who were snatched away before their time, those whose foundations have washed away like a river,

17those who said to God, 'Depart from us';
those who said, 'What can the Almighty do to us?'

18Yet he filled their houses with good things; the plans of wicked people are far from me.

19Righteous people see their fate and are glad;
innocent people laugh them to scorn.

20They say, 'Surely those who rose up against us are cut off; fire has consumed their possessions.'

21Now agree with God and be at peace with him;
in that way, good will come to you.

22Receive, I beg you, instruction from his mouth;
store up his words in your heart.

23If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up, if you put unrighteousness far away from your tents.

24Lay your treasure down in the dust,
the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks,

25and the Almighty will be your treasure, precious silver to you.

26For then you will take pleasure in the Almighty;
you will lift up your face to God.

27You will make your prayer to him, and he will hear you;
you will pay your vows to him.

28You will also decree anything, and it will be confirmed for you;
light will shine on your paths.

29God humbles a proud man, and he saves the one with lowered eyes.

30He will rescue even the man who is not innocent; who will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands."

Chapter 23

¹Then Job answered and said,

²“Even today my complaint is bitter;
my hand^[1] is heavy because of my groaning.

³Oh, that I knew where I might find him!
Oh, that I might come to his place!

⁴I would lay my case in order before him and fill my mouth with arguments.

⁵I would learn the words with which he would answer me and would understand what he would say to me.

⁶Would he argue against me in the greatness of his power?
No, he would pay attention to me.

⁷There the upright person might argue with him.
In this way I would be acquitted forever by my judge.

⁸See, I go eastward, but he is not there, and westward, but I cannot perceive him.

⁹To the north, where he is at work, but I cannot see him, and to the south, where he hides himself so that I cannot see him.

¹⁰But he knows the way that I take;
when he has tested me, I will come out like gold.

¹¹My foot has held fast to his steps;
I have kept to his way and turned not aside.

¹²I have not gone back from the commandment of his lips;
I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my portion of food.

¹³But he is one of a kind, who can turn him back?
What he desires, he does.

¹⁴For he carries out his decree against me;
there are many like them.

¹⁵Therefore, I am terrified in his presence;
when I think about him, I am afraid of him.

¹⁶For God has made my heart weak;
the Almighty has terrified me.

¹⁷I have not been brought to an end by darkness, because of the thick darkness that covers the gloom of my face.

23:2 ^[1]

Chapter 24

¹Why are times for judging wicked people not set by the Almighty?
Why do not those who are faithful to God see his days of judgment come?

²There are wicked people who remove boundary markers;
there are wicked people who take away flocks by force and put them in their own pastures.

³They drive away the donkey of those without fathers;
they take the widow's ox as security.

⁴They force needy people out of their path;
poor people of the earth all hide themselves from them.

⁵See, these poor people go out to their work like wild donkeys in the wilderness, looking carefully for food;
perhaps the Arabah will provide them food for their children.

⁶Poor people reap in the night in other people's fields;
they glean grapes from the harvest of those wicked people.

⁷They lie naked all night without clothing;
they have no covering in the cold.

⁸They are wet with the showers of the mountains;
they lie next to large rocks because they have no shelter.

⁹There are wicked people who pluck orphans from their mothers' breast, and wicked people who take children as security from poor people.

¹⁰But the poor people go about naked without clothing;
although they go hungry, they carry bundles of grain belonging to other people.

¹¹The poor people make oil within the walls of those wicked men; they tread the wicked men's winepresses, but they themselves suffer thirst.

¹²From out of the city the dying groan, and the throat of the wounded cries out for help.

But God does not ascribe blame

¹³Some of these wicked people rebel against the light;

they know not its ways,

nor do they stay in its paths.

¹⁴Before daylight the murderer rises and he kills poor and needy people; in the night he is like a thief.

¹⁵Also, the eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight;

he says, 'No eye will see me.'

He disguises his face.

¹⁶In the darkness wicked people dig into houses;

but they shut themselves up in the daytime;

they do not care for the light.

¹⁷For all of them, thick darkness is like the morning;

for they are friends with the terrors of thick darkness.

¹⁸Swiftly they pass away, however, like foam on the surface of the waters;

their portion of the land is cursed;

no one goes to work in their vineyards.

¹⁹As drought and heat melt away the snow into waters, so Sheol takes away those who have sinned.

²⁰The womb that bore him will forget him;

the worm will feed sweetly on him;

he will be remembered no more;

in this way, wickedness will be broken like a tree.

²¹The wicked one devours the barren women who have not borne children;

he does no good to the widow.

²²Yet God drags away the mighty people by his power;

he rises up and does not strengthen them in life.

²³God allows them to think they are secure, and they are happy about that, but his eyes are on their ways.

²⁴These people are exalted; still, in only a little while, they will be gone;
indeed, they will be brought low; they will be gathered up like all the others;
they will be cut off like the tops of ears of grain.

²⁵If it is not so, who can prove me to be a liar; who can make my speech worth nothing?"

Chapter 25

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

²"Dominion and fear are with him;
he makes order in his high places of heaven.

³Is there any end to the number of his armies?

Upon whom does his light not shine?

⁴How then can man be righteous with God?

How can he who is born of a woman be clean, acceptable to him?

⁵See, even the moon has no brightness to him;
the stars are not pure in his sight.

⁶How much less man, who is a worm—a son of man, who is a worm!"

Chapter 26

¹Then Job answered and said,

²"How you have helped one who has no power!
How you have saved the arm that has no strength!

³How you have advised one who has no wisdom and announced to him sound knowledge!

⁴With whose help have you spoken these words?
Whose spirit was it that came out from you?

⁵The dead are made to tremble, those who are beneath the waters and all who dwell in them.

⁶Sheol is naked before God; destruction itself has no covering against him.

⁷He stretches out the northern skies over the empty space, and he hangs the earth over nothing.

⁸He binds up the waters in his thick clouds, but the clouds are not torn under them.

⁹He covers the surface of the moon and spreads his clouds on it.

¹⁰He has engraved a circular boundary on the surface of the waters as the line between light and darkness.

¹¹The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his rebuke.

¹²He calmed the sea with his power;

by his understanding he shattered Rahab.

¹³By his breath he made the skies clear;

his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.

¹⁴See, these are but the fringes of his ways;

how small a whisper do we hear of him!

Who can understand the thunder of his power?"

Chapter 27

¹Job resumed speaking and he said,

²"As surely as God lives, who has taken away my justice, the Almighty, who made my life bitter,

³while my life is yet in me, and the breath from God is in my nostrils,

this is what I will do.

⁴My lips will not speak wickedness, neither will my tongue speak deceit; ⁵I will never admit that you three are right;

until I die I will never deny my integrity.

⁶I hold fast to my righteousness and will not let it go;

my thoughts will not reproach me so long as I live.

⁷Let my enemy be like a wicked man;

let him who rises up against me be like an unrighteous man.

⁸For what is the hope of a godless man when God cuts him off, when God takes away his life?

⁹Will God hear his cry

when trouble comes upon him?

¹⁰Will he delight himself in the Almighty and call upon God at all times?

¹¹I will teach you concerning the hand of God;

I will not conceal the thoughts of the Almighty.

¹²See, all of you have seen this yourselves;

why then have you spoken all this nonsense?

¹³This is the portion of a wicked man with God, the heritage of the oppressor that he receives from the Almighty:

¹⁴If his children multiply, it is for the sword;

his offspring will never have enough food.

¹⁵Those who survive him will be buried by plague, and their widows will make no lament for them.

¹⁶Though the wicked man heaps up silver like the dust, and heaps up clothing like clay,

¹⁷he may heap up clothing, but righteous people will put it on, and innocent people will divide up the silver among themselves.

¹⁸He builds his house like a spider, like a hut that a guard makes.

¹⁹He lies down in bed rich, but he will not keep doing so;

he opens his eyes, and everything is gone.

²⁰Terrors overtake him like waters;

a storm takes him away in the night.

²¹The east wind carries him away, and he leaves;

it sweeps him out of his place.

²²It throws itself at him and does not stop;
he tries to flee out of its hand.

²³It claps its hands at him and hisses him from his place.

Chapter 28

¹Surely there is a mine for silver, a place where they refine gold.

²Iron is taken out of the earth;
copper is smelted out of the stone.

³A man sets an end to darkness and searches out, to the farthest limit, the stones in obscurity and thick darkness.

⁴He breaks open a shaft away from where people live, places that are forgotten by anyone's foot.
He hangs far away from people; he swings to and fro.

⁵As for the earth, out of which comes bread, it is turned up below as if by fire.

⁶Its stones are the place where sapphires are found, and its dust contains gold.

⁷No bird of prey knows the path to it, nor has the falcon's eye seen it.

⁸The proud animals have not walked such a path, nor has the fierce lion passed there.

⁹A man lays his hand on the flinty rock;
he overturns mountains by their roots.

¹⁰He cuts out channels among the rocks;
his eye sees every valuable thing there.

¹¹He ties up the streams so they do not run;
what is hidden there he brings out to the light.

¹²Where will wisdom be found?

Where is the place of understanding?

¹³Man does not know its price;
neither is it found in the land of the living.

¹⁴The deep waters under the earth say, 'It is not in me';
the sea says, 'It is not with me.'

¹⁵It cannot be gotten for gold;
neither can silver be weighed as its price.

¹⁶It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with precious onyx or sapphire.

¹⁷Gold and crystal cannot equal it in worth;
neither can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.

¹⁸No mention is worth making of coral or jasper; indeed, the price of wisdom is more than rubies.

¹⁹The topaz of Cush does not equal it;
neither can it be valued in terms of pure gold.

²⁰From where, then, comes wisdom?
Where is the place of understanding?

²¹Wisdom is hidden from the eyes of all living things and is kept hidden from the birds of the heavens.

²²Destruction and Death say,
'We have heard just a rumor about it with our ears.'

²³God understands the way to it;
he knows its place.

²⁴For he looks to the very ends of the earth and sees under all the heavens.

²⁵He made the force of the wind and parceled out the waters by measure.

²⁶He made a decree for the rain and a path for the thunder.

²⁷Then he saw wisdom and announced it;
he established it, indeed, and he examined it.

²⁸To people he said,
'See, the fear of the Lord—that is wisdom;
to depart from evil is understanding.'"

Chapter 29

¹Job resumed speaking and said,
²"Oh, that I were as I was in the past months
when God cared for me, ³when his lamp shined on my head, and when I walked through darkness by his light.
⁴Oh, that I were as I was in the ripeness of my days when the friendship of God was on my tent, ⁵when the Almighty was yet with me, and my children were around me, ⁶when my way was covered with cream, and the rock poured out for me streams of oil!
⁷When I went out to the city gate,
when I sat in my place in the city square, ⁸the young men saw me and kept their distance from me in respect, and the aged people rose and stood for me.
⁹The princes used to refrain from talking when I came;
they would lay their hand on their mouths.
¹⁰The voices of the noblemen were hushed, and their tongue clung to the roof of their mouths.
¹¹For after their ears heard me, they would then bless me;
after their eyes saw me, they would then give witness to me and approve of me ¹²because I rescued the one who was poor when he cried out, and the one who had no father when he had no one to help him.
¹³The blessing of him who was about to perish came on me;
I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
¹⁴I put on righteousness, and it clothed me;

my justice was like a robe and a turban.

¹⁵I was eyes to blind people;

I was feet to lame people.

¹⁶I was a father to needy people;

I would examine the case even of one whom I did not know.

¹⁷I broke the jaws of the unrighteous man;

I plucked the victim out from between his teeth.

¹⁸Then I said, 'I will die in my nest;

I will multiply my days like the grains of sand.

¹⁹My roots are spread out to the waters, and dew lies all night on my branches.

²⁰The honor in me is always fresh, and the bow of my strength is always new in my hand.'

²¹To me men listened; they waited for me;

they stayed silent to hear my advice.

²²After my words were done, they did not speak again;

my speech dropped like water on them.

²³They always waited for me as they waited for rain;

they opened their mouth wide to drink in my words, as they would do for the latter rain.

²⁴I smiled on them when they did not expect it;

they did not reject the light of my face.

²⁵I selected their way and sat as their chief;

I lived like a king in his army, like one who comforts mourners.

Chapter 30

¹Now those who are younger than I have nothing but mockery for me—

these young men whose fathers I would have refused to allow to work beside the dogs of my flock.

²Indeed, the strength of their fathers' hands, how could it have helped me—men in whom the strength of their mature age had perished?

³They were thin from poverty and hunger;
they gnawed at the dry ground in the darkness of wilderness and desolation.

⁴They plucked saltwort and bushes' leaves;
the roots of the broom tree were their food.

⁵They were driven out from among people who shouted after them as one would shout after a thief.

⁶So they had to live in river valleys, in holes of the earth and of the rocks.

⁷Among the bushes they brayed like donkeys and they gathered together under the nettles.

⁸They were the sons of fools, indeed, sons of nameless people!
They were driven out of the land with whips.

⁹But now I have become the subject of their taunting song;
I have become a byword for them.

¹⁰They abhor me and stand far off from me;
they do not refrain from spitting in my face.

¹¹For God has unstrung the string to my bow and afflicted me, and those who taunt me cast off restraint before my face.

¹²Upon my right hand rise the rabble;
they drive me away and pile up against me their siege mounds.

¹³They destroy my path;
they push forward disaster for me, men who have no one to hold them back.

¹⁴They come against me like an army through a wide hole in a city wall; in the midst of the destruction they roll themselves in on me.

¹⁵Terrors are turned upon me;
my honor is driven away as if by the wind;
my prosperity passes away as a cloud.

¹⁶Now my life is pouring out from within me;
many days of suffering have laid hold on me.

17In the night my bones in me are pierced;
the pains that gnaw at me take no rest.

18God's great force has seized my clothing;
it wraps around me like the collar of my tunic.

19He has thrown me into the mud;
I have become like dust and ashes.

20I cry to you, God, but you do not answer me;
I stand up, and you merely look at me.

21You have changed and become cruel to me;
with the strength of your hand you persecute me.

22You lift me up to the wind and cause it to drive me along;
you throw me back and forth in a storm.^[1]

23For I know that you will bring me to death, to the house appointed for all the living.

24However, does no one reach out with his hand to beg for help when he falls?
Does no one in trouble call out for help?

25Did not I weep for him who was in trouble?
Did I not grieve for the needy man?

26When I hoped for good, then evil came;
when I waited for light, darkness came instead.

27My heart is troubled and does not rest;
days of affliction have come on me.

28I have gone about like one who was living in the dark, but not because of the sun;
I stand up in the assembly and cry for help.

29I am a brother to jackals,
a companion of ostriches.

30My skin is black and falls away from me;
my bones are burned with heat.

31Therefore my harp is tuned for songs of mourning, my flute for the singing of those who wail.

Chapter 31

- ¹I have made a covenant with my eyes;
how then should I look with desire on a virgin?
- ²For what is the portion from God above, the inheritance from the Almighty on high?
- ³I used to think that calamity is for unrighteous people, and that disaster is for doers of wickedness.
- ⁴Does not God see my ways and count all my steps?
- ⁵If I have walked with falsehood,
if my foot has hurried to deceit,
- ⁶let me be weighed in an even balance
so that God will know my integrity.
- ⁷If my step has turned aside from the way, if my heart has gone after my eyes,
if any spot has stuck to my hands,
- ⁸then let me sow, and let another eat, and let my crops be uprooted.
- ⁹If my heart has been deceived by a woman,
if I have lain in wait at my neighbor's door,
- ¹⁰then let my wife grind grain for another, and let others bow down on her.
- ¹¹For that would be a terrible crime;
indeed, it would be a crime to be punished by judges.
- ¹²For that is a fire that consumes as far as Abaddon, and it would burn all my harvest to the root.
- ¹³If I ignored the plea for justice from my male or female servant
when they argued with me,
- ¹⁴what then would I do when God rises up to accuse me?

When he comes to judge me, how would I answer him?

¹⁵Did the one who made me in the womb not make them also?

Did not the same one mold us all in the womb?

¹⁶If I have withheld poor people from their desire, or if I have caused the eyes of the widow to grow dim from crying,

¹⁷or if I have eaten my morsel alone and not allowed those without fathers to eat it also—¹⁸because from my youth the orphan grew up with me as with a father, and I have guided his mother, a widow, from my own mother's womb.

¹⁹If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, or if I have seen that a needy man had no clothing;

²⁰if his heart has not blessed me because he has not been warmed with the wool of my sheep,

²¹if I have lifted up my hand against fatherless people because I saw my support in the city gate, then bring charges against me!

²²If I have done these things, then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade, and let my arm be broken from its joint.

²³For I dreaded destruction from God;
because of his majesty, I was not able to do those things.

²⁴If I have made gold my hope, and if I have said to fine gold, 'You are what I am confident in';

²⁵if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, because my hand had gotten many possessions,
then bring charges against me!

²⁶If I have seen the sun when it shone, or the moon walking in its brightness,

²⁷and if my heart has been secretly attracted, so that my mouth has kissed my hand in worship of them—

²⁸this also would be a crime to be punished by judges, for I would have denied the God who is above.

²⁹If I have rejoiced at the destruction of anyone who hated me or congratulated myself when disaster overtook him,
then bring charges against me!

³⁰Indeed, I have not even allowed my mouth to sin by asking for his life with a curse.

³¹If the men of my tent have never said,
'Who can find one who has not been filled with Job's food?'

³²(even the foreigner has never had to stay in the city square, because I have always opened my doors to the traveler), and if that is not so, then bring charges against me!

³³If, like mankind, I have hidden my sins by hiding my guilt inside my tunic

³⁴(because I feared the great multitude, because the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silent and would not go outside),
then bring charges against me!

³⁵Oh, if only I had someone to hear me!
See, here is my signature; let the Almighty answer me!
